You hear an administrator talk about PRODUCTION or GROSS INCOME and possibly suppose this is just a peculiarity or a fixation and that these facts are distant from general living. Perhaps some people suppose that such talk and urgings is part of the capitalistic system or something for a Board of Directors. General public reaction to such things is usually a no-thing-to-do-with-me. The usual attitude to Law and Accounting is a "beyond me" and an "it's confusing" yet the person is subject every day of his life to them. It is quite similar but even more mysterious with Administration.

GOVERNMENT FAILURES

Administration is not peculiar to capitalism. Or to any special field. It embraces all of them, even Law and Accounting which are, in actual fact, Administrative specialities.

Let us look at this abundant and glaring evidence: Russia cannot feed her people. She cannot clothe them. She has fantastic troubles in moving them about. Russia, despite her PR, is a failure. She is a failure not because few people up depends utterly upon things like PRODUCTION and EXCHANGE. That is the way the universe runs. When these factors are not competently handled the group is in poverty or vanishes.

WHY CIVILIZATIONS VANISH

Civilizations have not vanished because they had the wrong ideologies or ran out of resources. First and foremost they vanished because they had no technology of the mind and could not handle people because they did not know the basic fundamentals of life. And right along following that they did not really know the tech of administration or even what administrators were or could do.

Their survival was in question the moment they did things with individuals contrary to the basic laws of life: they began to believe they would get Reaction A by some strange rite, but instead of that got Reaction B. They not only did not have mental technology, they adopted practices contrary to basic laws. And so they were torn with revolts. And wars.

And their survival fell to nothing when they did not know or practice fundamental administration and violated the basic rules through ignorance or sloth.

If one is going to have a group in this universe that survives and wins through its obstacles, it must have and apply basic laws. It does not have to be a perfect group but it must not be an ignorant group.

ADMINISTRATION AND THE INDIVIDUAL

While the happiness of the individual may depend upon mental tech, apart from any group, he cannot survive well as a group member if he has no knowledge or understanding of administrative tech.

If one goes on living in this universe he is sooner or later the subject of administration as a member of a group. In cave days, if one had to stay in his cave starving because of a saber-toothed tiger prowling, he would have had two choices: he either stayed in his cave and starved to death or he learned about saber-toothed tigers; when he knew about saber-toothed tigers he would now have new choices of how to avoid, how to kill or even how to employ saber-toothed tigers; when he had settled this he would now have a path of action he could predict. The jungle in which he lived was subject to certain rules, no matter who laid them down, God or the old old Biological Survey. In other words even in cave days one was the effect of an Administrator.

When one had solved the crude tooth and claw existence one could rise to a small niche of administering on his own; animals could be domesticated, plants when planted would grow, wood when carved would make things, metal

How is it that the highest paid salaried men in our current civilization are Administrators?

They draw from a quarter to a third of a million dollars per year. They are paid far far more than professional people, far more than scientists, more than politicians who above all people should be excellent administrators. Why? Because they are so rare. Business schools may turn out graduates by the millions but very very very few of them ever become top flight executives who can really administer. Why does the civilization develop so very few of them? Because this civilization has not had much workable administrative tech and has not even known the basic natural laws which underlie administration.

PUBLIC ATTITUDE

The subject of administration is so poorly known because there is so little data. And because there is so little, the subject itself is not understood at all by the general population of the planet. Yet there are very few on the planet who are not the direct effect of administrators.

You hear an administrator talk about PRODUCTION or GROSS INCOME and possibly suppose this is just a peculiarity or a fixation and that these facts are distant from general living. Perhaps some people suppose that such talk and urgings is part of the capitalistic system or something for a Board of Directors. Let us look at this abundant and glaring evidence: Russia cannot feed her people. She cannot clothe them. She has fantastic troubles in moving them about. Russia, despite her PR, is a failure. She is a failure not because few people agree with her ideology, indeed, that ideology has crept reachingly over the world.

And let us look at the capitalist juggling money, money bags and paper gold and look as well at the health problems and cultural unrest that ride as problems in his train. The severest criticism of the capitalist is that communism and socialism grew up and flourished during his reign.

And look at the clanking, swanking military dictators who have replaced the weak and diseased kings who once ruled the world. They are themselves replaced by their own kind as as fast as firing squads can be assembled by newly ambitious dictators.

Why do these ideologies fail and why are they so oppressive while they last?

THEY HAVE TOO FEW TRAINED AND SKILLED ADMINISTRATORS WHO CAN GET A SHOW ON THE ROAD.

The SURVIVAL of any group depends utterly upon things like PRODUCTION and EXCHANGE. That is the way the universe runs. When these factors are not competently handled the group is in poverty or vanishes.

Freedom's Newest Frontier

when formed would make things that made things.

The moment one was headed in the direction of survival he was headed in the direction of production. So many killed deer made so many meals, it also made so many hides which made so many beds and jackets. The exchange with the deer was quite unequal as there was nothing for the deer and the deer protested by ceasing to exist and one got into goats and cattle. Similarly when the wild roots gave out, for there was no exchange for the roots, one had to plant them and tend them. Consumption any way one looked at it eventually got into production that equalized or tended to, exchange.

When one could administer a small area, so many plants, so many goats he was in his own right something of an administrator. He learned there was technical tech and he learned there was administrative tech also. And these things of all others continued to guide his survival.

ESCAPE?

One can of course decide not to go on living in this universe. But now he falls into two new choices: he either goes to another universe or drops into a sort of self cave. In the other universe he will probably find himself under a new administrator or a new set of rules even if he alone makes them. And if he chooses a sort of nowhere self cave he has done so because he never solved the saber-toothed tigers.

Thus one is confronted with certain incontrovertible facts. 1. HE MUST SEEK THE TECH OF SURVIVAL AND APPLY IT; 2. HE WILL SURVIVE AS WELL AS HE CAN ADMINISTER OR HANDLE ADMINISTRATION.

INDIVIDUAL HAPPINESS AND WELL-BEING

As a member of any group, the PRODUCTION and GROSS INCOME or EXCHANGE he hears his executives talking about APPLIES TO HIM DIRECTLY. Whatever ideology or system one embraces, his well being, his safety, his happiness will relate to PRODUCTION and EXCHANGE and the ease with which these are attained or maintained is determined directly by his understanding of and ability to handle Administration.

There are thousands and thousands and thousands who might give you far far different basics for life. But watch it! They are touting for some administrator or seeking to avoid ALL administration in every case, one or the other!

One either lone-wolfs his life or one gets through with a group. In the first place one must think mainly of personal money or one must think of the group's survival. The regulating factors in either case are ADMINISTRATION resulting in PRODUCTION and EXCHANGE.

Bank robber or bank president, these harsh facts of life still apply. Democratic politician or autocratic commissar, these are still the main determining factors of life.

THE INDIVIDUAL'S CHOICES

The welfare state seems so wonderful a dream to the socialist: why is it then that ghetto people riot because THEY HAVE NO JOBS but are only on welfare? It is true, surveys show. The recipients of welfare, whether a Roman gutter-snipe, a white Swede or a Black American become crippled as beings: they are the TOTAL effect of administration, they have no cause factor short of a riot. They want JOBS. For they instinctively realize that they are in little better position than the cave man with the saber-toothed tiger outside. They have been disenfranchised as members of the group, dwellers of the universe. They cannot exchange, a somewhat fearful thing, they do not produce and they are forbidden causative control or causative administration. They recognize no matter how dimly that they have been set up as zeros. And this is not only unhappy, it is dangerous.

Reversely, when people offer nothing in exchange, do not produce and cannot or will not administer they become pawns. Sometimes they think they are merely the subject of meanness or rancor. But if they do not produce or exchange and cannot share in administration they become zeros. Their fate is decided already, by themselves. It would not matter for a moment what some administrator did or did not do, such people have reduced their survival to a point that it is prey to the lightest wind. These facts are as inevitable as "apples fall", as harshly real as a tiger's claw and as predictable as tonight's darkness. Their only possible choices are 1) to cease to exist (which is impossible for a thetan) or 2) get in a position or situation or state of mind to produce, exchange and administer. There is a third choice – to leave this universe.

LIVING

Life is, or can be, a pretty grim proposition. One may float along on the production of others like the recently demised "Leisure Class" of 19th century infamy or like a hobo being chased by every householder and cop. One can go along in the numb world of the middle class watching his public docility while he hypocritically sins behind doors and conforms with a capital C. One can creakingly labor in the world of the endlessly being dug ditch for some unknown pipe. Or one can simply confront the whole thing, pain, misemotion, punishments, rewards and all and produce and exchange and learn to handle the administrative system he is in and himself administer his life and environ.

One can hear countless reasons why it is too awful or too deadly to find out about the tiger. But you hear these reasons from the cowardly dead.

One can hear a million arguments against being a tiger or the Administrator who orders tigers about. But one is talking to people who are not living.

THE CHALLENGE OF REAL FREEDOM AND SUCCESS

The stark facts are these: one knows and handles administration, one produces, one exchanges OR one dies as far as this universe is concerned

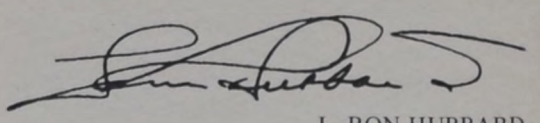

That's why you hear an Administrator who means well for the group talking about PRODUCTION and EXCHANGE. That is why one never hears a politician who means ill for the group mention them.

And that's why the person who can use administration to bring about production and exchange is so highly paid by status and respect or why his group is so highly paid. He is dealing in SURVIVAL. And the skills he uses are well worth knowing and using.

Caves are damp.

Bring on the tigers!

The sun is shining.

Texas Businessman Tours U.S. for ASHO

Tells success using Ron's Admin Tech

COL. HUGO C. (SANDY) SANFORD, retired U.S. Army colonel and now Chairman of the Board of Sanmarc Corporation (real estate brokerage), President of Wild Horse Farms, senior partner of VanHorne Mobile Homes (Nationwide distributorship), and DONNA DEENER, Executive Vice-President of Wild Horse Farms have just returned from a tour of the Eastern U.S. as representatives of ASHO.

Col. Sanford inspects seedling trees in a specially designed greenhouse on his ranch in Texas.

Sandy and Donna gave seminars to Scientologists and businessmen in New York, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Washington D.C. to tell of their startling successes using Scientology admin tech in their businesses.

They began heavily applying it in March of this year—organizing boards, hatting, ethics, statistics, planning by product and other techniques. "Before we applied Scientology our statistics were inclined down, which would have meant eventual bankruptcy. When we started applying the tech, not only did the statistics move up, but we have expanded at least 100% in the last 6 months," Sandy says. It was during this growth that the original Sanmarc Corporation (which deals in land sales of 25 acres and up) expanded into Wild Horse Farms (growing pecans and other field crops) and Van Horne Mobile Homes (which custom makes mobile units).

Sandy is currently the Director of the West Texas Rotary Club, member of the VanHorne Chamber of Commerce, the West Texas Pecan Grower's Association and the Texas Rancher's Association. He holds a Bachelor's degree in history from Heidelberg University, Master's degree in political science from the University of Nebraska and Master's degree in political science and business from the University of Texas. His military career took him from private to colonel over a period of 29 years, with decorations of the French Legion of Honor, U.S. Legion of Merit, silver star and bronze star.

He held various economic and political positions in Europe for 16 years and was on the committee that wrote the German Constitution in 1947.

Donna holds an Associate degree in graphic arts from the New York City Community College and is a member of the Professional Business Women's Assn. in Texas as well as the West Texas Pecan Growers Assn.

"After almost 30 years in government and 3 years in business," Sandy exclaims, "When I started using statistics according to Ron's admin tech, for the first time I found out what I was doing! It would be fair to say that before Scientology my productivity was about 1/10 of one percent of what it is now."

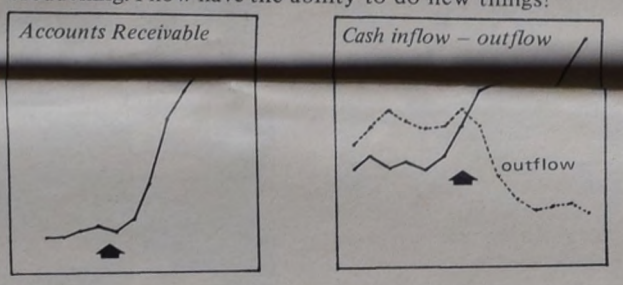

"Scientology totally changed my life," he goes on. "A little over a year ago I was retired from the service totally disabled, and was to have open heart surgery with three arterial bypasses. At the moment there is no vestige of any arterial blockage and I never had the surgery.

"Before, the business was just something for me to do because I couldn't see sitting around playing golf and painting. I had to have a game of some sort. Profit? Well, you don't go into business to lose. But there was no other purpose behind it. Scientology has given me a pro-survival purpose and enabled me to be at cause over the environment instead of the effect of it."

Donna Deener, Executive Vice President of Wild Horse Farms, tells how Scientology has enabled her to succeed.

Donna, a Grade IV and Hubbard Dianetic Counselor, got interested in Scientology in 1968 at a political rally in New York's Madison Square Garden. "A hand came through the crowd with a ticket saying 'The Road to Total Freedom.' I never saw the person's face, but I figured I'd be interested in that, so I took the ticket and stuck it in my pocketbook. Within the next 2 weeks I walked into the New York Church of Scientology and I was never the same again! I had been the advertising section co-ordinator for a trade newspaper. I felt there was a certain role in life that had been ordained for me and that I had to structure myself to it. I was constantly being disenchanted with the world as it was and with molding myself into its agreements, but I didn't realize there were other choices. Scientology changed all that in a week! I discovered my role was my own choice for structuring and the horizons have just never stopped broadening. I now have the ability to do new things!"

Wild Horse Farms Statistics—Arrow shows where Scientology Administrative Technology was put in.

Their businesses are so well established now that they're coming to ASHO for more training in August, leaving Wild Horse Farms set up for 40-1000% expansion in the capable hands of people they've trained using Ron's admin tech.

Parents Beam at Children's Progress in 6th Grade Scientology Checksheet Pilot

THIRTY-TWO CHILDREN AND their teacher, FELICIA BALLENTINE of the Bryson Avenue School in Southgate, California, this year piloted a schooling program based on Scientology and developed by SYLVIA HARE.

The results were pleasing to the children, the parents, the principal, the teacher and perhaps most of all to the originator, Sylvia Hare. Though reading as a subject was not taught (only Ron's study tech as needed was used), all reading test scores improved markedly over the previous semester. "The children are more able and more sure of themselves." reports Felicia. "During the end-of-the year parent-teacher conferences, parents beamed about their child's progress. 'Whatever you're doing, keep on doing it! My child is a different person this year!' was a typical comment."

A few months ago, the school principal asked Sylvia to a faculty meeting to tell other teachers about checksheets. He is so favorably impressed that next September he wants at least one teacher in each grade piloting them.

A checksheet is a series of items or exercises laid out for the individual student to go through at his own rate.

Sylvia Hare consults Bryson Public School students on how they like their checksheets.

Checksheets for each grade level are now ready for piloting. They cover both science and humanities, calling upon nationally acclaimed resources. Ron's study tech, the emotional tone scale and the 8 dynamics are the basis for the program.

Sylvia Hare, an OT III, holds 3 California teaching credentials as well as being trained in Scientology. The current checksheets are the product of several years work, in keeping with a promise she made Ron to prepare courses for a child's education using Scientology. She has worked with Adrienne Kennedy in Palo Alto, Connie Amsbury of the Ranch School in Oregon, and Jenny Alexander, Education Director of the Ability School in New York. Jenny's pilot this year was so successful that her students want to keep working on their checksheets right through summer!

Sylvia is supervising more testing and improvement of the grade checksheets in coordination with the Los Angeles-based Applied Scholastics program, in order to disseminate Ron's very successful study tech more broadly in the field of education.

Chic Corea Plays Carnegie Hall

CHIC COREA AND HIS GROUP, RETURN TO FOREVER, played with jazz innovator Herbie Hancock at New York City's famed Carnegie Hall this past April.

"Corea's Return to Forever band played one of the finest sets that audience was ever likely to hear . . ." wrote the Village Voice. "The vibes coming off that stage [illegible] . . . Listening to this group on record is an experience, in the flesh its practically a religious event . . ." raved the Aquarian. "Corea's compositions, however 'cosmic' their titles, celebrate the emotional possibilities of man, and the joys of performance and human communication," praised the Statesman.

Chic, an OT, played with the Incredible String Band, Mike Garson and Woody Woodmansey (all Scientologists) at the "Rainbow" in London to celebrate the 24th anniversary of Dianetics in May.

3rd Dynamic Auditor Gets Big Results with Ron's Admin Tech

CLARK CARR, GRADE VA Release and SHSBC student, has started a company, EXPANSION CONSULTATIONS, to help individuals apply Ron's admin tech to their lives.

He finds what the individual is doing or what he wants to do. Then using Ron's policies, he just finds what piece of organization the person most needs to put in.

"What I'm interested in is auditing the 3rd Dynamic, and getting more Scientologists utilizing all their talents. My other purpose is to make Scientology understood by business, and to make Scientologists known as the ones who make things go right."

And he's succeeding!

RICHARD ROYCE (OT VII) for example, artist, etcher and sculptor for 10 years, has tripled his weekly income and is continuing to expand. "Before starting with Clark, I was mostly stopped. My admin was out! I was being a creative artist but I wasn't getting my work exchanged with anyone. Now, 5 editions of my etchings are being distributed across the U.S., and some 20 sculptures I did over the last 6 months have been sold and are being placed in office buildings and banks throughout the U.S. In addition to this I've been barrelling along on the Briefing Course at night now, and expanding my communication lines to disseminate Scientology while I expand my career."

CHUCK JONES, an architect, was assisted in setting up 7 companies and in formulating goals, purposes, policy, statistics and products. After he completed the consultation his company closed a deal concerning tens of millions of dollars.

RICHARD FRANCHOT, a film di- of our graphs have reversed from a slow downward trend to a sharp upward one. Our business has tripled over the last 3 months."

NEIL BRISKER, photographer, has increased his income from near nothing to several thousand dollars. LLOYD McPHEE, an insurance agent, who was doing poorly before, is now closing million dollar deals and quickly rising to the top of his field.

SIMONE GAD, tapestry artist, has started selling her work world-wide and is now employing other staff to help.

TREY LOTZ, Class VIII, doubled his auditing hours as a result of expansion consultations. And BRUCE BISHOP, Class VIII and printer/calligrapher, has greatly expanded his shop and staff.

Org Exec Course Skyrockets Restaurant Leader into New Expansion

OT II ROGER BERNOT, AN OEC student, has just expanded his company into the elegant Bradbury Building, a historical monument in downtown L.A.

Roger started EXPERIENCE Company 3 years ago as a new idea to connect restaurant seekers with the restaurants needed. It never done quite that way before. And today, Experience is an opinion leader in the L.A. Restaurant Industry, acknowledged by the National Restaurant News and the L.A. Mayor. The Chamber of Commerce and Auto Club standardly give out the Experience phone number to tourists.

How did this happen so fast? The Org Exec Course!

Using the data he learned on the OEC, Roger started a magazine, expanded into new areas of the entertainment industry and is now starting another newspaper for the trade.

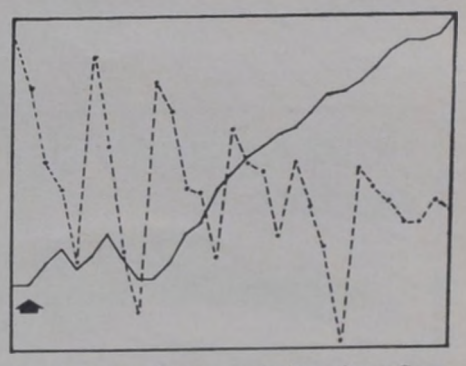

"There's no way a person can operate sanely without the OEC. Reading the volumes helps but the doingness of the course really gets in the application," Roger stresses.

"Before I started applying finance policy, we were overloaded with bills and had little cash. Now we have more staff, more advertising and more equipment than ever and the ratio of cash to bills is completely reversed," Roger says.

"I really thought I knew business—I'd been a manager for Borden Milk Company in Chicago and had my own business since I was 16. I thought I knew all about it, until I took the OEC. And since then my statistics have skyrocketed."

Roger is now working with the part-owner manager of the Bradbury Building (built in 1893 and today housing elegant professional offices) to revitalize the low-toned blocks around it with an Old Town development. The building manager is so excited about this that he's offered Experience four months free rent and Roger a monthly salary to help. Being curious, and resourceful, Roger also scouted he got for the asking. N... printing operation for the building and nearby businesses.

"When Ron says the world is ours—it is! You just have to apply the tech and you will move in and control it," he says.

Graph shows the change in Experience Company's cash-to-bills ratio. Roger started the OEC at point of arrow. (Dotted line is bills, solid line is cash).

FOCUS ON SUCCESS

INSTANT PREDICTION

"The results of the Primary Rundown are amazing. Today as I was reading the paper, I would finish one paragraph of an article and found I would have the thought, 'Due to the data in this paragraph, it follows that so and so will happen.' When I read the next paragraph, what I had thought would happen as a result of the data in the first paragraph was stated in the paragraph just after it! I was actually instantly predicting ahead of my reading and was absolutely accurate in those predictions.

My business is investing in currencies commodities and land. The way the world is today, with currencies, fluctuating in value, inflation, devaluations, shortages, stock market changes, it is imperative to be able to look ahead. The data I read now has instant meaning and applicability–I mean INSTANT.

The Primary Rundown is the single most valuable investment I have made since coming into Scientology. The single most valuable from a Scientology standpoint and from a business standpoint. The really strange part of it is that it was free because I am taking the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course with it.

I attribute a lot of my success to the Supervisor. He is superb–the kind ASHO brags about. I won't say I didn't have any problems on the PRD, but when I did have one, he was there. Many times he was supervising a lot of students at once and yet seemed to always be available when I needed him. The problems just seemed to dissolve. So, if you don't think you can do the Primary Rundown, come do it anyway. With a good supervisor, you won't have to do it alone."

Tom R. Waite of Minnesota

DISSEMINATION WIN

"While I was in L.A. for my power, I stopped at a gas station. I looked so happy the attendant said 'Wow, what's happening!!' So I told him I was a Scientologist and what I was here to do. He said 'fantastic!' and he and the two others closed the gas station to go take a personality test. They'll be starting their comm course as soon as they're through with their finals, which should be this week!

When I was working, I took Problems of Work to our office manager. There were about 35 attorneys and about 40 secretaries, so it can get kind of trying. Well, that cleaned him up on problems of work, and the more people I had reading the book the cleaner the space kept getting. I got a $40 raise and then they sent me to school to learn a special machine. It was like I could do anything I wanted because they knew I could do it. There was no pressure. If anyone else was under pressure, I could always take dictation from them and they just felt better when I was around."

Rita Englehardt, now Clear

FEBC EASE

"The most significant change in me since doing the FEBC is my ability to control, and the ease that I do things I need to do to raise statistics. I know the answers, it's a matter of just carrying them through.

There are less unknowns, and less unknowns = more positiveness. You get confidence once you apply something and know it works. You don't thank about it after awhile, you just do it, it's part of you. And you can get other people to do it and the agreements between them go in."

Ron Litchfield, FEBC Graduate from ASHO
Executive Director, Vancouver Church of Scientology

NEW CAUSE LEVEL

"Any being who can see that it is better to be effective than cautious, and wants to be at cause rather than a spectator should do the OEC.

I am more honest, more certain and more CLEAR!

My anxieties about leadership are vanishing rapidly.

Ron is really the guy who will help you help others and that's great!"

Don Gere
Executive Director Los Angeles
Foundation Church of Scientology

This will probably be the toughest course you've ever done.

The certificate awarded is "COMPETENT BEING". That's saying a lot.

It will completely change your life, Most people spend so much time spinning their wheels trying to figure themselves out that they never get far solving the real situations around them.

The Introspection Rundown, Ron's brilliant 1973 spiritual discovery, (required for the course) handles this inner uncertainty once and for all, leaving you free to look outward and act.

The Drug Rundown, to free you from any compulsion to take drugs or alcohol, is also required.

Course donation: $1500. (Introspection Rundown is given at $3000 per 12½ hour intensive due to the exacting training needed to deliver it. Drug Rundown is $1250 per 25 hours auditing or can be co-audited if student qualifies). Call the Registrar at ASHO, 213-380 0710, for full details.

How do you handle them in an organization?

Organizations.

How do you, a person, deal with them?

Hear the answers on these lecture tapes by L. Ron Hubbard!

Where do people fit in and what IS an organization really? How do you get organizations off your nerves? What causes organizations to lose good people when they do?

These questions and a lot more are answered in Ron's 2 part lecture, The Definition of Organization.

In the next 2 lectures of this exciting series, Ron pulls no punches as he demonstrates how our idea of liberty has changed since 1776, and what lies ahead for Scientology. (The Consequences of Organization and The Deterioration of Liberty).

What it takes to make a dream come true

BY L. RON HUBBARD

There is a lot to organization. It requires trained administrators who can forward the programmes. But a "trained" administrator who does not grasp the principles of organization itself is only a clerk.

At this current writing Man has not had administrative training centers where actual organization was taught. It was learned by "experience" or by working in an organization that was already functioning. But as the principles were not the same company to company and nation to nation, the differences of background experiences of any set of administrators differed to such a degree that no new corps could be assembled as a team.

Thus it was said to require a quarter to a half a century to make a company. But the number of ineffective bureaucracies and national failures which existed stated clearly that there were too few skilled administrators and too few training activities.

Man's happiness and the longevity of companies and states apparently depend upon organizational know-how. Hiring specialized experts to get one out of trouble is a poor substitute for knowing what it is all about in the first place.

Organization is actually a simple subject, based on a few basic patterns which if applied produce success.

If one would dream and see his dreams an actuality, one must also be able to organize and to train organizational men who will make those dreams come true.

L. RON HUBBARD
Founder

The Dream Comes True in Mexico!

Six Scientologists arrived in Mexico City June 14th to an enthusiastic welcome. Their mission: to spread Ron's tech throughout Mexico, especially the Study Tech and Narconon* drug rehabilitation programs. Led by Class VIII Auditor Yvonne Jentzsch (Graduate of the Flag Executive Briefing Course and Public Relations Officer training), this incredibly successful mission consisted of: Heber Jentzsch, Albert Ribisi, Pat Gualteri, Gay Ribisi, and Sally Chaleff. Mario Feninger, famed concert pianist, Wings and Cass Livinryte, David Cambell (musicians) and Director of Applied Scholastics* Cam Solari also did public appearances.

TV, Newspapers, Magazines, Radio

The first event, a large press conference at the Hotel Camino Real in Mexico City, was set up by Sergio Lan (Executive Director of the Org de Dianetica in Mexico City) and covered by 4 major newspapers and national TV. Wilfredo Prieto translated, and leading Scientologists Armando Prieto (Executive Director Scientology Org Mexico), Miguel Catano (Executive Narconon Mexico), David Zetune (Executive Director Scientology Center), Francisco Ponton (Narconon Supervisor), Nissem Noscona (Distribution Secretary Scientology Center), Antonio Hernandez (Public Relations Officer) were all there.

A three page interview with Yvonne came out in "Kena," a major magazine, while the tour was in Mexico. Quotes from L. Ron Hubbard were printed in their "thoughts for the day" column. An article on Applied Scholastics will be in next issue.

An interview was done for "La Nueva Vida," another major magazine, and the interviewer left very enthusiastic about Dianetics and L. Ron Hubbard's Study Tech.

Daily national TV news coverage followed the tour throughout their 10 day stay in Mexico.

A 13 week series was set up on Channel 11 about Dianetics and the Study Tech.

Yvonne, Sergio Lan, Antonio Hernandez and Miguel Catano appeared on the Manola Fabrica Show (Mexico's equivalent of the U.S. Johnny Carson talk show) and the station later expressed interest in doing a weekly show on Scientologists using Ron's tech.

The largest government-owned radio station in Mexico began reading excerpts over the air from L. Ron Hubbard's "Original Thesis" and "Problems of Work."

Top Level Government Meetings

In Tampico, 2nd most important port in Mexico, the Mayor gave his full support to the Dianetic programs presented for his city. There were two 20 minute TV shows there and a big event at the Rotary Club, which plans to have 6 Rotarians trained as course supervisors for the programs. The TV interviewer in Tampico was so interested she has gotten 48 people together to take the Communications Course.

The Mayor of Tlalnepantla, 2nd largest industrial city in Mexico, completely embraced the programs and called a meeting of city leaders to announce the programs were to start immediately throughout his city! Ziggy Nates, top engineer in Mexico, joined the other Scientologists at these meetings with the Mayor.

The same thing happened in Iguala.

Acapulco's Mayor presented the keys to his city to Yvonne for L. Ron Hubbard, and than accepted the Narconon program.

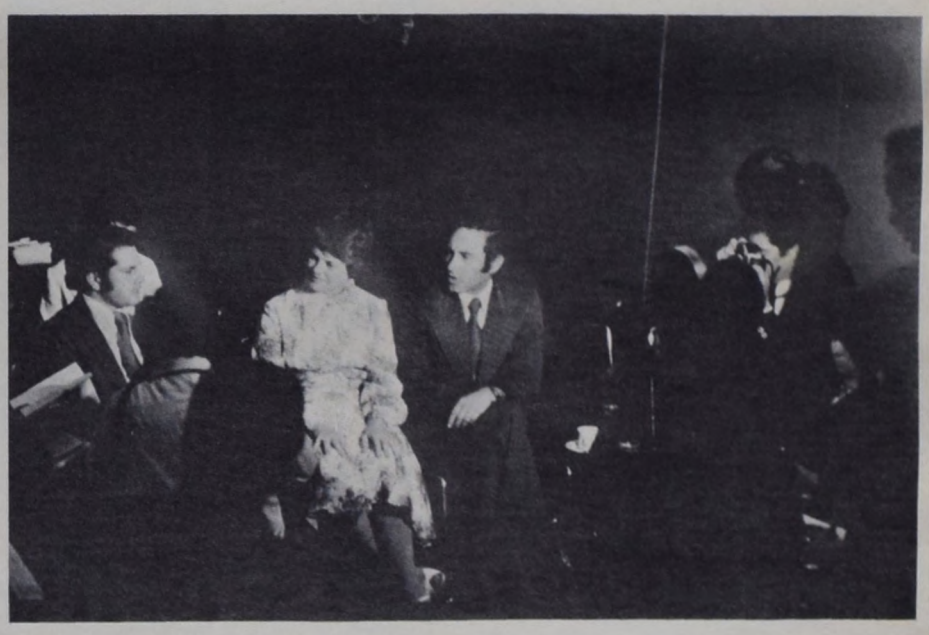

Eugenio Castillo, Mexican Scientologist (now in L.A. for training) arranged a meeting for the town with the Secretary of Gobernacion (next to the President), who was very excited about the Narconon program.

Education

Fernando Mena, former professor of the National Polytech Educational Institute (now of Mexico Scientology Center), arranged a meeting for Yvonne with the Director of Economics at the Institute, who received the Study Tech program with great interest. He plans to visit the Org de Dianetica to see tech in action and put professors on course as a pilot.

Yvonne, Armando Prieto, Antonio Hernandez and Felipe Dorre met with the Public Relations Officer for the Secretary of Education for all Mexico. He is now very interested in the Study Tech (wants to take the Student Hat Course himself) and is arranging a meeting of the 44

On a TV news broadcast in Mexico, Yvonne Jentzsch (Class VIII Auditor, Graduate of the Public Relations Course and Flag Executive Briefing Course) tells how L. Ron Hubbard's tech is applied to improve learning ability and to release people from drug abuse. (Miguel Catano far right; Wilfredo Prieto far left; Sally Chaleff next to Yvonne in lower photo).

The Applied Scholastics program was also presented at Eton, a top private elementary shcool in Mexico City. Parents and teachers were very eager to put it in.

Public Events

Two large public events were held at the Israeli Sports Club in Mexico, one on Narconon and one on Study Tech.

New bindings • These books stand up to constant use for years.

Kids put schoolbooks to the toughest tests there are–drop them, throw them at walls, even kick them around like footballs. Government standard for schoolbook bindings made sure a text can take it.

But reference books for adults must wear well too. In fact, they're expected to last a lifetime. So the U.S. OEC Volumes were designed with a binding better than the stiffest schoolbook standards, with pages that won't every yellow with age.

Their cover cloth alone is so strong the top Scientology publications executive on location at the printing plant couldn't tear it. (He sure tried though!).

Produced by the craftsmen who print and bind Encyclopedia Britanica and World Book, the U.S. OEC Volumes will take the roughest treatment you'll ever give them without falling apart.

You can't accidentally ruin them by spilling coffee or food either–the covers are water-repellent and heat resistent.

Your OEC set will give you many, many years of fine service, just as you'd expect.

Set of 8 volumes (over 3800 pages of material): $300. ($270.00 with Scientology member's discount). Special Offer! Includes printed Org Exec Course checksheet (the course training program) for each volume –free!

IMPORTANT NOTE. The first printing of this special U.S. edition is being delivered the week of September 9. Shipping on orders received will start immediately. Due to high production costs to meet these top quality specifications, only 5000 sets have been printed. They will be quickly sold. You'd better send in your order right now to be sure you get one of these original sets.

"Power of Source" Premieres in the U.S.

Ron's exciting new sound bursts onto L.A. music scene

The exciting strains of L. Ron Hubbard's new music soared out into California's night air for the first time at 11:00 p.m. July 17, 1974.

This official premiere for Scientologists of Ron's POWER OF SOURCE record album was given over a superb sound system in front of Celebrity Center on Los Angeles' 8th Street.

The 250 Scientologists gathered there were among the first in the U.S. to experience the pure energy of this new sound. It was an electric moment—a musical announcement to the future, as clear and bold as a trumpet: "We're going UP!"

Ron calls Power of Source a "barbaric symphony"; one of its reviewers described it as "a controlled explosion of sound."

Selections on the album range from Gershwin's Summertime and folk song When Johnny Comes Marching Home to three original jazz compositions: We're Moving In, My Dear Portugal, and the dynamic title piece, The Power of Source.

How Ron Created the New Sound

In Science of Survival, written in 1951, Ron said "A culture is as great as its dreams and its dreams are dreamed by artists."

In addition to spiritual research this year, Ron collected traditional and contemporary music from countries all over the world. After thorough analysis, he discovered a way to weave modern musical concepts with primitive tribal rhythms and tonal scales. The result is a musical expression of a freedom so basic it transcends present musical trends. Its penetrating rhythms create a feeling of unity modern man has long forgotten.

Story of the Apollo Stars

In December of 1973, Ron assembled a group of musicians from the Flagship crew to represent Flag in a local concert. From that point, Ron began to personally supervise tapes of their music.

Within weeks, they became celebrities of the country and performed in parks, theaters, parades. Ron named them the Apollo Stars. In specially designed suits, studded with gold stars, they responded to demands for more concerts.

Then, in March, 1974, Ron developed new motions in dance to give visual impact to the sound and created the Apollo Star Dancers to join the Stars.

Audiences Respond

At a recent performance in Europe, the audience climbed out of their seats, formed hand-in-hand chains which wove up the aisles, raced through the balconies, ran in and out of the theatre, dancing and making circles with the Apollo Star Dancers! Others threw flowers and stormed the stage to get close to the performers. About 100 Flagship crew quickly made a chain in front of the stage to keep the crowd from mobbing the band.

The Apollo Troupe (Stars and Star Dancers) stole the show in a parade soon after with Ron's new sound and motion. Spectators flooded the streets around their float, dancing and cheering amidst streamers, confetti and flowers.

Ron Expands the Music's Reach

As the Troupe created these incredible impacts on whole countries, L. Ron Hubbard worked even more closely with them. Out on the open air decks of The Apollo, with a tremendous speed of particle flow he created an entire new repertoire of 12 songs in one night.

To further the reach of the New Sound, Ron personally recorded the Stars on their new album "Power of Source" using specially-built equipment. The resulting duplication of the Stars live sound was so perfect it astounded first local professionals and then those in the U.S. when the album was pressed.

The Apollo Troupe's renown is spreading fast. One week after the ship's arrival in a new country, the Troupe hit the press and radio and was featured in cinema shorts played in theaters across the country. Within days they were doing command performances.

Who's Who in the Apollo Stars

LUTEN TAYLOR, bass trombone, played with Woody Herman behind Tony Bennett, Dionne Warwick and others. BILL POTTER, tenor sax, played with Matt Benton (Stan Kenton Orchestra), Jim Maxwell (Glen Miller Orchestra) and T'Shura Stav, internationally known Isreali singer. CHARLES RUSH, drums, played with Amanda Ambrose and Charlie Musselwhite. TOM RODRIGUEZ, bongos/composer, played back-up for Latin America's best known artists such as Lisette Alvarez, Chucho Avellanet (the "Frank Sinatra" of Puerto Rico), and Latin guitarist Carlos Garcia. CRAIG FERREIRA, lead guitar, played with John Lee Hooker, Rick Kellog, Dan Hicks and his Hot Licks, and Chick Corea. TAMIA ARBUCKLE, bass/rhythm guitar, is one of the most highly respected Japanese popular musicians. (He received more than 200,000 fan letters two years ago in Japan.) RUSS MEADOWS, Class VIII Auditor, rhythm guitar/flute/bass, played professional country western since he was 12. KENNY CAMPLEMAN, flute, plays his first professional engagement with the Stars.

New Sound on its Way

The Stars are on their way—already in European concerts they bring Ron's new sound to a weekly attendance of more 29,000 people.

With POWER OF SOURCE playing in the U.S. now, they're headed for the top in this part of the world too. KBCA, the Los Angeles jazz station, has already played part of the album and other radio stations are starting to pick it up across the country.

Saint Hill Special Briefing Course

OT VII Camille Denholme chuckles at one of Ron's jokes in a Saint Hill Special Briefing Course lecture.

New Milepost at 74

Originally from Belgium, CAMILLE DENHOLME at 74 is now a resident of Vancouver. Nearly 40 years a schoolteacher, today she is almost a Class VI Auditor.

Here is her success story:

"When I came into Scientology I had been retired for 3 years. A friend had just come back from Saint Hill and said 'we're going to a lecture this afternoon, would you like to come' so I went.

I knew right away that this was what I had been looking for. I had been fishing around in philosophies and never found any answers to anything.

At that time I felt 'oh dear, I'm 68 and I'd better get moving fast.' And in 6 months I was Clear.

When I started, somebody asked me what Scientology did for me and I laughingly said it's given 'retired' a new meaning—when you retire you're supposed to be very quiet and stay home. And to me, retired came to mean having been given a new set of tires so I could really move and that's exactly what it's done! I have much more energy. I'm going all the time, I never stop. I average 5 or 6 hours of sleep a night at most. If I go to bed before midnight I'm awake at 3:30!

I'd been wanting to do the Briefing Course but it never seemed to be the right time. Then last March I decided I couldn't afford to wait any longer if I was going to do it this year.

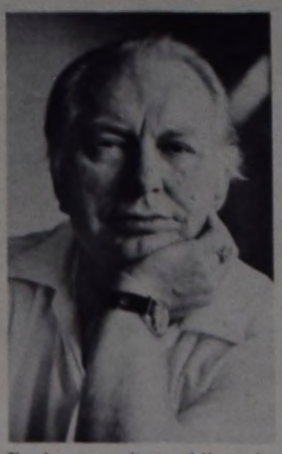

All the way up the processing side, I realized something was happening and I knew I was a very different person—but I didn't have any understanding of the what or why. When you listen to the Briefing Course tapes and follow what Ron has been doing, what he's talking about, you understand what is happening to you.

Level V of the SHSBC is a new milepost in my life.

I have enjoyed every minute of it more than anything else I have done in my life. There have been many wins and cognitions along the way so that I truly feel 'expanded'.

Getting Ron's data—right from Ron on the tapes—is an experience no one should miss.

Thank you to many people who have helped me along the way—most of all to Ron."

Be an expert on people

Explorer, writer, philosopher—L. Ron Hubbard has cracked the major problems of our times.

Take L. Ron Hubbard's Saint Hill Special Briefing Course

You'll improve your relations with others, gain more ability to achieve your own goals.

Ron's Saint Hill Special Briefing Course starts at the beginning.

You're in on each triumph as Ron discovers one answer after another to ancient and modern questions about the mind, human behavior, spiritual phenomena.

You share the joy of seeing a route fall into place that now leads anyone who travels it directly to the state of Clear.

Professional Ability

The SHSBC is tough, professional training. You audit every day under Class VIII Case Supervision, see auditing on closed circuit TV, and work daily toward session presence as natural as Ron's for every action a Class VI Auditor will need to know.

But the personal gains will surprise you. As you go through the course, confusions, upsets, disagreements, unanswered questions maybe you didn't even realize you had unravel and fall away. People start making sense to you in a way they never have before.

That's why Briefing Course Graduates are so confident, so relaxed, and so capable of helping people. They understand Scientology tech and how to use it; they really understand its philosophy. And you will too when you've followed this great adventure every step of the way through Ron's lectures, books, bulletins. With standard course supervision you'll easily cover 1948 data up to 1966 in just 4-6 months' full time training.

Economical Route to Clear

No matter how little auditing you've had so far, you'll be a Grade VA (Power Release) by the time you graduate. (It's required. You get Power Processing at 50% professional discount in ASHO's HGC). Then you're ready for Grade VI (Free to you as a Class VI, though $775 to non-professionals). Then it's on to Clear itself.

Prerequisites: Class IV Provisional, Hubbard Dianetic Counselor OR Clear, Hubbard Dianetic Counselor; Superliterate (FREE as first step of SHSBC).

Donation: $775. Add $375 and 3 weeks for your Class VI Internship under the top professionals at ASHO to earn the permanent certificate of Hubbard Senior Scientologist.

If you're a Clear or a Class IV, the SHSBC is your next step. Take it NOW.

SEND your check/money order to the Registrar with your intended arrival date. He'll send you a full registration packet.
