BE WHAT YOU WANT TO BE

Greetings in the "Light" of Our Radiant One, I am Kadar Monka.

A personal message? Of course. It seems our Robert is so involved with "getting out the word" that he forgets to "go in" on specific ideas which may be helpful for himself and others as well.

I need not remind you that you all knew life on Earth is a traumatic adventure and is hardly what you would call easy. I need not remind you that the positive consequences of your being there make it all worthwhile, even if you do not perceive it so at this time.

The somewhat difficult part of all this for me is that I cannot bring home to you the true importance of what you are doing. That is because you, yourselves, planned to experience the day-to-day living as you do without knowledge of your greater purpose. Knowledge of this greater purpose would interfere with the accomplishment of your individual mission. You would "blow it," as you say, as far as your being incognito "Light" workers.

You would go from being an average, so to speak, human to some sort of miracle worker who would not be accepted by the persons with whom you presently associate. You would really become targets of personal attack then, believe me.

As it is, regardless of what others' perceptions of you may be, you are considered quite human by persons who don't know better. You may be perceived as good, bad, or indifferent, but at least you are perceived as human. This is essential at this time!

When one undergoes torture, as you might describe trauma on Earth, time loses all meaning. Just as when one experiences extreme pleasure, the sense of time is lost. When we say everything is temporary, we do not jest. Everything is temporary, for life only exists in what one perceives as the "now."

To say that the "now" proceeds on and on in your experience may, or may not, make sense to you, but that is what is happening. If you are perceiving life as one big continuum of traumatic events over the years, perhaps it is because you are causing - from one level or another - your "now" to extend itself out day, after day, after day.

You are caught up in a "now" that sticks with you, so to speak, until change comes about to alter your course of actions. This change may be triggered from a higher level of your personal existence, or it may be triggered by your thinking at your present conscious awareness level.

"Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus." Yes, my friends, there is free will (Santa Claus) which can alter your life course of action if you so choose. I hasten to add, however, that your free will at your present conscious awareness level is limited in its scope. It is limited by what you have planned for yourselves to experience from what you tend to call your "higher self" level.

What this means is that there are things which you shall accomplish at your present level regardless of what you think you wish to accomplish at that level. Preordination? You may call it that if you wish.

Just as there are different levels of life existence in the universe, there are different levels at which free will is determined. One of the complications of living on Earth for persons of opening awareness is trying to ascertain from what level of existence things going on in their lives have been planned.

If, for example, you perceive your life to really be fraught with peril, lack of fun, boredom and nothingness, does this mean you are causing this reality from the Earth level? Or, did you plan this reality from a higher level in order to have the experience?

This you must answer for yourself. HOW? That's the $64,000 question, some would say. Here's something you might try. First, by using the "Light" on your own personal experience, you are directing the most positive, most powerful force in the universe to your own situation.

The "Light" transcends all levels of existence, my friends. Its origin is the Creator. You can't go any higher. What the "Light" wills for you is what The Creator wills for you. You may not like, or agree with, what the "Light" brings your way when you use it, but it really does have your highest interests at heart.

Now, if you feel that using the "Light" isn't doing enough in a positive vein for you, try changing your thinking. Even if it seems difficult to always try to think positively, try it anyway, and don't give up just because you don't get immediate results.

Persons in your situation (living on Earth) tend to give up too soon when confronted with challenging experiences. They then feel like victims of Earth, and in a sense they are. If you give in to all the pressures of life, then you have, in fact, become a victim of these pressures.

Did we say it was easy? Never, but you can alter your life experiences in many ways through your thinking process. You will never know how much free will you actually have in a life experience unless you try it out. This goes for all levels of existence, by the way.

You want money? Then think money. You want perfect health? Then think perfect health. Let go of the shackles of negative thinking which limit your existence.

Be what you want to be by putting out thought of a positive nature that what you want, you shall have. Throw off the limits of Earth brainwashing which would place limits on what you can be or what you can have. That's exactly what it is, my friends - brainwashing.

Maybe it's time you free yourself from the limited thinking of your past and step out into a brighter future of joy and happiness. YOU THINK THIS SOUNDS CRAZY? IF YOU DO, YOU'RE USING EARTH-ORIENTED, LIMITED THINKING PROCESSES!

Go for it! I've said that before, have I not? The only thing holding you back from all you want to be is YOU!

In the "Light" of Our Radiant One, I am Kadar Monka.

BRIEF THOUGHTS WE CAN USE WITH OURSELVES TO GROW SPIRITUALLY

1. "Never in the world can hatred be stilled by hatred; it will be stilled only by non-hatred. This is the law eternal." Buddha

2. "When we do not find peace within ourselves, it is vain to seek for it elsewhere." Francois De La Rouchefoucauld.

3. "Fear is the mind killer. Fear is the little death that brings total obliteration. I will face my fear. I will permit it to pass over me, and through me, and when it has gone past me I will turn to see fear's path. Where fear has gone there will be nothing. Only I will remain." "Dunes" City of Sun

4. "What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us." Ralph Waldo Emerson.

5. "Success is no accident. It happens on purpose. When you feel successful, you are. Everything is first a thought and then a thing. Forward motion produces controlled results. Success is doing; not wishing. There is no adversity if you take a positive action." A Beloved Friend.

6. "How cruelly we pick out each other's faults. Mirror of my soul, when I see faults in others, please turn on the light of truth in my house, so that I may look deeply into the mirror of my soul, and discover that the only faults I find in others are hidden within myself. Let truth's bright light clean my mirror, until good is all I see." Ross Hagen.

7. "It is not the greatness of our trouble, but the littleness of our spirit that makes us complain." Jeremy Taylor.

8. "The shallow breath of the majority of mankind does not create a strong enough vibration to be a controlling influence even of the circle representing the lifestream's sphere of influence, for the breath does not extend much beyond 18 inches from the body, whereas the sphere of influence of an intensely angry or agitated person can proceed many thousands of feet." Aeolus, The Bridge To Freedom."

9. "I let go of any attitude that does not support my experience of perfect health, happiness and prosperity. God's pattern for me is to express that perfect spiritual essence, right now. I accept a new way of thinking about myself and my life as whole, perfect and complete." Science of Mind.

10. "The Light of God illumines me and directs me in my highest good. Thank God for Light." Unity.

11. "Overcome evil with good, falsehood with truth, hatred with love. When we have found inner peace we feel unity with the Divine within all human beings and unity with God. As long as we feel separate we are afraid to be and act alone. As soon as we feel oneness that feeling is gone. In all people I meet I see that divine spark, and that's what I concentrate on." Peace Pilgrin.

12. "Blessed are the ears that gladly receive the pulses of the Divine whisper, and give no heed to the many whisperings of this world." Circle of Light & Love.

SELF-EVALUATION AND SELF-ACCEPTANCE

PART ONE

OUR DEAR FATHER, In the beauty of this day, in the quiet of this hour, we feel Thy presence. We thank Thee for all of those who worship Thee in their own fashion on this day. We thank Thee for our knowledge that with us are loved ones invisible to our eyes, many here because they need love and many who have come to add their love to ours as we worship. Let this be a blessed time. Make of our hearts clear channels, that there might be room in them only for Thy love. Amen.

ELANA

We would talk to you today about self-evaluation, Very often we have spoken to you about taking inventory of yourselves without too greatly concentrating on introspective thoughts. But in past times it is possible that every one of you has spent painful hours looking at yourself, viewing yourself and turning away from that picture with distaste, possibly, at times, with despair.

The evaluation or appraisal of your own self, rather than the evaluation of those around you, has great merit if properly controlled. But perhaps one of the first essentials, if you are to be honest in your appraisal, is to recognize that the essence of your true self is exactly the same as that of every other human being. In the beginning God created all men equal; every man in the image and likeness of Himself.

This might be illustrated by telling the story given by a woman who worked as office manager in a large construction firm. One of the carpenters was a Hopi Indian who, on the reservation, was a District Judge. She had noticed him among the workers and had felt about him a certain something that had roused her interest: A self composure, a dignity, an almost disconcerting wisdom.

One day there was reason for the employer, a very arrogant and seemingly superior man, to speak directly to this Indian. He used his usual arrogant manner and the woman noticed that the carpenter stood silently, his eyes fastened steadily on those of his employer. For a long moment they stood there. Then, to her astonishment, she watched all the arrogance, all the patronizing expression in the employer's face evaporate. The Hopi Indian's steadfast gaze had brought the other man down to his exact level. There was a strange sort of equal-ness achieved. They then exchanged what conversation was needed in quiet, friendly tones. A moment later, while she was feeling that she was somehow in the presence of a God, the Indian turned to her and that same steady, loving gaze lifted her to his level.

For the first time in her life the woman understood what was meant by the one-ness of all mankind. When there is equalness, when there is understanding that all men are one because they were created of the same spiritual substance, then there can be no patronage or condemnation or intolerance of another without condemnation toward one's self.

So we start with this one-ness, this recognition that whatever differences there are in any two people, they are a matter of genes, of heredity, of environment, or perhaps of the opportunities into which one had been born. One might be born crippled, diseased; another healthy and strong. One might be born into poverty; the other into wealth. Yet underlying these factors which seem so important to the materialistic eye, the two are one. "I Am you," you might say. "We are one." Yet only as your eye has become single to God can such understanding of Truth be yours.

Let us start, then, our self-evaluation with this understanding of Truth. From there we go on to study curselves - and oh, My Beloveds, those of us who have arrived at a greater understanding have followed the same path of discovery on which you are now walkin g. You arrive at this state of awareness and can look at yourself and say, "Yes, I start with this one-ness, this equal-ness with my fellowman, because of our mutual oneness with Thee, our Father."

Then comes the hour when you must look at the self which you have become, the self who now walks through each day emiting the vibrations, the radiance or the darkness of those thoughts which you have permitted yourself to entertain and remain in your mind. Thank God you have been privileged to receive the guidance which makes it possible - nay, imperative that you now see the stones in your path. It is in your power, because you now know your relationship to the source of all power, to stoop down and remove every stone from your path, that you need not stumble over it and, in clearing away the stones from your own path, you help to make smoother the paths of others around you.

The true Self of you is there, within. That Self you must know and understand. You, yourself, have built whatever barriers which hold that perfect Self, the Self endowed by God with His own wisdom and strength, His own power and love, encased in a prison within you. It would be in control, It would live your life for you if you would let it.

Society has set up conventions, standards by which it demands that you abide. Some of these are good and for the best welfare of all men. Some are less than good for they have made of man unreal, insincere, even hypocritical robots. Do you know what of the you who lives day by day, hour by hour, is you? Really you? Have the decisions, the choices you have made toward building that which you are discovering in this time of self-appraisal, been your choices, your decisions? Have they been guided, directed by the real you or have they been impressed upon you by outer circumstances, outer concepts, outer conventions; by the demand of your small ego to conform, to win the approval of your fellows? Do you know, do you fully realize that the inner You has Its own standards of honor, decency and tolerance, of forgiving-ness and love? This is the voice to which you, as conscious children of God, must listen and follow.

The world's opinions, when they follow the course of the Law of Love, are good. It is well that you be limited by them in your behavior and your attitudes to a certain degree. But they must be in accord with the rules set up, the limitations marked by that inner Self of you which is in tune with God.

Do you listen to whatever demands, whatever influences press in from the outer? Do you let your own [illegible]turbulences, your own unruly emotions, your own hatreds and envies embitter you? Do you let your own criticism and intolerance have control because you are permitting these things from the outer, which are disturbing to you, to reach in and stir up these reactions which are a part of the animal nature? These are at best an expression of immaturity, not the spiritual nature of each one of you.

Oh, Dear Ones, to which voice are you listening? To know this is a vital part of your self-evaluation. Because the world has set up standards, man has made for himself a mask - perhaps two or three masks and, according to what company he is in, he dons the mask which he thinks will meet with approval. With some it is a worldly mask, a mask which you hope suggests sophistication. With some it is a mask which permits you to share in the impurities of other men's thinking and attitude and words. When you don these masks you are being insincere and hypocritical because you are betraying that true Self of you. When you let yourself express or even harbor anger or resentment, or hurt feelings or bitterness or intolerance of any sort, you are betraying that true Self of you which has no part in such negativity.

All of us - all of us have been through these experiences of looking within to our own selves and evaluating what we see. Each of us has had to spend painful hours, days and nights of sorting out and discarding the garbage which clutters our minds and lives. You are not alone. No one of you is alone in this difficult necessity - and necessity it truly is! A bucket cannot be full of dirty water if there is to be any room in it for the clear, pure, clean, life-giving water of the Spirit of God. You know this, yet I emphasize it again and again.

Self-evaluation must lead to the ultimate knowing of yourself truly. It comes back to this: "Acquaint now thyself with Him (God) and be at peace; thereby good shall come to thee." Know yourself for what you truly are and then - oh, then I promise you, the conflicts will be dissipated, the turmoil will cease and you will be at peace with your Self, with your God and with the world around you. "To thine own self be true."

Oh Father, help us, each one, to be true to that inner Self of us, to that Self which is of Thee. Give us wisdom and strength to face ourselves honestly, to evaluate ourselves; then to discard, through Thy grace and Thy power, all which is unlike Thee. Love us, and help us to love Thee better. Amen.

Self-Acceptance ( PART TWO) of this message will be given in the next issue of the Golden Dawn.

BILL OF RIGHTS
By Virginia Satir

1. I do not have to feel guilty just because someone else does not like what I do, say, think or feel.

2. It is OK for me to feel angry and to express it in responsible ways.

3. I do not have to assume full responsibility for making decisions, particularly where others share responsibility for making the decisions.

4. I have the right to say "I don't understand" without feeling stupid or guilty.

5. I have the right to say "I don't know."

6. I have the right to say NO without feeling guilty.

7. I do not have to apologize or give reasons when I say NO.

8. I have the right to ask others to do things for me.

9. I have the right to refuse requests which others make of me.

10. I have the right to tell others when I think they are manipulating, conning, or treating me unfairly.

11. I have the right to refuse additional responsibilities without feeling guilty.

12. I have the right to tell others when their behavior annoys me.

13. I do not have to compromise my personal integrity.

14. I have the right to make mistakes and to be responsible for them. I have the right to be wrong.

MYSTIC MESSAGES

QUESTION: How can I go about raising my vibrations so I can operate off a higher rate of consciousness?

ANSWER: To raise your vibration is to speed up your frequency of oscillation in relation to the Universal flow of energy. When you are aware enough to want to, you will automatically. On a deliberate set of actions you will change your focus of what you think about. You will lift yourself up and out of much of everyday mundane thought by seeing only the good in others and the beauty in all things. For it is all the manifestation of life evolving or becoming more than it is.

You will turn your attention away from the so-called ills and evils of the world, and on to that which would inspire or lift. The types of movies you watch and books you read, music you listen to, all contribute greatly to your level of consciousness. One hour a day spent in meditative solitude will do more to connect you to the Universal flow than anything else.

Learn to meditate and reach that level where you are taught straight through your mind, whether it be visions or words. You call it Alpha. You are taught in your sleep times. Pay goodly attention to your dreams. Write them down. Later you will have revelations as to their message. Never try to interpret them literally. They are symbolic messages given in active vision form through your subconscious, in familiar pictures that you can relate to.

By praying you are acknowledging the God within. Let your prayers be statements of positive power and knowing, or let them be of thanksgiving and appreciation. Let there be no groveling or piteous begging. That kind of prayer will reinforce only your ideas of lack and limitation. As you raise your consciousness or vibration you accept more and more light into your being. You perfect your knowledge of the absolute creative control you have in the manifestations in your life.

You know that every situation you walk through is teaching you, and you put yourself there for that reason. When you advance to a certain stage, you no longer have to sit the body in one place to meditate. You may reach a point that you will keep your window open all the time. Regardless of what activity you are involved in, you can remain in that meditative heavenly state of being, feeling wonderful and happy.

You are then able to connect with higher knowledge whenever you want to without going through any kind of ritual. It is a natural state of being that was intended for mankind to live in. They fell away from it and closed the connections, bringing in all toil and trouble to their existence.

Now at this bend in time some are reaching for it again with inner realizaa tion. They are slowly learning self-mastery. They are healing themselves. They are renewing their immortality. They are superbeings compared to the whole that have not yet begun to expand their limits. When you raise your vibration high enough you will perform complete action with Natural Law. You call it Miracles.

You contain within you the dormant ability to do whatever you can imagine. When you learn to image it into manifestation, you can call yourself a living God. Until then you are a spark of the One God that still slumbers, and is not yet self-realized. When you become self-realized the power of the Universe is available to you. With this realization comes a great and understanding love of all life, and a giving attitude.

There have been many on your plane that have reached this state, and their works have been unequaled. You know who they are. Each revelation you have triggers the opening for the next one. You evolve one step at a time. Each step is entirely necessary to unfold in balanced harmony. You will experience your own individual Harmonic Convergence, complete with sound and light. Your reward for diligence is everlasting joy. And so it is...

A SELF REALIZATION IN NATURE - 1990

I stroll through the air with a breath of great joy - the whole world of nature before me as I look to the sky, and like the majestic trees reach for the sun, for energy, light and life!

In my spirit I am as free as the birds in the air. But there is so much around me that my eyes, and at times my mind, fail to see. There is so much that even my ears fail to hear as I imagine the infinite range of melodious soumds audible to animals! Then I think what wisdom in the law of nature for the progress of man - what logic to be free from direct contact with nature that we can communicate above and beyond nature for our wholistic progress. We use a higher form of thinking to detect and become aware and use our four senses in the head as tools. Then why should I think myself to be below, above, or more than Thee? How else can I see nature if it is not within my being.

Do I not know I can not experience anything that is not already a part of me? A sudden disquieting moment as some form passes me by - an insect, an animal, or some invisible form like the wind?

Now in silence I listen to the sweet song of a bird as it calls It's mate, or in danger warns all It's friends and sometimes even It's enemies; or perhaps its song means "Don't encroach on me. I need room to live in symbiotic repose; when man often disposes as nature proposes to court and nurture all forms, even when dispossessed."

Yet indeed! How thankful and happy am I in my body now on common ground with nature and my fellow man, I have the opportunity to use my senses and experience relationships with unlimited life forms of the plant and animal kingdoms. Thus can I balance all rights and wrongs of the far distant past or the immediate present to realize that ecological, simbiosis and eclectical bond between all kingdoms of nature and man.

Then blessed am I in my thoughts and acts to live in increasing harmony with the good earth, and, as a custodian, help all life forms to increasingly progress to yet higher and enlightened states of being.

Finally, what else could there be left to say?

If nature were to speak in human terms, it is certain this she would be lamenting: "If I provide much more than all of your needs - infinite abundance for good, clothing and shelter and all the beauty and power you still cannot perceive or utilize - why do you trample on me? Above all else, while the spirit in nature permeates all forms with supreme intelligence that the form is capable of expressing in degree, why do you rape, plunder, exploit, violate and pollute in the most rapacious spirit?"

When all forms of creatures in the earth begin to practice the law of reciprocity and stop rapacity, the earth will detoxify, the blood of man will purify as the sun evaporates polluted water and it returns to the earth in purity and life.

Now let man follow the law of reciprocity in ecology and simbiosis, that the design and plan and purpose of the universe will manifest upon the earth.

Thus the foundation to cease the necessity of life forms to devour each other will again reappear as all life forms take their proper place in the food chain of nature. Then will the present natural enemies live in peace and be sustained by the appropriate and proper progressive kingdoms in nature.

There is evidence by example and the genetic signatures of all creatures that all functions adjust, adapt, transform, reform, transmute and mutate, and even can translate to other states or conditions.

Let there be light! Let your light shine! Let there be you!

Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me!!

CAMPAIGN FOR THE EARTH
THE COSMIC MOMENT IS NOW - OUR OPPORTUNITY IS AT HAND

As we reach into the higher octaves of understanding, we begin to perceive more clearly the reality of our Earthly existence. Since the "fall" of Humanity, we have been so immersed in the effluvia of our humanly created veil of illusion that we actually came to believe the chaos manifesting in our daily life experience was not only real, but of all things, God's Will in Truth, the Will of God and the Divine destiny for this Planet is Harmony and Balance for all things.

Anything manifesting on Earth that is less than Harmony and Balance, including disease, poverty, hunger, environmental pollution, war, fear, hate, homelessness, prejudice, oppression and every other manner of discord is a human creation. It is merely a reflection of Humanity's consciousness - a result of misusing our creative faculties of thought and feeling.

There is an awakening taking place within each and every one of us. We are recognizing our responsibility in the Earthly condition. We are remembering deep within that through the Universal Law of Attraction, we are the creators of the physical dimension. We are recognizing that our thoughts, words, actions and feelings are continually being projected onto the atomic substance of physical matter, thus manifesting in physical form. We understand now, as never before, that as our gift of life (electronic Light) flows through us, it picks up the particular vibrations of our consciousness and expresses those vibrations in visible form, experiences and circumstances. Inother words, what we think about, what we put our feelings and energy into, we bring into form.

Because of our confused perception, we have given power to physical matter. We have allowed the distorted manifestation of physical matter to become our reality, when, in truth, it is an illusion, created by our beliefs, thoughts, words, actions and feelings. Physical matter is nothing more than a mass of atomic energy controlled by our consciousness. NEVER does matter control consciousness.

Presently, the world reflects our human consciousness, and in the past Humanity has set about trying to change the reflection or picture instead of changing our consciousness. This is like trying to change the reflection in a mirror without changing the object that is causing the reflection. It is a futile effort.

In recent years, however, as the Light of God poured into the Planet in ever-increasing frequencies, awakening the Divinity in each person's Heart center, Humanity began to change in consciousness. Transformation is occurring now subtly and deeply at an atomic, cellular level. The seed of awareness is growing in our consciousness. It is beginning to blaze like the Sun radiating forth rays of Light that connect with every other Lightworker on the Planet. This activity is creating a powerful forcefield around the Earth, an actual network of Light, a planetary grid system of Divine Love. The collective radiance of this network of Light is the most powerful force on the Planet. It has created a bridge of Light that spans the abyss from the lowest octaves of human suffering into the highest realms of Truth. This is a bridge over which this sweet Earth and all Her Life will ascend into the Octaves of Harmony and Balance. Through this activity we are recognizing our own Divinity and experiencing a Reverence for all life.

As we embark on this sacred decade of the 1990s, we are being presented with unparalleled opportunities to reach into the Divine Mind of God and tap the ideas and viable solutions that will result in PERMANENT Planetary Transformation. "Campaign for the Earth" is the vehicle through which each person can express his highest potential. Together, we will support each other as a United Force working in Harmony and Balance as each of us weaves our individual Divine Plan into the unified whole of the Tapestry for Mother Earth. We will tap the realm of Illumined Truth - Heaven - and through the cup of our consciousness, step it down into the everyday Lives of the people, thus creating "heaven on Earth."

It is time for each of us to respond to the inner call that is invoking us into action. Daily and hourly, ask yourself, "How can I be the greatest force of good on this Planet? How, today, can I use my energy to make a positive difference?"

MY BROTHER'S PATH

I knew it not, the single eye,
for I was seeing two.
Where e'er I gazed, I viewed dissention. Separation grew.

And I believed my observations,
thinking they were true.
I knew it not, the single eye,
I failed to see but You.

For I perceived with senses dim.
My eye was covered o'er with judgment as I measured all from my own inner store.

'Twas all I knew, my yardstick - true for only me, yet I continued viewing all things with the double eye...

Imposing my beliefs upon the world surrounding me, proclaiming me as judge and jury.
Such audacity.

How dare I speak for someone else,
assuming I knew more.
For I knew not my brother's path, nor where he'd walked before.

HEALING -

Doctors admit that the body is naturally restored to health, that neither doctors nor their drugs do the healing. What causes this restoration? The divine idea of perfection. The material body has within and about it the divine perfection. The body really is the temple of the living God.

AT THE CITY OF THE SUN:

One of the most enjoyable diversions at the City of the Sun is watching the active bird life. Probably the most popular birds are the Quail. In winter they rove in large groups or covies, but in spring and summer it is usually a family matter with mother, father, and oh, so obedient children! They go from yard to yard and up and down the streets. We have two kinds here, Scale and Gimbrel. The Scale are from this region, but the Gimbrel have migrated from California. The City of the Sun is theirs.

Finches and Sparrows might be the most prevalent. There are so many different kinds. You can often hear the noisy Grackles (they seem to be laughing at everyone), and watch the strikingly marked Pyrrhuloxia who have such a beautiful song. Through size alone Thrushes can quickly take over an eating spot. There's at least 3 different kinds here. One of their most striking features is their long curving bill. We also have many Meadowlarks.

We must not forget the official bird of New Mexico - the Road Runner. They are very curious and love to look into doors and windows of our mobile homes. You can hear their "clomp, clomp on our mobile home roof. The Cactus Wren are very prominent. They are one of my favorites. They're sassy and aggressive and quite comical. Some of the other favorites are Fly Catchers, Mocking Birds and Mournful Doves. In spring the Buntings come. If they are startled while eating they take to the air simultaneously. It's a miracle that they never seem to collide. An occasional Robin is seen, small and large Owls, a small type of Woodpecker using the dead Yucca stalks for a place to perch, the beautiful Hummingbirds, the high flying Hawks and the little Junco.

Besides the regular species, we are near some maize fields and the magnificent migrating birds - particularly every - use this area as a flyway. How thrilling to see the row upon row of migratory birds in their flowing formations going from north to south. Our ears are attuned to their plaintive cries, and we run to our porches or windows to look at the spectacle.

One keeps their favorite bird book handy, and every little while we see a "new one"! The latest was a Rufous Sided Towhee. What a thrill and joy to see another part of God's world.

This #114 of the Golden Dawn is a momentous issue for me as Secretary of the City of the Sun Foundation. 100 issues ago I began my work with the little paper. Rev. Wayne H. Taylor, the Founder, had an accident, and although he had gathered the material together for #14, he was unable to make the stencils or work with the mailing list. So - without planning to - my work began at the end of 1973. It was decided that the material would be approved by the Trustees. Otherwise, it was carried on as Rev. Taylor planned it. Just as the City of the Sun was started with the idea of people living here from many backgrounds, so the little paper has presented - with respect - a variety of teachings.

I never dreamed I would continue with the paper for 100 issues. I have learned a great deal. It has brought me friendships in United States as well as overseas (particularly Africa). I especially appreciate those times the Holy Spirit has strongly led. I could not pass by this without sharing with you my surprise at the length and breadth of this work through this medium. A great privilege.

Mary Jane Switzler, Secretary

Also, I want to mention that my husband, William, has taken care of the mimeographing these many years. The City of the Sun residents meet and collate and get the pages ready for mailing.

As one goes through the "Incoming Mail" it is gratifying to see the increase in groups praying for peace, groups and individuals anchoring the Higher Christ energies in the Earth, and the unification of efforts to assist all life forms as well as Mother Earth! When one can see the mail which flows into any one Center it is a most encouraging sight. Now is not the time to lessen our efforts! Let us use the Light unceasingly!!!

DECREE FOR THE EARTH AND HER NATIONS

In the Full Powef and Authority of the Beloved Presence of God, "I AM".

We, the Children of Earth, humbly come to the Heart of our Father-Mother God to invoke into the physical plane of Earth the most intensified activity of GOD'S WILL ever manifested in the history of time.

We ask the Legions of Light serving this Sweet Earth to absorb this Divine Essence into every fiber of Their Beings and project It into the Heart Flame and conscious mind of every person associated with the governments of this Planet in any way, shape or form.

Blaze the Cosmic Flame of God's Will through each of these souls and clear away any destructive activity of their own free will.which might rush in to impede their conscious desire to do God's Will. Help them to become and remain obedient to the Law of Harmony and BE God in Action at all times.

Seal all governmental positions, individually and collectively, in the radiance of God's Will. Reveal through illumination's Flame, the Divine Purpose and Plan for each office and individual, and give to each person the Spiritual Courage to fulfill that plan perfectly. Let the Will of God be MANIFEST in, through and around all the governments of the world NOW and FOREVER!.

Let the LIGHT OF GOD THAT IS ETERNALLY VICTORIOUS Illumine and lead all Humanity everywhere! We Consciously ACCEPT this MANIFESTING NOW - even as we call!

SO BE IT BELOVED "I AM".
