'Co-Eds' Rout Pickets

She-Devil, Mother of Labor Unions

30 Beautiful Drive-In Employees Drive Off AFL Pickets

"TOPSY'S" and "CO-ED" TACKLE LABOR RACKETEERS

Dressed in the costume of a red She-Devil, with horns, tail and all the parapharnelia, a beautiful "Co-ed" girl waved her sign reading: "I am the Mother of all Unions" last Friday noon, together with other costumed and uniformed employees of the "Topsy's" Drive In service cafe for about two hours until the AFL labor pickets were called off by their business agents who had attempted to force a closed shop upon these two Drive In Cafes operated by Mrs. Pearl Brown and her son Charles, at 4182 El Cajon Blvd., San Diego, and the corner of Pacific Highway and Rosecrans St., respectively. 30 other girl employees in their natty uniforms as waitresses, fountain girls and carhops, joined in the picketing of the pickets with other signs, reading: Not One Employee Is on Strike Here, and expressing their loyalty to the employers with the legend: Topsy's and Co-Ed are top, so is our Boss, We are Satisfied. Another sign read: Browns Treat Us Right — We Are Satisfied — Why Not Leave Us Alone.

And alone they were left within two hours of this determined counter-picketing led by the red She-Devil. The public just crowded into Co-Ed's until it became plain to the labor racketeers that instead of hurting the place, they were advertising it; then the AFL pickets were called off.

The trouble started July 7 when Browns and agents for the AFL were negotiating the signing of a contract. Browns refused to sign the closed shop contract shoved under their noses by the labor racketeers. While still negotiating the AFL decided to use strong arm tactics by dumping 12 carloads of pickets at Topsy's, corner Rosecrans and Pacific Highway, which was yet in progress of building construction, to hamper the contractors, by forcing a shutdown. The contractors worked two hours behind the picket lines that afternoon. But the next day all work stopped. Pickets were placed at both cafes and the employees held a mass meeting on Thursday, voting unanimously not to join the union and decided to counter picket the AFL which they did on Friday with spectacular results.

One female AFL picket attacked two waitresses and was finally dragged away by her own crew who was afraid of police action. Aside from the blocking of the entrance by 12 parked cars, no other violence was committed and as usual, the police failed to clear the place from the blockading cars.

We would sugest the employees form an independent union and affiliate with other independent unions, headed by the Solar Aircraft.

Topsy's will be opened on July 17, Thursday.

THE "RIGHT" TO PICKET ?

By Alexander S. Lanier

WASHINGTON,—Apropos the opinion of the Supreme Court written by Justice Murphy, on the question of peaceful picketing and sustaining the right thereof on the ground that it is the exercise of the right of freedom of speech which may not be abridged, permit me a brief discussion of the subject.

It would seem that the Justice went very far afield for an argument to sustain such acts. To one of ordinary intelligence and discernment there seems to be little connection or relation between picketing and the freedom of speech, or how denying the right of picketing abridges in any way the freedom of speech of the would-be picketers, for if workmen have a dispute with their employer the papers and the hustings are available to them to tell their side of the dispute, and to say whatever they choose with untrammeled freedom, subject only to the law of libel.

Under this decision a logical inference is that picketing accompanied by violence to gain the ends sought and bring the issue before the public is also an element of freedom of speech, and that therefore violence in labor disputes is sanctioned and protected by the Constitution which provides that freedom of speech shall not be abridged.

Just a word now as to the legal right of picketing. True, the courts have sustained the right, but did they not err in doing so through ineptitude or because the law of the subject was not fully and intelligently presented to them?

The Constitution of the United States, that great charter of our liberties, guarantees to every individual security of life, liberty and property. The word LIBERTY was not used in the Constitution in any narrow sense, but in the broadest meaning as a result of the abuses of individual liberty in the past with which the framers of the Constitution were perfectly familiar. It embraces and was intended to embrace all of the natural rights of man, such for example as freedom of locomotion, freedom of conscience, and speech, freedom of contract with respect to the ordinary and usual matters of daily life and intercourse, private ownership of property with security in the use and the possession thereof, the right to engage in the pursuit of any and all legitimate business and professional undertakings for pleasure or profit, without let, hindrance, or interference, except in so far as such pursuits may be affected with a public interest, and which may be therefore subject to Governmental regulation for the public welfare, such for example as the operation of a railroad.

The liberty to engage in a legitimate business, free from coercion, molestation, or interference by others is unquestionably a right recognized and guaranteed by the Constitution, and is entitled to the protection of all the powers of government, and in respect to which if the Government fails it is unworthy of support by the people.

It is an unfortunate fact, as stated, that oftimes in the past our courts, probably for the reasons given, have failed to affirm and uphold the constitutional rights of the citizen to immunity from picketing. It is also true that the right to such protection has been often denied by the politicians, but little else could be expected from them, for they are always found on that side of every question that political prudence and expedience dictate. Nevertheless it exists as a fundamental right of the citizen, which the Constitution simply recognizes and proclaims.

Now what is the object of union labor in picketing one's place of business whether it be done with violence or peacefully? It is to coerce the proprietor into acceding to the demands of the parties the picketers represent, and that too often without regard to the practicability or justice of the demands made upon him, or his ability to pay an increased wage when that is the issue. Under such circumstances what becomes of the Constitutional liberty of the proprietor, of his property rights, and of the free and untrammeled conduct of his business? To sanction or approve of picketing, no matter how peaceful, is to make a hollow mockery of the Constitutional guarantees mentioned, to encourage violence, to deny the business man the "equal protection of the law", and to strike a fatal blow at the fundamental right of the ownership of property, all of which are the bases of social order, and bulwarks of civilization. Strike down these securities, that have become our heritage after two thousand years of bloody struggle, and what will be the inevitable results? Russia and Germany of today give us the melancholy and terrifying answer.

Aside from the wrong and injury to the person whose place of business is picketed, and the infringement of his most elemental rights, picketing is also an annoyance to and an encroachment upon the rights of the public, and is well calculated to, and often does lead to violence, and disturbance of the peace and good order of the community, as has been so often demonstrated during the past several years. In the hotel strikes in the City of Washington a short time ago pickets were so numerous on the side walk and immediately in front of the entrance to the Mayflower Hotel that pedestrians had to go out of their way to get by them, and guests of the hotel had difficulty in entering the hotel and yet the police did nothing about it, and similar conditions prevailed at other hotels in the city. Picketing is now done by persons hired for the purpose who have never been employed in the place picketed, and has become a racket.

At this time when society seems in a state of flux, when lawlessness is rampant, and the moral code seems no longer to restrain; when the forces of evil and anarchy are marshaling for the overthrow of the social order, and even government itself, and when principles of government heretofore regarded and accepted as axiomatic are geing scoffed at, and resented as hindrances to every crazy scheme for social betterment, it is, indeed, unfortunate that the Supreme Court should put its approval upon a labor policy so destructive of individual liberty, and attempt to sustain its approval by such sophistical reasoning as is given in the Murphy opinion. This decision will but encourage the enemies of Government and the social order, and augment the grave ills that now beset us.

What Is Americanism ?

FRED—Dad, what is Americanism? We hear so much about it. Is it another one of those ims?

DAD—If you want to answer your own question, first you will have to tell us what the word itself says.

FRED—I think it means something that is peculiar to America.

DAD—Now what do you mean by America? Is it the country or is it the people?

FRED—It could not be the country, because it is the same earth, the same air, sun and moon the whole world over. So it must be the people.

DAD—Walt Whitman said it: " . . . this America is only you and me . . . " Therefore, Americanism is something which is peculiar to you and me, something different from the other peoples in this world.

FRED—Are we not like other people? Did God not make all people equal and give them the same rights to Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness? Did we Americans get something special?

DAD—God gave all people the same rights, therein we are all equal. But not all people make use of their rights, and that's the difference between Americans and the people in other countries. As Jesus said in the parable of the TALENTS: "And he that hath not, even that which he hath shall be taken from him". The people who have not exercised their talents, naturally have, lost them. And as we, in the U. S. do not exercise our civil rights and don't attend to our civic duties, so are we losing them also.

FRED—If America is only you and me, then we have a terrible responsibility. I did not think of this, but now that I am America, it makes me feel a little afraid.

DAD—That's the right way to feel about it. Because what you and I are doing, that makes America. Everybody should realize it.

FRED—I see, daddy. If everybody knew that what they do helps or hurts America people would be more careful.

DAD—I found a poem among my exchange papers which come to me from all over the world. It is called AN AMERICAN'S PRAYER. It gives you a good idea of what Americanism means.

FRED—May I read it, Daddy?

DAD—Yes, but read it slowly and plainly.

FRED— AN AMERICAN'S PRAYER.

Our Father, Who art above,
Instill in our hearts a greater love
For the glorious liberties we have today
Before it's too late and they're taken away.

Continue to give us our daily bread
And grant us the power to keep our heads
When radicals rave for their favorite "ism"
With which they'd displace our Americanism.

Forgive us for meddling in foreign affairs;

Editor Pickets Federal Offices

On the day that American troups occupied the war zone of Iceland, in violation of the President's solemn pre-campaign pledges that no American troops would be sent into the war zones, abroad, Editor de Aryan staged an one man protest in front of the U. S. Post Office. Carrying a sign protesting at the same time the support offered by the President to the world's champion of Marxist "democracy", Joe Stalin, de Aryan paraded for an hour and twenty minutes on E street in San Diego, in the block between 8th & 9th avenues covered by the federal building, housing the treasury branch offices, the San Diego office of Congressman Ed Izac, etc.

The public's reception of this protest was calm and in large measure favorable. Only one young husky fellow attempted to start trouble by grabbing the sign and pulling at the copies of THE BROOM carried by the Editor under his left arm. But after discussing the matter, de Aryan succeded to persuade the man that he was within his constitutional rights to thus register his protest to the breach of presidential promises to the people and the man departed still muttering that he would get "somebody else to take that sign away from you".

On one side the legend on the card board sign, handlettered in black and red paint, read. TO HELL WITH COMMUNISM— Let WILLKIE Fight for STALIN— Ed Izac should read THE BROOM.

The other side: SAVE AMERICAN LIVES FIRST— WHY KILL AMERICAN BOYS TO PROTECT British, Jewish and Wall Street Bankers— Protect AMERICAN Boys FIRST.

The editor had intended to picket the Federal Building for one hour, but when he was being physically threatened for holding the President to his campaign pledges, he stayed 20 minutes longer to give those who wanted to return and "drive him away" a chance to think it over.

This is still America and not a Communist dictatorship as hard as the New Deal is working to make it so.

The New Deal "Advisors"

The list of Jews who control our Government today resembles a roster of B'nai B'rith leaders. A few of the more influential personages in the group are as follows:

SAMUEL ROSENMAN, New York Judge, a Roosevelt intimate, frequent White House guest who "helps" the President write his speeches.

GERARD SWOPE, wealthy industrialist, credited with being the father of the unconstitutional NRA .

HERBERT BAYARD SWOPE, brother of Gerard Swope, race-track owner, publicity expert, New Deal insider.

HERBERT LEHMAN, Governor of New York, international banker, New Deal promoter, described by Roosevelt as "My good right arm".

HAROLD LASKI, Professor from Oxford University, British-Jew radical and a power in the New Deal background.

ISADORE LUBIN, close friend of Bernard Baruch, special economic advisor to the President through whose mind all major ideas on finance filter, before reaching Roosevelt's desk.

BENJAMIN COHEN, radical brain truster, recently appointed to serve with John G. Winant as Ambassador to Great Britain.

FELIX FRANKFURTER, notorious red, appointed to the United States Supreme Court by Roosevelt, credited with having written the "Lenin"-Lease, War-Dictatorship bill.

FIORELLO LAGUARDIA, Mayor of New York, ardent New Deal Socialist, appointed by Roosevelt head of the new civilian defense organization.

MRS. CORDELL HULL, wife of the Secretary of State. Mrs. Claude Pepper, wife of Roosevelt's personal spokesman in the United States Senate.

DAVID LILIENTHAL, head of the TVA, one of the New Deal's Communistic experiments, opposed by patriotic Americans who deplore Roosevelt's schemes to bring private industry under government control.

J. DAVID STERN, radical newspaper publisher of Philadelphia, now on the Federal Reserve Board.

NATHAN STRAUS, chain store financier and international banker, New Deal administrator on housing projects.

JESSE STRAUS, first New Deal Ambassador to Paris and friend of the Jewish Leon Blum who carried France to the brink of destruction. Blum is now in a French prison.

E. A. GOLDENWEISER, Russian born Jew, member of the Federal Reserve Board.

DAVID DUBINSKY, Polish-born Jew, intimate friend of Roosevelt, one of the founders of the Communistic C. I. O.

LEE PRESSMAN, pro-Communist labor leader, active C. I. O. executive, New Dealer.

ABE FORTAS powerful New Deal legal expert, counsel to several bureaus.

CHARLES MICHAELSON, Roosevelt's personal publicity director, experienced smearer of men in public life who refuse to wear the Jewish yoke.

LAWRENCE STEINHARDT, relative of the late Samuel Untermyer, present Ambassador to Moscow.

HARRY F. GUGGENHEIM, member of the international family that controls copper, advisor on aviation.

ARTHUR GARFIELD HAYS exponent of so-called civil liberties, defender of the Scottsboro criminals, opponent of William Jennings Bryan at Dayton, Tennessee.

MORDECAI EZEKIEL, influential in shaping agricultural policies of the Government, official in the Department of Agriculture.

DAVID LASSER, recipient of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt's blessings, head of the radical Worker's Alliance responsible for keeping relief rolls at a peak instead of helping to create honest employment to help the jobless.

ADOLPH SABATH, Chairman of the powerful House Rules Committee, in the United States Congress.

EMANUEL CELLER, Jewish Congressman who constantly beats the tomtoms of war, Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee.

SOL BLOOM, responsible more than any other single member of Congress for carrying the Nation to the brink of war, Chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

SAMUEL DICKSTEIN, Russian-born Jew, Chairman of the House Immigration Committee, a powerful post that could be used to help certain types of foreigners pour across American borders from Europe.

HENRY MORGENTHAU, of the President's Cabinet, member of a powerful international banking family.

SIDNEY HILLMAN, Russian-born Jew, well known red, friend of Lenin and Trotsky, credited with being one of the three men running the United States today.

HERBERT FEIS, State Department counsel, described with exercising tremendous power in shaping the foreign policies of the Government.

ALBERT EINSTEIN, German-Jew refugee, member of several red organizations, frequent White House guest.

STEPHEN S. WISE, Jewish Rabbi, radical propagandist who has coerced New Deal immigration policies and exercised mysterious influences in favor of Jews from abroad.

ROSE SCHNEIDERMANN, called "the red rose" in New York where her activities have been most pronounced in the past.

MAX ZARITSKY, left-wing, radical labor advisor whose ideas have been utilized by a large section of the New Deal.

JAMES P. WARBURG, whose father came to the United States from Germany to serve as head of Kuhn Loeb & Company, and create a plan for circumventing the Constitution by establishing the Federal Reserve System for the control of American money.

NATHAN MARGOLD, counsel for several New Deal bureaus, accused by the Indians of trying to "communize" the Indian Bureau.

LEO WOLMAN, labor advisor, leader in promoting Communistic legislation—thus bringing workingmen under red domination.

LOUIS KIRSTEIN associate of the late A. L. Filene, Jewish Boston millionaire who called himself a "little Massachusetts merchant". Filene was credited by some as being the original New Dealer who reduced the Jewish program to a system for Roosevelt to carry out.

CHARLES WYZANSKI, JR., counsel to Mrs. Perkins in the Department of Labor.

CHARLES TAUSSIG, molasses millionaire, for whom Rexford G. Tugwell now works.

BERNARD BARUCH, aptly described as the "unofficial President of the United States."

Among the hundreds of other Jews now in the Government, or who flit in and out of various departments at intervals as needed, are: Jacob Straus; Lucian Koch, removed from his job as head of the notorious Communist Commonwealth College of Mena, Arkansas, of which Jewish Justice Brandeis was a financial supporter, and given a job in the New Deal; Jerome Frank, present head of the S. E. C.; Louis H. Bean of the Department of Agriculture; Abraham M. Fox, former research director of the Tarriff Commission; Benedict Wolf of the National Labor Relations Board; William Leiserson of the National Labor Relations Board; David J. Saposs of the National Labor Relations Board; L. H. Seltzer, head economist of the Treasury; Edward Berman, Department of Labor; Jacob Perlman of the Department of Labor; Morris L. Jacobson, chief statistician of the Government Research Project; A. H. Meyers, New England division of the National Labor Relations Board; Jack Levin, assistant general manager of the Rural Electrification Authority; Harold Loeb, economic consultant for the N. R. P.; William Seagle, attorney for the Petroleum Labor Policy Board; Herman A. Gray, member policy committee of the National Housing Conference; Alexander Sachs of Lehman Brothers, early consultant of the New Deal, as was Paul Mazur, also of Lehman Brothers.

The above list of names makes no pretense at being complete. The names quoted above constitute only a fraction of the number occupying positions of power. But these will suffice to show how completely our Gentile, and allegedly Christian Nation, is dominated by a racial group animated by centuries of hatred for the Lord Jesus Christ.

America First vs. Jews

SALT LAKE CITY,—Utah's branch of the anti-war America First committee was at outs with the parent national organization for sponsoring former Congressman Jacob Thorkelson, of Montana, as a speaker at a rally here.

Thorkelson told his hearers that President Roosevelt was the "world's biggest aggressor" and that the "controlled American press" was the "biggest fifth column in the country".

Some 400 persons heard Thorkelson, and police had to intervene several times after the meeting to quell incipient fights.

After Thorkelson arrived for his appearance, the Chicago central office of the committee telegraphed the Utah committee advising it not to sponsor him. Thorkelson was defeated last year for renomination.

Editor's Note: Thorkelson, while congressman, inserted in the congressional record documents showing that the present war was instigated, planned and is being directed by International Jewish Bankers. The Chicago office of the America First committee caters to Jewish bankers, and is not truly interested in America First.

Me and my old man

By Helen Love

Last night my old man comes home and he sez to me "Alice . . . you can't have any more cheese". I sez what do you mean . . . I can't have no more cheese?" He sez . . "Well . . . . Alice old gal . . . the British want it and anything the British want . . . they must have" . . . I just sez to him "who in the world are the British to take away from me my cheese? . . . Then he sez "And we cant go over to your mother anymore on our weak end either . . . for the British want the gas and we gotta give it to them . . " I was just about ready to blow up and he starts right in telling me that we also have to work overtime and all the time to get enough guns for the British . . . and then he starts telling me that we shall have to go over there and help them kill off the Germans too" . . .

Right then and there I got mad . . . I sez to him I sez, "I thought we got out from under those damned British . . . way back years ago . . . I thought we was free Americans and living in this country not over in Europe . . . and with what little money you made . . . I dont get even enough cheese for my own use and we are not going to stop going over to my mothers either on the weak ends I sez.

But he didnt pay no attention to me . . . he kept right on talking he sez . . . "You know Alice . . . Freddie and George will be draft age this year and we got to be patriotic and let them go . . . for we cant stop the government from taking them . . . England wants help to kill off Adolph Hitler . . . "I sez "WHY . . . does England have to kill off Hitler what did he do to them?" and he says well you woudnt understand . . . I dont understand myself but you see Winston Churchill . . . dont like Germany . . . to begin with . . . and he has always ruled the seas . . . and he dont want nobody to take the seas away from him . . . and he has been boss of about all of Europe for a long time and he has grabbed off this land and that and made all the people that lived in them lands work for him and he give em just enough to keep em alive and worked them almost to death . . . and then he made the English people lords and ladies and they got culture and everything . . . and then this Hitler came along and got smart and said that he wasnt going to be downtrodden by him any longer and Winston got mad and then trouble started . . . I guess Winston Churchill . . . wont let anybody talk sharp to him you know . . . must be kinda bossy or somethin and he started to kill off all the Germans . . . because they are not lords and ladies . . . he sez they aint got no culture.

And I sez "Say now just a minute . . . where do WE come into this thing Fred . . . What has all that stuff got to do with us? Just why should I go without cheese and stay home on Sunday your only day off . . . just because Winston Churchill dont like Adolph Hitler?"

He sez "Alice . . . I told you that you wouldnt understand . . . But we all come from England . . . in the beginning . . . and we are sons and daughters of England . . . he sez . . . Now this got me real mad . . . for I didnt have one drop of English blood in my family at all . . . . and he aint either . . . and so I sez . . . we had to fight a war to get rid of them dirty Britishers once . . . we got away from them and come over here and started our own FREE country and then they chased us up and tried to take it away from us and we fought em off and drove em back where they belonged and now you say we have to go back over there and help them in another one of their fights . . . Now why should I raise up my two sons and send them to ENGLAND? . . . "This govement didnt feed my two boys . . . we had to slave and go hungry to raise em . . . and now the English wants em to shoot it out with Hitler . . .. He sez now Alice there aint no use your hollering . . . and getting all excited, for when you gotta go you gotta go and Churchill says he wants em and whatever Churchill says he wants in this country he GETS!

The Mazdaznan Philosophy

Attend to your breathing first. Be regular about it and do it with attention, for "practice makes perfect". Having attended to your practice religiously, you will be better fitted to find and select the proper food, in nature corresponding to the spirit of life within you, and with the same freshness and vigor of breath you will partake of your food, with each morsel giving thanks to the Bountiful Giver of these treasures of life that delight the soul and satisfy the mind.

Day by day, as the life-giving atoms collect within your bosom unto a congregation of godliness, your food will accordingly be turned into efforts of goodness calling out the hidden powers unto strength and vitality, invigorating every organ to renewed action, quickening the finer sympathetic nervous system toward processes not known to the embryonic being, and convert all of the pent-up substances of being into ethereal matter so necessary for the furtherance of brain development.

With each indrawn breath and attention to corresponding food all the latent powers, gifts, talents, endowments and attributes of the mind, the soul and the spirit awaken to consciousness and one by one adjust themselves to the conception of man's twelve senses, one by one revealing the most astounding truths, leading unto the discovery of the diverse channels of life which hold the treasures unto our happiness. Thought-wave upon thought-wave will inspire us to "be up and doing", while to possibilities and opportunities there is no end.

LUCIFER'S REBELLION PROCEEDS UP TO DATE

By C. Leon de Aryan

It is futile to attempt explaining or understanding the present war situation without going back to the origin of man. This war which Hitler is waging against world Communism, world Jewry and world Boycott, in which all birds of a feather flock together: to fight and murder and do dirt to one another;—this war has its origin in the very nature of MAN. Anyone who attempts to saddle the war blame upon Hitler is just showing his ignorance.

Religion, modern church religion, is a dope as the Communists so ably stated the case. It is an opiate to keep the masses in subjection, that is why you find chaplains in every armed camp; they are paid high wages to rationalize religion, perverting loyalty to God, against God and the TEN COMMANDMENTS. Quite a dope!

Our chaplains are Lucifer's chaplains not representing God or Jesus Chrrist.

Modern church goers who read the Bible do not realize that it is a very cheap piece of plagiarism on the Scriptures of the Ancient Wisdom. That the Jewish Rabbis who compiled the books of the Old Testament voraciously copied everything they could lay their hands on and sedulously perverted most of it to their own purposes of doping their readers and followers to the effect that they would rally to gain by cunning, treachery and force of arms the rule of ZION over all nations, in which attempt they had been frustrated by the Babylonians.

Now the original sources from which the Jews stole their "books" of the Old Testament are available to every student of Ancient and Occult Wisdom. The best of it is contained in the writings of the Sun Worshippers. Of course it takes patient study, devotion and practice to even grasp the first principle of religion. Mere mental and casual perusal of the original writings will disclose nothing, because they are dealing with the most profound truths of LIFE itself. But earnest students have no difficulty at any time unravelling the thread of human existence from its origin up to date.

Creation of the Universe

Since there is no end to time, but only eternity, naturally the present world of the senses in which we find ourselves, started at a certain period in time, to become materialized. Previous to that it existed only in the mind of the Builders. The Builders are divided in two classes. Those who love God and those who rebel against the slow processes of creation, evolution and perfection. It must be realized that in a universe of complete and perfect self-government, where nobody can get something for nothing but only the results of individual and collective actions, all of us who today live upon this planet must have been working to produce it in the first instance, otherwise how could we be here? Who is to give it to us and at the same time maintain our self-reliance? The whole purpose of creation is to be masterful and every living entity is to produce this mastery in practice.

While we were engaged in producing this solar system and this planet in particular, suddenly a bunch of "working spirits" decided that the leaders were too damned slow in showing results. They formed a labor union of their own, led by their respective "lucifers" and set themselves up to "speed up production" and experiment with it. The Great Builders, who know the LAW according to which Spirit works through the mind upon the ethers to materialize in the atomic realm a system of planetary bodies, balancing each other and creating conditions under the protection of atmospheric cushions, which lead to organic existence and incarnation of the building entities themselves to continue the work of evolution towards perfection;—these Great Builders (Elohims) were drawing upon their store of experience in previous world creations so that every step was being checked and double checked to make sure of proper foundations and compliance with eternal LAW. They were slow, but sure and safe. They made doubly sure.

But the group of unsound minds who were lacking the deep insight and awareness of eternal LAW, and processes in accordance with it, rebelled against this leadership. They set up a "democracy" of their own and figured on means and ways for a shortcut. The result was chaos. Ignorantly they actually sabotaged the natural processes of atomic projection and introduced rifts and adverse conditions which operate to this day in shifting masses, causing earthquakes, unbalanced metereologic conditions, tornadoes, dustbowls, etc. You have a striking example of this type of foolish interference with planetary law in the very dustbowls produced in the U. S. A. Had the settlers followed Nature's intelligent course, the buffalo sod would never have been plowed up. But in order to get "quick" returns, the land was torn up, the planet's protective crust removed and here is the dust bowl.

Satan's Hordes Oppose Intelligence

One must realize the difference between those smart, sly creatures who expect to force nature to yield her wealth and the wise leaders who are following the designs of God in nature and through such co-operation reap a thousandfold, while mastering nature's forces unto higher designs and purposes, never impoverishing but always replenishing and adding to life's treasures. One way is to rob, exploit, the other way is to liberate energies, utilize natural resources and improve upon Nature in accordance with divine creative intelligence.

All wars are the result of this opposition to truth and to the power of creative intelligence by those who believe themselves smarter. This tendency in MAN produces all strife and misery. To eliminate this obstinate stupidity, naturally man must suffer the consequences and learn the hard and miserable way. That brings us up to date.

The Mission of Jesus, the Christ

All through life, man is never left alone, except as he so choses. At all times there are loving spirits who are at hand to show him the path of wisdom and harmony with the energies that manifest this universe. And so, from time to time, great souls appear upon the planet to hearten those who seek mastery in accordance with eternal designs. And as is quite natural the smart, shrewd exploiters of human credulity and ignorance are dead set against the light such Great Souls shed along the path and these sons of Satan are bent upon murder.

Read what Jesus says about them.

In the Gospel according to JOHN, Chapter 8, verses 31 to 59, as well as in other parts of the four gospels, you get a very clear description of the Synagogue of Satan. It is useless for the modern Jews to deny it. The present war is descriptive of every word of Jesus reported by John. It is they who profit by fratricide as International Bankers and Zionists. It is unnecessary for me to repeat to readers of the BROOM, the history of the present conflict in Europe. It dates back to the rise of the House of Rothschild and J. P. Morgan is its agent. It was so in the previous world war and again today.

Of Jews, like Rothschild, Jesus says in John 8, verse 44: "Ye are of your father, the devil, and the lusts of your father it is your will to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and standeth not in the truth, because there is no truth in him".

Apply this to the whole present NEW DEAL administration and you will appreciate why there is no truth in them and why they lust to murder even our own American boys, to restore the domination of the Golden Calf which they buried in Fort Knox, everywhere in the world, calling themselves the "crusaders for democracy" as Wendell Willkie, Morgan's hired man, so well termed himself in his campaign oratory.

You may say that I am an anti-Semite and am pro-Nazi, because I tell the truth; but go now, call Jesus Christ THE anti-Semite, for they mobbed HIM because he exposed their Satanic origin and intent, to the world's view. No follower to Christ can possibly take part in this war or any other, because they are all part and parcel of machinations of the Synagogue of Satan.

Hitler, Stalin, Roosevelt

There is no difference between Hitler, Stalin, Roosevelt and Rothschild. They all belong to the same kit and caboodle. They all worship trickery and brute force. None of them is a Christian. The present armageddon is merely another in the long series of Satanic machinations to demonstrate the futility of attempting to reach paradise by devilish routes.

HEALTH-GERMS

By George Starr White, M. D.

HEALTH CANNOT MEAN UNHEALTH

In these times of "rapid living and little thinking", it cannot be repeated too often that health comes only from correct living right thinking, and sanitation.

Dr. Geo. Starr White

No health can ever come from being made sick. To make a person sick with one unhealth in order to prevent another kind of unhealth is like giving a person cowpox to prevent small pox: It is like giving a person chills and fever to prevent paralysis; or giving tapeworm to keep him from getting fat. All health is healthy from first to last—never unhealthy.

Poisoning the body with any kind of putrid matter, or by irritating chemicals, cannot make a person well; nor keep him from becoming sick.

The more one believes in this and that "preventive", the more careless he becomes to sanitary laws and healthful living.

In these "hysterical times", don't run hither and thither to find a "sure cure" or a "sure preventive", to any unhealth. Just live in a healthy manner and don't worry about the "medicated scares".

All epidemics fill the public with fear. The reserve resistance of the individual is immediately lowered and the small "epidemic" becomes a serious matter.

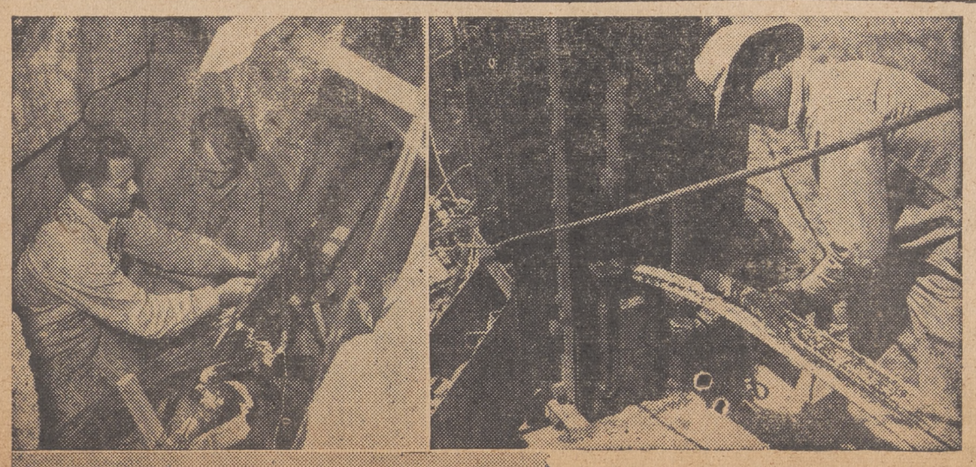

Proper eating, correct breathing, and adequate rest help banish fear; and thus aid in warding off unhealth.

British Secret Service Report 1919

Honours

The profuse bestowal of honours, social preferments university degrees and honourary membership in our learned and scientific societies, has greatly facilitated my task. It likewise has served to create here a numerous and readily recognizable class, profoundly conscious of its distinction from the mob, & determined to exact from it due deference to hierarchical authority in social and in mental affairs. You have already been provided with a copy of the American Who's Who—an imitation of "The First Families of America", which according to the publisher is the American equivalent of "Burk's Peerage", and from which you may see at a glance the pathetic eagerness with which the prodigal colonist apes our social system.

Lists of the English born and trained American bishops, ministers, presidents, professors, lecturers, authors, actors, chartered accountants, etc., are given in Appendices 16-28. Where all have rendered superlative service, it would be insidious to distinguish one for praise, but I have ventured to select certain whose enhanced loyalty would be of great value to us in the near future, and to submit their names to you in Appendix 30. On your recommendation His Majesty might be graciously pleased to deign to signify in some way, the Royal appreciation of the zeal shown by these persons on our campaign. May I also call your attentoin to the services of Professor Richard Gottheil of Columbia University (the one who pinned the medal on F. D. Roosevelt in 1937 for his distinguished service to world Jewry—Editor) in our campaign against the Hindus, and of Miss Elizabeth Marbury and Messrs. Charles McCarthy and Karl Watters in that against the Irish.

Cost of Campaign

The cost of converting an American into a colonist of His Majesty is now 53 cents. Our expenses we have met by a levy on the population. Some of the inhabitants we induced to pay by terror, particularly those of German extraction. Others we subjected to a social tax. But the great mass of people paid peacefully and cheerfully in the form of moneys exchanged for the education and amusements which we made obligatory for them. In fact, we have unostentatiously imposed an indemnity with the consent of the people of the country we are occupying, and we have as unostentatiously expended it here for the purpose of rendering our occupation permanent. I know of no comparable achievement in the history of the empire; but then where is people comparable with the American?

In a proper accounting system, the moneys paid by this people for carrying them to fight for us in France would justly be credited to my department. The insignificant deficit I have now to report would then be converted into a balance in our favor of nearly $200,000,000.00.

Labor

Mr. Gompers so recently reported to you in person that I need make no extended reference to the labor aspect of our campaign. But I can not let pass this opportunity to record our appreciation of the innumerable ways in which the loyalty of Mr. Gompers has been demonstrated. He checkmated strikes here which might have impeded the aid this country rendered us in the war. He beneficially controlled the Labor Press which neither advertisers nor Mr. Borlson could effectively influence. He has made organized Labor here more Imperial than is Labor in England, as was shown unmistakably in his recent tour. (London Jewry may well be proud of it's Mr. Gompers whose name will rank with Disraeli's as an Empire Builder.) I would also like to mention another of our Anglocising Carl Marx, nor yet for his successful pro war aid on the Socialist party, but for the countenance he lent to Mr. Gompers among the extremists in Europe during his recent tour.

(To be continued)

An old darky approached the minister. "Pahson, suh," he said, "Ah wants yo' all to pray for me."

"All right, Rastus. What's wrong?"

"Suh, Ah's got a floatin kidney, suh."

"But Rastus," replied the minister, "I can't pray for physical things like that; I only pray for spiritual things."

"Yo' all can't pray for a floatin' kidney? Den how come you prayed last Sunday fo' the loose livahs?"

C. S. Monitor, Warmongers

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Your article, relative to the attitude of the Christian Science church toward war, recalls that a quarter of a century ago, Frederick Dixon, British Editor of the Christian Science Monitor upheld that particular bloody conflict with all the power of his pen and subscribed to the then prevalent theory that the world would be made safe for Democracy by defeating Germany. History is apparently repeating itself in 1941, if we are to draw our conclustions from the war-like propaganda now emanating from the Mother Church in Boston.

How can any religionist in Christian Science, or out of it, believe that Christ would countenance an alliance with red, atheistic Russia, with its murderous record and savage Dictator Stalin in order to "save" Christianity and promote freedom? Just why are so many churches ignoring Christ's plea for peace when He said, "Blessed are the peacemakers". Indeed, that gentle saying has been reversed and we now are told "Blessed are the British warmakers".

In regard to Mary Baker Eddy's attitude on war as revealed in article in "Miscellany" it is interesting to note that in Science & Health, the founder of Christian Science wrote: ". . . . oppression neither went down in blood, nor did the breath of freedom come from the cannon's mouth. Love is the liberator".

Western religionists, so called, who are clamoring for war and support the horrible idea that by bombing, starving and shelling Italy and Germany freedom can be established, could learn much from Mahatma Gandhi, who by following the simple and Godlike law of peace has gained his objective and true liberation.

"de Aryan Comments"

Teach us to mind our business, not theirs;
To 'tend to our problems, and ours alone,
To better conditions right here at home.

Lead us not into war with modern day Neroes
That would cost the lives of American heroes
And wipe out democracy or, worse still,
Subject us all to a dictator's will.

Deliver us, Our Father, Who art above,
From the loss of these rights we cherish and love.
So that each night when we kneel and pray
We can say, "Thank God for the U. S. A."

DAD—That just about told you what Americanism means to you and me.

FRED—Yes, daddy, I am beginning to see. But if America is just you and me, what shall we do for America?

DAD—There cannot be possibly anything else to do than mind our own business. Not only mind but dare to stand alone and mind your own. We must not lean on others and expect to live by their labors, we must produce our own and exchange services and goods with our neighbors, that alone makes us independent and selfreliant.

FRED—So to be an American, I must not expect something for nothing.

DAD—Now you said it, Freddy. An American is too proud to rob others or exploit them. He wants to be able to produce his own and give value for value. Don't you?

FRED—Yes, daddy; that is why I am going to school.

DAD—You would not want to have somebody take care of you all your life, would you, Freddy?

FRED—No, daddy, I want to grow up and make money, like you do and be able to pay for the whole family.

Mutual Trust

DAD—Now you are getting the idea. But to understand what Americanism really is, you must set an example of honesty and selfreliance. You must not think of making money by taking advantage of the ignorance of others. You must always treat them as you would your own brother, mother and father. That alone makes Americanism possible. As people are dishonest in their dealings they fall into the same pitfalls which are destroying Europe and keeping it perpetually at war.

FRED—I see, if I cheat, then, people could not trust me.

DAD— That is the big difference between Americans and people in other countries. I am sorry to say, even in these U. S. a change is taking place for the worse; but in America people are inherently honest and the dishonest are the exception. In the old countrise, business is considered to be a wide open field to cheat and get as much for as little as you can get away with.

FRED—You said that we are losing our liberties because we do not exercise them.

DAD—In America you and I are the government. Now if we do not attend to the duties and burdens of government ourselves, but pass them on to the politicians and the shysters who write laws that say one thing but mean another, then, we become slaves of the other fellow's government. The politicians rule us and they join hands with unscrupulous exploiters who make money off the ignorance of suckers and write the laws to protect themselves so they can get away with the loot, legally. That leads to autocracy, burocracy and finally dictatorship.

FRED—Then I will have to study and learn how to govern myself. What must I study?

DAD—Begin with history. Learn what happened in Europe and why the pioneers came to this country. Then study how they lived in America and why they fought the British for their Independence. You should know the Declaration of Independence by heart, as well as the Constitution, because they are the legal foundation of American government, and then, remember, unless you see to it that only honest officials are elected and that only good laws are passed and that these laws are enforced for the benefit of everybody and special privileges to none, you are not a good American citizen.

FRED—Can I do all that and attend to my own business?

Union Now — Treason

DAD—If you don't do it, you will have no business to attend. You'll just be a slave for somebody else who was shrewd enough to attend to making the laws and electing the officials. Every American must attend to the business of government everyday in his life, or else he becomes a subject of a foreign "ism" in government and finally, might even become a subject of England again. That's what this UNION NOW business is about.

FRED—Are you joking, dad?

DAD—I am not joking at all. It's a very serious matter. Unless you boys, who are the Americans of tomorrow, are wide awake and know what's going on, America might be lost, with all the precious liberties, because too many people in this country don't appreciate what the Declaration of Independence from England stands for. They say that if England is lost, we are lost.

Check by the States

FRED—But daddy, what can we do if our elected officials don't keep their oaths of office and their campaign pledges?

DAD—That is a difficult situation at present, since our officials are elected for two, four or six years and many laugh at us when we remind them of their duties. But this can be remedied. We can amend the constitution as follows: "Any Federal Officeholder shall be declared in non-possession of his office and authority, when such non-possession and dismissal are recommended and ratified by the legislatures of 36 of the 48 States."

FRED—Then the legislature of 36 states could remove the president from office before his term expired?

DAD—Yes, Fred. Today only an impeachment by the congress can remove the president and as long as congress is a rubberstamp, as it often is, a president could do as he jolly well pleased. By making the federal officers responsible to the states, there the people would have a control again and this would be once more a government by the United States, giving the sovereign states a check on the federal government.

Diet and Breathing

FRED—You promised one of your customers that you would say something about diet this evening.

DAD—Yes, thanks for reminding me. A lady asked me to give an outline of the kind of diet I like best. So I'll start with breakfast. I generally wake up around five in the morning and take a good drink of distilled water. Then I do my breathing exercises for about half an hour. Long, slow breaths in, counting to seven seconds for each inhalation and seven seconds for each exhalation. Then I read the morning paper and drink from a pint to a quart of warm lemonade made with honey, distilled water and sometimes mixed with orange juice. If I eat anything else, I take two slices of whole wheat toast, buttered with Nucoa; but many a time I eat nothing after the lemon and orange juice and have my first meal at lunch. Next week I shall continue this diet talk. Are you going to play your harmonica tonight, Freddy?

FRED—Yes, dad. I'll play THE OLD SPINNING WHEEL.

G. O. P. Gain Seen

NEW YORK,—National Chairman Ed Flynn, of the Democratic national committee, has returned to the Bronx after touring the west on behalf of the administration's aid-to-Britain.

In a nice, gentle way he was frank in the gospel he expounded: No support for F. D. R.'s foreig policy, no patronage.

Equally gently he was told by at least some Democratic leaders that there is a ground swell which might saddle the president with a Republican house of representatives after Jan. 1, 1943. —National Whirligig.

Another Fellowship Booklet!

"New Dealers in Office"

YOU doubtless recall that last year's Dies Committee gave it out that 563 Reds, or members of Red Front organizations, were being employed in Federal government positions under the patronage of the New Deal Administration. But not until you have it brought home to you how they are allocated in vital government departments, does the menace which they constitute to this free Republic come home to you.

This publishing house has just completed a 64-page booklet giving the names, and some of the records of the principal New Dealers. Blended in among the hundreds of alien names are the Dies Committee's identifications of those who embrace the soviet creed. It is a list that freezes the blood! If you are disposed to question it, send for copies of "New Dealers in Office" and see what the nation's "Democrats" are harboring.

You can buy them for 15c each, 8 for $1, or 100 for $10. Address—
