THE SUREST ROUTE TO OT

BY L. RON HUBBARD

You are very fortunate people. You are very very lucky people. You came all the way down the track, lived all those years, did all these stupid things, and you wind up here with a chance out.

That chance is as good as you can audit. It's not a bit better.

It is a good thing if anybody is to be fully cleared or go OT for them to be trained. If they are going to make it, they are going to have to have been trained well.

I can see you now, with your sleeves rolled up, sweating, with three or four people that you're auditing, and they keep asking you these silly questions about, "What is this thing called a Tone Scale? I didn't know I had to study music in order to . . . ."

Because in the first place they're not really worried about becoming OT. They want to cure their lumbosis. Lumbosis, slumbosis – who cares about that? That's nothing, no importance.

And they're worried about their present time problems. They come into session and they want to tell you about the fight they had with their wife, and they want this all cleared up. It's a present time problem. But actually it's their son they're really worried about. And then there's Aunt Agnes – she has committed a terrible overt act against them: she didn't die and leave them their money. And so forth, and on and on and on and on.

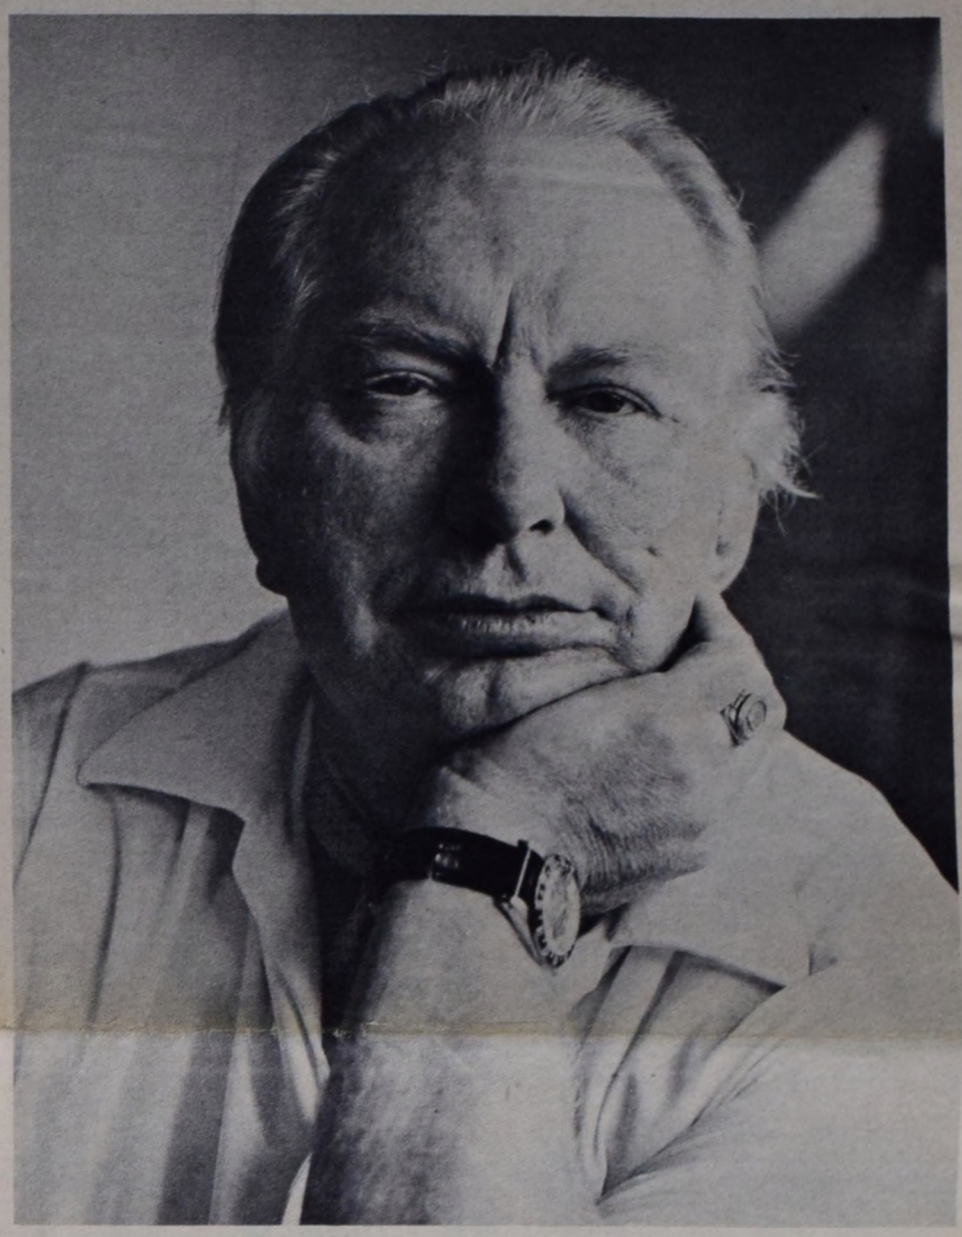

I can just hear you now, straightening all this up saying "fine", and then the guy says, "Well, what's all this wonderful power I was supposed to have and all that sort of thing?" And I can see you now, "By the way, why don't you go down to Los Angeles and take the HCA Course, and when you get back . . . . " You'll do just that.

Why? Because your new person is very easy to audit. Very very easy to audit. It's marvelous. You're sitting there with so much knowledge of cases, you can hardly fail to get some kind of a result. But the number of new people that are going to go out through the roof will be numbered on a non-existant Chinese abacus from the Ming Dynasty which has long been lost. They won't make it. You can patch them up, you can make them feel better, but that's about it. Unless you train them, unless they actually become a fully trained auditor, they really don't have a prayer.

When you start training somebody, actually these people are all pre-selected out of the races of earth today. They arrived and enrolled. That they are there tells you that they're pre-selected people to begin with. It's not a cross-section of the population at all. It's a very great minority of the population, certainly composed of the upper tenth of the intellects of the world today.

So you're dealing with a specialized group, specially selected. These people are then moved on up with further selection by advanced levels of training. The confront, the persistence required of one of these people – sticking with it, the disappointments and the upsets – if you don't think that is a process of pre-selection you should take a look at it someday. And those who have survived this particular process have simply demonstrated the fact that they will obviously someday make OT. It's as simple as that.

By the time you get through that pre-selection, why, you're practically a screaming genius.

What happens after somebody has gotten up the chart? Well, at this stage of the game they're probably trained, but they certainly have to be trained further in spite of the pre-selections and other things that brought them up along the line. They'd have to be pretty well grooved.

The best way and the most sure fire way to get to be OT, then, is to be a top-rank auditor, for various reasons, including the aplomb it takes to confront the bank.

New people – you can make them well. It's well worth doing, nothing wrong with that at all. You can make a marriage run better and a kid be happier, and you can make life tenable, and so forth. But actually you have to know how to audit well in that direction just to make life tenable enough for you to be able to go through to OT. A non-Scientologist is so surrounded by confusion that their present time is insufficiently calm for them to have any progress in the direction of OT.

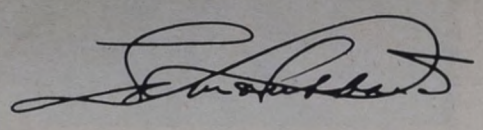

Many are called but few are chosen. There are many reasons why this track and path is a limited track and path. This isn't to say that eventually everybody won't make OT. But certainly, definitely and positively it will be a very very long route for others. Hundreds of years, thousands of years from now, there will be somebody picking it up and saying, "Well, let's see. What's this thing called tone arm action?"

When you look up the line on that and get a real view of the situation, you realize where you are and where you sit. You're right up in the front seat of the first breakthrough that's ever been made in this universe on the subject of the road out, the way through.

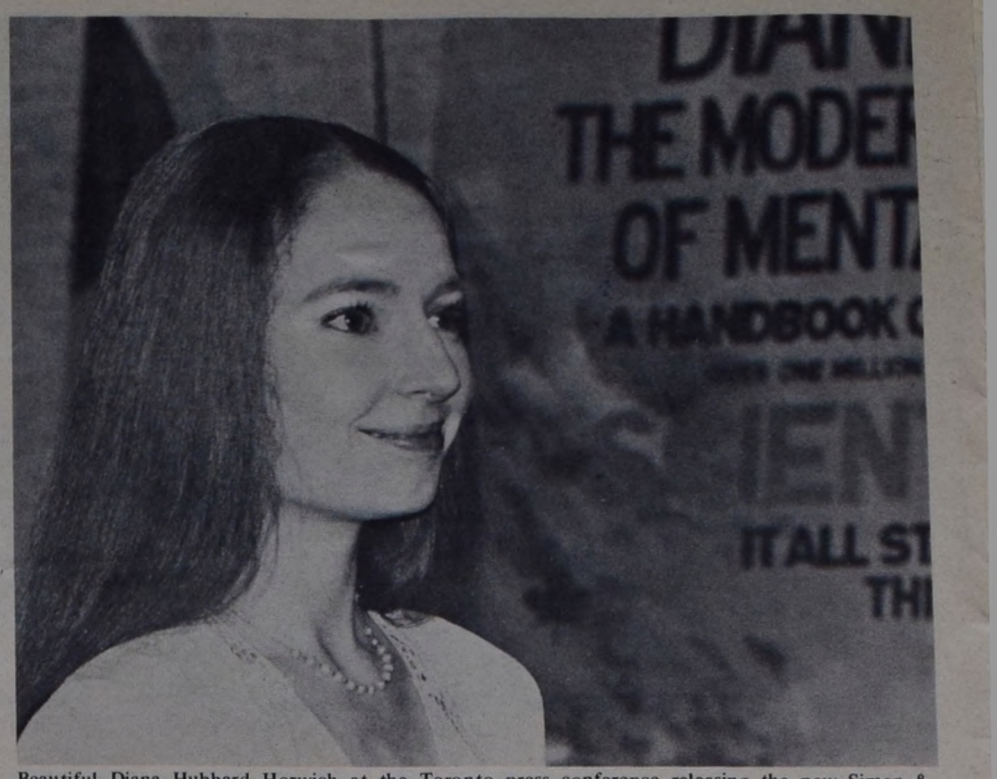

You're fortunate to have moved into the situation that you're in. The only thing I can ask you and point out to you is that you're in a position where you shouldn't waste any of the potential which you have immediately at your fingertips. You shouldn't waste any part of that.

Training is definitely, definitely, definitely a part of the route to OT. Definitely. This is something that is not "nice" to be a part of. This is something that is a vital part of becoming OT.

The only thing I ask you to do is to make the most of what you've got.

L. Ron Hubbard

Beautiful Diana Hubbard Horwich at the Toronto press conference releasing the new Simon & Schuster edition of Dianetics, Modern Science of Mental Health for Canada.

DIANETICS IN CANADA!

On December 4, 1975, Diana Hubbard Horwich, L. Ron Hubbard's beautiful daughter, read Ron's first statement to the press in five years at a reception in Toronto hosted by Simon & Schuster of Canada, Limited. The reception launched the first Canadian Pocket Books edition of best-selling Dianetics: The Modern Science of Mental Health for distribution in Canada-wide!

Simon & Schuster have released 50,000 copies to 3000 dealers across the country.

The President of Simon & Schuster of Canada, James Smallwood, stated "We are delighted to have published Dianetics, basically because we KNOW it's a best seller, has been for years, and we hope that it will continue to be."

Share Jessup, representative for the Scientology Publications Organization, addressed the group of about 50 people assembled at Toronto's new Hyatt Regency Hotel. She pointed out that quite a few publishing houses had been competing for the contract, and expressed her pleasure that she had encountered Simon & Schuster with their facilities and experience to meet broad public demand throughout Canada.

Diana next spoke and told the group how she came to work in Dianetics. Awarded Royal Academy honors in dancing, music and acting examinations in England, and with a wide range of interests from horse shows to navigation, she explained that she had been given every opportunity to choose her occupation. "In fact my father never persuaded me to undertake any Dianetics or Scientology activity. It was I who demanded he allow me to know more about his work," she said. Telling the story of how Dianetics was first released and how Dianetics and Scientology have grown since then despite attacks from vested interests, she held the crowd spellbound.

"Rapid expansion has increasingly made it an absolute necessity for us to give this book into the hands of outside publishers and distributors so that they may devote more attention to it and in turn reap the benefits of a book 25 years later still selling vastly despite little promotion. For example in the last 6 months," she went on,"102,396 copies have been sold. The book literally sells itself."

She then read a statement written by L. Ron Hubbard especially for the occasion. "I am very pleased with the outstanding work that Simon and Schuster has done and is doing with the Canadian edition of Dianetics: The Modern Science of Mental Health," she began reading. "DIANETICS is now 25 years of age . . . When DIANETICS was first published in 1950 it burst upon America and the world with a success I never dreamed possible. The concepts of DIANETICS were so revolutionary it took the public by a storm.

"My research had uncovered truths both unexpected and hidden. I was excited and amazed, but the public reaction is what overwhelmed me most. Overnight my life had changed. . . .

"It is a virtually unheard of feat that a book twenty five years after its publication should continue to be met with such increasing public demand. It surprises even me; however, the individual of today's society is demanding facts. He wants understanding. He wants truth, and he wants a technology that works. His politicians and governments say they are busily handling crime and terrorist activity, drug abuse and insanity. But a look at the statistics of these things, shows that the symptoms of social decay and disaster are virtually out of control.

"The failure lies in attempting to handle the symptoms without seeking or addressing the cause.

"DIANETICS: The Modern Science of Mental Health reveals the origins of these social ills. And the practical, workable, easily taught technology to bring society out of its fever.

"I undertook the research of Dianetics as an exploration into an unknown field. I came upon such breakthroughs concerning the mind that I made them available to mankind. The knocks for me personally have been nothing compared to the joys of seeing people happier, healthier and more peaceful, with an honest understanding of themselves and their fellows. This is the mission of Dianetics and Scientology.

"The future looks very bright indeed.

"Canadians have long been known for their adventurous and hearty approach to life.

"Dianetics is an adventure.

"I'm sure you'll find it all I've promised it to be."

The event was covered by CITY TV in Toronto, including an interview for TV with Diana after the formal statements had been made. Several other radio and TV stations scheduled interviews with her for the following day.

Twenty billboards are now up in the Toronto area to tell people about the book.

Get all the definitions here!

When you read L. Ron Hubbard's books or materials, or listen to his tapes what is the most frequent problem you run into? Words, and the finding definitions for them so you can get on with your study or reading!

Now all the Dianetics and Scientology technical definitions are here in one comprehensive text. And it's easy to use!!

Ron wrote, "...it was found that many old words in the field of philosophy, when used, conveyed to people an entirely new idea. The exactness of Dianetics and Scientology required a more precise approach. This approach was achieved by special naming with an eye to minimal confusion with already supposed or known phenomena.

"In the search which brought about Dianetics and Scientology many new phenomena were encountered which resulted, for the first time, in a workable, predictable science of the humanities. The introduction of a few words of new meaning to make this possible seems to be a small price to pay.

"I hope this dictionary will be of use. Not only in clarifying some of the phenomena of existence, but also speeding greatly your study of Dianetics and Scientology and the results you will be able to attain thereby."

Here is the way to broaden your understanding and real knowledge. No Student, Auditor or Preclear can afford to be without one!

DOES CLEARING CANCEL THE NEED FOR TRAINING?

by L. Ron Hubbard

To answer the important question "does Clearing cancel training" all you need to do as an auditor is clear someone without training him and then say to him, "All right. Go out and clear people."

You'll get a blank stare.

Why?

Because Auditing skill is a discipline in living and a know-how of the parts of life which is in itself something new in the universe. Even OTs don't have auditing skill since there have never been auditors behind them.

There is such a thing as learning. There are such things as data.

The fact is, that a cleared Zulu is a cleared Zulu. A cleared advertising man is a cleared advertising man. A cleared Zulu is not a cleared advertising man.

Now a Zulu uncleared has scant chance of becoming an advertising man. But a cleared Zulu would probably be able to become one rapidly. And there's the difference.

Being cleared gives one the potential of being and makes the being rather easy, and fun. Further, being cleared makes it possible to continue to be something. There's nothing wrong with being cleared. A person ought to be. The state is so valuable several hundreds of millions of people in the past 2,500 years have concentrated on nothing else.

But how about getting cleared and staying cleared forever? The auditor alone with his data well learned could manage that.

Scientology is the data necessary to live.

If everyone were now to concentrate only on how to get cleared and forget all about how to stay cleared, we'd be back in the soup in a century.

Oddly enough the best time to study auditing is when you're aberrated —when the thing looks impossible, when you can achieve subjectively reality on the grimness of it.

The best things a person can do are to (1) get trained and (2) get cleared. Auditors will always be senior to clears. Always. That became very obvious in the 19th ACC. People who weren't cleared created clears.

If a person gets cleared first, he can, of course learn very rapidly how to be a good Scientologist. If he is to be a very good being he will be both a good auditor and a clear. That combination cannot be beaten.

If we had only clears and no auditors we'd have another slump ahead. Scientology is not in the experience of anyone's back track. It is itself. It is the one thing senior to life because it handles all factors of life. Scientology could not have happened earlier because there was not enough livingness to study. We have arrived near bottom.

There are people getting cleared now all over the world. Just remember that you share the agreement of the society in which you live. You'll have to be able to audit to skillfully handle aberrated persons. And it will take a lot of auditors to have a cleared society.

Right now it's all right to keep your eye on that first dynamic and get cleared. You should. But when, suddenly, you find you've achieved clear remember when I tell you this one thing:

There are eight dynamics.

You cannot stay cleared unless you solve things by the equation of the optimum solution: The greatest good for the greatest number of dynamics. Failing to so solve things dug you in to where you were in the first place.

Scientology got you out.

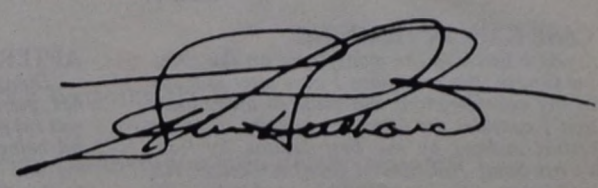

Stay out by knowing Scientology well.

I look forward to seeing your bright, smiling face, cleared or not, in the Academy.

A Cleared World to be needs you as a good and skilled Scientologist.

And that's how you're going to help me.

Okay?

L. Ron Hubbard

P.S. When I solve a case I always ask the pc for one un-named favor. I've never called these favors in. The favor I tell you now for the first time: Whatever else you are, be a good Scientologist and help me clear these Earth people.

TRAINING: the surest, r

BEFORE CLEAR . . .

THE KEY TO OT ABILITY

I always valued training as something precious–and now that I am OT, I can see how truly precious it really is. It's great being Clear and OT, however without the training to back up my abilities I would be floundering. It's like having a solid gold key to a solid gold Rolls Royce and not knowing where the ignition is. With training I am able to be at cause across the dynamics because I understand the mechanics of them.

There is no limit to my power and ability with being both Clear and OT and trained.

Gayle Zison
Class VI

SMOOTH PATH TO CLEAR

After auditing as a Class IV Auditor for many years I was thrilled to get the opportunity to do the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course and Senior Saint Hill Special Briefing Course, and finally get all the tech as Ron developed it from 1950 up to 1975. I came to Los Angeles as a Class IV, Grade IV, and I received my Power Processing as soon as I started the Briefing Course, which really set me up to be a power student.

The data of the Briefing Course was everything anyone could hope for--it filled in all the missing areas I had as a Class IV Auditor and gave me a solid foundation to stabilize my auditing. I felt much more professional as an auditor with the data of a Class VI.

Also the data of the Briefing Course made the processing side of the Gradation Chart much more real and I couldn't wait to get on to the Clearing Course. I went right onto the Solo Auditor's Course after I graduated as a Class VI, which is a whiz when you're a trained auditor. Then I was quickly onto Grade VI and now I'm on the Clearing Course. It's wonderful!

I intend to get trained through Class VIII and HSST. I can't wait to get to work on getting other beings up the chart to Clear and OT.

Vikki Walker
Class VI

CASE GAIN IN TRAINING

As I listen to the many tapes on the Briefing Course, the cognitions I have alter so many of my considerations and erase so many locks that I consider the course as auditing. You are getting audited by the best auditor, by Ron, on his Saint Hill Special Briefing Course. His enthusiasm, his tremendous certainty, his personal warm humor and his vast knowledge, actually seem to put in your grades. I mean it. The bank is confusion, and aberration exists because you don't know the whys. The Briefing Course gives you the whys, for the first time on the whole track, so bank naturally as-ises. I get at least five major cognitions on every tape. I'm getting my auditing after the course because I want the cognitions of training first.

Raymond Schreiber

OPERATING MANUAL

I can really state that this course is the operating manual to this universe. All the answers are there to make you a truly stable being and confident auditor. My thanks to Ron!

Craig Graessle
Class VI

MAKING CLEARING REAL

The training route is the route I chose and it worked. I went Clear 2½ years ago which was about 3 years after I first heard of Scientology. I honestly don't think I would have achieved the state of Clear that soon or that certainly had I not trained as an auditor also.

The wins and cognitions and stability that come from learning how to audit simply cannot be communicated easily. Training puts the person at cause over his environment. As you are able to assume a cause viewpoint more and more through training the rest sort of takes care of itself, including getting your own case handled in session.

The clearing of every being on this planet can be done and is being done, but the job is enormous. Every auditor no matter what level helps bring this goal closer. It has been my observation that the activity of auditing makes clearing real to the auditor even more than the pc.

Looking at the ethics of the situation, training does more good for more people more often than just being a pc. Besides, it's really a lot of fun!

Tim Melchior

. . . AFTER CLEAR

HANDLING OTHERS EFFECTIVELY

I am amazed at the magnitude of change in my competence level. I started the Briefing Course as an OT III and had been previously plagued with perceiving lots of phenomena with no way of handling them in other people. The Briefing Course has the specific tools necessary to effectively handle others.

Any thetan is an 8 Dynamic proposition. Auditor training definitely establishes the existence of a thetan on each dynamic.

Ray Bourgeos

RIGHT GRADIENT TO CAUSE

This is by far the best course on my time track! Finally after all the wandering and wondering about life, here are the whys, the knowledge that enabled me to duplicate and understand and handle life around me. This course has moved me into cause--I feel like a tough thetan now, much freer to be, do, have.

I feel good about auditing a preclear, I feel good about handling people in my environment, I feel good and stable myself.

ASHO is a great place for superb tech. The Case Supervisor and Course Supervisors are tough and get you through.

I was an OT who came onto the course without having done the Academy levels. This course is just the right gradient to take one up and be able to audit everything!

I loved it!

Darlene Eggen
Class VI

AFTER CLEAR–THEN WHAT?

Doing my training after going Clear and OT has been like a learning process in living. I was rid of my bank and a very able and powerful being–but then what? Well, through training and through auditing others I know how to stay that way and keep the flow on a power trend, for myself and for others too!

Holly Epstein

TRAINING SPEEDS THE ROUTE TO OT

Looking back over the years since my first auditing in 1965, I realize today as an OT VII and a trained auditor, that the training route to Clear and OT is the way to go.

Any place in the universe that has an Organization that trains an auditor to be a Dianetic Auditor and a Class IV Auditor merits your serious consideration to go the training route to Clear and OT.

Of course if it isn't possible to train because of lack of facilities, then by all means go Clear and OT any way you can, as I did. Once Clear and OT I'm sure you'll find a way to get trained.

Training gives you the totally objective point of view of what is taking place on the Gradation Chart, as a being goes through the various barriers that keep one from being truly free and pan-determined on all dynamics. The Road is long and winding, but training helps immeasurably to straighten it out and speed the flow.

Dr. Allen Collins

HOW TO OPERATE AS A THETAN

I'm having incredible wins and gains on all dynamics doing the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course. Next to going Clear, I'd say it would have to be the most important thing anyone could do! It gives you the basics of life and the universe you need to operate--it gives you your "operator's license" as a thetan!

Dini Petty, helicopter pilot for CKEY TRAFFIC in Toronto.

Pink lady in the sky on the training route

What flies a pink helicopter, wears pink clothes and gives traffic reports? DINI PETTY, now an OT III, the first woman traffic helicopter pilot in Canada.

She first began doing that eight years ago, and she still flies part of the year.

Meanwhile, she has become a popular TV personality with an extremely successful phone-in TV show and now a TV series called "Let's Talk Real Estate."

Her latest project is in the beauty field, which will involve a coast to coast TV series in Canada.

She is just finishing the Dianetics Course and is very gung-ho to get the rest of her training. "Being OT gives you the ability to have the most incredible space of your own to live in, but when you walk into the rest of life and want to handle it you need training," she says. "I always thought when I got in Scientology that people told me I needed training because they were trying to sell me something. Finally I realized I'm doing fine, but what about the poor guy over here who needs help, what am I going to do with him? That's where I know I need training."

Dini plans to be on the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course at ASHO within the next several months.

TRAINING PUTS BUSINESSMAN AT CAUSE

Ten years ago, MARTIN HUBER of Munich, Germany, inherited his father's four shops specializing in watches and clocks. He was faced with all the problems of business at once.

He studied economics and even looked into the famous Business School at Harvard, but, he says, it was all a waste of time. "I just had to pitch in and do as best I could – an expensive and time-wasting business because I lacked the data to handle the most important part: human relations."

In 1972 he found Scientology and was audited. He still neglected to train, and, he relates, "though my awareness improved I still did not get rid of my difficulties because I lacked the tools with which to handle them!" His wife finally got him to do the Primary Rundown and Dianetics Course

"That was it," he says. "I went on and did my Academy Levels too. Every new level of training put me more and more at cause over my daily affairs."

Before, he had never seemed to have enough time. Now he was cutting his time at the firm down to four hours a day. His staff and he began to enjoy the most friendly co-operation. His staff turnover dropped to zero. In his four hours he found time to expand the company and open a new department.

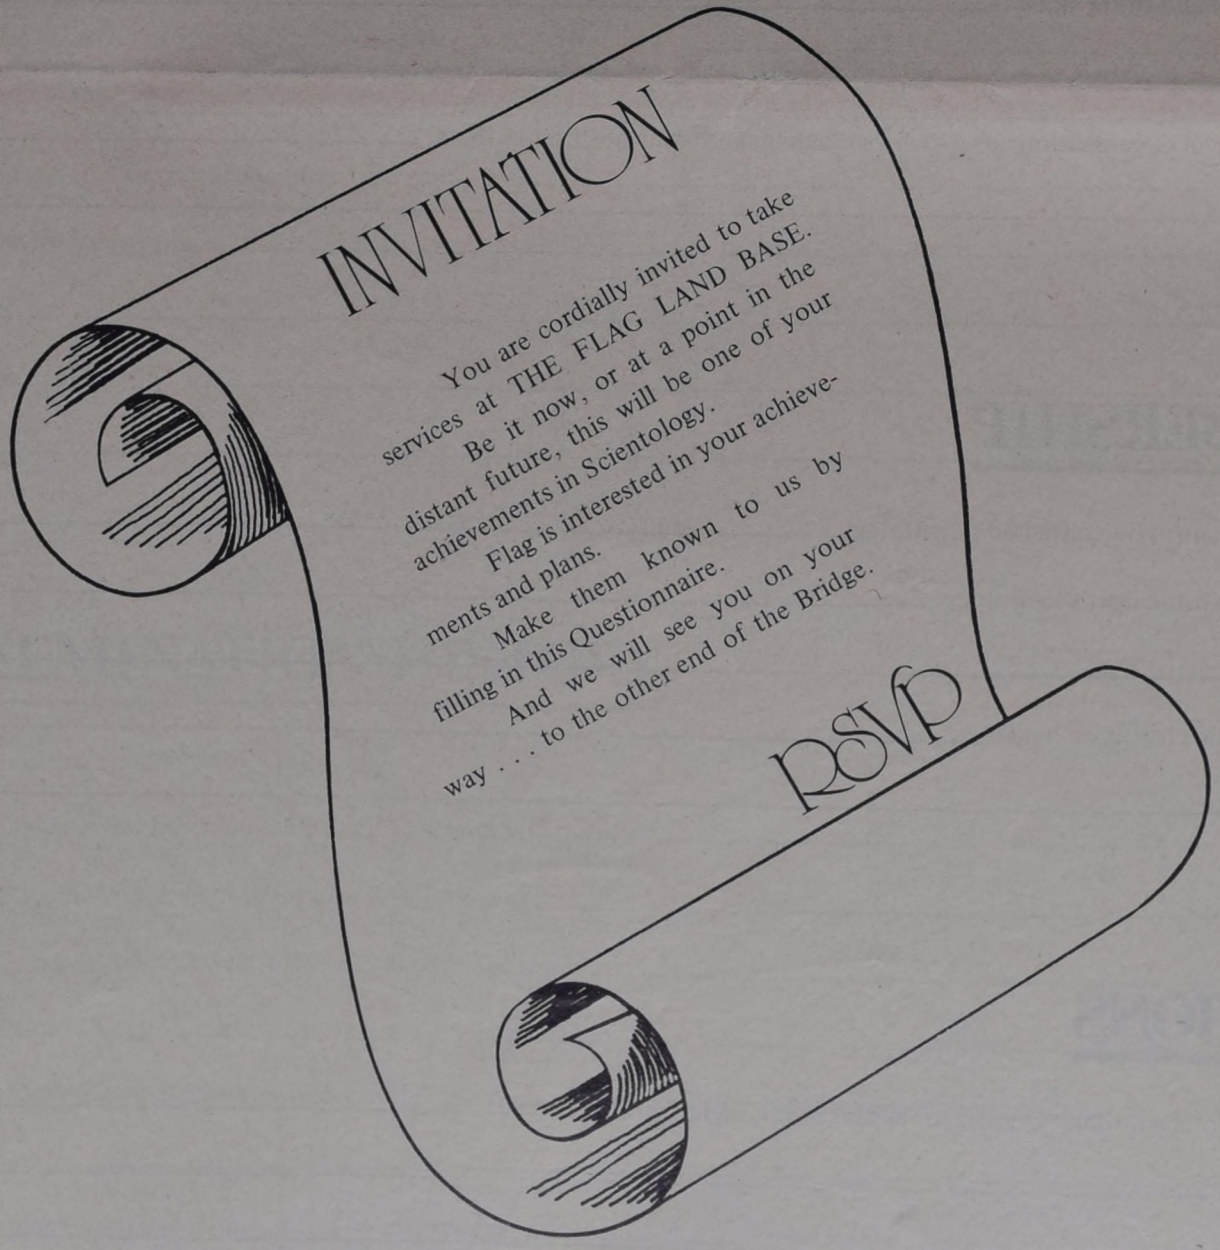

His next step is the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course which he is looking forward to with enthusiasm.

"Many businessmen probably feel as I used to," he says. "They are valuable to their firm, they are holding their company together, they have no time to spare . . . and when someone suggests they come for training they are apt to shrug their shoulders and laugh. But they should take a look at this–many of their problems will only be resolved if they do get trained!"

Artist Roy Kerswill captures a scene.

ARTIST BECOMES MORE OT ON SPECIAL BRIEFING COURSE

Well-known artist ROY KERSWILL, an OT and L-11 completion, is now on the Briefing Course at ASHO 11 hours a day. And yet, he says, "In the 8 weeks since I've been on course I've produced about $35,000 worth of paintings in my spare time at night and on weekends. I can easily keep up a level of $200,000 a year production while still studying all day on course."

He plans to continue his training at ASHO up to Class VIII Case Supervisor. In his spare time as a C/S, he wants to produce a series of 30 Scientology paintings to travel as a show for dissemination.

Born in Devon, England, Roy came to Nebraska in 1947 and decided to stay. He later settled in Wyoming to show the world the beauty and grandeur of the mountains and plains of the West through his art.

He is also an experienced mountain climber and has won the International Canoeing Championship on the Arkansas River in Colorado.

"I was reasonably successful before Scientology," he says, "but success was hard because I would spend hours, days, or even weeks on one painting."

For 25 years he had collected material on things he wanted to paint. Then after an auditing session one day in 1971, he dug out the sketches. He picked out the five most difficult and produced all five in five days! "My career has gone increasingly better ever since," he says.

The Briefing Course has proven to be a source of many wins. "I should have done this course long ago," he exclaims. "Ron says that 50% of the gains are in training. He's right! I have had literally thousands of wins and cognitions so far. I really believe I could have saved myself $20,000 by doing this course– I would have been able to apply this knowledge in my own auditing, and it all would have gone much faster."

David Spangler works over the music for a new song.

HIT MUSICAL

DAVID SPANGLER, who wrote all the dance arrangements for the smash Broadway hit MAGIC SHOW, has just finished Grade II! The show has been playing on Broadway for more than two years, and there will soon be companies taking it all over the world.

David started getting audited while the show was still in rehearsal. "After the show became a success," he recalls, "that was a whole other thing to deal with. I had a sort of self-defeating thing going in my career, and my whole work attitude improved in auditing."

Coming from a very small Kansas town, early in life he knew what he wanted to. "But there were great questions about whether I was up to it or not. I knew what I wanted–now I know I'm able," he says. "I've just become more comfortable with myself because I've become more myself. I've never been happier, more at ease, everywhere I am. And I have more energy than I've ever had before."

He's just finished a new movie score and has many more projects in the works – including of course coming to Los Angeles for Power Processing and Clear.

SPECIAL BRIEFING COURSE STUDENT WINS BEST FILM AWARD

"Centre of Attraction," a 28-minute TV special about New York narrated by Joanne Woodward, recently was awarded "BEST DOCUMENTARY" in the Long Island Film Festival. Director of Photography was the very OT cinematographer, ERIC REINER, now a Saint Hill Special Briefing Course student at ASHO.

Training is a large part of being OT for Eric. "Without training you don't know what you are free from," he says. "It is training more than anything else that allows a person to be free on other Dynamics besides the first. It's because of my knowledge of Ron's Tech and Policy that I am as successful as I am."

Eric also writes songs, plays guitar, and plans to direct and produce his own films. He has worked very effectively with Narconon (the drug rehabilitation program using techniques of L. Ron Hubbard) and Applied Scholastics (a program using the educational discoveries of L. Ron Hubbard).

A NEW OT CAREER

November 26, 1973 GEORGE KING was a pretty mediocre stockbroker in Miami. The next day he had his first Scientology session and it changed his life.

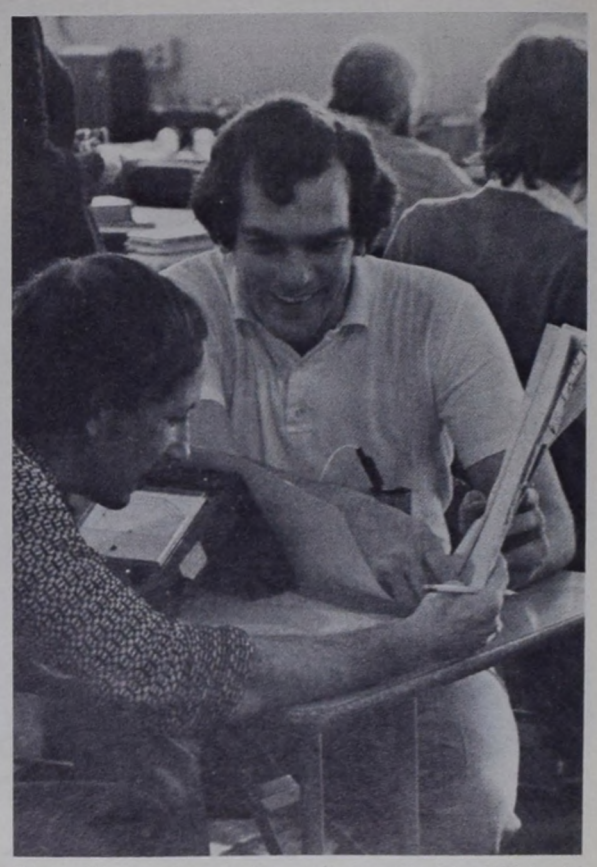

Over the next four months, his production tripled while he cut his working hours in half. Involved totally in commission work, his personal income also increased 300%.

As he continued in Scientology with training, he found it easier and easier to deal with people. Everyone he knew saw the difference in him.

It was in May of 1974 that he handed in his resignation and went onto full time study. "I felt that the data, even if I were to stay in that business, would be valuable enough to justify the time I'd take off to get it," he explains.

He finished his Dianetic internship, Class IV and Class IV internship and is now on the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course at ASHO. "My responsibility level has come up drastically," he says, "including my ability to operate and make things go right. I've seen facets of myself that I've never seen before. The data on the Briefing Course is really vital to life."

Now a Grade IV Release, he has noticed that the Briefing Course has stabilized his case gain. "Every day I get further away from the potential of getting caught back in the trap," he says.

George King coaches another student on the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course at ASHO.

He decided to become an auditor after auditing his first few sessions and sharing his pc's cognitions. "Watching someone change totally before your eyes is certainly more than ample exchange for a few hours," he says.

He likes to jog and play tennis, both of which he's done much more of since Scientology.

He now plans to return to Florida as a professional auditor–the most OT profession there is!

OUND THE WORLD

Accomplished musician Rick Field, who is now training as a Scientology auditor in Buffalo.

OT MUSICIAN TO PERFORM WORLD PREMIERE

In April, OT Rick Field will be performing a viola solo in the world premier concerto by Yvar Miskashov in Buffalo, New York.

Rick is now doing his training at the Church of Scientology in Buffalo. "As an OT IV, I have found that I have gotten the most case gain I have ever gotten out of my training this past year in Buffalo," he says. "For one to be an effective OT, training is absolutely necessary to make order out of the chaos around you."

After OT III in 1970, Rick got his Master of Science degree at the Julliard School of Music while supervising the Dianetics Course in New York. From 1971 to 1974, he was assistant principal viola with the Denver Symphony, and then on a postulate got his current job as solo principal viola with the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra.

Auditors Expand onto the 3rd Dynamic

As a student on the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course, CLARK CARR'S interest in 3rd Dynamic tech (having to do with groups) intensified when he saw some friends were failing in life because they weren't applying Ron's data on administration.

So he became determined to get Ron's data applied in "the world out there" and to see results in the lives of his friends and their friends. Quite a number of highly classed auditors have joined the push to get Ron's admin tech applied, including Class VIs Don Sharp, Tom Loughran, Shel Morrill and Tom King; Class VIII Mark Jones and Class IX Ellen Jones; and Saint Hill Special Briefing Course students Robin Manoogian and Jim Kitzmiller.

Clark requires the consultants in the business he has set up to be classed auditors. Why? "We consult our clients' analytical thought, not reactive thought," he explains. "A consultant must be sufficiently familiar with 'bank think' to spot it, bypass it, and get on with the matter at hand."

Expansion has been rapid. "Every non-Scientologist we have ever delivered a service to has, of course, become a Scientologist," notes Clark. "With non-Scientologists we use the Axioms, word clearing, OEC volumes–just as we do with Scientologists. It is really quite easy to get Ron's data accepted, understood and used, if you do it standardly."

Grand Opening of the new offices of Expansion Consultants on 6th Street in Los Angeles has been set for February 22-23.

TO: ALL SCIENTOLOGISTS
FROM: LRH PERSONAL PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICER INTERNATIONAL AT THE NEW FLAG LAND BASE

Dear Scientologist,

The public demand for a book about L. Ron Hubbard is tremendous. It is time a book was written about Ron. So we're going to do one!

The first step is to collect all the information – the facts, figures, dates, places, activities, adventures and experiences which will tell the outstanding story of L. Ron Hubbard, the man who has overcome incredible odds to provide a workable technology that truly helps his fellow man.

The data is vast. The hundreds of thousands of people who have come in contact with Ron throughout the years, whether personally or through his writings, all have stories to tell of their friendship with him and the personal experiences they had.

Your help on this is vital and very much appreciated. Documentation through the years has not been complete. You are the ones who can provide the information to form this book, the story about Ron.

Please answer the questions below as best you can and send this survey directly to LRH Personal Public Relations Officer International, Sue Anderson, at the New Flag Land Base. Thank you!

USE ADDITIONAL PAPER AS NECESSARY TO GIVE COMPLETE ANSWERS.

1. In any of the materials you have read or studied, have you heard any stories or facts about Ron's life, his adventures or experiences? What was it? What tape, issue, book or booklet was it in? (Please list all you can remember).

2. Have you heard any stories, anecdotes, or facts about Ron's life which should be included in this book? What was it and who said it?

3. Have you seen any of the articles about Ron or mentions of him in books or materials other than those of the Church of Scientology? What was the publication and what was the date? (Please, if possible, attach a copy of the material. It will be returned if requested).

4. Have you ever met Ron or worked with him directly? When was that? Where? What was your post or occupation at the time?

5. Did he ever tell you any stories about his life? What were they?

6. Who else was there when he told the story?

7. If you answered yes to Number 4, please, on a separate sheet(s) of paper give specifics with the dates, places, people and descriptions of the activities and experiences you had with Ron.

8. Do you know of any other Scientologists who should be interviewed for information for this book? Where can they be reached?

9. Do you know of any non-Scientologists who have known Ron directly or indirectly who should be interviewed for information for this book? Where can they be reached?

10. Do you know of any big name, VIPs, Opinion Leaders in any professional field who have had wins using Ron's tech and who should be interviewed for this book? Where can they be reached?

11. Are there any other data sources you can suggest for additional information concerning Ron for this book? Please give specifics.

ASHO FIELD STAFF MEMBERS HELP BOOK BOOM

1976 has been kicked off to a flying start with the launching, January 1st, of a massive Los Angeles campaign to sell Dianetics the Modern Science of Mental Health to the broad public.

FOCUS ON SUCCESS

Training IS the route to OT!

Briefing Course student Janet Tucker expands across ALL the dynamics with her training.

Life Going RIGHT

On impulse I came down from San Francisco and started the Briefing Course. I moved into some little hole – I didn't like it and it was just cope. I was being totally effect of the environment.

Then one of the first books I read on the Briefing Course was Advanced Procedures and Axioms, and I read about responsibility. People can tell you that you don't have to be effect of anything unless you decide to, that you can be totally responsible for your condition. But until you realize it for yourself it doesn't change anything. When I read that book I actually realized it for myself.

Within a month I pulled in a stable, safe environment to live in, I pulled in a car, and a really good job auditing at a Mission at night. And I pulled in a really happy, lasting second dynamic relationship.

The Briefing Course gives you the guts of livingness, why things happen the way they do, why people do what they do. A person who is cleared and an OT is still not going to know those mechanics until he does the Briefing Course. An OT without training has potential knowingsness, but a person who is trained actually has the knowingness.

For example, my fiancé, who is an OT with little Scientology training, often asks me how to handle situations. When it comes to handling people, with training you've learned to apply the tools and you can apply them, and you discover you can be effective in spite of your case (I'm not Clear yet).

If you're going to operate as a thetan you've got to know how to operate, period. You're operating in the MEST universe most times, and the Briefing Course is where you find the tech on how to do that. The Briefing Course expands your ability on all eight dynamics.

Winning Every Day as ASHO Graduate

I highly validate ASHO. My life as an individual thetan and as a trained person from ASHO is so fantastic now that I don't even recognize the guy I was being when I first routed onto the Briefing Course.

My happiest moments of my Scientology career so far are the months I spent there as a student and intern.

I am now delivering 100% standard tech to cases I would not previously have believed could exist, and I'm winning ALL DAY EVERY DAY. Thanks to my ASHO training, I really recognize the insanity existing on this planet and can confront it easily because I can HANDLE it.

I'll be back for Class VIII soon.

Dick Killion

A Great Experience

I took over the mission in Champaign-Urbana, Illinois back in August, 1971, with a large amount of Scientology administrative technology to hand but very little auditing technology. It wasn't until Joel Morris returned from the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course at ASHO in 1973 that the Mission really started to expand.

Since then, we've trebled the number of staff to become one of the largest Missions in the Midwest.

Only after I spent a couple months on the Briefing Course myself did I realize that one of the basic reasons for our expansion was tighter adherence to Scientology technology and policy which was made possible by having ASHO-TRAINED people.

The most recent example is Dan McNichol's return as an ASHO-trained Class VIII. Delivery statistics doubled within three weeks of his arrival and have remained high.

Being at ASHO for the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course, Senior Briefing Course and Class VI Internship has been a great experience for me–one which has greatly increased my level of certainty on standard tech.
Course, Senior Briefing Course and Class VI Internship has been a great experience for me–one which has greatly increased my level of certainty on standard tech.
