Century of Debt Faces U.S.

WASHINGTON,—New House Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr., appealed to the Democrats to give the Republican Congress their unstinting co-operation to help save the nation from "ruin and destruction by internal economic suicide."

With such co-operation and the support of the people, he said, this country can accomplish "miracles" in new comforts and new inventions and can know "a prosperity greater than we ever have known before".

In accepting the chair, Martin said the new Republican house does not "gloat over a victory won". Instead, he said, it is "prayerfully conscious" of its responsibilities and seeks a degree of co-operation "unsurpassed in the history of our nation".

These responsibilities are momentous, he said, both abroad and at home—abroad because of the needs of peacemaking and at home because of the need to pull the country out of "the economic bogs into which mistaken policies and two wars have plunged us".

"Here at home we face grave and pressing problems," Martin said. "The debt into which this nation has been plunged is of such magnitude it cannot be paid off in more than a century.

"Our people are bowed down under a burden of taxation which is well-nigh intolerable.

"High taxes have long been recognized as an obstacle to business expansion. We intend to reduce tax rates wherever, and as promptly, as it is feasible to do so.

"We have given that promise to the American people and we intend that it shall be fulfilled."

The government's influence upon the economy also must be reduced, Martin said, because "we simply must get back to the sound philosophy that the government does not support the people; the people must support the government."

"Me - Too" Speaker Martin Perpetuates Sanhedrin Dominion

The above quotations from the "Republican" Newdealer Martin, Jr., should not fool any intelligent American student of political economic trends. Martin is well coached by his Sanhedrin superiors in the art of slinging words to pacify the suckers that they may not revolt while being skinned again and again and again. The Sanhedrin always is on the lookout for such oratorical Judases and Martin, like Wendell Willkie, is another. One should watch even Taft carefully now since the presidential bug stung him. The Sanhedrin has the money, the organization and the brains. Ambitious politicians need exactly such a combination of factors for their election and are easily persuaded to accept "assistance" to reach their goal.

Behold how slickly Martin inserts his fangs, spreading the paralysing poison into the mental system. He warns against a century of debt. And he blames the bogs into which mistaken policies and two wars have plunged us. Does he tell us to arise like Americans and challenge the legality of the war-debts since these were incurred by bad policies and by the treachery of false promises? Does he point to the fact that the only beneficiary are the Banksters and usurpers of natural resources who exploit the world, making slaves out of people by military conscription, war and totalitarian regimentation?!

Who owns the actual bulk of war-bonds? Is it the small taxpayers or the usurers who compose the Federal Reserve system? Does the law of fiduciary relationship not state definitely that where a debt was contracted by misrepresentation and fraud for the profit of the defrauders that debt is null and void? Were we not told to produce lend-lease as a step to keep us out of the war? Was the war itself not induced by fraud, managed by the Sanhedrin and Bernard Baruch who controlled FDR and Churchill? And all of it for the profit of the oil barons? Were we not assured that our boys would never be sent to fight on foreign soil? Hence do we owe a single red cent to these war criminals and betrayers of our national confidence?!

A criminal, according to law, is not entitled to the protection of our legal institutions in garnering the fruits of his fraudulent activities. Why, then, does Martin disarm us from the outset as a "Republican" speaker by assuming that it is the duty of the Republican administration not to investigate the fraudulent activities of the Newdeal grafters and hold court over them, restoring to the nation and the taxpaying public the valuables stolen from us under fraudulent representations?

The small owner of war-bonds has to pay in taxes over again whatever his holdings be. He would not loose a penny by having the war-debts cancelled as a fraudulent transaction. The bulk of the gravy is held by the Banksters. The small man paid actual cash for his bonds. The Bankster paid 8 cents for the $1000. The Banksters created credit for their own profit and used it to buy bonds at the rate of 8 cents for $1000. To do so they produced the war and under its pressure saddled the hysterically incapacited peoples with an obligation rooted in fraud and murder. The confession of Martin concerning the mistaken economic policies gives the fraud away. Now, why, when these policies were instituted by a gang of murderous devils, headed by the presidential "advisor" Bernard Baruch and supported by the pious hypocrit John D. Rockefeller Jr., in partnership with the world usurers, in order to sell oil to the warring world, should the U. S. Congress not investigate the whole outfit, as Nye once investigated them and this time the congress should sit as a court of impeachment and free us from all indebtedness to those who profited from the fruits of this huge world-wide fraud and carnage?

Says this "me-too" stooge of the Sanhedrin: "We simply must get back to the sound philosophy that the government does not support the people; the people must support the government". What a clever lie! And does it not sound attractive? How few people see thru this trap?

Why should the people support the "government" in contrast from the "government" supporting the people? Not in these USA. The one is as wrong as the other. But how few people can think straight to notice this slick sophistry!?

The people ARE the government and the economic activities of the INDIVIDUAL citizen automatically enrich him, individually, as the natural result of his productive activities, which fruits are his private property. Collectively, the results of ALL the people's activities, whether private or public, produce a fund apart from private property, namely LAND - VALUES. This fund is not created by any individual land-titled holder as an individual, but by ALL the people's activities, hence this fund is the ONLY public product which belongs to ALL the people and in EQUITY SHOULD BE USED solely to defray the expense of public office and necessities.

But stooge Martin slickly tells you that the people must give away the public fund to Oil Baron Rockefeller and the Banksters and other land - titled parasites, and then tax ALL the people individually to "support the government" so these national thieves may keep their loot.

That's the "Republican" Me - Too Speaker

WASHINGTON. — When Joseph William Martin Jr. was 21 years old he faced a three-way decision between a career of politics, newspapering or professional baseball. In the end, however, he chose politics. When this decision was announced to his father, the elder Martin advised:

"You'll be better off Joe, if you stick to newspapering. Politics is dirty business."

Joe Martin, however, spurned parental advice, stuck to politics and today becomes the first Republican Speaker of the House of Representatives since the fabulous, almost forgotten day of Nick Longworth.

When Roosevelt was riding the crest of Newdeal reforms, Joe rode the wave too. Once when joshed about his liberal voting record, Martin half-jokingly replied:

"The world moves and I move with it."

No Dictator, Martin— That is why he has championed labor's right to organize, supported social security, voted for the FEPC and many Roosevelt reforms.

During the pre-Pearl Harbor days when many Republicans were under - cutting Roosevelt's preparedness policies, Martin swung his weight vigorously behind the President. He voted for national defense, against isolation, and when the question of lend-lease came before a secret GOP caucus, he advised:

"Read the testimony. Listen carefully to the discussion. Go home and think it over. Use your judgment, but vote like Americans."

Killing Off German Internees

Dear Mr. de Aryan:—

Could you not possibly see your way clear to print the two letters I wrote to the Department of Justice and to the Immigration and Naturalization Service at Philadelphia regarding August Klapprott and Herman Schwinn.

Last week another internee from Wisconsin, Rudie Weiler died in confinement behind barbed wires on Ellis Island from heart disease, although he was a healthy man, when they put him away "for the duration of the War" four years ago. — K. and S. certainly do not look healthy anymore. KURT MERTIG.

Mr. Thomas M. Cooley, II
Director, Alien Enemy Control Unit, U. S. Department of Justice, Washington 25, D. C. re: August Klapprott) detained at Hermann Schwinn) Ellis Island

Dear Mr. Cooley:

We had our Washington attorney, James J. Laughlin, bring an injunction against Hon. Tom Clark, the Attorney General during July 1942 to hold in suspense any deportation proceedings against German nationals and/or denaturalized American citizens as per list duly submitted to you.

At about the turn of last year, our attorney's motion to have the above captioned denaturalized American citizens released from the District Jail of the District of Columbia was denied, as the so-called "Mass Sedition" case had not yet been dismissed at that time.

As Hon. Judge Bolitha Laws has dismissed that case a few weeks ago and as the U. S. Supreme Court had reversed the conviction against the former officers of the "Bund" a long time ago, above named two men are free and clear of all charges previously brought against them and we therefore ask you to recommend to the Attorney General their release from Ellis Island, so that not alone they can work again to support their American families, but also observe dietary rules, which they cannot live up to at Ellis Island.

Mr. Klapprott was sick with stomach ulcers, which needed special care in 1941 and required two blood transfusions. He is still not entirely well now. It is obvious that the incarceration of both Mr. Klapprott and Mr. Schwinn during the past five years has had telling effects on their health.

It has been a tremendous economic hardship on both Mrs. Klapprott and Mrs. Schwinn — who both are American citizens — to support themselves all these years and a stop to this intolerable situation is long overdue.

We are also approaching the Immigration and Naturalization Service at Philadelphia, Pa. requesting the release of both men — if needs be — on bail of the customary amount of $500. —to which there should be no objection, as where could those men escape to?

Yours very truly,

re: August Klapprott .) denaturalized Hermann Schwinn) U.S. Citizens detained at Ellis Island

Gentlemen:

Above two captioned men are free and clear of all charges previously held against them.

Mr. Klapprott has instituted proceedings to have his case of denaturalization re-opened and Mr. Schwinn is in communication with the Judge who denaturalized him for the sake of applying again for U.S. citizenship papers which he lost through a technicality of the law.

Mr. Klapprott has an American wife and a native born American child. Mr. Schwinn's wife is also an American citizen. Both their wives have had a hard time supporting their households during the last five years of their husbands' incarceration.

Mr. Klapprott is not well, having nearly died of stomach trouble five or six years ago. The long jail term has also had a telling effect on Mr. Schwinn's health. It is impossible for them to live on diet, which only their families could provide.

In this respect I wish to recall Mr. Otto Espenschied's death of cancer of the intestines on Ellis Island only a few weeks ago, which should prove the necessity of releasing the above two men on a nominal bail of say $500, so that they could eat the proper food prepared by their wives at home, and which homes they should be allowed to support themselves now, after their innocent families had borne the brunt of economic hardship for over five years already.

Trusting that you will see your way clear to act favorably on our suggestion, I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

Charles P. Taft, who has just been elected head of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, is a brother to U. S. Senator Robert Taft, but 'Charlie' Taft does not agree with his brother Robert on many things. At one time he was the attorney for the CIO. During Roosevelt's lifetime he held a job with one of the New Deal bureaus. Charles Taft has always been considered left of center.

Pictures of Arthur L. Bell

Since some people imagine that we used photographic and retouching tricks to produce a "perfect" picture of Mr. Bell, I wish to disabuse their minds. It really does not matter, he is not so high-fallutingly important, but because more than enough evil has been said, it's about time to bring out a few things that show him as he is.

The picture which was taken by the San Francisco Chronicle photographer in the hall way of Judge Wyland's court, gave such a rotten impression of him, that Bell himself was suspicious of foul play. I reproduced it and he did not think I did him justice. Now anytime someone imagines that I use our BROOM to give wrong impressions it becomes a challenge to me. So I studied the picture and told Bell that as long as he lets his eyebrows grow wild so that they overshadow his eyes like a porcupine's quills, he need blame nobody but himself for his looks. I keep mine nicely groomed as I do with the rest of my face. I had a sweetheart once who liked me better with a mustache, it responded to her idea of a MAN, and she enjoyed the feel of it at kissing, but I hated the damn thing so finally I shaved it off. Yes, I lost the sweetheart, too.

When Bell kicked about his picture I took him to a barber and had his eyebrows trimmed to look like a human. Then I dragged him along to get his picture. I held the bulb and kept up a running conversation till he forgot his troubles and was once more his natural self as I know him, when he is inspired. So as he smiled, having emerged from the memory of the ordeal that awaits him every day in bankruptcy court, I pressed the bulb and here is the result.

Then I impressed upon the photographer that he must not use his retouching pencil but give me a print as is. I have long experience with newspaper photography. If one leaves the picture be and does not monkey with it, in the process of reduction for the printer's cut, the characteristic features of the individual emerge.

When we started to leave suddenly Bell exclaimed: "You took my picture, now I want to take yours the way you look when sitting in the courtroom. Anyone who saw you there will recognize it immediately." So he took me in hand and when he had me as he wanted, pressed the bulb and this is the result.

C. Leon de Aryan

In people who work under high pressure of unusual emotions, one will notice the whole gamut of contradictions, according to temporary mood. The saint as well as the despondent and the pictures of Bell here reproduced show such a line of effects. When he reacts to the impact of a bunch of criminal hypocrits who as attorneys are sworn to uphold law and equity, while in fact are slaves of the letter, violating its spirit and worse, conspiring to violate its spirit, Bell hides behind a mask of despondent contempt of this hellish world and that is what I saw in San Francisco in the U. S. court of appeals; that is what the Chronicle camera snapped and all these pictures are true to life in its variations of expression.

Her Ideal Germany

"Kosti," said Gladys, "while I was at the Gahanbar in L. A. I called on Marcella who with Joan's daughter had planned a benefit card-party to raise funds for the defense. Marcella says they could do nothing because of all Joan's German friends poohooed your idea of Joan being a martyr for treaty principle. They say Joan did it for love of Germany, not for the principle".

"Sweetheart, I know Joan and I know Joan's German friends in L. A. But Joan is different. She is no genius, just a waitress, but she has a heart of gold."

"Did she help the German P. O. W. escape because she loved Germany or because she saw the principle involved in the Geneva Convention?"

"There are two Germanies, Gladys, just as there are two Christianities. The one is implanted in your heart, the other is hypocritically paraded by the political and priestly exploiters of human gullibility. The Germany in Joan's heart is a picture of her childhood, permeated with the wonderful love of her mother and the aura of church-socials where the people opened their hearts to bring forth appreciation and good fellowship. It is a memory of other boys and girls who as trustfully lived in the feeling which in childhood brings down an aura of angelic confidence in the goodness of men and the world. Also the memories of the beauties of the country, its trees, lakes and their lovely picnics. All this meant Germany to her. It's an echo of God's world as it is inscribed in every sensitive child, in every country in the world. And when one of her fellow Germans needed help, she responded as a humanitarian impulse to keep him from being shipped to France or Russia or even to England as slave laborer. To me it matters not that Joan is not as evolved as I am to think in terms of principle. She is a woman. Perhaps she did not think at all. The situation presented an appeal to her heart. In the nostalgia of her childhood here was one who had shared the same sentiments and experiences as she had. He was to be abused, perhaps murdered; the war was over; she helped him hide, knowing full well what awaited her if caught. She trusted in God and she is right, true to the divine impulses of her heart. Now the court trial comes. The USA enters court with bloody hands, it claims the prisoner was being held in conformity with the Geneva Convention; they know full well they are bloody liars, that the G. C. was broken at Yalta and Potsdam and the US Army is violating practically all provisions.

"As an American I'll continue to defend her since the USA is the criminal and she did the right thing, in blind but good impulse".

Dear Kosti,

I don't seem to get around to writing any more but am thinking of you while I am eating my dinner so here I am.

Thanks to the kind friends for the enclosed $7. Sure come in handy as I am not able to work now. I have been ill all during the holidays especially New Year's Eve I really was feeling bad, never slept all nite. I tried to see a doctor but so far have not been able to get an appointment.

Well, I can hardly wait until Tuesday for the trial. Wonder how it will all come out. I think a lot of my attorney, his ideas are a lot like mine. He thinks you are a very brilliant man and likes your ideas. I hope he carries it thru the way he promised.

Well, dear Kosti, I know you will pray for me. God don't seem to answer my prayers. Maybe he will hear yours.

I will write you more a little later. Had orders not to talk too much, so I will obey orders.

The weather here is terribly cold. Hope those poor witnesses don't freeze to death coming from Sunny California. Wish I were going back soon.

I appreciate the clippings you sent me. I gave them to my attorney, he is glad to read them. Am going to subscribe to the Chicago Tribune for a month, also intend to call up their reporter tomorrow, perhaps he will give me a decent write up.

I hope you can make this letter out. I really am quite nervous, am writing this in the restaurant. Do not stay by myself very much.

Trudy is back from New York. She is fine. Will be in the court room every day. She sends her regards to you. We are still enjoying the fruit you sent us.

Auf Wiedersehen, Kosti, Love to you and all my friends, JOAN.

Thank you for all you have done for me and all your kind thoughts.

Behold the "Liberators" from Nazi "Inhumanities"

MUNICH,—The United States Army met a "passive resistance" campaign by German women when they began requisitioning German houses again after a holiday amnesty.

The houses are being requisitioned for American families, 14 of whom are waiting in crowded temporary billets now until more Germans can be moved out of their homes.

Community Executive Officer Col. G. P. Lynch said about 25 houses would be requisitioned daily until the January need of 270 houses could be filled.

Those evicted are expected to find other quarters in Munich which now has a housing average of better than two persons per room.

Women in Grunewald suburb urged "passive resistance" against Americans who order them to move and several Grunewald residents were reported to have threatened suicide.

Editor's Note: First the Germans were thrown out of their homes to turn them over to Jewish refugees from Poland. Now they are thrown out in the midst of the winter to make room for the "Christian" Yanks, the armed slaves who carry out the Morgenthau mandate.

LOVE SAVES

They are dying every day
Thousands falling by the way,
Going down in hate and fear,
Knowing not that "God is near"!

Yes He is deep in our heart
And we are of Him a part.
"God is love" and so are we,
If we can His presence see.

Enemies He never knows,
For His love unending flows
And as we this realize
We build up our paradise.

Not a city full of "gold"
Where love is for "Dollars" sold,
But a place where kindness reigns
And the heart directs the brains.

—Otto Schkoelziger.

Mr. C. Leon de Aryan,

Enclosed please find $12.00. Ten dollars is on my subscription act. to the Broom, and two dollars is for your Christmas present, and I sincerely hope that you are having a most enjoyable Christmas time, and that you are always feeling as fine, happy and contented as I am.

Your paper is just fine and nothing else in the news line gives me so much pleasure as reading your paper, because I know you at least try very hard to be honest and truthful in everything that you do and say, and are not afraid to tell the truth. So with all good wishes to you for a Happy New Year, and may God Bless you, your true friend, —E.W.

I wish you a very happy and Prosperous New Year.

Count Kosti's 1946 Message to the Winter Solsticium Gahanbar

(Concluded from last week)

That over-zealousness, where Dr. Hanish tried to hasten the day and produce within two generations, of 21 years each, a community of Aryans who would represent the "gathering of the Saints", divinely conscious, clothed in silken robes, exchanging glorious discoveries, singing and praying in the midst of the burning candles and incense, harmoniously producing paeans of glory to the Joy of Mazda, had resulted in disaster. I was unacquainted with these occurrences and experiences of his when I insisted we live up to the letter of the teachings. He, instead of telling me why, simply blew up. To-day I understand. The man had a very poor heart. Such experiences made it worse and every time he was reminded of it, he was overcome by inner tumult and covered it up by being rough with me who was the cause of this reaction.

But to return to our first batch of followers who went insane or else became dangerously unbalanced.

One must never urge another person to become a vegetarian or Mazdaznan. One presents the truth, if asked, and nothing more; then the individual elects for himself. Those who are our kind join us, the others must be left to their own path in life because evolution cannot be hastened; when hastened one merely unbalances them.

Then Dr. Hanish, panic-stricken, as one may well appreciate, revised his whole dietary according to the habits of old country cookery, including the most ungodly combinations to which the bulk of his followers had been accustomed thru the centuries. Having identified themselves with their animal habits they became completely upset when denied the accustomed fodder. While leaving out meat, chicken, fish and oysters, he "conceded" the use of eggs and dairy products which are excluded from the diet of REAL Mazdaznans at "headquarters". He simply let some of the women write their ungodly receipts, with the most unscientific, even destructive combinations of dishes, into the new "Mazdaznan" cook book that no decent health instructor would ever dare recommend. It makes me blush with shame.

Dr. Hanish explained this atrocity by saying that the "unfortunate condition" of his followers necessitated a "temporary concession to their animal habits". He said that their cells were so impregnated with animalism that it was hopeless to try to turn them into "saints" in one generation. But he hoped that the third generation would automatically long for the true dietary and religion. He had to revise his original plan of 42 years time in which he could turn out a self-reliant Mazdaznan community and added 18 years to his guess.

He died before the third generation could take over where he had left off. It takes 21 years for anyone who seriously decides to become a Mazdaznan, by earnest application of its fundamental rules, to awaken the inner intelligence in the cells to where these get the first glimpse of WHAT Mazdaznan IS. Then it takes again 21 years of intensive study, in my case simply a series of undreamt of ordeals after ordeals, to train nerves and brains to so isolate themselves from the hypnotic influences of the criminal world around us that the mind obeys none but the divinely conscious Entity, the Son of God, the Spark of the Mazda-intelligence, the living FIRE within. And when these 42 years are successfully concluded, then the real work has barely started. From then on the pupil has to demonstrate in public life that divine Science and Faith which surrenders to no power on earth but proves itself superior to all adverse combinations. Then is when you can "stand alone and mind your own" and really begin to live Mazdaznan.

But while time is flying, the second and third generations of Dr. Hanish's followers arrived. He died and those now in charge have completely lost track of why he made temporary concessions NOT ONLY in diet but in many other lines for the morons of his generation. The notion is being perpetuated that the temporary concessions ARE the REAL Mazdaznan.

Fortunately, I had elected to SERVE and had dedicated myself to the "Temple" long before I knew of Dr. Hanish's mission. Thus when we met I was already on my own. "Headquarters" kept me informed in all important steps. Besides, I am a born mystic in my own right and my children have inbred in them the Spirit of SERVICE to the Principle.

Thus it is no surprise that David and Fred, and I am sure many of the children of others who, like myself, are vegetarians by election, not by persuasion and bribery of hopes for better health and other benefits, are automatically taking to the progressive ideas of pure vegetarian diet as it is practiced in the "home-temples" where true ARYAN discipline prevails. They sense thru the mystic cord, that binds each soul devoted to SERVICE, the atmosphere of the SAINTS on earth, the pure thought, the pure teachings, the pure diet, not adulterated by the animalism of those who yet are at the foot of the class. Yet, ironically, these habitues of animalism are in charge of the L.A. Temple and block the path to the higher octaves of Mazdaznan unfoldment because they personally have not reached the state where they KNOW MAZDAZNAN. Thus fearfully, like the cow before the new gate, they shrink from the unaccustomed and merely repeat the old prayers, parrot the formulas, go thru the physical exercises like good monkeys, taking pride in aping their "little master" yet not knowing what they are doing when they close the door to the true religion.

THE TRUE RELIGION

You see, Mazdaznan, or the ARYAN religion, is not a creed or sect. It is the EDUCATION and DEVELOPMENT of each Aryan entity to behold God even with these eyes of flesh.

Therefore in place of lip-service and liturgies, the individual embarks upon the quest of God as a realistic proposition. He has to FIND and MEET his Father, face to face.

The situation is somewhat like this. Suppose you go to the Gas and Electric power station at the foot of Broadway in San Diego and being a friend of the company they take you around to show you the huge natural gas burning ovens where the heat is generated to transform its potency into electric current. Now that is an example in miniature of the whole universe where the divine fire is transformed into what we know as LIFE and its products. Instead of being an ignorant bystander, suppose you received minute instructions and devoted yourself to understand the processes so you, too, could throw the master switches and regulate the transmission, as well as generation, of power. It will take years to transform you from a "layman" to an "expert". But you persist.

This universe is such a FIRE-product of the Ingenuity of MAZDA where the machinery of the sun-systems operates like rotating dynamos and in each of us lies the means of switching on to the LIFE-generating power plant. The churches repeat hearsay of what the prophets and scriptures said about God's creation and modus operandi. But Mazdaznan takes you by the hand, introduces you right into the powerhouse of OUR Father and in 21 years you become aware of the LIFE forces in your own system.

In 21 more years you have learned to rely on your own generating plant within your heart and cellular make up. You are a little atomic power plant of your own, mighty enough to displace ANY outside intrusion and stand alone, obeying none else but God within. What the scriptures say, you can behold and actively manage in your own right, because you live consciously in the power-plant of Our Father's house. You have the mystic inside knowledge of LIFE itself. You are the image in miniature of our Father. THAT is Mazdaznan.

March of Dimes Racket Again

"The evil men do lives after them;
The good is oft interred with their bones."
—Shakespeare

One of the criminal heritages of the treaty breaker and grafter in public office, F.D.R., is the annual March of Dimes for the profit of a gang of unscrupulous medical sadists and vivisectionists who are employed by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. These liars and exploiters of human credulity pretend to be searching for a cure for Infantile Paralysis, like the patent medicine spellbinders at county fairs, collecting the sheckels of the suckers.

Naturally, since they are looking for the cure where it self-evidently could not be, this racket will survive for centuries same as the Christmas racket.

One does not produce the birth of the Savior in one's heart, that would bring Peace on earth and Glory to God in Excelsis, by buying tinsel and presents from Jewish merchants; yet such has become the perversion of this feast which is celebrated in this manner even in the midst of world wars waged for the profit of the Sanhedrin.

The dimes you contribute are used by criminal sadists, by perverters of all true medical science, to buy animals, foremostly monkeys from India and pay the salaries of their torturers to produce poisons by which these devils claim to induce healing serums against paralysis.

Since this disease is primarly of spiritual origin, as demonstrated by its Patron Saint,

Franklin Delano Roosevelt, namely a result of treachery against nature itself; it comes only where drugs, narcotics, alcohol and similar poisons, of which uric acid is one, contained in animal carcasses, steaks, chicken-soup, pork, etc., have weakened the nervous system; and where, as in the case of F.D.R., deep inner spiritual shocks played havoc with the spiritual-mental currents by which greed perverted the use of one's life-forces in pursuits contrary to our divine purpose on earth; contrary to the natural constitution of our organism; finally certain ganglia and nervous centers are paralyzed and the result shows.

Hence the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is just that. It is the foundation for paralysis and not against it. It perpetuates paralysis, as FDR perpetuated treachery, mass-murder and misery, everywhere in the world, again and again and again and whoever contributes their dimes to it cannot kick; they are forewarned that the very name advises them; they contribute to the foundation for paralysis.

The Case of "Friends of Progress"

By ELLIS O. JONES

A crowning infamy has just been added to one of the most blatant and scandalous outrages in the judicial history of California.

In the spring of 1942, nine citizens of Los Angeles, 3 women and 6 men, were indicted by a Grand Jury, not in Los Angeles, but in Sacramento. They were accused of being directors of an alleged organization, headed by Robert Noble, called the "Friends of Progress", that said "organization" was "subversive" and as they had failed to register with the Secretary of State (which could be done either in Sacramento or Los Angeles) as provided by a recently passed statute aimed at Communists and known as the Subversive Organizations Registration Act, these people were charged with a crime.

They were arrested and held under excessive bail, which none was able to raise, in the Sacramento County Jail, notoriously dirty and infested with bed-bugs, roaches and other vermin. That is, seven were so held.. The other two, Robert Noble and Ellis O. Jones, were already in the Los Angeles Co. jail under federal indictment for "sedition" and awaiting trial. As it was decreed by the high California powers of Earl Warren, then Atty. Gen., that the "Friends of Progress" trial must await the disposal of the Noble-Jones case, these others were compelled to languish in jail several months despite a provision in the California statutes that trials should follow indictments not later than sixty days.

JEWS SEND MALONEY TO SACRAMENTO

Finally, early in August the trial got under way and lasted three months during the hottest of hot Sacramento weather. The pattern of the trial was the same as that followed by the mass "sedition" trial in Washington. Beginning, as already stated, with taking the defendants away from their home before a foreign judge and foreign juries, the same kind of irrelevant stuff was lugged in as "evidence". A number of the same "witnesses", known agents of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, which had been used against Noble and Jones and afterwards in the Washington travesty, were produced to lie about and distort what they alleged they saw and heard in and about the meetings of the "Friends of Progress". Some of the same "propaganda experts" were brought from Washington and from Stanford Univ. to build fantastic structures about the workings of the Nazis etc., but which had nothing whatsoever to do with the case. The infamous William Power Maloney who had already made such a holy show of himself in the Viereck case that the government had to remove him after the Supreme Court had excoriated him, took a special trip to Sacramento to school the prosecutors in this pattern of "prosecution". His willing pupils were representatives of both the Attorney General's office and of the Sacramento County D. A., a much-discredited loud-mouth named Babcock, who was eliminated from office at the next election.

The result was a verdict of "guilty" for all and a little snipe of a small-town judge, named Coughlin, maybe anxious to prove that he was no relative of his illustrious namesake, Father Coughlin, sentenced all nine to the limit as provided by the statute, one to five years. Noble and Jones were to begin to serve their sentences at the expiration of the sentences imposed upon them in Los Angeles by Judge Jenney, now one of Eicher's associates in hell, four and five years respectively.

And so they were rushed off to the penitentiary, the men, Messrs. Ferenz, Van Meter (2) and McBride to San Quentin and the three women to Tehachepi, there to remain for about a year and a half, until Mr. C. Leon de Aryan and others at his instigation, got interested in the case and secured their release on bond pending appeal. Mr. Ferenz meanwhile had been removed to Washington to answer to the mass "sedition" indictment where he was held in the vile Washington jail for over two years.

Then ensued a long period of waiting and expense for lawyers, printing of appeal briefs, etc., until finally after an unusually protracted consideration, the court of appeals reversed the finding of the lower court, declaring the evidence did not show that any crime had been committed by anyone. This did not satisfy the minions of the Attorney General and the Sacramento County prosecutor who took it on to the Supreme Court which refused to disturb the finding of the Court of Appeals.

"PATRIOTIC" PUBLICITY FOR ELECTION TO GOVERNOR

And this was the end of a foul case, a case which had no basis, none but the wildest most far-fetched pretexts, a case of politics pure and simple, a vile, trumped-up affair. This was the case that both the sanguinary Earl Warren, with the inquisitor's grin, and the unspeakable Robert Kenny, Communist fellow traveller, boasted of in their 1942 campaigns for Governor and Attorney General respectively. Each tried to outdo the other in claiming credit for the iniquitous proceeding, altho Kenny, who was State Senator when the bill was passed the year before and seemed to menace his Communist proteges, had publicly expressed doubts as to its constitutionality. Of course it is unconstitutional. The "Friends of Progress" case was the first to be tried under it and will probably be, and should be, the last. It is unconstitutional because it requires one to become his own accuser. Consequently if the powers-that-be are out to "get" someone, as in this case, it's "damned if you do and damned if you don't" for the helpless victim caught in the toils. If they claim he is a subversive and doesn't register, he is caught. If he admits he is subversive, (whatever that means) he is caught.

And now for the aftermath, the latest development. There is a law in California that anyone who has been wrongfully convicted and imprisoned, may apply for reimbursement of the expense he has incurred thereby and may receive up to $5000. Seven of the defendants have made application for reimbursement in various amounts and, if ever there was a case that should be acted upon favorably, this is one. But the Board of Control, having to do with such applications, after an unduly long consideration, has found technical reasons for rejecting the claims in toto. It is a rotten shame if ever there was one.

What further recourse these unjustly treated persons have in the matter is not clear at this writing, but surely this should not be the end of it. Surely there must be enough right-minded citizens or officials with influence in the great State of California to go to the front for these folks and thus make some slight amends for the injustice they have suffered. The State cannot give them back their "time" nor cure the dislocations of mind, body, home, friends and relatives, but at least it can make whole-hearted acknowledgement of its repudiation of the small-minded and misguided officials who were responsible for perpetrating this outrage, and thus do some little toward erasing this blot upon the Commonwealth that likes to call itself great. But the scoundrel Earl Warren is now governor and aspirant for the U. S. presidency.

Messrs. Noble and Jones did not make applications as above because they were in a category that did not make them eligible under the reimbursement act.

Dear Friend:

Enclosed find check for renewal of our beloved "Broom" which is well read then passed on to others. We were sorry to have missed the 16th Dec. issue, most likely got lost with the Christmas mails. We have missed others, maybe they done others some good.

Thanks for your courage which you give us, who have loved ones, (Uncle, cousins, in Wuppertal, British Zone), who were bombed out in 1943. Such heartaches; we are sending weekly packages. The Agencies to whom we gave $10.50 to be sent over Holland, last June 18th, have as yet not arrived.

Wishing you the Season's greetings and much success with "The Broom".

Gratefully yours, — — M. D.

Eugene Brand Reveals the Plotters

Mr. John Roy Carlson, Alias Dernounian:

Recently I received a copy of your latest smear book THE PLOTTERS through a befriended attorney. THIS LETTER shall be my reply in reference to page 38 to 40 of your book.

Since you are exposing me to the public in untrue, unfavorable terms and mentioning false personal characteristics, I am also forced to answer you openly.

I shall quote: "The surest way of being admitted to membership (of German American War Veterans—World War 2) is to be okayed by a short, mousy little man named Eugene Brand."

THAT IS A PLAIN LIE:— I never have been at one of their meetings, I am not and never have been a member of the G. A. War Veterans and hardly know more than a few of this organization, not to mention all the names of the officers. Only once did I have the possibility to warn these veterans, one particular member as a matter of fact, about one potential member who turned out to be one of your spies. This was very plainly stated in your article against me. As you can see I am well informed myself. To quote further: "His small shifty, suspicious eyes are constantly on the prowl."

Mr. Derounian, I had been instructed in business by a Jewish firm as a young man and worked as salesman in many a Jewish store, afterwards. Primarily my bosses taught me to watch every customer, always emphasizing that I should count on every "Goy" to be a "Ganneff". — It stuck well in my mind.

I was also put wise to your spies, and the ones from the Anti-Defamation League and all the others who used to hang out about my store. Sometimes it used to amuse me to play verbal "games" with them. Under four eyes I would tell them then what low characters they were, nothing but spies, and literally threw them out.

Well, Mr. Carlson - Derounian, you couldn't find facts and fault on me, so, pick on my old Fedora: "His face is pasty, and he wears a dirty grey Fedora pulled over his eyes."

See here, Mr. "ALIAS", I am a busy man constantly occupied that I hardly have time to buy a new hat, especially since your friends propagandise so much against me, keep me going and create a boom-time for my business.

The lines less important shall be overlooked but to continue with: "Brand carries a full line of propaganda, imported from Germany."

Why don't you smear the International News Co., subdivision of the American News Co., which has been importing newspapers and magazines from Germany and delivering them automatically to all stores including mine? Why didn't you also mention the names of Jewish sellers who have been selling them, too. When I bought the store in 1940 from a Jew, he had already been selling the FREE AMERICAN and even the STUERMER. I only continued the trade. It seems to me that you are only smearing me because I am a Christian, an Anti-Newdealer, Anti-Communist, and German born.

That proves that you belong to the pink line.

Also untrue is your statement when you say I bought pencils from Mr. Finehout. I never had, nor have, any connections with this man whatsoever.

To quote on: "The shop is still a clearing house for un-American poison. If he knows you, etc., etc., ———"

Un-American are you, Mr. Alias Derounian: Or is it American to write untrue stories about fellow citizens? Or is it un-American when I sell magazines which should open the eyes of the American people as to the Russian-Communistic machinations. Every clear-minded American now-a-days knows that this last war was forced upon them by war mongers, new dealers, your friends and your employers.

Untrue is the statement concerning the selling of the DISPATCH to customers whom "I trust". I wouldn't be afraid to do so, but for business reasons I haven't sold any and don't intend to.

"Into Brand's hole-in-the-wall-shop come ex-Bundists Christian Fronters, and other goons of the post war hate fraternity."

May be so, Mr. "Alias", but you forgot to say that very fine Americans of the third, fourth, fifth, and sixth generation patronize my place because of my correctness in business, honest and straight characteristics. Even Jews buy for the same reason.

Well, Mr. Carlson, under my dirty, grey fedora exists a very clear-minded, commonsense. Under many a "Carlson" hat rests or works a poisoned brain.

"They get instructions from him on secret meetings. They buy tickets for closed socials which are used to disguise conclaves of yesterday's revolutionary agitators— etc."

Well, well, Mr. Smear, how much did you have to pay your spies for these fantastic stories? They make even less sense than the fictitious trash-literature of dime novels. Your spies are lousy. They cheated you with their made-up reports. And you had to fall for it all. How very un-intelligent. Your smear article occupies too much space in the PLOTTERS. The paper it was printed on is much too valuable. I shall pass up some of the smear and now come to the Voters Alliance for Americans of German Ancestry.

Your reporters may have found out something about the "Alliance" through leaflets or invitations but why did they miss the fact that I am the founder, and that my co-workers and I are forward thinking men? that we stay and rely on the American Constitution and will continue to fight in order to preserve the original spirit of this Republic. Are you smearing me because of this? Naturally, you would, because you do not understand Americanism.

There is quite a difference between you and I. I have always been a democrat (not a party member), you may be a democrat—party-member (New Deal left winged), and misuse the freedom so badly, not allowing anyone else to think his way. You only accept one, one of your own kind.

Another thing I would like to tell you: The German Americans have done more good for this Country than you and your friends have. They were always honest, hardworking citizens and caused the American Government the least trouble. Instead, though, they waged two destructive wars against their old homeland, the last of which was the worst the world has ever seen. And there is many an American-born, who has said so openly, that he fought a war for a revengeful clique, in this Land of the Free, and against the wrong people.

Your first book brought you some law suits and also against the publishers, E. P. Dutton Co., Inc., N. Y.; your second one the "Plotters" should land you in jail at least for one year in order to give you a vacation and time off for having worked so hard at such untrue fake stories. Your publisher ought to be fined another $10,000. for printing such rotten books. The value of your book isn't even worth five cents to any intelligent American.

EUGENE BRAND.

P. S. — So long, Mr. Alias Derounian, I am waving my old Fedora at you.

Paradoxes in Topology

Readers of Esquire magazine, we understand, are slowly losing their minds over a story by Martin Gardner, "No-Sided Professor"—and a footnote.

The story and footnote have to do with a strange subject known as topology, which is concerned with the fact that the basic properties of shape can remain unchanged despite drastic distortion.

The story is labelled fiction and thank heaven for that. The footnote, however, is a cold, mathematical phenomenon.

The study of topology originated with August Ferdinand Moebius, a German astronomer at University of Leipzig in the early 1800s. He discovered that if you take a strip of paper—which clearly has two sides— give it a single half twist, then paste the ends together, the result is a surface with only one side. This is known as the Moebius strip.

Are you ready? Cut out one full length column of this paper. It has two sides, with reading matter on both to prove it.

Give the column a half twist and paste the ends together. The result is a unilateral surface —a surface with only one side. Proof—you can read both sides of the page by revolving the paper in your hands.

Now cut the strip lengthwise along the center all the way around. Do you get two separate circular strips? No sir, you get one single strip twice the original size.

Now again cut lengthwise all the way around a third of the way from the side. Do you get a circle four times the original length? No sir, you get one large and one small strip, interlocked.

Warden, sweep out that padded cell.

Jewish Pressure Retires Gen. Morgan

LONDON,—The British war office unexpectedly anounced it has retired Lt. Gen. Sir Frederick Morgan, 52-year-old top drawer officer who was deputy chief of staff of Gen. Eisenhower's supreme headquarters and one-time head of UNRRA operations in Germany.

Morgan said his retirement was "certainly not at my request"—a direct contradiction of a war office spokesman's statement that Morgan retired "of his own volition."

Morgan became a storm center on both sides of the Atlantic when he told newsmen in Frankfurt last January that he believed thousands of Polish Jews were flooding into the American zone in a "well-organized" exodus from Europe.

He refused unofficial suggestions that he resign. He was called to the United States, where he conferred with Herbert Lehman, then director-general of UNRRA, and UNRRA headquarters later announced that a decision to terminate his appointment had been suspended.

Then, last August, he was released from his post by Director-General F. H. LaGuardia.

Bilbo Case Shows Need of Secret Ballot in Congress . . . Democracy and Demagoguery Go Together — Republican Government Is Superior

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2 (Special)—Tomorrow sees the opening of the 80th Congress, Republican for the first time since 1930. The eyes of every Red, every Negro and most Jews in the nation are upon Senator "The Man" Bilbo of Mississippi, as he presents himself to be sworn in for another term in the Senate.

These hostile eyes belong to the most powerful minority in American history. Indeed, on some issues they absolutely dominate the far more numerous MAJORITY OF WHITE CHRISTIAN GENTILES.

So great is the power of the minority coalition's coercive propaganda that, it is generally believed here, Bilbo will be ousted from the Senate. The Republican leaders have already voted to work for his rejection.

The official excuse is that he accepted "gifts" from persons holding government war contracts. The "anti-gift" law was passed during Roosevelt's third term. Whether such acceptance is a sufficiently grave offense as to justify expulsion from office I do not know.

The Negroes hate Bilbo, not because Bilbo hates Negroes (he says he does NOT hate them), but because he, like other Southern politicians where the Negro vote is heavy, does not wish them in politics, because in that field they either dominate or hold the balance of power and would be a menace to the peace, good order and civilization of those States. In this opinion the Southern whites but follow the thoughts and opinions of Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln.

In 1920 John J. Parker ran for governor of North Carolina on the Republican ticket. The Democrats charged that if he won, ignorant Negroes would dominate his administration. In reply, Mr. Parker stated that neither he nor his party desired to change the State's Constitution, which requires an educational qualification for voting.

Mr. Parker lost, but later was appointed to the U. S. District Court of Appeals and has served acceptably to this day. (He was an alternate judge at Nuernberg). But when in 1930 he was appointed to the U. S. Supreme Court, the Negroes rose against him, charging he was "anti-Negro"— and so powerful did they make their dissent that the U. S. Senate, bowing to demagoguery, failed, by one vote, of confirming Parker, who would have made one of the court's greatest justices.

A great Texas newspaper in 1944 pointed out sadly that even one district in Harlem had more influence in the nation's politics than all of Texas.

This unfortunate situation is the result of America's subversion of our Constitution, whereby illegal non-Constitutional national conventions have usurped the functions of Presidential electors, and superior REPRESENTATIVE (Republican) government has been supplanted by the ignorant and inefficient DIRECT (Democratic) government, wherein DEMAGOGUERY is inherent and inescapable.

Another reform greatly needed is a SECRET BALLOT in Congress, whereby Representatives and Senators can repel MINORITY DEMAGOGUERY WITHOUT INVITING REPRISALS at the polls.

The vote on Bilbo should be by secret ballot. The Senatorial vote on confirming a Presidential appointment should be by secret ballot. Likewise bills should require three readings and three favorable votings to pass, the first two being secret, either one of which two could kill the bill. Only the final vote on a bill should be recorded as to the "ayes" and "nays".

The Federal Convention which drew up our Constitution in 1787 was absolutely SECRET from first to last and the record of how each delegation spoke and voted was not published until FORTY YEARS AFTERWARD! (Not ONE guest or spectator ever appeared in that most famous of all conventions).

NO TITULAR LEADER

The idea that a defeated President candidate is the "titular leader" of his party is so much nonsense, without basis in precedent or law.

Not until the "fuehrership" (leadership) principle was introduced by Adolf Hitler and adopted by Roosevelt and his sycophants did the idea of "titular leader" come to America.

The titular leader of a minority party is the chairman of its national committee. Dewey is a national "lame duck" or perhaps "dead duck" would be a more descriptive term.

California's 1,000,000 majority against the "FEPC" killed Dewey as a Presidential possibility.

Former Ambassador George H. Earle is now leading a new anti-Communist organization known as the American Anti-Communist Association. Associated with him as business manager and executive secretary is George H. Perkins. Mr. Earle knows the European situation.

THE "RELIGION" OF RUSSIA

By SANDRA WHITTEMORE

(Concluded from last week)

In 1922 Max Eastman, one of the then faithful, visited the Soviet Union. He tells us in his book, Stalin's Russia, published in 1940, that he found the Marxian philosophy already established as a state religion and "bowed down to on all sides with Byzantine obsequiousness".

Eastman was even then beginning to doubt that super-scientific Marxism was scientific at all. After twenty-five years of contact with the Communist movement, both inside Russia and outside, he has this to say. "He (Marx) thought that since he had attributed his ideals as end terms to the natural evolution of a material world, it became perfectly sensible and scientific, and indeed a kind of super-science to believe in them. But it is not sensible to take utopian aspirations out of your own head and attribute them to the external world. And no matter how much you disguise the process by calling the world 'material' and by invoking the word 'scientific' it is not science to do this. It is just the opposite—religion."

When we understand that according to this theory, the only ultimate good is to be on the right side, we will see that the communist believer, having decided that he is on the right side, will close his mind to anything which would weaken his position and will press forward toward that great day which he believes is dawning.

Dorothy Thompson, who speaks from intimate knowledge of the movement, tells us that in the eyes of the Communist believer the individual is nothing, and personal scruples are but remnants of a "sickly bourgeois morality". She goes on to say that the believer in this new religion will follow the party line though it lead through "blood and slime, the exploitation of every vice, the assassination of every opponent, the wily deception of the tolerant, the mobilization of every passion of envy, frustration and hatred; the exacerbation of every injustice; the promise of every Utopia; the temporary flattering of the Capitalist; the harsh disciplining of the worker; the debunking of traditional heroes; the subversion of the law —through all these the Communist faithful will press toward the great redemption— with unswerving conviction of the final unconditional surrender of their enemies, whether of the right or of the left, for thus it is written in the infallible law of human societies as laid down by St. Marx, St. Lenin and St. Stalin."

In this article I have endeavored to show that we cannot fight Russia because Russia is in our midst. There is no corner of American life where it has not entered. Like cancer it is now in the blood stream; it is too late for surgery.

I have endeavored to show that Communism is a religion and that it is futile to attempt to point out to its devotees that Russia has become a totalitarian police state in which classes are not done away and in which the workers are crushed and oppressed. I have endeavored to show that the separation between the Soviet government and the party which runs it is a fiction which was evolved to make possible traffic with other governments, and I have endeavored to show that this party whether officially in existence or not is a power instrument in the hands of a totalitarian state.

I had intended to show that France, Spain and Germany will soon be in the Soviet orbit, and to give an outline of the moves which I believed would bring this about.

Due to the shortness of time I will have to take this up in another paper.

In a recent issue of Life, Joseph and Stewart Alsop discuss Russia's expansion and they express their concern in these words, "One must also wonder whether they (the Soviet leaders) will ultimately be satisfied with less than dominion over Europe and Asia".

Is that what one wonders? The more logical question would be: Will the Soviet leaders be satisfied with dominion of Europe and Asia? I believe we can safely assume they will not.

The Nuremberg "Trial"

Single copy 10c; 10 copies 75c; 25 copies $1.50 100 copies $5.50. By A. O. Tittmann, P. O. Box 136 Middlebury, Vermont.

(Conclusion)

The Nuremberg "trial" is no trial. It is a scheme to railroad the German government to the gallows.

The 1946 supplement of the Encyclopaedia Britannica says this about it (page 398): "In so far as they were responsible for war atrocities which are violations of the rules of war, possibly no objection could be raised. In so far as they are tried as responsible for the outbreak of war or acts against their own nationals the precedent appears to be highly questionable. It might have been better to subject them to political penalties. Any punishment as "aggressors"—chameleonic term—might mean that in future wars the leaders of the losing party would be liable to be liquitated!"

The "New York Times" in its editorial of June 8, 1945, said: "International law has never been enforceable in fact. The time has come when it must be made so, against individuals as well as against nations", but what the "Times" editor overlooked is that international law has never held that war is a crime and that any changes in international law must be accepted by all nations. No President has authority to assist in changing it without the authority of Congress, especially in view of the impossibility of properly defining "defensive" and "aggressive" war. Congress is as much involved in this question as the President because the Constitution gives it the sole right to declare war, but Congress has not done so much as to debate the Jackson trial and has not voted the funds for it.

Jackson's doctrine denies to a country its sovereignty and arrogates to that country's enemies the right to try its government on charges made for the occasion. It is not only contrary to international law but encroaches on our sovereignty because, if applied to us, it might punish Congress for exercising its constitutional prerogatives. Congress may declare war without regard to its character, but under Jackson's innovation, the entire Congress will be subject to punishment for a war which another nation may call aggressive. And also if this country lost a war, how many other countries would, come to its defense in the event of a trial?

That famous philosopher, George E. Sokolsky in his column of March 27th, said of Jackson and his enterprise: "Mr. Jackson was taken off the bench to become a Nazi prosecutor under a juridical theory of collective guilt, alien to the American concept of the rights and dignity of the individual man. He will all his life have to live down the very bad law of Nuremberg. Some Americans, Republicans, Communists, generals and admirals will fear to appear before him, lest he apply some of the curious doctrines and procedures he employs at Nuremberg to them."

This unconstitutional, un-American, mongrel court will solve nothing. It is entirely partisan and any "sentence" it may pronounce will be questioned and condemned by more than will acquiesce in it or praise it. If it has already been challenged by many Anglo-Saxons, it may be anticipated what Germany will think of it once it has come back to life and strength. It is nothing that America can feel proud of.

Regardless whether appraised as a military Court-martial or a civil criminal trial, it will not stand the test of time. The "trial" violates the fundamentals of justice. It does away with the conception, basic of all law, that one party to a quarrel cannot itself try the other party before a self-appointed court, create for itself a "tribunal", fabricated and controlled by itself, and prepare an "indictment" based on a non-existent code. It is no trial because it is not decided by an unprejudiced jury but by "judges" especially picked for their faith in expediency. It is no trial because it violates the fundamental rule of jurisprudence everywhere: "nulla poena sine lege", and thereby introduces retroactivity which, when the Nazis used it, was anathema to the same people who now employ and acclaim it!

By destroying the last shreds of international law, Mr. Jackson and his colleagues are establishing precedents which may haunt their progeny. Certainly no future victor will let himself be held by ANY previous conventions and will do exactly as he likes in imitation of Mr. Jackson and his collaborators. As in such an event the whole government from the President down to the last member of Congress and the last clerk in a department might face trial and execution, a future President might be less anxious for war than Roosevelt and a future Congress might be reluctant to declare war, no matter how much urged to do so.

It is still time for the American people to prevent consummation of this planned lynching-bee and the possibility of chickens coming home to roost by waking up and disavowing this betrayal.

The total spent by the United States on Lend-Lease thus far is $50,596,698,000.

Bilbo's Case, an American Problem

Our editor has been taken to task for not supporting Sen. Bilbo at all costs since a matter of white superiority is involved. Superior is who superior does. When a white man becomes a Newdealer and engages in corrupt political practices we refuse to accept the dictum embodied in "my gang, right or wrong, but my gang".

Gangsters are welcome to it but not white men whose superiority consists in upholding principle and not gangsterism. The fact that the Jews demand Bilbo's scalp lays no obligation on us to deny the truth of the charges levelled against Bilbo. The idea of "my country right or wrong" is a brutalitarian idea, not Christ's principle. When the Sanhedrin asked Jesus to head an army of Jews against the Romans and be a murderous Messiah He countered with: "Thou shalt serve the Lord, thy God".

Our white superiority consists in fuller appreciation of divine concepts of Life and using our ingenuity to improve conditions on this planet nearing the state of paradise. As the soul-less English landholders introduced black slavery and the ruthless Yankee traders bought, transported and sold Negro slaves to consummate the criminal designs of the British exploiters of human sweat and blood, America committed a crime for which it yet has to atone. The problem was not solved by Lincoln when he freed the blacks; it was aggravated when they were enfranchised; and economic and political double-dealing will not solve it either.

The hour has come to apply the remedy: "What you want others to do unto you, do it unto them".

As a race the Negroes are not our social equals, individual cases to the contrary where whites are white trash, like Bilbo, notwithstanding. But the remedy and adjustment lies not in double-dealing. We have to solve the conflict rightly and embody the solution in our national Constitution or face the disastrous consequences.

FRIEND OF THE GRAFTER

The government contractors and others for whom Sen. Bilbo had done wonders, contributed at least $27,500 for the erection of a parsonage on his plantation. The evidence indicates that only a part, and probably only a small part, of the money so collected was spent on the building. The rest was graft. The house is still unfinished; once completed, of course, it would no longer serve Bilbo's peculiar needs.

The use of the parsonage for collection purposes was not just a sardonic joke, intended to disclose Bilbo's contempt for religion as well as for common honesty. There was much more to it than that. A contribution to a church is deductible from taxable income. Here, then, was a painless or nearly painless device for the shakedown. At least one of the bribe-payers, it has been testified, was told that if he would contribute $3,500 to the parsonage fund, Bilbo would at once return $1,000 in cash. On this basis, the briber could come out even or better and the only loser would be the United States treasury. As it happened, the parsonage fund got the $3,500 and Bilbo decided not to pay the $1,000; but even at that, the briber may have thought he had a pretty good deal.

He may have thought so, at any rate, until he discovered that the internal revenue boys were aware of the fraud and wouldn't allow the deduction. That fact also came out in the testimony. Thus the question arises why, if the treasury knew that the parsonage scheme was fraudulent, neither Bilbo nor any one else was ever prosecuted for participation in it.

There can be only one answer. The New Deal high command was glad to let Bilbo get away with as much as he could. Bilbo enjoyed the same kind of special favor that was extended to Mrs. Roosevelt on her taxes, to Elliott, to Representatives Sabath, Coffee, and May, to Sen. Alben "Garsson" Barkley, and to many others. Bilbo is no isolated phenomenon. He is merely typical of a system introduced and maintained with the active support and approval of Mr. Roosevelt, the grafter's friend.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF CHRISTIANS AND JEWS

The first international conference of Christians and Jews was held recently in London, and resulted in an acknowledgment "that anti-Semitism is a Christian problem". The chief speaker, recently in Chicago, said in an address to Christians and Jews that "No true Christian can be an anti-Semite". Any true Christian can follow in the footsteps of Christ and repulse error and trickery, expose evil and ignorance, and in every other way bring the true and Truth to bear upon the unrighteous conditions of the race, whether promoted by Jews or Gentiles. It is not a question of anti-Semitism in this country, but one of anti-Gentilism, for Jews with communists combine to prevent Americans from exercising the Right of Freedom of Assembly and Speech, thus proving themselves violators of our Constitution. The writer has yet to hear of any Gentile group breaking up a meeting of Jews, but has heard of many meetings by Gentiles being broken up by Jews and Communists, this sort of attack having been going on for years; but especially active under the Roosevelt Administrations; which by their lawless expressions, sanctioned the lawless and bred dishonesty and class consciousness and hatred. — Ida Mingle in the Light of Truth.

COLD NO'S

No, that's not such a good idea, lady. A little skidding goes a long way on ice. But it is a good idea to get the feel of the road surface before starting out. Try your brakes lightly while driving slowly and when no other vehicles are near. Test acceleration, too, because "gunning" a car is as dangerous as braking suddenly.
