Your guide for metering on the upper Levels and any metering you do

Understanding the E-Meter by L. Ron Hubbard

Put an end to the painful struggle to understand the theory and inner-workings of the E-Meter! There has never been a device which can do what the E-Meter can! It's what makes going Clear and OT possible! Your understanding of its every detail can be brilliant! Understanding the E-Meter by L. Ron Hubbard will guide you through a wide and fascinating field of knowledge about how the E-Meter works, with some of the clearest descriptions and definitions ever; accompanied by dozens of illustrations and diagrams!

It goes far beyond a mere mechanical explanation because it clarifies exactly what the meter is dealing with — you as a spiritual being, the mind, the reactive mind, and the life force!

No other piece of equipment ever developed can do what an E-Meter can. With it, the unseen becomes visible — the state of being of any person can be told — and the exact emotional charge to address with Dianetics and Scientology auditing can be pinpointed and thus "blown away"!

But how does the E-Meter work? What does the needle react on? What is a floating needle and why does it "float"?

Open the first few pages and you'll begin to find the answers.

- ✳ What is a thetan?
- ✳ What is memory and how is it recorded?
- ✳ Do memories contain "mass" or "weight"?
- ✳ What is the electrical field around a body?
- ✳ How does this field affect one's health and well being?
- ✳ What exactly is an "anchor point"?
- ✳ Read Ron's amazing definitions for space and viewpoint!
- ✳ Find out how one's own directing of one's own attention activates mental image pictures and how heavy incidents get keyed in!
- ✳ Plus see clearly how the E-Meter in use locates and helps to finally eradicate mental charge, thus guiding one to true freedom!

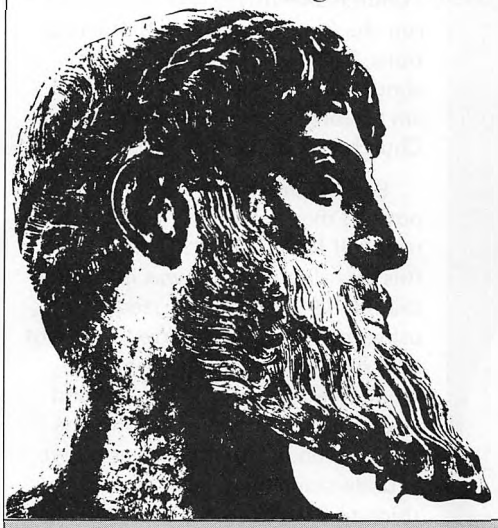

Understanding the E-Meter is a truly OT Book — it's a must for anyone who is moving up towards OT and for anyone who will use the E-Meter.

Plato taught that Man must break free of the chains that hold him back from knowing his true nature.

To my friends: – from Ron

Church executives and staffs now run the Churches and such organizations. They have been very good about handling mail, even though I am no longer connected to the Church and it is not my legal address.

But the other day I suddenly noticed there were only two mail bags full for the week. I asked what this was all about and was informed that earlier, an unauthorized person, using my lines, had inferred I did not ever see your mail. I almost wept. What an awful ARC break to hand you! And for no valid reason! The person who did that now has blown – understandably. What an awful thing to do to you!

Don't think these lines are out – they aren't. I am always happy to receive communication from you as to how you are doing in Scientology and progressing on up the Bridge.

I love your letters and I would miss them.

I look on the SO # 1 line as the only way I have of hearing from my friends. I am interested, man! Why else do you think I work so hard? YOU!

A man is as rich as he has friends – and that makes me the richest man in the world.

So don't get the idea you are not heard and are out of comm with me: It isn't true. You are heard. And appreciated.

From Clear to Eternity

As I continue to research, I never cease to be amazed at the amount of gain potentially available to an individual.

There are six rough divisions of case gain.

1. From raw public to a realization Scientology works and should be continued.
2. The realization that, through his auditing, one will not get any worse — an arrested decline.
3. The whole band of gains we call the lower Grades. The very least of these gains (and there are many) by pc testimony, is stated to exceed by far any advance in personal gain ever before achieved in any former practice known. (A simple flying of ruds can get more gain than ten years of psychoanalysis!)
4. The band that achieves in a final burst of glory and freedom, the state of Clear.
5. The pre-OT levels, leading to personal spiritual freedom. These carry up through all NOTs, audited and Solo. What is amazing here is that each one of these levels, according to rave reports, has, each one, its own spectacular level of gain.
6. The actual OT levels beginning now with New OT VIII and going on up.

According to the spiritual research records and pre-OT and OT reports, the AMOUNT of gain available to one person is never really conceived, in an aberrated state, to potentially exist above him.

It is a never-ending source of wonder to people, going truly on this route, that there could be such QUANTITY of gain available to one being.

Thus in an aberrated state, the person is not likely to turn his eyes up very high and still keep a reality on it.

In the age of speed, people may conceive it all should happen in a minute. Or maybe a minute and a half. Or as the result of a needle jab which will make them free forever.

Alas this universe isn't built that way.

This universe is based on QUANTITY. There's an awful lot of it.

The number of electrons in an atom, the number of atoms in a molecule, the number of molecules in a drop of water is awesome arithmetic.

The number of planets in systems, the number of suns in a galaxy, the number of galaxies add up to mind-boggling figures.

TIME, on this very short-lifed and hectic planet, is hardly conceived of at all. Just recently geologists concluded that Man might have been here for a million years. HAH! Little do they know!

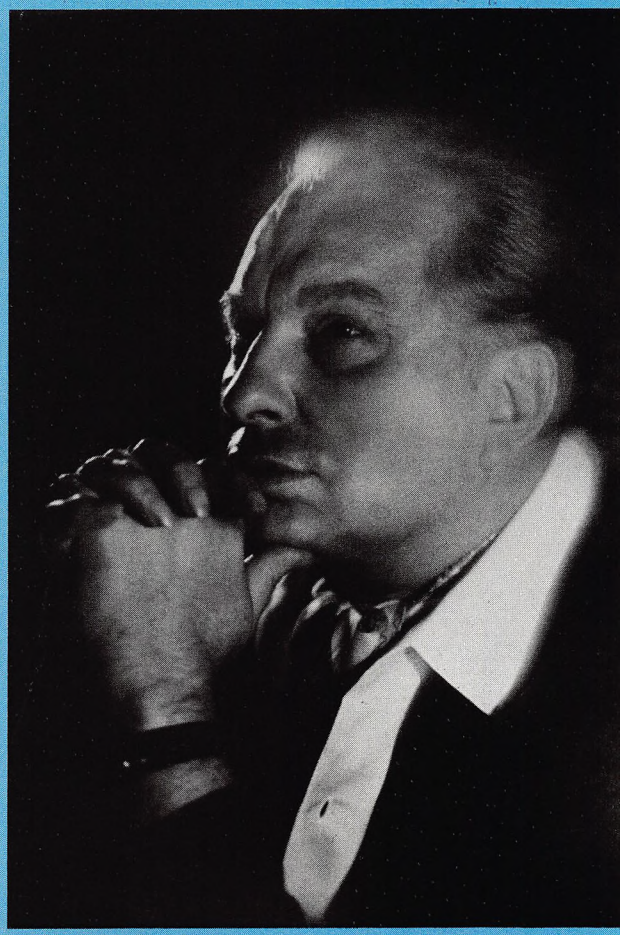

The age of this and other universes is very, very long. It is not eternity but almost.

So, without getting into questions as to how long you've been around (the brain theory boys might object since they are TERRIFIED of spirits) let's ask this question:

If a being had half an eternity to louse himself up, how loused up could he get?

Right. Go to the head of the class. Plenty!

And you now can get an inkling of how much spiritual gain might be available. And this could explain why, at each one of the six levels, there are so many new gains according to testimonies collected.

L. Ron Hubbard, Founder

All right. Got that? Good.

We now come to the next question, since one and all are being very bright this morning:

If it took a being half an eternity to louse himself up, how long would it take to unlouse him?

Now before your mouth turns down at both sides and before you collapse with apathy considering it, let's look at the miracle of Dianetics and Scientology.

It doesn't take half an eternity. It doesn't take millenia — though this could be reasonably expected. It doesn't take centuries. It

That's right. Years.

The above six rough divisions of gains are sort of an expanding scale.

The first one could take, with an intro or assist, maybe half an hour plus a few evenings reading books.

The next level (consisting of formal auditing and Purif), possibly could take a week or two.

The third level, consisting of the lower Grades and more books could, due to scheduling of time and all that, consume a month.

The fourth level, depending on the case, might take a bit longer. But it can result in Clear.

The fifth band now begins to really lengthen. To become a Solo Auditor and go up through the levels to OT III could take months. And through OT III can stretch out considerably. And then audited NOTs and Solo NOTs really adds time on. The gains of each point of progress can make, according to reports of pcs, progress at the lower end look like inches. Yet the lowest of these bands is above any progress Man had made before.

Now when we get to band six, get ready for a long haul. It won't happen in a minute.

So what we're looking at here is time proportional to reported gain.

Once one has gone Clear and gets to Solo, one has to plan one's time to each day put his auditing time in and just keep at it.

Some balk when they have gone a week. Life looks too interesting. Or they bog and are "too busy" to get a repair to get them going again. They are, after all, moving at a much faster pace personally — their interests may have multiplied.

But if they will just keep at it and make the arrangements necessary to be able to do it, according to the rave reports, it is very worthwhile.

So what is one really looking at? The higher the level the longer the time — because one is handling a higher band of potential gain.

And what is one rising to, after all?

One is rising to eternity.

You think time is behind you?

Have another thought. Look AHEAD.

There's eternity!

And you'll be in it.

You'll be in it in a good state or a bad one. Really, I'm sorry to have to tell you, there's no choice. One may be able to step off the planet. One isn't going to step off life.

In this time and in this place,— — for possibly just a little while, we have this chance. To go free and to make it. Planets and cultures are frail things. They do not endure.

I cannot promise you that you will make it. I can only provide the knowledge and give you your chance.

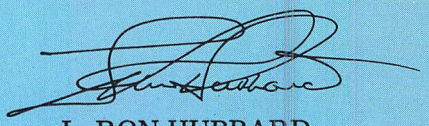

The rest is up to you.

I strongly advise you work hard at it — don't waste this brief breath in eternity.

For that is your future — ETERNITY.

It will be good for you or bad.

And for you, my dearest friend, I've done what I could to make it good for you.

PLATO

Plato Aristotle

Over 2,300 years ago, Plato taught that Man was a spiritual being, trapped in a body. Historically, he is most famous for his writings on law, ethics, and government. But his philosophy on the soul of man shines out brightest of all!

Advance! presents another milestone along the road to freedom.

Most of us have heard about Plato. We know from school that he was a great philosopher. Many call him the father of philosophy. His work in the study of the ideal government, on morals and law plus other related fields are very often the foundation for modern study in those fields.

But read the following and see if you ever heard or read anything like this coming from Plato in your history classes as a schoolchild.

"And were we not saying, long ago, that the soul, when using the body as an instrument of perception, that is to say, when using the sense of sight or hearing or some other sense, is then dragged by the body into the region of the changeable, and wanders and is confused; the world spins around her and she is like a drunkard, where she touches change?"

That's a quote from the translated works of Plato. He goes on to say that those people who are impure and believe only in the sensation of the body and the physical side of life, degrade themselves. They will be stuck or trapped at the death of the body and won't know what to do, but will lurk by their body's grave-site, all dark and massy. While that isn't word-for-word what Plato wrote, the idea was loud and clear.

Could this be the same philosopher who is revered so broadly in the hallowed halls of education?

As a Scientologist you easily recognized the idea here that man is a spiritual being. He occupies or uses the body as a tool of perception.

You have the advantage of already knowing much more about man, the mind, the thetan than anyone before or after Plato's time. So it is with clear "hindsight" we read this and say, "Of course! Why, Plato really had something there!"

But don't assume that everyone else understood it so clearly.

While he was hailed as a brilliant philosopher in many fields, when it comes to his work on the soul of man, the opinions and theories people have dreamed up to explain what they think Plato meant, can and do fill volumes and volumes of books!

Plato repeats this message over and over that the soul is the only truly important part of man. That it is the senior datum of importance over everything else.

Yet it is this very point which those who came after Plato missed. And missing that, it's no wonder that even while praising Plato's works in other fields, they could not bring about the envisioned results of his wisdom.

THE DIALOGUES

Plato taught through the writings of his "Dialogues" which are the most famous of his written works.

They are called Dialogues because in them he is speaking through various characters. It's as if he is writing a story, almost a historical one, with Socrates often as the key speaker. As the conversation develops, ideas are brought forth, truths are established. What starts out as a record of Socrates' teachings turns into what is obviously Plato's philosophy.

Now, take the above examples of what Plato said about the soul.

Did you spot the similarity to what Plato said and what we know now with Scientology? When Plato said that the soul, using the body as an instrument of perception, is then dragged by the body into the region of the changeable, and wanders and is confused, he really had something.

As Ron points out in the Tech Dictionary, a thetan is the only true static. "A static is something without mass, without wave-length, without time and actually without position.

& MAN'S SOUL

time and actually without position.

"It's something which has no motion. Theta has no motion. Even when the mest it controls is moving in space and time, theta is not moving, since theta is not in space or time."*

So a static is "unchangeable" and mest, on the contrary, is "changeable."

There's more.

In one of Plato's books, PHAEDO, one of the dialogues takes place in the prison where Socrates is being held. It is on the very day when Socrates will be executed.

Present in this dialogue are; Socrates, Appollodorus, Simmias, Cebes and Crito. They are talking with Socrates about the coming execution. Socrates is explaining why he will drink the hemlock when it is brought and why the true philosopher should not fear death at all.

(Socrates) "I mean to say, have sight and hearing any truth in them?

"Are they not, as the poets are always telling us, inaccurate witnesses. Then when does the soul attain truth? For in attempting to consider anything in company with the body she is deviously deceived."

"Then must not true existence be revealed to her (the soul) in thought, if if at all?

"And thought is best when the mind is gathered into itself and none of these things trouble her. Neither the sounds nor sights nor pain nor any pleasures. When she takes leave of the body and has as little as possible to do with it, when she has no bodily sense or desire, but aspiring after true being?"*

From SCIENTOLOGY 8-80 by L. Ron Hubbard,

"The name given to this life source is 'thetan.' It is the individual, the being, the personality, the knowingness of the human being.

"The state of the human being is artificial, the thetan using the body for his own pleasure and convenience. A thetan, having done so, ordinarily forgets he is doing so, and in order to increase his randomity initially, suppresses the fact that he is seperate from the body. He then becomes identified with the body to such a degree that should the body die, he abandons to it, he supposes, but not actually, all the facsimiles which have been accumulated for that body.

"If the preclear refers to 'his thetan,' he has not identified himself, since he supposes his thetan to be something else, or elsewhere. He is the thetan, and when he is in a state of knowingness, he nows where he is. If he is in a state of unknowingness, which is to say identified with the body, he does not know where he is."

ANCIENT GREECE

Plato had an inkling of this truth, though he had no technology to do anything about it. He could only direct others to question and to honestly look and dig for the truth, not to accept life at face value.

The old saying, "the truth shall set you free," would sum up the concept of how to attain freedom in Plato's philosophy.

But imagine yourself 2400 years ago with a positive certainty that man was a spirit, not his body or anything else. And you look around you and see a society which was full of materialism. On one side you have people who still hold to the belief that the gods control man's destiny. On the other you have the materialistic people striving to gain more wealth and power for themselves regardless of how many people they have to climb over.

It actually was that way during Plato's time. His teachings on morals were aimed at handling that viewpoint.

How would you go about showing people the possibility that higher levels of existence could be attained?

Could it even be done?

Plato wrote his Myth of the World of Shadows and Reality in an attempt to do just that.

It is from his book, REPUBLIC, with Socrates as the main character. He is talking to Glaucon.

"And now, let me show in a figure how far our nature is enlightened or unenlightened.

"Behold! Human beings, living in an underground den, which has a mouth open towards the light and reaching all along the den: here they have been from their childhood, and have their legs and necks chained so that they cannot move, and can only see before them . . .

"Above and behind them a fire is blazing at a distance, and between the fire and the prisoners there is a raised way; and you will see if you look, a low wall built along the way, like a screen which marionnette players have in front of them over which they show the puppets.

"And do you see men passing along the wall carrying all sorts of vessels and statues and figures of animals made of wood and stone and various materials which appear over the wall?"

(Glaucon) "You have shown me a strange image, and they are strange prisoners."

(Socrates) "Like ourselves, and they see only their own shadows, or the shadow of another which the fire throws on the opposite wall of the cave.

"And of the objects which are being carried in like manner, they would only see the shadows?"

(Glaucon) "Yes."

(Socrates) "And if they were able to converse with one another would they not suppose they were naming what was actually before them?"

(Glaucon) "Very true."

(Socrates) "And suppose further that the prisoners had an echo which came from the other side, would they not be sure to fancy when one of the passers-by spoke, that the voice which they heard came from the passing shadow?"

(Glaucon) "No question."

(Socrates) "And now look again, and see what will naturally follow if the prisoners are released and disabused of their error. At first, when any of them is liberated and compelled suddenly to stand up and turn his neck around and walk and look towards the light, he will suffer sharp pains; the glare will distress him and he will be unable to see the realities of which in his former state he had seen the shadows; and then conceive some one saying to him, that what he saw before was an illusion, but that now when he is approaching nearer to being and his eye is turned towards more real existence, he has a clearer vision — what will be his reply? And you may imagine that his instructor is pointing to the objects as they pass and requiring that he name them — will he not be perplexed? Will he not fancy that the shadows which he formerly saw are truer than the objects which are now shown him?"

(Glaucon) "Far truer!"

(Socrates) "And if he is compelled to look straight at the light, will he not have a pain in his eyes which will make him turn away to take refuge in the objects of vision which he can see, and which he will conceive to be in reality, clearer than the things which are now being shown to him?"

(Glaucon) "True."

(Socrates) "And suppose once more, that he is reluctantly dragged up a steep and rugged ascent and held fast until he is forced into the presence of the sun himself. Is he not likely to be pained and irritated? When he approaches the light his eyes will be dazzled and he will not be able to see anything at all, of what are now called realities."

> "...each pleasure and each pain is a sort of nail which nails and rivets the soul to the body..."
> Plato

(Glaucon) "Not all in a moment."

(Socrates) "He will require to grow accustomed to the sight of the upper world. And first he will see the shadows best, next the reflections of men and other objects in the water, and the objects themselves; then he will gaze upon the light of the moon and the stars and the spangled heavens; and he will see the sky and the stars by night better than the sun or the light of the sun by day?"

(Glaucon) "Certainly."

(Socrates) "Last of all he will be able to see the sun and not merely reflections of him in the water, but he will see him in his own proper place, and not in another and he will contemplate him as he is?"

(Glaucon) "Certainly."

(Socrates) "He will then proceed to argue that this is he who gives the season and the years and is the guardian of all that is in the visible world and in a certain way, the cause of all things which he and his fellows have been accustomed to behold?"

(Glaucon) "Clearly he would first see the sun and then reason about him."

(Socrates) "And when he remembered his old habitation, and the wisdom of the den and his fellow prisoners, do you not suppose that he would felicitate [make happy] himself and pity them?"

(Glaucon) "Certainly."

(Socrates) "And if they were in the habit of conferring honors among themselves on those who were quickest to observe the passing shadows and to remark which of them went before and which of them followed after, and which were together; and who were therefore best able to draw conclusions as to the future, do you think that he would care for such honors or glories or envy the possessors of them? Would he not say with Homer, 'better to be the poor servant of a poor master.' "

"And to endure anything rather than think as they do and live after their manner?"

(Glaucon) "Yes."

(Socrates) "Imagine once more, such a one coming suddenly out of the sun to be replaced in his old situation; would he not be certain to have his eyes full of darkness?"

(Glaucon) "To be sure."

(Socrates) "And if there were a contest, and he had to compete in measuring the shadows with the prisoners, who had never moved out of the den, while his sight was still weak, and before his eyes had become steady, would he not be ridiculous? Men would say of him that up he went and came down without his eyes; and that it was better not even to think of ascending; and if any one tried to loose another and lead him up to the light let them only catch the offender, and they would put him to death."

(Glaucon) "No question."

(Socrates) "This entire allegory you may now append [add as a supplement] dear Glaucon, to the previous argument; the prison-house is the world of sight, the light of the fire is the sun — and you will not missapprehend me if you interpret the journey upwards to be the ascending of the soul into the intellectual world, according to my poor belief, which at your desire, I have expressed, whether rightly or wrongly, god knows."

From here Plato goes on to compare how Socrates is in a situation similar to this. He sought out truth and came back to help others, only to find himself having to defend himself in courts and fight against those who could only see or believe in the "shadows" and who had never tried to see the "real" world.

The theme arises in many places of Platos work that man must strive to break the chains of his entrapment to the body. If only people would strive for knowledge and truth. Through truth the chains are thrown off and the shadow world can be left behind. Then one can discover the true universe from whence all originates.

But there was no such method, no set of steps one could apply to spring people from the trap.

In another section of his book, PHAEDO, Plato says,

"The evil is that when the feeling of pleasure or pain is most intense, every soul of man imagines the objects of this intense feeling to be the plainest and truest: but this is not so, they are really the things of sight. This is the state in which the soul is most enthralled by the body.

"Because each pleasure and pain is a sort of nail which nails and rivets the soul to the body until she becomes like the body and believes that to be true which the body affirms to be true;

"And from agreeing with the body and having the same delights she is obliged to have the same habits and haunts and is not likely to be pure at her departure to the world below, but is always infected by the body and so she sinks into another body. . ."

Here we find an echoing of ideas expressed by Buddha and the Vedic Hymns. Buddha taught that only by living a life free of the desire for sensation could one hope to unleash oneself from the body and the endless cycle of birth, death and rebirth.

But man's attempts at improving his lot eventually run into those few who cannot stand to see others improve. Suppressive persons know that if they had the power to, they would do everyone in, so of course they in turn believe that others also have such evil intentions. And that anyone getting better or more able will then get them. Hence they attack and dedicate themselves to destroying any helpful movement or activity.

In Plato's time the Greek Government attacked both Socrates and Plato. After slipping the hemlock to Socrates they kept their eye on Plato, plus the journalists of the day had their time to blast him.

What he was missing was a way to apply what he had learned so that some form of way out could be made.

He discovered the nature of the soul and of man, but missed the existence of the Reactive Mind, which underlies the true reasons why beings do get trapped.

His ideas set the trend for philosophy for the next few thousands of years. From the Romans, to the Mystics of the Middle Ages right on up to present time, Plato's philosophy lives on.

But not until today has there been an actual bridge from the degraded condition of being stuck in a body, up to the lofty heights of freedom as an OT !

Plato knew that somehow, somewhere, the "truth shall set you free." But in his time he ultimately fell far short of his goal.

Time and again this earth has seen the brilliant flash of insight from some far-seeing prophet, only to lose it as it burns out in the dark sky of man's ignorance and the hidden influence of the Reactive Mind.

Dianetics was the first workable breakthrough and the Reactive Mind was isolated, with practical steps anyone could use to get rid of it!

Scientology formed as Ron's research into the mind led him to the field of the spirit. Man was, and it could be proven that he was, an immortal being. Where Plato knew there were chains binding man in a trap, the truth of the situation was far more deadly and serious.

Ron had proven the theories of Plato and gone far beyond them with the breakthrough, in 1967, of "The Wall of Fire."

"The mystery of this universe and this particular area of the universe has been, as far as its track is concerned, completely occluded. No one has ever been able to make any breakthrough and come off with it, and know what happened. As a matter of fact it is so occluded that if anyone tried to penetrate it, as I am sure many have — they died. The material involved in this sector is so vicious that it is carefully arranged to kill anyone if he discovers the exact truth of it.

"My task was to find some way to safely bring through individuals. It was not enough for I myself to have lived through it; other people would have to do it as well.

"I was finally able to make a breakthrough which brought people through the zone safely.

"I don't mind telling you it took some doing. In all the 18 years, this has been the toughest one that I have faced. And I faced it so that it would not be tough for you to face it when you came to it.

"In the lower grades one is mainly concerned with himself and his own case or his immediate family. But as one moves up the line, one becomes more concerned with the environment and the world in which he lives. With this concern comes the realization that all has not been well.

"It is very true that a great catastrophe occurred. Since that time it has been a desert and it has been the lot of just a handful to try to push its technology up to a level where someone might adventure forward — penetrate the catastrophe and undo it. We are well on our way to making this occur.

"As one's ability to confront increases his level of responsibility increases. And an OT cannot be OT in a world which is insane or a universe which is mad.

"Although the scope of the work is almost unimaginably extensive, it is nevertheless true that we are making definite and positive inroads upon this and we will bring it off. We are no longer dealing with the time span of Man which is 70 years, we are dealing with the centuries.

"I will see you up the line, at the other end of the Bridge."

Plato came so close in his descriptions of man as an immortal soul, trapped in a shadow world, unable to break the binds and reach his natural condition, except through the truth.

And now the truth of this planet and this particular part of the universe can be known.

By following the streamlined bridge to Clear and then on to the Pre-OT Levels at the Advanced Organization, the deepest hopes of the ages can be realized at long last!

Follow the road out. Your freedom is at hand. Begin.

PROUD ELISYA

Do you remember proud Elisya?
Do you remember the Space Cookers on the other side of Mars?

The roar of winds that rushed before the war dimmed the stars? Do you recall the tall trees of Jupiter when they spread their branches above the Spaceport wall of the great ships? And do you remember when we all gathered and sang the songs that shook the halls where we shook our secret grips?

Do you remember Jupiter in the light of its four moons before the serpent came? The Proud men of Io, Callisto, Europa and Ganymede who had never lost the battle game? Remember proud Elisya who rode the mother ship, the proud eagle of Lance? Bright Elisya who broke the bore and crushed the battlers with a glance?

Do you then remember her consort Diadon who swore the fealty oath on the galaxy rim? When all of us stood holding the purple robes and the silver probes to Coradin? Diadon was the admiral brave who led us through the black brimmed haze. Who found the way among the broken ships and stars and solved the electronic maze.

We were proud then before the storm of fire.
We were brave then and would never tire.
We were few but hardly small.
We fought them on the mall.

Now we have come from out the long sleep and follow him who never slept. We have come from across space deep. Into time again we have stepped.

And there is the game!
There is the Game!
And there is life!

This is life!

And we climb the spiral stair
Following the flaming hair.

We lift from the face of earth.
We have regained our loss of mirth.

We fly against the rage of hate.
We build, we know, we create.

And this is the game!
It was ever the Game!

Do you Remember Proud Elisya and Coradin?

The History of Therapy

It might strike you as peculiar that while this universe has been sitting here this long, nobody has ever gotten very practical about digging anybody out of it.

There's a very good reason for this. The guys who consistently remain in charge are usually in sufficiently good shape that they are not terribly worried about their own condition.

So it makes a continuous authoritative level of "not interested." That's quite interesting, because even today, I suppose, new blood comes into this universe and they haven't gone the route. By the time they have, they've usually lost out and so are no longer in a position of authority.

But there have been spells of auditing of sorts. You wouldn't call it auditing. As much as I've been around in this universe, I have never encountered an effective therapy. It goes contrary to the fondest hopes of the religionists. It rather plows-in the legend of the "Kahunakapuna" and all they had to do was go "Kahunakapuna" and something happens. This is an unworkable level. There haven't been workable therapies.

There have been "by-the-bootstraps" recoveries which are rather spectacular. And as you look back over the whole track, you'll find that you've been going on a roller coaster. You have spent some time as a "meat body," and the next thing you know, why, there you were, operating as a thetan! And then for a while, why, you're pushing a doll body around. Then "boom" – why you're an operating thetan. Then you're pushing a meat body around for a while, and then spend a few million or trillion years in a trap or something like that. Then you come out the other end of it and suddenly and mysteriously, there you are chucking planets around. This is all very difficult for a person to reconcile.

There isn't one of you who hasn't been in meat bodies on the whole track many, many times in many, many places. And you followed this by being an OT.

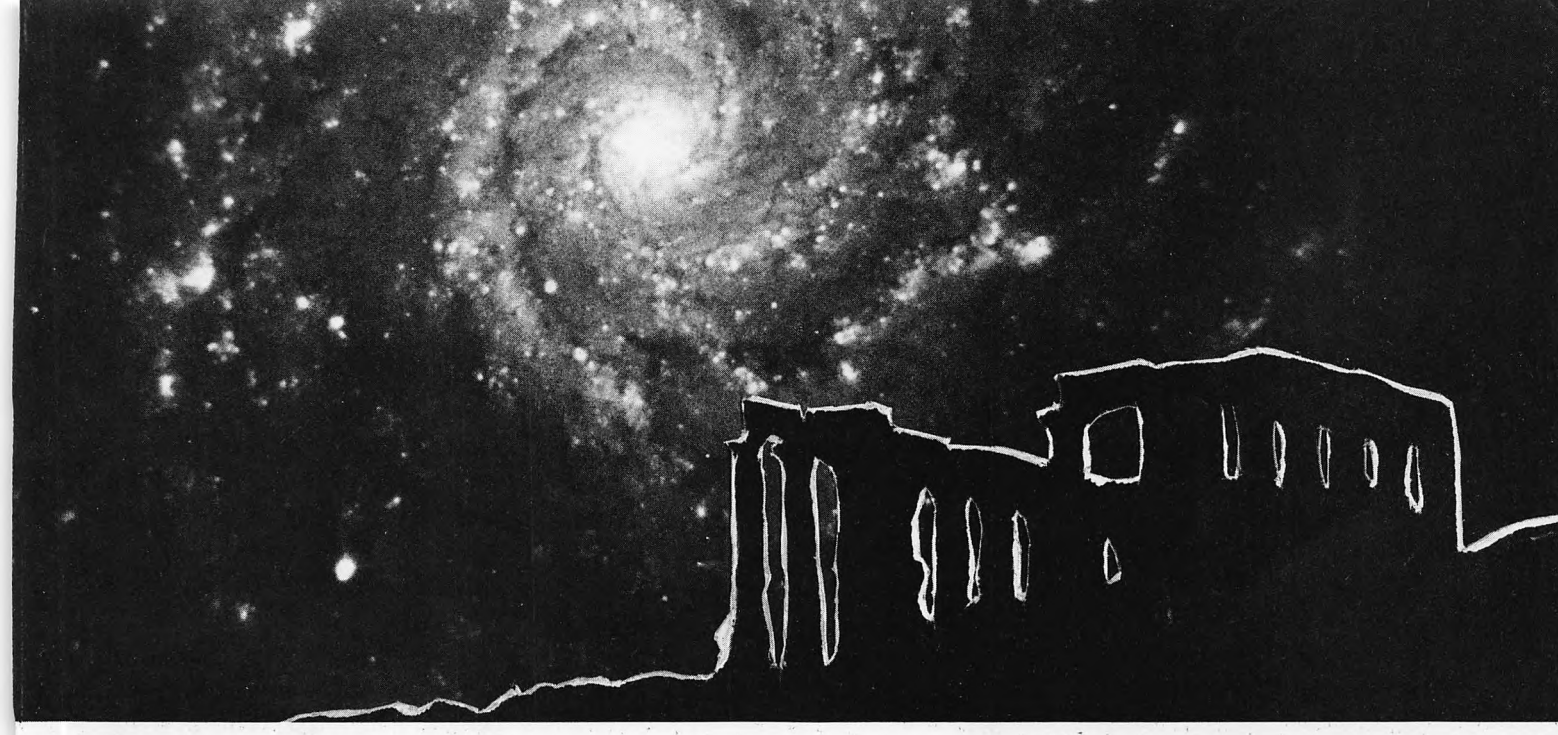

This is vitally necessary to your understanding of the situation, because it gives you false hope.

You say, "Well, what must have turned the dials on my life like this?" "What mysterious thing happened that would suddenly make me nine Empire State Buildings[1] tall?" "And what turn of the road did I hit that brought me into a state where I could cut a planet in half and serve it up as watermelon?" "What did I suddenly do that brought this about?" "How come a few trillenia later here I am being a professor in the college of fine arts in Hoosegow University?"

It's very dizzying. Up one minute, down the next.

You go along the track looking for a miracle. It must have been a miracle, because you didn't know anything about it. Very peculiar things have gone on. You were on a stake-trap of some kind or another. Some bird out of the goodness of his heart grabbed you by the scruff of the neck and threw you up into the sky. Or somebody else fortuitously[2] put a charge in the planet that you happened to be trapped on and blew it to flinders[3] and you went flying out into space. Then, the next thing you know, there you are, tromping around in your bare feet, a light-year tall.

[1] Empire State Building – one of the largest buildings in the world, located in New York City, it is 1,472 feet high. It was at one time the tallest building in the world.

You say to yourself, "Well, it must have been that I just felt that way when I was on the stake and when I was off the stake, why then I felt okay. It can't happen to me again." But the next thing you know, there you are, pushing a broom at Hoosegow University, feeling very apathetic.

I'd like to point out something to you. The cycle is getting shorter. That's the trick. You stay up less long and go down quicker. What is this mysterious thing that suddenly brings you into prominence where you're flexing the biceps[4] in all directions? What is this mysterious thing?

Well, I can't even now give you a full answer that I would guarantee to stay solid for the next some trillenia of years, but it's the opportunity more than anything else, and a necessity level.

You see, you aren't naturally a matchbox tall. That's probably 90% of the answer. You aren't naturally only two inches high.

You occasionally have not wanted to be pushed around. You've just wanted to go and sit on a cloud for 9,000 years and recover. I almost tore up a valley one time on just this one basic fact. They wanted to give me some treatment. Well, the treatment is no good. You get knocked out in a crash, and they say, "Well, let's fix him up." My whole attitude was, "Why don't you go off someplace and get lost? I just want to sit here on this rock until my head stops spinning, see?" No, they had to hand out treatment.

The funny part of it is if I had just sat on a rock for another thousand years or something like that, and admired the sunsets an and sunrises, I would have probably come out of almost anything I would have gotten into. Because I wasn't trapped there, and nothing bad was happening to me. You never really had that opportunity.

Life is a very interesting activity. If you were going at it hammer and tongs and were not being degraded in the process, you really wouldn't feel like you needed a vacation.

How come everybody wants a vacation? You see it in the struggles a person has trying to get a vacation and in the glee with which some other people say they've just been on one.

That vacation is a token payment on the possible opportunity of having a hundred thousand years to sit on Mount Everest and admire the snowfall. Because you'd know you would be better. The universe itself, if you delete incident from it, is therapeutic.

Although you can look on this universe as a big, basic trap, it is mostly a trap because it lets people get at people. In itself, it is not very aberrative in that direction.

You look at this as the ordinary condition of life now; to be in a meat body and to be quite small. Actually, that's not the ordinary condition of life. That's an extraordinary condition of life. Very extraordinary. It takes quite a bit to get a person into that state.

Every once in a while you run into somebody and they're allergic to boot polish or something like that. You'll ask them to recall a time when they swiped or ate their mother's boot polish and "bang," they do, and "bang," they're no longer allergic to boot polish. "Well, isn't this wonderful," you might say. "I have achieved a near miracle!" Yes, you have. No doubt about it.

What you haven't looked at is the unnaturalness to have an allergy to boot polish. That's terribly unnatural. It takes a great deal of publicity, it takes a great deal of working at it to keep everybody down. The enthusiasm that this has to be worked at is rather phenomenal. It does take 16 billion per annum appropriations on the part of the so-called government for psychiatric treatments for one and all. And Siberia for anyone who doesn't agree with them politically. It takes that much money, that much effort. It takes that many TV screens. It takes that many misguided mothers who say, "Johnny, you must not get your feet wet." It takes this whole operation. And you never looked at it as a worked-at organization. You've looked at it as a natural operation.

Take the spinbins.[5] Look how busy they are in a spinbin. Ever been in a hospital? You're lying there at six o'clock in the morning and "crash," on go the lights. "Bang," the door opens. Somebody's standing there with a the thermometer. They've got to "do" constantly. I think there was a hospital someplace, where they were understaffed and they produced some remarkable cures.

At the same time it isn't true that if you just went on sitting still for any quantity of years that you would necessarily get well. It would all depend on what condition you were sitting still in. If you were sitting still in the head of an idol someplace in an abandoned temple for a few trillenia, you might not deteriorate but you certainly would not improve either.

No, the power of choice has got to be there to sit still. And that is what gets overset entirely.

The entire economic system that we have now is completely rigged to overthrow the power of choice to sit still. You can't do it. Games are lots of fun, but here are enforced games. It is no accident that money keeps inflating and people keep fooling with money. That's because the impulse is there to make the economic noose tighter and tighter and tighter.

Where could you go right now and simply sit down in a meat body on this planet and be free of the economic clutches. Well, not too many years ago you could go up to the back woods of Alaska or something like that. I even know of some places in Montana. You could probably disappear in there and years, decades would go by and nobody would even know you were around.

These places are disappearing and there are no desert islands now where you can go and sit under the pago-pago tree and have nothing to do. They've all been atom-bombed or taken over.

It's quite remarkable when you come right down to it, all the progress is directed toward tightening the economic noose, at this time. This of course shortens up the amount of available time you have which of course gives you more problems. This once more overthrows your power of choice. And so there is no chance to rest.

Now of course, if you're in good shape, you don't want to rest. But bad shape has to be maintained. People have to work at it to keep people in bad condition.

How long can a person stay in a trap and not get any better, even though he's not being hurt? Well, I can tell you on very good authority, thirteen point ninety-four trillion, trillion years. He didn't get any better. Why? Well, he was sitting in a mass. And he didn't want to be there. The beingness factor and power of choice were all knocked out.

Sooner or later you're going to find a pc who has incidents that run up into trillions of trillions, maybe thousands of trillions of trillions, you see. They've been stuck on this sun for trillions of trillions of trillions of years. Big time periods. But all that time they are being harrassed by the fact that they are not there by choice. They are also harrassed by the engram of their original arrival. They are protesting their situation, in other words. As long as a thetan protests, he is not free. He won't get any better.

Now what you know and what you have in your possession

PHENOMENA OT PHENOMENA

While in Los Angeles doing OT III, I decided I'd go to the child care center in San Francisco and visit my son. I exteriorized and went to the place and it was empty of all children, toys and nannies. I noticed there were little messages all over the space from these people, "We're gone, left, not coming back." "Moved over to that place over there." I relocated my son and followed the "signs" in the postulate messages left behind. I found myself in a new child care center complete with nannies, toys and children and my son. I had a nice visit with him and popped back to L.A. The next day I got a letter from my husband telling me that the child care center had moved. — D.G.

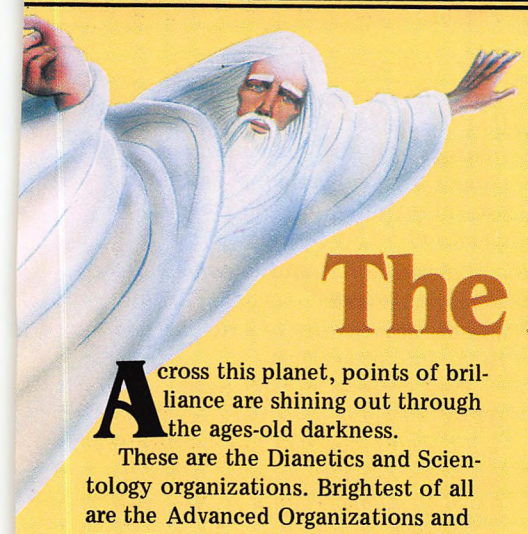

As I was walking to my car one day last month, and as I was about to open the door and get in, a young fellow rushed up to me and asked if I had a coat hangar. I didn't and asked what the trouble was. He said he'd locked his keys in his car and that he'd been struggling with it for an hour. He'd been waiting for the AAA (American Auto Association) for a half hour. I told him that I might be able to get my arm through the window thinking that my arm might be smaller, so I walked over to the car and tried, but to no avail. After I pulled my arm away from the door he stuck his arm inside the window and pulled the latch and the door opened. As I was about to turn and walk back to my car he looked right at me, rather stunned, and said, "I guess I just needed your presence to do it," and we both went our ways. — A.D.

My freedom to "do" has expanded to an extent I have never known before.

I have been in Scientology for 13 years and it's always been marvelous. I had handled quite a lot in that time.

But what I have handled now on New OT V — Audited NOTs — is far beyond anything I'd ever dreamed of.

I have revived my purposes, my truth, myself. I got rid of headaches which used to affect me. I recovered a clear, sharp eyesight I'd never had in this lifetime. (Doctors had explanations for it, but if they knew what it really was . . . .) It's hard to remember all the wins and cognitions. Every session brought tens, even hundreds of them. Above all, I know a new life is beginning for me. I will never be the same again. The "figure-figure" is gone. I want to DO, to ACT, to be fast, to fill up my days with positive work. I want to use Scientology to be cause. This must be the most incredible discovery by Ron — Audited NED for OTs, "the Second Wall of Fire." — M.E.

Gateway to ETERNITY

The ADVANCED ORGS

Across this planet, points of brilliance are shining out through the ages-old darkness.

These are the Dianetics and Scientology organizations. Brightest of all are the Advanced Organizations and Flag. For it is at these Orgs that a being moves up and finally breaks through the "wall of fire" and onto NED for OTs to truly become himself — free from overwhelm, free from the millenia-old mystery which ensured that each being would become the prisoner of his own reactive mind.

The AOs then are the ultimate "pathway out." It is only by doing the whole Bridge and getting up through New OT V — Audited NED for OTs and then at Flag doing New OT VI — Solo NOTs Auditing Course and New OT VII — Solo NOTs Auditing, that you can truly survive in eternity!

History of the Advanced Orgs

Each AO proudly displays the golden "wreath and star" of the Sea Organization. Only the Sea Org is entrusted with delivering the upper levels. They are Ron's guardians of the Bridge; the OT Orgs. Their purpose is to bring the light of complete spiritual freedom to this planet and the rest of the universe!

Advanced Org Los Angeles

Located in Hollywood, California, famous for its movie stars, AOLA turns out its own "stars" — pre-OTs all shiny and bright with their regained powers and abilities! AOLA is at the top of the famous "Pacifica" (Cedars Complex) which forms a complete Bridge for the Americas!

Apollo AO

At the original site of Ron's research into the OT Levels, Saint Hill England, this AO guards the "gateway" to freedom for Scientologists in England, Australia and New Zealand. It was here that the OT levels were born and where earlier, Ron lectured to students of the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course and created "case-cracking" auditors to help Clear the planet faster through standard tech!

Renamed the "Apollo AO" this OT Org carries on the Sea Org tradition. A special Sea Org museum featuring artifacts from the original Flagship of the Sea Org, the Apollo, now exists on the Saint Hill grounds!

Advanced Organization — Saint Hill Europe and Africa

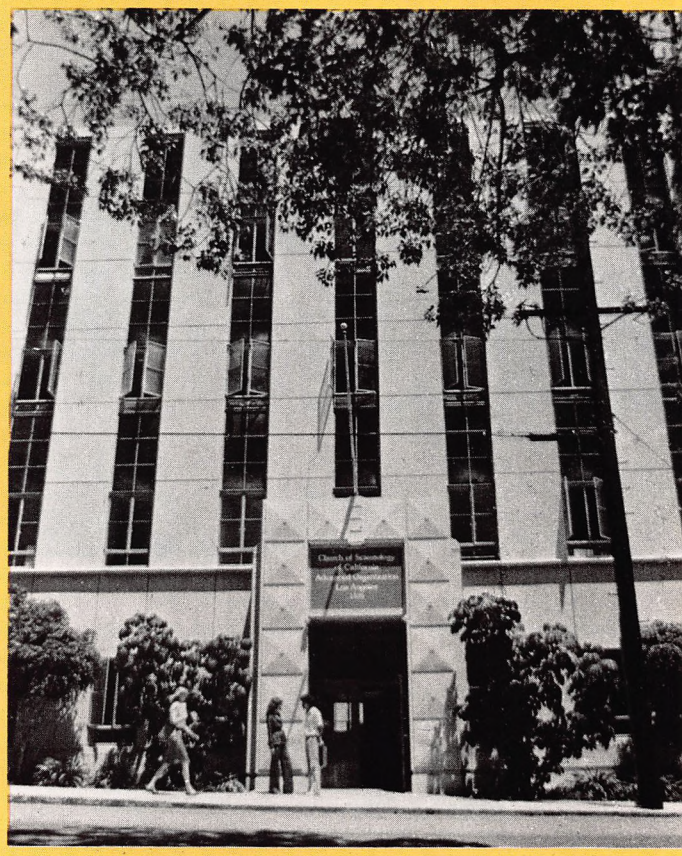

In the heart of Copenhagen, the legendary European city, Scientologists flock to AOSH EU & AF for their pre-OT levels. levels. But at this AO, real-life fantasies come true. The miracles of Scientologists going free and becoming more and more OT are the real "fantastic stories" in Europe!

Originally set up aboard the Sea Org vessel "Kastleholm," AOSH EU & AF is dedicated to bringing about an OT civilization starting with Europe and Africa!

Non-stop wins at the AO!

A typical day in the AO surpasses previous civilizations' dreams. It's magical, it's fast-paced, the volume of free theta being released is enormous!

The Advanced Org of Los Angeles, the "top" of the Bridge in Los Angeles' "Pacifica" (Cedars Complex).

"My last two months here at the AO were the most remarkable in my entire history! These levels rehabilitate those abilities you do have but were unable to use. It's going free from the traps you've been in for the last few trillions of years!"

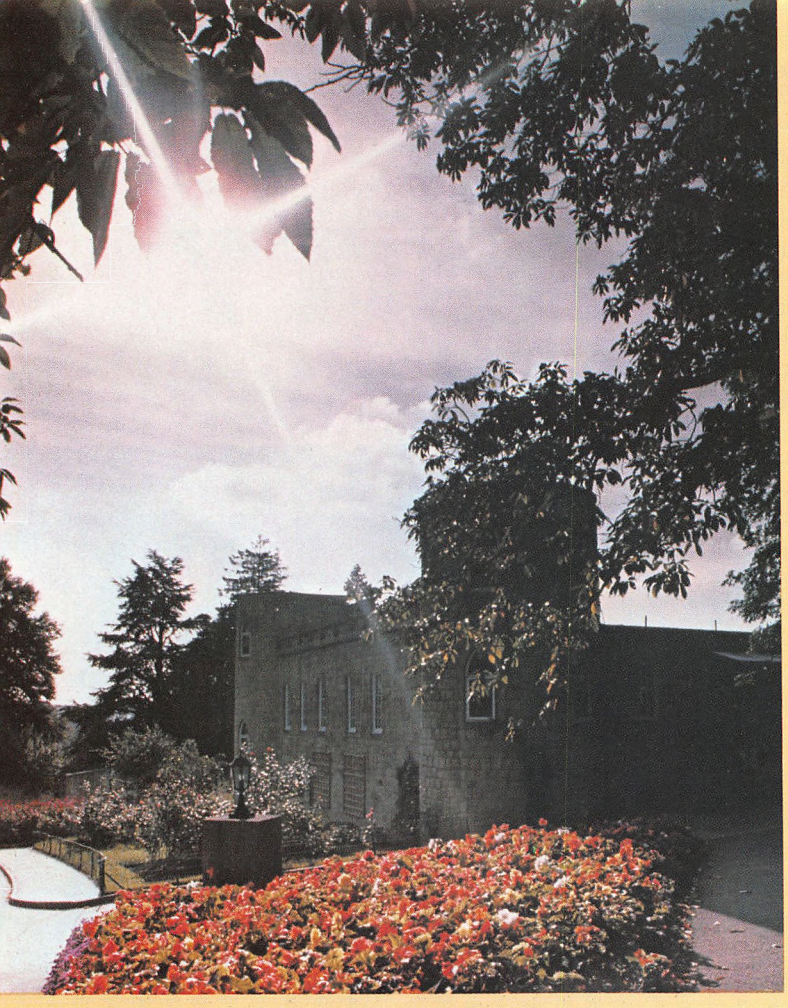

P.M. on lines at AOLA

"My auditing and service at the AO were top-notch! The auditors here are superlative!"

Ken Gentry, South Africa

auditing action to make sure you're in excellent shape to start your Solo Auditing. If your previous auditing has been at all rough, OT Preparation auditing can fully recover any latent gains for you. It's designed to bring about a Clear in good case shape who will do well on the OT Levels!

OT I:

Jorgen Jorgenson, who recently completed OT I said, "It is the best thing which has happened to me in millions of years. I give my full admiration to L. Ron Hubbard for his development of this simple, but fantastic and powerful tech."

Bob Fine had this to say when he finished OT I, "This level was very subtle but the results were very obvious. I'm more aware of myself as regards to others and the physical universe. A friend commented that I'm getting brighter looking each day!"

OT II:

"What I liked most about OT II was how I really feel that things which had stopped me for a very long time have gone away. I feel more and more free to operate. It's a wonderful feeling.

"I would tell anyone who is working on getting up to these levels not to Q & A one day. I did Q & A for years, but if I had had known what was on these levels before, I would have been here at the AO seven years ago!"

R.W.

OT III:

Siegfried Engel finished OT III and had this to say;

"This level gave me very good gains. I feel in great condition on all dynamics. It acts as a driving force. I feel I have more power. When I went Clear I did reach greater control but there were still automaticities running. On OT III I found out what was happening. It enlarged my ability to control and increase my own self-determinism and my affinity for people!

"My biggest win during OT III was regaining the ability to postulate! With OT III you become more yourself and you become a very powerful and happy being."

Another recent OT III, Paul Adriaansz says, "This level is very validating. I think the best thing was realizing that I could handle my own case. I found that the tech simply works! Whatever anyone has that they feel needs to be handled can be handled. You'll be amazed what this level can do!"

Josef Bey; "OT III is a very important level on the third and fourth dynamics. It's vital that everyone make it to OT III rapidly.

"You gain so much knowledge. It's the solution to the problems of this planet! It's very important to get up to OT III."

New OT IV — OT Drug Rundown:

Pier Paderni of Italy states, "I've gained full certainty of my position in this game. I have full certainty that this makes you a real OT in relationship to the arts and all other dynamics. I gained certainty that I can project my intention and make things change or be, by postulates.

"If you really want to come closer to more understanding of the truth and the basic ability of a thetan, you have to do New OT IV!"

Vega Ostlund had this to say of her OT IV, "I know now that I'm not a body and I know that I know that. It's not just a concept anymore. I feel it. It's great auditing and it cleans up all sorts of things."

David M., of Florida; "It's very OT auditing. It moves at a velocity undreamed of at lower levels. The amount of charge handled in a unit of session time can be staggering! My perceptions kept going up and up. I was surprised to see that there was indeed a lot of charge along the track tied in with what this rundown handles. With that out of the way, you're all set to fly on NED for OTs (New OT V)."

New OT V — Audited NED for OTs:

"I feel new-born. Since I started this level I know that Scientology will win. In just the time of this generation, with a lot of work, we'll make it," asserts E. Hedinger on lines at AOSH

Pier Paderni, "I gained certainty that I can project my intention and make things change or be, by postulates."

EU & AF.

"What I like most about New OT V is the results!" says Dana Zanabom. "Things go faster and without effort. That's the biggest thing; the results — do this level and you'll know just about everything about life!"

Laverne Jardine, who completed New OT V and is now done on New OT VI and is busy with her Solo NOTs auditing — New OT VII!

"My biggest win on Audited NOTs was straightening out my beingness. Before, I had a lot of different beingnesses. I was doing a lot of things but none of them very well. After Audited NOTs, I really started producing the things I wanted to produce and with a lot more actual products! I supervise in the mission which my husband and I run, and it used to be a 'job.' It was an effort and a struggle. Now, after NOTs, everything fell into place. It became effortless. There's nothing to handle. It's a piece of cake! I'd say there was nothing else worth doing — get up to NOTs as fast as you can!

"Prior to NOTs coming out a lot of OTs would get great wins, but then tend to invalidate them. They wouldn't do as well as you'd expect after that. On New OT V you understand why this took place. All the invalidation blows off then. After NOTs is a whole new level. An eagle's point of view of life. My ability to grant beingness has soared and I understand what's going on."

New OT VI — Solo NOTs Auditing Course:

Once you complete New OT V at the AO, your next step is New OT VI — the Solo NOTs Auditing Course, at Flag.

"I've been through many training courses since 1961 but never have I seen anything like this course! It's so theta, so A to B, it's a pleasure to be there. The materials are out of this world!" exclaims Helen Kitchen.

"The data on this course is absolutely great. It equips you totally for what you're going to handle on Solo NOTs Auditing. NOTs is where it's at. It handles the situation that every being is sitting in. You really couldn't do a better thing than to get up the levels and do this course!" Ken Gentry of South Africa.

Helen Kitchen; "The more people that get on to Solo NOTs Auditing the faster we're going to handle this planet!"

What's it like to Solo Audit NED for OTs at home?

When you get up through New OT V, Audited NOTs and then do the Solo NOTs Auditing Course at Flag, and get launched on your Solo NOTs Auditing (New OT VII) you reach a point soon, where you are allowed to return home to carry on with your Solo NOTs Auditing! What's it like?

"It's just great to be able to come home after a three-day break (Easter) camping in the bush and be able to do some solo auditing. My sessions just go so smoothly and I feel tremendous gains. Calmness and serenity increase with hours audited. I am very fortunate to live in one of the prettiest places in Australia, if not the world. I live on 6½ acres within a few feet of a huge rainforest. I know Flag is great and my gains have been fantastic there but by comparison I am eons in front by auditing at home, I just love it.

"My postulates and theta communication have expanded immensely and I virtually run my everyday duties and controls on power of thought.

"The beauty of the power of the mental magic wand." — Love, Gary.

"Last week I was auditing and got full perception while exterior with it I expanded my capabilities as a thetan. I now have greater confidence in operating and perceiving. Thanks to LRH for this exciting level." — Dave Bowers.

"My auditing so far has been fantastic. I feel a terrific amount of gain, my OTness has expanded incredibly and it is exactly what I believed OT VII to be. I had a taste of it on earlier levels and have been in a postulate-create position for a couple of years now.

"These further hours that I have done have put me in a very powerful position thought-wise and really put a shine on being OT.

"Because my gains have been so great I have been unable to get into session due to dial wide persistent F/N.

"Thank you, LRH." — Love, Gary.

"I've been auditing Solo NOTs at home for over a month now and the results have been miraculous. Life and one's environment (work, 2D, groups, etc.) tend to push buttons which restimulate charge. This actually acts like an assessment bringing the next best accessible charge to the surface to be handled. Solo NOTs addresses these areas and allows one to make them vanish. It is truly amazing." — Terry.

The Advanced Organization Europe and Africa is in the heart of Denmark, Copenhagen, magical city of Europe. But here, the magic is found in the regained abilities and awareness of pre-OTs moving up the OT Levels!

Approach "Cause over Life" do New OT V- Audited NED for OTs

Ron's recent breakthroughs at the level of OT bring you NEW OT V – NED FOR OTs. This is where you begin to clear up, forever, those mysterious things a pre-OT never seems to resolve, with an ease that must be experienced to be believed!

This is where a pre-OT begins to remove the barriers to being totally cause!

Long, long ago, not necessarily in this universe, but in universes long gone, various factors were set up to booby trap us. So nobody would be able to ever get out. It wouldn't be true to say that individuals, particularly those people here, thought up the idea, but there is an element of causation that each of us carries along with us. These factors set up so long ago are such that if an individual, even though a pre-OT, were to seek and try to handle these factors, the booby trap would come into operation and he wouldn't be able to do it. This is why NED for OTs requires a specially trained NOTs Auditor at the Advanced Org. As you progress through New OT V (Audited NOTs) you become able to turn around and face and handle these factors. You begin to handle the major barriers toward attainment of full OT! When you begin New OT V (Audited NOTs) there is this large thing we could call the "NOTs Case." As you get more and more Audited NOTs this NOTs Case is becoming less and less at the same time the pre-OT is becoming more and more!

At a certain point the pre-OT becomes more powerful than the remaining bank or charge that's left and at this point it now becomes possible for the pre-OT to turn around an and on his own, unaided by an auditor, face and handle this charge!

At that certain point in New OT V, Audited NOTs, after about 50 hours, and as adjudicated by the AO NOTs C/S, the pre-OT completes New OT V – Audited NOTs!

From there he goes on to Flag for NEW OT VI, Solo NOTs Auditing Course and New OT VII, Solo NOTs Auditing, and New OT VIII through XI once they are released.

Step closer to an eternity with you at "cause." Approach "Cause Over Life" by getting up to and through OT I, II and III so you can do NED for OTs (New OT V).

Donation for New OT V, Audited NOTs, is listed on the insert with this issue of Advance! or available upon request from the AO Registrar.

(See the article beginning on page 15 for more information about New OT V and the Phenomenal successes people are having with it.)

Your pathway to Eternity:

The Bridge to Clear, the pre-OT levels and beyond is your pathway to eternity!

It takes steady progress and hard work. You'll need to roll your sleeves up and really apply yourself to your training and auditing at each step of the Bridge. But it is the way out!

Laverne Jardine — "After NOTs everything fell into place. Life became effortless!"

How to get moving up the Bridge!

Roger from Denmark puts it this way, "I put a target for the day I would go to the AO for my OT Levels. I put everything in the physical universe in order to make sure it would happen. I didn't allow it to get into a Q and A. Don't Q and A, never. Just follow that postulate and make it go right! You'll get there."

Write to the AO Letter Registrar:

The AO Letter Registrar is your terminal at the Advanced Org. She's interested in your progress and does everything she can to help you move swiftly up the Bridge to your OT Levels. It's your "OT connection." Write now and put the postulate into the physical universe. Let her know when you will arrive at the AO to begin your "pathway to eternity."

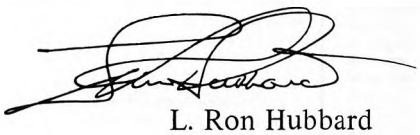

The History of Therapy

as an auditor is actually data which has not been extant in this universe. The longer I go, the surer I am of that fact. There has been data about engrams in this universe. There has been data about mental image pictures and all kinds of things. But there has not been data about auditing.

The more you live, the more pictures you've got. The more misadventures you have, the more engrams you have. And the more engrams you've got, the more engrams can be keyed in and the less events you can associate yourself with, with a free mind. That is the dwindling spiral. There is nothing complicated about it.

A thetan is his own trap. And time itself carrying forward adds a cumulative effect.

Listen to Ron describe OT Abilities and the State of OT on 76 extraordinary lectures!

When you listen to the Philadelphia Doctorate Course lectures by Ron you're hearing the most famous taped lecture series ever! Why? What makes these tapes so popular that they are almost legendary!

Order your set, open up the first one and put it on your cassette player and you'll begin to find the answer.

The lectures were recorded in 1952, in a house in Philadelphia. A special stage had been set up and a lecture hall. A packed crowd of Scientologists gathered to hear Ron release his findings on the capabilities of beings, the state of of OT, and how to bring a person from being trapped in a body to being OT !

These lectures have become the foremost statement on the state of OT. "The subject of Scientology," Ron later has said, "is to some degree developed in reverse order. The task was to undercut the current level of Man and this was the general target. Therefore one finds the higher levels publicly spoken of most frequently in the earliest books and tapes (between 1951 and '55)." *

Included in the Philadelphia Doctorate Course lectures are such topics as Universes, postulates, how a thetan operates the body, handling and using space, energy, flows, the history of thetans including "Races of Thetans," and much more.

So important are these taped lectures that they form a special course for OT IIIs and above only.

Get your own set and begin an adventure as Ron takes you through a universe of knowledge concerning the state of OT !

What every thetan should know

Practical data on spiritual abilities: what they are, how to use them to live a better life.

These seven books by L. Ron Hubbard have been selected by Advance! magazine as a Basic OT Library. Here is knowledge and truth from Ron about your real potentials as a spiritual being.

Here are just a few of the questions you might have about past track and theta abilities that are answered by Ron in these books:

How does a thetan create energy?

How does a thetan operate a body with energy flows?

How do you get perception from a body?

How do thetans get trapped in bodies?

What are some of the true capabilities of a thetan?

What is "own universe"?

What is a "dwindling spiral"?

How does the knowledge in Scientology relate to the ancient Vedic and Buddhist libraries?

How can a person create more time?

What are postulates and "second postulates"?

What is "whole track recall"?

Can thetans communicate telepathically?

How do thetans travel?

What are tractor beams, pressor beams, theta traps, "between lives" incidents, implants, invader crews, blanketing, genetic entities . . . ?

You don't have to be OT to read these books. Here is data anyone can read, understand and apply to life.

In The Phoenix Lectures, for example, Ron tells you how you can have more time. If you've ever felt like there was just "not enough time", here's a piece of valuable data you can use to become more causative over time!

Every book is packed with valuable, practical OT data like this.

Read and apply these seven books and you'll be that much closer to OT!

GO OT !

"In this time and in this place — for possibly just a little while, we have this chance. To go free and to make it. Planets and cultures are frail things. They do not endure.

"I cannot promise you that you will make it. I can only provide the knowledge and give you your chance.

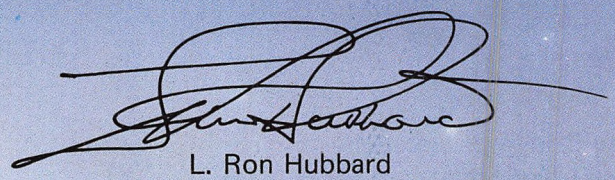

"The rest is up to you.

"I strongly advise you work hard at it — don't waste this brief breath in eternity.

"For that is your future — ETERNITY.

"It will be good for you or bad.

"And for you, my dearest friend, I've done what I could to make it good for you."
