THE OT LIBRARY

OT III COURSE posh-up

by L. Ron Hubbard

The OT III Course, the celebrated "Wall of Fire"[2] level, has now been updated in its checksheet and associated materials to reflect the technical advances made in recent years which are vital to all Pre *OT*s[3] studying this level.

There has been NO change in the phenomenal technology of OT III, of course.

What has been done is a review and alignment of all the materials, and a full updating and recompilation of the checksheet with additional drills which even better prepare a Pre OT to solo audit[4] the materials of Section III OT.

The result is a fully updated and poshed-up course.

So for Pre *OT*s approaching OT III — a sparkling bright, fully updated Course, containing some of the most astounding technology of all my research, awaits you you! And it is being issued in course packs containing fresh, newly-printed, crystal-clear issues of my original materials.

The "Wall of Fire" has now, again, been given the red carpet treatment that it richly deserves!

[1] OT III COURSE: OT — "operating thetan, highest state there is."* This state is reached by a series of exact, numbered steps developed by L. Ron Hubbard called the OT Levels (see chart on page 9). One attains the level of OT III by doing the OT III Course.

[2] "Wall of Fire": for more about this description, see Ron's Journal 67, which begins on page 6.

[3] Pre OTs: a Pre OT is someone who has reached the State of Clear and is moving up toward full OT.

[4] solo audit: most of the levels above Clear are done with solo auditing. "In solo auditing the auditor is also the pc."*

selected from the works of L. Ron Hubbard.* For more definitions, see page 19.

Get the E-Meter that delivers OT results.

When you're following Ron's path through the "Wall of Fire" – or through any level from the New Hubbard™ Solo Auditor Course on up – the Hubbard Professional Mark VI is your essential auditing tool.

It's the required E-Meter for these upper levels. And the sensible thing to do is to use one for your lower-level training too, if you haven't yet done it.

With the Mark VI, Ron has brought space-age technology and computer accuracy to the instrument that measures mental state and change of state in individuals. This meter reads with astonishing depth into the bank. And its sensitivity measures up to the hairline precision you'll need as you journey to new realms as an OT Scientologist.™

Order your Mark VI now from the Bookstore at this Advanced Organization. It's part of your passage to OT abilities!

Price: as shown on the list with this magazine, or consult your AO Bookstore Officer. If unavailable, order from Bridge Publications Inc., 1414 N. Catalina St., Los Angeles, CA 90027 USA, or New Era Publications ApS., Store Kongensgade 55, 1264 Copenhagen K, Denmark.

MARK VI

RON'S OT III COURSE POSH-UP prepares you better for making your path through the "Wall of Fire"!

OT III: reverse point on the dwindling spiral. Return of full self-determinism.

Rehabilitation of YOU as a being with incredible awareness and freedom!

To get there you have to follow Ron's path through the "Wall of Fire" on Section III OT. This challenging level awaits you now at this Advanced Organization.

In his Ron's Journal, 1967, printed on the following pages. Ron tells you about the "Wall of Fire": how he became the first person ever to find his way through. How he made the path safe for you to follow.

The "Wall of Fire" holds the key to a large portion of your spiritual freedom. On Section III OT you'll first get full preparation on the theory course (which includes some of the most astounding data you'll ever run across). Then you'll solo audit your path through. And now Ron has updated and poshed up the course so you'll be even better prepared as a Pre-OT Scientologist™ to solo audit the materials of Section III OT. (See OT III Course Posh-Up by L. Ron Hubbard on page 3 of this issue.)

An infinitely bright future will open for you when you achieve OT III !

The attainment of Clear is a magnificent accomplishment. But it is also a fact that you as a Clear are liable to run into various difficulties in life as a result of any delay you allow in your progress up The Bridge.

Ron has written, "If he's a Dn or Scn [Dianetics or Scientology] Clear and not up to OT III, he's at risk. All you can do is get him up to OT III so it can be handled. Clears should be told they are at risk until OT III, and shouldn't stay in the Non-Interference Zone." — LRH, in Hubbard Communications Office Bulletin of 15 September 1978, Issue II.

The answer is, of course, get yourself up to OT III right away!

You'll be helping others by doing so, too. Your immediate environment will be safer and saner. And you will be better able to contribute to the reversal of the dwindling spiral of society.

"If you wish to help, your first duty is to protect the repute of the state of Clear by exemplary conduct. Your second duty is to attain OT as soon as possible."

The Story of Ron's Journal, 1967

It was September, 1967 — a year that will be celebrated in story and song long after Earth has sailed her final orbit around the yellow star Sol.

Aboard the small yacht Enchanter, lying in drydock[1] in an island port, and on her larger sister-ship Avon River, which was drydocked nearby, crews worked feverishly around the clock. The Commodore[2] of the new Scientology "Sea Organization," L. Ron Hubbard, had ordered the ships re-fitted for the heroic tasks that lay ahead.

LRH was ashore. Rumors had been circulating for months about the research he was doing there. He had hinted now and then of OT Levels above OT I and OT II (which had already been released), and of a "Wall of Fire" he had encountered.

The world at large knew nothing of Ron's recent activities, and Scientologists knew scarcely more. Since the first Clear was made in March of 1965, Scientology organizations around the world had been gearing up to send their top people to Saint Hill in England for Clearing, as it was available nowhere else. At Saint Hill, many thought that Ron and others were off on a holiday cruise!

Then news arrived at the ships of a tape recording Ron had made. It was a message that would astound Scientologists everywhere, despite the fact that by now they had come to expect "miracles as usual" from Ron.

". . . this is a tape of 20 September, 1967," he began, "made on an island in the sea, and it is addressed to all staff and students of Scientology organizations.

"Out before me is the wide blue sea, with ships passing by, a few fleecy clouds overhead, and the bright sun shining down."

The crews of both ships gathered in the Avon River's newly built "tweendecks"[3] space. They seated themselves wherever they could, and listened:

"I am giving you this short talk because you might have wondered what I was doing. Rumor lines are not very reliable, to say the least, in a world which is as wogged[4] as this one, and are not likely to even approach truth. I do not like to create a mystery with regard to our activities."

He broke the news about the Sea Org for the first time: "You may have heard mention of the Sea Org, the Sea Organization, and you are likely to hear other mentions of it as time goes on. This is in reality just another Scientology organization with the difference that it handles extremely advanced work and materials, and its personnel are OTs. Its mission is to bring Clears through the upper levels safely and certainly and with speed, and it also has the mission of getting in Ethics.

"On Earth it would be quite impossible to bring in a totality of Scientology technology without first bringing in Ethics. We have learned that technology does not thrive in an area which is enturbulated[5] and which has many suppressives and factors which are hostile to the better side of life . . ."

"To give you a little background history, a sort of 'Ron's Journal,' I have to tell you some of the things which have been going on in the last few years . . ."

An Open Letter to all

by L. Ron Hubbard

You are a Clear. Well done and congratulations.

This state has not previously been attained in this universe and we must all work towards getting more people—many more people — up to this level. Essentially, you are clear on the 1st Dynamic and still have a lot of work in front of you to attain OT, which is to say the remaining dynamics, but nevertheless you will find you have many abilities hitherto undreamed of. An ethical code already exists for OTs so at the state of Clear one should not assume that one has a license to do just whatever one will. You still have the remaining dynamics to go so don't use the abilities you have attained already to enslave others, or indeed, yourself.

With freedom comes responsibility and with responsibility comes the need to assess one's actions and to take only such actions as will do the greatest good over the greatest number of dynamics. So, the Policies of Scientology which have enabled you to reach the state of Clear still apply to all Clears. In fact they apply more because you have the reality of their value and the necessity of seeing that they are followed.

Those who have not yet attained Clear will be watching you with some awe, so you have the duty of setting an example of exemplary behaviour in all aspects of your life. As a Clear you have no privileges beyond being declared Clear.

As a result, bigger responsibilities will be given and expected of you so you must be prepared to responsibly educate yourself where necessary so that you can do whatever is assigned to you in a proper manner in keeping with the main goals and aims of Scientology.

So for you there is no sitting down and resting upon your laurels, no waiving of policy, no promiscuous 2nd Dynamic activities, no improper assumption of power, control or influence or assuming that you automatically know best in every situation. It is a crime to invalidate the state of Clear — see to it that you don't do this in your conduct as a Clear, particularly as regards yourself. You still have the rest of the dynamics to go.

You have now become more than ever a part of a team. Obsessive individualism and a failure to organise were responsible for our getting into the state we got into.

As soon as you have gone the rest of the way this will become abundantly plain.

I expect and need your help to carry out the broad mission of de-contaminating this area of the universe. If you wish to help, your first duty is to protect the repute of the state of Clear by exemplary conduct. Your second duty is to attain OT as soon as possible. Your third, if you still wish to help, is to become part of the endeavour to clean up this sector of the universe and make it safe not only for ourselves but the billions of others who have been harmed.

As a Clear you are welcomed and honoured. Don't do anything that will wear out your welcome or bring dishonour on yourself or upon other Clears.

Thank you for what you have done so far.

Thank you for what you will do in the future.

I know I can count on you.

When we talk about this universe, we're talking about energy. The only way an individual can be held into this universe is by a conviction that he cannot handle energy, because this is a universe full of energy. It's composed only of energy which operates in a thing called MEST* universe space. If you cannot handle energy in its fullest extent, don't think you can be free of this universe or any other one.

Force begets force, and he who lives by the sword will die by one, I promise you. But the funny thing is, you have to be able to have enough force to use an unlimited quantity of force before you can pass over into a higher band of ethics*. One cannot retreat from and cower back from force under any pretext whatsoever, and still have a beingness above the level of this universe.

When you stop and think right now about being hit in the face in the MEST body with a hundred-thousand-kilowatt[1] lightning bolt, it is possibly not a comfortable thought. But I assure you that that is a small amount of juice[2] compared to what you as a thetan* can take. You ought to be able to pick your teeth with a million-kilowatt lightning bolt, thetawise*.

If you've ever watched the mercy of the very strong compared to the sympathy and fear of the very weak, you'll see the mockery of bottom scale trying to echo the top of the scale. A person has to be very, very strong before he can be ethical and completely merciful of his own free will.

At the bottom of the scale a person has been forced to be, and everything affects him. He is an effect of this and an effect of that, and so on. He's still carrying along with him some of his capability: there's still theta there at the bottom of the scale, but not much of it.

You might say he has crossed over the span of force on the band successfully. But, bluntly, nobody ever crawled out of this universe through the bottom of the hole. Nobody ever got out that way. That's a grave. The only way out is through.

You have to be able to conquer the full use and control of any factor of the first dynamic*. And having conquered that, the full use and control of the factors of the second dynamic, and the third, and so forth. You have to be willing and capable, and in full control of those dynamics, before you are free of them. Because otherwise, always lingering in the back of your mind – no matter how esoteric[3] you may think your ambitions may be – is something you can't do, which is always a disability.

The capability of a thetan is not simply force. But every saint on the calendar[4] is represented as having a big, bright aura[5]. What do you think that aura was representing? It was representing something very interesting: raw energy. Whether those boys could wield energy or not I don't know, but they certainly represented them that way, and have continued to do so ever since.

I'll tell you something interesting about force. If you want to be able to heal somebody at a distance, you have to have the capability of charring them them into charcoal at a distance. Don't mistake that: the ability to produce force is the ability to make a strong postulate*. And the ability to make a strong postulate alone is capable of controlling the health and

Force is the shabbiest shadow of what can be done. But unless you can make a postulate strong enough to handle force, it is highly unlikely that you can make a postulate strong enough to pervade all through the beingnesses which you would like to help.

This is a force universe, and don't ever make a mistake about that. (If it were the only universe, god help all of us!) It is a force universe. It's built on trickery, and it's built on force. Every single item that you see in a store is condensed energy existing in space. Every single brick that you see out on the street is a condensation of energy. Any action you see on the part of a MEST object is some manifestation[6] of force at work in this universe.

Don't think for a moment that a low-scale action in this universe will be greeted by anything but force. You can protest, reason, agree, grovel, beg — it does not matter. Force is there, heavily and solidly, to greet the best of intentions to help.

This universe does not care anything for brightness, for aesthetics[7]. You could go out and make the prettiest planet that ever existed in this whole universe, solely by your hard work and application and genius, and the force that is this universe could simply roll it up and blow it away without the least tremor.

The strong man who uses force as his sole criterion[8] of existence is nothing but a brute. Nevertheless, the strong man who is able to make something in this universe must be able to protect it, because this universe doesn't care.

That's what breaks the heart of Man: it doesn't care. He looks around, and no matter what he does for anybody, no matter how much he tries to help or anything else, in this universe with MEST on the loose and relatively uncontrolled it makes no difference whatsoever. It is that remorselessness, that crushing capability without discernment as to a finer quality, that breaks him at last.

He thinks that in this universe there ought to be such things as love and goodness, and he thinks these things ought to repay. You find somebody working himself to the bone trying to be a good guy, trying to be a straight guy, and so on. What do you find around him? Pitfalls waiting for his tiniest error . . . and he will go crashing down. And who will push him? The people he helped the most. It's a great universe!

This universe is so debased and degraded, really, that the better capabilities of beingness almost can't exist in it. They are here in the flimsiest possible form.

Let's take an aesthetic. What does this universe care for an aesthetic? Your going out and looking at the beautiful sunset is very amusing. Are you expecting a sensation of aesthetic from this universe? Have you any idea what composes that beautiful sunset? It is dust hanging in the air from some old volcanic explosion where the earth convulsed and vomited and shot rock and ash into the air. And it's a sun of such a violent temperature that it is shooting sheets of fire out 240,000 miles. Radioactive fire: if you even vaguely approached it and got a tiniest burn, you would thereafter rot. Beauty in this universe!

You go out and look at a butterfly, you watch him flying around through the grass and so forth, and you say, "Isn't that pretty!" Did you ever

"It's so real – so certain – so simple. I feel GREAT!! Thank you LRH." – J.L.

"I enjoyed OT I very much. I am more aware and extroverted. I was amazed at how perceptions increased. Particularly hearing. The difference was so great that I thought I must have been deaf before." – T.R.

"This was a GREAT level! Afterwards I felt so validated, and it truly cemented all the gains I have made since coming into Scientology. It all seems so natural! I feel nicely secure. Thanks so much to Ron." – A.A.

"I had read so many success stories about OT I. Now I know how true they are. It's just as they all said!

"Amazing. Yes, and thrilling too, as the cognitions [realizations] came. And they're still coming!

"For all the help I've had at the A.O. . . . Thank you." – B.B.

"What a level! I handled charge I had no idea was there. The wins were phenomenal.

"I feel like for the first time in millenia [thousands of years], I am again in charge of my own destiny and actions. I am in control of my postulates. My intention has power in it. Thanks to all who helped me – and to LRH!" – J.S.

"I have totally changed from humanoid to thetan!

"It's true – the OT Levels are all that they are mocked up to be and more!

"I hear daily that I look younger – or have I lost weight? No, but I have lost pounds of charge that has been impinging on me for years . . . lifetimes!" – J.K.

"It's incredible! So that's what has pinned us down to this planet and into this body!

"The data was so interesting I couldn't stop studying. And when I solo audited on this level, I experienced great relief. When the end phenomenon was reached, my space was clean and calm, and I was wherever I wanted to be." – E.F.

[On OT II, I] "just had my best session ever. I attained a stable state of pan-determinism broader than I've ever seen before.

"Ron is very special – he had the self-created courage, love and ethics to map the way for us out of this trap. And the persistence and infinite vision to stay on that road, so that we could all travel it. It's up to us to travel it now, and to help others to do so. Thank you, Ron!" – S.S.

"To any Dianetics Clears who have wondered what was going on in their lives, and what there could be to audit – don't wonder or figure. The thing to do is The Bridge!

"Thanks to the AO crew, and of course to LRH. How he ever found and sorted out the material of OT II astounds me." – L.M.

Go OT!

"In this time and in this place – for possibly just a little while, we have this chance. To go free and to make it. Planets and cultures are frail things. They do not endure . . .

"Don't waste this brief breath in eternity."

"Now I know what happened, and what every person on this planet must know . . . but you need the steps below to confront it. It's really a 'Wall of Fire'! But when you are through it, the gifts are unbelievable. Never in my life have I had such a viewpoint. The whole future of this planet depends on us." — B.J.

"I've successfully gotten through the 'Wall of Fire' — without even a minor burn! The case gains and wins are countless. I've never felt freer, happier or so much myself in ages! Thank you, RON! And I don't think I can thank AO enough for their expert and professional service." — B.

"My theta perceptions have greatly expanded. My energy has been released, and I feel energetic. My compassion for mankind is boundless, as is my willingness to help and to handle mankind now.

"Ron has truly mapped an exact route out of the trap. He has parted the 'Wall of Fire' for us so that we may come through to the daylight, not singed, bright.

"My everlasting love goes to Ron, and to all the others who are helping to keep the Bridge open for us all." — S.S.

"For me, the major gain was the ability to function without stops, inhibitions and 'can'ts'. There was also a tremendous realization that the way to get things done and pass through obstacles is not by sheer brute force but rather by intention and postulate, as Ron has taught.

"Finally, there is a sense of knowingness that seems to be increasing by the minute!" — R.J.

"A couple of days ago I was sitting in my auditing room, auditing on OT III. I'd spot an area of life that had plagued me for years (actually much longer) — address it — handle it — and it would be totally gone! Then I'd look out the window at the sunshine and warmth, and feel the breeze and beauty of life. I'd chuckle, spot another area, and do the same thing. It was the most incredible thing I've ever experienced. The gains were sweeping, and ran very deep. One session was comparable to all the gains I'd gotten on my earlier Bridge. Thanks to Ron for discovering this powerful Tech!" — T.B.

"Each session gave me as much case gain as I had on the earlier actions — combined! My confront has increased to the point where I can actually perceive ANOTHER'S universe. My thoughts are my own. I feel very big and powerful and very, very happy. It's hard to find the words to express how different I feel — it's just incredible.

"See you there, Ron!" — K.S.

"My life seems so very bright and full of happiness. The things I've wanted most in life have been handled. My chronic tone level blew, and I like people just because they are people. I feel at cause, and can't imagine what else there could be. My many years of hard work have been well worth it. Money couldn't buy this sort of happiness! Thank you, Ron!" — M.A.

"When I reached the EP [end phenomena] of OT III, it was like I had awakened from a very deep sleep, millions of years long. I was simply unconscious before. I did only a few things in my life on self determinism. Now I can live life with satisfaction.

"We will all have a better life. OT III makes that totally clear to every thetan." — D.T.

"There is such freedom, such certainty of self, that I shall never again be intimidated by not knowing what I want. I have such freedom in beingness that I could be just anything I want.

"My postulates are powerful to a degree I had only hoped for, before OT III. My ARC for myself and others has expanded as I had hoped it would. It's so much easier to understand others and to handle things. I am truly at a causative position!

"My love to LRH." — P.P.

"It is tremendous — a knowledge and certainty of oneself as a being, in a new way. I can travel through the whole track like seeing a movie — and just add any perception you can think of. Overwhelm cannot exist unless I allow it. (I don't!)

"The 'Wall of Fire' is now not a fire for me — not even a wall! The gains keep coming. Intention works every time, without effort. This state is not something you write about. You obtain it and live it!" — H.J.

"It's a fantastic level. My perceptions have increased enormously. I'm more me than ever. My awareness and knowingness have increased tremendously. This level has removed many barriers, and has answered so many questions I've always had. It put certainty in my life. I know why others react to various things, just by knowing and applying this Tech. Thank you, Ron!" — C.B.

"I didn't expect these wins on this level, a calm, wonderful feeling I didn't realize could exist (the 'calmnesses' I'd felt before didn't measure up to this in any way!), OT abilities that I'd seen only hints of before, and a realization that the 'realm of OT' goes SO far beyond what I'd ever thought. 'OT' now has a much deeper meaning to me because I've begun to see how far it can reach. To RON — limitless thanks and deep affection." — N.K.

"Oh, my gosh — the PURE HAPPINESS and CALMNESS of my space! There have been so many wins and adventures along the way. And abilities regained — certainty of viewpoint, and so on and on! Thank you so much to all AO staff and especially to RON for putting it all together!" — B.V.

"OT III is not only fantastic, but it means the guarantee that I will be a free, self-determined being.

"Without any doubt, EACH person has to reach OT III as fast as possible.

"A new start has begun for me — being free, and without seeing any barriers. I am finally MYSELF." — B.S.

"The abilities and awareness I have received thus far on the Bridge focused and magnified on OT III. I see now how very vital the mission of Scientology is, and why so many things are as they are. To those who have gone Clear, I urge you to continue. It is worth whatever price to obtain freedom from the 'Wall of Fire'. When I observe the effects of the 'Wall of Fire', I just marvel at Ron's work to find a way out for us. Follow in his footsteps." — T.G.

handling energy & force

follow the fate of a butterfly? It's an interesting game, but it doesn't have any room in it for the beingness called Man, really.

Here you have an unlimited universe of force, debased force, and the solidified results of force. Man and thetans in their small way try to add into it the ingredient of love, of beauty, of appreciation, of fair play — but nothing happens, really. Just more force.

So don't go moaning, and moping around, and saying there is no goal for this universe. Don't go moping around saying, "Nobody appreciates what I'm doing." The truth of the matter is that this universe is too strong, forceful and powerful, from a standpoint of MEST force, to permit it to happen. The only thing which you see out here in this universe that is worth seeing is what you and people like you have put into it to perceive back.

If you have ever counted the beautiful cities which have gone by the boards here on this earth, which are no more — looked at the hopes with which they were built, the ardors and depths of their fall, the plight and agony of their final days — you would no longer sit around and worry about "Let's make this a good universe." That's how you got trapped into it in the first place — trying to make this thing a good universe. You've got lots of universes. You can make one of your own. We're not worried about it any further than that.

But don't try to tell anybody, and don't let your preclear tell you, that at any moment all he has to do is simply rise to the high and beautiful plane of pure thought without anything ever having any effect on him again in the line of energy. Bull!

He's got to be able to handle that energy; otherwise, the energy can command him. That's the trick of this universe: you command energy, or it commands you. This is a universe of space and energy, and if you want to command it, you've got to be able to command space and energy.

A universe of your own might also come down to a manufacture by space and energy. It might do that. It doesn't have to, but if it did you'd certainly better know how to control space and energy.

The reason your preclear thinks he needs all sorts of things has something to do with the body, down at the lower band of the scale. It's not that he cannot use ideas. It is simply that he is, you might say, like infantry — pinned down by enemy fire. He's really pinned down. In a most adequate sense, he's pinned down by flows. (Now when I say "flows," I am being too narrow in that terminology. I should say "ridges"[9], "dispersals"[10] — all those things that constitute manifestations of energy, including objects.)

Homo sapiens, in viewing energy, views his ideas as an energy form. You take any thought, almost any thought he has, and you can start working with it, and it will turn into effort. In other words, his thinkingness is at the effort band, and therefore he's having a rather rough time of it.

You can run down the track on any aberrated[11] idea a person has, and find that idea all wrapped up in energy for which he is taking no responsibility, and which therefore has command value over him.

Therefore, I hope you get this much more clearly on why energy stands as the sinister barrier between aberrated thought and being free to do anything you please with thought.

Now it's an easy barrier to cross, extremely easy to cross, as long as you actually cross it.

The mystics talk about the "abyss," and so on. And what is the abyss? What are you trying to bridge? Very clearly, you're trying to bridge the necessity of energy.

You're not going to do it by saying, "I don't want anything to do with energy. I'm going to deny myself a body, I'm going to deny myself sensation. I'm not going to use this, I'm not going to do that. I'm going to back off from this whole thing."

The fact of the case is that you have to — not necessarily partake of action or really even engage in action — but you've certainly got to be willing to handle action.

This is an experiment: if you were just suddenly to make the statement to yourself, "I'm going to use this body for everything it's possibly good for. I don't care whether I wear it out or not. I'm going to get everything out of of it that could be gotten out of it and I'm going to make it do anything a body can do, and there's nothing going to stop me doing these things with this body," all of a sudden the darndest little surge will go through you.

You've just consented to the first step on the road, which is to use it.

Edited from the Philadelphia Doctorate Course Lectures, No. 23, "ARC, Force, Be, Have, Do," given on the 8th of December, 1952, and No. 27, "Flows: The Part Force Bears in Clearing," given on the 9th of December, 1952. Ron's Journal, 1967

Ron then went into astounding detail on the nature of the attacks against Scientology:

"The attacks were always of the same pattern, they always followed the same newspaper routes, they always used the same type of parliamentary member. . ."

And then he dropped the first bombshell in his now-legendary exposé:

"Our enemies on this planet are less than twelve men . . . They own and control newspaper chains[6] and they are, oddly enough, directors in all the 'Mental Health' groups in the world which have sprung up . . ."

"Being in control of most of the gold supplies of the planet, they entered upon a program of bringing every government to bankruptcy and under their thumb, so that no government would be able to act politically without their permission.

"The rest of their apparent program was to use 'mental health,' which is to say psychiatric electric shock and pre-frontal lobotomy,[7] to remove from their path any political dissenters . . ."

One veteran Sea Org officer who attended that first hearing aboard the Avon River says today, "I was impressed by the audacity of some of the things he said about who had been found to be the source of attacks on us. Looking back now, I recall I thought the tape was too hot for general release. Too much detail, too hot a subject."

And then came the news that was to make history:

"Last December, of 1966, I concluded that I had gone as far as I could go without taking further forthright action with our technology, and I used an old, old principle of Scientology which consists of putting the injured member exactly on and in the place it was injured . . .

"So I decided that I had better go out and contact an exact point or two, not so much for me but where things had happened in ages past which were really the beginning of the demise,[8] or were the demise, for this civilization as it then existed.

"Without telling anyone about this or what I intended to do, I went out and took my life in my hands, you might say, and brought the matter off . . .

"I don't mind telling you it took some doing. In all the eighteen years, this has been the toughest one that I have faced."

There it was! Enough to make jaws drop wherever the tape would be heard. Ron even told how he had broken his body's back, a knee, and an arm while wrestling with this material.

The Sea Org officer recalls, "One day the Commodore's Steward[9] mentioned that she had strapped up his back. Another time close to that he appeared with his arm in a sling for a short time.

"Certainly when I got onto the level [OT III] myself, I couldn't imagine how someone could go into that area without a road map and come out the other side alive. It was thought at one stage that not all of us could make it through."

Ron then revealed his postulate for the future, how mankind and this sector[10] of the galaxy can be salvaged, and how the help of each Scientologist is necessary and appreciated.

When the tape play was over, the Sea Org crews went on working, with a renewed will. The Enchanter and the Avon River, renamed Diana and Athena, later drew crowds where ever they went. Today the Sea Organization spans the globe with permanent land installations and thousands of staff, and ensures that the way through the "Wall of Fire" remains open, and is safe for those who are ready to travel it.

The full text of "Ron's Journal, 1967" cannot be reprinted. But copies of the tape itself are now released for purchase at Advanced Organizations in a convenient cassette format, at a low price. Ron's candid message may shock and amaze you, but you will never view this universe — and perhaps your own — quite the same.

suppressive (suppressive person, SP): 1. a person with certain behavior characteristics and who suppresses other people in his vicinity and those other people when he suppresses them become PTS or potential trouble sources. 2. those who are destructively anti-social.

technology (tech): 1. by tech is meant technology, referring of course to the application of the precise scientific drills and processes of Scientology. 2. the methods of application of an art or science as opposed to mere knowledge of the science or art itself.

theta: Greek for thought or life or spirit.

thetan: the living unit we call, in Scientology, a thetan, that being taken from the Greek letter theta, the mathematic symbol used in Scientology to indicate the source of life itself. 2. the individual, the being, the personality, the knowingness of the human being.

track: [see whole track].

TR: training regimen or routine. Often referred to as a training drill. TRs are a precise training action putting a student through laid out practical steps gradient by gradient, to teach a student to apply with certainty what he has learned.

"I have borne it myself too long alone. You share it with me now."

Ron's Journal, 1967

If this planet will ever make it, it will be because of Scientology and Scientologists and the Sea Org Keeping Scientology pure, in proper use and being used.

HCO Policy Letter of February 7, 1965, Reissued 27 August 1980, KEEPING SCIENTOLOGY WORKING, will only stay in effect if the Sea Org keeps it in effect.

So the part of my hat where I really need help is keeping Dianetics and Scientology straight and in proper and extensive use and preventing its misuse.

I know I have the help of the Sea Org in performing that duty. I need it.
