THE TRAINING ROUTE TO FREEDOM

by L. Ron Hubbard

If we were to go forward on the basis of training only Clears, it would be quite interesting – we would very rapidly run out of auditors to clear people.

I don't care if we were five years up the track with a Scientology population of fifty million, you would still be running out of auditors, if nobody could be trained until they had been cleared. You will find that it will never work, because you would always have that many more people being cleared than clearing.

How would you like to be the only trained auditor in Egypt, for instance, up against this idea that we must not train anybody until they're Clear? That would leave you auditing everybody in Egypt. I don't think that's a very optimum solution. You'd certainly never train any auditors and you'd never get around to clearing anybody either. You would have maybe fifteen people on the auditing lineup and about three years later, you might have fifteen Clears, but you still wouldn't have any auditors, would you? So now you would go out on the basis of clearing up some more people, and it would take you another three years.

Well, you had better make up your mind that there is no other solution than to train uncleared people, that's all. The other way, training only Clears, is an ideal piece of nonsense. Arithmetically, it breaks down at once, it becomes utterly unfeasible. There isn't any way that it could be done, so you just have to go ahead and train uncleared auditors.

Being aberrated has actually given you a wealth of experience which you can attain in no other way. That this experience is at this time more or less unavailable to you and has not been used by you has nothing to do with it. As you go on up with case progress, you'll find a tremendous amount of experience, and every single bit of it was the experience of a knucklehead! The way you had all of this experience was by being a darn fool, a professional knucklehead.

Well, a couple of hundred trillion years, I should think, would be long enough for a person to get enough experience on the subject of knuckleheadedness. I think you have accumulated most of the available experience. It's very doubtful that anything could happen that has not already happened to you.

I think you should get some experience in other lines for a change, and broaden your view. When a person is going from a highly aberrated state to a rather sane state, the best way to accumulate experience is by taking this person when they are aberrated and teaching them something and improving them at the same time. It doesn't matter how gradually you improve them as long as you keep on improving them and they are learning as they go.

Man, when they get through with that channel, they'll be able to tell you things about it you never realized. They've been over the jumps. They know it inside out. Now they know all there is to know about it.

You never look upon misadventures as being much of a teacher, but in the final analysis, if you've got to learn by experience at all, it is only misadventure that will teach you.

The greatest successes of the world can go unremarked if you have nothing with which to compare them. Getting somebody sane, walking straight, and back in action takes a bit of doing, and it is well worth doing. You've got a good view of that sort of thing. But we could easily lose that view. If, for instance, you were to say, "Take this pill," and the person took the pill and was cleared instantly. Do you realize that clearing would have absolutely no value of any kind whatsoever? It wouldn't have any value.

In the old days, there were people who were always dreaming of something like this happening – one shot in the gluteus maximus and they'd be Clear. I never dreamed about it happening. It wouldn't be clearing, it would be total enslavement, because it's just a new overwhelm, isn't it?

Nobody ever appreciates his freedom unless he has to work for it. If he does work for it, then he values it and then he finds out that he is free. Could there be any such thing as a Clear who hadn't worked for it?

You're going to clear people sometimes, and wonder why you bothered. They have no realization of anything having happened or anything really having improved, or that they are going anyplace. They have no purpose to which they may put this new breadth of skill, and it is far more than they need for anything they're doing on this cotton-picking planet. The net result is a sort of an odd feeling of lose for you. It isn't quite that grim – they invite you to dinner, they introduce you to everybody, they're very enthused about you and so forth. But they keep going to the P.T.A. and sitting there and taking notes, and you say, "When is this person going to do something in life?" Well, they haven't found out that they can.

It's something like taking the chains off of a fellow and the chains were a little bit rusty and left some rust marks on him and he still thinks they're chains. He doesn't know they're gone. I imagine he could probably go on like that for a century or two and then someday he would read in a book that someone who was cleared could do such and such, and all of a sudden he would say, "Well,

Diana Releases New Cassette "Can We Ever Be Friends?"

"Can We Ever Be Friends?", the new appeal by ministers of the Church of Scientology to reconcile former friends and families, was released around the world in early July. Diana Hubbard Horwich made the official release July 9 to a standing room only crowd of over 3000 at the Hollywood Palladium in Los Angeles!

Following the playing of the actual cassette, Diana read a special message from her father and told of Scientology's recent expansion into such far flung places as the Punjab in India, Turkey, and the Sudan. She also released the good news that she and her husband John Horwich are expecting a new addition to their family!

Entertainment for the evening was by Robin Williamson and his Merry Band, Jimmie Spheeris, and to the crowd's delight, Diana displayed one of her lesser-known talents by brilliantly performing two pieces of her own composition on the piano.

The cassette release event, which was combined with the Los Angeles leg of the Flag World Tour, also featured a new film of the Land Base and highly trained auditors as speakers.

I think I could do that." He'd reach up and say, "What do you know, I'm not wearing any chains! What happened?"

And then he would go into a total overwhelm, build a stone image with your features, set you up as a household deity and pray to you every night – the fate of people who do sudden things that other people never earn or appreciate.

If a person doesn't work for his freedom, he never finds out he's free.

GAIN CERTAINTY OF SELF

Countless wars have been fought for that elusive thing, power.

But true power was never won in battle. True power is the power of the being himself.

Ron says, "The power of a thetan stems from his ability to hold a position in space."

When a being has knowledge and certainty of himself, and can hold his position, then he is truly powerful. He has the power to learn, to create, to act.

This certainty of self is attained at Grade V and VA, known as Power Processing.

Power Processing gets rid of those things which have kept a being pinned to the Reactive Mind. He can act now directly and freely as himself.

With Power Processing, you gain priceless knowledge you will never lose about yourself and your relationship to others and to the physical universe.

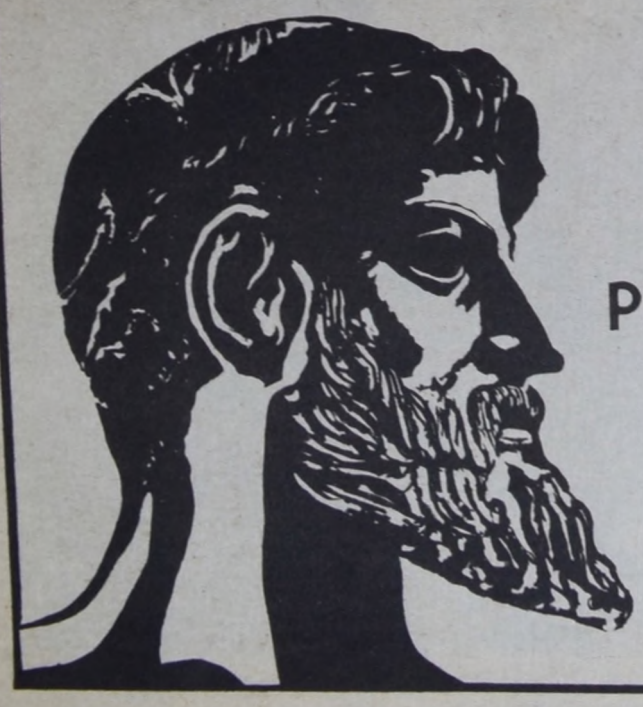

To get Power Processing, come to ASHO as soon as you have completed Grade IV Release. At ASHO you can get any set-up auditing you may need from highly trained auditors. You'll be on your Power fast and ready to move up the Bridge.

Power is a giant step toward Clear.

Class VIII is a major part of the training route. What is it all about? Why is it confidential? To answer these questions, The Auditor presents a special feature:

INSIDE ASHO's CLASS VIII ROOM

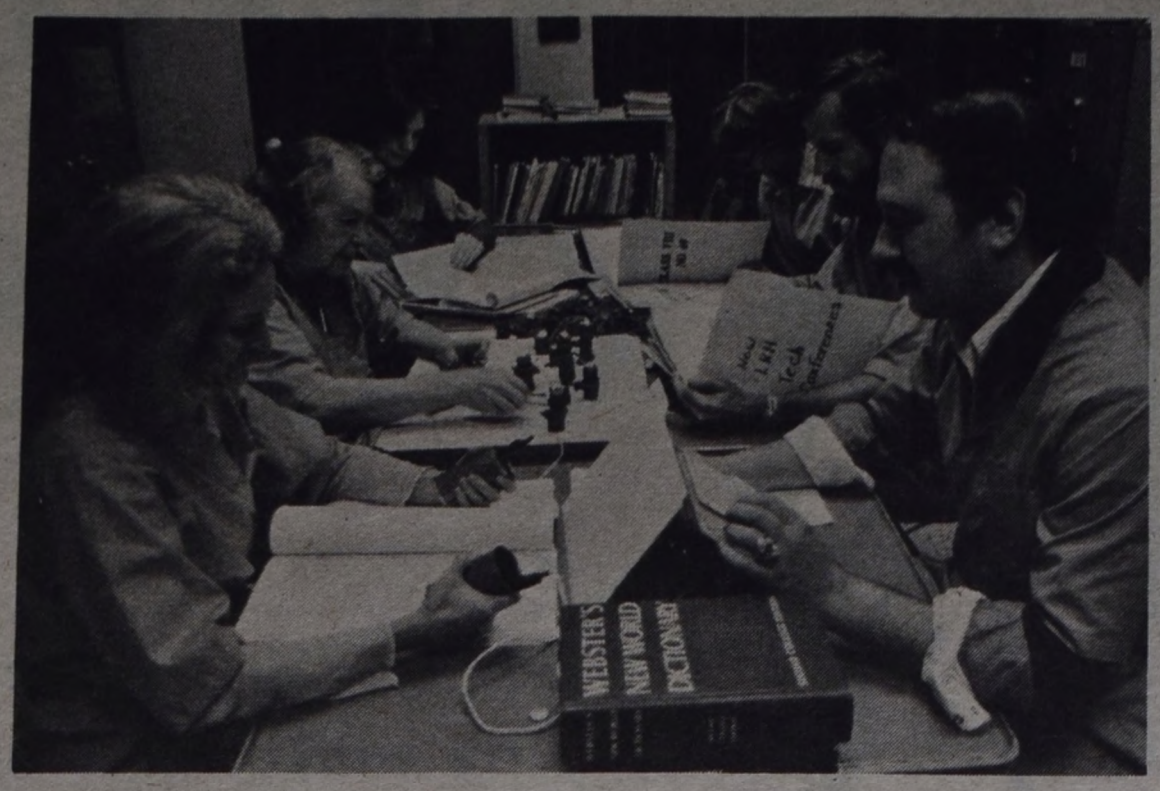

The sign on the door of the Class VIII Room reads "Class VIII Course – NO ADMITTANCE except for Authorized Personnel." The staff and public go by the door many, many times a day. Once in a while the door is just being opened or closed by an "Authorized Person" and one can catch a glimpse of the floor and maybe a green smock or two.

Why only "Authorized Persons"? What's the big secret? What really goes on in there all day, anyway? If you were to somehow get through the door in the morning (before the students arrive) it would look like an ordinary room. There's a large sign inside the room that says "Sea Organization Class VIII Course" and "You will Produce 100% Standard Tech." But that's not confidential. There are tables and chairs and a picture of Ron at the front–none of those are confidential.

Why only Authorized Persons? What's so special about that room?

For one thing the closely guarded LRH Class VIII tapes are played there daily. But anybody can listen to a tape by Ron!

Not everybody can listen to these. A large percentage of people would dope off the first few minutes. Another percentage would listen blankly to the whole thing, shrug, shake their heads in bafflement, and go home to sleep it off or to Review to handle their somatics. A very small, but growing, elite group of individuals have sufficient tech training and awareness to hear the lectures on the Class VIII Course–to brightly, eagerly, pick up and retain the incredible data that Ron reveals so casually on these tapes.

Those qualified are Class VIIIs and VIII students. They can listen to Ron state the structure of and mechanisms of the mind, the exact things that happen with a thetan in auditing, and the basics that draw a hairline of simplicity straight through the vast mountain of data on the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course.

The VIII students give each other checkouts that demand 100%, no comm lag answers. "Your pc says . . . . What do you know?" "What do you do?" You see a case doing such and such. What do you know about him?" "How is it resolved?" "What is the only reason for such and such a case?" The data flies casually around the room–the students know the answers, or learn them quickly by referral to exactly what Ron said. And the exactness of the training and the tech, the reason for the forbidding sign on the door, becomes evident.

It's not safe to walk into a lion's cage if you're not very familiar with lions. It's a risky idea to smoke in a dynamite factory when you don't know much about the dynamite. But lion tamers play games with lions. Dynamite experts think nothing of lighting up when they feel like it. And an expertly trained Class VI Auditor can handle the VIII Course.

The Class VIII Course was designed by Ron. The depth and impact of the tech that VIIIs handle is startling to say the least. The new student arrives on course and within the first 15 minutes of his first tape is often bug-eyed, and usually begins to cognite that there's something new and very standard to learn about tech. The students who have heard the tape before may smile, or signal him to close his mouth or ignore him totally; they're listening to their tape. By the end end of the tape, the student is usually pretty quiet. He may have entered the course with an attitude of "Teach me something new. I dare you." He never stays that way long. He'll go through his period of abashed ignorance. He'll come out shining, knowing he knows.

Students also study the packs of secret Class VIII HCO Bulletins and photographic copies of hundreds of folders of cases C/Sed by Ron and selected by him for the course. These C/Ses demonstrate the procedure behind the "magic" of Ron's results as a C/S.

12:00 is lunch time and 6:00 is supper. VIII students wander out and if you know the course you can recognize the new and old students just during breaks. Dazed look? Quiet? Occasionally shaking his head in amazement? He's new. Confident? Certain? Direct? He's almost ready to go.

Hesitatingly gripping a new Routing Form and hopefully asking for the Supervisor? Smock that doesn't quite fit? He's just coming on. He's about to become an Authorized Person. Wait a few weeks and watch out for him. He'll be a Class VIII Auditor with total grasp of 100% Standard Tech. This is Ron's miracle of miracles–Class VIII.

N SUCCESS: ORTANCE OF II AND CLASS IX

CLASS VIII

The Class VIII Course has realigned my mind, my tech, my life and my future. A seven week blast of LRH, Standard Tech, and ASHO – this course cannot be explained, it has to be experienced. My communication line to Ron has come out of non-existence and I know now what is needed and wanted. My hat is off to my course supervisor and others who made this course such a great experience.

DREW JOHNSTON

After the Class VI Course I knew I had a pile of tools, but after the VIII Course I know I know the tools and I don't have to sort through them to pick the right one!

VAL DAMBACHER

My biggest win since I began the Class VIII Course was the feeling that wherever I go I will be able to deliver Standard Tech. I felt before this course that I had to be quite close to an Org such as ASHO to keep my tech standard. Now I can keep my tech and help others achieve standard tech wherever I go. This course is marvelous. Thank you, from the bottom of my heart, Ron.

JEAN BLAKE

I just want to say that since completing the Class VIII Course about three months ago I've been out in the field auditing, and what an amazing world of difference! I have been able to deliver those 'wins and gains beyond your wildest dreams' with an ease and smoothness almost impossible to believe. Just effortless! Rough cases and all. And that is Class VIII!

RANDI WISE

I have found the Class VIII viewpoint to be the primary influence in maintaining the standard of the beautiful technology L. Ron Hubbard has given us in every activity I have been a part of. The value of this training must not be underrated and we, the Class VIIIs, must continue to insist on others gaining the VIII viewpoint, and by 'insist' I mean just that! In the field, Class VIII provides the stability needed for real expansion.

BROWN McKEE

The Class VIII Course is without a doubt the most rewarding thing I've ever done. In the last two months I have gone through more changes in awareness, certainty and understanding than I knew were possible in a lifetime.

I'm very happy to be a Class VIII Auditor – I KNOW I can audit the way Ron meant it to be done.

LINDA LARSON

I have been a Class VIII Auditor since September 1970. I have audited almost continually since that time with consistently excellent results. I attribute my ability to audit stably well to my training as a Class VIII.

The course was exciting and full of valuable information and data explaining much about people. The level of quality you are expected to achieve and maintain as a Class VIII Auditor is very exacting. The communication line to Ron on that course is very direct – it is definitely one of the best courses I have done in Scientology.

SUSAN SALAMON

Well I've done it! I've been in Scientology since 1971 and my first impression of an auditor was a Class VIII I'd met. I knew I had to do it and I did. It's a phenomenal course – it gives you certainty on handling any and all cases from the very beginning to OT VII standardly to 100% results. It's simply a must after the Class VI Course. Class VI gives you all the data, Class VIII gives you the evaluation of importances of the data.

TED CORMIER

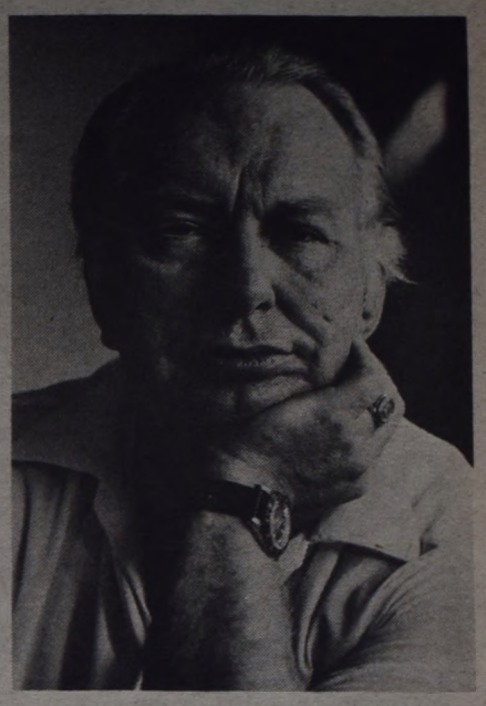

CLASS IX

The Class IX Course enabled me to have a broader scope than the VIII Course and polish my skills as a highly skilled technical specialist even more.

"Being at ease requires that you know the exact situation and know that it IS the exact situation."

L. Ron Hubbard,

the Road to Perfection

I was a Class VIII for three years, and I wanted the opportunity to enhance my skills, to be even sharper and get standard tech in even more.

Class IX auditing is like loading up a shot gun, taking careful aim at the preclear's bank, and with terrific confidence, pulling the trigger – all done with a very steady hand and excellent TRs. The Bank doesn't stand a chance with that sort of machinery working for you. For me, Class IX is the ability to really zero in and blow the bank apart.

All Class VIIIs should do the IX Course and internship – think of all those relieved pcs!

BRUCE LEVINTON

Every auditor has experienced times when he understood so thoroughly what was happening with his preclear that nothing could go wrong in the session. His attention was completely on the preclear.

When an auditor is that certain, there is no threat of invalidation by incompetence, and his ARC for the entire action of auditing and for the preclear can soar to new heights.

On the Class VIII Course I learned there IS a Standard Tech and learned that I CAN deliver it. On Class IX I attained a full understanding of every area in auditing that I have ever had doubts about or been mechanical about.

I KNOW Scientology Tech without having to remember it. The effort is gone. This is the state I have been striving toward as an auditor ever since I learned what auditing was.

Understanding is ARC, and to me ARC is the keynote of Class IX.

DALY DANA

Become That Perfect Auditor You Have Always Wanted to be. Become A Class IX

Remember how you pictured yourself when you first decided to be an auditor?

There you were as a master of the tech . . . in the highest ARC with another being, effortlessly guiding him to greater awareness . . . knowing Scientology as second nature . . . applying it as naturally as walking . . . cracking cases no one else could handle.

The state you were putting on your future track is called Class IX.

What does the IX Course do?

Class IX is the first course you do with a Class VIII viewpoint.

You examine Class IX rundowns such as Interiorization-Exteriorization (the tapes on this rundown are ONLY on Class IX) and the new Vital Information Rundown. You examine flows, two way comm, metering, obnosis. Suddenly you exteriorize completely from the tech and your attention floods onto the preclear.

Class IX provides the polish every auditor needs after Class VIII training.

Class IX means perfect auditor.

MIKE KNOTT, soon to be OT III, will be going back to his quarterback spot in the fall on the Kansas City Chiefs.

KANSAS CITY CHIEF's QUARTER BACK USES TECH

MIKE KNOTT, star Quarter Back for the Kansas City Chiefs, is auditing on OT III over the summer!

He first heard about Scientology through a teammate, STEVE CIPPA. Mike did his early training in Sacramento, and later came to ASHO for his Power. "I've learned more about confronting through processing and study tech," says Mike, "I've improved my ability to communicate with people and be myself."

Mike is very eager to continue up the Bridge and get trained. "I had a cognition on training: you've got to have tools, all of a sudden you've got to have and need training."

He is currently working on a program with Yvonne Jentzsch, Executive Director of the new Public Relations Org to introduce the whole team to the tech of Dianetics when he returns to the playing field in the fall.

Award Winning Actress Gets Power Processing at ASHO

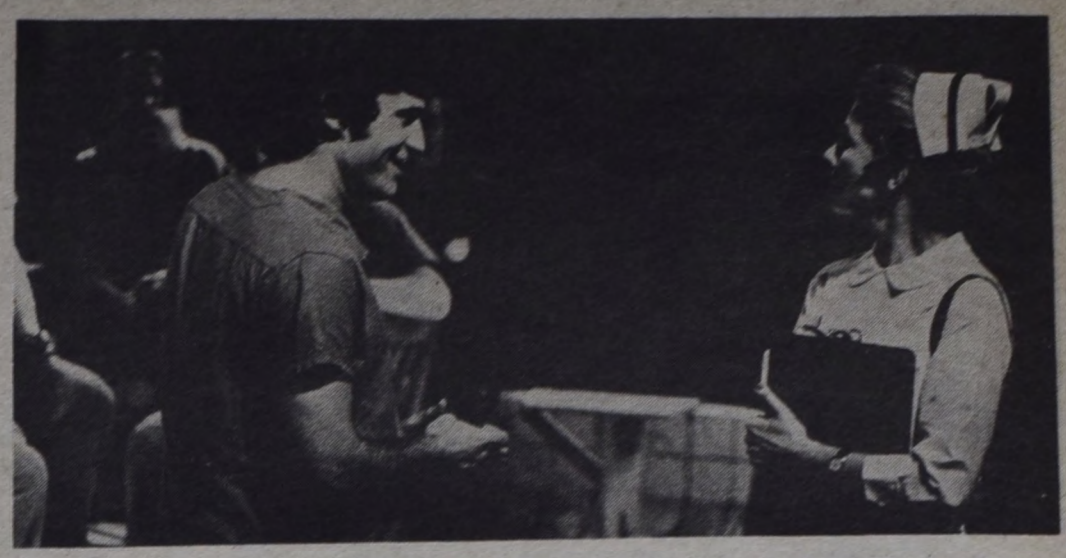

JO DE WINTER, winner of the Rogge-Perry critics Best Actress award in Chicago for her role as Nurse Ratched in the first successful theater production of the play One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest in 1973, has recently completed Power Processing at ASHO and is rapidly going on to Clear.

Jo is a familiar face to many, having been a regular on the well-known TV show Name of the Game and guest star on such programs as Mannix, Six Million Dollar Man, and The Brady Bunch. Her recent film credits include Dirty Harry, Bound for Glory, and Airport '77.

She first encountered Scientology through director MILTON KATSELAS, and it was in July 1976 after a personal tragedy that she asked to know more about it. Milton took her to Class VIII TONY HITCHMAN, and the next morning she started auditing. Her husband, retired Air Force officer ROBERT ADAMINA, soon followed suit. They both finished their Power at ASHO in May 1977. "I didn't want to wait to get Clear," she says with determination. "I felt I had waited long enough."

She reports her acting ability has quadrupled since Scientology. In a recent play, she had a long and difficult part to learn, yet she spent almost no time memorizing. "Each night of the play I was totally in present time. When you're being there all your resources are available to you at all times. My reactions on stage have become clear and true and strong – plus I no longer have to pay the emotional price off stage that used to follow heavily emotional roles," she explains.

As to her recent Power Processing, she describes it as "astonishing." "I'm just functioning at a million volts a minute," exclaims the actress. "I have a whole new beginning to my life. It is all real and true and I am deeply grateful."

JO DE WINTER who won a Chicago critics award for her role in One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest, recently completed her Power Processing at ASHO. Her first auditor was Class VIII Tony Hitchman.

Actor MICHAEL ROBERTS practices skateboarding for an episode in Baretta.

SCIENTOLOGIST NOMINATED FOR EMMY

Actor MICHAEL ROBERTS is applying Scientology tech in his career with considerable success. He has just been submitted for an Emmy as Best Supporting Actor in a Dramatic Series, for his co-starring role as Rooster in TV's Barretta.

Over a year and a half ago, Michael had a friend who had taken the Communication Course, and she had totally changed for the better – he noticed abilities that she had, that he was lacking, so he enrolled on the Communication Course! He is now on the Dianetic Course at Celebrity Centre and plans to continue up the Bridge to ASHO.

In addition to acting, Michael is involved in a program called The Right Track, visiting local schools, to help put students on "the right track" about drugs and their effects. With good communication and the use of Scientology, this group is helping turn many young children away from the drug scene and toward a better, healthier life.

Michael will also be recording his first album in July. This is a new outlet for him, and he hopes that it too will be successful.

Michael attributes his success in Hollywood to his application of the tech to his life and career. "Hollywood would be dangerous, but with Scientology it's safe," he says. Michael will be doing a national TV commercial for Dianetics the Modern Science of Mental Health to help tell others about the tech soon.

NEWS FROM ARC

Conductor Carlo Spiga and the Los Angeles Sinfonietta receive enthusiastic applause at a recent performance in Los Angeles.

CLASS VIII Organizes Orchestra

The people and musicians of Los Angeles will be enjoying more varied music fare this year thanks to the efforts of Class VIIIs RICHARD KIPERMAN and MARIO FENINGER.

Year after year, the same soloists in the Los Angeles Philharmonic have had the Music Center sewed up. Musicians in the Philharmonic itself and the wealth of top quality independent musicians in Los Angeles have felt for a long time that there was insufficient opportunity for them to break in and present their talents to the public.

Previous attempts to put together a second orchestra of equal quality to the Philharmonic have failed due to lack of organization. Then Carlo Spiga, first violin of the Philharmonic, asked world-famous pianist Mario Feninger (a Class VIII) to be musical director, who in turn contacted Richard Kiperman, also a Class VIII, to help on organization.

Since then, things have really begun to happen. Backed for the season by the Lawyer's Philharmonic Society, a California group of judges and lawyers devoted to the promotion of fine music, the Los Angeles Sinfonietta played its first concert on April 17, 1977 to rave reviews. Featured was the U.S. debut of internationally acclaimed concert pianist Cyprien Katsaris, a Scientologist from France.

The Society, of which Richard Kiperman has recently been elected vice president, is also backing the Los Angeles Pops, playing its first concert August 17 with pianist Chick Corea at the Starlight Bowl, donated for the occasion by the Burbank City Council. A donation from each ticket purchased will be going to the Church of Scientology, in return for all of the assistance given by Scientologists working to make the new orchestra a success.

The Los Angeles Sinfonietta has been personally invited by the Duchess of Luxemborg to represent the United States at "The Echternacht", one of the fifteen most prestigious music festivals in the world.

"It took a Scientologist to put the orchestra together and make it work," says Richard. "This is just one example of how useful my Class VIII training at ASHO has been to me in handling projects in life."

Chick Corea's FSM to do Briefing Course

Virtuoso bass player JAMIE FAUNT, who introduced now internationally acclaimed jazz musician CHICK COREA to Scientology in 1970, will soon be starting the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course at ASHO.

Jamie first learned of Dianetics himself when he read Dianetics, the Evolution of a Science by L. Ron Hubbard in 1969. "I just had to have auditing after I read that book," he remembers. "I did, and my playing improved right away."

Now an OT III, permanent Dianetic auditor and Superliterate, Jamie has discovered an ability to teach music. Inspired by Ron's Study Tech, he developed a training program on a gradient that teaches a musician to play by basics not by rote. Beginners or professionals, musicians exposed to his application of Ron's tech have been astonished at their increase in freedom of expression as well as playing technique.

On his way to Clear, Jamie got his Power Processing at ASHO in 1970, and it was the most dynamically powerful auditing he has ever had. "Scientology has enabled me to operate as myself, on purpose; and the administrative tech has enabled me to be immensely more effective in my life and career," he says.

Briefing Course Student Heads Applied Scholastics Chapter

NANCY HAWKINS, ASHO Saint Hill Special Briefing Course student, is expanding out into the community as head of the Los Angeles chapter of Applied Scholastics Inc. (ASI), the national non-profit organization making L. Ron Hubbard's Study Tech known and used in the school system by students and teachers.

Disillusioned with the lack of effective teaching methods when she was in the field of education, Nancy was delighted to find how easily kids could be helped to learn using the Study Tech. "The changes in every kid who comes in here seem like miracles to me," she says, "and the teachers who come here are very excited about how the Study Tech works in their classrooms as well."

"I like to help kids individually," explains Nancy, "But as crazy as the environment is we don't have time to handle each one, so we are handling the teachers too. A school system already exists. When more teachers realize how easy it is to educate, and have the skills to do so effectively, kids will want to go to school, and they will be able to learn the basics of reading, spelling, and math instead of being turned out into society as apathetic semi-literates."

Applied Scholastics is fast creating awareness of the indispensibility of L. Ron Hubbard's Study Tech in the field of education. A parent group in Westwood, who call themselves Friends of Innovative Education, have started a fund for high school students needing extra help, and several students have been enabled to graduate as a result of being sent to ASI under this program.

The staff development branch of the Los Angeles City schools has recently granted approval to ASI for inservice teacher training. This is offered free as a community service, and referrals of students needing intensive assistance help keep ASI afloat.

Nancy finds she uses her Briefing Course training every day in handling people and situations. She plans to continue advancing her training at ASHO all the way to the top.

TRAINING: THE OTHER HALF OF BECOMING OT

ASHO Graduate CLASS VIII RON FIANDACA from San Francisco works daily as an OT to keep in STANDARD TECH.

To say that the Briefing Course has changed my life would be a tremendous understatement. It has changed my whole track. This was the point where I stopped the search and found what I had been seeking. The track has straightened at this point. And now there is just a clean strong drive aligned with a purpose which has always been there – very ancient, sometimes only faintly remembered, but always there: to know again, to really KNOW. The Briefing Course is just the first few steps of a journey that will take us home again. It's just the beginning.

CASIMIR A. WILSON, Attorney

On Class VI I really got to feel that I could get a preclear through whatever he was in, where before I had the determination but not the confidence. The Briefing Course is not just a course. It is an education for the rest of my track. I really have gained the ability to play a bigger game.

BEATRICE PAYNE, artist

My life has changed dramatically as a result of the certainty I gained from doing the Class VIII Course in 1975. When I first began the course I was not connected to or contributing to a Scientology group to any great degree. Since then I have broadened my reach and responsibility as a Scientologist to become a senior executive at the San Francisco Church of Scientology, taking a great interest in seeing that STANDARD Scientology training and processing are delivered here. My personal stability and confront across the dynamics is quite high thanks to the data and discipline of the Class VIII Course.

RON FIANDACA

The data on the Class VIII Course saved my life. Being suddenly left alone to run a Mission, having never worn that hat before and without any administrative training the odds looked impossible but the tech saved me. The Mission has expanded beautifully. In fact, we are noted for our continual delivery of Standard Tech which I am very proud of. All of this is due to the fantastic data Ron gave me on his incredible Class VIII Course.

HELEN GELTMAN

The Class VIII Course after only a week of study has enabled me to change my whole life in a new and important way. The Class VIII Course has taught me to better evaluate importances and to sort out from the incredible wealth of the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course what is really important and truly basic. As a result I have found it is much easier to apply what I have learned of Scientology. Plus I have noticed a big increase in my personal power as a being. My hat is off to Ron.
