141 AMERICANS

"Onward, Christian Soldiers!"

Where Did These Things Happen ?

"I have been stripped and scrubbed with a broom, put under a faucet with my mouth held open, had a rope around my neck and pulled up choking tight for a bit, been fisted, slapped, kicked, carried a bag of sand and dirt until I could hardly hold it and go, have been kept under a shower bath until pretty chilled. If this information will do no good for others, thee may just burn this letter and let it go."

Of course, you will say, this is a description of what happened in a Nazi concentration camp. Now read this:

"He was placed in solitary confinement in the 'hole'. For the first two weeks he was given nothing but bread and water. For the first seven days he was chained to the door of his cell for nine hours a day. His arms were thrust through the bars and handcuffed on the outside."

That must be a description of Russian 'hole', reminding you of the Calcutta 'hole' where loving Englishmen have been butchering and torturing their native Indian victims, but, 'my frenz', you are mistaken, this is a description of conditions in these United States that sallied forth under Woodrow Wilson to make the world safe for "demons-crazy" and he did.

The first quotation is not from a letter of a Nazi Dachau concentration camp event, but took place at Camp Cody in 1917 and a young American Quaker was the victim of this army brutality. It goes to show that militarrism begets fiends, just as beastly in the U. S. A. as in Russia, Germany, France, the Dutch East Indies and England.

The second quotation again is not the treatment Germans gave some haples Jew, but is the treatment the U. S. federal prison authorities meted out to G. L., sentenced to 30 years in Leavenworth, taken from the case record of the prison and published in the SATURDAY EVENING POST of August 16, 1941.

Religious Persecution Up-to-Date

Now while the President arouses the crusading spirit of fanaticism, to drive ignorant Americans to a war of extinction of "Nazi" inhumanities that the crusaders may bring the FOUR FREEDOMS to the four corners of the world, in defiance of the U. S. Constitution, 141 young Americans who dared stand upon their constitutional rights and privileges are in federal penitentiaries today as violators of the "draft" act, because they do not concede the authority to the administration to force them to register for military service against their conscientious convictions.

Some of these young men did not refuse from religious scruples, but from the realization that they were being drafted into a war of aggression for the profit of International Jews and the British crown, to the detriment of America. They took their oath of allegiance to the U. S. Constitution to DEFEND IT AGAINST ALL ENEMIES, whomsoever, seriously enough to refuse to submit to the violation of that Constitution, by registering.

As the years pass and history surveys the struggle we underwent in America to free ourselves definitely from the brutalitarianism of military dictatorship, with its inhuman treatment of prisoners, these 141 objectors will receive a place of high honor as pioneers for the TRUE FREEDOM. It is astounding that when men have come to the realization of the very ideals so glibly mouthed by the melliflous voice of the crusading host from the White House, they are subjected to infamous persecutions, exactly as Jesus Christ was persecuted by the very Jews, who to this day pretend to stand for LIBERTY.

If you read how Christian martyrs were treated in the Roman jails and were thrown into the circus arena to wild beasts, you are horrified, but what is going on, TODAY, when 141 REAL Americans have lost their citizenship because they take their oath of allegiance to the Constitution literally, as Americans and stand upon their prerogatives! What treatment are they getting in those jails? And why should they be in jail because they follow Christ?

ANOTHER MILESTONE — No. 55

(Over KGB - 1360 - Tuesday 8:30 pm)

FRED—Dad, how old are you getting to be?

DAD—On Monday, the 18th of August, I will be 55.

DAVID—You don't look it, dad.

DAD—Thanks for the compliment, David.

DAVID—I really mean it.

DAD—Well, children, It's the climate, It's the Climate!

DAVID—How do you feel when another birthday comes along?

DAD—I really enjoy it. You know, I am very sensitive to spiritual impressions. Now every year when the sun enters the constellation LEO, which is my birth sign, the month from July 22 to August 21 is a red letter month to me. It's a feeling akin to 'Coming Home'. There is always a great surprise and a blessing awaiting me in the LEO season.

FRED—You mean you get birthday presents?

DAD—Not exactly that way. Of course, whenever some of my friends give me presents to make up for the deficit which piles up in my public service, so that I can continue my work, that is a happy surprise; but there is something more than that, for it goes much deeper.

DAVID—What is the surprise this year?

DAD—You children know that my real motive in life is to understand the teachings of Jesus and apply them in practice. But some are not so easy to understand. The Four Gospels give us very little about what He taught and so much of it is confusing because it is so contrary to the things we are used to thinking and doing.

DAVID—Did you learn something new this season?

DAD—Yes, I learned to understand the meaning of not resisting evil with evil.

FRED—How did you learn it, dad?

DAD—A friend of mine gave me the lesson, accidentally. She had an accident and hurt herself. You know my English teacher with whom I rehearse before going on the air. Last week she climbed a high step ladder to fill in some putty in the crack of a window so the water won't seep through when the next rains come. Well, she fell down with the stepladder and hurt her ankle, knee and wrenched her back. Luckily she did not break any bones, but is now laid up and bandaged in bed. As soon as she realized that she could not even crawl along and her leg, ankle and side started to swell and hurt, she said to herself: "SERVES ME RIGHT".

FRED—Why did she say that?

DAD—You see, she has studied Metaphysics and knows that nothing happens by chance. So she always looks to herself for the cause of anything that enters her life, good or bad.

DAVID—How is she now?

C. O. D. British Bundle

What happened to one American who wanted to save British "democracy"? Let the story be told by the Washington Daily News of July 12, 1941. Rep. Paul Shafer of Michigan put the article in the Congressional Record—"The body of a young Washington father who offered his life for the British cause, came home yesterday —C. O. D. and decomposed! And his family doesn't know yet where or how he met death in the Canadian army except that he was "accidentally killed by a rifle shot while on duty July 2nd."

The young man, who leaves three little children, was Joseph Anthony Aslop, 25, a lumber shippnig-clerk until his disappearance after separation from his wife last February.

"I had to pay $119 to bring Joe home," his grief-stricken grandmother, Mrs. Annie C. Aslop, said later. "And the body was in such a bad shape that it couldn't be taken into a church." However, Aslop seems to have been merely an American whom England expected to do his duty—by England.

He came home C. O. D.—and decomposed!

—Roll Call.

Jake Weinberger, City Attorney

Upon high pressure of the Democratic Central "Committee", meaning Bob Goree and Henry Cramer, who are the committee, Gov.. Culbert Olson appointed Jacob Weinberger city attorney, filling the vacancy after the death of Dayton Ault. The whole situation resolved itself around the religious question: Should two Catholics hold the two key-positions of D. A. and City Attorney in San Diego? Thomas Whelan and his deputy, Frank Dunn, who was suggested by the City Council to the Governor for appointment to the vacancy, are Catholics.

Now the question arises whether we should have more than two Jews in the city attorney's office. It naturally works both ways. If we must not have too many Catholics, neither should we have too many Jews. In fact why not take a religious census? On that basis, then, how many Jews should hold public office in San Diego? They are less than 3% of the population. Have we got enough Methodists in office? How about the Jehovah's witnesses? Anybody know of any of them in public office?

Naturally, on this basis we would have to deal with percentages, to make sure we have not too many of a kind. Not too many Irish, not too many Greeks. Any Greeks in office? How about proportional representation of Negroes, Chinese and Japanese? Are they not citizens?

Which goes to show that in these United States the religoius or racial question should never be raised because it cuts more ways than one. We came here from the old countries to get away from all that, and now when a vacancy occurs in a city office, the decision was made against the Irish Catholics.

New Deal Goal

Taxation Load Of Britons Disclosed

Chicago,—Great Britain's sky-rocketing taxes due to the war have left fewer than 100 persons in England with incomes of 16,000 to $20,000 annually, it was disclosed in Chicago by Geoffrey Crowther editor of the London Economist.

The greatest direct tax, said Crowther, is the standard income tax of 50 percent, plus surtaxes on the larger incomes. Then come the purchase or "sales" taxes, which are 12 percent on what the government classes as necessary commodities, and 24 percent on all other goods.

Special taxes mentioned by Crowther included the $150 yearly license fee for autos, and a 25-cent-per-gallon gasoline ax.

The excess profits tax, which applies only to company profits, is 100 percent, the editor said.

Billions for American Defense—or Destruction?

BUNDLES ?

WILL WE RECEIVE THESE?
WILL YOU BE THERE TO SEE HIM DIE ?

Carpenters working day and night—
Making caskets gay and bright.
In one of them will your son lie?
Will you be there to see him die?

His eyes blown out by poisoned lead,
His right arm hanging by a thread,
His body lying in the mud,
As from his belly oozes blood—
Your blood, the birthright of your womb
Crimson anointing for his tomb?

Will you be there to see him die,
To hear his last faint moan and cry:
"O God, is this democracy,
This death those devils planned for me
Safe at their desks in Washington?"

Then, mothers, if you have a son,
Leave tasks behind, and, yes, today,
Be quickly, quickly on your way
Before those vultures pass the bill
Whose purpose is to main and kill,
As Caesar rules with iron hand,
And death swoops down upon the land.

Make haste, then, with no instant lost,
Lest life by gold is double-crossed—
Inaction bringing thru the years,
Regret that finds no balm in tears,
But only pain, remembering ,
You failed to do the one last thing
That could have saved our liberty,
And kept your dead son's future free—

Carpenters working day and night,
Making caskets gay and bright.

ROOSEVELT - CHURCHILL DICTATORSHIP

Winston Churchill and Franklin Delano Roosevelt had a secret meeting at sea and decided the fate of the world; so they figure. America is to furnish the means and Britain is to garner the profits. If needs be, Americans are to be drafted to fight for the British rule of the seas, as well as the commercial domination of the world. The UNION NOW idea is an accomplished fact.

Of course, Americans have nothing to say about it. They merely must tighten their belt, ruin their business, furnish their sons and girls to put the plan of the conspirators into action. And to divert their mind from the true facts, which means poverty for more millions and destruction of more individual business, as well as death, cripples and sickness, a lovely picture of PEACE after the WAR, is painted for the fools.

And there are plenty suckers, like the proverbial dog looking at his picture in the water and letting go of the bone in his mouth to grab after the illusion of the "other bone" in the water.

And after PEACE, of course, America is to furnish the men and the means for reconstruction of Europe so that the JEWS may rule supreme over there and over here. Four Freedoms for the JEWS to strip the world, that's what the war is about. And that is the aim of the PEACE, but there shall be no such peace.

YOU CAN COUNT ON US
BUT CAN WE COUNT ON YOU ?

For eleven long years I have been working SEVEN DAYS each week that you may not miss a single issue of THE BROOM. We have always been there when the hour came for another issue.

And for almost three years now we have always been there on the dot when the radio program came on, each week. Inspite of the corrupt propaganda and the censorship and the boycott and persecution, both the paper and the radio program have been presenting facts to you, for your benefit, which no other publication or radio program DARE present in San Diego.

That I have to literally slave against great odds to accomplish this feat and give you unceasing service, till you have been accustomed to take it for granted, is something you ought to THINK about!

Aside from the great amount of STUDY which I must keep up continually to be up-to-date, I have to PAY for the printnig of The Broom and have to PAY the cost of the radio time which varies between $80 and $100 a month to KGB alone.

Are you honestly doing your share? We are all working for an INDEPENDENT America, free from British dominion where WE shall make the decisions in accordance with OUR Costitution.

I leave it to your conscience to tell you what you ought to be doing. Personally I am holding my own; but I need HELP: Financially and morally. Cut out a picture show, you only finance HOLLYWOOD, and spend the money on worthwhile efforts. I certainly need it more than the HOLLYWOOD outfit who propagandizes you INTO WAR.

Jewish V Rule Everywhere in the World

The New York SUN, July 28, carried the following:

V FOR VICTORY
IS EVERYWHERE

Ancient Symbol of Jewish Temple Stands as Sign of Hope to Conquered.

Spreading steadily in spite of the Nazis is the use of the letter V as the symbol throughout Europe of victory against the forces of oppression.

V is for Victory and no one is quite sure how it started. What all know, though, is that each day it gains strength and significance through a remarkable ever-growing series of coincidences.

An Ancient Symbol

Stranger than story, almost is the new realization now that the sign of V has for thousands of years been a significant symbol in the religion of the Jews, most persecuted of all by the Nazis. For centuries the Kohanim, descendants of the priestly tribe of the temple which Titus destroyed 2,000 years ago, have formed a V with the fingers of the hands in bestowing the blessing on assembled worshipers.

The hands are upraised during the priestly blessing with the thumb, the first and middle fingers separated from the ring fingers in an unmistable sign of the V. The ancient significance is that the rays of the Shekinah, or manifestation of God, may stream upon those assembled—but the coincidence of this V sign adds weight to the almost frantic devotion with which men everywhere who still hope for liberty are clutching for support on the sign today.

It was in Norway, it is believed, that the V for Victory first appeared on walls, rocks, fences, sidewalks. Soon flat surfaces in all invaded countries mysteriously bore the sign .

Then it was recalled that the V in Morse code is three short dots and a long dash. Telegraph operators tapped it out on their keys. Messenger boys tapped it out on hotel doors. Other callers rang it out on doorbells. Drummers in orchestras tapped it out on their snares. It was everywhere—and then another coincidence was recollected.

It Is Set to Music

The first four notes of Beethoven's Fifth Sympony are the same in rhythm as the telegraphic V—three short notes and one long. Prisoners in Nazi camps began to hum the measures. Children hummed, too. Orchestras tuning for Nazi hymns tuned to the Beethoven Fifth.

Even in this country the V will be put to use. Bundles for Britain has announced that the symbol will be adopted here as part of the organization's relief campaign. How it will be used has not been said except that it will be co-ordinated and run concurrently with a campaign in Great Britain.

Editor's Note:—The "Kohanim" have more "Cohen" listed in the New York telephone directory than there are "Smith".

REDS ADOPT V-FOR-VICTORY SIGN

But for Europe's Sub-rosa Communists Units It's the Signal for Sabotage.

On July 28, the New York SUN carried a copyrighted Radio Dispatch from London stating that "—The Russians have tied up with the V-for-Victory campaign. While the Reds battle the Nazis on the steppes before Moscow, communist supporters underground throuout Europe are using the "V"—the half-bent arm raised into the clenched fist salute, and understand it as a signal for sabotage.

It is also asserted in political circles here that the V when multiplied five times with the tips conjoined forms the shape of the Red star which in giant proportions stood outside the Kremln before the war, outlined in red neon lights. This was also displayed at the Paris exposition in 1937 and at the World's Fair, New York, in 1939. It was one of the chief symbols of the International Brigade which fought for the Loyalists in the Spanish civil war. The star, for that matter, was displayed on the uniforms of the Republican Army. It is also used in Mexican Communist processions."

Editors Note:—Which all goes to show who is running Britain's war for "democracy".

Oh My! Ed Fletcher Again . . .

Editor, The Broom:

Will officials ever learn, or do they not care to? Why is Sen. Ed Fletcher so eager to tell the public about all the laws he was instrumental in having them placed on the statutes at Sacramento? Does it not occur to Mr. Fletcher that we cannot feed the babies on laws? Does he not realize that its not laws we need but that its the right to make a living in an honest endeavor.

I often wonder if any of our thousands of officials ever read the Constitution of the United States. If they do I would call their attention to the 14th Amendment. It distinctly and flatly states that no state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges and immunities of the citizens of the United States. I would also call their attention to Article 6 Section 2. "This Constitution and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof shall be the supreme law of the land. And all Judges of every State shall be bound by oath or affirmation to preserve, protect and defend this Constitution".

Again: I would refer them to the Declaration of Independence, paragraph 12. That paragraph will tell them why the Declaration of Independence and why the Constitution was inaugurated.

Constituton Prevents Regimentation

Few people seem to know why the Constitution was made the supreme law of the United States. They think it was framed to regulate you and me. Much to the contrary, it was instituted to regulate officials to prohibit them from making laws that would abridge our privileges and our liberty to operate our private businesses as we see fit. The farmers wished to guard against the repetition of the abuses they had suffered under the king of England.

We have reached a time when conditions are much worse than they were at the time of the Declaration of Independence. You can't run a peanut stand, a bootblack stand, a grocery store or a business of any kind without there's a law. They even tell me I can't build me a home on my own property without I get the consent of our servants. BULL with a capital B and that must come from John BULL (Great Britain).

Laws and Outlaws

All those laws, and the officials enforcing them, are outlaws. The Constitution says so. A man or a group of men instrumental in having laws passed or persons enforcing those laws or even persons approving of those laws which are not made in pursuance to the Constitution are outlaws, and though they have been born in the United States, they are not citizens of the United States. Persons who do not act in pursuance to the Constitution of the United States repudiate the Constitution, and if he repudiates the Constitution he is not a citizen under the Constitution. A kicking mule can be born in the United States, but that does not make him a citizen. He's only an American kicking mule.

I'm 100 percent for the Constitution of the United States, and I would die in defense of it, and I detest and have nothing but contempt for officials who make laws, and others who enforce those laws not made in pursuance to the Constitution of the United States. Some day, in the not too distant future, all this outlawry will cause a lot of trouble and no doubt bloodshed.

Advocates Utopian System

If I were to officiate as an official for the people of the United States, making laws that would hog-tie them in their private enterprise would be beneath me. I would first seek to guide, direct and advise them to guard them from the pitfalls. I would seek to give them a system of money that would meet their needs.

The young people of this country and of the world need cooperation. They need to be guided by honest and efficient leaders. Not those fellows who haven't had a new idea in 40 years. Nor those who just follow along with the procession.

When you have given the youth their full measure they should be able to enter into a new era, a new realm of security and happines.

Those "Old" Destroyers

NEW YORK,—A New York executive recently returned from Canada relates interesting details of a visit with an oil dealer in Halifax. His Canadian friend distributes gasoline and oil to landlubbers as well as vessels in the harbor.

The conversation soon turned to the Anglo-American destroyer deal.

"Well, I guess we could easily spare 50 overage warships such as we sent up here," the New Yorker remarked. "What do you mean, old destroyers!" the Canadian retorted. "Of course, I haven't seen all 50, but the ones I helped fuel were brand new—you could even see the rivet marks in the hulls. Don't you believe any bedtime stories—I have seen enough with my own eyes to know how fit the ships were."—R. Waldo.

Suggestions for the Visit

His Royal Highness, the Prince, should have a brillant entourage of our American-born nobility. About the time of his coming, the Grand Fleet might make a demonstration in American waters, preferably off Newport, Rhode Island, so that Lady Gerard, Lady Sims, Lady Strauss, Lady Rodman, and the wives of our other Knights may participate. And Field Marshall Haig, with Sir John Pershing, might review the American forces. During the visit, special courtesies should be shown to the presidents and professors whom I have listed in Appendix 23. I would also suggest that a complete programme of social favors be arranged for parsons, editors, and newspaper proprietors in Appendices 20 and 26. A new Order might be created to reward the celebrants of the visit—the Royal Order of the Pilgrims. It should have three degrees, Knights, Grand Cross, Knights Bachelor, and Comanders. With respect to the knighted classes we could of course reassure the suspicious by Mr. A. Maurice Low's patent device, first described in the New York Times, August 15, 1918 (Appendix 44) which safeguards the democracy of the Knights by the withholding of the accolade. Would you, however, kindly give instruction to the publishers of the "Whittaker Almanac", and of the official register to delete, in their next issue, from their list of British Knights, the names of Sir John Biddle, Sir Tasker Bliss, Sir P. D. Lechridge, Sir Payton March, Sir John Pershing, Sir Hugh Rodman, Sir William Sims, Sir Joseph Strauss, and the other American Knights, as their inclusion in the 1919 issue has tended to shake the American faith in our Mr. Low's ingenuity.

The New Ambassador

Too great attention can not be given at this time to the Presidential peculiarities, for his devotion to our purpose will depend upon our ability to pander to them. I would suggest that the new Ambassador to Washington should be chosen only after the most careful thought. He should not be too clever, lest Mr. Wilson shun him. He should be able to evince hilarity at the most venerable jest, no matter how often he may have to suffer it. This qualification is vitally important whether Mr. Wilson's "humor" is merely assumed to perpetuate the "human" tradition established for presidents by Lincoln, or whether it is studied descent from Jove-like isolation to Jove-like jest. The ambassador should be a Wilson worshipper. I enclose (Appendix 34) resumes of the methods of worship practiced by various members of his inner circle. The appointee would do well to familiarize himself with them, and my services are at his disposal should he desire more extended information on the method of worship he selects. He should of course be a commoner, that we may not lose democratic favor—preferably a professor—and sufficiently subsidized to be able to entertain regally. If a list were submitted to Mr. Wilson he might be prepared to indicate all of whom he did not approve, & the one against whom he expressed no prejudices should be appointed. The expressing need of our embassy at Washington is not so much an ambassador as a Gentleman-in-Waiting to the President.

Presidential Powers

I would suggest that his powers as President of the League of Nations be left undefined for the present. He may be trusted to assume what power he can, and to use it in the interests of the Crown.

A grant of a Privy Purse of $100,000,000 would prove most acceptable to him and would be useful for private espionage, private wars, Siberian railroads, etc. His appointment should be for life, & you might definitely promise him that any instructions he may care to convey concerning his successor will receive the most careful attention of His Majesty's Government.

Good THOUGHT

Good WORD — Good DEED

THE MAZDAZNAN PHILOSOPHY
By Dr. O. Z. Ha'nish

Man is a complex whole, in his physical state made up of units permeating every realm of matter, while his entity is equal to that of Mazda, with whom he is at one. Space, Time and Causation are the three great principal factors in the Wheel of Destiny determined by the Master Thought of Mazda to collect the ever-drifting energies of the co-existing substance unto creations of organized matter, evolving worlds and their manifestations. However vast the complexity of creation and of what magnitude its variety, the principle as to Space, Time and Causation continues to be impressed upon every object thruout the manifestations of Nature. But where in the gradations of Nature's products the principle of Life remains hidden, in man it stands out beyond any doubt as the highest achievement of the great work of God.

Man stands 'twixt earth and heaven, matter and spirit, God and Nature. He is the focalization of the one and the crystallization of the other. He can either rise higher and above his own state of inheritance or he can be lower than the brute. This is left for man to determine, that he might either remember his high estate and thus ascend, or forget his origin and descend to the lower strata out of which his abode has risen and, clothed in his magic illusion, decline by virtue of self-imposed delusions.

The purpose of man on earth is to realize the great possibilities before him, thereby instigating perpetuity of consciousness here, now and forever. That he may most effectively promote his infinite designs he must take up the work where the spirit of creation and evolution leaves off and enter perfection or the perfecting of all things conducive to the real worth and value of matter. His attention is first directed toward the reclaiming of himself that he may own himself without the slightest obligation to another, for his object is to "owe no man anything".

How Serum Kills People

Lockjaw Anti-Toxin Fatal to Boy Who Was Slightly Hurt by Friend

BAY SHORE, L. I., N. Y.,—April 25, 1941.—A precautionary injection of tetanus antitoxin, administered to a four-year old Riverhead boy who had suffered a head injury, resulted in the child's death on Wednesday. The youngster, Jack Nathan Levy, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Levy of Roanoke Avenue, had been hit on the head with a small rake while playing with a chum, Benjamin Foster, 5, in the yard of the Foster home.

The parents discovered the injury and called Dr. J. L. Cantor, according to testimony at an inquest conducted Wednesday night by Coroner Dr. J. Mott Heath. The doctor took four stitches in a two-inch cut on the back of the child's head and then administered the tetanus injection, which is a routine precaution against lockjaw infection.

The boy lapsed into a state of unconsciousness almost immediately after the injection, it was testified, and attending physicians were unable to rouse him, despite artificial respiration, the administration of oxygen and other treatment. The coroner held that death was "due to anaphylactic shock as the result of prophylactic injection of tetanus antitoxin."

Besides his parents the child is survived by a sister, Joan, age nine.

Mr. Levy has started a $50,000 suit against Cantor.

UNITY OF DISEASE

Intelligent doctors from the dawn of medical history have known that all disease is one, and results from one cause. The Ancient Egyptians, 5,000 years ago, believed in the Unity of Disease, resulting from a Unity of Cause—bad habits, which Jesus called Sin (John 5:14). Hippocrates the great Greek physician with whom the history of modern medicine begins, asserted: "Omnium morborum unus et idem est"—"the cause of all disease is one and the same," and he declared, "Give me fever and I can cure every disease."

"Thus Hippocrates, the 'Father of Medicine', over 2,000 years ago," writes Henry Lindlahr, M. D., "expressed the fundamental law of cure. And Lindlahr, 2,000 years later, comments upon the law as follows: "I have expressed this law in the following sentence: 'Every acute disease is the result of a cleansing and healing effort of Nature'." (Nature Cure, p.55).

It is clear to a thinking man that if the cause of all disease is one and the same, then the remedy for all disease must be one and the same. When doctors accept this fundamental doctrine and treat the sick accordingly, as the Egyptians did, then will the art of healing become a science.—How to Live, Sebring, Fla.

British vs. Mazdaznan

Editor, The Broom:

I just read the letter by Mary Stout in the Broom, claiming to be a Mazdaznan. Well, I am certainly surprised, to put it mildly, to read such expressions of their inner thought, from a Mazdaznan. I agree with you in all you said in your remarks. If I am not mistaken, Guromano is Lieutenant Colonel Knowles who was here in Los Angeles, making a radio talk, praising Rosenfeld and urging him to keep in good health for the coming struggle. This was during the time when Dr. Hanish was still living.

Well, we have the blasphemous falsehoods right here in L. A.—How can anybody claiming to be a Mazdaznan do such things? I have not had much intercourse with Mazdaznan people, having attended very few meetings. I first became acquainted with the system while in London, in 1908, reading an adv. in a magazine and buying the books then published, which, of course, surpassed anything I had read so far. Incidentally, while in England at that time, I gave up corpse eating. The smell of all those cadavers hanging around in the markets was nauseating. That was even before I heard of Mazdaznan. And by the way they had one of the best bakeries in London specializing in unfermented bread, nut breads, etc., all made with distilled water and their whole wheat crackers were far superior to anything I have ever tasted since.

I notice in your paper that you use Nucoa. A few years ago I used this kind of artificial butter, but had to give it up; my whole system became clogged, especially Nucoa that tasted like a block of salt; I couldn't eat it, while the cheaper margarine tasted allright, having a smaller percentage of salt than Nucoa, but nevertheless they are taboo with me now. Of course, if they were made of plain coconut fat they would be O. K. in a way. I prefer the straight oil now. Olive oil which is the best, I cannot afford, so I use corn or cotton seed oil, sometimes clarified butter.

Well, keep up the good work; you certainly tell 'em.

With best wishes, sincerely,
JULIUS CANNING,
514 N. Ave. 66, Los Angeles.

Editor's Note:—Canning is right about Nucoa. But I cannot prevail against Mrs. de Aryan;—to elmininate the salt she washes it, still there is plenty left, and also casein from the cow milk which is added to the coconut fat. That it is clogging the finer system of a vegetarian is patent.

The trouble with those who are vegetarians for the belly's sake, not because of the spiritual urge for the higher realms of consciousness and life, is that they are afraid of losing their identity unless they hang on to the animal kingdom and its chemical preservatives. So they must have eggs, milk, butter and salt, at least. That brings back the subconscious memories of their childhood, with its salted pork, ham, bacon, butter, cheese, etc. It makes them feel "at home" again when they lap the salt and have the eggs, the cheese and the butter. The truth of the matter is they still don't belong in the finer realms where animal propensities ARE NOT AT HOME and so they feel lost without it.

A Mazdaznan, naturally, has stepped out of the realm of animal subjectiveness and lives AT HOME in the divine consciousness, being present, here in the flesh more as a matter of duty. But Mazdaznans are as scarce as hen's teeth, or as rare as Christians. Many are called, but few elect to be.

Guromano, the British leader of the group, is Lt. Col. Arthur F. Gault. Mr. Knowles used to run a group in competition to Gault, but he was bombed out of his office in London, which alone remained intact out of the brick pile, at the top of the stairway; an oddity. He is now charging a fee for giving instructions and plugs on.

Lt. Col. Gault, of course, is a Britisher in his allegiance. They all put Imperialism above God, as does Rosenvelt. You cannot change the tribe over night. Only the bloody results of their murderous tyranny, when it comes home to them individually, will in the course of eons, reach the entity which is encased in the shell of hardboiled imperialism.

Mazdaznan, like Christianity, is a sorry joke, when one looks at those who profess to be its followers. But the message survives through its own inherent value and the mills of the Gods grind slowly.

"Frozen Freedoms"?

By H. D. Kissenger

KANSAS CITY, Mo.,—I do not know whether it is the American people who are no longer fit for self-government or whether it is Congress that is no longer fit to represent the people; anyway, whenever a people desert their ideals and traditions, chaos impends. INGERSOLL said: "COURAGE IS LIBERTY". Especially at a time when the Roosevelt administration is moving ever onward to bigger and better emergencies in order to keep its victims in the trance of submission. An increasing ratio of Congressmen no longer possess the moral and physical courage of the great men who signed the immortal Declaration of Independence which guarantees the right of every man TO MAKE HIS OWN LIVING instead of being reduced to mere wards of the government.

Congress is to be blamed for the fact that Americans are being regimented under the guise of the four freedoms which should be secured for AMERICA FIRST; for enabling the administration to save its face and cover up its failure to provide employment by conscripting youth for non-productive military service. We quivver at the mention of "frozen assets" as the Nudealers plow under every fourth American freedom. Already every one of the four freedoms is badly frost-bitten and unless we are vigilant, all four will be frozen solid.

We have had so much freedom from fear that fools have made us afraid that "the disinherited millions, blighted by poverty, crushed with burdens they cannot bear, will not remain silent ALWAYS". We have had freedom from want to the extent of being IN want of a solution of the tax dilemma while at the same time borrowing 3 billion dollars a year from those yet unborn. We have had freedom of religion until now Christians are rare in a world that has had 2000 years of Christianity. We have had freedom of speech until a babble of tongues bewilder the mongrelized progeny of our great pioneers.

Allegiance in the U. S. is due from the citizen to the Constitution and laws of the U. S., NOT to the Chief Executive, nor to Congress or any other official. The American oath of allegiance is not to ANY person or individaul or office or officer. The HOT SPRINGS (New Mex.) HERALD says: "The American oath binds all who take it, to resist with all the power at his command, all usurpation of unlawful power by the President or his Cabinet". Congress possesses not one iota of legal power to either give, lease or lend any tax monies TO ANY FOREIGN NATION under any circumstances or conditions whatever. Yet, under the power grabbed the Executive by the L. L. Bill, fear of the loss of the four freedoms at home, moved W. R. HEARST to say: "Soon I will stop writing because soon we will be in war and all you can say in war is that everything is all right whether it is or not—else you are not a good American and I want to LIVE and DIE a good American".

In his attempt to liquify and sprinkle the four freedoms over the earth, there is great danger that Roosevelt will freeze them at home. His policy has made the Monroe doctrine so repugnant to Europe and Asia that they will no longer stand for it but demand for their respective spheres all that we demand in our sphere. LINCOLN was satisfied to keep America and American power; Roosevelt is trying to make of America a Foreign Power in ruthless defiance of the Washington Traditions. I warn those who give Prexy more power in peace time than Churchill has in war time, that—if the President uses this dictatorial power to police the world and forces the U. S. into a war disastrous to our Representative Democracy—they will be held accountable for the loss of the four freedoms at home which this insane policy implies.

Our liberty is endangered. As long as a man is responsible TO THE PEOPLE, there is no fear of despotism. But give him a blank check, to whom is he responsible? Not to the people, for he and his family become the reigning family. Speech is the wing of thought and if you will not allow free speech you are not a civilized people. Every citizen of this REPUBLIC has a right to tell the rest of us what he believes. Alex. HAMILTON knew that to LIVE American, one must have the right to freely SPEAK American; he said: "The liberty of the press consists in publishing the truth FROM GOOD MOTIVES and FOR JUSTIFIABLE ENDS, tho it reflects on the government, on magistrates or indviduals". This should protect those who in this perilous time speak to save our beloved country from being driven into bankruptcy by warmongers who demand gory profits at the expense of the four fredoms at home.

GEORGE WASHINGTON said: "I want an AMERIMAN character that the power of Europe may be convinced we act for ourselves and not for others". If George were in Washington today, he would ask: "Are THESE Americans"? The Congress of Washington was not fearful, had minds of their own and were unwilling to take orders from foreign entanglers who disturb our domestic tranquility. Washington, D. C. has become a veritable mad-house, the rendezvous of the greatest aggrepation of nuts in history. They may yet succeed in getting us into this senseless war but if they do, the number of refugees leaving the U. S. may exceed the number admitted to our shores. This element would not allow the French to run France and seem determined not to allow Americans to run America. They thrive on national disunity.

I say with VOLTAIRE: "I disagree with every word you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it". I cry out against communistic Nudeal with the words of PATRICK HENRY: "Should I keep back my opinions AT SUCH A TIME, I should consider myself guilty of TREASON towards my country". Those who dare IMPOSE this brand of treason merit impeachment by those who are still jealous of their sovereign rights. To tamper with the four freedoms at home, to deny the right to own and operate property one has created is one sure way to promote DISUNITY. These rights are too sacred to be impaired thru the media of trumped-up emergencies, dangers and crises. GOD GIVE US MEN!

Bad Habits Make Disease

My dear Mr. Canning:

Thanks for your letter calling attention to the "block of salt" contained in Nucoa. Since I published my own bad habit of using it, of course, I must confess it. So few people realize that salt is as injurious to most bodies as is aluminum. There are people who are immune to aluminum poisoning and there are those who don't mind if they get the "gout", hardening of arteries, are full of adipose tissue and their bodies become shapeless;— they simply must have their salt.

One thing I decided when I observed the habits of socalled Mazdaznans. I decided against their hypocrisy. Dr. Hanish used to wear a corset to hold his protruding belly down, he was utterly ridiculous and pathetic, since he fooled nobody. But the pretense of it was an insult to our intelligence, since he bragged about his body. And there was a whole lot of other things in the "family".—As a result of that determination, I tell on myself and so I told on my Nucoa covered toast. That, of course, brought me up short and to my profit. You protested.

At first I let the matter rest, by saying that I cannot eternally battle against Mrs. de Aryan. She insists on Nucoa. But after thinking the matter over and spending a sleepless night over it, I decided that after all as disease enters our family, it's I who has to pay for the care of the sick. So I got up and threw the Nucoa in the garbage and with it the oversalted, canned Soya Beans and Soyburgers and told the family that as fast as they bring the stuff in the house, in the garbage it goes. It's cheaper in the long run.

Thanks,
C. LEON de ARYAN.

P. S.—Salt is needed only for corpse eaters to keep the corpse from attacking living human tissue.

"de Aryan Comments"

DAD—Much better. But when she told me how she sat there in the corner of the hall, not able to walk upstairs, with a crippled leg and torn ligaments and saying to herself: "SERVES ME RIGHT", I realized what Jesus meant when He warned us not to carry resentment in our heart, or hatred, or fear, because one cannot conquer evil by evil, but only by good. She figured quite correctly that had her mental balance not been disturbed, she would have had presence of mind enough to watch herself and not fall down with the stepladder. So I saw the point and understood the whole method and the LAW by which man creates his own life through his spiritual and mental attitudes and decisions. Nothing happens by chance.

Enemies Are Useful

(Over KGB - 1360 - Tuesday 8:30 pm)

FRED—Is that why Jesus teaches us to love our enemies and do good to those who hate and persecute us?

DAD—Yes, Freddy. He teaches us the exact opposite of the Mosaic law of a tooth for a tooth & an eye for an eye. Where the balance of mind and spirit has been disturbed any sort of disaster is likely to result. But where PEACE and CONSIDERATION rules our being, we are not likely to do foolish things that destroy our lives and the lives of other people.

DAVID—By keeping calm and refusing to hate, or fear, I can see where one gets the advantage over an enemy. There is a whole lot of good sense to it.

DAD—And not only that. There is more to it. You boys know that I am able to do all the work I am doing, because I am systematic and orderly and insist on system and order. You know I always want to see the kitchen cleaned up at night so no dirty dishes clutter up the sink in the morning. Now what happened last week when mother was away and you boys left the dirty dishes all over the kitchen sink?

FRED—The ants came in and I had to put antpaste out.

DAVID—But that did not chase the ants away alltogether.

DAD—Of course, it didn't. As long as dirty dishes are around the ant scouts report it to the nest and a whole army is out to clean them up. So you see the ants are our friends. You know I was very pleasantly surprised the other night to see that you boys had cleaned the sink spick and span. What my talking could not accomplish, the ants made you do. The ants simply force people to be systematic and really they enforce discipline. Now that is how it is in life. No use complaining about any sort of vermin in the house or in the nation. Where people do not keep their house in order voluntarily, the ants and the cockroaches, the mice and rats get in and just putting out poison does not eliminate the first cause. That's why we have Communists in the world.

Ants in Uncle Sam's Pants

FRED—You mean, they are ants in our pants?

DAD—Exactly, now you said it. The Communists are the ants in Uncle Sam's pants.

DAVID—I see the point, dad. If Americans were really living up to the high purpose of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the U. S., Communists would never get a chance to make themselves at home here. Just passing laws against them does not weed them out anymore than putting out antpaste to keep the ants out of our kitchen sink.

Congressmen Are Bought

DAD—David, I must confess I am apalled at the way Americans ignore their Constitution and the high purpose of government. Just look at what Paul Mallon says about the way laws are enacted in congress. Read this:

DAVID—"The news dispatches said Mr. Roosevelt won his fight against the 300 million dollar congressional roadbuilding grab, and that is the way it will go down in history, but it was not that way when the results of the house vote were first tabulated.—The question was whether the house should pass the bill over F. D. R.'s veto as the senate did by a 3 to 1 margin. At the end of the house roll call the bill was passed. The president had lost. But canny Speaker Rayburn delayed the announcement of the totals, while Leader McCormack and the whip, Pat Boland, scurried through the Democratic side persuading votes to change. What they used as persuaders will never be disclosed, but it must have been tempting. (Sometimes postmaster appointments, judgeships and other patronage matters are settled in the spur of such moments.) In a few agnozing minutes, they got enough votes for Mr. Roosevelt to win by a margin of two."

FRED—Is counting and changing votes that way legal?

DAD—You see, Fred, if at an election people were to go to the polls and cast their ballots and the votes were counted and then some ballots were to be changed, the election judges would be sent to the penitentiary upon conviction. But in congress there are no courts that could enforce the legality of a ballot. As long as congressmen can be persuaded to change their vote by an offer of patronage, a judgeship or postmaster appointment, or other valuable and material inducements which count in politics, they are their own judges of right and wrong.

FRED—But, dad, that's terrible. Shouldn't congressmen observe the same rules as ordinary citizens?

DAD—That is just what I am saying. I am apalled at the lawless manner in which our public authorities conduct the government.

DAVID—If a congressman votes according to patronage and not according to his best convictions, isn't that bribery? Do they do this often?

DAD—There is hardly a week that some of the leading columnists, like Boake Carter, Paul Mallon, Pearson and Allen, Richard Waldo and others, do not report how the Democratic whip went around and got votes for the administration by threatening to withhold patronage or offering some juicy plum. This is so well known it is being taken for granted.

DAVID—What are such laws worth, if that is the way they make laws?

DAD—Now you are talking. What are such laws worth? You can now realize why we have one third illhoused, illclad and illfed, because laws are not made in consideration of the well-being of ALL the American people but are voted into force by methods which would send common people to the penitentiary. Suppose there was a close election for president and the votes were counted and the crooked politicians who control many of the political wards in the big slum cities, were to do what Speaker Rayburn did in congress, withhold the results till they got some more votes for their favorite candidate, would that not elect their man?

FRED—Are such things possible?

DAD—Not only possible, but that is just how elections were conducted in many of the corrupt cities and that is why Pendergast of Kansas City and others in Kansas and elsewhere were sent to the penitentiary.

DAVID—I read a speech by Congressman Day in the Congressional Record of June 15, where he says that the President is not bound by the Constitution but follows the decisions of international lawyers, made at a conference at Budapest in 1934. Is that possible?

DAD—You better read that passage of Congressman's Day's speech so we will get it right.

DAVID— "The President, proclaiming the freedom of the seas, has issued an order for an unlimited national emergency. He is carrying on an undeclared war with Germany and will never come to the Congress for a declaration of war as provided in our Constitution. Secretary Stimson and Attorney General Jackson have publicly stated that all previous international law has been canceled. Secretary Stimson testified before the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations that we are acting under the edicts of a conference of international lawyers held at Budapest, Hungary, in 1934; that President Roosevelt can make war anywhere in the world without any authorization from the Congress."

FRED—Is that true, dad?

DAD—Certainly that's true. That's the testimony of Secretary Stimson. That is how Iceland was occupied.

DAVID—Now I understand what Col. Lindbergh meant when he spoke in Cleveland, Ohio, last week. " . . while there is still time, Americans must ask themselves this question—are we operating under a government by representation, or are we operating under a government by subterfuge?"
