WORLD PEACE --- YOU CAN HELP CREATE IT

Greetings in the "Light" of Our Radiant One, I am Korton. May 3, 1986

Not too light a subject, but one most worthy of comment for those of us concerned with the current state of things on planet Earth these days. It is difficult to pursue daily life without thought of nuclear power plant catastrophes, nuclear war devices being sent aloft into space, rockets blowing up on launching pads and mid-air, men playing soldier in various parts of the world and fanatics plying their deadly wares in the guise of vengeful terrorists.

World peace? How can this possibly be achieved with all the craziness going on? How is it that persons of world leadership seem so bent upon avenues of warfare as their goal? What is this mania which seems to be overtaking the thinking of so-called rational man on Earth?

Is it the reincarnation of souls from Maldek (the planet now known as your asteroid belt) or souls from Atlantis and Lemuria again trying to grope with successful ways to blow themselves into eternity? Perhaps it's just group karma at work avenging "wrongs" from other Earth lifetimes. Do you really think so? If there truly are no "rights" or "wrongs" in the universe, and there aren't, my friends, how can all this current upheaval be explained?

Do you recall the toilet paper scare? It seems one of your late night comedians, Johnny Carson by name, put out the word that the paper products industry was running short of that all important product and that people were cleaning the grocery store shelves in order to stock up their supplies. Do you recall what happened? There was almost a national run on toilet paper, and shelves did become practically bare until paper companies were able to reassure the public there were was no such threat of shortage.

You have on your planet a little button labelled PANIC. When all else fails, push the panic button. This seems to be the guiding force in many decision-making situations upon your world. This is rational thinking? Is not Earthman separated from the rest of the animal kingdom because of his rational thinking abilities? Sometimes one wonders.

Thus it is that there is much concern throughout the universe, not to omit your planet herself, about the direction life is going these days. We cannot afford another Maldek. The solar system was thrown into great disorder by that planet's demise. Souls may reincarnate in new worlds, but it is not so easy to create replacement planets. The existing order of your solar system needs all its components in order to survive.

Earth is being closely monitored from many realms at this time. It has been said before, and I repeat it again, men of Earth may exterminate themselves all they wish to, but the planet shall not be destroyed. In this regard, divine powers have been given the right to intervene. The planet shall survive with, or without, the presence of those we would call Earthmen.

Hopefully people of Earth will become aware of the "Light" (see the Light, as you say) and direct their thinking in more "lighted", loving, caring and positive directions than at present. When they do they shall find that they are the ones who will be present when the curtain goes up on The New Age.

This is not truly a problem for those of you reading these words. You would not be reading them if it were. Our job, and yours, is to spread the word of the coming age of enlightenment to all corners of the world. Bring before the unenlightened masses of your world the hope and vision of a Golden Age for your planet free from all negative aspects of life as observed at this time. Impossible, you say? Only if you think so.

All that you know, all that you observe, all that you sense was created through thought. Perhaps the first six words of your Holy Bible should have read, "In the beginning God created thought," for it is thought that truly brought things into being regardless of realm of existence. Semantics? Perhaps, but not enough has been stated on the true power of positive thinking and the thought behind it. Thinking is that process which occurs as a result of a thought. Thinking expands a thought in any direction a person chooses to pursue, be it considered positive or negative. Again, these directions are perceptions on the part of the person making them.

One interesting factor of Earthlife as we see it is what we might call "the insignificance factor." Individuals often feel insignificant and rather helpless when it comes to bringing about change in your world. "What can I, one of billions of people on this planet, do to affect change in a more 'Lighted' direction? you ask. First of all, know that there are tens of thousands (and do not put limits on this number) of persons like yourself who are vitally interested in Earth's progress toward enlightenment. You, and they, are on Earth at this time for this very reason.

Each person aware of the power of the "Light", aware of the concern for Earth from all spiritual realms, aware of his or her own divine essence, and aware of the importance of his or her own reason for being on Earth should have no problem with insignificance.

Each of you is like a very bright candle. Think of your candlelight as a beacon of "Light" upon a rather dark little planet, and multiply the "Light" you can individually direct to the planet by the tens of thousands plus that are there with you. What do you have? You have an enlightening glow, a spreading of "Light" which is increasing every day throughout the world as awarenesses unfold and channel ever increasing power of the "Light" through them.

You may be one, but you are not alone. You are part of a very significant mission to planet Earth. Tens of thousands of you are directing the "Light" of Our Creator to the planet. Each one of you is doing his or her own part in the greater mission of enlightment, and together there is a very discernible, ever-growing emission of light energies observed coming from your planet. You are making an effect on the planet, each single one of you! Keep up the good work. Keep invoking the "Light" for the growing enlightenment of the planet and all upon it. Invoke the "Light" for peace on Earth and the brotherhood of man.

On December 31, 1986, millions of people all over the world will be joining together at noon Greenwich time (4 A.M. Pacific time) to think, visualize, pray and invoke the "Light" for peace, wholeness and harmony in your world. This truly will be a joint global effort of great positive consequence. Pass the word along. A coordinated "Light" effort such as this will have greater effects than you can presently perceive in your conscious awareness. Each one of you can make a big impact!

In the "Light" of our Radiant One, I am Korton. Peace be with you now and forever. Adonai.

ANTICIPATION MOUNTING FOR PLANETARY COMMISSION PRAYER TIME

Here we are at the beginning of summer, but the vibrations are rising with greater and greater expectancy for the PEACE PRAYER AND HEALING OF PLANET EARTH DECEMBER 31st, 1986!

According to a Quartus Foundation report at least 57 world wide organizations are (at this time) joining in cooperation in encouraging participation in the prayers. They have heard from 34 countries, and all of the states of the United States. (Truly, this is a larger undertaking than most of us envisioned!) We feel heartened by the response of many of our Golden Dawn readers who have sent in signed slips. We are forwarding all of the names and from what country on to Quartus Foundation. They are keeping records. (No specific address is being given.)

Many ask "What Is The Planetary Commission?" "It is our opportunity as individuals, and as a world body, to begin to heal and bring our planet back into harmony and balance - a worldwide non-denominational, non-political, cooperative effort that will unite people in a common bond with a common goal = PEACE ON EARTH. On Dec.31, 1986, from 12 noon to 1:00 P.M. Greenwich Mean Time, people around the world will gather in spirit and simultaneously send out love and light in meditation, prayer, song or whatever form of worship is most meaningful to them. They will visualize the world as peaceful, harmonious and balanced, with everyone having all they need to live a productive and fulfilligg life."

Most of us are well aware of the daily "negative mass consciousness" as served up in the news media, etc. THIS DEC. 31st IS OUR OPPORTUNITY to set in motion a "COLLECTIVE POSITIVE CONSCIOUSNESS". "Whatever the form of prayer or worship is, we know it will be the Divine Idea behind the words that will release the spiritual energy into the mass world consciousness".

We have been most pleased to read that there will not be competition but cooperation. All are being encouraged to share their "Light, Love and Energies" on this Healing Occasion. The words from Quartus are:

> "With that thought in mind, I issue an invitation to all groups, organizations and individuals now sharing space on Earth and beyond to participate in what can be the greatest New Year's Eve Celebration in history. Together we can transform Planet Earth."

No doubt many will join in the time and day of prayer for Peace on Earth who have not signed their name and sent in a slip. Of course the slips tend to encourage the movement and the gathering of power, BUT turning in your name is not a necessity. Be saving the date! In the next Golden Dawn issue we will publish the Meditation that has been suggested for the occasion, so that those who wish to may use it. Also, we will print the Greenwich time for a number of large cities around the world, so you can be figuring out what time it would occur in your area. (In our area it will be 5:00 A.M.)

We close this write-up with the first part of suggestions of what YOU CAN DO to participate: "Seek peace within yourself. We are encouraging everyone to start NOW to pray, meditate and visualize peace within themselves, and then send it out into the world."

CHAIN OF LIGHT

Make me, Lord, part of the chain
Of Light and Truth and Love,

Part of the might to strengthen Light
You send from Heaven above.

Make me, Lord, part of the Plan
To restore Thy peace on earth,

Where Christ reborn each Easter morn,
Is proof of man's rebirth.

Make me, Lord, part of the chain
To seal the door shut tight,

Where evil dwells, its magic spells
Cast out in Christ pure Light.

Then man again in Truth can say,
I love you, you're my brother,

Our ROOTS the same
Part of God's flame,
We are ONE -
Part of each other.

Noree Pope, 2312 Heidi Place, #3, Santa Rosa, CA 95401

I live in the PRESENT - calmly, peaceably, courageously,
Confident in the knowledge that a goal is reached
ONE STEP AT A TIME.
When the FUTURE becomes the PRESENT, it will come bearing sweet fruits of ALL the Positive thoughts of which I put into TODAY.

THE BREATH OF SPIRIT

Excerpts from the Diary of Phoenecia - (copyright)
Beloved Self of Mine:

Your nostrils and nose are the physical organs of sense that connects you directly to your Spiritual Source, and your lungs are the bellows that operate these creative nasal instruments. Therefore, I recommend that you dear ones use the following affirmation every single day of your lives: "My lungs are the lungs of God, as me, SPIRITUALLY creating my perfect world in my image and likeness." Repeat this four times.

Normally you breath thru your nose, but when you need extra Power to expand the nourishing substance of your blood, you open your mouth and use the Power Center of your throat to help you get more oxygen, thus increasing your intake of Life's vital energy. That is why a sore throat simply means that you're feeling powerless in some area of your life, and when you try to bring in your Spiritual Breath (or Prana) your sense of inadequacy - your resisting consciousness causes you pain. Your cycle of breath not only gives you a continuing supply of Life from your Animating Presence, it also draws in the emotional substance your aura holds - the form-making essence you put there yourself, and from which you create your world,

If you've been sending out Love to ANYONE - friend, stranger or foe, as Jesus instructed you to do for good reason, that Love is redrawn into your lungs as the very material, that outwardly becomes your body and the experiences you meet. Of course, your lesser emotions will be returned in this way too, causing you to have trouble and pain, for as I've said so many times before, the feelings you send out leave their ample residue behind. This is the only supply of substance you will ever have to use in creating your reality on Earth. Therefore, if you would be happy and have only good in your life, you must fill your heart with Love, for it alone, becomes perfection. All the emotional substance you give out and draw back with your breath is a part of yourself. You created it out of your feelings concerning YOU and the world that you live in, and it therefore takes form in your "image and likeness." As your lungs draw in these qualified feelings, ,the thoughts you are thinking remold it, and when you exhale, this newly patterned material is sent forth again to reproduce and maintain your body and surroundings accordingly.

Thus with every breath you take, YOU, the creator, (for after all Jesus said you were Gods) are constantly making and remaking your world for yourself. Therefore, no one else can be blamed for what you are experiencing right now except you. Each human breath draws in the emotional material you've CHOSEN to use by the way you have decided to FEEL, and your present ideas become the mental molds that shape this form-making essence into what occultists actually call THOUGHT-FORMS. You make your own and they are a part of your life. Consequently, when you exhale them out into your environment they live there and grow, especially when your other thoughts and feelings add to their strength by their similar vibrations, and pretty soon you can see them and meet them around you.

God (in you, as you) formed your body from "the dust of the Earth,"according to the Karmic patterns you created in the past. On the day you were born, God (as you) breathed into your lungs the Breath of Life making your outer instrument a part of your "Living soul," - or in other words, your body, with whom you then commenced to identify yourself, became one with your life-stream - a living soul, made visible on Earth.

As long as this Breath of Life continues within the physical you, you'll create your world with the help of your lungs, according to the thoughts and feelings you entertain about yourself and your relationship to others. Therefore, your experiences in the flesh are nothing but a mirror image of the present state of YOU, and that is why you've been told to love yourself, Your Real Self, which is the God in you, with all your heart, soul and strength and to love the life in others as if it were your own. That is how Jesus became a Christ. That is how you can become a Christ, for it is the only method of reaching Mastery. The true Christed individual must create perfection, regardless of where He stands, be it over his own world and surroundings or over a universe, and Love is the Substance from which perfection takes form. It s as simple as that!

As I said before, your nose is your most sensitive Spiritual instrument. It activates your Breath of Life and if it is plugged, full contact with your Wonderful I Am Presence is impeded. That is why you find it so hard to meditate unless BOTH nostrils are open. However, the soul who really takes time to contact his Divine Nature every day, will seldom have this problem. He is not apt to contract sinus trouble or even a cold in the head, unless he backslides, as all of you do now and then, until you actually make your ascension.

In what is called High Samadhi, or that State of Inner Bliss, where you consciously realize you are merging with your Source of Life - where you and the Father are One, you'll find that your nostrils are actually flaired, for you will be trying to receive as much of this exalted Joy as you can. People with allergies, whose breathing is difficult, need to open this channel between their outer and Inner selves. They need to draw more on their Spiritual Nat ures. They have become so oriented to the material world that these outer things grow and expand in their heads, especially if they are intellectually inclined, until their physical breathing becomes irritated and choked. The sufferer can hardly draw a comfortable breath, for he's closed his Real Source of Wisdom and Love, and until he learns to depend on that instead of outer things, he can't get relief.

On the other hand, asthma usually begins in childhood because the newly arrived soul isn't used to the restrictions and general materiality of his Earthbound surroundings. More spiritually sensitive than the normal run of humans, he feels surpressed - cut off from the flow of his Divine Source, and the resulting trouble may continue thruout his life if it isn't recognized and lovingly treated. By teaching such a child to depend on his own Mighty I Am Presence for guidance and support, and allowing him the freedom to relax and be HIMSELF, the parent who really loves his little one in a non-possessive way and is unencumbered by a desire to dominate, may help him outgrow this smothering disease.

Now a word to all you Beautiful Disciples, whose greatest search in life is for Christedness. I'm going to give you a short exercise that won't be dangerous at your stage of unfoldment, like some of the Yogi breathing routines are. Such attempts to change the rhythm of the breath, in the hands of those not properly trained as Gurus, can lift, or even LOWER the unsuspecting person's soul from his body onto other planes of consciousness, for which he is unprepared. This may damage the brain, or worse still, cause him to face non-physical conditions that overwhelm him and throw him into insanity. However, this breathing exercise is simply designed to enhance the art of decreeing, that the GOOD you want may be established unto you, as Jesus promised.

First, get still, and for several minutes concentrate on feeling a great Love, a wonderful sense of adoration for your animating Life Presence - your very own Lord-God within who waits and longs to bring forth health, harmony, prosperity and perfection thru you, every moment of the day and night. You and the Father are One right now in this mutual all-encompassing Love, and when you begin to realize the Joy of this union with your own Divine Spirit deep in your heart of hearts, say, as you draw in your breath, "I am Christed NOW, and I always live accordingly." Then by your conscious decision, exhale this newly molded emotional thought-form out into your world.

In fact, you should do this three or four times a day, whenever you take a brief rest from your work. AS you repeatedly make this decree, you'll be adding a little more manifested essence to the Christliness you've already established in your aura with your first affirmation, causing it to grow, until you actually BECOME an incarnate Christ on Earth - a blessing unto yourself and unto every soul you meet. This isn't blasphemy, Beloved. Your Savior promised you that you could do everything He did, and more, and this is only said to show you how.

What you decree is definitely established unto you. It becomes your own and a part of yourself, so why not affirm the highest goal you can imagine. Then stand firm and witness the miracles that will prove the Truth that you are Gods.

In Love I Am the Christos-Vardis

HOW TO LOVE GOD

"To love God in the most practical way is to love our fellow beings. If we feel for others in the same way as we feel for our own dear ones, we love God.

If, instead of seeing faults in others, we look within ourselves, we are loving God.

If, instead of robbing others to help ourselves, we rob ourselves to help others, we ard loving God.

If we suffer in the sufferings of others and feel happy in the happiness of others, we are loving God.

If, instead of worrying over our own misfortune, we think of ourselves more fortunate than many, many others, we are loving God.

If we endure our lot with patience and contentment, accepting it as His Will, we are loving God.

If we understand and feel that the greatest act of devotion and worship to God is not to hurt or harm any of His beings, we are loving God.

To love God as He ought to be loved, we must live for God and die for God, knowing that the goal of life is to Love God, and find Him as our own self."

FROM LORD MICHAEL

Joy! Oh, what a magical word! And it can mean so many things to people. It can be the smile of a child, the warm glow in the heart of the elderly, and it can be expressed as Love and generosity, as a giving from one soul to another. It is a sharing of your Inner Self. It is the absence of selfishness and self-centeredness. It is present when the heart is open and when the mind is free to flow to the very pinnacles of Light and to draw forth that mystical Essence of the Soul - that Divine Draught which is the very Life Blood of the Higher Self.

Anchor its flow, My beloved, within your heart and lips. Let Joy be the mainstream of your life. Let it stream forth in an ever widening, ever encompassing river of life, which floods the lives of others, causing them to 'let go and let God'. This never ending river of Joy is forever and can never fail, for the Joy of God can never fail (3X). The Beloved Mighty I Am Presence is this Joy. Amen.Amen.Amen. Amen.Amen.Amen. Amen.Amen.Amen.

THE SECRET OF SERENITY

Blessed Ones, enjoy the Bliss found in Holy Silence. It is like Gold or precious Jewels - brilliant, joyous, and rich beyond description!!

In STILLNESS comes W I S D O M. Never can you find Wisdom amid the clamor of voices for Wisdom lies deep within you and can only be revealed when you are in the State of Holy Stillness. Be STILL and KNOW that I AM of your very Self. I long to be revealed to you - to imprint on your Mind Eternal Knowledge which will open Oneness of L I G H T never before known.

My Suns, if you will find Serenity and inner Poise you must FIRST find STILLNESS. When the world and all events around you are at the boiling point retire swiftly to the Inner Temple of SILENCE until you 'sense' the storm outside has calmed. You see, your own Serenity will bring about a calmness to others also. Keep this fact in mind: ALL OUTSIDE TURMOILS ARE FIRST MANIFESTED ON THE INNER LEVELS. Therefore, the remedy lies on your seeking INNER PEACE and SERENITY.

Beloved, do not be controlled by your emotions, for all emotions related to earth life is part of the ego-self which, if not controlled, can lead to various difficulties. You may find psychological assistance, but to TRULY be FREE from all negative results YOU MUST FIND THAT INNER PEACE WHICH GIVES SERENITY AND BALANCE TO YOUR TOTAL SELF. Remember that your TRUE Self is different from your emotional or physical self. And in the STILLNESS this Reality is well understood. No words We can give you can explain this to you. ONLY THROUGH INNER STILLNESS CAN ABIDING REALITIES BE REVEALED. Learn this well and you will find great Poise and the ability to face anything without self-pity or regret. You will, instead, turn a negative situation into something creative and good while remaining poised and serene.

Yes, Beloved, the easiest and best way to purify the mind is to enter into solitude and Meditate. Let your Mind be occupied with Holy Thoughts and your Spiritual Unfoldment will be great indeed!!

Heed well this brief message.

FEAR NOT

My beloved Children of Earth: Today we shall speak of fear, for fear is taking over the thinking of my people. You hear of the fear of war, fear of depression, fear of lack, fear of unemployment, fear of cancer, fear of earthquakes and tornados; fear for the future, fear of dying and on and on and on. It would seem that the greatest part of man's energy is put into fearing something or someone. It has become a Universal pastime!

As long as this fear exists there will be more fear, for as you are aware, man is the creator! The more energy that is put into this monster the more power it assumes over humanity and will eventually destroy the present civilization, UNLESS my Light Workers will pour more light and love into ALL areas of life and thus deflate the ballooning fear. As light and love are God powers they are capable of transforming any condition or situation into a positive and productive experience. But even these powers are powerLESS until put into ACTION. Until they are used, they lie dormant and impotent.

As more and more of my children are brought into the realization of the power and influence for good that they wield, the darkness and fears will gradually be overcome. More and more are devoting time to sending out light and energy and are thus creating a new consciousness not only for themselves but for all people.

When the mass consciousness is lifted out of its ego-oriented power there will be peace on earth, for where love and light reign there can be no fear, no negatives. The joy of Life expressing in its fullness is the reward. If you believe that there is but one power in the universe, the power of good or God, then the time has come for you to put your faith in that power and to live and have your being in Light and not live in the shadows of fear and doubt and lack.

The present times are testing grounds for you to find where your security lies. Does your security lie in money, in health, in any outer condition? Or does it lie in the knowledge that you are a timeless, deathless part of Life, that you are ONE with all that IS, ever was and ever shall be? When you can rise up and take the long view the fears and the woes of today are as nothing.

We realize that for many this seems to be an impossible task, to realize all inclusive Life, but as you dwell upon the Truth of this you will find that your vision is cleared and you will understand and realize more and more the grandeur of the Divine Plan for mankind and you give thanks for your awareness and your participation in the Cosmic operation.

"Fear not, my beloved children. Cast out all doubt and go about the Father's business with a serene spirit, a loving heart, a helping hand, a steady step and a clear vision and KNOW that you are Divine and your Divinity will manifest in beauty, joy, peace, prosperity and you will be alight in the darkness of the fears of Earth.

Blessings of the most high I bestow upon you as you join hands with me to bring salvation to My beautiful Earth.

A BRIEF PYRAMID UPDATE:

Please KNOW that the Project continues, even though slowly. It was really "put on hold" when one of the principal workers was poisoned by the fumes while applying the polyester resin on the outside surface. It has taken some time to secure an adequate mask for such work. Different paint has even been secured for part of it. J. R. Spurlin has made a wonderful double door, and has been installing it. He has yet to finish creating the hardware for it.

Next issue one of the workers will write a more adequate write-up. Bless all of you for your interest.

SONG OF THE SPHERES

O Planet, even now your Kindred call!
The aeons roll, and still your people sleep!
Dreamer, awake, and take your destined route
To the high appointment every Soul must keep!

Is this the Plot where Angels yearned to dwell?
The Globe to which the mighty Master came?
Rise up and fill the heavenly Citadel -
As one voice the astounding Truth proclaim!

YOU are the Sun that rises in the East:
Christ universal in one Body bright -
His many Selves in sole co-ordination
To illumine Heaven with awoken Light!

O Planet, will you sleep when you must lead
The infant consciousness to that high fold?
Now is the Age when every kingdom must
Enter the rhythm of the Realm of Gold!

Leap up! Rejoice to claim your given place
Amid the Planets' glad and radiant throng!
Throw off your robes of ignorance - Make haste
To the Citadel of Gold where you belong!

AT THE CITY OF THE SUN:

Once again Rowena Armstrong gave us the privilege for a week of seeing and hearing the Ramtha videos - the Soul-Mate Intensive and a general Seattle Intensive. His Wisdom is always so heart-penetrating and to-the-point.

It is nice to have Ruth Rogers back in the vicinity, although she is very busy working.

Audrey J. Harper of Connecticut visited for a week.

Our busy Dorothy Rayburn continues many activities with visitors and luncheons. Visitors: Al Carreon, Norma Jane Erwin (Texas); Wm. Schilling (So. Dakota); Ruth Preshar, Mildred Greene (California); David Rendmen (Arizona) and May Robb, Rev. Pierre Gallerdo,(New Mexico). Dr. Daniel Fry and wife, Cleona, of Alamagordo, New Mexico, and Ted Keeling (guitarist & gospel singer of Missouri) with Dorothy attended an International Seminar on Nuclear Energy & Power Plants. (Dr. Fry is well known author & researcher). A Republican Ladies' Luncheon was also attended.

On May 25th City of the Sun joined in the 2nd ceremony this year with the Society of Prayer for World Peace. We held ours at same time as at Mt. Fuji, Japan.

The Drs. Jim and Verlie Barton just completed a five week long trip visiting with many friends and family all along the Pacific Coast. Their daughter and husband, Dot & Jim Blackman, live in Agoura, Calif. and their son David Holden and wife, 2 daughters & 2 sons reside at Spokane, Washington. Special side trips were made to the International Expo at Vancou..ver, Canada, to some City of the Sun members residing in the Canadian backwoods, and a stop at the Louis Foundation, Eastsound, Washington. Their grandson, Brad, returned with them to Columbus, enjoying a most scenic route through Idaho, Montana and Utah.
