ARE THESE OUR CHILDREN ?

BY

MILDRED JOHNSON

(A LECTURE DELIVERED AT 2:20 P. M. TUESDAY MAY 27, 1958, A. F. A. CONVENTION, NEW ORLEANS, LA.)

ARE THESE OUR CHILDREN ?

These little individuals given to us for such a short time, to guide, to teach, to help in the beest way we know how, to grow into the fine men and women we hope them to be? W sometimes wonder, when we see one child in a family so different from all his brotners and sisters.

The late Edna Scott, whom I was privileged to study with, often saidin her classes, "Some day, maybe not in my time or your time, but some day in the new Aquarian Age, the courts will decide the PARENTAGE, of a child, by Astrology."

We have all heard of the MENDELIAN LAW of Heredity. Mendel started his work in 1854, on garden peas, trying yellow and then green, then mixing them. He was in search of a LAW of Heredity. He proved there was such a law and that it also followed in the human race, as to color of eyes and hair. In the animal kingdom, the coat color of horses and rabbits follow true to heredity.

He said that children will have 1/2 the characteristics of the parents, 1/4 those of the grandparents, 1/8 that of the great grandparents, etc. This, then, is the reason why red hair, for instance, will crop up after missing one or more generations.

Now today I want to talk about a THEORY in INHERITANCE in the Astrological field.

The THEORY is that a child will have either the SUN, MOON, or at least one of the ANGLES, the same as ONE of the parent's SUN, MOON, or an ANGLE, the father's being the most important.

This was the basis of Mrs. Scott's statement. She also explained how we could use this theory in rectification.

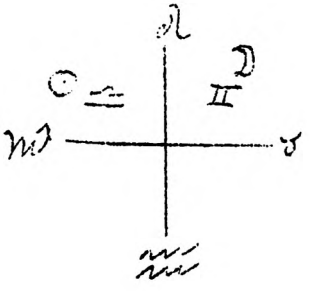

SUN -- is our individuality, the sign under which we are born, is that certain something we, as an individual, are striving for.

MOON -- our personality, colors how we feel about things, signs and aspects (along with other things) gives our state of MIND and HEALTH.

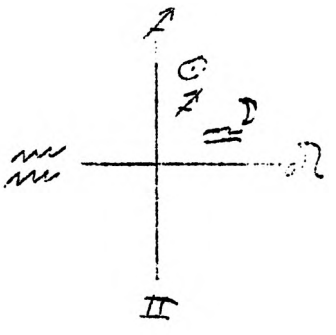

But why the ANGLES? We are all born under this cross of MATTER; the Horizontal line, the Physical; the Vertical line, the Spirit.

Now you may think "this wouldn't be too hard, as we have six points from two parents to choose from, making twelve points - and six points of the child."

Natal Chart prior to Rectification

It's more fun than you think.

I have taken a family for my talk this afternoon, where there are three children. I want to show how we have rectified two charts, whose hour of birth was in question.

Here we have, first, the Father and Mother, and here the three children, numbered 1-2-3. I have used only the ANGLES and have shown the SUN and MOON in each.

Now the first child, a girl, has the M.C. in GEMINI, the same as the father's MOON. Her MOON and the father's seventh cusp, are both in TAURUS. Her SUN sign is SAGITTARIUS, the same as that of the mother's; also, the fourth and tenth are interchangeable.

The second child, a boy, has NO ANGLE, SUN or MOON the same as either parent. This is one of the charts where the time of birth was not too certain, he being born at home, and time means nothing to the Doctor, only to fill in the space on the birth certificate. The Ascendant has 2° of Cancer when first erected.

Child number three, a girl, matches her father with her tenth and fourth being that of his Ascendant and Descendant, in SCORPIO and TAURUS, and the SUN sign is that of her mother's Ascendant, AQUARIUS.

As you have already noticed, I suppose, the mother and father also have charts that click, his SUN and her MOON being LIBRA, his MOON on her fourth cusp, and the Vertical line of father's is the mother's Horizontal line.

Now as time goes on, these children take unto themselves a Mate.

We see that not only do they have, in the case of the first child and her husband, both with MOONS in TAURUS; the second child and his wife, MOONS in CANCER; and the third child and her husband, MOON and ASCENDANT in CAPRICORN; BUT each new in-law has something that ties in with the father - the first, MOON and (father's) seventh, in TAURUS; the second in-law, SUN and ASCENDANT in SCORPIO, matching the father's ASCENDANT. The third in-law has the seventh cusp in LIBRA and the father's SUN is LIBRA, although this is the other chart that the time was in question.

This child was taken six weeks early because the mother had uremic poisoning. He was born in Alabama, and there is no time of any kind on the birth certificate. He told me he had always heard he was born about 1/2 hour before midnight, or between 11:00 and 11:30, which kept him from being a Fourth of July baby. So his chart was erected for about 11:15 P. M. Since I started this research work, I got in touch with the mother. She said he was born before that time, but was not sure just when. So we started rectification by events. Will get back to this later.

Well, you all know what happens, when given enough time. So here we have the grandchildren. I have numbered them from 1 to 9 as they appear in the accompanying diagram, rather than in the order in which they were born.

FIRST FAMILY. Mother -- MOON same as first child's MOON and tenth cusp. SUN and fourth same as second child's SUN and MOON; also MOON and fourth. The ANGLES the same as the third child's ANGLES, mother's ASCENDANT and child's MOON in VIRGO. Tenth and fourth same as fourth child's ASCENDANT and SEVENTH.

Father -- SUN in LEO same as ASCENDANT of first, seventh of second, fourth of fourth; seventh cusp matches SUN of third child.

SECOND FAMILY. The father's chart was one of those in which the time was in question. Father -- with this chart, the first child did not have any tie with either Sun, Moon, or Angle. The second child had CANCER SUN, which tied in with MOON of father.

We backed up the time fifteen minutes, so that the chart now reads GEMINI ASCENDANT and PISCES still on the M. C. Now this chart not only ties in with his own son, who has SUN and MOON in GEMINI, it's still in tune with the second son, because of the SUN and MOON in CANCER; BUT it also ties in with his own Father and Mother in the GEMINI and SAGITTARIUS MOON and SUN of each.

Each event of the life that could be definitely dated was then calculated to that year, and I think we have a correct chart now. However, it will be checked for some time, to make sure.

Mother -- Her SCORPIO SUN and ASCENDANT check with the first boy's fourth cusp; her CANCER MOON is that of the second boy's SUN sign.

THIRD FAMILY. Mother -- all cusps of first child and mother are the same, also SUN in TAURUS same as mother's fourth cusp. With the second, mother and child both have ARIES MOONS and the ASCENDANT and DESCENDANT exchanged places. But the third child - nothing ties in with either the mother or the father. The mother's and child's time of birth was accurately recorded, however, so we know the charts are correct.

Father -- the father in this family was the other chart whose time was in question. In the rectification of this chart, we used for one event, the marriage.

The chart as it stands with LIBRA in the seventh cusp of marriage, is ruled by VENUS, which at the time of marriage had progressed to the conjunction of natal URANUS. Now you know this aspect does not necessarily bring a marriage. But MERCURY had also progressed to the conjunction of natal SUN.

As long as the mother had said he was born before this time, we have every right to put the time back, so that PISCES and not ARIES is now on the ASCENDANT. This gives us MERCURY as the ruler of the seventh cusp now, and the progressed aspect of MERCURY is valid. Other events were then progressed and seemed to work.

Now we have a PISCES ASCENDANT which ties in with the third child's SUN, MOON, and seventh cusp; also, the other cusps are the same. His SUN and MOON are the same as the first child's ASCENDANT and DESCENDANT; they also match the second child's Horizontal line.

Scottie had said her interpretation of the Theory was that the father was the most important to have match, this being the seed atom in question. And remember, this is only a THEORY.

In this case, not only do all children, both real and in-law tie in with the father's chart, in some way, but all nine grandchildren. In the case of the mother, there are two charts which have no connection, the daughter-in-law, and the seventh grandchild.

Just as an added interest, but not in the Theory as taught by Mrs. Scott, we find the planet URANUS in the first house in five of these charts; it was in an angle in ten of the charts. The planet SATURN was in an angle seven times, so this put URANUS or SATURN in an angle seventeen (17) times.

Are these our children? So different from each other, so different from us, the parent, yet tied to us with that invisible bond.

In our neighborhood, there is a family who have adopted three children. I have only the mother's true horoscope, with the month, day, and year of the father and three children. But this is all we need to see that these children DO belong to this mother and father. We needed only the SUN and MOON signs and one cusp of the mother's chart to show this. This is not a blood tie, but for some reason these children belong where they are.

Are these our children? You bet they are. To have, but not to hold; to guide, but not to dictate.

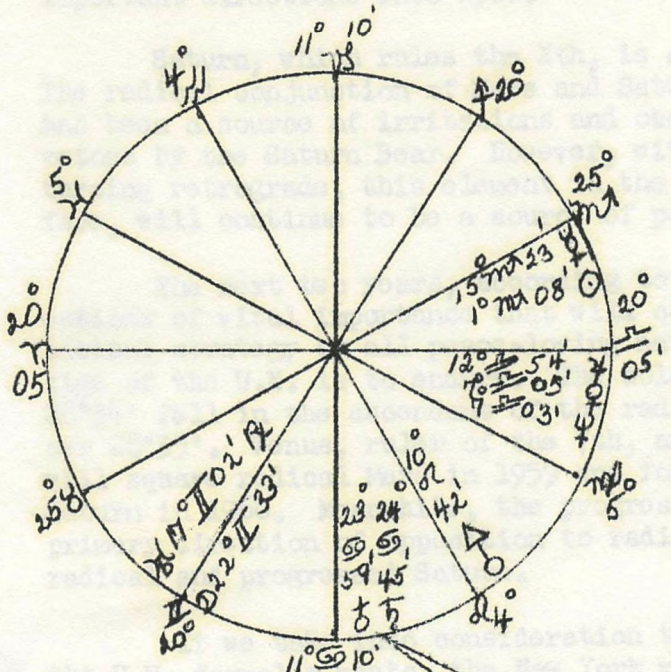

Parents with only small knowledge of Astrology could be forewarned on how to understand these complex children of ours, not to change their way of thinking, but to guide it into the right channels.

In the book called "The Prophet," by Kalil Gibran, he says that long ago, on the shores of Galilee as a Master sat and talked to the people, a woman with a babe in her arms approached HIM and said, "Master, speak to us of children;" and He said, "Your children are not your children; they are Sons and Daughters of life's longing for itself. They come through you, but not from you; and though they are with you, yet they belong not to you. You may give them your love, but not your thoughts, for they have their own thoughts. You may house their bodies, but not their souls, for their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow. You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you. You are the bows from which your children, as living arrows are sent forth. The archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite, and he bends you with his might, that his arrows may go swift and far. Let your bending in the archer's hand be for gladness, for even as he loves the arrow that flies, so he loves, also, the bow that is stable."

REPRINTED FROM ASTROTECH, JUNE 1958.

THE UNITED NATIONS (U.N.) radix, October 24, 1945, 4:45 p.m. E.S.T. (or 4:37 p.m. L.M.T. at Longitude 77° W, 38N53) has been discussed periodically by the Church of Light during the last decade. We reprint it here together with progressions for October, 1958, because of approaching very important directions into 1960.

Saturn, which rules the Xth, is stationary and turning retrograde. The radical conjunction of Mars and Saturn, tenanting Cancer, in the IVth has been a source of irritations and obstruction resulting from repeated vetoes by the Saturn Bear. However, with Saturn debilitated in Cancer and turning retrograde, this element in the international scheme, though losing face, will continue to be a source of political indigestion.

The next two years, according to this chart, indicate a train of directions of vital importance that will call for skilful statesmanship and political strategy by all peace-loving nations, if the future dignity and prestige of the U.N. is to endure. The solar eclipse on April 18, 1958 in Aries 28°34' fell in the ascendant of the radix and squared progressed Mars in Cancer 28°35'. Venus, ruler of the 7th, and now progressing to 23°17' Libra, will square radical Mars in 1959 and form a similar direction to the radical Saturn in 1960. Meanwhile, the progressed Midheaven, in early 1960 forms a primary direction of opposition to radical Mars and in 1961 opposes both the radical and progressed Saturn.

If we take into consideration the locality chart of New York, where the U.N. formally meets, the New York midheaven would be transposed for Long. 74° West at 4:49 pm yielding an L.S.T. of 19h. 50m. with 25°32' Capricorn on the progressed M.C. next October 24th. Based on this premise, the M.C. opposition radical Mars could have begun to influence in 1956 when President Nasser ousted the Suez Canal Co. and seized the canal. It is noteworthy that Israel forces had invaded Egypt's Sinai Peninsula on October 29, 1956 and by November 4th occupied that and the Gaza Strip. Then Egypt and Israel accepted a cease-fire proposal of the UN, followed by Britain and France and fighting ended November 7th (World Almanac).

President Gamal Abdel Nasser, of the United Arab Republic, born January 15, 1918, has radical Sun in Capricorn 24°, in exact opposition to the U.N.'s radical Saturn. This draws him into the vortex of these current directions. If Saturn in the inter-national scheme is emblematic of Soviet Russia, you can draw your own inferences as to whether his ambitions meet with success, or frustration and disappointment.

THE EXECSEC SAYS:

From several reports to us here it appears that the WISCONSING STAR-LIGHTERS had a grand two day Convention September 12-13, in Milwaukee. Congratulations. Our own Louise Ivey was Chairman and from the program it is certain everyone must have had a fine time for a wide range of astro-subjects was presented by capable astrologers.

The FRIENDS OF ASTROLOGY, Inc., Room 1702, 64 W. Randolph Street, Chicago 1, Illinois, has another fine program prepared for their October meetings. On October 20th Mr. Galvin Hanes is going to speak on ERECTING A HOROSCOPE FOR AN UNKNOWN BIRTH HOUR, and another big meeting on October 27th will command much interest as Dr. Marc Edmund Jones is going to be their guest speaker with 1959 AND YOU as the title of his lecture. If you're going to be going 'Chicago way' around that time, make it a point to include these meetings on your schedule.

THE NEW ORLEANS ASTROLOGICAL SOCIETY resumed their monthly meetings on September 26th when Irving A. Chauvin presented the subject ORBS and our own Evna Edmundson spoke on HOUSES. If you're ever going that way, before you do get in touch with Mrs. Evna Edmundson, at 1021 Royal Street, New Orleans 16, La., so you can arrange your schedule to attend one of their gatherings.

Last month we presented a compilation made by Pres. Strater of dates and times of oaths of office of Presidents of the U.S. since 1900. That given for Calvin Coolidge was for the term of his election as President. But Mrs. Corene Cowdery sends us the data for the ath administered by his father when he was first elevated from Vice President to President on the passing of Pres. Harding. This is August 3, 1923, 2:47 a.m. E.S.T., Plymouth Vermont. Thanks.

+ + + + +

The ATHENA ASTROLOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. is going to have a fine meeting on Saturday afternoon, September 20th, from 2 to 5 p.m. This will be at the Hotel Lenox, Boston, Mass., when their speaker will be Mrs. Mary Cate, who will talk on JUPITER, NEPTUNE AND YOUR FUTURE. The lecture is to be followed by Afternoon Tea. Don't miss that gathering if you can possibly make it.

And THE AMERICAN FOUNDATION FOR METAPHYSICAL ARTS & SCIENCES opened their season on September 22d to run to May 20, 1959 with a new series of lectures and classes in adult education, particularly planned to meet the needs of the career man and woman. They will be held at 211 West 57th Street, New York 19, New York. Both Mrs. Lillian Lindner and Mrs. Darcy Crouse will conduct the classes on Astrology. From a perusal of their program, which you can get by asking for it (enclose 4¢ return addressed envelope) appears to me that it would be fine if all of us could do some review work by attending. Sorry we live so far away. Actually Miss Olive Adele Pryor, MAFA, gave an introductury lecture on September 17th with a fine subject---ASTROLOGY AS A GUIDE TO LIVING. Keep up the good work.

SROP PRESS: After mimeographing previous page we have received a fuller report on WISCONSIN STARLIGHTERS Convention from their President, Louise Ivey, MAFA saying it was "very, very successful in every way. Visitors came from many distant states, buf the majority were from groups in Illinois and Indiana. Among the speakers were Dr. Wm. Davidson, Lillian C. Lindner, George C. LeGros, Louise Mench, Dr. John L. Hitchcock, Mary A. Peter, Gloria Barrett, Amelia Luedtke and Louise Ivey. About 175 attended, had a very nice time, met new friends and learned a great deal about astrology through listening to some of these excellent speakers.

This is the second such convention held by the Starlighters, the first one being arranged in 1951. We'll have them more often from now on.

WISCONSIN STARLIGHTERS and AFA also had a great loss a few weeks later, for on October 4, 1958, occurred the sudden death of Marie Forrest, who took an active part in this convention, and will be remembered by many attending conventions of the AFA; she attended the one in New Orleans. Mrs. Forrest was the Treasurer of WISCONSIN STARLIGHTERS for over ten years. She was born May 2, 1906, with Virgo 23° on Ascendant. Abdominal obstruction and peritonitis caused her passing after a few days of illness. We will all miss her very much.

On behalf of the officers and members of the AFA we extend our sincere sympathy to her family.

One of the surest ways for the AFA to make progress in its work to advance astrology in this country is by expanding its membership and thus increasing our income to accomplish our aims and ideals. In times past I have remarked that if it were possible for me to visit with members in their own homes and discuss the work of the AFA, I know that every member would feel the inspiration that has consistently inspired those who do help throughout the more than twenty years since we were "born." Of course, it is impossible for me to do that, so through this written word I must make appeals to you to increase your aid to the AFA in various ways. The most important method of helping is to get your friends and co-astrological students to join with us. Please do this. We will send a sample AFA BULLETIN, copy of the code of ethics and application blank to any prospective member you may have in mind, if you will advise us of these persons names and addresses.

We know from past experience that expenses of operation will continue to increase. Mimeograph paper that we formerly only had to pay 80¢ per 1000 sheets, now costs us about $2.12 per 1000. Postage on the AFA BULLETIN is up 50%. All of our costs have advanced in like proportion. Through the wonderful response of members we were able to purchase our own adequate workshop building WITHOUT EVER GOING ONE PENNY INTO DEBT. We consider that a wonderful accomplishment. Instead of having to pay out $1500. or more a year rent for one-fifth the space we have, we only have taxes and upkeep to pay. But the so-called "operating expenses" are another matter. True, we have always been able to meet our obligations and have a net credit balance at the end of each operating year, but we know that those operating expenses are going to increase and we never want to have greater expense any year than we have income to meet that expense. So I must continue that appeal to members everywhere. The best solution is to increase our membership. I will do anything possible to help you to get your friends to join with us.

ASTROLOGY WORKS

GLORIA BARRETT, MAFA

Proving that Astrology works would require much time and many charts, but I thought it might be interesting to check, with just one life and birth-chart, some of our astrological aphorisms, particularly those which refer to the important Angular Houses. Selected for checking are the life and birth-chart of Sir Anthony Eden, since he has six planets angular, with the Node conjoining an angular house cusp.

First: "Those who have crowds of planets in angles have at some time or other in their lives, either prodigious successes or great misfortunes, according to the natures of those planets and their directions."

Eden, having both fortunate and unfortunate planets angular, has had both prodigious successes and a number of misfortunes.

Second: "Angular planets, numerous in a birthchart, conjunction, square, or opposition each other, incline to important changes, making a life eventful."

There have been important events and changes in Eden's life.

Third: "Planets, angular, in square or opposition aspect with each other bring either a great good fortune or great misfortune, or both." We would like to include here the conjunctions in angles, but note that this aphorism states that squares or conjunctions may bring good fortune as well as misfortune.

Each of Eden's six planets in angles is square, opposition or conjunction at least two of the other five. He has had tremendous good fortune, but his latest misfortune appears equally great.

Fourth: "The Sun or Mars in the Ascendant in either a fiery or an airy sign indicates a proud person liable to over-estimate his own importance."

Let us test this and some other beliefs and aphorisms of Astrology with a biographical record of Eden's life. Our Native's biography says: "Eden's manner and bearing are egotistical. He recognizes this and tries to hide or subdue the evidence of his egoism". The disposer of Eden's ascending Mars in Fire, his Ascendant ruler, the Sun, conjoins his planet of repression and concealment, Neptune.

Fifth: "Moon in an angle square or opposition Mars in an angle grings violent death".

Eden's Moon, in his angular house of home and family, is square Mars in his angular first. There have been at least three deaths in Eden's family due to war. the Native also has come into contact with violent deaths during his own military service.

Since most biographies, including Eden's, begin with the individual background, antecedents, parents and ancestors, we will do the same. The prenatal chart is said to give testimony in regard to that which precedes birth, but we are dealing solely with the natal chart. The horizon degree (east or west) of a prenatal chart, symbolic of a native's previous-to-birth conditions and characteristics, is the degree of the Moon at birth. Natal Moon, as Dane Rudyar puts it, typifies the hangover from the past. So it is the Moon and the house of her natural rulership, the 4th, which, in a birthchart, deal with inherited characteristics and subconscious tendencies derived from the past. It is not only the house of home, but the house of that in which the native is at home. It symbolizes his foundation, his basic being, the traits, desires and tendencies he has inherited, both from his own past life or lives, and from his progenitors.

Let us see if Eden's 4th house influences correspond with what we know about his ancestors. Anthony Eden has an ancestral background of Idealists, Artists, leaders and reformers.

Venus, cusp ruler of Eden's ancestors' house, has correspondence with idealism and art. That Sir Anthony has inherited artistic ability and a disposition to idealism is indicated by Venus, cusp ruler of his subconscious tendency and heredity house, being strongly posited in one of its own signs in the native's angular 10th, and by Neptune, also related to idealism and art, being conjunction his Ascendant ruler, the Sun.

That certain ancestors were leaders is verified by the fact that the leadership planet Mars conjoins the cusp of their 10th, their occupation house. Since the cusp ruler of Sir Anthony's 4th house is in his 10th, he has inherited his ancestors' disposition to leadership in a subconscious urge toward advancement in position. Fulfillment of this inner urge is signified by Mars, planet of leadership, ruling his Midheaven and conjoining his Ascendant.

Sir Anthony's house of heredity and ancestors contains the reform tendency conjunction of retrograde Uranus with Retrograde Saturn, which, in its opposition aspect with Mercury, is significant of the fact that ancestors' advocacy of reforms was by speech and published writings. Mercury being in Sir Anthony's 10th, opposition the reforming conjunction in his 4th, he, too, has used public speech as a means of promoting desired reforms.

The reforming activities of Eden's ancestors concerned political and economic matters, prison conditions, and measures designed to maintain peace and avoid war.

Political reforms were advocated by ancestors, the reforming conjunction in the ancestors' house being in the political sign Scorpio, its ruler, Mars, conjoining the cusp of their 10th, their occupation house. Three planets in that political sign in Sir Anthony's 4th subconsciously induced him to take an interestm even in his early college years, in the policies of the Nations. Mars and Pluto, disposers of his three 4th house Scorpio planets, conjoin, respectively his Ascendant and Ascendant ruler, the Sun, Mars also ruling the Midheaven, these being indicative of the fact that the basic urge toward politics, supplied by planets in Scorpio in his 4th, expressed itself outwardly in his activities as his main occupation in life.

That financial matters might interest some ancestors is indicated by the planet of finance, Jupiter, semi square the cusp of their house. The retrograde planet of economy, Saturn, conjoining retrograde Uranus in the house of ancestors, is significant of the dissatisfaction of certain ancestors with economic conditions of their times, and of their desire to reform them. Sir Anthony himself has shown concern over the financial condition of the working classes, Jupiter, finance, in Virgo, sign of the working classes, aspecting both the cusp of his subconscious tendency house and his midheaven.

Ancestors' interest in prison reform is revealed by the ruler of their 12th, their house of prisons, Mercury, in opposition aspect with the reform tendency conjunction in their own house.

Advocation by ancestors of measures intended to maintain peace and avoid War, is signified by the peace loving Venus, cusp ruler of their house, squaring, from their house of oppositions, the war planet Mars in their 10th. Inheritance of this peace bringing tendency has been particularly evident in Sir Anthony's life. He disliked and avoided, as a child, all forms of disturbance. Later in life he became famous as a successful mediator, tranquillizer and peace bringer both to factions at home in Britain and to nations at, or on the verge of, War.

The 4th, in our western type of Astrology, is held to be, among ancestors, especially the house of the father. Biographical statements indicate that Sir William Eden, Anthony's father, was an extremely emotional, unpredictable, eccentric, egotistical man, given to violent explosions of temper arbitrary and dictatorial to others, but always courteous to Anthony's mother. The cusp ruler of his house, the courteous Venus, is posited in her house. He was affectionate but dictatorial to his children. The Moon, indwelling ruler of his house, especially emotional in Scorpio, is conjunction the upsetting retrograde Saturn-Uranus conjunction, and square Mars, especially passionate in a fire sign. The cusp ruler of the father's 4th, his subconscious tendency house, Uranus conjoins Saturn and the Moon in his personal house, while the cusp of his house conjoins Saturn and the Moon in his personal house, while the cusp of his house of subconcious traits and desires is opposed by Mars. He was a Just man, but peace never reigned long in his presence. His chief interests and occupations were art and sport, as indicated by his personal house cusp ruler, Venus, and by Mars conjoining the cusp of his occupation house.

An interesting incident brought Anthony's father into the lifelight. His son's biography says: "Sir William Eden became a public figure accidentally, by a mischance, argument, quarrel and lawsuit." Mars, the planet of accidents, mischances, quarrels and oppositions, is conjunction the cusp of his publicity house, his 10th. Sir William had ordered, received, and paid the artist, Whistler, for a portrait of Lady Eden. Whistler, after borrowing the painting for an exhibition, refused to return it. Sir William sued the artist, who then, in a fit of temper, scratched out Lady Eden's face, substituting, in the painting, the face of another. Sir William, of course, won the suit, Mars, cusp ruler of his 7th, his house of oppositions, from its dominating positions conjoining his 10th house cusp, squaring the planet of art and artists, Venus, in his house of contentions, his 7th.

That Sir Anthony's inheritance of characteristics from his mother was exceptionally strong, is indicated by the Moon, located in his heredity house, aspecting, by opposition, Venus, cusp ruler of that house, posited in the house of the mother. He inherited her Venus good looks, her Venus traits of charm, courtesy, refinement, sympathetic understanding, and her Venus-in-Taurus quality of patience. Lady Eden's was a tranquillizing influence, in spite of the fact that the cusp ruler of the mother's house is Mars, a point which endorses the assertion of many modern astrologers, that it is the first planet within a house, not its cusp ruler, which is actual ruler of that house. Similarly, Eden's Father's characteristics are dominated by Moon in Scorpio and its aspects rather than by the Cusp ruler of his house, Venus. But the Mars rulership of the cusp of the mother's house had its influence on Lady Eden, making her energetic, active, industrious, a leader in various organizations and projects, with the Venus influence predominant. Sir Anthony has inherited both the Venus and Mars traits of his mother. He has Mars ruling his midheaven, conjunction his ascendant, square the moon in his subconscious desire house, and square Venus in his house of publicity and occupation. His chart indicates him as a born leader.

Planets in the 4th, especially when aspecting other angular planets or in strong aspect with the Ascendant, midheaven, Sun or Moon, generally bring important events to members of the family or in regard to the home. Saturn, planet of separation or departure, in Eden's 4th, opposition the journey planet, Mercury, is indicative of the many departures and separations from home necessitated by Eden's frequent journeys, many of which were in service to his government, the journey planet being situated in his house of government, his 10th.

Retrograde Saturn, as ruler of Eden's house of illness, in his 4th, gives possibility of congenital defects in bodily health, or of illnesses in the native's family. The 6th house ruler conjoining retrograde Uranus suggests sudden attacks of illness, or illness requiring surgical operation. Ruler of the 6th opposition Mercury, and Node in the 6th opposition Mars in the concentrated fire sign Leo, signifies that mental stress and fatigue from overwork, may have been, at times, contributing factors causing illness. Eden has had attacks of illness, sickness because of mental strain and over work, and at least four surgical operations. The 6th, as Eden's house of work and service, ruled by Saturn in Scorpio, often means long continuance in a Scorpio, (sometimes a political) type of occupation. His house of work ruler, conjoining retrograde Uranus, suggests some changes or some interference with his work. Prime Mister Chamberlain interfered greatly at one time. Since the ruler of Eden's house of work, the plodding persistent Saturn is located with Uranus in the native's 4th, his constant, persistent attention to work created, at times, disturbance in his home, being resented by his first wife, since Uranus, ruler of her house, conjoins Saturn, ruler of his work.

Moon in the 4th, as ruler of Eden's 12th, is significant of difficulties and restrictions in the home. Eden felt restricted and was restricted in his activities at home by the critical, dominating attitude of his father.

Retrograde Uranus in the 4th, as ruler of Eden's marriage house, afflicted by its conjunction with retrograde Saturn, is significant of probable differences in the home between the marriage partners, possible separation or divorce, with one partner leaving home to establish a separate residence. Eden and his wife at Christmastime, 1946, sailed for the United States. When they reached New York, Eden's wife deserted him, the reason given that she could no longer stand his constant preoccupation with political and governmental work. Directed marriage house cusp and ascendant in 0:07 Aries and Libra, aspecting natal Moon in the 4th, brought change in regard to both home and marriage. Eden's directed marriage-separation point, (D.Sun-plus-moon-minus-Saturn) in 8:52 Leo, was opposition natal Node in his house of work. The directed ruler of his house of voyage and long journey, Neptune, 7:16 Leo and transiting Saturn 7 Leo, opposition his natal marriage point, (N.Sun-plus-Moon) in 7:14 Aquarius, are significant of the marriage separation which took place during that journey.

Eden won a suit for divorce on June 8, 1950, when the transiting planet of divorce, Uranus, in 4 Cancer, squared his directed marriage house cusp, 3:47 Aries. His directed planet of success, his Ascendant ruler, the Sun, in 12:34 Leo, was conjunction his Ascendant and opposing his marriage house cusp.

Two years later, on August 14, 1952, Eden married Sir Winston Churchill's niece. His biographer describes her as a shy, retiring person, with literary gifts. Eden's 9th house, which represents his second wife, is ruled by the shyest, most retiring sign and planet in the zodiac, Pisces and Neptune. She worked for a newspaper and for the Government's Ministry of Information. The ruler of her personal house, Neptune, is in her 3rd, her mental expression house, in the mental sign Gemini. The cusp ruler of her 6th house of work, the Sun, also is posited in Gemini in her 3rd. Transiting Jupiter, on the date of this marriage, in 19 and 3/4 Taurus, aspected Eden's directed marriage house cusp in 5:28 Aries, indicating the probability that this would be a successful or a wealthy marriage, or both.

Retrograde Uranus, as ruler of Eden's 8th, in his 4th, conjunction his retrograde planet of separation, departure or death, Saturn, suggests probability of sudden, accidental or violent death in the family.

During the approximate year and a half period between the Fall of 1914 and the Spring of 1916, there were three deaths in Eden's family, two of them due to the war. Sir Anthony's directed midpoint of death (D.Mars-midpoint-Saturn), at the first death, that of an older brother, in 21:35 Libra, was opposition the native's natal Midheaven, which is the cusp of the brother's house of death, his 8th. At the two later deaths in this period, those of his father and youngest brother, Anthony's directed point of death (D.Mars-plus-Saturn), in 28 and 29 Aries, semi squared natal Pluto, ruler of the natural house of death, Pluto being in the 8th or death house of the father. Transiting and directed aspects which lasted thru this period are: Directed Saturn and Uranus in 12 to 14 Sagittarius, opposition natal Pluto; Directed Pluto, in 0 and 1 Cancer, and transiting Pluto during most of this period in the same degree, sesqui squaring natal Moon in the 4th; Directed Node, 15: to 16:34 Aquarius also squaring Natal Moon in 4th.

Eden received news of the death of his son in the second world war on July 5, 1945. The directed military planet Mars, then in 0:12 Libra, was semi squaring the Moon in Eden's 4th, the Moon being ruler of this oldest son's death house. The Native's directed point of death, in 25:55 Taurus, opposed the natal Saturn-Uranus conjunction in his house of home and family.

Our native's political career began in 1922 soon after his graduation from college. He was defeated for election at the polls on November 5, when transiting Saturn, 14-1/2 Libra, squared his directed Neptune, 14-1/2 Cancer, both aspecting his critical natal Jupiter-Saturn midpoint in 14:32 Libra. Election would have made him a member of the British House of Commons, but in addition to the two planets of denial, transiting Saturn and directed Neptune in aspect with each other, his directed Saturn, in 20:12 Sagittarius, opposed natal Neptune in his 11th, the house which, in Britain, is associated with the House of Commons. This is significant of his failure to obtain the office he desired. But, when he renewed his campaigning efforts the following Fall, he was successful, directed Jupiter, in 28:52 Virgo, having, in the meantime, entered a semi square with his Midheaven ruler, natal Mars.

Eden's first marriage took place on November 5, during this election campaign. Natal Uranus, Eden's marriage house ruler, in 26 Scorpio, was aspected on that date by conjunction with transiting Jupiter and transiting Venus, in, respectively, 25 and 3/4 and 26 and 1/2 Scorpio and semi-squared by transiting Mars 11 and 3/4 Libra. Transiting Sun, in 12 Scorpio, squared the Ascendant and marriage house cusp. That this was a wealthy marriage is indicated by the Jupiter aspect. That it might lead to eventual quarrels and disintegration is signified by the Mars aspect to the marriage house ruler, Uranus.

The native's first really important political appointment came on January 31, 1934, when he became Lord Privy Seal. Directed Midheaven, in 25:54 Taurus, was opposition his natal Uranus-Saturn conjunction, which sometimes refers to change in position. The change had to be fortunate, since transiting Jupiter, in 21 Libra, was aspecting both natal Midheaven and natal Sun, directed Sun being trine the Natal Saturn-Uranus conjunction aspected by directed Midheaven.

The Native's popularity and prestige soared to its first peak in the early part of 1936, transiting Jupiter, in its own sign Sagittarius, aspecting, in order, the planets in his house of friends, hopes and wishes, directed Sun 28-1/2 Cancer also being semi square natal Pluto in that house. But, as these aspects were passing out of their one degree orb, and transiting Saturn, reaching 21 Pisces, squared natal Sun, and transiting Neptune in Virgo squared natal Pluto, both Sun and Pluto being representative of Superiors, he began to have trouble with the Prime Minister and the Cabinet members. His prestige received its first check on July 1, when he was forced, by the attitude of the Cabinet, to make a speech directly contrary to his former championship of sanctions against Italy as punishment for her aggression in Abyssinia, a speech in favor of appeasement. The Press called his speech a betrayal. He was attacked from all sides. Transiting Uranus, in 8:48 Taurus, in conjunction with natal Venus in the 10th, brought a reversal to his prestige and popularity. Transiting Saturn, 22-1/2 Pisces, semi square natal Node in his 6th, made the work he did on that day distasteful to him. It also brought criticism and dislike from others. Eden's directed Ascendant, then in 20:00 Virgo, was in close square with his planet of humiliation, Neptune. But eight months later, after directed Ascendant had nearly passed out of orb of its aspect with Natal Neptune, and was approaching conjunction with natal Sun, Eden's efforts to redeem his reputation had succeeded.

Late in 1937 the native began a public attack upon Hitler and Mussolini for abuse of their dictatorship powers. Prime Minister Chamberlain and most of his Cabinet favoring appeasement of these dictators, Cabinet hostility against Eden became so great that when it reached its climax at a Cabinet meeting on February 19, 1938, Eden felt forced to resign. Transiting Mars on the date of the meeting, in 14-1/2 Aries, semi squared Eden's directed Midheaven, 29:48 Taurus and natal Mercury, indicating a battle of words involving his position. Directed Mars, in 23:08 Virgo, sesqui-squared Natal Node in his house of work, so his work and actions in service were attacked. Directed Pluto, in 22:08 Cancer, semi square Eden's natal Saturn-Neptune resignation Midpoint in 16:41 Libra.

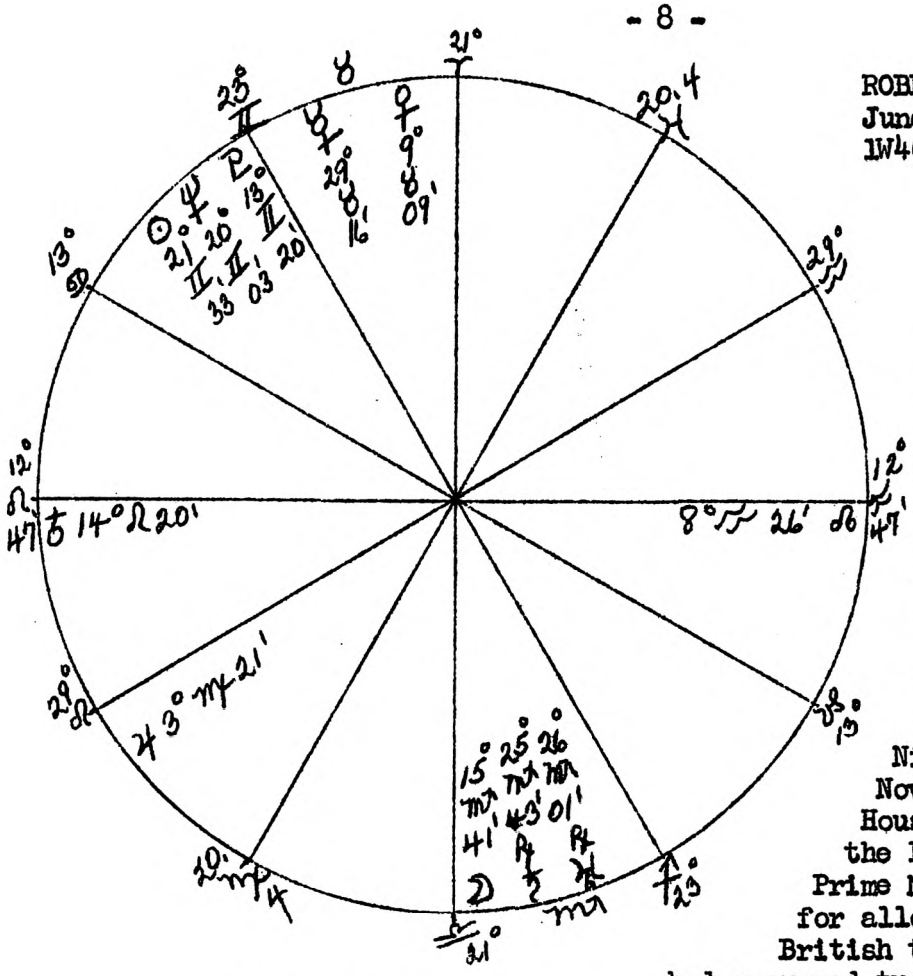

Return to office came on September 3, 1939, when his directed planet of good fortune, Jupiter, in 13:36 Libra, aspecting by sesqui square, his natal secretarial planet Mercury in his 10th, the house of public position, he was made British Secretary for the Dominions. His stock was high in 1942 and 1943 due to his successful negotiations with Stalin, natal Neptune, ruler of his foreign house, being aspected by his directed success planet, his Ascendant ruler, the Sun, and natal Node, in his house of work, by his directed conciliatory planet Venus. Directed Midheaven 3 to 4 Gemini, squared natal Jupiter; directed Sun, 4-1/2 to 5-1/2 Leo was sqmi square his natal Sun-Neptune conjunction.

The year 1945 was unfortunate for Eden. Saturn was transiting over his house of restriction. Uranus was passing back and forth over his 11th house planets. He had an attack of illness in June, received notice of his son's death in July, and in late Fall, when his Conservative Party lost the election, his prestige appeared to be on the wane, directed Neptune, then in 5:55 Leo, being semi square his natal Sun.

The years 1950 and 1951 were prestige years for Eden. When he again became Foreign Secretary, on October 27, 1951, his directed Midheaven, 12:55 Gemini, conjoined his natal of power and politics, Pluto; his directed Secretarial planet, Mercury, in 21:11 Cancer, squared natal Midheaven and transiting Jupiter, 6 Aries, was opposition his directed Midheaven ruler, Mars, in 6:15 Libra.

Early in 1954 a London newspaper, the Daily Mirror, published a violent, treacherous attack on Eden, designed to injure his reputation. The native's directed planet of treachery, Neptune, conjoined the planet of attack, Mars, in his personal 1st house; directed Uranus and Saturn, planets of upheaval and damage, in 20 Capricorn, squared the cusp of his house of reputation, natal Midheaven. But, from October to the end of that year his prestige was never higher. He was knighted by the Queen, awarded the Carnegie Peace Prize, and the Daily Mirror, which earlier had attacked him, now named him THE Politician of the year. Transiting Uranus and transiting Jupiter, both in 27 to 29 Cancer, with Jupiter at the end of the year in 0 Leo, aspected natal Pluto and then natal Moon.

When Eden's directed Midheaven had reached the orb of conjunction with his natal Ascendant-Midheaven Midpoint of public position in 16:53 Gemini, directed Jupiter in 28:46 Libra sesqui squaring natal Pluto, planet of power and politics and directed Pluto, 8:32 Leo was squaring natal Venus in his 10th, Eden reached his highest peak of popularity and achieved his greatest triumph in his appointment to the highest political office in Britain, that of Prime Minister.

But Eden's wheel of fortune turned all too soon. Nineteen months later, on November 1, 1956, in the House of Commons, a member of the Labor Party moved that Prime Minister Eden be censured for allowing the entrance of British troops into Egypt, which had occurred two days before, but, after arguments from both sides were presented, the native received from the House a Vote of Confidence. Four days later there were public street demonstrations in London against Eden with cries of "Down with Eden! Eden must go!" Leaders of most nations other than Britain and France condemned the entrance of troops as aggression.

That a change of fortune was in store for the Native was evident, even on the date of the Vote of Confidence, since transiting Node, in 29:55 Scorpio was semi squaring Eden's natal critical Jupiter-Saturn midpoint in 14:32 Libra and transiting Saturn on that day entered a one degree orb of a square with natal Jupiter. The transiting planet of change or reversal, Uranus, in 6:56 Leo, semi squared the Native's natal prestige and success planet, the Sun, which rules his Ascendant. Transiting Mars, on the date of the street demonstration against him, in 17 Pisces, was squaring his Directed Midheaven in 17:43 Gemini.

Two months later, on January 10, 1957, Eden resigned. Transiting Node, then in 26-1/4 Scorpio was conjunction his natal planet of downfall and reversal, retrograde Saturn and Uranus. The transiting planet of resignation, Neptune, in 2:26 Scorpio, sesqui squared the native's directed Midheaven in 17:55 Gemini. Since that fateful day we have heard very little about Sir Anthony Eden.

DEATH AND BIRTH CHARTS

By

CONTESTANT NO. 5.

This native may have left his home town about 10:00 A. M., or 11 o'clock. As it would take fully an hour to reach his luncheon engagement, the drive would consume about 40 miles, as no doubt he wished to arrive with a little time to spare to visit or do some business beforehand, as it is the usual custom among business people.

As the Sun was nearing its zenith, it also was conjoining th native's Natal Saturn, with Pluto opposing it, also that day was purely a Pluto day, as both the Sun and Moon were in aspect to this unknown planet.

The luncheon was in progress, and this man was to be a guest speaker, no doubt the luncheon must have been almost over with, for as soon as it was to be concluded the native was to be on his way to Waterloo, Iowa, for another evening engagement of dinner, and a speaker also. As Waterloo, Iowa is some 200 miles North of Burlington, Iowa, he would prepare to leave as soon as possible.

As I stated, the luncheon was nearing its end, when the native turned to his fellow table guest, and stated he believed he had to quit eating, as he felt as if he had eaten too much as it was. He then complained of pains across his abdomen, when he fell forward onto the table. He was taken to the hospital where he died at 7:15 P. M., C.S.T.

Birth data is July 4, 1905, Sonora Township, Illinois, near Nauvoo, Illinois, nearest Latitude and Longitude is 40N48, 91W19. Burlington, Iowa, the place of death, Des Moines County, with 91W06, 40N48, at 7:15 P. M., February 19, 1958.

The New Moon of February 18, 1958, at 9:38 A. M., at 29:29:17' Aquarius, with the opposition of Pluto, the first major aspect the Lights made after the New Moon. The Pluto aspect was at 1° Pisces, Virgo.

In the death chart, Pluto was in the 12th House sector, Sun and Moon in the 6th, Mercury ruled the death chart. It also may have ruled the time of the departure from his home town. Gemini, Virgo Aquarius rules the 6th, and Pisces the 7th.

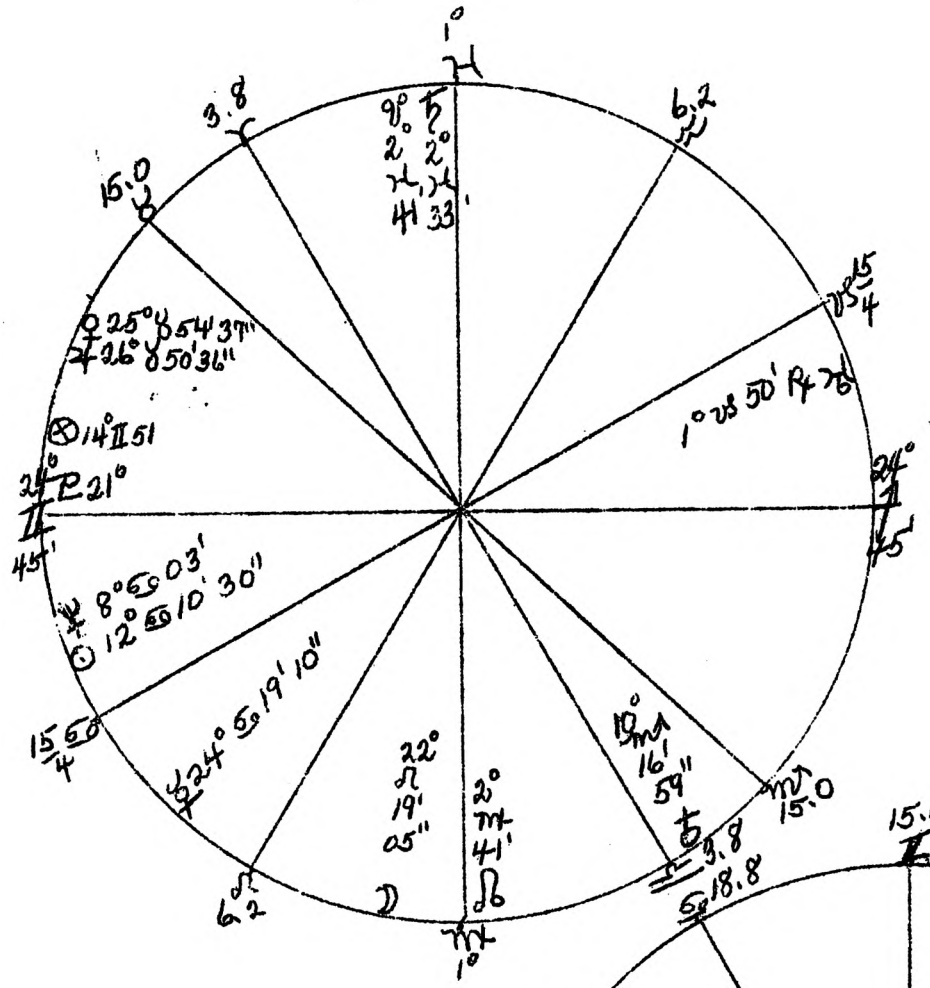

Mercury was 21 degrees Aquarius, a critical degree, the Ascendant being 17 degrees Virgo is also a critical degree. Uranus also near the 9th degree of Leo, a critical degree. Mars no doubt was leaving the 8th House sector, or near the decendant at the time of departure from home. Mars is not in harmony with Capricorn. It is in its solar 10th. It's position fell near the 5th House cusp in this death chart.

In the obituary this man was noted for his work in community affairs. He was mayor of the town of Nauvoo, Illinois for 20 years. He was prominent in business circles, operating a Service Station (oil) and an Automobile Agency, Chevrolet (Uranus).

This Native could be as famous as Brigham Young, and his followers, as he was the founder of the 'Grape Festival' held each year, since he became mayor of Nauvoo, Illinois. This Festival brings some 100,000 people to see the 'Wedding of the Wine and Cheese,' a three day celebration, with a grand parade included.

He was a member of the Mississippi River Parkway Commission, of which he helped build the Beautiful Scenic Highway along the Mississippi River to Hamilton, Illinois, some ten miles down the river.

Not being familiar with Townships, but Sonora would lie South West from Nauvoo, or direct South. As the native's Moon is in Leo, and in this drawn up map of the radical chart, brings it to a point in the 3rd House sector. The North Node in the 4th sector by transitition would enter the 3rd, here he would exercise his rightful destiny.

Bring the Sun sign and the Sun in the Ascendant, here he would work with the common people, as Nauvoo is surrounded by farmers and small business men. They grow grapes and make cheese, etc. As there are no large towns, surrounded, then he would deal with them also in business ventures, gas, oil, and automobiles. Sun conjoins Neptune, ruler of his 10th house.

The Sun being posited in Cancer, the Moon in Leo brings forth a mutual understanding, in this exalted position of these Benefic planets, or the 'Lights'.

The Sun is posited in the Moon's natural 12th House, the Moon in the Sun's natural 1st House. The Sun is within a few moments of the 13th degree of Cancer, a critical degree also. Uranus, the planet ruling the 6th House sector of the death chart is posited at one degree Capricorn in the Birth chart, on a critical orb degree.

Mars also is near the critical degree of 9 degrees Scorpio, a Pluto decan. Scorpio is the sign embracing the 6th in this birth chart. Pluto posited in Gemini 3 degrees from the Ascendant. If this chart would be considered as correct, then by transit Pluto was now on the 4th cusp, House of birth, and the natural ending.

Saturn by transit was now entering the 24th degree of Sagittarius, the sign on the 7th House Cusp. Capricorn ruled over the 8th House sector, with Uranus retrograde in the 7th, in Capricorn.

Venus ruling over the 5th., and the 12th Houses in conjunction with Jupiter the ruler of the 7th, public affairs. Mars governs the 11th House Space, posited near the cusp of the 6th, in Scorpio. Venus and Jupiter in the 12th space, indulges in food and drink of which it is said he was on the heavy side. As Aries rules the House of Friends and his social activities, his friends would be at the head of such affairs. Also he would receive his measure of success.

Now the 12th House space is the 2nd from the House of Friends, their positions and possessions. With these two Greater Benefics posited therein, his friends would be indulgent with their possessions for the native's use and well-fare. While he headed activities, he could not create the "Wedding of the Wine and Cheese" alone, his friends and associates would and did, give him the support he needed, of which with Venus and Jupiter conjoined would be lavish indeed.

In further study of the 12th House sector, it also is the House of self-undoing, secret affairs, hidden emotions. He over ate and drank. With all the planets on the Eastern half, he thought of SELF. But with Uranus in his 7th, public attractions pulled him out of his hidden emotions, thus performed the duties of which destiny had allotted him.

He truly was a public man. He made friends by the score. Everywhere he made them and kept them also. Since Mars was posited in the 5th near the 6th house cusp, the ruler of the 11th, it was the pleasureable duty of his friends to be of service to him.

He has six planets in a water sign and four of them cardinal. This included the sign on the MC also.

The Pars Fortune was posited in the 12th sector. Sun conjoined Neptune, ruler of the 10th. Sun trined Mars ruler of the 11th. Saturn conjoined the South Node in the 10th, the loss of the mother.

Pisces is the natural 10th house of Cancer. With Saturn there his business would be from the old tradition, OIL.

He was of medium stature, a corpulant body, a jovial person, and bald headed. And his name is Lowell S. Horton. His death was assigned to a heart attack, of which he had suffered a few hours before death occurred.

KEY TO ASTROLOGY

Members of the AFA at our Los Angeles Convention in 1950 requested that we republish some classics of Astrology that were difficult for students to obtain. In accordance with our principle of service to members, we published Simmonite's ARCANA OF ASTROLOGY, first. This began in the December 1959 issue of the AFA BULLETIN and ran for almost two years before it was completed. Next, we published James Wilson's DICTIONARY OF ASTROLOGY beginning with the March 1953 issue of the AFA BULLETIN and continuing through December 1955.

Beginning with the February 1956 issue of the AFA BULLETIN and continuing to the present (and on the following pages), we have been publishing the 1676 edition of Coley's KEY TO ASTROLOGY. We are following the spelling just as it is given in the original text, but shall omit certain tables he published which are not "out-of-date."

III. I proceed to the next Column under the Pole of 45d. and right against 4d. of Declination I find 50d. 3m. and the next Distance underneath is 49d. 3m. Differ. 60m. so that if 60m. give, or rather abate 60m. 37m will abate 37m. out of 53d. 3m. and the remainder is 49d. 26m. and this is more than the Distance from the Meridian required; and in the Head of the Table I find 44d. for the Pole of position.

IV. So that had the Declination been 4d. 37m. and the Distance from the Meridian just 46d. 59m. the Pole of Position must have been 44d. and no more: also to the same Declination had the Distance been 49d. 26m. the Poles Elevation had been just 45d. Now the Difference between 46d.58m. and 49d. 26m. is 2d. 28m. or 148m. and the Difference between 46d. 58m. 8the lesser Distancd) and 48d. 48m. the true Distance is 1d. 50m. or 110m. Then I say, if 148m. gives 60m. in the Pole of Position, what shall 110m. give facit 44m. and hence I comclude the true Circle, or Pole of Position of the Moon to be 44d. 44m. and hence I conclude the true Circle, or Pole of Position of the Moon to be 44d. 44m. and this is the true way of Aequation, which few Artists practice, but are content to Direct under the nearest whole degrees thereof; which sometimes cannot but make considerable errour in the Ark of Direction.

	d.		(Pole 44)	m. m.	m. m.
I. Dec.	(4)	Dist.	(47.35)	Then as 60.5m	: : 37:37	sere
	(5)		(46.36)	47d. 35m.-37 =		58m.
Difference abates			00.59

			(Pole 45)	m. s.	m. m.
2. Dec.	(4)	Dist.	(50.03)	Then as 60·60	: : 37:37:
	(5)		(49.03	50d. 3m. --37m.	= 49.26.
Difference			01.00

Pole	(44) Dist. a	(46.58)	The True Dist. a Merid.	48.48.
	(45) Merid.	(49.26)	from which Subtract	46.58.
	Differ.	2.28	or 148'. Diff. is 1° 50'	or 110'

Lastly, by the Logist. or Log., say, as 148m. to 60m. the Diff. of the Poles Elevation, so is 110m. to 44m. which added to the 44d. of the Poles Elevation gives 44d. 44m. for the true Elevation of the Pole above the Circle of Position of thd Moon in the Latitude of 5[illegible]d. which would require much more work, had there been odd minutes adhering thereunto, and the whole work is more easier performed by Proportions in Trigonometry, as shall be exemplified.

C H A P. V I.

How to fimd the Declination and Right Ascention of a Star or Planet with Latitude by the Common Tables for the Purpose.

I. If your Difference in Longitude, and Latitude, both increase, take the Sum of your proportional parts, and add to the lesser Right Ascention given, and you have your desire.

On the contrary, if both the Difference in Longitude and Latitude decrdase, take their Correspondent proportional parts, and add them together, and Subtract their Sum from the next lesser R. Ascen. gives the Right Ascention, or Declination desired.

II. If the Difference increases in Longitude, and decreases in Latitude, or the contrary; take the Difference of your proportional parts adhering; and observe whether the greater, or lesser of them be noted with Add. or subtract: if the greater Number noted add, then add the Difference of your parts proportional, to the Right Ascention, or Declination, under the lesser Latitude; but if the greader part proportional be noted subtract, take their Difference, and Subtract the Remainder from the Right Ascention, or Decli - nation agreeable to the Longitude under the lesser Latitude, and the Work is d:,ne.

Observe the same Method, if the Differences increase in Latitude, and decrease in Longitude, as oft-times it doth in a Planets Declination. These Rules will appear more plain if Illustrated by Example, which take as followeth.

First, Let Mars be supposed to be in 17d. 54m. of Libra with 2d. 41m. North Latitude.

I.	Against	(18 ♎)	under	2.	N. Lat. I find	(197.	21)	Diff. 56
		(17 ♎)				(196.	25)

Then as 60':56' : : 54':50. add because the Diff. increases.

2.	Against	(17 ♎)	un-	(3)	N.L. I find	R.A.	(196.48)	D.23
		(17♎)	der	(2)			(196.25)

Then say, If 60'. of Lat. gives 23'. what 31'.facit. sere'. Unto which I add the aforesaid 50m. (because both Longitude and Latitude increase) their Sum is 66m. or 1d. 6m. This added to the lesser R. A. 166d. 25m. produces the true R. A. 197d. 31m.

Again I desire the Right Ascention of Venus in 20d. 7m. of Virgo with Lat. South 3d. 50m. Work thus as the most Compendius.

I.	R. A. ♀	(21)	170.33)	Sub. Lat.	3	South
Diff.			00.55	Increasing
Then say,		As	60m:55m: :	7m:6m:	Add.

		(Sub.)	d.	d. m.
2.	R. A. ♀	( )	3---	169.38
		(Lat.)	4---	169.14
	Diff.		1---	00.24 Decreasing.

Then say, as 60 to 24m::50:20 subtract.

And 20m. - 6m. = 14 which Subtracted from the lesser R. A. 169d. 38m. remains the true R. A. of ♀ 169d. 24m.

(Note here because the lesser proportional part is noted with Add. and the greater with Subtract; I take their Difference 14m. and Subtract from the lesser Right Ascention, gives the true R. A., but had the greater proportional part been noted Add, and the lesser Subtract, as I must have added their Difference, as Reason will better direct, than many Rules.)

Secondly, Suppose a Planet be in 12d. 15m. Virgo with Latitude North 3d. 24m. and his Declination be required by the Tables.

I. Seek 12d. of Virgo in the first Column, and 3d. of Lat. North at the Head of the Table; under which I cast mine Eye down that Column, till I come against 12d. of Virgo, which I find in the Common Angle to be 9d. 51m. and the Difference between this and the Declination next following, (viz. against 13d. Virgo, 9d. 28m.) is (23m) decreasing.

Then say, as 60m: 23m:: 15m: 6m. i.e. if 60m. of Longitude decrease in 23m. in Declination, what 15m. adhering to the Longitude, facit 6. which I note down with the Title Subtract, because the Declination Decreases.

II. I make search in the next Column under 4d. of Latitude, right against 12d. of Virgo in the first Column, where I find 10d. 46m. the Difference between which, and 9d. 51m. under 3d. of Lat. is 55m. increasing.

Then say, if 60m. of Lat. increase 55m. what shall 24m. (the odd min. of Lat. given) facit 22m. because the Latitude increases; and this I note down with the Title Subtract.

III. Now because the one is Add, and the other Subtract: I take their Difference, viz. 6m. from 22m. aforesaid, rests 16m. which I add to the lesser Declination on 9d. 51m. and that amounts to 10d. 7m. the true Declination of Venus, desired; (Whaire note that the Difference of the proportional parts are added to the lesser Declination, because the greater of those parts were noted with add; but had that part been noted Subtract, I must have taken the Difference, and Subtracted the remainder from the lesser Declination, or R. A., &c. and thus the business is made plain to the meanest capacitie, or Learner, whom I have known to stumble very much at these things, which to an Artist, I must confess are superfluous: But these Rules are apt to slip out of the Memory of those who have been very ready in Operation after a discontinuing of this Practice for a small time; and upon that consideration may be acceptable, both to the expert Teacher and the Learner also.

IV. Having the Oblique Ascention of any of the six Northern Signs (which may be Computed by Prop. VII.) under any Elevation, you may from thence gain the Oblique Ascention of the six Southern Signs, and the contrary, thus viz. As suppose the Oblique Ascention of 10d. of Sagittarius under the Pole of 41d. is 268.55. which Subtracted from 360 leaves 91d. 5m. for the Oblique Ascention of 20d. of Cancer, according to the following Position of the Signs, and Degrees.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	20	25	30
29	28	27	26	25	24	23	22	21	20	10	5	0

So the Oblique Ascention of 15d. of Cancer under the Pole of 41d. is 85d. 1m. this Subtracted out of 360d. leaves the Oblique Ascention of 15d. of Sagittarius, viz. 274d. 59m. & sic in aliis.

Note that the six Northern Signs with North Latitude have the same R. Ascen. with Southern Signs, and South Latitude abating 180d. & contra; so North Signs, and North Latitude decrease the R. A. and increase in South Latitude, and North Latitude in Southern Signs increase their R. A. as much, and decrease in South Latitude, &c. as may be observed by the Tables themselves.

CHAP. VII.

OF THE JUDGMENT OF A NATIVITY.

SECT. I.

Necessary Considerations before Judgment upon a Nativity.

I. Consider the strength, or weakness of the Planets in general, and see how they bdhold each other; and in particular, whether they cast any benevolent Aspect to the Ascendant, Lord thereof, or the Sun, or Moon.

II. See whether the Luminaries behold the Ascendant friendly, also in what Houses and Quarter of Heaven they and the rest of the Planets with ☉ are posited.

III. Take notice what Eminent fixed Stars of the first or second Magnitude (that have but small Latitude from the Ecliptick) fall in any of the Angles, or near unto the chief Significators in the Figure; consider the nature of these fixed Stars, if so be they agree (in nature) with those Planets they are nearly joined with; this doth augment their signification, be it good or bad; But if those Stars happen to be of contrary natures, order your Judgment accordingly.

IB. Consider also in what Houses, or parts of the Heavens the Antiscions, or Contra-antiscions of all the Planets fall, whether upon the Cusps of the chief Houses thereof, or near the degrees of any of the Planets places, or fixed Stars therein; and accordingly moderate your Judgment.

V. From these (and such like) considerations you may be able Rationally to Judge and Determine (in a general way) what the Natives Fate may be; having also respect to the Directions that fall in the Nativity, both good and bad, for the effects of both, Persons of all degrees must (undoubtedly) be sure, more or less, to partake of, during the time of their Operations; although it so happens, that in some Nativities, the good Directions do much to surmount the bad, and in others the contrary.

For if we are content with the effects of good Directions, we must of necessity bear with the force of bad also, because Squares and Oppositions must have their Operations as well as Sextiles and Trines; for without the one the other cannot be; and therefore some sower, as well as sweet, will attend all Persons. Hence then I may conclude, that the foreknowledge of these events is very convenient; For thereby we may put ourselves in a Capacity to receive all promised good, and if we cannot withstand approaching Dangers, yet we may be able, in part, to mittigate their force; and thereby the more easily evade. Now the particular times when either of these things may happen is artificially pointed out by the Art of Directions.

VI. Lastly, in Judging any thing concerning the Native, whether Life, Estate, Marriage, Preferment, Travel, &c. The Artist ought rightly to understand (and be exceedingly perfect in) the nature and significations of the Significators & Promitters; also their Fortitudes, and Debilities, and how they are beheld, either by good or bad Aspects of the other Planets, and thereby assisted or afflicted; I say, without such considdrations an Artist cannot well Judge (or thereby inform the Native) of his future Fate, and what may, probabily happen unto him in the whole Cours of his Life, according to Natural Causes.

S E C T. I I.

Of the General Signification of the Lord of the Ascendant in a Nativity.

I. That Person which is born under Saturn shall more or less, in conditions, participate of his Nature, viz. He will be a close subtile Person, altogether aiming at his own Interest; high minded, self-conceited, sufficiently churlish, and of a dogged disposition; Timerous, a condemner of Women, (as to Marriage) yet Luxurious, and many times addicted to fear, lye, and dissemble; and not altogether a stranger to Drunkenness. But if Saturn be well seated in the Nativity, those evil inclinations will be much abated and the Native proves a man of profound Judgment, few words, very studious, Grave and Severe, and one that heap up the goods of this Life.

II. Such as are born under Jupiter prove Vertuous Persons in the general, they will be Just and Honest in all their dealings and actions, Wise and Prudent, Liberal to those that stand in need, having a desire to benefit all Persons and perfect Haters of all unworthy Acts.

But if Jupiter be ill disposed in the Nativity, the Native then proves a very Extravagant Person, ignorant, careless; and in fine, but of a dull capacity, a fawning, dissembling Companion, and not fit to be trusted.

III. Those that are Born when Mars bears Rule, will be inclinable to all manner of Rash Actions, and generally subject to any kind of Mischief, as Quarreling, Fighting, Swearing, Lying, Stealing, Killing, &c.

But if Mars be well seated in the Figure, the Natives inclinations are not altogether so bad; yet, if Authors may be credited, bad is the best; for they usually prove Pèrjured, Turbulent, Treachdrous Persons, &c. --- Proud, Boasters, &c.

IV. Such as are Born when the Sun bears Rule, will aim at high things, having a desire of Soveraignty; generally Lofty Spirits, proud, and high, but of excellent sound Judgments; Lovers of Honour, and all honourable Actions searchers into many rare Secrets; and usually not without success.

But if the Sun be weak in the Nativity, or much afflicted, the Natives Inclinations are not at all so commendable, but much of this good signification is abated, as before hinted in the other Planets.

V. Those Persons that are Born under the Dominion of Venus, (and the well dignified in the Nativity) will be inclinable (for the most part) to mirth; and in general they are virtuous Persons, delighting much in taking their pleasure, and to go spruce and neat in their Apparrel; often en snared in Love matters, constant in their Affections, free from Jealousie, &c.

But note that if Venus happen to be ill dignified in the Geniture, then the Native is usually inclinable to pleasures of the worser sort; as Drunkenness, Wenching, and such like sordid Actions, not fit to be so much as mentioned.

VI. Such as are Born under the Dominion of Mercury (and strong) are usually great Searchers into many Curiosities; such Pèrsons generally have most excellent Wits, sharp Fancies inclinable to all kind of Learning, Eloquent, good Orators; and in short, capable to understanding the most occult Misteries, belonging to any Science, without much instruction.

If Mercury be ill disposed, this good signification is much abated; and then the Native groves a mere verbsl Person, a great boaster, pretending to much knowledge, and guilty of very little, if any at all; and many times too much addicted to Lying, Cheating, Pilfering, and such like vitious and dishonest Actions.

VII. Lastly, Those Persons Born under the Dominion of the Moon, are usually unsteadfast, and wavering, timerous, delighting to be wandering, and shifting, from place to place but for the most part they are ingenious, lovers of all kinds of Novelties, and such as are willing to live at peace.

But if the Moon be weak in the Nativity, and much debilitated, or afflicted, this argues the Native to be but a loose kind of Person, a mere sottish, idle, lazy Creature, having no spirit, but doth (as it were) delight to be careless of himself, and to live in a poor, low, mean, and beggerly condition.

Note that what is spoken here of the Lord of the Ascendant in a Nativity, may also be understood of the Lord of the Geniture, which is that Planet that hath most Essential, and Accidental Dignities in the Figure of the Geniture. But if any other Planet therein should happen to be nearly as strong as he, or if any other Planet (or Planets) should behold him, or the Lord of the Ascendant; in this case, the Artist is to mix his Judgment according to their several Significators, and from thence Judge the Qualities, and Conditions of the Native.

SECT. III.

Of the Faces of the Signs being Horoscopial in any Geniture.

The Faces of the Signs are accounted, by some, very necessary in Astrological Judgments; and have been verified in many Nativities. For which John Angulus hath described convenient Images that very well express their several significations, which are briefly thus, viz.

I. If the first Face of Aries ascend, the Native will be a Person of an undaunted Spirit, confident and bold, couragious and valiant; because 'tis a face of Mars.

The second Face signifies the Native will be preferred, and come to bear Rule, it being the Face of the Sun.

The third Face declares the Native to be acute, addicted to Musick, to Mirth, and to Pleasures in gendral; because 'tis a Face of Venus.

II. If the Face of Taurus ascend, the Native will be skilful in Husbandry, and inclinable to study, several things Mathematical; as Geometry, Surveying, &c. for 'tis a Face of Mercury.

The second Face shews the Native shall have great power but be Instrumental in the Ruine of Places, and impoverishing the Inhabitants thereof; this is the Face of the Moon.

The third Face denotes the Native shall be much afflicted by hard Labour, Want, and Misery, as also suffer Bondage and Slavery, unless the Fortunes interpose their friendly

Rayes; for 'tis a Face of Saturn.

III. The first Face of Gemini ascending, intimates the Native may prove a Scrivener, or an Accomptant; or one employed about receiving, and paying Money; it also declares many other Imployments wherein the Wit is much exercised, and small profit arising thereby; this is a Face of Jupiter.
