DIANETICS™ and SCIENTOLOGY® co-auditing: A way to get up both sides of the Bridge!

CO-AUDIT DEFINED

by L. Ron Hubbard

The co-audit is an early Scientology and Dianetics innovation.

It was the bright idea used in the early days to get a lot of auditing done in more volume and on a broader scale than would ever have been possible on a one-for-one basis at that time. It was also the means of training the many who were demanding training in this new technology, and providing them with the opportunity to get their own cases handled while at the same time giving them a subjective reality on the processes they were delivering to them.

The term "co-auditing" is an abbreviation for "cooperative auditing".

A CO-AUDIT IS: A TEAM OF ANY TWO PEOPLE WHO ARE HELPING EACH OTHER REACH A BETTER LIFE WITH SCIENTOLOGY OR DIANETIC PROCESSING.

It is a cooperative action toward a very worthwhile goal. It was then and is today a very valuable tool.

Co-audits are our quickest and most economical way of restoring vitality and purpose to the society, something I know all Scientologists are working with me to achieve.

Co-audits will handle the many, staff and public alike, who are reaching for those auditing actions which will bring them up through the next levels toward clearing and who are willing to bootstrap their way up through these levels.

THE PURPOSE OF A CO-AUDIT IS TO GET CO-AUDITORS UP THE GRADE CHART.

TYPES OF CO-AUDITS

Co-auditing is not a limited activity. Any pair of Scientologists who have the interest and desire to help each other up the Grade Chart can co-audit.

There are beginners' co-audits for new people. There are professional co-audits for trained auditors. Where specially designed co-audit packages are issued, non-professional co-audits can now be conducted for public on some of the first steps of the Grade Chart.

HAS CO-AUDIT

The HAS Co-Audit is for new public who have had no previous experience with the subject of auditing at all. Under very close supervision and using processes which undercut most reality levels, it gives a person new to Scientology his first taste of auditing, both as an auditor and as a preclear.

HAS co-audits are a fabulously successful way of introducing new public to the gains available to them through auditing and training. HAS co-auditors discover for themselves, through giving and receiving auditing, that Scientology and Dianetic auditing is workable technology which enables them to help others and be helped in return.

HAS co-auditors frequently attain greatly improved levels of communication, responsibility and certainty. Some have major case gain.

CO-AUDITING OF SPECIFIC RUNDOWNS

Rundown co-audits are especially designed co-audit packages set up to permit co-audit team members, regardless of their training or lack of it, to audit each other through the full steps of that rundown.

Included in a rundown co-audit are any and all study and training steps needed to prepare co-auditors to successfully audit each other to the full EP of the rundown.

SURVIVAL RUNDOWN CO-AUDIT

The Survival Rundown is the first individual rundown to be offered as a co-audit package. It takes co-auditors, even those with no previous tech training, and trains them up to do a very proficient job of delivering the Survival Rundown to one another—and has them delivering it as they learn!

This rundown co-audit gets the co-auditors into session, giving and receiving processing on the Survival Rundown, with tremendously successful results—and FAST.

OTHER RUNDOWN CO-AUDITS

It is expected that co-audit packages on other rundowns will be released from time to time in the future. These rundown co-audit packages would be carefully planned and tailored to include the minimal but correct and necessary training gradients for delivery to public as well as staff.

This does not mean that, in the absence of such a package for a specific rundown, co-auditing could not be done. Auditors trained in the skills of a level of a particular rundown could co-audit that rundown, provided they are at that level pc-wise and training-wise.

PROFESSIONAL CO-AUDITS

A professional co-audit is a co-audit between auditors trained on the skills of a level who are auditing each other on that level.

Professional co-audits have long been a favored and highly successful method whereby Scientologists could move up the auditing and training sides of the Bridge.

Professional co-audits are for auditors who are doing the Professional Training Route and for auditors who have completed their training but haven't themselves moved up the Grades. Professional co-audits are offered in Department 11 (Department of Training).

Academy and Briefing Course students could and should co-audit and get themselves up the Grade Chart as they go, in pace with their training.

Professional co-auditing can be done following each auditor training course. It can also be done on special co-audits set up by orgs so that these auditors can continue to co-audit under the supervision of org tech terminals and use org facilities.

Such co-audits for public students would be charged for at a nominal fee and would include C/Sing, etc.

A person can get all of his New Era Dianetics and Grades auditing on these co-audits.

Co-audits are for use. They quickly bring people up to doingness. There is no better exchange for the auditing one gets than to deliver it to another and that in itself produces gain.

Win on Both Sides of the Session With Co-Auditing

"Book One" co-audit groups are currently springing up all across the planet, using Dianetics: The Modern Science of Mental Health as a manual.

Co-auditing has a history almost as long as Dianetics™ and Scientology® auditing. Dianetics: The Modern Science of Mental Health hit the bookstands in 1950. There were no professional auditors. Wherever people read this exciting new book they began auditing each other to the remarkable gains attainable in Dianetics auditing. Co-auditing has continued through the years. On the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course in the early 60's when Ron personally supervised the course, students would listen as he lectured them on his latest researches into the nature of life, and the students would then audit each other on the exciting processes Ron had just told them about. Since then countless Scientologists have audited each other in co-audits on all stages of the Bridge to Clear.

The advantages of co-auditing have made it very popular over the years. As well as the increased abilities and tremendous wins brought about through auditing, a co-auditor gains an understanding of life through training. A co-auditor has the deep satisfaction also of really helping another break the chains that bind him and move toward total freedom! And co-auditing is by far a less expensive way of getting up the Bridge to OT!

ASHO has been called the best place on the planet to do co-auditing. Many people come to ASHO to get their tech training under ASHO's renowned course supervisors, and ASHO has two full time case supervisors C/Sing only for student auditing! With one of the largest body of students on technical courses, there are lots of opportunities at ASHO to find a co-audit twin for almost any auditing action!

The Saint Hill Special Briefing Course is a favorite of co-auditors! Briefing Course students study the full philosophy of Scientology technology and learn to become expert auditors, and so have the best auditors available for their co-audits! Co-auditing on the Briefing Course is free! If you're Class IV and need to do your Grades, the Briefing Course is the perfect place to do them! And you'll be very glad to have the data and skills you learned on the Briefing Course when you do your OT Levels!

To sign up for a co-audit at ASHO Day, fill in and return the enrollment form with this issue. The Letter Registrar who will answer your form will help you come to ASHO to start your co-audit right away.

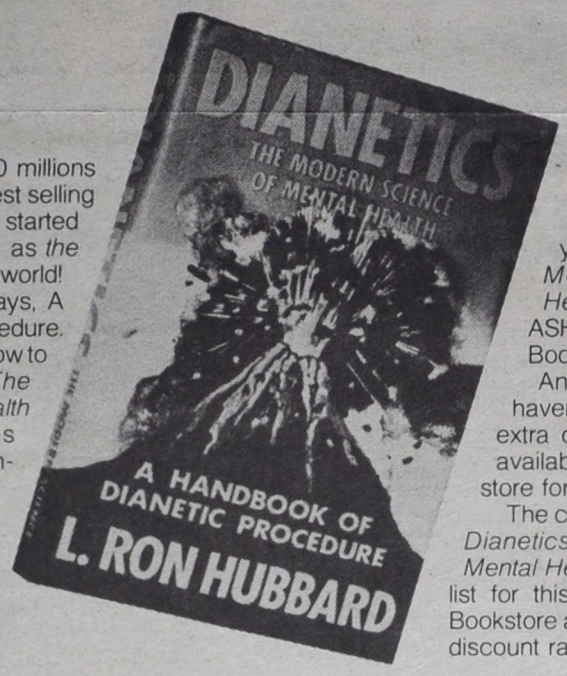

Class VIs Nancy and Bob Forrest, now both OT, audited each other on grades 0-4 on the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course. Co-auditing is common on the Briefing Course.

How well do you really know yourself?

Get up the Bridge with Co-auditing— The Least Expensive Route to OT!

"Book One" Co-audits are as old as Dianetics: The Modern Science of Mental Health. Many Scientologists around the world have had their first taste of the gains available in auditing—both as auditors and preclears—using only the knowledge and auditing skills taught in Dianetics. Currently there is a world-wide boom of Book One Auditing as millions of people are being exposed to benefits of Dianetics!

Co-auditing on the HQS Course and objectives are taught on self-contained courses where the student learns the processes and audits them on fellow students under the careful eye of a trained supervisor. These courses which teach processes designed to make persons more aware of their environment and better able to control it, are very popular with Scientologists. At ASHO Day the Survival Rundown is supervised by a Saint Hill Special Briefing Course graduate who uses his training to see that his graduates really get the full benefit and wins available on the Rundown!

Professional Co-audits are available to students on their Academy Levels and on the Saint Hill special Briefing Course. At ASHO Day on the Briefing Course the professional co-audit is free, and students do lots of co-auditing to meet their checksheet requirements and get each other up the Bridge. Auditing is carefully watched by the Briefing Course supervisor, and of course tough standards are demanded of the auditors. But with all the LRH tech that is on the Briefing Course, students find the gradients on the checksheets easy to do and the journey to Class VI very fun and rewarding.

A co-audit has many advantages as a way to get up the Bridge. While helping, one is getting helped. While getting the wins of auditing, one is getting the wins and valuable skills of training. Co-auditing is by far the least expensive route to OT. And the pleasure of seeing the person you are auditing going free is one of the greatest joys there is.

Focus on Success

Co-Auditing up the Bridge at ASHO Day

This was an excellent course. Aside from the auditing, which was neat, the co-audit part was great. I really enjoyed helping my twin and doing the steps which would enable both of us to survive better.

This was one of the best training cycles I've done in Scientology and I thank my supervisor, my C/S's, my twin, and of course Ron for giving us the tech to make it possible. —N.C.

A cycle completed, and I feel great! Having the data is one thing, but having the certainty that I can apply it is a whole new game. Watching my pc cognite and win was a blow out for me. And just knowing that I can apply the data I've learned has put me at more cause over my universe and that of others. I've totally duplicated what LRH means by auditor plus pc is greater than pc's bank and I can even apply that data at home and understand the reason for having good TRs and using them. The course was fund and I enjoyed every bit of it! —M.K.

I just finished the Survival Rundown Co-audit, and although the wins on the course are many there is one I'd like to express here.

This course has given me definite certainty that I can take causative action to personally assist one being in going free. And that may be the biggest win there is in this whole, very small, universe.

Thanks to LRH and my twin John. —P.P.

Prior to arriving at ASHO in 1979, we had co-audited a bit, but it was never easy. Arranging case supervising, etc. was always a chore.

We told the Director of Training at ASHO that we intended to co-audit our own grades and he said "fine"—we got right to work and had the entire staff of ASHO's Tech Division helping us with our auditing.

The amazing thing about co-auditing on the Briefing Course was listening to LRH say something on a tape one day and having the pc cognite on it the next day.

It was great for our second dynamic co-auditing—you can't pile up many overts on someone who audits you every day—our second dynamic went up the Grade Chart just as we did as individuals.

The ASHO staff gave us much support in our co-audit. Thanks to them we're both going home full OT 7 as well as Class VI. —R. and N.F.

Co-auditing is definitely the most rewarding way to go up the Bridge. The trust and ARC you create is unlike any other relationship you'll have. You get a chance as an auditor to really get to know another being and to tremendously help that being. And with all the help and responsibility out flowed, your exchange is fully in to receive your auditing gains. The closeness and duplication with your auditor is so high, you can experience incredible understanding both as an auditor and as a pc.

My first co-audit was with my husband. It definitely increased the love and understanding in our marriage. My second co-audit was with a girl I didn't know previously, and who is now one of my closest friends. We audited each other through Clear on Dianetics and she recently completed my Happiness Rundown. Our co-audit presently totals close to 1,000 hours in the chair. Needless to say with those statistics it is a tremendously successful co-audit. And I also have a co-audit with a friend who I trained with on the Academy Levels. I just completed his OT set-ups and he is now completing mine.

A co-audit is the best way to get the gains that both sides of the Bridge offer. I'm currently on the Briefing Course and my co-auditor is a Class VI. It is quite comforting to know, both as a pc and as an auditor, that you have the tech to handle most any situation that could arise in a session. The data you learn on the Briefing Course sets you up for huge cognitions in session—again, both as pc and auditor. You have the understanding behind aberration and therefore can fully duplicate your pc's case as well as really understanding your own charge as it blows. I wouldn't trade my experience co-auditing for anything. —A.B.

SUNSHINE RUNDOWN: a special rundown that follows the Dianetic Clear Special Intensive and precedes the Solo Auditor's Course on the Grade Chart.
SURVIVAL RUNDOWN: the rundown that gets a person as a thetan better aware of his body and his physical surroundings, in better communication with these things and in better control of them.
THETAN: the person himself—not his body or his name, the physical universe, his mind, or anything else, that which is aware of being aware, the identity which is the individual. The thetan is most familiar to one and all as you.
TRs: training regimen or routine. Often referred to as a training drill.

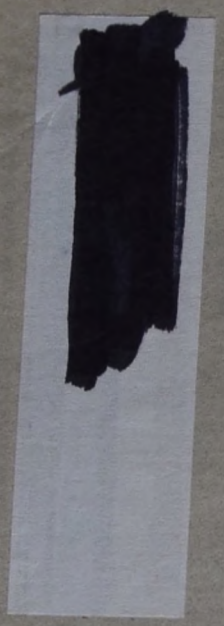

Get the Best Training Available for Yourself and Your Co-Auditor— The Saint Hill Special Briefing Course

Ron established and taught the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course to make planet-Clearing Auditors—Class VI's. As a graduate of the Briefing Course you have a full philosophic command of auditing tech and are an expert auditor. Class VI's have the knowledge of Scientology to fully understand what is going on in session, and they have the full skills needed to keep their pc's winning all the way!

The Briefing Course consists of a comprehensive study of Dianetics and Scientology from 1948 to present time. Full time, under ASHO's excellent Sea Org supervisors, the course can be done in four months. Prerequisites are: Class IV OR CLEAR.

Put out your postulate to do the Briefing Course! Sign up today! Check off the Briefing Course line on the Enrollment Form with this issue and send it in now!
