Is Astrology a pseudo science? Is it worth your investigation or interest?

Certain elements in the scientific and astronomical world have taken it upon themselves to "expose" Astrology as a fraudulent science. As an astrologer, applying the teachings of this science in my work with many thousands of people, I challenge any astronomer to study and apply true scientific astrology for one year, and emerge from that year's experience an unbeliever in astrology's worthwhileness and scientific foundation.

Astrology has a message for every living soul. No sincere person has ever studied this celestial science and turned from it an infidel.

One "astronomer" has written a book, another has a series of lectures, in which both concur that "astrologers use the wrong zodiac." Maybe you have seen the ridiculous reports of these alleged attacks upon astrology and astrologers.

If astrologers use the wrong zodiac, I would ask astronomers to find us another to use. There is only ONE ZODIAC to be used by astronomy or by astrology. Astrology, in its general use today, uses the zodiac and not the constellations of the heavens, as the basis for its reckoning of the Sun's (or other planetary) position. That is where our dear critics reveal their abysmal ignorance of true astrology.

These men may have studied the geography of the heavens. Their eyes may have traced a ceaseless path through the mysteries of the skies. They are, in my opinion, like the temple priest, so erudite, sitting high in his tower, who ever looked upward seeking truth, but never downward at the masses who needed the application of truths found in that upward search.

It is, and has always been, taught by astrology that each body of the heavens has a tremendous effect upon the earth through the transition of light waves or energy which constantly bombard the earth. It must follow that if the earth is affected by vibrations of energy from outer space, any change or disturbance in the source of that energy would have a corresponding change in affecting the earth. If the earth receives and reacts to energy coming from the Sun and other planets, then it is only reasonable to believe that everything upon the earth which is dependent upon the earth for existence, is also affected.

"Scientific circles are somewhat agog as a result of the Mt. Wilson Observatory Discovery that at virtually the same moment short wave radio signals are periodically interrupted, a gaseous explosion occurs just above a sunspot, and the magnetic field of the earth is decreased." This paragraph is quoted from the magazine section of the Los Angeles Sunday Times of June 14th, 1936. It tells us that:

A gaseous explosion occurs just above a sunspot!

The magnetic field of the earth is disturbed!

Short wave radio signals are periodically interrupted!

Science knows that any effect is produced by an existing cause: for short wave radio signals to be disturbed, and the magnetic field of the earth to be decreased, some disturbance in the distribution of energy has to have occurred. In searching for the cause, they discovered that a gaseous explosion above the sunspots occurred simultaneously with this disturbed condition upon earth. The gaseous explosion took place upon the sun, 90,000,000 miles FROM THE EARTH, was transmitted in energy and vibration to the earth in eight minutes, and produced a disturbed condition upon our earth, which was revealed by the interruption of short wave radio signals.

I wonder what happens to the magnetic field of EACH HUMAN BEING alive, as this disturbance in solar energy interferes with short wave radio signals and as the magnetic field of the earth is decreased.

Astrology will tell you!

The world of humanity is interested in science as it can interpret the effect of this sunspot disturbance upon HUMAN LIVES and earth affairs. Astronomy discovers and

THE INFLUENCE OF URANUS

UPON YOUR LIFE and AFFAIRS, ACCORDING TO YOUR BIRTHDAY

URANUS is the great planet of change. Without its stirring, altering influence, we might stagnate in the still pool of past endeavors and mistakes. Uranus is like the angel which came to stir and trouble the waters of the pool of Bethesda. A complete change could be expected to occur in the life and body of the one who first stepped into those troubled waters.

Where is the still pool in your life, to which Uranus comes to stir it into troubled activity and change?

Every seven years, Uranus enters a new sign of the Zodiac. Its change of zodiacal sign produces a corresponding change in its position in relationship to YOU, according to your birthday. According to the sign of the Zodiac occupied by Uranus (or any other planet) so is some department (or house) of your solar chart activated and troubled. Uranus brings the unexpected. Its action tends to create upheavals and change the direction of one's affairs and interests. Uranus steps into the still pool of some department of your life and begins to trouble and stir the things ruled by that particular department of your life. Uranus introduces you to new experiences. Growth is developed and experienced through CHANGE. Uranus indicates the place in your life where you can expect change, troubled activity, new conditions, and from which you can emerge a new man, a new woman.

In the following paragraphs, I have outlined the influence, according to my interpretation of astrology, which Uranus brings into each life, according to the birthday. Read and learn: Learn of the source of change, troubled activity, new opportunity and altering conditions apt to occur in your important life.

ARIES BIRTHDAYS: Those born between March 21st and April 20th.

Uranus activates finances. The earning power, financial judgment, ability to make or attract money, and all financial activities are affected now by the strange, erratic vibrations of Uranus. Ups and downs may be expected. Gains and losses are indicated. The reliable, and the unreliable propositions, must be sifted. The promise of gain MORE than loss, of affluence rather than poverty, exists, as Uranus works to change your type of work or business interests, and to introduce you to a new job, a new place in life, and to new financial activities. Uranus indicates financial changes, and brings a new source of financial gain to you. Your ambitions change, YOU change, and your associations alter. Opportunity to make money through realization of new ambitions, and through a new source of work, is indicated.

TAURUS BIRTHDAYS: Those born between April 20th and May 21st.

Uranus, the planet of change, affects your personal life. It indicates sudden changes, and a breaking up of old business and personal ties, habits and conditions. Personality will be improved. Your own magnetic appeal will be felt by others. Unexpected personal advantages can be realized. Romance, marriage, and new interest in the opposite sex will be stimulated. Opportunity to gain through your personal talents or the expression of new ideas will come to you. A complete change in your life is indicated. The ending of old conditions may be expected. Separation or estrangement from past associations is shown. Changes will occur which alter the whole trend of your life.

GEMINI BIRTHDAYS: Those born between May 21st and June 21st.

Unexpected release from limiting or sorrowful conditions will occur. A desire to reform, improve and revolutionize your life will be felt. Sudden changes, to bring release from hindering and restricting conditions will take place in your life. Contacts with strange people and new interests and places will be made. When adverse to you, Uranus will make it necessary to carefully protect your reputation and affairs from secret enemies. Change to a new locality is strongly indicated. Uranus works to release you from sorrow, loneliness and former difficulties.

CANCER BIRTHDAYS: Those born between June 21st and July 23rd.

Unexpected opportunity to realize new hopes and wishes will arise. Uranus brings gain to you through friends and people who care for you. The money and favors of others will be directed to you. Gain through partnerships, marriage, and social contacts will be experienced. Your ambitions, hopes and wishes will be activated in a new manner, and opportunty to realize the things you've hoped and longed for will present itself to you through friends and associates. New magnetic power to be actively before the public will be felt. Unusual experiences will arise with friends. It may bring a foster or an adopted child into your life. The income will be stimulated in a remarkable manner through professional interests. You will become of greater service to humanity. A complete change for the better will occur in your life.

LEO BIRTHDAYS: Those born between July 23rd and August 23rd.

Uranus indicates a complete change in profession, career, and business. New power and ambition will be felt. Sudden fall from power is apt to occur, unless YOU utilize your position and opportunities to benefit others. Rivalry and enmity and, in the case of Leo rulers, actual threat of war with other powers, will exist. Lack of favor from superiors must be overcome by your own charm and ability to adjust yourself to them. A complete change will occur in the working and business, as well as in the personal, life. New romantic adventurous happenings will alter your life. Many Leo persons will now turn to Astrology as a profession, due to this Uranus influence. The chief purpose of this influence is to direct your attention toward new ambition for a high place in life.

VIRGO BIRTHDAYS: Those born between August 23rd and September 21st.

Change to another locality and environment is indicated by Uranus. Your health, business, and working interests will be altered and improved in a surprising manner. Sudden, unexpected gains from people at a distance to you will occur. New romance and happiness will come to you. Travel and foreign contacts are indicated. A complete change for the better may be expected in your life. An expansion of your inner and outer natures will occur, making you more magnetic, dynamic and attractive to others. A new interest in philosophy, science, religion will be noted.

LIBRA BIRTHDAYS: Those born between September 21st and October 23rd.

Uranus indicates unsettled and unusual conditions in the financial and health affairs. Indications of sudden inheritance or gain of money through others are shown. Uranus tests your partnerships, and may break up existing associations. Periods of unusual financial gain, followed by failure to realize what you expect from others, will occur. Children will be of new interest to you, but there is danger of sudden accident to or trouble for children and loved ones. Uranus brings a new era of personal and financial gain to you.

SCORPIO BIRTHDAYS: Those born between October 23rd and November 21st.

Uranus occupies the department of the Scorpio chart which rules "marriage and partnerships". A complete change will occur in your life, through separations or estrangements from former partners (either in marriage or in business). A desire for change and new freedom will be overpoweringly strong. Home and domestic life will change, and be less certain. If not happily married, sudden change will occur. Marriage and new associations are apt to be made, rapidly and suddenly. Rivalry in business will be felt. Sudden changes, altering the whole trend of your life, may be expected. Work to establish your affairs, and to gain through partnerships in business; but be prepared for the unexpected in reversals which will threaten from time to time. You should refrain from legal disputes or court troubles.

SAGGITTARIUS BIRTHDAYS: Those born between November 21st and December 21st.

Changes in health, work and environment are indicated. The affairs of brothers, sisters and relatives will be of concern to you. Uranus should prove to be a constructive influence stimulating your health and work in a remarkable manner. More magnetism and vitality will be felt, and although your work is apt to be periodic and create mental strain, it will be adventurous and exciting. A complete change in your type of work and in your working environment can be expected. You will be more successful in work in which you can stand alone and use your own initiative, than in work in which you would hold an inferior position. An interest in land, agriculture and small animals will attract you. Frequent change of empoyees, if you have others working for you, will occur. New health discoveries will appeal to you. Travel will be more frequent.

CAPRICORN BIRTHDAYS: Those born between December 21st and January 21st.

Speculation, investment and gambling activities may now attract you. Gain through past investments is indicated. At times, difficulty through a child or with loved ones may arise. On the whole, however, Uranus is a dominating and favorable factor in your life now, opening up a whole new field of emotional expression and attracting romance, love, and personal happiness to you. Sudden opportunities will fall into your hands out of a "clear sky." Beneficial changes will completely alter the financial and personal course of your life. Opportunity to rise to a higher position in life comes to you through this planet.

AQUARIUS BIRTHDAYS: Those born between January 21st and February 19th.

Uranus is apt to bring a complete change into your life through somewhat adverse happenings. Radically new changes will occur in the home, family and private life. The desire to build a new home environment will be very strong. You should avoid investment in home, property or matters related to the domestic or private sphere for sudden changes will occur bringing loss and impermanence in these things. A new era of eventful happenings begins in your life. Complete change from your present place (residence) will occur. Great unsettledness will affect family and domestic matters and relations. Estrangements or separations from family or personal associates are apt to threaten from time to time. An element of business changes will alter the whole trend of your life. Avoid risks in politics, speculation, health and family affairs. Decisions you make, now, will affect the whole tenor and trend of your life. You will learn the lesson of Detachment—to let what you have go, to get something better which your destiny is preparing for you.

PISCES BIRTHDAYS: Those born between February 19th and March 21st.

Stimulation of your mind to new ambitions, and to a new channel of thought and aspiration will be outstanding. A new interest in mental and educational matters will lead you into a new path of living. Uranus indicates a complete change in your environment and locality. Much travel, and many changes, will occur in your life. You are not apt to be permanently settled during the time Uranus is in the sign of Taurus (until 1942). Romantic gain through people met in new surroundings will occur. Difficulties with, and through. relatives will be experienced. Brothers and sisters will be adversely affected, and estrangement or trouble is apt to occur with them. Business connected with the public will attract you. Your mind will be more easily upset. nervous and erratic at times, for the desire to change, improve and revolutionize your own life and surroundings is leading you into a new era of living. New fredom is coming to you through Uranus.

An Analysis of Conditions During September, 1936

SEPTEMBER offers a new series of events to the world. It should be borne in mind that Astrology forecasts the type of influences or energy which will be in operation at any particular time. You might say that through Astrology, one may view the negative of the film of coming events. The actual happenings, themselves, when flashed upon the screen of the present, are the manifestation to the material plane of that which was indicated in the Mind Of Nature. Through the study of Astrology, we are able to define the type of energy existent in our lives, or in the world, at any time. And the analysis of the EFFECT of that particular brand of energy is not, then, difficult.

September begins under somewhat favorable vibrations. There are two Full Moons during the month which is unusual, and which indicates that ACTIVITY, excitement and change is the keynote of the month.

September 1st to 7th:

September 1st is the day of the Full Moon. The vibrations of Mercury conjunction Neptune, and Venus trine Uranus (which occurred at the time of the New Moon of August 17th which is now manifested in the Full Moon) will be thrown to the fore. This is a peculiar set of vibrations. It indicates fraud, intrigue, crime, mysterious disappearances, and the attempt of labor and radical factions to impose themselves upon our lives and thoughts, and also reveals one of the most romantic and exciting periods of the year, so far as amusements and pleasure-seeking are concerned.

This is a peculiar vibration for stock market and national financial affairs. It will promote new relief schemes, but bring a clash between the masses over monetary plans. Gambling and speculation will be to the fore in an unusually strong manner, creating public scandals. Theatres will be affected by fires and labor troubles. Devastating fires and collapse of buildings will bring danger to places of amusement and entertainment. Amusements or pleasures connected with the water may be exceptionally dangerous. Women and children will be affected, more so than usual, by atrocious crimes, poisoning, and attempted kidnapping. Extortion of the rich and higher classes will be revealed. The death of famous theatrical persons will occur. A noted fighter may die, or be subjected to extreme trouble and sorrow.

Labor troubles in theatres and amusement resorts will be sensational. Motion picture stocks will be stimulated in a favorable manner. Stock market speculation should be exciting, but as the month advances, a collapse in values may occur bringing loss to many. I am of the opinion that speculation and investment will be favored during the first week of September, but as the month progresses, political and foreign affairs will cause stock market activities to be deflated. This may be particularly true between September 7th and 14th, 20th and 28th, to be repeated again during the first week of October. It is difficult to prognosticate financial fluctuation for this month. When Mercury, the planet of the public mind, is with Neptune, the planet of "hidden, secret minds", it is difficult to estimate the way the pendulum will go. It will not be an honest, straightforward path, I can assure you of that. The persons who speculate, take advice about financial matters, or run risks with their money in new schemes and promotional activities, will need to keep a weather eye out for loss through trickery.

Would you like to know what your astrologer intends to do, concerning investments and stock market interests? She looks ahead to one of the most promising speculative and financial periods in many years, and plans to "ride through" the adverse or unfavorable financial period, buying rather than selling, during the low periods of liquidation.

Oil speculation will be increased. The trine of the Sun to Uranus on September 2nd, followed by Mars trine to Jupiter on September 3rd will stimulate finances, the circulation and distribution of money, and generally make this first week of the month an exciting one, financially and industrially. Conditions favor our progress and success between the 2nd and 6th. On the 7th, a series of adverse vibrations begin which will lessen the usual achievements expected on a Monday. You should protect health, avoid travel, and insure your financial affairs carefully beginning with the 7th.

September 7th to 14th:

An exciting week begins here, in which adverse solar aspects will direct the planetary scene. The Sun squares Jupiter on the 8th, comes to a conjunction of Neptune on the 9th, and makes an opposition to Saturn on the 11th. These are aspects which will make the hand of progress unsteady at the helm of achievement. National mourning may lower our flag once again, around the 11th, due to the Saturnine influences at that time. This is an unfortunate period for the President, and for national leaders. State officials will be affected by death and trouble. Saturn will tend to slow down and retard national affairs. The political campaigns will begin to grow really "intense", and the indications of deaths, bloodshed and intense trouble between political factions will make the "body politic" "black and blue". Business and finance will be retarded. A feeling of fear and foreboding will begin to stalk the mass mind. Travel disasters will occur. The deaths of noted financiers and millionaires will occur. The family of the president will be adversely affected. Members of the legal and religious world will be subject to death. Excitement over children and educational matters will be an outstanding feature of this week.

September 14th to 21st:

The New Moon of September 15th will alter the current of energy we have been receiving. The heavens change in their aspect to us, and a new series of events begin to be flashed from the invisible film of life to the screen of actuality. Jupiter is rising on the eastern skies at 0:33 P. M., on the 15th, when the New Moon occurs (Washington, D. C. Time). This is a favorable portent for the American public, for it promises us "bon voyage" through perilous waters of trouble produced by Saturn and Neptune in the ensuing days of this month. Jupiter will bestow ability to emerge from restrictions and severe conditions. Mercury begins to retrograde on the 17th, and a retrograde Mercury always spells a slowing down and retarding of actual progress. It restricts trade, transportation and communications, and interferes with the normal procedure of business. This planet remains retrograde until October 10th. Mercury's influence is very adverse to foreign affairs now. The state of financial and governmental affairs in Europe will be chaotic. Shipping will be affected in a disastrous manner, and disasters will occur on the sea. Labor troubles will cause public concern.

All foreign travel will be impeded or interfered with. Supreme Court activities will be delayed, and decisions rendered now may strike another blow at the New Deal Administration. It is interesting to note that each time Jupiter, the planet which rules THE LAW, has been adversely affected the public has been reminded of the Supreme Court, the judiciary department of our government, and of our Constitution.

This period will be intensely bitter, in feeling, against Court activities. The health and welfare of various judges of the Bench will be very adversely affected during all of September, and early October.

September 19th brings the square aspect between Jupiter and Neptune, in 16 degrees of Sagittarius and Virgo. This is adverse to American peace, prosperity and government. Shipping and aviation will be struck a dark blow by atmospheric and weather conditions. Mysterious sabotage of great transportation vehicles will create a sensation. Politics will thunder over the air waves, bringing a confused picture of national conditions Outbreaks in prisons will occur. Mars will cause many deaths from varied types of disasters.

September 21st to 28th:

The Sun enters Libra, beginning the Fall Season, on the 23rd (0:21 A. M. Washington Time). The equinoctial storms around this time will be very severe. Floods and disasters will strike the whole earth between the 20th and 23rd, and are apt to occur again around the 27th and 28th. Property damage will be very heavy, while railroad and transportation losses will be severe. During this week, railroad and motor travel will be seriously affected by accidents and catastrophes which may take many lives. Postal affairs will be threatened with robbery, while workers in the postal department will be subject to scandal and theft. Stock market activity will be restricted, and financial losses may be heavy. Jupiter makes its square aspect to Saturn, the last of three such adverse aspects since last November, on the 27th. This influence is adverse to finances, national prestige, credit and business. It will adversely affect travel, raise expenses for public welfare, and bring one of the most bitter periods of the political campaign. A noted governor will die. Radio scandals will excite public opinion.

September 28th through 30th:

The 28th will bring a square aspect between Venus and Pluto. This is an influence which indicates disasters which affect the general public. The 29th will be a progressive and active day, but brings the indication of quarrels and political fights. The 30th is the day of the Full Moon, and indicates protracted travel by political candidates, outstanding political lectures and debates. Governmental declarations concerning foreign policies will startle the world. An outstanding legal decision may be made at this time which affects our foreign affairs, railroads, communications and business.

September will be a month of new ideas. A complete change, from the former influences of the year of 1936, will be felt, and new democratic ideas will now be sponsored which will prove startling to the country in general. You should plan to progress cautiously throughout the month, particularly guarding your health, business and financial interests.

AROUND THE WORLD:

Let us begin with the Pacific Coast, and analyze conditions around the world. For California, we note the ominous position of the planet Uranus. On the descendant of the chart, Uranus is indicative of earthquakes. Saturn's position is also significant of earthquakes and storms which will result in loss of property. The weather is apt to be very cold and wet.

In Japan, Saturn indicates the death of prominent governmental leaders. Mars will adversely affect the health and general welfare of the people, but make them warlike and aggressive. Financial chaos will strike this nation as the month advances, and Neptune may stir rebellion and uprising of the people against old-time leadership and governmental policies. Death and trouble for royalty and the upper governing classes are indicated.

India will suffer from devastating floods. The deaths of famous Indian leaders will occur. India seems to be affected now by sedition and uprisings against British rule more so than has been the case for several years.

In Russia, governmental changes will be occurring. Saturn and Jupiter will be adverse to foreign affairs, and Russia may now lose an important secret ally. The people will be affected by land and crop losses, while new efforts to revolutionize Russia's foreign affairs will be under way.

Great Britain breaks with former allies. Four planets occupy the "house of war and foreign affairs" in the September new moon chart of the 15th. This is an influence which indicates war scares and trouble for the British people. Saturn will impart a spirit of gloom and foreboding to the public mind. The loss of a great British ship may occur. London marts will be benefited financially, by the flight of foreign capital from other parts of Europe. Marriages of royalty will be announced or planned, not only for Great Britain, but for other European nations. Continued unsettled and troubled relations with other powers will be noted, and Britain may now face a crisis in her foreign relationships. The moves of the government for peace will fail, and the necessity to protect or champion one of her protectorates will send troops abroad in haste. Travel for the king is adverse, according to the stars. Royalty will be seriously affected with the threat of danger and death.

In Rome, there is danger of the death of a great churchman. New treaties and agreements with foreign powers, principally with Austria, will be under way. Public health will be poor. The power of the government will be weakened in a dramatic manner. Naval and military men will be very unfortunate.

In the October issue of "Astro-Digest" Magazine, I shall give you predictions covering the FALL QUARTER OF 1936. I will also give you my prediction concerning the outcome and result of the presidential election in November, 1936. I have already given my prediction of the election, and this prediction appeared in the April, 1936, Astro-Digest Magazine. However, in the October issue, let us once again note my interpretation of astrological vibrations concerning the presidential election.

I wish to emphasize the fact that predictions appearing in each current copy of Astro-Digest Magazine are written approximately three months prior to the date of issue. For instance, predictions appearing in the October magazine will have been written, expressly for that issue of the magazine, in early July.

And now, in conclusion, may I suggest that you turn to the Calendar of Days for September, and follow the day by day outline which I have written for you. Not only will you find this department of the magazine interesting and helpful in "planning your days", but you will also find day by day PREDICTIONS of events apt to occur on particular dates, which may prove amazing and enlightening to you.

TIME USED IN CALENDAR OF DAYS FOR SEPTEMBER IS CENTRAL STANDARD TIME. FOR EASTERN TIME, ADD ONE HOUR. FOR MOUNTAIN TIME, SUBTRACT ONE HOUR. FOR PACIFIC TIME, SUBTRACT TWO HOURS.

Tuesday, September 1st. Moon in Pisces. FULL MOON.

Today is not favorable for travel, nor for risky ventures. It will be a day in which personal and private affairs should be protected, and interest directed toward the home and domestic life. This is the day of the Full Moon, so that the desire to start new undertakings will be very strong. A great deal of fraud and intrigue will exist. Children and their health and welfare should be protected. Avoid amusements or pleasures in which risk would have to be run. An increase in deaths will reported. Water accidents will be numerous. Motion pictures and theatrical people will be affected in a particularly adverse manner.

Wednesday, September 2nd. Moon in Pisces, enters Aries at 4:43 P. M.

Today is a favorable day. The Sun makes a trine aspect to Uranus, while Venus is in favorable aspect to Pluto. This should greatly stimulate governmental and political affairs, activate business, finances, and welfare matters. Amusements, theatres, gambling and sporting events will be sought today. Do not scatter your forces or allow yourself to be erratic, however. Try to achieve something worth while. Market conditions should be stimulated. Today is beneficial for science, inventions, aviation and transportation.

Thursday, Sptember 3rd. Moon in Aries.

Mars makes its great trine aspect to Jupiter today, which should stimulate finances, business, and national wealth. This influence will be fortunate for industry, as well as for agriculture. Mars will stimulate labor in a new manner, and should increase the circulation of money. Today is favorable for work, business, and all important details of your life. Travel or change in the environment is benefitted for those who wish to undertake these things.

Friday, September 4th. Moon in Aries, enters Taurus at 5 P. M.

Venus begins to stimulate industry and labor now in a special manner. A great new surge of energy should benefit business, trade and commerce. You will find the day favorable for travel, pleasures, amusements or social matters. The first week of September should be the time in which you try to get your affairs in shape for "stormy weather" which may arise later on. Do not start risky financial undertakings now which would have to depend upon conditions later in the month for success. The 2nd, 3rd and 4th should favor work and employment.

Saturday, September 5th. Moon in Taurus.

You will wish to make adjustments and to balance your affairs today. Upsets and changes may occur in governmental affairs. An adjustment of world affairs will be attempted. Important news concerning peace movements and new treaties may come to the fore. Do not over-spend now, for the tendency to reckless expenditures will be very strong. Today favors home and personal affairs, business and employment.

Sunday, September 6th. Moon in Taurus, enters Gemini at 7 P. M.

You may feel more irritable and restless today, but general conditions are favorable. A desire for spiritual development, and for mental interests and new knowledge will be felt. A splendid day for change, travel, pleasure, or spiritual activities. You will have a desire to seek solitude, quiet and seclusion.

Monday, September 7th. Moon in Gemini.

Today is not a favorable day, although a great deal of change and restless activity will be noted. Do not start undertakings which would have to be carried over through tomorrow. Get your important work completed and have your interests and personal affairs safeguarded, if possible. Travel accidents will threaten today, and amusement or pleasure interests will be adversely affected. Avoid speculation.

Tuesday, September 8th. Moon in Gemini, enters Cancer at 11 p. m.

Today is adverse. The Sun makes its square aspect to Jupiter at approximately 9:30 a. m. (Central Standard Time). The next few days are apt to be stormy and tempestuous, due to the adverse solar aspects which will be in operation. Today is adverse for health, travel and finances. Many deaths will occur, and the deaths of religious leaders, financiers and very wealthy people will cause concern. The peace and justice of the world will be disturbed. Crime will be to the fore. Famous theatrical persons will be affected by deaths. Income tax prosecutions by the government will be intensified now. Judges and medical men will be adversely affected. Royalty will be threatened with deaths and sorrow. The day is adverse for risks, changes, travel or new undertakings.

Wednesday, September 9th. Moon in Cancer.

You'll want to look at life, in fact you will, through "rose colored" glasses, today. The mirror of discontent, illusion and desire will be very strong. The tendency to deceive and to be deceived will exist and you should refrain from allowing yourself to be over-sensitive. Gambling and speculation will be risky, but greatly activated. Great amusement and sporting projects may be under way. Prisons, hospitals and criminal matters will be to the fore. Scandals will threaten those in high positions. New legislation concerning gambling and speculation may be enforced. Labor will be revolutionary and rebellious. Today is not favorable for health, work or business.

Thursday, September 10th. Moon in Cancer.

A desire to buy, shop, invest and accumulate will be felt strongly today. You should build health, however, and work to insure your interests. Social and personal matters will not be favored. Today will be a day in which to work with and cooperate with others.

Friday, September 11th. Moon in Cancer, enters Leo at 6 A. M.

The Sun comes to its annual opposition of Saturn at approximately 8 p. m. Thus, the entire day will be tinged with this sorrowful and restricting influence of Saturn. This influence is definitely adverse for the President and his family. National sorrow will be felt. The Government will be unfortunate, and should be very cautious now. The deaths of prominent statesmen will threaten. The cold hand of fear and restraint will be felt in national business and speculative affairs. Deaths will strike many departments of our national life. Children and women will be very unfortunate. Do not start new activities today, and try to give love, service, loyalty and understanding now, while the contrary winds of hatred, strife, greed, sorrow and cold criticism try our lives.

Saturday, September 12th. Moon in Leo.

Today is another adverse day. Health should be carefully protected. Restrictions and disappointments are apt to be felt and business will be adversely affected. Hard work and attention to duty will be demanded of us. Strikes and rebellion will be felt. An increase of illness and deaths will be noted.

Sunday, September 13th. Moon in Leo, enters Virgo at 3:20 P. M.

Travel and progress are more favorable today. Venus parallels the Sun, which tends to lighten our outlook and prospects. New plans for the coming week will be made, more pleasure and freedom can now be secured. Seek social, amusement or entertainment enjoyment today. Make changes in your surroundings, expand your outlook! Do something new and exciting!

Monday, September 14th. Moon in Virgo.

Today is the last day of the old moon. We are apt to feel tired and listless, fatigued and disheartened. With the dawning of the new moon, conditions assume a new outlook. The best time to start new undertakings is when the new moon begins. However, we are still dealing with Monday, September 14th; business, domestic, home and personal adjustments will be made today. Advance slowly and cautiously.

Tuesday, September 15th. Moon in Virgo.

The day of the New Moon. There are two full moons this month, and this date seems to be a dividing line between the earlier and latter parts of the month. Business is favored today. New ideas, new plans and projects will begin. You should be careful, however, not to let poor judgment and impulsiveness dictate your decisions or new enterprises, for "stormy weather" is just ahead, continuing through early October! New plans for health, work and business will be to the fore.

Wednesday, September 16th. Moon in Libra.

Difficulties from foreign nations now begin to resound in our ears. Today favors finances, speculation, and money matters. Rather an unsafe foundation will exist, however, so that risks or hazards in finances or business should be avoided. Many people will be losing their heads now, figuratively speaking, in making fantastic plans. Politics will begin to grow really exciting and dangerous. Try to make more money today rather than spend or invest.

Thursday, September 17th. Moon in Libra.

Governmental and national affairs will be to the fore today. You can expect to hear of many important new ideas and changes concerning governmental activities. You can make public contacts, enjoy social, personal and professional interests today. You should be able to gain through the favors of others who are in a position to benefit you. Expand and widen your outlook today, for big things will lie before you.

Friday, September 18th. Moon in Libra, enters Scorpio at 2:30 P. M.

Today is a very important day. You can start new activities and progress toward your goal. The day favors news, travel, changes, and inventions. Politics will be accelerated by party splits and outstanding speeches. You can start new things and feel a surge of ambition rise within you. Forge ahead toward your goal, and make yourself big enough to inaugurate and begin the new, novel and pioneering things which will attract you.

Saturday, September 19th. Moon in Scorpio.

Governmental affairs are apt to be disturbed today. An increase in deaths will be reported. Women and children should take particular care of health and personal safety. Travel is not favored. You may feel lazy, listless and disinterested in business or working matters. The day is not favorable for new undertakings. Do not overstrain the credit nor look to others for gain. The necessity to follow the advice of others, or to work with others rather than stand alone, will be demanded of you. Private affairs and health seem to be the outstanding interests of the day. Secrecy and intrigue over finances will arise. Oil interests will be activated.

Sunday, September 20th. Moon in Scorpio.

Treachery, fraud and trouble of a financial nature will exist today. Foreign affairs will be adversely affected. Dreams and plans will not be reliable or permanent. Lots of talk and no action of a really helpful, sane or stable nature is indicated. Do not let idealism cloud your vision of true, worth-while matters. Guard finances and health, and avoid travel. The desire to accumulate and invest may strain credit. Business and commerce may now be retarded. Labor will be dissatisfied and rebellious. Supreme Court and legal affairs will be adversely affected. Transportation and communication matters will be retarded by accidents and mishaps. Mysterious crimes will occur. Be very careful in all your contacts and associations. If you feel dissatisfied, try to keep calm and retain your sense of humor. Attempted extortion will be reported. Shipping and water traffic is not favored.

Monday, September 21st. Moon enters Sagittarius at 3:24 A. M.

Health and work will claim your attention today. The day does not promise a great deal of freedom, for duty and the need to work or attend to details of the every-day, routine life will claim your attention. You are apt to feel restless and dissatisfied, and wish to overcome any restrictions which exist. Public health will be adversely affected, and labor will be rebellious. Changes or new undertakings will not be favored today.

Tuesday, September 22nd. Moon in Sagittarius.

Today is the last day of the summer season. You may feel an urge to new self-expression, pleasure and amusement. The day is favorable for enjoyment of life and freedom. Travel is not particularly benefitted because of weather and accident conditions. The public outlook will seem more vigorous and progressive. A desire for amusement will attract the public. Finances are more favored.

Wednesday, September 23rd. Moon in Sagittarius, enters Capricorn at 3:50 P. M.

And here dawns the fall quarter of 1936. One of the most eventful autumn seasons of years lies before us. A rapid swing in public opinion seems to begin with today. Transportation and travel facilities are not favored during the next two weeks, and you should avoid risk in travel if possible. Oil, land, farms and property interests will be activated. Today favors personal and domestic affairs, as well as finances. Start the fall season rightly by aiming your efforts at some worth-while goal to be started toward now.

Thursday, September 24th. Moon in Capricorn.

Improvement in public affairs seems to be the keynote of today. Financial and business planning will be pronounced. Perfect your plans and interests, and prepare to make more money or to succeed in some important financial plan tomorrow. You may feel more lonely or isolated today, due to existing conditions. Legal and foreign affairs will attract public attention. Guard health, and do not let any existing conditions in public life cause you to doubt or fear the future!

Friday, September 25th. Moon in Capricorn, enters Aquarius at 11 p. m.

Today is a favorable day for finances and money matters. Buying, selling, investing, and business in general are favored. Forge ahead in an effort to solidify your financial affairs. Direct your attention toward money and business matters. You may find that money and its need is the outstanding interest of the day. Entertainment, amusement, and social matters are favored.

Saturday, September 26th. Moon in Aquarius.

Today is not a favorable day. It brings to an ending a certain period of achievement and progress. Today favors public matters, professional or artistic pursuits, but in the long run, you may be wise to defer important activities. Public health and welfare will be adversely affected, and some awful disaster is apt to affect the public, taking many lives. Venus brings changes and emotional turmoil in the domestic life. Try to give understanding and tolerant cooperation to others if this need arises.

Sunday, September 27th. Moon in Aquarius.

Venus makes its square aspect to Pluto, and Jupiter squares Saturn today, so that the entire day and night are tinged with the unlovely influences set in motion by these planets. Many lives will be lost in travel disasters. Floods may threaten. Public health and welfare is always adversely affected when Saturn or Pluto, the gods of death and sorrow, are at the helm of our affairs. Saturn is adverse to newspaper activities, publishers and writers. Loss in stocks and financial enterprises will be apt to occur. Build health, protect your affairs, and look ahead to TOMORROW. Home and domestic life are apt to be unfavorably affected by today's vibrations. Very prominent people in governmental and financial affairs will be taken by death. Travel will need to be avoided by important national leaders. The governor of one of our states may die. Property will be subject to loss and damage. Enthusiasm over new ideas will not be a guarantee of their success. Trouble and sorrow for religious organizations and leaders is apt to arise.

Monday, September 28th. Moon in Pisces.

Travel is not favored today, and financial matters will be adversely affected. But on the whole, a great deal of progress and success can be achieved by those who are ambitious and preserving! The day does not favor public health and safety, and many deaths are apt to occur through transporation and general catastrophes.

Tuesday, September 29th. Moon in Pisces.

Today is a very speculative and exciting day. Pleasures, amusements and enjoyment of life will be sought. You can forge ahead in your endeavors today with greater promise of personal gain. Realization of gain through past losses may occur.

Wednesday, September 30th. Moon in Pisces, enters Aries at 3:10 A. M.

Today is the day of the full moon, which ends this month. It is not a very favorable day, although you can expect to achieve good results in business or working matters. Important changes will be contemplated, and mental activity will dictate important changes and new undertakings. Governmental activity will be marked, important decisions and declarations will be made to the nation. Crimes will be on the increase. Children and women should be protected. Finances should be more favored today. Bad news from people at a distance may come to you. This day ends an eventful month, and its close will introduce us to October, in which some of the most outstanding events of 1936 will be apt to occur.

The 1936 Outlook for September Birthdays

Greta Garbo . . . A September Birthday

What do Garbo's stars have to say concerning the next few years of her life?

Greta Garbo was born in Stockholm, Sweden, on September 18th, 1905, at 9 o'clock in the evening. At her birth, Jupiter was rising in the sign of Gemini. This signified financial success, fame and fortune in the United States. Neptune, the planet which rules motion pictures, was in the first house of her natal horoscope, close to the second (the money) house. This gives her the glamor, mystery, and secretiveness of her expression and indicated, from her birth, a great career in pictures.Any motion picture actor or actress, to be truly famous, must have a strong natal position of the planet NEPTUNE. The Moon, which indicates the personality, was in the artistic sign of Taurus. This not only gives great artistic ability but also indicates financial success. Here lies the secret of her magic voice. Venus, the planet of love and luck, was in Leo, which is the keynote of her remarkable public popularity. In the fourth house at her birth, Venus promises wealth and retirement from public life to the peace of home, family and marriage. This is her secret aspiration. She would find fame and fortune in foreign lands, but enjoy domestic bliss and personal happiness in her homeland, in middle and latter years of her life. The Sun, indicator of profession and the degree of success to be gained, was in its strongest degree (25) in Virgo and occupied the fifth house of the chart. This house rules acting, drama and the theatre. Mars was in Sagittarius, in the house of "health and work", indicaing that work would take a heavy toll of her nervous and emotional energy. Uranus occupied the house of marriage at her birth, thus indicating that marriage would be the testing point of her career. Her choice of a marriage partner would be someone very high in public life. She would marry a man of her own nationality.

It is my prediction that Greta Garbo will leave the screen, and retire to private life during the next two years. An entirely new type of life is indicated to begin for her. She will be an entirely changed woman, with 1937, and marriage will be announced for Garbo during that year.

A complete new era of her life begins to appear upon the screen of her future. Romance, marriage, freedom from past sorrows and restrictions, and new domestic plans in her homeland are all indicated in her horoscope.

Is Your Birthday in September?

Note: All September Birthdays should carefully guard health during the next year:

September 1st: This should be an inspiring year. The fulfillment of important plans and development of new conditions in your private life should be realized. The accumulation of new possessions and the promise of gain through the cooperation of others, are shown.

September 2nd: You can gain through friends and those who care for you. New health and working interests will arise. Your own personal affairs will be vitalized. Travel, pleasure, friends and social activity are shown. You gain, personally, through somewhat secret undertakings.

September 3rd: Health and work will demand your attention. Dig in, and make time count. Health is apt to be affected by work and restrictions. Heavier responsibilities will be carried. This is a foundation building time of your life.

September 4th: Opportunity for travel, change and expansion of your life is shown. You will find life removing you from the rut of former living.

September 5th: This is a favorable period for marriage, personal, family and domestic affairs. The necessity to adjust yourself to others will arise, but harmony and greater happiness can be achieved.

September 6th: This year does not promise to be an expansive or hilarious one for you. You will feel more lonely and desire seclusion or retirement and escape from others. Finances are favored, but you will be inclined to worry or strain after financial gain.

September 7th: This is a favorable money year for you. You should direct your attention toward financial and money matters, in order to take advantage of the fortunate opportunities indicated for you.

September 8th: Old conditions end for you. A new era is beginning in your life, so do not be in too great a hurry to start new enterprises now, for they are not apt to prove permanent. Finances are favored.

September 9th: New activities and opportunities should present themselves to you now. Start the important new things you wish to start. You will be more indepedent, and able to forge ahead in your undertakings now.

September 10th: Unusual and exciting adventures await you. This is an accumulatio- year, in which property or possessions should be accumulated. You should gain through partners or the cooperation of others. The need for patience and caution in fulfilling your emotional desires must be maintained at all costs if you wish to preserve your reputation.

September 11th: Pleasures, amusements and emotional matters will now attract you. Partnerships may prove to be a source of sorrow or anxiety. Those who care for you are, however, apt to prove beneficial to you. Work to express your inner gifts and talents now.

September 12th: Health must be carefully protected. Heavier responsibilities in private life, business or working matters will lie upon your shoulders. Do not worry if you seem confined in a "rut" with no future. Work hard now, to enjoy real freedom and opportunity next year.

September 13th: Travel, change, variety and new opportunity beckons to you. Less responsibilities are shown. Take advantage of opportunity to travel and to change the trend of your life.

September 14th: Home, family, marriage and partnership matters will now attract you and prove to be a source of greater happiness and good fortune. Many adjustments are occurring in your life. Build the private and personal affairs.

September 15th: This is a year of inner developments rather than outer activity. Saturn may seem to restrict your natural buoyancy and hopefulness. Finances are favored, but you should avoid expansion in business. Changes are not favored now.

September 16th: A money year! You should be able to make and attract more money, and secure a higher position in life. Emotional matters are favored. Your aspirations will attract new opportunity to you.

September 17th: This year favors your achievements, but works to end existing conditions. New undertakings will not prove permanent if started now. Finances are benefitted.

September 18th: This is the time in which to begin your important endeavors, and put your plans for the future into activity. You will feel more powerful, and be more independent. Real opportunity to express your secret aspirations should be realized.

September 19th: The personal and private life will be more important now. You can expect to gain through others, but may find it necessary to exercise a great deal of patience and cooperation with them. This is an accumulation and attraction period for you.

September 20th: Social matters, pleasures, and friends will be favored. Gain through others is indicated. You can expect to find new opportunity coming to you through those who care for you.

September 21st: This year may bring heavier responsibilities to you, but it is a foundation and organization period for you. Health will be more of a burden, but opportunity to work and to build a future now will be realized.

September 22nd: Travel and change lie before you. Take advantage of opportunities to get out of the rut. You will feel more free and happy, and be able to express your ambitions in a splendid manner.

September 23rd: This period favors marriage, partnerships, home and domestic affairs. The interests or demands of the private life may make progress seem more slow for you personally, but it is a time in which to direct attention toward personal, home and family interests.

September 24th: The year ahead may seem somewhat lonely or secluded, but life is making many unseen adjustments in your affairs. Finances are favored. You will not be happy, for the year is apt to be restricting, bringing heavier responsibility through others. Opportunity lies ahead.

September 25th: Financial success is indicated. Your own personality and ability will attract favor and recognition to you. You should be able to achieve new financial success and advantages you have long sought.

September 26th: Do not start new undertakings this year, for they are not apt to prove permanent. Finances are favored. Elimination of old restricting or hampering conditions is indicated.

September 27th: A complete change begins to occur, now, in your life. You will feel a more ambitious and independent trend operating in your life. This is the time in which to start new activities and lay the foundation for a new life of success and happiness.

September 28th: The troubles or demands of family or personal affairs may seem to retard your rapid progress. This is a period in which to accumulate things necessary to your private life and happiness. Gain comes to you through others.

September 29th: More pleasure and happiness should be realized through those who care for you. Domestic and personal life will be stimulated and greater harmony will exist in these interests. Express your artistic or creative ideas now.

September 30th: Work will seem to restrict your orbit, and health must not be neglected. Heavier responsibilities and less freedom will exist in your life, but this period offers opportunity to build a more permanent position in life.

reveals these conditions at the fountain head of energy. Astrology interprets these in their effect upon MATTER.

Great astronomers, too busy discovering principles of truths always existent but only found when they are sought, have a real respect for astrology and for scientific astrologers. They do not have to attract attention or publicity to themselves through an attempted expose of the science of astrology which, through the ages, has fought to help man find himself.

Jesus said: "Develop first the KINGDOM OF HEAVEN which is within you". This is a grand challenge. To undertake to follow this advice we embark upon a great adventure. It makes a prospector, a miner, of the man or woman who dares search their GREAT WITHIN and develop the essential powers with which they were born. THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN LIES WITHIN YOU, and it holds riches far greater than silver or gold. But, how can you develop this Kingdom within you? How can you mine that rich vein of precious worth which lies within you, unless you have THE KEY, THE MAP, THE SECRET to the entrance thereof? How do you know what lies within you of value? Each living soul has varying degrees of wealth in his individual kingdom. What ATTRIBUTES of the Kingdom Of Heaven lie within you, which, when developed, produce a "paying dividend?"

Astrology is not a dead science. It is not an un-workable science. It is not a fantastic theory or superstition or black magic. It is a living science, interpreting in words which unlock for each prospector of life, a vast new territory of energy, understanding, and opportunity, and which brings a new joy in living.

Yours in loving service,

The September Outlook for Aries

For Those Born Between March 21st And April 20th

AN EXCITING and sensational month lies before you. Mars will occupy the house of emotions, pleasure and risk until the 27th, and it then enters the house of health and work where it will stimulate working matters, but affect health in a strained manner. Prior to the 27th, however, Mars will activate the desire to invest, speculate or gamble, and throw the emotional nature to the fore. Strain upon the heart ties is apt to exist in late August and during early September. Quarrels or trouble with others, over finances, are apt to arise. The welfare of children or of younger persons associated with you will prove expensive and cause concern for you.

Health is apt to be under a strain during this month. A desire to make changes and start new activities will be very strong. You should direct your attention toward working or business matters, and try to improve this department of your life. Employees will prove dishonest or troublesome for you, if you have others working for you. The working environment will be disturbed by relatives and by changes which occur. Your own desire to improve and stabilize the health and working affairs of your life may cause you to overdo, and produce a terrific nervous strain. Health must be carefully protected, although some contact with doctors or medical aids is indicated now.

Venus and Mercury work to improve your position in life. You can expect to gain through the favors of others in a position to benefit you. A more balanced and harmonious relationship in marriage or in partnerships can be built. Social and public contacts will prove very favorable for you. New agreements with other people are apt to be made.

This is a month in which you can make the changes and start the new activities you wish to undertake. You have battled, thus far this year, against obstacles and difficulties which have hindered you. If you can work quietly and harmoniously with others, you will be able to note remarkable changes and new advantages coming to you. Travel is not favored, and legal decisions may be adverse to you on the unfavorable days. In-laws are apt to prove expensive and trying.

While old conditions are ending, this month, new activities will be coming to the fore. Pleasures, amusements, and a search for the new and exciting elements of life will be apt to appeal to you more than anything else during September. You will not be wise, however, to neglect business, work or health interests for mere enjoyment of life. While one element of your life is apt to be sorrowful, and create much worry and strain for you, the element of your life depending upon you, personally, need not cause worry. You will have power and energy to forge ahead in new plans and activities, if you wish to do so. Opportunity coming to you, to improve your financial and business outlook, should be grasped.

Those of you having birthdays on March 24th, April 5th and 14th should experience new changes, opportunity and marked alterations in your life now.

Those phases of your life which cause secret worry and sorrow are being eliminated, never fear. While one element of your life has caused trouble and restriction this year, Saturn and Neptune are ending this condition, so try to be practical, business-like and progressive, and look above any minor "thorns" which may threaten your progress now. If you protect your own health, you should forge ahead during this month in a splendid manner.

Favorable days: 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 12, 13, 14, 15, 22, 23, 24, 30.

Unfavorable days: 1, 8, 9, 11, 20, 27, 28.

The September Outlook for Taurus

For Those Born Between April 20th And May 21st

SEPTEMBER should be an eventful month, with many important happenings occurring in your life. Uranus works to bring unexpected changes and opportunity to you, while Jupiter indicates gain through the money and favors of others. The first week of September favors your progress and financial success.

With the 8th, somewhat adverse conditions will begin to be felt in your association with other people. The health, finances and welfare of the partner (in marriage or in business) and of associates, will be disturbed. Home and domestic affairs will tend to cause nervousness and strain. A desire to reform and improve the home, domestic and private interests will exist all during this month, and you will find it difficult to avoid trouble with others. Mars threatens accidents, cuts, burns and feverish ailments. Avoid quarrels in the home or family circle. Do not invest hastily in property, land or speculative projects, after the 7th.

An element of pleasure and emotional happiness will exist throughout the month, but things and people you love will provide strain and sorrow on the 8th, 11th, 20th and 27th. Neptune tends to bring anxiety over loved ones, and is also apt to bring a deceptive, treacherous element into your life through other people. If you have children, you should protect their health and personal welfare carefully on the adverse days. Speculation or investment will not be favored on the unfavorable days I have listed above.

The month seems to have two channels of activity for you. One directs your attention toward emotional, private and financial matters, bringing disturbance through these things as well as opportunity for greater freedom and gain. The other channel is directing you toward improvement of your own outlook, health and working interests.

I would advise you to direct your attention toward health and work or business activities, for Venus stimulates these matters all through the month with NO adverse vibrations except on the 27th. While your emotional relationships are disturbed from time to time, you can expect to forge ahead in gaining real achievement in matters pertaining to improvement of your OWN life and affairs. This will be a splendid period in which to seek work or employment, if these things are important to you. You may find that the financial success you expect to derive from your work is retarded from the 18th on through the month, but you will have a real opportunity to build your prestige and to be of service to others. Health matters will prove profitable to you now. Take advantage of any opportunities presenting themselves which give you a chance to work and to earn success or recognition from others by merit.

An element of coldness or sorrow will be felt in your frienships on the 11th and 27th. Saturn will then bring loss through friends and may also affect your income. If you can realize that this month begins new conditions for you, and also makes it necessary for you to express yourself and to stand upon your own two feet in making important decisions, you will not then lean on others and suffer disappointment. There are few adverse days for you now, but those which are unfavorable seem to affect emotional contacts, and bring difficulty or sorrow through others. This is a month in which you can gain much through your own artistic or personal expression of service and helpfulness to others. You will attract to yourself exactly what you earn through giving of your time and attention to others.

Favorable days: 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 10, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 24, 25, 29, 30.

Unfavorable days: 1, 8, 9 ,11, 19, 20, 21, 26, 27, 28.

The September Outlook for Gemini

For Those Born Between May 21st And June 21st

MARS seems to be the pivot around which your affairs swing during this month. It will activate the mental outlook, and bring more ambition and courage. Correspondence, travel, new mental interests, and relatives will be stimulated and prove of major interest to you during September. Marked improvements in your environment, through changes you make, will occur. You will be more aggressive and can expect to find stimulation of your mind and mental interests leading you to new plans and action. You will not only think, now, but will act upon what you think. Buying, selling, trading, and the making of new contracts with others through correspondence and communications to and from them, will be a source of gain.

Neptune, that unsatisfactory force which has brought such pressure into your home, family and domestic life, clouding your private affairs with an element of worry and concern, is adverse to these things on the 1st, 9th, and 20th. Some strain is apt to be set up in the private life, so that the partner (in marriage or business) or family are apt to be more extravagant or careless. You should not make investments in land, property or private possessions at unfavorable times of this month. Do not let your desire for change and improvement of the private life cause you to heed your impulses now. While domestic and home affairs are apt to be disturbed and the need to give service and love arises, you can expect to also find a more balanced and harmonious outer life. Venus and Mercury are very favorable to you, stimulating pleasures and amusement contacts, and bringing gain to you through those who care for you. Children should prove of exceptional benefit to you, and pleasures will attract you.

Your health is not favored during the month. Nervous, inner tension and foreboding about others will be felt. You should guard yourself to avoid deception or treachery coming to you through a business associate who may be close to you in the private life or personal contacts. Saturn affects business, credit and your public affairs on the 11th and 27th in a trying manner. Older persons are apt to be a source of anxiety then, and trouble through others will arise. Saturn indicates the ending of old business or professional worries, while Neptune, during the next few weeks, will end some unfavorable condition which has existed in the private life.

Gain through social and public contacts are indicated. The finances and progress of other people, in association with you in business, should prosper and prove a source of gain to you. In fact, you seem to gain more through others, now, than through your own activities. And your ability to get along with those whom fortune may stimulate now as your source of gain, will guarantee this promise. On the 8th. 20th and 27th, the health and welfare of the partner (in marriage or business) will be adversely affected and cause concern for you, but on the whole, this is the favored influence in your life now.

The dangerous element of which I wish to warn you, concerning September, is that of overstrain, over-expansion, and poor judgment. Opportunities will come to expand, improve and develop your personal or private life, but you should avoid extremes or changes of any kind, unless these will benefit your business standing. This is a month of tests, which you will be able to hurdle and overcome, but which will try your patience. And you will have to be of service to others rather than have them benefit you. Understanding this influence operating now in your affairs, you can adjust yourself rather than try to be independent of others.

Favorable days: 2, 3, 4, 5, 10, 16, 17, 18, 24, 25, 26, 29, 30.

Unfavorable days: 1, 8, 9, 11, 14, 15, 20, 21, 22, 23, 27, 28.

The September Outlook for Cancer

For Those Born Between June 21st and July 23rd

A VERY exciting period lies before you during September. An element of business and financial gain is shown which is most unusual, but at the same time, troubles arising through business or professional matters are apt to tax your strength, health and patience.

YOU can gain and progress throughout this month in a splendid manner, if you keep your "head" and discriminate between the practical and impractical impulses which will bombard your mind. Trouble through or with a doctor and business associates is apt to arise around the 8th, 11th, 20th and 27th. Your own health and courage will falter at these times, and you must be careful not to speak, write or communicate what you think or will be inclined to feel at these times. Correspondence, mail, and news expected at these times are apt to be delayed or hindered from coming to you. Bad news will be received. The welfare of relatives may prove to be a source of concern for you at these times. The environment is apt to be disturbed, through people at a distance from you.

Finances are favored for you, in a special manner, during this month. That is, your earning power and ability to make and attract money will be stimulated. Mars is the force which stimulates your financial gains all though this month. You seem to have much courage, energy, daring and ability to attract financial good fortune. However, the out-go of money is apt to be increased, and although Mars indicates marked increase of income, it is also apt to spend money on relatives and upon business needs.

Travel is not favored this month beginning with September 8th. Danger in travel would affect your personal welfare. Buying and selling will appeal to you, especially "buying", for you will have a desire to start new undertakings and accumulate new possessions. You should direct your attention and energy toward work, business, finances, and endeavor to develop and build new strength in these phases of your life.

The home and private life will be more pleasant and attractive to you. You may give your personal life more attention now, and find the visits of friends and relatives more welcome to you. Some marked improvement in private affairs is indicated.

Health and work are favored during the first week of September. With the 8th, however, the health is apt to be adversely affected, trouble with employees or working associates or servants is apt to arise, and difficulties with superiors will occur. Avoid legal troubles at this time, and again around the 20th and 27th. On the 20th and 27th, Jupiter, the planet which stimulates health and working matters this year, will again be adverse to these interests.

One of the features of this month is the tendency for others to look to you for aid and help. Bad news coming to you from others will cause worry and strain, and you are not apt to find correspondence a favorable means of communication. Guard important letters or communications from fraud or theft, if possible. "In-laws" are apt to prove a source of trouble for you, while your own environment is disturbed by those needing your love and sympathy.

Your own success is benefitted and activated during this month, but the shadows of trouble arising through others is the element for which you will have to be on guard:

Favorable days: 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10, 12, 13, 14, 18, 19, 29, 30.

Unfavorable days: 1, 8, 9, 11, 15, 20, 21, 23, 26, 27, 28.

The September Outlook for Leo

For Those Born Between July 23rd And August 23rd

YOUR financial and money afairs should be stimulated during the first week of September in an unusual way. Take advantage of opportunities which arise to advance and gain in finances or business. Gain through partners and social or public contacts will be particularly favored on the 2nd and 3rd. This is a month in which gains and losses will seem to follow in rapid succession but the general trend is favorable for you, if you remain positive and courageous.

The first week of the month is favorable for you, in a financial and business as well as personal manner. You should smooth your differences with others, and work to instill more peace, happiness and security into your life.

With September 8th and 11th, an adverse trend will arise, affecting money matters, and bringing the danger of loss or sorrow through others. The need of others will prove expensive for you, and someone you love may be ill or cause worry and trouble for you. Your own ambitions will prove expensive, and you should avoid travel and pleasure on those days. Bad news may come to you from older persons in trouble. You should not expect to gain through others, for they will prove disappointing to you or unable to favor and benefit you on these days.

Jupiter stimulates pleasures, amusements and emotional contacts except on the 8th, 20th and 27th. These are dates which will cause rising expenses and trouble in connection with those you care for. Pleasures or risks and speculative hazards should be carefully avoided.

All your personal affairs seem to be vitalized during this month, and your financial success will depend upon your own initiative and ability. I would advise you to direct your attention toward business and finances during this month, for real opportunity to realize your ambitions in these matters will come to you. Avoid schemes which could end in trouble or loss; and although you may find it necessary to work with others or gain through the cooperation of others, this month, you should be the dominating decisive factor and make your personality count in leading them.

Mars will occupy your own birthsign until the 27th. While in Leo, Mars tends to create nervousness, strain and cause feverish ailments, but in its constructive force, Mars instills new ambition, courage and daring. Your ability to use good judgment and to avoid quarrels and trouble with others, will determine your successful progress now. With the 27th,Mars enters the financial section of your Leo chart, where it will begin to greatly stimulate the income and increase your finances. You seem to work on new plans, take the lead in making new decisions, and start new activities prior to the 27th, and with that date you should then begin to note real financial return from your endeavors.

Gain through relatives is indicated, and short trips or changes will be favored. Change and improvement in your environment is indicated. Good news coming to you from relatives or from those who care for you, is shown. Friends will be more powerful in your life now, and you will gain greatly through cooperation with and from other people.

Your tendency to run risks, antagonize others, and take chances must be curbed during this month, for emotional strain will result unless you can be on guard against this influence.

Favorable days: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 ,6, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 22, 23, 29, 30.

Unfavorable days: 8, 9, 11, 20, 21, 27, 28.

The September Outlook for Virgo

For Those Born Between August 23rd And September 21st

THE first week of this month should be favorable for your progress. Your personal affairs will be vitalized in an important manner, and work, health, business and private life will be activated favorably. Take advantage of opportunities which present themselves to you on the 2nd and 3rd.

With September 8th, adverse conditions will affect your health, business and private life. Home or family matters will not be favored, and you should use particular care in your affairs between the 8th and 11th. A disappointment is apt to arise in your life, and those you love will prove a source of anxiety and sorrow. Pleasures, speculation or risks of any kind will not be advisable during this three-day period of adverse vibrations. Saturn seems to bring the opposition of other people to you so that you find your progress retarded and delayed. Do not start new enterprises or undertakings after the 7th. With the 15th, a great deal of new activity will stimulate your affairs, but conditions remain adverse for you, on the whole, through September 27th. This is a period in which, if you can maintain patience and caution, you will come through a troublesome stretch of the road of life, and then be free to forge ahead to real success later on.

Old conditions of your life will be brought to your attention during this month. Lack of good judgment could bring health and legal troubles to you. Jupiter is adverse to these things on September 8th, 20th and 27th.

Your earning power is apt to be retarded or limited in an unusual manner beginning with the 13th. Finances are favorable for you during this month but your own impulses, desires and actions seem to conflict with the gain you could realize if you attended strictly to business and financial affairs. You will not be inclined to do this. In fact, circumstances seemingly beyond your control will disturb your life and outlook, and make it necessary for you to cope with troubles which arise.

This month, after the first week, is adverse for marriage, romance or business contact, so far as you splendid Virgo birthdays are concerned. If you are wise, you will retard your impulses, "mark time" if need be, and do only necessary, routine things as the month advances.

Things and people you love are apt to prove more expensive and troublesome for you. Other people will endeavor to exercise authority or power over your own freedom and judgment. However, you can afford to wait to express your new ambitions and desires, for the latter part of this year of 1936 introduces Virgo birthdays to real triumph and success!

Saturn is adverse to partnerships (either in business or in marriage). People upon whom you have depended will tend to fail you at the last moment. You are apt to find far more pleasure in the home and private surroundings than elsewhere. Avoid investments or speculation during September, between the 8th and 27th.

Those of you who have birthdays between September 8th and 20th should use particular care to protect yourself and your interests from loss now. Do not accept new propositions presented to you, for the aura surrounding Virgo lives now is apt to be deceptive and treacherous.

A new financial opportunity and change of scene in your life is shown, after October 10th, so look forward across the horizon of the month toward the favorable time when "the tide will be coming toward you."

Favorable days: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 10, 14, 15, 17, 18, 24, 25, 29, 30.

Unfavorable days: 8, 9, 11, 20, 21, 27, 28.

The September Outlook for Libra

For Those Born Between September 21st
And October 23rd

SEPTEMBER is apt to confuse and bewilder you, due to its conflicting and shifting vibrations. While one element of the life promises to be harmonious, happy and beneficial to you, another phase will be secretive, limiting and unsatisfactory.

The first week of the month favors your progress. You have the promise of gain through those you love, and through somewhat secret or hidden risks or hazards you run. The money and favors of others should prove favorable for you. Gain through friends is indicated, trips are favored, and some important ambition can be realized. Income should be stimulated. You can forge ahead in a progressive manner during this time.

With September 8th, an adverse trend begins to operate in the lives of Libra persons. Disappointment and discontent will be felt; health and work or business will bring tests and arouse trouble with others. A secret enemy will cause difficulties for you. The health and welfare of friends and relatives will cause sorrow. Family affairs will be very much disturbed. Travel will not be favored. Contacts with hospitals or with those who are sick or in trouble are apt to arise. Work and business will be very unsatisfactory and disappointing to you. Try to avoid trouble with inferiors (or employees, if you have others working for you). The working environment will not be favored.

With the 20th and 27th, travel is very adverse for you. News coming to you from relatives will be disturbing. Buying or selling should be avoided. Work and health will be disturbed, and your own mental outlook will be decidedly upset and strained. Saturn seems to restrict your ability to work or to progress in business.

Now,let us turn to the other planetary aspects which do not produce such a troubled picture. We find Venus and Mercury occupying your own birthsign of Libra during this month, promising to bring unexpected release from trouble or anxiety. Venus is a symbol of protection and it is very favorable to you except on the 27th. On this date, business, profession, reputation and credit should be carefully guarded, and you are apt to find the balance and harmony of your life very much disturbed. Guard your health and personal welfare carefully on that date. Mercury is a favorable influence for you all during this month, for it indicates new activity, changes, plans for ambitious progress and achievement. It brings new ideas to you which will prove worth-while, and although you are not apt to express these ideas quickly, they will prove favorable to you later on in the fall (after October 10th). A desire for change and improvement of your life is apt to make you more nervous and irritable. Visits to and from people at a distance are indicated. You should take up some new form of mental interest, a hobby or new study this month, in order to benefit from the very splendid vibrations which stimulate your mind to new endeavors.

New friends figure in your life all during this month, and marked increase of social activity is indicated for you. While old conditions which have been sorrowful and limiting to you are being eliminated, you will find new contacts, new friends and new associations of great interest and benefit. Your income seems to be favored during this month, despite other adverse conditions which exist.

Favorable days: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 16, 17, 18, 23, 24, 25, 30.

Unfavorable days: 8, 9, 11, 14, 15, 20, 21, 22, 26, 27, 28.

The September Outlook for Scorpio

For Those Born Between October 23rd and November 21st

AN exciting and eventful month now lies before you! The first week of September should stimulate business, finances and new opportunities, and bring about the realization of a vivid dream and ambition you have had. You should make every effort to progress and take advantage of favorable conditions as they present themselves to you.

With September 8th through 11th a very adverse trend will operate in your life. Money, friendships, ambitions, and travel will be adversely affected. Things you have expected to gain through or from others are apt to prove disappointing and require sacrifice on your part to put them through. Friendships will prove more expensive, and you should very carefully avoid trusting or confiding in others. Partnerships will not prove compatible with success or good fortune. You will try to realize important dreams and visions you have had, but find it very difficult to make them practical or workable. Do not accept new propositions presented to you by others during this time, or again around the 20th and 27th.

This month seems to revolve around finances and income, so far as important developments are concerned. But nothing will seem stable or really satisfactory, and you are apt to be left "holding the financial bag" if you become involved with others, in a financial or business manner.

Mars will be adverse to you during the month, tending to activate haste and impulse, and bring quarrels or strain in your relation with superiors or business persons. The reputation and credit will be strained. Your own ambitions will be very high, and you are apt to begin new undertakings without building a stable foundation. Mars is your own planet, however, so if you can respond to its higher vibrations, without having trouble with people in positions of authority or over-expanding and risking your security, you can forge ahead in your enterprises. But Mars will produce strain and nervous tension, so that you will be apt to grow quickly angry or resentful of others. Avoid quarrels with business persons.

Jupiter, activating your earning power, finances and money interests, has brought quite a speculative and changing influence into your life during this year. Sudden changes and the desire to realize new business aspirations have been the keynote of your financial affairs.During September, your earning power is apt to cause concern, and travel as well as emotional contacts and business associations, are apt to prove very expensive for you. Waste of money and poor judgment in financial risks you take are indicated.

Venus and Mercury are the bright lights of the month, for you. They are slowly but surely working to bring harmony out of apparent chaos, and if you can protect your affairs from risk or loss through others now, you can expect promotion and advancement to arise in your life. Venus is apt to disturb health and bring trouble with people at a distance from you, on the 27th. Something or someone you love will be a source of anxiety and sorrow on that date.

The month is indicative of crucial risks and upsets for which you should be prepared. Do not make changes or increase expenditures if you can avoid doing so. What seems reasonable and practical to you now will not seem so after this month.

Favorable days: 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 10, 13, 16, 17, 18, 19, 24, 25, 26, 29, 30.

Unfavorable days: 8, 9, 11, 14, 15, 20, 21, 27, 28.

The September Outlook for Sagittarius

For Those Born Between November 21st And December 21st

THE first week of this month is favorable for your progress and achievement. Mars and Jupiter should stimulate travel, good news and gain through new undertakings. Mars activiates new aspirations and business activities all during the month. You seem to be laying the foundation of new business and financial plans. Gain through work, change and increased opportunity should mark your life.

With September 8th through 11th, a very adverse trend will begin to operate in your life. It may not stop business and success altogether, but it will begin to bring difficulties and troubles to the fore, trying your temper and outlook. Business will be adversely affected, and some strain upon your credit will arise. Do not start new business undertakings during this time. Business will prove very expensive, and the financial affairs will be disturbed. Your own ambitions will cause you to spend too much money or to over-expand in an unwise manner. Be careful to avoid loss through men associated with you. The 11th is adverse for health, family and private affairs. A slowing down of your progress will arise, and a disappointment affect you, financially. Do not accept new propositions presented to you at that time.

The month is activated by the new moon of September 15th, which falls in the house of business, credit and public contacts of the Sagittarius chart. This influence will greatly vitalize these interests, but bring danger of loss or instability into your life. The trend of the remainder of this month is purely speculative and downward so that your optimism will not be wise. Caution and care should be the keynote in your affairs. The 20th and 27th will be very unfavorable for health, financial risks or new undertakings. You are apt to over-expand or overdo rather than cautiously hold your present place and await a more auspicious time to progress. You should guard your own health very carefully.

During the adverse times of September, when difficulties may seem intense, you have the promise of gain through those who love you. Venus and Mercury are both very favorable to you, benefitting social and friendship interests, and bringing unexpected good luck to you in connection with income. Unseen adjustments will be made in your life, and a tide of greater happiness and realization of ambitions will be sweeping toward you.

You should avoid speculation or investment at the unfavorable times of September. Heavier responsibilities, and the necessity to work harder for success and achievement will arise for you to meet. Your own outlook will tend to be spasmodically optimistic and gloomy. Uncertainty will cause you to waver and hesitate between various opinions, thus you will be wise to stand still at unfavorable times of the month, and avoid the more favorable days for your activities.

Relatives seem to be very important to you now, and some loss or sorrow is apt to affect you in connection with home and private life. Try to give love and service to others about you, and realize that Jupiter is now a force in your life which is driving you on toward expansion, change and new opportunity.

Close contact with lawyers or some court matter seems to exist in your life during this month. With the 27th, Mars begins to activate public and business contacts in a new and vitally important manner so that some new ambitious undertaking will appeal to you. Defer it until the 30th.

Favorable days: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 12, 13, 16, 17, 18, 22, 23, 24, 25, 29, 30.

Unfavorable days: 8, 9, 10, 11, 14, 20, 21, 27, 28.

The September Outlook for Capricorn

For Those Born Between December 21st and January 21st

THE first week of September is favorable for your activities. Uranus will stimulate your finances, personal happiness and business affairs. Speculation or investment should be favored, and travel or important change in your business affairs will occur. News coming to you from people at a distance may offer you prospects of a new opportunity. You can forge ahead in a favored manner until the 8th.

With September 8th, an adverse trend will be felt in your life. You must be careful to avoid the danger of "self-undoing", because of your dissatisfaction with environment or surroundings. Somewhat secret conditions will exist in your life, and travel or change will be very adverse for you. Over-expansion or strain upon the credit should be avoided. Some contact with sorrowful places or with sickness may arise. The losses of others are apt to prove disappointing to your own prospects or hopes of gain. The 9th and 11th are adverse days, also, in which your mental outlook will be disturbed and restless. Travel should be avoided. News or correspondence will be disturbing to you. A relative is apt to experience misfortune and cause anxiety for you. This influence will be felt again on the 20th and 27th.

The new moon of September 15th stimulates change, trips and alterations in your environment. Any changes you wish to make in your living environment or neighborhood should be made at that time. The 20th will be unfavorable for travel or change, and tend to bring deception strongly into your affairs. Your own ideas and illusions will not be founded upon good judgment. Be careful to keep your affairs open and above-board at that time. Business begins to be activated in a special manner on the 23rd, and you should begin to experience benefits and gain from other people. On the 27th, Jupiter squares Saturn which produces an influence in your life which indicates a disappointment. Trouble with or through relatives may arise, and your own mental outlook will be very much disturbed. Bad news will come to you concerning others. You should guard finances, and carefully control your desires for change or escape from restrictions which you may keenly feel.

Venus and Mercury greatly favor your business prospects during this month. While one unfavorable condition is ending in your life, another very beneficial influence will beckon you to new endeavors. You should not start new business undertakings this month, so much as end old conditions, and make your plans for new financial or business matters. Superiors will prove beneficial, and your ability to rise higher in life through your public or business contacts will be stimulated. Your ambitions, if they are related to business, are favored now, while your desires for change and improvement in your private environment are apt to meet with restrictions or opposition.

Uranus is very favorable to you all during this month, stimulating your own emotions, and bringing unexpected gain to you through someone you love. Mars will stimulate the money and affairs of the partner or of those from whom you expect to gain in a beneficial manner, except at the times given as unfavorable for you. Avoid speculation or investment after the 7th, if you wish to protect your interests in a wise manner.

Favorable days: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 22, 23, 24, 25, 29, 30.

Unfavorable days: 8, 9, 11, 12, 19, 20, 21, 26, 27, 28.

The September Outlook for Aquarius

For Those Born Between January 21st And February 19th

THIS month of September should be a very important month for you. It seems to begin new activities and undertakings and to sharply alter the trend of your affairs. The first week is favorable for your activities, and you should experience benefit, favor and gain from other people. The health, money and affairs of the partner (in marriage or in business) will be stimulated, and unexpected opportunity comes to you to realize secret aspirations connected with your private affairs. Changes, moves, new undertakings or financial ventures should be undertaken at this time rather than later in the month.

With September 8th through 11th, an unfavorable trend will exist in your affairs. Strain in marital or business matters will be felt. The health, financial affairs and welfare of other people will be disturbed and prove a source of anxiety and sorrow for you. The need to sacrifice for others may be strongly felt. You will not be able to realize your hopes of gain through or from others. Friends will prove very expensive, and some loss may come to you in financial dealings with other people. You should protect your affairs and partnerships very carefully, and avoid loss through friends during this time.

The new moon of September 15th will activate other people in your life, and you will be looking to others for gain or the realization of your expectations. Conditions will favor your associations until the 20th when another adverse influence will affect partnerships or persons close to you. The unfavorable periods of this month are definitely adverse for your finances and earning power, and your own judgment is apt to be very poor. You should not waste time with social or friendship matters unless these are of a business nature. The losses of others are apt to create much strain and worry during these periods. The 27th will be adverse for financial gain, friendships and social affairs, for heavier responsibilities and harder work will seem to be demanded of you. Try to adjust yourself to conditions rather than change conditions. Decrease in earning power and your ability to gain and progress is not encouraging, I will admit, but your future planetary vibrations are so very favorable and promising that you can afford to be patient during an unfavorable time. You should protect your own health and welfare very carefully. Life is working to free you from past obstacles and limitations.

Mars is a potent force in your affairs all through this month. It is very favorable to you during the first week of the month, for it stimulates partnerships, social and public contacts, gain through contacts or agreements, and activates the income and friendships. But as the month advances this planet is apt to stir open enmity or rivalry into activity so that you will find it difficult to get along well with others. You should be very careful to avoid quarrels or trouble with close contacts you make, and also carefully avoid legal difficulties.

Venus and Mercury are powerful forces working to benefit you during this month. They seem to be laying the foundation of new business and personal success, so that while hard work, patience and cooperation seem demanded of you during this month, this application to duty brings good results in the realization of new opportunities. Travel is favored, except at the adverse times I have outlined, and your new ideas and aspirations are stimulated. Change to another environment or outlook, altogether, is shown. Do not make radical changes this month, but endeavor to keep balance and harmony in your life now. Opportunity for real change and advancement will come to you later. Conserve finances all during September.

Favorable days: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10, 16, 17, 18, 19, 22, 23, 24, 25, 29, 30.

Unfavorable days: 8, 9, 11, 12, 14, 15, 20, 21, 27, 28.

The September Outlook for Pisces

For Those Born Between February 19th and March 21st

THIS month opens up a new series of events and happenings in your life. Mars is a stimulating, active force in your working life, and although health is apt to be overstrained or affected by work, you have favorable working conditions before you. Work will make more demands upon your time and energy. The first week of the month is especially favorable for health-building, advancement in work, business or employment. You should take advantage of any opportunities which present themselves to you during this time. Some important agreement with a superior will be made, stimulating your own outlook. Changes or moves in the environment may occur.

With September 8th through 11th, a very adverse period dawns for you, as a Piscean birthday. Saturn and Neptune will combine their forces in bringing opposition, enmity and rivalry into your affairs. Your contacts with others will be very much disturbed; partnerships or marriage will create anxiety or trouble; your own health and progress will seem to be limited and restricted. This will not be the time in which to try to make rapid progress or overcome the opposition you may meet.

Jupiter brings gain through superiors and those in a position to benefit you during this month, except on the 8th, 20th and 27th. Those are very adverse dates for business, profession and success. Enmity is apt to threaten loss to you on the 20th, and you should be very careful about making changes or expressing your ambitions. Do not let discontent make you over-eager or cause you to make changes you will later regret. Some secret sorrow and loss may affect you on the 27th.

Despite difficulties which exist, you can expect to gain through and from others, if you can maintain the constructive attitude to others. The money of others associated with you will be stimulated, and you should endeavor to help others gain and progress now rather than try to stand alone or assert your independence. Travel and changes are favored except at the adverse times of September.

The month seems to begin with much promise, and brings real benefit and excitement in its early days. As the month advances, however, you will find it increasingly difficult to be optimistic, business-like or practical. You will then be wise to defer important changes or new undertakings. When Saturn is adverse to you, you are apt to feel discouraged, pessimistic and disheartened, and also fail to attract the sympathy and love from others which you ordinarily would expect. Thus, during September's adverse days, as Saturn restricts the progress and achievement of the world, you should try to remain in the quiet isle of your own self, and carry on, but not aggressively.

Uranus seems to activate your association, during the month, with very progressive and scientifically minded people. Short trips will be made to meet new people, and letters, correspondence and news will be activated. You will find a new element of interesting plans and ideas arising within you which will later harvest a splendid crop of success and gain for you.

This is a month in which old conditions are ending, and the new will be stimulated. Try to protect yourself from the enmity of a former associate or person in business, for it seems as though this threat exists all through the month, beginning with the 8th.

Favorable days: 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 10, 16, 17, 18, 19, 24, 25, 29, 30.

Unfavorable days: 1, 7, 8, 9, 11, 12, 14, 15, 20, 21, 22, 23, 27, 28.
