Spiritual Research Department

"Ask, and it shall be given unto you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you."—Matt. 7 : 7.

At a recent meeting of the World Healing Crusade Board of Governors it was decided that the time had come to establish a Spiritual Research Department. We know you will be thrilled that this new adventure of faith is now in being and will eagerly accept and support our vision about its purpose.

There is, of course, nothing new in the research approach in all our activities. Right from the beginning, when the Crusade was legally registered, our Articles of Constitution fully embraced this goal and the elected Board have consistently implemented this vision.

The results of our united love, faith and prayer have been even greater than our high expectations. Through all these years we have witnessed the power and purpose of God working through the initial vision and multiplying it in ways beyond understanding. The first seed, sown in simple love and faith, has produced harvests of good works across the world.

I remember so vividly the first person who came for prayer to the humble room of our first Sanctuary. She was in her late sixties, hobbling on two sticks, crippled with arthritis for many years. I talked to her of the redemptive and healing love of Jesus Christ, the infinite power of faith, repentance and forgiveness. With nothing to lean on apart from my own faith in the absolute truth which the Lord taught, and His promises about answered prayer, I did my best and eventually we went before the Altar to pray.

In a few minutes she was made perfectly whole! Praising the Lord, she almost danced round the room completely, instantaneously, miraculously healed!

What had happened? We spoke to God and an immediate transformation of mind and physical tissues had taken place. The solid, cement-like arthritic crystals which had hitherto sealed her hips, knees and feet, had simply disappeared! The grinding pain had gone and every joint was free and mobile again!

I knew, beyond any shadow of doubt, in those wonderful moments that here, in the Christ way of love, faith and prayer, was the potential answer to every human need and the assurance of the abundant life which He promised and proclaimed. My own first step of faith was redeemed and justified. From that one immediate response was born all the amazing healings and world outreach in teaching which the Father implemented in all our Crusade work down the years.

We soon discovered that healing through prayer is the inherent latent gift which everyone possesses, and that the complete instructions about it are written in the very gospels of Jesus Christ. So our work unfolded around this teaching of love for God and for one another, and absolute faith in prayer. And, increasingly, multitudes of people have accepted this vision and implemented it in countless ways. More and more churches, prayer groups and individuals the world over are today proving this basic truth within the pattern of their own particular denomination.

In our own way we experimented with prayer for healing in the Sanctuary, at public services in many countries, and in prayer for friends who wrote to us for help. And in every approach there was always a catalogue of instantaneous or progressive healing of mind, body or circumstance. Physical healing did not follow in every case, for reasons we all yet have to discover, but always there was help, comfort or new vision given. The overwhelming evidence of wondrous response is so great that truly the whole world inevitably must be quickened to understand and implement these transcendental spiritual principles.

Prayer in the Sanctuary, linked with the mass intercessions of a host of prayer-partners across the world, have proved the Lord's response to meet the needs of those who will fully embrace the Christ way. Time and distance have been shown to be no obstacle whatsoever. In fact many of the greatest healings and transformations have taken place in people we pray for but never see—often on the other side of the earth.

Our work, therefore, unfolded around the sharing of our research experiences. We wrote many booklets and books to make these truths available to all. And, of course, the "Crusader" magazine, which goes to churches, prayer groups and individuals in so many far flung countries, has for many years been the free channel the Lord has used so powerfully to help millions of people into these ventures of faith and prayer.

Another central part of our research was developed in our Tape Recording Ministry. We found that the spoken word in prayer, the spoken word of faith and teaching, were of tremendous significance. And, scientifically, we soon discovered that the prayer-consciousness in which these recordings were made was correspondingly evoked in those who listened to them ! And people so often became healed or quickened to a new adventure in living through the changes the Lord ministered to them while listening in prayer to these tape recordings.

For example, one woman in South Africa came to a group meeting in the Grace Dieu Healing Sanctuary in East London, where one of our tapes was the central feature of the service. When she came in she had a growth on her face. The healing prayer tape was played, she listened—caught up in prayer—and then, when the recording stopped, the growth dropped off her face !

We give you this broad resumé merely to emphasise again that these amazing events are happening now, every day, in our midst and all over the world in many churches and through many individuals. They are so transcendental in their importance to human well-being and safe progression into the new age now with us, that we simply cannot afford to ignore their all-pervading scientific implication and significance.

For doctor or politician, minister or businessman, housewife or scientist, young or old, these universal spiritual principles offer nothing less than a break-through into a new dimension of experience. It simply means that man has a channel of communication with his Maker, and that His illimitable love, wisdom, knowledge and power are available to advance the highest well-being and fulfilment of every true obejctive—including healing and the solution of problems.

The New Research Department

"Who then is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the Lord?"
—1 Chron. 29 : 5.

Through all these years of dedicated service in which the Father has created the broad structure of our Crusade, we have never had time fully to consolidate, tabulate, or scientifically explore all our discoveries. Now we are guided to open this new department with the objective of working for a true break-through on a level which will produce such complete evidence, with detailed methods, tests, case histories and every aspect of research, that it must be universally accepted as basic truth for every church and through the entire range of human activity.

We are aware of an urgent need to create a team of people who will eagerly embrace our vision and work with us in this programme out in the field, in the environment where such friends have immediate contact with people in need.

We invite you to become a research worker with us—in your church, prayer group, or on your own—or even in your own home. Basically we want to guide you into specific programmes which we will suggest—and we want your reports about what happens in every situation you are working with in prayer.

Millions of people have had dramatic spiritual experiences and answered prayer. Please tell us the whole story if something like this has happened to you. Give details, case history and the eventual solution in the exact way it occurred.

In this connection we undertake not to publish your name and address without prior permission from you—so you can write freely and confidentially about anything.

To aid any programme you want to initiate with people around you we have many facilities to help. First our personal guidance and suggestions about approach. Secondly, the mass of teaching literature that is freely available to you (see the lists of books in the Crusader). Thirdly, our free tape recording ministry which opens an incredibly powerful opportunity to heal and transform broken lives.

One of the central reasons why we need you to be the research worker on the spot is that relatively few people embrace the practical application of spiritual principles and prayer with the intensity of purpose which is so important to quick results. The worker undertaking a specific programme can do so much to influence and help the one in need consistently to implement the full power of prayer and the new way of life.

That is why tape recordings, books and personal encouragement can be so vital in this.

For example—a person in need comes to the prayer group, a church service, to the minister or friend for prayer. He is sick or in great trouble, and the weight of it is often so heavy that, while inspired during the time of positive prayer and spiritual fellowship, he quickly falls back into the old state of mind—the worry, pain, problem or frustration. And the potential solution is lost in the re-acceptance of the dilemma.

The real need is to work steadily with such friends by helping them to accept a definite programme designed to lead them out of the sickness or problem. They need help which will keep their minds vibrating exclusively in the presence of God—the Perfection principle of Christ's Love constantly manifesting.

That is why everyone seeking such freedom should be helped to spend as much time as possible, day in and day out, listening to tape recordings of prayer, reading our books which speak with positive faith and love about the truths, and to have your warm hand of fellowship leading them to keep the way of faith alive along the road to victory.

As long as we sit in the sunshine, the warm rays are bathing us with light. As long as we practice the presence of God His Perfection is freely pervading us. It is only commonsense that spasmodic interest in spiritual solutions is not going to be as effective as a hundred per cent committal to an infallible Principle—to the Lord who knows all the answers, but who can only express them in us according to the degree we are open to receive them.

The miracle of tape recordings and the powerful written word of faith and prayer is that while we listen or read, the very words open our souls to the Lord. While we are absorbing these thoughts we are not drowned in thoughts of the sickness or dangerous situation. And it is a simple truth that the only way to change the habit pattern of faith in sin or sickness is to develop a habit pattern of love, faith and prayer.

These aids, the bible, books and tape recordings, help us to change the danger patterns into the positive faith through which God can work His miracles of transformation.

So we invite you to use your tape recorder for yourself and others like this. Set up a programme of listening—every hour, every two hours, early morning, last thing at night. Be immersed in the totality of spiritual truth. Help someone else to do likewise. Use books in the same way—keep coming back and back to the truth that makes you free—day in and day out. Lead someone in need to do the same—bring such friends right into the orbit of this research programme.

Another wonderful way of healing is through tape recordings which, on a special recorder, can repeat prayer to you at intervals through the night—while you sleep (or cannot sleep !). Tucked under the pillow the voice of love in prayer speaks straight through to the sub-conscious mind and mighty works are done during sleep !

There is a wide field of research to be done in this direction. If you have such a recorder, or can get one, we shall be very happy to supply tapes, completely free, for this purpose.

So in broad outline this is our new research project. Will you give us your dedicated support ? Will you see it through with us ? Will you seriously consider, in prayer, how you can implement it for yourself and for others ? And will you let us guide you right through as we follow your reports and help in prayer, encouragement, teaching, tapes and books ?

We realise that we are initiating an immense undertaking. But the Lord has always provided people and supply to meet every new venture of faith. It means extra staff, a mass of detailed work and co-ordination. It means close contact and follow-up work with churches, prayer groups and individuals. We can reach up to all of this if you will give us your eager help in every way and if we all go forward together knowing that we are all vitally engaged in the Lord's Business.

This new service will come under the direction of Brother Conrad. He has a very special interest in this research project and his own spiritual dedication and yearning to help all people provides a channel through which the Lord can implement and fulfil this outreach. I know you will uphold him and us all in your prayers.

Remember that the work we ask you to do is only a service of love. You need no special qualifications because all the real work with the Lord is done by being simple in faith, great in love, and in knowing that the Father does it all.

Do please write in about anything you want to know. In this connection clearly write in block letters on envelope and letter, "Research Dept."

The first step of faith is to take it. I want to feel you can write in with absolute confidence about anything. Don't worry about any sense of inadequacy or ability to write fluently. Just speak from your heart because the Father alone grants the power, vision, and opens the way He wants you to embrace. You are as important to Him, and His work, as anyone else in heaven or on earth. Believe this—and all things become possible.

Indeed—why not pray—and WRITE NOW!

I pray God's Blessing upon you and all He gives unto your keeping. I believe, with you, that we can all now move into the field of illimitable achievement, and reveal to the world all the wonders that can be when we all truly implement the living truth of a living God in our midst.

Thank you for all you can do for Him and for mankind.

The Miracle of Wimborne Minster

"Open thou my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law."—Psalm 119 : 18.

Wimborne Minster is an ancient town in Dorset, England, with its roots in the deep history of the early tribes, Romans, knights in armour, the Norman conquest and the medieval system of feudal government.

The placid river Stour, old cottages, twisting streets and the two Norman towers on the imposing Minster still speak of foundations upon which so much modern culture rests. The green fields and woodlands all around still stir the imagination to see the knights of old riding back to the city walls after some adventure in a neighbouring hamlet.

I once conducted a Divine Healing service in Wimborne Minster and was "caught up" in the deep peace which always pervades a church which has been impregnated with worship and prayer. At such moments one knows the Presence of God without any need to stretch either faith or imagination.

In this Minster there is a "chained library!" Great books of long ago are chained in position against prowlers of old who might have been tempted to steal them! Monuments and tombs tell the story of long vanished nobles and men of importance in a way of life so vastly different from our own today! And, since the fourteenth century the clock on the Minster tower has spoken to man of the value of each passing moment.

A few months ago found me again in this lovely town. In the afternoon I spoke to the old age pensioners, and in the evening conducted a service in another thousand years old church in Sturminster Marshall nearby.

In the interval between the services our organizers invited me to tea (English tea-time!) at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Margery Steven (and her mother), 89 Leigh Road, Wimborne, Dorset.

I had been longing to meet this lady for at least two years, because on the 4th July, 1960, she was miraculously healed of a dreadful and incurable disease!

Now I was face to face with this vivacious and happy woman, and her mother. I listened to the story of what happened in the very room where the Lord transformed her. Here vibrant with health, joy, strength and faith, was the evidence of wholeness which filled her some years ago and was still with her.

The story is so remarkable that I share it with you here from the pamphlet which was printed after her radio broadcast. This is what happened to her :

'Today my dear Lord Jesus has given me the grand opportunity of broadcasting to you, to tell you in my own words what Jesus alone has done for me, that His wonderful Name may be glorified throughout the world. This is a miracle for the people, for those of different churches and chapels throughout the land have prayed for me, and God in His own good time has answered their prayers.

On July 4th, 1960, Jesus healed me miraculously. Five and a half years ago, following a trying illness, multiple sclerosis, or creeping paralysis, attacked me before I realised it. I first began to fail generally, then to lose power in a leg or arm, and then my sight became affected. But God's promise remained : "My grace is sufficient for thee : for My strength is made perfect in weakness."

Gradually I got worse, until 20 months ago I became so helpless as my legs became useless, that I had to be lifted from bed to wheel-chair, like a baby, and strapped round with belts to keep me from falling forward. Often my parents fed me as I had no control over the spoon with which I tried to feed myself. The food was cut up by my mother as I had no power in my left arm. My left eye was completely closed, my right eye often had treble vision, so I had to wear dark glasses to try to help the sight of that eye.

About eight months ago I started to have black-outs when I would lose consciousness for hours, but still with all this Jesus Himself had implanted faith in His Word, and I used to say to my dear Christian friends: "What my Lord could do for Lazarus, He can do for me if it is His Will"

Things got worse for me. Then on February 4th of this year I dreamed during the night that I was sitting in a chair by my bed (as when I was fit enough my father and mother would lift me there from my bed so that my mother would be able to wash me more easily). As I dreamed I thought I put out my left leg, then I awoke to find it was a dream. Then a voice sounded through my room—it was my Lord's in these words: "Tarry a little longer."

In the next few days I told several of my praying friends about the way I had received this message from Jesus in the night whilst I was alone with Him. From that moment my faith became stronger, although I got slowly worse in health until my speech was also so badly affected that at times I could not make myself understood. But in all this suffering was the realisation—what Jesus could do for Lazarus He could do for me! And His message to me to tarry a little longer meant that in His own good time He would heal me. I left the future to Him; it did not seem to matter if it took days or years for my Lord to deliver me, for I knew He would in the end.

On Monday, July 4th, exactly five months after God had spoken to me, my Lord healed me, in the very chair of which I had dreamed! I had said goodbye to my husband at five minutes to six on that Monday morning—a helpless woman. At 6-15 my mother gave me a cup of tea. At 6-20 my father and mother lifted me from my bed, strapped me in the chair beside the bed, put a bell in my good hand, to summon aid if needed, and left me alone. Mother went to get my washing water and my father had gone to get a towel from upstairs. Then in a matter of seconds, when I was all on my own, my Lord Jesus healed me! I felt a warm glow go over my body. My left foot, which was doubled up, straightened out; my right foot, the toes of which were pointed towards my heel, came back into position. I grasped the handle of my bedroom door which was beside me, undid the straps which were about my body, and said "By faith I will stand," which I did.

With that I thought of my mother and the shock it would be to her if she came back to find her daughter standing after so many years, so I sat down and called for her. With that both my parents came running to my room, thinking I was in need of them. I said, "Mum dear, take my hands, please, don't be afraid, something wonderful has happened." I put out my right arm and as I did so my left arm came out from behind me and joined the other! It was so wonderful a few minutes afterwards to find I could wear my own wedding ring which I had not been able to do for years, as my fingers of that hand had got so thin. My mother said, "Darling, how wonderful, your hand is warm, and it is well again." I said, "Mum, dear, it's more wonderful than that, I can stand." With that, holding her hands, I stood once more on my two feet. Then, gently putting my parents to one side, I said, "Dears, I do not need your help any more, I'm walking with God."

Unaided I then walked from my bedroom, through the small dining room to the kitchen, my parents following mutely behind me. When I reached the kitchen I turned and went back into the dining room and taking off my glasses I said, "Mum, I can trust God for my hands and feet. I can trust Him for my sight." With that, in a moment, my left eye opened and my sight was fully restored! In fact Jesus made such a perfect job I do not need the glasses I had before I was ill and I am now writing dozens of letters a day! To Him be all the glory!

We told no one until I had been examined by my doctor and he confirmed the miracle on Tuesday, July 5th. Since then several doctors and nurses have been to see me, and they have gone away knowing that only God has wrought this wonderful miracle: so please, forget Margery Steven and remember what Jesus alone can do.'

Naturally, this event at the time had a tremendous impact on the community. In a small town like Wimborne everyone knew her and to behold a stricken and dying woman instantaneously healed through prayer created enormous interest. The news spread far and wide. Doctors just had to accept the fact that here, indeed, was a true miracle. And, of course, as so often happens, Margery Steven spends her life in the Lord's service sharing her love and vivid faith with others as she bears witness.

Yet human nature is so strange! Such an event soon passes out of recognition, gets lost in the rush of living, and then we are back in the realm of brittle scepticism and miss the significance of what happened.

As a matter of modern history and record there are thousands of similar testimonies—yet we seldom pause long enough to consider what really took place, what it means, or what laws were brought into operation to make it possible.

In a scientific age like ours, where brilliant minds leap to embrace the laws of the universe, the secrets of matter, the mystery of life and the structure of the body, surely we cannot be blind to transcendental events like this?

Where one considers the plight of millions of people suffering from incurable disease surely just a glimpse of a power capable of healing even one Margery Steven should electrify the Church, the medical profession and every sick person to undertake the necessary research to discover the laws which govern such a miraculous transformation?

There is simply no sense in denying the validity of Divine Healing. Even this one case challenges the integrity of all who work for human well-being. And, somewhere, are the eager young minds of the new age scientists who will leap to embrace and pioneer mankind into the age of a new understanding that man is a spiritual being, living in a spiritual universe, subject to the Laws of Spirit and of the mind. And that the fundamental answer to every disorder, disease, disaster, is to turn to the spiritual truth that makes him free.

How powerfully the Church can lead in this direction when she truly accepts the full implication of all that is to be expected through prayer and total committal to the Christ Way of Life!

How wonderful will be our medical faculty when their keen minds behold the Divine Power which can so gloriously flow through their human skills! And how happy will mankind be when Church, doctor and patient all work together in the true Light of God for the healing of both cause and effect in broken lives!

Margery Steven and her courageous mother are, in all simplicity, a challenge and invitation to the integrity and intelligence of everyone, everywhere.

That is why we ask you to join us in all-out research and practice as suggested in the previous article. That is why we have opened our new Research Department. We must all work together to make a break-through from human ignorance, spiritual apathy, compromise, prejudice and everything else which blocks the way to true illumination.

That is why the Lord is looking for you. Please help Him and us in every possible way.

Faith

Faith is a bird that ever soaring, sings,
Clearing the clouds of doubt with trusting wings;
An eager traveller hastening on the way
That other pilgrims shrink from in dismay.

Faith is a craftsman with a touch Divine,
Building up stones to manifest a shrine,
Making with humble tools that men despise
Temples of worship, towering to the skies.

Faith is a watcher on earth's outer wall
Seeing Perfection, whatsoe'er befall;
Looking with gaze serene beyond the clod
To where the sunset lights the road to God.

Suffer Little Children

Once Upon a Time

Brother Conrad

ONCE UPON A TIME there lived a lovely fairy and her name was Charity. She lived in a little wood not far from the house where a little boy and a little girl lived.

One day Tom and Joan were playing in their little garden when suddenly Joan said to Tom,

"This is my ball."

"No, it's mine," Tom shouted.

They began to quarrel. Then Tom hit Joan and Joan hit Tom, and in the end they were both crying and very upset. This made their Mummy very unhappy too. Mummy said,

"If you don't say sorry to one another right now, I will bring you both inside and you will go straight to bed."

Neither Tom nor Joan wanted to go to bed so they said sorry to one another so that they could stay outside. They didn't really feel sorry at all. They were just pretending to forgive one another so that they could play outside.

Everything in the garden was quiet again. It was such a nice afternoon. The sun was shining and the air was filled with the scent of flowers. The afternoon was made for happiness. Suddenly they heard a little voice call out,

"Hello."

The children looked and they looked, but could see nobody.

"Here I am, here I am, underneath this rose," cried the voice, and there, lo and behold, was the most lovely fairy standing under the shade of a big rose. She was so beautiful that the children simply gasped. And in her hand she held a wand with a golden star on the top which shone so brightly that the children could hardly bear to look at it.

"Hello Tom, Hello Joan."

"Hello," whispered Tom and Joan together.

"My name is Charity," said the fairy. "I have come here to show you both something very very special which I know you will never forget as long as you live."

Tom and Joan looked at one another. They were both so excited, and wondered just what it could be. Then Charity asked Tom and Joan to close their eyes and to stand very still. Charity waved her golden wand over them and the children felt themselves whisked away.

When they opened their eyes again they saw a very strange sight. They saw lots of bricks, and pieces of wood, bags of cement, and panes of glass, tiles for a roof, and chimney pots all together in a heap.

Suddenly all these things began to move about very quickly until a big house stood just where the heap had been. It was very strange indeed. Then the children heard a lot of noise. The bricks, and the window panes, the tiles on the roof and the chimney pots were all shouting and quarrelling among themselves. They made a terrible noise.

"We are the most important parts of this house!" shouted the bricks. The tiles on the roof said that they were most important because they kept the rain out. The windows said that they were because people could look out of them. The chimney pots said that they were the best because they carried away the smoke from the fires which kept the people inside the house warm.

Tom and Joan didn't like the noise. They told the fairy that it was silly for the parts of the house to quarrel so, and that every part was very important.

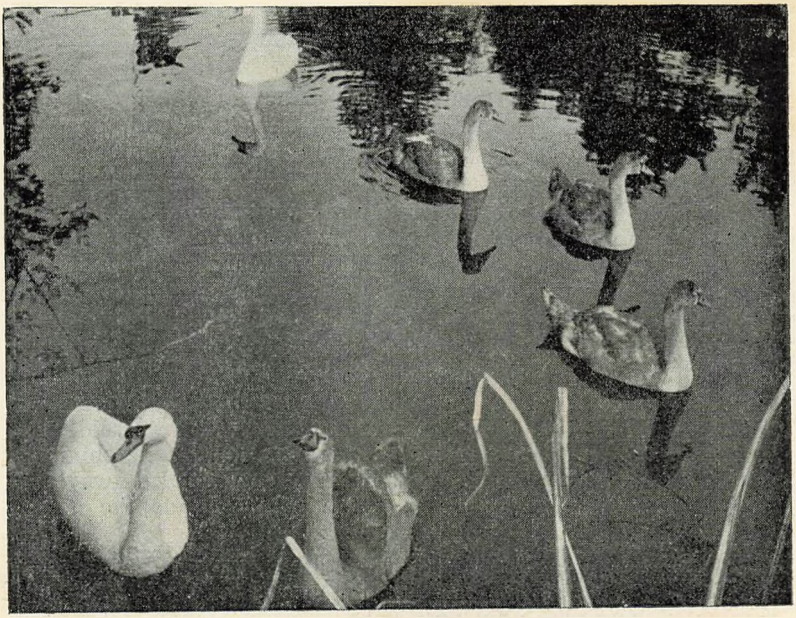

Charity looked at the children and she smiled, and said, "Oh, you are so right. Every tiny part of this house is as important as every other tiny part. Every part is beautiful when it is in its place and all together they make such a lovely house."

"I want you to remember always that all the people and all the children in your world are just like the parts of this house. Everybody is just as important as everybody else. Everybody is an important, a very important, part of the House of God. We all have to live happily with one another, and to love one another, just like Jesus has taught us."

Tom looked at Joan and Joan looked at Tom and they thanked the fairy, and understood why her name was Charity. Charity means love.

And with that the fairy kissed them and disappeared, and Tom and Joan were left standing in their little garden loving one another so much. And they both thanked Jesus with all their hearts for sending Charity to them.

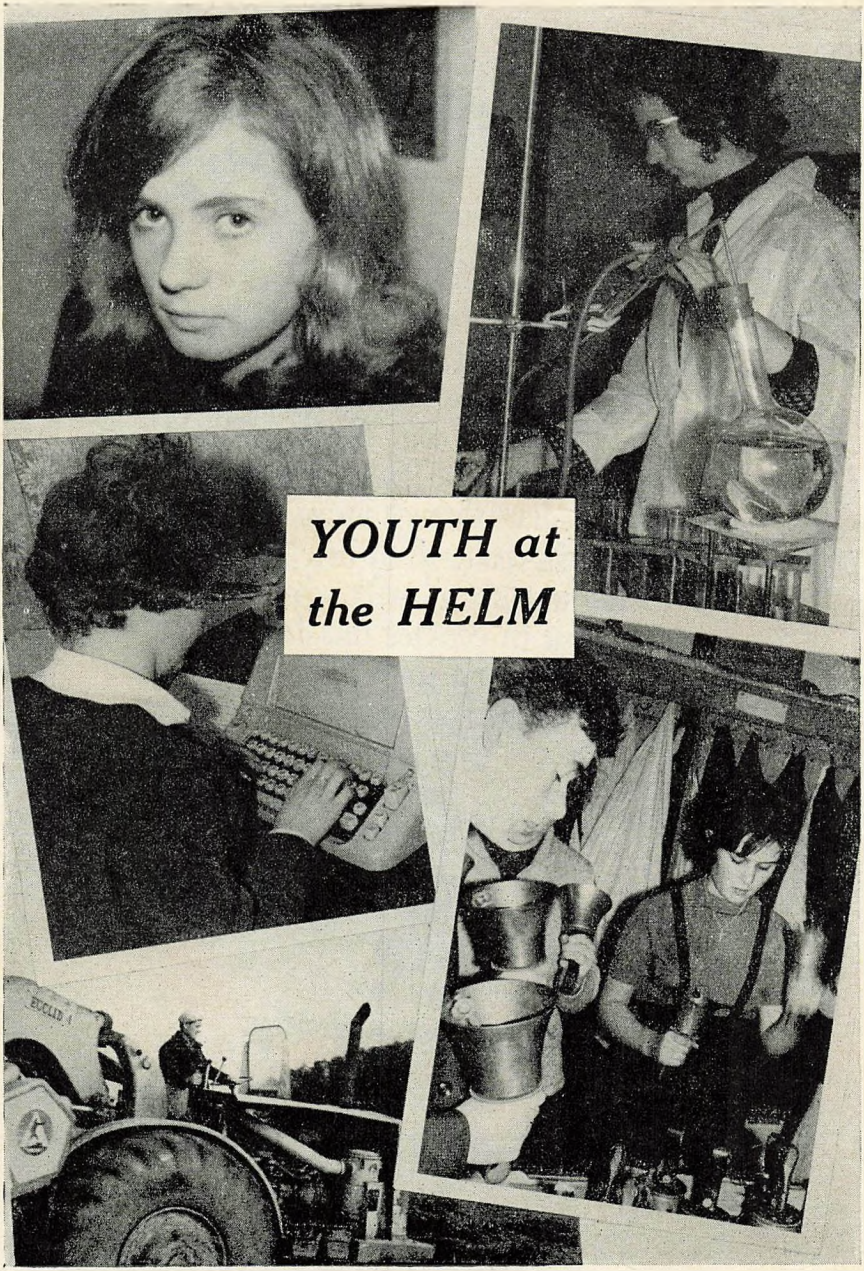

THANK YOU, LORD JESUS.

THE PRAYER OF THE CHALICE

Father, to Thee I raise my whole being,
—a vessel emptied of self. Accept, Lord, this my emptiness, and so fill me with Thyself—Thy Light, Thy Love, Thy Life—that these Thy precious Gifts may radiate through me and overflow the chalice of my heart into the hearts of all with whom I come in contact this day revealing unto them the beauty of Thy Joy
and Wholeness
the serenity of Thy Peace
which nothing can destroy.

Youth at the Helm!

YOUR MIND

Conrad

Above all else the talent of a man or woman is to love God. We each of us have countless means to express this talent. Happiness, success and the inheritance of Heaven depends upon our appreciating our need to use this sacred talent to the full, and to employ our minds in such a manner that no course of conduct be other than the expression of our love for our God. Here then lies the great task which is set before man and a task which can only be accomplished in God's Strength, in the Love He ever gives first to us. To express our talent with all our minds is to obey the first commandment and the second which is like unto the first, and to indeed fulfil the law. No more is asked of man than this.

Our purpose is to employ our minds so that we work as God's Ambassadors upon our planet. To be God's Ambassador, to be a great and therefore most humble disciple of Christ, means that we employ our minds to Divine effect rather than to effect our own ends.

We are each aware that when we set our minds to something, that we achieve our goal. The mind is the instrument which the children of the Spirit use. To enter a certain type of work we absorb with our minds the skills required in order to be proficient in that work, and even have to take examinations to prove our proficiency to the world.

Because the mind is an instrument to be used we must remember that we are the masters and mistresses of our minds, and not the servants of them.

So we each choose exactly how we will act and just what we will do. Man is not a puppet but a child of God and the Father's great gift to each of us is this freedom in His Life. Often we forget our talent and express our freedom badly, and by the workings of the law of cause and effect we are inevitably hurt. Often people are hurt because of the unenlightened conduct of others. But in the order of love these is justice. It is just that the family of mankind shares the difficulties created by the man who errs for the burden will weigh according to the love that his fellow beings have.

In a world that has not yet learnt to respect the Divinity of life, the man who errs is only redeemed in Christ. Only in Him, through Him and by Him may his burden be taken away. For an error once committed is not a personal affair, but an act of universal consequence.

Such a universal burden is unbearable. To go immediately and wholeheartedly to God when a mistake has been committed is a vitally important Law of Mind. A man of himself cannot amend the situation, and if forgiveness is withheld by people who ask a tooth for a tooth, it is imperative to abide in the Lord's Love for those whose offence was to withhold love, so that they be forgiven. The great law is that well-being, the content of the soul always lies in the happiness of all other people. And we see this principle working even in this situation where a person has made a mistake and goes forward again only in the well-being of all others.

We are a family, we have to stick together and to love one-another and to be very very careful about passing judgement on others lest such a judgement causes us to withhold love where it was most needed. Here is the most serious offence of all offences and complacency is a cunning ally to this offence.

Another important Law of Mind is not to waste time. Time is one of God's most precious gifts to man, who is only in this world for a short time so far as Eternity is concerned.

The present moment, the great 'NOW' of the Spirit is the all important time. Sufficient unto the day is the moment. This does not mean that one does not plan ahead. It means that the now, with God, is a Divine Sufficiency for the future. Indeed this instant in the Presence of God Who is ONE with you just where you are, is a moment in partnership with Infinite Love and Strength, and Wisdom, and indeed a moment in Eternity.

The 'NOW' with God embraces all time. If a man is to build a house he first makes a plan. The 'NOW' is the blue-print for the day. The question we must be ever asking ourselves is just what God's Presence with us means. The person who receives God's Presence in the NOW to be happiness for the day, immediately has a Divine Plan laid before him, and happiness fills his day as he continues in partnership with God.

We are left free, we are the decision makers, we evolve as quickly as we want to. We are not carried by life. Life works with us when we work with Life, and Life is the Holy Spirit. Often we may not know what to pray for, but by just being close to the Father accepting His Presence as guidance we will be inspired with the most perfect ways to plan and work with Him. The enlightened person must ever be deciding what God's Presence means for him or her.

This is to employ the mind to Divine effect. This is the means whereby the seeker becomes the master, and as a master is respected throughout the world as the most simple, the most loving, kind, compassionate, gentle, humble, beautiful, tolerant and sincere person that ever could be.

Blessed the man or woman who accepts the Father's Presence for the well-being of others. Every need in others, every need in ourselves also is an invitation card to live the Presence of God in a concrete practical way by the most astute use of our minds. For example, if we recognised in ourselves some difficulty in getting along with other people we simply need to accept God's Presence in the moment as being the answer to this dilemma for all time. In this case we would know God's Presence through eternity as being our adaptability, our jjoy, our peace, and our loving with all other people. Thank You, Father—it is so! We hold our spiritual destiny in our own hands.

Man is a creature of faith. There is no-one lacking faith but there are many who pretend to be. There are many levels of faith expressed. Faith is the natural state of man. A child could not walk without it, nor could a blind man tap his cane. There is no limit to God's Strength and the Lord is the partner to man. Witness the miracle of a housewife collecting the milk from the doorstep. Hers is a venture of faith and the power that carries her to the door, and the power which enables creation to be manifested through her is the power of the Holy Spirit. The milk ending up in the refrigerator is by no means a commonplace event, it is God demonstrating His Partnership with His daughter and it is His Promise of Heaven for her as she takes firm hold the reins of the Spirit.

And finally, though we live in a world which increasingly demands that we exercise our minds, there is no need to exercise the mind by trying to find special ways and special means to reach God. It is a fact of love that the great Father of us all is ONE with each of us right where we are. We do not have to seek Him on the top of a mountain or in the recesses of our souls for He is our life, and is ministering unto each of us directly through all that has being in His Life.

Our great way forward is to graciously receive God's Love always and to honour that love by the giving of that love unto one another and so to follow our Lord and our Saviour Jesus, the Christ.

Thank You, Lord.

"Nor by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts,"—Zechariah 4 : 6

This is what happens!

"I knew of a shy little boy who had developed warts on his feet and they were getting rather painful. I knew he had to go to the hospital at Plymouth for them to be removed. He was getting upset so of course I asked our Heavenly Father to help him with His Love. Well he was taken to the hospital and went for an examination and lo and behold the warts had disappeared."
30-12-63 Mrs. A. 'P', Devon.

"I thank you from my heart Bro. Mandus for your prayers. We thank God for a wonderful unfoldment of good which took place as my letter was placed in the post-box. My husband says there was suddenly a great change, he felt, in his condition. He was soon asking for solid food which he had not tasted for over three weeks, also—wonders! his bowels started to act normally, his face filled out and his colour came back. He'd been laid in a dark room for over three weeks, couldn't bear company or to talk himself. He told me after that he used to pray continually day and night for he could not sleep either, he used to lie there and talk to God. Isn't it wonderful? I wish everyone knew the power of prayer and what God can do. What cannot God do. May God Bless you and the wonderful work you are doing for mankind".
21-1-64 Mrs. F.B., Bradford, Yorks.

"The Sunday before Christmas my Mother-in-law visited me, and told me the wonderful news, that my brother-in-law, had come out of hospital the day before, cured. I wrote to you about him about three months ago, he was tubercular and was to be in hospital six months. My mother says she has never seen him look so fit and well before."
30-12-63 Mrs. M.H., Eckington Pershore, Worcs.

"I have seen wonderful cures doner by healing, a friend who was going blind and was told by two specialists that nothing could be done to cure a growth rapidly getting nearer to the optic nerve, is completely healed."
17-12-63 Miss M. 'T', Hampstead, London.

"A lady was present for healing at one of your meetings in either Dunedin or Invercargill. She was in a wheel chair, and is now able to drive her car. Thank You Brother Mandus and thank you Father."
6-12-63 M. I.M., Dunedin.

"I asked you to pray for Julia if you remember, when you were in Morecambe. She was only 10 years old and suffering from cancer. She is a lovely girl today nearly 17 years old and the doctors only gave her a month to live, but through your prayers and crusaders she is wonderful and doing a job at the hospital as a short-hand typist."
24-12-63 Mrs. F., Lancaster.

"I wrote for help for a little coloured girl called Hester, who they thought would soon end in an asylum. A couple of weeks after I had written to you, Hester and her mother walked into the specialist's consulting room. The Doctor looked up and said, 'I don't know what has happened to you Hester, but you are better' and after examining her he said 'You are healed'. Then the little girl was able to join a hairdressing salon, her ambition, and is so happy and such a favourite with the rest of the staff."
15-12-63 M. R.L.G., Durban, South Africa.

THANK YOU, LORD

"My purpose in writing you is to let you know that my wife is still enjoying the best of health. You may remember that medical specialists at Nelson Hospital could do nothing for her. Very high blood pressure and partial paralysis of her right leg. I was present at a very thorough and patient examination my presence was necessary as my wife's speech was slurred, slow and memory at times absent. At the end of the examination at which many contraptions were used, we were told very gently and regretfully that nothing could be done. We had of course, immediately after the visit to the specialist, got in touch with you by letter asking for prayers and a tape. I think you know the story from there on, improvement began and continued rapidly. First the leg became normal, her outlook on life changed, speech gradually became normal and memory improved. We know of course, without any doubts at all, that my wife was made whole by our Father through your prayers and mine. Thank you Father and thank you Bro. Mandus and all at the Sanctuary."

22-12-63 Mr. E.W.H., Nelson, New Zealand.

"A few weeks ago my little pet cat, Sandy was hit by a bus and picked up for dead by a lorry-driver (God Bless him). He rang the vet for me and when he came he said that Sandy had a broken jaw and may have to lose an eye. While I was waiting for the vet to come the poor little animal was in dreadful agony but I put the Crusader on the basket he was laid in and prayed the prayer of St. Francis silently.

Sandy is now his beautiful little self. The eye is improving all the time and the broken jaw is completely healed. I have witnessed healings of humans before but this is the first time I have seen it on one of my animals. Thank You, Father".

17-12-63 Mrs. M.L.W., Chadderton.

"Some time ago I had a slipped disc and had orthopaedic treatment with adjustments from time to time. A short while ago my back was painful again and I wondered if I should go for another check up and adjustment. However, I put a prayer card on my back under my clothes andthe pain just vanished. I think it is just too wonderful."

30-12-63 Mrs. B.M., Bulawayo, S. Rhodesia.

"It was through one of Brother Conrad's messages that my eye was healed. For over 3 years the blurred spot in my eye resisted all my prayers and the prayers of many others. But when he spoke of releasing our problems to God, I realised I had failed to do that. When I did the eye was healed within a week."

11-12-63 Miss M.H., Canada.

"Mrs. D. says she feels tremendously uplifted spiritually. Indeed to me she looked wonderful, and the heat she felt flowing through your hands went to her deaf ear. Thank you Father. I was speaking quite normally to her and she heard every word. She has a fear of having to be sent away from home or rather I must say she did have a fear, because when I spoke to her of the need to 'let go' of the Past, and leave the Future to God, and Abide in the eternal now, she completely relaxed."

21-1-64 S.M.B., Ilfracombe, North Devon.

THANK YOU, LORD

This is what happens!

"I have received a wonderful healing when in awful mental anguish and conflict just recently conveyed through one of your prayer cards which I held over my forehead. Thank you Bro. Mandus and thank you Father."

13-12-63 M. A.H., Eastbourne, Sussex.

"My husband wrote to you about my having to have a lump removed from my mouth a year after having a breast removed for cancer.

The surgeon after making a small incision, found it to be a dead gland which can remain safely where it is to be absorbed probably into the system later. A small piece was sent to the pathologist who verified the findings."

6-12-63 Mrs. M.S.R., Florida, Tal., S. Africa.

"About a month ago, I wrote to you for prayers for my grandson's dog "Sparkle", who is a German Shepherd dog and looks just like your "Sheba". Our dog Sparkle was going blind and the veterinary was going to put the dog to sleep that following week. I wrote to you to pray that Sparkle would have her vision restored. The poor dog would just lay down and hardly move, she did not know what had happened to her. She was always so active with the children running all over the fields where we lived. My husband and I felt so sorry for this dog as we too have learned to love her. The day after I wrote to you my daughter said there was an improvement and now after one month the dog is completely made whole."

7-12-63 Mrs. O.M.H., Hemet, California.

"During your second mission at St. John's, I asked your prayers for myself since I had had two attacks of a Hiatal Hernia. Not long ago I said to my sister, 'You know, I haven't had an attack of that H. Hernia in several years.' And she said, 'you asked to be cured didn't you?' It doesn't speak very well for me. But I did wake up even if it took a long time."

12-12-63 Mrs. D.G.M., Washington, U.S.A.

"My daughter had a healing off you when you were at St. James' Church, Pollock. She had a murmur at her heart. She has been at the doctor and he said she is all right now. Thank you so much."

24-1-64 Mrs. K., Glasgow, Scotland.

"My husband had to go into the Masonic Hospital in London. A hernia operation had been arranged for January, but further trouble had arisen and his doctor hastened him into hospital.

Within hours of his arrival at the hospital all pain and discomfort left him. He had endless tests and X-rays and on Sunday last we were very surprised to be informed by his surgeon that his X-ray plates were all clear, and they could find no reason to operate for his hernia."

15-1-64 Mrs. D.L., Cornwall.

"The fear of which I suffered so bearably which upset and knotted my inside and gave me spinal pains, has gone thanks to your prayers, from the moment you spoke to me the fear went. It is incredible. I feel in myself much better and stronger. Thanks to your prayers."

20-1-64 Mrs. M.G., London.

THANK YOU, LORD

This is what happens!

"I wrote to you three weeks ago to tell you about my dear aunt who was suffering with cancer of the stomach. You sent me some Healing Cards and I wrote also to tell you of my intention to visit her. I went to visit her last week-end and oh! what a wonderful improvement I found in her. The doctors had given her only three months to live, but if she continues with the progress she is making she will most surely astound them all.

She didn't know I had written to you, yet she told me she had eaten her first meal in six months on the very day I wrote to you, she had been so ill she could keep nothing down, and her stomach was so terribly swollen she had to go into hospital and had 37½ pints of fluid removed from her stomach in ten days. She couldn't walk even a few steps, she was in such terrible pain and was so weak. When I arrived Saturday morning I gave her the healing card to place on her stomach and from then onwards she continued to feel better, she has eaten 3 good meals a day since with no sickness and has been able to pass the urine. She is astounded herself, she told me she had been unable to pass any urine previously, yet now she is back to her normal self again. Monday afternoon she astonished everyone, she came out shopping with me and accompanied her son who was taking me to the boat, she said she wasn't even feeling tired. Everyone has seen such a remarkable change in her, even her skin, which had been yellow, has now turned a healthy colour. I told her I had written to you also you were all praying for her, now she is praying with us too and she now knows the truth of this remarkable state of change in her and has told me it is the Hand of God who has done this."

27-1-64 Miss J.F., Dublin.

"I am so happy to tell you that my little grandaughter C. is now better than I have ever known her to be.

I wrote telling you that when she was ill, we placed a healing card on her ear and head, which was giving her severe pain; when the doctor came he was rather puzzled as she had certain symtoms of meningitis but not all. She did not recover immediately but went into hospital and is now quite well. The doctors are not sure what had been really wrong and said there were so many complications. In my heart I feel that whatever she was developing or had developed was arrested and cured through the power that came from the healing card and by the prayers which you offered at the Sanctuary.

It is so wonderful to see her well again. Thank You Father and thank you all at the Sanctuary for the love that is sent to all who are sick and in need of healing."

30-1-64 Mrs. G.B., Pendleton, Nr. Clytheroe.

"I am now thanking you for what one of your prayer cards has done for me. As I lay in bed one night I had so much pain in my breast so I put the card on my breast and I must have gone to sleep and when I woke the pain had gone. So words of mine could not express the gratitude to our Father for all the good he has bestowed upon me.

1-2-64 Mrs. J., Royton, Oldham.

"Our daughter J. (17 years nearly) has been healed through prayer, Divine Healing, healed of her fits which had been our sorest trial for nearly 3 years, the Lord has answered.

29-12-63 Mr. C.E.B., Colombo, Ceylon.

THANK YOU, LORD

This is what happens!

"At the Healing Service held in Jacksonville, January 10th, 1964, at the time given to pray for a loved one, I prayed for my sister who has been ill since Christmas Day. She has been in the hospital two weeks now—during all of this illness she has suffered agonizing pain, being kept under sedation a great part of the time. After the healing service I told her I had been to a healing service and had prayed for her. The next day the pain left her completely, mysteriously, the doctors can give no explanation. My gratitude to the Father, and to His Messenger, Bro. Mandus is indeed very great.

22-1-64 Mrs. F.K., Jacksonville, Florida.

"My husband spent two months in two hospitals and now the doctors have said there is no need for any operation at all. My husband has already written to you how God prevented the operation four times and in the famous mission hospital at Vellore, all tests were done from head to foot and all tests showed everything was normal. All specialists attended on him and found no physiological disorder and there was not even the slightest trace of an ulcer that the first doctor said was there for a very long time."

9-1-64 Mrs. K.S., Coimbatore, S. India.

"I asked your help over a bronchial cough that I'd had for over a fortnight. I want you to know that quite suddenly this cough cleared off—one day it was there and I couldn't lie down without coughing—the next day it had cleared away completely and I'm free from it—this certainly was an answer to prayer and I'm so grateful to my Father and to you."

21-1-64 Mrs. G.R., Leicester.

"My friend and I came to your meeting. I was in great pain with my back and she was bad with her leg. You told us to stand up who wished to be healed, so when you came down and prayed for us we both went out feeling new, warmer all over and our pains were gone."

11-1-64 Mrs. S.M., Moulscombe, Surrey.

"Thank you for the wonderful help I have received. A friend gave me a prayer card, and I was very grateful for it, because I broke my wrist and was taken to hospital to have it set. The doctor said I would suffer a lot of pain and be unable to sleep the first night. However, when I went to bed I took my "Crusader", and the prayer card. I read part of the "Crusader" and then the prayer card. Still holding the prayer card I fell asleep and did not wake until next morning, so I did not have the severe pain the doctor had predicted. I am now able to use my hand again and the doctor was very pleased with the result, as it was a very bad fracture. I know that the Father helped me and I say Thank You, Father."

10-12-63 Mrs. A.D., Christchurch, New Zealand.

"It is wonderful that my friend has made such a wonderful and perfect recovery from his long illness. Thank you Brother Mandus and Brother Conrad for his perfect healing. He came out of hospital the day before Christmas which gave us great joy and happiness. He looks very well indeed, in fact I haven't seen him look so well for a long time.

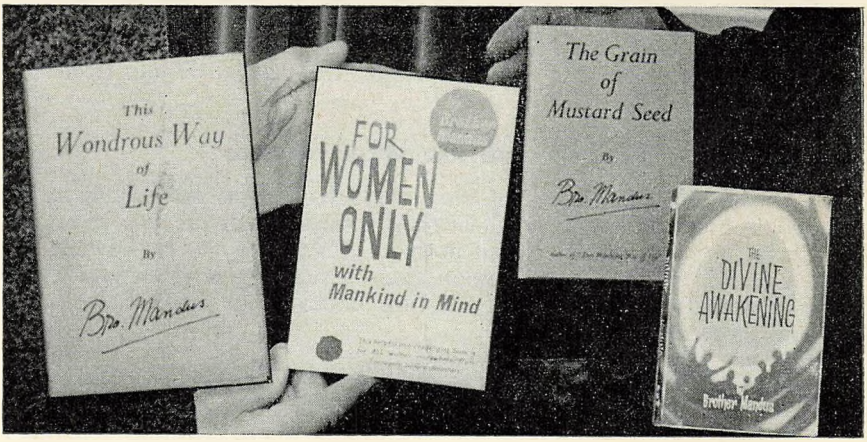

17-164 Miss E.B., Durban, S. Africa.

"I had a fall through an uneven pavement. I could not move myself, my back was very painful. I placed a card on it and was relieved of the pain."

20-1-64 Mrs. M.D., Leyton, E.10.

When My Heart is Overwhelmed

I stood on a mountain top in California, seven thousand feet high, and contemplated the vast panorama of precipitous crags gleaming cream in the sunlight. Redwood forests filled the deep valleys and enfolded the slopes of a hundred mountains as though raising the bare peaks in their arms towards the blue heavens.

I was perched, as an eagle, on the edge of a precipice which plunged a thousand feet to a valley of woodland glades. A similar cliff walled the opposite side, and the sun was already etching a black shadow across the scarcely visible cabins of the camp down below.

The air was exhilarating, stirred by the gentlest of breezes from the Pacific Ocean as I wandered in the warm sunshine towards the trees away from the peak. The Silence . . . the incredible Peace . . . enfolded my entire being, and God was there. Resting on a grassy slope, the leafy branches of trees framed the mountains and the blue sky—and I drifted from meditation into divine sleep. At such moments one knows that Love is all.

In the dark hours of the night, deep in the valley of the cabins I strolled along a path in the forest. A full moon emphasised the mysterious shadows amongst the trees, but surprised the soul with a golden glory spilling through the high branches. In one glade, I stepped out of the darkness into the clear light and was swept up in such a vision of beauty and the Father's eternal presence that this love is inevitably shared with you now, as you read.

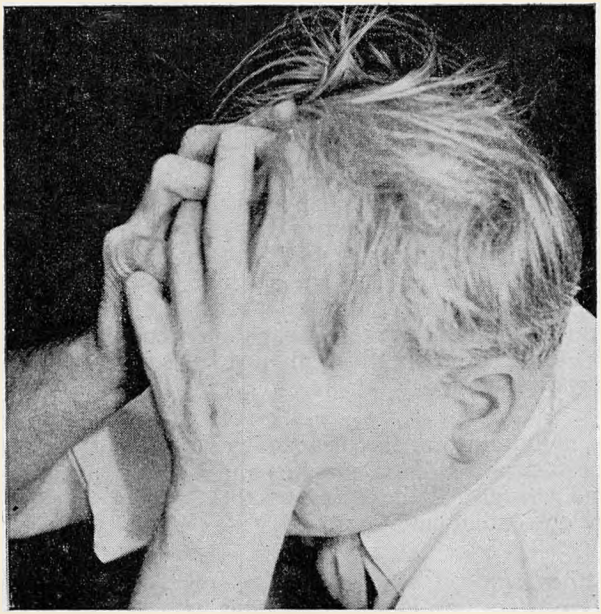

The mountain top, the dark valley; night and day, light and shade, ecstasy and sadness, meeting and parting, birth and death, earth and heaven! all designed by the Great Architect to give us every one, abundant, eternal life.

Next morning I stepped out of my cabin into the cool wood. Two bears, mother and daughter (or son!) were rummaging in a garbage bin outside the door! They were not afraid of me, and I, surprisingly, was unafraid too! Peace . . . harmony . . . and love.

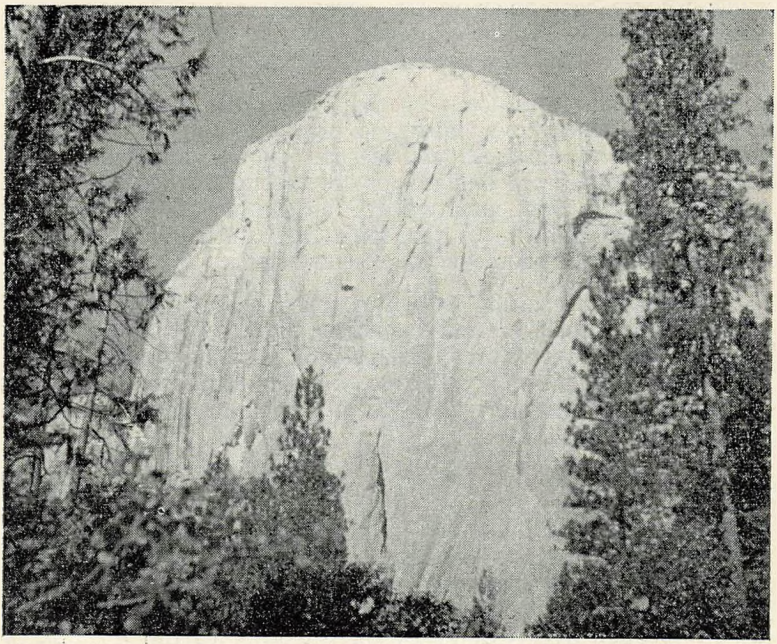

Truly we should pause, in awe and worship—every day—before the miracle and mystery of the life which the Father has given to us.

When we are not drowned in the commonplace, and our spiritual vision is quickened, we can behold and savour the irresistible variety of experience which flows from the moment we are born until we soar on the wings of spirit on the greatest adventure of all.

We all have our mountain-top experiences and we all, from time to time, walk through the valleys of darkness. We need urgently to know that our eternal unfolding can only proceed through every kind of contrasting circumstance. No power, even the deepest darkness of sin or sickness, can ever break the eternal love which is Christ's Life within us. Always His Spirit undergirds us and eventually leads us to the mountains into the light again—and we shall have grown in compassion, understanding and faith when the salvation comes.

"When my heart is overwhelmed, lead me to the rock that is higher than I"—Psalm.

"And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow into it."
—Isaiah 2 : 2.

The world of God's family is involved in this drama of an eternal life and inevitably must discover its heritage in order to become established in the wondrous ways the Father has prepared for every one of us. And, under the Law of Love so comprehensively revealed by Jesus Christ, we learn to arise as the sons and daughters of God, co-heirs of this immeasurable Kingdom of Life.

Secondary only to the truth that we live, and move, and have our being in God, is the realisation that we are one with each other in His Spirit. We are more than brothers and sisters, for we are part of the unfolding of the One Life of the Father.

That is why we can help one another, and walk more surely together along these eternal highways. If we are uplifted in the real love, and live close to the Lord in faith, we inevitably inspire others to experience the same joy. On the other hand, when we are cast down in the darkness of hatred, bitterness, sin or fear, we throw a cloud around those whose lives immediately touch ours, and in some degree upon all humanity.

In spiritual work today, perhaps the greatest discovery has been the power of love, faith and prayer to lead others out of their valleys of darkness and despair to the sunlit mountain top. Love, faith, hope and prayer are the most infectious, most powerful, and most practical of all human qualities. They represent the highway of the spirit and are infallible in their eternal significance for everyone, everywhere.

It is indeed exciting to live in this day and age. People are coming into a clearer understanding of these basic principles and, naturally, eagerly take their place in bringing others towards the same goal. Literally millions of people all over the world are seriously developing their love, faith and prayer-power in every daily objective.

The most inspiring feature of my own life and ministry is that, by the Grace of God, I meet hundreds of thousands of these Christians of the New Age in different parts of the world, each year. I marvel to behold the incredible spritual potential that is steadily mounting in expression. And know, so surely, that the Lord is in control of His world and that He is leading us all through every valley of the shadows to the uplands of the Kingdom He has created for His entire family.

On my recent mission through the United States and Canada it was a tremendous experience to feel again the deep spiritual pulse of this vital and enthusiastic people. In every church, of so many denominations, I found an even greater dedication and vision than on previous missions. More and more people are embracing the Christ Way of life, proving its truth, and eagerly embracing greater experiences of love, faith, communion with God and answered prayer.

In all the churches there is vigorous spiritual growth and many of them are leading the way in the full gospel of Jesus Christ in healing through prayer and in absolute committal to the principle of Love.

The whole of this three month's mission was a mountain-top experience. It was such a joy to renew spiritual friendship and, in every way, I can only say a very humble "Thank You, Father" and "Thank you, everyone", for the privilege of serving the Lord in such rich fellowship. Transcending all apparent darkness and difficulties in the world, there are wondrous signs that the New Christ Age has dawned. Whether one travels in Britain, North America, New Zealand, Australia, India or Africa—there is a great quickening taking place in the midst of all outward turbulance. Winds of spirit are blowing fogs out of the valleys and the clouds from the mountain tops, so that the sun, which has never ceased to shine, may flood the whole world with radiant light.

We here in the British Isles, and the Commonwealth of Nations, also have a great spiritual tradition and heritage. And, as we all unite with a common goal and become dedicated to world salvation through spiritual leadership, every country will eagerly join with all others in pioneering the way forward to the true brotherhood of man in the Fatherhood of God.

But even the highest vision for a nation or the world can still only find its outreach and fulfilment through each individual. One by one we encounter our garden of Gethsemane experiences and ultimately it is the Lord who leads us to the "Rock that is higher than I". Then His Cross is planted on the mountain top and we stand there, with Him, in the miracle of worship, victory and transformation.

So, in Christ, we can love and help one another to take His Hand that He may lead us into freedom. That is the true function of every Church and every Christian. That is why we, as a Crusade, exist only to serve every church, prayer group or individual in love, prayer or any way possible.

Our highest privilege is to unite in prayer with everyone everywhere and, day by day, a host of prayer-partners join us in deep Intercession for all who are in need .

If you are sick, troubled, or needing help to fulfil some objective for yourself or your loved ones, do please write to us. It is our real privilege to share your burdens and hopes and to release them to the Lord in prayer—and we do believe that all prayer is answered. There is no greater comfort than to know that friends are interceding with you and for you.

Sometimes human problems are so heavy and grievous that they cannot be shared with anyone. To meet this need we offer our Altar to receive your sealed "Letters to the Lord". This gives the opportunity to write from the deeps of your heart straight to Him—a true confession and release of every deep and hidden burden.

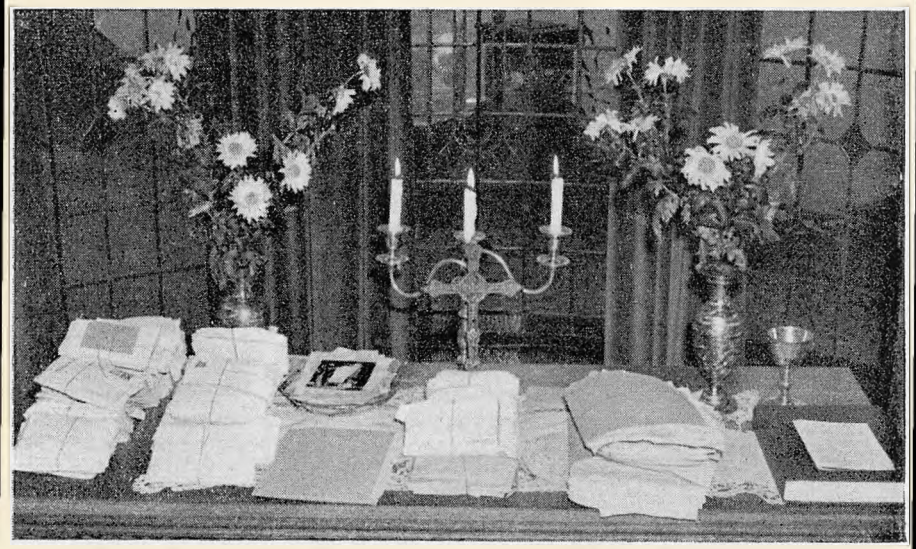

These letters should be sealed in an envelope clearly addressed "My Letter to the Lord", and enclosed in a note to us requesting it to be placed on our Altar for prayer.

This "Letter to the Lord" is never opened. It is treated with reverence and absolute integrity. We place it on the Altar before the Lord who knows all you have written. It rests there, together with the griefs and pains of many other friends, for one week while we release everything to God through our daily prayers of love and faith.

Then, as a symbol of final release and consummation, the letters are burned, still sealed, as a sacrament, knowing that the Lord is ministering to your every need. Thank You, Father.

In this picture you can see the Sanctuary Altar bearing the letters of our friends and I know you will join us daily in prayer for them all.

Thank you for your friendship and help in every way. Together, we can follow the Light of Christ to the top of the Rock that is higher than ourselves.

"I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will heal thee".
—2 Kings 20 : 5.

The Prayer of the Chalice—Frances Nuttall

Father, to Thee I raise my whole being, a vessel emptied of self. Accept, Lord, this my emptiness, and so fill me with Thy Self—Thy Light, Thy Love, Thy Life—that these Thy precious gifts may radiate through me and overflow the chalice of my heart into the hearts of all with whom I come into contact this day revealing unto them the beauty of Thy Joy and the wholeness and the serenity of Thy Peace which nothing can destroy.

Sharing

"When thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind : And thou shalt be Blessed."—Luke 14 : 13.

Discipleship

The Presence of God is with you. The Father is ONE with you right where you are. Blessed the child of God who accepts the Presence of the Father in all ways for the well-being of others, and who goes forward quietly and confidently in partnership with the Lord, knowing that he has received.

Compassion

In Thy Presence and in Thy Love Father I am totally identified with my brothers and sisters in their needs.

THANK YOU, FATHER

Choose Ye This Day

By Thy Light Lord, I see

"The lamp of the body is the eye: If therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light."

Peacemaker

Wherever there is discord, duality, conflict, separation, loss, inharmony or judgement, the Lord Jesus Christ calls you to be a bridge over which He and all who are with Him step into the world.

A bridge must be truly anchored on the human shore and upon the Divine Shore; this is done as you identify yourself with those in need and at the same time stand firmly in the Lord's Presence ever enfolding you. Through your trust the Lord and all in the Kingdom work with you to bring the Peace of Divine Love to those in need.

Divine Healing

The Father's ONENESS with you through every moment means that body, mind and soul you are embraced by perfection. As you abide in the Father's Presence accepting what His Presence means for you, as well as for others, then you are healed and every moment of partnership with the Lord is your witnessing His Work accomplished through you for others and your complete renewal in His Life also.

THANK YOU, FATHER

I am the Servant of the Lord

What Now?

'Now' in the Presence of God is Eternity, and partnership with Infinite Love and Wisdom. That which I believe God's Presence to mean for the day ahead is the Divine Plan for my day which cannot help but be my experience this day as I keep close to the Lord even as He is forever close to me. All that is achieved this day is achieved therefore by the Holy Spirit.

"Nor by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts."—Zechariah 4 : 6.

Responsiveness to the Will of God

Thy Will Lord is everyones well-being and my happiness in that of all other people. In Thy Presence I am servant to all, and I am Blessed with Thy Love through everyone and through everything that has being in Thy Spirit. The Banquet You set before me Lord I share with my world by simply being in Thy Being, and the giving and the receiving of Thy Love is my understanding the language of the Spirit.

A new vision through Divine Wisdom

"But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint."
—Isaiah 40 : 31.

Adventure, the Divine Way

When all that is given to us by God is shared, then all that is given is known.

Honesty is Divine Assurance

"All that I have is thine . . . . It is the Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom."—Jesus.

First things first

When you are God's Instrument first and with all of your heart, then you are in God's House ; then you will have complete use of the safe in His House which is your mind, and of the cupboard in His House which is your body. First enter the House of the Lord. You have three keys, one to the house, one to the safe and one to the cupboard, but to try to open the safe or the cupboard before first entering the House is self-deception.

Work

A house divided cannot stand for long. A man cannot serve two masters.

God's House is built by God, and all that is done by the Father through your partnership with Him is an addition to His House which is called Heaven. If you would be in His House do not start to build one of your own. You cannot serve yourself and God, but if God does all the works through you, you are a guest in His House forever.

Power or Peace

The power and the glory all belongs to the Holy Spirit. The power of God's Infinite Love is experienced by man as the Peace of the Presence of God. A little child experiences the power of the Holy Spirit but a mighty army on the move only experiences power as the force which is destroying it until Divine equilibrium is again restored. We can go forward with a child-like faith or in the manner of an army on the march. Power experienced by any man not holding to the first commandment is his intimate experience of the tempter at work through him.

The Use of the Mind

"Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honourable, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely—whatsoever things are of good report . . . think on these things."—Phil. 4 : 8.

The Calm of a Divine Patience

"But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it."—Romans 8 : 25.

The Holy Commandments

And Jesus answered him. The first of all the commandments is—The Lord our God is one Lord : And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. And the second is like unto it. Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is no other commandment greater than these.

If you have any need . . .

As you release these difficulties now, trusting in God's Love, everyone who is with our Lord Jesus Christ joins you in your faith. We are all together working through faith and witnessing God's work with you and for you. This day you are an important member of a truly mighty congregation and in every necessary way you are constantly Blessed by the Lord with Divine Order through Jesus Christ. Thank You, Lord.

The Promise of God to You

"If a man loves Me, he will keep My words; and My Father will love him and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him."—John 14 : 23.

Saint Francis

Lord, make me a channel of Thy Peace,
That where there is hatred—I may bring Love,
That where there is wrong—I may bring the Spirit of forgiveness,
That where there is disharmony—I may bring harmony.

The Lord's Detailed, Particular Work Today

In the Presence of God Who is ONE with you now and always, you have His Light to replace every shadow, Divine Joy to transform all grief, Divine Supply in the place of seeming loss, Wisdom to replace all confusions and Infinite Love to inspire every aching heart to love. The Lord's presence is the answer to every need specially presented to you this day.

Divine Supply

Neither Power, nor Love, nor Peace, nor Joy, nor anything good can be kept in a personal treasure house. Power retained becomes a false God, Peace unshared becomes the great deceiver, joy undeclared deadens all the senses to life's messages of Divine Joy, and anything good which is possessed loses its flavour and its goodness, and imprisons the soul. The treasure house for God's treasures is the Kingdom. Peace is attained when Heaven receives its due. At all times we have Divine Supply to share.

Forgiveness

When a mistake is made everyone is hurt. A mistake is not a personal affair for it has a universal consequence. Such a universal burden is impossible to bear, and one can only be redeemed by the Lord. When there are many who demand a tooth for a tooth it is imperative to abide in the Lord for their sakes that they be forgiven for withholding Love where Love was most needed. So does our redemption become a service to humanity and the way cleared for great progress.

Lord in Thy Love we abide, knowing only your forgiveness for those who have trespassed against us, and for these mistakes which we now confess.

Outgoing Love. St. Francis

For it is by giving—that one receives;
It is by self-forgetting—that one finds;
It is by forgiving—that one is forgiven;
It is by dying that one awakens to Eternal Life.

Thanksgiving, My Demonstration of Faith

"Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving."—Col. 4 : 2.

The Smallest Parts Complete a Pattern

Lord, this day is Thine. Thank You for releasing it to me moment by moment, and for showing me how I may share the grace You give to me with everyone.

Everything that fills this day is of vital importance if the Divine Plan for this day is to be your experience.

"His Lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will set thee over many things."—Matthew 25 : 23.

I Enter Every Relationship With God

"The discretion of a man maketh him slow to anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression."—Prov. 5 : 22.

"The fruit of the Spirit is self control."—Gol. 5 : 22.

Lonely?

"I am not alone, because the Father is with me."—John 16 : 32.

And if God is with me, then all who have their being in Him are my companions at the banquet He sets before me.

"Be still . . and know that I am God"

Oh Father of all mankind, in the name of my Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, I become still in Thy Presence, seeking only to worship Thee and to allow Thy Will to be done in my life.

I rest now, at peace in Thy Spirit . . . I accept completely the truth of Thy love for me, for my family and for all people whose lives touch mine. I believe, in these moments, that Perfect Everything is released unto each one, to bring forth their highest good according to Thy Will.

I name them before Thee, Lord . . . And, with Thee, see the inner reality in each one, in the image of Christ.

From this moment, and throughout this day, I will know Thy Spirit is radiating love, tolerance, understanding, wisdom and all good to everyone I meet. I give thanks for the strength and inspiration which will guide my thoughts, words and deeds, and ask only that I may be a perfect channel of Thy Goodness to all.

Lord, take my life today, and use it to bless all people whose lives touch mine. Take the offering of my service, and consecrate it to Thee. I lovingly give my humblest works to Thee—the washing, the cooking and the cleaning. Let my home be a Temple of Thy Spirit, in which everything reflects Thy Love, with which it is now filled.

In all my work today, I thankfully accept Thy strength, and execute it as a benediction to those who shall share the works I do for their well-being.

Thank You, Father, for the beauty of Thy Spirit within me, for the privilege you place into my keeping to bless all. Thank You, Father, for countless Blessings and the abundant joy which I can now share in love and faith with everyone.

I rest now in the Great Peace . . . and know the truth of eternal life in Thee.

Thank You, Father, for everything.
