The Research and Development of Dianetics

by L. Ron Hubbard

Probably the genesis of Dianetics really lies in the late 1920s when I was a young kid in the Orient watching all sorts of oddities, such as little boys jumping up to the top of ropes that were't there and people worrying and wondering about what the soul and mind were all about. The more they seemed to know, the more impoverished they seemed to be.

I decided they didn't know very much about it and I thought, "Well, the Western civilizations have it all taped. America knows everything!"

So while I was going to George Washington University in 1931 I conducted a series of tests on poetry, of all things. I found out that poetry gives off the same wavelength in any language, and I wondered, "What's this all about?"

I went over to the Psychology Department, and a fellow there said, "Where are you from?" I said, "I'm from the engineering school. I just want to know some of the stuff you chaps have already got figured out. Do all minds react the same to poetry? Is there a repetitive wavelength that goes through all minds and are all minds the same?"

And he said, "Poetry belongs in the arts college".

Then I got right down to cases, and I said, "Do you know anything about this or don't you?"

And I made the horrifying discovery that nobody had the mind taped. It was a totally wide open field. There was philosophy, but it really had nothing to do with the mind. There were a bunch of suppositions back in the 1500's and 1600's. There was something called "Faculty Psychology" having to do with the examination of perception. And in 1870 a fellow by the name of Wundt had decided we were all animals and established the modern school known as psychology. But he didn't have any evidence!

And I wondered again, "What's this all about? What is this thing called the mind?"

We all depend on this thing called the mind. This is agreed upon throughout society. There is even a saying that "Man's best weapon is his mind".

And yet, as we look over "Man's best weapon" we find people totally certain about how everybody else ought to use theirs, yet nobody knows how to use his own!

Here we have this avowedly wonderful and important thing, the human mind, and we go down to the library and we look under the stack cards for Human Mind. We find "Libido Theory (not to be read by Catholics)". We read over here, "PreFrontal Lobotomies", but the number of fatalities is omitted from the data. We look over here – "Why everybody has to be electric shocked although nobody ever got well from it." We have a book called The Human Mind. We read it over and find it's a bunch of detailed case histories of little girls who did something nasty. It says on the cover The Human Mind. That's an insult. The whole book talks about insanity.

Going forward, in 1938 I found the common denominator of all livingness as Survival. I had studied amongst very primitive cultures and I had evidence that survival was the common denominator to all these races.

All went along very well and we got into a war, the war that ended nothing except some of our healths and finances. The research and investigation interrupted by the war was resumed immediately after the war in the Oak Knoll Naval Hospital where I studied endocrinology, endocrine systems and glands and so forth.

We were getting people who had been starved, pilots who had been shot down and been afloat for weeks at sea and suffered tremendous and terrible privations. And under tremendous stress men very often lose their virility and, by the way, cannot eat or break down food if they are too short on the vital hormone, testosterone.

And they were trying to find out what made people eat and what didn't make them eat so they could put these pilots and others back into some shape again.

We are indebted to that period of research just for this reason only: I learned whether it was function or structure that monitored human condition. That's an interesting question if you come to think about it, because it hasn't been asked for I don't know how long.

Now most everybody said "It's structure: the reason this man is unhappy is he has a pain in his leg and it makes him unhappy." The prevailing opinion was that Man's mental condition depends exclusively upon his physical condition, the balance of hormones in his system, his glandular fluids, his diet, his environment, and this determines his mental condition. That was the philosophy of healing as of 1945.

Well, was it right? Much earlier in my life I'd had the privilege of studying under someone taught by Sigmund Freud himself. And Freud had the idea that maybe the mind had something to do with it, but we couldn't be too sure. There were no scientific proofs certainly.

So I studied to resolve this question: is it structure that monitors the mind, or the mind that monitors structure? And if we come up here with a decision either way we will study that side of it.

Sitting around on benches in the park there at the hospital, alongside some of these chaps who obviously were half starved to death, I started to work on

DIANETICS From its beginnings to 1975

Probably no book in the history of Mankind has made so much impact on so many people with as much velocity as L. Ron Hubbard's Dianetics: the Modern Science of Mental Health.

In the years leading up to its release in 1950, L. Ron Hubbard had become very well known in science fiction circles while writing to support his researches into the human mind. In 1949 word began to spread broadly among forward-looking scientists that he was really onto something.

By January of 1950, Hermitage House publishers, specializing in psychiatric texts, approached the subject with a skepticism that quickly turned to fascination when they discovered the techniques were astonishingly effective. They offered to print a book for the public –but only if Hubbard could deliver an immediate manuscript.

Ron's dream of a calm three-years-to-write-textbook went glimmering. The editor got his manuscript– 180,000 words–just 3 weeks later. The book was published and put on sale May 9 without fanfare.

Ron's feature article "Dianetics, the Evolution of a Science" appeared in the May issue of Astounding Science Fiction along with an ad announcing availability of the new book on Dianetics from Hermitage House.

Expected to sell at best 6000 copies–when that book instantly began to sell a thousand copies a day the explosion was on!

Its electrifying popularity startled the literary and scientific world. Enthusiasm spread by word of mouth. Dianetics leaped onto the New York Times Best Seller list in June and just stayed there for 26 solid weeks.

Torrents of articles on "The Dianetics Question" appeared in the press. Was it for real? Could such results be possible? Dianetics became a household word as millions talked about it, tried it, got their friends to try it.

More than 25,000 letters, telegrams and phone calls from all over the world poured into the publisher, congratulating the brilliant author of Dianetics for his contribution to Man.

By the scores, people wrote to Hubbard asking for training as auditors. Ron announced he would give instruction in his home in Elizabeth, New Jersey.

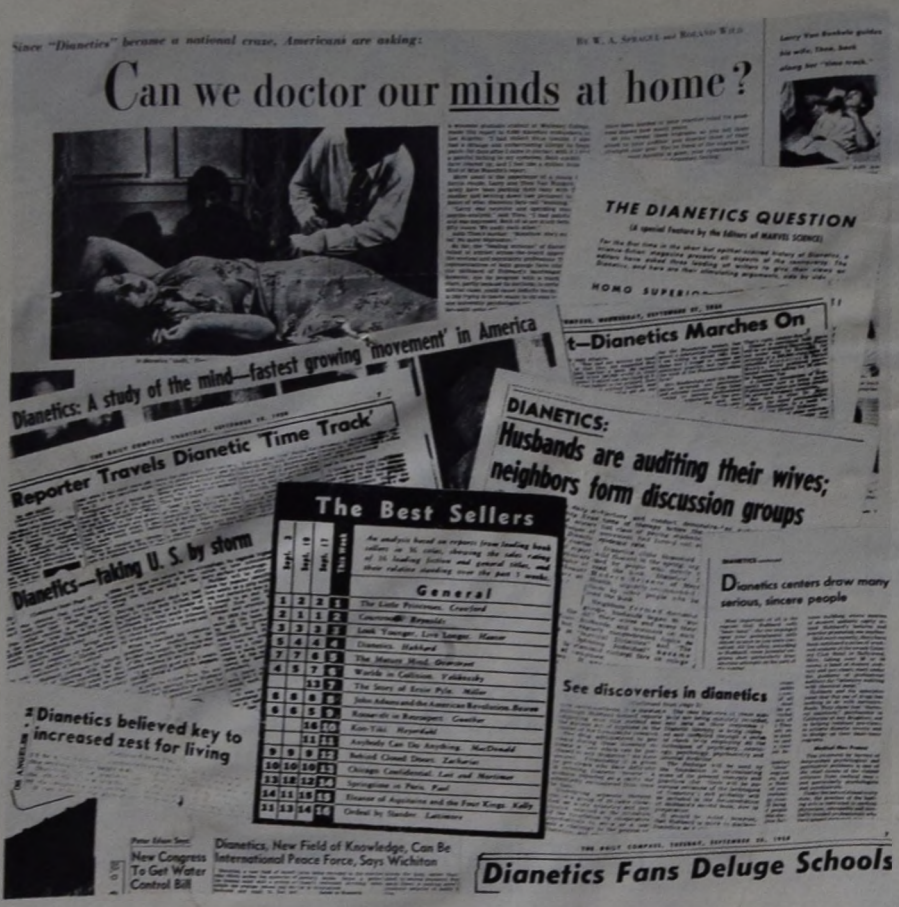

A deluge of students arrived June 2, the day the school opened. Most letter applicants had been advised by the Director of Admissions not to come because there was no provision to handle very many! But they came anyway, parking on the lawn, waiting for attention. Soon people were being audited on every available bed, chair, even the floor. Two more homes were taken over, then a suite of offices.

In late July, the clamor of demand in Los Angeles brought Ron to California to teach at the Hubbard Dianetic Research Foundation's 110-room building on Hoover Street.

The furore grew. At one point L.A. bookshops kept available copies of the book under their shelves for favored customers, as the publisher rushed new printings to try to keep pace with demand. By fall, 150,000 copies had been sold!

The National Association of College stores reported Dianetics as its number one non-fiction seller amongst 2,500,000 students in the months of June, July and August.

Dianetics shot to the top of Best Seller lists and stayed there...

More than 750 non-professional Dianetic Clubs and groups had sprung up overnight with people from all walks of life—engineers, doctors, writers, housewives, lawyers, teachers, teamsters—running Dianetics out of BOOK ONE.

With seemingly endless energy, Ron kept a schedule that would have challenged a dozen men, writing, lecturing, doing demonstrations, answering mountains of correspondence, commuting between the East and West Coast of the U.S.

Ron tried to find management adequate to the task of training and auditing all the people who had smashed a highway to his door, but no management then in existence could have withstood such a crush.

Undaunted, Ron carried on his research and advanced Dianetic techniques to a point where they would be invariably successful in hands other than his own. In August of 1951, he published the massive work Science of Survival, The Prediction of Human Behavior, followed in September by the popular self-help volume Self-Analysis. His research into yet more basic axioms culminated in Advanced Procedures and Axioms, released in October, then in December Handbook for Preclears, the self-processing manual based on these principles.

By 1952, Ron was delving into the spiritual nature of Man and its relationship to the mind and body. History of Man told some of his findings on engrams far beyond the scope of one lifetime.

The release of Dianetics '55! at the 1955 Unification Congress in Phoenix marked the technical bridge from Dianetics to Scientology, the study of knowledge in its fullest sense.

And in 1958 Ron published the experiences of 42 Scientologists in Have You Lived Before This Life? A Study of Past Lives through Dianetic Engrams.

On the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course in England (begun in 1961) Ron gave auditors new understanding of the time track itself in lectures and bulletins of 1963.

By 1966, Scientology auditing techniques had been developed to such a blinding speed of result that auditors couldn't get enough practice handling the mind to get truly familiar with it. So Ron re-introduced Dianetic auditing on July 21, 1966, for training purposes only. Saint Hill lead the way with all students and staff taking part in the new Hubbard Dianetic Auditor's Course. A resounding success, it quickly spread to organizations around the world.

In 1969, immediately after Class VIII Auditors put in 100% standard tech across the planet, a missing step for preclears came to light — once again, Dianetics! So Ron streamlined existing Dianetic technology and rapidly trained up specialists in the infinitely more simple and fantastically more effective procedures. The first graduates went out to every continent in May, 1969, to demonstrate and implement them. Hubbard Standard Dianetics Courses instantly filled up and "Dianetic miracles" again became the order of the day.

In July of 1971, Ron spelled out the exact Dianetic rundown to erase the causes of drug and alcohol dependence, which had become so prevalent in society.

Never satisfied to coast on past victories, the new breakthroughs in Class XII results of late '71 led Ron to find a way these gains could be delivered by lower classed auditors. This marked the beginning of Expanded Dianetics, an immensely powerful technology tailored to handle the intentions and chronic difficulties of the individual unreached by other processes. Research continued through 1972 when Expanded Dianetics Specialists were sent off to deliver Ron's newest advance of Dianetics. Not replacing Standard Dianetics, which continued as the workhorse process to relieve human suffering, Expanded Dianetics is done after Grade IV Release.

Over the last few years Ron has continuously refined the use of Standard Dianetics to make it even more effective. On March 13, 1975, he released the full and up-to-date text on it, Dianetics Today. With this book, the complete handbook of Dianetics as practiced in 1975 is as broadly available to the world as Book One was in 1950.

In the 25 years since the wildfire of interest and enthusiasm was kindled, Ron has built vigorous organizations capable of unlimited expansion to deliver Dianetics and Scientology to all who want it.

And what of the high hopes of 1950? Today those hopes are being fulfilled, beyond the wildest 1950 dreams!

In 1950, Ron wrote in Dianetics: "You are beginning an adventure. Treat it as an adventure. And may you never be the same again."

The promise of those words has come true for millions. It will come true for you.

THE RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT OF DIANETICS

them with what little Freudian analysis I knew and as clumsily as I knew it. I talked to them about this and that and got them to change their minds about life or about sex.

And on a series of these cases it worked. Nothing done to them physically was changing their minds, but we did something to them mentally and that changed the body structure so they then ate, got well and resumed the normal activities of men.

But let's look at the other side of this. By doing something to a man's leg, could we put him into a higher intelligence bracket? Could we make him more successful in handling his boss? Could we make it possible for him to ride a motor cycle better? No. There isn't a single thing that we could do to his leg that would alter these characteristics.

And quite on the contrary, if a man is bound and determined that that leg won't heal, it won't heal!

This put us on a different vector than Man had been on during these many last millennia.

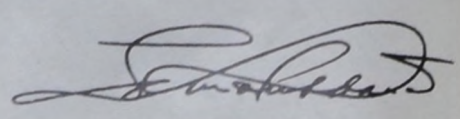

All of this and more, and an enormous amount of work I did, finally culminated in the writing of the book Dianetics: The Modern Science of Mental Health.

Nothing like Dianetics has happened before. A body of knowledge has arisen, has been codified, tested, which does certain specific and spectacular things — you might say, ends track on the subject of psychotherapy.

When we see somebody who is unwell and who is unhappy, we know that we can do something about it because we can communicate to the man and he can communicate to the condition and vanquish it.

Men have suspected this before. But nobody had ever come up with an open and shut proof of the matter. Just a hammer-on-the-anvil proof. And that was what launched us into Dianetics. A proof, a continuous demonstration of these conditions.

Man might have suspected it, but Man didn't know it. And we know now that we know it.

It is not intended for and is forbidden by the Church to be used as any medical or physical treatment of the diagnosis, treatment or prevention of any disease. By itself it does nothing and is strictly not to be employed for medical or scientific purposes. Its purpose is to assist the minister in locating the particular areas of mental or spiritual distress in the relief of spiritual suffering. The ownership and use of the E-Meter is sanctioned by law and the copying of it or attempts to impersonate it by unqualified persons, churches, practitioners, or psychiatrists, is illegal, as are all other acts prohibited under law in the United States. No other persons are permitted to have E-Meters. The Church permits the E-Meter to be sold, possessed, or owned only under these conditions.

Dianetics Widespread Use in Society Today

What kind of people are using Dianetics? Here is a brief sampling!

DOCTORS

"One lady in her forties had suffered from asthma for most of her life and paid regular visits to her doctor to get her prescriptions. On her last visit he expressed surprise at not having seen her for several months and asked her what had happened. She told him she had had Dianetic Pastoral Counselling and that her asthma no longer troubled her. There are now several Doctors in her area who have become interested in Dianetics.

Following Pastoral Counseling, which can be given pre and post operatively, the patients recover much faster and are far less prone to complications. This factor alone can be of enormous value to Medical Practitioners in that time is taken up with typical case complications and patients that are scared of operations and hospitals.

Dianetics can help a person over a difficult time when they have lost a close companion such as a wife or husband. It is amazing to see a person take up the reins of living again after only a few hours of Pastoral Counseling.

It seems hard to imagine surgeries cut down by 70% leaving the Doctor more time to spend with the patients coming to see him, more time for study and more time to spend with his family. This could well happen if Dianetic Pastoral Counselling is widely recognized and used."

Dr. A. Atkinson

"Standard Dianetics is here to stay and will rapidly spread and become available to all mankind. Doctors must be the first to establish for themselves, just as I have, its value to Mankind . . . "

Dr. T. H.

"At least one hospital in America has adopted a rule of silence in the operating theater. As a result doctors find that the length of time of post operative recovery has been reduced by twenty to sixty percent in individual cases . . . Dianetics is becoming more and more sought after."

Dr. Lady Hoskyns-Abrahall

DIANETIC COUNSELING AWARDED IN COURT CASE

A few years ago in the California Superior Court in Orange County, 75 hours of Dianetic Counselling was awarded a car accident victim to aid his recovery, along with his medical expenses.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS

JOHN BRODIE, famed former quarterback for the San Francisco 49ers, has just published to sports fans the story of how Dianetics turned his sagging career into a "Player of the Year" season. BOB ADAMS of the Boston Patriots is another athlete who has used Dianetics and Scientology to improve his abilities.

BUSINESSMAN

Up until early September, 1974, ED MICHEL, Vice-President of E.P. Hoyer, a printing company in Wisconsin, worked full time and played single's tennis for an hour or two a day.

Then his physical condition suddenly slumped, and he had a heart attack. He was examined by a heart specialist and hospitalized. Diagnosis: Angina Pectoris (heart disease). Recommendation: Open Heart Surgery.

His daughter suggested Dianetic Counselling. Within a few days, Rev. JAY HANSON from California arrived in Milwaukee to give him intensive auditing over 3 days. "Remarkable improvement," Ed sums up. October 18, Ed arrived at Davis, California, for 13 days further auditing. Result: "Feel great, physically and emotionally."

November 4th Ed resumed work on a full time schedule. His medical check up November 11 showed NO indication of heart disease. The doctor suggested he return to normal activity! The 3rd of December, he returned to playing (indoor) tennis, all out. "The body experienced no adverse symptoms. At this writing (January 20) there has been no reoccurrence of any negative indications. Body is feeling fine, actually operating better than in many years," Ed writes.

Though just a few months ago doctors forecast a confined life for ED MICHEL due to his heart condition, since his Dianetic auditing he's feeling great and back to playing tennis as hard as he wants to. He reports no re-occurrence of any difficulty.

These people and countless others, have found Standard Dianetics a vital technology in society today!

Rev. Debbie Mace, one of the thousands of Dianetic Auditors in society today, cheerfully starts an evening session! She is continuing her career in public relations during the day and will also be doing the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course at ASHO part-time.

Success Stories from Dianetic Auditors

"Recently I audited a preclear who was seriously ill with a fatal disease medicine knew no cure for. From my own auditing and from the Creed of Scientology, I knew the only way it could be resolved was by addressing her as a spiritual being.

There were times it wasn't easy, but I was an AUDITOR. I was willing to confront her and confront the illness.

As thetans we licked it!

One of the most beautiful moments of my life was the day my preclear looked at me and said 'How do you thank someone who's just saved your life?' It was just like in the storybooks. All I could say was 'I think you've just done it!' That itself was the greatest reward of auditing I've ever had.

Debbie Mace, OT III
Hubbard Dianetic Counselor,
Class I V Auditor

"Of the preclears I've helped already, one in particular stands out. She had been sick for three weeks with flu, and had a headache so bad it hurt to open her eyes. She also looked encased in mass and could barely walk.

After one session she felt well enough to eat (the first time in 24 hours) and get a good night's sleep. The next day I hardly recognized her she looked so good; and after two more sessions she is beaming and has had no recurrence of her illness.

I am looking forward to a lot more successes like that."

Al Hahn
Hawthorne, California

"Last Friday at 10:30 p.m. I was asked to give a touch assist to a student in pain who had a huge lump in his stomach area that looked like a cantaloupe. We did the assist for 45 minutes.

Today (4 days later) I was walking through the Internship area when he came running up to me and showed me where his 'cantaloupe' had been and it was gone. He was laughing, happy – no more lump! I tried to pretend I was not flabbergasted – but I really was. The technology really really does work."

Deborah Carringer,
Class VI Auditor

From Their Preclears

In tracing down chains of emotional stresses and losses I blew a crippling heart problem I've had for 45 years – boom! It went! I had had the 'very best medical care' this society offers, tons of drugs, electro-shock on my heart at Kaiser Hospital in Oakland. I was next looking into heart surgery to try and handle it.

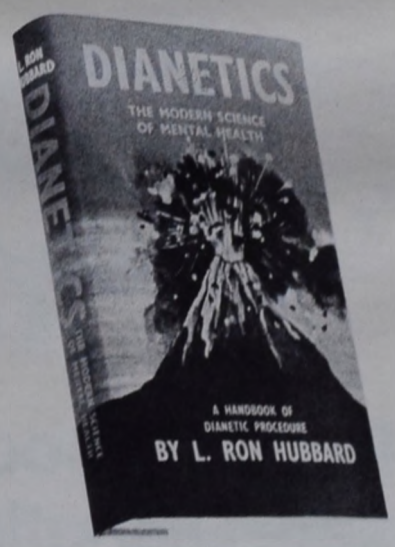

My auditor, Bobby Wilson, kept Ron's tech in and we changed history again. Oh, the instant it blew, my pulse became regular, the crowded feeling in my chest cavity abated, the puffiness of my ankles gone, skin tone pink, numbness of extremities gone!

Carolyn Patterson
after Expanded Dianetics at ASHO

"I have been getting my Dianetic auditing and realized suddenly that I was happy for the first time in my life. There were no more overwhelming problems ruining my life. There was nothing that was frightening me any longer and there was nothing that I didn't feel I could handle. I felt so beautifully peaceful, and I felt that my space was really my own and not my reactive mind's. Love to Ron, my auditor and everyone who helped me."

The Spirit of Dianetics in 1950

The Personal Experiences of 1950 Dianeticists

Class VIs CARL and LAVERNE JARDINE show how auditing was done in 1950! "I always had Ron's book in my lap," explains Carl. Both are now training at ASHO and will return to audit their group in Colorado soon.

"I HAUNTED THE BOOK STORES WAITING FOR THE BOOK TO COME OUT," recalls CARL JARDINE, who was the Executive Officer of a Navy Destroyer in Norfolk, Virginia when he read about Dianetics in Astounding.

"We were in Philadelphia when it was released, and I made sure every officer on the ship got a copy. The Communications Officer on board got as interested as I was and we co-audited just like it says in the book," he explains. He and his co-auditor went to Elizabeth for professional auditing after a few weeks, and Carl took the Hubbard Dianetic Auditor's Course. In the Navy for another 3 years, he lectured and audited on Dianetics wherever his orders carried him.

"I read the book at first because Carl asked me to," remembers LA VERNE JARDINE, who shortly after became his wife. "As soon as I read it I was interested too—there was hope that improvement could be made."

She recalls the first girl she ever audited was emotionally upset and having problems with her family. "We just ran incidents using Book One and she got straightened out," LaVerne says. "Another girl kept blowing up her pressure cooker and getting terrible burns. We ran that out and she stopped doing it. It worked!"

LaVerne was working for an advertising agency in those days. "I used to just hand someone Book One and say 'Please read this.' That was all you needed. They'd want to find out more and would join our Dianetic group."

The Jardines kept up with Ron's congresses as the years went on, went to Saint Hill to go Clear in 1968 and later did the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course at ASHO.

"Before Dianetics," Carl sums up, "I wasn't very happy. I knew I wasn't doing what I really wanted to do—I was a successful naval officer, well-liked, got along fine, but I was a dilettante at living and I knew it. Today I'm well, I'm healthy, I'm totally satisfied with the knowingness of my own immortality I gained from Ron's later advances with Scientology. If it cost a million bucks and you only had a 20% chance of making it, it would still be a bargain. It's not been an easy trip. But it's been a ball! And it's always going to be an adventure—that part will never change."

CLASS VIII STUDENT ANNE PFANNER WAS IN SAN DIEGO IN 1950 WHEN HER ENGINEER HUSBAND BROUGHT HOME A COPY OF DIANETICS. "At first I thought it was just another of the many things he was interested in, but finally I picked it up and looked in it. I saw a lot of truth there and got quite excited about it," she remembers. "There was really a feeling of happiness and satisfaction at having found what I had been looking for all my life. I just knew this was it."

She and her husband started to co-audit from the book. "We were very earnest and thorough about it—we tried to do it exactly as Ron said." And it worked! "For quite a few years I had very very violent claustrophobia. That just disappeared running engrams. Never had a trace of it again, which was a great relief. My husband got rid of his migraine headaches too."

A group of engineers ranging over the months from half a dozen to 35, used to meet at their house to talk about Dianetics and share successes.

Today Anne is an OT VII and working on the Class VIII Course at ASHO. Always on the go, the two things she's proudest of now are her new ASHO Class VII Certificate and the able-bodied seaman certificate she just earned at the age of 70!

DIANETICS TODAY

by L. Ron Hubbard

In 1950, L. Ron Hubbard released Dianetics: The Modern Science of Mental Health, and gave Man his first workable handbook on how to relieve human suffering and return his self-respect.

NOW, after refining Dianetics as used by thousands of auditors for 25 years, Ron broadly releases precise, very easy-to-use STANDARD Dianetics. Its complete handbook is Dianetics Today.

Dianetics Today explains how a hidden portion of your mind stands between you and your happiness, well-being and self-respect. You'll be amazed how easy it is to erase its ill effects permanently. You'll be amazed how easy it is to help others recover emotionally and spiritually from accidents, loss, illness.

This giant book (over 1000 pages) puts the whole of today's Dianetic tech at your fingertips—its theory, its techniques, its administration to 100% results.

Special features include: how to study Dianetics, communication basics used by the auditor, 300 pages of session reports on cases personally supervised by L. Ron Hubbard, complete glossary (32 pages), all the Dianetic axioms, bibliography of Dianetics, comprehensive index.

A vital reference book for Dianetic auditors and students. A vital handbook for ANYONE on how the human mind works!

Dianetics: Vital Role In Today's Training

In 1950, Dianetics ushered in a new era for Mankind. Follwing further research by L. Ron Hubbard, the spectacular results of Scientology processing so far surpassed the results of Dianetics that it was almost forgotten by many.

Today, L. Ron Hubbard has secured Dianetics in its traditional place at the very beginning of the Bridge to Clear for each individual.

Every auditor starts out with Dianetic training. Every preclear starts out with Dianetic auditing.

The theory of the Hubbard Standard Dianetics Course leads the student to a thorough understanding of the anatomy of the human mind. The practical section gives him the direct experience of auditing and handling the human mind.

With this firm grounding, the student moves on to Scientology Academy training at his local Scientology Church. He learns, on a step-by-step gradient, to audit extremely well at each level, to IV, when he classifies as a Hubbard Advanced Auditor.

Now the student can profitably complete his internship as an auditor up to Class IV at his local Church, or can at once commence the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course at ASHO. There he gains real expertise, judgement and professionalism as an auditor by learning the entire subject from its earliest beginnings before 1948 up to the finalization of Clearing procedures in 1966. When the student completes this training he is a Class V, Hubbard Validated Auditor.

The Senior Saint Hill Special Briefing Course takes the auditor from 1967 through Ron's developments up to 1975. Upon completion of Level VI, the auditor is a Hubbard Senior Scientologist, with the use of Dianetics and Scientology fully aligned.

He is now eligible for the Class VI Internship at ASHO under the most highly trained auditors and case supervisors in the United States.

Today, further training in Expanded Dianetics and on up to Class IX is available at ASHO. But the first basics of auditing are learned with Dianetics, prerequisite to all other auditor training.

The training route is the cheapest route to Clear since the student receives all his auditing up to Grade IV from fellow students.

Then with the excellent training of Class VI behind him, he goes on to Grade VI and Clear with great confidence.

The alternate route to Clear, the non-professional or processing route, also begins with Dianetic auditing by a qualified auditor at a local organization. The Hubbard Standard Dianetics Course is highly recommended for those on this route, as the understanding gained can considerably speed progress to Clear. After Grade VA, the individual on this route takes the Solo Auditor's Course (for which Dianetics, the Modern Science of Mental Health is required reading) where he learns much more about the mind and how to audit himself the rest of the way to Clear.

In all cases, tomorrow's Clears and Class IX Auditors are doing their Dianetic training today!
