The Skills of an Auditor

® 1958 by LRH.

by L. Ron Hubbard

It's quite amazing that the greatest skills are those which appear to be the most casual, the simplest, the least difficult.

Until you go out and try to walk a high wire a hundred feet above the sawdust, or hold 40 lions and 40 tigers in leash with a whip, it might look easy. But when you're in there, it's not all that easy. You fire the gun too quick in the face of Rosie the Roll-Over Tiger, and you've had it!

Comparing auditing to these highly dangerous professions is not done idly. Auditing is a very dangerous profession — if you don't know how! On the other hand, a good auditor, who is skilled, doing his work well and accomplishing his mission, finds himself in the peculiar position of being at cause point over an awful lot of people. Things don't baffle him any more.

Sometime between the first moment he decides that walking tight wires looks easy and his first major success, he has question marks. He has lots of question marks. But one has to start somewhere. Even a trapeze artist or a lion tamer had to start somewhere. If a person wants to be an auditor, the thing for him to do is start — and face bluntly the fact that he's going to flub, make mistakes and fall on his face before he finally breaks through and can all of a sudden audit with the greatest of ease.

A slightly trained auditor, willing to do his job and willing to help people, is senior to a Clear. If you don't believe this, take a Clear who has never been trained in any way and say to him, "You've been very worried about your Uncle George? Well, why don't you just go on over and clear up your Uncle George." And he'll say, "Huh?" Possibly it has never occurred to him to do anything for anybody like that. Possibly, while you were going through the motions, he was busy with his case and never really noticed what this thing called auditing was. Now he's Clear, he's in good shape, he feels better than he's ever felt before, and yet he feels that somehow, somewhere, something has eluded him.

On the other hand, somebody just off the farm comes in for professional auditor training, and in the first week, you have him jumping through hoops, diving under chairs, firing off small guns — he can do something! Oh, he's still as aberrated as the devil — he has sciatica, lumbosis, upper ventricular-nosis, neurotic tendencies and traits — yet at the end of that first week's training, he can sit there and talk to somebody. He's able to start a session and persevere somehow.

Case-wise, he is tremendously inferior to a Clear. He has to put up with things that a Clear doesn't have to put up with. The fellow that he is auditing says, "There I was, going down the left hand side of the track..." and all of a sudden this horrible feeling of nausea comes over the auditor. Now, auditors are not supposed to be restimulated, that's part of his training, so he just shuts it off. But nevertheless, it is nausea. After the session, he says to himself, "I wonder if I've got an engram that has the phrase in it, 'left hand side of the track'? Let's see, 'Left hand side of the track', 'left hand side of the track'..." Well, his fellow students pick him up and take some Scotch tape and glue, hang him back together again and shove him into the next session. And if he learns to audit while he's still aberrated, he has now done something that a Clear no longer has an opportunity to do. He has been able to confront his own case, while confronting the case of somebody else and keeping the show on the road at the same time. This is the greatest high-wire feat in human history!

The person who is studying to become a Scientologist is faced with difficulties, problems, and complications which make lion taming look rather mild. After all, you can see the lion when he bites you, and you know what is biting you, which is a great comfort. But when somebody says, "left hand side of the track," you don't always know what's biting you!

An auditor is counting on sheer guts to get him through, and when he gets through, he knows he's done something. He is totally aware of the fact that, come hell or high water, he can somehow or other poise his way through almost anything. He can do something about it and he can confront it. He has a much wider, broader view of life and people than any person, regardless of state of case, who is not an auditor.

This is a point which the public at large may miss: The auditor is somebody who is three feet back of the society's head. He does things. He is effective. He makes things happen.

Auditing is practically priceless. It has never before existed, and one of these fine days you'll get an idea of its value, a very clear idea of its value.

How much is auditing worth? Well, how much is a human life worth? You could ask any king, as he lies on his deathbed, "What is the value of a continued existence?" He has his palace and his queen, eight mistresses, the treasury, the crown jewels and so forth. He would think hard, because it wouldn't seem to him that that was enough. None of his possessions would be enough to buy what he now wants.

Therefore, when you are dealing with the value of auditing, you'll find it's not something that can be valued. By all means, go ahead and accept donations, and throw it in the bank account so the manager will be happy, and to make the tradesmen that deal with you happy. It's all right to make them happy. Go ahead and accept any amount you want as a donation — but don't think you're being paid. That would be silly, because to put any value to it would be to undervalue it! If you were getting ten thousand dollars an hour, you'd still be underpaid, and basically everyone realizes this.

Well then, how can a person pay this debt?

'A few times, people have gotten in good enough shape and they've come around to me and they've said, "What's the favor I owe you?" And I've said, "Just help people, that's all." '

Way back when, when I was doing quite a bit of auditing, I always told the pc that he owed me something: he owed me a favor, and that I would call for it sometime. I wouldn't tell them what it was. I thought when they got in good enough shape, they might appreciate granting a favor. A few times, people have gotten in good enough shape and they've come around to me and they've said, "What's the favor I owe you?" And I've said, "Just help people, that's all."

Only a Scientologist can truly pay a Scientologist. He can co-audit with him. You audit them, they give you some auditing in return. Only a Scientologist, an auditor, can pay the debt. A Clear can never pay the debt, if he can't audit.

It's only fair that a Clear, or a pre-clear, would be permitted to pay it back one way or another on the auditor's terms. Whatever he paid you in cash didn't pay for it. You could always say, "Well, now you owe me a favor," and just let it stand. Now he can pay you back — he can go out and make the society more decent to live in. But he'd have to become an auditor to do it.

An auditor is on a broader career than merely being a capable individual. He's already doing something. Clear, unclear, aberrated or half-spinning most of the time, he's still doing something in the widest, highest field there is, which is the inter-relationships of life. And there is no higher field.

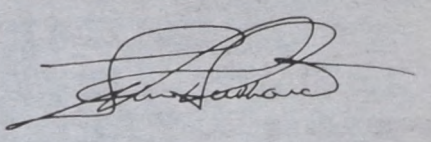

All you have to do, as an auditor, is be effective, do your job, do effective things and accomplish your mission. And if you accomplish your mission with a single preclear, you increase your confidence and your general ability, you become more stable and capable in what you can do for the universe at large, and you win.

Modern auditing takes time to learn. There's a tremendous amount of understanding involved in it. There are millions of words written on this subject. There's theory and practice. There are drills and other things that one has to learn.

But the moment a person goes to a Comm Course and starts in on his HAS, he is already walking a track which is higher than the track to Clear.

If you weren't good people who wanted to help your fellow man, you wouldn't have started on this track at all, so you'll find routinely that desire for training as an auditor winds up eventually in an ability to audit, to give a terrific session and to be very effective.

Just deciding, in the first place, to be an auditor is the first step.

Expansion News!

BOOK ONE Auditors at a recent event — 75-80 sessions went on at one time!

Dianetics: The Modern Science of Mental Health is taking the planet!

LRH books being published in more and more languages!

★ Publicaciones Europa-America, a large publisher in PORTUGAL, has contracted to take DMSMH, SELF ANALYSIS, and PROBLEMS OF WORK and is now working on the translations of these books. They have originiated a marketing plan to us that includes utilizing seminars. Their intention is to make DIANETICS a "big movement" in PORTUGAL.

★ A publisher named Angkasa in INDONESIA has contracted to publish PROBLEMS OF WORK and has already completed the translation.

★ A HONG KONG distributor who has lines to major media has taken DMSMH and has gotten radio ads and video ads to use over there. He plans to publish in Chinese if he sells enough of the English Edition.

★ One of the three largest publishers in YUGOSLAVIA, Mladinska Knjiga, has contracted to take DMSMH, SELF ANALYSIS, and PROBLEMS OF WORK. As there are many languages in Yugoslavia, they have contracted out to another compay (Jumena) who will publish the first edition in the Croatian language. DMSMH and SELF ANALYSIS have already been translated and the Jumena publisher has also appeared on Yugoslavian TV on a popular science show to talk about DIANETICS: THE MODERN SCIENCE OF MENTAL HEALTH!

Huge Weekend DIANETICS Workshop and Celebration

On the weekend of May 19 & 20, a huge DIANETICS Workshop was held at the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles, USA – the same place where LRH held his lecture and demonstration of DIANETICS techniques and introduced one of the first Clears!

This was in celebration of the 34th Anniversary of DMSMH, and over 155 DIANETICS Spiritual Healing Technology Auditors were trained over the weekend. These auditors not only did the theory training but at the workshop actually took someone into session.

Some auditors ran short of PCs and they actually went outside to the local area surrounding the Shrine and found their own PCs right off the street.

There were as many as 75-80 or more sessions going on at one time by Sunday 20 May!

Here are some of the success stories of the PCs and auditors at the Workshop:

★ "It was great! I ran through an engram. I had a headache while running through the engram, but it got cleared up and recalling that incident doesn't feel bad anymore! Thanks a whole bunch to L. Ron Hubbard for giving us the tech you have!" E.A.

★ "Through the two sessions I have had so far I have realized gigantic wins:

"Gains in personal relationships.

"Gains in physical ability and stamina.

"Gains in mental ability and clearness.

"After reading the book, I knew the techniques would work! But book printing has nothing compared to the actual effect upon oneself!" R.J.K.

Here are some of the wins submitted for the DIANETICS Miracle of the Week:

★ One recent graduate from the HDA Course in Sacramento walked into a hospital and put a patient into session. This man had been having trouble with his foot for years with no results, despite many operations. After the session, the problem was blown and later the man walked out of the hospital!

★ A man called the Santa Barbara Org wanting auditing as he'd read DMSMH. He was told to come in and bring money. When he showed up, he was a wreck. He had been drinking daily and was shaking. He had also been in jail. He was told that he'd have to stop drinking and take vitamins but that he could have no guarantees as he was in bad shape. He did what he was told and got some auditing. He had been unable to hold a job, and in just a couple of weeks, he not only was no longer drinking but also had 2 jobs! He still managed to get in every day for his sessions between holding two jobs!!

★ A field Auditor was giving free intro BOOK ONE™ sessions in Salt Lake City. A woman came to see him who was in so much pain that she could hardly walk. She had had a couple of touch assists after which her chiropractor couldn't believe the change in her condition. But even with lots of Cal Mag (calcium and magnesium), she still hurt a lot and could hardly walk. After about one hour and ten minutes, the session was ended. The woman bent over and went very good indicators! She said "I can bend! It doesn't hurt!" and walked out showing everyone that she could now walk!!

Focus On Success – On the Way to a Cleared Planet – Wins from the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course

"And two more days to finish your Level!" Daryl Herzer gets a target from the Briefing Course Theory Section Supervisor

PURPOSES: ACHIEVED!

In the first chapter of DSMSH LRH said, "You are beginning an adventure. Treat it as an adventure. And may you never be the same again."

I read that at the beginning of the Level A Checksheet. Forty books and 300 tapes later, I can honestly say I've had an adventure! And I'll never be the same again!

The SHSBC has been the most worthwhile cycle of action I have ever done in this universe.

I did the BC for various reasons. One of them was to get a complete understanding of the Tech so that when I audit there would be absence of roteness. Accomplished.

Another reason I did the BC was so I completely knew about the Reactive Mind and what it is composed of. Accomplished.

Another reason: to get to the point as an auditor in which I considered myself a technician. In HCOB 3 May 62R LRH said, "There is an exact and precise auditor action and response for every auditing situation, and for every case." When I first read that it was on my Academy Levels. I decided that I wanted to get to the level as an auditor in which I would have the correct response for every auditing situation. I cognited that this is what we call Standard Tech. I wanted to become a Technician. The BC gave me that. When I take a PC in session now I feel calm and confident. I know the tech and I know it works.

In full gratitude to L. Ron Hubbard for the technology.

Bruce Dobin

FROM "SPECTATOR" TO "CAUSE"

I came into Scientology so that I could handle the people around me, and change them for the better.

I have had some success in this before Level C, but Level C is where I finally made the big jump from wondering about the people around me, to being able to be cause. In other words, from "spectator" to "cause".

I've change from being a fan in the stands to being a pitcher on the mound, to make an analogy. And from here I can only get better and better.

There are many other wins and gains I've had on this course, but this sums it up the best. I'm very very pleased.

Thank you very much everyone that helped. Now I know I can help.

Catherine Weaver

HELPING AN OLD FRIEND

I had a very nice win over the weekend with an old friend of mine who is not a Scientologist.

I called her because I know she was not doing well. I was right!

It was wonderful to have the tech to give to her. She is a very able and ethical being and everything indicated completely!! She was very blown out that I had called and that our short comm cycle was right on the mark in every respect.

I was happy to help her be more causative. You know – it is possible to just talk with a Thetan without all the social jazz.

This cycle really validated my certainties on ARC and communication. Thanks for the tech, Ron!

Nancee Braan

THE ONLY WAY TO REALLY BE FREE

I'm not quite the same. Aberration just doesn't have the same hold on me anymore. I have for the first time really duplicated OT states and see how responsiblity ties in with this. I see why one has to take responsibility for his fellows and why it's the only way for a being to really be free.

I've gotten a taste of competency as an auditor and want more! Mass no longer has the same meaning nor power, either physical or mental, for I know I am the cause.

Life confusions churn up and blow off. Case gain and awareness increases abound.

Lynn Ferry

INVALUABLE KNOWLEDGE

What can I say about the whole BC – it's hard to even begin. I've gone through so many changes on this course – it has changed my life in so many ways! Level F specifically rehabilitated my purpose for being an auditor – I feel very good about auditing and my ability to produce good results. Level F went very "A to B" for me, especially with the help of my supervisors and twins. Everything became very simple when I realized all I had to do was read and understand the Tech and then go apply it standardly. We've got the easy job – we didn't have to find this stuff or research it. It's given to us on a silver platter and all we have to do is audit. And it's a lot easier to do it right than it is to do it incorrectly. I will have all this knowledge FOREVER and that is invaluable!

I can't thank LRH enough for this course.

Lisa Boyd

GETTING TO KNOW THE BASICS

I have been a Scientologist for 18 years and I have read all of the basic books many times.

Being on the BC has made a profound difference in my reality with LRH and his brilliant work. Studying and demoing the material in sequence, without missing a single word has made the difference between knowing about the basics, and Knowing the basics. The early material in DIANETICS is as true now as it was when it was discovered and written by LRH in the 1950's. This is the data that is worth knowing and vital to know because from these basics come all of the truth that is SCIENTOLOGY [philosophy].

Once again, thanks LRH.

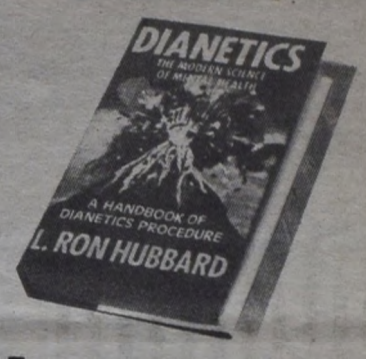

Gary Brennan

THE END OF A SEARCH

This is a wonderful course. I have been looking for this data and this certainty for most of this lifetime if not longer.

My many thanks to every person whose contribution makes this course possible and to Ron for the wonderful being he is.

Is there a Secret to Being Well and Happy?

Is it really true that some people have all the luck? It is true that, if you looked, you'd find that some people have abundant health and happiness, far above what passes for "normal". Is there some reason for this or is it all just chance?

L. Ron Hubbard looked and found there was a reason – a BIG one — that some people seemed to be able to do so well in life. He explains the truth in his record-breaking best seller, DIANETICS: THE MODERN SCIENCE OF MENTAL HEALTH.
