THE MONTHLY JOURNAL OF SCIENTOLOGY

YOUR RIGHT TO GREATER PERSONAL ABILITY

by L. Ron Hubbard

In all my research and investigation I have never looked upon myself as anything but a fellow trying to get along, doing his job in his own frame of reference. I have applied what I knew about existence and that in which I'd been trained as well as I could to the problems of humanity.

It's been a consistent shock to discover that psychology believes that somebody who isn't trained as a psychologist is interloping into the field of the humanities. How in the name of God can a human being interlope into the field of humanities? How could you possibly trespass unless you were dead?

You're the one that has got to handle the mind. All day long you're engaged in running the machinery called a body, and another machine called your thinkingness or awareness. All day long you're involved in this. How on earth would you be interloping in any way, shape or form if you decided to know something about it? It's impossible, isn't it. It's like telling a railroad locomotive engineer when he's sitting in his cab that he's in the wrong place, and that actually he should be a lunch counter operator in order to understand that engine.

You're very deeply involved in the running and handling of humanity. You wish to control or better or worsen the lives of your associates to some degree, or you're trying to restrain them from overcontrolling you.

Out of this effort we get the problems of livingness. We have our interplay of association. We have people with whom we work to attain certain goals.

I don't care how lowly one's job might be here on earth, it certainly does encompass handling of the physical universe and the handling of people. Even if the only person you have to handle is the timekeeper and the foreman, you certainly are involved in handling people.

If I've done anything at all in the field of Dianetics and Scientology it's simply to take the methodologies in which I was trained very thoroughly, those of physics, those of mathematics particularly, much more so than chemistry, and apply them as I saw fit in attempting to understand one of the most tremendous problems that anyone faces, which is to say his friend. Or himself. These are big problems. And you certainly take what you know to resolve these problems.

I had the good fortune not to be entirely a stranger to training in the field of the mind. But at the same time, it was just as much my business as it would be your business to learn how to handle these mechanical aspects more efficiently, more smoothly, and to be yourself less a victim of the chance and ignorance in your vicinity and more of a victor in the life that you live. This would be the plainest thing in the world.

There aren't any problems worth thinking about unless they are the problems of life. Life isn't interested in any other kind of problem. Sometimes a person gets interested in some hypothetical or abstract problem, but the problems which come home to him, the problems in which he's involved continually are the problems of livingness. And therefore a man has a right to apply the best thinkingness that he can apply, to apply the best knowingness which he can to that which he is most in communication with—himself and his environment.

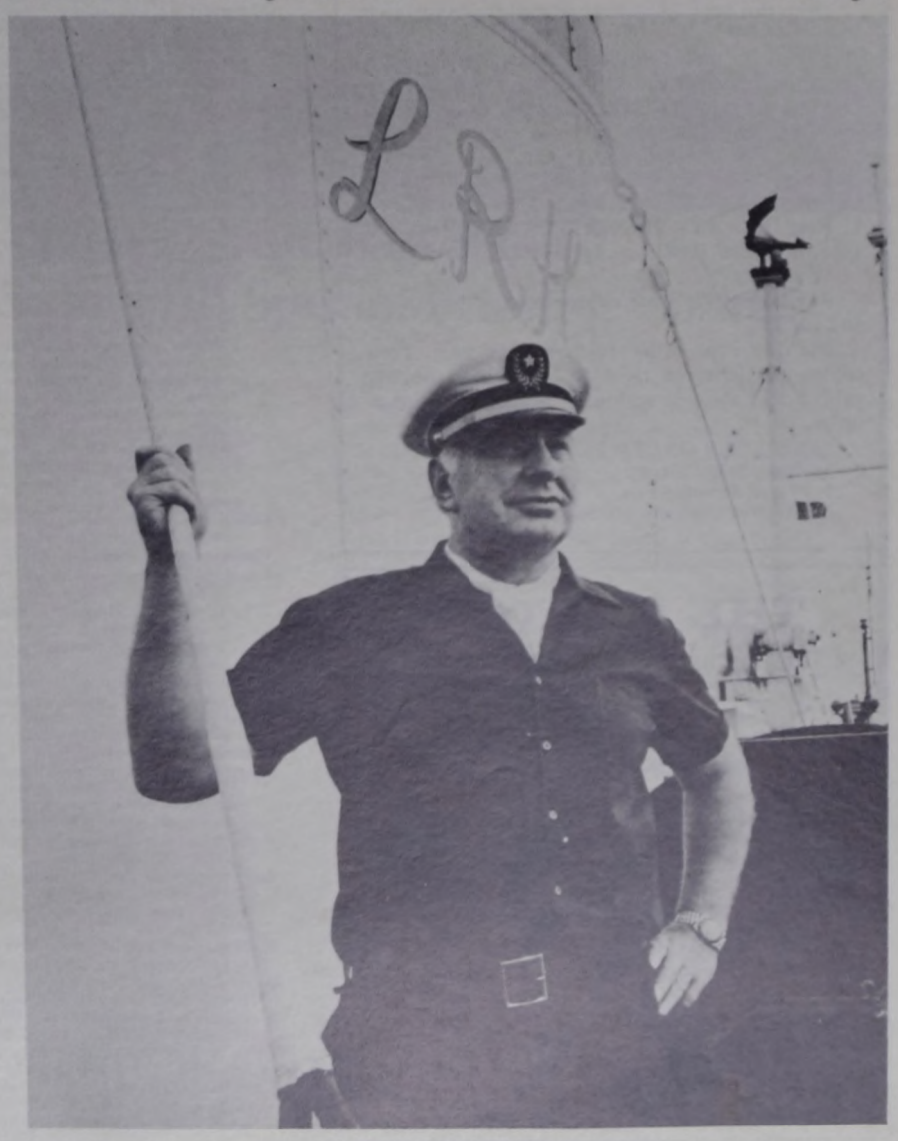

The best thinkingness that has been done by the men that are our forbears in the field of the sciences was applied to the problems of the humanities, and gradually an enormous amount of chaff was weeded out and thrown away.

We get down to the core of the problem and we find out that this one thing is true about life: a human organism is not an object entirely. It is an object, it is a body. But it is something in addition. IT THINKS. And that makes it quite different from the view taken of the organism by biology, and actually, by their own statements, from the view taken of this organism by psychologists. Psychologists do not credit the body with the power of thought. They do not credit the body with the power of creating thought. It's very interesting. They say it is all an associative, stimulus response chain of associated reason. And the day when you can tell me that all the thought there is is associative reason, I will ask you who did the associating to eventually wind up with Shakespeare? Somewhere or another somebody can, has and does think original thoughts.

Another factor is apparently present than space, than energy, than matter. A volition, an idea, a demand to live, an ability to resolve problems, and pose them to be resolved is evidently present in a living organism. The last time a rock said to me "I think . . . " was a long time ago. Rocks don't say anything, but a living form does. It does think, and it does know. It is aware and it is aware of being aware. And that is life.

We've come up with the anatomy of what we are. That it IS the anatomy of what we are is easily demonstrable. It isn't any quick trick which is suddenly done. Auditing actually is not a treatment, it is merely an adventure on the road to discovery of greater beingness.

Clear America Crusade

The Crusade to CLEAR AMERICA has been launched!

The target of this crusade: to take the biggest step toward a Clear America ever taken in so short a time – to DOUBLE the number of Scientologists in the U.S. between March 13 and April 23rd.

Each Scientologist who brought in a new Scientologist to start a service for the first time was awarded the beautiful Founding Scientologist of America certicate. The person he started on the road became a First Generation Scientologist.

Events were held at every Church of Scientology in the country throughout March to spread the word.

The Clear America Crusade is a totally coordinated effort to realize the true potential of America – by making a CLEAR America now.

For more information on the Crusade and what has been happening in your area, just see your nearest Church of Scientology. See News Flash Back Page

If you know what beingness your fellow man is composed of, you can understand him better, and if you know where you can go and what you can do with your own beingness certainly you can live better.

And so a very interesting thing has happened here. It was inevitable that the thinkingness about thinkingness in all the various lines with which man is connected would suddenly group up together and simplify. Not all the power, not all the walls on earth can hold knowingness from knowingness. Sooner or later these things would come together and illuminate one another. And when they did we would be able to do some remarkable things.

Well, those remarkable things we can do today. And those remarkable things we ARE doing today. But it is the general field of human understanding and ability that has been enhanced, and that is the field in which we are working today. Scientology as an application of precise methodology to the problems of the humanities has paid off. There are thousands of people, there are tens of thousands of people, living better lives today simply because they have worked with and participated in this adventure called Scientology.

It is not intended for and is forbidden by the Church to be used in any medical or physical treatment or the diagnosis, treatment or prevention of any disease. By itself it does nothing and is strictly not to be employed for medical or scientific purposes. Its purpose is to assist the minister to locate in his parishioner areas of travail so that he can assist in the relief of spiritual suffering. The existence and use of the E-Meter is sanctioned by law and the copying of it or attempts by unqualified persons, doctors, scientists, psychologists, or psychiatrists, to obtain or use one are actionable under law in the United States. To obtain an E-Meter one must be a sincerely enrolled student of the Church of Scientology or a fully qualified Minister of that Church and must undertake as well to become wholly skilled in its purpose and use. No other persons are permitted to have E-Meters. The Church permits the E-Meter to be sold, possessed, or owned only under these conditions.

STANDARD TRAINING ON RON'S COURSES AT ASHO INCREASES ABILITY

"Somewhere along the line I cognited that my kids weren't just kids, but thetans who it is a privilege to know. It's a lot of fun to see them cognite on Scientology and on truth. Letting them be who they are and not invalidating them has made them very able even at their young age (Amy 9, Colleen 11). Both are HQS (Hubbard Qualified Scientologists) graduates and our non - Scientology friends are quite amazed at their ability to control and to confront," John Cowan remarks. His wife Carol is also on the SHSBC.

On Ron's Saint Hill Special Briefing Course

"I went to college to try to get an understanding of life and for a few pointers on how to get along better along the way. After having studied philosophy and other subjects I finally realized I hadn't really learned anything that was useful. The whole history of philosophy had just been a Q&A * with itself.

After getting into Scientology, I knew I had found an answer to life and its problems but wasn't sure why. When I started getting auditor training I started getting the whys. But it was when I finally got on the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course that everything started making sense.

The answers to life and livingness are definitely on this course. Questions have been answered for me that I previously had no awareness were even questions.

The depth of the bank is truly amazing and the insidious mechanisms thetans use to build a bank are truly incredible. L. Ron Hubbard has taken a dump of garbage and dissected it piece by piece and has developed the means of getting rid of it. Being on the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course and watching this develop is as exciting as looking at the processes in their final form.

A person can go Clear and be an O.T. but I cannot imagine how he would stay that way unless he gets the data and understanding found on the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course.

Once, thetans were very O.T. but very stupid. They can regain their O.T. abilities but unless they get the data and know-how, they have every chance of remaining stupid. The way I see it, you can get cleared, but if you don't get trained you can go along and wind up in the mess you are presently in. I recommend the Saint Hill Special Briefing Course for everyone and feel it is vital for everyone to do this course."

John Cowan,
SHSBC student from Austin

*Q & A A failure to complete a cycle of action. (Q stands for question and A for answer).

On Ron's Class VIII Course

"The Class VIII Course contains exactly why man is in the shape he's in and what happened to him that got him into that shape.

I feel that on the VIII Course is the data that will either make us or break us. If it's used, we will make it. If it's not used we won't. Because there's a very good reason for the VIII Course—to put STANDARD tech across the planet. It is a very far reaching thing.

The Class VIII has a responsibility of ensuring that Ron's tech is kept in in his area and any place that he knows about. 99% standard tech would mean that one person out of every 100 would fail—and we can't afford even one.

The reason you can be so standard as an VIII is the background which you're auditing against, which is the data that gives you the true basic data on what you are indeed handling. If you didn't have the true basics how could you ever expand? And this information isn't anywhere else in Scientology.

I know why people act the way they do, and knowing that I don't find myself in situations I don't understand. Because I understand the basics so well I can just see what's going on with any individual."

Clark Baier, Class VIII
St. Louis

Have you ever thought about how much you could do, if only you could do what you wanted?

If you have, you're not alone.

Since the first glimmer of hope that stirred men to travel vast oceans and settle this continent, people have been seeking the freedom to do as they pleased. In fact, you could say that every human struggle since the dawn of Man has involved the right and power of the individual to do what he wanted.

Today, after thousands of years of governments, societies, and religions, just how close have we come to achieving this state of ability and freedom for the individual? How many people do you know who could honestly say they do what they really want to do?

A little observation can show you the barriers that keep a person from using his full potential are not all external. The biggest barriers to conquer are within the individual himself. And as he grows older, these barriers can seem harder and harder to overcome.

POWER PROCESSING, researched and released by L. Ron Hubbard in 1965, cuts through the barriers you unwittingly impose on your own ability each day. Power Processing restores your full ability to use the power you have as a spiritual being.

After your Power Processing, you'll find the things you want in easy reach–when only hours before they had looked so very far away. You'll suddenly find you can get much more done in life than you ever thought possible.

Such life-changing results are possible only with the highly skilled application of very powerful processes. And so only one Church of Scientology in the Western Hemisphere is permitted to deliver this precision level of auditing–that's New ASHO, where Class VII Auditors are ready to deliver the Power Processes to every Grade IV Release on this continent.

Be free of "the inner something" that keeps you from doing what YOU really want to do.

All the power you ever dreamed you had is there, waiting to be released.

Find out what it's like to be really yourself and able to do what you want to do at last.

Finish your auditing to Grade IV – then get your Power Processing at ASHO!

Grade V and VA donation: $1200 (to a maximum of 50 hours auditing). Full advance donation qualifies you for 5% discount. (Enrollment on the SHSBC qualifies you for 50% professional discount.)

It's surprisingly easy to get your Power–service at ASHO is very fast and friendly.

Contact the Registrar NOW to arrange your Power Processing. Call or write The Registrar, New ASHO, Church of Scientology, 2723 W. Temple St., L.A., California 90026, 213-380-0710, for more details and assistance in getting to ASHO soon.
