"If things were a little better known and understood, we would all lead happier lives."

My Philosophy

by L. Ron Hubbard

® 1965 by LRH

The subject of philosophy is very ancient. The word means: "The love, study or pursuit of wisdom, or of knowledge of things and their causes, whether theoretical or practical."

All we know of science or of religion comes from philosophy. It lies behind and above all other knowledge we have or use.

For long regarded as a subject reserved for halls of learning and the intellectual, the subject, to a remarkable degree, has been denied the man in the street.

Surrounded by protective coatings of impenetrable scholarliness, philosophy has been reserved to the privileged few.

The first principle of my own philosophy is that wisdom is meant for anyone who wishes to reach for it. It is the servant of commoner and king alike and should never be regarded with awe.

Selfish scholars seldom forgive anyone who seeks to break down the walls of mystery and let the people in. Will Durant, the modern American philosopher, was relegated to the scrap heap by his fellow scholars when he wrote a popular book on the subject, The Outline of Philosophy. Thus brickbats come the way of any who seeks to bring wisdom to the people over the objections of the "inner circle."

The second principle of my own philosophy is that it must be capable of being applied.

Learning locked in mildewed books is of little use to anyone and therefore of no value unless it can be used.

The third principle is that any philosophic knowledge is only valuable if it is true or if it works.

These three principles are so strange to the field of philosophy, that I have given my philosophy a name: SCIENTOLOGY. This means only "knowing how to know."

A philosophy can only be a route to knowledge. It cannot be crammed down one's throat. If one has a route, he can then find what is true for him. And that is Scientology.

Know Thyself . . . and the truth shall set you free.

Therefore, in Scientology, we are not concerned with individual actions and differences. We are only concerned with how to show Man how he can set himself free.

This, of course, is not very popular with those who depend upon the slavery of others for their living or power. But it happens to be the only way I have found that really improves an individual's life.

Suppression and oppression are the basic causes of depression. If you relieve those a person can lift his head, become well, become happy with life.

And though it may be unpopular with the slave master, it is very popular with the people.

Common man likes to be happy and well. He likes to be able to understand things, and he knows his route to freedom lies through knowledge.

Therefore, for 15 years I have had Mankind knocking on my door. It has not mattered where I have lived or how remote, since I first published a book on the subject, my life has no longer been my own.

I like to help others and count it as my greatest pleasure in life to see a person free himself of the shadows which darken his days.

These shadows look so thick to him, and weigh him down so, that when he finds they are shadows and that he can see through them, walk through them and be again in the sun, he is enormously delighted. And I am afraid I am just as delighted as he is.

I have seen much human misery. As a very young man I wandered through Asia and saw the agony and misery of overpopulated and underdeveloped lands. I have seen people uncaring and stepping over dying men in the streets. I have seen children less than rags and bones. And amongst this poverty and degradation I found holy places where wisdom was great, but where it was carefully hidden and given out only as superstition. Later, in Western universities, I saw Man obsessed with materiality and with all his cunning, I saw him hide what little wisdom he really had in forbidding halls and make it inaccessible to the common and less favored man. I have been through a terrible war and saw its terror and pain uneased by a single word of decency or humanity.

I have lived no cloistered life and hold in contempt the wise man who has not lived and the scholar who will not share.

There have been many wiser men than I, but few have travelled as much road.

I have seen life from the top down and the bottom up. I know how it looks both ways. And I know there is wisdom and that there is hope.

Blinded with injured optic nerves, and lame with physical injuries to hip and back, at the end of World War II, I faced an almost nonexistent future. My Service record stated: "This officer has no neurotic or psychotic tendencies of any kind whatsoever," but it also stated "permanently disabled physically."

And so there came a further blow... I was abandoned by family and friends as a supposedly hopeless cripple and a probable burden upon them for the rest of my days. I yet worked my way back to fitness and strength in less than two years, using only what I knew and could determine about Man and his relationship to the universe. I had no one to help me; what I had to know I had to find out. And it's quite a trick studying when you cannot see.

I became used to being told it was all impossible, that there was no way, no hope. Yet I came to see again and walk again, and I built an entirely new life. It is a happy life, a busy one and I hope a useful one. My only moments of sadness are those which come when bigoted men tell others all is bad and there is no route anywhere, no hope anywhere, nothing but sadness and sameness and desolation, and that every effort to help others is false. I know it is not true.

So my own philosophy is that one should share what wisdom he has, one should help others to help themselves, and one should keep going despite heavy weather for there is always a calm ahead. One should also ignore catcalls from the selfish intellectual who cries: "Don't expose the mystery. Keep it all for ourselves. The people cannot understand."

But as I have never seen wisdom do any good kept to oneself, and as I like to see others happy, and as I find the vast majority of the people can and do understand, I will keep on writing and working and teaching so long as I exist.

For I know no man who has any monopoly upon the wisdom of this universe. It belongs to those who can use it to help themselves and others.

If things were a little better known and understood, we would all lead happier lives.

And there is a way to know them and there is a way to freedom.

The old must give way to the new, falsehood must become exposed by truth, and truth, though fought, always in the end prevails.

Getting the Word Out — Expansion News!

Ron's Journal 38, "Today and Tomorrow: The Proof" tells of the real wins that the Church has had over the past year. The expansion hasn't stopped! More wins are pouring in as Scientologists all over the worl are rolling up their sleeves and getting the job of planet-Clearing done!

Here are some of the "late breaking" expansion wins items:

The Way To Happiness

The latest figures in show that over three million copies of Ron's booklet The Way to Happiness have been printed and distributed! In October Ron issued a commendation to The Way To Happiness Committee and those who have been effective in distributing The Way To Happiness on a broad international basis.

This piece of LRH technology, probably the first non-religious moral code ever produced, continues to cause miracles around the world. Here is what one woman from New Hampshire reports:

"I wanted to let everyone know the wonderful success I've had with passing out The Way To Happiness to a few of my neighbors.

"We were having quite a bit of noise due to yelling, racing cars and motorcycles. There was one house where the husband physically threatened his wife and fulfilled his threat. The wife, in turn, consistently yelled at the top of her lungs.

"I went door-to-door and passed out THE WAY TO HAPPINESS. That evening was the first time since we moved in that it was ever so quiet. I mean it was really still! The week nights are even quieter and I'd never even considered they were loud before. It's definitely a nicer place to live now."

TV audiences around the world – in approximately 83 countries were able to see a 40 foot mock up of the cover of The Way To Happiness as a float in the Hollywood Christmas Parade, 100,000 copies of the booklet were passed out to people attending the parade as it wound its way through the Southern California city.

Concerned Businessmen of America, a volunteer organization which has been promoting The Way To Happiness in communities in Los Angeles, has been invited to participate in a series of TV programs for public Television that will cover youth, the problems of crime and youth, and how The Way To Happiness may be used as a tool of positive influence in helping youth and the prevention of crime. The Concerned Businessmen of America was awarded a special presentation by the Mayor of Los Angeles for its work with youth in the city.

DIANETICS Campaign News – Seven Million Mark Achieved!

Recently the 7 millionth copy of DIANETICS: The Modern Science of Mental Health was sold, only months after the 6 millionth copy was sold! The game is already on to sell the eight millionth copy – in less that two months! To meet the target, the DIANETICS campaign has taken off like a rocket. Here's the latest good news:

— Sales of DIANETICS books in B. Dalton's bookstores, the largest US bookstore chain and one of the key indicators of nation-wide sales, are soaring up to the sky. Recently for the second two weeks of four they hit highest evers. The second week they topped 1500, which was three times the previous high of 500.

— Sales were especially high in Chicago where Kroch and Brentano's, the largest chain in that area, reported that DMSMH was #11 on their mass market list. This puts it up there with the top-selling brand new titles.

— An awareness survey has just been done to measure the public's awareness of DIANETICS, and an astonishing fact has been discovered: when people are asked to "name a self help book", DIANETICS is the one that comes to mind, far over and above any other title. 11% of those surveyed so far named DIANETICS without any prompting. The survey has continued, and if the survey results continue, this means DIANETICS is the best known self-help book in the US!

— As part of the actions of the campaign, DIANETICS was one of the sponsors of the US-USSR pre-olympic hockey game. The game was broadcast to millions of Americans and, by satellite, to people round the world. By being a sponsor of the game, there were not only DIANETICS advertisement spots on the air, but there was also a huge billboard sign around the rink. This sign was positioned right at the center of the rink and was visible everytime the puck and players swept back and forth in a very action-packed game (which the US won).

— DIANETICS campaigns are already in progress or being set up in several countries outside the US. Among them are Denmark (where DIANETICS attained the status of best-seller last year), Germany, Sweden, Italy, France, and Spain. Canada also recently got a special Sea Org™ unit to run its own DIANETICS campaign. In charge of the campaign are Claudine Chatel, an actress who has starred in a well-known soap opera for twelve years, and her husband Michel George, himself and actor who has appeared on radio and TV. A public relations tour as well as advertizing is already moving forward. This is the first-ever professional campaign for DIANETICS in Canada.

— News from the other end of the Americas: There is now a pilot project being worked on to get the Basic Study Manual (LRH Study Technology) used in the schools of the country of Colombia. This grew out of the highly successful Hispanic DIANETICS program in progress in the US.

Focus on Success – Auditors Win on the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course

Look out world! Three New Class VII Auditors graduate all on the same day: Clark Carr (left), Georgann Johnson, and Bruce Dobin.

I audited my pc* and in auditing I could confront and handle aberrations which in life before made me cringe. I am very much more at cause than I have been. I am handling my life and environment, mainly because my viewpoint has shifted to Cause.

I also recovered a very valuable thing for me – PRIDE.

– Catherine Weaver

Finishing the Briefing Course gives you the whole view: you learn to handle anything that can go wrong with a person. That really gives you a lot of certainty, a lot of confidence. Self-respect and self-worth, knowing that one can really help a person, really comes up.

People I've audited are happy people, happy and stable, and it's a tremendous satisfaction to me to see them do well. They're doing better in life – things go better – they're postulates* work and they go up the Bridge [Grade Chart]. So, they win and I win too.

I really encourage people to do the Briefing Course. It's a very valuable gift LRH has given us – the power to fix somebody up – that's tremendous. But I really encourage people even if they want it for their own life. Everybody should do it whatever they're going to do – it's hatting* in life they can't miss.

– Luis Mateos

As I go along through the Briefing Course it becomes increasingly more natural for me to apply the tech to all areas of life.

Having been a Scientologist for a relatively short period of time I have received very strong support from family members who, not being Scientologists yet themselves, believed in me and my reach and could see the unmistakable changes for the better I had been making as a Scientologist.

Recently a very close friend, my mother, had to go in the hospital under an emergency. This lady is a real gem and I value her very highly. Because of what I have learned as a Briefing Course student I was able to be with her in her recovery and to provide her with her first auditing in the form of an assist.*

During the time of her assist three major wins occurred: one, she loved the process and made her first really obvious self originated reach for Scientology tech, two, the residual affects of her physical condition were very largely eliminated, three, the level of ARC* between us moved into a whole new range – and we were already on very good terms!

Additionally, during our visit, I was able to do assists on three other members of my and my husband's family – all to good results. Also, another family member originated a request for help for another person, thus opening up an entirely new communication line!

That was a month ago and now, two of the people who got assists last month want to do the purif*!!

These wins were simply not available to me prior to the Briefing Course.

— Colleen Piper

Level A of the Briefing Course: contained in these early materials are the ways to life products. A Scientologist™ ought to be able to resolve problems in a great many areas, auditing is the first of these. With the data in these basic books, tapes, etc. I can expand out from this first area of auditing and into others and become a Scientologist in the fullest sense of the word. I am looking forward to more expansion via the other Briefing Course levels – looking forward with enthusiasm.

Special thank yous to my course supervisor, and to Ron, my Guide.

— Delys DeCoursey

I fully understand now why some act as crazy as they do — one cannot "live life" or "play the game of life" without the data on the Briefing Course — the reason some act as they do is life is "playing them"!

Level B was quite a joy to do. LRH's genius is incredible, and we all owe our life to him!

I would also like to "tip my hat" to the ASHO Day Crew for their excellent service.

— Georgann Johnson

I went to visit my family — I took each one aside, eleven of them in all, and ran "Reach and Withdraw"* on each one individually. My nephew gave up pot while I was home – his brother started to study – my mother was amazed with how pleasant an exterior* viewpoint was – my Dad went exterior and had many cognitions* – and so on. When I left, my family as a group had come more uptone* and has continued to do so since then.

I had just finished learning and running objective processes* on the Briefing Course before that trip. So how about that?!

— Freyda Labbe

Wow! I was trained within an inch of my life! I feel like an expert! This was more valuable to me than anything else in SCIENTOLOGY Tech, including the OT Levels.

— John Pou

Really Help People — Be an Auditor!

You can be the effect of something unless you know the tech to handle it! Life itself is like that – unless you're skilled in handling life, it can be rough going! Ron has developed the tech to make life understandable – it's the technology of auditing. Auditors know why people act the way they do, and auditors have the tools to help people out and better conditions for all.

If there is someone in your life who could use your help, give it to them! Become a trained DIANETICS counsellor and SCIENTOLOGY auditor now! The Classification and Gradation Chart points the way and the standard study technology Ron has developed makes the journey easy.

To get on you next training step, contact the Registrar at your local SCIENTOLOGY Church (addresses for Churches around the world are listed on the back page of The Auditor), or contact the Registrar at ASHO. The Registrar will be glad to assist you! Ask him about Scholarships for course donations that you may qualify for.

Ron Says Why You Should Be an Auditor

Reasons to Be Trained

From the Works of L. Ron Hubbard

* 1975 by LRH

"When a person is Trained, he has the know-how to handle all situations in life. This training is essential to build respect for one's self and others."

"Training is 50% of the Route."

"With Training, you can outflow the Technology to help others. This will build Respect, Trust and Integrity in YOU."

"Training is using Scientology, it allows one to help Clear the planet, it allows you to really get on the Bridge."

"In the end, you will be able to say YOU helped."

"An advantage of Training is to know the Technology and handle life and livingness and increase your own personal well-being."

"The un-trained one can be gotten out of the mess mankind is in, but the only way to stay out and make sure it doesn't happen again is — Get Trained."

"Training puts one more at cause over aberration and aberrating influences."

"Training makes the able more able."

"Training enables one to get along far more successfully in life, thus you achieve a personal well-being."

Whereas Auditing handles past upsets, Training shows you how to handle things as they occur in present time. This Training adds enhancement to your personal well-being."

"In Training, you get a real understanding of how the reactive mind works."

"One should be an Auditor to be effective on all dynamics."

"Auditors are the most valuable beings on the planet."

"Training provides certainty on life and living."

"With Training, you will get along with people better, this is because you are more of yourself when Trained."

"Training stabilizes your gains by giving you the knowledge behind why Auditing makes you feel good."

"Trained Auditors make the best Executives."

"There's nothing like the feeling you've helped a person build his personal integrity and self respect. As a Trained Auditor, you helped."

"There are billions of pcs on this planet, be unique and be one of the few Auditors."

"With Training, you can for the first time in millions of years, really do something about the condition of planet Earth."

"Training is the more economical route to Clear."

"Being a pc, you can actually miss out on a lot, one half of your gains comes from Training — don't miss out on them."

"You become more capable and able as a being once you know the mechanics and workings of the mind and how a Thetan reacts. You get all the knowledge on each subject or part you study. From that, you, yourself, can develop and increase your own abilities and therefore make tremendous gains by just study alone. You get data you can actually use in life. You make things happen for you which others would think miracles."

"As a pc, you see one side of the reason why you have headaches or can't speak to people (or whatever) but have you ever wondered how it is that the Auditor knows how to get you to cognite why this is? Have you ever wondred why the mind was ever created? Have you ever wondered what ever happened to make the reactive bank stick with a being and control him? Have you ever wanted to control a situation, where there was confusion and many random particles — and you found your efforts were not successful? Well, when you know the mechanics of the mind and the powers of a Thetan with the Technical data of how to handle, such situations are easily handled in your day to day experiences."

"To really become OT, it is necessary to know HOW the Tech works as well as WHY. You get this knowledge only through Training."

"In order to get the level of competence, awareness, cause level, (etc) you desire, YOU must duplicate all LRH has written. To know what LRH has written in his Policy and Bulletins and Courses, to apply this in full, you increase your abilities."

"With Training, you learn how to help others live a better life."

"With Training, you learn to get along with others."

"Scientology provides you with a workable philosophy of life."

"Training provides you with an understanding of yourself and others."

"Training gives you the most valuable asset you can have – an understanding of yourself and others."

"If you want to learn how to get along with others, get Technically Trained."

"Training gives you the tools with which to handle your career, your associates, your problems and your worries."

"With Training, you learn to help others, how to help yourself, and how to contribute better in any field of endeavor. But more importantly, Training gives you the means to live a life of understanding."

"You really can't Clear the Planet or bring it any lasting betterment, unless you have Ron's Technology and use it."

"With Training, when the chips are down, you're still at cause."

"If you take the Training Route, you are a better Auditor at Solo levels. You have more and faster case gain, if you know the material, you have the satisfaction of auditing, and the value of Training in life and livingness."

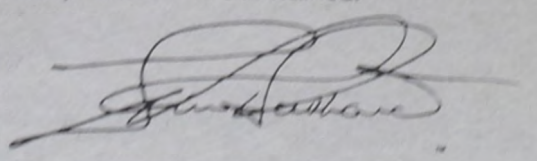

"With Training, YOU can audit someone and make them sane."

"You owe it to yourself, (to get Trained) it is the sane investment in the long run."

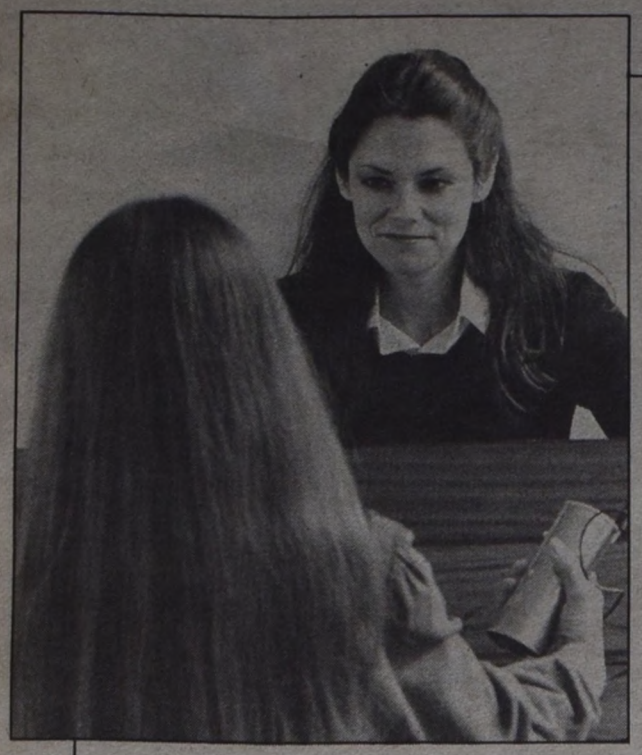

"It takes a person with responsibility to Train."

"Training increases one's ability to handle life."

"Have the personal satisfaction of knowing you can help others — Get Trained."

From LRH Executive Directive 258-1 International

Please help forward auditor training and increase the number of auditors in the world by filling out this survey and returning it as fast as possible. Mailing instructions are at the end of the survey.

Best,

The Auditor Editor
