THE MONTHLY JOURNAL OF SCIENTOLOGY

Books for a Happier Life

by L. Ron Hubbard

AN INDIVIDUAL IS AS HAPPY AS HE CAN PERCEIVE SURVIVAL POTENTIALS IN THE FUTURE: Axioms Too, Advanced Procedures and Axioms, by L. Ron Hubbard.

The average man is up against problems. He's asking himself, how can I make more money? How can I make my wife faithful to me? How can I help my children grow up? These questions absorb a tremendous quantity of his energy. But he can't do anything about it because he is so immersed in it.

We see governments and societies desparately trying to help man. They're trying, however, to solve his problems for him and their efforts to do this have not resulted in any great advance for man.

Now the real work is to put an individual into a mental condition where he can confront his own problems and solve them—to put him in a position where he can confront his life better, where his reaction-time is better, where he can identify the factors in his life more easily. And so he looks around, starts solving his own problems and betters his own life. That is an essential difference between Scientology and other efforts to help man.

The route to highest states of existence has been sought long by man in the fields of religion, mysticism, spiritualism, philosophy, mental arts, metaphysics, science and allied studies. Vast libraries could be filled with the scraps of information gathered in the course of this search. The great achievement of Scientology has been the culling of truth from this sea of data and finding that the truth was a tiny group of data possessed of the overwhelming power of changing all other facts in this universe and in livingness.

The opening of the road depended upon the success of codifying this information so that it could be relayed to others.

WHY A BOOK?

The newly interested person must have an opportunity to go and sit down quietly by himself, without any social strain, and study a book on the subject. Only in this way will he come to a decision about the subject which is his own independent decision having inspected the materials. This has to be done quietly and it is best done through the pages of a book.

It is the first real stepping stone.

One reads a book and applies it. And suddenly one finds he can change someone or improve his environment and one is on his or her way.

IMPROVING ABILITY

We have in the technical division of Scientology basically two activities—processing and training. Scientology processing is done on the principle of making an individual look at his own existence, and improve his ability to confront what he is and where he is. An auditor is the person trained in the technology and whose job it is to ask the person to look, and get him to do so. There is a large technology for this but an auditor has to be able to get his questions answered and the individual who is being processed finally has to answer the questions. The question is asked until it is totally answered and the person is totally aware that he has answered it. The word auditor is used because it means one who listens, and a Scientology auditor does listen.

As people come into Scientology (and they're coming in in very swiftly increasing numbers all over the world), normally what they do first is read a book, and then they may read quite a few books, and go around and about Scientology for some time. They attend some of the Introductory Courses, and then they will get some processing—often beginning with Dianetics [pastoral counseling dealing with the mind]. They begin to get along better, and then to make increasingly larger gains. Their abilities increase, they are more capable of handling their lives and they are prepared for the gains of Scientology.

And when one decides to be an auditor he or she goes to an Academy of Scientology and learns how to audit and so help others.

A HAPPIER WORLD, A HAPPIER LIFE

We live in a world that is desparately in need of some good order—it isn't aberration on our part that we say some things ought to be changed. Actually, I rarely tell you things should be changed—I simply tell you that a world has to be created. I don't even assume one exists. I figure that this one's on its way out and that somebody had better put one in its place. Just how we go about doing that is up to you and up to me.

We are moving toward the attainment of Man of a new level of freedom, decency and happiness. We can do it. And it is a lot more than worthwhile—it is vital that we do so. For there is no help elsewhere. There has never been this technology. And just now nobody cares but us.

LOOKING AT THE FUTURE

When a person who has read a popular text on Scientology turns to an organization for training, he will discover himself studying in a far more intense form that material on which he has already agreed. The principles and axioms of Scientology are considerations which have been agreed upon and out of which stem this universe and livingness. Training as an auditor makes one more able to handle life and fellow beings.

We are building a better universe to live in. It has not been a good universe to live in so far. BUT IT CAN BE.

Books by L. Ron Hubbard show the way to a happier life for people all over the world. Two young Saint Hill Special Briefing Course students talk over their successes on their way to course at the sunny New American Saint Hill in Los Angeles. (Shown are Era Hamel and Rand Shipley.)

Start Your Training with Books

The front door to the understanding of Ron's work is BOOKS.

"An individual is as happy as he can perceive survival potentials in the future." AXIOM 166.

Ron's books give you a keen insight into your potentials for survival in the future–which are not low, but very, very high.

You become able to see, in different aspects of life with each book, how to improve yourself and your environment.

There IS hope. You CAN raise your level of causation in your life, and so get the things you want, do the things you want, and be the things you want. It all starts with the data in Ron's books.

After you read some books, and find they are of use, you should seek training on the application of the materials in a Scientology Academy.

There are beginning courses available at your local mission or Church of Scientology. Then the Hubbard Standard Dianetics Course at the same location.

You then do the Primary Rundown, which is the first thing prior to major coures. It consists of some auditing and special training on words and study. This produces a SUPER-LITERATE, one who has achieved more than literacy, the ability to comfortably understand and apply materials he reads.

You now become a FAST FLOW student (see adjoining column).

Your Academy training levels are given from 0-IV at your nearest Church. These levels train you to help others become free of what's bothering them.

Then it's time for the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course, the most comprehensive course in Scientology, a real adventure for the professional auditor or anyone who wishes to truly understand the workings of life.

The Open Door

Any Class IV can do the Briefing Course (Class IV internship is not required). Any Hubbard Certified Auditor or Hubbard Professional Auditor classified prior to 1964 (where this course covered the present 0-IV data) can do the Briefing Course. Any person Clear or above may do the Briefing Course, without the Academy levels first.

The Hubbard Standard Dianetics Course must be done by anyone prior to the Briefing Course. This may be done at the New American Saint Hill by any student who has paid for the Briefing Course if not done previously. The Primary Rundown, if not previously done, is done free at the New ASHO with full payment for the Briefing Course.

Anyone who has incomplete courses may come to the New ASHO for handling, and is swiftly made ready for the Briefing Course.

ANYONE can do the Briefing Course. If you do not meet the requirements now, write to the Letter Registrar. She is there to help you find your way quickly and smoothly. If you are one fo the above people, you should sign on for the Briefing Course right away. Why be delay? Your personal happiness and the wisdom of the universe await you here.

NEW WINS ON THE SAINT HILL SPECIAL BRIEFING COURSE

FAST FLOW FOR SUPER-LITERATES!

Super Literate: A person who has completed the Primary Rundown, a series of actions done before major courses. He is more than literate, he can take written material, study it quickly and easily, and immediately grasps it's application. He thinks and reads in concepts rather than in terms of other words.

Super-Literates study fast flow, without examination. All that is required is demonstration of the ability to apply by internship for permanent classification. As a super-literate knows what he knows and can tell what he doesn't know, he can be trusted to not go by things he hasn't grasped. So it's a fast flow by attestation only. He does the demonstrations, drills and all study on his own attestation that he can apply the materials.

Already, two of the first group of superliterates to start the Briefing Course are now Class VIs, Joel Morris and Monica Pignotti.

Here are the wins of two fast flow students.

"I have good assurance, certainty that I know I'm getting the data. No questions in my mind that I've duplicated it and then can go out and apply it right away. And doing it by myself is the way I like to study. It seems to yield greater results a lot faster. Just knowing your study tech is really in is very helpful when you're going through a large amount of materials as on the Briefing Course.

It used to be when I'd study Scientology I'd often have questions–does it really mean this, or does it mean this? That just didn't exist any more. I knew I was just duplicating exactly what was said.

It was outrageously faster. Of course the supervision out here is so much better too.

I have the data now on why things happen the way they do. I have more assurance of what I'm doing and why I'm doing it. All the data aligned on Level V and VI so I know what's happening in other people's universes. No mysteries left–it all fits together.

I had a long time goal to handle people, to take the hassles out of their lives. My own life is more serene and easier to handle than ever before. Life is pleasant now, instead of full of fear.

There's a definite difference in my handling of preclears. Through Super Literacy and through studying the materials I can see a difference in my relation to people. I can duplicate their communications a LOT better." JOEL MORRIS, Class VI, Super Literate.

Joel is from Urbana, Illinois, where he is returning to audit. He did his Academy levels at St. Louis, and arrived at the New ASHO in late June for the Primary Rundown. He started Level V in mid-July and by early November had completed Class VI (4½ months of full time study).

"My main win is that it's much, much faster. I'm getting the data better than I would have just getting checked out on it and am doing it twice as fast. I've been doing a 90 minute lecture tape in about an hour and 35 minutes, where it used to take me over 2 hours. I've been consistently doing 8 tapes a day, which is good when you have 350 to do!" Don Rowley, new Super Literate student on Level V from San Francisco.

RON'S BOOKS FOR A HAPPIER LIFE

Simon Frankel, long time professional artist and book designer, gets the beginnings of a bright new idea.

Simon Frankel is a highly successful, creative free lance artist and book designer. A Class IV Auditor and Power Release, Ron's books have made a tremendous difference in the happiness in his life.

Simon got interested in Scientology in 1963. "I had had my umpteenth failure in finding out the truth from psychology and all that. No one could give me the answers. It wasn't the place for me," he explains. Simon has been a professional artist for many years, and has always been vitally interested in communication. "That's why I got into Scientology really. I had failed in communicating before, and I was trying to find where my communication break was. I wanted to find out why I couldn't communicate to people the way I wanted," he goes on.

He went to an introductory lecture on Scientology in New York, asked a lot of questions, read some books, and finally took a communications course. "Problems of Work was my first book. It seemed very practical, and I realized some of this stuff made sense. It answered some of the questions I'd had for a long time."

Simon won a major prize in book design several months ago, an award during National Printing Week. Thousands of books are submitted from all over the U.S. and Canada, and from them the top authorities in the field judge the half a dozen books that have the finest design and print quality.

"When I first took over on the project the book was in trouble. The author couldn't get along with anyone he worked with, the publishers were very worried about the whole enterprise." Simon went in and talked with the author. "All I did was listen to him and validate him. I found out what he wanted in the book. When he left, he was really pleased. He had been duplicated. He had confidence in me. The publishers were amazed. All I did was use ARC (Affinity, Reality and Communication) and listened to and acknowledged what he said."

Simon intended in the beginning that the book would win a major design prize, and so it did. He so impressed the editors with his ability that they asked him to meet with the author to handle editorial confusions which the publishers' staff couldn't resolve. "I just got into communication with the author and we had a ball. It all turned out to be a very viable project. The author said it was the best time he had ever worked with anybody, and I had a good time working with him too." The award is the equivalent of an Academy Award for the book design trade. "It was just putting Ron's data to work in daily life as it's supposed to be," Simon comments.

Things didn't always go so well for Simon, though. A few years ago, he was doing poorly in getting his work out and money in. He read parts of Ron's book, The Phoenix Lectures and had some major new realizations. "Right after that, things went way up. Like thunderbolts!" he says enthusiastically. Since that time, his income has tripled and projects are busting out all over.

Ron's books have been a valuable aid to him in some smaller ways too. In his first ski lesson, skiing down the slope he started losing control. "Just as I was leaning over way too far, a whole page of Problems of Work flashed through my mind. In a split second I read the section on control in the book and I just did what it said. I got into control immediately."

"I have used Ron's books as his texts on Scientology. The data is all in the books and lectures. It is all just a matter of understanding what Ron has said. Actually, there is not a tremendous amount to understand in Scientology, you just have to learn the basics.

"I have changed tremendously," Simon beams. "Gotten back to the being I once was instead of the being I had made myself. I've also had a lot of wins doing auditing--when the person across from you wins, you win too. And it's quite something to free another of some of the things that were bothering me once."

"I feel younger, and I can produce more with much less effort now. My ability to apply myself to a project has come up a thousandfold. There's still a lot to learn. I have gotten a lot from Ron's books, and no matter what else I do I'm going to keep training and auditing, reading Ron's books and promoting them a lot."

Simon is involved with a vast number of projects, such as the Eloquent Elephant TV show with Dick Glass (a Scientology show), a pilot TV show with Class VIII pianist Mario Fenninger, and writing the screenplay for one of Ron's early science fiction works. His plans include film, TV, books, advertisement, and plays to communicate to people what Scientology is.

"Every one of Ron's books a person reads, even a part of a book, a page, he adds to his knowingness. And that's how you add to your freedom as a being," Simon says with certainty. "In every way that life is made to be lived, Scientology has given me tools--ways of being, living, enjoying life. And I'm learning to use them better every day."

Simon Frankel is on the Primary Rundown at Celebrity Centre in L.A., and will be going Clear this coming year, doing the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course and Expanded Dianetics Course.

David Butterworth and his wife Maggie discuss Dianetics the book that started them on the way to a happier life.

"I totally flipped out on Dianetics, the Modern Science of Mental Health, my first book. It was totally fascinating.

"I finished reading it and thought, 'If only this were true, if only it were this simple.' And then I started spotting things in my wife and myself, and I could SEE it was real. I came up to hope and need of change just from the book. And then I went in and took an HAS (Hubbard Apprentice Scientologist) Course. The changes became really apparent.

"I was working in a mental hospital at the time and was attempting to find some truth in the field. This thing hit me and I never again paid any attention to that stuff. I realized that my trouble was with the mind and that it could be handled. I realized that there was something that could be done about it.

"At that point, I was able to handle the environment I was in much better and I then realized what my own goals were. I set about achieving them–which is the definition of happiness." *

David Butterworth, Class IV, Super Literate

* Editor's note: 'Happiness is the overcoming of not unknown obstacles towards a known goal, and, transiently, the contemplation of or indulgence in pleasure." From DIANETICS, The Modern Science of Mental Health by L. Ron Hubbard.

Reach for more happiness for yourself and others

Sign up for the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course NOW

The Saint Hill Special Briefing Course starts with The Original Thesis, written by Ron in 1948. From there, you read all Ron's bulletins and the rest of Ron's books in the order they were issued. You listen to taped lectures as they were given, including the Saint Hill Course period where Ron lectured twice a week to auditors at Saint Hill England from 1961 to 1966.

Through a far greater understanding of Ron's books and how they are applied, you gain the wisdom and knowledge YOU have long been seeking. Your own life will be happier and you'll be able to make others happier too.

You apply what you have learned through demonstration of the materials and practical drills. Use of tape recording and closed circuit TV equipment increases auditor presence. A Class VI Auditor, a Saint Hill Special Briefing Course Graduate, has a depth of understanding and certainty about Scientology and its use in life attained at no lower level.

On the SHSBC, the auditor becomes a "Saint Hiller." On this course, you will learn to handle life and people better than you ever imagined before.
