SCIENTOLOGY: OUR GOALS IN SOCIETY

BY L. RON HUBBARD

What we're doing as the first step of Scientology is learning how to handle memory. What is memory? How do we handle it? How does it affect us? How can we keep it from affecting us that way?

Well, there are numerous ways of approaching this problem.

In order to make a person completely happy, you could simply pick up and knock out and take all the punch out of all of the painful moments of his entire life or his entire existence. This was the first method used. Take out every painful or uncomfortable moment. Of course it would be impossible for him to be uncomfortable or in pain any more because of memory. That's the long way to go about it.

How about getting him up to the point where he is so self-determined, so positive in his thinking, so competent in his handling of his own memory that he no longer has to worry about it, so that he just handles memory?

A memory comes up with pain in it that would register about three dials worth on a machine and he says, "Well, that's just another facsimile", and puts it over there in the file that has to do with being run down by Mack trucks. It doesn't affect him.

Always in the past when he met a girl with dark eyes he felt embarrassed or ashamed or something and couldn't talk to her. Well, that's just some facsimile someplace that he didn't take responsibility for while he was embarrassed and couldn't talk to some girl. So the facsimile could sort of be called up automatically by seeing these dark eyes, move up and move over him and he would feel embarrassed.

There are two ways of handling that: find and knock out the basic facsimile, or fix him up so when he sees this girl with black eyes, without even getting the slightest jar emotionally, he simply picks up this little facsimile that's turned up and he files that under "Black eyes, girl seen in the year 1931." In other words he can put his filing system together and he does so rather automatically.

If he has enough self-determinism, if he is up the Tone Scale to a point where he is able to command himself, his memory and anything associated with himself and his memory, anything can happen and does. But it's all to the good fortunately.

So our goal then is teaching people to handle memory by making it possible for them to get up in terms of tone, self reliance and self confidence to a level where they handle memory with great ease and won't back away from any memory they have, no matter what its charge or what's in it.

If you can do that, you have sanity. A person is as sane as he can handle his memories. A person is also as sane as he can plan for the future. If he can plan for the future well and ably with no concern for the present, he's pretty sane. Because the funny part of it is that you are so competent natively that there isn't anything in present time could ever worry you that much except you.

So we're looking for a relatively complete self-determinism which leads a person out along the line and makes a good, sensible, sane human being out of him, and makes it possible for him to have some fun.

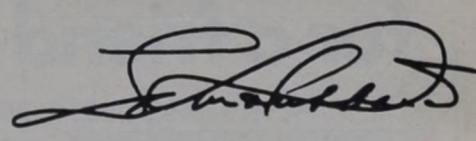

It's a good thing they turned out to be honest when they're that way. They do become more honest. Man was never able to trust that point, and that was why he never adventured out very far on this track. He wasn't sure that a man, released of his restraints, rules, laws and personal and social inhibitions, would not turn into a raving demon who would then do nothing but gobble up the rest of mankind.

Fortunately, that is not the case. The second that you make a man truly free he becomes truly good. It is only the individual who has lost his belief in himself and his own pride of goodness and his own pride of being and his own honor who is dangerous, because after that it doesn't matter what he does to anyone, including himself.

The only thing that makes a criminal criminal is that he has conceived himself so low and so debased that he now can be criminal. He has lost his honor, he has lost his pride, he has lost himself and so he will injure others because actually he is trying to injure himself.

If you restore Man as cause, if you restore man to a level of knowing, of being, you will find out he immediately has reasons to be good, and he will be good. The only hope of this society at the present time is to free and make everyone sane that we can. If we can't, this society is gone because the relative freeness, the relative knowingness, the relative pride of being, the relative ethics, the relative honor of any individual are what establish the surroundings of that individual in terms of survival.

If you want a society to survive, it has to be free, it has to know, it has to be cause, it has to have a pride of being and an honor high enough to cause it to want to live.

Scientology Training...the road to RESPECT FOR SELF AND OTHERS

A Trained Scientologist has respect for himself and others because he can understand people.

Scientology training enables you to see exactly what makes people do what they do. Training shows you what YOU can do to help them be more themselves.

When you know what you are doing in life, you can respect yourself. Situations are not puzzling, causing you to take actions you later regret. Instead you can respect what you do.

When you can understand others, you can respect them.

These are the personal gains of Scientology training.

Walking down the street or reading the newspapers, you can see how much respect for self and others is needed in the world. Imagine how different it would be if everyone did have respect for themselves and others. Crime and vandalism would become a thing of the past. Terrorism as a political solution would vanish. There would be a safe environment where children could grow. World peace would follow naturally. One man would not take unfair advantage of another and so economics would resolve.

Look at the state of the world today. Soaring crime statistics, soaring insanity statistics, uncontrollable inflation, dropping achievement in the nation's schools. As L. Ron Hubbard wrote earlier this year, "The society is on its way out. Psychology is a discredited subject. Psychiatry even knows it has failed. Crime is tearing countries apart. People have ceased to wholly trust themselves or others. These hard facts are the result of sweeping public surveys."

As a Trained Scientologist you can help reverse the society's downward trend. You can make the difference between a friend turning to drugs or alcohol or even suicide through lack of self-respect, and regaining his self respect and going on to live a full, happy life.

L. Ron Hubbard has set the target of 100,000 Active Auditors, Case Supervisors and Course Supervisors around the world by March 13, 1976. We must meet this target to reverse the accelerating downward trend of this society.

You can become a Dianetic auditor at your nearest Scientology Church or Mission in a matter of weeks, and learn to counsel others up to well and happy human beings!

You can then become a Class IV Scientology auditor and learn to handle communication, problems, hostilities, upsets and inabilities in a matter of months.

Then it's on to the American Saint Hill Organization (ASHO) for Ron's Saint Hill Special Briefing Course and Senior Briefing Course, and on up to Class VIII and IX.

ASHO is the home of advanced case supervisor and course supervisor training too.

You can do Scientology training in the evenings or full time. Full time training gets you to your goal much faster! And you'll find training so much fun you'll want to do it full time. That way you can be at ASHO as a Class IV Auditor within just three months of when you start.

Your road begins at your local Church or Mission. The technology to bring respect for self and others is there waiting for you. This is the year to do it. Your actions make an honest difference in your world today.

Throughout the United States and Canada, campaigns are being planned and executed to introduce whole cities to Dianetics and Scientology. It is happening now. Auditors are needed to deliver the technology to the thousands who will want auditing. Every existing Scientologist will need to be trained.

Others need your help now.

Training gives you the tools to help them.

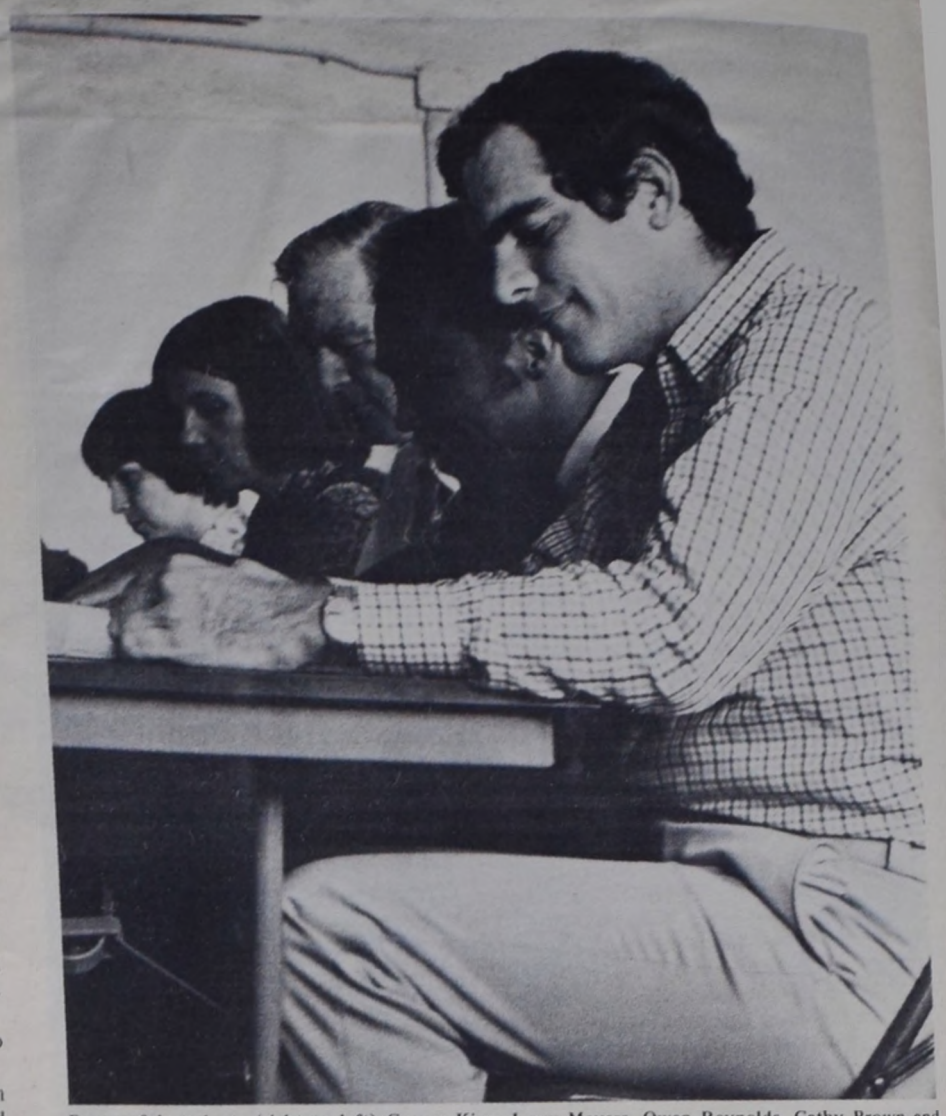

Training gives you the certainty on life that gives you respect for self and others.

For your own self respect, become a trained Scientologist NOW. Write the Letter Registrar at ASHO (2723 W. Temple Street, Los Angeles, California 90026) to get free information on training, your next step and how to take it.

Millionnaires may appear to have unlimited success, but do they have respect for self and others?

The most important thing YOU can be doing right now is getting to be a Trained Scientologist.

This is your year. Start Now!

DEFINITIONS

ASHO American Saint Hill Organization, home of upper level training and processing.

Auditor A Scientology minister, a pastoral counselor who listens carefully to what people have to say.

Case Supervisor One who oversees the progress of preclears in auditing (a C/S).

Cause Cause would be defined as emanation. It could be defined also, for purpose of communication, as source-point.

Dianetics From the Greek "dia", through, and "noos", 'soul'; a subject dealing with the system of mental image pictures in relation to psychic (spiritual) trauma. The mental image pictures are believed on the basis of personal revelation to be comprising mental activity created and formed by the spirit, and not by the body or brain.

Facsimile An energy picture made by a thetan or the body's machinery of the physical universe environment. It is like a photograph. It is made of mental energy. It means copy of the physical universe.

HSST Hubbard Specialist of Standard Tech, The Class VIII C/S Course.

Method One Word Clearing One of the 9 methods of word clearing. "Word Clearing" takes up words that are misunderstood and clears them up for the student.

OT (Operating Thetan) A willing and knowing cause over life, thought, matter, energy, space and time, a Clear who has been refamiliarized with his capabilities.

Scientology An applied religious philosophy, dealing with the study of knowledge, which through the application of its technology, can bring about desirable changes in the conditions of life.

Tech or Technology The methods of application of an art as opposed to mere knowledge.

Thetan The person himself—not his body or name, the physical universe, his mind, or anything else; that which is aware of being aware; the identity that IS the individual.

Tone Scale A Scale which plots the descending spiral of life from full vitality and consciousness through half-vitality and half-unconsciousness down to death.

Win Intending to do something and doing it, or intending not to do something and not doing it.

THE DIANETICS AND SCIENTOLOGY TECHNICAL DICTIONARY BY L. RON HUBBARD

"Here is a wealth of knowledge all by itself! Things are defined that Man searched for for 50,000 years.

THIS BOOK MAKES DIANETICS AND SCIENTOLOGY THE ONLY PHILOSOPHY, RELIGION OR SCIENCE TO HAVE A FULL DICTIONARY OF ALL ITS TERMS. ANOTHER FIRST!"

L. Ron Hubbard

The Dianetics and Scientology Technical Dictionary is a book of knowledge. It contains definitions for all the technical words of Dianetics and Scientology.

Over 3000 words are defined with a total of more than 7,000 definitions, all taken from the original source materials of L. Ron Hubbard where they first appeared.

Begun as a project by Ron 10 years ago, the release of this vital dictionary is a milestone for Scientology.

It makes understanding Scientology technology easy for anyone.

A present your friends will thank you for! Anyone who reads Scientology books, receives auditing or training will use it almost every day to improve their depth of understanding.

Copies of this indispensible book are now available at $15. ($13.50 for members).

THE AIMS OF SCIENTOLOGY

by L. Ron Hubbard

A civilization without insanity, without criminals and without war, where the able can prosper and honest beings can have rights, and where Man is free to rise to greater heights, are the aims of Scientology.

First announced to an enturbulated world fifteen years ago, these aims are well within the grasp of our technology.

Non-political in nature, Scientology welcomes any individual of any creed, race or nation.

We seek no revolution. We seek only evolution to higher states of being for the individual and for Society.

We are achieving our aims.

After endless millenia of ignorance about himself, his mind and the Universe, a breakthrough has been made for Man.

Other efforts Man has made have been surpassed.

The combined truths of Fifty Thousand years of thinking men, distilled and amplified by new discoveries about Man, have made for this success.

We welcome you to Scientology. We only expect of you your help in achieving our aims and helping others. We expect you to be helped.

Scientology is the most vital movement on Earth today.

In a turbulent world, the job is not easy. But then, if it were, we wouldn't have to be doing it.

We respect Man and believe he is worthy of help. We respect you and believe you, too, can help.

Scientology does not owe its help. We have done nothing to cause us to propitiate. Had we done so, we would not now be bright enough to do what we are doing.

Man suspects all offers of help. He has often been betrayed, his confidence shattered. Too frequently he has given his trust and been betrayed. We may err, for we build a world with broken straws. But we will never betray your faith in us so long as you are one of us.

The sun never sets on Scientology.

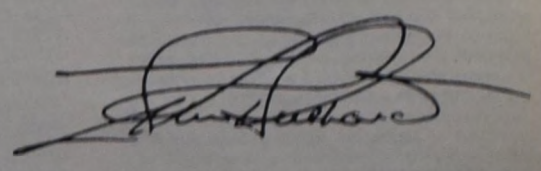

And may a new day dawn for you, for those you love and for Man.

Our aims are simple if great.

And we will succeed, and are succeeding at each new revolution of the Earth.

Your help is acceptable to us.

Our help is yours.

HOW FAR WI

A civilization without insanity . . .

The Church of Scientology formed the Citizens Commission for Human Rights in 1969 to secure the rights of mental patients to a safe environment and humane treatment. It is a national educational project with 32 branches, active in exposing practices that in fact create further insanity. Its panels hear cases of abuses and gather data for government presentation.

When the Commission discovered illegal drug experiments being done on patients without their knowledge at the Missouri Institute of Psychiatry, the state government immediately investigated and corrective state regulations resulted. Later discovery of LSD experiments on patients without their consent and without federal permits placed the Insitute under further government and law enforcement investigation.

Massive evidence has been gathered on the permanent damage caused by electroshock treatment and its current indiscriminate use. Commission members were key witnesses in 1975 before the California Assembly and Senate in support of a bill limiting use of shock.

In recent years, as a result of heavy pressure for psychiatric reform, few if any state hospitals now perform psychosurgery (destruction of healthy brain tissue) on involuntary patients. State legislatures in Washington and Oregon have severely restricted psychosurgery.

The Southern California CCHR recently published its investigation into the role of psychiatry and mental health in Los Angeles schools, which found that while funding for Mental Health programs had increased 300% over a 7 year period in California (50 million dollars was allocated in L.A. for 1972-3) student IQ and achievement test scores have been dropping markedly since 1969 in the L.A. public schools.

The National Alliance for Alcoholism Prevention and Treatment, another group sponsored by the reform-minded Church of Scientology, discovered existing treatment programs in mental health facilities often worsened the alcoholic's condition or reduced the individual to a vegetable.

With the support of the NAAPT, the Governor of California signed a State bill this fall which removed alcoholism programs from mental health facilities.

Narconon (narcotics, no!) is a group that has used L. Ron Hubbard's technology since 1966. Started by an inmate of the Arizona State Penitentiary, it is not part of the Church of Scientology or a Church missionary activity. It is a secular program in prisons and communities which rehabilitates criminals and drug abusers.

Narconon now runs 31 programs within penal institutions and reformatories, with unheard of success in restoring respect for self and others.

The Delaware Agency to Reduce Crime is just concluding an official study of the Narconon program covering over 100 ex-inmates in that state which shows that a full 70% of the Narconon graduates released from prison have had no re-arrests.

Of the drug addicts from Louisiana's West Bank who have been through the Narconon program there, 100% are now off drugs, and living productive lives with a consequent reduction in the amount of crime in the community there, according to the city's mayor.

Upon touring the Narconon facilities in Europe, the county doctor and drug expert for the Senate of Berlin wrote "The changes in some of them (the Narconon students) are partly on the borderline of the unbelievable and miraculous if one considers that the classical psychiatric treatment usually does not have success." A parliamentary health committee decided unanimously to advocate Narconon's treatment methods for drug addict rehabilitation.

"I had been using heroin and reds for seven years. I felt like I just wanted to die. Within one month I was a healthy, happy person free from the complusions to take drugs. From all the gains I've made at Narconon I have certainty I'll never use drugs again." J.J.

"I was just completing my second year in prison. I felt almost obligated to go back into society upon my release and destroy whatever I could. I believed my parents, the courts and the system were responsible for my condition. Then I joined Narconon and I came to realize I was in fact responsible for my condition and I could change things for the better. Since my release December 18, 1972, I've worked at Narconon. I truly believe that with Ron's tech we can eliminate the need for prisons." S.L.

The Church of Scientology - sponsored Commission on Law Enforcement and Social Justice is investigating the practice of police and intelligence organizations purposely falsifying records and dossiers on citizens and groups, and circulating these reports without the citizen or group having any recourse to see or correct their files if false.

In tracing who was circulating one such false report, the Committee discovered Interpol, a private international police organization beyond the control of the U.S. or any of its other 120 member countries.

With world tension being steadily increased by terrorists, Interpol refuses to capture them claiming it does not get involved in political issues. Interpol has also refused to bring Nazi war criminals to justice for the same reason, although in 1950 when Czechoslovakians tried to escape Communist oppression Interpol aided the Communists in hunting them down.

As a result of the Commission's 240 page report, U.S. Senator Joseph Montoya (Chairman of the Senate Subcommittee on Treasury Appropriations) recently held hearings on the hidden Nazi connections of Interpol and its threat to the privacy of U.S. citizens. Representative Edward Beard of Rhode Island has also called for further investigation.

A dossier system full of uncorrected false reports is a source of needless conflict. Cessation of war depends on honest communication. The exposure of Interpol is an important step to world peace.

. . . where the able can prosper . . .

Scientologists such as the ones below realized their own personal worth through Scientology auditing and training:

Machine shop owner, Claude Wilson of Dayton, Ohio, who was written up in Business Week in 1974 for his shop's unusually high productivity;

Power Release Randy Parsons of New York City, who began his own business and took its annual sales volume over $350,000 in just 2 years;

Able skier, O.T. Bill Briggs of Wyoming, who in 1971 was the first man ever to ski the Grand Teton;

Class VIII Bruce Bishop of California, who began an artist's studio out a spare bedroom a year and a half ago. Today he has 3 offices and a full, thriving graphic arts studio and print shop. "I knew I wanted to be in aesthetics but before Scientology I always stopped myself. It is Scientology auditing and especially training that has enabled me to accomplish my purposes."

. . . and honest beings can have rights . . .

Through the efforts of the Committee for Law Enforcement and Social Justice, Scientologists are securing the right to correct false statements in one's record, and so create a society where there is real justice.

Scientologists have also exposed IRS invasion of privacy and refusal to make public its true policies and procedures.

In pursuing truth in government and protecting individual rights, this Committee is restoring Man's right to self respect and personal integrity.

. . . and where Man is free to rise to greater heights, are the aims of Scientology . . . .

Freeing Man to rise to greater heights and become more himself is the role of the precious technology of auditing evolved by L. Ron Hubbard.

The research that led to stable Clearing, the attainment of peace of mind and self knowledge was completed in 1966. The route to Clear that anyone can travel has been steadily smoothed until today, when Scientologists cross the threshhold to Clear almost daily.

Along with this has been the development of the road to O.T., Operating Thetan, which frees Man's spiritual ability to rise to even greater heights.

"Finally I am me. What a relief! The past was a storm. Calm waters are ahead now." M.A.

"My environment is incredibly bright and crisp and clean and clear. I am totally myself, free and clear, willing and able to confront the physical universe and other beings with beingness and a universe of my own." R.M.

Non-political in nature, Scientology welcomes any individual of any creed, race or nation . . . .

What could an Orthodox Jewish Rabbi, a Bishop in the Mormon Church, a Catholic priest and a Methodist Minister possibly have in common? They're all Scientologists.

Today you can go Clear in German, French, Danish, Dutch, Swedish and English. Many books and courses by L. Ron Hubbard are now translated into these languages plus Spanish, Hebrew, Greek, Italian, Tamil, Afrikaan, and Japanese.

After endless millenia of ignorance about himself, his mind and the Universe, a breakthrough has been made for man.

In May, 1950, L. Ron Hubbard released Dianetics, Modern Science of Mental Health with the tremendous breakthrough for Man – an understanding at last of his most important resource, his mind.

In 1964, L. Ron Hubbard made another important breakthrough for Man: the first understanding of study and how to gain knowledge itself. This technology has meant a real breakthrough away from ignorance and toward good education for these students:

94% of electronics professor Charles Killman's class at Bell & Howell Ohio Institute of Technology in the first quarter of 1974 felt definite increase in self confidence and willingness to study when alternating current was taught using study tech.

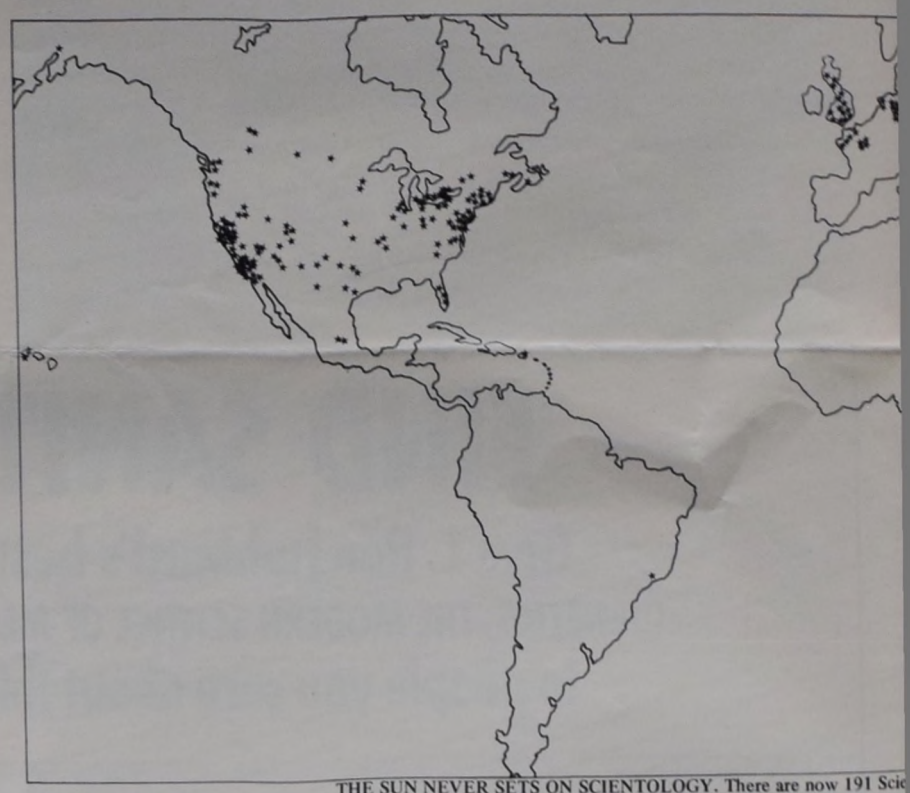

68.3% of 69 drop out students enrolled in how to study classes at East L.A. Community College were able to be retained in school as successful students. (1973).

16 third graders at the Angeles-MESA Elementary School in L.A. could only read and write a few words – some could not write their names and didn't really care if they never learned. Six months later they were a proud group of authors and illustrators with their own class book of stories they wrote. (1975).

These success stories and hundreds of others in a dozen other schools are the result of applying Ron's educational technology by Applied Scholastics, a private non-profit educational corporation whose purpose is to get Ron's study tech into broadest possible use in the U.S. and Mexico. Branch offices are already working in Boston, Philadelphia, Arizona, New Mexico, Denver, Oregon, and New York as well as in California.

Narconon students at a Los Angeles Community program do special drills that establish respect for self and others.

ology Churches and Missions in the world, with more opening every year.

In London is B.E.S.T., the Basic Education Supplementary Teaching Association. In a large London school of more than 1700 pupils, even the worst class in the school with a reputation for squirting ink and ignoring all efforts to discipline them became interested and co-operative when taught using Ron's study tech.

The Apple School in Los Angeles, largest Scientology private school for children on the planet, has expanded from 15 students to 144 in 1½ years. It teaches a full basic school curriculum but with study tech which correctly identifies, handles and prevents learning disabilities. Each child is encouraged to take responsibility for his own ethics and develop real trust in himself and others. As a result the school has practically no discipline problems. From October to June of last year, on state achievement tests, 80% of the children stayed right on grade level – none fell behind. The rest increased a grade and a half or two, and 3% increased 3 grades!

Other efforts man has made have been surpassed.

The brutal effects of psychiatry have been 4,642 deaths per month from 1965-67 in mental hospitals (Almanac publications), more deaths than WW I, Spanish-American, Korean and Viet Nam wars combined.

Seeking freedom from unwanted sensation through NO sensation, or freedom from unwanted emotions through NO emotions, past therapies have failed in their attempts to create a "new you."

Scientology and Dianetics work to make the individual more himself. Every week thousands of success stories are written by individuals testifying to the effectiveness of Dianetics and Scientology in restoring personal well being and respect for self and others.

The combined truths of Fifty Thousand years of thinking men, distilled and amplified by new discoveries about Man, have made for this success . . . .

The materials of Scientology are the result of 45 years of honest search, coordination and application to millions.

L. Ron Hubbard studied the religions of the East and the engineering technology of the West to make the first breakthroughs for Man. Since the beginnings of Dianetics and Scientology, his caring research has continued over the years to include all aspects of the broad problems of the humanities.

Today there are 28 hardback books by L. Ron Hubbard, plus an 8 volume set of organizational policies, and very soon to be released a similar set containing all technical bulletins. It is estimated there are another 25,000,000 words of tape recorded lectures by Ron on his discoveries in the archives of Scientology.

Yet the knowledge of Scientology has been so clearly codified by Ron that anyone may learn it and use it in a remarkably short time.

Scientology is the most vital movement on Earth today . . .

The 1972 Britannica Yearbook noted that while membership in mainstream churches was at a standstill, Scientology was the largest of the growing new religions. Since then, Scientology has been growing at an ever-increasing rate.

Official recognition of its vital importance has been mounting. "Dianetics and Scientology Day" and "L. Ron Hubbard Day' have been proclaimed in 1974 and 1975 by Mayors in Louisiana and California. September 7-14 was proclaimed Scientology Education Week in Houston this year, and shortly after a Scientology Education Week was proclaimed for the entire state of New Mexico. L. Ron Hubbard has been warmly acknowledged as the founder of Scientology in 26 cities with honorary Mayorships, Keys to the City, Honorary Citizenships, Certificates of Merit, and, from Louisiana State a Certificate of Meritorious Service from the Governor with appointment as Honorary State Senator and Representative.

The sun never sets on Scientology . . . .
Our aims are simple if great.
And we will succeed, and are succeeding at each new revolution of the Earth.

When it's 10:30 p.m. in Alaska and Scientology Anchorage is ending its courses for the night, it's 9:00 a.m. in France and a supervisor at the Church of Scientology of Paris is just calling roll to start a new day's training.

There are now more than 205 Scientology Churches, Missions and groups around the world. You can go Clear and get upper level training at Advanced Organizations and Saint Hills in California (USA), England, and Denmark.

At the American Saint Hill Organization alone, nearly 550 have graduated as Class VI Auditors from the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course since the organization opened its doors in 1969. And today more than 357 are here right now studying to earn their Class VI certificates.

Your help is acceptable to us.

You are welcome to join the dedicated thousands who work daily on Scientology Church and Mission staffs around the world. Or you may become a Field Staff Member, disseminating Scientology in the field.

Celebrities joining Scientology find their own ways of helping. John Brodie, for example, now an OT VII, was helped by Scientology to release his full ability as quarterback of the San Francisco 49'ers in 1970, and went on to lead the team to the Western Division Title and was named Most Valuable Player in the National Football League.

In 1973, he retired from football to devote himself to the priorities of Scientology and Narconon. He founded a new Narconon program in Palo Alto, California, of which he is still president of the board. In his recent book, Open Field he describes his experiences as a Scientologist quarterback. His wife, Sue, is devoted to helping 105 students at Los Altos High School with the Basic Study Manual course offered there by Applied Scholastics.

THE SCIENTOLOGY ADVENTURE

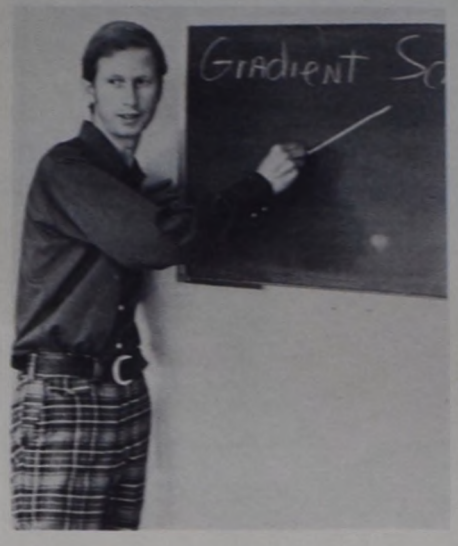

(left) RUTH KNUDSEN has led an adventurous 21 years as a Scientologist! She learned sky-diving as a 52-year old grandmother.

Class VI KINGSLEY WIMBUSH enjoys talking to lots of people since he got trained in Scientology. ➧

GROWING UP A SCIENTOLOGIST

Class VI KINGSLEY WIMBUSH, now interning as a graduate of the Organization Executive Course and Flag Executive Briefing Course at ASHO:

I WAS 15½ WHEN I FIRST READ A SCIENTOLOGY PAMPHLET IN AUSTRALIA, back in 1960. I actually wasn't allowed in to the free lecture until I was 16! That was just the rule then. So I stayed home while my mother went and started training.

When I turned 16, my father took me down to hear the lecture and he became interested just listening to it. My three brothers, Bernard, Keith and Douglas came into Scientology too.

I did the Hubbard Professional Auditor's course, then went straight to England for the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course. I was 18 then – the youngest student there in 1963.

The course totally changed my life. The auditing and training I got really set me up to be successful in whatever I do. If it had cost a million dollars I'd still be happy paying if off!

I went back to Australia as a Class VI at 19. I wanted to learn about business and administration, but the Org Exec Course wasn't out yet so I started my own business.

It started off as a lawn mowing business, but by the time I left Australia a few years later, I had 20 people working for me – salesman, all sorts of tradesman, and we were doing building work. I was probably making about $500 a week.

Soon I asked myself what is the worth of all this? So I handed it over to somebody else and went to the Scientology mission starting in Vancouver Canada (which has since grown into a Church) and then to Santa Clara in California.

I came to ASHO for administrative training on the Org Exec Course and Flag Executive Briefing Course 6 months ago.

Before Scientology I was very withdrawn. Talking to even one person I didn't know really well was a big hassle. Now I like to talk in front of whole groups!

I have far more ability to make things right. I had even gotten fired from a job helping move refrigerators before I was a Scientologist. The administrative know-how I've got now is enough to run any huge corporation successfully.

DIANETICS 1950

Saint Hill Special Briefing Course student OWEN REYNOLDS was a mathemathics professor at the University of Tampa, Florida when Dianetics first came out in 1950:

I bought the book about a month after it came out, and started auditing anyone who would sit still! Friends, my wife.

The wins of today don't impress me. We had just as big wins in '50. But we had many more losses then.

What really impresses me today is the standardness of the tech. You can go in and audit and rely upon it.

Sometimes in the early days a preclear would have a big win but you wouldn't always know why. If it wasn't explained in Book One you were on your own. Today you can go in and know with certainty that what you are doing works and know why it works, every time.

AN EXCITING 21 YEARS

Class VI RUTH KNUDSEN, now on her Class VI Internship at ASHO:

I WENT TO SOME TAPED LECTURES NEAR SAN DIEGO in 1954, and after the second one I was a Scientologist. I took my Hubbard Certified Auditor course on a one student basis and became an auditor in 1955.

It was, definitely an adventure being in on the development and research of Scientology. There was actually a period when I was the only working auditor in San Diego! I'd get a bulletin in the mail and it might be a completely new rundown. I'd call my preclear on the phone and say "Hey, I have a new rundown, how about my auditing it on you?" He'd say sure. And it always turned out beautiful. That was Hank Billings, an aerospace engineer, who is an O.T. today.

In the fall of 1961 I went to Saint Hill to do the Briefing Course. You started auditing the first week you were there. The second week I walked in and learned I was to audit this girl on goals at 2:00 that afternoon–and I hadn't studied any of the bulletins on that yet! It was, compared to the Briefing Course today, very rugged. I came home in May of 1962, and audited at the San Diego Church. In 1967 I went back to Saint Hill and retrained the Briefing Course to catch up on all that had come out.

I enjoy life more since becoming a Scientologist. I've raced sports cars and in 1969 I learned skydiving! I've never let anyone fool me into thinking that because I was a grandmother I was too old for such things.

In 1974 I went Clear and OT III. I've just finished doing the full Saint Hill Special Briefing Course at ASHO, which is certainly the best, most complete of the Briefing Courses I've done. Now I'm on the Internship, which is going to make a big difference. I wish there had been internships back in 1956!

It's impossible to tell you how many times over Scientology has improved since the early 50s. There's really no comparison–it's like the Aborigines and the moon technology!

Well, I've been in Scientology 21 years now and I don't look much older than I did 21 years ago–and I'm 58 years old! It's been a great adventure so far.

ASHO INTERN LOOKS BACK

Class VIII MALCOLM CHEMINAIS, now on the Class VIII Case Supervisor's Course at ASHO. He has just completed his internships:

AFTER HITCH HIKING THROUGH EUORPE for 4 months in 1962, I had no money left and I didn't feel like going home to South Africa. I didn't know what I was looking for then – but I know what it is now. I wanted to find out what was going on in my life and why.

Then I read Dianetics, Modern Science. I found everything I was looking for in about 2 sentences!

I went to London for my Hubbard Professional Auditor's Course. The first time I audited, I had the preclear sitting opposite me and I realized I didn't know how to stand the E-Meter up! That could never happen in today's training.

I did the Briefing Course at Saint Hill in 1963 and 1964. It was rough in those days. People come through now virtually sailing all the way on the right gradient of standard tech. I don't know how I could tell them what it was like. I mean I used to audit holding the table – I never audited without being completely terrified.

Auditing is done from understanding now. You can take a case and the preclear can win all the time, and you can win all the time as the auditor.

These last 13 years have been very hard work, but very rewarding. If I see someone do a crazy thing I don't have any misunderstanding about what's happening. I've gained phenomenal knowledge. I really understand what thetans are all about now.

help achieve Scientology goals

Engineer finds purpose

RICK WHITE, recent Class VI graduate from ASHO, had been a successful industrial engineer before Scientology.

"I'd gone into business managing my own company in Boise, Idaho, while working on my Master of Business Administration," he recalls. "I came to the realization that I wasn't going anywhere. I had achieved a plateau but I didn't have anything of real value."

He sold everything he had and left Boise. "I knew I was going somewhere, but I didn't know where," he says. Within two months he found Scientology. That was in 1973, and he's now trained all the way to Class VI.

"When I found Scientology I found a purpose," Rick says. "To make the game a more fair, sane and fun game we've got to get more people Clear. So I've become an auditor."

Rick is now on his internship at ASHO. He hopes to bring Scientology back to Boise and also to take Scientology into the business community.

The Briefing Course made a major change in Rick's life. "As a Class IV I still felt I needed the controlled environment of an auditing session. As a Class VI I apply Scientology basics wherever I am. It's like the difference between a technician and an engineer. A technician can go out there and run the instruments. An engineer understands all of the design that goes behind it. That's how I feel about auditing now."

Comparing his training to what he's learned of the early days, he says "We've got it so easy today. In two years I've been given 25 years worth of knowledge. The Briefing Course was like sitting down for several hundred hours in conversation with Ron and getting to know him and what he's done."

Class VI RICK WHITE has found his purpose helping others as a Scientology minister.

Case Supervisor Class VIII DREW JOHNSTON is getting into better physical condition in his spare time. He plans to enter an 8½ mile race soon! "Since Scientology I have more confidence in what I can do, which has left me freer to be myself."

Lasting and happy relationships

CLASS VIII DREW JOHNSTON, who did the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course in 1972, has found understanding to be the key to lasting personal relationships.

He had dropped out of college and started an import business in California in 1969. "The business had been successful financially but my partnership was a bust. There were too many disagreements and upsets so I dissolved it that spring," he explains.

Looking for his next direction, he discovered Scientology. "I became a trained Scientologist because I wanted to contribute," he goes on. "The Briefing Course has enabled me to audit very successfully." He has gone on with his training up to Class VIII and Expanded Dianetics. He is now Expanded Dianetics Case Supervisor at ASHO.

"If you're competent at a job and can demonstrate it, your own personal respect is enhanced. And understanding others, you can respect them. If I'd known Scientology before, my business partnership would have blossomed instead of fallen apart. What was missing was an ability to understand myself and other people. That's easy for me now. My old partner and I have since become great friends."

Send your order along with verification that you are eligible to own an E-Meter to: Dept. 117, Church of Scientology of California, Publications Organization, 2723 W. Temple, Los Angeles, California 90026.

The Hubbard E-Meter is a religious artifact developed for the exclusive use of ordained Ministers and theological students who are trained in its use in Church ministrations. It is not intended for and is forbidden by the Church to be used in any medical or physical treatment or the diagnosis, treatment or prevention of any disease. By itself it does nothing and is strictly not to be employed for medical or scientific purposes. Its purpose is to assist the minister to locate in his parishioner areas of travail so that he can assist in the relief of spiritual suffering. The existence and use of the E-Meter is sanctioned by law and the copying of it or attempts by unqualified persons, doctors, scientists, psychologists, or psychiatrists, to obtain or use one are actionable under law in the United States. To obtain an E-Meter one must be a sincerely enrolled student of the Church of Scientology or a fully qualified Minister of the Church and must undertake as well to become wholly skilled in its purpose and use. No other persons are permitted to have E-Meters. The Church permits the E-Meter to be sold, possessed, or owned only under these conditions.
