HS 353+
C 55:11
A.547753

THE

Freemason's Chronicle;

A WEEKLY RECORD OF MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

SANCTIONED BY THE GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

Registered at the G.P.O. as a Newspaper.

VOL. XI.—No. 261. SATURDAY, 27th DECEMBER 1879. [Issued to Subscribers only. 13s 6d per annum, post free.

THE COMPLIMENTS OF THE SEASON.

ONCE more we have the pleasure of wishing our readers A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR, and in doing so we desire to tender our heartiest thanks to the numerous friends of THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE who have hitherto supported us. During the past twelve months we have frequently had to chronicle the ravages of that grim monster—Death—and, strange as it may appear on our part to refer to so dismal a subject, at what should be the most joyful season of the year, we cannot help calling to mind the many dear friends who, since the last Christmas, "have gone to the undiscover'd country, from whose bourn no traveller returns." But we must dismiss these thoughts from our mind, and strive, by every means in our power, to promote as much enjoyment as is possible among those who are still around us; and who, let us hope, will share with us the pleasures of Christmas for many years to come. As year by year we have the opportunity of joining in the hearty greetings of this festive season we cannot but feel a pride in the progress of the work we have undertaken. The number of our friends increases day by day, but it is only on such anniversaries as the present that we seem to be able to devote a moment to a consideration of the extent to which the circle of our good wishers has attained; and then, by comparing the position with that at the corresponding period of a previous year, we are enabled to congratulate ourselves on the fact that our labours on behalf of Freemasonry are appreciated.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE to-day starts on the sixth year of its existence, and on taking up our pen to record this fact, we are tempted to direct the attention of our readers to consideration of a few of the questions of the day which bear most particularly upon the welfare, happiness and prosperity of Freemasons as a body. On every side it will be conceded that we, as a nation, are passing through a season of great commercial depression; to say that the times are bad is no mere figure of speech, the fact is brought too palpably to our very doors to be lightly passed over. Those of our brethren who act as representatives of the large trading houses of the kingdom experience the greatest difficulty in filling their order sheets, and week after week the result of their labours is meagre, while the consideration of what is to be done in the future engenders a spirit of depression and discouragement most difficult to counteract. It is not within our province to offer opinions as to the why or the wherefore of this, nor are we tempted to suggest a remedy; still we think we may offer a few suggestions that will be found acceptable to our readers. First, then we will consider how it is that during the past year, to which season more especially our remarks will apply, that the extension of our great organisation has gone steadily on. During the Masonic year no less than 60 new warrants have been granted by the Most Worshipful the Grand Master the Prince of Wales. Associated in the management of many of these new Lodges are brethren who bring with them great experience, and a knowledge of the duties and responsibilities expected of those who seek to govern the Craft, and maintain it in the state of efficiency it now presents. The financial result of the Festivals of our three glorious Institutions was far beyond what could ever have been anticipated by the most sanguine, while in the matter of private benevolence we boldly assert that no complaint of a falling off can for a moment be sustained. To what, then, can be attributed the desire to join our ranks? Many of a cynical turn of mind will tell us that a majority of those attached to our Order are influenced by motives of gain, and this impression is endorsed by many of those weak members of the Craft who—we regret to say—are too easily led by those who are continually seeking to find unworthy motives for almost every action of daily life. This brings us to a consideration of what our brotherly relationship, the one to the other, should be. It is said that the world may know that a Mason is one to whom the burdened heart may pour forth its sorrows, and the distressed may prefer their suit. Is this fully and fairly borne in mind by the Craft at large? Is not the first wail of a brother on whom the hand of adversity has heavily fallen, treated as the signal for the listener—who should be expected to render the help desired; help which, by the way, may not always be required to take the form of a monetary gift, but frequently merely a yearning for sympathy and advice—to make himself scarce, and studiously to avoid a future meeting, lest he should be pestered with the troubles of others. We fear in placing our views thus forcibly before our readers, we may lay ourselves open to the oft-repeated charge that those who join our ranks should remember that they are incurring heavy liabilities, and that if their pursestrings will not bear the strain it were far better to hold aloof. This, we think, we may be able to reply to. How many in our own immediate circle could we name whose prospects were of the brightest, yet through no fault of their own, have been struck down in their career of prosperity? Who amongst us can make a forecast of what his business—however flourishing it may be to-day—will produce five, three, nay, even one, year hence? Life at the present time may, indeed, be called a lottery, in which there are prizes, but wherein the number of blanks far exceeds. The man who to-day is prosperous should be thankful that he is so, and not, as is too frequently the case, take all the credit to himself; rather let him look carefully into his own heart, and draw a comparison with some of his less fortunate brethren. We think he need not be long ere he arrives at the conclusion that he has much to be thankful for, and that many of those less fortunate around him demand, and are worthy of his assistance. Let us bear in mind the old saying, "Many a mickle makes a muckle;" let us give according to our means; if we cannot assist with our purse, let us do so with our counsel; we need never intrude upon our distressed brother, but should we be appealed to, let us do all in our power to help, and not turn upon our heel and rush away as if contagion were at our elbow.

In this the opening number of the Eleventh Volume of the CHRONICLE we think it desirable to follow the time-honoured custom of most journals, and lay down a programme for the future. The past speaks for itself; and, therefore, we dismiss it at once. Our course throughout our career has been unfettered by any outside influences, and we have always striven to perform our duty faithfully and fearlessly; when we say that it is our wish to maintain this line of action in the future, we think we have said all that is necessary or possible to say in connection with a journal which professes truthfully to record Masonic intelligence. If in the discharge of our editorial functions we have offended any, we trust they will now accept the right hand of fellowship, and join with us in wishing every member of the Craft

THE COMPLIMENTS OF THE SEASON.

Digitized by Google

THE PROJECTED EXTENSION OF THE GIRLS' SCHOOL.

IT will be seen from an advertisement which appears in another part of this issue that the desirability of purchasing Lyncombe House and grounds as an addition to the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls is to be again brought before the Governors and Subscribers of that Institution before the vote passed at the recent Special General Court is offered for confirmation. The reason assigned for this step is, "to ensure the matter being 'in order'"—a question of the construction of the Laws having arisen as to the manner in which the notice was given for the resolution passed at the Special General Court of the 22nd ultimo. We are pleased that the proposers of the expenditure have adopted a course which will at least give an opportunity for a further discussion of the merits of the proposal, and now that an opportunity is offered, we trust that the subject will be fully considered from every point, and that in the end it will not be possible for either side to express disapproval at the action of the other. It is well known to our readers that we are opposed to the outlay, for several reasons, and we are still of opinion that the expenditure will prove detrimental to the Institution. We therefore urge every subscriber if possible to attend the Special General Court summoned for the 3rd January, and then form his own opinion of the subject, which is really of far greater import to the Craft then appears to be considered. The outlay of £6,500 on the acquisition of further premises is in itself a question for deliberation; but as at the present time there are ample invested funds belonging to the Institution, this will not entail an appeal to the Craft to make up the amount. What is of far greater moment, and what should influence the vote, is the cost of utilising the property for the purposes of a School, and providing the amount annually needed to maintain it in a state of usefulness. No house built for ordinary domestic purposes was, or ever will be, suited for a public school, and notwithstanding the fact that the sum of £700 has just been spent in repairs—as stated by "One of the Committee who voted for the purchase," in a letter in our present issue—we maintain that the building is only worth to the Institution its value in old building material. It is useless the proposer or his supporters stating that it is suitable as a school for the younger or more backward of the scholars—they are just the ones whose health requires the most attention, and if the Institution can afford to provide a separate establishment for them, it should be at some healthy sea-side resort, where bracing air and regular country life would implant strength and vigour to their young and sensative frames, not in the midst of a thickly populated and rapidly extending neighbourhood where, even now, it is next to impossible to obtain pure air. The mere fact that it has been desirable to lately expend £700 on repairs, appears to us rather a disadvantage than otherwise, considering the purpose for which the property is required. The house must evidently be an old one, or it could not have been necessary to lay out so large an amount as £700 in repairs—or it may be alterations. If it cost that amount to adapt the building to the modern style of dwelling-house, how much more will it cost to prepare it for a school? It would be far better to build an establishment on modern plans than to think of utilising an existing structure, unless we intend to disregard all existing ideas as to the sanitary and sleeping requirements of the inmates, and this we are certain would never be allowed in connection with one of the Masonic Schools. Some of the principal advantages of the existing building belonging to the Institution are the splendid arrangements that are made to ensure cleanliness. Is it proposed to put Lyncombe House on an equality; if so, how, and what will be the cost? We say again, it would be cheaper in the end to rebuild, and, in that case, what comes of the £700 recently spent in repairs, as well as the nominal value of the structure as a dwelling-house. The next question is, that of the cost of maintenance. The outlay of £6,500, even reckoning household investment at the same rate of interest as is at present obtained from Consols, represents an annual rental charge of over £200, in addition to which there is the cost of a separate establishment, teachers, clothing, &c. Considering the large amount required to maintain the present School, the addition is a considerable item, because it s virtually permanent. The brethren of the future may have different ideas as regards the Institution than are the views of the majority of to-day, and, if we encumber them with establishments requiring all their energy to keep up, it will be impossible for them to depart from the old course, except at a great sacrifice. As a consequence, being unable to work according to their own notions they will lose heart, and either give up the work altogether, or act independently. Unless something is done to assist every case that is brought forward, in some form or other, the movement that is being made by various provinces to support local funds, instead of acting as adjuncts to the great central ones, will be found to work in direct opposition. If the two Schools offered grants—say of £10, £15, or £20 per annum—to assist in the education and maintenance of children whose friends were willing to find a like sum, we are sure the benefits would soon be appreciated, because they would be extended over a large sphere. There are few Lodges but would do something to support their protégé, if such terms were offered, while in many cases it would be possible for the parent to supply the balance. As to our not being sure whether money so voted would be properly applied,—an argument put forward by Bro. Perceval in the letter already referred to,—the idea is preposterous. We might just as well ask, Are we sure it is properly applied now? Only responsible Schools would be selected, and the money paid direct to such, or to a Committee appointed by the Lodge who took charge of the case. If it is impossible to trust business establishments to the extent of a few pounds per annum, it would be far better to give up all idea of such a thing as honesty existing. There is always a risk, but to introduce this consideration as a special reason for stopping all outside grants is absurd. The only other objection to which we shall refer, is that of the price that is to be paid. It is generally admitted that the property is valued at a fancy amount, and the reason assigned is, that it possesses several advantages, among others that it gives the Institution a frontage in the main road near the railway station, and that by acquiring the property the present School cannot be hemmed in by other buildings on this side. Neither of these arguments are to our minds sufficient to warrant the funds of the Institution being so lavishly expended as is contemplated. We now leave the matter in the hands of the General Court, and again express a hope that personal feeling will be ignored, and that the interests of the Charity will alone actuate the votes of those who may assemble The meeting is fixed to take place on Saturday, the 3rd of January 1880, for twelve o'clock at noon, at Freemasons' Hall.

AN EXTINCT LODGE.

BROTHER HUGHAN, in his "Sketches and Reprints," alludes to the Lodge formerly held at the Punch Bowl, in Stonegate, York, and numbered 259, observing that "its career was very short, yet noteworthy." Perhaps an examination of the minute-book of this extinct body, which exists in the collection of the York Lodge, No. 236, may repay the trouble. This book is a small quarto, containing about sixty leaves, and on the parchment cover is inscribed "J. Granger, Secretary, 1761." On the first page is "The Manner of Drawing out Certificates," which is as follows:—

"Monday, the 17

"We, the underwritten Master, Wardens, and Brethren of the Lodge held at the Punch Bowl, in Stone Gate, York, do certify that Mr. was this day by us made and initiated a free and accepted Mason, having received him into the 2 first degrees of the Craft, and by these do recommend him to all brethren to accept the said Brother as being duly such. As witness our Hands, on the above mention'd day and date.

Master.
} Wardens.
Past Master.
Treasurer.
Secretary."

The first minute is that of the opening night, 2nd February 1761, when Bros. Frodsham was in the chair, Oram S.W., Long J.W., Granger Sec., with four other brethren, presumably the founders. There were also eight visitors, one of whom was elected a member then and there. The Lodge was held fortnightly on Mondays, and seems at first to have been well attended and have had a good supply of candidates, the fees for the two first degrees being about a guinea and a half. On the 16th March, a candidate was made in consideration of his furnishing the Lodge with three candlesticks. On the 20th April, a Brother, who had received the two first degrees on the 16th February, "was raised a Master," and paid 11s 6d for the privilege, and at the same meeting the S.W. was fined 6d for not attending at the hour appointed. Fines were not unfrequent, and at the very next meeting a Brother was fined 6d "for sitting down in the Lodge not properly cloathed." The first two degrees were given in one night, but the third always occupied a night to itself.

Digitized by Google

On the 12th May the following entry occurs:—"This night it was unanimously agreed that the Deputies in the Old Officers' room should be as follows:—And then come the names of five brethren as W.M., S.W., J.W., P.M. and Sec. This set of officers, I gather from succeeding minutes, was merely intended to act in case of the absence of the regular ones, for on the 7th December of the same year, Bro. Beckwith, who was the Deputy W.M., is entered as having occupied the chair, and has D.R.W. after his name.

The Treasurer's current account appears in the minutes, and there never seems to have been very much in hand, the tavern bill (which, however, it must be noted to Mrs. Chaddock's, the landlady's, credit was always very reasonable) swallowing a good share. On the 15th June 1761 I find—

"Paid for 3 candles for the Brethren at Hull and a box, 9s 4d."

Several similar entries occur subsequently.

On the 17th August two brethren who had been fined 6d each for non-attendance made "proper excuses, and were pardoned their fines." The next minute of consequence was passed on the 23rd August 1761, thus:—"At this lodge, consisting only of Masters, after a debate whether those officers who shall come after the time mentioned in the summonses shall forfeit sixpence and lose the chair for that night, it was and is hereby ordered by the majority present, that any officer who shall come after the time above shall take his proper jewel from the Brother then in possession of it, and assume his own seat, and pay sixpence for his neglect of duty. And this for the future to be a standing rule in this Lodge," and further, "At this Lodge it is further ordered that no Brother shall be raised to the 3rd degree if 3 or more are against him."

The first election of Master and Officers took place on the 21st December 1761, when the Deputy, Bro. M. Beckwith, was chosen; the Wardens, Past Master, Treasurer, and Secretary, also being elected by the Members. On the 4th January 1762, an Entered Apprentice petitioned to be made a Fellow Craft, and was accepted and made. A dinner was held also on that day "in commemoration of St. John's Day." At this Lodge it was also arranged that the Secretary should be excused the payment of quarterages in view of his services, and that an annual balance-sheet and list of members be made out and sent to the "Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, or Grand Secretary, as shall be thought most requisite." The installation of Bro. Beckwith took place on 18th January, and is thus recorded:—

"At this Lodge, after a learned and earnest exhortation to the newly elected Master and other Officers from the late Worshipful Master, Brother Frodsham, to support the dignity and maintain the harmony of the Lodge, Brother Malby Beckwith as Master, Brother Moone as Senior Warden, and Brother Barker as Junior Warden, were by our said late Worshipful Master sworn and installed accordingly. After which he, our said late Right Worshipful Master, condescended to become the Pass-Master of this Worshipful Lodge for the year ensuing, pursuant to the resolutions and votes of the Lodge held the 21st of December last, and took the seat and jewel of our late worthy Pass-Master Brother Crisp accordingly. At this Lodge, after the late Master Frodsham had delivered his before-mentioned charge, it was unanimously requested that he would be pleased to permit the same to be published, which he agreed to." This charge was published, and went through more than one edition. I possess the late Dr. Oliver's copy of an edition published at Newcastle in 1772, with a tail-piece by Bewick, and which is entitled "A Charge delivered to the most antient and honorable Society of Free and Accepted Masons, in a Lodge held at the Punch-Bell, in Stonegate, York, upon Friday, the 18th day of January 1762, by Brother Frodsham at his dismission of the chair."

Brother Oram, who was the first Senior Warden, but who does not appear to have ever passed the chair, was connected with the York Theatre, and in the collection of the Eboracum Lodge, No. 1611, is an old playbill of that theatre, announcing that on the 5th February 1791 (just the date when the Grand Lodge of all England was at its last gasp) would be performed ("By Desire of the Ancient and Honourable Society of Free and accepted Masons, for the Benefit of Mr. Oram,") the Merchant of Venice, the Irish Widow, and A Trip to Scarborough.

About this time I notice several French names amongst the lists of visitors, as Villefort, L'Ainé, La Villaine, Du Fresne, Le Peltier, Terneau, De La Rue, &c.

On the 1st February it is recorded:—"At this Lodge it being judged proper to have Stewards to take care that the Brethren be well served, the motion was made, and Brothers John Palmes and Dalton were nominated to act as Stewards, who were accordingly approved of, and on accepting the office were thanked by the Lodge and drank to in due order." At a meeting in March it was agreed that every brother should provide his own apron, and that every new member should pay a shilling for one.

The Lodge appears to have had a Masonic library, for on the 15th March it is recorded that "Brother J. Palmes borrowed the Duodecimo Book of Architecture." Fines for non-attendance became very frequent, and the meetings began to get smaller. Very few candidates seem to have come forward, and the funds in hand were so small that visitors were charged their share of the reckoning. In December, Bro. Agar was elected W.M., and on the 3rd January 1763 was installed in the chair. After this, matters were a little more brisk and attendances better. In May, the Lodge sent a guinea to the Grand Treasurer, "for the benefit of the General Charity."

There was irregular Masonry at work in these days, for on 26th September 1763, "A Fellow' Crafts L. being opened, Brother John Bodens, having been made an E.P. and M.M., at Scarborough, in an irregular manner, petitioned to be made a F.C., who, being proposed and balloted for, was unanimously approved of and made accordingly." At the next meeting, this brother was raised, and, in consideration of his having previously paid for two degrees, was let off with 11s 6d. At the November meeting, Bro. Agar R.W.M. "generously offered to stand and execute the office of M. for the year ensuing," but whether the Lodge continued to exist during the whole of that year is doubtful, for the book closes with the minute of the January meeting in 1764. Other minutes may of course have been kept in another book or on loose papers, as in the case of the Grand Lodge at York; but as Bro. Seth Agar, the W.M., soon afterwards became G.M. of All England, it seems probable that the superior assumption of the Grand Lodge soon eclipsed the humbler Punch Bowl Lodge, and that the latter was deserted by its members.

In my copy of "Calcott's Candid Disquisition," published in 1769, I find several of these York brethren in the list of subscribers. Agar is mentioned, also J. Tasker, the Depnty Grand Master, who appears to have been a tailor, as in the Punch Bowl minutes he is paid so much for a pair of drawers for the candidates. "The Lodge at York" is also booked for ten copies, and Bro. Geo. Palmes, R.W.M. of that year, appears on the list.

Like most old minutes these are miserably meagre, and consist of very little more than names and cash accounts.

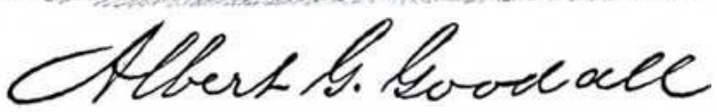
T. B. WHYTEHEAD.

York.

P.S. I observe that Bro. Gould, in his admirable History of the Atholl Masons, just published, says that the brethren of the Yorkshire Militia Regiments do not appear to have regarded the Grand Lodge of All England with any very high degree of veneration. This can scarcely be wondered at, since those regiments were mostly officered by the scions of county families, between whom and the burgher families of York in those days a great gulf was fixed. On the other hand, the Grand Lodge of All England seems to have been officered, at any rate for nine-tenths of the term of its recorded existence, by the trading classes of the ancient city.

T. B. W.

COMMITTEE MEETING OF THE GIRLS' SCHOOL.



THE monthly meeting of the General Committee of the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls was held on Wednesday, at Freemason's Hall. Col. Creaton, J.P., Grand Treasurer, presided. Among the brethren present were Bros. Frank Richardson, Colonel James Peters, Capt. N. G. Philips, S. Rawson, George Bolton, H. Massey, Edward Cox, Robert B. Webster, A. H. Tattershall, Joshua Nunn, Arthur E. Gladwell, H. A. Dubois, J. M. Clabon, W. Bailey, W. F. Cutler, and F. R. W. Hedges the Secretary. In the course of reading the minutes, the information was given that next Thursday week was appointed for the Twelfth Night Entertainment to the children remaining in the School for the Christmas Holidays. With reference to the resolution to purchase Lyncombe House and grounds, the Chairman explained that there had been an informality in the proceedings of the Institution, because law 34 laid it down that all propositions to spend over £500 must first be reported to the General Committee, and by them to a General Court. This had not been done; and therefore, to set matters straight, he would now give notice, in accordance with the recommendation of the Building Committee, that the sum of £6,500 be expended in the purchase of Lyncombe House and grounds, and he should convene a Special Court—to travel over the ground already travelled over—for the 3rd of January. He was now in communication with a professional man, who was not a Mason, who was going to look over the house and grounds. His own opinion was, that because they would add considerably to the extension of the Institution grounds, and prevent any buildings being erected, they were worth almost any money; but before the Special Court he would have full information on the subject. Bro. Edw. Cox gave notice of motion for next Quarterly Court, to alter the resolution to increase the salaries of the governesses at the Institution in some particulars. A cheque for £100 was received from Bro. H. G. Buss, Treasurer to the Wentworth Little Memorial Fund, to be invested for an annual prize at the School, to be called "The Wentworth Little Prize." Nine additional children were then put on the list for April election, at which there will be forty-five candidates and twelve vacancies. The proceedings terminated with a vote of thanks to the Chairman.

MEETING OF THE LODGE OF BENEVOLENCE.

THE monthly meeting of the Lodge of Benevolence was held on Wednesday evening, at Freemasons' Hall. Bro. J. M. Clabon P.G.D., President, took the President's chair, Bro. Joshua Nunn, Senior Vice-President, occupied the chair of Senior Vice-President, and Bro. James Brett, Junior Vice-President, took the chair of Junior Vice-President. Amongst other brethren present were Bros. S. Rawson, G. P. Britton, W. H. Perryman, C. A. Cottebrune, E. Storr, A. Middlemass, C. Atkins, Griffiths Smith, W. Mann, E. F. Storr, Edward White, James Lewis Thomas, John Constable, H. G. Buss (Assist. Grand Sec), A. A. Pendlebury, and W. Dodd. The brethren first confirmed grants made at last meeting to the amount of £425. The recommendation of a grant of £100 made at last meeting of the Lodge of Benevolence, which was referred back by Grand Lodge for reconsideration, was unanimously confirmed, and the remaining thirty-seven cases on the list, which were new ones, were disposed of by votes and recommendations to the amount of £930 to thirty-two cases. Two were dismissed, and three postponed. The brethren separated at nearly eleven p.m., wishing each other "A merry Christmas."

Digitized by Google

ALBERT GALLATIN GOODALL, 33°.

FROM THE "MASONIC NEWSPAPER."

——— "as the sunny rain
Of April makes the cloud and clay unite,
Thus links the Past and Present, the dark world and the bright."

THE subject of this sketch is a native of Montgomery, Alabama, having been born in that State on the 31st of October 1826. His grandfather was English, emigrating to this country at an early age, settled in the South, and espousing the cause of the colonists, was one of "Marion's Men," so famous for their daring exploits and effective service against the English in South Carolina and Georgia during the Revolutionary war. He subseqnently settled in the State of Georgia, where his father, Samuel Goodall, at that time was a leading merchant, and one of the most influential citizens in that locality. The ventures of business life proved disastrous, and the father of young Goodall died when the son was but seven years of age. The widow, with her little family, returned to the reservation of the Creek Indians, in Alabama, with many other settlers, and engaged in farming; and amid such scenes, surrounded by the camps and villages of the Creek Indians, he was afforded opportunities for constant intercourse with the wild children of the forest, and experiencing a rough border life, amid scenes of danger. With such surroundings it cannot be imagined that there was much opportunity for educational advancement, and the subject of our notice was limited to the rough lessons which the vicissitudes of changing fortunes permitted, the schoolhouse being a place of refuge and fort. The belligerent disposition of the Indians in 1836, when their houses were burnt and farms destroyed, compelled a change of domicile, and in due time this widowed mother, with her little family, emigrated to Texas, and settled in Galveston, where she died within a year afterward. At the early age of fifteen the subject of this sketch was appointed midshipman in the navy of the Republic of Texas, wherein he remained for three years, during which time he was in active service, cruising in the Gulf of Mexico and Carribean Sea during the war between Texas and Mexico; afterwards we find our adventurer located on the "ever faithful isle, the Queen of the Antilles," where, after various vicissitudes, fortune associated him with an American resident, with whom he commenced business, with which he has since been identified, and which he has pursued so successfully to the present time. After four years' residence in Havana, we find our untiring friend domiciled in Philadelphia, whence after a few years, he removed to New York. It was in the "City of Brotherly Love" that the institution of Freemasonry first attracted his attention, and it was not long before he had achieved the grades to the Order of the Temple inclusive, having been made a Master Mason in Montgomery Lodge, No. 19, Philadelphia, 21st September 1854, and elected Master in 1860. Exalted in Jerusalem Royal Arch Chapter, No. 3, 27th Oct. 1856, in Philadelphia; received the Cryptic Rite Degree of Royal Super Excellent and Select Master in Philadelphia Council, No. 11, 24th June 1855; dubbed a Knight Templar in Philadelphia Commandery, No. 2, 19th December 1856; elected Generalissimo in 1861, and Honorary Member in 1872. Advancing to a more prominent position in his business required a change of residence to New York, where he settled permanently in 1862, and in due time affiliated with Holland Lodge, Jerusalem Chapter, and Morton Commandery, of this city, and has continued an active worker in all the grades, securing a social and official standing in this country, and especially abroad, unsurpassed by any other Craftsman in our mystic circle, reflecting alike honour and dignity to American Masonry. Soon after becoming a resident of New York he attained the grades of the Ancient Accepted Rite, culminating in the honours of the thirty-third and last degree in Masonry, which was conferred upon him 16th September 1861, at the hands of the late illustrious Edmund B. Hays, Sovereign Grand Commander of the Supreme Council, and immediately thereupon received the appointment of General Foreign Representative of that body. How well he discharged the difficult and delicate diplomatic duties of that appointment in a Masonic field never before explored, the records of the Supreme Council for more than ten years will best attest, having visited all the regular Supreme Councils in the world, and with Masonic powers so extensive that he was universally received with distinguished honours, and in many instances elected to honorary membership. At the union of the Supreme Councils for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction of the United States, 17th May 1867, Illustrious Bro. Good II was elected an active member, and at the meeting of 1869, the following was unanimously adopted:—

Whereas Illust. Bro. Albert G. Goodall, General Grand Foreign Representative has, by a long, indefatigable, and invaluable service near Foreign Bodies of the Rite, advanced our interests and contributed largely to the continuance of amicable relations therewith; and Whereas, the several able and elaborate official reports which have been made by him to this Supreme Council, and are printed with our Proceedings, give ample evidence of the fidelity and industry with which he has so handsomely performed his duty; therefore resolved, that the cordial thanks of this Supreme Council are eminently due, and are hereby tendered to Ill. Bro. Albert G. Goodall.

Digitized by Google

It is a fact perhaps not generally known that Bro. Goodall received from the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of New York, in 1869, an extraordinary honour, accorded, we believe, but once before, to wit, the appointment of General Foreign Representative of the Grand Lodge of the State of New York near all Grand Masonic Bodies in amity with it in the world. His honourable discharge of the important duties so confided to him is a matter of history, and the dignity of the Grand Lodge of the State of New York was upheld and subserved at every Grand East at which Bro. Goodall presented his credentials. Referring to this subject, M.W. James Gibson, then Grand Master of Masons in New York, used the following expressions in his annual address in June 1869:—On this subject I have received very great and valuable information—at much loss of time and trouble to him—from Bro. A. G. Goodall, of the City of New York, who has spared no pains to give me all the information in his power, as well on this subject as on all connected with the several Grand Bodies in South America, the islands adjacent to and in the Gulf of Mexico, and in England, in all which countries he has been an extensive visitor. It being his intention to visit the continent of Europe soon, I expressed to him my desire to accredit him as special representative of this Grand East, near the Grand East of such Grand Bodies of the Fraternity with which we are in correspondence as he should be able to visit during the ensuing year. He accepted the appointment, and letters of credence have been issued accordingly. In the Orders of Knighthood, Bro. G. has taken an active interest. In 1869 he was appointed General Foreign Representative of the Grand Commandery of the State of New York, with the rank of Past Captain General, near all the Grand Bodies of Masonic Knighthood, and has contributed greatly to obtaining a knowledge of and Knightly intercourse with foreign Grand Bodies. He was Commander of Morton Commandery for two years (1872 and 1873), during which (December 1873) that Commandery celebrated its semi-centennial, at the Academy of Music, in the City of New York, which grand affair was pronounced to be the greatest demonstration of its character ever witnessed in this State. Sir Knight Goodall commanded the second division at the dedication of the Temple. Is Rep. of Gr. Com. of Pennsylvania, and is Eminent Commander of Morton Commandery during the present Masonic year. In 1875 our illustrious brother, as Grand Sovereign of the Knights of the Red Cross of Constantine for the State of New York, was instrumental in the establishment of the Sovereign Grand Council of that Order for the United States of America, wherein he was made the first Most Illustrious Sovereign Grand Master, thus creating a permanent regular organisation of that Knightly Order throughout this country, to control the same and prevent the irregular conferring of the Orders then being encouraged by ambitious parties for individual pecuniary gain. By request of prominent members of the fraternity in England, Bro. Goodall obtained permission from the Masonic authorities of the State of New York, and assisted by the then Grand Lecturer, Ill. Bro. Jackson H. Chase, established the degree of Most Excellent Master, under jurisdiction of the Grand Mark Lodge of England, and organised a Grand Council of Royal Select and Super Excellent Masters in London, 4th August 1871, for England, Wales, and Dependencies of Great Britain. He attained the degrees of the Royal Order of Scotland, H.R.M. in the Provincial Grand Lodge and Chapter of that Order in London, 1st of August 1873. Is honorary member of several symbolic Lodges in this country and abroad; also of Commanderies and Preceptories of Knights Templar. Honorary member of the Supreme Council 33rd degree, for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States, England and Wales, and Dependencies of Great Britain, Italy, Greece, Brazil and Peru. Grand Representative of several Supreme Councils near the Supreme Council for the Northern Jurisdiction, U.S. Also Representative of the Grand Mark Lodge of England, with rank of Past Grand Warden, and the Grand Council of Royal Select and Super Excellent Masters near all the bodies of those degrees in the United States, and in 1876 he was made a member of "The Masonic Veterans" in the State of New York. Among the incidents of his varied travels on land and sea may properly be mentioned his disastrous shipwreck on the coast of Denmark, in October 1860, while en route for St. Petersburg, Russia, on an important mission to that Government, the details of which were given in the English and American press at that time. The Master Mason's diploma he carefully kept in his pocket as the ship went down, and thus baptised in the angry waters of the North Sea a curious Masonic relic and record by the numerous vises of Lodges in different parts of the globe, and in as many languages. We have thus endeavoured to give, however imperfectly, something of the secular and Masonic experience of one who may be emphasized as the architect of his own fortunes, master of his destiny; in fact, a self-made man; one, though thrown upon his own resources at an early age, who failed not to appreciate the situation, and rose superior to its embarrassments, and, step by step, from youth to manhood, maintained his self-respect, and commanded the unbought regard of his fellows. As President of the American Bank Note Company he has attained a secular status of which the most exalted ambition might be justly proud, while as an active member of the Supreme Council of the North, he stands second to none in the Masonic dignity and honours. In social life the subject of our sketch combines with native modesty, all the graces and ease of a true and noble gentleman, all of the olden time.

"What is noble? to inherit
Wealth, estate, and proud degree?
There must be some other merit
Higher yet, than these for me!
Something greater far must enter
Into life's majestic span,
Fitted to create and centre
True nobility in man."

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents.

We cannot undertake to return rejected communications.

All Letters must bear the name and address of the Writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

—:o:—

UNIFORMITY OF MASONIC RITUAL AND OBSERVANCE.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—The result of Grand Lodge vote on my motion on the 3rd December last was so completely satisfactory to me that for a while I have taken breathing time, and, mirabile dictu, have not rushed into print on the subject for nearly a month. I should probably have still further proved my sanity in this respect, but for the attacks made on the members of Grand Lodge who supported me, and on myself personally.

But that I know the general impartiality and fairness of the press I should not venture upon this letter, which I know at the outset must be a long one, and written so as to be adapted to the pages of both the Masonic journals, the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE and the Freemason. I ask your respective editors to give me a fair field, in order that my remarks may reach your respective subscribers, and the whole body of reading Freemasons may have the information I can afford in respect of the arguments pro and con which you have published.

To the editorial comment (Freemason 29th Nov.), I take exception. It implies that I am "forgetful of Masonic duty, and insensible of the benefits of Masonic toleration," and it calls on Grand Lodge to "affix its mark of reprobation thereon," and "put a stop to a senseless agitation," which the same writer had previously stigmatised as the outcome of "nonsensical bombast" and "childish ignorance." I dispose of this by referring to the Grand Lodge vote of 1869, the confirmation thereof in 1870, and the renewed vote of 3rd December 1879, as a satisfactory and very sufficient token of approval instead of reprobation.

Bro. Woodford's remarks in proposing the amendment in Grand Lodge on the 3rd instant are much more ably confuted by the letter of T. R., P.M. Cornwall (FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE 20th December), than they could be by any comment of mine, and I refer your readers to that letter, personally thanking the correspondent, whoever he may be, for his valuable support on my behalf.

Bro. While, who seconded the amendment, simply forgot himself and his ordinary propriety. I shall have to refer to a letter of his a little further on.

I pass from the proceedings of Grand Lodge after the vote had been recorded to the subsequent comments and correspondence on the subject.

There seems to be a great desire on the part of the writer of the editorial remarks in the Freemason (13th December), and of Bro. Woodford in his letter (Freemason 20th December) to lessen the force of Grand Lodge vote by contending that it was carried "after a very partial debate," and that the motion itself was "rash and ill digested," that the mover indulged in "vehement incriminations," is a "professional agitator," and "an emitter of 'bottled moonshine.'" What awful words! And yet I live and bear it! My stubborn conscience quite alarms me; whither am I drifting? And yet I find it said, "If such abuses exist (here comes another five syllable expletive), they constitute a grave reflection," &c, and "if proved to be prevalent, we fancy the action of the Board of General Purposes would be summary and decisive." Why, there's my case! I say these abuses do exist, and I can prove them, and neither Board of General Purposes nor any other authority interferes with their continuance. Again, it is said, "Admit it that all be true, as Bro. Stevens puts it, what does it prove but the want of surveillance and control?" Exactly so; what does it prove but that, and is that not quite sufficient to demand a remedy? As to the references made to the publishing of spurious rituals and the unworthy imputation as to the enrichment of those who would prepare them (the article reads as though I contemplated such an outrage on my Masonic obligation), they are not worth my discussing. I learned my Craft Masonry without a MS. or printed ritual, and others can do the same if they will. None need be published; but, if it be a necessity, let Grand Lodge alone give it to the brethren, and so circumvent the "un-Masonic ventures and unhallowed gains."

To Bro. Charles John Perceval (Freemason, 13th December) I feel indebted for a plain and understandable explanation of my own argument on this subject, and his remark as to the apparent importance of "keeping an eye that the dues of Grand Lodge are paid," &c., ever "keeping check on the several manners of working," exposes the blot in our present arrangement, whereby the Board of General Purposes does not control, as it should, the ceremonial and observance of a "standard ritual" throughout the several Lodges under the English Constitution. I may have again to make casual reference to Bro. Perceval's letter. For the present I thank him, and hail his support most cordially.

It is of course a matter of regret to me that I have not the benefit of the Freemason's concurrence with my efforts. I know its power and influence is great, and such an ally would have been invaluable to me. Still, as I freely act according to my conscience, I cannot condemn the exercise of a similar faculty by another, and that other an exponent of public opinion; and therefore, whilst I may contend against its arguments, I shall ever continue to respect its fair opposition. We shall, I hope—notwithstanding difference of opinion and journalistic warfare—retain our mutual personal esteem, and think of each other's only "our friend the enemy." But no cause that is rightly founded is without a friendly advocate, and, consequently, the kindly remarks of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE, 13th December, demand my gratitude. That journal has seen fit to advise on former occasions, and the advice so given has not been neglected by me. I cordially accept every word of its editorial comment of 13th Dec., and shall follow out the suggestions given. I do sincerely hope that the Provincial Grand Lodges will each find some earnest Past Master, imbued with the same sentiments on this subject as myself, to be their representatives on my Committee. The work I have undertaken, so far, has not only occupied my fullest leisure for a long period, but has occasioned me some expense, and I should prefer not to be obliged, of necessity, to be at more labour and cost in bringing the matter before the Provincial Grand Lodges, by circulars and other means, if that object could be attained by the voluntary action of Provincial Grand Officers or other Provincial Past Masters. Verbum sat sapienti. I shall be glad to hear from any such.

Digitized by Google

In the same number of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE (13th Dec.) is a letter from Bro. While, the seconder of Bro. Woodford's amendment, in respect of which I may say, for my own justification, that he misrepresents me in stating that "the critic refused to be criticised." Not so; I challenge and approve of criticism. It is the very salt of argumentation. But facts, if you please, not fallacies. And in the lack of facts lies the impropriety of this letter. I should say one of the improprieties, for there are many. It is not proper, Bro. While, nor is it politic, to suggest that any of the audience on the occasion referred to had the quality of the "bear" about them; nor to suggest that "intolerance" was shown by correcting your palpable errors; nor, recognising your own occupation, to sneer at "amateur reporters;" nor to make a "clumsy jest," which, having the eccentricity of a boomerang, could fly back and strike the striker. Bro. While, the "rancour of my wrath" is mildness itself. Why try to break a poor butterfly on such a ponderous wheel as that of your own acknowledged literary ability? But there, as you say, at Grand Lodge you, "indeed, conveyed more than you intended;" so now perhaps you have written more than you intended. "Indeed" I think you have. Therefore you are forgiven; go and sin no more.

I now reach the correspondence contained in the Freemason 20th December, and first deal with Bro. Woodford's letter. It commences by a "tu quoque," directed against Bro. Perceval, who thereby finds that his expectation of getting a rap over the knuckles for venturing to support my cause is promptly realised. Our Brother Woodford says he always objects to "tu quoques," but on my word I think he introduces more such into his writings than any one I know; and I am bound to say—and if he is the man he represents himself to be, he will forgive my saying—that to differ from him on any point is to lay oneself open to all sorts of invective, sometimes veiled in apparent courtesy, but oftener rude and harsh to an unnecessary degree. But that's not the present affair! The question is the "logic" of Bro. Woodford, not his style. Well, in that regard, and having reference to his speech at Grand Lodge, I refer him and your readers to the letter of "T. R., P.M. &c., Cornwall," which singularly enough appears in the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE of same date (20th December). If that does not answer the question, I do not know what will. Bro. Woodford says that Bro. Perceval has not yet clearly understood what his argument was, and I don't wonder at it. I have not yet found any one who does; not even Bro. While, the seconder of his amendment, clever as that brother is in saying all and a little more, than he intends to say. Then Bro. Bodenham, who thought fit to rise in his place, and object to Bro. Woodford's statement that the Lodges in the Provinces would not conform to the directions of Grand Lodge as to working, &c., gets his epithet, hasty, "hasty remarks!" as if there was always in Grand Lodge ample time allowed for the utterance of our thoughts in a deliberate and 'don't-hurry-yourself" manner. Is there anything done in Grand Lodge which, if it takes more than a very limited amount of time to discuss, is not obstructed by cries of "question," and "vote," or "divide"? How then can the necessarily immediate denial of an assertion made in course of debate be properly designated as hasty? But hasty or not, Bro. Bodenham is right. The Provincial Lodges are every whit as loyal as those of the Metropolis, and Bro. Woodford does not do justice when he speaks in such general terms in regard to them. Even those who adopt the practices that others condemn err, I believe, more from the want of a reference to standard authority than from any intention to depart from what is recognised as fit and proper. And this remark brings me to a direct denial of the suggested inferences of both Bro. Woodford and Bro. John Neilson (Freemason, 20th Dec.) that I know nothing of the practices I have exposed in Grand Lodge. I repeat, and I cannot do more than again and again emphatically repeat, pledging my Masonic honour, and undertaking to name, in proper place, where I have witnessed some of them, and before which Provincial Grand Master; that without any exaggeration whatever, pardonable or otherwise, I have represented facts within my own experience. Does Bro. Neilson think no man travels but himself? I have nothing to say about Lodges under other Constitutions than that of England; and the English provinces have been enough for me, without the trouble of crossing St. George's Channel to observe what I know would further raise my indignation. It is sufficient that malpractices are to be found here, and whatever may be Bro. Woodford's opinion as to the present agitation, "landing us in a region of 'cribs and crams,' or helping to make the fortune of 'accommodating brethren'" (what are they?), I believe that those who took care to carry my motion will, despite all his beseeching and prayerful appeals, his denouncement of the inquiry to be made, and his hard words against all who do not agree with him, remain staunch, and see that the Committee is appointed in due course.

"Nothing is done whilst aught remains to do."

There is but one other letter unnoticed. It is that of "One who was in Grand Lodge" (Freemason, 20th Dec.). As its first paragraph contains two—well, untruths, and its last a promise to "recur to the subject on another occasion," I'll give the "Anonymous" author rope enough before I further notice him. He may hang himself, and save me an unpleasant operation.

I fear I have greatly intruded on your space, and this letter has extended beyond even the anticipated length; therefore I hasten to conclude. If no better arguments than those which have been hitherto advanced can be found to support the opposition to the measure I advocate, I have no fear for the result. When it becomes necessary to depart from logical deductions, to misrepresent facts even to the extent of mendacity, and to suggest interested motives in order to discredit a movement having for its object the reformation of acknowledged evils, the opponents thereof must be driven into a sad strait indeed. Such, I maintain, is the position of those against whose endeavours I now appeal to the general body of earnest Freemasons for continued assistance in making the resolution of Grand Lodge on the 3rd inst. complete, and aiding me in the formation of a satisfactory Committee to carry out the inquiry, and present its report.

Yours faithfully and fraternally,

Clapham, 23rd December 1879. JAMES STEVENS.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I should much like, as a matter of curiosity and interest, to pay a visit to the Lodges of some of those excellent brethren who are so strong in their opposition to any idea of Masonic Uniformity. I imagine, à priori, that their Lodges, at any rate, are quite free from the innovations of which those who hold the opposite view complain. It has not probably been their lot, after twenty-five years' service in the Craft, and familiar acquaintance with the working of such Lodges as the Alfred, at Oxford—O si sic omnes!—to find themselves associated with a Lodge which not only indulges in variations of the kind complained of, and defends them, but insists on it that their Ritual is the only true, genuine and correct form, and that all others are spurious. And the most amusing part of all is, that this assertion is made by brethren who, from no fault of their own, know absolutely nothing of Masonic Ritual as it is practised in Lodges of the highest standing in the Craft.

"My dear brother, I assure you that this, and that, and the other are not done in the Burlington Lodge, or in the Bank of England Lodge, or in the Alfred, or in a dozen other Lodges of high repute, which I have visited and could name." "I don't know anything about that," is the answer; "but so much the worse for them!" "But this very question has been referred to the Grand Secretary, and the practice I complain of has been condemned by him!" "Pooh! Grand Secretary! What have we got to do with him?"

I assure you, Dear Sir and Brother, this is no imaginary conversation, but a record of almost the identical words which have been used to myself on more than one occasion. A P.M. in my own neighbourhood was present in Prov. Grand Lodge, not long since, when the wearing of illegal jewels was especially forbidden by the Prov. G.M.; but what cares he? If he chooses to wear his Mark jewel, &c., he does so, and will do so—as Sam Weller says—"Let ev'rythin and ev'rybody do their werry fiercest."

And this is an illustration of the fidelity and obedience so "peculiarly and forcibly" impressed on young Masons at their initiation. I venture to think that it is high time that some attempt, at any rate, should be made to teach the rulers of the Craft in such Lodges that the Book of Constitutions and the ruling of the authorities is binding on all Lodges, and on all Masons, of whatever rank.

It vexes me, Dear Sir and Brother, to see—month after month, and in spite of protests—the Masonic ceremonies thus tampered with. And I, for one, look forward to the result of this agitation for Uniformity with hope, in spite of the protestations of its uselessness and futility.

All good success wait upon Bro. Stevens and the plucky brethren who support him!

I am, Dear Sir and Brother,

Yours very fraternally,

P.P.J.G.W.

DEVON EDUCATIONAL FUND.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I beg to forward you a copy of the Western Daily Mercury, in which you will see a report of the Devon Educational Fund, and I shall be glad if you could give insertion to it in your columns, as I think it a very important Institution, and one that will do a great public good, and it is especially worthy of notice by brethren in the provinces at a time when it is proposed, in London, to expend a very large amount of money in the purchasing of a house with a small quantity of ground for the Girls' Institution. It will be seen that an immense amount of good is being done in the country, by an economical expenditure, for the benefit of the widows and orphans of deceased Masons. We have, on former occasions, contributed largely, and shall probably still continue to do so, to the great Institutions of London; but, finding that our children had to contest for the benefits of these Institutions with all the other Lodges in the kingdom, and that it took a great deal of money and a great deal of personal exertion to get children elected, we determined upon the adoption of a system of educating and sustaining our children at home. The plan we have adopted is this: we have obtained subscriptions throughout the Province, and twice a year we proceed to the election of as many children as the funds will allow, and we give to the children so elected an education at some school near their own homes, which the Committee may select, with the approval of the relatives of the child. We also give to the mother, or the nearest friend, some money to sustain and clothe the child. By this means we are able to give them the advantages of home life, which are of themselves most valuable. It fosters the kindly feeling which ought to be maintained in families, and, the child not being taken away from family life, does not become a superior being as compared with the other children of the family. This is in itself a very material matter, and we are now able, by the means which I have very briefly stated, to give to a large number of children benefits which they could probably never obtain if they were entirely dependent on the Metropolitan Institutions. I may say that the Devon Fund has been created in about eighteen months, and that it will probably go on increasing as the Lodges become better acquainted with its operations and its benefits.

Digitized by Google

I am, Dear Sir, yours fraternally,

A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON.

PURCHASE OF LYNCOMBE HOUSE.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—As one of the Committee who voted for the purchase of Lyncombe House, I will, as briefly as I can, state my reasons for so doing; but first of all I cannot help calling your attention to Bro. H.'s letter, and express my opinion that had you followed his opinion of what the proprietor of the Freemason should have done with regard to an article which appeared in its issue of the 13th instant, you would have done well, for Bro. H., apparently a "galled jade," accuses the writer of direct falsehoodand vulgarity. Admitting, for argument's sake, that the article was stronger than perhaps it ought to have been, two blacks do not make a white, and Bro. H. out-Herods Herod, and I would certainly back him for vituperation against his opponent, and should have imagined his rhetoric must have been gathered from attending or practising bad cases at the Old Bailey. There is only one point in the letter to which I would call attention, i.e., "It is an attempt to appropriate the children's money." And for whom, pray? Why, for the children; that there might be room to take in more, that no obnoxious building might be put up or built over our present grounds, that greater convenience might exist for ingress or egress to the School and its grounds. Brethren may not be aware that £700 has just been spent in repairs to the aforesaid house, or that the purpose for which it is intended is for the younger or more backward, before they enter the present or higher school. Now, as to Bro. J. N. If he has studied the statistics of the result of the examinations, or been witness at their performances on exhibition or other days, their neatness, their healthful and thoroughly happy look, he could not wish them to be placed at home or elsewhere in preference; and I suppose he will acknowledge that the education that could be given for isolated cases for £20 per annum is meagre indeed, and not to be compared to what a number at the same money each can and do receive, and a query comes in here—Are we sure that the money so voted would be properly applied? In many cases it might, but not in all. I am afraid the temptation to the parents in distressed circumstances would be very great. I hope I have proved to "A DISGUSTED BROTHER" that his charity has not been misappropriated, but used for the very purpose for which it was collected, viz., for the use and benefit of the Girls; i.e., providing more accommodation for an additional number, which could not otherwise be admitted, for the simple reason that there is not sufficient room in the present buildings. I admit that the price given was high—was, if you like, a fancy price; but it was of great value to the Institution, and to no one more so; and if we had had to pay more, it would have been well worth it. As an instance, at the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution, a few years ago, a large piece of ground immediately at the back could have been bought for £1000 or less, but false, short-sighted economy stepped in, and the money was refused; since then it has all been built upon, in inconvenient and unsightly proximity to the Asylum, and could not be had for five or six times the amount. I trust that what I have said will give offence to no one, as it is given in the same spirit as I wish ever to remain.

Yours fraternally,

CHARLES JOHN PERCEVAL,

V.P., and W.M. 1607.

8 Thurloe Place, 20th December 1879.

Percy Lodge of Instruction, No. 198.—Held at Bro. Fysh's, Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, on Saturday, the 13th inst. Present—Bros. Mullord W.M., Snare S.W., J. Lorkin J.W., Pearcy Preceptor, Fenner Secretary, Garrod S.D., Western J.D., Valentine I.G.; also Bros. Hallan sen., Hallam jun., Giller, King, J. Millington, D. Moss, C. Lorkin, R. Defriez, Banks, Trewinnard, Hirst, Halford Treasurer, &c. Lodge was opened, and the minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. Bro. Giller gave satisfactory proofs of his proficiency as a F.C. and was entrusted. Lodge advanced, and the ceremony of passing was rehearsed, Bro. Giller candidate. The ceremony was performed in a very correct manner, and we congratulate the W.M. on his having gained such proficiency in the ritual; this was the first time he had rehearsed the second ceremony. Bros. Pearcy worked the first, Moss the second, Fenner the third, and Moss the fourth and fifth sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. A sum of £1 1s was voted towards entertaining the "Old People" at Croydon on New Year's Day. Bro. Banks, of the Manchester Lodge, No. 179, was elected a member. Bro. Snare was elected W.M. for next meeting.

Bro. Herbert Rymill, of the Royal Repository, Barbican, has again distributed liberally out of his means this Christmastide. We have helped to dispense his charity, and if the prayers and blessings of the poor and needy tend to make men happy, we can testify these have been freely showered upon the head of our worthy brother.

Second Series, now ready, Crown 8vo, Cloth, price 3s 6d, post free.

MASONIC PORTRAITS.

SKETCHES

OF

DISTINGUISHED FREEMASONS.

REPRINTED FROM "THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE."

BY G. BLIZARD ABBOTT, OF LODGE No. 1385,

ASSOCIATE OF KING'S COLLEGE, LONDON.

—:o:—

LIST OF PORTRAITS.

NESTOR
(Bro. W. Hyde Pullen, 33 deg., Past G.S.B., Past Dep. P.G.M. Hants, Assistant Secretary Sup. Council A. and A. Rite.)

THE STATESMAN
(The Right Hon. Earl of Carnarvon, 33 deg., Pro Grand Master, Pro Grand Z., Past G.M.M.M., and Past M.P.S.G. Commander A. and A. Rite.

THE TREASURER
(Bro. F. Adlard, P.M. and Treasurer Royal York Lodge of Perseverance, No. 7).

THE DEPUTY
(The Right Hon. Lord Skelmersdale, 33 deg., Deputy G. Master, Grand H., G.M.M.M., Great Prior of the Temple, and M.P. Sov. G. Commander A. and A. Rite.)

A PROVINCIAL MAGNATE
(Bro. W. W. B. Beach, M.P., Prov. G.M. and G. Sup. Hants and Isle of Wight, Past G.M.M.M., and Prov. G. Prior of the Temple, for Hants).

TIME-HONOURED LANCASTER
(Bro. J. Lancaster Hine, P. Prov. G.S. Warden East Lancashire).

THE SCHOLAR
(Bro. John Newton, F.R.A.S., P.M., P.Z., Author of Works on Navigation).

OUR NOBLE CRITIC
(The Right Hon. Lord Leigh, 30 deg., Prov. G.M. and G. Sup. Warwickshire, Past G.M.M.M.)

OUR PERIPATETIC BROTHER
(Bro. C. Fitz Gerald Matier, 30 deg., G. Steward Scotland, and Past G.S. Warden Greece).

A BOLTON LUMINARY
(Bro. G. Parker Brocklank, 31 deg., Past Prov. G.S.D., and P. Prov. G. Treas., Arch. E. Lancashire.

A WARDEN OF THE FENS
(The late Bro. John Sutcliffe, Past Prov. G.S. Warden, and Prov. G.M.M.M. Lincolnshire).

A WARDEN OF MARK
(The Right Hon. the Earl of Donoughmore, 32 deg., Past G.S. Warden, and Dep. G.M.M.M).

A MASTER OF CEREMONIAL
(Bro. Thos. Entwisle, 30 deg., Past Prov. G.S. of Works E. Lan.)

OUR COSMOPOLITAN BROTHER
(Bro. Samuel Rawson, 33 deg., Past Dist. G.M. and G. Sup. China).

A GREAT ARITHMETICIAN
(Bro. R. B. Webster, Member of the Finance and Audit Committees of the R.M. Girls' and Boys' Schools.)

AN INSTALLING MASTER
(Bro. W. Biggs, Past Prov. G.S.W. Wilts, and Past Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks).

A VETERAN
(Bro. W. Kelly, Past Prov. G.M. and Prov. G. Sup. Leicestershire and Rutland, Prov. G.M.M.M. Leicestershire).

A GRAND STEWARD
(Bro. John Wordsworth, 30 deg., Past G. Steward, Past Prov. G.J.W. W. Yorkshire, and Prov. G.M.M.M. W. Yorkshire).

VIR VERITAS
(Bro. G. Ward Verry, P.M and Past Prov. Grand. Soj. [Arch] Herts).

ACHILLES
(Bro. E. J. Morris, Past G.J.D., and Past Dep. Prov. G.M. of Eastern Division of South Wales).

A DEVON CRAFTSMAN
(Bro. J. E. Curtis, 30 deg., Past Prov. G.S. Warden Devon).

SIR RHADAMANTH
(Bro. J. M. Pulteney Montagu, J.P., D.L., 33 deg., G. J. Deacon, Past Dep. Prov. G.M. and Prov. G. Sup. Dorsetshire, and G. Chancellor Supreme Council A. and A. Rite).

HIPPOCRATES
(Bro. J. Pearson Bell, M.D., Past G. Deacon, Dep. Prov. G.M. and Prov. G. Sup. N. and E. Yorkshire).

A CESTRIAN CHIEF
(The Right Hon. Lord de Tabley, Past G.S.W., Prov. G.M. Cheshire, Grand J., and Prov. G. Sup. Cheshire).

A HARBINGER OF PEACE
(Bro. Charles Lacey, P.M., Past Prov. G.J.D. Herts).

THE LORD OF UNDERLEY
(The Earl of Bective, M.P., Prov. G.M., Prov. G. Sup., and Prov. G.M.M.M. Cumberland and Westmorland, and Past G. Sov. of the Order of Rouse and Red Cross of Constantine).

A BOON COMPANION
(Bro E. C. Woodward, P.M. 382, 1647, &c.)

A GRAND SUPERINTENDENT
(Sir Daniel Gooch, Bart., M.P., 30 deg., Prov. G.M. and G. Sup. Berks and Bucks).

ÆSCULAPIUS
(Bro. J. Daniel Moore, M.D., 32 deg., Past G.S.B., Craft, and Past G.St.B., Arch, Intendant General Order of Rome and Red Cross of Constantine for North Lancashire).

Uniform with above, price 3s 6d, Crown 8vo, cloth, gilt.

MASONIC PORTRAITS,

FIRST SERIES.

REPRINTED FROM "THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE."

—:o:—

LIST OF THE PORTRAITS.

1 OUR LITERARY BROTHER.
2 A DISTINGUISHED MASON.
3 THE MAN OF ENERGY.
4 FATHER TIME.
5 A CORNER STONE.
6 THE CRAFTSMAN.
7 THE GOWNSMAN.
8 AN EASTERN STAR.
9 THE KNIGHT ERRANT.
10 THE OCTOGENARIAN.
11 A ZEALOUS OFFICER.
12 THE SOLDIER.
13 FROM EAST TO THE CROWN.
14 OUR HERCULES.
15 A MERCHANT PRINCE.
16 THE CHURCHMAN.
17 THE CHRISTIAN MINISTER.
18 THE MYSTIC.
19 A MODEL MASON.
20 A CHIP FROM JOPPA
21 A PILLAR OF MASONRY.
22 HAYARD.
23 A RIGHT HAND MAN.
24 OUR CITIZEN BROTHER.
25 AN ABLE PRECEPTOR.
26 AN ANCIENT BRITON.
27 THE ARTIST.
28 THE FATHER OF THE LODGE.
29 A SHINING LIGHT.
30 AN AGE SECURE.
31 THE MARINER.
32 A SOLDIER OF FORTUNE.
33. "OLD MCG."

London: W. W. MORGAN.

By Order of all Booksellers, or will be sent direct, by post, from the Office, 67 Barbican.

Digitized by Google

Royal Masonic Institution for Girls,

ST. JOHN'S HILL, BATTERSEA RISE, S.W.

Office: 5 Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street, W.C.

Patrons:
HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES K.G., M.W.G.M., President.

HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS OF WALES.

A QUESTION of the construction of the Laws having arisen as to the manner in which the notice was given for the resolution passed at the Special General Court of the 22nd ultimo, to ensure the matter being "in order," a Special General Court of the Governors and Subscribers of this Institution will, in compliance with a requisition delivered to me, and signed by Lieut.-Colonel JOHN CREATON, J.P., Treasurer and Trustee, be held at Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street, Lincoln's Inn Fields, London, W.C., on Saturday, the 3rd January 1880, at Twelve o'clock noon precisely, on the following business.

Upon the recommendation of the Building Committee, Bro. Colonel Creaton, Chairman, will move:

"That the sum of Six Thousand Five Hundred Pounds (£6,500) be expended in the purchase of Lyncombe House and Grounds (freehold), the property of Wm. Evill, Esq., adjoining the grounds of the Institution at St. John's Hill, Battersea Rise, S.W.

F. R. W. HEDGES,
27th December 1879. Secretary.

THE FREEMASONS' TAVERN,

GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON W.C.

The admirable and unrivalled accommodation provided at this Establishment for

MASONIC BANQUETS,

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE DINNERS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, BALLS, &c.

Is too well known to need comment. The entire management has been changed, and the Establishment in all its branches thoroughly re-organised.

The attention of the Masonic Body is directed to the many advantages offered.

CUISINE OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER.

WINES PERFECT IN CONDITION AND QUALITY.

N.B.—DINNERS PROVIDED FROM 3/-.

RESTAURANT, WINE, SMOKING & RETIRING ROOMS.

The fullest measure of public confidence and support ensured.

ALFRED BEST, PROPRIETOR.

ANDERTON'S HOTEL,

F. H. CLEMOW, PROPRIETOR,

Nos. 162, 164 & 165 Fleet Street, and 7 & 11 Johnson's Court, London.

THE ACCOMMODATION OFFERED AT THIS ESTABLISHMENT FOR

MASONIC MEETINGS, BANQUETS, &c.

IS UNRIVALLED.

THE premises have lately been rebuilt, and in order to maintain the time-honoured reputation of the house, as one of the centres of London Freemasonry, special attention has been paid to the furnishing of Lodge quarters, which now comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL

Specially constructed for Masonic purposes, with preparation room adjoining.

A LARGE BANQUET HALL

Fitted with every necessary for the comfort of Visitors, &c., &c.

ROOMS FOR LARGE OR SMALL DINNER PARTIES, MEETINGS, &c.

OPENING OF THE
CRITERION ANNEXE.

SPIERS & POND respectfully beg to inform their Patrons, that to meet the increasing demands of their business at the Criterion, the premises have been greatly enlarged, by the addition of the above building. The principal features of the New Establishment are as follows:—

The Café, comprising—

The American Bar,
The Vienna Bier Saal,

VIANDS FROM THE NEW GRILL. SUPPERS SERVED TILL MIDNIGHT.

Oysters a Specialite.

The Victoria Hall, for Banquets, Balls, Wedding Breakfasts, Soirées, and Entertainments.

The Prince's and Carnarvon Rooms, for Masonic Meetings, Banquets, &c.

Private Rooms, suitable for the meetings of Public and Corporate Bodies, Arbitrations, &c.

The Criterion Departments.

Buffet	For Luncheons and Light Refreshments.
Restaurant	Dinners à la Carte.
Cigar Divan	Facing Piccadilly entrance.
Smoking Room ...	Adjoining the Buffet.
Grill Room	Entrance in Jermyn Street.
West Dining Room	Le Dîner Parisien daily from 5.30 till 8 p.m., and on Sundays.
East Dining Room ...	Dinners à la Carte.
The Grand Hall ...	Table d'Hote daily, from 5.30 till 8 p.m. (also on Sundays at 6).
Private Rooms ...	For Dinners, Wedding Breakfasts, &c., &c.

DINNERS FROM THE JOINT from TWELVE to THREE o'clock CHOPS and STEAKS from the GRILL till FIVE o'clock T. MATHEWS, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-st., City, E.C

FISH DINNERS IN PERFECTION

2S EACH, including Soups, Entrées, Poultry, Joints, Cheese, Salad, Served from 12 to 4 daily.—ARBOUR TAVERN, Bolingbroke Market.

Sole Proprietor, GEORGE SMITH, from Anderton's Hotel.

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND.

ESTABLISHED for the purpose of providing situations for the Pupils on their leaving the Masonic Schools, and to help them generally in securing success in life; and for such other purposes of Masonic Charity as may be decided on by the subscribers.

PATRONS.

H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, K.G., Grand Master of England.
H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, K.G., Past Senior Grand Warden.
H.R.H. Prince Leopold, K.G., Past Junior Grand Warden.
His Grace the Duke of Abercorn, K.G., Grand Master of Ireland.
Sir Michael R. Shaw Stewart, Bart., Grand Master of Scotland.
The Right Hon. the Earl of Carnarvon, Pro Grand Master of England.
The Right Hon. Lord Skelmersdale, Deputy Grand Master of England.
The Right Hon. the Earl of Rosslyn, Past Grand Master of Scotland.
His Grace the Duke of Athole, Past Grand Master of Scotland.
The Right Hon. Lord Kensington, M.P., Senior Grand Warden.
Major-General the Hon. Somerset J. G. Calthorpe, Junior Grand Warden.
The Right Hon. Lord Richard Grosvenor, Past Grand Warden.
The Right Hon. Lord Henniker ditto.
Sir Harcourt Johnstone, Bart., M.P. ditto.
The Right Hon. Lord Londesborough ditto.
Haughton Charles Okeover ditto.
Colonel William Stuart ditto.
The Right Hon. Lord Inverurie, Senior Grand Warden (Scotland).
Rev. Charles William Spencer Stanhope, M.A., Grand Chaplain.
Rev. Sir John Warren Hayes, Bart., Past Grand Chaplain.
Rev. J. Huyshe ditto.
Rev. R. J. Simpson ditto.
Rev. W. F. Short ditto.
Rev. C. W. Arnold ditto.
Rev. J. W. Glendall ditto.
Rev. C. J. Martyn ditto.
Rev. F. F. Ravenshaw ditto.
Rev. Spencer R. Wigram ditto.
Rev. A. F. A. Woodford ditto.
Rev. Reginald Bird, M.A., Senior Grand Deacon.
George Mellor ditto.
Horatio Lloyd ... ... Junior Grand Deacon
Matthew Clark ... ... Do.
Dr. Jabez Hogg ... ... Past Grand Deacon
H. C. Tombs ... ... Do.
Ex-Sheriff George Burt ... ... Asst. Grand D. of Ceremonies
W. Harkman ... ... Past Do.
W. H. Lucia ... ... Past Grand S. Bearer
Dr. W. R. Woodman ... ... Do.
Hyde Clarke, Past Grand Master, and Rep. from G. L. Columbia.

The Provincial Grand Masters of—

Berks and Bucks	Northumberland
Derbyshire	Oxfordshire
Devonshire	Somersetshire
Hamps. and Isle of Wight	South Wales (West)
Hertfordshire	Suffolk
Kincardineshire	Surrey
Lancashire (East)	Sussex
,, (West)	Worcestershire
Leicestersh. and Rutlandsh.	Yorkshire (N. and E.)
Middlesex

Col. H. Peisley L'Estrange, Prov. G. Supt. Norfolk.

The Deputy Provincial Grand Masters of—

Berks and Bucks	Northts. and Hunts.
Cheshire	Northumberland
Derbyshire	Nottinghamshire
Dorsetshire	Oxfordshire
Essex	South Wales (West)
Hampsh. and Isle of Wight	Suffolk
Hertfordshire	Surrey
Lancashire (East)	Sussex
Leicestersh. and Rutlandsh.	Worcestershire
Middlesex	Yorkshire (West)

A. M. Broadley, Deputy District Grand Master, Malta.
The Right Hon. Lord Carrington.
Baron de Ferrieres, Prov. G. Reg. Gloucestershire.
Sir John Bennett, C.C.
Sir Philip Cunliffe Owen, K.C.M.G., C.B.
Sir Frederick Perkins, M.P.
Sir Francis Wyatt Truscott, Lord Mayor of London.
Rev. George Raymond Portal P.G.M.M.M.
The Editors of the Freemason, the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE, the Roscrucian, the Scottish Freemason.

&c., &c., &c.

A SPECIAL APPEAL is made to the brethren throughout the country on behalf of this Fund. It is hoped that the preliminary arrangements will be completed early in the year 1880, and that the Committee will immediately be enabled to confer the benefits contemplated by the founders.

Names of Brethren willing to act as Stewards, or otherwise assist in the foundation of the Fund, together with contributions, may be sent to

DICK RADCLYFFE, 129 High Holborn, London,
W. WRAY MORGAN JUN. Freemason's Chronicle Office, } Secretaries.

Or to the

Rev. C. J. MARTYN, Long Melford, Suffolk } Treasurer.

BANKERS: The Bank of England, Burlington Gardens, London, W.

SAWYER'S (LATE STATION) RESTAURANT,

5 RAILWAY PLACE, FENCHURCH STREET, E.C.

ENGLISH, FRENCH & GERMAN CUISINE.

Hot and Cold Luncheons on the Ground Floor:
This Room will accommodate 100 persons.

CHOPS, STEAKS, &c., FROM THE GRILL;
The Grill Room will seat 150 persons.

REID'S TREBLE STOUT. WORTHINGTON'S ALES,
BERLIN TIVOLI BEER.

TEA AND COFFEE ALWAYS READY.

CHAMPAGNES OF THE BEST BRANDS. OLD BOTTLED PORTS.
SHERRIES AND OTHER WINES OF THE BEST QUALITY.

Bro. F. J. SAWYER, Proprietor.
Late of Pimm's, and the Crystal Palace.

Digitized by Google

NOW READY.

THE ATHOLL MASONS,

THEIR AUTHENTIC HISTORY, COMPILED FROM OFFICIAL SOURCES, DOWN TO THE UNION OF MODERN FREEMASONS IN 1813.

An Historical and Discursive Record of the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of England according to the Old Institutions.

BY ROBERT FREKE GOULD.

In Cloth, 12mo, Price 5s.

SPENCER & CO., Opposite Freemason's Hall, 23a Gt. Queen-st., London, W.C.

Crown 8vo, price 2s 6d, cloth lettered.

Uniformity of Masonic Ritual and Observance.

By Bro. JAMES STEVENS, P.M., P.Z., &c.

"May be read with advantage by the whole Craft."—Sunday Times.
"Grand Lodge should at once set to work to secure the desired uniformity."—Sheffield Post.
"The subject is ably argued by the author."—Western Daily Mercury.
"Useful and valuable in the highest degree."—Exeter Gazette.
"Will have a material effect on the future of Masonic Ritual."—South Western Star.
"The author adduces many variations in the language used by different Preceptors."—Cox's Monthly Legal Circular.
"Ought to be in the hands of every Mason."—Northampton Guardian.
"To Freemasons generally it will be found useful and valuable, and we commend it to their notice accordingly."—Surrey County Observer.
"Bro. Stevens' motion for a Committee on the subject of Uniformity of Ritual was carried by a large majority."—Freemason's Chronicle report of Grand Lodge meeting, 3rd December 1879.

Sent, by post, on receipt of stamps, by the Author, Bro. JAMES STEVENS, 112 High-street, Clapham, S.W.; by Bro. W. W. MORGAN, 67 Barbican, London, E.C.; or by S. D. EWINS & Co., Paternoster-row, London, E.C.

MASONIC HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS,

1 NOTTING HILL SQUARE, W.

THE SCHOOL has been established to provide a High Class Education to sons of Freemasons and others, on moderate terms. There are scholarships of the annual value of £10 to £20, and Exhibitions of £20. Terms for sons of Freemasons from 4 to 7 guineas per term, for other pupils from 5 to 8 guineas per term. For further particulars apply to the Secretary, or to

E. PASSAWER, LL.D.
Head Master.

VITRUVIAN LODGE, No. 87.

BRO. ISAAC, who has for some time past provided for the requirements of this Lodge, begs to announce that he has obtained permission for the removal of his license to the Belvedere-road, and that he has erected commodious premises there. These comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL.
WITH ANTE ROOMS,
LARGE BANQUETTING HALL,

Together with every convenience for Masonic gatherings.

Applications from Secretaries and others for accommodation to be addressed G. ISAAC, "WHITE HART," COLLEGE STREET, LAMBETH, LONDON, S.E.

FURNITURE FOR LODGE OF INSTRUCTION.—Complete Set, nearly new, for Sale. Address, J. W. H., "FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE" Office, 67 Barbican, London, E.C.

FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE

67 BARBICAN, E.C.

DEVON MASONIC EDUCATIONAL FUND.

A SPECIAL general meeting of this Fund was held on Monday, the 22nd inst., at the Masonic Temple, Plymouth. The W. Bro. R. Lose P.P.G.P., Vice President of the Institution, was in the chair; and amongst those present were W. Bros. Rev. E. Whittley P.P.G.C., V. Bird P.P.G.T., Treasurer of the Institution, W. Brodie P.M. 1254, P.P.G.J.D., S. Jew P.P.G.T., G. C. Bignell P.M. 105 P.P.G.S. Works, G. Jackson W.M. 189, J. R. Harris W.M. 230, R. Cawsey P.M. 230, J. Morris P.M. 53 P.P.G.O., J. R. Lord P.M. and Treasurer 1217, E. J. Knight P.M. 202, W. J. Stanbury 105, W. A. Fowler 156, W. A. Foreman, W. H. Lister, J. H. Trounce, R. Smith, S. Snell, all of 1205; R. C. Uglow 1217, J. B. Gover P.M. 70 P.P.G.A.D.C. Hon. Secretary. Before the general meeting there was a committee, who had before them three of the children who are already on the fund. Bro. Whittley read the report of the Educational Committee, as follows:—"The Committee have much pleasure in reporting favourably of the children at present on the fund. One has gone to New Zealand, but her progress had been admirable up to time of leaving. One boy has been attending Cheveley Hall School, and Mr. Slater's report as to his conduct and progress in education is satisfactory. Another boy attends George-street School, and has just received a certificate for having passed the Government Examination in every requirement. One girl attends the Public Free School, and the head mistress reports very favourably respecting her work. The mothers of the children, who had been previously consulted as to the school they would choose, have expressed themselves extremely well satisfied both with the schools and the general evidence of the success of their children, and the Committee have this day had the pleasure of having the children before them, and have been much pleased with their appearance, manner, and intelligence, and have presented each of them with a book as an encouragement to future effort." The Treasurer reported that £487 16s had been received from all sources, £400 of which had been deposited in the Devon and Cornwall Bank, at interest. Six months' allowance had been paid in advance to those who had care of the children, and he had sufficient funds to pay nearly every claim upon the fund up to the general meeting in April—thus leaving the £400 deposit untouched. The question of a permanent investment of a portion of the funds was then discussed. Bros. Gover and Lord proposed and seconded that £100 be so invested, they believing that the interest of the present generation was what ought to be considered. Bros. Whitley and V. Bird proposed and seconded, as an amendment, that the consideration of investment of funds be deferred. The money was already safely invested, and the matter might, therefore, well wait. Bro. Gover gladly withdrew his proposition, and Bro. Whitley's resolution was unanimously carried. The ballot for the election of four candidates was then proceeded with. Bros. R. Cawsey, E. J. Knight and A. Fowler were appointed Scrutineers, and they were assisted by the Hon. Treasurer, Bro. Bird. There were five candidates—No. 1, a boy from Lodge 156, Plymouth, mother living, father had been a member for fourteen years. This case was unsuccessful at last election, but brought forward 47 votes. No. 2, a girl from Lodge 112, Exeter, mother living, father had been a member for 10 years; also unsuccessful at last election, and brought forward 47 votes. No. 3, a girl from Lodge 202, Devonport, mother living, father had been a member for 11 years: also unsuccessful at last election, and brought forward 23 votes. No. 4, a boy from Lodge 797, Dartmouth, mother living, father a member for seven years; also unsuccessful at last election, and brought forward 36 votes. No. 5, a boy from Lodge 105, Plymouth, both parents dead, father had been a member for five years, first application. Bro. E. J. Knight, who had been chosen Chairman of Scrutineers, reported that the numbers (adding votes brought forward) polled were as follows—No. 1 on balloting paper, 179 votes; No. 2, 212 votes; No. 3, 62 votes; No. 4, 114 votes; and No. 5, 219 votes. The Chairman (Bro. Lose) declared cases Nos. 5, 2, 1, and 4 duly elected. Case No. 3 will carry forward 62 votes for the next election. A cordial vote of thanks was given to the Scrutineers for their valuable services. It was resolved that there be an election of two children at the annual meeting in April. Arrangements were made for the superintendence of the clothing and education of the children just elected. A suggestion was made by Bro. Brodie as to whether it would not be advisable to hold some of the meetings in other parts of the Province. All the Three Towns brethren concurred, and it is probable that this will be carried out. In reply to a very cordial vote of thanks to the Chairman, Bro. Lose said he had always pleasure in being of assistance, and time and money could not be better occupied than in carrying out the objects of this fund, soothing the affliction of the widow, and clothing and educating the children of deceased or distressed brethren.

CONSECRATION OF THE DARLINGTON MARK LODGE, 250.

In our report of these proceedings, last Saturday, we should have stated that the able and eloquent oration on the connection between the Mark and Arch was delivered by the R.W. Prov. G.M.M.M. Canon Tristram.

On Monday next, 29th December, Bro. Charles E. Hindley S.W., of the Lodge of Lights, No. 148, Warrington, will be installed W.M. of the Lodge. Bro. John Bowes P.M. P.P.G.J.W. Cumberland and Westmoreland will officiate as Installing Master. We hope to give a full report of the proceedings in our next issue.

The ceremony of dedicating the new Masonic Hall, in Albion-place, Southampton, takes place on Monday next, when the principal part will be taken by the Provincial Grand Master, Bro. W. W. B. Beach, M.P.

The Rev. O. W. Tancock, M.A., Senior Assistant Master of Sherborne School, has been elected to the Head Mastership of Norwich Grammar School. Bro. Tancock has been an Assistant Master at Sherborne since 1862, he will resign his present post at the end of the Easter term, and will begin work at Norwich in May.

The members of the Old Concord Lodge, No. 172, will hold their Forty-first Annual Masonic Ball at the New Grand Hall, Freemasons' Tavern, Great Queen Street, on Wednesday, 28th January 1880, on which occasion the whole suite of elegantly decorated rooms will be thrown open. The following brethren constitute the Board of Stewards:—Bros. Headley W.M. President, Gladwell S.W. V.P., Garton, G. Watson, J. S. Ward, Gallant, Garnar, Gaubert, A. J. Dottridge, J. Hancock, Bennett, W. P. Gousey, Geo. King P.M. Hon. Sec. We trust our brethren and their friends will have a pleasant evening.

Digitized by Google

INSTALLATION MEETINGS, &c.

—:o:—

CHAPTER OF INDUSTRY, No. 186.

THE regular convocation was held on Tuesday, 16th December, at Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street. Comps. J. Seex as M.E.Z. (in the unavoidable absence of Comp. Black), W. Poore H., Tallent P.Z. J., J. Seex S.E., W. H. Hook S.N., W. Kew P.S., H. J. Johnson 1st Assistant, J. G. Horsey 2nd Assistant, G. Kelly P.Z. Treasurer; P.Z.'s E. G. Tallent, W. Mann, Noehmer, &c. The Chapter was opened, and the minutes were confirmed. Comp. Taylor was installed J. by Comp. James Terry P.Z., who performed the ceremony in his usual perfect manner. Ballots were taken for the admission of Bros. J. I. Cantle W.M. 1257, A. D. Renshaw S.W. 194, J. Williams J.W. 1257, and R. G. Shute D.C. 1257, which were unanimous in their favour, and these brethren were duly exalted into Royal Arch Masonry by Comp. John Seex, the acting M.E.Z. The H. and J. were perfect in their duties, and Royal Arch Masonry was well sustained by all engaged. The Chapter was now closed, and the Companions sat down to a very excellent banquet and dessert provided by Comp. A. Best, and superintended by Comp. E. Dawkins. The acting Z. proposed the usual Loyal and R.A. toasts in brief and appropriate terms. Comp. W. Mann P.Z. then rose; he had great pleasure in proposing the toast of the acting Z. The M.E.Z. was absent, through pressure of business; but the duties of the chair had been admirably performed by the acting Z. It is thought that when the Z. leaves the chair, his duties are at an end; this is not so. A good R.A. Mason is always ready and willing. Comp. Seex thanked Comp. Mann for the manner in which he had spoken of the work performed by him. In the absence of the Z. he hoped the Chapter would prosper. There were many members who were ready to assist in any way to advance its interests. While this happy feeling existed, he thought he might venture to say the Industry Chapter would be second to none. Before he sat down he should have great pleasure in proposing the toast of the new Exaltees, and he would call on the Companions to give them a hearty welcome. Comp. Cantle said it had been his ardent wish to join R. A. Masonry; he fully realised its beautiful ritual; it would be his study to perfect himself. Comps. Shute, Renshaw, Unity, and Williams also responded. The acting Z. then proposed the toast of the H. and J.; he would couple with the toast that of the P.Z.'s, all had done their duty. Comp. Poore H. responded; whatever duties required of him, in any office he might be appointed to, he would use his utmost endeavours for their satisfaction. Comp. W. Mann followed, in the name of the P.Z.'s. Comp. H. M. Levy P.Z. 188 responded for Visitors. The acting Z. then proposed the toast of the officers; the Chapter was fortunate in selecting such competent men, they would carry out all required of them. Comps. Kew, J. G. Horsey and Holland responded, and then the Janitor's toast was given. Comps. J. I. Cantle and Renshaw contributed to the harmony of the evening.

LODGE FIDELITY, No. 230.

THE annual meeting of this Lodge was held at Ebrington Hall, Granby-street, Devonport. The W.M., Bro. R. Cawsey, after passing and raising seven brethren, completed a very successful year of office, by efficiently installing as his successor Bro. James R. H. Harris, who had at the former meeting been unanimously elected. In a portion of the ceremony he was assisted by the W. Bro. John Lynn P.M. P.P.G.S.B., and a Board of Installed Masters, amongst whom were W. Bros. A. Rowe P.M., R. Burt P.M., R. Pengelly P.M. 70, E. Knight P.M. 203 P.G.S., J. B. Gover P.M. 70, P.P.G.A.D.C., W. Coath P.M. 230 and 893, J. Baxter P.M. 954, A. Stephens P.M. 954, C. Watson P.M. 954, W. Foxwell P.M. 1071, J. Allen P.M. 1091, T. Searl P.M. 1091, T. Heath I.P.M. 1136. The following brethren were appointed as the officers for the next year:—Bros. R. Cawsey I.P.M., R. Ellis S.W., R. W. Pitcher J.W., J. Lynn Treasurer, R. Cawsey Secretary, J. Babb Chaplain, J. Whitford S.D., J. T. Border J.D., W. M. Ridland I.G., Chas. Haggarty O., H. Boyling S.S., E. H. Littleton J.S., E. Stephens Tyler. W. Bro. Cawsey was unanimously elected to represent the Lodge on the Committee of Petitions of Provincial Grand Lodge of Devon. One guinea was voted to the Devonport Society for Supplying Blankets to the Poor, one guinea to the Soup Society, and one guinea to the Coal Society. A donation of £5 was voted to a brother who had for many years filled the office of Tyler, and he was also elected an honorary member. In consideration of the valuable services rendered to the Lodge by W. Bro. R. Cawsey, whose year of office had been the most successful for very many years, a Past Master's jewel is to be presented to him, in recognition of his zeal and ability, and a similar token of respect will be presented to W. Bro. J. Lynn, for his services as Treasurer. Apologies were received from many Past Masters, who were prevented from attending in consequence of other important Masonic meetings at the same time.

KING'S CROSS LODGE, No. 1732.

This flourishing Lodge assembled on Saturday last, at Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street. Present—Bros. W. M. Stiles W.M., J. T. Briggs S.W., H. Stiles J.W., J. J. Michael P.M. Treasurer, E. Saintsbury Sec., Higgins S.D., L. Solomon J.D., L. Jacobs I.G., Gorringe D.C., B. Kaufmann D.C., C. B. Putland Steward, W. Knight P.M.; and Bros. Fletcher, Hubbard, Cashmore, Baker, Gilbert, Pope, Dighton, Pawson, &c. Visitors—Bros. Pulbery 1507, Silvester 193, A. Maclaren 193, Heath 1612, Bamberger W.M. 1366, Side 1507, Edmonds 1507, J. J. Pope P.M. 889 and 916, Porter P.M. 1269, J. R. Stacey P.M. 180, Gilbert 1507, H. M. Levy P.M. 188, &c. The Lodge was opened, and the minutes were confirmed. Bros. Baker and Pawson answered the necessary questions satisfactorily, and were duly raised to the third degree. Messrs. J. Goodall, J. T. Davies, and T. Dunsford having been balloted for and unanimously accepted, were initiated into the Order. These ceremonies were perfectly and impressively rendered by the W.M., whose working was excellent; every Officer was likewise perfect. The W.M. presented the Lodge with a very elegant album, to hold the photos of the brethren. Bro. J. J. Michael P.M. and Treasurer, in graceful terms, accepted the gift in the name of the Lodge. He hoped to see the likenesses of the brethren in it. It would be very gratifying in after years to look upon the features of the brethren; their autographs, also, would serve as a remembrance of their association with this Lodge. Bro. Michael then proposed that a vote of thanks be recorded on the minutes for Bro. Stiles' very kind gift. This was seconded by the J.W., and carried unanimously. After a suitable reply from the W.M., the Lodge was closed and the brethren sat down to an excellent banquet and dessert, provided by Bro. Clemow, that gave those who were present every satisfaction. The W.M., in very genial terms, proposed the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts. Bro. J. J. Michael P.M. and Treasurer, on rising to propose the health of the W.M., said Bro. Stiles was one who could ably fill the chair and perform his work without the aid of a Past Master to assist him. All present had seen how perfectly he had performed the duties that evening, especially by the manner in which he had conducted the ceremonies of raising and initiation. No better working Mason could be found; his heart and soul were in the cause, and when they found one like him they fully appreciated his qualities. With these few remarks he would ask them to give a hearty response to the toast. The W.M. thanked Bro. Michael for the manner in which he had spoken of him, and the brethren for their hearty response. Theirs was a very happy Lodge, and the members would have a good successor to him. He (the W.M.) had studied the ritual, and he hoped his exertions had given them satisfaction. Bro. Stiles then announced that he had accepted a Stewardship for the next Anniversary Festival of the Girls' School; the S.W. would also serve as Steward for the Boys' School. When he acted as Steward for the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution, he had raised a goodly amount for that Charity, but he hoped the S.W. would get a still larger sum. They both had but one object in view—the advancement of the three noble Charities. The next toast was that of the P.M.'s. The W.M. spoke of the manner in which Bro. Knight had performed his duties. He was a Grand Officer of Kent, and they were indebted to him for many services. Brother Michael was also one who merited their regard and esteem; but, as he had to speak of him in another capacity, he would call on the former brother, now, to respond. Bro. Knight thanked the W.M. for his kind remarks. Although an old Mason, he had never seen better working than he and the brethren had witnessed that evening. Bro. J. J. Michael followed, and fully endorsed all the remarks of Brother Knight; he was proud of being the first Master of this Lodge; he also was gratified at its success. The W.M. announced that, thanks to the brethren, he had on his list over £50. In proposing the toast of the newly initiated members, the W.M. said he was pleased at the manner in which they had listened to the ceremony. Both he and his predecessor had initiated brethren of whom they were proud. Bros. Goodall, Davis and Dunsford, in excellent speeches, replied. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Visitors, of whom there were eleven present. The Lodge was pleased to see so goodly an array. Bros. J. R. Stacey, H. M. Levy, Dr. Pope, Stanhope; also Bro. Heath, of the Earl of Carnarvon Lodge—a Lodge which had been made famous by one of its Stewards taking up a sum of £500 for one of the Festivals last year. In time he (the W.M.) hoped this achievement might be emulated by one of their members. The Visitors severally responded; all thanked the W.M. for his kind remarks, his able working and genial presidency. The excellent manner in which the Officers had performed their duties was likewise not overlooked. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Treasurer and Secretary. The Lodge was fortunate in having the services of two such Officers; to the former brother is due the success of the Lodge. The Secretary is most assiduous; no Lodge could have a better one; his suggestions were always good. To both brethren they were in every way indebted. Bro. Michael was proud to say, after all the liabilities had been paid, and the Charities taken into consideration, there would be a balance in hand. Bro. Saintsbury followed, with a very effective speech. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Officers; he was proud of them. The Visitors had praised the working of the Wardens and the junior Officers, and had expressed their sentiments as to how ably they had discharged their duties. He fully endorsed them; he trusted to see the S. Warden the future W.M.; he hoped that the forthcoming year would be in every way more prosperous than the waning one, and he hoped to see the brethren in health and prosperity at the next meeting. The toast met with a suitable response, and then the Tyler's toast was given. A very pleasant evening was thus passed, several brethren contributed excellent songs.

Strong Man Lodge of Instruction, No. 45.—At Bro. Butt's, the New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, on Monday, the 15th inst., Bro. Symons presided; he was supported by Bros. Fox S.W., Wing J.W., Tolmie Preceptor, Fenner Secretary, Pelican S.D., Greene I.G.; also Bros. Halford Treasurer, Weeden, Gyer, Gibb, R. Defriez, &c. The usual formalities were duly gone through. Bro. Weeden proved himself proficient as a F.C., and the ceremony of raising was rehearsed. Lodge was resumed to the second degree, Bro. Fox worked the second, Bro. Hallam sen. the third. Bro. Tolmie the fifth section of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Lodge was closed in the second degree. Bro. Fox was elected W.M. for the next Monday evening. The sum of £1 1s was voted out of the Lodge funds for the relief of a distressed brother, after which Lodge was closed and adjourned.

Digitized by Google

LODGE OF PRUDENCE, No. 1550.

ON Monday evening the Christmas supper in connection with this Lodge was held at Chubb's Hotel, Plymouth. Bro. R. G. Tippett W.M. presided. Among those present were Bros. L. J. Webber S.W., M. J. Lakeman J.W., J. T. Avery P.M. Treasurer, R. G. Bird P.M. Secretary, W. Dawe S.D., J. D. Barker Organist, R. B. Twose P.M. P.P.G.T., E. Roseveare P.M. 1099, E. Square P.M. 1247, F. B. Westlake 70, Samuel Pearse P.M., J. March 105, G. R. Barrett S.W. 1255, W. Stanbury, T. Smith 1550, G. Mitchell 70, T. Jarvis 954, W. E. Hoare 156, T. Goodall P.M. 1550, S. Ramsden 70, T. Smith I.P.M. 1255, H. Boon, E. Manly P.M. 156. After supper the various Masonic toasts were given. Bro. E. Roseveare proposed "The health of the Worshipful Master of Lodge of Prudence," and spoke of Bro. Tippett in the highest terms as a working Mason. He expressed the pleasure it gave him in seeing his worshipful brother presiding over that Lodge, and hoped that, by skilful medical treatment, he would be speedily restored to his usual health. Bro. G. R. Tippett suitably responded. In responding to the toast of "The Treasurer and Secretary," Bro. R. G. Bird stated that the affairs of the Lodge were in a healthy condition. During the evening Bros. Jarvis, Goodall, Joyce, and Roseveare rendered several songs in a pleasing manner. Bro. W. E. Hoare presided at the piano.

Royal Savoy Lodge, No. 1744.—The regular meeting of this rapidly progressing Lodge took place at Ashley's Hotel, Covent Garden, on Tuesday, 24th December. Bro. J. Willing I.P.M. and Treasurer in the chair, in the absence of the W.M. Bro. John Douglass, owing to his professional engagements. There were also present:—Bros. Jones J.W. as Senior Warden., Sillis (Organist) as Junior Warden, W. M. Stiles Secretary, Cook J.D. as Senior Deacon, J. C. Smith as J.D., R. Lloyd as I.G., and Bros. Redstone, Hoare, Ellis, Hare, Dickey, Hone, Jagels, Cole, Woods, Gray, H. Ellis, Ramsden, Wheeler, W. Bryant, Perugia, Michell, &c. &c. Visitor—Bro. Edmonds. The minutes were read and confirmed, and then Bros. H. Dickey, H. Hoare, and W. Redstone were raised; Bros. J. N. Hare, T. H. Ellis, J. Gray, and J. Hone were passed. The ballot was taken for Mr. G. C. R. Perugia, proposed by Bro. R. Lloyd and seconded by Bro. J. L. Jones J.W.; for Mr. Walter Bryant, proposed by Bro. R. Lloyd and seconded by Bro. W. Cook J.D.; for Mr. George Ellis, proposed by Bro. J. Willing I.P.M. Treasurer, and seconded by the W.M., as candidates for initiation; the result was favourable, and these gentlemen were initiated into ancient Freemasonry. The ballot was also in favour of reception, as joining member of, Bro. R. Michell (Covent Garden Lodge 1614), who was proposed by Bro. J. Willing I.P.M. Treasurer, and seconded by Bro. W. M. Stiles Secretary. Several names of gentlemen were given in for initiation, and then the brethren adjourned to light refreshments. Part of the evening was devoted to Masonic toasts, interspersed with some most excellent singing. The acting W.M. alluded to the fact of nearly forty brethren being present in spite of the inclement weather, and the notice on the summons "No banquet;" proving the members of the Royal Savoy Lodge were not merely brethren of the so-called fourth degree. The initiates, in responding to their health, announced their determination to qualify themselves at their "quickest" for the Master's chair. Bro. Michell (the proprietor of Ashley's Hotel), in acknowledging the toast of his health, remarked that during his illness he might have exhibited some lack of attention, but his best wishes were with the Lodge. Having had many opportunities of witnessing the working and the harmony of the Lodge, he felt proud to join it, and he further trusted by his future endeavours to please the members, and prove his gratitude for their unanimously electing him. A very pleasant evening was spent, the worthy Secretary, Bro. W. M. Stiles, W.M. of the King's Cross Lodge, being indefatigable in his exertions to make the brethren comfortable. The Lodge was adjourned until fourth Tuesday in January.

MASONIC TRAGEDY AND COMEDY.

FROM THE KEYSTONE.

NO one likes to be disappointed. We recall to memory an occasion when a friend asked us to accompany him to the theatre to witness a comedy, but when we were seated, the curtain arose upon one of the saddest and most thrilling of tragedies. We went there to laugh, and came away in tears. That was a sad disappointment. But every Freemason of considerable experience has felt a kindred surprise during certain Lodge visits. Sometimes he has expected tragedy and found comedy, and at others he has looked for comedy and found something akin to tragedy.

There is something quite Masonic about tragedy? Is it not derived from tragos, a goat? And is it not always feeling, earnest, and grave, and teaching great truths by example? Plato defined tragedy to be an imitation of the noblest life, and its proper theme as the deeds and sufferings of a hero. Freemasonry can "fill the bill." It inculcates the noblest truth, and has for its hero one who is a perpetual example of the most praiseworthy fidelity—one who loved the truth as he loved his life. But then Freemasonry has also its afterpiece of comedy. Too much gravity is deadening, and reminds one of a walking tombstone. We believe, with Douglas Jerrold, that humour is "the harmony of the heart." Comedy we may term the treble of life, and tragedy the bass, and to play a perfect piece of music both must be employed. Freemasonry does use both. Its Labour is tragedy, its Refreshment comedy. It is because these two parts of the great Masonic whole bear so important and necessary a relation to each other that custom and wisdom alike teach us that the two should always be conjoined. The Craft is wiser than any single Brother, and the Craft demands that Refreshment should ever follow Labour.

Historians of the drama tell us that tragedy, from the earliest times, was deemed worthy to entertain the refined inhabitants of cities, while comedy was thought to be more in harmony with the rustic habits of country people! But the most refined people, now-a-days, divide their time between the city and the country, and are hence entitled to, and do demand both. It is not absolutely necessary, however, to go to a place of amusement to witness either. Carlyle was right when he said, "man carries under his hat a private theatre, wherein a greater drama is acted than is ever performed on the mimic stage." Yes, all the world is a stage, and all of us performers upon it. But Freemasons perform in a different manner from that of their profane neighbours, or at least they ought to. Ours is a private performance, a rehearsal of "mysteries." Masonic rites are pure "mysteries;" they deal with Biblical events and personages, and teach the doctrine of a resurrection unto immortal life. And mark this—no comedy is in place in the exemplification of this teaching. But thereafter the Brethren may unbend—then is the time for the afterplay.

It is painful to witness tragedy and comedy intermingled in the Lodge, and such an occurrence is not as uncommon as it should be. The oriental chair of King Solomon was never intended to be filled by one not gifted and dignified by gravity and wisdom. The Worshipful Master has weighty words put in his mouth, and weighty deeds are looked for from him, but if he is equal to neither he is worthless even as a figure head, and Master of nothing. When we have heard the inane, lifeless manner in which the ritual has been rendered by some Masters—weighty words falling as lightly from their lips as if they were feathers, we have been reminded of Shakespeare's making even his fools to speak wisdom. The words were golden, but the speech was—an airy nothing. A W.M. should ever remember that he is acting a noble part, and unless he acts it well, he neither gathers honour to himself, nor impresses the truth of Freemasonry upon the candidate. To such we may fittingly apply Shakespeare's description of certain poor players: "I have thought some of nature's journeymen had made men, and not made them well, they imitated humanity so abominably." How many Masons are made who are not made well! All the necessary words may have been used, but words are dead—it is the spirit that giveth life. Let, then, the fire of the spirit enliven every Master's speech; let truth be clothed with its own fitting garments of Wisdom, Strength, and Beauty.

Not a few of the tragedies of life owe their origin to the warfare of suffering; biting need drives some to desperation. A part of the mission of Freemasonry is to lift the weight of sorrow that presses upon a Brother, or those dear to him in kinship. The gospel of Masonry is a gospel of love. It is intended to comprehend the twin worlds of thought and action. Horace Walpole said: "Life is a comedy to him who thinks, but a tragedy to him who feels." We are taught both to think and to feel—to think the truth, and to feel for the sorrows and ameliorate the sufferings of our Brethren. We may sometimes deem our lot a hard one, because we have either to suffer, or to minister to sufferers; but, be it remembered, there comes a period to our Labour, and then follows Refreshment. The now-time is not to be compared with the hereafter, either in duration or enjoyment. Here we dwell for a time; there we shall live for eternity. Here we labour and are heavy laden; there, if we have the Master's word, and can pass the examination of the Grand Master of the Universe, we shall be ushered into the presence of Him to see whom is the earnest of perennial happiness. Then the briers of this working-day world shall no more annoy, for Labour will have ended, and our Refreshment will have begun—and of that there shall be no end. We never arise from eternity's rich banquet.

NOTICE.

On and after Monday next, the Publishing Offices of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE will be removed to No. 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C. (immediately opposite Freemason's Hall.)

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE,

A Weekly Record of Masonic Intelligence. Sanctioned by the Grand Lodge of England.

Price—13s 6d per annum, post free.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE will be forwarded direct from the Office, 23 Great Queen, W.C., Street (opposite Freemasons' Hall), on receipt of Post Office Order for the amount. Intending Subscribers should forward their full Addresses to prevent mistakes.

Post Office Orders to be made payable to W. W. MORGAN, at High Holborn Office. Cheques crossed "London and County."

London:—W. W. MORGAN, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C.
(Opposite Freemasons' Hall.)

Cloth Cases for Binding can be had from the Offices, price 1s 6d each.

Digitized by Google

DIARY FOR THE WEEK.

We shall be obliged if the Secretaries of the various Lodges throughout the Kingdom will favour us with a list of their Days of Meeting, &c., as we have decided to insert only those that are verified by the Officers of the several Lodges.

—:o:—

SATURDAY, 27th DECEMBER.

198—Percy, Jolly Farmers, Southgate Road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W. at 8
1458—Peace, Private Rooms, Meltham

MONDAY, 29th DECEMBER.

45—Strong Man, New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, at 8 (Instruction)
58—London Masonic Club Lodge of Instruction, 101 Queen Victoria-street, at 6
174—Sincerity, Railway Tavern, London-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
180—St. James's Union, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
186—Industry, Bell, Carter-lane, Doctors-commons, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
548—Wellington, White Swan, High-street, Deptford, at 8 (Instruction)
704—Camden, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
1306—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-st., Wapping, at 8 (Instruction)
1425—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-rd., Paddington, at 8 (Instruction)
1445—Prince Leopold, Mitford Tavern, Sandringham-road, Dalston, at 8 (Inst.)
1489—Marquess of Ripon, Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-rd., Hackney, at 7.30 (In.)
1623—West Smithfield, New Market Hotel, King-st., Snow-hill, at 8 (Inst.)
1625—Tredegar, Royal Hotel, Mile End-road, corner of Burdett-road (Inst.)
62—Social, Queen's Hotel, Manchester.
148—Lights, Masonic Rooms, Warrington
302—Hope, New Masonic Hall, Darley-street, Bradford.
307—Prince Frederick, White Horse Hotel, Hebden Bridge.
820—Lily of Richmond, Greyhound, Richmond, at 7.30 (Instruction)
827—St. John, Masonic Temple, Halifax-road, Dewsbury.
1177—Tenby, Royal Assembly Rooms, Tenby, Pembroke
1449—Royal Military, Masonic Hall, Canterbury, at 8. (Instruction.)
1477—Sir Watkin, Masonic Hall, Mold

TUESDAY, 30th DECEMBER.

55—Constitutional, Bedford Hotel, Southampton-bldgs., Holborn, at 7 (Inst.)
65—Prosperity, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
141—Faith, 2 Westminster Chambers, Victoria-street, S.W., at 8 (Inst.)
177—Domatic, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney (Instruction)
753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
860—Dalhousie, Sisters' Tavern, Fownall-road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1044—Wandsworth, Star and Garter Hotel, St. Ann's-hill, Wandsworth (Inst.)
1349—Friars, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1361—Royal Arthur, Prince's Head, Battersea Park, at 8 (Instruction)
1446—Mount Edgcumbe, 19 Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1471—Islington, Three Bucks, 23 Gresham-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
1472—Henley, Three Crowns, North Woolwich, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1507—Metropolitan, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate-st., at 7.30 (Inst.)
1554—D. Connaught, Palmerston Arms, Grosvenor Park, Camberwell, at 8 (In.)
1602—Sir Hugh Myddelton, Crown and Woolpack, St. John's-st.-rd., at 8 (In.)
1707—Eleanor, Tracadero, Broad-street-buildings, Liverpool-street, 6.30 (Inst)
Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement, Jamaica Coffee House, Cornhill, 6.30.
117—Wynnstay, Raven Hotel, Shrewsbury, at 8 (Instruction)
126—Silent Temple, Cross Keys Inn, Burnley
178—Antiquity, Royal Hotel, Wigan.
241—Merchants, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 6.30 (Instruction)
299—Emulation, Bull Hotel, Dartford
310—Union, Freemasons' Hall, Castle-street, Carlisle
373—Socrates, George Hotel, High-street, Huntingdon
418—St. James, Freemasons' Hall, St. John's-place, Halifax.
510—St. Martin, Masonic Hall, Liskeard.
573—Perseverance, Shakespeare Hotel, Hales Owen
779—Ferrers and Ivanhoe, Town Hall, Ashby-de-la-Zouch
1358—Torbay, Town Hall, Paignton
1366—Ellington, Bell Hotel, Maidenhead
1587—St. Giles, Royal Oak Hotel, Cheadle
R. A. 721—Grosvenor, Masonic-chambers, Eastgate-row-north, Chester
K. T.—Plains of Tabor, Swan Hotel, Colne, Lancashire

WEDNESDAY, 31st DECEMBER.

201—Jordan, Devonshire Arms, Devonshire-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
228—United Strength, Hope and Anchor, Crowndale-rd., Camden-town, 8 (In.)
838—La Tolerance, Green Dragon, 2 Madbox-street, W., at 7.45 (Inst.)
781—Merchant Navy, Silver Tavern, Burdett-road, E., at 7.30 (Instruction)
813—New Concord, Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
862—Whittington, Red Lion, Poppin's-court, Fleet-street, at 8 (Instruction)
1185—Lewis, King's Arms Hotel, Wood Green, at 7 (Instruction)
1278—Burdett Coutts, Salmon and Ball, Bethnal Green-road, at 8 (Inst.)
1288—Finsbury Park, Earl Russell, Isledon-road, Holloway, at 8 (Instruction)
1524—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion Road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
R. A. 177—Domatic, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-st., at 8 (Instruction)
125—Prince Edwin, White Hart Hotel, Hythe, Kent
128—Prince Edwin, Bridge Inn, Bolton-street, Bury, Lancashire
163—Integrity, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester
219—Duke of Athol, Bowling Green Hotel, Denton
274—Tranquility, Boar's Head Inn, Newchurch, near Manchester
293—Huddersfield, Masonic Hall, South Parade, Huddersfield
304—Philanthropic, Masonic Hall, Great George-street, Leeds
363—Keystone, New Inn, Whitworth.
387—Airedale, Masonic Hall, Westgate, Shipley
439—Scientific, Masonic Room, Bingley
606—Segontium, The Castle, Carnarvon
625—Devonshire, Norfolk Hotel, Gloss op
750—Friendship, Freemasons' Hall, Railway-street, Cleckheaton.
972—St. Augustine, Canterbury (Instruction)
998—Sondes, Eagle Hotel, East Dereham, Norfolk
1054—Townley Parker, Morley Hotel, Beswick, near Manchester
1075—Hartington, Masonic Hall, Gower-street, Derby. (Instruction.)
1219—Stanley-ways, Empire Hotel, Stanley-ways, Manchester
1284—Rylburn, Central-buildings, Town Hall-street, Sowerby Bridge
1493—West Lancashire, Commercial Hotel, Ormskirk
151 —Alexandra, Masonic Hall, Hornsea, Hull, at 7. (Instruction.)
1645—Colne Valley, Lewisham Hotel, Slaithwaite
1707—Southdown, Hurstpierpoint, Sussex
R. C.—Stanhope, Queen's Hotel, Chester
K. T.—Alpass, Masonic Hall, Liverpool

THURSDAY, 1st JANUARY.

3—Trinity, Yorkshire Grey, London-street, Fitzroy-sq., at 8 (Instruction)
15—Kent, Castle Inn, Snow-street, Walthamstow, at 7.30 (Instruction)
27—Egyptian, Rule's Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7.30 (Instruction)
87—Survival, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth, at 8 (Instruction)
211—St. Michael, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate Street, at 8 (Inst.)
435—Salisbury, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8 (Inst.)
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney
754—High Cross, Coach and Horses, Lower Tottenham, at 8 (Instruction)
1227—Upton, King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., at 8. (Instruction.)
1426—The Great City, Masons Hall, Masons Avenue, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
1614—Covent Garden, Nag's Head, James-street, Covent Garden, at 7.45 (In.)
R. A. 753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
R. A. 1471—North London, Jolly Farmers', Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Inst.)
R. A. 1507—Metropolitan, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
M. M.—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion-rd., Dalston, E., at 8.30 (Inst.)
24—Newcastle-on-Tyne, Freemasons' Hall, Grainger-st., Newcastle.
31—United Industrious, Masonic Room, Canterbury
38—Union, Council Chamber, Chichester
41—Royal Cumberland, Masonic Hall, Old Orchard-street, Bath
50—Knights of Malta, George Hotel, Hinckley, Leicestershire
123—Lennox, Freemasons' Hall, Richmond, Yorkshire
215—Commerce, Commercial Hotel, Haslingden
219—Mariners, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
254—Trinity, Craven Arms Hotel, Coventry
266—Naphtali, Masonic Hall, Market-place, Heywood
269—Fidelity, White Bull Hotel, Blackburn
289—Fidelity, Masonic Hall, Carlton-hill, Leeds
294—Constitutional, Assembly Rooms, Beverley, Yorks
295—Combermere Union, Macclesfield Arms, Macclesfield
300—Minerva, Pitt and Nelson, Ashton-under-Lyne
309—Harmony, Red Lion, Fareham
317—Affability, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester.
360—Pomfret, Masonic Hall, Abington-street, Northampton.
419—St. Peter, Star and Garter Hotel, Wolverhampton.
425—Cestrian, Grosvenor Hotel, Chester.
432—Abbey, Newdegate Arms, Nuneaton
446—Benevolent, Town Hall, Wells, Somersetshire
509—Tees, Freemasons' Hall, Stockton, Durham.
637—Portland, Masonic Rooms, Town Hall, Stoke-upon-Trent.
702—Pelham Pillar, Masonic Hall, Bullring-lane, Great Grimsby.
913—Pattison, Lord Raglan Tavern, Plumstead.
971—Trafalgar, Private Room, Commercial-street, Batley
974—Pentalpha, New Masonic Hall, Darley-street, Bradford
1012—Prince of Wales, Derby Hotel, Bury, Lancashire.
1074—Underley, Masonic Room, Market-place, Kirkby Lonsdale
1182—Duke of Edinburgh, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1231—Savile, Royal Hotel, Elland.
1282—Ancholme, Foresters' Hall, Brigg, Lincolnshire.
1284—Brent, Globe Hotel, Topsham, Devonshire.
1304—Olive Union, Masonic Hall, Horncastle, Lincolnshire.
1384—Equity, Alforde Chambers, Widnes.
1473—Bootle, Town Hall, Bootle, Lancashire.
1500—Walpole, Bell Hotel, Norwich.
1504—Red Rose of Lancaster, Starkie's Arms Hotel, Padiham, near Burnley
1514—Thornhill, Masonic Room, Dearn House, Lindley
1515—Friendly, King's Head Hotel, Barnsley.
1612—West Middlesex, Feathers Hotel, Ealing, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
1639—Watling-street, Cock Hotel, Stoney Stratford, Bucks
1807—Loyal Wye, Builth, Breconshire
R. A. 208—Three Grand Principles, Masonic Hall, Dewsbury
R. A. 307—Good Intent, White Horse Hotel, Hebden Bridge
R. A. 325—St. John, Freemasons' Hall, Islington-square, Salford
R. A. 337—Confidence, Commercial Inn, Uppermill
R. A. 758—Bridgewater, Masonic Hall, Runcorn, Cheshire.
M.M. 53—Britannia, Freemasons' Hall, Sheffield.
K. T.—Fearnley, Masonic Temple, Halifax Road, Dewsbury

FRIDAY, 2nd JANUARY

Emulation Lodge of Improvement, Freemasons' Hall, at 7.
25—Robert Burns, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
507—United Pilgrims, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
786—William Preston, Feathers Tavern, Up. George-st., Edgware-rd. 8 (Inst.)
831—Ranelagh, Bell and Anchor, Hammersmith-road (Instruction)
902—Burgoyne, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Duke's Head, 79 Whitechapel-road, at 8 (Instruction)
1056—Metropolitan, Portugal Hotel, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 7 (Instruction)
1158—Belgrave, Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1288—Finsbury Park M.M., Earl Russell, Isledon-road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1298—Royal Standard, Alwyne Castle, St. Paul's-road, Canonbury, at 8 (In.)
1305—Clapton, White Hart, Lower Clapton, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1642—E. Carnarvon, Mitre Hotel, Goulborne-rd, N. Kensington, at 8.0 (Inst.)
R. A. 79—Pythagorean, Portland Hotel, London-street, Greenwich, at 8 (Inst.)
Metropolitan Masonic Benevolent Association, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 8.30.
44—Friendship, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester.
127—Union, Freemasons' Hall, Margate
219—Prudence, Masonic Hall, Todmorden.
242—St. George, Guildhall, Doncaster.
306—Alfred, Masonic Hall, Kelsall-street, Leeds.
375—Lambton, Lambton Arms, Chester-le-street, Durham
521—Truth, Freemasons' Hall, Fitzwilliam-street, Huddersfield.
539—St. Matthew, Dragon Hotel, Walsall.
574—Loyal Berkshire of Hope, White Hart Hotel, Newbury
602—St. Johns, Wrekin Hotel, Wellington, Salop
648—Sefton, Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool
709—Invicta, Bank-street Hall, Ashford
780—Royal Alfred, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, at 7.30. (Instruction.
837—De Grey and Ripon, Town Hall, Ripon.
839—Royal Gloucestershire, Bell Hotel, Gloucester.
1036—Lord Warden, Lord Warden Hotel, Lower Walmer, Kent
1102—Mirfield, Assembly Rooms, Eastthorpe, Mirfield
1333—Athelstan, Town Hall, Atherstone, Warwick.
1387—Chorlton, Masonic Rooms, Chorlton Cum Hardy.
1393—Hamer, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8 (Instruction)
1528—Fort, Red Lion Hotel, Newquay, Cornwall.
1537—Albert Edward, Bush Hotel, Hexham.
1561—Morecambe, Masonic Hall, Edward-street, Morecambe, Lancashire.
1648—Prince of Wales, Freemasons' Hall, Salem-street, Bradford.
1664—Gosforth, Freemasons' Hall, High-street, Gosforth.
General Lodge of Instruction, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham, at 7
R. A.—General Chapter of Improvement, Masonic Hall, Birmingham, 5.30

SATURDAY, 3rd JANUARY.

Special General Court, Girls' School, Freemasons' Hall, at 12.
General Committee Boys' School, Freemasons' Hall, at 4
198—Percy, Jolly Farmers' Tavern, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1572—Carnarvon, Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
1622—Rose, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8
1458—Truth, Private Rooms, Conservative Club, Newton Heath, Manchester

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—There is nothing in the whole "Materia Medica" like these tri-elements for the certainty of their action in bronchitis, sciatica, tic doloureux, and all flying or settled pains in the nerves and muscles. Diseases of this nature originate in bad blood and depraved humours, and until these are corrected there can be no permanent cure. The ordinary remedies afford only temporary relief, and in the end always disappoint the sufferer. Holloway's Ointment penetrates the human system as salt penetrates meat, and the Pills greatly assist and accelerate its operation by clearing away all obstructions, and giving tone to the system generally. The prophylactic virtues of Holloway's remedies stand unrivalled.

Digitized by Google

FORTITUDE LODGE, No. 105.

THE annual meeting of this Lodge was held at the Huyshe Masonic Temple, Princess-place, Plymouth, on Thursday, 18th December, when Bro. Mark Embden, who had previously been unanimously elected, was installed as W.M. The ceremony was very effectively performed by W. Bro. John James, to whom a cordial vote of thanks was accorded. Important business prevented the Master (Bro. J. Browning) from being present until a later part of the evening. There was a large attendance of Past Masters, and apologies were received from many who were attending another meeting at the Ebrington Hall, Devonport. Among those present were:—Bros. J. Browning W.M., C. Cooper P.M., John James P.M., Martin Williams P.M., S. Jew P.M. P.P.G.T., A. Woolf P.M. P.P.G.P., Rev. R. Measham P.P.G.Chaplain P.M., J. Cornish P.M. 223, H. Miller P.P.G.D.C. P.M., V. Bird P.M. 1550 P.P.G.T., R. Marshall P.M., T. Price P.P.G.A.D.C. P.M., J. B. Gover P.M. 70 P.P.G.A.D.C., H. W. Welch P.P.G.P. P.M., J. R. Lord P.M. 1247, T. W. Fitch P.P.G.D.C. Bombay P.M., J. C. Bignell P.P.G. Supt. of Works P.M., P. B. Clements P.P.G.O. P.M., L. D. Westcott P.M. 70 P.P.G. Supt. of Works, A. E. Lean W.M. 70, A. Lethbridge P.M., W. Powell P.M., and James Gidley P.M. The Officers appointed for next year were:—Bros. J. T. Browning I.P.M., W. S. Hearder S.W., H. J. Kitt J.W., G. S. Bignell Treasurer, C. H. Cooper Secretary, E. A. Lyons S.D., W. Stanbury J.D., J. Gifford I.G., E. Pillar D. of C., G. Horswill O., A. L. Levy S.S., S. R. Hayes J.S. The W.M. was appointed to represent the Lodge on the Committee of Petitions for the Prov. Grand Lodge of Devonshire. W. Bros. Mark Embden, G. S. Bignell, C. Cooper, S. Jew, and J. T. Browning were unanimously elected to be the representatives of the Lodge on the Committee of the Associated Lodges. The banquet was arranged to be held at Bro. C. Walters', and the date will be fixed at the next meeting of the Lodge.

LODGE OF GOOD FELLOWSHIP, No. 276.

THE annual festival of this Lodge was celebrated on Thursday, 18th inst., at Chelmsford, and passed off with great eclat. A goodly number of members of the Lodge and several visitors assembled in the Board Room of the Corn Exchange Company, at three o'clock p.m., to witness the installation of W. Bro. J. S. Brown the W.M. elect, which, with his well-known urbanity, was kindly undertaken by the V.W. Bro. the Rev. C. J. Martyn D.P.G.M. Suffolk. At its close the W.M. appointed and invested his Officers for the year as follows:—W. Bros. A. F. Ginn I.P.M., J. P. Lewin S.W., E. Shedd J.W., Rev. F. B. Shepherd Chaplain, F. Whitmore Treasurer, James Nicholls Secretary, W. J. Upton S.D., A. Mead J.D., A. Durrant D.C., H. Bowles Organist, F. Woodard I.G., F. P. Satthery Steward, T. S. Sarel Tyler. A hearty vote of thanks was passed to V.W. Bro. Rev. C. J. Martyn for his kindness in attending, which having been duly acknowledged, some further business was transacted, and the Lodge adjourned. About six o'clock between forty and fifty brethren sat down to banquet at the White Hart Hotel, a sumptuous repast being well served by Bro. Sheldrake, the host. The new W.M. presided, and was supported on his right and left by the V.W. Bro. C. J. Martyn D.P.G.M. Suffolk, W. Bros. Frederick Binckes P.G.S. Sec. R.M.I.B., J. Terry P.P.G.J.W. Herts Sec. R.M.B.I., Andrew Durrant Prov. G. Treasurer, Thomas J. Ralling Prov. G. Secretary, &c. Amongst the other brethren present during the day, either at Lodge or banquet, were W. Bros. F. J. Westwood I.P.M. 225 P.G.S.D. Suffolk, Vero W. Taylor P.M. 1312 P.P.G.J.W., F. G. Green W.M. 1024, H. J. Sansom I.P.M. 1024 P.J.G.D., G. P. Jay P.M. 1024 P.P.G.J.W., W. W. Brown P.M. 214 P.P.G.O., J. E. Wiseman P.M. 433 P.P.A.G.D.C., W. Busham W.M. 650 P.P.A.G.D.C.; Bros. Charles Taylor 1765, M. Mildred 1326, J. A. Reed 1228, J. Baker 567, A. W. Ralling 51; and the following members of 276, in addition to those mentioned above:—W. Bros. D. M. B. Wheeler P.M., J. P. Sarel P.M., Rev. G. S. Barnes P.M., W. Pullen P.M.; Bros. A. G. Maskell, J. W. Hair, A. C. Durrant, and W. Wood. Much regret was expressed at the absence of the D.P.G.M. of the Province, V.W. Bro. the Rev. S. R. Wigram, who was prevented from attending by indisposition. A most pleasant portion of the post prandial proceedings was the very choice vocal music of Bros. Ashton, Hubbard, Thompson and Kift.

LODGE CAREW, No. 1136.

THE annual meeting of the Masonic Craft Lodge Carew, No. 1136, was held at the Masonic Hall, Torpoint, on 17th inst., and after several ceremonies had been performed, and usual business consequent at the end of every year, the W.M. elect Bro. Geo. Cassell, was in ancient form, and with accustomed rites, duly installed. Amongst the Past Masters who were present at the Board of Installed Masters, and afterwards, were Bros. Thos. Heath, who conducted the ceremony, H. Cochrane P.P.G.J.W. Cornwall, E. A. Davies P.P.G.S. Wks., H. F. Smith P.P.G.S. Wks., E. Poor P.P.G.P., H. Welch P.P.G.P., J. B. Gover P.P.G.A.D.C., E. March P.P.G.O., R. Pengelly P.M. 70, J. W. Collings P.M., G. Darke P.M., R. T. Truscott P.M., T. Rusholme P.M., R. Hayman P.M. all of 1136, R. Burt P.M. 230, R. Cawsey W.M. 230, J. James P.M. 105, R. Blight W.M. 223, E. J. Knight P.M. 202, W. Foxwell P.M. The Officers appointed for the next year were:—T. Heath I.P.M., W. G. Spear S.W., W. H. Phillips J.W., E. Poor Treasurer, J. W. Collings Secretary, W. Stephens A.S., W. J. Barratt S.D., A. White J.D., C. Haggarty I.G., A. Dobnom D.C., J. Bayley O., J. Pearce S.S., W. Luxton, A. K. Collins, James Herbert; William Martin Tyler. The brethren adjourned to the Royal Hotel, Devonport, for the banquet, which was in every way admirable, reflecting great credit upon Bro. Parker, the manager of that establishment. The musical programme was large, and well carried out, a noticeable feature being the pianoforte accompaniment and solos of Miss Haggarty, a young lady of ten years, daughter of Bro. C. Haggarty I.G. She gives promise of becoming an accomplished musician.

West Middlesex Lodge of Instruction.—Meeting held at Feathers' Hotel, Ealing, Thursday, 18th of December, 1879. Present—Bros. A. Jones W.M., E. J. Acworth S.W., J. Wells J.W., F. Botley S.D., C. E. Botley J.D., Watkin Brown I.G., F. Millsom, W. M. Wyville. The Lodge was opened in due form, and the minutes of previous meeting were read, confirmed, and signed. The W.M. rehearsed the ceremony of initiation, Brother Millsom candidate. The Lodge was opened in 2nd degree, and Bros. Millsom and Wyville answered the questions leading to 3rd degree. The Lodge was closed in 2nd degree. Bro. E. J. Acworth was elected W.M. for the next meeting. Lodge was then closed in due form with solemn prayer, and the meeting adjourned till Thursday, 8th of January 1880.

STRAND.

PRETTY and engaging Miss St. John still reigns supreme as "Madame Favart" at the Strand, and is likely to do so for some time, judging from the crowded state of the house nightly. Bro. Swanborough is to be congratulated on a lucky hit, still we cannot but feel it is not wholly due to merit of the piece, but to the very effective and careful way it is put upon the stage. Undoubtedly, the care and attention given by Mons. Marius, Mr. Ashley, Miss Violet Cameron—in fact, the whole of the company—may be reckoned as a good crew pulling well together, under the able leadership of Miss St. John, to the pretty music—renders the entertainment brilliant and pleasing from beginning to end; in fact, we have seldom seen an opera-bouffe better rendered, and the author, Offenbach, and Bro. Swanborough are to be congratulated on producing a pleasing and agreeable entertainment.

The Duke of Connaught has secured Forest Lodge, Farnborough, as a residence for the remainder of the time he may be stationed at Aldershot. Forest Lodge is distant about a mile from the North Camp, where his Royal Highness's battalion is stationed, and was rented by Sir J. Yorke Scarlett during his term in command of the division. As stated some weeks ago the health of the Duchess has not been good since her arrival at Aldershot. It is thought that the Pavilion—a wooden building, standing on the summit of a hill—is scarcely fitted for a winter residence, and it has therefore been abandoned.—Whitehall Review.

LATEST NOVELTY.

MASONIC CHARM FOR CHAIN.

The whole of the working Tools complete as above.
MOUNTED IN GOOD GOLD AND ORNAMENTALLY ENGRAVED.
To be had of the maker on receipt of 25s.

E. PELIKAN, Manufacturing Jeweller,
No. 102 St. John Street Road, London, E.C.
P.O.O. to be made payable at the St. John Street Road Office.

LADBROKE HALL, NOTTING HILL, LONDON, W.

(Opposite the Notting Hill Station of the Metropolitan Railway, from which Trains run every few minutes to all parts of London, and in connection with the principal Lines of Railway.)

THE ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED FOR LODGE MEETINGS IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE DISTRICT.

LARGE LODGE AND BANQUET ROOMS, WITH EVERY CONVENIENCE.

THE HALL MAY BE ENGAGED for BANQUETS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, DINNERS, PUBLIC or PRIVATE ENTERTAINMENTS, &c.

Apply to Bro. J. LINSCOTT (at the Hall), 14 Ladbroke Grove Road, London, W.

Digitized by Google

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND,

Under the patronage and support of

H.R.H. The Prince of Wales, Grand Master of England.
H.R.H. The Duke of Connaught,, K.G., P.S.G.W.
H.R.H. Prince Leopold, K.G., Past Jun. Grand Warden England, Prov. G.M. Oxfordshire.
Carnarvon The Right Hon. the Earl of, Pro Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
Skelmersdale R. Hon. Lord, Deputy Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. West Lancashire.
Abercorn His Grace the Duke of, G.M. Ireland.
Stewart Sir M. R. Shaw, Bart., G.M. Scotland.
Rosslyn Rt. Hon. the Earl of, K.T., Past Grand Master Scotland.
Athole His Grace the Duke of, K.T., Past Grand Master Scotland.
Arnold Rev. C. W., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Surrey.
Beach W. W. B., M.P., Prov. G. Master Hampshire and Isle of Wight
Bennett Sir John, C.C., Grand Stewards' Lodge.
Bird Reginald, M.A., S.G.D. England, Deputy Prov. G. Master Oxon.
Bright Sir Charles T., Dep. Prov. G.M. Middlesex.
Broadley A. M., D.D.G.M. Malta, Prov. G.M.M.M. Tunis and Malta.
Brownrigg General J. Studholme, C.B., Prov. Grand Master and Sup. Surrey.
Burdett Colonel Francis, Prov. Grand Master Middlesex, G. Supt. Middlesex, P.S.G.W., Rep. from Grand Lodge of Ireland.
Burrell Sir Walter W., Bart. M.P., P.G.M. Sussex.
Carington Right Hon. Lord
Calthorpe Maj.-Gen. Hon. Somerset J.G., J.G. W.
Cockcroft Lonsdale M., Deputy Prov. G. Master Northumberland.
Clarke Hyde, Past Grand Master and Rep. from Grand Lodge of Columbia.
Ebrington Rt. Hon. Viscount, P.G.M. Devonshire.
Ferrers Rt. Hon. the Earl, P G.M. Leicestershire.
Ferrieres Baron de, Prov. G. Reg. Gloucestershire.
Gooch Sir Daniel, Bt., M.P., P.G.M. Berks & Bucks.
Grosvenor Right Hon. Lord Richard, P.S.G.W.
Gundry J. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Dorset.
Halford Lieut.-Col. Sir Henry St. John, Bart., D. Prov. G. Master Leicestershire and Rutland.
Halsey Thomas F., M.P., P.G.M. Hertfordshire.
Hastington, Rt. Hon. Viscount, M.P., Prov. G. Master, D rbyshire.
Hayes Rev. Sir John Warren, Bart., P.D.P.G.M. Berks and Bucks, P.G.C.
Hendiker Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W., S.G.W.M.M., P.P.G.W. Suffolk.
Hickman W., P.A.G D. of C., D. Prov. G.M. Hants and Isle of Wight.
Hughe Rev. J., P.G.C., P P G M. Devonshire.
Iles F. H. Wilson, M.D., Deputy Prov. G. Masetr Hertfordshire, Prov. G.H., &c.
Inverurie Rt. Hon. Lord, P G.M. Kincardineshire, P.G. Supt. Angus and Mearns, S.G.W. Scotland.
Johnstone Sir Harcourt, Bt., M.P., P.J.G W.
Kensington Rt. Hon. Lord, M.P., S.G.W. England, D. Prov. G.M. S. Wales (Western Division.)
Lacmere Sir Edmund A. H., Bart., M.P., Prov. G.M. Worcestershire.
L'Estrange Col. H. Peisley, P.G. Supt. Norfolk.
Lloyd-Phillipps Col. John Allen, Prov. G. Master South Wales (Western Division).
Londesborough Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W.
Martyn Rev. C. J., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Suffolk.
Masefield William, D.P.G.M. Worcestershire.
Millon G., S.G.D. England, D. Prov. G.M. E. Lanc.
Okeover Haughton Charles, P.G.W., Dep. P.G. Master Derbyshire.
Owen Sir Philip Cunliffe, K.C.M.G., C.B., S.W. 1156.
Percy Rt. Hon. Earl, M.P., P.G.M. Northumberland.
Perkins, Sir Frederick, M.P., P.M. 130, P.P.S.G. W. Hants, P.P.S.G.W.M.M.M., &c.
Postal Rev. Geo. Raymond, P.M. 10, P.G.M.M.M.
Purey-Cust Ven. Archdeacon A. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Berks and Bucks.
Scott J. H., Dep. Prov. G.M. Sussex.
Spencer-Stanhope Rev. C. W., G. Chap., Dep. Prov. G.M. Cheshire
Starkie Col. Le Gendre N., Prov. G.M. East Lanc.
Tew T. W., Dep. Prov. G.M. West Yorks.
Truscott Sir Francis Wyatt, Lord Mayor of London, P.M. No. 1, P. Pres, Board of G. Stewards.
Watson John, Dep. Prov. G.M. Notts.
Waveney Rt. Hon. Lord, Prov. G. Master Suffolk.
Wigram Rev. Spencer R., P.G.C., D.P.G.M. Essex.
Wilkins Butler, Dep. P.G.M. Northa and Hunts.
Zetland Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Prov. Grand Master North and East Yorkshire.

Ace Rev. Daniel, D.D., F.R.A.S., P.P.G.C. Linc. G. Chap. Mark.
Adams Herbert J., P.M. 569, P.Z. 11, 1237.
Addie & C. C., 1307.
Adlard F., P.M. 7, P.Z. 214, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Essex.
Albert E. P., P.G.P., Sec. 188, 1017, &c.
Alpass Horace S., Prov. G. Sec. W. Lanc.
Andrews Joseph, 209, St. James Chap. A.S.A.E.
Armstrong R. L., P.M. 406, P.G.S.B. Northumberland
Ayling T., P.M. 1066, P.P.G.D. of C. Kent.
Ayton Rev. W. A., P.M. 569.
Bagshawe Rev. Augustus A., M.A., P.G. Chap., P.P.S.G.W. Derbyshire, G. Chap. Mark, &c.
Baker E., P.P.G.S. of W. Berks and Bucks.
Baldwin —, P.P.J.G.D. Middlesex.
Bauer G. L. 188.
Barfield —.
Barratt T., J.D. 3.
Barwell H.G., P.M. 52 P.G.Sec. Norfolk.
Basnett N. J. F.
Beasley A., P.M. 780, 1612.
Beer Edwin, P.M. 1449.
Belfrage D. M., W.M. 179.
Bell J., P.M. 1356, 1609, P.Z. 1356, P.P.J.G.D.
Bell W.
Berrio J. W., W.M. 1185.
Berry John J., P.M. 554.
Best Alfred, 211.
Biggs W., P.Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Binckes F., P.G.S., Sec. R.M.I.B.
Blackburn George, S.W. 284.
Blackwell E. J., S.D. 1101.
Boggis Arthur.
Boulter E. Reeve.
Boulton Babington, P.M., P.Z., P.P.G.D.
Bradley R., Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Brine Col. Frederic, R.E., P.M.
Brown H., Sec. 1764 P.G.S. Norths and Hunts.
Brown Richard, P.M. 241, P.Z. 1356, Hon. Sec. West Lanc. Masonic Educational Institution.
Bulley F. A., P.P.G.S.B. Berks and Bucks.
Burney Lieut.-Col. W. S. Somerville, P.P.S.G.D. Essex. P.M. 1615.
Burt, Ex-Sheriff George, A.G.D.C.
Carter J. O., Sec. 209, P.P.G.D of C. Berks & Bucks.
Cartar Q.-M. Sergt. W., Sec. 1449.
Cattelle A., J.D. 31.
Challen Chas., I.G. 3.
Chalmers T. W., P.M. 726.
Clark Matthew, J.G.D. England.
Clarke Stephenson.
Clench Major E.
Collins Rev. J. W., P.G.C. Suffolk, S.W. 1823.
Collins R. H.
Conolly Dr., 1185.
Constable John, P.M. 185.
Cooke Alfred.
Cooke Charles, W.M. 1823.
Cooper F.
Cordley W., 574, 1101.
Cronin F., P.M. 231.
Cousins C., S.D. 209.
Cuthush James, P.M. 1385, Treas. 1731, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Herts.
Davage F. B., P.M. and T. 201, P.M. 167, P.Z. 185.
Davis G., J.W. 187
Davy C. R.
Dawkins Edward.
Dewar D. M., P.M. 1415, Assistant Grand Secretary, M.M.M.
Dosell J.W.M., P.M. 55 463 1789, P.P.G.D.C. Surrey.
Dover J., 591.
Durrant Captain, P.M. 1185.
Emmerson Charles.
Emmerson R. Joynes, P.M. 1206, P.P.J.G.W. Kent.
Ewins S.D., P.M. 766.
Exton R., P.M. 481, Prov. S.G.W. Northumberland.
Fenner A. W., S.W. 1227, J.W. 1694.
Fielder Baron, P.M., P.S.G.W. Berks and Bucks.
Flowerden Edward.
Frank, C. H., 1764.
Fraser J. A., 948.
Freeman, Vincent P., Prov. G. Sec. Sussex.
Frere E. T.
Gardiner G., Secretary 749.
Gee Fred. W., 1221, I.G. 1823.
Gibb T. Eccleston, 34.
Gilbert E. C., P.M., P.Z. 221, 293.
Gladwell Arthur E., J.W. 172.
Gleadall Rev. J. W., P.M. 1, P.G. Chap., Chaplain to Foundling Hospital.
Godfrey Henry, P.M. 82, P.S.G.W. Gloucestershire.
Godson A. F., Q.C.
Goodall H S.
Greenfield John, Treas. 1602.
Greenwood George H., P.M. 1224.
Hamp T.
Harriott G., P.P.G.M. Wigtown and Kirkcudbright.
Harris S. M., Sec. 406.
Harvey —.
Hawkins E. C., P.G.S. Oxon.
Hedges Fentham, W.M. 478, P.P.G. Sec. Oxfords.
Hemsley —, 771.
Henry Chaplin.
Higham P., P.M. 31, P.P.J.G.W. Kent.
Hodges H. Howard, P.M. 795, P.Z. 771, P.P.S.G.W., and P.G. Reg. [Arch] Berks and Bucks.
Hogg Dr. Jabez, P.G.D., P.M. 172, 1209.
Hopekirk W., P.M. Treas. 179, P.M. 1580, P.Z. 742.
Hopper W.
Hopwood E., P.M. 141, 209, P.G.S.B. Middlesex.
Horsley Charles P.P.G.R., P. Soj. Middlesex., P.Z.
Howkins Thos. P.M. 468, 933, P.P.G.W. and Sec. to Charity Committee of Warwickshire.
Howorth Sergt.-Major J. F., Steward 1149.
Hubbard C., W.M. 820.
Inman Edwin H., P.J.W. 1312.
Irvine J.
Jackson J. H., W.M. 654.
Jacobs J., P.M. 982, P.P.G. Reg. Staffordshire.
James W. H., P.M. 592, P.P.G.D.C. Gloucestershire.
Johnson E., P.M. 140.
Johnson H. J., S.W. 1791, J.D. 186, I.G. 1624.
Jones E. Stanton, P.M. and Secretary 1310.
Jones Robert E., W.M. 1224.
Kay J., 742
Kenning George, P.P.G.D. Middlesex.
Kent A., 1425.
Kirby Edward, P.M. 1066.
Klamborowski Leonard, J.W. 1823.
Lake Wm., P.M. 131, P.P.G. Reg.
Lanham Henry C.
Le Feuvre John E., Prov. G. Sec. Hants and I. of W.
Levy H. M., P.M. 188, &c.
Lewis W. Lambton.
Lloyd Horatio, J.G.D.
Lucas W. H., P.G.S.B., Prov. G. Sec. Suffolk.
Lucking A., P.M., P.Z., Prov. G.D. of C. Essex.
Maidwell T. J., P.M. 27.
Marshall Horace Brooks, C.C., Treas. 1777.
Massy H., P.M. 619.
Matier C. F., P.G.S.W. Greece, P.M. 645, P.G.W. Mark
MatherJohn L., P.M., P.G.D.C. Herts.
Meggy Thos., 10, P.M. 21, P.G.S.
Miskin H., W.M. 1449.
Morgan W. W., Sec. 211.
Morris Rev. R., Head Master R.M.I.B.
Morris W., Treas. 1566.
Motion George, P.M. 453, P.P.G.S.W. Essex.
Moutrie W. F. C., P.M. 11.
Murray J. Joyce.
Nairne P. A., P.M. and Treasurer 176.
Naylor H. T., P.M. 1449.
Newcomb J., 742.
Newsom W., P.M. 1661, P.J.G.W. Notts.
Newton James, P.M., P.Z., P.G. S. N. East Lanc.
Nicholes W. S., S.W. 209.
Orellana James, J.W. Mark 244.
Pass W., P.M. and Treasurer 28.
Palmer T.
Passawer Dr. E., W.M. 244 Mark.
Payton F. W., J.D. 182.
Pears Andrew, W.M. 865, J.W. 209.
Pepper J. F., W.M. 482.
Percival Captain H. P., 1261.
Perryman W. H., P.M. 3.
Petts E. J., 209.
Phillips W. Page T., P. Prov. S.G.W. Suffolk, G.H.
Pollitzer S., P.M. 1017, P.Z. 188, 538.
Rabling T. J., Prov. G. Sec. Essex.
Radcliffe T. H. 511.
Radcliffe W., S.W. 211.
Randall Rev. W., P.M. 448, P.G.C. Warwicks. and Staffs., Z. 482, E. 43, P.P.G.S., &c.
Ravenshaw Rev. F. F., P.G.C., P.M. 10, 663, P.Z. 632.
Reed H., P.M. 733.
Rere E. T.
Roach H. H., P.M. 874, 1523, P.Z. 1118, Past Prov. Grand Secretary Oxon.
Richards A. A., P.G.S., P.G.W. Middlesex.
Roberts Henry, 55.
Roberts Robert, P.M. 742, W.M. 209, Prov. G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Robbins Rev. J., D.D., P.M. 1635, P.G. Chaplain Middlesex, W.M. 1765.
Rogers Rev. W.
Rosenthal S., P.M. 435, P.Z. 110, P.P.S.G.W. Middx.
Row C. J. N.
Sanders Rev. S. J. W., M.A. LL.M., &c. W.M. 1764, C. 360, Prov. G. Chap. Norths. and Hunts.
Saunders C. G., 328, 1609.
Saunders W. H., W.M. 889, P.P.G D. Mdx., P.M. 1503.
Seller A., 414, P P.G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Sharpe W. H. C., W.M. 795.
Shaw Rev. R. D., W.M. 85.
Sherren J. A., W.M. 170, P.P.G.W. Dorset.
Short Rev. W. F., Past G.C., 10, 357, 1383, 1637.
Simpson Rev. R. J., P.G.C., P.M. 10.
Smith H. S. Cooper, P.M. 478, 1523, 1731, P.Z. 357, P. Prov. G.W. Oxon.
Smith S. H., P.M. 468, 938, P.P.G.S.D. Warwick.
Snelling W. Walton, Sec. 1056, and of Metropolitan Masonic Benevolent Association.
Spice R.P., W.M., P.G.S.
Starkey N. A.
Steedman W., P.M. 754.
Stendwell —, P.M., P.G.S.
Stephens G. H., 1623.
Steven s James, P.M. 720 1216 1426, P.Z. 720 771.
Stiles W. M., Secretary 1507, 1732, 1744.
Stohwasser J., P.M. 238 435, P.Z. 8, P.G.S.
Storr E. F., W.M. 1679, P.M. 22.
Stuart Col. William, P.G.W., P.P.G.W. Herts.
Tamplin Augustus L., 441.
Taylor George, P.M. and Tr. 377, P.S G.D. Worcestr.
Terry James, P.P.J.G.W. Herts, Sec. R.M.B.I.
Tombs H. C., P.G.D.
Torkington A.
Townsend G. J., P.M., W.M. 1086, J. 1086.
Tracey Nathaniel.
Verry G. Ward, P.M. and Sec. 554 1278 1421, J.D. 1580, S.W. 1625, P.Z. 554 1385, P.P.G.P.S. Herts.
Vickery S. A.
Walsh Arthur, 1101, P.P.G.R. Berks and Bucks.
Watts G. H.
Watts J. W., P.M. 1201, &c.
Weaver James, P.M. 862 1319, P.Z. 177 862 1319, P.P.G. Org. Middx.
Welham Henry, P.M. 1224.
Wentworth T. J., W.M. 225, P.S.G.D. Suffolk.
Westfield W., P.M. 1561.
Wheeler Fred., P.P.G.R. Suffolk, P.M. and Sec. 1224.
Willing James, P.M. 177, P.M. and Treas. 1507, P.M. and Treas. 1744, P.Z. and Treas. 1507, Z. 1000.
Wilson J., P.M. and Treasurer 209.
Winter, James.
Withers Alfred, W.M. 211.
Woodford Rev. A. F. A., P.G. Chap.
Woolman Dr. W. B., P.G.S.B.
Woodward, E. C., P.M. 382 1637, &c.
Worlock, R. Montague, Prov. G. Sec. Bristol.
Wragg J. H., Prov. Grand Sec. Notts.

Caveac Lodge, No. 178, London.
Etonian Lodge, No. 209, Windsor.
St. Luke's Lodge, No. 225, Ipswich.
Lord Warden Lodge, No. 1096, Walmer.
Lewis Lodge, No. 1185, Wood Green.

Editor of "The Freemason."
Editor of "The Freemason's Chronicle."
Editor of "The Rosicrucian."
Editor of "The Scottish Freemason."

Brethren who desire to assist in establishing this Fund will oblige by forwarding their names to be added to the above List.

Circulars and Forms for Collecting, together with other information, may be had from either of the Secretaries of the Fund, as under:—

DICK RADCLYFFE, 129 High Holborn, London, W.C.

W. W. MORGAN Jun., Freemason's Chronicle Office.

The main objects of the fund will be—

To provide situations for the pupils on their leaving the Masonic Schools.

To watch their progress and offer aid and advice where needful.

To advance small amounts to aid in the purchase of tools, outfits, and, later in life, goodwills of businesses, &c.

To establish scholarships and otherwise support pupils at the Universities and other public schools, or assist boys who may desire to enter the Army or Navy, and aid them in obtaining commissions.

And generally to watch over the future of the pupils, and help them in securing success in life.

Digitized by Google

CANNON STREET HOTEL, CANNON STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Has been thoroughly renovated; the Railway advantages, in direct communication with the Hotel, render this establishment unequalled in the Metropolis for

MASONIC BANQUETS, PUBLIC & PRIVATE DINNERS, BREAKFASTS, &c.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENTS, PUBLIC MEETINGS, ARBITRATIONS, &c.

THE LARGE HALL IS CAPABLE OF SEATING UPWARDS OF TWELVE HUNDRED PEOPLE.

VISITORS AND FAMILIES visiting LONDON, for LONG or SHORT PERIODS, will find the APPOINTMENTS, and ACCOMMODATION UNRIVALLED.

E. H. RAND, MANAGER.

ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY Limited, 7 Bank Buildings, Lothbury, E.C.

General accidents. | Personal injuries.
Railway accidents. | Death by accident.

C. HARDING, Manager.

MASONIC CHARITIES AUGMENTATION FUND.

(In connection with St. Michael's Lodge of Instruction.)

BRETHREN wishing to serve as Stewards at either of the Festivals of 1880 can qualify as Life Governors by a payment of 2s per week.

Address W. W. MORGAN JUN., SEC.
67 Barbican, E.C.

TAMAR INDIEN.

SPECIAL CAUTION.

OWING to the marked success of this medicine, the only patent medicine universally prescribed by the faculty, and the acknowledged cure for constipation, headache, bile, hæmorrhoids, &c., BASE IMITATIONS, containing drastic irritants, are being foisted on the public. The genuine preparation bears the title "Tamar Indien," and the signature E. GRILLON, Colemanst., London, E.C. Price 2-6d per box. In a recent case, 1876, G. No. 211, a perpetual injunction to restrain the defendant from applying the name "Tamar" to his lozenges was awarded, with costs, by Vice-Chancellor Bacon, on 9th January 1877, and all such piracies will be summarily proceeded against.——N.B.—See that the outer wrapper (directions) are printed in the English language and that each box bears the Government 3d stamp.

PARLEZ-VOUS FRANÇAIS?

MANY of whom this question is asked will say, I can read it and write it, but can't speak it. A neat little volume for the Pocket has just been published by an Ex-Inspector of Public Schools; all the most useful verbs as used in ordinary conversation are therein embodied, alphabetically arranged on an entirely new plan, and printed in large type in French and English, a most rapid system, indispensible to teachers and other persons teaching themselves the language. Sent post free to any address on receipt of ninepence in stamps to

Monsieur QUERECKE,
43 Rue des Roses, Courbevoie, Paris.

Postage of Letter to France, 2½d.

W. BEASLEY,

Bespoke Boot Maker,

23 Queen Victoria Street.

HUNTING, RIDING, DRESS AND BOOTS FOR THE MOORS,

MADE IN A FEW DAYS.

Specialite—Hand Sewn and Standard

RHEUMATISM.

THE only real remedy for this complaint is the Northern Cure (patent). In bottles 1s 1½d each, to be had of all Chemists. Proprietors and Manufacturers, Edwards and Alexander, 29 Blackett-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

BILLIARD BALLS, Chalks, Cues, and Tips, at HENNING BROS.' Ivory Works, 11 High Street, London, W.C. Cheapest house in the trade for billiard table requisites and ivory goods in general. Old balls adjusted or exchanged, and tables recovered. Price List on application.

Established 1802.

Bro. A. OLDROYD, Stratford, London,

MANUFACTURER OF TOBACCO POUCHES,

With any name in raised letters.

CAN be obtained direct from the Maker, at the undermentioned prices, on receipt of P.O.O. payable at Stratford.

	Price		Will take a name of 9 letters
No. 3	2/0	...
„ 4	2/6	...	11 „
„ 5	3/0	...	12 „
„ 6	3/6	...	13 „
„ 7	4/0	...
„ 8	4/6	...
„ 9	5/0	...

A. OLDROYD,

Agent for Algerian Cigars, and Importer of Havana and Continental Cigars,

361 HIGH STREET, STRATFORD, LONDON, E.

HOTELS, ETC.

EALING—Feathers Hotel

EASTBOURNE—Pier Hotel, Cavendish Place. View of Sea and Pier. A. TAYLOR Proprietor

KEW—Star and Garter. Good accommodation for Lodge & Dinner Parties. J. BRILL Proprietor

SANDWICH—Bell Family and Commercial Hotel, Good Stabling. J. J. FILMER Proprietor

WOOD GREEN—Kings Arms Hotel. A. B. GREENSLADE Proprietor

YORK—Queen's Family and Commercial Hotel, Micklegate. H. CHURCHILL Proprietor

LONDON.

CALTHORPE ARMS—252 Gray's Inn Road, W.C. Billiards, Pool, Pyramids, &c. Best Wines and Spirits. W. H. G. RUDDERFORTH Proprietor

CANNING TOWN—Liverpool Arms. J. PAVITT. Friars L. of Instruction, 1349, Tuesdays at 7.30

GREEN DRAGON—Spring Garden-place, Stepney Wines and Spirits of the best quality. Billiards. Banquets provided for large or small parties. Yarborough L. & C. 554, and Temple Mark L. 173 held here. Lodge of Instruc. (554) meets every Tuesday at 8. A. WALTER Proprietor

MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT—Moorgate Street, E.C. Hot and Cold Dinners, &c. Chops and Steaks. Good accommodation for Lodge Meetings, &c. A. KENT Proprietor

NEW MARKET HOTEL—King Street, Snow Hill, E.C. Good accommodation for Club and other Banquets. Wines and Spirits of best quality. Specially licensed for Masonic Balls. Lodges 1623 and 1677 are held here. Strong Man No. 15 and West Smithfield No. 1623 Lodges of Instruction, meet here, every Monday at 8 p.m. Thomas HUTT Proprietor

SAWYER'S (late Station) RESTAURANT, 5 Railway Place, Fenchurch Street, E.C. English, French, and German Cuisine. Wines of the best quality. Hot and Cold Luncheons, Chops, Steaks, &c. Tea and Coffee. F. J. SAWYER (late of Pimm's and Crystal Palace) Proprietor

---

MEMORY EXTRAORDINARY BY CORRESPONDENCE.—Particulars post free of Bro. William Stokes, Teacher of Memory, Royal Polytechnic, 309 Regent-street, London, W. Private lessons by appointment. Class on Tuesdays, 3 and 8.30. The System complete in Three Lessons, "Stokes on Memory," by post 14 stamps. Memory Globe, 14 stamps.

Now Edition, Enlarged, Crown 8vo., Cloth 5s.

WAIFS AND STRAYS, CHIEFLY FROM THE CHESS BOARD, by Captain Hugh R. Kennedy, Vice-President of the British Chess Association.

W. W. MORGAN, 67 BARBICAN, LONDON.

C. HUBBARD,

Plain & Fancy Box & Pattern

CARD MANUFACTURER.

139 & 141 NEW NORTH ROAD,

AND

64 SHAFTESBURY ST., LONDON, N.

POSITIONS IN THE CHESS OPENINGS MOST FREQUENTLY PLAYED.

Illustrated with copious Diagrams.

By T. LONG, B.A., T.C.D.,

Being a supplement to the Key to the "Chess Openings," by the same author.

ARTHUR ALLISON & CO.

Pianoforte, American Organ and Harmonium

MANUFACTURERS,

40 GREAT MARLBOROUGH STREET, W.

Sole London Agents for Dawes & Ramsden's Patent Melody and Pedal Substitute Organs, as supplied to Her Majesty and H.R.H. the Princess Louise.

Full Illustrated Price Lists post free on application to No. 40 Great Marlborough Street.

NOTE ADDRESS—a change having recently been made in the same.

ADAM S. MATHER,

GAS ENGINEER, GENERAL GAS FITTER AND BELL HANGER

MANUFACTURER OF BILLIARD LIGHTS

AND OF EVERY DESCRIPTION OF GAS APPARATUS FOR COOKING AND HEATING

Bath Rooms Fitted up. All the Latest Improvements Introduced.

MANUFACTORY—12 CHARLES STREET, HATTON GARDEN, E.C.;

AND AT 278 CALEDONIAN ROAD, ISLINGTON, N.

ESTIMATES GIVEN.

PIANOFORTES AND HARMONIUMS ON EASY TERMS.

GROVER & GROVER

LET ON HIRE, WITH OPTION OF PURCHASE,

BEAUTIFUL AND PERFECT INSTRUMENTS.

PURCHASERS CHOOSE THEIR OWN TERMS,

FROM 15s TO £3 3s PER QUARTER.

The Advantages of a Trial, with the Convenience of the Three Years' System at Cash Price, by Paying about a Quarter of the value down, the Balance by Easy Payments, from 13s per quarter.

GROVER & GROVER, 157-9 Kingsland Road.

ESTABLISHED 1830.

HOUGHTON,

THE BOOT MAKER,

243 & 244 WHITECHAPEL ROAD,

LONDON, E.

Lasts made to the Feet.

—:o:—

SPECIALITE,

EASE, ELEGANCE AND DURABILITY.

Digitized by Google

EDWARD STILLWELL AND SON,

25, 26 and 27 BARBICAN, AND 6 LITTLE BRITAIN, LONDON,
109 ARGYLE STREET, GLASGOW,

Gold Lacemen, Embroiderers and Sword Cutlers,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Masonic Fittings for Lodges, Chapters and Encampments.

CLOTHING, JEWELS (PINS, STUDS AND RINGS), FOR EVERY DEGREE.

Aprons, Sashes, Horns, Ornaments and Banners for Foresters, Odd Fellows, Orangemen, Free Gardeners, &c.

REGALIA FOR I.O.G.T. AND ALL SOCIETIES.

LIBERAL TERMS TO SHIPPERS.

H. T. LAMB,

MANUFACTURER OF

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND REGALIA,

5 ST. JOHN SQUARE, LONDON.

PRICE LIST, CONTAINING 120 ILLUSTRATIONS, POST FREE ON APPLICATION.

JOSEPH J. CANEY,

DIAMOND MERCHANT, AND MANUFACTURING JEWELLER AND WATCH MAKER,
44 CHEAPSIDE, LONDON.

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND FURNITURE.
Specialité—First Class Jewels—Artistic—Massive—Best Quality—Moderate in Price.
CATALOGUES POST FREE.
A LARGE STOCK OF LOOSE BRILLIANTS FOR EXPENSIVE JEWELS.
Diamond Rings, Brooches, Studs, Earrings and Bracelets in Great Variety.

MASONIC JEWELS FOR ALL DEGREES.

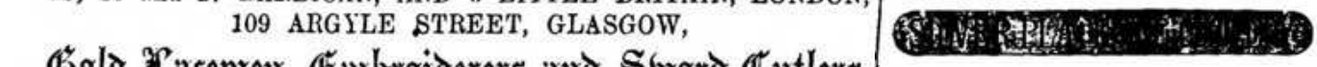
MINIATURE WAR MEDALS AND DECORATIONS.
ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD IN ALL SIZES.
ATHLETIC SPORTS MEDALS AND BADGES.
A. D. LOEWENSTARK & SONS, Medallists, 210 STRAND, LONDON, W.C.
MANUFACTORY—1 DEVEREUX COURT, STRAND.

J. FORTESCUE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,
129 FLEET ST.; 114 & 115 SHOE LANE,
(One door from Fleet Street)
6 EXMOUTH STREET, CLERKENWELL, E.C.
And 143 Mare Street, Triangle, Hackney
Gents' Silk Hats from 5/6 each. Second best 6/6 7/6 8/6
Superfine quality, 10/6 12/6 & 16/. The very best made 21/.
Felt Hats, hard and soft, in all the newest shapes,
from 3/6 to 10/6.

J. E. SHAND & CO.

Wine Merchants,



(EXPERTS AND VALUERS OF WINES AND SPIRITS.)
2 ALBERT MANSIONS, VICTORIA STREET, LONDON, S.W.

PRICES DELIVERED IN LONDON.

SHERRIES	21s, 24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s	CHAMPAGNES	36s, 42s, 48s, 54s, 60s
PORTS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	BURGUNDY	18s, 20s, 24s, 36s, 42s
CLARETS	12s, 16s, 18s, 20s, 24s, 36s	BRANDIES	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s, 66s
MOSELLES & HOCKS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s	WHISKIES	20s per gall., 42s per doz.

COUNTRY ORDERS OVER £3 CARRIAGE FREE.
5 PER CENT. DISCOUNT FOR CASH WITH ORDER.

DETAILED PRICE LIST ON APPLICATION.

Fish Carvers, Fish Eating Knives and Forks, Revolving Covered Soup and Luncheon Dishes.

SPECIALITIES FOR TESTIMONIALS,
TEA AND COFFEE SERVICES,
SALVERS, DESSERT KNIVES AND FORKS, GILT AND OXYDIZED GOODS.

77 (from 28) Cheapside, London, E.C.
(NEAR THE POULTRY.)

MORING,

ENGRAVER, DIE SINKER,
HERALDIC ARTIST, -
ILLUMINATED ADDRESSES,
44, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST POST FREE.

ADLARD'S JEWEL ATTACHER 7/6.
If with Pockets, 6d each Pocket extra.

225 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

JANES & SON

WINDOW BLINDS ONLY,

WHOLESALE,
ALDERSCATE STREET, CITY, E.C.
BRANCH—
4 EAGLE PLACE, PICCADILLY
THESE ADDRESSES ONLY.

YOUNG'S Arnicated Corn and Bunion Plaisters are the best ever invented for giving immediate ease, and removing those painful excrescences. Price 6d and 1s per box. Any Chemist not having them in stock can procure them.

Observe the Trade Mark—H. Y.—without which none are genuine. Be sure and ask for Young's.

Horticultural Decorations, Fernaries, Window Gardening, Seeds, Bulbs, Plants, Ferns, PLANTS FOR DECORATION. Masonic Banquets, Balls, &c.

DICK RADCLYFFE & CO., F.R.H.S.

129 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

TABLE DECORATIONS, Ball Room Decorations, Seeds for Export. Illustrated Catalogues gratis and post free. Seeds, Bulbs, &c. carefully packed for Export.

NEW MASONIC ROOMS,

COMPLETE SUITE,
SPECIALLY ARRANGED
LODGE, BANQUETTING,
AND ANTE ROOMS,
ALL ON ONE FLOOR.
Particulars to be had of
BRO. A. KENT, MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT,
OPPOSITE RAILWAY STATION,
From which trains run at frequent intervals in connection with the Great Northern, Midland, Great Western, London Chatham & Dover, and Metropolitan Railways.

Printed and Published for the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE PUBLISHING COMPANY LIMITED, by Bro. WILLIAM WRAY MORGAN, at 67 Barbican, London, E.C., Saturday, 27th December 1879.

Digitized by Google

THE

Freemason's Chronicle;

A WEEKLY RECORD OF MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

SANCTIONED BY THE GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

Registered at the G.P.O. as a Newspaper.

VOL. XI.—No. 262. SATURDAY, 3rd JANUARY 1880. [Issued to Subscribers, 13s 6d per annum, post free.

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND.

AT the beginning of the year 1880, we think it well to pause and survey the position of the Masonic Charity Fund which has been established during the latter half of the past year. In so doing we are but obeying the law of custom, for as year after year passes by, and seasons come round, most of us like to look back on the past as well as make plans for the future—either to rejoice at the success of our undertakings, or regret their failure or non-fulfilment. In the case of the Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund it is with pleasure we examine the present position of affairs. The success that has attended the efforts of the founders is certainly far beyond anything that could have been anticipated, or the most sanguine could have predicted. Only six months since, at the Festival of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys, the members of the English Craft were told that there was a blot on those excellent Charities, on the maintenance of which they so justly prided themselves. The Earl of Rosslyn, in pointing out what he termed a little fault said, he was sure he had only to mention it to find it immediately corrected. Although we do not for one moment doubt the sincerity of our esteemed Brother's remarks, we hardly think he could have been so sanguine as to have imagined that his suggestion would have been thus speedily acted upon, nor do we think there were many of his hearers, no matter how much they may have coincided with his views, who would have been so bold as to think that a Fund similar to that suggested by his Lordship would be started, and that before the close of the year sufficient support would be received to permit of its being pronounced as firmly established, with every prospect of a brilliant future. A few days after the Festival Bro. Dick Radclyffe, in a letter addressed to the editors of the London Masonic newspapers, directed more general attention to the subject, and since that time he has exerted himself in every conceivable way to secure the foundation of an "Assistance Fund." A reference to our fourteenth page, whereon will be found a list of the Patrons up to the present time, is the best evidence that can be adduced in support of our verdict, that Bro. Radclyffe's endeavours have been crowned with success. From the first we have striven to aid the cause, and have had the pleasure of working with Bro. Radclyffe in the foundation of this Charity. At the same time we must not omit to credit him with by far the larger share of the honour of having inaugurated the Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund, for the majority of the brethren who have thus far given their names as supporters have been secured through his personal solicitation. Up to the present time the main object has been to obtain a strong foundation for the Fund, and this desire having been gratified, the real work of the projectors may be said to have commenced. Now it will be necessary to draw up rules for the government of the Charity, decide to whom and how the benefits shall be applied, and last, but not least, to secure the co-operation and support of the general body of members of the Craft. The latter task, stupendous though it is, should be somewhat of an easy one, when we take into consideration the position of the brethren who have already supported the formation of the Fund. The list, as will be seen, is headed by the name of the M.W. the Grand Master of England H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, who has made a personal donation of twenty-five guineas; his is followed by that of H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, who has sent twenty guineas, and H.R.H. Prince Leopold, who promises a like amount. The M.W. the Grand Masters of Ireland and Scotland each support the proposal, and then figure the names of our respected Pro Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master, Lords Carnarvon and Skelmersdale, as desiring the prosperity of the Fund. It is unnecessary for us to detail at length the numerous other Grand Officers and Past Grand Officers who support the scheme; suffice it to say that their number, as well as their rank, should be sufficient to stamp the proposal as a success from the outset. Of the forty Grand Masters who rule the various provinces into which English Freemasonry is subdivided, eighteen appear in the list of patrons, while twenty-two Deputy Provincial Grand Masters are numbered on the roll. These brethren represent twenty-five of the provinces, that is more than one-half the whole number. It will be an easy matter for them to lay the subject before the members of their respective provinces, and in this way alone we imagine a vast amount of good may be done. It appears now certain that the period has arrived for strong action on the part of the Craft in order to stop the number of disappointments which periodically take place on the occasions of the elections for the three Masonic Institutions, and if this Fund can be made the means of preventing some portion of the heartburning that must ensue after an unsuccessful ballot, the founders will be amply rewarded for any little trouble they may have gone to in starting it. Already several districts have taken the matter of Charity into their own hands, and in most cases success attends their efforts. On the principle that a little aid is preferable to no aid at all, we hope soon to chronicle the fact that the Committee of the Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund are in a position to offer something, however small it may be, to each of the unsuccessful candidates of the other Masonic Charities. This may hardly have been the idea of the Earl of Rosslyn when he referred to the matter, but the support already received is so great that we think this addition to the original idea is justifiable, and we are certain that Lord Rosslyn will never complain that his remarks are bearing too much fruit. The future alone can decide what it will be in the power of the Committee to undertake.

We now desire to support the Special Appeal which is being made to the brethren throughout the country on behalf of this Fund, and we hope that every subscriber to the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE will in some way or other assist in the first year's work. As, doubtless, is well known to our readers, it is proposed to hold a Bazaar on 29th and 30th June and 1st and 2nd July next, and for this a large supply of fancy articles is desirable—nay, even necessary. We hope our brethren will prove themselves so liberal in their support of this undertaking that it will not be necessary for the Committee who may have the arrangement of details to purchase articles. Considering the extent to which Freemasonry is practised at the present day, it should surely not be possible to say that a Bazaar for so good an object failed for lack of support. We know arrangements are already made for various entertainments to be given during the four days the Bazaar is open, and little now remains but to secure a good stock of wares. Bro. Best has acted most liberally in giving the use of the large hall and suite of rooms, and everything augurs well for the success of the project if only the brethren will come forward and assist the Committee. We sincerely trust that the Craft will rally round us in establishing the Fund, and that the year 1880 will long be memorable for the splendid totals realised by the Masonic Charities.

Digitized by Google

OUR CHARITIES—A YEAR'S WORK.

THE support given to the three central Masonic Charities during the year that has just closed brings the total receipts for the twelve months up to an amount unprecedented in the history of the Institutions, and this notwithstanding the fact that as year by year goes round the sums contributed for Provincial local Masonic Charities are greatly increased. The total of the income of the three which may be termed universal—if not by reason of the support accorded to them, at least from the fact that their aid is sought for and partaken of universally—amounts to £44,731 9s 3d, a splendid result, and one of which English Masons may justly be proud; for it must be borne in mind that this represents the receipts of three only of the Masonic charitable organisations. We are occasionally told that the amount annually raised for these Institutions is but a small sum per head, and that, compared with the expenditure on banquets, jewels, and other luxuries, it is very insignificant. We are quite prepared to admit, if taken amount against amount, without any consideration as to the objects, that there is a wide difference, but we think it is hardly justifiable to say that every Mason is necessarily compelled to support these three particular Charities—whether they are worked according to his ideas or not—to the extent that he does the banquet table of his Lodge. The experience of the past few weeks has led many good-hearted brethren to ask whether the subscriptions are in all cases judiciously applied, while the ever increasing number of rejected candidates renders it imperative that something special should be done in order to assist a greater number, even if only partially, and yet to this course there seems to be a strong feeling of opposition. It is not always policy for a majority to assert their supremacy, for by so doing they may drive the minority away altogether. To prevent this taking place in connection with the central Charities, we again advise a spirit of co-operation rather than opposition, on the part of those brethren who, because they think themselves able to whip up a majority for a particular meeting, seem determined to have their own way, without any consideration for the opinions of others. At the present time, everything must be worked in accordance with the go-a-head business spirit of the age, and when it is imagined that our Charities are to be an exception to the rule, a grave error is committed, which can have but one result—the diminution of the subscriptions, if not entire withdrawal by sections or districts. The whole question of Masonic Charity should be carefully inquired into, and as it is thought that beneficial results may be obtained by outside education—even though it may be the idea of a small minority—a trial should be made of that system, in order practically to decide the matter.

The following are the actual figures for 1879. From these it will be seen that the Benevolent Institution again takes the lead with a total of £17,781 12s. 10d. or £2,901 10s. 3d. in excess of that realised in 1878, the amount that year being £14,880 2s. 7d. The second position is this year secured by the Boys', with a total of £13,924 4s. 4d., as compared with £13,130 18s. 7d. in 1878, an increase of £793 5s. 9d. The Girls' Institution brings up the rear, following pretty close on the Boys' with £13,025 12s. 1d., this is the only case where a diminution in the total of 1879, as compared with that of 1878, takes place. The sum realised in the latter year was £13,366 1s. 8d., so that the falling off really amounts to but £340 9s. 7d., a somewhat insignificant amount in proportion to the whole, but still of sufficient importance to demand particular attention, lest the deficiency be allowed to increase.

ROYAL MASONIC BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION.

	£	s	d
Donations and Subscriptions	14,123	10	6
United Grand Lodge (Grant from) ...	800	0	0
Supreme Grand Chapter do.	150	0	0
Dividends (1½ year)	2,686	4	4
Sundries	21	18	0
	£17,781	12	10

ROYAL MASONIC INSTITUTION FOR BOYS.

	£	s	d
Donations and Subscriptions	12,051	2	3
United Grand Lodge (grant from) ...	150	0	0
Supreme Grand Chapter do.	10	10	0
Dividends	301	5	0
Legacy	103	10	1
Purchased Admissions	714	0	0
Life Presentation	525	0	0
Miscellaneous	68	17	0
	£13,924	4	4

ROYAL MASONIC INSTITUTION FOR GIRLS.

	£	s	d
Donations and Subscriptions	11,179	18	0
United Grand Lodge (grant from) ...	150	0	0
Supreme Grand Chapter do.	10	10	0
Dividends	1,207	10	0
Legacies	123	9	1
Purchased Admissions	178	10	0
Miscellaneous	175	15	0
	£13,025	12	1

WEST SMITHFIELD LODGE BALL.

A VERY pleasant evening was spent by the members of this Lodge and their friends on Thursday, the 11th ult., on the occasion of the first Annual Ball. As is well known, the Lodge meets at the New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, of which Bro. Butt is the proprietor. He has recently succeeded in securing a license from the City authorities, allowing Masonic Balls at his establishment, and of this privilege the members of No. 1612 were the first to avail themselves. Dancing was kept up until a late hour to the strains of Cohen's band, and altogether the arrangements proved most satisfactory. Bro. T. Meekham acted as M.C., and presided at the supper table. The few toasts usual on such occasions were duly honoured, Bro. Meekham, in giving that of the host, wishing that every success might attend the efforts recently made by that brother to cater for the enjoyment of his brethren.

LODGE OF INDUSTRY BALL.

A BALL will be given by the members of the above Lodge, on Thursday, 8th January 1880, at the Freemasons' Tavern, Great Queen-street, Lincoln's Inn. The W.M. and brethren desire to make this an opportunity for friendly and fraternal greeting. Bros. W. H. Hook W.M. and D. J. Robinson P.M. will act as M.C.'s, and the following comprise the Board of Stewards,—Bros. W. Mann P.M. and Treas., C.W. Noehmer P.M., W.W. Philp S.W., J. J. Taffs I.G., G. Hook Organist, G. F. Stutchbury, F. Alexander, G. J. Dyer, A. Leon, J. Seex P.M., R. Allison J.W., H. J. Johnson J.D., J. G. Horsey W.S., S. Earl, H. C. Day, W. B. Marcus, H. Stubbings, A. Nagle, and T. Mackness. Dan Godfrey's Quadrille Band is engaged.

"UNITED MASONIC BALL."

THE Committee have pleasure in announcing to the brethren and their friends that they have made arrangements for the Second Annual United Masonic Ball, to take place at the Freemasons' Tavern, on Wednesday, 4th February 1880, and that they have secured the entire suite of rooms for the purpose. Relying upon the hearty co-operation of the brethren, and in order to secure the most perfect success, the Committee have determined to limit the number of Tickets. It is therefore necessary that an early application for the same be made. Bro. T. Goode is the Treasurer, and Bro. F. S. Rothschild the Hon. Sec. The brethren will be permitted to appear in Masonic Craft clothing and jewels. Mr. Dan. Godfrey and his celebrated Band have been retained. Bro. T. Meekham P.M. 1288 will act as M.C.

R.W. Bro. W. W. Beach, M.P., P.G.M. of Hampshire and the Isle of Wight, on Monday consecrated the new Masonic Hall erected by the Southampton Masonic Hall Company. There was a large gathering of brethren from all parts of the Province. The building is situated in Albion-place, and embraces a very fine Lodge room, banquetting-hall, chapter room, and usual offices.—Portsmouth Times.

Digitized by Google

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents.

We cannot undertake to return rejected communications.

All Letters must bear the name and address of the Writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

—:o:—

MILITARY MASONRY.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—Bro. T. B. Whytehead, in his communication of last week, suggests that the non-appreciation of York warrants by the local Militia (as instanced at p 34 of "Atholl Lodges") was probably due to the Officers of the Yorkshire Regiments being "scions of County families," whilst the Officers of the "Grand Lodge of All England" (York) were drawn from the trading classes."

This explanation would be perfectly satisfactory, if it were the case that, as a general rule, in Military or Regimental Masonry, the initiative was taken by the Officers.

On the contrary, however, and this mainly accounts for the preference exhibited by military brethren for the "Ancient" or working men's Grand Lodge. Regimental Lodges (of the last century), in nearly every case which I have been able fully to investigate, originated in the Masonic zeal of the rank and file, and, in the few instances where a Masonic spirit has pervaded an entire regiment, the love for the Craft has not spread downwards, but upwards, viz, from the soldier's barrack-room to the Officers' mess.

Nothing is more certain, than that the marvellous success of the "Ancient" or "Atholl" Grand Lodge (enabling it, as we are aware, to dictate its own terms at the "Union") was chiefly, if not entirely due, to its rigid observance of the principle of equality.

It was essentially a Grand Lodge of "Operatives" or "working men," ruled by brethren of their own selection; and the youngest "Atholl" initiate, if he cherished the laudable ambition of becoming a Grand Officer, knew that merit was the surest passport to preferment, and had no reason to fear that the practice of the "Moderns," under which rank and wealth had the preference, would be followed by the "Ancients," whose assertion of Masonic independence constituted, indeed, an enduring protest against the dangerous innovations made by the earlier Grand Lodge, upon the liberal and equalising spirit of Masonry.

It is but natural to suppose that the Masonic "polity" of the "Ancients," would commend itself to regimental non-commissioned officers, and as a matter of fact it did—for the Military Lodges of the "Ancients" at all times vastly outnumbered those of the "Moderns."

Of four Lodges held in the Royal Marines before the "Union," three were "Ancient" and one "Modern;" whilst of fifteen (English) Lodges warranted at the same era in the Royal Artillery all were "Ancient."

With the fusion of the two Grand Lodges in 1813, the decadence of Military Masonry commenced. A "working men's" Grand Lodge no longer existed, and the proportion (under the UNITED Grand Lodge of England) of Military to other Lodges, which was one in twelve in 1814, fell to one in three hundred in 1878.

A record of our Military Lodges, and of the remarkable events in their history is much called for. Many now stationary Lodges in the United Kingdom, in our garrisons abroad, and under independent jurisdictions, were originally warranted in British regiments.

Under the first heading comes the Royal Somerset House Lodge No. 2, which enjoys the unique distinction of representing both a "Sea" and a "Field" Lodge; the York Lodge of Perseverance No. 7; the Union Waterloo No. 13; the Royal Clarence, Bristol, No. 68; St. John's, Sunderland, No. 80; Unanimity, Preston, No. 113; the Salopian Lodge of Charity, Shrewsbury, No. 117; and Fortitude, Truro, No. 131.*

At Gibraltar, St. John's, No. 115 (first constituted in the Royal Artillery), is the oldest Lodge "on the Rock;" whilst under an independent jurisdiction, viz., at Quebec, the senior Lodge, "Antiquity," was originally warranted (by the Grand Lodge of Ireland), in the 46th Regiment in 1752, as the Lodge of "Social and Military Virtues" No. 227. The capture of their warrant by the French, its return under a military guard, and the controversy as to General Washington's initiation in No. 227, are topics that space will not permit me to linger over. The second Lodge on the roll of the Grand Lodge of Quebec—"Albion," was constituted in the Royal Artillery at New York as No. 213 (Ancients) in 1781.

The oldest existing Military Lodge is No. 128 on the registry of Ireland, which was constituted in the 39th Regiment so far back as 1742, and no doubt was in full working order fifteen years later, when the gallant 39th, for its share in the glorious victory of Plassey (1757) received the distinctive title of "Primus in India." Having regard to the special perils besetting a Military charter, from which our "home staying" warrants are happily exempt, and bearing in mind the number of hard fought fields in which the 39th (Dorsetshire) Regiment has been engaged—the continuous existence of this Lodge throughout a period of one hundred and thirty-seven years must be pronounced one of the most remarkable occurrences of which the annals of Freemasonry afford an example.

About two hundred Lodges have been warranted in regiments or garrisons by the Grand Lodge of Ireland, of which ten only exist (as Military Lodges) at the present day, and are held (inclusive of the 39th Foot, above mentioned) in the 4th Dragoon Guards (1758), 29th Regiment (1759), 49th Regiment (1760), 38th Regiment (1765), 5th Dragoon Guards (1780), and the 12th and 17th Lancers, together with the 20th and 26th Foot, of more recent date.

Twenty-six regimental charters have been issued in former times by the Grand Lodge of Scotland, of which none are now in work.

As previously stated, the Military Lodges on the English roll have almost died out; they exist only in the 1st, 6th, 12th, 14th, 31st and 89th Foot, whilst one only of the number (Unity, Peace and Concord, No. 316, in the 1st Royals) ranges back into the last century. Had the progress of Military Masonry kept pace with the general prosperity of the Craft, instead of six there should now be (exclusive of the separate jurisdictions of Ireland and Scotland) at least one hundred and sixty Regimental Lodges on the registry of England.

Yours fraternally,

R. F. GOULD.

P.S.—Reverting to the preference shown by the Yorkshire Militia regiments for Grand Lodges out of their native county, it is but fair to add that the Militia of the last century, having been called upon to undertake garrison duty throughout the United Kingdom, their applications for Masonic Warrants of Constitution were probably much influenced by the predominance of particular Grand Lodges in the towns in which they were quartered. For example; No. 176 "Ancients," the note to which Lodge, in my "Atholl Lodges," is alluded to by Bro. Whytehead, was warranted in the 1st Yorkshire Militia whilst stationed at Sheffield—a great stronghold of the "Ancients." The singular impartiality of the 6th (Inniskilling) Dragoons, in ranging itself under the banners of three Grand Lodges of England and one of Ireland, as well as experimenting in Royal Arch Masonry under Grand Chapters of England and Scotland, may also be cited, as illustrating that the "Regulars" were similarly influenced by local causes.

* It is curious and noteworthy, that whilst so minute a fraction of the 400 (more or less) Military Lodges has survived to this day, two out of the three "Sea" or "Naval" Lodges, established in the last century, are still represented on the roll of the G. Lodge of England, viz., No. 279 (1762), "on Board H.M. Ship the Prince at Plymouth," by No. 2 above (Somerset House), and No. 254 (1760), "on Board the Vanguard," by present No. 108 (the London Lodge).

DEVON EDUCATIONAL FUND.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER.—A letter in your issue of the 27th ult., signed "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON," upon the subject of the Devon Educational Fund, recounts that the Institution in question "is especially worthy of notice by the brethren, and that it is likely to become a great public good, and an important Institution."

I am one who worked hard on behalf and assisted to found this Institution, at a time when it was the fashion to pooh-pooh its claims and throw cold water on our efforts, or at best to "damn them with faint praise," and this by many who now are converts to the scheme.

Thus far I am fully with, and endorse all the good likely to accrue from this local Institution mentioned by "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON."

But when my brother, in a somewhat patronising tone, says:—"We have, on former occasions, contributed largely, and shall probably still continue to do so, to the great Institutions of London; but, finding that our children had to contest for the benefits of these Institutions with all the other Lodges in the kingdom, and that it took a great deal of money and a great deal of personal exertion to get children elected, we determined upon the adoption of a system of educating and sustaining our children at home."

Now, the foregoing is all very buoyant and cheerful, and shows great self-reliance, but unfortunately, at the same time, a lamentable want of both truth and knowledge, and makes assertions strangely at variance with facts.

First, "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON," instead of saying "We have on former occasions contributed largely, and probably shall do so again," should rather have said—We, as a Province, have received, and now are receiving annually, large sums from the great Masonic Institutions in London. We have more than our full share of children in each of the London Masonic Schools, and that, too, after having had to compete with all the Lodges of the kingdom for these benefits. How much more fairly would "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON" have written, had he but added—"Assisted by the sympathy and kindness of other Provinces and distant Lodges, who placed votes at the disposal of our London representative at each election."

Devon would not, from the strength of her own voting power, have ever been in a position to elect the candidates now on the funds of the great Charities who have been placed thereon during the last few years. Would "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON" consider it a labour of love or an irksome task to quietly analyse the lists of the great Charities, so far as they refer to the number of Devon cases on the funds, or in each School? After amusing himself with the Old People, he might take a turn with the Girls and Boys. Finding the amount received per annum, he would then be in a position to compare the "large contributions" he mentions with the past and present receipts from the Institution.

The brother, doubtless from the high position he holds in the Province, is quite familiar with the charity lists or records issued by the London Masonic Institutions, wherein is shown "Who's who." Let me hope—in fact I will not doubt it—he is at least a Life Governor of all the Institutions, as well as a liberal donor to the Devon Educational Fund.

But when "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON" says, "We determined upon a system of education, and 'sustaining' our children at home, does the brother make this rash assertion as an individual, or in an official capacity in connection with the Devon Educational Fund? The latter I cannot believe, for in two of the most important essentials it is so contrary to fact, so misleading, that one would really imagine that in the future the Province of Devon intended keeping all its orphans at home, and "sustaining" them there.

Digitized by Google

Does "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. of DEVON" know sustentation is no part of the scheme of the Devon Educational Fund, which was founded to give education, clothe and advance in life those orphans whom the Province could not hope to get elected into the London Schools, in addition, and as distinguished from the children that are selected by the Committee of Petitions of the Province, and who do get elected to the London Schools.

Referring "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. of DEVON" to bye-law 6 of the Devon Educational Fund, what becomes of his expression of "sustaining them at home?"

I ask the brother to post himself in this and kindred matters in connection with the Fund before giving vent to perhaps harmless but most misleading statements.

Under no circumstances would I wish it inferred that Devon has been lax, or even neglectful in rendering good and liberal support to the great London Masonic Charities.

The Provincial Grand Lodge of Devon in this respect might be accepted as a pattern to be followed by other Provincial Grand Lodges in the aid so often rendered to the great Charities. Many of the Lodges and Chapters throughout Devon have during the last few years subscribed handsomely, and supported Stewards for the London Charities, but unfortunately, be it remembered, during the same period the candidates having claims, or rather making claims on Devon, have been many, and far out of all proportion to votes held by the Province.

By a system of organising this voting power, and the judicious use of votes obtained from other provinces, Devon has thus been enabled to place on the funds of all the Masonic London Charities her more than full quota of candidates—hence, so far as those surplus orphans of the province were interested, it became an absolute necessity that the Devon Educational Fund should exist; but not to keep at "home and sustain" our urgent and most deserving cases; but to send those to the great Charities, working for their admittance to the utmost of our power, giving the benefit of the local fund to those surplus cases which the province have no power to work into the great Schools, in addition to those previously named.

Provincial Masonic Educational Funds are no new idea; we have the experience of Lancashire, Cheshire, and Yorkshire, and during the past twenty years each of those named have flourished. These local funds, auxiliary to the great Charities, and not antagonistic, find their main support from individual brethren of their province, who become Life Governors and Annual Subscribers to the local fund; thus fully recognising the fact that to ask for aid from the funds set apart by the respective Prov. Grand Lodges at annual meetings for the great Charities in London, would be most unwise; to say nothing of the manifest unjustness of such a course.

If the Devon Educational Fund is to prosper, let the Province be wise in her generation. The brethren—the rank and file of Masonry in the Province—must come forward as Life Governors and Annual Subscribers, and give aid to their local institution for purely local purposes of a secondary nature. To ask the Provincial Grand Lodge or the other governing bodies of Masonry in Devon for monies that should be devoted to the great Charities, as some adequate return for the present large sums received by Devon orphans and annuitants now on the funds of the several great Charities. Trench upon these Funds for the local Educational Institution, and the power now possessed by the Province in the great Charities will fade away. Do this; embrace the shadow, and, in the act, lose the substance.

So far as Devon is concerned; such is the aid received by her orphans and annuitants from the great Charities, her voting power at each election of those Institutions; and her returns in kind to the great Charities; as well as the features of the Devon Educational Fund.

I, without egotism, beg to subscribe myself,

Yours very fraternally,

AU FAIT.

THE PROJECTED EXTENSION OF THE GIRLS' SCHOOL.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I am sorry to have incurred the displeasure of our Bro. Perceval, but will ask him to believe that it is neither offence nor anger that impels me to decline his offer to be my backer in a contest for supremacy in personal abuse. If, however, Bro. Perceval desires to discuss in a friendly spirit through your columns the pros and cons of what many subscribers consider an ill-advised project, I shall have great pleasure in doing my best to convince him that the opinions of himself, and those who adopt his views of the proposal, have been formed too hastily, without sufficient consideration of the Laws of the Institution, and with too little regard for the principle which, I submit, should govern all charitable efforts, viz., the greatest good to the greatest number. An inexcusable blunder in the previous proceedings, in consequence of which it has been found necessary to convene a new meeting to do that which was supposed to have been already done, is in itself a proof that haste rather than judgment has been the guide, resulting at all events in the uncalled for expense of two meetings in the place of one. It will scarcely be contended that this was for the benefit of the children for whose education and support the funds were collected. The subscribers are indebted to the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE for pointing out this irregularity, which certainly ought not to have occurred. Mistakes, like misfortunes, seldom come singly, and I believe it can easily be shown that the second notice is as illegal as its predecessor.

It is satisfactory to have an admission that the sum named for the purchase of a property we do not want is "a fancy price," but may I beg Bro. Perceval to further consider whether Trustees of Charitable Funds subscribed for a specific purpose are at liberty to expend those funds in fancy speculations or investments? I think he may find that Parliament has dealt with this subject in a manner which renders the position of Trustees who may indulge in such whims particularly unpleasant from a financial point of view.

A military friend suggests that the promoters of this project would do well to execute "a strategic movement to the rear," and I have pleasure in placing his suggestion at their disposal.

I am, Dear Sir and Brother,

Fraternally yours,

1st January 1880. H.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—My letter in the CHRONICLE of the 20th inst., advocating grants of say £20 per annum each for education, &c., of children in the vicinity of their homes has drawn forth the inquiry from Bro. Chas. John Perceval—"Are we sure that the money so voted would be properly applied?" Your remarks on this question in your article in the CHRONICLE of the 27th ult. are exceedingly apposite, as is also the letter of "A P.M. and P.P.G.J.W. of Devon." For the information of your readers I will briefly state the course adopted by the East Lancashire Institution to secure the proper application of the grants made for education, &c., of children. On the election of a child, some brother of the Lodge to which the father belonged is selected by the Education and Relief Committee to undertake the supervision of the child's education, and generally to act as its foster father; and by this brother arrangements are made with the schoolmaster or schoolmistress, the school in all cases being approved by the Committee, and reports are regularly furnished by the school to the Committee, by whom the school bills are paid, after being certified as correct by the foster father. By this means I apprehend the Committee ensure the proper application of the grant.

I do not deny that the education given in our noble Institutions—the Girls' and Boys' Schools—is superior to that which could be obtained by a £20 grant, but that is not the question I raise. What I wish is, the benefits of these Institutions to be extended to the greatest possible number, and this I maintain will be better accomplished, and at much less cost, by the system of home education than by an extension of the present system.

There is no doubt at all that the provinces, finding it almost impossible to carry their candidates at the Girls' and Boys' Elections, are earnestly taking up this home system, and as it becomes more general, the Metropolitan Institutions must of necessity lack the liberal support hitherto extended them by the provinces, unless indeed the benefits of the Metropolitan Institutions can be extended in the way I have indicated.

Yours fraternally,

East Lancashire, 29th December 1879. J. W.

UNIFORMITY OF MASONIC RITUAL AND OBSERVANCE.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

8 Thurloe Place, S.W.
27th December 1879.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—The letter of a P.P.J.G.W. which appeared in your issue of to-day speaks volumes as to the kind of opposition to be expected with regard to the motion brought forward by Bro. James Stevens at the last Grand Lodge Meeting, "Uniformity of Ritual."

Now, I take it that the word "Uniformity" has been greatly misunderstood by a number of the brethren, and the "pishing," "pshawing," "ridiculous," "impossible," "can't be done," "Brothers, stand close," uttered against poor Uniformity, have been amusing and surprising, considering the sources from whence they sprang; why, one would have thought that Bro. Stevens imagined that he was capable of performing a miracle, that he was going to build Rome in a day, that he was uprooting the foundation of Freemasonry with his wonderful attempts at what ninety-nine out of a hundred will tell you is much to be desired; the others do not see how it can, or expect it ever will be done; and such brethren I would refer to one of Æsop's fables, about the man whose cart was stuck in the mud, and instead of putting his shoulder to the wheel and helping to get it out, went and knelt down on the roadside and prayed to Jupiter to get it for him, with the result,—cart remained stuck. To such brethren let me say, if each one of you will only put a pound weight of your help and assistance, our beautiful ritual will be lifted out of the various quagmires into which she has been allowed to sink bit by bit, in fact, so unlike herself, that her own mother could not possibly recognise her. Now what is it that Bro. Stevens is aiming at—Perfection? No, for that is impossible; but he asks in a straightforward commonsense way for a constituted authority, evoked from the combined talent of some of the most distinguished (by merit and ability) of our brethren, an authority whose decision shall be final, an authority to whom any W.M. desirous of fulfilling his obligation for the well-ruling of his Lodge can refer, for there would be no compulsion in the matter; but, at the same time, he could plead no excuse if doubtful of his working.

I have been informed that there is an authority recognised by Grand Lodge—viz., the working of the Lodge of Reconciliation at the Union, 1813, and handed down to us by the late eminent Mason Stephen Barton Wilson, that that Ritual is still in existence, and that the Emulation Lodge still carries it out; but, in the same breath, I am told if our late eminent ritualist was to be permitted to be once more amongst us, and attend on Friday evenings, he most assuredly would fail to recognise his own handy-work, it had been so improved upon. The first portion of the task would be long, difficult, but most interesting if carried on with that love and harmony by which we are supposed to be especially distinguished; that task once accomplished, the work of improvement, of reformation, and return to the once beautiful ritual, would be gradual, would be slow, but would be firm, lasting, and as certain as the incoming tide on a shallow beach, and like that gradually spread itself over the whole surface. Such I believe to be the aim of Bro. Stevens and all who support him, and with my earnest hope for his success. Of course, the above does not apply to those learned brethren who are so wise in their own conceit that they have nothing to learn, and need not that any should declare unto them of that in which they are perfect, unequalled, and without compeers, and whose wisdom is so much superior to that head to whom they gave their allegiance at their initiation, and at every step since that they feel themselves relieved from their obligation, and at liberty to follow their own conceits, and those only.

Digitized by Google

I remain,

Yours fraternally and faithfully,

CHARLES JOHN PERCEVAL.

P.S.—Erratum in my letter of the 20th, lines 43, 44, 45, for "A large piece of ground immediately at the back could have been bought for £1000 or less," read "a large piece of waste ground, &c., for £1500 or less." This was my fault, not yours.

C. J. P.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—Thank you very much for the insertion in your pages of my last letter on this subject, as I wrote it. Your contemporary has seen fit to "delete" certain portions, which spoil the context of the whole; and the letter written for both journals is shorn of its intended purpose, so far as that exponent of Masonic opinion is concerned. I will not here impute reasons for the excision of matter which you have seen no reason to reject. To those who have the opportunity for comparing the respective impressions they will be sufficiently apparent. The suppression of parts of my letter is unworthy of more than passing regret that an opponent cannot fairly publish the arguments of "the other side."

Will you add to all your former favours by giving me this opportunity to inform the brethren that I am now forming the Committee I have to nominate at next Grand Lodge meeting, and that I shall be glad to hear from any Past Masters (particularly those of the Provinces) desirous of joining with me in my efforts to secure "Uniformity, &c.," through the instrumentality of a preliminary "enquiry into the various systems now in practice and reporting thereon" to Grand Lodge at a future date?

With the compliments of the season, and wishing the CHRONICLE continued prosperity,

Believe me, yours very truly and fraternally,

JAMES STEVENS.

Clapham, 31st December 1879.

INSTALLATION MEETINGS, &c.

—:o:—

ST. JOHN'S LODGE, No. 70.

THE annual meeting of this Lodge was held on the 29th ult., at the Huyshe Masonic Temple, Plymouth, and after the initiation of three gentlemen, which was efficiently done by the retiring W.M. (Bro. Alfred E. Lean), assisted by W. Bros. S. Roach and R. Pengelly, the installation of the new Master (Bro. William Odam), who was unanimously elected at the previous meeting, took place. This ceremony was admirably performed by W. Bro. Lean, assisted by W. Bros. J. B. Gover P.M. P.P.G.A.D.C. and Richard Pengelly P.M., in the presence of a large Board of Installed Masters. The musical portion of the ceremony was beautifully rendered by the Organist of the Lodge, Bro. John D. Barker. The Officers appointed and invested for the ensuing year were:—Bros. A. E. Lean I.P.M., Edwin Toat S.W., James Griffen J.W., Leonard D. Westcott P.M. P.P.G.S. Wks. Treasurer, John B. Gover Secretary, George Mitchell S.D., Francis B. Westlake J.D., J. H. Dwelly D.C., Thomas King sen. A.D.C., W. H. Symons O., John D. Barker I.G., G. Sercombe S.S., W. T. Denniford J.S., John Holmes Tyler. Bro. John D. Barker was appointed Charity Steward of the Lodge. The especial duty of this Officer is to collect subscriptions and donations from the members for the Devon Masonic Educational Fund; and in several Lodges where similar appointments have been made it has been found to work well, and for the benefit of this as well as the great Masonic Charities. A sum of three guineas was voted to a brother who was known to be in needy circumstances. The Treasurer reported the Lodge to be in a prosperous condition. The dinner to celebrate the Festival of St. John the Evangelist was provided by Bro. Charles Walters, at the Farley Hotel, and was, in all respects, everything that could be desired. During the evening an elegant gold P.M.'s jewel was presented to the late W. Master, engraved as follows:—"Presented to W. Bro. Alfred E. Lean by St. John's Lodge, No. 70, in recognition of his zeal as Master, A.L. 5879." The usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were duly honoured, and many excellent speeches, inculcating Charity as the outcome of Freemasonry, were made. The musical intervals were very interesting. The glees of Bros. Firks, Goodall, and J. Rendle were admirably rendered, and many of the brethren exercised their musical talent to help to make the intervals between business highly enjoyable. In consequence of so many Lodges holding their annual meetings at this time of the year many distinguished brethren were unable to be present. Letters regretting their unavoidable absence were read from:—Right W. Bros. Lord Ebrington P.G.M., Walter G. Rogers D.P.G.M., L. P. Metham P.G.D. Eng. P.D.P.G.M., Right Hon. Earl Mount Edgcumbe P.G.M. Cornwall, Col. J. W. Peard D.P.G.M. Cornwall, William J. Hughan P.G.D. Eng. P.G.S.W. Ezypt P.P.G.S., Cornwall, John Brewer P.G. Sec., Rear-Admiral F. H. H. Glasse C.B., Charles Godtschalk P.M. P.P.G.D., W. Derry P.M. P.P.G.S.D. (the Mayor of Plymouth), John Marshall W.M. 156, J. H. Dawe W.M. 1255, John Way P.M. 70 P.P.G.T., J. J. Avery P.M. 70 P.P.G.T, Richard Lose P.M. P.P.G.P., V. Bird P.M. 70 and 1,550 P.P.G.T. Amongst those present at the ceremony or the banquet, in addition to those whose names have been already mentioned, were V.W. and W. Bros. Francis P. Holmes P.M. P.P.G.S. Works, Charles Stribbling P.M. P.P.G.S.B., Samuel Roach P.M., Samuel Jew P.M. P.P.G.T., John Dupré P.M. P.P.G.D.C., F. R. Tomes P.M. P.P.G., H. W. Thomas P.M., R. G. Bird P.M., Joseph Wainwright P.M., all of Lodge 70; J. E. Curteis P.M. 189 P.P.G.S.Warden, Rev. W. Whittley P.M. 156 P.P.G. Chaplain, J. Matthews P.M. 282 P.P.G.S. Works, R. G. Tippett W.M. 1550, P. B. Clements P.P.G.O., C. Cooper P.M. and Secretary 105, W. Browning P.M. 223 P.P.G.A.D.C., R. Cawsey P.M. 230, George Firks W.M., John R. Lord P.M. and Treasurer, James Rendle P.M. and Secretary 1247, W. Criper 282, Thomas Goodall P.M. 954, B. Elliott W.M. 1247, J. R. H. Harris W.M. 230, Charles Richardson P.M. 1212, H. Chapis, C. Rodda, J. Kitt, H. S. Moon, T. King jun., P. Hamley, R. Blight, K. Bond, Hoare, J. Beard, T. Gard, T. Cuming, Holloway, Moysey, Lister, Leigh, Crossman, &c.—Western Daily Mercury.

DORIC LODGE, No. 81, WOODBRIDGE.

THE brethren of this Lodge celebrated their Installation Festival and the Anniversary of St. John the Evangelist on Saturday, 27th ult., when there was a most successful and pleasant meeting. Lodge opened about 3.30. The presence book was signed by Bros. W. P. T. Phillips P.M. as W.M., F. Whisstock S.W. the W.M. elect, E. St. G. Cobbold J.W., B. D. Gall Treasurer, R. Allen S.D., J. Stidolph Sec., Past Masters A. Barnes, B. Gall, T. Grimwood; Bros. W. Roe, J. Cana Fisk, F. A. Kent, G. Freeman, E. R. Wood and W. H. Hessey. The Visitors were Bros. W. Clarke P.G.D.C. P.M. British Union 114 Installing Master, T. J. Wentworth P.G.S.D. I.P.M. St. Luke's 225, W. G. Cannold W.M. 225, G. Abbott P.P.G.S.B. S.D 225, C. Kent J.D. Prince of Wales 959, D. D. Steele 959, and R. Senton 225. The Lodge having been regularly opened in the three degrees by Bro. Phillips, the Installing Master assumed the chair. Bro. Whisstock was then presented, and having given assent to the ancient charges, all brethren below the chair left. The installation ceremony was then performed by Bro. Clarke in a most efficient and impressive style. The brethren having been readmitted, the W.M. was proclaimed and saluted in regular form. The Worshipful Master invested his Officers as follows:—Bros. E. St. G. Cobbold S.W., W. P. Phillips J.W. (in his unavoidable absence, Bro. W. P. T. Phillips being invested for him), B. D. Gall Treasurer, Williamshurst Secretary (Bro. J. Stidolph being invested for Bro. Williamshurst, who was absent through illness), E. R. Wood S.D., F. A. Kent J.D., B. Gall P.M. D.C., J. Cana Fisk I.G., G. Hall Tyler, B. D. Gall, G. Freeman, and R. Allen Stewards. Bro. the Rev. A. Tighe Gregory Chaplain, and Bro. J. Stidolph Organist, were re-appointed at last meeting of Lodge. On the motion of Bro. W. P. T. Phillips, seconded by Bro. B. Gall, a resolution was passed that the usual subscription from Lodge to the Masonic Girls' School should be placed on Bro. Clarke's list. The Lodge then closed. The brethren adjourned to the Bull Hotel, where a splendid banquet was prepared by Bro. J. Grout. After the removal of the cloth, the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were given and heartily responded to. The W.M., in replying to the toast of his health, heartily thanked the brethren for the high honour which had been conferred upon him. He alluded to the responsibilities thrown upon him; he should, he said, do all he could for the welfare of the Lodge. He reminded his Officers of the importance of the punctual performance of their duties, and relied with confidence upon their co-operation and support at all times. Bro. W. Clarke proposed the Masonic Charities, earnestly urging upon his hearers the claims of the three great Institutions upon the entire Masonic brotherhood. The musical portion of the programme was efficiently carried out by Bros. Abbott, Grayston and Steele, Bro. J. Stidolph accompanying on the pianoforte.

BRUNSWICK LODGE, No. 159.

THIS Lodge has now been in existence over one hundred years; and it will be remembered that a few months since the brethren celebrated the centenary anniversary of their Lodge. During the whole course of its career the brethren have not had a regular abiding place for their "warrant;" and for some time past they have met at Lodge "Charity," Union-street, Stonehouse. These rooms, however, being somewhat out of repair, it was felt desirable by the brethren that they should assemble together in a more suitable place. Bro. R. Lose came forward and offered to provide the desired accommodation. The brethren availed themselves of Bro. Lose's kindness, and building operations were commenced at the back of Hobart House, Hobart-street, Stonehouse, and a neat and commodious building has been erected on this site. The structure consists of a handsome Lodge room 42 feet long, 20 feet broad, and about 18 feet high; a refreshment-room, ante-room, and the necessary offices. The Lodge is approached from a side street, and its exterior has a very neat appearance. Inside everything is elaborately fitted up, and the Lodge room, which is situated on the first floor, has been most handsomely furnished. The Master's chair, which is made of mahogany, is a beautiful piece of workmanship. The arms terminate in two richly-carved lions' heads, whilst the back is studded with the emblems of the Order. It is 7 feet 6 inches in height, and the top is surmounted by a crown. The chair is upholstered with crimson Utrecht velvet, and is richly carved. There are three other high back chairs, which are about 5 feet 6 inches in height. In front of the Master's chair is a pedestal about 4 feet high, with a white marble top, and in front are two Corinthian columns. There are two other pedestals of a similar description. There are also provided twelve "horse shoe" chairs, upholstered in crimson velvet. The floor is covered with a beautifully designed Brussels carpet, and in the centre, instead of canvas, will be placed a tesselated carpet. Every convenience has been provided for the accommodation of the members. Around the room will be placed "warrants" and other matters connected with the Brotherhood. The apartment will be illuminated with the "sun light." The refreshment room will be fitted up in a very comfortable manner. The building has been erected by Mr. A. Lethbridge, contractor, Plymouth; and the furnishing arrangements are being carried out by Snawdon and Company, 43 and 44 Union-street, Stonehouse.

Digitized by Google

"Lodge Ebrington" will be consecrated on the 6th of January next, by Lord Ebrington Provincial Grand Master of Devon. For its formation the petitioners are eleven in number:—Bros. S. Jew P.M. P.P.G.T., R. Lose P.M. P.P.G.P., J. H. Stephens P.M., A. Lethbridge P.M., J. Bartlett P.M., F. Littleton W.M. 159, V. S. Johns S.W., T. Lose, R. Lose jun., J. Lose, Isaac Masters. The brethren of "Lodge Brunswick," who number about 126, will meet on the first Wednesday in each month, and those of "Lodge Ebrington," on the second Tuesday of each month.

LODGE OF FRIENDSHIP, No. 202.

THE annual meeting of this Lodge was held on the 29th ult., at the Masonic Rooms, St. Stephen's-street, Devonport, when there was a large attendance. After a raising, and the acceptance of three brethren as joining members, the installation of W. Bro. Henry Welch P.M. P.P.G.P. was performed by Bro. E. Murch W.M. P.P.G.O., assisted by J. P. Price P.P.G.S.B. and E. J. Knight P.G.S., in the presence of R. Marshall P.M., E. D. Parnell P.M., W. H. Terrell P.M., E. Binding P.M., all of 202; W. Coath P.M. 893, J. Allen P.M. 1039, J. Ripper P.M. 1212, — Jackman P.M. 178, F. Codd P.M. 230 P.P.G.O., M. Embden W.M. 105, R. Blight W.M. 223, J. Gidley P.M. Trethoway. The Officers appointed were:—Ed. Murch I.P.M. Grylls S.W., S. O. Elliott J.W., E. J. Knight P.M. Treas., J. D. Sandy Sec., G. Willcocks S.D., J. Viggers J.D., C. Organ I.G., W. Oates Org., C. Price D.C., E. Longmead A.D.C., J. Burns S.S., W. H. Cawse J.S., E. Benny T. The dinner was held at the Royal Hotel, Devonport, and the catering of Bro. Parker, the manager of that establishment, gave unbounded satisfaction. The Loyal and Masonic toasts were given. The health of the W.M. Bro. Welch was especially honoured, he having been the Master of this Lodge some fifteen years before. It will be satisfactory to the friends of Friendship Lodge to know that it continues to be in a very high state of prosperity.

LA TOLERANCE LODGE, No. 538.

THIS old-established Lodge, which originally had a special privilege to initiate, pass and raise in the French language, and now in its working is second to none, held its installation meeting on Thursday, 1st January, at the Freemasons' Tavern, Great Queen-street. Bros. Julius Quitman W.M., T. W. Cooper S.W., E. Child J.W., J. Kench A.G.P. Treasurer, J. B. Sly P.M. Secretary, E. Humphrey S.D., Swears J.D., Skinner I.G.; P.M.'s Bros. H. Wood, Walters I.P.M., C. Burmeister, E. Wilson, Lindus; and a numerous attendance of members and visitors. The Lodge was opened and the minutes were confirmed. The report of the Audit Committee was read and adopted; it showed the financial position to be a flourishing one, and that a good sum remained in the hands of the Treasurer. The ceremonial portion of the day's proceedings was very heavy. Bro. Dickson was passed to the second degree, and Bro. Hawkins was raised. Mr. R. Marner was then ballotted for and duly initiated into the Order. Great praise is due to the W.M. for the excellent manner in which he performed the ceremonies, and each of the Officers rendered goodly assistance. Bro. Schubert enlivened the proceedings by playing some very appropriate music. A Board of Installed Masters was formed, and Bro. Thomas Cooper, S.W. and W.M. elect, was presented to the Lodge and duly installed into the chair by the retiring W.M., who performed the work in a very perfect and impressive manner. There were sixteen W.M.'s and P.M.'s present. Bro. Kench gave the addresses very impressively, and he, as well as the I.P.M., received the warm congratulations of the members on the conclusion of the ceremony, which compliment was fully endorsed by the several visitors, amongst whom we noticed Bros. A. Mount 1328, Grist 1637, Wilson G.P., J. Rexworthy 1728, F. Blake W.M. 855, R. Pierpoint P.G.S.D. Gloucestershire 1365 S.D. 1828, E. C. Schubert, G. Wehlen W.M. 511, E. P. Albert P.G.P., Capstick 435, Mount, C. E. Birch 1223, W. Stephens P.G.D.C. Middlesex P.M. 1637 1489 and 1365, C. W. Davis P.G.S. Middlesex P.M. 382 W.M. 1637, H. Dicketts P.G.S., L. B. Pillen P.M. 180, S. A. Cooper J.W. 1637, Ginger The Great City Lodge, C. Tinney, Hurdell 1348, Bett, Verity, and H. M. Levy P.M. 188. The customary salutations were duly given, and the W.M. in appropriate terms invested his Officers:—Bros. J. Quitman I.P.M., Child S.W., E. Humphreys J.W., J. Kench A.G.P. Treasurer (re-elected for the ninth time), J. B. Sly P.M. Sec., Sweers S.D., Skinner J.D., G. Baumann I.G., Palmer D.C., L. G. Langdon W.S., Balo Organist, Elvin J.S., Church Tyler. The W.M.'s selection gave unqualified satisfaction. Bro. J. Kench A.G.P., in pursuance of notice of motion, proposed that the sum of twenty guineas be voted from the funds of the Lodge for the purpose of endowing the W.M. and S.W. of the Lodge as Life Governors of the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution. This was seconded by Bro. Lindus P.M., and carried unanimously. Bro. Quitman was elected to represent the Lodge as Steward at the next Anniversary Festival of the R.M.B.I., and the amount voted by the Lodge as above stated was placed on his list. Bro. Sly P.M. and Treasurer stated that the W.M. had presented the members with a very splendid cloth, beautifully embroidered with the arms of the Lodge. It was proposed that the thanks of the members be tendered, and that the vote be recorded on the minutes. The Lodge was then closed, and the brethren sat down to a sumptuous banquet and dessert, provided by Bro. Alfred Best, and superintended by Bro. E. Dawkins. The W.M. proposed the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts in brief but eloquent terms. In giving that of the D.G.M. Lord Skelmersdale, and the rest of the Grand Officers Past and Present, the W.M. expressed his pleasure at seeing three Officers of Grand Lodge present. Bro. Wilson G.P. in a very eloquent speech, responded to the toast, and thanked the W.M. for the manner he had spoken of the Grand Officers. Bro. Albert P.G.P. followed, and Bro. Kench also made a very excellent speech. Bro. Quitman said he had the honour and the privilege of proposing the health of the W.M., who was initiated in the Lodge; all knew how perfect he was in his working. Bro. Quitman was sure the brethren could not have made a better selection. The W.M. was one who was in every way calculated to fill the chair to the satisfaction of the members. The W.M., in reply, thanked the I.P.M. for the manner in which he had spoken of him. He had worked very hard to arrive at the summit of his ambition—the chair of this important Lodge. With the assistance of the I.P.M. and the Past Masters, who would guide him in his occupation of the chair, he hoped to preside creditably. When he left the chair he trusted he should meet with the same amount of cordiality that had been accorded him that evening. The toast of the initiates was given and responded to. Bro. Kench P.M. and Treasurer singing the E.A. song. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Visitors—they were brethren whom all respected. Many among them had rendered great service to the Order. Bro. Schubert here delighted the brethren with a pianoforte solo. Bros. H. M. Levy, W. Stephens and Charles W. Davis returned thanks, and specially referred to the Charity vote made by the Lodge during the evening. In proposing the toast of the I.P.M., Brother Quitman fully endorsed all the Visitors had said in praise of that Brother: he was one who could not be excelled; who had shown what could be done by perseverance and a desire for the welfare of the Lodge. Bro. C. W. Davis then sang "The Jolly Waggoner" in a genial manner, the brethren joining in chorus. Bro. Quitman responded. He thanked the W.M. for the manner he had proposed his health, and the brethren for the elegant jewel presented him; he should always wear it with pride. He then proposed the toast of the Past Masters; there were eight among them, Bro. Wilson being the oldest. Bro. Pierpoint sang "My old friend John." Bro. Wilson P.M., in reply, thanked the brethren for their kind expressions. The I.P.M. had done good service for the Lodge, and it was highly gratifying to see a W.M. whose working was so creditable. The toasts of the Wardens and Officers were given. The W.M. said he hoped the selection he had made had given satisfaction. He knew their qualifications. All had been initiated in the Lodge, and no band of brethren could be better calculated to do their duty. He hoped eventually to see them in the proud position of W.M. of their mother Lodge. Bro. J. Humphrey J.W., in a very eloquent speech, returned thanks. In addition to those named, Bros. Bennales, Wood and several others contributed to the harmony.

MONTEFIORE LODGE, No. 1017.

THE Installation Meeting of this capital working and flourishing Lodge was held on Wednesday, the 24th December, at the Masonic Rooms, Air-street, Regent-street. Bros. J. Lazarus W.M., L. J. Salomons S.W., W. H. Brall J.W., E. P. Albert P.G.P. Sec., Ellis S.D., M. Levy J.D., Syer I.G.; P.M.'s W. H. Gulliford, A. Eskell, S. V. Abrahams, De Solla, Blum, V. Myers, A. Blumenthal. Among the Visitors were Bros. S. M. Lazarus P.G.S.W. Wilts, Cramer W.M. 834, Alais P.M. 834, Silvester 193, L. Alexander P.M. 188, Davis 188, A. Myers 185, Barnett P.M. 185 and 1668, M. De Saxe Leete 188, Johnston 177, J. Abrahams P.M. 188, C. Merion 1744, J. West 73, Cutler W.M. 251, Greenwall 188, Samuelson 245, H. M. Levy P.M. 188. The Lodge was opened, and the minutes were confirmed. Bro. Davis was passed to the second degree. A Board of Installed Masters was now formed, and Bro. L. J. Salomons S.W. and W.M. elect was duly installed into the chair by the retiring W.M., Bro. J. Lazarus, who, in his performance of the ceremony, exhibited a perfect knowledge of his duties. There were sixteen W.M.'s and P.M.'s present. The W.M. was saluted according to ancient custom, and he then, in appropriate terms, invested his Officers:—Bros. J. Lazarus I.P.M., E. Ellis S.W., M. Levy J.W., L. Jacobs Treasurer, E. P. Albert P.G.P. Secretary, J. Syers S.D., Mann J.D., Benjamin I.G., M. Leverton D.C., Goldberger W.S., S. Sampson W.S., Lazarus jun. W.S., Smith Tyler. The investiture of the Officers was received with loud applause. Letters of apology were read from Bros. the Rev. R. J. Simpson P.G.C., Col. Shadwell Clerke, and several others, who regretted their inability to be present. Bro. S. V. Abrahams P.M. gave notice of motion that the sum of £10 10s be voted to the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys, and £5 5s for the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls, to be placed on the list of any brother who would represent either of those Charities at the next Festivals. Bro. A. Blumenthal P.M announced his intention to act as a Steward for the Girls' School. The report of the Audit Committee was read and adopted; it showed there was a balance, after meeting every liability of £107 7s 8d. The amount in the hands of the Treasurer on behalf of the Benevolent Fund of this comparatively young Lodge was £367 4s 2d. Hearty good wishes were given by the numerous Visitors, and the brethren, 51 in number, sat down to a very sumptuous banquet and dessert, provided by Bro. Nichols, and superintended by Bro. M. Silver. The wines and viands were of first-rate quality. Grace having been said, the W.M. proposed the toast of the Queen and the Craft; the National Anthem was sung, and then the W.M. proposed the health of His Royal Highness the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, which toast likewise met with a hearty reception. Bro. Heine Hugo here sang, "Ruddier than the Cherry," and was deservedly applauded. The toast of the Pro G.M., the D.G.M., and the rest of the Grand Officers followed. The W.M., in speaking of their qualifications, remarked it was with pride they had one among them—a founder of the Lodge—who had been selected for Grand Office. Bro. Albert was one whom they all respected; he is an honour to the Lodge; he had been invested by the Most Worshipful the Grand Master. As one of the most esteemed Past Masters of the Lodge he was entitled to respect, and it was with pleasure he associated his name with the toast. After an eloquent response from Bro. E. P. Albert P.G.P., Bro. J. M. Lazarus I.P.M. proposed the health of the W.M. On many previous occasions he had had to propose the toast of the W.M., but on this occasion he did so with infinite pleasure. On looking back to Bro. Salomons' Masonic career, they could not but be struck by what he had done in the minor offices. He might, however, say, Bro. Salomons was one who would be able to perform the ritual in a manner such as had not been excelled for some time, and would fill the office with credit to himself as well as to the Lodge. Apart from this, he would carry out all required of him. He therefore called on all to join in wishing him health and prosperity. Bro. Heine Hugo gave another specimen of his artistic ability as a singer. The W.M. thanked Bro. Lazarus for the eulogiums he had passed upon him; he hoped to thoroughly carry out the working of the three ceremonies. In presiding over them he was imbued with the knowledge that a great unity of feeling existed in the Lodge, and that the members were animated by the true spirit of brotherly love; he hoped to leave the chair with the same impression. His rise was due to the kindness of the P.M.'s and the brethren; he would always look to their interests, and it would be his pride to follow in the footsteps of his precedessors. The W.M. then proposed the health of Bro. D. Davis, who was initiated at the last meeting. From the attention Bro. Davis paid to the ceremony they might rely upon it he would become a credit to the Order. The toast was responded to in a manner that fully justified the remarks of the W.M. The toast of the Visitors was next given, the W.M. remarking how pleased he was to see them. There were distinguished brethren among them—Bro. L. Alexander, an old P.M. of 188, the Lodge from which the Montefiore sprang. As the Visitors were so numerous, he would call on Bros. L. Alexander P.M. 188, J. D. Barnett P.M. who represented Nos. 185 and 1668, and Vernon Heath to respond to the toast. Bro. L. Alexander felt a great pleasure in replying. He had witnessed the Lodge's excellent working; he saw several Past Masters present who had passed the chair in his own Lodge. The Montefiore being an offshoot of the Joppa, he was gratified to see it prosper and flourish. He felt proud and honoured by being called on to respond to the toast. Bro. Barnett fully endorsed all the former speaker had said. It afforded him great pleasure to be present, and to see such working. The good feeling that exists in the Lodge was such that it could but be appreciated by all present. He was a Past Master representing two Lodges; the Worshipful Masters being unable to be present, from pressure of business; he would, however, convey to them an account of the hospitality he had received. Bro. Vernon Heath also acknowledged the compliment. The Worshipful Master then proposed the toast of the Past Masters of the Lodge. He was pleased to see the I.P.M. by his side; all the brethren must have seen how admirably Bro. Lazarus had worked the ceremonies. The Lodge had voted him a jewel, which he hoped on the next occasion to have the honour and pleasure to invest him with. The W.M. then recounted the special qualities of the other Past Masters present, and called on those assembled to do honour to the toast. Bro. J. Lazarus was personally prepared to do anything required of him for the interests of the Lodge; what the Past Masters had done in the past, they would repeat in the future. Bro. Victor Myers followed, and then the W.M. proposed the toast of the Officers. No better or more efficient working Masons could be found in any Lodge. The Treasurer and the Secretary, Bros. L. Jacobs and Albert, are well known and respected; and every one of the other brethren have rendered services that entitled them to the esteem of the Lodge. Bro. Jacobs Treasurer and both the Wardens responded, and then the Tyler's toast was given. A most agreeable evening was thus brought to a close. The W.M. provided a very excellent concert, under the direction of Bro. P. E. Van Noorden. The Misses Rose Bartle R.A.M. and Laura Grey, Messrs. Lovett, Verry and Prenton, Bros. Heine Hugo and Silvester (Sidney Franks) singing some excellent songs, many of which were deservedly applauded and encored.

Digitized by Google

STOUR VALLEY LODGE, No. 1224.

THE eleventh anniversary of this Lodge was celebrated on Friday, the 28th November, at the Masonic Hall, Market-hill, Sudbury. Bro. Rev. C. J. Martyn P.G.C., Dep. Prov. G.M. Suffolk, who has filled the office of Master of this Lodge during the past twelve months presided, and was supported by Bros. Robt. E. Jones S.W., S. Spurgin J.W., and numerous members and visitors, among the latter being Bros. Andrew Peacock P.M. 118, Charles Cooke W.M 1823, J. W. Collins P.G.C. Suffolk S.W. 1823, Thomas Stoke Secretary 1823, W. H. Fenner 1823, L. Klamborowski Junior Warden 1823, John B. King 27, W. H. Jones 1008. After transacting the minor business of the day, Bro. Martyn proceeded to install his successor, Bro. Robert E. Jones, who in turn invested the following officers, H. C. Canham S.W., S. Spurgin J.W., E. Reeve Boulter S.D., Geo. Murrells J.D., W. H. Smith D.C. Thos. B. Ardley I.G., H. Welham P.M. Steward. After the Lodge was closed the brethren partook of banquet, the regular toasts following. The W.M. in reply to the toast of his health, stated that he had been thirty years a Mason, and was extremely proud to now fill the chair of the Stour Valley Lodge. He was initiated in the Old Suffolk Lodge, No. 910. He assured the brethren he should do all in his power to make his term one of success for the Lodge. Bro. Martyn as I.P.M. thanked the brethren for their hearty reception. The past year was the fourth he had spent as Master of the Lodge, which would always receive his heartiest support.

Capper Lodge, No. 1076.—The regular meeting of this Lodge was held at the Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, on the 11th ult. Bro. P. McCarthy P.M. opened the Lodge shortly after six o'clock, and was supported by the following Officers and brethren:—Bros. F. Brien I.P.M., Taplay S.W., J. T. K. Job J.W., J. Mitchell Secretary, W. Dorton S.D., W. Nevins J.D., N. R. Mason I.G., M. Brown D.C., M. Sherwin Organist, W. Harris W.S., W. Watkins A.W.S.; Bros. J. Gaskell P.M., J. W. Butler, R. G. Smith, J. C. Pitt, W. Robinson, W. B. Weeks, H. Taylay, E. Brien, G. Andrews, W. T. Arnett, &c. The business to be done was to ballot for Mr. Alfred Nash, and, if approved, to initiate that gentleman; to pass Bro. Taplay and Spencer, and raise Bro. Pitt. These three ceremonies were performed by the W.M. and his Officers in a very creditable manner. Bro. Spencer, arriving late, in consequence of the thick fog (which will account for the comparatively small attendance), Bro. McCarthy very kindly consented to pass him, although the hour was then advanced. The report of the Audit Committee was afterwards received, and presented some features very satisfactory to the Lodge, the steady support given to the Masonic Charities, and the operations of the Lodge Benevolent Fund being especially noticeable. Lodge was closed in due form, and the brethren, after half an hour's social chat, dispersed to find their way home through a dense fog.

Dalhousie Lodge of Instruction, No. 860.—On Tuesday, 29th December, at Bro. Smyth's, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall Road, Dalston. Present: Bros. Lorkin W.M., Christian S.W., Polak J.W., Hand S.D., Baker J.D., Clark I.G., Smyth Treasurer, P.M. Wallington Preceptor, also Bros. Brasted, Carr, Darnell, Fleck, C. Lorkin, Wardell, and others. The Lodge was opened to the 2nd degree; Bro. Wardell answered the questions and was entrusted; the Lodge was opened in the 3rd degree, and Bro. Wardell was raised, the W.M. giving the traditional history. Lodge was called from labour to refreshment, and afterwards resumed its Masonic duties; the Lodge was resumed to the 1st degree, when Bro. Carr answered the questions, was entrusted, and the Lodge being resumed in the 2nd, Bro. Carr was passed. The W.M. worked the 4th section of the first lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Williams was elected W.M. for the ensuing week, and appointed his officers in rotation. Nothing further offering, the Lodge was closed in due form and adjourned.

Tenterden Lodge of Mark Master Masons, No. 251.—This new Lodge was consecrated on the 20th December, at the Prince's Hall, Buckhurst Hill, by Bro. F. Binckes Grand Secretary G.L.M.M., assisted by Bros. D. M. Dewar Asst. G.S., C. F. Matier P.G.W., Stephen Barton Wilson G.S. Works, and F. H. Cozens P.G. Organist, after which Bro. Turquand was duly installed into the chair, and appointed his Officers as follows:—Bros. Tanner S.W., Gimingham J.W., Christian A.P.M. and Sec., Sylvestre M.O., Blackman S.O., Holloway J.O., Nicholson Reg., Pargeter S.D., Smith J.D., Walker I.G.

Obituary.

Bro. Thomas Joseph Sabine, P.G.S.W. Middlesex, P.M. 73 1423 1540 W.M. and P.Z. 73 1423 1540, &c., died on Sunday, 28th inst., at 8.30 p.m., at his residence, Grand Parade, Brighton. Bro. Sabine's death was very sudden, from the rupture of a vessel in his chest, after a long attack of bronchial asthma. Our late brother was initiated in the Mount Lebanon Lodge, No. 73, in 1863, and was a Vice-President of all the Charities.

NOTICE.

The Publishing Offices of THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE have been removed to No. 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C. (immediately opposite Freemasons' Hall), where all communications should be addressed.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—There is nothing in the whole "Materia Medica" like these medicaments for the certainty of their action in lumbago, sciatica, tic doloureux, and all flying or settled pains in the nerves and muscles. Diseases of this nature originate in bad blood and depraved humours, and until these are corrected there can be no permanent cure. The ordinary remedies afford but temporary relief, and in the end always disappoint the sufferer. Holloway's Ointment penetrates the human system as salt penetrates meat, and the Pills greatly assist and accelerate its operation by clearing away all obstructions, and giving tone to the system generally. The prophylactic virtues of Holloway's remedies stand unrivalled.

Digitized by Google

Royal Masonic Institution for Girls,

ST. JOHN'S HILL, BATTERSEA RISE, S.W.

Office: 5 Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street, W.C.

Patrons:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES K.G., M.W.G.M., President.

HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS OF WALES.

A QUARTERLY General Court of the Governors and Subscribers of this Institution will be held at Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street, Lincoln's Inn Fields, London, W.C., on Saturday, the 10th day of January 1880, at Twelve o'clock precisely, on the General Business of the Institution, to place Candidates on the List for Election in April next, and to declare the number of Girls then to be elected, also to consider the following Notices of Motion:—

By Bro. LOUIS HESCH.

"That a Committee be appointed to consider the manner in which the scrutiny of the votes shall be made, both for the Election of Candidates and for other purposes, and to report to the next General Court."

By Bro. W. H. B. TOMLINSON, J.P., P. Prov. G. Reg. W. Yorks.

"That in pursuance of notice this Court accept the sum of One Thousand Guineas from the Province of West York for the purchase of a perpetual presentation of one girl to the School, to be called the 'Bentley Shaw Presentation,' the right of such presentation being vested in the Provincial Grand Master of West York for the time being, or other duly authorised person, in accordance with an agreement similar to those providing for presentations from West York to the Boys' School."

By Bro. Edw. Cox, Vice-Patron, P. Prov. G. W. Norths and Hunts.

"That the question as to an increase to the salaries of the Head Governess, Assistant Governesses, &c., &c., be referred to a special Committee." And, in the event of the foregoing being carried, "That such Committee consist of nine members of the General Committee, to be nominated at this Quarterly Court."

F. R. W. HEDGES,
Secretary.

3rd January 1880.

The Ninety-second Anniversary Festival will take place in May next, on which occasion HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS PRINCE LEOPOLD, K.G., P.G.W., Right Worshipful Prov. Grand Master for Oxfordshire, &c., has graciously consented to preside. Names of Stewards will be gratefully received by the Secretary.

ANDERTON'S HOTEL,

F. H. CLEMOW, PROPRIETOR,

Nos. 162, 164 & 165 Fleet Street, and 7 & 11 Johnson's Court, London.

THE ACCOMMODATION OFFERED AT THIS ESTABLISHMENT FOR

MASONIC MEETINGS, BANQUETS, &c.

IS UNRIVALLED.

THE premises have lately been rebuilt, and in order to maintain the time-honored reputation of the house, as one of the centres of London Freemasonry, special attention has been paid to the furnishing of Lodge quarters, which now comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL

Specially constructed for Masonic purposes, with preparation room adjoining

A LARGE BANQUET HALL

Fitted with every necessary for the comfort of Visitors, &c., &c.

ROOMS FOR LARGE OR SMALL DINNER PARTIES, MEETINGS, &c.

OPENING OF THE CRITERION ANNEXE.

SPIERS & POND respectfully beg to inform their Patrons, that to meet the increasing demands of their business at the Criterion, the premises have been greatly enlarged, by the addition of the above building. The principal features of the New Establishment are as follows:—

The Cafe, comprising—

The American Bar,
The Vienna Bier Saal,

VIANDS FROM THE NEW GRILL. SUPPERS SERVED TILL MIDNIGHT.

Oysters a Specialite.

The Victoria Hall, for Banquets, Balls, Wedding Breakfasts, Soirées, and Entertainments.

The Prince's and Carnarvon Rooms, for Masonic Meetings, Banquets, &c.

Private Rooms, suitable for the meetings of Public and Corporate Bodies, Arbitrations, &c.

The Criterion Departments.

Buffet	For Luncheons and Light Refreshments.
Restaurant	Dinners à la Carte.
Cigar Divan	Facing Piccadilly entrance.
Smoking Room ...	Adjoining the Buffet.
Grill Room	Entrance in Jermyn Street.
West Dining Room	Le Diner Parisien daily from 5.30 till 8 p.m., and on Sundays.
East Dining Room ...	Dinners à la Carte.
The Grand Hall ...	Table d'Hote daily, from 5.30 till 8 p.m. (also on Sundays at 6).
Private Rooms ...	For Dinners, Wedding Breakfasts, &c., &c.

DINNERS FROM THE JOINT from TWELVE to THREE o'clock. CHOPS and STEAKS from the GRILL till FIVE o'clock. T. MAIDWELL, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-st., City, E.C.

FISH DINNERS IN PERFECTION

2S EACH, including Soups, Entrées, Poultry, Joints, Cheese, Salad, Served from 12 to 4 daily.—GEORGE TAVERN, Billingsgate Market.

Sole Proprietor, GEORGE SMITH, from Anderton's Hotel.

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND.

ESTABLISHED for the purpose of providing situations for the Pupils on their leaving the Masonic Schools, and to help them generally in securing success in life; and for such other purposes of Masonic Charity as may be decided on by the subscribers.

PATRONS.

H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, K.G., Grand Master of England.
H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, K.G., Past Senior Grand Warden.
H.R.H. Prince Leopold, K.G., Past Junior Grand Warden.
His Grace the Duke of Abercorn, K.G., Grand Master of Ireland.
Sir Michael R. Shaw Stewart, Bart., Grand Master of Scotland.
The Right Hon. the Earl of Carnarvon, Pro Grand Master of England.
The Right Hon. Lord Skelmersdale, Deputy Grand Master of England.
The Right Hon. the Earl of Rosslyn, Past Grand Master of Scotland.
His Grace the Duke of Athole, Past Grand Master of Scotland.
The Right Hon. Lord Kensington, M.P., Senior Grand Warden.
Major-General the Hon. Somerset J. G. Calthorpe, Junior Grand Warden.
The Right Hon. Lord Richard Grosvenor ... Past Grand Warden.
The Right Hon. Lord Henniker ... ... ditto
Sir Harcourt Johnstone, Bart., M.P. ... ditto
The Right Hon. Lord Londesborough ... ditto
Haughton Charles Okeover ... ... ditto
Colonel William Stuart ... ... ditto
The Right Hon. Lord Inverurie, Senior Grand Warden (Scotland).
Rev. Charles William Spencer Stanhope, M.A., Grand Chaplain.
Rev. Sir John Warren Hayes, Bart. Past Grand Chaplain.
Rev. J. Huyshe ... ... ditto
Rev. R. J. Simpson ... ... ditto
Rev. W. F. Short ... ... ditto
Rev. C. W. Arnold ... ... ditto
Rev. J. W. Gleadall ... ... ditto
Rev. C. J. Martyn ... ... ditto
Rev. F. F. Ravenshaw ... ... ditto
Rev. Spencer R. Wigram ... ... ditto
Rev. A. F. A. Woodford ... ... ditto
Rev. Reginald Bird, M.A.... ... ... Senior Grand Deacon.
George Mellor ... ... ditto
Horatio Lloyd ... ... Junior Grand Deacon
Matthew Clark ... ... ditto
Dr. Jabez Hogg ... ... Past Grand Deacon
H. C. Tombs ... ... ditto
Ex-Sheriff George Burt ... ... Asst. Grand D. of Ceremonies
W. Hickman ... ... Past ditto
W. H. Lucia ... ... Past Grand S. Bearer
Dr. W. R. Woodman ... ... ditto
Hyde Clarke, Past Grand Master, and Rep. from G. L. Columbia.

The Provincial Grand Masters of—

Berks and Bucks	Northumberland
Derbyshire	Oxfordshire
Devonshire	Somersetshire
Hamps. and Isle of Wight	South Wales (West)
Hertfordshire	Suffolk
Kincardineshire	Surrey
Lancashire (East)	Sussex
,, (West)	Worcestershire
Leicestersh. and Rutlandsh.	Yorkshire (N. and E.)
Middlesex

Col. H. Peisley L'Estrange, Prov. G. Supt. Norfolk.

The Deputy Provincial Grand Masters of—

Berks and Bucks	Norths. and Hunts.
Cheshire	Northumberland
Derbyshire	Nottinghamshire
Dorsetshire	Oxfordshire
Essex	Somersetshire
Gloucestershire	South Wales (West)
Hampsh. and Isle of Wight	Suffolk
Hertfordshire	Surrey
Lancashire (East)	Sussex
Leicestersh. and Rutlandsh.	Worcestershire
Middlesex	Yorkshire (West)

A. M. Broadley, Deputy District Grand Master, Malta.
The Right Hon. Lord Carington.
Baron de Ferriers, Prov. G. Reg. Gloucestershire.
Sir John Bennett, C.C.
Sir Philip Cunliffe Owen, K.C.M.G., C.B.
Sir Frederick Perkins, M.P.
Sir Francis Wyatt Truscott, Lord Mayor of London.
Rev. George Raymond Portal P.G.M.M.M.
The Editors of the Freemason, the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE, the Rosicrucian, the Scottish Freemason,
&c., &c., &c.

A SPECIAL APPEAL is made to the brethren throughout the country on behalf of this Fund. It is hoped that the preliminary arrangements will be completed early in the year 1880, and that the Committee will immediately be enabled to confer the benefits contemplated by the founders.

Names of Brethren willing to act as Stewards, or otherwise assist in the foundation of the Fund, together with contributions, may be sent to

DICK RADCLYFFE, 129 High Holborn, London,
W. WRAY MORGAN Jun. Freemason's Chronicle Office,
} Secretaries.

Or to the

Rev. C. J. MARTYN, Long Melford, Suffolk } Treasurer.

BANKERS: The Bank of England, Burlington Gardens, London, W.

SAWYER'S (LATE STATION) RESTAURANT,

5 RAILWAY PLACE, FENCHURCH STREET, E.C.

ENGLISH, FRENCH & GERMAN CUISINE.

Hot and Cold Luncheons on the Ground Floor:

This Room will accommodate 100 persons.

CHOPS, STEAKS, &c., FROM THE GRILL;

The Grill Room will seat 150 persons.

REID'S TREBLE STOUT. WORTHINGTON'S ALES,

BERLIN TIVOLI BEER.

TEA AND COFFEE ALWAYS READY.

CHAMPAGNES OF THE BEST BRANDS. OLD BOTTLED PORTS.

SHERRIES AND OTHER WINES OF THE BEST QUALITY.

Bro. F. J. SAWYER, Proprietor.

Late of Pimm's, and the Crystal Palace.

Digitized by Google

ROYAL MASONIC BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION

FOR

AGED FREEMASONS AND WIDOWS OF FREEMASONS,

CROYDON.

—:o:—

Patron and President:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, K.G., &c., M.W.G.M.

—:o:—

THE ANNIVERSARY FESTIVAL OF THIS INSTITUTION will take place on Monday, 9th February 1880, at Freemasons' Tavern, Great Queen-street, London, upon which occasion,

The Right Hon. the EARL OF ZETLAND,

R.W. PROV. G.M. FOR NORTH AND EAST YORKSHIRE,

Has been pleased to signify his intention of presiding.

Brethren desirous of accepting the Office of Steward upon this occasion will greatly oblige by forwarding their Names and Masonic Rank as soon as convenient, to the Secretary, who will gladly give any information required.

JAMES TERRY, P. Prov. G.J.W. Herts,
Secretary.

4 Freemasons' Hall, London, W.C.

THE FREEMASONS' TAVERN,

GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON W.C.

The admirable and unrivalled accommodation provided at thi Establishment for

MASONIC BANQUETS,

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE DINNERS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, BALLS, &c.

Is too well known to need comment. The entire management has been changed, and the Establishment in all its branches thoroughly re-organised.

The attention of the Masonic Body is directed to the many advantages offered.

CUISINE OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER.

WINES PERFECT IN CONDITION AND QUALITY.

N.B.—DINNERS PROVIDED FROM 3/-.

RESTAURANT, WINE, SMOKING & RETIRING ROOMS.

The fullest measure of public confidence and support ensured.

ALFRED BEST, PROPRIETOR.

NOW READY.

THE ATHOLL MASONS,

THEIR AUTHENTIC HISTORY, COMPILED FROM OFFICIAL SOURCES, DOWN TO THE UNION OF MODERN FREEMASONS IN 1813.

An Historical and Discursive Record of the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of England according to the Old Institutions.

BY ROBERT FREKE GOULD.

In Cloth, 12mo, Price 5s.

SPENCER & CO., Opposite Freemason's Hall, 23a Gt. Queen-st., London, W.C.

Crown 8vo, price 2s 6d, cloth lettered.

Uniformity of Masonic Ritual and Observance.

By Bro. JAMES STEVENS, P.M., P.Z., &c.

"May be read with advantage by the whole Craft."—Sunday Times.

"Grand Lodge should at once set to work to secure the desired uniformity."—Sheffield Post.

"The subject is ably argued by the author."—Western Daily Mercury.

"Useful and valuable in the highest degree."—Exeter Gazette.

"Will have a material effect on the future of Masonic Ritual."—South Western Star.

"The author adduces many variations in the language used by different Preceptors."—Cox's Monthly Legal Circular.

"Ought to be in the hands of every Mason."—Northampton Guardian.

"To Freemasons generally it will be found useful and valuable, and we commend it to their notice accordingly."—Surrey County Observer.

"Bro. Stevens' motion for a Committee on the subject of Uniformity of Ritual was carried by a large majority."—Freemason's Chronicle report of Grand Lodge meeting, 3rd December 1879.

Sent, by post, on receipt of stamps, by the Author, Bro. JAMES STEVENS, 112 High-street, Clapham, S.W.; by Bro. W. W. MORGAN, 67 Barbican, London, E.C.; or by S. D. EWINS & Co., Paternoster-row, London, E.C.

MASONIC HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS,

1 NOTTING HILL SQUARE, W.

THE SCHOOL has been established to provide a High Class Education to sons of Freemasons and others, on moderate terms. There are scholarships of the annual value of £10 to £20, and Exhibitions of £20. Terms for sons of Freemasons from 4 to 7 guineas per term, for other pupils from 5 to 8 guineas per term. For further particulars apply to the Secretary, or to

E. PASSAWER, LL.D.
Head Master.

VITRUVIAN LODGE, No. 87.

BRO. ISAAC, who has for some time past provided for the requirements of this Lodge, begs to announce that he has obtained permission for the removal of his license to the Belvedere-road, and that he has erected commodious premises there. These comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL.

WITH ANTE ROOMS,

LARGE BANQUETTING HALL,

Together with every convenience for Masonic gatherings.

Applications from Secretaries and others for accommodation to be addressed G. ISAAC, "WHITE HART," COLLEGE STREET, BEXLEY HEATH, LONDON, S.E.

A VIEW OF THE FREEMASONS' HALL, LONDON, and another illustration, appear in a Memoir of the late Mr. F. P. COCKERELL, Grand Superintendent of Works, published by the Royal Institute of British Architects. Price, on application to the undersigned, Two SHILLINGS: or by Post 26 Stamps.

THOMAS H. WYATT, Hon. Sec.
WILLIAM H. WHITE, Secretary.

No. 9 Conduit-street, London, W.

FURNITURE FOR LODGE OF INSTRUCTION.—Complete Set, nearly new, for Sale. Address, J. W. H., "FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE" Office, 67 Barbican, London, E.C.

23 GREAT QUEEN STREET, W.C.

NEW ZEALAND.

LODGE ST. GEORGE, No. 1801.

THE first annual installation meeting of the above Lodge was held in the Lodge Room, Foresters' Hall, Dargaville, Auckland, New Zealand, on 6th September. The attendance was so large that it was evident, if the Lodge continues to increase, the brethren will soon be obliged to build a hall for their own requirements. The Lodge was opened by the W.M. Bro. J. M. Dargaville, assisted by his Officers. After the usual preliminary business had been transacted, the Treasurer's report and balance sheet were read; these were most satisfactory, showing receipts amounting to nearly £250—and that, after having paid for Lodge furniture and regalia of the best description, as well as all ordinary and necessary expenditure, the Lodge still had a balance to its credit. A candidate was then introduced to Masonic light, after which the W.D.G.R. Bro. W. P. Moat P.M. 1711 took the chair, and in his usual impressive manner installed Bro. John Lindley P.M. 218 Calcutta as W.M. for the ensuing year. The W.M. then appointed his Officers as follows:—Bros. E. Mitchelson S.W., W. H. Spiers J.W., R. A. Dargaville Treasurer, W. Vousden Secretary, W. Moore S.D., D. McLeod J.D., R. Mitchelson I.G., W. B. Jackson D.C., L. Dacre and A. Hood Stewards. Bro. H. J. Ludlow presided at the harmonium, and his masterly rendering of the music added greatly to the effect of the ceremonies. The Lodge was closed, and the brethren then proceeded to the banquet, which was provided and served by Bro. J. Raynes in a style which gave satisfaction to all present. After the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts had been given and duly honoured, Bro. Dargaville proposed "The health of the W.M." He said Bro. Lindley had not been long among them, still he had been long enough to prove himself a good Mason, and secure the esteem of all. It was a source of great gratification to himself that he should be succeeded by one who was evidently so well fitted to bring the Lodge to a high state of efficiency. Bro. Lindley briefly replied, thanking the I.P.M. and brethren for the honour done him, and making several useful suggestions, which he hoped the brethren would attend to in future. He was now getting on in years, and had hoped it would not have been necessary for him to have taken such an active part in Masonry as again to become W.M. of a Lodge, but as the brethren thought he would be of service to the Lodge, he had consented to be nominated for the office. He concluded by proposing "The health of the I.P.M." Bro. J. M. Dargaville, in returning thanks, said that the distance of his residence from the Lodge had prevented him from attending to his duties as regularly as a Master of a Lodge should do. Still, he had done his best, and from the manner in which the toast had been received, it was evident the brethren thought so. He had accepted the office of W.M. in deference to the wishes of the brethren, and against his own inclination, knowing that he could claim no credit for regular attendance to his duties as Master. He had thought that a Lodge might be successfully floated there, and the number of brethren present, as well as the Treasurer's report read that evening, proved that he was right. Bro. Dargaville then proposed the toast of "The Installing Master, V.W. Brother Moat." This, they would all admit, was really the toast of the evening; for no matter who was entitled to the credit of founding the Lodge, one thing was certain—that had it not been for the exertions of Bro. Moat it would not be in existence to-day. A great deal had been said that evening about their own Masonic zeal and enthusiasm, but when they considered the amount of work done and personal exertion voluntarily undergone by Bro. Moat on their behalf, they must, in common with all other brethren by whom he was known, regard him as a model Mason. Bro. Moat responded. He thanked Bro. Dargaville for the too flattering eulogy he had passed upon him, and the brethren, not only for the manner in which they had responded to the toast, but for the kindness shown him on all occasions, both in public and private, wherever they came in contact. He certainly had taken some exercise on their account, seeing that each visit to the Lodge entailed on him a journey of at least 250 miles, but the present position of the Lodge, and their appreciation of his services was ample reward for all his trouble. There were few Lodges indeed which, at the end of their first year were amply supplied with furniture and regalia and, at the same time, had a balance on the right side of the ledger. Most people about Auckland looked upon the Northern Wairoa as somewhere outside the bounds of civilisation, and the people there were supposed to be in very poor circumstance these hard times; but when the ordinary receipts of the Lodge in its first year amounted to £250, it was evident times were not so very bad. He urged them to be punctual in their attendance at the Lodge, and give the W.M. every assistance in bringing it to a high state of efficiency. After a most enjoyable evening, the Tyler's toast brought the proceedings to a close, and the brethren departed east, west, north and south to their respective homes, some of which are forty miles from the Lodge-room. It would be improper to end a report of the first Installation Meeting of this Lodge without making reference to Bro. M. S. Leers, P.M. Prince of Wales Lodge 1338, who may truly be said to have been the pivot of this Lodge, he having consecrated it, twelve months ago, and having been the mentor and instructor of the brethren by whom it has been carried on. Bro. Leers is well-known in Auckland as one of the brightest of Masons, and the leading Preceptor under the English Constitution. The excellent working of the Prince of Wales Lodge 1338, of which he is Secretary, and the position of that Lodge, which is the leading Lodge in the colony under the English Constitution, is proof of his great ability and successful labours.

Digitized by Google

GRAND MASONIC CEREMONY AT INVERCARGILL.

THURSDAY, the 23rd October, is a day that will long be remembered in Invercargill as marking an era, so to speak, in the advancement of the place. It saw the foundation-stone of the handsome structure that is to do duty as a Hall of Justice laid, with all the Masonic ceremonies customary upon such occasions. The stone was laid by the R.W.D.G.M., His Honour Judge Harvey, and the District Grand Lodge Scottish Constitution. The relegation of this important duty to the District Judge, whose connection with the bar and public has admittedly been a pleasant one, was singularly appropriate, and he deserves the thanks not only of the Craftsmen but of the community at large, for remaining in Invercargill in order to carry out the wishes not only of the Masons but of the members of his own profession, and, we may add, of the public generally who have the slightest acquaintance with his Honour. In this duty he was assisted by several members of high standing in the Order, numbers of whom came from Dunedin and intermediate places, while not a few were from Queenstown and the Arrow. The members of the Aparima Lodge also mustered extremely well—in fact, so many Masons never before assembled in Invercargill, and it was the general remark with the Craft that they had no idea so many could have been brought together in so short a time. If we estimate the number at over two hundred we shall be within the mark. There were many notable visitors—brethren of high standing and skilful as Freemasons. Amongst them we noticed Bros. C. de L. Graham I.P.M. Port Chalmers Marine Lodge and P.M. of the Palmerston Lodge, Bro. G. F. Rowlatt P.M. and W.M. of Mount Ida Lodge, and the Worshipful Masters, Past Masters, Wardens and brethren of the Lake Lodge of Ophir. These were all E.C. Masons. Of S.C.'s there were—Worshipful Bros. Louis Court P.M. 116, Caldwell P.M. St. Andrews Lodge, Forest R.W. Mark Master 116, Golder P.M. St. Andrews Lodge Dunedin, McGavin P.M., J. O. Eva P.M. (formerly Grand Secretary), and Marsden P.M. Dunedin Lodge and Grand Organist E.C. We estimate the number of visitors from the north at close upon seventy. Need we say that the presence of so much outside talent, combined with local ability, ensured almost perfection in the voluminous details of the impressive ceremony, in which Freemasonry was pre-eminent. Below we give a detailed account of the proceedings, from the time the procession started from Sloan's Theatre, shortly after three o'clock, until the vast crowd, who had witnessed the whole proceedings, dispersed. It is, therefore, unnecessary to refer to these matters in detail here. As to the building, at the time of tenders being called for, we published a description that would convey a fair idea of its dimensions, and suitability for the purpose for which it was designed. The proceedings commenced at the Kelvin-street Lodge-room at high noon, with the installation of Bro. F. W. Burwell as Right Worshipful Master of Lodge St. John S.C., by a Board of Installed Masters, numbering twenty-five. This number was remarkable, and it may be questioned whether so many had ever before assembled in a Lodge in Otago. This in reality was but a minor part of the whole ceremonial. Extraordinary preparation had been made to lend the latter the utmost possible eclat. As it was pretty well understood that the assemblage of Masons would be exceptionally large, arrangements were made by Bro. Sloan for the use of the Dee-street Theatre. The interior of this large building was arranged as a temporary Lodge-room, and we can assure our readers that when the Lodge was in full sitting the scene presented was one that will not readily be forgotten by those whose privilege it was to gather within the walls. There were the members of four Lodges besides those of the District Grand Lodge, the latter conspicuous by their distinctive and gorgeous regalia. After the installation ceremony at the Kelvin-street Lodge the members of the Southern Cross Lodge assembled there, and after performing the usual rites, marched in procession to the Dee-street Theatre. Meanwhile the members of St. John's Lodge and numerous visiting brethren had assembled in the lower part of the building, and at a given signal the door was opened, and the members of the Southern Cross Lodge entered in procession and took their places. Then, under the direction of the District Grand Directors of Ceremonies (Bros. C. de L. Graham and G. F. Rowlatt), the imposing formula that heralded the entering of the District Grand Lodge was performed. The District Grand Master, Bro. Harvey, having taken his seat, the final act of the installation of the Worshipful Master of St. John's Lodge was gone through. This was followed by the investiture of the various Officers of the St. John's Lodge. The Grand Director of Ceremonies (Bro. Graham) then commanded the brethren to form procession. The procession marched along Dee-street and Tay-street to the site of the new building, where a large amount of bunting was displayed. When at a proper distance from the stone the brethren opened out right and left, and allowed the D.G.M. and Office Bearers to pass up the centre, in the following order:—The Architect, Chaplain, Deacons, Secretary, Treasurer, Wardens, Substitute Master, Deputy Master, Grand Steward, and D.G. Master. Marshalled by the Grand Director of Ceremonies (Bro. Graham), all gave way to the D.G.M., who was conducted to his seat on the platform by Bro. Graham, the D.G. Substitute on his right hand. On the table at which the D.G.M. was seated were placed the D.G. jewels. The ceremony immediately connected with the laying of the stone was initiated by an extempore prayer by the D.G. Chaplain, Bro. Craig. The band then played the National Anthem. The scroll to be deposited in the cavity of the stone, and which had been artistically engrossed by Mr. G. C. Baker, was then read by the District Grand Secretary, as follows:—"In the forty-third year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, this first stone of the Invercargill Law Courts was laid in due Masonic form on the 23rd day of October, A.D. 1879, and in the year of light 5883, by George William Harvey, District Grand Master of the Freemasons of the Scottish Constitution of the Middle Island of New Zealand, Bro. Sir Hercules Robinson, K.C.M.G., being Governor of the said colony; Bro. Frederick Wentworth Wade being R.W.M. of Lodge St. John, 610 S.C.; Bros. Henry Feldwick, Horatio Wragge, and E. R. C. Bowen being P.M.'s thereof; Bro. L. E. Reade being the W.M. of the Southern Cross Lodge, Invercargill, E.C., George Goodwillie being Mayor of Invercargill, Cuthbert Cowan being Chairman of the County Council of Southland, Bro. Henry Hirst being Chairman of the County Council of Wallace, James Prendergast being Chief Justice of New Zealand, James Alexander Johnston, senior Puisne Judge; Christopher William Richmond, Thomas Bannatyne Gillies, and Joshua Strange Williams being Puisne Judges; Bros. Charles Robert Dudley Ward, George William Harvey, and John Bathgate being District Court Judges for the Middle Island; Henry McCulloch and John Nugent Wood being Resident Magistrates for the district of Southland. Bro. Frederick William Burwell P.M. Lodge St. John No. 610 S.C. Architect; Colin McKay, Builder; Bro. Peter Walker, Inspector of Works. May the undertaking prosper, by the blessing of Almighty God." The document was handed to the D.G.M., who folded it up, and placed it in a bottle handed to him by the Director of Ceremonies. It was then securely corked. In another bottle were placed copies of the local papers. The architect then presented his plans to the D.G.M., who, together with the members of the D.G. Lodge, duly approved of them, the D.G.M. remarking that he trusted the erection of the building would be a credit to the town, and enhance the reputation of the architect. The following hymn was then admirably rendered by the choir:—

Round the spot—Moriah's hill—
Masons met with cheerful will.
Him who stood as King that day,
We as cheerfully obey.
Lord, we love Thy glorious Name,
Give the grace Thou gavest him.

Round this spot—thus chosen well—
Brothers with fraternal bail.
Gather in your mystic ring,
Mystic words, and joyful sing.
Lord, our hearts, our souls are Thine,
On our labours deign to shine.

Round this land may plenty reign—
Peace with spirit all benign;
Unity, the golden three,
Here their influence ever be.
Lord, these jewels of Thy store
Send them bounteous, flowing o'er.

The architect (Bro. Burwell) then presented the D.G.M. with a silver trowel suitably inscribed. The presentation was accompanied by a few appropriate remarks. The D.G.M. said he had great pleasure in receiving the trowel, which he should retain as a memento of a most auspicious occasion. It was most gratifying to see such a large assemblage of brethren of the Craft. Preceded by the Director of Ceremonies and Architect bearing the bottles and the coins to be deposited, and the D.G. Wardens with the level and plumb, the D.G.M. proceeded from the platform to the east of the stone, the D.G.S.M. on his right hand. The bottles and coins were then placed in the cavity of the stone by the D.G. Secretary. The mortar was then spread, and the stone lowered slowly into its place, the choir singing the following hymn, to the tune of the Old Hundred:—

Great Architect of heaven and earth,
To whom all nature owes its birth;
Thou spake! and vast creation stood;
Surveyed the work, pronounced it good.

O, God of Justice, own and bless
This hall we build, this sacred place;
And let Thy mercy ever shine
Within these walls—this house of thine.

The D.G. Wardens then applied their plumb and level to the stone at command of the R.W.Sub. D.G.M., and he thereupon reported to the D.G.M. that the stone was well and truly laid. The latter acknowledged the report as coming from workmen of skill and ability, and tapping the stone three times with the gavel, declared the laying of it to be completed. Corn was then strewed upon the stone by the Substitute Master, and wine and oil were poured upon it respectively by the S.W. and J.W. The W.D.C. then handed round the cups to make a collection for the workmen who were to be employed at the building. The foreman of works, Bro. Walker, was then presented to the D.G.M., who wished him success in the undertaking he had in hand. The D.G.M. and members of the D.G. Lodge then returned to the platform, and the choir sang the following hymn:—

Digitized by Google

Grant, Lord, all we, who here to-day,
Rejoicing, this foundation lay,
May be in very deed Thine own,
Built on a lasting corner stone.

Endue Thy creatures with Thy grace,
That shall adorn Thy dwelling place;
The beauty of the oak and pine,
The gold and silver, make them Thine.

To Thee, they all pertain; to Thee
The treasures of the earth and sea,
And when we bring them to Thy throne,
We but present Thee with Thine own.

The heads that guide endue with skill,
The hands that work preserve from ill,
That we who this foundation lay,
May raise the cope-stone in its day.

Bro. Harvey G.D.M. then addressed the assemblage as follows:—Ladies, gentlemen, and brethren, who are assembled here to-day to inspect this ceremony, know all of you that we are lawful Masons, true to our Queen and to our country, and who profess to fear God, who is the Great Architect of the Universe, to confer benefits on our brethren, and to practise benevolence. From time immemorial it has been the universal custom amongst civilised nations to level the foundation-stone of every building of importance or great public utility with certain ceremonies which by the courtesy of the architect and builders are almost always placed under the guidance and supervision of the Masonic fraternity, whom we have the honour to represent here to-day. The ceremony in which we have now taken part has been conducted by us and completed in due form, and I now declare this stone well and truly laid, and in accordance with the ancient custom. I have peculiar pleasure in having been permitted to take part in this interesting ceremony, inasmuch as I hold, as it were, a dual capacity—namely, as the head of the Scottish Freemasons in this island of New Zealand, and as an officer whose duty and privilege it will be to administer justice within the walls of the intended structure. Permit me here to draw your attention to the object for which this building is being erected—namely, the administration of justice—which, I venture to assert, to be one of the most important—if not the most important—object which can possibly engage the attention of any community. As an element in the attainment of a high degree of civilisation, the strict and impartial administration of justice stands second to none; and I do not hesitate to say that where the administration of justice is corrupt, religion will be entirely disregarded, and civilisation will become an impossibility. It is the spirit of indomitable energy and perseverance in the attainment of this paramount object which has distinguished the Anglo-Saxon race, and which has placed them foremost amongst nations in that position of freedom and liberty which they so proudly occupy to-day. This spirit has not been of a mushroom growth—it was not implanted in our breasts yesterday—but has been bequeathed to us by our ancestors from long before the time of the Saxon Heptarchy. The stern barons of old, who wrested Magna Charta from King John at Runnymede obtained from him no new thing. They said to him—"This is the common law of England. This is so; and we will that it shall remain so in future for ever." No free man (and let me here remark that all men at that time in England were not free, although freedom followed as a necessary consequence of their action)—no free man shall be condemned in property, person, or life, except in accordance with the law of the land, and by the judgment of his peers. Justice shall not be sold, neither shall it be denied to any one. These are the principles which we, as Englishmen, have always contended for; we have shed our blood in their defence, and we are ready to sacrifice everything to maintain and transmit them pure and unsullied to future generations. The enacting of wise and just laws, and the appointing of wise, just, and incorruptible judges to administer them is the first duty of every Government, and I think I may safely say that the Government of this colony has recognised these duties to their fullest extent. And although those laws may not at all times have turned out quite so advantageous as they were expected to do, and although unfortunate selections of judges may have been occasionally made, yet we may rest assured that our rulers have been actuated by the most sincere and earnest desire to do all things for the welfare of the people, and that if failure has at any time ensued we must attribute it to those imperfections to which human nature is at all times liable. In conclusion, friends and brethren, let us implore the Great Architect of the Universe, of His divine goodness and mercy, to fill our legislators with all wisdom and judgment to do everything in obedience to His divine will, and to guide and direct all those who may be entrusted with the duty of presiding within these walls, so that justice may never be prostituted or perverted therein. Let us implore Him to watch over and protect the workmen employed in the erection of this building, so that when the cope-stone shall be placed it may be crowned with success. Bro. Macrorie, in addressing the District Grand Master, said he had been asked to say something, not only as a Mason and citizen, but in the name of the district generally. Why he had been asked he was utterly at a loss to explain, but he supposed it was owing to his position in the Council, and in the absence of the head of the Corporation, he had to ask the D.G.M. Bro. Harvey to accept the thanks, not only of the citizens, whom he had the honour to represent on the occasion, but the thanks of the Freemasons also, for performing the very impressive ceremony they had just witnessed. When he looked back and saw the discomfort the public at large had been subjected to through want of proper accommodation—when he thought of the never-ceasing presentments of grand juries on the subject—when he pictured to himself the discomfort the judges themselves must have experienced, the inconveniences the legal profession and the public, the witnesses, and jurymen had been put to—when he remembered that at least one death had resulted from the total want of accommodation that existed, for it was a fact that one cold day a strong Southland farmer who was called as a witness in a case, caught cold while hanging about waiting for the case to come on, and died from the effects of that cold; when he considered all this, need he say that he hailed with great satisfaction the ceremony that had been performed that day, and which was practically the forerunner of court accommodation, of which Invercargill and the district generally might well be proud. After a few humorous remarks regarding Southland weather, the speaker went on to say that the superstructure which was to be erected on that site would afford accommodation for all parties concerned in Court work, while its proximity to the police barracks was a desirable factor. He was glad to see Judge Harvey in the position he occupied that day. He had known him now for something like twenty years, during which time he had been an ornament not only to his profession and to the high judicial position he filled, but to Freemasonry. In the name of the residents of Southland he thanked him for the part he had taken in the proceedings of that day, and trusted that the superstructure that was to be raised on those foundations would soon be completed, and would be perfect in all its parts, and a credit to the builder. A final hymn having been sung by the choir, the procession was re-formed, and headed by the volunteers and band, proceeded through Tay and Dee streets to the Theatre, where they parted company, the members entering their temporary Lodge-room, and closing the Lodge in form. The Volunteers proceeded to the drill-shed, where they were dismissed. This terminated the proceedings.—Southland Times.

Old Warrants.

—:o:—

No. 295, "Ancients;" No. 375 at the Union A.D. 1813; No. 259 A.D. 1832, and 214 from A.D. 1863.

[L. S., ATTACHED BY RIBBON.]

ATHOLL, Grand Master.

JOHN BUNN S.G.W. WM. DICKEY D.G.M. ROBERT GILL J.G.W.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

WE THE GRAND LODGE of the most Ancient and Honourable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons (according to the old Constitutions granted by His Royal Highness Prince EDWIN at York, Anno Domini Nine hundred twenty and six, and in the year of Masonry Four thousand nine hundred and twenty-six.) in ample form assembled, viz. The RIGHT WORSHIPFUL The Most Noble and Puissant Prince John, Duke, Marquis and Earl of Atholl, Marquis and Earl of Tullibardine, Earl of Strathtay and Strathardle, Viscount Balquider, Glenalmond and Glenlyon, Lord Murray, Belveny and Gask, Heritable Constable of the Castle of Kinclaven, Lord of Man and the Isles, Earl Strange and Baron Murray of Stanley in the County of Gloucester, &c. Grand Master of Masons, The Right Worshipful WILLM. DICKEY ESQUIRE Deputy Grand Master, The Right Worshipful JOHN BUNN ESQUIRE Senior Grand Warden, and the Right Worshipful ROBERT GILL ESQUIRE Junior Grand Warden (with the Approbation and Consent of the Warranted Lodges held within the Cities and Suburbs of London and Westminster) do hereby authorise and impower our Trusty and Well-beloved Brethren, viz., The Worshipful THOMAS SOWELLS one of our Master Masons, The Worshipful ROBERT RAMSAY his Senior Warden, and the Worshipful WILLIAM MASTERS his Junior Warden, to form and hold a Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, aforesaid, at the Ship, in Bridge Yard, Tooley Street, Southwark, or elsewhere, in the Cities of London or Westminster, upon the 2nd and 4th Tuesday in every Calendar month, and upon . . . . . on all seasonable Times and all lawful occasions.

No. 295, The Lodge of Hope and Unity.

And in the said Lodge (when duly congregated) to admit and make Free Masons according to the Most Ancient and Honourable custom of the Royal Craft in all ages, and nations throughout the known world. And we do hereby further authorise and impower our said trusty and well-beloved brethren, THOMAS SOWELLS, ROBERT RAMSAY, and WILLIAM MASTERS (with the consent of the members of their Lodge) to nominate, chuse, and install their successors, to whom they shall deliver this warrant, and invest them with their Powers and Dignities as Free Masons, &c. And their successors shall in like manner nominate, chuse, and install their successors, &c. &c. &c. Such Installations to be upon (or near) every St. John's Day during the continuance of this Lodge for ever. Providing the above named Brethren and all their successors always pay due respect to this Right Worshipful Grand Lodge, otherwise this Warrant to be of no Force nor Virtue.

Given, under our Hands and the Seal of our Grand Lodge, in London, this third day of November, in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, and in the year of Masonry Five thousand seven hundred ninety and five.

ROBT. LESLIE, Grand Secretary.

NOTE.—This warrant is registered in the Grand Lodge, Vol. 9, Letter I.

The present title, No., &c., are—The Lodge of Hope and Unity, No. 214, Brentwood.

Memo.—Bro. J. C. Earle, of No. 214, kindly furnished me with above transcript, which enabled me to show the exact date of the Warrant in my recently published work, "The Atholl Lodges."

In Ahiman Rezon 1813, the Lodge is wrongly placed at No. 296.

The "Hope and Unity" was one of the numerous Lodges in which the famous Masonic Instructor Bro. Peter Gilkes served the Office of Master.

In the Register of G. L. Bros. Sowells, Ramsay, and Masters are described as Mason, Carpenter, and Shipwright respectively.

R. F. GOULD.

Digitized by Google

DIARY FOR THE WEEK.

We shall be obliged if the Secretaries of the various Lodges throughout the Kingdom will favour us with a list of their Days of Meeting, &c., as we have decided to insert only those that are verified by the Officers of the several Lodges.

—:o:—

SATURDAY, 3rd JANUARY.

Special General Court, Girls' School, Freemasons' Hall, at 12.
General Committee Boys' School, Freemasons' Hall, at 4
198—Percy, Jolly Farmers' Tavern, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1373—Carnarvon, Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
1623—Rose, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8
1458—Truth, Private Rooms, Conservative Club, Newton Heath, Manchester

MONDAY, 5th JANUARY.

45—Strong Man, New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, at 8 (Instruction)
58—London Masonic Club Lodge of Instruction, 101 Queen Victoria-street, at 6
174—Sincerity, Railway Tavern, London-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
180—St. James's Union, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
186—Industry, Bell, Carter-lane, Doctors-commons, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
188—Joppa, Albion, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
548—Wellington, White Swan, High-street, Deptford, at 8 (Instruction)
704—Camden, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
1306—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-st., Wapping, at 8 (Instruction)
1435—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-rd., Paddington, at 8 (Instruction)
1445—Prince Leopold, Mitford Tavern, Sandringham-road, Dalston, at 8 (Inst.)
1469—Marquess of Ripon, Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-rd., Hackney, at 7.30 (In.)
1623—West Smithfield, New Market Hotel, King-st., Snow-hill, at 8 (Inst.)
1635—Tredegar, Royal Hotel, Mile End-road, corner of Burdett-road (Inst.)
M. M.—Old Kent, Trocadero, Broad Street Buildings, E.C. at 6.30 (Instruction)
M.M. 139—Panmure, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.

37—Anchor and Hope, Freemasons' Hall, Church Institute, Bolton-le-Moors
53—Royal Sussex, Masonic Hall, Old Orchard-street, Bath.
110—Sun, Square and Compasses, Freemasons' Hall, Whitehaven.
133—Harmony, Ship Hotel, Faversham.
154—Unanimity, Masonic Hall, Zetland-street, Wakefield.
156—Harmony, Huyshe Masonic Temple, Plymouth.
190—Peace and Harmony, Royal Oak Hotel, Dover
236—York, Masonic Hall, York
338—Vitruvian, Royal Hotel, Ross, Herefordshire
381—Harmony and Industry, Smalley's Hotel, Market-street, Over Darwen
395—Guy, Crown Hotel, Leamington Priors.
431—St. George, Masonic Hall, Norfolk-street, N. Shields.
441—Three Grand Principles, Red Lion Hotel, Petty Curry, Cambridge
483—St. James, Masonic Rooms, Handsworth, Staffordshire.
507—St. Cybi, Town Hall, Holyhead.
622—St. Cuthbergs, Masonic Hall, Wimborne.
651—Brecknock, Castle Hotel, Brecon.
694—Oakley, Masonic Hall, Basingstoke
820—Lily of Richmond, Greyhound, Richmond, at 7.30 (Instruction)
823—Everton, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
850—St. Oswald, Assembly Room, Ashbourne, Derbyshire.
1045—Stamford, Town Hall, Altrincham, Cheshire.
1[illegible]60—Gundulph, King's Head Hotel, Rochester.
1[illegible]—Rowley, Athenæum, Lancaster.
1[illegible]
1077—[illegible]Wilton, Red Lion Inn, Blackley, Lancashire.
1108—[illegible]Royal Wharfedale, Private Room, Boroughgate, Otley, Yorks.
1124—St[illegible]. Oswald, Wynnstay Arms Hotel, Oswestry
1190—For[illegible]ward, Masonic Rooms, New Hall-street, Birmingham.
1211—Gode[illegible]rich, Masonic Hall, Gt. George-street, Leeds.
1239—Wentw[illegible]orth, Freemasons' Hall, Sheffield.
1264—Neptune[illegible]. Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
1302—De Warre[illegible]o, Masonic Hall, White Swan Hotel, Halifax.
1380—Skelmersda[illegible]e, Queen's Hotel, Waterloo, Liverpool.
1442—Royal Milita[illegible]y Masonic Hall, Canterbury, at 8. (Instruction.)
1519—Albert Edwar[illegible], Albion Hotel, Clayton-le-Moors, near Accrington.
1573—Caradoc, Mason[illegible]e Hall, Caer-street, Swansea.
1578—Merlin, New Inn[illegible]l, Rhyl
1674—Caradoc, Town H[illegible]sons' Hall, Grainger-street, Newcastle.
1676—St. Nicholas, Freen[illegible]all, Manchester.
1706—Zion, Hulme Town h[illegible]el, Shrewsbury
R.A. 263—Salopian, Lion H[illegible]ic Hall, Darley-street, Bradford
R.A. 302—Charity, New Maso[illegible] Temple, Morley
R. A. 380—Integrity, Masonic h[illegible]all, Church-street, Basingstoke.
M. M. 37—Wyndham, Masonic h[illegible]

TUESDAY, 26th JANUARY.

Colonial Board, Freemasons' Hall, a[illegible]4.
45—Constitutional, Bedford Hotel, [illegible]outhampton-bldgs., Holborn, at 7 (Inst.)
65—Prosperity, Hercules Tavern, Lea[illegible]denhall-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
141—Faith, 2 Westminster Chambers, V[illegible]ictoria-street, S.W., at 8 (Inst.)
173—Old Concord, Freemasons' Hall, W.C[illegible]erwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
177—Domatic, Surrey Masonic Hall, Cam[illegible] (Instruction)
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney[illegible], St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hote[illegible]rk
765—St. James, Bridge House Hotel, Southw[illegible] Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
980—Dalhousie, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road[illegible]un's-hill, Wandsworth (Inst.)
1044—Wandsworth, Star and Garter Hotel, St. A[illegible]reet, Islington.
1206—Royal Standard, Wellington Club, Upper-st[illegible]0 (Instruction)
1340—Friars, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, at 7.[illegible]at 8 (Instruction)
1360—Royal Arthur, Prince's Head, Battersea Park,
1381—Kennington, Surrey Tavern, Kennington Oval (Instruction)
1446—Mount Edgcumbe, 19 Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8
1471—Islington, Three Bucks, 23 Gresham-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
1507—Metropolitan, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moor[illegible]gate-st., at 7.30 (Inst.)
1558—D. Connaught, Palmerston Arms, Grosvenor Park, Camberwell, at 8 (In.)
1602—Sir Hugh Myddelton, Crown and Woolpack, St. John [illegible]gt.-rd., at 8 (In.)
1668—Samson, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
1693—Kingsland, Jolly Farmers' Tavern, Southgate-road, I[illegible]lington
1707—Eleanor, Trocadero, Broad-street-buildings, Liverpool-[illegible]street, 6.30 (Inst)
R. A. 1365—Clapton, White Hart Tavern, Clapton, at 8. (In[illegible]truction.)
Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement, Jamaica Coffee Hou[illegible]e, Cornhill, 6.30.

70—St. John, Huyshe Masonic Temple, Plymouth
103—Beaufort, Freemasons' Hall, Bristol.
117—Wynnstay, Raven Hotel, Shrewsbury, at 8 (Instruction)
120—Palladian, Green Dragon Hotel, Hereford.
124—Marquis of Granby, Freemasons' Hall, Old Elvet, Durham.
158—Adams, Masonic Rooms, Victoria Hall, Trinity-road, Sheerness.
209—Etonian, Masonic Hall, Windsor
226—Benevolence, Red Lion Hotel, Littleborough.
241—Merchants, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 6.30 (Instruction)
248—True Love and Unity, Freemasons' Hall, Brixham, Devon.
265—Royal Yorkshire, Masonic Club, Hanover-street, Keighley.
293—St. David, Masons' Hall, The Parade, Berwick
493—Royal Lebanon, Spread Eagle, Gloucester.
558—Temple, Town Hall, Folkestone.
673—St. John, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
734—Londesborough, Masonic Hall, Bridlington Quay.
794—Warden, Royal Hotel, Sutton Coldfield
804—Carnarvon, Masonic Hall, Havant.
847—Fortescue, Manor House, Honiton, Devon.
938—Friendship, Masonic Hall, Petersfield, Hampshire.
948—St. Barnabas, Masonic Room, Linslade, Leighton Buzzard
960—Bute, Masonic Hall, 9 Working-street, Cardiff
1002—Skiddaw, Lodge Room, Market-place, Cockermouth.
1134—Newall, Freemasons' Hall, Salford.
1244—Marwood, Freemasons' Hall, Redcar.
1322—Waverley, Caledonia Inn, Ashton-under-Lyne.
1336—Square and Compass, Corn Exchange, Wrexham.
1473—Bootle, 146 B[illegible]rry-street, Bootle, at 8. (Instruction.)
1488—St. Eleth, Castle Hotel, Amlwch, Anglesea
R. A. 203—St. John of Jerusalem, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
R. A. 296—Loyalty, Freemasons' Hall, Surrey-street, Sheffield.
M. M. 89—United Service, Assembly Rooms, Brompton, Chatham
M. M. 115—Bedford, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham

WEDNESDAY, 7th JANUARY.

193—Confidence, Railway Tavern, London-street, at 7 (Instruction)
201—Jordan, Devonshire Arms, Devonshire-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
228—United Strength, Hope and Anchor, Crowndale-rd., Camden-town, 8 (In.)
538—La Tolerance, Green Dragon, 3 Maddox-street, W., at 7.45 (Inst.)
781—Merchant Navy, Silver Tavern, Burdett-road, E., at 7.30 (Instruction)
813—New Concord, Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
862—Whittington, Red Lion, Poppin's-court, Fleet-street, at 8 (Instruction)
1185—Lewis, King's Arms Hotel, Wood Green, at 7 (Instruction)
1278—Burdett Coutts, Salmon and Ball, Bethnal Green-road, at 8 (Inst.)
1388—Finsbury Park, Earl Russell, Isledon-road, Holloway, at 8 (Instruction)
1624—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion Road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1707—Eleanor, Angel Hotel, Edmonton
R. A. 177—Domatic, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-st., at 8 (Instruction)

74—Athol, Masonic Hall, Severn-street, Birmingham.
81—Doric, Private Room, Woodbridge, Suffolk.
296—Harmony, Masonic Rooms, Ann-street, Rochdale
326—Moira, Freemasons' Hall, Park-street, Bristol
327—Wigton St. John, Lion and Lamb, Wigton
406—Northern Counties, Freemasons' Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.
417—Faith and Unanimity, Masonic Hall, Dorchester
429—Royal Navy, Royal Hotel, Ramsgate
471—Silurian, Freemasons' Hall, Dock-street, Newport, Monmouthshire.
594—Downshire, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7 (Instruction)
611—Marches, Old Rectory, Ludlow
645—Humphrey Chetham, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester.
673—St. John, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8 (Inst.)
678—Earl Ellesmere, Church Hotel, Kersley, Farnworth, near Bolton.
972—St. Augustine, Canterbury (Instruction)
992—St. Thomas, Griffin Hotel, Lower Broughton.
1010—Kingston, Masonic Hall, Worship-street, Hull.
1013—Royal Victoria, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
1037—Portland, Portland Hall, Portland. (Instruction.)
1065—Hartington, Masonic Hall, Gower-street, Derby
1091—Erme, Erme House, Ivybridge, Devon
1167—Alnwick, Masonic Hall, Clayport-street, Alnwick
1274—Earl of Durham, Freemasons' Hall, Chester-le-Street.
1333—Talbot, Masonic Rooms, Wind-street, Swansea
1335—Lindsay, 20 King-street, Wigan.
1354—Marquis of Lorne, Masonic Rooms, Leigh, Lancashire.
1356—De Grey and Ripon, 140 North Hill-street, Liverpool, at 7.30 (Inst.)
1511—Alexandra, Masonic Hall, Hornsea, Hull, at 7. (Instruction.)
R. A. 258—Amphibious, Freemasons' Hall, Heckmondwike
R. A. 300—Perseverance, Pitt and Nelson Hotel, Ashton-under-Lyne.
R.A. 304—Philanthropic, Masonic Hall, Gt. George-street, Leeds
R.A. 387—Moravian, Masonic Hall, Shipley.
M.M. 36—Furness, Hartington Hotel, Duke-street, Barrow-in-Furness.

THURSDAY, 8th JANUARY.

3—Fidelity, Yorkshire Grey, London-street, Fitzroy-sq., at 8 (Instruction)
15—Kent, Chequers, Marsh-street, Walthamstow, at 7.3[illegible] (Instruction)
27—Egyptian, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7.30 (Instruction)
87—Vitruvian, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth, at 8 (Instruction)
211—St. Michael, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate Street, at 8 (Inst.)
263—Bank of England, Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
435—Salisbury, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8 (Inst.)
534—Polish National, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
754—High Cross, Coach and Horses, Lower Tottenham, at 8 (Instruction)
860—Dalhousie, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
1076—Capper, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
1227—Upton, King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., at 8. (Instruction.)
1321—Emblematic, Tulse-hill Hotel, Tulse-hill
1425—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-road, Paddington
1426—The Great City, Masons Hall, Masons Avenue, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
1558—Duke of Connaught, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
1599—Skelmersdale, Masons' Hall Tavern, Basinghall-street, E.C.
1614—Covent Garden, Nag's Head, James-street, Covent Garden, at 7.45 (In.)
R. A. 753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
R. A. 1471—North London, Jolly Farmers', Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Inst.)

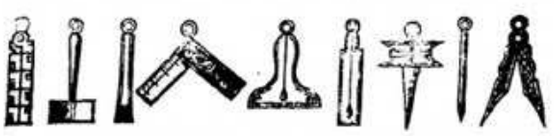
35—Medina, 85 High-street, Cowes.
97—Palatine, Masonic Hall, Toward-road, Sunderland.
112—St. George, Masonic Hall, Fore-street Hill, Exeter
139—Britannia, Freemasons' Hall, Surrey-street, Sheffield.
203—Ancient Union, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
216—Harmonic, Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool.
240—Mariners, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8. (Inst.)
333—Royal Preston, Castle Hotel, Preston.
339—Unanimity, Crown Hotel, Penrith, Cumberland.
469—Hundred of Elloe, Masonic Rooms, London Road, Spalding.
477—Mersey, 55 Argyle-street, Birkenhead.
546—Etruscan, Masonic Hall, Caroline-street, Longton, Stafford.
732—Royal Brunswick, Royal Pavilion, Brighton.
739—Temperance, Masonic Room, New-street, Birmingham.
784—Wellington, Public Rooms, Park-street, Deal.
786—Croxteth United Service, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
945—Abbey, Abbey Council Chamber, Abingdon, Berks
991—Tyne, Masonic Hall, Wellington Quay, Northumberland
1035—Prince of Wales, Masonic Hall, Kirkdale, Liverpool.
1056—Derby, Knowsley's Hotel, Cheetham, Lancashire.
1098—St. George, Private Room, Temperance Hotel, Tredegar, Mon.
1144—Milton, Commercial Hotel, Ashton-under-Lyne.
1145—Equality, Red Lion Hotel, Accrington.
1147—St. David, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester.
1182—Duke of Edinburgh, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1204—Royd, Imperial Hotel, Malvern, Worcestershire.
1273—St. Michael, Free Church School-rooms, Sittingbourne.
1369—Bala, Plasgoch Hotel, Bala.
1416—Falcon, Masonic Hall, Castle Yard, Thirsk.
1429—Albert Edward Prince of Wales, Masonic Hall, Newport, Mon.
1583—Corbet, Corbet Arms, Towyn.
1612—West Middlesex, Feathers Hotel, Ealing, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
1697—Hospitality, Royal Hotel, Waterfoot, near Manchester.
1782—Machen, Swan Hotel, Coleshill.
R.A. 275—Perseverance, Masonic Hall, South-parade, Huddersfield
R. A. 613—Bridson, Masonic Hall, Southport.
R.A. 1214—Scarorough Hall, Scarborough, Caledonian-road, Batley
R.A. 1393—Hamer, Masonic Hall, Liverpool

FRIDAY, 9th JANUARY.

Emulation Lodge of Improvement, Freemasons' Hall, at 7.
25—Robert Burns, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
177—Domatic, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
507—United Pilgrims, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
766—William Preston, Feathers Tavern, Up. George-st., Edgware-rd. 8 (Inst.)
834—Ranelagh, Bell and Anchor, Hammersmith-road (Instruction)

Digitized by Google

902—Burgoyne, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Duke's Head, 79 Whitechapel-road, at 8 (Instruction)
1056—Metropolitan, Portugal Hotel, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 7 (Instruction)
1158—Belgrave, Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1288—Finsbury Park M.M., Earl Russell, Isledon-road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1296—Royal Standard, Alwyne Castle, St. Paul's-road, Canonbury, at 8 (In.)
1365—Clapton, White Hart, Lower Clapton, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1643—E. Carnarvon, Mitre Hotel, Goulborne-rd. N. Kensington, at 8.0 (Inst.)
R. A. 79—Pythagorean, Portland Hotel, London-street, Greenwich, at 8 (Inst.)



36—Glamorgan, Freemasons' Hall, Arcade, St. Mary's-street, Cardiff.
458—Acre and Calder, Private Rooms, Ouse-street, Goole.
526—Honour, Star and Garter Hotel, Wolverhampton.
662—Dartmouth, Dartmouth Hotel, West Bromwich.
697—United, George Hotel, Colchester.
780—Royal Alfred, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, at 7.30 (Inst.)
815—Blair, Town Hall, Stratford-road, Hulme.
1001—Harrogate and Claro, Masonic Rooms, Parliament-street, Harrogate.
1087—Beaudesert, Assembly Rooms, Corn Exchange, Leighton Buzzard, Beds.
1289—Rock, Bedford House, Rock Ferry.
1536—United Military, Masonic Hall, Plumstead.
General Lodge of Instruction, Masonic Hall, New Street, Birmingham, at 7
R. A. 993—Alexandra, Medway Hotel, Levenshulme
K. T.—Hope, Freemasons' Hall, Fitzwilliam-street, Huddersfield

SATURDAY, 10th JANUARY.

Quarterly General Court, Girls' School, Freemasons' Hall, at 12
196—Percy, Jolly Farmers, Southgate Road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1426—The Great City, Cannon-street Hotel, E.C.
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W. at 8
1391—Commercial, Freemasons Hall, Leicester
1556—Addiscombe, Surrey Club, West Croydon
R. A. 308—Affability, Station House Hotel, Bottoms, Stansfield

THE NORTH EAST ANGLE.

THE Neophyte, as he passes through the mystic ceremonies of his reception, is for a certain period placed in the North East Angle of the Lodge, and there given to understand that he is so placed to represent the foundation stone of those superb and stately edifices, which our ancient operative brethren invariably placed at the North East Angle of the Building, and then the hope is expressed that from the lessons given, and admonitions he has received during the course of the evening, he will figuratively represent that stone, and upon it erect "a superstructure perfect in its parts and honourable to the builder." It is at this time when the Worshipful Master gives this advice, that a few kindly words (free from ritualism and extempore in character) should be expressed, and expressed in such a manner as to leave upon the mind of the Neophyte a deep and lasting impression of the sincerity of Masonic friendship, the earnestness of the Masonic labour in which he has embarked, and the grandeur and sublimity of those principles which have been handed down through countless generations, from time immemorial, and above all things to make him realise the fact that we practise those principles and expect him, as a true follower of Hiram, to do the same. The custom of glibly running through a few set phrases and inculcating charity in a parrot-like manner does not teach the candidate what means he is to adopt to raise that superstructure which we tell him should be perfect in its parts and honourable to the builder. He must be taught how he is to accomplish this task. He cannot do it unless it is now fully explained to him, and this is the great feature that we so often neglect. In some Lodges the excuse is there is so much work that the brethren cannot devote more attention to a single candidate. In others, that the Neophyte should discover these things for himself, grope along as it were in the dark, stumbling here and there amidst the rubbish and fallen timbers of our Mystic Temple, and in a few (many) Lodges, the Worshipful Master and his Officers are not aware, have never made the discovery that Freemasonry is anything more than a secret society, divided into degrees, with a ritual, a few signs, and some secrets attached to each. The consequence of all this is that the Neophyte is lost in a haze of doubt as he ponders in the North East Corner how and by what means he is figuratively to represent the foundation-stone of our Ancient Brethren. The fact is patent to all that we do not impress our lessons sufficiently upon the minds of our neophytes. Ritualism is not sufficient. It leaves a vacuum that requires to be filled up before the aspirant can be satisfied. Why teach him that we honour the name of God, if we bring curses upon our heads by invoking his hallowed name on every trivial occasion? Why tell him that he is never to pronounce that name except with the reverence due from the creature to the Creator, if we clinch our arguments with an oath, and "bespatter and besmear" our conversation with blasphemous epithets. Why talk charity if we do not practise it? The neophyte will notice these things very quickly, and if, after hearing these moral lessons, and being told that, on the foundation laid that evening he is to erect, symbolically, a moral edifice, the corner-stone of which is a belief in the Fatherhood of God—if after hearing all these things as he stands in the North East angle of the Lodge, he notes, as soon as he leaves the Lodge-room, that these brethren saunter away to bar-rooms, billiard-rooms, gambling-hells, dance houses and dens of iniquity, his moral sense is shocked, and he is apt to view the ceremony as a farce and the utterances of our Officers as arrant hypocrisy. Brethren, therefore, should set a seal upon their lips and a watch upon their actions. Good example and honest work tell far better than plausible precepts and the varnished veneer of slothful idleness. It is worse than useless running over the ritual to the Neophyte if we fail to carry out our glorious precepts in the every-day walks of life. We cannot, therefore, too strongly urge upon every Craftsman the vital importance of making the Freemasonry of the present day more practical in its character. We blush with shame as we note the hundreds of thousands of dollars given away in practical charity by the American Order of Oddfellows (in 1876, 1,698,840 dollars), and the fabulous sums expended by the Manchester Union or English Branch, and then note the fact that the Grand Lodge of the Empire State, with its seventy thousand Masons, expended last year in charity five hundred dollars! Fie upon it. The excuse that we are not a benevolent society is a farce, a snare, and a delusion. We are not a benevolent society strictly speaking, because our charity should be greater, more diffuse, more general. We delude ourselves with the idea that we are wondrous liberal, whereas in comparison with other societies we are far, far behind. Our place should be in the forefront, and not in the rear. Let the Neophyte see this, and his interest in the Craft will be greatly enhanced; let him see that Masons really love one another and are true to their vows, their precepts, and their principles. Let him see that the jest of the scoffer and the profanity and obscenity of the libertine meet with no response from the true Mason. If he notes these he will soon understand how to build up "a superstructure perfect in its parts and honourable to the builder." Make Masonry practical, and the Neophyte will then appreciate the God given truths expressed to him as he stands on the symbolical foundation stone of the moral edifice he proposes to erect, and then, as he adds ashlar to ashlar, he will soon prove to his brethren that he is following out the design laid down by the Chief Architect on His unerring trestle board, and keeping his labours within due bounds by the Compasses of Truth, and squaring his work by the Square of Virtue, and levelling it with the Level of Brotherly Love, and finally with the Trowel uniting it into one symmetrical whole with the Cement of Faith, Hope, and Charity.—Eclectic.

LATEST NOVELTY.
MASONIC CHARM FOR CHAIN.

The whole of the working Tools complete as above.

MOUNTED IN GOOD GOLD AND ORNAMENTALLY ENGRAVED.

To be had of the maker on receipt of 25s.

E. PELIKAN, Manufacturing Jeweller,
No. 102 St. John Street Road, London, E.C.

P.O.O. to be made payable at the St. John Street Road Office.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE,

A Weekly Record of Masonic Intelligence. Sanctioned by the Grand Lodge of England.

Price—13s 6d per annum, post free.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE will be forwarded direct from the Office, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C., (opposite Freemasons' Hall), on receipt of Post Office Order for the amount. Intending Subscribers should forward their full Addresses to prevent mistakes.

Post Office Orders to be made payable to W. W. MORGAN, at High Holborn Office. Cheques crossed "London and County."

London:—W. W. MORGAN, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C.
(Opposite Freemasons' Hall.)

Cloth Cases for Binding can be had from the Offices, price 1s 6d each.

LADBROKE HALL, NOTTING HILL, LONDON, W.

(Opposite the Notting Hill Station of the Metropolitan Railway, from which Trains run every few minutes to all parts of London, and in connection with the principal Lines of Railway.)

THE ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED FOR LODGE MEETINGS IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE DISTRICT.

LARGE LODGE AND BANQUET ROOMS, WITH EVERY CONVENIENCE.

THE HALL MAY BE ENGAGED for BANQUETS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, DINNERS, PUBLIC or PRIVATE ENTERTAINMENTS, &c

Apply to Bro. J. LINSCOTT (at the Hall), 14 Ladbroke Grove Road, London, W.

Digitized by Google

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND,

Under the patronage and support of

H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES, GRAND MASTER of England.
H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT, K.G., P.S.G.W.
H.R.H. PRINCE LEOPOLD, K.G., Past Jun. Grand Warden England, Prov. G.M. Oxfordshire.
CARNARVON The Right Hon. the Earl of, Pro Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
SKELMERSDALE Rt. Hon. Lord, Deput Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. West Lancashire.
ABERCORN His Grace the Duke of, G.M. Ireland.
STEWART Sir M. R. SHAW, Bart., G.M. Scotland.
ROSSLYN Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Past Grand Master Scotland.
ATHOLL His Grace the Duke of, K.T., P.G. Master Scotland.
ARNOLD Rev. C. W., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Surrey.
BEACH W. W. B., M.P., Prov. G. Master Hampshire and Isle of Wight
BENNETT Sir JOHN, C.C., Grand Stewards' Lodge.
BIRD REGINALD, M.A., S.G.D. England, Deputy Prov. G. Master Oxon.
BISON Sir CHARLES T., Dep. Prov. G.M. Middlesex.
BROADLEY A. M., D.D.G.M. Malta, Prov. G.M.M.M. Tunis and Malta.
BROOKE Right Hon. —, M.P.
BROWNRIGG General J. STUDHOLME, C.B., Prov. Grand Master and Sup. Surrey.
BUDDITT Colonel FRANCIS, Prov. Grand Master Middlesex, G. Supt. Middlesex, P.S.G.W., Rep. from Grand Lodge of Ireland.
BURRELL Sir WALTER W., Bart. M.P., P.G.M. Sussex.
CARINGTON Right Hon. Lord
CALTHORPE Maj.-Gen. Hon. SOMERSET J.G., J.G.W.
COCKCROFT LONSDALE M., Deputy Prov. G. Master Northumberland.
CLARKE HYDE, Past Grand Master and Rep. from Grand Lodge of Columbia.
EBRINGTON Rt. Hon. Viscount, P.G.M. Devonshire.
ELSE RICHARD C., Dep. Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
FEREERS Rt. Hon. the Earl, P.G.M. Leicestershire.
FERRIERS Baron de, Prov. G. Reg. Gloucestershire.
GOOCH Sir Daniel, Bt., M.P., P.G.M. Berks & Bucks.
GROSVENOR Right Hon. Lord RICHARD, P.S.G.W.
GUNDRY J. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Dorset.
HALFORD Lieut.-Col. Sir HENRY ST. JOHN, Bart., D. Prov. G. Master Leicestershire and Rutland.
HALSEY THOMAS F., M.P., P.G.M. Hertfordshire.
HARTINGTON, Rt. Hon. Viscount, M.P., Prov. G. Master Derbyshire.
HAYES Rev. Sir JOHN WARREN, Bart., P.D.P.G.M. Berks and Bucks, P.G.C.
HENNIKER Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W., S.G.W.M.M., P.P.G.W. Suffolk.
HICKMAN W., P.A.G.D. of C., D. Prov. G.M. Hants and Isle of Wight.
HILL Right Hon. Lord ARTHUR.
HUYSHE Rev. J., P.G.C., P.P.G.M. Devonshire.
ILES F. H. Wilson, M.D., Deputy Prov. G. Master Hertfordshire Prov. G.H., &c.
INVERURY Rt. Hon. Lord, P.G.M. Kincardineshire, P.G. Supt. Angus and Mearns S.G.W. Scotland.
JOHNSTONE Sir HARCOURT Bt., M.P., P.J.G.W.
JOTHY THOMAS, P.D.P.G.M. Hereford.
KENSINGTON Rt. Hon. Lord, M.P., S.G.W. England, D. Prov. G.M. S. Wales (Western Division.)
LECHMERE Sir EDMUND A. H., Bart., M.P., Prov. G.M. Worcestershire.
L'ESTRANGE Col. H. Preiley, P.G. Supt. Norfolk.
LLOYD-PHILIPPS Col. JOHN ALLEN, Prov. G. Master South Wales (Western Division).
LONDESBOROUGH Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W.
MARTIN Rev. C. J., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Suffolk.
MASEFIELD WILLIAM, D.P.G.M. Worcestershire.
MELLOR G., S.G.D. England, D. Prov. G.M. E. Lanc.
NEWMARCH GEORGE FREDERICK, Dep. Prov. G.M. Gloucestershire.
OXENDEN HAUGHTON CHARLES, P.G.W., Dep. P.G. Master Derbyshire.
OWEN Sir PHILIP CUNLIFFE, K.C.M.G., C.B., S.W. 1159
PERCY Rt. Hon. Earl, M.P., P.G.M. Northumberland
PERKINS, Sir FREDERICK, M.P., P.M. 130, P.P.S.G. W. Hants. P.P.S.G.W.M.M.M., &c.
PORTAL Rev. GEO. RAYMOND, P.M. 10, P.G.M.M.M.
PUREY-CUST Ven. Archdeacon A. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Berks and Bucks.
SCOTT J. H., Dep. Prov. G.M. Sussex.
SPENCER-STANHOPE Rev. C. W., G. Chap., Deputy Prov. G.M. Cheshire
STARKIE Col. LE GENDRE N., Prov. G.M. East Lanc.
TEW T. W., Dep. Prov. G.M. West Yorkshire
THE PROVINCIAL GRAND LODGE OF HAMPSHIRE AND ISLE OF WIGHT
TRESCOTT Sir FRANCIS WYATT, Lord Mayor of London, P.M. No. 1, P. Pres. Board of G. Stewards
WATSON JOHN, Dep. Prov. G.M. Notts.
WAVENEY Rt. Hon. Lord, Prov. G. Master Suffolk
WIGRAM Rev. SPENCER R., P.G.C., D.P.G.M. Essex
WILKINS BUTLER, Dep. P.G.M. Norths and Hunts.
ZETLAND Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Prov. Grand Master North and East Yorkshire

Ace Rev. Daniel, D.D., F.R.A.S., P.P.G.C. Linc., G. Chap. Mark.
Adams Herbert J., P.M. 569, P.Z. 11, 1237
Addicott C. C., 1307
Adlard F., P.M. 7, P.Z. 214, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Essex
Albert E. P., P.G.P., Sec. 188, 1617, &c.
Alpass Hermes S., Prov. G. Sec. W. Lanc.
Andrews Joseph, 209, St. James Chap. A.S.A.E.
Armstrong R. L., P.M. 406, P.G.S.D. Northumberland
Ayling T., P.M. 1096, P.P.G.D. of C. Kent
Ayton Rev. W. A., P.M. 599
Bagshawe Rev. Augustus A., M.A., P.G. Chap., P.P.S.G.W. Derbyshire, G. Chap. Mark, &c.
Baker E., P.P.G.S. of W. Berks and Bucks
Baldwin —, P.P.J.G.D. Middlesex
Bauer G. L., 198
Barfield —.
Barratt T., J.D. 3
Barwell H. G., P.M. 52, P.G. Sec. Norfolk
Bassett N. J. F.
Beasley A., P.M. 780. 1612
Beer Edwin, P.M. 1449
Belfrage D. M., W.M. 179.
Bell J., P.M. 1356, 1009, P.Z. 1356, P.P.J.G.D.
Bell W.
Berrie J. W., W.M. 1185.
Berry John J., P.M. 554.
Best Alfred, 211.
Biggs W., P.Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Binckes F., P.G.S.. Sec. R.M.I.B.
Blackburn George, S.W. 264.
Blackwell E. J., S.D. 1101.
Bogwis Arthur.
Boulter E. Reeve.
Boulton Babington, P.M., P.Z., P.P.G.D.
Bradley R., Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Brine Col. Frederic, R.E., P.M.
Brown H., Sec. 1764, P.G.S. Norths and Hunts.
Brown Richard, P.M. 241. P.Z. 1356, Hon. Sec. West Lanc. Masonic Educational Institution.
Bulley F. A., P.P.G.S.B. Berks and Bucks.
Burney Lieut.-Col. W. S. Somerville, P.P.S.G.D. Essex, P.M. 1615.
Burt, Ex-Sheriff George, A.G.D.C.
Carter J. O., Sec. 209, P.P.G.D of C. Berks & Bucks.
Carter Q.-M. Sergt. W., Sec. 1449.
Cattelle A., J.D. 31.
Challen Chas., I.G. 3.
Chalmers T. W., P.M. 726.
Clark Matthew, J.G.D. England.
Clarke Stephenson.
Clench Major E.
Collins Rev. J. W., P.G.C. Suffolk, S.W. 1823.
Colins R. H.
Conolly Dr., 1185.
Constable John, P.M. 185.
Cooke Alfred.
Cooke Charles, W.M. 1823.
Cooper F.
Cordley W., 574, 1101.
Cronin F., P.M. 231.
Cousins C., S.D. 209.
Cubbush James, P.M. 1385, Treas. 1731, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Herts.
Daunt Rev. E. T. Townshead, M.A., P.G.C. Cornwall.
Davage F. B., P.M. and T. 201, P.M. 167, P.Z. 185.
Davis G., J.W. 187
Davy C. R.
Dawkins Edward.
Dewar D. M., P.M. 1415, Assistant Grand Secretary M.M.M.
Dosell J. W. M., P.M. 55 463 1769, P.P.G.D.C. Surrey.
Dover J., 591.
Durrant Captain, P.M. 1185.
Emmerson Charles.
Emmerson R. Jones, P.M. 1206, P.P.J.G.W. Kent.
Ewins S. D., P.M. 766.
Exon R., P.M. 481, Prov. S.G.W. Northumberland.
Fenner A. W., S.W. 1227, J.W. 1693.
Fielder Baron, P.M., P.S.G.W. Berks and Bucks.
Flowerden Edward.
Frank, C. H., 1764.
Fraser J. A., 948.
Freeman, Vincent P., Prov. G. Sec. Sussex.
Frere E. T.
Gardiner G., Secretary 749.
Gee Fred. W., 1224, I.G. 1823.
Gibb T. Eccleston, 34.
Gilbert E. C., P.M., P.Z. 231, 293.
Gladwell Arthur E., J.W. 172.
Glendall Rev. J. W., P.M. 1, P.G. Chap., Chaplain to Foundling Hospital.
Godfrey Henry, P.M. 82, P.S.G.W. Gloucestershire.
Godson A. F., Q.C.
Goodall H S
Greenfield John, Treas. 1602.
Greenwood George H., P.M. 1224.
Hamp T.
Harriott G., P.P.G.M. Wigtown and Kirkcudbright
Harris S. M., Sec. 406
Harvey —.
Hawkins E. C., P.G.S. Oxon
Hedges Featham, W.M. 478, P.P.G. Sec. Oxfordsh.
Hemsley —, 771.
Henry Chaplin
Higham P., P.M. 21, P.P.J.G.W. Kent
Hodges H. Howard, P.M. 795. P.Z. 771, P.P.S.G.W., and P.G. Reg. [Arch] Berks and Bucks
Hogg Dr. Jabez, P.G.D., P.M. 172, 1260
Hopekirk W., P.M. Treas. 179, P.M. 1686, P.Z. 743
Hopper W.
Hopwood E., P.M. 141, 209, P.G.S.B. Middlesex
Horsley Charles P.P.G.R., P. Soj. Middlesex, P.Z.
Howkins Thos. P.M. 468, 948, P.P.G.W. and Sec. to Charity Committee of Warwickshire
Howorth Sergt.-Major J. F., Steward 1349
Hubbard C., W.M. 820
Inman Edwin H., P.J.W. 1312
Irvine J.
Jackson J. H., W.M. 654
Jacobs J., P.M. 482, P.P.G. Reg. Staffordshire
James W. H., P.M. 592, P.P.G.D.C. Gloucestershire
Johnson E., P.M. 140
Johnson H. J., S.W., 1791, J.D. 186, I.G. 1624
Jones F., Stanton, P.M. and Secretary 1319
Jones Robert E., W.M. 1224
Kay J. 742
Kenning George, P.P.G.D. Middlesex
Kent A., 1425
Kirby Edward, P.M. 1096
Klamborowski Leonard, J.W. 1823
Lake Wm., P.M. 131, P.P.G. Reg.
Lancham Henry C.
Le Fevre John G., Prov. G. Sec. Hants and I. of W.
Levy H. M., P.M. 188, &c.
Lewis W. Lambton
Lloyd Horatio, J.G.D.
Lucia W. H., P.G.S.B., Prov. G. Sec. Suffolk
Lucking A., P.M., P.Z., Prov. G. Sec. Suffolk
Lucking A., P.M., P.Z., Prov. G.D. of C. Essex
Maidwell T. J., P.M. 27.
Marshall Horace Brooks, C.C., Treas. 1777.
Massey H., P.M. 619.
Matier C. F., P.G.S.W. Greece, P.M. 645, P.G.W. Mark
Mather John L., P.M., P.G.D.C. Herts.
Meggy Thos., 10, P.M. 21, P.G.S.
Miskin H., W.M. 1449.
Morgan W. W., Sec. 211.
Morris Rev. R., Head Master R.M.I.B.
Morris W., Treas. 1586.
Motion George, P.M. 453, P.P.G.S.W. Essex.
Moutrie W. F. C., P.M. 11.
Murray J. Joyce.
Nairne P. A., P.M. and Treasurer 176.
Naylor H. T., P.M. 1449.
Newcomb J., 742.
Newsom W., P.M. 1661, P.J.G.W. Notts.
Newton James, P.M., P.Z., P.G.S.N. East Lanc.
Nicholes W. S., S.W. 209.
Orellana James, J.W. Mark 244.
Paas W., P.M. and Treasurer 28.
Palmer T.
Passawer Dr. E., W.M. 244 Mark.
Payton F. W., J.D. 482.
Pears Andrew, W.M. 865, J.W. 209.
Pepper J. F., W.M. 482.
Percival Captain H. P., 1261.
Perryman W. H., P.M. 3.
Petts E. J., 209.
Phillips W. Page T., P. Prov. S.G.W. Suffolk, G.H.
Pollitzer S., P.M. 1017, P.Z. 188, 538.
Ralling T. J., Prov. G. Sec. Essex.
Radcliffe T. H. 511.
Radcliffe W., S.W. 211.
Randall Rev. W., P.M. 448, P.G.C. Warwickshire and Staffs., Z. 482, E. 43, P.P.G.S., &c.
Ravenshaw Rev. F. F., P.G.C., P.M. 10, 863, P.Z. 638.
Reed H., P.M. 733.
Rere E. T.
Riach H. H., P.M. 874, 1523, P.Z. 1118, Past Prov. Grand Secretary Oxon.
Richards A. A., P.G.S., P.G.W. Middlesex.
Roberts Henry, 55.
Roberts Robert, P.M. 742, W.M. 200, Prov. G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Robbins Rev J., D.D., P.M. 1635, P.G. Chaplain Middlesex, W.M. 1765.
Rogers Rev. W.
Rosenthal S., P.M. 435, P.Z. 410, P.P.S.G.W. Middx.
Row C. J. N.
Sanders Rev. S. J. W., M.A. LL.M., &c. W.M. 1764, C. 360, Prov. G. Chap. Norths. and Hunts.
Saunders C. G., 328, 1609.
Saunders W. H., W.M. 889, P.P.G.D. Mdx., P.M. 1503.
Sellor A., 414, P.P.G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Sharpe W. H. C., W.M. 795.
Shaw Rev. R. D., W.M. 85.
Sherren J. A., W.M. 170, P.P.G.W. Dorset.
Short Rev. W. F., P.G.C., 10, 357, 1383, 1637.
Simpson Rev. R. J., P.G.C., P.M. 10.
Smith H. C. Cooper, P.M. 478, 1523, 1731, P.Z. 357, P. Prov. G.W. Oxon.
Smith S. H., P.M. 468, 938, P.P.G.S.D. Warwick.
Snelling W. Walton, Sec. 1056, and of Metropolitan Masonic Benevolent Association.
Spice R. P., W.M., P.G.S.
Spratt Augustus E. F.
Starkey N. A.
Steedman W., P.M. 754.
Stenwell —, P.M., P.G.S.
Stephens G. H., 1623.
Stove s James, P.M. 720 1216 1426, P.Z. 720 771.
Stiles W. M., Secretary 1507, 1732, 1744.
Stohwasser J., P.M. 238 435, P.Z. 8, P.G.S.
Storr E. F., W.M. 1679, P.M. 22.
Stuart Col. William, P.G.W., P.P.G.W. Herts.
Tamplin Augustus L., 441.
Taylor George, P.M. and Tr. 377, P.S.G.D Worcestr.
Terry James, P.P.J.G.W. Herts, Sec. R.M.B.I.
Tombs H. C., P.G.D.
Torkington, A.
Townsend G., P.M., W.M. 1086, J. 1086.
Tracey Nathiel.
Verry G. Ward P.M. and Sec. 554 1278 1431, J.D., 1580, S.W. 625, P.Z. 554 1385, P.P.G.P.S. Herts.
Vickery S. A.
Walsh Arthur, 1101, P.P.G.R. Berks and Bucks.
Watts G. H.
Watts J. W., P.M. 1201
Weaver James, P.M. 862, 1319, P.Z. 177 862 1319, P.P.G. Org. Middx.
Welham Henry, P.M. 1224
Wentworth T. J., W.M. 225, P.S.G.D. Suffolk
Westfield W., P.M. 1501
Wheeler Fred., P.P.G.R. Suffolk, P.M. and Sec. 1224
Willing James, P.M. 177, P.M. and Treas. 1507, P.M. and Treas. 1744, P.Z. and Treas. 1507, Z. 1000
Wilson J., P.M. and Treas. 209
Winter James
Withers Alfred, W.M. 211
Woodford Rev. A. F. A., P.G. Chap.
Woodman Dr. W. R., P.G.S.B.
Woodward E. C., P.M. 382, 1637, &c.
Worlock R. Montagu, Prov. G. Sec. Bristol
Wragg J. H., Prov. Grand Sec. Notts.

Caveac Lodge, No. 176, London
Etonian Lodge, No. 209, Windsor
St. Luke's Lodge, No. 225, Ipswich
Lord Warden Lodge, No. 1096, Walmer
Lewis Lodge, No. 1185, Wood Green
Curwen Lodge, No. 1400, Harrington.
Duke of Cornwall Lodge, No. 1529, St. Columb.

Editor of "The Freemason"
Editor of "The Freemason's Chronicle."
Editor of "The Rosicrucian"
Editor of "The Scottish Freemason"

Brethren who desire to assist in establishing this Fund will oblige by forwarding their names to be added to the above List.

Digitized by Google

CANNON STREET HOTEL, CANNON STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Has been thoroughly renovated; the Railway advantages, in direct communication with the Hotel, render this establishment unequalled in the Metropolis for

MASONIC BANQUETS, PUBLIC & PRIVATE DINNERS, BREAKFASTS, &c.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENTS, PUBLIC MEETINGS, ARBITRATIONS, &c.

THE LARGE HALL IS CAPABLE OF SEATING UPWARDS OF TWELVE HUNDRED PEOPLE.

VISITORS AND FAMILIES visiting LONDON, for LONG or SHORT PERIODS, will find the APPOINTMENTS, and ACCOMMODATION UNRIVALLED.

E. H. RAND, MANAGER.

ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY Limited, 7 Bank Buildings, Lothbury, E.C.

General accidents. Railway accidents. | Personal injuries. Death by accident.

C. HARDING, Manager.

MASONIC CHARITIES AUGMENTATION FUND.

(In connection with St. Michael's Lodge of Instruction.)

BRETHREN wishing to serve as Stewards at either of the Festivals of 1880 can qualify a Life Governors by a payment of 2s per week.

Address W. W. MORGAN JUN., SEC. 67 Barbican, E.C.

TAMAR INDIEN.

SPECIAL CAUTION.

OWING to the marked success of this medicine, the only patent medicine universally prescribed by the faculty, and the acknowledged cure for constipation, headache, bile, hemorrhoids, &c., BASE IMITATIONS, containing drastic irritants, are being foisted on the public. The genuine preparation bears the title "Tamar Indien," and the signature E. URILLON, Coleman-st., London, E.C. Price 2s 6d per box. In a recent case, 1876, G. No. 211, a perpetual injunction to restrain the defendant from applying the name "Tamar" to his lozenges was awarded, with costs, by Vice-Chancellor Bacon, on 19th January 1877, and all such piracies will be summarily proceeded against.——N.B.—See that the outer wrapper (directions) are printed in the English language and that each box bears the Government 3d stamp.

PARLEZ-VOUS FRANÇAIS?

MANY of whom this question is asked will say, I can read it and write it, but can't speak it. A neat little volume for the Pocket has just been published by an Ex-Inspector of Public Schools; all the most useful verbs as used in ordinary conversation are therein embodied, alphabetically arranged on an entirely new plan, and printed in large type in French and English, a most rapid system, indispensible to teachers and other persons teaching themselves the language. Sent post free to any address on receipt of ninepence in stamps to

Monsieur QUERECKE,

48 Rue des Roses, Courbevoie, Paris.

Postage of Letter to France, 2½d.

W. BEASLEY,

Bespoke Boot Maker,

28 Queen Victoria Street.

HUNTING, RIDING, DRESS AND BOOTS FOR THE MOORS,

MADE IN A FEW DAYS.

Specialité—Hand Sewn and Standard Screwed.

RHEUMATISM.

THE only real remedy for this complaint is the Northern Cure (patent). In bottles 1s 1½d each, to be had of all Chemists. Proprietors and Manufacturers, Edwards and Alexander, 29 Blaskett-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

BILLIARD BALLS, Chalks, Cues, and Tips, at HENNIG BROS.' Ivory Works, 11 High Street, London, W.C. Cheapest house in the trade for billiard table requisites and ivory goods in general. Old balls adjusted or exchanged, and tables recovered. Price Lists on application.

Established 1862.

Bro. A. OLDROYD, Stratford, London,

MANUFACTURER OF TOBACCO POUCHES,

With any name in raised letters.

CAN be obtained direct from the Maker, at the undermentioned prices, on receipt of P.O.O. payable at Stratford.

	Price		Will take a name of 9 letters
No. 3	2/0	...
,, 4	2/6	...
,, 5	3/0	...	12 ,,
,, 6	3/6	...	13 ,,
,, 7	4/0	...
,, 8	4/6	...
,, 9	5/0	...

A. OLDROYD.

Agent for Algerian Cigars, and Importer of Havana and Continental Cigars,

384 HIGH STREET, STRATFORD, LONDON, E.

HOTELS, ETC.

EALING—Feathers Hotel

EASTBOURNE—Pier Hotel, Cavendish Place. View of Sea and Pier. A. TAYLOR Proprietor

KEW—Star and Garter. Good accommodation for Lodge & Dinner Parties. J. BRILL Proprietor

SANDWICH—Bell Family and Commercial Hotel, Good Stabling. J. J. FILMER Proprietor

WOOD GREEN—Kings Arms Hotel. A. B. GREENSLADE Proprietor

YORK—Queen's Family and Commercial Hotel, Micklegate. H. CHURCHILL Proprietor

LONDON.

CALTHORPE ARMS—252 Gray's Inn Road, W.C. Billiards, Pool, Pyramids, &c. Best Wines and Spirits. W. H. G. RUDDERFORTH Proprietor

CANNING TOWN—Liverpool Arms. J. PAVITT. Friars L. of Instruction, 1349, Tuesdays at 7.30

GREEN DRAGON—Spring Garden-place, Stepney Wines and Spirits of the best quality. Billiards. Banquets provided for large or small parties. Yarborough L. & C. 554, and Temple Mark L. 173 held here. Lodge of Instruc. (554) meets every Tuesday at 8. A. WALTER Proprietor

MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT—Moorgate Street, E.C. Hot and Cold Dinners, &c. Chops and Steaks. Good accommodation for Lodge Meetings, &c. A. KENT Proprietor

NEW MARKET HOTEL—King Street, Snow Hill, E.C. Good accommodation for Club and other Banquets. Wines and Spirits of best quality. Specially licensed for Masonic Balls. Lodges 1623 and 1677 are held here. Strong Man No. 45 and West Smithfield No. 1623 Lodges of Instruction, meet here, every Monday at 8 p.m. Thomas BUTT Proprietor

SAWYER'S (late Station) RESTAURANT, 5 Railway Place, Fenchurch Street, E.C. English, French, and German Cuisine. Wines of the best quality. Hot and Cold Luncheons, Chops, Steaks, &c. Tea and Coffee. F. J. SAWYER (late of Pimm's and Crystal Palace) Proprietor

---

MEMORY EXTRAORDINARY BY CORRESPONDENCE.—Particulars post free of Bro. William Stokes, Teacher of Memory, Royal Polytechnic, 309 Regent-street, London, W. Private lessons by appointment. Class on Tuesdays, 3 and 8.30. The System complete in Three Lessons. "Stokes on Memory," by post 14 stamps. Memory Globe, 14 stamps.

New Edition, Enlarged, Crown 8vo., Cloth 5s.

WAIFS AND STRAYS, CHIEFLY FROM THE CHESS BOARD, by Captain Hugh R. Kennedy, Vice-President of the British Chess Association.

W. W. MORGAN, 67 BARBICAN, LONDON.

C. HUBBARD,

Plain & Fancy Box & Pattern

CARD MANUFACTURER.

139 & 141 NEW NORTH ROAD,

AND

64 SHAFTESBURY ST., LONDON, N.

POSITIONS IN THE CHESS OPENINGS MOST FREQUENTLY PLAYED.

Illustrated with copious Diagrams.

By T. LONG, B.A., T.C.D.,

Being a supplement to the Key to the "Chess Openings," by the same author.

ARTHUR ALLISON & CO.

Pianoforte, American Organ and Harmonium

MANUFACTURERS,

40 GREAT MARLBOROUGH STREET, W.

Sole London Agents for Dawes & Ramsden's Patent Melody and Pedal Substitute Organs, as supplied to Her Majesty and H.R.H. the Princess Louise.

Full Illustrated Price Lists post free on application to No. 40 Great Marlborough Street.

NOTE ADDRESS—a change having recently been made in the same.

ADAM S. MATHER,

GAS ENGINEER, GENERAL GAS FITTER AND BELL HANGER

MANUFACTURER OF BILLIARD LIGHTS

AND OF EVERY DESCRIPTION OF GAS APPARATUS FOR COOKING AND HEATING

Bath Rooms Fitted up. All the Latest Improvements Introduced.

MANUFACTORY—12 CHARLES STREET, HATTON GARDEN, E.C.; AND AT 278 CALEDONIAN ROAD, ISLINGTON, N.

ESTIMATES GIVEN

PIANOFORTES AND HARMONIUMS ON EASY TERMS.

GROVER & GROVER

LET ON HIRE, WITH OPTION OF PURCHASE,

BEAUTIFUL AND PERFECT INSTRUMENTS.

PURCHASERS CHOOSE THEIR OWN TERMS,

FROM 15s TO £3 3s PER QUARTER.

The Advantages of a Trial, with the Convenience of the Three Years' System at Cash Price, by Paying about a Quarter of the value down, the Balance by Easy Payments, from 15s per quarter.

GROVER & GROVER, 157-9 Kingsland Road.

ESTABLISHED 1830.

HOUGHTON,

THE BOOT MAKER,

243 & 244 WHITECHAPEL ROAD

LONDON, E.

Lasts made to the Feet.

—:o:—

SPECIALITÉ,

EASE, ELEGANCE AND DURABILITY.

Digitized by Google

EDWARD STILLWELL AND SON,

25, 26 and 27 BARBICAN, AND 6 LITTLE BRITAIN, LONDON,
109 ARGYLE STREET, GLASGOW,

Gold Lacemen, Embroiderers and Sword Cutlers,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Masonic Fittings for Lodges, Chapters and Encampments.

CLOTHING, JEWELS (PINS, STUDS AND RINGS), FOR EVERY DEGREE.

Aprons, Sashes, Horns, Ornaments and Banners for Foresters, Odd Fellows, Orangemen, Free Gardeners, &c.

REGALIA FOR I.O.G.T. AND ALL SOCIETIES.

LIBERAL TERMS TO SHIPPERS.

H. T. LAMB,

MANUFACTURER OF

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND REGALIA,

5 ST. JOHN SQUARE, LONDON.

PRICE LIST, CONTAINING 120 ILLUSTRATIONS, POST FREE ON APPLICATION.

JOSEPH J. CANEY,

DIAMOND MERCHANT, AND MANUFACTURING JEWELLER AND WATCH MAKER,

44 CHEAPSIDE, LONDON.

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND FURNITURE.

Specialité—First Class Jewels—Artistic—Massive—Best Quality—Moderate in Price.

CATALOGUES POST FREE.

A LARGE STOCK OF LOOSE BRILLIANTS FOR EXPENSIVE JEWELS.

Diamond Rings, Brooches, Studs, Earrings and Bracelets in Great Variety.

MASONIC JEWELS FOR ALL DEGREES.

MINIATURE WAR MEDALS AND DECORATIONS.

ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD IN ALL SIZES.

ATHLETIC SPORTS MEDALS AND BADGES.

A. D. LOEWENSTARK & SONS, Medallists, 210 STRAND, LONDON, W.C.

MANUFACTORY—1 DEVEREUX COURT, STRAND.

J. FORTESCUE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

129 FLEET ST.; 114 & 115 SHOE LANE,

(One door from Fleet Street)

6 EXMOUTH STREET, CLERKENWELL, E.C.

And 143 Mare Street, Triangle, Hackney

Gents' Silk Hats from 5/6 each. Second best 6/6 7/6 8/6
Superfine quality, 10/6 12/6 & 16/. The very best made 21/.
Felt Hats, hard and soft, in all the newest shapes,
from 3/6 to 10/6.

J. E. SHAND & CO.

Wine Merchants,

(EXPERTS AND VALUERS OF WINES AND SPIRITS.)

2 ALBERT MANSIONS, VICTORIA STREET, LONDON, S.W.

PRICES DELIVERED IN LONDON.

SHERRIES	21s, 24s, 30s, 36s, 42s 48s	CHAMPAGNES	36s, 42s, 48s, 54s, 60s
PORTS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	BURGUNDY	18s, 20s, 24s, 36s, 42s
CLARETS	12s, 16s, 18s, 20s, 24s, 36s	BRANDIES ...	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s, 66s
MOSELLES & HOCKS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s	WHISKIES	20s per gall., 42s per doz.

COUNTRY ORDERS OVER £3 CARRIAGE FREE.

5 PER CENT. DISCOUNT FOR CASH WITH ORDER.

DETAILED PRICE LIST ON APPLICATION.

Fish Carvers, Fish Eating Knives and Forks,
Revolving Covered Soup and Luncheon Dishes.

SPECIALITIES FOR TESTIMONIALS,
TEA AND COFFEE SERVICES,
SALVERS, DESSERT KNIVES AND FORKS, GILT AND OXYDIZED GOODS.

77 (from 28) Cheapside, London, E.C.
(NEAR THE POULTRY.)

MORING,

ENGRAVER, DIE SINKER,
HERALDIC ARTIST,
ILLUMINATED ADDRESSES,
44, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST POST FREE.

ADLARD'S JEWEL ATTACHER 7/6.

If with Pockets, 6d each Pocket extra.

225 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

JANES & SON

WINDOW BLINDS ONLY,

WHOLESALE,

ALDERSGATE STREET, CITY, E.C.

BRANCH—

4 EAGLE PLACE, PICCADILLY

THESE ADDRESSES ONLY.

YOUNG'S Arnicated Corn and Bunion Plaisters are the best ever invented for giving immediate ease, and removing those painful excrescences. Price 6d and 1s per box. Any Chemist not having them in stock can procure them.

Observe the Trade Mark—H. Y.—without which none are genuine. Be sure and ask for Young's.

Horticultural Decorations, Fernaries, Window Gardening, Seeds, Bulbs, Plants, Ferns, FLAGS FOR DECORATIONS. Masonic Banquets, Balls, &c.

DICK RADCLYFFE & CO., F.R.H.S.

PRIZE MEDAL SEEDS.

129 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

TABLE DECORATIONS,
Ball Room Decorations, Seeds for Export.
Illustrated Catalogues gratis and post free.
Seeds, Bulbs, &c., carefully packed for Export.

NEW MASONIC ROOMS,

COMPLETE SUITE,
SPECIALLY ARRANGED
LODGE, BANQUETTING,
AND ANTE ROOMS,
ALL ON ONE FLOOR.

Particulars to be had of

BRO. A. KENT, MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT,
OPPOSITE RAILWAY STATION,

From which trains run at frequent intervals in connection with the Great Northern, Midland, Great Western, London Chatham & Dover, and Metropolitan Railways.

Printed for the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE PUBLISHING COMPANY LIMITED, and Published by Bro. WILLIAM WRAY MORGAN JUN., at 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C., Saturday, 3rd January 1880.

Digitized by Google

THE

Freemason's Chronicle;

A WEEKLY RECORD OF MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

SANCTIONED BY THE GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

Registered at the G.P.O. as a Newspaper.

VOL. XI.—No. 263. SATURDAY, 10th JANUARY 1880. [Issued to Subscribers only. 13s 6d per annum, post free.

APPROACHING FESTIVAL OF THE R.M.B.I.

THE first meeting of Stewards in connection with this Festival was held on Tuesday, at Freemasons' Hall, London, W.C. There were present—Bros. J. J. Berry, H. A. Dubois, C. Hubbard, George Kenning, Edgar Bowyer, J. B. King, C. A. Cottebrune, W. S. Hunter, T. Hallett, Geo. Cooper, E. Montennis, Louis Hirsch, Samuel Poynter, W. Clarke, S. T. Catterson, B. Isaacs, E. Hopwood, W. H. Farnfield, Samuel H. J. Parkhouse, H. R. Cooper Smith, E. C. Woodward, Frank Green, J. B. Poole, E. F. W. Berger, G. W. Greenhill, Benj. H. Paul, J. Terry Secretary of the Institution, &c. Bro. C. A. Cottebrune was appointed Acting President of the Board, and took the chair on this occasion. The usual preliminary details were discussed, committees appointed, and routine matters settled. The meeting was adjourned until the 23rd inst., at four o'clock. The number of Stewards at the present time is nearly 200, a number very much under the total at the same period of last year; we trust the services of several more will yet be secured, and that in every respect the Festival of 1880 will be as great a success as any of its predecessors. As is already known, the Earl of Zetland, Prov. G.M. for North and East Yorkshire, will occupy the chair; the following distinguished brethren supporting him as Presidents of the Board of Stewards, viz.:—Lord Kensington, M.P. Senior Grand Warden England, Major-General Somerset, J. G. Calthorpe Junior Grand Warden England, Major Marmaduke Ramsay District Grand Master Punjab, and R. W. H. Giddy District Grand Master Griqualand. Bro. W. H. Farnfield P.M. 907, 1766 Sec. 1804, was appointed Treasurer of the Board, and Bro. James Terry Hon. Secretary.

TOUTING FOR THE HIGH DEGREES.

THE Founders of Blue, or Craft Masonry, acted wisely in introducing the law making it imperative on every candidate for initiation to declare, before he could be admitted into the Lodge, that he sought participation in the mysteries of the Order of his own free will and accord, entirely unbiassed by the improper solicitation of friends. So generally is this law respected that no member of the Craft would for a moment think of openly advertising for initiates, and it is likewise generally understood by those outside the mystic circle that Freemasons are not allowed to ask strangers to join their ranks. Most persons know that they must voluntarily express their desire, if they entertain one, to participate in the benefits of the Order, before they can hope to have it gratified. By this restrictive law the members of the Craft are enabled to confine the benefits of the Order to a class who at least have some desire for the welfare of the Brotherhood at the time of their initiation, however much their interest may dwindle when once they have been admitted to a participation in the secrets of the First Degree; and to this we owe very much of our freedom from disputes. Of course there will always be a number of initiates who express themselves as disappointed by their experience of Freemasonry, and as a consequence do not proceed further than the preliminary step, but not one of these, no matter what may be the nature of his disappointment, can charge the Brotherhood with being the cause of it; nor can he say that he was induced to join under false pretences. When we remember that the advantages of Freemasonry are mainly of a moral tendency, we cannot too highly approve of our law-givers having made this admission necessary; for were it otherwise, we might expect disappointed novices laying all manner of charges against us, or bringing claims against the brethren for having overstated the benefits of the Craft. It cannot be denied, notwithstanding all our precautions, that there are some who really do join our ranks in the hope that they will reap a financial benefit, or that their business will be advanced by their connection with the Craft; now, if such as these are disappointed, they have only themselves to blame. On the other hand, if Freemasons were allowed to canvass for initiates, it would be different, and we should at all times be open to the charge of having promised more than we performed. To prevent this it was wisely ordained that the first act of a candidate after he had been accepted by the Lodge should be to declare that he offered himself freely, voluntarily, and unsolicited. Once admitted to a participation in the mysteries of the Craft, the restriction is relaxed, and as a consequence, brethren are frequently solicited to become candidates for the higher degrees. We think it very questionable whether this course benefits either the degree it is intended to advance, or the brethren who, against their real inclination, are led to put themselves forward as candidates.

To such an extent is this "touting" carried on in some districts, that a mild protest is frequently necessary in order to check the ardour of the more energetic members. This appears to be the case in Kingston, Jamaica, from whence we have received a small pamphlet, entitled "A Caution to the Younger Members of the Masonic Fraternity, against the so-called High Degrees. By H. J. Bürger." The arguments used by that distinguished Craftsman are very strong, but we cannot entirely agree with all he says, nor do we think such harsh remarks as some he makes can be necessary to secure the end he has in view. He thinks that the definition given of Freemasonry in the ceremonies is so clear as to make it impossible that any one should "mistake the Royal Arch Degree, or the Knights Templar, or the Rose Croix, as constituting any part or portion of our beautiful system," and then proceeds to state that the Royal Arch Degree was formed by the secessionists of 1717, in order that some extra inducement might be offered to secure members for their independent Grand Lodge. We do not think it policy to print here all our Brother has written regarding the work of the Royal Arch: his aim is to prove that it really has no connection with ancient Masonry, and that it is merely the concoction of a few disappointed Craftsmen of 1717. He says that the mere fact of the arrangements of the whole system of Craft Masonry on the triad system is sufficient to prove that there could never have been more than the three degrees. "There are," he adds, "three chief Officers, three subordinates, three great Lights, three lesser, three columns, three jewels, three steps, three modes of recognition, three points of entrance, three working tools in each degree, and consequently only three degrees. Any one may see that a system evidently built on the TRIAD cannot violate it in so essential a matter as the division of its mysteries into four degrees, as such a proceeding would be anomalous. The Egyptian mysteries were divided into three degrees and no more, viz.:—Those of Isis, Serapis, and Osiris; and we know that in the Christian Church there are only three Orders, viz.:—Deacon, Priest, and Bishop. How, then, could Freemasonry, either as an Ancient or a Christian Institution, be divided into four degrees?"

Digitized by Google

All this is very true, but as the Royal Arch has existed for many years as a recognised adjunct to Craft Masonry, we see no good that can accrue from a severance at the present time. The matter is entirely in the hands of the existing members, who, for the sake of their own reputation, may be supposed to watch carefully the working of the Degree. We think that Bro. Bürger could have protested as strongly against "touting" without attacking a part of our present system. The Royal Arch has long been, and we suppose will now always remain, a recognised part of English Freemasonry. It has its advantages, and naturally its disadvantages; if its members would display greater discretion in advocating its cause, one of the latter would be removed, and we should not so often hear that candidates did not attend, although their names were put forward on the agenda paper of the day.

PROJECTED EXTENSION OF THE GIRLS' SCHOOL.

ON Saturday last, according to advertisement, a Special General Court of the Governors and Subscribers of the Girls' School was held, to repass the vote proposed by Bro. Colonel Creaton, that the sum of £6,500 be expended in the purchase of Lyncombe House and grounds. As we have before pointed out, this course was deemed necessary in consequence "of a question of the construction of the Laws having arisen." We can but again regret the result,—the vote being carried by a majority of those present. We feel assured that the expenditure will in the end prove most disastrous to the Institution, and that were the general body of subscribers able to express an opinion without personal attendance in London, it would be found that this expenditure was opposed to the views of a large majority. We are informed that the question will not be allowed to rest as it is; that, if necessary, legal proceedings will be resorted to in order to endeavour to stop the proposed outlay. This is a step which all must regret, for it is but the beginning of a course which will end in the severance of a section of the supporters of the Institution. It would be far better to ascertain the general feeling than to run the risk of creating a breach, for however strong the Institution may be at the present time, it should be borne in mind it has a future. When such strong opinions are expressed, as is the case on this subject, they should secure some consideration.

SPECIAL COURT OF THE GIRLS' SCHOOL.

A SPECIAL General Court of the Governors and Subscribers of the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls was held at Freemasons' Hall, on the 3rd instant, Colonel Creaton, Grand Treasurer, presiding, for the purpose of passing the resolution recommended by the Building Committee, "That the sum of £6,500 be expended in the purchase of Lyncombe House and grounds (freehold), the property of William Evill, Esq., adjoining the grounds of the Institution at St. John's Hill, Battersea Rise, S.W." The Chairman, after Bro. Hedges had read the advertisement convening the meeting, in which the above motion was set out, stated that the advertisement the brethren had heard fully explained why this second Court had been convened—that there had been a question of the construction of the Laws as to the regularity of the former meeting. The object of the present meeting was to propose the purchase of the house and grounds adjoining the Institution, which he believed every one now was conversant with. The advantages of the purchase would be that the Institution would retain the space by the side of its present spacious premises, and the large house which was to be purchased would accommodate five-and-twenty children as a probationary School, and by the removal of a wall, that ground which he proposed they purchase would become part and parcel of their present premises. He was asked at the last meeting if he had had any professional opinion with regard to the value of the ground and house. He had not at that time, but since he had procured the opinion of a gentleman of very high standing—Mr. Knowles, 17 Albert Mansions, Victoria Street, who had written him the following letter:—

"17 Albert Mansions, Victoria-street, S.W., 31st December 1879.

"DEAR COLONEL CREATON,—In reply to your request for my opinion as to whether or not the sum of £6,500 would be a fair and prudent price for the Freemasons' School to pay for the freehold house and grounds called Lyncombe House, adjoining their premises on Wandsworth Common, I do not hesitate to say, after my personal visit to the place yesterday, that I think the School would do wisely to secure it at the above-named price.

"I am not now pretending to estimate with accuracy the market value of the property, but it seems to me that even were £6,500 above this (which I by no means imply that it is or is not), the many advantages which the School would gain with it should decide in favour of the purchase.

"One consideration alone would weigh with me enough to settle the matter, namely, that in other hands the place might grow to be the most serious injury and drawback to the School. Were I one of the authorities, I should be very sorry to take the responsibility of not guarding against such a risk when the opportunity was offered of doing so. If nothing else were done but to obtain possession and consequent control of it, even if part of it were let again by the School as landlord, I should suppose it might be a prudent thing to do as a safe investment for some of the School funds, and an invaluable safeguard to the rest of their property.

"But I imagine that it could be converted at very small cost into additional accommodation for children, which would in no other way be procured so economically, and that this would be the best ultimate destination for it.

"At any rate I should advise you, as Treasurer, to make it perfectly clear that you are free from all responsibility in the future which might and probably would arise if the property were allowed by the School authorities to pass into other hands.

"Yours very truly, (Signed) JAMES KNOWLES."

Having thus opened his case he would move, "That the sum of £6,500 be expended in the purchase of Lyncombe House and grounds (freehold), the property of Wm. Evill, Esq., adjoining the grounds of the Institution at St. John's Hill, Battersea Rise, S.W." The motion was seconded by Bro. Griffiths Smith. In answer to Bro. Warner Wheeler, the Chairman said the land proposed to be acquired was a little over three-quarters of an acre, and the house was a very large one. Bro. H. Thompson asked the Chairman whether he had received notice that the meeting was an illegal one, and that the motion could not be put. The Chairman replied that he had not received any notice, but he had been told before he came into the room. Bro. Thompson asked if the Chairman still intended to put it, to which the Chairman replied that he did. Bro. Thompson said then he should advise the brethren not to vote, whereupon the Rev. Adolphus Woodford begged to call him to order. If Bro. Thompson had an amendment to the motion, he could make it; but if not, he had no right to use language which would influence the votes of the brethren. Bro. Thompson submitted that the fact that the meeting was not a legal meeting quite overrode every motion. If the meeting was illegal an amendment could no more be moved than an original motion. Bro. Gover said it was extraordinary to take exceptions to a meeting and not state the grounds of objection. Col. Burdett supported the motion for the purchase, but he wished to ask whether a legal opinion had been taken as to whether the trustees had power to invest their money in this way. The Chairman said he had not, but perhaps Bro. McIntyre would give them his opinion. Bro. Edward Cox said it was not an investment at all; it was a proposed purchase. He rose to oppose the motion. £6,500 was an outrageous price to give, and he should move as an amendment, "That it is not expedient at the present time to make any addition to the grounds and premises of the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls." As to the value of the property, Mr. Knowles had given the go-by to the question, and had merely said it would be good to purchase the house, &c., because it would keep other people out. Then, on this account, they should buy up the whole of the ground on that side of the Wandsworth-road which abutted on the ground of the Institution, as that alone would give seclusion to the School. Bro. Cox then stated that Lyncombe House and grounds would not fetch £4,000 if put in the market. The gross annual rental was only £120, and the rateable value £100. It had been said that the proprietor had laid out £700 in decorations, but why did he do that if he intended in twelve months to pull it down, and lay out the ground for building. If the place was wanted only to obtain access from the main road, £6,500 was a large price to pay for that. Persons visiting the School would not object to going by way of the present bridge. If it was proposed to take in 25 more children, he thought the Institution was already burdened with as much as it could bear, and posterity would not thank them for the increased expenditure. If they found out at a future time that they had not sufficient space, they could then increase it. Bro. Freeman seconded the amendment. Bro. Clabon supported the original motion. The price was high, but the value of the premises to the Institution was great. Access to St. John's Hill was already meagre. They would not think of moving their Schools, and therefore they must see if they could not get hold of any property which their means would fairly allow them to get hold of to improve it for the present and the future. Bro. Cox wanted them to wait a couple of years, but then the opportunity of purchasing the property would be gone. As to the means of the Institution, he would be ashamed to suppose the great Society of Freemasons could not raise £6,500. He thought if the property was not purchased now, the brethren would regret it. Bro. W. S. Gover and Bro. Perceval supported the motion, and on the chairman putting the amendment proposed by Bro. Cox, only five hands were held up for it. The original motion was then put and carried, and the proceedings closed with a vote of thanks to the chairman.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Coughs, Influenza.—The soothing properties of these medicaments render them worthy of trial in all diseases of the respiratory organs. In common colds and influenza, the Pills, taken internally, and the Ointment rubbed over the chest and throat, are exceedingly efficacious. When influenza is epidemic, this treatment is easiest, safest, and surest. Holloway's Pills purify the blood, remove all obstacles to its free circulation through the lungs, relieve the over-gorged air tubes, and render respiration free, without reducing the strength, irritating the nerves, or depressing the spirits, such are the ready means of saving suffering when any one is afflicted with cold, coughs, bronchitis, and other chest complaints, by which so many persons are seriously and permanently afflicted in most countries.

Digitized by Google

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents.

We cannot undertake to return rejected communications.

All Letters must bear the name and address of the Writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

—:o:—

DEVON EDUCATIONAL FUND.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I am very much surprised at the amount of steam "AU FAIT" has been able to get up on what appeared to me, when I wrote to you, a very simple matter indeed. I had no idea it would create a controversy, nor had I any thought of saying anything to the disparagement of any existing Institution; my only desire was to show that while the Institutions in London were doing good work, other good work could be done much cheaper at home. The Province of Devon is a very large one, and has a large number of Freemasons; consequently the death rate is in excess of the power of the central Institutions to afford relief to all the unfortunate orphans to whom it may become necessary. As a consequence, it was felt desirable that means should be taken to raise a fund for the purpose of educating and clothing, and, where necessary, giving something to the friends to sustain the children of deceased Freemasons who may require this substantial aid. It was found by experience that it required immense efforts—manipulation of votes for the Boys' to the Girls' School, and vice versa, and a union with the neighbouring Province of Cornwall—to secure the election of a boy or girl against the vast number of applicants that came from all parts of England.

Now, by these comparatively small subscriptions, gathered in the Province, you will have seen in my communication of a fortnight since, that four children were elected, who are now under instruction by means raised in the Province. It cannot be supposed for a moment that these children could get elected into the Central Institutions for a very long time to come, if at all. Consequently, there is a great deal of good done by these local subscriptions; and further, the good done by the children being educated in association with the families in which they have been brought up I maintain to be of very great importance, for the family tie is not broken, and the children so educated do not look down upon their brothers or sisters who may not have had the same opportunity of receiving so good an education as they have received themselves. It is also found that the proprietors of schools, entering into the spirit that stimulates the promoters of this scheme, are prepared to receive children—and have offered to do so—at a lesser sum than they receive for their ordinary pupils; and this adds to the power of the Committee to give additional aid where such aid may be wanted. I do not desire to enter into a controversy with "AU FAIT" on what should be a pleasant matter, and not one to excite unkindly feelings. I am quite prepared to admit that the Province of Devon has received more benefit than it has subscribed, but that only makes my case stronger. I am quite satisfied that for the last ten or fifteen years this Province has very largely contributed to the funds of the three great Masonic Institutions, for there has been a spirit of rivalry amongst the Stewards, who have done their very best, by canvassing the Lodges in behalf of those Charities.

Thus we have not left undone what we ought to have done, and we have done other things besides. "AU FAIT" ought to be rather pleased than otherwise to think, while we have done our best for the great Societies, we are also doing something for the lesser.

I wish "AU FAIT" a calmer spirit, and a "Happy New Year," while I beg to subscribe myself, as before,

A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON.

UNIFORMITY OF MASONIC RITUAL AND OBSERVANCE.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I am greatly obliged to Bro. Charles John Perceval for his able advocacy of my cause, and I could wish that I received more of that active sympathy which he evinces, rather than the passive approval of a friendly majority who are willing,—or if not willing, who submit to see my endeavours made the subject of virulent attack by a small, though probably very influential, minority.

I cannot see the necessity for all this controversy now the vote of Grand Lodge has been again secured. I had set myself to work to form the Committee to be nominated by me at next Quarterly Communication, and, finding sufficient to do in that respect, was well inclined to avoid further argument. But those who think differently from me will not have this, and, unless I can silently consent to have my cause and my exertions misrepresented, I must take up the cudgels on my own behalf.

I desire to assure yourself and the brethren generally that I do not seek this controversy. If others will refrain from writing on the subject I will! If there is no evil to be remedied, the Committee which Grand Lodge has decided to appoint for the purpose of preliminary inquiry only, and report thereon, will soon set me down, without all this misrepresentation of what is actual fact. They will soon let the Craft know whether or not my assertions are false or overstrained, my actions to be condemned or encouraged, my endeavours those of a sane and reasonable man or of a perverse fool. I am quite willing to accept this test. Why cannot others submit to the same reference? The Committee can do no harm to them; and if I am what my opponents represent, it must affect my Masonic credit and justify them in their opposition. Will Bro. Woodford, who desired to negative my motion in Grand Lodge, honour me by acting on that Committee? Will a representative offer to serve for each of the following Associations, namely, "The Board of General Purposes," "The Emulation Lodge of Improvement," and "The Stability Lodge of Instruction?" Will the Provinces take care that they are represented? Will each section of my opponents appoint a representative to advocate the continuance of non-interference if I cannot show sufficient reason for amendment? I shall welcome the names of such on my list now in course of formation, and not hesitate to nominate even my bitterest antagonist. From them I will receive sentence, if it be just; and submit to it—if adverse, with cheerful resignation, for it will be of those best able to form a collective judgment, and not the mere objectiveness of individuals. Once for all I demand (respectfully of course) that Committee which I have been promised, and pending their report I am willing, if not provoked by personal remarks, to give my pen a long rest.

Pray let me close this by an extract from a letter of an esteemed correspondent, which will exemplify "one kind of opposition," so ridiculous as to be unworthy of consideration but for the possibility of its influencing brethren who cannot think for themselves. "One little joke for your amusement! At our meeting on Wednesday last I happened to mention to one of the brethren in the ante-room your effort for 'Uniformity,' when the Tyler of the Lodge (bearlle, town crier and bill poster) interrupted me with, 'I don't agree with him at all!' Now I will undertake to say that this man has never been in any Lodge but No. —— since he was made, and he has been only outside the door of that. I replied quietly that the question was one for Grand Lodge to determine, and that his agreement or disagreement was not of much moment."

Yours fraternally and faithfully,

Clapham, 6th January 1880. JAMES STEVENS.

CONSECRATION OF A NEW LODGE BY LORD EBRINGTON.

A SPECIAL Provincial Grand Lodge of Devonshire was held on Tuesday, 6th inst., at the Ebrington Masonic Temple, Hobart-street, Stonehouse. This new building, recently erected for the Brunswick Lodge, was fully described in our columns a few days since. The occasion of the meeting was the constitution and consecration of the Ebrington Lodge, No. 1847, a warrant for which was granted by the M.W.G.M. a short time since. Those who had the pleasure of witnessing the installation of the P.G.M. of Devon, R.W. Bro. Lord Ebrington, in Exeter, in August last, and the admirable manner in which he presided over that large and influential meeting, were prepared to expect that the ceremony would be efficiently performed, but his lordship's solemn and perfect rendering of this his first official duty was an agreeable surprise, even for those who had expected much. The P.G. Lodge having been opened in due form, and the P.G.S. having announced the desire of certain brethren to be constituted into a regular lodge in ancient form, the warrant from the Most Worshipful the Grand Master of England was read. The brethren of the new lodge then signified their assent to the officers named in the warrant (Bros. Richard Lose P.M. P.P.G.P. Master, John Henry Stephens S.W., and Francis Littleton J.W.) The R.W.D.P.G.M. Bro. W. G. Rogers then delivered an oration on the subject, and congratulated the brethren upon the very convenient and handsome building they had erected for their place of meeting. He trusted that the pleasing appearance offered by the building was an emblem of the very satisfactory proceedings that would follow therein, and hoped the strict mode of the business of the Lodge or Lodges hereafter held there would be carried out in conformity with the principles of Freemasonry. At previous P.G.L. meetings it had been customary to deliver a lecture on the antiquity of Freemasonry. He did not want to repeat that course on the present occasion, nor on the wide extent and progress of the Order, from Calcutta to Cucatan. He would rather call the attention of the Lodge to the dignity and character of the Order. No one should be admitted but with a due regard to his fitness for Masonry. None but those on whose admission their fidelity and obedience could be relied on. No candidate should be admitted or recommended for admission unless it was felt to a certainty that he would be an honour to their Lodge and to the Order. The ancient mysteries of Freemasonry had maintained its position from time immemorial in defiance of the power of persecution and the howling fanaticism that had been brought to bear against it. That position was, and would be, much strengthened by a close attention being paid to the extension of its borders. Every care should be taken not to allow a Lodge to become a mere friendly society, or a mere social gathering of the members. He wished, however, to be carefully understood not to denounce in any way the social meetings that followed labour. What he sought to impress was the great necessity of a careful attention to the character and position of candidates, and that they should confer honour on Freemasonry and credit to the Lodge. The P.G.M. having pledged the Master and members of the new Lodge to obey the laws and constitutions of the Grand Lodge, then declared the Ebrington Lodge to be a regular and duly constituted Lodge. The ceremony of consecration was inaugurated by a Masonic ode—W. Bro. James E. Moon P.M. 189 presided as Organist, and Bros. James Rendle, E. Roseveare, and P. B. Clemens leading in the responses. They especially distinguished themselves in the anthem, "Behold how good and joyful a thing it is for brethren to dwell together." The Lodge having been declared duly consecrated, the Provincial Grand Lodge was closed. The D.P.G.M. having opened the Ebrington Lodge in usual form, proceeded to instal the Master of the Lodge, and this was done fully, and quite in accordance with the known ability of Bro. Rogers. The Officers appointed were Bros. A. Lethbridge I.P.M., J. H. Stevens S.W., F. Littleton J.W., S. Jew P.M. &c. Treas., J. H. Stevens Sec., C. Nicholson S.D., T. Lose J.D., J. Masters I.G., J. Lose Org., R. Lose D.C., and W. Bro. B. S. Johns was elected to represent the Lodge on the Committee of Petitions. The Lodge having been closed, the brethren adjourned to the Farley Hotel, where the banquet was provided by Bro. C. Walters, who, with the hostess, was subsequently thanked for their admirable catering. Lord Ebrington presided, and proposed the Loyal toasts. His lordship's health having been drunk, Lord Ebrington, in reply, heartily thanked the brethren for their reception, and was glad that his first important Masonic ceremony had been in the Three Towns—the Metropolis of the West. In proposing the toast of W. Bro. Lose, and speaking of the pleasure it was to him to assist in founding a Lodge where it was wanted (but only there), he said he felt proud of the Lodge being called "Ebrington." He prayed that he might always be found worthy of Freemasonry, and the Lodge might be always worthy of him. Bro. Lose, in responding, said it had been his endeavour through life to make a friend whenever he could, and always to avoid making an enemy. He felt pride in being the first Master, and would endeavour to show that the brethren who would be introduced into this Lodge would show, not only to the Craft, but to the world at large, that Freemasonry was something more than a name. W. Bro. Isaac Latimer proposed the health of the R.W. Bro. the Earl of Mount Edgcumbe Prov. G.M. of Cornwall, who was prevented from attending by an important pre-egagement, and of Bro. Col. Peard D.P.G.M., who was prevented being present from illness. The usual other toasts were duly honoured, and a very pleasant evening spent. The brethren present at the Lodge were—W. E. Elphinstone Stone P.G.S.W., W. Hine-Haycock 164 P.G.J.W., Rev. C. W. H. Holley 1753 P.G. Chaplain, Hy. George Beachy 1138 P.G.T., George Hirtzel 112 P.G.R., John Brewer 251 P.G. Sec., Alf. Bodley 39 P.G.D.C., Bevy Barber 1254 P.G.A.D.C., Major Swann 847 G. Swd. Bearer, Daniel Box 156 P.G.P., F. Pollard 1284, James Jerman 39, William Pidsley 1254, J. Harris Iguare 1496, Edwin Knight 202 Stewards, Peter Blanchard 444 P.G. Tyler, John Rogers 202 A.P.G. Tyler, J. E. Curteis P.M. 189 P.P.G.S.W., I. Latimer P.M. 189 P.P.G.J.W., Rev. W. Whittley P.M. 156 P.P.G. Chap., Rev. T. W. Lemon, M.A., P.P.G. Chap., Samuel Jew P.M. P.P.G.T., T. H. Bayly P.M. 189 P.P.G.T., R. H. Rae P.M. 189 P.P.G.T., L. D. Westcott P.M. 70 P.P.G.S. Wks., S. Loram P.M. 1443 P.P.G.D.C., Alfred Bodley P.M. 39 P.P.G.D.C., E. A. Davies P.M. P.P.G.S. Wks., H. Miller P.M. 159 P.P.G.D.C., W. Brodie P.M. P.P.G.S.D., J. B. Gover P.M. 70 P.P.G.A.D.C., J. M. Hifley P.M. 223 P.P.G.A.D.C., H. Bartlett P.P.G.D.C., Joshua Austin P.P.G.O., H. B. Stark P.M. 106 P.P.G.O., H. Leigh 70, P. B. Clemens P.M. 156 P.P.G.O., A. Wolf P.M. 223 P.P.G.P., John Peter P.M. 557 P.P.G.W. Cornwall, T. W. Fitch P.M. 639 P.G.A.D.C. Bengal, W. Odam W.M. 70, S. Roach P.M. 70, F. B. Westlake S.D. 70, Geo. Sercombe S.S. 70, H. Chapes 70, Mark Embden W.M. 105, J. T. Browning I.P.M. 105, John James P.M. 105, W. Chapple 156, B. S. Johns W.M. 159, Owen Knowles S.W. 159, Jas. Bartlett P.M. 159, Geo. Jackson W.M. 198, Charles G. Stentiford J.W. 159, W. Ollis I.G. 189, Lieut.-Col. Fitz-Gerald S.W. 189, Hy. Horton J.W. 189, E. Coppin S.S. 156, C. R. Bardin S.S. 189, W. C. Howard P.M. 215, J. R. Lord P.M. J.T. 1247, James Rendle P.M. 1247, James H. Keates P.M. 1247, J. A. Christie Org. 1247, J. H. Trounce Sec. 1212, G. R. Barrett S.W. 1255, R. Cawsey I.P.M. 230, J. H. H. Harris W.M. 230, A. Rowe P.M. 230, J. H. Toms P.M. 1091, J. Morris P.M. 53 P.P.G.O., R. C. Uglow S.S. 1247, W. L. Sampson S.D. 282, W. Harris P.M. 1138, E. T. Fulford W.M. 1254, B. W. Pitchen J.W. 230, E. Binding P.M. 202, T. H. May J.D. 1099, T. E. Peek J.W. 1205, H. L. Friend P.M. 1443.—Western Daily Mercury.

Digitized by Google

COMMITTEE MEETING OF THE BOYS' SCHOOL.

THE General Committee of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys met on Saturday last, in the Board-room, Freemasons' Hall. There were present—Bros. W. Roebuck (in the chair), W. F. C. Moutrie, S. Rosenthal, W. Paas, George J. Row, Henry W. Hunt, J. G. Chancellor, Thomas Cubitt, Donald M. Dewar, William Mann, C. F. Matier, John Constable, W. H. Perryman, Charles Birch, A. Durrant, H. Massey, R. Warner Wheeler, Arthur E. Gladwell, Frederick Adlard, Charles F. Hogard, H. G. Buss, and F. Binckes (the Secretary). Eleven petitions were considered, and the candidates placed on the list for the April election. Outfits of £5 each were granted to three boys who since leaving the School had obtained situations, and the list of candidates for the April election was fixed at 81, if three of the candidates comply with certain requirements. The number to be elected in April was settled at 20.

Our friends in the East End of London are proverbial for their support of the Charities, and generally for their enthusiasm in all affairs connected with the Craft. This naturally takes them from home very frequently, and the question "how to get back" is often a grave consideration. However, the comfort of a private carriage can be secured at a trifling expense. To those who contemplate adopting this method, we advise a visit to Bros. Rochester and Fox, 799 Commercial-road.

We have received a copy of the latest issue of Messrs. Dick Radclyffe and Co.'s Seed Catalogue, and have great pleasure in bearing testimony to the evident care which has been taken in its compilation. This firm has now secured a wide reputation, and we feel assured that any orders with which it may be entrusted will meet immediate attention, while the goods will give satisfaction.

INSTALLATION MEETINGS, &c.

—:o:—

ANCHOR AND HOPE LODGE, No. 37, BOLTON.

THE installation meeting of this ancient Lodge was held at the Hotel, Bolton, on 5th January, when amongst others present were—Bros. Samuel Crowther Prov. Grand Superintendent of Works W.M., Johnson Mills S.W., R. Pennington J.W., T. Glaistor P. Prov. S.G.W., G. P. Brockbank P. Prov. S.G.D., W. Slater P. Prov. S.G.D., J. D. Porteous P. Prov. G.W. Renfrewshire, James Newton, James Walker, James Brown, R. K. Freeman, John Morris, John Duxbury P.M.'s; Visitors—Bros. John Wild P.M. 146, Thomas Morris P.M. 221, Nath. Nicholson W.M. 1723, Kerfort 1354. The Lodge having been opened, the minutes of the preceding meeting were read and confirmed. The chair was now taken by Bro. James Newton P.M., the Installing Master. The W.M. elect Bro. Johnson Mills was then presented by Bro. James Walker P.M., and the ceremony of installation was performed by Bro. Newton. The following brethren were then invested as Officers for the ensuing year, by Bro. John Morris P.M., viz., Bros. Rooke Pennington S.W., E. N. Garstang J.W., Rev. J. H. Gibbon Chaplain, W. Slater Treasurer, J. D. Porteous Sec., John Booth S.D., James Robinson J.D., G. P. Brockbank D.C., R. K. Freeman Org., F. W. Pacey I.G., J. W. Roiley Tyler. A Past Master's jewel was presented to the retiring W.M., Bro. Samuel Crowther, for his services during the past year. Bro. Crowther announced his intention to serve as Steward at the ensuing Festival of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys. The W.M. (Bro. Mills) also intimated his intention to serve as Steward at the ensuing Festival of the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls. All business being concluded, the Lodge was closed, and the brethren adjourned to the banquet room.

INSTALLATION AND FESTIVAL OF THE LODGE OF LIGHTS, No. 148, WARRINGTON.

THE following is extracted from "Memoirs of the Life of Elias Ashmole, drawn by Himself." "October 16th, 1646. I was made a Freemason at Warrington in Lancashire, with Colonel Mainwaring of Karincham, in Cheshire; the names of those who were then at the Lodge, Mr. Richard Penketh Warden, Mr. James Collier, Mr. Richard Sankey, Henry Littler, John Ellam, Richard Ellam and Hugh Brewer." We need scarcely add that Elias Ashmole was the author of the well-known "History of the Order of the Garter," and founder of the Ashmolean Museum at Oxford. It is a matter for great regret that the ancient records of this Lodge are lost, and that the history of Freemasonry in Warrington cannot now be connectively traced further back than 8th November 1765. From time immemorial the installation and festival of this old and flourishing Lodge has been held on the last Monday in each year, and no deviation to this rule was made on the last occasion. The Lodge was summoned for three o'clock in the afternoon, and punctually at that hour the W.M. Bro. J. Rymer Young took the chair, and was supported by Bros. Charles E. Hindley S.W. W.M. elect, Alf. H. Young J.W., James Paterson S.D., Thos. Grime J.D., John Armstrong P.M. Treas., John Bowes P.M. P.P.G.J.W. Cumberland and Westmoreland, J. Shee Pattison Org., Arthur Peake I.G., Thos. Domville Tyler, John Pierpoint P.M., Thomas H. Sutton W.M. 1250, Thomas Tunstall P.M., W. Sharp P.M. P.P.G.J.W., John Harding P.M., Jos. Pickthall P.M., Charles Skinner, W. Burn, C. Ekkert, John Laithwaite, W. Dooley, W. Kinsey, John Dimmelow, A. Crawford, Dr. Walter, S. E. Johnson, Thos. Jones, Thos. Morris, Dr. Mackie, F. E. Rawlinson, Thos. Gartside, F. Curzon, Jas. Bayley, R. W. Francomb, S. Wallhead. Among the Visitors we noticed—Bros. Dr. Duncan P.M. 1354, Dr. Gornall, D. W. Finney P.M. Prov. G.D.C., E. C. Cooper P.M. 484 P.P.G.S.B., Schoustadt P.M. 1502, Robert Brierley P.M. 1250, E. Roberts Flegle, J. Paul Rylands 1354, W. H. Rylands 417, William Simpson 1159, and J. H. Galloway S.W. 1250. The Lodge was opened in form, when the minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed. The Lodge was opened in the second degree, when the W.M. invited Bro. Bowes to take the chair as Installing Master. The W.M., assisted by Past Master Tunstall, then presented Bro. Hindley, the W.M. elect, for the benefit of installation. This being attended to, and the W.M. elect having pledged himself to submit and obey, the Lodge was opened in the third degree. All brethren below the degree of W.M. now retired, except the W.M. elect, who was entrusted before retirement. A Board of Installed Masters was now opened in ample form, the W. and S. being presided over by Bros. Armstrong and Finney. The W.M. elect now applied for admission, which being granted, he was installed in due form, according to ancient custom, and received the congratulations usual in this high degree. As a proof of his desire to maintain the ancient landmarks of the Order, the W.M. then invited the W. brethren to apply the usual "cement." Labour resumed, the Board was closed in the "name and fear" and the brethren in the several degrees re-admitted, and the W.M. proclaimed, greeted and saluted. The W.M. then appointed and invested his Officers for the ensuing year, as follows:—Bros. J. Rymer Young I.P.M., Alf. H. Young S.W., James Paterson J.W., Thomas Tunstall P.M. Treas., John Bowes P.M. Secretary, Thomas Grime S.D., Arthur Peeke J.D., Charles Skinner I.G., T. M. Pattison Org., Thomas Domville Tyler. The Installing Master addressed each Officer on the nature and importance of his duties, and meaning and teaching of their emblems of office, and concluded the ceremony by delivering the charges to the W.M., Wardens, and Brethren. The W.M. then, on behalf of the Lodge, presented the I.P.M. with a handsome gold Past Master's jewel. Bro. J. Rymer Young, in acknowledging the gift, said:—Let me first thank you, Worshipful Sir, for the very kind words you have deemed fit to utter concerning myself. It is not my present purpose, nor would it be to my interest, perhaps, to ascertain how far these remarks are appropriate or deserved, since they are so complimentary, but I can say in all sincerity that whatever may have been my measure of success in this direction, it has always been my desire and endeavour to merit your approbation. And now, Brethren, I have to thank you most heartily for the handsome jewel which adorns my not too handsome figure, and I am anxious to tell you, at the same time, how the assistance and forbearance of the members of this Lodge have made my year of office as W.M. both easy and pleasurable. So pleasurable, indeed, that if the same consideration is extended to your present Master (which I doubt not) he will vacate his chair, next Christmas, as I do now, with much reluctance. The jewel itself is very beautiful, and very valuable too; but it pleases me better to regard it as a token by which to know that I still retain the confidence you reposed in me when you elected me to the chair from which I have just retired, and finally, Brethren, it will serve well to remind me, so long as I shall live, of the happy time I spent when occupying the honourable and enviable position of Master of the Ancient Lodge of Lights 148.

Digitized by Google

The auditors having presented their report, which was most satisfactory, it was ordered to be printed and circulated among the members. A vote of condolence was passed to the widow and family of the late Bro. James Hepherd P.M., after which the hearty good wishes of the Visitors were tendered and gratefully accepted. Among these was a congratulatory telegram from Bro. Thomas W. Ockenden, of Friday-street, London. After some routine business the Lodge was closed and the brethren adjourned to the Lion Hotel.

The banquet was of a récherché character, and excellently served in the handsome Assembly Room connected with the Hotel. After the cloths were withdrawn the W.M. briefly introduced the more formal toasts, and this treatment of them was highly appreciated by those present. Bro. Finney acknowledged the toast of the Prov. G.M. Lord Skelmersdale, and in doing so spoke highly of his Lordship's Masonic worth and great anxiety for the success of the Craft in his large Province. Bro. Finney's remarks were well received, not only on account of his personal character, but also in appreciation of the well-merited honour which the Provincial Grand Master had conferred upon him in appointing him Prov. G. Director of Ceremonies. Bro. Bowes proposed the health of the W.M. Bro. Chas. E. Hindley, and said that he had for years noticed his Masonic zeal. Some time ago when he occupied the chair for the second time, he appointed Bro. Hindley I.G., and from that time he had risen by regular gradations to the chair of K.S.; he was sure that in that position he would discharge his duties with credit to himself and advantage to the Lodge. The W.M. responded at some length, and assured the brethren that he very highly appreciated the honour they had conferred upon him—the highest in their power to bestow. He would do his best to merit their approbation, and to enable him to do this, he looked for the counsel and advice of his predecessors in office. Bro. Sharp had a pleasing duty to perform in proposing the health of the Worshipful Master and brethren of No. 1250. That Lodge was an offshoot of the old Lodge, and he believed it exceeded its "mother" in numbers. They wished the "Gilbert Greenall" every success. Bro. Thos. H. Sutton W.M. No. 1250 responded, and in doing so said that they were grateful to their mother Lodge for the good example she set them in every respect. Bro. J. Rymer Young Immediate Past Master in proposing the toast of Installing Master, remarked that Bro. Bowes was by no means a stranger amongst them, he was no puling infant in Masonic matters either; but a regular well seasoned and experienced veteran of "The Square and Compasses," who had performed the beautiful ceremony of installation perhaps some dozens of times, and in such a manner that, though we in 148 have heard him on several occasions, the ceremony in his hands never tires on our ears or our memories. Bro. Young had especial pleasure in proposing this toast (which doubtless would be received as it deserved) feeling much indebted to Bro. Bowes for having relieved him of the duties of Installing Master. Bro. Bowes briefly acknowledged the compliment, assuring the brethren that it always afforded him great gratification to take part in Masonic ceremonials, and never more than in his mother Lodge. Before he sat down he was commanded by the W.M. to propose the toast of the P.M.'s and Officers of No. 148. They were a noble band, and well sustained the reputation of the Lodge. No Lodge could prosper unless the Past Masters and Officers were able and willing to undertake and to do the work. He begged to couple with the toast the name of the Immediate Past Master. Bro. J. Rymer Young said: Up to this evening I have found it somewhat difficult to realise that I am no longer your W.M.; but am, however, at length beginning to recognise the fact, and not only recognise it, but I hope to thoroughly appreciate it, for it is a distinction of no mean Order—well worthy of appreciation—to be permitted to join the noble army of Past Masters of which this Lodge can boast. When I see around me so many "just and upright men" who have filled the office of W.M. with such credit to themselves and advantage to others; and when I remember that some of these have gained the coveted and well-deserved dignity of Prov. Grand Lodge distinction, I feel proud to take even the lowest place among brethren who have worked so well and so hard in the Masonic cause. Brethren,—I thank you very sincerely, on behalf of the Past Masters and Officers of this good old Lodge, for the hearty manner in which you have been pleased to respond to this toast. The Worhipful Master proposed the Visitors, and in so doing said it was always a source of pleasure to see visiting brethren either at labour or refreshment, or both. They were honoured that day by the presence of several distinguished brethren not of their own Lodge, and he bade them welcome. He then coupled the names of the Visitors with the toast. Responses were made by Bros. Gosnall, Cooper, Flegle, J. Paul Rylands, W. H. Rylands, Schonstadt, W. Simpson, and others. Bro. J. Paul Rylands said he had been a Mason for some years, but he was only just now beginning to fathom its beautiful mysteries. It only needed brethren to attend a well worked Lodge, like No. 148, and they would soon begin to realise the beauties of the Craft. Bro. W. Simpson gave some interesting particulars of religious ceremonies which he had witnessed abroad, and showed how nearly they were allied to the Masonic ritual. Bro. Gornall said he had renewed friendships that night which had for some time been dislocated. Bro. Schonstadt said he had thoroughly enjoyed his visit both in Lodge and at the festive board. He had often heard the ceremony of installation performed, and had worked it himself, but he must confess that the manner in which Bro. Bowes rendered the beautiful ceremony proved his (Bro. Schonstadt's) own weakness. He only wished he had had Bro. Bowes for his Preceptor, and then he might have hoped to discover to the full the deep meaning of much they had heard that day. Bro. Joseph Pickthall proposed "The Musical Brethren." He dilated at some length on the influence for good that music possessed, and then referred in particular to the tasteful performances they had listened to that night. They were greatly indebted to Bros. Barton, Gaskin, Lockhart and Taylor for coming amongst them. He (Bro. Pickthall) was very fond of music, and often had opportunities of listening to that of a high character, but it was a long time since he had such a treat as the musical brethren had afforded them that evening. He concluded by proposing the toast, which was responded to by Bro. Barton. Bro. Finney, in an interesting and instructive speech, proposed "The Charities." He said that the President at the next Boys' School Festival would be their own Prov. Grand Master, and he was greatly in hopes that at least two Stewards would be sent from Warrington to support Lord Skelmersdale. The Tyler's toast brought the proceedings to a close, and it was conceded on all hands that the St. John's Festival of 1879 was one of the most successful the Lodge had experienced for some years.

LODGE OF JOPPA, No. 188.

THE installation meeting of this flourishing Lodge was held on Monday, the 5th instant, at the Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, and was numerously attended by distinguished Grand Officers, Visitors, and Brethren. The chair was occupied by Bro. L. Alexander P.M., H. Hymans S.W., R. Baker as J.W., J. S. Lyon Treas., E. P. Albert P.G.P. Sec., L. H. Myers S.D., Blank J.D., Benjamin I.G.; P.M.'s A. Dodson, M. Alexander, L. Lazarus, H. Beckowitz, L. Alexander, H. M. Levy, O. Roberts, J. Abrahams. The Lodge was opened, and the minutes were confirmed. The report of the audit committee was read and adopted. There remained a balance in the hands of the Treasurer. The Committee of the Benevolent Fund also presented their report, showing a balance in hand of £1061 6s 7d. A Board of Installed Masters was opened, and the brethren proceeded in procession to an adjoining room, which had been specially fitted up. The Wardens' chairs were occupied by Bros. Rev. C. J. Martyn P.G.C., and Colonel Shadwell Clerke P.G.D. Bro. Henry Hyams S.W. and W.M. elect was then duly installed into the chair by Bro. S. Hickman P.M., who performed the ceremony in a perfect and impressive manner, fully justifying the encomiums passed on him at the conclusion of the work. There were 27 W.M.'s and P.M.'s present at this assembly. The brethren having returned to the Lodge, the newly-installed W.M. received the customary salutations. In appropriate terms he then appointed and invested his Officers:—L. Alexander P.M. I.P.M., R. Baker S.W., L. H. Myers J.W., J. S. Lyon Treas., E. P. Albert P.G.P. Sec., Benjamin S.D., Blanks J.D., Baum I.G., J. G. Dodson P.M. D.C., J. Davis A.D.C., Bean and A. Botibol Stewards, P. E. Van Noordèn Org., Woodstock P.M. Tyler. Bro. H. M. Levy P.M. proposed a vote of thanks, to be recorded on the minutes, for the able manner the I.M. had performed the ceremony of installation. This was seconded by Bro. M. Alexander, and supplemented by some excellent remarks from Bro. Berkowitz. Several propositions were handed in to the Secretary; the case of a distressed foreign Brother was considered, and the applicant was assisted by the brethren voting him the sum of two guineas. The Lodge was then closed, and the brethren, who now numbered 94, sat down to a banquet and dessert, for serving which the Albion is so celebrated; Bro. W. G. Jennings superintended. The W.M. very ably presided, and proposed the first Loyal Toasts; the National Anthem was sung. In proposing the toast of the Grand Officers, the W.M. said he had the pleasure of the company of one of the most distinguished brethren of the Grand Lodge of England, who had honoured them by his presence. Bro. Martyn was one whom all were pleased to see among them. Wherever good work was to be done, whether in Freemasonry or in Charity, that worthy Brother's name was prominent, and he hoped as this was Bro. Martyn's first visit, it would not be the last; a hearty welcome would always be given him. The next was Bro. Col. Shadwell Clarke P.G.D., and last, but not least, our esteemed P.M. Bro. E. P. Albert the Secretary of the Lodge. He (the W.M.) was sure the members would heartily drink the toast. No better representatives of the Grand Lodge of England could be found. Bro. Rev. C. J. Martyn P.G.C., on rising to respond, was enthusiastically cheered. He said it was at all times very pleasant to have to return thanks for the Grand Officers. The chiefs of the Order were a tower of strength in themselves. All appreciated the excellent Pro Grand Master, while as to Lord Skelmersdale the Deputy Grand Master, what he had done in Lancashire alone entitled him to their regard. Lord Skelmersdale was a thorough good Englishman, and the example of these two was alone sufficient to urge others on to do their duty. Bro. Mason P.G.S.B. followed; he thanked Bro. Albert for his kind invitation; he had often wished to visit the Joppa Lodge—a Lodge that is known in Masonry throughout the world. Bro. Mason also tendered to the W.M. his thanks for the kind reception he had received. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Benevolent Fund, which he said was well looked after by the President Bro. L. Alexander P.M. and the several Vice Presidents. He was sorry to say the Fund was rather below what it had stood at for the last twelve years; he trusted the brethren would continue to support the Fund; he would now ask them to drink the toast, and couple with it the name of the President

Digitized by Google

Bro. L. Alexander P.M. Bro. E. P. Albert P.M. then read the report of the Benevolent Fund, to which we have already referred. Bro. Alexander, in returning thanks for the President, Vice-Presidents and Committee, said they were all thankful for the hearty response that had been given to the toast. Bro. Alexander then gave a long account of the history of the Benevolent Fund, which he stated was established by the late Bro. Dr. Constatt, in 1849. Year by year the amount in hand had increased, but during the last twelve months they had been called on to disburse large sums. During the last six months they had given £292 2s 6d; in the six months ending June they gave £160; that was a large amount from a single Lodge. The Worshipful Master had made an appeal to them; Bro. P.M. L. Lazarus had, by his exertions, collected the sum of £17 17s. Theirs was essentially a local fund; they never accepted anything from visiting brethren. The Secretary then announced that the W.M. had given £5 5s, the S.W. £2 2s, the J.W. 21s, Bro. E. P. Albert 10s, and several other brethren had likewise subscribed. The J.W. then announced that he had a son five days old; he would give in his name 10s 6d. Bro. James also tendered 21s. Bro. L. Alexander P.M. said he would now take the gavel, and direct their attention to the toast he was about to propose, which they were aware was the health of the W.M. This was to him an esteemed privilege, at the same time he would trouble them with a very short speech. All would cordially agree with him that no worthier brother could have been placed in the chair. Bro. Hymans was a gentleman and a scholar, who would carry out the principles—temperance, fortitude, and justice. Bro. Hymans, in responding, said it was difficult to find words to thank Bro. Alexander and the members for their kindness. What he had done in the past he hoped to excel in the future. Nothing should be wanting on his part to do honour to the Lodge, and when his term of office expired, he trusted he might leave many pleasing recollections of his Mastership. The W.M., in proposing the toast of the Visitors, said the Lodge was honoured by many whose names were worthy of notice. He would assure those who were present that the members accorded them a hearty welcome. He would call on Bro. Colonel Shadwell Clerke P.G.D. to respond. Bro. Clerke had the pleasure to say he had never witnessed the ceremony of installation performed better: the W.M. must be complimented for presiding in so excellent a manner, for the first time. He had frequently heard of their great Institution—the Benevolent Fund, and he hoped other Lodges would follow their example; at the same time he trusted in future the demands for grants would become small by degrees, and beautifully less. He sincerely thanked the brethren for their reception of the toast. The W.M., in proposing the toast of the P.M.'s, remarked on the ability they had displayed in carrying out their several duties. He would call on Bro. Hickman, the Installing Master of the day. After a response from Bro. Hickman, the toast of the Wardens was given, coupled with the names of Bros. R. Baker and L. H. Myers. Those brethren severally responded, and then the Treasurer and Secretary were complimented. The merits of the Junior Officers were not overlooked, and then the Rev. C. J. Martyn P.G.C. asked permission to propose a special toast—To our next merry meeting. He was sure the brethren did not require him to interpolate it with many remarks. He had come all the way from Suffolk to be present, and he hoped all those who partook would be as happy on the next occasion of their meeting. The Tyler's toast was next called for, and this closed the proceedings. The W.M. provided a well-arranged concert, under the direction of Bro. P. E. Van Noorden, the Organist of the Lodge. We append the programme:—Anthem, "God Save the Queen," solo by Madame Thaddeus Wells; song, "The Death of Nelson," (Braham), Bro. Arthur Thomas; aria, "Quando a te," (Gounod), Madame Thaddeus Wells; (Violoncello Obligato), Herr T. Liebe; solo violin, "The Little Grandmother," Maddle. Cicely Brousil; song, "Thady O'Flinn," (Molloy), Miss Rose Barnby; solo, violoncello, Herr T. Liebe; song, "La Danza," Bro. Arthur Thomas. Among the Visitors were Bros. Colonel Shadwell Clerke P.G.D., Rev. C. J. Martyn P.G.C., T. Cubitt P.G.P., J. Lazarus P.M. 1017, J. Mason P.G.S.B., Wilson G.P., I. P. Cohen P.M. 205, I. Myers 205, L. J. Solomons W.M. 1017, S. M. Lazarus P.G.D. Wilts, Bassington 205, H. J. Levy 1319, G. Green 15, Pare W.M. 185, Fletcher 180, Jacobs 1732, H. Lewis 907, C. Merion, Anidjah 205, Abrahams 205, D. Posener 185, Green 861, Edwards 861, 1107, Myers 185, Kauffman 1732, Bamberger, Jacobs 1732, Woolf, H. Ashley 1319, E. Swanborough W.M. 1319, L. H. Harris, Senecal P.M. 860, Woolfson, &c.

SINCERITY LODGE, No. 189.

THE bi-annual dinner of this Lodge was held on 2nd instant, at Bro. C. Walter's, Farley Hotel, East Stonehouse. The Lodge is well known throughout the Province for the stand which it has taken for many years to devote the greater portion of its receipts for charity, and no Lodge stands higher than this for the amounts which they have sent to the great Masonic Institutions. Amongst those present were Worshipful Bro. G. Jackson, the Master, who presided; Bros. Col. Fitzgerald S.W., Charles Croyden J.W., A. T. Hendry S.D., J. E. Moon P.M. O., T. H. Bayly P.M. P.P.G.T., T. Robert Rae P.M. P.P.G.S.D. Sec., J. E. Curteis P.M. P.P.G.S.W., J. Dampney P.M. all of 189; S. Jew P.M. 105 P.P.G.T., J. B. Gover P.M. 70 P.P.G.A.D.C., J. Browning P.M. 105, R. L. Blight P.M. T. 1209, Thomas G. Owen P.M. P.P.S.G.D., F. Aubrey Thomas P.M. 1247 P.P.G.S.D., W. W. N. St. Aubyn, Dr. Thompson, C. Rodda, John Rogers P.M. Tyler, A. H. Swiss, Charles R. Bardin, George R. Barrett 189 and 1255, George Hawken, R. R. Pengelly 1209, E. Pront. The W.M., in proposing the health of the Queen, remarked that as our gracious Sovereign had ruled so well and so wisely for so many years, it was very evident that we made a mistake in not admitting the ladies to a participation in the ruling other bodies—School Boards for instance. The toast of the W.M.'s health was very cordially received, it being very generally known that, notwithstanding his heavy professional duties, he had always found time to perform all the duties appertaining to his office in a highly satisfactory manner. In replying, Bro. Jackson adverted to the large increase in the number of Masons, but he thought so many new Lodges were not necessary. There was plenty of room for good men in the existing Lodges. Bro. Curteis, in proposing the Charity toast, referred to the fact that he had had the pleasure of taking from the Lodge and the neighbourhood large sums for the great Charities. He took the opportunity of mentioning that the Lodge had not yet, as a Lodge, subscribed to the local Charity—the Devon Masonic Educational Fund; but seeing the Secretary of the Fund (Bro. Gover) present, he thought he might pledge the Lodge to some substantial subscription soon. The musical arrangements were carried out by Worshipful Bro. J. E. Moon, who sang several songs in his usual admirable manner.

PHŒNIX LODGE, No. 257.

BROTHER T. R. Williams was, on Saturday, 27th December, installed as the Worshipful Master of this Lodge for the ensuing year, in presence of a numerous and distinguished assembly of the Craft. Bro. Dr. Jacob O'Connor P.M. performed the duties of Installing Master in an efficient manner, and the new W.M. afterwards invested his Officers, as follows:—Bros. George B. Puttock I.P.M., J. R. Hayman S.W., Storey J.W., Dr. Jacob O'Connor P.M. Treasurer, H. J. Dowse Secretary, Lieut. Noel S.D., E. Hall J.D., Arthur Jolliffe I.G. Amongst the Visitors present were—Bros. M. E. Frost P.M. P.G. Treasurer, W. Edmonds P.M., G. A. Gale P.M., Whitcomb P.M., &c., and the following W.M.'s of neighbouring Lodges:—Bros. Edgar Goble, Fareham; W. D. King, Landport; H. Cawte P.P.G.W. Duke of Connaught, Southsea; V. Brown, Gosport; Grant, Prince of Wales's, Gosport; M. H. Emanuel, United Brothers, Southsea; Willmott P.G.S. Royal Sussex, Portsea; and Liddell, Havant. At the conclusion of the ceremony, the brethren sat down to an excellent banquet, provided by Bro. George Bond, of the Castle Hotel, Southsea.

LODGE OF HARMONY, No. 309.

THIS Lodge was, on Thursday, the 1st January, honoured with a visit by the Junior Grand Warden of England (M.W. Bro. General the Hon. Somerset Calthorpe), on the occasion of the installation of Bro. Arthur R. Holbrook as Worshipful Master of the Lodge. There was an unusually large attendance of the brethren, including Bros. Arthur Cudlipp P.M., Mayor of Portsmouth, W. D. King W.M. Landport Lodge, H. Cawte P.P.G.W. W.M. Duke of Connaught Lodge, M. E. Frost P.M. P.G. Treasurer, Barfield W.M. Medina Lodge, Cowes; Williams W.M. Phœnix Lodge, Liddell W.M. Havant Lodge, Valentine Brown W.M. Gosport Lodge, Johns W.M. United Service Lodge, Creedon W.M. Lodge of Friendship, Petersfield, Emanuel W.M. United Brothers' Lodge, G. A. Gale P.M., J. B. Goldsmith P.M., J. Tayler P.M., T. Robinson P.M., Edgar Goble, the retiring W.M. of the Lodge, E. S. Main P.M. S. R. Ellis P.M., R. Holbrook P.P.G.D.C., T. King, Dr. Brake R.N., Dr. C. Knott, G. E. Kent jun., W. J. Dale, G. F. Brown, H. J. Dowse, A. H. Bone, Arthur Jolliffe, &c., and the Officers and several members of the Lodge. Letters of apology were received from Bros. Sir F. FitzWygram, Bart., F. Newman P.G.S.W. Hants and Isle of Wight, &c. The ceremony of installation was most impressively performed by Bro. T. Robinson P.M., who received a special vote of thanks for the able manner in which he carried out the duty, and was also highly complimented on his efficiency by the M.W. the Junior Warden of Grand Lodge. The newly installed W.M. appointed and invested his Officers as follows:—Bros. Edgar Goble I.P.M., Rev. A. Headley S.W., J. R. Hayman J.W., Rev. — Hervey Chaplain, J. B. Goldsmith P.M. Treasurer, W. Gilbert Heath Secretary, Ernest Hall S.D., Geo. Ellis J.D., E. Goldsmith I.G., Arthur Nance D.C., J. Gieve and T. J. Hooper Stewards. The brethren afterwards partook of a capital banquet, provided by the Misses White, of the Red Lion Hotel, in their usual excellent style.

FOWEY LODGE, No. 977.

THE annual meeting of this Lodge was held in the Masonic Rooms, Church-street, Fowey, on Monday, that being the usual day for the monthly meeting. Amongst the Visitors present were Worshipful Bros. J. Rundle W.M. and J. Stephens P.M. 1151, Bros. Colonel Bake S.W., V. C. Pearce J.W. 1151, and Bros. Bassett W.M. elect and Whetters J.W. St. Matthews. The usual Lodge work having been transacted at two meetings in December, the only work to be done on this occasion was the installation of the W.M. elect, Bro. C. Slade, the late S.W. A board of P.M.'s having been formed, consisting of Bros. Rev. Dr. Treffry P.P.G.C., W. Tonkin P.P.G.S.W., F. B. Williams P.G.S.B., A. P. Davis W.M., W. N. Abbott P.G.S. 1874, J. Stevens P.G.S. 1878, N. H. Lamb, J. Rundle W.M. 1151. Bro. W. Tonkin, acting as I.M., proceeded to instal Bro. Slade as Worshipful Master for the year. At the close of the installation, the W.M. invested the following as his Officers:—Bros. A. P. Davis I.P.M., A. Luke S.W., T. Walton J.W., Rev. R. Harper Chaplain, H. W. Durant Treas., W. Tonkin P.P.G.S. of W. Sec., C. K. Stevens D.C., T. Richards S.D., G. Varco J.D., W. Phillips I.G., M. Terrill, and J. W. Davies Stewards, T. Beale Tyler. Bro. Rev. Dr. Treffry P.P.G.C., in touching terms, thanked the brethren for their kind letter of condolence and sympathy sent to him on the fatal accident which deprived him of his grandson, heir presumptive to the Treffry estates, &c. He called on them to carry out the Masonic principle of relief by assisting a brother in distress from a heavy misfortune, by granting a sum of £5, which was unanimously carried. At 4 p.m. a large party of the brethren and visitors adjourned to Bro. T. Richards' Commercial Hotel, to the banquet, during which the usual Masonic toasts were proposed and responded to in appropriate terms by Bros. Rev. Dr. Treffry, F. B. Williams, W. Tonkin, Rev. R. Harper, J. Rundle, Col. Bake, A. Luke, and others.

Digitized by Google

ROTHESAY LODGE, No. 1637.

THE regular meeting of this flourishing Lodge was held on Wednesday, the 7th instant, at the Inns of Court Hotel, Lincoln's Inn-fields. Bros. J. Hancock W.M., J. B. Docker S.W., J. Crosland J.W., W. C. Parsons P.M. Sec., L. Beck P.M. Treasurer, Forscutt J.D., Duret I.G., J. Berrow Organist, Livermore D.C., Green A.D.C., and Bros. Philpott, Cathew, Lloyd, Smith, Valeriani, Green, Booth, Mole, Wallace, &c. The Lodge was opened, and the minutes were confirmed. Bros. Bocket, Carthew, Smith, Wells, and Booth were passed to the second degree by the W.M., very perfectly. Bros. Lloyd and Mole were, by the courtesy of the W.M., raised to the third degree by Bro. W. C. Parsons P.M. and Secretary, in his usual perfect and impressive manner. Great credit is due to the Officers for their able assistance. Bro. L. Beck P.M. and Treasurer had the privilege of initiating Mr. Walter Adams, who previously had been ballotted for. Two propositions for initiation were handed in to the Secretary, and two for joining. After hearty good wishes had been given, the Lodge was closed, and the brethren sat down to a very excellent banquet and dessert, provided by Bro. W. Gosden. The usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were honoured. Bro. L. Beck proposed the toast of the W.M., who, he was sure, would have all their good wishes. He wished him a happy New Year, and a successful one in his office. The W.M. having replied to the toast, proposed that of the newly initiated brethren. He was proud to see them, and to drink the toast as it merited; they were gentlemen who he was sure would be a credit to the Order. Bros. Adams, Carthew, and Bocket severally returned thanks for the toast. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Visitors, Bro. H. M. Levy P.M. 188 returning thanks. The W.M. complimented the Treasurer and Secretary. No better Officers could have been selected in any Lodge. Their talents were recognised throughout the Craft. The former Brother is a P.M. and Secretary of an influential Lodge, the St. James's Union, and his ability is there fully recognised. Bro. Beck was their first W.M., and as a Grand Officer of Middlesex he is entitled to their respect. Bro. Louis Beck responded. It was the first opportunity he had had of returning thanks as Treasurer; he was gratified at the confidence the brethren reposed in him; his services were always at their disposal. Bro. Parsons said he felt flattered by the remarks of the W.M. He should always be found at his post, and hoped that he might give satisfaction to the W.M., or any succeeding Master who would appoint him. His services were always at the command of the Lodge. The W.M., in proposing the toast of the Wardens, said no better Wardens could be found than Bros. Docker and Crosland, whose working they had seen; they were also among the founders of the Lodge. The W.M. hoped to see them occupy the chair in due course. Bro. Docker said if he were spared to occupy the chair, in the course of events, no one would try to do more for the interests of the Lodge than he. The Tyler's toast concluded the list. Several songs, humourous and sentimental, were given, while Bro. Berrow the Organist gave some excellent accompaniments and operatic selections. Visitors—Bros. Festa 834, R. Phillips 1021, W. Denford 1150, S. A. Cooper 1657, Gibbons 156, and H. M. Levy P.M. 188.

SINCERITY LODGE OF MARK MASTER MASONS.

THE annual meeting of this Lodge was held at St. George's Hall, Stonehouse, on Monday evening, when Bro. Josiah Austin P.M. P.G.D. England, P.P.G.M.O., was installed as W. Master by W. Bro. Rev. T. Lemon, M.A., P.P.G.C., assisted by Bros. R. H. Rae P.M. P.P.G.T., T. S. Bayly P.M. P.P.G.J.W., and E. A. Davies P.M. P.P.G.J.D. The Officers appointed were—Bros. Rev. T. Lemon I.P.M., Geo. Jackson S.W., C. Croyden P.P.G.S.B. J.W., Rev. T. Lemon Chaplain, H. Orton M.O., G. R. Barrett S.O., E. Prout J.O., T. H. Bayly Treasurer, R. H. Rae Secretary, J. E. Curteis P.G.D. England P.P.G.J.W. Registrar, W. Hallis S.D., J. Harris Square I.G., J. Rogers P.M. P.G.T. Tyler. A meeting of the A. and H. F. of the Sincerity Lodge of Royal Ark Mariners was held immediately afterwards, when W. Bro. Josiah Austin was installed as W.C. Noah, by his predecessor Rev. E. T. Lemon M.A., I.P.C.N., and the other Officers appointed were—C. Croyden S.W. Japhet, H. Horton J.W. Shem, T. H. Bayly Treasurer, R. H. Rae Scribe, Lieutenant-Colonel Fitzgerald S.D., J. R. Barrett J.D., E. A. Davies I.G., E. Prout D.C., W. Hallis D., J. Rogers W.

NEW FINSBURY PARK LODGE BALL.

THE Annual Ball of the New Finsbury Park Lodge, No. 1695, will take place on Wednesday next, at the Athenæum, Camden-road, N. Dancing will commence at nine o'clock. From the arrangements which have been made to ensure the enjoyment of the party, we feel assured a pleasant evening will be spent by all who may attend.

ROYAL POLYTECHNIC.—MARY QUEEN OF SCOTS.—The principal events in the life of the beautiful and unfortunate Mary Stuart, illustrated by Tableaux Vivants. The descriptive poem recited by Miss Alice Barnville. The appropriate vocal music by a Choir of Glee Singers, under the direction of Bro. Spellman. EDISON'S LOUD SPEAKING TELEPHONE, &c. THE ZULU WAR and the HELIOGRAPH. LONDON AS IT WAS AND IS. THE ELECTRIC LIGHT. INSTRUMENTAL CONCERT by the Pargi Family. POPULAR OPTICAL LECTURE. PHENOMENA OF LIGHT AND THE GHOST. Open 1 till 10, 2 till 5, and 6 till 10 Admission, 1s. Reserved Seats, 2s, 1s, and 6d.

Second Series, now ready, Crown 8vo, Cloth, price 3s 6d, post free.

MASONIC PORTRAITS.

SKETCHES OF DISTINGUISHED FREEMASONS.

REPRINTED FROM "THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE."

BY G. BLIZARD ABBOTT, OF LODGE No. 1385,

ASSOCIATE OF KING'S COLLEGE, LONDON.

—:o:—

LIST OF PORTRAITS.

NESTOR
(Bro. W. Hyde Pullen, 33 deg., Past G.S.B., Past Dep. P.G.M. Hants, Assistant Secretary Sup. Council A. and A. Rite.)

THE STATESMAN
(The Right Hon. Earl of Carnarvon, 33 deg., Pro Grand Master, Pro Grand Z., Past G.M.M.M., and Past M.P.S.G. Commander A. and A. Rite.

THE TREASURER
(Bro. F. Adlard, P.M. and Treasurer Royal York Lodge of Perseverance, No. 7).

THE DEPUTY
(The Right Hon. Lord Skelmersdale, 33 deg., Deputy G. Master, Grand H., G.M.M.M., Great Prior of the Temple, and M.P. Sov. G. Commander A. and A. Rite.)

A PROVINCIAL MAGNATE
(Bro. W. W. B. Beach, M.P., Prov. G.M. and G. Sup. Hants and Isle of Wight, Past G.M.M.M., and Prov. G. Prior of the Temple, for Hants).

TIME-HONOURED LANCASTER
(Bro. J. Lancaster Hine, P. Prov. G.S. Warden East Lancashire).

THE SCHOLAR
(Bro. John Newton, F.R.A.S., P.M., P.Z., Author of Works on Navigation).

OUR NOBLE CRITIC
(The Right Hon. Lord Leigh, 30 deg., Prov. G.M. and G. Sup. Warwickshire, Past G.M.M.M.)

OUR PERIPATETIC BROTHER
(Bro. C. Fitz Gerald Matier, 30 deg., G. Steward Scotland, and Past G.S. Warden Greece).

A BOLTON LUMINARY
(Bro. G. Parker Brocklank, 31 deg., Past Prov. G.S.D., and P. Prov. G. Treas. [Arch] E. Lancashire.

A WARDEN OF THE FENS
(The late Bro. John Sutcliffe, Past Prov. G.S. Warden, and Prov. G.M.M.M. Lincolnshire).

A WARDEN OF MARK
(The Right Hon. the Earl of Donoughmore, 32 deg., Past G.S. Warden, and Dep. G.M.M.M).

A MASTER OF CEREMONIAL
(Bro. Thos. Entwisle, 30 deg., Past Prov. G.S. of Works E. Lan.)

OUR COSMOPOLITAN BROTHER
(Bro. Samuel Rawson, 33 deg., Past Dist. G.M. and G. Sup. China).

A GREAT ARITHMETICIAN
(Bro. R. B. Webster, Member of the Finance and Audit Committees of the R.M. Girls' and Boys' Schools.)

AN INSTALLING MASTER
(Bro. W. Biggs, Past Prov. G.S.W. Wilts, and Past Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks).

A VETERAN
(Bro. W. Kelly, Past Prov. G.M. and Prov. G. Sup. Leicestershire and Rutland, Prov. G.M.M.M. Leicestershire).

A GRAND STEWARD
(Bro. John Wordsworth, 30 deg., Past G. Steward, Past Prov. G.J.W. W. Yorkshire, and Prov. G.M.M.M. W. Yorkshire).

VIR Veritas
(Bro. G. Ward Verry, P.M and Past Prov. Grand. Soj. [Arch] Herts).

ACHILLES
(Bro. E. J. Morris, Past G.J.D., and Past Dep. Prov. G.M. of Eastern Division of South Wales).

A DEVON CRAFTSMAN
(Bro. J. E. Curteis, 30 deg., Past Prov. G.S. Warden Devon).

SIR RHADAMANTH
(Bro. J. M. Pulteney Montagu, J.P., D.L., 33 deg., G. J. Deacon, Past Dep. Prov. G.M. and Prov. G. Sup. Dorset-shire, and G. Chancellor Supreme Council A. and A. Rite).

HIPPOCRATES
(Bro. J. Pearson Bell, M.D., Past G. Deacon, Dep. Prov. G.M. and Prov. G. Sup. N. and E. Yorkshire).

A CESTRIAN CHIEF
(The Right Hon Lord de Tabley, Past G.S.W., Prov. G.M. Cheshire, Grand J., and Prov. G. Sup. Cheshire).

A HARBINGER OF PEACE
(Bro. Charles Lacey, P.M., Past Prov. G.J.D. Herts).

THE LORD OF UNDERLEY
(The Earl of Bective, M.P., Prov. G.M., Prov. G. Sup., and Prov. G.M.M.M. Cumberland and Westmoreland, and Past. G. Sov. of the Order of Rome and Red Cross of Constantine).

A BOON COMPANION
(Bro. E. C. Woodward, P.M. 382, 1637, &c.)

A GRAND SUPERINTENDENT
(Sir Daniel Gooch, Bart., M.P., 30 deg., Prov. G.M. and G. Sup. Berks and Bucks).

ÆSCULAPIUS
(Bro. J. Daniel Moore, M.D., 32 deg., Past G.S.B., Craft, and Past G.St.B., Arch, Intendant General Order of Rome and Red Cross of Constantine for North Lancashire).

Uniform with above, price 3s 6d, Crown 8vo, cloth, gilt.

MASONIC PORTRAITS,

FIRST SERIES.

REPRINTED FROM "THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE."

—:o:—

LIST OF THE PORTRAITS.

1 OUR LITERARY BROTHER.
2 A DISTINGUISHED MASON.
3 THE MAN OF ENERGY.
4 FATHER TIME.
5 A CORNER STONE.
6 THE CRAFTSMAN.
7 THE GOWNSMAN.
8 AN EASTERN STAR.
9 THE KNIGHT ERRANT.
10 THE OCTOGENARIAN.
11 A ZEALOUS OFFICER.
12 THE SOLDIER.
13 FROM UNDER THE CROWN.
14 OUR HERCULES.
15 A MERCHANT PRINCE.
16 THE CHURCHMAN.
17 THE CHRISTIAN MINISTER.
18 THE MYSTIC.
19 A MODEL MASON.
20 A CHIP FROM JOPPA
21 A PILLAR OF MASONRY.
22 BAYARD.
23 A RIGHT HAND MAN.
24 OUR CITIZEN BROTHER.
25 AN ARCH PRECEPTOR.
26 AN ANCIENT BRITON.
27 THE ARTIST.
28 THE FATHER OF THE LODGE.
29 A SHINING LIGHT.
30 AN ART STUDENT.
31 THE MARINER.
32 A SOLDIER OF FORTUNE.
33. "OLD MUG."

London: W. W. MORGAN.

By Order of all Booksellers, or will be sent direct, by post, from the Office, 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

Digitized by Google

Royal Masonic Institution for Boys,

WOOD GREEN, LONDON, N.

Office: 6 Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street, W.C.

Patrons:

HER MOST GRACIOUS MAJESTY THE QUEEN.

President.

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES K.G., M.W.G.M.

A QUARTERLY General Court of the Governors and Subscribers will be held at Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street, Lincoln's Inn Fields, London, on Monday, the 12th day of January 1880, for the transaction of the ordinary business of the Institution.

To receive, and if approved, to adopt a recommendation from the General Committee that Twenty Boys shall be elected from a List of Seventy-Eight Candidates (which number may be increased by the Court to 81 Candidates) to fill that number of Vacancies, at the Quarterly Court to be held on Monday, 12th April 1880.

The chair will be taken at 12 o'clock at noon precisely.

FREDERICK BINCKES, V.P., P.G. Std.,
Secretary.

3rd January 1880.

The Eighty-second Anniversary Festival will be held on Wednesday, 30th June 1880, THE RIGHT HON. LORD SKELMERSDALE, R.W. Dep. G. Master and Prov. G. Master of West Lancashire, in the chair.

The services of Brethren as representative Stewards of Provinces or Lodges are respectfully and earnestly solicited.

ROYAL MASONIC BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION

FOR

AGED FREEMASONS AND WIDOWS OF FREEMASONS,

CROYDON.

—:o:—

Patron and President:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, K.G., &c., M.W.G.M.

—:o:—

THE ANNIVERSARY FESTIVAL

OF THIS INSTITUTION WILL TAKE PLACE ON

MONDAY, 9TH FEBRUARY 1880,

AT

FREEMASONS' TAVERN, GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON,

UPON WHICH OCCASION

The Right Hon. the EARL OF ZETLAND,

R.W. PROV. G.M. FOR NORTH AND EAST YORKSHIRE,

Has been pleased to signify his intention of presiding.

Brethren desirous of accepting the Office of Steward upon this occasion will greatly oblige by forwarding their Names and Masonic Rank as soon as convenient, to the Secretary, who will gladly give any information required.

JAMES TERRY, P. Prov. G.J.W. Herts,
Secretary.

4 Freemasons' Hall, London, W.C.

NOW READY.

THE ATHOLL MASONS,

THEIR AUTHENTIC HISTORY, COMPILED FROM OFFICIAL SOURCES, DOWN TO THE UNION OF MODERN FREEMASONS IN 1813.

An Historical and Discursive Record of the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of England according to the Old Institutions.

BY ROBERT FREKE GOULD.

In Cloth, 12mo, Price 5s.

SPENCER & CO., Opposite Freemason's Hall, 23a Gt. Queen-st., London, W.C.

Crown 8vo, price 2s 6d, cloth lettered.

Uniformity of Masonic Ritual and Observance.

By Bro. JAMES STEVENS, P.M., P.Z., &c.

"May be read with advantage by the whole Craft."—Sunday Times.

"Grand Lodge should at once set to work to secure the desired uniformity."—Sheffield Post.

"The subject is ably argued by the author."—Western Daily Mercury.

"Useful and valuable in the highest degree."—Exeter Gazette.

"Will have a material effect on the future of Masonic Ritual."—South Western Star.

"The author adduces many variations in the language used by different Preceptors."—Cox's Monthly Legal Circular.

"Ought to be in the hands of every Mason."—Northampton Guardian.

"To Freemasons generally it will be found useful and valuable, and we commend it to their notice accordingly."—Surrey County Observer.

"Bro. Stevens' motion for a Committee on the subject of Uniformity of Ritual was carried by a large majority."—Freemason's Chronicle report of Grand Lodge meeting, 3rd December 1879.

Sent, by post, on receipt of stamps, by the Author, Bro. JAMES STEVENS, 112 High-street, Clapham, S.W.; by Bro. W. W. MORGAN, 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C.; or by S. D. EWINS & Co., Paternoster-row, London, E.C.

A VIEW OF THE FREEMASONS' HALL, LONDON, and another illustration, appear in a Memoir of the late Mr. F. P. COCKERELL, Grand Superintendent of Works, published by the Royal Institute of British Architects. Price, on application to the undersigned, TWO SHILLINGS: or by Post 2s Stamps.

THOMAS H. WYATT, Hon. Sec.
WILLIAM H. WHITE, Secretary.

No. 9 Conduit-street, London, W.

THE FREEMASONS' TAVERN,

GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON. W.C.

The admirable and unrivalled accommodation provided at this Establishment for

MASONIC BANQUETS,

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE DINNERS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, BALLS, &c.

Is too well known to need comment. The entire management has been changed, and the Establishment in all its branches thoroughly re-organised.

The attention of the Masonic Body is directed to the many advantages offered.

CUISINE OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER.

WINES PERFECT IN CONDITION AND QUALITY.

N.B.—DINNERS PROVIDED FROM 3/-.

RESTAURANT, WINE, SMOKING & RETIRING ROOMS.

The fullest measure of public confidence and support ensured.

ALFRED BEST, PROPRIETOR.

SAWYER'S (LATE STATION) RESTAURANT,

5 RAILWAY PLACE, FENCHURCH STREET, E.C.

ENGLISH, FRENCH & GERMAN CUISINE.

Hot and Cold Luncheons on the Ground Floor:
This Room will accommodate 100 persons.

CHOPS, STEAKS, &c., FROM THE GRILL;
The Grill Room will seat 150 persons.

REID'S TREBLE STOUT. WORTHINGTON'S ALES,
BERLIN TIVOLI BEER.

TEA AND COFFEE ALWAYS READY.

CHAMPAGNES OF THE BEST BRANDS. OLD BOTTLED PORTS.
SHERRIES AND OTHER WINES OF THE BEST QUALITY.

Bro. F. J. SAWYER, Proprietor.
Late of Pimm's, and the Crystal Palace.

THE CATHEDRAL HOTEL,

CORNER OF

CHEAPSIDE & ST. PAUL'S CHURCHYARD.

—:o:—

F. J. SWEETING, Proprietor.

—:o:—

LUNCHEON BAR ON GROUND FLOOR FOR LIGHT REFRESHMENTS.

Soups, Fish, Chops, Steaks, Entrées, Cold Joints, &c. from Eight a.m. till Ten p.m.

DINING ROOMS ON FIRST FLOOR.

Hot Joints, &c. from Twelve o'Clock daily.
Dinners a la Carte. Teas, &c.

THE "CATHEDRAL HALF-CROWN DINNER"

(Soup, Fish, Joint)
Is served in the Saloon from Twelve till Five daily.

The Smoking Room overlooks the New Gardens round St. Paul's Cathedral.

PRIVATE ROOMS FOR SMALL PARTIES, MASONIC AUDITS, &c.

The following Lodges have recently held their Audit Meetings at this Hotel:—GROSVENOR, STANHOPE, POLISH NATIONAL, LA TOLERANCE, &c.

OPENING OF THE CRITERION ANNEXE.

SPIERS & POND respectfully beg to inform their Patrons, that to meet the increasing demands of their business at the Criterion, the premises have been greatly enlarged, by the addition of the above building. The principal features of the New Establishment are as follows:—

The Cafe, comprising—
The American Bar,
The Vienna Bier Saal,

VIANDS FROM THE NEW GRILL. SUPPERS SERVED TILL MIDNIGHT.

Oysters a Specialite.

The Victoria Hall, for Banquets, Balls, Wedding Breakfasts, Soirées, and Entertainments.

The Prince's and Carnarvon Rooms, for Masonic Meetings, Banquets, &c.

Private Rooms, suitable for the meetings of Public and Corporate Bodies, Arbitrations, &c.

The Criterion Departments.

Buffet	... ...	For Luncheons and Light Refreshments.
Restaurant	... ...	Dinners a la Carte.
Cigar Divan	... ...	Facing Piccadilly entrance.
Smoking Room	...	Adjoining the Buffet.
Grill Room	... ...	Entrance in Jermyn Street.
West Dining Room		Le Diner Parisien daily from 5.30 till 8 p.m., and on Sundays.
East Dining Room	...	Dinners a la Carte.
The Grand Hall	...	Table d'Hote daily, from 5.30 till 8 p.m. (also on Sundays at 6).
Private Rooms	...	For Dinners, Wedding Breakfasts, &c., &c.

Digitized by Google

ANDERTON'S HOTEL,

F. H. CLEMOW, PROPRIETOR,

Nos. 162, 164 & 165 Fleet Street, and 7 & 11 Johnson's Court, London.

THE ACCOMMODATION OFFERED AT THIS ESTABLISHMENT FOR

MASONIC MEETINGS, BANQUETS, &c.

IS UNRIVALLED.

THE premises have lately been rebuilt, and in order to maintain the time-honored reputation of the house, as one of the centres of London Freemasonry, special attention has been paid to the furnishing of Lodge quarters, which now comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL

Specially constructed for Masonic purposes, with preparation room adjoining

A LARGE BANQUET HALL

Fitted with every necessary for the comfort of Visitors, &c., &c.

ROOMS FOR LARGE OR SMALL DINNER PARTIES, MEETINGS, &c.

VITRUVIAN LODGE, No. 87.

BRO. ISAAC, who has for some time past provided for the requirements of this Lodge, begs to announce that he has obtained permission for the removal of his license to the Belvedere-road, and that he has erected commodious premises there. These comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL.

WITH ANTE ROOMS,

LARGE BANQUETTING HALL,

Together with every convenience for Masonic gatherings.

Applications from Secretaries and others for accommodation to be addressed

G. ISAAC, "WHITE HART," COLLEGE STREET SOUTHWARK, LONDON, S.E.

DINNERS FROM THE JOINT from TWELVE to THREE o'clock. CHOPS and STEAKS from the GRILL till FIVE o'clock. T. MAIDWELL, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-st., City, E.C.

FISH DINNERS IN PERFECTION

2S EACH, including Soups, Entrées, Poultry, Joints, Cheese, Salad, Served from 12 to 4 daily.—GEORGE TAVERN, Billingsgate Market.

Sole Proprietor, GEORGE SMITH, from Anderton's Hotel.

MASONIC HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS,

1 NOTTING HILL SQUARE, W.

THE SCHOOL has been established to provide a High Class Education to sons of Freemasons and others, on moderate terms. There are scholarships of the annual value of £10 to £20, and Exhibitions of £20. Terms for sons of Freemasons from 4 to 7 guineas per term, for other pupils from 5 to 8 guineas per term. For further particulars apply to the Secretary, or to

E. PASSAWER, LL.D.
Head Master.

FURNITURE FOR LODGE OF INSTRUCTION.—Complete Set, nearly new, for Sale. Address, J. W. H., "FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE" Office, 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

FREEMASON'S THE CHRONICLE

23 GREAT QUEEN STREET, W.C.

DEDICATION OF THE NEW MASONIC HALL AT SOUTHAMPTON.

THE handsome and commodious hall, erected in Albion-place by the Masonic Hall Company, was dedicated to Masonry by the Right Wor. Prov. Grand Master, Bro. W. W. B. Beach, M.P., on Monday, 29th December 1879. The whole of the work has been carried out in a most creditable manner, and it is no little satisfaction to the architect, Bro. J. G. Poole, and the builder, Bro. S. Stevens, to know that the shareholders and brethren are, if possible, more than pleased at the handsome and commodious premises they now have in which to carry on the art of Masonry. The position of the hall is the most central it was possible to obtain without an enormous expenditure of money, and the outlook is extremely pleasant, and it is fully anticipated that the shareholders will receive a fair return for their outlay. The ceremony of dedication was most impressive, and the attendance very large, including the following brethren:—Bros. W. Hickman D.P.G.M., F. Newman 175 698 P.M. P.S.G.W., M. E. Frost P.M. 257 487 P.G. Treasurer, J. E. Le Feuvre P.M. 130 P.G. Secretary, W. Parsons P.M. 694 J.G.W., C. B. Whitcomb 1705 I.P.M. P.G. Steward, J. Blount Thomas P.M. 130 P.P.G.S.D., J. Harris P.M. 76 P.S.G.W., R. Harfield 38 1112 S.D. J.W. P.P.G.S.W., J. R. Weston P.M. 130 359 P.P.G.R., T. P. Payne P.M., A. Platt Wills P.M. 698 P.P.J.G.W., J. Adams P.M. 359 P.P.G.D.C., J. W. Wilmott 342 P.G.S., G. W. Smales 312 P.P.G. Supt. of Works N. and E. Riding of Yorkshire, H. P. Aslatt P.M. 394 P.P.G.S.D., Barfield W.M. 35, C. W. A. Jellicoe W.M. 130, Thomas Lashmore W.M. 359, W. Bone W.M. 394, R. R. L. Rossman W.M. 1461, R. Sharpe P.M. 130, J. Cole S.W. 130, A. W. Ward W.M. 132, C. A. Dyer P.M. 359 P.P.G.S.B., W. H. Martin I.P.M. 359, J. Lowe W.M. 175, E. Lowe P.M. 152 P.P.G.D.C., S. S. Pearce P.M. 319 1780 P.P.G.S.D., H. Coles P.M. 359 P.G.D.C., J. Clark P.M. 359, P. Keane P.M. 130 P.G.J.D., J. Walker P.M. 394, J. N. Palmer P.M. 698 P.P.S.G.W., Morris Miles P.M. 130 P.P.G.D.C., F. Pinco P.M. 257 P.P.G.J.W., C. J. Phillips I.P.M. 130 P.G.S.D., J. D. Barford P.M. 359 P.P.G.S., S. Scott Chap. 394 P.P.S.C., H. Dusantoy P.M. 359 P.P.D.C., W. Waters P.M. 359 P.G.S.D., A. J. Miller P.M. 152 359 P.P.G.S.D., W. J. Hickman P.M. 130, E. Goble W.M. 309, W. Kinsey, A. Ede, J. C. Halliday P.M. 132, A. A. Headley S.D. 309, J. K. Linstead, B. Tanner D.C. 1730, G. H. Liddell W.M. 804, A. M. Bailey, C. Callaman, A. C. Hervey, C. Marshall S. 130, W. S. Ffrench Chap. 146, S. R. Everett P.M. 76, Sydney Myer J.W. 130, C. Cox P.M. 394, J. Robertson J.D. 130, G. J. Tilling P.M. 1461, J. Parkinson S.W. 1112, W. H. Chapman J.W. 1461, J. F. Obree I.G. 130, C. Crew Treas. 1112, W. Bowyer P.M. and Sec. 1461, Henry Lashmore J.D. 394, J. Methven S.D. 1461, K. G. Westley I.G. 359, A. A. Dupont Chap. 130, W. Grinyer 139 1780 J.D. and Sec., J. Patstone J.D. 359, S. Stevens J.W. 195, D. Hobbs I.G. 146, W. Baird S. 130, R. Talmey-Turner J.W. 1726, Mark Linfield P.M. 551, J. Johns W.M. 342 P.G.S.B., C. V. Helsdon P.M. 1373 P.G.D.C., T. Morgan Styles, R. Purefoy Fitzgerald, J. Stevens, W. J. O'Neill, F. T. Rodwell, J. Wilson, C. B. Nash, J. Diaper, E. Williamson, J. T. Horton, J. C. Munday, J. Bailey, J. T. Doswell, W. G. Thompson, J. Catley, F. Carter J.W. 75, B. J. Marvin I.G. 175, W. Daniels, I. Harle S.W. 1780, J. S. Pearce J.W. 1780, W. Williams P.M. 345, J. C. Stroud J.W. 359, Gregory P.M. 359, M. Emanuel P.M. 205, G. Grant I.G. 1780, J. W. Pratten, R. Barnes, J. Beer, A. Wilkins, C. W. Swainson, C. H. Perress, Greenslade, J. R. R. Sharpe, J. Lounsy, J. H. Martin, J. Hart, R. Rood, E. G. Baker, W. Smith J.D. 903, E. C. Kemp, G. Poole, S. Stevens, Longham, E. Harvey, S. Lamb, W. Jurd, Alger, J. McDongall, J. J. Johns, R. James, A. F. Venables, J. Lintott, F. Ekless, J. White Barsledon, Aldis, T. Walton, E. Gayton, D. W. Donaford, W. Short, J. E. Wilson, H. Barber, E. T. Wise, G. Wareham, T. E. H. Rodwell, J. Robson, R. Thornback, J. F. Livik, E. Reeves, Dr. Osborne, John Bright, C. Turner, T. Butcher, T. Nichols; and Biggs, Norris, Vare, Exell and Harrington Tylers.

The brethren assembled at two o'clock, when the provincial and other officers formed in procession and conducted the Grand Master into the hall. The Lodge having been duly formed, the ceremony of dedication was proceeded with, during which the Prov. Grand Master addressed the brethren, saying it was gratifying to know that the old hall had become too small, as it showed the Order in the town was increasing to a great extent. Before he asked their assistance in dedicating that hall he proposed to make a few introductory remarks in reference to the Order. Having done this, tracing Masonry back and dealing with it in a most interesting manner, he went on to speak of the glorious and superb edifices erected in the middle ages, and many of which exist to the present day, as evidences of the skill in architectural construction possessed by their forefathers in those days. Alluding to Masonic Lodges, the Prov. Grand Master spoke of the time of Queen Elizabeth. When she ascended the throne she heard there was a body of men called Freemasons, who carried on certain mysteries, and she ordered a Royal Commission to inquire into the merits of the Order, and after the result of the inquiry had been furnished to her she ordered Freemasonry should be no more interfered with, and since then they had never suffered persecution, but had been rather encouraged by those highest in rank, or, at all events, not opposed by them. He then pointed out that Masonry had existed while mighty empires had crumbled away, and alluded to the unmistakable causes of its unsullied existence. From generation to generation there had been many eminent men who had stood forth and made it their particular object to disseminate the lessons of Masonry. Others there had been less zealous in their day, but who, nevertheless, would stand out in such eminence as to be revered and respected, as having done their best to extend the principles of the Order. So long as they possessed such men as those they need never entertain any doubt that the Order would flourish, or the principles of it be lost. In whatever part of the world brothers meet the bond of union between them was very powerful. The mystic signs had been known to arrest the sway of the sword in war. But there was something pure in the ties which bind brethren togethren. In the hall he was about to dedicate he trusted the pure principles of Masonry would be carried out. Might they be carried out unsullied within those walls, and might every one who entered that hall be impressed with a desire to do something in his day and generation to promote and encourage the principles of the Order of which he was a brother. The hall was then dedicated to Masonry, some solemn music being rendered during the ceremony, the solos being impressively sung by Bros. P.M. Phillips and Poole. This being concluded, Bro. Weston addressed the Pro Grand Master, saying at the early part of the present year they embarked in the undertaking of erecting that edifice for the purposes of Masonry, and they had met that day to celebrate its completion. They were encouraged by his (the Prov. Grand Master's) presence at its commencement, when he kindly assisted in laying the corner stone of the building, and at that time it was briefly explained that from the rapid increase of Freemasonry in the town, the hall in which they had so many years assembled was inadequate for carrying on the work. They would have been pleased that if by a moderate and judicious expenditure they could have enlarged and modernised it, but the tenure of the property would not justify them in adopting that course, and it was with considerable regret they left a place endeared to them by many pleasant and happy reminiscences. It was there a majority of those by whom he was surrounded had become Masons, and many pleasurable and profitable hours had been spent within its portals. There many friendships had been formed, which would terminate only when with them life itself would be no more. At the time to which he had alluded he (the Prov. Grand Master) expressed a wish that they should raise a superstructure creditable to the Craft and suitable to their requirements. In that they hoped they had succeeded, and he had the pleasure of expressing the entire satisfaction of the shareholders with the manner in which both the architect and the builder had performed their respective duties. They had not attempted to raise a gorgeous palace, but contented themselves with building a solemn temple in which the great principles of their Order might be acquired and practised. The Prov. Grand Master briefly expressed his pleasure at the success of the undertaking, and the ceremony was concluded.

Digitized by Google

The brethren afterwards sat down to a récherché banquet, supplied by Bro. Dartnall, in the Victoria Rooms. The R.W. Prov. Grand Master presided, supported by his Officers. The banquet being concluded,

The Prov. Grand Master proposed "The Queen and Craft," referring to the active interest taken in Freemasonry by H.R.H. the Prince of Wales Grand Master. He was present when the Prince was installed, and the interest he had then professed never languished. He coupled with it the names of the Prov. Grand Master and the Deputy Grand Master.

Bro. Hickman Deputy Prov. Grand Master replied, in conclusion asking them to respond as heartily as they had done to the last toast, to one who was most dear to the hearts of all present. They all knew how ready the Prov. Grand Master was to fulfil his duties in Freemasonry, and he had much pleasure in proposing his health, wishing him every health and happiness.

The Prov. Grand Master, in acknowledgment, thanked the brethren for their enthusiasm, and expressed the pleasure it gave him to be present on that occasion. It was very creditable to the Masons of Southampton that they had raised a building adequate to the carrying on of their various ceremonies. In other countries they see the noblest and largest buildings used for the purpose of carrying on Freemasonry, and it was gratifying to see in England that they were following the example in carrying out the beautiful ceremonies of Freemasonry in buildings well fitted for the purpose. From his knowledge of the Freemasons of Southampton, he knew that Masonry would be carried out in their new hall in a pure and efficient manner. Were it not so he was sure no one present would regard with the same satisfaction as he now did the opening of the building he had been proud to dedicate that day. In Lodge he alluded to the events of former Freemasons, and he would now rather say a few words with regard to the future. With regard to what had already taken place, he asked them to let it be an encouragement to them in time to come, and to be animated by the example of their forefathers which had been so set, so that future Masons might be able to look back and follow the example of what was taking place at the present day, in the same way as they were enabled to do now. To all those who had been engaged in the work of that day he wished health and prosperity, and expressed a desire that Freemasonry might flourish in the town, in the county, and in the country, pure and unsullied.

The Prov. Grand Treasurer (Bro. Frost) proposed "The health of the Deputy Provincial Grand Master," who was known, he believed, to every person in the room. He was most courteous in his manner to every one with whom he was brought into contact, and was at all times willing to give any information Masons were ready to receive.

The Deputy Provincial Grand Master suitably responded, saying he felt great pleasure in fulfilling the duties of his office. He had a chief whom it was an honour to serve, and who was ever ready to listen to anything he had to refer to him. He felt sure every brother who first saw the light of Masonry in the old Hall would regret it could no longer be used for Masonic purposes. It was inadequate, and could not be suitably enlarged, and now they had a new Hall he hoped they would all rally round those who had expended their money, and endeavour to secure a fair return. He concluded by proposing "The health of the Prov. Grand Officers," to which the Junior Prov. Grand Warden (Bro. Parsons, Basingstoke) replied, congratulating the Masons of Southampton upon acquiring adequate premises in which to hold their meetings.

The Prov. Grand Secretary (Bro. Le Feuvre) proposed "The W.M.'s of the Lodges in the Provinces," expressing the great pleasure it afforded him, as in the discharge of his duties he was brought in contact with them perhaps more than other Mason in the Province. The prosperous state of Freemasonry in this Province was in a great measure due to the Grand Master. The Lodges were increasing very rapidly; during the last five or six years they had increased from 27 to 34. He regretted very much the absence that evening of Bro. P.M. Booth, one of the Masonic brothers in Southampton, through ill health, and he trusted he would soon be well enough to be amongst them again.

Bros. Nash (Winchester) and Jellicoe W.M. (Gloucester) suitably responded.

The Prov. Grand Master proposed "The Directors of the Southampton Masonic Hall Company." He congratulated them upon the success of their undertaking, and trusted that the financial return would also be as satisfactory.

The Deputy Prov. Grand Master (Chairman of the Directors), in reply to the toast, observed that the principal spirit which actuated the Directors in their undertaking was to provide proper accommodation for the observances of their Order. They might congratulate themselves upon the success they had attained. He took very little credit to himself, as he had been so ably supported by his brother Directors. Some of them had devoted a large portion of their time to the superintendence of the work, and assisting the architect and builder in every way that lay in their power. They did not wish for large profits, only a fair return for their money, and he belived in that they would be successful.

Bro. Weston P.M. P.P.G.R. also responded.

Other Masonic and complimentary toasts were given, after which the brethren separated.—Portsmouth Times.

DR. BARNARDO'S ANNUAL FESTIVAL.

ON Wednesday evening, between thirteen and fourteen hundred houseless children were invited by the well known friend of the poor—Dr. Barnardo, to a substantial tea at the Mission Room adjoining the Edinburgh Castle, Rhodeswell-road, Burdett-road. Similar efforts, in the shape of suppers or free teas are made from time to time to carry out the main object of Dr. Barnardo's institutions, which is stated to be to rescue and train street children for useful lives. The various establishments comprised in this undertaking are:—Home for Working and Destitute Lads, Stepney-causeway; Village Homes for Girls, Ilford; Temporary Receiving House for Neglected Girls; Temporary Receiving Houses for Street Boys; Training House for Little Boys, Jersey. There are also Industrial Brigades in connection with the institutions as follows:—The City Messenger Brigade, the Wood Chopping Brigade, the Union Jack Shoe Black Brigade. In all these establishments there are now between 800 and 900 homeless, destitute, or neglected children being fed, educated and trained for useful lives. A home is contemplated in which lads from 17 to 20 years of age, taken from the lodging houses, may be tested by means of some industrial pursuit for a few months, and then drafted on to situations or places of employment which the director of the homes shall obtain for them. No boy or girl, however deformed or diseased, is refused admission, provided only they be really destitute. With a view to testing such extreme cases, and also dealing successfully with diseases which may arise in the institutions, a special infirmary for sick children, containing 30 beds, has been erected in Stepney-causeway. After tea, Dr. Barnardo put some questions to the boys with the view of selecting some for admission into the homes, it being intended also to assist in removing all the girls from their present objectionable surroundings. Before asking the questions, however, he explained that his object was to help them if he could, as he had found out that there were a large number of boys and girls who had not had a really good chance of leading an honest life. He could take some boys into the homes, recommend others to various institutions, send some on board ships, and obtain employment for others. He then asked how many lads had fathers or mothers living in lodging houses, and a comparatively small number of hands were held up; but to the query as to how many boys were selling things in the streets, the response showed that the majority of those present were thus engaged. The question, "How many lads have not got a 'doss' (bed) for the night?" caused an almost general show of hands. Those boys who wanted help were then asked to stand up, and between 80 and 100 availed themselves of this offer, and were then passed into an adjoining room, in order that inquiries might be made with a view to their admission into a home. Dr. Barnardo also invited any lads who had not liked to stand up—one of the boys having informed him that two of his "pals," although wishing to go into a home, had not had the courage to come forward—to see him at the institution at Stepney. He advised them all to get work away from the streets. The proceedings were brought to a conclusion by singing and prayer, and each child was presented with two oranges and a new sixpenny-piece, the coins being the gift of a donor who preferred to remain anonymous. Amongst the friends of the movement present were the Rev. W. Tyler, Mr. J. G. Sheppard, Mr. R. C. Morgan, Dr. Heywood Smith, and several members of the committee. The band from the home at Stepney performed several selections during the evening.

THE LIFEBOAT SERVICE IN 1879.

YEAR by year the work of the National Lifeboat Institution becomes more and more extensive, and testifies to its great importance. The list of services rendered on the coasts of the United Kingdom by its Lifeboats to shipwrecked crews details succinctly the success and unabated bravery and perseverance of the Lifeboat men. A total of 637 lives have been rescued by the Society's Lifeboats during the year, in addition to 21 vessels saved from destruction. In the same period the Lifeboat Institution granted rewards for saving 218 lives by fishing and other boats, making a total of 855 lives saved last year, mainly through its instrumentality. Altogether, since its formation the Society has contributed to the saving of 26,906 shipwrecked persons. It should also be mentioned that during the past two years the Institution has not lost a single life from its 269 Lifeboats. The Committee of the Lifeboat Institution, in view of the foregoing facts, appeal with renewed confidence to the British public for support and sympathy.

The first Ball of the Lodge of Industry, No. 186, was held on Thursday, the 8th inst., at Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street. Any surplus that may arise is to be given to the Masonic Charities, to be placed on the list of the W.M., who is a Steward for the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution. There were nearly 200 guests present, and every one thoroughly enjoyed the meeting, thanks to the W.M., the Past Masters, and an efficient body of Stewards. An early supper was provided by Bro. A. Best, under the superintendence of Bro. Dawkins, which gave every satisfaction. The health of the W.M. was proposed by Bro. W. Mann P.M. and Treasurer, in an excellent speech. The toast was enthusiastically received. The W.M., in responding, said this was the first Ball in conjunction with their Lodge; he was pleased to see so many present, and hoped that the gathering would be an annual one. Bro. Cantle proposed the health of the Stewards, who by their exertions had contributed to the success of the evening. Bro. Johnson J.W. replied. Bro. H. M. Levy responded for the Visitors; while Bro. Dyer did a like service for the Ladies. Bro. Dan Godfrey's Band discoursed sweet music till an early hour.

Digitized by Google

DIARY FOR THE WEEK.

We shall be obliged if the Secretaries of the various Lodges throughout the Kingdom will favour us with a list of their Days of Meeting, &c., as we have decided to insert only those that are verified by the Officers of the several Lodges.

—:o:—

SATURDAY, 10th JANUARY.

Quarterly General Court, Girls' School, Freemasons' Hall, at 12
188—Percy, Jolly Farmers, Southgate Road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1320—The Great City, Cannon-street Hotel, E.C.
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W. at 8
1231—Commercial, Freemasons Hall, Leicester
1558—Addiscombe, Surrey Club, West Croydon
R. A. 308—Affability, Station House Hotel, Bottoms, Stansfield

MONDAY, 12th JANUARY.

Quarterly General Court, Boys' School, Freemasons' Hall, at 12
15—Strong Man, New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, at 8 (Instruction)
53—London Masonic Club Lodge of Instruction, 101 Queen Victoria-street, at 6
93—St. John, Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
174—Sincerity, Railway Tavern, London-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
180—St. James's Union, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
186—Industry, Bell, Carter-lane, Doctors-commons, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
141—Confidence, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
814—Wellington, White Swan, High-street, Deptford, at 8 (Instruction)
701—Camden, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
1706—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-st., Wapping, at 8 (Instruction)
1956—Highgate, Gate House Hotel, Highgate
1425—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-rd., Paddington, at 8 (Instruction)
1445—Prince Leopold, Milford Tavern, Sandringham-road, Dalston, at 8 (Inst.)
1489—Marquess of Ripon, Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-rd., Hackney, at 7.30 (In.)
1623—West Smithfield, New Market Hotel, King-st., Snow-hill, at 8 (Inst.)
1625—Tredegar, Royal Hotel, Mile End-road, corner of Burdett-road (Inst.)

40—Derwent, Castle Hotel, Hastings
75—Love and Honour, Royal Hotel, Falmouth
104—St. John, Ashton House, Greek-street, Stockport
151—Albany, Masonic Hall, Newport, I.W.
240—St. Hilda, Freemasons' Hall, Fowler-street, South Shields
292—Sincerity, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
296—Royal Brunswick, Freemasons' Hall, Surrey-street, Sheffield
297—Witham, New Masonic Hall, Lincoln
411—Commercial, Flying Horse Hotel, Nottingham
481—St. Peter, Masonic Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle
502—Rectitude, Town Hall, Rugby
587—Howe, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham
589—Druids of Love and Liberality, Masonic Hall, Redruth
685—Montague, Royal Lion, Lyme Regis
721—Independence, Masonic Chambers, Eastgate-row-north, Chester
797—Hanley, Hanley Hall, Dartmouth
859—Lily of Richmond, Greyhound, Richmond, at 7.30 (Instruction)
871—Meridian, National School Room, Millbrook, Cornwall
1021—Hartington, Masonic Hall, Custom House Buildings, Barrow-in-Furness
1038—United Brothers, Castle Hotel, Southsea
1174—Pentangle, Sun Hotel, Chatham
1221—Defence, Masonic Hall, Carlton-hill, Leeds
1253—Travellers, Queen's Hotel, Manchester
1350—Fermor Hesketh, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1426—Sandgate, Masonic Hall, Sandgate
1439—Royal Military, Masonic Hall, Canterbury
1474—Ismael, Masonic Hall, Severn-street, Birmingham
1502—Abbey, Suffolk Hotel, Bury St. Edmunds
1511—Eboracum, Queen's Hotel, Micklegate, York
1618—Handyside, Zetland Hotel, Saltburn-by-Sea
1656—Welsey, White Hart Hotel, Hampton Wick
R. A. 148—Elias Ashmole, Chapter Rooms, Warrington
R. A. 154—Unanimity, Masonic Hall, Zetland-street, Wakefield
R. A. 300—Alfred, Masonic Hall, Kelvall-street, Leeds
R. A. 495—Wakefield, Masonic Hall, Zetland-street, Wakefield
R. C.—Walton, Skelmersdale Masonic Hall, Kirkdale, Liverpool
R. C. 12—Red Cross, Athenæum, Lancaster

TUESDAY, 13th JANUARY.

46—Old Union, Westminster Palace Hotel, Westminster
55—Constitutional, Bedford Hotel, Southampton-buildings, Holborn, at 7 (Inst.)
95—Prosperity, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
141—Faith, 2 Westminster Chambers, Victoria-street, S.W., at 8 (Inst.)
177—Domatic, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
188—Percy, Ship and Turtle, Leadenhall-street, E.C.
211—St. Michael, Albion, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney (Instruction)
753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
860—Dalhousie, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
1044—Wandsworth, Star and Garter Hotel, St. Ann's-hill, Wandsworth (Inst.)
1349—Friars, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1360—Royal Arthur, Prince's Head, Battersea Park, at 8 (Instruction)
1446—Mount Edgcumbe, 19 Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1471—Islington, Three Bucks, 24 Gresham-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
1507—Metropolitan, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate-st., at 7.30 (Inst.)
1558—D. Connaught, Palmerston Arms, Grosvenor Park, Camberwell, at 8 (In.)
1602—Sir Hugh Myddelton, Crown and Woolpack, St. John's-st.-rd., at 8 (In.)
1604—Wanderers, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
1614—Covent Garden, Ashley's Hotel, Henrietta-street, Covent Garden
1635—Canterbury, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square
1707—Eleanor, Trocadero, Broad-street-buildings, Liverpool-street, 6.30 (Inst)
Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement, Jamaica Coffee House, Cornhill, 6.30.

93—Social, Freemasons' Hall, Norwich
117—Wynnstay, Raven Hotel, Shrewsbury, at 8 (Instruction)
131—Fortitude, Masonic Hall, Truro
184—United Chatham of Benevolence, Assembly Rooms, Old Brompton, Kent
241—Merchants, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
272—Harmony, Masonic Hall, Main Ridge, Boston
284—Shakespeare, Masonic Rooms, High-street, Warwick
401—Northern Counties, Freemasons' Hall, Maple-st., Newc.-on-Tyne (Instr.)
471—Faithful, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham
495—Wakefield, Masonic Hall, Zetland-street, Wakefield
501—Belvidere, Star Hotel, Maidstone
603—Zetland, Royal Hotel, Cleckheaton
626—Lansdowne of Unity, Town Hall, Chippenham
686—St. Bartholomew, Anchor Hotel, Westminster
726—Staffordshire Knot, North Western Hotel, Stafford
801—Gosport, Ingia Arms Hotel, High-street, Gosport
1120—St. Mildred, Tontine Hotel, Tenterden
1270—Gilbert Greenhall, Masonic Rooms, Sankey-street, Warrington
1314—Acacia, Bell Hotel, Bromley, Kent
1454—Stanley, 214 Great Homer-street, Liverpool, at 8 (Inst.)
1465—Ockenden, Talbot Hotel, Cuckfield, Sussex
1508—Malbo, Queen's Hotel, Portmahon
1545—Baildon, Masonic Room, Northgate, Baildon
1593—Royal Naval College, Ship Hotel, Greenwich
1677—Tonbridge, New Public Hall, Tonbridge
1713—Wilbraham, Walton Institute, Walton, Liverpool
R. A. 265—Judea, Masonic Club, Hanover-street, Keighley
R. A. 289—Fidelity, Masonic Hall, Carlton-hill, Leeds
M. M. 6—Adams, Victoria Hall, Trinity-road, Sheerness
M. M. 152—Dover and Cinque Ports, Royal Oak Hotel, Dover

WEDNESDAY, 14th JANUARY.

Committee Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution, at 3.
Annual Ball of the New Finsbury Park Lodge, No. 1695, Athenæum, Camden-rd.
9—Albion, Regent Masonic Hall, Air-street, Regent-street, W.
15—Kent, Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street
87—Vitruvian, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth.
147—Justice, White Swan, High-street, Deptford.
193—Confidence, Railway Tavern, London-street, at 7 (Instruction)
201—Jordan, Devonshire Arms, Devonshire-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
228—United Strength, Hope and Anchor, Crowndale-rd., Camden-town, 8 (In.)
538—La Tolerance, Green Dragon, 2 Maddox-street, W., at 7.45 (Inst.)
781—Merchant Navy, Silver Tavern, Burdett-road, E.
813—New Concord, Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
862—Whittington, Red Lion, Poppin's-court, Fleet-street, at 8 (Instruction)
1185—Lewis, King's Arms Hotel, Wood Green, at 7 (Instruction)
1278—Burdett Coutts, Salmon and Ball, Bethnal Green-road, at 8 (Inst.)
1288—Finsbury Park, Earl Russell, Isledon-road, Holloway, at 8 (Instruction)
1301—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-street, Wapping
1524—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion Road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1677—Crusaders, New Market Hotel, King-street, West Smithfield
R. A. 177—Domatic, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-st., at 8 (Instruction)
R. A. 1260—John Hervey, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.

51—Hope, Spread Eagle Inn, Cheetham-street, Rochdale
146—Antiquity, Ball's Head Inn, Bradshawgate, Bolton
191—St. John, Knowsley Hotel, Haymarket-street, Bury, Lancashire
214—Caledonian, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester.
225—St. Luke's, Coach and Horses Hotel, Ipswich
281—Fortitude, Masonic Rooms, Athenæum, Lancaster
285—Harmony, Masonic Hall, Todmorden
483—Symmachy, Old Falcon Hotel, Gravesend
567—Unity, Globe Hotel, Warwick
668—Benevolence, Private Rooms, Prince Town, Dartmoor
758—Ellesmere, Freemasons' Hall, Runcorn, Cheshire, at 7.30. (Inst.)
851—Worthing of Friendship, Stevne Hotel, Worthing.
852—Zetland, Albert Hotel, New Bailey-street, Salford.
854—Albert, Duke of York Inn, Shaw, near Oldham.
972—St. Augustine, Canterbury (Instruction)
1018—Shakespeare, Freemasons' Hall, Salem-street, Bradford.
1031—Fletcher, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham.
1091—Marmion, Masonic Rooms, Church-street, Tamworth.
1094—Borough, Ball Hotel, Barnsley.
1094—Temple, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1107—Grey Friars, Masonic Hall, Reading
1209—Lewises, Royal Hotel, Ramsgate.
1214—Denison, Grand Hotel, Scarborough.
1342—Walker, Hope and Anchor Inn, Byker, Newcastle.
1350—De Grey and Ripon, 140 North Hill St., Toxteth Park, Liverpool
1388—Baldwin, Dalton Castle, Dalton-in-Furness
1424—Brownrigg, Assembly Rooms, Old Brompton, Chatham.
1434—Nottinghamshire, George Hotel, Nottingham.
1511—Alexandra, Masonic Hall, Hornsea, Hull, at 7. (Instruction.)
1520—Earl Shrewsbury, Public Rooms, Cannock, Stafford.
1547—Liverpool, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
1582—Llandilloes, Trewythen Arms, Llandilloes, North Wales
1643—Perseverance, Masonic Hall, Hebburn-on-Tyne.
M. M. 192—St. Cuthbert, Masonic Hall, The Parade, Berwick.
R. A. 24—De Swinburne, Freemasons' Hall, Grainger-street, Newcastle

THURSDAY, 15th JANUARY.

5—Fidelity, Yorkshire Grey, London-street, Fitzroy-sq., at 8 (Instruction
15—Kent, Chequers, Marsh-street, Walthamstow, at 7.30 (Instruction)
23—Globe, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
27—Egyptian, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7.30 (Instruction)
63—St. Mary, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
87—Vitruvian, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth, at 8 (Instruction)
109—Temperance, White Swan, High-street, Deptford
181—Universal, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
211—St. Michael, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate Street, at 8 (Inst.)
445—Salisbury, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8 (Inst.)
754—High Cross, Couch and Horses, Lower Tottenham, at 8 (Instruction)
813—New Concord, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
1139—South Norwood, Public Hall, South Norwood
1227—Upton, King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., at 8. (Instruction.)
1274—Burdett Coutts, Approach Tavern, Victoria Park.
1287—Great Northern, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
1426—The Great City, Masons Hall, Masons Avenue, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
1614—Covent Garden, Nag's Head, James-street, Covent Garden, at 7.45 (In.)
1728—Temple Bar, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street
R. A. 753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
R. A. 1471—North London, Jolly Farmers', Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Inst.)

42—Relief, Albion Hotel, Haymarket-street, Bury, Lancashire
56—Howard, High-street, Arundel
98—St. Martin, Town Hall, Burslem
100—Friendship, Crown and Anchor Hotel, Quay, Great Yarmouth
203—Ancient Union, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
288—Union, Queen's Arms Inn, George-street, Ashton-under-Lyne
343—Concord, Militia Officers' Mess Rooms, Starkie-street, Preston
345—Perseverance, Old Bull Hotel, Church-street, Blackburn
367—Probity and Freedom, Red Lion Inn, Smallbridge
523—John of Gaunt, Freemasons' Hall, Halford-street, Leicester
600—Harmony, Freemasons' Hall, Salem-street, Bradford
695—Combermere, Seacombe Hotel, Seacombe, Cheshire
1011—Richmond, Crown Hotel, Blackfriars-street, Salford
1042—Excelsior, Masonic Hall, Great George-street, Leeds
1260—Pembroke, West Derby Hotel, West Derby, near Liverpool
1332—Unity, Masonic Hall, Crediton, Devon
1432—Fitzalan, Wynstay Arms, Oswestry
1512—Hemming, Red Lion Hotel, Hampton
1612—West Middlesex, Feathers Hotel, Ealing, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
R. A. 204—Caledonian, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester
R. A. 249—Mariners, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.

FRIDAY, 16th JANUARY.

Emulation Lodge of Improvement, Freemasons' Hall, at 7.
507—United Pilgrims, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
706—William Preston, Feathers Tavern, Up. George-st., Edgware-rd. 8 (Inst.)
804—Ranelagh, Bell and Anchor, Hammersmith-road (Instruction)
902—Burgoyne, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Duke's Head, 79 Whitechapel-road, at 8 (Instruction)
1056—Metropolitan, Portugal Hotel, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 7 (Instruction)
1158—Belgrave, Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1288—Finsbury Park M.M., Earl Russell, Isledon-road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1294—Royal Standard, Alwyne Castle, St. Paul's-road, Canonbury, at 8 (In.)
1365—Clapton, White Hart, Lower Clapton, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1442—E. Carnarvon, Mare Hotel, Goulborn-rd, N. Kensington, at 8.0 (Inst.)
R. A. 79—Pythagorean, Portland Hotel, London-street, Greenwich, at 8 (Inst.)

347—Noah's Ark, Wagon and Horses Hotel, Tipton
516—Phœnix, Fox Hotel, Stowmarket
541—De Lorraine, Freemasons' Hall, Grainger-street, Newcastle
750—Royal Alfred, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, at 7.30 (Inst.)
901—Alexandra, Medway Hotel, Levenshulme
1311—Zetland, Masonic Hall, Great George-street, Leeds
1773—Albert Victor, Town Hall, Pendleton
General Lodge of Instruction, Masonic Hall, New Street, Birmingham, at 7

Digitized by Google

R. A. 521—Truth, Freemasons' Hall, Fitzwilliam-street, Huddersfield
R. A. 837—Marquess of Ripon, Town Hall, Ripon
K. T.—De Furnival, Freemasons' Hall, Sheffield.
K. T.—Jacques de Molay, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.

SATURDAY, 17th JANUARY.

198—Percy, Jolly Farmers' Tavern, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1329—Sphinx, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
1364—Earl of Zetland, Old Town Hall, Mare-street, Hackney
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
1732—Kings Cross, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8

NOTICE OF MEETINGS.

Constitutional Lodge of Instruction, No. 55.—A meeting was held on Tuesday, 30th December 1879, at Bro. Bond's, Redford Hotel, Southampton-buildings, W.C. Present:—Bros. Panter W.M., Snodin S.W., Pownceby J.W., John Soper Secretary, Hallam S.D., T. B. Linscott J.D., Dickins I.G., Past Master T. B. Dodson Preceptor. The Lodge was opened in due form, and the minutes of the preceding meeting were read and confirmed. Bro. Pitman offered himself as a candidate for initiation, and that ceremony was rehearsed. The first and third sections of the Lecture were worked by Bro. Hallam. Bro. Pitman, of Lodge 1706, was admitted a member. Lodge closed, and adjourned to Tuesday, 6th January 1880, at 7 p.m.

On Tuesday, the 6th instant. Present—Bros. Walter Snodin W.M., Hallam S.W., F. B. Linscott J.W., Dickins S.D., Abell J.D., Panter I.G.; Past Masters Bros. T. B. Dodson and Gilruth. Business—The Lodge was opened in due form, and the minutes of the preceding meeting were read and confirmed. Bro. Stroud offered himself as a candidate for initiation, and that ceremony was rehearsed by the W.M. The following sections were then worked:—second by Bro. Hallam, third by Bro. Abell, fourth by Bro. Hallam jun. Bro. Hallam jun. was elected a member of the Lodge. Bro. Hallam was appointed W.M. for the ensuing week. All Masonic business being ended, the Lodge was closed, and adjourned to Tuesday, 13th January, at 7 p.m.

Prosperity Lodge of Instruction, No. 65.—At Bro. Maidwell's, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, on the 30th ult. Present — Bros. Roberts W.M., Caton S.W., King J.W., Daniel S.D., Moss Preceptor, Hollands Sec, Couture, Jones, &c. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Couture candidate. Bro. Roberts vacated the chair in favour of Bro. J. King, who duly passed Bro. Couture to the degree of Fellow Craft. Bro. Caton was elected W.M. for the ensuing Tuesday. It was proposed that £1 be expended on Bro. Daniel's tickets for a ballot for Life Governorships for the Old Men and Women. A vote of thanks was recorded on the minutes to Bro. Roberts, it being the first time he had occupied the chair of W.M. in this Lodge of Instruction.

On the 6th January, Bros. Caton W.M., Ferry S.W., King J.W., Danier S.D., Schndler J.D., T. Wooding I.G., Hollands Secretary, Moss Preceptor; Bros. Lay and Couture. Lodge was opened in usual form, and the minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Lay candidate. Bro. Caton vacated the chair in favour of Bro. Lay, who worked the second degree, Bro. Couture candidate. The Lodge was closed in the second degree. The second section of the Lecture was worked by Bro. Moss, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Ferry was elected W.M. for the ensuing Tuesday. A vote of thanks was recorded on the minutes to Bro. Caton, it being the first time he occupied the chair at this Lodge of Instruction.

St. John's Lodge, No. 137, Blairgowrie.—This Lodge celebrated the Festival of St. John in the Victoria Hotel, on Friday, the 26th ult., Bro. J. Playfair R.W.M. presiding. After the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts, the R.W.M. proposed "St. John's Lodge No. 137," which was enthusiastically given. Other toasts followed. Songs were given by a number of the brethren. There were upwards of thirty present, including a deputation from the Coupar Angus Lodge. A very pleasant evening was spent.

Confidence Lodge of Instruction, No. 193.—A meeting was held on Wednesday, at the Railway Tavern, Fenchurch-street. Present:—Bros. A. Valentine W.M., W. James S.W., W. Sayer J.W., J. K. Pitt Secretary, Thomas B. Biddle S.D., P. Tobias J.D., G. L. Walker Preceptor, E. James Smith I.G., C. Harris. After preliminaries, the ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Smith as candidate. The first section was worked by the W.M., assisted by the brethren. The Lodge was advanced, and the ceremony of passing was rehearsed, Bro. Tobias candidate. This Lodge has recovered its normal position, and we think its future is hopeful. A vote of thanks was accorded to the W.M. for his able conduct in the chair. Bro. Walter James was elected to fill the position of W.M. at next meeting.

Wentworth Lodge, No. 737.—A meeting was held on Monday, 5th January, at the Lodge room, Herriott's-lane, Wellingborough. Present:—Bros. J. H. Harte W.M., N. T. Hewens S.W., John Slinn J.W., L. C. Knight Sec., W. Renshaw S.D., W. Jackson J.D., John Wallis Steward, Caleb Matthews I.G., W. Matthews Tyler; Bro. Aris P.M. Visitors—Bros. Butler Wilkins Deputy Prov. Grand Master, Green P.M. 360, Stanton P.M. 360, Hanger 455, Atkins S.W. 1764, Standley W.M. elect 455, Haynes 455. The Lodge was opened in due form, and Bro. James was passed by the W.M. from the first to the second degree. A Board of Installed Masters was formed, and Bro. N. T. Hewens received the benefit of installation from the hands of Bro. Butler Wilkins D.P.G.M., who performed the ceremony in his usual impressive and dignified manner. The Lodge was resumed in the first degree, and after receiving the customary salutations, the Master proceeded to invest his Officers for the ensuing year:—Bros. J. Slinn S.W., L. C. Knight J.W., Caleb Matthews Secretary, Renshaw and Jackson Deacons and Oldham, Inner Guard. After closing the Lodge, the brethren adjourned to the Hind Hotel, where an excellent banquet was provided by Bro. John Wallis, and a very enjoyable evening was spent under the presidency of the esteemed W.M.

High Cross Lodge of Instruction.—Held at the Coach and Horses, Tottenham, Thursday, 8th January 1880. Present—Bros. Oxley W.M., Lewis S.W., Everdell J.W., Poore S.D., Tegg J.D., Japes J.D., Thompson Preceptor, Garrod Sec.; also Bros. Driscoll, Taverner, Bryant, Mattocks, &c. The usual formalities in opening the Lodge having been observed, the ceremony of initiation was rehearsed. Lodge was advanced to the third degree, and the ceremony of raising was rehearsed, Bro. Bryant acting as candidate here, as he had done in the previous ceremony. On the resumption of the Lodge, the sum of five guineas was voted out of the funds for the R.M.I. for Boys, to be placed on Bro. Thompson's List for the forthcoming Festival. A most distressing case of destitution was brought before the Lodge by Bro. Driscoll, being that of a Brother with a family of six children, who had through misfortune been reduced from a comparative state of affluence to abject poverty. The Lodge voted one guinea for his temporary relief, which was supplemented by a further sum of 30s in the form of a subscription by the brethren present. Bro. Lewis was elected W.M. for next Lodge meeting (Thursday, 15th January) when Bro. Driscoll P.M. will rehearse the ceremony of Installation.

Dalhousie Lodge of Instruction, No. 860.—Held at Bro. Smyth's, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, on 6th inst. Present—E. Williams W.M., Polak S.W., Christian J.W., Hand S.D., Clerk J.D., Greenwood I.G., J. Lorkin Sec., Smyth Treas., P.M. Wallington Preceptor; also Bros. C. Lorkin, Dallas, Perrin, Fleck, Darnell, Carr, Allen, &c. After formal opening, the ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Darnell candidate. The Lodge was called off, and on resuming its Masonic duties, was opened in the second and third degrees, and regularly closed to the first. Bro. C. Lorkin worked the first, second, third, and fourth sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Polak was elected W.M. for the ensuing week, and appointed his Officers in rotation. Nothing further offering, the Lodge was closed in due form, and adjourned.

Upton Lodge of Instruction, No. 1227.—Held at the King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., on Thursday, 8th January. Bros. Hine W.M., Patrick S.W., Serjeant J.W., Clark S.D., Gieseke J.D., Fenner Preceptor, Wallbrecht Secretary; also Bros. Defriez, Andrews, Thorn, Key, Trewinnard, and Stroud. The usual formalities were duly observed. Bro. Andrews answered the questions leading from the first to the second degree, and was entrusted. The Lodge was opened in the second, and the ceremony of passing rehearsed, Bro. Andrews candidate. Bro. Fenner worked the third and fourth sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. The Lodge was resumed to the first degree, and the fourth section of the first lecture was worked by Bro. Fenner, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Thorn, of the Royal Savoy Lodge No. 1744, was elected a member of this Lodge of Instruction. Bro. Patrick was appointed to preside at next meeting.

Burdett Coutts Lodge of Instruction, No. 1278.—A meeting was held on 31st December 1879, at the Salmon and Ball, Bethnal-green-road. Present—Bros. Wooding W.M., Clarke S.W., Hind J.W., Abrahams S.D., Lazarus J.D., Quay I.G., Past Master Bro. Hogg Preceptor; Bros. Christian, Hammond, Stewart, Smith Sturtevant and Ward. Business—Questions leading from first to second degree were answered by Bro. Stewart, and the ceremony of passing was worked, Bro. Hammond candidate. Lodge resumed to first degree, and first and second sections were worked by Bro. Christian, assisted by the brethren. It was proposed and carried that Bro. Ward, No. 205 become a member. Lodge was then closed in due form.

On the 7th inst. the chair was occupied by Bro. Hand. There were present—Bros. Clarke S.W., Abrahams J.W., Smith Treas., Chitson Sec., Lazarus S.D., Christian J.D., Toye I.G., W. Hogg P.M. Preceptor; Bros. Ward, Stephens, Jones, Hammond, Stewart, Collins, Wooding, &c. Lodge was opened in due form and usual preliminaries observed. The ceremony of initiation was worked, Bro. Ward candidate. The first four sections of the lecture were worked by the following brethren:—1st, Bros. Wooding; 2nd, Christian; 3rd, Stephens; 4th, Christian. Bro. Clarke was elected W.M. for the meeting next Wednesday. A vote of thanks was passed to Bro. Hand, this being the first time he had worked a ceremony here. Arrangements were also made for holding an installation meeting, notice of which will appear in due course. Lodge was closed and the brethren adjourned, having spent a very enjoyable evening. Bro. Hogg Preceptor is to be congratulated upon the proficiency of the members of this Lodge.

Marquess of Ripon Lodge of Instruction, No. 1489.—Held at the Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-road, Hackney, on Monday,

Digitized by Google

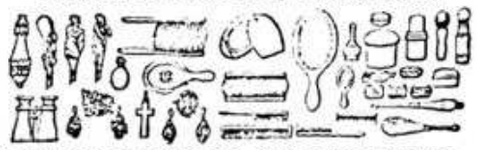
29th December. Present—Bros. Grist W.M., High S.W., Blunt J.W., McDowall S.D., Martin I.G., J. Lorkin Sec., C. Lorkin Preceptor. The Lodge was opened to the second degree. Bro. Martin answered the usual questions, and was entrusted. The Lodge was advanced, and Bro. Martin was raised, the W.M. giving the traditional history. Bro. J. Lorkin worked the first section of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. The Lodge was resumed to the first degree.

On Monday, 5th January, Bros. Allen W.M., Finch S.W., R. Olley J.W., Garrod S.D., Darnell J.D., Martin I.G., J. Lorkin Sec., C. Lorkin Preceptor; Jones, High, Goodman, &c. The Lodge was opened in due form, and the minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Jones candidate. The W.M. worked the 2nd and 3rd sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bros Allen W.M. 933, Finch S.W. 1365, Daniel J.D. 1649, were elected member. A cordial vote of thanks was ordered to be recorded on the minutes to the W.M. for the very able manner in which he had fulfilled the duties of the chair, for the first time. Nothing further offering, the Lodge was closed in due form.

Tredegar Lodge of Instruction, No. 1625.—The regular meeting of this Lodge was held on the 5th instant, at the Royal Hotel, Mile End-road, Bro. W. Hogg P.M. Preceptor. Present—Bros. C. Kendall W.M., T. Wooding S.W., J. Pringle J.W., G. Kendall S.D., C. Veal J.D., J. P. T. Couture I.G., J. Allison Hon. Sec., also Bros. Hubbert, G. H. Stephens, &c. Lodge was opened in due form, and the minutes were confirmed. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Hubbert candidate. Bro. Pringle worked the first three sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Wooding was elected to the chair for Monday next, when we hope to see a good master.

Sir Hugh Myddelton Lodge of Instruction, No. 1692.—Held at Bro. Wood's, the Crown and Woolpack, St. John-street-road, on Tuesday, 6th instant. Present—Bros. Weston W.M., Fuld S.W., Fenner J.W., Pearcy Preceptor, W. Williams S.D., Hirst J.D., W. Rowley I.G.; also Bros. Wood, Fox, Weeden, and others. The usual ceremonies were observed, and minutes of last meeting read and confirmed. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. W. Fox acting as candidate. The ceremony was performed in a very careful manner by the W.M. We trust soon to see him make such progress as will enable him to fulfil the duties of the chair with honour to himself and credit to his mother Lodge; he is now the S.W. Bro. Fox worked the first, Bro. Pearcy the second, and Bro. Fenner the third sections of the lecture. Bro. Fuld was elected W.M. for next Tuesday, after which Lodge was closed and adjourned.

Metropolitan Chapter, No. 1507.—A meeting of this Chapter took place at Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, on Thursday, New Year's Day. In the unavoidable absence of the M.E.Z, Comp. J. R. Stacey, E. Comp. J. Willing I.P.Z. and Treasurer occupied the chair. There were also present—E. Comps. W. J. Ferguson H., W. M. Stiles J., C. Hudson S.E., Edmonds as S.N., H. Stiles P.S., Sillis as 1st Asst. Sojourner, F. Johnson as second ditto; also Comps. Deller, Van Camp. Visitor—Comp. Ward, of Truth Chapter No. 22, County Antrim, Ireland. The minutes being read and confirmed, apologies were received from the M.E.Z. Comp. Stacey, Douglass, Holt, and two of the intending Exaltees. Bro. Field was impressively exalted to the supreme degree of the R.A., and several names having been announced for balloting at ensuing meeting, the Convocation was closed in due form with solemn prayer. The Companions afterwards partook of supper, and a very pleasant evening was spent. W. Bro. J. Scales, W.M. of the Parent Lodge, was to have been exalted, but weighty reasons prevented his being present at this meeting, to his regret.

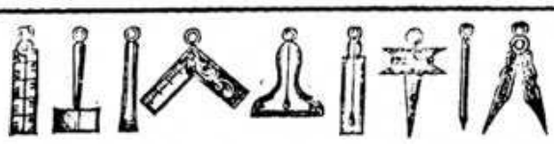


Metropolitan Chapter of Instruction.—The usual meeting of the Metropolitan Chapter of Instruction was held on Tuesday evening, 6th January, at the Jamaica Tavern, St. Michael's-alley, Cornhill. Present:—Comps. Lee Z., Cattermole H., High J., Pennefather N., Lardner P.S.; also Comps. Sayer, Thompson, Letty, Brasted and Walker. Comp. Brown, the able Preceptor, acted as S.E. The ceremony of exaltation was most ably rehearsed, Comp. Walker being the candidate. The Chapter was closed, and adjourned till Tuesday evening, 13th January, at half-past six o'clock.

The Installation Meeting of the Finsbury Park Lodge, No. 1288, was held on the 1st instant, when Bro. F. S. Rothschild was installed as W.M. for the year. Our report stands over until next week.

BALL OF THE CARNARVON AND MIZPAH LODGES.

THE Stewards entrusted to settle the preliminaries in connection with the Fourth Annual Ball of the above Lodges, Nos. 1572 and 1671, announce that they have made arrangements for the Ball to be held at Cannon-street Hotel, E.C., on Friday, the 27th of February next. They will be pleased to welcome members of other Lodges, as also gentlemen who are not Masons. In order that proper provision may be made, the Stewards desire that application for tickets be made on or before the 15th proximo. The address of Bro. Nelson Reed, the Hon. Secretary, is St. Helen's Lodge, Lee, S.E. We are assured he will be pleased to answer any enquiries addressed to him. The enjoyment at the Balls given by these Lodges on previous occasions leaves no doubt but that this gathering will be a success.



IVORY [illegible]
Mirrors & all other Ivory Toilet Articles,

& IVORY GOODS IN GENERAL,
Wholesale & for Exportation & the Trade only.

AT HENNIG BROS. Ivory Works,
11, HIGH STREET, LONDON, W.C.

LATEST NOVELTY.
MASONIC CHARM FOR CHAIN.
The whole of the working Tools complete as above.
MOUNTED IN GOOD GOLD AND ORNAMENTALLY ENGRAVED.
To be had of the maker on receipt of 25s.
E. PELIKAN, Manufacturing Jeweller,
No. 102 St. John Street Road, London, E.C.
P.O.O. to be made payable at the St. John Street Road Office.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE,
A Weekly Record of Masonic Intelligence. Sanctioned by the Grand Lodge of England.
Price—13s 6d per annum, post free.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE will be forwarded direct from the Office, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C., (opposite Freemasons' Hall), on receipt of Post Office Order for the amount. Intending Subscribers should forward their full Addresses to prevent mistakes.

Post Office Orders to be made payable to W. W. MORGAN, at High Holborn Office. Cheques crossed "London and County."

London:—W. W. MORGAN, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C.
(Opposite Freemasons' Hall.)

Cloth Cases for Binding can be had from the Offices, price 1s 6d each

NOTICE.

The Publishing Offices of THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE have been removed to No. 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C. (immediately opposite Freemasons' Hall), where all communications should be addressed.

LADBROKE HALL, NOTTING HILL, LONDON, W

(Opposite the Notting Hill Station of the Metropolitan Railway, from which Trains run every few minutes to all parts of London, and in connection with the principal Lines of Railway.)

THE ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED FOR LODGE MEETINGS IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE DISTRICT.

LARGE LODGE AND BANQUET ROOMS, WITH EVERY CONVENIENCE.

THE HALL MAY BE ENGAGED for BANQUETS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, DINNERS, PUBLIC or PRIVATE ENTERTAINMENTS, &c

Apply to Bro. J. LINSCOTT (at the Hall), 14 Ladbroke Grove Road, London, W.

Digitized by Google

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND,

Under the patronage and support of

H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES, GRAND MASTER of England.
H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT, K.G., P.S.G.W.
H.R.H. PRINCE LEOPOLD, K.G., Past Jun. Grand Warden England, Prov. G.M. Oxfordshire.
CARNARVON The Right Hon. the Earl of, Pro Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
SKELMERSDALE Rt. Hon. Lord, Deputy Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. West Lancashire.
ABERCORN His Grace the Duke of, G.M. Ireland.
STEWART Sir M. R. SHAW, Bart., G.M. Scotland.
ROSSLYN Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Past Grand Master Scotland.
ATHOLE His Grace the Duke of, K.T., P.G. Master Scotland.
ARNOLD Rev. C. W., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Surrey.
BEACH W. W. B., M.P., Prov. G. Master Hampshire and Isle of Wight
BENNETT Sir JOHN, C.C., Grand Stewards' Lodge.
BIRD REGINALD, M.A., S.G.D. England, Deputy Prov. G. Master Oxon.
BRIGHT Sir CHARLES T., Dep. Prov. G.M. Middlesex.
BROADLEY A. M., D.D.G.M. Malta, Prov. G.M.M.M. Tunis and Malta.
BROOKE Right Hon. —, M.P.
BROWNRIGG General J. STUDHOLME, C.B., Prov. Grand Master and Supt. Surrey.
BURDETT Colonel FRANCIS, Prov. Grand Master Middlesex, G. Supt. Middlesex, P.S.G.W., Rep. from Grand Lodge of Ireland.
BURRELL Sir WALTER W., Bart. M.P., P.G.M. Sussex.
CARINGTON Right Hon. Lord
CALTHORPE Maj.-Gen. Hon. SOMERSET J.G., J.G.W.
COCKCROFT LONSDALE M., Deputy Prov. G. Master Northumberland.
CLARKE HYDE, Past Grand Master and Rep. from Grand Lodge of Columbia.
EBRINGTON Rt. Hon. Viscount, P.G.M. Devonshire.
ELSE RICHARD C., Dep. Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
FERRERS Rt. Hon. the Earl, P.G.M. Leicestershire.
FERRIERS Baron de, Prov. G. Reg. Gloucestershire.
GOOCH Sir Daniel, Bt., M.P., P.G.M. Berks & Bucks.
GROSVENOR Right Hon. Lord RICHARD, P.S.G.W.
GUNDRY J. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Dorset.
HALFORD Lieut.-Col. Sir HENRY ST. JOHN, Bart., D. Prov. G. Master Leicestershire and Rutland.
HALSEY THOMAS F., M.P., P.G.M. Hertfordshire.
HARTINGTON, Rt. Hon. Viscount, M.P., Prov. G. Master Derbyshire.
HAYES Rev. Sir JOHN WARREN, Bart., P.D.P.G.M. Berks and Bucks, P.G.C.
HENNIKER Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W., S.G.W.M.M., P.P.G.W. Suffolk.
HICKMAN W., P.A.G.D. of C., D. Prov. G.M. Hants and Isle of Wight.
HILL Right Hon. Lord ARTHUR.
HULSHE Rev. J., P.G.C., P.P.G.M. Devonshire.
ILES F. H. Wilson, M.D., Deputy Prov. G. Master Hertfordshire, Prov. G.H., &c.
INVERURIE Rt. Hon. Lord, P.G.M. Kincardineshire, P.G. Supt. Angus and Mearns, S.G.W. Scotland.
JOHNSTONE Sir HARCOURT, Bt., M.P., P.J.G.W.
JOTHT THOMAS, P.D.P.G.M Hereford.
KENSINGTON Rt. Hon. Lord, M.P., S.G.W. England, D. Prov. G.M. S. Wales (Western Division.)
LECHMERE Sir EDMUND A. H., Bart., M.P., Prov. G.M. Worcestershire.
L'ESTRANGE Col. H. Peisley, P.G. Supt. Norfolk.
LLOYD-PHILIPPS Col. JOHN ALLEN, Prov. G. Master South Wales (Western Division).
LONDESBOROUGH Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W.
MARTIN Rev. C. J., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Suffolk.
MANSFIELD WILLIAM, D.P.G.M. Worcestershire.
MELLOR G., S.G.D. England, D. Prov. G.M. E. Lanc.
NEWMARCH GEORGE FREDERICK, Dep. Prov. G.M. Gloucestershire.
OKEOVER HAUGHTON CHARLES, P.G.W., Dep. P.G. Master Derbyshire.
OWEN Sir PHILIP CUNLIFFE, K.C.M.G., C.B., S.W. 1139
PERCY Rt. Hon. Earl, M.P., P.G.M. Northumberland
PERKINS, Sir FREDERICK, M.P., P.M. 130, P.P.S.G.W. Hants, P.P.S.G.W.M.M.M., &c.
PORTAL Rev. GEO. RAYMOND, P.M. 10, P.G.M.M.M.
PURBY-CUST Ven. Archdeacon A. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Berks and Bucks.
SCOTT J. R., Dep. Prov. G.M. Sussex.
SPENCER-STANHOPE Rev. C. W., G. Chap., Deputy Prov. G.M. Cheshire
STANKIE Col. LE GENDRE N., Prov. G.M. East Lanc.
TEW T. W., Dep. Prov. G.M. West Yorkshire
THE PROVINCIAL GRAND LODGE OF HAMPSHIRE AND ISLE OF WIGHT
TRUSCOTT Sir FRANCIS WYATT, Lord Mayor of London, P.M. No. 1, P. Pres. Board of G. Stewards
WATSON JOHN, Dep. Prov. G.M. Notts.
WAVENEY Rt. Hon. Lord, Prov. G. Master Suffolk
WIGRAM Rev. SPENCER R., P.G.C., D.P.G.M. Essex
WILKINS BUTLER, Dep. P.G.M. Norths and Hunts.
ZETLAND Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Prov. Grand Master North and East Yorkshire

Ace Rev. Daniel, D.D., F.R.A.S., P.P.G.C. Linc., G. Chap. Mark.
Adams Herbert J., P.M. 569, P.Z. 11, 1237
Adlecott C. C., 1907
Adlard F., P.M. 7, P.Z. 214, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Essex
Albert E. P., P.G.P., Sec. 188, 1017, &c.
Alpass Horace S., Prov. G. Sec. W. Lanc.
Andrews Joseph, 209, St. James Chap. A.S.A.E.
Armstrong R. L., P.M. 996, P.G.S.D. Northumberland
Ayling T., P.M. 1096, P.P.G.D. of C. Kent
Ayton Rev. W. A., P.M. 599
Bagshawe Rev. Augustus A., M.A., P.G. Chap., P.P.S.G.W. Derbyshire, G. Chap. Mark, &c.
Baker E., P.P.G.S. of W. Berks and Bucks
Baldwin —, P.P.J.G.D. Middlesex
Bauer G. L., 198
Barfield —.
Barratt T., J.D. 3
Barwell H. G., P.M. 52, P.G. Sec. Norfolk
Bassett N. J. P.
Beasley A., P.M. 780, 1612
Beer Edwin, P.M. 1149
Belfrage D. M., W.M. 179.
Bell J., P.M. 1356, 1609, P.Z. 1356, P.P.J.G.D.
Bell W.
Berrie J. W., W.M. 1185.
Berry John J., P.M. 554.
Best Alfred, 211.
Biggs W., P.Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Binckes F., P.G.S., Sec. R.M.I.B.
Blackburn George, S.W. 264.
Blackwell E. J., S.D. 1101.
Boggis Arthur.
Boulter E. Reeve.
Boulton Babington, P.M., P.Z., P.P.G.D.
Bradley R., Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Brine Col. Frederic, R.E., P.M.
Brown H., Sec. 1764, P.G.S. Norths and Hunts.
Brown Richard, P.M. 241, P.Z. 1356, Hon. Sec. West Lanc. Masonic Educational Institution.
Bulley F. A., P.P.G.S.B. Berks and Bucks.
Burney Lieut.-Col. W. S. Somerville, P.P.S.G.D. Essex, P.M. 1615.
Burt, Ex-Sheriff George, A.G.D.C.
Carter J. O., Sec. 209, P.P.G.D. of C. Berks & Bucks.
Carter Q.-M. Sergt. W., Sec. 1449.
Cattelle A., J.D. 31.
Challen Chas., I.G. 3.
Chalmers T. W., P.M. 726.
Clark Matthew, J.G.D. England.
Clarke Stephenson.
Clench Major E.
Collins Rev. J. W., P.G.C. Suffolk, S.W. 1823.
Collins R. H.
Conolly Dr., 1185.
Constable John, P.M. 185.
Cooke Alfred.
Cooke Charles, W.M. 1823.
Cooper F.
Cordley W., 574, 1101.
Cronin F., P.M. 231.
Cousins C., S.D. 209.
Cutbush James, P.M. 1385, Treas. 1731, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Herts.
Daunt Rev. E. T. Townshend, M.A., P.G.C. Cornwall.
Davage F. B., P.M. and T. 201, P.M. 167, P.Z. 185.
Davis G., J.W. 187
Davy C. R.
Dawkins Edward.
Dewar D. M., P.M. 1415, Assistant Grand Secretary M.M.M.
Dosell J. W. M., P.M. 55 463 1769, P.P.G.D.C. Surrey.
Dover J., 591.
Durrant Captain, P.M. 1185.
Emmerson Charles.
Emmerson R. Joynes, P.M. 1206, P.P.J.G.W. Kent.
Ewins S.D., P.M. 766.
Eynon R., P.M. 481, Prov. S.G.W. Northumberland.
Fenner A. W., S.W. 1227, J.W. 1693.
Fetzler Baron, P.M., P.S.G.W. Berks and Bucks.
Flowerden Edward.
Frank, G. H., 1764.
Fraser J. A., 948.
Freeman, Vincent P., Prov. G. Sec. Sussex.
Frere E. T.
Gardiner G., Secretary 719.
Gee Fred. W., 1224, I.G. 1823.
Gibb T. Eccleston, 34.
Gilbert E. C., P.M., P.Z. 221, 209.
Gladwell Arthur E., J.W. 172.
Glendall Rev. J. W., P.M. 1, P.G. Chap., Chaplain to Foundling Hospital.
Godfrey Henry, P.M. 82, P.S.G.W. Gloucestershire.
Godson A. F., Q.C.
Goodall H.S.
Greenfield John, Treas. 1002.
Greenwood George H., P.M. 1224.
Hamp T.
Harriott G., P.P.G.M. Wigtown and Kirkcudbright
Harris S. M., Sec. 906
Harvey —.
Hawkins E. C., P.G.S. Oxon
Hedges Fentham, W.M. 478, P.P.G. Sec. Oxfordsh.
Hemsley —, 771.
Henry Chaplin
Higham P., P.M. 21, P.P.J.G.W. Kent
Hodges H. Howard, P.M. 795, P.Z. 771, P.P.S.G.W., and P.G. Reg. [Arch] Berks and Bucks
Hogg Dr. Jabez, P.G.D., P.M. 172, 1269
Hopekirk W., P.M. Treas. 179, P.M. 1586, P.Z. 742
Hopper W.
Hopwood E., P.M. 141, 209, P.G.S.B. Middlesex
Horsley Charles P.P.G.R., P. Soj. Middlesex, P.Z.
Howkins Thos. P.M. 468, 938, P.P.G.W. and Sec. to Charity Committee of Warwickshire
Howorth Sergt.-Major J. F., Steward 1449
Hubbard C., W.M. 859
Inman Edwin H., P.J.W. 1312
Irvine J.
Jackson J. H., W.M. 654
Jacobs J., P.M. 182, P.P.G. Reg. Staffordshire
James W. H., P.M. 382, P.P.G.D.C. Gloucestershire
Johnson E., P.M. 140
Johnson H. J., S.W., 1791, J.D. 186, I.G. 1624
Jones E. Stanton, P.M. and Secretary 1319
Jones Robert E., W.M. 1224
Kay J. 742
Kenning George, P.P.G.D. Middlesex
Kent A., 1425
Kirby Edward, P.M. 1098
Klamborowski Leonard, J.W. 1823
Lake Wm., P.M. 131, P.P.G. Reg.
Lanchan Henry C.
Le Fevre John G., Prov. G. Sec. Hants and I. of W.
Levy H. M., P.M. 188, &c.
Lewis W. Lambden
Lloyd Horatio, J.G.D.
Lucas W. H., P.G.S.B., Prov. G. Sec. Suffolk
Lucking A., P.M., P.Z., Prov. G. Sec. Suffolk
Lucking A., P.M., P.Z., Prov. G.D. of C. Essex
Madwell T. J., P.M. 27.
Marshall Horace Brooks, C.C., Treas. 1777.
Massey H., P.M. 619.
Matier C. F., P.G.S.W. Greece, P.M. 615, P.G.W. Mark
Mather John L., P.M., P.G.D.C. Herts.
Mergy Thos., 10, P.M. 21, P.G.S.
Miskin H., W.M. 1449.
Morgan W. W., Sec. 211.
Morris Rev. R., Head Master R.M.I.B.
Morris W., Treas. 1508.
Motion George, P.M. 453, P.P.G.S.W. Essex.
Montrie W. F. C., P.M. 11.
Murray J. Joyce.
Nairne P. A., P.M. and Treasurer 176.
Naylor H. T., P.M. 1449.
Newcomb J., 742.
Newsom W., P.M. 1661, P.J.G.W. Notts.
Newton James, P.M., P.Z., P.G.S.N. East Lanc.
Nicholes W. S., S.W. 209.
Orellana James, J.W. Mark 211.
Pass W., P.M. and Treasurer 26.
Palmer T.
Passawer Dr. E., W.M. 211 Mark.
Payton F. W., J.D. 182.
Pears Andrew, W.M. 865, J.W. 209.
Pepper J. F., W.M. 482.
Percival Captain H. P., 1261.
Perryman W. H., P.M. 3.
Petts E. J., 209.
Phillips W. Page T., P. Prov. S.G.W. Suffolk, G.H.
Pollitzer S., P.M. 1017, P.Z. 188, 538.
Ralling T. J., Prov. G. Sec. Essex.
Radcliffe T. H. 511.
Radcliffe W., S.W. 211.
Randall Rev. W., P.M. 448, P.G.C. Warwicksh. and Staffs., Z. 482, E. 43, P.P.G.S., &c.
Ravenshaw Rev. F. F., P.G.C., P.M. 10, 663, P.Z. 632.
Reed H., P.M. 733.
Rere E. T.
Rieh H. H., P.M. 874, 1523, P.Z. 1119, Past Prov. Grand Secretary Oxon.
Richards A. A., P.G.S., P.G.W. Middlesex.
Roberts Henry, 55.
Roberts Robert, P.M. 742, W.M. 209, Prov. G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Robbins Rev J., D.D., P.M. 1635, P.G. Chaplain Middlesex, W.M. 1765.
Rogers Rev. W.
Rosenthal S., P.M. 435, P.Z. 410, P.P.S.G.W. Middx.
Row C. J. N.
Sanders Rev. S. J. W., M.A. LL.M., &c. W.M. 1764, C. 360, Prov. G. Chap. Norths. and Hunts.
Saunders C. G., 324, 1669.
Saunders W. H., W.M. 889, P.P.G.D. Mdx., P.M. 1503.
Seller A., 414, P.P.G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Sharpe W. H. C., W.M. 795.
Shaw Rev. R. D., W.M. 85.
Sherren J. A., W.M. 170, P.P.G.W. Dorset.
Short Rev. W. F., P.G.C., 10, 357, 1384, 1637.
Simpson Rev. R. J., P.G.C., P.M. 10.
Smith H. R. Cooper, P.M. 478, 1523, 1731, P.Z. 357, P. Prov. G.W. Oxon.
Smith S. H., P.M. 468, 938, P.P.G.S.D. Warwick.
Snelling W. Walton, Sec. 1056, and of Metropolitan Masonic Benevolent Association.
Spice R. P., W.M., P.G.S.
Spratt Augustus E. F.
Starkey N. A.
Steedman W., P.M. 754.
Stendwell —, P.M., P.G.S.
Stephens G. H., 1623.
Steve..s James, P.M. 720 1216 1426, P.Z. 720 771.
Stiles W. M., Secretary 1507, 1732, 1744.
Stohwasser J., P.M. 238 435, P.Z. 8, P.G.S.
Storr E. F., W.M. 1679, P.M. 23.
Stuart Col. William, P.G.W., P.P.G.W. Herts.
Tamplin Augustus L., 441.
Taylor George, P.M. and Tr. 377, P.S.G.D. Worcestr.
Terry James, P.P.J.G.W. Herts, Sec. R.M.B.I.
Tombs H. C., P.G.D.
Torkington, A.
Townsend G., P.M., W.M. 1096, J. 1086.
Tracey Nathiel.
Verry G. Ward P.M. and Sec. 554 1278 1421, J.D., 1580, S.W. 625, P.Z. 554 1395, P.P.G.P.S. Herts.
Vickery S. A.
Walsh Arthur, 1101, P.P.G.R. Berks and Bucks.
Watts G. H.
Watts J.W., P.M. 1201
Weaver James, P.M. 862, 1319, P.Z. 177 862 1319, P.P.G. Org. Middx.
Welham Henry, P.M. 1224
Wentworth T. J., W.M. 225, P.S.G.D. Suffolk
Weatfield W., P.M. 1541
Wheeler Fred., P.P.G.R. Suffolk, P.M. and Sec. 1224
Willing James, P.M. 177, P.M. and Treas. 1507, P.M. and Treas. 1744, P.Z. and Treas. 1507, Z. 1909
Wilson J., P.M. and Treas. 209
Winter James
Withers Alfred, W.M. 211
Woodford Rev. A. F. A., P.G. Chap.
Woodman Dr. W. R., P.G.S.B.
Woodward E. C., P.M. 382, 1637, &c.
Worlock R. Montagu, Prov. G. Sec. Bristol
Wragg J. H., Prov. Grand Sec. Notts.

Cavene Lodge, No. 176, London
Etonian Lodge, No. 209, Windsor
St. Luke's Lodge, No. 225, Ipswich
Lord Warden Lodge, No. 1696, Walmer
Lewis Lodge, No. 1755, Wood Green
Curwen Lodge, No. 1400, Harrington.
Duke of Cornwall Lodge, No. 1529, St. Columb.

Editor of "The Freemason"
Editor of "The Freemason's Chronicle."
Editor of "The Rosicrucian"
Editor of "The Scottish Freemason"
Editor of "The Standard."

Brethren who desire to assist in establishing this Fund will oblige by forwarding their names to be added to the above List.

Digitized by Google

CANNON STREET HOTEL, CANNON STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Has been thoroughly renovated; the Railway advantages, in direct communication with the Hotel, render this establishment unequalled in the Metropolis for

MASONIC BANQUETS, PUBLIC & PRIVATE DINNERS, BREAKFASTS, &c.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENTS, PUBLIC MEETINGS, ARBITRATIONS, &c.

THE LARGE HALL IS CAPABLE OF SEATING UPWARDS OF TWELVE HUNDRED PEOPLE.

VISITORS AND FAMILIES visiting LONDON, for LONG or SHORT PERIODS, will find the APPOINTMENTS, and ACCOMMODATION UNRIVALLED.

E. H. RAND, MANAGER.

ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY Limited, 7 Bank Buildings, Lothbury, E.C.

General accidents. Railway accidents. | Personal injuries. Death by accident.

C. HARDING, Manager.

RHEUMATISM.

THE only real remedy for this complaint is the Northern Cure (patent). In bottles 1s 1½d each, to be had of all Chemists. Proprietors and Manufacturers, Edwards and Alexander, 29 Blaekett-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

GEO. JONES,

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT MANUFACTURER and IMPORTER, 350 and 481 Commercial Road, London, E. Price List of every description of Instruments post free. Established 1850.

TAMAR INDIEN.

SPECIAL CAUTION.

OWING to the marked success of this medicine, the only patent medicine universally prescribed by the faculty, and the acknowledged cure for constipation, headache, bile, hæmorrhoids, &c., BASE IMITATIONS, containing drastic irritants, are being foisted on the public. The genuine preparation bears the title "Tamar Indien," and the signature E. GRILLON, Coleman-st., London, E.C. Price 2s 6d per box. In a recent case, 1876, G. No. 211, a perpetual injunction to restrain the defendant from applying the name "Tamar" to his lozenges was awarded, with costs, by Vice-Chancellor Bacon, on 19th January 1877, and all such piracies will be summarily proceeded against.——N.B. See that the outer wrapper (directions) are printed in the English language and that each box bears the Government 3d stamp.

MEMORY EXTRAORDINARY BY CORRESPONDENCE.—Particulars post free of Bro. William Stokes, Teacher of Memory, Royal Polytechnic, 309 Regent-street, London, W. Private lessons by appointment. Class on Tuesdays, 3 and 8.30. The System complete in Three Lessons. "Stokes on Memory," by post 14 stamps. Memory Globe, 14 stamps.

New Edition, Enlarged, Crown 8vo., Cloth 5s.

WAIFS AND STRAYS, CHIEFLY FROM THE CHESS BOARD, by Captain Hugh R. Kennedy, Vice-President of the British Chess Association,

W. W. MORGAN, 23 GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON.

HOTELS, ETC.

EALING—Feathers Hotel

EASTBOURNE—Pier Hotel, Cavendish Place. View of Sea and Pier. A. TAYLOR Proprietor

KEW—Star and Garter. Good accommodation for Lodge & Dinner Parties. J. BRILL Proprietor

SANDWICH—Bell Family and Commercial Hotel, Good Stabling. J. J. FILMER Proprietor

WOOD GREEN—Kings Arms Hotel. A. B. GREENSLADE Proprietor

YORK—Queen's Family and Commercial Hotel, Micklegate. H. CHURCHILL Proprietor

LONDON.

CALTHORPE ARMS—253 Gray's Inn Road, W.C. Billiards, Pool, Pyramids, &c. Best Wines and Spirits. W. H. G. RUDDERFORTH Proprietor

CANNING TOWN—Liverpool Arms. J. PAVITT. Friars L. of Instruction, 1349, Tuesdays at 7.30

GREEN DRAGON—Spring Garden-place, Stepney Wines and Spirits of the best quality. Billiards. Banquets provided for large or small parties. Yarborough L. & C. 554, and Temple Mark L. 173 held here. Lodge of Instruc. (554) meets every Tuesday at 8. A. WALTER Proprietor

MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT—Moorgate Street, E.C. Hot and Cold Dinners, &c. Chops and Steaks. Good accommodation for Lodge Meetings, &c. A. KENT Proprietor

NEW MARKET HOTEL—King Street, Snow Hill, E.C. Good accommodation for Club and other Banquets. Wines and Spirits of best quality. Specially licensed for Masonic Balls. Lodges 1623 and 1677 are held here. Strong Man No. 45 and West Smithfield No. 1623 Lodges of Instruction, meet here, every Monday at 8 p.m. Thomas BUTT Proprietor

SAWYER'S (late Station) RESTAURANT, 5 Railway Place, Fenchurch Street, E.C. English, French, and German Cuisine. Wines of the best quality. Hot and Cold Luncheons, Chops, Steaks, &c. Tea and Coffee. F. J. SAWYER (late of Pimm's and Crystal Palace) Proprietor

---

BILLIARD BALLS, Chalks, Cues, and Tips, at HENNIG BROS.' Ivory Works, 11 High Street, London, W.C. Cheapest house in the trade for billiard-table requisites and ivory goods in general. Old balls adjusted or exchanged, and tables recovered. Price Lists on application. Established 1862.

MASONIC JEWELS FOR ALL DEGREES.

MINIATURE WAR MEDALS AND DECORATIONS.

ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD IN ALL SIZES.

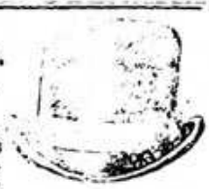
ATHLETIC SPORTS MEDALS AND BADGES.

A. D. LOEWENSTARK & SONS, Medallists, 210 STRAND, LONDON, W.C.

MANUFACTORY—1 DEVEREUX COURT, STRAND.

J. FORTESCUE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,



129 FLEET ST.; 114 & 115 SHOE LANE,

(One door from Fleet Street)

6 EXMOUTH STREET, CLERKENWELL, E.C.

And 143 Mare Street, Triangle, Hackney

Gents' Silk Hats from 5/6 each. Second best 6/6 7/6 8/6 Superfine quality, 10/6 12/6 & 16/. The very best made 21/. Felt Hats, hard and soft, in all the newest shapes, from 3/6 to 10/6.

ADAM S. MATHER,

GAS ENGINEER, GENERAL GAS FITTER AND BELL HANGER

MANUFACTURER OF BILLIARD LIGHTS

AND OF EVERY DESCRIPTION OF GAS APPARATUS FOR COOKING AND HEATING

Bath Rooms Fitted up. All the Latest Improvements Introduced.

MANUFACTORY—12 CHARLES STREET, HATTON GARDEN, E.C.;

AND AT 278 CALEDONIAN ROAD, ISLINGTON, N.

ESTIMATES GIVEN.

PIANOFORTES AND HARMONIUMS ON EASY TERMS.

GROVER & GROVER

LET ON HIRE, WITH OPTION OF PURCHASE,

BEAUTIFUL AND PERFECT INSTRUMENTS.

PURCHASERS CHOOSE THEIR OWN TERMS,

FROM 15s TO £3 3s PER QUARTER.

The Advantages of a Trial, with the Convenience of the Three Years' System at Cash Price, by Paying about a Quarter of the value down, the Balance by Easy Payments, from 15s per quarter.

GROVER & GROVER, 157-9 Kingsland Road.

ESTABLISHED 1830.

W. BEASLEY,

Bespoke Boot Maker,

23 Queen Victoria Street.

HUNTING, RIDING, DRESS AND BOOTS FOR THE MOORS,

MADE IN A FEW DAYS.

Specialité—Hand Sewn and Standard Screwed.

C. HUBBARD,

Plain & Fancy Box & Pattern

CARD MANUFACTURER.

139 & 141 NEW NORTH ROAD,

AND

64 SHAFTESBURY ST., LONDON, N.

ROCHESTER & FOX,

Post and Job Masters,

799 COMMERCIAL ROAD,

AND

81 JUBILEE STREET, MILE END, E.

Carriages of every description on hire.

SUPERIOR WEDDING CARRIAGES.

HOUGHTON,

THE BOOT MAKER,

243 & 244 WHITECHAPEL ROAD,

LONDON, E.

Lasts made to the Feet.

—:o:—

SPECIALITÉ,

EASE, ELEGANCE AND DURABILITY.

A. LAZARUS,

Merchant Tailor and Juvenile Clothier,

CORNER OF WORSHIP ST., SHOREDITCH, E.

AND

51 LIVERPOOL STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Patterns and Rules for Self Measurement post free.

Bro. A. OLDROYD, Stratford, London,

MANUFACTURER OF TOBACCO POUCHES,

With any name in raised letters.

CAN be obtained direct from the Maker, at the undermentioned prices, on receipt of P.O.O. payable at Stratford.

	Price		Will take a name of letters
No. 3	2/0	...	9 letters
,, 4	2/6	...	11 ,,
,, 5	3/0	...	12 ,,
,, 6	3/6	...	13 ,,
,, 7	4/0	...
,, 8	4/6	...
,, 9	5/0	...

A. OLDROYD,

Agent for Algerian Cigars, and Importer of Havana and Continental Cigars,

84 HIGH STREET, STRATFORD, LONDON, E.

Digitized by Google

EDWARD STILLWELL AND SON,

25, 26 and 27 BARBICAN, AND 6 LITTLE BRITAIN, LONDON,
109 ARGYLE STREET, GLASGOW,

Gold Lacemen, Embroiderers and Sword Cutlers,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Masonic Fittings for Lodges, Chapters and Encampments.

CLOTHING, JEWELS (PINS, STUDS AND RINGS), FOR EVERY DEGREE.

Aprons, Sashes, Horns, Ornaments and Banners for Foresters, Odd Fellows, Orangemen, Free Gardeners, &c.

REGALIA FOR I.O.G.T. AND ALL SOCIETIES.

LIBERAL TERMS TO SHIPPERS.

H. T. LAMB,

MANUFACTURER OF

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND REGALIA,

5 ST. JOHN SQUARE, LONDON.

PRICE LIST, CONTAINING 120 ILLUSTRATIONS, POST FREE ON APPLICATION.

JOSEPH J. CANEY,

DIAMOND MERCHANT, AND MANUFACTURING JEWELLER AND WATCH MAKER,

44 CHEAPSIDE, LONDON.

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND FURNITURE.

Specialité—First Class Jewels—Artistic—Massive—Best Quality—Moderate in Price

CATALOGUES POST FREE.

A LARGE STOCK OF LOOSE BRILLIANTS FOR EXPENSIVE JEWELS.

Diamond Rings, Brooches, Studs, Earrings and Bracelets in Great Variety.

J. E. SHAND & CO.

Wine Merchants,

(Experts and Valuers of Wines and Spirits.)

2 ALBERT MANSIONS, VICTORIA ST., LONDON, S.W.

PRICES DELIVERED IN LONDON.

SHERRIES	21s, 24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s	CHAMPAGNES	36s, 42s, 48s, 54s, 60s
PORTS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	BURGUNDY	18s, 20s, 24s, 30s, 42s
CLARETS	12s, 16s, 18s, 20s, 24s, 36s	BRANDIES ...	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s, 66s
MOSELLES & HOCKS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s	WHISKIES	20s per gall., 42s per doz.

COUNTRY ORDERS OVER £3 CARRIAGE FREE.

5 PER CENT. DISCOUNT FOR CASH WITH ORDER.

SPARKLING SAUTERNE—DELICIOUS (1875) SPARKLING WINE, SEC. AND EXTRA 42s PER DOZ.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.

WARD'S

INVALID CHAIR A' CARRIAGE MANUFACTORY,

From SAVILLE HOUSE, LEICESTER SQUARE,

To 246 & 247 TOTTENHAM COURT ROAD, LONDON.

THE ONLY PRIZE MEDAL for INVALID FURNITURE was gained by JOHN WARD, at the London Exhibitions, 1851 and 1862; Paris, 1855 and 1867; Dublin, 1865; Vienna, 1873; 2 Silver Medals, Paris, 1878.

JOHN WARD, Manufacturer by Special Appointment to the Queen and Royal Family, the Empresses of France, Austria, Russia, &c.

INVALID CHAIRS and CARRIAGES for SALE or HIRE from JOHN WARD. Established 150 years. Drawings and price lists free on application.

FIELD

S

Fish Carvers, Fish Eating Knives and Forks, Revolving Covered Soup and Luncheon Dishes.

SPECIALITIES FOR TESTIMONIALS,
TEA AND COFFEE SERVICES,

SALVERS, DESSERT KNIVES AND FORKS, GILT AND OXYDIZED GOODS.

77 (from 28) Cheapside, London, E.C.
(NEAR THE POULTRY.)

MORING,

ENGRAVER, DIE SINKER,
HERALDIC ARTIST, -
ILLUMINATED ADDRESSES,
44, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST POST FREE.

ADLARD'S JEWEL ATTACHER 7/6.

If with Pockets, 6d each Pocket extra.

225 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

JANES & SON

WINDOW BLINDS ONLY,

WHOLESALE,

ALDERSGATE STREET, CITY, E.C.

BRANCH—

4 EAGLE PLACE, PICCADILLY

THESE ADDRESSES ONLY.

YOUNG'S Arnicated Corn and Bunion Plaisters are the best ever invented for giving immediate ease, and removing those painful excrescences. Price 6d and 1s per box. Any Chemist not having them in stock can procure them.

Observe the Trade Mark—H. Y.—without which none are genuine. Be sure and ask for Young's.

Horticultural Decorations, Fernéries, Window Gardening, Stoves, Halls, Lawns, Parks, PLANTS for DECORATIONS, Masonic Banquets, Balls, &c.

DICK RADCLYFFE & CO., F.R.H.S.

129 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

TABLE DECORATIONS. Ball Room Decorations, Seats for Export. Illustrated Catalogue sent post free. Seeds, Bulbs, &c., carefully packed for Export.

NEW MASONIC ROOMS,

COMPLETE SUITE,

SPECIALLY ARRANGED

LODGE, BANQUETTING,

AND ANTE ROOMS,

ALL ON ONE FLOOR.

Particulars to be had of

BRO. A. KENT, MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT,

OPPOSITE RAILWAY STATION,

From which trains run at frequent intervals in connection with the Great Northern, Midland, Great Western, London Chatham & Dover, and Metropolitan Railways.

Printed for the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE PUBLISHING COMPANY LIMITED, and Published by Bro. WILLIAM WRAY MORGAN JUN., at 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C., Saturday, 10th January 1880.

Digitized by Google

THE

Freemason's Chronicle;

A WEEKLY RECORD OF MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

SANCTIONED BY THE GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

Registered at the G.P.O. as a Newspaper.

VOL. XI.—No. 264. SATURDAY, 17th JANUARY 1880. [Issued to Subscribers only. 13s 6d per annum, post free.

PROJECTED EXTENSION OF THE GIRLS' SCHOOL.

THE Quarterly General Court of the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls has been held, and the vexed question as to the purchase of Lyncombe House and grounds seems to be as far off settlement as ever. In fact, the more that is done in the matter the less likely it appears that an amicable solution will be arrived at. It is greatly to be regretted that one section of the supporters of one of our Charities should find it necessary to threaten legal proceedings in order to stay the action of another, or that one party should persist in their efforts to carry a proposition so repugnant to the feelings of their fellow workers without first endeavouring to answer the objections raised, or to ascertain the feeling of the general body of subscribers. On questions requiring the smallest amount of discussion it seems impossible, even among Freemasons, to prevent the oft-repeated charge of personality being made. It appears that because one or two members have expressed themselves as strongly in opposition to the vote as others have in favour of it, that a war is to be waged between them, and, as may be imagined under such circumstances, the meeting of Saturday last—so far as this subject was concerned—was of a most stormy nature. Because Bro. A objects to the proposal of Bro. B, it seems to be immediately assumed that a personal affront is intended, whereas, as we have frequently pointed out, the motives of Bro. A are as likely to be sincere as are those of Bro. B; one entertains one opinion, the other the opposite. To assume that this shall be a cause for personal quarrel is absurd in the extreme; and we must say we were somewhat surprised that so much of the time of the meeting of Saturday was allowed to be occupied in making and answering charges purely of a personal nature, and not in any way bearing on the subject at issue. If feeling is to be allowed to interfere in the discussions which must necessarily arise in connection with the Institutions, it will speedily be found that ruin will result, and therefore we again urge all concerned to settle the matter amicably if it is any way possible to do so.

Some of the objectors to the vote, finding that friendly protest was of no avail, and feeling that no respect was shown for their opinion, determined on procuring legal advice as to whether the purchase was in accordance with the objects for which the Institution was established. The following questions were accordingly submitted to Mr. C. Locock Webb, Q.C., whose Masonic position as Past Grand Officer of England it was thought would lend additional weight to his decision.

COUNSEL'S OPINION IS REQUESTED—

1. Whether the Charity Funds collected for the general purposes of the Institution can be applied to the purchase of Houses and Land not really necessary for the purposes of the Charity? (vide Cl. 2.)

2. Can the Trustees be held personally liable to the Charity for any funds which they may have applied already, or may in future expend out of any other than the Sustentation Fund, in the acquisition of Buildings and Land?

3. What course is advised to prevent the monies of the Institution being devoted to other purposes than those set forth in Cl. 2?

In answer to the above, the following opinions are given:—

1. I am of opinion that the purchase, by the Trustees of the General Fund, of Lyncombe House and grounds would be clearly ultra vires, and an illegal application of the monies vested in them for the general purposes of the Institution. It would not be competent for any General Court to make any new law, or any grant authorising such purchase, or the advance out of the general fund of the proposed consideration money of £6,500, or any part thereof; and any resolution purporting to do so would be utterly null and void. I think that the notice convening the Special General Court for to-morrow (the 3rd January) would be bad, even if the objects of such meeting were valid, instead of being, as in my judgment they are, clearly invalid.

The funds collected for the general purposes of the Institution could not properly be applied to the purchase of any houses or lands not really necessary for the purposes of the Institution, and I doubt if any of such funds could, strictly speaking, be applied in the purchase of any building or lands (see laws II. and VII.) The General Fund would seem to be applicable to the maintenance, clothing, and education of the children, who, being duly elected, are or may become inmates of the establishment. The "Sustentation" Fund would seem to be applied to the maintenance of the buildings.

If it is deemed expedient to enlarge or add to the existing Institution a special fund should be subscribed for that purpose.

2. If the Trustees have already applied, or should in future apply monies out of the General Fund in or towards the purchase of Lyncombe House and grounds, I think they would be personally liable to recoup all such monies.

3. I am opinion that an action in the Chancery Division may be maintained at the suit of any member of the General Committee (see Law XXXV.) who should sue on behalf of himself and all other members of such Committee, except the defendants, against the Trustees for an injunction to restrain the contemplated misappropriation of the general fund. But, under the circumstances of this case, I should strongly advise that every effort should be made to avoid litigation. To that end I would suggest that those on whose behalf I am advising, being Governors, should attend the meeting to-morrow and state their objections; they will not, of course, vote upon any resolution. And if resolution purporting to authorise such purchase should be carried, I think they should at once write to each of the Trustees such a letter as I have already suggested in conference before commencing an action.

LOCOCK WEBB.

Lincoln's Inn, 2nd January 1880.

Now, in the face of the above, and even assuming that Bro. Webb is wrong, and that the brethren who sought his advice are wrong, what can be the motive for endeavouring to pass this vote in so hurried a manner and in direct opposition to the desire of a large and representative minority? It is not possible to ensure a large attendance of brethren at Freemasons' Hall at twelve o'clock on a Saturday,—why that time should have been fixed for the regular Courts is, and always has been, a mystery to us—and this seems to be taken advantage of to secure a majority for the proposers of the vote. One side says that unless the question is at once settled the chance of purchase will be lost, a statement which is flatly contradicted by the other; and as neither side produce any evidence in support of their statements, it is impossible to say which is right. The main objection appears to be that the price to be paid is greatly in excess of the value of the land, and although the proposers express so much concern lest their plan shall be frustrated, it appears to be impossible for them to procure an unbiassed opinion of the value of the property. It is admitted that the Institution can afford something above what an ordinary purchaser would be willing to pay, because the acquisition would be beneficial in many ways; but if the price asked—as is stated by all who have taken the trouble to mention figures—is £4,000 above the market value of the property, the course taken to oppose the expenditure is not only justifiable, but the efforts of the brethren who have organised it greatly to be commended. If the property were proved to be worth say £6,000, no one would object to the extra £500 outlay if it were necessary in order to secure the plot for the Institution, but at present the only estimate given of the value is that of the objectors, who say that if put up to auction it would fetch between £2,000 and £2,500. Can this be contradicted? If so, why is it not done? Conciliation would be much the better course for all to pursue, and if each side agreed to discuss the various points calmly and thoroughly, we believe one would willingly give way to the other rather than allow a continuance of a strife which must be pronounced on all sides as likely to materially affect the future of the Institution. As Bro. Clabon said, the question to be considered was—whether it was desirable to buy the property? to which we add another,—is the price asked a fair one for the Institution to pay? Surely it should not be impossible for these two questions to be satisfactorily disposed of. We trust that at the adjourned meeting, which is fixed for Saturday next, the 24th instant, the subject will be amicably settled, and that all who have taken a part in the discussion will again unite in their efforts to promote the interests of the Girls' School.

Digitized by Google

THE ELECTION OF SECRETARIES TO THE MASONIC INSTITUTIONS.

AT the time of the election of a Secretary to the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls in 1878, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Bro. Little, considerable discussion took place as to the advisability of continuing the restriction making it compulsory for voters to personally deliver their ballot papers at the place of polling. As was pointed out at the time, this law virtually has the effect of placing the election entirely in the hands of the London brethren, the expense both in money and time entailed by a visit to the metropolis practically shutting out the Provincial members. When it is taken into consideration that upwards of one-half of the subscriptions year by year contributed to our Charities are sent by country brethren, it must be admitted that the law operates somewhat unfairly. The post of Secretary is one of the most, even if not the most, important in connection with the Institutions, and for this reason the whole of the contributors should have an equal voice in the election. Since the question was raised in 1878, measures have been taken to remove the restrictions both as regards the Boys' and the Girls' Institutions. On motions duly given it has been decided that for the future the election of Secretary shall be conducted in a similar manner to that observed in the election of children to the Schools—that is, by ballot papers, which, when signed by the voter, may be presented, on his or her behalf, by any member of the General Committee; thus avoiding the trouble of a personal attendance at London or wherever the poll may be taken. We trust it may be some time before it will be needful to put this new law into practical use, as all wish the three brethren who now fill the position of Secretaries to the Institutions health and strength to continue their labours for many years to come; but as it is certain that at some time or other it will be necessary to elect successors, it is as well that proper arrangements be made beforehand. We look upon this change as one that was greatly needed, and feel sure it will conduce to the welfare of the Institutions. On one point alone the alteration is justifiable,—it will be the means of forming another connecting link between the brethren of London, and those of the Provinces, who have hitherto—and we trust always will continue to compete with each other as to who shall do the most for the Charities. On a question of so much importance to the whole body of Subscribers as the choice of a Secretary, it is but natural that all who are interested should desire to express an opinion, and they are entitled to every consideration which will enable them to do so. When large bodies of supporters of an Institution find themselves shut out from the exercise of what they consider their just rights in connection therewith, they naturally take less interest in the welfare of the undertaking, and as a consequence the subscriptions fall off. There is a widespread feeling in many of the Provinces that local Charities may be established, and successfully carried on, independently of those in London. At present these local efforts have been directed with a view of helping in the good work carried on by the central Charities, without any rivalry or opposition, but if restrictions such as that which used to exist on the question of voting for Secretary are allowed to continue, it will speedily be found that the local Institutions will receive the whole of the support of the brethren of their immediate neighbourhoods, instead of being, as they are considered at present, of secondary importance. To prevent the chance of a withdrawal on the part of the Provincial brethren from the maintenance of the central Charities, every concession which can reasonably be accorded should be made by the London members to the Provincials, who, be it remembered, labour under great disadvantage by reason of the distance at which they reside from the point of action. The slightest sign of a breach between the two sections should be at once stamped out.

At the Quarterly Court of the Girls' School, held on Saturday, the question as to how the elections should be conducted in the future again came under the notice of the brethren assembled, the vote altering the rules so as to admit of balloting without personal attendance, which was passed at the last Court, on the proposition of Bro. Birch, being a part of the minutes offered for confirmation. As will be seen from the report which appears on another page, Bro. A. E. Gladwell moved the non-confirmation of so much thereof as related to this subject, his reason for doing so being, that he considered the matter should be left in the hands of the House Committee, who from their personal acquaintance with the duties of the Secretary were, he thought, far more competent to select a brother fit for the office than brethren residing at a distance, and who perhaps might never have occasion for personal communication with the officer appointed. We admit that brethren whose official duties in connection with the Institutions bring them into almost daily intercourse with the Secretary would doubtless be the best judges of the man they would like to fill the post, but it must be remembered that the Secretaries are not appointed solely for their ability to prepare the work for the various Committees, but rather to bring the claims of the Charities under the notice of the Craft at large, and secure subscriptions to enable the good work to be continued. As the future of the Charities in a measure depends on the ability of the Secretaries, there should be no restriction which would act prejudicially to any particular candidate for the post. Another argument used by Bro. Gladwell was, that a brother from a distant Province might, by the combined efforts of his friends, be elected, and then he might find himself in a very awkward position, perhaps unknown to but one or two London brethren, and too far away from his own circle to receive any material aid from them. Should such a result occur, he would have to open up a field for himself, a task no man of energy would be likely to look upon as impossible, especially when backed, as he would be, by the reputation of the Charity he represented and the friends who had secured his election. It must be remembered that from whatever part a candidate may come, before he is elected he must secure a number of votes in excess of all other brethren who are competing, and this could hardly be done without support being rendered from some other source than the candidate's own particular circle. The only objection we see to the present arrangement is, that it will greatly increase the number of candidates. As a consequence, the votes would be so divided as to render it possible for a comparatively small number to carry the day. We would suggest that a preliminary ballot be taken, and that the four or five then proved to be at the head of the poll should compete among themselves for the post. It would then be necessary for a brother to secure the support of about one-third of the voters before he could be sure of success, and if any one could obtain that proportion it would have to be purely by ability rather than by private influence. We have before stated that we hope the occasion is long distant when an opportunity will arise for a test of the new system; still it behoves us to consider every argument now. When the time does arrive, it will be too late to make any alteration, just as it was in 1878, when numerous brethren would have tried to pass the resolution which has since been brought forward if they had seen a possibility of its being done in time to have then become available.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.—During piercing winds and excessive variations of temperature every one is more or less liable to internal disease. Throat, chest, liver, bowels, kidneys and skin, all suffer in some degree, and may be relieved by rubbing in this Ointment, aided by proper doses of the Pills, for administering which full directions accompany each box; in truth, any one who thoroughly masters Holloway's "instructions" will, in remedying disease, exchange the labour of an hour for the profit of a lifetime. All bronchial, pulmonary, and throat disorders require that the Ointment should be thoroughly well rubbed upon the skin twice a-day, with great regularity considerable briskness, and much persistence.

Digitized by Google

QUARTERLY COURT OF THE GIRLS' SCHOOL.

THE Quarterly Court of the Governors of, and Subscribers to the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls, was held last Saturday at Freemasons' Hall, Col. Creaton, Grand Treasurer, presiding. When the minutes of the Quarterly Court held in October last were read, Bro. Arthur E. Gladwell, before they were put for confirmation, moved that the portion of them be not confirmed which recorded the carrying of Bro. Birch's motion for giving the provincial brethren the choice of voting by balloting paper at the election of Secretary. Although a member of the General Committee, he would be willing to surrender his privilege of voting to the House Committee, who he thought, from their personal acquaintance with the Secretary, were better able to form a judgment of his ability than brethren at a distance. He thought the power of electing the Secretary should be vested in the House Committee. Col. Burdett seconded the motion, which was opposed by Bro. Edward Cox, as Bro. Birch's motion was carried at a meeting when a large number of provincial brethren were present. In his opinion, it would be unfair that the motion should be now confirmed at a meeting which they did not attend, as they would if they had had notice that Bro. Gladwell's motion would be made. Such a proceeding would lead to a secession of the country brethren, whom the London brethren should do all they could to keep on good terms with. Bro. Gladwell's motion was put and lost, and the minutes of the October Court were confirmed. The minutes of the Special Court of the 3rd inst. were next read, as well as a letter from Bro. John Thomas Moss, with copy of opinion by Bro. Charles Locock Webb, Q.C., advising that the purchase of Lyncombe House and grounds could not legally be made. Col. Creaton therefore asked for an adjournment of the Court with respect to the confirmation of the minutes of 3rd January, and Col. Burdett having moved this adjournment, it was seconded by the Rev. A. F. A. Woodford, who took advantage of his seconding the motion to analyse Bro. H. T. Thompson's printed circular, which was in the following words:—

TO THE SUBSCRIBERS TO THE ROYAL MASONIC INSTITUTION FOR GIRLS.

Proposal to expend Six Thousand Five Hundred Pounds in the purchase of a House and Three Quarters of an Acre of Land.

MY LORDS, LADIES, AND GENTLEMEN,—Having been improperly interrupted in attempting to make known to the Subscribers present at Freemasons' Hall on Saturday last the circumstances attending the opposition to this project, and the Treasurer having omitted to state the objections which had been communicated to him, this means is taken of bringing the facts to your knowledge.

You are possibly already aware that by public advertisements, on 15th November last, notice was given that a Special General Court would be held on that day week, on the requisition of the Treasurer alone, to consider a resolution proposed by himself, to the effect that £6,500 should be spent for the purpose above stated. It was subsequently reported that a meeting, presided over by the Treasurer, and consisting of six members of the Building Committee, and about twelve others, had been held, and the resolution passed. After consultation with other Governors, who are opposed to this mode of dealing with charitable funds, I waited on the Secretary to see the minutes, and to obtain a copy of the laws. The latter, I was informed, were not yet printed. In a friendly way I directed the attention of the Secretary to the fact that the meeting was an illegal one, for several reasons, but, in particular, from the proposal not having been reported to a previous General Court or General Committee, as required by section 34 of the Laws. He denied that there was any irregularity, and affirmed that everything had been done strictly in accordance with the Laws and with precedent.

The legal aspect of the matter appears to have been reconsidered, for, at the General Committee Meeting of 24th December, the Treasurer announced that a question had arisen on the construction of the Laws, and to ensure the matter being in order he would convene another Special General Court, for 3rd January, to re-pass the same resolution. On the appearance of the second advertisement I again made a personal objection at the office, to the proposed meeting; but finding it was determined to proceed with the scheme, my friends agreed to take counsel's opinion upon the subject.

The case was accordingly stated by Mr. J. T. Moss, and the opinion of one of the most eminent Queen's Counsel of the Chancery Bar is now before you; and although I do not feel at liberty to publish that learned gentleman's non-professional observations in connection with his conciliatory advice at the conference which I had the honour to attend, I may express regret that our efforts to give effect to the general purport of his kind recommendation—to make further endeavours to stop the intended illegal proceedings by moral suasion—have been repulsed by the action of the Treasurer or his advisers, after a knowledge of Mr. Locock Webb's opinion and advice.

The so-called meeting was held, the Treasurer again officiating as Chairman upon his own proposition. The personal communication of Mr. J. T. Moss to the Treasurer, after conference with counsel, was not made known to the subscribers present, an amendment to delay the purchase was defeated, and the original motion declared carried by a majority. In accordance with the advice of counsel those of our friends who were present declined to vote on either question.

Under the same advice, as a further effort to prevent litigation, a friendly protest has been addressed to Lord Leigh, the Earl of Carnarvon, Lord Skelmersdale, and Col. Burdett, co-Trustees with the Treasurer, and should that unfortunately fail, we shall have before us, what counsel terms "the moral duty of preventing by law a contemplated misappropriation of the Funds of a Charitable Institution." No personal considerations whatever can be permitted to interfere with that duty should the necessity for discharging it unhappily occur.

In order to prevent misapprehension, the Governors with whom I am acting particularly desire that these facts should be in the possession of those Subscribers who may attend the confirmation meeting, to be held at Freemasons' Hall, at twelve o'clock on Saturday next, and in their names, as in my own,

I have the honour to be,

My Lords, Ladies and Gentlemen,

Your obedient faithful Servant,

HENRY T. THOMPSON,

Nightingale-road, Clapton, E. Life Governor.
8th January 1880.

Bro. Woodford complained of this circular, and said it was not the first time in the history of the Institution that such circulars had been sent. He referred to a circular sent a twelvemonth ago after Bro. Thompson had addressed Colonel Creaton, in which circular offensive bynames were applied to Colonel Creaton and other members. Were they, as gentlemen and Masons, to sanction such proceedings? The present circular contained palpable untruths, in that it stated that the Chairman had omitted to state the objections which had been communicated to him, and that Bro. Thompson had been improperly interrupted. The charge of improper interruption referred to him (Bro. Woodford). Colonel Creaton was not open to the charge of withholding the objections to the meeting, because Bro. Moss had stated that his communication was private, and that he came as amicus curiæ. With regard to the alleged improper interruption, he (Bro. Woodford) rose to a point of order, Bro. Thompson not having moved an amendment, and he had no right to advise the brethren not to vote because the proceedings were illegal without stating why they were illegal. This ground was also taken by Bro. Gover. Bro. Woodford concluded by observing that this system of adopting personality was disgraceful and derogatory, and in opposition to the spirit of Freemasonry. Bro. Edward Cox thought an adjournment advisable, as if the question were decided in the present state of excitement, it might be damaging to the interests of the Institution. His own opposition to the proposed outlay was based on his idea that the amount to be paid was too large, but if at a future meeting the Craft were fully represented, and they decided to purchase the property at £6,500, he should bow to their decision, and never say anything more about it. An adjournment might be made till the Quarterly Court in April. The Chairman said Mr. Evill expected an answer this day. Bro. H. T. Thompson, not wishing to aggravate the warmth of feeling, desired to have the proceedings conducted legally. As Bro. Woodford had referred to a circular sent out by him (Bro. Thompson), he would merely explain that it was a lampoon, written under irritated feelings, but it was not circulated all through the Craft, but only among a few friends. He was sorry he had written it, and if he had thought over it once again he should not have done it. He did not think that if it was shown to people outside the immediate circle they would have recognised any of the persons to whom bynames had been applied. With respect to the interruption by Bro. Woodford, he certainly was interrupted, and Bro. Cox had to complain of the same thing when he was speaking. Bro. Clabon would like to throw oil on the troubled waters. He could not believe that any real Mason would go into the Chancery Division. Was it desirable to take these new premises? He thought it was. Let them throw aside legal cobwebs, and consider whether it was desirable to buy the property. He thought a fortnight would be well employed in considering this. The confirmation of the minutes of the Special Court of 3rd January was then adjourned for a fortnight. On the motion of Col. Burney, authority was given to the Trustees to consult counsel on the legal question. Forty-five candidates were declared to comprise the list for the April election, and thirteen vacancies were also declared for filling up. Bro. Louis Hirsch withdrew for the present his motion—"That a Committee be appointed to consider the manner in which the scrutiny of the votes shall be made, both for the election of candidates and for other purposes, and to report to the next General Court."

The following motion by Bro. W. H. B. Tomlinson, J.P., Past Prov. Grand Reg. W. Yorks.:—"That in pursuance of notice this Court accept the sum of One Thousand Guineas from the Province of West York for the purchase of a perpetual presentation of one girl to the School, to be called the 'Bentley Shaw Presentation,' the right of such presentation being vested in the Provincial Grand Master of West York for the time being, or other duly authorised person, in accordance with an agreement similar to those providing for presentations from West York to the Boys' School," was carried.

The motion by Bro. Edward Cox, Vice-Patron, Past Prov. G.W. Norths and Hunts, "That the question as to an increase to the salaries of the Head Governess, Assistant Governesses, &c., &c., be referred to a special Committee." And, in the event of the foregoing being carried, "That such Committee consist of nine members of the General Committee, to be nominated at this Quarterly Court," was declared to be out of order, as the General Committee had alone the power to fix the salaries of paid officers. This being the whole of the business, the proceedings were brought to a close with a vote of thanks to the chairman.

THE FIFTEEN SECTIONS

Will be worked as under:

By the members of the Hyde Park Lodge of Instruction, No. 1425, at the Salisbury Lodge of Instruction, No. 435, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-street, W., on Thursday, 29th inst. Bros. George Read P.M. 511 W.M., George Davis S.W. 167 S.W., G. Reynolds 1441 J.W. First Lecture—Bros. C. Powell, Foskett, Rogers, West, Coop, Maillard, Pocock. Second Lecture—Bros. Williams, George Davis, C. Webster, Reynolds, Dutton. Third Lecture—Bros. Festa, Burton, Side. Bros. Cull S.W. 1446 Preceptor, W. J. Collens I.G. 766 Hon. Sec.

Digitized by Google

CORRESPONDENCE.

—:o:—

DEVON EDUCATIONAL FUND.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—When a Brother in the position of "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON" takes upon himself to give information upon an important subject, through the medium of a recognised journal of our Order, that medium being the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE, and the subject upon which he writes a local Masonic Institution in his own Province, one at least expects facts, and that the writer be conversant with his subject.

Referring to the first letter of "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON," published in your journal of the 27th December last, I now re-produce his own words :—We have, on former occasions, contributed largely, and shall probably still continue to do so, to the great Institutions of London; but, finding that our children had to contest for the benefits of these Institutions with all the other Lodges in the kingdom, and that it took a great deal of money and a great deal of personal exertion to get children elected, we determined upon the adoption of a system of educating and sustaining our children at home."

In the most fraternal spirit, I ask "A P.M. AND P.P.J.G.W. OF DEVON" what construction is to be placed upon that sentence?

If it means anything, it means—Devon in the past has had so much expense and so much trouble to get her orphans elected into the great Charities in London, with results nil, that "we" (the Province) have "determined" upon a system of educating and "sustaining" the children at home. Or, in other words, leading those who know no better to believe that in the future the Province of Devon intended keeping her orphans at home. The writer hereby does a positive injury, by misleading those to whom we look for votes to aid the Province in the future elections of our children into the London Masonic Schools.

Before me, as I write, is the agenda paper calling the half yearly meeting of the "Committee of Petitions for Devon." This has just been issued, and summons the meeting for Tuesday next, the 20th inst. It is therein stated that part of the business of the Committee will be to select candidates from the Province for the great Masonic Schools in London respectively—a girl and boy—such candidates to receive the support of the Province.

Surely, my brother, this is not carrying out your expressed determination of "educating" and "sustaining" your children "at home."

Again, and for the information of "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON," do I refer to the bye-laws of the Devon Educational Fund, here quoted :—"I. This Fund is established for the purpose of raising means to be applied to educate, clothe, and advance in life the children of Freemasons of the Province of Devon."

Sustentation or "sustaining," as roundly and broadly stated in the first letter of "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON," in your issue of 27th December last—and stated without the slightest qualification—is no part of the object of the Educational Fund of Devon, and in that form has no existence.

The Bye-laws of the Devon Fund, which I will here quote, will again show this more clearly :—"VI. The General Committee be authorised in extreme cases to give additional assistance in or towards the maintenance of children, provided a majority of two-thirds of the members present at a meeting of such Committee specially convened for that purpose vote in favour of such application being granted."

Passing by the apparent want of good taste exhibited by "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON," in totally ignoring in his letter of 27th December last the aid received from the great Charities, as also the bumptious "we have on former occasions contributed largely to the great Charities in London;" and again, "Our children having had to contest with all other Lodges throughout the kingdom for the benefit of these Institutions," I ask my dear brother to tell me who he supposes the children of Devon should "contest" with, if not with the children brought forward by each Province and every Lodge throughout England, who have, like Devon, by their subscriptions and donations to these great Charities, earned the right of sharing the benefits of the great London Masonic Charities.

Heartily, earnestly, and hopefully, I am with the Devon Educational Fund as the means of giving timely relief to those children who cannot be selected by the Committee of Petitions of the Province for the great Charities, and who would be left out in the cold, helpless and in want, if it were not for this local Institution. Proud am I of the part I took, with others, in its creation. This Fund will prosper, and, with judicious management, has a great future before it, and most cheerfully do I subscribe to all and each of the colourless platitudes expressed by "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON," and all the good likely to be accomplished, which have again and again been reiterated, years ago, by other of our Provinces, with whom local Masonic Educational Funds are now time-honoured and flourishing Institutions.

My worthy brother, in his letter of the 10th inst., has amended himself wondrously; all therein is quite safe and thoroughly orthodox, the element of rash assertions is absent, "we" is not so pronounced; altogether this adds truth and grace to his style, he evidently has looked up authorities, has taken a peep at bye-laws since giving birth to the crude bantling of 27th ult., and I now feel sure he is much better up in his subject than a week or two since.

Hoping yet to get the steam up in conjunction with "A P.M. AND P.P.G.J.W. OF DEVON" for the progress and prosperity of the Devon Educational Fund, and reciprocating the good wish of my brother for the year we are in, with the calmest possible spirit, I beg, Dear Sir, to subscribe myself,

Yours fraternally,

AU FAIT.

INSTALLATION MEETINGS, &c.

—:o:—

ST. JAMES'S UNION LODGE No. 180.

THE installation meeting was held on Tuesday, 13th January, at Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street. Bros. E. Farwig W.M., W. Stollard S.W., C. J. Wade J.W., Pillin P.M. Treasurer, W. C. Parsons P.M. Sec., G. B. Fletcher S.D., W. H. Baker I.G., Hart W.S., Bishop A.W.S., P.M.'s A. Stonor, Cameron, L. Herf, A. L. Annett, and a numerous assemblage of brethren and visitors. The Lodge was opened, and the minutes were confirmed. Bro. Boemper was raised to the third degree, and Bro. Denne was passed by the W.M. A Board of Installed Masters was opened, and Bro. W. H. Stollard S.W. and W.M. elect was presented to the Lodge and duly installed into the chair by the retiring W.M., whose working was perfect; in fact, might be equalled, but not excelled. There were thirteen W.M.'s and P.M.'s present. On the re-admission of the brethren, the Worshipful Master invested and appointed his Officers :—Bros. Farwig I.P.M., Wade S.W., G. Fletcher J.W., Pillin P.M. Treasurer, W. C. Parsons P.M. Secretary, Wood S.D., Baker J.D., Bishop I.G., Cameron P.M. D.C., L. Herf P.M. W.S., Maxted A.W.S., Chester A.D.C., Gilbert P.M. Tyler. The report of the Audit Committee was read; there was a good balance in the hands of the Treasurer. The Benevolent Fund showed a balance of £153 11s 3d. The report was unanimously adopted. The W.M. announced his intention to act as Steward at the next Festival for the Girls' School; he is also a Steward for the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution; Bro. Pillan P.M. and Treasurer consented to act as Steward for the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys. £10 10s was voted to the W.M. for his list, and £10 10s to Bro. Pillin. The W.M. took the opportunity of thanking the brethren for placing him in the chair. The resignation of two brethren was accepted, with regret. Hearty good wishes were given by the Visitors and brethren, and the Lodge closed. An adjournment to the Crown Room, where a sumptuous banquet was provided by Bro. A. Best, and superintended by Bro. E. Dawkins. The W.M. provided some excellent menus, with his monogram. The snuff-box, the gift of the widow of the late Bro. Francatelli, bearing an appropriate inscription, was handed round, and much admired. Grace having been said, the W.M. proposed the toast of the Queen and the Craft. The National Anthem was sung by Bro. Burden. The toast of H.R.H. the M.W. Grand Master was enthusiastically drank, and Bro. Pillin sang "God bless the Prince of Wales." Bro. E. Farwig I.P.M. then rose; he that evening occupied a new position—that of I.P.M., and in that capacity had pleasure in proposing the toast of the W.M., whom he had installed into the chair. If the Worshipful Master had the co-operation of the Officers of the Lodge, he would be able to carry out the duties required of him. Bro. Russell sang, "Stay, my darling, stay." The W.M., in reply, said it was with feelings of pride and pleasure he returned thanks for the toast. It was seven years since he was initiated, by the late Bro. G. Bubb, whose memory they all revered. The I.P.M. who had installed him that day was one whose qualities he would strive to emulate; it would be a proud pleasure to follow in such footsteps. He hoped, during his year of office, to be able to act in every way so as to give the Lodge satisfaction. The W.M. then proposed the health of the Installing Master. He had performed that duty in every way to their satisfaction, and all appreciated him. He had another pleasing duty, and that was to place on his breast a jewel; may he live long to wear it. While Bro. Farwig remains with us the brethren will have the assistance of one ever ready to further their interests. Bro. Burden again delighted the brethren with a song. Bro. Farwig I.P.M. felt pleased and proud to hear words like those uttered by the W.M.; the kind respect and the good feeling now exhibited to him he hoped would exist until time with him shall be no more. He hoped to be associated with their Lodge for many years. The W.M., in proposing the toast of the Visitors, said he was proud to see them. They had twenty visiting brethren on this occasion, generally they had more, but if they lacked quantity they had quality. He would call on Bros. Burden No. 11, Parkinson No. 22, G. H. Goodey No. 34, and H. M. Levy P.M. 188, to respond to the toast. Bro. Pillin P.M. then sang the "Welcome Guest." Bros. Burden, Parkinson, G. H. Goodey, and H. Levy replied; all paid compliments to the Installing Master, and for the hospitality shown by the W.M. The Worshipful Master then proposed the toast of the P.M.'s; in them he placed every reliance; if he required assistance he was sure they would give it him; their knowledge of Freemasonry was so perfect that he could not err under their guidance. Bro. J. Innes then sang "The Skipper and his Boy." Bro. Cameron P.M. said he was initiated in the St. James's Union Lodge, twenty years ago; they had seen many changes, but the P.M.'s were always ready to render service. In the name of the P.M.'s he wished the members health and prosperity. The Worshipful Master then proposed the toast of the Officers; he might congratulate the Lodge on having such a competent staff. The Treasurer is one in whom they can place every confidence, their Secretary is second to none; he would ask the brethren to give the toast the reception it merited. Bro. Pillin said he followed in the footsteps of a very worthy and respected Mason, the late Bro. G. Bubb; all his energies were at their command; on the accounts being presented to them, they would see that the balance was on the right side. Bro. Parsons said he was appointed Secretary after the retirement of Bro. Stacey; he had been reappointed, and would always endeavour to carry out what was required of him. The S.W. and J.W. followed; they thanked the W.M. for his kind remarks; they would always be ready to do their duty. The Tyler's toast was then given, and thus a most agreeable evening was passed. Bro. L. Herf P.M. and D.C. did all in his power to promote the comfort of the members and visitors. Among the latter were Bros. G. Gregory W.M. 1538, S. Brooks J.W. 1608, W. R. Lister S.W. 145, H. C. Joppes 749 G. H. Goodey J.W. 34

Digitized by Google

Daisey P.M. 141, Finch P.M. 173, T. Whaly 55, Hardley 1608, Burden 11, J. Innes 795, Cantle W.M. 1257, Dr. Forsyth 140, Parkinson 22, Jefferys, Innes 1263, H. M. Levy P.M. 188, &c.

CHARITY LODGE, No. 223.

THE regular meeting of this Lodge was held on the 8th inst., at the Masonic Rooms, 193 Union-street, Plymouth, when, the usual business having been transacted, the brethren adjourned to Bro. Charles Walters', Farley Hotel, where the annual banquet was held, to celebrate the Festival of St. John the Evangelist. The W. Master Bro. Richard Blight presided, and he was supported by Bros. J. Lavers S.W., J. Moysey J.W., J. Cordish P.M. Treasurer, H. S. Hill I.P.M., W. Browning P.M. P.P.G.S.W. Secretary, J. M. Hifley P.M. P.P.G.A.D.C., J. P. Phillips P.M. P.P.G.D.C., J. B. Witheridge P.M. P.P.G.P., John Treeby P.M., J. T. Smith P.M., S. R. Anniss P.M., A. Wolf P.M. P.P.G.P., J. Delve S.D., J. Leno J.D., J. Goodyear I.G., J. Martin Rowe, all of 223. Amongst the Visitors were—W. Bros. J. E. Curteis P.M. 186 P.P.G.S.W., I. Latimer P.M. 189 P.P.G.J.W., Samuel Jew P.M. 105 P.P.G.T., J. B. Gover P.M. 70 P.P.G.A.D.C., H. Welch P.M. and W.M. 202 P.P.G.P., John James P.M. 105, C. Cooper P.M. 105, H. W. Thomas P.M. 70, J. Trethewy P.M., R. Marshall P.M. 202, G. Darke I.P.M., J. W. Collins P.M. 1136, Thomas Gibbons W.M. 954, C. R. Bardin S.S. 189, M. Zefertt, P. Hamley, J. Bartlett P.M. 156. About 65 were present. Bro. Isaac Latimer proposed "The health of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales Most Worshipful Grand Master." He (Bro. Latimer) was reminded that he had been appointed Junior Warden of the Province in the same year that the Prince of Wales opened the Guildhall in Plymouth, and he had also had the pleasure of seeing him installed in London. All knew how popular the Prince of Wales had made himself to all classes, and how much during his reign Freemasonry had flourished, and that, notwithstanding the depression of trade, over £44,000 had been sent to the great Charities in London during the past year. Bro. Curteis proposed the Grand Officers, speaking highly of their well-known abilities. W. Bro. John Treeby, in proposing the health of the Prov. G. Master Lord Ebrington, stated his lordship's father was initiated in the Charity Lodge in 1845, and presided as Master of the Lodge in 1849. All who had the pleasure of witnessing the consecration which took place a day or two since were convinced that his lordship's reign would be a happy one. The W. Master's health, proposed in glowing terms by Bro. H. S. Hill, was responded to by Bro. Blight. He advocated the cause of the various Charities, saying it would be his desire that Charity Lodge should always do in the future as it had in the past, and be known for practising as well as by the name of their time-honoured Lodge. During the evening a very massive and handsome Past Master's jewel was presented to the retiring Master, engraved as follows:—"Presented to W. Bro. H. S. Hill I.P.M. by the members of Lodge Charity, No. 223, as a token of their fraternal esteem. 8th January 1880." Bro. Hill returned thanks in suitable language. The important question of the year had been whether the Lodge should join the Brunswick Lodge, but they had decided—and he thought wisely—that they would not be a peripatetic Lodge, but would prefer to remain in Plymouth. He had travelled about a thousand miles during the past year to attend his Lodge, and had been amply rewarded. Other toasts followed, and a very happy and instructive evening was spent. Bro. and Mrs. Walters were especially thanked for their admirable catering.

YORK LODGE, No. 236.

THE brethren of this Lodge celebrated the Festival of St. John the Evangelist by dining together at the Masonic Hall, York, on Wednesday evening, 7th instant. The W.M. Bro. W. H. Gainforth presided, and was supported by Bros. J. P. Bell P.G.D. Eng. Dep. Prov. Grand Master, A. Buckle I.P.M. 236, J. Hanly I.P.M. 295 I.C., T. J. Wilkinson I.P.M. 1416, T. B. Whytehead P.M. P.P.G.D.C., J. Todd P.M. P.P.G.R., M. Rooke S.W., J. S. Rymer J.W., G. Kirby Sec., and about twenty other officers and brethren. An excellent dinner was served up by Bro. J. Toes, to which ample justice was done. In replying to the toast of the Grand Lodge of England, the D.P.G.M. took a retrospect of Masonry as it existed in York a century ago, when three Lodges were in existence, the Apollo, the Grand Lodge of All England, and the Union Lodge (now the York Lodge), and related many interesting particulars respecting their working. He then touched upon the motion of Bro. Stevens in Grand Lodge, and expressed an opinion that it was calculated to do good, and that a revision of the ritual in many quarters was desirable. In replying to the toast of the Prov. Grand Lodge of North and East Yorkshire, Dr. Bell spoke of the progress of Masonry in the district, and hoped that he should meet many of the brethren at Middlesbro' on the 21st instant, when the Ferrum Lodge, No. 1848, would be consecrated. Bro. J. Hanly (4th Dragoon Guards) responded in a neat speech to the Army and Navy, alluding to the hospitality which he had experienced from the Masons of York. "The Masonic Charities" were proposed by the Treasurer, Bro. J. Todd P.M., who alluded to the coming Benevolent Festival, when the Earl of Zetland would preside, and expressed a hope that the Province would be well represented. Bro. T. B. Whytehead proposed the Visitors, and spoke of the hospitality of the Lodges in York a century ago, as proved by the number of visitors recorded in their minute books. He also said that he was thoroughly with Bro. Stevens in wishing to see a suppression of certain foolish excrescences which had grown upon the orthodox ritual in certain Lodges, and he thought Bro. Stevens had adopted the most straightforward and commonsense plan of going to the fountain head in the first instance, and claiming the aid of the Grand Lodge in the matter. The toast list was soon afterwards concluded, when the brethren were regaled with songs, &c., by Bros. G. Kirby, J. Todd, T. G. Hodgson, and others. During the progress of the banquet, the silver loving cup of the Lodge was handed round, and prosperity to the York Lodge 236 was drunk by the assembled brethren.

BEDFORD LODGE, No. 282.

THE Festival of St. John was celebrated by the brethren of this Lodge, at Tavistock, on Wednesday, 7th inst., when there was a numerous attendance. Bro. W. R. Northway jun., the W.M. elect, was duly installed by the W.M. Bro. T. L. Knight, assisted by P.M. Bro. Chapman. The W.M. invested his Officers for the ensuing year as follows:—T. L. Knight I.P.M., H. Down S.W., P. K. Harrison J.W., J. J. Daw Treasurer, W. L. Sampson Secretary, N. Bray S.D., R. B. Woolcock J.D., Isaac Roskilly D.C., John Bowhay Organist, — Uren I.G., Barrett S.S., H. Strike J.S., E. Hendy Tyler. After the ceremony the brethren adjourned to the Bedford Hotel, were they partook of the customary banquet.

TRUE AND FAITHFUL LODGE, No. 318.

THE brethren of this Lodge, met at the Masonic Rooms, Helston, on Wednesday, 7th inst., at two o'clock, for the purpose of installing their W.M. elect, Bro. Walter Wearne. There was a candidate for initition who, on being accepted by ballot, was duly admitted into the mysteries and privileges of ancient Freemasonry, W. Bro. R. Sedgman James W.M. in the chair. After which the installation of Bro. Wearne was ably and impressively preformed by the retiring W.M. in the presence of the following board of Installed Masters, viz.:—W. Bros. T. Davey P.M. 318, J. Q. James P.M. 318 P.P.G.S., Thomas Taylor P.M. 318 P.P.S.G.D., H. Trembath P.M. 318 P.G.S., A. J. Grant P.M. 318 P.P.G.P., J. Jeffery jun. P.M. 318 P.A.G.P., and J. Wallace W.M. 75. The newly installed W.M. invested the following Officers for the ensuing year:—W. Bro. R. Sedgman James I.P.M., Bro. Josiah Rowe S.W., J. M. Pascoe J.W., W. Bro. Thomas Taylor P.P.S.G.D. Chaplain, W. Bro. T. N. Curry P.P.S.G.D. Treasurer, W Bro. J. Q. James P.P.G.S. Secretary, J. H. Philp S.D., W. Ellis J.D., J. Willey Organist, W. E. Lukies I.G., Bros. W. Hudson, W. H. Eddy, R. Dunstan, and J. H. Willey Stewards, J. M. Richards D.C., J. D. Richards A.D.C., Richard James, Tyler, W. Bro. H. Trembath P.G.S. was elected Steward of the Cornwall Masonic Benevolent and Annuity Fund. The brethren afterwards adjourned to the Globe Hotel, were a banquet was served by Bro. John Ellis in his well-known style. The usual loyal and Masonic toasts were heartily drank, and a most enjoyable evening spent. The visiting brethren who joined in the banquet, were W. Bro. J. Wallace W.M. 75, W. Bro. W. H. Kinsman P.M. 121, Bro. Rogers S.W. 75, James Lovell jun. J.W. 121, Bro. Trebilcock, formerly a member of "True and Faithful," Bro. Edwards 1006, and Bro. J. Pascoe, of Lodge "Unity and Concord," Maryport, Queensland. Bro. Lovell and others enhanced the enjoyment of the evening with songs, &c. The lodge is prosperous and healthy in its tone.

CORNUBIAN LODGE, No. 450, HAYLE.

THE members celebrated St. John's Day on the 30th ultimo. For the first time in the history of this Lodge a Wesleyan minister was installed W.M. The Rev. George Kennedy, who has filled the office of J.W. during the past year, was the brother in question. The ceremony was very impressively performed by W. Bro. Gilbert B. Pearce P.M. in the presence of the following Worshipful Board of Installed Masters:—Bros. John Poole, John Rosewarne P.P.G.S., C. Ellis P.P.G.S.D., John P. Smith P.P.G.S.D., Dr. Mudge P.P.G.J.W., John Coombe P.P.G.S.D., G. H. Eustice P.P.G.S.B., Frank Harvey P.P.G.S. of Works, F. H. Pool P.P.G.S.B., J. G. Osborn, W. Hathnance, W. Husband, James Pool, George Stevens, H. J. Warren, G. Pearce, H. Trevithick, members of Cornubian Lodge; and J. Hocking 580, W. H. Kinsman 121, and H. S. Hill 223. The W.M. invested his Officers as follows:—Bros. W. H. Trevithick I.P.M., Bigglestone Spray S.W., Thos. Mills J.W., G. B. Pearce P.M. Chaplain, Frank Harvey P.M. Treasurer, J. P. Smith P.M. Secretary, W. J. Jordan D.C., Frank Vivian S.D., Capt. J. Woolcock J.D., Richard Hawkins I.G., J. Rogers Organist, J. Bazeley and R. Hoskin Stewards, and J. N. Bray Tyler. Wor. Bro. Coombe P.M. was re-elected Steward of Charities, the W.M. remarking that Bro. Coombe was never happier than when he was securing comforts to others. The statement of accounts presented showed that the receipts for the year were £150, and there was a balance in hand £17, after £20 had been paid on the new Lodge account, on which £135 still remains to be paid. The brethren subsequently celebrated the Festival of St. John at a sumptuous banquet, served by Miss Oliver, White Hart Hotel, Worshipful Bro. the Rev. George Kennedy the newly-installed W.M. presiding. When dessert had been laid, the W.M., in felicitous terms, gave the Loyal toasts, speaking of the Grand Master, H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, as a whole-hearted Englishman, and an honoured Mason, and one to whom all looked up with loyal and respectful confidence. The health of the Pro G.M. the Earl of Carnarvon, was drunk at the bidding of Wor. Bro. Husband. Wor. Bro. Harvey proposed the Prov. G.M. of Cornwall, and had the whole company heartily with him in describing the Earl of Mount Edgcumbe as a model Provincial Grand Master, governing the Provincial Grand Lodge with consummate tact, firmness and courtesy. Wor. Bro. Rosewarne gave the Deputy Prov. G.M. Col. Peard, and Wor. Bro. Huthnance the Prov. G.L. of Cornwall. To the latter toast Wor. Bro. John Hocking jun. P.P.G.J.W. responded, feeling sure that the working of their Prov. Grand Lodge was equal to that of any Province. This was due to the zeal and energy of the Prov. G.M., who had most wisely encouraged Lodges to provide halls of their own. The Prov. Grand Lodge was never numerically stronger, and its Charities never more liberally supported. Next came the toast of the evening, the W.M. of Cornubian, No. 450, and it was received most enthusiastically. It was heartily submitted by Wor. Bro. Pool, the senior P.M., who was pleased to say without hesitation that during his membership of thirty years no one had filled the Master's chair in a manner more worthy of esteem, respect, and confidence than its present occupant.

Digitized by Google

Wor. Bro. the Rev. G. Kennedy rising said: I am pretty well accustomed to public speaking, as you know, and contrive, as a rule, to be at home when on my legs. But for once I feel that your excess of courtesy and kindness has almost taken from me the power of adequately addressing you. My position to-day is somewhat singular. I am, I believe, the first minister of our religious body who has occupied a Masonic chair in the British dominions. I need make no apology to the Church with which I am associated, nor to society at large for occupying this position. I regard myself as being a kind of pioneer, and feel assured that when Masonry is better understood, the unnatural and untrue distinction which at present exists in some men's minds between it and religion will be swept away as something out of place and decidedly in the road of human progress. It would be mere affectation to say I am not proud of the position. To be Master of a Masonic Lodge is an honour which any true-hearted man may covet. But to be Master of such a Lodge as the Cornubian, one of the foremost in the West of England, is a distinction which falls to the lot of only a favoured few. Rest assured that I am not insensible of the honour which you have this day done me. I am no candidate for fancy degrees in Masonry, and am inclined to regard them as to some extent rather violating the spirit of genuine brotherhood and equality; but should it ever be my fortune to possess the adornments of even the highest grades in our Order, I will never esteem them so highly as I do the Master's symbol which you have hung around my neck. I take the chair of this Lodge under several very favourable circumstances. I cannot forget, dear brethren, the spontaneity of your action in electing me. I came among you a total stranger as it were, but yesterday, and you have accorded to me the highest honour it is in your power to give. I could not, of course, in honour, promote my own election, and you did not expect me to stoop to unworthy cringing or canvassing to secure the Master's Office; the brethren will bear me witness that neither by word or hint have I paved the way to my own exaltation. Another very happy circumstance is the unanimity of the vote which has placed me at your head. Unfortunately, sometimes there is a divided vote, which I have known to rend a Lodge in twain, and leave behind it legacies of heart-burning and jealousy, which made harmony impracticable for years. I hold my place to-day without one adverse vote, a circumstance in which I heartily rejoice. I am happy also in the recollection of your financial condition. You are more than solvent, having not only paid all current expenses for the year, but reduced the outstanding debt upon our premises. To keep our finances in a healthy condition; to secure a continuance of perfect harmony in the Lodge; to maintain its honour unsullied and its usefulness undiminished, will be the object of my constant care, during the year of my incumbency. I cannot forget that as Masons we are associated with an institution possessing and exhibiting singular vitality. It reaches, we know, far back into the hoary past; and is venerable with age and antiquity. It comes to us, not with the flush of untried novelty, but with the adjuncts of history, experience, strength, and fruitfulness. Many institutions which sprang up side by side with Masonry have been weighed in the balance of human want, and, being found wanting, have been swept aside in the progress of ages. They were not bound up, in any vital sense, with the life and interests of humanity. But Freemasonry, with its eye undimmed, and its natural strength unabated, shows no sign of failing energy. On the contrary, it bids fair to live as long in the future as it has done in the past; an evidence of the soundness of its constitution. It may not be generally known that some twelve hundred Lodges have been chartered and consecrated within the past two and forty years. Now, I cannot but ask myself, to what is this vitality and progress owing? Certainly it is not to any ostentatious parade on our part. We do not boast, although we might, that our Order has numbered kings and princes by the hundred, and dukes and nobles by the thousand. We are not for ever publishing the fact that, from the middle and upper classes, we attract officers by tens of thousands, and we number faithful brethren all over the world by millions. We do not engage in the work of proselytising. Freemasonry has no missionaries, no propaganda; it wins men to it by its own inherent beauty and goodness—a fact which stimulates every Freemason to a life which shall illustrate and adorn his principles; and covers every unworthy member of our Craft with shame. It is only too true that for centuries many have joined the Order to satisfy what, I fear, was little better than an unworthy and prurient curiosity, and having done so, cease to be numbered with us. Nor can we forget that numbers of men bring a reproach upon us, by making Masonry synonomous with idleness, intemperance, and excess. Still Masonry survives and flourishes. Time, which annihilates so many things, spares it. While other institutions labour to be heard for their much speaking, and make music like that of the cuckoo, always repeating its own name, Masonry, like the lark behind a cloud, is content to sing unseen, so long as its voice gives greeting at the gate of heaven and falls with a gentle influence upon lonely hearts below. Brethren, Masonry owes its place and power to the principles upon which it rests. It has for its centre faith, truth, and honour; it has for its circumference virtue, purity, and charity. More particularly, it owes its position and influence to the true view which it cherishes of our human aspirations. It is in strict harmony with the perrenial instincts of the human heart. Look where we will, humanity shows us one thing springing like hope within it eternally, the consciousness of, and the desire for, immortality. That there is for man another life when his present existence has run its course, Masonry proclaims with no uncertain voice. I regard this primary element in our organisation, this tenacious hold on immortality, as one of its highest and most helpful functions. Take away the conviction of an after-state, and you reduce man to the level of a soulless animal. Strike out of the common heart this conception, and you destroy all intelligent and operative distinction between vice and virtue! Practically, you abolish the very spring and reason of moral rectitude in man. Freemasonry is a power just in proportion as it tells us that while we seem to stumble over other men's graves until at last we stumble into our own, above the emblems of mortality there is an immortal mansion, to which the pure in heart will at last ascend, and in which the just will find their reward. I trust the day will never come when, as Masons, we shall be ashamed of our loyalty to this great vital instinct of the human heart. Freemasonry is powerful also, because it gives a true answer to the deepest of all human needs. Looking at society, both in its natural and artificial aspects, we discover one great need, that is God. Every kind of existence has something which is essential to it. Find out that which conduces to its welfare, and you discover what belongs to it. Ascertain what destroys or injures it, and you may conclude that, whatever that may be, it does not belong to it. Now, brethren, if I look at society as a political economist, merely seeking to promote the greatest good of the greatest number; or, if I regard it merely as an artist, having respect to its symmetry and stability, I see no hope for humanity either actual or possible apart from God. You can throw no band around men strong enough to knit them together, save that which unites them to God. Herein Masonry is again strong. It tells us that men are not poor voyagers over the sea of life with no hand at the helm of affairs, and no haven for which to steer. It gives the assurance that our prayers are not idle wails flung to the winds of heaven, but cries which evoke from the heart of the Infinite a quick and sure response. And in these days when the battle is set in array between faith and no faith; when, after ages of fencing, we have to face the naked issue—is there a God or is there not? shall we pray or shall we forbear?—this institution stands out in direct conflict with Atheism. When men missed those signs by which, from the beginning, the Great Architect of the Universe has announced his existence, and obliterate his handwriting upon the inner walls of our universal consciousness, Masonry takes its stand upon the dread brink of a universe denuded of God, and warns us back. Masonry does all its work beneath the sacred symbol, and its light would be quenched and the glory gone from its scutcheon did our Lodges cease to be to us from that hallowed association, Holy ground. Further, Masonry retains its place and power because it owns the only true and rational conception of human life. It recognizes the level of equality which runs through life; the level from which we all alike start. Below that level men may sink, and above it they may rise into rank and eminence. But, in essentials, Masonry contends for manhood, free and equal beneath the canopy of Heaven. It teaches us to see in every man a copy of ourselves, and we see in the race one's-self only multiplied by millions. The man, no matter in what land he first drew breath, or however mean his garb, who advances to a Mason the claim of a common nature is assured beforehand of a prompt and brotherly respect. In looking at it, Masonry takes into account the accidents and inequalities of life. We find human beings trampled down by many waysides, and stricken down upon many battle-fields with their lives overshadowed with sorrow and overburdened with misfortune. For these, our Order has a voice that cheers and a hand that helps, as witness our magnificent Schools for the orphan, standing side by side with charitable institutions for the aged, the widowed, and the poor. In addition to this, Masonry contemplates a coming unity when as Burns, himself a Mason, says,—

Man to man the world around,
Shall brothers be, and a' that.

As faithful Craftsmen we play our part in bringing about this welcome consummation, but how? Not by framing a world-wide political programme, or hurling Governments from power, nor by formulating a world-wide religious system. In order to blend the race into oneness, Masonry confronts the world with this for its motto everywhere, the common Fatherhood of God above, and the common Brotherhood of Man below. It is because our Order cherishes these views of life that the world pays it reverence and concedes to it its place and power. There are two standing popular objections to Freemasonry. From time immemorial it has been objected to on the score of mystery, and of its symbolism. Upon these grounds, and specially the first, superstition has decried our mystic art, and ecclesiastical stupidity has risen in wrath to launch its thunders against us; while the popular mind has judged us with suspicion and disfavour. Now, we frankly admit that our institution has its mysteries, what then? Is Masonry alone in this respect? Can we go anywhere without verging upon the region of mystery? Is not our life hemmed in with it on every side? Nature has her mysteries, only told to those in harmony with herself. Knowledge has its mysteries, only yielded up to patient study. Science has its mysteries, jealously guarded from any but the most reverent inquirer. Why should not Freemasonry also have its mysteries, kept under wise guardianship from idle and prying eyes? We keep our mysteries under seal only from him who exhibits neither the will nor the worthiness to know them. We use them to inspire that teachability and respect for those who are wiser than ourselves, which it is the purpose of all genuine education to impart. Again, Masonry in its symbolism is equally far from being singular. The language of signs enters very freely into human life. Royalty has its symbolism, with which to impress the common mind. Law has its pageantry, and chivalry its endless devices. Scholarship proclaims itself in hood and degree, and religion itself clings fondly to its symbols. Every corporation has its seal; every city its coat of arms; and every branch of industry its distinctive badge. Nay, the universe itself shows us but glorious symbols of Him who piled it in beauty, strength, and wisdom. Our imputed love of what is fantastic and showy in attire is but an illustration to the public eye of what we may not communicate to the uninitiated public ear. In conclusion, brethren, I cherish an ambition, a conviction, and a purpose. My ambition is to make the year before us at least equal to all that have preceded it, for efficient, harmonious, and fruitful Masonic work. My conviction is, that should divisions arise among us, the same votes which placed me in the chair will sustain me in it, provided that my ruling is for the wisest ends, and in accord with our Constitutions. My purpose is, if possible, so to bear myself as your Master, at all times and in all things, that I shall when my term of office expires, lay down the symbol of my authority untarnished by one unwise word, or one unworthy act of mine. When the W.M. had resumed his seat, the applause was loud and long continued.

Digitized by Google

W. Bro. Mudge, in very hearty fashion, proposed "The Visitors," and W. Bros. J. Hocking jun., W. H. Kinsman I.P.M. 121, Penzance; H. S. Hill I.P.M. 223, and J. Lovell jun. Prov. G.O. responded, "The I.P.M." was rapturously applauded, and W. Bro. Trevithick warmly recognised valued assistance received from the Past Masters. "The I.M.," was also given with well-deserved eulogy on the manner in which W. Bro. Gilbert Pearce performed the installation ceremony. Other toasts followed, and the W.M. made a graceful reference to the special brotherly courtesy he had received from the S.W., Bro. Bigglestone Spray, who had been content to stand aside that Bro. Kennedy might be exalted to the Mastership. A very pleasant evening was spent, Bro. Lovell contributing most efficiently to the harmony.

BRECKNOCK LODGE, No. 651.

ON Friday, the 9th January, the installation meeting of this Lodge was held at the Masonic Rooms, Castle Hotel, Brecon. Bro. Marmaduke Tennant, the Deputy Provincial Grand Master, performed the installation ceremony, in his customary impressive style. The following are the W.M. and Officers for the present year:—Bros. Frank Grundy W.M., J. A. Whittle S.W., W. Webb J.W., W. Howell Chaplain, T. H. Price Treasurer, H. O. A. Maybery Sec. and Almoner, E. H. Teale Asst. Sec., John Morgan S.D., Rhys Davies J.D., T. L. Lewis Organist, T. C. Bargrave Watkins I.G., Adam Orlopp and E. T. Edwards Stewards. After the Lodge had been closed, the brethren sat down to a banquet, and an enjoyable evening was spent.

SHIRLEY LODGE, No. 1112.

THE ceremony of installing Bro. John Parkinson, the Senior Warden of the Shirley Lodge for the past, as its Worshipful Master for the current year, took place at the Shirley Masonic Hall on Monday, 5th instant, in the presence of a numerous attendance of the brethren, the Deputy Grand Master of the Province, Bro. W. Hickman, officiating in his customary able manner. At the conclusion the Deputy Grand Master, on behalf of the Lodge, presented the retiring W.M., Bro. F. H. McCalmont Past Prov. Grand Reg. of Oxon, with a gold Past Master's jewel, in recognition of the zeal and ability with which he had conducted the affairs of the Lodge during the year—a compliment which Bro. McCalmont feelingly acknowledged. The W.M. then proceeded to invest his Officers for the year as follows:—Bros. C. Crew S.W. and Treasurer (re-elected), Capt. Brookes J.W., J. T. Fletcher Secretary, Mayoss S.D., J. D. Sharp J.D., Rolfe Organist, Mortimer I.G., Walker P.M. D.C., Vere Tyler. Thanks were tendered to the retiring Master for his services during the year, and to the Deputy Prov. Grand Master for his efficient rendering of the installation ceremony: and the Lodge separated, after a series of propositions which gave excellent promise of the year proving a successful one.

FINSBURY PARK LODGE, No. 1288.

THE annual installation meeting was held at the Cock Tavern, Highbury, on the first of the new year. Lodge opened at 4·30 with the following Officers:—Bros. J. W. Simmonds W.M., T. Rothschild W.M. elect, and a goodly attendance of members. Visitors—W. S. Hunter P.M. 1677, A. Thomas P.M. 1446, G. Blackmore 65, L. Solomons 1732, H. Parsons 175, S. Rushton 1677, H. Hollis 167, R. T. Cummings 1677, W. J. Upton 1677, A. Kent 1425, J. R. Stacey P.M. 180 and 1141, B. Jackson 1677, W. B. Tuck 1366, T. Silvester 193, J. H. Southwood P.M. 1260, W. F. Green 861, G. S. Elliott P.M. 1623, T. Butt 907, James Bellamy 1625, T. Walton P.M. 157, C. Hutchison 1695. After ordinary Lodge business, the installation ceremony was proceeded with, in a most impressive and able manner by Bro. Stacey P.M., who, notwithstanding the inconvenience of a small Lodge room, absolutely rivetted the attention of the brethren, who evidently appreciated in a high degree the ceremony. After the installation, the Officers were invested as follows:—Bros. Lord S.W., Piggott J.W., Price P.M. Treasurer, Goode P.M. Secretary, Hill S.D., Rest J.D., Wood I.G., Davis P.M. D.C., Meckham W.S., Upward Organist, Very Tyler. During the evening the Royal Warrant was read, giving permission for wearing Masonic clothing at the United Ball, which has already been referred to by us, but which we may again state will be held on Wednesday, 4th February. Lodge was then closed. An enticing banquet followed; a capital menu was supplied, and a good room was provided, with adequate attendance; in fact, everything tending to tempt the weakest stomach, or gratify the most vigorous operator with the knife and fork. Wine of exquisite vintage flowed freely, and if any brother went away dissatisfied it could not be the fault of those who had to minister to the wants of the guests. The speeches and responses from the W.M., the Past Masters, Officers, and Visitors were most gratifying. The music, songs, &c., were excellent, and devoid of offence to the most fastidious, indicating careful selection on the part of those who contributed to the evening's enjoyment.

ALBERT EDWARD LODGE, No. 1780.

THE first regular Lodge meeting held in the Southampton New Masonic Hall took place on Tuesday, 6th inst., in connection with the installation of the W.M. of this Lodge. Advantage was taken of the occasion to mark the labours of the Dep. Prov. Grand Master of the Province, in promoting the establishment of the Lodge and presiding over it for its first year, by a portrait in oil, which has been hung on the walls of the Lodge, and forms a most suitable addition to a number of other portraits similar in form and style, some of which have now become Masonically historical. The first to be mentioned in point of age is a portrait of Lord Montagu, the W.M. of the Lodge of Concord, which became defunct about half a century since, but whose name is locally perpetuated by the Chapter of Concord, a comparatively modern offshoot from the Royal Gloucester Chapter. Some other prominent portraits are those of three Provincial Grand Masters of Hampshire—that of Sir William de Crespigny P.G.M. 1819, Mr. Penlenze, a member for the borough of Southampton, P.G.M. 1832, and Admiral Sir Lucius Curtis D.P.G.M. 1832, P.G.M. 1840, whom many living Masons well remember. Hung opposite to these three last-named portraits, which are on the east wall, and therefore behind and on each side the Master's chair, are portraits, also in oil, of the late Bro. C. F. Deacon D.P.G.M. 1843, and J. R. Stebbing D.P.G.M. 1859. These being hung on each side the S.W.'s chair needed only, to complete the set, the portrait unveiled on Tuesday, and hung immediately over the chair. It is an excellent likeness of the Dep. Prov. Grand Master, Bro. Hickman, three-quarter length, wearing the collar of a Past Grand Officer of England, with the jewel of Dep. Prov. Grand Master pendant—his Dep. Prov. Grand Master's apron and badge, and other Masonic clothing, appropriately making it a companion to the other oil portraits in the hall. To make the presentation on Tuesday, the Grand Master of the Province, Bro. W. W. B. Beach, M.P., courteously attended at Southampton. The Lodge having been duly opened, and five candidates initiated by the Deputy Provincial Grand Master, as retiring Master of the Lodge, Bro. Beach, in the name of the Lodge, presented the portrait to Bro. Hickman, in a speech most appropriate to the occasion, full of fraternal spirit and of marked regard for the presentee, to whose Masonic career and industry Bro. Beach bore kindly testimony, the portrait at the close of his address being unveiled amidst the general and hearty plaudits of a very full Lodge, embracing nearly 20 Past Masters in the Craft, many of them wearing Provincial Grand Lodge clothing. Bro. Hickman, in reply, expressed his inability sufficiently to express his thanks to the brethren for this mark of their approval and regard, passed on to bear high testimony to the fraternal feeling which had marked the conduct and administration of the Lodge since its establishment, and concluded by expressing his personal thanks to Bro. Biddlecombe, the artist, for his admirable and satisfactory picture. Subsequently, Bro. Sir Frederick Perkins, M.P., whose life-size oil portrait also hangs in the hall, in the name of the brethren, presented Bro. Hickman with the jewel of a Deputy Provincial Grand Master, remarking, in passing, that Bro. Hickman would be able to bear this testimony with him wherever he went of the fraternal feeling of those brethren with whom he had been associated, and himself bearing testimony, through many years' experience, to Bro. Hickman's worth as a Mason and a townsman. The Deputy Provincial Grand Master had no sooner acknowledged this presentation than Bro. Joseph Stevens, on behalf of the members initiated into the Lodge during its first year's existence, presented the retiring W.M. with a gold Past Master's jewel, the unexpected receipt of which he feelingly acknowledged. He subsequently asked the acceptance by the Lodge of a set of gavels for the use of the principal Officers, which was received with thanks, it being next resolved that a vote of thanks, tendered to him for his past year's services, should be engrossed on vellum and presented to him, bearing special reference to the day's proceedings, to be retained by the Deputy Provincial Grand Master. The new Master, Bro. Irvine Harle, having been duly installed, according to ancient custom, by his predecessor in the chair, appointed and invested the following as his Officers of the Lodge for the year:—Bros. James S. Pearce S.W., W. Berry J.W., S. S. Pearce Treasurer, W. Grinyer Secretary, Geo. Grant S.D., Algar J.D., Goodwin Organist, Furner I.G., Scorey and J. Stevens Stewards, Biggs and Harrington Tylers. At a subsequent banquet, prepared by Bro. Gibbs, of Above Bar, the customary Masonic toasts were given.—Portsmouth Times.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE,

A Weekly Record of Masonic Intelligence. Sanctioned by the Grand Lodge of England.

Price—13s 6d per annum, post free.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE will be forwarded direct from the Office, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C., (opposite Freemasons' Hall), on receipt of Post Office Order for the amount. Intending Subscribers should forward their full Addresses to prevent mistakes.

Post Office Orders to be made payable to W. W. MORGAN, at High Holborn Office. Cheques crossed "London and County."

London:—W. W. MORGAN, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C.
(Opposite Freemasons' Hall.)

Cloth Cases for Binding can be had from the Offices, price 1s 6d each.

NOTICE.

The Publishing Offices of THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE have been removed to No. 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C. (immediately opposite Freemasons' Hall), where all communications should be addressed.

Digitized by Google

Royal Masonic Institution for Girls,

ST. JOHN'S HILL, BATTERSEA RISE, S.W.

Office: 5 Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street, W.C.

Patrons:

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales K.G., M.W.G.M., President.

Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales.

ADJOURNED QUARTERLY GENERAL COURT.

THE Governors and Subscribers of this Institution are requested to take notice that the Quarterly General Court, adjourned on Saturday, the 10th inst., will meet at Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street, London, W.C., on Saturday, the 24th inst., at 12 o'clock noon precisely.

F. R. W. HEDGES,
Secretary.

17th January 1880.

ROYAL MASONIC BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION

FOR

AGED FREEMASONS AND WIDOWS OF FREEMASONS,

CROYDON.

—:o:—

Patron and President:

His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, K.G., &c., M.W.G.M

—:o:—

THE ANNIVERSARY FESTIVAL

OF THIS INSTITUTION WILL TAKE PLACE ON

MONDAY, 9TH FEBRUARY 1880,

AT

FREEMASONS' TAVERN, GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON,

UPON WHICH OCCASION

The Right Hon. the EARL OF ZETLAND,

R.W. PROV. G.M. FOR NORTH AND EAST YORKSHIRE,

Has been pleased to signify his intention of presiding.

Brethren desirous of accepting the Office of Steward upon this occasion will greatly oblige by forwarding their Names and Masonic Rank as soon as convenient, to the Secretary, who will gladly give any information required.

JAMES TERRY, P. Prov. G.J.W. Herts,
Secretary.

4 Freemasons' Hall, London, W.C.

NOW READY.

THE ATHOLL MASONS,

Their Authentic History, Compiled from Official Sources, down to the Union of Modern Freemasons in 1813.

An Historical and Discursive Record of the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of England according to the Old Institutions.

By ROBERT FREKE GOULD.

In Cloth, 12mo, Price 5s.

SPENCER & CO., Opposite Freemason's Hall, 23a Gt. Queen-st., London, W.C.

Crown 8vo, price 2s 6d, cloth lettered.

Uniformity of Masonic Ritual and Observance.

By Bro. JAMES STEVENS, P.M., P.Z., &c.

"May be read with advantage by the whole Craft."—Sunday Times.

"Grand Lodge should at once set to work to secure the desired uniformity."—Sheffield Post.

"The subject is ably argued by the author."—Western Daily Mercury.

"Useful and valuable in the highest degree."—Exeter Gazette.

"Will have a material effect on the future of Masonic Ritual."—South Western Star.

"The author adduces many variations in the language used by different Preceptors."—Cox's Monthly Legal Circular.

"Ought to be in the hands of every Mason."—Northampton Guardian.

"To Freemasons generally it will be found useful and valuable, and we commend it to their notice accordingly."—Surrey County Observer.

"Bro. Stevens' motion for a Committee on the subject of Uniformity of Ritual was carried by a large majority."—Freemason's Chronicle report of Grand Lodge meeting, 3rd December 1879.

Sent, by post, on receipt of stamps, by the Author, Bro. James Stevens, 112 High-street, Clapham, S.W.; or by Bro. W. W. Morgan, 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

Ninth Edition, post free, One Shilling.

DR. WATTS on ASTHMA. A Treatise on the only Successful Method of Curing the Disease. By Robert G. Watts, M.D., F.R.S.L., &c., 5 Bulstrode-street, Cavendish-square, London.

London: Mitchell and Co., Red Lion-court, Fleet-street.

MASONIC HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS,

1 NOTTING HILL SQUARE, W.

THE SCHOOL has been established to provide a High Class Education to sons of Freemasons and others, on moderate terms. There are scholarships of the annual value of £10 to £20, and Exhibitions of £20. Terms for sons of Freemasons from 4 to 7 guineas per term, for other pupils from 5 to 8 guineas per term. For further particulars apply to the Secretary, or to

E. PASSAWER, LL.D.
Head Master.

THE FREEMASONS' TAVERN,

GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON W.C.

The admirable and unrivalled accommodation provided at this Establishment for

MASONIC BANQUETS,

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE DINNERS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, BALLS, &c.

Is too well known to need comment. The entire management has been changed, and the Establishment in all its branches thoroughly re-organised.

The attention of the Masonic Body is directed to the many advantages offered.

CUISINE OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER.

WINES PERFECT IN CONDITION AND QUALITY.

N.B.—DINNERS PROVIDED FROM 3/-.

RESTAURANT, WINE, SMOKING & RETIRING ROOMS.

The fullest measure of public confidence and support ensured.

ALFRED BEST, Proprietor.

SAWYER'S (LATE STATION) RESTAURANT,

5 RAILWAY PLACE, FENCHURCH STREET, E.C.

ENGLISH, FRENCH & GERMAN CUISINE.

Hot and Cold Luncheons on the Ground Floor:

This Room will accommodate 100 persons.

CHOPS, STEAKS, &c., FROM THE GRILL;

The Grill Room will seat 150 persons.

REID'S TREBLE STOUT. WORTHINGTON'S ALES,

BERLIN TIVOLI BEER.

TEA AND COFFEE ALWAYS READY.

CHAMPAGNES OF THE BEST BRANDS. OLD BOTTLED PORTS.

SHERRIES AND OTHER WINES OF THE BEST QUALITY.

Bro. F. J. SAWYER, Proprietor.

Late of Pimm's, and the Crystal Palace.

THE CATHEDRAL HOTEL,

CORNER OF

CHEAPSIDE & ST. PAUL'S CHURCHYARD.

—:o:—

F. J. SWEETING, Proprietor.

—:o:—

LUNCHEON BAR ON GROUND FLOOR FOR LIGHT REFRESHMENTS.

Soups, Fish, Chops, Steaks, Entrées, Cold Joints, &c. from Eight a.m. till Ten p.m.

DINING ROOMS ON FIRST FLOOR.

Hot Joints, &c. from Twelve o'Clock daily.
Dinners a la Carte. Teas, &c.

THE "CATHEDRAL HALF-CROWN DINNER"

(Soup, Fish, Joint)
Is served in the Saloon from Twelve till Five daily.

The Smoking Room overlooks the New Gardens round St. Paul's Cathedral.

PRIVATE ROOMS for Small Parties, MASONIC AUDITS, &c.

The following Lodges have recently held their Audit Meetings at this Hotel:—GROSVENOR, STANHOPE, POLISH NATIONAL, LA TOLERANCE, &c.

OPENING OF THE CRITERION ANNEXE.

SPIERS & POND respectfully beg to inform their Patrons, that to meet the increasing demands of their business at the Criterion, the premises have been greatly enlarged, by the addition of the above building. The principal features of the New Establishment are as follows:—

The Café, comprising—

The American Bar,
The Vienna Bier Saal,

Viands from the New Grill. Suppers served till Midnight.

Oysters a Specialite.

The Victoria Hall, for Banquets, Balls, Wedding Breakfasts, Soirées, and Entertainments.

The Prince's and Carnarvon Rooms, for Masonic Meetings, Banquets, &c.

Private Rooms, suitable for the meetings of Public and Corporate Bodies, Arbitrations, &c.

The Criterion Departments.

Buffet	... ...	For Luncheons and Light Refreshments.
Restaurant	... ...	Dinners à la Carte.
Cigar Divan	... ...	Facing Piccadilly entrance.
Smoking Room	...	Adjoining the Buffet.
Grill Room	... ...	Entrance in Jermyn Street.
West Dining Room		Le Diner Parisien daily from 5.30 till 8 p.m., and on Sundays.
East Dining Room	...	Dinners à la Carte.
The Grand Hall	...	Table d'Hote daily, from 5.30 till 8 p.m. (also on Sundays at 6).
Private Rooms	...	For Dinners, Wedding Breakfasts, &c., &c.

Digitized by Google

ANDERTON'S HOTEL,

F. H. CLEMOW, PROPRIETOR,

Nos. 162, 164 & 165 Fleet Street, and 7 & 11 Johnson's Court, London.

THE ACCOMMODATION OFFERED AT THIS ESTABLISHMENT FOR

MASONIC MEETINGS, BANQUETS, &c.

IS UNRIVALLED.

THE premises have lately been rebuilt, and in order to maintain the time-honored reputation of the house, as one of the centres of London Freemasonry, special attention has been paid to the furnishing of Lodge quarters, which now comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL

Specially constructed for Masonic purposes, with preparation room adjoining

A LARGE BANQUET HALL

Fitted with every necessary for the comfort of Visitors, &c., &c.

ROOMS FOR LARGE OR SMALL DINNER PARTIES, MEETINGS, &c.

VITRUVIAN LODGE, No. 87.

BRO. ISAAC, who has for some time past provided for the requirements of this Lodge, begs to announce that he has obtained permission for the removal of his license to the Belvedere-road, and that he has erected commodious premises there. These comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL.

WITH ANTE ROOMS,

LARGE BANQUETTING HALL,

Together with every convenience for Masonic gatherings.

Applications from Secretaries and others for accommodation to be addressed

G. ISAAC, "WHITE HART," COLLEGE STREET, LAMBETH, LONDON, S.E.

DINNERS FROM THE JOINT from TWELVE to THREE o'clock. CHOPS and STEAKS from the GRILL till FIVE o'clock. T. MAIDWELL, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-st., City, E.C.

FISH DINNERS IN PERFECTION

2S EACH, including Soups, Entrées, Poultry, Joints, Cheese, Salad, Served from 12 to 4 daily.—GEORGE TAVERN, Billingsgate Market.

Sole Proprietor, GEORGE SMITH, from Anderton's Hotel.

FURNITURE FOR LODGE OF INSTRUCTION.—Complete Set, nearly new, for Sale. Address, J. W. H., "FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE" Office, 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

23 GREAT QUEEN STREET, W.C.

APPOINTMENT OF GRAND SECRETARY.

H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, Most Worshipful Grand Master, has been pleased to appoint Lieut.-Col. Shadwell H. Clerke to fill the vacant position of Secretary to the Grand Lodge of England. A special meeting of Grand Lodge will be held this (Saturday) evening, at Freemasons' Hall, for the purpose of formally investing Bro. Clerke with the insignia of office.

QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE BOYS' SCHOOL.

THE January Quarterly Meeting of the Governors and Subscribers of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys was held in the Board Room, Freemasons' Hall, on Monday. There were present Bros. Col. Creaton (in the chair), S. Rawson, Donald M. Dewar, William Roebuck, Rev. A. F. A. Woodford, Frederick Adlard, Arthur E. Gladwell, R. Warner Wheeler, W. H. Perryman, W. H. Hamann, Thomas Meggy, and F. Binckes Secretary. After reading and confirmation of the minutes, the Meeting declared eighty candidates and twenty vacancies for the April election. Bro. Binckes then read the correspondence which had taken place with regard to Bro. S. B. Wilson's claim against the Institution for professional services, and a long discussion ensued on the point. It was, however, ultimately arranged that the matter should be further considered by the House Committee for which purpose, a motion referring it to those brethren was proposed by Bro. Woodford, seconded by Bro. R. Warner Wheeler, and carried. A vote of thanks to the Chairman closed the proceedings.

MEETING OF THE BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION.

THE monthly meeting of the Committee of the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution was held on Wednesday, at Freemasons' Hill. There were present Bros. Col. Creaton (in the chair), W. Hale, C. A. Cottebrune, R. Warner Wheeler, J. A. Farnfield, J. M. Case, James Brett, John G. Stevens, R. H. Giraud, Louis Stean, Jabez Hogg, John Henry Leggott, Henry G. Warren, W. Hilton, Thomas Cubitt, Charles John Perceval, Raynham W. Stewart, S. Rawson, J. Newton, William Stephens, C. G. Dilley, Erasmus Wilson, Edgar Bowyer, Henry Strong M.D. Hon. Surgeon, Thos. J. Barnes, Charles Frederick Hogard, and James Terry (Secretary), who, after the reading and confirmation of the minutes, announced the death of three female annuitants. The Warden's report was then submitted, and Bro. Terry informed the brethren that the Supreme Council 33° had presented the library of the Institution at Croydon with 130 volumes of the works of Dickens, Lytton, Lever, &c., and Bro. Cutbush had sent a hamper of bulbs. Votes of thanks to these donors were passed for their gifts. Thirteen petitioners were afterwards placed on the list. Bro. Leggott's motion to build a board room and chapel at the south end of the Institution was not seconded, and consequently dropped. He withdrew his motion to build an infirmary, and moved that the board room be used as a reading room and library for the inmates of the Institution. Bro. Warner Wheeler seconded the motion, which was opposed by Bros. Farnfield and Raynham Stewart. Bro. Perceval hoped the board room would soon be enlarged, as there was not room in it for the half-yearly entertainments given to the old people. Dr. Strong, from a daily acquaintance with the annuitants, was able to say that they preferred reading in their own rooms, and he did not think they would be induced to use such a cold room as the board room. He agreed with Bro. Perceval that it would be an advantage to have the room enlarged. The motion was lost. On the motion of Bro. Farnfield, seconded by Bro. Stewart, a vote of congratulation to Bro. Norris, the Warden, on his attainment of the ninetieth year of his age on the 21st inst., was passed, and ordered to be transmitted to him; and on the motion of Bro. John Stevens, seconded by Bro. Bowyer, a vote of thanks was also passed to Bro. Terry for having, through his zealour energy, raised the receipts last year to more than £17,000. Bro. Terry acknowledged the vote, and assured the brethren of his desire to be, if possible, of still greater benefit to the Institution. A vote of thanks to the Chairman concluded the business of the day.

The remarks we published in our issue of the 3rd inst., when reviewing the result of last year's work in connection with the three Masonic Institutions appear to be open to misapprehension. We then stated that the Girls' School was the only Institution whose total receipts for 1879 showed a diminution as compared with 1878, and quoted the actual figures of the two years in support of our statement. It has been pointed out that by so doing we may lead brethren to suppose that the actual donations to the Charity are falling off, which is not really the case, for if we take out of 1878 the Special Grant of £500 stock from Grand Lodge, and which is looked upon more as a transfer to the Stock Account of the Girls' School, we find that 1879 really produced something near £160 in excess of its predecessor. In justice to Bro. Hedges, whose labours as Secretary have resulted in an actual increase in the amount collected from the brethren, we think we are right in pointing out what to some may appear like a falling off as the result of his labours.

LONDON COTTAGE MISSION.

THE waifs and strays of Limehouse, Ratcliff, Shadwell and Stepney, who had been invited by ticket, again presented themselves yesterday at noon, in large numbers, at the entrance of the London Cottage Mission Hall, Conder-street, Limehouse, to the Irish stew feast. This makes the 95th week of dinners given. The poor children, being piteously hungry, cried for food. Unfortunately the milder weather does not fill their stomachs, and this benevolence is in as great demand as ever. The premises were besieged, and the earnest rush was melting in the extreme. Like everything else, this work of charity cannot be continued without money, and we are sorry to learn that the Mission which has vigorously and untiringly fed now over 20,000 of the starving poor, will have to conclude its work of charity unless its funds are at once increased. The last pound has gone, and if each of our readers would only send a trifle, many more thousand little mouths, which know of no meal from week's end to week's end but dry bread and water, will have the intense joy of participating in many more Irish stew banquets—such indeed it is to them. We sincerely hope that the London Cottage Mission and its able founder and staff, who are carrying out so good an evangelistic, philanthropic, and benevolent work, will be encouraged by the liberal and timely help of a benevolent and sympathising public, who will send their free-will offerings to Miss F. Napton, 304 Burdett-road, Limehouse, E., and Mr. Walter Austin, 14 Finsbury-circus, E.C.

FREEMASONS' CALENDAR and POCKET-BOOK, containing a complete list of all the regular Lodges and Royal Arch Chapters, with their places and times of meeting. Published for the benefit of the Charity Fund, under the sanction of the United Grand Lodge of England. May be had from W. W. Morgan jun., FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, London, W.C. Price 2s, post free.

Digitized by Google

DIARY FOR THE WEEK.

We shall be obliged if the Secretaries of the various Lodges throughout the Kingdom will favour us with a list of their Days of Meeting, &c., as we have decided to insert only those that are verified by the Officers of the several Lodges.

SATURDAY, 17th JANUARY.

198—Percy, Jolly Farmers' Tavern, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1329—Sphinx, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
1364—Earl of Zetland, Old Town Hall, Mare-street, Hackney
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
1732—Kings Cross, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8

MONDAY, 19th JANUARY.

1—Grand Master's, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
45—Strong Man, New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, at 8 (Instruction)
59—London Masonic Club Lodge of Instruction, 101 Queen Victoria-street, at 6
174—Sincerity, Railway Tavern, London-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
180—St. James's Union, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
185—Tranquillity, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
196—Industry, Bell, Carter-lane, Doctors-commons, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
548—Wellington, White Swan, High-street, Deptford, at 8 (Instruction)
704—Camden, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
720—Panmure, Balham Hotel, Balham.
1306—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-st., Wapping, at 8 (Instruction)
1435—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-rd., Paddington, at 8 (Instruction)
1445—Prince Leopold, Mitford Tavern, Sandringham-road, Dalston, at 8 (Inst.)
1469—Marquess of Ripon, Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-rd., Hackney, at 7.30 (In.)
1623—West Smithfield, New Market Hotel, King-st., Snow-hill, at 8 (Inst.)
1625—Tredegar, Royal Hotel, Mile End-road, corner of Burdett-road (Inst.)
M. M.—Old Kent, Trocadero, Broad Street Buildings, E.C. at 6.30 (Instruction)

77—Freedom, Clarendon Hotel, Gravesend
236—York, Masonic Hall, York
331—Phœnix of Honour and Prudence, Public Rooms, Truro.
359—Peace and Harmony, Freemasons' Hall, Southampton.
382—Royal Union, Belmont Hall, Uxbridge
424—Borough, Half Moon Hotel, Gateshead.
466—Merit, George Hotel, Stamford Baron, Northampton.
632—St. Cuthbergs, Masonic Hall, Wimborne.
725—Stoneleigh, King's Arms Hotel, Kenilworth.
820—Lily of Richmond, Greyhound, Richmond, at 7.30 (Instruction)
823—Everton, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
925—Bedford Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham.
934—Merit, Derby Hotel, Whitefield.
985—Alexandra, Masonic Hall, Holbeach.
1030—Egerton, George Hotel, Wellington Road, Heaton Norris, near Stockport.
1037—Portland, Portland Hall, Portland.
1141—Mid Sussex, Assembly Rooms, Horsham.
1170—St. George, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester.
1199—Agriculture, Honey Hall, Congresbury.
1308—Corinthian, Royal Hotel, Pier, Dover.
1449—Royal Military, Masonic Hall, Canterbury, at 8. (Instruction.)
1503—Israel, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
R.A. 32—Jerusalem, Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool
R. A. 139—Parsdise, Freemasons' Hall, Surrey-street, Sheffield.
R. A. 210—Faith, Bowling Green Hotel, Denton.
K. T.—Prince of Peace, Bull Hotel, Preston.

TUESDAY, 20th JANUARY.

Board of General Purposes, Freemasons' Hall, at 4.
30—United Mariners, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
55—Constitutional, Bedford Hotel, Southampton-bldgs., Holborn, at 7 (Inst.)
65—Prosperity, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
73—Mount Lebanon, Bridge House Hotel, Southwark.
95—Eastern Star, Ship and Turtle, Leadenhall-street, E.C.
141—Faith, 3 Westminster Chambers, Victoria-street, S.W., at 8 (Inst.)
177—Domatic, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney (Instruction)
753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
860—Dalhousie, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1044—Wandsworth, Star and Garter Hotel, St. Ann's-hill, Wandsworth (Inst.)
1349—Friars, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1360—Royal Arthur, Prince's Head, Battersea Park, at 8 (Instruction)
1430—Earl Spencer, Swan Hotel, Battersea Old Bridge, S.W.
1446—Mount Edgcumbe, 19 Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1471—Islington, Three Bucks, 23 Gresham-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
1472—Henley, Three Crowns, North Woolwich, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1507—Metropolitan, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate-st., at 7.30 (Inst.)
1558—D. Connaught, Palmerston Arms, Grosvenor Park, Camberwell, at 8 (In.)
1602—Sir Hugh Myddelton, Crown and Woolpack, St. John's-st.-rd., at 8 (In.)
1707—Eleanor, Trocadero, Broad-street-buildings, Liverpool-street, 6.30 (Inst)
R. A. 1365—Clapton, White Hart Tavern, Clapton, at 8. (Instruction.)
Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement, Jamaica Coffee House, Cornhill, 6.30.

117—Wynnstay, Raven Hotel, Shrewsbury, at 8 (Instruction)
213—Perseverance, Masonic Hall, Theatre-street, Norwich.
241—Merchants, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 6.30 (Instruction)
348—True Love and Unity, Freemasons' Hall, Brixham, Devon.
384—St. David, Masonic Rooms, Bangor.
414—Union, Masonic Hall, Reading
418—Menturia, Mechanics' Institute, Hanley.
468—Light, Great Western Hotel, Birmingham
667—Alliance, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
980—Bute, Masonic Hall, 9 Working-street, Cardiff
1008—Tregullow, Masonic Rooms, St. Day, Scorrier, Cornwall.
1033—Callender, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester.
1089—De Sburland, Fountain Hotel, Sheerness.
1113—Anglesea, Bull Hotel, Llangefni
1276—Warren, Stanley Arms Hotel, Seacombe, Cheshire.
1325—Stanley, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
1427—Percy, Masonic Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle.
1470—Chiltern, Town Hall, Dunstable.
1473—Bootle, 146 Berry-street, Bootle, at 8. (Instruction.)
1534—Concord, George Hotel, Prestwich.
1551—Charity, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham.
1570—Prince Arthur, 140 North Hill-street, Liverpool.
1764—Eleanor Cross, Masonic Hall, Abington-street, Northampton.
R. A. 268—Union, Queen's Arms Inn, Ashton-under-Lyne.
R. A. 829—High Cross, Bull Inn, Dartford.
R. A. 1174—Pentangle, Sun Hotel, Chatham

WEDNESDAY, 21st JANUARY.

Lodge of Benevolence, FreemasonsHall, W.C. at 6.
General Committee, Grand Chapter, Freemasons' Hall, at 3
Grand Stewards, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
174—Sincerity, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
193—Confidence, Railway Tavern, London-street, at 7 (Instruction)
201—Jordan, Devonshire Arms, Devonshire-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
228—United Strength, Hope and Anchor, Crowndale-rd., Camden-town, 8 (In.)
538—La Tolerance, Green Dragon, 2 Maddox-street, W., at 7.45 (Inst.)
781—Merchant Navy, Silver Tavern, Burdett-road, E. (Inst.)
813—New Concord, Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
862—Whittington, Red Lion, Poppin's-court, Fleet-street, at 8 (Instruction)
1185—Lewis, King's Arms Hotel, Wood Green, at 7 (Instruction)
1278—Burdett Coutts, Salmon and Ball, Bethnal Green-road, at 8 (Inst.)
1288—Finsbury Park, Earl Russell, Isledon-road, Holloway, at 8 (Instruction)
1507—Metropolitan, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
1524—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion Road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1673—Langton, London Masonic Club, 101 Queen Victoria-street, E.C.
R. A. 177—Domatic, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-st., at 8 (Instruction)

20—Royal Kent of Antiquity, Sun Hotel, Chatham
86—Loyalty, Masonic Hall, Prescot, Lancashire
121—Mount Sinai, Public-buildings, Penzance
140—St. George, Trafalgar Tavern, Greenwich
175—East Medina, Masonic Hall, John-street, Ryde, I.W.
200—Old Globe, Private Rooms, Globe-street, Scarborough
221—St. John, Commercial Hotel, Town Hall Square, Bolton
258—Amphibious, Freemasons' Hall, Heckmondwike
277—Friendship, Freemasons' Hall, Union-street, Oldham
325—St. John, Freemasons' Hall, Islington-square, Salford
380—Integrity, Masonic Temple, Commercial-street, Morley, near Leeds
428—Sincerity, Angel Inn, Northwich, Cheshire
451—Sutherland, Town Hall, Burslem
537—Zetland, 55 Argyle-street, Birkenhead
580—Harmony, Wheat Sheaf, Ormskirk
581—Faith, Drover's Inn, Openshaw
592—Cotteswold, King's Head Hotel, Cirencester
594—Downshire, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7 (Instruction)
633—Yarborough, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester
673—St. John, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8. (Instruction.)
683—Isca, Freemasons' Hall, Dock-street, Newport, Monmouthshire
755—St. Tudno, Freemasons' Hall, Llandudno
758—Ellesmere, Masonic Hall, Runcorn
823—Everton, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
874—Holmesdale, Royal Sussex Hotel, Tunbridge Wells
910—St. Oswald, Masonic Hall, Ropergate, Pontefract
938—Grosvenor, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham
969—Sun and Sector, Assembly Rooms, Workington
972—St. Augustine, Masonic Hall, Canterbury
1019—Sincerity, Freemasons' Hall, Zetland-street, Wakefield
1040—Sykes, Masonic Hall, Driffield, Yorks
1086—Walton, Skelmersdale Masonic Hall, Kirkdale, Liverpoo
1129—St. Chad, Roebuck Hotel, Rochdale
1161—De Grey and Ripon, Denmark Hotel, Lloyd-street, Greenheys, Manchester
1164—Eliot, Private Rooms, St. Germains, Cornwall
1206—Cinque Ports, Bell Hotel, Sandwich
1218—Prince Alfred, Commercial Hotel, Mossley, near Manchester
1246—Holte, Holte Hotel, Aston
1301—Brighouse, Masonic Room, Bradford-road, Brighouse
1337—Anchor, Masonic Rooms, Durham House, Northallerton
1353—Duke of Lancaster, Athenæum, Lancaster
1356—De Grey and Ripon, 140 North Hill-street, Liverpool, at 7.30 (Inst.)
1443—Salem, Town Hall, Dawlish, Devon
1479—Halsey, Town Hall, St. Albans
1511—Alexandra, Hornsea, Hull
1634—Starkie, Railway Hotel, Ramsbottom
R. A. 240—St. Hilda, Freemasons' Hall, Fowler-street, South Shields
M. M. 135—Hotspur, Freemasons' Hall, Clayport-street, Alnwick

THURSDAY, 22nd JANUARY.

House Committee Girls' School, at 4.
3—Fidelity, Yorkshire Grey, London-street, Fitzroy-sq., at 8 (Instruction
15—Kent, Chequers, Marsh-street, Walthamstow, at 7.30 (Instruction)
27—Egyptian, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7.30 (Instruction)
65—Prosperity, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
87—Vitruvian, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth, at 8 (Instruction)
99—Shakespeare, Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
211—St. Michael, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate Street, at 8 (Inst.)
435—Salisbury, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8 (Inst.)
754—High Cross, Coach and Horses, Lower Tottenham, at 8 (Instruction)
766—William Preston, City Terminus Hotel, Cannon-street, E.C.
1227—Upton, King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., at 8. (Instruction.)
1428—The Great City, Masons Hall, Masons Avenue, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
1614—Covent Garden, Nag's Head, James-street, Covent Garden, at 7.45 (In.)
1658—Skelmersdale, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
R. A. 753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
R. A. 1471—North London, Jolly Farmers', Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Inst.)

48—Industry, 34 Denmark-street, Gateshead. (Instruction)
78—Imperial George, Assheton Arms Hotel, Middleton, Lancashire
100—Friendship, Crown and Anchor Hotel, Quay, Great Yarmouth
116—Royal Lancashire, Swan Hotel, Colne
203—Ancient Union, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
208—Three Grand Principles, Masonic Hall, Dewsbury
214—Hope and Unity, White Hart Hotel, Brentwood, Essex
275—Harmony, Masonic Hall, South Parade, Huddersfield
283—Amity, Swan Hotel, Market-place, Haslingden
337—Candour, Commercial Inn, Uppermill, Saddleworth
344—Faith, Bull's Head Inn, Radcliffe, Lancashire
348—St. John, Bull's Head Inn, Bradshawgate, Bolton
594—Downshire, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
636—D'Ogle, Masonic Hall, Morpeth
659—Blagdon, Ridley Arms Hotel, Blyth
784—Wellington, Public Rooms, Park-street, Deal
816—Royd, Spring Gardens Inn, Wardle, near Rochdale
935—Harmony, Freemasons' Hall, Islington-square, Salford
1325—Stanley, 214 Gt. Homer-street, Liverpool, at 8. (Instruction.)
1459—Ashbury, Justice Birch Hotel, Hyde-road, West Gorton, near Manchester
1505—Emulation, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1576—Dee, Union Hotel, Parkgate, Cheshire
1612—West Middlesex, Feathers Hotel, Ealing, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
1626—Hotspur, Masonic Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle
R.A. 292—Liverpool, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
R. A. 424—De Burghi, 34 Denmark-street, Gateshead.
R. A. 1086—Walton, Skelmersdale Masonic Hall, Kirkdale, Liverpool
K.T.—Plains of Mamre, Bull Hotel, Burnley

FRIDAY, 23rd JANUARY.

House Committee Boys' School, at 4.
Emulation Lodge of Improvement, Freemasons' Hall, at 7.
25—Robert Burns, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
507—United Pilgrims, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
569—Fitzroy, Head Quarters, Hon. Artillery Company, City-road, E.C.
766—William Preston, Feathers Tavern, Up. George-st., Edgware-rd. 8 (Inst.
834—Hanelagh, Six Bells, Hammersmith (Instruction)
902—Burgoyne, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Duke's Head, 79 Whitechapel-road, at 8 (Instruction)
1056—Metropolitan, Portugal Hotel, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 7 (Instruction)
1158—Belgrave, Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1288—Finsbury Park M.M., Earl Russell, Isledon-road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1298—Royal Standard, Alwyne Castle, St. Paul's-road, Canonbury, at 8 (In.)
1365—Clapton, White Hart, Lower Clapton, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1643—E. Carnarvon, Mitre Hotel, Goulborne-rd, N. Kensington, at 8.0 (Inst.
R. A. 79—Pythagorean, Portland Hotel, London-street, Greenwich, at 8 (Inst.

780—Royal Alfred, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, at 7.30 (Inst.)
1143—Royal Denbigh, Council Room, Denbigh
1393—Hamer, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8 (Instruction)
1621—Castle, Crown Hotel, Bridgnorth
1712—St. John, Freemasons' Hall, Grainger-street, Newcastle
General Lodge of Instruction, Masonic Hall, New Street, Birmingham.
R. A. 153—Virtue, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester
K. T. 20—Royal Kent, Masonic Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle

SATURDAY, 24th JANUARY.

198—Percy, Jolly Farmers, Southgate Road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W. at 8

149—Peace, Private Rooms, Meltham
306—Prince George, Private Rooms, Bottoms, Eastwood

Digitized by Google

NOTICE OF MEETINGS.

Constitutional Lodge of Instruction, No. 55.—Held on Tuesday, 13th January, at Bro. Bond's, Bedford Hotel, Southampton-buildings, W.C. Present—Bros. Hallam sen. W.M., Dickins S.W., Abell J.W., John Soper Sec., T. B. Linscott S.D., Hallam jun. J.D., Bingemann Preceptor, Walter Dunedin I.G.; P.M.'s Gilruth, T. B. Dodson, and many other brethren. After due regard had been paid to requirements of custom, Bro. T. B. Dodson offered himself as a candidate for passing, answered the questions, and was entrusted. Lodge was opened in the second degree, and Bro. Dodson was passed to the degree of Fellow Craft. The following sections of the second lecture were worked:—First Bro. Dickins, second Abell, third Hallam jun., fourth Hallam sen. Bro. Dickins was elected W.M. for the ensuing week. Lodge was closed, and adjourned to Tuesday, the 20th January, at 7 p.m. On Tuesday, 10th February, the ceremony of installation will be rehearsed by Bro. T. Pownceby W.M. of Constitutional Lodge, No. 55.

Mount Lebanon Chapter, No. 73.—The regular Convocation of this Chapter was held on Thursday, 8th inst., at the Bridge House Hotel, Southwark. Comps. J. C. Mason M.E.Z., M. D. Loewenstark H., F. Walters P.Z. S.E. as J. and others opened the Chapter. The ballot proved unanimous in favour of the admission of Comp. J. B. Shackleton as a joining member. Comp. F. Walters, in his usual painstaking manner, installed Comp. A. J. Ireton as J. The bye-laws were read. The elections were unanimous in favour of Comps. Loewenstark as Z., A. J. Ireton H., J. B. Shackleton J., J. W. Baldwin P.Z. Treasurer (re-elected), F. Walters P.Z. S.E. (re-elected for 16th time), B. Isaacs S.N., W. K. Goodall P.S., C. T. Speight Jan. (re-elected). The usual P.Z.'s jewel was unanimously voted to Comp. J. C. Mason for services rendered to the Chapter during his year of office. The bye-laws were revised, some candidates were proposed for exaltation, the Chapter was closed and adjourned, to meet on Thursday 18th May, at four o'clock p.m. Banquet followed. The usual Loyal toasts were given and responded to. There were present besides those named Comps. J.T. Moss P.Z., &c., W. Pennefather, and others. Visitors—Bourne P.Z., W. A. Simmons 1275, C. G. Rushworth 1503, T. W. Adams 1623, &c.

Royal Alfred Lodge of Instruction, No. 780.—The usual weekly meetings were resumed at the Star and Gartel Hotel, Kew Bridge, after the adjournment for the Christmas vacation, on Friday, 9th instant. Bros. Acworth W.M., Youens S.W., Gomm J.W., Blasby S.D., Innes J.D., Maton I.G., Roe P.M. Preceptor, C. E. Botley Hon. Sec. pro tem, F. Botley, Goss. M., Geflowski, Franckel, Metcalfe, and Wotton. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. F. Botley candidate. Bro. Maton answered the questions leading to the second degree and retired. The ceremony of passing was next rehearsed, Bro. Goss P.M. candidate. Lodge was advanced to the third, and then closed. Bro. E. Edward Geflowski, of the Mariners Lodge, Liverpool, was elected a member. Bro. Youens was elected W.M. for the next meeting, and a vote of thanks accorded to Bro. Acworth for his kindness in providing printed notices of the meeting. The Lodge was closed in due form and adjourned.

Dalhousie Lodge of Instruction, No. 860.—Held at Bro. Smyth's, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, on Tuesday, 13th Jan. Bro. Polak W.M., Christian S.W., Hand J.W., Clark S.D., Wardell J.D., Smyth I.G., J. Lorkin Sec., W. Wallington Preceptor; also Bros. Collins, Dallas, Williams, Brasted, Baker, C. Lorkin and Allen. The Lodge was opened and minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed, Bro. Baker was interrogated and intrusted. The Lodge was opened in the second degree and Bro. Baker was passed. The Lodge was closed in the second degree. Bros. Smyth, Clark and Hand assisted Bro. C. Lorkin to work the first, second and third sections of the lecture. Bro. Christian was elected W.M. for the ensuing week. The Fifteen Sections will be worked by Bro. C. Lorkin, on Tuesday, 27th January at seven o'clock.

Doric Lodge of Instruction, No. 933.—The regular Meeting of this Lodge was held at Bro. Clayton's, "Duke's Head," Whitechapel-road, E., on Friday, the 9th inst. Bro. C. Veal occupied the chair, supported by the following brethren:—Bros. West S.W., Levy J.W., Payne S.D., Davey J.D., McDonald, I.G., also Benjamin Cundick P.M. Preceptor, W. Musto P.M. Hon. Secretary, T. J. Barnes P.M., Clarke, Ellis, Richardson, Mills, Tate, McGrath, Waterer, Job, Loane, Stephens, Taylor, Clayton, &c. Lodge was opened in due form. Bro. Richardson answered the questions, and was passed in an able manner by Bro. Veal. Bro. P.M. Barnes worked the whole of the sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Lodge was resumed, and Bro. Payne of 933 was elected a member. A vote of thanks was accorded to Bro. Veal for his excellent working of the ceremony, it being the first time he had occupied the chair in the Lodge. After hearty good wishes had been given, Lodge was adjourned until the 16th inst. To brethren seeking first-class instruction, we can recommend this Lodge.

The Great City Lodge, No. 1426.—The usual meeting of this Lodge was held on Saturday afternoon, 10th January, at the Cannon-street Hotel. Bro. George W. Blackie W.M. presided, who was supported by the following Officers:—Catchpole S.W., Hamer J.W., the Rev. R. J. Simpson Chaplain, N. B. Headon Treasurer, C. Taylor S.D., Kibble J.D., Keeble I.G., Baber D.C., Freeman I.P.M., and Jenkins Organist. The Lodge was attended by the following Visitors:—C. Fountain W.M. 1216, R. A. Wright P.M. 504, E. W. Davis P.M. and Treasurer 95, G. W. Saul P.M. 120, Benson P.M. and W.M. 1613, J. R. Green 228, Warney 657, Tiddeman 813, Leon 780, P. W. Harris 177, T. Lee 862, Medwin S.D. 1613, Bossett 1851, Pardle 1201, Harper S.D. 1216, J. T. Jago 1259, A. Trigge 1385, T. Eastgate 1563, W. H. Kerby 1641, J. Berryman 1671, W. T. Buck S.D. 1702, A. Elford 14, R. Barham S.D. 144, H. Burgess and Smith 948, G. M. Felton P.M. 1613 and W.M. 1956, W. E. Pearce 1670. The minutes of the last Lodge having been read and confirmed, the Lodge was opened in the second degree, and Bro. Postans was examined as to his proficiency in the science. The Lodge was then opened in the third degree, and he was most impressively raised to the degree of a M.M. The next business, on the resumption of the Lodge to the second degree, was the passing of Bro. Wood to the degree of F.C. The Lodge was then resumed to the first degree, when a ballot took place for Mr. William Murdoch, who was a candidate for admission to the Lodge, and this being unanimous in his favour, he was introduced, and formally initiated into the mysteries of ancient Freemasonry. Some communications having been received, Bro. Headon P.M. and Treasurer, gave notice that at the next Lodge he should move that 25 guineas be voted from the funds, to be placed on the list of the W. Master, who would, as Steward, represent the Lodge at the next Festival for the benefit of the Girls' School. The Lodge was then closed, and the brethren adjourned for refreshment, and on the withdrawal of the cloth, the usual formal toasts were given, Bro. the Rev. R. J. Simpson responding for the Grand Officers. The W.M. proposed the health of their brother initiate, who had been proposed by a very worthy member of the Lodge, which was a sufficient guarantee of his quality. It was necessary that they should have fresh blood infused into their Order from time to time, for without it their privileges would soon become extinct. There had that night been laid the first stone of a symbolic building, and he hoped that what their brother initiate had passed through in the ceremony had been deeply impressed upon his mind, and he trusted that he would never regret the step he had taken, but ever remember with pleasure his birthday in Freemasonry. Bro. Murdoch briefly returned thanks, expressing a hope that he might become a good and faithful Mason. The Immediate Past Master, Bro. Freeman, in very complimentary terms, proposed the health of the W. Master, who acknowledged the hearty reception they had given him on all occasions, and particularly since he had been installed into the chair. He would do his best during the time he occupied that position to give them satisfaction, and when the time arrived for him to instal his successor he trusted he should be able to deliver up the Lodge to him with all the prestige for good working he had received with it. As he was about to represent the Lodge as Steward at the Girls' School Festival, he trusted the brethren would rally round him upon that occasion. The health of the Visitors was given, the W.M. giving them all a hearty welcome, for which several returned thanks. The health of the Past Masters of the Lodge was also given and responded to. The W. Master then gave the health of Bro. Headon P.M. and Treasurer, and that of Bro. Moody P.M. and Secretary, expressing his great regret that the latter, in consequence of illness, was unable to be present amongst them that evening. Bro. Headon, in replying, said:—Worshipful Master, Bro. Wardens, and Brethren—Allow me first to thank you, on behalf of the Secretary, who, as you have heard, is too indisposed to be with us this evening, but who will, I am sure, be very gratified to know he has been so kindly thought of in his absence. And now for the Treasurer. I can assure you it is very difficult for me to find fresh words to express my thanks for the very kind way in which this toast is always mentioned and received. However, there are a few lines in Shakespeare's Twelfth Night, which well express my sentiments, and which I think I cannot do better than quote on this occasion:—

> "I can no other answer make but thanks,
> And thanks, and ever thanks. Often good turns
> Are shuffled off with such uncurrent pay;
> But were my work, as is my conscience, firm,
> You should find better dealing."

Some other toasts were given, and the evening was spent in great cordiality, the concluding toast being given by Bro. Steedman the Tyler.

Marquess of Ripon Lodge of Instruction.—Held at the Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-road, Hackney, on Monday, 12th January. Present—Bros. Finch W.M., McDowall S.W., Crane J.W., Goodman S.D., High I.G., J. Lorkin Secretary, C. Lorkin Preceptor; also Bro. Beckett. After preliminaries, ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Beckett candidate; the ceremony of the 2nd degree was also rehearsed with the same candidate, who was afterwards elected a member of this Lodge of Instruction. Bro. McDowall was elected W.M. for the ensuing week. A cordial vote of thanks was recorded to the W.M. for the able manner in which he had fulfilled the duties of the chair.

Eboracum Lodge, No. 1611.—The regular meeting of this Lodge was held at York, on Monday, the chair being occupied by Bro. J. S. Cumberland I.P.M., in the unavoidable absence of the W.M. Bro. C. G. Padel. The whole of the Officers were in their places, and on the dais were Bros. T. B. Whytehead P.M., G. Balmford P.M., &c., and many visitors and brethren were also present. The business consisted of the raising of Bro. Brown to the third degree, which was well worked by the I.P.M. Bro. Whytehead announced that the books in the Lodge library were now available for the members. A liberal response was made to the appeal for the Benevolent Institution, and several brethren expressed their intention of attending the Festival. A successful ballot was taken for a joining member. A number of minor matters were disposed of, and the Lodge was closed. At refreshment the usual toasts were proposed from the chair. In replying to that of the Prov. G. Master and the Prov. G. Officers, Bro. T. B. Whytehead said that Lord Zetland had shown himself the right man in the right place, and the circular before them, announcing that the consecration of the Ferrum Lodge No. 1848, at Middlesborough, would be performed by his lordship, showed the living interest he was taking in the Craft in not leaving these matters entirely in the hands of his Deputy. He (the speaker) had lately been turning over some old volumes of the Freemason's Quarterly, and he had come upon the announcement of the appointment of the late Earl as G.M. of England. The comments made by the editor were not very complimentary to his lordship, who was said to have been pushed into the office without any special qualification. Most of them remembered how the late Earl had falsified such an assertion by the manner in which he had endeared himself to the Masons of England, and he thought the case of the present Earl was curiously analagous. When Lord Zetland was installed at York, a few years ago, as head of this important Province, he had heard it said that his lordship had merely been appointed because he was his uncle's nephew. Well, how had the event proved? Plainly, that the appointment was the very best that could have been made. He believed every Mason in the Province honoured and loved his lordship as one who conscientiously did his duty to the Craft, and did it well. It was a pleasant thing, too, to see him coming prominently forward in the Masonic Charities, and he was glad to know that York would support him well on the 9th proximo, when his lordship would preside at the Benevolent Festival. The list of the York Lodge, 236, was already a very substantial one, and he hoped the junior Lodge would still sustain its already well earned reputation for charity. The health of the W.M., the I.P.M., &c., was then drunk, and a very pleasant evening was passed, enlivened by the singing of Bros. Wilkinson, Marshall, and others.

Digitized by Google

West Middlesex Lodge of Instruction, No. 1612.—A meeting was held at the Feathers Hotel, Ealing, on Thursday, 8th January. Present—Bros. E. J. Acworth W.M., J. Wells S.W., C. E. Botley J.W., E. C. Porter S.D., A. Jones J.D., H. Youens I.G., J. J. Clarke, H. Stephens, Bellerby, W. M. Wyville, Gasson, H. Kasner, F. Botley, F. Brown. After preliminaries, the ceremony of passing was rehearsed, Bro. Bellerby candidate. The Lodge was resumed, and the ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. J. J. Clarke candidate. Bro. J. Wells was unanimously elected W.M. for the next meeting, and the Lodge was closed in due form.

Earl of Carnarvon Lodge, No. 1642.—The regular meeting of this Lodge was held on Thursday, 8th inst., at the Ladbroke Hall, Notting-hill, W. The Lodge was opened by the W.M. Bro. E. M. Lander, who was supported by the I.P.M. Bro. Samuel J. Parkhouse, Samuel Smout S.W., C. Darby Reade J.W., George Penn P.M. Treas., W. J. Murlis P.M. Sec., S. Smont jun. S.D., Frederick C. Frye J.D., F. Delavante Org., W. W. Buckland Steward, Jas. Bartle I.G., John Woodmason D.C., and a large attendance of members and visitors. Among the latter were Bros. Jacob P. Batch 1273, Francis Bartle P.M. 1006, J. L. Baker P.M. 1305, W. H. Beauchamp 167, T. Williams 1261, W. Macneill 101, W. M. Stiles W.M. 1732, H. J. Turner 1608, R. H Jackson 733, S. Pardoe jun. 1585, Thos. Fisher 733, J. B. Frye 195, J. Gillingham 1238, G. Davis S.W. 167, W. W. Morgan jun. FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE, &c. The minutes of the last meeting having been confirmed, the Lodge was advanced and, on the special request of Bro. S. H. Parkhouse, the W.M. vacated the chair in order that his Immediate Past Master might advance the brethren whom he had initiated. Bro. Hart was on this occasion a candidate for the third degree, and in due course the ceremony was performed on his behalf. The Lodge was resumed, and Bros. Rubenstein and Job Gillingham—the latter a member of the Gooch Lodge, No. 1238—were passed, Bro. Parkhouse in each case performing the ceremony in a most creditable manner. Bro. Lander now resumed the chair, and proceeded to close the Lodge. Before this was done it was proposed that the sum of twenty-five guineas be expended in the purchase of a harmonium. After some remarks it was pointed out that as there was at present no accommodation for storing an instrument it would be better to postpone the question for a time, and accordingly the subject was deferred. The W.M. announced that a Chapter attached to the Earl of Carnarvon Lodge would shortly be consecrated. He hoped that it would be as well supported as the Lodge had been. Lodge was then closed, and the brethren adjourned to banquet, during which the W.M. appropriately drank with his Officers and the members, "A Happy New Year," a wish that was heartily reciprocated on the part of all present; later on he paid a similar compliment to the Officers of other Lodges. After the banquet, the W.M. proposed the usual toasts. The regular preliminary ones having been honoured, Bro. Parkhouse proposed that of the W.M. This was, he said, a special toast, and one that he trusted would be always recognised in the Lodge. Their present W.M. deserved to be especially honoured, but he (Bro. Parkhouse) hoped the toast would be heartily responded to for all time. He trusted the members of the Earl of Carnarvon Lodge would always respect the gavel of the W.M. and show him respect. The present Master was as distinguished a Mason as ever lived, and had always worked hard for the good of the Craft. The W.M., in replying, having expressed his thanks to the company for the reception they had accorded the toast, said he should do his best to secure success for the Lodge during his term of office, so that when he vacated the chair he might leave the Lodge in as good a position as it was when he was installed. The toast of the Visitors was now given. Bro. Bartle being the first to respond, that brother expressed the great pleasure he experienced in attending. But for the invitation he had received to be present at their gathering, he would then have been in Cornwall, he was extremely pleased he had stayed in London. Bro. Stiles, who followed, complimented the members on the excellent way all their arrangements were carried out. No Lodge could attain a higher reputation than was possessed by the Earl of Carnarvon, both as regarded its support of the Charities and the excellence of its working. Bro. Gillingham also thanked the brethren for the hospitality they had exhibited. He was especially indebted to them for their kindness in advancing him to his second degree. Bro. Spencer also responded. The W.M. then briefly introduced the toast of the Past Masters, to which, after a most hearty reception had been accorded by the brethren, each responded. Bro. Parkhouse having expressed his thanks, desired to say a few words on behalf of the Charities, for one of which he was working as Steward. If any of those who were present felt they could give anything for the maintenance of the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution he should be most happy to add their names to his list. At present he had promises of over 200 guineas; by a supreme effort he hoped to increase this to 350 guineas before the day of the Festival arrived, but to do that he should require assistance from every member of the Lodge—he had no doubt but that it would be accorded, and that again the Earl of Carnarvon's representative would occupy a foremost position on the roll of Stewards. The profits on the Annual Ball to be held at the Kensington Town Hall would be placed on his list, a fact that should be an additional incentive—if any were needed—to make that gathering a success! It had been said that after the splendid result of Bro. Penn's stewardship that the Lodge would not do much for its next Steward; but he hoped, with the assistance of the brethren, to prove that to be an error. Bro. Murlis was gratified that he once more had the pleasure of responding. His affection for the Lodge seemed to grow warmer as meeting after meeting came round. He believed the Lodge was among the most successful ever established, and it only remained for the brethren to prove that it should ever continue to be such. Bro. Penn felt it a great honour to be numbered among the Past Masters of what on every side was characterised as a most successful Lodge. The Officers of the Lodge were next toasted, each of those present tendering their acknowledgments of the kind reception always accorded them. Bros. Rubenstein and Hart acknowledged the toast of the lay members, which brought the evening's programme to a conclusion. As usual, at this Lodge, Bro. Delevante and others exerted themselves to render the enjoyment of the party complete.

The fourth annual ball of the New Concord Lodge, No. 813, will be holden at the Freemasons' Tavern, Great Queen-street, on Tuesday, 10th February. The following comprises the Board of Stewards:—R. R. Harper W.M., S. George S.W., W. Gabb J.W., W. Stead P.M., T. Bartlett P.M., J. Taylor S.D., J. Thomas J.D., W. Pierpoint I.G., J. Stillwell Tr., J. Boulton S., A. J. Potter D.C., H. J. Allardyce, H. Blyther, T. Glass, P. Harnett, G. Mustoe and F. Swales. Application for tickets should be made to any of the following, who form the Acting Sub-Committee, and to whom we refer our readers for further particulars:—R. R. Harper, 86 Clifton-street, Finsbury, E.C., S. George, 50 King-square, Goswell-road, E.C., J. Stilwell, Bridport-place, New North-road, J. Thomas, 62 Bath-street, City-road, E.C., Wm. Pierpoint, 58 Richmond-road, West Brompton.

A very agreeable meeting of the members of the St. Michael's Lodge, No. 211, was held on Tuesday. The S.W., Bro. W. Radcliffe, was unanimously elected W.M. for the next twelve months, while Bro. C. Greenwood P.M., Prov. G. Sec. Surrey, was re-elected Treasurer. A full report in our next issue.

A meeting of brethren will take place at the Metropolitan Hotel, South Place, Finsbury, on Monday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of making arrangements for the formation of a Fifteen Sections Club. Bro. T. J. Barnes P.M. 554 and 933 has kindly consented to preside. Brethren are fraternally invited to attend.

The annual meeting of the Jordan Lodge, No. 201, was to take place last evening, at Freemasons' Hall, London, Bro. T. J. Hyland being the W.M. elect. We hope to give a report of the proceedings in our next issue.

The installation meeting of the Domatic Lodge, No. 177, was held on Friday last, at Anderton's Hotel, E.C. A report of the meeting is in hand, but in consequence of the heavy demands on our space, we must crave the indulgence of those interested until next week.

The place of meeting of the Ranelagh Lodge of Instruction, No. 834 has been changed from the "Bell and Anchor" to the "Six Bells," Hammersmith, at which latter place the regular weekly meetings will in future be held. Lodge is opened at eight o'clock every Friday evening.

The 17th annual ball of the St. James's Union Lodge will be held at Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street, on 3rd February, under the Presidency of the W.M. Bro. W. H. Stollard and an efficient body of Stewards. It is expected a numerous assemblage of Brethren and Visitors will be present.

Bro. Louis Beck P.M. Rothesay Lodge announces his annual private ball at St. James' Hall, under an efficient body of Stewards, including the W.M., Bros. J. Hancock, J. B. Docker, F. Green, G. Hudson, F. C. Jones Rimmell, J. Smith, R. G. MacNaughton, &c. Bro. Jarvis, No. 205, will be the M.C. Tickets can be obtained of Bro. L. Beck, Adam-street, Adelphi, andat St. James's Hall, Piccadilly.

ROYAL POLYTECHNIC.—MARY QUEEN OF SCOTS.—The principa events in the life of the beautiful and unfortunate Mary Stuart, illustrated by Tableaux Vivants. The descriptive poem recited by Miss Alice Burnelle. The appropriate vocal music by a Choir of Glee Singers, under the direction of Bro. Stedman. EDISON'S LOUD SPEAKING TELEPHONE, &c. THE ZULU WAR and the HELIOGRAPH. LONDON AS IT WAS AND IS. THE ELECTRIC LIGHT. INSTRUMENTAL CONCERT by the Paggi Family. POPULAR OPTICAL LECTURE. PHENOMENA OF LIGHT AND THE GHOST. Open 1 till 10, 2 till 5, and 6 till 10 Admission, 1s. Reserved Seats, 2s, 1s, and 6d.

Digitized by Google

GOSPORT CHAPTER, No. 903.

A Special Meeting was held on Tuesday, 6th inst., at Gosport, for the purpose of installing the Principals for the ensuing year. The following Companions were installed and invested:—Comps. E. S. Main P.Z. 342 Z., C. B. Whitcomb H., Valentine Brown J. F. Powell E., R. W. Mitchell N., R. W. Downing P.S., Count Des Geneys A.S., A. L. Emanuel A.S., J. W. Stroud Treasurer, L. Canvin Janitor. After the business of the Chapter had been transacted, the First Principal presented E. Comp. George Felton Lancaster I.P.Z., with a P.Z.'s jewel, suitably engraved, as a mark of the high esteem in which he is held by the Chapter.

RED CROSS OF CONSTANTINE.

Eboracum Conclave, No. 137.—The regular meeting of this body was held on Thursday, at the Masonic Rooms, Queen's Hotel York. In the absence of the M.P.S. the Earl of Zetland, the chair was occupied by E. Comp. T. B. Whytehead P.S. Intendant General Unattached, and he was supported by E. Comps. J. S. Cumberland V.E., T. Humphries as S.G., G. Simpson I.G., A. T. B. Turner Recorder, M. Millington Prefect, S. F. Bousfield as Herald, Rev. W. Valentine Prelate, &c. Bro. W. B. Dyson of the Eboracum Lodge, No. 1611, was ballotted for and installed a member of the Order. Ballots were then taken for Sovereign, Viceroy and Treasurer, resulting in the unanimous election to those respective offices of Bros. J. S. Cumberland, C. G. Padel and G. Simpson. Bro. H. Jackson was re-elected as Sentinal. Two Auditors were appointed, and the Conclave was closed. The St. Peter's Sanctuary and Commandery of St. John was afterwards opened, and E. Comp. Cumberland was elected Commander. Several opinions were expressed regretting the absence of regular communications of the ruling body, and hoping that steps would be taken to place the Order in a more vigorous condition.

ORDER OF ST. LAWRENCE.

Ebor Lodge (T.I.)—A Meeting of this flourishing Lodge was held at the Masonic Rooms, Queen's Hotel, York, on Thursday evening. The W.M. Bro. G. Simpson occupied the chair, and the following brethren, amongst others, were present: J. S. Cumberland S.W., T. B. Whytehead P.M. as J.W., M. Millington Conductor, A. T. B. Turner Secretary, T. Humphries I.G., P. Pearson Tyler, S. F. Bousfield, E. J. de Salis, &c. Bro. W. B. Dyson, of the Eboracum Lodge 1611, was ballotted for, accepted, and admitted. Bro. Whytehead then presented to the Lodge, on behalf of Bro. J. Morgan 1611, who has left York, a very valuable and rare old line engraving of the Martyrdom of St. Lawrence, for which the hearty thanks of the Lodge were voted. Bro. Whytehead then proposed, and Bro. Cumberland seconded as hon-members of the Lodge: Bros. the Rev. G. M. Portal P.G.M.M.M. Eng., and President of the Council of Side Degrees, and Bro. A. M. Broadley D.D.G.M. Malta, and both those brethren were accordingly elected. Bro. J. S. Cumberland S.W. was unanimously elected W.M. Bro. G. Simpson was elected Treasurer, and Bro. P. Pearson was re-elected Tyler. Two Auditors were appointed, and the Lodge was closed. The brethren afterwards met at a grill supper, and passed a most social evening.

An Amateur Performance in aid of the funds of the Warehousemen and Clerks' Schools will be given by the Connaught Dramatic Club, at St. George's Hall, Langham Place, on Thursday next, 22nd inst. The Programme includes "Little Daisy" by T. J. Williams, Esq., and "Weak Woman" by H. J. Byron, Esq. The band of the Honourable Artillery Company will be in attendance. The net profits realised by seven previous performances of this Dramatic Company have realised £572 18s 7d. Bro. T. W. Ockenden, 7 Friday-street, is Secretary to the Club.

The installation meeting of the Samaritan Lodge, No. 368, Sandbach, Cheshire, will take place on Wednesday, the 21st inst. Bro. John Bowes P.M. P.P.G.J.W. Cumberland and Westmoreland will be Installing Master. We hope to give a report of the proceedings in our next issue.

TARLING'S COALS ARE THE BEST.—North Wallsend, 23s; Hetton and Lambton, 24s; Silkstone, 23s; Derby, 21s. 1s per ton discount allowed for cash on delivery. All letters to be addressed 5 Burdett-road, Bow, E.

MALTA.

LEINSTER LODGE, No. 387, I.C.

A large number of Members and Visiting Brethren assembled at the Masonic Hall, Isola, on St. John's Day, 27th December 1879. The Lodge was opened in due form, at noon, for business, the formal part of which having been disposed of, the J.W. called the Lodge from labour to refreshment. A light luncheon having been partaken of, the W.M. Bro. Charles Thompson suggested ways of spending the afternoon that would combine pleasurable enjoyment with profit to themselves; the result was, that several parties were formed, for boating, walking, and other pastimes. A considerable number took carriages, and were driven to Krendi, where they busied themselves in exploring the old quarries and interesting ruins abounding in the neighbourhood, leaving their marks for the inspection of visitors in future years, and, perhaps, future ages. After completing their researches, the brethren partook of slight refreshment, and then returned to the Lodge, where they were called to resume labour, the work carried on was conducted with earnestness, and in peace and harmony. In due course the Lodge was closed, and the officers and brethren assembled in the spacious banquet hall, where about sixty sat down to a sumptuous repast, with which every one present expressed unqualified satisfaction. The usual Masonic toasts were given by the W.M. Bro. C. Thompson, and were received with unqualified enthusiasm. The proceedings were interspersed by some capital singing by the brethren. W. P.M. Bro. Dahn of Leinster Lodge I.C., Bro. W. Read of Union Lodge, Malta, 407 E.C., and Bro. J. Abbott of 17th Lancers Lodge 218 I.C., added materially to the hilarity and general enjoyment of the company. The happy party dispersed at 11.45 p.m., each Brother anticipating a future happy meeting. So mote it be!

LATEST NOVELTY.
MASONIC CHARM FOR CHAIN.
The whole of the working Tools complete as above.
MOUNTED IN GOOD GOLD AND ORNAMENTALLY ENGRAVED.
To be had of the maker on receipt of 25s.
E. PELIKAN, Manufacturing Jeweller,
No. 102 St. John Street Road, London, E.C.
P.O.O. to be made payable at the St. John Street Road Office.

IVORY HAIR BRUSHES
Mirrors & all other Ivory Toilet Articles,

& IVORY GOODS IN GENERAL,
Wholesale & for Exportation & the Trade only.

AT HENNIG BROS. Ivory Works,
11, HIGH STREET, LONDON, W.C.

SYNOPSIS OF THE CHESS OPENINGS, a Tabulated Analysis By WILLIAM COOK, a member of the Bristol and Clifton Chess Association. Second Edition, with additions and emendations.

Demy 8vo, Price 7s 6d.

KEY TO THE CHESS OPENINGS, on a Novel Plan, Theoretically and Practically Considered, and Illustrated with Diagrams. By THOMAS LONG, Esq., B.A., Dublin University, and late Hon. Sec. to the City and County of Dublin Chess Club.

London: W. W. MORGAN, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C.

LADBROKE HALL, NOTTING HILL, LONDON, W.

(Opposite the Notting Hill Station of the Metropolitan Railway, from which Trains run every few minutes to all parts of London, and in connection with the principal Lines of Railway.)

THE ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED FOR LODGE MEETINGS IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE DISTRICT.

LARGE LODGE AND BANQUET ROOMS, WITH EVERY CONVENIENCE.

THE HALL MAY BE ENGAGED for BANQUETS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, DINNERS, PUBLIC or PRIVATE ENTERTAINMENTS, &c

Apply to Bro. J. LINSCOTT (at the Hall), 14 Ladbroke Grove Road, London, W.

Digitized by Google

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND.

ESTABLISHED for the purpose of providing situations for the Pupils on their leaving the Masonic Schools, and to help them generally in securing success in life; and for such other purposes of Masonic Charity as may be decided on by the subscribers.

PATRONS.

H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, K.G., Grand Master of England.
H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, K.G., Past Senior Grand Warden.
H.R.H. Prince Leopold, K.G., Past Junior Grand Warden.
His Grace the Duke of Abercorn, K.G., Grand Master of Ireland.
Sir Michael R. Shaw Stewart, Bart., Grand Master of Scotland.
The Right Hon. the Earl of Carnarvon, Pro Grand Master of England.
The Right Hon. Lord Skelmersdale, Deputy Grand Master of England.
The Right Hon. the Earl of Rosslyn, Past Grand Master of Scotland.
His Grace the Duke of Athole, Past Grand Master of Scotland.
The Right Hon. Lord Kensington, M.P., Senior Grand Warden.
Major-General the Hon. Somerset J. G. Calthorpe, Junior Grand Warden.
The Right Hon. Lord Richard Grosvenor Past Grand Warden.
The Right Hon. Lord Henniker ... ... ditto
Sir Harcourt Johnstone, Bart., M.P. ... ditto
The Right Hon. Lord Londesborough ... ditto
Haughton Charles Okeover ... ... ditto
Colonel William Stuart ... ... ditto
The Right Hon. Lord Inverurie, Senior Grand Warden (Scotland).
Rev. Charles William Spencer Stanhope, M.A., Grand Chaplain.
Rev. Sir John Warren Hayes, Bart. Past Grand Chaplain.
Rev. J. Huyshe ... ... ditto
Rev. R. J. Simpson ... ... ditto
Rev. W. F. Short ... ... ditto
Rev. C. W. Arnold ... ... ditto
Rev. J. W. Gleadall ... ... ditto
Rev. C. J. Martyn ... ... ditto
Rev. F. F. Ravenshaw ... ... ditto
Rev. Spencer R. Wigram ... ... ditto
Rev. A. F. A. Woodford ... ... ditto
Rev. Reginald Bird, M.A.... ... ... Senior Grand Deacon.
George Mellor ... ... ditto
Horatio Lloyd ... ... Junior Grand Deacon
Matthew Clark ... ... ditto
Dr. Jabez Hogg ... ... Past Grand Deacon
H. C. Tombs ... ... ditto
Ex-Sheriff George Burt ... ... Asst. Grand D. of Ceremonies
W. Hickman ... ... Past ditto
W. H. Lucia ... ... Past Grand S. Bearer
Dr. W. R. Woodman ... ... ditto
Hyde Clarke, Past Grand Master, and Rep. from G. L. Columbia.

The Provincial Grand Masters of—

Berks and Bucks	Northumberland
Derbyshire	Oxfordshire
Devonshire	Somersetshire
Hamps. and Isle of Wight	South Wales (West)
Hertfordshire	Suffolk
Kincardineshire	Surrey
Lancashire (East)	Sussex
,, (West)	Worcestershire
Leicestersh. and Rutlandsh.	Yorkshire (N. and E.)
Middlesex

Col. H. Peisley L'Estrange, Prov. G. Supt. Norfolk.

The Deputy Provincial Grand Masters of—

Berks and Bucks	Norths. and Hunts.
Cheshire	Northumberland
Derbyshire	Nottinghamshire
Dorsetshire	Oxfordshire
Essex	Somersetshire
Gloucestershire	South Wales (West)
Hampsh. and Isle of Wight	Suffolk
Hertfordshire	Surrey
Lancashire (East)	Sussex
Leicestersh. and Rutlandsh.	Worcestershire
Middlesex	Yorkshire (West)

A. M. Broadley, Deputy District Grand Master, Malta.
The Right Hon. Lord Carington.
Baron de Ferrieres, Prov. G. Reg. Gloucestershire.
Sir John Bennett, C.C.
Sir Philip Cunliffe Owen, K.C.M.G., C.B.
Sir Frederick Perkins, M.P.
Sir Francis Wyatt Truscott, Lord Mayor of London.
Rev. George Raymond Portal P.G.M.M.M.
The Editors of the Freemason, the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE, the Rosicrucian, the Scottish Freemason.

&c., &c., &c.

A SPECIAL APPEAL is made to the brethren throughout the country on behalf of this Fund. It is hoped that the preliminary arrangements will be completed early in the year 1880, and that the Committee will immediately be enabled to confer the benefits contemplated by the founders.

Names of Brethren willing to act as Stewards, or otherwise assist in the foundation of the Fund, together with contributions, may be sent to

DICK RADCLYFFE, 129 High Holborn, London,
W. WRAY MORGAN Jun. Freemason's Chronicle Office,
} Secretaries.

Or to the

Rev. C. J. MARTYN, Long Melford, Suffolk } Treasurer.

BANKERS: The Bank of England, Burlington Gardens, London, W.

"A suitable gift from a Master to his Lodge."

NEATLY BOUND IN CLOTH, PRICE 8s 6d EACH.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

VOLUMES 1 to 10.

Sent, Carriage Paid, to any address in the United Kingdom, on receipt of Cheque or P.O.O.

SCALE OF CHARGES FOR ADVERTISEMENTS.

Per Page... ... ... £8 0 0
Back Page £10 0 0

Births, Marriages and Deaths, 1s per line.

General Advertisements, Trade Announcements, &c. single column, 5s per inch. Double Column Advertisements 1s per line. Special Terms for a Series of Insertions on application.

Advertisers will find THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE an exceptionally good medium for Advertisements of every class.

Second Series, now ready, Crown 8vo, Cloth, price 3s 6d, post free.

MASONIC PORTRAITS.

SKETCHES

OF

DISTINGUISHED FREEMASONS.

REPRINTED FROM "THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE."

BY G. BLIZARD ABBOTT, OF LODGE No. 1385,

ASSOCIATE OF KING'S COLLEGE, LONDON.

—:o:—

LIST OF PORTRAITS.

NESTOR
(Bro. W. Hyde Pullen, 33 deg., Past G.S.B., Past Dep. P.G.M. Hants, Assistant Secretary Sup. Council A. and A. Rite.)

THE STATESMAN
(The Right Hon. Earl of Carnarvon, 33 deg., Pro Grand Master, Pro Grand Z., Past G.M.M.M., and Past M.P.S.G. Commander A. and A. Rite.

THE TREASURER
(Bro. F. Adlard, P.M. and Treasurer Royal York Lodge of Perseverance, No. 7).

THE DEPUTY
(The Right Hon. Lord Skelmersdale, 33 deg., Deputy G. Master, Grand H., G.M.M.M., Great Prior of the Temple, and M.P. Sov. G. Commander A. and A. Rite.)

A PROVINCIAL MAGNATE
(Bro. W. W. B. Beach, M.P., Prov. G.M. and G. Sup. Hants and Isle of Wight, Past G.M.M.M., and Prov. G. Prior of the Temple, for Hants).

TIME-HONOURED LANCASTER
(Bro. J. Lancaster Hine, P. Prov. G.S. Warden East Lancashire).

THE SCHOLAR
(Bro. John Newton, F.R.A.S., P.M., P.Z., Author of Works on Navigation).

OUR NOBLE CRITIC
(The Right Hon. Lord Leigh, 30 deg, Prov. G.M. and G. Sup. Warwickshire, Past G.M.M.M.)

OUR PERIPATETIC BROTHER
(Bro. C. Fitz Gerald Matier, 30 deg., G. Steward Scotland, and Past G.S. Warden Greece).

A BOLTON LUMINARY
(Bro. G. Parker Brockbank, 31 deg., Past Prov. G.S.D., and P. Prov. G. Treas. [Arch] E. Lancashire.

A WARDEN OF THE FENS
(The late Bro. John Sutcliffe, Past Prov. G.S. Warden, and Prov. G.M.M.M. Lincolnshire).

A WARDEN OF MARK
(The Right Hon. the Earl of Donoughmore, 33 deg., Past G.S. Warden, and Dep. G.M.M.M).

A MASTER OF CEREMONIAL
(Bro. Thos. Entwisle, 30 deg., Past Prov. G.S. of Works E. Lan.)

OUR COSMOPOLITAN BROTHER
(Bro. Samuel Rawson, 33 deg., Past Dist. G.M. and G. Sup. China).

A GREAT ARITHMETICIAN
(Bro. R. B. Webster, Member of the Finance and Audit Committees of the R.M. Girls' and Boys' Schools.)

AN INSTALLING MASTER
(Bro. W. Biggs, Past Prov. G.S.W. Wilts, and Past Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks).

A VETERAN
(Bro. W. Kelly, Past Prov. G.M. and Prov. G. Sup. Leicestershire and Rutland, Prov. G.M.M.M. Leicestershire).

A GRAND STEWARD
(Bro. John Wordsworth, 30 deg., Past G. Steward, Past Prov. G.J.W. W. Yorkshire, and Prov. G.M.M.M. W. Yorkshire).

VIR Veritas
(Bro. G. Ward Verry, P.M and Past Prov. Grand. Soj. [Arch] Herts).

ACHILLES
(Bro. E. J. Morris, Past G.J.D., and Past Dep. Prov. G.M. of Eastern Division of South Wales).

A DEVON CRAFTSMAN
(Bro. J. E. Curtois, 30 deg., Past Prov. G.S. Warden Devon).

SIR RHADAMANTH
(Bro. J. M. Pulteney Montagu, J.P., D.L., 33 deg., G. J. Deacon, Past Dep. Prov. G.M. and Prov. G. Sup. Dorsetshire, and G. Chancellor Supreme Council A. and A. Rite).

HIPPOCRATES
(Bro. J. Pearson Bell, M.D., Past G. Deacon, Dep. Prov. G.M. and Prov. G. Sup. N. and E. Yorkshire).

A CESTRIAN CHIEF
(The Right Hon Lord de Tabley, Past G.S.W., Prov. G.M. Cheshire, Grand J., and Prov. G. Sup. Cheshire).

A HARBINGER OF PEACE
(Bro. Charles Lacey, P.M., Past Prov. G.J.D. Herts).

THE LORD OF UNDERLEY
(The Earl of Bective, M.P., Prov. G.M., Prov. G. Sup., and Prov. G.M.M.M. Cumberland and Westmoreland, and Past. G. Sov. of the Order of Rome and Red Cross of Constantine).

A BOON COMPANION
(Bro. E. C. Woodward, P.M. 382, 1637, &c.)

A GRAND SUPERINTENDENT
(Sir Daniel Gooch, Bart., M.P., 30 deg., Prov. G.M. and G. Sup. Berks and Bucks).

ÆSCULAPIUS
(Bro. J. Daniel Moore, M.D., 33 deg., Past G.S.B., Craft, and Past G.St.B., Arch, Intendant General Order of Rome and Red Cross of Constantine for North Lancashire).

Uniform with above, price 3s 6d, Crown 8vo, cloth, gilt.

MASONIC PORTRAITS,

FIRST SERIES.

REPRINTED FROM "THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE."

—:o:—

LIST OF THE PORTRAITS.

1 OUR LITERARY BROTHER.
2 A DISTINGUISHED MASON.
3 THE MAN OF ENERGY.
4 FATHER TIME.
5 A CORNER STONE.
6 THE CRAFTSMAN.
7 THE GOWNSMAN.
8 AN EASTERN STAR.
9 THE KNIGHT ERRANT.
10 THE OCTOGENARIAN.
11 A ZEALOUS OFFICER.
12 THE SOLDIER.
13 FROM UNDER THE CROWN.
14 OUR HERCULES.
15 A MERCHANT PRINCE.
16 THE CHURCHMAN.
17 THE CHRISTIAN MINISTER.
18 THE MYSTIC.
19 A MODEL MASON.
20 A CHIP FROM JOPPA
21 A PILLAR OF MASONRY.
22 BAYARD.
23 A RIGHT HAND MAN.
24 OUR CITIZEN BROTHER.
25 AN ABLE PRECEPTOR.
26 AN ANCIENT BRITON.
27 THE ARTIST.
28 THE FATHER OF THE LODGE.
29 A SHINING LIGHT.
30 AN ART STUDENT.
31 THE MARINER.
32 A SOLDIER OF FORTUNE.
33. "OLD MUG."

London: W. W. MORGAN.

By Order of all Booksellers, or will be sent direct, by post, from the Office, 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

Digitized by Google

CANNON STREET HOTEL, CANNON STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Has been thoroughly renovated; the Railway advantages, in direct communication with the Hotel, render this establishment unequalled in the Metropolis for

MASONIC BANQUETS, PUBLIC & PRIVATE DINNERS, BREAKFASTS, &c.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENTS, PUBLIC MEETINGS, ARBITRATIONS, &c.

THE LARGE HALL IS CAPABLE OF SEATING UPWARDS OF TWELVE HUNDRED PEOPLE.

VISITORS AND FAMILIES visiting LONDON, for LONG or SHORT PERIODS, will find the APPOINTMENTS, and ACCOMMODATION UNRIVALLED.

E. H. RAND, MANAGER.

ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY Limited, 7 Bank Buildings, Lothbury, E.C.

General accidents. Railway accidents. | Personal injuries. Death by accident.

C. HARDING, Manager.

RHEUMATISM.

THE only real remedy for this complaint is the Northern Cure (patent). In bottles 1s 1½d each, to be had of all Chemists. Proprietors and Manufacturers, Edwards and Alexander, 29 Blackett-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

GEO. JONES,

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT MANUFACTURER and IMPORTER, 350 and 481 Commercial Road, London, E. Price List of every description of Instruments post free. Established 1850.

TAMAR INDIEN.

SPECIAL CAUTION.

OWING to the marked success of this medicine, the only patent medicine universally prescribed by the faculty, and the acknowledged cure for constipation, headache, bile, haemorrhoids, &c., BASE IMITATIONS, containing drastic irritants, are being foisted on the public. The genuine preparation bears the title "Tamar Indien," and the signature E. GRILLON, Coleman-st., London, E.C. Price 2s 6d per box. In a recent case, 1876, G. No. 211, a perpetual injunction to restrain the defendant from applying the name "Tamar" to his lozenges was awarded, with costs, by Vice-Chancellor Bacon, on 19th January 1877, and all such piracies will be summarily proceeded against.——N.B.—See that the outer wrapper (directions) are printed in the English language and that each box bears the Government 3d stamp.

MEMORY EXTRAORDINARY BY CORRESPONDENCE.—Particulars post free of Bro. William Stokes, Teacher of Memory, Royal Polytechnic, 309 Regent-street, London, W. Private lessons by appointment. Class on Tuesdays, 3 and 8.30. The System complete in Three Lessons. "Stokes on Memory," by post 14 stamps. Memory Globe, 14 stamps.

New Edition, Enlarged, Crown 8vo., Cloth 5s.

WAIFS AND STRAYS, CHIEFLY FROM THE CHESS BOARD, by Captain Hugh R. Kennedy, Vice-President of the British Chess Association.

W. W. MORGAN, 23 GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON.

HOTELS, ETC.

EALING—Feathers Hotel

EASTBOURNE—Pier Hotel, Cavendish Place. View of Sea and Pier. A. TAYLOR Proprietor

KEW—Star and Garter. Good accommodation for Lodge & Dinner Parties. J. BRILL Proprietor

SANDWICH—Bell Family and Commercial Hotel. Good Stabling. J. J. FILMER Proprietor

WOOD GREEN—Kings Arms Hotel. A. B. GREENSLADE Proprietor

YORK—Queen's Family and Commercial Hotel, Micklegate. H. CHURCHILL Proprietor

LONDON.

CALTHORPE ARMS—252 Gray's Inn Road, W.C. Billiards, Pool, Pyramids, &c. Best Wines and Spirits. W. H. G. RUDDERFORTH Proprietor

CANNING TOWN—Liverpool Arms. J. PAVITT. Friars L. of Instruction, 1349, Tuesdays at 7.30

GREEN DRAGON—Spring Garden-place, Stepney Wines and Spirits of the best quality. Billiards. Banquets provided for large or small parties. Yarborough L. & C. 554, and Temple Mark L. 173 held here. Lodge of Instruc. (554) meets every Tuesday at 8. A. WALTER Proprietor

MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT—Moorgate Street, E.C. Hot and Cold Dinners, &c. Chops and Steaks. Good accommodation for Lodge Meetings, &c. A. KENT Proprietor

NEW MARKET HOTEL—King Street, Snow Hill, E.C. Good accommodation for Club and other Banquets. Wines and Spirits of best quality. Specially licensed for Masonic Balls. Lodges 1623 and 1677 are held here. Strong Man No. 45 and West Smithfield No. 1623 Lodges of Instruction, meet here, every Monday at 8 p.m. Thomas BUTT Proprietor

SAWYER'S (late Station) RESTAURANT, 5 Railway Place, Fenchurch Street, E.C. English, French, and German Cuisine. Wines of the best quality. Hot and Cold Luncheons, Chops, Steaks, &c. Tea and Coffee. F. J. SAWYER (late of Pimm's and Crystal Palace) Proprietor

---

BILLIARD BALLS, Chalks, Cues, and Tips, at HENNIG BROS.' Ivory Works, 11 High Street, London, W.C. Cheapest house in the trade for billiard-table requisites and ivory goods in general. Old balls adjusted or exchanged, and tables recovered. Price Lists on application. Established 1862.

W. BEASLEY,

Bespoke Boot Maker,

23 Queen Victoria Street.

HUNTING, RIDING, DRESS AND BOOTS FOR THE MOORS,

MADE IN A FEW DAYS.

Specialité—Hand Sewn and Standard Screwed.

C. HUBBARD,

Plain & Fancy Box & Pattern CARD MANUFACTURER.

139 & 141 NEW NORTH ROAD, AND 64 SHAFTESBURY ST., LONDON, N.

ROCHESTER & FOX,

Post and Job Masters,

799 COMMERCIAL ROAD, E. AND 81 JUBILEE STREET, MILE END, E.

Carriages of every description on hire.

SUPERIOR WEDDING CARRIAGES.

MASONIC JEWELS FOR ALL DEGREES.

MINIATURE WAR MEDALS AND DECORATIONS.

ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD IN ALL SIZES.

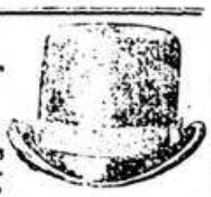
ATHLETIC SPORTS MEDALS AND BADGES.

A. D. LOEWENSTARK & SONS, Medallists, 210 STRAND, LONDON, W.C.

MANUFACTORY—1 DEVEREUX COURT, STRAND.

J. FORTESCUE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,



129 FLEET ST.; 114 & 115 SHOE LANE,

(One door from Fleet Street)

6 EXMOUTH STREET, CLERKENWELL, E.C.

And 143 Mare Street, Triangle, Hackney

Gents' Silk Hats from 5/6 each. Second best 6/6 7/6 8/6 Superfine quality, 10/6 12/6 & 16/. The very best made 21/. Felt Hats, hard and soft, in all the newest shapes, from 3/6 to 10/6.

ADAM S. MATHER,

GAS ENGINEER, GENERAL GAS FITTER AND BELL HANGER

MANUFACTURER OF BILLIARD LIGHTS

AND OF EVERY DESCRIPTION OF GAS APPARATUS FOR COOKING AND HEATING

Bath Rooms Fitted up. All the Latest Improvements Introduced.

MANUFACTORY—12 CHARLES STREET, HATTON GARDEN, E.C.;

AND AT 278 CALEDONIAN ROAD, ISLINGTON, N.

ESTIMATES GIVEN.

HOUGHTON,

THE BOOT MAKER,

243 & 244 WHITECHAPEL ROAD,

LONDON, E.

Lasts made to the Feet.

—:o:—

SPECIALITÉ,

EASE, ELEGANCE AND DURABILITY.

A. LAZARUS,

MERCHANT TAILOR AND Juvenile Clothier,

CORNER OF

WORSHIP ST., SHOREDITCH, E., AND 51 LIVERPOOL STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Patterns and Rules for Self Measurement post free.

PIANOFORTES AND HARMONIUMS ON EASY TERMS.

GROVER & GROVER

LET ON HIRE, WITH OPTION OF PURCHASE,

BEAUTIFUL AND PERFECT INSTRUMENTS.

PURCHASERS CHOOSE THEIR OWN TERMS,

FROM 15s TO £3 3s PER QUARTER.

The Advantages of a Trial, with the Convenience of the Three Years' System at Cash Price, by Paying about a Quarter of the value down, the Balance by Easy Payments, from 15s per quarter.

GROVER & GROVER, 157-9 Kingsland Road.

ESTABLISHED 1830.

Bro. A. OLDROYD, Stratford, London,

MANUFACTURER OF TOBACCO POUCHES,

With any name in raised letters.

CAN be obtained direct from the Maker, at the undermentioned prices, on receipt of P.O.O. payable at Stratford.

	Price	Will take a name of
No. 3	3/0 ...	9 letters
,, 4	3/6 ...	11 ,,
,, 5	3/0 ...	12 ,,
,, 6	3/6 ...	13 ,,
,, 7	4/0 ...
,, 8	4/6 ...
,, 9	5/0 ...

A. OLDROYD,

Agent for Algerian Cigars, and Importer of Havana and Continental Cigars,

64 HIGH STREET, STRATFORD, LONDON, E.

Digitized by Google

EDWARD STILLWELL AND SON,

25, 26 and 27 BARBICAN, AND 6 LITTLE BRITAIN, LONDON,
109 ARGYLE STREET, GLASGOW,

Gold Lacemen, Embroiderers and Sword Cutlers,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Masonic Fittings for Lodges, Chapters and Encampments.

CLOTHING, JEWELS (PINS, STUDS AND RINGS), FOR EVERY DEGREE.
Aprons, Sashes, Horns, Ornaments and Banners for Foresters, Odd Fellows, Orangemen, Free Gardeners, &c.
REGALIA FOR I.O.G.T. AND ALL SOCIETIES.

LIBERAL TERMS TO SHIPPERS.

H. T. LAMB,

MANUFACTURER OF

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND REGALIA,

5 ST. JOHN SQUARE, LONDON.

PRICE LIST, CONTAINING 120 ILLUSTRATIONS, POST FREE ON APPLICATION.

JOSEPH J. CANEY,

DIAMOND MERCHANT, AND MANUFACTURING JEWELLER AND WATCH MAKER,
44 CHEAPSIDE, LONDON.
MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND FURNITURE.
Specialité—First Class Jewels—Artistic—Massive—Best Quality—Moderate in Price
CATALOGUES POST FREE.
A LARGE STOCK OF LOOSE BRILLIANTS FOR EXPENSIVE JEWELS.
Diamond Rings, Brooches, Studs, Earrings and Bracelets in Great Variety.

J. E. SHAND & CO.

Wine Merchants,

(Experts and Valuers of Wines and Spirits,)
2 ALBERT MANSIONS, VICTORIA ST., LONDON, S.W.

PRICES DELIVERED IN LONDON.

SHERRIES	21s, 24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s	SPARKLING MOSELLES	42s, 48s, 54s
PORTS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	CHAMPAGNES	36s, 42s, 48s, 54s, 60s
CLARETS	12s, 16s, 18s, 20s, 24s, 26s	BURGUNDY	18s, 20s, 24s, 36s, 42s
STILL HOCKS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s	BRANDIES	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s, 66s
SPARKLING do	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s	WHISKIES	20s per gall., 42s per doz.

COUNTRY ORDERS OVER £3 CARRIAGE FREE.

"Sparkling Sauterne," 1875 Vintage—Delicious New Sparkling Wine, Sec. and Extra Sec. 42s per doz.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.

WARD'S

INVALID CHAIR AND CARRIAGE MANUFACTORY,

From SAVILLE HOUSE, LEICESTER SQUARE,

To 246 & 247 TOTTENHAM COURT ROAD, LONDON.

THE ONLY PRIZE MEDAL for INVALID FURNITURE was gained by JOHN WARD, at the London Exhibitions, 1851 and 1862; Paris, 1855 and 1867; Dublin, 1865; Vienna, 1873; 2 Silver Medals, Paris, 1878.

JOHN WARD, Manufacturer by Special Appointment to the Queen and Royal Family, the Empresses of France, Austria, Russia, &c.

INVALID CHAIRS and CARRIAGES for SALE or HIRE from JOHN WARD. Established 150 years. Drawings and price lists free on application.

FIELD'S

Fish Carvers, Fish Eating Knives and Forks, Revolving Covered Soup and Luncheon Dishes.

SPECIALITIES FOR TESTIMONIALS, TEA AND COFFEE SERVICES,
SALVERS, DESSERT KNIVES AND FORKS, GILT AND OXYDIZED GOODS.

77 (from 28) Cheapside, London, E.C.
(NEAR THE POULTRY.)

MORING,

ENGRAVER, DIE SINKER,
HERALDIC ARTIST, -
ILLUMINATED ADDRESSES,
44, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST POST FREE.

ADLARD'S JEWEL ATTACHER 7/6.
If with Pockets, 6d each Pocket extra.

225 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

JANES & SON

WINDOW BLINDS ONLY,

WHOLESALE,
ALDERSGATE STREET, CITY, E.C.
BRANCH—
4 EAGLE PLACE, PICCADILLY
THESE ADDRESSES ONLY.

YOUNG'S Arnicated Corn and Bunion Plaisters are the best ever invented for giving immediate ease, and removing those painful excrescences. Price 6d and 1s per box. Any Chemist not having them in stock can procure them.

Observe the Trade Mark—H. Y.—without which none are genuine. Be sure and ask for Young's.

Horticultural Decorations, Ferneries, Window Gardening, Seeds, Bulbs, Plants, Ferns, PLANTS FOR DECORATIONS. Masonic Banquets, Balls, &c.

DICK RADCLYFFE & CO., F.R.H.S.

PRIZE MEDAL SEEDS.

129 HIGH HOLBORN. W.C.

TABLE DECORATIONS, Ball Room Decorations, Seeds for Export. Illustrated Catalogues gratis and post free. Seeds, Bulbs, &c., carefully packed for Export.

NEW MASONIC ROOMS,

COMPLETE SUITE,
SPECIALLY ARRANGED
LODGE, BANQUETTING,
AND ANTE ROOMS,
ALL ON ONE FLOOR.
Particulars to be had of

BRO. A. KENT, MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT,
OPPOSITE RAILWAY STATION.
From which trains run at frequent intervals in connection with the Great Northern, Midland, Great Western, London Chatham & Dover, and Metropolitan Railways.

Printed for the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE PUBLISHING COMPANY LIMITED, and Published by Bro. WILLIAM WRAY MORGAN JUN., at 23 Great Queen Street, London W.C., Saturday, 17th January 1880.

Digitized by Google

THE

Freemason's Chronicle;

A WEEKLY RECORD OF MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

SANCTIONED BY THE GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

Registered at the G.P.O. as a Newspaper.

VOL. XI.—No. 265. SATURDAY, 24th JANUARY 1880. [Issued to Subscribers only. 13s 6d per annum, post free.

UNIFORMITY OF MASONIC RITUAL AND OBSERVANCE.

WHEN we received from Bro. James Stevens his letter of the 6th inst., which was published in our issue of the 10th, we could but regret with him that it should be necessary to write in such strains of his brother Masons. Of course those who oppose his efforts have a perfect right to use what means they like to strengthen their cause, but we think they go too far when they descend so low as to lay themselves open to the charge of misrepresenting the facts of the case. As Bro. Stevens points out, he has asked for and obtained the sanction of Grand Lodge for the appointment of a Committee to make enquiry if there really are any material variations in the working of English Lodges, and if they find there are, they will recommend to Grand Lodge what course they propose in order to prevent a continuance of the deviation. Surely this should not be a sufficient reason for disagreement between any brethren or sections of brethren, rather all should be united in such a cause. So far we fail to see any motive for the opposition which should entitle it to a minute's consideration. If the Committee is appointed, we suppose the meetings of its members will be publicly announced, and that any qualified brother will be allowed admission to the debates. It will, therefore, be as easy for the opponents to attend as for those who support the project, and each will then learn for himself the value of the evidence adduced. It may be asked, do the brethren who now oppose the appointment of the Committee desire that variations should continue—if proved to exist? We think not; we believe that all would prefer the adoption of one uniform system, so far as the main points of our ceremonies are concerned. What, then, can be the reason for trying to prevent the appointment of the Committee to make enquiry? It is not as though the Committee were to be entrusted with power to make alterations in the ritual, that would be a matter for the serious consideration of the Craft, and we should most strongly oppose any such power being given to a few members; but nothing of the sort is here contemplated; the work of the Committee is merely to ascertain if there be any foundation for the remarks of Bro. Stevens. If they find there is, it then becomes a question whether they consider them of sufficient importance to be taken notice of; but if they find there is not, the whole subject is disposed of, and Bro. Stevens assures us that he will rest content. The real point which will require consideration at the hands of Grand Lodge will be to decide what shall be done with the Committee's recommendations—provided they may deem it necessary to make any. Until they give their report we cannot see why the efforts of Bro. Stevens, endorsed by the majority present at a large meeting of Grand Lodge, should be impeded or ridiculed. No brother need fear that he will be nominated for the Committee against his wish, nor do we suppose it will be compulsory for him to attend the meetings even if he is appointed, so that it cannot be urged that any serious labour will be entailed on any one unless they desire it. It must be admitted by all who are unprejudiced that if divergencies in the Masonic system, such as were named by Bro. Stevens at the last meeting of Grand Lodge, really do exist, there is reason in his endeavour to have the Committee appointed; and we see no reason to suppose that he has put forward statements that if untrue can easily be proved as such. The first question the Committee will have to decide will be whether there was any need for their appointment; and as they will have the means of gathering any evidence they may wish for, it should not be any serious task to decide that point. Having done so, the reception of the evidence follows as a matter of course.

Bro. James Stevens is now actively engaged in the preparation of the list of names which he has to submit to Grand Lodge at its next meeting. He has sent us a circular letter, a copy of which, he tells us, has been sent to the Secretary of each of the English Provinces, asking if it be the wish of their district to be represented on the proposed Committee. By this means Bro. Stevens invites the co-operation of the whole of the English brotherhood, and it is to be hoped he will thereby secure a good working committee. It is not for him to say who shall be appointed, but as he has been called upon to nominate certain brethren, it may be imagined that the task virtually rests with him. It is, therefore, desirable that every facility should be afforded for brethren to be enrolled, and for this purpose we advise Bro. Stevens to invite propositions from Lodges or brethren who may be interested in the matter. We are sure that no question of feeling will be allowed to interfere with the subject, so far as Bro. Stevens is concerned, and we hope those who now differ with him will, if they continue their opposition, adopt only such measures as become gentlemen and Freemasons.

PROJECTED EXTENSION OF THE GIRLS' SCHOOL.

THE January Quarterly General Court of the Girls' School stands adjourned until twelve o'clock to-day, at which time the minutes of the Special General Court of the 3rd instant, relating to the vote of £6,500 for the purchase of Lyncombe House and grounds, will be again put for confirmation. It is imposaible to predict what will be the result, as both those who propose the purchase, and those who oppose it, seem determined to press their views to the end. If the vote is confirmed to-day, and the purchase effected, the brethren will have to submit to it, but we fear that the outlay will prove to be one of the most unfortunate ever undertaken on behalf of our Charities.

In support of their case, the opposers of the grant have sought professional opinions as to the value of the property, and as a result have received the following letters:—

25 and 26 Bishopsgate-street-without,
14th January 1880.

I beg to say that the property in question, at £6,500, ought to produce a rental of £325 per annum to pay 5 per cent. on the outlay, and this is calculated upon the mere expenditure of the money, without taking into consideration any additional expense for law charges, stamps, &c. But should the proposed vendor decide to carry out his threat in erecting houses upon the present site, he would destroy his own property, represented to be of the above value, and in substitution thereof upon the site could only obtain room enough for some twenty very small houses, with contracted frontages and depths, which would make the ground rent upon each house £16 1s per annum, and this is presuming it had an available building frontage. But should a road and sewer have to be constructed, this will lessen the number of houses and increase the ground rent. I think, under the circumstances, that the Committee and the Governors of the Charity should not be hoodwinked in this matter, as no man would be insane enough to ruin, in its present form, a valuable property, to erect houses, or shops upon them, at ground rents that no one would think of taking the land upon.

Digitized by Google

Should you desire a detailed report and valuation, I should be most happy to furnish you with the same.

J. W. KLENCK,
Surveyor and Valuer.

High-street, Clapham, S.W., 12th January 1880.

Whilst I think that no fair opportunity should be lost for extending the necessary accommodation for the Schools, and protecting the property from deterioration, through contiguous building operations, I am quite amazed at the facility with which the owner of Lyncombe House has obtained the offer of so large a sum as £6,500 for what I cannot believe to be worth more than £4,500, at the very outside. If I have any knowledge of this locality at all, as a house and land agent of nearly thirty years' experience, there has never yet been given, even for accommodation purposes, so extreme a price for such premises and three quarters of an acre only of land. In this respect I am entirely against the purchase, but, on the other hand, should not like to see the Masonic property closely surrounded by small houses. The Committee probably know best as to the prospects of entire disappointment if they had delayed their proposal to purchase, but in my opinion Mr. Evill would have delayed carrying out his design in respect of building whilst he had the chance of getting a little more from them than the value of the ground rents he could have created by building small property.

JAMES STEVENS,
House and Land Agent.

---

51 London Wall, E.C., 19th January 1880.

I am quite certain you have only to invite a valuation of the property by any of the brethren in the profession, and they would readily certify to the monstrous absurdity of paying the sum of £6,500 for such property. If the present letting value on lease were taken at £150 (quite an outside figure), that, at twenty years' purchase, would give only £3,000. Should the present owner build, as it is stated he is about to do, there is no possibility of his creating a ground rent on that piece of land of more than £150, if so much, and that, taken at even 25 years' purchase, gives a value of only £3,750, which clearly shows that the price now asked is beyond reason. Supposing that urgent necessities of the School warranted giving an advance on this price of say 10 per cent., the fact remains that even that fancy price shows only £4,125 against the proposed expenditure of £6,500.

GEORGE NEWMAN,
Auctioneer and Valuer.

CORRESPONDENCE.

—:o:—

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents.

We cannot undertake to return rejected communications.

All Letters must bear the name and address of the Writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

THE GIRLS' SCHOOL.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—When will the Provincial Life Governors and Subscribers to our Charities shake off the lethargy and carelessness which seems to have taken possession of them?

When will the spirit of enquiry move amongst them, and a desire to know something of the Institutions of Charity, of which they may be justly proud, and yet so ignorant, manifest itself?

It is not sufficient to give and leave all further consideration with the Charity Steward. Careless relief is an injustice and a waste in any organisation, but reckless extravagance with Charity Funds is a sin. It behoves every brother to see that the funds to which he may subscribe are rightly disbursed.

Surely the present action of the Treasurer and Committee of the Girls' School, in—

Proposing illegally to spend £6,500 for the purchase of Lyncombe House and Grounds; in—

Illegally calling a meeting to consider that proposition; and—

In illegally endeavouring to confirm their proceedings, will stir them (Prov. L.G. and Subscribers) up. Let every member of the Craft interested in this Institution get a copy of the bye-laws (if possible), and learn the objects of the Society, and let him inquire into and examine the Treasurer's accounts and balance sheets of the past three years. He will be amazed to find how monies have been spent on matters beyond the intention of the Founders (as shown by bye-laws), how relief as intended by them is entirely neglected, and it will be apparent to the most careless amongst us, that a reform is necessary, or a severance of the Provinces from the London Institutions will become inevitable.

Hundreds of Life Governors of this Institution to-day know nothing of this intended expenditure, and if told about it would ask—

Why cannot we be informed about all proceedings connected with the Institution?

Ah, why not! Reform is wanted here. They might, and I have little doubt the majority would ask—

What can I do to prevent this expenditure? and with this question the enquirer would find need for further reform. He would find that as a Subscriber, he is a member of the Quarterly General Courts, and as a Life Governor he is further a member of the General Committee, but since there is no provision for his representation at these meetings by proxy, it will be necessary for him to go to London and personally record his vote, if he is to have any voice in the management of the funds of the Institution to which he has subscribed.

Qy?—Should not this be altered?

Last year I casually heard that a Sub-Committee had been appointed to consider some alterations of the bye-laws of the Girls' Institution, and in the hope that some better and more just representation of the Provinces would be a part of the plan, I eagerly watched for the reports in the Masonic papers. When seen, I was not surprised to find that the Provinces were still kept from meddling with the pet schemes of the Committee (except by costly attendances, with the certainty of being out-voted); but I was astonished to find the following in the report of Quarterly Court of Girls' Institution of the Freemason of 18th January 1879:—

"Bros. Tattershall and Peacock having expressed an opinion that sufficient time had not been given to the members of the Court to consider the proposed alterations of bye-laws,"

"Bro. the Rev. A. F. A. Woodford P.G.C., on the contrary, thought sufficient time had been granted. He thought the proposal of Bro. Tattershall involved more than that brother thought he conveyed. The Court to-day was to consider alterations which had been proposed by a Sub-Committee, and which had been appointed for the express purpose of deciding upon some alterations which had been printed, and a printed copy sent some time ago to every member of the Court. . . . He opposed the proposition of Bro. Tattershall, on the ground that there were a great many brethren, who like him (Bro. Woodford) had come perfectly prepared to consider the alteration."

Bro. the Rev. A. F. A. Woodford here seems to speak with authority on behalf of the Sub-Committee, and asserts that "a printed copy had been sent some time ago to every member of the Court."

Clause 29 of Bye-laws provides—"Quarterly General Courts consisting of all donors, including annual Subscribers, shall be held, &c."

As a Life Governor, I received no such copy, nor had I any notice of proposed alteration, and I can find other sixty Life Governors in my town, who must also have been forgotten.

I feel assured that if the Provincial Life Governors and Subscribers were in possession of all the facts concerning this proposed purchase, and had the power to record their opinions by proxy, they would strongly and unmistakably oppose any further expenditure in buildings or land, and would insist on the education and relief of the thirty poor girls unable to gain admission at the last election, out of the establishment, as provided by rules specially applicable to such cases on page 17 of Bye-laws.

Yours fraternally,

V. S. P.

West Yorkshire,
14th January 1880.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—My attention has been directed to your report of the proceedings at the Quarterly General Court of the Girls' School, in which my interview with the Treasurer prior to the special meeting of 3rd January is particularly referred to, and as silence on my part might be considered as admission that my communication as to counsel's opinion had not been properly represented, I must depart from my usual custom of avoiding newspaper correspondence by asking you to insert these few lines in correction.

The object of my interview with Col. Creaton was to give the fullest possible effect to the advice of Mr. Locock Webb, Q.C., whose opinion you have already published, and to avoid, if possible, any necessity for further appeal even to the Trustees. With this view I read Counsel's opinion at length, and as "amicus curiæ" advised the withdrawal of the resolution, and having done so I considered it unnecessary to attend the Court to make that opinion public. I left the Treasurer perfectly free to make any use he might desire of the information I had given him, or to withdraw or postpone the proposition on any ground he pleased. The resolution having been pressed to a division and declared carried, I was advised by Counsel to bring the facts and opinion to the knowledge of the Trustees, and in doing so I expressed regret that my personal communication to the Treasurer had been disregarded. I could not have done this if the information had been withheld at my request. In acting as I have done, I have acted only as the solicitor for my clients, on whose behalf the case was laid before Mr. Locock Webb, and individually I have nothing to do with the matter.

Yours fraternally,

JOHN THOMAS MOSS.

38 Gracechurch-street, 20th January 1880.

BRO. WILSON AND THE BOYS' SCHOOL.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—A weaker and more disingenuous attempt to support a lame position I have seldom seen than that made by Bro. Roebuck in his letter published in The Freemason of this date, respecting my disagreement with the House Committee of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys—its weakness must be apparent to every one who has read the correspondence on the subject, and its disingenuousness must be acknowledged when it becomes known that the second paragraph is only a partial statement of the facts.

Bro. Roebuck says, "Mr. Wilson was repeatedly invited to attend the House Committee, to give an explanation of a certain charge in one of the estimates, but at the last moment he always sent some excuse, either through important business or otherwise, which prevented his doing so," but he omits to state that as soon as I knew what the information was that the House Committee required I sent them a written explanation, and also forwarded them the written opinion of a distinguished architect on the subject, which not only fully sustained the charges I had made, but, moreover, showed that they were less than I should have been justified in making. I also, at the request of the Secretary of the Institution, and at great personal inconvenience to myself, attended a subsequent meeting at Wood Green, viz.: on the 22nd of November 1878, for the express purpose of giving any further information the House Committee might require, but I was neither asked into the Committee room, nor did any of the members put any questions to me on the subject.

Digitized by Google

Bro. Roebuck should recollect that a partial statement often leads to as much misconstruction of the facts of a case as would a direct untruth.

I remain, Dear Sir and Brother,

Yours faithfully and fraternally,

S. B. WILSON.

27 Walbrook, E.C., 17th January 1880.

YORK MARK LODGE (T.I.)

THE Installation Meeting of this healthy Lodge took place last Tuesday, at York, when there was a good muster of officers and brethren. At 6.30 the W.M. Bro. the Hon. W. T. Orde-Powlett assumed the chair, supported by the following brethren—G. Balmford P.M., T. B. Whytehead P.M. and Sec., Rev. W. Valentine S.W., J. Hollins J.W., Rev. W. C. Lukis Chaplain, J. S. Cumberland M.O., C. G. Padel S.O., G. Garbutt J.O., M. Millington S.D., A. T. B. Turner J.D., T. Humphries as I.G., T. G. Hodgson Org., P. Pearson Tyler; R. Ware, W. H. Gainforth, W. P. Husband, T. W. Wilson, T. D. Smith, W. Lackenby, E. J. de Salis, G. Irving, and the following visitors—Bro. Rev. J. Blake (No. 1 Chapter, Edin.), J. T. Foster (498 S.C.), J. Hanly (556 I.C.), and F. Sharp (226). Successful ballots were taken for Bros. W. B. Dyson, Eboracum Lodge No. 1611, E. T. Clark, St. Oswald's Lodge 910, and G. F. Atkinson, St. Oswald's Lodge 910, and for Bro. J. Todd P.M., as a re-joining member. Bro. Dyson was then advanced to the degree of M.M.M. by the W.M., after which the W.M. elect, Bro. the Rev. W. Valentine, was duly installed in the chair of A. in ancient form, Bro. T. B. Whytehead P.M. acting as Installing Master. Bro. Valentine then appointed and invested his Officers as follows:—Bros. Rev. W. C. Lukis S.W., J. S. Cumberland J.W., T. J. Wilkinson Chaplain, C. G. Padel M.O., Geo. Garbutt S.O., M. Millington J.O., T. B. Whytehead P.M. Sec., W. P. Husband Assist. Sec., T. J. Wilson Reg. of Marks, A. T. B. Turner S.D., T. G. Hodgson J.D., Geo. Balmford P.M. Organist, T. Humphries I.G., P. Pearson Tyler. The Sec. gave notice of his intention to propose at the next meeting, as an honorary member, Bro. William J. Hughan P.G.W. Two brethren were proposed and seconded as joining members, and the name of a candidate was also brought forward. At 8.45 the Lodge was closed, and at 9 o'clock the Brethren and their Visitors met at an excellent supper, served by Bro. J. Toes, to which ample justice was done. At its conclusion, the W.M. gave "The Queen and Mark Masonry," and "The Grand M.M.M. of England and the Grand Lodge." Bro. T. B. Whytehead then gave "The health of the W.M. and Prosperity to the York Mark Lodge." He said that the many excellencies and virtues of Bro. Valentine were so well known to them that for him to descant upon them would be idle. They all knew how, in spite of unavoidable drawbacks, Bro. Valentine had served conscientiously high offices in various degees in Masonry, and he was sure that they would all unite in striving to render his year of office one of enjoyment to the W.M. as well as to themselves. As regarded the Lodge, it was now established on a thoroughly firm basis. The roll of members was a sufficient guarantee of its popularity, numbering as it did nearly a hundred, and amongst them some of the best and brightest Masons in Yorkshire. The toast was heartily received, and feelingly responded to by the W.M., who thanked the brethren for their uniform kindness, and concluded by proposing the health of the I.P.M. Bro. W. T. Orde-Powlett, than whom a more energetic and exemplary Mason was not to be found in the Province. In responding, the I.P.M. said that he was grateful for the generous support he had received during his year, and could truthfully say that his association with the York Mark Lodge, as its W.M., had been a source of unmixed pleasure. The W.M. proposed the health of the Installing Master, saying that Bro. Whytehead had done an extraordinary amount of Masonic work, both in the Mark and other degrees. He was always ready when wanted, and, in fact, was a perfect Proteus in his Masonic gifts and qualities. The toast was received with enthusiasm, and Bro. Whytehead, in replying, gave some account of the light which modern research, especially amongst old minute books, had thrown upon the history and working of the degree in various countries. He hoped that their learned Bro. Hughan would shortly be in a position to bring out a history of Mark Masonry. He was quite sure that there was no brother so well qualified for the task, and he believed that Bro. Hughan had already amassed considerable information, with a view to such a history. He thanked the brethren for their kindness, assuring them that, as in the past, so in the future, the welfare of Mark Masonry, and especially the York Mark Lodge (Time Immemorial), would be very dear to him. The S.W. proposed the Past Masters of the Lodge, and called upon Bro. J. Todd P.M. to respond. Bro. Todd said, that though in one sense the oldest P.M. present, he scarcely had a claim to respond to the toast, as he had retired from the Lodge at the time that it came under the Grand Mark Lodge of England, and had only that night been elected a re-joining member. However, he was glad to find the Lodge so prosperous when he rejoined it, and should always be glad to place himself at its service. The S.W. responded to the toast of the Officers, and the J.W. Bro. Cumberland gave the Visitors, coupling with the toast the name of Bro. Blake. The speaker said that he had seen himself such great advantages accrue from the interchange of visits, that he could never weary of advocating the practice. If visiting were more practised, there would be fewer corruptions creeping into the ritual. Bro. Blake, in responding, spoke of the peculiarly hearty reception he had met with in York, amongst the Masons—a reception far more fraternal and cordial than he had ever experienced before. The Tyler's toast shortly afterwards brought a most pleasant evening to a conclusion.

THE FIFTEEN SECTIONS CLUB.

AN influential meeting of brethren, under the presidency of Bro. T. J. Barnes P.M. 554 and 933, took place at the Metropolitan Hotel, South Place, Finsbury, on Monday evening, the 19th inst. The meeting was convened by circular issued by Bro. J. B. King, for the purpose of discussing the practicability of forming a Fifteen Sections Club, the object being to diffuse the working of the Sections in the provinces as well as in the metropolitan and suburban districts. The idea, which entirely originated with Bro. J. B. King (27), met with the hearty support of Bros. James Stevens, W. Musto, W. H. Myers, A. Ellis, J. T. K. Job, many well known Masonic workers, including Bros. Martin, G. Andrews, D. Moss, Jas. Boulton, W. Yetton, Wooding, and other brethren. Bro. Barnes opened the meeting, and explained to the brethren the nature of the movement. When he was consulted on the matter he at once saw the great amount of good to be done (providing it could be carried out) by the formation of a Fifteen Sections Club. The idea appeared to him novel, yet with its drawbacks it had its great advantages, he therefore called on Bro. King to explain to the meeting what his ideas were. Bro. King informed the brethren that whomsoever he mentioned the subject to seemed to approve of the movement. He consulted Bro. Barnes, who consented to preside on the first occasion, and as there were many older Masons present, he should now leave the matter entirely in their hands. Bro. James Stevens proposed a general discussion of the matters before them, after which it was regularly proposed and seconded that a Fifteen Sections Club be formed, to be held at the Metropolitan Hotel, South Place, Finsbury, every Monday evening, at seven o'clock. The meeting was then adjourned till the first Monday in February, at seven o'clock. Unanimous votes of thanks were accorded to Bros. Barnes President, James Stevens Vice, and H. B. King Hon. Sec., for the interest and zeal displayed by them on the occasion. The above Club, if carried out, will be the means of enabling provincial brethren to hear the Fifteen Sections regularly worked at given places and times.

NEW FINSBURY PARK LODGE BALL.

THE Annual Ball of the New Finsbury Park Lodge was held at the Athenæum, Camden Road, London, on Wednesday, 14th inst., and proved a great success. Dancing was commenced shortly after nine to the strains of Marriott's band, and was kept up until nearly five o'clock the next morning. Bro. Jarvis most efficiently acted as M.C., and to him very much of the success of the ball is due. Of course, in making this remark, we do not wish to put in the shade the work of the ball committee and stewards, but we think that they will allow that Bro. Jarvis did everything that was possible to bring their labours to a successful issue. In the lower supper room, the W.M. of the Lodge, Bro. Purkiss, presided, and as usual proposed the few toasts customary on such occasions. The toast—"Prosperity to the New Finsbury Park Lodge," he desired to direct more especially the attention of the Ladies, at the same time he was assured all would most heartily drink to it. Theirs was a young Lodge, but could boast many genial Masons among the members, and might be pronounced as a great success. He hoped that the ball financially would prove remunerative, as it was contemplated to devote any surplus to the benefit of one or other of the Masonic Institutions. The toast of the Ladies followed; this the W.M. termed the principal one of the evening. In calling upon Bro. Speller (the Secretary) to respond, the W.M. said that all were indebted to him for the trouble he had taken in connection with the arrangements for the ball. The Stewards and Committee had especially to thank him for his services. He thought that no brother was better entitled to respond for the Ladies than he who had taken the most active part in providing the entertainment on their behalf. After a few remarks from Bro. Davis, Bro. Speller replied to the toast. On behalf of the Ladies he thanked the brethren very much for the night's enjoyment. The Ladies hoped that the Lodge and the annual ball in connection with it might be as successful in the future as it had been in the past. For himself, he tendered hearty thanks for the kind remarks of the W.M. Next year he hoped to hold the ball at Freemasons' Tavern, and on that occasion he had no doubt that there would be 300 guests present. Bros. T. Press, R. V. Davies, F. Madgin, H. R. Dunn, and A. F. Speller comprised the ball committee, while the following acted as Stewards:—Bros. W. T. Purkiss, J. Eldridge, C. Hutchinson, J. Pizot, T. Jackson, H. Hollis, W. F. Richmond, F. F. Austiss, W. Earl, J. Swinyard, T. H. Tibbetts, and G. Chatter.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—A Remedy for Bilious and Liver Complaints.—Those who suffer from bile and liver complaints should try the effects of this most valuable remedy, a few doses of which will make the sufferer feel elastic and vigorous, remove all impurities, give a healthy action to the liver, and strengthen the stomach. If bilious attacks be allowed to continue without using such a preventive, more serious casualties may arise, and the sufferer be consigned to a bed of sickness. Holloway's Pills are an extraordinary remedy, acting immediately in the removal of acidity of the stomach, indigestion, debility and nausea. Preparing the food thoroughly for assimilation, rendering each tributary organ perfect in its function and stimulating the kidneys.

Digitized by Google

INSTALLATION MEETINGS, &c.

—:o:—

DERWENT LODGE, No. 40.

OUR Sussex brethren mustered in strong force at the Castle Hotel, Hastings, on Monday, 12th inst., on the occasion of the installation of W.M. and the appointment of the Officers for the ensuing twelve months. Among those present we noticed Bros. F. Binckes Sec. R.M.I.B. P.G.S. England, John Howell P.M., V. P. Freeman Prov. G. Sec., Thomas Trollope W.M. 1842 P.P.S.G.W., Cooper Smith P. Prov. S.G.W. of Oxfordshire, W. Dawes P.M. 341 P.P.G.R., C. W. Duke P.M. 40 and 1184 P.P.G.J.D., W. Lambourne W.M. 1184 P.P.G.P., C. R. Chandler P.M. 1184 P.G.S., F. Forss 1585, J. Dorman P.M. P.P.G.J.D., G. F. Wood P.M., W. Norris P.M., George Wellerd P.M. P.P.G.D. of C., C. D. Jones P.M. 1184, Dr. Abram, H. M. Baker, F. J. Parsons, T. H. Cole P.M. P.P.G.A.D. of C., E. Bradnam, C. J. Lowns, S. T. Weston, H. J. Emmerson, A. Josephs, R. Draycon, T. G. Hulburd, R. E. Wilson, D. W. Davis, T. Harwood, G. M. Wilkins, Rev. B. Puttick, W. H. Russell, T. Markwick, A. Wells, Capt. Hennah, F. Duke, H. F. Crossthwaite, H. J. Godbold, A. W. Elliott, Rev. T. S. Wells 309 P.P.G. Chaplain Hants, C. Martin 1184, E. Grant Salisbury, James Robertson S.W. 1821, George Roddis St. Peter's Lodge 1330, W. Salter S.W. St. Andrews Lodge 401, B. Sargent S.W. 1184, C. W. Hudson W.M. Royal York Lodge 315, W. Millsom W.M. Wellington Lodge 341 Rye. The Lodge was opened in the usual manner by the out-going W.M., Bro. Glenister, who, after transacting the ordinary business and raising a brother, handed over the insignia of his office to P.M. Trollope, who, in his usual impressive manner, placed Bro. F. Rossiter in the chair of K.S., and that brother then appointed his officers. The whole of the magnificent ceremony of installation was very ably and effectively rendered by Bro. Trollope. During the proceedings Bro. Glenister was presented with a handsome P.M.'s jewel in recognition of the valuable services he had rendered to the Lodge as W.M. during the past year. The following is a complete list of the Officers for the year, viz. :—Bros. F. Rossiter W.M., W. Glenister I.P.M., A. Wells S.W., E. W. Hennah J.W., Rev. A. Hodges Chaplain, George Wellerd P.P.G.D.C. (elected for the thirtieth time) Treasurer, T. H. Cole M.A. P.P.A.G.D. of C. Secretary, Thomas Trollope M.D. P.P.S.G.W. M. of C., G. M. Wilkins S.D., G. Pearce J.D., W. H. Russell I.G., J. Attersoll Tyler. The Banquet was held immediately after the close of the Lodge, the W.M. in the chair, and full justice having been done to the good things provided by Bro. Gaze, the W.M. proposed "The Queen and the Craft," remarking that he was sorry the evening was so far advanced as to necessitate the speeches being made as short as possible. Fortunately for him, the first toast did not require much to be said in its favour; they were all too loyal subjects to make it necessary for him to vary the remarks made by his predecessors on similar occasions. He, therefore, simply gave the toast, "The Queen and the Craft." The W.M. next gave the toast of the "M.W. the Grand Master of English Freemasons," which, he was sure, would evoke as much enthusiasm as the first toast. Most, if not all, of the brethren were well aware of the interest which his Royal Highness always took in everything pertaining to Freemasonry, and although not always present at the meetings of Grand Lodge, yet both the I.P.M., Bro. Glenister, and himself could both cordially testify to the care which the Prince of Wales always evinced for the Craft. In proposing the next toast, that of "The Pro Grand Master the Earl of Carnarvon, the D.G.M. Lord Skelmersdale, and the Officers of the Grand Lodge," the W.M. stated that the brethren were all well aware that the business of a large Society like that of the Freemasons could not be carried on unless a considerable amount of interest was shown by the different Officers. Previous W.M.'s had pointed out, better than he could do, the duties those Officers had to perform, and every brother was convinced that all the Grand Officers showed great zeal in the discharge of the duties of their respective offices. The W.M. next proposed the toast of "The R.W. the Prov. G.M. for Sussex, Bro. Sir W. W. Burrell, Bart., M.P., &c., the W. Dep. Prov. G.M. Bro. John Henderson Scott, and the Officers of the Provincial Grand Lodge," saying that every brother was convinced of the interest their Worshipful Provincial Grand Master took in Freemasonry, and many brethren remembered with pleasure Sir Walter Burrell's visit to the Derwent Lodge. Of Bro. John H. Scott he need only say that several of the brethren had recently had an opportunity of listening to that brother's excellent address on Freemasonry when consecrating the St. Leonard's Lodge. Only that day he, the W.M., had heard several references made to it, and the address was still fresh in the memory of the large number of Masons who had the privilege of listening to it. He coupled with the toast the name of Bro. C. R. Chandler P.M. 1184 and P.G.S. As time, tides and railway trains wait for no man, Bro. Freeman Prov. G. Sec. and a number of the Prov. G. Officers had been compelled to leave before the W.M.'s excellent speech was concluded. Bro. Chandler responded to the toast, and said that Bro. Lewns in his song, "The Jolly Old Knight," had thoroughly hit off the character of their highly-respected Prov. Grand Master. Sussex ought to be proud of their Prov. Grand Officers. Sir Walter Burrell went about among the Lodges, and his labours were ably supplemented by those of the Deputy Prov. Grand Master Bro. Scott and the other Prov. Grand Officers. According to ancient custom the I.P.M., Bro. W. Glenister, for a brief time assumed the custody of the gavel, and asked the brethren to receive the most important toast of the evening, that of "The health of the W.M." From what they had seen of Bro. Rossiter as an initiate, and as a subordinate Officer of the Lodge, they had every confidence that he would well fulfil the new duties that day imposed upon him. They had all known him for many years. As the hour was late he was compelled to cut his speech short, and in a few words asked them to drink Bro. Rossiter's health with musical honours. The W.M., Bro. Rossiter, in responding, said he hardly knew how to thank the brethren sufficiently for their hearty response to the toast so ably proposed by his friend and brother the I.P.M., Bro. Glenister. He, Bro. Rossiter, felt proud of the position of W.M. of the Derwent Lodge which had that day been conferred upon him. He esteemed it to be a very honourable position to be Master of so old and so esteemed a Lodge as the Derwent. He thanked the brethren cordially for their attendance, and took it as a personal compliment, as, in fact, every Master did. As an Officer of the Lodge, and as a Freemason, he had endeavoured to do his best; in fact, in whatever he took in hand he was actuated by the same feeling. He was certain that with the assistance he would receive from the I.P.M. and the Officers, that at the end of his year of office he should receive that meed of praise which was always accorded to a man who did his duty. Bro. Rossiter next referred to the Masonic remarks contained in Bro. Scott's speech at the consecration of the St. Leonard's Lodge, and strongly advised every brother to act thoroughly up to the principles of Freemasonry, and advocated the adoption of a good style among the brethren in their intercourse with each other. He strongly inculcated the necessity of giving candidates for initiation a proper idea of the obligation they were about to enter into, and thought that every one should know what was required of him. Masonry was called a secret society, but it was only secret so far as the signs were concerned; of the good that was done between man and man there was not any secret. The W.M. next proposed "The health of the Visitors," and discoursed learnedly on the pleasure and instruction to be gained by visiting different Lodges. The Derwent would always welcome visitors, from wherever they came, and he had great pleasure in seeing so many there that day. He coupled with the toast the names of Bro. Cooper Smith P.P.G.S.W. of Oxfordshire, and Bro. W. Dawes P.M. 341 Wellington Lodge, Rye, P.P.G.R. Bro. Cooper Smith regretted that so many of the visitors had been obliged to leave in order to catch the trains. He had come to Hastings for the past twenty years, but had not previously had an opportunity of visiting No. 40. There was always something to be learnt when visiting other Lodges. He had gained much that afternoon from Bro. Trollope. Another thing also that struck him was, the great work Sussex was doing for the Charities. Bro. W. Dawes could not consider himself as a perfect stranger amongst them, as he had always received the greatest kindness from the members of the Derwent Lodge collectively and individually, and he was proud to have his name coupled with a toast at a meeting of the members of so old and influential a Lodge as the Derwent. The W.M. next proposed the health of the Past Masters, and considered that that was not the least important toast. They were all indebted to the earnest work of the Past Masters, who were most assiduous in assisting to carry out the duties of the Lodge. He held it out as an inducement to young Masons to take an interest in the proceedings, to get themselves up in the work, and to endeavour to attain the position of Past Master. The W.M. next paid a great and well deserved compliment to Bro. Trollope P.M. for the zeal and assiduity he always evinced in the cause of Freemasonry. He was particularly indebted to Bro. Trollope for officiating as Installing Master, and for other assistance that worthy brother had given him in carrying out the proceedings of that day. To the I.P.M., Bro. Glenister, his best thanks were due for his uniform kindness and assistance. To Bro. Cole he must also return his thanks; that brother, after passing the chair, had kindly accepted the Secretary's collar on an emergency, and consented to continue to discharge the onerous duties attached to that very important office. Bro. Cole, he knew, was busy in his regular professional duties, and he knew that it was a great sacrifice for him to take the office, and it must oftentimes put him to great inconvenience. Bro. Glenister responded, as stated, accident had placed him in the position of I.P.M. Voltaire had said that gratitude was the lively sense of favours to come. In his case it was the reverse. He also felt in duty bound to thank the other Past Masters for their assistance during his year of office. First and foremost was Bro. George Wellerd, who that day, for the thirtieth time, had been appointed Treasurer, and who had been Treasurer of the Derwent Lodge when many present were still unborn. Of Bro. Trollope he could only say that he deserved all that had been said of him, and much more. Bro. Cole had been his right hand during the past year, and to him he also begged publicly to tender his thanks. He was also glad to welcome amongst them the familiar face of a worthy Past Master—Bro. John Howell. He congratulated that brother upon his recovery, and hailed with something like exultation the appearance of his well-known face. Of the other Past Masters he might say that Bros. Duke, Dorman, Norris, and others, were all well-deserving of the thanks of the members. They were in every respect pillars (not pillows) of the Lodge, and deserved all the encomiums which could be passed upon them. Bro. Cole also responded, as did Bro. Trollope, the latter remarking that, as it was impossible to paint the lily or gild the rose, he need not say much on behalf of his brother P.M.'s. To the P.M.'s the brethren should always refer in cases of doubt and difficulty. For himself, although he had been placed in the chair of a new Lodge, he should never abate one jot in his interest in the Derwent. The new Lodge was but another link in the chain. The members of the Derwent Lodge might always rely upon him to do all in his power, and although he had got a new love, his affection for the old one (the Derwent) would never diminish. The W.M. next proposed the Officers of the Lodge, referring to the pleasure he felt in investing Bro. Wellerd, who had been an Officer when most of them were in swaddling clothes, and to the great pleasure he felt in seeing Brother John Howell amongst them that night, restored in health. He felt that he had a good staff of Officers, upon whom he could fully rely for doing their duty in their respective stations. The W.M. concluded a very humorous speech by referring to the new Lodge at St. Leonard's, at the birth of which Bro. Dr. Trollope and so many doctors had assisted. The S.W. (Bro. Wells), in returning thanks, referred to the tuition they had received from the outgoing W.M. (Bro. Glenister), whose name, he said, would be handed down as one of the best disciplinarians and workers who had filled the chair of the Derwent. The J.W. (Capt. Hennah) also responded. The W.M. proposed "Continued success to the Masonic Charities." This toast, he said, although nearly the last, was not the least important. During last year over

Digitized by Google

£44,000 had been subscribed in support of the three great Masonic Charities. These institutions needed no words of his to commend them to the notice of the brethren. They were the essence of Freemasonry, and however much some of the brethren might at times appear to devote attention to the social side, that was always secondary to the charitable. He was pleased to see Bro. Binckes, Secretary to the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys, present. The brethren would also be glad to know that Bro. Scott their esteemed Deputy Provincial Grand Master had already over £600 on his list as Steward at the next Festival of the Royal Masonic Benevolent Fund. He (Bro. Rossiter) had no doubt that another year other Masonic charitable institutions would receive an equal amount of support. Bro. Fred. Binckes Secretary to the R.M. Institution for Boys, although he was more particularly connected with one of the Institutions, replied on behalf of all the Masonic Charities. This, he said, was not the first time he had been amongst the Hastings Masons; he had often had an opportunity of meeting them before, and while he could not claim the charm for novelty, he did not fear the "familiarity which breeds contempt." On the old subject of the Masonic Charities he had often addressed them, and he had not much on the present occasion specially to advance on behalf of the Boys' School. All the Charities must have their turn. He came that day to thank the brethren of Sussex for the hearty support which they gave to Bro. Scott in January last. All the Charities were equally deserving, and after having given all a turn he asked them to think of the Boys. While the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution had £42,000 invested, and the Girls' School £40,000, the Boys' School had only £10,000, so that they were comparatively poor, and he asked them to take that fact into consideration when in doubt as to where they should give. He came that day, at some inconvenience, through the seductive letter of his old and respected friend and brother, Dr. Trollope, who reminded him that it was some time since they had seen him in Hastings. He looked back to many years of kind assistance received from friends in Sussex, and particularly from the good town of Hastings. He paid a very high compliment to the sincerity of Past Master Trollope, whom he had known for years as a hard-working Mason. He felt sure before he came that although Sussex was pledged to support the Benevolent Institution this year, yet Heaven was canny, and he felt that if he came and acknowledged past kindnesses received, that they would not be forgotten. He (Bro. Binckes) was fond of attending social meetings, and whenever opportunity offered, he never omitted urging the claims of the Charities. He was not so young as he once was, and he missed the faces of many friends and supporters. Still he was delighted that so many had been spared to meet again. While enjoying prosperity themselves let their hearts be disposed to assist the sons and daughters of those they had known in days gone by. If many knew what he and others who were officially connected with their great Charities knew of the distress that existed, they would see that behind all that magnificent hospitality there was a black curtain of distress. On such occasions they always advocated the cause of Charity. He loved the social side of Freemasonry, he loved the charitable side, and had done his best to relieve the distress which existed. Bro. Binckes concluded a long and eloquent appeal by reminding the brethren that, rich as the fraternity was, there was a large and increasing amount of Masonic distress, which could only be relieved by their contributing freely to all the Institutions. He spoke not for one, but for all the Charities. The "Tyler's Toast" brought the proceedings to a close. The musical portion was contributed by Bros. Lewns, Russell, Joseph, and Marwick, while Bros. Dr. Abram and R. Draycon accompanied.

LODGE OF ANTIQUITY, No. 146, BOLTON.

THE installation meeting of the above Lodge was held on Wednesday, the 14th January, at the Bull's Head Inn, Bradshawgate, Bolton. There was a large muster of the brethren on the occasion, amongst them being Bros. Robert Horridge W.M., James Dooley S.W., W. Cooper J.W., W. Nicholson, H. Ainsworth, John Morris, J. Wild, T. Collins P.M.'s. Visitors—Bros. S. Crowther P.M. 37 Prov. Grand Supt. of Works, J. Newton P.M. 37, J. Alcock P.M. 348, J. Harwood P.M. 348, Wolstenholme P.M. 348, Rigby W.M. 266 Natal, Nicholson W.M. 1723, &c. The Lodge was opened in the first degree, and the minutes read and confirmed. The Lodge was opened in the second degree, when Bro. John Wild P.M. took the chair as Installing Master, and at once proceeded to instal the W.M. elect, Bro. J. Dooley, into the chair of K.S., according to ancient custom. This ceremony being completed, the W.M. appointed his Officers for the ensuing year, and they were invested by Bro. Wild, viz.—Bros. W. Cooper S.W., G. Taylor J.W., W. Nicholson Treasurer (re-elected), M. Burgess Secretary, R. Duxbury S.D., J. Galloway J.D., J. Morris M.C., W. Heywood O., Fred. Williams I.G., H. Broughton Tyler, T. Rimmer, J. Kennedy Stewards. The I.P.M. Bro. Robert Horridge was presented by the Lodge with a P.M.'s jewel. Hearty good wishes were expressed by the visiting brethren, the Lodge was closed, and the brethren adjourned to banquet.

SINCERITY LODGE, No. 174.

THE installation meeting was held on Wednesday, the 21st instant. The chair was occupied by the W.M. Bro. G. T. H. Seddon, who was supported by his Officers, a goodly number of Past Masters, among whom we may mention Bros. Appleby, S. Rawley, John Newton, E. J. Moore, Charles Lacey, Barlow, Savage, Hilliard, and the following Visitors:—Bros. J. Terry 228, J. J. Berry P.M. 554, G. Huggett 1625, C. Norden 205, Dufresny 1275, T. Puzey 1107, J. H. Osman 1694, E. J. Anning W.M. 1625, J. D. E. Tarr 1293, Sindall 1293, Fardell 554, Ellis 933, W. Wallington P.M. 860, Barr W.M. 1766, Brooks P.M. 902, T. J. Barnes P.M. 933, W. R. Marsh 933, F. Breuer 205, S. Carrington S.W. 1314, E. J. Legge P.M. 1196, C. A. Morgan 1607, G. H. Stephens 1623, F. Carr 1607, E. T. Henman 1423, G. Robey 1805, W. H. G. Rudderforth W.M. 1668, W. Much 214, R. H. Blatchford W.M. 1196, W. W. Morgan Secretary 211, T. Maidwell P.M. 27, &c. On the 15th inst. the members of this Lodge held an emergency meeting; by this means they had materially lessened the labour to be gone through on this the installation night. The first business was to read the minutes of the last regular meeting and those of the emergency referred to above; these duly received confirmation, and then the principal event of the day, the installation of Bro. Webb, was proceeded with. Bro. Seddon has, during his Mastership, well sustained the reputation the Lodge bears for competent working, and performed the ceremony most ably. In due course, the members were re-admitted, and Bro. Webb was saluted. He appointed the following Officers:—Bros. G. T. H. Seddon I.P.M., G. Jones S.W., F. Brown J.W., S. H. Rawley P.M. Treasurer, J. Newton P.M. Secretary, J. S. Fraser S.D., A. H. Brown J.D., T. F. Harvey I.G., W. Fraser D.C., J. Miller W.S., J. Very Tyler. The next duty was to present the I.P.M. with the jewel which the Lodge had voted him; this Bro. Webb did in most graceful terms, and Bro. Seddon briefly acknowledged the kindness of the brethren. He accepted their gift, not as a testimonial for doing his duties, but for getting through them. A ballot was taken for a candidate, Mr. Gurney, and that gentleman was introduced and initiated by Bro. Webb. Routine business followed; the case of a distressed brother, an old member of the Lodge, was brought under notice by the Secretary, Bro. P.M. Newton, who forcibly depicted the sad condition in which he found the applicant. It was proposed by Bro. Seddon I.P.M. and seconded by Bro. P.M. Savage that £10 10s be voted from the funds of the Lodge. This was immediately agreed to. The Secretary then read a letter expressing the thanks of the writer for a gift made by the members at a former meeting. Lodge was then closed. The members with their Visitors, making altogether a party of 96, sat down to a banquet, served by Messrs. Ritter and Clifford. On the removal of the cloth, Bro. Webb gave the first toast, "The Queen and the Craft," which was followed by the National Anthem. The second toast was one all Masons readily recognised. The Prince of Wales conferred an honour upon the Craft by presiding at its head, and this toast is always acceptable at assemblages of Freemasons. Bro. Brown sang, "God Bless the Prince of Wales." In proposing the toast of "The Pro Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, and the rest of the Grand Officers," the W.M. said: We have at the head of the Craft a body of gentlemen who take the greatest interest in the business of the Order, and never tire in advancing its welfare. He would call on those present to do this toast full honour. The health of the initiate was the next toast the W.M. introduced to the notice of the brethren. Bro. Gurney had paid marked attention to the ceremony, and he (the W.M.) was assured he would become a worthy member of the Lodge of Sincerity. Bro. Gurney returned his sincere thanks for the honour they had conferred upon him; he trusted all the good things the W.M. had prognosticated would be fully realised. The W.M., at this stage of the proceedings, stated, as the result of the efforts of those brethren who had kindly gone round the room with his list, that £76 2s had been subscribed. Bro. Seddon rose: When an I.P.M. assumes the gavel all know on what theme he is about to address them. It is not the first time Bro. Webb has been installed into the chair of a Lodge. On this occasion he did not intend to occupy their time, but with all cordiality would ask them to do honour to the toast. After a song by Bro. Miller, rendered in that worthy brother's happy and mirth-provoking style, the W.M. rose to reply. He had to return his sincere and hearty thanks for the great kindness with which he had been received. He assured the brethren it would be his sincere desire to carry out his duties in the future as he had striven to do in the past, and he sincerely hoped they would be conducted to the satisfaction of the members. Before he resumed his seat he had to propose a toast which was a novel one. A member of the Sincerity Lodge, who was initiated therein in the year 1812, had that day attained his 90th birthday, Bro. Norris, who was known to all present as the Warden of the Benevolent Institution at Croydon, in which capacity he had gained the esteem of all with whom he was brought into association, for ruling with fairness—at the same time not with a rod of iron—was that day celebrating with a few friends the 90th anniversary of his birth. The brethren would all join in wishing Bro. Norris happiness during the remainder of his days. The next toast brought under the notice of the brethren, was "Prosperity to the Masonic Charities;" here the W.M. referred with satisfaction to the goodly response made by the brethren to his appeal. He pleaded the cause of their Lodge candidates for the respective Institutions, and urged on the brethren to see their votes were properly applied. With the toast he would couple the name of Bro. Terry. After a song by Bro Savage, "The Old Musqueteer," Bro. Terry would, first, on behalf of Bro. Norris, return the members his sincere thanks for the honour conferred upon him. He then stated that the worthy old Warden had invited the whole of the inmates of the Asylum to partake with him of a cup of tea, and assist by their presence at a musical entertainment. Bro. Perceval and he (Bro. Terry) had that day visited the Institution; they there found that the residents had provided for Bro. Norris a table lamp and other gifts, which were duly to be presented to him. Likewise an easy chair would be offered for the acceptance of Bro. Norris. In March next, should he live till then, he will have been a Mason 68 years, thus gaining the palm for length of membership over Sir Moses Montefiore, who though an older man, is six weeks his junior as a Mason. The brethren had doubtless heard of Lord Byron's saying that "Annuitants never die." He (Bro. Terry) hoped that Bro. Norris would be with them yet a few years. Bro. Terry then touched upon the charitable proclivities of the members; there were sixty-five present, and an amount of £76 had been realised as the result of the W.M.'s appeal for the Benevolent Institution. The Lodge had heavy claims on the Institutions at their next elections, and he would draw a comparison as to what their investment of that evening might produce. The Lodge had one candidate for the Girls' School, one for the Boys', and two for the Female Fund of the Benevolent Institution. He sincerely trusted they would be successful; if they were, all would agree that their liberal gift of £76 would not be badly invested. However, on behalf of the Charities, he returned sincere thanks. Bro. Terry then touched upon the fact that great trouble was entailed in getting boys into the School. He commented on the class of education provided. With respect to his own Institution, there would be at the next election 78 candidates, and only 18 of these to be elected: what a sad prospect to look forward to. With the Girls and Boys they sometimes heard of cases of adoption, but he never yet met with any one who seemed anxious to adopt an old man or an old woman. In speaking for the Old People, he could not advance as an argument that many of them had been successful in passing a Cambridge local examination, but he could point out cases where recipients of their bounty had attained a green old age. Bro. Terry then compared his prospects in regard to the approaching Festival. He referred to the fact of the prestige attaching to the name of the Chairman, and trusted that the present representative of that name would be well supported. Bro. Terry concluded by tendering his thanks to all, expressing a hope that he might be present at the next installation meeting of the Lodge. The health of the I.P.M. was the next toast. The W.M. here referred to Bro. Seddon's many good qualities. Bro. Seddon could boast of a much longer membership of the Craft than could he (the W.M.), but circumstances had prevented him assuming the Mastership of the Lodge at as early a date as he could have wished. However, he had ably performed his duties, and he (the W.M.) had pleasure in offering the toast for the acceptance of the brethren. Bro. Wallington sang "Welcome, friends." Bro. Seddon thanked the W.M. for his kindness in bringing his name so prominently before the members. To the brethren he expressed his thankfulness for the way in which they had received the toast. It had been his desire to carry out his duties perfectly. In consequence of having to fulfil a business engagement in the North of England, he had to forego for a few years the position he had now attained. He was deeply indebted to an esteemed brother, who was present, for the knowledge which he possessed of the ritual of the Craft—he referred to Bro. Barnes. He likewise had to acknowledge his indebtedness to Bro. J. J. Berry, by whose kindly assistance he had been enabled to carry out the duties of I.M. Bro. Seddon then made a fervent appeal on behalf of the son of their late fellow member, Bro. Gee. The lad, he stated, was a worthy son of a worthy sire, and he (the speaker) urged the brethren not to leave a stone unturned to secure the election of the candidate supported by their Lodge. In conclusion, he hoped that the day might be long distant ere his connection with the Lodge of Sincerity might be severed. The Visitors was the next toast, and Bro. T. J. Barnes replied; he was followed by Bro. J. J. Berry. Both eulogised the working of the Lodge, and commented on the liberality of the members. Bro. Barnes, in referring to the special toast, said he had learned something that night. The members of the Yarborough Lodge claimed Bro. Norris as belonging to their Lodge, but he felt, from what he had heard, they must give up the claim. In speaking of the Past Masters, the W.M. said, unfortunately several had had to leave; however, they were well known, and equally well respected; all had done good service in the past. With the toast he would associate the name of Bro. S. Rawley. Bro. G. H. Stephens here sang, "She wore a wreath of roses." Bro. Rawley said it was twenty-three years that day since he was installed into the chair of the Lodge. He regretted, on looking round, to miss so many good old faces. At the same time, there were many present who were familiar to all the brethren. Bro. Rawley referred to what the Lodge had done in the past for the Benevolent Institution. He was gratified to know that the Lodge had advanced. He spoke of what might be considered the term of Masonic life. During his year he had initiated twenty-seven candidates, but his immediate predecessor had initiated forty. He spoke of the ability of the brethren who in these days came forward for office, and who required but little help from the P.M.'s. However, he begged to tender, on behalf of the body he spoke for, his thanks to all present. The Officers were next honoured: the W.M. commented on the ability they one and all displayed. He was assured they would do all in their power to assist in carrying out the duties of the Lodge. Bro. Berry favoured with, "So happy we've been," and then came able replies from the S.W. and J.W. Bro. J. Newton added a few words. During his year of office he had not had the honour of initiating 20, 30, or 40 candidates, but in his position of Secretary he had had the pleasure of receiving fees from some hundreds. This was the 112th year of the Lodge's existence, the 90th year of their old Warden at Croydon. He trusted the new year the Lodge had that night entered upon would be a prosperous one. He was not a very young member; he was acquainted with all the doings of the Lodge, inasmuch as he had in his possession the records of the Lodge. He urged upon the members to keep up the bond of friendship that had ever sustained them. Bro. Newton concluded by hoping that his services would always be accepted in the spirit in which they were tendered. Several other of the Officers expressed their thanks, and then the W.M. summoned the Tyler, who gave the parting toast.

Digitized by Google

DOMATIC LODGE, No. 177.

THE annual festival of this Lodge was celebrated on Friday, 9th inst., at Anderton's Hotel, Fleet Street, E.C. Shortly after the time announced on the summons Bro. Edward White the W.M. opened the Lodge, supported by Bros. H. N. Bowman Spink (the W.M. elect) S.W., W. Harris J.W., George Everett P.M. Treas., Thomas Morris Sec., James McLean S.D., W. Herbage J.D., E. W. Kent I.G., W. M. Foxcroft D. of C., R. Pierpoint Steward. Past Masters J. Buscall, James Willing jun., H. Elmes, J. E. Walford, F. Kent, J. G. Potter, W. J. Ferguson, &c. There was a large attendance, both of members and visitors. The regular formalities having been complied with, the lodge was advanced, and Bros. W. Davies and T. Scoborio, having satisfied the members of their proficiency, were raised. The next work was the passing of Bros. C. Ouin and John H. Gordon Winter, the ceremonies in each case being well performed. Bro. Spink was now formally introduced to the W.M. by P.M. Ferguson, to receive from him the benefit of installation. The W.M. having administered the necessary obligation, a Board of Installed Masters was opened, and Bro. Spink was regularly placed in the chair and saluted as Master of the Domatic Lodge for the ensuing year. The following brethren were named as the officers, and were in due form invested with the insignia of their respective positions:—W. Harris S.W., James McLean J.W., George Everett P.M. Treas., Thomas Morris Sec., W. Herbage S.D., E. W. Kent J.D., William M. Foxcroft I.G., R Pierpoint D. of C., James Jennings Steward, and Daly Tyler. A word of praise is due to the outgoing W.M. for the able manner in which he performed the various duties required of him during the evening. The report of the auditors was presented and received, and on the motion of Bro. P.M. Willing the thanks of the Lodge were voted to them for the way in which they had performed their work. Bro. Walford P.M. proposed that a vote of thanks should also be passed and recorded on the minutes on behalf of Bro. White, for the very able manner in which he had that day performed the ceremony of installation. Bro. Willing seconded the proposition, which was carried with acclamation. The appeal of a French Brother, who petitioned the Lodge for some assistance, was next taken into consideration, a sum of £2 being voted from the funds on his behalf. Nothing further offering the W.M. closed the Lodge, and the brethren repaired to the banquet hall, where a first rate repast awaited them. The newly-installed Master presided at the banquet, and at its conclusion proposed the regular toasts. Bro. White the I.P.M. in introducing that of the Master to the notice of the brethren expressed the great pleasure it afforded him to have to propose the health of so excellent a Mason as Bro. Spink. The great interest he took in the welfare of the Lodge was evidenced from the fact that he had introduced more gentlemen into it than any other Member had done. If the Brethren entertained any doubt as to whether he was competent to undertake the duties of the chair, he could but refer them to what he had already done in the Lodge; he had there shewn himself capable of fulfilling any duty that might be required of him. Bro. White, in speaking of the high standard to which the working of the Domatic Lodge had reached, said it was owing to a strict principle it was the custom of its rulers to observe, viz., to prove that every brother was capable of undertaking the duties of an office before he was appointed to it. He (Bro. White) had no doubt but that the result of Bro. Spink's term of Mastership would be highly satisfactory. After a most enthusiastic reception, the W.M. rose to reply. He considered it a very high honour to be installed as Master of this, his mother Lodge. He had been initiated some seven years since, and after that ceremony he had thought what a proud moment it would indeed be for him if ever he occupied the chair of W.M. He hardly knew how to express his thanks to the brethren, but would assure them that he should strive his utmost to properly fulfil the duties of the chair during the term of his Mastership. The W.M. now proposed the health of Bro. White, the I.P.M., whom he complimented on the ability he had displayed in ruling the Lodge during the past year. He might say that no brother had excelled him in the office; in fact he had performed the duties in such a manner as to reflect the greatest credit upon himself, and ensure the satisfaction of every member of the Lodge. For his last act, that of installing his successor, he was especially to be complimented. He (the W.M.) had now the pleasure of investing Bro. White with the Past Master's jewel which had been voted by the members as a mark of their esteem. The jewel bore the following inscription:—"Presented by the Domatic Lodge, No. 177, to Bro. Edward White, for his valuable and efficient services as W.M. of the Lodge. Jan. 9th 1880." The W.M. thought that the task of ruling a Lodge was a great ordeal for any man to go through, and if at the end of a term of office a brother possessed the good opinion of the whole of the members he was amply repaid for any trouble he might have been put to. He was sure Bro. White would be welcomed into the ranks of the P.M.'s, and he hoped that he would be found there for many years to come. In acknowledging the last toast, the I.P.M. said if he had felt somewhat awkward in proposing the health of the W.M., he must say he felt more so now that he had to respond for himself. The year of Mastership he had just passed through might be looked back upon as most satisfactory, especially so far as the finances of the Lodge were concerned. The Lodge was then in a better position, so far as funds were concerned, than it had ever been before. They had given a large amount to the Charities, and he thought they had done everything that was needed. He did not wish to take any credit to himself for this result, but he must say it was a great pleasure to look back upon it. He felt he had performed the duties of the chair with some amount of credit to himself. A young Mason such as he was must naturally feel great diffidence in ruling so large a Lodge as the Domatic, and he was pleased that the result had been so satisfactory. He believed all had enjoyed themselves during the past year; he was sure he had. He again thanked the brethren for the kindness they had at all times displayed towards him. The W.M., in introducing the next toast, said it was a very important one, and one that should be received with the greatest cordiality. The Lodge was deeply indebted to the visiting brethren for having been honoured by their presence. He should at all times hail with delight the advent of visitors. The Domatic Lodge was celebrated throughout the Craft for being one of the most hospitable as well as one of the largest and "noisiest" of the London Lodges, and he hoped they would long continue to deserve that reputation. On the present occasion they had thirty-four guests, all of whom he was pleased to see, and to each of whom he tendered his heartiest welcome. With the toast he coupled the names of Bros. Haddro, Briggs,

Digitized by Google

Digby, Swanborough, Johnson, &c. Bro. Haddro assured the brethren that it afforded him great pleasure to attend. This was the first visit he had ever paid to a London Lodge, and he had thoroughly enjoyed it. No man more deserved the success that had attended him than the W.M., who was fully entitled to his present proud position. Bro. Swanborough expressed the pleasure he had experienced during the evening. He felt quite at home among the members of 177, so many of them being personally known to him. He had been told that his elder brother was initiated into Freemasonry in this Lodge some 25 years since; he was now pleased to visit, as it were, old friends of the family. Bro. Parkes paid the members a compliment for the excellent way in which the work of the Lodge had been conducted. If ever he had the fortune to be elected to fill the chair of a Lodge he hoped he might be able to conduct the affairs as well as they were carried out at the Domatic. Bros. Johnson, Digby and Briggs also responded. Bro. Digby said he had attended that night to see if he could learn anything that would enable him to perform the ceremony in his own Lodge better than he was before capable of doing, and he must admit that he had gained considerable knowledge from what he had seen. The W.M. next proposed the health of the P.M.'s. They were esteemed for their worth, and honoured for their antiquity. Of one thing there could be no doubt, the P.M.'s of the Domatic had for years past done their duty: one and all had ever been ready and willing to do everything in their power for the good of the Lodge. The W.M. specially referred to Bro. Elmes, the father of the Lodge, who he said was especially entitled to honour, having been a member of the Lodge for upwards of forty years. He concluded by expressing a wish that the P.M.'s might long be spared to take a part in the meetings of the Lodge. Bro. Walford considered it a great privilege to be numbered among the P.M.'s of the Domatic Lodge, he had enjoyed the position for some years past. He believed that all the P.M.'s were actuated by the same feelings as he himself,—to do everything in their power to secure the prosperity of the Lodge. Bro. Elmes briefly tendered his thanks. Bro. Ferguson hoped the P.M.'s would ever strive to obtain and always secure the good feeling of the members. Bro. Kent said the main object among the P.M.'s was to strive who should serve the Lodge the most. Bro. Willing congratulated the W.M. on the able manner in which he had that day been installed. The P.M.'s were very pleased to see the W.M. had arrived at the summit of a Mason's ambition. He believed the selection of Officers was everything that could be desired. In giving the toast of the Treasurer and Secretary, the W.M. said that the two brethren who filled those positions in the Domatic Lodge were everything that could be wished. The brethren well knew, and thoroughly appreciated, the value of the brother who had undertaken the duty of Treasurer. Bro. Everett had always worked for the interests of the Lodge, and had secured the unanimous support of the members. Bro. Morris the Secretary followed worthily in the steps of the Treasurer. The brethren had heard how the Auditors had complimented him, and one and all knew how well he had performed the duties of his office. Bro. Everett, in reply, would content himself by saying that all the good things that had been said about the Domatic Lodge were correct. The members were happy, united, and unanimous. He had set his heart in doing all in his power to secure the happiness of the brethren, and he hoped his efforts had been successful. Bro. Morris felt he had but done his duty; as an Officer of the Lodge, he should try and give equal satisfaction during the coming year that he had in the past; and if the W.M.'s successor could speak of him as the W.M. had that night done, he should feel amply repaid for the trouble he was put to in carrying out the work of his office. The W.M. then proposed the health of the Officers; this toast he characterised as one always cordially drunk by the members of the Domatic Lodge. All must know that it would be impossible to manage a Lodge without good Officers; he felt that those appointed that night had done their duty in the past, and would continue to do so. He hoped that each in turn would be honoured by the Lodge conferring on him the highest appointment it was in their power to bestow. After a response from each Officer, the Tyler's toast was given, and the brethren separated. Among the Visitors were Bros. W. Beavis I.G. 879, A. Price 1351, W. Banbery 217, George Briggs W.M. 1572, C. Digby W.M. 933, J. D. Barr 1293, R. L. Sindall S.W. 1293, Edward Swanborough W.M. 1319, H. J. Ashby 1319, J. H. Haddro P.M. 376, T. R. Elkington 376, Augustus F. Leech J.W. 749, W. Russell P.M. 77, Henry Walden 463, E. W. Parkes, W. Blank 704, W. J. Collens I.G. 766, James Barber 933, W. J. Cooper 1668, George C. Pulsford 1593, F. A. Kelly 1624, J. B. Edwards 861 and 1107, F. Silvester 193, J. L. Baker P.M. 1305, G. N. Johnson P.M. No. 1, Henry G. Thompson P.M. 299, John Owen 1459, W. P. Webb P.M. 1381, F. W. Koch P.M. 820, W. W. Morgan jun. 1385.

MANCHESTER LODGE, No. 179.

THE installation meeting of this ancient Lodge was held on Thursday, 15th inst., at Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street. Bros. D. M. Belfrage W.M., W. A. Lovett S.W., Green J.W., W. Hopekirk P.M. Treasurer, W. Hughes P.M. Secretary, C. Pugsley S.D., Dettmar J.D., Brown I.G. Kew P.M., and a numerous assemblage of brethren. The Lodge was opened, and the minutes were read and confirmed. Bro. Kew P.M., by the courtesy of the W.M., raised Bro. Lindsay to the third degree. A Board of Installed Masters was formed, and Bro. W. A. Lovett was presented to the Lodge, and received the benefit of installation at the hands of Bro. Kew. On the readmission of the brethren, the W.M. was saluted, and he appointed and invested his Officers as follows:—Bros. D. M. Belfrage I.P.M., H. C. Green S.W., C. Pugsley J.W., W. Hopekirk P.M. Treasurer, W. Hughes P.M. Secretary, Dettmar S.D., Brown J.D., Dickinson I.G., Millward D.C., Osmond A.D.C., Parsons W.S., Doran Tyler, R. Webb Organist, Parker Musical Director. Bro. Kew was warmly congratulated at the conclusion of the ceremony. Hearty good wishes were given by the brethren and Visitors, and the Lodge was closed. The brethren then sat down to a sumptuous banquet, provided by Bro Clemow. After grace had been said, the W.M., who ably presided, proposed the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts. Bro. D. M. Belfrage I.P.M., in proposing the toast of the W.M., was sure he would prove as good a Master as any who had preceded him; he was already a Past Master of another Lodge. He (Bro. Belfrage) was confident the Manchester, under his direction, would prove a success. Bro. Stead sang a very humorous song. The W.M. then replied. He thanked the I.P.M. for the manner in which the toast had been proposed. From the moment he joined the Craft he had hoped to attain the position of W.M., and in no Lodge more than in this old and influential one; he hoped he should, on leaving the chair, have the same good feeling shown him that had been exhibited that evening. Bro. Parker sang, splendidly, "A father's love." The W.M. then proposed the toast of the I.P.M. Bro. Belfrage; all who had attended the Lodge had seen how he had carried out the duties of the chair during his year of office. in very feeling terms the W.M. then presented him with an elegant jewel, the gift of the Lodge; in placing it on his breast, he expressed the hope that Bro. Belfrage might live long to wear it, and that he might be among them for many years as a P.M. of the Lodge. After a capital song from Bro. Phillips, Bro. Belfrage replied; six years since he was initiated in the Lodge; his year of office as Master was one of unalloyed pleasure, the recollection of it would never be effaced from his memory. As to the jewel presented to him, and the inscription on it, this was more than he could find words to acknowledge. Bro. Parsons sang a very excellent impromptu song. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the visiting brethren, whom they were always pleased to see among them. Bro. Phillips P.M. 173 and H. M. Levy P.M. 188 responded, they complimented the Lodge on its hospitality, the working of the Installing Master, and the charitable feeling exhibited by the members. Bro. Lindsay sang "The Skipper and his Boy." The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Installing Officer Bro. Kew P.M. Every one knew his capabilities, and the interest he had taken, not only in the Lodge, but also in the Craft at large. The W.M. had never heard the ceremony more perfectly worked than had been done by Bro. Kew; he took this opportunity, in the name of the Lodge, to drink to his health, and thank him for all the services he had rendered to them. Bro. James Parker sang splendidly "The Village Blacksmith." Bro. Kew P.M. in a very excellent speech, returned thanks. What he did for the Lodge and Freemasonry was a labour of love, all and any assistance he could render would be at their service. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the P.M.'s, they were all patterns of what P.M.'s should be. He would ask the brethren to drink the toast, and accord it the reception it merited. Bro. Dickinson sang a capital song accompanying himself on the piano. Bro. Hopekirk P.M. and Treasurer responded. No one could wish the Lodge greater prosperity than did the P.M.'s. He hoped all would pay deference to the Master, and perfect themselves so as to be enabled to occupy the chair. In every day life, while he was connected with the Lodge, he hoped they would always have a member like the W.M. to fill the chair. Bro. Belfrage I.P.M. followed in a telling speech, and the W.M. then proposed the toast of the Masonic Charities, and spoke eloquently of those noble institutions. He informed the company that he was a Steward for the ensuing Festival of the R.M.B. Institution, which will take place on the 9th February; he hoped to have a good list to present. Bro. Jas. Terry returned thanks. The W.M. in proposing the toast of the Officers said he hoped his selection had given satisfaction. He was sure, with their assistance he would be able to carry out the duties of the chair. This toast having been responded to, the Tyler's was given, and the brethren separated after passing a very agreeable and harmonious evening. Among the visitors were—Bros. J. C. Lardner 1586, J. Weston S.W. 1602, J. H. Townshend 1426, Phillips P.M. 173, Mansfield W.M. 766, Stead S.W. 1622, Walrond 141, Howard 1708, J. C. Reynolds 1229, Jacard 1314, Holland, Jas. Terry P.P.G.J.W. Herts, H. M. Levy P.M. 188.

ST. JOHN'S LODGE, No. 1247.

THE dinner of this Lodge, to celebrate the Festival of St. John the Evangelist, was held on Wednesday, 14th inst., at Bro. C. Walters', Farley Hotel, Plymouth. Amongst those present were Worshipful Brother Byron Elliott W.M., who presided, and W. Bros. George Firks I.P.M., Pearce S.W., J. Kinton Bond J.W., F. Aubrey Thomas P.M. P.P.G.S.D., J. R. Lord P.M. Treasurer, J. Renile P.M. Secretary, R. P. Culley P.M., J. Fly P.M., J. H. Keats P.M., Elliott Square P.M., R. A. Penrose S.D., H. J. Barter J.D., H. Lewis I.G., A. Rider D.C., R. C. Uglow S.S., J. A. Christie Organist, E. S. Lancaster, all of 1247; J. E. Curtois P.M. P.P.G.S.W., Charles Gutschalk P.M. P.P.G.D., S. Jew P.M. P.P.G.T., R. Twose P.M. P.P.G.T., E. A. Davies P.M. P.P.G. Supt. of Works, J. B. Gover P.M. 70 P.P.G.A.D.C., T. W. Fitch P.M. P.P.G.A.D.C., Bowhay Mark Embden W.M., John James P.M. 105, S. Pearce P.M. 159, T. Goodall P.M., Thomas Gibbons W.M. 1205, W. H. Pike J.W. 156, J. C. Cornish P.M. and Treasurer 223, W. Criper 218. The usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were duly honoured, that of the Worshipful Master especially. Since its formation—some eleven years since—this Lodge has been celebrated for the musical talent of its members. The arrangements for the entertainment of the visitors were quite in accordance with the reputation of the Lodge, and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Thanks were given to Bro. and Mrs. Walters for their admirable catering. During the evening a very handsome gold Past Master's jewel, voted by the Lodge, was given to the I.P. Master, on which was engraved the following inscription:—"Presented to W. Bro. G. J. Firks, by the Brethren of the St. John's Lodge, No. 1247, to mark their appreciation of his zeal during his Mastership.—A.L. 5879."

Digitized by Google

ROYAL
MASONIC BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION
FOR
AGED FREEMASONS AND WIDOWS OF FREEMASONS,
CROYDON.

—:o:—

Patron and President:
HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, K.G., &c., M.W.G.M

—:o:—

THE ANNIVERSARY FESTIVAL

OF THIS INSTITUTION WILL TAKE PLACE ON

MONDAY, 9TH FEBRUARY 1880,

AT

FREEMASONS' TAVERN, GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON,

UPON WHICH OCCASION

The Right Hon. the EARL OF ZETLAND,

R.W. PROV. G.M. FOR NORTH AND EAST YORKSHIRE,

Has been pleased to signify his intention of presiding.

Brethren desirous of accepting the Office of Steward upon this occasion will greatly oblige by forwarding their Names and Masonic Rank as soon as convenient, to the Secretary, who will gladly give any information required.

JAMES TERRY, P. Prov. G.J.W. Herts,
Secretary.

4 Freemasons' Hall, London, W.C.

ANDERTON'S HOTEL,

F. H. CLEMOW, PROPRIETOR,

Nos. 162, 164 & 165 Fleet Street, and 7 & 11 Johnson's Court, London.

THE ACCOMMODATION OFFERED AT THIS ESTABLISHMENT FOR

MASONIC MEETINGS, BANQUETS, &c.

IS UNRIVALLED.

THE premises have lately been rebuilt, and in order to maintain the time-honored reputation of the house, as one of the centres of London Freemasonry, special attention has been paid to the furnishing of Lodge quarters, which now comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL

Specially constructed for Masonic purposes, with preparation room adjoining

A LARGE BANQUET HALL

Fitted with every necessary for the comfort of Visitors, &c., &c.

ROOMS FOR LARGE OR SMALL DINNER PARTIES, MEETINGS, &c.

THE CATHEDRAL HOTEL,

CORNER OF

CHEAPSIDE & ST. PAUL'S CHURCHYARD.

—:o:—

F. J. SWEETING, Proprietor.

—:o:—

LUNCHEON BAR ON GROUND FLOOR FOR LIGHT REFRESHMENTS.

Soups, Fish, Chops, Steaks, Entrées, Cold Joints, &c. from Eight a.m. till Ten p.m.

DINING ROOMS ON FIRST FLOOR.

Hot Joints, &c. from Twelve o'Clock daily.
Dinners a la Carte. Teas, &c.

THE "CATHEDRAL HALF-CROWN DINNER"

(Soup, Fish, Joint)
Is served in the Saloon from Twelve till Five daily.

The Smoking Room overlooks the New Gardens round St. Paul's Cathedral.

PRIVATE ROOMS FOR SMALL PARTIES, MASONIC AUDITS, &c.

The following Lodges have recently held their Audit Meetings at this Hotel:—GROSVENOR, STANHOPE, POLISH NATIONAL, LA TOLERANCE, &c.

VITRUVIAN LODGE, No. 87.

BRO. ISAAC, who has for some time past provided for the requirements of this Lodge, begs to announce that he has obtained permission for the removal of his license to the Belvedere-road, and that he has erected commodious premises there. These comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL.

WITH ANTE ROOMS,

LARGE BANQUETTING HALL,

Together with every convenience for Masonic gatherings.

Applications from Secretaries and others for accommodation to be addressed

G. ISAAC, "WHITE HART," COLLEGE STREET, LAMBETH, LONDON, S.E.

DINNERS FROM THE JOINT from TWELVE to THREE o'clock. CHOPS and STEAKS from the GRILL till FIVE o'clock. T. MALDWELL, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-st., City, E.C.

THE FREEMASONS' TAVERN,

GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON. W.C.

The admirable and unrivalled accommodation provided at this Establishment for

MASONIC BANQUETS,

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE DINNERS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, BALLS, &c.

Is too well known to need comment. The entire management has been changed, and the Establishment in all its branches thoroughly re-organised.

The attention of the Masonic Body is directed to the many advantages offered.

CUISINE OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER.

WINES PERFECT IN CONDITION AND QUALITY.

N.B.—DINNERS PROVIDED FROM 3/-.

RESTAURANT, WINE, SMOKING & RETIRING ROOMS.

The fullest measure of public confidence and support ensured.

BRO. ALFRED BEST, PROPRIETOR.

OPENING OF THE CRITERION ANNEXE.

SPIERS & POND respectfully beg to inform their Patrons, that to meet the increasing demands of their business at the Criterion, the premises have been greatly enlarged, by the addition of the above building. The principal features of the New Establishment are as follows:—

The Cafe, comprising—
The American Bar,
The Vienna Bier Saal.

VIANDS FROM THE NEW GRILL. SUPPERS SERVED TILL MIDNIGHT.

Oysters a Specialite.

The Victoria Hall, for Banquets, Balls, Wedding Breakfasts, Soirées, and Entertainments.

The Prince's and Carnarvon Rooms, for Masonic Meetings, Banquets, &c.

Private Rooms, suitable for the meetings of Public and Corporate Bodies, Arbitrations, &c.

The Criterion Departments.

Buffet	For Luncheons and Light Refreshments.
Restaurant	Dinners à la Carte.
Cigar Divan	Facing Piccadilly entrance.
Smoking Room ...	Adjoining the Buffet.
Grill Room	Entrance in Jermyn Street.
West Dining Room	Le Diner Parisien daily from 5.30	p.m., and on Sundays.
East Dining Room ...	Dinners à la Carte.
The Grand Hall ...	Table d'Hote daily, from 5.30 till 8 p.m. (also on Sundays at 6).
Private Rooms ...	For Dinners, Wedding Breakfasts, &c., &c.

SAWYER'S (LATE STATION) RESTAURANT,

5 RAILWAY PLACE, FENCHURCH STREET, E.C.

ENGLISH, FRENCH & GERMAN CUISINE.

Hot and Cold Luncheons on the Ground Floor;

This Room will accommodate 100 persons.

CHOPS, STEAKS, &c., FROM THE GRILL;

The Grill Room will seat 150 persons.

REID'S TREBLE STOUT. WORTHINGTON'S ALES,
BERLIN TIVOLI BEER.

TEA AND COFFEE ALWAYS READY.

CHAMPAGNES OF THE BEST BRANDS. OLD BOTTLED PORTS.
SHERRIES AND OTHER WINES OF THE BEST QUALITY.

Bro. F. J. SAWYER, Proprietor.
Late of Pimm's, and the Crystal Palace.

DRESS SHIRTS.

ALFRED BURDEN devotes his special attention to this important article of Dress, and

GUARANTEES A PERFECT FIT.

GLOVES, HOSIERY, SCARVES, RUGS,
DRESSING ROBES AND SUITS.

THE "PYJAMAS" WAREHOUSE,
A. BURDEN & Co.,
51 CONDUIT STREET, W.

MASONIC HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS,

1 NOTTING HILL SQUARE, W.

THE SCHOOL has been established to provide a High Class Education to sons of Freemasons and others, on moderate terms. There are scholarships of the annual value of £10 to £20, and Exhibitions of £20. Terms for sons of Freemasons from 4 to 7 guineas per term, for other pupils from 5 to 8 guineas per term. For further particulars apply to the Secretary, or to

E. PASSAWER, LL.D.
Head Master.

Digitized by Google

Crown 8vo, price 2s 6d, cloth lettered.

Uniformity of Masonic Ritual and Observance.

By Bro. JAMES STEVENS, P.M., P.Z., &c.

"May be read with advantage by the whole Craft."—Sunday Times.
"Grand Lodge should at once set to work to secure the desired uniformity."—Sheffield Post.
"The subject is ably argued by the author."—Western Daily Mercury.
"Useful and valuable in the highest degree."—Exeter Gazette.
"Will have a material effect on the future of Masonic Ritual."—South Western Star.
"The author adduces many variations in the language used by different Preceptors."—Cox's Monthly Legal Circular.
"Ought to be in the hands of every Mason."—Northampton Guardian.
"To Freemasons generally it will be found useful and valuable, and we commend it to their notice accordingly."—Surrey County Observer.
"Bro. Stevens' motion for a Committee on the subject of Uniformity of Ritual was carried by a large majority."—Freemason's Chronicle report of Grand Lodge meeting, 3rd December 1879.

Sent, by post, on receipt of stamps, by the Author, Bro. JAMES STEVENS, 112 High-street, Clapham, S.W.; or by Bro. W. W. MORGAN, 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

Ninth Edition, post free, One Shilling.

DR. WATTS on ASTHMA. A Treatise on the only Successful Method of Curing the Disease. By ROBERT G. WATTS, M.D., F.R.S.L., &c., 5 Bulstrode-street, Cavendish-square, London.

London: MITCHELL AND CO., Red Lion-court, Fleet-street.

FISH DINNERS IN PERFECTION

2S EACH, including Soups, Entrées, Poultry, Joints, Cheese, Salad, Served from 12 to 4 daily.—GEORGE TAVERN, Billingsgate Market.

Sole Proprietor, GEORGE SMITH, from Anderton's Hotel.

FURNITURE FOR LODGE OF INSTRUCTION.—Complete Set, nearly new, for Sale. Address, J. W. H., "FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE" Office, 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE

23 GREAT QUEEN STREET, W.C.

UNITED GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

A SPECIAL meeting of Grand Lodge was held on Saturday evening, at Freemasons' Hall, London, for the purpose of the appointment and the investiture of a Grand Secretary, in room of Bro. John Hervey, who resigned that office 3rd Dec. 1879, on account of serious and long-continued ill-health. His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, M. Wor. Grand Master, presided; and, on his entering Grand Lodge, which was composed of some 500 brethren, was received with vociferous cheering. On his taking his seat in the Grand Master's Chair, Lord Skelmersdale occupied the Chair of Deputy Grand Master on his right, and Colonel Burdett took the position of Past Grand Master on his left. Captain Platt Past Grand Warden took the Chair of Grand Senior Warden, and Major-General the Hon. Somerset G. Calthorpe the Chair of Junior Grand Warden. The Rev. R. J. Simpson and the Rev. C. J. Martyn, Past Grand Chaplains, officiated as Grand Chaplains. Sir Albert W. Woods (Garter) Grand Director of Ceremonies, Colonel Creaton Grand Treasurer, W. J. B. Monckton (Town Clerk) President of the Board of General Purposes, and H. G. Buss Assistant Grand Secretary, also occupied the seats reserved for those Officers. Among other Grand and Past Grand Officers present were General Brownrigg Provincial Grand Master for Surrey, Sir Michael Costa, Captain N. G. Philips Past Grand Deacon, W. R. H. Giddy District Grand Master of Griqualand, S. Rawson and H. Murray Past District Grand Masters of China, Thomas Fenn Past Grand Deacon, ex-Sheriff Hutton, James Lewis Thomas, H. J. P. Dumas, J. M. Case, Joshua Nunn, Dr. Jabez Hogg, and John Gibson Grand Superintendent of Works. The new Grand Secretary, Lieut.-Colonel Shadwell H. Clerke, as a Past Grand Deacon, sat a little to the rear of the Grand Master among the Past Grand Officers on the dais. Bro. Henry G. Buss Assistant Grand Secretary, after the formal opening of Grand Lodge, by the direction of the Prince of Wales, read the summons assembling the brethren. The Prince of Wales then said: Brethren,—This special meeting of Grand Lodge has been called together for the purpose of investing Bro. Shadwell Clerke with the office of Grand Secretary. You will, brethren, I feel sure, agree with me that we have every reason to deplore and lament the serious illness of Brother Hervey, who has fulfilled the duties of Grand Secretary for many years so ably and well; and I am sure it is with unfeigned regret we learned that, from the state of his health he has thought it necessary to resign the important, and I may say very arduous duties of his office. Brethren, as your Grand Master, I have felt some responsibility in choosing one who I thought would be capable of holding this important post, and also at the same time I was anxious he should be one who would be agreeable generally to the brethren. I can only hope that the choice I have made is one which will meet with your approbation. I feel convinced that Brother Shadwell Clerke will do his duty to the utmost in the new and important situation he is about to fill. I may add, as you are doubtless aware, brethren, that Brother Shadwell Clerke has had many important duties in Masonry, but I know from him that those duties will in nowise interfere with the duties of Grand Secretary which he is about to hold. Colonel Shadwell Clerke was then conducted by Sir Albert Woods and Mr. Thomas Fenn to the right of his Royal Highness, when the Grand Tyler (Bro. Henry Sadler) attended with the Grand Secretary's apron, collar, jewel and gauntlets, on a blue velvet cushion. The Prince of Wales thereupon took these regalia, invested Colonel Shadwell Clerke with them, and afterwards cordially shook him by the hand. The new Grand Secretary proceeded to his table, under the conduct of Sir Albert Woods and Bro. Fenn, amidst universal cheering. Sir Albert Woods then called the brethren to "order," and taking the "fire" from him, Colonel Clerke was saluted with the salutes appertaining to his rank. The Prince of Wales then announced that there was no more business before the Grand Lodge, which was therefore closed in due form. On leaving Lodge, as on entering, his Royal Highness was greeted with loud and continued applause. Colonel Shadwell Clerke was presented with an address of congratulation from the Masonic Province of Monmouth by the hands of Brother William Watkins, of Newport, Monmouthshire, who was deputed by the brethren of that Province to perform the duty.

In another column we publish a letter from Bro. S. B. Wilson, referring to his unfortunate disagreement with the House Committee of the Boys' School. We regret exceedingly that there should be any cause for threats of legal proceedings, but if Bro. Wilson cannot obtain redress without recourse to law, we think he is quite justified in appealing to that tribunal. We shall take the opportunity of referring to the matter at more length in a future number. At present we can but hope, in the interest of the Institution so dear to us all, that an amicable settlement will be arrived at.

We have this year received, as usual, Calendars from the Provinces of West Yorkshire and North and East Yorkshire, compiled by Bro. T. B. Whytehead, and of Lancaster; compiled by Bro. Dr. J. D. Moore P.G.S.B. England. We have before testified to the usefulness of these little works, and think it only necessary to say that the same care that has characterised previous issues appears to have been taken with those now under notice.

On Friday, 16th inst., the pupils of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys, accompanied by the Masters of the School, the Secretary, Bro. F. Binckes, and others, paid a visit to the Alexandra Palace, and, on the invitation of Bros. Bertram and Roberts, witnessed the performance of the Pantomime there. We need hardly say that, "Our Boys" greatly appreciated the kindness of Bros. Bertram and Roberts, who have thus again evidenced the great interest they take in the institution at Wood Green.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

THE first meeting of the Royal Sussex Preceptory of Knights Templar since its removal from Devonport was held on Wednesday, 14th inst., at Newton Abbott, its future place of encampment. A satisfactory balance of over £12 has been handed over by the late Treasurer, E. Sir Knight Vincent Bird P.P.G.A. England, &c. Sir K. Knight Thomas Perry was elected E.P., and Sir Knight William Vicary was elected Treasurer.

Digitized by Google

DIARY FOR THE WEEK.

We shall be obliged if the Secretaries of the various Lodges throughout the Kingdom will favour us with a list of their Days of Meeting, &c., as we have decided to insert only those that are verified by the Officers of the several Lodges.

—:o:—

SATURDAY, 24th JANUARY.

Adjourned Quarterly Court Girls' School, Freemasons' Hall, at 12.
186—Percy, Jolly Farmers, Southgate Road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W. at 8

149—Pence, Private Rooms, Meltham
308—Prince George, Private Rooms, Bottoms, Eastwood

MONDAY, 26th JANUARY.

4—Royal Somerset House and Inverness, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
45—Strong Man, New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, at 8 (Instruction)
58—London Masonic Club Lodge of Instruction, 101 Queen Victoria-street, at 6
174—Sincerity, Railway Tavern, London-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
180—St. James's Union, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
188—Industry, Bell, Carter-lane, Doctors-commons, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
548—Wellington, White Swan, High-street, Deptford, at 8 (Instruction)
704—Camden, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
1308—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-st., Wapping, at 8 (Instruction)
1425—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-rd., Paddington, at 8 (Instruction)
1445—Prince Leopold, Mitford Tavern, Sandringham-road, Dalston, at 8 (Inst.)
1469—Marquess of Ripon, Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-rd., Hackney, at 7.30 (In.)
1608—Kilburn, Queen's Arms Hotel, Kilburn
1615—Bayard, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square
1623—West Smithfield, New Market Hotel, King-st., Snow-hill, at 8 (Inst.)
1625—Tredegar, Royal Hotel, Mile End-road, corner of Burdett-road (Inst.)
1632—Stuart, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell
1818—Clapham, Alexandra Hotel, Clapham Common

48—Industry, 34 Denmark-street, Gateshead
61—Probity, Freemasons' Hall, St. John's-place, Halifax
62—Social, Queen's Hotel, Manchester.
148—Lights, Masonic Rooms, Warrington
204—Nelson of the Nile, Freemasons' Hall, Batley
302—Hope, New Masonic Hall, Darley-street, Bradford.
307—Prince Frederick, White Horse Hotel, Hebden Bridge.
404—Three Graces, Private Rooms, Haworth
467—Tudor, Red Lion Hotel, Oldham
613—Unity, Masonic Hall, Southport
724—Derby, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8 (Instruction)
820—Lily of Richmond, Greyhound, Richmond, at 7.30 (Instruction)
999—Robert Burns, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester
1177—Tenby, Royal Assembly Rooms, Tenby, Pembroke
1449—Royal Military, Masonic Hall, Canterbury, at 8. (Instruction.)
1542—Legiolium, Masonic Hall, Carlton-street, Castleford
1575—Clive, Corbet Arms, Market Drayton
R. A. 241—Friendship, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
R. A. 827—St. John, Masonic Temple, Halifax-road, Dewsbury
M. M. 146—Moore, Masonic Rooms, Athenæum, Lancaster

TUESDAY, 27th JANUARY.

Audit Committee Girls' School, at 4.
14—Tuscan, Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street, W.C.
55—Constitutional, Bedford Hotel, Southampton-bldgs., Holborn, at 7 (Inst.)
65—Prosperity, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
92—Moira, Criterion, Piccadilly, W.
141—Faith, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
145—Prudent Brethren, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
177—Domatic, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
186—Industry, Freemason's Hall, W.C.
205—Israel, Cannon-street Hotel, E.C.
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney (Instruction)
763—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
860—Dalhousie, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1044—Wandsworth, Star and Garter Hotel, St. Ann's-hill, Wandsworth (Inst.)
1196—Urban, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
1349—Friars, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1360—Royal Arthur, Prince's Head, Battersea Park, at 8 (Instruction)
1441—Ivy, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
1446—Mount Edgcumbe, 19 Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1471—Islington, Three Bucks, 23 Gresham-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
1472—Henley, Three Crowns, North Woolwich, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1507—Metropolitan, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate-st., at 7.30 (Inst.)
1558—D. Connaught, Palmerston Arms, Grosvenor Park, Camberwell, at 8 (In.)
1602—Sir Hugh Myddelton, Crown and Woolpack, St. John's-st.-rd., at 8 (In.)
1707—Eleanor, Trocadero, Broad-street-buildings, Liverpool-street, 6.30 (Inst)
1744—Royal Savoy, Ashley's Hotel, Covent Garden
Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement, Jamaica Coffee House, Cornhill, 6.30.

24—Newcastle-on-Tyne, Freemasons' Hall, Grainger-st., Newcastle, 7.30 (In.)
51—Angel, Three Cups Hotel, Colchester
117—Wynnstay, Raven Hotel, Shrewsbury, at 8 (Instruction)
128—Silent Temple, Cross Keys Inn, Burnley
178—Antiquity, Royal Hotel, Wigan.
241—Merchants, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 6.30 (Instruction)
253—Tyrian, Masonic Hall, Gower-street, Derby
290—Emulation, Bull Hotel, Dartford
310—Union, Freemasons' Hall, Castle-street, Carlisle
357—Apollo University, Masonic Hall, Oxford
373—Socrates, George Hotel, High-street, Huntingdon
448—St. James, Freemasons' Hall, St. John's-place, Halifax.
510—St. Martin, Masonic Hall, Liskeard.
573—Perseverance, Shenstone Hotel, Hales Owen
624—Abbey, Masonic Hall, Union-street, Burton-on-Trent
779—Ferrers and Ivanhoe, Town Hall, Ashby-de-la-Zouch
897—Loyalty, Fleece Inn, St. Helens, Lancashire
986—Hesketh, Grapes Inn, Croston
1016—Elkington, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham
1214—Scarborough, Scarborough Hall, Caledonia-road, Batley
1358—Torbay, Town Hall, Paignton
1566—Ellington, Bell Hotel, Maidenhead
1587—St. Giles, Royal Oak Hotel, Cheadle
1699—Dramatic, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1675—Antient Briton, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
R. A. 199—Peace and Harmony, Royal Oak Hotel, Dover
R. A. 721—Grosvenor, Masonic-chambers, Eastgate-row-north, Chester
R. A. 1084—Temple, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
K. T.—Fidelity, Masonic Hall, Carlton-hill, Leeds

WEDNESDAY, 28th JANUARY.

193—Confidence, Railway Tavern, London-street, at 7 (Instruction)
212—Euphrates, Masons Hall, Basinghall-street, E.C.
229—United Strength, Hope and Anchor, Crowndale-rd., Camden-town, 8 (In.)
507—United Pilgrims, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
538—La Tolerance, Green Dragon, 3 Maddox-street, W., at 7.45 (Inst.)
781—Merchant Navy, Silver Tavern, Burdett-road, E. (Inst.)
813—New Concord, Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
862—Whittington, Red Lion, Poppin's-court, Fleet-street, at 8 (Instruction)
1185—Lewis, King's Arms Hotel, Wood Green, at 7 (Instruction)
1278—Burdett Coutts, Salmon and Ball, Bethnal Green-road, at 8 (Inst.)
1288—Finsbury Park, Earl Russell, Isledon-road, Holloway, at 8 (Instruction)
1524—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion Road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1763—Progress, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
R. A. 177—Domatic, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-st., at 8 (Instruction)
R. A. 753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood
R. C.—Studholme, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square

32—St. George, Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool
117—Salopian of Charity, Raven Hotel, Shrewsbury
125—Prince Edwin, White Hart Hotel, Hythe, Kent
128—Prince Edwin, Bridge Inn, Bolton-street, Bury, Lancashire
163—Integrity, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester
210—Duke of Athol, Bowling Green Hotel, Denton
220—Harmony, Garston Hotel, Garston, Lancashire
274—Tranquillity, Boar's Head Inn, Newchurch, near Manchester
290—Huddersfield, Masonic Hall, South Parade, Huddersfield
304—Philanthropic, Masonic Hall, Great George-street, Leeds
363—Keystone, New Inn, Whitworth.
387—Airedale, Masonic Hall, Westgate, Shipley
439—Scientific, Masonic Room, Bingley
606—Segontium, The Castle, Carnarvon
625—Devonshire, Norfolk Hotel, Glossop
724—Derby, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
750—Friendship, Freemasons' Hall, Railway-street, Cleckheaton.
972—St. Augustine, Masonic Hall, Canterbury (Instruction)
996—Sondes, Eagle Hotel, East Dereham, Norfolk
1039—St. John, George Hotel, Lichfield
1054—Townley Parker, Mosley Hotel, Beswick, near Manchester
1095—Hartington, Masonic Hall, Gower-street, Derby. (Instruction.)
1119—St. Bede, Mechanics' Institute, Jarrow
1219—Strangeways, Empire Hotel, Strangeways, Manchester
1261—Neptune, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7. (Instruction.)
1283—Ryburn, Central-buildings, Town Hall-street, Sowerby Bridge
1292—Egerton, Stanley Arms Hotel, Stanley-street, Bury, Lancashire
1403—West Lancashire, Commercial Hotel, Ormskirk
1511—Alexandra, Masonic Hall, Hornsea, Hull, at 7. (Instruction.)
1633—Avon, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester
1645—Colne Valley, Lewisham Hotel, Slaithwaite
1797—Southdown, Hurstpierpoint, Sussex
R. A. 605—De Tabley, Seacombe Hotel, Seacombe, Cheshire.
M. M.—Northumberland and Berwick, Masonic Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle
M. M. 24—Roberts, Masonic Rooms, Ann-street, Rochdale

THURSDAY, 29th JANUARY.

General Committee, Girls' School, Freemasons' Hall, at 4
3—Fidelity, Yorkshire Grey, London-street, Fitzroy-sq., at 8 (Instruction)
15—Kent, Chequers, Marsh-street, Walthamstow, at 7.30 (Instruction)
27—Egyptian, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7.30 (Instruction)
87—Vitruvian, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth, at 8 (Instruction)
211—St. Michael, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate Street, at 8 (Inst.)
435—Salisbury, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8 (Inst.)
754—High Cross, Coach and Horses, Lower Tottenham, at 8 (Instruction)
1227—Upton, King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., at 8. (Instruction.)
1426—The Great City, Masons Hall, Masons Avenue, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
1614—Covent Garden, Nag's Head, James-street, Covent Garden, at 7.45 (In.)
R. A. 753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
R. A. 1471—North London, Jolly Farmers', Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Inst.)

111—Restoration, Freemasons' Hall, Archer-street, Darlington
215—Commerce, Commercial Hotel, Haslingden
249—Mariners, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8 (Instruction)
286—Samaritan, Green Man Hotel, Bacup
346—United Brethren, Royal Oak Inn, Clayton-le-Dale, near Blackburn
350—Charity, Grapes Inn, Stonecliough, near Manchester
369—Limestone Rock, Masonic Hall, Church-street, Clitheroe
432—Abbey, Newdegate Arms, Nuneaton
439—Cecil, Sun Hotel, Hitchin
456—Foresters, White Hart Hotel, Uttoxeter
462—Bank Terrace, Hargreaves Arms Hotel, Accrington
807—Caldwell, Masonic Hall, Theatre-street, Norwich
934—Phœnix, Ship Hotel, Rotherham
966—St. Edward, Literary Institute, Leek, Stafford
971—Trafalgar, Private Room, Commercial-street, Batley
1125—St. Peter, Masonic Hall, Tiverton, Devon
1313—Fermor, Masonic Hall, Southport, Lancashire
1514—Thornhill, Masonic Room, Dearn House, Lindley
1612—West Middlesex, Feathers Hotel, Ealing, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
R. A. 260—Napthali, Masonic Hall, Market-place, Heywood
R. A. 307—Good Intent, White Horse Hotel, Hebden Bridge
R. A. 337—Confidence, Commercial Inn, Uppermill
M. M. 32—Union, Freemason's Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester
K. T.—Albert, Masonic Rooms, 23 Ann-street, Rochdale
K. T.—Fearnley, Masonic Temple, Halifax Road, Dewsbury

FRIDAY, 30th JANUARY.

Emulation Lodge of Improvement, Freemasons' Hall, at 7.
25—Robert Burns, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
507—United Pilgrims, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
780—William Preston, Feathers Tavern, Up. George-st., Edgware-rd. 8 (Inst.)
834—Ranelagh, Six Bells, Hammersmith (Instruction)
902—Hurstcourse, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Duke's Head, 79 Whitechapel-road, at 8 (Instruction)
1056—Metropolitan, Portugal Hotel, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 7 (Instruction)
1158—Belgrave, Jermyn-street, S.W., at 9 (Instruction)
1288—Finsbury Park M.M., Earl Russell, Isledon-road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1298—Royal Standard, Alwyne Castle, St. Paul's-road, Canonbury, at 8 (In.)
1365—Clapton, White Hart, Lower Clapton, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1642—E. Carnarvon, Mitre Hotel, Goulborne-rd, N. Kensington, at 8.0 (Inst.)
R. A. 79—Pythagorean, Portland Hotel, London-street, Greenwich, at 8 (Inst.)

401—Royal Forest, Hark to Bounty Inn, Staidburn.
420—Sutherland of Unity, Castle Hotel, Newcastle-under-Lyme.
652—Holme Valley, Victoria Hotel, Holmfirth.
780—Royal Alfred, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, at 7.30 (Inst.)
810—Craven, Devonshire Hotel, Skipton
1031—Eccleshill, Freemasons' Hall, Eccleshill
1062—Mirfield, Assembly Rooms, Eastthorpe, Mirfield
1385—Gladsmuir, Red Lion, Barnet
General Lodge of Instruction, Masonic Hall, New Street, Birmingham
R. A. 242—Magdalen, Guildhall, Doncaster

SATURDAY, 31st JANUARY.

198—Percy, Jolly Farmers' Tavern, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
1706—Orpheus, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8

NOTICE OF MEETINGS.

Constitutional Lodge of Instruction, No. 55. — A meeting was held on Tuesday, 20th inst., at Bro. Bond's, Bedford Hotel, Southampton Buildings, W.C. Present—Bros. Dickins W.M., Hallam jun. S.W., T. B. Linscott J.W., John Soper Sec., Snodin S.D., Hallam sen. J.D., Alford I.G.; Past Master Bro. John Bingemann Preceptor. Lodge was opened to the second degree, when Bro. Soper offering himself as a candidate for raising, answered the usual questions, and was entrusted. Lodge was opened in the third degree, and Bro. Soper was raised. The following sections of the third lecture were then worked—1st by Bro. Hallam jun., 2nd by Bro. Hallam sen. Lodge resumed to the first degree, was then closed, and adjourned to 27th January, at 7 p.m. The ceremony of Installation will be rehearsed on Tuesday, February 10th, by Bro. Powncby W.M. of the Constitutional Lodge.

Digitized by Google

Confidence Lodge of Instruction, No. 193.—The usual meeting was held at Bro. Seaton's, Railway Tavern, Fenchurch Street, on Wednesday, 21st inst. Present—Bros. Walker W.M., J. Smith S.W., A. Kahn J.W., Biddle P.M. S.D., W. J. Ramsay J.D., Saint I.G., Tobias, &c.; Visitor Bro. McGuire, of the Corinthian, 1802. The ceremony of raising was rehearsed, Bro. McGuire offering himself as candidate. Bro. McGuire was elected a member. The Lodge was then closed with solemn prayer, and the meeting adjourned till next Wednesday evening at 7.

St. Michael's Lodge, No. 211.—A regular meeting of this Lodge was held on Tuesday, 13th January 1880, at the Albion, Aldersgate-street, E.C. Present:—Bros. A. Withers W.M., W. Radcliffe S.W., Dr. Waters J.W., W. W. Morgan Sec., Usher Bach S.D., W. E. Young J.D., J. F. Hentsch I.G., T. C. Speight Tyler; Past Masters Bros. Alfred Green, D. Drysdale, T. H. Lavers, J. Laver; Bros. H. Green, Peirce, Crapper, Thring, J. Withers, Carter, Skipp. Visitors—George King P.M. 172, W. V. Dunkley I.G. 1777, H. J. Carter 1585, Henry Webb P.M. 72, Alfred Kent 1425, J. A. Coldicutt late 211, Frederick Dickinson 1298. The Warrant of the St. Michael's Lodge bears date the 11th day of September 1795; the number it then bore on the roll of the Grand Lodge (Ancients) was 290. At the Union it was placed as No. 367; at the renumbering of the Lodges in 1832 it became No. 235, while since 1863 it has stood as No. 211 on the roll. The Lodge has, during its career, stood prominently forward, and has had many eminent Masons associated in its government; while, at the present day, it seems likely fully to sustain the prestige of the past. The meeting of Tuesday, the 13th inst., was an eminently successful one, and Bro. Alfred Withers the W.M. must be congratulated on terminating his Mastership under such auspicious circumstances. The first business of the day was a ballot for Mr. Alexander Dickson, Secretary Kent Water Company, who was proposed by Bro. Lavers P.M., and seconded by Bro. John Laver P.M. The result was unanimous in favour of the candidate. Bro. Crapper, a candidate for the second degree, was examined and entrusted. Lodge was opened in the second degree, and Bro. Thring, a candidate for the third, underwent examination. Bro. Crapper was then introduced, and the W.M. conferred on him the degree of Fellow Craft. Bros. Crapper and Thring then retired, and the Lodge was opened in the third degree; Bro. Thring was re-admitted, and the W.M. worked the ceremony of the sublime degree in favour of the candidate. Lodge was resumed to the first degree, and the Secretary, who had not been able to attend in the early part of the proceedings, read the minutes of last meeting, which were confirmed and signed. Mr. Alexander Dickson was next introduced, and received his first lesson in Freemasonry, Bro. Withers rendering this ceremony, as he had those of the two other degrees, most perfectly. The election of a Worshipful Master for the ensuing twelvemonths was the next business, and the S.W. Bro. William Radcliffe received the suffrages of the brethren without one dissenting voice—a result that that worthy brother seemed fully to appreciate. The choice of the brethren for the office of Treasurer again fell on Bro. C. Greenwood P.M. Prov. G. Sec. Surrey, and Bro. T. C. Speight P.M. was re-appointed Tyler. Bros. Young, Martin, and Bach were appointed Auditors. After the Bye-laws had been read by the Secretary, and the transaction of routine business, Lodge was closed. A capital banquet was served in the large Dining Hall of the Albion, and was placed upon the table with the accessories for which this establishment is so famed. On the removal of the cloth, Bro. Withers proceeded with the toasts customary on these occasions. After that of the Queen and the Craft, the National Anthem was sung, Bro. P.M. Green sustaining the solo parts. In speaking to the toast of the M.W. Grand Master, the W.M. remarked that our illustrious Prince had given the most earnest attention to the duties required of him, and had gained the respect and esteem of Freemasons throughout England. The next toast—the Pro G. Master, the Deputy G. Master, and the Grand Officers Past and Present—needed not to be expatiated upon. The constituents of this illustrious body had every reason to be proud of their representatives. The toast was cordially received, after which Bro. Martin favoured the brethren with "Simon the Cellarer." Bro. Alfred Green I.P.M. proposed the health of the W.M., this pleasing duty devolved upon him that evening for the last time. He had infinite satisfaction in doing so. In whatever capacity they considered the claims of the W.M., whether as the persevering student, the Master of ritual, or for his liberality and generosity as a Mason, Bro. Withers was worthy of their esteem. All must regard with satisfaction the rapid strides he had made. His rendering of the ceremonies had been able and conscientious, while the poetry of his eloquence had taken all by surprise. He was always ready to extend the warm greeting of fellowship, and his year of Mastership had, indeed, shed a lustre on the St. Michael's Lodge. After a song from Bro. Kent, the W.M. returned thanks, in brief but hearty terms, and then came the several toasts of the Initiate, the Visitors, the Past Masters, the Charities. To all these brief replies were made, but the remarks were well to the point. The W.M. elect in due course received his meed of praise, which compliment he gracefully acknowledged. As usual at this Lodge the musical brethren well exercised themselves; we may especially mention Bros. Carter, Thring, J. Laver, Bach and A. Green. One feature of the evening we must not omit to mention. In the banqueting room was exhibited a capital portrait of the Worshipful Master, painted by a young, but we think a rising artist,—Mr. Ward Robertson. From the expressions of approval we heard, it is more than likely we may be called upon to give an opinion on other works by the same gentleman. The Installation Meeting of the Lodge will take place on Tuesday, the 10th February.

Chapter of Prosperity, No. 290.—The regular Convocation of this Chapter was held at the Masonic Hall, South Parade, Huddersfield, on 14th January. The Comps. were summoned for seven o'clock, but it was fully 7.15 before the Chapter was opened. In the absence of Comp. Allen Haigh Z., the duties were performed by Wm. Schofield P.Z., Sykes H., and Farrer J. The business being light, there was not so great an assemblage of Comps. as usual. Minutes having been read and confirmed, the three lectures were given—the Historical by Comp. Farrer J., this being the first time of his delivering a lecture; he did it very creditably, with care and attention, and a certain amount of impressiveness. The Symbolic was delivered by Comp. Sykes H., and more was expected from him, he evidently not being fully at home with the lecture; it was neither impressive nor perfect, he having to be continually prompted. The Mystical was delivered in a masterly manner by Comp. Brierley, and was a pleasing relief to the previous one, being delivered with great care, skill, and impressiveness. There were also present Comps. B. Hutchinson P.Z., John W. Turner P.Z., Wheawill E., Mitchell P.S., and others. After the completion of the business and the Chapter closed, the Comps. partook of refreshments, after which the usual toasts were duly proposed and responded to, and at an early hour the Companions separated.

Royal Alfred Lodge of Instruction, No. 780.—At the meeting on the 16th inst. there were present—Bros. Youens W.M., Gomm S.W., Jones J.W., Acworth S.D., C. E. Botley J.D. (Hon. Sec. pro tem), Maton I.G., Roe P.M. Preceptor; also Bros. Goss P.M., Gunner (Hon. Sec.), Wotton and Bellerby 1612. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Acworth candidate. Bro. Wotton answered the questions leading to the second degree. The W.M. vacated the chair in favour of Bro. Gomm, who opened in the second, and worked the ceremony of passing, Bro. Wotton candidate. The Lodge was closed in the second, and Bro. Youens resumed the chair. Bro. Gomm was elected W.M. for the next meeting. Bro. C. P. Bellerby of the West Middlesex Lodge 1612 was elected a member. A cordial vote of thanks was given to the W.M. (to be recorded on the minutes) for his able conduct in the chair, it being the first time he had occupied that position. Bro. Gunner (Hon. Sec.) was congratulated on his reappearance after his severe illness, and the Lodge was closed with observance of ancient custom and adjourned till Friday, 23rd January, at 7.30. p.m.

Ranelagh Lodge of Instruction, No. 834.—A meeting was held on Friday, 16th instant, at the Six Bells Tavern, Hammersmith, Bro. G. Festa W.M., Perdue S.W., Jack J.W., Alais Hon. Sec., and a numerous attendance of brethren. The Lodge having been opened, the W.M. performed the ceremony of passing excellently. The Lodge of Instruction having been closed, the brethren, nearly forty in number, sat down to an excellent supper provided by Bro. Copplestone. The W.M. gave the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts; in eloquent terms proposing that of the worthy Secretary, Bro. Alais, who he said was worthy of their regard and esteem. They were also met to inaugurate the removal of the Lodge from the Bell and Anchor to its present place of meeting, and he felt this a fitting opportunity to present to Bro. Alais the testimonial which had been subscribed for by the brethren. He accordingly handed to Bro. Alais a very elegant clock, and hoped he would live for many years, and look on it as a souvenir of the regard and esteem of the brethren for his indefatigable exertions for their comfort. When he gazed on it, he would remember the many pleasing hours he had passed with them in this Lodge of Instruction. Bro. Alais, in reply, said he was overpowered by his feelings at the flattering remarks of the W.M., and the reception of the toast, with their valuable gift. It would be an incentive to him to do all in his power for the Lodge; this he had done in the past. The toast of the W.M. was proposed by Bro. Perdue in very feeling terms, and appropriately responded to. The W.M. proposed the toast of the Preceptor, Bro. Read P.M., who had rendered the brethren great services by his valuable instruction. This having been responded to, the brethren separated, after some very excellent songs. Bro. Copplestone was warmly complimented for his excellent providing, and attention to the comfort of those assembled. Among the brethren were Bros. B. Swallow P.G.J.D. Middlesex, Docker, Moiles, Joseph Andrews, Burton, S. Williams, G. Clayton, A. Thomson, Vowler, H. Blunden, R. H. Williams, Harrison, Carter, H. Corston, W. C. Williams, Collins, Morton, Read, Square, Oliver, Webb, Metcalf, W. H. Chalfont, Captain Gnage, Blake, Butt, Symons, Dobson, C. Corston, &c.

Dalhousie Lodge of Instruction, No. 860.—On Tuesday, 20th instant, at Bro. Smyth's, Pownall-road, Dalston. Present—Bros. Christian W.M., Hand S.W., Clark J.W., Smyth S.D., Williams J.D., Fleck I.G., J. Lorkin Sec., P.M. Wallington Preceptor; Bros. Polak, Dallas, Allen, C. Lorkin, Carr, and others. The Lodge was opened to the second degree. Bro. Polak was interrogated and entrusted. The Lodge opened in the third degree, and Bro. Polak was raised. Bro. Allen assisted Bro. C. Lorkin to work the 2nd section, and Bro. P.M. Wallington the 3rd section of the lecture. The Lodge was resumed to the second degree. Bro. Carr assisted Bro. C. Lorkin to work the 1st section of that lecture. The Lodge was resumed to the first degree. Bro. Hand assisted Bro. Lorkin to work the 3rd section of the lecture. Bro. Hand was elected W.M. for the ensuing week, and appointed his Officers in rotation. All Masonic business being ended, the Lodge was closed in due form and adjourned. The Fifteen Sections will be worked in this Lodge of Instruction on Tuesday, 27th January, by the following brethren:—Bros. C. Lorkin J.D. 1524 W.M., Webb P.M. 1607 S.W., Christian 860 J.W. First Lecture—Bros. Smyth 1524, Clark I.G. 1178, Hand 1178, Christian 860, Moss 1275, Webb P.M. 1607, Powell S.W. Second Lecture—Bros. Carr I.G. 1607, Hallam S.W. 1349, Fenner S.W. 1227, Smith S.D. 860, Worsley S.W. 860. Third Lecture—Bros. Brasted J.W. 1554, Allen W.M., Perren P.M. 1056. The Lodge will be opened at seven o'clock.

Digitized by Google

JORDAN LODGE, No. 201.

THE Installation meeting of this Lodge was held on Friday, 16th inst., at the Freemasons' Hall, London. Lodge was opened by the W.M., Bro. J. Smith, who was supported by Bros. Hyland S.W., Payn J.W., Davage P.M. Treasurer, Robinson P.M. Secretary, Wallis S.D., Dovey J.D. Past Masters Bros. Ellsam, Reed, Wagner, Spooner, Whitley, &c. Bros. Gibbs and Smith were passed, after which Bro. T. J. Hyland was formally presented as W.M. elect. He was obligated, and a Board of Installed Masters being opened, he was placed in the chair of the Lodge by Bro. P.M. Ellsam. After the usual salutations, the following brethren were appointed as the Officers for the year:—Bros. Payn S.W., Wallis J.W., Davage Treas., Robinson Sec., Dovey S.D., Fox J.D., Simpson I.G. Lodge was then closed, and the brethren adjourned to the banquet-room. At the conclusion of the banquet, after grace, the W.M. proposed the toast of the Queen and the Craft. He hoped the day was not far distant when all men would have as much reason to be proud of their rulers as Englishmen were of their Queen. The toast was heartily received and followed by the National Anthem. Those of the Grand Master, the Pro Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master and the rest of the Grand Officers followed. With the latter was coupled the name of Bro. J. Wright P.G.P. who in reply, after acknowledging the kind way in which the toast had been received, said he believed all agreed with the remarks of the W.M. that the Grand Officers one and all did their duty. Nothing could give a greater zest to any brother or induce him to perform his duties more efficiently that an appointment to an office in Grand Lodge, be it ever so low on the list. The I.P.M. next rose; it was now his pleasure to propose the health of the W.M. All must feel proud that a brother so young and so amiable as the W.M. should have risen to fill the office. Had he been fortunate enough to have been appointed to the chair at so early an age he should have looked forward to a long round of pleasure; he had no doubt but that Bro. Hyland did so now, and he felt sure all present heartily wished that he might enjoy it. The W.M. in reply tendered his thanks to the brethren for having placed him in his present proud position. Without doubt he considered it was a great honor to be placed in the chair so young as he was. He hoped he might carry out the duties of the office to the satisfaction of the brethren and conduct the affairs of the Lodge in a way that would add to its good name. The Worshipful Master next proposed the health of the Visitors. He saw several round the board, many of whom had done so much for Freemasonry that were he to attempt to recount all the good work they had accomplished he feared they would not get away before midnight. He would simply call on the members to honour the toast, and then let each of the guests say a few words for himself. Bro. Walls having explained that he considered much time was wasted at Masonic gatherings in long speeches, which he did not think were necessary, proceeded to thank the W.M. and members for the reception accorded to the Visitors. Bro. Stiles followed. He was very pleased at the way in which the work of the Lodge had been conducted. Several of the brethren present may not have had the experience of the W.M. that he had. In another Lodge he had seen him perform his duty extremely well, and in Lodges of Instruction he had so often shown his ability that he felt sure the work of ruling the Lodge would be efficiently carried out. Bro. Hyland now proposed the health of the I.P.M., whom he had known for many years. He had always found that Brother using his utmost endeavours to carry out the duties of any position he undertook with zest and true Masonic feeling. More especially was this the case as regarded the Masonic Charities which had been one of Bro. Smith's first cares. Bro. Hyland said he had the pleasure of being initiated with his I.P.M., and therefore felt that a closer tie existed between them than was ordinarily the case. In reply to the toast the I.P.M. tendered his thanks. He always tried to be a good Mason, and to act up to the principles taught in the Lodge. He felt a great pleasure in associating himself with the Charities, all of which he hoped to see in a continued state of prosperity. He was convinced that if the brethren more numerously visited the Institutions there would be many more supporters, as all must be gratified at the way in which they were conducted. The W.M. in giving the health of the P.M.'s said he was very happy to say the Lodge possessed a long array of trusty brethren who had in years gone by faithfully discharged the duties of the chair. Even now they were ever ready to undertake any duty or perform any work that might be required of them. Bro. Ellsam in reply said it always afforded him the greatest pleasure to attend the Lodge or do anything for its members. He really felt it a great pleasure that he had that night installed into the chair a brother who, he was sure, would be able to perform all the work that might arise. He felt sure he was echoing the sentiments of the other Past Masters when he said they were all anxious to do what was required of them. Bro. Spooner followed. He was initiated in the Lodge 34 years back, and since that time had always met with the greatest kindness from its members. The Lodge appeared to him to be formed of a happy and united band. He felt sure the W.M. would speedily become an ornament to the Craft, and that he would do everything in his power to uphold the prestige of the Jordan Lodge. The toast of the Treasurer and Secretary was the next on the list. The W.M. thought that the election and the selection of those two officers met with universal approval. It was really impossible to find better men than those who filled the offices in the Jordan Lodge. Bro. Secretary, after tendering his thanks, expressed the pleasure it afforded him to perform the duties of his office. So long as he had worn the collar the Lodge had continued on a course of progress. It was then in a better position than it had ever been before, so far as he knew after an experience of twenty years. As a small Lodge, he thought they did as much in true charity as many much larger could boast of. Bro. Davage, the Treasurer, followed. It afforded him great pleasure to fill the office to which he had been elected. So far as he could ascertain the Lodge funds were in a better condition than they had been at any time during the past year. He hoped that every brother would assist him as far as laid in his power. The toast of the Charities was next given, and responded to by Bro. James Terry. As a result of that brother remarks one of the members offered himself as Steward at the next Festival of the Benevolent Institution, and at once commenced collecting subscriptions on its behalf. Before the brethren separated, a goodly sum was promised, which we believe will be augmented at the next meeting by a grant from the Lodge funds. In addition to this, Bro. Smith, the Immediate Past Master, undertook a similar duty on behalf of the Jerusalem Chapter, which is, we believe, strongly supported by the Jordan Lodge, so that between the two the members of No. 201 promise to be to the fore in the Charity lists of 1880. Bro. Hyland, in proposing the health of his Officers, thought the selection he had that night made was the best that circumstances afforded. To this toast each of the Officers replied in brief and appropriate terms. The Tyler was now summoned, and he gave the usual closing toast, A.U.B.N.B. Among the Visitors who were present we may name Bros. Ferguson P.M. 177, Wright 781, Martins 1329, Storey 1107 P. Prov. Grand Steward of W. Kent, Millard 179, James Terry Sec. R.M.B.I., Pincher 1677, Walls W.M. 1381, Stock P.M. 1178, Garbit P.M. 1178, Stiles W.M. 1732, Cook J.D. 1744, Mabey 1744, Gibb 1178, and Morgan jun. 1385.

SALISBURY LODGE, No. 435.

THE installation meeting of this Lodge was held on Tuesday, 20th inst., at Freemasons' Hall. Bros. J. Holden W.M., Emil Berger S.W., Jeffs J.W., W. H. Hooper P.M. Secretary, H. T. Hooper S.D., Allhausen J.D., Ball I.G.; Past Masters Secker, S. Rosenthal, Wilhelm Ganz P.G.O., Stamwitz, Biggs, Sachs, and Rahells. The Lodge was opened, and the minutes were confirmed. Ballots were taken for the admission of Captain J. Arnitt and Mr. J. R. Ward, which were unanimous in their favour. They will come forward for initiation at the next Lodge meeting. A Board of Installed Masters was opened, and Bro. Emil Berger S.W. and W.M. elect was presented to the Lodge and duly installed into the chair by the retiring W.M., in a very perfect and impressive manner. There were fifteen W.M.'s and P.M.'s present. The W.M. having been saluted according to ancient custom, appointed and invested his Officers as follows:—Bros. J. Holden I.P.M., Jeffs S.W., Hooper J.W., W. H. Hooper P.M. Secretary, Allhausen S.D., Ball J.D., Cook I.G., Brown D.C., Marsh Tyler. Loud applause followed the investiture of each Officer. The Senior Warden presented the brethren with a new ballot box. Bro. Jeffs S.W. announced his intention to act as Steward for the Anniversary Festival for the Girls' School, and Bro. Capstick consented to do a like service at the Anniversary Festival of the Boys' School. The sum of five guineas was voted to be placed on each of their lists, and also five guineas on the list of the W.M., who is a Steward for the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution. Hearty good wishes were given by the Visitors, and the Lodge was closed. The brethren partook of a sumptuous banquet and dessert, provided by Bro. A. Best, and superintended by Bro. E. Dawkins, which gave great satisfaction. Among the Visitors were Bros. Frend P.M. No. 1, Southwood 1260, T. Cooper W.M. 538, Lindner W.M. 25, Baker P.M. 753, E. Humphreys 538, Powneeby W.M. 55, C. V. Bibra 1446, Simmons 1677, Starkey 813, Drew 591, Humphries 45, Blundell 742, Meredith 742, Lloyd S.D. 1201, Dane 173, Fountain W.M. 1216, Belejante 36, S. A. Cooper J.W. 1637, and H. M. Levy P.M. 188. Grace having been said, the W.M., in eloquent terms, proposed the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts. Speaking of the Deputy Grand Master and the rest of the Grand Officers, he said they were proud to recognise Bro. Ganz P.G.O.; he generally was called on to respond to the toast, but on this occasion he was obliged to leave. Bro. Holden I.P.M. rose; holding the gavel, he had now the pleasure to propose the toast of the W.M. This always received at the hands of the brethren a good reception. The present W.M. would find such support as would enable him to carry out the duties, and would, at the end of his year, receive at their hands a testimony of their good wishes. The W.M. said he could not attempt to emulate the eloquence of the preceding speaker, but if they would accept his heartfelt thanks for the kindness shown him, and say after his term had expired he had performed the duties required of him, he should feel intensely gratified. He had now the great pleasure to propose the toast of the Installing Master, who had well shown his proficiency; the lecture on the Tracing-board given by him needed no comment. The brethren had voted him a jewel, which he well deserved, and in placing it on Bro. Holden's breast, he hoped he would live for many years to wear it, and enjoy health and prosperity. Bro. Holden said his services, humble though they were, it was gratifying to him, were appreciated; he was proud of the position of W.M., and equally so of that of P.M. As long as he was spared, he would thank the brethren who had awarded him and decorated him with a jewel; he did not think he should have such a badge of peace placed on his breast, as a mark of the kindness of those who had helped him to attain the Master's chair; he would always treasure it as a mark of their esteem. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Past Masters; they had many among them—all respected in the Craft; he would call on the brethren to give the toast the reception it merited. Bro. Rahells replied, in a very excellent speech; he had watched the career of the W.M.; he was one that would cultivate the right feeling of good fellowship, and would rule the Lodge with kindness. One of the precepts of the Craft is good will to all men; he (the speaker) was sure the W.M. would at the end of his year of office have the good wishes of every brother. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Visitors; they were very numerous; he saw many who were distinguished in the Craft, and one who came from South America. Bros. Belejante, Frend, and H. M. Levy returned thanks; all complimented the W.M., who had so ably presided; while the excellent manner in which the Installing Master performed the ceremony was beyond praise. The toast of the Officers was next given, the W.M. especially complimenting Bros. Jeffs and Hooper, who replied. Several other toasts followed, and altogether the time passed most pleasantly.

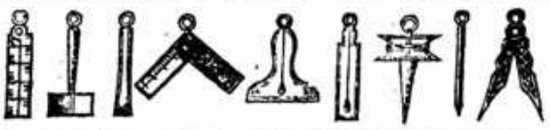
Digitized by Google

ORDER OF ST. LAWRENCE.

Metropolitan Lodge.—A meeting of this Lodge was held at 3 Red Lion-square, on Saturday, 17th inst. Present:—Bros. C. F. Matier P.M. as W.M., S. C. Dibdin S.W., S. Rawson J.W., D. M. Dewar Secretary, Robert Roy I.G.; Bros. F. Binckes P.M., S. Rosenthal P.M., J. Constable P.M., Thomas Cubitt, J. E. Anderson, George Graveley, C. E. Soppet, George Lambert, J. S. Badkin, James Glaskin, L. P. Coubro, George Cooper, R. P. Spice, and C. J. Morgan. In the absence of the W.M., the Lodge was opened by Bro. C. F. Matier P.M., in ancient form. The minutes of last meeting were read, confirmed, and signed. Bros. J. S. Badkin, J. Glaskin, and L. P. Coubro, all of Clapton Mark Lodge No. 236, and Bros. George Cooper of Bon Accord Lodge (T.I.), and R. P. Spice of the Keystone Lodge No. 3, proposed by Bro. Dewar, and seconded by Bro. Soppet, were unanimously approved, and being in attendance, were duly obligated and admitted as members of the Order, the ceremony and lecture being ably performed by Bro. Matier. It was moved by Bro. Matier, seconded by Bro. Constable, and unanimously resolved, that the Secretary communicate to Bro. Roebuck the W.M. the congratulations of the Lodge on this the anniversary of his birth, and wish him "Many happy returns of the day." Bro. G. Lambert proposed, and Bro. S. Rawson seconded, Bro. William Bywater P.M. Royal Athelstane Lodge, as a candidate for admission to their degree. No further business offering, the Lodge was closed in ample form, and the brethren adjourned to a "grill" at the Holborn Restaurant, under the genial presidency of Bro. Binckes.

Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement.—A meeting was held on Tuesday, at the Jamaica Coffee House, Change Alley, Cornhill, Comps. Lee Z., Edmonds H., Catterson J., Pennefather S.N., Pain P.S. Amongst those present were Comps. Le Feuvre Prov. G.S.E. for Hampshire and the Isle of Wight, Comp. Frederick Brown Preceptor, G. L. Walker, &c. After preliminaries the ceremony of exaltation was rehearsed, Comp. Walker candidate. R.A. Masons in want of Instruction should pay a visit to this Chapter.

Upton Lodge of Instruction, No. 1227.—Held at the King and Queen, Norton Folgate, on Thursday, 15th January 1880. Present:—Bros. Patrick W.M., Powell S.W., Gieseke J.W., Fenner Preceptor, Wallbrecht Secretary, Bromet I.G.; also Bros. Legg, Klein, Pearcy, &c. Usual formalities were duly observed, and ceremony of raising was rehearsed. Bro. Klein acting as candidate. The Lodge was resumed to the 1st degree, when Bro. Leoffler of the Duke of Connaught Lodge, No. 1524, was elected a member. Bro. Fenner was appointed to preside at the next meeting, after which the Lodge was closed.



Friars Lodge of Instruction, No. 1349.—Held at Bro. Pavitt's, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, on Tuesday, 20th January. Bros. Andrews W.M., Pavitt S.W., Candick J.W., Smith S.D., Butler J.D., Power I.G., Worsley Secretary, P.M. Musto Preceptor; also Bros. Bannister, White, Sadler, &c. The Lodge was opened in due form with prayer, the minutes of the last meeting read and confirmed. The Lodge opened in the second degree, when Bro. Musto answered the necessary questions; the Lodge opened in the third, when the ceremony of raising was rehearsed, Bro. Musto candidate. Bro. Worsley worked the sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Pavitt was unanimously elected W.M. for the ensuing week, when sections only will be worked. He will be assisted by P.M. Bro. Candick as S.W., Musto as I.P.M. The Secretary announced that the Fifteen Sections would be worked at the Dalhousie Lodge of Instruction 860, at Bro. Smyth's, Pownall-road, Dalston, on Tuesday next, commencing at seven o'clock precisely. The Lodge then closed in due form. We are asked to state that this capital Lodge of Instruction has resumed its weekly meetings, after the recess.

West Middlesex Lodge of Instruction, No. 1612.—Meeting held at Feathers' Hotel, Ealing, on Thursday 15th inst. Present:—E. C. Porter W.M., A. Jones S.W., H. Westmore J.W., C. Bellerby S.D., J. W. Woolmer J.D., M. W. Wyville I.G., H. E. Tucker Treasurer, H. Martin P.M. 1329, F. C. Woolmer, J. J. Clarke. The W.M. rehearsed the ceremony of initiation, Bro. F. C. Woolmer candidate. The Lodge was opened in second degree, and the ceremony of passing was rehearsed, Bro. Wyville candidate. The Lodge was closed in second degree. Bros. H. Westmore 217, and H. Martin were elected members of this Lodge of Instruction, and Bro. A. Jones was elected W.M. for the ensuing week. The Lodge was closed in due form with solemn prayer, and the meeting adjourned to Thursday 22nd inst.

The regular meeting of the Metropolitan Lodge, No. 1507, was held on Wednesday, at Anderton's Hotel, Fleet Street. A report of the proceedings stands over until next week.

A very interesting entertainment is now provided at the Royal Polytechnic, in the form of a series of Tableaux Vivants, representing the career of the unfortunate Mary Queen of Scots. Each Tableau is preceded by a few words of explanation, and followed by music and dissolving views, further illustrating the story. The dresses are superb, and the general arrangements are worthy of praise. Mr. H. C. Sanderson has the direction of the whole, Bro. Stedman conducting the vocal music. As usual here, there are several other items to interest visitors, and a pleasant hour or two may easily be spent.

The Third Annual Ball of the Manchester Lodge, No. 179, will be held on the 5th February, under the presidency of the W.M. Bro. E.W. Allen and an influential body of Stewards.

LATEST NOVELTY.
MASONIC CHARM FOR CHAIN.
The whole of the working Tools complete as above.
MOUNTED IN GOOD GOLD AND ORNAMENTALLY ENGRAVED.
To be had of the maker on receipt of 25s.
E. PELIKAN, Manufacturing Jeweller,
No. 102 St. John Street Road, London, E.C.
P.O.O. to be made payable at the St. John Street Road Office.

IVORY HAIR BRUSHES
Mirrors & all other Ivory Toilet Articles,

& IVORY GOODS IN GENERAL,
Wholesale & for Exportation & the Trade only.

AT HENNIG BROS. Ivory Works,
11, HIGH STREET, LONDON, W.C.

FREEMASONS' CALENDAR and POCKET-BOOK, containing a complete list of all the regular Lodges and Royal Arch Chapters, with their places and times of meeting. Published for the benefit of the Charity Fund, under the sanction of the United Grand Lodge of England. May be had from W. W. Morgan jun., FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, London, W.C. Price 2s. post free.

CANNON STREET HOTEL, CANNON STREET, LONDON, E.C.
Has been thoroughly renovated; the Railway advantages, in direct communication with the Hotel, render this establishment unequalled in the Metropolis for
MASONIC BANQUETS, PUBLIC & PRIVATE DINNERS, BREAKFASTS, &c.
DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENTS, PUBLIC MEETINGS, ARBITRATIONS, &c.
THE LARGE HALL IS CAPABLE OF SEATING UPWARDS OF TWELVE HUNDRED PEOPLE.
VISITORS AND FAMILIES visiting LONDON, for LONG or SHORT PERIODS, will find the APPOINTMENTS, and ACCOMMODATION UNRIVALLED.
E. H. RAND, MANAGER.

LADBROKE HALL, NOTTING HILL, LONDON, W.
(Opposite the Notting Hill Station of the Metropolitan Railway, from which Trains run every few minutes to all parts of London, and in connection with the principal Lines of Railway.)
THE ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED FOR LODGE MEETINGS IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE DISTRICT.
LARGE LODGE AND BANQUET ROOMS, WITH EVERY CONVENIENCE.
THE HALL MAY BE ENGAGED for BANQUETS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, DINNERS, PUBLIC or PRIVATE ENTERTAINMENTS, &c
Apply to Bro. J. LINSCOTT (at the Hall), 14 Ladbroke Grove Road, London, W.

Digitized by Google

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND,

Under the patronage and support of

H.R H. The Prince of Wales, Grand Master of England.
H.R.H. The Duke of Connaught, K.G., P.S.G.W.
H.R.H. Prince Leopold, K.G., Past Jun. Grand Warden England, Prov. G.M. Oxfordshire.
Carnarvon The Right Hon. the Earl of, Pro Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
Skelmersdale Rt. Hon. Lord, Deputy Grand Master England, Prov. G M. West Lancashire.
Abercorn His Grace the Duke of, G.M. Ireland.
Stewart Sir M. R. Shaw, Bart., G.M. Scotland.
Rosslyn Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Past Grand Master Scotland.
Athole His Grace the Duke of, K.T., P.G. Master Scotland.
Arnold Rev. C. W., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Surrey.
Beach W. W. B., M.P., Prov. G. Master Hampshire and Isle of Wight.
Bennett Sir John, C.C., Grand Stewards' Lodge.
Bird Reginald, M.A., S.G.D. England, Deputy Prov. G. Master Oxon.
Bright Sir Charles T., Dep. Prov. G.M. Middlesex.
Broadley A. M., D.D.G.M. Malta, Prov. G.M.M.M. Tunis and Malta.
Brooke Right Hon. Lord, M.P.
Brownrigg General J. Studholme, C.B., Prov. Grand Master and Supt. Surrey.
Burdett Colonel Francis, Prov. Grand Master Middlesex, G. Supt. Middlesex, P.S.G.W., Rep. from Grand Lodge of Ireland.
Burrell Sir Walter W., Bart. M.P., P.G.M. Sussex.
Carington Right Hon. Lord
Calthorpe Maj.-Gen. Hon. Somerset J.G., J.G.W.
Cockcroft Lonsdale M., Deputy Prov. G. Master Northumberland.
Clarke Hyde, Past Grand Master and Rep. from Grand Lodge of Columbia.
Ebrington Rt. Hon. Viscount, P.G.M. Devonshire.
Else Richard C., Dep. Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
Ferrers Rt. Hon. the Earl, P.G.M. Leicestershire.
Ferrieres Baron de, Prov. G. Reg. Gloucestershire.
Gooch Sir Daniel, Bt., M.P., P.G.M. Berks & Bucks.
Grosvenor Right Hon. Lord Richard, P.S.G.W.
Gundry J. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Dorset.
Halford Lieut.-Col. Sir Henry Sr. John, Bart., D. Prov. G. Master Leicestershire and Rutland.
Halsey Thomas F., M.P., P.G.M. Hertfordshire.
Hartington, Rt. Hon. Viscount, M.P., Prov. G. Master Derbyshire.
Hayes Rev. Sir John Warren, Bart., P.D.P.G.M. Berks and Bucks, P.G.C.
Henniker Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W., S.G.W.M.M., P.P.G.W. Suffolk.
Hickman W., P.A.G.D. of C., D. Prov. G.M. Hants and Isle of Wight.
Hill Right Hon. Lord Arthur.
Huyshe Rev. J., P.G.C., P.P.G.M. Devonshire.
Iles F. H. Wilson, M.D., Deputy Prov. G. Master Hertfordshire, Prov. G.H., &c.
Inverurie Rt. Hon. Lord, P.G.M. Kincardineshire, P.G. Supt. Angus and Mearns, S.G.W. Scotland.
Johnstone Sir Harcourt, Bt., M.P., P.J.G.W.
Jouet Thomas, P.D.P.G.M Hereford.
Kensington Rt. Hon. Lord, M.P., S.G.W. England, D. Prov. G.M. S. Wales (Western Division.)
Lechmere Sir Edmund A. H., Bart., M.P., Prov. G.M. Worcestershire.
L'Estrange Col. H. Peisley, P.G. Supt. Norfolk.
Lloyd-Philipps Col. John Allen, Prov. G. Master South Wales (Western Division).
Londesborough Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W.
Martyn Rev. C. J., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Suffolk.
Masefield William, D.P.G.M. Worcestershire.
Mallon G., S.G.D. England, D. Prov. G.M. E. Lanc.
Newmarch George Frederick, Dep. Prov. G.M. Gloucestershire.
Oxenden Haughton Charles, P.G.W., Dep. P.G. Master Derbyshire.
Owen Sir Philip Cunliffe, K.C.M.G., C.B., S.W. 1159
Percy Rt. Hon. Earl, M.P., P.G.M. Northumberland
Perkins, Sir Frederick, M.P., P.M. 130, P.P.S.G. W. Hants, P.P.S.G.W.M.M.M., &c.
Portal Rev. Geo. Raymond, P.M. 10, P.G.M.M.M.
Perry-Cust Ven. Archdeacon A. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Berks and Bucks.
Scott J. H., Dep. Prov. G.M. Sussex.
Spencer-Stanhope Rev. C. W., G. Chap., Deputy Prov. G.M. Cheshire
Starkie Col. Le Gendre N., Prov. G.M. East Lanc.
Tew T. W., Dep. Prov. G.M. West Yorkshire
The Provincial Grand Lodge of Hampshire and Isle of Wight
Truscott Sir Francis Wyatt, Lord Mayor of London, P.M. No. 1, P. Pres. Board of G. Stewards
Watson John, Dep. Prov. G M. Notts.
Waveney Rt. Hon. Lord, Prov. G. Master Suffolk
Wigram Rev. Spencer R., P.G.C., D.P.G.M. Essex
Wilkins Butler, Dep. P.G.M. Norths and Hunts.
Zetland Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Prov. Grand Master North and East Yorkshire

Ace Rev. Daniel, D.D., F.R.A.S., P.P.G.C. Linc., G. Chap. Mark.
Adams Herbert J., P.M. 569, P.Z. 11, 1237
Addcott C. C., 1307
Adlard F., P.M 7, P.Z. 214, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Essex
Albert E. P., P.G.P., Sec. 188, 1017, &c.
Alpass Horace S., Prov. G. Sec. W. Lanc.
Andrews Joseph, 209, St. James Chap. A.S.A.E.
Armstrong R. L., P.M. 406, P.G.S.D. Northumberland
Ayling T., P.M. 1686, P.P.G.D. of C. Kent
Ayton Rev. W. A., P.M. 199
Bagshawe Rev. Augustus A., M.A., P.G. Chap., P.P.S.G.W. Derbyshire, G. Chap. Mark, &c.
Baker E. P.P.G.S. of W. Berks and Bucks
Baldwin —, P.P.J.G.D. Middlesex
Bauer G. L., 198
Barfield —.
Barratt T., J.D. 3
Barwell H. G., P.M. 52, P.G. Sec. Norfolk
Bassett N. J. F.
Beasley A., P.M. 780, 1612
Beer Edwin, P.M. 1449
Belfrage D. M., W.M. 179.
Bell J., P.M. 1356, 1609, P.Z. 1356, P.P.J.G.D.
Bell W.
Berrie J. W., W.M. 1185.
Berry John J., P.M. 554.
Best Alfred, 211.
Biggs W., P.Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Binckes F., P.G.S., Sec. R.M.I.B.
Blackburn George, S.W. 264.
Blackwell E. J., S.D. 1101.
Boggis Arthur.
Boulter E. Reeve.
Boulton Babington, P.M., P.Z., P.P.G.D.
Bradley R., Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Brine Col. Frederic, R.E., P.M.
Brown H., Sec. 1764, P.G.S. Norths and Hunts.
Brown Richard, P.M. 241. P.Z. 1356, Hon. Sec. West Lanc. Masonic Educational Institution.
Bulley F. A., P.P.G.S.B. Berks and Bucks.
Burney Lieut.-Col. W. S. Somerville, P.P.S.G.D. Essex, P.M. 1615.
Burt, Ex-Sheriff George, A.G.D.C.
Carter J. O., Sec. 209, P.P.G.D of C. Berks & Bucks.
Carter Q.-M. Sergt. W., Sec. 1449.
Cattelle A., J.D. 31.
Challen Chas., I.G. 3.
Chalmers T. W., P.M. 726.
Clark Matthew, J.G.D. England.
Clarke Stephenson.
Clench Major E.
Collins Rev. J. W., P.G.C. Suffolk, S.W. 1823.
Collins R. H.
Conolly Dr., 1185.
Constable John, P.M. 185, Vice-President.
Cooke Alfred.
Cooke Charles, W.M. 1823.
Cooper F.
Corilley W., 574, 1101.
Cronin F., P.M. 231.
Cousins C., S.D. 209.
Cutbush James, P.M. 1335, Treas. 1731, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Herts.
Daunt Rev. E. T. Townshend, M.A., P.G.C. Cornwall.
Davage F. B., P.M. and T. 201, P.M. 167, P.Z. 185.
Davis G., J.W. 187
Davy C. R.
Dawkins Edward.
Dewar D. M., P.M. 1415, Assistant Grand Secretary M.M.M.
Dosell J. W., P.M. 55 463 1769, P.P.G.D.C. Surrey.
Dover J., 591.
Durrant Captain, P.M. 1185.
Emmerson Charles.
Emmerson R. Joynes, P.M. 1206, P.P.J.G.W. Kent.
Ewins S.D., P.M. 766.
Eynon R., P.M. 481, Prov. S.G.W. Northumberland.
Fenner A. W., S.W. 1227, J.W. 1693.
Fielder Baron, P.M., P.S.G.W. Berks and Bucks.
Flowerden Edward.
Frank, C. H., 1764.
Fraser J. A., 948.
Freeman, Vincent P., Prov. G. Sec. Sussex.
Frere E. T.
Gardiner G., Secretary 749.
Gee Fred. W., 1224, I.G. 1623.
Gibb T. Eccleston, 34.
Gilbert E. C., P.M., P.Z. 221, 293.
Gladwell Arthur E., J.W. 172.
Gleadall Rev. J. W., P.M. 1, P.G. Chap., Chaplain to Foundling Hospital.
Godfrey Henry, P.M. 82, P.S.G.W. Gloucestershire.
Godson A. F., Q.C., M.A., P.M. 1097, P.P.G.S.W. Wales.
Goodall H. S., P.M. 784, 871, 65.
Greenfield John, Treas. 1602.
Greenwood George H., P.M. 1224.
Haasp T.
Harriott G., P.P.G.M. Wigtown and Kirkcudbright
Harris S. M., Sec. 506
Harvey —.
Hawkins E. C., P.G.S. Oxon
Hedges Fentham, W.M. 478, P.P.G. Sec. Oxfordsh.
Hemsley —, 771.
Henry Chaplin
Higham P., P.M. 21, P.P.J.G.W. Kent
Hodges H. Howard, P.M. 795. P.Z. 771, P.P.S.G.W., and P.G. Reg. [Arch] Berks and Bucks
Hogg Dr. Jabez, P.G.D., P.M. 172, 1289
Hopekirk W., P.M. Treas. 179, P.M. 1536, P.Z. 742
Hopper W.
Hopwood E., P.M. 141, 209, P.G.S.B. Middlesex
Horsley Charles P.P.G.R., P. Soj. Middlesex, P.Z.
Howkins Thos. P.M. 463, 938, P.P.G.W. and Sec. to Charity Committee of Warwickshire
Howorth Sergt.-Major J. F., Steward 1449
Hubbard C., W.M. 820
Inman Edwin H., P.J.W. 1312
Irvine J.
Jackson J. H., W.M. 654
Jacobs J., P.M. 442, P.P.G. Reg. Staffordshire
James W. H., P.M. 592, P.P.G.D.C. Gloucestershire
Johnson E., P.M. 149
Johnson H. J., S.W., 1791, J.D. 186, I.G. 1624
Jones E. Stanton, P.M. and Secretary 1319
Jones Robert E., W.M. 1224
Kay J. 742
Kenning George, P.P.G.D. Middlesex
Kent A., 1425
Kirby Edward, P.M. 1096
Klamborowski Leonard, J.W. 1823
Lake Wm., P.M. 131, P.P.G. Reg.
Lancham Henry C.
Le Fevre John G., Prov. G. Sec. Hants and I. of W.
Levy H. M., P.M. 188, &c.
Lewis W. Lambton
Lloyd Horatio, J.G.D.
Lucia W. H., P.G.S.B., Prov. G. Sec. Suffolk
Lucking A., P.M., P.Z., Prov. G. Sec. Suffolk
Lucking A., P.M., P.Z., Prov. G.D. of C. Essex
Maidwell T. J., P.M. 27.
Marshall Horace Brooks, C.C., Treas. 1777.
Massey H., P.M. 619.
Matier C. F., P.G.S.W. Greece, P.M. 645, P.G.W. Mark
Mather John L., P.M., P.G.D.C. Herts.
Meggy Thos., 10, P.M. 21, P.G.S.
Miskin H., W.M. 1449.
Morgan W. W., Sec. 211.
Morris Rev. R., Head Master R.M.I.B.
Morris W., Treas. 1656.
Motion George, P.M. 453, P.P.G.S.W. Essex.
Moutrie W. F. C., P.M. 11.
Murray J. Joyce.
Nairne P. A., P.M. and Treasurer 178.
Naylor H. T., P.M. 1449.
Newcomb J., 742.
Newsom W., P.M. 1661, P.J.G.W. Notts.
Newton James, P.M., P.Z., P.G.S.N. East Lanc.
Nicholes W. S., S.W. 209.
Orellana James, J.W. Mark 244.
Pass W., P.M. and Treasurer 28.
Palmer T.
Passawer Dr. E., W.M. 244 Mark.
Payton F. W., J.D. 482.
Pears Andrew, W.M. 865, J.W. 209.
Pepper J. F., W.M. 842.
Percival Captain H. P., 1261.
Perryman W. H., P.M. 3.
Potts E. J., 209.
Phillips W. Page T., P. Prov. S.G.W. Suffolk, G.H.
Pollitzer S., P.M. 1017, P.Z. 188, 538.
Ralling T. J., Prov. G. Sec. Essex.
Radcliffe T. H. 511.
Radcliffe W., S.W. 211.
Randall Rev. W., P.M. 448, P.G.C. Warwicksh. and Staffs., Z. 482, E. 43, P.P.G.S., &c.
Ravenshaw Rev. F. F., P.G.C., P.M. 10, 663, P.Z. 632.
Reed H., P.M. 733.
Rere E. T.
Riach H. H., P.M. 874, 1523, P.Z. 1118, Past Prov. Grand Secretary Oxon.
Richards A. A., P.G.S., P.G.W. Middlesex.
Roberts Henry, 55.
Roberts Robert, P.M. 742, W.M. 209, Prov. G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Robbins Rev J., D.D., P.M. 1035, P.G. Chaplain Middlesex, W.M. 1765.
Rogers Rev. W.
Rosenthal S., P.M. 435, P.Z. 410, P.P.S.G.W. Middx.
Row C. J. N.
Sanders Rev. S. J. W., M.A. LL.M., &c. W.M. 1764, C. 360, Prov. G. Chap. Northa. and Hunts.
Saunders C. G., 329, 1669.
Saunders W. H., W.M. 889, P.P.G.D. Mdx., P.M. 1503.
Seller A., 414, P.P.G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Sharpe W. H. C., W.M. 795.
Shaw Rev. R. D., W.M. 85.
Sherren J. A., W.M. 170, P.P.G.W. Dorset.
Short Rev. W. F., P.G.C., 10, 357, 1383, 1637.
Simpson Rev. R. J., P.G.C., P.M. 10.
Smith H. R. Cooper, P.M. 478, 1523, 1731, P.Z. 357, P. Prov. G.W. Oxon.
Smith S. H., P.M. 463, 938, P.P.G.S.D. Warwick.
Snelling W. Walton, Sec. 1056, and of Metropolitan Masonic Benevolent Association.
Spice R. P., W.M., P.G.S.
Spratt Augustus E. F.
Starkey N. A.
Steedman W., P.M. 754.
Steadwell —, P.M., P.G.S.
Stephens G. H., 1623.
Steve s James, P.M. 720 1216 1426, P.Z. 720 771.
Stiles W. M., Secretary 1507, 1732, 1744.
Stohwasser J., P.M. 238 435, P.Z. 8, P.G.S.
Storr E. F., W.M. 1679, P.M. 22.
Stuart Col. William, P.G.W., P.P.G.W. Herts.
Tamplin Augustus L., 441.
Taylor George, P.M. and Tr. 377, P.S.G.D. Worcestr.
Terry James, P.P.J.G.W. Herts, Sec. R.M.B.I.
Tombs H. C., P.G.D.
Torkington, A.
Townsend G., P.M., W.M. 1086, J. 1086.
Tracey Nathiel.
Verry G. Ward P.M. and Sec. 554 1278 1421, J.D., 1580, S.W. 625, P.Z. 554 1385, P.P.G.P.S. Herts.
Vickery S. A.
Walsh Arthur, 1101, P.P.G.R. Berks and Bucks.
Watts G. H.
Watts J.W., P.M. 1201
Weaver James, P.M. 862, 1319, P.Z. 177 862 1319, P.P.G. Org. Middx.
Welham Henry, P.M. 1224
Wentworth T. J., W.M. 225, P.S.G.D. Suffolk
Westfield W., P.M. 1501
Wheeler Fred., P.P.G.R. Suffolk, P.M. and Sec. 1224
Willing James, P.M. 177, P.M. and Treas. 1507, P.M. and Treas. 1744, P.Z. and Treas. 1507, Z. 1000
Wilson J., P.M. and Treas. 209
Wintor James
Withers Alfred, W.M. 211
Woodford Rev. A. F. A., P.G. Chap.
Woodman Dr. W. R., P.G.S.B.
Woodward E. C., P.M. 382, 1637, &c.
Worlock R. Montagu, Prov. G. Sec. Bristol
Wragg J. H., Prov. Grand Sec. Notts.

Caveac Lodge, No. 176, London
Etonian Lodge, No. 209, Windsor
St. Luke's Lodge, No. 225, Ipswich
Lord Warden Lodge, No. 1096, Walmer
Lewis Lodge, No. 1185, Wood Green
Curwen Lodge, No. 1400, Harrington.
Duke of Cornwall Lodge, No. 1529, St. Columb.

Editor of "The Freemason"
Editor of "The Freemason's Chronicle."
Editor of "The Rosicrucian"
Editor of "The Scottish Freemason"
Editor of "The Standard."

Brethren who desire to assist in establishing this Fund will oblige by forwarding their names to be added to the above List.

Digitized by Google

ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY Limited, 7 Bank Buildings, Lothbury, E.C.

General accidents. Railway accidents. | Personal injuries. Death by accident.

C. HARDING, Manager.

RHEUMATISM.

THE only real remedy for this complaint is the Northern Cure (patent). In bottles 1s 1½d each, to be had of all Chemists. Proprietors and Manufacturers, Edwards and Alexander, 29 Blacket-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

GEO. JONES,

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT MANUFACTURER and IMPORTER, 350 and 481 Commercial Road, London, E. Price List of every description of Instruments post free. Established 1850.

TAMAR INDIEN.

SPECIAL CAUTION.

OWING to the marked success of this medicine, the only patent medicine universally prescribed by the faculty, and the acknowledged cure for constipation, headache, bile, hemorrhoids, &c., BASE IMITATIONS, containing drastic irritants, are being foisted on the public. The genuine preparation bears the title "Tamar Indien," and the signature E. GRILLON, Coleman-st., London, E.C. Price 2s 6d per box. In a recent case, 1878, G. No. 811, a perpetual injunction to restrain the defendant from applying the name "Tamar" to his lozenges was awarded, with costs, by Vice-Chancellor Bacon, on 19th January 1877, and all such pirates will be summarily proceeded against.——N.B.—See that the outer wrapper (directions) are printed in the English language and that each box bears the Government 3d stamp.

MEMORY EXTRAORDINARY BY CORRESPONDENCE.—Particulars post free of Bro. William Stokes, Teacher of Memory, Royal Polytechnic, 309 Regent-street, London, W. Private lessons by appointment. Class on Tuesdays, 3 and 8.30. The System complete in Three Lessons. "Stokes on Memory," by post 14 stamps. Memory Globe, 14 stamps.

New Edition, Enlarged, Crown 8vo., Cloth 5s.

WAIFS AND STRAYS, CHIEFLY FROM THE CHESS BOARD, by Captain Hugh R. Kennedy, Vice-President of the British Chess Association.

W. W. MORGAN, 23 GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON.

HOTELS, ETC.

EALING—Feathers Hotel

EASTBOURNE—Pier Hotel, Cavendish Place. View of Sea and Pier. A. TAYLOR Proprietor

KEW—Star and Garter. Good accommodation for Lodge & Dinner Parties. J. BRILL Proprietor

SANDWICH—Bell Family and Commercial Hotel. Good Stabling. J. J. FILMER Proprietor

WOOD GREEN—Kings Arms Hotel. A. B. GREENSLADE Proprietor

YORK—Queen's Family and Commercial Hotel, Micklegate. H. CHURCHILL Proprietor

LONDON.

CALTHORPE ARMS—352 Gray's Inn Road, W.C. Billiards, Pool, Pyramids, &c. Best Wines and Spirits. W. H. G. RUDDERFORTH Proprietor

CANNING TOWN—Liverpool Arms. J. PAVITT. Friars L. of Instruction, 1349, Tuesdays at 7.30

GREEN DRAGON—Spring Garden-place, Stepney Wines and Spirits of the best quality. Billiards. Banquets provided for large or small parties. Yarborough L. & C. 554, and Temple Mark L. 173 held here. Lodge of Instruc. (554) meets every Tuesday at 8. A. WALTER Proprietor

MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT—Moorgate Street, E.C. Hot and Cold Dinners, &c. Chops and Steaks. Good accommodation for Lodge Meetings, &c. A. KENT Proprietor

NEW MARKET HOTEL—King Street, Snow Hill, E.C. Good accommodation for Club and other Banquets. Wines and Spirits of best quality. Specially licensed for Masonic Balls. Lodges 1623 and 1677 are held here. Strong Man No. 45 and West Smithfield No. 1623 Lodges of Instruction, meet here, every Monday at 8 p.m. Thomas BUTT Proprietor

SAWYER'S (late Station) RESTAURANT, 5 Railway Place, Fenchurch Street, E.C. English, French, and German Cuisine. Wines of the best quality. Hot and Cold Luncheons, Chops, Steaks, &c. Tea and Coffee. F. J. SAWYER (late of Pimm's and Crystal Palace) Proprietor

BILLIARD BALLS, Chalks, Cues, and Tips, at HENNIG BROS.' Ivory Works, 11 High Street, London, W.C. Cheapest house in the trade for billiard-table requisites and ivory goods in general. Old balls adjusted or exchanged, and tables recovered. Price Lists on application. Established 1862.

W. BEASLEY,

Bespoke Boot Maker,

28 Queen Victoria Street.

HUNTING, RIDING, DRESS AND BOOTS FOR THE MOORS,

MADE IN A FEW DAYS.

Specialité—Hand Sewn and Standard Screwed.

C. HUBBARD,

Plain & Fancy Box & Pattern CARD MANUFACTURER.

139 & 141 NEW NORTH ROAD, AND 64 SHAFTESBURY ST., LONDON, N.

ROCHESTER & FOX,

Post and Job Masters,

799 COMMERCIAL ROAD, E. AND 81 JUBILEE STREET, MILE END, E.

Carriages of every description on hire.

SUPERIOR WEDDING CARRIAGES.

HOUGHTON,

THE BOOT MAKER,

243 & 244 WHITECHAPEL ROAD, LONDON, E.

Lasts made to the Feet.

—:o:—

SPECIALITÉ, EASE, ELEGANCE AND DURABILITY.

A. LAZARUS,

MERCHANT TAILOR AND Juvenile Clothier,

CORNER OF WORKSHIP ST., SHOREDITCH, E., AND 51 LIVERPOOL STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Patterns and Rules for Self Measurement post free.

T. J. TARLING,

COAL MERCHANT.

North Wallsend	23s	Per Ton
Hetton or Lambton	21s	,,
Best Silkstone	23s	,,
Best Derby	21s	,,

All letters to be addressed :—

5 BURDETT ROAD, BOW, E.

JOSEPH J. CANEY,

DIAMOND MERCHANT, AND MANUFACTURING JEWELLER AND WATCH MAKER,

44 CHEAPSIDE, LONDON.

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND FURNITURE.

Specialité—First Class Jewels—Artistic—Massive—Best Quality—Moderate in Price

CATALOGUES POST FREE.

A LARGE STOCK OF LOOSE BRILLIANTS FOR EXPENSIVE JEWELS.

Diamond Rings, Brooches, Studs, Earrings and Bracelets in Great Variety.

MASONIC JEWELS FOR ALL DEGREES.

MINIATURE WAR MEDALS AND DECORATIONS.

ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD IN ALL SIZES.

ATHLETIC SPORTS MEDALS AND BADGES.

A. D. LOEWENSTARK & SONS, Medallists, 210 STRAND, LONDON, W.C.

MANUFACTORY—1 DEVEREUX COURT, STRAND.

J. FORTESCUE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

129 FLEET ST.; 114 & 115 SHOE LANE,

(One door from Fleet Street)

6 EXMOUTH STREET, CLERKENWELL, E.C.

And 143 Mare Street, Triangle, Hackney

Gents' Silk Hats from 5/6 each. Second best 6/6 7/6 8/6 Superfine quality, 10/6 12/6 & 16/. The very best made 21/. Felt Hats, hard and soft, in all the newest shapes, from 3/6 to 10/6.

ADAM S. MATHER,

GAS ENGINEER, GENERAL GAS FITTER AND BELL HANGER

MANUFACTURER OF BILLIARD LIGHTS

AND OF EVERY DESCRIPTION OF GAS APPARATUS FOR COOKING AND HEATING

Bath Rooms Fitted up. All the Latest Improvements Introduced.

MANUFACTORY—12 CHARLES STREET, HATTON GARDEN, E.C.; AND AT 278 CALEDONIAN ROAD, ISLINGTON, N.

ESTIMATES GIVEN.

PIANOFORTES AND HARMONIUMS ON EASY TERMS.

GROVER & GROVER

LET ON HIRE, WITH OPTION OF PURCHASE,

BEAUTIFUL AND PERFECT INSTRUMENTS.

PURCHASERS CHOOSE THEIR OWN TERMS,

FROM 15s TO £3 3s PER QUARTER.

The Advantages of a Trial, with the Convenience of the Three Years' System at Cash Price, by Paying about a Quarter of the value down, the Balance by Easy Payments, from 15s per quarter.

GROVER & GROVER, 157-9 Kingsland Road.

ESTABLISHED 1830.

Bro. A. OLDROYD, Stratford, London,

MANUFACTURER OF TOBACCO POUCHES,

With any name in raised letters.

CAN be obtained direct from the Maker, at the undermentioned prices, on receipt of P.O.O. payable at Stratford.

	Price		Will take a name of # letters
No. 3	2.0	...
,, 4	2.6	...	11 ,,
,, 5	3.0	...	12 ,,
,, 6	3.6	...	13 ,,
,, 7	4.0	...
,, 8	4.6	...
,, 9	5.0	...

A. OLDROYD,

Agent for Algerian Cigars, and Importer of Havana and Continental Cigars,

64 HIGH STREET, STRATFORD, LONDON, E.

Digitized by Google

EDWARD STILLWELL AND SON,

25, 26 and 27 BARBICAN, AND 6 LITTLE BRITAIN, LONDON,
109 ARGYLE STREET, GLASGOW,

Gold Lacemen, Embroiderers and Sword Cutlers,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Masonic Fittings for Lodges, Chapters and Encampments.

CLOTHING, JEWELS (PINS, STUDS AND RINGS), FOR EVERY DEGREE.

Aprons, Sashes, Horns, Ornaments and Banners for Foresters, Odd Fellows, Orangemen, Free Gardeners, &c.

REGALIA FOR I.O.G.T. AND ALL SOCIETIES.

LIBERAL TERMS TO SHIPPERS.

H. T. LAMB,

MANUFACTURER OF

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND REGALIA,

5 ST. JOHN SQUARE, LONDON.

PRICE LIST, CONTAINING 120 ILLUSTRATIONS, POST FREE ON APPLICATION.

PHILLIPS & COMPANY'S TEAS

ARE BEST AND CHEAPEST,

8 KING WILLIAM STREET, CITY, LONDON, E.C.

A GENERAL PRICE CURRENT AND STORE LIST, CONTAINING ALL THE ADVANTAGES OF THE LONDON MARKETS, POST FREE.

Show Rooms for Chinese, Japanese, and Oriental Art Products, and General Stores, 13 & 14 ABCHURCH LANE, adjoining 8 KING WILLIAM STREET, E.C.

J. E. SHAND & CO.

Wine Merchants,

(Experts and Valuers of Wines and Spirits,)

2 ALBERT MANSIONS, VICTORIA ST., LONDON, S.W.

PRICES DELIVERED IN LONDON.

SHERRIES	21s, 24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s	SPARKLING MOSELLES	42s, 48s, 54s
PORTS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	CHAMPAGNES	36s, 42s, 48s, 54s, 60s
CLARETS	12s, 16s, 18s, 20s, 24s, 26s	BURGUNDY	18s, 30s, 24s, 36s, 42s
STILL HOCKS	24s 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s	BRANDIES	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s, 66s
SPARKLING do	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s	WHISKIES	20s per gall., 42s per doz.

COUNTRY ORDERS OVER £3 CARRIAGE FREE.

"Sparkling Sauterne," 1875 Vintage—Delicious New Sparkling Wine, Sec, and Extra Sec. 42s per doz.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.

WARD'S

INVALID CHAIR AND CARRIAGE MANUFACTORY,

From SAVILLE HOUSE, LEICESTER SQUARE,

To 246 & 247 TOTTENHAM COURT ROAD, LONDON.

THE ONLY PRIZE MEDAL for INVALID FURNITURE was gained by JOHN WARD, at the London Exhibitions, 1851 and 1862; Paris, 1855 and 1867; Dublin, 1865; Vienna, 1873; 2 Silver Medals, Paris, 1878.

JOHN WARD, Manufacturer by Special Appointment to the Queen and Royal Family, the Empresses of France, Austria, Russia, &c.

INVALID CHAIRS and CARRIAGES for SALE or HIRE from JOHN WARD. Established 150 years. Drawings and price lists free on application.

DICK RADCLYFFE & CO., F.R.H.S.

Horticultural Decorations, Fernéries, Window Gardening, Seeds, Bulbs, Plants, Ferns, PLANTS FOR DECORATIONS. Masonic Banquets, Balls, &c.

PRIZE MEDAL SEEDS.

CARRIAGE FREE. WIDE CATALOGUE.

TABLE DECORATIONS, Ball Room Decorations, Seeds for Export. Illustrated Catalogues grats and post free. Seeds, Bulbs, &c., carefully packed for Export.

129 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

[illegible]

SILVER PLATED

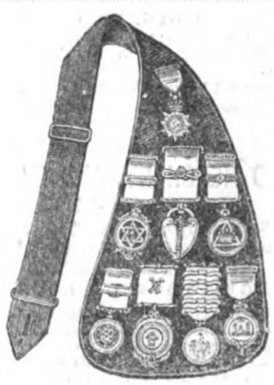
Fish Carvers, Fish Eating Knives and Forks, Revolving Covered Soup and Luncheon Dishes.

SPECIALITIES FOR TESTIMONIALS, TEA AND COFFEE SERVICES,

SALVERS, DESSERT KNIVES AND FORKS, GILT AND OXYDIZED GOODS.

77 (from 28) Cheapside, London, E.C.

(NEAR THE POULTRY.)



MORING,

ENGRAVER, DIE SINKER, HERALDIC ARTIST, ILLUMINATED ADDRESSES, 44, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST POST FREE.

ADLARD'S JEWEL ATTACHER 7/6.

If with Pockets, 6d each Pocket extra.

225 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

JANES & SON

WINDOW BLINDS ONLY,

WHOLESALE,

ALDERSGATE STREET, CITY, E.C.

BRANCH—

4 EAGLE PLACE, PICCADILLY

THESE ADDRESSES ONLY.

YOUNG'S Arnicated Corn and Bunion Plasters are the best ever invented for giving immediate ease, and removing those painful excrescences. Price 6d and 1s per box. Any Chemist not having them in stock can procure them.

Observe the Trade Mark—H. Y.—without which none are genuine. Be sure and ask for Young's.

NEW MASONIC ROOMS,

COMPLETE SUITE,

SPECIALLY ARRANGED

LODGE, BANQUETTING, AND ANTE ROOMS,

ALL ON ONE FLOOR.

Particulars to be had of

MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT CITY.

BRO. A. KENT, MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT,

OPPOSITE RAILWAY STATION,

From which trains run at frequent intervals in connection with the Great Northern, Midland, Great Western, London Chatham & Dover, and Metropolitan Railways.

Printed for the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE PUBLISHING COMPANY LIMITED, and Published by Bro. WILLIAM WRAY MORGAN JUN., at 23 Great Queen Street, London W.C., Saturday, 24th January 1880.

Digitized by Google

THE

Freemason's Chronicle;

A WEEKLY RECORD OF MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

SANCTIONED BY THE GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

Registered at the G.P.O. as a Newspaper.

VOL. XI.—No. 266. SATURDAY, 31st JANUARY 1880. [Issued to Subscribers only. 13s 6d per annum, post free.

THE PURCHASE OF LYNCOMBE HOUSE.

AS will be seen from our report, in another column, of the adjourned Quarterly General Court of the Girls' School, the vote authorising the expenditure of £6,500 for the purchase of Lyncombe House and Ground was confirmed by a large majority. Thus the purchase may be considered as complete, notwithstanding the fact that so excessive a price has been paid for the property. It now remains for each to do his best to make good use of the additional space at the disposal of the committee. We hope all feeling will be sunk in the general desire for the welfare of the charity, and that although many unkind things have been said during the discussions which have taken place within the past few weeks, it will never be proved that the Institution suffered because the views of one section were opposed to those of another. Those who have lost, must naturally feel disappointed, but let us hope that the winners will exert themselves to show the minority that they were sincere in their desire to acquire the property. We regret that we are unable this week to refer more fully to the subject; we have already to hold over several important items, and must leave any further comments on this subject to a later issue.

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND.

THE preliminary arrangements in connection with the formation of this Fund are being rapidly proceeded with, and day by day the founders are receiving additional support as the result of their labours. A meeting was held last week for the purpose of settling the business to be transacted at the first general meeting, which will now be called as soon as the date, &c., can be decided which will best suit the chairman and others interested. We shall duly announce the time and place of meeting, and hope that numerous brethren will assemble in order to arrange the necessary particulars previous to the actual starting of the Fund. It is unnecessary for us to again detail the support that has been given to the proposal, as our advertisement pages contain the full list of patrons up to the present time.

It is no doubt known to many of our readers that the subject has been brought before some of the Provincial Grand Lodges, with various results; either the question has been postponed or a grant made, while in but a few instances has any objection to the formation of the Fund been raised. While this latter may in a measure be said to be the case in the Province of Warwickshire, it must not be overlooked that in reality the brethren there approve of the scheme, and by their own resolution show the actual need of its foundation. The following copy of a resolution, sent out by the Provincial Grand Secretary, amply testifies this:—

PROVINCIAL GRAND LODGE OF WARWICKSHIRE.

ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND.

At a special meeting of the Officers, present and past, of the Provincial Grand Lodge, and the W.M.'s of the several Lodges of the Province of Warwickshire, convened by circular, and held at Warwick, 17th January 1880, the Right Hon and Right Worshipful Brother Lord Leigh P.G.M. in the chair. After fully discussing the desirability of forming a Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund, as recommended by Lord Rosslyn, it was resolved unanimously—"That whilst fully approving of the principles of the scheme advocated by Lord Rosslyn, the Freemasons of this Province would be reluctant to see a Fourth Masonic Charity established for this purpose in England, believing that the machinery for carrying on such a Charity is unnecessary, and would be exceedingly expensive. The brethren fear that should the Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund be established it would be the cause of reducing the amount at present subscribed annually to the Boys' and Girls' Schools, and the brethren pledge themselves to continue and, if necessary, to increase their present contributions to those Charities upon the condition that the Managing Committees of those Schools shall undertake to provide temporary assistance, by Scholarships or otherwise, to those pupils who shall require such assistance upon their leaving the Schools, from the funds which shall be at their disposal."

The above is accompanied by an official request to the respective Masters in the Province that they will bring the question before their Lodges at the earliest convenience. We may, therefore, expect to hear further on the subject from this district.

It will be seen from the above that the actual objection of the brethren of Warwickshire arises from the fact that they consider the expense of management would be great and unnecessary. At the present time it is impossible for us to contradict the former, as no estimate can be formed of the amount of work that will arise, but we feel sure we are justified in saying that the founders do not contemplate any serious outlay under this head. So far as we understand the work will be participated in by very many of the subscribers, without any desire for payment. As we have pointed out from time to time, individual support will be sought for rather than large monetary contributions. We are not in favour of making heavy grants of money to either boys or girls, who, after the education they have received in our Schools, should be able to undertake any duty they may be called upon to fulfil, but we feel the necessity for some organised system for obtaining for them situations where their ability will be appreciated and their education prove of practical service. Of course it will be impossible to carry on this work without some outlay, but we cannot agree with our Warwickshire brethren in saying it is unnecessary. If the object for which the fund is proposed is good, and there is an actual need for its foundation, we maintain there are certain necessary expenses in connection with it without which it cannot be started or carried on. The brethren of Warwickshire fear that should the fund be established, it would be the cause of reducing the amount at present subscribed annually to the two Schools. This argument was brought forward at the time of the establishment of the Benevolent Institution, and was strongly supported then by a section of the Craft who, as now, thought that the work of one Charity is distinct or in opposition to the others. On the contrary, we have no hesitation in saying that one really helps the other, and that a visit to a Lodge by either of the Secretaries as often leads to a Steward being appointed for the three as it does for the one more intimately connected with the brother who advocates the cause of our Institutions; we do not mean that the three Stewards are secured there and then, but it is seldom that a Lodge, when once it starts on the support of the Charities, leaves off after the first Stewardship, it is usually found that another brother undertakes to represent the Lodge the following year, and it is seldom that the same Institution is again selected. It will thus be seen that a certain amount of sympathy must exist between the Charities, and that it is merely a matter of time for each, in their turn, to receive the benefit of the other's exertions. This argument would, of course, be wrong if the resources of the brethren were at present taxed to the uttermost; but who will say that the £40,000, now raised annually for the Charities, great though it may appear in the eyes of some, is anything like the amount the Craft can and ought to subscribe in support of those who, from causes of unforeseen calamity or distress, are obliged to make claims on their friends. It is too well known that this amount is subscribed by a small minority to warrant any brother stating that no new supporters can be found. Time alone can prove whether the establishment of the Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund will affect the Charities now existing. We feel sure that additional supporters will be secured for all alike in consequence of the advocacy of the cause of charity by the projectors of this Fund, and that it will prove a valuable adjunct, not only by reason of the aid it will give to the pupils, but also in making more widely known the actual requirement for donations from each and every Lodge. We are very pleased to see that the Warwickshire resolution contains a promise to give further support to the two Schools, and we hope it will be acted up to, but the condition on which it is offered renders it impossible under existing circumstances. It must be known to the brethren of Warwickshire that the Committees of our two Schools are fettered by the laws of their respective Institutions in the matter of the aid they can render to pupils when they complete their course of training. The desire of the Provincial Grand Master—Lord Leigh—is to establish scholarships, and it must be patent to everyone that these cannot be attempted in connection with the existing Institutions, unless great alterations are made in the rules. It would be asking too much to expect either of the existing Committees to take under their charge this branch of Masonic Charity, and as, therefore, it would be imperative to create a new committee, we think there should be no two opinions on the advisability of making the work entirely distinct from that at present carried out. While there are numerous brethren who support the project, it cannot be denied that there are some who strenuously oppose it, and were the necessary alterations to be made to enable a part of the funds of the two Schools being diverted from their present channels, it might be found that these would withdraw their support from the main head, and thus a direct injury could be proved. We would ask the brethren who passed the resolution at Warwick to fully consider this matter, and if later on they see that they have asked somewhat too much from the Schools they will take an early opportunity of remedying the error. We tender to our Warwickshire brethren our heartiest thanks for the trouble they have taken in connection with the Fund we have so intimately associated ourselves with, and hope ere long to have the gratification of seeing their names enrolled on the list of supporters. We are sure their views would receive full consideration at the hands of the Committee of the Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund, and that each may help the other by immediate and hearty co-operation.

Digitized by Google

ADJOURNED QUARTERLY COURT OF THE GIRLS' SCHOOL.

THE Quarterly Court of the Governors and Subscribers of the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls, which had been adjourned on the 10th inst., was held at the Freemasons' Hall, under the presidency of Lieut.-Col. John Creaton Grand Treasurer.

The chairman said he thought it would be unnecessary for him to take up their time by again explaining the grounds why it had been proposed by the committee to purchase Lyncombe House and grounds. The principal reason, he might say was, that twenty-five additional children could be provided for. Since the last meeting, counsels' opinion had been taken on the subject, and he called upon the Secretary to read the opinion which had been given by Mr. H. Davey, Q.C., and Mr. Hollis.

The Secretary read the opinion, which is to the following effect:—

"1. We are of opinion that the Trustees of the General Fund (as representing this voluntary Institution) can hold land in trust for the Institution, but that all such land must be vested in their names for the general purposes thereof. (See Law VII.)

"2. Assuming that all the formalities prescribed by the Laws with reference to an expenditure exceeding £500 are duly complied with, we are of opinion that it is not ultra vires to apply the sum of £6,500 out of the General Fund for the purchase of the land and premises of Mr. Evill, for the purpose of converting and applying the same to the use of the Institution.

"3. We think that the Special Court of the 3rd January 1880 was duly convened, under Laws XXXI., and XXXIV., and that the objects for which such a Court was held were valid accordingly. We see no reason for supposing that the meeting was otherwise than legally held. The minutes of the proceedings at such meeting can, in our opinion, be validly confirmed at the adjourned General Court to be held on the 24th inst.

"Signed HORACE DAVEY,
GEORGE HOLLIS.

Lincoln's Inn,
24th January 1880."

Col. Burdett moved that the minutes of the meeting of the 3rd of January be confirmed.

Bro. Edward Cox rose to order. He was not aware that proceedings of a former part of a meeting could be confirmed at an adjourned meeting.

The Chairman explained that the meeting was merely called to confirm the minutes of the Special Court of the 3rd inst. The last Quarterly Court was adjourned for that purpose, and that counsels' opinion should be obtained, and his co-Trustees consulted.

Bro. E. Cox asked if it was possible to confirm the minutes of a meeting which was not yet concluded?

The Chairman pointed out this was part of the Quarterly Court, at which the minutes of the Special Court could be confirmed or otherwise.

Col. Burdett said he made the motion principally on the ground that it was of great importance that the land in question should be acquired by the Institution. Though £6,500 was a high price, he thought the possession of the property would be a fair equivalent to the Institution. It had been rumoured that Lyncombe House might be taken for a boys' school, and if so they would have to run up a high wall, and lose an entrance to the main road. The whole matter had been most carefully considered, and he thought there would be no doubt that the purchase would be perfectly legal. It appeared to him they would be placed in a very awkward predicament if they allowed this opportunity of acquiring so eligible a property to slip through their fingers.

Bro. Raynham W. Stewart seconded the motion. He thought it was of the utmost importance to the Institution to obtain the land, and could see no reason against it, except the ground of expense. It appeared to him that it would be the wiser course to pay a little more than the land was really worth rather than run the risk of having their property spoiled. If they converted Lyncombe House into a preparatory school for the education of twenty-five additional children, they would be increasing the benefits of the Institution. In his opinion there could be no object in the opposition to the purchase, except envy and malice. (Oh, oh.)

Bro. James Mason asked if there were any vacancies in the School?

The Chairman said there were none at present, unless they decided to admit more. He might say, that if the minutes were confirmed he proposed to give notice of a motion to increase the number received into the School, at the next Quarterly Court. (Hear, hear.)

Bro. E. Cox, though having the interests of the School at heart, felt compelled to oppose the motion, and moved as an amendment:—"That it is not desirable, at the present time, to increase the grounds and premises of this Institution." He had no hostile feeling to any of the Committees of the Institution, but he did not believe it was necessary to increase the premises, and if they made the proposed purchase they would increase them at an exorbitant price. He did not agree with Bro. Thompson, that they should rush into the Chancery Division, because, if they did so, he thought they would find themselves in a position of serious difficulty. He thought that the Committee ought to have applied to the General Court for its sanction to purchase land, if it was necessary that more land should be acquired, and that the Building Committee had been guilty of an irregularity, in recommending the purchase, as that was a question to be decided by the subscribers. He had previously told them that the house was of much less value than the Committee imagined. Mr. Evill had himself stated that its actual value was the gross annual rental of £100.

The Chairman interrupting said—Mr. Evill write to Mr. Harrup to the effect that the value was £130.

Bro. E. Cox then read the following letter which he had received from Mr. Harrup on the 27th December last:—"Dear Sir and Brother,—I must ask you to forgive my apparent negligence and discourtesy in not replying to your letter asking for information respecting Lyncombe House. That property belongs to one who is a very valued friend of mine, and as I gathered from the tone of your letter that you were inclined to endeavour to upset an arrangement I knew had been entered into for the purchase of his property, I felt that in common fairness I ought to know how far his interests might be affected. Having seen him, and knowing now the exact state of the case, and having also his permission, I freely give you the information you wish. Lyncombe House is rated Gross 120, Rateable £100. This is of course only the residential value. If the house and grounds were laid for building, as I have good reason to believe they are, they would realise a great deal more, and if the price that has been offered is correct, I should think that the Court have been able to get the property at a cheaper rate than they acquired other land in the rear. Although only a subscriber to the Schools of a small amount, I, like you, take a great interest in their welfare, and should be sorry to see the Funds at all wasted; but if all is to be done that I hear, I think that the Executive has acted wisely. I can only further add that the assessment is of five years standing, and would in all probability have been increased at the next revision." Now, assuming on a fair increase that the annual value of the property for the next five years would be £140, what would be the annual value of property rented at £140 a-year? It had been stated that Mr. Evill had recently spent £720 in structural decorations of the house, and this did not look as though he intended pulling down or altering it. Any new buildings must be erected at the back, and they could not be of a greater value than £40. per annum. It had been suggested that the house might be turned into a public-house, or into a boys' school, but these he regarded as remote and improbable contingencies. He protested against giving £6,500 for property the outside value of which was £4,500, and warned them of the consequences which would result from their giving "fancy prices" whenever the owners of adjoining property threatened that they would convert their properties into public-houses or boys' schools, &c.

Digitized by Google

Bro. James Stevens seconded the amendment, though at the risk of being charged with "obtuse stupidity and vulgar personality." He had known the neighbourhood for thirty years, and believed that £4,500 was an outside price for Lyncombe House and grounds.

Bro. J. M. Klenck also supported the amendment. There was a fatal objection to the whole building scheme, and that was that if they had a forty feet road there must be an outlet at the other end, as the Board would not sanction a blind road. Taking the lease of the property at £150 a-year, and putting it at thirty-eight years' purchase to make it a fancy price, they would not come near the price which the Institution had agreed to pay for it.

Bro. Walker Hopekirk said the addition to the School of twenty-five girls would be very satisfactory to the Craft. He gave credit to Bros. Cox and Stevens for an earnest desire to promote the good of the Institution, but thought they had put their knowledge of pounds, shillings and pence in the wrong place. The land was of more value than some of them seemed to think, and if it could be obtained for the Institution he believed it would prove most beneficial.

Bro. J. L. Stothert, as a Provincial brother, took a great interest in the Charities. He was informed that half an acre of ground was purchased by the Institution not long ago for £2,000, but they had now to deal with three-fourths of an acre. He did not think that £1,500 for the land was a high price, and £2,000 for the house—which was admirably adapted for the purpose intended—was a small sum; and he considered the Committee had acted very wisely in endeavouring to secure the property. He felt certain that a large number of the Provincial brethren would agree with him when he said they were willing to entrust the interests of the Institution in the purchase of this property to a Committee who had so thoroughly inquired into and considered the matter.

Bro. James Mason believed that the Committee, who stood in the position of trustees for the Charity, had carefully considered the subject, and that no imputation could be cast upon them, as they had acted honestly and bonâ fide in the interests of the Institution. They could well afford the money, and for the benefit of the Institution land should be considered before price. He deprecated Chancery proceedings as being un-Masonic, and the result might be that those who indulged in them would burn their own fingers. He thought the Committee was entitled to support.

Bro. H. J. Thompson said the ten days notice prescribed by the laws of the Institution of the meeting of the 3rd inst. had not been given, as the notice was not published until the 27th ult. The meeting had also not been called upon the recommendation of the General Committee as the Book of Rules laid down. He submitted that the Chairman, having had notice of Bro. Locock Webb's opinion, ought to have informed the Special Court. He did not think the Provincial brethren were in favour of the purchase, but, on the contrary, were averse to it.

Bro. A. F. A. Woodford was anxious to keep before the meeting the bonâ fides of the Chairman, who could not under the circumstances make use of the information he had received with regard to the opinion of Mr. Locock Webb. Bro. Thompson had stated that the Provinces were against the proposed outlay, but he (Bro. Woodford) could state from personal knowledge that the Province of West Yorkshire was heartily in favour of it.

After a few observations from the Chairman, the amendment of Bro. E. Cox was put, when the votes were—

For the amendment	8
Against	61
Majority against the amendment	53

The motion to confirm the minutes of the Special Court of the 3rd January was then formally put and carried. The Chairman then gave the following notice of motion:—"It being desirable to enlarge the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls by maintaining, clothing, and educating twenty-five girls, in addition to those already in the Institution, the House Committee be directed to make the necessary arrangements to accommodate such twenty-five girls, and that such twenty-five girls be elected at the next election, after the House Committee shall have reported the completion of the arrangements for the reception and accommodation for such twenty-five girls."

A vote of thanks to the Chairman brought the proceedings to a close.

COMMITTEE MEETING OF THE GIRLS' SCHOOL.

THE monthly meeting of the Committee of this Institution was held on Thursday, at Freemasons' Hall. There were present—Bros. Col. Creaton (in the chair), Griffiths Smith, E. Letchworth, H. A. Dubois, James Peters, E. Spooner, A. H. Tattershall, H. Massey, Thomas Massa, J. A. Rucker, Thomas Francis Peacock, W. F. C. Moutrie, Joshua Nunn, and F. R. W. Hedges Secretary. The minutes of the December meeting having been read and confirmed, the minutes of the Special, Quarterly, and adjourned Courts, and of the House and Audit Committees were read for information. The establishment of the "Wentworth Little" prize of three guineas, to be competed for annually by the girls of this Institution, of which Bro. Joshua Nunn gave notice at the meeting of 21th December, was carried; after which two petitioners' children were placed on the list for the October election, and the Committee adjourned, with a vote of thanks to the chairman.

The Installation meeting of the Kilburn Lodge took place on Monday last; Bro. Samuel Brooks is the new W.M. Report of the proceedings shall appear next week.

CORRESPONDENCE.

—:o:—

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents.

We cannot undertake to return rejected communications.

All Letters must bear the name and address of the Writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

LYNCOMBE HOUSE.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—Let us hope, now that the question of the purchase of the above place has been a second time so unmistakably sanctioned by the voice of the brethren (that out of a Committee of 85 or 86, 61 were for, 15 against, and the remainder neutral), that the apparently malicious vindictiveness which seems to have followed our gallant and distinguished Chairman, Lieut.-Col. Creaton, for some supposed or fancied slight on one of the prominent members of the opposition, will cease. I had thought that our Grand Treasurer's name was somewhat like Cæsar's wife was, or ought to have been, above suspicion, or he would not have obtained that spontaneous burst of approval, which placed him in his present position, but it appears not, for there still remain some who would fain filch from him that deservedly good name which they themselves should only be too proud to achieve. It is to be hoped that the opposition will take the advice of that Brother, a Chancery lawyer, who, in that truly honest and fraternally Masonic manner which should guide all of us, warned them against the unknown and endless litigation and expense they would be plunged in if they persisted in placing the matter in Chancery, with a more than doubtful issue in their favour; but, perhaps, like this same Brother's excellent advice,—that Masons should be more courteous, more gentlemanly, and less un-Masonic, when discussing subjects on which they are at issue,—it will be soon forgotten, for a subsequent speaker could not let the opportunity slip of airing one out of his repertoire of elegant and choice expressions, "bottled moonshine." Of course, coming from one who repudiates personalities, there is nothing personal in it. To return to my subject. There are one or two questions, I think, would be a propos:—

1st. Is the purchase of this house and ground for the benefit of, and increased accommodation for, girls of the Masonic Institution? if so,

2nd. Was the money subscribed and given in their behalf, or for any other Institution?

3rd. Where did the money come from to build the new wing, or the laundry?

4th. Did it not come from the same source as will be used for the present purchase?

5th. Was not that money legitimately spent then on behalf of the children for whom it was given?

If it was legal then,—and I maintain it was,—it is legal now. Our Lodges increase, our members increase, and our dependent children will increase; and if we have not the requisite accommodation, we shall not be able to admit them. The only legitimate opposition was that of Bro. Cox, viz: The price given (undoubtedly the price was high); but as it was not to be had for less, I contend that it was well worth that to the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls, and more, if it had been necessary; the very great increase of the value to the present property, the obtaining a frontage to the main street, the Wandsworth, as well as one at the back, looking towards the Common seems to be entirely lost sight of.

Yours fraternally,

HERSCHEL.

NEW ZEALAND.

Masonic Ceremony at Wellington.—On the 1st Dec. 1879, the foundation stone of the new Courts of Justice was laid down by the Hon. F. Whitaker, Provincial Grand Master of the North Island of New Zealand, S.C., assisted by District Grand Master Toxward E.C., and a large number of distinguished brethren. The weather was lovely, and the whole proceedings passed off without a hitch of any kind. Between 9,000 and 10,000 spectators were present, the assemblage of ladies in reserved seats numbering at least 800. The procession of Maoris numbered upwards of 500. Eloquent addresses were delivered by Brothers Whitaker and Rolleston. The ball in the evening was attended by His Excellency and Lady Robinson.

Funeral of Bro. J. Dickey.—The respect in which the late Mr. John Dickey was held was evidenced by the large number of townsmen and country settlers who attended his funeral at Auckland on 29th Nov. to pay the last sad tribute of respect to his memory. Mr. Dickey was a member of the Waitemata Lodge of the Order of Freemasons E.C., and although the funeral was not, strictly speaking, a Masonic one, it was largely attended by brethren of the Order, who appeared in mourning costume, but not in regalia. Every Lodge in the City was represented. The brethren marched in front of the hearse, the brother of deceased and personal relatives and friends following as chief mourners immediately after it, and a long line of carriages and vehicles brought up the rear. Upon reaching the entrance to the Presbyterian Cemetery, the Masonic brethren opened out right and left, allowing the coffin and the mourners to pass through, after which they closed in and followed the remains to the grave. The funeral service was read in an impressive manner by the Rev. R. F. Macnicol, Pastor of St. James's Church, Wellington-street.

Digitized by Google

INSTALLATION MEETINGS, &c.

—:o:—

LODGE OF PRUDENT BRETHREN, No. 145.

THE installation Meeting was held on Tuesday, the 27th inst., at the Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street, and was numerously attended. Bro. W. H. Leggott W.M. occupied the chair, W. R. Lister S.W., Wilkinson J.W., T. Bull P.M. Treasurer, G. States P.G.S. Secretary, J. Woods S.D., J. Chinnery J.D., A. Kerrell I.G., Curtis and Reid Stewards; P.M.'s Haslett, E. H. Thiellay. The Lodge was opened and the minutes confirmed. Bro. May was raised to the third degree, very perfectly by the W.M. A Board of Installed Masters was opened, and Bro. W. R. Lister S.W. and W.M. elect was presented to the Lodge, and duly installed into the chair by the retiring W.M. On the re-admission of the brethren the customary salutations were given, and the W.M., in appropriate terms, appointed and invested his officers:—Bros. W. H. Leggott I.P.M., Dr. Wilkinson S.W., Woods J.W., T. Bull P.M. Treasurer, E. H. Thiellay P.P.G.S.B. Middlesex Secretary, J. Chinnery S.D., Kerrell J.D., Curtis I.G., Reid D.C., Brock W.S., Grant Tyler. The W.M. had now a pleasing duty to perform—that was, to present the retiring W.M. Bro. Leggott with a jewel, which had been provided by the unanimous vote of the Lodge. In placing it on his breast he felt proud; no Brother better deserved it. Bro. Leggott, in reply, thanked the W.M. for his kind expressions, and also the members for their valuable gift. He hoped to wear it in this and many other Lodges; it would create a lasting impression on him. He also had to thank them for their support while acting as Steward for the various Charities. Bro. T. Bull P.M. proposed that, as the retiring W.M. had paid for his centenary jewel, that the Lodge present him with a P.M.'s square, with suitable inscription. This proposition was carried unanimously. The Lodge was then closed, and the brethren adjourned to the Crown Room, where a sumptuous banquet was provided. Grace was sung by Madame Alice Barth, Miss L. Augarde, Bros. G. T. Carter and Theodore Distin. After the toast of the Queen and the Craft, the National Anthem was sung, Madame Alice Barth sustaining the solo verses. The toasts of H.R.H. the M.W.G.M., the Pro G.M. and the Deputy G.M. were given. Bro. W. H. Leggott I.P.M. then rose; he, for the first time, had the privilege of proposing the toast of the W.M., who was one they all respected, and he was sure they had made a capital choice; their W.M. at the end of his year would have fully gained their esteem; he was sure they would rally round their W.M. Personally he (Bro. Leggott) wished him a prosperous year of office. The W.M., in reply, thanked Bro. Leggott for the kind manner he had spoken of him; that night was a great event with him, he had worked for it for many years; his labour was now consummated; it would be his especial duty to see that the welfare of the Lodge should be fully sustained. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Visitors. After a song by Miss Louise Augarde, Bros. Finch P.M. 173 and H. M. Levy P.M. 188 returned thanks. They paid deserved compliments to the Installing Master, and hoped the W.M. would retain his health to conduct the duties of the Lodge. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the I.P.M., whom they all respected; they had seen his working during his year of office, while his performance of the ceremony of installation left nothing to be desired; his energy in the cause of the Charities was known to every member of the Craft. Bro. Leggott was pleased that he had given them satisfaction; the jewel presented him he hoped to live long to wear among them. Their remarks as to his zeal in the cause of the Institutions was most gratifying. Before concluding he would state he was a Steward for the R.M.B.I. and had on his list the sum of £271. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the P.M.'s, who were always ready to do all required of them; no abler brethren could be. Bro. T. Bull P.M. and Treasurer said every Officer for many years had been thoroughly proficient in his duties, so that the several occupants of the chair did not require the aid of the Past Masters. The W.M. had now a special toast to give, and that was the health of their respected Bro. George States, who had occupied the post of Secretary for nearly twenty years; however, he had resigned it, but no better Secretary could have been found, or one whose knowledge of Masonic duties could be excelled. While regretting his retirement from office, the members hoped to have Bro. States among them for many years. Bro. G. States P.M. felt it a great pleasure in having his health proposed, and to be so singled out. The W.M. had said that it was a labour of love to him to work. He would always assist Bro. Thiellay, the newly-appointed Secretary. He was a Mason whose heart and soul was in the cause. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Treasurer, Bro. T. Bull P.M., and the newly-appointed Secretary, Bro. E. H. Thiellay, whose knowledge of Freemasonry in general, with his well-known energy, would—in combination with the exertions of Bro. Bull—ensure continued success to the Lodge. Bro. Carter here, by particular desire, sang the "Pilgrim of Love;" he was accompanied by Bro. Theodore Distin. Bro. Bull then said that his services were always at their command. Bro. E. H. Thiellay P.M. and Secretary followed; it was for the first time he responded in his present capacity; he fully estimated the position the W.M. had placed him in; it was a very onerous one. He undertook the work on the resignation of his predecessor Bro. Geo. States, and he hoped to discharge his duties to their satisfaction. The toast of the Officers followed; they were in every respect qualified to fulfil every duty required of them. Among the Visitors were—Bros. Wing P.M. 45, Sudlow 180, Woodward 1728, Byrne 201, Hughes 1553, Briggs P.M. 157, Warren 657, Godden W.M. 862, W. H. Rudderforth W.M. 1668, Green P.M. 27, Jardine P.M. 56, Burns 61, C. Matthews S.D. 263, Yates 78, W. Dawson 917, Tiddeman 813, T. Distin 173, Carter 173, and H. M. Levy P.M. 188.

PERSEVERANCE LODGE, No. 213.

THE installation of Bro. J. E. H. Watson as W.M. of Lodge Perseverance, on Tuesday, 20th instant, was performed in a most masterly style by P.M. Bro. James Dunsford P.Z. (of course assisted with a complete galaxy of P.M.'s), Bro. Geo. Baxter being D.C. Among the members present were—W. T. Bloomfield, Captain H. Blake, J. B. Bugg, W. J. Butler, W. C. Bexfield, R. Colby, E. Coleman, G. Daniels, C. Fendick, J. Harvey (North Walsham), G. Kersey, T. C. R. King, S. Matthews, S. N. Berry, Dr. J. S. Offord, C. E. Sexton, J. Stanley P.M., E. C. Thompson, P. Soman, E. Skipper (Roughton), W. B. Wilkin, H. Youngman, R. J. Silburn, A. E. Le Good, &c. The Visitors included Bros. G. Green, J. Hunt, J. H. Brockbank, H. J. Minns, A. Berry, Gunn, F. Linging, F. Mills, J. Franklin (Yarmouth), T. Muskett, T. Isley, Bridgman, A. H. Santy, H. F. Barwell P.G.S., B. Quinton, W. M. Suffield, D. Mannings, Willing, M. Bailey, Roslin, Baldwin P.Z., W. Cooper, and others. The Officers appointed were—Bros. G. Kersey S.W., R. Silburn J.W., C. Sexton S.D., W. Bloomfield J.D., A. E. Le Good I.G., H. Youngman Secretary, S. N. Berry Organist. In addition to these Bros. T. C. R. King and E. C. Thompson were appointed Stewards, and Bro. George Baxter Treasurer, whilst Bro. Dunsford P.M. was made M.C. and Bro. Stanley Director of Masonic Hall Company on behalf of No. 213—Bro. O. D. Ray to serve on the Charities Committee. The banquet was served in the building lately erected in the garden at the back of No. 23 St. Giles' for Grand Lodge, &c.—much too large, of course, for those dining on Tuesday, though the brethren were inconveniently crowded when another table might have been rigged up. Everything was cold and cheerless, notwithstanding a huge stove in the centre of the room, and as to the catering—well, the Club Steward is new to his work, and no doubt will improve, and it must be said further that brethren should give in their names earlier if they are desirous of attending these banquets, so that proper provision be made, and thus prevent all from sharing in the general discomfort. The "social" part of the business was well carried out, till 12.30, by Bro. Watson, who is bound to prove a good W.M., and keep up the prestige of 213. He loses Bro. G. Daniels as Secretary, but all must rejoice at the vast growth of this useful Officer's business, which compels him to retire. During the evening the W.M. presented the I.P.M. Bro. J. Stanley, with a jewel, subscribed for by the brethren of the Lodge, in recognition of the way in which he has carried out his duties.—Norwich Argus.

FIDELITY LODGE, No. 230.

THE annual banquet of this Lodge was held on Thursday, the 22nd, at the Royal Hotel, Devonport. It had a peculiar significance, and was of more than ordinary importance, as it celebrated, first, the Festival of St. John the Evangelist; second, the commemoration of the removal of the Lodge to their own recently purchased Ebrington Masonic Hall; and, thirdly, because it was the first occasion that ladies had been invited to a Lodge banquet in Devonport. The order of the evening after the banquet was, short speeches and long songs and solos. The performances of Miss Haggarty, a young lady of ten summers, who plays and accompanies with a correctness and confidence hardly equalled by professors, and of Miss Kate Burt, who rendered some exquisite music, were much appreciated, whilst the songs of Bros. Ridland, Debnam, Haggarty, Pile, and the reading by Bro. Kinton Bond, of Lodge 1247, afforded much enjoyment. Bro. Curteis returned thanks for the Provincial Grand Master and Officers, Past and Present, of the Provincial Grand Lodge. The W. Master (Bro. Harris) proposed the toast of the "Immediate Past Master," and after speaking highly of his energy and successful work, presented him with a very handsome gold jewel, engraved as follows:—"Presented by Lodge Fidelity, No. 230, to W. Bro. Richard Cawsey in recognition of his zeal and ability as Master, A.L. 5879." Bro. Cawsey warmly thanked the brethren, and hoped that the success of the year during which he had had the pleasure of presiding over the Lodge was an augury of future years of prosperity. The Lodge had done him an especial honour, inasmuch as they had not been in the habit of making presentations. He therefore esteemed their kindness more than he could then express, and would at all times be ready to assist the Lodge, either as P.M. or Secretary. Bro. Lyne reported the finances of the Lodge to be in a satisfactory condition. They had been able to support the Masonic and the Local Charities, and notwithstanding their recent large outlay for building and altering their rooms, were in a good position. Responding to the Freemasons' Wives, Bro. Gover said that he was sure the ladies after what they had heard would appreciate the excellencies of Freemasonry, and that if husbands would endeavour to return from Lodge just a little earlier, that they would like the Order still better, and he asked the ladies most especially to use their influence in the endeavour to promote the Masonic Charities. They had done much in the past, and their power to do good was irresistible. After a short interval the Assembly-room was cleared, and an impromptu ball finished one of the most enjoyable evenings the visitors and members have spent.

ROYAL SUSSEX LODGE, No. 342.

THE Installation of Bro. Robert Barnes as the W.M. for the present year took place at the Freemasons' Hall, Portsea, on Wednesday, 21st inst. There was a large attendance of members of the Craft, including Bros. Arthur Cudlipp P.M. (Mayor of Portsmouth), M. E. Frost P.M. P.G. Treas., J. L. Rastrick P.M. P.P.G.W., J. Ogburn P.M. P.P.G.W., J. Wallingford P.M. P.P.G.W., C. B. Whitcomb P.M. P.G.S., A. R. Holbrook W.M. 309, Liddell Worshipful Master 804, E. S. Main Past Master P.P.G.D.C., R. W. Mitchell W.M. 908, H. J. Guy P.M. P.P.G.D.C., S. R. Ellis P.M. P.P.G.D.C., J. T. Craven sen. P.M. P.P., Grant W.M. 1705, J. W. Willmott the retiring W.M., R. J. Turney P.M., J. Cole P.M., A. P. Creedon W.M. 928, W. C. Redward P.M. P.P.G. Sup. Wks., Dr. C. Knott, T. Good, G. Sherman, J. Brickwood, G. F. Brown, G. Banning, W. Gunnell, &c. The ceremony of installation was very ably performed by Bro. J. W. Willmott, the outgoing W.M., to whom a special vote of thanks was accorded by the Lodge for the manner in which he carried out the duties. The new W.M. appointed and invested his Officers as follows:—Bros. J. W. Willmott I.P.M., C. Knott S.W., J. T. Craven jun. J.W., W. C. Redward P.M. Treasurer, C. W. Rand Secretary, J. Brickwood S.D., J. E. Buck J.D., J. S. Dyer Dir. of Cer., J. S. Bechervaise I.G., W. Welch Steward. The brethren afterwards adjourned to a capital banquet, provided by Bro. G. F. Sherman. The W.M. presided, and was supported by about fifty members of the Craft.

Digitized by Google

SAMARITAN LODGE, No. 368, SANDBACH, CHESHIRE.

THE annual meeting of this good old Lodge was held on Wednesday, 21st January. There was a good muster of members and several visitors. The W.M., the Rev. T. Lunt, took the chair at four o'clock, and was supported by his Officers, brethren and visitors. The Lodge having been opened, the minutes were read and confirmed. Bro. Tomlinson sen. said he had a very pleasing duty to perform in presenting to Bro. Gilbert P.M. P.P.G.P., on behalf of the Lodge, a Treasurer's jewel. Bro. Gilbert had been in charge of their finances for well nigh thirty years, and during that long period his efforts had been unceasing in promoting the general well-being of the Lodge. Indeed, if it had not been for Bro. Gilbert's unselfish efforts it was questionable whether the Samaritan Lodge would have existed on that day. He then asked the worthy brother to accept the jewel, which was a splendid specimen of the goldsmith's art. Bro. Gilbert made a most feeling reply, and was frequently cheered during its delivery. The Auditors then presented their report of the Treasurer's accounts, by which it appeared that although the year commenced with a balance against the Lodge, there is now a respectable balance in favour. The Lodge was then opened in the second degree, when the W.M. invited Bro. John Bowes P.M. P.P.G.J.W. Cumberland and Westmoreland to take the chair as Installing Master. The W.M. then presented Bro. Furnival S.W. W.M. elect for the benefit of installation. The first portion of the ceremony being completed, Bros. J. R. Tomlinson and L. Makin P.M.'s were invited to preside over the West and South respectively. The Lodge was opened in the third degree, when all below the rank of W.M. retired, except the W.M. elect, who was entrusted before retirement. A Board of Installed Masters was then opened in ample form, when Bro. Furnival was re-admitted and installed according to ancient custom, and received the usual salutations restricted to this high degree. The Board was then called off, and on resuming labour was closed, and the Lodge declared in the third degree. The brethren were now re-admitted according to rank, and the new Master solemnly proclaimed, saluted and greeted in each degree. In handing the Warrant to the new Master, Bro. Bowes pointedly alluded to the long and anxious care Bro. Gilbert had taken of the precious document. The W.M. now appointed and invested his Officers for the ensuing year, the Installing Master fully explaining the duties, the situation, and the emblems borne by each, and concluded the ceremony by delivering the charges to the W.M., Wardens and brethren. Bro. Tomlinson P.M. P.P.G.D.C. said that before they adjourned to the banqueting room he begged to propose a hearty vote of thanks to Bro. Bowes for his kindness in coming to Sandbach to perform the ceremony they had listened to with much pleasure. He had heard Bro. Bowes work the ceremony before, but he considered he had excelled himself on the present occasion. Bro. Rev. T. Lunt I.P.M. rose to second the proposition, and in doing so acknowledged his great obligations to Bro. Bowes for relieving him of so difficult a duty. Bro. Bowes had set them a high standard to aim at. The clear enunciation and quiet impressiveness which marked the ceremony throughout set them an example which they would do well to emulate. For his own part he should often claim Bro. Bowes's counsel and assistance. The vote was carried by acclamation, and Bro. Bowes suitably acknowledged the compliment. After the transaction of some routine business the Lodge was closed, and the brethren adjourned for refreshment. The dinner was a good one, and well served. On the withdrawal of the cloth the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were duly honoured. Bro. Rev. T. Lunt proposed the health of the Installing Master in complimentary terms. Bro. Bowes in reply said that his services were always at the command of any brother who was desirous of the help he was able to afford. The other toasts followed, and a thoroughly enjoyable evening was brought to a close soon after nine. Among the visitors were Bro. D. W. Finney P.M. Prov. G.D.C. West Lancashire.

PEACE AND HARMONY LODGE, No. 496.

THE brethren of this Lodge held their annual meeting at the Masonic Rooms, St. Austell, on Tuesday, 13th inst., when Bro. Job the W.M. elect was installed acording to ancient established ritual, by W. Bro. Dr. Mason, the ceremony throughout being conducted in an impressive manner. The new W.M. invested the following as his Officers:—Bros. Stephens S.W., A. Luke J.W., White I.P.M., Guy Treasurer, Kitt A.S. (pro Brewer, unavoidably absent) Secretary, Tozer S.D., Higman J.D., Houseley I.G., Blight D.C., and Real Tyler. Bro. Guy was appointed Steward for the Cornwall Masonic Annuity Fund. The brethren adjourned to Bro. Luke's, White Hart Hotel, where they partook of a good dinner, served by Mrs. Luke. The usual Masonic toasts were given and responded to. Several visitors were present.

YARBOROUGH LODGE, No. 554.

THE installation meeting of this flourishing Lodge was held at Bro. A. Walter's, Green Dragon, Stepney, E., on the 1st inst. The occasion had attracted a large assemblage of members and visitors, among whom were the following brethren:—J. Hansen Thorn W.M., J. S. Taylor S.W. and W.M. elect, E. W. Walter J.W., J. G. Stevens P.M. Treasurer, G. Ward Verry P.M. Secretary; Past Masters T. J. Barnes, J. Hood, J. J. Berry; also Bros. W. T. Tait S.D., J. Taylor D.C., G. T. H. Soddon Organist, J. R. Shingfield Steward, C. T. Speight P.M. Tyler; C. Warman, S. Allen, F. Bayliss, W. March, A. Symes, A. Gilby, H. Horner, W. Pain, W. Hawes, G. Clarke, C. G. Fardell, T. Russell, P. Heitmann, H. Wilson, O. W. Peacock, C. Allen, J. L. Anderson, W. C. Livermore, H. E. Swaffer, E. W. Thomas, C. J. Braithwaite, J. Fordham, A. Walter, G. Etheredge, H. W. Reed, W. Hunt, W. Kent, A. Wood, A. Britton, W. H. Mackenrot, G. J. Jennings, R. Lynes, H. Foras, &c. The Visitors included Bros. R. T. Sly 1625, H. Speedy W.M. 142, A. Russell 1776, A. Wade P.M. 1449, F. Binckes Secretary Boys' School, Rev. D. Shaboe P.P.G.C. Middlesex and Suffolk, J. T. K. Job J.W. 1076, G. Hollington P.M. 1421, J. W. Hobbs P.M. 749, E. W. Barnard P.M. 206, G. Levick P.M. 1227, S. Watkins P.M. 212, R. B. Greenwood 1623, J. Boulton S.D. 1056, T. G. Walter 89, P. M'Carthy W.M. 1076, J. Hunt I.G. 1421, H. N. Taylor S.W. 1421, J. Fowler 1158, C. J. Harmsworth P.M. 956, J. S. Fraser S.D. 174, G. H. Stephens I.G. 1623, J. Knight 1185, R. Jennings W.M. 907, W. Allen 1178, J. Terry Sec. R.M.B.I. P.P.G.J.W. Herts, H. J. Walter 890, J. Scales 1630, &c. Lodge was called for 3 o'clock, and punctually to that hour it was opened, the business before the Lodge being to receive Auditors' report, pass four brethren, and instal the W.M. elect, the appointment and investiture of the Officers, &c. Bros. F. S. Allen and J. W. Dobbins, candidates for passing, were in attendance, and were tested as to their proficiency, and afterwards passed to the second degree. The ceremony of installation was then proceeded with, and Bro. J. S. Taylor was duly installed into the chair of K.S. by Bro. G. Ward Verry P.M., in the manner usual in this well-worked Lodge. The special dispensation from the Pro Grand Master was read to the brethren, permitting Bro. Taylor to be installed, although not quite out of his year of office in another Lodge. The Officers were appointed as follows:—Bros. E. Walter S.W., W. T. Tait J.W., J. G. Stevens P.M. Treasurer, G. W. Verry P.M. Secretary, J. H. Thorn I.P.M., W. Cross S.D., J. Lineker J.D., J. Taylor I.G., G. J. Jennings D.C. Bros. J. R. Shingfield W.S. and G. T. H. Seddon Orgst. continue their respective services to the Lodge. The report of the Auditors was then received, and the accounts rendered were most satisfactory, and arranged in capital form. True to their traditions as supporters of the Charities, 30 guineas was voted to the Masonic Institutions, viz., 10 guineas to each. A Steward from the Lodge is going up for the Boys and the Girls, and Bro. J. J. Berry is also taking up a list in aid of the Old People. Business being at an end the Lodge was closed, and the brethren repaired to the large banqueting hall, in numbers which taxed its capacity to the utmost. Here a capital banquet was served by Bro. Walter, about eighty brethren partaking of the same. On the removal of the cloth, grace having been said by Bro. the Rev. D. Shaboe, the usual Loyal and Craft toasts were given and responded to, the W.M. stated that, the evening being advanced, he would be brief in proposing the toasts, so that the brethren who were there to entertain them might have a better opportunity. The toast of the Pro Grand Master and Grand Officers past and present was heartily received, and replied to at length by Bro. Frederick Binckes, who disclaimed his right to reply for so august a body to such an influential meeting of the Craft; no doubt the W.M. thought that, as they had not got the substance, at least they had the shadow. Speaking for the Pro Grand Master, who had been graciously pleased to grant a dispensation in favour of the W.M. being installed, he would, as this was New Year's Night, wish him a prosperous year of office. He took the opportunity of saying he was grateful for the hearty welcome he had experienced; for several years past he had been invited, and Bro. Stevens had hit him rather hard in consequence of his peregrinations not bringing him to the East End. He had, however, always given the East End brethren a hearty welcome when they came to see him, and he could assure the brethren that he fully appreciated the strenuous support they had afforded him. Bro. Thorn I.P.M. said it was the first time he had assumed the gavel to propose the toast of the W.M., which was sure to be heartily received. Bro. Taylor, in returning thanks, said the brethren might rest assured he would do all he could to maintain and uphold the dignity of the W.M.'s office. Whilst upon his legs, he would propose the toast of the I.P.M., of whom, they would agree with him, he need not say much, his successful year of office being the best test of how he had occupied the chair. Bro. Thorn, in reply to a hearty reception of his name, said his faded light might just as well be dimmed for all he knew; the pleasure of presiding over such a Lodge as this was departed and over; he thanked every one for the kind manner in which they had then, and always, drank his health, and never more so than on the present occasion. He hardly knew how to return thanks for, and express his appreciation of, the jewel they had presented to him. The Past Masters were next toasted; of them the W.M. said they were the finest in any Lodge, as, upon looking round, all would agree with him. Bros. Stevens and Barnes,—who are better workers for charity? Then there is Bro. Berry, who means to beat them; and Bro. Hood, and Bro. G. W. Verry, who had so ably installed him that day, initiated him into Masonry in this Lodge; he was proud to be installed by him; but they were all good fellows; he asked them to drink their health, and wish them a happy Christmas and a prosperous New Year. Bro. Stevens P.M. said he was deputed by the Past Masters to thank the brethren, on their behalf, for the manner in which they received the toast of their health. Before going further, he would allude, with sorrow, to the absence of several Past Masters, who ranked before him in age; particularly Bros. Past Masters J. Wynn and J. Kindred, who were absent for the first time. He was sure the brethren of the Yarborough Lodge would regret the absence of those brethren, than whom none better had taken the oath of Freemasons. For himself, he had, as Treasurer, borne the burden of the Lodge for eleven years, during which time he did not think the brethren had any occasion to be sorry on his account. The Masonic Charities were next toasted. At this festive period of the year, when we have enjoyed plenty, it is right, Bro. Taylor said, that we think of others less fortunate. The toast was, therefore, one which should meet with great respect. Bro. Terry, whose name was coupled with the toast, wished the brethren to accept his sincere thanks for the reception it had received at their hands. In the Yarborough Lodge there was no occasion to recapitulate the claims of the Masonic Charities, although there might be members who had entered since the last installation meeting; to them he would say that the three brethren who were serving as Stewards would be sure to see them, and inform them what their duties as Freemasons to the Charities were. Bro. Terry concluded with a powerful appeal on behalf of the three Masonic Institutions, asking that a response should be made in keeping with the results of the Yarborough Lodge in the past. Bro. Binckes also spoke to the toast, advocating the special claims of the Boys' School, it having no funded property like the other two Institutions, and therefore being in need of constant support. The Visitors were next honoured, and in reply Bro. the Rev. D. Shabee said that, as a very old Past Master of the Lodge, he thanked them cordially as a Visitor for their reception of the toast. The song just sung, "We love old friends," was most appropriate. He loved old friends, and having been twenty-four years a member of the Lodge, had been present at twenty-three installations to visit old friends. Bro. C. J. Harmsworth expressed his great pleasure at visiting amongst the wise men of the East. During a period of thirteen years in Freemasonry he had travelled a great deal in the South-eastern part of Africa, and had had ample opportunities of seeing Masonry practised there. There there is the same earnestness for the Craft, but often without the comfort attainable in England, where a first-class ride of five miles takes a brother from his home to the Lodge in comfort; there it is thought nothing to travel a distance of thirty miles over rough country to visit a Lodge or Chapter. He had, twelve months ago, the pleasure of visiting the Yarborough Lodge installation meeting, and since then had returned to Cape Town, and had been invited to a Lodge meeting at Simons Bay, where he met those gallant brethren of the 24th Regiment who had so nobly shed their lives. The toast of the Officers was next given, and heartily received. The Tyler's toast closed a meeting of a most successful and enjoyable character. Bro. Shingfield as Steward attended in good style to the creature comforts, whilst Bro. Seddon ministered to the intellectual pleasures of the post prandial proceedings in his usual able manner, the brethren who assisted him being Bros. Thorn, Berry, Stephens, Britton, Brown, R. Greenwood, &c.

Digitized by Google

DUNHEVED LODGE, No. 789.

THE annual meeting of this Lodge, was held in the Masonic Hall, Launceston, when Bro. E. Trood the W.M. elect, was duly installed as Worshipful Master for the year ensuing, the ceremony being ably performed by the retiring W.M. Bro. C. Parsons, assisted by the following Board of Installed Masters:—W. D. Pearce P.P.G.S.W., C. G. Archer P.P.G.J.W., J. Hawkins P.P.G.J.D., W. T. Parsons P.P.G. Std., P. F. Simcoe P.P.G. Std. 789, W. M. Jackson P.M. 373, P.P.G. Regr. Hunts, F. Couch P.M., D. Thompson P.M., and T. P. Trood P.M. 789. The Worshipful Master appointed and invested the following brethren as his Officers for the ensuing year:—J. Kittow S.W., H. M. Harvey J.W., W. S. Johns Chaplain, H. M. Harvey Treasurer, R. Sampson Secretary, W. Andrew S.D., T. C. Langdon J.D., R. Kittow D.C., W. Sloane-Evans O., R. Reed I.G., T. Sherston and J. Palmer Stewards, J. Fiddler Tyler. Bro. P. F. Simcoe was appointed Steward for the Masonic Charities. The brethren afterwards adjourned to the dining-room of the Lodge, where the annual banquet was provided.

CITY OF LONDON LODGE, No 901.

THE members of this Lodge held their annual installation at the Guildhall Tavern, on the 19th inst. The Lodge having been opened with the usual formalities by the W.M. Bro. Rubardt, he duly installed the W.M. elect Bro. Ginger, who was presented by Bro. Laurence. The ceremony was most efficiently performed, and, for the first time in this Lodge, with musical accompaniments, the passages being most impressively rendered by Bro. Stacey P.P.G.S. 289, who kindly volunteered to preside at the harmonium. The W.M. then appointed the following brethren as his Officers for the ensuing year:—C. Beanmont S.W., E. V. Cundy J.W., H. D'Arcy P.M. Treas., W. Rubardt I.P.M., S. W. Harbord Assist. Sec., Parker S.D., J. Hughes J.D., D. Hughes I.G., E. Salisbury P.M. Stwd., W. Alder D.C., E. C. T. Hand O. The brethren were conducted by Bro. Baker P.M. 753, who kindly officiated as D.C., to their respective chairs. Messrs. K. Stubbs, G. T. McLachan, J. Vears, C. S. Pinn and E. Venner were then initiated into our ancient Order. Bro. Salisbury P.M. proposed that a jewel be presented to the late Secretary Bro. Wm. Alder (who he regretted to say had been compelled to relinquish his duties owing to ill health) in recognition of his services. The proposition having been seconded by Bro. Henry D'Arcy P.M., was carried unanimously. Owing to the heavy business of the Lodge the presentation of the harmonium, which had been subscribed for by the Officers, was postponed until the next meeting. The names of several candidates for initiation at the next meeting were handed in, and the Lodge was closed in due form. The brethren then adjourned to a most sumptuous banquet, the attendance being much larger than on any previous occasion. The usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were given from the chair and heartily received. The W.M. in honouring the Visitors said that with so many distinguished brethren present it would be invidious to particularize, but he could not omit thanking Bro. Stacey P.P.G.S. 289 for so kindly inaugurating the musical ceremony, and also Bro. Baker P.M. 753 for his valuable services and assistance in the ritual; last but not least he was pleased to see present Bro. C. Lucop 1326, the Deputy Preceptor of the City of London Lodge of Instruction, and who so ably seconded Bro. Hy. D'Arcy, the efficient Preceptor of that successful Lodge of Instruction. The initiates' toast was given and responded to. The W.M. in proposing the health of the the I.P.M. expressed a hope that he (the W.M.) would have as successful and eventful a year as Bro. Rubardt, who had so efficiently discharged his duties. In proposing the toast of the P.M.'s the W.M. expressed his pleasure at seeing again his old friend the veteran Mason Bro. Osmond, who eighteen years ago filled the chair he had now the honour to occupy. The proceedings were enlivened by the vocal abilities of Bros. Harris, Hand, Morris and others. The usual concluding toasts having been given, the brethren separated, having spent a most enjoyable evening.

GOSPORT LODGE, No. 903.

THE installation of Bro. Robert Wake Mitchell as W.M. of this Lodge took place at the Star Assembly Rooms, Gosport, on Tuesday evening, 13th inst., when there was a large muster of the brethren, amongst those present being Bros. A. Cudlipp P.M. 487 (Mayor of Portsmouth), T. R. Williams W.M. 257, A. R. Holbrook W.M. 309, J. W. Willmott W.M. 432, James Johns W.M. 1428, G. Grant W.M. 1705, H. J. Guy P.M. 487, Wallingford P.M. 903 P.P.G.W., V. Brown the retiring W.M. of the Lodge, Dyson P.M. 394 P.P.G. Supt. of Works, G. F. Lancaster P.M. 903 P.P.G.D., C. B. Whitcomb P.M. 1705 P.G.S., Wilson P.M., Hellier P.M., &c. The ceremony of installation was most ably performed by Bro. Valentine Brown, the retiring W.M., who also gave the addresses to the Officers. The W.M. appointed his Officers as follows:—Bros. V. Brown I.P.M. and Treasurer, G. R. Downing S.W., Francis Powell J.W., Rev. E. B. C. Churchill P.M. Chaplain, Brunwin Sec., Walter Smith S.D., E. Wood J.D., and A. J. Wright I.G. The W.M. then presented Bro. Brown with a P.M.'s jewel, subscribed for by the Lodge, in recognition of the manner in which he had conducted the proceedings of the Lodge during the past year, and referred in high terms to the great efficiency which had been shown by Bro. Brown in all his duties. The brethren afterwards adjourned to the India Arms Hotel, where an excellent banquet was provided by Miss Eastlands.—Portsmouth Times.

The Crusaders' Lodge, No. 1677.—The monthly meeting of this flourishing Lodge was held on Wednesday, the 14th inst., at the New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, Bro. Thomas Goode W.M. presided, supported by Bros. Simmonds S.W., Rothschild J.W., Maples Treasurer, Hunter P.M. W.S., Defriez Secretary, Millward S.D., Calderwood J.D., Piggott I.G., Rushton Organist and Very Tyler, together with the following Visitors:—Bros. Carpenter P.M. Urban, H. Thompson The Great City P.M. 177 and 1158, Churchyard 376, Lansdowne New Concord, Themans P.M. Faith, &c. The Lodge having been opened, the minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. The Lodge was then opened in the second degree, Bro. Augustus Thomas Buckingham was reported as a candidate for being raised to the sublime degree. He was questioned as to those degrees through which he had already passed, and most readily did he answer every question that was put to him, clearly showing that since his introduction he had been no drone in the hive of Freemasonry. The Lodge was then opened in the third degree, and the candidate was impressively raised by the W.M. to the degree of M.M. The Lodge was then resumed to the first, and a gentleman who had been balloted for, the vote being unanimous in his favour, was initiated into the privileges and mysteries of ancient Freemasonry. Nothing could exceed the perfect manner in which the W.M. discharged that duty; whilst adhering to the ritual of the Order, he wisely discarded a few tautological expressions which showed the pains he had bestowed in qualifying himself for his duties, without once deviating from what has been considered the established mode of working. Some old Masons who were present expressed the gratification they had experienced in seeing so able a Mason preside over the Lodge as its W.M. Some other business having been disposed of the Lodge was closed, and the brethren adjourned to the large dining hall for refreshment, the Worshipful Master presiding. This having been disposed of, the Worshipful Master in rapid succession gave the usual formal and Masonic toasts. In proposing the health of their brother initiate, who he stated was well known in Clerkenwell, he was sure he was one whose admission amongst them would do credit to the Lodge. The newly initiated brother, in responding to the toast of his health, said he was very pleased at his admission amongst them; he could not find words to express his thanks for the honour they had conferred upon him; it was an honour he had long wished to obtain, and while thanking them for the way in which the toast had been received, hoped that he should prove himself to be a worthy member of their noble Order. Dr. Hunter P.M., in proposing the health of the W. Master, said he knew him to be a most zealous Mason, and although that night he was not recovered from his illness, still he was better than he had been; he was delighted that they had such a man to preside over them, and to see the excellent manner in which he had gone through the ceremonies that night, which showed the indomitable courage he had displayed in coming amongst them to perform his duties as Master of the Lodge. It was therefore with great pleasure he called upon the brethren to drink the health of the W. Master, a request which was enthusiastically responded to. The W.M., in reply, said he felt proud of the manner in which the toast had been received; he believed that he had only done his duty, and he hoped to do in the future what had received their approbation in the past. Bro. Rushton, the Organist of the Lodge, was called upon for a song, and he at once complied with the request, producing an original one, of his own writing, set to a proper nautical tune, which elicited unbounded applause, the principal members of the Lodge being individualy referred to. As the song is of considerable merit, a copy is subjoined :—

Digitized by Google

O have you not heard of the noble Crusaders,
Who in King Richard's time formed a true band,
To fight the bold Saracen down in the Holy Land,
And there for the Cross to make a brave stand.
Forth from the Priory gate, they went speedily,
Blest by the abbot and monks, who so readily
Urged them, with courage, to do and to dare,
And helped them in absence by many a prayer.

I sing not of them, but of other Crusaders,
Whose deeds as brightly will shine, we believe;
Who would wage a great war against hatred and envy,
And poverty, sickness, and suff'ring relieve,
'Tis a Lodge of Freemasons, which was consecrated,
And from the old Priory its charter is dated.
The shades of the abbot and monks hover there,
To bless all who sit in the Crusaders' chair.

I sing yet aloud of the most noble founders,
With Maples, and Hunter, and Goode to the fore,
Of Simmons and Catherwood, Gay, and of Piggott,
And dear old friend Davis, alas! now no more.
Of Millward, Defriez, of Knight, and of Rothschild,
Who large the jewels of Masonry share,
Who've proved themselves able, with zeal and devotion,
To environ with beauty the Crusaders' chair.

O join then in sympathy, all worthy Masons,
And pray the Great Architect grace may impart,
To make each Crusader a good and true Mason,
At last, as at first, in the depths of his heart;
That so we in Masonry, true knowledge learning,
The Grand Lodge above may be ever discerning,
And the Most High, for ever, His blessing shed there,
Where the brethren surround the new Crusaders' chair.

The W.M. next gave the "Past Masters of the Lodge," coupling with the toast the names of Bros. Maples and Dr. Hunter, stating that Dr. Hunter looked after their wants, and Bro. Maples looked after their funds. Bro. the Rev. J. Caseley, Provincial Grand Chaplain for Herts, and principal Curate of St. James's, Clerkenwell, sang a comical and very amusing song. Bro. Hunter P.M. said he felt gratified at the manner in which the brethren had received the toast; he was highly pleased at the manner in which it was always received. As that was the last opportunity he should have of addressing them before the Festival, most sincerely did he thank the brethren for the response they had made to his appeal as representing them at the Festival for the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution. Although they were a young Lodge, at present he held a sum of £113 towards that Festival, an amount which was highly gratifying to him as their Steward, and especially considering that they had hardly come into existence when they appointed a Steward, and sent him up with a sum of £70. When he entered upon the duty of Steward, he did not think he should get anything like the amount that had come into his hands, but lately he had met with many old friends, who had shaken hands with him, and said, "Well done, Bro. Hunter, I did not think you would get £50." Bro. Maples P.M. and Treasurer also returned thanks. The W. Master said the next toast he had the honour to propose was that of "The Visitors," and that night they were favoured with a good sprinkling of them; most happy should they be to see them again. In proposing the toast he mentioned the names of Bros. Carpenter P.M. of the Urban Lodge, Thompson of The Great City Lodge, Lansdowne of the New Concord, and Themans of the Faith Lodge, most happy was he to see them. Bro. Carpenter jocosely returned thanks for the toast, and Bro. Thompson remarked that the Lodge bore the name of the Crusaders, who were the pioneers of great and virtuous acts in early ages, carrying out the great principles of Christianity. From what they had heard that night from Bro. Dr. Hunter, they seemed determined by their bounty to follow the noble example of those whose name they bore, and appeared to be foremost in a Second Crusade in carrying out in the future those principles which had so well distinguished the acts of the noble Crusaders in the past. Some other toasts were given, including that of "The Officers of the Lodge." A very pleasant evening was passed. The Annual United Ball of this Lodge and the Finsbury Park Lodge will take place on the 4th February, at the Freemasons' Tavern, and, by special dispensation from the Grand Master, brethren will be permitted to wear Masonic clothing and jewels on that occasion. Brethren wishing to attend are advised to make early application for tickets, as the number is limited.

The place of meeting of the Earl of Zetland Lodge of Instruction, No. 1361, having been changed from the Old Town Hall, Hackney, to Bro. Bristo's, the Nag's Head, Mare Street, Hackney, the first meeting took place in the new premises on Saturday evening last, Bro. W. C. Maddever in the chair, when the ceremony of Installation was rehearsed. The future meetings will take place at the above address, every Saturday, except the third Saturday in each month, between the hours of 7 and 9, during the months of October to April inclusive. Bro. W. Fieldwick Preceptor.

FISH DINNERS IN PERFECTION
2S EACH, including Soups, Entrées, Poultry, Joints, Cheese, Salad,
Served from 12 to 4 daily.—GEORGE TAVERN, Billingsgate Market.
Sole Proprietor, GEORGE SMITH, from Anderton's Hotel.

CONSECRATION OF THE FERRUM LODGE.

A new Lodge of Freemasons was consecrated in Middlesbrough on Wednesday, 21st January. The North York Lodge, the only one in the iron town, was established in 1852, and since that time the members of the Craft have grown very numerous. For a considerable period it has been thought desirable that there should be a second Lodge. In September last active steps were taken with the view of opening a new Lodge, and a charter was granted by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to the following brethren to form the Ferrum Lodge, No. 1848:—Andrew Farmer, John Thomas Belk, S. A. Sadler, W. H. Cowper, Wright Petchell, S. Walker, and W. J. Watson. At the ceremony of Consecration there was a large attendance. The ceremony was performed by the R.W. Prov. Grand Master, the Earl of Zetland, assisted by Bro. J. P. Bell, M.D., D.P.G.M. The ceremony of Consecration having been completed, the installation of the W.M. was proceeded with, and the Officers were appointed as follows:—Bros. A. Farmer P.P.G.D.C. W.M., J. T. Belk S.W., S. A. Sadler J.W., W. H. Cowper P.M. Sec., S. Walker S.D., W. Petchell P.M. J.D., and R. Davison P.M. I.G. An address on the history and privileges of Masonry was then delivered by the Prov. Grand Chaplain, the Rev. R. Mitford Taylor P.M. 613, after which the Lodge was closed. Amongst the Visitors present were—Bros. the Hon. W. T. Orde Powlett P.M. 123 P.P.G.S.W., J. M. Meek P.M. Prov. G. Reg. (Durham), J. S. Cumberland P.M. 1611, and numerous brethren from the Provinces of North and East Yorkshire, Durham, and Northumberland. About 75 of the brethren afterwards dined at the Queen Hotel, and spent a most enjoyable afternoon.—Yorkshire Gazette.

Bro. G. T. H. Seddon, the I.P.M. of the Sincerity Lodge, No. 174, writes us that our representative made an error in the report of the Installation meeting which appeared in our last issue. Replying to the kind remarks of the W.M., when he presented the P.M.'s jewel voted by the Lodge, Bro. Seddon is reported to have said, "he accepted their gift, not as a testimonial for doing his duties, but for getting through them." Our brother tells us that he said just the opposite, for he accepted the testimonial, not for getting through his duties, but for doing them. We regret the error; but really the instances where an I.P.M. can and does openly declare in the face of his Lodge that he has done his duty are unfortunately so rare that we think we are justified in craving a little indulgence for the mistake of our reporter.

In our notice of the New Finsbury Park Lodge Ball, we stated that Bro. Parkiss was the W.M. of the Lodge; in this, it appears, we were wrong. The present W.M. is Bro. Thomas Press; Bro. Parkiss is the I.P.M.

The Portsmouth Times says that Bro. W. W. Beach, M.P., Prov. G.M. for Hampshire and the Isle of Wight has postponed his audit for the Michaelmas rents until the middle of March, in order that the corn may get in better condition for the market, and then he will order an abatement of £10 per cent.

The adjourned meeting of the proposed Fifteen Sections Club will be held at the Metropolitan Hotel, South-place, Finsbury, E.C. on Monday next, 2nd February, at seven o'clock p.m. Brethren willing to co-operate in the above movement are kindly requested to attend on this occasion. Communications to be addressd to John B. King, Hon. Sec., 89 Cannon-street, E.C.

THE ROYAL STANDARD BENEFIT SOCIETY.—This Society was founded in 1828 by the late Mr. Hunter, for the purpose of assisting members in time of sickness and death. It was the first Society of the kind under the Registration Act of Bro. Tidd Pratt. A gathering was held on Tuesday, the 20th instant, at the Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street, in aid of the funds. Dancing was kept up with great spirit under the direction of Mr. James Cox. The amusements were varied. A child, nine years old, Miss Price, delighted the company by her talented singing; Bro. C. Solomons presided at the piano. Mr. Leech, in the Crown Room, President of the Society, occupied the chair, and here songs, given by the Visitors, were fully appreciated. On former occasions the services of professional singers have been engaged. A supper followed, and then the usual enjoyments were resumed. Among the Stewards were Bros. Croft 1351, Perryman P.M. No. 3, Handley 475, &c.

Part VI. of "Greenhouse Favourites," published by Messrs. Groombridge and Sons, treats more particularly of the Erica, Azalea and Pelargoniums. This work is now fairly established, and when complete will form a handsome volume for the table, as well as a most useful one for reference.

Doubtless many of our readers have seen or heard of the "Boys' Own Paper," which has now been published weekly by the proprietors of the "Leisure Hour," for about twelve months. The success that has attended the publication of that serial has induced the promoters to launch forth the "Girls' Own Paper" which, based on the same lines as that issued for the Boys, will we hope prove as successful. The movement to provide pure and interesting periodicals for the young has thus received valuable assistance.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Diseases of the skin.—No case of disease of the skin, be its nature what it may, has failed to be benefited when these potent remedies have been properly applied. In scrofulous and scorbutic affections they are especially serviceable. Scurvy and eruptions, which had resisted all other modes of treatment, and gradually become worse from year to year, have been completely cured by Holloway's cooling Ointment and purifying Pills, which root out the disease from the blood itself and leave the constitution free from every morbid taint. In the nursery Holloway's Ointment should be ever at hand; it will give ease in sprains, contusions, burns, scalds, and infantile eruptions, and may always safely be applied by any ordinary attendant.

Digitized by Google

ROYAL
MASONIC BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION
FOR
AGED FREEMASONS AND WIDOWS OF FREEMASONS,
CROYDON.

—:o:—

Patron and President:
HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, K.G., &c., M.W.G.M

—:o:—

THE ANNIVERSARY FESTIVAL

OF THIS INSTITUTION WILL TAKE PLACE ON

MONDAY, 9TH FEBRUARY 1880,

AT

FREEMASONS' TAVERN, GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON,

UPON WHICH OCCASION

The Right Hon. the EARL OF ZETLAND,

R.W. PROV. G.M. FOR NORTH AND EAST YORKSHIRE,

Has been pleased to signify his intention of presiding.

Brethren desirous of accepting the Office of Steward upon this occasion will greatly oblige by forwarding their Names and Masonic Rank as soon as convenient, to the Secretary, who will gladly give any information required.

JAMES TERRY, P. Prov. G.J.W. Herts,
Secretary.

4 Freemasons' Hall, London, W.C.

ANDERTON'S HOTEL,

F. H. CLEMOW, PROPRIETOR,

Nos. 162, 164 & 165 Fleet Street, and 7 & 11 Johnson's Court, London.

THE ACCOMMODATION OFFERED AT THIS ESTABLISHMENT FOR

MASONIC MEETINGS, BANQUETS, &c.

IS UNRIVALLED.

THE premises have lately been rebuilt, and in order to maintain the time-honored reputation of the house, as one of the centres of London Freemasonry, special attention has been paid to the furnishing of Lodge quarters, which now comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL

Specially constructed for Masonic purposes, with preparation room adjoining

A LARGE BANQUET HALL

Fitted with every necessary for the comfort of Visitors, &c., &c.

ROOMS FOR LARGE OR SMALL DINNER PARTIES, MEETINGS, &c.

THE CATHEDRAL HOTEL,

CORNER OF

CHEAPSIDE & ST. PAUL'S CHURCHYARD.

—:o:—

F. J. SWEETING, Proprietor.

—:o:—

LUNCHEON BAR ON GROUND FLOOR FOR LIGHT REFRESHMENTS.

Soups, Fish, Chops, Steaks, Entrées, Cold Joints, &c. from Eight a.m. till Ten p.m.

DINING ROOMS ON FIRST FLOOR.

Hot Joints, &c. from Twelve o'Clock daily.
Dinners a la Carte. Teas, &c.

THE "CATHEDRAL HALF-CROWN DINNER"

(Soup, Fish, Joint)
Is served in the Saloon from Twelve till Five daily.

The Smoking Room overlooks the New Gardens round St. Paul's Cathedral.

PRIVATE ROOMS FOR SMALL PARTIES, MASONIC AUDITS, &c.

The following Lodges have recently held their Audit Meetings at this Hotel:—GROSVENOR, STANHOPE, POLISH NATIONAL, LA TOLERANCE, &c.

VITRUVIAN LODGE, No. 87.

BRO. ISAAC, who has for some time past provided for the requirements of this Lodge, begs to announce that he has obtained permission for the removal of his license to the Belvedere-road, and that he has erected commodious premises there. These comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL.

WITH ANTE ROOMS,

LARGE BANQUETTING HALL,

Together with every convenience for Masonic gatherings.

Applications from Secretaries and others for accommodation to be addressed

G. ISAAC, "WHITE HART," COLLEGE STREET, LAMBETH, LONDON, S.E.

DINNERS FROM THE JOINT from TWELVE to THREE o'clock. CHOPS and STEAKS from the GRILL till FIVE o'clock. T. MAIDWELL, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-st., City, E.C.

THE FREEMASONS' TAVERN,

GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON W.C.

The admirable and unrivalled accommodation provided at this Establishment for

MASONIC BANQUETS,

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE DINNERS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, BALLS, &c.

Is too well known to need comment. The entire management has been changed, and the Establishment in all its branches thoroughly re-organised.

The attention of the Masonic Body is directed to the many advantages offered.

CUISINE OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER.

WINES PERFECT IN CONDITION AND QUALITY.

N.B.—DINNERS PROVIDED FROM 3/-.

RESTAURANT, WINE, SMOKING & RETIRING ROOMS.

The fullest measure of public confidence and support ensured.

BRO. ALFRED BEST, PROPRIETOR.

OPENING OF THE CRITERION ANNEXE.

SPIERS & POND respectfully beg to inform their Patrons, that to meet the increasing demands of their business at the Criterion, the premises have been greatly enlarged, by the addition of the above building. The principal features of the New Establishment are as follows:—

The Cafe, comprising—
The American Bar,
The Vienna Bier Saal,

VIANDS FROM THE NEW GRILL. SUPPERS SERVED TILL MIDNIGHT.

Oysters a Specialite.

The Victoria Hall, for Banquets, Balls, Wedding Breakfasts, Soirées, and Entertainments.

The Prince's and Carnarvon Rooms, for Masonic Meetings, Banquets, &c.

Private Rooms, suitable for the meetings of Public and Corporate Bodies, Arbitrations, &c.

The Criterion Departments.

Buffet	For Luncheons and Light Refreshments.
Restaurant	Dinners à la Carte.
Cigar Divan	Facing Piccadilly entrance.
Smoking Room ...	Adjoining the Buffet.
Grill Room	Entrance in Jermyn Street.
West Dining Room	Le Dîner Parisien daily from 5.30 Sundays.	p.m., and on
East Dining Room ...	Dinners à la Carte.
The Grand Hall ...	Table d'Hote daily, from 5.30 till 8 p.m. (also on Sundays at 6).
Private Rooms ...	For Dinners, Wedding Breakfasts, &c., &c.

SAWYER'S (LATE STATION) RESTAURANT,

5 RAILWAY PLACE, FENCHURCH STREET, E.C.

ENGLISH, FRENCH & GERMAN CUISINE.

Hot and Cold Luncheons on the Ground Floor;
This Room will accommodate 100 persons.

CHOPS, STEAKS, &c., FROM THE GRILL;
The Grill Room will seat 150 persons.

REID'S TREBLE STOUT. WORTHINGTON'S ALES,
BERLIN TIVOLI BEER.

TEA AND COFFEE ALWAYS READY.

CHAMPAGNES OF THE BEST BRANDS. OLD BOTTLED PORTS.
SHERRIES AND OTHER WINES OF THE BEST QUALITY.

Bro. F. J. SAWYER, Proprietor.
Late of Pimm's, and the Crystal Palace.

DRESS SHIRTS.

ALFRED BURDEN devotes his special attention to this important article of Dress, and

GUARANTEES A PERFECT FIT.

GLOVES, HOSIERY, SCARVES, RUGS,
DRESSING ROBES AND SUITS.

THE "PYJAMAS" WAREHOUSE,
A. BURDEN & Co.,
51 CONDUIT STREET, W.

MASONIC HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS,

1 NOTTING HILL SQUARE, W.

THE SCHOOL has been established to provide a High Class Education to sons of Freemasons and others, on moderate terms. There are scholarships of the annual value of £10 to £20, and Exhibitions of £20. Terms for sons of Freemasons from 4 to 7 guineas per term, for other pupils from 5 to 8 guineas per term. For further particulars apply to the Secretary, or to

E. PASSAWER, LL.D.
Head Master.

Digitized by Google

FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE

23 GREAT QUEEN STREET, W.C.

SUPREME GRAND CHAPTER OF ROYAL ARCH MASONS OF ENGLAND.

A QUARTERLY Convocation of the Supreme Grand Chapter will be held at Freemasons' Hall, London, W.C. on Wednesday, the 4th day of February, at 7 o'clock in the evening, punctually.

Business:—The Minutes of the last Quarterly Convocation to be read for confirmation.

After which the following report of the Committee of General Purposes will be submitted.

The Committee of General Purposes beg to report that they have examined the Accounts from the 15th October 1879, to the 20th January 1880, both inclusive, which they find to be as follows:—

	£	s	d		£	s	d
Balance G. Chapter	1231	4	6	Disbursements during the Quarter	251	4	6
„ Unappropriated Account	170	10	1	Balance	1328	6	11
Subsequent Receipts	341	16	11	„ in Unappropriated Account	164	0	1
	£1743	11	6		£1743	11	6

Which Balances are in the Bank of England, Western Branch.

The Committee have likewise to report that they have received the following petitions:—

1st. From Companions Edward Rosenbusch as Z, Charles Edward Coffey as H, Harry Gardner as J, and twelve others for a Chapter to be attached to the Union Lodge, No. 407, Malta, to be called The "William Kingston Chapter," and to meet at the Masonic Hall, Valetta, Malta.

2nd. From Companions Edward Pitt Yonell as Z, William Dods as H, Joseph Tomlinson as J, and eight others for a Chapter to be attached to the St. Andrew's Lodge, No. 1631, Gorleston, to be called "The St. Andrews Chapter," and to meet at St. Andrew's Hall, Gorleston, Suffolk.

3rd. From Companions James Henry Gration as Z, Thomas Braithwaite as H, John Bustard as J, and eight others for a Chapter to be attached to the Friendly Lodge, No. 1513, Barnsley, to be called "The Friendly Chapter," and to meet at the King's Head Hotel, Barnsley, Yorkshire.

4th. From Companions William George Lemon as Z, The Rev. William Taylor Jones as H, Charles William Thompson as J, and eleven others for a Chapter to be attached to the Ravensbourne Lodge, No. 1601, Catford Bridge, to be called "The Ravensbourne Chapter," and to meet at the Board of Works Office, Catford Bridge, Lewisham.

5th. From Companions James Terry as Z, John Howroyd Sadler as H, John Edwin Cussans as J, and six others for a Chapter to be attached to the Highgate Lodge, No. 1366, Highgate, to be called the "Highgate Chapter," and to meet at the Gatehouse Tavern, Highgate, Middlesex.

The foregoing petitions being in all respects regular, The Committee recommend that the prayers thereof be respectively granted.

With reference to the Petition for a Chapter to be attached to the Aldershot Camp Lodge, No. 1331 Aldershot, the consideration of which was deferred at the last Quarterly Convocation of Grand Chapter, the Committee have to report that the Grand Superintendent for the Province of Hampshire and Isle of Wight, having since withdrawn his recommendation to the Petition, they do not now feel themselves justified in recommending that the prayer of the Petition be granted, but leave the matter in the hands of the Grand Chapter.

The Committee have also to report that a complaint was preferred by a Companion of the Ebury Chapter, No. 1348, London, against another Companion of the Chapter, for having on two occasions (on the latter while presiding as the Acting M.E.Z.) used his influence to prevent his election to office in the Chapter. The Committee having summoned the parties before them, and having fully investigated the case, are of opinion that the first charge is not proved, but that, on the second occasion, a statement was made to the Chapter, which was calculated to influence the votes of the Companions, and which was not justified.

The Committee have further to report that by a mistake in taking the date of initiation for that of raising the Hwllffordd Chapter, No. 464, Haverfordwest, exalted a brother, after only eleven months service as a Master Mason, contrary to Art. 67, page 22, of the Royal Arch Regulations. The Committee have therefore admonished the Chapter to be more careful in future, and have directed that the Candidate be re-obligated before his Grand Chapter Certificate be issued.

The following Notice of Motion has been received for the next Quarterly Convocation:—

By Companion William Smallpeice, P.Z. No. 21:—

"That Clause five (5) page five (5) of the Book of Regulations of the Royal Arch be repealed, in order that all Companions may be present at the opening of private Chapters."

(Signed) JOHN CREATON, G. Treasurer, President

Freemasons' Hall, London, W.C.
21st January 1880.

Robert Burns Chapter, No. 25.—Met on Monday, 26th inst., at Freemasons' Hall. Present—Comps. G. R. Sherrill M.E.Z., Chas. Martin H., Kerby P.Z. Treas. as J., W. Land J. (being absent through illness), W. Platt P.Z. Scribe E., Allsopp P.Z. as N., Elsey P.S., J. E. Shand Asst. Scribe, Smith W.S.; also Comps. Thomas P.Z., Deaton and others. After ballot, Bros. J. Linden W.M. Robert Burns Lodge No. 25, and G. Simonds Globe Lodge No. 23, were exalted. The names of Bros. T. J. Robins P.M. Robert Burns Lodge, and Courtney Wymil J.D. 25 were on the summons as candidates for exaltation, but they were unavoidably prevented from attending. An audit Committee was appointed. A P.Z.'s jewel was unanimously voted to Comp. Sherrill for his able and courteous discharge of the duties of Z. during the year. Comp. Kerby P.Z. Treas. proposed that in consideration of the long connection of Comp. Bennett P.Z. with the Chapter, and whose resignation was accepted with great regret at the last meeting, Comp. Bennett be elected an hon. member of the Robert Burns Chapter, which was carried. Chapter was then closed until fourth Thursday in March. The Companions afterwards dined; the usual toasts were duly honoured, accompanied with some excellent singing by the Comps. The meeting was appropriate, as the Scottish Corporation were holding, in the Tavern, a Festival to commemorate the anniversary of the birth of the poet Robert Burns.

Joppa Chapter, No. 188.—The regular convocation was held on Monday, the 26th, at the Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street. Comps. P. Dickinson M.E.Z., L. Lazarus H., W. H. Gulliford J., N. Baum S.E., Buderus S.N., H. P. Isaac P.S.; P.Z.'s S. Lazarus, H. M. Levy, J. Lazarus, E. P. Albert, M. J. Emanuel, W. Littaur; and Comps. W. G. Jennings, Grove Ellis, L. Jacobs, S. Botibol, A. Botibol, Quincey, Mann. The Chapter was opened and the minutes were confirmed. Comp. Rev. S. H. Harris, Swinbourn Chapter, No. 24, was unanimously elected a joining member. A ballot was taken for the admission of Bro. J. H. Hawkins S.W. 1693 and Lodge 65; it was unanimous in his favour, and he was duly exalted into Royal Arch Masonry by the M.E.Z. in a very perfect manner. This was the first meeting since the installation; the working of the principals and Officers reflected great credit on them all. A notice of motion was proposed and carried, that in consequence of the next convocation falling on a Bank Holiday, it be held at a later date. The resignation of Comp. S. V. Abrahams P.Z. Treas. was accepted with regret, after some feeling remarks from Comp. W. H. Gulliford. Comp. E. P. Albert P.Z. was appointed Treasurer, a result that received the cordial approval of the Companions. The Chapter was closed till 22nd March, and the Companions sat down to a banquet provided by Comp. W. G. Jennings, and superintended by Comp. M. Silver. The M.E.Z. proposed the usual Loyal and R.A. toasts. Comp. Littaur P.Z., as I.P.Z., had great pleasure, and the great privilege, to propose the toast of the M.E.Z., who possessed the attributes of a gentleman. The mantle of Z. could not have fallen on a better man; Comp. Dickinson's whole study was for their welfare; his working was perfection, and he was sure he would leave the chair with the regret of the members, yet with eclat to himself. The M.E.Z. thanked the I.P.Z. for his kind remarks; while occupying the chair it would be his duty to perform the ceremonial part; he hoped to preserve harmony among them. It was his first night in the chair, and he trusted he had given them satisfaction; his aim, in every respect, was for their comfort and welfare. The M.E.Z. then proposed the toast of the newly exalted Companion; in feeling terms he spoke of the duties incumbent on those entering the Order, which was the climax of Freemasonry. Comp. Hawkins responded to the toast; he hoped in future to be a useful member. The M.E.Z. then proposed the toast of the visiting Companions—Eckstein P.S. 1196, J. Chinnery 145, W. Russell 913—whom they were all pleased to see. They were all well known and equally respected. These Companions severally returned thanks; the working of the M.E.Z. was beyond all praise. The Past Principals were next honoured, and Comps. Littaur and Albert replied. The Z. next proposed the health of the H. and J., whose working in that capacity was such that merited the approbation of all. The S.E., the S.N., and also the P.S., were in due course complimented, then the Janitor's toast was given. Companions Hawkins, Eckaus, Baum, and Davis favoured, during the evening, with some excellent singing and recitations.

Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement. — Notwithstanding the very unfavourable state of the weather, and in the presence of one of those dense fogs peculiar to the Metropolis, this noted Chapter for the Improvement of Royal Arch Masons was well attended on Tuesday evening last, 27th January, at the usual quarters, the Jamaica Tavern, St. Michael's-alley, Cornhill. There was a rather serious drawback to the proceedings in the absence of Comp. Brown, the talented and highly esteemed Preceptor of the Chapter. The Chapter, however, was opened as usual, and the following were the Officers for the evening:—Comps. Lee Z., H. Thompson H., Catterson J., Lardner P.S., Walter N., and J. L. Payne candidate. The following Comps. were also present:—Payne, Catterson jun., Moore, Lilley, Sayer, and Edmonds. The ceremony of exaltation was ably rehearsed, all the Officers being well up to their work, but the working especially of the M.E.Z. was worthy of the highest commendation, for the very perfect manner in which it was performed. There are but few places in London in which instruction in Arch Masonry can be obtained, but to any one seeking advancement in this superior degree, there can be no doubt that the Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement is one of the best of those few places where such instruction is to be obtained. The Chapter was closed and adjourned to Tuesday evening, 3rd February, at half-past six o'clock.

Digitized by Google

DIARY FOR THE WEEK.

We shall be obliged if the Secretaries of the various Lodges throughout the Kingdom will favour us with a list of their Days of Meeting, &c., as we have decided to insert only those that are verified by the Officers of the several Lodges.

—:o:—

SATURDAY, 31st JANUARY.

198—Percy, Jolly Farmers' Tavern, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1364—Earl of Zetland, Nags Head, Mare-street, Hackney, at 7 (Instruction)
1624—Fedleston, Grosvenor Club, Flury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
1706—Orpheus, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8

MONDAY, 2nd FEBRUARY.

45—Strong Man, New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, at 8 (Instruction)
58—London Masonic Club Lodge of Instruction, 101 Queen Victoria-street, at 6
171—Sincerity, Railway Tavern, London-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
180—St. James's Union, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
186—Industry, Bell, Carter-lane, Doctors-commons, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
188—Jeppa, Albion, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
548—Wellington, White Swan, High-street, Deptford, at 8 (Instruction)
704—Camden, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
1388—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-st., Wapping, at 8 (Instruction)
1425—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-rd., Paddington, at 8 (Instruction)
1445—Prince Leopold, Mitford Tavern, Sandringham-road, Dalston, at 8 (Inst.)
1480—Marquess of Ripon, Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-rd., Hackney, at 7.30 (In.)
1623—West Smithfield, New Market Hotel, King-st., Snow-hill, at 8 (Inst.)
1625—Tredegar, Royal Hotel, Mile End-road, corner of Burdett-road
1669—Royal Leopold, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
R. A. 1615—Bayard, Masonic Hall, 34 Golden-square
M. M.—Old Kent, Tracadero, Broad Street Buildings, E.C. at 6.30 (Instruction)

37—Anchor and Hope, Freemasons' Hall, Church Institute, Bolton-le-Moors
53—Royal Sussex, Masonic Hall, Old Orchard-street, Bath.
119—Sun, Square and Compasses, Freemasons' Hall, Whitehaven.
133—Harmony, Ship Hotel, Faversham.
154—Unanimity, Masonic Hall, Zetland-street, Wakefield.
156—Harmony, Huyshe Masonic Temple, Plymouth.
199—Peace and Harmony, Royal Oak Hotel, Dover
236—York, Masonic Hall, York
338—Vitruvian, Royal Hotel, Ross, Herefordshire
381—Harmony and Industry, Smalley's Hotel, Market-street, Over Darwen
395—Guy, Crown Hotel, Leamington Priors.
431—St. George, Masonic Hall, Norfolk-street, N. Shields.
441—Three Grand Principles, Red Lion Hotel, Petty Curry, Cambridge
478—Churchill, Masonic Hall, Oxford.
482—St. James, Masonic Rooms, Handsworth, Staffordshire.
597—St. Cybi, Town Hall, Holyhead.
622—St. Cuthberga, Masonic Hall, Wimborne.
820—Lily of Richmond, Greyhound, Richmond, at 7.30 (Instruction)
823—Everton, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
827—St. John, Masonic Temple, Halifax-road, Dewsbury.
850—St. Oswald, Assembly Room, Ashbourne, Derbyshire.
1009—Shakspeare, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester.
1015—Stamford, Town Hall, Altrincham, Cheshire.
1050—Gundulph, King's Head Hotel, Rochester.
1051—Rowley, Athenæum, Lancaster.
1077—Witton, Red Lion Inn, Blackley, Lancashire.
1108—Royal Wharfedale, Private Room, Boroughgate, Otley, Yorks.
1124—St. Oswald, Wynnstay Arms Hotel, Oswestry
1180—Forward, Masonic Rooms, New Hall-street, Birmingham.
1211—Goderich, Masonic Hall, St. George-street, Leeds.
1239—Wentworth, Freemasons' Hall, Sheffield.
1264—Neptune, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
1302—De Warren, Masonic Hall, White Swan Hotel, Halifax.
1380—Skelmersdale, Queen's Hotel, Waterloo, Liverpool.
1449—Royal Military, Masonic Hall, Canterbury, at 8. (Instruction.)
1477—Sir Watkin, Masonic Hall, Mold
1519—Albert Edward, Albion Hotel, Clayton-le-Moors, near Accrington.
1573—Caradoc, Masonic Hall, Cuer-street, Swansea.
1578—Merlin, New Inn Hotel, Pontypridd, South Wales.
1656—Wolsey, White Hart Hotel, Hampton Wick
1676—St. Nicholas, Freemasons' Hall, Grainger-street, Newcastle.
1798—Zion, Hulme Town Hall, Manchester.
R.A. 302—Charity, New Masonic Hall, Darley-street, Bradford
R. A. 380—Integrity, Masonic Temple, Morley
R. C.—Skelmersdale, Masonic Hall, Liverpool

TUESDAY, 3rd FEBRUARY.

Colonial Board, Freemasons' Hall, at 4.
7—Royal York of Perseverance, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
55—Constitutional, Bedford Hotel, Southampton-buildings, Holborn, at 7 (Inst.)
66—Prosperity, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
101—Temple, Ship and Turtle Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C.
141—Faith, 2 Westminster Chambers, Victoria-street, S.W., at 8 (Inst.)
172—Old Concord, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
177—Domatic, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
217—Stability, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney (Instruction)
763—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
765—St. James, Bridge House Hotel, Southwark
826—Dalhousie, Sisters' Tavern, Powell-road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1044—Wandsworth, Star and Garter Hotel, St. Ann's-hill, Wandsworth (Inst.)
1261—Golden Rule, Café Royal, Regent-street, W.
1294—Royal Standard, Wellington Club, Upper-street, Islington.
1319—Friars, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1360—Royal Arthur, Prince's Head, Battersea Park, at 8 (Instruction)
1381—Kennington, Surrey Tavern, Kennington Oval
1446—Mount Edgcumbe, 19 Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1471—Islington, Three Bucks, 23 Gresham-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
1507—Metropolitan, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate-st., at 7.30 (Inst.)
1558—H. Connaught, Palmerston Arms, Grosvenor Park, Camberwell, at 8 (In.)
1602—Sir Hugh Myddelton, Crown and Woolpack, St. John's-st.-rd., at 8 (In.)
1668—Samson, Freemason's Hall, W.C.
1707—Eleanor, Tracadero, Broad-street-buildings, Liverpool-street, 6.30 (Inst)
Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement, Jamaica Coffee House, Cornhill, 6.30.
R. A. 1305—Clapton, White Hart Tavern, Clapton, at 8. (Instruction.)
R. C.—Canterbury, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square

70—St. John, Huyshe Masonic Temple, Plymouth
103—Beaufort, Freemasons' Hall, Bristol.
117—Wynnstay, Raven Hotel, Shrewsbury, at 8 (Instruction)
120—Palladian, Green Dragon Hotel, Hereford.
124—Marquis of Granby, Freemasons' Hall, Old Elvet, Durham.
184—Adams, Masonic Rooms, Victoria Hall, Trinity-road, Sheerness.
209—Etonian, Masonic Hall, Windsor
226—Benevolence, Red Lion Hotel, Littleborough.
241—Merchants, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 6.30 (Instruction)
248—True Love and Unity, Freemasons' Hall, Brixham, Devon.
285—Royal Yorkshire, Masonic Club, Hanover-street, Keighley.
393—St. David, Masons' Hall, The Parade, Berwick
493—Royal Lebanon, Spread Eagle, Gloucester.
558—Temple, Town Hall, Folkestone.
673—St. John, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
685—Northumberland, Assembly Rooms, Westgate-road, Newcastle.
702—Sherborne, Subscription Rooms, Stroud, Gloucestershire

734—Londesborough, Masonic Hall, Bridlington Quay.
794—Warden, Royal Hotel, Sutton Coldfield
804—Carnarvon, Masonic Hall, Havant.
847—Fortescue, Manor House, Honiton, Devon.
928—Friendship, Masonic Hall, Petersfield, Hampshire.
948—St. Barnabas, Masonic Room, Linslade, Leighton Buzzard
969—Bute, Masonic Hall, 9 Working-street, Cardiff
1002—Skiddaw, Lodge Room, Market-place, Cockermouth.
1134—Newall, Freemasons' Hall, Salford.
1241—Marwood, Freemasons' Hall, Redcar.
1322—Waverley, Caledonia Inn, Ashton-under-Lyne.
1339—Square and Compass, Corn Exchange, Wrexham.
1473—Bootle, 146 Berry-street, Bootle, at 6. (Instruction.)
1488—St. Eleth, Castle Hotel, Amlwch, Anglesea
R. A. 201—St. John of Jerusalem, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
R. A. 296—Loyalty, Freemasons' Hall, Surrey-street, Sheffield.
R. A. 680—Sincerity, Freemasons' Hall, Salem-street, Bradford
R. A. 784—Wellington, Public Rooms, Park-street, Deal
M. M. 161—Walton, Skelmersdale Masonic Hall, Kirkdale, Liverpool

WEDNESDAY, 4th FEBRUARY.

Grand Chapter, Freemasons' Hall, at 7
United Masonic Hall, Freemasons' Tavern, W.C.
101—Confidence, Railway Tavern, London-street, at 7 (Instruction)
228—United Strength, Hope and Anchor, Crowndale-rd., Camden-town, 8 (In.)
538—La Tolerance, Green Dragon, 2 Maddox-street, W., at 7.45 (Inst.)
781—Merchant Navy, Silver Tavern, Burdett-road, E. (Inst.)
813—New Concord, Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
862—Whittington, Red Lion, Poppin's-court, Fleet-street, at 8 (Instruction)
1145—Lewis, King's Arms Hotel, Wood Green, at 7 (Instruction)
1278—Burdett Coutts, Salmon and Ball, Bethnal Green-road, at 8 (Inst.)
1298—Finsbury Park, Earl Russell, Isledon-road, Holloway, at 8 (Instruction)
1524—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion Road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1585—Royal Commemoration, Fox and Hounds Hotel, Upp. Richmond-rd., S.W.
1667—The Rothesay, Inns of Court Hotel, Lincoln's Inn Fields
1706—St. Leonard, Town Hall, Shoreditch (Installation)
R. A. 177—Domatic, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-st., at 8 (Instruction)

74—Athol, Masonic Hall, Severn-street, Birmingham.
81—Doric, Private Room, Woodbridge, Suffolk.
298—Harmony, Masonic Rooms, Ann-street, Rochdale
326—Moira, Freemasons' Hall, Park-street, Bristol
327—Wigton St. John, Lion and Lamb, Wigton
406—Northern Counties, Freemasons' Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.
417—Faith and Unanimity, Masonic Hall, Dorchester
429—Royal Navy, Royal Hotel, Ramsgate
471—Silurian, Freemasons' Hall, Dock-street, Newport, Monmouthshire.
591—Downshire, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7 (Instruction)
611—Marches, Old Rectory, Ludlow
645—Humphrey Chetham, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester.
673—St. John, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8 (Inst.)
674—Earl Ellesmere, Church Hotel, Kersley, Farnworth, near Bolton.
972—St. Augustine, Masonic Hall, Canterbury (Instruction)
992—St. Thomas, Griffin Hotel, Lower Broughton.
1010—Kingston, Masonic Hall, Worship-street, Hull.
1013—Royal Victoria, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
1037—Portland, Portland Hall, Portland. (Instruction.)
1063—Malling Abbey, Bear Inn, West Malling, Kent
1065—Hartington, Masonic Hall, Gower-street, Derby
1091—Erme, Erme House, Ivybridge, Devon
1107—Cornwallis, Masonic Hall, Erith.
1167—Alnwick, Masonic Hall, Clayport-street, Alnwick
1274—Earl of Durham, Freemasons' Hall, Chester-le-Street.
1323—Talbot, Masonic Rooms, Wind-street, Swansea
1335—Lindsay, 20 King-street, Wigan.
1354—Marquis of Lorne, Masonic Rooms, Leigh, Lancashire.
1376—De Grey and Ripon, 140 North Hill-street, Liverpool, at 7.30 (Inst.)
1384—Tyndall, Town Hall, Chipping Sodbury, Gloucester
1441—St. Alphage, George Hotel, Solihull
1511—Alexandra, Masonic Hall, Hornsea, Hull, at 7. (Instruction.)
1620—Marlborough, Derby Hall, Tue Brook, Liverpool
R. A. 126—Nativity, Cross Keys Inn, Burnley
R. A. 221—St. John, Commercial Hotel, Town Hall-square, Bolton
R. A. 258—Amphibious, Freemasons' Hall, Beckmondwike
R. A. 304—Philanthropic, Masonic Hall, Gt. George-street, Leeds
R. A. 387—Moravian, Masonic Hall, Shipley.
R. A. 477—Fidelity, 55 Argyle-street, Birkenhead
M. M. 36—Furness, Hartington Hotel, Duke-street, Barrow-in-Furness.

THURSDAY, 5th FEBRUARY.

3—Fidelity, Yorkshire Grey, London-street, Fitzroy-sq., at 8 (Instruction)
15—Kent, Chemers, Marsh-street, Walthamstow, at 7.30 (Instruction)
27—Egyptian, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7.30 (Instruction)
87—Vitruvian, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth, at 8 (Instruction)
211—St. Michael, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate Street, at 8 (Inst.)
435—Salisbury, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8 (Inst.)
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney
754—High Cross, Coach and Horses, Lower Tottenham, at 8 (Instruction)
1227—Upton, King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., at 8. (Instruction.)
1429—The Great City, Masons Hall, Masons Avenue, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
1529—Surrey Masonic Hall, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
1614—Covent Garden, Nag's Head, James-street, Covent Garden, at 7.45 (In.)
R. A. 754—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
R. A. 1471—North London, Jolly Farmers', Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Inst.)
M. M. 197—Studholme, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square
M. M.—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion-rd., Dalston, E., at 8.30 (Inst.

21—Newcastle-on-Tyne, Freemasons' Hall, Grainger-st., Newcastle.
31—United Industrious, Masonic Room, Canterbury
38—Union, Council Chamber, Chichester
41—Royal Cumberland, Masonic Hall, Old Orchard-street, Bath
50—Knights of Malta, George Hotel, Hinckley, Leicestershire
124—Lennox, Freemasons' Hall, Richmond, Yorkshire
239—Mariners, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8
254—Trinity, Craven Arms Hotel, Coventry
266—Sapthali, Masonic Hall, Market-place, Heywood
269—Fidelity, White Bull Hotel, Blackburn
280—Fidelity, Masonic Hall, Carlton-hill, Leeds
294—Constitutional, Assembly Rooms, Beverley, Yorks
295—Combermere Union, Macclesfield Arms, Macclesfield
300—Minerva, Pitt and Nelson, Ashton-under-Lyne
309—Harmony, Red Lion, Fareham
317—Affability, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester.
360—Pomfret, Masonic Hall, Abington-street, Northampton.
419—St. Peter, Star and Garter Hotel, Wolverhampton.
425—Cestrian, Grosvenor Hotel, Chester.
442—St. Peter, Masonic Hall, Peterborough
446—Benevolent, Town Hall, Weeks, Somersetshire
509—Tees, Freemasons' Hall, Stockton, Durham.
637—Portland, Masonic Rooms, Town Hall, Stoke-upon-Trent.
702—Pelham Pillar, Masonic Hall, Bullring-lane, Great Grimsby.
914—Pattison, Lord Raglan Tavern, Plumstead.
974—Pentalpha, New Masonic Hall, Darley-street, Bradford
1012—Prince of Wales, Derby Hotel, Bury, Lancashire.
1074—Underley, Masonic Room, Market-place, Kirkby Lonsdale
1182—Duke of Edinburgh, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1231—Savile, Royal Hotel, Eiland.
1282—Ancholme, Foresters' Hall, Brigg, Lincolnshire.
1284—Brent, Globe Hotel, Topsham, Devonshire.
1304—Olive Union, Masonic Hall, Horncastle, Lincolnshire
1367—Beaminster Manor, White Hart Hotel, Beaminster
1384—Equity, Alfordic Chambers, Widnes.
1473—Bootle, Town Hall, Bootle, Lancashire.

Digitized by Google

1500—Walpole, Bell Hotel, Norwich.
1504—Red Rose of Lancaster, Starkie's Arms Hotel, Padiham, near Burnley
1515—Friendly, King's Head Hotel, Barnsley.
1612—West Middlesex, Feathers Hotel, Ealing, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
1639—Watling-street, Cock Hotel, Stoney Stratford, Bucks
1807—Loyal Wye, Builth, Breconshire
R. A. 541—Rectitude, Corporation Hotel, Tipping-st., Ardwick, Openshaw, Man.
R. A. 758—Bridgewater, Masonic Hall, Runcorn, Cheshire.
R.A 1214—Scarborough Hall, Scarborough, Caledonian-road, Batley
M.M. 53—Britannia, Freemasons' Hall, Sheffield.

FRIDAY, 6th FEBRUARY.

Emulation Lodge of Improvement, Freemasons' Hall, at 7.
25—Robert Burns, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
507—United Pilgrims, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
766—William Preston, Feathers Tavern, Up. George-st., Edgware-rd. 8 (Inst.)
814—Kanelagh, Six Bells, Hammersmith (Instruction)
902—Burgoyne, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Duke's Head, 79 Whitechapel-road, at 8 (Instruction)
1056—Metropolitan, Portugal Hotel, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 7 (Instruction)
1158—Belgrave, Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1288—Finsbury Park M.M., Earl Russell, Isledon-road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1296—Royal Standard, Alwyne Castle, St. Paul's-road, Canonbury, at 8 (In.)
1365—Clapton, White Hart, Lower Clapton, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1469—Marquess of Ripon, Metropolitan Societies Asylum, Balls Pond Road
1627—Royal Kensington, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
1643—E. Carnarvon, Mitre Hotel, Goulborne-rd, N. Kensington, at 8.0 (Inst.)
R. A. 79—Pythagorean, Portland Hotel, London-street, Greenwich, at 8 (Inst.)
Metropolitan Masonic Benevolent Association, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 8.30.

44—Friendship, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester.
127—Union, Freemasons' Hall, Margate
219—Prudence, Masonic Hall, Todmorden.
343—St. George, Guildhall, Doncaster.
306—Alfred, Masonic Hall, Kelsall-street, Leeds.
321—Truth, Freemasons' Hall, Fitzwilliam-street, Huddersfield.
339—St. Matthew, Dragon Hotel, Walsall.
574—Loyal Berkshire of Hope, White Hart Hotel, Newbury
601—St. John, Wrekin Hotel, Wellington, Salop
651—Brecknock, Castle Hotel, Brecon.
690—Sefton, Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool
709—Invicta, Bank-street Hall, Ashford
780—Royal Alfred, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, at 7.30. (Instruction)
837—De Grey and Ripon, Town Hall, Ripon.
839—Royal Gloucestershire, Bell Hotel, Gloucester.
908—Welsh Pool, Railway Station, Welsh Pool
1096—Lord Warden, Lord Warden Hotel, Lower Walmer, Kent
1333—Athelstan, Town Hall, Atherstone, Warwick.
1387—Chorlton, Masonic Rooms, Chorlton Cum Hardy.
1393—Hamer, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8 (Instruction)
1528—Fort, Red Lion Hotel, Newquay, Cornwall.
1557—Albert Edward, Bush Hotel, Hexham.
1561—Morecambe, Masonic Hall, Edward-street, Morecambe, Lancashire.
1648—Prince of Wales, Freemasons' Hall, Salem-street, Bradford.
1664—Gosforth, Freemasons' Hall, High-street, Gosforth.
General Lodge of Instruction, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham, at 7
R. A.—General Chapter of Improvement, Masonic Hall, Birmingham, 5.30
K. T.—Loyal Volunteers, Queens Arms Hotel, George-street, Ashton-under-Ly.

SATURDAY, 7th FEBRUARY.

General Committee Boys' School, Freemasons' Hall, at 4
142—St. Thomas, City Terminus Hotel, Cannon-street, E.C.
193—Percy, Jolly Farmers, Southgate Road, N. at 8 (Instruction).
1364—Earl of Zetland, Nags Head, Mare-street, Hackney, at 7 (Instruction)
1572—Carnarvon, Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
1622—Rose, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction).
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8.
1453—Truth, Private Rooms, Conservative Club, Newton Heath, Manchester
R. A. 308—Affability, Station House Hotel, Bottoms, Stansfield

NOTICE OF MEETINGS.

Prosperity Lodge, No. 65.—A regular meeting of this Lodge was held at the Guildhall Tavern, London, E.C., on Thursday, the 22nd inst. The W.M. Bro. Charles Daniel was supported by the following Officers, viz.:—Bros. Ferry S.W., Chicken J.W., Roberts S.D., Schadler J.D., George T. Brown P.M. Secretary, Leins P.M. D.C., and amongst the brethren present were Bros. Caton, Kearney, Rudd, Edwards, Braine, Barber, Scritter, Plater, &c. The Visitors were Bros. James Stevens P.M. 1426, Foulsham P.M. 1790, Steward 525 Hong Kong, Hughes and King 27, Bristow 1637, Sargent 1790, Ray 220, Martin 188, Hunt 1641, and Gardner 1563. By request of the W.M. of the Lodge of Unity 1637, Bro. Robert Bristow was raised to the third degree. Mr. William Walker and Mr. James Stafford were then ballotted for, approved, and initiated. The sum of fifteen guineas was voted to a worthy Past Master of the Lodge, whose circumstances had recently been greatly impaired by unforeseen losses. Two guineas were voted to an applicant, whose claims were thoroughly investigated and certified; and one guinea was given on account of the entertainment of the inmates of the Masonic Benevolent Institution. Support was also accorded to the W.M. Bro. Daniel, in aid of his forthcoming Stewardship for that Institution. The Lodge was then closed, and the brethen subsequently spent a genial hour in the social and informal intercourse of an "off night." Over a "grog and cigar" proceedings connected with Masonry in general, and the Prosperity Lodge in particular, were freely and pleasantly discussed; and all present, members and visitors alike, were gratified by the information afforded, and, above all, by the proof which had been given that the sacred cause of Charity had been so freely supported, through non-expenditure, on this and former occasions, on the pleasures of the table. The Prosperity Lodge is following a good example now advocated by other Lodges; and it is agreeable to notice that it does not require the announcement of a banquet to draw visitors in goodly numbers to take part in Masonic work. May such self-sacrifice long continue here and elsewhere, and then the second of our grand principles will be so developed as to bring on those who practise it the testimony of a good conscience, and its accompanying blessing—Prosperity!

Wiltshire Lodge of Fidelity, No. 663, Devizes.—The installation meeting took place on Tuesday, the 20th inst., when the W.M. for the ensuing year, Bro. Wm. Henry Burt, was duly installed into the chair of K.S. by the retiring W.M., Bro. T. H. Chandler P.P.J.G.W. Wilts. The Officers for the coming year were installed and invested as follows:—Bros. T. H. Chandler I.P.M., H. Howse S.W., J. A. Randell J.W., D. A. Gibbs Treas., William Nott P.P.J.G.W. and P.G. Reg. Wilts Sec., G. S. A. Warden S.D., S. M. Badham J.D., Henry Barrass I.G., W. H. Bush and Jas. Neate Stewards, and John Hayter Tyler. The customary addresses to the W.M., Wardens, and Brethren were delivered by the Installing Master. Bro. the Rev. T. F. T. Ravenshaw P.G. Chaplain England, and a P.M. of this Lodge, having resigned his membership, on account of leaving the neighbourhood, presented to the Lodge a handsomely framed copy of the Albert Installation Engraving. Such present was acknowledged by a cordial vote of thanks. After the Lodge was closed, the brethren dined together at the Crown Hotel, Bro. S. Watson Taylor, of Erlestoke Park, contributing to the banquet a liberal supply of venison and game. The usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were given and responded to. Among the Visitors present were—Bros. S. Gauntlett P.M. 632 P.J.G.D. Wilts, T. R. Lavington W.M. elect 632, F. D. Norris S.D. 632, H. Simpson S.W. 1271, &c.

Lord Warden Lodge, No. 1096.—A meeting was held on Friday, 16th inst., at the Lord Warden Hotel, Walmer. Present—Bros. John Laggett W.M., H. R. L. Botting S.W., J. E. Carpenter J.W., E. Kirby P.M. Treas., T. J. Usher P.M. Sec., W. Carterfield S.D., F. R. England J.D., H. Abram Organist, G. G. Thomson Steward, W. Ryder I.G., S. Holgate Tyler; Past Master Bro. T. Ayling. Visitors—Bros. Jas. Pardon 1205, and Metham. Lodge was duly opened, and the minutes of the last meeting read and confirmed. The lecture in the first degree having been delivered, the Lodge was opened in the second, when Bro. Harding, a candidate, was duly examined, and passed to the degree of F.C. The charge having been delivered by the J.W., the lecture was given by the S.W., and the Fellow Craft Lodge was closed. The W.M. then put the motion for the removal of the Lodge to the St. George's Hall, Deal,—which was made at the last meeting, and duly inserted in the summons for this, according to the Book of Constitutions,—to the members present, and the motion was carried unanimously. The Lodge was then closed, and the brethren spent a pleasant hour together.

Grey Friars' Lodge, No. 1101.—The regular monthly meeting of this Lodge was held at the Masonic Hall, Reading, on Wednesday, the 14th. Present—Bros. J. E. Danks W.M., W. Ferguson S.W., T. J. Pulley acting J.W., J. T. Stransom Treasurer, W. P. Ivey P.M. Secretary, R. Dowsett S.D., C. R. Honey J.D., J. H. Hawkes D.C., T. Newman I.G., W. W. Ridley S.St., R. C. Prickett J.St., W. Hemmings Tyler. P.M.'s—Bros. Flanagan I.P.M., Hurley, Margrett, Welch, Brown. Members—Bros. Wheatley, Browne, Ravenscroft, Brigham, Baily. Visitors—Bros. R. C. Mount P.M. 1328 S.D. 414, C. G. Hawkes 414. The Lodge was opened in the first degree. The minutes of the last regular Lodge were read and confirmed—they were as follows:—Grey Friar's Lodge 1101, Regular Lodge, Wednesday, 10th December 1879. Present—Officers, Bros. Danks W.M., Flanagan I.P.M., Ferguson S.W., Blackwell J.W., Stransom Treas., Ivey P.M. Sec., R. Dowsett S.D., Honey J.D., Hawkes D.C., Hickie Organist, Newman I.G., W. Ridley S.St., Prickett J.St., Hemmings Tyler. P.M.'s—Bros. Hurley, Brown, Margrett, Welch. Members—Bros. Pulley, Cordrey, Rhind, Ravenscroft, Browne, Wheatley, Bailey. Visitors—Bros. Fernee 1612, Pocock P.M. 414, Hawkes 414. The Lodge was opened in the first degree, the minutes of the last regular Lodge were read and confirmed. The ballot was taken for Bro. Henry Ferguson 1714, who was elected a joining member. Messrs. W. Collins, Geo. Wort and W. G. Titcombe were elected as initiates. Mr. W. A. Weatherhead was initiated into Freemasonry. The Lodge was opened in the second degree, when the W.M. resigned his gavel into the hands of Bro. Flanagan I.P.M., who had expressed his wish to raise his brother-in-law, Bro. Wheatley, to the third degree. Bro. Wheatley replied most satisfactorily to the questions, when he was entrusted and retired. The Lodge was opened in the third degree, Bro. Wheatley was admitted and duly raised to the sublime degree of M.M., the ceremony being performed by the I.P.M. in his usual correct and impressive manner. The I.P.M. returned the gavel to the W.M., who resumed the Lodge to the second and first degree. The non-officia brethren appointed on the Permanent Committee were Bros. Bailey, Browne and Rhind. Previously to the closing of the Lodge the Secretary was challenged by the S.St. Bro. W. Ridley to retire, in order to adjust some difficulties, which being soon happily effected, they re-entered the Lodge and took their proper stations. The W.M. announced to the Secretary that during his absence a most pleasing duty had been entrusted to him by the members of the Lodge, that of offering for his acceptance a handsome Testimonial, consisting of the sum of £50, which had been voluntarily subscribed by them in recognition of his valuable services in the arduous duties of Secretary of the Lodge; and as a mark of respect for his courtesy of manner and geniality of disposition during the many years he had held that office; the Treasurer would hand him a cheque for the amount, and he (the W.M.) trusted that the Secretary would accept it, in the same brotherly feeling as he assured him it was offered; he also had the pleasure of stating that not one penny had been taken out of the Lodge funds, which he felt assured would enhance its value. The Secretary, in thanking the W.M. and members for this unexpected, and he might say unprecedented appreciation of his services, gave an outline of the formation of the Lodge in 1866, and its occasion; he also stated what a Secretary of a Lodge should be, whose difficulties sometimes are rather difficult, but he should be one

Who would not willingly offend,
Nor easily be offended;
What's amiss he will try to mend,
And endure what can't be ended.

Digitized by Google

This reminded him of a couplet he intended to give to the W.M. on his being placed in the chair of K.S.

Every Master you will find
Must oft be deaf, and oft be blind.

This splendid Testimonial more than repaid him for all his anxieties of office, not so much for its intrinsic value, as for the spirit of sincere brotherly love manifested by the members in this acknowledgment of his services. Messrs. Collins, Wort and Titcombe were duly initiated. The labours of the evening being ended, the Lodge was closed, and the brethren retired for refreshment to Bro. Bailey's, Ship Hotel, where a very pleasant conversational evening was spent.

Dundas Lodge, No. 1255.—A meeting took place on Tuesday, 20th inst., at Plymouth. The brethren, upon the conclusion of the regular and formal business, adjourned to Bro. Watts', Globe Hotel, to partake of their half-yearly supper. Among those present were—Bros. H. Dawe W.M., Barratt S.W., Admi. Glasse, C.B., J.W., W. Bros. W. Bell P.M. Treas., S. B. Harvey P.M. Sec., S. H. Hearle P.M., W. B. Triplett P.M., I. Watts P.M. P.P.G.Tr., J. D. Westcott P.M. 70 P.P.G.S. Wks., — Holmes J.D., Jago I.G. The usual Loyal and Masonic toasts having been given and responded to, the W.M. proposed the P.G.M. Viscount Ebrington, the D.P.G.M. and the P.G.L. of Devon. To this Bro. Chas. Godtschalk P.M. 1255 P.P.G.D. replied. He referred to the services rendered to the Order by their late P.G.M. The toast of the P.M.'s Treasurer, and Secretary of 1255 was proposed by Bro. Davis P.P.G.S.W., and was followed by that of the Senior and Junior Wardens and other Officers of the Lodge, both of which were replied to. The next toast was "Success to our Masonic Charities," responded to by Bros. J. B. Gover and Charles Godtschalk. Bro. Gover referred to the published facts that their great London Charities had secured, by voluntary means alone, in 1879, the large income of over £44,000. His attention had been called to it from the fact that the amount has recently been brought forward as a proof of the great benevolence of the Craft at large. But this bright picture had a dark shadow—the immense increase in applicants to all the Charities. At the next election of boys, in April 1880, recognised candidates would compete for twenty vacancies, and no more could be taken for want of funds. Between fifty and sixty girls would appeal for help, and fifteen or sixteen only would be elected. Many aged Masons and widows could not be assisted for want of funds. He concluded from this that the indiscriminate multiplication of Lodges during the past few years had produced a large amount of distress. In future, restrictions would have to be placed on the indiscriminate granting of warrants for new Lodges. The toast of "Our Visitors," and "Our Poor and Distressed Brethren" not forgotten, terminated the proceedings.—Western Daily Mercury.

Friars Lodge of Instruction No. 1349.—Held at Bro. Pavitt's, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, on Tuesday, 27th inst.—Bros. Cundick P.M. W.M., Myers P.M. S.W., Spencer J.W., Power I.G., Pavitt Acting Sec.; also Bros. Lewis, Richardson, Fyfe, Cope, Watkins, Roddam, Clark, Waterer, Dinsmore, Barker, White, Roberts, Sadler, &c. This being the fourth Tuesday, the following sections were worked:—First by Bros. Spencer, second Watkins, third Pavitt, fourth Myers, fifth McDonald, sixth Pavitt, seventh McDonald; second degree, first Bro. Watkins, second, third, fourth and fifth Bro. Pavitt. The Lodge was resumed to the first degree. Bros. Jno. Lewis Victoria Park Lodge 812, and Jno. Clark Prince Leopold Lodge 1445, were unanimously elected members. After spending a pleasant hour on the closing of the Lodge, the brethren departed, very pleased with the entire working.

St. Peter and St. Paul Lodge, No. 1410.—On Tuesday, 13th inst., the members of this Lodge held their usual meeting at the Swan Hotel, Newport Pagnell. After the business had been transacted they adjourned to an adjoining room, where, thanks to the improved catering of host Cannon, an excellent spread was prepared and well served up, giving great satisfaction to all present. After the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts had been given and duly honoured, the W.M. proposed the health of the Rev. J. Studholme Brownrigg, and in eulogistic terms alluded to the important services he had rendered in respect to Freemasonry, and particularly to the Lodge of SS. Peter and Paul, where, through his instrumentality, such excellent harmony always prevailed. He then presented him with a Past Master's jewel, and hoped he would be spared long to wear it. The jewel bore the following inscription:—"Presented by the Brethren of SS. Peter and Paul's Lodge, No. 1410, to V.W. Bro. the Rev. J. Studholme Brownrigg P.G.C., First W.M., in token of their appreciation of his invaluable services." The Rev. J. Studholme Brownrigg, in acknowledging the present, said:—W.M., Bro. Wardens, and Brethren,—It is most difficult for me to acknowledge as I would wish the very beautiful jewel you have given me. I have the privilege to wear a large number of Masonic jewels, but it has always been my habit to wear few, because I believe that jewels unless fairly earned are not worth much. It is a very common thing to see a brother covered with decorations which mean nothing. Some jewels I do value. I have one that reminds me of the days when as an undergraduate at Cambridge I was the first Principal Sojourner of the Euclid, the new University Chapter. By another jewel I call to mind my dear old Province of Cambridge, which at the close of my university career gave me the highest honour of the year, the Provincial Senior Grand Wardenship. Here is a jewel which I never deserved, that of the Past Grand Officer of England, and this one I deserved still less, the garter of English Freemasonry, the jewel of the Royal Alpha Lodge. You, brethren, have added to-night one that I shall value second to none. I value it because it is a testimony both of your good feeling to me, and also of the efficient state of this Lodge. It would be affectation for me to say I have not worked at this Lodge. For the seven years of its existence I have never missed a Lodge. I have installed every Master. I have often occupied the chair. Most of you are my Masonic children. You will understand that as Secretary I might have had many troubles. The W.M. and Wardens change every year. The Secretary is a matter of fact, handed on from Master to Master, though of course he receives his appointment annually afresh. This is, I believe, a necessary state of things for the well-being of a Lodge, but it may have disadvantages both for the Master and for the Secretary. It is most disagreeable to a new W.M. to find himself obliged to take on a crusty old Secretary, who never consults him about anything, and who resents any proposal which he does not himself originate. I hope my dear friends, Bros. West, Childe, Fitch, Donald Frazer, Heigham, Wilmer, and you, W.M., have not found me such. And, on the other hand, it is equally disagreeable to a Secretary to find that every new W.M. wishes to change every detail of Lodge management simply for the sake of change. I certainly, W.M., from yourself and your predecessors, have had nothing but the utmost consideration in all matters. I conceive it is the duty of a Secretary ever to remember that he is subordinate to the W.M. All that he does is by command of the W.M. He must manage details without interfering with the Master's prerogative. A Secretary who manages everything without consulting the Worshipful Master is unfit for his office. The Secretary who worries his chief about every comma in the circular is equally unfit. No one but those who have tried it know how hard it is to steer between these two extremes. I am conscious of many failures, to which you are most kindly blind to-night, but I have tried to preserve a due medium between a too great independence and a shirking of the proper responsibility of my office. So far as I have succeeded it has been through the good tone which has ever existed in this Lodge, not by my own merit. We have had a few difficulties to meet. We have had animated discussions. We have all had and held our opinions, but we have never for one minute lost sight of this truth that the liberty of opinion which we claim for ourselves we must ourselves allow to others. It is this fact which has made my work, whether as Secretary or Master of this Lodge, not a labour, but a pleasure. I shall wear this jewel, I hope for many years, as Secretary of this Lodge, in commemoration of the brotherly feeling of the past, as an assurance that we pledged, one and all, to preserve for the future those principles by which you have enabled me, I will not say to deserve, but to receive it as no empty compliment. The toast of the W.M. was given and heartily received, and a very pleasant and convivial evening was enjoyed.

Prince Leopold Lodge of Instruction, No. 1445.—With much pleasure we report the revival of this Lodge of Instruction, under the Preceptorship of Bro. Wm. H. Myers P.M. of the mother Lodge, and P.M. and P.Z. 820. It is now held at the Mitford Tavern, corner of the Amhurst and Sandringham-roads, Dalston, within five minutes walk of the Hackney Downs Station on the Great Eastern Railway, and the Hackney and Dalston Stations of the North London Railway. The following is the programme of procedure throughout the year:—On the first, second and third Mondays in each month, the corresponding degrees and sections are worked, with personal instruction to members requiring it. On the fourth Monday, as many of the Fifteen Sections as can be worked in the two hours appointed for instruction. On the fifth Monday, which occurs in every three months, the Installation ceremony is worked, and preference is given to any Brother who is about to instal his successor in his own Lodge. At the meeting held on Monday, 26th January, Bro. Wm. McDonald W.M., Wm. H. Myers S.W., R. Durell J.W., B. Cundick I.P.M., T. E. Goddard S.D., W. Musto J.D., J. A. Robson I.G., H. S. Clarke Sec., S. L. Green W.M. 1445, and other brethren, the Lodge was opened to the third degree, and being resumed in the second, the five sections of that lecture were worked by Bros. R. Durell J.W. 1349, W. Musto P.M. 1349, W. H. Myers P.M., B. Cundick P.M. 1421, and R. Durell. The Lodge was then resumed in the third degree, and the sections were worked by the following Past Masters:—Bros. W. Musto, W. H. Myers, and B. Cundick. The Lodge was then resumed in the first degree, and Bro. T. Brereton No. 72, was elected a member, and Bro. T. E. Goddard S.W. 1445, was elected W.M. for Monday next, 2nd February. Bro. Myers proposed a vote of thanks to Bros. Cundick, Musto, Durell, and the presiding W.M. Bro. McDonald, for the excellent manner in which they had worked the sections. Bro. Myers then gave notice of motion to the following effect:—That the members' subscriptions be allowed to accumulate, and when there is an amount of five guineas in the hands of the Treasurer, a ballot be taken for a Life Subscribership in either of the Masonic Institutions, by members who have attended this Lodge of Instruction not less than six nights of meeting in the previous three months, dating from the first of a month to the first of the then current month.

Chiltern Lodge, No. 1470, Dunstable.—Quite a red letter day in the annals of this flourishing Lodge was observed by the installation into the Master's chair of the much-esteemed Bro. John Wood (also of 180), whose unanimous and enthusiastic election preluded to the great eclat which attended the day's proceedings. The Installing Master was Bro. P.M. J. R. Stacey of 180 and 1741, whose rendering of the ceremony was received by the brethren with great acclamation. The newly-installed Master having invested his Officers—Bros. McLean S.W., Crew J.W., Howell P.M. Treasurer, Russell P.M. Secretary—then initiated into the Order Mr. W. Shaw, of Clapham, and Mr. H. Harden, of Twickenham, performing the work in a most able manner. Lodge being closed, the brethren adjourned to partake of one of the most elegant banquets that could possibly grace a table, Bro. Saunders, mine host of the Sugar Loaf, Dunstable, sparing neither time, trouble, nor expenditure in producing such happy results. The musical arrangements were under the direction of Bro. E. E. Cooper, and the many personal friends of the W.M. were most solicitous in their endeavours to enhance the pleasures of the day by their excellent singing and recitations. Amongst these brethren we may especially mention Bros. E. E. Cooper, Walter Pelham, Wallis Mackay, Theodore Drew, E. Farley, A. C. Hunter, F. Howell, &c. Many visiting brethren journeyed from London to do honour at the installation of our worthy Bro. Wood, and amongst these were the Rev. Dr. Morris, Dr. Malcolm, J. R. Stacey P.M. 180, W. S. Daniel S.W. 1541, W. Higgins, T. Coleman, W. Mackay, W. F. Taunton, J. D. Langton, T. Drew, E. Farley, D. J. Chester, T. Denne, E. E. Cooper, J. Hillier, Mark Rest, A. C. Hunter, &c.

Digitized by Google

St. James's Lodge, No. 1579.—The regular meeting of this Lodge was held on Saturday evening, the 24th inst., at the George Inn, Enfield, Bro. Cusworth W.M. presiding. Among the Visitors present was Bro. Levander Prov. Grand Sec. The minutes of the last Lodge meeting having been read and confirmed, Bro. Roach was passed to the second degree. This being the Installation Meeting, Bro. George Henry Jaffa, of Edmonton House, Edmonton, the W.M. elect, was duly installed W.M. for the ensuing year, the ceremony being performed by Bro. Cusworth, in a way that elicited unqualified approbation. The W.M. then appointed his Officers as follow:—Bros. Hobbs S.W., Iron J.W., Everdell S.D., Rudd J.D., Tegg I.G., Greenwood D.C., and Weld Steward. The Lodge having been closed, the brethren were entertained at a banquet, when the usual toasts were proposed, Bro. Levander returned thanks for the Provincial Grand Officers.

West Middlesex Lodge of Instruction, No. 1612.—At the meeting held at the Feathers Hotel, Ealing, on Thursday, 22nd inst., there were present—Bros. A. Jones W.M., H. E. Tucker S.W., E. C. Porter J.W., J. Wells S.D., Gasson J.D., Bellerby I.G., F. Millsom, J. J. Clarke, Tink Brown. The ceremonies of initiation and passing were rehearsed, Bros. F. Millsom and Clarke candidates. Bro. Tucker delivered the lecture on the Tracing Board, in a very able manner. Bros. Bellerby and Millsom answered the questions leading to third degree. Bro. Preceptor Tucker was unanimously elected W.M. for next meeting, and the Lodge was closed in due form with solemn prayer.

Tredegar Lodge of Instruction, No. 1625.—A meeting was held on Monday, 19th January, at the Royal Hotel, Mile End-road. Present—Bros. Pringle W.M., Forss S.W., Scherbohm J.W., Allison Sec., Robinson S.D., Hubbert J.D., Kendall I.G., Hogg P.M. Preceptor; also Anning W.M. 1625, Tyler, Robertson, Emery, Hamley, C. Kendall, Allison jun., and Stephens. The Lodge was opened, and after minutes of previous meeting had been read and confirmed, Bro. Pringle took the obligation as Master elect, and was duly installed as W.M. by Bro. Anning. Bro. Pringle after being installed invested the Officers in a very creditable manner. The third degree was rehearsed by the W.M. Bro. Pringle, in a very able manner, a vote of thanks being unanimously accorded for the same. The sum of five guineas was voted to the "Aged Freemasons," and ordered to be placed on Bro. G. H. Stephens' list.

Obituary.

DIED, on the 15th proximo, after a lingering illness, Bro. David Pullen P.M. St. Luke's Lodge, No. 144, aged 58 years, regretted by all who knew him. Bro. Pullen was for over thirty years in the service of Sir Brandreth Gibbs, corner of Half Moon-street, Piccadilly, Secretary of the Smithfield Club. Bro. Pullen was Assistant Secretary. For his urbanity and courtesy in that office the exhibitors just before his illness, gave him a dinner at St. James's Hall, at which about fifty subscribers sat down, presided over by Mr. Gordon, M.P. He was then presented with a testimonial, consisting of a silver tea and coffee service, and a purse containing 500 sovereigns. The deceased was buried at Brompton Cemetery, and followed by his two sons, Mr. David and Mr. Charles Pullen, his two sons-in-law, Mr. Owen and Mr. Collins, brother-in-law, Mr. Tod, Sir Brandreth Gibbs, Bros. Dr. Regan, Ayshford, and Wm. Mann P.M. 180, &c. We noticed around the grave Bros. Unite P.M., Maples P.M., Warland P.M., Allen P.M., Ardin P.M., Wood, Markland, Holland; and Messrs. Scholefield, Curtis, &c.

(First Issue of Shares at Par.)

THE SILVERTOWN, CANNING TOWN, AND VICTORIA DOCK FREEHOLD LAND & BUILDING COMPANY LIMITED.

Capital £25,000 in £1 Shares.

5s on application, and 5s on allotment.

AS the Company is registered under the Limited Liability Acts, no liability will be incurred by members beyond the amount of their Shares. Early application for Shares is necessary, as the Directors have decided to close the first issue and allot the Shares on the 14th February 1880.

Bank for deposits open daily, and Saturday evenings, 6 to 8. 5 per cent. interest allowed.

Money advanced on Freehold or Leasehold Properties; easy terms of repayment, to suit all classes of borrowers.

For further Particulars, or Forms of Application for Shares, apply to the Secretary, at the Registered Offices,

1 MICKLEBERY TERRACE, SILVERTOWN, E.

LATEST NOVELTY.

MASONIC CHARM FOR CHAIN.

The whole of the working Tools complete as above.

MOUNTED IN GOOD GOLD AND ORNAMENTALLY ENGRAVED.

To be had of the maker on receipt of 25s.

E. PELIKAN, Manufacturing Jeweller,

No. 102 St. John Street Road, London, E.C.

P.O.O. to be made payable at the St. John Street Road Office.

IVORY HAIR BRUSHES

Mirrors & all other Ivory Toilet Articles,

& IVORY GOODS IN GENERAL,

Wholesale & for Exportation & the Trade only.

AT HENNIG BROS. Ivory Works,

11, HIGH STREET, LONDON, W.C.

FREEMASONS' CALENDAR and POCKET-BOOK, containing a complete list of all the regular Lodges and Royal Arch Chapters, with their places and times of meeting. Published for the benefit of the Charity Fund, under the sanction of the United Grand Lodge of England. May be had from W. W. Morgan jun., FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, London, W.C. Price 2s, post free.

Ninth Edition, post free, One Shilling.

DR. WATTS on ASTHMA. A Treatise on the only Successful Method of Curing the Disease. By ROBERT G. WATTS, M.D., F.R.S.L., &c., 5 Bulstrode-street, Cavendish-square, London.

London: MITCHELL AND CO., Red Lion-court, Fleet-street.

FURNITURE FOR LODGE OF INSTRUCTION.—Complete Set, nearly new, for Sale. Address, J. W. H., "FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE" Office, 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

CANNON STREET HOTEL, CANNON STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Has been thoroughly renovated; the Railway advantages, in direct communication with the Hotel, render this establishment unequalled in the Metropolis for

MASONIC BANQUETS, PUBLIC & PRIVATE DINNERS, BREAKFASTS, &c.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENTS, PUBLIC MEETINGS, ARBITRATIONS, &c.

THE LARGE HALL IS CAPABLE OF SEATING UPWARDS OF TWELVE HUNDRED PEOPLE.

VISITORS AND FAMILIES visiting LONDON, for LONG or SHORT PERIODS, will find the APPOINTMENTS, and ACCOMMODATION UNRIVALLED.

E. H. RAND, MANAGER.

LADBROKE HALL, NOTTING HILL, LONDON, W.

(Opposite the Notting Hill Station of the Metropolitan Railway, from which Trains run every few minutes to all parts of London, and in connection with the principal Lines of Railway.)

THE ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED FOR LODGE MEETINGS IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE DISTRICT.

LARGE LODGE AND BANQUET ROOMS, WITH EVERY CONVENIENCE.

THE HALL MAY BE ENGAGED for BANQUETS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, DINNERS, PUBLIC or PRIVATE ENTERTAINMENTS, &c

Apply to Bro. J. LINSCOTT (at the Hall), 14 Ladbroke Grove Road, London, W.

Digitized by Google

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND,

Under the patronage and support of

H.R.H. The Prince of Wales, Grand Master of England.
H.R.H. The Duke of Connaught, K.G., P.S.G.W.
H.R.H. Prince Leopold, K.G., Past Jun. Grand Warden England, Prov. G.M. Oxfordshire.
Carnarvon The Right Hon. the Earl of, Pro Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
Skelmersdale Rt. Hon. Lord, Deputy Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. West Lancashire.
Abercorn His Grace the Duke of, G.M. Ireland.
Stewart Sir M. R. Shaw, Bart., G.M. Scotland.
Rosslyn Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Past Grand Master Scotland.
Atholl His Grace the Duke of, K.T., P.G. Master Scotland.
Arnold Rev. C. W., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Surrey.
Beach W. W. B., M.P., Prov. G. Master Hampshire and Isle of Wight.
Bennett Sir John, C.C., Grand Stewards' Lodge.
Bird Reginald, M.A., S.G.D. England, Deputy Prov. G. Master Oxon.
Bright Sir Charles T., Dep. Prov. G.M. Middlesex.
Broadley A. M., D.D.G.M. Malta, Prov. G.M.M.M. Tunis and Malta.
Brooke Right Hon. Lord, M.P.
Brownrigg General J. Studholme, C.B., Prov. Grand Master and Supt. Surrey.
Burdett Colonel Francis, Prov. Grand Master Middlesex, G. Supt. Middlesex, P.S.G.W., Rep. from Grand Lodge of Ireland.
Burrell Sir Walter W., Bart. M.P., P.G.M. Sussex.
Carington Right Hon. Lord
Calthorpe Maj.-Gen. Hon. Somerset J.G., J.G.W.
Clarke Hyde, Past Grand Master and Rep. from Grand Lodge of Columbia.
Clonmel Right Hon. Lord.
Cockcroft Lonsdale M., Deputy Prov. G. Master Northumberland.
Ebrington Rt. Hon. Viscount, P.G.M. Devonshire.
Elsh Richard C., Dep. Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
Ferrers Rt. Hon. the Earl, P.G.M. Leicestershire.
Ferrieres Baron de, Prov. G. Reg. Gloucestershire.
Gooch Sir Daniel, Bt., M.P., P.G.M. Berks & Bucks.
Grosvenor Right Hon. Lord Richard, P.S.G.W.
Gundry J. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Dorset.
Halford Lieut.-Col. Sir Henry St. John, Bart., D. Prov. G. Master Leicestershire and Rutland.
Halsey Thomas F., M.P., P.G.M. Hertfordshire.
Hartington, Rt. Hon. Viscount, M.P., Prov. G. Master Derbyshire.
Hayes Rev. Sir John Warren, Bart., P.D.P.G.M. Berks and Bucks, P.G.C.
Henniker Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W., S.G.W.M.M., P.P.G.W. Suffolk.
Hickman W., P.A.G.D. of C., D. Prov. G.M. Hants and Isle of Wight.
Hill Right Hon. Lord Arthur.
Huyshe Rev. J., P.G.C., P.P.G.M. Devonshire.
Iles F. H. Wilson, M.D., Deputy Prov. G. Master Hertfordshire, Prov. G.H., &c.
Inverurie Rt. Hon. Lord, P.G.M. Kincardineshire, P.G. Supt. Angus and Mearns, S.G.W. Scotland.
Johnstone Sir Harcourt, Bt., M.P., P.J.G.W.
Jovitt Thomas, P.D.P.G.M Hereford.
Kensington Rt. Hon. Lord, M.P., S.G.W. England, D. Prov. G.M. S. Wales (Western Division.)
Lechmere Sir Edmund A. H., Bart., M.P., Prov. G.M. Worcestershire.
L'Estrange Col. H. Peisley, P.G. Supt. Norfolk.
Lloyd-Philipps Col. John Allen, Prov. G. Master South Wales (Western Division).
Londesborough Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W.
Martyn Rev. C. J., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Suffolk.
Masefield William, D.P.G.M. Worcestershire.
Mellor G., S.G.D. England, D. Prov. G.M. E. Lanc.
Newmarch George Frederick, Dep. Prov. G.M. Gloucestershire.
Oxnover Haughton Charles, P.G.W., Dep. P.G. Master Derbyshire.
Owen Sir Philip Cunliffe, K.C.M.G., C.B., S.W. 1159
Percy Rt. Hon. Earl, M.P., P.G.M. Northumberland
Perkins, Sir Frederick, M.P., P.M. 130, P.P.S.G.W. Hants, P.P.S.G.W.M.M.M., &c.
Portal Rev. Geo. Raymond, P.M. 10, P.G.M.M.M.
Purey-Cust Ven. Archdeacon A. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Berks and Bucks.
Scott J. H., Dep. Prov. G.M. Sussex.
Spencer-Stanhope Rev. C. W., G. Chap., Deputy Prov. G.M. Cheshire
Stanhie Col. Le Gendre N., Prov. G.M. East Lanc.
Tew T. W., Dep. Prov. G.M. West Yorkshire
The Provincial Grand Lodge of Hampshire and Isle of Wight
Truscott Sir Francis Wyatt, Lord Mayor of London, P.M. No. 1, P. Pres. Board of G. Stewards
Watson John, Dep. Prov. G.M. Notts.
Waveney Rt. Hon. Lord, Prov. G. Master Suffolk
Wigram Rev. Spencer R., P.G.C., D.P.G.M. Essex
Wilkins Butler, Dep. P.G.M. Norths and Hunts.
Zetland Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Prov. Grand Master North and East Yorkshire

Ace Rev. Daniel, D.D., F.R.A.S., P.P.G.C. Linc., G. Chap. Mark.
Adams Herbert J., P.M. 569, P.Z. 11, 1237
Addicott C. C., 1397
Adlard F., P.M. 7, P.Z. 214, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Essex
Albert E. P., P.G.P., Sec. 188, 1617, &c.
Alpass Horace S., Prov. G. Sec. W. Lanc.
Andrews Joseph, 209, St. James Chap. A.S.A.F.
Armstrong R.L., P.M. 188, P.G.S.D. Northumberland
Asaph Lodge, No. 1319, London.
Ayling T., P.M. 1096, P.P.G.D. of C. Kent
Ayton Rev. W. A., P.M. 709
Bagshawe Rev. Augustus A., M.A., P.G. Chap., P.P.S.G.W. Derbyshire, G. Chap. Mark, &c.
Baker E., P.P.G.S. of W. Berks and Bucks
Baldwin —, P.P.J.G.D. Middlesex
Bauer G. L., 198
Barfield —.
Barratt T., J.D. 3
Barwell H. G., P.M. 52, P.G. Sec. Norfolk
Basnett N. J. F.
Beasley A., P.M. 780, 1612
Beer Edwin, P.M. 1449
Belfrage D. M., W.M. 179.
Bell J., P.M. 1356, 1609, P.Z. 1356, P.P.J.G.D.
Bell W.
Berrie J. W., W.M. 1185.
Berry John J., P.M. 554.
Best Alfred, 211.
Biggs W., P.Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Binckes F., P.G.S., Sec. R.M.I.B.
Blackburn George, S.W. 264.
Blackwell E. J., S.D. 1101.
Boggis Arthur.
Boulter E. Reeve.
Boulton Babington, P.M., P.Z., P.P.G.D.
Bradley R., Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Brine Col. Frederic, R.E., P.M.
Brown H., Sec. 1764, P.G.S. Norths and Hunts.
Brown Richard, P.M. 241, P.Z. 1356, Hon. Sec. West Lanc. Masonic Educational Institution.
Bulley F. A., P.P.G.S.B. Berks and Bucks.
Burney Lieut.-Col. W. S. Somerville, P.P.S.G.D. Essex, P.M. 1615.
Burt, Ex-Sheriff George, A.G.D.C.
Carter J. O., Sec. 209, P.P.G.D. of C. Berks & Bucks.
Carter Q.-M. Sergt. W., Sec. 1449.
Cattelle A., J.D. 31.
Challen Chas., I.G. 3.
Chalmers T. W., P.M. 726.
Clark Matthew, J.G.D. England.
Clarke Stephenson.
Clench Major E.
Collins Rev. J. W., P.G.C. Suffolk, S.W. 1823.
Collins R. H.
Conolly Dr., 1185.
Constable John, P.M. 185, Vice-President.
Cooke Alfred.
Cooke Charles, W.M. 1823.
Cooper F.
Cordley W., 574, 1101.
Cronin F., P.M. 231.
Cousins C., S.D. 209.
Cubitt Thomas, P.G.P.
Cull T., P.M. 1298.
Cutbush James, P.M. 1385, Treas. 1731, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Herts.
Daunt Rev. E. T. Townshend, M.A., P.G.C. Cornwall.
Davage F. B., P.M. and T. 201, P.M. 167, P.Z. 185.
Davis G., J.W. 187
Davy C. R.
Dawkins Edward.
Dewar D. M., P.M. 1415, Assistant Grand Secretary M.M.M.
Dosell J. W. M., P.M. 55 463 1769, P.P.G.D.C. Surrey.
Dover J., 591.
Durrant Captain, P.M. 1185.
Emmerson Charles.
Emmerson R. Joynes, P.M. 1206, P.P.J.G.W. Kent.
Ewins S.D., P.M. 706.
Eynon R., P.M. 381, Prov. S.G.W. Northumberland.
Fenner A. W., S.W. 1227, J.W. 1633.
Fielder Baron, P.M., P.S.G.W. Berks and Bucks.
Flowerden Edward.
Frank, C. H., 1764.
Fraser J. A., 948.
Freeman, Vincent P., Prov. G. Sec. Sussex.
Frere E. T.
Gardiner G., Secretary 749.
Gee Fred. W., 1224, I.G. 1823.
Gibb T. Eccleston, 34.
Gilbert E. C., P.M., P.Z. 221, 293.
Gladwell Arthur E., J.W. 172.
Gleadall Rev. J. W., P.M. 1, P.G. Chap., Chaplain to Foundling Hospital.
Godfrey Henry, P.M. 82, P.S.G.W. Gloucestershire.
Godson A. F., Q.C., M.A., P.M. 1097, P.P.G.S.W. Wales.
Goodall H. S., P.M. 781, 871, 65.
Greenfield John, Treas. 1602.
Greenwood George H., P.M. 1224.
Hamp T.
Harriott G., P.P.G.M. Wigtown and Kirkcudbright
Harris S. M., Sec. 806
Hartley John, W.M. 1400.
Harvey —.
Hawkins E. C., P.G.S. Oxon
Hedges Fentham, W.M. 478, P.P.G. Sec. Oxfordsh.
Hemsley —, 771.
Henry Chaplin
Higham P., P.M. 21, P.P.J.G.W. Kent
Hodges H. Howard, P.M. 795, P.Z. 771, P.P.S.G.W., and P.G. Reg. [Arch] Berks and Bucks
Hogg Dr. Jabez, P.G.D., P.M. 172, 1209
Hopekirk W., P.M. Treas. 179, P.M. 1506, P.Z. 742
Hopper W.
Hopwood E., P.M. 141, 209, P.G.S.B. Middlesex
Horsley Charles P., P.G.R., P. Soj. Middlesex, P.Z.
Howkins Thos. P.M. 468, 938, P.P.G.W. and Sec. to Charity Committee of Warwickshire
Howorth Sergt.-Major J. F., Steward 1149
Hubbard C., W.M. 820
Inman Edwin H., P.J.W. 1312
Irvine J.
Jackson J. H., W.M. 654
Jacobs J., P.M. 482, P.P.G. Reg. Staffordshire
James W. H., P.M. 592, P.P.G.D.C. Gloucestershire
Johnson E., P.M. 149
Johnson H. J., S.W., 1791, J.D. 186, I.G. 1624
Jones E. Stanton, P.M. and Secretary 1319
Jones Robert E., W.M. 1224
Kay J. 742
Kenning George, P.P.G.D. Middlesex
Kent A., 1425
Kirby Edward, P.M. 1096
Klamborowski Leonard, J.W. 1823
Lake Wm., P.M. 131, P.P.G. Reg.
Lanchan Henry C.
Le Fevre John E., Prov. G. Sec. Hants and I. of W.
Levy H. M., P.M. 188, &c.
Lewis W. Lambton
Lloyd Horatio, J.G.D.
Lucia W. H., P.G.S.B., Prov. G. Sec. Suffolk
Lucking A., P.M., P.Z., Prov. G. Sec. Suffolk
Lucking A., P.M., P.Z., Prov. G.D. of C. Essex
Maidwell T. J., P.M. 27.
Marshall Horace Brooks, C.C., Treas. 1777.
Massey H., P.M. 619.
Matier C. F., P.G.S.W. Greece, P.M. 615, P.G.W. Mark
Mather John L., P.M., P.G.D.C. Herts.
Meggy Thos., 10, P.M. 21, P.G.S.
Miskin H., W.M. 1449.
Morgan W. W., Sec. 211.
Morris Rev. R., Head Master R.M.I.B.
Morris W., Treas. 1506.
Motion George, P.M. 153, P.P.G.S.W. Essex.
Moutrie W. F. C., P.M. 11.
Murray J. Joyce.
Nairne P. A., P.M. and Treasurer 176.
Naylor H. T., P.M. 1449.
Neilson James Horner, P.P.G.M. Venezuela, P.G.S. Scotland, P.M. 620 (I.C.), 131 (E.C.), 0, 1, 5, 411, 241, 432, and 488 (S.C.), P.S.G.W. Egypt, &c.
Newcomb J., 742.
Newsom W., P.M. 1661, P.J.G.W. Notts.
Newton James, P.M., P.Z., P.G.S.N. East Lanc.
Nicholes W. S., S.W. 209.
Orellana James, J.W. Mark 244.
Pass W., P.M. and Treasurer 28.
Palmer T.
Passawer Dr. E., W.M. 244 Mark.
Payton F. W., J.D. 482.
Pears Andrew, W.M. 865, J.W. 209.
Pepper J. F., W.M. 482.
Percival Captain H. P., 1261.
Perryman W. H., P.M. 3.
Petts E. J., 209.
Phillips W. Page T., P. Prov. S.G.W. Suffolk, G.H.
Pulitzer S., P.M. 1017, P.Z. 188, 538.
Ralling T. J., Prov. G. Sec. Essex.
Radcliffe T. H. 511.
Radcliffe W., S.W. 211.
Randall Rev. W., P.M. 448, P.G.C. Warwicksh. and Staffs., Z. 482, E. 43, P.P.G.S., &c.
Ravenshaw F. F., P.G.C., P.M. 10, 663, P.Z. 632.
Reed H., P.M. 733.
Rero E. T.
Riach H. H., P.M. 874, 1523, P.Z. 1118, Past Prov. Grand Secretary Oxon.
Richards A. A., P.G.S., P.G.W. Middlesex.
Roberts Henry, 55.
Roberts Robert, P.M. 742, W.M. 209, Prov. G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Robbins Rev J., D.D., P.M. 1635, P.G. Chaplain Middlesex, W.M. 1765.
Rogers Rev. W.
Rosenthal S., P.M. 435, P.Z. 410, P.P.S.G.W. Middx.
Row C. J. N.
Russell Rev. T., P.M. and Sec. 489, P.G.J.W. Devon.
Sanders Rev. S. J. W., M.A. LL.M., &c. W.M. 1764, C. 360, Prov. G. Chap. Norths. and Hunts.
Saunders C. G., 328, 1669.
Saunders W. H., W.M. 889, P.P.G.D. Mdx., P.M. 1503.
Seller A., 414, P.P.G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Sharpe W. H. C., W.M. 705.
Shaw Rev. R. D., W.M. 85.
Sherren J. A., W.M. 170, P.P.G.W. Dorset.
Short Rev. W. F., P.G.C., 10, 357, 1383, 1637.
Simpson Rev. R. J., P.G.C., P.M. 10.
Smith H. R. Cooper, P.M. 478, 1523, 1731, P.Z. 357, P. Prov. G.W. Oxon.
Smith S. H., P.M. 488, 938, P.P.G.S.D. Warwick.
Snelling W. Walton, Sec. 1056, and of Metropolitan Masonic Benevolent Association.
Southwood J. H., P.M. 1260.
Spice R. P., W.M., P.G.S.
Spratt Augustus E. F.
Starkey N. A.
Steedman W., P.M. 754.
Stendwell —, P.M., P.G.S.
Stephens G. H., 1623.
Stevens James, P.M. 720 1216 1426, P.Z. 720 771.
Stiles W. M., Secretary 1507, 1732, 1744,
Stohwasser J., P.M. 238 435, P.Z. 8, P.G.S.
Storr E. F., W.M. 1679, P.M. 22.
Stuart Col. William, P.G.W., P.P.G.W. Herts.
Swanborough Edward, W.M. 1319.
Tamplin Augustus L., 441.
Taylor George, P.M. and Tr. 377, P.S.G.D. Worcestr.
Terry James, P.P.J.G.W. Horts, Sec. R.M.B.I.
Tombs H. C., P.G.D.
Torkington, A.
Townsend G., P.M., W.M. 1096, J. 1096.
Tracey Nathiel.
Verry G. Ward P.M. and Sec. 554 1278 1421, J.D. 1580, S.W. 625, P.Z. 554 1385, P.P.G.P.S. Herts.
Vickery S. A.
Walsh Arthur, 1101, P.P.G.R. Berks and Bucks.
Watts G. H.
Watts J.W., P.M. 1201
Weaver James, P.M. 862, 1319, P.Z. 177 862 1319, P.P.G. Org. Middx.
Welham Henry, P.M. 1224
Wentworth T. J., W.M. 225, P.S.G.D. Suffolk
Westfield W., P.M. 1501
Wheeler Fred., P.P.G.R. Suffolk, P.M. and Sec. 1224
Willing James, P.M. 177, P.M. and Treas. 1507, P.M. and Treas. 1744, P.Z. and Treas. 1507, Z. 1000
Wilson J., P.M. and Treas. 209
Winter James
Withers Alfred, W.M. 211
Woodford Rev. A. F. A., P.G. Chap.
Woodman Dr. W. R., P.G.S.B.
Woodward E. C., P.M. 382, 1637, &c.
Worlock R. Montagu, Prov. G. Sec. Bristol
Wragg J. H., Prov. Grand Sec. Notts.
Wright John, P.G.P.

Caveac Lodge, No. 176, London
Etonian Lodge, No. 209, Windsor
St. Luke's Lodge, No. 225, Ipswich
Lord Warden Lodge, No. 1066, Walmer
Lewis Lodge, No. 1185, Wood Green
Curwen Lodge, No. 1400, Harrington.
Duke of Cornwall Lodge, No. 1529, St. Columb.

Editor of "The Freemason."
Editor of "The Freemason's Chronicle."
Editor of "The Rosicrucian."
Editor of "The Scottish Freemason."
Editor of "The Standard."

Brethren who desire to assist in establishing this Fund will oblige by forwarding their names to be added to the above List.

Digitized by Google

ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY Limited, 7 Bank Buildings, Lothbury, E.C.

General accidents. Railway accidents. | Personal injuries. Death by accident.

C. HARDING, Manager.

RHEUMATISM.

THE only real remedy for this complaint is the Northern Cure (patent). In bottles 1s 1½d each, to be had of all Chemists. Proprietors and Manufacturers, Edwards and Alexander, 29 Blacket-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

GEO. JONES,

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT MANUFACTURER and IMPORTER, 350 and 481 Commercial Road, London, E. Price List of every description of Instruments post free. Established 1850.

TAMAR INDIEN.

SPECIAL CAUTION.

OWING to the marked success of this medicine, the only patent medicine universally prescribed by the faculty, and the acknowledged cure for constipation, headache, bile, hæmorrhoids, &c., BASE IMITATIONS, containing drastic irritants, are being foisted on the public. The genuine preparation bears the title "Tamar Indien," and the signature S. GRILLON, Coleman-st., London, E.C. Price 2s 6d per box. In a recent case, 1876, G. No. 311, a perpetual injunction to restrain the defendant from applying the name "Tamar" to his lozenges was awarded, with costs, by Vice-Chancellor Bacon, on 19th January 1877, and all such piracies will be summarily proceeded against.——N.B.—See that the outer wrapper (directions) are printed in the English language and that each box bears the Government 3d stamp.

MEMORY EXTRAORDINARY BY CORRESPONDENCE.—Particulars post free of Bro. William Stokes, Teacher of Memory, Royal Polytechnic, 309 Regent-street, London, W. Private lessons by appointment. Class on Tuesdays, 3 and 8.30. The System complete in Three Lessons. "Stokes on Memory," by post 14 stamps. Memory Globe, 14 stamps.

EVENING Employment wanted, by a P.M. Good Accountant. Address 2001, FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, W.C.

HOTELS, ETC.

EALING—Feathers Hotel

EASTBOURNE—Pier Hotel, Cavendish Place. View of Sea and Pier. A. TAYLOR Proprietor

KEW—Star and Garter. Good accommodation for Lodge & Dinner Parties. J. BRILL Proprietor

SANDWICH—Bell Family and Commercial Hotel. Good Stabling. J. J. FILMER Proprietor

WOOD GREEN—Kings Arms Hotel. A. B. GREENSLADE Proprietor

YORK—Queen's Family and Commercial Hotel, Micklegate. H. CHURCHILL Proprietor

LONDON.

CALTHORPE ARMS—253 Gray's Inn Road, W.C. Billiards, Pool, Pyramids, &c. Best Wines and Spirits. W. H. G. RUDDERFORTH Proprietor

CANNING TOWN—Liverpool Arms. J. PAVITT. Friars L. of Instruction, 1349, Tuesdays at 7.30

GREEN DRAGON—Spring Garden-place, Stepney Wines and Spirits of the best quality. Billiards. Banquets provided for large or small parties. Yarborough L. & C. 554, and Temple Mark L. 173 held here. Lodge of Instruc. (554) meets every Tuesday at 8. A. WALTER Proprietor

MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT—Moorgate Street, E.C. Hot and Cold Dinners, &c. Chops and Steaks. Good accommodation for Lodge Meetings, &c. A. KENT Proprietor

NEW MARKET HOTEL—King Street, Snow Hill, E.C. Good accommodation for Club and other Banquets. Wines and Spirits of best quality. Specially licensed for Masonic Balls. Lodges 1623 and 1677 are held here. Strong Man No. 45 and West Smithfield No. 1623 Lodges of Instruction, meet here, every Monday at 8 p.m. Thomas BUTT Proprietor

SAWYER'S (late Station) RESTAURANT, 5 Railway Place, Fenchurch Street, E.C. English, French, and German Cuisine. Wines of the best quality. Hot and Cold Luncheons, Chops, Steaks, &c. Tea and Coffee. F. J. SAWYER (late of Pimm's and Crystal Palace) Proprietor

BILLIARD BALLS, Chalks, Cues, and Tips, at HENNIG BROS.' Ivory Works, 11 High Street, London, W.C. Cheapest house in the trade for billiard-table requisites and ivory goods in general. Old balls adjusted or exchanged, and tables recovered. Price Lists on application. Established 1862.

W. BEASLEY,

Bespoke Boot Maker,

23 Queen Victoria Street.

HUNTING, RIDING, DRESS AND BOOTS FOR THE MOORS,

MADE IN A FEW DAYS.

Specialite—Hand Sewn and Standard Screwed.

C. HUBBARD,

Plain & Fancy Box & Pattern CARD MANUFACTURER.

139 & 141 NEW NORTH ROAD, AND 64 SHAFTESBURY ST., LONDON, N.

ROCHESTER & FOX,

Post and Job Masters,

799 COMMERCIAL ROAD, E. AND 81 JUBILEE STREET, MILE END, E.

Carriages of every description on hire.

SUPERIOR WEDDING CARRIAGES.

HOUGHTON,

THE BOOT MAKER,

243 & 244 WHITECHAPEL ROAD, LONDON, E.

Lasts made to the Feet.

—:o:—

SPECIALITÉ,

EASE, ELEGANCE AND DURABILITY.

JOSEPH J. CANEY,

DIAMOND MERCHANT, AND MANUFACTURING JEWELLER AND WATCH MAKER,

44 CHEAPSIDE, LONDON.

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND FURNITURE.

Specialité—First Class Jewels—Artistic—Massive—Best Quality—Moderate in Price

CATALOGUES POST FREE.

A LARGE STOCK OF LOOSE BRILLIANTS FOR EXPENSIVE JEWELS.

Diamond Rings, Brooches, Studs, Earrings and Bracelets in Great Variety.

MASONIC JEWELS FOR ALL DEGREES.

MINIATURE WAR MEDALS AND DECORATIONS.

ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD IN ALL SIZES.

ATHLETIC SPORTS MEDALS AND BADGES.

A. D. LOEWENSTARK & SONS, Medallists, 210 STRAND, LONDON, W.C.

MANUFACTORY—1 DEVEREUX COURT, STRAND.

J. FORTESCUE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

129 FLEET ST.; 114 & 115 SHOE LANE,

(One door from Fleet Street)

6 EXMOUTH STREET, CLERKENWELL, E.C.

And 143 Mare Street, Triangle, Hackney

Gents' Silk Hats from 5/6 each. Second best 6/6 7/6 8/6 Superfine quality, 10/6 12/6 & 16/. The very best made 21/. Felt Hats, hard and soft, in all the newest shapes, from 3/6 to 10/6.

A. LAZARUS,

MERCHANT TAILOR AND Juvenile Clothier,

CORNER OF WORSHIP ST., SHOREDITCH, E., AND 51 LIVERPOOL STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Patterns and Rules for Self Measurement post free.

ADAM S. MATHER,

GAS ENGINEER, GENERAL GAS FITTER AND BELL HANGER

MANUFACTURER OF BILLIARD LIGHTS

AND OF EVERY DESCRIPTION OF GAS APPARATUS FOR COOKING AND HEATING

Bath Rooms Fitted up. All the Latest Improvements Introduced.

MANUFACTORY—12 CHARLES STREET, HATTON GARDEN, E.C.; AND AT 278 CALEDONIAN ROAD, ISLINGTON, N.

ESTIMATES GIVEN.

T. J. TARLING,

COAL MERCHANT.

North Wallsend	...	...	23s Per Ton
Hetton or Lambton	...	...	24s ,,
Best Silkstone	...	...	23s ,,
Best Derby	...	...	21s ,,

All letters to be addressed:—

5 BURDETT ROAD, BOW, E.

PIANOFORTES AND HARMONIUMS ON EASY TERMS.

GROVER & GROVER

LET ON HIRE, WITH OPTION OF PURCHASE,

BEAUTIFUL AND PERFECT INSTRUMENTS.

PURCHASERS CHOOSE THEIR OWN TERMS,

FROM 15s TO £3 3s PER QUARTER.

The Advantages of a Trial, with the Convenience of the Three Years' System at Cash Price, by Paying about a Quarter of the value down, the Balance by Easy Payments, from 15s per quarter.

GROVER & GROVER, 157-9 Kingsland Road.

ESTABLISHED 1830.

Bro. A. OLDROYD, Stratford, London,

MANUFACTURER OF TOBACCO POUCHES,

With any name in raised letters.

CAN be obtained direct from the Maker, at the undermentioned prices, on receipt of P.O.O. payable at Stratford.

	Price		Will take a name of
No. 3	2/0	...	9 letters
,, 4	2 6	...	11 ,,
,, 5	3/0	...	12 ,,
,, 6	3/6	...	13 ,,
,, 7	4/0	...
,, 8	4/6	...
,, 9	5/0	...

A. OLDROYD,

Agent for Algerian Cigars, and Importer of Havana and Continental Cigars,

64 HIGH STREET, STRATFORD, LONDON, E.

Digitized by Google

EDWARD STILLWELL AND SON,

25, 26 and 27 BARBICAN, AND 6 LITTLE BRITAIN, LONDON,
109 ARGYLE STREET, GLASGOW,

Gold Lacemen, Embroiderers and Sword Cutlers,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Masonic Fittings for Lodges, Chapters and Encampments.

CLOTHING, JEWELS (PINS, STUDS AND RINGS), FOR EVERY DEGREE.

Aprons, Sashes, Horns, Ornaments and Banners for Foresters, Odd Fellows, Orangemen, Free Gardeners, &c.

REGALIA FOR I.O.G.T. AND ALL SOCIETIES.

LIBERAL TERMS TO SHIPPERS.

H. T. LAMB,

MANUFACTURER OF

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND REGALIA,

5 ST. JOHN SQUARE, LONDON.

PRICE LIST, CONTAINING 120 ILLUSTRATIONS, POST FREE ON APPLICATION.

PHILLIPS & COMPANY'S TEAS

ARE BEST AND CHEAPEST,

8 KING WILLIAM STREET, CITY, LONDON, E.C.

A GENERAL PRICE CURRENT AND STORE LIST, CONTAINING ALL THE ADVANTAGES OF THE LONDON MARKETS, POST FREE.

Show Rooms for Chinese, Japanese, and Oriental Art Products, and General Stores, 13 & 14 ABCHURCH LANE, adjoining 8 KING WILLIAM STREET, E.C.

J. E. SHAND & CO.

Wine Merchants,

(Experts and Valuers of Wines and Spirits,)

2 ALBERT MANSIONS, VICTORIA ST., LONDON, S.W.

PRICES DELIVERED IN LONDON.

Sherries	21s, 24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s	Sparkling Moselles	42s, 48s, 54s
Ports	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	Champagnes	36s, 42s, 48s, 54s, 60s
Clarets	12s, 18s, 18s, 20s, 24s, 36s	Burgundy	18s, 20s, 24s, 36s, 42s
Still Hocks	24s 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s	Brandies	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s, 66s
Sparkling do	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s	Whiskies	20s per gall., 42s per doz.

COUNTRY ORDERS OVER £3 CARRIAGE FREE.

"Sparkling Sauterne," 1875 Vintage—Delicious New Sparkling Wine, Sec, and Extra Sec. 42s per doz.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.

WARD'S

INVALID CHAIR AND CARRIAGE MANUFACTORY,

From SAVILLE HOUSE, LEICESTER SQUARE,

To 246 & 247 TOTTENHAM COURT ROAD, LONDON.

THE ONLY PRIZE MEDAL for INVALID FURNITURE was gained by JOHN WARD, at the London Exhibitions, 1851 and 1862; Paris, 1855 and 1867; Dublin, 1865; Vienna, 1873; 2 Silver Medals, Paris, 1878.

JOHN WARD, Manufacturer by Special Appointment to the Queen and Royal Family, the Empresses of France, Austria, Russia, &c.

INVALID CHAIRS and CARRIAGES for SALE or HIRE from JOHN WARD. Established 150 years. Drawings and price lists free on application.

Fish Carvers, Fish Eating Knives and Forks, Revolving Covered Soup and Luncheon Dishes.

SPECIALITIES FOR TESTIMONIALS,
TEA AND COFFEE SERVICES,

SALVERS, DESSERT KNIVES AND FORKS, GILT AND OXYDIZED GOODS.

77 (from 28) Cheapside, London, E.C.
(NEAR THE POULTRY.)

MORING,

ENGRAVER, DIE SINKER,
HERALDIC ARTIST, -
ILLUMINATED ADDRESSES,
44, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST POST FREE.

ADLARD'S JEWEL ATTACHER 7/6.

If with Pockets, 6d each Pocket extra.

225 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

JANES & SON

WINDOW BLINDS ONLY,

WHOLESALE,

ALDERSGATE STREET, CITY, E.C.

BRANCH—

4 EAGLE PLACE, PICCADILLY

THESE ADDRESSES ONLY.

YOUNG'S Arnicated Corn and Bunion Plaisters are the best ever invented for giving immediate ease, and removing those painful excrescences. Price 6d and 1s per box. Any Chemist not having them in stock can procure them.

Observe the Trade Mark—H. Y.—without which none are genuine. Be sure and ask for Young's.

Horticultural Decorations, Forneries, Window Gardening, Seeds, Bulbs, Plants, Ferns, PLANTS FOR DECORATIONS. Masonic Banquets, Balls, &c.

DICK RADCLYFFE & CO., F.R.H.S.

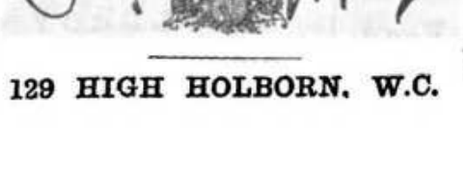

TABLE DECORATIONS.
Ball Room Decorations, Seeds for Export.
Illustrated Catalogues gratis and post free.
Seeds, Bulbs, &c., carefully packed for Export.

129 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

NEW MASONIC ROOMS,

COMPLETE SUITE,
SPECIALLY ARRANGED
LODGE, BANQUETTING,
AND ANTE ROOMS,
ALL ON ONE FLOOR.

Particulars to be had of

BRO. A. KENT, MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT,
OPPOSITE RAILWAY STATION,

From which trains run at frequent intervals in connection with the Great Northern, Midland, Great Western, London Chatham & Dover, and Metropolitan Railways.

Printed for the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE PUBLISHING COMPANY LIMITED, and Published by Bro. WILLIAM WRAY MORGAN JUN., at 23 Great Queen Street, London W.C., Saturday, 31st January 1880.

Digitized by Google

THE

Freemason's Chronicle;

A WEEKLY RECORD OF MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

SANCTIONED BY THE GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

Registered at the G.P.O. as a Newspaper.

VOL. XI.—No. 267. SATURDAY, 7th FEBRUARY 1880. [Issued to Subscribers only. 13s 6d per annum, post free.

APPROACHING FESTIVAL OF THE BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION.

THE Annual Festival of the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution will be held at the Freemasons' Tavern, London, on Monday next, on which occasion the R.W. Provincial Grand Master for North and East Yorkshire, the Earl of Zetland, will undertake the duties of Chairman. His Lordship was appointed to the ruling of the Province he now governs in 1874, since which time Freemasonry in his district, as in most others, has made considerable advances. New Lodges have been consecrated, old ones have prospered, and generally, we think, he may be congratulated on the position of the Province of which he is the head. But on one point, and that the distinguishing characteristic of a Freemason's heart, an apathy has existed, to which we have on several occasions referred, and which we consider the more peculiar when we take into consideration the zeal evidenced in Freemasonry by a few of the Craftsmen of the district. We have taken upon ourselves, time after time, when reviewing the results of the Charity Festivals, to point out the meagre support rendered to the three Institutions by the brethren of North and East Yorkshire, and although we are aware that in some instances our remarks—intended as honest criticism—have been considered somewhat offensive, we must ask our friends to forget it; if we have erred, it has been in a good cause. Whether the majority of the brethren of this Province imagine that the few energetic ones do as much as the whole should accomplish or not, we are unable to say, but one thing is certain,—that hitherto the Province of North and East Yorkshire has not contributed to either of the Masonic Institutions anything like the amount which might reasonably be expected from it. A good opportunity to remove this stigma now presents itself, and we trust that the chairman of Monday next will receive such support from his Province as will entitle it to a place on the roll of honour—so far as support to the Masonic Charities is concerned; and further, that the presidency of this Festival, the first undertaken by his Lordship on behalf of either of the Charities, will make a change in the benevolent aspect of his Province.

Now, as regards the Festival itself; the prospect can hardly be termed a promising one; last year Bro. Terry, the Secretary of the Institution, had the gratification to announce on the night of the Festival that the promised subscriptions reached the splendid total of £13,875 10s 6d, with fifteen lists then outstanding. What those lists produced, and the changes that were made in others, may best be imagined on reference to the total of the donations and subscriptions actually collected last year, as given in our issue of the 3rd January last, the amount there being set down at £14,123 10s 6d. This result was achieved by the united efforts of 288 Stewards, and represents an average, in round figures, of £49 from each. The average, however, of the lists as announced at the Festival reached but a trifle over £48. Up to the present time the number of brethren who have undertaken the office of Steward for this year's Festival is but 224, as compared with the total of 288 referred to above who assisted in that of 1879, so that, even allowing for the receipt of a few more names before the time of announcing the result of the 1880 Festival arrives, it will be seen that there is a falling off of over twenty per cent. as regards numbers alone, and this at a time when the advocacy of so large a number of brethren can ill be spared, considering more especially the present aspect of financial matters. The general depression in business presses heavier as, month after month, it continues, and this, added to the fact that great distress exists at the present time in many manufacturing counties may be expected to cause a considerable diminution in the total that will be announced. Another item that will materially affect the total will be the absence this year of any very large amounts from the Provincial centres. Last year the Festival was presided over by Lieut.-Colonel Le Gendre N. Starkie, R.W. Prov. G.M. for East Lancashire, which Province numbers on its roll the Lodges of Manchester, Bolton, Bury, Salford, and many other large towns, and right nobly was he supported by the brethren of his district. As we stated at the time, fifty of its Lodges and one Chapter were represented, by seventy-nine Stewards, and the result of their exertions, including a donation of 100 guineas from the Chairman, 500 guineas from the Provincial Grand Lodge, fifty guineas from the Provincial Grand Chapter, and sixty guineas from the Provincial Grand Mark Lodge, was, that a total of £3,542 was announced on the night of the Festival as contributed by East Lancashire. This year it would not be fair to expect so grand a total from the Chairman's Province. East Lancashire has a total of eighty-nine Lodges, while North and East Yorkshire has but twenty-seven; still we think we are not asking too much when we expect that the Earl of Zetland this year shall bring from his Province as large an amount, in proportion, as did his confrère the Grand Master of East Lancashire from the brethren of that Province last year. We should thereby have to announce the receipt of something over £1,000; let us hope that amount will be realised, but we are afraid we are doomed to be disappointed. Taking the above standard of £48 per Steward as the basis of this year's calculations, the result of the Festival should show contributions amounting to about £10,750, but from what we have seen of some of the London lists, that standard will not be reached, and therefore we fear we shall have to listen to an announcement of but a four figure total. It is impossible for any one outside the office—and we believe it is far from possible for those inside—to form any fair estimate of what the total really will be, as so many brethren keep their lists to themselves until they arrive at the banquet, thus making it very difficult to obtain reliable information on the subject. We can but hope that a grand success is in store for the Benevolent Institution, and in this we think we are joined by the majority of the Freemasons of this country. Whatever may be the result, we have no hesitation in saying that Bro. Terry deserves the thanks of all connected with the Charity for the continued exertions he has made to render the Festival of 1880 a success from a financial point of view.

We have so often dilated on the merits of this Institution that we do not think it necessary to point out here the need there is that it should be supported, or that its Committee should receive funds sufficient to enable them to continue the work in the future, as well, if not better than has been done in the past. Even with the large total of subscriptions, donations, &c., of 1879, there was ample scope left for further aid being rendered to really deserving cases; numerous candidates both for the Male and Female Funds being left unprovided for after the May election. What will be the result if anything like a falling-off of £3,000 in this year's receipts as compared with those of last year takes place, we leave to the imagination of our readers.

Digitized by Google

With a hope that each will do his best for our "old people," we leave the subject until next week, with the earnest wish that as grand a total awaits us as has ever been announced by the indefatigable Secretary, Bro. Terry.

THE MASONIC RITUAL.

BY BROTHER JACOB NORTON.

Now, tell us what 'twas all about!
Young Peterkin he cried;
And little Wilhelmine looks up,
With wonder waiting eyes.
Now, tell us all about the war!
And what they killed each other for?

It was the English, Caspar cried,
That put the French to rout;
But what they killed each other for,
I could not well make out.
But everybody said, quoth he,
That 'twas a famous victory!

LIKE Caspar, I know that a famous victory was gained, I know that Bro. Stevens fought for the "uniformity of the ritual," and Bro. Woodford opposed him. But as I have not read the Freemason, I could not clearly make out what "it was all about."

But as the Grand Lodge consented to appoint a committee upon the question at issue, I deem it proper to lay before the committee a history of the English Masonic Ritual I shall, however, premise by stating, that there are sectarian allusions in the ritual, which gave rise to a notion that Masonry was designed to inculcate Christian dogmas. For instance, the significant allusion to the "morning star," the dogma of resurrection. The declaration of the inspiration of the Bible, &c. These topics in the ritual encourage the Cantwells to make ignorant zealots believe that Freemasonry is a fifth wheel to Christianity. These notions have again and again been asserted in the press, as well as in the Lodges. This question ought long since to have been settled by authority of the Grand Lodge. I am sick and tired of hearing from one and the same man that Masonry is a religion, and that it is not a religion. If the Masonic aim is to inculcate Christian dogmas, let the Grand Lodge say so. And if not, sectarian allusions should be expunged from the ritual. Some clerical brethren may oppose this, and if so, I would ask them whether they were acting in conformity with justice, truth, and according to rule, Do as you would be done by. The question is, on which side is Bro. Stevens? Is he in favour for making such change, or does he merely advocate conformity to the Hemming ritual as promulgated by Peter Gilkes? If the last supposition is correct, the brother may have gained a victory; but with little Peterkin I ask,

"What good came of it at last?"

Brothers Woodford and Stevens may know as much about the history of the ritual as I do, and may be more. But I have no doubt that a majority of English Masons, like majorities in our American Grand Lodges, imagine that either Grand Master Noah, Nimrod, or Solomon was the author of the ritual. Its imagined antiquity gives to their minds an idea of sacredness, and hence they look upon any one who desires to make any change in it as committing a sacrilege. This almost universally accepted error I propose to remove, by showing the origin and growth of the Masonic ritual.

About 1430, A.D., a few years sooner or later, a Catholic priest wrote a Masonic poem, now known as the "Halliwell Constitution," which gives a significant outline of the then ritual. The writer ascribed the origin of Masonry, not to Solomon, but to Euclid in Egypt. And the origin of Masonry in England not to St. Alban, but to King Athelstan and his son Edwin. These, he says, gave the Masons a code of laws, consisting of fifteen articles and fifteen points, all which laws he gave in full in the poem. I have no doubt that the Rev. Brother invented both of these legends, and it is also evident that from that time, and for about a century after, the Masonic ceremony of initiation began with the reading of the said legends, followed by the laws, such as the Masons made from time to time. After the laws were read a prayer was made to "God Almighty and his moder Mary bright." The legend of the then patron saints (both in Germany and in England), viz. "the Four Crowned Martyrs" was next given. Noah's ark: the tower of Babel seven miles high, built by Nabocodonzor: the seven liberal sciences were all expatiated on, and a long Roman Catholic sermon, about going to church, sprinkling with holy water, shriving, &c., finished the ceremony.

The next ritual is known as "Matthew Cooke's MS." This begins with a prayer to the Godhead, and as no mention is made therein of "Moder Mary," nor of the martyrs, I presume that the said MS. was written by a Protestant in the 16th century. This author claims to have read the Bible, St. Isador, the Polycronocon, and other books, both in manuscript and in print. From the Bible he inferred that Lamach, his two wives, and his sons were the founders of Masonry, that Nimrod composed Masonic charges, that Abraham taught Euclid Masonry, that King David gave charges to Masons. He also Masonized King Solomon and King Hiram, but he was not cute enough to guess that the widow's son was a mason. The legends of Euclid and Athelstan were reproduced, but he ascribed the origin of Masonry in England to St. Alban. In these two rituals there is no indication of any Masonic OB. according to our sense of the phrase.

In the 17th century the Matthew Cooke ritual was abridged. There are still in existence about twenty-five MS. of the 17th century. Bro. Hughan published a number of them, viz., "The Old Charges." In all these rituals but one the opening prayer is to the Trinity. The same legends are given (with some variation, of course) as in the Matthew Cooke ritual. Before reading the charges and laws the Elder requested the candidate to lay his hand on a book, and these Charges wound up with "So help you God," &c. Late in the 17th or beginning of the 18th century, a new brief oath was introduced, beginning with "I A.B.," but no saints were alluded to, and no penalties were mentioned in the said OB.

While treating of the brevity of the then OB., I cannot refrain mentioning that in 1869 I saw two initiations in Lodges at Leipsic in Germany, and the whole OB. consisted of the following words:—"I promise, on the word of an honest man, not to divulge what will be here communicated to me." I must here add that the Mason of the 17th century, and all the preceding Masons, never entertained the idea that Masonry was designed to unite men of every creed, but, on the contrary, in every constitution, both English and German, the candidate was enjoined to be true to the church, and to entertain no heresy; and in Germany, if a Mason abstained from attending regularly to confession, he was expelled from the Craft.

The founders of the Grand Lodge of England changed the nature and aim of the Masonic institution. The widow's son was now for the first time Masonized, new degrees were added; in fact, the ceremonies were all new, and into the charges was introduced the declaration that Masonry unites men of all creeds into a brotherhood, &c. But notwithstanding this declaration, true universality was ignored in the new ritual as well as laws. St. John's days were made into Masonic festivals. Lodges began to be dedicated first to one saint, and afterwards to the two saints John. In the new ritual Christ was referred to as being higher than a Mason, and the first Lodge was said to have been held in the holy Chapel of St. John. Prayers were however entirely abolished, and as late as 1766 prayer in Lodges under the Grand Lodge of England was an exception, but not a rule. The truth is, the Ancients (as they were called) reintroduced Lodge prayers, and the Moderns gradually followed the example of the Ancients.

The OB. in the new ritual was still without saints and without penalties, and very brief, and so was the ritual. A just and perfect Lodge consisted of two entered apprentices, two Fellow Crafts, and two Masters. Five, however, was the limit. The jewels were the square pavement, the blazing star, and the Danly tassele. The sun, the Master, and square were the three lights. They had also two lights, "one to see to go in, and another to work." The Key was symbolically explained, but the Bible was not then symbolized as the "great light," and I may here state that as late as 1730, when the Duke of Norfolk was installed Grand Master, the Grand Lodge of England was opened in due form, not with a Bible on the Grand Master's pedestal, but the Book of Constitutions, with a sword, laid there. This custom is in vogue in French Lodges, for which our French brethren are repeatedly abused by our American Masonic luminaries as infidels. It seems, however, the G.O. of France is following an old English Masonic usage.

The next ritual had still but one OB., and the penalties of the three degrees were embraced in it. The Lodge was said to have been dedicated to St. John. The Bible, compass and square were the furniture of the Lodge. The key and ivory box were symbolised. The point, centre, and letter G were there; seven or more made a just Lodge, but it was minus of ornaments and working tools.

The next ritual was in vogue during Lord Aberdour's Grand Mastership (about 1760). Here we have an OB. for every degree; in the first degree only working tools were explained. It was, however, still minus of ornaments as well as parallel lines. According to Dr. Mackey, that symbol appeared first in a ritual of 1776. It is ascribed to Dunckerley, who introduced the saints John as Masonic parallels. In 1814 Dr. Samuel Hemming substituted Moses and Solomon for the saints. It would, however, have been wiser had the Rev. Doctor thrown the symbol out altogether. In Pennsylvania, where the Masons pride themselves on preserving the Dermott ritual in its purity, the parallel lines are unknown, so they are in Scotland and on the Continent of Europe. The theological feature of that symbol clashes with the idea of universality. It is therefore un-Masonic.

This outline of the origin and development of the Masonic ritual must convince the most obdurate Masonic conservative that ancient landmarks cannot be pleaded in favour of perpetuating the accumulated rubbish in the ritual. If, therefore, Bro. Stevens is ambitious of gaining a "famous victory," he must exert his influence to make the ritual consistent with Masonic pretensions or professions. If Masonry cannot stand without promulgating sectarian dogmas, candidates should not be deceived by W.M.'s with solemn promises that Masonic duties would not interfere with their religious opinions, and all boasting of Masonic universality should be expunged from the constitution and Ritual. But if Bro. S. favours Masonic universality, he should advocate the removal of all sectarianism from the ritual. Sooner or later one or the other will have to be done, and why not do it now?

Boston, U.S., 17th January 1880.

THE FIFTEEN SECTIONS CLUB.

THE adjourned meeting of the Fifteen Sections Club was held at the Metropolitan Hotel, South-place, Finsbury, E.C., on Tuesday evening, 2nd Febuary, a numerous attendance of brethren being present. Bro. James Stevens was elected to the chair. The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. Bro. Stevens proposed, and Bro. Job seconded,—That arrangements be made for a special Masonic night for the opening of the Fifteen Sections Club. Proposed by Bro. Latrielle, seconded by Bro. Hall,—That those arrangements be carried out by Bros. Stevens and King (Hon. Sec.), and that the Secretary call a meeting of members as soon as convenient, to report progress. Votes of thanks were accorded to Bros. Stevens and Latrielle (Vice), and King Hon. Sec., and the meeting adjourned. The date of the special night will be duly announced in the several Masonic journals.

Digitized by Google

INSTALLATION MEETINGS, &c.

—:o:—

LODGE OF ECONOMY, No. 76.

THE ceremony of Installing Bro. J. Harris P.M. P.P.G.S.W. as W.M. of this Lodge, took place on Thursday afternoon, 29th ult., at the Masonic Hall, Winchester, in the presence of a full Lodge and many visiting brethren, inclusive of the Prov. G.M. Bro. W. W. B. Beach, M.P., and several of his Officers, who were received with the usual honours. The ceremony of installation was performed by Bro. E. D. Godwin, in a manner that elicited the encomiums of the P.G.M. and all the brethren. The W.M. installed his Officers as under:—Bros. F. R. Bryan I.P.M., I. Murray S.W., G. F. Nixon J.W., Captain Hall S.D., W. H. Jacob J.D., T. Stopher P.M. Treasurer, W. Gamon P.M. Secretary, J. T. Clifton and H. Ventham Stewards, S. R. Everett P.P.G.D.C. D.C., S. Newman I.G. The brethren afterwards adjourned to the Royal Hotel, where a banquet was served by Mrs. Spriggs. The usual toasts followed.

UNION LODGE, No. 129, KENDAL.

THE annual meeting of this old Lodge, the oldest in the Province of Cumberland and Westmoreland, took place at the Masonic Hall, Stramongate, on Thursday, 29th January, at four o'clock in the afternoon. The Lodge was opened by the W.M. Bro. Banks, who was assisted by his Officers and a goodly number of members and Visitors. After the confirmation of the minutes a gentleman was initiated by Bro. McKay P.M., and subsequently a Bro. was raised by Bro. Nelson P.M. The W.M. then invited Bro. John Bowes P.M. P.P.G.J.W. to take the chair as Installing Master. Bro. McKay then presented Bro. Watson S.W. W.M. elect for the benefit of installation: the presentation being attended to, a Board of Installed Masters was opened in ample form in due course, the Installing Master being assisted by Bros. McKay and Nelson. Bro. Watson having been placed in the chair of K.S. according to ancient custom, he was greeted, proclaimed and saluted in the various degrees. Each Officer, after investment by the W.M., was placed in his chair and addressed as to his situation, duties, &c. by the Installing Master. The final addresses to the W.M, Wardens and brethren were delivered by Bro. McKay. The ordinary business of the Lodge being completed, Bro. T. Wilson P.M. proposed, Bro. McKay P.M. seconded, and the W.M. supported, a cordial vote of thanks to Bro. Bowes for his invaluable services as Installing Master. The Lodge having been closed, the W.M. invited the brethren to his private residence to dinner, and we need not say that a most enjoyable evening was spent under his hospitable roof.

ISRAEL LODGE, No. 205.

THE Installation meeting was held on the 27th ult., at Cannon-street Hotel, E.C. Lodge was opened in due form by Bro. A. Bassington W.M., who was supported by Bros. H. J. Phillips S.W., L. Norden J.W. W.M. elect, C. F. Hogard P.M. P.P.G. Sup. W. Essex Secretary, A. M. Cohen I.P.M., I. P. Cohen P.M., H. M. Harris P.M., M. J. Emanuel P.M., L. Littaur P.M., J. Da Silva I.G., A. Abrahams Steward, E. J. Ward, H. Shanly, T. Houghton, A. Abrahams, J. Houghton, C. Richmond, Z. Diamond, &c. The minutes having been read and confirmed, the Lodge balance-sheet was received; also that of the Israel Benevolent Fund, both of which documents were of a satisfactory character. The business of installing the W.M. elect was then proceeded with. Bro. L. Norden being presented to Bro. Bassington by Bro. I.P.M. A. M. Cohen, who acted as D.C. throughout the ceremony, which, as rendered by Bro. Bassington, formed a fitting finish to his year of office. Bro. Norden having received the salutations of the brethren in due form, proceeded to invest his Officers as follow:—Bros. H. J. Phillips S.W., J. Da Silva J.W., C. F. Hogard P.M. Secretary (re-appointed), A. Abrahams S.D., A. Abrahams J.D., J. A. Gartley I.G., I. P. Cohen P.M. M.C., H. Handy Steward, E. J. Ward Assist. Steward, Bassington I.P.M., J. Rawles Tyler. The Secretary read a letter from Bro. C. Coote P.M. Treasurer, explaining that that Brother's absence was owing to illness, but accepting the office of Treasurer again. Bro. Norden said he hoped to have the pleasure of investing Bro. Coote on another occasion. Bro. A. M. Cohen P.M. called the attention of the brethren to the famine unfortunately raging in Ireland, and moved that £5 5s be contributed from the Lodge funds towards the Lord Mayor's list in aid of the sufferers; this was seconded by Bro. Hogard, and carried with unanimity. After several matters of interest had been disposed of, Lodge was closed, and the brethren adjourned to partake of a banquet, which reflected great credit both upon Bro. E. H. Rand, manager, and Bro. Cohen, who catered for the Hebrew brethren. Grace having been said for the Hebrew brethren and for the Christian brethren by Bro. I.P.M., the brethren did full justice to the good cheer. When the repast was over, the W.M. introduced the usual Loyal toasts in brief but expressive terms, which enabled the toast list to receive full justice without curtailment. The list presented a very agreeable feature, each toast being accompanied by an apt quotation from the poems of Tennyson, Lord Byron, Burns, Longfellow, &c. That coupled with the Immediate P.M.—

> Not Heaven itself upon the past has power,
> But what has been, has been, and I have had my hour.

from Dryden, in imitation of Horace, being a good specimen. The toast of the R.W. Dep. Grand Master and the rest of the Grand Officers Present and Past, received as hearty a reception as its predecessors, and was coupled with the name of W. Bro. J. L. Thomas P.G.D.C., who, in response, said he would fall in with the good example set by the W.M., and rise at once to thank them in the name of the Grand Officers Present and Past. It afforded him great pleasure to meet his old friend Bro. Hogard, and to be a guest in this old and highly esteemed Lodge. In our gatherings at Grand Lodge we hear a great deal of the doings of certain Lodges, and the Lodge of Israel is one of which we hear a high account. As the brethren so fully appreciated their Goff, he felt sure they did their duty, and justified their appointment. He thanked them for the cordial reception of the toast. Bro. I.P.M. Bassington next gave the W.M., in appreciative terms. He said all would agree with him that they had the right man in the right place, and he was sure from the manner in which Bro. Norden had conducted the several duties he had performed in the Lodge, the brethren would have every satisfaction from his year of office. In reply, Bro. Norden thanked Bro. I.P.M. for the kind introduction of the toast, and the brethren for the manner they had received it. He was now upon his trial, and hoped he would receive the same encomiums upon leaving that position as he had on entering it. The Masonic Charities and the Lodge Benevolent Fund were next honoured. The W.M. said he had expected Bro. Terry would have been present, but owing to the death of that brother's father, he was unavoidably absent. They all knew the extent of the Masonic Institutions, but they had one Institution near and dear to them, viz., the Lodge Benevolent Fund. He would call upon the brother who, in the past as well as the present, had so ably presided over it. He trusted it might soon attain the four figure proportions its president, Bro. A. M. Cohen, was so desirous of witnessing. Bro. Da Silva here sang "The Anchor's Weighed," after which Bro. Cohen said he wished the Bro. Cohen of the past days could respond for the Bro. Cohen of the present. To do full honour to the toast he should require the eloquence of a Cicero, but would do his best. Bro. Cohen gave an interesting account of the Lodge Benevolent Fund, to which as its object was the relief of Lodge members only, they alone were asked to contribute. He hoped that the brethren would that evening enable them to purchase another £100 of stock. Bro. Secretary was zealously waiting with a double pointed pencil, and he trusted the brethren would respond. To the credit of the Israel brethren we must say the Secretary had a very busy time of it, and with satisfactory result. The I.P.M. was next toasted, and the Visitors then received a hearty reception. The W.M. had much pleasure in giving the toast; they were honoured by the attendance of representatives of the Lodges of Tranquillity, Joppa, Montefiore, Samson, and Asaph. With each of these five Lodges there exists a bond of union and sympathy with the Israel Lodge. He would ask Bro. Hymans W.M. Joppa 188 to respond for the Lodges, and also couple with the toast the names of Bros. Nicholson P.M., Athelstan 19, and C. H. Webb P.M. 1607. To Bro. Webb especially the W.M. was indebted for the proud position he then filled, he having received instruction from Bro. Webb. Bro. Linging gave a sketch, which created much amusement. Bro. Hymans thanked the brethren on behalf of the sister Lodges, and Bros. Nicholson and Webb also responded. The W.M. here rose to say he would further connect the names of Bros. Musto P.M. and Stephens with the toast, they being respectively the Preceptor and Hon. Sec. of the Lodge of Instruction held under the Warrant of the Israel Lodge. This was received with enthusiasm, as many of the brethren and the newly-appointed Officers are gaining their Masonic knowledge at this Lodge, which Bro. Norden claimed to be one of the best to be found. Bro. Musto P.M. suitably responded, and the Past Masters were toasted. Bro. A. M. Cohen said it would require but few words from him to express the thanks of the P.M.'s. For himself, for a great number of years, he could say that there was no capacity in the Lodge which the P.M.'s had not filled, and were capable of filling whenever called upon. The Officers was next given; of Bro. S.W. the W.M. said it was only through his diffidence that he was not in the position of W.M. Bro. J.W. they would find a first rate worker. Bro. Treasurer, he was sorry to say, was, through ill-health, unable to be present; how well and faithfully he had always done his duty his re-election would testify. He trusted the G.A.O.T.U. would in His mercy and goodness be pleased to speedily restore him to health. Bro. Secretary was well known to all, and the W.M. was sure if the brethren were to search all the world they could not find his superior. Through his influence with the W.M., he had brought the Lodge out of debt, and with a balance on the right side. He asked them to drink to the Officers of the Lodge. Bro. S.W., in reply, said he would simply thank them for the hearty reception of the toast, and assure them of his constant endeavour to give them satisfaction. Bro. J.W. expressed himself almost overcome, in the presence of so distinguished an assembly of Grand Lodge Officers, representing as they did the elite of the Masonic world, surrounded as he was by so many distinguished members of the Craft, at having to respond as an Officer of the Lodge. The cordial manner in which their health had been drunk was not only a reward for past labours, but would prove an incentive to work for the Lodge, and so reach the proud position he saw so many brethren had attained. On behalf of himself and the junior Officers, he returned thanks for the toast. Bro. Secretary alluded to the lamented absence of Bro. Coote. He was sure if good wishes and heartfelt prayers could have restored that brother, he would have been among them. However, although upon a bed of sickness, he had a first-rate doctor, a Bro. Mason—Bro. Trollope—who Bro. Hogard believed was a Provincial Grand Officer. We hope he will soon be restored to that health he has hitherto enjoyed. Bro. I. P. Cohen P.M. M.C. also humorously returned thanks, and the Tyler's toast was the signal for dispersal, after spending a happy evening. Among the items contributing to that end may be mentioned the excellent pianoforte playing of Bro. Davies 1017; a capital rendering of "The Execution of Montrose," by Bro. J. H. Clynds (St. Michael's); a song, "She wore a Wreath of Roses," by Bro. Stephens; a solo, whistled by Bro. A. Abrahams, &c., all of which were greatly enjoyed. The Visitors present were—Wor. Bros. J. L. Thomas Lodge 142 P.G.D.C., C. A. Cottebrune 733 957 Past Grand Pur., E. P. Albert 188 1017, &c., Past Grand Pur.,

Digitized by Google

Watson Albion 9, Maidwell P.M. Egyptian 27, Nicholson P.M. Athelstan 19, Greasley 47, Russell P.M. Freedom 77 P.P.S.G.D. Kent, Hymans W.M. Joppa 188, Hickman P.M. Joppa 188, Williams Devonshire 594, Salomons W.M. Montefiore 1017, Davis Montefiore 1017, Hunt St. Paul's 194, Lazarus P.M. 53, 95, 335, G. H. Stephens I.G. 1623, Linging Westminster 1563, Bowyer P.M. 1580 P.P.G.D. Herts, Myers 185, Case 188, Levi Prince of Wales 671, Coote jun. Asaph 1319, Musto P.M. 1349, Webb W.M. 174, Grammar I.G. 27, Clynd's St. Michael's, Crosswaite late 205.

LION LODGE, No. 312.

ON Monday, 19th January, the members of this Lodge met at their hall, Whitby, when Bro. John Stevenson P.M., acting as installing Officer, installed Bro. Francis Thornton as W.M. for the ensuing year. The following appointments were made:—Bros. W. G. Lockey S.W., W. E. Wolsey J.W., George Farren S.D., Lieut. Walker Stokesby J.D., Brookes I.G., Thomas Harland D.C., J. N. Lawson P.M. Treasurer, J. B. Dale Secretary, Henry Hallgate Organist, T. H. Trueman Tyler. In the evening a banquet was held at the Royal Hotel, the W.M. presiding. The usual Loyal, Masonic, and complimentary toasts were given.

LODGE OF UNION, No. 414.

THIS Lodge held its monthly Installation meeting on Tuesday, 20th January 1880, at the Masonic Hall, Reading. Present—Bros. Charles Oades W.M., Samuel Bradley (W.M. elect) S.W., Charles Stephens J.W., M. J. Withers Secretary, S. A. Pocock P.M. Treasurer, R. C. Mount P.M. S.D., F. J. Ferguson J.D., A. W. Parry D.C., F. Davis Organist, S. Wheeler I.G., W. Hemmings Tyler; Past Masters Bros. Hounslow, Long. Smith, Baker, Strachan, Weightman, R. Bradley Prov. G. Sec.; Members—Bros. Butler, E. Davis, Higgs, Moffatt, Webb, Hart, Stallwood P.M. 558, J. R. Hayward, J. W. Martin, Haynes, Hawkes, Armstrong, Albury, R. Brachir; Visitors—Bros. Hurley P.M. 414, Cooper 1566, Ravenscroft 1101, Hester P.M. 749, Painter P.M. 749 1379, Cox W.M. 1566, Ivey P.M. Secretary 1101, Margrett P.M. 1101, Stransom Treasurer 1101, Danks W.M. 1101, Willoughby 1572, W. Ridley S.St. 1101. Business: The Lodge was opened with musical accompaniment. The minutes of the last regular Lodge were read and confirmed. Mr. Arthur Edward Lloyd Oswell and Mr. Frederick Henry George were initiated into Freemasonry, the ceremony being performed in Bro. Oades' usual correct and impressive manner. The Lodge was opened in the second degree, when the W.M. resigned his gavel into the hands of the Installing Master Bro. Moxhay, and proceeded to introduce Bro. Bradley S.W. as the W.M. elect, and as his successor to receive at his hands the benefit of installation. We have so often had the pleasure of describing Bro. Moxhay's beautiful ritual of installation, that we shall only say that he was quite as good, or better, than usual. The Antient Charges having been recited and responded to, and the Lodge having been opened in the third degree, when all but P.M.'s retired, the Board of Past Masters was declared duly formed, and Bro. Bradley was, with the accustomed ceremonies, placed in the chair of K.S., and proceeded to invest as his I.P.M. Bro. Oades. The Lodge was resumed in the third degree, and again to the second and first, after the usual salutations in each degree had been given, under the direction of Bro. Ivey P.M. and Secretary 1101, who officiated on this occasion as D.C. The vocal and instrumental music greatly added to the beauty and solemnity of the ceremonies, the former by Bros. Hounslow, R. Bradley, and Stallwood, and the latter by Bro. Davis Organist. After proclamations and the excellent addresses by the Installing Master and the investment of Officers, the Lodge was closed, and the brethren retired for refreshment to the George Hotel, where an elegant banquet was set down to by about fifty brethren. The usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were given and responded to, each toast being accompanied by appropriate music and singing. The Masonic Charities was given by Bro. Bracher, who made a fervent appeal to the brethren to support those noble Charities, which were the real ornament of the Craft; he also urged the case of Bro. Leaver, who had faithfully served the office of Secretary of the Lodge for upwards of thirty years, and alluded to the Stewardship of Bro. Charles Stephens S.W. and Bro. F. Ferguson S.D., who would represent the Lodge at the forthcoming Festival of the R.M.B.I. During this address the broken column was passed round, and received the contributions of the brethren, the result of which was very satisfactory to the Treasurer. The toast of the Installing Master produced a round of applause. Bro. Moxhay, in responding, was most happy in his expressions, giving caution to the newly initiated not to be led astray by those who call themselves Masons, for the purpose of obtaining the coin out of their purses, and who live upon mendicity; they should always be referred to the Almoner, who would see that they were not neglected if they proved themselves worthy; he also dropped some useful hints to the brethren generally, upon the subject of temperance. The speech was one of Bro. Moxhay's best. The Worshipful Master and brethren of Grey Friars Lodge 1101 was responded to by Bro. Danks W.M., who in a most fraternal manner spoke of the excellent working he had the pleasure of witnessing, and expressed his satisfaction at the perfect harmony that existed between the two Lodges, which he hoped might long continue. We have not space to give all the toasts and speeches which were delivered on this auspicious occasion; suffice it to say, they were all excellent, and the Tyler's toast concluded a most agreeable meeting. The brethren separated at an early hour, much gratified.

CAMALODUNUM LODGE, No. 660.

THE Installation meeting in connection with the Camalodunum Lodge was held at Malton on Tuesday, 20th January. The brethren met at Freemasons' Hall, Yorkersgate, where the ceremony of Installing Bro. A. W. Walker, of Norton, was performed by Bro. Samuel King P.M. and P.P.G.S.W. The W.M. appointed the following as his Officers for the year, viz.:—Bros. Rev. W. G. Chilman (Vicar of Wharram) Chaplain, J. W. Marshall S.W., T. B. Smith J.W., John Gibson jun. S.D., J. B. Nichols J.D., Robert Hartley Bower Treasurer, J. D. Dodsworth Secretary, James Buckle I.G., W. Newby and A. H. Smithson Stewards, W. Heckley Organist, and Kirton Waudby Tyler. After the investiture the brethren dined together at the Talbot Hotel, where the usual Masonic toasts were duly honoured. Several visiting brethren from other Lodges in the province were present.

PRIORY LODGE No. 1000.

THE installation meeting of this Lodge took place at the Middleton Hotel, Southend-on-Sea, on Wednesday, 21st ult. The W.M. Bro. J. C. Johnstone P.M. :0 I.C. opened the Lodge, assisted by his Officers. After the usual routine business the V.W. Bro. S. R. Wigram P.G.C. of England and D.G.M. of the Province was announced and received with the honours due to his rank. Bro. G. F. Jones W.M. elect was then presented by Bro. A. Lucking P.M. 160, P.M. and P.Z. 1000, Prov. G.D.C., to the outgoing W.M. for the benefit of Installation, who proceeded to instal his successor in the chair, which ceremony was performed in a most effective and impressive manner. The following Officers were invested, viz.:—Bros. J. C. Johnstone I.P.M., G. Berry S.W., T. F. Barrett J.W., F. Wood P.M. P.P.S.G.W. (re-elected) Treas., J. A. Wardell P.M. 160, P.M. and P.Z. 1000, Prov. A.G.D.C. (re-appointed) Sec., Rev. H. J. Hatch P.M. 160 P.P.G. Chap., W. D. Merritt S.D., F. D. Grayson J.D., W. G. Brighten P.M. P.Z. I.G., G. R. Dawson D.C., F. Canton and W. Waterhouse Stewards, A. Martin Tyler. A vote of thanks was passed to the V.W. Bro. the Deputy Prov. G. Master for attending the Lodge, and also to Bro. J. C. Johnstone for his able rendering of the ceremony of installation. All business being ended, the Lodge was closed and the brethren adjourned to banquet. The usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were proposed and duly responded to. Bro. Rev. S. R. Wigram in proposing the health of the I.P.M. complimented him on the highly efficient manner in which he had installed his successor, and presented him with a P.M.'s jewel in recognition of the valuable services he had rendered the Lodge as W.M. during the past year. Bro. Rev. S. R. Wigram responded to the toast of the Masonic Charities, and made an eloquent appeal to the brethren on behalf of those deserving Institutions, and announced his intention of serving as Steward for the Benevolent, and also for the Boys' School, at the approaching Festivals. The Tyler's toast brought the proceedings to a close. Amongst those present, besides those mentioned above, were Bros. H. Rowley P.M. P.P.G.D., J. R. Hemmann P.M. P.P.G.D., J. Reeve P.M. 160, G. F. Collins, H. Sucker, Jas. Girling, G. J. Glasscock S.W. 1817, B. Johnston, T. Dickson, H. Beecher, Rev. H. Hayes, W. J. Chignell, R. Hassell, A. F. Godward. Visitors—Bros. W. Pissey P.M. 60, P.M. Sec. 1734, P.P.G.W., T. King W.M. 160 Prov. G.P., C. Eltham W.M. 1817, E. G. Phillips P.M. 96, H. Jones 1227, J. A. Withers 211, H. Harper J.W. 160, W. White 179.

GREAT NORTHERN LODGE, No. 1287.

THE Installation meeting was held on Thursday, the 22nd ult., at Freemasons' Hall, Gt. Queen-street; Bros. G. West W.M., W. Robinson S.W., S. Webb P.M. Treasurer, Staton P.M. Secretary; P.M.'s Bros. Reed, Lancaster, Forbes, and Christie; Bros. Pellatt, Kain, Lancaster, Robinson, Hemming, &c. The Lodge was opened and the minutes were confirmed. Messrs. Hill, Thierry, and Bell were duly initiated into the Order. Bro. W. Robinson S.W. and W.M. elect was presented to the Lodge, and duly installed into the chair by the retiring W.M. Bro. G. West, in a very able and impressive manner. The following Officers were invested:—Bros. G. West I.P.M., Arkell S.W., Trebbell J.W., S. Webb P.M. Treasurer, Staton P.M. Secretary, Owen S.D., Cleghorn J.D., Bathard I.G., C. Kempton D.C., Rawles Tyler. The Lodge was then closed and the brethren sat down to a sumptuous banquet provided by Bro. A. Best, and superintended by Bro. E. Dawkins. The toast of the W.M. was enthusiastically received. In proposing the toast of the I.P.M. Bro. Robinson spoke of the excellent manner in which Bro. West had performed the ceremony of installation; in the name of the Lodge he presented him with a very elegant gold P.M.'s jewel for the efficient manner he had discharged the duties of the chair during his year of office. The toasts of the Wardens, Visitors, P.M.'s, and Officers, in due course were proposed and appropriately responded to. The Tyler's toast was given, and the brethren separated. Visitors—Bros. Brogg 25, Reid 72, Cox 144, Walbancke 144, Grove 188, Gardener 188, Carter P.M. 141, Capes 190, Stacey P.M. 209, Aronson 1044, Burton P.M. 1024, Klenck P.M. 1339 and 1686, Rudderforth W.M. 1668, Payne W.M. 1328, Storr W.M. 1769, Bailey 151, Joyce (Lewis Lodge), and Marshall 1585.

ANCHOR LODGE, No. 1337.

THE brethren of this Lodge met at the Freemasons' Hall, Northallerton, on Tuesday, 20th inst., to celebrate the annual festival and installation of Bro. C. Palliser P.M. the W.M. elect. The ceremony was performed in a most impressive manner by Bro. A. C. Knowles, of Stockton-on-Tees, P.P.G.D. Durham, after which the W.M. proceeded to invest his Officers for the year as follows:—Bros. R. Palliser S.W., J. Wheldon J.W., C. Waistell P.M. Treas., W. Stead Sec., J. Stainsby S.D., R. H. Scotheran J.D., N. Russell jun. I.G., E. Wilkinson Tyler, and G. Walker and G. Chapman Stewards. There was a large attendance of brethren from the neighbouring Lodges, amongst whom were the following :—Bros. H. C. Pickersgill Sec. 837, Rev. W. C. Lukis P.P.G.C. I.P.M. 837, P. Donaldson W.M. 837, W. McConachie J.D. 837, F. Barroby 837, J. Stephenson S.W. 1001, T. Robinson 764, R. Fothergill 123, J. Newton 123, W. Coltman W.M. 1416, T. J. Wilkinson I.P.M. 1416, W. Hall S.W. 1416, C. Greensides J.W. 1416, T. Johnson J.D. 1416, G. Ayre P.M. Prov. G.J.D. 1416, J. T. Farmery 1416, J. Hunton P.M. 940, J. J. Thorman I.P.M. 1416, J. Bradley 509, J. F. Newart 602, &c. Letters and telegrams, regretting inability to attend, and congratulating the W.M., were received from Bro. T. B. Whytehead P.M., Bro. J. S. Cumberland P.M., and many other brethren. The brethren afterwards adjourned to the Golden Lion Hotel, where a substantial banquet was partaken of, the chair being occupied by the W.M. and the vice-chair by the S.W. The usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were duly honoured, and the rest of the evening was spent in harmony.

Digitized by Google

THE GREAT CITY LODGE OF INSTRUCTION, No. 1426.

THE sixth anniversary meeting of this prosperous Lodge of Instruction was held at the Masons' Hall, Masons' Avenue, London, E.C., on Thursday, the 29th ult., and was well attended, although, in consequence of the severity of the weather, not quite so fully as had been anticipated. As many of the members and their invited friends reside in the suburbs, the absentees could be, and were, fairly excused for preferring the comforts of their respective homes to the miserable journey through the densest fog with which the City and its environs were ever visited. Amongst those present were the W.M. of the Mother Lodge, Bro. G. W. Blackie, who presided; Past Masters James Stevens, N. B. Headon and James Freeman; Bros. T. Hamer, T. Harper, R. Pawley, L. Lewis, F. Le Rossignol, H. Schove, W. Paddle, T. De Leliva, H. J. King, W. Shaw, J. Jenkins, W. Baber, G. L. Saul Preceptor, G. Lewis, R. A. Morgan, C. A. Baber, H. Warden, G. Taylor, J. Rixworthy, A. R. Staley, J. W. H. Ross P.M. 185, C. Acocks 879 I.C., J. Rush, A. Rule, G. Moss, L. J. Hudd, and others who failed to sign the attendance book. Lodge was opened at 6.30 by the W. Bro. Blackie, and the ceremony of the first degree was ably rehearsed. The Lodge was then "called off" and the brethren dined together. The usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were given, and the subsequent proceedings were pleasantly freed from unnecessary formality—songs and recitals being substituted for speech making. The purport of the meeting could not, however, entirely be lost sight of; and whilst the toast of "Success to The Great City Lodge of Instruction" afforded an opportunity for an excellent résumé of its past proceedings, and a statement as to its present popularity and prosperous position, hearty recognition was accorded to those who had laboured in the past and were now zealously upholding its established credit. To Bros. Blackie, as Secretary from its commencement, and until he became W.M. of the Mother Lodge; T. Poore and G. L. Saul, its past and present Preceptors; T. Hamer Treasurer, and T. Harper the present Secretary, hearty thanks and Masonic honours were given, and by them severally acknowledged. To the Mother Lodge, represented by its Past Masters, a very courteous acknowledgment was extended, and Bros. Stevens, Headon and Freeman briefly responded. At a reasonably early hour the Lodge was "called on," and several new members having been accepted and propositions made, was closed in due order. Shortly afterwards the Tyler's toast was given, and a very harmonious and agreeable evening having been thoroughly enjoyed by all, the brethren dispersed and we presume, if our experience was also theirs, groped their way through "darkness visible" to their respective residences.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT LODGE, No. 1524.

THIS Lodge assembled for the first time at its new quarters, the Moorgate Station Restaurant, E.C., on Thursday, the 29th ult., on the occasion of the installation meeting. Brethren present :—Bros. N. Green W.M., W. H. Brand S.W., F. Brasted J.W., C. W. Smyth Treas., W. H. Lee P.M. Sec., T. C. Chapman P.M., E. Dignam S.D., C. Lorkin J.D., C. L. Payne I.G., A. Ferrar D.C., R. Polak W.S., W. Beasley, G. Reynolds, A. R. Olley, A. Leoffeler, E. Harding, E. W. Silk, J. Varney, H. G. Moon, J. Hill, G. Ferrar, F. Bonner, J. Symes, F. A. Kelly, R. Fisher; also Bro. H. G. Buss Assistant Grand Secretary, an honorary member of the Lodge. After the Lodge had been opened, and the minutes read and confirmed, a satisfactory report from the Audit Committee was received and adopted. The names of four gentlemen appeared on the summons as candidates for initiation; having been duly elected, and being in attendance, Messrs. J. Larter, J. W. White, E. Woodman, and D. Munro, were regularly initiated into Freemasonry. Bro. Brand S.W. the W.M. elect was then presented for installation, and was duly installed as W.M. according to ancient custom, the addresses being delivered by Bro. Lee P.M. and Secretary. The following Officers were appointed :—Bros. F. Brasted S.W., E. Dignam J.W., C. W. Smyth Treas., W. H. Lee P.M. Sec., J. Lorkin S.D., J. L. Payne J.D., A. Ferrar I.G., R. Polak D.C., H. G. Moon Org., J. Hill and R. George Stewards, and J. Marsh Tyler. Some propositions were then received for the next meeting, and a Committee was appointed to revise the Bye-laws, after which the Lodge was closed, and the brethren adjourned to the adjoining banquetting room, where an elegant banquet was served under the personal superintendence of Bro. Kent, the proprietor. The usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were proposed and duly honoured. Bro. Buss Assist. G. Sec. returned thanks for the Grand Officers, and expressed his great gratification in witnessing the continued prosperity of the Duke of Connaught Lodge. The health of the W.M. was next proposed by Bro. Green I.P.M., and cordially received, after which Bro. Brand W.M. returned thanks for the honour conferred upon him, and expressed his great desire to farther the interests and welfare of the Lodge. A valuable jewel was presented to Bro. Green I.P.M. in recognition of his great services during the past year, and his health was drank, and the toast suitably acknowledged. The Initiates was then given, and suitably responded to. Bro. Brand W.M., in proposing the toast of the Visitors, expressed the great gratification he felt in seeing so large a number of visitors assembled to do him honour on the occasion of his installation. Amongst them were some eminent Masons, and he gave them a hearty and cordial welcome. Bros. Cottebrune P.G.P., and W. Stephens Prov. G.D.C. Mid., responded for the Visitors, congratulating the Lodge upon the success it had attained, and wishing it every prosperity in its new quarters. The remaining toasts having been disposed of, the brethren separated, highly pleased with the first meeting of the Lodge at the Moorgate Station Restaurant. It may be added that the rooms, a complete suite on one floor, are highly suitable for Masonic purposes. The following Visitors were present :—Bros. C. A. Cottebrune P.G.P., Wm. Stephens Prov. G.D.C. Middlesex, E. Somers P.M. 1602, W. Fieldwick W.M. 1364, W. Wallington P.M. 860, A. A. Pendlebury P.M. 1056, J. F. Lovelock W.M. 212, W. Rogers J.W. 704, J. Cross J.W. 1194, G. W. Larter 1602, J. W. Dewsnap 188, F. Parkin 749, C. Barrow 1424, H. G. Harris 1586, A. Eldridge 1585, B. Ferdinando 13, F. Hawthorn 1489, F. Dickenson 1298, E. J. Gale 491, A. Chisholm 1602, J. Jones 1681, H. Russell 1669.

PROVINCIAL GRAND LODGE OF DEVON.

THE annual meeting of the Committee of Petitions of this Provincial Grand Lodge was held on the 21st ult. at the Huyshe Masonic Temple, Plymouth. The following brethren were present, representing Lodges :—Bros. James P. Heath W.M. 39, L. D. Westcott P.M. P.P.G.S. Works 70, M. Embden W.M. 105, Rev. W. Whittley P.M. P.P.G.C. 156, Francis Littleton P.M. 159, J. Edward Curteis P.M. P.P.G.S.W. 189, H. Welch P.M. P.P.G.P. 202, W. Browning P.M. P.P.G.D.C. 223, R. Cawsey I.P.M. and Secretary 230, J. R. Dugdale W.M. 954, Henry Cole P.M. 1091, E. A. Davies P.M. P.P.G.S. Works 1099, George Evans P.M. P.P.G.S.D. 1181, James Rendle P.M. and Secretary 1247, Samuel B. Harvey P.M. and Secretary 1255, Vincent Bird P.M. P.P.G.Tr. 1550, William Brodie P.M. P.P.G.J.D. 1753, John B. Gover P.M. 70 P.P.G.A.D.C., the Secretary, and Bro. Charles Godschalk P.M. 70 and 1255, the representative of Devon in London. Bro. J. E. Curteis was elected chairman, and the minutes of the previous meeting having been read and confirmed, the Secretary reported that the Province, as regarded votes for the great Charities, was in a good position. Whilst they were indebted to other Provinces for about 200 votes, they held I.O.U.'s from certain others for over 300 votes. The report was received and adopted. There were only three petitions for assistance—in the first case the widow of a brother of Lodge 39, Exeter, was voted the sum of £5, and this case will be again considered at the next meeting. In the second case a brother of Lodge 156 was voted the sum of £5, and it will be recommended that he receive a further sum of £10 from the P.G. Lodge. In the third case the sum of £5 was voted for the widow of a brother of Lodge 112, Exeter. In each case the expenditure of the money will be under the supervision of the representatives of the different Lodges. The next business was to select from the various candidates, who had been before approved, one aged Freemason, or widow of a Freemason, to receive the united support of the Province. After mature consideration, it was resolved that the widow of a late brother of Lodge 159 and 77 should be the candidate to be so supported. There was then either a boy or girl to be selected for the London Schools, and it was unanimously resolved that the son of a late brother of Lodge 1123, Tiverton, be the Devon candidate. From the admirable way in which the votes are used by Bro. Godschalk for the Province, and from the influence and credit the Province has, both these candidates may be expected to be successful at the approaching elections. It should be known that the committee had before them the difficult task of selecting from fifteen candidates from all parts of the county, all eligible, but they have in this case selected the most necessitous. A letter was read from the Right Worshipful Bro. L. P. Metham P.D.P.G.M., expressing his intention of resigning the Chairmanship of the Committee, an office which he has held from the commencement of its being re-organised. He had been associated with it for a long time, and he knew the large amount of real good which he had been enabled to do in conjunction with the Secretary. It was then unanimously resolved that the R.W. Bro. W. G. Rogers D.P.G.M. of Devon be the Chairman for the ensuing year, his well known business qualifications, high Masonic attainments, and eminent position in the Order ensuring this position. W. Bro. J. B. Gover was re-elected the Secretary, and W. Bro. Charles Godschalk, who was warmly thanked and complimented on his highly successful exertions, was elected the representative of Devon in London. A very hearty vote of thanks was passed in favour of R.W. Bro. Metham for his past services, and there was a general expression of regret that he could no longer give them his assistance. Thanks were also given to Bros. Gover and Godschalk, and an especial vote to V.W. Bro. Curteis for his conduct in the chair, his genial and firm rule having received the admiration of all present.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Rheumatism, Neuralgia.—It is sometimes difficult to determine which of these diseases is afflicting the sufferer, but this ignorance will not matter if Holloway's remedies be used. They alleviate and cure all muscular and nervous pains. In hereditary rheumatism, after bathing the affected parts with warm salt water, Holloway's Ointment should be well rubbed upon the spot, that it may penetrate and exert its soothing and regulating properties on the deeper vessels and nerves, which are unduly excited and cause both the pain and swelling. Holloway's treatment has the merit of removing the disease without debilitating the constitution, which was the inevitable result of the bleeding, mercury, and colchicum practice, formerly adopted in these complaints.

Digitized by Google

PROVINCIAL GRAND LODGE OF BRISTOL.

AN open Provincial Grand Lodge of the Freemasons of the Bristol Province was held on Friday evening, 30th ult., at the Masonic Hall, Park-street. There was a large attendance of the members of the Craft, and the Hall presented a most brilliant appearance. The Provincial Grand Lodge was opened in form by the Deputy Prov. Grand Master Bro. W. A. F. Powell, and there were present Bros. S. E. Taylor P.G. Treas., John F. Norris P.G. Reg., R. M. Worlock P.G. Sec., John Morgan P.G.S.D., Daniel Williams P.G.D.C., Robert Burnett P.G.S.B., E. C. Howell P.G.S.W. and numerous Past Prov. Grand Officers, together with several members of private Lodges. The Very Worshipful D.P.G.M. having conducted the ordinary business of Prov. Grand Lodge, proceeded to fill the chairs of office. Bro. Samuel Ed. Taylor was proposed by the V.W. P.G.M. as P.G. Treas., which office he had held during the past twenty-four years. The proposition was seconded by Bro. Bryant, and carried amidst the acclamations of the brethren. The following brethren were then appointed:—Wm. Barnes (Sussex) P.G.S.W., Montague Worlock (Canynges) P.G.J.W., Pearson (Beaufort) P.G.R., W. Hodges (Jerusalem) P.G. Sec., John Gard (Clarence) P.G.A. Sec., Bond (Colston) P.G.S.D., David Bell (Beaufort) P.G.J.D., Wm. Munro (Moira) P.G.S.W., Daniel Williams (Canynges) P.G.D.C., William Hazard (Beaufort) P.G.A.D.C., Bennett (Sussex) P.G.S.B., J. W. Lawson (Beaufort) P.G.O., William Maby (Clarence) P.G.A.O., Joseph Bingham (Canynges) P.G.P.; Bros. Stoate and Pearce were re-elected P.G. Tylers, and Bros. Anseldo, Halford, Alexander, T. Bamfield, Patterson, Randall, Cope and Anson were nominated Stewards to P.G.L. After the appointments were made, Bro. S. Bryant, in a most telling speech, wherein he referred to the lengthened services to the Craft rendered by the V.W. Bro. W. A. F. Powell, stated that the brethren had caused to be painted a portrait of their esteemed Deputy, which should occupy a place within that beautiful Hall, which he (Bro. Powell) had been mainly instrumental in procuring for the use of the brethren. He then called upon the P.G.R. Bro. John Norris to read the following address:—

To the Very Worshipful William Augustus Frederick Powell, Deputy Provincial Grand Master of the Province of Bristol.

Very Worshipful Sir and Brother,—At a Provincial Grand Lodge meeting, held at Freemasons' Hall, Bristol, on the 31st day of January, A.L. 5878, A.D. 1878, it was proposed by the Worshipful Brother Samuel Bryant P.P. Senior Grand Warden, and seconded by the Worshipful Brother Taylor P.P.S.G.W. Provincial Grand Treasurer, and carried unanimously—"That it is desirable that a portrait of the Worshipful Deputy Provincial Grand Master Brother William Augustus Frederick Powell should be painted and hung in the Freemasons' Hall, with those of other eminent Masons of the Province, and that the Provincial Senior and Junior Grand Wardens for the year, with the Worshipful Masters of the various Lodges, be requested to act as a committee (with power to add to their number) to make the necessary arrangements for the carrying out of this resolution."

The above resolution was, in due course, brought before the Lodges of the Province, and great gratification and pleasure were expressed by all the brethren that, after thirty-seven years' connection with the Province, during five and twenty of which you have held the distinguished position of Deputy Provincial Grand Master, an opportunity was afforded them of testifying their high appreciation of the generous and valuable services you have so constantly rendered to the Craft in general, and the Province under your government in particular. The portrait which has to-night been uncovered will serve to remind us of one to whom the whole province owes a deep debt of gratitude. This address, of which we beg your acceptance, will, we trust, preserve to you the memory of the brethren with whom you have been associated in kindly, cordial, and fraternal relations. Humbly beseeching the Great Architect of the Universe to grant you many years of health and strength, and to have you at all times in His holy keeping.

We remain, on behalf of the subscribers and ourselves,

"Yours very truly and fraternally,

"J. F. NORRIS P.G.R.
"R. MONTAGUE WORLOCK P.G. Sec."

The address, which was beautifully illuminated by Bro. P. A. Kent, of Swansea, and was mounted with a handsome gold frame, was then presented to Bro. Powell, and the portrait unveiled amidst the applause of the brethren. The picture, which is a three-quarter portrait, of life size, is excellently executed in oil by Mons. A. Durant of Clifton, and harmonises capitally with the other portraits which adorn the Lodge. The V.W. D.P.G.M. returned his acknowledgments to the brethren in an admirable speech. The Deputy P.G.M. in explaining the absence of the Provincial Grand Master the Earl of Limerick, stated that he was on his estates in Ireland, using his endeavours to mitigate the suffering which prevails there. A sum of ten guineas was then voted to the Duchess of Marlborough's fund, and a similar sum each to the Boys' and Girls' Schools.

CRYPTIC DEGREES.

Grand Master's Council, No. 1.—A meeting was held on Friday, 29th January, at the Masonic Rooms, 2 Red Lion-square. Present—Bros. C. Walls R.J.D.M., Thos. Poore as Principal Cond. of Works, H. R. Cooper Smith as Captain of Guard, Donald M. Dewar Recorder, Col. Burdett, Frederick Davison, Jas. Stevens, Thos. Cubitt, Robert Roy, Rev. W. Stainton Moses, H. C. Levander, J. E. Anderson, Thos. Meggy, S. C. Dibdin, and many other brethren. Business—Bros. Geo. Cooper, Thos. J. Pulley, Geo. Graveley and E. Passawer were duly admitted as Most Excellent, Royal, Select and Super-Excellent Master, the ceremonies being most ably performed by Bro. Walls, the Deputy Master, assisted by Bros. Poore, Cooper-Smith and Dewar. The Cryptic Degrees are now highly valued.

MARK MASONRY IN READING.

AT the Masonic Hall, Greyfriars'-road, Reading, on Monday, 26th ult., the V. W. Bro. Charles Stephens, Deputy Provincial Grand Master of Mark Masons for the Province of Berks and Oxon, was installed as Worshipful Master of the Leopold Lodge, No. 235, in the presence of about fifty Officers and brethren of the Order. The Lodge was opened at half-past three o'clock, under the presidency of the W.M. Bro. Edward Margrett G.S. Prov. G.J.W., when Bro. H. H. Hodges P.M. Ellington Lodge, No. 1566, Maidenhead, Bro. W. Morris 1566, Bro. R. Nicholson 1566, and Bro. Geo. J. Cosburn Loyal Berkshire Lodge of Hope, No. 574, Newbury, were several balloted for and advanced. The Worshipful Master proposed the Earl of Jersey, Provincial Grand Master, as an honorary member of the Lodge, and the motion being seconded by the W.M. Elect, was unanimously adopted. Before leaving the chair, the W.M. expressed his thanks to the brethren of the Lodge for their co-operation and support during the past year, and moved a special vote of thanks to Bro. T. J. Pulley, the energetic Secretary, for his assiduous labours for the Lodge. The proposal was carried by acclamation, and Bro. Pulley replied, observing that his motto was, "Deeds, not words." The installation of Bro. Stephens as W.M. for the ensuing year was then proceeded with, the ceremony being impressively performed by Bro. Margrett, after which the W.M. appointed and invested the Officers of the Lodge for the ensuing year as follows:—Bro. Arthur Welch S.W., Bro. G. Westall J.W., Bros. J. Egginton M.O., W. G. Flanagan S.O., S. Bradley J.O., Bro. the Rev. C. R. Honey Chaplain; Bro. J. T. Stransom Treasurer; Bro. Henry Ayres Secretary; Bro. John Long R.M., Bro. H. Brett S.D., Bro. W. C. Moffatt J.D., Bro. H. W. Howmann D.C., Bro. W. Hickie Organist, Bro. R. Glasspool I.G., Bro. F. White Steward, Bros. F. Ferguson and C. J. Butler Assistant Stewards, and Bro. Hemmings Tyler. The W.M., in the name of the brethren of the Lodge, then presented a handsome Past Master's jewel to the I.P.M., Bro. Margrett, in recognition of his zealous services during the past year. Bro. Margrett feelingly returned thanks, and after one or two matters of business had been transacted, the Lodge was closed in due form at six o'clock. A banquet was subsequently served by Bro. Bailey at the Upper Ship Hotel, when the usual Masonic toasts were honoured. The W.M. presided, and in addition to the brethren already mentioned, there were present M.W. Bro. the Rev. G. R. Portal Past Grand Master of Mark Masons and Provincial Grand Master of Mark Masons for Hants and the Isle of Wight, W. Bro. Farr P.P.G.W. Bengal, Bros. R. Eve P.M. 54 G.M.O., F. Binckes P.M. 54 Grand Sec., H. Hacker J.W. 54 P.P.G.J.W., F. W. Ansell W.M. 247 P.P.J.O., J. Lamb P.M. 37, D. M. Dewar P.M. Grand Assist. Sec., T. Benham W.M. 54, P.G.D., C. Park S.W. 247 P.G.S.D., Cordrey, Ravenscroft, Dormer, &c. We hear that arrangements are in progress for resuscitating the "Porchester" Lodge of Mark Masons, No. 27, at Newbury.

CORRESPONDENCE.

—:o:—

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents.

We cannot undertake to return rejected communications.

All Letters must bear the name and address of the Writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

LYNCOMBE HOUSE.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—If your correspondent "HERSCHEL" desires not to raise a further discussion on this subject, he should refrain from attributing to the opposition motives for which there does not exist the slightest foundation. "Malicious vindictiveness" may have served its purpose as a party cry, but it is scarcely the suggestion to be expected from one who professes to advocate courtesy in discussion.

"HERSCHEL" does not correctly represent the ground of Bro. Edward Cox's opposition when he confines it to "the price given" for the property. Bro. Cox, in proposing his amendment, ably argued against—1. The policy of the scheme; 2. The form of proceeding; and 3. The extravagant waste of funds. A reference to the report of the discussion in your columns will clearly show this.

The questions propounded by "HERSCHEL" refer to the legality of the expenditure. As you have already published the professional opinions of most eminent counsel,—Mr. C. Lecock Webb, Q.C., on the one side, and Mr. Horace Davy, Q.C., and Mr. Hollis on the other,—I venture to doubt, with all respect to your correspondent, whether any of your readers are now likely to be influenced either by the contention of "HERSCHEL," or by a reply in opposition from,

Yours truly and fraternally,

H.

3rd February 1880.

The great Handel Festival, which will be held at the Crystal Palace this summer, under the joint auspices of the Crystal Palace Company and the Sacred Harmonic Society, has been fixed for Friday 18th, Monday 21st, Wednesday 23rd, and Friday 25th June.

It has been decided by the members of the Metropolitan Lodge of Instruction to have a banquet on Tuesday, 2nd of March, at the Moorgate Station Restaurant.

St. Michael's Lodge, No. 211.—The audit meeting of this Lodge was held on Wednesday, at the Moorgate Station Restaurant. The financial result of the year's work is most satisfactory. The brethren afterwards partook of supper together, which was served in Bro. Kent's usual good form.

Digitized by Google

JAMAICA.

Royal Keystone Lodge of Mark Masters. — The ordinary meeting was held at Friendly Hall, on 15th December, presided over by Bro. J. J. G. Lewis Hon. M. and W.M. of Clifton Mount Lodge, G. Sargeant S.W., E. X. Leon J.W., &c. The following were installed as Officers:—Bros. G. J. Sargeant W.M., E. X. Leon S.W., G. A. Campbell J.W., B. Stones jun. M.O., J. N. Aguilar S.O., T. Demetrius J.O., S. A. Iffla Treasurer, A. P. Athya Reg. of Marks, W. R. Ryder Secretary, J. F. Fryer S.D., R. J. McPherson J.D., A. Tripe I.G., J. Hayes Tyler. Several Past Masters and brethren of sister Lodges were present. Bro. R. Langley I.P.M. was unable to attend from sickness. The brethren afterwards adjourned for light refreshments.

The R.W. A. E. Burke, P.P.G. Sec. of Scotland for Jamaica, has been appointed Haytian Consul for this port.

Bro. Harris, S.W. of the Sussex Lodge, has been elected Master; the Installation took place in January.

The R.W. J. L. Ashemieu has been elected Master of the Friendly Lodge, and was to have been installed on the 12th January. This is the second time this Brother has occupied the chair.

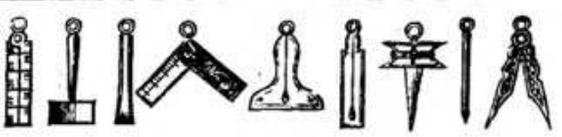
Bro. Pearce S.W. of the St. John's Lodge (S.C.) was elected Master at a meeting held on St. John's Day.

Presentation.—On Christmas morning last, Captain G. F. Coward, Dr. J. Pringle, Bros. H. F. Hire, J. Nelson, and A. C. Solomon, on behalf of several members of the Caledonian Lodge, Port Maria, waited on Bro. D. N. Berwick, at his residence, and presented him with a very fine gold Past Master's Jewel. Captain Coward (the W.M. elect) presented the jewel in appropriate terms, and his remarks were endorsed by the other brethren who formed the deputation. Bro. Berwick, in a few well-chosen words, acknowledged the compliment. The jewel is a beautiful work of art, and bears the following inscription:—"Presented to the Rt. Wor. D. N. Berwick P.M. P.G.J.D. by 15 members of the Caledonian Lodge, No. 554 S.C., Port Maria, Jamaica, as a mark of esteem, and in appreciation of services rendered to the Lodge."

AMOY, CHINA.

THE members of the Ionic Lodge held a most successful meeting on Tuesday, 9th Dec., at the Masonic Hall, Kulangsu, for the purpose of installing Wor. Bro. H. A. Giles, H.B.M. Consul, as their Master for the ensuing year. A number of visiting brethren from the fleet honored them with their presence, indeed one of the most pleasing features of this meeting was the attendance of several Blue Jackets, and this goes far to prove the trite saying that in Masonry "all meet on the level and part on the square," for here we acknowledge no class distinctions. The noble Hall that the zeal and liberality of the Amoy Masons has given to this little island was tested to its fullest extent, and we heard nothing but praise as to its splendid fittings, and the perfection of its acoustic properties. Several very handsome donations were made to the Hall Fund. The wife of one of our prominent Masons made the Lodge a present of a set of magnificent markers for the Volume of the Sacred Law; another gift was two excellent engravings of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and the late Prince Consort, both loved Patrons of the Noble Order. We are glad to find that Bro. W. C. Howard, W.M. elect of the Sister Lodge--the Corinthian—received the highest honour it was in the power of the Ionic Lodge to bestow; he was elected the first honorary member of the Ionic as a slight acknowledgment of his invaluable services in the building of this splendid Hall, and we are sure the compliment will be appreciated by his own Lodge, and that the year that has been ushered in so successfully will be one of great progress and of renewed effort in promoting the benefits of brotherly love and good fellowship amongst our little community.

The new Masonic Hall on Kulangsu was again lighted up and thrown open to all brethren of the "Mystic Tie" on Saturday evening, 13th Dec. The occasion was that of the installation of Bro. Howard, Harbour Master at Amoy, and Junior Warden of the Corinthian Lodge, as Worshipful Master for the ensuing year. A large number of distinguished Masons were present, no less than five P.M's occupying the dais, among whom were most of the brethren from the sister Lodge and many officers from the British and United States' navies. The absence of the Ling Feng from the port was much regretted, entailing as it did the absence of her Commander and four of her Officers. However, in spite of this and other unlooked for contingencies, the Hall was well filled and a worthy object of admiration to the numerous visitors. We hope to see it "warmed" before long in a manner creditable to the well-known hospitality and liberality of the Craft.



Worshipful Bro. H. Æ. Sidford P.M. of 1027, 1433, and 1781 E.C. and D.G.S.W. for Hong Kong and South China, in writing to us from the Far East, says:—"I am glad to tell you that we have made great progress here since Masonic light dawned upon Amoy, a short year and six months ago. Not content at hiring rooms, the Craft set to work, and have erected a splendid building devoted solely to Masonry. The Lodge Room is fifty feet by twenty-five, and has an open vaulted timbered roof, and refreshment, preparation, and other rooms in proportion." As soon as the place is thoroughly finished, he hopes to have a photograph sent to some of the London illustrated papers. He has enclosed us several reports of proceedings which may prove interesting to some of our readers, and we are sure wherever Bro. Sidford resides, there will the lights be found burning brightly. He has done well for the Craft, as witness the formation of four Lodges in China, the outcome of his exertions, namely, Tuscan 1027, in Shanghai in 1864; Doric 1433, in Ching Kiang in 1873; Ionic and Corinthian 1781 and 1806 in Amoy in 1878. If he was to form yet another, he would doubtless complete—what we imagine is his intention—the Five Orders of Architecture.

The Silvertown, Canning Town, and Victoria Dock Freehold Land and Building Company Limited, has been established to enable its shareholders to obtain the large profits made on the purchase and sale of estates by laying them out in building plots; also on the building, purchase, and sale of houses and land. The prospects of the Company are of the most promising character, the enormous extension of the Victoria Dock and other large industries in this part of London making it certain that a great demand for house property in the neighbourhood will speedily arise. The Company is registered under the Limited Liabilities Acts, so that shareholders stand no risk beyond the amount of their shares. Among the gentlemen connected with the management we notice Bros. James Patrick Muir, Michael Adamson, William Henry Hooper, John Wilton, Directors; Bros. Avery and Jennings (of the firm of Wolferstan, Avery, and Jennings), Solicitors; Bros. Gordon and Lowther, Architects and Surveyors; and Bro. F. A. White, Secretary. The first issue of shares will be allotted on the 14th instant, when we hope to hear that a large number have been applied for.

The utter failure of the 1879 vintage in the Champagne districts has very naturally enhanced the prices of the well-known Cuvée and Brands, so that we must look for other Vin Mousseux if we wish to economise and yet enjoy the wholesome. A new sparkling wine has recently been imported by Messrs. J. E. Shand and Co., and on the occasion of the recent Markets Exhibition at the Agricultural Hall was referred to by the Times and other journals. This sparkling Sauterne is of 1875 vintage, sec and extra sec; the price at which it is offered brings it within the reach of all. We have tried the wine ourselves, and can recommend it to our readers.

The proprietors of the Portsmouth Times and Naval Gazette announce that in future that paper will be issued on Wednesday and Saturday mornings at one penny; and also that the mid-weekly edition will be permanently enlarged to eight pages. Arrangements have also been made for the amalgamation of the West Sussex County Chronicle and Chichester, Midhurst and Petersfield Advertiser with the Portsmouth Times, so that the paper may be expected to become even more interesting than before. We trust our brethren in its district will do what they can to support the proprietors in making this enlargement; they are well known as advocates for the Masonic cause, and we have no doubt will continue as opportunity offers to devote a portion of their space to the doings of the Craft.

FISH DINNERS IN PERFECTION
2S EACH, including Soups, Entrées, Poultry, Joints, Cheese, Salad,
Served from 12 to 4 daily.—GEORGE TAVERN, Billingsgate Market.
Sole Proprietor, GEORGE SMITH, from Anderton's Hotel.

LATEST NOVELTY.
MASONIC CHARM FOR CHAIN.
The whole of the working Tools complete as above.
MOUNTED IN GOOD GOLD AND ORNAMENTALLY ENGRAVED.
To be had of the maker on receipt of 25s.
E. PELIKAN, Manufacturing Jeweller,
No. 102 St. John Street Road, London, E.C.
P.O.O. to be made payable at the St. John Street Road Office.

IVORY HAIR BRUSHES
Mirrors & all other Ivory Toilet Articles,

& IVORY GOODS IN GENERAL,
Wholesale & for Exportation & the Trade only.

AT HENNIG BROS. Ivory Works,
11, HIGH STREET, LONDON, W.C.

FREEMASONS' CALENDAR and POCKET-BOOK, containing a complete list of all the regular Lodges and Royal Arch Chapters, with their places and times of meeting. Published for the benefit of the Charity Fund, under the sanction of the United Grand Lodge of England. May be had from W. W. Morgan jun., FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, London, W.C. Price 2s., post free.

Ninth Edition, post free, One Shilling.
DR. WATTS on ASTHMA. A Treatise on the only Successful Method of Curing the Disease. By ROBERT G. WATTS, M.D., F.R.S.L., &c., 5 Bulstrode-street, Cavendish-square, London.
London: MITCHELL AND CO., Red Lion-court, Fleet-street.

FURNITURE FOR LODGE OF INSTRUCTION.—Complete Set, nearly new, for Sale. Address, J. W. H., "FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE" Office, 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

Digitized by Google

ROYAL
MASONIC BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION
FOR
AGED FREEMASONS AND WIDOWS OF FREEMASONS,
CROYDON.
—:o:—
Patron and President:
HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, K.G., &c., M.W.G.M
—:o:—

THE ANNIVERSARY FESTIVAL
OF THIS INSTITUTION WILL TAKE PLACE ON
MONDAY, 9TH FEBRUARY 1880,
AT
FREEMASONS' TAVERN, GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON,
UPON WHICH OCCASION
The Right Hon. the EARL OF ZETLAND,
R.W. PROV. G.M. FOR NORTH AND EAST YORKSHIRE,
Has been pleased to signify his intention of presiding.

Brethren desirous of accepting the Office of Steward upon this occasion will greatly oblige by forwarding their Names and Masonic Rank as soon as convenient, to the Secretary, who will gladly give any information required.

JAMES TERRY, P. Prov. G.J.W. Herts,
Secretary.

4 Freemasons' Hall, London, W.C.

ANDERTON'S HOTEL,
F. H. CLEMOW, PROPRIETOR,
Nos. 162, 164 & 165 Fleet Street, and 7 & 11 Johnson's Court, London.

THE ACCOMMODATION OFFERED AT THIS ESTABLISHMENT FOR
MASONIC MEETINGS, BANQUETS, &c.
IS UNRIVALLED.

THE premises have lately been rebuilt, and in order to maintain the time-honored reputation of the house, as one of the centres of London Freemasonry, special attention has been paid to the furnishing of Lodge quarters, which now comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL
Specially constructed for Masonic purposes, with preparation room adjoining.
A LARGE BANQUET HALL
Fitted with every necessary for the comfort of Visitors, &c., &c.

ROOMS FOR LARGE OR SMALL DINNER PARTIES, MEETINGS, &c.

THE CATHEDRAL HOTEL,
CORNER OF
CHEAPSIDE & ST. PAUL'S CHURCHYARD.
—:o:—
F. J. SWEETING, Proprietor.
—:o:—
LUNCHEON BAR ON GROUND FLOOR FOR LIGHT REFRESHMENTS.
Soups, Fish, Chops, Steaks, Entrées, Cold Joints, &c. from Eight a.m. till Ten p.m.

DINING ROOMS ON FIRST FLOOR.
Hot Joints, &c. from Twelve o'Clock daily.
Dinners a la Carte. Teas, &c.

THE "CATHEDRAL HALF-CROWN DINNER"
(Soup, Fish, Joint)
Is served in the Saloon from Twelve till Five daily.

The Smoking Room overlooks the New Gardens round St. Paul's Cathedral.

PRIVATE ROOMS FOR SMALL PARTIES, MASONIC AUDITS, &c.

The following Lodges have recently held their Audit Meetings at this Hotel:—GROSVENOR, STANHOPE, POLISH NATIONAL, LA TOLERANCE, &c.

VITRUVIAN LODGE, No. 87.

BRO. ISAAC, who has for some time past provided for the requirements of this Lodge, begs to announce that he has obtained permission for the removal of his license to the Belvedere-road, and that he has erected commodious premises there. These comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL.
WITH ANTE ROOMS,
LARGE BANQUETTING HALL,
Together with every convenience for Masonic gatherings.

Applications from Secretaries and others for accommodation to be addressed.
G. ISAAC, "WHITE HART," COLLEGE STREET, LAMBETH, LONDON, S.E.

DINNERS FROM THE JOINT from TWELVE to THREE o'clock, CHOPS and STEAKS from the GRILL till FIVE o'clock. T. MAIDWELL, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-st., City, E.C.

THE FREEMASONS' TAVERN,
GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON, W.C.
The admirable and unrivalled accommodation provided at thi Establishment for
MASONIC BANQUETS,
PUBLIC AND PRIVATE DINNERS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, BALLS, &c.
Is too well known to need comment. The entire management has been changed, and the Establishment in all its branches thoroughly re-organised.
The attention of the Masonic Body is directed to the many advantages offered.
CUISINE OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER.
WINES PERFECT IN CONDITION AND QUALITY.
N.B.—DINNERS PROVIDED FROM 3/-.
RESTAURANT, WINE, SMOKING & RETIRING ROOMS.
The fullest measure of public confidence and support ensured.
BRO. ALFRED BEST, PROPRIETOR.

OPENING OF THE
CRITERION ANNEXE.

SPIERS & POND respectfully beg to inform their Patrons, that to meet the increasing demands of their business at the Criterion, the premises have been greatly enlarged, by the addition of the above building. The principal features of the New Establishment are as follows:—

The Cafe, comprising—
The American Bar,
The Vienna Bier Saal,
VIANDS FROM THE NEW GRILL. SUPPERS SERVED TILL MIDNIGHT.
Oysters a Specialite.

The Victoria Hall, for Banquets, Balls, Wedding Breakfasts, Soirées, and Entertainments.

The Prince's and Carnarvon Rooms, for Masonic Meetings, Banquets, &c.

Private Rooms, suitable for the meetings of Public and Corporate Bodies, Arbitrations, &c.

The Criterion Departments.

Buffet	For Luncheons and Light Refreshments.
Restaurant	Dinners a la Carte.
Cigar Divan	Facing Piccadilly entrance.
Smoking Room ...	Adjoining the Buffet.
Grill Room	Entrance in Jermyn Street.
West Dining Room	Le Diner Parisien daily from 5.30 Sundays.	p.m., and on
East Dining Room ...	Dinners à la Carte.
The Grand Hall ...	Table d'Hote daily, from 5.30 till 8 p.m. (also on Sundays at 6).
Private Rooms ...	For Dinners, Wedding Breakfasts, &c., &c.

SAWYER'S (LATE STATION) RESTAURANT,
5 RAILWAY PLACE, FENCHURCH STREET, E.C.

ENGLISH, FRENCH & GERMAN CUISINE.

Hot and Cold Luncheons on the Ground Floor:
This Room will accommodate 100 persons.

CHOPS, STEAKS, &c., FROM THE GRILL;
The Grill Room will seat 150 persons.

REID'S TREBLE STOUT. WORTHINGTON'S ALES,
BERLIN TIVOLI BEER.

TEA AND COFFEE ALWAYS READY.

CHAMPAGNES OF THE BEST BRANDS. OLD BOTTLED PORTS.
SHERRIES AND OTHER WINES OF THE BEST QUALITY.

Bro. F. J. SAWYER, Proprietor.
Late of Pimm's, and the Crystal Palace.

DRESS SHIRTS.

ALFRED BURDEN devotes his special attention to this important article of Dress, and
GUARANTEES A PERFECT FIT.
GLOVES, HOSIERY, SCARVES, RUGS,
DRESSING ROBES AND SUITS.

THE "PYJAMAS" WAREHOUSE,
A. BURDEN & Co.,
51 CONDUIT STREET, W.

MASONIC HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS,
1 NOTTING HILL SQUARE, W.

THE SCHOOL has been established to provide a High Class Education to sons of Freemasons and others, on moderate terms. There are scholarships of the annual value of £10 to £20, and Exhibitions of £30. Terms for sons of Freemasons from 4 to 7 guineas per term, for other pupils from 5 to 8 guineas per term. For further particulars apply to the Secretary, or to

E. PASSAWER, LL.D.
Head Master.

Digitized by Google

28 GREAT QUEEN STREET, W.C.

SUPREME GRAND CHAPTER OF ENGLAND.

THE Quarterly Convocation of Supreme Grand Chapter was held on Wednesday evening, at Freemasons' Hall. Comp. W. W. B. Beach, M.P., Grand Superintendent of Hants and the Isle of Wight, acted as M.E.Z., Rev. C. J. Martyn, Grand Superintendent of Suffolk, as H., Comp. Powell, Grand Supert. of Bristol as J., Shadwell H. Clerke S.E., Burt S.N., Capt. W. Platt P.S., James Glaisher 1st A.S., J. A. Rucker 2nd A.S., Col. Creaton Treas., James Lewis Thomas as Swd. B., Thomas Fenn P. Swd. B., H. J. P. Dumas P. Swd. B., J. C. Parkinson P. Swd. B., Samuel Mullens D.C., Joshua Nunn P.D.C., J. M. Case P.D.C., Robert Grey P.A.S., H. G. Buss P. Std. B., and a large number of Comps. also attended. Comp. Beach informed the Comps. that in conformity with the Royal Arch Regulations, p 24, Comp. Shadwell Clerke took the position of Grand Scribe E. Warrants were granted for the William Kingston Chapter, No. 407, Valetta, Malta; St. Andrew's Chapter, No. 1631, Gorleston, Suffolk; Friendly Chapter, No. 1513, Barnsley, Yorkshire; Ravensborne Chapter, No. 1601, Catford Bridge, Lewisham; and the Highgate Chapter, No. 1366, Highgate, Middlesex. Comp. Beach stated that after a long correspondence and much consideration, his objections to the granting of a warrant for the Aldershot Camp Chapter had been overcome, and he now gave his recommendation that it be granted, on condition that only military brethren be members of the Chapter. The motion was seconded by Comp. H. Hacker, and carried unanimously. After the Comps. had adopted the remainder of the report of the Committee of General Purposes, as published in the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE last week, Comp. W. Smallpeice P.Z. No. 21, brought forward his motion "That Clause five (5), page five (5), of the Book of Regulations of the Royal Arch be repealed in order that all Companions may be present at the opening of private Chapters." Companions were allowed to be present at the closing of Chapters, when the form was almost the same. No insight was given into the secrets of the chair in the opening, and he did not see why all Companions should not be present. When Companions reached the position of Principals they consequently knew nothing of their duty in opening, and he felt that his work as an instructor in Royal Arch Masonry was incomplete while he could not instruct in the ceremony of opening. Comp. H. Garrod seconded the motion, which was opposed, first by Comp. Thomas Fenn, Past Sword Bearer, who deprecated any resolution having in view an alteration of any of the Masonic ceremonies. Conscientiously and consistently he resisted every attempt at tampering with ceremonies, either in the Craft or Arch, and although the present was very small and trivial, there were reasons why ordinary members of a Chapter should not be present at the ceremony of opening. If the clause complained of had never existed, no one beneath the rank of a Principal could attend Grand Chapter, which was as essentially a Past Principals' Chapter as Grand Lodge was a Master Masons' Lodge, which no Entered Apprentice could attend. He questioned very much whether Grand Chapter had any right to alter its ceremonies, because it had peculiar secrets, agreed upon by a Committee first, and afterwards acknowledged by Grand Lodge, and if they were altered Grand Chapter would have to go to Grand Lodge again. There was no hardship in the present system, by which Comps. were only kept out of the Chapter about four minutes. The matter might be considered by a Committee, who should examine the records, and go back to 1835, when a Committee was appointed, which settled the present system of working. If they examined, they would probably see there was strong reason for excluding Companions from the opening. Comp. Joshua Nunn also opposed any alteration, unless inquired into and reported upon by a committee. Comp. the Rev. C. W. Arnold was in favour of the motion, and thought that if carried it would conduce to the good of Freemasonry. Many Comps. did not attend their Chapters at all because they could not be present at the opening. If Comps. were allowed to be present it would have an influence on the way the opening ceremony was performed; in Chapters it was usually performed in a very slovenly and disgraceful manner, when it should be most orderly and impressive. Comp. James Lewis Thomas, who had had much experience of Chapters, dissented from this view. Considering the forms employed, he thought it would be injudicious to admit all Comps. to the opening. Being excluded, they felt that there was a more important ceremony going on than they were qualified to be admitted to, and it stimulated them to anxiety and ambition to go up to the three chairs. Comp. Parkinson was instinctively led to sympathise with Comp. Smallpeice, but he wished for more information from skilled and competent Comps. before deciding which way to vote. He had not experienced any hardship himself, nor had he heard of any from the present system; but if there was even small hardship to any one, he would be in favour of its being removed. He thought the matter should be referred to a Committee. Comp. Woodford, who was opposed to any change in the present system, thought that the best plan now to adopt would be to meet the motion with a direct negative, and Comp. Smallpeice could then bring the matter on again in another form. After some further slight discussion, an amendment for referring the question to a Committee was carried, after which another amendment, "That the motion be dismissed," was also carried. Comp. Beach having stated that Grand Chapter was much indebted to Comp. Smallpeice for calling attention to the subject, that Companion thanked them for having listened to him, and the Grand Chapter was closed.

ROYAL ARCH MASONRY IN YORK.

A FEW weeks ago we published an account, from the pen of Comp. Whytehead, of the doings of Royal Arch Masons in the ancient City of York a hundred and twenty years ago, and now we have to record a grand field-day of members of the Supreme degree under the shadow of the grand old towers of St. Peter, the patron Saint of the Cathedral so curiously associated with both ancient and modern Masonry. The Eboracum Lodge, whose activity is notorious in the Masonic world, having been in existence a little over three years, has had a Royal Arch Chapter attached to it, and on Wednesday, the 28th ult., the ceremony of constitution and consecration was conducted by the Grand Superintendent of North and East Yorkshire, Dr. J. P. Bell, at the Masonic Rooms, Queen's Hotel, York. The founders of the Eboracum Chapter had looked forward to the first chair being filled by Bro. Thos. Cooper, who was the first Master of the Eboracum Lodge, and who had three times served the office of Z. in the Zetland Chapter 236; but, as recorded in our columns, the G.A.O.T.U. removed that distinguished Brother during the last year from the scene of his earthly labours, and Comp. T. B. Whytehead, as the senior member of the Lodge, was selected as the Z. Designate, the second and third chairs being assigned respectively to Comps. J. S. Cumberland and P. H. Rowland P.Z. At 3. p.m. the Comps. assembled in the ante-room, where light refreshments were provided, and the Provincial Officers proceeded to open a Chapter in the Lodge Room. The Grand Superintendent then entered and proceeded at once to perform the ceremonies of the day, in which he was assisted by E. Comps. Sir James Meek P.Z. 236 P.P.G.H., W. H. Porritt Prov. G.H., J. Todd Prov. G.J., McIvor Murray Prov. G.N., and other distinguished Companions, Comp. T. B. Whytehead presiding at the organ. The delicate state of health of the Grand Superintendent making it necessary for him to retire from the Chapter at the conclusion of the consecration, he was accorded the thanks of the assembled Companions; but before retiring he addressed a few remarks to those present, in which he touched upon the early history of the degree, its origin and progress, and expressed a firm assurance that the Eboracum Chapter would be worked in such a manner as to reflect credit on the Province and on its founders. The ceremony of installation of the Three Principals was then proceeded with, and was carried out by E. Comp. J. Todd P.Z. Prov. G.J. with great excellence. On the re-admission of the members the following Companions were invested with their collars of office—James Kay S.E., Matthew Millington P.S., J. T. Seller 1st Assist. Soj., A. T. B. Turner 2nd Assist. Soj. The M.E.Z. then spoke of the pleasure it had afforded them to see amongst them their Grand Superintendent, who in spite of bad health had contrived to be present, and read several letters from Companions in all parts of the country who were unable to attend, some through illness, and others who were at the meeting of the Prov. Grand Lodge of Yorkshire that day at Pontefract, and concluded by proposing the election of the Grand Superintendent (Dr. Bell) and E. Comps. W. H. Porritt Prov. G.H., J. Todd Prov. G.J., M. C. Peck Prov. G.S.E., as honorary members, which was carried unanimously. A number of names of candidates for exaltation were then proposed and seconded, and the Chapter was closed. The members afterwards entertained their Visitors at a "high tea," when the good things were thoroughly enjoyed. At seven p.m. the party adjourned to the Masonic Hall, where the Zetland Chapter (attached to the York Lodge 236) was holding its annual meeting for the election of Officers. The Three Principals E. Comps. Sir James Meek, Hon. W. T. Orde-Powlett and Geo. Balmford were in their chairs, and two candidates were exalted to the Supreme Degree. The election of Officers resulted as follows:—Comps. W. T. Orde-Powlett Z., George Balmford H., J. M. Meek J., J. Todd P.Z. Treas., J. Hollins S.E., Rev. W. Valentine P.M. S.N., A. Buckle P.S. Comp. J. Redfare was elected Janitor. A Committee consisting of the three Principals, the S.E., the P.S., and Comps. J. Todd and T. B. Whytehead was appointed to make preparations for the reception of the Prov. Grand Chapter, which will meet in May next under the banner of the Zetland Chapter. At 10 p.m. the Chapter was closed, and the Companions adjourned to supper, at the conclusion of which a few of the principal toasts were drunk, and a pleasant time was experienced. Amongst those present at the consecration of the Eboracum Chapter we noticed (in addition to those already named) Companions Rev. W. Valentine 236, J. Ward Prov. G. Janitor, G. Balmford J. 236, G. Simpson 236, R. Cundall 250, J. Hanley 555 (I.C.), T. Gibson P.Z. 289, W. Rowley 289, C. Palliser 236, J. Redfare 236, E. Houlden P.P.G.S.B. 236, Jas. Blake 216, Hon. W. T. Orde-Powlett H. 236 Prov. G.D.C., W. Watson Z. 734, Quarter-Master Sergt. Somerset 555, Sergt.-Major Harris 555. At the meeting of the Zetland Chapter in the evening we noticed in addition to the above Comps. J. G. Turner S.E., M. Rooke, T. S. Camidge, C. D. Barstow, J. Tissiman, A. Hanson, G. Cattell, J. Fairburn, G. C. Lee, G. Kirby, T. J. Wilson, W. Draper, T. G. Hodgson, S. Border, J. Ayres, Rev. C. E. Camidge 154, H. Smith 837, W. B. Jackson 1248, &c.

The first regular meeting of the Eboracum Chapter was held on Tuesday evening. Present—Comps. T. B. Whytehead Z., J. S. Cumberland H., J. Todd P.Z. as J., J. Kay S.E., Turner as S.N., M. Millington P.S., &c. Bros. C. G. Padel, P. Pearson, T. D. Smith, R. Ware, W. Lackenby, W. P. Husband, J. E. Wilkinson, and W. J. Girling, of the Eboracum Lodge 1611, were exalted to the supreme degree by the M.E.Z., the mystical lecture being given by Comp. Todd P.Z. Comp. the Rev. James Blake, Sacred Delta Chapter 216, was elected a joining member; Comp. G. Simpson was elected

Digitized by Google

Treasurer; Comp. C. G. Padel to the office of S.N., and Comp. P. Pearson to that of Janitor. On the proposition of the M.E.Z., seconded by the H., Comp. A. M. Broadley P.Z. Ancient Carthage Chapter 1717 was elected an honorary member. The Chapter was then closed, and the Companions adjourned to an excellent supper, after which a short toast list was gone through. In proposing the Honorary Members of the Chapter, the M.E.Z. said that the Eboracum was fortunate in having at least one honorary member who had already proved himself really useful. He alluded to E. Comp. Todd, who had given them so ably the mystical lecture that evening. He the (M.E.Z.) had not been enjoying very good health of late, and it would have been quite impossible for him to have delivered the lecture as it ought to be given, and had it not been for the kindness of Comp. Todd it would have to be postponed. Comp. Todd, Prov. G.J., in responding, said that he was glad to see the Eboracum Chapter making such an excellent start, and under its present rulers he had no doubt it would rival the Eboracum Lodge in its excellence of working and success. The P.S. proposed the health of the M.E.Z., saying that his energy was unfailing, and whatever degree they went into, Bro. Whytehead seemed to be the pivot on which it swung. The M.E.Z. said that whilst thanking the P.S. and the brethren for their kindness, he trusted that what he had said about his connection with various degrees was not justified by facts, for he should think it a bad day for any Lodge, Chapter or Conclave when its prosperity hung on the existence of any one member. As it was, he knew that he was surrounded and supported by so many hearty and warm-hearted Masons that the success of the York Masonic bodies was assured by the combined energy and influence of genuine Masonic feeling. The evening sitting was not prolonged; and the Comps. parted early. Comp. G. Balmford, J. 236, acted as Organist.

PROVINCIAL GRAND CHAPTER OF HAMPSHIRE.

The annual meeting of the Grand Chapter of the Province, convened by the M.E. Provincial Grand Superintendent (Comp. W. W. B. Beach, M.P.), was held at the Masonic Hall, Basingstoke, on Friday afternoon, 30th ult., when the following officers were appointed for the ensuing year:—Comps. Hickman, P.G.H.; Dew, P.G.J.; Le Fouvre P.G. Scribe E.; Newman, P.G. Scribe N.; M. E. Frost, P.G. Treasr.; Arnold, P.G.P.S.; V. Brown, P.G. 1st A.S.; Francis, P.G. 2nd A.S; Stone, P.G. Regr.; Thatcher, P.G. Swd. Br.; Palsgrave, P.G. Stand Br.; Osborne, P.G. Org.; Powell, P.G.D.C.; Biggs and Exell, P.G. Janitors.

PROVINCIAL GRAND LODGE OF WEST YORKSHIRE.

THE Provincial Grand Lodge of West Yorkshire held its quarterly court at Pontefract on Wednesday, 28th ult. The proceedings throughout were of a more than ordinarily attractive and interesting character. The preliminary Lodge having been opened by the W.M. and Officers of St. Oswald Lodge (No. 910), Pontefract, Provincial Grand Lodge entered, and having been duly opened, was presided over by Bro. Sir Henry Edwards, Bart., R.W. P.G.M., assisted by Bro. T. W. Tow D.P.G.M., and a large muster of P.G. Officers. Notwithstanding the severity of the weather, nearly every Lodge in the province was represented, about 250 brethren putting in an appearance. After the customary salutation of the Provincial Grand Master and the Deputy Provincial Grand Master,

Sir Henry Edwards said: Brethren and Officers of Provincial Grand Lodge,—Once more, and at the commencement of a new year, Anno Lucis 5880, I have the gratification of meeting the Craft of West Yorkshire assembled in Provincial Grand Lodge, and in doing so tender to the different Lodges here represented the heartiest congratulations of the new year. As year after year rolls away, when in my capacity as your Prov. Grand Master I have to reciprocate the best wishes of this season, I cannot but feel pleasure in this recurring opportunity of offering to every one of you my felicitations upon the welfare, happiness, and unanimity of the Freemasons, as a body, in my province. Let us hope that this new year opens with evidences of prosperity to all; that in spite of hostile tariffs, and a too dear labour market at home, we, as a nation, have bid adieu to the worst period of commercial depression, and may look forward in a spirit of confidence to a happier future both as regards agriculture and commerce. The brother who to-day has been able to withstand the strain of discouragement should be thankful indeed; and he who has not been unprosperous should draw a comparison with his less fortunate brethren whose prospects were once of the highest, yet, through no fault of their own, have been struck down in their career of prosperity, and reduced, it may be, in some cases, to depths of poverty and distress. Towards such some of us can give counsel and advice, and others the assistance of that charity which blesses him that gives as well as him that receives; and all of us can offer that sympathy to those who have been the least fortunate, which acts like balm poured out upon the troubled spirit, by encouraging renewed efforts for the future. We must now devote a moment to the consideration of the extent to which our Masonic circle of good of late has attained. Our welfare, as a Masonic body, has steadily progressed. During the Masonic year, although no new Warrants were granted for West Yorkshire, yet 65 new Warrants were granted by the M.W. Grand Master his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; and there is no lack of desire to join our ranks in the 7475 certificates granted by Grand Lodge. The financial result of our Festival is, that sums of money have been realised for our three Charities far beyond what could have been anticipated, £44,800, and now there is a special appeal to the brethren throughout the country to establish a Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund, and if the founders of this fund can create an organisation for preventing some portion of the heartburning that ensues to candidate, who have not been successful at the ballot of the Masonic Charities it will have your dispassionate consideration and support, and the founders, if the scheme be successful, will be rewarded for the trouble they have taken in inaugurating this, and to prevent disappointment at the elections of candidates in London. There is now under consideration the projected extension of the Girls' School. It is intended to spend £6,500 for the purchase of a house, on three-quarters of an acre of ground adjoining the Girl's School at Battersea Rise. The policy in an outlay of so large a sum for an old building, and so small an area as this purchase of Lyncombe House, is in itself a question for deliberation in your Lodges. Considering the large annual amount required to maintain the present School, the addition this purchase will entail is a serious item, because it is virtually permanent, and pledges the future generation to a still greater amount for maintenance than we are at present committed to. It will be gratifying to West Yorkshire that at the Quarterly Court of the Governors and Subscribers of this Institution, held in London on the 10th Jan., in pursuance of notice given by the chairman of our Charity Committee, the Court has accepted the sum of 1000 guineas from this province, for a perpetual presentation of one girl to the School, to be called "The Bentley Shaw Presentation;" the right of such presentation being vested in the Provincial Grand Master of West Yorkshire for the time being, or other duly authorised person, in accordance with an agreement similar to those providing for presentations from West Yorkshire to the Boys' School, Wood Green. The cash paid into the bank on account of this fund is £1,035. Should the donations promised not all be paid, you may rely upon the guarantee offered by myself and Deputy for the balance when the money has to be handed over to the Court. Referring to another of our Charities, the Festival of the Aged Freemasons' and Widows' Annuity Fund is fixed for Monday the 9th February, in the Freemasons' Hall. The Provincial Grand Master of North and East Yorkshire, the Earl of Zetland, has consented to take the chair. I should like the noble Earl and his Deputy, Dr. Bell, to be surrounded by a goodly list of Stewards from this Province. My Deputy, and probably myself, will be present, and we trust the old contributing Stewards of West Yorkshire may be supported by new names. On the list in circulation I see the old names of those who have served the office of Steward three, five, and eight times over. I appeal to the Worshipful Masters of Lodges to obtain fresh subscribers. We much regret the retirement from the Secretaryship of the Grand Lodge of England of Brother Hervey, through failing health. Every one of us can speak of the learning and excellent qualities of Brother Hervey, and the invaluable services he has rendered to the Craft. May the Great Architect of the Universe spare his life for some years to come to enjoy the pension of £500 a year, and the gratuity Grand Lodge has awarded to him, with the unanimous concurrence of the Craft. And lastly, brethren, as this Provincial Grand Lodge has assembled for the third time, since its establishment in 1862, under the banner of the "Saint Oswald" Lodge, and in this Town Hall, let me express the acknowledgments of the province to Brother W. S. Simpson, the Worshipful Master, and his Officers, for their invitation and arrangements. The previous occasion was one never to be forgotten. It was the last public appearance in this province in his official capacity as Grand Master of West Yorkshire of the Marquess of Ripon. He laid the foundation stone of St. Stephen's Church, East Hardwick, October 1872. Principally through the energies of the Freemasons of this Lodge that work is completed, and the church has been consecrated. A new vicarage house has been also added by the liberality of the Craft, and the old trust school there put upon a better educational footing. The son of an old Freemason of this province is now the vicar of that newly-created ecclesiastical parish, and not only is he personally popular, but his ministerial services are much appreciated. To-day the Freemasons of this Province are asked to inaugurate another charitable work, viz, that of a new and much needed building for the Dispensary of this town. The Vicar of Pontefract has invited us to the Parish Church of Saint Giles, and we thank him for according us an opportunity of promoting this work, which my Deputy, who is the treasurer and secretary of the institution, and his brethren of "Saint Oswald's" have, with others, so much at heart to accomplish. And last, not least, we thank the Rev. J. J. Christie for permitting the Freemasons of West Yorkshire to show their public attachment to and belief in the volume of the sacred law and the principles of religious faith. May Jehovah bless and prosper this work of a new Dispensary. I have accepted a cordial invitation from the brethren of the two Lodges in Dewsbury to hold the annual meeting under their banners, in April next, at Dewsbury. A petition was forwarded to me for this purpose from the Worshipful Masters of 208 and 827, and recommended by our Provincial Grand Registrar and Brothers Whitaker and Critchley. It now only remains for to acknowledge your salutation. I feel a pride in the progress of the Masonic work we undertake, and I am sure that you will one and all join with me in wishing every member of the Craft a happy and prosperous year.

The business of Provincial Grand Lodge being concluded, the brethren formed into order of procession, and marched to St. Giles' Church, where, by permission of the vicar, a sermon was preached by the Rev. Brother John Room, and a collection made in aid of the funds. After service the brethren returned to the Lodge room, when Provincial Grand Lodge was duly closed.—Yorkshire Post.

We have received a copy of the 1880 issue of the diary of Masonic Meetings in East Lancashire, which is compiled by the Provincial Grand Secretary, Bro. John Chadwick. With a Province comprising so many Lodges as East Lancashire, our brother has had no light task, for even though he may have the best wishes of the Secretaries of every Lodge in his district, he cannot rely on receiving from them the necessary information, except after a great amount of labour. The work appears to have been most carefully undertaken.

Digitized by Google

DIARY FOR THE WEEK.

We shall be obliged if the Secretaries of the various Lodges throughout the Kingdom will favour us with a list of their Days of Meeting, &c., as we have decided to insert only those that are verified by the Officers of the several Lodges.

—:o:—

SATURDAY, 7th FEBRUARY.

General Committee Boys' School, Freemasons' Hall, at 4
142—St. Thomas, City Terminus Hotel, Cannon-street, E.C.
198—Perry, Jolly Farmers, Southgate Road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1364—Earl of Zetland, Nags Head, Mare-street, Hackney, at 7 (Instruction)
1572—Carnarvon, Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
1622—Rose, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8.

1458—Truth, Private Rooms, Conservative Club, Newton Heath, Manchester
R. A. 306—Affability, Station House Hotel, Bottoms, Stansfield

MONDAY, 9th FEBRUARY.

FESTIVAL ROYAL MASONIC BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION, FREEMASONS' TAVERN, AT 5.30 FOR 6
45—Strong Man, New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, at 8 (Instruction)
58—London Masonic Club Lodge of Instruction, 101 Queen Victoria-street, at 8
90—St. John, Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
174—Sincerity, Railway Tavern, London-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
180—St. James's Union, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
186—Industry, Bell, Carter-lane, Doctors-commons, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
193—Confidence, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
548—Wellington, White Swan, High-street, Deptford, at 8 (Instruction)
704—Camden, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
967—Leigh, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
1306—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-st., Wapping, at 8 (Instruction)
1425—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-rd., Paddington, at 8 (Instruction)
1445—Prince Leopold, Mitford Tavern, Sandringham-road, Dalston, at 8 (Inst.)
1469—Marquess of Ripon, Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-rd., Hackney, at 7.30 (In.)
1623—West Smithfield, New Market Hotel, King-st., Snow-hill, at 8 (Inst.)
1626—Tredegar, Royal Hotel, Mile End-road, corner of Burdett-road (Inst.)
K. T.—Studholme, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square

40—Derwent, Castle Hotel, Hastings
75—Love and Honour, Royal Hotel, Falmouth
104—St. John, Ashton House, Greek-street, Stockport
240—St. Hilda, Freemasons' Hall, Fowler-street, South Shields
262—Salopian, The Lion Hotel, Shrewsbury
292—Sincerity, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
296—Royal Brunswick, Freemasons' Hall, Surrey-street, Sheffield
297—Witham, New Masonic Hall, Lincoln
411—Commercial, Flying Horse Hotel, Nottingham
481—St. Peter, Masonic Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle
502—Rectitude, Town Hall, Rugby
567—Howe, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham
589—Druids of Love and Liberality, Masonic Hall, Redruth
685—Montague, Royal Lion, Lyme Regis
721—Independence, Masonic Chambers, Eastgate-row-north, Chester
724—Derby, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8 (Instruction)
797—Hanley, Hanley Hall, Dartmouth
820—Lily of Richmond, Greyhound, Richmond, at 7.30 (Instruction)
893—Meridian, National School Room, Millbrook, Cornwall
1021—Hartington, Masonic Hall, Custom House Buildings, Barrow-in-Furness
1069—United Brothers, Castle Hotel, Southsea
1174—Pentangle, Sun Hotel, Chatham
1221—Defence, Masonic Hall, Carlton-hill, Leeds
1253—Travellers, Queen's Hotel, Manchester
1350—Fermor Hesketh, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1436—Sandgate, Masonic Hall, Sandgate
1440—Royal Military, Masonic Hall, Canterbury
1474—Israel, Masonic Hall, Severn-street, Birmingham
1592—Abbey, Suffolk Hotel, Bury St. Edmunds
1611—Eboracum, Queen's Hotel, Micklegate, York
1618—Handyside, Zetland Hotel, Saltburn-by-Sea
1656—Welsey, White Hart Hotel, Hampton Wick
M. M.—Egerton, Bedford House, Rock Ferry, Cheshire.

TUESDAY, 10th FEBRUARY.

Supreme Council 33°, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square
New Concord Lodge Ball, Freemasons' Tavern, at 8
46—Old Union, Westminster Palace Hotel, Westminster
55—Constitutional, Bedford Hotel, Southampton-bldgs., Holborn, at 7 (Inst.)
65—Prosperity, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
141—Faith, 3 Westminster Chambers, Victoria-street, S.W., at 8 (Inst.)
151—Albany, Masonic Hall, Newport, I.W.
167—St. John, Holly Bush Tavern, Hampstead
177—Domatic, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
188—Percy, Ship and Turtle, Leadenhall-street, E.C.
211—St. Michael, Albion, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
228—United Strength, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, City
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney (Instruction)
753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
860—Dalhousie, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
1044—Wandsworth, Star and Garter Hotel, St. Ann's-hill, Wandsworth (Inst.)
1349—Friars, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1360—Royal Arthur, Prince's Head, Battersea Park, at 8 (Instruction)
1446—Mount Edgcumbe, 19 Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1471—Islington, Three Bucks, 23 Gresham-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
1472—Henley, Three Crowns, North Woolwich, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1507—Metropolitan, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate-st., at 7.30 (Inst.)
1558—D. Connaught, Palmerston Arms, Grosvenor Park, Camberwell, at 8 (In.)
1602—Sir Hugh Myddelton, Crown and Woolpack, St. John's-st.-rd., at 8 (In.)
1604—Wanderers, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
1614—Covent Garden, Ashley's Hotel, Henrietta-street, Covent Garden
1635—Canterbury, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square
1707—Eleanor, Trocadero, Broad-street-buildings, Liverpool-street, 6.30 (Inst)
R. A. 145—Prudent Brethren, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement, Jamaica Coffee House, Cornhill, 6.30.

93—Social, Freemasons' Hall, Norwich
117—Wynnstay, Raven Hotel, Shrewsbury, at 8 (Instruction)
131—Fortitude, Masonic Hall, Truro
184—United Chatham of Benevolence, Assembly Rooms, Old Brompton, Kent
241—Merchants, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
272—Harmony, Masonic Hall, Main Ridge, Boston
284—Shakespeare, Masonic Rooms, High-street, Warwick
406—Northern Counties, Freemasons' Hall, Maple-st., Newc.-on-Tyne (Instr.)
477—Faithful, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham
495—Wakefield, Masonic Hall, Zetland-street, Wakefield
503—Belvidere, Star Hotel, Maidstone
603—Zetland, Royal Hotel, Cleckheaton
626—Lansdowne of Unity, Town Hall, Chippenham
696—St. Bartholomew, Anchor Hotel, Wednesbury
736—Staffordshire Knot, North Western Hotel, Stafford
829—Sydney, Black Horse Shoe, Skipton
892—Royal Edward, Royal Oak Hotel, Leominster
903—Gosport, India Arms Hotel, High-street, Gosport
1120—St. Milburga, Teutine Hotel, Ironbridge
1250—Gilbert Greenhall, Masonic Rooms, Sankey-street, Warrington
1325—Stanley, 214 Great Homer street, Liverpool, at 8 (Inst.)
1347—Lorne, Greyhound Hotel, Sutton, Surrey
1465—Ockenden, Talbot Hotel, Cuckfield, Sussex
1509—Madoc, Queen's Hotel, Portmadoc
1545—Baildon, Masonic Room, Northgate, Baildon
1593—Royal Naval College, Ship Hotel, Greenwich
1674—Tonbridge, Masonic Hall, Tonbridge
1713—Wilbraham, Walton Institute, Walton, Liverpool
R. A. 265—Judea, Masonic Club, Hanover-street, Keighley
R. A. 289—Fidelity, Masonic Hall, Carlton-hill, Leeds
R. A. 537—Zion, 55 Argyle-street, Birkenhead
M. M. 152—Dover and Cinque Ports, Royal Oak Hotel, Dover
R. C.—Liverpool, Masonic Hall, Liverpool

WEDNESDAY, 11th FEBRUARY.

Committee Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution, at 3.
Supreme Council 33°, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square
9—Albion, Regent Masonic Hall, Air-street, Regent-street, W.
15—Kent, Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street
87—Vitruvian, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth.
147—Justice, White Swan, High-street, Deptford.
193—Confidence, Railway Tavern, London-street, at 7 (Instruction)
228—United Strength, Hope and Anchor, Crowndale-rd., Camden-town, at 8 (In.)
538—La Tolerance, Green Dragon, 2 Maddox-street, W., at 7.45 (Inst.)
781—Merchant Navy, Silver Tavern, Burdett-road, E.
813—New Concord, Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
862—Whittington, Red Lion, Poppin's-court, Fleet-street, at 8 (Instruction)
1185—Lewis, King's Arms Hotel, Wood Green, at 7 (Instruction)
1260—John Hervey, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
1278—Burdett Coutts, Salmon and Ball, Bethnal Green-road, at 8 (Inst.)
1288—Finsbury Park, Earl Russell, Isledon-road, Holloway, at 8 (Instruction)
1305—St. Marylebone, Eyre Arms, St. John's Wood
1306—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-street, Wapping
1524—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion Road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1677—Crusaders, New Market Hotel, King-street, West Smithfield
R. A. 177—Domatic, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-st., at 8 (Instruction)
R. A. 857—St. Mark, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
M. M.—Old Kent, Ship and Turtle, Leadenhall-street, E.C.
R. C.—Grand Metropolitan, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square

54—Hope, Spread Eagle Inn, Cheetham-street, Rochdale
146—Antiquity, Bull's Head Inn, Bradshawgate, Bolton
191—St. John, Knowsley Hotel, Haymarket-street, Bury, Lancashire
204—Caledonian, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester.
223—St. Luke's, Coach and Horses Hotel, Ipswich
281—Fortitude, Masonic Rooms, Athenæum, Lancaster
288—Harmony, Masonic Hall, Todmorden
483—Sympathy, Old Falcon Hotel, Gravesend
567—Unity, Globe Hotel, Warwick
606—Benevolence, Private Rooms, Prince Town, Dartmoor
754—Ellesmere, Freemasons' Hall, Runcorn, Cheshire, at 7.30. (Inst.)
851—Worthing of Friendship, Steyne Hotel, Worthing.
852—Zetland, Albert Hotel, New Bailey-street, Salford.
854—Albert, Duke of York Inn, Shaw, near Oldham.
872—St. Augustine, Canterbury (Instruction)
1018—Shakespeare, Freemasons' Hall, Salem-street, Bradford.
1031—Fletcher, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham.
1060—Marmion, Masonic Rooms, Church-street, Tamworth.
1064—Borough, Bull Hotel, Burnley.
1094—Temple, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1101—Grey Friars, Masonic Hall, Reading
1209—Lewises, Royal Hotel, Ramsgate.
1248—Denison, Grand Hotel, Scarborough.
1264—Neptune, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7. (Instruction.)
1342—Walker, Hope and Anchor Inn, Byker, Newcastle.
1356—De Grey and Ripon, 140 North Hill St., Toxteth Park, Liverpool
1398—Baldwin, Dalton Castle, Dalton-in-Furness
1424—Brownrigg, Assembly Rooms, Old Brompton, Chatham.
1434—Nottinghamshire, George Hotel, Nottingham.
1503—Francis Burdett, Albany Hotel, Twickenham
1511—Alexandra, Masonic Hall, Hornsea, Hull, at 7. (Instruction.)
1529—Earl Shrewsbury, Public Rooms, Cannock, Stafford.
1547—Liverpool, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
1582—Llandilloes, Trewythen Arms, Llandilloes, North Wales
1643—Perseverance, Masonic Hall, Hebburn-on-Tyne.
R. A. 20—Royal Kent of Antiquity, Sun Hotel, Chatham
R. A. 873—St. John, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
M. M. 102—St. Cuthbert, Masonic Hall, The Parade, Berwick.

THURSDAY, 12th FEBRUARY.

3—Fidelity, Yorkshire Grey, London-street, Fitzroy-sq., at 8 (Instruction
15—Kent, Chequers, Marsh-street, Walthamstow, at 7.30 (Instruction)
19—Royal Athelstan, City Terminus Hotel, Cannon-street
27—Egyptian, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7.30 (Instruction)
87—Vitruvian, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth, at 8 (Instruction)
203—Friendship, Ship and Turtle, Leadenhall-street, E.C.
211—St. Michael, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate Street, at 8 (Inst.)
263—Bank of England, Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
435—Salisbury, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8 (Inst.)
534—Polish National, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
754—High Cross, Coach and Horses, Lower Tottenham, at 8 (Instruction)
860—Dalhousie, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
1076—Capper, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
1227—Upton, King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., at 8. (Instruction.)
1425—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-road, Paddington
1428—The Great City, Masons Hall, Masons Avenue, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
1558—Duke of Connaught, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
1569—Skelmersdale, Masons' Hall Tavern, Basinghall-street, E.C.
1614—Covent Garden, Nag's Head, James-street, Covent Garden, at 7.45 (In.)
R. A. 753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
R.A. 1383—Friends in Council, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square
R. A. 1471—North London, Jolly Farmers', Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Inst.)

35—Medina, 85 High-street, Cowes.
97—Palatine, Masonic Hall, Toward-road, Sunderland.
112—St. George, Masonic Hall, Fore-street Hill, Exeter
139—Britannia, Freemasons' Hall, Surrey-street, Sheffield.
203—Ancient Union, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
216—Harmonic, Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool.
249—Mariners, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8. (Inst.)
333—Royal Preston, Castle Hotel, Preston.
349—Unanimity, Crown Hotel, Penrith, Cumberland.
469—Hundred of Elloe, Masonic Rooms, London Road, Spalding.
477—Mersey, 55 Argyle-street, Birkenhead.
540—Etruscan, Masonic Hall, Caroline-street, Longton, Stafford.
732—Royal Brunswick, Royal Pavilion, Brighton.
739—Temperance, Masonic Room, New-street, Birmingham.
754—Wellington, Public Rooms, Park-street, Deal.
786—Croxteth United Service, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
945—Abbey, Abbey Council Chamber, Abingdon, Berks
991—Tyne, Masonic Hall, Wellington Quay, Northumberland
1045—Prince of Wales, Masonic Hall, Kirkdale, Liverpool.
1055—Derby, Knowsley's Hotel, Cheetham, Lancashire.
1098—St. George, Private Room, Temperance Hotel, Tredegar, Mon.
1144—Milton, Commercial Hotel, Ashton-under-Lyne.
1145—Equality, Red Lion Hotel, Accrington.
1147—St. David, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester.
1182—Duke of Edinburgh, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1204—Royd, Imperial Hotel, Malvern, Worcestershire.
1273—St. Michael, Free Church School-rooms, Attingbourne.
1389—Bala, Plasgoch Hotel, Bala.
1416—Falcon, Masonic Hall, Castle Yard, Thirsk.
1429—Albert Edward Prince of Wales, Masonic Hall, Newport, Mon.
1583—Corbet, Corbet Arms, Towyn.

Digitized by Google

1612—West Middlesex, Feathers Hotel, Ealing, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
1697—Hospitality, Royal Hotel, Waterfoot, near Manchester.
1782—Machen, Swan Hotel, Coleshill.
R.A. 51—Patriotic, Three Cups Hotel, Colchester
R.A. 183—Integrity, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester
R.A. 1393—Hamer, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
K. T.—Salamanca, Freemasons' Hall, St. John's-place, Halifax

FRIDAY, 13th FEBRUARY.

Emulation Lodge of Improvement, Freemasons' Hall, at 7.
25—Robert Burns, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
177—Domatic, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
507—United Pilgrims, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
766—William Preston, Feathers Tavern, Up. George-st., Edgware-rd. 8 (Inst.)
834—Ranelagh, Six Bells, Hammersmith (Instruction)
902—Burgoyne, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Duke's Head, 79 Whitechapel-road, at 8 (Instruction)
1065—Metropolitan, Portugal Hotel, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 7 (Instruction)
1158—Belgrave, Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1288—Finsbury Park M.M., Earl Russell, Isledon-road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1298—Royal Standard, Alwyne Castle, St. Paul's-road, Canonbury, at 8 (In.)
1365—Clapton, White Hart, Lower Clapton, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1642—E. Carnarvon, Mitre Hotel, Goulborne-rd, N. Kensington, at 8.0 (Inst.)
R. A. 79—Pythagorean, Portland Hotel, London-street, Greenwich, at 8 (Inst.)
R. C.—Mount Calvary, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square

36—Glamorgan, Freemasons' Hall, Arcade, St. Mary's-street, Cardiff.
155—Perseverance, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
458—Aire and Calder, Private Rooms, Ouse-street, Goole.
526—Honour, Star and Garter Hotel, Wolverhampton.
662—Dartmouth, Dartmouth Hotel, West Bromwich.
697—United, George Hotel, Colchester.
780—Royal Alfred, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, at 7.30. (Instruction)
815—Blair, Town Hall, Stratford-road, Hulme.
1001—Harrogate and Claro, Masonic Rooms, Parliament-street, Harrogate.
1087—Beaudesert, Assembly Rooms, Corn Exchange, Leighton Buzzard, Beds.
1289—Rock, Bedford House, Rock Ferry.
1536—United Military, Masonic Hall, Plumstead.
General Lodge of Instruction, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham, at 7
R. A. 406—De Sussex, Masonic Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle

SATURDAY, 14th JANUARY.

196—Percy, Jolly Farmers' Tavern, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1364—Earl of Zetland, Nags Head, Mare-street, Hackney, at 7 (Instruction)
1426—The Great City, Cannon-street Hotel, E.C.
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
1671—Mizpah, Albion Hotel, Aldersgate-street
R. A. 1185—Lewis, King's Arms Hotel, Wood Green.
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8

1391—Commercial, Freemasons Hall, Leicester
1612—West Middlesex, The Institute, Ealing

NOTICE OF MEETINGS.

Egyptian Lodge of Instruction, No. 27.—Held at Bro. Maidwell's, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., on Thursday, 29th January. Bros. Chapman W.M., Coulson S.W., King J.W., Abrahams S.D., H. Phillips J.D., J. A. Gartby I.G., Webb Preceptor, L. Norden Secretary; also Bros. Davis, Valentine, Ward, Maidwell, Blitz, Richards and Haynes. The Lodge was opened to the third degree, and was then resumed in the first. The ceremony of initiation was ably rehearsed by the W.M. The Lodge was resumed in the second degree, and the W.M. rehearsed the ceremony of investiture of Officers. Bro. Maidwell rehearsed the charges of the installation ceremony. Bro. Haynes was unanimously elected a member. Bro. Coulson was elected W.M. for ensuing week, and appointed Officers in rotation.

Prosperity Lodge of Instruction, No. 65.—At Bro. Maidwell's, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, on 27th ult. Present—Bros. Shadler W.M., Wooding S.W., Valentine J.W., Roberts S.D., Couture J.D., J. B. King I.G., Moss Preceptor, Hollands, Daniel, Ferry, Weller, Walker, Clements, Tarling, Brain. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Walker candidate. The first section of the lecture was worked by Bro. Moss, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Walker, an initiate, answered the questions leading to the second degree for his improvement. Bro. Wooding was elected W.M. for ensuing Tuesday. A vote of thanks was recorded on the minutes to Bro. Shadler for the very proficient manner he filled the chair for the first time. Bro. Souton announced that he was deputed to give £20 from his Lodge to be placed on the lists of Bros. Daniel and J. B. King, for the Old People, which was accepted, with thanks. Bro. Daniel's ballot then took place, the following proving successful:—Bros. Wooding 1306, Marlet 1743, Moss 1275, Edwards, Kirby, Ferry 65. Bro. King's ballot took place on Tuesday, 3rd February, at this Lodge of Instruction.

Old Globe Lodge, No. 200.—On Wednesday afternoon, the 21st January, the brethren of the Old Globe Lodge met at the Lodge room, Scarborough, when Bro. W. Benson Richardson was installed as W.M. for the ensuing year, the ceremony being performed by Bro. J. W. Woodall P.M. P.P.G.S.W., assisted by Bros. Col. W. H. Smythe P.G.M. Lincolnshire, G. H. Walshaw P.M. P.P.G.D.C., D. Fletcher P.M. and J. W. Taylor P.M. Prov. G.S.W. The W.M. invested the following brethren as Officers for the year:—Bros. J. R. Dippie S.W., Geo. Dippie J.W., J. W. Woodall Treas., C. J. Roberts Sec., E. Cooper S.D., R. Hume J.D., Joseph Hardgrave D.C., J. W. Taylor Chaplain, B. Shaw Organist, W. Meek and G. R. Coates Stewards, J. Wanless I.G. and Jno. Verity Tyler. The banquet, which was subsequently held in the Lodge-room, was presided over by the W.M., and attended by several distinguished brethren from the various towns in the Province.

High Cross Lodge, No. 754.—The first regular meeting of the new year was held on Wednesday, the 28th January, at the Seven Sisters' Hotel, Tottenham, under the presidency of Bro. Geo. Burford the W.M., who was well supported by his Officers, Past Masters, and a good muster of the brethren, together with the following Visitors:—Bros. Driscoll P.M. 30, E. W. Mackney P.M. 134, George Dickerson 177, Stevens 1766, Bryant 1237, and G. Tegg 1579. The Lodge was duly opened in ancient form, and the minor business having been disposed of, Bro. A. Smart was passed to the second degree, and the Lecture on the Tracing-board in that degree was given. The Lodge unanimously voted that the sum of £10 10s should be placed on the W.M.'s list, who will act as Steward to the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution at the forthcoming Festival. The Lodge was then closed, and the brethren adjourned for refreshment, when ample justice was done to the far-famed catering of the host, Bro. Oddy. On the removal of the cloth, the W.M. gave the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts. Bro. Wells P.M., in the unavoidable absence of the I.P.M., proposed the health of the W.M., who thanked the brethren for the cordial manner in which they had received the toast; he trusted he should prove worthy of the confidence they had placed in him; it would always be his desire to promote the welfare of the Lodge, and with such an able staff of Officers he felt that the task before him would be comparatively easy. To the toast of the Visitors Bro. Mackney, in his remarks, expressed great pleasure at what he had witnessed that evening; it was quite clear that the principles of Freemasonry were carried out with that excellence which was a credit to any society. The rest of the Visitors briefly replied. Bro. Wells, on behalf of the Past Masters, expressed the great pleasure it gave him—as he felt sure it did to the other Past Masters—in rendering any assistance to the W.M. that laid in their power; as long as he was able he should consider it his duty to support the chair. Other toasts followed, and a particularly enjoyable evening was spent, as there happened to be present many of the brethren who were able to conduce to its harmony, especially may be mentioned Bro. Mackney, who thoroughly delighted his hearers, as did also Bro. Driscoll, in giving the "Speech of Mr. Serjeant Buzfuz," in the celebrated trial of Bardell v. Pickwick. The Tyler's toast concluded the evening's proceedings, and the brethren separated at a reasonable hour.

Dalhousie Lodge of Instruction, No. 860.—At Bro Smyth's, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, on 27th instant Bros. C. Lorkin W.M., Smith S.W., Christian J.W., Hand S.D., Johnson J.D., Clark I.G., J. Lorkin Sec., Smyth Treas., Wallington P.M. Preceptor; also Bros. Dallas, Allen, Fleck, Baker, Worsley, Hallam, Finch, Bingham P.M. 771, Brasted, Fieldwick, Wardell, Garrod, Perren, Polak, Marsh, Weige W.M. 860, T. Cook 1056, and others. The Lodge was opened in the three degrees, and then resumed to the first, when the Fifteen Sections were worked by the following brethren:—First Lecture—Bros. Smyth 1524, Clark I.G. 1178, Hand 1178, Christian 860, Hallam S.W. 1349, Fieldwick W.M. 1364, C. Lorkin J.D. 1524. Second Lecture—Bros. Wardell S.D. 95, Hallam S.W. 1349, Garrod I.G. 754, Smith S.D. 860, Worsley S.W. 860. Third Lecture—Bros. Brasted J.W. 1524, Allen W.M. 733, Perren P.M. 1056. Bro. Hand was appointed W.M. for the ensuing week. Bro. Cook was elected a member. A cordial vote of thanks was ordered to be recorded on the minutes for the able manner in which the W.M. had worked the Fifteen Sections. He was also elected an honorary member of the Lodge. A vote of thanks was likewise recorded to the brethren who assisted to work the Sections.

On 3rd inst., present Bros. Hand W.M., Clark S.W., Smyth J.W., Collins S.D., Wardell J.D., Baker I.G., J. Lorkin Secretary, P.M. Wallington Preceptor; also Bros. Dallas, Christian, Brasted. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Christian candidate. The Lodge was called from labour to refreshment, and after resuming its Masonic duties, Bro. Christian worked the first and second, and Bro. Brasted the fourth sections, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Clark was elected W.M. for the ensuing week. The brethren of the Royal Standard Lodge of Instruction will work the Fifteen Sections in this Lodge of Instruction on Tuesday, 24th February (by invitation).

Montefiore Lodge, No. 1017.—The first meeting since the installation was held on Wednesday, the 28th ult., at the Masonic Hall, Air-street, Regent-street, under the presidency of the W.M., Bro. L. J. Salomons, Ellis S.W., A. Lazarus as J.W., L. Jacobs Treas., E. P. Albert P.G.P. Sec., Syers S.D., Mann I.G., P.M.'s Grunebaum, J. Lazarus, S. Abrahams, &c. The Lodge was opened, and the minutes were confirmed. Bro. Davis having answered the usual questions very satisfactorily, was raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason. The Lodge was then closed, and the brethren adjourned for slight refreshments. This being an off-night, the brethren, over a social glass and cigar, discussed Masonic affairs, no toasts being given. The Visitors were Bros. L. Alexander P.M. 188 and Phillips 205.

St. John of Wapping Lodge, No. 1306.—The regular meeting of this Lodge was held on the 14th instant at the Gun Hotel, High-street, Wapping, E. Bro. W. W. Hayward opened the Lodge, supported by Bros. C. Veal S.W., J. Magrath J.W., T. Wooding S.D., W. Horseley J.D., J. Carrociero I.G., R. Hayward P.M. Treasurer, H. T. Hardy Secretary, A. W. Coleman I.P.M., W. Poore P.M., Bros. T. Barnes, Rev. M. C. Brown, J. Sommers, C. Kurnber, T. J. Tarling, A. G. Clements, T. Tyer, J. N. Stevens, H. Parsons, J. McDougall, C. Rayner, I. P. T. Couture, E. Blaney. Visitors—J. Bowron P.M. and Sec. 933, G. H. Stephens I.G. 1623, Crane J.W. 933, M. Watson 95 (S.C.), Bro. Longstaffe Tyler. Bro. Blaney having proved proficient, was entrusted. Lodge was advanced, and he was admitted to the degree of Fellow Craft. Bros. Clements, Couture, and Rayner were tested as Craftsmen and afterwards entrusted, the W.M. finishing the labours by raising them to the superior degree in a creditable manner. An interesting event of the evening was the election as members of Bros. Rev. M. C. Brown 93 I.G., and Thomas Barnes 536. Lodge was closed, and the brethren, after a tedious wait, partook of supper. Owing to the length of the business and the delay, the W.M. was compelled to put the toasts rather briefly, but in his usual happy manner. After the Loyal and Craft toasts had been duly honoured, and a song sung by Bro. Veal, Bro. Coleman I.P.M. proposed the health of the W.M., who in response expressed his thanks for the reception of his name; he would apologise if he had fallen short in the work of the Lodge, and was gratified to find his efforts were appreciated. The P.M.'s was received with applause. Bro. Beck, who had so often distinguished himself, the W.M. regretted was absent. Bro. Poore, who had kept away through illness, they were very glad to see. That evening he had filled a double capacity, and had proved a host in himself by his unremitting attention to the Visitors at the table. Bro. Coleman had also rendered the Lodge good service, and they were all pleased to see his happy and blooming countenance in their midst. Bro. P.M. Poore thanked the W.M. and brethren for the flattering reception of the toast. He was pleased to find the W.M. so well acquainted with the duties that he did not require the service of the P.M.'s, which however they were at all times ready to afford. The Visitors, which the W.M. considered the toast of the evening, was heartily received. He was sure the Visitors would agree with him that it was not outward display that gave a welcome, but the innermost sentiment of the heart. The Lodge of Wapping was always pleased with its Visitors. Bro. Stephens will never wear his welcome out. Bro. P.M. Bowron they were glad to see again; Bro. Crane he had known under other circumstances, and he was glad to meet him for the first time in Masonry. To Bro. Watson the W.M. also extended a hearty welcome. Bro. Poore favoured the brethren with "Happy be thy dreams," after which Bro. Crane responded. The W.M. next honoured the joining members, whom the Lodge highly prized, not only for their personal, but for their social qualities. Rev. Bro. Brown thanked them sincerely for the hearty reception of the toast; coming as he did as a stranger among them, they had paid him much honour, and he confessed he fell in love with the Lodge on his first visit, and determined to become a member of the Lodge if they would accept him. Bro. T. Barnes endorsed Bro. Brown's remarks. He had long had opportunities of visiting them, and at last had come and seen what he had not seen in his lonesome wanderings—a house of rest; the brethren knew the rest. He hoped he should always be proud of being with them. The Officers was next given, and severally responded to, and the Tyler's toast closed a very happy evening.

Digitized by Google

Friars Lodge of Instruction, No. 1349—Held at Bro. Pavitt's, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, on Tuesday, 3rd February. Bros. Pavitt W.M., Smith S.W., Power J.W., Barker S.D., P.M. Myers J.D., Fyfe I.G., Worsley Sec., P.M. Musto Preceptor; also the following brethren:—Butler, Spencer, Watkins, White, Sadler, H. G. Cope, Nash, Thos. Cope, &c. The Lodge was opened and the minutes of last meeting read and confirmed. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Worsley as candidate. Bro. Worsley worked the first four sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bros. G. H. Cope, of Prince Leopold Lodge, Victoria Park, 1816, and Nash of Capper Lodge 1076, were unanimously elected members. Bro. W. J. Smith S.D. 860 was elected W.M. for the ensuing week. It was announced that the Annual Supper would take place on Tuesday, 2nd March, the Secretary will feel much obliged by the brethren giving in their names, as no tickets will be issued. The chair on this occasion will be taken by Bro. Musto P.M. the Preceptor.

Marquess of Ripon Lodge of Instruction, No. 1489.—Held at the Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-road, Hackney, on 26th ultimo. Present—Bros. McDowall W.M., Bryant S.W., Fleck J.W., Garrod S.D., Martin I.G., J. Lorkin Sec., C. Lorkin Preceptor, &c. Bro. Pige answered the usual questions, was entrusted, and then raised. The Lodge was resumed to the first degree, and then called from labour to refreshment. Bro. Bryant was elected W.M. for the ensuing week.

Metropolitan Lodge, No. 1507.—The regular meeting was held at Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, on Wednesday, 21st inst. Bro. Scales the W.M. presided, supported by Bros. C. W. Side S.W., W. M. Stiles J.W., J. J. Michael P.M. Treasurer, G. Colls S.D., Henry Lovegrove D. of C., G. Clark jun. I.G., John Douglas I.P.M. Among the Visitors were Bros. G. Mayes 51, J. H. Southwood P.M. 1260 S. Albert John 1260, Caleb Wells 212, Sidney T. Fisk 212, Thomas W. Heath 1642, F. A. Kelly 1524, Robert Gillard 109, W. W. Morgan jun. 1385, W. Terrington 1360. The work comprised the raising of Bro. C. Turner, the passing of Bros. R. W. Fraser and J. Jones, and the initiation of Mr. J. Barnard. It will thus be seen that the ability of the W.M. and Officers was put to the fullest test, and when we remember the past of the Metropolitan Lodge, we hardly like to comment on the way in which the work was done. Still we think that we should be wanting in the proper discharge of our duty if we omitted to draw the attention of the Officers to the fact that at this meeting their reputation for good working was greatly shaken. We trust our friends will accept these remarks in the same kindly spirit they are offered, and that at the next meeting they will retrieve their good character. We know they can do the work, and we were the more surprised at the last meeting from this fact. A vote of fifteen guineas was made from the Lodge funds on behalf of the Benevolent Institution, to be placed on the list of the Worshipful Master, who has undertaken the duty of Steward, after which the Lodge was closed. After the banquet which followed, Bro. Michael proposed the health of the Worshipful Master. It had devolved on him to offer this toast to the brethren in consequence of the other Past Masters being absent. No W.M. ever strove harder to do his duty than the present Master of the Metropolitan Lodge; with what result the brethren had seen for themselves. They were at all times pleased to give honour to whom honour might be due, and that honour he now asked the brethren to accord to the W.M. Bro. Scales, in reply, after tendering his thanks said, that Bro. Michael had made some reference to his working; it had been far from satisfactory to himself. He felt somewhat nervous so many Visitors being present. However, he had striven to do his best, and he felt that the brethren would appreciate his efforts on that account. He should, however, have liked to have done much better, and hoped that at future meetings he should do so. He then proposed the health of the Past Masters. He regretted that so few of the number were present. They only had Bro. Michael, but he was so zealous in his duties that they need have no fear but that the toast would be well responded to. Bro. Michael, in reply, thanked the company on behalf of the Past Masters. It was a very proud position for any brother to rank as P.M. of No. 1507. The health of the initiate was next given and suitably acknowledged, after which the Visitors and Officers each received their due meed of praise. The toasts were heartily received and responded to. During the eveing Bro. Heath, of 1642, contributed two cornet solos, thereby adding to the harmony of the evening, which on this occasion was well maintained.

Eboracum Lodge, No. 1611.—On Monday, 26th January, an emergency meeting of this Lodge was held at York, when the W.M. Bro. C. G. Padel presided, supported by Bros. T. B. Whytehead P.M., G. Balmford P.M., J. T. Seller S.W., G. Simpson J.W., J. Kay Secretary, and a number of Officers and brethren. The Lodge was called for purposes of instruction, and accordingly the S.W. took the chair as soon as the Lodge was opened, and worked the first degree with great excellence, Bro. G. H. Simpson acting as candidate. The W.M. having subsequently resumed the chair, Bro. T. B. Whytehead read a paper on "Women in Freemasonry," in which he gave some account of the system of adoption as worked on the Continent of Europe, of the androgynous systems of the ancient mysteries, and of the modern systems of Side Degrees for women as carried out in America. The address was listened to with attention, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to Bro. Whytehead, who said that any little trouble involved in the preparation of a paper was more than compensated for by the assurance that the brethren were thereby led to cherish a real taste for the study of Freemasonry. The Eboracum Lodge had taken a very high stand amongst the English Lodges in this very matter, and it was his earnest desire that its reputation should be sustained by its members. At the close of the Lodge the brethren met at refreshment, several visitors being present, and passed a pleasant evening.

CANNON STREET HOTEL, CANNON STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Has been thoroughly renovated; the Railway advantages, in direct communication with the Hotel, render this establishment unequalled in the Metropolis for

MASONIC BANQUETS, PUBLIC & PRIVATE DINNERS, BREAKFASTS, &c.

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENTS, PUBLIC MEETINGS, ARBITRATIONS, &c.

THE LARGE HALL IS CAPABLE OF SEATING UPWARDS OF TWELVE HUNDRED PEOPLE.

VISITORS AND FAMILIES visiting LONDON, for LONG or SHORT PERIODS, will find the APPOINTMENTS, and ACCOMMODATION UNRIVALLED.

E. H. RAND, MANAGER.

LADBROKE HALL, NOTTING HILL, LONDON, W.

(Opposite the Notting Hill Station of the Metropolitan Railway, from which Trains run every few minutes to all parts of London, and in connection with the principal Lines of Railway.)

THE ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED FOR LODGE MEETINGS IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE DISTRICT.

LARGE LODGE AND BANQUET ROOMS, WITH EVERY CONVENIENCE.

THE HALL MAY BE ENGAGED for BANQUETS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, DINNERS, PUBLIC or PRIVATE ENTERTAINMENTS, &c.

Apply to Bro. J. LINSCOTT (at the Hall), 14 Ladbroke Grove Road, London, W.

Digitized by Google

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND,

Under the patronage and support of

H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES, GRAND MASTER of England.
H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT, K.G., P.S.G.W.
H.R.H. PRINCE LEOPOLD, K.G., Past Jun. Grand Warden England, Prov. G.M. Oxfordshire.
CARNARVON The Right Hon. the Earl of, Pro Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
SKELMERSDALE Rt. Hon. Lord, Deputy Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. West Lancashire.
ABERCORN His Grace the Duke of, G.M. Ireland.
STEWART Sir M. R. SHAW, Bart., G.M. Scotland.
ROSSLYN Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Past Grand Master Scotland.
ATHOLL His Grace the Duke of, K.T., P.G. Master Scotland.
ARNOLD Rev. C. W., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Surrey.
BEACH W. W. B., M.P., Prov. G. Master Hampshire and Isle of Wight.
BENNETT Sir JOHN, C.C., Grand Stewards' Lodge.
BIRD REGINALD, M.A., S.G.D. England, Deputy Prov. G. Master Oxon.
BRIGHT Sir CHARLES T., Dep. Prov. G.M. Middlesex.
BROADLEY A. M., D.D.G.M. Malta, Prov. G.M.M.M. Tunis and Malta.
BROOKE Right Hon. Lord, M.P.
BROWNRIGG General J. STUDHOLME, C.B., Prov. Grand Master and Supt. Surrey.
BURDETT Colonel FRANCIS, Prov. Grand Master Middlesex, G. Supt. Middlesex, P.S.G.W., Rep. from Grand Lodge of Ireland.
BURRELL Sir WALTER W., Bart. M.P., P.G.M. Sussex.
CARINGTON Right Hon. Lord
CALTHORPE Maj.-Gen. Hon. SOMERSET J.G., J.G.W.
CLARKE HYDE, Past Grand Master and Rep. from Grand Lodge of Columbia.
CLONMEL Right Hon. Lord.
COCKCROFT LONSDALE M., Deputy Prov. G. Master Northumberland.
EBRINGTON Rt. Hon. Viscount, P.G.M. Devonshire.
ELSE RICHARD C., Dep. Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
FERRERS Rt. Hon. the Earl, P.G.M. Leicestershire.
FERRIERS Baron de, Prov. G. Reg. Gloucestershire.
GOOCH Sir Daniel, Bt., M.P., P.G.M. Berks & Bucks.
GROSVENOR Right Hon. Lord RICHARD, P.S.G.W.
GUNDRY J. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Dorset.
HALFORD Lieut.-Col. Sir HENRY ST. JOHN, Bart., D. Prov. G. Master Leicestershire and Rutland.
HALSEY THOMAS F., M.P., P.G.M. Hertfordshire.
HARTINGTON, Rt. Hon. Viscount, M.P., Prov. G. Master Derbyshire.
HAYES Rev. Sir JOHN WARREN, Bart., P.D.P.G.M. Berks and Bucks, P.G.C.
HENNIKER Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W., S.G.W.M.M., P.P.G.W. Suffolk.
HICKMAN W., P.A.G.D. of C., D. Prov. G.M. Hants and Isle of Wight.
HILL Right Hon. Lord ARTHUR.
HUYSHE Rev. J., P.G.C., P.P.G.M. Devonshire.
ILES F. H. Wilson, M.D., Deputy Prov. G. Master Hertfordshire, Prov. G.H., &c.
INVERURIE Rt. Hon. Lord, P.G.M. Kincardineshire, P.G. Supt. Angus and Mearns, S.G.W. Scotland.
JOHNSTONE Sir HARCOURT, Bt., M.P., P.J.G.W.
JOTHTT THOMAS, P.D.P.G.M Hereford.
KENSINGTON Rt. Hon. Lord, M.P., S.G.W. England, D. Prov. G.M. S. Wales (Western Division.)
LECHMERE Sir EDMUND A. H., Bart., M.P., Prov. G.M. Worcestershire.
L'ESTRANGE Col. H. Peisley, P.G. Supt. Norfolk.
LLOYD-PHILIPPS Col. JOHN ALLEN, Prov. G. Master South Wales (Western Division).
LONDESBOROUGH Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W.
MARTYN Rev. C. J., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Suffolk.
MANEFIELD WILLIAM, D.P.G.M. Worcestershire.
MELLOR G., S.G.D. England, D. Prov. G.M. E. Lanc.
NEWMARCH GEORGE FREDERICK, Dep. Prov. G.M. Gloucestershire.
ORMOVER HAUGHTON CHARLES, P.G.W., Dep. P.G. Master Derbyshire.
OWEN Sir PHILIP CUNLIFFE, K.C.M.G., C.B., S.W. 1159
PERCY Rt. Hon. Earl, M.P., P.G.M. Northumberland
PERKINS, Sir FREDERICK, M.P., P.M. 130, P.P.S.G.W. Hants, P.P.S.G.W.M.M.M., &c.
PORTAL Rev. GEO. RAYMOND, P.M. 10, P.G.M.M.M.
PERRY-CUST Ven. Archdeacon A. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Berks and Bucks.
SCOTT J. H., Dep. Prov. G.M. Sussex.
SPENCER-STANHOPE Rev. C. W., G. Chap., Deputy Prov. G.M. Cheshire
STARKIE Col. LE GENDRE N., Prov. G.M. East Lanc.
TEW T. W., Dep. Prov. G.M. West Yorkshire
THE PROVINCIAL GRAND LODGE OF HAMPSHIRE AND ISLE OF WIGHT
TRESCOTT Sir FRANCIS WYATT, Lord Mayor of London, P.M. No. 1, P. Pres. Board of G. Stewards
WATSON JOHN, Dep. Prov. G.M. Notts.
WAVENEY Rt. Hon. Lord, Prov. G. Master Suffolk
WIGRAM Rev. SPENCER R., P.G.C., D.P.G.M. Essex
WILKINS BUTLER, Dep. P.G.M. Norths and Hunts.
ZETLAND Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Prov. Grand Master North and East Yorkshire

Ace Rev. Daniel, D.D., F.R.A.S., P.P.G.C. Linc., G. Chap. Ma rk.
Adams Herbert J., P.M. 569, P.Z. 11, 1237
Addicott C. C., 1307
Adlard F., P.M 7, P.Z. 214, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Essex
Albert E. P., P.G.P., Sec. 188, 1017, &c.
Alpass Horace S., Prov. G. Sec. W. Lanc.
Andrews Joseph, 209, St. James Chap. A.S.A.E.
Armstrong R.L., P.M.406, P.G.S.D. Northumberland
Asaph Lodge, No. 1319, London.
Ayling T., P.M. 1096, P.P.G.D. of C. Kent
Ayton Rev. W. A., P.M. 599
Bagshawe Rev. Augustus A., M.A., P.G. Chap., P.P.S.G.W. Derbyshire, G. Chap. Mark, &c.
Baker E., P.P.G.S. of W. Berks and Bucks
Baldwin —, P.P.J.G.D. Middlesex
Bauer G. L., 198
Barfield —.
Barratt T., J.D. 3
Barwell H. G., P.M. 52, P.G. Sec. Norfolk
Bassett N. J. F.
Beasley A., P.M. 780, 1612
Beer Edwin, P.M. 1449
Belfrage D. M., W.M. 179.
Bell J., P.M. 1356, 1609, P.Z. 1356, P.P.J.G.D.
Bell W.
Berrie J. W., W.M. 1185.
Berry John J., P.M. 554.
Best Alfred, 211.
Biggs W., P.Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Binckes F., P.G.S., Sec. R.M.I.B.
Blackburn George, S.W. 264.
Blackwell E. J., S.D. 1101.
Boggis Arthur.
Boulter E. Reeve.
Boulton Babington, P.M., P.Z., P.P.G.D.
Bradley R., Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Brine Col. Frederic, R.E., P.M.
Brown H., Sec. 1764, P.G.S. Norths and Hunts.
Brown Richard, P.M. 241, P.Z. 1356, Hon. Sec. West Lanc. Masonic Educational Institution.
Bulley F. A., P.P.G.S.B. Berks and Bucks.
Burney Lieut.-Col. W. S. Somerville, P.P.S.G.D. Essex, P.M. 1615.
Burt, Ex-Sheriff George, A.G.D.C.
Carter J. O., Sec. 209, P.P.G.D. of C. Berks & Bucks.
Carter Q.-M. Sergt. W., Sec. 1449.
Cattelle A., J.D. 31.
Challen Chas., I.G. 3.
Chalmers T. W., P.M. 726.
Clark Matthew, J.G.D. England.
Clarke Stephenson.
Clench Major E.
Collins Rev. J. W., P.G.C. Suffolk, S.W. 1823.
Collins R. H.
Conolly Dr., 1185.
Constable John, P.M. 185, Vice-President.
Cooke Alfred.
Cooke Charles, W.M. 1823.
Cooper F.
Cordley W., 574, 1101.
Cronin F., P.M. 231.
Cousins C., S.D. 209.
Cubitt Thomas, P.G.P.
Cull T., P.M. 1299.
Cutbush James, P.M. 1385, Treas. 1731, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Herts.
Daunt Rev. E. T. Townshend, M.A., P.G.C. Cornwall.
Davage F. B., P.M. and T. 201, P.M. 167, P.Z. 185.
Davis G., J.W. 187
Davy C. R.
Dawkins Edward.
Dewar D. M., P.M. 1415, Assistant Grand Secretary M.M.M.
Dosell J. W. M., P.M. 55 463 1769, P.P.G.D.C. Surrey.
Dover J., 591.
Durrant Captain, P.M. 1185.
Emmerson Charles.
Emmerson R. Joynes, P.M. 1206, P.P.J.G.W. Kent.
Ewins S.D., P.M. 766.
Eynon R., P.M. 481, Prov. S.G.W. Northumberland.
Fenner A. W., S.W. 1227, J.W. 1693.
Fielder Baron, P.M., P.S.G.W. Berks and Bucks.
Flowerden Edward.
Frank, C. H., 1764.
Fraser J. A., 948.
Freeman, Vincent P., Prov. G. Sec. Sussex.
Frere E. T.
Gardiner G., Secretary 749.
Gee Fred. W., 1224, I.G. 1823.
Gibb T. Eccleston, 34.
Gilbert E. C., P.M., P.Z. 221, 293.
Gladwell Arthur E., J.W. 172.
Glendall Rev. J. W., P.M. 1, P.G. Chap., Chaplain to Foundling Hospital.
Godfrey Henry, P.M. 82, P.S.G.W. Gloucestershire.
Godson A. F., Q.C., M.A., P.M. 1097, P.P.G.S.W. Wales.
Goodall H. S., P.M. 784, 874, 65.
Greenfield John, Treas. 1002.
Greenwood George H., P.M. 1224.
Hamp T.
Harriott G., P.P.G.M. Wigtown and Kirkcudbright
Harris S. M., Sec. 406
Hartley John, W.M. 1400.
Harvey —.
Hawkins E. C., P.G.S. Oxon
Hedges Featham, W.M. 478, P.P.G. Sec. Oxfordsh.
Hemsley —, 771.
Henry Chaplin
Higham P., P.M. 21, P.P.J.G.W. Kent
Hodges H. Howard, P.M. 796, P.Z. 771, P.P.S.G.W., and P.G. Reg. [Arch] Berks and Bucks
Hogg Dr. Jabez, P.G.D., P.M. 172, 1260
Hopekirk W., P.M. Treas. 179, P.M. 1586, P.Z. 742
Hopper W.
Hopwood E., P.M. 141, 209, P.G.S.B. Middlesex
Horsley Charles P.P.G.R., P. Soj. Middlesex, P.Z.
Howkins Thos. P.M. 468, 938, P.P.G.W. and Sec. to Charity Committee of Warwickshire
Howorth Sergt.-Major J. F., Steward 1449
Hubbard C., W.M. 820
Inman Edwin H., P.J.W. 1312
Irvine J.
Jackson J. H., W.M. 654
Jacobs J., P.M. 482, P.P.G. Reg. Staffordshire
James W. H., P.M. 592, P.P.G.D.C. Gloucestershire
Johnson E., P.M. 149
Johnson H. J., S.W., 1791, J.D. 186, I.G. 1624
Jones E. Stanton, P.M. and Secretary 1319
Jones Robert E., W.M. 1224
Kay J. 742
Kenning George, P.P.G.D. Middlesex
Kent A., 1425
Kirby Edward, P.M. 1096
Klumbrowski Leonard, J.W. 1823
Lake Wm., P.M. 131, P.P.G. Reg.
Lanchan Henry C.
Le Fevre John E., Prov. G. Sec. Hants and I. of W.
Levy H. M., P.M. 188, &c.
Lewis W. Lambton
Lloyd Horatio, J.G.D.
Lucia W. H., P.G.S.B., Prov. G. Sec. Suffolk
Lucking A., P.M., P.Z., Prov. G. Sec. Suffolk
Lucking A., P.M., P.Z., Prov. G.D. of C. Essex
Maidwell T. J., P.M. 27.
Marshall Horace Brooks, C.C., Treas. 1777.
Massey H., P.M. 619.
Matier C. F., P.G.S.W. Greece, P.M. 845, P.G.W. Mark
Mather John L., P.M., P.G.D.C. Herts.
Meggy Thos., 10, P.M. 21, P.G.S.
Miskin H., W.M. 1449.
Morgan W. W., Sec. 211.
Morris Rev. R., Head Master R.M.I.B.
Morris W., Treas. 1569.
Motion George, P.M. 453, P.P.G.S.W. Essex.
Moutrie W. F. C., P.M. 11.
Murray J. Joyce.
Nairne P. A., P.M. and Treasurer 176.
Naylor H. T., P.M. 1449.
Neilson James Horner, P.P.G.M. Venezuela, P.G.S. Scotland, P.M. 620 (I.C.), 131 (E.C.), 0, 1, 5, 411, 241, 432, and 488 (S.C.), P.S.G.W. Egypt, &c.
Newcomb J., 742.
Newsom W., P.M. 1661, P.J.G.W. Notts.
Newton James, P.M., P.Z., P.G.S.N. East Lanc.
Nicholes W. S., S.W. 209.
Orellana James, J.W. Mark 244.
Pass W., P.M. and Treasurer 28.
Palmer T.
Passawer Dr. E., W.M. 244 Mark.
Payton F. W., J.D. 482.
Pears Andrew, W.M. 865, J.W. 208.
Pepper J. F., W.M. 482.
Percival Captain H. P., 1261.
Perryman W. H., P.M. 3.
Petts E. J., 209.
Phillips W. Page T., P. Prov. S.G.W. Suffolk, G.H.
Pollitzer S., P.M. 1017, P.Z. 188, 538.
Ralling T. J., Prov. G. Sec. Essex.
Radcliffe T. H. 511.
Radcliffe W., S.W. 211.
Randall Rev. W., P.M. 448, P.G.C. Warwicksh. and Staffs., Z. 482, E. 43, P.P.G.S., &c.
Ravenshaw Rev. F. F., P.G.C., P.M. 10, 663, P.Z. 632.
Reed H., P.M. 733.
Rere E. T.
Rich H. H., P.M. 874, 1523, P.Z. 1118, Past Prov. Grand Secretary Oxon.
Richards A. A., P.G.S., P.G.W. Middlesex.
Roberts Henry, 55.
Roberts Robert, P.M. 742, W.M. 209, Prov. G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Robbins Rev J., D.D., P.M. 1035, P.G. Chaplain Middlesex, W.M. 1705.
Rogers Rev. W.
Rosenthal S., P.M. 435, P.Z. 410, P.P.S.G.W. Middx.
Row C. J. N.
Russell Rev. T., P.M. and Sec. 480, P.G.J.W. Devon.
Sanders Rev. S. J. W., M.A. LL.M., &c. W.M. 1764, C. 360, Prov. G. Chap. Norths. and Hunts.
Saunders C. G., 328, 1669.
Saunders W. H., W.M. 889, P.P.G.D. Mdx., P.M. 1503.
Seller A., 414, P.P.G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Sharpe W. H. C., W.M. 795.
Shaw Rev. R. D., W.M. 85.
Sherren J. A., W.M. 170, P.P.G.W. Dorset.
Short Rev. W. F., P.G.C., 10, 357, 1383, 1637.
Simpson Rev. R. J., P.G.C., P.M. 10.
Smith H. B. Cooper, P.M. 478, 1523, 1731, P.Z. 357, P. Prov. G.W. Oxon.
Smith S. H., P.M. 468, 938, P.P.G.S.D. Warwick.
Snelling W. Walton, Sec. 1056, and of Metropolitan Masonic Benevolent Association.
Southwood J. H., P.M. 1260.
Spice R. P., W.M., P.G.S.
Spratt Augustus E. F.
Starkey N. A.
Steedman W., P.M. 754.
Steadwell —, P.M., P.G.S.
Stephens G. H., 1623.
Stevens James, P.M. 720 1216 1426, P.Z. 720 771.
Stiles W. M., Secretary 1507, 1732, 1744,
Stohwasser J., P.M. 238 435, P.Z. 8, P.G.S.
Storr E. F., W.M. 1079, P.M. 22.
Stuart Col. William, P.G.W., P.P.G.W. Herts.
Swanborough Edward, W.M. 1319.
Tamplin Augustus L., 441.
Taylor George, P.M. and Tr. 377, P.S.G.D. Worcestr.
Terry James, P.P.J.G.W. Herts, Sec. R.M.B.I.
Tombs H. C., P.G.D.
Torkington, A.
Townsend G., P.M., W.M. 1086, J. 1086.
Tracey Nathiel.
Verry G. Ward P.M. and Sec. 554 1278 1421, J.D. 1580, S.W. 625, P.Z. 554 1395, P.P.G.P.S. Herts.
Vickery S. A.
Walsh Arthur, 1101, P.P.G.R. Berks and Bucks.
Watts G. H.
Watts J.W., P.M. 1201
Weaver James, P.M. 862, 1319, P.Z. 177 862 1319, P.P.G. Org. Middx.
Welham Henry, P.M. 1224
Wentworth T. J., W.M. 225, P.S.G.D. Suffolk
Westfield W., P.M. 1501
Wheeler Fred., P.P.G.R. Suffolk, P.M. and Sec. 1224
Willing James, P.M. 177, P.M. and Treas. 1507, P.M. and Treas. 1744, P.Z. and Treas. 1507, Z. 1009
Wilson J., P.M. and Treas. 209
Winter James
Withers Alfred, W.M. 211
Woodford Rev. A. F. A., P.G. Chap.
Woodman Dr. W. R., P.G.S.B.
Woodward E. C., P.M. 382, 1637, &c.
Worlock R. Montagu, Prov. G. Sec. Bristol
Wragg J. H., Prov. Grand Sec. Notts.
Wright John, P.G.P.

Cavenc Lodge, No. 176, London
Etonian Lodge, No. 209, Windsor
St. Luke's Lodge, No. 225, Ipswich
Lord Warden Lodge, No. 1096, Walmer
Lewis Lodge, No. 1185, Wood Green
Curwen Lodge, No. 1400, Harrington.
Duke of Cornwall Lodge, No. 1529, St. Columb.

Editor of "The Freemason"
Editor of "The Freemason's Chronicle."
Editor of "The Rosicrusian"
Editor of "The Scottish Freemason"
Editor of "The Standard."

Brethren who desire to assist in establishing this Fund will oblige by forwarding their names to be added to the above List.

Digitized by Google

ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY Limited, 7 Bank Buildings, Lothbury, E.C.

General accidents. | Personal injuries.
Railway accidents. | Death by accident.

C. HARDING, Manager.

RHEUMATISM.

THE only real remedy for this complaint is the Northern Cure (patent). In bottles 1s 1½d each, to be had of all Chemists. Proprietors and Manufacturers, Edwards and Alexander, 29 Blacket-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

GEO. JONES,

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT MANUFACTURER and IMPORTER, 350 and 481 Commercial Road, London, E. Price List of every description of Instruments post free. Established 1850.

TAMAR INDIEN.

SPECIAL CAUTION.

OWING to the marked success of this medicine, the only patent medicine universally prescribed by the faculty, and the acknowledged cure for constipation, headache, bile, hæmorrhoids, &c., BASE IMITATIONS, containing drastic irritants, are being foisted on the public. The genuine preparation bears the title "Tamar Indien," and the signature E. GRILLON, Coleman-st., London, E.C. Price 2s 6d per box. In a recent case, 1874, G. No. 211, a perpetual injunction to restrain the defendant from applying the name "Tamar" to his lozenges was awarded, with costs, by Vice-Chancellor Bacon, on 19th January 1877, and all such piracies will be summarily proceeded against.——N.B.—See that the outer wrapper (directions) are printed in the English language and that each box bears the Government 4d stamp.

MEMORY EXTRAORDINARY BY CORRESPONDENCE.—Particulars post free of Bro. William Stokes, Teacher of Memory, Royal Polytechnic, 309 Regent-street, London, W. Private lessons by appointment. Class on Tuesdays, 3 and 8.30. The System complete in Three Lessons. "Stokes on Memory," by post 14 stamps. Memory Globe, 14 stamps.

EVENING Employment wanted, by a P.M. Good Accountant. Address 2001, FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, W.C.

HOTELS, ETC.

EALING—Feathers Hotel

EASTBOURNE—Pier Hotel, Cavendish Place. View of Sea and Pier. A. TAYLOR Proprietor

KEW—Star and Garter. Good accommodation for Lodge & Dinner Parties. J. BRILL Proprietor

SANDWICH—Bell Family and Commercial Hotel, Good Stabling. J. J. FILMER Proprietor

WOOD GREEN—Kings Arms Hotel. A. B. GREENSLADE Proprietor

YORK—Queen's Family and Commercial Hotel, Micklegate. H. CHURCHILL Proprietor

LONDON.

CALTHORPE ARMS—232 Gray's Inn Road, W.C. Billiards, Pool, Pyramids, &c. Best Wines and Spirits. W. H. G. RUDDERFORTH Proprietor

CANNING TOWN—Liverpool Arms. J. PAVITT. Friars L. of Instruction, 1349, Tuesdays at 7.30

GREEN DRAGON—Spring Garden-place, Stepney Wines and Spirits of the best quality. Billiards. Banquets provided for large or small parties. Yarborough L. & C. 554, and Temple Mark L. 173 held here. Lodge of Instruc. (554) meets every Tuesday at 8. A. WALTER Proprietor

MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT—Moorgate Street, E.C. Hot and Cold Dinners, &c. Chops and Steaks. Good accommodation for Lodge Meetings, &c. A. KENT Proprietor

NEW MARKET HOTEL—King Street, Snow Hill, E.C. Good accommodation for Club and other Banquets. Wines and Spirits of best quality. Specially licensed for Masonic Balls. Lodges 1623 and 1677 are held here. Strong Man No. 45 and West Smithfield No. 1623 Lodges of Instruction, meet here, every Monday at 8 p.m. Thomas BUTT Proprietor

SAWYER'S (late Station) RESTAURANT, 5 Railway Place, Fenchurch Street, E.C. English, French, and German Cuisine. Wines of the best quality. Hot and Cold Luncheons, Chops, Steaks, &c. Tea and Coffee. F. J. SAWYER (late of Pimm's and Crystal Palace) Proprietor

BILLIARD BALLS, Chalks, Cues, and Tips, at HENNIG BROS.' Ivory Works, 11 High Street, London, W.C. Cheapest house in the trade for billiard-table requisites and ivory goods in general. Old balls adjusted or exchanged, and tables recovered. Price Lists on application. Established 1862.

W. BEASLEY,

Bespoke Boot Maker,

28 Queen Victoria Street.

HUNTING, RIDING, DRESS AND BOOTS FOR THE MOORS,

MADE IN A FEW DAYS.

Specialité—Hand Sewn and Standard Screwed.

C. HUBBARD,

Plain & Fancy Box & Pattern CARD MANUFACTURER.

139 & 141 NEW NORTH ROAD, AND 64 SHAFTESBURY ST., LONDON, N.

ROCHESTER & FOX,

Post and Job Masters,

799 COMMERCIAL ROAD, E. AND 81 JUBILEE STREET, MILE END, E.

Carriages of every description on hire.

SUPERIOR WEDDING CARRIAGES.

HOUGHTON,

THE BOOT MAKER,

243 & 244 WHITECHAPEL ROAD, LONDON, E.

Lasts made to the Feet.

—:o:—

SPECIALITÉ, EASE, ELEGANCE AND DURABILITY.

JOSEPH J. CANEY,

DIAMOND MERCHANT, AND MANUFACTURING JEWELLER AND WATCH MAKER,

44 CHEAPSIDE, LONDON.

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND FURNITURE.

Specialité—First Class Jewels—Artistic—Massive—Best Quality—Moderate in Price

CATALOGUES POST FREE.

A LARGE STOCK OF LOOSE BRILLIANTS FOR EXPENSIVE JEWELS.

Diamond Rings, Brooches, Studs, Earrings and Bracelets in Great Variety.

MASONIC JEWELS FOR ALL DEGREES.

MINIATURE WAR MEDALS AND DECORATIONS.

ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD IN ALL SIZES.

ATHLETIC SPORTS MEDALS AND BADGES.

A. D. LOEWENSTARK & SONS, Medallists, 210 STRAND, LONDON, W.C.

MANUFACTORY—1 DEVEREUX COURT, STRAND.

J. FORTESCUE,

HAT MANUFACTURER.

129 FLEET ST.; 114 & 115 SHOE LANE,

(One door from Fleet Street)

6 EXMOUTH STREET, CLERKENWELL, E.C.

And 143 Mare Street, Triangle, Hackney

Gents' Silk Hats from 5/6 each. Second best 6/6 7/6 8/6 Superfine quality, 10/6 12/6 & 16/. The very best made 21/. Felt Hats, hard and soft, in all the newest shapes, from 3/6 to 10/6.

ADAM S. MATHER,

GAS ENGINEER, GENERAL GAS FITTER AND BELL HANGER

MANUFACTURER OF BILLIARD LIGHTS

AND OF EVERY DESCRIPTION OF GAS APPARATUS FOR COOKING AND HEATING

Bath Rooms Fitted up. All the Latest Improvements Introduced.

MANUFACTORY—12 CHARLES STREET, HATTON GARDEN, E.C.; AND AT 278 CALEDONIAN ROAD, ISLINGTON, N.

ESTIMATES GIVEN.

PIANOFORTES AND HARMONIUMS ON EASY TERMS.

GROVER & GROVER

LET ON HIRE, WITH OPTION OF PURCHASE,

BEAUTIFUL AND PERFECT INSTRUMENTS.

PURCHASERS CHOOSE THEIR OWN TERMS,

FROM 15s TO £3 3s PER QUARTER.

The Advantages of a Trial, with the Convenience of the Three Years' System at Cash Price, by Paying about a Quarter of the value down, the Balance by Easy Payments, from 13s per quarter.

GROVER & GROVER, 157-9 Kingsland Road.

ESTABLISHED 1830.

T. J. TARLING,

COAL MERCHANT.

North Wallsend	23s	Per Ton
Hetton or Lambton	24s	,,
Best Silkstone	23s	,,
Best Derby	21s	,,

All letters to be addressed :—

5 BURDETT ROAD, BOW, E.

A. LAZARUS,

MERCHANT TAILOR AND Juvenile Clothier,

CORNER OF WORSHIP ST., SHOREDITCH, E., AND 51 LIVERPOOL STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Patterns and Rules for Self Measurement post free.

Bro. A. OLDROYD, Stratford, London,

MANUFACTURER OF TOBACCO POUCHES,

With any name in raised letters.

CAN be obtained direct from the Maker, at the undermentioned prices, on receipt of P.O.O. payable at Stratford.

	Price		Will take a name of
No. 3	2/0	...	9 letters
,, 4	2/6	...	11 ,,
,, 5	3/0	...	12 ,,
,, 6	3/6	...	13 ,,
,, 7	4/0	...
,, 8	4/8	...
,, 9	5/0	...

A. OLDROYD,

Agent for Algerian Cigars, and Importer of Havana and Continental Cigars,

84 HIGH STREET, STRATFORD, LONDON, E.

Digitized by Google

EDWARD STILLWELL AND SON,

25, 26 and 27 BARBICAN, AND 6 LITTLE BRITAIN, LONDON,
109 ARGYLE STREET, GLASGOW,

Gold Lacemen, Embroiderers and Sword Cutlers,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Masonic Fittings for Lodges, Chapters and Encampments.

CLOTHING, JEWELS (PINS, STUDS AND RINGS), FOR EVERY DEGREE.
Aprons, Sashes, Horns, Ornaments and Banners for Foresters, Odd Fellows, Orangemen, Free Gardeners, &c.
REGALIA FOR I.O.G.T. AND ALL SOCIETIES.

LIBERAL TERMS TO SHIPPERS.

H. T. LAMB,

MANUFACTURER OF

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND REGALIA,

5 ST. JOHN SQUARE, LONDON.

PRICE LIST, CONTAINING 120 ILLUSTRATIONS, POST FREE ON APPLICATION.

PHILLIPS & COMPANY'S TEAS

ARE BEST AND CHEAPEST,

8 KING WILLIAM STREET, CITY, LONDON, E.C.

A GENERAL PRICE CURRENT AND STORE LIST, CONTAINING ALL THE ADVANTAGES OF THE LONDON MARKETS, POST FREE.

Show Rooms for Chinese, Japanese, and Oriental Art Products, and General Stores, 13 & 14 ABCHURCH LANE, adjoining 8 KING WILLIAM STREET, E.C.

J. E. SHAND & CO.

Wine Merchants,

(Experts and Valuers of Wines and Spirits,)

2 ALBERT MANSIONS, VICTORIA ST., LONDON, S.W.

PRICES DELIVERED IN LONDON.

SHERRIES	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	SPARKLING MOSELLES	42s, 48s, 54s
PORTS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	CHAMPAGNES	36s, 42s, 48s, 54s, 60s
CLARETS	16s, 18s, 21s, 24s, 30s, 36s	BURGUNDY	20s, 24s, 30s, 36s, 42s
STILL HOCKS	24s 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s	BRANDIES	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s, 66s
SPARKLING do	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s	WHISKIES	20s per gall., 42s per doz.

COUNTRY ORDERS OVER £3 CARRIAGE FREE.

"Sparkling Sauterne," 1875 Vintage—Delicious New Sparkling Wine, Sec. and Extra Sec. 42s per doz.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.

WARD'S

INVALID CHAIR AND CARRIAGE

MANUFACTORY,

From SAVILLE HOUSE, LEICESTER SQUARE,

To 246 & 247 TOTTENHAM COURT ROAD, LONDON.

THE ONLY PRIZE MEDAL for INVALID FURNITURE was gained by JOHN WARD, at the London Exhibitions, 1851 and 1862; Paris, 1855 and 1867; Dublin, 1865; Vienna, 1873; 2 Silver Medals, Paris, 1878.

JOHN WARD, Manufacturer by Special Appointment to the Queen and Royal Family, the Empresses of France, Austria, Russia, &c.

INVALID CHAIRS and CARRIAGES for SALE or HIRE from JOHN WARD. Established 150 years. Drawings and price lists free on application.

Fish Carvers, Fish Eating Knives and Forks, Revolving Covered Soup and Luncheon Dishes.

SPECIALITIES FOR TESTIMONIALS,
TEA AND COFFEE SERVICES,
SALVERS, DESSERT KNIVES AND FORKS, GILT AND OXYDIZED GOODS.

77 (from 28) Cheapside, London, E.C.
(NEAR THE POULTRY.)

MORING,

ENGRAVER, DIE SINKER,
HERALDIC ARTIST,
ILLUMINATED ADDRESSES,
44, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST POST FREE.

ADLARD'S JEWEL ATTACHER 7/6.

If with Pockets, 6d each Pocket extra.

225 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

JANES & SON

WINDOW BLINDS ONLY,

WHOLESALE,

ALDERSGATE STREET, CITY, E.C.

BRANCH—

4 EAGLE PLACE, PICCADILLY

THESE ADDRESSES ONLY.

YOUNG'S Arnicated Corn and Bunion Plaisters are the best ever invented for giving immediate ease, and removing those painful excrescences. Price 6d and 1s per box. Any Chemist not having them in stock can procure them.

Observe the Trade Mark—H. Y.—without which none are genuine. Be sure and ask for Young's.

Horticultural Decorations, Ferneries, Winds & Gardening, Seats, Bulbs, Plants, Ferns, PLANTS FOR DECORATION. Masonic Banquets, Balls, &c.

DICK RADCLYFFE & CO., F.R.H.S.

PRIZE MEDAL SEEDS.

LONDON VIENNA

ENDEAVOUR TO PLEASE

CARRIAGE FREE. WIDE CATALOGUE.

TABLE DECORATIONS, Ball Room Decorations, Seeds for Export. Illustrated Catalogues gratis and post free. Seeds, Bulbs, &c., carefully packed for Export.

129 HIGH HOLBORN. W.C.

NEW MASONIC ROOMS

COMPLETE SUITE,
SPECIALLY ARRANGED
LODGE, BANQUETTING,
AND ANTE ROOMS,
ALL ON ONE FLOOR.

Particulars to be had of

BRO. A. KENT, MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT,
OPPOSITE RAILWAY STATION.

From which trains run at frequent intervals in connection with the Great Northern, Midland, Great Western, London Chatham & Dover, and Metropolitan Railways.

Printed for the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE PUBLISHING COMPANY LIMITED, and Published by Bro. WILLIAM WRAY MORGAN JUN., at 23 Great Queen Street, London W.C., Saturday, 7th February 1880.

Digitized by Google

THE

Freemason's Chronicle;

A WEEKLY RECORD OF MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

SANCTIONED BY THE GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

Registered at the G.P.O. as a Newspaper.

VOL. XI.—No. 268. SATURDAY, 14th FEBRUARY 1880. [Issued to Subscribers only. 13s 6d per annum, post free.

FESTIVAL OF THE ROYAL MASONIC BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION.

THE Festival of the Benevolent Institution for the year 1880, which had been looked forward to for some time with great anxiety, has passed, and many now be looked back upon with the greatest pride by all concerned; the total of the subscriptions, collected by the 228 Stewards who this year worked for the Institution, being announced by the Secretary on Monday last, after the toast of the evening had been proposed and acknowledged as no less than £12,005 16s 6d with thirteen lists then outstanding. True, this amount is less by £1,870 than that announced under similar circumstances last year, but even allowing for this fact, the result of this year's Festival on behalf of our "Old People" is one of the grandest, if not the greatest success ever known in connection with the Masonic Charitable Institutions. Last year the Committee were singularly fortunate in securing the services of the ruler of one of our largest Provinces as Chairman at the Festival, and he was enabled, with the co-operation of the members of his district, to bring up the largest amount ever contributed by a Province to one or other of our Institutions. This year the ruler of one of the smaller subdivisions undertook the duties of President, and he certainly deserves the thanks of the Craft for the heartiness with which he entered upon the work of his office. With a personal contribution of one hundred guineas he nobly heads a total of £855 from his Province of North and East Yorkshire, a result which we trust is but a specimen of what he and his district intend to do for the Institutions in the future. Other Provinces show well in the totals they have sent up at the hands of their respective Stewards, but of these we shall speak further in a later issue. Suffice it to say here, that the Provinces, represented on this occasion by 101 Stewards, have contributed a total of £4,682 1s and that the 126 London Stewads have collected no less a sum than £7,270 15s 6d, one Steward from the Punjab completing the total with a list of fifty guineas. It will thus be seen that to the London Stewards belongs the credit of having placed this year's Festival in the prominent position it occupies, and all praise is due to them for the grand totals they have collected. This result more particularly shows the need for a Secretary who avails himself of every opportunity of visiting the Lodges, and there urging the members to support the Steward of the Lodge or other brother who may be representing them. Bro. Terry has for weeks past worked day and night among the London Lodges to secure the result on which we must congratulate him, and this notwithstanding the fact that a heavy affliction, in the death of his father, has befallen him. He has not neglected the Provinces, but we think we are correct in saying that this year he has devoted his energies more particularly to London; undoubtedly the result proves the absolute need for personal canvass. At the time of the election of Bro. Hedges, as Secretary for the Girls' School, it was urged by some that this work should not be required of the three Secretaries. We then pointed out that it was absolutely necessary, and we are more and more convinced as, day by day, our experience of the Craft increases, that it is the only way to secure large lists. Left to themselves, we have no doubt but that Lodges will appoint Stewards, but something more is necessary. It is impossible for every Steward to make himself acquainted with all the details of the task he has undertaken, and therefore he is unable to put the matter as forcibly before the brethren as can a brother whose sole duty it is to work for the Institution more particularly interested, and thus it is we consider that visits from the Secretaries are needful for the welfare of the Institutions. We have already said that the London total so far as was known at the time of announcement was £7,270 15s 6d, which sum was collected by 126 Stewards. It will be seen that the above gives an average of £57 14s to each Steward, an amount considerably in excess of the average of last year, and even this may be considerably increased when the amount of the lists now outstanding are added. The place of honour is secured by Bro. Parkhouse, who, as Steward from the Earl of Carnarvon Lodge No. 1642, brings up a list of £400. When we consider that in June last this Lodge sent up 500 guineas for the Boys, at the hands of Bro. Penn, we can but again congratulate the members on the work they do for the Charities. After the very handsome results of the Festivals of the past few years, it may reasonably be asked —What is done with the vast amounts subscribed to this Institution? The sum expended last year in annuities was £10,820, that is to say, at the time of the last election there were 145 brethren each in receipt of £40 per annum, 145 widows each receiving £32 per annum, and nineteen entitled to half their late husband's annuities. The total number of those who had been elected to the benefits of the Institution then was 509 brethren and 278 widows. As a result of this year's grand total notice was given at the Committee meeting of Wednesday to create fifteen additional annuities—ten widows' at £32 per annum each, and five men's at £40 each—so that, supposing this proposition to be carried, as we have no doubt it will be, there will be 150 brethren and 155 widows receiving grants from the Institution, in addition to those widows who are entitled to a moiety of their late husband's annuities. This indeed is a work of which we may feel really proud, and we sincerely hope that at no future time will it be necessary to reduce either the number or the amount of the grants. It was wisely stated at the meeting of Wednesday that it was better to create more annuities than increase the amount of existing ones, and this we fully endorse. The amounts at which the grants are at present fixed is as much as can be expected from a charitable source, and when we consider the number of the annuitants—305 if the additional fifteen as proposed is decided on—it will be seen that a very large sum would be absorbed by even a small addition to each. As at present appearing, there are seventy-nine candidates for the next election, which will take place in May, while the number of declared vacancies is but twenty-six. Taking into account the additional fifteen annuities which we hope will be created before that date, it will be seen that thirty-eight candidates will have to be refused a participation in the benefits of the Charity. There are thirty-one male candidates, for whom there are now thirteen vacancies, and forty-eight female, among whom will be divided a like number of grants. We cannot but be gratified at the splendid work we are able to carry on; still, we must express the hope that some day it will not be necessary to send away any one in need and found worthy.

A military correspondent of the Yorkshire Gazette writes:—It may interest some of your readers to know that Freemasonry flourishes in Cabul. A warrant has been granted for the opening of a Lodge to be called the Seaforth Lodge, and Captain J. A. Stewart-Mackenzie, 9th Royal Lancers, has been elected Worshipful Master.

Digitized by Google

WHAT DO WE DISCOVER IN THE MINES AND QUARRIES?

WHAT do we discover in the Mines and Quarries? This is a question that is worthy of something more than a brief and hasty reply. There are probably two million brethren engaged in the labours of the Craft; surely therefore there must be some reward for the expense, time and labour attendant thereon. Yes, the workmen of the present age are daily and hourly discovering in these quarries and mines more precious stones, more brilliant gems and richer ore than ever the skilled masons and miners under the superintendence of the king of ancient Tyre, and the direction of his friend and coadjutor the martyred Abif brought forth from the gigantic quarries of Jerusalem, or from the dark and intricate mines in the mountains of Palestine.

The Hiramites of to-day are obliged to labour hard and search long for that material and those precious stones that are requisite for the construction of the building of that Holy Temple in which they are engaged. Despite all our efforts a vast amount of rubbish is constantly being washed into our mines and quarries from the cesspools of materialism, rationalism and infidelity, with which our works are surrounded, and are only eliminated by streams from the fountains of truth which are constantly poured in upon them by the labours of the Craftsmen. What then do the brethren of the Mystic Tye discover in these mines and quarries, at which they are so assiduously, so constantly working?

We discover deep down in the figurative quarries and sympolic mines of Freemasonry many precious gems, many priceless jewels, many sparkling stones, many brilliant crystals, many diamonds of the first water; we are engaged in hewing and preparing perfect ashlars for the Temple of the Lord, and these we inlay amidst the silver of friendship and gold, of love with the emerald of faith, the opal of hope, and the ruby of charity, surrounding them with the sapphire of purity, the onyx of brotherly love, and the topaz of fraternal relief, whilst we crown each one of them with a circlet of the diamonds of truth. These are the rewards of the faithful delver in the mines, and the honest workman in her quarries.

We have thousands amongst us who, although they have been brought to light are still so enshrouded in darkness that they cannot discover these priceless treasures. They are blind to the varying hues of the opal and brilliant flashes of the diamond; they cannot appreciate the value of the precious metals, or discover aught of beauty or worth in the most dazzling gems. They care not for the sapphire of purity or the gold of love, and never exhibit the ruby of charity or the silver of friendship. The diamond of truth is to them the valueless crystallised carbon.

Now, since there are so many precious treasures in these mines and quarries, since they are so pregnant with wealth and riches, how important is it that we should only admit good workmen, true workmen, and zealous workmen. We want no idlers; we desire not the careless and negligent. Every Mason should be an ardent enthusiast. There is much to learn, and we should teach every neophyte that the Freemasonry of the present day is a living system vitalised from the wellspring of fraternal love and god-like charity. We desire to make our Masonry more practical; too many join us because they view the society as fashionable, or look upon the Association as a convivial club, whereas the fact is the Craft of the nineteenth century has a most holy and honourable mission to perform. We claim to be the only fraternity on the earth that teaches in all its symbolism the science of truth; that truth which renders man honourable and woman pure, because it springs from the Godhead Himself, who is truth vitalised and truth deified.

Freemasonry is the emblemification of liberality and purity of thought, and consequently the embodiment of charity in every shape and form. The true student of our mysteries, the laborious delver in our mines, the earnest worker in her quarries, soon discovers that beneath our formal ritualism and mystic symbolism there runs an undercurrent as pure as crystal, as holy as an inspiration of Deity, and so it is. These ceremonies and this mysticism hide the science of sciences, which teaches man his own puny finiteness, and at the same time exhibits a knowledge of the wondrous power and glory of the Omnipotent Infinite. The mind of the Freemason must expand the longer he labours in the quarries and delves in the mines, because he hourly discovers more precious truths. More, he learns to view as a brother,—this is really the first lesson; his brother-man becomes precious to him, part of himself. The honour of a brother is as important to him as his own; he learns to view with holy reverence those that are near and dear to a brother, and woman in his eyes and heart assumes a purer, holier form; the nature and character of the Supreme becomes clearer and plainer to his mental vision, because Freemasonry has taught him to accept the Jehovah of the Hebrew, the Allah of the Mahommedan, and the Nazarene of the Christian, as a central being from whom all purity, goodness and kindness ever flow, who is a Friend and Father of the Children of Earth. In a word, the Freemason's idea of the Creator is a supreme being elevated above the puny god of a sect, or the heavenly lord of a race, into an Universal God of Infinite Space and Innumerable Worlds; a Creator of Creators, a God of Gods. These are the true treasures, the precious stones, the rich metals that we discover in the Quarries and Mines of Freemasonry.

COMMITTEE MEETING OF THE BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION.

THE Committee of the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution assembled on Wednesday afternoon at Freemasons' Hall, when there were present—Bros. Lieut.-Colonel Creaton Grand Treasurer (in the chair), James Brett, William Stephens, George Bolton, C. G. Dilley, James Kench, Baron de Ferrieres, C. A. Cottebrune, J. M. Case, Nathaniel George Philips, H. S. Somerville Burney, A. H. Tattersall, Henry Smith, Raynham W. Stewart, William Clarke, John G. Stevens, S. Rawson, Thomas Cubitt, William Hilton, William Hale, C. H. Webb, Edgar Bowyer, F. Adlard, Charles F. Hogard, and James Terry Secretary. Bro. Terry announced the death of five male annuitants and two females. He then stated that he had to report that the Festival of the Institution took place on Monday, under the presidency of the Earl of Zetland, Prov. G.M. for the North and East Ridings of Yorkshire, on which occasion £12,005 16s 6d was subscribed. Four out of thirteen outstanding lists had since come in, with a total of over £80. He expected that the remainder would make up the amount of Monday's subscriptions to another £200. Votes of thanks were then passed to the Earl of Zetland and the Board of Stewards. Bro. G. R. Green having given his entertainments, "Enoch Arden," and "a Roman among the Romans," to the annuitants of the Institution at Croydon, a vote of thanks to him for doing so was passed unanimously. Some of the brethren having made some useful presents to, and entertained Bro. James Norris, the Warden of the Institution, on his completing his ninetieth year, a letter from Bro. Norris thanking the brethren was read by Bro. Terry. In answer to Bro. Henry Smith, Provincial Grand Secretary for West Yorkshire, the Chairman said that Grand Lodge having purchased some additional property, plans were submitted to the Building Committee for giving increased accommodation for the work of the office of the Secretary of the Institution. He afterwards proposed to add ten women and five men to the number of annuitants, which he thought was but right considering the state of the funds and the large subscriptions of last Monday. This would make 23 widows and 18 men to be elected in May, out of a total list of 79 candidates. This was seconded by Bro. R. W. Stewart Prov. Grand Deacon, and approved by Bro. Henry Smith, who thought it better to increase the number of annuitants than the amount of the annuities. The motion was then carried. The grant of half her late husband's annuity was made to a widow, and the Committee then adjourned.

A ball in aid of the Masonic Charities was held on Thursday, 29th ult., at the Star Assemby Rooms, Portsmouth, under distinguished patronage. The necessray arrangements had been carried out by Bros. J. W. Stroud, J. D. Hill, A. T. Cave, and W. C. Webb, and the room was tastefully decorated, festoons, flags, evergreens, Chinese lanterns, and coloured lamps being effectively introduced, while Bro. A. L. Emanuel had lent candelabra and plate for the decoration of the hall and the supper tables. Figures in armour, devices in swords and bayonets, and also Masonic mottoes and emblems were likewise used for decorative purposes. Dancing commenced at half-past nine o'clock, and notwithstanding the unfavourable weather the attendance numbered about a hundred. Shortly after midnight supper was served in the billiard room by Host Bowers, whose catering gave unqualified satisfaction. The company did not disperse till nearly five o'clock, when a special steam launch left for Portsea. The ball was a complete success. The Masonic mottoes had been executed by Mr. Cave, ship's decorator, of the High-street, the other decorations having been carried out by a non-commissioned officer and men of the Royal Marine Light Infantry, together with seamen.

The fifth anniversary banquet of the Metropolitan Lodge of Instruction, No. 1507, will take place on Tuesday, the 2nd March, at the Moorgate Station Restaurant, E.C., at 7.30 p.m. Bro. C. J. Scales the W.M. of the mother Lodge will occupy the chair, being supported by an efficient Board of Stewards, comprising the Past Masters and Officers of the Metropolitan Lodge and several others. We feel assured our brethren will spend a pleasant evening, and that a good supper will be provided by the proprietor of the Restaurant, Bro. Kent. The price of the tickets is 2s 6d each. We can promise any of our readers a hearty welcome if they can attend.

Digitized by Google

ROYAL MASONIC BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION.

THE annual Festival of this Institution was held on Monday at the Freemason's Tavern, Great Queen-street, London, under the presidency of the R.W. the Earl of Zetland, Prov. G.M. for North and East Yorkshire, who was supported by Sir W. W. Burrell Prov. G.M. for Sussex; Colonel Creaton, Grand Treasurer; Colonel Shadwell H. Clerke, G.S.; Major-Gen. the Hon. Somerset G. Calthorpe, G.J.W. of the year; Bro. R. H. Giddy, D.G.M. of Griqualand, &c. About 500 brethren were present. A pleasing feature of the gathering was the attendance of several Brethren of the Fitzroy Lodge in their uniform as Members of the Hon. Artillery Company, and later in the evening, when the toast of the Prince of Wales was given from the chair, they, in compliment to H.R.H. who is Colonel of their regiment, gave the special "fire" well known to visitors of their Lodge. The toast of The Queen was given by the Noble President, who, amid the cheers of the assembly, spoke of Her Majesty's deep interest in the Craft and its institutions, as shown by the donations Her Majesty had made to the Charities of the Order. The introduction of the toast of the Grand Master required, the Chairman said, but few words from him. H.R.H The Prince of Wales was the most popular Grand Master ever known, and the toast usually proposed in his honour was universally received with acclamation in Masonic Lodges. The toast was then given, and coupled with it were the names of the Princess of Wales and the other Members of the Royal Family. To the toast of the Grand Officers, present and past, Bro. Sir W. W. Burrell responded, and then followed the toast of the evening—Success to the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution for Aged Freemasons and Widows of Freemasons. The Earl of Zetland, in proposing the toast, said that if it were necessary to educate the young, it was also necessary to provide for those who in the evening of life found themselves in distressed circumstances. The Institution was founded at the suggestion of the late Duke of Sussex, nearly 40 years ago, and the work carried out by it was seen in the fact that last year a sum of £10,820 had been distributed among Decayed Brethren and the Widows of Brethren, the former receiving annuities of £40 a year, the latter of £32; while to some an almshouse was also vouchsafed. The toast was coupled with the name of Bro. Colonel Creaton, who acknowledged it; and then Bro. James Terry, the Secretary, read out the list of subscriptions, showing that the Craft had sent up from the different Lodges in England Stewards whose subscriptions amounted in the whole to £12,005 16s 6d, with thirteen lists outstanding. Of this sum, London, represented by 126 Stewards, had sent £7,270. The Provinces, 101 Stewards, £1,782 11s 0d, and from the Punjab, one Steward £52 10s 0d. Bro. Giddy, the District Grand Master of Griqualand proposed the toast of The President of the Night, and reminded the brethren, amid great applause, of the association of the Earl's name with the Craft, his predecessor in the title having been Grand Master for upwards of a quarter of a century. The Chairman having acknowledged the toast, proceeded to propose Success to the other Masonic Institutions, to which Bro. Hedges replied, announcing that H.R.H. Prince Leopold had fixed the date of the Festival of the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls as the 16th of April. Bro. Shadwell H. Clerke proposed the Stewards, which having been acknowledged, that of the Ladies was given, and to this Bro. Quarter-Master W. G. Brighten, of the Fitzroy and other Lodges, replied. A very good concert was provided by Bro. Charles E. Tinney, the artistes engaged rendering the songs in a perfect manner, and being fully appreciated by the brethren.

The following is a corrected list of the Stewards and amounts collected by them up to the time of our going to press.

LONDON

Lodge			£	s	d
	Bro. E C Woodward
1	George Martin		17	17	0
2	Charles O Tagart		52	10	0
4	Rev. George W Weldon M.A.		15	15	0
5	W H Clarke		31	17	0
8	Frank Green		26	2	0
10	Hamon le Strange		35	4	0
11	G J Palmer		35	14	0
14	Eugene Montennis		19	19	0
15	Edward P Barlow		78	0	0
21	Robert Berridge		39	2	0
23	Edward Nixey		15	14	6
26	W C Beaumont		12	11	0
27	J B Poole		140	3	6
28	T J Thomas		47	5	0
29	Fras Farnan jun.
30	Alfred Lefeaux		35	0	0
33	Edward Stronts		40	0	0
55	Samuel Pownceby		50	2	0
65	Charles Daniel		124	0	0
66	Macrae Moir		26	5	0
73	Benjamin Isaacs		64	5	6
87	Thos Janeway		52	12	0
95	H-W Ruff		31	9	6
101	W George		43	1	0
141	Edward Hopwood		40	14	0
Chapter
142	Comp. F Statham Hobson		41	7	0
Lodge
145	Bro. J H Leggott, V.Pat.		276	5	6
157	C Buckhurst		26	5	0
162	Jeremiah Lyon		34	13	0
165	G E Wainwright		37	5	6
172	H Hoadley		52	5	0
173	Edward W Allen		52	10	0
174	C H Webb, V.P.		121	8	0
Chapter
174	Comp. Theophilus Hallett		210	0	0
177	Chas A Cottebrune		44	2	0
Lodge
179	Bro. H A Lovett	}	48	0	0
179	W Hughes	}
180	Ernest Farwig		57	15	0
183	H C Archer		49	17	6
Chapter
185	Comp. James Smith		13	2	6
Lodge
186	Bro. W H Hook		52	10	0
193	W W Collier		35	0	0
197	Dr Benj H Paul		22	19	0
198	H C Lambert		23	2	0
201	Theophilus Dunkley		20	5	0
206	Samuel Gamman		52	10	0
211	Alfred Withers		79	5	6
228	Richard Pearcy		86	16	6
235	Edward H Hewett		10	10	0
235	Thomas C Chown		15	15	0
256	Joseph Heming		31	10	0
256	Charles Birch
259	Maj.-Gen. Hon. Somerset J G Calthorpe		178	5	0
435	Emil F W Berger		22	0	0
511	John Avery		50	0	0
511	Bro. C E Williams		10	10	0
538	Julius Quitmann		71	8	0
548	S P Catterson		75	1	6
Chapter
554	Comp. Jno Jas Berry		105	0	0
Lodge
569	Bro. William H Bateman		131	5	0
657	John N Ward		113	7	0
704	C B Hilliard
720	W R Sheadd		42	0	0
749	Peter Parsons		23	0	0
754	George Burford	}	50	0	0
754	Henry V Clements	}
766	George Newman		26	5	0
813	Lewis C Haslip		36	4	6
820	Charles Hubbard		144	16	0
857	H J Green
862	S Godden		48	0	6
871	Wm Hy Luckraft		57	15	0
879	Albert Emler		105	0	0
901	E Salisbury		25	5	0
902	Samuel Poynter		43	0	0
907	Richard Jennings		50	7	0
957	Andrew Middlemass		53	11	0
1155	Joseph Bates		65	17	0
1178	Charles Deakin		59	10	0
1196	R H Blatchford		27	12	6
1278	A Lazarus		57	15	0
1288	J W Simmonds		55	13	0
1298	Geo Hy Hunter		44	17	0
1348	Edward Jacobs		50	12	0
1365	Archibald McMillan		65	17	0
1366	Louis Bamberger		84	9	6
1381	Wm Mann		31	10	0
1382	J Delves		119	6	0
1383	R W H Giddy Dist. G.M. Griqualand		187	3	0
1397	John H Galton M.D.		34	8	0
1425	Samuel Sones		31	10	0
1471	William Bansor		228	13	6
Chapter
1471	Comp. Edgar Bowyer V.P.		68	5	0
Lodge
1472	Bro. Alf Jno Manning		86	5	6
1507	C J Scales		47	19	0
1539	M S Larlham		10	10	0
1540	E S Stidolph
1572	George Briggs		70	17	6
1586	W Jerrett Miller		50	8	0
1589	Alfred Tisley		10	10	0
1599	Wm Hy Marston		33	4	0
1602	J Osborne		26	5	0
1607	C J Perceval V.P.		125	4	0
1608	S Brooks		127	11	6
1615	Frank Richardson V.P.		63	0	0
1623	G H Stephens		115	10	0
1632	G T Thornes		18	12	6
1642	S Hy Parkhouse		400	0	0
1642	Edward M Lander
1657	Geo Kenning V.Pat.		69	11	0
1677	Wm J Hunter		114	0	0
1679	E Francis Storr		38	0	0
1693	Hy P Isaac		42	0	0
1704	F E Wotton Collard		67	4	0
1716	John K Coleman		38	1	0
1728	Thomas W C Bush		137	0	6
1744	Bro. J Douglass		34	10	6
1791	Hy Jas Johnson		174	5	0
1803	Edwin March
1804	Chas A Heimann	}	50	1	0
1804	W H Farnfield	}
1805	W R Marsh		52	10	0
1818	Louis Hirsch		52	18	6
1827	H Wildey Wright		40	0	0

BERKS AND BUCKS

Lodge			£	s	d
209	Bro. Joseph Andrews		16	16	0
414	C Stephens		90	13	6
414	F J Ferguson		61	0	0
574	Stephen Knight		27	16	0
591	Sam. K Page
948	Andrew McDowall		18	18	0
			215	3	6

CHESHIRE

321	Bro. James Salmon		27	1	0
1576	John Dutton		42	0	0
			69	1	0

CORNWALL

1151	Bro. Controller S G Bake		63	0	0

DERBYSHIRE

802	Bro. W. L. Ball		36	15	0
1324	Fitzhubert Wright		95	8	0
			132	3	0

DEVONSHIRE

110	Bro. Chas. Godtschalk		110	5	0
112	Samuel Jones		81	8	0
			191	13	0

DORSETSHIRE

The Province, Bro. H. C. Burt			183	10	0
707	Bro. I M P Montague, J.P., D.L., Vice Patron		47	5	0
			230	15	0

ESSEX

Chapter
214	Comp. George Cooper		38	15	0
Lodge
1000	Bro. Rev. R S Wigram
1343	James Godwin		50	18	6
			89	13	6

GLOUCESTERSHIRE

The Province, Bro. Col. Hy. Basevi			10	10	0
82	Bro. W Anslow Sole		24	3	0
82	Baron de Ferrieres, J.P., Vice Patron		10	10	0
1067	Russell Jas. Kerr		43	5	0
			88	8	0

Digitized by Google

HANTS AND ISLE OF WIGHT.

Lodge
35	Bro. Asher Barfield	25	0	0
723	Henry Stone	31	10	0
903	John Wallingford	44	2	0
		100	12	0

HERTFORDSHIRE

Chapter
403	Comp. David Roberts, V.P.
Lodge
449	Bro. James Shilcock	14	18	0
1327	Frederick Drummond	92	7	0
1385	John Brittain	35	12	6
1580	Henry Cox	75	11	0
		218	8	6

JERSEY

Island of, Bro. J T du Jardin		57	15	0

KENT

Lodge
20	Bro. H W Moore	7	7	0
77	W Barlow, Wm. Hicks	38	16	0
709	Geo. W Greenhill	50	2	0
829	Wm. Moulder	20	0	0
1096	George Thompson	53	0	0
1436	Adam Keeler	31	10	0
1464	J A Farnfield, V.P.	35	14	0
		236	9	0

EAST LANCASHIRE

Chapter
62	Comp. George Higgins	30	0	0
Lodge
300	Bro. Ald. J W Boulton
992	J J Meakin	10	10	0
1504	Josiah Pollard	15	15	0
		56	5	0

WEST LANCASHIRE

	Bro. Robert Wylie	105	0	0
580	Captain J Balmer	21	0	0
1325	J W Burgess	31	10	0
		157	10	0

MIDDLESEX

Lodge
708	Bro. Alban G H Gibbs	12	12	0
1293	John Kirke	25	4	0
1309	Clement L Smiles	11	10	0
1326	Coneman Wm. Fox	22	15	0
1415	E Kimber	27	14	0
1597	R L Sindall	26	5	0
1637	John B King	125	6	0
1777	Horace B Marshall, C.C., Vice Patron	105	0	0
1777	H A Dubois
		356	6	0

MONMOUTHSHIRE

1429	Bro. Wm. Watkins	46	15	0

NORTHS. AND HUNTS.

466	Bro. E J Orford	115	10	0

NORTH WALES AND SALOP.

1477	Bro. John Corbett	10	10	0

OXFORD.

357	Bro. Reginald Bird M.A.	65	0	0
357	Rev Hy Deane B.D.	40	9	0
357	H R Cooper Smith M.A.	106	9	6
478	Fentham Hedges	20	0	0
		231	18	6

SUFFOLK.

The Province, Bro. N Tracy		100	8	0
114	Wm Clarke
		100	8	0

SURREY.

416	Dr Bro. Stanislaus Makovski	13	12	0
Chapter
1395	Comp. Arthur H Bowles
Lodge
1638	Bro. Hy Wm Linton	55	13	0
		69	5	0

SUSSEX.

The Province, Bro. J H Scott D.P.G.M.		600	0	0

NORTH AND EAST YORKS.

	The Chairman	105	0	0
	John P Bell M.D. J.P. D.P.G.M.	325	13	0
Lodge
200	Bro. John W Woodall	105	0	0
236	Sir Jas Meek	81	10	0
Chapter
236	Comp. Hon. W T Orde-Powlett	34	17	6
Lodge
250	Bro. John Thompson
312	W H Marwood	52	10	0
566	John T Atkinson	25	18	6
1605	R Boggett	73	10	0
1611	T B Whytehead	26	5	0
1611	J S Cumberland
643	J Johnson Field	25	0	0
		855	4	0

WEST YORKSHIRE.

	Bro. Lt-Col Sir H Edwards Bart. M.P. Prov. G.M.
139	Joseph Spencer
139	S Linton Swann
208	R J Chritchley J.P. V.P.
208	Henry Day J.P.
290	Wm Harrop
302	Benj Broughton
302	W W Barlow
302	Thos Bill
304	Chas L Mason
304	Saml W Newsam
289	Jno D Kay
380	Capt Wordsworth V.P.
910	T W Tew J.P. V.P.
910	W S Simpson
974	Wm Firth
974	Wm Chas Lupton
1019	Herbert G E Green
		371	0	0

SOUTH WALES (Western Division).

	Bro. Lord Kensington M.P.	10	10	0

WILTSHIRE.

663	Bro. Wm Nott	15	15	0

WARWICKSHIRE.

567	Bro. Joseph Boddington
567	George Hall	21	0	0
		21	0	0

EAST INDIES—PUNJAB.

	Bro. Maj. Marmaduke Ramsay, Dist. G.M.	52	10	0

CORRESPONDENCE.

—:o:—

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents.

We cannot undertake to return rejected communications.

All Letters must bear the name and address of the Writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—Will you kindly give me space for one or two remarks on your leader in last Saturday's CHRONICLE?

The resolution of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Warwickshire was passed unanimously, after mature deliberation, many of the brethren present being intimately acquainted with the working of large public schools. It was the undivided opinion of all that the scheme as suggested by Lord Rosslyn was impracticable, and could not possibly be managed in a satisfactory manner without the assistance of the School Committees, they alone understanding the character, temperament, physique, and capabilities of the pupils. There are scholarships attached to all large public schools, which are managed by the governing bodies thereof, and if the Masonic Institutions are really fettered by restrictive laws it would be quite possible for the "Charity Commissioners" to grant permission for the appropriation of certain funds raised specially for certain objects. This would be far preferable to creating the heavy expense of maintaining another Institution, Secretary and staff.

The foregoing arguments weighed heavily with the Warwickshire brethren, and it is unfair to suppose that "EXPENSE" was the sole cause of opposition to the scheme in its present form. The subscriptions sent from this Province to the Charities will exempt its Masons from even the least suspicion of meanness.

It is quite true that Lord Leigh is, and always was, favourable to scholarships when under the management of existing Committees; he expressed himself so when he last took the chair at the Boys' Anniversary Dinner (the third year of his presidency). In this instance he only disapproves of the modus operandi.

A plan has been suggested, but not yet discussed, that a fund for Masonic pupils should be instituted in every Province, and worked by the existing Boards of Benevolence. Many advantages would accrue from this system, as it would enable the pupils in many cases to live with or near their friends, and the idea is well worthy of consideration.

I am, Dear Sir and Brother,

Yours faithfully,

JOHN MACHEN,

D.P.G.M. WARWICKSHIRE.

Lillington, Leamington, 3rd February 1880.

[We take the earliest opportunity of correcting an error our esteemed brother has fallen into with reference to our remarks. We certainly said that it was the question of expense which deterred the Warwickshire brethren from joining in the foundation of the Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund, but we did not intend thereby to cast any slur on the Province. As we understand it, the Warwickshire verdict is, that the Fund will be an expense on the whole English Craft; not that they object to contribute their share to any good cause. We do not for one moment wish it to be thought that we consider the brethren of Warwickshire remiss in the matter of Charity, or that we think they would refuse support to anything in the form of benevolence merely on the ground of its entailing a further display of their liberality.—ED. F. C.]

Digitized by Google

INSTALLATION MEETINGS, &c.

—:o:—

FORTITUDE AND OLD CUMBERLAND, No. 120.

THIS Lodge held its Installation meeting on Monday, the 2nd instant, at the Ship and Turtle, Leadenhall-street. In the room were displayed the banners of many distinguished P.M.'s. Bros. W. H. Bateman W.M., H. Mower S.W., R. Coombs J.W., L. Ruf P.M. Treas., W. A. Snelgrove Secretary, E. E. B. Kidder J.D., Bandenbauch I.G., W. C. Beedell D.C., P.M.'s W. B. Kidder, Dudley Rolls, Sidney Rolls, G. Angold, Lemaitre, Nicols, Lilley, R. W. Stewart P.G.D. After preliminary business a ballot was taken for the admission of Mr. H. A. Rolls, which was unanimous in his favour; by the courtesy of the W.M. he was initated into the Order by Bro. Dudley Rolls P.M., who performed his duty in a careful and perfect manner. The W.M. then resumed the chair, and showed his proficiency by passing Bro. Ludovic Noel. A Board of Installed Masters was opened, Brother Henry Mower S.W. and W.M. elect was presented to the Lodge, and duly installed into the chair by Bro. W. B. Kidder P.M., in the presence of thirteen W.M.'s and P.M.'s. Bro. Kidder was warmly congratulated by the brethren for the able manner he performed the ceremony. The newly-installed W.M. was saluted, and invested the following as his Officers:—Bros. W. H. Bateman I.P.M., R. Coombs S.W., E. E. B. Kidder J.W., L. Ruf P.M. Treasurer (re-elected for the fifteenth time), A. Snelgrove P.M. Secretary, Beedell S.D., Bandenbauch J.D., Matthews I.G., Pigache D.C., Marsh Tyler. The W.M., in feeling terms, presented the retiring P.M. with a very elegant jewel, for the able and efficient manner he had discharged his duty, and in token of the regard and esteem in which he is held. Bro. Bateman returned thanks for the valuable gift, and the kind expressions of the W.M. The resignation of a brother was accepted with regret. Bro. Kidder announced the death of a brother belonging to the Lodge, who was respected by them all. Hearty good wishes were then given, and Lodge was closed. The brethren, fifty-five in number, sat down to a récherché banquet and dessert, that reflected great credit on Bros. C. and A. Painter. Grace having been sung, the W.M. proposed the toast of the Queen and the Craft, and the National Anthem was sung. In proposing the toast of the M.W.G.M. His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the W.M. said the Craft were honoured by having one so beloved presiding. Only a short time time since, on the occasion of the investiture of the Grand Secretary, the G.M. came among the brethren, and every loyal heart beat with pleasure at seeing him. "Hark to the rolling drum" was then sung. The W.M. next proposed the toast of the Pro G.M., the Deputy G.M., and the rest of the Grand Officers. He would couple with the toast the name of a respected P.M. of the Lodge—Bro. Raynham Stewart, a Past Grand Officer of England. After Bro. Frank Ward had sung "Jack's Yarn," Bro. Stewart P.G.D. rose: He felt proud to wear the purple of Grand Lodge; he hoped the honour given to him would be continued to other members of this distinguished and ancient Lodge. Bro. Bateman I.P.M. then rose: He was pleased to see the present W.M. in the chair he had just vacated. Bro. Mower had worked up to the chair, and had filled every office in the Lodge; he had done his duty, and had gained the approbation of his colleagues. The W.M., on rising, was enthusiastically received. He could hardly say how deeply indebted he was to Bro. Bateman for his kind remarks; for many years he had had an ardent wish to become W.M. of this old and influential Lodge. In saying that he would do all in his power for their welfare, he was not unmindful that he had to follow brethren whose names were known and respected; however, all his energies would be devoted for the welfare of the Lodge, and the comfort of the brethren. The W.M. said it was a rare event to have an initiate at the installation meeting; however, Bro. H. A. Rolls had been favoured, and the ceremony had been performed to the satisfaction of every one by their respected P.M., Bro. Dudley Rolls. He would ask them to drink the toast of the newly-initiated brother. The E.A. song was sung, and then the toast was responded to. The W.M. proposed the health of the I.P.M. Bro. Bateman, who had done his duty in every way to their satisfaction. He hoped the brethren would give the toast the reception it merited. Bro. Faulkner Leigh sang the "Death of Nelson." Bro. Bateman thanked the W.M. for the toast so kindly proposed; he appreciated the kindness of every brother who had assisted him. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the P.M.'s; they were brethren of influence, not only in the Lodge, but also in social life, where they were equally respected. "Soft, ye winds," was then sung. Bro. Dudley Rolls said he was pleased to see so numerous a gathering. It was gratifying to see the Lodge so flourishing. The W.M., Bro. H. Mower, was one who would carry out in every respect the duties of the chair. The toast of the Visitors was next on the list. The W.M. saw many distinguished brethren present; it was by visiting Lodges a spirit of brotherly feeling was engendered; he hoped the members would give the toast a hearty reception. Bro. Dr. Ramsay P.P.J.W. Middlesex responded to the toast: he was pleased to see an old friend in the chair. Several of the P.M.'s were old and valued friends of his, well known in Freemasonry. The working and hospitality of the Lodge was such that could not be excelled. The Installing Master, Bro. Kidder, was next complimented; the W.M. could hardly find words to thank him for the able manner in which he had performed the ceremony of installation; there was scarcely a hitch. As a thorough Mason and kind brother he trusted they would give Bro. Kidder's toast the reception it merited. After Bro. Frank Leigh had sung "The anchor's weighed," Bro. W. B. Kidder replied. It was a source of satisfaction to hear that he had done his duty. He was initiated in this Lodge, and whatever he had done, and whatever he might be called upon to do in the future, would be done with a will. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Treasurer and Secretary; he had the honour of having the best of Treasurers and Secretaries; the former is the father of the Lodge, and he had been re-elected for the fifteenth time. The more the brethren see of Bro. Ruf the more they like him. Bro. A. Snelgrove was his (the W.M.'s) father in Freemasonry; he was initiated, passed, and raised by him. The W.M. hoped that these brethren would have their health and a long life to be among the brethren of the Lodge. By particular desire Bro. Pigache sang a song, and elicited the warmest plaudits. Bro. L. Ruf P.M. and Treasurer responded: it was satisfactory to know they thought he had done his duty, and fully appreciated his efforts, which would be always at the command of the members. Bro. A. Snelgrove followed; he fully endorsed all Bro. Ruf had said. He hoped to be among them for many years. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Masonic Charities. With all the distress in the outer world, the Masonic Charities were well looked after. They had a brother among them high and distinguished in Freemasonry, who represented the Boys' School,—Bro. Binckes. He would ask them to drink the toast, coupled with his name. Bro. Binckes felt it a great compliment to be associated with the toast; he regretted the absence of Bro. Terry. The Festival of the R.M.B.I. would take place on Monday next. Owing to a death in his family, Bro. Terry could not be present that evening, but he (Bro. Binckes) trusted they would sympathise with him in his bereavement. The W.M. had spoken of the distress in commercial circles; he would contrast with this the condition of the Charities; the support to the Charitable Institutions had not fallen off, but those who sought their benefits were increasing in number. We have not the outer world to appeal to; we ask only from members of the Craft. Bro. Binckes urged the members to do all they could for the three Institutions. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Officers; their working had given great satisfaction. Bro. Coombs S.W. returned thanks. He was followed by Bros. Kidder, Beedell, Matthews, and Pigache. The Tyler's toast was then given. Bros. L. Ruf and Pigache were indefatigable in their exertions for the comfort of the brethren and Visitors. The music was under the direction of Bro. Ward. Among the Visitors were Bros. F. Binckes P.G.S., W. Searles 127, T. Robinson P.M. 917, Werchsim 12, W. T. Buck 1196, F. Matthews 1766, L. A. Mesrovyz W.M. 1238, E. Storr 167, Stevenson 192, Dr. Ramsay P.P.G.W. Middlesex, Cartier 11, Baelz 238, Stevens 1793, W. H. Smith J.W. 108, F. Ward 1341, Kirby, Barnes W.M. 66, and H. M. Levy P.M. 188.

BALL OF THE PHŒNIX LODGE, No. 173.

THE annual ball of this ancient and flourishing Lodge was held on Thursday, 5th inst., at the Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street, under the presidency of the W.M. Bro. E. W. Allen and an efficient staff of Stewards,—Bros. J. Blyth S.W., G. Carr, A. Conolly, D. Ferguson, Capt. J. Finch I.P.M., F. Foyley S.D., J. Gardner, G. Gutterbrook I.G., F. Parker, S. S. Phillips P.M., H. W. Davie W.S. Hon. Sec. and Treas. The ball was in every way a success, there being over 200 guests present, Bros. Coote and Tinney's band played excellent music, conducted by Bro. Thaddeus Wells. During the interval a sumptuous supper was provided by Bro. A. Best, and superintended by Bro. E. Dawkins. The W.M. proposed the toast of the Queen. Bro. Capt. Finch I.P.M., in a very eloquent speech proposed the health of the W.M., whom all respected. The fact of his being elected to fill the chair so unanimously was sufficient to show appreciation. They had found he was the right man in the right place. The ball, held annually, had been, and he was sure always would be, a success. Bro. Allen, in reply, thanked Bro. Finch for his kind expressions, and also the company for the enthusiastic manner in which the toast had been received. When he looked around and saw so many happy and smiling faces he felt almost in a higher sphere. He trusted this evening would be remembered by all. He hoped to meet them on many happy occasions like the present. Bro. Davie Hon. Sec., in a very happy speech, returned thanks for the Stewards, and Bro. S. S. Phillips P.M. replied in a very humorous manner for the ladies. Dancing was kept up with great spirit until an early hour.

LODGE OF FRIENDSHIP, No. 928.

THE installation of W.M. took place on Monday, 2nd February, at Petersfield. The Lodge was close tyled at 4 p.m., and the brethren present were:—Bros. Creedon W.M. and W.M. elect, Pierson S.W., Edgeler Treas. and Sec., Cordery S.D., Burley J.D., Knight Tyler, L. B. Cole P.M., J. Cole P.M., J. Swan, J. Woodhouse, F. Mells J. Wright, C. Oakley, J. Whitefield, T. Gosden, C. Masters, W. Smoker; Visiting Bros. T. Francis P.M. 804, C. H. Liddell W.M. 804, J. Leggatt I.P.M. 1428, W. R. Carter 76, F. C. Batchelor 76, C. J. Slade 199, W. Hawkins 319, J. Cecconie 442, G. P. Arnold 342, G. Nayler 1776, W. Marshallsay 1776. The Board of installed Masters was opened by Bro. Edgeler, the installing master, the Wardens' chairs being filled by Bro. Francis and L. B. Cole, Bro. Leggett performing the duty of I.G. The ceremony of installation was most ably carried out by Bro. Edgeler, at the conclusion of which a vote of thanks, proposed by the W.M., and seconded by Bro. L. B. Cole P.M., was accorded. The W.M., previous to investing his Officers, returned thanks to the brethren of the Lodge for the honour conferred upon him by his re-election to the office of Master, and especially thanked Bro. Pierson for the part which he had taken, being S.W. of the Lodge during the past year, and although the brother directly interested, the first to advocate his re-election. The W.M. proceeded to invest his Officers as follows, delivering the usual address to each:—Bros. J. Cole I.P.M., H. Pierson S.W., W. C. Burley J.W., J. Woodhouse S.D., J. Swan J.D. J. P. Cordery D.C., F. Mells I.G., J. Wright S. Steward, C. Oakley J. Steward, C. Knight Tyler. The brethren afterwards adjourned to the Red Lion Assembly Rooms, where the banquet was served in excellent style by Mr. and Mrs. Pay, after which the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were given and duly honoured.

Digitized by Google

LODGE OF REPOSE, No. 802.

THERE was a large and influential gathering of brethren at the Masonic Hall, Derby, on Thursday, 15th ult., to witness the installation of Bro. Samuel Steele as W.M. of the Lodge of Repose for the ensuing year. The ceremony was most impressively performed by Bro. Thomas Cox P.P.S.G.W. Subsequently, the W.M appointed his Officers, in the following order :—Bros. Wm. Heathcote P.P.G.D. of C. I.P.M., G. Cay S.W., W. L. Ball J.W., Burn Treasurer, E. Belfield Secretary, Butterfield S.D., W. Tempest J.D., T. Smith D. of C., Glover I.G., Waller and E. Smith Stewards, and Holden Tyler. The attendance of visiting brethren was exceptionally numerous, the following, among many others, being present :—Bros. Frank Campion P.P.S.G.W., Geo. Pipes P.M. 1085, William Knight 731, H. W. Malchan 296 (Sheffield), E. R. Ward I.P.M. P.G.R., W. Willott Popplewell P.G.S., Jas. Worsnop P.M. 1085, B. F. Peacock 1163 and 624, John Parkinson W.M. 1112 (Southampton), Thos. H. Orme 1085, J. E. Russell 1085, Wm. Cooper W.M. 731, Frazer S.W. 731. At a later period the brethren partook of a banquet, sumptuous in character, and having the additional merit of being exceedingly well served. The loyal and Masonic toasts having been duly honoured, the health of the W.M. was enthusiastically drunk, abundant testimony being borne to the assiduity, geniality of manner, and kindliness of purpose which had characterised the whole of his Masonic labours. The warmest eulogiums were likewise forthcoming in reference to the untiring industry, the urbanity and intelligence which had marked the conduct of the W.M.'s predecessor in the chair, Bro. Heathcote. The prosperity of the Lodge was touched upon, in terms of gratification, by several of the speakers, one brother humorously suggesting that it ought henceforth to adopt the name of "Progress," having regard to the steady and continuous advancement it was making. The toasts were happily interspersed with unusally good singing, and throughout the proceedings were singularly harmonious and enjoyable.—Derby Daily Telegraph.

GLADSMUIR LODGE, No. 1385.

THE installation meeting was held on Friday, 30th ult., at the Red Lion Hotel, Barnet. Bro. Gray the W.M. elect was installed according to ancient custom; the retiring Master Bro. Venables performing the ceremony. The following were appointed Officers for the ensuing year :—Bros. Enerby S.W., Yolland J.W., Lowthin P.M. Treas., Young P.M. Hon. Sec., Allen S.D., Askew J.D., Purrott I.G., Brittain D.C., Hopkin A.D.C., Schmidt Steward, Goddard Tyler. Previous to the installation of the W.M. Bro. Mattinson was raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason, Bro. Lowthin taking the chair and working that ceremony. At 5.30 the Lodge was closed. The brethren afterwards partook of an excellent banquet, served in good style by host Bro. Goodwin. We are pleased to see our worthy Bro. Yolland advancing in office. Bro. Yolland fulfilled the duties of S.W. in this Lodge some years back, but his business engagements at that time precluded his taking the post of W.M. We trust nothing will now interfere to prevent his passing the chair of the Lodge.

KILBURN LODGE, No. 1608.

AT a time when the consideration of how to maintain the Masonic Institutions in their present state of efficiency, and the energy and eloquence of their respective Committees and Officers are being exercised to the fullest extent, it is gratifying to note how steadily and with what persistency the members of some of our Lodges exert themselves to assist in this praiseworthy work. This Lodge, consecrated but three years since, has already identified itself as a consistent supporter of the Charities, and though in the order of events it cannot be anticipated that its members will continue their stream of benevolence so bountifully as hitherto they have induced it to flow, we may, judging by the result of what was contributed in this good cause at the meeting it is now our pleasure to record, decidedly predict that any serious falling off in this respect will not evidence itself during the present year. The Lodge meets at the Queen's Arms Hotel, Kilburn, where accordingly the brethren assembled on Monday, the 26th ult., at 3.30. The Lodge was opened by Bro. Charles Brewer W.M., who was supported by his Officers, Past Masters, and a goodly assemblage of members and visitors. Among the latter we may enumerate Bros. E. King P.M. 857, Brown P.M. 65, Armstrong P.M. 108, Daines P.M. 1306, Collier P.M. 1306, White P.M. 177, Hunt East Surrey, Sams 45, Wilson 1328, Hurdell 1348, Carrington 1314, Winter P.M. 198 P.P.G.O. Herts, Little 511, Pattison 34, A. H. Wilson 1704, S. Crawford 192, Morgan 211, Finch P.M. 173, J. Johnston jun. J.D. 55, Baker S.W. 188, J. Warner P.M. 23, O. H. M. Latrielle J.W. 1262, G. Anderson W.M. 60, J. Kent 177, A. Ginger W.M. 901, Frank Meeking 21, W. Joyce 1158, Puzzle Nine Muses Lodge, Hudson 1158, Slyman S.D. 753, and Eccles. The first business of the day was to read the minutes of last meeting, which were duly confirmed. The ballot was then taken for Bro. Wm. Ward, of the Scientific Lodge No. 840—proposed by Bro. George Everett P.M. Treasurer, seconded by Bro. Kiallmark I.P.M.—as a joining member. This proved favourable, and Bro. Ward took his seat as a member of the Lodge. Bro. John Palmer now took the chair as Installing Master, and Bro. Samuel Brooks the W.M. elect was presented to receive at his hands the benefits of installation. Bro. Palmer is a most careful and impressive expositor of Masonic ritual, and on this occasion he well sustained the reputation he has acquired. In due course the Board of Installed Masters, which had been opened for the purpose, was closed, and those brethren who as yet are not privileged to wear the levels were admitted, and the salutations in the three degrees were effected. The appointment of Officers followed :—Bros. Charles Brewer I.P.M., J. W. Cuff S.W., F. Brewer J.W., J. C. Wharton Hon. Chaplain, G. Everett Treas., Alfred W. Webster Sec., Fred. J. Baker S.D., H. B. Phillips J.D., J. Parry Cole Org., W. Blackbourn I.G., Haswell J. Turner D.C., George Barclay S., Charles Thomas Tyler. Bro. Palmer then delivered, most impressively, the addresses to Master, Wardens and brethren, and resumed his seat amidst the congratulations of the many distinguished Masons present. The Auditors now presented their report on the Treasurer's balance-sheet, which had been printed and sent to every member of the Lodge. This showed the Lodge to be in an eminently satisfactory financial condition, with a goodly balance in hand; it is therefore almost needless to say the report was unanimously adopted. A ballot was now taken for Mr. Harry East, proposed by Bro. H. B. Phillips, and seconded by Bro. Thomas Hartley. This likewise was unanimous in favour of the candidate, and he being present was initiated into our mysteries by the W.M., who brought to bear upon his duties a knowledge of ceremonial that denoted that he had been a diligent student after Masonic lore. During the evening a handsome Past Master's jewel was presented to the outgoing Master, Bro. Charles Brewer; the W.M., Bro. Brooks, remarking while tendering it, that it might be considered the highest honour it was in the power of the brethren to bestow; at the same time, it was given for great and valued Masonic services rendered. Bro. Brewer thanked the brethren for the gift they had presented him with; it would ever remind him of the happy year he had passed as W.M. of the Kilburn Lodge; moreover, it would likewise bring to his recollection the many pleasing friendships he had made. The next consideration of the brethren was as to what should be done for the Masonic Institutions. Bro. Brooks announced that he had undertaken a Stewardship for the Festival of the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution, whereupon the I.P.M. proposed that a sum of twenty-five guineas be voted from Lodge funds to be placed on his list. This was seconded by Bro. Past Master Palmer, put to the brethren by the S.W., and carried unanimously. One or two other matters having been considered, Lodge was closed. After a short interval the banquet was served, and Bro. H. P. Hartley, the proprietor of the Queen's Arms Hotel, won golden opinions for the way in which he catered. However, we will venture to make a suggestion for future occasions when the business may be as heavy as on this day—that is, that a little more expedition be used over the service. It may be all very well for those brethren who live in the neighbourhood, but many of the members reside a considerable distance away, and it must be something disconcerting to them when the proceedings are protracted to so late an hour. Bro. Brooks makes a capital president, and he pushed on with the toast list with all the energy he could command. Bro. I.P.M. Brewer proposed the toast of the W.M. He was a personal and tried friend; Bro. Brooks had ably performed the duties of Secretary in the Kilburn Lodge for two years, and brought with him every qualification to make a good Master. This compliment was gracefully acknowledged by Bro. Brooks, who then proposed the toast of the Past Masters, referring, in high terms, to the ability displayed by the Installing Master Bro. Palmer, and to the services of the other brethren who had acted with him as rulers of the Lodge. Bro. Palmer, in responding, regretted that illness prevented other of the P.M.'s being present. It would ever be his pleasure to place his services at the disposal of the Lodge. In the course of the evening Bro. George Everett referred to what had been done by the brethren of the Kilburn Lodge in aid of the Masonic Institutions. The first year Bro. G. Kiallmark served a Stewardship, for the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution; the Lodge voted him 25 guineas, and by the liberality of the members he was enabled to take up a sum of £114. The second year Bro. G. Everett undertook a Stewardship for the Girls' Institution; the Lodge voted him 25 guineas, which he was able to increase to the sum of £176 8s. The third year the Boys' School received the support of the Lodge; 25 guineas was again the amount voted by the brethren, and Bro. P.M. Brewer went to the Festival with the handsome sum of £210: thus making a grand total in three years of over £500 from a Lodge that does not yet register more than forty members. Good work this, which needs no remark from us to commend it. Later in the evening the brethren made a liberal response to Bro. Brooks' appeal, and, as will be seen by reference to the list of amounts contributed at the Festival of Monday last, Bro. Brooks took up a total of £127 11s 6d; again we say, not bad work, considering our esteemed brother only tendered his services to Bro. Terry three weeks before the Festival. Would we had a few more such liberal-minded brethren. The remaining toasts comprised the health of the Initiate, the Visitors, the Charities, and the Officers. Brief but pertinent replies were made, and then the Tyler gave the parting remembrance for our poor and distressed brethren.

ANCIENT CARTHAGE CHAPTER, No. 1717.

THE installation meeting of this flourishing Chapter was held at the Masonic Hall, Tunis, North Africa, on 6th February. In accordance with the result of the election, held on 25th October last, the outgoing P.Z. E. Comp. Broadley D.D.G.M. Malta installed the following Companions in their respective chairs, viz. :—Thomas Fellowes Reade P.D.D.G.M. Egypt, Agent and Consul General of Her Britannic Majesty in Tunis Z., Perini M.D. W.M. 1717 H., and J. E. L. Barker W.M. 1835 J. Several successful ballots having been taken P.E.Z. Broadley exalted Bros. Captain R. A. Johnstone, Dr. Pace-Williams and M. Le Gallais of No. 1717 and S. Sessing of Lodge Belisaire at Algiers. The First Principal invested with appropriate remarks the following Officers for the year 1880 :—Comps. Clement S.E., Pentecost S.N., Souiller P.S., Cassar 1st A.S., Curletto 2nd A.S., Dr. Pace-Williams Registrar, Barsotti D. of C., Captain Johnstone Organist, Le Gallais and Enriquez Stewards and Eymon Janitor. The I.P.Z. was invested as Treasurer. Most Excellent Companion Reade then addressed the brethren, and having thanked them for the honour done him, and alluded in eulogistic terms to his predecessor, said,—You are all aware that this degree of the R.A. is the apex—

Digitized by Google

the ne plus ultra of English Craft Masonry; and I am sure that as English R.A. Masons it behoves all of us to do our utmost to support not only the degree itself, but the general Institution of English Masonry in this country. We cannot better carry out this laudable object than by setting our faces against spurious Masonry, which is nothing more nor less than open rebellion against our own Grand Lodge and its illustrious sister the Grand Lodge of Italy, having its centre at Rome. Although my official duties may interfere with my atttendance at every particular meeting, my heart is always with you. The regular Masons of Tunis, and you English Masons especially, may always count on my support and aid. I trust the Officers of the Chapter will be punctual in attendance and zealous in the performance of their duties, each one carefully studying the part allotted to him. I trust that during the present winter many may join this beautiful degree, and that, working with union and harmony during the coming twelvemonths, the Ancient Carthage Chapter will not regret having bestowed upon me the highest honour in its possession. The address of the M.E.Z. was loudly applauded. Bro. Broadley spoke at some length of his stay in England, and visits to various Chapters. The following illustrious R.A. Masons were unanimously elected honorary members of Chapter 1717 :—M.E. Comps. R. Bower P.G.H.P. of Iowa, U.S.A., T. B. Whytehead Z. 1611, H. C. Levander G.S.E. Middlesex, Rev. Thomas Robinson P.G.H. Kent, and James Lewis Thomas Z. 1328 P.G.S.B. England. It was resolved to send to each of these brethren one of the highly artistic certificates designed by Bro. Whytehead, of York, and a special letter of thanks to M.E.C. Comp. Robinson for the very valuable information given to the P.Z., which would greatly improve the working of the Chapter. After the charitable collection, the Chapter was closed, and the Companions adjourned to the usual installation banquet.

THE HISTORY OF CRAFT MASONRY IN READING.

An Address, delivered by Bro. Chas. Oades W.M. to the Union Lodge 414, on Tuesday, 16*th December* 1879.

BEFORE commencing my address, I will read extracts of a letter I received from the A.G. Sec. of England: "There were two Lodges at Reading, under the Athol, or Antient Constitution, one of which appears to be Lodge of Virtue, to which you allude. 1st, the (Athol) Lodge, No. 80, was founded in 1759, to meet at the Ship, Reading, but it appears, from a memo in the Register Book, that the Lodge did not pay the fees for the Warrant, nor make any Return of Members, &c., and, therefore, cannot claim any existence.

2nd, the (Athol) Lodge, No. 122, was founded on the 14th October 1763, to meet in the 2nd Division of Marines, but appears to have been transferred to the Swan, at Reading, in 1808. It was held at the Upper Ship, Reading, in 1809, or thereabouts, and in "Ahiman Rezon," edit. 1813, it is stated to be held there. At the Union, 1813, it became No. 147, and then appears by the name of Virtue. It ceased working, and the warrant was returned in 1827."

The oldest minute book that I have been able to discover is that of January 1813, the Lodge being No. 122. Bro. J. B. Monck was in office two and a half years; the W.M. was elected annually. As an example of the expeditious way of getting on in the olden time, Bro. J. J. Blandy was initiated October 1814; passed and raised the same evening, November 1814; acted as S.D. in December, as J.W. in January, and as W.M. pro tem in April following. The first Officers in 1813 were—J. B. Monck W.M., J. Parker S.W., J. Hornbuckle J.W., Jos. Warry S.D., Thos. Williams J.D., Matthew Boulter Treasurer, Nathan Elliott Secretary. I am unable to discover any further records—a minute book must have been mislaid or lost. On 8th May 1822 is a memo, that two years previously the Lodge seemed well attended. In September, October and December, the Lodge could not be opened, there not being enough members present, but strange to say, at the last recorded meeting, three candidates were proposed; what became of them we know not. There appears to be a vacuum in our history for twelve years; no record can at present be found. The furniture and effects were removed to Coley Park, the residence of J. B. Monck, Esq., M.P., for safe custody, and on the 17th September 1833, the Lodge of Union, No. 597, was opened, with a new Warrant, to meet in a room at the back of the Wheat Rick Inn, on the east side of London Street. The names of the founders were Bros. G. Rackstraw W.M., Baker S.W., Munday J.W., also Bros. Drysdale Smith, Cheeseman, Pocock, Coxhead, Boulter, and Hone. The celebrated Bro. Peter Gilkes was deputed by the P.G.M. to consecrate the Lodge and instal the W.M. On the 8th October 1833 business was suspended, and upwards of fifty ladies were admitted to see the decorations of the Lodge, and kindly condescended to stay an hour and a half in the company of the brethren.

It did not appear a peaceful commencement, for at the Lodge 12th November, two months after its formation, the record states: "In consequence of certain reports being circulated detrimental to the interest of the Lodge, and the same having been traced to Bro. Cheeseman, he was called on to explain and exculpate himself. That brother, who appears to be the landlord of the Wheat Rick, did not bow to the decision of the Lodge, either at that or either of the two following Lodges; therefore, the Lodge was removed to the Upper Ship, 17th December 1833, when they passed a strong vote of censure on Bro. Cheeseman. On the 31st January 1834, Bro. W. Baker was installed as the second W.M. On the 11th May 1835, the Lodge voted one guinea to the Boys' and one guinea to the Girls' School, to be paid when the funds admit of it! In March 1835, it is recorded, "Bro. Cheeseman having apologized for his behaviour, was forgiven, and received back into the Lodge." In the same year the P.G.M. attended the installation, and granted a dispensation to the brethren to attend the funeral of Bro. Charles Smith in Masonic form. A resolution was passed that the Lodge do annually subscribe to both of the Schools, and also to have weekly meetings of instruction at the Woolpack.

In 1836, they resolved to "discontinue suppers until the Treasurer was in funds." In August, an address was forwarded to H.R.H. the Duke of Sussex G.M., congratulating him on the successful result of an operation which restored his sight.

In January 1837, they moved the Lodge to the Woolpack, in March to the Crown Hotel, and in May to the Masonic Hall, Forbury. In November, the late Bro. Dr. Woodhouse was installed W.M. He was re-elected for 1838, and in April of that year he proposed "that the Lodge dues be increased to two guineas—that the brethren dine together at least six times a year—a contribution of 2s 6d per head to be paid from the Lodge funds." The brethren intended going in procession to the laying of the foundation stone of the Royal Berkshire Hospital, but being refused permission by the P.G.M. to take the candles and the volume of the S.L., they declined going.

In 1840, the Rev. Sir J. W. Hayes joined the Lodge—he is the oldest living member.

In 1841, I find the names of the late Bros. Charles Blandy and John Simonds as initiated.

In October 1842, Bro. Ramsbottom, the P.G.M., held a P.G. Lodge, and went in procession from the Town Hall to the Cemetery, to lay the foundation stone of the Episcopal Chapel.

(To be continued).

A CHINESE BANQUET.—As a substitute for table-napkins, every one was supplied with a considerable number of squares of paper figured over in various devices. The chairs arranged round the table were made with marble backs, not so luxurious perhaps, but more suitable to the climate than the padded lounges in general use elsewhere. Nothing could be more perfect, or served in better style, than the entire banquet. The Bignon of the district, as if aware that he was catering for connoisseurs, seemed to have been anxious to surpass himself in the preparation of the many dishes that crowded the menu. For the first course were handed sugared cakes, caviare, fried grasshoppers, dried fruits, and Ning-Poo oysters. Then followed successively, at short intervals, ducks, pigeons' and pewits' eggs poached, swallows' nests with mashed eggs, fricasses of ginseng, stewed sturgeons' gills, whales' sinews with sweet sauce, freshwater tadpoles, fried crabs' spawn, sparrows' gizzards, sheep's eyes stuffed with garlic, radishes in milk flavoured with apricot kernels, matelotes of holothurias, bamboo sprouts in syrup, and sweet salads. The last course consisted of pine-apples from Singapore, earth-nuts, salted almonds, savoury mangoes, the white fleshy fruits of the "long-yen," the pulpy fruits of the "lit-chee," chestnuts, and preserved oranges from Canton. After the dessert rice was served, which the guests raised to their mouths with little chop-sticks, according to the custom of their country. Three hours was spent over the banquet. When it was ended, and at the time when, according to European usage, salvers of rose-water are frequently handed round, the waiting-maids brought napkins steeped in warm water, which all the company rubbed over their faces apparently with great satisfaction. The next stage of the entertainment was an hour's lounge to be occupied in listening to music. A group of players and singers entered, all pretty young girls, neatly and modestly attired. Their performance, however, could scarcely have been more inharmonious; it was hardly better than a series of yells, howls, and screeches, without rhythm and without time. The instruments were a worthy accompaniment to the chorus; wretched violins, of which the strings kept entangling the bows; harsh guitars covered with snakeskins; shrill clarionets, and harmoniums all out of tune, like diminutive portable pianos. The girls had been conducted into the room by a man who acted as leader of the Charivari. Having handed a programme to the host, and received in return a permission to perform what he chose, he made his orchestra strike up "The bouquet of ten flowers," a piece at that time enjoying a vast popularity in the fashionable world. This was followed by other pieces of a similar character, and at the close of the performances the troop, already handsomely paid, were enthusiastically applauded, and allowed to depart and gain fresh laurels from other audiences. After the concert was over the party rose from their seats, and having interchanged a few ceremonious sentences, passed to another table. Here were laid six covered cups, each embossed with a portrait of Bodhid-harama, the celebrated Buddhist monk, standing on his legendary wheel. The cups were already full of boiling water, and each member of the party was provided with a pinch of tea, which he put into the cup, without sugar, and at once drank off the infusion. And what tea it was! Europeans would have exclaimed in wonder at its flavour, but these connoisseurs sipped it slowly, with the air of men who duly appreciated its quality. They were all men of the upper class, handsomely attired in "hunchaols," a kind of thin shirt, "macoaals," or short tunics, and "haols," long coats buttoned at the side. On their feet were yellow slippers, and open-work socks, met by silk breeches that were fastened round the waist by tasselled scarves; on their chests they wore a kind of stomacher elaborately embroidered in silk. Elegant fans dangled from their girdles.—JULES VERNE in Leisure Hour.

An exhibition will shortly open, which at a time when there is so much controversy on the subject of female beauty, promises to be of some interest. The proprietors of the Graphic have commissioned most of the leading artists of the day, each to paint a head typifying his conception of beauty. They have taken up the idea with great spirit, and the result is a number of admirably painted heads, and doubtless there will be many discussions and differences of opinion as to which is the most beautiful. The Gallery, which is situated at No. 14 Grafton-street, one door from New Bond-street, will be opened to the public on Monday, the 16th of February; and the entire proceeds will be given to a Charitable Fund for Artists.

Digitized by Google

Royal Masonic Institution for Girls,

ST. JOHN'S HILL, BATTERSEA RISE, S.W.

Office:—5 Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

Patron and President:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES K.G., &c., M.W.G.M.

Patroness:

HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS OF WALES.

THE NINETY-SECOND ANNIVERSARY FESTIVAL

WILL TAKE PLACE

ON FRIDAY, 16th APRIL NEXT,

ON WHICH DAY

H.H.H. PRINCE LEOPOLD, K.G., P.G.W.,

R.W. Prov. G.M. for OXFORDSHIRE,

Has graciously signified his intention of presiding.

Brethren desirous of accepting the office of Steward upon this auspicious occasion will greatly oblige by forwarding their names as early as convenient to the Secretary, who will gladly give any information required.

F. R. W. HEDGES,
Secretary.

ANDERTON'S HOTEL,

F. H. CLEMOW, PROPRIETOR,

Nos. 162, 164 & 165 Fleet Street, and 7 & 11 Johnson's Court, London.

THE ACCOMMODATION OFFERED AT THIS ESTABLISHMENT FOR

MASONIC MEETINGS, BANQUETS, &c.

IS UNRIVALLED.

THE premises have lately been rebuilt, and in order to maintain the time-honored reputation of the house, as one of the centres of London Freemasonry, special attention has been paid to the furnishing of Lodge quarters, which now comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL

Specially constructed for Masonic purposes, with preparation room adjoining.

A LARGE BANQUET HALL

Fitted with every necessary for the comfort of Visitors, &c., &c.

ROOMS FOR LARGE OR SMALL DINNER PARTIES, MEETINGS, &c.

THE CATHEDRAL HOTEL,

CORNER OF

CHEAPSIDE & ST. PAUL'S CHURCHYARD.

—:o:—

F. J. SWEETING, Proprietor.

—:o:—

LUNCHEON BAR ON GROUND FLOOR FOR LIGHT REFRESHMENTS.

Soups, Fish, Chops, Steaks, Entrées, Cold Joints, &c. from Eight a.m. till Ten p.m.

DINING ROOMS ON FIRST FLOOR.

Hot Joints, &c. from Twelve o'Clock daily.
Dinners a la Carte. Teas, &c.

THE "CATHEDRAL HALF-CROWN DINNER"

(Soup, Fish, Joint)
Is served in the Saloon from Twelve till Five daily.

The Smoking Room overlooks the New Gardens round St. Paul's Cathedral.

PRIVATE ROOMS FOR SMALL PARTIES, MASONIC AUDITS, &c.

The following Lodges have recently held their Audit Meetings at this Hotel:—GROSVENOR, STANHOPE, POLISH NATIONAL, LA TOLERANCE, &c.

VITRUVIAN LODGE, No. 87.

BRO. ISAAC, who has for some time past provided for the requirements of this Lodge, begs to announce that he has obtained permission for the removal of his license to the Belvedere-road, and that he has erected commodious premises there. These comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL.

WITH ANTE ROOMS,

LARGE BANQUETTING HALL,

Together with every convenience for Masonic gatherings.

Applications from Secretaries and others for accommodation to be addressed.

G. ISAAC, "WHITE HART," COLLEGE STREET, LAMBETH, LONDON, S.E.

DINNERS FROM THE JOINT from TWELVE to THREE o'clock, CHOPS and STEAKS from the GRILL till FIVE o'clock. T. MAIDWELL, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-st., City, E.C.

THE FREEMASONS' TAVERN,

GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON. W.C.

The admirable and unrivalled accommodation provided at this Establishment for

MASONIC BANQUETS,

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE DINNERS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, BALLS, &c.

Is too well known to need comment. The entire management has been changed, and the Establishment in all its branches thoroughly re-organised.

The attention of the Masonic Body is directed to the many advantages offered.

CUISINE OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER.

WINES PERFECT IN CONDITION AND QUALITY.

N.B.—DINNERS PROVIDED FROM 3/-.

RESTAURANT, WINE, SMOKING & RETIRING ROOMS.

The fullest measure of public confidence and support ensured.

BRO. ALFRED BEST, PROPRIETOR.

OPENING OF THE CRITERION ANNEXE.

SPIERS & POND respectfully beg to inform their Patrons, that to meet the increasing demands of their business at the Criterion, the premises have been greatly enlarged, by the addition of the above building. The principal features of the New Establishment are as follows:—

The Cafe, comprising—
The American Bar,
The Vienna Bier Saal,

VIANDS FROM THE NEW GRILL. SUPPERS SERVED TILL MIDNIGHT.

Oysters a Specialite.

The Victoria Hall, for Banquets, Balls, Wedding Breakfasts, Soirées, and Entertainments.

The Prince's and Carnarvon Rooms, for Masonic Meetings, Banquets, &c.

Private Rooms, suitable for the meetings of Public and Corporate Bodies, Arbitrations, &c.

The Criterion Departments.

Buffet	For Luncheons and Light Refreshments.
Restaurant	Dinners à la Carte.
Cigar Divan	Facing Piccadilly entrance.
Smoking Room ...	Adjoining the Buffet.
Grill Room	Entrance in Jermyn Street.
West Dining Room	Le Diner Parisien daily from 5.30 p.m., and on Sundays.
East Dining Room ...	Dinners à la Carte.
The Grand Hall ...	Table d'Hote daily, from 5.30 till 8 p.m. (also on Sundays at 6).
Private Rooms ...	For Dinners, Wedding Breakfasts, &c., &c.

SAWYER'S (LATE STATION) RESTAURANT,

5 RAILWAY PLACE, FENCHURCH STREET, E.C.

ENGLISH, FRENCH & GERMAN CUISINE.

Hot and Cold Luncheons on the Ground Floor;
This Room will accommodate 100 persons.

CHOPS, STEAKS, &c., FROM THE GRILL;
The Grill Room will seat 150 persons.

REID'S TREBLE STOUT. WORTHINGTON'S ALES,
BERLIN TIVOLI BEER.

TEA AND COFFEE ALWAYS READY.

CHAMPAGNES OF THE BEST BRANDS. OLD BOTTLED PORTS.
SHERRIES AND OTHER WINES OF THE BEST QUALITY.

Bro. F. J. SAWYER, Proprietor.
Late of Pimm's, and the Crystal Palace.

FISH DINNERS IN PERFECTION

2S EACH, including Soups, Entrées, Poultry, Joints, Cheese, Salad, Served from 12 to 4 daily.—GEORGE TAVERN, Billingsgate Market.
Sole Proprietor, GEORGE SMITH, from Anderton's Hotel.

MASONIC HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS,

1 NOTTING HILL SQUARE, W.

THE SCHOOL has been established to provide a High Class Education to sons of Freemasons and others, on moderate terms. There are scholarships of the annual value of £10 to £20, and Exhibitions of £20. Terms for sons of Freemasons from 4 to 7 guineas per term, for other pupils from 5 to 8 guineas per term. For further particulars apply to the Secretary, or to

E. PASSAWER, LL.D.
Head Master.

FREEMASONS' CALENDAR and POCKET-BOOK, containing a complete list of all the regular Lodges and Royal Arch Chapters, with their places and times of meeting. Published for the benefit of the Charity Fund, under the sanction of the United Grand Lodge of England. May be had from W. W. Morgan jun., FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, London, W.C. Price 2s. post free.

Ninth Edition, post free, One Shilling.

DR. WATTS on ASTHMA. A Treatise on the only Successful Method of Curing the Disease. By ROBERT G. WATTS, M.D., F.R.S.L., &c., 5 Bulstrode-street, Cavendish-square, London.

London: MITCHELL AND CO., Red Lion-court, Fleet-street.

FURNITURE FOR LODGE OF INSTRUCTION.—Complete Set, nearly new, for Sale. Address, J. W. H., "FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE" Office, 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

Digitized by Google

FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE

23 GREAT QUEEN STREET, W.C.

MASONIC VALEDICTORY BANQUET.

ON Thursday, 29th ult., in pursuance of a resolution carried unanimously at the last Craft meeting of the United Industrious Lodge, No. 31, a complimentary banquet was given to Bro. A. W. Gardner, who is about leaving England for New Zealand. The principal reason for Bro. Gardner taking so important a step is that, under medical advice, he is anxious to remove to a more genial climate. The necessary arrangements having been satisfactorily completed, one of the last and most pleasing incidents to the emigrant took place at the Fleur-de-Lis Hotel, where Bro. Gardner was given God speed by his brother Masons of Lodge 31. The gathering was virtually confined to members of Lodge 31. The chair was occupied by the Right Worshipful the Mayor of Canterbury. W. Bro. John Hemery P.M. 31, P.P.J.G.W. Kent, M.E.Z. 31, Rose Croix 18°, who had on his right the guest of the evening and Bro. Major Knight P.M. 31, and on his left Bro. W. Tice W.M. 31, and Bro. A. J. Beer P.M. 972, P.P.J.G.D. He was supported by Bro. Ward P.M. P.Z. P.P.J.G.W. and P.P.G.H. Wilts, Bro. Higham P.M. P.P.J.G.W., Bro. J. Coppin P.M. P.P.G. Supt., W. Bro. J. R. Hall P.M. P.P. Assist. G. Sec., Bro. J. E. Wiltshier P.M., Bro. J. Plant P.M., the following officers and brethren of the Lodge—Bros. W. Longhurst S.W., T. H. Walkley S.D., Alf. W. Cattelle J.D., D. Collard, F. W. Cross, F. Wacher, W. G. Pidduck, W. D. Young, G. Collard; and A Wetherelt and Pelling visiting brethren. Bro. F. Finn J.W., Bro. F. Horner I.G., and others were absent through illness and unavoidable causes. A récherché banquet was provided, and after formal toasts, the Chairman in well-chosen terms gave the health of Bro. Gardner; it was ever a characteristic of Freemasonry to encourage the practice of the virtues brotherly love, relief, and true friendship. They were now assembled to take farewell and wish God speed to a worthy brother, who had broken up his home and was about to proceed to a far distant land for the sake of his children. In making this great sacrifice he had the consolation of knowing that he was leaving with the good wishes of the brethren of his mother Lodge, and that he had earned the esteem and respect, not only of his brethren, but of the citizens of Canterbury generally. The brethren of his Lodge could not permit so worthy a brother to leave his home and native land without meeting to wish him God speed and every prosperity in his new home. He was well assured that in that far distant land Bro. Gardner would carry out those sacred principles which he had been taught in his mother Lodge in Kent; that he would there continue to be the ornament to the Craft he was at home, and would never forget the ancient city in which he had been initiated into the rites of Freemasonry. It only remained for them now to unite in wishing Bro. Gardner health, success and prosperity in his new home, and that he might be able to return in his old age to enjoy that competency they all trusted he might achieve. Bro. Gardner, in reply, said it was impossible for him to express himself as he was moved by mingled feelings of gratitude, of pleasure, and yet of regret, and he scarcely knew how to return thanks for the kind manner in which he had been received by the brethren. He could but feel honoured and gratified at the attendance that evening of so many brethren to bid him farewell, and at the reception which they had accorded him, and for which he had been wholly unprepared. Yet his feelings were mingled with regret that in leaving he should have to part with so many brothers in Masonry, from whom he had received so much kindness, as well as from the citizens generally. It had fairly astounded him that his departure should have been received with so much generous sympathy and goodwill. People said it was a plucky thing to enter upon such an undertaking as the removal of his family to a distant colony; but he would be accompanied by a most devoted partner, and he thought that with the aid of such a partner, and the blessing of the Great Architect of the Universe upon his undertaking, he had nothing to fear. He had taken a most lively interest in Masonry, and he should hope to do so even more in future years. Had he lived in Canterbury it would have been his ambition to rise through the various degrees in the Craft until he reached the high position which had been attained by several of the brethren present, and he yet hoped that he might be able to send some hearty good greetings as Master of a Lodge beyond the seas. He had no doubt that a new era in Masonry was about to commence in Canterbury, with the erection of the Masonic Temple, and that the outside world would soon see Masonry invested with the honour it deserved. He could say for himself that he found many friends he would probably never have known had he not become a Mason. It was very true that Masonry could not make him a good man, but it certainly was highly calculated to prevent him becoming a bad one. In conclusion, he would wish to one and all health, happiness, and prosperity. He could never forget while he lived the kindness shown him in his old home and his mother Lodge. Though absent, his brethren would not be forgotten. He would ever cherish the recollection of their brotherly love and respect. Bro. Gardner then proposed "The W.M. of 31, Bro. Tice." Bro. Tice having acknowledged the compliment, gave "The Chairman, Bro. Hemery," which was enthusiastically received, and drank with all the honours. Brother Tice remarked that as they well knew Bro. Hemery had attained very high distinction as a Mason, having passed through every office which could be conferred upon him, until he had reached the high position he now held. Nor was it amongst Masons only that he was so respected and honoured, for he now occupied the highest civic dignity any citizen could fill, and they as members of Lodge 31 were proud to see him Mayor of Canterbury. Bro. Hemery, who on rising to respond was greeted with hearty and continued applause, said if anything could enhance the pleasure he felt in being present to take his part in the farewell they were giving to Bro. Gardner, it would be the meeting so many brethren of No. 31. He saw round him many worthy Masons whom he had known as boys, and whose conduct gave him the greatest encouragement for the future of the Craft. He felt sure they would continue to carry out the principles of the Order with credit. No province in the empire could show more efficient and worthy Masons, and nowhere were the rites of Masonry carried out in a more punctilious manner than in Canterbury. He referred with pride to the establishment of the Royal Arch Chapter in this City, and trusted that many of the brethren present would be admitted into that exalted degree, which was the copestone of Freemasonry. He was proud as Mayor to be amongst his Masonic brethren, and proud to think that a brother of No. 31 should be Mayor of Canterbury. The following toasts were also given—"The Officers of the Lodge," "The Visitors," The Press," and "The Host;" after which Bro. Wiltshier said he felt sure that Bro. Gardner, although he was going to a distant land, on which his future hopes would depend, would find brother Masons in New Zealand who would be ready to hold out the right hand of fellowship to him. There was a wide-spread interest felt in Masonry in every part of the globe. Only a few months ago his own son had landed in Natal, and was there met by several Masons, who warmly welcomed him to the Colony, and promised to assist him because they knew he was a son of a Mason. He thought they could not allow Bro. Gardner to leave this country without sending hearty greetings to their fellow Masons in New Zealand, who would, he felt sure, give him a warm and brotherly reception. The health of "Our fellow Masons in New Zealand" was then drunk with enthusiasm. Bro. Gardner said it would give him the greatest pleasure to carry those hearty good wishes, and he hoped in a few months to be able to give the same greetings by letter. The Mayor said that he himself was made a Mason in Madras, and he could testify to the brotherly feeling with which he had been received in all parts of the world. Bro. Gardner could not have chosen a better spot than New Zealand for his new home. It had been called the Great Britain of the South, and he held it to be the finest country in the world, for climate, scenery, and fertility. He had himself been there several times, had lived there many weeks at a time, and he was satisfied that no place afforded so many advantages, nor such fine prospects for an emigrant. He could comfort Bro. Gardner by the assurance that he would find in New Zealand as warm hearted and cordial a body of Masons as could be met with anywhere. The meeting ultimately broke up, the brethren before they dispersed individually giving Bro. Gardner hearty good wishes for his success in his future career.—Kent Herald.

COMMITTEE MEETING OF THE BOYS' SCHOOL.

THE General Committee of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys assembled last Saturday at Freemasons' Hall. There were present Bros. William Roebuck (in the chair), William Mann, Rev. Dr. Morris Head Master, Arthur E. Gladwell, Henry W. Hunt, Don. M. Dewar, Frederick Adlard, George J. Palmer, George Crow, H. Massey, W. Maple, H. Young, Thomas Meggy, and Frederick Binckes Secretary. The various minutes having been read—some for confirmation and others for information, the brethren referred the claim of Bro. Stephen Barton Wilson back to the House Committee for their consideration. The petition for placing a boy on the list for election in October was deferred till next meeting, for fuller information. An outfit of £5 was granted to a former pupil of the Institution. The Committee then adjourned.

ROSE CROIX.

Hilda Chapter, York.—The installation meeting of this Chapter was held at York, on Friday, 6th February. In the unavoidable absence of the M.W.S., the Hon. W. T. Orde-Powlett 30°, Bro. C. J. Banister 33° presided. Bro. Wm. Hine Hall of the Eboracum Lodge 1611 was accepted and perfected, after which Bro. T. B. Whytehead the M.W.S. elect was duly installed, and appointed his Officers as follow:—Bros. J. S. Cumberland H.P. and Recorder, Rev. W. C. Lukis 1st Genl., M. Millington 2nd Genl., A. T. B. Turner G.M., T. M. Richay R. The report of the auditors showed the funds of the Chapter to be in a healthy condition.

ORDER OF ST. LAWRENCE THE MARTYR.

A Lodge of this Order, denominated the St. Cyprian of Carthage Lodge, has been opened at Tunis, South Africa, under the authority of the Council of Side Degrees. Bro. Broadley P.G.M.M.M. of the Ancient Ebor Lodge, York, is the first W.M., and Bros. Captain R. A. Johnstone and S. Sessing 1st S.W. and J.W. respectively. Many of the members of the Craft Lodges No. 1717 and 1835 will very probably seek admittance to this curious relic of our operative forefathers.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Somewhere or other disease is ever rife; everywhere its surest opponent, this purifying medicine, is to be found. When symptoms of sickness first set in they may be easily subdued by this grand remedy, which gives great and prompt relief to every oppressed organ or disordered function. These Pills regulate and strengthen digestion more readily, efficiently, and with more certainty than any other combination of drugs, be it ever so scientifically prescribed. Nothing can exceed the ability of Holloway's medicine to secure natural functional action, whereby thousands of life-long maladies have been prevented at very trifling expense and no detriment to the constitution. An acquisition so priceless should be at hand in every household.

Digitized by Google

DIARY FOR THE WEEK.

We shall be obliged if the Secretaries of the various Lodges throughout the Kingdom will favour us with a list of their Days of Meeting, &c., as we have decided to insert only those that are verified by the Officers of the several Lodges.

—:o:—

SATURDAY, 14th FEBRUARY.

198—Percy, Jolly Farmers' Tavern, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1364—Earl of Zetland, Nags Head, Mare-street, Hackney, at 7 (Instruction)
1426—The Great City, Cannon-street Hotel, E.C.
1824—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
1671—Mizpah, Albion Hotel, Aldersgate-street
1743—Perseverance, Imperial Hotel, Holborn Viaduct.
R. A. 1185—Lewis, King's Arms Hotel, Wood Green.
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8

1391—Commercial, Freemasons Hall, Leicester
1612—West Middlesex, The Institute, Ealing

MONDAY, 16th FEBRUARY.

1—Grand Master's, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
45—Strong Man, New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, at 8 (Instruction)
58—London Masonic Club Lodge of Instruction, 101 Queen Victoria-street, at 8
174—Sincerity, Railway Tavern, London-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
180—St. James's Union, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
185—Tranquillity, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
548—Wellington, White Swan, High-street, Deptford, at 8 (Instruction)
704—Camden, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
720—Panmure, Balham Hotel, Balham.
1306—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-st., Wapping, at 8 (Instruction)
1425—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-rd., Paddington, at 8 (Instruction)
1445—Prince Leopold, Mitford Tavern, Sandringham-road, Dalston, at 8 (Inst.)
1489—Marquess of Ripon, Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-rd., Hackney, at 7.30 (In.)
1623—West Smithfield, New Market Hotel, King-st., Snow-hill, at 8 (Inst.)
1625—Tredegar, Royal Hotel, Mile End-road, corner of Burdett-road (Inst.)
K.T.—Oxford and Cambridge, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden Square.
M. M.—Old Kent, Trocadero, Broad Street Buildings, E.C. at 6.30 (Instruction)

77—Freedom, Clarendon Hotel, Gravesend
236—York, Masonic Hall, York
331—Phœnix of Honour and Prudence, Public Rooms, Truro.
350—Peace and Harmony, Freemasons' Hall, Southampton.
424—Borough, Half Moon Hotel, Gateshead.
496—Merit, George Hotel, Stamford Baron, Northampton.
622—St. Cuthberga, Masonic Hall, Wimborne.
725—Stoneleigh, King's Arms Hotel, Kenilworth.
820—Lily of Richmond, Greyhound, Richmond, at 7.30 (Instruction)
823—Everton, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
925—Bedford Masonic Hall, New street, Birmingham.
934—Merit, Derby Hotel, Whitefield.
985—Alexandra, Masonic Hall, Holbeach.
1030—Egerton, George Hotel, Wellington Road, Heaton Norris, near Stockport
1037—Portland, Portland Hall, Portland.
1141—Mid Sussex, Assembly Rooms, Horsham.
1170—St. George, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester.
1199—Agriculture, Honey Hall, Congresbury.
1268—Corinthian, Royal Hotel, Pier, Dover.
1288—Gooch, Albany Hotel, Twickenham
1449—Royal Military, Masonic Hall, Canterbury, at 8 (Instruction).
1502—Israel, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
R.A. 32—Jerusalem, Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool
R. A. 139—Parndise, Freemasons' Hall, Surrey-street, Sheffield.
R. A. 1051—Rowley, Masonic Rooms, Athenæum, Lancaster

TUESDAY, 17th FEBRUARY.

Board of General Purposes, Freemasons' Hall, at 4.
30—United Mariners, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
55—Constitutional, Bedford Hotel, Southampton-bldgs., Holborn, at 7 (Inst.)
65—Prosperity, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
73—Mount Lebanon, Bridge House Hotel, Southwark.
95—Eastern Star, Ship and Turtle, Leadenhall-street, E.C.
141—Faith, 2 Westminster Chambers, Victoria-street, S.W., at 8 (Inst.)
177—Domatic, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
194—St. Paul, City Terminus Hotel, Cannon-street, E.C.
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney (Instruction)
753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
860—Dalhousie, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1044—Wandsworth, Star and Garter Hotel, St. Ann's-hill, Wandsworth (Inst.)
1339—Stockwell, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell.
1349—Friars, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1360—Royal Arthur, Prince's Head, Battersea Park, at 8 (Instruction)
1420—Earl Spencer, Swan Hotel, Battersea Old Bridge, S.W.
1446—Mount Edgcumbe, 19 Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1471—Islington, Three Bucks, 23 Gresham-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
1472—Henley, Three Crowns, North Woolwich, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1507—Metropolitan, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate-st., at 7.30 (Inst.)
1558—D. Connaught, Palmerston Arms, Grosvenor Park, Camberwell, at 8 (In.)
1602—Sir Hugh Myddelton, Crown and Woolpack, St. John's-st.-rd., at 8 (In.)
1707—Eleanor, Trocadero, Broad-street-buildings, Liverpool-street, 6.30 (Inst)
Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement, Jamaica Coffee House, Cornhill, 6.30.
R. A. 1365—Clapton, White Hart Tavern, Clapton, at 8. (Instruction.)
M M.—Prince Leopold, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
R.C.—Oxford and Cambridge, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden Square.

117—Wynnstay, Raven Hotel, Shrewsbury, at 8 (Instruction)
213—Perseverance, Masonic Hall, Theatre-street, Norwich.
241—Merchants, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 6.30 (Instruction)
248—True Love and Unity, Freemasons' Hall, Brixham, Devon.
384—St. David, Masonic Rooms, Bangor.
414—Union, Masonic Hall, Reading
418—Menturia, Mechanics' Institute, Hanley.
468—Light, Great Western Hotel, Birmingham
667—Alliance, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
960—Bute, Masonic Hall, 9 Working-street, Cardiff
1006—Tregullow, Masonic Rooms, St. Day, Scorrier, Cornwall.
1052—Callender, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester.
1069—De Shurland, Fountain Hotel, Sheerness.
1113—Anglesea, Bull Hotel, Llangefni
1276—Warren, Stanley Arms Hotel, Seacombe, Cheshire.
1326—Stanley, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
1427—Percy, Masonic Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle.
1470—Chiltern, Town Hall, Dunstable.
1473—Bootle, 146 Berry-street, Bootle, at 6. (Instruction.)
1534—Concord, George Hotel, Prestwich.
1651—Charity, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham.
1670—Prince Arthur, 140 North Hill-street, Liverpool.
1764—Eleanor Cross, Masonic Hall, Abington-street, Northampton.

WEDNESDAY, 18th FEBRUARY.

General Committee of Grand Lodge and Lodge of Benevolence, Freemasons' Hall, at 6
174—Sincerity, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
190—Oak, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
193—Confidence, Railway Tavern, London-street, at 7 (Instruction)
228—United Strength, Hope and Anchor, Crowndale-rd., Camden-town, 8 (In.)
538—La Tolerance, Green Dragon, 2 Maddox-street, W., at 7.45 (Inst.)
781—Merchant Navy, Silver Tavern, Burdett-road, E.
813—New Concord, Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
862—Whittington, Red Lion, Poppin's-court, Fleet-street, at 8 (Instruction)
1185—Lewis, King's Arms Hotel, Wood Green, at 7 (Instruction)
1278—Burdett Coutts, Salmon and Ball, Bethnal Green-road, at 8 (Inst.)
1288—Finsbury Park, Alwyne Castle, Highbury, at 8 (Instruction)
1507—Metropolitan, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
1534—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion Road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1673—Langton, London Masonic Club, 101 Queen Victoria-street, E.C.
R. A. 177—Domatic, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-st., at 8 (Instruction)
R.C.—Bard of Avon, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden Square.

20—Royal Kent of Antiquity, Sun Hotel, Chatham
121—Mount Sinai, Public-buildings, Penzance
140—St. George, Trafalgar Tavern, Greenwich
175—East Medina, Masonic Hall, John-street, Ryde, I.W.
200—Old Globe, Private Rooms, Globe-street, Scarborough
221—St. John, Commercial Hotel, Town Hall Square, Bolton
325—St. John, Freemasons' Hall, Islington-square, Salford
428—Sincerity, Angel Inn, Northwich, Cheshire
451—Sutherland, Town Hall, Burslem
537—Zetland, 55 Argyle-street, Birkenhead
581—Faith, Drover's Inn, Openshaw
592—Cotteswold, King's Head Hotel, Cirencester
594—Downshire, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7 (Instruction)
633—Yarborough, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester
673—St. John, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8. (Instruction.)
683—Isca, Freemasons' Hall, Dock-street, Newport, Monmouthshire
823—Everton, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
874—Holmesdale, Royal Sussex Hotel, Tunbridge Wells
938—Grosvenor, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham
969—Sun and Sector, Assembly Rooms, Workington
972—St. Augustine, Canterbury
1019—Sincerity, Freemasons' Hall, Zetland-street, Wakefield
1040—Sykes, Masonic Hall, Driffield, Yorks
1086—Walton, Skelmersdale Masonic Hall, Kirkdale, Liverpool
1129—St. Chad, Roebuck Hotel, Rochdale
1161—De Grey and Ripon, Denmark Hotel, Lloyd-street, Greenheys, Manchester
1164—Eliot, Private Rooms, St. Germains, Cornwall
1206—Cinque Ports, Bell Hotel, Sandwich
1246—Holte, Holte Hotel, Aston
1341—Brighouse, Masonic Room, Bradford-road, Brighouse
1337—Anchor, Masonic Rooms, Durham House, Northallerton
1353—Duke of Lancaster, Athenæum, Lancaster
1356—De Grey and Ripon, 140 North Hill-street, Liverpool, at 7.30 (Inst.)
1443—Salem, Town Hall, Dawlish, Devon
1511—Alexandra, Hornsea, Hull
1634—Starkie, Railway Hotel, Ramsbottom
R.A. 481—St. Peter, Masonic Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle

THURSDAY, 19th FEBRUARY.

House Committee, Girls' School, Battersea Rise, at 4
3—Fidelity, Yorkshire Grey, London-street, Fitzroy-sq., at 8 (Instruction)
15—Kent, Chequers, Marsh-street, Walthamstow, at 7.30 (Instruction)
23—Globe, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
27—Egyptian, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7.30 (Instruction)
63—St. Mary, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
87—Vitruvian, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth, at 8 (Instruction)
169—Temperance, White Swan, High-street, Deptford
181—Universal, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
211—St. Michael, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate Street, at 8 (Inst.)
435—Salisbury, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8 (Inst.)
751—High Cross, Coach and Horses, Lower Tottenham, at 8 (Instruction)
813—New Concord, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
1139—South Norwood, Public Hall, South Norwood
1227—Upton, King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., at 8. (Instruction.)
1287—Great Northern, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
1426—The Great City, Masons Hall, Masons Avenue, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
1475—Peckham, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell.
1614—Covent Garden, Nag's Head, James-street, Covent Garden, at 7.45 (In.)
1724—Temple Bar, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street
R. A. 753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
R. A. 1471—North London, Jolly Farmers', Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Inst.)
M. M.—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion-rd., Dalston, E., at 8.30 (Inst.)

42—Relief, Albion Hotel, Haymarket-street, Bury, Lancashire
48—Industry, 34 Denmark-street, Gateshead. (Instruction)
56—Howard, High-street, Arundel
98—St. Martin, Town Hall, Burslem
100—Friendship, Crown and Anchor Hotel, Quay, Great Yarmouth
116—Royal Lancashire, Swan Hotel, Colne
203—Ancient Union, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
208—Three Grand Principles, Masonic Hall, Dewsbury
268—Union, Queen's Arms Inn, George-street, Ashton-under-Lyne
275—Harmony, Masonic Hall, South Parade, Huddersfield
283—Amity, Swan Hotel, Market-place, Haslingden
337—Candour, Commercial Inn, Uppermill, Saddleworth
343—Concord, Militia Officers' Mess Rooms, Starkie-street, Preston
344—Faith, Bull's Head Inn, Radcliffe, Lancashire
345—Perseverance, Old Bull Hotel, Church-street, Blackburn
367—Probity and Freedom, Red Lion Inn, Smallbridge
523—John of Gaunt, Freemasons' Hall, Halford-street, Leicester
600—Harmony, Freemasons' Hall, Salem-street, Bradford
605—Combermere, Seacombe Hotel, Seacombe, Cheshire
636—D'Ogle, Masonic Hall, Morpeth
659—Blagdon, Ridley Arms Hotel, Blyth
663—Wiltshire of Fidelity, Town Hall, Devizes
816—Royd, Spring Gardens Inn, Wardle, near Rochdale
1011—Richmond, Crown Hotel, Blackfriars-street, Salford
1042—Excelsior, Masonic Hall, Great George-street, Leeds
1182—Duke of Edinburgh, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1299—Pembroke, West Derby Hotel, West Derby, near Liverpool
1332—Unity, Masonic Hall, Crediton, Devon
1432—Fitzalan, Wynstay Arms, Oswestry
1512—Hemming, Red Lion Hotel, Hampton
1576—Dee, Union Hotel, Parkgate, Cheshire
1612—West Middlesex, Feathers' Hotel, Ealing, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
R. A. 1385—Gladsmuir, Red Lion Hotel, Barnet, Herts

FRIDAY, 20th FEBRUARY.

House Committee Boys' School, Wood Green, at 4.
Emulation Lodge of Improvement, Freemasons' Hall, at 7.
25—Robert Burns, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
201—Jordan, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
507—United Pilgrims, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
766—William Preston, Feathers Tavern, Up. George-st., Edgware-rd. 8 (Inst.)
834—Hanelagh, Six Bells, Hammersmith (Instruction)
902—Burgoyne, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Duke's Head, 79 Whitechapel-road, at 8 (Instruction)
1056—Metropolitan, Portugal Hotel, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 7 (Instruction)
1158—Belgrave, Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1288—Finsbury Park M.M., Earl Russell, Isledon-road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1298—Royal Standard, Alwyne Castle, St. Paul's-road, Canonbury, at 8 (In.)
1365—Clapton, White Hart, Lower Clapton, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1642—E. Carnarvon, Mitre Hotel, Goulborne-rd, N. Kensington, at 8.0 (Inst.)
R. A. 79—Pythagorean, Portland Hotel, London-street, Greenwich, at 8 (Inst.)
M. M. 104—Macdonald, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
R. C.—Invicta, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square, W.C.

127—Union, Freemasons' Hall, Margate
152—Virtue, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester.
347—Noah's Ark, Wagon and Horses Hotel, Tipton
516—Phœnix, Fox Hotel, Stowmarket

Digitized by Google

541—De Loraine, Freemasons' Hall, Grainger-street, Newcastle
720—Royal Alfred, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, at 7.30. (Instruction)
933—Alexandra, Midway Hotel, Levenshulme
1096—Lord Warden, Wellington Hall, Deal
1143—Royal Denbigh, Council Room, Denbigh
1311—Zetland, Masonic Hall, Great George street, Leeds
1393—Hamer, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8 (Instruction)
1772—Albert Victor, Town Hall, Pendleton
General Lodge of Instruction, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham, at 7
R. A. 821—Truth, Freemasons' Hall, Fitzwilliam-street, Huddersfield
R. A. 837—Marquess of Ripon, Town Hall, Ripon
R. A.—General Chapter of Improvement, Masonic Hall, Birmingham, 5.30
R.C.—White Rose of York, Freemasons' Hall, Sheffield.

SATURDAY, 21st FEBRUARY.

108—Percy, Jolly Farmers, Southgate Road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1364—Earl of Zetland, Nags Head, Mare-street, Hackney, at 7 (Instruction)
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
1641—Crichton, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell
1732—Kings Cross, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8.

306—Prince George, Private Rooms, Bottoms, Eastwood
1585—Loyalty and Charity, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge

NOTICES OF MEETINGS.

Albion Lodge, No. 9.—A meeting was held on the 3rd inst., at Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street. Present—Bros. James Forbes W.M., W. R. Marsh P.M. S.W., E. D. Willey J.W., James Abbott P.M. Sec., Thomas Moring P.M. Treas., Alfred Eudean S.D., S. W. Thompson J.D., William Willey P.M. D.C., Russell Elliott I.G., James Rawles Tyler; Past Masters Bros. H. S. Friend, W. T. Scott, S. Vallentine, L. W. Harvey. Visitors—Bros. J. W. Fuller Grand Master's Lodge No. 1, T. G. Pearce Bromley St. Leonards No. 1805. Business—Lodge opened, and the minutes were confirmed. The W.M. passed Bro. Walter Baker, and initiated Mr. T. S. D. Wallace. After routine business, the brethren adjourned to a banquet at Freemasons' Tavern, which was served in Bro. Alfred Best's usual satisfactory style.

Constitutional Lodge of Instruction, No. 55.—On 27th January, at Bro. Bond's, Bedford Hotel, Southampton-buildings, W.C. Present—Bros. Hallam jun. W.M., Snodin S.W., T. B. Dodson J.W., John Soper Sec., Stroud S.D., Alford J.D., Thisleton I.G., John Bingemann Preceptor. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Cronin candidate. The following sections of the first lecture were worked—2nd by Bro. Hallam jun., 3rd and 4th by Bro. Bingemann. Bro. Cronin, of St. Andrew's Lodge 231, was elected a member. Bro. Snodin was elected W.M. for the ensuing week. A vote of thanks was accorded to Bro. Hallam jun., for the efficient manner in which he had performed his duties on this, the first occasion of his taking the chair. All Masonic duties being ended, the Lodge was closed.

On 3rd February there were present—W. Snodin W.M., T. B. Dodson S.W., Acland J.W., T. B. Linscott S.D., H. R. Hallam J.D., Stroud I.G.; Past Masters Bros. John Bingemann Preceptor, and Watts. After preliminaries, the ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Linscott being the candidate. The following sections of the first Lecture were worked—the second by Bro. Hallam, third by Bro. Bingemann, fourth by Bro. Watts. Bro. T. B. Dodson was unanimously elected W.M. for the ensuing Tuesday week, 17th February.

Fidelity Preceptory (K.T.) No. 114.—The installation meeting of this Preceptory was held at the Fidelity Masonic Hall, Leeds, on Tuesday week, when Sir Knt. Walter Rowley was duly installed in the chair by E. Sir Knt. C. Z. Mason, the outgoing Preceptor, assisted by E. Sir Knt. T. B. Whytehead P.E.P. Ancient Ebor, P.S.C. of G. England. Amongst those present we noticed E. Sir Knts. W. H. Porritt, J. Beck, J. Holmes and T. Gibson, and Sir Knts W. Paley, Rev. W. C. Lukis, Brown, &c. The Leeds Sir Knts. afterwards entertained their visitors at an excellent supper.

Lodge La Tolerance, No. 538.—The regular meeting of this Lodge was held on Thursday, the 5th instant, at the Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street. The Lodge was in mourning on account of the death of the late respected Bro. W. H. Lindus P.M. There were present—Bros. T. W. Cooper W.M., E. Child S.W., Humphrey J.W., Kench A.G.P. P.M. Treasurer, J. B. Sly P.M. Secretary, H. Sweare S.D., Skinner J.D., P.M.'s Bros. Quitman I.P.M. Wilson and Wood; Bros. Elvin, Schött, Carl Quitman, W. Dixon, Marner, &c. The Lodge was opened, and the minutes were confirmed. Bro. Dixon was raised to the third degree, and Bro. Marner was passed to the second, to the satisfaction of the brethren, who acknowledged that, being the first time he had occupied the chair, the W.M. showed that their selection had been justified by his excellent working. A proposition was brought before the Lodge and duly carried, that the initiation fee be raised from £8 8s to £10 10s, and the joining fee, for a brother whose name had not been previously registered on the books of the Grand Lodge of England from £5 5s to £8 8s, and for one who had been previously registered from £4 4s to £6 6s. The W.M. said he had melancholy tidings to convey, which he was sure would be heard with regret, not only in this Lodge but in another. One who had held an important office in the Lodge had since their last meeting, he might say suddenly, passed away from their midst. He alluded to Bro. W. H. Lindus P.M. As they would recollect, he was with them at their installation meeting. His loss would be felt in this Lodge, and it would create a gap that would take some time to fill. His genial temper, his kind advice, his Masonic knowledge, and the high estimation he was held in by every one, was such that he (the W.M.) felt sure these sentiments would find an echo in the breast of every brother. He hoped that as many as could be present at the funeral would attend to pay the last tribute to their departed Past Master. Bro. Kench P.G.P. proposed, in eloquent and feeling terms, that a letter of condolence be sent to the sorrowing widow, and that it be inscribed on vellum and sent to her to show the feeling of the brethren of the Lodge. He had known and respected their departed brother ever since he had been a Mason, now fourteen years, and he felt as if he had lost a father. In his connection with the outer world he was the first to hold out a helping hand; he hoped the brethren would show the widow how he was respected and alleviate her great grief in the hour of her trial and bereavement. Bro. Wood P.M. seconded the proposition in an able speech, and several brethren followed, all testifying their great sorrow at the loss they had sustained. The Lodge was then closed, and out of respect to their departed brother the brethren separated.

The funeral of Bro. W. H. Lindus P.M. 538, P.M. Stanhope Lodge (of which he was one of the founders), P.Z. 538 and 1269, took place on Friday, the 6th inst., at Nunhead Cemetery. Among those present from the Lodge La Tolerance were Bro. T. W. Cooper W.M., J. Quitman I.P.M., J. Kench P.G.P. P.M., E. Humphrey S.W. J. Skinner J.W., C. Quitman, G. Schött; and from the Stanhope Lodge Bros. J. C. Ring W.M., R. E. Woodman S.W., H. Wood P.M. Treas., Seymour Smith Org., Canton P.M., Frampton P.M., Garner, Vickery, J. W. Lassam, A. S. Harrisson S.W., C. Pugsley W.M. 1585, and numerous others.

Panmure Chapter, No. 720.—A regular meeting of this Chapter was held at the Horns Tavern, Kennington, on Monday, the 10th inst., for the election of Officers for the ensuing year. In the unavoidable absence of the M.E.Z. Comp. M. S. Larlham, the chair of Z. was occupied by Ex-Comp. Henry Smith P.Z. The candidates for exaltation being unable to attend on this occasion, the time at disposal of the Chapter was utilised by discussion of sundry business relating to its affairs. The election for Officers resulted as follows, viz.:—Ex-Comp. Thomas Poore M.E.Z., Ex-Comp. R. N. Field H., Comp. Samuel Poynter J., Ex-Comp. James Stevens P.Z. Scribe E. (twelfth re-election), Comp. Thomas Meggy N., Ex-Comp. Henry Smith P.Z. Tr., Comp. B. R. Bryant P.S. and John Gilbert Jan. Comps. J. W. Watts and J. Walmsley were appointed on Audit Committee. A P.Z.'s jewel was unanimously voted to the retiring M.E.Z. Comp. Larlham. After some routine business had been disposed of the Chapter was closed, and the Companions supped together. We are requested to state that the installation of Principals will take place on the 10th May, when the duties of Installing Principal will be undertaken by Ex-Comp. James Stephens P.Z., Founder and Scribe E. of the Chapter.

Royal Alfred Lodge of Instruction, No. 780.—Meeting held at the Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, 6th February, at half-past seven p.m. Present—Bros. J. C. Roe (P.M. and Preceptor) W.M., Acworth S.W., Botley J.W., Maton S.D., Franckel J.D., Youens I.G., Gunner Hon. Sec., Bellerby, Wyville, Becket, &c. Lodge was regularly formed and opened, the minutes of last meeting were read, confirmed, and signed. Bro. Roe then worked the installation ceremony in his well-known impressive manner, and vacated the chair, which was occupied by Bro. Acworth. The initiation ritual was then rehearsed, Bro. Roe kindly acting as candidate. Bro. Gunner gave notice of motion he would bring forward at next meeting, as to a proposed fund towards expenses of the Girls' School in acquiring new premises. Lodge closed and meeting adjourned till 13th inst., at half-past seven p.m.

Doric Lodge of Instruction, 933.—The usual meeting of this Lodge was held on the 30th ult., at the Duke's Head, Whitechapel-road, E. Present—Bros. Digby W.M. of the mother Lodge W.M., I. P. Cohen P.M. S.W., Payne J.W., Forss S.D., Clarke J.D., McDonald I.G., Loane, Posener, Ellis, Farness, Tait, West, Norden, Grounds, Friedeberg; also Past Masters Barnes, Webb, W. Musto Hon. Sec., and B. Candick Preceptor. The evening was devoted (after the necessary formalities had been complied with) to working the installation ceremony, by Bro. I. Digby, who will shortly have to instal his successor in the mother Lodge. The ceremony, including the working of the Board of Installed Masters, being ably rendered, Bro. Digby received the congratulations of the brethren at its conclusion. Bro. Ellis, who had thus been placed in the chair, worked the ceremony of the 3rd degree, Bro. Loane candidate. Bro. I. P. Cohen P.M. was elected to the chair for the next Friday. Arrangements for the audit were made, and a vote of thanks accorded to Bro. Digby. The Lodge was duly closed.

Upton Lodge of Instruction, No. 1227.—At the King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., Thursday, 5th February. Bros. Clark W.M., Peacock S.W., Hine J.W., Sergeant S.D., Abrahams J.D., Fenner Preceptor, Wallbrecht Sec., Gieseke I.G.; also Bros. Oble, Andrews, Smith, Leoffler, Bronkhurst, Ward, and Stroud. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Oble candidate. Bro. Andrews worked the first and second sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Peacock was appointed to preside at the next meeting. A vote of thanks was accorded to Bro. Clark for the very able manner he performed his duties as W.M. The Lodge was then closed and adjourned.

Marquess of Ripon Lodge of Instruction, No. 1489.—Held at the Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-road, Hackney, on Monday, 2nd inst. Present—Bros. McDowall W.M., Garrod S.W., Crain J.W., High S.D., Martin I.G., J. Lorkin Sec., C. Lorkin Preceptor; also Bro. Fetherstone and others. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Fetherstone candidate. Bro. J. Lorkin worked the second section of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Fetherstone was elected a member.

Digitized by Google

On Monday, 9th February, Bros. C. Lorkin W.M., High S.W., Thos. Jones J.W., Martin I.G., J. Lorkin Sec.; also Bros. Blunt, Fetherstone and others. The ceremony of passing was rehearsed, Bro. Fetherstone candidate. The Lodge was opened in the third degree and regularly closed. Bro. High was elected W.M. for the ensuing week, officers in rotation. Lodge was closed in due form.

Eboracum Lodge, No. 1611.—The regular meeting of this Lodge was held on Monday, the W.M. Bro. C. G. Padel in the chair, supported by his Wardens and a good muster of members. The names of two candidates and a joining member were brought forward. The business of the Lodge was instruction in the second degree, which having been concluded, the brethren adjourned to refreshment, when some conversation took place as to the advisability of forming a Lodge of Instruction.

West Middlesex Lodge of Instruction, No. 1612.—At the Feathers' Hotel, Ealing, on Thursday, 29th January. Present—Bros. H. Yonens S.W., G. S. Wright J.W., J. J. Clarke S.D., J. W. Woolmer J.D., J. Wells I.G., H. Stephens, M. W. Wyville, H. Kasner, C. Andrews, W. Seward jun. The W.M. rehearsed the ceremony of initiation, Bro. W. M. Wyville candidate. Bros. Millsom and Wyville answered the questions leading to the third degree. The ceremony of raising was rehearsed, Bro. J. Wells candidate. Bro. Andrews P.M. was elected a member. It was unanimously agreed to set apart a night for the rehearsal of the ceremony of installation.

At a meeting on Thursday, 5th February. Present—Bros. H. Yonens W.M., A. J. Burr S.W., J. Green J.W., C. E. Porter S.D., C. Andrews J.D., Bellerby I.G., J. Wells Sec., H. E. Tucker Treasurer and Preceptor, F. Botley, Buckley 700, J. J. Clarke. Lodge was opened in due form, and the minutes of previous meeting were read, confirmed, and signed. The W.M. rehearsed the ceremony of initiation, Bro. F. Botley candidate. The Lodge was opened in the second degree. Bro. Clarke having kindly volunteered as a candidate, the ceremony of passing was rehearsed. The Lodge resumed to first degree, and on the motion of Bro. Tucker, seconded by Bro. Burr, one guinea was unanimously voted from the funds of the Lodge in aid of a distressed brother. Bro. A. J. Burr was elected W.M. for Thursday, the 20th February. Lodge was then closed in due form, and the meeting adjourned to Thursday 13th, when the Officers of the mother Lodge will be in their respective places.

Beaconsfield Lodge, No. 1662.—A regular meeting of this Lodge was held at the Chequers, Walthamstow, on Tuesday, the 3rd instant. The Lodge was opened shortly after six o'clock by the W.M. Bro. T. Franklin, assisted by Bro. F. Hallows S.W., T. Upward J.W., C. B. Carter J.D., Geo. Clark I.G., James Pinder P.M. and Sec., W. Groome P.M.; also Bros. Casey, Rubery, Stockwell, Wyborn, W. G. Hallows, &c. After the confirmation of the minutes of the previous meeting, the ballot was taken for the admission of Mr. Henry Ferguson Inman, son of the esteemed host, and proving unanimous in his favour, he was regularly initiated into the Order, the ceremony being most impressively rendered by the W.M. Bro. Patterson P.G. Org. Herts was elected an hon. member, in recognition of his valuable services to the Lodge, and the W.M. requested him to perform the duties of Organist until next Installation meeting. The Lodge was then closed and adjourned to October next. In consequence of the lamented death of Bro. George Brown, the Lodge was in mourning, and expressions of deep regret for his decease were uttered by the members.

Royal Savoy Lodge, No. 1744.—The regular meeting of this Lodge was held on 27th January, at Ashley's Hotel, Covent Garden, Bro. John Douglass the W.M. presiding. The agenda paper was an exceedingly heavy one, as may be imagined from the fact that notwithstanding the amount of work that was got through, several candidates had to be disappointed. We believe a Lodge of Emergency will be called before the next regular meeting, in order that those desiring initiation in this Lodge may receive it. After the usual preliminaries, and the Lodge being opened in the second degree, Bros. G. Esbelby, G. C. R. Perugia, W. Bryant and J. G. Ellis were passed. The next business was the working of the third degree, for which there were six candidates, viz.—Bros. C. Horton, J. T. Woods, J. N. Hare, T. H. Ellis, J. Gray and J. Hone, all of whom were in due course raised to the sublime degree. Lodge was then resumed to the first, and it being announced that Messrs. George Bryant, William Ponton, Henry Howard, A. Verdin, and Henry Richard Burton sought admission, they were regularly received, and in due course admitted to the privileges of participation in Masonic light. Bro. Willing, the Treasurer of the Lodge, then announced that their W.M. had undertaken the office of Steward for the Festival of the Benevolent Institution; he accordingly proposed that the sum of ten guineas be voted from the funds of the Lodge to be placed on his list. This was seconded by Bro. W. M. Stiles the Secretary, and carried unanimously. Bro. Douglass thanked the members, and then closed his Lodge. The brethren now proceeded to the banquet room, where the good things provided by Bro. Michell were done full justice too. Bro. Willing proposed the health of the W.M., again referring to his Stewardship, and expressing a hope that the members of 1744 would support his endeavours. Bro. Douglass considered it a great pleasure to fill the chair of the Royal Savoy Lodge. He hoped the Lodge would be well represented at his hands at the coming Festival of the R.M.B.I. He next proposed the health of the Visitors, which he considered the toast of the evening. He did not think a Lodge could have a greater honour conferred on it than to have Visitors attend its meetings. Bro. Ferguson in reply felt that he had had honour thrust upon him that evening. First he had been called upon to fulfil the office of P.M. in the Lodge, which he considered a great honour. Now he was called upon to respond for the Visitors. The Master had performed his duty in such a way as must leave the brethren assured that the power of the Lodge would never be lessened while he occupied the chair. The W.M. next proposed the health of Bro. Willing the P.M. He considered that a great part of the prosperity of the Lodge was due to Bro. Willing, whom he justly termed a genial companion and a very excellent Past Master. With this toast the W.M. also coupled that of the Treasurer and Secretary, Bros. Willing and Stiles. He paid a well merited compliment to the latter brother for the part he had taken and still took in the carrying on of the Lodge. Each responded. It was then announced that the list of the W.M. for the Benevolent Institution, which in the course of the evening had been passed round the table, showed subscriptions from the members amounting to £36. The health of the initiates was now given from the chair. The W.M. hoped they would look forward to the taking of the other degrees with as much pleasure as he thought they must have done to that of their initiation. Bro. Ponton was extremely proud of the reception that had been accorded him. He had for some time wished to become a Freemason, and he was most happy to have done so now in the Royal Savoy Lodge. Bro. Bryant was also pleased at having become a member of the Ancient Fraternity. Bro. Verdin likewise expressed his thanks for the reception that had been accorded him, as also did his fellow initiate. The toasts of the Officers, the Lay Members, and the Press, concluded the proceedings of the evening, the Tyler's toast bringing all to a finish. Among the brethren present in addition to those named were T. J. Hyland S.D., W. Cook J.D., A. Holt and J. W. Smith D. of C., G. H. Deller I.G., F. W. Sillis Organist, &c.; the following were the Visitors:—W. J. Ferguson P.M. 177, H. Stiles J.W. 1732, B. Kauffmann D.C. 1732, W. F. Abraham 1178, J. Knight Stwd. 1677, W. O. Piper 1064, H. J. Ashley 1319, W. W. Morgan jun. 1385, J. Peace 890, &c.

Saint Leonard Lodge, No. 1766.—The usual monthly meeting of this Lodge was held at the Town Hall, Shoreditch, on Wednesday, 4th February. Bro. G. T. Barr presided, being assisted by Bros. L. Stean I.P.M., C. F. Barham S.W., Rev. H. G. Henderson Chaplain, C. Stevens Treas., J. Cox Hon. Sec., J. A. Jones S.D., A. A. Clement J.D., J. Funston I.G., E. Walker D.C., F. Matthews S., G. C. Young Organist, and C. T. Speight Tyler. Bro. E. Benjamin J.W. being indisposed, Bro. W. Snellgrove occupied one of the chairs. There was a fair attendance of members of the Lodge, and several visiting brethren. The Lodge having been opened with solemn prayer, and the usual routine business transacted, Bro. J. G. Moore was passed to the F.C. degree, the ceremony being admirably worked. Bro. Charles Deacon, Temple Lodge, No. 171, was unanimously elected a joining member of the Saint Leonard Lodge. During the evening a Founder's jewel was presented to Bro. E. Walker, in recognition of services rendered to the Lodge. After the transaction of some further business, the Lodge was closed according to ancient custom.

Dalhousie Lodge of Instruction, No. 860.—On Tuesday, 10th February, at Bro. Smyth's, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston. Bros. Smyth W.M., Carr S.W., Wardell J.W., Forss S.D., Brasted J.D., Christian I.G., J. Lorkin Sec., P.M. Wallington Prec., also Bros. Williams, Polak, Baker, Dallas, G. Buderus J.W. 1298 (Visitor), C. Lorkin. Bro. Buderus was interrogated and entrusted. The Lodge was opened in the second degree, and Bro. Buderus was passed to the degree of Fellow Craft. The W.M. then vacated the chair in favour of P.M. Wallington, who rehearsed the ceremony of installation. Bro. Williams being installed, he invested his Officers. The Lodge was closed in the third and second degrees. Bro. Christian worked the third section of the Lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Carr was elected W.M. for the ensuing week and appointed his Officers in rotation. All Masonic business being ended, the Lodge was closed and adjourned.

The brethren and friends of the Dalhousie Lodge, No. 860, will hold their first Annual Ball on Thursday, 19th February, at the Holborn Town Hall, Grays-inn-road. Tickets may be obtained of Bro. Diokins, 16 Norfolk-street, Strand.

Friars Lodge of Instruction, No. 1349.—At Bro. Pavitt's, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, Tuesday, 10th February. Bros. Smith W.M., Worsley S.W., Fyffe J.W., Rawe S.D., Johnson J.D., H. D. Cope I.G., Worsley Secretary, P.M. Musto Preceptor; also Bros. Pavitt, Keable, Sadler, Barker, Spencer, White, Dunsmore, Dixon, &c. The Lodge was opened in due form, and the minutes read and confirmed. Bro. Keable having answered the necessary questions, the ceremony of passing was excellently worked by the W.M. Bro. Rawe assisted the W.M. to work the first section of the lecture, Bro. Johnson the second; the W.M. assisted Bro. Worsley to work the fourth. The Lodge closed to the first, when Bro. Worsley was unanimously elected W.M. for the ensuing week, on which occasion the third ceremony will be rehearsed. On Tuesday next the brethren who will work the Sections on the following week are to be nominated. We will furnish names in our next. We are pleased that Bro. Worsley has resumed active duty in this Lodge of Instruction, of which he is a sturdy supporter. Our esteemed brother has lately experienced a heavy domestic affliction, and we are sure all members of the Craft who know him will rejoice that he feels now capable of attending to his Masonic work. We trust a full attendance of the brethren will testify their appreciation by supporting him on Tuesday next.

Digitized by Google

Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement.—The weekly meeting of this Chapter of Improvement was held on Tuesday evening, 3rd February, at the Jamaica Tavern, St. Michael's Alley, Cornhill. The following were the Officers:—Comps. Brown Z., H. Thompson H., Catterson J., Lilley P.S.; Pennefather N.; the other Companions present were Walker, Payne, Lardner, Edmonds, Gilland, Lovegrove, High, &c. The ceremony of exaltation was most ably rehearsed, Comp. Payne being the candidate. The convocation was adjourned until Tuesday evening, 10th February, at half-past six o'clock.

Consecration of the Newton Masonic Hall, Auckland.—The ceremony of consecrating the handsome new Lodge-room erected for Eden Lodge, No. 1530, E.C., took place on 3rd December, and was carried out in a most impressive manner. The ceremony was very largely attended, and amongst the visitors present we noticed, besides the Grand Lodge Officers and Past Masters and Masters engaged in the ceremony, Bros. R. B. Morrow P.M. 641, Cawnpore, East India, Burns P.M. 421 I.C., T. Hewson R.W.M. 418 S.C., Thomas Hallamore P.M. Ara I.C., J. H. Hatswell W.M. 689 E.C., W. H. Skinner P.M. 1338 E.C., A. Brook P.M. 421 I.C., and a number of other dignitaries of the Order. The arrangements for the consecration were of the best order, and the display of plate quite striking.

A Masonic Relic.—A dispatch to the Hamilton Times from sit Toronto correspondent says:—"Last night at Coates' auction rooms the Masonic diploma of Souter Jonnie (Burns' friend in 'Tam O'Shanter') was sold to Mr. J. Ross Robertson, of the Evening Telegram, for 178 dols. In the corner of the diploma is fastened a lock of Highland Mary's hair. The certificate bears the seal of St. James' Lodge, Ayr, Scotland, 6th October 1790. It is looked on as the oldest Masonic relic in existence."

The 17th ball of the St. James's Union Lodge, No. 180, was held on Tuesday, the 3rd inst. at Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street, under the Presidency of the W.W. Bro. W. Stollard, and a body of Stewards, consisting of Bros. G. A. B. Fletcher V.P., G. S. Wade Treas., F. Thompson Sec., W. C. Parsons P.M., J. Wood, W. H. Baker, A. E. Sarti, E. Joseph, A. W. Staden, &c. During the interval a sumptuous supper was provided by Bro. A. Best. The W.M. proposed the toasts of the Queen, Vice-Presidents, Committee, Stewards, and the Ladies; these having been ably responded to, dancing was resumed. Bros. Coote and Tinney provided the band, Bro. E. S. Jones conducting. Bro. Johnson was, as usual, a very efficient M.C., and the company thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

The Fifteen Sections will be worked at a meeting of the Wellington Lodge of Instruction, No. 548, to be held at the Lodge House, the White Swan Hotel, High-street, Deptford, on Monday next, the 16th inst. Lodge will be opened at seven p.m. under the presidency of Bro. J. G. Milbourn, who will be assisted on this occasion by several eminent members of the Craft.

We are informed that amongst the brethren to be nominated by Bro. James Stevens on the Committee for enquiry into and report on the present systems of Masonic working are the nominees of the Provincial Grand Masters for Dorset and Warwickshire, the Deputy Grand Masters for Surrey, Herts, Suffolk, Northamptonshire and Huntingdonshire, and a Past Grand Chaplain.

LATEST NOVELTY.
MASONIC CHARM FOR CHAIN.

The whole of the working Tools complete as above.
MOUNTED IN GOOD GOLD AND ORNAMENTALLY ENGRAVED.
To be had of the maker on receipt of 25s.
E. PELIKAN, Manufacturing Jeweller,
No. 102 St. John Street Road, London, E.C.
P.O.O. to be made payable at the St. John Street Road Office.

IVORY HAIR BRUSHES
Mirrors & all other Ivory Toilet Articles,

& IVORY GOODS IN GENERAL,
Wholesale & for Exportation & the Trade only.

Worn Ivory Brushes Re-filled and Re-polished to look Equal to New

Designs and Prices of Brushes and Mirrors, &c., on Application.

AT HENNIG BROS. Ivory Works,
11, HIGH STREET, LONDON, W.C.

Uniform with above, price 3s 6d, Crown 8vo, cloth, gilt.

MASONIC PORTRAITS,
FIRST SERIES.
Reprinted from "The Freemason's Chronicle."

LIST OF THE PORTRAITS.

1 Our Literary Brother.
2 A Distinguished Mason.
3 The Man of Energy.
4 Father Time.
5 A Corner Stone.
6 The Craftsman.
7 The Gownsman.
8 An Eastern Star.
9 The Knight Errant.
10 The Octogenarian.
11 A Zealous Officer.
12 The Soldier.
13 From Under the Crown.
14 Our Hercules.
15 A Merchant Prince.
16 The Churchman.
17 The Christian Minister.
18 The Mystic.
19 A Model Mason.
20 A Chip from Joppa
21 A Pillar of Masonry.
22 Bayard.
23 A Right Hand Man.
24 Our Citizen Brother.
25 An Able Preceptor.
26 An Ancient Briton.
27 The Artist.
28 The Father of the Lodge.
29 A Shining Light.
30 An Art Student.
31 The Mariner.
32 A Soldier of Fortune.
33. "Old Mug."

London: W. W. MORGAN.
By Order of all Booksellers, or will be sent direct, by post, from the Office, 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE,

A Weekly Record of Masonic Intelligence. Sanctioned by the Grand Lodge of England.

Price—13s 6d per annum, post free.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE will be forwarded direct from the Office, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C., (opposite Freemasons' Hall), on receipt of Post Office Order for the amount. Intending Subscribers should forward their full Addresses to prevent mistakes.

Post Office Orders to be made payable to W. W. MORGAN, at High Holborn Office. Cheques crossed "London and County."

London:—W. W. Morgan, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C.
(Opposite Freemasons' Hall.)

Cloth Cases for Binding can be had from the Offices, price 1s 6d each.

CANNON STREET HOTEL, CANNON STREET, LONDON, E.C.
Has been thoroughly renovated; the Railway advantages, in direct communication with the Hotel, render this establishment unequalled in the Metropolis for
MASONIC BANQUETS, PUBLIC & PRIVATE DINNERS, BREAKFASTS, &c.
DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENTS, PUBLIC MEETINGS, ARBITRATIONS, &c.
THE LARGE HALL IS CAPABLE OF SEATING UPWARDS OF TWELVE HUNDRED PEOPLE.
Visitors and Families visiting London, for long or short periods, will find the appointments, and accommodation unrivalled.
E. H. RAND, Manager.

LADBROKE HALL, NOTTING HILL, LONDON, W.
(Opposite the Notting Hill Station of the Metropolitan Railway, from which Trains run every few minutes to all parts of London, and in connection with the principal Lines of Railway.)
THE ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED FOR LODGE MEETINGS IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE DISTRICT.
LARGE LODGE AND BANQUET ROOMS, WITH EVERY CONVENIENCE.
THE HALL MAY BE ENGAGED for BANQUETS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, DINNERS, PUBLIC or PRIVATE ENTERTAINMENTS, &c.
Apply to Bro. J. LINSCOTT (at the Hall), 14 Ladbroke Grove Road, London, W.

Digitized by Google

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND,

Under the patronage and support of

H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES, GRAND MASTER of England.
H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT, K.G., P.S.G.W.
H.R.H. PRINCE LEOPOLD, K.G., Past Jun. Grand Warden England, Prov. G.M. Oxfordshire.
CARNARVON The Right Hon. the Earl of, Pro Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
SKELMERSDALE Rt. Hon. Lord, Deputy Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. West Lancashire.
ABERCORN His Grace the Duke of, G.M. Ireland.
STEWART Sir M. R. SHAW, Bart., G.M. Scotland.
ROSSLYN Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Past Grand Master Scotland.
ATHOLE His Grace the Duke of, K.T., P.G. Master Scotland.
ARNOLD Rev. C. W., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Surrey.
BEACH W. W. B., M.P., Prov. G. Master Hampshire and Isle of Wight
BENNETT Sir JOHN, C.C., Grand Stewards' Lodge.
BIRD REGINALD, M.A., S.G.D. England, Deputy Prov. G. Master Oxon.
BRIGHT Sir CHARLES T., Dep. Prov. G.M. Middlesex.
BROADLEY A. M., D.D.G.M. Malta, Prov. G.M.M.M. Tunis and Malta.
BROOKE Right Hon. Lord, M.P.
BROWNRIGG General J. STUDHOLME, C.B., Prov. Grand Master and Supr. Surrey.
BURDETT Colonel FRANCIS, Prov. Grand Master Middlesex, G. Supt. Middlesex, P.S.G.W., Rep. from Grand Lodge of Ireland.
BURRELL Sir WALTER W., Bart. M.P., P.G.M. Sussex.
CARINGTON Right Hon. Lord
CALTHORPE Maj.-Gen. Hon. SOMERSET J.G., J.G.W.
CLARKE HYDE, Past Grand Master and Rep. from Grand Lodge of Columbia.
CLONMEL Right Hon. Lord.
COCKCROFT LONSDALE M., Deputy Prov. G. Master Northumberland.
EBRINGTON Rt. Hon. Viscount, P.G.M. Devonshire.
ELSE RICHARD C., Dep. Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
FERRERS Rt. Hon. the Earl, P.G.M. Leicestershire.
FERRIERS Baron de, Prov. G. Reg. Gloucestershire.
GOOCH Sir Daniel, Bt., M.P., P.G.M. Berks & Bucks.
GROSVENOR Right Hon. Lord RICHARD, P.S.G.W.
GUNDRY J. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Dorset.
HALFORD Lieut.-Col. Sir HENRY ST. JOHN, Bart., D. Prov. G. Master Leicestershire and Rutland.
HALSEY THOMAS F., M.P., P.G.M. Hertfordshire.
HARTINGTON, Rt. Hon. Viscount, M.P., Prov. G. Master D rbyshire.
HAYES Rev. Sir JOHN WARREN, Bart., P.D.P.G.M. Berks and Bucks, P.G.C.
HENNIKER Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W., S.G.W.M.M., P.P.G.W. Suffolk.
HICKMAN W., P.A.G D. of C., D. Prov. G.M. Hants and Isle of Wight.
HILL Right Hon. Lord ARTHUR.
HUYSHE Rev. J., P.G.C., P.P.G.M. Devonshire.
ILES F. H. Wilson, M.D., Deputy Prov. G. Master Hertfordshire, Prov. G.H., &c.
INVERURIE Rt. Hon. Lord, P.G.M. Kincardineshire, P.G. Supt. Angus and Mearns. S.G.W. Scotland.
JOHNSTONE Sir HARCOURT, Bt., M.P., P.J.G.W.
JOLLIT THOMAS, P.D.P.G.M Hereford.
KENSINGTON Rt. Hon. Lord, M.P., S.G.W. England, D. Prov. G.M. S. Wales (Western Division.)
LECHMERE Sir EDMUND A. H., Bart., M.P., Prov. G.M. Worcestershire.
L'ESTRANGE Col. H. Peisley, P.G. Supt. Norfolk.
LLOYD-PHILIPPS Col. JOHN ALLEN, Prov. G. Master South Wales (Western Division).
LONDESBOROUGH Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W.
MARTYN Rev. C. J., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Suffolk.
MASEFIELD WILLIAM, D.P.G.M. Worcestershire.
MELLOR G., S.G.D. England, D. Prov. G.M. E. Lanc.
NEWMARCH GEORGE FREDERICK, Dep. Prov. G.M. Gloucestershire.
OKROVER HAUGHTON CHARLES, P.G.W., Dep. P.G. Master Derbyshire.
OWEN Sir PHILIP CUNLIFFE, K.C.M.G., C.B., S.W. 1159
PERCY Rt. Hon. Earl, M.P., P.G.M. Northumberland
PERKINS, Sir FREDERICK, M.P., P.M. 130, P.P.S.G. W. Hants, P.P.S.G.W.M.M.M., &c.
PORTAL Rev. GEO. RAYMOND, P.M. 10, P.G.M.M.M.
PUREY-CUST Ven. Archdeacon A. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Berks and Bucks.
SCOTT J. H., Dep. Prov. G.M. Sussex.
SPENCER-STANHOPE Rev. C. W., G. Chap., Deputy Prov. G.M. Cheshire
STARKIE Col. LE GENDRE N., Prov. G.M. East Lanc.
TAW T. W., Dep. Prov. G.M. West Yorkshire
THE PROVINCIAL GRAND LODGE OF HAMPSHIRE AND ISLE OF WIGHT
TRUSCOTT Sir FRANCIS WYATT, Lord Mayor of London, P.M. No. 1, P. Pres. Board of G. Stewards
WATSON JOHN, Dep. Prov. G.M. Notts.
WAVENEY Rt. Hon. Lord, Prov. G. Master Suffolk
WIGRAM Rev. SPENCER R., P.G.C., D.P.G.M. Essex
WILKINS BUTLER, Dep. P.G.M. Norths and Hunts.
ZETLAND Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Prov. Grand Master North and East Yorkshire
Ace Rev. Daniel, D.D., F.R.A.S., P.P.G.C. Linc., G. Chap. Mark.
Adams Herbert J., P.M. 669, P.Z. 11, 1237
Addicott C. C., 1307
Adlard F., P.M 7, P.Z. 214, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Essex
Albert E. P., P.G.P., Sec. 188, 1017, &c.
Alpass Horace S., Prov. G. Sec. W. Lanc.
Andrews Joseph, 209, St. James Chap. A.S.A.E.
Armstrong R.L., P.M. 406, P.G.S.D. Northumberland
Asaph Lodge, No. 1319, London.
Ayling T., P.M. 1096, P.P.G.D. of C. Kent
Ayton Rev. W. A., P.M. 709
Bagshawe Rev. Augustus A., M.A., P.G. Chap., P.P.S.G.W. Derbyshire, G. Chap. Mark, &c.
Baker E., P.P.G.S. of W. Berks and Bucks
Baldwin —, P.P.J.G.D. Middlesex
Bauer G. L., 188
Barfield —.
Barratt T., J.D. 3
Barwell H. G., P.M. 52, P.G. Sec. Norfolk
Basnett N. J. F.
Beasley A., P.M. 780, 1612
Beer Edwin, P.M. 1449
Belfrage D. M., W.M. 179.
Bell J., P.M. 1356, 1609, P.Z. 1356, P.P.J.G.D.
Bell W.
Berrie J. W., W.M. 1185.
Berry John J., P.M. 554.
Best Alfred, 211.
Biggs W., P.Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Binckes F., P.G.S., Sec. R.M.I.B.
Blackburn George, S.W. 264.
Blackwell E. J., S.D. 1101.
Bogeis Arthur.
Boulter E. Reeve.
Boulton Babington, P.M., P.Z., P.P.G.D.
Bradley R., Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Brine Col. Frederic, R.E., P.M.
Brown H., Sec. 1704, P.G.S. Norths and Hunts.
Brown Richard, P.M. 241, P.Z. 1356, Hon. Sec. West Lanc. Masonic Educational Institution.
Bulley F. A., P.P.G.S.B. Berks and Bucks.
Burney Lieut.-Col. W. S. Somerville, P.P.S.G.D. Essex, P.M. 1615.
Burt, Ex-Sheriff George, A.G.D.C.
Carter J. O., Sec. 209, P.P.G.D of C. Berks & Bucks.
Carter Q.-M. Sergt. W., Sec. 1449.
Cattelle A., J.D. 31.
Challen Chas., I.G. 3.
Chalmers T. W., P.M. 726.
Clark Matthew, J.G.D. England.
Clarke Stephenson.
Clench Major E.
Collins Rev. J. W., P.G.C. Suffolk, S.W. 1823.
Collins R. H.
Conolly Dr., 1185.
Constable John, P.M. 185, Vice-President.
Cooke Alfred.
Cooke Charles, W.M. 1823.
Cooper F.
Cordley W., 574, 1101.
Cronin F., P.M. 231.
Cousins C., S.D. 209.
Cubitt Thomas, P.G.P.
Cull T., P.M. 1299.
Cuthbush James, P.M. 1385, Treas. 1731, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Herts. [wall.
Daunt Rev. F. T. Townshend, M.A., P.G.C. Cornwall.
Davage F. B., P.M. and T. 201, P.M. 167, P.Z. 185.
Davis G., J.W. 187
Davy C. R.
Dawkins Edward.
Dewar D. M., P.M. 1415, Assistant Grand Secretary M.M.M.
Dosell J. W. M., P.M. 65 463 1769, P.P.G.D.C. Surrey.
Dover J., 591.
Durrant Captain, P.M. 1185.
Emmerson Charles.
Emmerson R. Joynes, P.M. 1206, P.P.J.G.W. Kent.
Ewins S.D., P.M. 766.
Exnon R., P.M. 481, Prov. S.G.W. Northumberland.
Fenner A. W., S.W. 1227, J.W. 1693.
Fielder Baron, P.M., P.S.G.W. Berks and Bucks.
Flowerden Edward.
Frank, C. H., 1764.
Fraser J. A., 948.
Freeman, Vincent P., Prov. G. Sec. Sussex.
Frere E. T.
Gardiner G., Secretary 749.
Gee Fred. W., 1234, I.G. 1623.
Gibb T. Eccleston, 34.
Gilbert E. C., P.M., P.Z. 221, 293.
Gladwell Arthur E., J.W. 172.
Gleadall Rev. J. W., P.M. 1, P.G. Chap., Chaplain to Foundling Hospital.
Godfrey Henry, P.M. 82, P.S.G.W. Gloucestershire.
Godson A. F., Q.C., M.A., P.M. 1097, P.P.G.S.W. Goodall H. S., P.M. 784, 874, 65. [Wales.
Greenfield John, Treas. 1602.
Greenwood George H., P.M. 1224.
Hamp T.
Harriott G., P.P.G.M. Wigtown and Kirkcudbright
Harris S. M., Sec. 406
Hartley John, W.M. 1400.
Harvey —.
Hawkins E. C., P.G.S. Oxon
Hedges Featham, W.M. 478, P.P.G. Sec. Oxfordsh.
Hemsley —, 771.
Henry Chaplin
Higham P., P.M. 21, P.P.J.G.W. Kent
Hodges H. Howard, P.M. 795, P.Z. 771, P.P.S.G.W., and P.G. Reg. [Arch] Berks and Bucks
Hogg Dr. Jabez, P.G.D., P.M. 172, 1260
Hopekirk W., P.M. Treas. 179, P.M. 1586, P.Z. 743
Hopper W.
Hopwood E., P.M. 141, 209, P.G.S.B. Middlesex
Horsley Charles P.P.G.R., P. Soj. Middlesex, P.Z.
Howkins Thos. P.M. 488, 938, P.P.G.W. and Sec. to Charity Committee of Warwickshire
Howorth Sergt.-Major J. F., Steward 1449
Hubbard C., W.M. 820
Inman Edwin H., P.J.W. 1312
Irvine J.
Ivey W. P., P.M. and Sec. 1101, P.P.G.S.B. Berks and Bucks.
Jackson J. H., W.M. 654
Jacobs J., P.M. 482, P.P.G. Reg. Staffordshire
James W. H., P.M. 592, P.P.G.D.C. Gloucestershire
Johnson E., P.M. 140
Johnson H. J., S.W., 1791, J.D. 186, I.G. 1624
Jones E. Stanton, P.M. and Secretary 1319
Jones Robert E., W.M. 1224
Kay J. 742
Kenning George, P.P.G.D. Middlesex
Kent A., 1425
King John B., D.C. 27, Sec. 1637.
Kirby Edward, P.M. 1096
Klamborowski Leonard, J.W. 1823
Lake Wm., P.M. 131, P.P.G. Reg.
Lanchan Henry C.
Le Fevre John E., Prov. G. Sec. Hants and I. of W.
Levy H. M., P.M. 188, &c.
Lewis W. Lambton
Lloyd Horatio, J.G.D.
Lucia W. H., P.G.S.B., Prov. G. Sec. Suffolk
Lucking A., P.M., P.Z., Prov. G.D. of C. Essex
Maidwell T. J., P.M. 27.
Marshall Horace Brooks, C.C., Treas. 1777.
Mason C. L., P.M. 1611, Prov. G. Treas. West Yorks.
Massey H., P.M. 619.
Matier C. F., P.G.S.W. Greece, P.M. 645, P.G.W. Mark
Mather John L., P.M., P.G.D.C. Herts.
Meggy Thos., 10, P.M. 21, P.G.S.
Miskin H., W.M. 1449.
Morgan W. W., Sec. 211.
Morris Rev. R., Head Master R.M.I.B.
Morris W., Treas. 1566.
Motion George, P.M. 453, P.P.G.S.W. Essex.
Moutrie W. F. C., P.M. 11.
Murray J. Joyce.
Nairne P. A., P.M. and Treasurer 176.
Naylor H. T., P.M. 1449.
Neilson James Horner, P.P.G.M. Venesuela, P.G.S, Scotland, P.M. 620 (I.C.), 131 (E.C.), 0, 1, 5, 411, 241, 482, and 488 (S.C.), P.S.G.W. Egypt, &c.
Newcomb J., 743.
Newsom W., P.M. 1661, P.J.G.W. Notts.
Newton James, P.M., P.Z., P.G.S.N. East Lanc.
Nicholes W. S., S.W. 209.
Orellana James, J.W. Mark 344.
Pass W., P.M. and Treasurer 28.
Palmer T.
Passawer Dr. E., W.M. 244 Mark.
Payton F. W., J.D. 482.
Pears Andrew, W.M. 865, J.W. 209.
Pepper J. F., W.M. 482.
Percival Captain H. P., 1261.
Perryman W. H., P.M. 3.
Petts E. J., 209.
Phillips W. Page T., P. Prov. S.G.W. Suffolk, G.H.
Pollitzer S., P.M. 1017, P.Z. 188, 538.
Ralling T. J., Prov. G. Sec. Essex.
Radcliffe T. H. 511.
Radcliffe W., S.W. 211.
Randall Rev. W., P.M. 448, P.G.C. Warwicksh. and Staffs., Z. 482, E. 43, P.P.G.S., &c.
Ravenshaw Rev. F. F., P.G.C., P.M. 10, 663, P.Z. 632.
Reed H., P.M. 733.
Rero E. T.
Riach H. H., P.M. 874, 1523, P.Z. 1118, Past Prov. Grand Secretary Oxon.
Richards A. A., P.G.S., P.G.W. Middlesex.
Roberts Henry, 55.
Roberts Robert, P.M. 742, W.M. 209, Prov. G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Robbins Rev J., D.D., P.M. 1635, P.G. Chaplain Middlesex, W.M. 1705.
Rogers Rev. W.
Rosenthal S., P.M. 435, P.Z. 410, P.P.S.G.W. Middx.
Row C. J. N.
Russell Rev. T., P.M. and Sec. 489, P.G.J.W. Devon.
Sanders Rev. S. J. W., M.A. LL.M., &c. W.M. 1764, C. 360, Prov. G. Chap. Norths. and Hunts.
Saunders C. G., 328, 1669.
Saunders W. H., W.M. 889, P.P.G.D. Mdx., P.M. 1503.
Seller A., 414, P.P.G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Sharpe W. H. C., W.M. 795.
Shaw Rev. R. D., W.M. 85.
Sherren J. A., W.M. 170, P.P.G.W. Dorset.
Short Rev. W. F., P.G.C., 10, 357, 1383, 1637.
Simpson Rev. R. J., P.G.C., P.M. 10.
Smith H. S. Cooper, P.M. 479, 1623, 1731, P.Z. 357, P. Prov. G.W. Oxon.
Smith S. H., P.M. 488, 938, P.P.G.S.D. Warwick.
Snelling W. Walton, Sec. 1056, and of Metropolitan Masonic Benevolent Association.
Southwood J. H., P.M. 1260.
Spice R. P., W.M., P.G.S.
Spratt Augustus E. F.
Starkey N. A.
Steedman W., P.M. 754.
Steadwell —, P.M., P.G.S.
Stephens G. H., 1623.
Stevens James, P.M. 720 1216 1426, P.Z. 720 771.
Stiles W. M., Secretary 1507, 1732, 1744.
Stohwasser J., P.M. 238 435, P.Z. 8, P.G.S.
Storr E. F., W.M. 1679, P.M. 22.
Stuart Col. William, P.G.W., P.P.G.W. Herts.
Swanborough Edward, W.M. 1319.
Tamplin Augustus L., 441.
Taylor George, P.M. and Tr. 377, P.S.G.D. Worcestr.
Terry James, P.P.J.G.W. Herts, Sec. R.M.B.I.
Tombs H. C., P.G.D.
Torkington, A.
Townsend G., P.M., W.M. 1096, J. 1096.
Tracey Nathiel.
Verry G. Ward P.M. and Sec. 554 1278 1431, J.D. 1580, S.W. 625, P.Z. 554 1385, P.P.G.P.S. Herts.
Vickery S. A.
Walsh Arthur, 1101, P.P.G.R. Berks and Bucks.
Watts G. H.
Watts J.W., P.M. 1201 [P.P.G. Org. Middx.
Weaver James, P.M. 862, 1319, P.Z. 177 862 1319,
Welham Henry, P.M. 1224
Wentworth T. J., W.M. 225, P.S.G.D. Suffolk
Westfield W., P.M. 1501
Wheeler Fred., P.P.G.R. Suffolk, P.M. and Sec. 1224
Whytehead T. B., P.P.G.D. of C. N. and E. Yorks.
Willing James, P.M. 177, P.M. and Treas. 1507, P.M. and Treas. 1744, P.Z. and Treas. 1507, Z. 1000
Wilson J., P.M. and Treas. 209
Winter James
Withers Alfred, W.M. 211
Woodford Rev. A. F. A., P.G. Chap.
Woodman Dr. W. R., P.G.S.B.
Woodward E. C., P.M. 382, 1637, &c.
Worlock R. Montagu, Prov. G. Sec. Bristol
Wragg J. H., Prov. Grand Sec. Notts.
Wright John, P.G.P.

Caveac Lodge, No. 176, London
Etonian Lodge, No. 209, Windsor
St. Luke's Lodge, No. 225, Ipswich
Lord Warden Lodge, No. 1096, Walmer
Lewis Lodge, No. 1185, Wood Green
Curwen Lodge, No. 1400, Harrington.
Duke of Cornwall Lodge, No. 1529, St. Columb.

Editor of "The Freemason"
Editor of "The Freemason's Chronicle."
Editor of "The Rosicrucian"
Editor of "The Scottish Freemason"
Editor of "The Standard."

Brethren who desire to assist in establishing this Fund will oblige by forwarding their names to be added to the above List.

Digitized by Google

ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY Limited, 7 Bank Buildings, Lothbury, E.C.

General accidents. Railway accidents. | Personal injuries. Death by accident.

C. HARDING, Manager.

RHEUMATISM.

THE only real remedy for this complaint is the Northern Cure (patent). In bottles 1s 1½d each, to be had of all Chemists. Proprietors and Manufacturers, Edwards and Alexander, 29 Blaskett-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

GEO. JONES,

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT MANUFACTURER and IMPORTER, 350 and 481 Commercial Road, London, E. Price List of every description of Instruments post free. Established 1850.

TAMAR INDIEN.

SPECIAL CAUTION.

OWING to the marked success of this medicine, the only patent medicine universally prescribed by the faculty, and the acknowledged cure for constipation, headache, bile, hæmorrhoids, &c., BASE IMITATIONS, containing drastic irritants, are being foisted on the public. The genuine preparation bears the title "Tamar Indien," and the signature R. GRILLON, Coleman-st., London, E.C. Price 2s 6d per box. In a recent case, 1876, G. No. 211, a perpetual injunction to restrain the defendant from applying the name "Tamar" to his lozenges was awarded, with costs, by Vice-Chancellor Bacon, on 19th January 1877, and all such piracies will be summarily proceeded against.——N.B.—See that the outer wrapper (directions) are printed in the English language and that each box bears the Government 2d stamp.

MEMORY EXTRAORDINARY BY CORRESPONDENCE.—Particulars post free of Bro. William Stokes, Teacher of Memory, Royal Polytechnic, 309 Regent-street, London, W. Private lessons by appointment. Class on Tuesdays, 3 and 8.30. The System complete in Three Lessons. "Stokes on Memory," by post 14 stamps. Memory Globe, 14 stamps.

EVENING Employment wanted, by a P.M. Good Accountant. Address 2001, FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, W.C.

HOTELS, ETC.

EALING—Feathers Hotel

EASTBOURNE—Pier Hotel, Cavendish Place. View of Sea and Pier. A. TAYLOR Proprietor

KEW—Star and Garter. Good accommodation for Lodge & Dinner Parties. J. BRILL Proprietor

SANDWICH—Bell Family and Commercial Hotel, Good Stabling. J. J. FILMER Proprietor

WOOD GREEN—Kings Arms Hotel. A. B. GREENSLADE Proprietor

YORK—Queen's Family and Commercial Hotel, Micklegate. H. CHURCHILL Proprietor

LONDON.

CALTHORPE ARMS—252 Gray's Inn Road, W.C. Billiards, Pool, Pyramids, &c. Best Wines and Spirits. W. H. G. RUDDERFORTH Proprietor

CANNING TOWN—Liverpool Arms. J. PAVITT. Friars L. of Instruction, 1349, Tuesdays at 7.30

GREEN DRAGON—Spring Garden-place, Stepney Wines and Spirits of the best quality. Billiards. Banquets provided for large or small parties. Yarborough L. & C. 554, and Temple Mark L. 173 held here. Lodge of Instruc. (554) meets every Tuesday at 8. A. WALTER Proprietor

MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT—Moorgate Street, E.C. Hot and Cold Dinners, &c. Chops and Steaks. Good accommodation for Lodge Meetings, &c. A. KENT Proprietor

NEW MARKET HOTEL—King Street, Snow Hill, E.C. Good accommodation for Club and other Banquets. Wines and Spirits of best quality. Specially licensed for Masonic Balls. Lodges 1623 and 1677 are held here. Strong Man No. 45 and West Smithfield No. 1623 Lodges of Instruction, meet here, every Monday at 8 p.m. Thomas BUTT Proprietor

SAWYER'S (late Station) RESTAURANT, 5 Railway Place, Fenchurch Street, E.C. English, French, and German Cuisine. Wines of the best quality. Hot and Cold Luncheons, Chops, Steaks, &c. Tea and Coffee. F. J. SAWYER (late of Pimm's and Crystal Palace) Proprietor

BILLIARD BALLS, Chalks, Cues and Tips, at HENNIG BROS.' Ivory Works, 11 High Street, London, W.C. Cheapest house in the trade for billiard-table requisites and ivory goods in general. Old balls adjusted or exchanged, and tables recovered. Price Lists on application. Established 1862.

W. BEASLEY,

Bespoke Boot Maker,

23 Queen Victoria Street.

HUNTING, RIDING, DRESS AND BOOTS FOR THE MOORS.

MADE IN A FEW DAYS.

Specialite—Hand Sewn and Standard Screwed.

C. HUBBARD,

Plain & Fancy Box & Pattern CARD MANUFACTURER.

139 & 141 NEW NORTH ROAD, AND 64 SHAFTESBURY ST., LONDON, N.

ROCHESTER & FOX,

Post and Job Masters,

799 COMMERCIAL ROAD, E. AND 81 JUBILEE STREET, MILE END, E.

Carriages of every description on hire.

SUPERIOR WEDDING CARRIAGES.

JOSEPH J. CANEY,

DIAMOND MERCHANT, AND MANUFACTURING JEWELLER AND WATCH MAKER,

44 CHEAPSIDE, LONDON.

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND FURNITURE.

Specialité—First Class Jewels—Artistic—Massive—Best Quality—Moderate in Price

CATALOGUES POST FREE.

A LARGE STOCK OF LOOSE BRILLIANTS FOR EXPENSIVE JEWELS.

Diamond Rings, Brooches, Studs, Earrings and Bracelets in Great Variety.

HOUGHTON,

THE BOOT MAKER,

243 & 244 WHITECHAPEL ROAD, LONDON, E.

Lasts made to the Feet.

—:o:—

SPECIALITÉ,

EASE, ELEGANCE AND DURABILITY.

MASONIC JEWELS FOR ALL DEGREES.

MINIATURE WAR MEDALS AND DECORATIONS.

ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD IN ALL SIZES.

ATHLETIC SPORTS MEDALS AND BADGES.

A. D. LOEWENSTARK & SONS, Medallists, 210 STRAND, LONDON, W.C.

MANUFACTORY—1 DEVEREUX COURT, STRAND.

J. FORTESCUE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

129 FLEET ST.; 114 & 115 SHOE LANE,

(One door from Fleet Street)

6 EXMOUTH STREET, CLERKENWELL, E.C.

And 143 Mare Street, Triangle, Hackney

Gents' Silk Hats from 5/6 each. Second best 6/6 7/6 8/6 Superfine quality, 10/6 12/6 & 16/. The very best made 21/. Felt Hats, hard and soft, in all the newest shapes, from 3/6 to 10/6.

A. LAZARUS,

MERCHANT TAILOR AND Juvenile Clothier,

CORNER OF WORSHIP ST., SHOREDITCH, E., AND 51 LIVERPOOL STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Patterns and Rules for Self Measurement post free.

ADAM S. MATHER,

GAS ENGINEER, GENERAL GAS FITTER AND BELL HANGER

MANUFACTURER OF BILLIARD LIGHTS

AND OF EVERY DESCRIPTION OF GAS APPARATUS FOR COOKING AND HEATING

Bath Rooms Fitted up. All the Latest Improvements Introduced.

MANUFACTORY—12 CHARLES STREET, HATTON GARDEN, E.C.;

AND AT 278 CALEDONIAN ROAD, ISLINGTON, N.

ESTIMATES GIVEN.

T. J. TARLING,

COAL MERCHANT.

North Wallsend	...	...	23s Per Ton
Hetton or Lambton	...	...	21s „
Best Silkstone	...	...	23s „
Best Derby	...	...	21s „

All letters to be addressed:—

5 BURDETT ROAD, BOW, E.

PIANOFORTES AND HARMONIUMS ON EASY TERMS.

GROVER & GROVER

LET ON HIRE, WITH OPTION OF PURCHASE,

BEAUTIFUL AND PERFECT INSTRUMENTS.

PURCHASERS CHOOSE THEIR OWN TERMS,

FROM 15s TO £3 3s PER QUARTER.

The Advantages of a Trial, with the Convenience of the Three Years' System at Cash Price, by Paying about a Quarter of the value down, the Balance by Easy Payments, from 15s per quarter.

GROVER & GROVER, 157-9 Kingsland Road.

ESTABLISHED 1830.

Bro. A. OLDROYD, Stratford, London,

MANUFACTURER OF TOBACCO POUCHES,

With any name in raised letters.

CAN be obtained direct from the Maker, at the undermentioned prices, on receipt of P.O.O. payable at Stratford.

	Price		Will take a name of
No. 3	2/0	...	9 letters
„ 4	2/6	...	11
„ 5	3/0	...	12
„ 6	3/6	...	13
„ 7	4/0	...
„ 8	4/6	...
„ 9	5/0	...

A. OLDROYD,

Agent for Algerian Cigars, and Importer of Havana and Continental Cigars,

64 HIGH STREET, STRATFORD, LONDON, E

Digitized by Google

EDWARD STILLWELL AND SON,

25, 26 and 27 BARBICAN, AND 6 LITTLE BRITAIN, LONDON,
109 ARGYLE STREET, GLASGOW,

Gold Lacemen, Embroiderers and Sword Cutlers,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Masonic Fittings for Lodges, Chapters and Encampments.

CLOTHING, JEWELS (PINS, STUDS AND RINGS), FOR EVERY DEGREE.

Aprons, Sashes, Horns, Ornaments and Banners for Foresters, Odd Fellows, Orangemen, Free Gardeners, &c.

REGALIA FOR I.O.G.T. AND ALL SOCIETIES.

LIBERAL TERMS TO SHIPPERS.

H. T. LAMB,

MANUFACTURER OF

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND REGALIA,

5 ST. JOHN SQUARE, LONDON.

PRICE LIST, CONTAINING 120 ILLUSTRATIONS, POST FREE ON APPLICATION.

PHILLIPS & COMPANY'S TEAS

ARE BEST AND CHEAPEST,

8 KING WILLIAM STREET, CITY, LONDON, E.C.

A GENERAL PRICE CURRENT AND STORE LIST, CONTAINING ALL THE ADVANTAGES OF THE LONDON MARKETS, POST FREE.

Show Rooms for Chinese, Japanese, and Oriental Art Products, and General Stores, 13 & 14 ABCHURCH LANE, adjoining 8 KING WILLIAM STREET, E.C.

J. E. SHAND & CO.

Wine Merchants,

(Experts and Valuers of Wines and Spirits,)

2 ALBERT MANSIONS, VICTORIA ST., LONDON, S.W.

PRICES DELIVERED IN LONDON.

SHERRIES	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	SPARKLING MOSELLES	42s, 48s, 54s
PORTS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	CHAMPAGNES	36s, 42s, 48s, 54s, 60s
CLARETS	16s, 18s, 21s, 24s, 30s, 36s	BURGUNDY	20s, 24s, 30s, 36s, 42s
STILL HOCKS	24s 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s	BRANDIES	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s, 66s
SPARKLING do	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s	WHISKIES	20s per gall., 42s per doz.

COUNTRY ORDERS OVER £3 CARRIAGE FREE.

"Sparkling Sauterne," 1875 Vintage—Delicious New Sparkling Wine, Sec, and Extra Sec. 42s per doz.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.

WARD'S

INVALID CHAIR AND CARRIAGE

MANUFACTORY,

From SAVILLE HOUSE, LEICESTER SQUARE,

To 246 & 247 TOTTENHAM COURT ROAD, LONDON.

THE ONLY PRIZE MEDAL for INVALID FURNITURE was gained by JOHN WARD, at the London Exhibitions, 1851 and 1862; Paris, 1855 and 1867; Dublin, 1865; Vienna, 1873; 2 Silver Medals, Paris, 1878.

JOHN WARD, Manufacturer by Special Appointment to the Queen and Royal Family, the Empresses of France, Austria, Russia, &c.

INVALID CHAIRS and CARRIAGES for SALE or HIRE from JOHN WARD. Established 150 years. Drawings and price lists free on application.

Fish Carvers, Fish Eating Knives and Forks, Revolving Covered Soup and Luncheon Dishes.

SPECIALITIES FOR TESTIMONIALS,
TEA AND COFFEE SERVICES,
SALVERS, DESSERT KNIVES AND FORKS, GILT AND OXYDIZED GOODS.

77 (from 28) Cheapside, London, E.C.
(NEAR THE POULTRY.)

MORING,

ENGRAVER, DIE SINKER,
HERALDIC ARTIST,
ILLUMINATED ADDRESSES,
44, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST POST FREE.

ADLARD'S JEWEL ATTACHER 7/6.

If with Pockets, 6d each Pocket extra.

225 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

JANES & SON

WINDOW BLINDS ONLY,

WHOLESALE,

ALDERSGATE STREET, CITY, E.C.

BRANCH—

4 EAGLE PLACE, PICCADILLY

THESE ADDRESSES ONLY.

YOUNG'S Arnicated Corn and Bunion Plaisters are the best ever invented for giving immediate ease, and removing those painful excrescences. Price 6d and 1s per box. Any Chemist not having them in stock can procure them.

Observe the Trade Mark—H. Y.—without which none are genuine. Be sure and ask for Young's.

Horticultural Decorations, Fernéries, Window Gardening, Seeds, Bulbs, Plants, Forms, PLANTS FOR DECORATIONS. Masonic Banquets, Balls, &c.

DICK RADCLYFFE & CO., F.R.H.S.

PRIZE MEDAL SEEDS.

CARRIAGE FREE. WIDE CATALOGUE.

129 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

TABLE DECORATIONS.
Ball Room Decorations, Seeds for Export. Illustrated Catalogues gratis and post free. Seeds, Bulbs, &c., carefully packed for Export.

NEW MASONIC ROOMS

COMPLETE SUITE,
SPECIALLY ARRANGED
LODGE, BANQUETTING,
AND ANTE ROOMS,
ALL ON ONE FLOOR.

Particulars to be had of

BRO. A. KENT, MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT,
OPPOSITE RAILWAY STATION,

From which trains run at frequent intervals in connection with the Great Northern, Midland, Great Western, London Chatham & Dover, and Metropolitan Railways.

Printed for the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE PUBLISHING COMPANY LIMITED, and Published by BRO. WILLIAM WRAY MORGAN JUN., at 23 Great Queen Street, London W.C., Saturday, 14th February 1880.

Digitized by Google

THE

Freemason's Chronicle;

A WEEKLY RECORD OF MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

SANCTIONED BY THE GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

Registered at the G.P.O. as a Newspaper.

VOL. XI.—No. 269. SATURDAY, 21st FEBRUARY 1880. [Issued to Subscribers only. 13s 6d per annum, post free.

THE ANALYSIS OF THE SUBSCRIPTION LIST.

WE announced last week that the result of the opening Festival of the current year would be the subject of further comment, and, as usual, we give such comment in the form of an analytical sketch of the subscriptions. We have very good reason for believing that these analyses are not without their advantage. We know they are closely scanned, and are occasionally the subject of sharp criticism. An oversight, a mere clerical error, the appearance of something in the way of a comparison, each and every of these is noted and made the subject of correspondence. It is, however, beginning to be recognised that the spirit in which they are written is one of complete impartiality. If a Province is unrepresented on one of these occasions, it is so stated. If a large Province sends up a small contribution and a small Province a large, it is likewise so stated. At the same time, while a full modicum of praise is bestowed on efforts which have proved more than usually successful, every possible means is suggested for the absence of a Lodge or Province or the smallness of its contributions. It did good yeoman service last year, or it is about to support one of the sister Institutions. If its contributions are modest, they have at least the merit of being regular. If, as has more than once happened, we have found a Province regularly unrepresented, we have felt it to be our duty to point this out—not in any unfriendly spirit, for people must not be abused because they do not give, but as it were palliatively, as though a better organisation or greater exertion were alone needed to place it on a level with the other Provinces, or because we happen to know there is in existence some local charitable Institution which boasts of a considerable annual income, and is proving a great boon to the indigent brethren, bereaved widows, or orphan children of Masons in that district. We approach our task on this occasion in the same spirit as we have done before. We shall deal with the figures which are, and the facts which are not, though as regards the latter a friend has very kindly suggested that "facts which are not" is merely an Irishicism for "nothing," and as every one knows, "ex nihilo nihil fit." If so, our labours will not be very onerous, while the friendly critics cannot be very severe over "nothing." But to proceed with our remarks without further exordium.

The Festival of the 9th inst. must be written down as a very substantial, if not an unprecedented, success. Even with the big figures we have grown accustomed to during the last three or four years, a total of over £12,000 is one of some magnitude. Nor must we lose sight of the fact that if the Benevolent Festival of last year yielded very little short of £2,000 more, the Chairman on that occasion had, as regards the number of its Lodges, our largest Province to back him; while Lord Zetland's Province of N. and E. Yorkshire stands in this respect only about tenth on the list. E. Lancashire, with nearly ninety Lodges, contributed one-fourth of the £14,000 subscribed last year; this year N. and E. Yorkshire heads the Provinces, with, in round figures, one-fourteenth of the total sum; but then it has on its roll only some twenty-six Lodges, so that it cannot be said that it has done otherwise than support its chief most effectually, as well as most honourably and in proportion to its abilities. In this respect then, these Provinces—and the same may be said of all that do their duty thus Masonically—stand on the same level. Be it remembered, however, that in what we have just said, we have had no idea of instituting any comparison: we have been content with stating facts as they are. We may, indeed, offer our congratulations to the noble Chairman of last Monday week—who has an hereditary as well as a personal claim upon our respect—on the success of the Festival over which he so ably and so genially presided. This, in the minds of our readers, will have gone without saying, but our general remarks would have had an air about them of incompleteness had we not written what we have written.

Passing next to the details of the list, one feature about it will be especially noticeable, namely, that the difference in the totals of the London and Provincial contributions is more pronounced than usual. We find from the figures, as published last week, that the former, which was represented by 126 Stewards, subscribed in all £7,340 19s 6d, the Provinces, which sent up 101 Stewards, contributing £4,710 18s, while the District of the Punjab gave £52 10s, making a total of £12,104 7s 6d, or nearly £100 in excess of the figures that were announced at the Festival itself. These differences are inevitable when it is remembered that even on the morrow of the gathering a fresh list of contributions may be handed in to Bro. Terry; at the same time, however, they in no wise affect the main description. But to resume. London is a long way to the fore on this occasion, whereas in other cases it has been only slightly ahead of or behind the country. This, as we suggested last week, is probably due to the Secretary having devoted a larger share of attention to the Metropolitan Lodges than in former years, and also no doubt to an increased zeal on the part of the Lodges themselves. These Stewards represented 112 Lodges, and six Chapters, while one figures on his own account, and the brethren are certainly to be congratulated on the result of their conjoint labours; nor must we allow it to pass unnoticed that there is more than the usual number of three-figure lists among these London contributions. The place of honour is taken by a Lodge that is named after our respected Pro Grand Master, namely, the Earl of Carnarvon Lodge, No. 1642, hailing from Notting-hill. Bro. S. H. Parkhouse acted as Steward, and his list amounted to the handsome, unusually handsome sum of £400. This Lodge has barely as yet enjoyed an existence of four years. All honour then to Bro. Parkhouse and his co-members for the work they have succeeded in doing. Following this list at a wide interval comes the Lodge of Prudent Brethren, No. 145, with the excellent total of £276 5s, a sum which will suffice to show that the brethren of this Lodge are distinguished in reality as well as nominally by a "prudent" regard for the needs of Masonic indigence. A seven-year old Lodge, the Islington, No. 1471, meeting in the northern suburb of Highbury, stands third, with £228 13s 6d, and then the Sincerity Chapter No. 174, whose contribution of two hundred guineas by the hands of Comp. Theophilus Hallett is indubitable evidence of the "Sincerity" with which this body of Royal Arch Masons follows up its original profession of Masonic faith. A group of three West-end Lodges, all close together, next claims attention. The first of them in order, the well-known Friends in Council Lodge, No. 1383, is set down as contributing by the hands of Bro. Giddy £187 3s, a sum which sufficiently shows the members of this Lodge are not unmindful of the familiar saying that "friends in need are friends indeed." At all events, by this and former liberal contributions to our several Charities, these "Friends in Council" have proved themselves "friends indeed" to all our Institutions. The Prince of Wales Lodge, No. 259, with the Junior Grand Warden of the year as its representative, contributes £178 5s, and the Creaton, No. 1797—a better name for so promising a Lodge could not have been chosen—stands next with £174 5s. The "Lily of Richmond," No. 820—a pretty deed matches well with so pretty a name—is down for £144 16s, while the Egyptian, No. 27, treads close on the lilies, but hurts them not, with £140 3s 6d. Another young Lodge, warranted as recently as 1877—the Temple Bar, No. 1728—has evidently not suffered by the removal of the Bar to which it owes its name. It flourishes sufficiently to be entered on the list for £137 0s 6d, while the military element, in the shape of the Fitzroy Lodge, No. 569, is only a few paces to the rear of Temple Bar with £131 5s. Well done, Masonic members of the oldest military body in the United Kingdom! Then passing rapidly westward we come upon the Kilburn, No. 1608, which, albeit only as yet a young Lodge, had given already over £500 among our Institutions, as mentioned last week in our report of its Installation Meeting. At this Festival its Steward, Bro. Brooks, still further increased this amount by taking up £127 11s 6d, Bro. C. J. Perceval, of Loyalty, No. 1607, being close up with £125 4s. Prosperity, No. 65, per Bro. Charles Daniel, sent £124, in token, we may justly assume, that in its "prosperity" it is not unmindful of other people's adversity. Brother Charles H. Webb, of Sincerity, No. 174, took up a list of £121 8s, which must be regarded as a very serviceable contribution, if we bear in mind that Sincerity Chapter No. 174 figures in the same list for £210. The Corinthian No. 1382, with £119 6s, West Smithfield No. 1623, with £115 10s, Crusaders No. 1677, with £114, Canonbury No. 657, with £113 7s, and Southwark No. 879, and the Yarborough Chapter No. 554, each with one hundred guineas, complete the tale of three-figure lists. It is also worthy of mention that of the Lodges consecrated last year no less than five figure in the Metropolitan roll. They are to be congratulated on having commenced their career so well. So, too, must the older Lodges which figure invariably or very frequently on these occasions. There is no doubt, likewise, that many Metropolitan Lodges distribute their support most impartially among the three Institutions, preferring, and that perhaps not unwisely, to throw their whole strength for the year into the support of one only. These manifestly are the reverse of neglectful of their duties, while the best method of treating those which invariably hold themselves aloof from contributing to our central Charities is to pass them over in silence.

Digitized by Google

We come now to the Provinces, twenty-seven of which are contributories of over £4,700 among them. Let us, however, begin by noting the absentees. First of all, and seemingly as a matter of course, appears Beds with its five Lodges. We should have thought that among them the Lodges of Bedford, Biggleswade, Dunstable, Leighton Buzzard, and Luton, might occasionally contrive to send up a few annual subscriptions, if not a Life Governorship or Life Subscribership. It is not improbable they find the wherewith to banquet; would it not be well to think of the aged and the orphan who are mostly hard pressed to find the common necessaries? Bristol (eight Lodges), though absent on this occasion, was a contributor on a small scale to this and the Girls' Institution last year, and to the Benevolent both in 1877 and 1878. Cambridgeshire (four Lodges) evidently needs rousing. We should have thought the Scientific, the Three Grand Principles, and the Isaac Newton University might have managed to figure, if only occasionally. Oxford University is not unmindful of one of the grand moving principles of Masonry, why should Cambridge University be so? Cumberland and Westmoreland (nineteen Lodges), as we have noted in former analyses, is now and again represented by Bro. McKay, or some other equally active member. Durham (twenty-five Lodges) certainly makes an annual donation of fifty guineas from its funds to this Institution, and, in addition, has figured at least once in each of the years we have been privileged to note, so that we may hope to find it among the contributing Provinces at one or both of the remaining Festivals. Herefordshire (four Lodges) let us hope will bestir itself a little more, especially as it is presided over by a new chief. As we know the spirit of Masonry is abroad in the Province of Leicester and Rutland (ten Lodges), we assume it is reserving itself for the Girls or Boys. On former occasions—in 1877, 1878, 1879—it gave over £750, or an average of £25 per Lodge per occasion. Lincolnshire (twenty Lodges) we have had the pleasure of noting at previous Festivals, if not at this, and so we have Norfolk and Northumberland, although very rarely, for this Institution. It occurs to us that the latter, containing as it does the important town of Newcastle-on-Tyne, with eleven of the nineteen Lodges, should figure more frequently. We do not think of sending coals to that northern town, but that is no reason why it should not send the equivalent of coals to our Masonic Institutions. Notts (nine Lodges) has been represented in 1875-6-7-8-9, and we hope will be so again this year. Somerset, which boasts of our Pro Grand Master as its chief, with over twenty Lodges, is very seldom among the absentees; nor has Staffordshire been often in the same list. Worcestershire did excellently well at the Boys' Festival last year, and backed up Bros. Terry and Hedges with smaller amounts—the result, no doubt, of its being presided over by a new and active chief. South Wales East, the Channel Islands, (Masonically speaking, comprising Alderney and Guernsey, Jersey being a distinct Province), and the Isle of Man complete the number of the unrepresented.

Having disposed of the absentees, we turn next with pleasure to give particulars of the contributing Provinces in their order of publication. Six Stewards, representing five Lodges, support among them the honour of Berks and Bucks, three of the five Lodges being located in the former county and two in the latter. One list is at present blank, but the other five together handed in £215 3s 6d, close on £200 of this, however, being Berks contributions. It would seem, therefore, that the Bucks are not as active in these matters as the Berks folk. It should be noted that the Union of Reading, with its two Stewards, gives upwards of £150 of the whole. We have before noticed this difference in the exertions of Berks and Bucks, and we should like to see them more nearly on a level in such excellent work. However, it is satisfactory to find the interests of the Province so uniformly looked after by some of the Lodges. Cheshire has a considerable array of Lodges, two only of which figure in the list, and for under £70. But, as we have also noticed on former occasions, this Province has a very flourishing Masonic Educational Institute of its own, which is continually doing invaluable service, both directly as regards the local interests of Freemasonry, and indirectly as affording considerable relief to the Central Charities. One Cornish Lodge gives in a list of sixty guineas, by the hands of Bro. Bake, but we have often had the pleasure of calling attention to the labours of this Province in the field of charity, and we know that in particular Bro. Hughan has shown himself a staunch and successful advocate of the interests of our Institutions on several occasions. Two lists for Derbyshire, amounting together to £132 3s, represent the work of this Province on this occasion. It has figured occasionally at other Festivals. Devonshire, as ably represented by Bros. Godtschalk and S. Jones, has sent up £191 13s a sum which Bro. Terry no doubt welcomes the more as this Province was not represented at his Festival last year. It has, however, done good service for the Schools, and doubtless will not be unmindful of its duties. Moreover, it is setting about establishing a local Institution, indeed for aught we know to the contrary, this may be already in working order. Dorsetshire, with its compact list of thirteen Lodges, is extremely well represented, the Province itself being entered for £183 10s, Bro. Burt being its representative, and Bro. Montagu as Steward of St. Mary's No. 707, Bridport, contributing forty and five guineas, making together a total of £230 15s. We have so often had occasion to congratulate this Province on its liberal support of our Institutions that further remark now is unnecessary. Three Stewards, representing a Chapter and two Lodges, do duty for Essex with its twenty Lodges, the amount being just within £90, and there is yet a list to come in. Doubtless under its new Grand Master this Province will outdo the praiseworthy efforts it has before made in behalf of our Charities. Gloucestershire, with four Stewards on behalf of the Province and two of its Lodges, is down for £88 8s. It did extremely well in 1878, when it distributed considerably over £700 among our Institutions, and proved itself a staunch supporter of them in 1879, £312 19s being its contribution to the Girls' School alone. The contribution of Hants and the Isle of Wight just exceeds £100 as against, in round numbers, £187 to the Benevolent last year, but then it is almost always included in the list of contributories, and we must occasionally look forward to smaller amounts as to larger. Little Herts, with its eleven Lodges, stands well, as it mostly does, with over £218, the joint contributions of four Lodges and one of its four Chapters, the King Harold No. 1327, of Waltham New Town, taking the lead with £92 7s, and the Cranbourne No. 1580, of Hatfield, being a good second with £75 11s. Jersey, which figures occasionally at our Festivals, sends a useful contribution of fifty-five guineas on behalf of its seven Lodges. It is a comparatively remote Province, and the amount is probably on that account the more welcome. Seven Kent Lodges, by the hands of eight Stewards, send up over £236. Last year it gave nearly twice as much to the Benevolent, and over £480 to the Girls. In fact, Kent never misses an opportunity of showing its sympathy with Masonic distress. It is a well organised Province, and invariably, therefore, appears to great advantage whenever these periodical appeals for assistance are made. Lancashire has more Lodges than any other county in England, excepting of course the metropolitan counties, and though for its Eastern and Western Divisions, together the amount reaches only £213 15s—one-fourth being the sum of the former's contribution, and three-fourths being the latter's—still we know that both are liberal and make strenuous efforts on occasions. Thus East Lancashire, as we have said already, contributed one-fourth of the grand total of £14,000 subscribed at the Benevolent Festival last year, when its chief occupied the chair. Western Lancashire liberally supported Lord Skelmersdale not long since, when he occupied a similar position in 1876, and as his Lordship has accepted the presidency for the approaching Boys' Festival, we may anticipate it will shew its full strength then. Middlesex, with nine Stewards, acting on behalf of eight of its Lodges, contributes £356 6s. As it is a regular contributor, and on a considerable scale, no comment of ours is required for purposes of encouragement or as an appeal. We may, however, congratulate it, as we do most heartily. Monmouthshire, though a small Province, is represented by one Steward, to the extent of £46 15s. Last year it gave the Benevolent over £136. Its appearance is frequent, if not invariable, and its subscriptions are in proportion to its zeal. Norths and Hunts, with one Steward, sends £115 10s. It liberally supported its Grand Master in 1878, to the extent of £300, and has not been found wanting on other occasions. A ten guinea subscription by a brother, on his own behalf or that of his Lodge, is all we have to note in connection with North Wales and Salop, with its numerous array of Lodges. We think it might be more strongly represented at times. Oxford's contribution is within a fraction of £232, upwards of two hundred guineas coming from Apollo University, which was represented by three Stewards, of whom one achieved the honour of a three figure list. It always does well, and doubtless will make a supreme effort for the Girls in April, when its chief, Prince Leopold, has undertaken to preside. Suffolk, as regards the Province, gives £100 8s, and there is a list yet to come from the Steward of Lodge British Union, No. 114, of Ipswich. Last year it subscribed £171 to the Benevolent, and almost invariably contributes. It has in its ranks some very able and active Masons, among them the Rev. C. J. Martyn. We are not surprised, therefore, at the regularity of its attendance. As there is one list still outstanding, we may look to the comparatively modest total of £69 5s for Surrey being increased; in fact, it may already have been so. This is not as large a sum as was given to the Benevolent last year, but then the Province is always sending up representatives. Sussex stands second among the Provinces, with a total of £600, a very handsome amount, reflecting the highest credit on the Province and its representative, the worthy Deputy Grand Master thereof, Bro. J. H. Scott. Here, too, it is only necessary we should remark that Sussex plays its part well, though in this instance it has surpassed the efforts of more recent years. We now come to North and East Yorkshire, the total of whose contributions is £855 4s. The personal contribution of its chief, who was the Chairman of the Festival, is one hundred guineas. His Deputy, Bro. J. Pearson Bell, acting for the whole Province, figures for £325 13s, the Steward of the Old Globe, No. 200, of Scarborough, has a list of one hundred guineas, while the York Lodge, No. 236, and the Zetland Chapter attached, together contribute £116 7s 6d, Sir James Meek being Steward for the former, and the Hon. W. T. Orde-Powlett acting in the same capacity for the latter. As we have had occasion to lament the non-appearance of this Province at former Festivals, it is with infinite pleasure we note the great success it has achieved on this occasion. The West Yorkshire Board of Stewards, headed by the P.G.M. Sir H. Edwards, and including Worshipful Bro. Tew, his Deputy, and other Masons of weight and eminence, are together responsible for £370, which would not seem excessive, considering the strength of the Province, were it not that we know it is always represented, its contributions being always reckoned by hundreds, even to the extent of some £900. South Wales West, but for Lord Kensington's apparently personal donation of ten guineas, would have been out in the cold. Last year it figured at the Benevolent for £225, while in 1878 it gave the Girls over £236, apart from its contributions at other Festivals. Wilts, though with a solitary list of £15 15s, is a small yet willing Province, and every now and then shows that it has in it plenty of true Masonic stuff, and so likewise does Warwickshire, though only one of its Lodges was represented on this occasion, and the one list returned was comparatively a small one, twenty guineas, there being one other yet to be returned. A sum of fifty guineas by the hands of that prominent and justly popular Mason, Bro. Major Ramsey, District Grand Master of the Punjab, is the only contribution from abroad, and this is very far from being the first occasion on which our Charities have had the benefit of his assistance. With this remark we bring our analysis to a conclusion, and we can only hope that at the other Festivals yet to come our task may be as agreeable as it has proved in this instance.

Digitized by Google

CORRESPONDENCE.

—:o:—

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents.

We cannot undertake to return rejected communications.

All Letters must bear the name and address of the Writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

THE MASONIC RITUAL.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

MY DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—There is so much go and verve in Bro. Jacob Norton's communications to your columns that they compel attentive perusal even when, as I fancy is often the case, they fail to carry with them the conviction of the reader.

Permit me to offer a few remarks in connection with Bro. Norton's letter in your issue of the 7th inst.

I do not purpose to re-open the controversy on Uniformity of Ritual; and this the rather because, as it appears to me, Bro. Norton has availed himself of the movement led by Bro. Stevens merely as a peg to hang a hat upon.

The real gist of Bro. Norton's remarks is the introduction of a proposal, which would, if carried into effect, produce an entire revolution in Freemasonry as it is accepted everywhere, so far as I know, except in France.

The proposal seems to be to render Masonry universal in a wider degree than it is at present, or than it ever has been, by striking out of our Ritual and Lectures not only the abundant references to Scripture history, but also to any belief in the existence of God, a future life, and a resurrection of the body. All these matters Bro. Norton classes together, and condemns wholesale, as being "accumulated rubbish."

But our worthy brother seems to me to have a bee in his bonnet. Your readers will not have forgotten Bro. Norton's defence of the action of the Grand Orient of France two years ago in throwing open the doors of the Craft to Atheism pure and simple; nor his condemnation—somewhat gratuitous, as coming from a brother hailing from the U.S.—of the action of our own Grand Lodge in the matter. And now he gallantly returns to the charge, and challenges Bro. Stevens to enlist under his banner and tear up Freemasonry, as it is now accepted, root and branch, substituting for it a society which owns neither God nor heaven, nor any motive for righteous living, except such as shall be drawn from purely mundane considerations.

Suffer me to ask on what ground does our brother suggest or defend such a serious upset of all our preconceived ideas?

If he could urge that the lines at present drawn exclude unfairly a large and estimable class of our fellow-creatures, that there are many, in all other respects eligible candidates, whose accession would be of great service to the Craft, who complain that their conscientious scruples will not permit them to join us under our present constitution. Were this the case, the question would be worth our serious consideration, but nothing of the kind is stated.

Instead of this, Bro. Norton assails the existing constitution of the Order on the ground that it is based on "sectarian dogmas."

Here, Sir, I beg to join issue with the worthy brother. The bases of Freemasonry are not dogmas, and they are not sectarian. Bro. Norton reminds me of the well-known definition of a crab, as being "a little red fish that walks backwards." An excellent and accurate definition, barring the facts that a crab is not necessarily small, is not red by nature, is not a fish at all, and does not walk backwards. A dogma is a definition or exposition of theological truth put forth by the authority of the Church as a corollary to Divine revelation. Sectarian implies that the noun qualified by the adjective belongs to or is connected with a sect or section, that is a part of the body as distinguished from the whole. I submit that in no respect are these three points, which lie at the root of the religious aspects of Freemasonry, sectarian dogmas. They are held by the entire body of Christians throughout the world not in obedience to any human authority, secular or religious, but, if I may use the expression, as axioms based on the instincts and experience of mankind at large, and only incapable of demonstration by reason of their being matters of faith.

Digitized by Google

Further, two of these points certainly, and I think few will contradict me if I add the third also, viz, the resurrection of the body, are held equally by Christians, Jews, Mahometans, Parsees, Buddhists, in fact by all men who have any idea of religion. Masonry therefore is to all intents and purposes universal; just as it is true to say that men universally have two feet, albeit some poor creatures are born without the full complement of members—so it is not necessary to go out of our course to consider the accidental monstrosities, to be found, alas! in every age, who deliberately shut their eyes, and then proclaim themselves as being the only people who are not in the dark.

Bro. Norton makes an amusing mis-quotation. He speaks of the W.M's promising candidates that "Masonic duties will not interfere with their religious opinions." Surely the W.M merely says to the candidate who has already confessed his faith in God, that his Masonic OB. will not clash with his religious duties. Imagine the religious opinions of a man who denies the existence of a God or a future state!

Further, Sir, Bro. Norton sneers at clerical brethren. Let me assure him, as a clergyman and a Mason of 25 years standing, that opposition to a scheme for the "secularising" of Freemasonry will not come from the clergy only; we in England are proud to know that the overwhelming majority of our lay brethren are at one with us in a sincere and loyal faith in the primary elements of religious truth. If we, which God forbid, were content to be silent, they would immediately cry out and shame our silence.

Lastly, Sir, Bro. Norton is sick and tired of hearing that Masonry is a religion, and that it is not a religion. The italics are his. Can he really not understand how a man may with perfect consistency say, "I am a religious man, holding and practising according to my ability religious truth; but it is not my office to teach it, and I decline to do so? Similarly a body of men may fairly claim a religious character for the society to which they belong, and yet withhold from pronouncing, or as our brother would say "dogmatizing" in matters of faith.

I am, Dear Sir and Brother,

Yours fraternally,

11th February 1880. P.G.C. Oxon, 489.

ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND.

To the Editor of the Freemason's Chronicle.

Dear Sir and Brother,—I quite agree with you that in any scheme for assisting the children of deceased or indigent brethren, Warwickshire would play its part right loyally, but it strikes me the fear as to expense as expressed by Bro. Machen in his letter of the 3rd inst. is groundless. The Assistance Fund once raised will be invested in the names of certain trustees. There will be an honorary Treasurer who, will receive and disburse moneys on account of the Fund. A Committee of Management, to receive and consider applications for assistance would be necessary, but this would cost nothing, as those who already take an active interest in our Schools would, I am sure, be only too glad to give the slight services—slight as regards the time they would occupy, though important in other respects—that would be required of them, gratuitously. There would remain only the expense of postage, circulars, and an annual report, which need not and, I imagine, would not be excessive. The Fund would not require to be a large one, for I presume it is not contemplated to incur the expense of sending a number of pupils to one or other of the Universities, or to give a preliminary course of education to all who are candidates for admission into our Schools until they succeed in being elected. Only now and then will be found a pupil who is likely to achieve distinction at a University, and in assisting others on leaving School to begin the battle of life, a moderate sum, judiciously applied, will go a long way. Nor is the education of small children in the neighbourhoods in which they live likely to be very heavy. Thus, there is no reason why, in administering a supplementary Fund, a numerous staff of paid officials should be organised.

Fraternally yours,

Beta.

THE GENERAL COMMITTEE AND BRO. S. BARTON WILSON.

To the Editor of the Freemason's Chronicle.

Dear Sir and Brother,—I read with much regret in your account of the meeting of the Committee, that Bro. Stephen B. Wilson's claim, which has been so long under consideration by the authorities of the Boys' School, has been referred back to the House Committee. Now this strikes me as being most unbusiness-like. The House Committee have already considered the claim, and there is little likelihood of their being able to throw further light upon it. There is but one issue which has to be determined, and many months are not needed for the purpose. Either the claim is just or unjust, and Bro. Wilson a long time ago handsomely offered to submit it to the arbitration of a prominent member of his own profession about whose worthiness to act in that capacity there cannot be the slightest question. This shows that Bro. Wilson has perfect faith in the justice of his charges, and as it is hardly possible to find a better way of settling the matter, I am at a loss to see why the Committee have rejected Bro. Wilson's offer. Without further and more satisfactory explanation than any the authorities have yet given, I should say—speaking of course Masonically, as certain other people speak in a Pickwickian sense—that harsh treatment is being, and for some time past has been, meted out to Bro. Wilson in being thus bandied about from pillar to post, or to be as precise as possible, from House Committee to General Committee, and back again to the former, and the question very naturally arises, are these Committees competent to settle whether an architect's charges are just or unjust? I imagine not, any more than a lay tribunal is competent to decide on technical points of law. Why not then have recourse to arbitration, when the matter in dispute can be settled in a few minutes, always providing, at least, the arbitrators possess a sound knowledge of the business to be determined. It may cost a little more than a brief "consideration" repeated monthly across a table, but it will be more dignified and less expensive than it must be if the difference has to be settled legally. In Committees there may be safety, in the sense of security from all responsibility for individual opinions, but I question if there is always a display of wisdom. Let us hope the House Committee, by the time these lines meet the eyes of your readers, will have completed their portion of the arduous task of considering. It is a fine thing to have a proper idea of duty, a still finer thing to fulfil that duty conscientiously, but it is the finest thing of all when people are able to bring common sense to bear in the conscientious fulfilment of a duty they appreciate and understand; and references and considerations, needlessly repeated, are not in accordance with common sense, but rather with a dilatory and perfunctory style of work; or, shall I say? with what has come to be known in Parliamentary circles, as the policy of "obstruction."

I am,

Faithfully and fraternally yours,

T. G. R.

[We think there is some force in our correspondent's remarks as to the unbusiness-like character of these repeated delays, and shall take an early opportunity of considering the subject. We think, too, with him, that while Bro. Stephen Barton Wilson is having more than his just share of consideration of one kind, he is receiving less than he is entitled to expect of consideration of another kind.—Ed. F. C.]

The following verses, describing an incident that occurred at the opening of Parliament by the Queen on Thursday, 5th February last, are culled from a contemporary :—

DISAPPOINTED.

On Thursday morning last our office-boy
Remarked, "In state the Queen will open session."
Said we, "Well, go, if it will give you joy,
And try to make a great and good impression,—
By uttering a loud though childish cheer,
And smiling sweetly right from ear to ear."

Forthwith he went, and quickly found a place
Before the mighty crowd awaiting Royalty;
He put a cheerful smile upon his face,
Which savoured more of impishness than loyalty!
Yet, ah! his wish to cheer was most insatient,
And waiting idly made him quite impatient.

At last the Queen arrived. A breath he drew
As near to him the prancing horses pattered;
He raised his hat, and raised his small voice too,
But all his cherished hopes were rudely shattered.
A very stout policeman, indiscreetly,
Eclipsed our little office-boy completely!

A moment more, and then he moved aside;
But, ah! the Queen had journeyed on ahead!
Our little office-boy gave way and cried,
For all his fondly-cherished hopes were dead.
No matter how he smiled, how loud his cheer,
Her Majesty could neither see nor hear!

6th February 1880. F. Julian Crogen.

MEETING OF THE LODGE OF BENEVOLENCE.

The Lodge of Benevolence and the Quarterly Board of Masters was held on Wednesday evening, at Freemasons' Hall. Bro. Joshua Nunn took the chair of President, Bro. James Brett the chair of Senior Vice-President, and Bro. James Kench the chair of Junior Vice-President. Nearly a hundred brethren attended. The agenda paper, on which were several important and interesting matters for discussion at next Quarterly Communication of Grand Lodge, on the 3rd of March, was read to the brethren by the Grand Secretary, Col. Shadwell H. Clerke; after which the Lodge of Benevolence was opened, and the brethren confirmed the granting of £270, recommended at the last meeting. The new list of petitions contained the names of thirty-one applicants for relief, and the consideration of these occupied a protracted sitting of close upon five hours. In the result two cases were deferred, and the remaining twenty-nine were relieved with recommendations of grants, and grants amounting in all to £913, viz., three of £75 each, three of £50 each, five of £40 each, three of £30 each, three of £25 each, seven of £20 each, two of £10 each, two of £5 and one of £3.

Digitized by Google

INSTALLATION MEETINGS, &c.

—:o:—

EASTERN STAR LODGE, No. 95.

THE installation meeting of this ancient Lodge was held on Tuesday evening, 17th February, at the Ship and Turtle Tavern, Leadenhall-street, and was numerously attended. Bros. Edwin Bonner W.M., Ruff S.W. and W.M. elect, Ayres J.W., E. Davis P.M. Treasurer, Edinger Sec., and a number of Visitors, amongst whom were the following:—Bros. J. Keen 766, Ralfe 1018, Birch 1712, Searboom P.M. 217, H. Thompson 1426 and P.M. 177 and 1158, Wath 186, Bristo W.M. 1361, Davison 216, Roberts 1702. Hume 134, Hollington W.M. 933, Wayland 1227, Wharton 1706, Hanson 1706, Dutton 1706, C. T. Speight P.M. 27 and Prov. Grand Tyler for Surrey, &c. The minutes of the previous Lodge having been read and confirmed, Bro. Hill P.M. was called to the chair, and the Lodge having been opened in the second degree, Bro. Davis presented to him Bro. H. W. Ruff S.W. and W.M. elect, to receive from him the benefits of installation. After the usual preliminaries, a Board of Installed Masters was formed, and Bro. Ruff was placed in the chair of K.S. as Worshipful Master of the Eastern Star Lodge for the ensuing year. He appointed his Officers as follows:—Bros. M. Ayres S.W., Wardell J.W., Howard Ruff S.D., Macklin J.D., Davis Treas., Edinger Sec., Collier I.G., Marriott D.C., and Speight Tyler. Bro. Hill then concluded the installation ceremony, delivering the addresses in a most impressive and correct manner, and at the termination was rewarded with unanimous applause; it is only justice to him to remark that such a demonstration was well deserved. There being no other business, the Lodge was closed in due form and with solemn prayer, and the brethren adjourned to the banquetting room, and when it was stated that the fare was served in Bro. Painter's best style, and for which the Ship and Turtle has long been famed, no more need be said on that head. At the conclusion of the repast, grace was sung by the professional brethren—Wharton, Dutton and Hanson—who had been specially engaged for the occasion. The W.M. said the first toast he had to propose was that of "The Queen," and on these occasions it was usual to couple with it "The Craft," which was done, followed by the National Anthem. The W.M. said the next toast he had the pleasure to propose was "The Most Worshipful the Grand Master his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales." They all knew the great interest he took in everything connected with Freemasonry, and therefore any comment upon the toast was unnecessary. This, like the preceding, was enthusiastically responded to, and followed by "God Bless the Prince of Wales," which was sung in exquisite style by Bro. Hanson. The next toast was "The Pro Grand Master the Earl of Carnarvon; the Deputy Grand Master Lord Skelmersdale; and the rest of the Grand Officers." The W.M. said all the brethren knew how well they performed their duties, and therefore he proposed the toast without further comment. This likewise was drunk cordially, and Bro. Wharton sang in first-rate style the old song "Hearts of Oak." Bro. Bonner I.P.M. said, it became his pleasing duty to propose the next toast, which he might call the toast of the evening; it was "The health of the Worshipful Master," and very proud was he to see him in that position. The toast was well received, and the W.M. in reply said, after the very flattering remarks of their immediate Past Master, he hardly knew how to respond to the terms he had been pleased to use towards him. He should only be too happy to do everything that he ought to do, and next year when he had to give up the chair he hoped that he should be able to give a good account, and to show them what he had done. He could assure them that he thanked them sincerely for the very kind manner in which they had received the toast, believing as he did that he possessed the goodwill of every member of the Lodge. He had then to propose "The health of Bro. Bonner the Immediate Past Master," who had fulfilled the duties of the chair most creditably, had been most punctual in his attendance, and they all knew the great interest he took in the Lodge; he asked them to give him a good reception, and an "Eastern Star fire." He had now a pleasing duty to perform, which was to present Bro. Bonner with a P.M.'s jewel, and in attaching it to his breast said he was justly entitled to it, and he hoped he might be long spared to wear it. The jewel bore the following inscription:—"Presented Feb. 17, 1880, by the brethren of the Eastern Star Lodge No. 95, to the Worshipful Brother Edwin Bonner W.M., as a mark of esteem for the zeal and ability displayed by him as Worshipful Master 1879." Bro. Bonner I.P.M. said he could scarcely find words to express his thanks to the brethren for their very handsome present; he should wear it with pleasure as long as he lived, as coming from them. They were indeed a band of brothers, and when he received such a token from them, it expressed to him a thousand times its intrinsic value; he thanked them one and all for the honour they had conferred upon him. The W.M. said the next toast he had to propose was the health of Bro. Hill, the Installing Master; he felt sure that it must have been a great treat to all who had the privilege of witnessing the manner in which he performed the ceremony of installation. Bro. Hill P.M. in reply said he thanked the W.M. most heartily for the very flattering manner in which he had proposed the health of the Installing Master, and the members of the Lodge for the way in which they had responded to the toast. He could assure them that it afforded him a great deal of pleasure, not only on that evening, but on other occasions to instal their W.M. It gave him peculiar pleasure to instal Bro. Ruff, who carried with him their esteem and regard; he felt assured that he would go through the duties of the Lodge with credit to himself and the satisfaction of every member of it. He then, in very flattering terms, alluded to another pleasure he had that evening received in placing a collar of office on Bro. Collier. It was a red letter day in the history of the Lodge, and he hoped to have the privilege of installing him in the chair. The P.M.'s was the next toast given, after which Bro. Hanson delighted the members by his rendering of Dibdin's "Tom Bowling." Bro. Marriott and several other Past Masters returned thanks, the former had been a member of the Lodge ever since 1845. The W.M. said he should propose the next toast with a great amount of pleasure, as it was the health of the Treasurer and Secretary. Bros. Davis and Edinger were two of the most energetic members of the Lodge. Bro. Davis said it afforded him much gratification to find that his services were so much appreciated by the members of the Eastern Star Lodge; he had been associated with the Lodge for twenty-two years, and after that lapse of time, it was gratifying to him to know that he had not lost their confidence; but if in the course of twenty years they could not find out a man's worth they would never find it out at all. He spent the happiest moments of his life when assembled with his brethren round the table of the Eastern Star Lodge, and he would always take care to afford them as much comfort as the funds would allow. He then in feeling terms alluded to the death of one of the Past Masters of the Lodge, whom they could ill afford to lose, but it had pleased the Great Architect of the Universe to take him from them; he also remarked that he found old age was creeping upon him, and the late cold weather and fogs had nearly done him up, but he felt great pleasure in coming amongst them that evening, knowing that he possessed their confidence, or they would not have elected him year after year their Treasurer, as they had done. Bro. Edinger also jocosely returned thanks for the honour they had conferred upon him. The Visitors was the next toast given, to which several of them responded, and Bro. Thompson, in the course of his observations, took occasion to refer to the manner in which Bro. Hill had performed the ceremony of installation, and remarked that after a somewhat lengthened career as a Mason, he had never heard the ritual more impressively or correctly given; he thought the members of the Eastern Star had reason to be proud of having so talented a brother amongst them. Some other toasts were given, and the Tyler's toast brought a most interesting meeting to a close. The vocal arrangements were conducted by Bros. Dutton, Hanson and Wharton.

LONDON LODGE, No. 108.

THE installation meeting was held on Saturday, 14th instant, at the Ship and Turtle, Leadenhall-street, E.C. Bros. H. W. Green W.M., C. J. St. Alphonse S.W., W. Giles P.M. S.G.D. Essex as J.W., Raynham Stewart P.M., &c. Treas., E. H. De Phillipe P.M. Sec., James Edell I.G., G. A. Berkeley D.C., Marsh Tyler; Past Masters Hyde Pullen, F. Giles, D. Rolls, F. Snellgrove; Members—E. B. Holloway, C. W. Tayleur, R. F. Macswinney, Thos. Patrick, C. Morgan, W. Winter, Dr. Derry Jones, &c. Visitors—R. J. Chappel P.M. No. 7, H. G. Heald P.M. No. 11, L. Ruf P.M. No. 12, R. G. Durant, G. J. Montefiore, Dr. Ramsay, and J. E. Shand S.W. 1563 P.M. 1056. Business—Bro. Wilcock was passed to degree of F.C. in his usual impressive style by Bro. Green W.M. The ceremony of installation was then proceeded with, Bro. H. Pullen P.M. acting as Installing Master. This brother's ability is so well known we need hardly say that the work was rendered very effectively and impressively. Bro. S.W. Alphonse was duly placed in the chair of K.S. The Officers were invested as follows:—Bro. Smith S.W., Davidson J.W. (both by deputy, as neither were present), Green I.P.M., Raynham Stewart P.M. Treasurer, Phillipe Secretary, J. Edell S.D., Holloway J.D., Tayleur I.G., Berkeley D.C., Marsh Tyler. It was proposed and unanimously agreed to, that in consideration of Bro. Green's courteous and efficient discharge of the duties of W.M. a P.M.'s jewel be presented at next meeting. The sum of twenty guineas was voted to be placed on Bro. Raynham Stewart's list for the Girls' School. Lodge was closed, and the brethren adjourned to banquet, which was served in admirable manner. The usual Loyal and Masonic toasts were duly honoured, including that of the Installing Master, Bro. Hyde Pullen. Reference was also made to the return of the Treasurer, Bro. R. Stewart, after an absence occasioned by illness; all rejoiced at his restoration to health. The Secretary's health was drunk with enthusiasm. The Visitors' toast was connected with the names of Bro. J. E. Shand S.W. City of Westminster, and Bro. Montefiore, each of whom in suitable terms thanked the W.M. and brethren for the compliment. The health of the Officers was given, and responded to by Bro. Edell S.D. (in chair of S.W.), and Bro. Holloway J.D. (as J.W.) Several lively songs were sung by the brethren, and the Tyler's toast brought a very pleasant and agreeable evening to an end.

TRANQUILLITY LODGE, No. 185.

THE annual festival, or what is usually termed the installation meeting of this Lodge, was held at the Guildhall Tavern, Gresham Street, E.C., on Monday the 16th inst. Bro. G. Pare W.M. presided. There was work in the third and second degrees, and that having been satisfactorily completed, the W.M. vacated the chair, which was at once occupied by Bro. J. D. Barnett P.M., the Installing Master. Bro. W. D. Bailey having been presented in due form, was then regularly installed, the Board of Masters consisting of twenty Masters and Past Masters. When the brethren were permitted to re-enter the Lodge Bro. Bailey commenced to exercise his new functions by appointing his subordinate Officers in the following manner, namely, F. Croaker S.W., T. W. C. Bush J.W., J. Constable P.M. Treas., P. Levy Sec., B. D. Barnett J.D., S. Barnett J.G., M. Boas D.C., J. H. Peartree W.S., Potter Tyler. This selection appeared to give entire satisfaction. The Offices of S.D. and Organist being left open, because Bro. Staley S.D. sojourns for a short time on the Continent, and Bro. Geo. Bilby, the highly esteemed Organist, is suffering from severe indisposition, at which very genuine regret was universally expressed. The Lodge was next called off for refreshment. The banquet, of which nearly one hundred persons partook, was served under the superintendence of Bro. M. Silver, who on all occasions does the thing most creditably, but who in the present instance seems to have especially exerted himself. Grace having been sung by the professional brethren, the W.M. gave the health of the Queen, whose dignity as a monarch, and amiability as a woman endeared her to every one of her subjects. (Cheers, in which all present most heartily joined). H.R.H. the Prince of Wales and the rest of the Grand Officers Past and Present was next given, and with this toast was coupled the name of Bro. R. W. N. Giddy R.W. the District G.M. of Griqualand, who in thanking the brethren for his reception remarked upon the excellent working of the Immediate P.M., but more especially upon the brilliant eloquence displayed by the Installing Master. In 22 years' experience as a Mason, during which period he had had many opportunities of witnessing the performance of the same ceremony, it had never been his lot to see the work done with such perfection as it had been his great privilege to listen to that evening. The health of the Visitors was responded to by Bro. Saver Treasurer of the Tranquillity Lodge, Sydney, N.S.W. Bro. Geo. Pare I.P.M. next proposed the toast of the W.M., remarking upon the harmony which has invariably existed among all the Officers of the Lodge, and terming it a happy privilege to have worked with him in harness together. The new W.M., who was greeted with tremendous applause, replied that it was a most difficult task to respond to a toast like this, as one does not like to speak in praise of oneself, for that might have the appearance of vanity; and then ideas of gratitude come tumbling over each other, leading to confusion of words. He concluded his humorous remarks by expressing his thanks to the brethren for the unanimity with which he had been voted to the high position he is occupying. Bro. Bailey then gave the toast of the Installing Master. He remembered when being initiated Bro. Barnett acting as J.D., and the kindliness and care with which the duties of the Office were performed had made a lasting impression upon him. No one could fail to have been delighted with the feeling eloquence and perfection with which the addresses were delivered. Responding, Bro. Barnett expressed his sense of gratitude, and stated that he had to thank Bro. Constable, who taught him all he knew of the ceremony, the performance of which seemed to have given so much satisfaction. Bro. Saul Solomon P.M., replying for the Benevolent Fund said, there was no need for him to direct attention, as was usual, to the existence and details of the Fund, the W.M., adopting a new principle, had done that for him. For years it had been attempted to raise the Fund to £1,000. They had now reached the sum of £900, although a great deal had been done by way of helping the unfortunate, not by small doles, but by considerable sums, sometimes amounting to £100. The next toast applied to the prosperity of the Masonic Institutions. Bro. Binckes thanked the brethren, and expressed his pleasure and satisfaction for their hearty response to the toast. Adverting to the long prevalence of commercial depression, he gloried in the fact that his good Brother Terry had nevertheless succeeded in obtaining a sum exceeding £12,000 on behalf of the Benevolent Institution. He trusted that under the auspices of Prince Leopold and Lord Skelmersdale the other two Institutions would be equally well supported, although he feared that the political agitation, which must of necessity shortly accrue, might possibly greatly interfere with the success of the two Festivals. Nevertheless, he trusted Masonic principles would be held aloof from, and raised beyond and above political agitations. Some opposition had of late been manifested as to the Secretaries attending these meetings and urging the claims of the Institutions; he however thought differently, and while his health and strength were spared (and God knew he was losing both), he would take every opportunity to persist in urging the claims of those who cannot speak for themselves. (Great cheering). For the Treasurer and Secretary Bro. Constable replied in his usual terse way, and in the course of his observations directed attention to the "Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund," and also to the fact that a Bazaar is about to be held in aid of that fund, at which his wife and daughter will attend at a stall. Bro. J. H. Peartree, as the youngest, responded for the rest of the Officers. The Lodge was then called from refreshment to labour. Among other matters it was announced that £30 had been granted to a poor brother, and £3 3s were voted towards the above mentioned Bazaar. The balance sheet, showing a most flourishing condition of the Lodge, was received and adopted, and the Lodge closed. Amongst those present were Past Masters S. Solomon, S. Moss, R. Z. Bloomfield, N. Moss, M. Harris, J. D. Barnett, J. H. Ross, N. Gluckstein, E. Gottheil. The visitors were R. W. H. Giddy District Grand Master Griqualand, Jacob Norton Boston, T. Griffiths P.M. 907, L. Alexander P.M. 188, E. P. Albert P.G.P., T. Cubitt P.G.P., E. A. Harris 201, J. Harris 201, W. Spark 201, Giles P.M. 108, Dr. Mickley P.M. 449, Martin 554, Roques 907, T. H. Miller P.P.G.O. Middx. P.M. 907, J. S. Lyon Treas. 188, H. W. Dixon P.M. 172, W. F. Papperell 180, W. Thompson 72, E. D. Culver S.D. 63, E. Bowyer P.P.G.D. P.M. 1580, Jas. Terry P.M. &c., Grakom S.D. 1540, Plummer 177, Harris 72, D. S. Woolf 72, Rudderforth W.M. 1668, Drake P.M. 186, Tibbits J. W. 59, F. Binckes P.G. Stwd. &c., Saver Tranquillity Sydney, N.S.W., Lawler, Carter 382, and Montem Smith. The musical arrangements were under the direction of Bro. G. Carter. The programme included: Grace—"For these and all Thy Mercies," "God save the Queen," "Ode to the Prince of Wales," Glee—"With sighs, sweet Rose," "The Loves of the Brave and Free," by Bro. Montem Smith, Glee—"Breathe, my Harp," "My Queen," by Bro. Carter, "Katty Moyle," by Bro. Lester, Glee—"Bold Robin Hood," "In Cellar Deep," by Bro. Lawler, "Excelsior," Bro. Carter, Glee—"Poculum Elevatum," &c.

Digitized by Google

GOOCH LODGE No. 1238.

THE members of this compact little Lodge—as we often hear it called—assembled on Monday last, the 16th inst., at Bro. Philips's well-known hostelry, the Albany, Twickenham, for the business of their Installation Meeting. The chair was taken by the W.M., Bro. E. C. Woodward, who was supported by his Officers, and the following Past Masters of the Lodge:—Bros. R. Lonsdale, W. D. Townsend, A. W. G. Weeks, E. A. Baber, W. F. Laxton, F. Honeyman. The Lodge was formally opened, and the Provincial Grand Master, Bro. Col. Francis Burdett, Past Grand Deacon, entered the Lodge, and received the salutations appropriate to his exalted rank. He was accompanied by Bro. H. C. Levander Prov. Grand Secretary, and among the other Visitors we may mention Bros. John Close P.P.G.D.C. Surrey, Henry Smith 1257, G. W. Saul I.P.M. 1201, Chas. F. Johns 1287, W. H. Van Baerele late 1238, J. H. Rutherglen 1642, and W. W. Morgan 211. Bro. Woodward tendered to Col. Burdett his gavel, which compliment was gracefully acknowledged, but the Prov. Grand Master directed Bro. Woodward to proceed with the business of the evening. The minutes of last meeting having been read and confirmed, Lodge was advanced, and Bros. Gillingham and Mayne were examined as to the knowledge they had acquired in the first two degrees of Freemasonry. It may be in the recollection of some of our readers that the former brother received his second degree in the Earl of Carnarvon Lodge, No 1642. The questions were answered by each candidate most satisfactorily and Bro. Woodward performed the ceremony of the third degree to their advantage. The next business on the agenda paper was the installation of Bro. Mesrouze, and for this ceremony Bro. P.M. Townsend officiated as Installing Master. Bro. Mesrouze was duly presented, the obligations administered, and a board of Installed Masters opened. In due course the members who had not passed the chair were re-admitted, and the new W.M. saluted. The investitore of Officers then took place, the following brethren receiving the collars:—E. C. Woodward I.P.M., Varley S.W., Harding J.W., Baber P.M. Treas., Laxton P.M. Sec., Weaver S.D., Lonsdale P.M. W.S., Townsend P.M. D.C. Bro. Townsend, who throughout had acted most efficiently, then delivered the addresses, which were listened to with rapt attention. By direction of the W.M. Bro. Townsend presented to the retiring Master the P.M.'s jewel, which had been voted by the brethren. He trusted Bro. Woodward might live many years to be with them, and that among the many jewels he was entitled to wear, he would not prize any more highly than the one of which he had been the recipient that night. Bro. Woodward said he would lose no time in acknowledging the compliment that had been paid him. He esteemed it a great honour that had been paid their Lodge by the presence of the Provincial Grand Master and his worthy Secretary, Bro. H. C. Levander. Col. Burdett was well known to members of the Craft not only in England, but also in Scotland; as a Provincial Grand Master he was second to none. To the members he (Bro. Woodward) was deeply indebted, and he should always value the jewel they had presented him. The ballot was next taken for Mr. Charles Pierre Sellier, proposed by Bro. Mesrouze, seconded by Bro. Laxton P.M. The result was unanimous, and the candidate was admitted and initiated into the mysteries of Freemasonry. Bro. Mesrouze evidencing, by the way in which he conducted the ceremony, that he had spared no pains to make himself proficient. We regret we are compelled here to refer to the incompetency of the S.W.; considering that brother is a P.M., and has but just left the chair of a Lodge, it seemed to us incomprehensible he should exhibit so little knowledge of the duties required of him. Noticeable features of the evening's business were the voting by the members the sum of £10 10s to the R.M.B.I., and the presentation to the Lodge, by the I.P.M., of a set of pedestals for the candlesticks, the latter gift being recognised by the members recording a vote of thanks, to be entered on the minutes. This completing the work of the day, Lodge was closed. A capital banquet was furnished by Bro. Philips, and the good things provided had justice done them. On the removal of the cloth, Bro. Mesrouze proceeded with the toasts. In speaking of her Majesty he, as a foreigner, could say the Queen of England might be accepted as an example for the Sovereigns of Europe. As the Patroness of our Institutions, she had especial claims on us as Freemasons. The toasts of the M.W. the G.M., the Pro G.M., the D.G.M., and the rest of the Grand Officers of Grand Lodge having been fully honoured, Bro. Mesrouze rose to propose the health of the R.W. Prov. G.M. of the Province of Middlesex. He had not incorporated the name of Col. Burdett with the last toast, though no Grand Officer Past or Present was more highly esteemed. The zeal displayed on behalf of Freemasonry by the gallant Colonel was nowhere more appreciated than by the members of the Gooch Lodge, who fully realised the honour conferred by the Prov. Grand Master attending their meeting. Bro. Col. Burdett, on rising to reply, assured the W.M. and brethren of the Gooch Lodge that he felt intensely gratified at the way in which his name had been received. He esteemed it a very great honour to be associated as an Officer of Grand Lodge, which had at its head most worthy brethren. It was now some ten or twelve years since he had been appointed to preside over the Province of Middlesex, and he had pleasing recollections of having attended a gathering of members of this Lodge when they assembled elsewhere. In speaking of the Officers of this Province, Col. Burdett remarked they were ever ready to exert themselves for the welfare of the Order, and personally he was satisfied with the way in which they did their duty. He would also touch upon matters that more nearly concerned their Lodge. He could compliment the Installing Master on the way he had conducted the ceremony; while the way in which the Worshipful Master had performed the ceremony of initiation left nothing to be desired. This was the more commendable as Bro. Mesrouze was a foreigner. Before sitting down he would ask the brethren to drink heartily to the toast of their W.M. This compliment was acknowledged briefly, but with great fervour by Bro. Mesrouze. For the toast of the Prov. Grand Officers, Bro. Laxton replied; he likewise paid a deserved compliment to the W.M. for the way the business had been conducted. Bro. Townsend replied for the P.M.'s. The Initiate received due recognition, the Visitors were heartily greeted, and the remaining toasts were expedited through, the exigencies of train service not allowing much oratorical display. The Tyler gave the parting toast, and the brethren dispersed.

Digitized by Google

PERSEVERANCE LODGE, No. 1643.

THE Installation and Annual Festival of this young but flourishing Lodge took place on the 11th inst., at the Masonic Hall, Carr-street, Hebburn-on-Tyne. There was a very large gathering of Members and Visitors from all parts of the two Provinces. The Lodge was opened at 3.30 by Bro. G. Hardy W.M., supported by the following Officers:—Bros. McCulloch I.P.M., J. S. Mitchell S.W., W. Eckford J.W., S. Chadwick Sec., J. Marchent P.M. P.P.G.S.B. S.D., J. F. Stalk J.D., G. M. Richardson Org., W. Bowick I.G., M. H. Dodd J.S., and H. Bell Tyler; Past Masters T. S. Wrath and T. G. Mabane P.P.G.S.D. The visiting brethren present were—Bros. E. D. Davis P.M. 40 P.P.G.S.W., W. M. Bell P.M. 1557 P.P.G.A.D.C. Northumberland, B. Pord I.P.M. 1427 P.P.G.Org. Northumberland, W. H. Crookes P.G. Sec., R. Hudson P.G.D.C., R. Knox P.M. 406 P.P.G.S.D. Northumberland, John Page W.M. 406 P.G.S.B. Northumberland, R. Witfield W.M. 48, D. Taylor P.M. 1520, J. Bondee P.M. 1119, J. Wood S.W. 48, G. W. Lax S.W. 406 P.G. Steward Northumberland, John Mackey S.W. 424, J. G. Smith J.W. 48, J. W. Hodgson J.D. 1274, J. Mathews 48, M. J. Wetley 48, G. Davidson 240, G. Bradford 406, E. Thewbrooks 48, R. Brown 48, J. Allen 636, L. McFadjen 437, J. Marris, M. Chorlton, G. H. Thompson 240, and S. M. Harris Sec. 406 (FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE). The Lodge being opened, and the minutes of the last meeting confirmed, the Treasurer submitted his report, which showed the Lodge to be in a very flourishing condition. The Lodge was then opened in the second degree, and Bro. James Mitchell, the W.M. elect, was presented to the W.M. to receive at his hands the benefit of installation. The ancient charges were duly administered, and the usual formalities gone through. All below the rank of Installed Master then left the Lodge, and a Board of Past Masters was formed, and the ceremony proceeded with. On the re-admission of the brethren, they were informed by the Installing Master that Bro. Mitchell had duly and properly been placed in the chair of K.S., and they accordingly saluted him in the usual manner. The newly enthroned Master then appointed and invested his Officers for the ensuing year as follow:—Bros. G. Hardy I.P.M., W. Eckford S.W., A. Brodie J.W., Rev. W. Hedley Chaplain, J. McCulloch P.M. Treas. and D.C., S. Chadwick Sec., W. Bewick S.D., W. Gowens J.D., R. Richardson Organist, W. Newlands I.G., W. Atkinson S.S., W. H. Fowkes J.S., H. Bell Tyler, &c. The Installing Master gave the several charges to the Wardens and brethren in a perfect manner, the whole of the ceremony being rendered most impressively, reflecting the greatest credit on Bro. Hardy for the amount of study and time he must have devoted to it in order to have acquitted himself so well. There were four propositions for initiation, amongst the gentlemen who offered themselves being the Mayor of Gorrow-on-Tyne. The names of four brethren were submitted as subscribing members. The W.M. received the hearty good wishes of the many visiting brethren, and a sum of £5 5s was voted towards presenting the I.P.M. with a jewel, in recognition of his many services to the Lodge. Other routine business being disposed of, the Lodge was closed, and the brethren, numbering seventy-four, adjourned to the banqueting hall, where they did full justice to a well-arranged menu. The dinner was provided by Bro. W. Bewick, of the Ellison House Hotel, and reflected great credit on him as a caterer, the viands and wines being of remarkably good quality. Grace having been said, the brethren adjourned to the smoking room to give an opportunity for laying the dessert. In a very short time the tables were tastefully dressed, and the brethren took their seats, the W.M. proceeding with the toast list. The first that received attention was "The Queen," which was followed by that of the Princess of Wales and the rest of the Royal Family. The W.M., in giving H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, said the post he occupied in Masonry, as well as that which he holds in the nation, entitled him to their love and respect. He, therefore, charged the brethren to drink his health with all honour. The next toast, which emanated from the chair, was that of the Pro Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, and Officers of Grand Lodge. The W.M. expressed his opinion that they had more to do in Masonry than the Prince. He would not occupy their time by further remarks, as doubtless the brethren were anxious to smoke. Bro. Hardy I.P.M., in submitting the health of the Prov. G.M. Bro. J. Fawcett, the D.G.M. Sir Hedworth Williamson, and Officers of Grand Lodge, was sure the toast required no words of his to ensure it a hearty and enthusiastic reception. He regretted they had not had the honour of having the P.G.M. with them that day, but they had been favoured with the presence of two worthy and distinguished Officers, namely, the P.G. Sec. and the P.G.D.C. He trusted they had been satisfied with what they had seen; he should therefore couple with the toast the names of Bros. Crookes and Hudson. Bro. Crookes P.G. Sec. in replying, thanked them cordially for the way they had spoken of the Prov. Grand Officers, but more particularly for the way the Prov. Grand Master had been mentioned; he was sure all were proud of serving under a Mason like him. When it is remembered that he is a man of eighty years of age, he truly takes a good deal of trouble and interest in Masonry. Another thing they all might be proud of was, that he installed the Prince of Wales as Grand Master, at which ceremony he (Bro. Crookes) acted as one of the Stewards. On behalf of the Past Grand Officers, Bro. Hudson after expressing his thanks, congratulated the brethren on their Lodge room and the beautiful hall in which they met, which could not fail to impress the candidates with a proper feeling during the ceremonies. He also complimented the Installing Master on the perfect way in which he had conducted the ceremony, and hoped it would not be the last time he should have the pleasure of being amongst them. The W. Master then gave the toast of Earl Percy and the Officers of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Northumberland; it was in the sister Province he had first seen the light of Masonry, being initiated by Bro. Knox, a distinguished Officer in that Province, whilst he was Master of the Northern Counties Lodge; he would, therefore, couple his name with the toast. Bro. Knox P.M. was afraid that the Province of Northumberland would suffer at his hands, and regretted that another Officer had not been selected to respond to the toast. Personally, he was delighted to be present that day, having initiated the W.M.; he hoped that each Province would continue to exchange Masons like him, and so cement the unity already existing. Bro. Wrath P.M. then gave "The Army, Navy, and Volunteers," to which Bros. Capt. Bold and Quartermaster McCulloch suitably replied. Bro. Hardy, in a few well chosen and flattering remarks, introduced "Health, prosperity and long life to the W.M." After dilating on his many good qualities, he called on the brethren to drink the toast with bumpers. The W.M., who was enthusiastically received, returned his sincere thanks not only for the way his name had been received, but also to the brethren for the proud position they had placed him in; he hoped to hand the Lodge over to his successor in as flourishing a state as he received it. Before sitting down he passed some well merited encomiums on Bro. Hardy, the I.P.M. and Installing Master. He was sure no words of his were required to insure his name being well received. Bro. Hardy felt amply repaid for anything he had done by the approbation of the brethren. The Visitors received a hearty welcome at the hands of Bro. Wrath, and the toast was responded to by Bros. Mackey, Don, Taylor, and Wilson. The next toast on the list was "The Press," proposed in suitable terms by Bro. Hardy, who expressed his pleasure at having four representatives present, amongst whom was one from the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE. Bro. J. H. Thompson (Newcastle Chronicle) acknowledged the compliment, and in course of his remarks intimated to the brethren that his Lodge at South Shields, St. Hilda, No. 240, would celebrate its centenary meeting on the 31st of next month, at which he hoped to see all the brethren. The Past and Present Officers, and the Masonic Charities also received due attention, and the Tyler was then called. Bro. McCulloch acted as toast Master in a very efficient manner. Some exceptionally fine harmony was kindly rendered by Bro. Leatham of Durham Cathedral, also some amusing songs and imitations by Bro. George Thompson. During the banquet some well executed selections were performed on the harmonium, which were most enjoyable. We must congratulate the brethren of this Lodge upon having such a convenient and splendid Hall to meet in, the fittings of which are both elaborate and complete; they are fortunate in having a brother amongst them like brother Bewick, who has furnished and fitted the hall throughout at a considerable outlay, and leased it to the Lodge at a nominal rental. We are sure this generosity on the part of Bro. Bewick is duly appreciated by every member of the Lodge.

A Fancy and Full Dress Ball will be held under the auspices of the Albert Edward Lodge, No. 1557, in the Town Hall, Hexham, on the 2nd of April. Bro. E. D. Davis Provincial Grand D.C. has kindly consented to officiate as M.C., assisted by Bro. W. M. Bell I.P.M. 1557 P.G.A.D.C., by whom this movement is initiated. There is every prospect of its being a very large and successful gathering, after which it is contemplated, we understand, to hold one in aid of the Masonic Charities.

St. Hilda Lodge, No. 240 South Shields, will hold its Centenary Festival on the 31st of next month. Preparations are being made to celebrate the event in a befitting manner.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.—The great vicissitudes of temperature, the fogs and the foul vapours which permeate the atmosphere, try the respiratory channels terribly; hence arise hoarseness, quinsies, loss of voice, bronchitis and the whole train and endless variety of throat and chest affections which now prevail. Neglect of these in their early stages is almost criminal, as many a life might be saved by early and prompt treatment, by means of Holloway's well known remedies. This treatment can be readily and easily carried out, and soon disposes of the attack in a most satisfactory manner, by restoring the balance between the circulation and respiration, by lessening the inflammation, abating the febrile symptoms, and by soothing the irritability of the nerves.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE,

A Weekly Record of Masonic Intelligence. Sanctioned by the Grand Lodge of England.

Price—13s 6d per annum, post free.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE will be forwarded direct from the Office, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C., (opposite Freemasons' Hall), on receipt of Post Office Order for the amount. Intending Subscribers should forward their full Addresses to prevent mistakes.

Post Office Orders to be made payable to W. W. MORGAN, at High Holborn Office. Cheques crossed "London and County."

SCALE OF CHARGES FOR ADVERTISEMENTS.

Per Page...	£8 0 0
Back Page	£10 0 0

Births, Marriages and Deaths, 1s per line.

General Advertisements, Trade Announcements, &c. single column, 5s per inch. Double Column Advertisements 1s per line. Special Terms for a Series of Insertions on application.

Advertisers will find THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE an exceptionally good medium for Advertisements of every class.

London:—W. W. MORGAN, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C. (Opposite Freemasons' Hall.)

Cloth Cases for Binding can be had from the Offices, price 1s 6d each.

Digitized by Google

THE FREEMASONS' TAVERN,

GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON. W.C.

The admirable and unrivalled accommodation provided at thi Establishment for

MASONIC BANQUETS,

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE DINNERS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, BALLS, &c.

Is too well known to need comment. The entire management has been changed, and the Establishment in all its branches thoroughly re-organised.

The attention of the Masonic Body is directed to the many advantages offered.

CUISINE OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER.

WINES PERFECT IN CONDITION AND QUALITY.

N.B.—DINNERS PROVIDED FROM 3/-.

RESTAURANT, WINE, SMOKING & RETIRING ROOMS.

The fullest measure of public confidence and support ensured.

BRO. ALFRED BEST, PROPRIETOR.

ANDERTON'S HOTEL,

F. H. CLEMOW, PROPRIETOR,

Nos. 162, 164 & 165 Fleet Street, and 7 & 11 Johnson's Court, London.

THE ACCOMMODATION OFFERED AT THIS ESTABLISHMENT FOR

MASONIC MEETINGS, BANQUETS, &c.

IS UNRIVALLED.

THE premises have lately been rebuilt, and in order to maintain the time-honored reputation of the house, as one of the centres of London Freemasonry, special attention has been paid to the furnishing of Lodge quarters, which now comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL

Specially constructed for Masonic purposes, with preparation room adjoining,

A LARGE BANQUET HALL

Fitted with every necessary for the comfort of Visitors, &c., &c.

ROOMS FOR LARGE OR SMALL DINNER PARTIES, MEETINGS, &c.

THE CATHEDRAL HOTEL,

CORNER OF

CHEAPSIDE & ST. PAUL'S CHURCHYARD.

—:o:—

F. J. SWEETING, Proprietor.

—:o:—

LUNCHEON BAR ON GROUND FLOOR FOR LIGHT REFRESHMENTS.

Soups, Fish, Chops, Steaks, Entrées, Cold Joints, &c. from Eight a.m. till Ten p.m.

DINING ROOMS ON FIRST FLOOR.

Hot Joints, &c. from Twelve o'Clock daily.
Dinners a la Carte. Teas, &c.

THE "CATHEDRAL HALF-CROWN DINNER'

(Soup, Fish, Joint)
Is served in the Saloon from Twelve till Five daily.

The Smoking Room overlooks the New Gardens round St. Paul's Cathedral.

PRIVATE ROOMS FOR SMALL PARTIES, MASONIC AUDITS, &c.

The following Lodges have recently held their Audit Meetings at this Hotel:—GROSVENOR, STANHOPE, POLISH NATIONAL, LA TOLERANCE, &c.

OPENING OF THE CRITERION ANNEXE.

SPIERS & POND respectfully beg to inform their Patrons, that to meet the increasing demands of their business at the Criterion, the premises have been greatly enlarged, by the addition of the above building. The principal features of the New Establishment are as follows:—

The Cafe, comprising—
The American Bar.
The Vienna Bier Saal.

VIANDS FROM THE NEW GRILL. SUPPERS SERVED TILL MIDNIGHT.

Oysters a Specialite.

The Victoria Hall, for Banquets, Balls, Wedding Breakfasts, Soirées, and Entertainments.

The Prince's and Carnarvon Rooms, for Masonic Meetings, Banquets, &c.

Private Rooms, suitable for the meetings of Public and Corporate Bodies, Arbitrations, &c.

The Criterion Departments.

Buffet	For Luncheons and Light Refreshments.
Restaurant	Dinners à la Carte.
Cigar Divan	Facing Piccadilly entrance.
Smoking Room ...	Adjoining the Buffet.
Grill Room	Entrance in Jermyn Street.
West Dining Room	Le Diner Parisien daily from 5.30	p.m., and on Sundays.
East Dining Room ...	Dinners à la Carte.
The Grand Hall ...	Table d'Hote daily, from 5.30 till 8 p.m. (also on Sundays at 6).
Private Rooms ...	For Dinners, Wedding Breakfasts, &c., &c.

DINNERS FROM THE JOINT from TWELVE to THREE o'clock, CHOPS and STEAKS from the GRILL till FIVE o'clock. T. MAIDWELL, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-st., City, E.C.

SAWYER'S (LATE STATION) RESTAURANT,

5 RAILWAY PLACE, FENCHURCH STREET, E.C.

ENGLISH, FRENCH & GERMAN CUISINE.

Hot and Cold Luncheons on the Ground Floor;
This Room will accommodate 100 persons.

CHOPS, STEAKS, &c., FROM THE GRILL;
The Grill Room will seat 150 persons.

REID'S TREBLE STOUT. WORTHINGTON'S ALES,
BERLIN TIVOLI BEER.

TEA AND COFFEE ALWAYS READY.

CHAMPAGNES OF THE BEST BRANDS. OLD BOTTLED PORTS.
SHERRIES AND OTHER WINES OF THE BEST QUALITY.

Bro. F. J. SAWYER, Proprietor.
Late of Pimm's, and the Crystal Palace.

FISH DINNERS IN PERFECTION

2S EACH, including Soups, Entrées, Poultry, Joints, Cheese, Salad, Served from 12 to 4 daily.—GEORGE TAVERN, Billingsgate Market.
Sole Proprietor, GEORGE SMITH, from Anderton's Hotel.

VITRUVIAN LODGE, No. 87.

BRO. ISAAC, who has for some time past provided for the requirements of this Lodge, begs to announce that he has obtained permission for the removal of his license to the Belvedere-road, and that he has erected commodious premises there. These comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL.
WITH ANTE ROOMS,
LARGE BANQUETTING HALL,

Together with every convenience for Masonic gatherings.

Applications from Secretaries and others for accommodation to be addressed.
G. ISAAC, "WHITE HART," COLLEGE STREET, LAMBETH, LONDON, S.E.

MASONIC HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS,

1 NOTTING HILL SQUARE, W.

THE SCHOOL has been established to provide a High Class Education to sons of Freemasons and others, on moderate terms. There are scholarships of the annual value of £10 to £20, and Exhibitions of £20. Terms for sons of Freemasons from 4 to 7 guineas per term, for other pupils from 5 to 8 guineas per term. For further particulars apply to the Secretary, or to

E. PASSAWER, LL.D.
Head Master.

FREEMASONS' CALENDAR and POCKET-BOOK, containing a complete list of all the regular Lodges and Royal Arch Chapters, with their places and times of meeting. Published for the benefit of the Charity Fund, under the sanction of the United Grand Lodge of England. May be had from W. W. Morgan jun., FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, London, W.C. Price 2s, post free.

Ninth Edition, post free, One Shilling.

DR. WATTS on ASTHMA. A Treatise on the only Successful Method of Curing the Disease. By ROBERT G. WATTS, M.D., F.R.S.L., &c., 5 Bulstrode-street, Cavendish-square, London.
London: MITCHELL AND Co., Red Lion-court, Fleet-street.

FURNITURE FOR LODGE OF INSTRUCTION.—Complete Set, nearly new, for Sale. Address, J. W. H., "FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE" Office, 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

FREEMASON'S THE HOLY BIBLE CHRONICLE

23 GREAT QUEEN STREET, W.C.

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND.

WE have pleasure in announcing that H.R.H. Prince Leopold has graciously consented to take the chair, and the Right Hon. the Earl of Rosslyn the vice-chair, at the first meeting of the Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund, which, by the appointment of H.R.H., will be held on Wednesday, the 10th of March next, at 3 p.m., in the Zetland Room of the Freemasons' Hall, special permission having been granted by the Board of General Purposes for the room to be used for the meeting. Unfortunately, the Committee meeting of the Royal Masonic Benevolent

Digitized by Google

Institution rendered it impossible for the regular Board Room being allowed. It is the wish of the founders that as many brethren as can make it convenient will attend, and as it is proposed then to announce the amount of subscriptions and promises received, it is hoped that brethren will make known as early as possible the amount of the support they intend to give, in order that the list may be properly prepared. It may also be pointed out that a knowledge of the amount likely to be subscribed will also give a better opportunity of deciding to what extent the benefits of the Fund shall be applied. We are informed that collecting sheets are now ready, and that the Secretaries will be pleased to receive the names of brethren willing to undertake the office of Steward, for which it has been decided there shall be no compulsory qualification, nor is there any fee payable on serving the office. Donations may be paid to the account of the Fund at the Bank of England (Burlington Gardens Branch), or sent to the Treasurer, Rev. C. J. Martyn, Long Melford, Suffolk, or to either of the Secretaries, Dick Radclyffe, 129 High Holborn, London, W.C., or W. W. Morgan jun., FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, London, W.C.

GRAND LODGE OF SCOTLAND.

A QUARTERLY communication of the G. Lodge of Scotland was held on 5th instant, in Freemasons' Hall, Edinburgh. There were about 400 of the brethren present, many of them being from country Lodges. The M.W.G.M. Sir Michael R. Shaw-Stewart, Bart., occupied the throne; Bro. F. A. Barrow P.S.G.W. acted as S.G.W.; and R. Shaw-Stewart was in his place as J.G.W. The Grand Master was supported by the Earl of Mar and Kellie Depute G.M., and A. Smollett of Bonhill Prov. G.M. Dumbartonshire acting Substitute G.M. Most of the Grand Officers were present, as were also many of the Past Officers and numerous representatives of Foreign and Colonial Grand Lodges. The Grand Secretary intimated that apologies for absence had been received from Brothers Colonel Campbell of Blythswood, the Earl of Haddington, Charles Dalrymple, M.P., the Earl of Breadalbane, and Captain Colt of Gartsherrie, &c. Brother R. F. Shaw-Stewart presented his commission as representative of "The Countries" Grand Lodge of Germany, and was congratulated thereon from the throne. Grand Lodge having been properly constituted, reports of the Proceedings of the Grand Lodges of West Virginia, Nova Scotia, and Massachusetts, and also a copy of a sketch of the Incorporation of Masons and the Lodge of Glasgow St. John, from the author, Brother James Cruickshank Past Depute Prov. G.M. of Glasgow City Province, were received with thanks. An abstract was submitted of the accounts of Grand Lodge for the year from 1st December 1878 to 29th November last, which showed the total estate at the close of the account to have been £16,704, or an increase of funds during the year of nearly £1,570. The income had been £1,450, and the expenditure £2,880. There had been about 4000 entrants and affiliations during the year. An abstract was also tabled of the accounts of the Masonic Benevolence Fund for the same period, which showed an increase of funds during the year of £259—the total estate at the close being £5,460. The income had been £644, and the expenditure £385, of which £350 had been specially voted to benevolent purposes by the committee, and £19 had been granted in casual charities. A vidimus by the Grand Cashier of the income and expenditure of Grand Lodge for the three months ending 24th January showed an income of £1,283, which exceeded the expenditure by £604. From a statement regarding the Fund of Benevolence, it appeared that grants to the amount of £72 had been voted during the quarter ending 29th January.

The resignation of Colonel W. Montgomerie Neilson of Queenshill as Prov. G.M. of Glasgow was accepted. In accordance with the recommendation of Grand Committee, it was resolved that fraternal relations be opened with the Grand Lodge of California, and Bro. John Mills Browne was appointed representative of Grand Lodge near that of California. Bro. Rollin Jewett Tucker was appointed Prov. G.M. of Bermuda, in room of the deceased Bro. Dr. F. J. Hunter. Grand Lodge ordered that charters be issued in favour of Lodges Cœur de Leon, Moruya, New South Wales, and St. George's, Grenada. It was resolved that the Province of which Bro. the Earl of Haddington has been appointed Grand Master be named the Province of Berwick and Roxburgh shires. Intimation was made of the dissolution of the Lodge Caledonian, Haskieu, Constantinople. Leave was given to the Lodge St. Luke's, Edinburgh (No. 44) to alter its name, to the effect of being known and designated in future as the Lodge of Holyrood House (St. Luke's).

Bro. W. Officer drew attention to the report by Grand Committee that the Grand Master had presented to Grand Lodge a minute book of the Lodge St. Andrew, Dumfries, No. 179, of which Burns was a member, bearing the Poet's signature to the bye-laws, and containing the minute of his admission, the mallet of St. Andrew, and an apron used in the Lodge in Burns' time. Burns held the post of Senior Warden in this lodge during the year ending 30th November 1793. The last meeting of the Lodge at which he was present was held in the Coffee house on 14th April 1796, just three months before his death on 21st July. The Lodge was chartered in 1774, but was cut off the roll of Grand Lodge in 1816. The minute of the poet's affiliation is as follows:—"Saint John's Day, 27th December 1788.—The brethren having celebrated the anniversary of St. John in the usual manner, and Bro. Robert Burns, in Ailliesland, of St. David's, Strabolton, Lodge No. 178, being present, the Lodge unanimously assumed him a member of the Lodge, being a Master Mason; and he subscribed the Regulations as a Member. Thereafter the Lodge was shut.—Sim Mackenzie." Grand Committee had already thanked the Grand Master; and Bro. Officer moved that Grand Lodge should now mark its recognition of the present by according a vote of thanks for it. The motion was carried with acclamation; and the Grand Master, in replying, assured the brethren it had given him great pleasure to be able to present these interesting relics to the Grand Lodge of Scotland.

Bro. William Mann then rose to present to Grand Lodge a duplicate of the marble bust of the Grand Master which was lately presented to Lady Octavia-Shaw Stewart, in recognition of the services which her husband had rendered to Grand Lodge during the past six years. In doing so, he said that during that period Grand Lodge had passed from a state of disorganisation and discredit to a state of prosperity and order. He was quite sure a great deal of this had been brought about by the kindness and wise direction of the Grand Master. The bust, which is an excellent likeness of the Grand Master, was then unveiled amid cheers, and in a few complimentary sentences Bro. Mann, on behalf of the Freemasons of Scotland, asked the Grand Master to accept of the bust, to be retained in Grand Lodge through all time.

The Grand Master then asked, whether it was the pleasure of Grand Lodge that the bust be accepted? and this being answered by prolonged cheers, he proceeded to say—That being agreed to, allow me, for my own part, to return you my most sincere thanks for the honour you have done me. As my old friend, Bro. Mann has said, the Masons of Scotland have already paid me a great compliment in the most kind manner in presenting to my wife an excellent likeness of her husband, the Grand Master Mason—presented to herself at her own fireside, there to remain a memorial for my children, and a pleasure and an interest now to many friends coming about Ardgowan. Brethren, you have done more than this, kind as that act was. You have judged me fit to have my bust placed in Grand Lodge—a very great honour indeed. It is no small compliment to be thought worthy of having one's bust placed in the same line with those two already in Grand Lodge. Looking at these likenesses, of Whyte-Melville and Dalhousie, I cannot but remember that it was with very great misgivings, when more than six years ago you did me the honour to elect me to the throne, that I found myself the successor of those able Grand Masters. By no means strong in health at that time, I foresaw great difficulties in succeeding these men, to say nothing of my immediate predecessor, the vivacious and accomplished Lord Rosslyn. I remember expressing in Grand Lodge on that occasion my diffidence and fears as to my success; but I also remember assuring Grand Lodge that I would, as far as it was in my power, devote myself to the interests of Scottish Masonry; and, brethren, your kindness, your very great kindness, shows me that you kindly appreciate my efforts on behalf of Masonry. I do not wish to detain you by making a long speech. I thank my old friend Bro. Mann for the kind words in which he has alluded to me. Believe me that your handsome present to Lady Octavia, your kindness to myself, the confidence you have shown in me, and your friendship, and, moreover, the high honour which you pay me this evening, during my life will ever be gratefully remembered. Cheers were given also for Lady Octavia Shaw-Stewart and the Grand Master's family.

Grand Lodge next proceeded to the election of brethren to act as Members of Grand Committee, in room of Bros. George H. Thoms, W. J. C. Abbott, Chas. L. Ramsden, William Niven, Wm. Barton, Dr. John Middleton, John Davidson, John Beveridge, William Officer, James Turner, William Barry, and James Caldwell, who retired by rotation, and William Edwards and William MacLean jun. who held office ad interim. There were twenty-nine nominations, and the following were elected, with the number of votes mentioned:—Bros. James Turner, Edinburgh, 336; Hon. Francis Jeffrey Moncreiff, Edinburgh, 327; Sheriff G. H. Thoms, Edinburgh, 310; John Crombie, Aberdeen, 254; William Edwards, Edinburgh, 231; William Officer, Edinburgh, 227; James Caldwell, Paisley, 226; Charles L. Ramsden, Edinburgh, 220; William Barton, Edinburgh, 205; W. J. C. Abbott, Edinburgh, 197; William Barry, Leith, 195; John Davidson, Edinburgh, 186; David Hume, Dysart, 186; and William Niven, Edinburgh, 180.

Grand Lodge was then closed in due form.—Edinburgh Courant.

Obituary.

WE regret to record the death, on the 10th inst., at his residence, 138 Milkwood-road, S.E., of Bro. Charles Lambert Marshall, at the early age of 46. Our esteemed lamented brother formerly held a distinguished position in the 10th Hussars—retiring shortly after the Crimean war, at which campaign he was present. During the early part of our volunteer movement he took an active part in the development of three regiments, and being an excellent fencer and swordsman, assisted at many of those "Assaults of Arms" which have now become so popular. In the Craft he obtained high honours, being P.M. of the Neptune, No. 22, and P.Z. to Mount Sion Chapter, No. 22, besides a member of several other Orders. After a successful career in business, he retired into private life only six weeks before the G.A.O.T.U. thought fit to summon him—having survived his wife, to whom he was devotedly attached, 17 months. His remains were interred on Monday last, at Norwood Cemetery, during a storm of wind and rain. As we took a last look at the resting place of our departed brother the dark clouds cleared away and the sun shone brilliantly, as if nature herself was emblematically suggesting that although the grave seemed dull and dreary, future life is bright beyond. The principal mourners were Mr. Charles E. Marshall (eldest son of the deceased), Bro. W. Shury Marshall W.M. 1549 (only surviving brother), Messrs. C. E. Santry, Arthur and William Ashwell, Pearce, Bull, and Fisher.

Digitized by Google

DIARY FOR THE WEEK.

We shall be obliged if the Secretaries of the various Lodges throughout the Kingdom will favour us with a list of their Days of Meeting, &c., as we have decided to insert only those that are verified by the Officers of the several Lodges.

—:o:—

SATURDAY, 21st FEBRUARY.

108—Percy, Jolly Farmers, Southgate Road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1361—Earl of Zetland, Nags Head, Mare-street, Hackney, at 7 (Instruction)
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
1941—Crichton, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell
1732—Kings Cross, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8.

309—Prince George, Private Rooms, Bottoms, Eastwood
1584—Loyalty and Charity, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge

MONDAY, 23rd FEBRUARY.

4—Royal Somerset House and Inverness, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
45—Strong Man, New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, at 8 (Instruction)
58—London Masonic Club Lodge of Instruction, 101 Queen Victoria-street, at 8
174—Sincerity, Railway Tavern, London-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
180—St. James's Union, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
548—Wellington, White Swan, High-street, Deptford, at 8 (Instruction)
704—Camden, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
1306—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-st., Wapping, at 8 (Instruction)
1425—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-rd., Paddington, at 8 (Instruction)
1445—Prince Leopold, Mitford Tavern, Sandringham-road, Dalston, at 8 (Inst.)
1492—Marquess of Ripon, Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-rd., Hackney, at 7.30 (In.)
1608—Kilburn, Queen's Arms Hotel, Kilburn
1615—Bayard, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square
1623—West Smithfield, New Market Hotel, King-st., Snow-hill, at 8 (Inst.)
1625—Tredegar, Royal Hotel, Mile End-road, corner of Burdett-road (Inst.)
1632—Stuart, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell
1818—Clapham, Alexandra Hotel, Clapham Common

48—Industry, 34 Denmark-street, Gateshead
61—Probity, Freemasons' Hall, St. John's-place, Halifax
62—Social, Queen's Hotel, Manchester.
148—Lights, Masonic Rooms, Warrington
284—Nelson of the Nile, Freemasons' Hall, Batley
302—Hope, New Masonic Hall, Darley-street, Bradford
307—Prince Frederick, White Horse Hotel, Hebden Bridge
408—Three Graces, Private Rooms, Haworth
467—Tudor, Red Lion Hotel, Oldham
613—Unity, Masonic Hall, Southport
724—Derby, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8 (Instruction)
820—Lily of Richmond, Greyhound, Richmond, at 7.30 (Instruction)
909—Robert Burns, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester
1177—Tenby, Royal Assembly Rooms, Tenby, Pembroke
1440—Royal Military, Masonic Hall, Canterbury, at 8 (Instruction).
1812—Legiolinm, Masonic Hall, Carlton-street, Castleford
1575—Clive, Corbet Arms, Market Drayton
R. A. 241—Friendship, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
R. A. 448—Regularity, Freemasons' Hall, St. John's-place, Halifax
R. A. 827—St. John, Masonic Temple, Halifax-road, Dewsbury

TUESDAY, 24th FEBRUARY.

14—Tuscan, Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street, W.C.
55—Constitutional, Bedford Hotel, Southampton-bldgs., Holborn, at 7 (Inst.)
65—Prosperity, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
92—Moira, Criterion, Piccadilly, W.
141—Faith, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
145—Prudent Brethren, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
177—Domatic, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
186—Industry, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
205—Israel, Cannon-street Hotel, E.C.
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney (Instruction)
753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
860—Dalhousie, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1044—Wandsworth, Star and Garter Hotel, St. Ann's-hill, Wandsworth (Inst.)
1196—Urban, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
1340—Friars, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1360—Royal Arthur, Prince's Head, Battersea Park, at 8 (Instruction)
1446—Mount Edgcumbe, 19 Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1471—Islington, Three Bucks, 23 Gresham-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
1472—Henley, Three Crowns, North Woolwich, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1507—Metropolitan, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate-st., at 7.30 (Inst.)
1558—D. Connaught, Palmerston Arms, Grosvenor Park, Camberwell, at 8 (In.)
1602—Sir Hugh Myddelton, Crown and Woolpack, St. John's-st.-rd., at 8 (In.)
1707—Eleanor, Trocadero, Broad-street-buildings, Liverpool-street, 6.30 (Inst)
1744—Royal Savoy, Ashley's Hotel, Covent Garden
Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement, Jamaica Coffee House, Cornhill, 6.30.

24—Newcastle-on-Tyne, Freemasons' Hall, Grainger-st., Newcastle, 7.30 (In.)
51—Angel, Three Cups Hotel, Colchester
117—Wynnstay, Raven Hotel, Shrewsbury, at 8 (Instruction)
126—Silent Temple, Cross Keys Inn, Burnley
241—Merchants, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 6.30 (Instruction)
253—Tyrian, Masonic Hall, Gower-street, Derby
299—Emulation, Bull Hotel, Dartford
310—Union, Freemasons' Hall, Castle-street, Carlisle
357—Apollo University, Masonic Hall, Oxford
373—Socrates, George Hotel, High-street, Huntingdon
573—Perseverance, Shenstone Hotel, Hales Owen
624—Abbey, Masonic Hall, Union-street, Burton-on-Trent
779—Ferrers and Ivanhoe, Town Hall, Ashby-de-la-Zouch
897—Loyalty, Ficece Inn, St. Helens, Lancashire
986—Hesketh, Grapes Inn, Croston
1016—Elkington, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham
1214—Scarborough, Scarborough Hall, Caledonia-road, Batley
1343—St. John's Lodge, King's Arms Hotel, Grays, Essex.
1358—Torbay, Town Hall, Paignton
1506—Ellington, Bell Hotel, Maidenhead
1587—St. Giles, Royal Oak Hotel, Cheadle
1609—Dramatic, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1675—Antient Briton, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
R.A. 158—Adam, Masonic Rooms, Victoria Hall, Trinity-road, Sheerness
R. A. 731—Grosvenor, Masonic-chambers, Eastgate-row-north, Chester
R. A. 833—Everton, Masonic Hall, Liverpool

WEDNESDAY, 25th FEBRUARY.

183—Confidence, Railway Tavern, London-street, at 7 (Instruction)
213—Euphrates, Masons Hall, Basinghall-street, E.C.
228—United Strength, Hope and Anchor, Crowndale-rd., Camden-town, 8 (In.)
507—United Pilgrims, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
538—La Tolerance, Green Dragon, 2 Maddox-street, W., at 7.45 (Inst.)
781—Merchant Navy, Silver Tavern, Burdett-road, E.
813—New Concord, Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
862—Whittington, Red Lion, Poppin's-court, Fleet-street, at 8 (Instruction)
1185—Lewis, King's Arms Hotel, Wood Green, at 7 (Instruction)
1278—Burdett Coutts, Salmon and Ball, Bethnal Green-road, at 8 (Inst.)
1288—Finsbury Park, Alwyne Castle, Highbury, at 8 (Instruction)
1624—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion Road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1708—Progress, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
R. A. 177—Domatic, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-st., at 8 (Instruction)

32—St. George, Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool
86—Loyalty, Masonic Hall, Prescot, Lancashire
117—Salopian of Charity, Raven Hotel, Shrewsbury
125—Prince Edwin, White Hart Hotel, Hythe, Kent
128—Prince Edwin, Bridge Inn, Bolton-street, Bury, Lancashire
163—Integrity, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester
220—Harmony, Garston Hotel, Garston, Lancashire
258—Amphibious, Freemasons' Hall, Heckmondwike
277—Friendship, Freemasons' Hall, Union-street, Oldham
304—Philanthropic, Masonic Hall, Great George-street, Leeds
380—Integrity, Masonic Temple, Commercial-street, Morley, near Leeds
387—Airedale, Masonic Hall, Westgate, Shipley
439—Scientific, Masonic Room, Bingley
580—Harmony, Wheat Sheaf, Ormskirk]
906—Segontium, The Castle, Carnarvon.
724—Derby, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
755—St. Tudno, Freemasons' Hall, Llandudno
758—Ellesmere, Freemasons' Hall, Runcorn, Cheshire
910—St. Oswald, Masonic Hall, Ropergate, Pontefract
972—St. Augustine, Canterbury (Inst.)
986—Sondes, Eagle Hotel, East Dereham, Norfolk
1039—St. John, George Hotel, Lichfield
1083—Townley Parker, Mosley Hotel, Beswick, near Manchester
1085—Hartington, Masonic Hall, Gower-street, Derby. (Instruction.)
1119—St. Bede, Mechanics' Institute, Jarrow
1218—Prince Alfred, Commercial Hotel, Mossley, near Manchester
1219—Strangeways, Empire Hotel, Strangeways, Manchester
1264—Neptune, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7. (Instruction.)
1283—Ryburn, Central-buildings, Town Hall-street, Sowerby Bridge
1302—Egerton, Stanley Arms Hotel, Stanley-street, Bury, Lancashire
1479—Halsey, Town Hall, St. Albans
1511—Alexandra, Hornsea, Hull (Instruction)
1633—Avon, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester
1645—Colne Valley, Lewisham Hotel, Slaithwaite
1723—St. George, Commercial Hotel, Town Hall-square, Bolton
1797—Southdown, Hurstpierpoint, Sussex
R. A. 42—Unanimity, Derby Hotel, Bury, Lancashire.
R. A. 503—Belvidere, Star Hotel, Maidstone.
R. A. 1356—De Grey and Ripon, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
M. M.—Northumberland and Berwick, Masonic Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle
M. M. 178—Wiltshire Keystone, Town Hall, Devizes.
R.C.—Philips, Masonic Rooms, Athenæum, Lancaster

THURSDAY, 26th FEBRUARY.

General Committee, Girls' School, Freemasons' Hall, at 4
3—Fidelity, Yorkshire Grey, London-street, Fitzroy-sq., at 8 (Instruction)
15—Kent, Checquers, Marsh-street, Walthamstow, at 7.30 (Instruction)
27—Egyptian, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7.30 (Instruction)
65—Prosperity, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
87—Vitruvian, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth, at 8 (Instruction)
90—Shakespeare, Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
211—St. Michael, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate Street, at 8 (Inst.)
435—Salisbury, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8 (Inst.)
754—High Cross, Conch and Horses, Lower Tottenham, at 8 (Instruction)
1227—Upton, King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., at 8. (Instruction.)
1426—The Great City, Masons Hall, Masons Avenue, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
1563—City of Westminster, Regent Masonic Hall, Air-street, Regent-street, W.
1614—Covent Garden, Nag's Head, James-street, Covent Garden, at 7.45 (In.)
R. A. 217—Stability, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
R. A. 753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
R.A. 766—William Preston, Cannon-street Hotel, E.C.
R. A. 1471—North London, Jolly Farmers', Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Inst.)

78—Imperial George, Assheton Arms Hotel, Middleton, Lancashire
100—Friendship, Crown and Anchor, Great Yarmouth.
111—Restoration, Freemasons' Hall, Archer-street, Darlington
203—Ancient Union, Masonic Hall, Liverpool at 7.30. (Inst.)
240—Mariners, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8. (Inst.)
286—Samaritan, Green Man Hotel, Bacup
340—United Brethren, Royal Oak Inn, Clayton-le-Dale, near Blackburn
344—St. John, Bull's Head Inn, Bradshawgate, Bolton
350—Charity, Grapes Inn, Stonecrough, near Manchester
369—Limestone Rock, Masonic Hall, Church-street, Clitheroe
432—Abbey, Newdegate Arms, Nuneaton
456—Foresters, White Hart Hotel, Uttoxeter
462—Bank Terrace, Hargreaves Arms Hotel, Accrington
594—Downshire, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
784—Wellington, Public Rooms, Park-street, Deal
807—Cabbell, Masonic Hall, Theatre-street, Norwich
904—Phœnix, Ship Hotel, Rotherham
935—Harmony, Freemasons' Hall, Islington-square, Salford
966—St. Edward, Literary Institute, Leek, Stafford
1125—St. Peter, Masonic Hall, Tiverton, Devon
1313—Fermor, Masonic Hall, Southport, Lancashire
1325—Stanley, 214 Gt. Homer-street, Liverpool, at 8. (Instruction.)
1459—Ashbury, Justice Birch Hotel, Hyde-road, West Gorton, near Manchester
1505—Emulation, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1612—West Middlesex, Feathers' Hotel, Ealing, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
1626—Hotspur, Masonic Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle
R. A. 216—Sacred Delta, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
R. A. 360—Northampton, Masonic Hall, Abington-street, Northampton
R. A. 431—Ogle, Masonic Hall, Norfolk-street, North Shields.
R. A. 1086—Walton, Skelmersdale Masonic Hall, Kirkdale, Liverpool
M. M. 34—St. Andrew, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester

FRIDAY, 27th FEBRUARY.

Emulation Lodge of Improvement, Freemasons' Hall, at 7.
25—Robert Burns, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
507—United Pilgrims, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
569—Fitzroy, Head Quarters, Hon. Artillery Company, City-road, E.C.
766—William Preston, Feathers' Tavern, Up. George-st., Edgware-rd. 8 (Inst.)
834—Ranelagh, Six Bells, Hammersmith (Instruction)
902—Burgoyne, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Duke's Head, 79 Whitechapel-road, at 8 (Instruction)
1056—Metropolitan, Portugal Hotel, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 7 (Instruction)
1158—Belgrave, Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1288—Finsbury Park M.M., Earl Russell, Isledon-road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1298—Royal Standard, Alwyne Castle, St. Paul's-road, Canonbury, at 8 (In.)
1365—Clapton, White Hart, Lower Clapton, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1642—E. Carnarvon, Mitre Hotel, Goulborne-rd, N. Kensington, at 8.0 (Inst.)
R. A. 79—Pythagorean, Portland Hotel, London-street, Greenwich, at 8 (Inst.)

401—Royal Forest, Hark to Bounte Inn, Slaidburn.
404—Watford, Freemasons' Hall, Watford.
460—Sutherland of Unity, Castle Hotel, Newcastle-under-Lyme.
652—Holme Valley, Victoria Hotel, Holmfirth.
780—Royal Alfred, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, at 7.30 (Inst.)
810—Craven, Devonshire Hotel, Skipton
1034—Eccleshill, Freemasons' Hall, Eccleshill
1102—Mirfield, Assembly Rooms, Eastthorpe, Mirfield
1385—Gladsmuir, Red Lion, Barnet
1393—Hamer, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1621—Castle, Crown Hotel, Bridgnorth
1712—St. John, Freemasons' Hall, Grainger-street, Newcastle
General Lodge of Instruction, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham, at 7
R. A. 242—Magdalen, Guildhall, Doncaster
R. A. 680—Sefton, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
R. C. 20—Masonic Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle

SATURDAY, 28th FEBRUARY.

House Committee, Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution, Croydon, at 3
108—Percy, Jolly Farmers' Tavern, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1361—Earl of Zetland, Nags Head, Mare-street, Hackney, at 7 (Instruction)
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
1706—Orpheus, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8
149 Peace, Private Rooms, Meltham.
1462—Wharncliffe, Rose and Crown Hotel, Penistone
R. A. 178—Harmony, Royal Hotel, Wigan.

Digitized by Google

NOTICES OF MEETINGS.

Egyptian Lodge of Instruction, No. 27.—A meeting was held on Thursday, 19th inst., at Bro. Maidwell's, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C. Bros. H. J. Phillips W.M., J. Da Silva S.W., J. B. King J.W., C. H. Webb Preceptor, L. Norden Secretary, A. Abrahams S.D., E. J. Ward J.D., J. Gartley I.G., A. Ellis, Hall, &c. The usual preliminaries were observed, and the W.M. rehearsed the ceremony of initiation, Bro. Abrahams candidate. Lodge was advanced, and the W.M. vacated the chair in favour of Bro. Norden, who rehearsed the ceremony of raising, Bro. Hall candidate. Bro. Taylor worked the second and third sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. The Lodge was resumed in the first degree. Bro. Hall was unanimously elected a member of this Lodge of Instruction. A vote of thanks was recorded on the minutes to the presiding W.M., Bro. H. J. Phillips, for the efficient manner in which he had performed the duties, for the first time. All business being ended, the Lodge was closed in perfect harmony.

Beaudesert Lodge of Mark Masters, No. 97.—A meeting was held on Thursday, 12th February, at the Lodge rooms, Linslade, Leighton Buzzard. Present:—Bros. Howell P.M. as W.M., H. Poynter S.W., J. Williamson P.M. J.W., Fountaine P.M. Treasurer, McLean Secretary, McCubbin P.M., McDowall M.O., Morgan, Mickley, Gibbs Tyler. Lodge was opened and minutes read and confirmed. Bro. Knight of Lodge 948 was ballotted for; the result proving unanimous in his favour, he was advanced to the degree of M.M.M. Lodge was closed, and the brethren dined together.

Chapter of Elias Ashmole, No. 148, Warrington.—An emergency Convocation of this flourishing Chapter was held at the Chapter Rooms, on Tuesday evening, 17th February. The M.E.Z. Comp. John Bowes P.Z. P.P.G.S.N. Cumberland and Westmoreland was supported by the Officers of the Chapter, and an unusually large attendance of members and visitors from Wigan, Manchester and Birkenhead. The Chapter having been opened and the Companions admitted, the ballot was taken respectively for Bros. J. Paul Ryland, F.S.A., William Robinson and Dr. Walter. The ballot proving unanimous in favour, and the brethren being present, they were severally introduced and exalted in ample form. The P.S. being Comp. P. J. Edelsten P.Z. The historic, symbolic and mystic lectures were given respectively by E. Comps. James Jackson J., P. J. Edelsten P.Z. and the M.E.Z. On the close of the Chapter the M.E.Z. invited the Companions to light refreshment, and a most pleasant hour was spent, during which the health of the newly-exalted Companions and the Visitors was drunk. In responding, the Companions all expressed themselves much edified by the manner in which the beautiful ceremony had been interpreted by the Officers of the Chapter.

Confidence Lodge of Instruction, No. 193.—At Bro. Seaton's, the Railway Tavern, Fenchurch-street Station, on Wednesday, 11th inst. Present—Bros. Sayer W.M., Biddle S.W., J. Smith J.W., Walker S.D.; Ramsay, A. W. Smith, and several others. The ceremony of passing was rehearsed, Bro. Smith candidate. The Lodge was opened in the second and third degrees and closed to the first. Bro. Biddle was elected W.M. for the ensuing week. Business being ended, the Lodge was closed in due form, and adjourned.

On 18th inst., Bros. Walker W.M., James Smith S.W., John E. Fells J.W., W. Woodward D., Albert Kahn I.G., J. K. Pitt Sec., A. W. Smith, P. Tobias, W. Saint, &c. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. J. Kahn candidate. The questions for passing were put and the Lodge was opened in the second degree. Bro. A. W. Smith, a candidate for passing, answered the usual questions, and the Lodge being opened in the third degree, he was raised in due form. The Lodge was closed in the third and second degrees. The Lodge was called off and on, and the W.M. gave the Ancient Charge for the instruction of those assembled. The S.W. was unanimously elected W.M. for next Wednesday evening, 7 o'clock.

Prosperity Chapter, No. 290.—The regular Convocation of this Chapter was held on Wednesday, 11th instant, at the Masonic Hall, South Parade, Huddersfield. The attendance of members was but meagre, compared with previous meetings. Chapter was opened by Comp. B. Hutchinson P.Z., for Comp. Allen Haigh Z. (absent), George Sykes H., Farrer J. The minutes having been read and confirmed, the only business—the election of Officers for the ensuing year—was proceeded with, and resulted as follows:—Comps. George Sykes Z. (unfortunately not unanimous), Farrers H. and J., B. Hutchinson P.Z. Treasurer, Wheawell S.E., Clark Turner Kaye S.N., J. Beanland P.S., and Smith J. There were also present Comps. John W. Turner P.Z., Murphy, Dyson, L. Brierley, and a few others. Business being concluded, and Chapter closed, refreshments were partaken of, and the usual Loyal and R.A. toasts were proposed and responded to. The next meeting of the Chapter will be in November, when it is hoped to have a more successful year than the present, there having been but one ceremony during the season.

Wellington Lodge of Instruction, No. 548.—There was a large muster of the brethren of the South London district at the White Swan Hotel, Deptford, on Monday last, the 16th inst., on which occasion the Fifteen Sections were rehearsed by the members of this Lodge of Instruction, under the presidency of Bro. Milbourn, of the Union Waterloo Lodge, No. 13. The other Officers were Bros. Martin D.C. 879 S.W., Batchelor S.D. 548 P.S. 79 J.W., Anderson D.C. 1536 S.D., Ross D.C. 700 J.D., Coen 169 I.G., and Griffin P.M. 933 S.W. 1531 P.Z. 79 and 933 I.P.M. At the appointed hour seven p.m., Lodge was opened in the three degrees, and resumed in the first. The minutes of the previous meeting were then read and confirmed, and a commencement of the special business of the meeting followed forthwith, the first and second sections of the Lecture being worked by the S.D., the third by Bro. Greenwood 1571, the fourth by Bro. Duffield 87 and 1571, the fifth and sixth by the W.M.—the questions being put by Bro. Griffin, who holds the position of Preceptor and Treasurer to the Lodge of Instruction—and the seventh by the S.W. The Lodge was then called from labour to refreshment, and after a brief adjournment, was resumed in the second degree. The lecture appertaining thereto was then rehearsed, the first section by Bro. Gloster W.M. 1531 S.D. 1326, the second by Bro. Hutchins S.W. 147 J.W. 1531, the third by Bro. Taylor W.M. 753, the fourth by Bro. Linniker J.D. 554, and the fifth by the S.W. The Lodge being resumed in the third degree, the three concluding sections were worked—the first by the J.D., the second by Bro. Gibson Hon. Sec. to the Lodge of Instruction, and the third by the S.W. The Lodge was then resumed in the first degree. We may state that the working was in all respects most admirably performed, and reflected the utmost credit upon all concerned. That this was so is evidenced by the fact that unanimous votes of thanks were tendered to Bro. Milbourn and to the brethren who assisted him in the labours of the evening. Prior to to the closing of the Lodge, Bros. Anderson of the United Military Lodge, No. 1536, and Pye of the West Lancashire Lodge, No. 1403, were elected members.

Yarborough Lodge of Instruction, No. 554.—The regular meeting was held on the 17th inst., at the "Green Dragon," Stepney. Bro. E. W. Walter in the chair; Bros. J. Godwin S.W., Forss J.W., W. Cross Deacon, Mackenrot I.G.; P.M.'s Borry Preceptor, T. J. Barnes and J. H. Thorn; also I. P. Cohen, J. Taylor, C. Veal, W. Hawes, J. Andrews. Lodge was opened in due form and the ceremony of raising was worked, Bro. Veal candidate. Bro. J. Taylor worked the 1st and 3rd sections of the lecture, with the assistance of the brethren. Bro. Andrews W.M. 1227 was elected to the chair for the 9th March. The Annual Supper will take place on the 2nd March, when we hope there will be a full meeting.

Royal Alfred Lodge of Instruction, No. 780.—At the Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, on Friday evening, 13th February. Present:—Bros. Acworth W.M., F. Botley S.W., Maton J.W., Gomm S.D., C. E. Botley J.D., Goss (P.M.) I.G., Roe (P.M.) Preceptor, Tucker Treas., Gunner Hon. Sec., Blasby, Irwin, Dorey, Andrews P.M. 77, &c., Niner P.M. 710, &c., and other brethren. Lodge was opened and the minutes of last meeting were read, confirmed and signed. The sum of £1 1s was unanimously voted to a distressed brother, and the members kindly supplemented the vote by a subscription amongst themselves. The amounts were handed to the brother, who in touching terms referred to the vicissitudes of fortune which had fallen to his lot, and heartily thanked the brethren for their kindness. The business of the evening was then proceeded with. Bro. Acworth worked the ceremony of initiation, Bro. Niner kindly acting as candidate. Lodge was opened to 3rd, and closed to 1st degree. Bro. F. Botley was elected W.M. for the meeting on 20th inst. On the motion of Bro. Tucker, seconded by Bro. Roe, Bro. Andrews (P.M. 77) was unanimously admitted a member of this Lodge of Instruction. Bro. Blasby thanked the brethren for the hearty good wishes sent in their name to him by the Hon. Sec., on his marriage. In pursuance of notice given at the previous meeting the Hon. Sec., brought forward the motion,—"That a ball be given under the auspices of this Lodge of Instruction, towards meeting the expenses incurred in acquiring additional premises for the Girls' School." Bro. Gunner expressed it as his conviction that it was the duty of every Mason to endeavour to reduce the strain upon the Funds consequent upon such acquisition; and his willingness to lend a hand in that direction. Bro. F. Botley seconded the proposition in a humorous speech, and Bros. Roe, Goss, Tucker and others expressed their views on the subject, which provoked considerable discussion. The general view appeared to be that sufficient notice had not been given, as many brethren present had not heard of the matter till this evening, after some discursory remarks, and questions to Bro. Gunner regarding expense &c., connected with the proposed ball, the matter was put to the vote. So few of the brethren voted that Bro. Gunner expressed his great disappointment at the failure, for the present, of his motion, and with the consent of Bro. F. Botley (the seconder) begged to withdraw his proposition. Being urged by the W.M. and several brethren not to withdraw the motion, but to bring it forward on another occasion, the Hon. Sec. explained that his experience of such matters was, that from the first step it was absolutely necessary that all should pull together, for a perfect success could never be expected or obtained where, at the outset, one or two adverse voices were raised, he begged, with due respect to the chair, to decline to alter his resolve at least for the present. Bro. Blasby then gave notice that he would at the next meeting, bring forward a motion of a similar purport to that withdrawn by the Hon. Sec. Lodge was then closed in due form, and the meeting adjourned for a week.

Marquess of Ripon Lodge of Instruction—At the Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-road, Hackney, on Monday, 16th Feb., Bros. McMillan W.M., Jones S.W., Olley J.W., High S.D., Neville J.D., Martin I.G., J. Lorkin Secretary, C. Lorkin Preceptor, also Bro. Featherstone. Lodge was opened in due form, and minutes were read and confirmed. Bro. Featherstone, a candidate for the third degree, was interrogated, entrusted, and raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason. Bro. J. Lorkin worked the first section of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Thomas Jones was elected W.M. for the ensuing week.

Digitized by Google

NEW CONCORD LODGE BALL.

THE annual ball of this Lodge, No. 813, was held on 10th inst., at the Freemasons' Tavern, Great Queen St., London, under the presidency of Bros. R. R. Harper W.M. of the Lodge, who was supported by Bro. S. George the S.W., Vice President, and a strong list of Stewards. The gathering was a most enjoyable one, and we think all present enjoyed themselves. After the supper the usual toasts were honoured. Bro. Harper in proposing the health of the Stewards said that every one knew that the success or failure of gatherings like this mainly depended on the ability and energy of the Stewards. He flattered himself he had secured brethren who had one and all devoted themselves to ensuring complete success, a result he thought, beyond question, they had achieved. Bro. George replied, and then proposed the health of the President, to whom he said was due the honour of making the gathering what it really was. All who knew him were aware of his natural geniality, and he could assure those who did not, that no man existed who was more entitled to the respect of his fellows than their W.M. The President briefly responded. He felt amply repaid for any trouble he had taken in the arrangements for the evening by glancing at the pleasant faces he saw around him. He then proposed the toast of the evening—the Ladies. Personally, he thanked them for their attendance. He hoped the arrangements that had been made for their enjoyment had given satisfaction, and also that on many future occasions he should have an opportunity of welcoming them. Bro. Johnson, who throughout the evening acted as M.C., responded. The reputation of the Freemasons' Tavern for ball suppers is too well known to call for mention, and we are also aware that Bro. Best always desires that his guests should thoroughly enjoy what is put before them. To do this comfortably a little time is needed, as Bro. Best is doubtless aware, and perhaps he will take an opportunity of impressing this fact on the memory of his waiters, whose anxiety on this occasion somewhat affected the guests. Dining is, we believe, a fine art; so is cramming birds for the early markets. We have tried the former, but have no desire to extend our researches in the direction of the latter, more especially if we are to be the victims operated on.

THE GREAT CITY LODGE, No. 1426.

THE regular meeting of this Lodge was held on Saturday evening, 14th February, at the Cannon-street Hotel. Bros. Geo. W. Blackie W.M., R. Freeman I.P.M. (in the absence of Bro. Catchpole) S.W., Hamer J.W., N. B. Headon Treas. and acting Sec. The first business was the raising of Bro. Wood to the third degree, the ceremony being most efficiently performed by the W.M. The next item on the list was the passing of Bro. Murdoch, and this was followed by the initiation of Mr. Jury into the mysteries and privileges of ancient Freemasonry. On the W.M. rising for the second time, Bro. Headon said that he had received a letter from Bro. Moody, the Secretary, resigning his office. It was dated from Blackpool, 1st February, and was as follows:—

My Dear W.M.,—As it is almost certain that during the whole of the present year I shall be away from London, I feel that I cannot continue to do justice to the office of Secretary; and as I should be very sorry for the interests of the Lodge to suffer from the want of proper attention, I have decided, after serious consideration, and with much reluctance, to resign into your hands the collar you so kindly invested me with.

To this were added a few observations as to how the work might be carried on until his successor could be appointed. Bro. H. Thompson P.M. wished to know whether the decision to which Bro. Moody had come was irrevocable, or whether the causes that had drawn it forth were only temporary. Bro. Headon P.M. and Treas. said he believed that they were not temporary, and that indeed Bro. Moody had for some time past contemplated retiring from the office of Secretary. Bro. H. Thompson said that being so, he would, with the permission of Bro. Headon, who proposed merely to move that Bro. Moody's resignation be accepted, substitute for it the following resolution, viz.:—"That the resignation of Bro. Moody of his office of Secretary be accepted, but this Lodge cannot but express its most sincere regret at the retirement of so useful and able an Officer; and although no longer officially connected with them, this Lodge trusts that he may be long blessed with health, happiness, and prosperity, and continue for many years to be a member of The Great City Lodge." He said he need offer no observations in support of this motion, as he believed the kind and genial manners of Bro. Moody were so well known and appreciated that he should find no dissentient to it. Bro. Freeman I.P.M. said he should have great pleasure in seconding the motion, and after a few observations from one or two members, the motion was put and unanimously agreed to, and Bro. Headon undertook immediately to communicate the terms of the resolution to Bro. Moody. Bro. Headon said he had also received a letter from Bro. Catchpole Senior Warden, in which he also stated that in consequence of his almost continuous absence from London he felt compelled to resign his office as Senior Warden of the Lodge. This resignation was received with regret. Bro. Headon said he had received a communication in reference to the existing distress in Ireland, soliciting subscriptions towards the Mansion House Fund. Now, the only fund which they had available for such a purpose was the Samaritan, and he moved that the sum of ten guineas be voted from it to be applied to the Mansion House Fund for relieving the distress in Ireland. Bro. Freeman I.P.M. seconded the motion, which was agreed to with but one dissentient. Bro. Headon then brought forward a motion of which he had given notice at the last Lodge, "That the sum of twenty-five guineas be voted from the funds of the Lodge to be placed on the list of Bro. Blackie W.M., who represents this Lodge as Steward at the next Festival for the benefit of the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls." After a few observations this was also put and agreed to. The Lodge was then closed in due form, and with solemn prayer. There was no banquet, but most of the members assembled afterwards, when various questions were discussed, with a view of promoting the welfare of the Lodge, and several practical suggestions were thrown out, having for their object the extension of its usefulness and the continuation of its proceedings with economy.

Dalhousie Lodge of Instruction, No. 860.—Held at Bro. Smyth's, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, on Tuesday, 17th February. Bros. F. Carr W.M., Christian S.W., E. Williams J.W., Clark S.D., Smyth J.D., Baker I.G., J. Lorkin Secretary, F. Brasted acting Preceptor; also Bros. Dallas, Polak, Pettit, Allen, Hand, Fraser, Welford, and others. After preliminaries, Bro. Fraser was interrogated, entrusted, and raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason. Bro. Allen worked the first and third sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Fraser and Bro. Welford were elected members. Bro. Christian was appointed W.M. for the ensuing week. The Fifteen Sections will be worked at this Lodge by the brethren of the Royal Standard Lodge of Instruction on Tuesday evening next, at seven o'clock, by invitation. All Masonic business being ended, the Lodge was closed with solemn prayer, and adjourned.

St. Barnabas Chapter, No. 948.—A meeting was held on Thursday, 12th February, at the Chapter Rooms, Linalade, Leighton Buzzard. Present—Comps. F. Howell M.E.Z., H. Poynter P.Z. as H., Mickley J., Fountaine P.Z. Scribe E. and Treas., J. McCubbin P.Z. Scribe N., McDowall Principal Soj., Gibbs Janitor. Visitors—Comps. Williams P.Z. and McLean. Business—Chapter opened, minutes read and confirmed. Ballot for Bro. Knight, Lodge 948, unanimous. He was admitted and exalted. Comp. Williams, at the desire of the M.E.Z., gave the mystic lecture. Chapter closed. Companions afterwards dined together. Comp. Morgan, of the Elephant and Castle Hotel, catered to the great satisfaction of the Companions.

Beaudesert Lodge, No. 1087.—A meeting was held on Friday, 13th February, at the Corn Exchange, Leighton Buzzard. Present:—Bros. Green W.M., Holdom S.W. and Treas., Grafton J.W., Gotto P.M. Sec., Willis S.D., McCubbin P.M. J.D., Sandall I.G., Gibbs Tyler; Bros. Spiers, Platten. Visitors Bros. H. Poynter P.M. 1087 and 948, J. McCubbin P.M. 948, C. J. Morgan 948, and H. Willis 948. The Lodge was opened in ancient form; Bro. Platten, a candidate for the second degree was examined and entrusted, and on his re-admission was passed, Bro. P.M. Gotto performing the ceremony. Bro. Spiers, a candidate for the third was raised, and the working tools presented, and their uses, operative and speculative, explained by Bro. H. Poynter P.M. The W.M. now resumed his collar and chair, and closed the Lodge in the three degrees. It was announced to the Brethren by Bro. Sandall, the Treasurer of the Subscription Fund for raising a memorial stone over the grave of the late W.M. Bro. Harris, that the list was now complete, and a sub-committee was appointed to select the pattern the memorial should take. The brethren afterwards dined together at Bro. Pickering's.

Upton Lodge of Instruction, No. 1227.—Held at the King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., on Thursday, 12th instant. Bros. Peacock W.M., Patrick S.W., Legg J.W., Fenner Preo., Hine S.D., Serjeant J.D., Klein I.G.; also Bros. Silvas, Loeffler, Andrews, Gieseke. The Lodge was opened to the second degree, and the W.M. rehearsed the ceremony of installation, Bro. Hine being the candidate. The third section of the lecture was worked by Bro. Fenner, assisted by Bro. Patrick. Bro. Patrick was appointed W.M. for the ensuing week. Lodge was closed and adjourned.

Enfield Lodge, No. 1237.—The regular meeting of this Lodge was held on Monday, 9th inst., at the George Hotel, Enfield, under the presidency of Bro. Oxley, the W.M., who was assisted by the following Officers:—Bros. Taverner S.W., Peach J.W., Mathison Treas., Thompson Sec., Poore S.D., Bryant J.D., Fidler I.G., Very Tyler. Visitors:—Bros. Thorn W.M. 554, Jaffa W.M. 1579, G. Tegg 1579, Leaman 1707, and Garrod 754. The usual formalities having been duly observed in opening, the Lodge was advanced to the third degree, and the W.M. then raised Bro. F. C. Herbert, after which the Lodge was resumed in the first degree. The ballot was taken and proved in favour of Mr. Thomas Evans, who was that evening a candidate for Freemasonry, and he being in attendance was duly initiated into the mysteries of the Order. Other business of a minor character being disposed of, the Lodge was closed in ancient form, and the brethren adjourned for refreshment, presided over by the W.M., who gave the Loyal, Masonic, and other toasts, which were severally replied to, and a very enjoyable evening spent, the brethren separating at an early hour.

Burdett Coutts Lodge of Instruction, No. 1278.—A meeting was held on 11th inst., at Bro. Smith's, Salmon and Ball, Bethnal-green. Present—Bros. Clark W.M., Abrahams S.W., Lazarus J.W., Smith Treas., Hand S.D., Ward I.G., Hogg P.M. Preceptor; also Bros. Loveday, Britton, M. Christian, &c. The ceremony of passing was rehearsed, Bro. Loveday candidate. Lodge was resumed to first degree. Bro. Christian worked first, second and third, and Bro. Hogg fourth sections of the Lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Abrahams was elected W.M. for the ensuing week.

Friars Lodge of Instruction, No. 1349.—Held at Bro. Pavitt's, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, E., on Tuesday, 17th February. Bros. Worsley W.M., Myers P.M. S.W., Watkins J.W.,

Digitized by Google

Smith S.D., Spencer J.D., Power I.G., Worsley Secretary, Musto P.M. Preceptor; also Bros. Cope, Pavitt, Butler, White, Sadler, Barker, Nash, Dixon, and Plater. The Lodge was opened in due form, and the minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. Bro. Cope answered the necessary questions, and the ceremony of raising was rehearsed. The W.M. worked the whole of the lecture, assisted by the brethren, and the Lodge resumed to the first degree. Bro. Myers P.M. was unanimously elected W.M. for the ensuing week, when sections only will be worked, the Preceptor acting as S.W. and Bro. Candick P.M. as J.W. This should ensure a large attendance when three such excellent workers are performing the duties. The following brethren will assist in working the sections:—First, Spencer; second, Watkins; third, Rawe; fourth Myers; fifth, Andrews; sixth, Pavitt; seventh, Candick; eighth, Watkins; ninth, Johnson; tenth, McDonald; eleventh, Smith; twelfth, Worsley; thirteenth, Barker; fourteenth, Musto; fifteenth, A. Ellis. The supper will take place on the first Tuesday in April, that being the first anniversary of the Lodge.

Mornington Lodge, No. 1672.—The M.W. Grand Master has been graciously pleased to sanction the removal of this Lodge from Wanstead to the King's Head, Fenchurch Street. The usual Lodge meeting was held at the last-named well appointed establishment on Thursday, the 5th inst. After the ceremony of the 2nd degree had been most efficiently performed by Bro. Blackman W.M., ably assisted by his Officers, a capital repast was served by "mine host" Bro. Davies, in the Marble room, and a very pleasant evening was spent, Bro. Marsh P.M. making the most of the opportunity in the cause of charity. This young Lodge has some very earnest Masons and thorough workers in its ranks, and we predict for it, in its new palatial home, a highly prosperous career. At this meeting three candidates for initiation and one joining member were proposed.

Ancient Carthage Lodge, No. 1717 (E.C.), Tunis, North Africa.—A regular meeting of this Lodge was held on the 7th February. Present:—W. Bros. Dr. Perini W.M., Broadley D.D.G.M. I.P.M. and Secretary, Sulema P.M.; Bros. Soniller S.W., Pentecost J.W., Barsotti Treasurer, Bokopsa D. of C., Dr. Pace-Williams A.D. of C., De Gallais S.D., J. Gaudus J.D., Captain Johnstone Organist, Miviere Steward, Carriglio I.G. and Eymon Tyler; a fair attendance of members, and several visitors, including W. Bros. David Costa W.M. of the Italian Lodge Progresso Costituzionale, at Susa. The minutes having been confirmed, Bro. Fenech-Nuzzo was passed to the second degree, and Bros. Chaigne and Cohen raised to the sublime degree of M.M. The Lodge being lowered, the following honorary members were elected, at the proposition of Bro. Broadley D.D.G.M. Malta, supported by the S.W. and others, viz.:—Bros. R. Bower P.M. 29 Iowa, U.S.A., P.G.H.P. of Iowa, Rev. G. R. Portal P.M. 357, T. B. Whytehead P.M. 1611, J. S. Cumberland P.M. 1611, F. Davison P.M. 10, H. C. Levander P.M. 142, J. L. Thomas P.G.A.D. of C., F. Binckes P.G.S., D. M. Dewar P.M. 1627, Rev. T. Robinson P.M. 88 and 709, W. J. Beck P.M. 289, J. S. Eastes P.M. 709 D.P.G.M. Kent. It was decided to send these distinguished brethren certificates of their honorary membership. Two French Masons were proposed as joining members, having duly subscribed the declaration as to belief in a Supreme Being, according to the resolution of Grand Lodge on the 6th March 1878. Bro. Professor Clement remarked that, as an old French Mason, he was glad to say that a Conservative re-action was at work in the Grand Orient of France, which would speedily restore to French Masons their ancient formula. A report of the Permanent Committee as to finance having been adopted, the Lodge was closed and adjourned.

Royal Savoy Lodge, No. 1744.—An emergency meeting was held at Ashley's Hotel, Covent-garden, on Tuesday, 10th Feb. Present—Bros. Douglass W.M., Willing I.P.M. Treasurer as S.W., Jones S.D. as J.W., Stiles Sec., Smith as S.D., Sillis as J.D., Hare as I.G., Holt D.C., Daley Tyler; Gray, Verdin, Dickey (2), Armstrong, Ellis (2), Barham, &c. Visitor—Bro. Kauffmann D.C. 1732. The Lodge having met punctually at six, was opened in due form, and Messrs. W. Smith, W. T. Haycock, J. Fisher and W. Bagley were respectively introduced, and initiated into Freemasonry. The W.M. announced the satisfactory amount subscribed to the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution by the brethren, and the Lodge was then closed with solemn prayer.

The Fifteen Sections will be worked on the 22nd inst., at the Israel Lodge of Instruction, "Rising Sun," Globe Road, Bethnal Green. Bro. J. Taylor I.G. 554 will occupy the chair, and be assisted by Bro. T. J. Barnes P.M. 554 and 933 as S.W., Bro. I. P. Cohen P.M. 205 as J.W., and other distinguished brethren. The proceedings will commence at 7 o'clock precisely.

THE PRINCE OF WALES AT TRURO.

WHEN his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales lays the foundation stone of the Cathedral at Truro—as it is probable that it will be done with Masonic honours—the Freemasons of Devon would, to a very large extent, like to be associated in so interesting and important a ceremonial with their brethren of Cornwall. It will be remembered what a splendid gathering of the Freemasons of the combined western provinces of the two counties there was assembled to meet the Prince when he opened the New Guildhall at Plymouth. Then the venerable John Huyshe, the Grand Master of Devon, and the Earl of Mount Edgcumbe, the Grand Master of Cornwall, were present to welcome the Prince, with a gathering of Masonic brethren larger than, at that time, his Royal Highness had ever met before. It was certainly followed not long afterwards by that nobler gathering of Masons, when there were some seven thousand of them assembled, to see the Prince installed as the Grand Master of England, at the Albert Hall. Now, on the 20th of May next, I should like to see a repetition of the brotherly welcome afforded to the Prince when he visits the city of his own Dukedom, to be the chief actor in an event the like of which has not happened since the Reformation. The Earl of Mount Edgcumbe, although he is the G.M. of Cornwall, is a Devonshire Mason, and we have no doubt that he, too, would be glad to be surrounded with brethren from his own province. We trust that steps will be taken in time to ensure this combined action.—Western Daily Mercury.

IVORY HAIR BRUSHES
Mirrors & all other Ivory Toilet Articles,

& IVORY GOODS IN GENERAL,
Wholesale & for Exportation & the Trade only.

Worn Ivory Brushes Re-filled and Re-polished to look Equal to New.

Designs and Prices of Brushes and Mirrors, &c., on Application.

AT HENNIG BROS. Ivory Works,
11, HIGH STREET, LONDON, W.C.

LATEST NOVELTY.
MASONIC CHARM FOR CHAIN.
The whole of the working Tools complete as above.
MOUNTED IN GOOD GOLD AND ORNAMENTALLY ENGRAVED.
To be had of the maker on receipt of 35s.
E. PELIKAN, Manufacturing Jeweller,
No. 102 St. John Street Road, London, E.C.
P.O.O. to be made payable at the St. John Street Road Office.

CANNON STREET HOTEL, CANNON STREET, LONDON, E.C.
Has been thoroughly renovated; the Railway advantages, in direct communication with the Hotel, render this establishment unequalled in the Metropolis for
MASONIC BANQUETS, PUBLIC & PRIVATE DINNERS, BREAKFASTS, &c.
DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENTS, PUBLIC MEETINGS, ARBITRATIONS, &c.
THE LARGE HALL IS CAPABLE OF SEATING UPWARDS OF TWELVE HUNDRED PEOPLE.
VISITORS AND FAMILIES visiting LONDON, for LONG or SHORT PERIODS, will find the APPOINTMENTS, and ACCOMMODATION UNRIVALLED.
E. H. RAND, MANAGER.

LADBROKE HALL, NOTTING HILL, LONDON, W.
(Opposite the Notting Hill Station of the Metropolitan Railway, from which Trains run every few minutes to all parts of London, and in connection with the principal Lines of Railway.)
THE ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED FOR LODGE MEETINGS IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE DISTRICT.
LARGE LODGE AND BANQUET ROOMS, WITH EVERY CONVENIENCE.
THE HALL MAY BE ENGAGED for BANQUETS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, DINNERS, PUBLIC or PRIVATE ENTERTAINMENTS, &c.
Apply to Bro. J. LINSCOTT (at the Hall), 14 Ladbroke Grove Road, London, W.

Digitized by Google

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND,

Under the patronage and support of

H.R.H. The Prince of Wales, Grand Master of England.
H.R.H. The Duke of Connaught, K.G., P.S.G.W.
H.R.H. Prince Leopold, K.G., Past Jun. Grand Warden England, Prov. G.M. Oxfordshire.
Carnarvon The Right Hon. the Earl of, Pro Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
Skelmersdale Rt. Hon. Lord, Deputy Grand Master England, Prov. G.M. West Lancashire.
Abercorn His Grace the Duke of, G.M. Ireland.
Stewart Sir M. R. Shaw, Bart., G.M. Scotland.
Rosslyn Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Past Grand Master Scotland. [Scotland.
Athole His Grace the Duke of, K.T., P.G. Master
Arnold Rev. C. W., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Surrey.
Beach W. W. B., M.P., Prov. G. Master Hampshire and Isle of Wight
Bennett Sir John, C.C., Grand Stewards' Lodge.
Bird Reginald, M.A., S.G.D. England, Deputy Prov. G. Master Oxon.
Bright Sir Charles T., Dep. Prov. G.M. Middlesex.
Broadley A. M., D.D.G.M. Malta, Prov. G.M.M.M.
Brooke Right Hon. Lord, M.P. [Tunis and Malta.
Brownrigg General J. Studholme, C.B., Prov. Grand Master and Supt. Surrey.
Burdett Colonel Francis, Prov. Grand Master Middlesex, G. Supt. Middlesex, P.S.G.W., Rep. from Grand Lodge of Ireland.
Burrell Sir Walter W., Bart. M.P., P.G.M. Sussex.
Carington Right Hon. Lord
Calthorpe Maj.-Gen. Hon. Somerset J.G., J.G.W.
Clarke Hyde, Past Grand Master and Rep. from Grand Lodge of Columbia.
Clonmel Right Hon. Lord.
Cockcroft Lonsdale M., Deputy Prov. G. Master and Prov. G. Supt. Northumberland.
Ebrington Rt. Hon. Viscount, P.G.M. Devonshire.
Else Richard C., Dep. Prov. G.M. Somersetshire.
Ferrers Rt. Hon. the Earl, P.G.M. Leicestershire.
Ferrieres Baron de, Prov. G. Reg. Gloucestershire.
Gooch Sir Daniel, Bt., M.P., P.G.M. Berks & Bucks.
Grosvenor Right Hon. Lord Richard, P.S.G.W.
Guest Montagu J., Prov. G.M. Dorsetshire
Gundry J. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Dorset.
Halford Lieut.-Col. Sir Henry St. John, Bart., D. Prov. G. Master Leicestershire and Rutland.
Halsey Thomas F., M.P., P.G.M. Hertfordshire.
Hartington, Rt. Hon. Viscount, M.P., Prov. G. Master Derbyshire.
Hayes Rev. Sir John Warren, Bart., P.D.P.G.M. Berks and Bucks, P.G.C.
Henniker Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W., S.G.W.M.M., P.P.G.W. Suffolk.
Hickman W., P.A.G.D. of C., D. Prov. G.M. Hants and Isle of Wight.
Hill Right Hon. Lord Arthur.
Hutchs Rev. J., P.G.C., P.P.G.M. Devonshire.
Ilbs F. H. Wilson, M.D., Deputy Prov. G. Master Hertfordshire, Prov. G.H., &c.
Inverurie Rt. Hon. Lord, P.G.M. Kincardineshire, P.G. Supt. Angus and Mearns, S.G.W. Scotland.
Johnstone Sir Harcourt, Bt., M.P., P.J.G.W.
Jouitt Thomas, P.D.P.G.M Hereford.
Kensington Rt. Hon. Lord, M.P., S.G.W. England, D. Prov. G.M. S. Wales (Western Division.)
Lechmere Sir Edmund A. H., Bart., M.P., Prov. G.M. Worcestershire.
L'Estrange Col. H. Peisley, P.G. Supt. Norfolk.
Lloyd-Phillipps Col. John Allen, Prov. G. Master South Wales (Western Division).
Londesborough Right Hon. Lord, P.G.W.
Martyn Rev. C. J., P.G. Chap., D.P.G.M. Suffolk.
Mansfield William, D.P.G.M. Worcestershire.
Mellon G., S.G.D. England, D. Prov. G.M. E. Lanc.
Newmarch George Frederick, Dep. Prov. G.M. Gloucestershire.
Oxenden Haughton Charles, P.G.W., Dep. P.G. Master Derbyshire.
Owen Sir P. Cunliffe, K.C.M.G., C.B., S.W. 1159
Percy Rt. Hon. Earl, M.P., P.G.M. Northumberland
Perkins, Sir Frederick, M.P., P.M. 130, P.P.S.G. W. Hants, P.P.S.G.W.M.M.M., &c.
Portal Rev. Geo. Raymond, P.M. 10, P.G.M.M.M.
Purey-Cust Ven. Archdeacon A. P., Dep. Prov. G.M. Berks and Bucks.
Scott J. H., Dep. Prov. G.M. Sussex.
Spencer-Stanhope Rev. C. W., G. Chap., Deputy Prov. G.M. Cheshire
Starkie Col. Le Gendre N., Prov. G.M. East Lanc.
Tew T. W., J.P., Dep. Prov. G.M. West Yorkshire
The Provincial Grand Lodge of Hampshire and Isle of Wight
Truscott Sir Francis Wyatt, Lord Mayor of London, P.M. No. 1, P. Pres. Board of G. Stewards
Watson John, Dep. Prov. G.M. Notts.
Waveney Rt. Hon. Lord, Prov. G. Master Suffolk
Wigram Rev. Spencer R., P.G.C., D.P.G.M. Essex
Wilkins Butler, Dep. P.G.M. Norths and Hunts.
Zetland Rt. Hon. the Earl of, Prov. Grand Master North and East Yorkshire
Ace Rev. Daniel, D.D., F.R.A.S., P.P.G.C. Linc., G. Chap. Mark.
Adams Herbert J., P.M. 569, P.Z. 11, 1237
Addicott C. C., 1307
Adlard F., P.M 7, P.Z. 214, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Essex
Albert E. P., P.G.P., Sec. 188, 1017, &c.
Alpass Horace S., Prov. G. Sec. W. Lanc.
Andrews Joseph, 209, St. James Chap. A.S.A.E.
Armstrong R.L., P.M.406, P.G.S.D.Northumberland
Asaph Lodge, No. 1319, London.
Ayling T., P.M. 1096, P.P.G.D. of C. Kent
Ayton Rev. W. A., P.M. 709
Bagshawe Rev. Augustus A., M.A., P.G. Chap., P.P.S.G.W. Derbyshire, G. Chap. Mark, &c.
Baker E., P.P.G.S. of W. Berks and Bucks
Baldwin —, P.P.J.G.D. Middlesex
Bauer G. L., 198
Barfield —.
Barratt T., J.D. 3
Barwell H. G., P.M. 52, P.G. Soc. Norfolk
Basnett N. J. F.
Beasley A., P.M. 780, 1612
Beer Edwin, P.M. 1449
Bellrage D. M., W.M. 179.
Bell J., P.M. 1356, 1609, P.Z. 1356, P.P.J.G.D.
Bell W.
Berrie J. W., W.M. 1185.
Berry John J., P.M. 554.
Best Alfred, 211.
Biggs W., P.Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks
Binckes F., P.G.S., Sec. R.M.I.B.
Blackburn George, S.W. 264.
Blackwell E. J., S.D. 1101.
Bodenham J., Prov. G. Treas. Staffordshire
Bogeis Arthur.
Boulter E. Reeve.
Boulton Babington, P.M., P.Z., P.P.G.D.
Bradley R., Prov. G. Sec. Berks and Bucks.
Brine Col. Frederic, R.E., P.M.
Brown H., Sec. 1764, P.G.S. Norths and Hunts.
Brown Richard, P.M. 241, P.Z. 1356, Hon. Sec. West Lanc. Masonic Educational Institution.
Bulley F. A., P.P.G.S.B. Berks and Bucks.
Burney Lieut.-Col. W. S. Somerville, P.P.S.G.D. Essex, P.M. 1615.
Burt, Ex-Sheriff George, A.G.D.C.
Carter J. O., Sec. 209, P.P.G.D of C. Berks & Bucks.
Carter Q.-M. Sergt. W., Sec. 1449.
Cattelle A., J.D. 31.
Challen Chas., I.G. 3.
Chalmers T. W., P.M. 720.
Clark Matthew, J.G.D. England.
Clarke Stephenson.
Clench Major E.
Collins Rev. J. W., P.G.C. Suffolk, S.W. 1823.
Collins R. H.
Conolly Dr., 1185.
Constable John, P.M. 185, Vice-President.
Cooke Alfred.
Cooke Charles, W.M. 1823.
Cooper F.
Cordley W., 574, 1101.
Cronin F., P.M. 231.
Cousins C., S.D. 209.
Cubitt Thomas, P.G.P.
Cull T., P.M. 1298.
Cutbush James, P.M. 1385, Treas. 1731, P.P.A.G.D. of C. Herts. [wall.
Daunt Rev. E. T. Townshend, M.A., P.G.C. Cornwall
Davage P. B., P.M. and T. 201, P.M. 167, P.Z. 185.
Davis G., J.W. 187
Davy C. R.
Dawkins Edward. [M.M.M.
Dewar D. M., P.M. 1415, Assistant Grand Secretary
Dosell J. W. M., P.M. 55 463 1769, P.P.G.D.C. Surrey.
Dover J., 591.
Durrant Captain, P.M. 1185.
Emmerson Charles.
Emmerson R. Joynes, P.M. 1206, P.P.J.G.W. Kent.
Ewins S.D., P.M. 766.
Eynon R., P.M. 481, Prov. S.G.W. Northumberland.
Fenner A. W., S.W. 1227, J.W. 1693.
Fielder Baron, P.M., P.S.G.W. Berks and Bucks.
Flowerden Edward.
Frank, C. H., 1764.
Fraser J. A., 948.
Freeman, Vincent P., Prov. G. Sec. Sussex.
Frere E. T.
Gardiner G., Secretary 749.
Gee Fred. W., 1224, I.G. 1823.
Gibb T. Eccleston, 34.
Gilbert E. C., P.M., P.Z. 221, 293.
Gladwell Arthur E., J.W. 172.
Glendall Rev. J. W., P.M. 1, P.G. Chap., Chaplain to Foundling Hospital.
Godfrey Henry, P.M. 82, P.S.G.W. Gloucestershire.
Godson A. F., Q.C., M.A., P.M. 1097, P.P.G.S.W. [Worcester.
Goodall H. S., P.M. 784, 874, 65.
Greenfield John, Treas. 1602.
Greenwood George H., P.M. 1224.
Hamp T.
Harriott G., P.P.G.M. Wigtown and Kirkcudbright
Harris S. M., Sec. 406
Hartley John, W.M. 1400.
Harvey —.
Hawkins E. C., P.G.S. Oxon
Hedges Featham, W.M. 478, P.P.G. Sec. Oxfordsh.
Hemsley —, 771.
Henry Chaplin
Higham P., P.M. 21, P.P.J.G.W. Kent
Hodges H. Howard, P.M. 795, P.Z. 771, P.P.S.G.W., and P.G. Reg. [Arch] Berks and Bucks
Hogg Dr. Jabez, P.G.D., P.M. 172, 1260
Hopekirk W., P.M. Treas. 179, P.M. 1586, P.Z. 742
Hopper W.
Hopwood E., P.M. 141, 209, P.G.S.B. Middlesex
Horsley Charles P.P.G.R., P. Soj. Middlesex, P.Z.
Howkins Thos. P.M. 488, 938, P.P.G.W. and Sec. to Charity Committee of Warwickshire
Howorth Sergt.-Major J. F., Steward 1449
Hubbard C., W.M. 820
Inman Edwin H., P.J.W. 1313
Irvine J.
Ivey W. P., P.M. and Sec. 1101, P.P.G.S.B. Berks and Bucks.
Jackson J. H., W.M. 654
Jacobs J., P.M. 482, P.P.G. Reg. Staffordshire
James W. H., P.M. 592, P.P.G.D.C. Gloucestershire
Johnson E., P.M. 140
Johnson H. J., S.W., 1791, J.D. 186, I.G. 1624
Jones E. Stanton, P.M. and Secretary 1319
Jones Robert E., W.M. 1224
Kay J. 742
Kenning George, P.P.G.D. Middlesex
Kent A., 1425
King John B., D.C. 27, Sec. 1637.
King Rev. F., P.M. P.Z. 421 596
Kirby Edward, P.M. 1096
Klamborowski Leonard, J.W. 1823
Lake Wm., P.M. 131, P.P.G. Reg.
Lanchan Henry C.
Le Fevre John E., Prov. G. Sec. Hants and I. of W.
Levy H. M., P.M. 188, &c.
Lewis W. Lambton
Lloyd Horatio, J.G.D.
Lucia W. H., P.G.S.B., Prov. G. Sec. Suffolk
Lucking A., P.M., P.Z., Prov. G.D. of C. Essex
Luker C., W.M. 1770
Maidwell T. J., P.M. 27.
Marshall Horsee Brooks, C.C., Treas. 1777.
Mason C. L., P.M. 1611, Prov. G. Treas. West Yorks.
Massey H., P.M. 619.
Matier C. F., P.G.S.W. Greece, P.M. 645, P.G.W. Mark
Mather John L., P.M., P.G.D.C. Herts.
Mergy Thos., 10, P.M. 21, P.G.S.
Miskin H., W.M. 1449.
Morgan W. W., Sec. 211.
Morris Rev. R., Head Master R.M.I.B.
Morris W., Treas. 1566.
Motion George, P.M. 453, P.P.G.S.W. Essex.
Moutrie W. F. C., P.M. 11.
Murray J. Joyce.
Nairne P. A., P.M. and Treasurer 176.
Naylor H. T., P.M. and Treas. 1449, P.G.S.B. Kent
Neilson James Horner, P.P.G.M. Venezuela, P.G.S. Scotland, P.M. 620 (I.C.), 131 (E.C.), 0, 1, 5, 411, 241, 432, and 488 (S.C.), P.S.G.W. Egypt, &c.
Newcomb J., 742.
Newsom W., P.M. 1661, P.J.G.W. Notts.
Newton James, P.M., P.Z., P.G.S.N. East Lanc.
Nicholes W. S., S.W. 209.
Orellana James, J.W. Mark 244.
Pass W., P.M. and Treasurer 28.
Palmer T.
Parkhouse S. H., P.M. 1642
Passawer Dr. E., W.M. 244 Mark.
Payton F. W., J.D. 482.
Pears Andrew, W.M. 865, J.W. 209.
Pepper J. F., W.M. 462.
Percival Captain H. P., 1261.
Perryman W. H., P.M. 3.
Petts E. J., 209.
Phillips W. Page T., P. Prov. S.G.W. Suffolk, G.H.
Pollitzer S., P.M. 1017, P.Z. 188, 538.
Ralling T. J., Prov. G. Soc. Essex.
Radcliffe T. H. 511.
Radcliffe W., S.W. 211.
Randall Rev. W., P.M. 448, P.G.C. Warwicksh. and Staffs., Z. 482, E. 43, P.P.G.S., &c.
Ravenshaw Rev. F. F., P.G.C., P.M. 10, 663, P.Z. 632.
Reed H., P.M. 733.
Rore E. T. [Grand Secretary Oxon.
Riach H. H., P.M. 874, 1523, P.Z. 1118, Past Prov.
Richards A. A., P.G.S., P.G.W. Middlesex.
Roberts Henry, 55. [Berks and Bucks.
Roberts Robert, P.M. 742, W.M. 209, Prov. G.D.
Robinson Rev. George, W.M. 1567, Chap. 636, P.P.G.C. Northumberland
Robbins Rev J., D.D., P.M. 1635, P.G. Chaplain
Rogers Rev. W. [Middlesex, W.M. 1765.
Rosenthal S., P.M. 435, P.Z. 410, P.P.S.G.W. Middx.
Row C. J. N.
Russell Rev. T., P.M. and Sec. 469, P.G.J.W. Devon.
Sanders Rev. S. J. W., M.A. LL.M., &c. W.M. 1764, C. 360, Prov. G. Chap. Norths. and Hunts.
Saunders C. G., 328, 1669.
Saunders W. H., W.M. 859, P.P.G.D. Mdx., P.M. 1503.
Seller A., 411, P.P.G.D. Berks and Bucks.
Sharpe W. H. C., W.M. 795.
Shaw Rev. R. D., W.M. 85.
Sherren J. A., W.M. 170, P.P.G.W. Dorset.
Short Rev. W. F., P.G.C., 10, 357, 1393, 1637.
Simpson Rev. R. J., P.G.C., P.M. 10.
Smith H. S. Cooper, P.M. 478, 1523, 1731, P.Z. 357, P. Prov. G.W. Oxon.
Smith T. H., P.M. 468, 933, P.P.G.S.D. Warwick.
Snelling W. Walton, Sec. 1056, and of Metropolitan Masonic Benevolent Association.
Southwood J. H., P.M. 1260.
Spice R. P., W.M., P.G.S.
Spratt Augustus E. F.
Starkey N. A.
Steedman W., P.M. 754.
Stendwell —, P.M., P.G.S.
Stephens G. H., 1623.
Stevens James, P.M. 720 1216 1426, P.Z. 720 771.
Stiles W. M., Secretary 1507, 1732, 1744,
Stohwasser J., P.M. 238 435, P.Z. 8, P.G.S.
Storr E. F., W.M. 1679, P.M. 22.
Stuart Col. William, P.G.W., P.P.G.W. Herts.
Swanborough Edward, W.M. 1319.
Tamplin Augustus L., 441.
Taylor George, P.M. and Tr. 377, P.S.G.D. Worcestr.
Terry James, P.P.J.G.W. Herts, Soc. R.M.B.I.
Tombs H. C., P.G.D., Prov. G. Sec. Wiltshire
Torkington, A.
Townsend G., P.M., W.M. 1096, J. 1096.
Tracey Nathiel.
Verry G. Ward P.M. and Sec. 554 1278 1421, J.D. 1580, S.W. 625, P.Z. 554 1385, P.P.G.P.S. Herts.
Vickery S. A.
Walsh Arthur, 1101, P.P.G.R. Berks and Bucks.
Watts G. H.
Watts J.W., P.M. 1201 [P.P.G. Org. Middx.
Weaver James, P.M. 862, 1319, P.Z. 177 862 1319,
Welham Henry, P.M. 1224
Wentworth T. J., W.M. 225, P.S.G.D. Suffolk
Westfield W., P.M. 1501
Wheeler Fred., P.P.G.R. Suffolk, P.M. and Sec. 1234
Whytehead T. B., P.P.G.D. of C. N. and E. Yorks.
Willing James, P.M. 177, P.M. and Treas. 1507, P.M. and Treas. 1744, P.Z. and Treas. 1507, Z. 1009
Wilson J., P.M. and Treas. 209
Winter James
Withers Alfred, W.M. 211
Woodford Rev. A. F. A., P.G. Chap.
Woodman Dr. W. R., P.G.S.B.
Woodward E. C., P.M. 382, 1637, &c.
Worlock R. Montagu, Prov. G. Sec. Bristol
Wragg J. H., Prov. Grand Sec. Notts.
Wright John, P.G.P.

Adair Lodge, No. 936, Aldborough
Asaph Lodge, No. 1319, London
Caveac Lodge, No. 176, London
Curwen Lodge, No. 1400, Harrington.
Duke of Cornwall Lodge, No. 1629, St. Columb.
Etonian Lodge, No. 209, Windsor
Lewis Lodge, No. 1185, Wood Green
Lodge of Economy, No. 76, Winchester
Lord Warden Lodge, No. 1066, Walmer
St. Luke's Lodge, No. 223, Ipswich
St. Michael's Lodge, No. 211, London
Tranquility Lodge, No. 185, London

Editor of "The Freemason"
Editor of "The Freemason's Chronicle."
Editor of "The Rosicrucian"
Editor of "The Scottish Freemason"
Editor of "The Standard."

Brethren who desire to assist in establishing this Fund will oblige by forwarding their names to be added to the above List.

Digitized by Google

ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY Limited, 7 Bank Buildings, Lothbury, E.C.
General accidents. Railway accidents. | Personal injuries. Death by accident.
C. HARDING, Manager.

RHEUMATISM.
THE only real remedy for this complaint is the Northern Cure (patent). In bottles 1s 1½d each, to be had of all Chemists. Proprietors and Manufacturers, Edwards and Alexander, 29 Blacket-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

GEO. JONES,
MUSICAL INSTRUMENT MANUFACTURER and IMPORTER, 350 and 481 Commercial Road, London, E. Price List of every description of Instruments post free. Established 1850.

TAMAR INDIEN.
SPECIAL CAUTION.
OWING to the marked success of this medicine, the only patent medicine universally prescribed by the faculty, and the acknowledged cure for constipation, headache, bile, hæmorrhoids, &c., BASE IMITATIONS, containing drastic irritants, are being foisted on the public. The genuine preparation bears the title "Tamar Indien," and the signature E. GRILLON, Coleman-st., London, E.C. Price 2s 6d per box. In a recent case, 1876, G. No. 211, a perpetual injunction to restrain the defendant from applying the name "Tamar" to his lozenges was awarded, with costs, by Vice-Chancellor Bacon, on 19th January 1877, and all such piracies will be summarily proceeded against.——N.B.—See that the outer wrapper (directions) are printed in the English language and that each box bears the Government 3d stamp.

MEMORY EXTRAORDINARY BY CORRESPONDENCE.—Particulars post free of Bro. William Stokes, Teacher of Memory, Royal Polytechnic, 309 Regent-street, London, W. Private lessons by appointment. Class on Tuesdays, 3 and 8.30. The System complete in Three Lessons. "Stokes on Memory," by post 14 stamps. Memory Globe, 14 stamps.

EVENING Employment wanted, by a P.M. Good Accountant. Address 2001, FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, W.C.

HOTELS, ETC.
EALING—Feathers Hotel
EASTBOURNE—Pier Hotel, Cavendish Place. View of Sea and Pier. A. TAYLOR Proprietor
KEW—Star and Garter. Good accommodation for Lodge & Dinner Parties. J. BRILL Proprietor
SANDWICH—Bell Family and Commercial Hotel, Good Stabling. J. J. FILMER Proprietor
WOOD GREEN—Kings Arms Hotel. A. B. GREENSLADE Proprietor
YORK—Queen's Family and Commercial Hotel, Micklegate. H. CHURCHILL Proprietor
LONDON.
CALTHORPE ARMS—252 Gray's Inn Road, W.C. Billiards, Pool, Pyramids, &c. Best Wines and Spirits. W. H. G. RUDDERFORTH Proprietor
CANNING TOWN—Liverpool Arms. J. H. PAVITT. Friars L. of Instruction, 1349, Tuesdays at 7.30
GREEN DRAGON—Spring Garden-place, Stepney Wines and Spirits of the best quality. Billiards. Banquets provided for large or small parties. Yarborough L. & C. 554, and Temple Mark L. 173 held here. Lodge of Instruc. (554) meets every Tuesday at 8. A. WALTER Proprietor
MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT—Moorgate Street, E.C. Hot and Cold Dinners, &c. Chops and Steaks. Good accommodation for Lodge Meetings, &c. A. KENT Proprietor
NEW MARKET HOTEL—King Street, Snow Hill, E.C. Good accommodation for Club and other Banquets. Wines and Spirits of best quality. Specially licensed for Masonic Balls. Lodges 1623 and 1677 are held here. Strong Man No. 45 and West Smithfield No. 1623 Lodges of Instruction, meet here, every Monday at 8 p.m. Thomas BUTT Proprietor
SAWYER'S (late Station) RESTAURANT, 5 Railway Place, Fenchurch Street, E.C. English, French, and German Cuisine. Wines of the best quality. Hot and Cold Luncheons, Chops, Steaks, &c. Tea and Coffee. F. J. SAWYER (late of Pimm's and Crystal Palace) Proprietor

BILLIARD BALLS, Chalks, Cues, and Tips, at HENNIG BROS.' Ivory Works, 11 High Street, London, W.C. Cheapest house in the trade for billiard-table requisites and ivory goods in general. Old balls adjusted or exchanged, and tables recovered. Price Lists on application. Established 1862.

W. BEASLEY,
Bespoke Boot Maker,
28 Queen Victoria Street.
HUNTING, RIDING, DRESS AND BOOTS FOR THE MOORS.
MADE IN A FEW DAYS.
Specialité—Hand Sewn and Standard Screwed.

C. HUBBARD,
Plain & Fancy Box & Pattern CARD MANUFACTURER.
139 & 141 NEW NORTH ROAD, AND 64 SHAFTESBURY ST., LONDON, N.

ROCHESTER & FOX,
Post and Job Masters,
799 COMMERCIAL ROAD, E. AND 81 JUBILEE STREET, MILE END, E.
Carriages of every description on hire.
SUPERIOR WEDDING CARRIAGES.

HOUGHTON,
THE BOOT MAKER,
243 & 244 WHITECHAPEL ROAD, LONDON, E.
Lasts made to the Feet.
—:o:—
SPECIALITÉ,
EASE, ELEGANCE AND DURABILITY.

A. LAZARUS,
MERCHANT TAILOR AND Juvenile Clothier,
CORNER OF WORSHIP ST., SHOREDITCH, E., AND 51 LIVERPOOL STREET, LONDON, E.C.
Patterns and Rules for Self Measurement post free.

T. J. TARLING,
COAL MERCHANT.
North Wallsend ... ... 23s Per Ton
Hetton or Lambton ... ... 24s ,,
Best Silkstone ... ... 23s ,,
Best Derby ... ... 21s ,,
All letters to be addressed :—
5 BURDETT ROAD, BOW, E.

JOSEPH J. CANEY,
DIAMOND MERCHANT, AND MANUFACTURING JEWELLER AND WATCH MAKER,
44 CHEAPSIDE, LONDON.
MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND FURNITURE.
Specialité—First Class Jewels—Artistic—Massive—Best Quality—Moderate in Price
CATALOGUES POST FREE.
A LARGE STOCK OF LOOSE BRILLIANTS FOR EXPENSIVE JEWELS.
Diamond Rings, Brooches, Studs, Earrings and Bracelets in Great Variety.

MASONIC JEWELS FOR ALL DEGREES.
MINIATURE WAR MEDALS AND DECORATIONS.
ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD IN ALL SIZES.
ATHLETIC SPORTS MEDALS AND BADGES.
A. D. LOEWENSTARK & SONS, Medallists, 210 STRAND, LONDON, W.C.
MANUFACTORY—1 DEVEREUX COURT, STRAND.

J. FORTESCUE,
HAT MANUFACTURER,
129 FLEET ST.; 114 & 115 SHOE LANE,
(One door from Fleet Street)
6 EXMOUTH STREET, CLERKENWELL, E.C.
And 143 Mare Street, Triangle, Hackney
Gents' Silk Hats from 5/6 each. Second best 6/6 7/6 8/6
Superfine quality, 10/6 12/6 & 16/. The very best made 21/.
Felt Hats, hard and soft, in all the newest shapes, from 3/6 to 10/6.

ADAM S. MATHER,
GAS ENGINEER, GENERAL GAS FITTER AND BELL HANGER
MANUFACTURER OF BILLIARD LIGHTS
AND OF EVERY DESCRIPTION OF GAS APPARATUS FOR COOKING AND HEATING
Bath Rooms Fitted up. All the Latest Improvements Introduced.
MANUFACTORY—12 CHARLES STREET, HATTON GARDEN, E.C.;
AND AT 278 CALEDONIAN ROAD, ISLINGTON, N.
ESTIMATES GIVEN.

PIANOFORTES AND HARMONIUMS ON EASY TERMS.
GROVER & GROVER
LET ON HIRE, WITH OPTION OF PURCHASE,
BEAUTIFUL AND PERFECT INSTRUMENTS.
PURCHASERS CHOOSE THEIR OWN TERMS,
FROM 15s TO £3 3s PER QUARTER.

The Advantages of a Trial, with the Convenience of the Three Years' System at Cash Price, by Paying about a Quarter of the value down, the Balance by Easy Payments, from 15s per quarter.
GROVER & GROVER, 157-9 Kingsland Road.
ESTABLISHED 1830.

Bro. A. OLDROYD, Stratford, London,
MANUFACTURER OF TOBACCO POUCHES,
With any name in raised letters.
CAN be obtained direct from the Maker, at the undermentioned prices, on receipt of P.O.O. payable at Stratford.

	Price	Will take a name of
No. 3	2/0 ...	9 letters
,, 4	2/6 ...	11
,, 5	3/0 ...	12
,, 6	3/6 ...	13
,, 7	4/0 ...
,, 8	4/6 ...
,, 9	5/0 ...

A. OLDROYD,
Agent for Algerian Cigars, and Importer of Havana and Continental Cigars,
64 HIGH STREET, STRATFORD, LONDON, E.

Digitized by Google

EDWARD STILLWELL AND SON,

25, 26 and 27 BARBICAN, AND 6 LITTLE BRITAIN, LONDON,
109 ARGYLE STREET, GLASGOW,

Gold Lacemen, Embroiderers and Sword Cutlers,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Masonic Fittings for Lodges, Chapters and Encampments.

CLOTHING, JEWELS (PINS, STUDS AND RINGS), FOR EVERY DEGREE.
Aprons, Sashes, Horns, Ornaments and Banners for Foresters, Odd Fellows, Orangemen, Free Gardeners, &c.
REGALIA FOR I.O.G.T. AND ALL SOCIETIES.

LIBERAL TERMS TO SHIPPERS.

H. T. LAMB,

MANUFACTURER OF

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND REGALIA,

5 ST. JOHN SQUARE, LONDON.

PRICE LIST, CONTAINING 120 ILLUSTRATIONS, POST FREE ON APPLICATION.

PHILLIPS & COMPANY'S TEAS

ARE BEST AND CHEAPEST,

8 KING WILLIAM STREET, CITY, LONDON, E.C.

A GENERAL PRICE CURRENT AND STORE LIST, CONTAINING ALL THE ADVANTAGES OF THE LONDON MARKETS, POST FREE.

Show Rooms for Chinese, Japanese, and Oriental Art Products, and General Stores, 13 & 14 ABCHURCH LANE, adjoining 8 KING WILLIAM STREET, E.C.

J. E. SHAND & CO.

Wine Merchants,

(Experts and Valuers of Wines and Spirits,)

2 ALBERT MANSIONS, VICTORIA ST., LONDON, S.W.

PRICES DELIVERED IN LONDON.

SHERRIES	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	SPARKLING MOSELLES	42s, 48s, 54s
PORTS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	CHAMPAGNES	36s, 42s, 48s, 54s, 60s
CLARETS	16s, 18s, 21s, 24s, 30s, 36s	BURGUNDY	30s, 24s, 30s, 36s, 42s
STILL HOCKS	24s 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s	BRANDIES	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s, 66s
SPARKLING do	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s	WHISKIES	20s per gall., 42s per doz.

COUNTRY ORDERS OVER £3 CARRIAGE FREE.

"Sparkling Sauterne," 1875 Vintage—Delicious New Sparkling Wine, Sec, and Extra Sec. 42s per doz.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.

WARD'S

INVALID CHAIR AND CARRIAGE MANUFACTORY,

From SAVILLE HOUSE, LEICESTER SQUARE,

To 246 & 247 TOTTENHAM COURT ROAD, LONDON.

THE ONLY PRIZE MEDAL for INVALID FURNITURE was gained by JOHN WARD, at the London Exhibitions, 1851 and 1862; Paris, 1855 and 1867; Dublin, 1865; Vienna, 1873; 2 Silver Medals, Paris, 1878.

JOHN WARD, Manufacturer by Special Appointment to the Queen and Royal Family, the Empresses of France, Austria, Russia, &c.

INVALID CHAIRS and CARRIAGES for SALE or HIRE from JOHN WARD. Established 150 years. Drawings and price lists free on application.

[redacted]

Fish Carvers, Fish Eating Knives and Forks, Revolving Covered Soup and Luncheon Dishes.

SPECIALITIES FOR TESTIMONIALS, TEA AND COFFEE SERVICES,
SALVERS, DESSERT KNIVES AND FORKS, GILT AND OXYDIZED GOODS.

77 (from 28) Cheapside, London, E.C.
(NEAR THE POULTRY.)

MORING,

ENGRAVER, DIE SINKER,
HERALDIC ARTIST,
ILLUMINATED ADDRESSES,
44, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST POST FREE.

ADLARD'S JEWEL ATTACHER 7/6.
If with Pockets, 6d each Pocket extra.

225 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

JANES & SON

WINDOW BLINDS ONLY,

WHOLESALE,

ALDERSGATE STREET, CITY, E.C.

BRANCH—

4 EAGLE PLACE, PICCADILLY

THESE ADDRESSES ONLY.

YOUNG'S Arnicated Corn and Bunion Plaisters are the best ever invented for giving immediate ease, and removing those painful excrescences. Price 6d and 1s per box. Any Chemist not having them in stock can procure them.

Observe the Trade Mark—H. Y.—without which none are genuine. Be sure and ask for Young's.

Horticultural Decorations, Ferneries, Window Gardening, Seeds, Bulbs, Plants, Ferns, PLANS FOR DECORATIONS. Masonic Banquets, Balls, &c.

DICK RADCLYFFE & CO., F.R.H.S.

129 HIGH HOLBORN., W.C.

TABLE DECORATIONS, Ball Room Decorations, Seeds for Export. Illustrated Catalogues gratis and post free. Seeds, Bulbs, &c., carefully packed for Export.

NEW MASONIC ROOMS

COMPLETE SUITE,
SPECIALLY ARRANGED
LODGE, BANQUETTING,
AND ANTE ROOMS,
ALL ON ONE FLOOR.

Particulars to be had of

BRO. A. KENT, MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT,
OPPOSITE RAILWAY STATION,

From which trains run at frequent intervals in connection with the Great Northern, Midland, Great Western, London Chatham & Dover, and Metropolitan Railways.

Printed for the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE PUBLISHING COMPANY LIMITED, and Published by Bro. WILLIAM WRAY MORGAN JUN., at 23 Great Queen Street, London W.C., Saturday, 21st February 1880.

Digitized by Google

THE

Freemason's Chronicle;

A WEEKLY RECORD OF MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

SANCTIONED BY THE GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

Registered at the G.P.O. as a Newspaper.

VOL. XI.—No. 270. SATURDAY, 28th FEBRUARY 1880. [Issued to Subscribers only. 13s 6d per annum, post free.

THE PROPOSED COMMITTEE OF INQUIRY INTO MASONIC WORKING.

OUR readers will remember that at the December Quarterly Communication of United Grand Lodge it was agreed, on the motion of Bro. Past Master James Stevens, that a Committee be appointed with a view to inquire into and report upon the different systems of working in vogue among our Lodges. It will be seen, too, from the Agenda Paper for next Wednesday's Communication, that two motions respecting the appointment of this Committee will be submitted for the consideration of Grand Lodge. The first of these will be to the effect that as regards that portion of the minutes in which is recorded the acceptance of Bro. Stevens's proposal, the customary confirmation be withheld. The second is a motion by Bro. Stevens, that the Committee shall consist of certain brethren whose names will be found elsewhere in our columns. If the former of these two motions is agreed to, it will be obviously useless to submit the latter. It is on the cards it will be found that Grand Lodge is of another mind in March 1880 than it was in December 1879, and to proceed with the nomination of a Committee which has been shelved would be sheer waste of time and ridiculous. On the other hand, if the minutes are confirmed in their entirety, the nomination of the Committee will follow as of course. The question to be in that case considered will be, simply whether or not it shall consist of the brethren whom Bro. Stevens has nominated, or partly of his nominees supplemented by others, or yet again, entirely of other brethren. This, it strikes us, will be the course, according as one or other of the contingencies we have pointed to happens. Meanwhile, however, a few remarks on the subject seem desirable.

We have said already that Grand Lodge may see fit to change its mind as between December and March, and may reverse in the latter month a decision at which, after mature deliberation, it arrived in the former. Nor do we think any one will be found to question its competency to make such change. But it certainly is open to brethren to doubt the wisdom or expediency of such a course. It must be remembered that Grand Lodge is the Masonic Senate, whose duty it is to weigh well all matters of importance to our interests. Its decisions, therefore, should be arrived at deliberately, not hastily. It does not need the wisdom of a numerous and enlightened body to settle such trivial questions as a dinner hour, the dimensions of an apron, or the value of a jewel. But questions of Ritual come not within the category of trivial questions, and when it has once been admitted—as is the case with regard to this proposition of Bro. Stevens—that a Committee of Inquiry into the different systems of Masonic working is, to put it in the very mildest possible form, not undesirable, it seems to us it would be tantamount to an act of self-stultification on the part of Grand Lodge were it to reverse, on Wednesday next, the decision of last December. It will be said there is a precedent for this change. Some few years ago, a proposition having the same object in view, was submitted to, and adopted by, Grand Lodge, but nothing came of it. We think, on the contrary, that if, on this occasion, a similar course be pursued, it will detract from, instead of enhancing, the dignity of Grand Lodge. It will be in the power of any one so minded to point out that that body has twice affirmed a certain proposition, and on each occasion has allowed its decision to be of none effect. Will any one allow, for one moment, that such a procedure is either wise or expedient, or even business-like; albeit, it may be perfectly regular, and in accordance with the Constitutions. Moreover, the mere appointment of a Committee of Inquiry does not necessarily involve any change in, or modification of, our Ritual. The Committee, having made its inquiries, may report that no alteration is necessary or desirable, or, on the other hand, it may say it is. In the latter event, it will be the duty of Grand Lodge to determine the character and extent of such alterations. If the report is to the effect that one system of working, and one only, should be in force, it will then have to settle what that system of working must be. But to refuse to nominate a Committee, the appointment of which has been agreed to, except under some imperious necessity, which certainly has not arisen in the interval since last December, would, as we have remarked, be an act of self-stultification of singular gravity, such as, with all proper deference for the opinions of those who differ with us, we cannot imagine any well-intentioned brother would care to see fulfilled.

So much for the one proposition; namely, that Bro. Stevens's motion for the appointment of a Committee of Inquiry be not confirmed. Let us now consider the scope of Bro. Stevens's proposal itself, the principle of which has already been accepted by Grand Lodge. We cannot, of course, take upon ourselves to explain positively the meaning of another person's proposition; but as far as we have been able to gather from his letters, speeches, and personal explanations, it seems to us that his motion involves four principal points, of which two may be described as positive, and two as negative in character. The former are (1) that a certain standard of Ritual should be maintained, and (2) that steps should be taken for establishing a College of Preceptors or similar body for the purpose of upholding that standard in all its native purity. The latter involve no interference whatever, (1) with the working as now practised in our Lodges, or (2) with the just prerogatives of the Board of General Purposes. Let us take these points seriatim, and discuss their meaning and value.

Firstly, there should be one uniform standard of Ritual. In suggesting this, Bro. Stevens, it seems to us, does not so much insist on uniformity of phrasecology in the working of our ceremonies as on uniformity of practice. The former is comparatively of little value, the latter it cannot be denied is of the very greatest importance. A particular proposition may be variously expressed, but always in such a manner that its true and original meaning is never for one moment in doubt. The expression may be of the very simplest, or it may be so complicated that only after the most careful study is it possible for a person to understand its real purport. In short, the idea is the same, whatever the form of words in which it is clothed. But where there is no uniformity of practice, there is always room for innovation—and in a science like that of Freemasonry such a possibility is most undesirable—no harm may come, but on the other hand the contingency must not be lost sight of that it may. While therefore it is unnecessary to lay too great stress on extreme verbal uniformity, it is unquestionably of the greatest moment there should be one harmonious and unvaried, invariable system of working our different ceremonies. These are the result of careful study on the part of the founders of the science. The symbols employed are not only complete in themselves, but they also harmonise well together. It were unwise, therefore, to think of allowing them to be tampered with, as in such case, their true meaning might be either exaggerated or diminished. It will be readily understood that it is impossible for us to illustrate our meaning, as we should do if we were discussing some legal or social question. Yet can there be no harm in pointing out—as regards the ceremony of initiation, for instance—that while it cannot be of serious moment that exactly the same phrases should be employed in all Lodges, it cannot be otherwise than necessary it should be carried out in its entirety in the manner prescribed by the authorities. Nothing should be added to, nothing taken from it. There must be no transposition of the several parts. This, or indeed any other one of our ceremonies may be likened to a puzzle, the several parts of which are made to fit together, so as to form a particular figure, but there is only one way, not several ways, of fitting these parts into each other. At the same time it cannot in the slightest degree affect the value of the puzzle, whether it be painted green, white, purple, orange, or any other colour. This colour is to the puzzle what the phraseology of a ceremony is to the ceremony itself. So long as the virtue of the latter is untainted, the mere language is of little moment. This, if our interpretation is correct, is Bro. Stevens's meaning, when he insists on the necessity for uniformity in Masonic ceremonial. He does not say the same language must be used everywhere and on all occasions, but he does say there should be uniformity of observance.

Digitized by Google

Then as to his second point, that there should be established a College of Preceptors or similar body, whose duty it will be to see this uniformity carried out. We are not going to discuss its constitution, which as yet only exists in the imagination of one of our brethren. It might be a part of the Board of General Purposes, or it might be a body apart. It might be entitled a Committee of Ritual or a College of Preceptors. These are matters of detail which are easy of settlement when the proper time for settling them has arrived. But once it has come to be recognised that uniformity of ceremonial observance is not only desirable but necessary, and it follows there must be somebody having the requisite authority to see that this uniformity is observed. In the Grand Lodges of the United States there are certain Officers known as Lecturers, whose duty it is to visit the Lodges in their respective jurisdictions. By this judicious arrangement the desired uniformity of working is attained. It cannot be of less importance that the working should everywhere, both in London and in the Provinces, as well as in the Districts abroad, be satisfactory, seeing that England is undoubtedly the mother country of Freemasonry as constituted in modern times. Again, severe notice is very properly taken if the several degrees are allowed to be taken at less than certain prescribed intervals of time, and the ceremonies must be gone through a second time, so that the majesty of the law may be vindicated. The offending Lodge is admonished, and, were the offence repeated, would be still more severely punished. Can it be of less importance that the ceremonies used in conferring the degrees should be carried out aright, and as nearly as possible with the same formalities everywhere throughout the jurisdiction of our Grand Lodge? Rather, say we, it is of even greater importance that the ceremony should be done rightly, than that it should be done only when a certain period of time has elapsed. In the one case a Constitution is violated—and far be it from us to regard such violation with anything like levity—but that is the sum and substance of the harm that is done. In the other case, not only is the ceremonial indifferently or improperly observed, but the recipient of the degree experiences a certain loss of knowledge as the result of such indifference or incompleteness. Or, to put the matter more clearly, he does not receive that degree of enlightenment to which he is entitled. There is yet another point to be considered. It is chiefly by the intercommunication of brethren in our Lodges, and especially in our Lodges of Instruction, that a correct knowledge of the science of Freemasonry is spread throughout our ranks; but if it be found that diversities of practice exist in the working of our ceremonies, is it not inevitable that a certain amount of confusion must arise in the minds of many, not so much as to the value of certain modes of expression, but as to the ideas expressed in some cases and omitted in others? As we have before pointed out, it is impossible, for many reasons, to be explicit in treating thus publicly of what concerns our ceremonial. Suffice it to say, that it ought not to be left to individual judgment to add or omit anything without constitutional warranty. There is no more undue restraint in insisting on uniformity of practice in matters of Ritual than in prescribing certain conditions as to the admission of candidates, or for their advancement to the higher degrees when they have been admitted; or, indeed, in Grand Lodge passing such ordinances as in its wisdom it may think necessary to the good government of the Craft.

As to the other two points, which we have described as being negative in their character, they may be dismissed briefly. Bro. Stevens does not propose in any way to disturb the present working in our Lodges. He considers there should be Uniformity of Ritual, but he regards it as a politic matter that time should be given for the general adoption of the standard of Ritual. Let this be first of all determined. Let Preceptors and others interested acquire the requisite knowledge of this standard, and as time progresses, its establishment will follow as a matter of course. Neither does Bro. Stevens consider it politic in any way to trench upon the powers vested in the Board of General Purposes. This Board is, indeed, an instrument ready at hand for giving effect to the recommendations, if any, of the proposed Committee of Inquiry, subject of course to the authorisation of Grand Lodge. True, Freemasonry is essentially conservative—we use the word in no political sense—in its character. Thus change for the sake of change is distasteful in its eyes. It proudly claims to be "always the same" in spirit. It will not neglect to repair an omission, or correct an error, if it is once convinced of the propriety of such reparation or correction. But to insist on Uniformity of Working, in the sense we have indicated, is in harmony with, instead of being antagonistic to, this conservative spirit. It is suggestive of a return to, instead of a deviation from, the ancient landmarks. It means a reform in things essential to the well-being of Freemasonry, but a reform involving no innovation that can possibly prove nocuous. Bro. Stevens, and those who agree with him, not unreasonably urge, that while it may be fairly left open to the learned to differ among themselves as to the proper interpretation of certain recognised parts of Freemasonry, each of those parts has its due significance, and should not be omitted or curtailed at pleasure. Neither do they think it becoming that in any of our Lodges any practice which has not received the sanction of authority should in like manner be interpolated. In fine, Bro. Stevens, if we interpret him aright, is desirous of attaining the maximum improvement in Masonic working with the minimum of change. Whether we agree with him or not as to the manner in which he proposes to attain this object, we cannot but allow he is animated by a very laudable ambition.

We have now dealt with the material points of the case. We have given expression to the opinion that while Grand Lodge has a perfect right to change its opinion on this or any other matter, it will be more in harmony with its usual consistency, and certainly less injurious to its high character for wisdom, if it confirms on Wednesday the decision it arrived at last December. We have also at some length endeavoured to explain the grounds on which, in our opinion, Bro. Stevens has founded his proposition, as well as the nature and extent of the changes involved therein. It remains for us to offer a few words on the constitution of his proposed Committee. It includes the names of several well-known able, experienced, and energetic members of the Craft, whose collective and individual wisdom and discretion cannot be doubted. But there are those of many equally well-known able, and experienced Craftsmen which it does not contain. We are fully alive to the difficulty of organising the best possible Committee. Our most distinguished brethren have other and important duties which cannot be left unfulfilled, or be fulfilled only in a perfunctory manner. The likelihood of bringing together all we should like to see engaged in so important a task is most remote. We doubt not Bro. Stevens has done his best to secure the services of our ablest and most influential brethren, but his nomination decidedly needs strengthening. Far be it from us, in saying this, to suggest anything in the way of detraction from the undoubted merits of those nominated—merits we have just acknowledged unreservedly. Still, it cannot be doubted that if certain brethren, whose names we need not be at the pains of specifying, as they will naturally occur to our readers, were included, the confidence of the Masonic public would be increased. It is not necessary that all its members should be of one mind as to the propriety of the inquiry. If the minute is confirmed, the investigation must be as thorough and complete as possible, and to this end it is desirable that the assistance of all the brightest lights of Freemasonry should be invoked. However, the Committee, whether it be constituted in the manner Bro. Stevens proposes or in any other way, will have the sanction and approval of Grand Lodge for entering on its labours, while the report it may deliver will also need the same sanction and approval before effect can be given to its recommendations. We need hardly say we await the issue of next Wednesday's Communication with more than the usual interest.

Digitized by Google

BRO. CLABON'S RESOLUTIONS.

THE Communication of Wednesday bids fair to be one of the most important that has been held for some time. We have already made one of the questions which will then be submitted for the consideration of United Grand Lodge the subject of remark in a lengthy article, and there is no doubt the resolutions which Bro. Clabon intends bringing forward are worthy of the most attentive comment, more especially as the purpose they are intended to achieve is now for the first time being largely and generously discussed outside the walls of Grand Lodge. This is very far from being, however, the first occasion on which Bro. Clabon has moved his resolutions in our Masonic Senate. What is more to the point, as far back as the year 1868 a Special Committee, at that Brother's instance, was appointed to inquire into and report upon the scheme as proposed by him. In due time the report was delivered, and proved highly favourable. The principle was accepted, but the proposal in some of its details was modified. Nothing further happened, and though Bro. Clabon has since tried to induce Grand Lodge to carry out the same or a similar scheme, the Fund of Benevolence goes on annually increasing in amount far beyond what is necessary to meet the ever-increasing demands on it for relief of the ordinary character, so that there is now a large principal floating, so to speak, between the heaven of Charity and the earth of Poverty. As recently as December last Bro. Clabon made a further essay in the same direction, and now again, nothing daunted by his then want of success, and with a courage worthy of so good a cause, he is once more to the fore with his series of resolutions. It is well nigh impossible he could have chosen a better time for bringing the subject again under the notice of Grand Lodge. For some months past a somewhat similar, yet independent, proposal has been before the Masonic public. We need hardly say we are referring to the proposed "Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund," to which already has been accorded so large a measure of support by the Grand Master, the Pro Grand Master, and Deputy Grand Master, the Duke of Connaught, Prince Leopold, a strong array of Provincial and Deputy Provincial Grand Masters, and other influential English Brethren, as well as by the Grand Master of Ireland, and the Grand and Past Grand Masters of Scotland. It may perhaps be urged by some that the very encouragement which is being given to this independent scheme is a reason for Grand Lodge declining to adopt Bro. Clabon's resolutions either as formulated by him or in any other form. With becoming deference, we submit that the fact of such a scheme being now in progress outside Grand Lodge is the reason of reasons why that body should in some way or other act upon the principle which some eleven or twelve years since its own specially appointed Committee of Inquiry reported upon so favourably. Grand Lodge is a contributor on a moderate scale to the funds of all our Institutions, of which one, the Royal Benevolent, may be described as being especially under its wing, and this quite apart from the fact that it also appropriates large sums of money in the relief of distressed brethren or the families of deceased brethren. Therefore, the proposed establishment of a Pupils' Assistance Fund should not only prove no impediment, but rather an encouragement to the passing of Bro. Clabon's resolutions. These are framed to supply a recognised want. There is an ample supply of funds, annually increasing in amount, at the disposal of Grand Lodge, and there is nothing whatever in the scheme which can be considered in the remotest degree foreign to the purposes for which the Fund of Benevolence, or Charity Fund, as it was first designated, was originally established. Under these circumstances, we do not hesitate to say they have our heartiest good wishes.

It is not necessary we should notice in detail the several proposed additions to the Book of Constitutions, Fund of Benevolence. They will be found elsewhere in our columns. They are the same as were proposed last December, and what is better still, they are the additions which the special Committee of 1868-9 recommended for acceptance by Grand Lodge. There is therefore nothing new in the principle or the details as now submitted. But while the former is unobjectionable, as are most of the latter, there are some which it is open to many to believe ars capable of being improved. Thus, if we find that the proposed clauses 17 and 18 are accepted, these only concern the appropriation of certain fractional parts of the annual surplus of the Fund of Benevolence, one part to the Boys' School, and the other to the Girls' School, for assisting pupils thereof, and the investment of such funds in the names of eight trustees—four perhaps would be a better number. But clauses 19 and 20 deal with the application of this Fund, and we are not surprised to hear that Bro. Jabez Hogg, who has already shown his interest publicly in all matters relating to our Institutions, intends moving an amendment with a view to modifying the clauses as they now stand. As to Clause 19, first. Bro. Clabon's proposal is that the General Committee of each School, on the recommendation of its House Committee, may apply the dividends for the benefit of pupils requiring assistance. Bro. Hogg's amendment is to the effect that the Funds shall be administered by a Committee or Sub-Committee of the Board of Benevolence, half of whom shall be annually nominated by the Grand Master, and half elected annually by Grand Lodge, as is the case with the said Board as at present constituted. After certain details as to the meeting of this Committee or Sub-Committee, Bro. Hogg proposes that all applications for assistance shall be submitted by the General or House Committee of the Schools to this Sub-Committee of the Fund of Benevolence. Clause 20, as proposed by Bro. Clabon, vests in the General Committee the power of granting any sum not exceeding £25, but for grants beyond that amount, the consent of the Quarterly General Court of the School must be obtained. Bro. Hogg, however, proposes that his Sub-Committee of the Fund of Benevolence shall be invested with the power of granting sums not exceeding £25. Any above that amount must be submitted to Grand Lodge only as recommendations. and will need its assent or confirmation.

Such, in all essentials, is the sum of the differences between Bro. Clabon's and Bro. Hogg's recommendations. Both plans have their good points, the chief of which, perhaps, as regards the former, is that it corresponds exactly with the scheme recommended by the Committee of Inquiry before referred to, while the merit of Bro. Hogg's lies in this, that he leaves to a section of the Board of Benevolence the duty of appropriating the dividends on the funds annually granted out of the Fund of Benevolence, while he leaves it to the School General or House Committees to submit the necessary recommendations. This, we think, is the better plan of the two, partly because the School Committees have already enough to do in administering the funds at their disposal, and regulating the conduct of their respective Schools, but principally because it leaves it to the Board of Benevolence to appropriate or recommend for appropriation the interest on moneys granted out of its own Fund. But whatever the details, we trust Grand Lodge will accept and carry out the scheme of Bro. Clabon. It will not clash with the Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund, for the two may work hand-in-hand together. It will not check the flow of individual benevolence, the Institutions already in existence prove that. Nor will it lay Freemasonry open to the charge of overdoing its duty in the way of relief. Every year children are receiving this kind of relief, but out of the Funds of the two Schools, and we cannot suppose that the B. of B. or G.L. will be less careful in the application of the proposed Fund than the School Committees are of the moneys they administer. Let us remember what Lord Rosslyn said when presiding at the Boys' Festival last year. "It is not impossible that at the end of their schooling career some of these boys"—and the same remark applies with equal force to the Girls' School—"may leave the School homeless and in need. It may be that the good seed sown may bear fruit during their scholastic career; but it may also be that the fruit will perish for want of cultivation at a later period."

Digitized by Google

ALLEGED DISCOVERY OF MASONIC EMBLEMS.

IT would be impossible to come to any definite opinion on the subject of the Masonic emblems, which Commander Gorringe of the United States Navy is announced to have discovered in the foundation of the Obelisk which Egypt has presented to America, at least, without further opportunity of judging of their real value. Some there are who delight in connecting all mysterious symbols with Freemasonry, while others, with equal fervour, denounce all such Associations. We are not inclined to father on Freemasonry whatever is discovered of incomprehensible, simply because it is incomprehensible, nor have we any desire to resent such connection because it is well nigh impossible to explain positively the justification. We are content with knowing and saying that the exact age of what is now known as Freemasonry is a question which is difficult, if not impossible, of solution. We are believers in its antiquity for well nigh the same reasons as those given by Bro. R. Vaux Past Grand Master of Pennsylvania. We believe in a direct connection between the early mysteries of Egypt, Greece, and other countries of ancient times and the Science of Masonry as now taught in our Lodges. We do not think it desirable to connect the philosophers of old with our Order in the capacity of Grand Masters, but undoubtedly much of the philosophy they taught their disciples had the true Masonic ring about it. This philosophy was gradually spread among the nations, and has been handed down from age to age in a form which has been fairly well understood and appreciated by the repositories of this occult science, who have jealously guarded its secrets from the profane, at the same time they have expounded them lucidly to the initiated. The architects may be regarded as the connecting link between the modern Freemasons and the ancient philosophers. They stand to the arts and sciences in exactly the same relation as do the monks to literature. When in all around was visible the darkness of ignorance, they held the secrets of knowledge. These secrets they imparted to those only who were worthy to be entrusted with them, and then only gradually as the latter showed themselves more and more zealous and proficient. Their mode of teaching was the symbolic—that is, they gave to certain things in common use certain occult meanings, and these things in common use were mostly the implements which were necessary in order to properly fulfil their duties. Oftentimes this mysterious teaching was made still more so by the introduction or association of real historic personages, but in a confused way, and without any regard for the time when, the place where, or the manner in which. Supposing, therefore, it possible for us to make public through the medium of these columns what is heard in our Lodges, it is more than probable it would excite amusement among the uninitiated, just as would anything else that was incomprehensible by them. But no well informed Mason, according to the degree of enlightenment that had been vouchsafed to him, would experience any great difficulty in extracting the kernel of truth from the shell of apparently incongruous verbiage in which it was incased. At the same time, as we have said already, there are many who fancy they see a mystery in whatever is strange or unfamiliar, and one must be on one's guard against too readily accepting the alleged discovery of every new mystery. It is enough for our purpose to state that as there was a river in Macedon and a river in Monmouth, so was there a mystic cult in ancient Egypt as there is a mystic cult in England and other countries of the present day. We believe in a connection between these two, and on stronger grounds than Fluellyn did in the case of Macedon and Monmouth. When, therefore, we hear of Masonic emblems having recently been discovered in Egypt, we naturally take an interest in them, but we reserve our opinion till we are in a better position to judge of their value. Meanwhile, the following are the emblems which Commander Gorringe has discovered, namely:—

Firstly.—A Mason's square of red syenite granite, the long section being eight feet six inches long, 17 inches broad, 25 inches thick, and the short section measuring from the outer angle four feet three inches by 20. The Mason's square is near the north-easterly corner of the foundation, parallel with the easterly side of the foundations.

Secondly.—A pure white stone, representing an apron, and situated under the end of the short section.

Thirdly.—Under the apron a perfect altar of red granite.

Fourthly.—Towards the corner of the foundations opposite the angle of the Mason's square, that is, towards the south-easterly corner of the foundations, is a red granite rough altar.

Fifthly.—Between these two altars a Mason's spoon-shaped iron trowel of ordinary size, totally oxidised; in all, five emblems, each in its proper position. They rest on a foundation of yellowish-drab limestone. Surrounding the foundation on all sides and forming part of it are three steps, all of stone.

Our transatlantic brethren will soon have an opportunity of seeing and judging for themselves of the value of the discovery. Dr. Fanton has already expressed his belief that they are Masonic emblems, and Bro. Vaux Past G.M. of Pennsylvania considers this view is a just one, though he does not hold with it entirely. So, at least, we gather from the following excerpt from a conversation that brother recently had, according to intelligence from the United States, with the correspondent of the New York Herald. This opinion and the exposition accompanying it, coming as they do from so prominent a member of the Craft, are worth reproducing.

Until we know exactly what they represent it is in vain to indicate our notion of what they are. Fanton and Gorringe have given their opinion that they are Masonic. I rather incline to agree with Dr. Fanton that his opinion is the correct one, although I think he has confounded what are known as the symbolic with what are known as the higher degrees. Now, in my view, Freemasonry, as we understand it to-day, is the representation of what was in ancient times occult. It is impossible to tell the profane in what this similarity consists, but the intelligent world knows that the Masonry of this age is a symbolic teaching, and that its signs are but the representation of certain indestructible, eternal truths. The subjective truth, from the creation of the world, has been taught by signs. The creation of Adam was but the presentation of the eternal subjective truth of the Trinity, for Adam was composed of three separate and distinct constitutions—the mental, the moral, and the physical. So all subjective truths have been thus taught from then until now. If you go to Egypt, and take the cult of Osiris and Isis, you will find in their teachings the same subjective truth. You find that this symbolization was taught to the initiates. They were taught in secret for reasons which can be comprehended. There is large authority for this teaching by symbols of subjective truth; Lord Bacon, Pococke, and Max Muller I will only cite just now. This Egyptian cult was taught in Egypt over 2,000 years before Christ. We know that it was brought to Greece 1,970 years before Christ. We know that 1,500 years before Christ the mysteries of Osiris, or the Egyptian Isis, were established at Eleusis in honour of Ceres. So that the Eleusinian mysteries were taught in Greece, derived from Egypt, 1,500 years before Christ. And we know the subjective truth of both these cults was life, death, and immortality. We know further that the Dionysian mysteries in honour of Bacchus, and the arts and sciences were carried on a thousand years before Christ. We know that Moses died 1,451 years before Christ, 100 years after the Eleusinian mysteries were known in Greece. We know that the Dionysian architects and the Essenian fraternity, to which Pythagoras belonged, existed 560 years before Christ. We know that Solomon dedicated the Temple 340 years after the Eleusinian mysteries were known. Now these facts history tells us. Those who read earnestly and anxiously will not be in the least astonished at the hypothesis that what was the secret mysteries taught in these schools to initiates, and which these Dionysian architects evidently were acquainted with, brings this idea of Masonry as a cult down to the range of known history.

We shall revert to the subject when we are further posted in the matter.

REVIEW.

All Books intended for Review should be addressed to the Editor of The Freemason's Chronicle, 33 Gt. Queen St., W.C.

The Atholl Lodges: their Authentic History. Being a Memorial of the Grand Lodge of England "according to the old Institutions." Compiled from official sources. By Robert Freke Gould, author of "the Four Old Lodges." London: Spencer's Masonic Depôt, opposite Freemasons' Hall. 1879.

We remember once to have heard of a brother who, on being asked if the Lodge he belonged to was an "ancient" or a "modern" one, indignantly replied that it must be an "ancient" one, as its warrant was dated 173—. The worthy Mason was in blissful ignorance of there having been a great Secession subsequent to the date of his Lodge Warrant, and that the seceders styled themselves, or caused themselves to be styled, "Ancients," in contradistinction from the body which they seceded from, whom they scoffingly regarded as "Moderns," from, as they said, having destroyed certain landmarks and made innovations upon free and ancient Masonry. So in taking up this work of Bro. Gould's, there are doubtless brethren who, if they should be asked what are or were the "Atholl" Lodges, may suggest that they are or were Lodges named after a certain nobleman who bore the title of Atholl, though it is equally on the cards they might imagine they are or were Lodges held in a certain district in Scotland, while some may confound their members with the celebrated "Atholl Brose," the final e being a Masonic eccentricity in the way of spelling. To speak with becoming seriousness, however, we, who are so justly proud of our good old Craft, are very careless about her history. We are improving, it is true, but former generations of Masons were bad hands at keeping Lodge records in order. Some fought shy of compiling any records at all, under the impression that anything in the way of archives from which a history of Freemasonry might some day be compiled, was inconsistent with the secrecy on which the Order prided itself. They did not seem to distinguish between the secrecy which in its proper place is admirable, and the secrecy which being out of place and entirely unnecessary could not be otherwise than hurtful. Thus there is no subject more interesting to the seeker after Masonic truth than the history of this great Secession which for close on three quarters of a century kept the Masonry of England arrayed in hostile camps, and summarily stopped all friendly intercourse between those who should have looked on each other as brethren. Yet neither body appears to have thought it worth while to found materials on which such a history could be based. By "materials," of course we mean such as without detriment could be made public. Preston, and those who have followed in his footsteps, have managed, in spite of this want of matter, to compile works mostly interesting, but invariably containing much that cannot be accepted as trustworthy, and which certainly would never have been made to pass current as belonging to Masonic history, had those who preceded them been more considerate of the historic interests of the Fraternity. Now, as we have said, we are becoming more enlightened; at the same time we are as tenacious as ever in keeping veiled from the inspection of the uninitiated what is just and proper; and thanks to the labours of such brethren as Hughan, Woodford, Bell, Kelly, Lyon, and the author of this work, we are gradually becoming alive to the fact that Masonry has a history of which its members may be proud, and the publication of which will do much towards raising it in the estimation of the world. The more that is known of our Craft, the more highly and the more generally will it be appreciated. Hence the welcome we accord so readily and so heartily to this second instalment of Bro. Gould's labours, which, albeit of necessity dry reading in parts, is nevertheless valuable from the simple circumstance that it is derived from authentic sources. Indeed, whenever Bro. Hughan or some equally competent brother shall venture on the task of writing of this Secession, he will find ready to hand this work of Bro. Gould's, and we make bold to say he will bless the thought which prompted Bro. Gould to undertake so laborious a task.

Digitized by Google

The Preface explains briefly who were the Atholl Masons, and how they came to be so designated. As those who take an interest in these matters are aware, they were the seceders from the Grand Lodge of England as constituted in 1717. They were the so-called "Ancients," and subsequently received the name of Atholl from the Duke of that title, who presided over them in the capacity of Grand Master. They were undoubtedly a numerous and important body. They boasted a considerable number of Lodges distributed throughout England and her colonies and dependencies, and even in foreign parts. And when, in 1813, the great schism which for so long a period had divided English Freemasons was healed, the "Ancients" met their brethren of the still more ancient body on equal terms, and the hundred and odd Lodges yet remaining on the roll of the United Grand Lodge are worthily placed, and still remain as so many admirable monuments to the energy of Atholl Masonry. But they do not seem to have been imbued with any considerable desire to hand down to future generations of Masons anything like an account of their doings, being in this respect most admirable imitators of the "Moderns," whom they affected to despise so much. Nor do they seem to have concerned themselves much about the publication of Lodge rolls. Though the schism dates from 1738 or thereabouts—there is no fixing with certainty its exact date—it was not till 1807 that a list of Lodges was published at the end of Ahiman Rezon, its official profession of faith, so far as such profession could be made known to the world. Nor from the fact of the Grand Lodge Lists, as kept by successive Grand Secretaries, containing always the same numbers, is it so easy—or perhaps we should say, is it by any means less difficult—to trace out the course of individual Lodges as with the Moderns. The latter periodically closed up its numbers, so that what may have been Lodge No. 100 in 1740 or 1770, became in 1756 or 1781 (say) Lodge No. 30. The "ancient" practice appears to have been that whenever a Lodge (say) No. 20 on the list, fell into abeyance, an inferior number (say) Lodge No. 53, was allowed to have the Warrant of the former and older Lodge on making a certain payment to the Charity Fund. Thus, while those of the Modern Lodges yet existing show an uninterrupted career from the original grant of the Warrant till now—always, of course, excepting any period or periods of years during which they may have lain dormant—an ancient Lodge, though high up on the list, need not be so old as its position would seem to warrant. This will be better understood by a reference to the Cosmopolitan Masonic Calendar, where Lodges founded in 1751, as in the case of Nos. 7, 9, and 11, are below No. 1 dated 1759, No. 3 dated 1784, and No. 5 dated 1752. It will be seen still more clearly on reference to (say) present No. 3 Lodge, which was No. 2 at the Union, in the notes to which we read the following:—"18th February, 1778: Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Lodge, that No. 2, and some other numbers, may be disposed of, much to the advantage of the Fund of Charity.—G. L. Min., 21st February 5784 (1784). From 32, received six guineas for the Warrant by order of the Grand Lodge. R. L.—G. S. Note in G. L. Reg." This excerpt will enable readers to judge of the extent of Bro. Gould's labours, and the time and patience he must have brought to bear on their fulfilment. But all he has chosen to insert is not as dry as the above passage. Thus under present No. 30—Ancient No. 23, we read that its Warrant was "cancelled 16th September 1778, sundry members having pawned the Lodge jewels (restored 1st December 1779, and again cancelled a fortnight later)." Again, in the Note under present No. 73, we read of a Master of a Lodge having been reprimanded for initiating a "cripple," and also the following dated 15th August 1804, from the minutes of the Stewards' Lodge. "That T. Sculthorpe being a person not perfect in body, but deformed, and much below the common stature of Man, was a very improper person to become, and is now unfit to continue, a member of this most ancient and honourable Fraternity, and consequently not entitled to the advantages or privileges of Masonry in any degree whatever." And it is added that this was "confirmed by G. L. 5th Sept. 1804."

At p 44 appears this note in connection with present No. 177, "The Domatic," formerly ancient No. 234:—

16 April, 1806: Grand Warden Plummer reported that Bros. Tuffield and Allen of 264, and Ward of 234, had lately taken upon themselves to address H.R.H. the Duke of Kent, and requested H.R.H. to adopt and take upon himself the Office of Grand Master, and which address H.R.H. had been pleased to return an answer, under the impression that the said address had been written by the order, or under the Sanction of the Grand Lodge. Ordered, that the said brothers be summoned to attend the next Stewards' Lodge to answer their most unwarrantable conduct in the premises, and that the Master and Wardens of 234 and 264 be also summoned to attend. 21 May, 1806: Ordered, that Bros. Tuffield, Allen and Ward be severely reprimanded from the chair, and that such like conduct will in no case be permitted to pass in future.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents.

We cannot undertake to return rejected communications.

All Letters must bear the name and address of the Writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

THE MASONIC RITUAL.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—Bro. Jacob Norton is so fully and thoroughly capable of defending his own position and of fighting his own battles, that it would be the height of presumption for any one to take up the cudgels for him.

To Bro. Norton's care therefore will I leave any reply he may choose to make to the letter of "P.G.C. OXON" in your last issue. But there are one or two points in that communication touching upon a subject specially interesting to brethren who conscientiously decline to subscribe to the Thirty-nine Articles of the Church Militant.

I frankly confess to a feeling of a considerable amount of diffidence in venturing to oppose my humble opinions to such an authority as the P.G.C. Oxon. Nevertheless I will ask leave to make some observations upon the remarks of the reverend brother in reference to freedom of the ritual from sectarianism.

If I read Bro. Norton's communication aright, I failed to deduce from it even the remotest intention to revolutionise the Craft into a Society "which owns neither God nor Heaven," but hailed his suggestions as of the utmost practical value.

Bro. Stevens's attempt to revise the existing Ritual would be a splendid opportunity to purify from the remaining vestiges of dogmatic sectarianism what ought to bear upon every part of it the stamp of universality. Except in one instance the Craft degrees are acceptable to Jews, Deists, and Christians alike.

The point alluded to occurs in the third degree, when the candidate is exhorted to "lift his eyes to that bright morning star whose rising brings peace and salvation," &c. The allusion, intelligible enough is, however, so vague that it is scarcely worth while to take exception to it. But if the rev. brother be a Royal Arch Mason, he most assuredly cannot conscientiously assert that this ceremony is free from sectarianism, for here we have unmistakable evidence that originally Freemasonry was thoroughly imbued with the popular dogmas of sectarian Christianity, the remnants of which are not only clearly discernible, but even very distinctly defined, as for instance the reference to the triune essence of God, &c., and several others of equal importance, very thinly and even clumsily veiled. Who will dispute that that is sectarianism? and who will deny that as a matter of consistency with Masonic principle it is high time that such anomalies should be expunged?

As the matter stands at present, Jewish brethren and others labour under the necessity of so altering the sense as to suit their convictions, but that is at the same time felt to be an act of disloyalty, though enforced, and why need any one be subjected to this, in a manner, dishonourable ordeal.

With P.G.C. I wish to steer clear of the question of Uniformity of Working, and will only venture to advise Bro. Stevens to give the suggestions of Bro. Norton his best consideration, for though he might happen to fail in his pet scheme of Uniformity, he may succeed in being the means of ridding the Ritual of many strange but accountable anomalies, and thus earn the gratitude of every impartial and anti-sectarian member of the Craft.

Yours, &c.

E. GOTTHEIL.

The Queen has appointed Bro. the Ven. Arthur Perceval Purey-Cust, M.A., Archdeacon of Buckingham, Hon. Canon of Christ Church, and Deputy Provincial Grand Master of Berks and Bucks, to the vacant Deanery at York.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—In general debility, mental depression and nervous irritability, there is no medicine which operates so like a charm as these famous Pills. They purify the blood, soothe and strengthen the nerves and system, give tone to the stomach, elevate the spirits, and, in fact, make a patient sensible of a total and most delightful revolution in his whole system. They may be commended most unreservedly as the very best family medicine in existence. Though so powerfully efficacious, they are singularly mild in their operation, and might be given with perfect confidence to delicate women and young children. They contain not a grain of mercury, or any other noxious substance, and cannot do harm. Delicate females and all persons of sedentary habits will find these Pills a blessing.

Digitized by Google

THE HISTORY OF CRAFT MASONRY IN READING.

An Address, delivered by Bro. Chas. Oades W.M. to the Union Lodge 414, on Tuesday, 16th December 1879.

(Continued from page 119.)

In 1843, Bro. John Jackson Blandy was installed W.M., the Lodge also went into mourning for twelve months on account of the death of H.R.H. the Duke of Sussex G.M.

In 1845, the Lodge also went into mourning for six months, on account of the death of Bro. Ramsbottom R.W. Prov. G.M. of Berkshire. In December of this year Bro. J. Leaver was initiated, and in the following April was appointed Secretary, an office he held uninterruptedly until last Christmas.

In June 1847, the late Bro. Botley was initiated, and on the same evening Bro. the Rev. Arthur Roberts, the present Vicar of Barkham, and for many years the Chaplain of the Lodge, was initiated. About this period in our history of the Lodge the minute book invariably ends as follows, "and the brethren retired to the George Inn, where they partook of a banquet, and afterwards separated at an early hour."

In February 1848, there was a very large gathering of the Craft, the occasion being the Installation of the Marquis of Downshire as W.M. of the Lodge of Union, and afterwards, at a P.G. Lodge, as R.W.P.G. Master of Berks and Bucks. The same P.G.M. was re-elected the following year, but all the work appears to have been done by Bro. Gibson, who acted as D.P.G.M.

In April 1850, appears the name of Bro. F. A. Bulley as initiated, and in November Bro. Sir C. S. Paul Hunter as joining.

Bro. H. E. Jordan presided over the Lodge this year, and distinguished himself as a very energetic Mason.

In March 1851, Bro. Robt. Gibson P.M. offered 40,000 bricks as a contribution towards building a Masonic Hall; a committee was at once appointed to make inquiries as to a suitable site, and to ascertain what support the scheme was likely to meet with. In the following month the Marquis of Downshire held a P.G. Lodge in the Town Hall. In June Bro. W. H. Ferguson, the father of my energetic J.D., first saw the light of a Mason.

In March 1853, the Lodge passed a resolution to have only three banquets yearly (previously they had a banquet after every Lodge).

In 1854, Bro. the Rev. Arthur Roberts (now Vicar of Barkham), was installed the W.M., and at his first Lodge initiated that ornament of Masonry, Bro. W. W. Moxhay, our present installing Master; this is now a quarter of a century ago, but his frequent presence amongst us testifies that his interest in the Craft and the welfare of the Lodge is still undiminished. In 1855, the late Bro. Botley was W.M.; he had a heavy year's work during his Mastership; at his last Lodge three initiations, one passing, and two raisings! Bro. Moxhay was elected W.M. in 1857.

In 1859, the Lodge again migrated to the room in St. Laurence's Churchyard. The 23rd of March in this year was a red letter day for the Masons of Reading, for the offer of Bro. Robt. Gibson (previously alluded to) bore fruit; and the foundation stone of this beautiful Lodge room was laid by the Marquis of Downshire; the brethren attended St. Laurence's Church, the services being conducted by Bro. Sir J. W. Hayes, who read the prayers, and Bro. A. Roberts, who preached the sermon, which was appropriate to the occasion. The first Lodge was held in the new building on the 20th November 1860. Bro. J. B. Clacy was the Architect, and was installed as the first Master in the new building.

In February 1861, Bros. W. P. Ivey and R. C. Hurley, both prominent among the Masons of Reading, were received into the Craft, and at the following Lodge, Bro. Chas. Smith, one of our P.M.'s, who still visits the room where he first saw the Masonic light, was initiated.

In 1862, the Lodge appears to have been worked very badly, and one of the P.M.'s proposed a resolution equivalent to a vote of censure at the November Lodge; it was not carried, but the brethren appear to have marked their sense of the W.M.'s shortcomings by not voting him the usual jewel. In April 1863, the following resolution was carried:—"That no brother shall be installed into the chair unless he can open and close the Lodge in the three degrees, and be able to perform the ceremonies of initiation and passing; and that the W.M., and two P.M.'s appointed by him, shall examine the brother proposed to be elected as W.M. as to his efficiency, and decide thereon."

In June 1863, Bro. Stransom, the present Treasurer of 1101, was initiated, and in August Bro. Hounslow P.M. also came into the Craft. In this year the number of the Lodge was altered from 597 to 414.

In January 186', Bro. Robt. Bradley, our Prov. G. Sec., was received into the Craft. The same evening Bro. Moxhay appears to have installed the W.M. for the first time. In this year the brethren, by great exertion, succeeded in getting the daughter of the late Bro. Jordan elected into the Girls' School. In May, Bro. Weightman was initiated. In March 1865, Bro. Botley presented a new Bible to the Lodge, the old one being presented to Bro. Body. In 1866, Bro. A. Sellar was W.M. In March of this year the I.P.M. Bro. Hole died, and thirty-six of the brethren attended the funeral, and in the same month the officers of 414 signed a petition for the constitution of a new Lodge in Reading, which was speedily carried into effect; and the Grey Friars Lodge, No. 1101, was constituted by the Grand Registrar of England (who was then acting P.G.M. of Berks and Bucks), on the 17th May, and Bro. W. P. Ivey, the S.W. of 414, was installed as the first Master. From that time to the present, under a succession of energetic W.M.'s, the Lodge has had a continuous career of prosperity.

In November of this year, Bro. Sir Peter Spokes was initiated, and at the following Lodge Bro. Weightman presented the perfect ashlar with appurtenances, for which a vote of thanks was carried by acclamation.

Bro. Chas. Smith was the W.M. for 1867, and on the first meeting a petition for the formation of a R. A. Chapter in connection with 414 was agreed to, and the Chapter was duly formed. In March, Bro. Joseph Morris was initiated, and Bro. Weightman received the thanks of the Lodge for the broken column presented by him.

Bro. John Old was W.M. for 1868. In December of that year an official notice was received that Sir Daniel Gooch, Bart. M.P., was appointed Prov. G.M. for Berks and Bucks, which office he still holds, to the great advantage of the province.

In 1869, Bro. J. T. Blowers was W.M., and in 1870 Bro. Hounslow. This was an important year for the Masons, as the new Prov. G.M. published a fresh set of By-laws for the guidance of the Province, to which was added a History of the Province, by Bro. W. Biggs P.M. Prov. G. Sec. In 1871, Bro. Robert Bradley, our present active Prov. G. Sec., filled the chair, and in 1872 Bro. J. A. Strachan was installed. In November of this year Bro. W. Biggs was made an hon. member, in recognition of his many services, both in this province and that of Wilts.

Bro. J. Weightman was W.M. in 1873; in April of this year an effort was commenced to reduce the mortgage debt on the Lodge premises, by setting apart for that purpose the rents received from the Grey Friars Lodge and Union Chapter. In November Bro. Weightman, in addition to his many other gifts, presented a set of silver third degree working tools, for which a vote of thanks was carried by acclamation. Bro. Joseph Morris was W.M. in 1874, and initiated Bros. F. J. Ferguson, M. J. Withers, D. H. Witherington and S. Wheeler, all of whom are now Officers, and I hope will in due time occupy this chair. In 1875, Bro. Strickland was W.M., and in February initiated Bro. C. Stephens, the present J.W. of the Lodge and G. Treasurer of the Province. H.R.H. the Prince of Wales was installed M.W.G.M. of England in the Albert Hall, London, a large number of P.M.'s and brethren from this Province attending. In June the brethren invited Bro. the Rev. A. P. Purey-Cust to a banquet on his leaving Reading, about sixty attended.

Bro. A. M. Yetts was installed in 1876, and during his year of office a very handsome jewel, subscribed for by the two Lodges, was presented to Bro. Moxhay, in appreciation of his services as Installing Master. Sir D. Gooch, Bart. M.P. the Prov. G. M. attending to make the presentation. In April Bro. the Rev. N. T. Garry our present Chaplain was initiated. On the completion of his year of office, Bro. Yetts presented the Lodge with a complete set of working tools, for which a vote of thanks was recorded.

Bro. S. A. Pocock was W.M. in 1877, and in this year Bro. Weightman represented the Lodge as Steward at the R.M.I.B., the Lodge voting ten guineas to his list. As the number of Trustees was considerably reduced by death, new Trustees of the building were appointed, consisting of Bros. Moxhay, R. Bradley, Weightman, Morris and Chas. Stephens; opportunity was taken to reduce the mortgage debt by the payment of £100, leaving £400 still owing.

In 1878, Bro. E. Baker was installed W.M., in which year Bro. R. Bradley P.M. Prov. G. Sec. went up as Steward to the Festival of the R.M.I.G. the Lodge voting ten guineas to his list.

In November the W.M. announced that Bro. Leaver, who had been Secretary of the Lodge for more than thirty years, was compelled by failing health to resign his office. Having to examine every page of the minute book for more than 33 years to extract the details which I have had the pleasure of submitting to the Lodge, no one better than myself can testify as to the most excellent way in which the minutes have been kept, and I trust the brethren will all put their shoulders to the wheel, and help to secure for Bro. Leaver the pension for which he is a candidate, and which he so richly deserves.

I have now traced (as far as the records will allow) the career of Craft Masonry from its commencement in Reading down to the present year, which has been principally distinguished by the recent visit of the M.W. the Pro G.M. to set the memorial stone of the new Town Hall and other buildings, which, when completed, will prove of incalculable advantage to this Town, and when in two or three years a splendid pile of buildings occupy the ground where we stood on that day, every Mason who was present will feel proud that he took a part, however humble, in its inauguration.

The J.W. Bro. C. Stephens proposed a vote of thanks to the W.M. for his very entertaining and instructive address, which was seconded and carried with enthusiastic acclamation.

Grey Friars Lodge, No. 1101.—The regular monthly meeting of this Lodge took place at the Masonic Hall, Reading, on Wednesday 11th February. Present—Bros. Danks W.M., Flanagan I.P.M., Ferguson S.W., Blackwell J.W., Stransom Treas., Ivey P.M. Sec., Dowsett S.D., Prickett Steward acting J.D., Hawkes D.C., Newman I.G., Hemmings Tyler; Past Masters Bros. Welch and Margrett; Bros. Vowles, Hukins, Rhind, Beeton, Bailey, C. Weatherhead, Wort, Fitcombe. Visitors—Bros. J. Williams, J. W. Creaton Lodge 1791, S. Bradley W.M. 414, Withers Sec. 414, Wheeler J.D. 414, Trill Ellington 1666, Moody P.M. The Great City 1426. Lodge was opened, and the minutes of last regular Lodge were read and confirmed. Bros. Collins, Wort, and Titcombe gave proof of their efficiency, were entrusted, and, with Bro. Weatherhead, were passed to the degree of F.C., the W.M. giving the charge. The Treasurer's accounts as audited by the Permanent Committee were passed; there was a balance of over £30 in hand. Bro. Bailey gave notice of motion "that the sum of Ten Guineas from the Funds of the Lodge be voted to the R.M.I.G., the same to be added to the list of the W.M., who will represent the Lodge at the forthcoming Festival." The labours of the evening being ended, the Lodge was closed according to ancient form, and adjourned to the second Wednesday in the ensuing month.

The Fifteen Sections will be worked in the Constitutional Lodge of Instruction, No. 55, at the Bedford Hotel, Southampton-buildings, on the fourth Tuesday in March.

Digitized by Google

DALHOUSIE LODGE BALL.

THE First Annual Ball in connection with the Dalhousie Lodge, No. 860, took place at the Holborn Town Hall, on Thursday, 19th instant, and proved one of the greatest successes of the season. Dancing was kept up withspirit, and was thoroughly enjoyed by most of those present. Bro. Weige, W.M. of the Lodge, presided at the supper, which was well supplied by Bro. Giscard (of Holborn Hill). Knowing the pleasures in store for the guests in the ball room, the president expressed his intention of being very brief in his remarks. The toast of the Queen having been honoured, he proposed one which he considered of almost as great importance. He only wished that its proposition had been placed in the hands of some brother better able to do it justice. When the heart was full, the words came but slowly, and for this reason the company must excuse him if he appeared to be lax in paying a tribute to the ladies. He felt delighted that the present meeting had given him an opportunity of welcoming the ladies to a participation in the pleasures of his Lodge. With the toast was coupled the name of Bro. W. W. Morgan jun., who acknowledged the compliment on behalf of the fair sex. Success to the Dalhousie Ball was now given from the chair, and was heartily acknowledged by the company assembled, as was the next—that of the health of the promoters of the Ball. Bros. Dobson, Dickins and Wallington having replied, the latter Brother heartily proposed the health of the President, which having been drunk in bumpers, was acknowledged by Bro. Weige. Dancing was resumed and kept up till a late hour in the morning.

SOC. ROSICR: in Anglia.

York College.—The first meeting of this College was held at the Masonic Rooms, Queen's Hotel, York, on Tuesday, 24th inst., under the presidency of the Ch. Adept, R.W. Fratre T. B. Whytehead VIII.° A successful ballot was taken for a number of aspirants, of whom the following were admitted to the M.C.:—Bros. Edward Linck, Bradford, Pentalpha 974; J. Maffey, Bradford, P.M. Sincerity 1019; T. E. Clark, Pontefract, P.M., St. Oswald's 910; Rev. James Blake, York, Harmonic 216; and Wm. H. Porritt, Bridlington, P.M. Fidelity 289. The Chief Adept made the following appointments to offices in the College:—Fratres J. S. Cumberland VII. Celebrant, Rev. W. C. Lukis VI. Suffragan, Rev. Jas. Blake V. Prov. Sec. Gen., Thomas J. Wilkinson V. Primus, Walter Rowley IV. Secundus, E. P. Peterson IV. Tertius, T. M. Richey III. Quartus, C. L. Mason IV. Conductor of N., Wm. Watson IV. G. of the T., Thomas W. Holmes III. Torch Bearer, W. P. Husband II. Medallist. Bro. J. Redfare was admitted as a serving Fratre, and appointed Acolyte. The Chief Adept then delivered the inaugural address, in which he gave an account of the early Rosicrucian Orders, and also of the modern system, its objects and aims, concluding with an appeal to the Fratres to render the York College worthy to bear the name of the ancient seat of Masonic legend and learning where they were then gathered, and that, as the College already numbered on its roll some of the best known and most intelligent Masons from all parts of the county, he hoped they would make it by their activity an example to all associations of the name. Letters were read from the following members of the College who were unable to be present:—Fratres Hon. W. T. Orde-Powlett V., J. W. Woodall, Wm. Lawton, Captain Murphy, Lieut. T. M. Richey, R.A., &c. Several names of aspirants were proposed and seconded, and the College was closed. The Fratres afterwards sat down to tea at the Queen's Hotel, and a most agreeable and intelligent evening was enjoyed. Fratres W. R. Woodman IX. S.M. in Anglia, W. J. Hughan IX., Colonel W. J. B. McLeod Moore IX., and Charles E. Meyer IX., were elected honorary members of the College.

JAMAICA.

Friendly Lodge, Kingston.—At the ordinary meeting held on 13th January, presided over by Bro. Moses Delgado W.M., and other Officers, the following Officers were duly installed:—Bros. J. Ashenheim W.M., G. De Mercado S.W., J. Lyons J.W., T. Tripe S.D., C. Girage J.D., J. C. Henriques Secretary and Treasurer, W. Munis I.G., G. Magnus Tyler, M. Delgado I.P.M. The following Past Masters were present:—Bros. J. W. Whitburn P.D.D.G.M., S. E. Pietry Sussex, Dr. Ogilvie St. John's, B. M. Dias Glenlyon, O. Delgado Phœnix, G. J. De Cordova Friendly, O. Delgado jun. Phœnix, J. J. G. and G. C. Lewis Friendly, Dr. Allen Jamaica, Nicholson Sussex, Paine St. John's, Stines Friendly, J. Thirlwall Royal, J. Maynier Collegium Fabrorum, and several brethren of sister Lodges. After the ceremony the brethren were invited to a choice banquet. This is the second time the R.W. J. Ashenheim has occupied the chair of this Lodge. The R.W. District Grand Master of East Jamaica was unable to attend.

Glenlyon Lodge.—At the ordinary meeting of the Glenlyon Lodge S.C., held on 14th January 1880, presided over by Bro. B. M. Dias as W.M. (in the absence of Bros. A. E. Burke, who has gone on a trip to Hayti), the following Officers were installed:—Bros. J. K. Spicer W.M., E. Melville S.W., W. D. Lovedmere J.W., B. M. Dias Treasurer, H. D. Mercado Secretary, A. Lyons S.D., C. M. Tomay J.D., R. C. Beecher I.G., J. Hayes Tyler. The R.W. Bro. the Hon. S. C. Burke Prov. G.M. of Scotland in Jamaica and Grey Town was present; also the following P.M.'s—Bros. Dr. Ogilvie St. John's, W. Mudin Sussex, W. Nicholson Sussex, G. J. De Cordova Friendly, J. Ashenheim Friendly, B. Stines Friendly, O. Delgado Phœnix, D. Barned Phœnix, L. C. Heliar Phœnix, G. P. Myers Phœnix, W. G. McFarlane Hamilton, J. Knox Glenlyon, G. Sergeant Royal, Mosquito from Falmouth, and several brethren of sister Lodges. After the installation ceremony the brethren sat down to a banquet, where they enjoyed themselves until the "wee small hours of the morn."

Sussex Lodge, Kingston.—The ordinary meeting was held on 21st January, at the Lodge Hall, presided over by Bro. Mudon and other Officers. The W.M. vacated the chair, and Bro. Dr. Tompsett presided and installed Bro. J. Harris Master; he then invested the following Officers:—Bros. W. A. Paine S.W., A. H. Jones J.W., E. N. Cox Treasurer, H. Priest Secretary, Dr. D. P. Ross S.D., J. C. Ford J.D., G. G. Waldron I.G., G. Magnus Tyler. The following P.M.'s were present:—Bros. Mudon, Pietry, Tompsett, Lee, Tait, Nicholson, of the Sussex Lodge; Harrison and Ashenheim, of the Friendly; Delgado Phœnix, Dadson Jamaica, Paine and Dr. Ogilvie St. John's, Dias and Spencer Glenlyon, Jamieson and McFarlane Hamilton; also a goodly number of brethren of sister Lodges. The District Grand Master was unable to attend.

District Grand Lodge of East Jamaica will hold its annual meeting in the month of February.

We are glad to announce that we have received into the folds of Masonry the Rev. W. E. Pierce, a clergyman of the Church of England in Jamaica, who was initiated into the mysteries at the Jamaica Lodge on 13th January, by Bro. Dr. Allen. This reverend gentleman has done so much good as a clergyman that we hope the day is not far distant when we may hear that he has taken some prominent part in our noble and ancient institution.

We are pleased beyond measure to find that the Board of General Purposes consider it "as much a duty as a pleasure" to recommend that a gratuity of 150 guineas be paid to Bro. H. G. Buss, Assistant Grand Secretary, for his services during the illness and absence of the Past Grand Secretary, Bro. Hervey, and from the time of the latter's resignation till the appointment of his successor. All who enjoy the privilege of knowing Bro. Buss are aware of the zeal and assiduity he displays in the performance of his official duties, as well as the uniform kindness and consideration he exhibits towards all who are brought in contact with him. This recommendation, therefore, from the Board comes most gracefully from them, who have had especial opportunities of judging of his worth. We do not doubt that Grand Lodge will adopt the Board's recommendation unanimously and with acclamation. Nor do we for our part regret in the slightest degree that so favourable an occasion has presented itself for offering our humble testimony as to the value of Bro. Buss's Masonic services as Assistant and Acting Grand Secretary, and in other capacities.

List of Lodges for which Warrants have been granted by the M.W. Grand Master since the last Quarterly Communication of Grand Lodge:—

1853.—Caxton Lodge, Freemasons' Hall.
1854.—Weald of Kent Lodge, Tenterden, Kent.
1855.—St. Maurice Lodge, Plympton, Devon.

We would remind our readers that the fifth anniversary banquet of the Metropolitan Lodge of Instruction, No. 1507, will take place on Tuesday next, at Bro. Kent's Moorgate Station Restaurant. A large attendance is expected, and we feel sure a good reception awaits any brethren who may decide on attending. Supper is announced for 7.30. Tickets three shillings and sixpence each.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE,

A Weekly Record of Masonic Intelligence. Sanctioned by the Grand Lodge of England.

Price—13s 6d per annum, post free.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE will be forwarded direct from the Office, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C., (opposite Freemasons' Hall), on receipt of Post Office Order for the amount. Intending Subscribers should forward their full Addresses to prevent mistakes.

Post Office Orders to be made payable to W. W. MORGAN, at High Holborn Office. Cheques crossed "London and County."

SCALE OF CHARGES FOR ADVERTISEMENTS.

Per Page...	...	...	...	...	...	£8	0	0
Back Page	...	...	...	...	...	£10	0	0

Births, Marriages and Deaths, 1s per line.

General Advertisements, Trade Announcements, &c. single column, 5s per inch. Double Column Advertisements 1s per line. Special Terms for a Series of Insertions on application.

Advertisers will find THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE an exceptionally good medium for Advertisements of every class.

London:—W. W. MORGAN, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C.
(Opposite Freemasons' Hall.)

Cloth Cases for Binding can be had from the Offices, price 1s 6d each.

Digitized by Google

THE

ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND

The First Meeting of Founders and others interested in the Establishment of this Fund will be held at

FREEMASONS' HALL, LONDON, W.C.

ON THURSDAY, 11TH MARCH 1880, AT 3 P.M.

Under the Presidency of

H.R.H. PRINCE LEOPOLD, K.G.

P.G.W. England, Prov. G.M. Oxfordshire.

The Vice Chair will be taken by

THE RIGHT HON. THE EARL OF ROSSLYN,

Past Grand Master of Scotland.

Brethren are fraternally invited to be present and co-operate in the foundation of the Fund. A List of promised Subscriptions will be read.

DICK RADCLYFFE, 129 High Holborn, London, W.C.
W. W. MORGAN JUN. FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Gt. Queen St., W.C.
} Secretaries.

Royal Masonic Institution for Girls,

ST. JOHN'S HILL, BATTERSEA RISE, S.W.

Office:—5 Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

Patron and President:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES K.G., &c., M.W.G.M.

Patroness:

HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS OF WALES.

THE NINETY-SECOND ANNIVERSARY FESTIVAL

WILL BE HELD AT

FREEMASONS' TAVERN, LONDON,

ON FRIDAY, 16th APRIL NEXT,

ON WHICH DAY

H.H.H. PRINCE LEOPOLD, K.C., P.G.W.,

R.W. Prov. G.M. for OXFORDSHIRE,

Has graciously signified his intention of presiding.

President of the Board of Stewards—

THE RIGHT HON. THE LORD MAYOR OF LONDON,
W. BRO. SIR FRANCIS WYATT TRUSCOTT, W.M. No. 1.

Acting President—

V.W. BRO. JOHN B. MONCKTON, P.G.D.,
President of the Board of General Purposes.

Treasurer—

W. BRO. E. LETCHWORTH, P. Prov. G.R. Middlesex.

Brethren desirous of accepting the office of Steward upon this auspicious occasion will greatly oblige by forwarding their names as early as convenient to the Secretary, who will gladly give any information required.

F. R. W. HEDGES,
Secretary to Institution,
Hon. Sec. to Board of Stewards.

SAWYER'S (LATE STATION) RESTAURANT,

5 RAILWAY PLACE, FENCHURCH STREET, E.C.

ENGLISH, FRENCH & GERMAN CUISINE.

Hot and Cold Luncheons on the Ground Floor;

This Room will accommodate 100 persons.

CHOPS, STEAKS, &c., FROM THE GRILL;

The Grill Room will seat 150 persons.

REID'S TREBLE STOUT. WORTHINGTON'S ALES,

BERLIN TIVOLI BEER.

TEA AND COFFEE ALWAYS READY.

CHAMPAGNES OF THE BEST BRANDS. OLD BOTTLED PORTS.

SHERRIES AND OTHER WINES OF THE BEST QUALITY.

Bro. F. J. SAWYER, Proprietor.

Late of Pimm's, and the Crystal Palace.

FISH DINNERS IN PERFECTION

2S EACH, including Soups, Entrées, Poultry, Joints, Cheese, Salad, Served from 12 to 4 daily.—GEORGE TAVERN, Billingsgate Market.

Sole Proprietor, GEORGE SMITH, from Anderton's Hotel.

THE FREEMASONS' TAVERN,

GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON. W.C.

The admirable and unrivalled accommodation provided at this Establishment for

MASONIC BANQUETS,

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE DINNERS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, BALLS, &c.

Is too well known to need comment. The entire management has been changed, and the Establishment in all its branches thoroughly re-organised.

The attention of the Masonic Body is directed to the many advantages offered.

CUISINE OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER.

WINES PERFECT IN CONDITION AND QUALITY.

N.B.—DINNERS PROVIDED FROM 3/-.

RESTAURANT, WINE, SMOKING & RETIRING ROOMS.

The fullest measure of public confidence and support ensured.

BRO. ALFRED BEST, PROPRIETOR.

ANDERTON'S HOTEL,

F. H. CLEMOW, PROPRIETOR,

Nos. 162, 164 & 165 Fleet Street, and 7 & 11 Johnson's Court, London.

THE ACCOMMODATION OFFERED AT THIS ESTABLISHMENT FOR

MASONIC MEETINGS, BANQUETS, &c.

IS UNRIVALLED.

THE premises have lately been rebuilt, and in order to maintain the time-honored reputation of the house, as one of the centres of London Freemasonry, special attention has been paid to the furnishing of Lodge quarters, which now comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL

Specially constructed for Masonic purposes, with preparation room adjoining,

A LARGE BANQUET HALL

Fitted with every necessary for the comfort of Visitors, &c., &c.

ROOMS FOR LARGE OR SMALL DINNER PARTIES, MEETINGS, &c.

THE CATHEDRAL HOTEL,

CORNER OF

CHEAPSIDE & ST. PAUL'S CHURCHYARD.

—:o:—

F. J. SWEETING, Proprietor.

—:o:—

LUNCHEON BAR ON GROUND FLOOR FOR LIGHT REFRESHMENTS.

Soups, Fish, Chops, Steaks, Entrées, Cold Joints, &c. from Eight a.m. till Ten p.m.

DINING ROOMS ON FIRST FLOOR.

Hot Joints, &c. from Twelve o'Clock daily.
Dinners a la Carte. Teas, &c.

THE "CATHEDRAL HALF-CROWN DINNER"

(Soup, Fish, Joint)

Is served in the Saloon from Twelve till Five daily.

The Smoking Room overlooks the New Gardens round St. Paul's Cathedral.

PRIVATE ROOMS FOR SMALL PARTIES, MASONIC AUDITS, &c.

The following Lodges have recently held their Audit Meetings at this Hotel:—GROSVENOR, STANHOPE, POLISH NATIONAL, LA TOLERANCE, &c.

OPENING OF THE CRITERION ANNEXE.

SPIERS & POND respectfully beg to inform their Patrons, that to meet the increasing demands of their business at the Criterion, the premises have been greatly enlarged, by the addition of the above building. The principal features of the New Establishment are as follows:—

The Cafe, comprising—

The American Bar,
The Vienna Bier Saal.

VIANDS FROM THE NEW GRILL. SUPPERS SERVED TILL MIDNIGHT.

Oysters a Specialite.

The Victoria Hall, for Banquets, Balls, Wedding Breakfasts, Soirées, and Entertainments.

The Prince's and Carnarvon Rooms, for Masonic Meetings, Banquets, &c.

Private Rooms, suitable for the meetings of Public and Corporate Bodies, Arbitrations, &c.

The Criterion Departments.

Buffet	... ...	For Luncheons and Light Refreshments.
Restaurant	... ...	Dinners à la Carte.
Cigar Divan	... ...	Facing Piccadilly entrance.
Smoking Room	...	Adjoining the Buffet.
Grill Room	... ...	Entrance in Jermyn Street.
West Dining Room		Le Diner Parisien daily from 5.30 till 9 p.m., and on Sundays.
East Dining Room	...	Dinners à la Carte.
The Grand Hall	...	Table d'Hote daily, from 5.30 till 8 p.m. (also on Sundays at 6).
Private Rooms	...	For Dinners, Wedding Breakfasts, &c., &c.

DINNERS

FROM THE JOINT from TWELVE to THREE o'clock, CHOPS and STEAKS from the GRILL till FIVE o'clock.
T. MAIDWELL, Hercules Tavern, Lee lenhall-st., City, E.C.

Digitized by Google

FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE

23 GREAT QUEEN STREET, W.C.

UNITED GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

THE following is the business to be transacted in Grand Lodge on Wednesday, 3rd March 1880.

1. The regulations for the Government of Grand Lodge during the time of Public Business will be read.

2. The minutes of the Quarterly Communication of the 3rd December 1879, and of the Especial Grand Lodge of the 17th January 1880, will be read and put for confirmation.

3. Election of a M.W. Grand Master.

4. Election of a Grand Treasurer.

5. The M.W. Grand Master will move:—

"That this Grand Lodge do contribute the sum of Five Hundred Pounds, to be paid out of the Fund of General Purposes, towards the Duchess of Marlborough's Fund, for the relief of distress in Ireland, and that the same be at once paid to the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, P.G. Steward, W.M. Grand Master's Lodge, No. 1, for the purposes of the said Fund."

6. Report of the Lodge of Benevolence for the last quarter, in which are recommendations for the following Grants, viz:

The Petition of a brother of the One and All Lodge, No. 330, Bodmin, which was referred back by Grand Lodge on the 3rd 1879, was re-considered, and that brother was again recommended for a Grant of	£100	0	0
A Brother of the Lodge of Fortitude, No. 131, Truro ...	100	0	0
A Brother of the Domatic Lodge, No. 177, London ...	50	0	0
A Brother of the Joppa Lodge, No. 188, London ...	50	0	0
The Widow of a Brother of the Neptune Lodge, No. 22, London	50	0	0
A Brother of the Royal Gloucestershire Lodge, No. 839, Gloucester	100	0	0
A Brother of the Lodge of Concord, No. 632, Trowbridge	75	0	0
A Brother of the Lodge of Felicity, No. 58, London ...	100	0	0
A Brother of the Phœnix Lodge, No. 257, Portsmouth ...	75	0	0
A Brother of the Cambrian Lodge of Australia, No. 656, Sydney, N.S.W.	50	0	0
A Brother of the Union Lodge, No. 310, Carlisle ...	50	0	0
The widow of a Brother of the Skiddaw Lodge, No. 1002, Cockermouth	75	0	0
The Widow of a Brother of the Royal Yorkshire Lodge, No. 265, Keighley	50	0	0
A Brother of the Lodge of The Three Graces, No. 408, Haworth	75	0	0
A Brother of the Lodge of Prosperity, No. 65, London	75	0	0

7. REPORT OF THE BOARD OF GENERAL PURPOSES.

To the United Grand Lodge of Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of England.

The Board of General Purposes report as follows:—

(1.) It having come to the knowledge of the Board that the freehold premises Nos. 57 and 58 Great Queen Street, adjoining Freemasons' Hall, were about to be sold by auction, it was thought desirable to acquire the same at a fair price, and it was referred to the Premises Committee to take steps accordingly. In result the premises were purchased for £3,500 and £3,000 respectively, and have since been duly conveyed to the Trustees of Grand Lodge.

(2.) The Board have by their Premises Committee given very careful consideration to the requirements of the three Masonic Benevolent Institutions for further office accommodation, and having acquired the necessary land in the rear of the present offices have obtained from the Grand Superintendent of Works plans, which they learn are acceptable to the Institutions, and estimates for carrying out the same at a cost of £2,500, which, added to the £1,550, the cost of the land, will enable the Board to provide for the three offices space and accommodation of about three times the amount now furnished, the rent for the same being re-arranged at something under that proportion. The Board will also, if Grand Lodge approves, have the opportunity of providing a spacious Muniment Room in the basement at a cost estimated by the Grand Superintendent of Works at £450, which will be available at a reasonable rental to the various Lodges meeting at Freemasons' Hall.

(3.) The Board have also obtained an estimate from the Grand Superintendent of Works for the necessary works to be done to render the Library available as an office for the Grand Secretary. The amount of this is £75.

(4.) The period having fully arrived when painting and cleaning must be done to the whole interior of Freemasons' Hall the Board have given this their careful consideration, and by their direction the Grand Superintendent of Works has considered the subject, not only with reference to the general reparation positively necessary, but also importing into it a moderate amount of appropriate decoration, the cost of the whole of which he estimates at £3,000; although this sum may appear large, the Board feel satisfied that, looking at the extent of the premises, it would be a reasonable outlay for very necessary work.

(5.) The Board feel it as much a duty as a pleasure to draw the attention of Grand Lodge to the services rendered by Brother H. G. Buss, the Assistant Grand Secretary, during the illness and absence of the late Grand Secretary, Brother Hervey, and after his resignation until the appointment of the present Grand Secretary; and they unanimously recommend that in consideration of the assiduous manner in which these services were performed a gratuity of 150 guineas be paid to Brother Buss.

(6.) The Board have to report the Masonic misconduct of a Lodge in passing a Brother with an interval of 23 days only after his initiation. They ordered that the Brother in question be re-obligated, and the Lodge was fined £2 2s, and admonished.

(7.) The attention of the Board has been emphatically drawn to the frequent occurrence in new Lodges of Brethren (other than Petitioners) being permitted to join on the night of consecration without ballot, and of course without previous proposition as enjoined by the Constitutions; and directions have been given that an unmistakable intimation of the illegality of such a proceeding shall accompany the delivery of every new Warrant.

(Signed) JOHN B. MONCKTON,
President.

FREEMASONS' HALL, LONDON, W.C.
17th February 1880.

To the Report is subjoined a Statement of the Grand Lodge Accounts, at the last Meeting of the Finance Committee, held on Friday, the 13th February instant, shewing a Balance in the Bank of England of £4,087 17s 6d; and in the hands of the Grand Secretary for Petty Cash £75, and for Servants' Wages £96 15s, and £22 14s 5d in the hands of the Solicitor of the Society.

The President will move:—

1. That the report be received and entered on the minutes.

2. That the various works mentioned in the Report be carried out, and that it be referred back to the Board to execute the same in accordance with the estimates submitted.

3. That the recommendation in paragraph 5 of the Report, with reference to the Assistant Grand Secretary, be adopted.

8. Report of Bro. R. P. Harding, Auditor of Grand Lodge Accounts, of Receipts and Disbursements during the year 1879.

9. Proposed Motions:—

1. By Brother John M. Clabon P.G.D., President of the Lodge of Benevolence.

That the following additions be made to the Book of Constitutions, Fund of Benevolence:—

17. Until Grand Lodge shall otherwise direct, one-third of the annual surplus of the Fund of Benevolence shall be appropriated for the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys, and another third for the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls, in forming funds for apprenticing the children of Freemasons who have been in those Schools, or in otherwise assisting them to commence life.

18. Such one-third parts respectively shall be invested in the names of four Trustees for each School, to be appointed by Grand Lodge, and the dividends paid to the Treasurer of each School.

19. The General Committee, on the recommendation of the House Committee of each School, may apply the dividends of the funds respectively appropriated to the School for the benefit of children who have been at the School during the preceding twelve months, in apprenticing them to any business or profession, or otherwise aiding them to obtain employment, or in applying any sum granted by annual instalments for a limited period for the benefit of those proceeding to any School, College, or University.

20. No sum exceeding £25 shall be appropriated for the benefit of any child without the consent of the Quarterly Court of the School, and such Court shall render to Grand Lodge an annual account of the receipts and expenditure on account of the said fund.

That the Constitutions, No. 3, Fund of Benevolence, be amended by adding, after the word "shall" in the second line, the words "except as provided for by clauses 17, 18, 19, and 20."

2. By Brother George J. McKay, P.M. No. 129, Kendal.

"To move the non-confirmation of that part of the minutes of Grand Lodge held last December, so far as it relates to Brother James Stevens's motion."

3. By Brother James Stevens, P.M. No. 720.

"To nominate the following Brethren to form the Committee of enquiry into and report upon the present systems of Masonic working, in accordance with the vote of Grand Lodge on the 3rd of December last, viz.:—

Bros. The Rev. C. W. Arnold D.P.G.M. Surrey; Thomas J. Barnes P.M., East London; E. T. Budden P.M., Dorset; J. S. Cumberland P.M., N. and E. Yorks; Thomas Howkins P.M., Warwickshire; F. H. Wilson Iles D.P.G.M. Herts; Rev. C. J. Martyn D.P.G.M. Suffolk; C. L. Mason Prov. G. Treasurer West Yorks; C. F. Matier P.G.S.W. Greece; Rev. R. J. Simpson Past Grand Chaplain, London; J. Brooks Smith Prov. G. Treasurer Gloucester; James Stevens P.M., London; Butler Wilkins D.P.G.M. Norths and Hunts."

Digitized by Google

DIARY FOR THE WEEK.

We shall be obliged if the Secretaries of the various Lodges throughout the Kingdom will favour us with a list of their Days of Meeting, &c., as we have decided to insert only those that are verified by the Officers of the several Lodges.

—:o:—

SATURDAY, 28th FEBRUARY.

House Committee, Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution, Croydon, at 3
198—Percy, Jolly Farmers' Tavern, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1364—Earl of Zetland, Nags Head, Mare-street, Hackney, at 7 (Instruction)
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
1706—Orpheus, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8
140 Peace, Private Rooms, Meltham.
1462—Wharncliffe, Rose and Crown Hotel, Penistone
R. A. 178—Harmony, Royal Hotel, Wigan.

MONDAY, 1st MARCH.

45—Strong Man, New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, at 8 (Instruction)
58—London Masonic Club Lodge of Instruction, 101 Queen Victoria-street, at 6
174—Sincerity, Railway Tavern, London-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
180—St. James's Union, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
188—Joppa, Albion, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
548—Wellington, White Swan, High-street, Deptford, at 8 (Instruction)
704—Camden, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
1306—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-st., Wapping, at 8 (Instruction)
1425—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-rd., Paddington, at 8 (Instruction)
1445—Prince Leopold, Mitford Tavern, Sandringham-road, Dalston, at 8 (Inst.)
1489—Marquess of Ripon, Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-rd., Hackney, at 7.30 (In.)
1623—West Smithfield, New Market Hotel, King-st., Snow-hill, at 8 (Inst.)
1625—Tredegar, Royal Hotel, Mile End-road, corner of Burdett-road (Inst.)
1669—Royal Leopold, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
R.A. 1615—Bayard, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square
M.M. 139—Panmure, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
M. M.—Old Kent, Trocadero, Broad Street Buildings, E.C. at 6.30 (Instruction)
37—Anchor and Hope, Freemasons' Hall, Church Institute, Bolton-le-Moors
53—Royal Sussex, Masonic Hall, Old Orchard-street, Bath.
119—Sun, Square and Compasses, Freemasons' Hall, Whitehaven.
133—Harmony, Ship Hotel, Faversham.
154—Unanimity, Masonic Hall, Zetland-street, Wakefield.
156—Harmony, Huyshe Masonic Temple, Plymouth.
199—Peace and Harmony, Royal Oak Hotel, Dover
236—York, Masonic Hall, York
338—Vitruvian, Royal Hotel, Ross, Herefordshire
381—Harmony and Industry, Smalley's Hotel, Market-street, Over Darwen
395—Guy, Crown Hotel, Leamington Priors.
431—St. George, Masonic Hall, Norfolk-street, N. Shields.
441—Three Grand Principles, Red Lion Hotel, Petty Curry, Cambridge
478—Churchhill, Masonic Hall, Oxford.
482—St. James, Masonic Rooms, Handsworth, Staffordshire.
597—St. Cybi, Town Hall, Holyhead.
622—St. Cuthberga, Masonic Hall, Wimborne.
820—Lily of Richmond, Greyhound, Richmond, at 7.30 (Instruction)
823—Everton, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
827—St. John, Masonic Temple, Halifax-road, Dewsbury.
850—St. Oswald, Assembly Room, Ashbourne, Derbyshire.
1009—Shakspeare, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester.
1045—Stamford, Town Hall, Altrincham, Cheshire.
1050—Gundulph, King's Head Hotel, Rochester.
1051—Rowley, Athenæum, Lancaster.
1077—Wilton, Red Lion Inn, Blackley, Lancashire.
1108—Royal Wharfedale, Private Room, Boroughgate, Otley, Yorks.
1124—St. Oswald, Wynnstay Arms Hotel, Oswestry
1180—Forward, Masonic Rooms, New Hall-street, Birmingham.
1211—Goderich, Masonic Hall, Gt. George-street, Leeds.
1239—Wentworth, Freemasons' Hall, Sheffield.
1264—Neptune, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
1302—De Warren, Masonic Hall, White Swan Hotel, Halifax.
1380—Skelmersdale, Queen's Hotel, Waterloo, Liverpool.
1449—Royal Military, Masonic Hall, Canterbury, at 8. (Instruction.)
1477—Sir Watkin, Masonic Hall, Mold
1519—Albert Edward, Albion Hotel, Clayton-le-Moors, near Accrington.
1573—Caradoc, Masonic Hall, Caer-street, Swansea.
1578—Merlin, New Inn Hotel, Pontypridd, South Wales.
1674—Carnadoc, Town Hall, Rhyl
1676—St. Nicholas, Freemasons' Hall, Grainger-street, Newcastle.
1798—Zion, Hulme Town Hall, Manchester.
R.A. 302—Charity, New Masonic Hall, Darley-street, Bradford
R.A. 380—Integrity, Masonic Temple, Morley
R.A. 874—Holmesdale, Royal Sussex Hotel, Tunbridge Wells

TUESDAY, 2nd MARCH.

Colonial Board, Freemasons' Hall, at 4.
Metropolitan Lodge of Instruction, Anniversary Banquet, Moorgate Station Restaurant, at 7.30.
7—Royal York of Perseverance, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
55—Constitutional, Bedford Hotel, Southampton-bldgs., Holborn, at 7 (Inst.)
65—Prosperity, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
101—Temple, Ship and Turtle Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C.
141—Faith, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C. (Inst.)
172—Old Concord, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
177—Domatic, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney (Instruction)
753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
765—St. James, Bridge House Hotel, Southwark
860—Dalhousie, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1044—Wandsworth, Star and Garter Hotel, St. Ann's-hill, Wandsworth (Inst.)
1257—Grosvenor, Freemasons' Hall, Gt. Queen-street, W.C.
1261—Golden Rule, Café Royal, Regent-street, W.
1298—Royal Standard, Wellington Club, Upper-street, Islington.
1349—Friars, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1360—Royal Arthur, Prince's Head, Battersea Park, at 8 (Instruction)
1381—Kennington, Surrey Tavern, Kennington Oval
1446—Mount Edgcumbe, 19 Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1471—Islington, Three Bucks, 23 Gresham-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
1472—Henley, Three Crowns, North Woolwich, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1558—D. Connaught, Palmerston Arms, Grosvenor Park, Camberwell, at 8 (In.)
1602—Sir Hugh Myddelton, Crown and Woolpack, St. John's-st.-rd., at 8 (In.)
1668—Samson, Freemason's Hall, W.C.
1707—Eleanor, Trocadero, Broad-street-buildings, Liverpool-street, 6.30 (Inst)
R. A. 1366—Clapton, White Hart Tavern, Clapton, at 8. (Instruction)
Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement, Jamaica Coffee House, Cornhill, 6.30.
70—St. John, Huyshe Masonic Temple, Plymouth
103—Beaufort, Freemasons' Hall, Bristol.
117—Wynnstay, Raven Hotel, Shrewsbury, at 8 (Instruction)
120—Palladian, Green Dragon Hotel, Hereford.
124—Marquis of Granby, Freemasons' Hall, Old Elvet, Durham.
158—Adams, Masonic Rooms, Victoria Hall, Trinity-road, Sheerness.
178—Antiquity, Royal Hotel, Wigan.
209—Etonian, Masonic Hall, Windsor
226—Benevolence, Red Lion Hotel, Littleborough.
241—Merchants, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 6.30 (Instruction)
248—True Love and Unity, Freemasons' Hall, Brixham, Devon.
265—Royal Yorkshire, Masonic Club, Hanover-street, Keighley.
393—St. David, Masons' Hall, The Parade, Berwick
448—St. James, Freemasons' Hall, St. John's-place, Halifax.
493—Royal Lebanon, Spread Eagle, Gloucester.
510—St. Martin, Masonic Hall, Liskeard.
558—Temple, Town Hall, Folkestone.
673—St. John, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
685—Northumberland, Assembly Rooms, Westgate-road, Newcastle.
702—Sherborne, Subscription Rooms, Stroud, Gloucestershire
734—Londesborough, Masonic Hall, Bridlington Quay.
794—Warden, Royal Hotel, Sutton Coldfield
804—Carnarvon, Masonic Hall, Havant.
847—Fortescue, Manor House, Honiton, Devon.
928—Friendship, Masonic Hall, Petersfield, Hampshire.
948—St. Barnabas, Masonic Room, Linslade, Leighton Buzzard
960—Bute, Masonic Hall, 9 Working-street, Cardiff.
1002—Skiddaw, Lodge Room, Market-place, Cockermouth.
1134—Newall, Freemasons' Hall, Salford.
1244—Marwood, Freemasons' Hall, Redcar.
1322—Waverley, Caledonia Inn, Ashton-under-Lyne.
1336—Square and Compass, Corn Exchange, Wrexham.
1473—Bootle, 146 Berry-street, Bootle, at 6. (Instruction.)
1488—St. Eleth, Castle Hotel, Amlwch, Anglesea
R.A. 203—St. John of Jerusalem, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
R.A. 296—Loyalty, Freemasons' Hall, Surrey-street, Sheffield.
R.A. 800—Sincerity, Freemasons' Hall, Salem-street, Bradford
M. M. 11—Joppa, 55 Argyle-street, Birkenhead.

WEDNESDAY, 3rd MARCH.

Quarterly Communication of Grand Lodge, Freemasons' Hall, at 6 for 7
193—Confidence, Railway Tavern, London-street, at 7 (Instruction
228—United Strength, Hope and Anchor, Crowndale-rd., Camden-town, 8 (In.)
538—La Tolerance, Green Dragon, 2 Maddox-street, W., at 7.45 (Inst.)
781—Merchant Navy, Silver Tavern, Burdett-road, E.
813—New Concord, Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
862—Whittington, Red Lion, Poppin's-court, Fleet-street, at 8 (Instruction)
1185—Lewis, King's Arms Hotel, Wood Green, at 7 (Instruction)
1278—Burdett Coutts, Salmon and Ball, Bethnal Green-road, at 8 (Inst.)
1288—Finsbury Park, Alwyne Castle, Highbury, at 8 (Instruction)
1524—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion Road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1585—Royal Commemoration, Fox and Hounds Hotel, Upp. Richmond-rd., S.W
1707—Eleanor, Angel Hotel, Edmonton
1708—St. Leonard, Town Hall, Shoreditch
R.A. 177—Domatic, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-st., at 8 (Instruction)
74—Athol, Masonic Hall, Severn-street, Birmingham.
81—Doric, Private Room, Woodbridge, Suffolk.
210—Duke of Athol, Bowling Green Hotel, Denton
274—Tranquillity, Boar's Head Inn, Newchurch, near Manchester
290—Huddersfield, Masonic Hall, South Parade, Huddersfield
298—Harmony, Masonic Rooms, Ann-street, Rochdale
326—Moira, Freemasons' Hall, Park-street, Bristol
327—Wigton St. John, Lion and Lamb, Wigton
363—Keystone, New Inn, Whitworth.
406—Northern Counties, Freemasons' Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.
417—Faith and Unanimity, Masonic Hall, Dorchester
429—Royal Navy, Royal Hotel, Ramsgate
471—Silurian, Freemasons' Hall, Dock-street, Newport, Monmouthshire.
594—Downshire, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7 (Instruction)
625—Devonshire, Norfolk Hotel, Glossop
645—Humphrey Chetham, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester.
673—St. John, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8 (Inst.)
678—Earl Ellesmere, Church Hotel, Kersley, Farnworth, near Bolton.
750—Friendship, Freemasons' Hall, Railway-street, Cleckheaton.
972—St. Augustine, Canterbury (Inst.)
992—St. Thomas, Griffin Hotel, Lower Broughton.
1010—Kingston, Masonic Hall, Worship-street, Hull.
1013—Royal Victoria, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
1037—Portland, Portland Hall, Portland. (Instruction.)
1085—Hartington, Masonic Hall, Gower-street, Derby
1091—Erme, Erme House, Ivybridge, Devon
1167—Alnwick, Masonic Hall, Clayport-street, Alnwick
1274—Earl of Durham, Freemasons' Hall, Chester-le-Street.
1323—Talbot, Masonic Rooms, Wind-street, Swansea
1335—Lindsay, 20 King-street, Wigan.
1354—Marquis of Lorne, Masonic Rooms, Leigh, Lancashire.
1356—De Grey and Ripon, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
1363—Tyndall, Town Hall, Chipping Sodbury, Gloucester
1403—West Lancashire, Commercial Hotel, Ormskirk
1431—St. Alphege, George Hotel, Solihull
1511—Alexandra, Masonic Hall, Hornsea, Hull, at 7. (Instruction.)
1620—Marlborough, Derby Hall, Tue Brook, Liverpool
R.A. 304—Philanthropic, Masonic Hall, Gt. George-street, Leeds
R.A. 387—Moravian, Masonic Hall, Shipley.
R.A. 477—Fidelity, 55 Argyle-street, Birkenhead
M.M. 36—Furness, Hartington Hotel, Duke-street, Barrow-in-Furness.
M.M. 56—Temperance, Masonic Hall, Todmorden.
M.M. 65—West Lancashire, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
R.C.—Palatine, Palatine Hotel, Manchester

THURSDAY, 4th MARCH.

3—Fidelity, Yorkshire Grey, London-street, Fitzroy-sq., at 8 (Instruction)
15—Kent, Checquers, Marsh-street, Walthamstow, at 7.30 (Instruction)
27—Egyptian, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7.30 (Instruction)
87—Vitruvian, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth, at 8 (Instruction)
211—St. Michael, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate Street, at 8 (Inst.)
435—Salisbury, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8 (Inst.)
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney
754—High Cross, Coach and Horses, Lower Tottenham, at 8 (Instruction)
1227—Upton, King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., at 8. (Instruction.)
1288—Finsbury Park, Cock Tavern, Highbury
1426—The Great City, Masons Hall, Masons Avenue, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
1539—Surrey Masonic Hall, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
1614—Covent Garden, Nag's Head, James-street, Covent Garden, at 7.45 (In.)
R.A. 753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
R.A. 1471—North London, Jolly Farmers', Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Inst.)
R.A. 1507—Metropolitan, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
M.M.—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion-rd., Dalston, E., at 8.30 (Inst.)
24—Newcastle-on-Tyne, Freemasons' Hall, Grainger-st., Newcastle.
31—United Industrious, Masonic Room, Canterbury
39—Union, Council Chamber, Chichester
41—Royal Cumberland, Masonic Hall, Old Orchard-street, Bath
50—Knights of Malta, George Hotel, Hinckley, Leicestershire
123—Lennox, Freemasons' Hall, Richmond, Yorkshire
215—Commerce, Commercial Hotel, Haslingden
249—Mariners, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8
254—Trinity, Craven Arms Hotel, Coventry
266—Napthali, Masonic Hall, Market-place, Heywood
269—Fidelity, White Bull Hotel, Blackburn
289—Fidelity, Masonic Hall, Carlton-hill, Leeds
294—Constitutional, Assembly Rooms, Beverley, Yorks
295—Combermere Union, Macclesfield Arms, Macclesfield
300—Minerva, Pitt and Nelson, Ashton-under-Lyne
309—Harmony, Red Lion, Fareham
317—Affability, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester.
360—Pomfret, Masonic Hall, Abington-street, Northampton.
419—St. Peter, Star and Garter Hotel, Wolverhampton.
425—Cestrian, Grosvenor Hotel, Chester.
446—Benevolent, Town Hall, Wells, Somersetshire
463—East Surrey of Concord, Greyhound, Croydon.
509—Tees, Freemasons' Hall, Stockton, Durham.
637—Portland, Masonic Rooms, Town Hall, Stoke-upon-Trent.
702—Pelham Pillar, Masonic Hall, Bullring-lane, Great Grimsby.
913—Pattison, Lord Raglan Tavern, Plumstead.
971—Trafalgar, Private Room, Commercial-street, Batley
974—Pentalpha, New Masonic Hall, Darley-street, Bradford
1012—Prince of Wales, Derby Hotel, Bury, Lancashire.

Digitized by Google

1074—Underley, Masonic Room, Market-place, Kirkby Lonsdale
1183—Duke of Edinburgh, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1231—Savile, Royal Hotel, Elland.
1288—Ancholme, Foresters' Hall, Brigg, Lincolnshire.
1284—Brent, Globe Hotel, Topsham, Devonshire.
1304—Olive Union, Masonic Hall, Horncastle, Lincolnshire
1360—Royal Arthur, Village Club Lecture Hall, Wimbledon
1367—Beaminster Manor, White Hart Hotel, Beaminster
1384—Equity, Alfords Chambers, Widnes.
1473—Bootle, Town Hall, Bootle, Lancashire.
1500—Walpole, Bell Hotel, Norwich.
1504—Red Rose of Lancaster, Starkie's Arms Hotel, Padiham, near Burnley
1514—Thornhill, Masonic Room, Dearn House, Lindley
1515—Friendly, King's Head Hotel, Barnsley.
1594—Cedewain, Public Rooms, Newtown, Montgomeryshire
1613—West Middlesex, Feathers' Hotel, Ealing, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
1639—Watling-street, Cock Hotel, Stoney Stratford, Bucks
1807—Loyal Wye, Builth, Breconshire
R.A. 307—Good Intent, White Horse Hotel, Hebden Bridge
R.A. 325—St. John, Freemasons' Hall, Islington-square, Salford
R.A. 337—Confidence, Commercial Inn, Uppermill
R.A. 758—Bridgwater, Freemasons' Hall, Runcorn, Cheshire
R.A. 429—Thanet, Royal Hotel, Ramsgate.
R.A. 1214—Scarborough Hall, Scarborough, Caledonian-road, Batley
R.A. 1339—Stockwell, Half Moon, Herne Hill.
M.M. 53—Britannia, Freemasons' Hall, Sheffield.
K.T.—Fearnley, Masonic Temple, Halifax Road, Dewsbury

FRIDAY, 5th MARCH.

Eranlation Lodge of Improvement, Freemasons' Hall, at 7.
25—Robert Burns, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
507—United Pilgrims, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
766—William Preston, Feathers' Tavern, Up. George-st., Edgware-rd. 8 (Inst.)
834—Ranelagh, Six Bells, Hammersmith (Instruction)
902—Burgoyne, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Duke's Head, 79 Whitechapel-road, at 8 (Instruction)
1066—Metropolitan, Portugal Hotel, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 7 (Instruction)
1158—Belgrave, Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1288—Finsbury Park M.M., Earl Russell, Isledon-road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1298—Royal Standard, Alwyne Castle, St. Paul's-road, Canonbury, at 8 (In.)
1365—Clapton, White Hart, Lower Clapton, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1627—Royal Kensington, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
1642—E. Carnarvon, Mitre Hotel, Goulborne-rd, N. Kensington, at 8.0 (Inst.)
R. A. 79—Pythagorean, Portland Hotel, London-street, Greenwich, at 8 (Inst.)
Metropolitan Masonic Benevolent Association, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 8.30.

44—Friendship, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester.
127—Union, Freemasons' Hall, Margate
219—Prudence, Masonic Hall, Todmorden.
242—St. George, Guildhall, Doncaster.
442—St. Peter, Masonic Hall, Peterborough
521—Truth, Freemasons' Hall, Fitzwilliam-street, Huddersfield.
539—St. Matthew, Dragon Hotel, Walsall.
574—Loyal Berkshire of Hope, White Hart Hotel, Newbury
601—St. John, Wrekin Hotel, Wellington, Salop
651—Brecknock, Castle Hotel, Brecon.
680—Sefton, Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool
709—Invicta, Bank-street Hall, Ashford
780—Royal Alfred, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, at 7.30 (Inst.)
837—De Grey and Ripon, Town Hall, Ripon.
839—Royal Gloucestershire, Bell Hotel, Gloucester.
1096—Lord Warden, Wellington Hall, Deal
1333—Athelstan, Town Hall, Atherstone, Warwick.
1393—Hamer, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1528—Fort, Red Lion Hotel, Newquay, Cornwall.
1557—Albert Edward, Bush Hotel, Hexham.
1581—Morecambe, Masonic Hall, Edward-street, Morecambe, Lancashire.
1649—Prince of Wales, Freemasons' Hall, Salem-street, Bradford.
1684—Gosforth, Freemasons' Hall, High-street, Gosforth.
1725—Douglas, College Gateway, Maidstone
General Lodge of Instruction, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham, at 7
R.A.—General Chapter of Improvement, Masonic Hall, Birmingham, 5.30

SATURDAY, 6th MARCH.

General Committee Boys' School, Freemasons' Hall, at 4
142—St. Thomas, City Terminus Hotel, Cannon-street, E.C.
193—Percy, Jolly Farmers, Southgate Road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1364—Earl of Zetland, Nags Head, Mare-street, Hackney, at 7 (Instruction)
1673—Carnarvon, Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
1623—Rose, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell
1634—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
R.A. 975—Rose of Denmark, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8.

NOTICES OF MEETINGS.

KINGS' CROSS LODGE, No. 1732.

THE Installation Meeting of this flourishing Lodge was held on Saturday, the 21st instant, at Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street. Bros. W. M. Stiles W.M., T. J. Briggs P.M. S.W., J. J. Michael P.M. Treasurer, F. Saintsbury Secretary, H. Stiles S.D., H. Higgins J.D., L. Solomon I.G. Gorringe D.C., B. Kauff A.W.S., P.M. Knight P.P.G.D.C. Kent, and a numerous attendance of the brethren and Visitors, amongst whom we may mention Bros. H. G. Buss A.G.S., T. Cubitt P.G.P., S. Hickman P.M. 188, P. E. Van Noorden S.W. 188, S. Dicketts 193, Kelly 1524, Millis P.M. 157, Chambers 650, Edwards 1861, E. E. B. Kidder 12, G. Pike 355, E. Roberts 1623, Ormiston 1507, Little 1507, Pugupe 1107, J. H. Leggott P.M. 145, Beattie 1507, Edmonds 1507, Gillis 1744, J. Wyer 1310, Smith 1269, Gilbert 1507, John Douglass W.M. 1744 P.M. 1507, Silvester 193, J. Pope P.M. 946, James Terry P.P.G.W. Herts, Ferguson P.M. 177, Kipps P.P.G.O. Kent W.M. 1275, J. Willing P.M. 1507, Scales W.M. 1507, C. Hudson W.M. 1632, Walters 188, Chamberlin P.M. 205, 1319, Buckhurst P.M. 157, F. Binckes P.G.S., Storey G.S.W. Kent, Thomas P.M. 134, Reuter P.P.G.D.C. Kent, Reed P.M. 1511, Lovegrove W.M. 1777, Rothschild W.M 1288, H. M. Levy P.M. 188, Edwin Moss 1288, W. W. Morgan Secretary 211. There were twenty-nine brethren present who have passed the chair. The members, in the brief space of two years, have freed themselves from all liabilities, and given a large amount to the Charities. Bro. Leon Jacobs I.G. proposed, and Bro. Kauffmann seconded, that the annual subscription be raised from £2 10s to £3 3s; this proposition was unanimously assented to. A board of Installed Masters was opened, and Bro. T. J. Briggs P.M. 157 S.W. elect was presented to the Lodge, and inducted into the chair by the retiring W.M. Bro. W. M. Stiles, who performed the ceremony in a manner that might be equalled, but could not be excelled. Bro. Stiles on concluding was warmly congratulated by the numerous brethren and visitors. The customary salutations having been given, the W.M. appointed and invested his Officers:—Bros. W. M. Stiles I.P.M., H. Stiles S.W., Higgins P.M. J.W., J. J. Michael P.M. Treasurer, F. Saintsbury Secretary, S. Solomon S.D., L. Jacobs J.D., Gorringe I.G., Putland D.C., B. Kauffmann, Yates, and Fletcher Stewards, Daley Tyler. Bro. James Terry P.P.J.W. Herts kindly acted as D.C. The applause given on the investiture of Officers showed the W.M. had selected brethren who would assist him in carrying out the duties of the Lodge, and fully sustain the reputation it had already acquired. Bro. J. J. Michael P.M. had great pleasure in proposing a vote of thanks to Bro. W. M. Stiles for the zeal and ability he had displayed during his year of office, and also for the admirable way in which he had just installed his successor. The W.M. supported the remarks of Bro. Michael; he fully endorsed all that had been said in praise of Bro. Stiles, and felt that all must be aware of the ability with which that brother performed any duty required of him. The vote was carried unanimously and with acclamation. The W.M. then rose to present to his predecessor the jewel which had been voted to him by the members. He felt that never was a brother more deserving of such a compliment than was Bro. Stiles, and he trusted that for many years he would be among them, and give his assistance in the working of the Lodge. Bro. Stiles said the jewel would call to his mind the many happy hours he had passed in the Kings Cross Lodge. He hoped to be ranked among its members for many years to come. Hearty good wishes having been tendered by the Visitors, the Lodge was closed, and the brethren repaired to the banquet room, where an excellent repast was provided by Bro. Clemow. After the toast of the Queen, Bro. Edwin Moss sang the solo portions of the National Anthem. The W.M. referred to the great advance made in Freemasonry since the Prince of Wales had occupied the position of Grand Master. He trusted that for many years His Royal Highness would continue his rule of the Craft. In giving the toast of the Grand Officers, the W.M. referred to the fact of Lord Skelmersdale having accepted the Chairmanship of the Boy's School, which he considered one of the best proofs of the love he had for the Order and its associations. They had that evening among them two worthy representatives of Grand Lodge in the persons of the Assistant Grand Secretary Bro. Buss, and Bro. T. Cubitt Past Grand Pursuivant. Bros. Buss and Cubitt each replied on behalf of the Officers of Grand Lodge, and then the W.M. proposed the health of the Provincial Grand Officers, as a compliment to the many representatives of that body who were present. Bro. Clark P.G.D.C. Suffolk acknowledged the toast. Bro. Stiles now rose. The present was his maiden speech as a P.M., and he was pleased that he had an opportunity of making it in honour of so worthy a Mason as Bro. Briggs. He was a W.M. whom all could and did respect, and he now felt that he echoed the sentiments of every member of the Lodge when he wished him long life, health, happiness, and a prosperous year of office. The W.M. had great pleasure in responding to the hearty compliments which had just been paid him. He felt it a great pleasure to fill the chair of the King's Cross Lodge, which during its short existence had been most prosperous. A great part of this was due to the brethren who had filled the chair; he felt it an honour to follow in the footsteps of such brethren, and only hoped he might be as successful as they had been. He then gave the toast of the P.M.'s. Bro. Stiles tendered his acknowledgments to the W.M. and brethren for the kind sentiments just expressed. The toast of the Visitors followed, to which Bro. C. Hudson P.M. responded, as also did others of the guests. All complimented the Lodge on the ability of its Masters and Officers generally. The W.M. next gave the toast of the Charities, referring to the grand support given to the Benevolent Institution at the recent Festival. He pointed out, however, that the Festivals of the Girls' and Boys' Schools had yet to come, and he hoped that the result of each would be as grand as was that of the one that had passed. Their I.P.M. had ably represented the Lodge at the Girls' School, and he (the W.M.) had himself undertaken the office of Steward for the Boys. The toast was coupled with the names of Bros. Terry and Binckes, the latter of whom responded. Notwithstanding the great depression in the outer world the Craft had to listen, at the Festival of the Benevolent Institution, to one of the grandest successes ever known in the records of the Charities. He briefly detailed the good work that was being done at Wood Green, and hoped that the Craft would always supply funds sufficient to allow of its continuation. Bro. Terry followed; he thanked the Worshipful Master and brethren for their continued exertions on behalf of the various Institutions. He was pleased to say that the J.W. had already consented to act as Steward at the Benevolent Festival of 1881. To the toast of the Treasurer and Secretary, in proposing which the W.M. justly praised the work of those two Officers, Bros. Michael and Saintsbury each replied. The toast of the Officers was duly honored and acknowledged, after which the Tyler gave the parting toast and the meeting concluded. At the latter part of the evening the W.M. received very unwelcome tidings, a telegram announcing the death of his brother reaching him. We desire to offer our sympathy to our esteemed brother in his loss.

Royal Alfred Lodge of Instruction, No. 780.—At the Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, on 20th inst. Bros. F. Botley W.M., Maton S.W., Gomm J.W., Goss S.D., Gunner (H.S.) J.W., Franckel I.G., Roe P.M. Preceptor and Blasby. Bro. Goss offered himself as candidate, and the initiation ritual was rehearsed. Bro. Gunner then offered himself as a candidate for the second degree, answered the usual questions and was entrusted. Lodge was advanced, and Bro. Gunner was duly passed. Lodge was closed to the first degree. Bro. Maton was elected W.M. for the next meeting, and he appointed his Officers. A cordial vote of thanks was voted to Bro. F. Botley for his able working of the first two degrees. Bro. Blasby asked that the motion of which he had given notice be postponed for one week, which was granted. Lodge was then closed and adjourned.

Digitized by Google

ELEANOR CROSS LODGE, 1764, NORTHAMPTON.

THIS progressive and very prosperous Lodge held its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday 17th inst.; the occasion was one of more than usual interest, as Bro. Thursby, a member of a family well known in the county of Northampton, was about to bid farewell, previously to sailing for the Cape. Bro. the Rev. S. J. W. Sanders P.G.C. presided, and was supported by the following Officers and Brethren, viz.—Bros. Butler Wilkins D.P.G.M., M. A. Boémé P.M., H. J. Atkins S.W., H. Brown J.W., S. Wathen Wigg Chaplain, Beasley Assist. Chaplain, Hill S.D., H. Spoor J.D., Franks Sec., Percival Assist. Sec., G. Ellard D.C., E. Morris I.G., J. Manning and T. Barnes Stewards, Dean and Kirby Tylers; Brook, Sampson and R. Croft Organists; also Bros. DeDenne Assist. D.C., T. Emery, R. J. Johnston, J. Franklin, G. Poutcher, A. Jones, S. J. Newman, J. Currall, F. Thursby, Robinson 442, S. W. James 737, J. Hart 360, Stackie 1391. Opening the Lodge, reading the minutes of the last meeting and other preliminary business were disposed of, the Lodge was advanced, and Bro. Frederick Thursby was examined and entrusted. On the Lodge being opened in the third degree, Bro. Thursby was re-admitted and raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason, the W.M. performing the ceremony for his benefit in a perfect manner, the solemnity of the occasion being greatly heightened by the able manner in which Bro. Croft performed the duties of Organist. On the conclusion of the Ceremony, the Chaplain, Bro. Wigg P.A.G.C., by command of the W.M., delivered an exposition of the words of the Royal Solomon written in chap. xii of the Book called Ecclesiastes, as follows:—

Masonry opens its ears to all wisdom, from whatsoever source it may be derived; but it becomes us to listen with a special, as well as a respectful attention, to the words of our A.G.M. the Royal Solomon, under whose fostering care and protection our ancient brethren erected that stately Temple which has since become so essential a part of speculative Masonry.

Those singularly impressive words which I have, by command of the W.M., just recited in your hearing are not, as some have supposed them to be, the wail of a disappointed old sensualist but the matured reflections of a wise man, one who had himself drained to the dregs all known sources of pleasure, the stores of intellect, science, philosophy, the delights of every variety of sensual indulgence, the interest and excitement of ambition, power, commerce, had all, in turn, ministered to his pleasure until, at last when the lust of the eye and the pride of life had failed him, in his second childhood if you will, but in a childhood which brought him into intimate contact with the highest wisdom, he draws a picture of the close of life, a graphic picture of an old man, in order forcibly to impress the great lesson which true wisdom has at length taught him, the fear of God, the G.A. and R.O.T.U. Remember, he says, thy Creator in the days of thy youth, ere those evil days of feeble old age, of the failure of bodily and mental strength, come upon thee, for all else is vanity.

Let us then, Brethren, for a few minutes examine the picture, which has been drawn so long for our instruction, and which is brought before us in what is, I may venture to say, one of the most solemn moments of our life when in s—— and in d—— the venerable exhortation of our A.G.M. is rehearsed in our ears.

Remember thy Creator ere the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars be darkened, and the clouds return after the rain. Under the figure of the approach of the rainy clouds of an eastern winter, the old man beholds death drawing nigh, dark clouds which will soon envelope him in their shadow, and hide from his sight the sun, the light, the moon, the stars. We know that these represent to us the M., W.'s and B. of a Lodge, and these by death will be hidden from his gaze; but they may also be explained in another manner. The Sun is that inner light which God supplies to every man to aid him in his work of self knowledge and self government—"the light that is in thee." The light is mental activity, sharp apprehension, serviceable memory. The moon is the soul of man; and the stars are those lights with which science, art and nature illumine his path. The leading thought then is, that the mind and the senses become darkened, and the winter of life, with its clouds and storms, approaches. The details which follow only serve to deepen the impression thus made.

The keepers of the house tremble, the aged man is represented as a house in a ruinous condition, the keepers are his arms which supply the house with what it needs, and keep away from it whatever threatens to do it injury. These protectors of the house have lost their early vigour, and tremble and shake. The legs, which in the fulness of youthful strength were like strong men supporting the whole fabric, are now shrunken and loose. The maidens who ground the corn in a hand-mill are compared to the teeth—the grinders rest because they have become few, they stand no longer in a row. And the women looking out of the windows can see no longer because it has become dark. The eyes of the soul, without which we could not experience what sight is, look out by means of the external eyes, which have become weak, indistinct, darkened. And the doors to the street are closed when the mill sounds low—the lips, from the absence of teeth, come close together, and only a low dull sound is heard from the laborious and feeble action of the well-nigh toothless jaws. He rises up at the voice of a bird; even the twittering of the sparrows in the eaves is sufficient to disturb his light slumbers. He no longer delights in the charms of music, the "daughters of song" must timidly retire, he cannot longer bear their melody.

He is afraid of that which is high, he no longer dare ascend to giddy heights, even his feeble tottering ventures are full of terrors to him, all kinds of perils present themselves to his imagination if he but cross the street.

The almond tree is in blossom; the snow white hair crowns the head of the old man as the almond flowers cover the tree with a profusion of white blossoms before the leaves appear. The hopping and chirping of the restless grasshopper is burdensome to him, its persistence annoys him. The caperberry fails,—these berries are used to flavour and season food, but even highly spiced dishes fail to tempt his morbid appetite.

For man goeth to his everlasting habitations, and the mourners go about the streets.

Now we proceed to view the dissolution of the life of the body, by which the separation of the soul and the body, and the return of both to their original conditions is completed.

The silver cord is loosed; that mysterious means of communication which connects the brain, the golden bowl, with the body—so that what the brain wills the various organs perform—is loosed. The golden bowl itself is broken, it can no longer command, the communication lies useless, and the limbs fall helpless and motionless.

The wheel makes its last laborious revolution—it breaks; the pitcher goes rattling down the well and is shattered, the breathing ceases, the death rattle is heard, and life is extinguished.

The worn out worthless clay is committed to its parent earth, and the spirit returns to him who originally bestowed it. The dust returns to the earth as it was, and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

This then, brethren, is the picture our A.G.M. drew of the close of life; and for what purpose is it portrayed? Is it merely to awaken in our mind a morbid sentiment? Must we regard it only to cry 'vanitas vanitatum,' the wail of the sensualist and the fool? Nay, it is not so! The Royal Solomon designed to teach us the grand lesson that the fear of God and the keeping of His commandments is the highest wisdom—that is the conclusion of the whole matter. This short life of ours is indeed vanity, and passeth away, but the true wisdom teaches us the duty we owe to God and to each other, that when we pass in reality, as our brethren have figuratively done to-night, the mysterious portals of the tomb of transgression, we shall be conducted under his protection to the G.L. above, where the world's G.A. lives and reigns.

So mote it be.

After receiving report of a meeting of the permanent Committee respecting financial matters, by which it was shown that the Lodge is established on a sound basis, by the principle Founders contributing £5 each, to raise a capital of £100, on the proposition of Bro. H. Brown J.W., seconded by the W.M., a vote of thanks to Bro Wigg was passed for his eloquent exposition bearing on the third degree, the Lodge was closed after hearty good wishes from 360, 442, 737, and 1391 had been acknowledged, and the brethren adjourned to the Banquet Hall, where a thoroughly Masonic and genial evening was spent. The usual toasts were given from the chair, Bro. Wigg G.P.A.C. replying on behalf of the Prov. Grand Officers. Bro. C. E. Frank Sec. gave, in complimentary terms, the health of the W.M. Bro. Sanders said he was proud to be Master of the Eleanor Cross, and spared no pains to maintain the high character of the Lodge, and should strive to make the working perfect. Bro. Rev. T. C. Beasley proposed the health of the candidate, Bro. Thursby, whom they had that evening the pleasure of raising to the degree of M.M. Another (Bro. Donne) was to have shared this privilege with Bro. Thursby, but war prevented being present by indisposition. He should, however, venture to include him in the toast, and to wish him a speedy restoration to health. With regard to Bro. Thursby, he felt that the present occasion was particularly interesting, because he (Bro. Thursby.) was expecting very shortly to leave England for the Cape. Generally, when a brother was raised to this degree they looked forward to being able often to welcome him in Lodge; but, unfortunately, they could not indulge in this expectation in the present instance. He assured him, however, that he would not be forgotten by the members of this Lodge, short as the time was during which they had had the pleasure of being associated with him as a Mason. They all knew that one of the most beautiful of sights, and one which remained longest impressed upon the memory was the brilliant meteor which flashed across the sky and then disappeared. He prophesied that in like manner the memory of Bro. Thursby would dwell long upon their hearts, and they hoped they might one day welcome him again in 1764. He reminded them that Bro. Thursby's destination was the Cape of Good Hope, and trusted that on their behalf and in their name, he might assure him that it was also the Cape of good wishes. To this Bro. Thursby responded, expressing regret at having to leave the country of his birth, and the pleasant associations of the Eleanor Cross, and hoped that in the foreign land in which he was going to seek a resting place for the "sole of his foot," he should meet with brethren who would be ready to continue his Masonic education. Bro. Wigg submitted the "Visitors," expressing the pleasure it gave the brethren generally to welcome members of other Lodges, and on this occasion himself particularly to welcome a brother of weight from his mother Lodge. Each of the Visitors acknowledged the compliment. The Officers of the Lodge was given by Bro. Newman, and was responded to by Bro. Sampson Organist. Bros. Atkins, Hart, Beasley, Sampson, Croft, Robinson, Butcher, and Jones, contributed to the harmony, and the Tyler's Toast brought the enjoyment to a close.

Percy Lodge of Instruction, No. 198.—On Saturday, 21st instant, at Bro. Fysh's, the Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, Bro. Byng presided, being ably assisted by the following Officers:—Bros. J. Lorkin S.W., Snare J.W., Pearcy Preceptor, A. W. Fenner Secretary, Spencer S.D., Western J.D., Carr I.G. There were also present Bros. C. Lorkin, D. Moss, J. Millington, R. Defriez, Gush, Garrod, Hallam sen., W. Williams jun., &c. Bro. J. Millington proved himself an efficient F.C., and was duly entrusted. Lodge was opened up, and the ceremony of raising was rehearsed by the W.M. in a very effective manner. Lodge was called off and on, and resumed to the second degree, when the ceremony of installation was rehearsed, Bro. J. Lorkin acting as W.M. elect, the ceremony being performed in such an excellent manner as to elicit the approbation of all present. Bro. J. Lorkin worked the first, Bro. Hallam the second sections of the first lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. H. G. Gush, of the Alexandra Palace Lodge, No. 1541, was duly elected a member. Auditors for the annual accounts were duly appointed. Bro. J. Lorkin was re-appointed W.M. for next Saturday, after which Lodge was closed and adjourned.

Digitized by Google

ST. JOHN'S LODGE, No. 221, BOLTON.

THE Installation Meeting of this Lodge was held on Wednesday, the 21st January, at the Commercial Hotel, Bolton, when there were present—Bros. Thomas Whitaker W.M., James Richardson I.P.M., Henry Stead S.W., John L. Aldred J.W., G. P. Brockbank P. Prov. S.G.D. Treasurer, J. Boothroyd J.D., J. W. Taylor P. Prov. G. Org. M.C., Peter Staton Organist, Edwin Melrose Steward, James Smith I.G., T. Hyson Tyler, P.M.'s J. M. Rutter, T. Morris, Thomas Entwisle P. Prov. G.S.W.; and Bros. J. W. Roiley, Joseph Seel, John Isherwood, W. Broughton, H. Hammond, J. S. Sugden, E. Halliwell, A. Cosgrave, P. Bradbourn, W. Court, Charles Stanley. Visitors—Edward Barber W.M. 113, Preston, W. W. Cottam P.M., Preston, J. W. Dovery W.M. 146, Bolton, Richard Duxbury S.D. 146, Bolton, Nath. Nicholson W.M. 1723, St. George, Bolton, James Heywood J.W. St. George 1723, John Priestley St. George 1723. The Lodge was opened at four o'clock, and the minutes of the meeting held on 17th December 1879 were read and confirmed. Forthwith a Board of Installed Masters was constituted, under the presidency of Bro. Nathaniel Nicholson W.M. St. George's Lodge 1723, and the W.M. elect, Bro. Henry Stead, was duly presented by Bro. Brockbank, and in due form installed, proclaimed and saluted, according to ancient usage. The following brethren were appointed to the offices named, and invested with the collar and jewel of office:—Bros. J. L. Aldred S.W., J. Boothroyd J.W., G. B. Brockbank (re-elected) Treasurer, Thos. Mitchell Secretary, Jas. Smith S.D., E. Melrose J.D., J. W. Taylor M.C., P. Staton Organist, Joseph Seel I.G., John Isherwood and J. W. Roiley Stewards. Bro. Entwisle presented the report of the auditors on the state of the Lodge funds, which was accepted as very satisfactory. Hearty congratulations were given from the visiting brethren, and Lodge closed at six o'clock.

On Wednesday, 18th February, at the Commercial Hotel, Bolton. Present—Bros. Henry Stead W.M., John L. Aldred S.W., Jabez Boothroyd J.W., G. P. Brockbank P. Prov. S.G.D. Treas., John Isherwood Steward as S.D., Edwin Melrose J.D., Joseph Seel I.G., J. W. Roiley Steward, T. Higson Tyler; P.M.'s Bros. J. M. Rutter, Cosgrave, &c. Lodge opened at six p.m. After confirmation of minutes of preceding meeting, Bro. Charles Crompton passed examination as an E.A., and was passed to second degree by the W.M., the working tools being explained by the Senior Warden. Lodge closed at 7.30, and the brethren proceeded to refreshment.

Strong Man Lodge, No. 45.—A meeting was held on Thursday, 5th Feb., at Masons' Hall Tavern, Masons' Avenue, Basinghall Street, City. Present:—Bros. Geo. G. Symons W.M., S. B. Halle S.W., C. Cordingley J.W., H. Follett Treas, A. A. Wing Sec., C. H. Horne S.D., H. J. Dean J.D., W. Ball D.C., J. Smith Steward, W. A. S. Humphries I.G., E. Steed Tyler. Past Masters Bros. F. Driver, G. H. T. Dyer, J. Vass. Visitors—Bros. Lombardi, H. A. Watson 1707, T. Vine 511, W. W. Cooper Crediton 1641, Pelikan 1602, Harvey 100, and Thos. F. Lee 862. Business:—This being the 147th Anniversary, a goodly array of the brethren were present. At 5 p.m. the Lodge was opened in due form, according to ancient custom; the minutes of last Lodge were read and confirmed, and Messrs Luck and Thomas were initiated. The Lodge was opened in the 2nd and 3rd degrees, and Bro. Allen was raised. Lodge was resumed in the 1st degree; two gentlemen were proposed and seconded, to be initiated at the next Lodge meeting. The Secretary announced the sudden death of Bro. William Sims Stewart, a worthy and respected member of this Lodge, who was at his usual place of business on the previous Monday, and expired on Wednesday, the 4th inst., leaving a widow and four children to deplore his loss, it was unanimously resolved that the Secretary should forward a letter of condolence to his bereaved wife, expressing the sympathy of the brethren. Other business was transacted, and the Lodge was closed in due form and adjourned till the first Thursday in March. The brethren then sat down to an excellent banquet prepared by the worthy host.

Lodge of Prudent Brethren, No, 145.—The first regular meeting since the installation was held on Tuesday, 24th February, at Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street, Bros. W. R. Lister W.M., Dr. Wilkinson S.W., Wood J.W., T. Bull P.M. Treas., E. H. Thiellay P.P.G.S.B. Middlesex Sec., Kerrell J.D. I.G., J. Reid D.C., Hall A.D.C., J. H. Leggott I.P.M. Bros. Detraz, Lambe, Walter, Newson, &c. Visitors:—Bros. Lloyd 1287 and H. M. Levy P.M. 188. Names of several candidates were on agenda paper, but they were unavoidably absent. The resignation of a brother was accepted, with regret. Bro. T. Bull P.M. and Treas. proposed, and Bro. Haslitt P.M. seconded, that in consideration of the I.P.M. Bro. J. H. Leggott, having rendered so many valuable services to the Lodge, and also in recognition of the large amounts he had collected in aid of the Masonic Charities, that he be presented with a Past Master's square, with a suitable inscription engraved thereon; this was carried unanimously. Bro. J. H. Leggott, in feeling terms, thanked the brethren for their appreciation of his services, which he said were always at their command. He felt it a great pride and pleasure to work for the noble Instititions connected with the Order. He had already collected over £900, he would now rest awhile, but hoped before he had finished to make up £1000. Bro. W. R. Lister the W.M., having announced that he was a Steward for the next Anniversary Festival for the Boys' School, it was hoped the brethren would liberally subscribe to his list to enable him in some measure to try and emulate his predecessor. The Lodge was then closed and the brethren separated, there being no banquet.

Lodge of Joppa, No. 188.—The regular meeting was held on Monday, the 2nd inst., at the Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, City. Bros. H. Hymans W.M., W. Baker S.W., M. Alexander P.M. as J.W., J. S. Lyon Treas., E. P. Albert P.G.P. Sec., Blanks J.D., N. Baum I.G.; P.M.'s S. Hickman, A. Dodson, J. Abrahams and L. Lazarus. The Lodge was opened and the minutes confirmed. Messrs. L. Wall and G. B. Howard were balloted for and duly initiated into the Order by the W.M. A letter of condolence was sent to Bro. L. Alexander P.M. on his recent bereavement. This being an "off night," the brethren sat down to light refreshments; the W.M. ably presided and gave the usual Loyal and Masonic Toasts. Bro. E. P. Albert P.G.P. returned thanks for the Grand Officers. The toasts of the W.M., P.M.'s, Wardens, Visitors and others were given and responded to, and the brethren after passing an agreeable evening separated. The Visitors were Bro. J. Lewis 1261, Albert Hall 427, Jennings, C. Daniel P.M. 65, and W. H. Bailey 65, 1201 and 1779.

Confidence Lodge of Instruction, No. 193.—At Bro. Seaton's, the Railway Tavern, Fenchurch-street Station, on Wednesday, 24th inst. Bro. James Smith occupied the chair; Bros. John E. Fells S.W., W. Saint J.W., Walker D., W. J. Ramsay I.G., J. Bonner, Ellis, &c. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed by the W.M., Bro. Pitt candidate. The chair was vacated in favour of Bro. Thos. B. Biddle, who opened the Lodge in the second degree, and after instructing Brother Smith, opened in the third and raised Bro. Smith. A vote of thanks were recorded to Bro. Smith for his first efforts as W.M. in this Lodge. Bro. S. W. Fells was duly elected W.M. for next Wednesday. All labour ended, the Lodge was closed in due form and with solemn prayer.

Ranelagh Lodge, No. 835.—This flourishing Lodge, established 20 years at the Bell and Anchor, at Hammersmith, has now so increased in numbers that it was unanimously resolved, at a former meeting, that it should be removed to the Criterion. Excellent accommodation having been given by Bros. Spiers and Pond, the first meeting was held there on Tuesday, the 3rd February, under the presidency of the W.M. Bros. Watson Shaw S.W., Warner J.W., Lines P.M. Treas., W. Alais P.M. Sec., G. Festa as S.D., Helmingford J.D., Webb I.G., P.M.'s Bryett, Butt; Visitors—Bros. B. Swallow P.P.G.D. Middlesex, Barfield P.M. 35 and 511, Scott P.M. 749, Dairey P.M. 141, Docker S.W. 1687, Stonor P.M. 180, Farwig P.M. 180, and Maxted 180. Lodge was opened and the minutes were confirmed. Bro. Archer Smith was passed to the second degree. The election for W.M. then took place, and Bro. Shaw S.W. was unanimously elected. Bro. Lines P.M. was re-elected Treas., Church Tyler. Bros. Blake, Lucas, Hicks and Purdue, were elected Auditors. A proposition was handed in for initiation and one for joining. The usual P.M.'s jewel was unanimously voted to Bro. Watson W.M. on his retiring from the chair, for the able and efficient manner he had discharged his duties during his year of office. Lodge was then closed in peace and harmony. There was no banquet, but a very excellent supper was provided by Bros. Spiers and Pond, the brethren on this occasion being the guests of Bro. G. Festa.

Dalhousie Lodge of Instruction, No. 860.—Held at Bro. Smyth's, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, on 24th February. Bro. Cull W.M., Davis S.W., Dickinson J.W., Wallington Preceptor, J. Lorkin Sec., Clark I.G., Smyth Treasurer; also Bros. Dallas, Fraser, E. Williams, Marsh, Baker, Clark, Allen, Finch, Fenner, C. Lorkin, Polak, Lardner, Brasted, Carr and Byng. Visitors—T. S. Clarke 429, R. Forge 619, Hardrodt 1679, W. Goodyear 1708, C. Plowman 1708, J. Negaw 1298. The Fifteen Sections were worked by the brethren of the Royal Standard Lodge of Instruction. First Lecture—Bros. Sidney Boaz, Rowley, Hunter, Davis, W. S. Lee, Cull and Davis. Second Lecture—Bros. W. Williams, Dickinson, Lardner, Byng, Lardner. Third Lecture—Bros. F. Brasted, J. Wright, T. Gardner. Bro. E. A. Beckett 1364 and Bro. John G. Hopkins 1100 were elected members. A cordial vote of thanks, also honorary membership, was ordered to be recorded on the minutes, to Bro. Cull for the very able manner in which he had carried out the duties of the chair. There was also a cordial vote of thanks to the brethren who had assisted in working the Fifteen Sections. Bro. Christian was elected W.M. for the ensuing week.

Upton Lodge of Instruction, No. 1227.—At the King and Queen, Norton Folgate, 19th February. Bros. Hine W.M., Lane S.W., Wilson J.W., Thorpe S.D., Fenner Preceptor, Wallbrecht Sec.; also Bros. Legg and Bronkhurst. The Lodge was opened in the second degree. Bro. Fenner as candidate answered the usual questions. The Lodge was opened in the second degree, and the ceremony of raising was rehearsed. The third section of the lecture was worked by Bro. Fenner, assisted by the brethren. The Lodge was resumed to the first degree, and the same brother worked the first and fourth sections of that lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Lane was appointed to preside at next meeting. The Lodge was closed and adjourned.

Friars Lodge of Instruction, No. 1349.—Held at Bro. Pavitt's, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, on 25th February. P.M. Candick W.M., P.M. Myers S.W., Smith S.D. 860 J.W. The Lodge was opened in due form with prayer, and the minutes read; afterwards the following brethren assisted in working the sections. First Spencer, second Watkins, third Rawe, fourth West, fifth Andrews, sixth Pavitt, seventh Candick, eighth Watkins, ninth Johnson. The Lodge was resumed to the first degree, when Bro. P.M. Myers was again unanimously elected to fill the chair on Tuesday next. This little Lodge room was filled on this occasion—a fact we are not surprised at, as any one who wishes to get on in Masonry cannot do better than attend and receive instruction at the hands of its members.

Bro. R. Johnson, the efficient and courteous M.C., announces his 23rd annual ball at the Freemasons' Tavern, Great Queen-street, on Wednesday, 3rd March, where a numerous attendance of the brethren and private friends are expected to assemble.

Digitized by Google

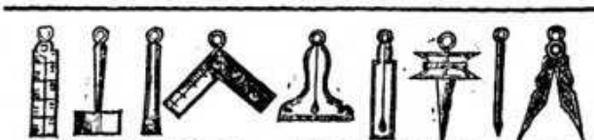
New Finsbury Park Lodge, No. 1695.—The regular meeting was held on Tuesday, the 17th inst. Bros. T. Press W.M., H. B. D. Dunn S.W., Hollis P.P.S.D. Herts as J.W., Davis P.M. Treas., A. J. Berry P.M. Sec., J. N. Thompson S.D., G. Edmunds J.D., J. H. Bastable I.G., J. Eldridge P.M. D.C., C. Hutchinson Steward, Grout Organist; P.M.'s W. T. Purkiss I.P.M., Richmond, Hollis, Perfect, Ayden, &c. After preliminaries, ballots were taken for the admission of Messrs. J. C. Edwards and F. M. B. Bowers, who were duly initiated into the Order. Bros. F. Richmond, J. W. Clayton and J. R. Perfect were raised to the third degree. Credit is due to the W.M. for his working, in which he was ably assisted by the Officers. A candidate was proposed for initiation at next meeting and two brethren for joining; this will complete the number of members, the Lodge being restricted to 40. Bro. Davis P.M. and Treasurer proposed that a Lodge of Instruction be established under the warrant of the Lodge, to be called the New Finsbury Park Lodge of Instruction,—Bro. Purkiss has offered the use of a commodious room for the purpose,—and that a Committee be formed to carry out the arrangements. This was seconded by the S.W., and carried unanimously. The resignation of a Brother was accepted, with regret. Bro. Earl announced his intention to act as Steward for the next Festival of the Girls' School. Hearty good wishes were given by the Visitors, and the Lodge was closed. The brethren then sat down to a very sumptuous banquet and dessert, provided by Bros. Bertram and Roberts, that gave great satisfaction. Grace having been said, the W.M. proposed the first Loyal toast. The National Anthem was sung, Bro. Davis P.M. taking the solo verses. After the toast of the Grand Master, Bro. Richmond sang "God Bless the Prince of Wales," accompanied by Bro. Grout on the Piano. Bro. Purkiss I.P.M. then took possession of the gavel to propose the toast of the W.M., who had done the duties of the Lodge in every respect to their satisfaction. Under his auspices they might in every respect anticipate a successful year of office. The W.M. thanked Bro. Purkiss for the kind manner he had spoken of him, and the brethren for their reception of the toast, his services were at their command; this young and promising Lodge had his hearty co-operation; if he had worked the ceremony to their satisfaction he was proud. Bro. George Edmunds then sang "Bonnie Dundee." The W.M. next proposed the toast of the Initiates; this was the toast of the evening. The new members had come with good recommendations, and they welcomed them heartily. Bros. Edwards and Bowers briefly replied. The E. A. song was sung. The toast of the Visitors was next given, and Bro. Blackie W.M. The Great City Lodge 1426 responded. The W.M. then proposed the toast of the I.P.M. Bro. Purkiss, who had so endeared himself to them all. No more kind and genial Mason could be found; the members all wished him health and prosperity, and that he might wear the jewel of the Lodge for many years. After a song from Bro. Pierpoint, Bro. Purkiss replied; he felt proud at having been the first Master of this flourishing Lodge; he had served the office two years. It was gratifying to note the liberality of the members; they had, indeed, aided him to represent the Charities three times. Bro. Earl, who was initiated in the Lodge, will this year be a Steward, for the second time, and he (Bro. Purkiss) hoped the brethren would give him their support. The Treasurer and Secretary, Bros. Davis and Berry, were next complimented; two more indefatigible brethren could not be found. Bro. Eldridge P.M. D.C. responded on behalf of the Treasurer Bro. Davis, who was obliged to leave; he was proud to endorse the words of Bro. Purkiss. The Lodge was in a flourishing condition, and while all liabilities had received attention, the Charities had not been forgotten. Bro. Berry, as one of the founders, hoped he had done all in his power for the welfare of the Lodge; the number of members was limited, and the initiation fee would now be raised. He had been gratified by the remark made by the Visitors as to the Lodge of Instruction—that by its establishment the younger brethren would be enabled to perfect themselves to follow in the footsteps of the W.M. The Junior Officers was the next toast; no better workers could be found. The W.M. hoped to see them all occupy the chair. At this stage of the proceedings, the worthy Secretary Bro. Berry announced, amidst loud applause, that the brethren had nobly supported Bro. Earl's list for the Girls' School, by subscribing the sum of 39 guineas, five guineas of which was given by Bro. Fisher (1524), a visitor. Bro. Earl thanked the brethren for their support; he hoped to carry up a good list for that noble Charity. Bro. Dunn S.W. responded for the Officers; and after a song from Bro. Purkiss P.M., the Tyler's toast was given. The following were the Visitors:—Bros. Rowe P.M. 167, G. Veal 1288, J. Chinnery S.D. 145, Wilkinson 157, Pauling 828, Cattermole 217, Fisher 1524, J. J. Rowe P.M. 167 and 198, W.M. 504, Keyse 1602, Blackie W.M. The Great City 1426, Quincey 1349, H. M. Levy P.M. 180, &c.

VITRUVIAN LODGE, No. 87.

BRO. ISAAC, who has for some time past provided for the requirements of this Lodge, begs to announce that he has obtained permission for the removal of his license to the Belvedere-road, and that he has erected commodious premises there. These comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL.
WITH ANTE ROOMS,
LARGE BANQUETTING HALL,
Together with every convenience for Masonic gatherings.

Applications from Secretaries and others for accommodation to be addressed.
G. ISAAC, "WHITE HART," COLLEGE STREET, LAMBETH, LONDON, S.E.



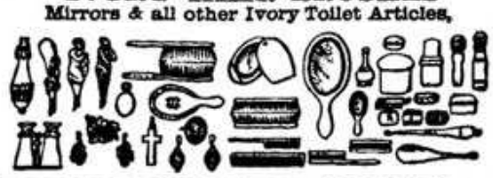
MASONIC HIGH SCHOOL FOR BOYS,
1 NOTTING HILL SQUARE, W.

THE SCHOOL has been established to provide a High Class Education to sons of Freemasons and others, on moderate terms. There are scholarships of the annual value of £10 to £30, and Exhibitions of £20. Terms for sons of Freemasons from 4 to 7 guineas per term, for other pupils from 5 to 8 guineas per term. For further particulars apply to the Secretary, or to

E. PASSAWER, LL.D.
Head Master.

Ninth Edition, post free, One Shilling.

DR. WATTS on ASTHMA. A Treatise on the only Successful Method of Curing the Disease. By ROBERT G. WATTS, M.D., F.R.S.L., &c., 5 Bulstrode-street, Cavendish-square, London.
London: MITCHELL AND CO., Red Lion-court, Fleet-street.



LATEST NOVELTY.
MASONIC CHARM FOR CHAIN.

The whole of the working Tools complete as above.
MOUNTED IN GOOD GOLD AND ORNAMENTALLY ENGRAVED.
To be had of the maker on receipt of 25s.

E. PELIKAN, Manufacturing Jeweller,
No. 102 St. John Street Road, London, E.C.
P.O.O. to be made payable at the St. John Street Road Office.

Worn Ivory Brushes Re-filled and Re-polished to look Equal to New.

IVORY HAIR BRUSHES
Mirrors & all other Ivory Toilet Articles,

& IVORY GOODS IN GENERAL,
Wholesale & for Exportation & the Trade only.

AT HENNIG BROS. Ivory Works,
11, HIGH STREET, LONDON, W.C.

Designs and Prices of Brushes and Mirrors, &c., on Application.

CANNON STREET HOTEL, CANNON STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Has been thoroughly renovated; the Railway advantages, in direct communication with the Hotel, render this establishment unequalled in the Metropolis for

MASONIC BANQUETS, PUBLIC & PRIVATE DINNERS, BREAKFASTS, &c.
DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENTS, PUBLIC MEETINGS, ARBITRATIONS, &c.
THE LARGE HALL IS CAPABLE OF SEATING UPWARDS OF TWELVE HUNDRED PEOPLE.
VISITORS AND FAMILIES visiting LONDON, for LONG or SHORT PERIODS, will find the APPOINTMENTS, and ACCOMMODATION UNRIVALLED.
E. H. RAND, MANAGER.

LADBROKE HALL, NOTTING HILL, LONDON, W.

(Opposite the Notting Hill Station of the Metropolitan Railway, from which Trains run every few minutes to all parts of London, and in connection with the principal Lines of Railway.)

THE ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED FOR LODGE MEETINGS IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE DISTRICT.
LARGE LODGE AND BANQUET ROOMS, WITH EVERY CONVENIENCE.
THE HALL MAY BE ENGAGED for BANQUETS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, DINNERS, PUBLIC or PRIVATE ENTERTAINMENTS, &c.

Apply to Bro. J. LINSCOTT (at the Hall), 14 Ladbroke Grove Road, London, W.

Digitized by Google

ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY Limited, 7 Bank Buildings, Lothbury, E.C.

General accidents. Railway accidents. | Personal injuries. Death by accident.

C. HARDING, Manager.

RHEUMATISM.

THE only real remedy for this complaint is the Northern Cure (patent). In bottles 1s 1½d each, to be had of all Chemists. Proprietors and Manufacturers, Edwards and Alexander, 29 Blackett-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

GEO. JONES,

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT MANUFACTURER and IMPORTER, 350 and 481 Commercial Road, London, E. Price List of every description of Instruments post free. Established 1850.

TAMAR INDIEN.

SPECIAL CAUTION.

OWING to the marked success of this medicine, the only patent medicine universally prescribed by the faculty, and the acknowledged cure for constipation, headache, bile, hæmorrhoids, &c., BASE IMITATIONS, containing drastic irritants, are being foisted on the public. The genuine preparation bears the title "Tamar Indien," and the signature E. GRILLON, Coleman-st., London, E.C. Price 2s 6d per box. In a recent case, 1878, G. No. 311, a perpetual injunction to restrain the defendant from applying the name "Tamar" to his lozenges was awarded, with costs, by Vice-Chancellor Bacon, on 19th January 1877, and all such piracies will be summarily proceeded against.——N.B.—See that the outer wrapper (directions) are printed in the English language and that each box bears the Government 3d stamp.

MEMORY EXTRAORDINARY BY CORRESPONDENCE.—Particulars post free of Bro. William Stokes, Teacher of Memory, Royal Polytechnic, 309 Regent-street, London, W. Private lessons by appointment. Class on Tuesdays, 3 and 8.30. The System complete in Three Lessons. "Stokes on Memory," by post 14 stamps. Memory Globe, 14 stamps.

EVENING Employment wanted, by a P.M. Good Accountant. Address 2001, FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, W.C.

HOTELS, ETC.

EALING—Feathers Hotel

EASTBOURNE—Pier Hotel, Cavendish Place. View of Sea and Pier. A. TAYLOR Proprietor

KEW—Star and Garter. Good accommodation for Lodge & Dinner Parties. J. BRILL Proprietor

SANDWICH—Bell Family and Commercial Hotel, Good Stabling. J. J. PILMER Proprietor

WOOD GREEN—Kings Arms Hotel. A. B. GREENSLADE Proprietor

YORK—Queen's Family and Commercial Hotel, Micklegate. H. CHURCHILL Proprietor

LONDON.

CALTHORPE ARMS—253 Gray's Inn Road, W.C. Billiards, Pool, Pyramids, &c. Best Wines and Spirits. W. H. G. RUDDERFORTH Proprietor

CANNING TOWN—Liverpool Arms. J. H. PAVITT. Friars L. of Instruction, 1349, Tuesdays at 7.30

GREEN DRAGON—Spring Garden-place, Stepney Wines and Spirits of the best quality. Billiards. Banquets provided for large or small parties. Yarborough L. & C. 554, and Temple Mark L. 173 held here. Lodge of Instruc. (554) meets every Tuesday at 8. A. WALTER Proprietor

MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT—Moorgate Street, E.C. Hot and Cold Dinners, &c. Chops and Steaks. Good accommodation for Lodge Meetings, &c. A. KENT Proprietor

NEW MARKET HOTEL—King Street, Snow Hill, E.C. Good accommodation for Club and other Banquets. Wines and Spirits of best quality. Specially licensed for Masonic Balls. Lodges 1623 and 1677 are held here. Strong Man No. 45 and West Smithfield No. 1623 Lodges of Instruction, meet here, every Monday at 8 p.m. Thomas BUTT Proprietor

SAWYER'S (late Station) RESTAURANT, 5 Railway Place, Fenchurch Street, E.C. English, French, and German Cuisine. Wines of the best quality. Hot and Cold Luncheons, Chops, Steaks, &c. Tea and Coffee. F. J. SAWYER (late of Pimm's and Crystal Palace) Proprietor

BILLIARD BALLS, Chalks, Cues and Tips, at HENNIG BROS. Ivory Works, 11 High Street, London, W.C. Cheapest house in the trade for billiard-table requisites and ivory goods in general. Old balls adjusted or exchanged, and tables recovered. Price Lists on application. Established 1862.

W. BEASLEY,

Bespoke Boot Maker,

28 Queen Victoria Street.

HUNTING, RIDING, DRESS AND BOOTS FOR THE MOORS,

MADE IN A FEW DAYS.

Specialité—Hand Sewn and Standard Screwed.

C. HUBBARD,

Plain & Fancy Box & Pattern CARD MANUFACTURER.

139 & 141 NEW NORTH ROAD, AND 64 SHAFTESBURY ST., LONDON, N.

ROCHESTER & FOX,

Post and Job Masters,

799 COMMERCIAL ROAD, E. AND 81 JUBILEE STREET, MILE END, E.

Carriages of every description on hire.

SUPERIOR WEDDING CARRIAGES.

HOUGHTON,

THE BOOT MAKER,

243 & 244 WHITECHAPEL ROAD LONDON, E.

Lasts made to the Feet.

—:o:—

SPECIALITÉ, EASE, ELEGANCE AND DURABILITY.

A. LAZARUS,

MERCHANT TAILOR AND Juvenile Clothier,

CORNER OF WORSHIP ST., SHOREDITCH, E., AND 51 LIVERPOOL STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Patterns and Rules for Self Measurement post free.

T. J. TARLING,

COAL MERCHANT.

North Wallsend	...	...	23s Per Ton
Hetton or Lambton	...	...	24s ,,
Best Silkstone	...	...	23s ,,
Best Derby	...	...	21s ,,

All letters to be addressed :— 5 UR DETT ROAD, BOW, E.

Bro. A. OLDROYD, Stratford, London,

MANUFACTURER OF TOBACCO POUCHES,

With any name in raised letters.

CAN be obtained direct from the Maker, at the undermentioned prices, on receipt of P.O.O. payable at Stratford.

	Price	Will take a name of
No. 3	2/0 ...	9 letters
,, 4	2/6 ...	11
,, 5	3/0 ...	12
,, 6	3/6 ...	13
,, 7	4/0 ...
,, 8	4/6 ...
,, 9	5/0 ...

A. OLDROYD,

Agent for Algerian Cigars, and Importer of Havana and Continental Cigars,

64 HIGH STREET, STRATFORD, LONDON, E.

JOSEPH J. CANEY,

DIAMOND MERCHANT, AND MANUFACTURING JEWELLER AND WATCH MAKER,

44 CHEAPSIDE, LONDON.

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND FURNITURE.

Specialité—First Class Jewels—Artistic—Massive—Best Quality—Moderate in Price

CATALOGUES POST FREE.

A LARGE STOCK OF LOOSE BRILLIANTS FOR EXPENSIVE JEWELS.

Diamond Rings, Brooches, Studs, Earrings and Bracelets in Great Variety.

MASONIC JEWELS FOR ALL DEGREES.

MINIATURE WAR MEDALS AND DECORATIONS.

ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD IN ALL SIZES.

ATHLETIC SPORTS MEDALS AND BADGES.

A. D. LOEWENSTARK & SONS, Medallists, 210 STRAND, LONDON, W.C.

MANUFACTORY—1 DEVEREUX COURT, STRAND.

J. FORTESCUE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

129 FLEET ST.; 114 & 115 SHOE LANE,

(One door from Fleet Street)

6 EXMOUTH STREET, CLERKENWELL, E.C.

And 143 Mare Street, Triangle, Hackney

Gents' Silk Hats from 5/6 each. Second best 6/6 7/6 8/6 Superfine quality, 10/6 12/6 & 16/. The very best made 21/. Felt Hats, hard and soft, in all the newest shapes, from 3/6 to 10/6.

ADAM S. MATHER,

GAS ENGINEER, GENERAL GAS FITTER AND BELL HANGER

MANUFACTURER OF BILLIARD LIGHTS

AND OF EVERY DESCRIPTION OF GAS APPARATUS FOR COOKING AND HEATING

Bath Rooms Fitted up. All the Latest Improvements Introduced.

MANUFACTORY—12 CHARLES STREET, HATTON GARDEN, E.C.; AND AT 278 CALEDONIAN ROAD, ISLINGTON, N.

ESTIMATES GIVEN.

PIANOFORTES AND HARMONIUMS ON EASY TERMS.

GROVER & GROVER

LET ON HIRE, WITH OPTION OF PURCHASE,

BEAUTIFUL AND PERFECT INSTRUMENTS.

PURCHASERS CHOOSE THEIR OWN TERMS,

FROM 15s TO £3 3s PER QUARTER.

The Advantages of a Trial, with the Convenience of the Three Years' System at Cash Price, by Paying about a Quarter of the value down, the Balance by Easy Payments, from 15s per quarter.

GROVER & GROVER, 157-9 Kingsland Road.

ESTABLISHED 1830.

Digitized by Google

EDWARD STILLWELL AND SON,

25, 26 and 27 BARBICAN, AND 6 LITTLE BRITAIN, LONDON,
109 ARGYLE STREET, GLASGOW,

Gold Lacemen, Embroiderers and Sword Cutlers,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Masonic Fittings for Lodges, Chapters and Encampments.

CLOTHING, JEWELS (PINS, STUDS AND RINGS), FOR EVERY DEGREE.

Aprons, Sashes, Horns, Ornaments and Banners for Foresters, Odd Fellows, Orangemen, Free Gardeners, &c.

REGALIA FOR I.O.G.T. AND ALL SOCIETIES.

LIBERAL TERMS TO SHIPPERS.

H. T. LAMB,

MANUFACTURER OF

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND REGALIA,

5 ST. JOHN SQUARE, LONDON.

PRICE LIST, CONTAINING 120 ILLUSTRATIONS, POST FREE ON APPLICATION.

PHILLIPS & COMPANY'S TEAS

ARE BEST AND CHEAPEST,

8 KING WILLIAM STREET, CITY, LONDON, E.C.

A GENERAL PRICE CURRENT AND STORE LIST, CONTAINING ALL THE ADVANTAGES OF THE LONDON MARKETS, POST FREE.

Show Rooms for Chinese, Japanese, and Oriental Art Products, and General Stores, 13 & 14 ABCHURCH LANE, adjoining 8 KING WILLIAM STREET, E.C.

J. E. SHAND & CO.

Wine Merchants,

(Experts and Valuers of Wines and Spirits,)

2 ALBERT MANSIONS, VICTORIA ST., LONDON, S.W.

PRICES DELIVERED IN LONDON.

SHERRIES	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	SPARKLING MOSELLES	42s, 48s, 54s
PORTS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	CHAMPAGNES	36s, 42s, 48s, 54s, 60s
CLARETS	18s, 18s, 21s, 24s, 30s, 36s	BURGUNDY	30s, 24s, 30s, 36s, 42s
STILL HOCKS	24s 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s	BRANDIES	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s, 66s
SPARKLING do	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s	WHISKIES	20s per gall., 42s per doz.

COUNTRY ORDERS OVER £3 CARRIAGE FREE.

"Sparkling Sauterne," 1875 Vintage—Delicious New Sparkling Wine, Sec, and Extra Sec. 42s per doz.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.

WARD'S

INVALID CHAIR AND CARRIAGE

MANUFACTORY,

From SAVILLE HOUSE, LEICESTER SQUARE,

To 246 & 247 TOTTENHAM COURT ROAD, LONDON.

THE ONLY PRIZE MEDAL for INVALID FURNITURE was gained by JOHN WARD, at the London Exhibitions, 1851 and 1862; Paris, 1855 and 1867; Dublin, 1865; Vienna, 1873; 2 Silver Medals, Paris, 1878.

JOHN WARD, Manufacturer by Special Appointment to the Queen and Royal Family, the Empresses of France, Austria, Russia, &c.

INVALID CHAIRS and CARRIAGES for SALE or HIRE from JOHN WARD. Established 150 years. Drawings and price lists free on application.

[redacted]

Fish Carvers, Fish Eating Knives and Forks, Revolving Covered Soup and Luncheon Dishes.

SPECIALITIES FOR TESTIMONIALS,
TEA AND COFFEE SERVICES,
SALVERS, DESSERT KNIVES AND FORKS, GILT AND OXYDIZED GOODS.

77 (from 28) Cheapside, London, E.C.
(NEAR THE POULTRY.)

MORING,

ENGRAVER, DIE SINKER,
HERALDIC ARTIST,
ILLUMINATED ADDRESSES,
44, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST POST FREE.

ADLARD'S JEWEL ATTACHER 7/6.

If with Pockets, 6d each Pocket extra.

225 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

JANES & SON

WINDOW BLINDS ONLY,

WHOLESALE,

ALDERSGATE STREET, CITY, E.C.

BRANCH—

4 EAGLE PLACE, PICCADILLY

THESE ADDRESSES ONLY.

YOUNG'S Arnicated Corn and Bunion Plaisters are the best ever invented for giving immediate ease, and removing those painful excrescences. Price 6d and 1s per box. Any Chemist not having them in stock can procure them.

Observe the Trade Mark—H. Y.—without which none are genuine. Be sure and ask for Young's.

Horizontal Decorations, Verandas, Window Gardening, Seeds, Bulbs, Plants, Ferns, PLANTS FOR DECORATION. Masonic Banquets, Balls, &c.

DICK RADCLYFFE & CO., F.R.H.S.,

PRIZE MEDAL SEEDS.

129 HIGH HOLBORN. W.C.

TABLE DECORATIONS, Ball Room Decorations, Seeds for Export. Illustrated Catalogues gratis and post free. Seeds, Bulbs, &c., carefully packed for Export.

NEW MASONIC ROOMS

COMPLETE SUITE,
SPECIALLY ARRANGED
LODGE, BANQUETTING,
AND ANTE ROOMS,
ALL ON ONE FLOOR.

Particulars to be had of

BRO. A. KENT, MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT,
OPPOSITE RAILWAY STATION,

From which trains run at frequent intervals in connection with the Great Northern, Midland, Great Western, London Chatham & Dover, and Metropolitan Railways.

Printed for the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE PUBLISHING COMPANY LIMITED, and Published by Bro. WILLIAM WRAY MORGAN JUN., at 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C., Saturday, 28th February 1880.

Digitized by Google

THE

Freemason's Chronicle;

A WEEKLY RECORD OF MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

SANCTIONED BY THE GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

Registered at the G.P.O. as a Newspaper.

VOL. XI.—No. 271. SATURDAY, 6th MARCH 1880. [Issued to Subscribers only 13s 6d per annum, post free

UNITED GRAND LODGE.

WE do not think the result of Wednesday's Communication of Grand Lodge will greatly enhance the dignity of that august assembly. It is not indicative of the highest wisdom for a person to be of two minds, at variance with each other, within the comparatively short space of three months, provided of course that circumstances have not intervened to justify a change of front. In the particular case of Bro. Stevens's motion, what was wise and expedient, or the reverse in December last, is, or is not wise or expedient now. It cannot be said that in the interim any new light has been thrown upon the question. It is certain no weighty reasons have been alleged against the appointment of the proposed Committee. The strongest, indeed the only argument which Bro. McKay, who took the initiative in moving the non-confirmation of Bro. Stevens's motion advanced, was simply that as we had gone on for close on seventy years very comfortably, it was just as well to leave things as they were. The "leave well alone" is undoubtedly a judicious policy to follow in certain cases, but it strikes us that, in this instance, it was a question of leaving "ill," not "well" alone. Far be it from us to suggest that Masonry, like other mundane institutions, has its weak points, but no matter how near perfection it may be in its working, it is beyond all doubt there are different modes of working in different Lodges, just as it is beyond all doubt that some of our Masters and Past Masters are not as competent exponents of our ceremonies as they are presumed or expected to be. Grand Lodge would appear to have been sensible of this weak point in December last. Now it seems to consider that everything works smoothly and satisfactorily, and that uniformity of ritual observance is a matter of not the slightest consequence. While bowing to this latter decision with the utmost deference, we yet claim to hold the opinion we have consistently expressed that what is done in our Lodges should be done in nearly the same manner everywhere. We attach no great importance to the employment of the same language always, but the practice in all essentials should be the same. This, as we showed last week, was our idea of Bro. Stevens's proposition, and in this sense it was that we pressed for its acceptance. We argued further that Grand Lodge would do well not to stultify itself a second time over the same question. Whether the time chosen for bringing this subject of uniformity before Grand Lodge was opportune—whether it was in the hands of the most capable brother—are matters which concern us not. It is now on record that Grand Lodge thought a Committee of Inquiry, which must of necessity be harmless, was expedient in December 1879, and it does not think it expedient in March 1880. So stands the case, and nothing in the shape of a reason for this violent change of opinion has been urged by a single Mason whose opinions are of serious moment. Bro. McKay acted conscientiously, as he always does, and, as he firmly believed, in the interests of the Craft, but the speech in which he set forth his views was neither elaborate nor forcible. He thought it would be difficult, if not impossible, for Lodges in the colonies to practise uniformity of ritual, even if those in the mother country did so, but he did not say why it would be more difficult to lay down a general code of laws in 1880 than it was in 1813, when the Union was effected. Moreover, it never was contemplated that the adoption of one ritual should be instant, and the Colonial Lodges therefore would have had ample opportunity allowed them for adopting any changes in their practice which might prove inconsistent with the recommendations of the Committee, supposing in the first instance that any recommendations were submitted, and in the second that they were agreed to by Grand Lodge. As for the idea that future generations of Masons would hesitate about accepting any departure from the ritual in force, it will be time to discuss that point when it is clear there is one only ritual practised by all Lodges. Nor was Bro. McKay much happier in his allusion to the great Masonic schism of last century, so fortunately healed up in 1813. So little is known as to that important event that it would be extremely unsafe to suggest that it was brought about by any question of ritual. We know the so-called "Ancients" claimed to work according to the old institutions, but they were seceders from the so-called "Moderns," whom they affected to despise. It is very far from being clear when the secession took place, and we are not therefore presuming too much when we suggest that the causes which led to it are hidden in obscurity. However, the question is now at an end, and Bro. Stevens has got nothing by his motion.

As to Bro. Clabon's resolutions for the appropriation of the surplus of the Fund of Benevolence towards the establishment of a Pupils' Aid Fund, they were withdrawn because some of the members of the Board of Benevolence were opposed to them. Bro. Clabon is a man of large experience, and it seems strange he should have expected that his scheme would necessarily command the unanimous approval of Grand Lodge. If motions are never to be made except when there is a certainty of their being carried nem con, the business of Grand Lodge will be limited to matters of a formal character, and even in their case, brethren, if they follow Bro. Clabon's example, will have to think twice about submitting any proposal. It was certain there would be differences of opinion as to the merits of so important a project. Some no doubt believed conscientiously that the use of any portion of the Fund for any other purpose than that of relieving indigent brethren, or the families of deceased brethren would be unconstitutional. Others may have allowed the constitutionality of the proceeding and yet doubted the wisdom of the particular proposition submitted for their acceptance. But to go through the form of placing a notice of motion on the agenda paper—and that not for the first time, or without being able to quote a former report in its favour—and then withdraw it, seems to us to be something more than unbusinesslike—it is simply childish. If the Fund of Benevolence is larger than is necessary to meet the demands upon it, and goes on accumulating, let some way be found of utilising the surplus. But then the question as to the best way of doing this must be considered seriously, not regarded as a kind of meaningless joke.

As so the other business of the meeting, we note that Bro. Lieut.-Col. Creaton was re-elected Grand Treasurer in spite of the opposition of Bros. Binckes, Terry, and others, who argued with a considerable show of reason that by the appointment year by year of a different brother to fill that important office the Craft was in a position to confer distinction upon some of its most distinguished members. There seems, moreover, to have been a kind of understanding to this effect when Lt.-Col. Creaton was appointed last year, and, whilst we grudge no honour that can be conferred on our gallant brother, it certainly strikes us as being an act of common prudence to occasionally vary the monotony of re-appointment by conferring this office on others who have deserved equally well with Bro. Creaton of Freemasonry. We congratulate Bro. Buss on the unanimity with which the vote of an honorarium to him for his valuable services as Acting Grand Secretary was passed. No other result could have been anticipated. Equally glad are we that the vote of £500 towards the Duchess of Marlborough's Fund for the Relief of Irish Distress was agreed to with similar unanimity. It would be impossibile to find a better purpose to which to devote a portion of our General Fund. The other matters do not need any further comment, the report we give of them elsewhere being quite sufficient.

Digitized by Google

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND.

IF all goes well, the opening meeting of the founders and other brethren who may be interested in the promotion of this Fund will be held in the Board Room at Freemasons' Hall on Thursday next, under the presidency of His Royal Highness Prince Leopold, Past G. Warden, and Prov. G. Master Oxon, while the Vice-Chair will be occupied by Lord Rosslyn, Past G. Master of Scotland. That the scheme is started under the most favourable auspices goes without saying. The array of names as published in these columns is most influential. Both the provinces and the metropolis are well represented, and there is every reason to hope that the labours of those who have charged themselves with the preliminary duty of preparing for the eventful occasion will culminate in a success surpassing even our most sanguine expectations. We are prepared to expect that as regards details, it will be some time before the plan can be fashioned so as to work smoothly. We know beforehand that in a matter of this kind differences of opinion as to the means to be employed in order to secure the desired end will inevitably arise. It will be wise, of course, to make the most of the enthusiastic support which the bare proposal to establish a Fund has evoked in all directions. But it will be the reverse of wise to hurry on the arrangements. As, therefore, this is the last opportunity we shall have of referring to the subject before the gathering of next Thursday takes place, let us glance briefly at, in the first place, the objects for which the Fund is about to be established, and in the second place, the likeliest and most effectual means by which that object can be attained.

The title of the Fund explains to some extent its purpose. The children we admit into our Schools at Wood Green and Wandsworth receive an excellent education. Not only are they taught well, but they are likewise well trained. The reports of the examiners attest the former, the satisfaction of the authorities bears witness to the latter. But the time inevitably comes when our young protégés must quit the hospitable roof under which they have spent so many happy years, in order to play their part in the grand struggle for an honest and honourable livelihood. It may be they have friends to assist or guide them amid the snares and pitfalls by which they will at once find themselves surrounded. It is possible they may find on leaving school an opening in the direction in which their abilities and inclination lie, or it may be that they will have to live on in a state of enforced and unwelcome idleness. They may turn out to be children of only average mental calibre, or they may possess abilities of the highest class, or unusual aptitude for some business or profession. On the other hand, they may be not only resourceless but friendless, and perhaps feeble in health as well as in mind. At all events, be their circumstances what they may, there is no gainsaying the fact that the time they leave school is the most critical period of their existence. Till this time come they will have been in leading strings; henceforth they will be comparatively free to follow the bent of their own inclinations. They may happen to select the right path and prosper, or they may go on floundering about until they find themselves inextricably involved in all kinds of difficulties. It is, then, when they leave school that a little wholesome advice, a little pecuniary assistance judiciously administered, is most likely to prove of service to them, and it is for this object principally that the Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund is about to be established. We do not think a better scheme could have been suggested in order to complete the work so thoroughly and so successfully accomplished by our Schools.

It will naturally occur to most of our readers to ask to what extent and for how long this assistance will be given? To this question we fancy it will be impossible to formulate an answer in general terms. Yet that will not operate as a preventive to there being a certain code of regulations sufficiently general in their character to include almost every variety of case. An instant expenditure of a comparatively trifling sum may suffice for one, for another a considerable outlay spread over a period of time more or less prolonged may be found necessary, while in a third instance no outlay whatever may be required, but only the exercise of sufficient influence to place the pupil where he or she may have the chance of earning an honourable livelihood; and when it is seen that through zeal and attention to duty there is every prospect of the boy or girl turning out well, then some kind of reward, pecuniary or otherwise, might be given. We do not profess to say it will be possible to range every application under one or other of the foregoing categories, but we do think the majority of them will be such as we have roughly indicated. No doubt the regulations will be framed in such a manner that the Executive body will be in a position to deal with each individual case on its merits, and there need be no fear of laxity in the administration of the Fund. What is more to the point, those who administer it will be able to watch over the after progress of the pupils. And then the latter will themselves feel they are commencing the great battle of life under more favourable circumstances. They will recognise that they are not entirely adrift, that they have a body of well-wishers intent on watching the progress they make, and above all things, the manner in which they comport themselves. They will know that interest will cease, and any aid they may have been reckoning upon will be withdrawn or withheld, if they do not strive to their utmost to give satisfaction to their employers. As they grow older and gain experience they will still be animated by the same desire—if they are the children we take them to be—to strengthen and improve their position, until at length they find themselves strong enough to battle on alone and unassisted. It cannot be said there is any extravagance in such a scheme, or that those who may derive assistance from the proposed Fund will lose those habits of self-reliance which are rightly considered so necessary to success in life, and we may take it for granted that in extending further benefits to the young we have taken or may take under our charge, we shall not be unduly increasing the financial responsibilities of the Craft. We stand already pledged to the maintenance of two Schools and a Benevolent Institution, and the former already give certain assistance to such of the retiring pupils as may need it. The new proposal does not bind us to an unduly increased outlay in this respect. The majority of the cases which will be submitted to it for consideration will doubtless be of the same character as heretofore. The assistance will in all probability usually take the form of indenture fees for apprenticing boys to some trade or profession, which fees in themselves are seldom of very great extent; but more often than not we imagine influence alone will be sufficient to secure employment suitable for each applicant. With this view the founders have received promises of support from influential sources, while lists of probable vacancies and appointments will from time to time be noted. This, coupled with the advice and help that may be rendered from chiefs interested in juniors will form a prominent feature of the assistance contemplated. Now and again, it may happen—but we are sure the "now and again" will be equivalent to "very rarely"—there probably will be found boys with talents of a very high order, whom, for the honour of the School as well as for their own sake, it may be considered wise to send to one of our Universities. In that case the outlay will be considerable, and extend over a period of years. Or, in order to provide for such, it might be thought the better course to establish a Scholarship Fund—as part and parcel of the Assistance Fund—the proceeds being reserved for such deserving pupils as are likely to achieve academic distinction. Then there are many Schools of High Art now open to those who have a decided taste in painting, drawing, sculpture, &c. The fees are light, but those who attend the classes must have the means to support themselves during their period of study. Girls there are who have in them the making of good musicians, while others have equal chances of succeeding as governesses. It will be necessary in the case of these that the general education they have received in our School should be followed by a period of special training. But when we have made allowance, among those who leave school annually, firstly for those who have friends, and will need no help, and then for those who will require no more than is now given, we shall find but very few left who are likely to possess talent which it will be wise on our part to encourage and develop further.

Digitized by Google

Nor do we think there is any justice in the charge that by establishing a Pupils' Assistance Fund we shall be placing the children of our Schools on the level of mere "paupers." We pride ourselves not unnaturally on giving these children such an education as in all probability they would have received had their parents lived or remained in prosperous circumstances—an education such as unhappily for them the "pauper" children of this country are not in the habit of receiving. All it is proposed to do further is to place those retiring pupils who may need such help, where they will have the opportunity of turning the education we have given them to good account. We may trust the Executive of the Fund to investigate most carefully the merits of each case submitted to them. We may take it for granted they will not assist those whose friends are in a position to help them or who are themselves unworthy of help. We see no reason, therefore, to suppose that the Fund will be administered extravagantly any more than that there will be need of any large sum to meet all requirements. The children will feel they have some one to look to when they are entering on the active duties of life, some one who will fulfil the part of guardians, but without undertaking all the customary responsibilities of guardianship. In short, where an income reckoned by thousands is necessary towards the maintenance of each School a few hundreds will meet the exigencies of the Assistance Fund and suffice for both Schools. And be it remembered that in some of our large public schools, where admission is obtained by presentation or nomination, and the children are fed and taught out of the schools' funds, those of them who attain a certain position are retained for a further term of years and then sent up to Oxford or Cambridge at the school expense out of funds specially provided.

We think we have reported pretty well everything that can be urged in favour of or against the scheme now under contemplation. As to the manner in which the Fund should be administered, it is hardly yet time to attempt delineating this. It may be managed in much the same fashion as the Fund of Benevolence, or as laid down in Bro. Clabon's resolutions—which were, however, withdrawn—for the establishment by Grand Lodge of a Pupils' Aid Fund. But of one thing we are well assured. It will not need the services of a paid staff to do what will be required. There will be some kind of an Executive, the members of which will be chosen out of the governors and other supporters of the Fund. There will be Trustees, in whose name the moneys raised will be invested, an honorary Treasurer, and a Secretary; but as the duties of the last-named will be light, even if they do not partake rather of a formal character, it will only be necessary that his honorarium, if any, should be commensurate. However, we cheerfully leave for future consideration the arrangements it may be found necessary to make, in the full conviction that of whatever nature they may be, they will involve only a trifling outlay.

One word more and we have done. It has been said that the promoters of the scheme have made an entire "change of front." Of the grounds for this assertion we are in ignorance. The ideas which have animated the brethren who have busied themselves so successfully and paved the way for its establishment have been the same always. Certainly they have acceded, in consideration of the large amount of support they have received, to a wish widely expressed to incorporate as one of the first objects of the Fund the assistance of unsuccessful candidates for the existing Charities, but this can hardly be called a "change of front," inasmuch as it was a part of the plan of the projectors—save that at first it was thought the rendering of this assistance would be out of the question for some years to come. It yet remains to be seen whether they have taken too sanguine a view of the position, but we are assured that experience warrants the assumption that at an early date a surplus will accrue, and this surplus we agree with the Founders could not possibly be devoted to a better object than to assist those candidates who, being unsuccessful, are now debarred from participating in the bounty of the Craft. Small grants for short periods will here be the rule, and an incalculable amount of good must follow. The projectors have done what they have done without hope or expectation of reward; not only this,—they have taken it upon themselves to defray out of their own pockets the expenses which have been necessarily incurred. The moneys already paid over towards the Fund have been lodged in the Bank of England, and there they will remain till such time as the organisation has been settled and the Executive is in full working order. A code of regulations having been drawn up, the Fund will then be administered in the manner prescribed and for the purposes contemplated from the outset, or since included in the programme, that is, in helping former pupils of our Schools, who may need help, in making a good start in life. And the Fund once launched into being will no doubt fulfil its object most successfully.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents.

We cannot undertake to return rejected communications.

All Letters must bear the name and address of the Writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

THE MASONIC RITUAL.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I fancy I remember to have once heard a story of a gentleman who was both owner and occupier of a very nice and well-built house. Like other houses, it had occasionally stood in need of repairs; occasionally, too, it was found that re-decoration was necessary. Even in the best regulated mansions some portions of the wood or stone work require to be renewed now and again. Unsightlinesses, in the form of dust and other "matter in the wrong place," have to be removed. Fresh fittings and furniture are now and then necessary, and this particular house was no exception to the general rule. But though the periodical cleaning and furbishing up had been scrupulously attended to, the original fabric remained substantially the same as when it was first built. All of a sudden the owner came to be seized with a desire to re-arrange the house he had dwelt in with so much comfort for so many years. One of those kindly-disposed friends who are never so happy as when suggesting or making some change had visited him, and, while admitting the house was a very excellent one, had pointed out that an enlargement here, a curtailment there, a re-arrangement elsewhere, would make it the most comfortable house in the world. The alterations were begun accordingly. This room was enlarged at the expense of the hall, that at the expense of the library. One change led on to another, and when finally the alterations were complete, it turned out that little, if any, of the original structure was left, and after having incurred a large amount of expense, the owner was anything but satisfied with the new state of things that had resulted from his friend's advice. Well, it strikes me that Freemasonry is like this "nice and well-built house," and the Craft is the owner of it. In the course of its occupancy, extending now over upwards of 160 years, certain repairs and redecorations have been found necessary, and, in particular, owing to some weakness in the foundations, or, more probably still, to the unsatisfactory nature of the soil in which they had been laid, there was for between seventy and eighty years a huge fissure in the main support of the building. Wise architects, however, were called in. The foundations were strengthened in every part, and at length, by means of clamps and other appliances, the gap was healed up, and the house at once became noted for the comfort and convenience of its arrangements, and the richness of its fittings and furniture. Of course, as years went on, rubbish had to be removed, and the rooms tidied up periodically; yet the building remained intact, and as solid and substantial as ever. All of a sudden it occurs to some one the character of the house should be changed. The entrance is too narrow, the space within too contracted in some parts, and in others too extended. It may have given satisfaction to the occupants, but it is not in harmony with the original design. In short, the Temple of Freemasonry, according to their ideas, must be reconstructed. The notion that only the removal of that extraneous matter, which is sure to find its way into every building, is necessary is absurd. It is not enough that up till now it has been found sufficient for the accommodation of all people who are willing to express their belief in a God, or that its forms and ceremonies have been so compiled and arranged as to conflict as little as possible with the religious idiosyncrasies of its different professors. The Jews and others, says Bro. Gottheil, "labour under the necessity of so altering the sense" of our ceremonies "as to suit their convictions." Possibly the same may be said of Christian brethren. It is the great merit of Freemasonry that it offers opportunities for men of all creeds to meet together in perfect harmony. Just as different clergymen of the Church of England differently interpret the Articles of that Church, so Christian, Jew, Mahommedan, Hindu, &c., are at liberty to interpret, each according to the light that is in him, the Articles of Masonry. These Articles express certain general truths, which existed when there were no religious differences in the world, and exist still. These truths, however, with all due respect for those who differ with me, are not, it seems to me, possible of acceptance by men of no creed at all, because, with all the liberal-mindedness I am anxious and able to bring to bear upon the question, I do not see how such people can be brought to accept anything they will regard as binding on what, for want of a better word, I suppose I must call their "conscience." I cannot conceive how any one can live and not be a deist of some kind or other. All nations of the earth, with the exception of some not much higher than brutes, in all ages of the world, have had some kind of deity or deities they worshipped. Shall I venture to assume that all these have been wrong, and that the few who now propound the dogma "there is no God," are right? I know the views of a majority are not necessarily the truth, but when I find the sages of ancient Egypt, Greece, Rome, &c., of Judaism, of Christianity, all conspiring together, with the Brahmins, the Buddhists, the Fire-worshippers, the followers of Confucius, the untutored North American Indians, as they are called, the Aztecs, &c., &c.; and proclaiming there is a God, whom men must worship, I set this concurrent testimony against the laboured arguments of the atheist, as I should the sworn evidence of trustworthy witnesses against the rhetoric of the pleader; and I side with the majority, not because it is a majority, but because it seems to me this concurrent testimony, being that of all the wisest and best men who have ever lived, is overwhelmingly in favour of the views they enunciate. Why should I advocate a change in the character of Freemasonry, which, as far as I can make out, is as unsectarian as it can possibly be? I exclude no one from its fold who is worthy of being admitted. I do not say that every word of every line of its formularies is the best which human wisdom could have supplied, but I do say that a better vehicle for bringing together on one platform men of all nations and creeds has not been found hitherto. I am far from claiming for it perfection, but I think we may go farther and fare worse; or, rather, that we may go on with our alterations to suit first one party and then another, until, as in the case of the owner of the house, it is found that there is nothing of the original structure left, and that the new building is far less commodious. If we alter or modify to please the infidel, we shall displease the deist. If we incline more than at present in any particular direction, we give offence in the opposite direction. As far as we have gone, we have fairly well satisfied all, and had better, therefore, be content with pursuing the same course. The differences which have broken out among us have been, for the most part neither religious nor political—a sufficient proof to my mind that, as I have just said, Freemasonry has thus far formed the best means for men of all creeds, and all political views also, meeting and working together harmoniously. If we attempt more, we shall destroy the very temple we have been at such pains to erect. As to uniformity of ritual, I am in favour of it as regards matters of observance. I think we should have our ceremonies carried out as nearly as possible in the same manner everywhere, but I should strenuously oppose any and every attempt to secure this uniformity, if I thought there were the slightest chance of the principles of Freemasonry being thereby endangered.

Digitized by Google

Fraternally yours,

PETER.

BEDFORDSHIRE.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER.—How and why is it that we never bear of any representative in the person of a Steward for either of our Charities from this County? I think it is not far to seek for an answer. In my opinion it is because it is not a province, and consequently without a Masonic chief; and while this state of things exists I fear that Beds will always be conspicuous by its absence. I am given to understand that of the five Lodges in this County, two are opposed to having—while three are very anxious to have—a ruler over them. I note that although they do not support our Institutions, they are very glad to receive its benefits. A case for the Boys' School was recently submitted to me, and my vote solicited, by no less than twelve members of Lodge No. 475, attached to it. I should like to know how many of those twelve, are, or ever were, subscribers to the Institution? I merely quote this case as an example, but do they know that a boy's education costs for six years—seeing the applicant is only ten years of age—from £250 to £270 in round figures? A good man and true can easily be found to fill the P.G. Mastership, and the appointment would be hailed with enthusiasm by all sincere Masons, not only in Bedfordshire but out of it. We should then in all probability see an increase in the number of its Lodges, and the Province well represented at the Festivals. Our new Grand Secretary could not better inaugurate his term of office than by placing the case before our Royal Grand Master, and submitting that Bedfordshire be constituted as a Province. Their meetings would then be of real practical use, while at present, for the good they do, they are little better than convivial gatherings.

I am, Dear Sir and Brother,

Yours fraternally,

OBSERVER.

[We think the suggestion a very good one, and no time should be lost in acting upon it. The comparative paucity of the Lodges should be no obstacle, as Cambridgeshire and Herefordshire, with only four Lodges each, are both Masonic Provinces. Moreover, Colonel Stuart, formerly M.P. for Bedford, would be just the "right man" for a Provincial chief.—ED. F.C.]

The Etonian Lodge, No. 209, in sending out its annual list of members have adopted a very good idea, and one which we feel sure would prove a great benefit to the Charities if universally adopted. They have attached a trio of columns in which appear the qualifications of each member as regards the three Charitable Institutions, with a result that must be pronounced most gratifiying, there are however some ugly gaps, which, now that they are so prominently pointed out, may be remedied before another return is issued, but what could be said in this respect of many other Lodges we are almost afraid to think. We should like to see the day when every Lodge would thus pride itself on the work of its members, we should not then hear of so many absentees, or have to record so long a list of "unsuccessful candidates."

REVIEW.

All Books intended for Review should be addressed to the Editor of The Freemason's Chronicle, 23 Gt. Queen St., W.C.

The Atholl Lodges: their Authentic History. Being a Memorial of the Grand Lodge of England "according to the old Institutions." Compiled from official sources. By Robert Freke Gould, author of "the Four Old Lodges." London: Spencer's Masonic Depôt, opposite Freemasons' Hall. 1879.

(Continued from page 149.)

IT appears to have been no uncommon practice to initiate, pass, and raise candidates on one and the same evening—and that without any previous proposal. Thus we read at p. 24, under present Lodge No. 90, formerly No. 113, "Ancients," "18th November, 1812: The Warrant suspended by the Stewards' Lodge from all its rights and privileges during the space of six months, various irregularities having been proved, including a constant practice of passing persons through all three degrees in a single evening, without any previous proposal of them as candidates." Again at p 46, under No. 243—present No. 184—"20th January, 1796: Bros. Hubbart, Wolfington, and Owen M'Carthy, on the complaint of Nos. 243 and 291, Chatham, against Bro. David Davis, attended. Resolved, that Bro. D. Davis in making Thos. Hammond in the manner in which he was made, viz.—Proposed, Made, Past, and Raised in one night, and under a Dormant Warrant, should receive the censure of this Committee, the parties being called in and acquainted with the same.—S. L. Min." This same Bro. D. Davis, who was first Master of the Lodge of Israel, formerly No. 280, now No. 205, had the knack, or misfortune, of being continually in hot water with the authorities. Thus, "15th Feb. 1797, Warrant of No. 280 cancelled, the Lodge having admitted Abraham Theyes into Masonry for the small and unworthy consideration of 5s. 19th April 1797; Bro. David Davis attended according to the order of the last Royal Arch Chapter, and delivered up the paper signed Thos. Harper, London, 1st April, 1796; under which it had been alledged that the said D. Davis had acted and summoned the Lodges in the Country to meet, contrary to regulation or any authority given by said appointment to Bro. Davis and after the expiration of his being appointed to act as one of the Excellent Masters for the year 1795 and 1796.—S. L. Min." Considerable laxity seems to have prevailed as to the admission of candidates, not only in the foregoing matter of granting all the degrees in one night but in other respects. Thus as regards No. 49, now No. 53, it seems that, on the 15th December 1773, the Grand Secretary was ordered not to deliver up the Warrant of No. 49, as the people that purchased it from Bro. Kearney had "indulged" in irregular proceedings. Again it was ordered by Grand Lodge on 4th Feb. 1807, that the Warrant of No. 53, now No. 57, of Liverpool, be withdrawn, the grounds of the said withdrawal being the "Complaint of the five Lodges of Liverpool" against such Warrant for the very un-Masonic conduct by the improper and indiscriminate admission of persons made in said Lodge No. 53, Liverpool, and under said Warrant to the great injury and disgrace of Masonry, 4 of whom was lately convicted for felony," &c. "In the case of No. 157—now No. 119—very un-Masonic proceedings" are reported to have taken place under the Warrant of that Lodge and it was withdrawn and given up to the respectable section thereof, and with the consent and approbation of No. 154 held in the same town—Whitehaven. In July 1791, it seems the then No. 163—now No. 121—was reported to be "in a declining and irregular condition." Present Domatic, No. 177, to whose irregularities we referred last week, was, as No. 234, ordered on 19th September, 1810, to deliver up its Warrant to the D.G.M., "for admitting a 'Modern' Mason of Lodge 352, without previously initiating him," but it was subsequently restored "on due submission being made." On the 21st November of the same year, the W. Master of this Lodge, Bro. Thos. Banbury, was expelled, for vilifying Bro. Harper, D.G.M. Bro. Jacob Sarratt, previously Master of No. 240, no longer in existence, was, on 20th July 1796, "suspended from his privileges as a Mason for various irregularities, including his passing Bro. John White to the degree of a R.A. Mason, after having had notice that the said Bro. White was not a registered Mason." On the 16th Nov. 1808, this Lodge and No. 245, were brought before the Stewards for initiating "Blacks." On the 3rd July 1803, John Shury and Charles Valentine, of No. 245, now No. 186, were expelled for various irregularities, "including the taking the Warrant of said Lodge to a society called 'Modern Masons.'" Lastly comes under this head No. 261—now No. 194—which on 22nd September 1791, was ordered by G.L. to refund Michael Davis £1, "being money obtained by the Lodge under pretence of making M. D. a Mason, being, in fact, a very unfit person."

As may be imagined references are more than once made to the Union of 1813, and various attempts to bring it about. Thus, as far back as December 1797, a resolution in favour of a Union of the two Grand Lodges was moved by Bro. Moreton, of the then, and now, No. 63. On 6th September 1809, and also subsequently, Bro. Jeremiah Cranfield P.M. 255, now No. 190, "brought forward his renewed motion (withdrawn on the 7th June last,) that a Committee be appointed from this Grand Lodge to consider of, and adopt, such prompt and effectual measures for accomplishing so desirable an object as a Masonic Union." But the Deputy G. Master Harper "peremptorily refused to admit the motion, and afterwards closed and adjourned the Grand Lodge, past 12 o'clock at night." Again, under No. 273, we read an excerpt from the Grand Lodge Minutes of 1st September 1813, to the effect that a letter was read "from our Royal Brother, the Duke of Kent, accepting the appointment of this G.L. to confer (in conjunction with three other brothers, to be named) with H.R.H. the Duke of Sussex on the Union of the two Societies," the three other brothers being Thomas Harper Deputy G. Master, and James Perry and James Agar, Past Deputy G. Masters, all three being likewise Past Masters of Grand Master's Lodge, No. 1 on the Ancient and United Roll.

Digitized by Google

It is also natural that we should meet in these pages with the names of the more prominent members of the Fraternity, from the Duke of Athol, who, on 25th February 1776, was admitted into the first, second, and third degree, and installed W.M. of No. 1 Lodge, and then unanimously elected Grand Master, downwards. As our readers are aware, the moving spirit of the Ancients was undoubtedly Bro. Laurence Dermott, of whom we read briefly that he was "born 1720, initiated in Ireland 1740, installed Master of No. 26, Dublin, 24th June 1746. On coming to England he at first joined a 'Modern' Lodge, but was a member of Nos. 9 and 10, 'Ancients,' when elected Grand Secretary on the 25th February 1752, appointed Deputy G.M. 2nd March 1771, being succeeded at his own request by W. Dickey, on 27th December 1777. Again, D.G.M. from 27th December 1783 to 27th December 1786, when (also at his own request) he was succeeded by James Perry. Present for the last time in Grand Lodge 8th June 1782." Bro. Will. Dickey Jr., W.M. in 1766 of No. 14, and who in the same year was re-made in the three Craft degrees in No. 246 Moderns," was another distinguished "Ancient." He was elected W.M. of the Grand Master's Lodge (No. 1) in 1792, and "in the following year presented to it the jewels and furniture of Lodge No. 14, of which he was then the sole remaining member, the warrant having been delivered up in 1732. He was Deputy Grand Secretary in 1768-71, Grand Secretary 1771-77, Deputy Grand Master 1777-81, President of the Grand Committee 1782, and again Deputy G.M. 1794-1800." Bro. William Preston, author of the "Illustrations of Masonry," was the second person initiated in No. 111, at the time under dispensation. This happened in the early part of 1763, but the year following the members, no doubt, as Bro. Gould says, at the instance of William Preston, petitioned for a "Modern" Constitution, and was a second time constituted, as the Caledonian Lodge, now No. 134. Bro. Gould then goes on to say that in 1775 Preston sought to establish a connection between the G.L. of Scotland and the Grand Lodge of the "Moderns," and was referred by the former to Bro. W. Dickey Grand Secretary "Ancients." In his rejoinder, Bro. Preston remarked that Grand Lodge Scotland had been "grossly imposed upon by an irregular body of men, falsely assuming the appellation of antient Masons," and this statement, it may be imagined, was warmly discussed in the Ancient Grand Lodge, which recorded its surprise that no account of innovations introduced by the Moderns into Freemasonry had been transmitted to the Grand Lodge of Scotland or of Ireland, "although they obliterated the Ancient Landmarks, so as to render the Ancient System scarcely distinguishable by either of these nations." Another distinguished name that occurs is that of the well-known Bro. Dunckerley, who as a Prov. Grand Master under the "Modern" system took upon himself, in 1777, to doubt the legality of the warrant granted to No. 230, now 151, of the Ancients. Bro. Gould considers this upsets the theory respecting this brother that he obtained his knowledge of R.A. Masonry by visiting the "Atholl" Lodges. It may be so, but it is by no means conclusive, for Bro. Dunckerley, who was all enthusiasm in things Masonic, may have obtained admission into "Atholl" Masonry just as ancient Masons sought admission into the Lodges of Moderns. The learned Preceptor, Bro. Peter Thompson P.S.G.D., born in the north of England in 1779, died 1851, was initiated in No. 259, now Confidence, No. 193, in 1818, and the year following joined the Lion and Lamb, No. 192, then No. 258. With Bro. Broadfoot he founded, in 1817, the Stability Lodge of Instruction, No. 217, Broadfoot being the first Master, and Thompson the second. Bro. Goldsworthy, another Masonic teacher of eminence, was a member of No. 2, now No. 3, "and had the honour of seconding the motion in 1811 for a Committee vested with full powers to carry into effect the measure of a Masonic union of the two Societies." In 1813 he was a member of the Lodge of Reconciliation, and subsequently Junior Grand Deacon. Other names are mentioned in these pages, and notably that of Bro. Peter Gilkes, who at the time of his death on 11th December 1833, was W.M. of the present St. Michael's, No. 211. Of him we read that he was a "great smoker, and averaged thirty pipes of tobacco and coltsfoot daily. When quite blackened by use, it was his habit to present the pipes, for which he had no further use, to his favourite pupils, by whom, it is said, they were much prized (?)." It is stated that he strongly opposed the establishment of the Emulation Lodge of Improvement, though his fame as its Preceptor was afterwards widely diffused. He invariably declined Grand Lodge honours, though many times offered him, "on the plea that his circumstances in life were not equal to the appointment."

As to the Lists appended they are transcribed from the editions of Abiman Rezon, in which they respectively appeared. It seems to us that they should be called more properly Lists of Warrants than Lists of Lodges. The Warrants remained the same numerically ab initio, but, as we have seen, they were held by different Lodges, even that of No. 2 having been purchasedin 1784 for six guineas by No. 32; that of No. 3, now No. 9, being sold to No. 55 for £4 14s 6d on 6th June 1759, and that of No. 5, which, on 17th May 1769, "G. Sec. Dermott, having congregated some brethren by dispensation, proposed to purchase," and for which he offered "£5 5s to the general Charity." And be it remembered that the Masters of Lodges Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 (Ancients) on the 17th July 1751—the earliest date in the "Atholl" records—were "authorised to grant dispensations and Warrants, and to act as Grand Master." Another reason why it strikes us they should be dealt with as lists of Warrants and not of Lodges is, that the Prov. Grand Lodges are in many cases as regards the former numbered in regular sequence as the Warrants were issued. There does not appear to have been anything like the same organisation as among the "Moderns," except in foreign parts, where it was probably the same. Another feature that will strike the student of these lists is the considerable number of Military Lodges.

It only remains for us to repeat the offer of our congratulations to Bro. Gould on the completeness as well as excellence, and so far as our judgment goes, the accuracy of his work. And if he has the will and the leisure, as we are sure he has the ability and patience, to make his task still more complete by tracing Ancient Nos. 2-7, so as to throw further light on the early events of the Secession, he would still further enhance his claims on the respectful consideration of the whole Craft.

UNITED GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

THE Quarterly Communication of Grand Lodge was held on Wednesday evening in the Temple. The Earl of Carnarvon Pro Grand Master presided. Lord Tenterden and Major-General the Hon. Somerset G. Calthorpe occupied the chairs of Senior and Junior Grand Warden respectively. The dais was crowded with present and Past Grand Officers, and the body of the hall was inconveniently packed with brethren who have not arrived at the distinction of wearing the purple. The probable number of brethren who attended was about 800. The first business that was transacted after the reading of the minutes of last regular meeting was the hearing of the motion of which notice had been given by Bro. McKay, P.M. of Kendal, that the portion of the minutes which related to Bro. James Stevens's motion be not confirmed. Bro. McKay supported his proposition by the argument—that to compel a number of Lodges to alter the ritual they had been used to would inflict upon the Order incalculable evil which no one could repair. There might be differences of verbiage but the essentials were practically the same in all Lodges. The Rev. C. W. Arnold seconded the motion, and contended that the working of the country Lodges was on the whole equal to that of the London Lodges. He believed that the working would in time become uniform on account of the constant interchange of visits between Lodges. The Rev. R. J. Simpson supported the confirmation of the minutes, and was followed by Bro. Cumberland to the same effect, who agreed with Bro. Stevens that there was working in some Lodges which ought not to be allowed. He believed that something ought to be done to remedy this evil, and he thought Bro. Stevens' Committee would tend to do so. Bro. Stevens urged on the Committee to confirm the minutes. He only asked for a Committee of Inquiry, which was not to settle a form of ritual, but only to inquire into different workings. When the Committee inquired they would make their report, and it was on their report the brethren would take or would not take action. The Rev. A. F. A. Woodford drew the attention of Grand Lodge to the fact that Grand Lodge had already decided the question in 1869-70 by not appointing the Committee. As an old Provincial Mason he knew that Provincial brethren cherished their own ritual, which had been handed down to them. On the motion of Bro. McKay being put, it was carried by a considerable majority, and the minutes were then, with the exception of the rejected part, confirmed. Bro. Frank Richardson proposed, and Bro. Alderman Ellis seconded, the election of the Prince of Wales as Grand Master for the year ensuing, and when this motion had been carried, and his Royal Highness proclaimed by Sir Albert Woods, Bro. Peirce proposed, and Bro. Cantle seconded, Col. Creaton as Grand Treasurer for another year. Before this motion was put to Grand Lodge Bro. Binckes proposed, and Bro. James Terry seconded, Bro. William Winn P.M. 657, stating that it was an understood principle at Grand Lodge in March 1879 that the Grand Treasurer should be elected for a year only, that the brethren might have the opportunity of conferring an honour on brethren who had been of the greatest service to the Order. Bro. J. M. Klenck P.M. Paxton Lodge, supported the latter motion. Bros. J. M. Clabon, Sutton Gover and James Mason opposed it, and on the motion being put, Bro. Col. Creaton was re-elected by a great majority. The Earl of Carnarvon next proposed that £500 should be subscribed out of the Fund of General Purposes to the Duchess of Marlborough's Fund for the relief of distress in Ireland, and as the vote would require confirmation at next Grand Lodge in June before the money could be handed over, he proposed that the motion should be altered by leaving out the words "at once." It was necessary to conform strictly to the letter of the Book of Constitutions or a dangerous precedent might be established. The motion was seconded by Bro. W. W. Beach M.P., and when it had been carried Col. Creaton said he would take upon himself the responsibility of giving a cheque for the amount and trust to the indemnity of the brethren at next Grand Lodge. After the recommendations of the Lodge of Benevolence had been confirmed, the brethren proceeded to consider the Report of the Board of General Purposes, as it was stated by the Earl of Carnarvon that the Board had exceeded their powers in making the purchase of premises adjoining Freemasons' Hall, the report must, in that particular, be referred back to them for a recommendation that the purchase be effected. On the subject of the alterations for the purpose of giving further accommodation to the officials of the three Charitable Institutions. Bro. Binckes inquired whether the plan would be submitted to the executive of those Institutions? to which Bro. Monckton replied that when Grand Lodge gave authority for the alteration to be made, the matter would come before the proper committees. In answer to further questions, Bro. Monckton said that undoubtedly the works would be put up to public competition. They also adopted the recommendation to lay out £75 in altering the library into a Grand Secretary's room, and to spend £3000 in the entire cleaning and decorating Freemasons' Hall. Bro. Monckton said the second of these two works would not be commenced till the Masonic season this year was passed. The brethren confirmed the recommendation to present Bro. H. G. Buss, Assistant Grand Secretary, with 150 guineas, in consideration of the assiduous manner in which he had performed the duties of his Office during the illness of Bro. John Hervey. Bro. Clabon then brought on his motion for setting aside two-thirds annually of the surplus of the Fund of Benevolence for apprenticing, or otherwise advancing in life, the boys and girls when they leave the two Masonic Educational Institutions, but after it had been seconded by Bro. Dr. Jabez Hogg P.G.D., Bro. Clabon withdrew his motion, and as this concluded the business of the evening, Grand Lodge was closed and adjourned.

Bro. Grove Ellis, No. 188, announces his seventeenth Annual Ball for Tuesday, 8th April, at the Freemasons' Tavern, Great Queen-street; conductor, Bro. M. Aloof. Tickets (5s each) can be obtained of Bro. Grove Ellis, 42 Penton-street, Pentonville.

Digitized by Google

UNITY AND MEASUREMENT.

"From the Voice of Masonry."

"Is thy heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? * * * If it be, give me thy hand."

UNION involves work, feeling, sentiment, and interest. In ancient times plucking off the shoe was the evidence of sincerity in a contract. Partners succeed in business only as they are united in everything pertaining to their commercial work; scientists, as they agree in details of investigation and results; theologians, as they harmonize in doctrine; families, as they agree in their social relation; churches, as they are of one mind in whatever promotes their spiritual and temporal interests, and so Masons should always have a perfect harmony between them, not only in all matters of general interest, but in every minute social affair. The extension of and grasping the hand is the usual indication of friendly feeling, and generally of union in matters of personal or fraternal interests, and it ought to have the significance of the ancient custom of plucking off the shoe. A situation of circumstances that precludes the union of hands or hearts among two brother Masons always casts a gloom of sorrow over the whole Lodge, and generally there is a strong desire among the brethren to settle the differences, and when success has been so far achieved as to call from the one the expression: "Give me thy hand," there is a feeling of rejoicing among all others, because it is an indication of forgiveness and a readiness for union.

There are so many grand sentiments and thoughts in Masonry that no Lodge can ever afford to have any feeling of disunion exist between any of its brethren. There must be union of heart, hand, and work.

Giving the hand indicates, generally, the feeling between two persons; but it is not incorrect to give the thought a larger, and, perhaps, higher significance. It is not beyond the range of propriety to say we give our hand to a great enterprise, thought or doctrine. "It has my hearty approbation." "I will willingly co-operate," is the same thought in its larger meaning. It is, therefore, correct, in any of these, to say I give it my hand, hence to consider that the heart is right with the enterprise. If our hearts, then, are right with the heart (sentiment) of Masonry, we give it our hand in many ways. As men of reasonably moral thought, we cannot give our hand to an incorrect or immoral principle, but can to a good one wherever found; nor to any form or ceremony that is debasing, but can to one that elevates; nor to a corrupt and dangerous person, but can to one who is good, or who may be benefited by good association. If we have enmity, the heart is not right, and we cannot extend the hand to an individual, nor approbation to a cause; but if the enmity be removed, we can extend it to both. We therefore say, we may give our hand to Masonry, the Church, or to any moral or spiritual interest, because they have grand objects in view.

Considered in Masonic light, three things are involved: Giving the hand to the sentiments taught; the approbation to the forms of induction; to the brother in fraternal fellowship; to an observance of all Masonic rule taught directly, or by implication. The Masonic heart must, then, be right in all its daily practices, and be in full accordance with our professions, for a Mason is a man who professes a high degree of morality. Does he drink? Does he swear? Is he at enmity with a brother? Does he harbour suspicion against a brother without a cause, or without good evidence? Does he doubt the word of the sacred book upon which he took his pledge and made his vow? Does he neglect the observance of the precepts taught? Does he deal unjustly with any brother? Does he neglect the duties implied in his obligation, or in any way prove recreant to the vows given at the sacred altar? His heart is not right with the heart of Masonry, and he cannot give it his hand. He must be right in the moral principles taught, to be enabled to give his hand to the cause in the true sense of the thought.

This union of heart and giving the hand is closely observed by all men, and is the foundation of all man's measurement of men. The external exhibition of men's thoughts is what all men measure motive and character by, because they cannot go down any deeper into man's nature. But God measures altogether by a deeper and purer standard. By his mental power he reads the unexpressed thought and judges of motive power before it has come to light of day, where man reaches it.

Men are under the constant surveillance of all their fellows. The wicked measure the poorest and weakest of the good by the best of their own number, thus never come to any accurate judgment of the morality of the good. Contrasts are drawn by taking the best of the good and the meanest of the bad, and holding them up to show the lights and shadows of virtue and sin. Neither are correct. Perfect judgment of contrasts in men brings the highest class of virtue in each. Thus the highest virtue in the wicked is compared with the highest in the good, and the weakest and poorest of the good with the worst of the bad. Then the action and words of every one is compared with what the man professes.

This measurement of men does not stop at generalities, but is constantly occurring in the closest relations of life. The parent is measuring the child, the child the parent. The husband scans the action of the wife, the wife the husband, and so with all other near relations of life.

Many times we are misjudged because our abilities, possessions, or endowments are overestimated or underrated. To arrive at correct judgment, these must be understood as they exist. Eccentricities or dispositions many times preclude the formation of correct judgments. But in all, man has little of penalties to inflict; God has all, hence also a perfect knowledge of all that goes to make up character.

Men are generally too apt to measure others by themselves in character, motive and action. Principle alone should be the standard of measurement.

When we realise the fact of this constant measurement, it is well sometimes to consider, How am I measured? If, by myself, I am an egotist. If by my lack of united feeling with others, I am placed beneath my merits. But in God's hand the measure is just. If so, what are my deserts? Then comes the thought, as to how I am conducting myself in the presence of that God.

The idea of Masonic unity and measurement is one that should often claim the attention. It is well to consider, first, am I united, in my Masonic work, with the cause, its measures and men? Having settled that affirmatively, it is then well to consider how that unity of feeling corresponds with daily action. Is it thought I ought to be a better man because I am a Mason? If so, I ought, then, to turn my thoughts to nobler things. How should it guide me in my transactions with men? What element of Masonry should enter into my business relations? What better influence should I have upon the young? Years ago, a man, just after taking the Knight Templar degree, said to the writer: "I ought to be a better man than I am to take such a degree as that!" but did it mend his way? No. He did not stop to consider the idea of unity in its work, nor the measurements, that men were making. The Sir Knights thought he should have been a better man. His measurement began in the Commandery. The Master, Fellow Craft and Apprentice all expected to see more of the true measurement of the man. All were disappointed. If we are so low in the measurement of imperfect human judgment, what will it be when we come to the infallibly correct judgment of an All-Wise Judge, who allows no element of character to pass His notice?

If our unity of feeling is wrong, and our measurement accordingly incorrect, there may be a reformation of mind and heart in this matter. But reformation must, of necessity, be the result of a willing mind. To be a true Mason, we must be willing to extend the hand to every one, especially a brother. All errors of the past must be forgiven, and we must lay down every wrong action, discard every evil thought, and endeavour to approach the very highest element of pure thought.

To accomplish this grand work we need not go out of our own sphere of immediate action. There is work enough for all. There are objects of benevolence everywhere, and, as soon as we have thoroughly united ourselves in the work of the good cause, men will begin to change the balances of their scales.

Character is man's grandest possession—greater than estates, purer than gold or precious stones. It is the very life of the man. Character with all its power, thrown into union with a good cause, and measured by the pure standard of a godly judgment, is a boon to be coveted by all.

GRAND COUNCIL

ROYAL AND SELECT, AND SUPER-EXCELLENT MASTERS OF ENGLAND AND WALES, &c.

A meeting of this Grand Council was held on Thursday, the 26th ultimo, at 2 Red Lion-square, W.C. Present:—Bros. the Rev. G. Raymond Portal M.P. Grand Master, Frederic Davison R.P. Grand Treasurer, Frederick Binckes Grand Recorder, H. C. Levander Grand Lecturer; Bros. Colonel Francis Burdett, Thomas Cubitt, Thomas C. Walls, H. R. Cooper Smith, R. Loveland Loveland, W. Carlton Hale, Robert Roy, Thomas Poore, J. E. Anderson, D. M. Dewar, and other brethren. After the minutes of last Grand Council were read and verified, a report was read showing the progress of the Cryptic Degrees in this country, from which it appeared that Warrants for nine Councils had been granted, and 140 Certificates issued. The report having been approved, Bro. the Rev. G. Raymond Portal was unanimously re-elected Grand Master, and Bro. Frederic Davison Grand Treasurer. The Grand Master thereupon appointed the following Grand Officers:—

Bro. Colonel F. Burdett	- -	R.P. Dep. Grand Master
" Thomas Entwisle	- -	" Grand Ill. Master
" Thomas C. Walls	- -	" Grand Prin. Cond. of Works
" Rev. W. S. Moses	- -	" Grand Chaplain
" P. H. E. Brette, D.D.	-	" Do.
" D. M. Dewar	- - -	" Grand Recorder
" Thomas Meggy	- -	" Grand Master of Ceremonies
" G. P. Brockbank	- -	" Grand Captain of Guard
" R. L. Loveland	- -	" Grand Cond. of Council
" H. R. Cooper Smith	-	" Grand Lecturer
" Thomas Poore, " Thomas Cubitt, " R. H. Thrupp	- -	" Grand Marshalls
" Robert Roy	- - -	" Grand Steward
" J. E. Anderson	- -	" Grand Sentinel

After the transaction of some routine business, Grand Council was closed in ample form.

COMMITTEE MEETING OF THE GIRLS' SCHOOL.

THE General Committee of the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls assembled on Thursday afternoon, at Freemasons' Hall. There were present Bros. Colonel Creaton Grand Treasurer (in the chair), A. H. Tattershall, Griffiths Smith, T. F. Peacock, G. Bolton, Arthur E. Gladwell, H. T. Thompson, T. Fryar, H. Cox, H. Massey, A. F. A. Woodford, C. H. Webb, P. de L. Long, and F. R. W. Hedges (Secretary). One petition for placing a candidate on the list for election was examined and accepted. Bro. Hedges reported the receipt of a thousand guineas from West Yorkshire, the amount subscribed for a perpetual presentation to the School as the Bentley Shaw Memorial, and he also read a letter from Bro. H. T. Thompson, enclosing copy of a case laid before Bro. Locock Webb as to the purchase of Lyncombe House. This case and Bro. Locock Webb's opinion thereon were also read by Bro. Hedges, after which the Committee adjourned.

Digitized by Google

THE ALLEGED DISCOVERY OF MASONIC EMBLEMS.

WE are not surprised that the great Masonic lights of the United States should be divided in opinion as to the value of the Masonic discovery which Commander Gorringe is said to have made. More information is needed before anything definite can be settled, and we shall content ourselves with noting a few of the ideas expressed by Transatlantic Brethren on the subject. Bro. Simons, for instance, of the New York Dispatch, will not accept the symbols on the stones beneath the Egyptian obelisk as Masonic emblems until he has some real data on which to base an opinion," but "let it be granted that the characters—or symbols, or whatever you please—are really Masonic in form, how shall we go back through all the intervening centuries, and connect them with Masonry as it now exists?" Even the discovery of an apron with the square and compass, and the letter G on it, could, thinks this worthy brother, "be counted for nothing more than a coincidence." Professor Rawson, the Orientalist, thinks Dr. Fanton's despatch falls short of proving what it so confidently asserts. "These emblems, or stonemasons' marks," observes the Professor, "prove nothing; for the obelisk itself has been moved since the beginning of the Christian era, and the marks on the foundation stones may be only the private hieroglyphics of the stonemasons in Alexandria—marks to show the Masons where to place the stones——marks such as I found everywhere in my archæological investigations in the East." Bro. Steinbrumer, author of "The Origin and Early History of Freemasonry," says

"I can dig up stones and find characters, and I can form an order and date it back 10,000 years; but that will signify nothing. Masonry, as we known it, does not antedate the eighteenth century, and if the obelisk has stood a thousand years or longer the marks beneath it can have no relation to Masonry as we know it. Some Masons, if they happen to find in any ancient thing a symbol that is employed in our day, are ready to jump at the conclusion that it is Masonic instead of asking themselves whether modern Masons have not stolen it. The square has been used by builders in all ages, but it doesn't follow that the ancient builders were Masons. Many Masons of our day do not understand Masonry. They are striving to give it antiquity, as though that were its chief merit."

Bro. Robert Macoy, author of the "Encyclopædia of Freemasonry," is of opinion that secret societies

"Not unlike the Masonic Lodges have existed in all ages, but I do not say that any discovery can prove that the Masonry of our time is identical with that of the ages of antiquity. The formation of our architecture and even our arts and sciences are based upon the systems known as Masonic. These systems and fraternities, existing for mutual protection in the affairs of life and for the promotion of knowledge, have passed down through the ages, among all civilized people with all the changes and ramifications that are incident to human affairs, and the subject is too great to be adequately investigated in a brief interview. It is my conviction that the discoveries that now seem to be authenticated by Dr. Fanton will reveal the true connection between ancient and modern Masonry. But let us wait and see the stones that uphold the obelisk in Alexandria."

Bro. Singleton, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of District of Columbia, holds that the emblems are not indicative of any Masonic symbols, but are simply coincidences. Further explanation will determine their full value. He remarks that the plates in a work entitled "Central America and Yutcaan," showed "certain well known Masonic signs used in capitular Masonry," but it was simply a coincidence. And he adds

"The information in regard to these discoveries of Commander Gorringe is not sufficiently explicit to give a reader any correct idea of their positions relatively to themselves or the outlines of the foundation or the superstructure. A true plan and sectional elevation must be given to understand their form and position. The square, the two altars and the old trowel may be symbolic or they may have a realistic bearing upon the work. The cube of forty inches mentioned may determine the length of the cubit. The cube itself was a symbol of perfection, according to Josephus, and that was the form of the sanctum sanctorum of the tabernacle and in King Solomon's Temple. The square discovered is peculiar. The longer arm being double the length of the other and narrower, is somewhat like the framing square of the carpenter and stone mason. The ancient York lectures say that the longer arm of the square indicates the sum of all the duties we owe to mankind. The true proportion of the Masonic square is a base of three, perpendicular four and diagonal or hypothenuse five, and demonstrates by figures the forty-seventh problem of Euclid. This Egyption square is anomalous."

He thinks "Masons weaken their cause archæologically, by much assumption."

Bro. Major B. P. Poore considers that these emblems "do not appear to be Masonic, and certainly do not resemble the Masonic emblems of our day, so closely as do scores of delineations upon the walls of the tombs in the valley of the Nile. No direct proof has even been given that the Freemasonry of to-day is directly descended from and identified with the mystic rites of Egypt." He believes that "a portion of the ceremonies and of the emblems of those rites handed down from one secret brotherhood to another were adopted by those who organised our Freemasonry." And later on,

"The organisers of our Freemasonry did not certainly create and originate emblems which are pourtrayed on the monuments of Egypt, of Greece, of Italy and of Germany. Whether, in adopting the emblems thus handed down to them, the organizers of our Freemasonry have preserved any of the rites and mysteries of those who presided over the altars of Memphis, is yet to be determined. He had hopes, when he heard of Lieutenant Commander Gorringe's discovery, that it would supply some of the missing links, but he fears that he is to be disappointed. The emblems found beneath the obelisk described are not the recognized emblems of Freemasonry, although they doubtless resemble some of them."

Bro. Albert Pike is free to say the articles found do "not bear any resemblanee to Freemasonry." He did not believe that "the present system of Masonry or anything like it was in existence at the time the obelisk was put up. Some of the symbols of Masonry are very ancient, because they were used by Pythagoras, and were borrowed from Babylon, and have been adapted to Modern Masons, and it was due in this connection that some of the explanations had really been forgotten." And our brother concluded,

"I have not the slightest idea that Freemasonry, in its present form or shape, had any existence older than the seventeenth century. All attempts to prove that it existed at an earlier date are nonsense. I have expended a large sum of money in the purchase of books, and have studied the subject to see if there was anything in the records of history to show close connection with Masonry, and all I have ever been able to discover is a bare relation of the symbols. The degrees, signs and symbols as now understood among Masons, are comparatively modern. I think the Egyptian relics belong to a veritable mare's nest."

Bro. Albert G. Mackey is likewise among the sceptics as to the value of the discovery, and he is a host in himself. So far we have quoted unfavourable or hesitating opinions. Let us now glance at the other side of the picture. Bro. Daniel Sickles, author of the "General Ahiman Rezon and Freemason's Guide," "believes Masonry to have been born in the Monumental period, as far back as any building of any notoriety is known;" and subsequently he adds, "As to the notion that Masonry originated at the foundation of the Pyramids, I fancy it dates back as far as civilisation itself. It is the only organisation that has not meddled with either creeds or governments, or politics, or with anybody's private opinions; and hence its strength and durability." Bro. Banks speaks of his "knowledge of Brother Gorringe, who is a member of Anglo-Saxon Lodge of Brooklyn, and who is familiar with all the emblems of Masonry, and a gentleman of the highest intelligence, "who," in his opinion, "fortifies my preconceived opinion of the Masonic significance of these important discoveries."

Royal Hanover Lodge, No. 1777, Twickenham.—An emergency meeting was held at the Albany Hotel, Twickenham, on Saturday last. The Lodge was opened at half-past three o'clock by the W.M. Bro. H. Lovegrove, supported by Bros. G. Clark S.W., H. A Dubois Prov. J.G.W. as J.W., Larlham P.M. as I.P.M., W. H. Barber Secretary, C. C. Cruikshanks S.D., F. J. Perks J.D., H. S. Dunkley I.G., G. J. Dunkley Organist, T. W. G. Wood W.S. and J. Daly Tyler. The other members present were Bros. Elliott, Axford, E. W. Dubois and others, and Visitors Bros. White, Stafford, &c. Bros. Thorn and Holliday answered the usual questions, were entrusted and duly raised to the sublime degree, the traditional history being given by Bro. Larlham. The ballot was taken for several gentlemen, and Messrs. Johnson and Johnston being in attendance were duly initiated. The members wore mourning as requested by the R.W. Prov. G.M. in consequence of the death of Bro. T. J. Sabine. About twenty remained for refreshment, after which the W.M. proposed the usual toasts.

Bro. James Lewis Thomas, F.S.A., Past Assistant Grand Director of Ceremonies of England, has just received an elaborate designed diploma, stating that on the fifth and seventh days of February 1880, "in consideration of his illustrious services to Freemasonry," he was made an Honorary Member of the Ancient Carthage Lodge and Chapter 1717 under the seal of the said Masonic bodies.

The Principals of the Elias Ashmole Chapter, No. 148, Warrington, will be installed on Monday, 8th March, and those of the Chapter of Harmony, No. 178, Wigan, on Wednesday, 10th March; the ceremonies in both cases will be performed by E. Comp. John Bowes P.Z., P.P.G.S.N. Cumberland and Westmoreland.

Digitized by Google

THE FREEMASONS' TAVERN,

GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON. W.C.

The admirable and unrivalled accommodation provided at thi Establishment for

MASONIC BANQUETS,

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE DINNERS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, BALLS, &c.

Is too well known to need comment. The entire management has been changed, and the Establishment in all its branches thoroughly re-organised.

The attention of the Masonic Body is directed to the many advantages offered.

CUISINE OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER.

WINES PERFECT IN CONDITION AND QUALITY.

N.B.—DINNERS PROVIDED FROM 3/-.

RESTAURANT, WINE, SMOKING & RETIRING ROOMS.

The fullest measure of public confidence and support ensured.

BRO. ALFRED BEST, PROPRIETOR.

ANDERTON'S HOTEL,

F. H. CLEMOW, PROPRIETOR,

Nos. 162, 164 & 165 Fleet Street, and 7 & 11 Johnson's Court, London.

THE ACCOMMODATION OFFERED AT THIS ESTABLISHMENT FOR

MASONIC MEETINGS, BANQUETS, &c.

IS UNRIVALLED.

THE premises have lately been rebuilt, and in order to maintain the time-honored reputation of the house, as one of the centres of London Freemasonry, special attention has been paid to the furnishing of Lodge quarters, which now comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL

Specially constructed for Masonic purposes, with preparation room adjoining,

A LARGE BANQUET HALL

Fitted with every necessary for the comfort of Visitors, &c., &c.

ROOMS FOR LARGE OR SMALL DINNER PARTIES, MEETINGS, &c.

THE CATHEDRAL HOTEL,

CORNER OF

CHEAPSIDE & ST. PAUL'S CHURCHYARD.

—:o:—

F. J. SWEETING, Proprietor.

—:o:—

LUNCHEON BAR ON GROUND FLOOR FOR LIGHT REFRESHMENTS.

Soups, Fish, Chops, Steaks, Entrées, Cold Joints, &c. from Eight a.m. till Ten p.m.

DINING ROOMS ON FIRST FLOOR.

Hot Joints, &c. from Twelve o'Clock daily.
Dinners a la Carte. Teas, &c.

THE "CATHEDRAL HALF-CROWN DINNER

(Soup, Fish, Joint)
Is served in the Saloon from Twelve till Five daily.

The Smoking Room overlooks the New Gardens round St. Paul's Cathedral.

PRIVATE ROOMS FOR SMALL PARTIES, MASONIC AUDITS, &c.

The following Lodges have recently held their Audit Meetings at this Hotel:—GROSVENOR, STANHOPE, POLISH NATIONAL, LA TOLERANCE, &c.

OPENING OF THE CRITERION ANNEXE.

SPIERS & POND respectfully beg to inform their Patrons, that to meet the increasing demands of their business at the Criterion, the premises have been greatly enlarged, by the addition of the above building. The principal features of the New Establishment are as follows:—

The Cafe, comprising—
The American Bar,
The Vienna Bier Saal,

VIANDS FROM THE NEW GRILL. SUPPERS SERVED TILL MIDNIGHT.

Oysters a Specialite.

The Victoria Hall, for Banquets, Balls, Wedding Breakfasts, Soirées, and Entertainments.

The Prince's and Carnarvon Rooms, for Masonic Meetings, Banquets, &c.

Private Rooms, suitable for the meetings of Public and Corporate Bodies, Arbitrations, &c.

The Criterion Departments.

Buffet	For Luncheons and Light Refreshments.
Restaurant	Dinners à la Carte.
Cigar Divan	Facing Piccadilly entrance.
Smoking Room ...	Adjoining the Buffet.
Grill Room	Entrance in Jermyn Street.
West Dining Room	Le Diner Parisien daily from 5.30 till 9 p.m., and on Sundays.
East Dining Room ...	Dinners à la Carte.
The Grand Hall ...	Table d'Hote daily, from 5.30 till 8 p.m. (also on Sundays at 6).
Private Rooms ...	For Dinners, Wedding Breakfasts, &c., &c.

DINNERS FROM THE JOINT from TWELVE to THREE o'clock, CHOPS and STEAKS from the GRILL till FIVE o'clock. T. MAIDWELL, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-st., City, E.C.

THE

ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND

The First Meeting of Founders and others interested in the Establishment of this Fund will be held at

FREEMASONS' HALL, LONDON, W.C.

ON THURSDAY, 11TH MARCH 1880, AT 3 P.M.

Under the Presidency of

H.R.H. PRINCE LEOPOLD, K.G.

P.G.W. England, Prov. G.M. Oxfordshire.

The Vice Chair will be taken by

THE RIGHT HON. THE EARL OF ROSSLYN,

Past Grand Master of Scotland.

Brethren are fraternally invited to be present and co-operate in the foundation of the Fund. A List of promised Subscriptions will be read.

DICK RADCLYFFE,
129 High Holborn, London, W.C.
W. W. MORGAN JUN.
FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Gt. Queen St., W.C.
} Secretaries.

SAWYER'S (LATE STATION) RESTAURANT,

5 RAILWAY PLACE, FENCHURCH STREET, E.C.

ENGLISH, FRENCH & GERMAN CUISINE.

Hot and Cold Luncheons on the Ground Floor:
This Room will accommodate 100 persons.

CHOPS, STEAKS, &c., FROM THE GRILL;
The Grill Room will seat 150 persons.

REID'S TREBLE STOUT. WORTHINGTON'S ALES,
BERLIN TIVOLI BEER.

TEA AND COFFEE ALWAYS READY.

CHAMPAGNES OF THE BEST BRANDS. OLD BOTTLED PORTS.
SHERRIES AND OTHER WINES OF THE BEST QUALITY.

Bro. F. J. SAWYER, Proprietor.
Late of Pimm's, and the Crystal Palace.

FISH DINNERS IN PERFECTION

2S EACH, including Soups, Entrées, Poultry, Joints, Cheese, Salad, Served from 12 to 4 daily.—GEORGE TAVERN, Billingsgate Market.
Sole Proprietor, GEORGE SMITH, from Anderton's Hotel.

VITRUVIAN LODGE, No. 87.

BRO. ISAAC, who has for some time past provided for the requirements of this Lodge, begs to announce that he has obtained permission for the removal of his license to the Belvedere-road, and that he has erected commodious premises there. These comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL.

WITH ANTE ROOMS,

LARGE BANQUETTING HALL,

Together with every convenience for Masonic gatherings.

Applications from Secretaries and others for accommodation to be addressed.

G. ISAAC, "WHITE HART," COLLEGE STREET, LAMBETH, LONDON, S.E.

Ninth Edition, post free, One Shilling.

DR. WATTS on ASTHMA. A Treatise on the only Successful Method of Curing the Disease. By ROBERT G. WATTS, M.D., F.R.S.L., &c., 5 Bulstrode-street, Cavendish-square, London.
London: MITCHELL AND CO., Red Lion-court, Fleet-street.

23 GREAT QUEEN STREET, W.C.

JAMAICA.

THE past two or three months has been quite a gala time among the Freemasons of this island. Brethren whom we presumed had for years retired from active exertions are now coming forward and assisting to make Freemasonry a great success in this island—a success that will be continued so long as we have such men at the head of affairs as the Right Worshipful Hon. Dr. R. Hamilton, District Grand Master of East Jamaica. Worshipful Captain P.

Digitized by Google

Dadson has been installed Master of the Jamaica Lodge. During his short sojourn in this island he has gained many friends, and it is hoped he will have a successful year of administration. He has already initiated into the Order the Rev. W. E. Pearce, a minister of the Church of England in Jamaica, and Mr. C. Goldie, Chief of the Outdoor Department of Her Majesty's Customs. Bro. John Harris, Chief Clerk of the Treasury Department, has been installed Master of the Sussex Lodge, which can boast of many good Past Masters and brethren. The Right Worshipful J. L. Ashenheim has been installed Master of the Friendly Lodge; this brother holds a position in the Grand Lodge of East Jamaica, and has previously occupied the chair of this Lodge, when he had a very successful year. Bro. K. J. Spicer has been installed Master of the Glenlyon (S.C.), and Bro. Coward Master of the Caledonia Lodge (S.C.), Port Maria. In a few months time the Royal, Collegium, Fabrorum, Hamilton, and Phœnix will have to make selection of a Master. In a few weeks Bro. G. Pierce will be installed Master of the St. John's (S.C.) Lodge.

The ordinary meeting of the Jamaica Rose Croix was held on 23rd January, at the Sussex Hall, E. Bro. W. R. Lee in the chair, when Bros. J. McLean, A. H. Alexander, I. G. D. Broughton, and G. Waldron were perfected in the degrees, and six brethren admitted, belonging to the New Kingston Chapter, which was consecrated in due form by Illustrious Bro. the Hon. Dr. Hamilton 33°, Past Grand Chaplain of the Supreme Council for England and Wales and the Dependencies of the British Crown. The M.W.S. E. Bro. W. Andrews was then installed by Ill. Bro. Capt. P. Dadson 32 deg., and the Officers for the ensuing year were appointed. E. Bro. H. Garcia was elected as M.W.S. and E. Bro. C. H. Davis as Treasurer for the Jamaica Chapter. The installation will take place on St. George's day. E. Bro. Lieut. W. C. H. Hastings, R.N. was raised to the 30th degree. The brethren belonging to the Army and Navy have come to the determination to have a Lodge of their own. Consequently, at the last ordinary meeting of the Sussex Lodge the members recommended to H.R.H. the Prince of Wales Most Worshipful Grand Master of England, through the Right Hon. Dr. R. Hamilton, several brethren to form a new Craft Lodge, to be held in Kingston, to be called the United Service Lodge and to be confined to the officers of the Army and Navy. Bro. Commander Narry, R.N. (of H.M.S. Nugent) is named as first Master, Bro. Captain W. Marin A.P.D. as Senior Warden, and Bro. Lieut. Stewart Polkingborn, R.N. as the first Junior Warden. We confess we scarcely see the necessity for the opening of another Lodge exclusively for the Army and Navy when the Phœnix, which has been in existence for many years, has for its Master the Commodore's Secretary, Surgeons of the Navy and others who hold important positions in the Services. At present the Phœnix Master, Dr. J. Tyndall, has had to leave the island, his time of service on the Station having expired before he had the pleasure of ruling his Lodge for twelve months.

INDEPENDENT LODGE, No. 236 I.C., AT PORT LOUIS, MAURITIUS.

THE regular installation meeting of this Lodge was held on St. John's Day, Saturday, 27th December 1879. There were present members of all the Lodges in the island. Bro. A. G. Rickwood P.M. being duly proclaimed and saluted as W.M. for the second year, he invested the following Officers:—Bros. G. Lewisen P.M. of the British and Friendship Lodges S.W., F. Mathews J.W., J. N. Graves Sec., A. B. Commins Treas., H. W. Rickwood S.D., J. J. Asher J.D., J. Jones I.G., J. Corbett Steward, Dumont Tyler. The business of the evening being completed, the brethren adjourned to the banquet room, where a first-rate dinner was served, of which no less than sixty-seven brethren partook. The usual Loyal toasts were proposed, and most enthusiastically received. The proceedings terminated by the usual compliment being paid to all distressed brethren.

HONG KONG.

THE Freemasons never do things by halves. It is now some years since a Masonic Ball has been given by the Craft in Hong Kong, the last occasion being on the 22nd Jan. 1874, when a highly successful ball took place at the City Hall, Sir Arthur and Miss Kennedy gracing it with their presence. That entertainment was, however, surpassed by the present ball given in the City Hall, to which upwards of 800 guests were invited. The assemblage was a numerous and brilliant one, the decorations were of a superb description and in the best possible taste, the arrangements for dancing and refreshment were all that could be desired, and the whole entertainment did the greatest honour alike to the generosity and taste of the members of the Craft. The ball will, in fact, be an event to be remembered in the colony. At the entrance to the City Hall an imposing portico covered with evergreens and hung with lanterns had been erected, and immediately in front of this on a lofty post the powerful argand lamp, which has on one or two occasions been exhibited in different parts of the town, had been placed. In the entrance hall the pillars were festooned with evergreens, and plants and cut foliage lined the way to the stairs. At the foot of the stairs were two massive gilt pillars reaching nearly to the ceiling, each adorned with chapiters. These pillars were surmounted by two spherical balls, on which were delineated maps of the celestial and terrestrial globes, with a ring of gas jets around them, and suspended between these was the emblematic square and compass in gas, with the letter G. in the centre. The stairs were covered with a red carpet edged with blue and white, and on the first standing, facing the entrance, was the W.M.'s pedestal, bearing the Bible and the perfect ashlar, with crossed swords in front, the pedestal being surrounded with cut flowers. Above this was a handsome mirror, surmounted by a star in gas. On each side of this was fixed a similar star with Master Masons' shields between. On the side walls were hung four large pictures representing the four cardinal virtues, namely, Temperance, Fortitude, Prudence, and Justice, each surmounted by a star. The effect of these decorations was resplendent, and the staircase looked especially brilliant. On the top landing, above the staircase, hung a portrait of the M.W.G.M. his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, with a five-pointed star above, and the walls were decked with the flags and arms of various nations. Both St. George's and St. Andrew's Halls were used for dancing, and each was elegantly decorated. At the head of the former was a magnificent trophy composed of Masonic furniture and emblems of nearly every degree in Masonry, surmounted by the banner of the District Grand Lodge of Hong Kong and South China and flanked by the banners of the Perseverance Lodge and Royal Arch. Around the walls were hung flags, shields bearing Masonic emblems, and the Royal Arch banners. The decorations in St. Andrew's Hall were of a similar character, at the head of the room being the square and compass in gilt and the banner of the Zetland Lodge. The verandahs were tented in with flags and hung with Chinese and Japanese lanterns with Masonic emblems painted on them. About a quarter to ten his Excellency Major-General Donovan, Mrs. Donovan, Lady Smale, the Hon. W. H. and Mrs. Marsh arrived, when the Deputy District Grand Master very Worshipful Bro. C. P. Chater, supported by the Officers of the District Grand Lodge, received them in the portico. The D.D.G.M. escorted Mrs. Donovan, the rest of the party following, under an "arch of steel" formed by the Knights Templar to the foot of the staircase, which was lined on either side by members of the Royal Arch and Master Masons in full regalia, presenting altogether an imposing spectacle. The procession was heralded by trumpeters belonging to the 27th Regiment, and proceeded to the ladies cloak room. Another procession was then formed to the head of St. George's Hall, the Masons lining the route on either side. The ballroom presented a scene of gaiety never, perhaps, equalled in Hong Kong, all the Masons being dressed in their various collars, scarves and aprons. Dancing was commenced about ten o'clock to the strains of the band of the 27th Inniskillings, under the direction of Herr Werner. The ball was opened by Mrs. Donovan with the D.D.G.M., the General taking Lady Smale, Commodore Smith Mrs. Marsh, and the Hon. W. H. Marsh Mrs. Geddes. Supper took place at midnight, after the tenth dance, the guests again passing under an arch of steel formed by the Rose Croix. The theatre had been improvised for the supper-room, a temporary floor having been constructed on the level of the orchestra. The decorations here were perhaps more brilliant than in the ball rooms. On the stage was the V.W. D.D.G.M.'s table, at which Major-General and Mrs. Donovan, Lady Smale, Hon. W. H. and Mrs. Marsh, Colonel Stuart R.E., Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Hall, Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Geddes, and Commodore Smith were seated. Behind this there was a fountain playing, the band being placed at the rear. The general tables in the auditorium were arranged in the form of Masonic emblems, the square and compass occupying the greater portion of the space, with another table between the points of the compass in the form of the Senior Warden's level, while on each side were tables in the form of the Junior Warden's plumb-rule. On the tables was a large quantity of racing plate, kindly lent by the owners. The theatre was hung with festoons and lanterns, with numerous five-pointed stars, while in front of the Governor's box was a device of Masonic banners and shields. While the decorations were splendid, it is needless to say that the catering was of the best. The menu cards when folded up represented the aprons of Master Masons, Royal Arch, Mark Masters, and Rose Croix, and were very neat and unique. The D.D.G.M. having sounded the gavel, proposed the toast of "the Queen and the Craft," the band playing, "God save the Queen." The D.D.G.M. next proposed the health of "H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, the Most Worshipful Grand Master of England, and the other members of the Royal Family," when the band played "God bless the Prince of Wales." After this the District Grand Tyler, Bro. J. R. Grimble, proposed the toast of "All the Poor and Distressed Masons." This concluded the list of toasts. After supper dancing was renewed, and was continued until about half past three o'clock.—London and China Telegraph.

THE SOUTH LONDON MASONIC HALL.

WE are pleased to learn, from reports which appear from time to time in the local press, that the accommodation lately provided by Bro. Isaac at the White Hart, Belvedere-Road, Lambeth, is being patronised by others than the members of the mystic tie, indeed that the extensive rooms recently opened are becoming well known among the employés of the large firms of the neighbourhood, many of whom now hold their annual suppers or other gatherings under the roof of the South London Masonic Hall. We are assured on all sides that Bro. Isaac gives satisfaction to his numerous guests, and we need hardly say that such is our experience as regards his catering for the Vitruvian Lodge, at the gatherings of which we have on more than one occasion assisted. From reports now before us of the annual dinner of the South Wesern Railway employés (outdoor department, Waterloo), and of the annual Club supper of the employés of Messrs. Nobles and Hoare, which are among the more recent gatherings, we learn that most pleasant evenings have been spent, and we can only hope that such may be the experience of all who patronise our brother in the future.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Much watchfulness must be exercised during winter, and the earliest evidences of ill health must be immediately checked and removed, or a slight illness may result in a serious malady. Relaxed and sore throat, quinsey, throat cough, chronic cough, bronchitis, and most other pulmonary affections will be relieved by rubbing this cooling ointment into the skin as near as practicable to the seat of mischief. This treatment so simple and effective, is admirably adapted for the removal of these diseases during infancy and youth. Old asthmatic invalids will derive marvellous relief from the use of Holloway's remedies, which have brought t rest-l many such sufferers, and re-established health after every other means had signally failed.

Digitized by Google

DIARY FOR THE WEEK.

We shall be obliged if the Secretaries of the various Lodges throughout the Kingdom will favour us with a list of their Days of Meeting, &c., as we have decided to insert only those that are verified by the Officers of the several Lodges.

—:o:—

SATURDAY, 6th MARCH.

General Committee Boys' School, Freemasons' Hall, at 4
142—St. Thomas, City Terminus Hotel, Cannon-street, E.C.
198—Percy, Jolly Farmers, Southgate Road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1364—Earl of Zetland, Nags Head, Mare-street, Hackney, at 7 (Instruction)
1572—Carnarvon, Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
1622—Rose, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
R.A. 975—Rose of Denmark, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8.

MONDAY, 8th MARCH.

45—Strong Man, New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, at 8 (Instruction)
55—London Masonic Club Lodge of Instruction, 101 Queen Victoria-street, at 6
90—St. John, Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
174—Sincerity, Railway Tavern, London-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
180—St. James's Union, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
193—Confidence, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
548—Wellington, White Swan, High-street, Deptford, at 8 (Instruction)
704—Camden, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
1306—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-st., Wapping, at 8 (Instruction)
1366—Highgate, Gate House Hotel, Highgate
1425—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-rd., Paddington, at 8 (Instruction)
1445—Prince Leopold, Mitford Tavern, Sandringham-road, Dalston, at 8 (Inst.)
1489—Marquess of Ripon, Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-rd., Hackney, at 7.30 (In.)
1623—West Smithfield, New Market Hotel, King-st., Snow-hill, at 8 (Inst.)
1625—Tredegar, Royal Hotel, Mile End-road, corner of Burdett-road (Inst.)
1695—New Finsbury Park, Plimsoll Arms, St. Thomas Road, at 8 (Instruction)
R. C.—Holy Sanctuary, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square]

40—Derwent, Castle Hotel, Hastings
75—Love and Honour, Royal Hotel, Falmouth
104—St. John, Ashton House, Greek-street, Stockport
151—Albany, Masonic Hall, Newport, I.W.
240—St. Hilda, Freemasons' Hall, Fowler-street, South Shields
262—Salopian, The Lion Hotel, Shrewsbury
292—Sincerity, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
296—Royal Brunswick, Freemasons' Hall, Surrey-street, Sheffield
297—Witham, New Masonic Hall, Lincoln
411—Commercial, Flying Horse Hotel, Nottingham
461—St. Peter, Masonic Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle
502—Rectitude, Town Hall, Rugby
537—Howe, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham
589—Druids of Love and Liberality, Masonic Hall, Redruth
665—Montague, Royal Lion, Lyme Regis
721—Independence, Masonic Chambers, Eastgate-row-north, Chester
724—Derby, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8 (Instruction)
797—Hanley, Hanley Hall, Dartmouth
820—Lily of Richmond, Greyhound, Richmond, at 7.30 (Instruction)
893—Meridian, National School Room, Millbrook, Cornwall
1021—Hartington, Masonic Hall, Custom House Buildings, Barrow-in-Furness
1069—United Brothers, Castle Hotel, Southsea
1174—Pentangle, Sun Hotel, Chatham
1221—Defence, Masonic Hall, Carlton-hill, Leeds
1253—Travellers, Queen's Hotel, Manchester
1350—Fermor Hesketh, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1436—Sandgate, Masonic Hall, Sandgate
1449—Royal Military, Masonic Hall, Canterbury
1474—Israel, Masonic Hall, Severn-street, Birmingham
1582—Abbey, Suffolk Hotel, Bury St. Edmunds
1611—Eboracum, Queen's Hotel, Micklegate, York
1618—Handyside, Zetland Hotel, Saltburn-by-Sea
1656—Wolsey, White Hart Hotel, Hampton Wick
R. A. 148—Elias Ashmole, Chapter Rooms, Warrington
R. A. 306—Alfred, Masonic Hall, Kelsall-street, Leeds
M. M.—Egerton, Bedford House, Rock Ferry, Cheshire.
M. M. 171—Union, Freemasons' Hall, Union-street, Oldham
R. C.—Walton, Skelmersdale Masonic Hall, Kirkdale, Liverpool
K. T.—Jerusalem, Freemasons' Hall, Cooper-street, Manchester

TUESDAY, 9th MARCH.

46—Old Union, Westminster Palace Hotel, Westminster
55—Constitutional, Bedford Hotel, Southampton-bldgs., Holborn, at 7 (Inst.)
65—Prosperity, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
177—Domatic, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction),
198—Percy, Ship and Turtle, Leadenhall-street, E.C.
211—St. Michael, Albion, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
228—United Strength, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, City
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney (Instruction)
753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
860—Dalhousie, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
1044—Wandsworth, Star and Garter Hotel, St. Ann's-hill, Wandsworth (Inst.)
1349—Friars, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1360—Royal Arthur, Prince's Head, Battersea Park, at 8 (Instruction)
1446—Mount Edgcumbe, 19 Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1471—Islington, Three Bucks, 23 Gresham-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
1472—Henley, Three Crowns, North Woolwich, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1507—Metropolitan, Moorgate Station Restaurant, E.C., at 7.30 (Instruction)
1559—D. Connaught, Palmerston Arms, Grosvenor Park, Camberwell, at 8 (In.)
1602—Sir Hugh Myddelton, Crown and Woolpack, St. John's-st.-rd., at 8 (In.)
1604—Wanderers, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
1614—Covent Garden, Ashley's Hotel, Henrietta-street, Covent Garden
1635—Canterbury, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square
1707—Eleanor, Trocadero, Broad-street-buildings, Liverpool-street, 6.30 (Inst)
Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement, Jamaica Coffee House, Cornhill, 6.30.
R. C.—Bayard, Masonic Hall, 33 Golden-square

93—Social, Freemasons' Hall, Norwich
117—Wynnstay, Raven Hotel, Shrewsbury, at 8 (Instruction)
131—Fortitude, Masonic Hall, Truro
184—United Chatham of Benevolence, Assembly Rooms, Old Brompton, Kent
241—Merchants, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
272—Harmony, Masonic Hall, Main Ridge, Boston
284—Shakespeare, Masonic Rooms, High-street, Warwick
406—Northern Counties, Freemasons' Hall, Maple-st., Newc.-on-Tyne (Instr.)
473—Faithful, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham
495—Wakefield, Masonic Hall, Zetland-street, Wakefield
503—Belvidere, Star Hotel, Maidstone
603—Zetland, Royal Hotel, Cleckheaton
626—Lansdowne of Unity, Town Hall, Chippenham
696—St. Bartholomew, Anchor Hotel, Wednesbury
726—Staffordshire Knot, North Western Hotel, Stafford
829—Sydney, Black Horse Shoe, Sidcup
892—Royal Edward, Royal Oak Hotel, Leominster
903—Gosport, India Arms Hotel, High-street, Gosport
1120—St. Milburga, Tontine Hotel, Ironbridge
1250—Gilbert Greenhall, Masonic Rooms, Sankey-street, Warrington
1314—Acacia, Bell Hotel, Bromley, Kent
1325—Stanley, 214 Great Homer-street, Liverpool, at 8 (Inst.)
1347—Lorne, Greyhound Hotel, Sutton, Surrey
1465—Ockenden, Talbot Hotel, Cuckfield, Sussex
1509—Madoc, Queen's Hotel, Portmadoc
1545—Baildon, Masonic Room, Northgate, Baildon
1593—Royal Naval College, Ship Hotel, Greenwich
1678—Tonbridge, Masonic Hall, Tonbridge
1713—Wilbraham, Walton Institute, Walton, Liverpool
R.A. 43—Fortitude, Great Western Hotel, Birmingham.
R. A. 265—Judea, Masonic Club, Hanover-street, Keighley
R. A. 289—Fidelity, Masonic Hall, Carlton-hill, Leeds
R. A. 537—Zion, 55 Argyle-street, Birkenhead
R. A. 991—Tyne, Masonic Hall, Wellington Quay, Northumberland
M.M. 6—Adams, Victoria Hall, Trinity-road, Sheerness
M. M. 152—Dover and Cinque Ports, Royal Oak Hotel, Dover

WEDNESDAY, 10th MARCH.

Committee Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution, at 3.
15—Kent, Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen-street
87—Vitruvian, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth.
147—Justice, White Swan, High-street, Deptford.
193—Confidence, Railway Tavern, London-street, at 7 (Instruction
228—United Strength, Hope and Anchor, Crowndale-rd., Camden-town, 8 (In.)
538—La Tolerance, Green Dragon, 3 Maddox-street, W., at 7.45 (Inst.)
781—Merchant Navy, Silver Tavern, Burdett-road, E.
813—New Concord, Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
862—Whittington, Red Lion, Poppin's-court, Fleet-street, at 8 (Instruction)
1185—Lewis, King's Arms Hotel, Wood Green, at 7 (Instruction)
1278—Burdett Coutts, Salmon and Ball, Bethnal Green-road, at 8 (Inst.)
1288—Finsbury Park, Alwyne Castle, Highbury, at 8 (Instruction)
1306—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-street, Wapping
1524—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion Road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1677—Crusaders, New Market Hotel, King-street, West Smithfield
R.A. 177—Domatic, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-st., at 8 (Instruction)
R. A. 1260—John Hervey, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
54—Hope, Spread Eagle Inn, Cheetham-street, Rochdale
146—Antiquity, Bull's Head Inn, Bradshawgate, Bolton
191—St. John, Knowsley Hotel, Haymarket-street, Bury, Lancashire
204—Caledonian, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester.
225—St. Luke's, Coach and Horses Hotel, Ipswich
281—Fortitude, Masonic Rooms, Athenæum, Lancaster
288—Harmony, Masonic Hall, Todmorden
483—Sympathy, Old Falcon Hotel, Gravesend
567—Unity, Globe Hotel, Warwick
666—Benevolence, Private Rooms, Prince Town, Dartmoor
758—Ellesmere, Freemasons' Hall, Runcorn, Cheshire, at 7.30 (Instruction)
820—Lily of Richmond, Greyhound, Richmond
851—Worthing of Friendship, Steyne Hotel, Worthing.
852—Zetland, Albert Hotel, New Bailey-street, Salford.
854—Albert, Duke of York Inn, Shaw, near Oldham.
972—St. Augustine, Canterbury (Inst.)
1018—Shakespeare, Freemasons' Hall, Salem-street, Bradford.
1031—Fletcher, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham.
1060—Marmion, Masonic Rooms, Church-street, Tamworth.
1064—Borough, Bull Hotel, Burnley.
1094—Temple, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1101—Grey Friars, Masonic Hall, Reading
1209—Lewises, Royal Hotel, Ramsgate.
1248—Denison, Grand Hotel, Scarborough.
1264—Neptune, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7. (Instruction.)
1342—Walker, Hope and Anchor Inn, Byker, Newcastle.
1356—De Grey and Ripon, 140 North Hill Street, Toxteth Park, Liverpool
1398—Baldwin, Dalton Castle, Dalton-in-Furness
1424—Brownrigg, Assembly Rooms, Old Brompton, Chatham.
1434—Nottinghamshire, George Hotel, Nottingham.
1511—Alexandra, Hornsea, Hull (Instruction)
1520—Earl Shrewsbury, Public Rooms, Cannock, Stafford.
1547—Liverpool, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
1582—Llanidloes, Trewythen Arms, Llanidloes, North Wales
1643—Perseverance, Masonic Hall, Hebburn-on-Tyne.
R. A. 24—De Swinburne, Freemasons' Hall, Grainger-street, Newcastle
R. A. 258—Amphibious, Freemasons' Hall, Heckmondwike
R. A. 709—Invicta, Bank-street Hall, Ashford.
M.M. 56—Temperance, Masonic Hall, Todmorden.
M. M. 174—Athol, Masonic Hall, Severn-street, Birmingham.
M. M. 192—St. Cuthbert, Masonic Hall, The Parade, Berwick.

THURSDAY, 11th MARCH.

3—Fidelity, Yorkshire Grey, London-street, Fitzroy-sq., at 8 (Instruction)
15—Kent, Chequers, Marsh-street, Walthamstow, at 7.30 (Instruction)
19—Royal Athelstan, City Terminus Hotel, Cannon-street
27—Egyptian, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7.30 (Instruction)
87—Vitruvian, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth, at 8 (Instruction)
206—Friendship, Ship and Turtle, Leadenhall-street, E.C.
211—St. Michael, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate Street, at 8 (Inst.)
263—Bank of England, Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street, E.C.
435—Salisbury, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8 (Inst.)
534—Polish National, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
754—High Cross, Coach and Horses, Lower Tottenham, at 8 (Instruction)
860—Dalhousie, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
1076—Capper, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
1227—Upton, King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., at 8. (Instruction.)
1321—Emblematic, Tulse-hill Hotel, Tulse-hill
1425—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-road, Paddington
1426—The Great City, Masons Hall, Masons Avenue, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
1558—Duke of Connaught, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
1599—Skelmersdale, Masons' Hall Tavern, Basinghall-street, E.C.
1614—Covent Garden, Nag's Head, James-street, Covent Garden, at 7.45 (In.)
R.A. 753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
R.A. 1471—North London, Jolly Farmers', Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Inst.)

35—Medina, 85 High-street, Cowes.
97—Palatine, Masonic Hall, Toward-road, Sunderland.
112—St. George, Masonic Hall, Fore-street Hill, Exeter
139—Britannia, Freemasons' Hall, Surrey-street, Sheffield.
203—Ancient Union, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
216—Harmonic, Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool.
249—Mariners, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8. (Inst.)
333—Royal Preston, Castle Hotel, Preston.
339—Unanimity, Crown Hotel, Penrith, Cumberland.
469—Hundred of Elloe, Masonic Rooms, London Road, Spalding.
477—Mersey, 55 Argyle-street, Birkenhead.
546—Etruscan, Masonic Hall, Caroline-street, Longton, Stafford.
732—Royal Brunswick, Royal Pavilion, Brighton.
739—Temperance, Masonic Room, New-street, Birmingham.
784—Wellington, Public Rooms, Park-street, Deal.
786—Croxteth United Service, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
945—Abbey, Abbey Council Chamber, Abingdon, Berks
991—Tyne, Masonic Hall, Wellington Quay, Northumberland
1035—Prince of Wales, Masonic Hall, Kirkdale, Liverpool.
1055—Derby, Knowsley's Hotel, Cheetham, Lancashire.
1099—St. George, Private Room, Temperance Hotel, Tredegar, Mon.
1144—Milton, Commercial Hotel, Ashton-under-Lyne.
1145—Equality, Red Lion Hotel, Accrington.
1147—St. David, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester.
1182—Duke of Edinburgh, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7.30
1204—Royd, Imperial Hotel, Malvern, Worcestershire.
1273—St. Michael, Free Church School-rooms, Sittingbourne.
1309—Bala, Plasgoch Hotel, Bala.
1416—Falcon, Masonic Hall, Castle Yard, Thirsk.
1429—Albert Edward Prince of Wales, Masonic Hall, Newport, Mon.
1457—Bagshaw, Princes Hall, Princes-road, Buckhurst Hill
1583—Corbet, Corbet Arms, Towyn.
1612—West Middlesex, Feathers' Hotel, Ealing, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
1697—Hospitality, Royal Hotel, Waterfoot, near Manchester.

Digitized by Google

1782—Macbeth, Swan Hotel, Coleshill.
R.A. 246—Strength, Green Man Hotel, Bacup.
R. A. 813—Bridson, Masonic Hall, Southport.
R.A. 1393—Hamer, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
M.M.—St. John, Commercial Hotel, Bolton.

FRIDAY, 12th MARCH.

Emulation Lodge of Improvement, Freemasons' Hall, at 7.
25—Robert Burns, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
177—Domatic, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
507—United Pilgrims, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
766—William Preston, Feathers' Tavern, Up. George-st., Edgware-rd. 8 (Inst.)
834—Ranelagh, Six Bells, Hammersmith (Instruction)
902—Burgoyne, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Duke's Head, 79 Whitechapel-road, at 8 (Instruction)
1056—Metropolitan, Portugal Hotel, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 7 (Instruction)
1158—Belgrave, Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1288—Finsbury Park M.M., Earl Russell, Isledon-road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1296—Royal Standard, Alwyne Castle, St. Paul's-road, Canonbury, at 8 (In.)
1365—Clapton, White Hart, Lower Clapton, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1442—E. Carnarvon, Mitre Hotel, Goulborne-rd, N. Kensington, at 8.0 (Inst.)
R. A. 79—Pythagorean, Portland Hotel, London-street, Greenwich, at 8 (Inst.)
K.T.—Mount Calvary, Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street, W.C.

36—Glamorgan, Freemasons' Hall, Arcade, St. Mary's-street, Cardiff.
458—Aire and Calder, Private Rooms, Ouse-street, Goole.
526—Honour, Star and Garter Hotel, Wolverhampton.
662—Dartmouth, Dartmouth Hotel, West Bromwich.
697—United, George Hotel, Colchester.
780—Royal Alfred, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, at 7.30 (Inst.)
815—Blair, Town Hall, Stratford-road, Hulme.
1001—Harrogate and Claro, Masonic Rooms, Parliament-street, Harrogate.
1067—Beaudesert, Assembly Rooms, Corn Exchange, Leighton Buzzard, Beds.
1289—Rock, Bedford House, Rock Ferry.
1536—United Military, Masonic Hall, Plumstead.
General Lodge of Instruction, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham, at 7
R. A. 993—Alexandra, Medway Hotel, Levenshulme
K. T.—Hope, Freemasons' Hall, Fitzwilliam-street, Huddersfield

SATURDAY, 13th MARCH.

108—London, Ship and Turtle, Leadenhall Street, E.C.
188—Percy, Jolly Farmers' Tavern, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1304—Earl of Zetland, Nags Head, Mare-street, Hackney, at 7 (Instruction)
1391—Commercial, Freemasons Hall, Leicester
1426—The Great City, Cannon-street Hotel, E.C.
1550—Addiscombe, Surrey Club, West Croydon
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
1671—Mizpah, Albion Hotel, Aldersgate-street
Sussi Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8
R.A. 308—Affability, Station House Hotel, Bottoms, Stalybridge

NOTICES OF MEETINGS.

WILLIAM KINGSTON LODGE, No. 1835, GOLETTA.

THE Annual Festival of this Lodge was celebrated on the 20th February, at the Masonic Hall, Goletta, Tunis, North Africa. The Lodge was opened at 1 p.m. precisely by the W.M. Bro. Barker, assisted by Bros. They S.W., Carletto J.W., Engerer Secretary, Morana D. of C., Attard S.D., D'Amico as J.D., Vaux I.G., and A. Pagano Tyler. There were also present Bros. Coppi, Durazzano, Villareale, Castelli, Rombi, Rotino, Catalano, and Angelica, members; Visitors—Vais Orator, Maltesopolo J.W., and Cittanova Secretary of the Italian Lodge Risorgimento at Tunis; and Souiller S.W., Pentecost J.W., Barsotti Treasurer and Le Gallais S.D. of Ancient Carthage Lodge, No. 1717 (E.C.), also at Tunis. On an alarm being given, the following distinguished brethren were received with due honours, viz.:—W. Bros. J. F. Reade No. 1717 P.D.D.G.M. Egypt, A. M. Broadley D.D.G.M. Malta, Dr. Perini W.M. 1717, Professor Ayra W.M. Italian Lodge Risorgimento, Vais 33°, and Dr. Funaro Past Masters of the same Lodge, D. Costa W.M. of the Italian Lodge Progresso Costituzionale at Susa, and Dr. Mugnaini 32° P.M. Lodge Carthage and Utica at Tunis. The W.M. asked the D.D.G.M. Brother Broadley to assume the gavel. The D.D.G.M. expressed the pleasure experienced by the Lodge No. 1835 at receiving the visits of so many distinguished Masons on this occasion; he stated that the only business before them was to read a circular from the D.G. Lodge of Malta, warning the English brethren at Tunis from holding Masonic intercourse with a self-created body calling itself the Grand Orient of Tunis and its Dependencies. The circular having been read, it was duly inserted in the minute book. W. Bro. Reade, P.D.D.G.M. of Egypt, H.B.M.'s Agent and Consul General at Tunis, then addressed the assembled brethren; he said that in returning to his birth-place, after an absence of thirty years, nothing had pleased him more than to find Masonry flourishing in the country. He was especially interested in the Lodge No. 1835, as working on the very ruins of Carthage. He called the particular attention of the English and Italian brethren to the circular the D.D.G.M. had read, and told them their duty in the matter could be described in two words—Fidelity and Obedience—fidelity to the Grand Lodge of England, to which they owed allegiance; and obedience to the orders of their immediate superior, the D.G.M., who had so ably dealt with the matter in accordance with the decision of the Colonial Board of Grand Lodge. He added that nothing could be more illegal than the action of the half dozen individuals who had constituted themselves into a pretended Grand Orient against the will of the great majority of regular Masons in the country, and that he felt sure that the united and harmonious action of the Italian and English Masons in the country would speedily bring the movement into deserved contempt. W. Bro. Reade assumed his seat amidst many demonstrations of approval. W. Bros. Perini, Ayra, Costa, and Mugnaini addressed the Lodge in turn, and expressed their cordial approval of the D.G. Master's circular, and W. Bro. Reade's remarks. Two candidates for initiation were proposed and seconded. The charitable collection was then made, and the brethren adjourned to an elaborate banquet, provided by Bro. Angelica. The D.D.G.M., at the request of the W.M., presided, and the whole of the brethren above mentioned were present. On the removal of the cloth, the following toasts were duly honoured:—The Queen and the Craft, the M.W. Grand Master, the M.W. Grand Master of Italy, the Grand Officers, and the D.G. Grand Master of Malta. In proposing the health of the Right Worshipful Bro. Kingston the D.D. Grand Master alluded to the able way that illustrious brother had represented his district in England. He was able to tell the members of 1835 that their D.G.M. took a most lively interest in the progress of English Masonry in this important part of his district, and especially in the prosperity of the Lodge which bore his name. Bro. Kingston would certainly visit the Goletta in June, and probably hold a Grand Lodge under their banner. Bro. Kingston's health was then enthusiastically drank, and it was decided to convey to him by telegraph the hearty good wishes of the Lodge. The next toast was that of the P.D.D.G.M. of Egypt, to which Bro. T. F. Reade responded. In returning thanks for his health being drunk, Bro. Barker W.M. 1835 proposed the toast of their indefatigable chief, Bro. Broadley. The W.M. of the Risorgimento Lodge added, on behalf of his Lodge, that the D.D.G.M. must be considered as the pioneer and main supporter of the common interests of regular Masonry in the country. The toast was very cordially drunk, and Bro. Broadley returned thanks at some length. Various other toasts were disposed of, and the brethren separated at 4.30, highly pleased with their winter festival. English Masonry is gaining ground day by day in North Africa, but the existence of a spurious centre must always be regretted. It need hardly be said that the body in question has never even sought the recognition of our U.G. Lodge, nor, as far as is known, has any communication with a single Masonic governing body of importance. It originated with four or five individuals, and the members of Lodges Nos. 1717 and 1835 trust that the Masonic authorities of distant countries will obtain proper information before committing themselves by even the smallest recognition of the G.O. of the Reformed Egyptian Rite, whatever this high sounding title may be intended to represent.

SOUTHDOWN LODGE, No. 1797.

THE first anniversary of the formation was successfully held on Wednesday, the 25th ult. Reviewing the first year of its existence, there has been 12 members initiated into the mysteries of the Masonic art, and a number of other brethren have joined the Lodge. With such progress as this there seems every probability that the Southdown Lodge will eventually become one of the best in the province of Sussex. The Founder of the Lodge and first W.M. has, to the great regret of all the brethren, been removed by death, but the duties devolving upon so high an official have been most ably carried out by Bro. James Curtis. The installation service was conducted in the music-room, by Bro. James Eberall P.M. 315, 1636, P.P.G. Pursuivant, and was rendered in a most impressive manner. The W.M. elect, Bro. James Curtis, being duly installed, invested the following newly appointed Officers with their respective badges—Bros. Walter Fitch S.W., Edward Broadbridge J.W., J. T. Musson Secretary, William Hudson Treasurer, Joshua Fitch S.D., R. J. Pope J.D., Thomas Sinnock D.C., John Dayson I.G., G. J. M. Smith Steward, L. L. Hawken Almoner, H. Hughes Tyler. Bros. G. Rawlinson, J. Cully, and Trevor Pollard were appointed on the General Purposes Committee. The following is a complete list of the brethren present:—Bros. James Curtis acting W.M. (W.M. elect), Walter Fitch S.W., Edward Broadbridge Secretary, J. T. Musson S.D., John Dayson Organist, J. Sinnock I.G., H. H. Hughes Tyler, C. F. Hollands, G. Parsons, G. L. Hawken, G. Rawlinson, W. Pratt, G. Malcolm Smith, E. Dumsday, G. T. Saltmarsh, Trevor Pollard, F. J. Cully, R. J. Pope D.C. The Visitors were Bros. James Eberall P.M. 315, 1636, P.P.G. Purs.; Eugene Street W.M., Howard 56 (Chichester), John F. Capon W.M. Royal Brunswick 732, W. T. Nell P.M. 315, W.M. 1636, P.P.G. A.D.C. P.P.G.S., H. Saunders P.M. 315, Thomas Packham S.W. 315, S. P. Weston Royal York 315, G. S. Godfree Atlingworth 1821 Sec., R. Allison Atlingworth 1821, G. A. Jenner South Saxon 311, and J. Sayers 1636. It was proposed that Bro. W. C. Carter P.M. 100, Great Yarmouth, be elected a joining member, and the following candidates be initiated:—Mr. C. Longley, Hayward's Heath, Mr. Simeon Norman, Burgess Hill, and Mr. Thomas Stroud, Burgess Hill. Mr. G. Master was also balloted for and duly elected. On account of the valuable services rendered to the Lodge by Bro. James Eberall, he was appointed an honorary member. The Lodge being closed, an adjournment was made to the Sussex Arms Billiard Room, where the banquet was laid out. Bros. Sayers and Marks, of Brighton, were the caterers, and they gave every satisfaction. Mr. A. Geere, of the Sussex Arms, supplied the wines, which were of the best brands. The usual Masonic toasts were given during the evening, and some excellent glee singing by Bros. J. Dayson, E. Broadbridge, J. Cully, W. Pratt, and G. Rawlinson called forth the compliments of the brethren.

BEDFORD LODGE, No. 157.

THE installation meeting of this old and flourishing Lodge was held on Friday, the 13th ult., at Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street. Bros. Buckhurst W.M., Turner S.W., Liddall J.W., Briggs P.M. Treas., Thomas Sec., Bowie S.D., J. Cox J.D., Hall I.G. P.M.'s T. Cubitt P.G.P., Millis, Brander, Folliott, Lear Drew, Creak, Walton, &c. The Lodge was opened and the minutes were confirmed. A Board of Installed Masters was formed, and Bro. Turner S.W. and W.M. elect was presented to the Lodge, and duly installed into the chair by Bro. Briggs P.M., who at the conclusion of the ceremony was warmly congratulated. The customary salutations having been given, the W.M. appointed and invested his officers:—Buckhurst I.P.M., Liddall S.W., J. Cox J.W., Briggs P.M. Treas., Thomas Sec., Hall S.D., Homan J.D., Creak P.M. I.G., Brander P.M. D.C., Millis P.M. W.S., Longstaffe Tyler. The names of two persons were handed in as desirous of joining the Lodge. The W.M. had now, with pride and pleasure, to present, in the name of the Lodge, the I.P.M. with a Past Master's jewel. He was sure by their unanimous vote that the members thought Bro. Buckhurst in every respect had done his duty, and filled the chair to their satisfaction. He (the W.M.) felt a great pleasure in placing the jewel on his breast. After this compliment had been acknowledged, the Lodge was closed, and the brethren sat down to a banquet provided by Bro. A. Best, and superintended by Bro. E. Dawkins. After the loyal toasts the W.M. gave that of the Pro G.M. and the rest of the Grand Officers, with which he coupled the name of Bro. T. Cubitt P.M. P.G.P., who eloquently responded. The distinguished brethren who had been chosen to fill the important offices in Grand Lodge were the right men in the right place. With regard to the Right Worshipful the Deputy Grand Master Lord Skelmersdale, he hoped the brethren would ably support him at the next Anniversary Festival of the Boys' School, where that noble brother would preside. He (Bro. Cubitt) was proud to say he had been selected as a Grand Officer from this Lodge, and he hoped the authorities would follow the example, and select another brother. Bro. Buckhurst I.P.M. said he had great pleasure in proposing the next toast—that was the health of the W.M., whose great and good qualities needed no comment from him. Bro. Turner was one they were proud of. The W.M., in reply, said the way in which the toast had been received was very pleasing to him; he felt it the greatest honour his having been placed in the Master's chair. He hoped he might have a happy and prosperous year of office. The toast of the Visitors was next given, and with it was associated the names of Bros. Rothschild, H. Stiles, and J. R. Stacey. The brethren named severally acknowledged the compliment, all referring in terms of praise to the ability displayed by Bro. Briggs the Installing Master of the day, and to the way the business of the Lodge had been conducted. Bro. Buckhurst responded for the Past Masters, and he was followed by Bro. Briggs. Other toasts were given, and in listening to the excellent harmony furnished by several of the members and visitors, the time passed most agreeably. The Tyler in due course gave the concluding toast. Among the Visitors were Bros. J. Constable P.M. 185, S. Webb P.M. 193, J. R. Stacey P.M. 180, L. Solomon 1507, W. M. Stiles P.M. 1732, H. Stiles 1732, F. S. Rothschild W.M. 1288, J.W. 1677, Thompson P.M. 167, Snowdon 55, Triggs 1385, G. C. Rivers 459, Wainrow 1779, Pigot P.M. 763, Young P.M. 1385, H. Wood W.M. 212, Harrison 1185, Daniel S.W. 1541, Simmons P.M. 534, Thompson 167, and H. M. Levy P.M. 188.

Digitized by Google

Northumberland and Berwick Mark Masters Lodge (T.I.)—The regular meeting of this Lodge took place on Wednesday, the 25th ult., at the Masonic Hall, Maypole-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne. The Lodge was opened by the W.M. Bro. Dr. Luke Armstrong, supported by the folowing Officers:—Bros. W. E. Franklin I.P.M., G. W. Lax as S.W., R. L. Armstrong J.W., J. E. Robson M.O., R. G. Salmon S.O., J. Wood J.O., W. S. Hughes P.M. P.P.G.S.W. D.C. as S.D., G. S. Place as J.D., J. S. B. Bell Sec., R. Lock Treas., G. Ford I.G. and G. S. Sims Tyler. Letters of apology were read from the S.W. and S.D., for their non-attendance. Bro. Symons J. Bell was advanced to this honourable degree by the W.M., assisted by Bro. Franklin I.P.M., the degree being worked in a very creditable manner. The Lodge was then closed and the brethren adjourned to refreshment, presided over by the W.M., who submitted the usual Loyal and Masonic toasts, which were duly honoured.

Egyptian Lodge of Instruction, No. 27.—Held at Bro. Maidwell's, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, on Thursday, 26th February. Present—Bros. King W.M., Maidwell S.W., Hall J.W., Ward S.D., Gartley J.D., Haynes I.G., Webb Preceptor, L. Norden Secretary; Moss, E. H. Norden, Uppenheimer, Ellis, J. Benjamin, J. M. Levy. Lodge was opened in due form, and the minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. The W.M. rehearsed the ceremony of initiation, Bro. E. H. Norden acting as candidate. Bros. Norden and Uppenheimer, being E.A.'s, were instructed in the answers leading to the second degree. Bro. Moss worked the first, second and third sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bros. E. H. Norden, Uppenheimer and Levy were elected members. The Auditors' report for the past year was presented and adopted. Bro. Atkins P.M. and L. Norden were elected Treasurer and Secretary respectively. A vote of thanks was also accorded them for the admirable manner in which they had discharged their duties. Bro. Maidwell was elected W.M. for next meeting.

Anchor and Hope Lodge, No. 37, Bolton.—The monthly meeting of this the oldest Lodge in Lancashire was held on Monday, 1st March, at the Swan Hotel, Bolton, at six o'clock. In the unavoidable absence of the W.M. Bro. Johnson Mills, who was engaged in professional business in London, the chair was occupied by Bro. Samuel Crowther the Immediate P.M. and Prov. Grand Superintendent of Works, supported by Bros. John Robinson as I.P.M., Rooke Pennington S.W., Jas. Walker P.M. as J.W., J. D. Porteous P. Prov. J.G.W., Renfrew Secretary, R. K. Freeman Organist as S.D., Jas. Newton P.M. as J.D., G. P. Brockbank P.M. P. Prov. G.S.D. Master of Cer., F. W. Pacey P. Prov. G. Org. Berks and Bucks I.G., and Jas. W. Roley Tyler. The Lodge having been opened and the minutes of the preceding meeting confirmed, several important communications referring to the premises recently vacated at the Church Institute were made to the brethren and resolutions passed thereon. Three gentlemen were proposed for initiation in the Lodge, and after reading a portion of the ancient charges by the S.W. the Lodge was closed and the brethren proceeded to banquet.

Lodge of Joppa, No. 188.—The regular meeting was held on Monday, 1st March, at the Albion Tavern, Aldersgate-street. The W.M. Bro. H. Hymans occupied the chair; Bros. R. Baker S.W., L. M. Myers J.W., E. P. Albert P.M. P.G.P. Sec., J. S. Lyon Treas., Benjamin S.D., Blanks J.D.; Bros. P.M.'s L. Alexander, H. M. Levy Dodson; Bros. S. B. Alexander, Grove Ellis, Riebold, L. Wall, Dewsnap, Hart, Gardner, &c. Visitors—Bros. E. Jacobs P.M. 1613 and 1348, Bower Solomons 1614, W. H. Gulliford P.M. 1017 and 1614, Doyle 145, Briant 1641, H. J. Young 299. The Lodge was opened, and the minutes were confirmed. Bro. Walls answered the questions satisfactorily, and was passed to the second degree. Bro. L. Alexander P.M. thanked the W.M. and brethren for the kind letter of condolence sent him by the Lodge on the occasion of his recent bereavement. A notice of motion was given by Bro. H. M. Levy P.M., that in future the joining fee of the Lodge be £5 5s. The Lodge was then closed, and the brethren adjourned to slight refreshments.

Percy Lodge of Instruction, No. 198.—Held its usual meeting on Saturday, 28th February, at Bro. Fysh's, the Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road. Present:—Bros. J. Lorkin W.M., Snare S.W., Spencer J.W., Pearcy Preceptor, A. W. Fenner Secretary, J. Millington S.D., Byott J.D., Gilham I.G.; also Bros. Isaac, Mullord, Garrod, Weeden, Houghton, R. Defriez, Ferrar, Moss, E. Woodman, I. P. Cohen, Byng, Harper, Darnell, W. Williams, &c. All preliminaries having been complied with, the ceremony of initiation was rehearsed in a very excellent manner, Bro. E. Woodman being candidate. The same brother answered the questions leading to the second degree, and retired. Bro. Isaac was entrusted. Lodge was opened in the second degree, and the ceremony of passing was rehearsed, Bro. Isaac being the candidate. Lodge being resumed, the W.M. worked the third and fourth sections of the first lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Snare was elected to preside at the next meeting, after which Lodge was closed and adjourned.

Israel Lodge of Instruction, No. 205.—The Fifteen Sections were worked on 22nd February, at the Rising Sun, Globe-road, Bethnal Green, under the Preceptorship of Bro. W. Musto P.M. No. 1349. The chair was taken by Bro. Taylor I.G. No. 554, who was supported by Bro. T. J. Barnes P.M. No. 554 and 933 as S.W., Bro. I. P. Cohen P.M. No. 205 as J.W. The following brethren respectively took the sections:—First Lecture: Bros. Friedeberg, Valentine, Veal, Wooding, Moss, McDonald, Cundick. Second Lecture: Bros. King, Webb, Forss, Barnes, Fowler. Third Lecture: Bros. I. P. Cohen, Job, Berry. Votes of thanks were passed to the several brethren who assisted.

William Preston Chapter, No. 766.—A meeting of this Chapter was held at the Cannon-street Hotel, on Thursday, 26th February. Present:—Comps. Dr. W. H. Kempster M.E.Z., Dr. C. R. Cutmore J., Henry Garrod P.Z. Treasurer, William Worrell P.Z. Scribe E., J. T. Hiscox S.N., J. T. Pilditch 1st Asst. Soj., G. Newman P.Z., Aug. Braun P.Z., T. Wilkinson, T. Harrop, P. C. Steinmann, L. G. Reinhardt as Janitor. The minutes of the last Convocation were read and confirmed. Three candidates for exaltation were on the agenda, but apologies were made for two of the brethren. Bro. William James Jarmain of Lodge No. 1541 being in attendance, was duly exalted into Royal Arch Masonry. A P.Z.'s jewel was unanimously voted to Comp. Dr. W. H. Kempster for his efficient and valuable services during the past year. This being election night, the following Companions were elected as Officers for the ensuing year:—Comps. J. T. Gibson M.E.Z., Dr. C. R. Cutmore H., J. T. Hiscox J., Henry Garrod P.Z. Treasurer, William Worrell P.Z. Scribe E. (sixth time), J. T. Pilditch S.N., W. Jerrett Miller P. Soj., W. Grant Janitor. The Chapter was then closed in due form and with solemn prayer. On this occasion there was no banquet, but the Companions adjourned for a quiet chat over a cigar and a glass of wine. The next meeting (Installation) will be on Thursday, the 27th of May.

Royal Alfred Lodge of Instruction, No. 780.—Friday evening, 27th February, at the Star and Garter, Kew Bridge. Present—Bros. Maton W.M., Gomm S.W., Goss J.W., Gunner S.D., Acworth J.D., Bellerby I.G.; P.M.'s Roe Preceptor, Andrews, May; and Bros. Tucker Treas., Talbot, and Lee (Urban 1196). Lodge was opened, and the minutes of previous meeting were read, confirmed, and signed. Bros. P.M. Andrews and Tucker worked the first section of the first lecture, and then Bro. Andrews, assisted by the brethren, worked the second and third sections. Bro. Andrews also delivered the E.A. charge. Lodge was advanced, and Bro. Tucker delivered the lecture on the second tracing board. Lodge was closed down, and the dues collected. Bro. Gomm was elected W.M. for next meeting, and votes of thanks were passed to Bro. P.M. Andrews for his able instruction, and to Bro. Maton for presiding. Lodge was closed, and the meeting adjourned till 5th March at half-past seven p.m.

Dalhousie Lodge of Instruction.—At Bro. Smyth's, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, on Tuesday, 2nd March. Bro. Christian W.M., Wardell S.W., Williams J.W., Clark S.D., Brasted J.D., Smyth I.G., J. Lorkin Secretary, P.M. Wallington Preceptor; Bros. Polak, Fraser, Baker, Dallas, Welford, Webb, &c. Lodge was opened in due form, and the minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Polak candidate. Bro. Christian worked the first section of the Lecture. The Lodge was then called from labour to refreshment, and on resuming, the same brother worked the second section of the Lecture, in each case being assisted by the brethren. Brother Wardell was elected W.M. for the ensuing week. Lodge was closed in due form with solemn prayer, and adjourned. The annual supper of this Lodge of Instruction will take place on Tuesday, 23rd March.

Digitized by Google

Metropolitan Lodge of Instruction, No. 1307.—The fifth anniversary supper was held on Tuesday, at the Moorgate Station Restaurant. Bro. Scales, the W.M. of the mother Lodge, presided; he was supported by Bro. Side as S.W. and Bro. G. Clark, who filled the Junior Warden's chair. The members gathered in strong force to do honour to the occasion, and amongs those present we may mention Bros. W. M. Stiles I.P.M. 1732, G. W. Brunell W.S. 1507, H. Lovegrove W.M. 1777 D.C. 1507, E. Storr 167, James C. Smith 1744, W. Side 511 S.W. 1507, E. E. B. Kidder J.W. 12, Paul Storr 167, T. Gilbert jun. Steward 1507, T. M. Ormistone, A. Pawson, F. W. Sillis, W. Croucher, J. Strugnell 1745, C. J. Scales, J. E. Edmonds, A. Hubbard, J. Laber, J. G. McEwan, E. F. Pierdon, G. Clark, H. Norman, B. Kauffman, F. A. Kelly, W. Little, J. Markie, L. Jacobs, E. Lloyd, J. Curtis, F. Edwards, A. Kerrell, R. A. Fraser, G. W. Knight, A. Muller W.M. 167, L. Solomons 1507 S.D. 1732, F. G. W. Gwyer 1288, E. C. Woodward P.M. 1238, G. H. Stephens I.G. 1623, W. W. Morgan Sec. 211, &c. The Supper was placed upon the table in a manner that reflected great credit upon Bro. Kent, who seems determined his establishment shall be ranked amongst the foremost of those where the members of the Craft can be entertained. On the removal of the cloth, Bro. Scales proposed the comprehensive toast of Loyalty to the Throne and Devotion to the best interests of the Craft. The next toast the W.M. brought forward was Prosperity to the Metropolitan Lodge of Instruction, coupled with the name of Bro. Stiles. After an amusing ventriloquial sketch entitled "Ellen's Babies," by Bro. Silvester, Bro. Stiles rose to reply; he regretted the absence of Bro. Adams—regret shared in by one and all present. He likewise referred to the absence of Bro. James Willing jun., who was engaged at Brighton. Owing to the enforced absence of these brethren, the duty of replying devolved upon him. He congratulated the brethren on the accession of members to their Lodge of Instruction. This in a great measure was due to the accommodation with which they were provided in their present quarters. It was intensely gratifying to him to note the spirit that imbued the members; as a body they were essentially all of one mind. For their reception of his name in connection with the toast he returned his sincere thanks. After Bro. Storr had favoured the brethen with the well-known poem, "The Jackdaw of Rheims," Bro. Stiles proposed the health of the President, Bro. Scales W.M. of the mother Lodge. Bro. Scales had come from Ramsgate that afternoon purposely to attend their gathering, and all were deeply indebted to him for paying them such a compliment. After a song from Bro. E. Barratt Kidder, Bro. Scales briefly replied. The remaining toasts comprised the Visitors, the Officers of the Lodge, the Press, and the host, Bro. Kent. The replies were brief and to the point. The proceedings throughout were interspersed with some capital songs and recitations, which seemed to give unqualified satisfaction.

Montefiore Lodge, No. 1017.—The regular meeting was held on Wednesday, the 25th instant, at the Royal Masonic Hall, Air-street, Regent-street. In the unavoidable absence of the W.M. Bro. L. Salomons, Bro. W. H. Gulliford P.M. occupied the chair, J. Ellis S.W., M. Levy J.W., L. Jacobs Treasurer, E. P. Albert P.G.P. Sec., J. Syers S.D., Mann I.G., Sampson Samuel Steward, Davis, &c. Visitors—Reynolds 749 and H. M. Levy P.M. 188. Lodge was opened, and the minutes confirmed. Bro. W. H. B. Gulliford, Lodge No. 1109, was ballotted for as a joining member, and was unanimously accepted, This brother was then passed to the second degree by the acting W.M., who performed the ceremony in a very perfect and impressive manner. Lodge was closed, and the brethren separated. There was no banquet.

Burdett Coutts Lodge of Instruction, No. 1278.—On Wednesday, 25th February, at the Salmon and Ball, Bethnal-green-road. Present—Bros. Abrahams W.M., Hand S.W., Clark J.W., Smith Treas., Wooding S.D., Ward J.D., Hammond I.G., P.M.'s Hogg Preceptor and Toye; also Bros. Bonner, Brittain, Stewart, Chitson, How, M. Christian, Jones, Collins, &c. Lodge was opened and minutes read and confirmed. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. How candidate. Bro. Wooding worked the first and second, and Bro. Christian the third section, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Christian worked the fourth section of the lecture, assisted by Bro. Wooding. Bro. How of Faith Lodge, No. 141, was elected a member, and Bro. Hand appointed W.M. for the ensuing week. A vote of thanks was ordered to be recorded on the minutes to Bro. Abrahams for his able conduct in the chair.

Friars Lodge of Instruction, No. 1349.—At Bro. Pavitt's, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, 2nd March. P.M. Myers W.M., Watkins S.W., Smith J.W., Power S.D., Worsley J.D., Butler I.G., Worsley Secretary, Pavitt W.S. 860 Acting Preceptor; also Bros. Fyfe, Johnson, Cope, Thos. White, Roddam, H. G. Cope, Sadler, Barker, Prosser, &c. The Lodge was opened in due form and the minutes read and confirmed. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. H. G. Cope acting as candidate. The W.M. worked the first, Bro. Worsley the second, third and fourth sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. Prosser, 860, was unanimously elected a member of this Lodge of Instruction. Bro. Watkins was appointed W.M. for the ensuing week. The Fifteen Sections will be worked on the fourth Tuesday in this month. Any brother of this Lodge wishing to work a section will oblige by giving in his name on Tuesday evening next. The Lodge closed and adjourned to 9th March at 7.30.

Marquess of Ripon Lodge of Instruction.—At the Penbury Tavern, Amhurst-road, Hackney, on Monday, 1st March. Bros. B. Olley W.M., McDowall S.W., Martin J.W., Lorkin S.D., Martin I.G., J. Lorkin Secretary, C. Lorkin Preceptor. After preliminaries, the ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Fetherstone candidate. Bro. J. Lorkin worked the first section of the second lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. McDowall was appointed W.M. for the ensuing week.

Royal Military Lodge of Instruction, No. 1449.—On 1st March, at the Masonic Hall, 38 St. Peter's-street, Canterbury. Present—Bros. T. Cattelle W.M., T. Blamiers S.W., W. Price J.W., H. Miskin Treas., W. Carter Sec., W. Widgery S.D., W. Beesenger J.D., E. Beer P.M. D.C., J. F. Howarth Steward, A. Johnson I.G. and P.M. Bro. Naylor. After preliminaries the questions leading from first to second degree were put by Bro. Cattelle, and the working tools explained by Bro. Price. The first section was worked by Bro. Miskin W.M. of the mother Lodge, and the charge given by Bro. Blamiers. The military brethren having to depart the Lodge was closed at 9.30 p.m.

City of Westminster Lodge, No. 1563.—A meeting was held on 26th February, at Regent Masonic Hall, Air-street (Café Royal). Present—Bros. B. Turner W.M., J. F. Shand S.W., J. Hutchinson J.W., B. H. Swallow P.M. P.P.G.D. Middx. Treas., E. J. Scott P.M. Sec., J. B. Docker as S.D., Joel Emanuel J.D., T. M. Janes D.C., T. Eastgate as I.G., Potter Tyler; P.M.'s Bros. B. Phillips I.P.M., E. White, C. A. Cottebrune P.G.P., &c. Visitors—Bros. G. Dairey P.M. 141, W. J. Collens S.D. 766, G. Festa S.D. 834, De Leliva 1424, S. Smith 72, Pye 193, and several others; Bro. Semeler kindly acted as Organist. Members — Bros. Ward, Blackford, Woodward, W. C. Smith, Day, H. Bonham, Gardner, Kohler, Hart, Lee, Craft, Hill, &c. Bros. May, Strevens, Cloots, Line and Wenn, after answering questions, were duly passed. Lodge resumed to first degree, and Mr. Cox was impressively admitted to light of a Mason. The resignation of two members was received, with regret. Ten guineas was voted for Bro. Janes's list for the Girls' School. Lodge closed in perfect harmony. The brethren dined in excellent style. The usual Loyal and customary toasts were duly proposed by the W.M., and responded to by the respective brethren associated with them. Some excellent songs and piano playing by Bros. S. Smith and Semeler 742, T. Eastgate and Phillips, brought a most enjoyable evening to a close. The brethren separated until fourth Thursday in April.

Eboracum Lodge, No. 1611.—On Monday a meeting of this Lodge was held, presided over by the W.M. Bro. C. G. Padel, who was supported by Bros. J. S. Cumberland I.P.M., T. B. Whytehead P.M., J. T. Seller S.W., G. Simpson J.W., J. Kay Sec., M. Millington S.D., and a good attendance of other Officers and brethren. An hour having been devoted to purposes of instruction in the third degree, Bro. T. B. Whytehead P.M. read a paper on the Ancient Mysteries, and the many resemblances to be traced between them and the ceremonial and traditions of modern Freemasonry. Some discussion ensued, and a vote of thanks was accorded to the author of the paper. Bro. Whytehead then presented to the Lodge, on behalf of Bro. C. E. Meyer of Philadelphia, a copy of the beautiful "Dedication Memorial Volume," illustrated with photographs, containing the history of the great Masonic Temple at Philadelphia, and also some other American Masonic Publications from the same source, which had been forwarded through Bro. W. J. Hughan. The hearty thanks of the Lodge were given to Bro. Meyer for his gifts, and the Secretary was instructed to write conveying the same. The W.M. read to the members the circular from Grand Lodge referring to Charity jewels. After the close of the Lodge a pleasant and harmonious evening was passed. In responding to the toast of the Masonic Charities, Bros. Whytehead and Cumberland gave an account of the late Benevolent Festival, at which they had been present, and which had been so great a success, and expressed every confidence that the Eboracum Lodge would continue, as it had begun, to be a leader in their Province as regarded the support of the Charities.

Sackville Lodge, No. 1619.—An emergency meeting of this successful Lodge was held on Tuesday, 2nd instant, at the Crown Hotel, East Grinstead. There were present—Bros. John G. Horsey W.M., S. Davison S.W., E. A. Head J.W., W. Hale P.M. and Treasurer, Charles Sawyer I.P.M. and Secretary, W. Rudge S.D., I. G. Calway J.D., E. Dickman I.G., C. W. Noehmer P.M. and D.C., M. Ovenden, James Cooper, A. M. Betchley, Henry Horsey, Thomas Carder, G. W. Holmes, C. Firbank, and C. T. Young. Visitors—Bros. A. McLean Armour St. John's, and Thos. Smith Lord Warden 1096. Lodge was opened punctually at 4.30. Bros. T. Carder and Henry Horsey, candidates for passing, having replied to the usual questions, were entrusted and retired, when Lodge was opened in the second degree, and these two brothers duly passed. Lodge was then resumed to the first degree, and the ballot taken for Messrs. John Nyland, G. Mitchell, and W. H. Brown, which proved successful. The first candidate not being present, Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Brown were then initiated into the mysteries of Freemasonry, and the Lodge closed at 6.30. The brethren then assembled at a repast, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. In proposing the toast of the Initiates, the W.M. spoke of the great pleasure he felt at receiving their Station Master (Bro. G. Mitchell) and the Station Master of Three Bridges (Bro. W. H. Brown) into Masonry, and incidentally mentioned that that day the brethren of the Lodge were again indebted to the kindness of Bro. Pierpoint (Superintendent of London Bridge Station South Coast Railway) for placing a saloon carriage on the 12.5 train from London, specially reserved for their use, thus adding much to their comfort. The London brethren afterwards returned to Godstone, and returned to town by the last train.

Digitized by Google

A WELCOME TO STRANGERS

WHEN a brother seeks to visit a Masonic Lodge the way should be made easy and pleasant to him, and so soon as his Masonic character becomes sufficiently authenticated he should be welcomed as is the stranger guest in the well-ordered home. The compliments of civility, the courteous attentions of thoughtful regard, do not cost much, but they will touch the heart of a brother who finds himself among strangers, and attract him most powerfully to the organisation which thus illustrates the grace of hospitality. A visitor who is received as though he was a friend—who is treated as though he was welcome in the Lodge—will think more of Masonry from that time forward, and will better appreciate the meaning of the word Brotherhood. And the Lodge that accords this reception to the stranger within its gates will not only put itself on the ground which the courteous host should always occupy, but it will dignify itself by such kind attentions to the visitor, and will show forth the spirit that is inseparable from genuine Masonry.

That visitors are treated differently in different localities is evident to all who have had experience in this respect. It depends upon the place and the surroundings—upon the character of the men that make up the body, and especially upon the kind of man that sits in the Master's chair—as to what the treatment of visitors will be. In some places an applying visitor is looked upon as an intruder; at the best he is merely tolerated. He is allowed to stand around in the ante-room, or find a seat for himself as best he may. Only by asking questions can he acquire any information that he would like to obtain. Not the slightest interest is shown in him, and very likely he is kept waiting a considerable time after his application is sent into the Lodge before the examining committee waits upon him. Then, perhaps, he is treated as though he was an impostor, examined at great length by a committee who desire to show their own smartness (?) and finally, very likely just as the Lodge is closing, he is introduced within the Body in a sort of informal manner, to be left quite to himself for the remainder of the evening. This kind of ordeal is not much relished by a brother of sensitive feelings and therefore it is that the practice of visiting seems going out of vogue, except when the visitor is personally known to some member or members of the Body into which admission for an evening is desired.

There are Lodges, however, that have a well deserved reputation for their courteous and friendly attentions to strangers. We recall a visit made to a Lodge in a foreign jurisdiction. We were far away from home, and had no friends to introduce us to the Lodge we desired to visit. With some effort we mustered sufficient courage to approach the ante-room, where we were at once accosted in a kindly way by an officer in charge, who invited us to the "strangers' room," an apartment well lighted and warmed, hung about with several fine pictures, and having a goodly number of recent Masonic publications on one of the tables. The attendant took our card and soon returned with two brothers, who greeted us with cordiality, and announced that they waited on us as the examining committee of the Lodge. They looked at our certificate of Masonic good standing, asked a few test questions in the most quiet and affable manner, and then, having furnished us with proper clothing, they conducted us into open Lodge and presented us to the Master, from whom we received a word of gracious welcome, while he commended the stranger visitor to the kindly offices of the brethren present. Nor was this the end; for later in the evening we received the greetings of many who were present, while especial pains were taken to show the manner of work and management in this Lodge so distant from our own Masonic home. A stranger in a strange land, we yet felt we were among brethren and friends that night; and the remembrance of the hours thus passed lingers in our soul even now, a most inviting memory.

It has well been said that "the small courtesies sweeten life, and the greater ennoble it." The genius of Masonry calls for the practice of both the lesser and the greater, and this in respect to all classes and conditions of men. Let affability and kindness be shown even to the stranger and the sojourner, that so the noble character of our great Fraternity may be made evident, while its blessed influence shall be more widely extended.—Freemason's Repository.

FURNITURE FOR LODGE OF INSTRUCTION.—Complete Set, nearly new, for Sale. Address, J. W. H., "FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE" Office, 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C.

Kilburn Lodge of Instruction, No. 1,608.—The regular meeting of this Lodge, now comfortably established at Bro. Walton's Hotel, 46 South Molton St., Oxford St., W., was held on Monday, first inst. Lodge was opened in due form at 7.30, by Bros. T. B. Linscott W.M., O. L. Latreille S.W., Festa J.W., Langdon S.D., Lister J.D., and Walton I.G. There were also present Bros. Bird, Brooks, Smith, J. Soper, Willey, Hurdell Preceptor, and Cuff Hon. Sec. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Willie acting as candidate. The second section of the lecture was worked, Bro. Latreille, and the third and fourth by Bro. Hurdell Preceptor, assisted by the brethren. Bros. Smith, of the Rothesay Lodge, and Willey No. 9, were duly elected members. Bro. Latreille S.W. was elected W.M. for the ensuing week. Bro. Hurdell next proposed a vote of thanks to Bro. Linscott the W.M., for his able rendering of the ceremony that evening. It was the first occasion that brother had worked in this Lodge or elsewhere. This was carried unanimously. Bro. Linscott having acknowledged the vote, Lodge was closed and adjourned, until the eighth inst. We are pleased to see this young Lodge so well established in its new quarters. The room is comfortable and the Lodge appointments admirable.

We are pleased to herald the foundation of another Lodge of Instruction, especally as the brethren who have worked for its formation are well known for their ability in the teaching of our Ritual. The first meeting of the new Lodge, which will assemble under the sanction of the New Finsbury Park Lodge, will be held on Monday next, at the Plimsoll Arms (Bro. Purkiss's), St. Thomas Road, Finsbury Park, one minute's walk from the Station. Meetings will be held on each succeeding Monday at eight.

The Kingsland Lodge of Instruction, No. 1693, will be inaugurated on the 15th inst., Bro. Jas. Terry P.P.G.J.W. Herts will rehearse the ceremonies of consecration and installation, at the Canonbury Tavern, Canonbury, N. Proceedings to commence at seven o'clock. Brethren to appear in Craft clothing. Bro. Alfred Trowinnard P.M. 1693 Hon. Sec.

LATEST NOVELTY.
MASONIC CHARM FOR CHAIN.
The whole of the working Tools complete as above.
MOUNTED IN GOOD GOLD AND ORNAMENTALLY ENGRAVED.
To be had of the maker on receipt of 25s.
E. PELIKAN, Manufacturing Jeweller,
No. 102 St. John Street Road, London, E.C.
P.O.O. to be made payable at the St. John Street Road Office.

Worn Ivory Brushes Re-filled and Re-polished to look Equal to New.
IVORY HAIR BRUSHES
Mirrors & all other Ivory Toilet Articles,

& IVORY GOODS IN GENERAL,
Wholesale & for Exportation & the Trade only.

Designs and Prices of Brushes and Mirrors, &c., on Application.
AT HENNIG BROS. Ivory Works,
11, HIGH STREET, LONDON, W.C.

CANNON STREET HOTEL, CANNON STREET, LONDON, E.C.
Has been thoroughly renovated; the Railway advantages, in direct communication with the Hotel, render this establishment unequalled in the Metropolis for
MASONIC BANQUETS, PUBLIC & PRIVATE DINNERS, BREAKFASTS, &c.
DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENTS, PUBLIC MEETINGS, ARBITRATIONS, &c.
THE LARGE HALL IS CAPABLE OF SEATING UPWARDS OF TWELVE HUNDRED PEOPLE.
VISITORS AND FAMILIES visiting LONDON, for LONG or SHORT PERIODS, will find the APPOINTMENTS, and ACCOMMODATION UNRIVALLED.
E. H. RAND, MANAGER.

LADBROKE HALL, NOTTING HILL, LONDON, W.
(Opposite the Notting Hill Station of the Metropolitan Railway, from which Trains run every few minutes to all parts of London, and in connection with the principal Lines of Railway.)
THE ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED FOR LODGE MEETINGS IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE DISTRICT.
LARGE LODGE AND BANQUET ROOMS, WITH EVERY CONVENIENCE.
THE HALL MAY BE ENGAGED for BANQUETS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, DINNERS, PUBLIC or PRIVATE ENTERTAINMENTS, &c.
Apply to Bro. J. LINSCOTT (at the Hall), 14 Ladbroke Grove Road, London, W.

Digitized by Google

ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY Limited, 7 Bank Buildings, Lothbury, E.C.

General accidents. Railway accidents. | Personal injuries. Death by accident.

C. HARDING, Manager.

RHEUMATISM.

THE only real remedy for this complaint is the Northern Cure (patent). In bottles 1s 1½d each, to be had of all Chemists. Proprietors and Manufacturers, Edwards and Alexander, 29 Blackett-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

GEO. JONES,

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT MANUFACTURER and IMPORTER, 350 and 481 Commercial Road, London, E. Price List of every description of Instruments post free. Established 1850.

TAMAR INDIEN.

SPECIAL CAUTION.

OWING to the marked success of this medicine, the only patent medicine universally prescribed by the faculty, and the acknowledged cure for constipation, headache, bile, hemorrhoids, &c., BASE IMITATIONS, containing drastic irritants, are being foisted on the public. The genuine preparation bears the title "Tamar Indien," and the signature E. GRILLON, Coleman-st., London, E.C. Price 2s 6d per box. In a recent case, 1876, G. No. 211, a perpetual injunction to restrain the defendant from applying the name "Tamar" to his lozenges was awarded, with costs, by Vice-Chancellor Bacon, on 19th January 1877, and all such piracies will be summarily proceeded against.——N.B.—See that the outer wrapper (directions) are printed in the English language and that each box bears the Government 2d stamp.

MEMORY EXTRAORDINARY BY CORRESPONDENCE.—Particulars post free of Bro. William Stokes, Teacher of Memory, Royal Polytechnic, 309 Regent-street, London, W. Private lessons by appointment. Class on Tuesdays, 3 and 8.30. The System complete in Three Lessons. "Stokes on Memory," by post 14 stamps. Memory Globe, 14 stamps.

EVENING Employment wanted, by a P.M. Good Accountant. Address 2001, FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, W.C.

HOTELS, ETC.

EALING—Feathers Hotel

EASTBOURNE—Pier Hotel, Cavendish Place. View of Sea and Pier. A. TAYLOR Proprietor

KEW—Star and Garter. Good accommodation for Lodge & Dinner Parties. J. BRILL Proprietor

SANDWICH—Bell Family and Commercial Hotel, Good Stabling. J. J. FILMER Proprietor

WOOD GREEN—Kings Arms Hotel. A. B. GREENSLADE Proprietor

YORK—Queen's Family and Commercial Hotel, Micklegate. H. CHURCHILL Proprietor

LONDON.

CALTHORPE ARMS—252 Gray's Inn Road, W.C. Billiards, Pool, Pyramids, &c. Best Wines and Spirits. W. H. G. RUDDERFORTH Proprietor

CANNING TOWN—Liverpool Arms. J. H. PAVITT. Friars L. of Instruction, 1349, Tuesdays at 7.30

GREEN DRAGON—Spring Garden-place, Stepney Wines and Spirits of the best quality. Billiards. Banquets provided for large or small parties. Yarborough L. & C. 554, and Temple Mark L. 173 held here. Lodge of Instruc. (554) meets every Tuesday at 8. A. WALTER Proprietor

MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT—Moorgate Street, E.C. Hot and Cold Dinners, &c. Chops and Steaks. Good accommodation for Lodge Meetings, &c. A. KENT Proprietor

NEW MARKET HOTEL—King Street, Snow Hill, E.C. Good accommodation for Club and other Banquets. Wines and Spirits of best quality. Specially licensed for Masonic Balls. Lodges 1623 and 1677 are held here. Strong Man No. 45 and West Smithfield No. 1623 Lodges of Instruction, meet here, every Monday at 8 p.m. Thomas BUTT Proprietor

SAWYER'S (late Station) RESTAURANT, 5 Railway Place, Fenchurch Street, E.C. English, French, and German Cuisine. Wines of the best quality. Hot and Cold Luncheons, Chops, Steaks, &c. Tea and Coffee. F. J. SAWYER (late of Pimm's and Crystal Palace) Proprietor

BILLIARD BALLS, Chalks, Cues and Tips, at HENNIG BROS.' Ivory Works, 11 High Street, London, W.C. Cheapest house in the trade for billiard-table requisites and ivory goods in general. Old balls adjusted or exchanged, and tables recovered. Price Lists on application. Established 1862.

W. BEASLEY,

Bespoke Boot Maker,

28 Queen Victoria Street.

HUNTING, RIDING, DRESS AND BOOTS FOR THE MOORS,

MADE IN A FEW DAYS.

Specialité—Hand Sewn and Standard Screwed

C. HUBBARD,

Plain & Fancy Box & Pattern CARD MANUFACTURER.

139 & 141 NEW NORTH ROAD, AND 64 SHAFTESBURY ST., LONDON, N.

ROCHESTER & FOX,

Post and Job Masters,

799 COMMERCIAL ROAD, E. AND 81 JUBILEE STREET, MILE END, E.

Carriages of every description on hire.

SUPERIOR WEDDING CARRIAGES.

HOUGHTON,

THE BOOT MAKER,

243 & 244 WHITECHAPEL ROAD, LONDON, E.

Lasts made to the Feet.

—:o:—

SPECIALITÉ, EASE, ELEGANCE AND DURABILITY.

A. LAZARUS,

MERCHANT TAILOR AND Juvenile Clothier,

CORNER OF WORSHIP ST., SHOREDITCH, E., AND 51 LIVERPOOL STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Patterns and Rules for Self Measurement post free.

T. J. TARLING,

COAL MERCHANT.

North Wallsend	...	...	23s	Per Ton
Hetton or Lambton	...	...	21s	,,
Best Silkstone	...	...	23s	,,
Best Derby	...	...	21s	,,

All letters to be addressed :—

5 URDETT ROAD, BOW, E.

Bro. A. OLDROYD, Stratford, London,

MANUFACTURER OF TOBACCO POUCHES,

With any name in raised letters.

CAN be obtained direct from the Maker, at the undermentioned prices, on receipt of P.O.O. payable at Stratford.

	Price	Will take a name of letters
No. 3	2/0 ...	9
,, 4	2/6 ...	11
,, 5	3/0 ...	13
,, 6	3/6 ...	15
,, 7	4/0 ...
,, 8	4/6 ...
,, 9	5/0 ...

A. OLDROYD,

Agent for Algerian Cigars, and Importer of Havana and Continental Cigars,

64 HIGH STREET, STRATFORD, LONDON, E.

JOSEPH J. CANEY,

DIAMOND MERCHANT, AND MANUFACTURING JEWELLER AND WATCH MAKER,

44 CHEAPSIDE, LONDON.

MASONIC JEWELS. CLOTHING AND FURNITURE.

Specialité—First Class Jewels—Artistic—Massive—Best Quality—Moderate in Price

CATALOGUES POST FREE.

A LARGE STOCK OF LOOSE BRILLIANTS FOR EXPENSIVE JEWELS.

Diamond Rings, Brooches, Studs, Earrings and Bracelets in Great Variety.

MASONIC JEWELS FOR ALL DEGREES.

MINIATURE WAR MEDALS AND DECORATIONS.

ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD IN ALL SIZES.

ATHLETIC SPORTS MEDALS AND BADGES.

A. D. LOEWENSTARK & SONS, Medallists, 210 STRAND, LONDON, W.C.

MANUFACTORY—1 DEVEREUX COURT, STRAND.

J. FORTESCUE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

129 FLEET ST.; 114 & 115 SHOE LANE,

(One door from Fleet Street)

6 EXMOUTH STREET, CLERKENWELL, E.C.

And 143 Mare Street, Triangle, Hackney

Gents' Silk Hats from 5/6 each. Second best 6/6 7/6 8/6 Superfine quality, 10/6 12/6 & 16/. The very best made 21/. Felt Hats, hard and soft, in all the newest shapes, from 3/6 to 10/6.

ADAM S. MATHER,

GAS ENGINEER, GENERAL GAS FITTER AND BELL HANGER

MANUFACTURER OF BILLIARD LIGHTS

AND OF EVERY DESCRIPTION OF GAS APPARATUS FOR COOKING AND HEATING

Bath Rooms Fitted up. All the Latest Improvements Introduced.

MANUFACTORY—12 CHARLES STREET, HATTON GARDEN, E.C.; AND AT 278 CALEDONIAN ROAD, ISLINGTON, N.

ESTIMATES GIVEN.

PIANOFORTES AND HARMONIUMS ON EASY TERMS.

GROVER & GROVER

LET ON HIRE, WITH OPTION OF PURCHASE,

BEAUTIFUL AND PERFECT INSTRUMENTS.

PURCHASERS CHOOSE THEIR OWN TERMS,

FROM 15s TO £3 3s PER QUARTER.

The Advantages of a Trial, with the Convenience of the Three Years' System at Cash Price, by Paying about a Quarter of the value down, the Balance by Easy Payments, from 13s per quarter.

GROVER & GROVER, 157-9 Kingsland Road.

ESTABLISHED 1830.

Digitized by Google

EDWARD STILLWELL AND SON,

25, 26 and 27 BARBICAN, AND 6 LITTLE BRITAIN, LONDON,
109 ARGYLE STREET, GLASGOW,

Gold Lacemen, Embroiderers and Sword Cutlers,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Masonic Fittings for Lodges, Chapters and Encampments.

CLOTHING, JEWELS (PINS, STUDS AND RINGS), FOR EVERY DEGREE.

Aprons, Sashes, Horns, Ornaments and Banners for Foresters, Odd Fellows, Orangemen, Free Gardeners, &c.

REGALIA FOR I.O.G.T. AND ALL SOCIETIES.

LIBERAL TERMS TO SHIPPERS.

H. T. LAMB,

MANUFACTURER OF

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND REGALIA,

5 ST. JOHN SQUARE, LONDON.

PRICE LIST, CONTAINING 120 ILLUSTRATIONS, POST FREE ON APPLICATION.

PHILLIPS & COMPANY'S TEAS

ARE BEST AND CHEAPEST,

8 KING WILLIAM STREET, CITY, LONDON, E.C.

A GENERAL PRICE CURRENT AND STORE LIST, CONTAINING ALL THE ADVANTAGES OF THE LONDON MARKETS, POST FREE.

Show Rooms for Chinese, Japanese, and Oriental Art Products, and General Stores, 13 & 14 ABCHURCH LANE, adjoining 8 KING WILLIAM STREET, E.C.

J. E. SHAND & CO.

Wine Merchants,

(Experts and Valuers of Wines and Spirits,)

2 ALBERT MANSIONS, VICTORIA ST., LONDON, S.W.

PRICES DELIVERED IN LONDON.

SHERRIES	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	SPARKLING MOSELLES	42s, 48s, 54s
PORTS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	CHAMPAGNES	36s, 42s, 48s, 54s, 60s
CLARETS	16s, 18s, 21s, 24s, 30s, 36s	BURGUNDY	20s, 24s, 30s, 36s, 42s
STILL HOCKS	24s 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s	BRANDIES	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s, 66s
SPARKLING do	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s	WHISKIES	20s per gall., 42s per doz.

COUNTRY ORDERS OVER £3 CARRIAGE FREE.

Every other description can be supplied. Wines and Spirits matched or valued.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.

WARD'S

INVALID CHAIR AND CARRIAGE MANUFACTORY,

From SAVILLE HOUSE, LEICESTER SQUARE,

To 246 & 247 TOTTENHAM COURT ROAD, LONDON.

THE ONLY PRIZE MEDAL for INVALID FURNITURE was gained by JOHN WARD, at the London Exhibitions, 1851 and 1862; Paris, 1855 and 1867; Dublin, 1865; Vienna, 1873; 2 Silver Medals, Paris, 1878.

JOHN WARD, Manufacturer by Special Appointment to the Queen and Royal Family, the Empresses of France, Austria, Russia, &c.

INVALID CHAIRS and CARRIAGES for SALE or HIRE from JOHN WARD. Established 150 years. Drawings and price lists free on application.

[redacted]

Fish Carvers, Fish Eating Knives and Forks, Revolving Covered Soup and Luncheon Dishes.

SPECIALITIES FOR TESTIMONIALS,
TEA AND COFFEE SERVICES,
SALVERS, DESSERT KNIVES AND FORKS, GILT AND OXYDIZED GOODS.

77 (from 28) Cheapside, London, E.C.
(NEAR THE POULTRY.)

MORING,

ENGRAVER, DIE SINKER,
HERALDIC ARTIST, -
ILLUMINATED ADDRESSES,
44, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST POST FREE.

ADLARD'S JEWEL ATTACHER 7/6.

If with Pockets, 6d each Pocket extra.

225 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

JANES & SON

WINDOW BLINDS ONLY,

WHOLESALE,

ALDERSCATE STREET, CITY, E.C.

BRANCH—

4 EAGLE PLACE, PICCADILLY

THESE ADDRESSES ONLY.

YOUNG'S Arnicated Corn and Bunion Plaisters are the best ever invented for giving immediate ease, and removing those painful excrescences. Price 6d and 1s per box. Any Chemist not having them in stock can procure them.

Observe the Trade Mark—H. Y.—without which none are genuine. Be sure and ask for Young's.

Horticultural Decorations, Forseries, Window Gardening, Seeds, Bulbs, Plants, Ferns, PLANTS FOR DECORATION. Masonic Banquets, Balls, &c.

DICK RADCLYFFE & CO., F.R.H.S.

PRIZE MEDAL SEEDS.

129 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

TABLE DECORATIONS, Ball Room Decorations, Seeds for Export. Illustrated Catalogues gratis and post free. Seeds, Bulbs, &c., carefully packed for Export.

NEW MASONIC ROOMS

COMPLETE SUITE,
SPECIALLY ARRANGED
LODGE, BANQUETTING,
AND ANTE ROOMS,
ALL ON ONE FLOOR.

Particulars to be had of

BRO. A. KENT, MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT,
OPPOSITE RAILWAY STATION,

From which trains run at frequent intervals in connection with the Great Northern, Midland, Great Western, London Chatham & Dover, and Metropolitan Railways.

Printed for the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE PUBLISHING COMPANY LIMITED, and Published by Bro. WILLIAM WRAY MORGAN JUN., at 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C., Saturday, 6th March 1880.

Digitized by Google

THE

Freemason's Chronicle;

A WEEKLY RECORD OF MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

SANCTIONED BY THE GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

Registered at the G.P.O. as a Newspaper.

VOL. XI.—No. 272. SATURDAY, 13th MARCH 1880. [Issued to Subscribers only 13s 6d per annum, post free

THE RECENT EXTENSION OF THE GIRLS' SCHOOL.

AT the General Committee Meeting of the Royal Masonic Institution for Girls, held on the 11th ult., the purchase of Lyncombe House was again brought forward, and we have reason to believe that the subject will be referred to in the future. The brethren who throughout the controversy have endeavoured to show that the purchase was undesirable, for the many reasons which have from time to time been referred to in our columns, have submitted a further case to counsel, and on one point alone, even if not on the whole, the opinion of Mr. Locock Webb, the gentleman whose advice was sought for, deserves the fullest consideration. We will not trouble ourselves here with a long résumé of the whole case, as the facts are doubtless in the memory of our readers, suffice it to say, that in the latter part of last year a proposition was brought forward to expend a sum of £6,500 in the purchase of a house and grounds adjoining the Girls' School at Battersea Rise. On its being pointed out that a technicality, as regarded the calling of the meeting, had not been complied with, the proceedings were recommenced, in order that the necessary notices as required by the laws of the Institution might be given. In due course the grant was agreed to by a majority of those present at the meeting when the necessary votes were put for consideration. We have before referred to the way in which the whole matter was carried through, and the apparent desire that was shown to complete the purchase before it was possible for the general body of the subscribers even to be made aware of the proposition, but as the laws of the Institution were complied with, or sufficiently so to prevent the proposal being upset, except after a long legal discussion, we can but again point out the need there is for some alteration in the laws of our Institutions which shall secure to every subscriber a knowledge, or at least a notice, of any proposed expenditure of funds for a purpose other than he or she may deem desirable, and which in the opinion of many is far from what was intended when their subscriptions were added to the funds of the Institution. This is not the first question which has been brought forward lately to show the great inequality which exists in the advantages accruing to a Provincial subscriber to one or other of the Charities as compared with those residing or having business in or near the Metropolis, and from the growing spirit of dissatisfaction evinced in some Provincial centres on these subjects we think it would be policy to make full inquiry whether it would not be desirable to alter the laws so as to allow of proxy voting becoming the rule, rather than as it now is the exception—at least on questions the settlement of which involves items of importance to the whole body of the subscribers. Doubtless this point will be brought forward at some time or other; but as it is unlikely we shall hear much about it until some material grievance has arisen, it may be thought we are wrong in referring to it here. Still we urge that it would be far better to discuss the matter now, when no cause for serious complaint exists, than wait until a breach has been made which in itself would prove a serious obstacle either to speedy or an amicable settlement.

The opinion to which we now wish more particularly to refer was given, as already stated, by Mr. Locock Webb, Q.C., in answer to a case submitted on behalf of several subscribers to the Girls' School by their solicitor. The proposition reads thus:—

As some of the subscribers, although opposed to the scheme, are averse to Chancery proceedings, on various grounds, can any other course be suggested by which this and other misapplications of the Funds can be prevented? It should be taken into consideration that the decision in this case may possibly affect the other two Institutions.

In reply, Mr. Webb says—

I am satisfied that those on whose behalf I am consulted have adopted a wise decision in following the advice I previously gave, to avoid litigation. They may, I think, rest content with having been instrumental in working some real benefit to the Institution, and the only advice I can now give them is to pursue the same object by attending the General Courts and Committees of which they are members, and using their utmost efforts to induce their co-subscribers to adhere strictly to the laws of the Institution, especially in the following particulars:—

1. Not to permit any of the Stock vested in the trustees to be applied in or towards the purchase of any house or land, but to insist that the whole of such Stock should be held by the trustees, and applied only in aid, so far as may be necessary, of the yearly subscriptions, in maintaining, clothing, and educating the children.

2. To insist that the surplus (if any) of the yearly subscriptions, after providing for such maintenance, clothing, and education, should from time to time be invested in Stock, in the names of the trustees, to be applied in like manner.

3. To increase the assets standing to the credit of "the Sustentation, Improving, and Building Fund" account, by such an amount of fresh voluntary subscriptions to that fund specifically, as will be sufficient to provide for the purchase of Lyncombe House, and for the necessary improvements and maintenance of the lands and buildings for the time being belonging to the Institution.

It may thus be seen that Mr. Webb's opinion still is that the spending of the general funds of the Institution in the purchase of either buildings or grounds is illegal, but as it is the wish of all concerned to avoid anything like litigation, we will expunge the word illegal, and now simply treat the matter on the basis of its desirability or otherwise. In the first place it must of course be admitted that there are numerous supporters, if not perhaps a large majority of the subscribers to the Masonic Institutions, who approve of the purchase of large premises, and who would on the very first opportunity purchase other pieces of ground, or erect additions to the existing buildings, but at the same time there are many who most strongly oppose such a course, and we maintain that the minority, be it ever so small, have as much a right to be considered as a strong majority, especially when it is remembered that the object in view is one of charity, in the form of a fund supported entirely by voluntary contributions, and thereby the more likely to be affected if a section withdraw themselves from the roll of helpers. The time has now arrived, as we have on previous occasions pointed out, when the extension of premises should be stopped. Very much more good could be done by establishing, if it were found that the funds were sufficient, a system of half-yearly grants to be distributed among the unsuccessful candidates, in some way which might be settled hereafter, but the idea seems to be—We will do the whole thing or nothing, and as a consequence we periodically have to refer to a very long list of unsuccessful candidates, to many of whom a grant of £7 10s or £10 for the half-year would be of material assistance. This is the view entertained by many who were in opposition to the recent proposal to lay out a further sum of £6,500 on the purchase of additional accommodation at Battersea; however, they failed to secure support sufficient to maintain their point, and are now, we trust, as hard at work as ever they were in the interests of the School. The subject does not, however, rest here, the mere fact of this grant having been obtained in the face of a protest from what is to-day a minority may lead the majority to suppose they may repeat the operation with impunity, and therefore we think that the subscribers who opposed the expenditure are to be commended for seeking to put the matter on a proper footing for the future. Now there is no serious harm done; but who will say what a future proposition of a similar nature might lead to? We are, therefore, pleased to see that so easy a way of obviating the evil presents itself. We already have "Sustentation" Funds attached to our Institutions, and these, it is Mr. Webb's opinion, should supply the amounts to be expended in the further extension of either the grounds or buildings of our Charities. It is, therefore, an easy matter for any one who approves of enlarging our Schools to make their donations, either in part or wholly, to this special branch. They would thereby be assured that their own particular ideas would be carried out, and those who disagreed with them would not feel that they were subscribing to an unworthy object, in the shape of buildings, and other matters of which they disapproved. In an early part of our remarks we stated that the subject was likely to be referred to again; if it is, we believe it will be in the form of a suggestion to make a Special Appeal to the Craft to increase the balance standing to the credit of the Sustentation Fund. If this were done at once, and the object stated as being to recoup the General Fund for the latest addition which has been made to the Girls' School, we believe a hearty response would follow, and the new building would eventually be acquired without in any way affecting the total of the General Fund.

Digitized by Google

Before closing our remarks on this subject, we desire to briefly refer to the action taken by the Britannia Lodge, No. 139, Sheffield, the oldest Lodge in the Province of West Yorkshire, which may be best explained by a perusal of the following reproduction of a circular communicated officially by that Lodge to the General Committee of the School:—

BRITANNIA LODGE, 139.

Report of the Committee appointed on the 8th January 1880 as to the Purchase of Lyncombe House, &c.

That in the opinion of this Committee the purchase of Lyncombe House and grounds is to be condemned for the reasons following:—

1. That the price is excessive.

2. That the premises are neither required nor desirable.

3. That it is not at present desirable to invest so large a proportion of the funds of the Charity in land and buildings.

4. That the rules applicable to the clothing and education of girls out of the Institution should in preference be acted upon.

5. And the Committee would add their protest against the present management of the Charity, with special reference to the representation of provincial subscribers, it being their opinion that such subscribers should have the right of voting by proxy.

H. J. GARNETT, Chairman.

Masonic Hall, Sheffield, 4th February 1880.

From this it will be observed that the members of Lodge No. 139 entertain views very similar to those we have expressed on various occasions, and therefore our readers are aware of our arguments in support thereof, but there are one or two points which we may dwell upon in a future number. In the meantime, we would suggest a friendly organisation among the Provincial subscribers in order to secure for themselves a more equitable distribution of the benefits, in the form of voting power, conferred in consideration of donations and subscriptions.

THE ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND.

WE give elsewhere a full report of the proceedings at the opening meeting of those interested in the establishment of this Fund. The chair, as will be seen, was occupied by Lord Skelmersdale, Deputy Grand Master, in the unavoidable absence through ill-health of H.R.H. Prince Leopold. Lord Rosslyn, Past Grand Master of Scotland, took a leading part in the proceedings, and was more or less ably seconded by other brethren of influence. In the end the meeting was adjourned till, as we feel justified in believing, Prince Leopold is able to attend and give the proposal the benefit of his personal influence. If we add that there was a goodly atttendance, that everything passed off smoothly, and that there is every reason to anticipate that the effort thus auspiciously begun will prove a great success, we shall have said all that is necessary as to the general characteristics of the meeting. As to the details we must be a little more minute.

After the customary preliminaries, Lord Rosslyn, to whom we are indebted for the suggestion of the idea which has led to this proposal, rose and fully stated his views as to the character the Fund should assume, and it seems to us that any one who carefully reads through the speech of the noble lord will come to the conclusion that those views were, in many respects, described by us at some length in our article of last week. That the proposal as now formulated has exceeded its original dimensions is true. That the project, as described in circulars, may strike people as an ambitious one is most likely. But when allowance has been made for every description of eccentricity, we feel it will be generally acknowledged that the original programme has been adhered to, with, however, additions which our readers, we think, will agree with us in saying are also improvements. That the paraphernalia of vice-patronage, life-governorships, and so forth, with a Fancy Bazaar thrown in as a more than usually attractive appendage, should strike the outsider and even the initiate as implying a very grand undertaking is more than probable, and we are not surprised that Lord Rosslyn's speech should have been, to a certain extent, of a deprecatory character. So many misconceptions have been started as to the purposes to which it is intended to apply the benefits of this Fund, that no one, and least of all those who have taken an active part in promoting it, will wonder at his lordship having been taken somewhat aback at the apparent magnitude of a scheme, for the origin of which he is doubtless in some measure responsible. But as the tree requires careful pruning of its surplus branches in order to bear good fruit, so in estimating the real character of the proposed Fund we must strip it of its ornamental details and we shall then find that it is what it was proposed to be from the very outset—a mere supplement to our Schools, not a rival establishment whose claims upon the support of the Masonic public will ever in the slightest degree interfere with their interests. When we mention that one brother stated at the meeting that he had been told the Fund was meant for the life-long support of the children educated at our Schools, we have as little reason to wonder that others should have formed erroneous, though less egregious, misconceptions as that anyone with a grain of sense in his cranium should ever have allowed himself to entertain so wild a notion. But to resume, Lord Rosslyn explained clearly enough how he came to originate the idea which in an expanded form is being so well worked out. He rightly enough said on Thursday, as he did at the Boys' Festival last year, that the good done by our Schools fell short of completion, inasmuch as many of the pupils when, in the ordinary efflux of years, their time for leaving came, were sent adrift into the world without means or friends to help them. His idea seems to have been that a Fund might have been formed to assist them, and administered by the authorities of the Schools themselves. Instead of this, a separate Fund has been started, and is in course of establishment. So much for the idea originally conceived. Since then it has occurred to several of those who take an interest in whatever relates to Freemasonry that, as there are many candidates for the benefits of our Schools who, in the very nature of things, are disappointed, the object of this supplementary Fund might be of a twofold character. On the one hand it might render valuable assistance at a most critical time to deserving pupils who, on leaving, had no prospect before them; and on the other it might do a service at small cost to some of the unsuccessful candidates. Here, then, we have the leading ideas by which the promoters of the Pupils' Assistance Fund are animated, and to these ideas all other parts of the scheme will of necessity be made subservient. We think, then, we may take upon ourselves to say, so far as we have been able to gather from the promoters' prospectuses, that Lord Rosslyn's original idea has been preserved. The new Fund will be established not in rivalry with, but as subsidiary to, the Boys' and Girls' Schools' Funds, on the one hand relieving them of expenditure now incurred in helping pupils on leaving, and on the other, contributing in some measure towards the education of unsuccessful candidates. We feel with his lordship that it would be most unwise to do anything which even in the slightest degree might be calculated to disturb the equal flow of charity into the coffers of our two scholastic institutions. We are of those who think, and have again and again said, that it is better to consolidate than to extend the work they do, and therefore we should be among the last to propose or support any new thing which seemed likely to at all clash with their interests. Indeed, in the nature of things, this must be so, for what on earth would be the good of suggesting a new Fund, when it was calculated to undo part of the good work they were famed for doing? We have argued that the permanent incomes of our Institutions need strengthening, but to set up a rival claimant on the benevolence of the Craft would be to lessen the annual flow in their direction of voluntary contributions, and the lower these contributions fall, the less likelihood would there be of their permanent incomes being increased. We have said thus much, because we agree with Lord Rosslyn that the Assistance Fund must be so not only in name, but in fact, and that the assistance it renders must be entirely supplemental in its character, those only being eligible as recipients of its benefits who have been accepted by the School authorities either as pupils or candidates who prove unsuccessful in their canvass.

Digitized by Google

We have spoken of the magnitude of the undertaking as being "apparent," for in truth it is one which is never likely to exceed the most moderate dimensions. As we said last week, where thousands are needed annually to meet the necessities of each School, a few hundreds will suffice for the needs of this supplemental Fund. The Schools between them maintain and educate over 400 children at an average annual expenditure of £40 a piece. There go, then, at once over £16,000, and there are the expenses of management besides. But here there will be, in the first place, no expenses of management worth speaking of, while the expenditure in respect of the specific objects of the Fund will be item by item and in the aggregate small. The cases which will be brought under the notice of those who administer it will be few in number, to judge at least from the sums now spent annually by the two Schools in helping pupils on leaving, while those of a special character, such as were mentioned by Dr. Morris, will occur but rarely.

All this we have said before, but it is worth while repeating it, when we find there are those who incline to think the scheme is somewhat too ambitious. As we have suggested, the paraphernalia of vice-patronage, &c., &c., looks very formidable, but all these things are, in fact, merely so many pretty little attractions of an honorary character, such as are commonly held out to people when something of this kind is wanted. To call the donor of a hundred guineas a Vice Patron, or of ten guineas a Life Governor, is to pay him a pretty compliment which he appreciates, and if there is anything to vote about, it is only fair he should have votes in proportion to his donation. Some people like the initial letters with the regulation number of etceteras tacked on to their names, and if one man is willing to contribute an extra fifty guineas in order to be written down a "V.P.," instead of a "V.Pr.," or a second five guineas for the privilege of being described as a "L.G.," instead of "L.S.," there is nothing lost by encouraging the little foible. But the promoters do not anticipate anything considerable in the way of expenditure, and a principal object will no doubt be to so invest the moneys as to be able to meet out of the interest thereon such demands as may be made on the Fund. Once a capital sum of, say, £20,000 or £25,000 is established, and the interest with occasional donations and subscriptions will be found sufficient. This at least is the view we take of the matter, and which we shall feel it our duty to urge on the promoters and the Executive in season and out of season. To the former we say, let your lists of subscriptions be as large as you can make them, and to the latter, invest your moneys wisely, and so husband your resources as to avoid all interference with the flow of contributions towards the principal Charities. We want to help, not to injure them. A grand effort at starting will suffice to put the Fund firmly on its legs, and that done, it will only need to be conducted in accordance with the rules laid down. Hence this array of attractions and the honorary distinctions and trifling privileges they will confer.

So far everything has gone satisfactorily. A goodly amount of support is already secured, and there is no doubt that the way for the future progress of the Fund has been made as smooth as possible. There is an interim Committee, an Honorary Treasurer and interim Trustee, and an Honorary Secretary. When the next meeting is held, which will be when Prince Leopold's health and engagements enable him to attend, the Pupils' Assistance Fund will be a very considerable entity, worthy of His Royal Highness's encouragement, and a credit to the promoters. Possibly by that time, too, the features of the entity will be of a sufficiently decided character, so that the framing of laws and regulations may be commenced forthwith. Let it suffice for the present, if we congratulate those who started this movement on the support they have received, the success of their first meeting, and the fair prospects before them.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents.

We cannot undertake to return rejected communications.

All Letters must bear the name and address of the Writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

NON-CONFIRMATION OF BRO. STEVENS'S MOTION.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I quite agree with you in the position you have taken up, that while Grand Lodge has a perfect right to reject at one meeting a motion it had accepted at the preceding one, such shilly-shallying does not add to its dignity or consistency. If, as you have argued, a Committee of Inquiry was thought desirable in December last, then, unless some special reasons have been in the meantime urged against such a proposition, it must be equally desirable now. Moreover, it seems to have been churlish to refuse a motion for inquiry. The chief arguments of Bro. Stevens's opponents were simply these—that things had gone on smoothly enough since the Union; that the brethren cherished the ritual or rituals which had been handed down to them, and that, even if a change were desirable, it would be difficult, if not impossible, to carry it out. But the fact was lost sight of that the appointment of a Committee of Inquiry did not commit Grand Lodge to the introduction of any change into our system. It is at least as likely they might have reported against as in favour of uniformity. They might have said—We have carefully considered the subject, and the conclusion we have arrived at is to leave matters as they are. It is true we do not approve of everything that has been brought under our notice, but we prefer leaving these blemishes to disturbing the ritual. Or they might have suggested that here and there certain amendments were desirable, and then it would have rested with Grand Lodge to approve or withhold approval from the Report. But it was, with all due deference, an act of churlishness on the part of those who think no change is desirable to vote against an inquiry, the result of which might have confirmed the wisdom of their opinions.

I have no wish to see the controversy revived, but if I had, I should not have very far to go for a reason. Last week there appeared a letter in the columns of your Masonic contemporary, signed "Bos ALBUS," in which will be found the following passages. Having first mentioned that he has had a large experience in installations in almost every part in "England for the last sixteen years," and that while every Province differs in some little respect, "they as a rule preserve the Masonic unities, and adhere closely—in essentials, at least—to what is taught in the Emulation Lodge," Bos ALBUS adds, "The exception I have found to be the Province of East Lancashire, or at least Manchester, and a circle of some twenty miles round. There they have a brand new ritual of their own, with a form of opening and closing a board of installed Masters, and certain peculiar signs and secrets totally unknown to brethren at Leeds, on the one hand, or Liverpool on the other—not only this, but a ritual for opening and closing a board of Past Masters, and a ceremony of installing the outgoing Master as a P.M. with separate signs, &c., none of which are known in any part of England." It seems, too, that "even in Manchester itself the ceremony varies," and towards the end of his letter, the writer very pertinently asks, "If the Manchester secrets are a part of pure and ancient Masonry, why should we not be put in possession of them? If they are innovations, why should they be allowed to continue?" Just so, Bro. Bos ALBUS, and that, in a different form, is the line of argument adopted by the advocates of Uniformity. If there exist anywhere practices which are outside the ordinary forms of working—say, as taught by the Emulation Lodge of Improvement—why should they be allowed to continue? They certainly lack the sanction of authority, however interesting they may be locally. Where the "Masonic unities" are preserved, and the "essentials" are pretty closely adhered to, we need not trouble ourselves about little differences, but where Lodges have "a brand new ritual of their own," it certainly is a subject for inquiry where that ritual came from, and why it is worked in one small district, when a different mode of working prevails elsewhere. This statement by "Bos ALBUS" justifies the opinion you have expressed that it was an act of unwisdom, or rather of self-stultification on the part of Grand Lodge, to reverse the decision it arrived at in the December previous. By the way, your idea about self-stultification appears to have given offence in some quarters, though I do not see why it should have done so. Grand Lodge has twice sanctioned a principle which on both occasions it very shortly afterwards rejected. If I assert a thing one moment, and deny it the next, in plain English, I stultify myself, or to soften the mode of expression, I am guilty of an inconsistency; and if any one tells me so, I feel the force of his remark all the more, because of its undoubted truth. Of course, I escape condemnation if I can show reasons for the change of opinion; but in this instance I hold Grand Lodge has not done so.

Fraternally and faithfully yours,

L. L.

Digitized by Google

UNIFORMITY OF MASONIC RITUAL AND OBSERVANCE.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—As a loyal subject of the Grand Lodge of England (none more so) I bow with all respect and deference to the decision arrived at on the 3rd inst., at its then Quarterly Communication, although I cannot agree with the policy adopted. I have not far to look for the influence brought to bear in opposition to the vote of 3rd December, which was practically a reaffirmation of the necessity for inquiry acknowledged by the Grand Lodge in 1869-70. The great power of that influence must be generally admitted, and will doubtless, in the minds of very many, be accepted as the primary cause of my present defeat. If it had been used more fairly, and without such evident bias and misrepresentation, I should have been better satisfied as to the merits of the opposition. I do not consider my victors have reason for congratulation in respect of the means used, although they have carried their point at this moment. The fact remains that the principle of the movement has received the sanction of Grand Lodge on three occasions, although its progress is stopped by the adverse vote of the 3rd inst.

I maintain that the proceedings of December 1869 and March 1870 created, according to the Book of Constitutions (page 28), a law which has never been revoked, but which has been indirectly and informally evaded.

It would be impertinent in me to attempt to renew the question in Grand Lodge upon the present data, and until such other circumstances may arise as shall fully justify a further reference to the subject of Uniformity of Working and Unity of Essentials. But "other times, other manners," and the opportunity may yet arrive when those who have prevented the carrying out of the proposed inquiry and report may regret that the Craft generally had not taken advantage of the proffered aid towards that end. Then, if I live so long, shall I hope to be prepared for further efforts, for I cannot bring myself to believe that now the attention of the Craft has been directed to some of the many diversities and innovations, both in respect of working and essentials, members of the Order possessing common sense and reasonable intelligence will permit their long continuance without objection and protest.

Meanwhile I purpose, with your permission, to resume, in your pages, the correspondence which was interrupted in June last, and, from time to time, to submit certain variations in Ritual and practice for the consideration of your readers, and their decision as to "Which is Correct?"

Yours faithfully and fraternally,

JAMES STEVENS P.M. P.Z.

Clapham, 6th March 1880.

BRO. CLABON'S RESOLUTIONS.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I should say there are numbers of brethren who must feel as much surprised as I was at the withdrawal of Bro. Clabon's Resolutions, and will think it little less than farcical that a notice of motion should be formally placed on the agenda paper—more than once be it remembered—and the motion withdrawn, because, forsooth, it was likely to encounter opposition in a certain quarter. If this practice were generally adopted, it would follow, as you said last week, that no proposition should ever be submitted to Grand Lodge, to which it was on the cards that any opposition might be offered. As to these particular resolutions, it was certain there would be considerable differences of opinion, not only as to the advisability of passing them, but likewise as to the possibility, from a constitutional point of view, of doing so. If ten or a dozen years since somewhat similar propositions were referred to a Committee of Inquiry for report, and then fell to the ground in the teeth of a favourable report by that Committee, Bro. Clabon may, or rather perhaps ought to have, felt tolerably certain his recent proposals would be looked at dubiously by some brethren. For nothing to have resulted from a plan that had been well spoken of by those charged with the duty of considering its merits, there must have been a very strong undercurrent of feeling in the Craft, which it appears to me it would have been dignified as well as businesslike on the part of Bro. Clabon to have made allowance for, when he contemplated bringing his pet scheme once again on the carpet. Had he done this, Freemasonry would have been spared the pain of seeing its diet of grave and reverend seigniors put to ridicule. I hold it amounts to this, when a brother is so ill-advised as one day to suggest a plan, and the next day withdraw it, for no stronger reason than was assigned in this case. If there were any virtue in it, then most people must be of opinion that it would have been well to give it due consideration. On the other hand, if there were nothing in it of moment, then it was clearly not worth the trouble of any one to give notice of his intention to bring it forward. It will be difficult for Bro. Clabon to escape from between the horns of this dilemma.

As to the scheme itself, I think it was very good. It may not have been in strict accordance with the constitutional arrangements for administering the Fund of Benevolence. It did not necessarily involve the diversion of any portion of that Fund from its present purpose. It merely proposed that, in the event of there being a surplus, there should be an appropriation of a certain proportion of the same to a special and praiseworthy purpose, which to my mind, is well within the spirit of the law, if not within the letter. No one will deny that this same purpose was a charitable one, though it may not have belonged to that particular order of Charity for which the Fund of Benevolence was originally established, and for this reason, I repeat, it certainly came within the spirit, if not the letter, of the law. On the other hand, in the event of there being no surplus, there could not possibly be any appropriation for the object contemplated. Thus in the one case, that is, where a surplus remained, the Fund of Benevolence would fulfil its original part plus a part since added, while in the other case, that is, where no surplus remained, it would be excusable only as heretofore. It was not even intended that the plan should be retrospective in its operation, so that the accumulated £50,000 would have remained in hand to assist, if necessary, in helping the present class of applicants, in the event of the income of the Fund falling below its ordinary requirements in any year. A large amount is annually spent in relieving this particular form of distress, but in spite of this large expenditure there has, in the course of years, accumulated a sum of £50,000 over and above what has been needed, and as Freemasonry appears to be acquiring numerical strength, there is very little likelihood of the income diminishing. There is a reasonable degree of probability that, in the course of years, the present accumulation will have grown bigger instead of smaller, and the question very naturally arises, Are we to go on heaping up a Reserve Fund out of all proportion to the yearly expenditure, merely because the law says the money must be expended for a special purpose—that and no other? The same power that made the law can amend it, if it is shown there is any call for amendment, and especially when it has been shown that the particular form of amendment which Bro. Clabon thought of proposing could in no wise interfere with the purpose for which the law was made. Again, if Freemasonry does nothing else than remain stationary as regards the number of its adherents, the income of the Fund of Benevolence will remain stationary; that is, will be equal to the annual demands upon it, and will have its £50,000 to fall back upon in the case of accident. If Freemasonry increases numerically, then the income of the Fund increases, and the reserve stands a fair chance of growing likewise; while, if the numerical strength of Freemasonry diminishes, the income of the Fund will diminish, and the number of applicants for assistance stands a fair chance of diminishing likewise. I am afraid there will be found those who think I have not fully considered all the contingencies which may arise, and that I have advanced but indifferent arguments in support of my views as to the character of the scheme which has been proposed. Be it so. I am open to be convinced. But the question I have already propounded in another form remains—Shall we go on adding to the reserve of our Fund of Benevolence any surpluses which may arise, that reserve amounting already to the handsome sum of £50,000; or, at the present rate of expenditure, what would suffice for the demands of about six years, if no dues whatever were paid during that period; or shall we devote part of those surpluses to such admittedly charitable purposes as helping those pupils who on leaving our Boys' and Girls' Schools have no means to help them? Are there, in the opinion of some, insuperable objections to enlarging the scope of the Fund of Benevolence, at the same time that its original object is preserved intact? If there are, let those who think otherwise have at least the opportunity of knowing something about them. Speaking Masonically of course, I am as conservative and as opposed to change for the mere sake of change as any of my brethren, but I do not think I am forbidden to enlarge the sphere of what I have been taught is my duty, if I can do so with perfect security from all harm to the duty itself.

Believe me,

Faithfully and fraternally yours,

ACONISM.

ROYAL MASONIC INSTITUTION FOR BOYS.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

27 Walbrook, E.C., 6th March 1880.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—If you will kindly give space in your valuable paper for the accompanying letter, which I addressed to the General Committee of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys, which met to-day, I shall esteem it a great favour.

I remain, Dear Sir and Brother,

Yours faithfully and fraternally,

S. B. WILSON.

---

27 Walbrook, E.C., 5th March 1880.

To the General Committee of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys.

Brethren and Gentlemen,—I have received the copy of a resolution passed by the House Committee at their meeting on the 20th ult., which will, no doubt, be read to you in extenso from their minutes, referring me back to Mr. Stanley, the Solicitor, who, when the matter was previously placed in his hands, refused to make any appointment to meet my representative.

Now, my account is fully detailed in every item, and any person with the slightest grain of sense can understand it without the slightest further explanation; yet I have written the following letter to Bro. Binckes on the subject, but my representative has not heard from Mr. Stanley:—

"27 Walbrook, E.C., 1st March 1880.

"Dear Sir and Brother,—I am in receipt of your letter, enclosing the copy of a resolution adopted by the House Committee, at a meeting held on the 20th ult., requesting me to furnish various particulars to Mr. Stanley, that he may advise them as to my claim against the Institution. If Mr. Stanley will make an appointment with Mr. Paraire, he, as my representative, will give Mr. Stanley any explanations of my account that may be necessary, and which he would have done any time during the last six months had Mr. Stanley given him the opportunity; but as Mr. Stanley has hitherto either declined or abstained from making an appointment with Mr. Paraire, although repeatedly asked to do so, perhaps you will give him instructions to do so.

"Yours faithfully,

"S. B. WILSON.

"Frederick Binckes, Esq.,
"Secretary Royal Masonic Institution for Boys."

Digitized by Google

What the object of the House Committee can be in treating me in this unfair, unbusinesslike, and un-Masonic manner I cannot imagine, for bear in mind—should this language at first blush appear strong—that at their own request I agreed to refer the matter to a professional man, and I named one who is at the head of the profession, and who cannot possibly have any bias. Moreover, every professional man who has seen my account is of opinion that the charges I have made are less than I might fairly have done.

Of course, as I have appealed to the Quarterly Court, if it is not in your power to see me rigbted, I must wait until their next meeting before taking any further steps in the matter.

I remain, Brethren and Gentlemen,

Yours faithfully and fraternally,

S. B. WILSON.

GRAND LODGE AND BRO. STEVENS' MOTION.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—May I offer a few remarks touching the proceedings in Grand Lodge and your article thereanent in your issue of 6th March?

1. It is scarcely accurate to represent Grand Lodge as a person who has changed his mind between December and March.

The decision of the December Grand Lodge was come to at a comparatively small meeting, and after speeches, which, probably unintentionally, misrepresented historical facts. That decision was reversed in one of the most crowded meetings I can remember, and after those historical misstatements had been exposed.

2. I did not understand the vote of the majority to mean that "everything works satisfactorily, and that uniformity is not of the smallest consequence," but that we protested against the stamping out of local and traditional uses which do not affect the landmarks of Masonry.

Had Bro. Stevens contented himself with asking for a Committee of Inquiry into irregularities, and for correcting the slovenliness and carelessness which unhappily prevail in some Lodges, few brethren probably would have objected. But, most unwisely, his whole speech—a very warm one—was directed against what, to borrow a term, I may call Ritualistic practices. The things which he alleged as causing a necessity for such Committee were not merely careless omissions, but certain ornamental details, survivals mostly of an older and more ornate ritual which still exists in some old Lodges; local uses, things which no doubt are not necessary, or ordered in the present Ritual, but which are entirely harmless, in no way contrary to Masonic propriety; which have never been forbidden, which are picturesque in themselves, and are highly valued as ancient traditional uses in the Lodges where they obtain.

In the course of my Masonic wanderings I have seen most of the things which Bro. Stevens described with so much horror and indignation, and some others besides. To me they were extremely interesting, as were in former days the various local uses of Continental cathedrals before the Romish authorities insisted on an absolute and rigid uniformity, which even yet they have been unable entirely to achieve.

Very possibly the Committee, had it been appointed, would not have interfered with these small details, but it was plainly Bro. Stevens' wish that they should so interfere. Does he suppose that the Lodge of Antiquity, for instance, would quietly submit to have its peculiar use extinguished?

3. I think it a fortunate thing that the rules of Grand Lodge allow the possibility of a hasty decision being reversed by non-confirmation of minutes.

Yours fraternally

A P.G. CHAPLAIN,

P.M., P.Z., P.M.W.S., 32°.

8th March 1880.

LAWS AND THEIR OBSERVANCE.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—The proceedings of the late Grand Lodge furnished several illustrations of the duties of a Chairman, to two of which I venture to ask you to direct particular attention, bearing, as they do, upon the necessity for a strict observance of the Book of Constitutions, and also of the laws of our Charities.

On the question of voting £500 to the Irish Relief Fund, our very esteemed Pro Grand Master, after warmly commending the resolution to the consideration of Grand Lodge, said—"I have to call your attention to an informality, which has crept into the wording of this resolution, which, if I from this chair sanctioned, might be made hereafter a precedent, and lead to very great evil. You will observe that it is said, 'and that the same be at once paid to the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor,' but of course you will remember that every money vote passed by Grand Lodge must be confirmed at the next ensuing meeting, and therefore, as it now stands, this resolution should not be put from this chair. I shall, therefore, propose to leave out the words 'at once.' I hold it to be most expedient that in our Charity, and in our generosity, we should always adhere to the written law of our Constitutions." The Chairman's amendment was unanimously carried.

Again, on the report of the Board of General Purposes, that freehold premises adjoining the Hall had been purchased for £6,500, the Earl of Carnarvon protested against the disregard of the Laws in the following terms:—

"The Constitutions lay down what things the Board of General Purposes may do, and the things they may not do. They have power to provide everything for the use of Grand Lodge, but this does not include the purchase of freehold property. It is quite clear that the Constitutions should not be broken. Rules are laid down for all time, and these laws are not made to be broken. It is my duty to uphold them, and the interests of the Craft in the long run will be the better for it. Looking to these rules, I think it will be necessary to refer this matter to a Committee to consider and advise Grand Lodge on the subject. This was the view I took of the matter as soon as I saw the words on the paper; and I have since had the opportunity of talking the matter over with the Grand Registrar, and also with Bro. Monckton, and they concur in my views." The clause was referred accordingly.

I am, Dear Sir and Brother,

Yours fraternally,

H.

ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND.

A meeting to promote the objects of this Fund was held on Thursday afttrnoon, at Freemasons' Hall. H.R.H. Prince Leopold had consented to preside, but was prevented by the state of his health. Lord Skelmersdale, Deputy Grand Master, presided in his place. Among the other brethren were Lord Rosslyn, Lord Brooke, Bros. Frederick Binckes, the Rev. Dr. Morris, James Terry, Don. M. Dewar, A. E. Gladwell, H. S. Goodall, John Constable, S. Rosenthal, Thomas Cubitt, Robert Roberts, H. M. Levy, William Paas, Charles Frederick Hogard, W. W. Morgan, J. Jacobs, Fred. T. Cronin, Alfred C. Cronin, Thomas Ayling, R. Harrison, W. Hicks, C. Johnstone, A. Durrant, J. F. Pepper, W. Hickman, F. W. Payton, Hugh H. Riach, Thomas Smith, T. Eccleston Gibb, Fentham Hedges, E. J. Potts, H. R. Cooper-Smith, Walter Sowdon, Thomas Meggy, W. S. Somerville Burney, H. Massey, Dick Radclyffe and W. W. Morgan jun. (Secretaries), &c.

The Earl of Rosslyn, in opening the proceedings, read a letter which he had received from H.R.H. Prince Leopold, regretting that the state of his health prevented his attendance. After reading the above letter, he said, if the brethren would allow him, as this business seemed very much to stand in his name, he would make a few observations to the meeting. It might appear that to a certain extent, as a Mason intimately connected with Scotland, having passed some thirty years of his life as a Scotch Mason, and having held the very high office of Grand Master Mason of Scotland, he had no business to mix himself up in the affairs of English Masonry; and, indeed, it was far from his intention to do so. But he was asked to take the chair last year at the Annual Festival of the Royal Masonic Institution for B ys, and in the course of his observations on that occasion he remarked that he had seen no Institution so magnificent, so admirably conducted, and so perfect in all its characteristics in all his Masonic experience; but that he did find a defect in that Institution—a defect which had been pointed out to him by the Head Master, and which he felt sure that the charity, and benevolence, and kindness of Masons would put right very shortly. He little thought then that any observation of his would have led to any so influential or so remarkable a document as that which now lay on the table. These documents were signed by His Royal Highness the Grand Master, by his noble brother on his left (Lord Skelmersdale), by the Earl of Carnarvon—in short, they were signed by names held in deserved respect and affection by Masons, from whatever part of the country they might come. On the strength of such a paper as that the present meeting had been called, over which Prince Leopold had consented to preside. Circumstances over which none of them had any control had prevented His Royal Highness being present; but it was his (Earl Rosslyn's) duty to tell them that matters had not proceeded quite so smoothly as he had hoped. The difficulties with which they had had to contend arose from circumstances induced by a misconception, partly of the motives which prompted the original idea, and partly from the way in which that idea was likely to be carried out. From his own feelings at starting, he thought that little more would have happened than that a supplemental fund would be raised which would be given into the charge of the governing bodies of the Boys' and Girls' Schools, and be left to be administered by them. He considered that it should be entrusted to them, and be under the complete control of the governing bodies of those Charities, and that they would have administered the funds which were raised by the overbonnding kindness and generosity of English Masons. He thought the funds would be administered by these bodies themselves, without any further assistance, and he was still of opinion that such might and should be the case. He was still of opinion that the money which had already been supplied without stint might be safely administered by a committee working under the Committees of the Boys' and Girls' Schools. He had seen a paper with a great list of proposals to make life governors, and to create votes according to the amount of subscriptions, and qualifications and privileges to be given, and so on. Those were suggestions, which aimed at some enthusiastic display of magnificent bounty which he never dreamed of in his wildest moments, and which he thought entirely unnecessary and uncalled for; but he would do anything rather than stint the flow of benevolence, and therefore he would say no more on that subject. He hoped the ideas thrown out on this paper might be taken for nothing more than they were worth, the suggestions merely of a kind-hearted man who drew them up; but his idea was that practically the administration of the Fund would be limited to almost the identical machinery which was now in existence for the Masonic Charities. The brethren were not in any way called upon to do more than supplement those Charities, and he would scarcely have presumed to propose that those Charities should be supplemented were he not aware that they were limited by the very nature of their charter. The charter by which those Charities existed limited their power to certain times and expenses, and did not take into contemplation that further charity would be required for the children when they left the School after the time when their scholastic education had been completed. He had received a letter it was unnecessary for him to quote, from the Chairman, in which he merely embodied what he (Earl Rosslyn) had now stated; but he might mention that the Chairman sent word that he would support such a Charity if it did not interfere with the existing Charities. Now he (Earl Rosslyn) never presumed, or thought, or hoped to interfere with those Charities, which in Scotland —where their bounty was rather of a niggardly character— were the theme of admiration among all Masons. Especially was this the case in regard to the bounty of the Lodge of Benevolence. He had been also favoured with an interview with Lord Carnarvon, with whom he spent some time yesterday. Lord Carnarvon then stated to him that he regretted public duties would prevent his being present at this meeting, but he told him (Earl Rosslyn) he was very clear in defining the scope and limit of all Masonic charity, which was settled and guided by laws and rules already laid down. He (Earl Rosslyn) also mentioned that it had been suggested by a brother that this Association must be registered under the Friendly Societies, Act. Now these were matters for the consideration of the meeting which he did not purpose to bring before it now. Lord Carnarvon agreed with him that this Society should be neither a voting nor a canvassing one; that its officers should all be honorary. At present they were favoured by having an honorary Treasurer, now present, whom they all respected, and in whom they could place the most implicit confidence. Lord Carnarvon also suggested that the funds might be administered by trustees, two or three of whom might be elected annually; and at all events the Governing Committees of the Boys' and Girls' Schools should ex officio form part of the administrative system of this fund. He (Earl Rosslyn) for one was surprised to learn that upwards of 30 or 40 guineas had been promised already as annual donations, without any extensive system of canvassing, or anything of that kind. The fact was, in a matter so small in its object, but so good, private bounty and benevolence would flow in as soon as it was known it was not to be a rival to the existing Charities. He himself believed that those who were able to give a certain sum to these Charities, would add a little more in the hope that that would assist pupils who were in need, and very often in such need that they left the Schools rather deteriorated by the higher education they received there than improved by it. They were unfitted for several occupations of life, their intellect had been augmented, so that they were above engaging in some of the occupations of daily life to which otherwise they would have been suited. The education they received was no doubt highly creditable to the Head Master. The education of this School, with which he was more immediately connected than with the Girls' School, applied equally, no doubt, to the Girls' School, because when girls left that School there were openings for governesses, teachers, instructors in music, instructors in painting, whose occupations really gave a very comfortable livelihood to young women entering upon life, and which a little extra education after leaving the School would enable them to fill—a little household education would enable the girls to take situations in which such an education would be of great service. If these girls showed a superiority in any of these occupations, it seemed a thousand pities that at the end of their School education they should be without any means of carrying it out. He felt that he had occupied the time of the brethren too long, but he was very anxious to come down and explain to them how thoroughly anxious he was not to set up any description of rivalry between this Fund and the existing Charities. He was lost in admiration of the magnificence of the Masonic Charities which English Freemasons supported. The Benevolent Fund of the English Grand Lodge also was one that they could not speak too highly of; but of course these large funds should be administered with care, and no doubt it was necessary that people should speak freely about these things. He thought that the ventilation of such subjects in public must do good. He had been anxious only to do good in bringing forward this scheme, and he thought he might ask the Head Master of the Boys' School to supplement his remarks at once by a few statements such as he made to him (Earl Rosslyn), and which impressed him so much with the necessity for a Fund like this. He regretted if he had put himself forward in a way he should not have done, but it had not been otherwise than from a feeling that all Masons entertained, whether Scotch or English, that they were one great benevolent body, united for the purposes of good, and the more it was widely diffused and known that Freemasons were acting for unselfish ends, the more he was sure would Masonry be extended, and take its rank, as it always had, among the highest and noblest institutions of the country.

Digitized by Google

The Rev. Dr. Morris, in answer to Earl Rosslyn's call, said he should not occupy the time of the meeting at any considerable length. When Lord Rosslyn visited the Boys' School he asked him (Dr. Morris) whether he could give him anything to talk about? He told the noble Earl what they did for the Boys, but that they were not able to give them any assistance when they left the School. First they had boys who had no friends to go to; they received a good education, but if they did not give the boys that, those who had parents could give them a good education at Board Schools for 2d or 4d a week, and there were Scholarships attached to them by which they could go to the Universities. He (Dr. Morris) said we were bound to give the boys a good education; they could not give a lower one than they now gave. It must be also remembered that many boys came into the School so ill prepared that they really did not derive all the benefit of the scheme of education provided, and some left the School far from having this high education which was so much talked about. It was with regard to many of those boys who had been so prepared, but had no friends to look after them, for whom the very best was being done by the Committee. Having no friends, they naturally looked to the Committee to do something for them. The Committee, with the benevolence they exhibited, generally s framed a point, and gave them the full sum of £20 they were authorised to do to apprentice them. They also gave £5 for an outfit. Sometimes a boy went to a remote uncle or aunt, and there remained for some months before he got a situation. He thought the fund they had in contemplation would help those boys for whom the Committee could do no more. Next there were boys of great aptitude, desirous of availing themselves of the education given in the School; boys who distinguished themselves at different examinations, and showed that they were fitted for some superior position. We talked of being called to a certain state, and he thought that call was shown when a boy displayed ability in making use of that knowledge which the School gave him, and desired to make further attempts to develop it. When he did that he should be assisted. There was one such boy, Farmer; when he was in the School he asked to be allowed to go up to a competitive examination where there were 1080 candidates for naval cadetships and engineerships. He went in, and came out ninth. All the others who succeeded had been prepared by special crammers, but he went up only with the education he received in the Masonic Boys' School. That boy did credit to our School. The Government required £25 a-year for three years; but the boy's friends were not able to pay even that. The Committee paid the first £20, Bro. Binckes found the other £5; and next year Bro. Binckes collected the £25. This year he had paid the £25 out of his own pocket. The next was a boy named Bryant, who at School distinguished himself at the Oxford and Cambridge Local Examinations. He showed ability in mathematics and science, and he desired, after leaving the School, to carry on his mathematical studies. The Committee in this matter had granted him the sum of £20, the Supreme Council also contributed for two years £10, and the boy was placed under a Cambridge wrangler. He gained a Scholarship at Sydney Sussex, Cambridge; but for want of Funds was unable to go on. He was now an Assistant Master at a School. He had not disgraced himself, but he had not been able to go to Cambridge University; but he (Dr. Morris) had not yet given up the idea of his going on. He (Dr. Morris) might have put a letter in the Times, stating the circumstances, and he would have got the money in a few days. He had incurred a large debt on behalf of that boy, because the sums contributed were not a tithe of the expenses for books and clothes required, and the boy had no friends to help him. All the burden had fallen on his (Dr. Morris') shoulders and Bro. Smith, who was in the room, and had tried to help him. He thought these cases would show the value of this Association.

Lord Skelmersdale said he was sorry he had no more time to stay. Lord Rosslyn was so very anxious that he should come to this meeting that he could not resist sparing a few minutes to do so. He could endorse what had fallen from Lord Rosslyn's lips. He wrote to Lord Rosslyn, and then expressed his earnest desire that this proposed new Charity should be part and parcel of the present Masonic Charities, and should not be entirely a new thing under entirely new management, now working and with new expenses. They were all agreed upon that. He was happy to find that feeling was so very general, because otherwise he felt he could not support the scheme. As it was, he should be happy to do all in his power to support it. He did not know what was the business on the agenda paper; but perhaps the best course would be now to appoint an honorary Treasurer and adjourn the meeting till His Royal Highness Prince Leopold could attend and state his views on the subject.

The Earl of Rosslyn thought the Rev. C. J. Martyn should be honorary Treasurer and interim Trustee, and take care of the Funds contributed until such time as another and more numerous meeting was held.

Bro. S. Rosenthal seconded the motion, which was put and carried.

Lord Skelmersdale said he had received a telegram from Lord Kensington, M.P., Grand Senior Warden, expressing his regret at his inability to attend the meeting.

The Rev. C. J. Martyn, Deputy Prov. G.M. Suffolk, said that when the subject of this Fund was first mooted to him he felt, what he still felt very strongly, that in this Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund there would be an Institution to supplement the other Charities, which really and truly was very much wanted. It was all very well to educate their boys and girls up to a certain state of efficiency, but if they did so, and then sent them away, they were doing more harm than good, and rendered them powerful for evil instead of for good. Unless the education was directed into a proper channel, it would do more harm than good. With a Fund like this he thought they might get the means to start these young people well in life. There were numbers and numbers of boys and girls who when a certain pitch of education had been reached, might be benefited by such a Fund as this. That was the raison d'etre of this Fund: it was not in any way to clash with the other Charities of Freemasonry, but simply to supplement them, and carry on the work they had so well begun. He should be happy to do anything he could in regard to it, and he stated as much when Bro. Dick Radclyffe spoke to him about it. No doubt being Treasurer would involve some little personal trouble, but that he should be perfectly prepared to undertake, and as long as the Fund was a success, which he thought it would be, he should be quite satisfied and well repaid. He should endeavour to do the best he could for the interest of the trust with which they had invested him, and he hoped that before very long the interim trusteeship would be at an end, and he should be able to hand the fund over.

Lord Skelmersdale said the next business was to appoint an honorary secretary, and he thought they could not do better than choose Bro. Dick Radclyffe, who had hitherto undertaken the whole of the work in connection with this Charity. All the brethren owed Bro. Dick Radclyffe a deep debt of gratitude for his exertions.

Bro. Jacobs (Handsworth) seconded the motion, and thought that if a Committee were also appointed it would be a good thing. He would be able to go to the Lodges in the Province, and ask for subscriptions, because there was a recognised body to receive them.

Bro. Radclyffe was then elected honorary secretary.

Bro. Radclyffe said he was proud to accept the office. It had been somewhat difficult to find a Secretary to undertake the work as it at present stood. However, as he had started the scheme, through the kindness of Lord Rosslyn, he should be very pleased to do all he possibly could to further its objects. In order that there should be no misconception with regard to anything that appeared in the circulars, he begged the brethren to note that in all his correspondence with the Masonic papers it had been his endeavour to get some one to give ideas and suggestions. Among the answers came the suggestion of giving votes and qualifications in right of subscriptions. Many country brethren said they had not a voice in the Charities. The system of giving them a vote for electing their own Committees would give the them a great deal of confidence, and it would give the Committee confidence when they knew they were elected by the subscribers generally.

Digitized by Google

Bro. John White P.M. 228 asked what would be the purpose of the Committee? The Head Master of the Boys' School had stated there had been one or two children on whom the education given in the School had been utterly lost or worthless, because they could not go further on. At first starting the proposed fund seemed to him a proposal for a system which should crush out all self-reliance and self-dependence in every boy educated in the Masonic Boys' School. (No, no.) He was now speaking of what appeared in the circulars. There was no proposal before the meeting, and one of the papers issued stated that this Fund was to be formed to look after the children through life in some form, to buy them commissions in the army, to buy livings in the church, and purchase the goodwill of businesses for them. (No, no.)

Lord Rosslyn, Lord Skelmersdale, Sir D. Gooch, Lord Brooke, the Rev. C. J. Martyn, Colonel Burdett, Bro. Hickman, and the Rev. C. W. Arnold were then elected as the Committee, with power to add to their number.

Bro. John Constable inquired what had been done with the funds already collected? Were they in the bank, or had they been used in defraying expenses? He asked this question because it had been suggested in a Masonic paper that it was time some inquiry was made on the subject.

The Rev. C. J. Martyn said the whole of the money had been paid into the Bank of England, Burlington Gardens. Nothing whatever had been paid out, and could not be paid out without his assistance, and he had not signed a cheque for a farthing. He produced the bank book, and said the amount at the Bank was £108 16s.

A vote of thanks to the Chairman and Lord Rosslyn closed the proceedings.

ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND, 11TH MARCH, 1880.

The following is a list of the amounts subscribed:—

Donations.

	£	s	d
H.R.H. The Prince of Prince of Wales	26	5	0
H.R.H. The Duke of Connaught	20	0	0
H.R.H. Prince Leopld	20	0	0
Rosslyn Right Hon. the Earl of	26	5	0
Clarke Hyde	10	10	0
Egerton The Right Hon. Wilbraham, M.P.	10	10	0
Ferriers Baron de	10	10	0
Guest Montague J.	10	10	0
Martyn Rev. C. J.	10	10	0
Tew T. W., J.P.	5	5	0
Adams Herbert J.	5	0	0
Bagshawe Rev. Augustus A.	5	5	0
Barfield —	1	1	0
Blackburn George	10	10	0
Bodenham J.	5	5	0
Clarke Stephenson	10	0	0
Constable John	10	10	0
Cronin A.	5	5	0
Cronin F. T.	5	5	0
Cousins C.	1	6	0
Davy C. R.	1	1	0
Gibb T. Eccleston	10	10	0
Godfrey Henry	5	5	0
Greenfield John	5	5	0
Higham P.	13	13	0
Higham Mrs. P.	5	5	0
Hopekirk W.	1	1	0
Howkins Thomas	1	1	0
Jacobs G.	5	5	0
James W. H.	1	1	0
Johnson E.	5	5	0
Morris Rev. R.	1	1	0
Neilson James Horner	5	5	0
Pears Andrew	5	5	0
Robinson Rev. George	1	0	0
Short Rev. W. F.	5	5	0
Spice R. P.	5	0	0
Storr E. F.	5	5	0
Stannes P.	2	5	0
Winkfield A.	5	5	0
Wentworth T. J.	5	5	0
Woodward E. C.	10	10	0
Woodward Mrs. E. C.	10	10	0
Morgan W. W. jun.	10	10	0
Radclyffe Dick	20	0	0
The Provincial Grand Lodge of Hampshire and Isle of Wight	10	10	0
Lewis Lodge, No. 1185, Wood Green	5	5	0
Lodge of Economy, No. 76, Winchester	5	5	0
	£377	10	0

Annual Subscriptions.

Hickman W.	1	1	0
Ayling T.	1	1	0
Bagshawe Rev. Augustus A.	1	1	0
Challen Charles	1	1	0
Davy C. R.	1	1	0
Eynon R.	0	10	0
Frere E. T.	0	5	0
Godfrey Henry	1	1	0
Hodges H. Howard	1	1	0
Hopper W.	0	10	0
Johnson H. J.	1	1	0
Miskin H.	0	10	0
Potts E. J.	1	1	0
Pollitzer S.	1	1	0
Ravenshaw Rev. F. F.	1	1	0
Shaw Rev. R. D.	1	1	0
Smith H. R. Cooper	1	1	0
Snolling W. Walton	1	1	0
Taylor T.	1	1	0
Thiollay F. H.	0	10	6
Wentworth T. J.	2	2	0
Adair Lodge, No. 936, Aldborough	1	1	0
Lord Warden Lodge, No. 1096, Deal	1	1	0
St. Luke's Lodge, No. 225, Ipswich	2	2	0
Tranquillity Lodge, No. 185, London	3	3	0
	£27	9	6

Donations	£377	10	0
Annual Subscriptions	27	9	10
	£404	19	6

22 Bedford Place, Russell Square,
London, W.C., 11th March 1880.

I hereby certify that I have examined the Receipt-books of the Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund, and compared them with the Banker's Pass-book, and that the total receipts to this date amount to £110 2s 0d, say one hundred and ten pounds two shillings, of which £108 6s 0d is paid into the Bank, as well as a country cheque for £1 1 0d, and that 15s has been received in postage stamps.

(Signed) THOS. MEGGY,
Public Accountant.

THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT ON NON-CANVASSING CHARITIES.

THE Duke of Cannaught presided on Friday at the anniversary dinner of the Royal Albert Orphan Asylum, held in the large hall of the City Terminus Hotel, Cannon Street. Covers were laid for 150 guests, amongst whom were the Lord Mayor and other distinguished persons. The usual loyal and constitutional toasts having been duly honoured, his Royal Highness, in proposing the toast of the evening, "Prosperity to the Royal Albert Orphan Asylum," said,—This Institution has now been in existence some 16 years, having been opened by her Majesty in 1864. It was stated at the time there was a great want felt of a charity on the non-canvassing system, which would receive thoroughly destitute orphans from all parts of the United Kingdom. To those who were interested, often from the most disinterested motives, in such friendless little ones, it is an immense assistance to be thus saved the expense and trouble of canvassing. To upwards of 700 families this simplicity of system has proved of incalculable benefit, the most deserving and destitute cases having been selected without any loss of time subtracted from the daily labour of friends in endavouring to influence the result of the election; and there are now 220 orphans in the Asylum. The girls are taught all that is requisite to enable them to obtain good situations as domestic servants on leaving the Asylum, and the boys are instructed in different trades, by which they may gain a livelihood when they go out into the world. His Royal Highness said that within the last few weeks, without giving any notice of his intention, he visited the Asylum, and he could bear ample testimony to the admirable state of efficiency in which he found it, reflecting the highest credit upon all who were connected with its management. The Institution depended entirely on voluntary contributions, and he hoped he had shown it was not unworthy of that support for which he pleaded. The toast was heartily drunk. The Secretary read a list of subscriptions, amounting to £1,887, including £100 from the Queen, £25 from the Chairman, £10 from the Lord Mayor, and £5 each from the Sheriffs. General Lysons, in proposing the health of the illustrious Charman, said that the soldiership of his Royal Highness had been no holiday-making. He had deeply and carefully studied the principals of the profession, and had been able to give instruction both to officers and soldiers, which had been of the greatest service to the army. He thought they ought to make up the subscription list to £2000, and, acting on his own suggestion, he added £5 to his former subscription, and several other gentlemen having followed the example, Mr. T. Buck generously gave £100, which made up the aggregate subscription to £2080. Other toasts followed, after which the company separated.—Standard.

The Annual supper of the Dalhousie Lodge of Instruction, No. 860, is announced to take place on Tuesday, 23rd inst., at the Sisters' Tavern, Pownall Road, Dalston, at eight. The Stewards are Bros. Wallington, Dallas, Christian, Clark, Williams, Webb, Wardell, Polak, Welford, Brasted, Baker, Smyth and Fraser. Bro. J. Lorkin, the Hon. Sec., will we are sure give any information that may be required. We wish our friends a pleasant meeting.

Digitized by Google

THE FREEMASONS' TAVERN,

GREAT QUEEN STREET, LONDON, W.C.

The admirable and unrivalled accommodation provided at this Establishment for

MASONIC BANQUETS,

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE DINNERS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, BALLS, &c.

Is too well known to need comment. The entire management has been changed, and the Establishment in all its branches thoroughly re-organised.

The attention of the Masonic Body is directed to the many advantages offered.

CUISINE OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER.

WINES PERFECT IN CONDITION AND QUALITY.

N.B.—DINNERS PROVIDED FROM 3/-.

RESTAURANT, WINE, SMOKING & RETIRING ROOMS.

The fullest measure of public confidence and support ensured.

BRO. ALFRED BEST, PROPRIETOR.

ANDERTON'S HOTEL,

F. H. CLEMOW, PROPRIETOR,

Nos. 162, 164 & 165 Fleet Street, and 7 & 11 Johnson's Court, London.

THE ACCOMMODATION OFFERED AT THIS ESTABLISHMENT FOR

MASONIC MEETINGS, BANQUETS, &c.

IS UNRIVALLED.

THE premises have lately been rebuilt, and in order to maintain the time-honored reputation of the house, as one of the centres of London Freemasonry, special attention has been paid to the furnishing of Lodge quarters, which now comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL

Specially constructed for Masonic purposes, with preparation room adjoining,

A LARGE BANQUET HALL

Fitted with every necessary for the comfort of Visitors, &c., &c.

ROOMS FOR LARGE OR SMALL DINNER PARTIES, MEETINGS, &c.

THE CATHEDRAL HOTEL,

CORNER OF

CHEAPSIDE & ST. PAUL'S CHURCHYARD.

F. J. SWEETING, Proprietor.

LUNCHEON BAR ON GROUND FLOOR FOR LIGHT REFRESHMENTS.

Soups, Fish, Chops, Steaks, Entrées, Cold Joints, &c. from Eight a.m. till Ten p.m.

DINING ROOMS ON FIRST FLOOR.

Hot Joints, &c. from Twelve o'Clock daily.
Dinners a la Carte. Teas, &c.

THE "CATHEDRAL HALF-CROWN DINNER

(Soup, Fish, Joint)
Is served in the Saloon from Twelve till Five daily.

The Smoking Room overlooks the New Gardens round St. Paul's Cathedral.

RIVATE ROOMS FOR SMALL PARTIES, MASONIC AUDITS, &c.

The following Lodges have recently held their Audit Meetings at this Hotel:—GROSVENOR, STANHOPE, POLISH NATIONAL, LA TOLERANCE, &c.

OPENING OF THE CRITERION ANNEXE.

SPIERS & POND respectfully beg to inform their Patrons, that to meet the increasing demands of their business at the Criterion, the premises have been greatly enlarged, by the addition of the above building. The principal features of the New Establishment are as follows:—

The Cafe, comprising—
The American Bar,
The Vienna Bier Saal,

VIANDS FROM THE NEW GRILL. SUPPERS SERVED TILL MIDNIGHT.

Oysters a Specialite.

The Victoria Hall, for Banquets, Balls, Wedding Breakfasts, Soirées, and Entertainments.

The Prince's and Carnarvon Rooms, for Masonic Meetings, Banquets, &c.

Private Rooms, suitable for the meetings of Public and Corporate Bodies, Arbitrations, &c.

The Criterion Departments.

Buffet	For Luncheons and Light Refreshments.
Restaurant	Dinners à la Carte.
Cigar Divan	Facing Piccadilly entrance.
Smoking Room ...	Adjoining the Buffet.
Grill Room	Entrance in Jermyn Street.
West Dining Room	Le Diner Parisien daily from 5.30 till 9 p.m., and on Sundays.
East Dining Room ...	Dinners à la Carte.
The Grand Hall ...	Table d'Hote daily, from 5.30 till 8 p.m. (also on Sundays at 6).
Private Rooms ...	For Dinners, Wedding Breakfasts, &c., &c.

DINNERS FROM THE JOINT from TWELVE to THREE o'clock, CHOPS and STEAKS from the GRILL till FIVE o'clock. T. MAIDWELL, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-st., City, E.C.

Royal Masonic Institution for Girls,

ST. JOHN'S HILL, BATTERSEA RISE, S.W.

Office:—5 Freemasons' Hall, Great Queen Street, London, W.C

Patron and President:
HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES K.G., &c., M.W.G.M.

Patroness:
HER ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCESS OF WALES.

THE NINETY-SECOND ANNIVERSARY FESTIVAL

WILL BE HELD AT

FREEMASONS' TAVERN, LONDON,

ON FRIDAY, 16th APRIL NEXT,

ON WHICH DAY

H.H.H. PRINCE LEOPOLD, K.C., P.G.W.,

R.W. Prov. G.M. for OXFORDSHIRE,

Has graciously signified his intention of presiding.

President of the Board of Stewards—
THE RIGHT HON. THE LORD MAYOR OF LONDON,
W. BRO. SIR FRANCIS WYATT TRUSCOTT, W.M. No. 1.

Acting President—
V.W. BRO. JOHN B. MONCKTON, P.G.D.,
President of the Board of General Purposes.

Treasurer—
W. BRO. E. LETCHWORTH, P. Prov. G.R. Middlesex.

Brethren desirous of accepting the office of Steward upon this auspicious occasion will greatly oblige by forwarding their names as early as convenient to the Secretary, who will gladly give any information required.

F. R. W. HEDGES,
Secretary to Institution,
Hon. Sec. to Board of Stewards.

SAWYER'S (LATE STATION) RESTAURANT,

5 RAILWAY PLACE, FENCHURCH STREET, E.C.

ENGLISH, FRENCH & GERMAN CUISINE.

Hot and Cold Luncheons on the Ground Floor:
This Room will accommodate 100 persons.

CHOPS, STEAKS, &c., FROM THE GRILL;
The Grill Room will seat 150 persons.

REID'S TREBLE STOUT. WORTHINGTON'S ALES,
BERLIN TIVOLI BEER.

TEA AND COFFEE ALWAYS READY.

CHAMPAGNES OF THE BEST BRANDS. OLD BOTTLED PORTS.
SHERRIES AND OTHER WINES OF THE BEST QUALITY.

Bro. F. J. SAWYER, Proprietor.
Late of Pimm's, and the Crystal Palace.

FISH DINNERS IN PERFECTION

2S EACH, including Soups, Entrées, Poultry, Joints, Cheese, Salad, Served from 12 to 4 daily.—GEORGE TAVERN, Billingsgate Market.
Sole Proprietor, GEORGE SMITH, from Anderton's Hotel.

VITRUVIAN LODGE, No. 87.

BRO. ISAAC, who has for some time past provided for the requirements of this Lodge, begs to announce that he has obtained permission for the removal of his license to the Belvedere-road, and that he has erected commodious premises there. These comprise

A SPACIOUS MASONIC HALL,
WITH ANTE ROOMS,
LARGE BANQUETTING HALL,

Together with every convenience for Masonic gatherings.

Applications from Secretaries and others for accommodation to be addressed.

G. ISAAC, "WHITE HART," COLLEGE STREET, LAMBETH, LONDON, S.E.

Ninth Edition, post free, One Shilling.

DR. WATTS on ASTHMA. A Treatise on the only Successful Method of Curing the Disease. By ROBERT G. WATTS, M.D., F.R.S.L., &c., 5 Bulstrode-street, Cavendish-square, London.
London: MITCHELL AND CO., Red Lion-court, Fleet-street.

FREEMASONS' CALENDAR and POCKET-BOOK, containing a complete list of all the regular Lodges and Royal Arch Chapters, with their places and times of meeting. Published for the benefit of the Charity Fund, under the sanction of the United Grand Lodge of England. May be had from W. W. Morgan jun., FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, London, W.C. Price 2s, post free.

Digitized by Google

FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE

23 GREAT QUEEN STREET, W.C.

MARK MASONRY IN NORTH AFRICA.

A MEETING of the Kingston Lodge, No. 222, was held at the Masonic Hall, Tunis, on the 24th January last. Present—Worshipful Bro. Pentecost W.M.M., Dr. Perini S.W., Soniller J.W., M. Le Gallais M.O., V. Clement S.O., D. Enriquez as J.O., Dr. Pace-Williams Secretary, J. Barsotti Treas., J. B. Cassar S.D., A. Bokobsa J.D., A. Lumbroso Steward, Commander Bridger, R.N., Organist, T. Boccara I.G., and J. Eymon Tyler. The R.W. P.G.M.M.M. was also present, The following brethren were advanced (after election by ballot) :—Bros. Captain R. A. Johnstone and J. Lumbroso 1717, and S. Sessing of the Belisaire Lodge, Algiers. The P.G.M. addressed the brethren on the topic of his recent visit to England, alluding particularly to the fraternal reception he had from the brethren of the Mark. He invited the brethren of No. 222 to assist him at the inauguration of the St. Louis Mark Lodge, No. 254, which was fixed to take place at the Goletta on the 31st January. The Lodge was then adjourned till the 14th February. On the 31st January a goodly number of brethren assembled in the Masonic Hall, Goletta, to witness the consecration of the new Lodge, constituted under the auspices of the Craft Lodge William Kingston, No. 1835, which has greatly prospered during its brief career, and numbers over thirty members. Its founders have always hoped to open a Mark Lodge as soon as circumstances would permit, and soon felt themselves justified in applying for a warrant to Grand Mark Lodge through the P.G.M., who granted a provisional charter for the opening of the Lodge. The new Lodge is called the St. Louis (after the celebrated French king who died in the immediate neighbourhood of the Goletta, 25th August 1270), and an Ark Mariners' Lodge will be attached to it, named after Charles V., who besieged the town of Goletta, together with the troops of the Knights of Malta, in 1535. A Mark Lodge was opened at 6.30 p.m. Present —R.W. Bro. A. M. Broadley P.G.M.M.M. as W.M., W. Bro. G. Pentecost W.M. 222 P.G.J.W. S.W., Bros. S. Soniller P.G. Asst. Sec. J.W., M. Le Gallais M.O., S. Sessing S.O., Captain Johnstone J.O., V. C. Clement P.G.S.W. D.C., A. Attard Sec. and R. of M., L. Curletto S.D., J. E. L. Barker J.D., O. Engerer I.G., and Commander Bridger Organist, together with several other brethren. The following candidates were duly elected, viz. :—Bros. Sir William R. Clayton, Bart., of the Isaac Newton University Lodge No. 859, and W. Vaux, S. Morana, S. Durazzano, J. Villareale, L. Coppi, S. Angelica, N. D'Amico, J. Catalano, A. Pagano, and A. Romian, of Lodge No. 1835, at the Goletta. All the candidates, being in attendance, were duly advanced by the P.G.M. to the honourable degree of M.M. The petition to Grand Lodge and Prov. Grand Lodge having been read, together with the provisional warrant for the constitution of the new Lodge, the P.G.M. addressed the assembled Mark Masters as follows :—Brethren,—Here, within the precincts of the ancient city of Carthage, we are assembled to inaugurate a new Mark Lodge, and according to ancient custom to award a mark of our approval to several of our brethren who have worked well and faithfully in Craft Masonry. The William Kingston Lodge, true to the early traditions of the royal art, has attached to it this Mark Lodge, "that we may distinguish the work of each artisan in order that he may receive just and suitable compensation." To confer this distinction on the worthy Craftsman has been the prerogative of the rulers in Masonry from time immemorial, and this evening we have had the privilege of advancing to the Mark Degree ten brethren of the young but flourishing Craft Lodge No. 1835. I congratulate this Province, and at the same time the Grand Mark Lodge of England, on the accession to their common muster roll of the St. Louis Lodge, surrounded as it is by unrivalled associations of almost surpassing interest. The Grand Mark Lodge has viewed with satisfaction the establishment of modern speculative Mark Masonry on this classic North African soil, and this feeling will, I am sure, be intensified and increased by the knowledge that we of the Mark are now diligently working on the actual site of that far-famed city which witnessed in the time of its pristine splendour the bravery of Hannibal, the patriotism of Asdrubal, the skill of Scipio, the courage of Regulus and the stoicism of Cato; and which saw, during the days of its decline and fall, the labours of St. Augustine, the martyrdom of St. Cyprian, the death of St. Louis of France, and the exploits of Charles V. of Spain and the Knights of St. John. I feel it a high honour as P.G.M.M. of Tunis and Malta to consecrate this Lodge to-night in the midst of that shore where

> Giace l'alta Cartago, appena i segni
> Dell' alto sue ruine il lido serba.
>
> [Tasso.]

The greatest edifices in the greatest cities of the world owe their existence to guilds or companies of builders. Pre-eminent amongst these old-world Masons were the Phœnicians. Bro. Fort, in his "Antiquities of Freemasonry," tells us of Masons' marks still visible on the foundations of the temple of Solomon, now uncovered to the human gaze after the lapse of ages. Similar marks have been discovered at Sidon, and other distant and varied localities of Palestine. These peculiar geometrical figures were used undoubtedly by the Tyrian carvers and "hewers of stone," who were sent by their Tyrian king to aid in the erection of the most complete and gorgeous Masonic work of remote antiquity. The descendants of these very builders barely two centuries later founded Carthage, and carried westwards the skill and peculiar customs of their confraternities. The marks we can see to-day on many a fragment of the ruins around us, exactly correspond with those of Jerusalem and other cities in the far East. They are part and parcel of a system; an integral portion the working of those ancient operative guilds, which have laid the foundations upon which in the present day the great fabric of speculative Masonry may be said to rest. Carthage fell. The city of the Roman conquerors became the prey of the Vandals, who in their turn succumbed to the forces of the Byzantines; but traces of the old builders' customs survived, and were carried, strange to say, by the Byzantine masons to northern Europe. Hence the striking and remarkable uniformity in the tokens which still exist to-day in the walls of Sidon and Jerusalem, and the ruins of Carthage and Utica; in the abbeys of Melrose and Rosslyn, and in the cathedrals of Strasbourg and Cologne, of Florence and Venice. These marks doubtless served for the purposes of proprietary distinction amongst the earliest of oriental artificers—the Phœnicians; the Romans and Byzantines adopted a similar system, and hence the custom of the mark spread far and wide amongst the builders' associations of mediæval Europe. These guilds of operative Masons have passed away, bequeathing to speculative Masonry their emblems, traditions and ceremonies, and amongst these the degree of the Mark. You have all learned from the ceremony the moral to be deduced from this observance of our ancestors. I need not now further allude to it. Suffice it to say that the Mark degree is an essential part of the Masonic systems of America, Ireland and Scotland, and we trust the day is not far distant when it may be recognised by our own Craft Grand Lodge. To-night, after the lapse of centuries, we may be said to have restored the practice of the Mark to Carthage. May we imitate the industry and assiduity of our operative ancestors, and as they devoted their skill and ability to the material edifices of the past, so may we endeavour to profit by the striking truths and practical lessons illustrated by the ceremonial they have bequeathed to us, and shaping our lives and actions on the teaching it conveys, become worthy of that approving mark which can belong only to those who have acted towards their fellows as they would desire their fellow-men would act towards them, and have based their conduct through life on the sacred Masonic principles of Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth. The Lodge was then constituted in ancient form, and Bro. J. E. L. Barker W.M. 1835 installed in the chair of A. The W.M.M. appointed and invested the following Officers :—Bros. E. They S.W., L. Curletto J.W., O. Engerer M.O., A. Attard S.O., S. Durazzano J.O., W. Vaux Secretary, A. Romian S.D., N. D'Amico J.D., A. Villareale I.G. and A. Pagano Tyler (elected). The P.G.M. was elected Treasurer. The charitable collection being made, with a very satisfactory result, the Lodge was duly closed. The proceedings terminated with a banquet, at which the P.G.M. presided. The usual obligatory toasts of the Mark degree were duly honoured, and the W.M. of the St. Louis Lodge proposed the health of the P.G.M., which was most warmly received. The P.G.M. in reply thanked the brethren for their kindly feelings towards him, and asked them to drink "Success to the new Mark Lodge." The President proposed the toast of the newly advanced brethren, coupled with the name of Bro. Sir William Clayton. The toast having been duly honoured, Sir William Clayton expressed his satisfaction at renewing his active connection with Masonry in the St. Louis Lodge, and added that he was deeply impressed both with the interest and importance of the Mark degree, and with the way the ceremony had been worked by the P.G.M. Other toasts having been given and responded to, the brethren separated, highly pleased with the evening they had spent, and with mutual congratulations on the introduction of the Mark Degree to the modern Masons inhabiting the site of Ancient Carthage.

ARK MARINERS' DEGREE,

THE Charles V. Lodge, attached to the St. Louis Lodge of Mark Masters, No. 254 at Goletta, in the Regency of Tunis, was formally consecrated by the P.G.M.M. Bro. Broadley, the W.C.N., on the 28th February 1880. The following are the first Officers of the Lodge :—Bros. J. E. L. Barker J., E. They S., O. Engeror Scribe and Treasurer, L. Curletto S.D., A. Attard J.D., A. Villareale D. of C., A. A. Romian Steward, W. Vaux Guardian, and A. Pagano Warder. Twelve M.M.'s were duly exalted to the honourable and ancient degree of Ark Mariner. Amongst those who have taken the degree in the Lodge are Bros. Perini W.M. 1717 S.W. 222 P.G.S.O.M.M., Capt. R. A. Johnstone 222, S. Sessing 222, Commander Bridger, R.N., 222, and G. Pentecost W.M. 222 P.G.J.W.M.M. The ceremonies having been successfully gone through, and the Officers duly invested, the W.C.N. alluded briefly to the historical interest of the degree, and the reasons which induced him to recommend the Lodge to be called the Charles V. This famous monarch, aided by the Knights of Malta and their fleet, took the Goletta on the 14th July 1535. The W.C.N. mentioned incidentally that a Flemish artist in the Emperor's train executed six pictures of the battles, &c., which took place, in three of which the Goletta is the principal object of interest. The great carraca of the Knights of St. John appears in the centre. These pictures were discovered by the late Prince Consort, and have been photographed by permission of the Queen. The Lodge was closed at a somewhat late hour.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.—These corrective remedies enable the strong to preserve their health, and afford an easy means for the weak and ailing to restore it. Working at high pressure as thousands daily do, to support life, it is but little wonder that the digestion becomes defective, the heart irritable, the bowels constipated, and the mental faculties damned. Let all such sufferers apply themselves at once to these medicaments, and use them according to the plain directions which accompany them: then the disordered functions will soon respond to their action, and the physical and mental powers will be quickly recuperated, producing a feeling of lightness and ease which in itself is worth its weight in gold.

Digitized by Google

COL. W. J. B. MACLEOD MOORE,

GREAT PRIOR OF CANADA, G. C. T., AND 33° A. AND A. S. RITE FOR CANADA.

A Biographical sketch of this well-known Mason and distinguished Templar appeared several years ago in the columns of a Masonic paper in the United States, as also subsequently in the Canadian Craftsman, and we are now indebted to one of our Canadian correspondents for the following corrected record to the present time.

Colonel Macleod Moore was born in the Co. Kildare, Ireland, on 4th January 1810. The son of an old military officer who had served under Wellington in his early career in India, during the whole of the Mysore and Maharatta campaigns, being present at the siege of Seringapatam and memorable battle of Assaye, where he was so severely wounded as to oblige him to retire from active service. He was the last descendant of an old military Anglo-Irish family, his three brothers and five nephews—(sister's sons)—dying in the military service of the Crown. The family first settled in Ireland, from Dorset, England, during the Commonwealth. His great grandfather, Colonel William Moore, a distinguished parliamentary Officer, having obtained from Oliver Cromwell, for his services in Ireland, a grant of the lands of Saleston, in the Co. Meath, adjoining Carton, the ancestral seat of the Fitzgeralds, Dukes of Leinster. We find mention made of this Colonel Moore in Edward Long's history of Jamaica, published in 1774,—"As having embarked on the 14th October 1656, for Jamaica in command of a regiment from Carrickfergus. That he was driven back to Ireland by a storm, but reached Jamaica in 1657, and was Governor there some time before his death. He was unquestionably a good soldier, an honest man, and most indefatigable in the duty to which he was appointed. By his judicious government, spirited behaviour and prudent measures, he won the affections of the army, and advanced further than all his predecessors towards establishing the Colony. For which reasons he was most deservedly respected whilst living, and honoured when dead.

The subject of our sketch inherits his name of MacLeod from that of his paternal grandmother. His grandfather, Captain Gustavus Moore [18th R. Irish], of Saleston House, Co. Meath, married Amelia, only daughter of Norman John MacLeod, of Dunvegan Castle, Isle of Skye, Chief of the MacLeods of MacLeod, by his first marriage with Jannet, daughter of Sir Donald Macdonald, Bart., of Slate, the ancient Lords of the Isles, and now Barons Macdonald in the Peerage of Ireland.

Colonel MacLeod Moore received his early education in the city of Aberdeen, Scotland, and was a student at the Marischal College in 1824-5,—the famed Alma Mater of Scott's "Dugal Dalgetty," from whence he was sent to the Royal Military College of Sandhurst, England, and subsequently obtained an Ensigncy in H.B.M.'s 69th Regiment, with which he served for upwards of twenty years, and was then selected by the War Office as first class staff Officer in Canada to organize and enrol the Chelsea and Greenwich out pensioners and form the Bytown and Kingston Pension Districts. He arrived in Canada in August 1852, and was stationed at Bytown, now Ottawa, until October 1857, when retiring from the service of the regular army to become a settler in Canada, he was appointed by the Governor-General, Lord Elgin, at the commencement of the volunteer movement, to command the whole active force of Ottawa, which position he held for some years, until he left that part of Canada. On the visit of H.H. the Prince of Wales, to lay the foundation stone of the present Parliament buildings, the force under his command had the honour of being selected to form the guards of honour in attendance on the Prince during his stay in the city.

Colonel MacLeod Moore was for many years stationed in the West Indies and Mediterranean, and filled important offices, both on the regimental and general staff of the army. He is the author of several papers on Military subjects,—favourably noticed in the Military journals, particularly a Treatise on the Practical use of the broad sword and bayonet fencing, being early noted for his proficiency in all athletic exercises, and his skill as a swordsman, well known in the army and the Salle d'Armes of his time both at home and abroad.

We will now turn to his connection with the Craft and introduction of the Templar and other Orders of Freemasonry into Canada, commencing from his being first brought to Masonic light, which took place at the early age of seventeen years, receiving the three degrees of Craft Masonry at the same time, on the 17th August, in 1827 (in company with his early school-boy friend, John Hill Burton, now well known in the literary world as the "Historian of Scotland"). At a special Lodge held in the Mansion house of the R.W. Brother Major-General Sir Alex. Leith, K.C.B., W. Master of the Glenkindie Lodge, No. 333, Aberdeenshire,—on Registry of the Grand Lodge of Scotland.

Early in 1831, he was exalted in the St. Machar's Royal Arch Chapter, No. 37, held in the city of Aberdeen; and in 1843, when with his regiment in Dublin, we learn that he joined the St. Patrick's Lodge and Chapter, No. 50, as also the Victoria Mark Lodge No. 4,—all on the Registry of Ireland. In the following year he was installed a High Knight Templar and Knight of Malta, in the Encampment attached to Lodge 242, held in the town of Bayle, Co. Roscommon, Ireland, of which Lodge he was elected and served as Senior Warden.

In the Island of Malta, during the year 1847, he was affiliated under the Grand Lodge of England, in the St. John and St. Paul's Lodge, No. 43, city of Lavaletta, and in 1849 installed W. Master. This Lodge, the oldest on the Island, being instituted by Judge Waller Rodwell Wright (a former Grand Master of the Masonic Templars of England) on the 12th of April 1815, at the Hope Tavern, Strada Mezzodi, Lavaletta. A Masonic Lodge, it has been ascertained, had existed in the last century on the Island, for a short time, under the protection of the Knights of Malta, but was suppressed by order of the Pope, and the members dispersed.

Bro. Macleod Moore was also a member of the Union of Malta Lodge 588, and the Royal Arch Chapter, of which he was third Principal J.; and here on the Island of Malta, the last refuge of the Knights of St. John, he established the first Knights Templar Encampment in connection with Freemasonry ever held on the Island—the Melita. A warrant of confirmation being granted to him by the Grand Conclave of England and Wales, on the 10th of March 1850, although the Sup. Grand Master, Col. Kennys Tynte, was at first doubtful whether he could exercise jurisdiction out of England, Grand Conclave having been only revived in 1846, after many years inactivity.

In May 1852, at the Grand Conclave held in London, the Grand Master in person installed our Bro. Knight Second Grand Captain of the Grand Conclave.

At Kingston, Canada West, in 1854, he joined the St. John Lodge, No. 491, and Ancient Frontenac Royal Arch Chapter No. 1, and was elected to the chair of H. It was here he learned that an old Masonic Knights Templar Encampment, called St. John, long dormant, had been attached to the Lodge and Chapter. On examining the warrant it appeared to have been issued in 1824, by the self-constituted authority of the Provincial Grand Superintendent of Royal Arch Masonry for Upper Canada, R. Excellent Companion Ziba M. Philips. A petition was therefore drawn up, forwarding with it this irregular warrant, to the Grand Conclave of Knights Templar in England and Wales, when a new one was issued under the title of the "Hugh de Payens," nominating Sir Kt. Captain MacLeod Moore the first Grand Commander. From this Encampment (which, by a resolution of the Sup. Grand Conclave, of 10th May 1855, was permitted to rank in the Grand Conclave from the 24th September 1824, the date of the surrendered warrant) the first establishment of the Templar Order in Canada on a constitutional basis took place. To commemorate this event, the late Sir Knight Major General Alexander Gordon, Royal Engineers, instituted for members of the Encampment an order of merit, to be called The Gordon Order of twelve crosses, eleven consisting of silver and one of gold, the latter to be held by our Brother MacLeod Moore for life. The Sup. Grand Master, Colonel Tynte, also appointed him Provincial Grand Commander of Knights Templar in Canada, and his representative, which position he retained until the year 1868, when his Patent was changed, under the Grand Mastership of Colonel William Stuart, to that of Grand Prior of the United Orders of the Temple and Hospital for the Dominion of Canada, and he was presented by the Grand Master with a beautiful star and enamelled badge of his office.

Referring back to 1854 we see he was elected S.G. Warden of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Canada, and in that year founded the Corinthian Lodge, of Ottawa, of which he was installed W. Master. In December 1859, by his exertions, the Carleton Royal Arch Chapter was opened there, when he was chosen First Principal Z.

At the Grand R.A. Chapter, held in Toronto 1863, he was nominated to the Chair of H. as second G. Principal of the G.R. Arch Chapter of Canada. In the early part of this year he went to the United States to witness the operations of the Northern army during the war, and when in New York obtained all the Degrees of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, receiving a patent from the Illus. Bro. Edward Hays, S. G. Council 33°, empowering him to establish the Rite in Canada, with the rank of a Deputy Inspector General, 33°, and representative from the Sup. Council, Northern jurisdiction of the United States, and was acknowledged as such when the treaty of union in May 1867 took place between the two Grand Councils of New York and Boston, merging into one Supreme Grand Council, 33°, for the Northern jurisdiction United States. The Rite, however, was not regularly established in Canada until 1868, when the English Grand Council, 33°, who had asserted a claim to jurisdiction over all the possessions of the British Crown, affiliated him as a member and appointed him their representative, when the A. and A. S. Rite was formally established in the Dominion, and which is now, since his retirement from office and formation of a Supreme Grand Council, 33°, for Canada, ruled by his successor, Illus. Bro. Thomas D. Harington, as Sovereign Grand Commander.

In 1869, soon after the revival of the "Red Cross Order of Rome and Constantine" in England, our Brother was appointed by the Grand Sovereign, Lord Kenlis, representative and Chief Intendant General for the Dominion, and was elected a Past Grand Viceroy of the Grand Council in England. He established also, in 1871, the Degree of "Royal Ark Mariners," and in this year was elected a Past M.P.G. Master of the Grand Council "Royal and Select Masters" for New Brunswick. In May 1872, he introduced the Swedenborgian Rite, having received a Warrant of Constitution from the Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Samuel Beswick, and the Supreme Grand Lodge and Temple of the United States, constituting him the M.W. and S.G. Master of the Lodge and Temple for Canada. From this Body the present Grand Lodge and Temple of the Rite in England derives its existence. Our brother is a member of the Royal Order of Scotland, and known by his characteristic of "Propriety," and registered in the Mother Grand Lodge of Scotland, May 1875, on the establishment of a Provincial Grand Lodge, for Ontario. He also, in that year, founded a College of the Rosicrucian Society in Canada, of which he is IX° and Supreme Magus, deriving authority direct from H.I. Highness the Prince of Rhodocanakis, IX, 33°, of Athens, Grand Master of Masons of Greece, and the Supreme Magus of that kingdom. He is also an Honorary Member of the Northern College of England.

At the reconstruction of the Templar Order in England, consequent upon a convention between the Order in England, Scotland, and Ireland, in 1867 and 1868, the general statutes were revised, but making no material alteration in the internal organization of either country, nor otherwise beyond the nomenclature, as taken from historical authority. H.R.H. the Prince of Wales, having been unanimously elected Grand Master of the whole Order, was installed at a Convent General of the United Orders on the 7th April 1873. Each nationality continuing to be a separate and independent body, framing its own laws, and governed by a Great Prior, to whom the Grand Master delegated his authority, within the limits of their jurisdiction. At his installation His Royal Highness announced that Her Majesty the Queen was graciously pleased to say she would become Patron of the Order, and he instituted the honorary ranks of Grand Crosses and Commanders, appointing a certain number of each.

Digitized by Google

Colonel MacLeod Moore had the honour of being nominated one of the Grand Crosses, the number being limited to twenty-one, of which six were royal personages, including the Emperor of Germany and King of Sweden. A memorial, forwarded from the Provincial Grand Priory of Canada to His Royal Highness, praying to be formed into an independent or National Great Priory, received favourable attention, but owing to the protracted absence from England of the Prince, and the death of the Duke of Leinster, Great Prior of Ireland, considerable delay occurred in the transaction of important business connected with the Order. On the 10th August 1875, at Montreal, Province of Quebec, the Provincial Grand Priory of Canada, was declared a National Great Priory by patent from the Prince of Wales, and Bro. Colonel MacLeod Moore by commission and mandate installed Great Prior of the United Orders of the Temple and Malta for the Dominion of Canada, thus attaining one of the most distinguished positions that could be conferred upon him. In Ancient Craft Masonry, in Capitular Cryptic Masonry, in the Chivalric Orders, and in the 33 degrees of the A. A. Scottish Rite, our Brother has worked zealously and faithfully; and especially during the early days of Masonry in Canada, overcame difficulties that would have daunted a less determined, less enthusiastic brother. Ambition with him meant a determined desire to spread the true principles of Masonry abroad in all his journeyings, and if honours in plenty have been conferred upon him, they have been honourably won, and have been used commendably as ends to promote still further the best interests of the Masonic society. Our distinguished Brother having from a laudable curiosity in search of light, made himself conversant with nearly all the various rites and degrees attached to Ancient Craft Masonry, he has found much to commend, and to those who have leisure to devote to their history and symbolism, considers valuable information to be gained, but outside from this, of no particular utility whatever. Believing Craft Masonry, including the Royal Arch, the only true and genuine Freemasonry, all other degrees and rites mere modern parasites on the Craft; in fact, all innovations, equally legitimate and equally spurious,—but all legitimate so far that it is lawful for a Master Mason to acquire any or all of them. All spurious, as true Masonic degrees, from the fact that none of them are required or acknowledged by the Craft Grand Lodge, the only really supreme governing Masonic Body. He looks upon the A. and A. S. Rites, in its modern reformed work, as of a stately and refined character, calculated to interest the Masonic student, but, like all the others, possessing no practical useful knowledge, or having any authority beyond itself. Of the Templar Order, he has always been an enthusiastic admirer, as having more reality than the other bodies adopted by the Craft, and capable of being brought into vigorous life by giving it more of the spirit of chivalry, purifying it from the modern innovations, that had no place in the Ancient Order, introduced to assimilate and amalgamate its chivalric character with the usages of the Craft.

In conclusion, our Brother, Colonel MacLeod Moore is an Honorary Masonic Corresponding Member of various degrees in different countries. He is an Active Member of the Supreme Grand Council, 33 degree, for Canada; an Honorary Member of the Supreme Grand Council of the Northern and Southern jurisdiction, United States and Ireland; representative of the Supreme Grand Council of England and Kingdom of Greece; he is also Great Prior of the National Great Priory of Canada, and an Associate Honorary Chevalier of the non-Masonic Order of St. John of Jerusalem in England.

DIARY FOR THE WEEK.

We shall be obliged if the Secretaries of the various Lodges throughout the Kingdom will favour us with a list of their Days of Meeting, &c., as we have decided to insert only those that are verified by the Officers of the several Lodges.

—:o:—

SATURDAY, 13th MARCH.

108—London, Ship and Turtle, Leadenhall Street, E.C.
188—Percy, Jolly Farmers' Tavern, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
1364—Earl of Zetland, Naes Head, Mare-street, Hackney, at 7 (Instruction)
1391—Commercial, Freemasons Hall, Leicester
1428—The Great City, Cannon-street Hotel, E.C.
1556—Addiscombe, Surrey Club, West Croydon
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
1671—Mizpah, Albion Hotel, Aldersgate-street
1743—Perseverance, Imperial Hotel, Holborn Viaduct.
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8
R.A. 308—Affability, Station House Hotel, Bottoms, Stansfield

MONDAY, 15th MARCH.

1—Grand Master's, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
45—Strong Man, New Market Hotel, West Smithfield, at 8 (Instruction)
58—London Masonic Club Lodge of Instruction, 191 Queen Victoria-street, at 6
174—Sincerity, Railway Tavern, London-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
180—St. James's Union, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
185—Tranquillity, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
720—Panmure, Balham Hotel, Balham.
1206—St. John of Wapping, Gun Hotel, High-st., Wapping, at 8 (Instruction)
1425—Hyde Park, The Westbourne, Craven-rd., Paddington, at 8 (Instruction)
1445—Prince Leopold, Mitford Tavern, Sandringham-road, Dalston, at 8 (Inst.)
1489—Marquess of Ripon, Pembury Tavern, Amhurst-rd., Hackney, at 7.30 (In.)
1623—West Smithfield, New Market Hotel, King-st., Snow-hill, at 8 (Inst.)
1625—Tredegar, Royal Hotel, Mile End-road, corner of Burdett-road (Inst.)
1804—Kingsland, Canonbury Tavern, Canonbury, N., at 7 (Instruction)
1805—New Finsbury Park, Plimsoll Arms, St. Thomas Road, at 8 (Instruction)
M. M.—Old Kent, Treadero, Bread Street Buildings, E.C. at 6.30 (Instruction)

77—Freedom, Clarendon Hotel, Gravesend
294—York, Masonic Hall, York
331—Charity of Honour and Prudence, Public Rooms, Truro
359—Peace and Harmony, Freemasons' Hall, Southampton
382—Royal Union, Checquers Hotel, Uxbridge.
424—Tynemouth, Half Moon Hotel, Gate-head
491—Mercy, George Hotel, Stamford Baron, Northampton
822—St. Cuthbert's, Masonic Hall, Wimborne
725—Stoneleigh, King's Arms Hotel, Kenilworth
820—Ally of Richmond, Greyhound, Richmond, at 7.30 (Instruction)
823—Everton, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
925—Bedford Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham
934—Merit, Derby Hotel, Whitefield.
985—Alexandra, Masonic Hall, Holbeach.
1030—Egerton, George Hotel, Wellington Road, Heaton Norris, near Stockport
1037—Portland, Portland Hall, Portland.
1141—Mid Sussex, Assembly Rooms, Horsham.
1170—St. George, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester.
1199—Agriculture, Honey Hall, Congresbury.
1209—Corinthian, Royal Hotel, Pier, Dover.
1449—Royal Military, Masonic Hall, Canterbury, at 8 (Instruction)
1503—Israel, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
R. A. 139—Paradise, Freemasons' Hall, Surrey-street, Sheffield.
R. A. 345—Perseverance, Old Bull Hotel, Blackburn
R. A. 482—St. James, New Inn, Handsworth
R. A. 779—St. Augustine, Town Hall, Ashby-de-la-Zouch
R. A. 1051—Rowley, Masonic Rooms, Athenæum, Lancaster
K. T.—Edmund Plantagenet, Knowsley Hotel, Haymarket-street, Bury.

TUESDAY, 16th MARCH.

Board of General Purposes, Freemasons' Hall, at 4.
30—United Mariners, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
55—Constitutional, Bedford Hotel, Southampton-bldgs., Holborn, at 7 (Inst.)
66—Prosperity, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
73—Mount Lebanon, Bridge House Hotel, Southwark.
95—Eastern Star, Ship and Turtle, Leadenhall-street, E.C.
141—Faith, 2 Westminster Chambers, Victoria-street, S.W., at 8 (Inst.)
177—Domatic, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
194—St. Paul, City Terminus Hotel, Cannon-street, E.C.
554—Yarborough, Green Dragon, Stepney (Instruction)
753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
857—St. Mark, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
890—Dalhousie, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1044—Wandsworth, Star and Garter Hotel, St. Ann's-hill, Wandsworth (Inst.)
1349—Friars, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1360—Royal Arthur, Prince's Head, Battersea Park, at 8 (Instruction)
1420—Earl Spencer, Swan Hotel, Battersea Old Bridge, S.W.
1446—Mount Edgcumbe, 19 Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1471—Islington, Three Bucks, 23 Gresham-street, E.C., at 7 (Instruction)
1472—Henley, Three Crowns, North Woolwich, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1507—Metropolitan, Moorgate Station Restaurant, E.C., at 7.30 (Instruction)
1558—D. Connaught, Palmerston Arms, Grosvenor Park, Camberwell, at 8 (In.)
1602—Sir Hugh Myddelton, Crown and Woolpack, St. John's-st.-rd., at 8 (In.)
1707—Eleanor, Trocadero, Broad-street-buildings, Liverpool-street, 6.30 (Inst)
R. A. 933—Doric, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
R. A. 1365—Clapton, White Hart Tavern, Clapton, at 8. (Instruction.)
Metropolitan Chapter of Improvement, Jamaica Coffee House, Cornhill, 6.30.

117—Wynnstay, Raven Hotel, Shrewsbury, at 8 (Instruction)
213—Perseverance, Masonic Hall, Theatre-street, Norwich.
241—Merchants, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 6.30 (Instruction)
248—True Love and Unity, Freemasons' Hall, Brixham, Devon
384—St. David, Masonic Rooms, Bangor.
414—Union, Masonic Hall, Reading
418—Menturia, Mechanics' Institute, Hanley.
468—Light, Great Western Hotel, Birmingham
667—Alliance, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
900—Bute, Masonic Hall, 9 Working-street, Cardiff
1006—Tregullow, Masonic Rooms, St. Day, Scorrier, Cornwall.
1052—Callender, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester.
1089—De Shurland, Fountain Hotel, Sheerness.
1113—Anglesea, Bull Hotel, Llangefni
1276—Warren, Stanley Arms Hotel, Seacombe, Cheshire.
1325—Stanley, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
1427—Percy, Masonic Hall, Maple-street, Newcastle.
1470—Chiltern, Town Hall, Dunstable.
1473—Beadle, 146 Berry-street, Beadle, at 6. (Instruction.)
1534—Concord, George Hotel, Prestwich.
1551—Charity, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham.
1670—Prince Arthur, 140 North Hill-street, Liverpool.
1764—Eleanor Cross, Masonic Hall, Abington-street, Northampton.

WEDNESDAY, 17th MARCH.

Grand Stewards, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
174—Sincerity, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
190—Oak, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
193—Confidence, Railway Tavern, London-street, at 7 (Instruction
224—United Strength, Hope and Anchor, Crowndale-rd., Camden-town, 8 (In.)
534—La Tolerance, Green Dragon, 2 Maddox-street, W., at 7.45 (Inst.)
781—Merchant Navy, Silver Tavern, Burdett-road, E.
813—New Concord, Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Instruction)
862—Whittington, Red Lion, Poppin's-court, Fleet-street, at 8 (Instruction)
1185—Lewis, King's Arms Hotel, Wood Green, at 7 (Instruction)
1278—Burdett Coutts, Salmon and Ball, Bethnal Green-road, at 8 (Inst.)
1288—Finsbury Park, Alwyne Castle, Highbury, at 8 (Instruction)
1507—Metropolitan, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
1524—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion Road, Dalston, at 8 (Instruction)
1673—Langton, London Masonic Club, 191 Queen Victoria-street, E.C.
R.A. 177—Domatic, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-st., at 8 (Instruction)

20—Royal Kent of Antiquity, Sun Hotel, Chatham
121—Mount Sinai, Public-buildings, Penzance
140—St. George, Trafalgar Tavern, Greenwich
175—East Medina, Masonic Hall, John-street, Ryde, I.W.
178—Antiquity, Royal Hotel, Wigan.
200—Old Globe, Private Rooms, Globe-street, Scarborough
221—St. John, Commercial Hotel, Town Hall Square, Bolton
325—St. John, Freemasons' Hall, Islington-square, Salford
428—Sincerity, Angel Inn, Northwich, Cheshire
451—Sutherland, Town Hall, Barnsley
537—Zetland, 55 Argyle-street, Birkenhead
581—Faith, Drover's Inn, Openshaw
591—Buckingham, George Hotel, Aylesbury
592—Cotteswold, King's Head Hotel, Cirencester
594—Downshire, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 7 (Instruction)
633—Yarborough, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester
673—St. John, Masonic Hall, Liverpool, at 8. (Instruction.)
681—Isca, Freemasons' Hall, Dock-street, Newport, Monmouthshire
823—Everton, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
874—Holmesdale, Royal Sussex Hotel, Tunbridge Wells
889—Dobie, Griffin Hotel, Kingston-on-Thames
938—Grosvenor, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham
962—Sun and Sector, Assembly Rooms, Workington
972—St. Augustine, Canterbury (Inst.)
1019—Sincerity, Freemasons' Hall, Zetland-street, Wakefield
1040—Sykes, Masonic Hall, Driffield, Yorks
1086—Watson, Skelmersdale Masonic Hall, Kirkdale, Liverpool
1129—St. Chad, Roebuck Hotel, Rochdale
1161—180 Grey and Ripon, Denmark Hotel, Lloyd-street, Greenheys, Manchester
1164—Eliot, Private Rooms, St. Germains, Cornwall
1206—Cinque Ports, Bell Hotel, Sandwich
1246—Holte, Holte Hotel, Aston
1301—Brighouse, Masonic Room, Bradford-road, Brighouse
1337—Anchor, Masonic Rooms, Durham House, Northallerton
1353—Duke of Lancaster, Athenæum, Lancaster
1356—De Grey and Ripon, 140 North Hill-street, Liverpool, at 7.30 (Inst.)
1441—Salem, Town Hall, Dawlish, Devon
1511—Alexandra, Hornsea, Hull
1631—Starkie, Railway Hotel, Ramsbottom
R A. 228—Harmony, Garston Hotel, Garston, Lancashire
R. A. 591—Buckingham, George Hotel, Aylesbury.
R. A. 1060—Marmion, Masonic Rooms, Tamworth

Digitized by Google

THURSDAY, 18th MARCH.

House Committee, Girls' School, Battersea Rise, at 4
3—Fidelity, Yorkshire Grey, London-street, Fitzroy-sq., at 8 (Instruction)
16—Kent, Chequers, Marsh-street, Walthamstow, at 7.30 (Instruction)
23—Globe, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
37—Egyptian, Hercules Tavern, Leadenhall-street, E.C., at 7.30 (Instruction)
63—St. Mary, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
87—Vitruvian, White Hart, College-street, Lambeth, at 8 (Instruction)
169—Temperance, White Swan, High-street, Deptford
181—Universal, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
211—St. Michael, Moorgate Station Restaurant, Moorgate Street, at 8 (Inst.)
435—Salisbury, Union Tavern, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8 (Inst.)
754—High Cross, Coach and Horses, Lower Tottenham, at 8 (Instruction)
813—New Concord, Guildhall Tavern, Gresham-street, E.C.
1139—South Norwood, Public Hall, South Norwood
1227—Upton, King and Queen, Norton Folgate, E.C., at 8. (Instruction.)
1278—Burdett Coutts, Approach Tavern, Victoria Park.
1287—Great Northern, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
1426—The Great City, Masons Hall, Masons Avenue, E.C., at 6.30 (Inst.)
1475—Peckham, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell.
1614—Covent Garden, Nag's Head, James-street, Covent Garden, at 7.45 (In.)
1728—Temple Bar, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street
R.A. 753—Prince Frederick William, Lord's Hotel, St. John's Wood, at 8 (Inst.)
R.A. 1471—North London, Jolly Farmers', Southgate-road, N., at 8 (Inst.)
M.M.—Duke of Connaught, Havelock, Albion-rd., Dal-ton, E., at 8.30 (Inst.)

42—Relief, Albion Hotel, Haymarket-street, Bury, Lancashire
48—Industry, 34 Denmark-street, Gateshead. (Instruction)
56—Howard, High-street, Arundel
96—St. Martin, Town Hall, Burslem
100—Friendship, Crown and Anchor Hotel, Quay, Great Yarmouth
268—Union, Queen's Arms Inn, George-street, Ashton-under-Lyne
343—Concord, Militia Officers' Mess Rooms, Starkie-street, Preston
345—Perseverance, Old Bull Hotel, Church-street, Blackburn
367—Probity and Freedom, Red Lion Inn, Smallbridge
523—John of Gaunt, Freemasons' Hall, Halford-street, Leicester
600—Harmony, Freemasons' Hall, Salem-street, Bradford
605—Combermere, Seacombe Hotel, Seacombe, Cheshire
663—Wiltshire of Fidelity, Town Hall, Devizes
1011—Richmond, Crown Hotel, Blackfriars-street, Salford
1042—Excelsior, Masonic Hall, Great George-street, Leeds
1182—Duke of Edinburgh, Masonic Hall, Liverpool (Instruction)
1290—Pembroke, West Derby Hotel, West Derby, near Liverpool
1327—King Harold, Britannia Hotel, Waltham New Town
1332—Unity, Masonic Hall, Crediton, Devon
1432—Fitzalan, Wynnstay Arms, Oswestry
1612—Hemming, Red Lion Hotel, Hampton
1612—West Middlesex, Feathers' Hotel, Ealing, at 7.30. (Instruction.)
R. A. 204—Caledonian, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester
R. A. 249—Mariners, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.
K. T.—Albert, Masonic Rooms, 23 Ann-street, Rochdale

FRIDAY, 19th MARCH.

House Committee Boys' School, Wood Green, at 4.
Emulation Lodge of Improvement, Freemasons' Hall, at 7.
25—Robert Burns, Union Tavern, Air-street, W., at 8 (Instruction)
201—Jordan, Freemasons' Hall, W.C.
507—United Pilgrims, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, at 7.30 (Instruction)
766—William Preston, Feathers' Tavern, Up. George-st., Edgware-rd. 8 (Inst.)
814—Randolph, Six Bells, Hammersmith (Instruction)
902—Burgoyne, Red Cap, Camden Town, at 8 (Instruction)
933—Doric, Duke's Head, 79 Whitechapel-road, at 8 (Instruction)
1056—Metropolitan, Portugal Hotel, 155 Fleet-street, E.C. at 7 (Instruction)
1158—Belgrave, Jermyn-street, S.W., at 8 (Instruction)
1288—Finsbury Park M.M., Earl Russell, Isledon-road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1298—Royal Standard, Alwyne Castle, St. Paul's-road, Canonbury, at 8 (In.)
1365—Clapton, White Hart, Lower Clapton, at 7.30 (Instruction)
1442—E. Carnarvon, Mitre Hotel, Goulborne-rd, N. Kensington, at 8.0 (Inst.)
R. A. 79—Pythagorean, Portland Hotel, London-street, Greenwich, at 8 (Inst.)

127—Union Freemasons' Hall, Margate
152—Virtue, Freemasons' Hall, Manchester.
347—Noah's Ark, Wagon and Horses Hotel, Tipton
516—Phœnix, Fox Hotel, Stowmarket
541—De Lorraine, Freemasons' Hall, Grainger-street, Newcastle
780—Royal Alfred, Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, at 7.30. (Instruction)
993—Alexandra, Midway Hotel, Levenshulme
1096—Lord Warden, Wellington Hall, Deal
1311—Zetland, Masonic Hall, Great George-street, Leeds
1393—Hamer, Masonic Hall, Liverpool
1773—Albert Victor, Town Hall, Pendleton
General Lodge of Instruction, Masonic Hall, New-street, Birmingham, at 7
R. A. 403—Hertford, Shire Hall, Hertford.
R. A. 521—Truth, Freemasons' Hall, Fitzwilliam-street, Huddersfield
R. A. 837—Marquess of Ripon, Town Hall, Ripon
R.A.—General Chapter of Improvement, Masonic Hall, Birmingham, at 5.30
R. C.—Talbot, Freemason's Hall, Sheffield
K. T.—Jacques de Molay, Masonic Hall, Liverpool.

SATURDAY, 20th MARCH.

1198—Percy, Jolly Farmers, Southgate Road, N. at 8 (Instruction)
1329—Sphinx, Surrey Masonic Hall, Camberwell, S.E.
1384—Earl of Zetland, Nags Head, Mare-street, Hackney, at 7 (Instruction)
1624—Eccleston, Grosvenor Club, Ebury-square, Pimlico, at 7 (Instruction)
1732—Kings Cross, Anderton's Hotel, Fleet-street, E.C.
Sinai Chapter of Instruction, Union, Air-street, Regent-street, W., at 8.

308—Prince George, Private Rooms, Bottoms, Eastwood

NOTICES OF MEETINGS.

Lodge La Tolerance, No. 538.—The regular meeting was held on Thursday, 4th instant, under the presidency of Bro. T. W. Cooper W.M., Child S.W., E. Humphreys J.W., J. B. Sly P.M. Sec., J. Skinner J.D., G. Baumann I.G., Langdon W.S., P. Bale Organist; Bros. P.M.'s Quitman I.P.M., H. Wood, H. Walters, C. Burmeister, and Alston. The brethren wore crape rosettes in compliment to the memory of the late respected P.M. Bro. Lindus. Lodge was opened, and the minutes were confirmed. Bros. Marner and Oppel were raised to the sublime degree. The solemn and impressive manner in which the ceremony was rendered by the W.M. deserves especial praise. Each of the Officers was perfect in the knowledge of his duties. Bro. J. Quitman I.P.M. thanked the brethren for the support given to him at the last Festival of the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution, and a vote of thanks was accorded to those brethren who allowed their subscriptons to go towards endowing the Junior Warden's chair, the W.M.'s and the Senior Warden's chairs having already been endowed. Hearty good wishes were given by the brethren and visitors, and then the Lodge was closed until October. The brethren adjourned to the Inns of Court Hotel, where a very excellent banquet and dessert was provided by Bro. Gosden. Grace—"For these and all thy mercies"—having been sung by Bros. Bale and Cantle, accompanied by Bro. Knight-Smith, the W.M. proposed the Queen and the Craft. This was followed by the toast of H.R.H. the M.W.G.M. The W.M. referred to His Royal Highness coming to Grand Lodge, convened for the purpose of investing a brother to succeed so worthy a Mason as Bro. John Hervey. Colonel Shadwell Clerke would be trusted become as worthy a successor. Bro. Cantle sang "God bless the Prince of Wales." The W.M. then proposed the toast of the Pro G.M., and after a song by Bro. Pierrepoint, gave that of the D.G.M. and the rest of the Grand Officers. Although a small Lodge, we had a P.M. selected from our midst as a Grand Officer; no better selection could have been made, and all hoped that at next Grand Lodge Bro. Kench would be invested as Grand Pursuivant. They had also a Visitor—Bro. E. P. Albert P.G.P. who is universally respected as a worker in Freemasonry, and he would couple the names of these brethren with the toast. Bros. Kench and Albert acknowledged the compliment, and then Bro. Quitman I.P.M. proposed the toast of the W.M. Bro. Cooper was the right man in the right place. This was the second time he had occupied the chair; he had done the work admirably, and was an able President. All wished him a successful year of office. Bro. Bale here favoured the meeting with an excellent song, accompanying himself on the piano, and then the W.M. thanked Bro. Quitman. He was gratified at the manner in which the toast had been received by the brethren and visitors; he thanked the members for having elected him to the proud position of W.M. If his working gave them satisfaction, it was due to the attention paid by him at the Lodge of Instruction attached to the Lodge, and he was sure with their kind assistance he should be enabled to carry out the duties to their satisfaction. The toast of the Visitors was next honoured; many of those present were distinguished in Freemasonry. He would call on Bros. H. M. Levy, C. W. Davis, W. H. Murlis, H. Dicketts, Cave, and Hurdell, Preceptor of the Lodge of Instruction, to respond. After a song from Bro. Knight-Smith, the brethren named severally returned thanks, and complimented the W.M. on his working and presidency. The W.M. next proposed the health of Bro. Quitman I.P.M., who had conducted the duties of the chair to their satisfaction. He (the W.M.) had taken up a goodly sum; but Bro. Quitman had equally looked after the interests of the Charities; he had secured a very large amount for so small a Lodge. Bros. Cantle and Knight-Smith here sang "Excelsior," which was loudly and deservedly applauded, and in responding to a persistent call, gave "The Sailor Sighs." Bro. Quitman I.P.M. rose: He thanked the W.M. and the brethren for their reception of the toast; he felt proud to listen to the words uttered by the W.M.; the good feeling expressed by the brethren he hoped would long continue. The W.M. required no assistance from him, but if future Masters required his services, they were at command; they had supported his Stewardship for the R.M.B.I., and he thanked them heartily for so doing. The toast of the P.M.'s was next given. Bro. Wilson was the oldest, Bro. Kench the oldest Initiate, and next came Bros. Burmeister, Wood, and Sly. The W.M. spoke of the loss the brethren had sustained by the death of Bro. Lindus, who was one whom all looked up to with respect. To the toast he would call on Bro. Wilson to respond. Bro. Wilson P.M., in the course of an eloquent speech, referred to the loss sustained through the death of Bro. Lindus. He thanked the W.M. for the kind manner in which he had spoken of the Past Masters. The toast of the Officers followed, and Bros. Child S.W. and E. Humphries J.W. replied. Several other toasts were given during the evening, and special reference was made to the assiduity displayed by Bro. Langdon W.S., who kindly looked after the comforts of the brethren and Visitors. The Tyler's toast concluded a very agreeable and harmonious evening. Among the Visitors were Bros. E. P. Albert P.G.P., H. Dicketts P.G.S., C. W. Davis W.M. 1637 P.G.S. Middlesex, W. Murlis P.M. 1642, Cave 1017 J.W. 1763, Hurdell 1348, R. Pierpoint 1323, F. J. Ohren 1056, C. Jeffs 435, E. H. Stanwitz P.M. 435, S. A. Cooper 1637, C. Wentworth 101, J. I. Cantle P.M. 1441, Knight-Smith W.M. 1441, H. M. Levy P.M. 188.

Northern Counties Lodge, No. 406.—The regular meeting of this Lodge took place on Wednesday, 3rd inst., at the Masonic Hall Maple-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne, the Lodge was opened by Bro. John Page W.M. supported by the following Officers:—Bros. R. L. Armstrong I.P.M., R. G. Salmon S.W., G. W. Lax J.W., S. M. Harri Sec., E. Dunford S.D., J. S. B. Bell J.D., J. Ferry Organist, A. Hume I.G., Sisson Steward, and G. S. Sims Tyler. The minutes of the last meeting being confirmed, the ballot was taken for a candidate, which proved successful, and he was initiated into our Order by the W.M. in a most efficient manner; the charge in the degree was delivered correctly and impressively by Bro. Lax J.W. The Provincial Grand Officers paid an official visit to the Lodge, and expressed their satisfaction at the working. The W.M. gave notice of motion that 20 guineas be voted from the funds of the Lodge to the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys. Other routine business having been gone through, the Lodge was closed, and the brethren adjourned to refreshment, presided over by the W.M., who was supported by the S.G.W. of the Province and the P.G.D.C. After the usual loyal toasts the W.M. on rising said the Lodge was honoured that evening by the presence of Provincial Grand Officers; he hoped they would go away satisfied with their visit. He called on the brethren to drink the health of the P.G.M. Earl Percy and Officers of Grand Lodge, coupling with the toast the names of Bros. Eynon P.G.S.W., and E. D. Davis P.G.D.C. Bro. Eynon expressed his thanks for having his name coupled with the toast; all know what interest Earl Percy took in Masonry; likewise the D.P.G.M., who had intimated his regret at being unable to be present. He complimented the W.M. on the manner he had given the degree that evening, and also Bro. Lax for the perfect way he had delivered the charge. Bro. E. D. Davis in replying said he could only endorse all that had been said by the S.W.; he would ask the W.M. to allow him a toast. By a curious coincidence it was the anniversary of his being proposed as a Mason, 45 years ago. He would therefore ask the brethren to favour him and drink health and prosperity to the W.M. and Brethren of his Mother Lodge, Unanimity and Sincerity, No. 261, Toulon, with whom he had always kept up communication. He hoped he had endeavoured to raise a superstructure, not perfect in all its parts, but he did hope honourable in some form. They had all assisted in his attaining the position he held in Masonry, and if he was proud, it was their fault for making him so. Bro. R. L. Armstrong proposed the W.M., who in suitable terms acknowledged the compliment. Some capital harmony enlivened the evening. There was a very large attendance of visitors, among whom we noticed—Bros. R. Eynon P.G.S.W., E. D. Davis P.G.D.C., G. Cockburn P.G.R., J. Cook P.P.G.S.W., G. G. Taylor P.P.G.A.P., G. I. Dean P.P.A.D.C., B. P. Ord P.G. Organist, W. M. Bell P.G.A.D.C., J. Usher P.G.P., W. Cooper P.G.A.P., J. Wood S.W. 48, Read 541, &c.

Digitized by Google

Royal Alfred Lodge of Instruction, No. 780.—Meeting at the Star and Garter, Kew Bridge, 6th March, at half past seven p.m. Present:—Bros. Gomm W.M., Goss (P.M.) S.W., Gunner (H.S.) J.W., Andrews (P.M.) S.D., Blasby J.D., Youens I.G., Roe (P.M.) Preceptor, and Bros. Franckel, Talbot, Acworth, Newson (145), Maton, &c. Lodge was opened and minutes of last meeting read, confirmed and signed. The ceremony of initiation was rehearsed, Bro. Maton candidate. Bro. Franckel answered the questions leading to second degree and retired. Lodge advanced and Bro. Franckel was passed. The brethren were called to refreshment. Labour was resumed. Bro. Goss was elected W.M. for next meeting. Lodge then losed.

Dalhousie Lodge of Instruction.—At Bro. Smyth's, Sisters' Tavern, Pownall-road, Dalston, on Tuesday, 9th March. Bro. Wardell W.M., Williams S.W., Clark J.W., Smyth S.D., Hopkins J.D., Polak I.G., J. Lorkin Secretary, P.M. Wallington Preceptor; also Bros. Greenwood, Baker, Collins, Allen, Welford, Finch, Christian, Carr, C. Lorkin and others. Lodge was opened in form, and the minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. Bro. Baker, a candidate for passing, was interrogated and entrusted. The Lodge was opened in the second degree, and Bro. Baker was passed to the degree of Fellow Craft. Bro. Allen worked the first section of the Lecture, assisted by the brethren. The Lodge was called from labour to refreshment, and on resuming its Masonic duties was opened in the third degree, and regularly closed. Bro. Allen worked the second, and Bro. Christian the third section of the first lecture. Bro. Williams was elected W.M. for the ensuing week.

Enfield Lodge, No. 1237.—The regular meeting of this Lodge was held at the George Hotel, Enfield, on Monday the 8th inst. The W.M. Bro. Oscar S. Oxley presided, supported by his Officers—Bros. Taverner S.W., Peach J.W., J. H. Thompson P.M. Secretary, Mathison P.M. Treasurer, Poore S.D., Bryant J.D., and Fidler I.G. Also Bros. Tye P.M., Clements, Collier, Collins, Dodd, Herbert, &c.; Visitors—Bros. George H. Jaffa W.M. St. James's Lodge No. 1579, Walter S. Cooper High Cross Lodge, No. 754, and J. W. Tacon Urban Lodge, No. 1196. Lodge being opened, and the minutes read and confirmed, the ballot was taken for a joining member, and proved unanimous in his favour. The next business was to pass Bro. Thomas Evans to the second degree, which ceremony was performed by the W.M. with his usual ability. The W.M. having made the formal enquiries regarding propositions, Bro. Clements was unanimously elected to represent this Lodge as Steward at the approaching Festival of the Girls' School; and the visiting brethren having expressed their hearty good wishes, the Lodge was closed in harmony, with solemn prayer, and the meeting adjourned till the 2nd Monday in April.

Friars Lodge of Instruction, No. 1349.—At Bro. Pavitt's, Liverpool Arms, Canning Town, Tuesday, 9th March. Bro. Watkins W.M., Smith S.W., Power J.W., Barker S.D., Myers J.D., H. G. Cope I.G., Worsley Secretary; also Bros. Fyfe, Johnson, Sadler Rawe, White, Moss, &c. The Lodge was opened in due form with prayer, and the minutes read. Bro. Rawe answered the necessary questions. Lodge opened in the second degree, when the ceremony of passing was rehearsed. Bro. Worsley worked the five sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Lodge was then closed to the first, when Bro. Smith J.W. 860 was unanimously elected W.M. for the ensuing week. The Fifteen Sections will be worked in this Lodge of Instruction on Tuesday, the 23rd inst. P.M. Candwick as W.M., P.M. Musto S.W., and P.M. Myers as J.W. The sections are all allotted, the names of the workers shall appear in our next.

Marquess of Ripon Lodge of Instruction.—At the Penbury Tavern, Amhurst-road, Hackney, on Monday, 8th March. Bros. McDowall W.M., McMillan S.W., Finch J.W., R. Olley S.D., Thos. Jones J.D., Garrod I.G., J. Lorkin Secretary, C. Lorkin Preceptor, Bro. Jones and others. After preliminaries, Bro. Garrod, a candidate for passing, was interrogated and entrusted. The Lodge was opened in the second, and Bro. Garrod was passed. Bro. McMillan gave the lecture on the second Tracing Board; Bro. J. Lorkin worked the first section of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Lodge was opened in the third degree, and regularly closed to first. Bro. McMillan was elected W.M. for the ensuing week. All business being ended, Lodge was closed in due form.

West Middlesex Lodge of Instruction.—At the Feathers Hotel, Ealing, on Thursday, 26th February. Present—Bros. A. Jones W.M., W. Seward S.W., Porter J.W., Gunner S.D., G. Coop J.D., Bellerby I.G., Tucker Treas., Andrews P.M.; also Bros. F. Botley, H. Stephens, Meadows, Mitchell, Wyville, J. W. Woolmer and Tink Brown. Lodge was opened in due form. Bros. Mitchell and Meadows answered the questions leading to the second degree and retired. Lodge was opened in the second, and resumed to the first degree. The W.M. rehearsed the ceremony of initiation, Bro. Mitchell candidate. The W.M. delivered the charge in first degree. The first and second sections were worked by Bros. P.M. Andrews and Preceptor Tucker, with the assistance of the brethren.

On Thursday, 4th March. Present—Bros. P.M. Andrews W.M., Porter S.W., Gunner J.W., Bellerby S.D., A. Jones J.D., W. M. Wyville I.G., Tucker Treas. and Preceptor, Wells Secretary, J. J. Clarke; also Bros. H. Stephens, Tink Brown, J. Owen, Gasson, Seward jun., E. Smith, Meadows, F. Woolmer and Mitchell. The W.M. rehearsed the ceremony of initiation, Bro. J. Wells candidate. He then delivered the lecture on the tracing board of the degree, in a very able manner. A cordial vote of thanks was accorded to the W.M. for the lecture. Bro. Porter was elected W.M. for the next meeting, and the Lodge was closed in due form and meeting adjourned to 11th March.

Confidence Lodge of Instruction, No. 193.—Held at the Railway Tavern, Fenchurch-street Station, on Wednesday, 4th inst. Bros. John E. Fells W.M., James Smith S.W., Thos. B. Biddle J.W., D. Moss D., W. Saint I.G., G. L. Walker Preceptor, J. K. Pitt Secretary, &c. After preliminaries the initiation ceremony was rehearsed by the W.M., Bro. Albert Kahn candidate. Bro. D. Moss worked the first, second and third sections of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bro. James Smith S.W. was duly elected to occupy the chair on Wednesday next. A vote of thanks was passed and recorded on the minutes to the W.M. for his first attempt in ruling this Lodge.

At the regular meeting of the Etonian Lodge No. 209, held at the Masonic Hall, Windsor, on Tuesday, 2nd inst., the sum of 10 guineas was voted from the Funds of the Lodge, to the Irish Famine Relief Fund, the motion being proposed by the W.M. and seconded by the S.W. Another feature in connection with this Lodge which we are pleased to chronicle is the establishment of a charity box, which was determined upon on the proposition of the S.W. supported by Bro. Dick Radclyffe. We hope it will be long before any of the members are compelled to appeal to the fund thus inaugurated.

ROYAL ARCH.

CHAPTER OF ELIAS ASHMOLE, No. 148, WARRINGTON,.

THE annual Convocation of the above Chapter was held at the Chapter rooms on Monday, 8th March, at four o'clock in the afternoon. The M.E.Z. Comp. John Bowes P.Z. P.P.G.S.N. Cumberland and Westmoreland was supported by Comps. Tunstall M.E.Z. elect, Jas. Jackson J., Brierley P.Z., D. W. Finney P.Z., P. J. Edelsten P.Z., &c. The Chapter was opened, when the rest of the Comps. were admitted, among whom we noticed Comps. J. Paul Rylands, F.S.A., W. Robinson, J. H. Galloway, W. H. Robinson, W. Wood, Hawkins, Pollett, Hutchinson, Potter, W. Sharp P.Z., Thos. Sutton, E. C. Hindley, &c. The minutes were read and confirmed and twenty guineas voted to the Stewards' lists of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys. E. Comp. Bowes then proceeded to instal the Principals for the ensuing year, viz., Comps. Thos. Tunstall M.E.Z., James Jackson H., W. H. Robinson J. The following Comps. were invested as the subordinate Officers, viz., Galloway S.E., Dr. Young S.N., Chas. Skinner P. Soj., Domville Janitor. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to Comp. Bowes the installing Principal and a like vote to Comp. Finney Treas. Comp. Walter Milner was elected as a joining Companion. This being all the business, the Chapter was closed and the Companions adjourned for refreshment, when a pleasant evening was spent, under the presidency of the I.P.Z. Comp. Bowes.

St. John's Chapter, No. 348, Bolton.—A regular meeting of this Chapter was held at the Bull's Head Inn, Bradshawgate, Bolton, on Thursday, 4th inst. Present:—Comps. Henry Greenwood Z., Robert Harwood P.Z. P. Prov. Grand Standard Bearer as H., James Newton P.Z. Prov. Grand Scribe N. as J., and others. The Chapter being opened, and the minutes read and confirmed, the ballot was taken for two candidates for exaltation. Both were unanimously elected, and one of them, Bro. John Kenyon of St. John's Lodge, No. 348, being in attendance, was admitted, and duly exalted to the degree. The following Companions were elected Officers for the ensuing year:—John Harwood Z., James Newton H., James Dooley J., William Cooper S.E., W. H. Alcock S.N., John Morris P.S., Thomas Wilson Treasurer, Robert Harwood Director of Ceremonies, Thomas Higson Janitor. A candidate was proposed for exaltation in the Chapter, after which the Chapter was duly closed.

North London Chapter of Improvement, No. 1471.—The regular weekly Convocation was held at the Jolly Farmers, Southgate-road, on Thursday, 4th March. The Officers of the evening being Comps. J. W. Hobbs M.E.Z., J. Cusworth H., Braine J., Osborn S.E., Pearcy S.N., Hunter P.S. After preliminary business and confirmation of the minutes the ceremony of exaltation was rehearsed, Comp. McMillan acting as candidate. The ceremony was rendered with the well-known ability of the three Principals. It was carried that the members of the Chapter dine together, with such of their R.A. friends as would wish to be present, to commemorate the anniversary of the foundation of this Chapter of Improvement; the date and other arrangements were not definitely fixed, on account of the unavoidable absence of Comp. J. L. Mather the Preceptor.

Digitized by Google

COMMITTEE MEETING OF THE BOYS' SCHOOL.

THE General Committee of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys held their monthly meeting last Saturday, at Freemasons' Hall. There were present Bros. S. Rosenthal (in the chair), F. H. Ebsworth, James Winter, Donald M. Dewar, W. F. C. Moutrie, George Cooper, John Constable, H. Massey, C. H. Webb, W. Maple, W. Pass, F. Adlard, Thomas Meggy, H. Young and F. Binckes Secretary. After the reading and confirmation of the minutes, further correspondence from Bro. S. B. Wilson was read with reference to the dispute between him and the House Committee, and after some little discussion the matter was referred back to the House Committee for amicable settlement, if possible. The petitions for placing two candidates on the list for election in October were received and approved; after which outfits were granted to three boys educated in the School who have obtained situations. A notice of motion was received from Bro. W. H. Spanll, N. Wales and Salop, for conferring additional votes on brethren who have served as Stewards of the Festivals more than twice. The brethren then adjourned.

COMMITTEE MEETING OF THE BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION.

THE monthly meeting of the Committee of the Royal Masonic Benevolent Institution was held on Wednesday, at Freemasons' Hall. There were present Bros. Lieut.-Col. Creaton J.P. Grand Treas. Vice Patron (in the chair), John G. Stevens, A. H. Tattershall, R. H. Giraud, C. J. Dilley, L. Stean, C. L. Cottebrune, S. Rawson, J. H. Leggott, James Brett, C. H. Webb, Thomas Cubitt, R. W. Stewart, W. F. Nettleship, Jabez Hogg, W. Hilton, Griffiths Smith, Charles F. Hogard and James Terry Secretary. Bro. Terry reported the death of two widows. The Warden's report was read, and a vote of thanks was passed to Bro. Thomas Cubitt for his handsome gift of a bookcase for the Institution at Croydon. Two widows were granted half their late husband's annuities, and it was also resolved that the House Committee should invite the Stewards of the late Festival to visit the Institution at Croydon. This closed the business of the meeting.

ROSICRUCIAN SOCIETY.

Yorkshire College.—At a meeting of this College, held in Sheffield, on Saturday, 6th inst., M.W. Fr. C. F. Matier IX° Sup. Magus in Scotiâ and Hon. Magus in Angliâ installed R.W. Fr. A. Scargill VIII° as R.W. Ch. Adept, and the following Officers were appointed:—V.W. Fr. J. E. Reaney VI° Suff., W. R. Thomas, M.D. VII° Prov. Treas. Gen., Thomas Blair VII° Prov. Sec. Gen., S. H. Gatty VI° Celebrant, John Clark V° Primus, H. W. Lofthouse V° Secundus, and Thomas Leighton Acolyte. An excellent paper was read by W. Fr. S. H. Gatty on "Witchcraft." A hearty vote of thanks was accorded to Frs. Matier and Gatty. The fratres adjourned to tea, after which a pleasant hour was spent in discussing the principles and teachings of the Order.

Beaconsfield Lodge of Mark Master Masons, No. 205.—A general meeting of this Lodge was held at the Chequers, Marsh-street, Walthamstow, on Saturday, 21st ult. Present:—Bros. Claridge W.M., J. Pinder P.M., W. Groome S.W., W. G. Hallows J.W., T. Franklin M.O., G. E. Laverack as S.O., G. J. Westfield as J.O., Frederick Hallows Secretary, J. H. Cambridge S.D., G. Graveley J.D., R. T. Williams D.C. and I.G., T. Upward Organist, E. Lane W.S., &c. The W.M. was suffering from a severe cold and loss of voice, and the chair was taken by Bro. Pinder P.M. The Lodge was opened in due form with solemn prayer, and the minutes of last Lodge meeting were read and confirmed. The ballot was taken for Bros. Lewis Morris, James E. Somerville, and Charles Thomas, which proved unanimous in their favour, and all being in attendance, they were regularly introduced, and advanced into the Order according to ancient form. Notices of resignation were received from Bro. W. T. Christian, A. Moffett, and F. Creed, which the brethren accepted with regret. Bro. C. Thomas was unanimously elected Tyler, and the W.M. invested him with the collar and jewel of his office. The Lodge was closed in due form, and adjourned until Saturday, 19th June.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE,

A Weekly Record of Masonic Intelligence. Sanctioned by the Grand Lodge of England.

Price—13s 6d per annum, post free.

THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE will be forwarded direct from the Office, 23 Great Queen Street, W.C., (opposite Freemasons' Hall), on receipt of Post Office Order for the amount. Intending Subscribers should forward their full Addresses to prevent mistakes.

Post Office Orders to be made payable to W. W. MORGAN, at High Holborn Office. Cheques crossed "London and County."

SCALE OF CHARGES FOR ADVERTISEMENTS.

Per Page... ... ... £8 0 0
Back Page £10 0 0
Births, Marriages and Deaths, 1s per line.
General Advertisements, Trade Announcements, &c. single column, 5s per inch. Double Column Advertisements 1s per line. Special Terms for a Series of Insertions on application.

LATEST NOVELTY.
MASONIC CHARM FOR CHAIN.

The whole of the working Tools complete as above.
MOUNTED IN GOOD GOLD AND ORNAMENTALLY ENGRAVED.
To be had of the maker on receipt of 25s.
E. PELIKAN, Manufacturing Jeweller,
No. 102 St. John Street Road, London, E.C.
P.O.O. to be made payable at the St. John Street Road Office.

Worn Ivory Brushes Re-filled and Re-polished to look Equal to New.

IVORY HAIR BRUSHES
Mirrors & all other Ivory Toilet Articles,

& IVORY GOODS IN GENERAL,
Wholesale & for Exportation & the Trade only.

AT HENNIG BROS. Ivory Works,
11, HIGH STREET, LONDON, W.C.

Designs and Prices of Brushes and Mirrors, &c., on Application.

CANNON STREET HOTEL, CANNON STREET, LONDON, E.C.

Has been thoroughly renovated; the Railway advantages, in direct communication with the Hotel, render this establishment unequalled in the Metropolis for

MASONIC BANQUETS, PUBLIC & PRIVATE DINNERS, BREAKFASTS, &c.
DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENTS, PUBLIC MEETINGS, ARBITRATIONS, &c.
THE LARGE HALL IS CAPABLE OF SEATING UPWARDS OF TWELVE HUNDRED PEOPLE.
VISITORS AND FAMILIES visiting LONDON, for LONG or SHORT PERIODS, will find the APPOINTMENTS, and ACCOMMODATION UNRIVALLED.
E. H. RAND, MANAGER.

LADBROKE HALL, NOTTING HILL, LONDON, W.

(Opposite the Notting Hill Station of the Metropolitan Railway, from which Trains run every few minutes to all parts of London, and in connection with the principal Lines of Railway.)

THE ACCOMMODATION PROVIDED FOR LODGE MEETINGS IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY ESTABLISHMENT IN THE DISTRICT.
LARGE LODGE AND BANQUET ROOMS, WITH EVERY CONVENIENCE.
THE HALL MAY BE ENGAGED for BANQUETS, WEDDING BREAKFASTS, DINNERS, PUBLIC or PRIVATE ENTERTAINMENTS, &c.

Apply to Bro. J. LINSCOTT (at the Hall), 14 Ladbroke Grove Road, London, W.

Digitized by Google

ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY Limited, 7 Bank Buildings, Lothbury, E.C.

General accidents. Railway accidents. | Personal injuries. Death by accident.

C. HARDING, Manager.

RHEUMATISM.

THE only real remedy for this complaint is the Northern Cure (patent). In bottles 1s 1½d each, to be had of all Chemists. Proprietors and Manufacturers, Edwards and Alexander, 29 Blackett-street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

GEO. JONES,

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT MANUFACTURER and IMPORTER, 350 and 481 Commercial Road, London, E. Price List of every description of Instruments post free. Established 1850.

TAMAR INDIEN.

SPECIAL CAUTION.

OWING to the marked success of this medicine, the only patent medicine universally prescribed by the faculty, and the acknowledged cure for constipation, headache, bile, hæmorrhoids, &c., BASE IMITATIONS, containing drastic irritants, are being foisted on the public. The genuine preparation bears the title "Tamar Indien," and the signature E. GRILLON, Coleman-st., London, E.C. Price 2s 6d per box. In a recent case, 1876, G. No. 211, a perpetual injunction to restrain the defendant from applying the name "Tamar" to his lozenges was awarded, with costs, by Vice-Chancellor Bacon, on 19th January 1877, and all such piracies will be summarily proceeded against.——N.B.—See that the outer wrapper (directions) are printed in the English language and that each box bears the Government 3d stamp.

MEMORY EXTRAORDINARY BY CORRESPONDENCE.—Particulars post free of Bro. William Stokes, Teacher of Memory, Royal Polytechnic, 309 Regent-street, London, W. Private lessons by appointment. Class on Tuesdays, 3 and 8.30. The System complete in Three Lessons. "Stokes on Memory," by post 14 stamps. Memory Globe, 14 stamps.

EVENING Employment wanted, by a P.M. Good Accountant. Address 2001, FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE Office, 23 Great Queen-street, W.C.

HOTELS, ETC.

EALING—Feathers Hotel

EASTBOURNE—Pier Hotel, Cavendish Place. View of Sea and Pier. A. TAYLOR Proprietor

KEW—Star and Garter. Good accommodation for Lodge & Dinner Parties. J. BRILL Proprietor

SANDWICH—Bell Family and Commercial Hotel, Good Stabling. J. J. FILMER Proprietor

WOOD GREEN—Kings Arms Hotel. A. B. GREENSLADE Proprietor

YORK—Queen's Family and Commercial Hotel, Micklegate. H. CHURCHILL Proprietor

LONDON.

CALTHORPE ARMS—252 Gray's Inn Road, W.C. Billiards, Pool, Pyramids, &c. Best Wines and Spirits. W. H. G. RUDDERFORTH Proprietor

CANNING TOWN—Liverpool Arms. J.H.PAVITT. Friars L. of Instruction, 1349, Tuesdays at 7.30

GREEN DRAGON—Spring Garden-place, Stepney Wines and Spirits of the best quality. Billiards. Banquets provided for large or small parties. Yarborough L. & C. 554, and Temple Mark L. 173 held here. Lodge of Instruc. (554) meets every Tuesday at 8. A. WALTER Proprietor

MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT—Moorgate Street, E.C. Hot and Cold Dinners, &c. Chops and Steaks. Good accommodation for Lodge Meetings, &c. A. KENT Proprietor

NEW MARKET HOTEL—King Street, Snow Hill, E.C. Good accommodation for Club and other Banquets. Wines and Spirits of best quality. Specially licensed for Masonic Balls. Lodges 1623 and 1677 are held here. Strong Man No. 45 and West Smithfield No. 1623 Lodges of Instruction, meet here, every Monday at 8 p.m. Thomas BUTT Proprietor

SAWYER'S (late Station) RESTAURANT, 5 Railway Place, Fenchurch Street, E.C. English, French, and German Cuisine. Wines of the best quality. Hot and Cold Luncheons, Chops, Steaks, &c. Tea and Coffee. F. J. SAWYER (late of Pimm's and Crystal Palace) Proprietor

BILLIARD BALLS, Chalks, Cases and Tips, at HENNIG BROS.' Ivory Works, 11 High Street, London, W.C. Cheapest house in the trade for billiard-table requisites and ivory goods in general. Old balls adjusted or exchanged, and tables recovered. Price Lists on application. Established 1862.

W. BEASLEY,

Bespoke Boot Maker,

28 Queen Victoria Street.

HUNTING, RIDING, DRESS AND BOOTS FOR THE MOORS.

MADE IN A FEW DAYS.

Specialité—Hand Sewn and Standard Screwed

C. HUBBARD,

Plain & Fancy Box & Pattern

CARD MANUFACTURER.

139 & 141 NEW NORTH ROAD, AND 64 SHAFTESBURY ST., LONDON, N.

ROCHESTER & FOX,

Post and Job Masters,

799 COMMERCIAL ROAD, E. AND 81 JUBILEE STREET, MILE END, E.

Carriages of every description on hire.

SUPERIOR WEDDING CARRIAGES.

JOSEPH J. CANEY,

DIAMOND MERCHANT, AND MANUFACTURING JEWELLER AND WATCH MAKER,

44 CHEAPSIDE, LONDON.

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND FURNITURE.

Specialité—First Class Jewels—Artistic—Massive—Best Quality—Moderate in Price

CATALOGUES POST FREE.

A LARGE STOCK OF LOOSE BRILLIANTS FOR EXPENSIVE JEWELS.

Diamond Rings, Brooches, Studs, Earrings and Bracelets in Great Variety.

MASONIC JEWELS FOR ALL DEGREES.

MINIATURE WAR MEDALS AND DECORATIONS.

ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD IN ALL SIZES.

ATHLETIC SPORTS MEDALS AND BADGES.

A. D. LOEWENSTARK & SONS, Medallists, 210 STRAND, LONDON, W.C.

MANUFACTORY—1 DEVEREUX COURT, STRAND.

J. FORTESCUE,

HAT MANUFACTURER,

129 FLEET ST.; 114 & 115 SHOE LANE,

(One door from Fleet Street)

6 EXMOUTH STREET, CLERKENWELL, E.C.

And 143 Mare Street, Triangle, Hackney

Gents' Silk Hats from 5/6 each. Second best 6/6 7/6 8/6 Superfine quality, 10/6 12/6 & 16/. The very best made 21/. Felt Hats, hard and soft, in all the newest shapes, from 3/6 to 10/6.

ADAM S. MATHER,

GAS ENGINEER, GENERAL GAS FITTER AND BELL HANGER

MANUFACTURER OF BILLIARD LIGHTS

AND OF EVERY DESCRIPTION OF GAS APPARATUS FOR COOKING AND HEATING

Bath Rooms Fitted up. All the Latest Improvements Introduced.

MANUFACTORY—12 CHARLES STREET, HATTON GARDEN, E.C.; AND AT 278 CALEDONIAN ROAD, ISLINGTON, N.

ESTIMATES GIVEN.

PIANOFORTES AND HARMONIUMS ON EASY TERMS.

GROVER & GROVER

LET ON HIRE, WITH OPTION OF PURCHASE,

BEAUTIFUL AND PERFECT INSTRUMENTS.

PURCHASERS CHOOSE THEIR OWN TERMS,

FROM 15s TO £3 3s PER QUARTER.

The Advantages of a Trial, with the Convenience of the Three Years' System at Cash Price, by Paying about a Quarter of the value down, the Balance by Easy Payments, from 15s per quarter.

GROVER & GROVER, 157-9 Kingsland Road.

ESTABLISHED 1830.

HOUGHTON,

THE BOOT MAKER,

243 & 244 WHITECHAPEL ROAD,

LONDON, E.

Lasts made to the Feet.

—:o:—

SPECIALITÉ,

EASE, ELEGANCE AND DURABILITY.

A. LAZARUS,

MERCHANT TAILOR AND Juvenile Clothier,

CORNER OF WORSHIP ST., SHOREDITCH, E., AND 51 LIVERPOOL STREET, LONDON, E.C.

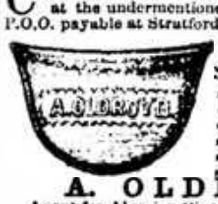
Patterns and Rules for Self Measurement post free.

T. J. TARLING,

COAL MERCHANT.

North Wallsend	...	...	23s Per Ton
Hetton or Lambton	...	...	24s ,,
Best Silkstone	...	...	23s ,,
Best Derby	...	...	21s ,,

All letters to be addressed:—



5 BURDETT ROAD, BOW, E.

Bro. A. OLDROYD, Stratford, London,

MANUFACTURER OF TOBACCO POUCHES,

With any name in raised letters.

CAN be obtained direct from the Maker, at the undermentioned prices, on receipt of P.O.O. payable at Stratford.

	Price		Will take a name of 9 letters
No. 3	2/0	...
,, 4	2/6	...	11
,, 5	3/0	...	12
,, 6	3/6	...	13
,, 7	4/0	...
,, 8	4/6	...
,, 9	5/0	...

A. OLDROYD,

Agent for Algerian Cigars, and Importer of Havana and Continental Cigars,

64 HIGH STREET, STRATFORD, LONDON, E.

Digitized by Google

EDWARD STILLWELL AND SON,

25, 26 and 27 BARBICAN, AND 6 LITTLE BRITAIN, LONDON,
109 ARGYLE STREET, GLASGOW,

Gold Lacemen, Embroiderers and Sword Cutlers,

MANUFACTURERS OF

Masonic Fittings for Lodges, Chapters and Encampments.

CLOTHING, JEWELS (PINS, STUDS AND RINGS), FOR EVERY DEGREE.

Aprons, Sashes, Horns, Ornaments and Banners for Foresters, Odd Fellows, Orangemen, Free Gardeners, &c.

REGALIA FOR I.O.G.T. AND ALL SOCIETIES.

LIBERAL TERMS TO SHIPPERS.

H. T. LAMB,

MANUFACTURER OF

MASONIC JEWELS, CLOTHING AND REGALIA,

5 ST. JOHN SQUARE, LONDON.

PRICE LIST, CONTAINING 120 ILLUSTRATIONS, POST FREE ON APPLICATION.

PHILLIPS & COMPANY'S TEAS

ARE BEST AND CHEAPEST,

8 KING WILLIAM STREET, CITY, LONDON, E.C.

A GENERAL PRICE CURRENT AND STORE LIST, CONTAINING ALL THE ADVANTAGES OF THE LONDON MARKETS, POST FREE.

Show Rooms for Chinese, Japanese, and Oriental Art Products, and General Stores, 13 & 14 ABCHURCH LANE, adjoining 8 KING WILLIAM STREET, E.C.

J. E. SHAND & CO.

Wine Merchants,

(Experts and Valuers of Wines and Spirits,)

2 ALBERT MANSIONS, VICTORIA ST., LONDON, S.W.

PRICES DELIVERED IN LONDON.

SHERRIES	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	SPARKLING MOSELLES	42s, 48s, 54s
PORTS	24s, 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s, 54s	CHAMPAGNES	36s, 42s, 48s, 54s, 60s
CLARETS	16s, 18s, 21s, 24s, 30s, 36s	BURGUNDY	20s, 24s, 30s, 36s, 42s
STILL HOCKS	24s 30s, 36s, 42s, 48s	BRANDIES	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s, 66s
SPARKLING do	42s, 48s, 54s, 60s	WHISKIES	20s per gall., 42s per doz.

COUNTRY ORDERS OVER £3 CARRIAGE FREE.

Every other description can be supplied. Wines and Spirits matched or valued.

NOTICE OF REMOVAL.

WARD'S

INVALID CHAIR AND CARRIAGE MANUFACTORY,

From SAVILLE HOUSE, LEICESTER SQUARE,

To 246 & 247 TOTTENHAM COURT ROAD, LONDON.

THE ONLY PRIZE MEDAL for INVALID FURNITURE was gained by JOHN WARD, at the London Exhibitions, 1851 and 1862; Paris, 1855 and 1867; Dublin, 1865; Vienna, 1873; 2 Silver Medals, Paris, 1878.

JOHN WARD, Manufacturer by Special Appointment to the Queen and Royal Family, the Empresses of France, Austria, Russia, &c.

INVALID CHAIRS and CARRIAGES for SALE or HIRE from JOHN WARD. Established 150 years. Drawings and price lists free on application.

[redacted]

Fish Carvers, Fish Eating Knives and Forks, Revolving Covered Soup and Luncheon Dishes.

SPECIALITIES FOR TESTIMONIALS, TEA AND COFFEE SERVICES,

SALVERS, DESSERT KNIVES AND FORKS, GILT AND OXYDIZED GOODS.

77 (from 28) Cheapside, London, E.C.

(NEAR THE POULTRY.)

MORING,

ENGRAVER, DIE SINKER,
HERALDIC ARTIST, -
ILLUMINATED ADDRESSES,
44, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

ILLUSTRATED PRICE LIST POST FREE.

ADLARD'S JEWEL ATTACHER 7/6.

If with Pockets, 6d each Pocket extra.

225 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

JANES & SON

WINDOW BLINDS ONLY,

WHOLESALE,

ALDERSGATE STREET, CITY, E.C.

BRANCH—

4 EAGLE PLACE, PICCADILLY

THESE ADDRESSES ONLY.

YOUNG'S Arnicated Corn and Bunion Plaisters are the best ever invented for giving immediate ease, and removing those painful excrescences. Price 6d and 1s per box. Any Chemist not having them in stock can procure them.

Observe the Trade Mark—H. Y.—without which none are genuine. Be sure and ask for Young's.

Horticultural Decorations, Ferneries, Window Gardening, Seeds, Bulbs, Plants, Ferns, PLANTS FOR DECORATION. Masonic Banquets, Balls, &c.

DICK RADCLYFFE & CO., F.R.H.S.

129 HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.

TABLE DECORATIONS, Ball Room Decorations, Seeds for Export. Illustrated Catalogues gratis and post free. Seeds, Bulbs, &c., carefully packed for Export.

NEW MASONIC ROOMS

COMPLETE SUITE,

SPECIALLY ARRANGED

LODGE, BANQUETTING,

AND ANTE ROOMS,

ALL ON ONE FLOOR.

Particulars to be had of

BRO. A. KENT, MOORGATE STATION RESTAURANT,

OPPOSITE RAILWAY STATION,

From which trains run at frequent intervals in connection with the Great Northern, Midland, Great Western, London Chatham & Dover, and Metropolitan Railways.

Printed for the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE PUBLISHING COMPANY LIMITED, and Published by Bro. WILLIAM WRAY MORGAN JUN., at 23 Great Queen Street, London, W.C., Saturday, 13th March 1880.

Digitized by Google

THE

Freemason's Chronicle;

A WEEKLY RECORD OF MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

SANCTIONED BY THE GRAND LODGE OF ENGLAND.

Registered at the G.P.O. as a Newspaper.

VOL. XI.—No. 273. SATURDAY, 20th MARCH 1880. [Issued to Subscribers only 13s 6d per annum, post free

CONSOLIDATION v. EXTENSION.

IT is a fair subject for consideration whether the policy that has been pursued of late years of extending the benefits conferred by our Institutions is altogether a wise one, or rather perhaps whether it would not be more to their interest to strengthen them permanently instead of enlarging them whenever the Festival of a particular year is more than usually productive. It is not so very many years since the Girls' School numbered 150 pupils; the Boys' School has also been largely increased, and the Benevolent Institution has grown amazingly in the same brief period. This is undoubtedly matter for the sincerest congratulation. We should like to see it happen that no candidate ever presented himself or herself for the benefits of one or other of our Charities unsuccessfully, but we dare not hope that this will ever be the case. The number of applicants is almost always likely to exceed the number of vacancies, and it must be obvious to any one that some day or other the point must be reached beyond which it will be inexpedient to extend our Charities. Roughly stated, the normal annual expenditure to which the Craft in England now stands committed is, taking the two Schools and the Benevolent together, over £30,000—that is, the interest of one million of Government Stock; and in addition considerable sums are occasionally expended for building and kindred purposes, so that the amount stated at the recent meeting as being required annually for these purposes, namely £40,000, was by no means exaggerated. Now, if we take the case of the Girls' School, to which we referred last week, two or three years ago additional accommodation was erected at a cost of some £10,000, and now Lyncombe House is purchased for £6,500. We have said the enlargement of the School is a most desirable object, to which no brother would dream of offering the slightest opposition, provided, always, such enlargement is made with due regard to the funds at the disposal of the authorities. Thus in the case of one of those richly endowed Schools which are so numerous in this country, and of which all Englishmen are so justly proud, the outlay of a few thousands in the purchase of desirable premises or the erection of new buildings would make but slight difference in the means available for future uses; but it is well for a school which has no endowment, and but a small permanent income arising from invested moneys, to "look before it leaps." The more we go on husbanding our resources during the present period of highly productive Festivals the greater the prospect of adding to our investment. The purchase annually of £2000 or £3000 worth—or more or less, as the incomings permitted—of Government Securities would very soon mount up. Every year, as the interest went on increasing, more and more of the donations and subscriptions would be available for this purpose, and gradually the ratio between fixed income and expenditure would be more satisfactory. No doubt it is very pleasant to have one's name associated with the generous enlargement of an excellent school. When the inscription on a building declares it was erected in the Consulship of Manlius, Manlius naturally becomes an object of admiration to his contemporaries, and he ensures for himself a proportionate amount of honour among those who will come after him. Yet surely those by whose wise and careful administration a fabric is strengthened and made available for later generations of occupants are as worthy of praise as the brilliant Manlius, albeit their labours are conducted silently and without display of any kind. It is evident we are not alone in the belief that periodical increases in the Girls' establishment are not to be expected too often, except at the risk of endangering the whole structure. We have reached a point at which, in our opinion, we may pause for a time till we learn for certain that the Institution rests on a sound and enduring basis. We may anticipate that the approaching Festival, under the presidency of His Royal Highness the Prov. G.M. of Oxfordshire and Past Grand Warden of England, will be a great success; but even if the result should exceed our most sanguine expectations, we trust the good sense of the School authorities will prevent the policy of extension from being carried further. Enthusiasm is a very fine thing in its way, but a handsome sum in Government Securities is a reality whose benefits it is impossible to deny. When the fixed income is £3000 or £4000, it may be politic as well as possible to take a step further, and charge ourselves with the duty of maintaining and educating a few more Girls; but, with due respect to those who hold a different opinion, we consider the increase latterly of over thirty per cent. in the number of pupils, and the outlay of £16,000 for additional premises, is progress enough for the present.

There is another point to be considered. Those who subscribe so liberally year after year have an undoubted right to insist that the total contributed shall be made as widely beneficial as possible. But they must not lose sight of the fact that by increasing and increasing our liabilities they to a great extent bind those who come after them to maintain the School at a certain strength as well as in a certain state of efficiency, even though the circumstances in which the next generation of Masons may find itself placed may be far less favourable. We are now recovering from a serious and prolonged depression of trade. We have narrowly escaped a formidable and costly war. Is it likely that if we had not so fortunately surmounted these perils, the subscriptions to our Charities would have been on the same scale? We cannot always reckon on a continuance of sunshine, and it is our duty to make all the provision we can against a rainy day. We should feel it bitterly if we found some time hence we had undertaken a task it was beyond our strength to continue, and those, on whom the unpleasant alternative of contracting the present sphere of usefulness of our Institutions devolved, would have just cause to complain of the impolicy of handing on to them a duty to which their strength had proved unequal. On the other hand, they will have reason to praise us if we leave the permanent financial affairs of our Institutions in a healthy state, so that whether a rainy day come or no, it may be in their power to maintain intact both their numerical strength and their efficiency. We have been induced to offer these remarks, owing to the dissatisfaction expressed in some quarters at the large expenditure recently incurred in the purchase of Lyncombe House. The purchase is now effected, and the sense of dissatisfaction is no doubt rapidly passing away; but, for aught we know to the contrary, further steps in the same direction of ill-advised progress may be taken sooner or later. If the next Festival is an unprecedently good one, it may be suggested to add to the number of the pupils, and this, however desirable, would assuredly be a most unwise course to recommend. Consolidation, not extension, is the policy for the time being. We are doing our duty to the Girls, and there are those who hold we have done something more than our duty in respect of premises. Let us now try and give more permanent strength to the Institutions, the welfare of which all Craftsmen so desire to uphold.

Digitized by Google

THE ALLEGED DISCOVERY OF MASONIC EMBLEMS.

SINCE our last remarks on this subject, we have received copy of an American contemporary, in which are stated the opinions of two distinguished American Masons, one of whom is editor of a well-known Masonic periodical, while the second is none other than Bro. Robert Morris, LL.D., Past Grand Master of Kentucky, and a literary craftsman who is known almost as well in this as he is in his own country. It will be seen that on one point these learned Doctors of the Craft differ widely from each other.

Bro. Thomas J. Melish, editor Masonic Review, very wisely refrains from expressing a decided opinion as to the value of these alleged discoveries, "until they have been duly examined by critical and competent authority." "If," says he, "they are merely Masonic emblems, without any other descriptions, they may only have allusion to operative Masonry, and so would have no archæological value. But if they be accompanied by any other mystic or cabalistic characters, it would go to show that they have some connection with speculative Masonry," of which he considers the meaning to be that "man is engaged in erecting a spiritual temple to the glory of the Great Architect of heaven and earth." He holds it very probable that the emblems in question have some mystic or spiritual significance, and has no doubt that "the science of Freemasonry came originally from Egypt, the cradle of ancient civilization." He suggests that Craft Masonry has a resemblance to that "primitive religion which mankind possessed and practised in the age before the patriarchs." This religion "was corrupted into heathen idolatries by some nations," but "blossomed and flowered out into the Hebrew religion under the designation of Moses." Bro. Melish thinks there are to be great discoveries in Egypt in a religious and archæological point of view. The investigation into the principles on which the Pyramids were constructed has already given us some wonderful revelations bearing alike upon science, religion, and Freemasonry, and probably Commander Gorringe's discoveries have "important bearings" upon the same subjects. So far Bro. Melish who, without committing himself, seems to regard these discoveries somewhat favourably, in the event, at least, of their being accompanied by "other mystic or cabalistic characters."

Bro. Morris also avoids anything like a thoughtful discussion "until he can see the objects or accurate drawings of them." Taking the emblems as they have been thus far described, he remarks that the square and trowel are among the necessary tools of architecture, and are "no more Freemasonic than the bread ate or the wine drank during the erection of an edifice." Such objects would be found in the crevices of a great platform as "a matter of course." The idea of a pure white stone representing a Masonic apron, he dismisses as "absurd," and thinks the emblem of a "pair of suspenders" would be as suggestive. Nor does he think much of the altars, there being "no regular form of a Freemason's altar," but perhaps for the word "altar" should be substituted "ashlar," so at least it occurred to us when we first read the description of the emblems. Bro. Morris then goes on to express his regret that the discoverers did not consult Bro. Oddi, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Egypt, who is "a most learned antiquary." Bros. Dr. Fanlon and Commander Gorringe are, he says, described as learned Freemasons, but the Telegram "fairly reeks with nonsensical statements," such as that "the Hiram version of Masonry is disproved by these revelations," and that "the ancients were familiar with the higher degrees of Masonry," and so forth, our worthy brother remarking that the higher degrees are certainly not more than a century and a half old, and that the base of the obelisk is not older than the time of Julius Cæsar, who lived a thousand years later than the illustrious Solomon. Bro. Morris then writes very sarcastically of so called Masonic discoveries. An Indian mound is opened, and in it is found a "stone which has a right angle or two, and behold! all through the press the news circulates the mound-builders were Freemasons." Or a traveller up Lake Superior "observes upon the Painted Rocks some drawings faintly resembling Masonic emblems, and the builders of Solomon's Temple journeyed through America, and here are the evidences." As to Masonic symbols few of them are ancient, the "Pentagon used by King Solomon for his signet, the Hebrew letter suggesting the early names of the Deity, the forms of the more familiar working-tools of the stonemason and carpenter," well nigh exhausting the list. The great mistake made by writers is, in the opinion of our learned brother, that they imagine "that every ancient secret society was Freemasonic or allied to Freemasonry." As to the Egyptian forms of secretism they "were in theory exactly opposite to Freemasonry, and their emblems and ceremonies cannot be used in any way to illustrate Freemasonry,"—in this respect differing apparently from Bro. Melish. The same holds good of "the Eleusinian and other mysteries of the ancients," the only secret society of which mention is made in history, which is analogous to Freemasonry, being that of "the Essenes described by Josephus." The evidence, however, in favour of "the Solomonic theory of Freemasonry," is to be found, according to Bro. Morris, in "the traditions and ceremonies preserved among the Oriental descendants of Esau and Jacob, the Bedouins and the Jews." The Arab races claim also to have preserved their "secretism communicated to them by the emissaries of King Solomon twenty-nine centuries since," and as the result of his journey to the East twelve years ago, he was able to demonstrate the existence among them of Freemasonry as "communicated by their fathers." Bro. Morris closes his remarks by saying that while he should be glad to find something upon a "platform erected by order of Julius Cæsar" to assist him in the work to which he has devoted his life, he is yet of opinion that, as far as the statements respecting these emblems have reached him, he "cannot find in them a discovery of the least importance." Truly may it be said, as in the mis-translated version of the proverb, "in the multitude of counsellors there is wisdom" enough to puzzle the philosopher into his grave.

TRACES OF CRAFT MASONRY IN THE ANCIENT RELIGION OF CHINA.

THANKS to the courtesy of R.W. Bro. C. Thorne, District Grand Master of Northern China, we have received copy of the minutes of the regular Communication of that District, held at the Masonic Hall, Shanghai, on the 7th January last. The proceedings were such as usually take place on these occasions. Minutes were read and confirmed, reports submitted and received, the District Grand Officers for the year were appointed. But when the regular business had been transacted, the District Grand Master mentioned that at an installation meeting he had attended some time previously, he met for the first time a "brother Chinaman," who, though he had received his degrees in America, took great interest in his work, and fully appreciated the benefits of Freemasonry. He did not know if any Chinaman had been initiated in Shanghai, but he had received two letters from Bro. Chaloner Alabaster, Her Majesty's Consul at Hankow, in which that brother pointed out clearly enough that something very like Craft Masonry must have existed in the Chinese Empire some three or four thousand years before our present era. What makes these letters more valuable is, that Bro. Alabaster has devoted himself to Chinese literature, and has dived deeply into their ancient literature and manners and customs. And certainly what he states affords ground for his belief as to the existence of a kind of Freemasonry in China in the earliest times.

In the first letter, dated "British Consulate, Hankow, 30th November 1879," the writer speaks of the many coincidences he has discovered, in the course of his studies, in the ancient religion of China with Masonry. Among others, he mentions the fact that "the oldest, or one of the oldest, words in the language for Right Conduct means literally The Square and Compasses, which we may assume, therefore, was then, as now, the symbol of the perfect man, and the reason for the adoption of the symbol is given by the explanation that these two symbols hieroglyphically express the sum of Chinese Philosophy." Another is found in the fact that the "four-square altar"—the ashlar of our Lodges—still exists "in the State Religion of the country as the symbol of nature." Another is "the use of the Square in their religious ceremonies," a fourth "the use of aprons, with various badges thereon, to denote the rank and offices of the various officers of religion;" and, last, that "the Deity, in the sense of the end we seek to reach, is spoken of as the S.W. Corner." And, "not only," adds the writer,

Digitized by Google

"do I find coincidences, but I find the explanation of many of our rites giving a more philosophic reason for them than is to be found in the modern ritual."

The second letter of the 10th December last enters more fully into the subject. One of the strongest points Bro. Alabaster points out is that, in the most ancient times, "the first care of the founder of a new dynasty" was to build a "Lodge or symbolic building to serve as a monument of the philosophy and religion, of which he was high priest and head," three of these, being the Lodges of the three first dynasties, being "figured in Duhalde." Then "one of the oldest offices is that of Grand Architect—not a mere Superintendent of Works—but "an officer selected for his wisdom to superintend the erection of these symbolic Lodges." Of the "four square cube as the symbolic altar," one such altar may be seen at Peking, where it stands as the "symbol of nature," and is known among foreigners as "the Altar of Earth." The "Compasses, the symbol of the circle by which they represent the Divinity, by which all is encircled and restrained in place, the endless near beginning of all," these are still perpetuated in Peking, there being in the "Circular Temple" an "Altar of Heaven," which, with that of earth, form the two altars of the State Religion brought down from the highest antiquity. Among the symbols are the skirret, as indicated in a certain Chinese character, meaning "the sources and origin of things," and the gavel, "which, I think, may be shown to be the same used by the ancient monarchs in the State Religious Services as a sceptre and mark of authority." And besides the aprons, to which allusion has already been made, jewels, or carved pieces of jade, are spoken of as being used as "insignia of office," and being "returned when the Grand Master the Emperor died, and accepted by his successor to such as he confirmed in office." Amongst other points of similarity are mentioned the "common doctrine that the N.E. marks the commencement and the S.W. the end of things, and also that of "the Brotherhood of mankind, the Emperor and his ministers being but the ablest workmen directing and carrying on the common weal" for the common welfare.

In the course of the discussion that followed, Bro. Kingsmill D.G.S.W. expressed his disagreement with Bro. Alabaster as to the degree of antiquity which he assigned to these symbols, on the ground that Chinese literature did not take its rise more than five or six centuries before Christ. At that time there was a rich store of myth and legend, which has been fortunately preserved, and deep in this it is Bro. Kingsmill's opinion will be found the origin of the symbolic use of the Square and Compasses. Among the other attributes of the Emperor Shun were the Siuen-ki and Yuh-wang, the Circle and Rule, which in origin, as well as etymology, are identified with the Chakra and Cangkha of Vishnu. Both Shun and Vishnu were associated with the ancient solar cult which, some three thousand years since, swept over Asia from west to east, and to this period, thinks Bro. Kingsmill, must be referred the symbolic use of the Square and Compasses, while "in the discus and conch of Vishnu and the corresponding circle and gemmous rule of the Chinese Shun," is the germ of the principal symbols of modern Freemasonry." A Bro. Rivington also spoke to the similarity "between the symbols of Masonry, those of the Egyptian Hierophants, and of Brahmanism," and of the last to those of the Chinese religious symbols.

While, as with reference to the recent alleged discovery of Masonic Emblems in Egypt, we are inclined to be cautious in accepting suggestions of the character above indicated, it cannot but strike us, and, no doubt, the great majority of our readers, that these coincidences, for a knowledge of which we are indebted to Bro. Alabaster's study of Chinese literature, are very curious—the symbolic meaning of the Square and Compasses, the Skirret, the Altar, &c., especially so. We should like to hear the opinion of brethren in England who have been in China—we know there are many such of great distinction among us—and who, from their acquaintance with the Chinese language and customs, are competent to offer such opinion.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS.—Though it is impossible, in this climate of changing temperature, to prevent ill-health altogether, yet its form and frequency may be much mitigated by the early adoption of remedial measures. When hoarseness, cough, thick breathing, and the attending slight fever indicate irritation of the throat or chest, Holloway's Ointment should be rubbed upon these parts without delay, and his Pills taken in appropriate doses, to promote its curative action. No catarrhs or sore throats can resist these remedies. Printed directions envelope every package of Holloway's medicaments, which are suited to all ages and conditions, and to every ordinary disease to which humanity is liable.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions of our Correspondents.

We cannot undertake to return rejected communications.

All Letters must bear the name and address of the Writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

ROYAL MASONIC PUPILS' ASSISTANCE FUND.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I do not see how it is possible there can be two opinions as to the advisability of establishing such a Fund as you described last week or how, with the influential support which has been enlisted on behalf of the Proposed Pupils' Assistance Fund, there can be the slightest doubt as to the success of the movement. It was pointed out by Lord Rosslyn at last year's Festival of the Royal Masonic Institution for Boys that something was needed in order to complete the good work so successfully carried out by that and its sister Institution for Girls, that something being a fund set apart for assisting pupils on leaving school. The hint or suggestion would seem to have taken a firm hold on the minds of many among the noble lord's audience, and probably among those who, though not present at that Festival, subsequently obtained, through the Masonic press, a knowledge of what was said on that occasion. I judge so, at least, from the position in which things now are, with a Fund of the character intended in course of organisation, and backed up by such an array of supporters as it has been rarely my lot to witness. However, now that the preliminary meeting has been held, I fancy I shall not seem to be too sanguine in anticipating that, though it will necessarily occupy some time ere this new Fund is in good working order, early in the course of next, if not in the current, year it will be available for the purposes proposed. As these have already been sufficiently described by you, I need not occupy your valuable space in doing so again; but I should like, with your permission, to say a few words on one portion of the scheme which seems to have attracted a considerable share of attention, although by its adoption the promoters have been charged with having made a "complete change of front," which implies that the promoters or propounders of the scheme have given up their original intention in favour of another of a totally different character. In the present case, for instance, it is generally, I believe, understood, and I have nowhere seen it officially denied, that the establishment of a Pupils' Assistance Fund was intended to meet the particular need pointed out, as I have said, by Lord Rosslyn at the Boys' School Festival last year; in other words, to provide an Assistance Fund for the benefit of those pupils of either School who on leaving might need assistance in starting them in life. Now this purpose still remains, but there has been superadded to it a plan for helping those candidates for admission into our Schools whom the fortune of the ballot may leave out in the cold, and who, after a period of hope, more or less prolonged, may at the age of eleven find themselves excluded from the benefits offered by these schools. But the extension of a plan so as to include something additional to the original idea does not amount to a "change of front." Were it the present purpose of the promoters to help the unsuccessful candidates instead of retiring pupils, they would have laid themselves open to the charge, but a body of men have full liberty to enlarge the scope of their original intention and yet retain intact their character for consistency. Speaking for myself alone, I think the idea as now officially explained is very much better, and far worthier, therefore, of support than it was at first described. The number of pupils has been greatly increased during the past few years, but in spite of this there is almost always a formidable list of unsuccessful, many of whom after three, four, and even more attempts break down altogether, the only result to them being a keen sense of disappointment and the sympathy of their friends. Now in the case of these unfortunate children, what a boon it would be to them in after life if they could obtain some slight assistance towards their schooling. I judge, from the station in life of many of the candidates' parents, that, had they lived or remained fairly prosperous, their children would have received a Middle Class education, the cost of which, though varying in different parts of London and the Provinces, is nowhere very high. I think I am right in saying that at the City Middle Class School, Cowper-street, City-road, the cost per boy does not exceed £5 per annum, the fees being twenty-five shillings a term—three terms to the year—while books, &c., absorb the balance. The expense at the Camden Town School for Girls is about the same, and every one knows there are, all over London, innumerable Seminaries, Institutions, Schools, and the like, where the charges are about the same, or but slightly in excess. Here, then, is an opportunity for assisting those who, when their names are placed on the list of candidates, are adjudged by the School authorities to be worthy of assistance. The cost of helping (say) ten unsuccessful boy and girl candidates would at this rate amount only to £50 a-year, or not many pounds more than is expended on the maintenance and education of one successful one. Something of this kind is done by certain local Masonic Educational Institutes, and it is found to answer excellently well. Of course it falls very far short of the benefits derived from our Schools; but on the principle that half a loaf is better than none, education without maintenance is better than no education at all. Moreover, there are cases in which the smaller help is preferred to the greater. Many parents would rather have their children brought up under their own immediate supervision, and this can be done if they go to the school in the vicinity of their homes. Others, again, like their children to be trained at schools patronised by people of their own religious faith. Then, the brethren living in the neighbourhood, can, if they are so minded, take an active interest in the young folks' progress. In short, if the help afforded is of a somewhat limited character, considered pecuniarily, it has many good points to recommend it. As to how the selection of unsuccessful candidates for this assistance should be made is a matter on which I do not propose to say much. Those highest on the poll after the successful, or those who have made most attempts, might be chosen. Once the Fund is established, and the appropriation of some of its moneys to this particular form of help is included in the programme, and it will be very easy to lay down the necessary regulations, not only as to selection, but as to the amount and the length of time for which the grants shall be made. The general conception being a good one, the manner in which the details shall be carried out may be left for the present. I think whoever suggested this part of the scheme deserves great credit.

Digitized by Google

As to the other objects, it is admitted that there are boys and girls who, on leaving school, require a little help to start them, for are not outfits and annuities voted in sundry cases? The amount disbursed under that head in the Girls' School account for 1879—to take an example—is over £35, and the same item occurs in the Boys' School accounts. The fact that these are only small amounts is at least a kind of guarantee that the Fund about to be raised will not be used extravagantly. Exceptional cases may arise, as they have arisen, in which something on a larger scale will have to be done; and it strikes me it is better this should be done, so to speak, officially than by appealing to the Craft for assistance as occasion demands. If it is reported that young Jones or Miss Smith is likely to shine in some particular calling, but is without means and friends to help them, I argue it is better they should be dealt with by the Committee of this Fund than that manifestoes should be drawn up on their behalf, soliciting help from the Masonic public, and I think it would be more congenial to the children themselves, if they are assisted quietly than where their poverty is made known throughout the whole world of Freemasonry. Again, if a register of appointments is kept, and influence used in order to obtain them for deserving pupils, even the outlay of money may be found unnecessary, while good conduct in the positions they fill will be a sufficient return for the obligations conferred on them. Indeed, the purposes enumerated in your recent article are, in my judgment, indisputably worthy—a proposition to which I fail to see even the mildest negation can be offered. I hope, if you can find space for these remarks, that by the time they meet the eye of your readers, the scheme will have been formally approved in outline, and the necessary steps decided on, in order to carry into effect what has been begun so auspiciously. I hope, too, the arduous labours of the promoters will be ungrudgingly recognised. They have done much already, though there is still much that remains to be done.

Fraternally yours,

WELL-WISHER.

London, 12th March 1880.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I heard with pleasure in Grand Lodge the few but able remarks offered by Bros. Clabon and Hogg, when those brethren pointed out the necessity and desirability of rendering assistance to children at a most critical age, and the exceptional position held by our Institutions in staying the good work begun before it has time to bear fruit, but which is recognised by almost every other Institution, even by our Board Schools, as being as essential to the requirements of the children as the schooling itself. I was very sorry Bro. Clabon's motion was withdrawn, as I believe no better purpose could be found for our surplus funds than that proposed, and how it can be found illegal or not in the spirit of the intention of the Founders of the Charity to assist the Mason's child, which I will guarantee to say is the predominant wish of every mother's and widow's heart, I fail to see. In course of conversation I heard it freely urged, "raise a separate Fund." This we now propose to do. That its benefits may be general, not only will the proposed Committee be invested with power to hold the most deserving cases on leaving school, but also, if funds admit, deserving unsuccessful candidates for the privileges of our admirable Institutions. This may appear a wide field, but it is very desirable no difference should arise in after years as to the purposes to which the funds may be applied. Otherwise, as in the present case with the Fund of Benevolence, an enormous sum might accumulate, which is not needed for the specific purposes of the Fund, and cannot constitutionally be devoted to any other. No doubt Masons in after years will be as able to carry on the same admirable work as we are doing, but beyond investing a reasonable sum in Government securities it is not politic to collect funds for the coming generation.

You will see I have mentioned the word "deserving." Now it seems to be the feeling of many that the object of the Royal Masonic Pupils' Assistance Fund is to assist every pupil, no matter what his prospects. This, I think, should be immediately corrected. It will sometimes happen that the most deserving cases are not elected to the benefits of our Institutions, but those which command the most influence. Therefore, all boys and girls will not of necessity be the objects chosen for the benefits of this Assistance Fund, unless they are in the first place worthy, and, in the next, show some extraordinary capacity which it may be thought desirable to cultivate; but even in these cases the co-operation, where possible, of the Pupils' friends will be necessary, as it is not proposed to devote heavy amounts to one to the exclusion of others. If, as before stated, funds admit, what more deserving object of our bounty can be found than unsuccessful candidates? Are they not often the most friendless and deserving? A few pounds per annum towards defraying their schooling, either during the time of their candidature or after, if unsuccessful, will reap a golden harvest in the gratitude of the widow unable, for the want of means, to cope with her distress. It is said we are seeking to elevate the children of distressed Masons, to the disadvantage of the children who may be subscribers. Such jealousy I cannot understand existing in the heart of any brother. Masonry is not a Benefit Society, and if we are at any time able to assist a poor brother's child, does not our Masonic brotherhood teach us it should be our aim to do that, even though it might lead to his occupying a better position than he could have hoped for. Lastly, on the question of rivalling the existing Institutions, I feel sure all who give the subject a little attention—and especially after what was said at the meeting of Thursday last—will recognise that the promoters have nothing of the kind in contemplation. Much good may be done in the directions I have indicated, and that without in any way checking the flow of contributions towards them. It cannot too often be too strenuously laid down that this not a rival, but an Assistance Fund, and the assistance it is proposed to give will be given on a limited scale to deserving pupils, and deserving unsuccessful candidates.

I am,

Dear Sir and Brother,

Yours fraternally,

DICK RADCLYFFE.

To the Editor of THE FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I was much surprised on reading the report in the Times of this meeting, and a letter manifesting the same spirit of opposition and misrepresentation, which appeared the day following in that journal bearing the signature "P.M." The notice, too, in the Sunday Times is so similar in tone that one might easily be pardoned for suggesting that it was written by the same person. Be this as it may, or rather let the reports have been written by whom they may, I think it high time that a protest should be entered against the practice, unfortunately too common, of reporters making the notices they write convey as nearly as possible their own views on the subject. I have had some experience of the press, but I venture to say there never was a more flagrant case of this kind than is afforded by the reports I have referred to. I believe it is pretty generally known that Bro. White attended as the representative of the Times on Thursday week last, when the preliminary meeting of the promoters of this Fund was held. He addressed the meeting, and his remarks, to the effect that he had been given to understand it was proposed to purchase the goodwill of businesses for ex-pupils, &c., &c., evoked the strongest expressions of dissent. Lord Rosslyn explicitly stated that a fourth Charity was not contemplated. Lord Carnarvon was quoted as, and Lord Skelmersdale declared himself to be against adding to the number of our institutions, and Bro. Dick Radclyffe said the particulars given in the prospectuses issued were the sum of the suggestions he had received from different quarters. Yet, according to the Times and the Sunday Times, the meeting was held for the purpose of establishing a fourth Charity of a most ambitious character, and having for object very little short of the life-long support of the children who pass through our Schools. A truthful report would have shown that not a single one of the speeches indicated anything of the kind, except that delivered by the brother I have named. I ask, Is it just to misrepresent so absolutely the character of the meeting, as to pass off on the public the exact converse of what took place? I have no right to object to a brother taking an exaggerated view of a Pupils' Assistance Fund, nor would it become me to resent any opposition he may conscientiously feel called upon to offer to a plan I think well of; but I have the right to call upon a representative of the press to set aside all personal feeling and write a true and impartial account of what took place on a certain occasion. If ever a man was in a minority of one, Bro. White was when he spoke on Thursday amid the impatient dissent of his whole audience, yet any one who reads the report in the paper he represented, and who was not present to judge for himself of what took place, must as a matter of course be under the impression that the meeting was held for the purpose described. The title of the Fund is quite enough to show that its character will be subsidiary, and that nothing more is intended than to provide help for deserving pupils who need it, or for candidates who fail to obtain admission into the Schools. To say this Fund is something more, and that it is intended to found Scholarships and send boys to the Universities, to help them to enter the Naval and Military services, and to buy Commissions for them is, to put in the mildest form, a monstrous exaggeration.

I am, yours fraternally,

SERRIC.

BEDFORDSHIRE.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—Your correspondent "OBSERVER" has, I think, hit the right nail on the head when he attributes the non-representation of this county at our Festivals to its not being organised as a Province, and as there are smaller Provinces already in existence, I agree with him and you that there is no reason why it should not be constituted as such forthwith. It would surely give a legitimate impetus to Freemasonry in this part if the five Lodges already in existence met together in Provincial Grand Lodge for the purpose of discussing the welfare of the Craft generally, and of Beds in particular. Occasionally, too, something would no doubt be done for our Institutions, and the agreeable spectacle would be witnessed of Bedfordshire Stewards vieing with those from other parts of the country in helping Charities, the help afforded by which, it seems, one, at all events, of the Beds Lodges does not think it beneath its dignity to solicit. I do not anticipate there would be a very large increase in the number or strength of its Lodges if there were a Provincial Grand Lodge established, but I think the friendly intercommunications of brethren would necessarily bring about a most genial feeling among the Lodges. I dare say a good chief can be found who will have very little difficulty in smoothing down any minor differences which may exist, supposing, at least, there are any (say) of the kind indicated by your correspondent, and once that is done, the apathy and lack of harmony now prevailing, or said to prevail, will give place to energy and the utmost cordiality. I trust the suggestion which "OBSERVER" has offered, will bear fruit.

Digitized by Google

Fraternally yours,

G. K. E.

GRAND LODGE AND BRO. STEVENS' MOTION.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—In the letter of "A P.G. CHAPLAIN, P.M., P.Z., P.M.W.S., 32°," under the above heading, in your impression of this date, I fancy I recognise the composition of my most pronounced opponent in respect of the formation of the Committee of inquiry into practices of Masonic Working.

If I am correct in this impression, the cause I have at heart requires that I should meet him upon the new ground he has chosen for his illogical arguments and misrepresentations. If I am mistaken, the subject matter of the letter nevertheless requires correction, whoever may be its author.

In either case, I cannot imagine how any one can describe the recent action of Grand Lodge otherwise than as a change of mind without reasonable cause. In "one of the most crowded meetings" we have ever had, December 1869, Grand Lodge affirmed the principle on motion made, and agreed to the appointment of a Committee; at its ensuing meeting it confirmed that resolution, and if there be any force at all in our "Regulations for the Government of the Craft," and the words at page 28,—"If carried and confirmed at the next ensuing meeting of Grand Lodge it becomes a law,"—then I say that we cannot get away from the fact that there is a law which has not been revoked, and which a dignified and honourable body, such as Grand Lodge is, should see either expunged altogether or fairly carried out.

My motion in December last was that "the Committee be now appointed." This was resolved upon, and nothing could have arisen, or rather, did arise, in the interval between then and the meeting of 3rd March, which rendered the non-confirmation of the resolution other than the result of "pique" and party feeling.

Such non-confirmation only defers to a future period the appointment of the Committee, in accordance with an existing law enacted ten years ago.

Does my "Grand" opponent desire it to be understood that the "comparatively small meetings" of Grand Lodge should be of less effect in respect of their deliberations than the most crowded meetings? If so, what would become of some of our most useful Grand Lodge decisions? Where is the logic of such an argument?

Does he really mean to charge me with "misrepresenting historical facts?" If so, I beg to refer him, and all those others who have personally informed me that my motion of December 1869 was not confirmed and made law, to the minutes of the Grand Lodge for the dates referred to. He and they will find that after confirmation of the resolution to appoint a Committee the appointment of such Committee was alone deferred, and not the motion itself. That there may be no further misunderstanding on this point, I append an extract from the report of Grand Lodge meeting of the 2nd March 1870. After the minutes of the previous meeting had been confirmed,

"Bro. Stevens having nominated certain brethren to form the Committee, &c.,

"Bro. Horace Lloyd, Q.C., proposed an amendment, namely,—'That the appointment of this Committee be deferred until the next meeting of the Grand Lodge.' He did so on two grounds—first, he gathered that, in the opinion of those around him, too large a number had been nominated to give an efficient working Committee—a Committee which, it must be remembered, would have to inquire, to investigate, and to report; and secondly, because he thought it was the general opinion that the subject had not been sufficiently considered to enable those present to recommend with precision those who should be nominated to serve on the proposed Committee. His own idea was that the Committee should be formed from among a few eminent Freemasons to represent schools of opinion, and that the Grand Registrar, the Grand Secretary, and the Chairman of the Board of General Purposes should be added to their number. Such a Committee, he ventured to think, would give a free and impartial report upon the question, which would probably receive approval from all quarters, and he therefore ventured to hope that the consideration of the matter of the election of the Committee would be postponed to the next meeting of Grand Lodge.

"The amendment, viz., 'That the question of the nomination of the Committee be deferred until next Grand Lodge,' was put and carried."

Is this a revocation of the law in the fulfilment of which the proposed Committee was nominated? Most decidedly, no. And therefore am I not right in urging the fact that one of two courses must be adopted before Grand Lodge can be freed from the solemn obligation to observe its own enactments? Either the absolute converse of the accepted motion should be as solemnly decreed as was the enactment itself, or its purport should be honourably carried into full effect.

I believe the author of the letter to which I am replying has the very best opportunity for referring to the file of the Freemason, from which paper I extract the foregoing. How, then, can he be so disingenuous as to let it be inferred that the motion of December 1869 was rejected? Whether it be agreeable to him or those he can influence, the fact is still ineradicable. Grand Lodge has made a law which it does not see fit to carry out? Are others of its laws treated in like manner? Read through the Book of Constitutions, and observe!

Your correspondent says, "Had Bro. Stevens contented himself with asking for a Committee of inquiry into irregularities, &c., few brethren would probably have objected." What else have I asked for? The exact words of the law made by Grand Lodge in 1869-70 are as follows:—

"That with a view to securing greater uniformity of working and observance of the 'same usages and customs' throughout the several Lodges held under the authority of the Grand Lodge of England, a Committee of Past Masters be appointed to inquire into the merits of the respective systems of working now in practice, and to report to Grand Lodge thereon, with such recommendations as they may think necessary to prevent deviation from the established mode, such deviations being, according to the Constitutions of Freemasonry, improper, and not to be justified or countenanced."

Is there one word in this which refers to ritual? Why, then, should it be thrust upon me that I desire to interfere with "Ritualistic practices," which may have a charm for some minds, although probably objectionable to others? Some things may be to your correspondent "extremely interesting," which to others may be viewed with "horror and indignation," and very possibly the Committee, when appointed in accordance with the law of Grand Lodge, may not interfere with such details, whilst, nevertheless, reporting that some modification in respect thereof might advantageously be made.

I am not alone in thinking it a very unfortunate thing that a decision made, confirmed, and re-affirmed by Grand Lodge can be so obstructed as to practically make the law-giver a law-breaker.

I cannot, if I would, having regard to my convictions on this subject, let the matter rest in its present phase. My future action must be governed by the surrounding circumstances of the moment. It may be that I shall myself propose to Grand Lodge that the law it enacted in 1869-70 be absolutely cancelled. Until this be done, or the Committee appointed, we may "gild the pill" as much as we please, but no other expression than that of "self-stultification" will define the present inconsistency of Grand Lodge.

For my own part, I can conscientiously affirm that I have fought the battle for Uniformity of Working, or, as some prefer to call it, Unity of Essentials, fairly, and without misrepresentation or "falutin." I have "pulled no wire," nor have I "sacrificed truth and fair play at the shrine of party interest." Can my opponents say as much? No word of disrespect to Grand Lodge or Grand Lodge Officers has ever emanated from me, and I challenge even my most virulent opposer to put his finger on any written sentence of mine which is improper or un-Masonic. That I have given "blow for blow," in an epistolary sense, I must perforce admit, but not one has been delivered in a covert manner. And I am prepared to continue the fight, if necessary, and shall certainly do so upon the very slightest encouragement. The field of controversy is as open for myself as for others, and it is one in which I delight to find argumentative exercise.

If the matter is not kept well before the Craft until the law is revoked, or the Committee appointed, it will not be my fault.

Yours faithfully and fraternally,

JAMES STEVENS,

P.M., P.Z., P.M.W.S., 18°.

Clapham, S.W., 13th March 1880.

MASONIC DESIGNATIONS.

To the Editor of the FREEMASON'S CHRONICLE.

DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—I notice the growing practice of prefixing novel appellations to the Masonic titles of distinguished brethren, e.g., the Grand Treasurer is frequently addressed as, and he is constantly being termed by your contemporary, the "gallant" Chairman, &c., &c. Is this to become Masonically universal? Or, is it an innovation? It would sound somewhat oddly to address Bro. Hervey's successor as the "gallant" Grand Secretary. One would have thought the Masonic titles of Worthy, Worshipful, Very Worshipful, &c., sufficient for ordinary parlance or use. Is this an outcome of the prevalent fashion—"want of uniformity?"

Yours truly and fraternally,

CYPHER.

That what appears in these columns is not only read but carefully studied, must be evident from a communication we have received within the last few days, in which we are asked to correct an error, for which we are not responsible, but which nevertheless crept into the list of Stewards' contributions at the last Festival of the Benevolent Institution, It seems that Comp. Theophilus Hallett, whose list amounted to two hundred guineas, represented not only Chapter No. 174, as described in our list of 14th February, but also Lodge No. 781 (Merchant Navy). We regret that it was impossible for us to have avoided the omission, and it is with the greatest pleasure we take this our first opportunity of correcting an error which appears to have required nearly a month to discover. We can well understand that Lodge No. 781 should feel hurt that their help had received no recognition, and that while they shared with Chapter No. 174 the credit of furnishing, by the hands of their joint Steward, one of the most considerable three-figure contributions, the Chapter got all the credit. We trust this sorrow will give place to a corresponding sense of joy when they read this small tribute we now render to their practical benevolence, as illustrated at the first of this year's Festivals.

Digitized by Google

NOTICES OF MEETINGS.

Upton Lodge of Instruction, No. 1227.—At Bro. Legg's, the King and Queen, Norton Folgate, on Thursday the 11th inst. Present:—Bros. Andrews W.M., Hine S.W., Legg J.W., Fenner Preceptor, Gieseke S.D., Klein I.G., also Bros. Bromet, Thorpe, Wilson, Bronckhurst, &c. All formalities were duly complied with. Bro Thorpe proved himself an efficient E.A., and was entrusted. Lodge was advanced and the ceremony of passing rehearsed in a most excellent manner, Bro. Thorpe being the candidate. The W.M. worked the third section of the lecture, assisted by the brethren. Lodge being closed to the first degree, the W.M. worked the first section of that lecture, assisted by the brethren. Bros. Wilson of the Excelsior Lodge No. 1155 and Thorpe of Faith Lodge No. 141 were duly elected members. Bro. Hine was appointed to preside at the next meeting, after which Lodge was closed and adjourned.

