ZION IN LONDON, ENGLAND.

THE whole great Metropolis of the earth, with its six millions of people, is stirred from center to circumference by the appearance in that city of the General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

For months pulpit and press of that city had manifested their apprehension of his coming by attempting to create prejudice against him before his arrival by blackening his record and character.

He had no sooner entered the city and begun arrangements for his mission there, to be begun a month later, than the press broke forth furiously, filling column after column with the most sensational and shameful lies about this man of God.

Almost daily these lying articles appeared. They were copied by hundreds of other papers throughout the world. Besides these, many cablegrams were sent from London to the American newspapers containing the same ridiculous lies.

But all this time Zion, as always, was Going Forward and preparing to begin the actual battle of which what had gone before was but the skirmishing.

A Zion Publishing House was opened at 33 Rosebery Avenue, and was taken in charge by Mr. David F. Robertson, the General Overseer's private financial secretary.

The engraving on this page shows how neat and attractive a depot for literature Zion in London has.

Meeting places were also provided for, the most important St. Martin's Town Hall, Charing Cross, an engraving of which appears on the first page of this paper. Here the daily afternoon and evening meetings are being held.

ZION PUBLISHING HOUSE, 33 ROSEBERY AVENUE, E. C., LONDON, ENGLAND.

For the Lord's Day services, Holborn Town Hall, Gray's Inn Road, was engaged.

On Lord's Day, October 7, 1900, the Mission was opened with three services, morning, afternoon and evening.

At the morning meeting the General Overseer spoke from the Word of God in the first chapter of Mark. His talk was plain, fearless and practical, calling all who heard to Repent.

The majority of his audience was with him, and at the end nearly all arose and repeated the Prayer of Consecration.

Several clergy and Church dignitaries were present.

In the afternoon the General Overseer opened the meeting by reading some of the hymns from denominational hymnals which give Divine Healing teaching, and pointed out that those who sang these hymns and still fought Divine Healing and Zion lied when they sang.

The audience had to admit that he was right. Some reporters made a slight disturbance, but when they had gone the meeting was orderly and the speaker was given respectful attention as he spoke of the fulfilment of Scripture in these days.

At the close nearly all arose and joined in the Prayer of Consecration. At the evening service there was the largest audience of the day, many of those who had attended the other services being present. The General Overseer spoke on Teaching, Preaching, Healing.

One man made a slight disturbance, but the audience was with the General Overseer and the man himself arose with all the others when the Messenger of God called for Repentance, Confession and Consecration.

These meetings were wickedly lied about in the London press, and false and distorted accounts of them were cabled all over the world.

On Wednesday, October 10, 1900, the daily meetings in St. Martin's Town Hall were opened.

A very lively interest is being taken in these meetings and highly sensational reports of them are cabled twice daily to the newspapers of America.

According to these reports, the doctors, newspapers, apostate ministers, and others against whose sins the General Overseer witnesses, are becoming very angry and have threatened much in the way of legislation.

Medical students, reporters and other ruffians are said to have interrupted the meetings and created violent disorder. Some of them were arrested, according to the newspapers, and fined for their conduct.

While no dependence can be had upon these cablegrams, it is very evident that John Alexander Dowie is waking up London as no preacher has done for many years, perhaps never before.

The greatest battle of the age is on, and is very fierce.

The world is looking on, waiting to see who will win.

Although the world knows it not, its destiny is at stake.

Zion knows who will win, for she knows on which side God is fighting.

All Zion is praying, and God is giving His servant great boldness, and power and wisdom in declaring His Everlasting Gospel.

Let all Zion continue daily and hourly in prayer for this most important mission.

Full reports of the first Lord's Day's services in Holborn Town Hall will be published in next week's issue of LEAVES OF HEALING.

An Unfailing Remedy for Weakness.

How many persons are suffering from weakness! How many are not performing life's duties because they have not the necessary strength!

Our Heavenly Father, who has promised to supply all the needs of His people, says:

He giveth power to the faint; and to him that hath no might He increaseth strength.—Isaiah 40:29.

Human strength will fail.

Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: but they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; they shall walk, and not faint.—Isaiah 40:30, 31.

The margin gives the word "change" for "renew," showing that man can change his human strength, which fails so often, for God's strength, which is able to supply all his needs for spirit, soul and body.

The Devil seeks in every possible way to weaken mankind.

Christ came that we might not only have life, but have it abundantly.

Zion Literature goes forth as a warning voice against the use of drugs, tobacco, swine's flesh and whatever weakens the body. It warns people against Spiritualism and her daughter, Christian Science; against electric, mental and magnetic healing, etc.; against impure literature, Secret Societies and unscriptural religious teaching, because these weaken the souls and spirits of men. It points them to Christ, who came into the world to pardon, cleanse and heal mankind. Multitudes who once were weak and sick are rejoicing in strength because they heard and accepted Zion's Message.

The Devil is enraged against a teaching which takes man's entire being out of his control. He has opened his mouth and sent out floods of lies to sweep away this beautiful Zion which God has founded in these latter days as a refuge for all nations.

Zion in Egypt.

The letter which follows is from the pen of Mrs. A. H. Harris, a missionary in Alexandria, Egypt, who writes:

Today we have opened a case of Zion Literature. Truly we are glad to see on our table a fine battery against the Devil, as he has been very busy against us.

I was attacked by a dreadful boil of huge size, under my arm. The inflammation went down to the elbow. It was most painful, and I could keep my arm in but one position.

I also got a bad attack of quinsy. For a whole day I could swallow with the greatest pain but a teaspoonful at a time.

We determined at all cost not to send for a doctor, so telegraphed to Cairo to two members of Zion to pray. All day I had no relief, but seemed to get much worse, suffering dreadfully. Only these words were life to me: "Our God whom we serve is able to deliver us, and He will deliver."

At about 8 P. M. I suddenly got relief from both my troubles and took a cupful of milk. Next day, though very weak, I got better, and today I am perfectly well.

Praise the Lord! This is the fourth time in the eight months I have been in Zion that I have proved it good to believe God's Word; and each time I got more rooted and grounded in the teaching of Zion.

How I wish the missionaries would not fight Zion, for it will kill them; they cannot kill it. No, not with the Ram's Horn, so crooked and empty of all that is truth.

We have just received papers about the workers in London. We are not surprised at the British Weekly being full of venom, for it thrives upon advertisements of patent medicines. I find what people are so enraged at is that Dr. Dowie calls himself "The Messenger of the Covenant." I am not, for God has given him his credentials and his acts prove him to be so.

Mansfield a Marvel to Greece.

The following extracts are from a letter written by Mr. Alexander Vozakas, living in Nauplia, the second metropolis of Greece. Mr. Vozakas writes:

I cannot thank you enough for sending me LEAVES OF HEALING. There is scarcely a Christian paper which I value so much. My wife also admires them. I read them through and through with much delight. Then I pass them to some young men living in Athens.

I am so glad to get them every week. All over the world people read LEAVES OF HEALING.

Mansfield has indeed disgraced itself before the whole world. We think the way the people and the authorities have acted there is most disgraceful.

It shows that America is not a free country, after all; and a great part of those in authority seem to be given up to do the Devil's bidding.

Of course, the American Constitution affords freedom, I understand; but how is it that such anarchy can exist in spite of such good laws, in a country which is supposed to be the most enlightened and the most Christian-like on earth?

If Mansfield continues to have its own way, it will prove to the world that America is not a Christian country. It has the name that "it liveth, but is dead."

I am glad to hear of the General Overseer's going to Jerusalem, and that he expects to be there next New Year's Day. My wife and I talk much of going to Jerusalem about that time, and we will be delighted to see the General Overseer there.

How We Came to be in Zion.

Mrs. J. H. Bellinger, Stevens Point, Wisconsin, writes:

I had been in poor health many years, and three years confined to my bed.

I wrote to Dr. Dowie, now our beloved General Overseer, and his dear wife replied and set a time for prayer. She was very emphatic in her command for me to look for immediate help, and, praise God, I received it.

She said, "We will pray, and you also ask God and believe He will answer." That is the first time in my life that I ever heard, as it were, the Voice of God speaking to me from paper and pen.

Then we obeyed the command, "Come and see," and we found what every honest heart finds, that Zion Home is a heaven on earth.

It is the place for spiritual growth and Gospel teaching for Salvation, Healing and Holy Living.

In less than two weeks I was preparing to take a trip of 187 miles, which I took and gained in strength every day.

We came out of the Methodist Church, and praise God for Zion and for the Messenger of the Covenant and his beloved wife, Mrs. Dowie.

Baby Blessedly Healed When Dying of Cholera-Infantum.

MARCUS, IOWA, October 9, 1900.

REV. WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

Dear Overseer:—We do thank you so much for praying for our little baby Roscoe.

There was not much left of him but skin and bones.

He seemed to be taken very severely from the very first.

Every one who saw him said he could never live.

He took sick at noon and in the afternoon we prayed for him and sent in a request to you.

We telegraphed to you and wrote again before he got his perfect healing; but we never gave him a drop of medicine.

Through your earnest prayers God healed him of that terrible disease, cholera-infantum.

May God keep and strengthen you for the work you have to do.

We feel much sympathy with those Elders at Mansfield.

May God keep you and bless you. (MRS.) T. D. BOWERS.

ZION VICTORIOUS IN LONDON.

HOW Zion rejoices after reading, for a week, the spiteful lies and distortions of truth concerning Zion in London in the daily press, to hear the truth from the platform of Central Zion Tabernacle, each Lord's Day, by direct cablegram from the General Overseer.

During the week ending Saturday, October 20, 1900, the lies had been particularly wicked, hence the following cablegram was received with great joy by the 2500 people assembled in Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day, October 21, 1900:

LONDON, October 21, 1900.

ZION, Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

Read twenty-second Matthew, fifteen to twenty-two.

Pray.

Mark fourteen and thirty-eight.

Zion victorious London.

Praise God.

Mizpah. DOWIE, General Overseer.

The passages referred to in the cablegram were read from the platform as follows:

Matthew 22:15-22:

Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might ensnare Him in His talk. And they send to Him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that Thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, and carest not for any one: for Thou regardest not the person of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkest Thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cæsar, or not? But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye Me, ye hypocrites? Shew Me the tribute money. And they brought unto Him a penny. And He saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? They say unto Him, Cæsar's. Then saith He unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's; and unto God the things that are God's. And when they heard it, they marveled, and left Him, and went their way.

Mark 14:38:

Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

BEGINNING OF VOLUME VIII.

WITH praise and thanksgiving to God, we open this Eighth Volume of LEAVES OF HEALING.

This Number marks not only the opening of the Eighth Volume of this paper, but the beginning of the Seventh Year of its existence in its present form.

We could not begin to tell how God has blessed this Little White Dove during the six years of its existence. That story is being told every week in these pages, yet a tithe of it never comes to light.

And the blessing has been accumulative, each volume as it goes forth over all the world seeming to accomplish more for God than those before it.

Hence we confidently pray and expect that God will make the seventh year of LEAVES OF HEALING more glorious, blessed and effective than all that have gone before.

Although the Volume is begun during the absence of the General Overseer, and without his work, directly, upon it, we believe that God is guiding in its publication and look forward with great joy to the fact that ere the Volume closes he will again be in Zion Headquarters and will again take active editorial charge of the paper.

Meanwhile, we ask all in Zion to pray very earnestly that the wisdom which is from above and the Holy Spirit's guidance may be increasingly with those upon whom the publishing of LEAVES OF HEALING has been laid. A. W. N.

ZION WINNING IN MANSFIELD.

Elders and Deacons Enter the City Again and Again and Succeed in Holding Meetings. Lawlessness of Mob and Officials Arouses Indignation.

Mansfield, Ohio.
Rev. Cyrus B. Fockler, Elder-in-Charge.

ANOTHER week of faithful, fearless, persistent effort has brought Zion nearer to final victory in Mansfield, Ohio. Chagrined and desperate, denounced and ridiculed by fair-minded people throughout the country, the Mansfield official mob is growing reckless and ugly, but in spite of it all Zion is winning.

Taking up the narrative where it was closed in our last week's issue, we find Deacon Homer Kessler in the Richland County Jail, the prisoner of Judge R. M. Campbell on a writ of habeas corpus, with Evangelist Loblaw, Elder Williams and Deacon Lee coming into the city at least once each day.

On Friday, October 19th, the hearing on the habeas corpus proceedings came up before Judge Campbell. Using his discretionary powers, this Judge continued the case until Tuesday, October 23d, remanding Deacon Kessler to the County Jail, with jail privileges.

Writing concerning his experiences in Mansfield on Monday, October 15th, and the succeeding day, Deacon A. F. Lee, says:

CRESTLINE, OHIO, October 16, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER PIPER:—You may be a little interested to know some of the facts connected with my deportation last evening.

It was somewhere between three and four o'clock when I called at the home of Mrs. Bauer, 194 East Third Street.

I found her confined to her bed by illness, with her open Bible in hand.

She and her sister, who was also present, expressed themselves as glad to see me when I made myself known.

I proceeded to read her some encouraging passages of Scripture, but had not gone far when an officer was ushered in by the mother, who, I am told, owns the house and lives with them, but is bitterly opposed to Zion.

The officer laid hold of me in no gentle manner and ordered me to go with him. As I saw that Mrs. Bauer was being much excited, I proceeded to go.

Mrs. Bauer and her sister then pleaded that I pray with them before going, which I asked the officer permission to do.

I was refused, and pulled out of the house.

The officer kept his grip upon me and pulled me all the way to the jail as if I had been a criminal.

On reaching the jail he hunted up the Sheriff and left me in his charge, although I was given to understand that I was the city's, and not the county's, prisoner.

I then telephoned Attorney Douglass, telling him what had happened so that my associates might be informed without making their presence at the Brunswick known.

The Mayor and his attorney came, and in the presence of the Sheriff, several police officers and a reporter for the News, I was asked a few questions as to when and how I came and what my plans were, etc.; also where I had been stopping, to all of which I used discretion in answering.

It was settled that I was to be deported on the Pennsylvania and Fort Wayne 7:50 train to Crestline.

After supper the Mayor called on me, and I had the great joy of delivering Zion's wonderful Message to him and a very talkative police officer.

God gave me unusual liberty of speech and quickness of thought, so that I could not but mark the fulfilment of our Lord's promise that when we are brought before magistrates, the Holy Spirit should tell us what to say.

In fact, that has been the joy that has been my strength on so many occasions during three days of terrific nervous strain. God has helped me to preach the Gospel to so many individuals in such power that in many instances not only have the mouths of our enemies been closed, but they have acknowledged they were in the wrong.

I was taken to the depot in a carriage, in company of the Mayor and the Sheriff, who, the Mayor insisted, must go; also two police officers.

Crowds lined the streets and sharp outlook was kept by my escort all the way.

When we reached the depot, there was a large and noisy crowd waiting for us; also several more police.

I was driven as close to the entrance as possible, taken from the carriage surrounded by police and hustled into the depot to wait for the train, which was a few minutes late.

The Mayor bought and handed me a ticket and in company with Mike Weil—who wore a large Bryan badge—led the police escort which put me on the train.

The last named party had the audacity to come on the train, grasp my hand and address me as "old friend" and introduce himself as the "protector" of Elders Basinger and Moot.

As I shook his hand I said, "I hope you have repented of your treatment of them," upon which he pretended to be astounded, and then grew sarcastic and insulting in the extreme, and warned me that if I came back I was liable to get my head smashed. In this, one of the police joined him.

In fact, several of these officers have been very insulting to us. One who escorted me to the train yesterday said we called ourselves Christians, but we were worse than the lowest saloon bums.

I was only in Mansfield about one and one-half hours today, Tuesday, October 16th, and was on my way to Mrs. Brent's when I was captured and rushed by several officers down an alley to the Baltimore and Ohio train and sent to Shelby Junction, where I took a Big Four train to Crestline.

We are all rejoicing that we have been counted worthy to endure such hardships for Him who resisted unto blood, and that we may in some measure enter into fellowship with those who have suffered similar hardships for His sake.

May God bless you and all Zion everywhere.

Yours in Christ,

A. F. LEE.

On Thursday, October 18th, Deacon Lee went into Mansfield by team and met with the usual lawless treatment. He says in a telegram:

CRESTLINE, OHIO, October 18, 1900.

W. H. PIPER.

Reached destination by team five-fifteen this morning.
Driven from Calver's by threatening mob.
Reëntered town.
Made several calls unmolested.
Learned as was taking train of Kessler's imprisonment.

A. F. LEE.

That same night, one of the most wicked and disgraceful acts of the entire terrible list of Mansfield's official crimes was enacted.

It reads more like an excerpt from a history of the early centuries in Rome, or an account of outrages in China, than a description of action under the very eyes of the police in a nation which boasts that it is the most enlightened of all the ages.

The crime has set public indignation to boiling again, but the ebullition seems to take the form of harmless resolutions with left-handed slaps at the innocent victims of the mobs.

Forming under the very eyes of the police officers, hence with their full permission and consent, two bands of ruffians went out late at night, aroused peaceful, law-abiding citizens and members of the Christian Catholic Church from their beds and demanded admission to their homes in order that they might search them for "Dowie Elders."

Original from NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

It would seem that official cowardice and intolerance could get but little lower.

And yet Governor Nash, cowed by Masonic threats, snivels out the wretched excuse that "the Dowieites are seeking for cheap notoriety."

How would "His Excellency" like to pay the price?

Concerning these housebreaking mobs Overseer Piper received the following telegram:

MANSFIELD, OHIO, October 19, 1900.

WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

Two turbulent official mobs patrolled streets last night.
Searched half dozen houses for Elders.
Found none.

One of the members of the Church also wrote the following letter concerning that and other experiences:

MANSFIELD, OHIO, October 19, 1900.

CYRUS B. FOCKLER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—The mob is getting quite lively again.

Deacon Kessler arrived at the home of a member Wednesday morning before daylight.

He stayed until 4 o'clock in the afternoon; then he went up town.
We heard he was stoned and used quite roughly.
We had a meeting at Sister ——'s yesterday.
There were about a dozen of us.
Evangelist Loblaw was there.
It was good to hear a sermon once again.
Last night the mobs were out in full force.
At half-past 10 we were called out of bed.
The mob wanted to search the house for Zion Elders.

We let four of them go through. Just in one hour we were called out again by another mob and two of them went through the house.

They said they had been to several other members' houses.
I asked them where the police were.

They said they had served a writ on them so they could not do anything.

Your Sister in Christ, —. —. ——.

This craven-hearted excuse of the mob and of the police, that the writ of habeas corpus had tied the officials' hands, so that they could not protect Zion people or prevent lawlessness, is a lie as diabolical as the hearts from whence it came.

The writ of habeas corpus, in one case only, prevented the officials from deporting a Zion officer, which they never had any legal right to do.

Their duty is to arrest lawbreakers and bring them to punishment and to protect the innocent, law-abiding Christian ministers, and they have never done their duty in this matter.

Every one of them is guilty of malfeasance in office, aiding and abetting a mob, illegal arrest and abduction.

Concerning their actions, the Mansfield Shield, a Democratic newspaper, publishes the following communication.

It should be remembered that the Mansfield city administration is Republican:

A GOOD REPUBLICAN WOULD LIKE TO KNOW WHO IS IN CONTROL OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THIS CITY.

TO THE EDITOR:—I am a Republican, but I would like to know who is in control of the government of the City of Mansfield. Is it Mayor Brown and his police, or is it a mob of lawbreakers, who go forth at night and enter people's houses?

It is just about time something should be done in our town to protect the taxpayers in their rights.

Last night a mob formed in the park, under the very eyes of the police, and started out to "hunt Dowie Elders," as they called it; they went to the homes of six or eight of the good people of this city, and demanded entrance, and when refused, they tried to break in, or burn the house.

The writer saw the people forming on the street, and saw some of the police standing around. It occurs to me that under the proclamation of his honor it would have been the duty of the police to break up these crowds, but they did not do it; on the other hand, they said they would not interfere with any action the mob would take. Now this is a nice state of affairs. What do we good people pay our taxes for? Are we to be disgraced by the action of a few public officials, who are playing for the votes of a few people rather than to follow their sworn duty and protect the rights of the citizens who want to uphold the law? Shame on any official who closes his eyes and refuses to follow the law he has sworn to support.

Mayor Brown can offer no excuse for allowing such actions to continue; he cannot say his police force is not strong enough, for he has the right to swear in extra officers, and if he cannot get them, he should call on the militia; but when he refuses to do this, he countenances mob law.

Whether or not these Dowie Elders be right or wrong in their religious belief, they have the rights of American citizens, and so long as they have not violated any law, they should be permitted to walk our streets as free citizens.

Is our city going to be menaced every night by a hungry mob? Are our citizens going to be aroused from their beds at any hour and allow a few people to go through their houses?

Let his honor, who is the conservator of the peace, answer these questions.

To good, law-abiding citizens these scenes are disgraceful, and we wait to see if the present administration is going to foster and encourage mob law, or be the preservers of law and order GOOD ORDER

Writing from the Richland County Jail, Deacon Kessler says regarding this matter:

Attorney Douglass was threatened by the mob last night. They were scouring the city, looking for "Elders."

The stoning of the Deputy Sheriffs and myself seems to have awakened the people, somewhat, to a realization of their danger. The mob last night also stirred up public sentiment.

I should not be surprised if the mob should finally hang itself, according to the old saying with reference to the Devil hanging himself if given enough rope.

The Ministers' Resolutions have only just been given to the public, "having been withheld until another outbreak should occur."

The Wednesday night occurence seems to have been sufficient to bring the wonderful pronunciamento to the light.

The resolutions to which Deacon Kessler refers are like all the utterances of the Mansfield ministers since the trouble began, merely high-sounding but inefficient words, used as a convenient vehicle for wicked lies about Zion.

If these brave "resolvers" really deplore mob violence and lawlessness, as they say they do, let them show it by doing something to put an end to it.

The following are the resolutions as published in the Mansfield Shield:

RESOLUTIONS OF MINISTERS—MANSFIELD CLERGYMEN CONDEMN LAWLESSNESS.

The Ministerial Association of this city has come to the front with resolutions regarding the Dowie outbreaks which were given out for publication this morning. It was decided at a meeting of the Association held a short time ago to keep the resolutions which were passed at that time quiet until another outbreak, when they would be given out. An outbreak occurred Wednesday evening and the resolutions were given this morning for publication as follows:

"WHEREAS, An impression has gone abroad that the clergymen of Mansfield are tacitly in sympathy with the uprising of the people and its treatment of the Dowie Elders, and

"WHEREAS, This impression does not reflect the real sentiment of the ministry of our city and may tend to encourage lawlessness and the uprising of the people; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That, while we deplore and condemn the abusive and slanderous utterances of Elder Fockler and Dowie in his issue of the LEAVES OF HEALING of July 28th, as well as the senseless and persistently defiant acts that have provoked the uprising of the people, we nevertheless declare the right of every person to conduct religious services without molestation, and that we protest against the interference with the liberty and property of any and all persons who may come to our city and who may be engaged in business not incompatible with sound morals; and further, that we emphatically condemn the spirit of lawlessness which prompts such interference. It may be stated that W. S. Capellar, editor of the Mansfield News, made the statement that the Mansfield pastors were tacitly in sympathy with the mob in his notorious interview in the Columbus (Ohio) State Journal.

On Friday, October 19, 1900, Evangelist Loblaw sent the following telegram to Overseer Piper, reporting his work up to that time:

MANSFIELD, OHIO, October 19, 1900.

REV. W. HAMNER PIPER,
Chicago, Illinois.

Have seen most of members.
Had meeting outskirts undisturbed.
Wire instructions to Douglass.
Love to all. MARK H. LOBLAW.

The following letter from Evangelist Loblaw, written on Friday, October 19th, contains some interesting information:

MANSFIELD, OHIO, October 19, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER PIPER:—I have visited over one-half of members and held several small meetings.

We had meeting yesterday afternoon at Mrs. ——'s. We were undisturbed, although two policemen drove past the house and then turned around and drove back to town.

I have not been arrested yet, although I have boldly walked the streets and made my calls.

We cannot stop any more at the Brunswick. It is a trap for us.

I was there three days undiscovered.

The mob came out to ——'s Wednesday night for me, but I was not there.

I went out on Tuesday upon the square, but I was left unmolested.

The other men have been again and again arrested and sent out.

I know now where most of the people live.

They know I am around, but the authorities cannot locate me.

I find many fine people here of Zion.

I am in the fight to stay and win.

God sustains me.

Let us keep at it.

I want to w in.

Love to you, Overseer, and Zion. MARK H. LOBLAW.

On Friday, October 19th, Elder Edward Williams, of Benton Harbor, Michigan, who had ridden into Mansfield on a bicycle on several occasions, made another trip and was successful in holding a meeting, but was afterward mobbed and stoned at a small town five miles from Mansfield. He wired Overseer Piper as follows:

CRESTLINE, OHIO, October 20, 1900.

REV. W. H. PIPER.

Had meeting at ——'s yesterday.
Mobbed and stoned at Lucas.
Now at Crestline, going to Mansfield. E. WILLIAMS.

On Lord's Day, October 21, 1900, Deacon Lee went to Mansfield by team and Elder Williams again on his wheel.

How they fared is told by the following telegrams:

CRESTLINE, OHIO, October 21, 1900.

W. H. PIPER,
1201 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

CRESTLINE, OHIO, October 21, 1900.

REV. W. H. PIPER,
1201 Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

Started for Mansfield this A. M. on wheel.
Was intercepted.
Crowd in buggies came to meet me.
Lee went with livery. E. WILLIAMS.

Considering the long, trying battle which these brethren had so bravely fought, Overseer Piper sent him the following telegram:

CHICAGO, October 22, 1900.

REV. EDWARD WILLIAMS,
Continental Hotel, Crestline, Ohio.

Go home.
Let Lee and Loblaw come Chicago. WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

The following statement in a recent issue of the Mansfield Shield is significant:

It is suspected that the police do not get hold of more than half of the Dowie ministers who reach this city, and that services are being held regularly in secret after the manner of the early Christians in Rome.

This fight has now resolved itself into an almost open conflict between the organized force of the Devil in Secret Lodges and the organized force of God in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Hence the fight is long and bitter, but God will win.

His people in Zion are loyal and determined and will fight to victory if it takes every cent of property and every life.

The following letters are samples of hundreds which are received at Headquarters:

WINNIPEG, MANITOBA, CANADA, October 9, 1900.

REV. W. HAMNER PIPER,
1201 Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

Dear Brother in Christ:—In the absence of the General Overseer, I address this to you and enclose express order for $—— to be applied to the defense and assistance of those brethren who are fighting the battle of the Lord in Mansfield (much more appropriately named Devilsfield).

They have my hearty coöperation and prayers.

I can see that the miserable action of all Zion's opponents, there as well as elsewhere, is going to tell in the end for truth and righteousness.

Even the dead apostate churches can see that there must be something real in Zion when her friends can stand such treatment as they are getting. It is because they (the apostates) have no backbone that they have not been treated in the same fashion.

"They that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution" is being experienced, and is bound to tell for God in the end.

May Almighty God bless and increase your zeal more and more, and make you all realize that "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High, shall abide in the shadow of the Almighty."

Your Brother in Christ, CHARLES LUNN.

WINNIPEG, MANITOBA, CANADA, October 8, 1900.

REV. W. H. PIPER,
Overseer at Large, Christian Catholic Church in Zion,
1201 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Sir:—Please to accept the enclosed on account of expenses in fighting the Devil and his army at Mansfield, Ohio.

We are watching proceedings, and although the enemy is more than usually strong and persistent in this case, he will have to give in.

The harder the fight, the greater the victory.

We pray daily that the good brethren will remain steadfast in the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, when the result cannot be doubted.

Faithfully yours and faith in God, W. AND M. E. SMITH.

P. S.—Draw upon me for another $——. if necessary, in this cause.
W. S.

ROCK CREEK, OHIO, October 9, 1900.

REV. WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER, Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Brother:—For weeks I have noticed the shameful treatment heaped upon your Elders and Evangelists.

If I were a preacher in Mansfield, I would cry aloud against such lawlessness, if they took my scalp.

Hold on to Mansfield.
Send your preachers right on.
Dowie and Zion will win.
May God give you the victory.
I am a wellwisher to your work in the Lord.
Fraternally, R. M. MARSHALL.

The hand of Secretism in this matter is no idle fancy. Governor Nash, of Ohio, was rushed into the Masonic order very soon after this trouble began.

The Christian Cynosure, of Chicago, says:

In Mansfield, Ohio, ministers were stripped naked and painted blue by the mob, which had the tactit sanction of the Masonic Mayor and city officials. And the chief offense of these ministers, who were so shamefully abused, seems to have been their opposition to Mah-hah-bone, the Masonic diety of these city officers. A political society like the Masons, which pretends not to be political, is to be more dreaded and condemned by a free people than the "red shirts" that boast their object.

It is the old fight of God against Baal.

The final victory has always perched upon the glorious banners of the armies of the King of Heaven.

This case will be no exception.

THE EVERLASTING GOSPEL DECLARED.

Report of Meeting held in Divine Healing Home No. 1, August 17, 1894.
Subject: "Teaching Concerning the Disciples' Prayer."

Report of Meeting held in Divine Healing Home No. 1, August 18, 1894.
Subject: "God Our Provider."

VERY valuable teaching concerning many of the petitions in that Prayer which our Lord taught His disciples is given in the first of the reports of "Morning Talks" which we publish this week. The truth of the teaching of God's Messenger to Zion is proven, not only by its perfect accord with the Word of God, but by its wide and practical application.

Spoken more than six years ago, the words reproduced in print were eminently adapted to the conditions of the time. Yet they are timely today, and strike telling blows at evils which are now prevalent.

In the second of these "talks," published herewith, the man of God deals with topics called up by several passages in the sixth chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew. But the general trend of his discourse is upon the promises of God to provide and the folly and sin of anxiety about food and raiment.

These reports have not been revised by the General Overseer.

TEACHING CONCERNING THE DISCIPLES' PRAYER.

Divine Healing Home No. 1, August 17, 1894.

Thy will be done, as in Heaven, so on earth.

To know God's will, to be in harmony with God's will, really lies at the bottom of everything. To understand this prayer, in connection with this ministry especially, is of intense importance to you who are gathered together here. It has been commonly said that in praying we ought always to say, "Thy will be done." We have been taught that we are wise in so praying, because the will of God is unknown and, as we cannot know God's will positively, it is best for us with humble resignation to pray as our Lord taught us and say, "Father, Thy will be done."

That teaching is entirely false.

The Will of God is Not Unknown.

God has taken the utmost pains to make His will known. I cannot imagine how God could have taken more precise and constant methods of making His will known to men in all its fundamental principles than He has.

He has given us a Revelation which extends over 4000 years of human history.

He has given, in the instruction of prophets, of apostles and of evangelists and teachers, the most precise information regarding His will.

He has made it known in all its glorious fulness, not only in the words and work, but in the life of His own Eternal Son.

He has shown us that as He was, so are we in this world; that we are to be like Him, partakers of His Divine nature; that we are to escape the corruption which is in the world through lust, and that we are to be incorporated in His life so closely that His Spirit is to dominate our being. Our body itself is the Temple of the Spirit Himself who dwells in us. The Spirit of the Eternal Father Himself dwells in us; for Christ said:

> If a man love Me, he will keep My Word: and My Father will love him, and We will come unto him, and make Our abode with him.

It is not true that He has taught us to say "Thy will be done," and stop there. He has taught us to pray, not a prayer of blind resignation to the will of God, but a prayer for Divine intervention that God will come into us and do something, that He will do something for us in precisely the same way that He has done elsewhere.

The prayer is, "Thy will be done, as in Heaven, so on earth." It is a prayer, definite and distinct, that God's will be done on earth today in just the same way as it is done in heaven today. That is not a prayer of blind resignation. That is asking God to come down and do something for us of His own will and do something for us just exactly as it is done in heaven.

What We Know About Heaven.

We know, from the Revelation of God, certain things concerning heaven. There are a great many things we do not know.

Many people are fond of quoting certain parts of the Bible incompletely. They quote:

> Things which eye saw not, and ear heard not,
> And which entered not into the heart of man,
> Whatsoever things God prepared for them that love Him.

They stop there. They do not quote what follows:

But unto us God revealed them through the Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

The very gates of heaven themselves have been thrown open wide and we have seen something of the Heavenly City and of its glory in the beautiful Apocalypse. You have the actual size of the city—twelve thousand furlongs, fifteen hundred miles, every way. You have every detail of the city, its beauty and its glory. These things are real. When I see a lovely emerald or any beautiful stone, it seems to me as if it were a chip off the foundations of heaven. You know that all these foundations are precious stones.

What is said here is meant. God never taught by His own Son a prayer He did not mean. "Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth."

The first thing is to find out just what that will is in heaven.

How God's Will is Done in Heaven.

Suppose that in imagination, this morning, we were to leave this earth and above these lower skies were to be in spirit taken at once to one of the Twelve Gates of the Heavenly City.

We behold the great archangel. We look into his face and say, "Oh Archangel, is this the City of God? is the Throne of God here?"

As we look at those jasper walls and glorious foundations and see that city rise fifteen hundred miles high in the air, away beyond our power to see its glory, it seems impossible for us to enter those mansions towering up in their resplendent beauty.

"Is this heaven?" we ask.

"Yes."

"Archangel, tell us, is there any sin here?"

The archangel by the side of the gate answers, "No, there is no sin here. Sin cannot be in heaven where God is."

We say, "Why?"

"Because the will of God is done here."

"Is there no sin where the will of God is done?"

"None."

We go back to earth and pray the Disciples' Prayer with a new meaning. "Father, do unto me Thy will as it is done in heaven. May the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world take away the sin from me."

Will God do it? He must do it. Christ has said we must pray for a clean heart.

The blood of Jesus Christ cleanses us from all sin. Christ told us to pray for that. Christ never told us to pray for an impossibility; He never put in us a hope which He intended to dash to pieces. The will of God may be done on earth, just as it is in heaven, and there may be no conscious transgression in us.

I arose this morning without any consciousness of transgression. I was not conscious of any sin yesterday. I may have sinned yesterday, but I was not conscious of a single act which was at variance with God's will.

I know that God cleanses from sin; I know that God keeps clean; I know that the Blood of Jesus Christ purifies from sin. I arose this morning praying to God, "Vouchsafe to keep me this day without sin." I did not pray in faith if I did not believe that He would do it. I should go down immediately if I trusted in myself.

No Sickness in Heaven.

Now we will go up again to the Gate.

"Tell us, blessed Archangel, is there any disease here?"

He would answer, "No."

"Why is there no disease here?"

"Because the will of the Father is done here."

"Is there no disease where the will of the Father is done?"

"No. Disease cannot enter here. Nothing that defileth can enter here."

We go back to earth and pray with a new meaning:

"O Father in heaven, for the sake of Jesus who died to save us, who bore my infirmities and who bore my sickness, I beseech Thee to take disease out of me, to grant that Thy will may be done on earth as it is in heaven."

I know it would be done. I know that I will wear out, but it does not follow that I shall have disease. I believe that if we lived up to the height of the Lord's privilege there would not be a pang of disease in us. That is the will of God.

When men tell you the will of God is not known, you tell them it is known. Throughout that City of God the inhabitant is never sick.

It is our privilege to pray that God's will shall be done on earth just exactly the same way as it it done in heaven.

God Has Promised to Feed His Children.

We not only ask God to keep us without sin and without disease, but as our Lord has taught us, we pray for daily bread. Having received forgiveness and healing, we must receive continuous supplies of heavenly power to cleanse us and to keep us holy in spirit, soul and body. The food of yesterday having been assimilated by my psychical and physical nature, and having given me in a measure the possibilities of strength for yesterday's service, the food of yesterday will not last me today. I must get a fresh supply. Day by day we need this daily bread.

But we can do much more easily without food than we can without the bread of life. We can do easily without food for a time. We can stand doing without food for one, two, three, twenty or forty days, perhaps, but we cannot do without God's Spirit for a moment.

We want the Word.

It is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing.

These are the words of Jesus Christ.

The imparting of Divine power comes through the Word.

He sendeth His Word and healeth them.
The Word of God liveth and abideth forever.

The Word of God never dies.

Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

It would be possible for men to live for days, almost, with scarcely any food. I know one who lived for eighteen years who lay in trances for days. They scarcely have any life then. The spirit will live sometimes in bodies with very little vitality.

But we cannot do without Christ. We cannot do at all without God. We need the daily bread. We need a great deal of it, too. We need it every moment of the day. We must have it and assimilate it.

We must have communion with God. We must have the Breath of His Spirit. We must have the Fire of his Spirit. We must have the Water Divine. We must have the Holy Oil. These four symbols of the Spirit have great realities behind them, Air, Fire, Oil and Water. Without them we would be without any power at all.

The Necessity of Repentance Before Forgiveness.

Forgive us our debts as we have also forgiven our debtors.

Oh beloved friends, there must not be one spark of unforgiving nature within us. I do not say that you can forgive the impenitent. I do not see how it is possible for me to forgive any one who is not sorry for sin. In the first place, I am not asked to do it, because if they are not sorry they do not repent and do not ask forgiveness.

In the second place, it would be wrong to expect forgiveness without Repentance. You ask God to forgive your sins as you forgive others, and you forgive others as God forgives you. How does He forgive you? Will God forgive you, will God forgive me, unless we repent and ask Him to forgive us? If God should come and say, "I know you have been very wicked, but I forgive you whether you are sorry or not," that would be to do me the greatest injury. If it were possible for God to forgive me, whether I were sorry or not, that would mean simply that God gave me a permit to continue in my sin.

Terrible Mistake of Many in Training Up Children.

That is one of the ways in which children are often so badly trained. Their mothers and their fathers do not insist upon Repentance, but extend forgiveness to them and overlook transgressions without being asked to. The children begin thinking that their wrongdoing is right. It is weakness in the parent to do it.

Take the rod and beat the child until it repents of its sin. If there is no other way to make the child sorry than by taking the rod, then take the rod and lay it on hard. God makes us sorry for sin, but He never forgives us until we are sorry. He never will forgive the impenitent. I thank Him that He never does. If you wish to train up disobedient, wilful, wicked children who will break your hearts, then allow them to commit transgressions with impunity; never insist on Repentance; extend to them indulgence and forgiveness, no matter what they do. Then you are training up devils. They will be a curse to the earth.

God never forgives us unless we are sorry. God does everything He can to bring us to Repentance. He shows us the wickedness of sin, and we ought to show children the wickedness of sin. If they will not be shown, make them repent, if you can manage it. If the only way to make them repent is through their skins, then appeal to them through their skins. I believe there is a great deal of false teaching in this matter.

God is willing, like the father in the parable of the prodigal son, to receive that son who is dead and alive again, or was lost and is found. He is ready to take his rags off, give him fine clothing, set before him the richest food and give him all the privileges of a son if he will say, "Father, I have repented."

There is joy among the angels over one sinner that repenteth, but there is no joy over the sinner who is impenitent.

Be Ever Ready to Extend Forgiveness.

Always be like God in this matter. Ask God to make you always like Him.

The moment transgression is confessed, forgive.

Bring us not into temptation.

Probably, as Dr. Robert Young says, the verb ought to be read in a permissive sense: "Suffer us not to be led into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one."

God has placed us in a world of temptation. He has placed us in a world where there is ever temptation. But He never placed temptation here. Satan brought that in.

Blessed is he who is tried and endureth temptation, who overcomes evil with good, who can go into conflict with the tempter and come out unscathed. Foolish is the man who gets in the way of the tempter. It is very foolish to go into the paths of temptation and expect God to keep you.

A nobleman had a coachman for many years, an excellent and careful man. Then the coachman died and the gentleman sought for his successor. He was known to be a good master and gave good pay. A great many coachmen in England were anxious to take the place with this Christian nobleman as coachman.

The nobleman thought it very important that the coachman he selected should be competent. He therefore took some pains in the selection. He saw the large numbers of applicants himself. They waited in the anteroom day after day. He asked them for their references, looked at them, looked at the men, and then asked them one question. In every case the answer to that question caused him to shake his head and say, "You will not do, sir; good morning."

Scores and scores went out and wondered why this kind, good master did not want them.

This was the question he asked: "How near could you drive to the edge of a precipice and not go over?"

One of them said he could go within six inches, and another said he could go within an inch; he had become very skilful in driving and had gone that close just to see how skilful he was in driving carriages.

Not How Close to the Precipice, but How Far From It.

They were comparing notes outside and a very good coachman who was listening to them got it into his head that he knew why that question was asked. He wanted a situation very badly. He went in his turn. The gentleman said, "You have excellent testimonials. I know you and know about you. How close could you drive to a precipice without going over?"

"Sure, your honor," replied the applicant, "I would just try to go as far away from the precipice as I could."

"You will do, sir," said the nobleman. He had been waiting for a man who would not drive up to the edge of things.

God needs men who do not get into temptation. There are large numbers of people who are overcome by temptation because they go into temptation. They go perilously near the precipice, and they go over sometimes. They think they would like to go down town and see this kind of thing and that kind of thing, and before they know where they are, they are into it and have gone over.

When you know where the Devil is to be found, give the Devil a wide berth. Do not go there. I know there are plenty of lions to be found in various places. Doubtless there is one in Lincoln Park just now. I do not mind looking at a lion now and then, but I like to be quite sure that the bars are strong and the lion is inside the cage. Suppose I went inside of the cage and said, "Now, Mr. Lion, I have come in to investigate, and would like to look at your teeth." The lion would not know that I had come to study natural history. He would give one stroke of his paw and put his teeth into me. Would I have any right to complain of the lion?

There is the boa constrictor in a glass cage. A live rabbit is put into that cage. The boa constrictor, having crushed him to a pulp, covers him with saliva and is busy swallowing him. You had better keep outside. If you went inside there and the boa constrictor got you and began to crush every bone in you, and cover you with slime and swallow you, you would have no right to complain. You would not be where you ought to be.

Do not go into temptation. "Evil company doth corrupt good manners. Awake up righteously, and sin not."

Seek to be Separate From the World and to Keep Away From Sin.

Do not go where there is temptation. You will find plenty of it in your pathway as it is. It will take all your grace and strength to overcome that.

Pray to be delivered from the evil one, for he is the tempter. The evil one has learned to tempt with great skill. Those who are inspired by him have the outward show of independence, but are weak and vile to their very hearts' core. They are willing to be so.

I believe the good in this age are getting better and the wicked are getting worse.

There never was a time when there was more iniquity and downright deviltry than there is now. Wicked men are determined to defile themselves. They smoke and chew defiling tobacco. They defile themselves until they have sown cancer. A man whose body is in the power of the Devil is not a Christian. "If any man destroyeth the Temple of God, him will God destroy."

A Christian Does Not Wilfully Destroy His Body.

I say to every man who deliberately defiles his body, "Sir, you are not a Christian; you have not the mark of a Christian. A Christian keeps himself free from sin."

Do not tell me you are a clean man when you do not wash your face.

Do not tell me you are a Christian when you deliberately defile yourself.

Do not tell me you are a Christian when you drink that liquid fire and distilled damnation.

You may be a Christian in somebody's estimation, but I do not believe you are. I do not believe a man is a Christian who wilfully and deliberately poisons himself with that cursed poison; that which "biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder."

A man is a Christian who keeps his body under and brings it into subjection.

God the Holy Spirit will not dwell inside of a beer-bottle or a whisky-bottle or a tobacconist's shop. You cannot find Him there. You will not find God the Holy Spirit dwelling inside a man who takes these things, because the Devil gets in with them and the good goes out. We are to keep ourselves from these things. Then we will be vessels which will be sanctified and prepared unto every good work.

God will not use dirty vessels for the Water of Life. My wife would not allow our clean food to be put into dirty vessels. We have clean food in clean vessels. God demands clean vessels, and He will have them.

You had better ask to be kept from the wicked one and all his schemes.

But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Keep that spirit of forgiveness always ready. The moment that sin is repented of, extend forgiveness. Blot out the debt if it is within the possibility of your power. If you have anything against your fellowman which he cannot pay, whether it be money or anything else, act as God acts to us who are indebted to Him—blot it out.

Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance.

Fasting is Not Piety.

There is a great deal of undesirable fasting. If there is a fast, let it be a private fast.

If people are gluttons, it is a good thing for them to live a fasting life.

The great majority of people do not need to fast. Most people cannot assimilate enough. A great many Christian people think they get great spiritual power by fasting, as if by punishing and emaciating their bodies and ruining their digestion they could make the spirit so much purer. That is false teaching.

The most feeble and easily-imposed-upon of people are people reduced by fasting. Their bodily natures are reduced; the psychological nature follows; the blood is depleted and diminishes in quantity and richness. The spiritual nature then becomes an easy prey to demoniac instructions. Evil spirits come and impress themselves as the Spirit of Life, or cause fanciful imaginations.

An Illustration of the Evils of Fasting.

A very excellent lady in Australia came to attend our teaching. I was a kind of spiritual grandfather to her, and she came and was very much blessed. Having gotten the teaching, and hoping to be more effectual, she began to fast.

In the state of her constitution, it soon began to be quite apparent to her friends that her fasting would cause her to be an easy victim to disease. She took cold and tuberculosis attacked her left lung.

She sent for me. I would not go and would not pray for her until she gave up fasting. She was very much astonished to think I would not pray.

I went out to her home at Hawthorne, near Melbourne. Her father said, "You must see her. She is confident that if you lay hands upon her she will be healed."

I said, "I have sent my message to her. If she will absolutely give up fasting, I will pray. I consider her disease entirely due to her fasting. She had strength to do all her work if she had not begun to fast."

She declined to give up her fasting. I went to her bedside. She welcomed me in a very friendly manner. I had been useful to her in some little matter before. She said, "Oh Doctor, if you pray with me I shall be healed at once."

I said, "I will not pray with you unless you give me the distinct promise that you will not fast."

"Why should you take away my liberty?" she asked.

I said, "I am in God's service, am I not?"

"Yes."

"My message from God is that you will give up your fasting absolutely. It is contrary to common sense."

"Doctor," she said, "if I promise not to fast for a time, will you tell me when you will give me permission?"

"I do not know," I replied. "I cannot tell you."

"I will not give up my liberty," she protested.

"Then die," I said. "Goodby. The Lord be with you. You will go to heaven soon, about twenty years before your time."

I went away.

"Is he gone?" she cried. She did not believe I would leave her.

"Call after him," she said. "I will do it."

I was at the railroad station when her father came up panting. "She will give it up, Doctor," he said.

I went back. I felt sure in my heart that I was right. I prayed with her and she was healed.

Instantly Healed When Fasting Was Given Up.

The disease shot out of her lung like the air. She was healed instantly.

When I was about to leave Australia she came to me in a most coaxing way and said, "You are going away to America. I gave up my liberty to you. Give it back to me now. When will you give it back to me?"

"Never," I said, "until I come back from America or Europe."

"Why," she said, "I may never see you again."

I said, "You eat three square meals a day and be a good, strong woman."

She eats three meals a day and she is strong and healthy. I think a great majority know just how much to eat. If you are a glutton, put a knife to thy throat, as Solomon said.

God wants you to eat the only medicine in this house: that is, good food.

"Lay Not Up for Yourselves Treasures Upon Earth."

Beloved friends, there is no doubt whatever that we have no right to lay up treasures on earth. The hoarding of money is sinful. The hoarding of any treasure is sinful. There are a great many other treasures besides money.

I have known men who hoarded up treasures of knowledge until their whole persons, as it were, had become moth-eaten and were never any use at all. They were splendid men; magnificent men. Why was their knowledge not valuable? They never used it. All they did was to live in their libraries from week to week, from month to month and from year to year, hoarding up their knowledge. One tithe of their knowledge, had it been used, would have been very useful to men.

At last they became exceedingly ignorant through excess of knowledge. You can hoard up knowledge until you have no capacity to impart it. Not being able to impart it, the machinery is all clogged and you have no use for it.

A man who has great theological and intellectual gifts can do good with them scarce better than a Salvation Army captain who has no knowledge, unless he has practical knowledge. There was a time when I piled up knowledge myself. I had to get away, and I did get away.

I said, "Lord, I will never do anything until I impart."

True knowledge is gained by imparting. Treasures are of no use unless imparted. The men of the most advantage in knowledge are the men who impart. Abraham Lincoln did not have much knowledge, but he knew the Bible. He knew the Bible better, perhaps, than any other book.

One of the things which Lincoln used to say in his campaign speeches helped to place him in the presidential chair. That was, "The people must come very clearly to see that a house divided against itself cannot stand. This Nation cannot stand divided against itself, one-half slave and one-half free."

The people saw that it was a Divine truth. It went to the very heart of the matter. He learned that wisdom from the Word of God and knew how to impart it Wealth is of No Use Unless It is Imparted.

I believe absolutely that what we have to do with money and talent of every kind is to employ it at once for God. Put it into something you can use for God. Whatever truth you have or whatever money you have immediately say, "How can I use that for God?" Use it; do not hoard it. If you wish to increase it, use it."

The man who had five talents made them ten.

If you have treasure only here on earth, it will be found that you have done no good with it and it will be left behind. When you get to heaven, thousands of things will be recorded against you because you have not done them.

I have ever been glad to spend my last nickel for God. I would do it again.

You will very plainly show where your treasure is, when that treasure is destroyed or threatened.

There comes to me now an incident which will illustrate this. Plutarch in his Lives tells us about Pericles, the great Athenian. When the plague came to Athens and destroyed multitudes of people, he went about his duties as head of the State and never shed a tear.

The plague entered the circle of his immediate friends; he never shed a tear.

The plague entered into his family and swept away those very close and dear to him, and yet he never shed a tear.

The plague at last laid its horrid hand upon his only son, Paralus, and he lay dead.

Pericles looked at that corpse of his only son, and never shed a tear. Some said, "Pericles has no heart."

But when, as was the custom of the Greeks, Pericles had to take the funeral garland and place it upon the brow of his dead son ere that body was committed to the fire, and his hand felt the icy-cold chill of death, it went to his heart. Then Pericles realized that his treasure upon which he had centered all his heart was dead and cold and gone forever. With a heathen's hopeless despair he burst into lamentations and tears and fell fainting beside the corpse of his son.

He was Pericles' treasure, and when that treasure was dead, Pericles' heart was touched.

The Trifling Nature of Earthly Losses When One Has Treasure In Heaven.

I hear men say, "I have lost everything. I have nothing more left to live for. I have lost houses and lands and this and that."

Lost everything? You have lost a few possessions, and you have lost everything? Have you lost God? Have you lost heaven? Have you lost the power of working? If not, you have lost nothing except surplusage.

Where is your treasure? If your treasure is in heaven, you will feel that you have everything.

I have friends very dear to me who said to me when I gave up business at twenty-one years of age, "You have prospered in business and made a great deal of money. You can go on now and, instead of being a beggar, you can be the richest man on earth."

I said, "Possibly; any fool can be rich. But it takes a great deal more grace and wisdom to shut the door and spend what I have. I have been looking into the future. Twenty years hence, if I live twenty years, and am the means of salvation and blessing to thousands, I will have treasures in heaven."

Looking back over my life, the only thing I have had any pleasure in thinking about is that every day my store is growing there. I desire to lay up something every day.

You can do it. You can lay up treasures which will ever keep. If you are a Christian, you will. You will say, not how little can I do, but how much can I do?

For whosoever would save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life for My sake and the Gospel's shall save it.

GOD OUR PROVIDER.

Divine Healing Home No. 1, August 18, 1894.

The lamp of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness!

There is a Light which shines within the heart. There is a Light which shines within the spirit, soul and body of every one in whom the Light dwells.

When our Lord was transfigured on the mount, it was the Shekinah Light which dwelt within Him which showed forth.

Light Does Not Give Life; Life Gives Light.

Out of life, light proceeds. There is a light real and sometimes recognizable in Christians, which comes from God. It is not the light which shines on the sea or land, but that Light, greater than either, which is God Himself. There is a real sense in which it has its physical manifestation.

Again and again in this ministry, it has been my precious privilege to hear people say, "Oh what a sense of light there was passing through my whole being, just as if a lightning flash had come and in that flash all disease passed away."

Our God in Christ and by the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of Light as well as of Life. We therefore expect that the whole body shall be full of Light. It is not a figurative expression. It is a spiritual reality and has its physical manifestation. It, of course, has its spiritual signification. The eye single to God's glory must say from the heart:

I do not care for earthly store,
Beyond the day's supply,
But only covet more and more
The clear and single eye;
To see my duty face to face,
And trust the Lord for daily grace.

Not to be at all concerned about what we shall eat or what we shall drink or wherewith we shall be clothed, but to have God within full view at all times, and then to go about earth without being cumbered with anything, is to have the eye single.

I prayed God in planning these two Divine Healing Homes that I should not be cumbered. I therefore asked Him that He would speedily take away every bit of encumbrance in connection with the furnishing of them. It is only three months since these Homes were opened, and there is not a single cent of indebtedness on them. I did not bother myself about the clothing, I did not bother myself about the food; but I did concern myself about doing my duty, and I feel that all the way along I am not concerned about large resources except for His glory.

Do God's Will. He Will Supply All Your Need.

When you are conscious you are right with God in a path very plain, go right on and do not be concerned about the commissary department. Your Commander-in-Chief has sent you into the battlefield and it is His business to look ahead for the food.

Suppose you were under General Grant and he said, "I want you to take a corps of the army and sweep the Rebels out of the way." Suppose you stopped and wanted to know about your food and supplies. You might die there. Your business is to go and do the work.

Trust in the Lord, and do good;
So shalt thou dwell in the land, and feed securely.

This is not for the lazy man, but if you will do your duty and earn your food, the Lord God Almighty will see that you get it. If the Lord gives you other things to enable you to do more good, use them simply for His glory.

A lady writes to me and says, "I have no money, but I have some jewelry. Must I sell it and do something for the Lord?" I would not advise her to do anything of the kind, but I would not care to wear an expensive article of jewelry when God needs money.

As to Jewels and Personal Adornment.

I think there is a great deal of folly, however, in people saying a Christian has no right to wear jewelry. They refer to that passage in the Epistle of Peter which says:

Whose adorning let it not be the outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on apparel.

If you adhere strictly to that exhortation as some interpret it, you are not to plait your hair or to wear any clothes. If you go about with your hair in a tangle all thrown out in the wind, I do not think you will glorify God particularly.

It is a good thing for a woman to be modestly apparelled.

This nonsense about not wearing any gold on account of this passage, is ridiculous. Sometimes the cheapest thing you can get is gold. It lasts longer. The first pair of gold cuff-links I ever wore were given to me by two children who were the first on whom I ever laid hands. They had been perfectly healed. I suppose I wore those links for fifteen years continuously.

I would not think for a moment of wearing any expensive article of jewelry. The idea of having thousands of dollars lying in your jewel case of no use, for the vanity of looking at it! You are not to lay up treasures for yourself. You are to endeavor to lay up treasures for God and use things for God and have treasures in heaven.

I should like very much to see the Lord give into the hands of His people millions and millions of dollars. I should like to see every acre on earth used for God. I should like to see all the gold come into the hands of God's men; for "the silver is mine and the gold is mine, saith Jehovah of hosts."

Some people speak of poverty as piety, and go about wearing black. They would like to go through the gardens and paint the flowers with a tar brush.

I love God, and God's beautiful things. "I say unto you, that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these."

God Clothed This Earth With Beauty and Loves Beautiful Things.

The God who clothed this earth with beauty desires that His people should be dressed with becoming taste and care. Moderate, careful dressing is a pleasure to the eye and in every sense healthful. I am sure our Lord Jesus Christ was clean and neat, and His seamless robe well kept. Let the Light be in you which puts all these lesser things beneath your feet.

A word or two regarding this "Take no thought." In the Revised Version the translation is "Be not anxious." It certainly does not mean "Take no thought." If you do not take thought, you cannot sow and plow and reap. The birds of the air do not reap and sow and gather into barns, yet God does not mean by that that we are to be as ignorant as the animals or the birds. He has told us to be industrious, but the thought is that we are not to be anxious. It is wrong to be anxious about things.

Let us do our whole duty. Let us work earnestly. Let us take care that every day is filled with labor. Let us be "in diligence not slothful; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord."

There is no place on earth, and there is no place in heaven for a lazy person. Of course there is a time for resting and a time for working. Some of you are here for getting rest and strength. While you rest, rest absolutely.

Do not be anxious about things. Cast every care on the Lord. When you go to work, do not be anxious about results. Do the best you can. Expect the best results. If you fall short, do better the next time.

Learn by your failures. Do not by any means worry yourselves because you are not doing what somebody else is doing. You are each doing your work the best you know how.

The Highest Encomium Pronounced by Jesus Was, "She Hath Done What She Could."

Do not live in continuous worry about what you eat and drink and wherewith you shall be clothed.

Do not go on laying up for many years many goods for the sake of having a big pile and a big store. Often and often will you find that riches take to themselves wings and fly away. Banks fail, and perhaps everything goes. You thought everything was perfectly secure, and in a moment you are turned from wealth into poverty.

You cannot be sure about anything human. Therefore, do not be anxious. You can be sure of everything you put into the hands of the Lord.

Except the Lord build the house,
They labor in vain that build it:
Except the Lord keep the city,
The watchman waketh but in vain.
It is vain for you that ye rise up early, and so late take rest,
And eat the bread of toil:
For so He giveth unto His beloved sleep.

Christ does not mean that you shall take His words in the sense of a command to be utterly careless. There is a great difference between working with no anxiety and toiling away full of anxiety.

If a person is full of anxiety, he is liable to make a mistake. An engineer at the throttle who is anxious is very liable to blunder. But if he stands there with a full conception of what he can do and what the engine beneath his feet can do, then his head is clear; he watches for the signals, he goes full speed where there is a white light, cautiously where there is a green light and stops where there is red.

It is not conducive to prosperity in spirit, soul or body to be anxious.

Some people are anxious as to whether God has healed them. The only concern is that you fulfil God's conditions. Then God is bound to hear you.

Make His service your delight,
And He will make your heart His care.

God, Your Father, is Our Provider.

Do not forget that God is always the Father and that our Lord and Saviour is a Brother, and that the Holy Spirit brings to us the life of a God of Infinite Compassion.

Do not forget that God always knows what you need, and that He is not too busy to hear you. His Omnipotent Power is omniscient. It is exhaustless in grace and adequate to the necessities of all His creatures. There is nothing unknown to Him in your hearts and minds.

Your beloved Father knows you are in need of these things. Do not be anxious about them. He knows exactly what you need. His promise is given:

And my God shall fulfil every need of yours according to His riches in glory in Jesus Christ.

The first thing is to seek God's Kingdom and God's righteousness. You are a child of the Kingdom. Your wants are His. You are His care. You are to do the right thing in His sight. If you are not anxious, He will see you through.

It may be that God will permit you to suffer. That is a part of the expectation of a Christian. I have always expected to suffer persecution, misrepresentation, cursing, calumny, boycotting, everything that the Devil could devise. I have expected it and I have gotten it. I deserve it, because I have fought the Devil, have fought sin, have fought disease, have fought hell. I have fought the powers of evil.

The great servants of the Devil of this world are in conflict with me. If they are in conflict with one, one cannot move without the Devil firing his arrows. He hits some. He has a great eye for a loose joint. He knows how to hit you when you lay down your shield.

I Sleep on My Christian Armor and Do Not Loosen It Much.

I go to bed with it on, and I rise with it on. I wear the Helmet of Salvation and the Breastplate of Righteousness and my loins are girt with Truth; my feet are shod with the Preparation of the Gospel of Peace. At my side is the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God.

Never go unarmed. With the strength of God you can do something. Do not be afraid. I have undertaken this work for many years without any guarantee from anybody in the world. For sixteen years I have been without any guaranteed salary of any kind. I have preached the Gospel without money and without price. I have been able to spend all the way from ten to forty thousand dollars a year on that work, just trusting in the Lord for resources. Trust the Lord and He will care for you. But be anxious and be troubled and be perplexed and be cumbered by your serving and you will get into the Martha spirit; you will try to regulate God Almighty Himself. You will say:

Lord, dost Thou not care that my sister did leave me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

Do not think that you lose time by sitting at Jesus' feet. A person who thinks that he loses time by private prayer knows nothing about time. The work which you do is of tenfold more value when you have been in prayer. You must go into God's presence with that peace which was in the heart of Christ.

God's Ministers Must Not Sell Their Services for a Salary.

He told His disciples to go forth without purse and without script. I have always done that, since I gave up my position as pastor of the Congregational Church in Australia. There I had a large salary and a house and all the pleasant associations of Camden College in Sydney, and the pleasant association with men and women of culture and power and beauty. But I felt that I ought not to be in that position where I sold my services to men for so many hundreds or thousands of guineas. I might preach to them, and if I did not satisfy them, everything might stop.

I never could love my fellowmen properly until I told them that I did not care two pins what they thought about me. My duty was to scold when they needed it, and to use the rod when they needed it, and to use the Balm of Gilead when they needed it. I had to do it without any fear or favor.

My brethren in the ministry, when I laid down my charge and took a large theater which cost us in your money nearly a hundred dollars a week, said that was tremendous, that I could not keep it up. I said, "Before I am through with this ministry I will spend a hundred dollars a day." They thought the money could not be gotten. I went right on, and exhausted my resources. But I always found that God's resources were exhaustless.

If God desires me to have a hundred thousand dollars, I will use it for Him. If He does not want me to have it, very well. I would not care to have any more than I could adequately use for God's glory. It is a great mistake to be burdened with a great many things which you cannot use.

A great many people who call themselves Christians sin against God by being troubled. I feel in much doubt as to whether they are Christians; for our Lord Jesus Christ commanded us not to be troubled and anxious. I think we certainly sin if we are troubled and anxious.

"But I am troubled about my home," says one. Your home can get along without you. If you were to die today Chicago would somehow or other wag along without you.

Do Not Think That You Are Essential.

There is no man alive on all the earth who is essential to the earth. God can carry on His work without us. He can raise others, if not to take our places, to take their own places and carry on this work.

If any man in a large establishment does a service in it which he thinks is essential, he is the servant to discharge. If there is anybody in this Divine Healing Home who thinks he is essential, I desire to get him out.

If I thought that I was essential to God's Kingdom and that God could not do without me, I should at once be set aside. It is true the Lord has need of me. It is true the Lord has need of you, but when you think the Lord cannot do without you, that is another thing.

Some of you dear ladies would find that your husbands would get a new wife in a year if you were to die. They might find better wives, some of them, too.

It is a mistake for any of you husbands to think that you are essential.

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in Me.

If you believe in God, the Eternal Father, and Christ, the Eternal Son, what are you troubled about? Go right on patiently and do the thing you are intending to.

Some persons become impatient. They stay here about a week when they have been ill for twenty-five years. They do not get the healing. They would better not have left home. The thing to do is to keep patiently at it until you get what you came for. I would fight the thing out whether it took two days or two years.

I went out from home in Australia for the purpose of carrying this Gospel of Divine Healing around the world. I did not ask any man to give me a single cent to do it with. I intend to do it, and if God Almighty spares my life, and gives me grace and strength, I will circle the Globe a number of times.

The treasures of all this earth belong to my God. Cast your cares upon Him.

Hast thou within a care so deep,
It chases from thine eyelids sleep,
To thy Redeemer take that care
And change anxiety to prayer.

ZION COLLEGE LECTURES ON PRAYER.

A Series Delivered Before the Students of Zion College by the President, Rev. John Alexander Dowie, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

THE world today has learned that there is something far beyond the ordinary in the words and works of God's Messenger to Zion, John Alexander Dowie.

As this realization comes to the public, the first question always is, "How does he do it? What is the secret of his power?"

Those who know the General Overseer and have heard and heeded his teaching know that the power belongs to God. But the General Overseer is wonderfully used by God, as an instrument, on account of his mighty power in Prayer, taught him by the Holy Spirit.

Hence it was with the greatest joy that the students of Zion College received the announcement that the General Overseer would deliver a Series of Lectures on the subject of Prayer. It was an inestimable privilege to learn how to pray from a man whose whole life had become a mighty power for God through Prayer. But joyful as the anticipation was, it was more than justified by the realization.

Many members of the Christian Catholic Church also attended these Lectures and were amazed, from week to week, by the great depth and scope of the subject as it was opened up by the man of God.

Since the delivery of these Lectures there has been a loud appeal, from many sides, to have them published.

The General Overseer was reluctant, as he felt that in the great pressure of his other duties he had not been able to give the Lectures as he might have done with more time at his disposal. He also felt that he should revise them before their publication, and this he could not find time to do.

At length, however, the appeal for them being urged, he consented that they should be sent forth, without his revision, during his absence in Europe and the Holy Land.

Accordingly this wonderful teaching will be printed, almost as it came from his lips, from time to time, in LEAVES OF HEALING.

In preparing these Lectures for the press, we have eliminated some allusions to topics of the time and place and have written in some headlines.

We have also cut out opening and closing exercises and arranged the matter consecutively without regard to number and date of Lectures.

We pray that God will bless these wonderful truths to all who read in even greater measure than He did to those who heard.

A. W. N.

THE TERRIBLE WICKEDNESS OF MAN BEFORE THE FLOOD.

I desire to pass on in the historical consideration of the subject of Prayer.

Events are narrated in the sixth and succeeding chapters of the Book of Genesis in which the wickedness of man and the patience, mercy, justice and judgment of God are set forth.

Man's Terrible Transgression and God's Boundless Mercy.

There is no doubt that the first verse of this sixth chapter presents very serious difficulties in understanding. One may well pause before attempting to expound it. Yet unless we really consider it, it would be a cowardly evasion of that which I think ought to be fully considered. If we are to consider this subject of Prayer as I have been considering it, in order to learn why we have to pray, we must understand the terrible consequences of sin, and the manner in which sin entered, not only into the spirit, but into the psychical and physical and material conditions of man.

We are now arriving at a point where it seems to me that before we can understand the kindness in God's justice, we must understand something of the depths of human transgression.

The narrative in this chapter says:

> And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the ground, and daughters were born unto them, that the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all that they chose. And the Lord said, My spirit shall not strive with man for ever, for that he also is flesh: yet shall his days be an hundred and twenty years. The Nephilim were in the earth in those days, and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them: the same were the mighty men which were of old, the men of renown. And the Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. And it repented the Lord that He had made man on the earth, and it grieved Him at His heart. And the Lord said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the ground; both man, and beast, and creeping thing, and fowl of the air; for it repenteth Me that I have made them. But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord.

A teacher must, as a rule, never attempt to teach anything which has in it the element of doubt or uncertainty. He ceases to be a teacher and becomes a mere speculator, if he does. Speculation in connection with teaching, such as it is incumbent upon me to impart at this time, would be sin. I will therefore deal with this matter only so far as I have attained, and give you what seems to me to be positive truth.

I can give what is not speculation, but rather the result of investigation. The expression of these results seems to me to be justified by the necessities of our present condition.

I will venture here upon some personal statements regarding myself and modes of getting things from God.

How Truth is Obtained From God.

I am accustomed to do a great deal of lonely thinking. I have been, for a great many years. If I cannot get an hour alone during the day, I always make it a point to be alone during the night.

I could not get along with my life in this work, unless I were in communion with God for at least one solitary hour out of every twenty-four.

Perhaps I have been working all night with my pen and brain, and go to bed even as late as six o'clock in the morning. But when I go to my room, then I take my hour. I have the faculty of keeping awake as long as I like, and then going to sleep.

Much of what I know regarding Prayer is, as I have told you at the beginning, what I can never impart. I shall endeavor to impart it, so far as words can express it; but if you do not think closely, and if you do not think deeply, and if you do not go with me into the region of an inner life with God, you will never understand these Lectures; they will be of no use to you.

I am strongly of the opinion that this record in Genesis has to be interpreted. I do not hold that it is symbolical and allegorical. I do not hold that it does not mean what it says, but it is not always easy for us to understand what it means.

It has pleased God, and He is infinitely wise, to veil the wickedness of the world before the Flood. The wickedness of the world since the Flood and the wickedness of the world today is bad enough. The knowledge of the depravity of the human heart, which we perforce are compelled to acquire by the most painful experience in Zion, is distressing. We find it not alone in the outside world, sunk in the depths of sin, but in that essential leaven of the Pharisees which is hypocrisy, or as I pointed out in the introductory Lectures, the accursed art of excusing oneself.

The wickedness of the world, as I see it today, is sin most terrible in the lives of hypocrites who have pretended to be Christians, or were at one time Christians, but departed from the faith, "giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils."

I have read many of the exhaustive commentaries upon this book. They are exhaustive in more ways than one. They exhaust one's patience. They exhaust and exasperate one as writer after writer follows in a beaten track of so-called orthodox exposition, some, perhaps, going off into a region of wild speculation.

I confess to you that I was a commentary maniac at one time. I had a perfect mania for commentaries. I got something, but it was not what I expected. I was hopelessly disappointed, not that there is not a wealth of knowledge in these commentaries, but the trouble with the commentator is that he thinks by taking up fossils and examining Egyptian monuments and considering the speculations of investigators he will get at the truth.

The Certainty of Diabolical Possession.

The real nature of that which we have already touched upon and that with which we began, the fall of angels and the possibility of embodiment, enters into this problem. There was not only possibility, but certainty of diabolical embodiment.

That was the trouble with Eve. The Devil got into the beast and talked through the articulate organs of a beast.

If we really understand that the earth had become wicked through the abounding wickedness of the race of Cain, who was of that wicked one, as I have shown you, a devil incarnate, then we will begin to understand what is meant here by the Nephilim. The way to approach this subject is not by digging down into the sands of the Arabian Desert, but by understanding the truth of things which we can know, if we study humanity now.

I affirm that the sons of God, here mentioned, were the spiritually regenerated children of the third son of Adam, Seth.

What is the meaning of that name?

Voices—"Compensation."

President Dowie—Abel, the second son, was dead. There is no trace of any offspring. Cain, although punished, had not reformed. There is no trace of his being fully reformed. Yet, as I pointed out to you, there are serious evidences of contrition and conviction of sin. Conviction of sin and contrition are not the evidences of conversion.

A great many people are convicted and have a great deal of contrition, but there is no conversion. Their hearts are not changed. They are sinners and go back to the same old sin. They tell the same mean lie and do the same mean thing. They are like the swine which return to their wallowing. They go back to their dirt and their muck.

Cain, when he cried out, "My punishment is harder than I can bear," undoubtedly felt the sorrow for his sin and the fear of its consequences. Men everywhere could kill him, knowing him to be the murderer of his own brother; but he went about with a mark on him and God did not kill him. God told man not to kill him.

I hold that a man may not kill another man, even judicially. No nation which kills men is anything but a sinful nation.

"Thou Shalt Not Kill" is a Divine Law. It Forbids Capital Punishment.

Christ has no place for murder, judicial or unjudicial. No man, under any pretense, has the right to take another man's life. Hanging is always murder. God may overrule the hanging and the shedding of blood.

There is no doubt in my mind that the regenerating power of God, the Holy Spirit, did its work in those very early ages, and that the sons of Seth were generations of godly people. The daughters of men were the strong and beautiful offspring of this diabolical, wretched Cain. Today there are children of God, sons and daughters of God, and sons and daughters of the Devil.

There is no difference in nature between the sons of God of this day and the sons of God of that day; the daughters of the Devil of this day and the daughters of the Devil of that day, except that none of the actual physical race of Cain is on the earth today. I am thankful for that difference. But in the essential spiritual nature they are just the same.

The mixture of the godly seed of Seth with the ungodly seed of Cain brought about the wickedness which caused God first to give the intimation that there would be an end of His Spirit striving with man by means of which his days should be shortened.

You can see by the genealogies of the fifth chapter of Genesis how the descendants of Seth were very long-lived.

The trouble today is not with the miscegenation of race, for there is only one race on this earth.

The Chinese are sons of Adam. The Japanese are sons of Adam.

There is only one race. It is wickedness to talk about it being evil and wrong for races to intermarry. I hold it to be a right thing.

The whole earth will never get back to its primitive oneness until the cursed pride of race is utterly extinguished. But there is a line which no child of God may cross and marry without the most disastrous consequence; that is the line between the children of the Devil and the children of God.

The Intermarriage of Races is Right in God's Sight.

It is right for children of God to marry of any color or any race, if God so guide. I do not know more noble and beautiful specimens of humanity, spiritually and physically, than the children of Christian Maori on the islands of New Zealand, and of Christian women who married these Maori chiefs.

I admire the intellectual and moral and spiritual capacity of the offspring of the ancient Maori. When they are godly, there is a wonderful power in them.

One morning our steamer cast anchor off a city of the New Zealand coast. It was very early, just at dawn. A very beautiful canoe came out to our ship, and several persons came on board.

They were welcomed by the Captain and did what they were accustomed to do. None of the passengers were yet out of bed. I was not, and I was a pretty early riser at sea. Suddenly I heard a sweet prelude on the keys of the piano and then I heard a voice—I never heard one sweeter—singing in tones which went to all our hearts. It was one of the sweet melodies of the Fisk Jubilee Singers. It seemed to me that a Divine Messenger had come on board that steamer. I wondered where that rich voice had been born. That she was born of God, I knew.

Then presently I heard the voices of three others joining in upon the chorus. Then we all arose and went out.

We saw a young lady, the daughter of a great Maori chief, and her young husband, an English gentleman; a thorough Christian gentleman, too. With them were her sister and an unmarried young man who was paying her attentions.

These young ladies were both daughters of a great Maori chief. As I looked at them, I thought I had never seen more perfect specimens of Christianity so far as the physical was concerned. I did not wonder that these young men loved them. They were all children of God.

If I lost every student and every friend in Zion today, the voice which speaks to you now would insist that there is only one line to be drawn, and that is the line between the children of the Devil and the children of God.

Children of God and Children of the Devil Must Not Intermarry.

They must not mingle.

If ever you become an officer in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, you must never marry a Christian to an unbeliever. As far as the authority of the Church is concerned, I will expel anybody from this Church who marries in defiance of the Word of God:

Be not unequally yoked with unbelievers.

I will expel the man or woman who marries into the world. They are not in Zion. They are not in Christ. They have crossed the line and taken one of the children of the Devil, and they have no right to hold that they are children of God.

That seems to me to be the trouble with the whole ministry.

I believe that the race of Cain would have died, out of its own iniquity, but for the fact that the race of Seth mingled with it and kept it alive.

In my judgment, not only can physical and psychical characteristics be reproduced by marriage, but also a devilish nature, which proceeds not from the physical and not from the psychical condition of those who marry, but from the Devil who controls the one or the other, or both.

The Nephilim (giants) of those days before the Flood were the wicked offspring of this detestable admixture. The powers of the Devil were manifested in their creation so that the Devil would have, in these giants, the nephilim power to crush out the sons of God. These giants were murderers.

The most wicked people that can be born in this world are those who are born under such circumstances.

I have great apprehension for evil both to the Church and to the world from the offspring of a Christian woman who is married to an ungodly devil, or of a Christian man married to a wicked woman.

We must remember, of course, that the power of God is omnipotent and can regenerate. The Holy Spirit, I believe, can regenerate in spirit, can purify and raise in soul and body. There are no limits to the power of the Holy Spirit.

How Protestant "Nephilim" Were Produced.

What a wonderful story is the story of John Wesley's father and mother! She was a noble woman and he a wonderfully noble man. They had twenty-four children. John Wesley was, I think, the fifteenth child. There was physical and spiritual vigor in the production of a splendid family. John and Charles Wesley were its beautiful expression.

I do not know what England would have done, humanly speaking, but for the Wesleys.

But all of Charles Wesley's sons went to the Devil. John Wesley had none.

The first Methodists and the first converts in the first generation of Methodism were a real generation of the sons of God. If I had lived in those days, I would have been a Methodist.

What do we see today?

The sons of God in the Methodist Church have married the daughters of men. The rule against such marriages is not maintained in the Methodist Church.

What is the result?

Only three generations have passed, and today the greatest foe of Christianity, in my judgment, is the Masonic-Methodist Episcopal Church.

I do not mean to say that there are none godly in it, because there are. But the degeneration is so rapid that it is in great danger of becoming presently complete.

The trick of the Methodists has been to restore the giants. They have produced men who are today giants in commerce, in mining, in agriculture, in invention, in politics, in all things which have made the Anglo-Saxon people rich. These men have in them a heritage from godly parents, but it is mixed with a heritage of devils. They have gone to the Devil through Masonry; through sin in one form or another.

You cannot possibly realize this as I do. Perhaps there are very few who can. It is given to me in a degree, perhaps, which it has not been given to many men in this generation to see, the inside of thousands of homes. A very large proportion of my private correspondence is taken up with confessions of persons seeking counsel and direction in consequence of transgressions of Divine Law.

Beloved, when you can understand this in its modern application, you will understand why the world got into that condition.

A good man, if once he goes to the Devil, will go to deeper depths than if he had never known God.

Judas Iscariot did know God, and he went to such deep depths that he became the tool of designing men.

The Terrible Wickedness of the World Before the Flood.

Within a very short period after these two races mingled, there came out a race of giants who were great in many ways, but wicked to such an extent that none of the fairy stories exaggerate their wickedness. Stories of the race of Nephilim, the giants of those days, have been preserved.

That these Nephilim grew, there is no question. The fourth verse makes it plain that it was when the sons of God married the daughters of men that they bore to them these mighty men of renown, but renowned for their wickedness.

They came to such a condition that every imagination of their hearts was only evil continually.

I do not know that we have such men on the earth now. I hope there are none, but I think sometimes I have seen some almost in that condition, at least temporarily. There have been periods of some men's lives when their hearts were only evil, and that continually.

It makes one shrink to think of the verse which follows:

And it repented the Lord that He had made man on the earth, and it grieved Him at His heart.

I am not disposed to modify that.

You say God could not grieve. I tell you that God can grieve. "Jesus wept." I think when you see Christ grieved at His heart, you see the Father grieved at His heart.

I do not believe anybody repents deeply, truly, until the Spirit of Repentance, which is the Holy Spirit, moves in his heart, until he can enter into the sorrows of God.

Have we ever thought of how God must have sorrowed over a world which had altogether gone to the Devil? What a contrast there was between the beautiful man who had lived so fair and clean in the innocence of Eden and the defiled man!

What a contrast, when the earth was a hell! The devilry which only the Devil himself could have inspired had made the whole world a scene of murder and rapine and vice and filthiness unspeakable only to be expressed by the words: "Evil continually."

Have you ever thought how a father must feel when he sees his children go far into sin?

It is the pure who feel as the impure never can, the exceeding sinfulness of sin. The heart breaks with sympathy for the sinner.

The Grief of the Holy Spirit Over the Sins of Humanity.

I do not know much, but I have enough of God in me to know somewhat of how the Holy Spirit grieves over humanity. When I look abroad upon man in all his sin, I can weep. If I could not wipe away my tears and get where I could talk without weeping, I could never preach a sermon.

I know how the Holy Spirit has grieved over me when I have sinned; how the Holy Dove has mourned. I have heard the Voice of God weeping over my transgression. I have wept over others.

God repents, but He does not repent as man repents. Man repents for sins which he himself has committed; but God repents for the sins which man has committed.

It is the Holy Spirit. It is the Spirit of Repentance. I close with a practical thought: Shall there be any of you of whom we shall ever repent educating in Zion? Shall it grieve us at our heart that we have made you students in Zion College, or ministers in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, so far as man can make you such?

Let me tell you, it were better for you that a millstone were hanged about your neck and that you were cast into the depths of the sea than that you should be an apostate in Zion.

Be faithful. Do not live so that either we or God shall ever grieve over you.

READ THE COMING CITY.

For all matters pertaining to the founding and building of Zion City, there is no source of information, complete and reliable, but THE COMING CITY. The story of Zion City is being and will be told in its pages, both by descriptive articles and by engravings from photographs. The paper also contains much other interesting matter, such as science notes, household suggestions, special articles on matters of interest to Zion people, and the news of the day.

The paper also contains four pages of advertisements, carefully selected, most of the advertisers being Zion people. It is important that every member of Zion should get THE COMING CITY, not only for the valuable information which it will contain, but for these advertisements. By reading them they will learn who are the Zion business men and thus be able to coöperate with each other.

Zion people should be glad to go a little out of their way to trade at a Zion shop. Zion money is thus kept in Zion instead of going to fill the coffers of the world's people, and each feels the influence of the increase in general prosperity.

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

THE COMING CITY will be sent, postpaid, for $1 for the first thirteen numbers. Address subscriptions to

ZION CITY BANK.

By DEACON W. S. PECKHAM.

IT IS always a great mistake to consider a single verse in God's Word apart from the passage from which it is taken. Most of the false teaching of the centuries can be traced to this unfair way of handling the Word of God.

In reading the Word, the reader should always keep in mind the thought of the inspired writer and the particular truth which he is setting forth in the passage read.

Never separate a verse from its context and draw conclusions from it alone.

The Christian world has again and again been torn by controversies, resulting from taking a single verse and building up some theory or theories which were never in the mind of the writer.

MUCH, if not all, of the bitter strife between sects and Church members can be traced to this source.

Sects are always founded upon sections of truth.

Men will throw aside passage after passage of direct and plain teaching, and stubbornly hold to a single verse to uphold some theory of their own.

WE KNOW of no case in which this has been so persistently done as in that of riches.

Many people conscientiously believe that riches will keep a man out of heaven, and that it is positively wicked to accumulate money or property.

Such people quote the passage:

Lay not up for yourself treasures upon the earth, . . . for where thy treasure is, there will thy heart be also.—Matthew 6:19-21.

The thought of the Master is that we are not to make treasures of riches or set our hearts upon them. There is no condemnation of riches; only a warning that we must not seek worldly riches and neglect the greater spiritual riches.

The Authorized Version makes Jesus say:

Take no thought for your life what ye shall eat or what you shall drink; nor yet for your body what you shall put on.

But Jesus really said (see Revised Version): "Take no anxious thought."

In the same passage He says we shall have these things if they are not our first concern:

But seek ye first His Kingdom, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.—Matthew 6:33.

Jesus could not have spoken against a wise provision for the future, for in many other passages we are taught to do so, and to increase the money God gives us.

Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the bankers, and at my coming I should have received back my own with interest.—Matthew 25:27.

He said therefore, a certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. And he called ten servants of his, and gave them ten pounds, and said unto them, Trade ye herewith till I come.—Luke 19:12, 13.

Then wherefore gavest thou not my money into the bank, and I at my coming should have required it with interest?—Luke 19:23.

THE APOSTLE PAUL said it was the duty of parents to lay up for their children:

Behold this is the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be a burden to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.—2 Corinthians 12:14.

WHEN THE rich young ruler came to Jesus and would not give up his riches for Eternal Life, Jesus turned and said unto His disciples:

How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the Kingdom of God!—Mark 10:23.

But in the following verses Jesus plainly says it was because he trusted in his riches:

And the disciples were amazed at His words.

But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the Kingdom of God!—Mark 10:24.

In the same chapter Jesus says if we are faithful and obedient we shall have riches:

Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or lands, for My sake, and for the Gospel's sake, but he shall receive a hundred-fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come Eternal Life.—Mark 10:29, 30.

According to this promise, Zion will become very rich.

Jesus would not promise riches and condemn them at the same time.

We are taught in God's Word not to seek after riches, but to use the talents God gives, and if riches increase, to hold them as God's stewards.

RICHES IN the hands of a godly man are always a source of power and great blessing.

Some men give their whole thought to making money, and love it as an idol. This is what is condemned in the Scriptures:

But they that desire to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and hurtful lusts, such as drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil: which some reaching after have been led astray from the faith, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.—1 Timothy 6:9, 10.

Many fail to distinguish between being rich and setting the heart upon riches.

Paul in the eighth chapter of 2 Corinthians, in speaking about poverty, riches and liberality, says Jesus became poor that we might be rich.

For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that ye through His poverty might become rich.

THERE IS a great deal of sentimental nonsense taught about riches and laying up money, and also providing for the future. It is a sin to hoard up money as a miser does, and all money must be used for God.

Shall we be bigger fools than the squirrels who in the fall store nuts for the coming winter?

Where would man get his coal and wood, silver and gold, metals, etc., if God had not stored them up for his future need?

God will supply all our needs when we have done our part. We are never to worry, but must use all diligence.

He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.—Proverbs 10:4.

There is no virtue in being poor, nor sin in being rich. A poor man may be a great sinner, and a rich man a saint.

The man who boasts of his poverty is as bad as the man who boasts of his wealth, and pride dwells in each of their hearts.

THERE IS a class of sanctimonious people who uphold poverty and look upon riches as something to be shunned. How will they get along in the New Jesusalem, whose streets are paved with pure gold, whose gates are pearls, whose walls are jasper, and within whose walls are riches and glories untold?

Thank God, there are no almshouses or hovels in heaven. There should be none on earth. God helping us, there shall be none in Zion.

All cannot be equally rich, but none must suffer or know grinding poverty.

There are spiritual riches and there are worldly riches, and these must not be confounded in the reading of God's Word. Spiritual riches are above all, but worldly riches must not be despised. Blessed is the man who has both.

A BANKRUPT MAN or Church or nation can never do as great things for God or humanity as if each were rich.

Without vast sums of money, Zion City cannot be built, Tabernacles cannot be opened and maintained, missionaries cannot be sent forth, and the worldwide work of God's Kingdom cannot be pushed.

DO NOT be afraid of any one who loves God so supremely as our beloved General Overseer does getting too much money. He will use every dollar for God in the future, as you know he has always done in the past.

Vast sums of money are needed to carry on this great work. The world does not love Zion, and the world will not help Zion. Every member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion must faithfully pay to God the tithes and offerings, and then put every dollar not needed for immediate use into Zion City Bank.

All properties should be realized on at once and the proceeds invested in Zion stocks. You have no right to let your money remain in worldly institutions. Put it into Zion, where it will earn you a good interest and enable Zion to "Go Forward."

It is important that all act quickly.

Whether you have one dollar or thousands of dollars, it is your duty to help.

God will never greatly bless you until you put all into Zion.

God will hold all responsible for the manner in which they use His money.

God is building up Zion, but His people must be loyal and true

ZION IS preparing the way for the coming of Christ's Kingdom. What a glorious age in which to live!

Yes, if we do our part; but if we bury or withhold our money, and do not let it be used for God, what a condemnation will be ours!

LET US turn to the Old Testament and consider a few of the men whom God made rich.

ABRAHAM:

And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.—Genesis 13:2.

And Abram said to the King of Sodom, I have lift up mine hand unto the Lord, God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth, that I will not take a thread nor a shoelatchet nor aught that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich.—Genesis 14:22, 23.

DAVID:

Wherefore David blessed the Lord before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be Thou, O Lord, the God of Israel our Father, forever and ever. Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is Thine; Thine is the Kingdom, O Lord, and Thou art exalted as head above all. Both riches and honor come of Thee, and Thou rulest over all; and in Thine hand is power and might; and in Thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.—1 Chronicles 29:10-12.

And he died in a good old age, lull of days, riches, and honor.—1 Chronicles 29:28.

SOLOMON:

And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches and honor, so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee, all thy days.—1 Kings 3:13.

So King Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom.—1 Kings 10:23.

HEZEKIAH:

And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honor: and he provided him treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of goodly vessels.—2 Chronicles 32:27

Moreover he provided himself cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him very much substance.—2 Chronicles 32:29.

THESE MEN were all leaders of God's people, and it is expressly said of them that they were very rich, and also that God made them rich. But God led Israel as a people and dealt with them as a Nation. Not until they turned away from God, and refused to obey God, did He cease to so lead them. Had they remained faithful, God would have blessed them and they would have continued a rich and mighty people.

Israel is now returning to the rule of God, and Zion is leading them back to national life.

The same glory and riches and honor shall be given to Zion that ancient Israel had.

God is now showing what he can do with a consecrated leader and a faithful and obedient people.

JOHN THE BAPTIST, the herald of Jesus before His first coming, came in a manner corresponding to Christ's humiliation.

John Alexander Dowie, the herald of Jesus before His second coming, has come in a manner corresponding with Christ's kingly reign.

A herald must fitly represent the court whose king he proclaims.

We have heard our beloved General Overseer exclaim, with deep emotion, "Woe is me, that God has made me a man of strife to the whole earth."

He has a great loving heart for all humanity. But he can no more help sitting as a purifier of the ministry, sitting in judgment upon the churches, or being a swift witness against evildoers, than the sun can help shining.

He is absolutely compelled to do the work of the Messenger of the Covenant. Part of that work is also to build cities, prepare a people and usher in the glorious Kingdom of God. Hence he cannot help being rich and powerful and establishing Zion in matchless splendor.

God will ever increasingly give Zion riches, and "the wealth of the Gentiles shall come unto thee."

Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad morning,
Long by the prophets of Israel foretold.

Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for it is time to have pity upon her, yea, the set time is come.—Psalm 102:13.

Arise, shine; for thy Light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.—Isaiah 60:1.

God Delivers From Poisoning.

Writing to Overseer Piper from Lexington, Illinois, under date of October 4, 1900, D. C. Owen Opperman sent the following request for prayer:

You may be interested to know that the man we prayed for on Monday morning, October 1st, has been entirely delivered from the tobacco habit. Monday morning about the time we prayed he absent-mindedly took a chew and it made him sick. He then gave his plug away and has had no desire for it since.

I explained the matter to my school, and asked them to join with me in prayer to God. It was a new thing to them, but most of them joined with me.

I was out in the timber last Tuesday and have, perhaps, taken poison. My face is much broken out with it and burns severely. I am trusting God for relief. Will you join with me in prayer? I am very desirous to have you do so immediately on receipt of this letter. It hinders me very much in my work.

On October 10th he wrote the following thanksgiving and testimony to healing:

Yours of the 8th inst. received today.

I am happy to tell you that the poison, which was rapidly spreading over my body, has almost entirely left me.

I took no remedy whatever, but trusted wholly in God for deliverance. We give Him the praise and thank you for your prayers.

CHEERING WORDS FROM ZION'S GUESTS

NOTES FROM ZION HOME

THE regular Praise and Testimony Meeting held in Zion Home, Saturday evening, October 13, 1900, was conducted by Overseer Mason.

After the usual opening exercises, the States represented were enumerated and found to be ten in number, as follows:

Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Nebraska, New York, Ohio, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

The following foreign countries were represented:

China, Denmark and England.

The meeting was then thrown open for testimony.

OVERSEER MASON, Zion Home, said: The other day a rather fine-looking man walked along the streets of Mansfield and was taken for a Zion Elder. When he was questioned he said he was a drummer. But the mob did not believe him and threatened to arrest him. Then he turned around and said, "I will show you I am not a Zion Elder." He stepped into a cigar store, bought a cigar and lit it.

That was the Devil's testimony. Everybody could see he was not a Zion man.

Another time a Mr. S——, a member of the Christian Catholic Church, a tall, well-built man, was surrounded by the mob in Mansfield. They asked him whether he were not a Zion officer. He said, "No, I am not an officer in Zion, but I am what you call a Dowieite. I get a salary of $2,000 a year and give a tenth of it to Zion."

They did not touch him. That was God's testimony.

C. D. IRVINE, Grand Island, Nebraska, said: "I do praise the Lord for what he has done for me and my wife. While we were staying here in Zion Home He answered prayers in our behalf in many instances. I give Him all the glory. I am trusting Him for all things. I said to the Lord: 'I am ready to go where You want me to go, and ready to be what You want me to be.'

"I praise Him for what I have learned through Zion teaching. I want to be honest and faithful and follow Him all my life."

MRS. EMILY KNAPP, Menomonie, Wisconsin, said: "I praise God that I arrived here safely after a journey of 300 miles. My people at home told me I would never get here. I think I would be in my grave now if I had stayed at home. I suffered untold agonies from a complication of diseases. All the doctors told me I could not be cured. I was a little fatigued when I arrived, but I am better now.

"There is one Zion family in my native town. They advised me to come, and prayed for me. As soon as I had made up my mind to come, I began to improve. Yesterday an Elder prayed for me. This morning I was astonished at myself, there was such a change. I felt the disease working off as fast as it could.

"My folks were almost crazy when I wanted to come here. I am sure if they could see me now, they would not dare doubt Zion and Zion teaching. It is the best place on earth. I found life here. I tell you this is God's Way. I know now that Jesus is our Saviour and our true Healer.

"I have been using medicine for four years. I began with a small bottle, but the quantity I had to take was increasing all the time.

"When I came here it was almost impossible for me to get up from my chair. Tonight I got up and walked down here all alone. Praise be to His Holy Name."

REV. E. J. WITTE, Sioux City, Iowa, said: "I feel like a new baby in Zion. I have only been here for a few days, and have shortly come out of the Presbyterian Church. My brothers in the Church were very much grieved at my leaving. I can assure you, my faith has been growing stronger since I left them and since I have been here in Zion Home.

"My heart goes out to God in gratitude for all the blessings which have come to me and my family since we have been in Zion. I feel like praising Him more all the time. I am looking forward to the coming of the King, who has redeemed us from all iniquity.

"It might be said that the Zion people are a peculiar people, but God has said His people are a peculiar people. They are a good people, and they do good."

MRS. H. C. CARR, Chicago, Illinois, said: "Praise God, I came out of the Presbyterian Church and into Zion."

MRS. AUGUSTA MCCOY, Greensburg, Indiana, said: "I am glad I am in Zion. I praise God for Zion. I love Zion and Zion people. I think this is the best place on earth.

"I have been a reader of LEAVES OF HEALING for five years. When the first copy of LEAVES was placed in my hands, I was spiritually hungry, starving to death in the Presbyterian Church. I said, 'These LEAVES are just what I have been looking for. I believe every word in them. I want to know more about it.'

"Ever since I have been reading the LEAVES I have been blessed physically and spiritually. I was a physical wreck, but Jesus found me and revealed Himself to me not only as the Saviour, but also as the Healer of His people."

MRS. S. S. BENHAM, Crescent, Florida, said: "To the glory of God I wish to say that I visited Zion six years ago. I was brought here a confirmed invalid. The Lord greatly blessed me while here and I returned home a wonder to my friends, in strength. I feel that my complete recovery was retarded through my not accepting Zion fully as I should have done. After the Church was formed I did not come in. I feared to come in. Prejudices and doubts came in my way, so that I was hindered in receiving a great blessing. The Lord allowed me to get sick again.

"Six weeks ago I saw the necessity for coming back again, and I am thankful to say that I have at last withdrawn from the Presbyterian Church and have come into the Christian Catholic Church. I am very much better and have had a wonderful uplift spiritually as well as physically."

MRS. NANCY HOUGHTON, Crestline, Ohio, said: "I praise God that I am here tonight. For a long time I have had the desire to be in such a meeting. I was here four years ago, but did not take the privilege of testifying.

"The Lord has done very much for me. I had many precious blessings and He has healed me of many diseases, through the General Overseer's and my own prayers. I know He is going to continue to bless me as long as I serve Him with an undivided will.

"I had heart disease. I was so bad that they did not expect me to live from one minute to another. After reading LEAVES OF HEALING I wrote to Dr. Dowie for prayer. I was healed instantly when he received the request and prayed.

"The Lord is gracious to me. He always hears me when I ask Him to take away the pain, whenever I have any. He is a wonderful God, all powerful. I expect to trust Him all my days, even should I have to stand alone for Him and His cause.

"Please pray for me that I may stand firm and be able to do more for Him in scattering Zion Literature.

"When in Pittsburg last summer, I offered the LEAVES to a lady. She said she did not read much. I said, 'If I give it to you, will you read it?' She said, 'Yes, but I am a Roman Catholic.' I said, 'The reading of LEAVES OF HEALING does not hurt the Roman Catholics by any means.' Afterward this lady told my daughter, who lives in Pittsburg, that she was glad at heart that I had given her that paper."

DEACONESS H. E. ROBBINS, Zion Home, said: "I have been in a little town in the central part of this State. I visited different churches, the Roman Catholic, the Presbyterian, the Methodist, the United Brethren and the Christian. I went in to see what was going on in the churches. The Methodist preacher said they were going to have an Evangelist come. They must get some people saved or the power would be taken away and given to another. I never in my life saw anything so dead in church work as there.

"I took great delight in distributing LEAVES OF HEALING. I would like to do that kind of work all the time There were not many who refused to take the literature I offered. I am sure if we had a Zion Elder there we would soon have a large Gathering of the Christian Catholic Church."

AUGUST ERHARDT, Zion Home, said: "I thank God for the many blessings which I have received through Zion and for the many ways in which help has come to me. I have been delivered from the bondage of tobacco, and I thank God for it."

MRS. ANNIE ROPP, Pekin, Illinois, said: "I am thankful to God that I am in Zion. Ever since I joined Zion, I have found that Jesus is the Healer of His people. In the churches I learned that God made the people sick. I am sure prayers are answered in Zion.

"When I was here last time I saw that I must do something for the Lord. I was too bashful to begin. I asked an Elder to pray for me that I might be encouraged, and God has heard the prayer. When I went home that time, I began to distribute the LEAVES, and I sell now as many as twenty a week. Pray for me that I may do more"

ELDER P. W. ROPP, Pekin, Illinois, said: "I thank God that I am in Zion. It took me some time to decide, but I think it is never too late to do right and to get right with God. I hope we will all Go Forward and stand for His Word. He will never forsake us, if we trust Him.

"The Lord has protected and blessed our family, spiritually and physically. For the last four years I have not had a drop of medicine in my house and we have all been kept well.

"There must be no fear in Zion. I am ready and willing, and I believe we all are, to give the last dollar and our lives for God's work in Zion. Let the fearful ones step out. A sifting can only do good. Zion can do without them, but we cannot do without God's Word. Thank the Lord for all His mercy."

W. C. REAY, Antigo, Wisconsin, said: "I desire to testify for God, who blessed and healed me last Sunday.

"A week ago last Friday afternoon I took a cold in my head. It settled in my eyes and the next morning I could hardly open them. I did not sleep well that night and awoke with terrible pain. I prayed and went to work. During the afternoon I became nearly blind from a swelling on my eye. I had a sleepless night again and on Sunday morning could not open my eyes. I prayed and asked God to heal my eyes. Overseer Speicher prayed for me at Zion Tabernacle, and during the afternoon I forgot all about my eyes. That night the swelling broke and the next morning I awoke perfectly well.

"I thank God for all His mercy."

JEREMIAH MACK, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I wish to thank God tonight for the many blessings I have received in Zion. About a week ago I was feeling tired and worn out and had a pain in my back. Overseer Mason prayed with me and I have been feeling better ever since. I praise God for it.

"I thank God that Zion is a refuge for the afflicted of His people. I have been blessed and delivered from habitual drinking and smoking, as I was an all-round stinkpot, and from Roman Catholicism. I am so thankful to God that He brought me to the Light and made me free and aided me to do right and to resist temptation."

E. D. BERGMANN, Greensburg, Ohio, said: "I thank God for sending me into Zion, and for the many blessings I have received. I was here in 1896, and on November 9th of that year I was converted. After that I had a wonderful healing of stomach trouble. I had tried patent medicines and several doctors, who did me no good. All that summer I could hardly eat anything.

"A young lady gave me LEAVES OF HEALING, but at first I could not understand it at all. I said I never heard of such a thing. But the lady kept talking to me, and when I came to Zion that fall and Dr. Dowie prayed for me, I received my healing. I also received great spiritual blessing."

MRS. SARAH DELASCHMIT, Bethany, Illinois, said: "This is my first visit to this room, though not my first visit to Zion. I have received a wonderful blessing since I came to Zion.

"There are a good many people in my town who would join Zion if they were told the truth about it. They are true believers and experience Divine Healing in their homes. Many of them have repeatedly been threatened because they would not have any doctors. I am praying that an Elder may be sent to us."

MRS. C. D. IRVINE, Grand Island, Nebraska, said: "I thank God for all the blessings I have received since I came to Chicago. I passed through quite a severe test physically and mentally. Since two weeks ago I have gained wonderfully in bodily health. My spiritual blessing is so great that I do not think much about the blessings in the body. I wish I could stay here longer and enjoy the great privilege of listening to all this wonderful teaching and preaching.

"My sister in Wisconsin was very much worried when she heard I had come into Zion. She was against Dr. Dowie. She asked her pastor about it, and he spoke strongly against Dr. Dowie. But we sent her some tracts, one of them 'How I Came to Speak for Jesus.' That took her prejudice away"

MISS E. DAUBNEY, Zion Home, said: "Ten days ago I took cold in my joints. I had a great deal of pain, also, in my head. I prayed, as I have the Lord's Word that He will take our pains away. It was already late in the evening, so I did not want to call an Elder. However, I could not find rest. When I did call for one and he prayed for me, I was relieved at once. I got up in two days. That was remarkable, as I was always very susceptible to colds and at times had to stay in bed for four or five weeks. I praise God for what He has done for me."

NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD

THY SONS shall come from far.—Isaiah 60:4.

HOW gloriously God is fulfilling this promise to Zion in these latter days!

Everywhere, over all the lands, the Little White Dove is carrying the Message of the Everlasting Gospel. Those who hear it are finding Salvation, Healing and Cleansing through it, and are "coming with singing into Zion."

Men, also, have "come from far," from every corner of the Globe, to the great cosmopolitan City of Chicago.

Here Zion sends out her Seventies, carrying that same Message.

It has the same blessed results.

Zion Tabernacles now stand with open doors in every section of the city, and within them that same Everlasting Gospel is proclaimed.

Thus are the nations of the earth reached through the ministry of Zion.

With thanksgiving to God, we publish the following extracts from the General Overseer's and the Overseers' correspondence, telling, from many parts, the story of blessing out of Zion.

The first is the written testimony of a young man, a student in Zion College, whose native land is historic Greece.

Brought Out of the Greek Apostasy. Healed of Many Diseases.

ZION HOME, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, August 25, 1900.

REV. WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER,
Overseer-at-Large in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Dear Brother in Christ:—It is nearly three years since God saved me, through the noble ministry of the General Overseer. Since then He has healed me many times through the General Overseer's and some of the Elders' prayers.

I was born in a small village, southeast of Arcadia, Paleochorion, Greece.

I was brought up in the so-called "Holy" Greek "Catholic" Church. My parents were keeping quite close to the rules of the Church, and compelled us children to go to the church. We used to go to almost every meeting, but the spirit was not in us. We used to go for curiosity rather than to get any of the teachings.

Repentance and regeneration are not taught there. The Gospel is neither taught nor advised to be read by the members at their homes.

The priests teach and preach from some of the so-called modern saints rather than from the Word of God.

As for myself, I was totally blind about these facts until I came to Zion.

It was September, 1897, after I had come to America and Chicago, when I first started to come and hear the General Overseer preach. In hearing him for about six months, it was his eloquence which I loved, and nothing more. But, thanks be to God, He in His Infinite Mercy had compassion on me as one of His children and saved me from sin, sickness and death.

In the beginning, it was a very hard thing for me to give up that apostate Greek Church. We were taught that Christ Himself founded the Church, when on this earth. But at last I learned better than that.

After I was converted and found salvation and help in Zion, I decided to go and study the Bible at some one of the Theological Colleges of Chicago, abandoning all my previous plans to study medicine in the Northwestern University.

I was encouraged by some to go to the Moody Bible Institute of this city, because it was quite economical; but I thank God that I did not go then, but waited until Zion College was born, and went to it the first term.

In May, 1898, while playing with some other young men, I sprained my neck. I had to keep my head in one position for a few months. I suffered intense pains, and at last I was delivered through the prayers of some of the Elders.

In December, 1898, I was taken with the grip, at the time when many thousands died in Chicago and other cities of Illinois. In a few days' time I was well again. This time the General Overseer prayed for me.

In April, 1899, I caught a severe cold, from which I suffered greatly, especially in my eyes. Overseer Speicher (then an Elder) prayed for me, and in a week or so I could use them very well in reading

Although my eyes got better, yet the cold was getting worse every day One Monday afternoon the General Overseer was praying with the sick in Zion Home. I went in and asked him to pray for me.

He asked what was the matter with me, and after I told him about it, he prayed with me. He asked me to breathe while invoking the usual prayer: "In the Name of the Lord Jesus, in the Power of the Holy Spirit, and in accordance with the Will of God our Heavenly Father."

I breathed deeply and felt better right there and then. In a few days I was completely delivered.

In June, 1899, I was broken down, owing to my college and other work. I realized that I had done more than I ought to.

For a week I was not able to digest even one meal a day.

I determined to keep up my studies, for there was only one more week of college.

During those few days I suffered terribly. I had lost all strength and ambition.

As I never feel like staying in bed while sick, I kept up on my feet. Thus I grew weaker, until I was healed through the prayers of Elder Graves and others. I lost fourteen pounds.

But the Great Physican raised me up once more, and in three months' time I not only gained what I had lost, but more in strength as well as in flesh.

I praise God for such deliverance afforded for the children of men.

In February, 1900, as I was walking to Central Zion Tabernacle to attend the Zion Seventies' meeting, the sidewalks were frozen and slippery. Through carelessness, I fell and hurt my right leg, which went out of joint. For a week or so I had great pains, and was quite lame.

Overseer Speicher prayed to God to heal me. Immediately I could take a full step and the leg went into its place right away. Now it is as well as ever.

For all these and other things which are not mentioned, I give God the glory, who had mercy to deliver me of so many troubles.

He has taken me from among so many Greeks, who now number about 50,000 in the United States, and brought me amongst true Christian people.

I also thank the General Overseer, who is used mightily for the conversion and healing of thousands of sinners and sick ones, as well as myself. I also thank him for his assistance to me in going to college these last two years, and other help which he has offered to me.

I ask your prayers for myself, that God may keep me humble and prepare me to help in carrying the wonderful Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ to the idolatrous and degraded Hellenes, who now are under the Hellenic apostasy, the sister of the Roman.

I faithfully remain,

Your Brother in Christ Jesus, P. N. NICHOLS.

"At Eventime It Shall be Light."

VIROQUA, WISCONSIN, October 7, 1900.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Dear General Overseer:—It is now one and one-half years since I sent you my first request for prayer for healing.

I was sick in spirit, soul and body.

I was troubled when very young with catarrh of the head. I suffered a great deal, and in later years my throat and lungs were badly affected.

My digestive organs had become deranged.

I suffered a great deal with constipation and rheumatism.

I took a great deal of medicine, but was never cured.

Sometimes I would feel better for a little while, but nothing helped me permanently.

I finally thought I would have to give up, I was so weak.

My stomach and bowels were so deranged that I had to take pills every day.

I became very much discouraged and thought I must die soon.

A lady, a stranger to me, came to our house and brought LEAVES OF HEALING. She told us of Dr. Dowie and his work in Zion.

I had never heard of it before, and I listened to her earnestly.

I read the papers, but did not think much about them.

I finally took them in hand and read them again.

I became interested.

I thought, "If that is true, why can I not be healed?"

The lady came again and brought more papers.

I conversed with her on the subject and became more interested.

I read and re-read the LEAVES.

I looked up the references in the Bible. It was all there; it was true.

I wondered why our ministers and teachers had not taught Divine Healing, that which is so essential to our religious life. Why had they not taught us the Full Gospel of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living?

I had been a Christian and a member of the Church for a good many years, but I never had fully understood my Bible before.

From that time I read my Bible more earnestly. It was more interesting.

I believed.

I put away medicine.

I took my case to my Lord, my true Physician.

I was healed of constipation, but my throat, lungs and rheumatism were no better.

I concluded then to send in a request for Dr. Dowie to pray for my healing.

I was not healed instantly, but gradually.

In a few weeks after, I was taken with croup.

I nearly strangled. My son insisted upon my taking medicine.

I finally complied and took some, but soon refused to take any more.

I have not taken any since, although I have been very sick two or three times.

I have sent in requests for prayer and been healed every time.

Two weeks ago I had a severe cold. I took it to the Lord and was sick only one day and night.

I praise God for His Gospel of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living, and that He has raised up such a man as you to preach the Full Gospel, to teach us how to pray and to live.

I discarded all unclean food and medicine.

I am an old lady, eighty-two years old. It is difficult for me to go out very much.

I am the only one in my son's family who believes in Zion or Divine Healing.

The little Zion Gathering here has met every Lord's Day since last spring.

I praise God my Heavenly Father for His goodness to me.

I thank you for your prayers.

I pray daily that God will bless and keep you and give you power to go on until your work is done, and that you will come off conqueror and more than conqueror through our Lord Jesus Christ.

I have written this testimony, hoping and praying that it will be the means of bringing some suffering one to look to our Heavenly Father for Salvation, Healing and Holy Living.

May God bless Zion's Elders who have suffered persecution and give them fearless hearts and strong wills to go forward.

May the enemies of Zion be cast down and be humbled.

Your Sister in Christ (MRS.) EMELINE O. BARNEY.

Wonderfully Delivered From Terrible Effects of Injuries.

THOMSON, ILLINOIS, September 27, 1900.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—As I have not testified before, I feel it my duty as well as a privilege to tell of the great goodness of God to me.

Twenty-two years ago I was thrown from a carriage and severely injured internally. My spine was very nearly broken in two places, which developed into curvature and lumps, or knuckles.

A portion of my spine and back was discolored, and one disease after another followed on until from the crown of my head to my toes I was diseased.

For four years I was not able to sit up to have my bed made. A touch of the bed or the slightest jar from one walking in the room greatly increased the unspeakable agony.

My head dropped forward at times, and I had no power to raise it.

My lower limbs were drawn up three months at a time, and I was obliged to lie on one side and in one position.

Doctors, drugs, patent medicine and about ten weeks in a hospital, all alike failed to cure or even relieve the suffering.

In time I became discouraged, suffering so much from the effects of the medicine and different treatments.

I gave them all up.

I was weak and seemingly near death.

Soon after that I heard of Dr. Dowie.

A request for prayer was sent and in answer to that prayer my appetite and strength came fast.

After some months the command came to arise. As I made the attempt, a hand seemed to be put under my shoulder and one under my hip, although I was alone at the time.

As I arose, oh such strength was thrown around me. But when the command came to walk, the Devil suggested that I be prudent. I went back to bed and lost my healing.

I have been healed of other diseases since, for which I thank God.

Once when helpless, at Dr. Dowie's command to arise, in the Name of Jesus, I arose and walked, praise the Lord.

On November 6, 1899, I sent a prayer request to the General Overseer. The next day, just before 4 o'clock, I received a great blessing. The tension which drew so tight in my neck and shoulder to the top of my head loosened. The pain left and the muscles of my neck softened and lessened in size.

I rested well that night.

The next morning at 9:30 o'clock was the time set for prayer.

God answered.

I arose, combed and did up my hair, a thing impossible for several days before.

I was healed of that trouble and my neck very quickly went down to its natural size. I have had no return of the trouble since, praise the Lord.

I also sent a request for prayer in February, 1900, and was healed of stomach trouble and bloating.

I fell asleep for a few moments just after the time set for prayer. On waking I found the lump had gone out of my stomach. It had troubled me for nearly two years, until I had no room for food.

I found also that I was over four inches less around the waist. I then gradually decreased until I was over eight inches less around.

A short time ago I was assisting in sealing up some fruit and dipped my thumb into hot sealing wax.

I took it to the Lord in prayer. It never blistered and was perfectly well in less than three hours.

I have had healings which make it impossible for me to doubt for one moment God's power and willingness to heal. What He has done for me, one of the least of His children, I am sure He will do for all, if they are obedient to His commands and trust Him fully.

I was baptized by Triune Immersion in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer, September 27, 1899.

I thank God for the teaching I have received through LEAVES OF HEALING. When read, I send it away to others.

I have not taken any medicine for five years, and with God's help I never shall, knowingly, take any more.

I have given up swine's flesh and some other things.

I thank God and give Him the glory for what He has done for me. I praise God for His keeping power.

I thank God for Zion and that Dr. Dowie ever came to Chicago.

I thank you for your prayers, and give God all the glory.

I pray daily for God's richest blessings on you and yours, and that He may grant you a safe return to Zion in Chicago.

With Christian love, (MRS.) MARTHA S. APPLEBEE.

Many Physicians Failed. God Healed.

5429 MARSHFIELD AVENUE,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, October 11, 1900.

OVERSEER J. G. SPEICHER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—In October, 1894, I heard of Dr. Dowie's work on Stony Island Avenue. The services were then conducted in the "Little Wooden Hut."

I was suffering at that time with what the doctors called female trouble.

I underwent an operation which left me so weak that I was not able to attend to my household duties.

At the same time I had lung trouble, dyspepsia, and catarrh of the head and throat. I was continually tortured with water running from the mouth.

I had consulted Professor Leigman, in the Schiller Building; Dr. Parsons, on Halsted and Forty-seventh Streets; Dr. Reilly, on Halsted near Thirty-ninth Street, and others whose names and addresses I do not remember.

After spending time and money, I was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse.

The first time I heard Dr. Dowie I believed every word of the teaching, and obeyed in everything as it was shown me.

Today I am a well woman, able to attend to my household duties and children.

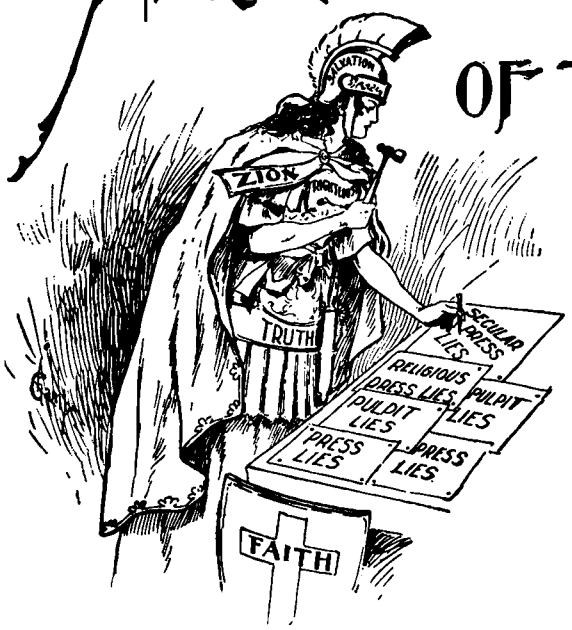
Two years ago I had an attack of the grip and got healing for that without leaving any effects of the disease.

The following summer I was learning to ride a bicycle, from which I fell and seriously injured my spine, causing extreme pain, chills and fever, from all of which I was delivered when the Elder prayed with me.

At the time I heard Dr. Dowie at first, along with the other troubles, I had suffered for years with constipation. I got perfect healing for that.

Now when any trouble occurs in our family, we pray, and if the answer is delayed, we follow the instructions given in James 5:14, to call for an Elder. I thank God that we are a united house.

I feel that words cannot express my gratitude to God that He sent Dr. Dowie to teach us the truth, for we were blindly led astray in the Methodist and Lutheran churches, my husband being Methodist and I Lutheran.



Now we are all united in Zion.

We thank Dr. Dowie for his kindness and courage in fighting all enemies of the truth till Zion is established.

Yours in Jesus' Name, (MRS.) ROSE WILLIAMS

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

The innumerable falsehoods of the secular and so-called religious press against Zion have continued without cessation for years.

We have occasionally dealt with some of these falsehoods and taken up much valuable time in our public ministration in answering these attacks.

But the time has come when we have resolved no longer to answer them in detail, unless in extremely exceptional cases.

We shall simply content ourselves with stating them and nailing them down.

Hence we have determined to devote this page to a beginning of this work of publicly branding the most important of the almost innumerable lies of the ungodly, unclean, criminal, and hypocritical press.

We shall also add from time to time a few specimens of the odium theologicum, which we shall cull from the innumerable misrepresentations and fabrications of the apostate churches.

It must not be supposed that we admit the truth of the things which we do not here deny, for it would be simply impossible to enumerate all that ought to be nailed down. We again remind our friends that these are simply the most important of them.

ZION'S CONFLICT WITH METHODIST APOSTASY.

This book of 200 pages, just issued by Zion Publishing House, contains nine powerful discourses delivered in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer last May, during the session of the Methodist General Conference. They are of especial value for the full and fearless exposure of Freemasonry.

"The Methodist Church the Property of the Masonic Order," "Freemasonry: A Heathen and Antichristian Abomination," and "Degrees of Masonic Devilry" ought to be read by every lodge man.

The iniquity of the Mystic Shrine is laid bare.

"The Christian's Duty in Breaking a Bad Oath" is the address which preceded the public working of Masonic and Odd Fellow degrees in Central Zion Tabernacle, a full account of which is given.

Buy one of these books and keep lending it. No honest and intelligent man can read the book and still remain a Freemason.

Sent by mail, postpaid, for twenty-five cents.

REV. F. A. GRAVES, SUPERINTENDENT.

AND I WILL take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion.—Jeremiah 3:14.

ZION is a word very dear to the hearts of the members of the Christian Catholic Church. You notice the hymn for this week, "Zion Stands With Hills Surrounded."

Zion, although distinctly an Old Testament word, is used seven or eight times in the New Testament, and the last time it is used is by John in Revelations 14:1, in speaking of Jesus the Lamb on Mount Zion. It is found in the Old Testament about one hundred and fifty times. It means fortress, or refuge.

In thinking of Zion, remember that it has two meanings, namely: The City of God, and the Kingdom of God.

Today we use the word Zion in a broad and a narrow sense. In a broad sense when we say that all who serve and obey God are in Zion; in a narrow sense when we refer to the present organization known as Zion. It is a company of people whom God has called together to do a specified work.

That work is to preach the Full Gospel of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living, for spirit, soul and body, that the people may be prepared for the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

I want all of the Juniors to love the name of Zion, for it stands for safety and purity and prosperity.

Zion was the name of a city built upon hills and surrounded by hills. Its common name was Jerusalem. The southern hill upon which Jerusalem was built was called Mount Zion. Another name was City of David.

While David was not born there, he lived there as King, and was buried there.

The Jews, who were God's peculiar people, loved Jerusalem, or Zion, very much. It was their great city in which to assemble. They came in large numbers from the surrounding country to celebrate the various feasts during the year.

Notice some of the language used to describe their love and estimation of Zion:

Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth,
Is Mount Zion, on the sides of the north,
The city of the great King.—Psalm 48:2.
Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God hath shined forth.—Psalm 50:2.

Notice what God thinks of Zion:

The Lord hath chosen Zion.—Psalm 132:13.
The Lord hath founded Zion.—Isaiah 14:32.
The Lord hath built up Zion.—Psalm 102:16.
The Lord hath comforted Zion.—Isaiah 51:3.
The Lord loveth the gates of Zion.—Psalm 87:2.
The Lord dwelleth in Zion.—Joel 3:21.
The Lord whose fire is in Zion.—Isaiah 31:9.
The Lord shall fight for Zion.—Isaiah 31:4.

ZION STANDS WITH HILLS SURROUNDED.

DR. THOS. HASTINGS.

1 Zion stands with hills surrounded,
Zion kept by power Divine:
All her foes shall be confounded,
Though the world in arms combine:
Happy Zion,—
What a favour'd lot is thine!

2 Every human tie may perish;
Friend to friend unfaithful prove;
Mothers cease their own to cherish;
Heaven and earth at last remove;
But no changes
Can attend Jehovah's love.

3 In the furnace God may prove thee,
Thence to bring thee forth more bright,
But can never cease to love thee;
Thou art precious in His sight:
God is with thee,—
God, thine Everlasting Light.

Now God is calling out a people to build another Zion City. It is located half way between Chicago and Milwaukee, near Waukegan.

It contains over six thousand acres of land.

This is the earthly Zion that many are looking forward to; a City in which God shall dwell.

A City in which no unnecessary work shall be done on the Lord's Day.

A City in which there shall be no swine's flesh.

A City in which there shall be no drugs nor medicines.

A City in which no tobacco or liquor of any kind can be bought.

A City in which coöperation shall be the business watchword; God's people coöperating for the upbuilding of God's Kingdom.

A City where the sick may come from all parts of the earth to learn of God as the Healer of His people.

Jeremiah writes, "Because of swearing the land mourneth." There must be no profane talking in Zion City.

ZION'S BIBLE CLASS.

CONDUCTED BY DEACON DANIEL SLOAN.

SUGGESTIVE NOTES FOR THE USE OF ZION'S BIBLE CLASS OUTLINES

Reply at once if you are using Zion's Bible Class Studies in a regular Zion Gathering anywhere and are trying through their use to help others to "A HOLIER LIFE FOR GOD." Write Deacon Sloan how long and where you have been doing this work, that he may by prayer, special helps and counsel come closer to you in your own life and comprehension of the Truth, and be, perhaps, of inspiration and assistance, possibly by an occasional personal letter to all who, as Bible Workers in Zion, are striving for the faith once delivered. Add your name to the list.

Elders, Evangelists, Deacons and Deaconesses, as well as Conductors of Zion Gatherings, should, together with every member and friend of Zion, use Zion's Bible Class studies in their personal study of the Holy Scriptures, and also in the family gathering as well as in Seventy work and cottage meetings. The scope of these lessons is covering the teachings of God's Word concerning every relation of life, as well as blessed fellowship in spirit, soul and body with a Triune God. To neglect this is to despise opportunities. To push it aside is to count something else more important. Not to meditate on God's Word day and night, as well as to read it, grasping the sense and cultivating an understanding heart, means you do not wish God's richest blessing upon you and the greatest success to come from your labors.

Study Zion's Bible Class Lesson Daily. At family prayers let each member read a division of a lesson, the leader afterward asking the questions noted, receiving the answer in Scripture language with the particular verses used. An unfinished lesson can be continued at the next prayer season. Arrange in your home regularly some evening or Sunday afternoon a meeting, inviting in a few neighbors and friends, and with them study the lesson according to the plan above suggested, and recount to them the work God is doing in Zion. Above all, read carefully when all alone the Scripture cited in each lesson, marking a line around the same in your Bible, praying ever that God may bless the Word read to your own heart and life and enable you to speak it faithfully to others to their own good or admonition. Ever obey God and His Word will come with increasing light.

The Seed is the Word of God and the Field is the World. Therefore go ye and preach the Gospel to every creature; which means that people must be touched at home centers. Divide your town into two or more divisions, your city into smaller sections by streets, your township into districts by roads, and then begin and systematically follow up a house-to-house visitation with short calls. Give a small Zion tract or a copy of LEAVES OF HEALING or A VOICE FROM ZION.

Do not argue or controvert with people, but in cheerfulness of spirit and glow of countenance extend the literature with supplication in spirit and a "God bless you." Where your peace is returned, note all such places, together with the names of the parties.

Continue then in thus so doing, and you will not have gone over a very large or compact area by such thorough and systematic work until you have found material enough near at hand for an occasional Cottage Prayer Meeting in some home which may open to you.

Then you will follow this up in due time with a Zion Bible Class Gathering in a home centrally located. This Gathering will be continued regularly each week with great blessing and profit to all who attend. If it is persevered in, it will ultimately grow into a strong Zion Assembly, and eventually become a Branch Church, with an Elder-in-Charge.

Every member, however, must set aside a time for doing this preliminary work. Where there are only a few members in a place, the division of the territory must be planned in conference with the Conductor of the Gathering or the Elder-in-Charge, or whoever else may be appointed by the General Overseer at Headquarters as the representative to thus have charge of Zion's affairs. An understanding will then enable every one to set about this work in an orderly way, reaching every home as speedily as possible, without two or more persons working in conflict or covering the same territory.

This is Christ's method of evangelization as outlined in the Gospels, and will win victory for God every time, in every place and by every person who is deeply consecrated to Him in discipleship.

The day has come when this must be done. Those who refuse to do it are cursed with a curse, for God says: "Woe unto those who are at ease in Zion."

How a Zion Bible Class Lesson is Prepared May Interest You.

Aside from years of close study of the Bible and special capacity and gift from God for teaching, comes first the choosing of subjects within the scope of Scripture truth. Then comes their development and logical arrangement in outline, with the Scripture bearing upon the same which appears in the unfolding of a subject.

All the Scripture thus suggested is arranged in order by clipping and pasting, so that all verses pertaining to a given lesson fall under the eye at once.

It is then carefully weighed and the emphasis given it is considered. Thoughtfully the questions are prepared, bringing out and enforcing the phases or special truth of the subject, which, when done, complete the manuscript.

After this the lesson's outline is dictated and typewritten. The copy is then gone over carefully, modified or strengthened for greater force or clearness. It is then handed to the printer.

After being put in type, it is again considered carefully for final form or correction. All of this for a single week's outlines requires hours of time under prayer, preparation and Divine guidance. It is done that the thousands who each week read, and we believe increasingly study these lessons, may receive the greatest possible blessing from God through the power of His Word and thus extend the Kingdom of God in these days of the Restoration of His Church to its primitive power and usefulness. God is raising up a people and has commanded that the Truth be known, for He says: "Say unto Zion, thou art My people."

A True Use of Sabbath Day Hours.

They should be improved well by every member and friend of Zion. The Bible Class Lesson outline should, with the Bible in hand, be gone over carefully and prayerfully, and the sermon by the General Overseer should also be attentively read. Assemble, sometime during the day, your own family. Invite in, if possible, those who want to know God in power, or desire from Him some blessing for spirit, soul or body. Where this is not possible, go where the sick and sinful, poor and neglected are, who have tasted only of the bitterness of life, and open up to them the Gospel which Jesus commanded should be preached to the poor. Where there are two or more members of Zion near you, do not fail to regularly come together sometime during the Lord's Day. Pray and speak with one another, and study together the Bible Class Lesson and talk over the marvelous doings of God in Zion. DO NOT OFFEND GOD BY GOING TO SOME CHURCH SERVICE WHERE GOD IS EVER DISHONORED AS THE HEALER, CLEANSER, KEEPER AND PROSPERER OF HIS PEOPLE. Do not go to hear His truth perverted by the cry of Peace, Peace, when sudden destruction is so near because of the prevalent wickedness of the world, which, with a worldly Church, is becoming more and more corrupt. Do not go where scoffing is everywhere heard from so-called Christians at the imminent coming of "the great God and Saviour Jesus Christ." He will receive unto Himself only those who look for Him; even ZION, whom He is now calling into Purity and Holy Living, who daily, in obedience to Her Lord, whatever the cost may be, is thus making herself READY TO SOON BECOME THE BRIDE OF CHRIST AT HIS APPEARING.

MIDWEEK BIBLE CLASS LESSON, NOVEMBER 7th or 8th.

Why Failure Comes.

1. Through not obeying God in all things.—Deuteronomy 28:15-25.
   Does not to obey God mean life?
   Will to disobey Him bring curses?
   What is the result of disobeying commands?
2. Through defying God by godless practices.—Isaiah 1:5-9.
   Do godless practices in eating injure one?
   Do godless practices in dressing help one?
   Do godless practices in marriage relations curse one?
3. Through backsliding and apostate relations.—Amos 4:4-13.
   Can one be very religious and be very sinful secretly?
   Can one seem to be very liberal and be very selfish?
   Can one pay tithes and refrain from pork and yet be sinful?
4. Through depending upon worldly means, and not God, for aid.—Hosea 7:11-16.
   Is a Christian to pattern after the ungodly?
   What is it to turn the back on God?
   True prayer comes from where?
5. Through withholding from God and His House His due.—Malachi 1:6-14.
   What does God require from us?
   Can He bless the body if the spirit is wrong?
   Must what we do be from the heart to be acceptable?
6. Through association and compacts with ungodly men.—Jeremiah 5:25-31.
   How does sin defeat one?
   Can a Church be blessed with wicked men in it?
   How deceitful can social and marriage relations become?
7. Through unconfessed sins and wicked practices.—2 Chronicles 6:22-31.
   Does God hear those who love sin?
   What besides death does sin bring?
   Does a righteous life mean plenty?
8. Through dishonoring God's House and living for self and vain pleasures.—Haggai 1:7-11.
   Can you find fault with your way of living?
   Do you live more for self than for God?
   Do you build better houses for yourself than God has?

The Lord Our God is a Blessing-Withholding God

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS LESSON, NOVEMBER 11th.

Business Failures Can be Impossible.

1. God's Covenant cannot be broken.—Hosea 2:18-23.
   Whom did God make man to have dominion over?
   Why did God create man at all?
   How does true prayer open heaven?
2. God's blessings cannot be defeated.—Deuteronomy 28:1-10.
   How is a man to live to get blessing?
   Count up the blessings you may enjoy?
   What does Holy Living count with God?
3. God's mercy is in inexhaustible fulness.—Psalm 118:1-9.
   Because God is good, what does He do?
   Because God is love, what may we enjoy?
   Because God is merciful, what may we have?
4. God's power is unquestionably great.—Amos 4:6-12.
   Can God withhold as well as give?
   Can God bless one man and not bless another near him?
   Can God make rain fall on one field and not another?
5. God's Word is rich in unshaken promises.—Mark 10:28-31.
   Is to give up for God to get from Him?
   Is it Christianlike to become bankrupt?
   Why do many not want to get increase in God's way?
6. God's Son is now here in all power.—Romans 8:28-39.
   What is it to love God truly?
   What does God give with Christ?
   When God's blessing is on a man, what will he get?
7. God's Spirit will make Him known in wondrous grace.—2 Peter 1:2-10.
   Does not God want one to be rich in faith?
   Does not God want us to know Him better?
   Then what will His Divine power give?

God's Holy People are a God-Blessed People.

Farm Delivered From Moles.

Writing from Buchanan, Michigan, under date of September 28th, Olive Decker says:

I wrote the General Overseer some time in June concerning the moles on our farm.

I rejoice to say that God wonderfully answered his prayer.

There has been no trace of moles from that time.

Our potatoes were left alone from the very time I wrote and we had a good crop.

LEAVES OF HEALING

I am the Lord that healeth thee.

And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

EDITED BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

VOLUME VIII. NUMBER 2. CHICAGO, NOVEMBER 3, 1900. PRICE FIVE CENTS

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

FAMILY DELIVERED FROM FALSE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE AND HEALED.

AND YE SHALL KNOW THE TRUTH, AND THE TRUTH SHALL MAKE YOU FREE.

The truth as taught in Zion made this family free from error, sin and disease.

Like many others, they had believed that Jesus was the Healer of His people. They had learned that truth from their Bible.

They saw that physicians and drugs could not heal disease.

The churches taught them the lie that God made people sick and that the doctors made them well.

They knew it was a lie.

They looked for a place where the truth about Jesus as the Healer was taught.

The Devil had his counterfeit prepared to trap them.

It was Christian Science, falsely so-called.

This system pretends to be founded upon the Scriptures and to preach Christ as Saviour and Healer.

But it is in reality Unchristian, Antichristian, Self-contradictory, Illogical, Absurd, Mercenary and Immoral.

It is Unchristian, because it teaches that Jesus was not the Christ; that Christ is not a person, but a Divine principle.

In other words, it teaches a difference of identity between Jesus and the Christ. It is Antichristian, because its teachings are opposed to the teachings of Jesus Christ.

He taught the inspiration of the Old Testament.

Christian Science teaches that the Old Testament is but a human writing; hence unreliable. He taught the existence of Sin, Disease, Death and Hell, and the personality of Satan.

Christian Science teaches the non-existence of all these, including Satan.

Christ taught the personality of God the Father and God the Holy Spirit.

Christian Science teaches that they are but Principles.

Christ taught the Trinity of God.

Christian Science pretends to worship a dual god, a so-called "Father and Mother God."

Christian Science is self-contradictory, illogical and absurd, because, for instance, it teaches, in the same breath, that Adam is error, red sandstone, nothingness. Red sandstone is something, hence cannot be nothingness.

It teaches that its "mother," Mrs. Eddy, can heal a cancer, and at the same time teaches the non-existence of disease.

It is mercenary, because it is only taught, and its so-called "treatment" is only given for pay. The "mother" of the system, Mrs. Mary Baker Glover Eddy, states that she makes a charge of $300 for a course of three weeks' "lessons."

It is immoral, because it teaches the non-existence of sin; an inversion of relations between man and woman, woman being made the head of the man.

Divorce on other than Scriptural grounds is countenanced and practiced by its leaders.

Although teaching and practicing these lies, Christian Science has gained some followers who are true, upright, conscientious Christian people.

They are led into it, as were these Witnesses, by a sincere belief in Jesus as Healer and a desire for more teaching.

Hence God, in His mercy, overlooks their ignorance and blindness, and because their hearts are right in His sight, heals them.

There have been a number of such healings among Christian Scientists.

It is God and not Christian Science who heals.

The healings indicate the presence of true children of God among, but not of, these teachers of diabolical lies.

That system is decaying and falling to the ground through its own absurdities.

God is bringing His true children out of her, as He is out of every false system, into His true Zion.

The truth about God is taught in Zion.

That truth makes them free.

It was thus that God brought out these Witnesses.

The father was defiling his body with nicotine and swine's flesh, and was wasting precious time and money on foolish and hurtful games.

The mother was rapidly going down to the grave with internal disease.

The little daughter was weak and almost a cripple, so that she could scarcely walk.

Christian Science utterly failed.

Then the Little White Dove came, bearing the wonderful Message of Truth.

Instantly they believed.

They saw the falsity of that lying system.

As soon as possible they came to Zion Home.

The father was delivered from his evil habits.

The mother was quickly healed and became the strong, healthy woman she is today.

The little daughter received almost instantaneous healing and strengthening.

The son has been healed of many childish ailments, all in the Name of Jesus, in the Power of the Holy Spirit, and in accordance with the Will of God the Heavenly Father, and in answer to the prayer of God's Messenger to Zion.

This was one of the first Zion families to make their home on Zion City Site, the father being an efficient member of Zion's Field Engineering Corps.

May God grant that their simple, straightforward, truthful testimony may be greatly used, by the Power of His Spirit, in the bringing of the light of truth to many in the darkness of error. When they know the truth, the truth shall make them free.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF ABRAHAM DUCLO.

ZION CITY, ILLINOIS, September 17, 1900.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I praise God for His goodness to us, and send my testimony that it may be a blessing to others.

We first heard of Zion about two years ago. We were living in Colorado Springs at the time.

A friend handed us LEAVES OF HEALING.

When I read the first copy I said to my wife, "That is the way to teach the Bible."

We had been believers in Divine Healing for a number of years, but had failed to find any man who would preach the truth as Jesus taught His disciples.

We joined the Congregational Church, but we did not find God there. We withdrew and joined the Baptist Church; but that was no better.

Then we went into Christian Science.

When we received the true teaching on Divine Healing from Dr. Dowie, we quickly came out of Christian Science.

Our little girl Myrtle was very weak. She could walk only about a half block, then she would drop on the ground.

My father asked me to take her to a doctor to have a steel harness put on her.

I refused to have it done.

I knew that God did not intend His children to wear steel harnesses.

I determined to take her to Dr. Dowie. I knew that Dr. Dowie was a man of God or he could not preach the way he did.

On the 19th of October, 1898, we arrived at Zion Home.

The General Overseer prayed with Myrtle that morning, and that evening we went to Central Zion Tabernacle in a carriage.

On the evening of the 20th, Myrtle walked to the Tabernacle and back, which is over half a mile. She has been well ever since.

I was healed of inflammatory rheumatism, for which I praise God and bless His Holy Name.

Our little boy Arthur has also been healed many times in answer to our own prayers.

I was a vile sinner.

I was a pool-player, a card-player, a stinkpot and a swine's flesh-pot, but, thanks be to God, He has delivered me from all that through Dr. Dowie's teaching.

Now we are living on Zion City Site and intend to stay in Zion until Jesus comes.

We thank the General Overseer and Mrs. Dowie for their teaching.

Yours in Jesus' Name, ABRAHAM DUCLO.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MRS. MARY E. DUCLO.

ZION CITY, September 17, 1900.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I wish to add my testimony to what my husband has said.

What he has written is all true.

Before we went into Christian Science my husband had read the Bible a great deal.

He would tell me that it was of no use to have a doctor, but I could not see it that way. I told him that it must be that he wanted me to die.

O, how blind I was; we are so much better without a doctor, thank God.

When we joined Christian Science, God knew that we were seeking Divine Healing, because we were faithful and doing all we thought was right.

God had mercy on us, for I know that Christian Science is false teaching.

I do thank God for the General Overseer and his wonderful teaching which led us into the true Light for which we were seeking.

When we received the first copy of LEAVES OF HEALING I had been failing very fast for about two months. That was in the spring of 1898, and we could not go to Zion Home until fall.

I kept growing worse all summer.

I could get no help from Christian Science.

When we went to Zion Home in October, I was almost a walking skeleton.

I could not name the sickness I had because I had no doctor; but it was female disease of some kind.

We stayed in Zion Home one week.

It was the best week of my life.

Everything was so beautiful, and every face so sweet, it seemed as if it were heaven.

The teaching filled our hungry hearts with great joy and gladness.

We found what we had been seeking for.

I began to get better as soon as we got there.

The General Overseer and Mrs. Dowie and the Elders prayed with me.

I gained rapidly and have been improving ever since.

Zion teaching has taught us to understand the Bible better than ever before.

May God bless the General Overseer and his family and all in Zion.

Your Sister in Christ, (MRS.) MARY C. DUCLO.

GENERAL LETTER FROM THE GENERAL OVERSEER

The General Overseer Writes to Officers, Members and Friends of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, Giving Divinely Guided Advice and Direction to Voters to Cast Their Ballots for William McKinley, and His Reasons Therefor.

HOTEL RUSSELL,
RUSSELL SQUARE,
London, W. C., England.

October 20, 1900.

TO THE OVERSEERS, ELDERS, OTHER OFFICERS, AND MEMBERS OF THE CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION THROUGHOUT THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, AND TO ALL FRIENDS OF ZION THEREIN:

"Grace, Mercy, and Peace from God the Father, and Christ Jesus our Lord, be unto you," in the power and presence of the Holy Spirit.

I write this special letter to you, my brethren and friends, in consequence of my promise to give you advice and direction in connection with the important duty of casting your votes at the forthcoming presidential election.

Ever since I left the United States on August 11th, there has not been a day in which the responsibility of this promise has not been most deeply felt. Indeed, I have often been tempted to wish that I had not undertaken such responsibility.

But the Christian Catholic Church in Zion is a part of the Universal Theocracy, the Kingdom of God, no matter under what form of government its members live.

God must rule in the Person of Christ our Lord as King over every land and nation.

I believe that I am, as General Overseer, divinely guided in my writing this letter of advice and direction.

Small and unimportant though it may seem, this action is one of the harbingers of the Coming of the King who will rule the Earth without ballots or bullets, and appoint rulers as He will.

Among the last words of David, King of Israel, are these:

> The Spirit of the Lord spake by me,
> And His Word is upon my tongue.
> The God of Israel said,
> The Rock of Israel spake to me:
> HE THAT RULETH OVER MEN MUST BE JUST,
> RULING IN THE FEAR OF GOD.

These words set forth the true conception of a righteous Ruler for a great Nation, and especially a Nation which, although it does not recognize God in its Constitution, aspires to be considered a Christian Nation.

It cannot be doubted that God in His Infinite Mercy has given to the United States of America many presidents who have aimed to rule in this spirit for the most part from the foundation of the Republic, although men of contrary spirit have, beyond all doubt, often sat in the presidential chair

To continue the last words of David describing the Just Ruler, who rules in the fear of God, he said:

> And he shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun rises,
> A morning without clouds;
> When the tender grass springeth out of the earth,
> Through clear shining after rain.

This beautiful description can, of course, only apply to a man who is truly a son of God, and therefore the final words of David in his dying song are these:

> But the sons of Belial shall be all of them as thorns to be thrust away,
> For they cannot be taken with the hands:
> But the man that touches them
> Must be armed with iron and the staff of a spear;
> And they shall be utterly burned with fire in their place.

This terrible doom for all who worship Baal is righteous and will take place in its fulness when He shall come whose right it is to reign, Jesus our Lord and King, whose coming draweth nearer, and whom we serve, and for whose Kingdom we contend.

But meanwhile Zion must do her duty, and select from among the candidates for the presidency that man whose policy, if not whose person, will be for the best interests of the people, and therefore for the best interests of Zion.

If the vote of the members of the Christian Catholic Church throughout America were to be for the best man, and not the best policy, I could not give you the advice and direction which I now feel it my duty to give.

So far as I have been able to form a judgment as to candidates who are as yet untried, I would be more inclined to tell you to cast your votes for either the Prohibition or the Democratic candidate for the presidency.

But, inasmuch as it is not merely a question of men, but of righteous principles of government that is at stake, I am compelled by conscience and by God to say that it is, in my judgment, my duty, as General Overseer, to advise and, so far as I have the spiritual power, to direct you to vote for the Republican candidate, William McKinley.

I do this, despite the fact that he is a Freemason and a feeble ruler in many respects, and that he has been before all the country and the world most shamefully lacking in the fulfilment of the obligations imposed upon him by his oath to maintain some of the essential principles of the Constitution, especially those principles which require him to protect every citizen in the exercise of his civil and religious rights.

The shameful spectacle of the President of the United States and the Governor of the State of Ohio looking on calmly at the outrages in Mansfield, Ohio, by cruel mobs, under the leadership of the municipal and police authorities of that town, has branded both the President and Governor as cowards who are afraid of mobs, especially when they are led by powerful political supporters.

When I reflect upon the shameful treatment of Zion's Elders, Evangelists and other officers, who simply went to Mansfield to minister to the members of the Christian Catholic Church there, and were guilty of no violation of municipal, State or national law; when I remember that they were cruelly beaten, stripped naked, in broad daylight, and paraded through the streets, and then received calmly by the Mayor of that town, who dared to speak of these mobs as "good citizens," I am utterly ashamed that this treatment could continue, and that the national and State Executives stand by, calmly saying, "We can do nothing."

This was not the conduct of a Washington, a Lincoln, or a Grant, and it was not the conduct of Grover Cleveland, who interfered when Chicago was in the grasp of anarchistic mobs.

I am in duty bound to say that the conduct of Mayor Huntington Brown, of Mansfield, and his Chief of Police, is in strong contrast to that of Mayor Carter Harrison and Chief of Police of Chicago, who afforded us the protection of the law and maintained order last year when riotous mobs attacked the West Side Zion Tabernacle, composed of thousands of medical students and other evil elements of society.

In fact, it is with extreme shame that I place the conduct of Republican rulers, both in national and municipal affairs, in contrast with that of Democratic rulers.

Hence in giving the friends of Zion my advice, and the members my direction, to vote for William McKinley, I cannot be charged with sacrificing the Nation's interest to my feelings of indignation against the President's failure to protect the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, which must eventually win, no matter what administration holds power, in the contest which now goes on in Mansfield.

God and the law are on our side, and we are content patiently to continue to bear persecutions until those whose duty it is to set the law in motion and to punish offenders, and give righteous protection, have acted as their oaths of office demand, or until they have been removed because of their failure to fulfil their duties in Mansfield.

With such an indictment against the Republican Administration, it may seem strange, at first sight, that I should give advice and direction to vote for the Republican candidate for the presidency, but I do so on these grounds:

First. The impossibility of electing a Prohibition candidate and the fact that every vote cast for such a candidate would be utterly lost.

Second. Because the declarations in the Chicago platform of the Democratic party in 1896, which have been reaffirmed by the Kansas City platform of 1900, contain principles that are dangerous in the extreme to the prosperity and good government of the United States.

Third. Because the Republican platform of both these years, 1896 and 1900, advocates the maintenance of laws and principles which are essential to the prosperity and good government of the country.

It would require a volume to give all the facts and reasonings in proof of these assertions.

I will, however, state several facts which in my judgment are of great importance.

Mr. Secretary Gage has shown beyond all question that Mr. Bryan would be able by an act of Executive power, were he elected President, to destroy the gold standard, inasmuch as it is within the power of the President to make treasury payments, etc., in silver, and thus, beyond all question, destroy the gold standard and wreck the financial and business interests of the United States.

There can be no reasonable doubt that Mr. Bryan would do this, inasmuch as he said at Knoxville, Tennessee, on September 16, 1896

"If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."

And these words, spoken four years ago, were confirmed recently at Topeka when he accepted the Populist nomination and said:

"If the fusion forces win a victory this fall, we shall see the reform accomplished"—he was speaking of monetary reform—"before the next presidential election, and with its accomplishment the people will find it easier to secure any remedial legislation which they may desire."

Whatever faults Mr. Bryan may have, I do not for a moment charge him with wilful dishonesty, and there are, undoubtedly, many things about him which would make him a splendid chief executive.

But if he were to carry out this programme, it would mean national dishonor, public robbery and business ruin, with its consequent misery to the working classes.

It would stop the wheels of industry in thousands of manufactories, and put an end, for the time, and for a long time, to the advanced position which the United States now occupies among the nations of the world.

The declaration of the Democratic platforms that all "public and private debts" may be discharged by payments made in a debased silver currency would simply mean shameful robbery: for the silver dollar is only accepted as a dollar because the United States practically guarantees that it shall be worth one hundred cents in gold.

The silver dollar is now intrinsically worth less than fifty cents, and the paper dollar is intrinsically not worth five cents, but both the silver and the paper dollar are worth one hundred cents as "tokens" of a gold standard.

Every dollar that has been invested in American securities by European investors would be immediately sought for in the event of Mr. Bryan's election to the presidency.

Between his election in November, 1900, and his installation in March, 1901, there can be no doubt that the most terrible financial panic which has ever visited the world would take place in the United States of America.

This must be prevented.

Again, the dangerous principles of the Chicago and Kansas City platforms would destroy, if carried out, the independence of one of the three great arms of national authority, namely: The Supreme Court of the United States.

The possibility of the presence of such men as ex-Judge Altgeld and others of his way of thinking, on the Bench of the United States, would be nothing short of a national calamity, and the lowering of that Court would be a blow at the life of the Nation.

The Constitution now provides for three arms of national authority, namely: Legislative, Executive, and Judicial; but if the Legislative and Executive destroy the independence of the Judicial, then there are no limits to the possibilities of national disintegration in the United States.

Again, the laws which give protection to American industry would be abolished by Democratic control, and the same evil consequences would follow as in 1892.

The terrible years of misery and disaster which followed the election of President Grover Cleveland in 1892, and the control of legislation by the Democratic party, will never be forgotten by those who passed through them.

These considerations are of such great moment that I do not hesitate to say it is, in my judgment, the duty of every member in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion to cast his vote for the Republican candidate for the presidency; and yet, as must be quite apparent, I give this counsel with extreme reluctance.

There seems to me to be no alternative, unless it be that of abstaining from voting altogether.

But that course I do not advise.

It seems to me to be cowardly and wrong for Christians to abstain from exercising their rights and duties as citizens, even when the candidate for whom they vote does not fully represent them.

That will be, in my judgment, an impossibility until voting is no more, and that will take place when Christ our King shall come.

He will select rulers, and that will be infinitely better than when men elect them.

The Rule of God will be infallibly right.

Meanwhile Zion while in the world, though not of it, must do its part to maintain good government, and help to prevent disastrous legislation.

I hope that the time will soon come when the fiscal and financial questions will have been settled in a permanently right way, and when all the Christian and best forces of the United States will co-operate in the election of a President and Legislature which will curb the powers of evil in every direction, and especially the filthy traffic in intoxicating liquors, tobacco and other evil things.

But this day will never come until the Church is united in working only for the establishment of Zion, that is to say, the Kingdom of God.

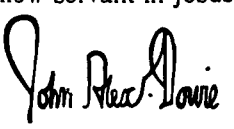
Meanwhile you must each and all do your best as citizens.

I freely admit that I give this advice and direction with especial reference to the establishment of Zion City, and the earthly as well as the heavenly interests of all in Zion.

Poverty is a curse from which God, by their obedience to the Voice of Wisdom, will set His people free.

It would be wrong for Zion to withhold its vote and risk a repetition of the terrible scenes of 1893 and 1894, when idleness consequent upon the shutting down of manufactories in every part of the country, and the consequent financial disaster, brought about the conditions of hunger, poverty, misery and crime which were appalling to all who passed through these dark days.

I regret, my brethren, the impossibility of my further writing to you on this subject because of want of time.



Now, if any in Zion should think otherwise than I have herein advised and directed, I think they would err.

But they are, of course, within their rights as citizens if they think and act otherwise.

May God ever guide us, and enable the Christian Catholic Church in Zion at all times to march forward in her divinely directed path of duty.

Commending you, my brethren, and your dear wives and families, in all parts of this Nation, and commending the Nation itself, with all its diversities of thought and interests, to the care and protection of our Almighty God and Father in the Name of Jesus Christ our Lord, and earnestly praying that the Spirit of Peace and Wisdom may rest upon you at this time, I am

Faithfully your Friend and Fellow-servant in Jesus,

General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

VICTORY FOR ZION IN LONDON.

Zion's Enemies Utterly Routed. Scores Saved and Baptized; Some Healed, Many Quickened.

THE following glorious cablegram from the General Overseer was read in Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day afternoon, October 28, 1900, and was received with great rejoicing, praise and thanksgiving to God:

Zion absolutely victorious London.

Press, physicians, pills, pigs, utterly routed.

Baptized sixty-nine last night.

Baptize again Thursday.

Many saved, some healed, many quickened.

Pray fourth Acts twenty-fourth to thirty-one; imitate verses thirty-two to thirty-seven; avoid Acts fifth, one to ten.

Mizpah! DOWIE.

The forty-third chapter of Isaiah is too long for reprinting here.

Let every one who reads these lines, read that glorious prophecy concerning Zion in the latter days.

"Pray fourth Acts, twenty-fourth to thirty-one":

And they, when they heard it, lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, O Lord, Thou that didst make the heaven and the earth and the sea, and all that in them is: who by the Holy Ghost, by the mouth of our father David Thy servant, didst say,

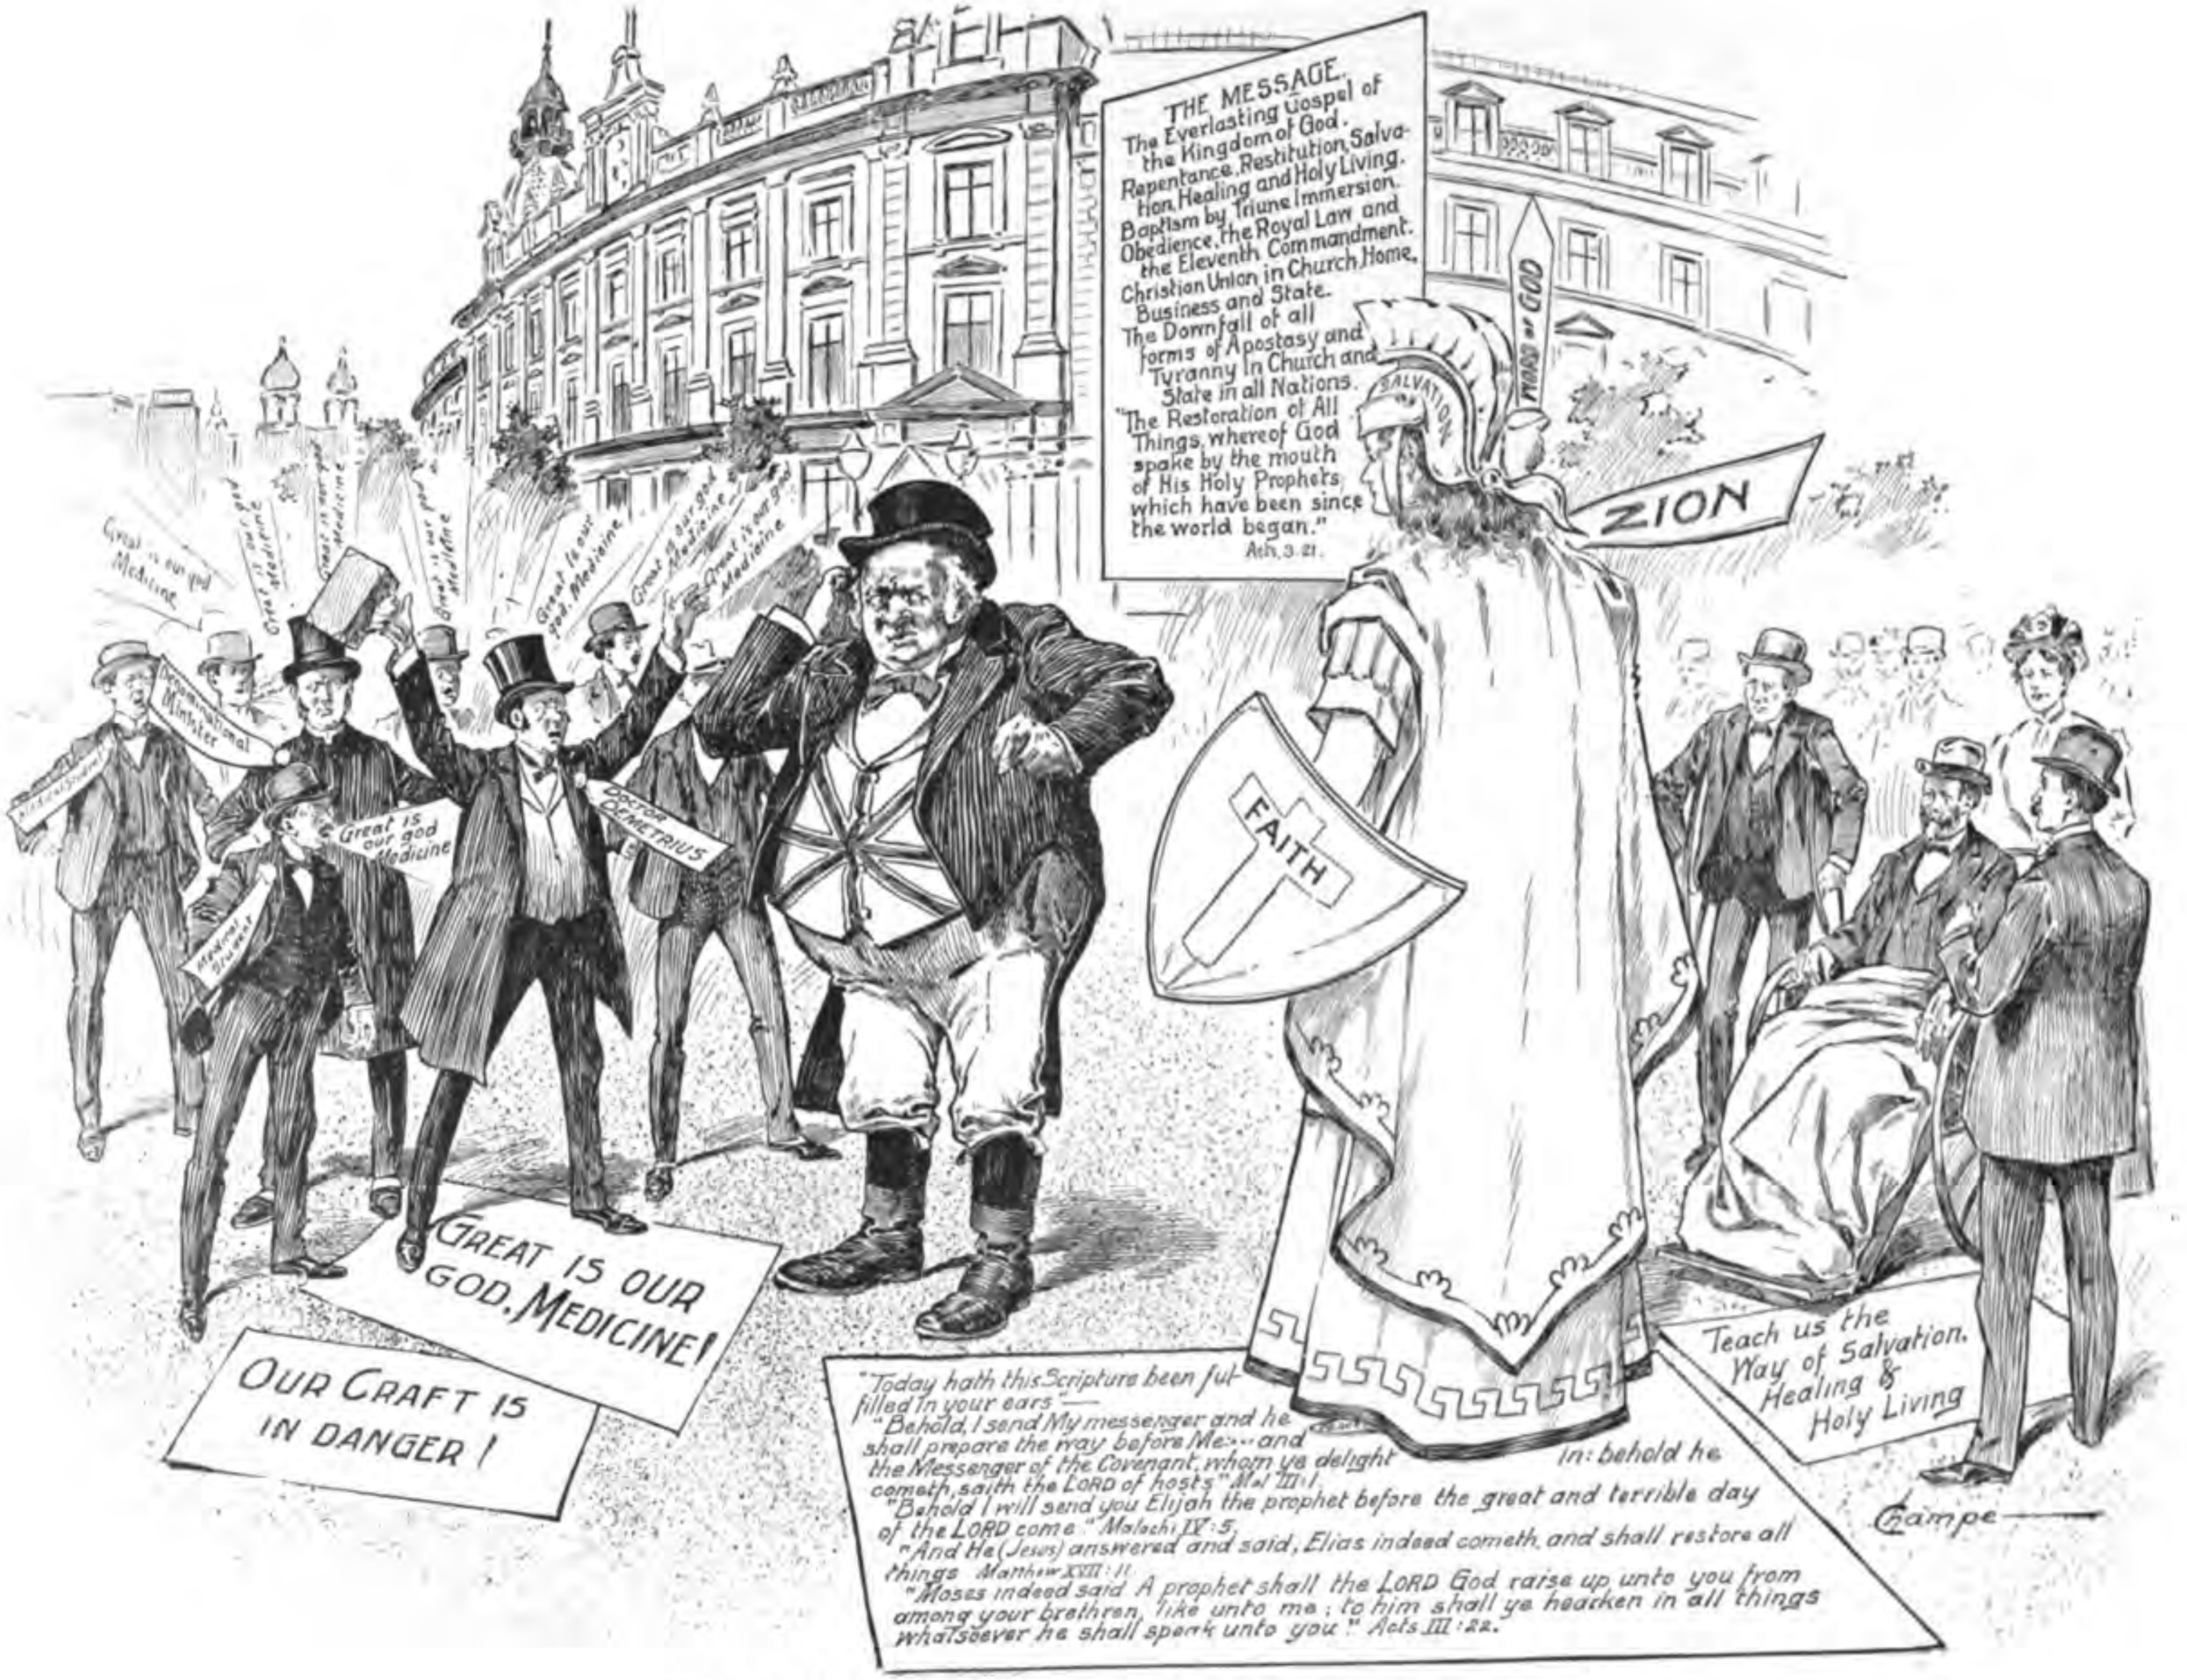
Why did the Gentiles rage,
And the peoples imagine vain things?
The kings of the earth set themselves in array,
And the rulers were gathered together,
Against the Lord, and against His Anointed:

for of a truth in this city against Thy holy Servant Jesus, whom Thou didst anoint, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, were gathered together, to do whatsoever Thy hand and Thy counsel foreordained to come to pass. And now, Lord, look upon their threatenings; and grant unto Thy servants to speak Thy word with all boldness, while Thou stretchest forth Thy hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done through the Name of Thy holy Servant Jesus. And when they had prayed, the place was shaken wherein they were gathered together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the Word of God with boldness.

"Imitate verses thirty-two to thirty-seven":

And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and soul: and not one of them said that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common. And with great power gave the apostles their witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all. For neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, and laid them at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto each, according as any one had need.

And Joseph, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, Son of exhortation), a Levite, a man of Cyprus by race, having a field, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.



"Avoid Acts fifth, one to ten":

But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, and kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thy heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? Whiles it remained, did it not remain thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thy power? How is it that thou hast conceived this thing in thy heart? thou has not lied unto men, but unto God, and Ananias hearing these words fell down and gave up the ghost: and great fear came upon all that heard it. And the young men arose and wrapped him round, and they carried him out and buried him.

And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much. And she said, Yea, for so much. But Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and they shall carry thee out. And she fell down immediately at his feet, and gave up the ghost: and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband.

ZION IN LONDON.

Report of Meetings held in Holborn Town Hall, Gray's Inn Road, London, England, Lord's Day, October 7, 1900. Morning Service—Sermon: "The Beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ." Afternoon Service—Sermon: "The Scripture Fulfilled." Evening Service—Sermon: "Teaching, Preaching, Healing."

REPORTED BY E. W. AND O. L. S.

LONDON!

What a meaning that word has to the student of English history! For ages this city has been a marvel, and today the stranger within her gates is filled with awe as he begins to comprehend the size of the city, after a few weeks' residence here.

Here is immense wealth and abject poverty, great intelligence and crass ignorance, deep piety and awful wickedness.

The Christian stranger, reflecting upon the mixed scene before him, asks himself the question, "What will bring about a better condition of affairs? Who shall bring forth something which shall make matters what they ought to be?"

To him there is but one answer: "A Messenger from God must bring God's Message to the people and demand obedience to that Message. This Messenger must have Authority from God and must declare His Everlasting Covenant."

The Christian in Zion believes that in Zion is to be found that Messenger and that Message.

Lord's Day, October 7, 1900, found the Messenger of the Covenant in the great City of London, preaching the Everlasting Gospel of the Kingdom of God.

The day dawned and remained beautiful throughout.

The church bells in cathedral and chapel rang out, calling the people to "morning prayers." As was their custom, the masses who went to any place of worship wended their way to the places where their fathers before them had worshiped. They were content with the usual order of things, and did not care for what they termed "innovations."

But on this morn many scores throughout the great city rejoiced and thanked God that this day they were to have the privilege of seeing and hearing our General Overseer, who, they believe, is preparing the way before the coming of the King, Jesus the Christ.

With joyful hearts they went to Holborn Town Hall and listened to the Message from the servant of God, and sang with him the songs of Zion.

"Repent! REPENT!! REPENT!!!" was the beginning of the Message this Messenger brought to London. Ever since Adam and Eve disobeyed God in Eden, the condition of the human heart in all ages has made it necessary that this same command should come from God's servants.

Like the Prophets of God in the days of old, like John the Baptist, like the Christ Himself, and like all true apostles since, the Messenger of the Covenant commanded the people to "Repent."

To the sinners first came his command that they should "Repent; bring forth fruits meet for Repentance," and surrender themselves to God unreservedly.

He called upon the children of God to repent of their lack of confidence and trust in God, and demanded that they reconsecrate themselves to Him and serve Him more fully in the future, trusting Him for every needed blessing.

The Message was received gladly by hundreds, and obeyed. The Devil had not forgotten that John Alexander Dowie was in London, and that he had declared his intention of preaching the Everlasting Gospel in Holborn Town Hall on that Lord's Day. He made this very evident by presenting himself and his angels in the meetings in the form of persons filled with prejudice, malice and bitter hatred toward the servant of God.

It seemed impossible for him to keep still, and several times during the meetings he endeavored to interrupt and to cause disorder. The Spirit of God was present, however, and gave much wisdom to the Messenger of the Covenant, and the unruly were brought into subjection or made to quietly leave the room. As some went out, it was evident that they had a desire to do more than hurl anathemas at the Messenger of the Covenant, but God was overruling and all was well. Doubtless many of these will repent their hasty words and actions, when they reflect, and when their eyes have been opened to see that they have been the victims of the designs of evil spirits in spreading abroad falsehoods concerning the Messenger and his Message.

Press and pulpit had not spared many opportunities of warning the people against the General Overseer for more than a month, some from the time he announced his intention to come to London whilst yet in America.

But, thanks be to God, the truths spoken won the hearts of hundreds of the people who heard, and many who had not been friendly, but had been filled with prejudice and malice, became friends of the Messenger, and stood in defense of the truths he was teaching.

The numbers who came to hear increased at each service during the day, and the friends of Zion increased proportionately.

When the even had come, the Spirit of God had won the victory to a very large degree and the meeting was a very touching one in many points. The Message came to many in the power of the Spirit, and many hundreds understood God better and had learned how to trust Him more fully.

At the close of the evening service the largest portion of those present arose and witnessed that they believed that "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever," and consecrations new and renewed were made to God, their Heavenly Father.

As the city sank into slumber that night, men and angels witnessed before God that the truth had been spoken, without fear, and hundreds of honest hearts thanked God for that day in London.

The record of the day is with God. Eternity will only fully reveal what was accomplished. O. L. S.

MORNING SERVICE.

At the request of the General Overseer, the congregation arose. The General Overseer then offered the following

INVOCATION.

God be merciful unto us, and bless us, and cause Thy face to shine upon us; that Thy Way may be known upon earth, Thy saving health among all nations: for the sake of Jesus. Amen.

The congregation then sang the following hymn, which was Number 1 on the special song sheet provided for the meetings in London:

All hail the power of Jesus' Name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown Him Lord of all.

Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe,
And crown Him Lord of all.

Oh that with yonder sacred throng
We at His feet may fall;
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown Him Lord of all.

Scripture Reading and Exposition.

The General Overseer then read the twenty-fifth chapter of the book of the Prophet Isaiah.

Pausing after the words, "He will come and save you," the General Overseer remarked, Salvation is the first thing.

After reading the words, "Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened," he said, Healing is the next thing.

Pausing again after the words, "And an highway shall be there," he remarked, Salvation, Healing and Holiness is the Divine order.

Following the reading of the words, "But it shall be for those," he said, That is, when they are cleansed.

Further reading, "No lion shall be there," he said, The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way. I shall be slain in the streets. "No lion shall be there": for the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, the Lamb of God, has driven every foul and unclean beast away from the path of holiness.

Concluding the reading of the chapter, the General Overseer said, May God bless His Word. Voices in the audience responded, Amen.

Hymn Number 2 on the song leaflet was then sung by the congregation:

"For God so loved!" Oh, wondrous theme!
Oh! wondrous key to wondrous scheme!
A Saviour sent to sinful men—
Glory to God the Father!

CHORUS—Glory to God the Father!
Glory to God the Father!
Glory, Glory, Glory to God the Father!

The General Overseer then read the first chapter of the Gospel according to St. Mark, commenting upon portions of it as he read.

The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.
Even as it is written in Isaiah the Prophet,
Behold, I send My Messenger before Thy face,
Who shall prepare Thy way;
The Voice of one crying in the wilderness,
Make ye ready the way of the Lord,
Make His paths straight;

John came, who baptized in the wilderness and preached the baptism of repentance unto remission of sins. And there went out unto him all the country of Judea, and all they of Jerusalem; and they were baptized of him in the River Jordan, confessing their sins. And John was clothed with camel's hair, and had a leathern girdle about his loins, and did eat locusts and wild honey. And he preached, saying, There cometh after me He that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

Some painters paint John as if he were a wild man, forgetting that he was the cultivated priest, the son of Zacharias, of an exalted order of the priesthood, and of Elizabeth, blameless and good people.

He was carefully educated and qualified, brought up in Jerusalem, in all probability, until he attained the year when he should enter upon his priesthood. John was not an uncultivated man; nor is a garment of camel's hair a coarse garment.

If you should endeavor to buy one in London today, it would cost you a good many pounds. How fine the camel's hair is which you use in little pencil brushes.

Do not have that thought of John.

Remember him as a man carefully trained.

He was splendidly educated with the nobility of his time, graduating in the Rabbinical schools, the superior of all, the greatest of all the prophets.

He used language which came like a sledge hammer at times, and then like a rapier with the keenest of wit, thrusting them to the very heart.

Do not get an idea of John such as ignorant painters have painted.

Painters are very ignorant, and, for the most part, a bad lot. They are mostly drunkards, smokers and stinkers of every kind, and thinkers of no kind.

Painters do not understand prophets.

There have been a few painters who have had the Spirit of God in them, and have painted as God's Spirit directed, but they are very few.

They are fewer than angels' visits: for such visits are not so few, if you could only see them.

And he preached, saying, There cometh after me He that is mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose. I baptized you with water; but He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.

And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in the Jordan.

The Farce of So-called Baptism by Sprinkling.

He was not baptized with a few drops of Jordan water upon His nose, like a crying baby.

There is not an Episcopalian minister in this city, who is a scholar, who will dare to tell you that Baptism is sprinkling.

Turn to Sir William Smyth's Dictionary of Christian Antiquities and read Dr. Merritt's article upon Christian Baptism. He was an Oxford scholar, a minister of high rank, and of course he tells you what every scholar must tell you, that Baptism is by immersion, and by Triune Immersion, and that for seven centuries in the Christian Church nothing else was ever given ecclesiastical sanction.

What a farce and a lie it is to say that the sprinkling of a little water upon a baby's face is Baptism! It is still more shameful to say it is "Baptismal Regeneration." Shame! that such a lie should ever be inflicted upon humanity.

And straightway coming up out of the water, He saw the heavens rent asunder, and the Spirit as a dove descending upon Him: and a Voice came out of the heavens, Thou art My beloved Son, in Thee I am well pleased. And straightway the Spirit driveth Him forth into the wilderness. And He was in the wilderness forty days tempted of Satan; and He was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto Him.

Now after that John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the Gospel of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe in the Gospel.

That was what Christ preached. May God bless His Word, for Jesus' sake.

Hymn Number 9, "Oh Wondrous Name," was then sung, after which the congregation repeated

THE APOSTLES' CREED.

I believe in God the Father Almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth.
And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord;
Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
Born of the Virgin Mary;
Suffered under Pontius Pilate,
Was crucified, dead, and buried:
He descended into hell,
The third day He rose from the dead:
He ascended into Heaven,
And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost;
The Holy Catholic Church,
The Communion of Saints;
The Forgiveness of sins;
The Resurrection of the body;
And the Life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer was then offered by the General Overseer, at the close of which all joined with him in repeating the Disciples' Prayer.

The announcements were then made, and among other things the General Overseer said:

I have never spoken from manuscript in my life, and when I do have to speak from manuscript, I will cease to talk to the people at all.

The man who cannot stand up on his two legs and look people in the face and tell what his heart and head are full of, has not been called to be a minister.

Just imagine a candidate for the suffrages of the people standing up and saying, "Gentlemen, permit me to read to you my address."

What would the costermonger say?

I think there would be a cabbage at his head telling him that his head was like a cabbage.

Just imagine a man in a court of law standing up to plead for the life of his client and saying, "Gentlemen of the Jury, if you please, I will read to you my address."

I listened to a sermon last Lord's Day morning in the great pro-Cathedral in which the Name of Jesus Christ was never once mentioned from beginning to end.

I listened to a sermon in Westminster Abbey a few weeks ago which defended the Book of Common Prayer, but I did not find any defense of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ.

My heart has been very sore since I came to this country.

I have behaved myself, and I have held my tongue.

My enemies have not done that. They have opened their mouths and put their feet in them. (Laughter.)

I will come to them by and by.

I Will Deal With Those Who Have Lied About Zion.

I have a magnificent spanking in store for the Daily Wail and for the British Weekly.

The latter will feel a little more "weakly" after I am through with it. (Laughter.) It is weakly now.

Let there be fair play. I have a right to fair play, have I not?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—"Doth our law judge man, except it first hear from himself and know what he doeth"?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—You have not heard me in the British Weekly. You have heard garbled quotations in which they have left out the essential things.

I promise you a lively time.

I will make that Star see stars, too. (Laughter.)

I am not a reed shaken with the wind. God never made me that.

I do not allow men to do what they like. I am here to tell men to do what God wants them to do, and, so far as I can, I intend to see that they do it.

The meanest thing on God's earth is a series of articles by nobody.

Let the man who wrote the articles in the British Weekly give us his name, and then we will see just how much weight to attach to them.

I never wrote an anonymous line in my life, and I never shall.

He that doeth the truth cometh to the light.

Let the man who writes the attack put his name right down.

What has he done for God?

How many have been saved by his ministry?

How many have been healed through his hands?

What Church has he built up?

The man who attacks me should not only be my equal, but my superior. Let me find him out, and I will try to draw him out. If I can get hold of his tail, I will pull the serpent out.

It is very hard to get hold of the tail of the British Weekly.

My little boy once in Australia saw a snake for the first time. He came running up to me and said, "Papa, I saw a funny thing there; it is all tail and no head."

He was mistaken. There was a head there. There is always a head to these wretched papers. It has the serpent's fang with the poison bag behind it.

I despise an anonymous press.

Every man who writes, attacking any one, should put his name to it, should he not?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—You will be with me by and by.

When I pay proper attention to it, you will hear the wailing of the "Daily Wail."

I thought there might be fair play in London, but the Devil never plays fair, does he?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—I did think that the churches had a little bit of fair play; that there was enough British fair play to say: "Now we will just wait until Dr. Dowie talks; then, if he is wrong, we will go for him."

They had better waited. However, they did not do it. It is all right. I am sorry, though.

I Would Rather Live Peaceably With All Men.

As much as lies in me, I will do it, but it never lies in me to live peaceably with the Devil.

There is one ditty of the Salvation Army of which I heartily approve. It runs as follows:

The Devil and I, we can't agree;
I hate him, and he hates me.
Glory Hallelujah!

Voices—"Hallelujah!"

General Overseer—I am glad I hate the Devil, and I am glad that he hates me.

After a few further remarks by the General Overseer regarding the announcements, the free-will offering was received, during the course of which the congregation joined in singing "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."

THE BEGINNING OF THE GOSPEL.

The morning address was then delivered by the General Overseer.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, be profitable unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all the coming time, till Jesus come, for His sake. Amen.

I speak to you this morning concerning the beginning of the Gospel, and I ask you to read in the first chapter of the Gospel according to St. Mark the words which I have already read to you.

These words are very wonderful. They are very simple.

They are very effective. They are God's words. They are inspired words—the everlasting record.

TEXT.

The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.
Even as it is written in Isaiah the Prophet,
Behold, I send my Messenger before Thy face,
Who shall prepare Thy way;
The Voice of one crying in the wilderness,
Make ye ready the way of the Lord,
Make His paths straight;
John came, who baptized in the wilderness and preached the baptism of repentance unto remission of sins. And there went out unto him all the country of Judea, and all they of Jerusalem; and they were baptized of him in the River Jordan, confessing their sins.

And in the fourteenth and fifteenth verses of this same chapter these words are written:

Now after that John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the Gospel of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe in the Gospel.

It is a very proper thing that I should begin at the beginning in a Mission of this kind.

Some of you may say, "What, are you going to begin at the beginning, the a-b-c of things? Why, we are ahead of that. You are surely not going to talk in London about the alphabet of Christianity."

But I am.

"Why?"

Because a great many of you have not learned your alphabet.

If we do not go back to the beginning of the Gospel, we shall not lay good foundations.

The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is set down right there in this Word as being in the preaching of Jesus Christ.

Jesus Was Not the First Preacher of the Gospel.

The preaching of John the Baptist is the beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, as it is written in the book of Isaiah the Prophet.

Why do you shake your heads? There is nothing in them.

It is the beginning of the Gospel, and if you do not know it, that shows your ignorance.

That is why we have to teach you the alphabet.

Faith is not the beginning of the Gospel. The beginning of the Gospel is Repentance.

That is the trouble with the "spent force," as Dr. Pentecost puts it, "of Moody evangelism," and all that kind of evangelism which says, "Believe, believe, believe," which makes faith the beginning of the Gospel.

Multitudes today in the churches are misled by their teachers who have told them that they have only to believe and they are saved.

There are multitudes in the churches today who are damned because they believe that lie.

"Oh," you say, "Dr. Dowie, is it not written in the Word of God that Paul and Silas said to the Philippian jailer when he said, 'What must I do to be saved?' 'Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved'?"

Yes, they did.

But the Philippian jailor had already repented. He had fallen at the feet of his prisoners and confessed his sin, and taken his prisoners' feet out of the stocks. He was full of Repentance, full of sorrow that he had offended the God of Paul, the God of Silas, the God who had answered their prayer, and responded to their song with an earthquake.

It needs an earthquake to wake up London. Nothing short of an earthquake will wake you up—a Divine earthquake. May God bring it. (Amen.)

Having been full of sorrow, and confessed his sin, and repented, it was time for the Philippian jailor to ask, "What must I do to be saved?" It was proper to say, "Believe."

But if you say believe to an impenitent man, who has not put aside sin, that is the way to damn him.

Therefore, the beginning of the Gospel is the preaching of John the Baptist, the preaching of Repentance.

You did not shake your heads this time; you are getting something into them. (Laughter.)

You say that John the Baptist preached Repentance, but Christ preached Faith; that He did not begin with Repentance, he began with Faith.

That is another blunder which I see continually perpetrated in religious papers.

What is written concerning Christ?

Now after that John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the Gospel of God.

How did He preach it?

Did He say "Believe"?

He did no such thing. He said, "Repent ye, and believe the Gospel."

Jesus Began His Preaching With Repentance.

He said, "I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to Repentance."

"Except ye repent, ye shall all in like manner perish."

That is what He preached.

"Oh well," you say, "after the Holy Ghost came, and the Church was established, then the apostles preached Faith first. That was when the preaching of Faith began."

That is another blunder.

When Peter and the other apostles were asked, on the Day of Pentecost, "Men and brethren, what shall we do?" the answer came quick as a flash:

Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ unto the remission of your sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

"Repent" is the first thing. "Be baptized" is the next thing.

There are many unwashed Christians. I shall have to baptize you.

You have to repent of your rejection of Baptism. Baptism comes with Repentance.

There is no use of your looking sulky, because you have to get there all the same.

That is the advantage the fellow has who looks you in the eye: he sees you when you get sulky. You say we want the Gospel; we do not want Baptism.

I know you do not want Baptism, but you have to get it in the Gospel. You have got to repent first.

Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the Name of the Lord Jesus.

"Oh well," you say, "the Apostle Paul was a bigger fellow than Peter, and when he talked he preached faith first."

He did not.

That is another blunder.

When he preached the Gospel, he preached Repentance toward God, and Faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. There was no difference between John the Baptist and Jesus, between Peter and Paul in that matter. They all started with Repentance. That is where you have to start.

Have you repented?

Repentance is your business; something you have to do.

"I cannot do anything," you protest.

Yes, you can.

"Unless God helps me, I cannot."

But He will help you. The Holy Spirit is striving to get you to repent so He can enter your heart.

I can see He has gotten into some of your heads. Perhaps He will get a little lower down and get into your hearts.

Perhaps some of the prejudice will go presently.

The Holy Spirit will get hold of your hearts, and then you will repent.

As Jesus said, the Holy Spirit would enable men to repent by convicting them, by convincing them of sin: the sin of not believing in Him.

The Sin of Unbelief.

The sin which both saint and sinner has to be convicted of today is that they do not believe in Jesus.

There are vast numbers of so-called Christians today—yes, and real Christians—who do not believe in Jesus to the uttermost.

They believe just as far as it suits them.

If you believe in Christ as He demands, you will believe and do the things which He says. You will obey.

You have to repent, therefore, of disobedience.

There are a vast number of Christians, and a vast number of ungodly people who have to repent of disobedience. Disobedience!

I desire to lay foundations, strong, broad and deep.

I am not concerned with what you think about me, but I want to make the truth clear.

Even as for the sinner there must be a substantial work of true Repentance, so for the saint, that you may get the blessing of God, there must be true Repentance.

The goodness of God brings His own children to Repentance, as well as bringing the poor wanderer to Repentance.

I begin with the sinner.

Sinner! you have got to repent, and do it quickly.

You must do it now, you dirty dog!

Do you hear me?

You wretched stinkpot, defiling your body with filthy nicotine poison, defiling your body with filthy alcohol, defiling your body with foul transgression, defiling your life with an ungodly unfaithfulness, and living for self!

You gamblers! You whoremongers! You liars! You thieves! You must repent!

God sees your sin.

You may conceal it from others—you cannot conceal it from God.

He knows what you conceal.

He knows where you lied.

He knows the acts which have defiled you.

That Eye which strikes through the darkest shades of night has seen your transgression.

You have kept back your heart from God. You have given your life to the Devil. You must repent!

The way to repent is to confess your sin to God, to those whom you have wronged, and quit it now.

Lay down your bad habits before you leave this place, and ask God in His infinite mercy to enable you to make confession to those whom you have wronged, restitution to those whom you have defrauded, and to do right to your fellowman. Then come to your God and cry, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and in Thy sight."

You have to repent practically.

If you do not stop defiling your body, you will be destroyed.

The Temple of God has been defiled by your filthiness, and you will die the death of a dog, and worse, if you do not quit your sins.

You Have to Quit Your Sins.

"Cannot I do what I like?" asks some sinner.

No, you cannot do what you like. In God's world you have to do what God tells you.

"Cannot I think as I like?"

No, you cannot think as you like. You have to think as God thinks. If you do not think as God thinks, and do as God tells you, the only thing for you is to be swept out of this world to go to hell.

You had better repent.

If I were you, I would repent very quickly.

I would tell God I repented, and would ask God this day to put my case into the hands of His dear Son, my Advocate, and resting in Him alone I would ask my Father to hear my cry of Repentance, and to take away my guilt and sin, and to give me power to do right.

That is where the sinner must start.

That is where the saint has to start afresh; some of you who have defiled your garments.

Some of you sinners have been dirty stinkpots, taking that filthy nicotine poison until your throat is an open sepulcher, and your body reeks with it. You help to spend millions upon millions of pounds every year in tobacco, you dirty dog.

You call yourself a Christian, but you smell like a devil!

You may be a Christian, but a man who stinks as you do has no right to expect me or any man to believe that you are.

How dare you defile your body?

What right have you to defile your body?

Did not God give it to you to keep clean?

Do you wish your baby to defile its body by chewing tobacco and smoking as soon as he can suck?

Do you want your wife to do it?

You dirty dogs of fellows!

Why do you not bring her home a box of cigars, and ask her to "light up," too?

If it is sauce for the gander, it is sauce for the goose. If it is good for one, it is good for the other.

You cannot pray over your dirty tobacco.

It is defiling you, destroying you and it is sowing in your body amaurosis, paralysis, ulcerations of the stomach and bowels and creating nicotine cancer.

Go on smoking, if you will, and you will get an elegant cancer.

The only good thing about it is that the world will get rid of you so much more quickly, you stinkpot!

You think you can do what you like, do you?

You cannot do it.

You a Christian? I tell you, you smell like a devil!

The smoke of your torment is going up forever and ever.

I heard of a man the other night who loved his tobacco-pipe so much that when the time for evening prayers came he loaded it up to the very top and started it. Then he laid it down and hurried his prayers to get through before it would go out.

What kind of a prayer was that?

Did God Almighty ever hear it? Did it ever reach heaven?

There was his god. A dirty bit of black tobacco.

I would rather be a slave to any man, black, yellow, brown or white, than to be a slave to a cake of tobacco, and not only have to be a slave to it, but have to pay for it, and chew it, and eat it, and smoke it, and squirt it out all over the place.

Oh, you dirty dog! (Laughter.)

The fact is, the dog is insulted by the comparison.

You could not get a dog to do what you do.

"Throw physic to the dogs," cries Shakespeare.

If you were to give physic to your dog, as you give yourself, he would turn around and bite you.

There is not a dog which would take the filth you do.

Repentance Means Giving Up Sin.

You Christians must give up the things which defile. Give up the dirty, filthy habits of drinking that stinking slush of beer, whisky, rum—distilled damnation!

You must quit!

You must do right!

You call yourselves Christians and drink that which steals not only men's brains, but their hearts and lives away. It is a lie upon the face of it. You ought to be ashamed to call yourself a Christian.

A Christian is clean and such habits are not clean. They are filthy.

Alcohol is a dirty, filthy poison which degrades; destroys the brain, tears out the heart, eats out the liver.

If a man does survive it for a while, he lives in spite of it, not because of it.

But he does not live, he only exists.

There are some miserable men who do exist for some considerable time just saturated with whisky and tobacco. Who ever heard of their fighting for God or for humanity?

As I walk through this earth and live upon it, I tell you my heart is wrung with sorrow as I see men degrading and defiling the Temple of God, and calling themselves Christians.

I have a right to judge you by your fruits.

Your fruits are stinking, filthy and disgusting!

You are hand and glove with the Devil, who is destroying men with the accursed liquid fire and distilled damnation!

You must do what God tells you.

You must be baptized.

You must get one word written over your eyes, "Obedience"; the Obedience of Faith.

There is no use talking about having Faith unless you obey.

If I do not obey God, I ought to perish. I ought to be swept out of the way.

If, for fear of man, I should keep back one word which I ought to say in London, I should expect God to brush me out of the way. What right have I to be afraid of man?

The worst a man could do would be to kill me; that would send me the more quickly to heaven.

I would rather wake up in heaven than in London, unless God wants me to wake up in London; then I would rather wake up in London than in heaven.

I rather enjoy a fight; that is because I am a man of peace.

My Heart is at Peace With God, Hence I Am at War With the Devil.

I have no antagonism for any man, but I hate sin, and I hate it with all my heart.

I hate evil. I hate shams. I hate a man telling me he is a Christian when he is a slave to his belly and to his dirty passions.

There is no use talking that nonsense to me, or to God either.

You must keep under your body. You must bring it into subjection.

You must make your body something in which God can be glorified; not a stinkpot or a whisky barrel.

You must quit associating with those who will not do the will of God.

If you are in a Church where the minister, the deacons and the members are prepared to be in conformity with the World, get out of it.

The friendship of the World is enmity with God.

You have got to get out. That Church belongs to the Devil. It does not belong to God.

A Church which will not fight sin, a Church which will not fight disease, a Church which will not fight the powers of death and hell, belongs to the Devil: for sin, and disease, and death and hell belong to the Devil, every one of them.

If you will not fight as God tells you to fight, then you had better get out, or say that you are on the side of Death, on the side of Disease, on the side of Hell, on the side of the Devil, and then we will know where to find you.

But if you say you are a Christian and still fight for Disease and Sin and Death, may God have mercy upon you!

A great many Christians say that death is of God.

Death of God?

He that hath the power of death is—who?

Voices—"The Devil."

General Overseer—That is what the Bible says.

Death and hell shall be cast into the lake of fire.

Is the lake of fire where God puts His friends? Death is the Devil's own.

Since then the children are sharers in flesh and blood, He also Himself in like manner partook of the same; that through death He might bring to nought him that had the power of death, that is, the Devil.

Our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and incorruption to light through the Gospel.

Therefore, we are fighting disease as well as sin. We are fighting death as well as disease. We are fighting hell.

Every one of you here today who desires to live a clean life, ask God to give you the power to do it. Arise, and ask Him. Those who desire to live a dirty life, sit still The greater part of the audience arose.)

Pray with me.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be, in spirit, in soul, in body. Give me Thy Holy Spirit, that I may trust Thee, that I may serve Thee, that I may love Thee, that I may win men from sin, for Jesus' sake. Amen. (All standing repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

Did you mean it?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—Do it.

After the Doxology had been sung, the services were closed by the General Overseer pronouncing the following

PRAYER AND BENEDICTION.

Our Father, we thank Thee for the first human preacher of the Gospel, for the greatest of all the prophets up to that time, John the Baptist, for Elijah incarnate in him. We thank Thee for the wonderful words of Jesus.

We pray Thee to bless the words spoken this morning.

Bless Zion wherever Zion meets today; all who are in Thy Kingdom are in Zion. Hear us, our Father.

The grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be in you, bless you, keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

AFTERNOON SERVICE.

The services were opened by the congregation singing Hymn Number 2:

"For God so loved!" Oh, wondrous theme!
Oh! wondrous key to wondrous scheme!
A Saviour sent to sinful men—
Glory to God the Father!

CHORUS—Glory to God the Father!
Glory to God the Father!
Glory, Glory, Glory to God the Father!

In love God gave, in love Christ came,
That man might know the Father's Name,
And in the Son salvation claim—
Glory to God the Father!

As man He tarried here below
The power and love of God to show;
To help and heal all human woe—
Glory to God the Father!

Upon the Cross His life He gave,
His people from their sins to save;
For them descended to the grave—
Glory to God the Father!

By God exalted from the dead,
He reigns on high, the living Head
Of every soul for whom He bled—
Glory to God the Father!

The General Overseer then read from the sixty-first chapter of the book of the Prophet Isaiah. At the close of this reading the congregation joined in singing Hymn Number 8:

Oh, for a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise;
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of His grace.

My gracious Master, and my God,
Assist me to proclaim—
To spread through all the earth abroad
The honors of Thy Name.

Jesus!—the Name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace.

He breaks the power of cancelled sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean,
His blood availed for me.

Hear Him, ye deaf, His praise, ye dumb,
Your loosened tongues employ;
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come,
And leap, ye lame, for joy!

Scripture Reading and Exposition.

The Scripture reading was continued by the General Overseer reading from the fourth chapter of the Gospel according to St. Luke:

And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and a fame went out concerning Him through all the region round about. And He taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

And He came to Nazareth, where He had been brought up: and He entered, as His custom was, into the synagogue on the Sabbath Day, and stood up to read. And there was delivered unto Him the book of the Prophet Isaiah. And He opened the book, and found the place where it was written,

The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me,
Because He anointed Me to preach good tidings to the poor:
He hath sent Me to proclaim release to the captives,
And recovering of sight to the blind,
To set at liberty them that are bruised,
To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

And He closed the book, and gave it back to the attendant, and sat down: and the eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on Him. And He began to say unto them, Today hath this Scripture been fulfilled in your ears. And all bare Him witness, and wondered at the words of grace which proceeded out of His mouth: and they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

"They say."

The "they says" are a curse.

"The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! literally taxgatherers and harlots."

"John the Baptist is come eating no bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a Devil."

"They say." Oh, these wretched "they says"!

It does not matter what the people say.

The only thing that matters on God's earth, and throughout God's Universe, is what God says.

What does it matter what the people say or think?

The only thing that matters is what God thinks.

Your thinking will not alter anything.

Your voting will not alter anything.

The Eternal God will work out His plans in this Universe whether you vote for Salisbury or Harcourt.

It does not matter what the people say. This world is not governed by votes. This Universe is governed by God. You may say what you like, and do what you like, but you will find that there is just one thing that goes eternally in this world, and that is God's Word.

They said, Is not this Joseph's son?

They knew His father and His mother.

They probably said, "Who is He to say that the Spirit of Jehovah is upon Him, and that Jehovah has sent Him to do this and that?"

And they said, Is this not Joseph's son? And He said unto them—

When He gets His Word in, it is something different from the "they says." It makes trouble; it makes a first-class row everywhere.

And He said unto them, Doubtless ye will say unto Me this parable, Physician, heal Thyself: whatsoever we have heard done at Capernaum, do also here in Thine own country. And He said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is acceptable in his own country. But of a truth I say unto you, There were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when there came a great famine over all the land; and unto none of them was Elijah sent, but only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow. And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian. And they were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things; and they rose up, and cast Him forth out of the city, and led Him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might throw Him down headlong. But He passing through the midst of them went His way.

"His way." He marched on His victorious way, although it at last led Him to the Cross, the sepulcher, and into hell itself.

"He Descended Into Hell."

Do you believe it? How much do you believe it? How much do you believe it that He descended into hell?

I should like to have been there when He had that first-class row with the Devil.

If ever I am good enough, I may be permitted to go to hell to have it out with the Devil.

That may be why the Lord permits me to have it out with Him in Chicago.

It is a kind of training ground for going down to hell. It is almost as near hell as London is.

There is a great deal of hell in London; many openings into the bottomless pit in London.

Some day when God finds us good enough, He may let us go down to hell to fight it out there; to get the captives free who have been there these long ages, like these spirits in prison who had been rebellious in the days of Noah, to whom Christ preached when "He led captivity captive."

Doubtless He brought out multitudes of these captives.

It is worth while going down to hell sometimes.

The only one that I know of who has thus far gone down to hell to fight a battle for God, is Christ, the Son of God.

Doubtless by and by, in a glorified body, He will undertake the work of cleaning out hell. Death and hell shall be cast into the lake of fire.

A Voice—"Glory!"

General Overseer—You may well say glory; for it is a glorious thought.

I love to think of it.

Some of you wish to keep hell going forever.

Thank God, there will be no more death, there will be no more hell. It may be a long way off yet, but we are going to get to it; because it is written:

Then cometh the end, when He shall deliver up the Kingdom to God, even the Father; when He shall have abolished all rule and all authority and power. For He must reign, till He hath put all His enemies under His feet. The last enemy that shall be abolished is death.

Then God is All in All, and not until then.

Look ahead. Look beyond. Get higher to look beyond—to that time when, throughout the Universe, there shall be no opposing power.

Evil is not eternal. It cannot be. If it were, it would be of God; for that only is eternal which is Divine.

I like to read this passage:

And He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. And He was teaching them on the Sabbath Day: and they were astonished at His teaching; for His Word was with authority.

May God make His Word with authority in London. (Amen.)

There is Too Little Authority in Earthly Government.

Every one of you, nearly, has gotten into the way of questioning authority.

I do not wonder at it, when you create the authority. It is a very poor creation, too.

Your parliaments are all made by the people, and are like the people who make them.

Do you not think it will be a glorious time when there will not be any elections, and when Jesus Christ Himself shall appoint all the rulers?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—That is right. You are Theocrats.

The best rulers are always appointed. They are never elected.

In the United States of America, where I have spent twelve years and two months, the most highly respected Court in all that great country is the Supreme Court of the United States. It is not elected. It is appointed.

This election business is a wretched thing.

I am not a partisan. I am not speaking with reference to party. I have nothing to do with your public politics.

It does not matter to you very much what my opinion may be regarding current events. At any rate, I will not obtrude my opinions now, whatever they may be. This I do say, if that is the best way in which rulers can be created, the world is in a bad way.

I do not believe in the rule of the people.

"What, you who have been in America?" some one asks.

Yes, twelve years and two months.

"Do you talk like that in America?"

Yes, I do. Some people say I will not talk here as I talk in America. I will, only much more so. You may depend upon that.

The Lord forbid that I should believe in the rule of the people.

Are the majority of the people in London good or bad?

Voices—"Bad."

General Overseer—Are the majority of the people in London sober or drunken?

Voices—"Drunken." (Cries of "Sober," "Drunken," "No," mingled together.)

General Overseer—I am asking you what you think. I am glad that you differ. I will get at the truth.

The fact of the matter is simply this, and you know it, that the majority of the people are not wise. The majority of the people are crassly ignorant. (At this juncture the General Overseer was interrupted by several persons in the audience attempting to speak.)

You can rent a hall when you desire to speak. If you wish to talk in Holborn Hall, you hire it. I do not mind your answering a question. It is quite pleasant.

Christ would not be received; He would not be elected to one constituency in London today. (At this point the General Overseer was again interrupted by several persons shouting out in the audience.)

You may go and get a hall, but you may not talk back like that.

I am going to give you my opinions.

Every man has a right to talk when he has a right place and the right time. There is no objection to your talking in the right place.

And they were astonished at His teaching; for His Word was with authority.

Failure of Rule by the People.

The rule of the people, by the people and for the people has always failed. The rule of the people, by God and for God, is the only possible key to universal blessing, and every man of sense knows that.

Luke 4:33:

Ah! what have we to do with Thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art Thou come to destroy us? I know Thee who Thou art, the Holy One of God. And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the Devil had thrown him down in the midst, he came out of him, having done him no hurt. And amazement came upon all, and they spake together, one with another, saying, What is this word? for with authority and power He commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out. And there went forth a rumor concerning Him into every place of the region round about.

And He rose up from the synagogue, and entered into the house of Simon. And Simon's wife's mother was holden with a great fever; and they besought Him for her. And He stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she rose up and ministered unto them.

And when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto Him; and He laid His hands on every one of them, and healed them. And devils also came out from many, crying out, and saying, Thou art the Son of God. And rebuking them, He suffered them not to speak, because they knew that He was the Christ.

And when it was day, He came out and went into a desert place: and the multitudes sought after Him, and came unto Him, and would have stayed Him, that He should not go from them.

Pain at Parting From Zion in Chicago.

I never had a greater pain in my life in heart, never felt so completely bereft of power to speak, as when my dear people in thousands, men, women and children, thronged around me as I left Chicago, and prayed me not to go.

I have had that pain at heart ever since, but I knew I had to go. I knew that God had sent me. The Christ Himself said, the greatest of all:

I must preach the good tidings of the Kingdom of God to the other cities also: for therefore was I sent.

I humbly trust that God has sent me here for that same purpose.

May He bless His Word.

Hymn Number 4 was then sung:

Blow ye the trumpet, blow
The gladly solemn sound;
Let all the nations know,
To earth's remotest bound;
The Year of Jubilee is come,
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

Jesus, our great High Priest,
Hath full atonement made;
Ye weary spirits, rest;
Ye mournful souls, be glad.
The Year of Jubilee is come,
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

At the conclusion of the singing, the General Overseer offered prayer. The announcements were then made and the free-will offering received.

THE SCRIPTURE FULFILLED.

The afternoon address was then delivered.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, be profitable unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, for the sake of Jesus. Amen.

In the fourth chapter of Luke and the twenty-first verse it is written:

TEXT.

Jesus began to say unto them, Today hath this Scripture been fulfilled in your ears.

He has not finished saying it yet. He began nineteen centuries ago, and He is saying it still.

It is only two days, not quite that yet, since Christ spoke these words

Only two days ago. One day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

It is not yet two thousand years. It is only late in the second day since He spoke these words.

God's days are big days. Everything about God is big. There is nothing small about God. There is nothing small about that which is Divine.

A man small in his conceptions, wishing you to conform to his own little notions, and imagining that unless you think exactly as he thinks you have gone to the Devil, is a small man.

The Breadth of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

What I love about the Christian Catholic Church in Zion is the breadth which God has given to it.

While we hold tenaciously to truths which are essential, we have great breadth and depth, plenty of room.

There is room for all kinds of boats upon the Ocean; for the Deutschland which has rushed away from these shores today for America, and will get there possibly within six days, and for the little cockleshell of a boat in which a poor fisherman has gone out from Plymouth to catch fish for a living.

The Ocean is big enough to bear them both, and all that can be put upon it. The Infinite Ocean of God's Love is big enough and broad enough and deep enough for us all.

I like to think of the day being a thousand years. It begins to give me an idea of Eternity when a day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

We have such a puny way of looking at things.

We think that because things are not done our way in a minute, in a week, in a month, in a year, it is all wrong.

Why cannot you wait?

How Infinite God is in His patience. How long He waits.

Christ began to speak these words two days ago, somewhere about His thirty-first year, when He entered upon His ministry, and He is saying them still.

What was it that He began to say?

He began to say something which made the people angry.

He arose in the synagogue, unrolled the roll, and read:

The Spirit of Jehovah is upon Me.
Because He anointed Me to preach good tidings to the poor:
He hath sent Me to proclaim release to the captives,
And recovering of sight to the blind.
. . . . . .
To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord.

Then He closed the Book and sat down.

Today hath this Scripture been fulfilled in your ears.

What was the trouble about that? What was it that made such a rumpus in that synagogue right away when He said that?

These words look peaceable enough, do they not?

In fact, the people all liked them. It is recorded that they all bore witness to the words of grace that proceeded out of His mouth.

But there were some people there who belonged to the ancient prototype of the modern newspaper, which might be called the Daily Wail of Nazareth, the Jerusalem Weekly, and the Slum Star, who came there to make a rumpus.

They belonged to the Scribes and Pharisees. They had not liked what He had been saying.

He had been down at the Jordan. John the Baptist had proclaimed that He was "the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world."

The Holy Spirit had come upon Him.

The Eternal Father had said, "This is My beloved Son."

Wonderful things had been done in Capernaum, and the Mah-hah-bones in Jerusalem had begun to think their bones were in danger.

Mah-hah-bone!

Horrible thing to let that out, is it not?

That is the omnific word of the Masons. That is the "point within the circle"; the worship of Baal.

It goes on today in London, New York, Chicago, St. Petersburg, Berlin, Rome, everywhere.

Baal Has a Mighty Hold Upon This World.

Christ fought Secretism.

"In secret," He said, "have I said nothing."

He smote it, and He smites it still.

They had followed Him to Nazareth, and they thought, doubtless, "We will break His neck at Nazareth. We could not do it down there in Capernaum."

Why could they not? Because the centurion was with Him, and Jairus, the ruler of the synagogue, was with Him; and Joanna, and Susanna, and Mary Magdalene, out of whom He had cast seven devils, and they loved Him.

They got into the synagogue, and when He got up to preach they began to interrupt. They whispered all down the pew lines: "He is a fraud! He is a humbug! He is a liar! He is a cheat! He is only the son of Joe, the carpenter!"

They begin to stir up things.

Christ is not at all adverse to a mixup, so He stirred them up a little more. That is always what I do.

When anybody stirs things up, I stir them up a little more. I do not shrink from the battle. I will not shrink from it in London.

I may be killed, but you cannot stop me speaking.

Do you think you can stop me fighting the Devil?

I do not know how you are going to do it. If I were lying down to my last gasp, I would kick, if I could not do anything else.

The Word of God is not bound. You cannot stop it.

It is too late, Mah-hah-bones!

It is too late, ye generation of vipers!

The truth is getting out again, that Christ is in London.

I am not the Christ. God forbid that I should ever have such a ridiculous idea. I am the weakest and most unworthy of His servants. I wonder more than anybody else why He should have called me.

Why did He not call the Archbishop of Canterbury to lay hands on the sick and have them healed? I do not know. He did not do it.

I have not heard of any healing through the hands of Dr. Temple.

Why did He not call him to fight the Devil, instead of saying that he is quite helpless, and cannot do anything?

I should think when a Bishop is quite helpless and cannot do anything, it is time to dispense with him.

I should think when a Judge cannot uphold the law, it is time to dispense with him.

I should think that when a ruler in the place of authority cannot do anything with a set of ritualistic rascals, it is time to do something with that man. It is time to put a man there who can do something.

I Intend to Have It Out With the Church of England.

"Big task," you say.

I know it is, but I am going to hit it. There is much room for criticism, and you know it. I will hit hard when I do hit.

It is time that that apostate Church gave way and made room for God's Kingdom to come.

What! men say that they can do nothing who are entrusted with power? Let them stand aside for the man who can do something.

Christ arose when they began to talk like this. He told them two stories.

Christ was a first-class story-teller, and all His stories were true. He had a wonderful faculty for stirring up the Devil.

So had Paul. Wherever Paul went there was a regular row. It usually took a regiment of soldiers to keep things in order, and in most cities he got into jail.

If we had some Pauls around we could stir up things, and it would be immensely better for England and for America and everywhere.

The fact of the matter is that the Devil has it all his own way for the most part. He is not very much troubled.

I will tell again these stories which Christ told.

There they were in Nazareth, and there was His widowed mother sitting in the congregation. He loved her, but He was going to stab her to the very heart. The sword was going to pierce her heart: for she was a coward. His brethren were cowards. Not one of them believed on Him.

If you do not know that, you do not know the Scripture. His mother was always afraid of her Son getting into trouble. She was a coward. Every now and then she would want Him to come away to get out of the crowd when He was discussing with the Pharisees.

He was delivering His first discourse in Nazareth, and He was going to put the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, through His mother's heart. She needed it.

There are a great many mothers who need it. A good many brothers need it, a good many wives need it, and a good many sisters need it, but they do not like it when it comes.

Elijah and the Widow at Zarephath.

Jesus said that in the days of Elijah there were many widows in Israel, and it was just exactly in the days of Elijah as it was then.

There was not one single widow who was faithful. There was not a widow in that town, according to the application of His words, who was faithful. Elijah could not find a single widow in all Israel who would take him into her house. But there was a poor woman living at Zarephath, a Canaanitish widow, who took him in.

You remember the circumstances. Elijah had been in hiding for his life, because he and the king had had a falling out. He and the people and the priests had a falling out.

It is always the way with the prophet. He always falls out with the priest, and falls out with the authorities, in nine cases out of ten. Elijah fell out with them. In fact, he had prayed a certain prayer—"Oh Jehovah God, do not let the rain descend from the heavens upon Palestine until the people acknowledge Thee as God, and until they put down Baal-worship."

God answered that prayer.

It did not rain for three years and six months. There was a great famine. The people were all dying.

In the city of Zarephath a poor widow woman lived, starved nearly to death. She came out to gather a few sticks to make a fire, when she saw a strange form lurking in the bushes. It was the gaunt form of Elijah.

He came forward and asked what she was doing.

She said she was gathering a few sticks to build a fire and make a little cake for her son. She said she had just got a little handful of meal and a drop of oil to make a cake for her only son. She intended to give it to him, and then lie down and die.

Elijah said:

Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it forth unto me, and afterward make for thee and for thy son.

She took the few sticks, she took the little meal, she took the little oil, and she made a cake. As far as the record goes, he ate every particle of it.

Then he told her to go and make cakes for herself.

She went to her meal barrel and to her cruise of oil. They still contained some.

There was meal and oil there all the rest of the famine.

There was not a widow in Israel who had faith in the God of the heavens to believe in any such nonsense as that, as they would have called it.

How many widows are there in London who believe that God will provide today? I am not going to say there are none. God forbid, because I believe there are widows in London who do trust God.

That story Jesus told hurt His mother. She was crying over it, sitting in a pew there.

It was pretty hard to hear her own Son talk like that.

Anger of the Wicked When the Truth is Told.

There were many boys there who drank.

They did not smoke then. That dirty, stinking habit had not been invented.

Ugh! You stinkpots!

I do detest your filthy practices.

If there is anything upon this God's earth that makes me feel a man has ceased to be a man, it is to see him an animated chimneypot.

You dirty fellow! Your throat is an open sepulcher!

You stink like devils!

How can you talk about being clean Christians?

They did not smoke in those days. In fact, they did not drink so much; but they were pretty bad boys, some of them. They got angry with Christ because what He said was a reflection upon their mothers. They felt that they would like to hit Him on the nose, just as that fellow down there would like to hit me on the nose. There are two or three amiable men here! Lovely characters!

That made them awfully angry.

They became angrier still when He told them another story.

The Story of Naaman, the Leper.

He said in the days of Elisha there were many lepers in Israel, and the only man who could be healed was not an Israelite at all. He was a Syrian, a heathen named Naaman, who believed in the God of Elisha, and did what Elisha told him. He went down and dipped seven times in the Jordan.

You make an awful row because I desire to dip you three times.

Because I command you to follow the Lord and be dipped three times, you are in a regular rage.

You get angry.

You are like Naaman, who asked whether there were not the rivers of Damascus better than this ditch of a Jordan? But he had to come to it, and you will have to come to it, too.

I intend to baptize every last saint of you who desires to obey God.

When they heard about Naaman, they got very angry.

What were they angry about? Because he was telling them historic facts, truths. He was telling them things which were true. You cannot make people more angry than by telling them the exact truth.

That is what makes people terrifically angry. You tell them the truth, and they get angry. They cannot stay; they want to go out and get a smoke, or a drink, or something of that kind.

What did they do?

They got so angry that they said they would kill Him. What for?

Because He said the things they did not like. They took Him through the streets, to the brow of the hill, and were going to throw him down from there, but they lost Him.

He went away. His time had not come.

I have had many experiences; but until a man's time has come for him to lay his life down for God, he is immortal. You cannot hurt him.

Christ's time had not come. No man could take His life from Him until He laid it down.

The point is this:

Christ was preaching the Gospel of Divine Healing as well as of Salvation. He was telling them that the time had come for people to be loosed from their sins and their sicknesses. He said, "I am the Man to do it. I am the Christ of God, and I have come to do it." Then they became angry.

Why? Because there were devils in them, and these devils wanted to destroy Him.

Where are the devils? Do you have to seek in the upper air for them? Do you have to seek down in deepest hell for them?

I saw them in a saloon just now as I passed. I saw them selling, upon this Sabbath Day, liquid fire and distilled damna-tion. The man who sells liquor to little children, as I saw a man doing to a little girl and a boy, as I passed his den, is an incarnate devil.

The Liquor-Seller an Incarnate Devil.

The man who sells liquid fire and distilled damnation is an incarnate devil. He has a devil in him.

No man who had the Spirit of God would sell that liquor which makes people harlots, and thieves, and murderers, and drunkards, and fills graves and the lunatic asylums, poorhouses and hell.

If you tell me that such a man is a servant of God, then I say I hate that god whom he serves; because that god is the Devil.

You have only to say that in London, and you have a few hundred thousand fellows after you.

I know that, but I am going to say that in London.

I say that the man who sells liquid fire and distilled damnation is a criminal, no matter that the law of man may license him. God says:

Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that addest thy venom thereto, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

The thing which made them mad was just the truth. You have only to tell the truth to make people mad. That was the only way the Saviour could do His work. He did it by telling the truth; not by keeping back any part of it, and not by telling them in a soft way.

He told it in a way that hit and that was heard, and they tried to kill Him.

No man shall talk the truth in Chicago, New York, London, Edinburgh, anywhere, and tell it in a way that hits without getting the Devil stirred up.

May God stir up the Devil. (Amen.)

May the fight come on.

The question is simply this: Is the God of Israel, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, stronger than the Devil?

If He is not, then we had better quit His service. If He is, then let us fight it out on that line.

Every man and woman in this place who intends to stand with Jesus Christ, and desires to serve God with all their hearts, stand and tell Him so. All who do not, sit still. (For the most part the audience arose.) Pray.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be. Help me to follow Jesus and to hate sin. Give me Thy Holy Spirit's power, that I may do my utmost to deliver men from the powers of evil. Forgive my sin. Wherever I have wronged any, give me power to restore, to confess, to do right, whatever it may cost; to serve Thee fully, for Jesus' sake. (All standing repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

I ask the few hundreds who are standing, my brothers and sisters, did you mean that prayer?

Audience—"Yes."

General Overseer—If you will live that prayer, there will be two things happen to you. First, you will stir up the Devil everywhere. Second, you will win multitudes to God, but you will not do it without trouble.

Pray for me. Pray for this work. It begins quietly. It begins with a handful. I have seen a work begin with twenty-five in one city in America, and within a fortnight there were four thousand. May God bring the multitudes in due time. But may God bless you first.

After the doxology had been sung, the services were closed by the General Overseer pronouncing the following

BENEDICTION.

Jehovah, bless thee and keep thee; make His face to shine upon thee, be gracious unto thee; lift up His countenance on thee, and give thee peace.

The grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, abide with you, bless you and keep you, spirit, soul and body, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

EVENING SERVICE.

The services were opened by the congregation singing Hymn Number 23 on the song leaflet:

Look, ye saints, the sight is glorious!
See the "Man of Sorrows" now,
From the fight returned victorious,
Every knee to Him shall bow.

The General Overseer then read from the fourth chapter of St. Matthew, beginning at the twelfth verse.

The congregation then joined in singing Hymn Number 10, after which the General Overseer said:

Prayers Requested for Zion in America.

Before we pray, I will ask you, especially you who are in sympathy with the Christian Catholic Church in Zion throughout the world, to remember that about this time our people are gathering in all parts of America. In America it is about 3 o'clock, and about this time our people gather in very large numbers.

I have sent them a cablegram today telling them of the opening of this Mission, and asking for their united prayers.

I ask you to pray with me for them. I feel like an exile. I feel away from home.

I did not know that I loved my work and people so much, but it filled my heart today to know of their love for me. I could not get over how they parted with me; how they filled the streets; thronged in thousands and wept, men and women and children, as we said goodby. I want to get home again. You are not treating me kindly in London. You are very rude to me, very unkind. But I have come to London to do this work, and I am going to stay until it is done. (Applause.)

I think the so-called Christian press of London might have waited until they had heard from my lips before they criticised. It would have been time to criticise when they had seen the man and knew his work.

I have no other Gospel but this Everlasting Gospel. I have no other Message but that which God has between the two boards of this Bible.

I have been God's child from my seventh year. I have known and loved Him from my seventh year. I think it hard that men calling themselves Christians should denounce me as if I belonged to the Devil.

After a few further remarks the General Overseer offered prayer. Hymn Number 14 was sung, the announcements were made and the offering received.

PREACHING, TEACHING, HEALING.

The General Overseer then delivered the evening address.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, be profitable unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all the coming time, till Jesus come, for His sake.

In the fourth chapter and the twenty-second verse of the Gospel according to St. Matthew we read these words:

TEXT.

And Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people.

When Christ was here on earth His mission was conducted in an orderly manner.

Disorder is devilish, diabolical, and belongs to hell.

Order is the first Law of Heaven: it is Divine.

Christ, our Master, did not conduct His mission in a go-as-you-please and do-as-you-like manner.

The Church of God is founded and is organized in an orderly manner.

Christ's Mission had three distinct branches. He was a Teacher, Preacher and Healer.

His first business was to teach.

He went about teaching in their synagogues.

The next thing was to preach the Gospel of the Kingdom.

Christ's Gospel is the Gospel of the Kingdom.

Mark that word, Kingdom.

It was not the Gospel of the Church. There is no Gospel of the Church. There is no Gospel of the nation, of the republic or of the monarchy.

It is the Gospel of the Kingdom of God.

Christ did not take much notice of the Church.

The word Church does not exist in the Four Gospels except in the Gospel according to St. Matthew.

The only times you will find it are when He spoke to Peter and said: "Thou art Petros (Πέτρος, stone), and upon this rock, petra (πέτρα) (that was the rock of his confession), I will build My Church."

And again, concerning those who had sinned: "Tell it to the Church."

Let us get the real meaning of the word Church.

It is an ecclesia (ἐκκλησία), assembly of believers.

It is not a Gospel of the Church that Christ came to preach.

He came to establish a Kingdom, a Kingdom, A KINGDOM!

The politician tells you to keep your religion out of politics. The business man tells you to keep your religion out of business. The voluptuary tells you to keep your religion out of pleasure.

"Let us have politics, business and pleasure without religion," is their cry.

That is why the world is going to the Devil.

Christ came to establish a Kingdom. He is a King, and His Kingdom extends into everything: to the heart, the home, business, politics, pleasure, and every relation of life.

Christ's Kingdom is Over All, in All, and Through All.

The Gospel is a larger thing than the mere Gospel of an ecclesia, an assembly, whether it is in the stately worship of Rome, the English Church or any other.

There is no Gospel of the Church.

It is the Gospel of the Kingdom.

All Jesus' parables were about the Kingdom of Heaven.

Later there was the magnifying of the Church. The Church idea has been so much magnified that people have forgotten that the Church is simply a gathering of those who are in the Kingdom.

A great many may be in the Kingdom who are not in the Church, and a great many may be in the Church who are not in the Kingdom.

The King preached the Gospel of the Kingdom.

That is why I am preaching the Gospel which a great many people do not like.

It is the Gospel which tells my people what they are to do in business, in politics, and in everything.

We intend to have Zion rule the earth yet.

The saints shall judge the world. Hallelujah! (Hallelujah!)

I believe in carrying the Gospel into everything. That is why Zion is getting blessing.

Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people.

Teaching is the first thing; not preaching.

Preaching is a very small matter.

I am not a preacher. If one of you should say tomorrow, "Dr. Dowie does not preach," you would be right. I do not preach; I teach. Then I preach a little, and then God heals.

The first thing is teaching.

How did He teach? What did He teach?

In the first place, He never read a sermon.

I have been wondering whether anybody in England can preach without a manuscript. The only one I have heard preach without a manuscript is dear John McNeil. I enjoyed hearing him very much, although he does not understand about Divine Healing. There is lots of good in John McNeil.

Where is the teaching capacity?

Christ let teaching come first, preaching second, and healing last.

He taught in the simplest possible way. He taught in such a way that "the common people heard Him gladly."

Lately I have heard some fellows preach, and although I was thoroughly educated and have been a pretty close reader, and know something about a few things, I declare to you that I felt a good deal of sympathy with the old woman who said that she ought to have left her Bible at home and brought a dictionary. (Laughter.)

It seemed to me that the preacher had swallowed a dictionary.

What does this wretched slavery to manuscript mean?

I used to hear Gladstone and Disraeli in the House of Commons in the days when these giants of debate were there. Did they read their speeches? No. They looked the House in the eye, and talked to living men from their hearts. They were full of their subjects.

The teacher must be accurate.

The teacher has a good deal of hard work to do. You know humanity is ignorant.

The great design of the Devil has been by false teaching to lead men astray. Christ's great purpose was to eliminate truth from error, to present truth itself, and to show men by His teaching that the thing that He said was absolutely true.

His preaching was to say, "Receive the truth, and come into the Kingdom of God." Act upon it, and then you will get Salvation, and you will get Healing.

What did He teach?

Christ Taught His Own Divinity.

He said, "I that speak unto thee am He." "Before Abraham was I am."

He taught that He was the Eternal Logos; that all things came into being by means of Him, and that without Him came not into being anything that has come into being.

He said that in Him was Life, and that the Life was the Light of men; that God had created the world through Him; that He was its Creator, its King, its Saviour; that He was the Eternal Son of God.

They said, "We will kill You for that."

They said, "You are not the Christ, You are a blasphemer; You are the son of Joe, the village carpenter, and of Mary. If You say that You were born before he knew her, then You are a bastard."

I have heard a Rabbi hiss the word between his teeth: "I hate him, the bastard of Nazareth!"

He was either a bastard or the Son of God. He was not the Son of Joseph.

He was the Son of God and He said He was. He said, in effect, "I am God."

He said:

I am in the Father, and the Father in Me.
He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father.

That was a pretty daring thing for a man to say, was it not?

"Oh," you say, "but we believe that."

Do you! Would you believe it if He stood here as I stand tonight and said it? You criticise the Jews and are hard upon them because they rejected His Divinity. Would you acccept it if He came down from the lakes in the north of England with a few fishermen to London, and believe He was the Son of God?

If He went into Westminster Abbey today, as He went into the Temple of old, and said, "I am the Son of God," and took a whip of small cords and cast out the hypocrites who had turned God's House into a house of merchandise and a den of thieves, would you believe Him any more than they did nineteen centuries ago?

A Voice—"Yes, but they would not believe a self-made Pope."

General Overseer—Now this impudent man cannot keep back the devil who is in him. He must talk. He cannot keep it back. He must show to everybody what a fool he is. I am no Pope, and I am not a self-made Pope.

My people, who know me better than that vile fellow there, love me, and would die for me.

They would not die for him.

You hold your peace. I do not suffer devils to speak.

You would not do that in Westminster Abbey, you would not do that in Dr. Parker's, and you shall not be allowed to do it here. (Amen. Applause.)

Friends, God's Word says that they who rejected Christ were ignorant. It is just because that man is ignorant that he uttered that scandalous insult just now.

I fight popery in every form.

Obedience to Christ Makes All Else Easy.

This teaching of His own Divinity is the first thing. When that is accepted, that is the basis of everything. Once you have believed that Christ is the Son of God, that the Father dwelt in Him, that the Holy Spirit dwelt in Him with immeasurable power, and that He is Lord of Lords and King of Kings, then everything else is easy, because you obey Him.

I obey Him the best I know how. If I disobey Him, it is not consciously, it is not wilfully.

The next thing that He taught them was that the whole theology of the time was a mass of lies upon many points.

Among these points was this, that evil was the work of God.

The Rabbis had long taught it. The Rabbis are teaching it today.

The churches are teaching today that disease and evil are the will of God, the work of God, even, and that what we have to do is to accept disease as God's will, bow to it, receive it, and get all the blessing there is to be gotten out of it.

He told them that that was a lie.

He taught them that disease was the direct consequence of sin; that sin was the work primarily of the Devil, and that He had come into this world for the purpose of destroying the works of the Devil. (Praise God.)

He taught them that He was going about doing good, and healing, not some, but as Peter said in the house of Cornelius:

God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with Power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil.

He taught them that there was no form of demoniacal possession, and that there was no form of oppression by disease which was the will of God, but that it was the work of the Devil, and that He had come to destroy it.

What good news that was. What glad tidings it was, because they had been taught that they were to say with Job:

The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the Name of the Lord.

They failed to see that when Job said that, Job was blessing God for what the Devil had done. It was the Devil who had destroyed his children, and the great wind from the wilderness was the Devil's work, the Prince of the Power of the Air; and it was the Devil who had stolen his cattle and killed his servants. Job thought it was God, and he blessed God for what the Devil had done.

There are a great many people today who are constantly being taught the same thing: to bless God for the Devil's work.

The Folly of Blessing God for the Devil's Work.

A man goes away and sins. We will say he is a Freemason. He is going through the Blue Lodge. He becomes an Entered Apprentice, a Fellow Craft and a Master Mason.

They have a banquet when they have finished the "work" of the Blue Lodge, and they drink until all is blue. Then he goes home singing, "We won't go home until morning." It is quite unnecessary, for it is morning now. He rolls into the gutter, and tries to make a blanket of the paving stone. The policeman comes along, picks him up and carries him home.

Then he gets sick, and they send for the minister. The minister comes and says it is "the hand of the Lord."

That is a lie. It is the hand of the Devil. If he dies, it is the Devil who killed him, and his own sin in obeying the Devil.

Here is a girl who jumps around and hops about dancing until a late hour. Then she takes ices and wines, and goes home at 4 o'clock in the morning with a cloud over her gentle breast.

She gets a severe cold, and coughs.

She has consumption.

They bring in the minister, who says, "It is the mysterious hand of God."

She dies, and they write upon her tomb, "The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the Name of the Lord."

That is an infernal lie. It was the Devil who took her.

Jesus taught in very plain speech that their diseases were the result of their sins.

Here is a man, for instance, who has a filthy cancer in his throat.

How did he get it? Because he was a dirty stinkpot! He would smoke; the dirty dog! He would chew. He would stink his wife until she just loathed him. He became an offense.

A little while ago a dear old gentleman who was a smoker came to see his little grandchild whom he had never seen. Her mother said, "When your grandfather comes, you are to kiss him."

So she leaped up and kissed grandpa, but she was down on her feet in a minute. No power could ever get her to kiss grandpa again.

At last her mother said, "If you do not kiss grandpa, I will whip you."

So she came up and tried to kiss him, and she jumped away again.

At last grandpa said, "Now, dear, tell me why it is you do not kiss me, I love you so?"

The child said, "Well, Grandpa, I can't kiss you because you stink so."

The dirty old stinkpot!

When he heard that he said, "Thank God, that is a message from a child. I will never smoke again."

Then she always wanted to kiss grandpa.

Some of you dirty dogs wonder your wives do not kiss you! Who would kiss you, you dirty stinkpots?

You go on smoking and you get cancer. Then they try to cut it out. At last you die. They write upon your gravestone, "The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away."

That is a lie.

The Lord Jesus Christ taught that kind of plain talk.

Jesus Taught That Doctors Were of No Account.

Everybody knows that who knows anything. The doctors of His time were like the doctors of our time.

My good Lord, save you from the doctor.

I was educated amongst them at Edinburgh University, and had a narrow escape from being one.

In Christ's day the doctors were just as they are today. The poor woman suffered many things of many physicians, and spent all she had, but was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse.

There is not a doctor living who knows a cure for the plainest disease.

What doctor knows a cure for cancer? Yet you can see a cancer; you can feel a cancer; you can smell a cancer. No cure is known by man for that cancer.

Frederick William, late Emperor of Germany, the father of the present Emperor, died with a cancer in his throat.

The doctors went on cutting him and cutting him. They cut it when it was only a little pimple, but they could not save him.

But there was an old Christian woman named Delia King, who still lives at 1261 Center Street, Oakland, California. At the very time the Emperor was dying of the cancer, she came to me and said, "Doctor, look at my throat." I looked, and I turned away sick.

The cancer had eaten half across her tongue at the roots. It had eaten away one tonsil, and she was left to die.

She said, "What you have taught is true. Place your finger on that cancer and pray, and I will be healed."

She was sixty-nine years of age then. That was in 1888. This is 1900, twelve years later. Delia King is living today, her cancer is gone, and she is praising God. (Praise God.)

Facts are facts. You cannot knock out a fact with your impudent talk about my being a Pope. That will not knock the fact out. The facts are there, and I will knock you out with the facts.

The fact is there. Christ had the facts on His side. He had the facts, and they had the theories. Their theory was that faith in Him was of no account. But the facts remain: the blind received their sight; the deaf heard; the lame walked; the cancer—hold on! I made a mistake about that. Christ never healed a cancer.

The Greek word for cancer is not in the New Testament.

There is no word for cancer in Hebrew at all. Do you know why?

Because the Jews never ate pig. Pig is where cancer comes from.

There is no cancer, and there is no scrofula where there is no swine's flesh eaten.

The Filthiness of Swine's Flesh.

God's Word says:

Their flesh ye shall not eat, and their carcasses ye shall not touch; they are unclean unto you.

When the Lord Jesus Christ wanted to show His contempt for swine's flesh, he answered the prayer of devils, and sent the devils into the pigs. They have never left them. (Laughter.)

It is the dirtiest, filthiest flesh that curses humanity. You think it is clean.

The pigs in America, similar to those you eat in London, eat snakes.

There is an island near Detroit, Michigan, which was full of snakes. They turned in some pigs. Somebody said the snakes would kill the pigs; but, bless your life, it was the pigs that killed the snakes and ate them all. You ate the pigs, perhaps.

Ugh! The filthiness of it!

Jesus never healed a cancer. He never saw one. There was no such thing as cancer in Palestine.

I never knew of an orthodox Jew who had a cancer.

You dirty pig-eaters! How can you eat pig? I was in Belfast, Ireland, the other day. A drove of pigs was being driven in the street. The leg of one pig was running, and the poor pig was very sick. At last it could not go. It lay down and could not get up. They sent for a butcher to have it killed and served up to you in London, full of disease.

Jesus taught very plain things.

His teaching was very effective.

They believed Him and they obtained Salvation and Healing, because they believed that He was the Son of God who could plead with the Father for them; that He was the Saviour of the world, the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world.

These were the three things which Jesus did. He went about teaching, preaching and healing.

All who believe that Jesus Christ is just the same today, stand and tell God. All who believe that Jesus Christ has changed, keep your seats. (With a few exceptions the audience arose.)

Now pray.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. I believe that Jesus is just the same Saviour, Healer, Cleanser and Keeper. For His sake hear my cry. Take away my sin. Help me to do right, to find deliverance through Him, for His sake. Amen. (All standing repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

After the Doxology had been sung, the services were closed by the General Overseer offering the following

PRAYER AND BENEDICTION.

Father, bless this assembly. Bless the assemblies in the week which lies before us Grant unto those who oppose themselves that they may give up their folly, and that they may trust in Thee and relinquish the fighting of God and of His truth, for Jesus' sake. Grant tonight as we go home that we may remember that the Christ who went about all Galilee teaching, preaching and healing is with us still, the same Teacher, Preacher and Healer as ever. For Jesus' sake, bless us. Amen.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

READ THE COMING CITY.

For all matters pertaining to the founding and building of Zion City, there is no source of information, complete and reliable, but THE COMING CITY. The story of Zion City is being and will be told in its pages, both by descriptive articles and by engravings from photographs. The paper also contains much other interesting matter, such as science notes, household suggestions, special articles on matters of interest to Zion people, and the news of the day.

The paper also contains four pages of advertisements, carefully selected, most of the advertisers being Zion people. It is important that every member of Zion should get THE COMING CITY, not only for the valuable information which it will contain, but for these advertisements. By reading them they will learn who are the Zion business men and thus be able to coöperate with each other.

Zion people should be glad to go a little out of their way to trade at a Zion shop. Zion money is thus kept in Zion instead of going to fill the coffers of the world's people, and each feels the influence of the increase in general prosperity.

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

THE COMING CITY will be sent, postpaid, for $1 for the first thirteen numbers. Address subscriptions to

CHEERING WORDS FROM ZION'S GUESTS

NOTES FROM ZION HOME

THE regular Praise and Testimony Meeting held in Zion Home, Saturday evening, October 20, 1900, was conducted by Overseer Piper.

After the usual opening exercises, the States represented were enumerated and found to be eleven in number, as follows:

Arizona, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, Ohio, Tennessee, Washington and Wisconsin.

The following foreign countries were represented:

Canada and Denmark.

The meeting was then thrown open for testimony.

MRS. EMILY KNAPP, Menomonie, Wisconsin, said: "Since I came here God has given me great blessing. I thank God for the strength He has given me. Last night the Devil told me I was a coward and would not dare to try to walk. I got up and I did walk. I never expected to find anything so near heaven as I have found Zion. I believe these are the latter day saints. I am thankful that God gave me the privilege to come to Zion."

MRS. W. M. MCELHINEY, Pontiac, Illinois, thanked God for the blessing she received in Zion during the past week.

ORPHA J. WOODWORTH, Lamoille, Illinois, said: "God has healed me many times of many complaints. I thank God for Zion and for the blessings I have received here."

MRS. H. K. ANDERSON, Lamoille, Illinois, said: "I thank God tonight because He has been using me in His work. I have been working for the Lord as faithfully as I can since I have been in Zion. I never keep LEAVES OF HEALING in my house after I have read it, but give it to some one else to read. The Devil is being stirred up in our town. Pray for us."

E. D. BERGMAN, Glenburg, Ohio, said: "I thank God for the many blessings He has shown me since I came here. God has been very real to me in so many ways."

MISS FLORENCE BOLTON, 16 East Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I wish to say that I have been wonderfully blessed and healed in the last three weeks. I overworked some time ago and my limbs gave away. I could not stand on my feet. The Elders prayed for me and I have received healing. I thank God for what He has done for me."

CHARLES H. DAVIS, Monticello, Indiana, said: "I praise God for the blessing I have received since I came to Zion. About eighteen months ago I was hurt and was unconscious for several hours. The doctors were called and said I would not be able to be out for months. A telegram was sent to Dr. Dowie to pray for me, when I was so bad I could not turn myself in bed. I thank God that He healed me and I was able to be out in ten days."

MISS CLARISSA ANDERSON, Garfield, Washington, said: "God has blessed me many times in the past. He has cared for me, and I expect to love Him and live for Him the rest of my life."

MISS NELLIE CHANDLER, 940 East Johnson Street, Madison, Wisconsin, said: "I thank God for His healing power. Some time ago I was brought here in a dying condition. I was told that I could not get well. I came to Zion Home and, thank God, I was healed and have been well ever since."

MRS. ANNIE BALMER, Pontiac, Illinois, said: "I am sure God is blessing me in a great many ways. Since we have a Gathering at Pontiac I am learning the teaching of Zion and am being greatly blessed. I first came to know of Divine Healing through LEAVES OF HEALING. One of my neighbors gave me the paper. She was at Zion Tabernacle No. 1 and received perfect healing. We are doing good work with LEAVES OF HEALING at Pontiac. I take great pleasure in selling the LEAVES, and God blesses me every day."

MRS. EMMA WILCOX, Phoenix, Arizona, said: "I was converted when I was fifteen years old, and had been trying, by God's Grace, to live a Christian all these years; but through ignorance I have stumbled many times. Three years ago I received LEAVES OF HEALING, and as soon as I consented to read and investigate, I found it contained the truth of God. When I read that Jesus Christ was our Physician and Healer, I believed it. As soon as I saw that He not only died for our sins, but for our sicknesses, I began to trust Him as my Healer. About a year ago I joined Zion. I praise God that I can be among you. I know that this is the people of God. I have received much blessing since I have been in Zion."

DEACONESS MARY B. SPEICHER, Zion Home, said: "I have great reason to praise God for His kindness to me. I have had many blessings during the past week."

ELDER EMMA K. MASON, Zion Home (formerly of Huchow, China), said: "I have certainly been greatly blessed of God. I cannot tell of any wonderful healing, but I feel that I have great reason to praise God for the continued health He gives to me and my family. With the exception of a light attack of the grip last spring, we have been kept in health since we began to trust God as our Healer, and since our little girl buried the last bit of our medicine in China. The most wonderful blessing we have received in Zion is that we have been drawn closer to God."

ERNEST MUDGETT, 1243 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, said: "I praise God tonight for His keeping power. I think it is better to praise God for this than to wait until we are sick and call upon Him to heal us, and then give Him the praise. I thank God for the health He gives to me."

MRS. L. J. KERN, Springfield, Missouri, said: "I praise God for Salvation, and I praise Him for Zion. I had thought I was a Christian for many years, but the Bible has become a new Book to me since I came to Zion. I thought I understood the Bible quite well, but found that I knew nothing about it at all. I praise God for the great light which I have received through Zion. We have had some healings in our town."

ELDER F. A. GRAVES, Zion Home, said: "I remember the story of the little boy's composition on pins. He said they had saved the lives of thousands of people by their not swallowing them. I feel as if I had been saved from many things because I have not swallowed swine's flesh. I noticed last week a gentleman from Minneapolis said that hundreds of hogs were shipped from Southern Minnesota to Chicago that were too sick and weak to walk into the car. I suppose they reached Chicago all right, but they did not come into this house. I am glad my eyes were opened in regard to this thing. I have seen farmers load pigs into the wagon to take them to market when they were too sick to walk. I saw a man feed his hogs blue vitriol and salt. That is what they make pork out of. We do not want any of it in Zion."

N. A. ROBINSON, Westfield, Illinois, said: "I knew nothing of Zion until about two years ago. I had believed that God did heal His people. One day I met a man, who was once our pastor, on the street. He said he had been troubled with hemorrhages, and if he was troubled again he would go to Dr. Dowie. That was the first I heard of Zion. This man sent me a letter which he had received from Dr. Dowie. I was interested at once and wanted to come to Zion, but for some reason the Devil kept me away.

"I had a sore eye, which had been sore for two and one-half years. I became so disgusted with medicine that I threw it away and said, by the Grace of God, I would never touch it again. I came to Zion on a Friday, almost blind, and on Monday morning God blessed and healed me. I thank God for all He has done for me."

ELDER CYRUS B. FOCKLER, Mansfield, Ohio, said: "Elder Graves said they made pork out of blue vitriol and salt in Minnesota. Down around Canton and Mansfield they make it out of slop. A neighbor of ours near Canton has a child who has been sick for some time. I believe it is because they keep the miserable swine. They haul the slop from the city and feed it to the hogs."

E. WARBRITTON, Pontiac, Illinois, said: "I thank God for Zion. I know I am with God's people when I am here."

W. J. MERCHANT, Greenspring, Ohio, said: "I am not a member of this society, but I hope if you give me the privilege to speak a few minutes that I will do no harm. We have been taught that some people must suffer to do others good. Christ suffered for you and me. I suffered all the pangs of Andersonville Prison, during the Civil War. I suffered many things. Somebody was benefited by it. I presume I would not have been here with my invalid wife tonight, only for the way wicked people have treated godly men in Mansfield.

"On the morning of September 14th, I happened to be in Mansfield, visiting an invalid brother of mine. The city apparently was all torn to pieces. I said, 'What is the cause of all this excitement?' He went on to relate some things about the outrages.

"I said, 'Is it possible that two noble, godly men have come into your city and raised such an excitement as this?'

"He handed me LEAVES OF HEALING. I opened up the paper, and there was a photograph of one of the best women I ever knew (except my wife). She is a member of Zion Church. I did not know it at the time. The minute I saw the picture I knew it, as I had been acquainted with her for a number of years. I said to my brother and friends, 'This lady stands as high in the community where she is now as Senator Sherman ever stood in your State.'

"They said, 'Do you believe in this doctrine?'

"I did not say that I believed in the doctrine, but I said, 'I believe that woman just as much as I believe any woman you have in Mansfield. I knew her history.'

"I came home. My wife had been writing to this Zion Home for years, but I must acknowledge she never got much encouragement from me. I said to her, 'Go right to Fostoria and see Mrs. Dicken.'

"She went. She found out every word I said was true. The reason I was so well acquainted with this lady was because her husband and I bunked together in the Rebellion.

"My wife said she was going to Zion Home. I said I would write first, for, perhaps, we might not be welcome. I wrote, and received a grand letter saying, 'Come; we will extend to you a hearty welcome and Christian fellowship. We will do all we can for you.'

"My wife stood the trip well. Since 8 o'clock we have traveled 230 miles, and I know she is enjoying this meeting."

D. C. OWEN OPPERMAN, Lexington, Illinois, said: "I hardly know where to begin when I want to tell what God has done for me. I came out of the Dunkard Church, and I had a hard time to get out. I was so prejudiced against anything that was not Dunkard, that I could hardly see what Zion was. When I did see what Zion was, I saw it was my duty to come into the Church. I began to think what I would have to give up. I thought about my dear mother and brothers and sisters. I thought mother would still be my mother anyway. I thought of the lady whom I loved, and who had promised to be my wife. I knew her position toward Zion. I said, 'By the help of God, I will do what He wants me to do.' I said, 'If You want me to have her to be my wife, send her on.' And He did. Tonight I have the happy pleasure of bringing her application for fellowship in Zion. I have much to thank God for.

"Quite recently I was out in the timber with some of the children. I am a teacher. I got poisoned. It was spreading rapidly over my face. I sent a request for prayer to Overseer Piper and I was healed immediately. I thank God and thank Overseer Piper for his prayers.

"I have paid my tithes to God, and He has given me an increase of salary over last year, and a longer term. I thank God that He answers prayer.

"I have been distributing LEAVES OF HEALING, and one of our neighbors became convinced that it was wrong to use tobacco. He requested me to pray with him that he might be relieved of the habit. My dear wife and I prayed for him and the desire was not so strong. I wrote to Overseer Piper, and in connection with him we prayed, and God answered prayer and the man has been completely delivered. He has been chewing tobacco ever since he was a boy, and he is, perhaps, fifty years old.

"There is a saying, 'To be a Roman is greater than to be a king.' I feel that way about Zion. To be a Zion man is greater than to be a king. I thank God for just a little Zion backbone."

FRANK L. STEWART, Osseo, Michigan, said: "Two years ago I would have thought it impossible and altogether out of order to be found with Zion people. I am now a member of Zion, having sent in my application a few weeks ago.

"I was interested in the cartoon on 'Some of the Ways in Which Swine's Flesh is Fattened,' in a recent number of LEAVES OF HEALING. There was a dead horse lying by the side of the road the other day. When the man was asked why he did not take it away, he said he thought he would leave it there for a few days and the hogs would eat it up. When I saw the cartoon I thought I could use it up there to advantage.

"I first heard of Zion through a brother who attended school here last year. I studied the teaching carefully. I took up the Baptism question, I took up the Divine Healing question, and I found they agreed with the teaching of the Bible. I have studied the Bible more in one year than I had in fifteen years while I was a member of the Methodist Church.

"I thank God that I have gotton out of a narrow Church and have accepted the teaching of Zion."

DEACONESS ROBBINS, Zion Home, said: "I praise God that I am permitted to be in Zion. I seem to get more strength from every meeting I attend. I was away for a few weeks and when I came back and went into the officers' meeting, it seemed that it was the best meeting I ever attended.

"It does take a good deal of backbone to come out and leave all your friends. I left all of mine. For a long time I did not feel that I could ask God to bring my sons into Zion, as they are so opposed to the teaching, but I have received a great deal of help from the thirty-seventh Psalm, which says: 'Delight thyself also in the Lord; and He shall give thee the desires of thine heart.' I expect Him to fulfil this promise."

The meeting was closed by the benediction.

REV. F. A. GRAVES, SUPERINTENDENT.

PREPARE thy work without,
And make it ready for thee in the field;
And afterwards build thine house.—Proverbs 24:27.

THIS is a very good picture of Western prairie life. The farmer buys a farm on which there is neither house nor barn; not a tree, nor a foot of it plowed.

He immediately plows or "breaks" the land, and then later builds his house.

He lives meantime in a hole dug in the ground, or puts up a few boards for a shelter for himself and his horses.

Thus he is preparing for a house and a home. How patiently he toils during these months of preparation!

I see the children with their books and pencils under their arms going to school, and I wonder if they realize that these are their preparation days.

Do you realize how important are these preparation days? You are learning to read and write and count money; learning the geography of the world; fitting yourselves for positions in life.

How necessary it is that a thorough preparation be made for the work of life!

The athlete trains many months for a contest which lasts but a single hour.

You are preparing for a work of years, if God spares your life.

A mathematician once said: "If I have a problem to solve, and only two minutes to do it in, I take one minute and a half to study it, and a half minute to express it."

Three times as long to prepare as to execute.

Jesus Christ, when upon earth, spent thirty years in preparing for His life of public work of three and one-half years.

Let us never lose sight of the value of preparation.

So perfect was the preparation in the building of Solomon's Temple, that when it was put together there was neither sound of hammer nor ax nor any tool.

Notice what God thinks of preparation. Find the book in the Bible which reads that God—

Prepared a fish;
Prepared a gourd;
Prepared a worm;
Prepared an east wind.

In Psalm 9:7 you find:

But the Lord sitteth as King forever:
He hath prepared His Throne for judgment.

In Psalm 147:8:

Who covereth the heaven with clouds,
Who prepareth rain for the earth,
Who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

Think of the preparation God has made for us.

Things which eye saw not, and ear heard not,
And which entered not into the heart of man,
Whatsoever things God prepared for them that love Him.—1 Corinthians 2:9.

Jesus said, "I go to prepare a place for you."

Thus in these verses we see that God values preparation.

Juniors! Are you preparing your hearts and minds and bodies for the work of God in the future?

Prepare your hearts by giving them to God, praying, "Create in me a clean heart, O God," and thinking of pure things.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Prepare your minds by reading only good books and good papers. Do not read the trashy "novel" or the lustful so-called "love stories" in the daily papers. They are chaff, and not food for your brain. Turn away from them every time. Many of them are written by impure men and women, with no good principle at all. They unfit your mind for good, healthy reading matter.

Prepare your bodies by eating healthful food. Do not eat the swine's flesh which God has forbidden us to eat.

Do not let any of your pennies find their way into the money drawer of the tobacco and gum-seller. Chewing gum injures the stomach. The pepsin in it is made from the stomach of a hog, many times.

Chewing gum injures the eyes. Say with the little boy:

I do not choose to use it,
If I did use to chew it.

Paul said, "Keep thyself pure."

We should prepare these bodies for God by keeping them clean by frequent bathing; "having your bodies washed with pure water."

Thus with Heart, Mind and Body healthy and clean, your business is to grow to be men and women and take your place in the work of God which is saving humanity from the power of the Devil.

I close with the words of Amos, "Prepare to meet thy God."—Amos 4:12.

Arithmetical Problem.

(CORRECTION.—This "Problem" was in the issue of LEAVES OF HEALING of Volume VII, Number 26, but was incorrect.—F. A. G.)

Take the number of plagues God permitted to come upon the Egyptians through Pharaoh; multiply by the number of days that the Egyptians mourned for Jacob; divide by the number of rank ears of corn in Pharaoh's dream; subtract the number of measures of barley that Boaz gave to Ruth; add the number of cheeses which David was commanded to take to a captain; multiply by the number of sons of Jesse who passed before Samuel before David came from the field; divide by the number of times Elijah's servant went and looked toward the sea for rain; add the number of times Eternity is mentioned in the Bible; divide by the number of the chapter in Matthew containing the "Beatitudes"; add the number of talents of gold that the Queen of Sheba gave to Solomon; subtract the number of maidens that King Ahasuerus gave to Queen Esther; subtract the number of sons of Zebedee who were chosen apostles; divide by the number of Job's daughters before he was afflicted; add the age of Joshua at his death; add number of years the children of Israel wandered in the wilderness, also the number of days Lazarus lay in the grave; divide by the number of days the fish gave Jonah free transportation, and you will have the number of books in the Bible.

ZION AHEAD IN MANSFIELD.

Elder Bouck and Deacon Kessler Sent Out of the City, But Meetings Are Held. Habeas Corpus Refused, But Freedom Given.

Mansfield, Ohio.
Rev. Cyrus B. Fockler, Elder-in-Charge.

LORD'S DAY, October 28, 1900, was another day of disgrace for Mansfield officials, another day of victory for Zion. Although two officers of the Church were illegally arrested by the Masonic official mob and deported from the city in defiance of law, order and their constitutional right, yet Zion succeeded in holding meetings during the week and a meeting on Lord's Day afternoon.

Deacon Kessler entered the city on Lord's Day morning at 5:40, going by train from Crestline. He was met at the train by the police and arrested at once and held in the railway station until the next train, when he was sent back to Crestline.

As his services were needed in Chicago, in connection with THE COMING CITY, Overseer Piper wired him to come home.

Elder R. M. Bouck, of Cleveland, Ohio, held a meeting on Lord's Day afternoon at the residence of E. H. Leiby, a member of Zion.

The police did not discover the fact until the meeting was under way.

They then tried to break up the meeting, but Elder Bouck and the members of Zion kept the doors locked until the meeting was over.

Elder Bouck was then arrested and, surrounded and followed by a jeering crowd, was dragged to the station.

He was put aboard the 2:30 P. M. eastbound train, but attempted to get off, so that the police were obliged to hold him in the seat until the train started. He warned them that even if they did send him out of the city, he would return.

The following telegram tells the story in brief:

MANSFIELD, OHIO, October 28, 1900.

WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER,
1201 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.
Kessler not permitted to hold meetings.
Returned.
Bouck did hold services at Leiby's home.
On adjournment arrested by police and sent to Ashland.
A. A. DOUGLASS.

On Wednesday, October 24th, the hearing on the writ of habeas corpus under which Deacon Kessler was being held came up before Judge Campbell. The Court gave the Deacon the right to come and go as he chose, but did not grant the writ outright.

Mayor Brown's attorney argued that Deacon Kessler had not been under arrest, but was simply in the custody of the officers for protection, although he had absolutely refused to accompany the police unless arrested.

The Court accepted this illogical construction of the case and compromised the entire matter by refusing the writ and giving Deacon Kessler his liberty.

Notwithstanding this flagrant "straddling" of the issue by Judge Campbell, the decision is regarded in Mansfield generally as a victory for Zion.

Deacon Kessler spent Wednesday in Mansfield without molestation, and on Wednesday evening, by Overseer Piper's orders, proceeded to Crestline, the hotels of Mansfield refusing him accommodation.

Realizing that the crucial test of the plan would come on Lord's Day, October 28th, Overseer Piper sent the following telegram to both President McKinley, who was at Canton, Ohio, a few miles away, and Governor Nash, at Columbus, Ohio:

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, October 24, 1900.

Time and time again we have appealed, during the last two months, to the local, State and national authorities in behalf of Christian citizens, who have been outraged in the City of Mansfield, Ohio.

A Republican Mayor, Republican Sheriff, Republican Governor and Republican President have turned a deaf ear, have refused to render relief, and have allowed lawless mobs and still more lawless officials in Mansfield to heap indignities upon Christian gentlemen in that city which would easily rival in their horror the outrages of Chinese Boxers.

During this time, five gentlemen, ministers of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, against whom there was not a single charge of having broken a single statute of the State of Ohio, have been marched, wholly or partially naked, through the streets of Mansfield.

Scores of times have our ministers been illegally arrested by lawless officials.

Many times have religious meetings been broken up by these same officials, even at times when there was no mob in sight. On Lord's Day, 14th instant, while Deacon Homer Kessler was conducting Divine services in the home of Frank Calver, one of our members, a police officer took the Bible from which he was reading out of his hands, and, without any warrant, took him out of the place of worship, and sent him out of the city on the next train.

Every Lord's Day, for nearly three months, have one or more of the homes of our members in Mansfield been carefully watched by police officers, some of them ransacked from top to bottom, to see whether they might not find a minister of the Christian Catholic Church in hiding.

On one occasion, recently, a mob two hundred strong went as far as four miles into the country, and searched the home of one of our members for the same purpose.

A month ago we were about to seek relief through a habeas corpus writ. This was deceitfully interpreted to the public and mob by the Mayor and his attorney as tying their hands. But every one knows that it would have only hindered them in illegally arresting our men and in no way prevented their giving proper protection to us.

The mob was turned on, and, consequently, two of our ministers were horribly outraged the following Lord's Day, their bodies completely covered with roof tar, their hair and beards filled with the same filthy article, and marched, nearly naked, through the streets of Mansfield, in broad daylight.

The following day, two leaders of the mob hired a rig and drove up and down the streets of Mansfield, bowing as politicians, to the right and left, the heroes of the hour; this in the very presence of the Mayor, who made no pretense of arrest, but, as I have been informed, laughed at the sight.

On the 17th instant we applied for writ of habeas corpus on Homer Kessler. Judge Campbell has just this day dismissed the case and said that Deacon Kessler can go where he pleases.

I immediately send you this message, knowing how desperate the mob has become under the encouragement of the Mayor, and ask your protection for this citizen, Homer Kessler, knowing that unless State or national authorities, or both, step in, that horrible indignities will be heaped upon him, and that he may even suffer death.

I have not the slightest doubt that Mayor Brown and his illegal adviser, Attorney Seward, unless too fearful of public sentiment, which I am glad to say has been rapidly growing in favor of civil and religious liberty, even in Mansfield, in order to make it appear that their illegal arrests and deportations of our Elders have been in some sense justifiable, will say to the mob what I have heard they said before, "Now our hands are tied, you must help us out by mobbing this man."

Permit me to say to you that we as a Church believe in the Divinity of Jesus Christ, and that only through Him shall we obtain Salvation from sin.

We also believe that we are right, eternally right, in boldly contending for our right to preach this Gospel in Mansfield, Ohio. While we should deeply deplore the loss of the life of any one of our men, yet we have scores of ministers and thousands of members who are determined that this Gospel shall be preached in Mansfield and everywhere as we have opportunity throughout the world, no matter how many of us lose our lives in the effort.

The charge has been made by some in high civil position that in our effort to preach in Mansfield, we are seeking cheap notoriety. I would like to ask how many in official capacity would be willing to pay the price that our Elders have paid for this so-called cheap notoriety.

Any action that will be taken to protect the life of this man of God must be taken instantly.

To say that you cannot act until Mayor Brown appeals to you, is to say to the mob, "Murder the man."

President Cleveland did not wait until the Mayor of Chicago appealed to him, but acted without his appeal and against his wish. All America knows that you can act similarly in this case, if you will.

As an evidence that Mayor Brown and Attorney Seward are in fullest sympathy with the mobbing of our ministers, I cite you the fact that our ministers, who have committed no breach of law, have been hounded by Mayor and police officers for the past three months, illegally arrested and illegally deported, and not one single member of the mob has been arrested.

The Mansfield papers say that last Thursday night, after we had applied for the habeas corpus writ, the mob formed under the very eyes of the police, marched through the streets of Mansfield, demanded entrance and ransacked half a dozen homes of our people in search of ministers of the Christian Catholic Church.

No legal action has been taken by the Mayor or police to bring the leaders of these riotous proceedings to justice.

It has further been suggested by the Mansfield Shield that we were probably holding services secretly in Mansfield, after the manner of the early Christians at Rome; and although we claim to be following in the footsteps of the primitive Church in the Gospel that we preach, yet we have not expected that we should find in Free America a Nero in a Mayor's chair.

Mansfield papers have said that the Dowie Elders will now have to take care of themselves, which simply means the mob will be allowed to heap further indignities upon our men.

In conclusion, as a citizen of the United States of America, standing upon the glorious principles upon which our Government is founded, I appeal to you for the protection of this Christian gentleman, Homer Kessler, who is also a citizen of the United States; that you put such powers into action as will protect his body and save his life, and thus save the city, State and Nation from the awful blot of allowing a man to be murdered because he persisted in his rights to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ, a right vouchsafed to him by the laws of the State of Ohio and the Constitution of the United States of America.

WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

On the day after they received these telegrams both of these gentlemen, as well as many others high in national and State official station, were in Mansfield at the funeral of the late John Sherman, ex-Secretary of State.

The story of continued official outrage, which occurred on October 28th, shows how they deliberately ignored their sworn duty.

On Tuesday, October 23d, the Rev. Rolland N. Bouck, Elder-in-Charge of the Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in Cleveland, Ohio, obeying orders from Headquarters, had proceeded to Mansfield and registered at the Vonhof Hotel. He was not recognized as an Elder of the Christian Catholic Church, and on Thursday, the 25th inst., succeeded in holding a meeting with members and friends of Zion in the home of one of the members.

Later he was suspected and questioned by one of the Mansfield police, who evidently had not seen the Deacon, as to whether he were Deacon Kessler. He replied that he was not, and was allowed to go on.

While still in jail at Mansfield, Deacon Kessler wrote the following interesting account of his work for God, in that prison:

This afternoon I sang and prayed with the three other prisoners with their consent. One of them is one of the rioters who was arrested yesterday morning for being with the crowd which tried to go through a house Thursday night, looking for Elders.

He said he was glad that he got arrested and that he got to see an "Elder."

He seemed glad to know that I had prayed with him.

The Deputy Sheriff listened very attentively the other evening when I was talking to him and the two prisoners about Zion, our belief and what the Scriptures teach concerning same.

I had brought a number of small tracts, "He is Just the Same Today," "How I Came to Speak for Jesus" and "Satan the Defiler," and have been able to make good use of them.

All the officers of the Church who have been at Mansfield say that words cannot describe the devilish bitterness and malignity of the Mansfield official Masonic mob and its sympathizers.

The following letters, written to Elder Cyrus B. Fockler by a man and wife, members of the Christian Catholic Church in Mansfield, show something of the persecution to which honest, upright, clean, peaceable, taxpaying citizens of Mansfield have been subjected:

MANSFIELD, OHIO, October 20, 1900.

I would like to have you find out what kind of a place Waukegan, Illinois, is.

Let me know if there are any other small towns near Zion City where I can go till Zion City gets under headway.

I am completely sick of this thing.

I do not want to loaf all winter.

It has been awful all this week. The mob was at our house Thursday night at 11:30 o'clock, but they did not go through. I just stepped to the door and opened it and told them all if they went through my house they must abide by the consequences.

Two of them came into the sitting-room.

I told the one, "You know what I told you."

He would not go any further.

He said, "I will fool the mob."

He stood there, and you ought to hear him apologize to me.

—. —. —.

MANSFIELD, OHIO, October 19, 1900.

We are all feeling blue just now. We hate to go to bed for fear we shall be aroused soon.

Last night the mob made the rounds. They were at our house.

There were only two whom we knew who would come up to the light.

They came in and we locked the door after them. One of them sat talking to me, listening to me telling him of our healing, while the other was making apologies for being in the mob. He went to the stairway and would not go any further.

He stepped into the kitchen without any light and stood there a few minutes.

Then he went out.

The house was surrounded and the mob was yelling for the men to go through.

One of them told us that our near neighbors were watching us and giving the mob information.

One of our neighbors said this morning that he would see that we "caught it" yet.

Mr. —— told Sheriff Pulver about what the man said, and the Sheriff laughed in his face.

We are all half sick today over it.

We want to sell out and leave Mansfield until Zion City is built.

They are trying very hard to get Brother —— out of his job. Two different mobs went through his house last night.

I am glad I can go to the cornfields some days so we cannot see the deceitful ways of the Mansfield officials and mob.

Some of the people who wanted to be our warm friends now look us in the face and laugh.

If you were here now, you could see the real "old fellow" himself.

We hope and pray that God will not permit any more mobs to do as they want to.

Pray for us that we may keep close to God and live better lives every day.

—. —. —.

It will be noted that these outrages have been committed with the full knowledge and, therefore, consent of the city and county officials in that disgraced town.

Corning, Iowa.

Rev. Charles A. Hoy, Elder-in-Charge of Zion's work in Auburn and Falls City, Nebraska, held a mission recently in Corning, Iowa, concerning which he writes:

I just closed a four days' service with members and friends of Zion in Corning, Iowa, as planned by Overseer Piper.

They had rented the Opera House for four nights.

It was virgin soil for Zion, but great interest was manifested in the doctrines and institutions as I set them forth. The Devil had been busy lying about Zion, which brought out good audiences each night, who sought to learn the truth.

Many remained at the close of each service to learn further concerning Zion.

The power of the Holy Spirit was present with special blessing at afternoon meetings.

Many friends were made for Zion.

One man promised to give up tobacco and to quit raising and using pork.

Three were baptized by Triune Immersion and united with the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Western Kansas.

Rev. David A. Reed, Elder-in-Charge. Evangelist Mary A. Reed, Assisting.

Elder and Evangelist Reed send in the following excellent report of their work for God in Zion on the broad prairies of the western portion of the "Sunflower State":

We praise God for His blessings upon Zion in Western Kansas and some parts of Colorado where we were called.

We held twelve services, baptized ten and received seven applications for membership at a place fourteen miles west of Lamar, Colorado.

Brother Cook and wife came into Zion about one year ago, and now they have twenty-seven members and seventeen volunteers as members of Zion's Seventies. While the denominations have been busy getting up carnivals, old maids' conventions and fighting Zion, the work of Zion has marched steadily forward.

They spend their spare time distributing Zion Literature and talking about God's work.

A baby was brought into the meeting sick and seemingly dying. God answered prayer and instantly and perfectly healed the little one when it seemed dead.

A man suffering from blood-poisoning caused by tobacco and pork received "Zion's Protest Against Swine's Flesh" and LEAVES OF HEALING. He gave up both tobacco and pork and was healed.

We gathered a crowd in Lamar one afternoon and spoke to them in the Presbyterian Church. We were called to visit many sick and sold a large number of LEAVES OF HEALING and THE COMING CITY. Several made application for fellowship. A man met us on the street who had been looking for us for some time. He was suffering from smoker's cancer.

We told him what to do. He said, "I will do what you tell me."

He repented, turned to God and promised to stop drinking whisky.

We prayed for him, and the next morning he came to see us at the depot—rejoicing that he had slept better and felt better than for a long time.

A great work can be done for God in Lamar. It seemed the harvest was ripe.

We came to Fort Dodge and found our Zion people had been forbidden to hold meetings because we had hit the Masonic idols.

We praise God for healing our boy Willie of a bad dog bite.

His arm had turned green.

We took it to the Father and it never felt sore.

He was also quickly healed of the effects of running a rusty nail into his foot.

We have many things to keep us rejoicing in God.

Our hearts go out to God for our dear Elders who go to Mansfield. All Zion in Kansas and Colorado is praying for them.

We thank God for the love in Zion. When one suffers, we all suffer, and we all rejoice together.

God bless all Zion and our beloved General Overseer in the Old World.

ZION TABERNACLE, HOISINGTON, KANSAS.

Sistersville, West Virginia.

Deacon W. B. Kindle, of Kalamazoo, Michigan, and Mr. W. C. Suitt, of Cambridge, Ohio, two "knights of the grip," or traveling salesmen, and loyal, earnest members of and workers in Zion, have held several meetings with friends of Zion as they have gone about the country, busy at their occupation.

God has greatly blessed the testimony and teaching of these two practical, hard-headed, plain-spoken business men, and many have found their way to Jesus, their Saviour, Healer, Cleanser and Keeper. Writing of a recent visit to Sistersville, West Virginia, Mr. Suitt writes:

October 8, 1900.

Zion in Sistersville, West Virginia, is going forward.

Deacon Kindle and myself had the pleasure of being with our people there last Friday, October 5th.

It was a joy to us to see how loyal they are to God and to Zion.

We conducted services, the Deacon baptized four in the Ohio River, and in the evening he administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The service was full of spiritual power. While we were holding the baptismal service, about fifty persons gathered at the bank of the river and heard the Deacon deliver the charge to the candidates.

We cannot but feel that these people were deeply impressed. We pray that they may be brought to see their duty to God.

We had a blessed service and have reason to feel grateful to the friends for the royal manner in which we were entertained.

Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Rev. James R. Adams, Elder-in-Charge.

The following bright testimonies and account of victories in God's work in Grand Rapids have been sent us by Elder Adams:

At one of our meetings last month a lady requested prayer and laying on of hands for healing of rheumatism in her arm and shoulder.

I have received the following letter from her:

"HARRIETTA, MICHIGAN,
October 18, 1900.

"REV. JAMES R. ADAMS.

"Dear Brother in Christ:—I write to tell you I have had no more trouble with my arm since the evening you prayed with me.

"I thank you for your prayers and praise the blessed Lord that He hears and answers prayer . . . as He has so many times.

"Your Sister in Jesus' Name,
"(MRS.) S. J. DOTY."

I have also received the following from a stranger who attended our meetings:

"HOWARD CITY, MICHIGAN, August 23, 1900.

"REV. JAMES R. ADAMS.

"Reverend and Dear Sir:—I am the man who called at your house of worship, corner of Lyon and Division Streets, last Sunday, asking help for total deafness.

"I have endeavored to put into effect instructions and note improvement.

"I believe the Lord will cure me through Zion. My case is beyond all human help.

"I will hire the biggest hall in town for you any time you wish to lecture here.

"I wish to add that I had been addicted to tobacco for years, chewing and smoking during all waking hours and part of the time in sleep.

"I also drank moderately.

"Since reading Zion Literature I have quit absolutely. I made no resolve or sacrifice. I just quit.

"The appetite seems to have left me.

"I did not know I had reformed until I happened to think I had not touched tobacco or liquor since seeing you. I did not think I could live one whole day without it.

"I write to earnestly beg your prayers on my behalf.

"W. A. MURRAY."

When Deacon Sloan was here the Mayor, who wears the star, crescent and scimiter of the Mystic Shrine, refused me permission to carry a banner on the streets announcing the stereopticon views. The police ran it off the streets.

Mayor Perry told me my only recourse was to appeal to the City Council.

After appealing to Higher Counsel, I determined, by Divine help, to get my banner out and keep it there in spite of Mayor and police. So I prepared one, giving notice of our meetings.

We took it to the street meetings on Saturday evening. Many read it and remained to listen to our preaching. The police looked and passed on.

At 10:30 P. M. we went home in triumph, singing, "We will triumph in Thy Salvation. In the Name of our God we have set up our banners."

The next week we had our banner out nearly two hours without interference.

We thank God and Go Forward, for "His Banner over us is Love."

Vancouver, British Columbia.

Rev. R. M. Simmons, Elder-in-Charge.

Whenever the Devil is seriously hurt by the fight made against him, he howls with rage and pain. Zion has severely wounded him in several places at once and the howling is going up from various points of the battlefield; from London, England, in the East, to far-away British Columbia, across an Ocean and a Continent, in the West.

Zion records a victory for every howl, hence, although we regret that the Devil has so deceived so many people in Vancouver, it is with thanksgiving and praise to God that we record the following:

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA, October 25, 1900.

REV. WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER,
1201 Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

Big excitement.
Zion wagon egged.
Followed by thousands.
Police protected.
Refused permission preaching street.
Zion victorious.

R. M. SIMMONS.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Rev. Gideon Hammond, Elder-in-Charge. Deacon C. F. Kelchner, Assisting.

Elder Hammond reports much blessing during the summer in Zion's work for God in Philadelphia. He also praises God for the Zion Junior School which has been opened at Zion Tabernacle in that city, and for the good work which is being done there.

He sends us the following interesting testimony:

2924 NORTH TWELFTH STREET,
PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, October 13, 1900.

I am eighty-one years of age and came into the Christian Catholic Church a year ago last June.

I joined the Baptist Church at the age of twelve, and later on, the Presbyterian Church.

While I received much teaching and blessing in these churches, yet I find in Zion a fulness of teaching which was lacking there. It is so thoroughly scriptural that I cannot see why it should be so generally ignored in the other churches.

I am heartily glad I am in Zion, and see no other Church which I could endorse, because of the worldly manner in which they are conducted, and the lack of teaching the Full Gospel taught by Christ, for spirit, soul and body.

God is very good to me and I am looking to Him "to renew my youth like the eagle's," according to His promise.

I am quite overcome with the thought of His protecting and healing power, when I think of the recent past.

On June 25, 1900, I did what I have never been known to do before in my life.

I arose at night, in sleep, and walked to the end of the hall, fell the entire length of the stairs and landed in the kitchen. I see no explanation for this, other than it was the Devil's work.

My son was to hold a baptismal service the following Sunday, and I was thinking about being baptized by Triune Immersion.

I had not fully decided the question and the Devil took advantage of my hesitancy, and settled it for the time being.

I have since been baptized and now see, as I never did before, that Triune Immersion is the Scriptural Baptism.

Aside from severe bruises, I was uninjured and am perfectly well today.

One of these bruises, which was in the calf of the leg, developed into a large corrupted cone-shaped sore. The flesh rotted away, leaving a hole the size of a half dollar at the surface and as large as a dime at the bone. It looked very ugly and as if it might be mortifying. This has entirely healed.

All we did was to keep it cleansed with pure warm water and definitely pray to God to heal, for He has promised to heal all our diseases.

I am glad I am in Zion.

I am glad that my son (Elder Gideon Hammond) is preaching the Full Gospel of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living.

How much I wish that the instruction which I have had in the last two years I had gotten seventy-five years ago.

I hope to make much use of the remaining days, so that my life may be fruitful even in old age.

Faithfully yours in Jesus' Name, MARY G. HAMMOND.

OVERSEER MASON'S VISIT TO NEW YORK STATE, NEW ENGLAND AND PENNSYLVANIA.

The ordinance of Triune Immersion will be administered where there are candidates.

There will be teaching on God's Way of Healing, and prayer with the sick.

Let all the Friends of Zion notify friends in neighboring towns. Let all be much in prayer, that the meetings may glorify God.

REV. W. H. PIPER:

Dear Overseer:—I know that you will rejoice with Zion in Cambridge to know that my brother Howard has been so wonderfully delivered from what we thought to be a bad case of typhoid fever.

When I sent the request for prayer to you, on Friday, he was very sick. He had high pulse and fever raging.

On Saturday morning he was too weak to rise, but right after dinner he seemed to get better all at once. He got up and dressed, and is perfectly well.

We praise God for Zion and Zion's God who delivers His children.

Your Brother in Christ, W. C. SUITT.

YEA, LOOKING unto the promises of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but waxed strong through faith, giving glory to God.—Romans 4:20.

WHEN life's trials and difficulties roll like billows around God's people, how the Devil loves to get their eyes fixed on the trials instead of on the promises. He knows that this is the way to cause their faith to waver through unbelief.

The Bible tells of many wonderful things which God did for His people in ancient times. Today He is just as willing to do wonderful things for those who trust Him.

The works which He does for His people are always according to their faith. Jesus could do no mighty works where there was unbelief.

But nothing is impossible for God to do for the people who have unwavering faith. He rebuked the Israelites because they limited Him through their unbelief. He speaks of this as one of their sins. Faith grows through use, as seed grows when it is placed in the ground.

Our faith may be small as the tiny mustard seed, but it must be perfect without a particle of doubt in it in order to bring forth fruit to the glory of God.

Those who believe that God sends sickness to make people better cannot pray with perfect faith, for they cannot be sure that God desires to heal the sick.

Zion Literature goes forth to save the world, teaching that which shall enable them to have unwavering faith in God's promises.

It sends out the testimonies of those who have not wavered at the promises through unbelief and have grown strong and well, and have given glory to God because He has honored their faith.

Leaves of Healing Brings Blessing to Soldiers in South Africa.

The following letter is from a gentleman in South Africa. He writes:

Thank you for LEAVES OF HEALING and the tracts which reached me on Saturday.

My wife and I used to take LEAVES to the Soldiers' Home, but we were told by those in charge, one evening, that it must not be distributed there again.

However, it had by this time done its work.

Thank God for LEAVES OF HEALING!

It speaks to those who desire the truth.

I asked some of the soldiers to come to the house where I stay that we might have a talk, and so that I might tell them why LEAVES was forbidden the Home.

It was beautiful to see how they received the truth.

I advised them to start a Zion Gathering, for I see quite plainly the whole truth will be received nowhere outside of Zion.

Little wonder that Satan attacks Zion, for Zion alone is at war with the world.

The Zion tracts and LEAVES have gone up to the Fort, or camp, where they will do good service.

The enclosed letter is from one of the men who came to see us. It speaks for itself.

These men have gone through the bloody battles of Spion Kop, Kranz, Kloof and Pieters under cover of the Ninety-first Psalm.

They fervently thank God they have ever come across LEAVES OF HEALING.

I know you will pray for them.

I am glad to know the prayers of Zion go out to us here. We constantly pray for Zion.

The letter which follows was written to the writer of the above letter by one of the party of soldiers who met at this house to talk about Zion and the teaching:

DEAR BROTHER AND SISTER:—I feel so drawn this morning to put on record God's love to me in answering your prayers.

You know that just before leaving your house I asked you to pray for me, as I had a very sore leg. Every time my leg went forward it was very painful, and I was obliged to lean on a stick.

You remember my saying, as I sat on the chair, how uncomfortable I was, and you changed seats with me.

I felt a little more at ease after changing, and I heard you speak with great joy.

I am glad to tell you how profitable the little talk was.

That Dr. Dowie claims to be Elijah astonished me as something extraordinary. I believe it for the very work's sake which God does through him.

Praise God that He has given me a life to live in these latter days.

God will bring His Church, Zion, through all her battles with the hosts of hell.

I know it will be for God's glory to tell what He did for me last night.

As soon as we got up off our knees and went outside, I was so thrilled through that I did not feel any pain caused by walking. I walked with freedom. I could not do that before prayer was offered to God for me.

After I got a little way up the road, I thought I would come back and tell you that all soreness had gone, but I would not have had time to get to camp.

I was so given up to prayer that I hope I did not seem to be rude, but I was determined to have an answer to the prayer, and it came.

It has sent my faith up with leaps and bounds.

I am very thankful to God.

The Devil tried to tell me this morning that the soreness was not gone, but that I only thought it was made better, and when I had any walking to do it would be as sore as ever.

O, what a rush I made to God, and how the lie was flung back into the Devil's teeth by my Father.

I was sent into Commercial Road on duty, and you know what a long walk it is from where I stop.

I got the victory through God. I walked with ease and staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving Glory to God (Romans 4:20).

Yours in One who saves and heals and cleanses, ERNEST COX.

A Doctor's Opinion of Pork.

Extract from a letter from Delaware County, Ohio:

I talked with a doctor about pork.

He said he did not think it was fit to eat, but that he ate some because they are not handy to a meat market.

He said that he did not advise people to eat it, but always told his patients not to eat it while under treatment.

By REV. W. F. MATTHEWS, M. A., B. D., Principal Preparatory Department.

All thy children shall be taught of the Lord.

And He taught me, and said unto me
Let thine heart retain My words:
Keep My commandments and live.

I have taught thee in the way of wisdom;
I have led thee in paths of uprightness.

O God, Thou hast taught me from my youth.

If so be that ye heard Him, and were taught by Him, even as the truth is in Jesus.

For He taught as having authority.

And as for you, the anointing which ye received of Him abideth in you, and ye need not that any one teach you; but as His anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, abide ye in Him.

In such words we have promises and precepts from the Great Teacher whom we wish to be supreme in all the teaching of Zion Schools.

For all our pupils we desire that anointing from Him which teaches concerning all things, and is true and is necessary first of all before any human teaching can be of full value or good result. "Abide ye in Him."

In all our work let all our effort be to keep our Divine Master and Teacher before us and, abiding in Him, learn of Him daily as He offers us His truth.

The endeavor in Zion Schools is to have all the children of Zion taught of God first of all, and then to give them thorough training in the various branches of learning which will make them strong and useful men and women, able to use their God-given capacities and abilities to the best advantage and for the good of their fellowmen. Each one is to be made to feel that every one has his own work which he can do better than any one else. "To every man his work."

Therefore must every one watch in order to find and do that work. The Master has left this charge to every one. Zion should, under God, help every man to find his own work, and then teach him how to do it.

The enrollment in the College and Preparatory Departments now is 111, and new students are continually coming in.

This number of students represents at least twenty different nationalities, and more than that number of States of the Union.

More than one hundred earnest students now have seats in a body in the former Zion Hall of Seventies, which is now becoming more and more fully Zion College and Preparatory School. The chairs for the Seventies are being taken out to make room for desks for pupils. At the present rate soon all the room will be needed for the students in order that there may be a place where all can be gathered together in a body.

Here all the students gather every morning for opening devotional exercises to begin the day aright and to ask God's blessing upon all the work of the day—an ever increasing band of chosen ones to be fitted for the Master's work.

Overseer Piper has arranged for a number of special lectures to be given the students together, on topics of interest and value, by prominent members of Zion. These will be given on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will be open to all friends of the educational work in Zion.

Dr. Speicher gave the first of these in Physiology and Hygiene, which was full of interest and value.

Among the first of this course will be an address on Banks and Banking, by Deacon Barnard, wherein he will speak from long experience in the business and give information which must be of interest and value to all.

This will be followed by addresses from Dr. Sayrs, Mr. Packard and others on successive Thursdays.

The Bible Study hour under Overseer Piper, on Mondays and Wednesdays, continues to be interesting and profitable. Some rather knotty problems in theology have been presented and instruction given therein.

An appeal was made at the Sabbath afternoon service in the Tabernacle lately for a piano for use in Zion College. It is much needed, especially for the devotional exercises and for the music hour under Conductor Rice. We have not heard that this appeal has been answered as yet. Perhaps some friend who reads these words may have his heart opened to give a piano, or loan it for this purpose. It will be well cared for and put to good use.

Conductor Rice is very earnestly seeking to increase the interest in the study and practice of vocal music, and is faithfully giving careful instruction during the two periods a week at which he meets the students together.

The classes in instrumental music under Miss McFarland are rapidly increasing in number, and our people are beginning to realize what opportunities are presented to them and their children in this growing department of Zion work.

Evangelist Fisher takes Overseer Mason's hour during the latter's absence, giving the lectures on Missions.

Deacon C. W. Post's class in painting has commenced work. It meets in the former assembly room at Zion Home on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

ZION'S BIBLE CLASS.

CONDUCTED BY DEACON DANIEL SLOAN.

MIDWEEK BIBLE CLASS LESSON, NOVEMBER 14th or 15th.

Earth's Overripe Harvest.

1. God sees the overripe grain.—Revelation 14:14-20.
   What is done with the tares and wheat?
   Why is God's harvest so long overripe?
   When is God's time to do a neglected work?
2. Some one caused all this.—Matthew 20:1-16.
   What did the Lord do in the first hour of this age?
   Did He not send enough laborers in the ninth hour?
   Why does He rebuke those in the eleventh hour?
3. Men put off God's harvest time.—John 4:31-38.
   Why do men do God's work negligently?
   Does God work only by revival seasons?
   Is not every day to be a revival for God?
4. Workers for God are very scarce.—Matthew 9:36-38.
   Why are there so few laborers in the field?
   How does Christ see His people on earth today?
   Is this prayer a privilege or a command?
5. God yet sends forth laborers.—Psalm 126:1-6.
   Who is God now raising up for His work?
   What is He going to do in these last days?
   How certain is the reward to come?
6. Labor must be in patience.—Galatians 6:4-10.
   Must not every one be divinely sent?
   What is the great work all can do?
   Are we to live for the flesh or for the spirit?
7. Maturity follows seed sowing.—Mark 4:26-29.
   Is the trouble not that seed is not sown?
   What comes both to the seed and the field?
   How rapidly does the seed develop?
8. Harvest is gathered in the face of difficulties.—Matthew 13:24-30.
   Is not the harvest time a trying time?
   What makes the harvest so hard to gather?
   What is to be done in harvest gathering?

The Lord Our God is a Harvest-Protecting God.

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS LESSON, NOVEMBER 18th.

Duty to Weak Christians.

1. Do not deny them fellowship.—Romans 14:1-13.
   Does not one have to be a child before a saint?
   Cannot a weak faith grow into a strong one?
   When a man falls, is he to be left down?
2. Give them of what God has given you.—Luke 22:31-35.
   Does sifting ever hurt any one?
   Does it hurt faith to try it?
   What can one who is right with God do for others?
3. Do them good in Christ's Name.—Matthew 25:31-40.
   Does not Christ count the little things?
   What are approved things to do for God's children?
   Do not the unthought-of acts receive approval?
4. Watch your life against offense-giving.—Luke 17:1-10.
   Does to offend mean never to reprove?
   Is not an unforgiving spirit an offense?
   Is to live a life of faith in God an offense?
5. If one member of His body suffers, all do.—1 Corinthians 12:14-31.
   Christ is not divided, is He?
   Has not every true child some part in His body?
   Is to injure one part to harm the whole body?
6. Seek opportunities of spiritual helpfulness.—Galatians 6:1-8.
   What kind of a man is seeking to save the lost?
   What did the man with the lost sheep do?
   Do we know we will be used in saving others?
7. Throw your life about those in distress.—Romans 15:1-14:
   Is the burden you bear the test of your strength?
   Is not to displease self for the sake of others a glorious victory?
   How will those who have no strength be brought back to God?
8. Be joyful in strengthening the faith of the wavering.—Acts 14:19-28.
   How does faith in God's healing power help?
   Can one lose the faith once possessed?
   Does tribulation thin out the fearful?

God's Holy People are a Burden-Bearing People.

LEAVES OF HEALING.

Two Dollars will bring to you the weekly visits of the "Little White Dove" for a year, 75 cents will send it to a friend for fifteen weeks; $1.25 will send it for six months; $1.50 will send it to your minister, or to a Y. M. C. A., or to a Public Reading Room, for a whole year. We offer no premiums, except the premium of doing good. We receive no advertisements, and print no commercial lies or cheating enticements of unscrupulous thieves. LEAVES OF HEALING is Zion on wings, and we keep out everything that would distract the reader's mind from all except the Extension of the Kingdom of God, for which alone it exists. If we cannot send forth our Little White Dove without soiling its wings with the smoke of the factory and the dirt of the wrangling market place, or compelling it to utter the screaming cries of the business vultures in the ears of our readers, then we will keep our Dove at home.

SUGGESTIVE NOTES FOR THE USE OF ZION'S BIBLE CLASS OUTLINES

The Seed is the Word of God and the Field is the World. Therefore go ye and preach the Gospel to every creature; which means that people must be touched at home centers. Divide your town into two or more divisions, your city into smaller sections by streets, your township into districts by roads, and then begin and systematically follow up a house-to-house visitation with short calls. Give a small Zion tract or a copy of LEAVES OF HEALING or A VOICE FROM ZION.

Do not argue or controvert with people, but in cheerfulness of spirit and glow of countenance extend the literature with supplication in spirit and a "God bless you." Where your peace is returned, note all such places, together with the names of the parties.

Continue then in thus so doing, and you will not have gone over a very large or compact area by such thorough and systematic work until you have found material enough near at hand for an occasional Cottage Prayer Meeting in some home which may open to you.

Then you will follow this up in due time with a Zion Bible Class Gathering in a home centrally located. This Gathering will be continued regularly each week with great blessing and profit to all who attend. If it is persevered in, it will ultimately grow into a strong Zion Assembly, and eventually become a Branch Church, with an Elder-in-Charge.

Every member, however, must set aside a time for doing this preliminary work. Where there are only a few members in a place, the division of the territory must be planned in conference with the Conductor of the Gathering or the Elder-in-Charge, or whoever else may be appointed by the General Overseer at Headquarters as the representative to thus have charge of Zion's affairs. An understanding will then enable every one to set about this work in an orderly way, reaching every home as speedily as possible, without two or more persons working in conflict or covering the same territory.

This is Christ's method of evangelization as outlined in the Gospels, and will win victory for God every time, in every place and by every person who is deeply consecrated to Him in discipleship.

The day has come when this must be done. Those who refuse to do it are cursed with a curse, for God says: "Woe unto those who are at ease in Zion."

Study Zion's Bible Class Lesson Daily. At family prayers let each member read a division of a lesson, the leader afterward asking the questions noted, receiving the answer in Scripture language with the particular verses used. An unfinished lesson can be continued at the next prayer season. Arrange in your home regularly some evening or Sunday afternoon a meeting, inviting in a few neighbors and friends, and with them study the lesson according to the plan above suggested, and recount to them the work God is doing in Zion. Above all, read carefully when all alone the Scripture cited in each lesson, marking a line around the same in your Bible, praying ever that God may bless the Word read to your own heart and life and enable you to speak it faithfully to others to their own good or admonition. Ever obey God and His Word will come with increasing light.

Elders, Evangelists, Deacons and Deaconesses, as well as Conductors of Zion Gatherings, should, together with every member and friend of Zion, use Zion's Bible Class studies in their personal study of the Holy Scriptures, and also in the family gathering as well as in Seventy work and cottage meetings. The scope of these lessons is covering the teachings of God's Word concerning every relation of life, as well as blessed fellowship in spirit, soul and body with a Triune God. To neglect this is to despise opportunities. To push it aside is to count something else more important. Not to meditate on God's Word day and night, as well as to read it, grasping the sense and cultivating an understanding heart, means you do not wish God's richest blessing upon you and the greatest success to come from your labors.

Reply at once if you are using Zion's Bible Class Studies in a regular Zion Gathering anywhere and are trying through their use to help others to "A HOLIER LIFE FOR GOD." Write Deacon Sloan how long and where you have been doing this work, that he may by prayer, special helps and counsel come closer to you in your own life and comprehension of the Truth, and be, perhaps, of inspiration and assistance, possibly by an occasional personal letter to all who, as Bible Workers in Zion, are striving for the faith once delivered. Add your name to the list.

How a Zion Bible Class Lesson is Prepared May Interest You.

Aside from years of close study of the Bible and special capacity and gift from God for teaching, comes first the choosing of subjects within the scope of Scripture truth. Then comes their development and logical arrangement in outline, with the Scripture bearing upon the same which appears in the unfolding of a subject.

All the Scripture thus suggested is arranged in order by clipping and pasting, so that all verses pertaining to a given lesson fall under the eye at once.

It is then carefully weighed and the emphasis given it is considered. Thoughtfully the questions are prepared, bringing out and enforcing the phases or special truth of the subject, which, when done, complete the manuscript.

After this the lesson's outline is dictated and typewritten. The copy is then gone over carefully, modified or strengthened for greater force or clearness. It is then handed to the printer.

After being put in type, it is again considered carefully for final form or correction. All of this for a single week's outlines requires hours of time under prayer, preparation and Divine guidance. It is done that the thousands who each week read, and we believe increasingly study these lessons, may receive the greatest possible blessing from God through the power of His Word and thus extend the Kingdom of God in these days of the Restoration of His Church to its primitive power and usefulness. God is raising up a people and has commanded that the Truth be known, for He says: "Say unto Zion, thou art My people."

A True Use of Sabbath Day Hours.

They should be improved well by every member and friend of Zion. The Bible Class Lesson outline should, with the Bible in hand, be gone over carefully and prayerfully, and the sermon by the General Overseer should also be attentively read. Assemble, sometime during the day, your own family. Invite in, if possible, those who want to know God in power, or desire from Him some blessing for spirit, soul or body. Where this is not possible, go where the sick and sinful, poor and neglected are, who have tasted only of the bitterness of life, and open up to them the Gospel which Jesus commanded should be preached to the poor. Where there are two or more members of Zion near you, do not fail to regularly come together sometime during the Lord's Day. Pray and speak with one another, and study together the Bible Class Lesson and talk over the marvelous doings of God in Zion. DO NOT OFFEND GOD BY GOING TO SOME CHURCH SERVICE WHERE GOD IS EVER DISHONORED AS THE HEALER, CLEANSER, KEEPER AND PROSPERER OF HIS PEOPLE. Do not go to hear His truth perverted by the cry of Peace, Peace, when sudden destruction is so near because of the prevalent wickedness of the world, which, with a worldly Church, is becoming more and more corrupt. Do not go where scoffing is everywhere heard from so-called Christians at the imminent coming of "the great God and Saviour Jesus Christ." He will receive unto Himself only those who look for Him; even ZION, whom He is now calling into Purity and Holy Living, who daily, in obedience to Her Lord, whatever the cost may be, is thus making herself READY TO SOON BECOME THE BRIDE OF CHRIST AT HIS APPEARING.

LEAVES OF HEALING

I am the Lord that healeth thee.

And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

EDITED BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

VOLUME VIII. NUMBER 3. CHICAGO, NOVEMBER 10, 1900. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

BEN MACDHUI AND LOCH AVON, ABERDEENSHIRE, SCOTLAND.

JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE, although born in Edinburgh, is a lineal descendant of the rugged, sturdy men and women whose untiring energy, courage and strength wrested sustenance from the rocky highlands of Aberdeenshire, in the neighborhood and upon the slopes of Ben Mac (or Muich) Dhui. His family name, Dowie, has been changed and shortened, through the years, from its original form, MacDhui. The rugged strength of character, the indomitable will, the fearless courage, the calm faith in God, the intense love of true liberty and justice, and the great physical and mental endurance which marked his forefathers, have also come down to him. To them God has added the mighty power and wisdom of His indwelling Spirit, and the ever-present consciousness of a Divine Message, which must be delivered. Ben MacDhui, standing on the borders of Aberdeenshire and Banffshire, is the summit of the Cairngorm range of the Grampian Hills. It is the second highest mountain in the British Isles, being 4296 feet above sea-level.

THE AIMS AND METHODS OF ZION.

Letter of the General Overseer to the Associated News, Stating the Creed and Discipline of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

As the American-Hamburg Steamer Graf Waldersee was slowly passing the Statue of Liberty at Bedloe's Island, and steering for the open sea at Sandy Hook, on the morning of Saturday, August 11, 1900, a "Deck Steward" handed me a little bunch of letters and telegrams.

One of these was from the Editor-in-Chief of the Associated News (Main Office, 102 Fulton Street, New York), from which I make the following extracts:

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE,
Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Dear Sir:—Leading newspapers throughout the country, which are supplied by us, will publish a signed editorial from you, if you will kindly send it to us at once, explaining the discipline and creed of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

The trouble which your ministers have encountered in Ohio leads us to believe that the doctrines of your Church have been grossly misunderstood, and the means we offer you is the best way of putting the true facts before the people.

The editorial should be about fifteen hundred words in length. In sending same, please enclose also copy of latest photograph to be used in connection with the above.

Thanking you in advance for the courtesy, we beg to remain

Yours truly, FREDERICK GRANT, Editor-in-Chief.

This article, therefore, is my response to the foregoing courteous invitation, and I ask the kind consideration of readers in all parts of the United States of America to this attempt to put within so small a limit the facts concerning the discipline and creed of a movement which requires a volume rather than an article.

I will slightly alter the order suggested by Mr. Grant, and deal first with our "Creed" and second with our "Discipline."

The actual written creed contains but four articles, which are as follows:

First. That we recognize the infallible inspiration and sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures as the rule of faith and practice.

Second. That no persons can be members of the Church who have not repented of their sins and have not trusted in Christ for Salvation.

Third. That such persons must also be able to make a good profession, and declare that they know in their own hearts that they have truly repented, and are truly trusting Christ, and have the witness, in a measure, of the Holy Spirit.

Fourth. That all other questions of every kind shall be held to be matters of opinion and not matters that are essential to Church unity.

These four articles were unanimously adopted as the basis of fellowship in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion by two "Conferences on Organization" which were held in Zion Tabernacle No. 2, Chicago.

Our addresses and the discussions of these conferences have been published fully in our weekly paper, LEAVES OF HEALING, and also in pamphlet form, by Zion Publishing House, Chicago.

The details of these proceedings give our views as to many of the things which, in our judgment, are included in an acceptance of the first article; and it is only fair that these should be taken into account in considering the question of our creed.

We plainly stated the conditions upon which we were willing to accept the responsibility of organizing the Christian Catholic Church in Zion and of assuming the responsibilities of the Government of that Church under the title of General Overseer.

It will be observed that many of the distinctive features of our teaching, therefore, of our creed—that is, our belief—are not expressed in the basis of fellowship, nor indeed in some cases in the discussions and addresses.

The fact is that every item of belief is found far better expressed in the Word of God than we could possibly express it in any attempted condensation thereof.

There is nothing, it will be seen, in our written creed that can possibly be objected to by any individual, or by all Christians who hold to that old Protestant definition that "The religion of Protestants is the Bible."

The differences between our creed and those of the churches which we call apostate, including in that term both the Greek and Roman Churches and the Protestant denominations generally, is that while many of these so-called churches hold in theory as we do, they have invented creeds which destroy the supremacy and infallibility and sufficiency of the Word of God, and establish another foundation unknown to the Holy Scriptures: namely, the definition of Councils, Synods, Popes, and other official bodies and persons, as being of Divine authority.

Our creed is that neither councils, synods, nor popes, can in any degree modify, omit, or add to the fundamental principles upon which God has established His Everlasting Kingdom.

Hundreds of times have we declared that the opinions of men are utterly valueless in themselves; that it does not matter one straw what any man thinks: the only thing that does matter eternally is what God thinks.

Hence we are at absolute issue with any attempt to define the Infinite; for everything that is Divine must be Infinite.

It is extremely absurd, in our judgment, to limit by any human definitions that which of necessity is incapable of being limited by the boundaries of man's mind.

We hold with Faber:

> But we make His love too narrow
> By false limits of our own;
> And we magnify His strictness
> With a zeal He will not own.
> . . .
> For the love of God is broader
> Than the measure of man's mind;
> And the heart of the Eternal
> Is most wonderfully kind.

If we attempted to express in a sentence that which seems to us increasingly to be the essential difference between our creed and that of the churches, it would be in these words:

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion preaches the "Everlasting Gospel of the Kingdom of God" as it is set forth by Jesus Christ and the inspired Evangelists and Apostles in the pages of the New Testament, whilst all churches with which we have any acquaintance preach a more or less temporary Gospel of their particular Church as it is set forth in their creeds—in short, "The Gospel of the Denominations."

Or, still more briefly, Zion believes and preaches the Gospel of the Kingdom, while the churches believe and preach the Gospel of the Churches.

These are daring words, and must, of course, in the very nature of things, create offense.

And here, let me add, is the great trouble with the churches: that the offense of the cross has ceased, so far as their teachings are concerned.

The denominations and the ungodly world are on excellent terms with each other.

It is bad for the people when the police and thieves are on too good terms.

We do not shrink from the charge that Zion is "offensive," in a Scriptural and good sense, and we deplore that the denominational churches have seemed to place Christianity on the defensive.

Aggressive Christianity, absolutely refusing all alliance with the World, the Flesh and the Devil, is the only Christianity known to the New Testament, and the only Christianity which God can approve.

Believing this, our creed of necessity declares that the Gospel is as unchangeable as God Himself. That Gospel which began to be preached by John the Baptist, who was, in his day, the Messenger of God's Covenant and the Forerunner of the Christ, begins with Repentance and demands of individual men and of every community and nation that "all men everywhere should repent"; and, furthermore, immediately "bring forth fruits meet for Repentance."

The basis of individual, social and political well-being is therefore true Repentance for past transgression. This Zion proclaims, not as an abstract doctrine, but demands that it find immediate expression in action.

Herein lies the first step of that to which we now proceed, namely,

THE DISCIPLINE OF THE CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN ZION.

Zion denies the right of the people to rule themselves.

Zion affirms the right of God to rule the people.

Zion is in no sense a Democracy.

Zion is not a Republic, after the model of existing Republican institutions in America and Europe and elsewhere, in which cunning bosses amuse the people with the idea that they rule themselves when they are really ruled by expert political tricksters.

Zion, in short, is a Theocracy.

We shall never advocate and resort to arms or force of any kind to establish Theocracy, even whilst Zion proclaims its unalterable opposition in principle to every form of government except Theocracy, and its determination to restore that Divine and Original Form of Government which was established in Eden ere man fell into transgression, and was only disestablished by the advent of Satan, sin, disease, death, and all the other powers of hell which came in the horrid train of that Fallen Being whom Paul calls The God of the World.

Zion, therefore, exercises the severest and yet the most loving kind of discipline. Zion shows no mercy to, and will make no terms whatever with, evil of any kind or description.

Sin must be put away by righteousness: not the theoretical imputation merely of Christ's righteousness, but also the Divine impartation of righteousness.

"The Kingdom of God is Righteousness, and Peace, and Joy in the Holy Spirit."

Hence in demanding Repentance, Zion also enforces it by all the spiritual power which she possesses.

In using this word Zion, let me here interject, I use it as a larger term than the Christian Catholic Church: for the Christian Catholic Church is but an organization of men and women who are in Zion, and we cheerfully recognize that Zion is in the hearts of millions who are not in the Christian Catholic Church, and of vast numbers who are not in any Church whatever.

"Zion" in all this article must be held to stand for the Kingdom of God.

To continue, therefore: Zion refuses to recognize spiritual fellowship with the impenitent who only pretend Repentance, but do not bring forth "fruits meet for Repentance," as being possible.

Zion demands that falsehoods shall be confessed; that wrongs of every kind shall be redressed by the guilty parties at no matter what cost, be it loss of property, reputation, or even life itself.

Under no circumstances will Zion, therefore, make compromise with evil or permit the sinner to profess faith in Christ the Saviour until he has fully resolved, without any conditions, to put all things right to the utmost possible extent, both with God and man.

Every defilement, therefore, of the flesh and spirit, must be instantly and absolutely put aside.

Filthy reading, thinking and associations; filthy eating, drinking, smoking; filthy remedies, so-called, whether they be narcotics or any other poisons; filthy companionships of every kind, must all be instantly and permanently set aside.

Any return to these Zion will visit with instantaneous severity, at the same time patiently pleading with the offender; but, failing Repentance, will resolutely sever the corrupt person from further fellowship, until God's conditions of restoration are obeyed.

But Zion's discipline is not merely punitive.

It is only so in order that it may be beneficial; and the sharp pruning knife is only used to make the tree fruitful.

Hence Zion seeks, by patient teaching and toil, through all her ministers, to train her people for the most happy and useful of lives on earth, and for preparation for heaven when earthly life shall cease.

To this end Zion at once undertakes for her people, to lead them to the fountains of perennial salvation and healing and cleansing to be found in Christ, the "Fountain opened for sin, for all uncleanness," and, therefore, into the King's Highway of Holy Living, where no defilement can come. To this end mutual exhortation, forbearance and co-operation are taught.

Obedience to the Law of Purity in All Things is demanded.

Hence Zion enters into the home, and requires that the relations of husband and wife shall be established upon a Christian basis, and that the family shall be ruled in accordance therewith.

Respect, reverence and obedience are taught, as not only due to parents, but as due to God in whose ever-present sight every moment of life must be conspicuously lived; and to all good laws and lawful authority which do not conflict with the laws and authority of God as set forth in the Holy Scriptures.

Zion demands that children shall not go from a prayerless home into a godless world, and that no member of the family shall engage in any traffic or occupation which injures humanity in any degree.

In order to make it easy to do right, Zion aims to isolate her people entirely from the world and its ungodly occupations, both in business and in pleasure.

Zion will not withdraw from the world, but Zion aims to rule the world, and to compel the world, which is so largely now in rebellion, to submit to the love and rule of God.

In order to effect these purposes, Zion "pools its interests," so to speak.

Zion requires, first, in accordance with the Word of God, a Tithe of all earnings to be given into God's Storehouse, that there may be "meat" in His House, and that the Gospel may be extended throughout the world.

Zion further expects that the people shall co-operate in all her Financial Institutions, and in the industries which are springing from these, which will find their first embodiment in Zion City, near Chicago, where it is our hope that an object lesson will be taught to all the earth.

Prosperity is synonymous with Obedience to God and His Laws.

Adversity is synonymous with Disobedience to God and His Laws

Zion demands Obedience, and enforces it by every Divine power which God has committed to her care and keeping.

Zion loyally renders unto Cæsar, whether he be President, Czar, Emperor, or King, that which belongs unto Cæsar; and yet Zion absolutely refuses to recognize the right of Cæsar to enter the domain of the conscience or to interfere with the actions of those who offend no righteous law, but live quiet, peaceable and good lives.

Zion will avail herself of every God-given power which can be represented by education, money or voting power, and will not hesitate to avail herself of help from all who are willing to concede her right to rule her people in matters which do not infringe upon the rightful powers committed to those powers that be, which are ordained of God.

But, on the other side, Zion will contend against the powers which be that are ordained of the Devil, and will never submit to mob, boss, presidential, monarchical, imperial, or autocratic power, in matters where God has, in Christ, given universal liberty.

RATHER WILL THOSE WHO ARE IN ZION SACRIFICE THEIR LIVES THAN COMPROMISE WITH THE DEVIL, whether he sits in an ecclesiastical or a political seat of power.

All who do not approve such principles do not belong to Zion, are not welcome in Zion, and if there are any such who have come into Zion who object to these principles, they are heartily invited to retire from Zion.

But all everywhere who desire the Supremacy of God in the heart, the home, the business, the city, the State, the Nation, the world, are heartily invited to submit themselves to God and enter into association with Zion, and co-operate with us in the Extension of the Kingdom of God.

The discipline of Zion is that of an army, which does not vote as to who shall be its officers, but believing that God has given apostles, prophets and teachers, obeys those whom God has set over His Kingdom, in so far as these obey the plainly revealed Word of God.

If in the above definitions there seems to be pride and imperious harshness to any reader, we can only say that, so far as any man can judge his own heart, pride or imperious lust for power is not within the heart of the writer, nor, so far as he knows, in the hearts of those associated with him.

There is no heavier Responsibility than Power or Authority.

May we not, in closing, answer a possible word that may be uttered by some reader who says, "Such principles are tyrannical and destructive of love"?

May we not direct attention to this fact, that the present union existing between the writer and his people who know him best, is a bond which is one supremely of love, and that the nature and the Name of God, who is the Absolute Ruler of this Universe, is Love.

I am the friend of all, and the servant of the servants of God, in Jesus Christ,

John Alex. Dowie

Zion's Boys' Choir.

THERE IS nothing more inspiring than the sound of boyish voices united in songs of praise to God. The General Overseer, believing this, gave directions for the organization of a Boys' Choir as an adjunct to the adult choir. For good reasons the choir was disbanded in August. After careful consideration, Conductor Rice, with the approval of the Overseers at Headquarters, has decided upon a plan of reorganization. In order that this may be successfully carried out, there is need of hearty coöperation on the part of the officers and parents.

The plan calls for fifty boys, between six and fourteen years of age, selected with reference to their immediate or prospective fitness. That this number may be secured it is desired that from 200 to 250 present themselves for examination. Conductor Rice will be at Central Zion Tabernacle every Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, to meet all who desire to be tested for this important work.

Let every officer and parent do their best to arouse an interest in this work and send in the boys

LONDON MISSION CLOSED WITH A BLAZE OF GLORY.

Splendid Testimonies, Miracles of Healing, Crowded Audiences, Perfect Order. Total Baptized One Hundred and Seventy-two. Good Beginning in Edinburgh.

THE General Overseer brought to a gloriously victorious close the greatest fight of his life in London, England, Wednesday, October 31, 1900.

Through private letters we learn that for weeks his life was in constant danger from thousands of bitter and desperate foes.

It was clear that God only could bring him safely through.

God answered the united prayers of all Zion everywhere.

The man of God accomplished his work in London, kept by a Divine Power far above all attempts of the enemy to harm him.

With great joy and thanksgiving to God, Zion in Chicago, gathered in thousands in Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day, November 4, 1900, heard the following happy cablegram from the General Overseer:

EDINBURGH, November 4, 1900.

ZION'S CONFLICT WITH METHODIST APOSTASY.

This book of 200 pages, just issued by Zion Publishing House, contains nine powerful discourses delivered in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer last May, during the session of the Methodist General Conference. They are of especial value for the full and fearless exposure of Freemasonry.

"The Methodist Church the Property of the Masonic Order," "Freemasonry: A Heathen and Antichristian Abomination," and "Degrees of Masonic Devilry" ought to be read by every lodge man.

The iniquity of the Mystic Shrine is laid bare.

"The Christian's Duty in Breaking a Bad Oath" is the address which preceded the public working of Masonic and Odd Fellow degrees in Central Zion Tabernacle, a full account of which is given.

Buy one of these books and keep lending it. No honest and intelligent man can read the book and still remain a Freemason.

HOW BEAUTIFUL upon the mountains are the feet of Him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace, that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth Salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth.—Isaiah 52:7.

WHAT a beautiful picture Isaiah the Prophet has here sketched of the Messenger who brings Good Tidings and publishes Peace and Salvation.

His path is upon the mountains: a highway. Even his feet are said to be beautiful, for they are shod with the preparation of the Gospel of Peace (Ephesians 6:15).

This preparation is an uncompromising war with everything which defiles or destroys the spirits, souls or bodies of men. People can think as they please and do as they like and be at peace with the world and the Devil; but God cannot offer peace to any until he hearkens to His voice and keeps His commandments.

The Salvation published must be for man's entire being. God promises to make "bare His holy arm in the eyes of all nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God."—Isaiah 52:10.

A Full Gospel brings a Full Salvation with the signs following, which all of the ends of the earth can see and will desire.

The Messenger who brings it must proclaim God's command:

Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean.

When this Message is obeyed, "Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing."—Isaiah 35:5, 6.

And Zion proves that God shall reign within the spirits, the souls and the bodies of mankind.

"The Kingdom of God is within you," Jesus said.

The following letter to our General Overseer is from

A Gentleman in Switzerland Blessed Through Leaves of Healing.

The writer says:

I want to inform you that I have been wonderfully blessed through LEAVES OF HEALING.

I never read a book or paper which impressed me so much.

I am sure that the circulation of this paper will cause a great revolution in the world, especially in Christian circles.

I am a Baptist preacher, and used to minister to a congregation in Germany of 1600 members.

Through reading your LEAVES OF HEALING I feel great sympathy for you and your work. I thank God that He sent us a man like you for this wonderful work, which will soon spread over the whole earth.

Your LEAVES show us Baptists where we are lacking and where we are not apostolic.

When a youth of twenty years I was healed in body through faith, according to Isaiah 53. I was ignorant then.

A year after that a woman who was then near death was healed through the prayer of faith.

Then when I held meetings in the mountains, at one time a totally lame man was carried into the meeting. He was rejoicing greatly during the sermon.

I asked him whether he could believe that Jesus would heal him. He wrote on his plate, "Yes."

For a long time I had the desire in my heart to have this man healed, but I was too ignorant of God's will. I was lacking in faith, and the desire left me. I thought it might be the work of the Devil.

This was twenty-three years ago, and since then I felt as if God withdrew from me the gift of healing. But six weeks ago, just before reading LEAVES OF HEALING, I visited a sister who suffered severely from rheumatism. I told her to put all her medicine aside, because I had been against medicine for years, and had seen the foolish doings of physicians.

We prayed. The sister trusted in the Lord and was healed.

I am so thankful I find such thorough teaching in LEAVES OF HEALING about Salvation, Healing and Holy Living.

My faith in Divine Healing has been greatly strengthened.

I wish I had known this teaching twenty years ago. How much more good I could have done.

Please pray for me and my congregation, that we may all be set free from bondage through the power of the Holy Spirit.

I would ask you also to pray for an old man. He is deaf, and so grieved that he cannot hear the Word of God preached. He also suffers from tetter on the leg, which is very painful.

Took the Words of Life Instead of Medicine.

The letter which follows is from Mason, Wisconsin. The writer says:

I wish to write you a few lines to tell you of the peace and comfort and joy I receive from reading the blessed Gospel which comes to me once a week in LEAVES OF HEALING.

I am alone in this place, but, thanks be to God, He can keep me.

As I sit with pen in hand, my mind goes back to the State of Ohio, where the wicked men are persecuting the Elders of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. That State is where I received the first copy of LEAVES OF HEALING.

I was after medicine the day that a friend handed me the copies of the Words of Life. I call them Words of Life, for they were that to me. I was sick nigh unto death in body; without God and without hope in this world or the world to come.

But, thank God, the copies which were handed to me that day were the means of bringing to my heart Salvation for spirit, soul and body.

Today I praise God that whereas I was then sick, I now am well; whereas I was then a sinner, I am now a child of God.

My prayer is that God's richest blessing may be with our General Overseer in proclaiming the Everlasting Gospel in London and elsewhere, and that the Little White Dove may carry the glad tidings to every heart as it did to mine.

Your Brother in Christ, MAT WHITE.

ZION ON THE ATLANTIC.

Report of Meeting held in the First Cabin Dining Room of the Steamship "Graf Waldersee," Lord's Day Morning, August 12, 1900. Sermon: "Wisdom Justified of All Her Children."

Report of Meeting held in the Second Cabin Dining-Room of the Steamship "Graf Waldersee," Lord's Day Afternoon, August 12, 1900. Sermon: "Jesus, the Ever-Present Healer."

Report of Meetings held in Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day Morning and Afternoon, October 28, 1900. Praise and Testimony.

REPORTED BY O. L. S. AND E. W.

ON Saturday morning, August 11th, at 5:30, as the steamship Graf Waldersee left the wharf at Hoboken, New Jersey, the General Overseer of the Chrisian Catholic Church, together with his party, stood upon the deck and waved their parting salutes to a number of Zion friends who had come to the docks to see them off.

The steamship was soon out of the harbor and on the mighty deep.

The first day passed quickly, with a very quiet sea, and the Lord's Day morning dawned beautifully calm and clear.

Whether on land or sea the ministry of the General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion must ever be the same, the preaching of the Gospel of the Kingdom of God to men of every clime.

With the love of God in his heart, and an earnest desire that he might do good to those around him, he determined that he would not be silent on this Lord's Day, but deliver in every part of the great ship the Message which God gave him.

Accordingly at 9:30 o'clock A. M., 2:30 and 3:30 P. M., he conducted public services in the First and Second Cabins and Steerage of the ship.

The morning attendance was rather small, but he was given a respectful hearing.

A few regarded the Message lightly, but there were many evidences that it had not been delivered in vain. Much good was accomplished. Through this first address, "Wisdom is Justified of All Her Children," some were led to further inquiry concerning the Kingdom of God.

One gentleman, a manufacturer from the northern part of the State of New York, informed the General Overseer that he had not opened a Bible for ten years, and that the service which he attended that morning was the first he had attended for five years.

He held a number of very earnest conversations with the General Overseer during the week, and discussed earnestly at some length the whole question of a living Christianity.

The arrows of conviction went deep, even though there was no apparent surrender.

The attendance at the afternoon address in the Second Cabin was large, filling the entire dining saloon, and there were many listening outside. This Message was the one of the day, so far as creating excitement was concerned.

As the General Overseer warmed up to his subject, he walked up and down the central passage and awoke the "sleepers" very sharply by exceedingly plain speech.

It was a very hot afternoon, but there were none there who could take a comfortable nap, as they seemed at first inclined to do.

As he bore down upon "the stinkpots and beerpots," of whom there were many who could be smelled there and in all parts of the ship, they were aroused into a certain amount of mental activity. Among the most sharply affected by the discourse were two doctors. The General Overseer did not know that there were any present. One of these was a Medical Missionary from Japan, and the other a practitioner from the United States, and it so happened that when he discussed the question of the various "paths" that he walked up very close to these gentlemen and interrogated them sharply as to which was the Divine "path." They informed him before he left the room that they were doctors, and displayed a "sensitive" interest in the discourse.

The Medical Missionary, as might be expected, was the most bitter in his subsequent criticisms, and took occasion to annoy very much the members of our party who were his fellow-passengers.

However, it was all in vain; for the Word of God is not bound, and words were spoken which will never be forgotten. In fact, while these lines are being written, as all the time, Zion is being actively discussed, and its influence very actively felt.

Proceeding immediately from the afternoon discourse in the second dining saloon, the General Overseer went to the main deck.

There the passengers from all parts of the ship gathered, the Steerage passengers especially, as it was their section. Many of them were foreigners and could not understand English very well; but with most expressive gestures the men and women turned to each other, pointed to their hearts, and then pointed upward, thus indicating that they understood that the General Overseer was directing them to God and to heaven.

They were very much impressed.

It was interesting to observe the passengers from all parts of the ship gradually coming up and listening. Many of them stood upon the upper decks of both the First and Second Saloons, eagerly observing the interesting scene.

Some of these passengers from the First Saloon brought down their kodaks and took a shot at the General Overseer as he was speaking.

When the General Overseer finished his discourse, he went among the passengers and chatted with them individually, especially with the children of the Italian and Roumanian Steerage passengers.

As he was about to leave, a number of them gathered around him and signified their appreciation of his ministration to them.

There was one woman especially whose eyes were full of tears. She said to the children, "Kiss the papa." The children immediately turned around, and the General Overseer, as it is his custom to do with little children, was about to kiss them on their faces, when they all started to kiss his hand.

Very reverently, the mother said, as far as could be understood, in her native tongue: "I thank God for what you have said, Father."

Of course most of these were Roman Catholics, but they were evidently appreciative of the ministration.

Taking it all together, the scene of the last service was very interesting.

When the little company gathered for evening prayers with the General Overseer at 9 P. M., we all felt it had been a good day.

First Cabin Dining-Room, Steamship Graf Waldersee, Lord's Day Morning, August 12, 1900.

The services were opened by singing "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," Hymn Number 167, Gospel Hymns, 5 and 6.

The thirty-fifth chapter of Isaiah was then repeated in concert.

This was followed by the singing of two verses of the song, "We're Marching to Zion."

The General Overseer then read the eleventh chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew, from the first to the nineteenth verses.

Prayer was then offered by the General Overseer as follows:

PRAYER BY THE GENERAL OVERSEER.

Almighty and ever-blessed God our Father in Heaven, we heartily thank Thee for this beautiful Sabbath.

We give Thee praise for the mercies which continue to attend us on this voyage.

We ask Thee to bless the Captain and all his officers, the Engineer and all his officers, and the men who toil at the fires and at the furnaces, and all who are in any way connected with the navigation or with the comfort and care of the passengers of this ship.

We pray Thee to bless the passengers, and as they journey over this mighty sea, may they remember who made it, that

"The sea is His, and He made it;
And His hands formed the dry land;"

That Thou art the God of the sea and the God of the land, the Everlasting God.

We pray Thee to bless this little gathering this morning.

Wilt Thou hear us for all who are dear to us each in the great broad Continent which we have left, and in the lands to which we are going: fathers, mothers, wives, sisters, sons, daughters, friends dearer than life, whom we pray for in our hearts. God bless them all today.

Bless every man and woman who, throughout the world, is met in the Name of Jesus for worship.

Bless the multitudes who know not God, who are living without God and without hope in the world; victims of their own passions and uncleannesses, victims of hereditary disease and sin and in sorrow.

Look upon the distracted nations of the earth; especially at this time upon China, sunken in heathenism and wickedness, suffering from the oppression of the so-called western civilization, which has forced upon them the opium.

Oh God, hear us! As nations are scourged for their national sins, in Thy Infinite Love and Compassion look upon the nations represented in the legations at Pekin, and in Thy mercy deliver those who have been so long marked for murder.

Give victory to that which is right.

Oh that peace may prevail in that land, and that the men and women may be set free without further war, if it be possible!

Bless us, we again pray, on this little voyage.

Bless all who sail with us, and in Thy Infinite Love and Mercy hear us when we pray, in the words that our Lord taught us when here on the earth in the flesh, saying, "After this manner therefore pray ye:

"Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be Thy Name.
Thy Kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth as it is done in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us;
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil:
For Thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, forever and ever. Amen."

Hymn Number 44 was then sung:

Oh wondrous Name, by prophets heard
Long years before His birth;
They saw Him coming from afar,
The Prince of Peace on earth.

CHORUS—The Wonderful! The Counsellor!
The Great and Mighty Lord!
The everlasting Prince of Peace!
The King, the Son of God!

WISDOM JUSTIFIED OF ALL HER CHILDREN.

The General Overseer then delivered the following address:

I read to you this morning, a few minutes ago, a few words in the Everlasting Gospel—the Gospel of the Kingdom of God—in the eleventh chapter of Matthew; and the very few words which I have to say I will base upon the words that I last read, in the nineteenth verse:

TEXT.

Wisdom is justified of all her children.

The justification of Jesus Christ and the justification of the wise in all the ages is the slow process of a Divine education.

The Virtuous Hated for Their Virtues.

It has been the fate of those who have sacrificed themselves for humanity in every age to be hated, not because of their vices, but because of their virtues.

You will remember the old story among the Greeks of Aristides the Just, whom they ostracized. When the ballots were being cast for the ostracism of that great leader, Aristides himself was standing beside one of the balloting urns. He saw a man approach and, with indignation and hatred marked upon his face, cast his ballot for the banishment of Aristides.

Aristides, whom he did not know, said to him, "My good man, will you tell me why you cast that ballot?"

He said, "I cast it against Aristides, demanding his ostracism. I hate him."

"Wherefore do you hate him?"

"Why," he said, "because I do."

Aristides, who was still unknown to the man, said, "I wish you would tell me why you hate him. I would like to cast a ballot against him myself. Tell me why you hate him."

"I do not know just why I hate him," he replied, "but I am tired of hearing him called 'The Just.' I just voted against him, because I am tired of hearing him called 'The Just.'"

Very much of that same spirit prevails in the world today. The case is like the old English couplet:

I do not like thee, Dr. Fell,
The reason why I cannot tell.
I do not like thee, Dr. Fell!

The great mass of humanity is swayed by passion; never by reason.

They are easily swayed by false leaders. These leaders may be false ecclesiastics, or they may be false friends, so-called, of the people. They may be demagogues, or they may be oligarchists. They may be aristocrats or democrats; it does not matter. Once the people have been deceived, they can be deceived for a long time.

The masses of the people in Galilee, where Christ preached, were His friends. The great mass in all parts of Palestine were the friends of John the Baptist.

John the Baptist Was Not an Uncouth Man.

Many suppose he was, but they are wrong.

The son of Zacharias, the priest, and of Elizabeth, he was born in the highest ranks. His father was Priest of the order of Abijah, and was in the Temple ministering to God when Gabriel, the angel of God, announced the coming of John the Baptist.

John the Baptist was splendidly educated. He was not only a Priest's son, but was himself a Priest.

When, at thirty years of age, he went out into the wilderness to preach, you read about his robe being a camel's-hair garment. Do not make the mistake of supposing the "camel's-hair" to be a rough camel's skin. Camel's-hair is very fine. You ladies who use camel's-hair brushes to paint with know how fine it is. A camel's-hair robe is a very costly one.

John the Baptist was a man of great power. Herod, we are told, listened to him, and he did many things he told him. The probabilities are John was brought up with Herod, perhaps at the same rabbinical school, and knew Herod well.

John had been cast into prison. Why had he been cast into prison? What had he done to justify being put into prison? I will tell you what he had done. He had offended a woman. If you have offended a bad woman, look out; she will follow you to the death, especially if she is a Jezebel or a Herodias.

This woman was an adulteress. She had been married to Philip and had gotten a kind of a Chicago or New York divorce, which would not stand with John the Baptist.

John the Baptist had smitten Herod upon the very face, and said, "It is not lawful for thee to have her."

John the Baptist spoke up, like the prophet of God he was.

Herod did not dare to touch him; for Herod knew that he spoke the truth, and that he had no right to have his brother Philip's wife sitting by his side.

But while Herod was afraid, the woman was not. She was thirsting for John the Baptist's blood.

The day came when Herodias knew that John the Baptist's day had gone. John the Baptist had proclaimed at the Jordan fords that Jesus was the Christ, the Messiah, and that he, John the Baptist, must decrease. There was no more need for his ministry. He was left alone in the wilderness, the crowds following the Christ.

Herodias took advantage of that, sent down the soldiers of Herod, seized him, and carried him away down by the back country into the Castle of Machærus, below the Dead Sea, a far-away place.

There in the dungeon, while they were dancing in the palace halls above, John the Baptist lay, expecting execution.

But Herod would not touch him. Herod was afraid.

Conscience makes cowards of men. They may smile the cynical, sneering smile of the coward at heart, but when they face God they do not laugh. Men may laugh each other into hell, but they cannot laugh each other out. Men may laugh each other into a drunkard's grave, and say, "Aha! you cannot drink," but they cannot laugh each other out. Men may fool each other and dare each other. They may destroy the life of a neighbor in some foolish escapade, but they cannot resurrect the dead.

It Does Not Pay to Do Wrong.

It never did pay and never will.

Herodias thought she could stop everything when she took that man's life.

You cannot hurt a man when you kill him.

The best thing that could happen to a man, some times, is to be killed.

There are some men who live too long. If they had died a good many years before, it would have been better for them.

If Admiral Dewey had died a week after his reception at New York it would have been better for him, in the opinion of a great many people in the United States. He has lived to see the loss of his fleeting popularity.

It is a fickle thing, this popularity. Men may lose it by a very good action. The dear old Admiral thought it was a very nice thing to make his wife a present of what had been given to him as a present. So fickle is the multitude that they who had hurrahed him one day think now it is time he died.

Herodias thought she could stop everything by murdering John the Baptist. You cannot settle anything by that.

War never settled anything.

You may conquer the fellow, and compel him to submit to you, but you have not changed his mind. You see that very plainly in the United States of America. You see that you did not change the minds of a large number of people when you conquered the South.

You can take the provinces from an empire, but that empire does not forget.

Germany did not forget the humiliations to which the first Napoleon had subjected her through the years of his power. When the day came, she got back at France and took back her old provinces. France has not forgotten that.

So it goes on, Fighting! Fighting!! Fighting!!!—nothing settled.

Poor Herodias thought she could stop John the Baptist by killing him. What a foolish thing! John the Baptist lives on, and his testimony never dies; but she, like Jezebel of old, is only remembered by her hatred of a good man.

While John the Baptist lay there in the dungeon, before he was beheaded, that evil spirit which causes men to doubt came to him to make him doubt.

Was Jesus of Nazareth really the Christ of God, or had he, John the Baptist, made a tremendous mistake when he had at the Jordan proclaimed Him to be the Messiah?

It was a very sad fact that John the Baptist was lying in prison about to be beheaded, while Jesus was walking about in Galilee, preaching to the people, teaching, doing wonderful miracles, feeding the hungry, raising the dead, cleansing the leper, and was doing nothing for John the Baptist.

John the Baptist wondered why He did not open the prison with some Divine act of His power.

The Devil got at him and said, "John the Baptist, it is a mistake. Jesus Christ is a selfish fellow. He is eating at the houses of rich men. He is an associate of the powerful and wealthy. He is followed by the crowds and does not care a snap of His finger for you, who have been His great predecessor."

Jealousy of Others' Success Inspired by the Devil.

The Devil will always try to make people jealous of other people's success, whether it is in business or anything else.

Many a man who might have been very powerful in business has all his energies enfeebled because he has been foolish enough to get jealous of his neighbor.

The world is big enough and broad enough for all people, and the man who has a kind feeling toward his neighbor in the same business will be a more successful man than the man who gets jealous and says, "There is a fellow getting ahead of me all the time. I must start lying and cutting under in selling."

Then he ruins himself by foolish competition. This spirit creeps into everything—into the Church of God. There was the temptation to make John doubt his Master.

John did the right thing. He sent two of his disciples, who doubtless had visited him in the prison, away up there through Perea and Samaria into Galilee, where Christ was preaching and teaching and healing.

He said, "When you get there, say to Jesus that I, John the Baptist, sent you to Him to ask this question: 'Art Thou He that should come, or do we look for another?' I am in doubt. I am perplexed. Make me sure."

When these men came up, they were travel-stained through their long journey. There were no palace cars in those days, and there are none still in that country. But these two disciples came up to Christ and told their message. The Master stopped everything and said those wonderful words:

Go your way and tell John the things which ye do hear and see: the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good tidings preached to them. And blessed is he, whosoever shall find none occasion of stumbling in Me.

A Testimony Meeting Nineteen Centuries Ago.

Before they went, just think what would happen. Those who had been healed would gather around them and say,

"Messengers of John the Baptist, when you go back to John at the Castle of Machærus, tell him you saw me."

"Who are you?"

This is a little girl talking. "I am the daughter of Jairus, the Rabbi of Capernaum. I was sick. I died, and Christ raised me."

Another says: "When you go back, tell him you saw me."

"Who are you?"

"I am the widow of Nain's son. I was dead, and my mother was weeping: for I was an only son, and the Christ came and raised me."

"And when you go back, tell him you saw me," says one, who bares his arm and says, "Look at that arm. There is nothing wrong with that arm. That was a leprous arm. I was a leper and Christ healed me."

And another says, "Just you whisper low, that I may show you how well I hear."

They whispered. Then he said, "Go and tell John the Baptist that I was a man who never heard, and Christ gave me hearing."

Another one says, "I never walked, and now I am walking."

So they would take back to John what they saw and what they heard. They would take back the story of the beautiful Gospel which the Lord preached. When John heard it he said: "It is enough; I see now that Jesus fulfils the prophecy in Isaiah."

We read that prophecy in the thirty-fifth chapter:

The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad.

Yes, we found Him in the wilderness.

And the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.

Yes, we found Him in the desert.

What happens because the poor have the Gospel preached to them?

The eyes of the blind are opened, and the ears of the deaf are unstopped. The lame man leaps as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sings: in the wilderness waters break out, and streams in the desert.

John the Baptist then knew that He was the Christ. He fulfilled the prophecy.

The disciples were glad to take that message back. When John gave up his life, they were not troubled.

Wisdom is justified of all her children.

When, in the United States of America, the people elected Abraham Lincoln President, there were many in the North who said, "You have elected a fool; you have elected a lunatic."

In the South they laughed at him, as the ignorant, half-insane rail-splitter.

And wisdom is justified of all her children.

Today, on the pages of history, they write the name of Abraham Lincoln high up, alongside that of George Washington. They did not do it at the time.

They criticised him; they lied about him; they said this and that. But today "wisdom is justified of all her children."

He stands where God placed him, as the great liberator and guide and helper of his country.

So it is with Christ Jesus. So it is with all who are wise. So it is with those who place God first, and man next. So it is with those who are determined to obey the great God who made this wonderful Universe, and are not ashamed to own God.

The Awful Sin of Being Ashamed of Jesus.

The man who is ashamed to own God is a poor, pitiful, mean cur of a man.

What would you think of your own children who would be ashamed to own their own father and mother who had been kind and good to them all their lives? If you have such children, are you not ashamed to have them? Do they not vex your souls?

But if that is a shame, is it not a greater shame for poor, weak, mortal man to be ashamed to own his God, his Father, the Maker of this Universe; to own the Christ who has made this world so beautiful by His words, by His life, and redeemed it by His blood?

Is it not a shame beyond the bitterest thought that evil spirit ever wrought that man should be ashamed of Jesus? Yes, you may be ashamed of Him when you have no sins to wash away.

If you are ashamed of Christ, He will be ashamed of you when you stand before the Judgment Seat. You will not stand with the righteous. You will stand with the cowards who were afraid to own their Lord and their God.

Wisdom is justified of all her children.

Never forget it. Jesus said it of John the Baptist, and although he died in a dungeon, and his head was taken up in a charger, he lives on.

The Righteous Never Die.

Do right. May God in His Infinite Mercy grant that you may not be ashamed to confess your Saviour; that you will not be ashamed to forsake your sins; that you will not be ashamed to trust in your Saviour.

That Saviour is still the same, the same Saviour, the same Healer, the same Cleanser, the same Keeper.

He is just the same today. If He is the same, He is the Healer as well as the Saviour from sin. If He is not the same Healer, the Bible is a lie, because the Bible says that "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever."

Who are you to say that He has changed? He never changes. I would not stand with those who are afraid to own His Name, or to advocate His cause, or to obey all His commands, for all the millions that man could give; for all the gold of Ophir; for all the crowns of earth.

May God bless you.

Humbly, faithfully, with true simplicity and real humility, may you live to serve God for Jesus' sake.

Stand and pray with me.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

Our God and Father, in Jesus' Name we come to Thee. Take us as we are. Make us what we ought to be, in spirit, in soul, in body. Give us power to do right, no matter what it costs. Give us Thy Holy Spirit, that we may live lives of true humility, simple faith and perfect love, doing right, and never being ashamed. Give us the wisdom which helps us to trust Thee and guides us, that we may be justified by and by, when life is past, for Jesus' sake. Amen. (The prayer was repeated, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

After the Doxology had been sung, the services were closed by the General Overseer pronouncing the following

BENEDICTION.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you and bless you ever. Amen.

On Steamship Graf Waldersee, Lord's Day Afternoon, August 12, 1900, in Second Cabin Dining-Room.

The services were opened by the audience singing Hymn Number 142.

The thirty-fifth chapter of Isaiah was then repeated.

The General Overseer then read from the eighth chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew, the first seventeen verses, at the close of which Hymn Number 44 was sung.

JESUS, THE EVER-PRESENT HEALER.

The General Overseer then delivered the following address:

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, O Lord, and profitable unto this people: for Thou art our Lord, our Strength, and our Redeemer. Amen.

In the passage which I have read to you, the eighth chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew, the sixteenth and seventeenth verses, you will find the Scripture concerning which I wish to speak:

And when even was come, they brought unto Him many possessed with devils: and He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all that were sick: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases.

Is Jesus Christ the same, or has He changed?

If Jesus Christ is not the same, the Bible is a lie and Christianity a farce.

But if Jesus Christ is still the same, if the words are true, and I believe they are, which are in the Word of God, that "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever," then He is the very same Saviour, He is the very same Healer, He is the very same Cleanser, He is the very same Keeper that He was nineteen centuries ago.

"Oh," says somebody, "He is not with us now."

I believe the Bible. I believe what He said:

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

If it is true that Jesus Christ is with us always, He is with us now, is He not?

If He is not with us now, what He said is not true.

But what He said is true. He is with us now, and He is just the very same Jesus.

The Reality of the Unseen.

"Oh," you say, "I do not see Him."

That does not matter. You do not see me.

"Oh yes, we see you."

No, you do not. You simply see a human form; you simply hear a human voice; but you do not see my spirit within. We never see each other. We simply see certain forms which are clad with certain clothes. All you see, even of the human bodies, are the hands, the head and the neck. Everything down to the toes is covered up.

The spirit looks out of these windows of the eyes, hears through the ears, and feels, smells and tastes through other senses; but you never see the real spiritual being.

You do not see me, but you can realize that I am here.

You can realize that God is here.

That same God, who came to us in the Person of His Son, is with us here today, in the power of His Spirit.

The very same power to save is here.

No sinner who confesses and forsakes his or her sin shall fail to find mercy with God.

No one who will do right shall fail to find Healing from God.

He is the very same Saviour. He is the very same Healer. He is the very same Cleanser. He is the very same Keeper.

I desire to talk to you about the stories which are told in the eighth chapter of Matthew.

The first story is

The Story of the Leper.

That leper did not appear. Perhaps he was hidden behind a rock or tree, when Christ was teaching upon that mountain near Capernaum. As a leper, he could not present himself.

Lepers were driven from the cities and the villages, and lived in the mountains, usually among the tombs. Their food was put out for them, and they had to go and take it. No one was allowed to be near enough to touch them. They were hated and feared.

When Christ had finished a number of sermons, commonly called the Sermon on the Mount, He departed from that part of the country. He went across the Sea of Galilee the following day.

That leper possibly knew that the Master was going away and that his opportunity for being healed was going away, too. He had heard the Lord. It was a very remarkable thing that Christ was preaching. Christ was a simple man in outward appearance, and yet that Man Jesus Christ of Nazareth was saying in effect, "I am God." "Before Abraham was, I am."

It is a very hard thing for the people to believe that God could possibly come in human form. Large numbers did not believe it.

However, as He went on teaching, this Gospel got into that leper's heart and he believed. When a man believes Christ, he becomes sorry for his sins and repents of them. He asks God to forgive his sins. No doubt that leper did that.

But Repentance did not take away the leprosy. It did not restore him to health. He was still a leper. He could not get near his mother, or his wife or his children. And although he was saved, he was yet unclean.

How was he to be clean? He came to the Lord and said, "Lord, if Thou wilt," and the Lord said, "I will," touched him, and he was clean. He is the same Lord today.

If you come to Him and find in Him Salvation, you shall also find Healing if you trust and obey.

Do not pray as the leper prayed. Do not say, "If Thou wilt." I will tell you why: because the Lord answered that prayer and said, "I will." That leper believed Him, and came forward and was touched and was healed.

The Story of the Centurion's Servant.

The next healing was a very remarkable one. A centurion, a commandant of a Capernaum garrison of a hundred men, had a devoted servant who was very sick.

After the leper's healing, as Christ was on His way to Capernaum, this centurion came out of the city to beseech the Lord on behalf of his servant.

Another narrative says that he sent a number of Jewish elders to Christ. They went to Christ with this plea:

> He is worthy that Thou shouldest do this for him: for he loveth our nation, and himself built us our synagogue.

The very highest idea that they had about the man's virtue was that he had built a church.

Christ had no confidence in that. He did not listen to these men, but He went right on. When He came near to the gate of the city, there was the centurion himself in full military attire, with two servants. When he met the Lord, he made a short prayer.

Prayers to be of any account, must be short. There is no use making long prayers. God does not care for long prayers. All the good prayers are short prayers. But you must mean them.

This prayer was a very short one,

> Lord, my servant lieth in the house sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

He simply stated the case. That was a very short prayer. He did not need to tell the Lord a great deal, because the Lord knew everything.

Did Jesus say, "If your servant is sick, why do you not send for a doctor? What is the use of coming to Me? Why do you not call the doctor, and give him all the drugs necessary?"

Jesus said, "I will come and heal him." He never mentioned doctors. He never had anything to do with them.

Scriptural Teaching Concerning Physicians.

All the Bible has to say about doctors is that they are a great failure.

> In vain shalt thou use many medicines.
> Ye are all physicians of no value.

The woman who touched the hem of His garment "had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse." There are a great many women like her in the world today.

Jesus said, "I will come and heal him."

If He is just the same Saviour, is He not willing to do the same thing now? If you will obey Him, and act in the same way that the centurion did, what will He say?

He will say, "Go thy way; as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee."

The servant was healed instantly.

The Story of Peter's Wife's Mother.

After that He came into a house, Peter's house, to supper, and the Devil had gotten ahead of him and had made the principal lady of the house very sick. Peter's wife's mother was very sick.

By the way, our good friends, the Roman Catholics, have a Pope who says that he is Peter's successor. If he is Peter's successor in everything, he ought to be a married man, because Peter had a mother-in-law.

It is a very good thing to have a good mother-in-law.

They implored the Lord for this lady. He went in and saw her. Nothing was said. She was sick. She could not rise and serve the Lord. He touched her hand and she arose.

Is He the same Saviour? Is He the same Healer? Has Jesus changed? If Jesus is with us now, He is willing to do that same thing now.

"Oh, no, that is not the way God does now," says the skeptic.

How does He do now?

"He heals by means of doctors."

Does He! Which doctor is it, the Homeopath, the Allopath, the Hydropath, the Psychopath, the Isopath, or the Electropath? Which of the paths is it? If he heals by means of doctors, which is it?

The Homeopath says, "Similia, similibus, curantur: Like cures like."

The Allopath says, "Contraria, contrariis, curantur: The contrary cures the contrary."

Can they both be right? If God Almighty has left us the doctors, He ought to have told us what particular kind of a doctor, what particular kind of medicine He would heal by.

When did God say He healed that way? He said in His own Word:

> I am the Lord that healeth Thee.
> I am the Lord, I change not.

What right have you to say that He has changed?

Under the Ancient Dispensation He revealed Himself at the waters of Marah to Moses and to Israel where He healed the waters. There He called Himself by the great Covenant Name, Jehovah-Rophi: "I am the Lord, thy Healer."

He is the same Healer still. Anybody who says differently must deny the Bible. If you say that He is changed, then you have to say that the Bible is false; because the Bible says that God is not changeable.

If He does not change, then that Covenant stands, and He is the Healer of His people.

The Healing of the Multitudes.

Then they had a good supper. It is a good thing to have a good supper. Their supper that night was probably mostly fish and honey. They did not have as much variety as we have.

After our Lord Jesus Christ had had supper, a great crowd of people collected at the door.

At even, ere the sun was set,
The sick, oh Lord, around Thee lay.
Oh with what divers pains they met,
Oh with what joy they went away.

He was full of compassion.

He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all that were sick; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities and bare our diseases.

Does He not take them still? I know He does.

I have seen thousands and tens of thousands of people whom God has healed.

I never healed anybody. Some of these silly papers will say that I say that I did this and that and the other thing. I never said anything of the kind. I would just as soon say I saved people as that I healed them.

There is Only One Divine Healer—God Himself.

The only people I know who claim healing power are doctors. They say they can cure you, and they do not do it. They cannot cure themselves. They die more quickly than almost any of the community.

I had a narrow escape from being a doctor of medicine. When I was at Edinburgh University I studied it to see what there was in it. The more I studied it, the less I saw in it, except the Devil and rashness.

The doctors know nothing about disease. A doctor comes and looks at you. He asks you to put out your tongue. You stick it out. He takes your temperature and thumps your chest. Then he shakes his head. There is nothing in it—I mean his head. He does not know anything about it. He cannot tell anything unless you tell him something, and after you have told him something, he makes the most ridiculous guesses.

In New York, a year or two ago, a very clever and rather unscrupulous little lady, named Nellie Bly, was hard up for a sensation for the newspaper on which she was a reporter. She took five twenty-dollar bills and went up Fifth Avenue and called on five doctors. Every one of them said she had a different disease: one kidney disease, one lung disease; one said her heart was in trouble, another said she had very serious liver trouble, etc.

There was nothing wrong with the young lady at all. They gave her five different sets of prescriptions and diagnoses for five different diseases. She brought back the diagnoses and five prescriptions. That was all she got for a hundred dollars.

God Knoweth Our Frame.

If I made a watch, do you not think I could tell all about a watch? Would I not be the right man to repair that watch? If your watch should go wrong, would you take it to a butcher, a baker, or a candlestick maker? Of course, you would take it to a watchmaker.

If the body goes wrong, and if God has made it, does He not understand it? Nobody understands it better than God.

If you have been a naughty boy, or a naughty man—and you are naughty if you take tobacco, you stinkpots. Tobacco is the thing to tune you up for the Devil to make a fool of you. How the Devil does make a fool of a man who smokes!

He gives him amaurosis, paralysis, cancer and many other diseases. What a silly thing it is for a man to be a victim of tobacco; to lie awake thinking about it! He has to get up and serve his god, a big square piece of tobacco. He has to chew his god and churn his god in his mouth, and squirt him out every now and then, just to show him how diligently he serves him.

If tobacco is a good thing, why do you not give it to your wives?

Why do you not ask them to have a chew?

Why do you not bring them home a box of cigars, and ask them to light up, too?

Oh you stinkpots!

How the ship stinks, does it not, from one end to the other? Ugh!

Folly and Crime of Defiling the Temple of God.

A man is a bigger fool who is a beerpot. He becomes nothing but a beer funnel.

Why can you not live clean? You will not get healing from God, if you take these dirty things. God will not heal you unless you do right.

You must eat what is good and do what is good and think what is good, and do right. Everybody knows that.

Even those who do the naughty things themselves know that.

Then ask God to forgive you for all the wrong you have done.

Just think what is spent in this world upon drink and tobacco! Do you know how much is spent in the United States of America?

Seven hundred millions of dollars a year on tobacco, thirteen hundred million dollars a year on liquor!

Two billions of dollars! Just think of it!

Think of what a waste it is. Think of the crime it produces, the sickness, and the misery, and the deaths.

God wants you to do right. He wants you to live clean lives. If you will do right, God will bless you.

You have to repent. Some of you have been telling lies to your husbands. You have to repent of that. Some of you have been telling lies to your wives, and you have to repent of it. Some of you have been doing wrong to your neighbor. You have to repent of that.

If you have taken anything that belongs to anybody else, you have to give it back, restore it.

Do right; then God will have mercy upon you, and He will bless you.

Is that not good, straight talk? That is the Gospel: that you are to repent and do right, and you are to do it quickly.

Do not put it off, because we do not know what might happen to us.

I have gone on a great many voyages, and God has always cared for me. I think He will take care of us in this voyage and bring us safely to land. He always has. I have never had an accident. I have never been on a train which had an accident. I have never been on a ship which has had a serious accident. God has taken care of me; but He might permit us to pass away very suddenly some day. A man had better be ready.

"Prepare to Meet Thy God."

Every one of you ought to be ready, ought always to be ready: for "at an hour when ye think not" God might call you. Then you had better be ready. You are not going to live here on earth always. It is only going to be a comparatively short life. Then you will have to stand a naked spirit before the Judgment Seat of God, and give an account of how you spent the money God gave you. You will have to give an account of how you treated your husband.

Some of you have to repent considerably over that. You have to consider how you treated the wife whom God gave you.

Then you must consider how you treated your employees. There was a man who was worth $20 a week, and you gave him $10. You mean fellow! You must repent of that. He was earning more than you gave him. That is not fair. That will not stand in the Judgment.

"You must repent," I said to a man the other day.

"I do right," he said.

"Look here," I said, "your wife does not think that."

"She always wants money," he said.

I said, "What does she do for you?"

"Oh," he replied, "she is a good wife. She cooks, bakes, and washes and mends my clothes; she keeps everything nice and clean."

I said, "Do you ever give her any money?"

"I give her money to buy her clothes with," he answered.

"If she were to do all that as your housekeeper, she would earn at least $6 a week, would she not?"

"Yes."

"Why do you not pay it to her? Why do you not give her an allowance equal to that? You are a mean skunk. You are no man at all; you treat your wife worse than you would a servant."

He scratched his head. "Don't say any more. I will do right. Perhaps I will give her $2."

I said, "That will not do. You give her at least what you would give a servant."

So he started in. He said to me the other day, "I have given my wife what I would have given a servant, and more. I am better off this year. She thinks more of me, too."

All Blessing Depends Upon Doing Right.

Men and women cannot get Salvation, they cannot get Healing, and God will not hear their prayers when they will not do right.

The Kingdom of God is Righteousness, and Peace, and Joy in the Holy Ghost.

Many people do not like that kind of talk, because it hurts. They know it is not right to smoke; they know it perfectly well. They know they stink their wives out of the room many a time. They know they sweat at night the dirty tobacco sweat. No woman ought to stand it. It poisons women. It poisons children.

I went into a house sometime ago. The man was crying bitterly: "Oh, Doctor, my baby is dying."

"Dying," I said. "Where is the fire here? Get a bucket of water and fling it over this man. He is on fire. Throw open the doors and windows, and drown out the fire on this man."

"Why, there is no fire," he replied.

I said, "There is. You have filled this house with tobacco smoke. The child cannot breathe."

The little baby was gasping for breath, and it was nothing else but that man's infernal stink and smoke that was choking that baby to death.

I threw the windows open, let in the fresh air and turned the man outside. He was still crying.

The baby revived in five minutes. Nothing was wrong but tobacco.

Many children are choked to death like that.

You think of that now, some of you.

Some persons say, "The baby cannot keep milk on its stomach." I should think it could not! You imagine a baby swallowing all your tobacco smoke, and keeping anything on its stomach! Ugh! You have a multitude of sins to answer for.

Stop that fooling and do right. That is sense, is it not? (Some assented by nodding their heads.)

Then do not smoke any more; do not drink any more; do not gamble any more. Ask God to forgive you for the past. Put things right, and God will bless you, as sure as you live.

God will hear and answer your prayers, and you will be happy men and women.

Himself took our infirmities and bare our diseases.

He is here today.

God, Our Father, Loves Us.

He longs to bless us.

He loves all of us.

He loves naughty children.

He loves people who do not love Him.

He loves us just as we love our children who do not do right.

May God bless you. May God help you. Let us stand and pray. I would like you all to repeat the prayer.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be, in spirit, in soul, in body. Give me power to do right, no matter what it costs. Give me Thy Holy Spirit, that I may trust Thee, serve Thee, live for Thee, and get to heaven when my life is over, for Jesus' sake. Amen. (This prayer was repeated, clause by clause, after the General Overseer, by some present.)

The Doxology was then sung.

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY.

REPORTED BY S. D. W. AND A. W. N.

"GOD, through Zion's teaching and prayers, nas saved me, healed me, cleansed me, kept me, prospered me and made me happy. I thank and praise Him."

This was the burden of the story of scores of witnesses in Central Zion Tabernacle on Lord's Day, October 28, 1900.

Morning, afternoon, and evening, they stood upon the platform, and with radiant faces proclaimed their deliverance.

Each had suffered at the hands of the Devil, through error, false teaching and sin; each had found that Jesus, as in the days when He was on earth in human form, was still "destroying the works of the Devil."

And so they told of His goodness with great joy. Their testimonies, simple, spontaneous, hearty, had the ring and bore the unmistakable stamp of truth. They are incontestible.

Many of the witnesses, especially at the morning service, were little children, who lisped God's praises for healing them of diseases of every nature. With the simple, unwavering, unquestioning faith of childhood, they had claimed the blessing. This clear faith was shown in their testimonies and was a valuable lesson to many of God's older children.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY.

Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day Morning, October 28, 1900.

The services were opened by singing.

Overseer Speicher took charge of the meeting, and at the close of the hymn asked all to unite in repeating the thirty-fifth chapter of the book of the Prophet Isaiah.

The announcements were then made and the offering received.

The meeting was then thrown open for praise and testimony.

INVOCATION.

Father, bless the testimony of the children this morning; the little lights who are growing up in Zion. May they be great lights for God. May that light diminish the darkness. May their example be felt in the world for good. May their message come from true little hearts this morning. Teach us to live for Thee, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

Healed of Bad Cold in Answer to Prayer.

Master Willie Young, 127 West Twenty-first Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I had a bad cold. I went into the prayer room on Children's Meeting Day. Elder Graves laid his hands on me and prayed for me. I was healed. I praise the Lord for that."

Miss Sadie C. Touers, 18 East Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I fell down stairs and hurt myself. I went into the healing room, was prayed for, and when I got home I was better.

Overseer Speicher—Did you have any more pain?

Miss Touers—"No."

"When the General Overseer came to Waterloo to preach, he prayed with me. When I went back to the hotel I felt much better, and began to receive my hearing."

Overseer Speicher—Can you hear now?
Miss Johnson—"Yes, sir."
Overseer Speicher—You go to school?
Miss Johnson—"Yes, sir."
Overseer Speicher—And you are able to hear what the teacher says?
Miss Johnson—"Yes, sir.
"After we came to Chicago, I heard something crack in my ear. After a while it cracked again, and I could hear just as well as ever."

Healed of Heart Disease and Dropsy.

Miss Ruth M. Speicher, Zion Home, said: "Last spring I studied too hard in school, and papa took me out. I had heart disease. Papa prayed for me, and I got well. I thank God for that."

Overseer Speicher—She had heart disease and dropsy. Her face was badly swollen. We thought best for her not to go to school for a little while.

This young man cannot talk very well. (Laughter.)

His name is John Dowie Speicher. He loves Zion, too. He is learning some little things in the kindergarten at Zion Home. There are fifteen or twenty little fellows who are studying all kinds of good things in the kindergarten.

A few days ago the lights went out in Zion Home in the evening, about 7 or 8 o'clock. It was very dark. John looked up and said, "Jesus said, 'Let there be light,' and there is no light at all." (Laughter.) He had learned in the kindergarten that God said, "Let there be light, and there was light," and he did not like for them to go against the Word of God in that way.

I wish we could all learn that we all have to obey God's commandments in all things like that. That is the way the children are learning in Zion.

God's Power Heals of Mumps.

Miss Charlotte Lina Renevier, 39 East Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "About two or three weeks ago I was healed of the mumps. I had it very badly, but God healed me of it. I praise Him for it."

Many Healings in Family.

Miss Anna Federmeyer, 4021 Cottage Grove Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "The Lord has healed me of very bad headaches. My sister has been healed of whooping-cough and my brother of a very bad earache. My mamma had a stiff neck and she was healed of that. I thank God for it."

Measles Healed Through Prayer.

Miss Myrtle Anderson, Zion Home, said: "I had the measles and mamma prayed for me. I got well. I thank the Lord for it."

Healed of Injury.

Miss Williamine Larsen, 9213 Ellis Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I praise the Lord for what He has done for me. Last week I fell through a rotten board on our porch. I had my little niece in my arms. I skinned my leg badly. I prayed to the Lord and He healed me instantly."

Voices of the Children Praising God.

Miss Bessie Kibbey, Zion Home, said: "I am glad to say that Jesus has healed me many times."

Overseer Speicher—This is the daughter of that awful man Fockler. (Laughter.)

Miss Mary Fockler, Zion Home, said: "Last winter I was healed of pneumonia. I got so bad one night that mamma sent a telegram to my papa, who was in Mansfield. He got it the next morning, and prayed. Then I was healed. I praise God for it." (Amen.)

Miss Sunshine Harding, 1514 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "Four years ago I was healed of scarlet fever. Mamma sent a telegram to Dr. Dowie, and I was healed. I thank God for it."

Miss May Howe, 1514 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I praise the Lord for what He has done for me. Three years ago I fell in the back shed and turned my wrist over, dislocating it. That was before I knew much about Zion. Mamma was reading LEAVES OF HEALING one day, and said, 'I am going to trust God.' She took hold of my hand and prayed. In the morning when I got up she said, 'Your hand is all well.'

"I said, 'Yes, Mamma, God healed it in the night.' I felt it, and I praise the Lord for it."

Miss Eda Enn Rann, 7 Park Row, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I had the measles and the Lord healed me."

Master Julius Federmeyer, 4021 Cottage Grove Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I had the earache four years ago very badly. We prayed to God and I was healed."

Almost Perfect Healing of Curvature of the Spine.

Healed of Very Severe Illness.

Master Roy Clemons, 1432 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I was sick with earache, abscesses in the head and lung trouble. Papa went down and saw Dr. Dowie. Dr. Dowie came down to our house and prayed for me and I was well in the morning. I thank God for it."

Overseer Speicher—He was a very sick boy.

Healed in Answer to Mother's Prayers.

Miss Alvina Trampisch, 366 Indiana Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank God that He has healed me of inflammation of the bowels. I was very sick with it. I called for mamma and she prayed for me, and in the morning I was well."

Brother and Sister Thank God for Healing.

ruptured when coughing. We doctored with him for three years. It did him no good. He was no better until we came to Zion."

Overseer Speicher—How long did he wear the brace?

Mrs. Dahlman—"Ever since he was two years old. He wore out two. We knew that Jesus was the Healer. The doctor said we would have to have an operation performed, and that he would have to stay seven weeks in the hospital and remain in bed at home seven weeks."

Overseer Speicher—Fourteen weeks sick after an operation, and then they would not guarantee any cure?

Mrs. Dahlman—"No. The Lord has healed me, and I give Him the praise.

"This is Mabel Fischer, 2008 Wentworth Avenue. She has no mamma, and so she stays with me. The other morning she had a penknife. I had sent my little boy to the store, and she ran to meet him. As they were coming home they were playing horse. They ran across the yard and she fell and stuck this knife blade right in her cheek. She came running to me with the knife sticking in her cheek. I took her between my knees and pulled the knife out. Then blood began to come. I prayed with her, and as soon as I could brought her to Zion Home. When we got as far as Twelfth Street she said that all the pain had gone."

Overseer Speicher—All who desire to give themselves to God and serve Him fully and to accept the Lord Jesus Christ as their Saviour in all things, and those who desire to consecrate themselves anew to God, stand.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be in all things. Cleanse my spirit. Cleanse my soul. Cleanse my body from all impurity, that it may be right in Thy sight; that I may be a glory to Thee and of good in Thy Church; a help in the cause of Christ and in the saving of the world from sin and from sickness and from uncleanness. Bless me for Jesus' sake. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after Overseer Speicher.)

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day Afternoon, October 28, 1900.

The meeting was taken in charge by Overseer Speicher, and opened by singing Hymn Number 161:

I will sing of my Redeemer
And His wondrous love to me;
On the cruel cross He suffered,
From the curse to set me free.

CHORUS—Sing, oh! sing, of my Redeemer,
With His blood He purchased me.
On the cross He sealed my pardon,
Paid the debt, and made me free.

The forty-third chapter of Isaiah was then read.

Prayer was then offered by Overseer Piper, after which the announcements were made.

The offering was then taken, after which the meeting was thrown open for praise and testimony.

Overseer Speicher said: These testimony meetings have been held so often in Zion that we who are accustomed to them take them as a matter of fact.

Testimony Meetings in Zion Unique.

These meetings cannot be duplicated anywhere else in all the world, outside of Zion. There is no other people in all the world who can say that they use no tobacco, no liquor, no medicine, no pork; have no secret societies, no dancing, theaters or card parties; who believe in the Theocratic Party.

There is no other people who have such a standing and such a record and make such tremendous claims. Above all this, there is another claim which they make, that is, that God for Jesus' sake has saved them from their sins, and healed them from their diseases. Nowhere can we find so large a number of people who trust the Lord Jesus Christ alone as their Healer. Nowhere have there been so many miraculous healings.

Zion's testimony is a condemnation to every Christian denomination in all the world. We are not all we ought to be, we are not all we hope to be; but we are glad to thank God and to tell the world that God is continuing to bless. Our purpose this afternoon is to glorify the Name of God. It is our desire in all that we say to give the glory due unto His Name.

No man has any credit. John Alexander Dowie deserves the credit of an honest, godly man. He deserves that credit, but so far as the work itself is concerned, he can and does lay no claim to it.

No man living has ever given God the same credit and the same glory and the same honor that the General Overseer has given to God and to His Son Jesus Christ.

No man can say that Dr. Dowie has taken the honor to himself, neither can any man say that Zion is taking any credit or glory to herself. It all belongs to God.

We will give God the glory.

He has done many wonderful things in Zion, and He is ready to do more.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Thy sight, profitable unto this people and to whomsoever these words shall come, in this and every land, for Jesus' sake. Amen.

Delivered From Masonic Bondage, Tobacco and Liquor. Healed of Hemorrhoids and Indigestion.

Edward A. Klawonn, 344 Fulton Street, Pullman, Illinois, said: "I have been healed of itching hemorrhoids and internal hemorrhoids, which caused constipation and many other troubles. I have been healed of indigestion. I used to have terrible pain in my chest and stomach, and various other troubles.

"I was a Freemason and a member of the Royal League Insurance Order. I came out of both, giving up the $2,000 insurance."

Overseer Speicher—You have given up your insurance. Not getting ready to die any more? (Laughter.)

Mr. Klawonn—"No, sir. I am getting ready to live now.

"I was also an active Turner. Of course the Turners drink beer. I used to be a stinkpot.

"I was born and raised a Lutheran. When I was a little boy I was quite a Sunday School boy. I thought that when I was confirmed I would go to Church more regularly. After I was confirmed I did not go to Church as much (laughter) as I did before.

"Then I thought that when I got married, I would go to Church. (Laughter.) But when I was married I was an infidel." (Laughter.)

Overseer Speicher—Do you think that you were converted in the Lutheran Church?

Mr. Klawonn—"No, sir."

Overseer Speicher—Were you converted in Zion?

Mr. Klawonn—"I was. I was a Mason for three and one-half years, and I smoked more cigars and drank more whisky in that time than during all the rest of my life."

Overseer Speicher—You thought that was a good religion?

Mr. Klawonn—"That is why I joined it—to make a better man of myself."

Overseer Speicher—But it was just as bad as the Lutheran Church?

Mr. Klawonn—"Yes; worse. (Laughter.) That is one of the reasons why I dropped it, because it was degrading me. I thank God that I am out of Masonry.

"I had a little fear in my heart, and I thought the way to get that out was to have a cottage meeting. At the first meeting I was afraid that there would be too many. The next time I went around and asked the neighbors to come to the meeting, and we had about twenty-nine."

Overseer Speicher—How many of these were members of Zion?

Mr. Klawonn—"Only my wife and myself."

Overseer Speicher—All outside of Zion. Do you not see what the cottage meetings are doing? (Laughter and applause.)

Mr. Klawonn—"I thank God that I have had this opportunity to give my testimony."

Overseer Speicher—He came out of the Lutheran Church, where he was actually confirmed in his sins. He had never been asked to repent of his sins; had never been asked to make restitution; had never been asked to get right with God. He was asked to become a Lutheran, and he drank all the beer he wanted to, and chewed all the tobacco he wanted to.

Then he joined the Masons to get a little more light. You cannot get light in the Masonic Fraternity. God never said,

"Let there be light among the Masons." It is full of darkness.

God Heals of Sciatic Rheumatism, Dislocation of Arm and Other Ailments.

Deacon A. F. Mueller, 1053 West Adams Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I praise God today for the many blessings in spirit, soul and body I have received since coming into Zion. I had been suffering with sciatic rheumatism for many years. I had many complications besides that of which I have been delivered. Among them, but not least of all, was an accident which befel me two years ago last February. I fell head foremost down my front steps, it being very slippery. I struck the stone sidewalk as well as the iron post with my right arm. I dislocated the elbow and bruised the joint. I suffered severe agony. I had to be assisted into the house, and it was distressing me from head to foot.

"My wife and my son knelt down beside me and prayed. Then my son suggested to go and telephone to the General Overseer, and ask him to pray also. After he returned from the drug store, where he had gone to telephone, my arm was in place, the dislocated elbow had gone into place and the severe pain had been removed.

"Then my arm began to swell to an immense size. It swelled from the shoulder clear down to the wrist. I could not move a finger for three days. It was as near paralyzed as it could be. But I suffered no severe pain from the time the General Overseer had prayed for me.

"During these three days and nights I lay constantly in a stupor, wanting no nourishment or anybody to bother me. I would doze away for hours at a time. The fourth day I arose and carried my arm in a sling. Within two weeks my arm diminished in size and within two months I was able to use my arm just as I had before. I was able to take a sledgehammer and swing it over my shoulder. By this time the enlargement had very nearly all disappeared.

"I give God all the glory.

"My head was twisted around and I was not able to sit down or get up out of a chair without some one assisting me, on account of my rheumatism. I was so affected with sciatica that my right limb was short. I have been delivered from that, and since then I have been bothered with it only once or twice, and I have been delivered each time in answer to prayer. I had suffered for fifteen years.

"I thank God for the teaching which I have received through our General Overseer. Spiritually I must say I have never enjoyed life as I do now, although I was a professed Christian for a number of years. I never knew what it was to live close to Jesus."

God Answers Prayer for Healing.

Mrs. W. B. Carr, 617 West Sixty-fifth Place, Chicago, Illinois, said: "It will be twelve years in January since I abandoned relying upon man for help—spirit, soul and body. An Evangelist preached at St. Paul's Church, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and after listening to her preaching I was led to Repentance. She afterwards made the statement, although she gave us no more, that if we would trust the Lord for healing, He had never changed. From that moment to this I have never touched a remedy or anything that I knew was a remedy. I never will, the Lord being my Helper.

"I did use some simple remedies for a time, not thinking that they were wrong. I found that I was not healed while I used them, and so I threw away everything that could possibly be called a remedy, and trusted the Lord for my body as well as my spirit.

"I trusted the Lord for my children, and they have been healed without man's aid. My baby was sick last spring. I sent into Zion, and they answered me directly, not charging me fifty cents, as my friends out there say they do for every prayer. I left the Methodist Church, and from the time I came into Zion I have not been sick over one hour. I told the Lord and He healed me."

Five Years of Trust and Victory.

Miss Grace Gillis, 88 East Twenty-third Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I shall not attempt this afternoon to tell of everything that God has done for me. It would take too long. There are so many things that I do not know which one to tell. For five years I have trusted God as my All and in All. He has kept me faithful. I have gone through many trials, and He has brought me through victorious. I thank God for Zion, and for our General Overseer. The Lord has permitted me to go to Zion College. I thank Him for that and for many things."

Converted, Brought Out of the Methodist Church and Healed.

Albert Miller, 37 East Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I have a great deal to praise the Lord for this afternoon. Four years ago I came out of the Methodist Church. I had been a Methodist for eight years. When I joined the Church I had no religion at all. I joined because some of the rest of them did. I was not converted at all.

"A man came to Jacksonville, Illinois, and preached the Gospel. When I heard it, I was converted and came out of the Methodist Church. When I came out, all the people thought it was terrible.

"I went to a 'Holiness' meeting, and testified to healing right before them all. Then the 'Holiness' people wanted to educate me for the ministry. They did everything to get me to go, but I told them I would be educated in Zion. I would not listen to them. I stayed close to the Lord and prayed.

"I testified in the Methodist Church at Mount Sterling, Illinois. The minister told me if ever I came back to come and testify again."

God Gives Victory Over Adverse Circumstances and Diseases.

A. E. Stonehouse, 1243 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I praise the Lord that He opened the way for me to come to Zion College, although I had a hard battle to get victory over the Devil to come.

"Last May I was turned out of my home because I belonged to Zion and would not come out. I found that by trusting God I have a better life and a better home since then than I had before.

"I was troubled with weak kidneys from overwork—too heavy work when I was fourteen years old. I was troubled for nine years, and was taken sick one Sunday night after I came home from meeting last May. I asked my brother-in-law and my sister to pray for me. We did not get the victory until the next night. Then I asked them to pray again. I said that if I had not done what I ought to have done, or had done anything which I ought not to have done, that I did not know it. I asked them to pray to God to reveal it to me. That night we all had prayer just before I went to bed, and the next morning I got up and went down and worked hard shoveling wheat. I praise God for His loving kindness."

Brought Back to God From Ways of Sin. Delivered From Bad Habits and Healed.

John Singleton, 73 North State Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank Overseer Speicher for taking me, metaphorically, by the ear and reminding me of my duty in coming up on this platform and telling what God has done for me. I tried to be here a month ago, but the Devil got at me and made me sick and kept me away. I thank God I am here today.

"On the anniversary of my passing another milestone in life's journey, I am feeling better than I have felt for thirty years; feeling younger than I was twenty years ago.

"I have much to thank God for. I cannot begin to do it in the time I have.

"Some years ago I had wandered away from God; gone away back to the ways of the world. Hence I suffered a great deal from a variety of complaints; mostly lung trouble, it seemed, from overwork. In 1895, when my wife went to her reward, I had to give up my position. But I did not give up the ways I had followed. The consequence was that I kept going down hill. I was broken in health and getting farther away from God.

"God still held on to me, however. I thank Him for His mercy in following me up. As I was wandering away, He kept after me. He brought me to see my miserable state, and to turn my feet back into the paths which I had once followed. I thank Him for that. That sweet little hymn of Faber's was the great means of leading me back:

"Souls of men, why will ye scatter
Like a crowd of frightened sheep?
Foolish hearts! why will ye wander
From a love so true and deep?
Was there ever kinder Shepherd,
Half so gentle, half so sweet,
As the Saviour who would have us
Come and gather round His feet.

"It is God! His love looks mighty,
But is mightier than it seems:
'Tis our Father, and His fondness
Goes far out beyond our dreams.
There's a wideness in God's mercy,
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in His justice,
Which is more than liberty.

"There is no place where earth's sorrows
Are more felt than up in heaven;
There is no place where earth's failings
Have such kindly judgment given.
There is welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Saviour;
There is healing in His blood.

"That broke me all up. That gave me the revelation of the loving care of our heavenly Father which I had never realized before. That was about two years ago.

"Some friends visiting in my home talked to me about Dr. Dowie. They asked me what I thought of him. I had never studied the matter, because I was not studying in those things at that time; but I told them that I knew something about his good people and that I was going down some day to see for myself.

"A short time after that God led me here. I heard the General Overseer in his practical, incisive way. I received the teaching that very same day, which has never left me, thank God. I have been going on until I stand where I am today, with a better knowledge of the love of God in my heart, and the loving kindness of my Heavenly Father, and the great love of Jesus, than I have ever had before in all my life.

"I thank God for the many healings which I have had; wonderful healings. Overseer Speicher knows something of what I have gone through, and how wonderfully God has brought me out. Every weakness in my body has been taken away. Thank God, I stand before you today a strong, healthy man.

"My mental strength, which I had lost in years of labor, has returned.

"I thank God for liberating me from the accursed smoking tobacco habit of forty-five years' standing. I tried to break away from it, but there was always that lurking thought in my heart: 'Well, maybe some time in the future you may want to take a smoke.' Finally, when God brought me home, I asked Him to take away the tobacco habit. It went forever, thank God, at that moment. I never had any desire for tobacco afterwards. I used to get up five and six times in the night and take a smoke, and was smoking all the day.

"God also delivered me from the drink habit. I was not much of a drinker in recent years, but during my early years I drank considerably. I thank God that He has enabled me to put that behind my back also. If God's people only knew the effects of alcohol upon their spiritual nature, they would never put a drop of it inside of them. I also found that tobacco interfered very greatly with my thinking powers. After I quit its use, I found that I was equal, in mental capacity, to those who had before surpassed me.

"I was also delivered from the appetite for swine's flesh and oysters.

"In 1893 I was taken to St. Luke's hospital to be operated upon for appendicitis. God very wonderfully spared my life. I had engaged a certain surgeon to perform an operation upon me. While I was waiting for him I heard remarks about me by some of the other patients, and some complimentary remarks about the other surgeon, and when the one I had engaged to operate on me came in, I said, 'I have concluded to have So-and-so take my case.' Thank God he came, and I did not have to undergo any operation. I did not have strength to do it.

"I was out of bed in about ten days. My physician insisted that I must wear a flannel bandage about eighteen inches deep twice around my body. I suffered severely with that during the hot weather. That was in 1894. I took it off, and came near having to go to the hospital again.

"I dragged along until I happened to go in to see Dr. Speicher one day. I told him about it, and he said, 'Take it off.' I took it off, and thank God I have never had any trouble from it since.

"I suffered for twenty-five or thirty years with constipation. I thank God that Overseer Speicher prayed for me and laid his hands on me, and I have never been troubled with it from that day to this. That is over a year ago.

"I love to look into the faces of this bright and cheerful people. There is no congregation today in God's earth where you see so many happy people.

"I thank God for our General Overseer; for his blessed teaching which is doing so much good and has done so much good to me. I pray that God will make him a power in the old country; that London will be shaken with such a power as it has never experienced. I pray that this teaching may reach to the end of the world.

"I thank God for His many gracious answers to Overseer Speicher's prayers in my behalf; for the many healings I have received; also for spiritual blessings.

"I thank Overseers Piper and Mason for the help I have received in my spiritual instruction through their teachings.

"May God greatly bless all these His servants in their great labors in His cause.

"To God do I ascribe all the blessings I have received in Zion. To His Name I give all the Glory."

God Hears Prayer for Better Work and Better Pay.

Charles E. Robinson, 607 Evergreen Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "Perhaps there are few things more difficult to endure than for a man with a wife and babies to walk the streets wiliing to work, and unable to find work; for a man to work hard at the best he can get, and not be able to make enough for his family to live upon. That is what tries men's souls.

"The position which I had did not pay sufficient to support my family the best we could do. We began to pray about it, earnestly seeking unto the Lord. On a certain Tuesday I went to see Overseer Piper and asked him to pray that I might get what I was worth to the extent that I might have a living.

"I had twice appealed for a raise in my wages, and had both times been told that because I would not work on Sunday, and all the rest of the people of the institution did work on Sunday, I could not have my raise in wages. They said perhaps I deserved it. The day after Overseer Piper prayed for me, I went to ask again that I should have a raise in wages. The Sunday question was not mentioned that time. The gentleman said, 'I will give you a raise of so much. I would like to give you more. I perceive that you are worth more. I will give you any hour in the day to go out and hunt another position, but would be glad to have you stay at the increased wages.' The increase was eleven per cent.

"But the place was very dark and very unpleasant, and I still besought the Lord for a change to a light place to work in. On the following Saturday there came to me a telephone message that if I would go to a certain place I could get more money than I was getting, not have to work so hard, have a nice light place with windows all around, and everything would be delightful. On the Monday following, I went to the gentleman in the place and told him that I had heard that he had a vacancy. He put me in at once at another increase of thirty per cent, thus making in the course of five or six days in answer to the Overseer's prayers, coupled with mine and my wife's, who is faithful to the Lord, an increase of forty-five per cent in wages.

"Praise God for His goodness and His wonderful works to the children of men." (Applause.)

Instantly Healed of Typhoid Fever. Other Wonderful Healings.

Mrs. Anna D. Rice, 2674 North Forty-fourth Avenue, Irving Park, Illinois, said: "I have so much to thank God for that I do not know where to begin. About four years ago next February I was instantly healed through the prayer of faith. I was suffering from typhoid fever, and had a temperature of 104. I had been sick seven weeks, and the physician had given me up. I thought then that it was time to trust God for healing. We gave up the physician; I was prayed for and was up within an hour. I was restored fully to health.

"After the birth of one of my children the physician said I would never be well unless I would undergo an operation. Then I saw I must take God for my Healer or suffer all the time. I had heard of Dr. Dowie, but had never seen him. I had never heard him or read any of his papers, but I knew that he was a man of God. I felt it.

"The time was set for the operation, but we gave it up. I came to Zion Tabernacle and Dr. Dowie laid hands on me and prayed for me. I was healed instantly. From that day to this I have never suffered from any of the trouble.

"I suffered severe laceration from the birth of one of my children. I was a great sufferer and was under the doctor's care constantly. From the time the General Overseer prayed for me until today I have never suffered or had a physician in our home.

"Two or three weeks ago one of our little girls had a fall. She struck the back of her head. She was hurt so badly that her eyes became very dull and she kept sinking. There was no one at home but one of my little boys. He believed in Divine Healing. We prayed for her and received an answer. My son went and telephoned to the Overseer. As soon as he returned and they had prayed for the child, she immediately fell asleep. In twenty minutes she awoke, and the first words that she said were, 'Mamma, God has healed me. I am better now.'

"I have been greatly blessed in health. I have a baby two months old, and the physicians thought that I was such a great sufferer I could never be healed without an operation. I feel that I have a great deal to be thankful for."

Boy Healed of Typhoid Fever and Herenia.

Burt M. Rice, 2674 North Forty-fourth Avenue, Irving Park, Illinois, said: "I would just like to add a word to my wife's testimony in regard to the healing of our boy. He was healed of a severe hernia which he sustained at an early age. He had to wear a truss. He was healed of typhoid fever, and we were about to adjust the instrument, as he did not have it on while sick, and he said, 'Why, Mamma, did not God heal me of my hernia as well as of the typhoid fever?'

"He has never worn the truss since, and has been well."

Healed of Severe Injury to Eye.

Herbert Calvery, 297 South Franklin Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I have known something about this work since 1894. In the spring of 1894 I heard that Dr. Dowie was holding meetings in Central Music Hall. I was a little curious to hear this man who believed that the Lord healed. I went, one Sunday afternoon, but I could not get in. The place was full inside and out. All around Central Music Hall there were crowds of people. They were in groups here and there, all around the place. I went around to the rear to see if I could not get in at the rear, but there was no room where I could squeeze in at all.

"I began to listen to the people who were entertaining the groups. One was telling of being healed of bad eyes. Another was telling of being healed of some other disease and so all around Central Music Hall. I believed from that moment. I had not heard Dr. Dowie, but I believed.

"The next Sunday I was there in good time, and got a seat. I think, if I mistake not, the Doctor was speaking about Job's Boils. (Laughter.) When I heard the Doctor speak and heard him give his testimony with regard to Divine Healing, and preach the Word and his interpretation of it with regard to the Lord healing, I said at once, 'That man is right.' From that day to this the Lord has done all that work for me.

"I have followed the work right on. I was led to go to Zion Tabernacle No. 1. I heard Overseer Speicher give his testimony one Sunday immediately after that. I was very much interested in it. It made a very great impression upon me, that cancer should be healed without any aid from a doctor.

"About a year ago last January I was tuning a piano which had some strings missing. I was handling one of the bass strings. It had a raw end which had been cut off with pliers. This wire slipped out of my hands and the raw end struck me in the eye.

"I could not see for a little while. I prayed that the Lord would heal me.

"My eye became very much irritated. When the eyelid passed over the eyeball, it was almost unbearable. I prayed, and the Lord took away the irritation. I went to Zion Home in the evening. The General Overseer put his hand on my eye and prayed, and I never had any trouble after."

Wonderfully Healed of Paralysis.

Lewis Seeger, Dwight, Illinois, said: "I was a total wreck. In 1893 I was stricken down with paralysis. I was not able to be out of bed. The doctors said that my work was done. They gave me arsenic.

"My house was filled with people. They wanted to see 'Old Seeger' once more. I was two years on my bed.

"I read my Bible. I read that when the Lord Jesus was on this earth He was healing the sick, and that He wants to be with us, and that He is the same yesterday, today and forever. I found out through my reading that all the sick were healed by the Lord Jesus and that disease was of the Devil. Then I said, 'My sickness must be of the Devil, too.' (Laughter.) I had thought I was a child of God, and that I was converted, but I was smoking; I was a stinkpot. I drank beer. (Laughter.) I know now that I am converted.

"There was a preacher and an Elder on the circuit who were in my house. I filled the pipe for the preacher myself, and they smoked with me. (Laughter.)

"Then I heard about Dr. Dowie. They said he was near the World's Fair, preaching. They sent me LEAVES OF HEALING. I was just hungering for it. It was on a Sunday afternoon, and I thought I was well. I went down to tell my folks that I was well, but when I got halfway downstairs I was in my old shape again. Then I got down again. I was in the last stages. I thought I had to go. Then my house was full of people. They wanted to see 'Old Seeger' once more.

"Then I sent a request for prayer. I wanted to go to Zion. I said, 'Oh Lord, raise me up that I may go down to Chicago.'

"Dr. Dowie prayed for me, although he was seventy-three miles away. Between 11 and 12 o'clock my wife came up and pulled me out of bed. I knelt down and prayed in my heart as well as I could. Something told me that I was healed.

"I jumped up and said, 'Mamma, I am healed. I am well.'

"Then I came to Zion. I stood the journey better than my wife did.

"Dr. Dowie prayed with me in Divine Healing Home No. 1. When I came there I was a total wreck, but I thank the Lord that I did not die in my sins.

"Wherever I go they call me 'Dowie! Dowie! Dowie!'

"Two years ago I was baptized. The General Overseer said, 'You are mine now.' I am glad, but I am not worthy of it. Pray for me that I may be faithful to the end." (Applause.)

Overseer Speicher—He could not keep his mouth shut from paralysis. His tongue was hanging out. The Lord healed him so he could shut his mouth. He went about telling it to his neighbors until he ran up against an old Lutheran preacher. That preacher said, "Oh you are crazy. You have just gone crazy."

That discouraged him, and he did not talk about his healing any more. Then the Lord let the Devil open his mouth again. He was prayed for and then God healed the paralysis so that he could close his mouth.

All who believe the testimonies which have been given today, and believe from their hearts that God is the same yesterday, today and forever, and desire to live for God as far as they have light and knowledge and obey Him, stand on your feet and tell Him so.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be, in spirit, in soul and in body. Give me power to do right. Forgive my sins. Cleanse me from all disease, if I have any. Help me to trust in Thee and Thee alone for all things needed. Give me Thy Holy Spirit, that I may overcome the evil one and do Thy will acceptably for Thy glory, and for the good of Thy Kingdom, for Jesus' sake. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after Overseer Speicher.)

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

ZION CITY BANK.

By DEACON W. S. PECKHAM.

JESUS SAID: Trade ye herewith till I come.—Luke 19:13.

THIS is Jesus' command to do business. It furnishes sufficient authority for all of Zion's Financial Institutions.

We shall be held to an account for the use we make of our talent in money as much as any other talent God has given us.

If we are faithful stewards, we shall render that account with joy at our Lord's coming.

LOYALTY to Zion consists of something more than praying. It means, as far as possible, trusting all our material interests with Zion's Institutions.

"Faith without works is dead." Money never could buy the many and great blessings we have received through Zion. No one has ever been charged a dollar for any service rendered by Zion.

The only use our beloved General Overseer has for money is to push God's work. This work cannot be pushed without money, and you are not loyal if you have even a small sum of money lying idle, or swelling the assets of some worldly bank or corporation.

Bring all the resources into Zion's Institutions, and do so quickly. To fail to help now is to be guilty before God.

Zion will use all money to help our people, and to extend God's Kingdom.

DO NOT THINK because you only have a small sum of money that it will do no good to deposit it. Many small sums make a large fund.

While in the house or pocket, it does no good; but in Zion's hands it will help to save sinners, spread the Full Gospel and build Zion City, which will be a refuge for God's people, and a joy to the whole earth.

Never before have God's people had such an opportunity as is now open to them in Zion. They can now have their money used for God, and also get a good interest on all their investments.

INTEREST.—The legal rate of interest in the State of Illinois is five per cent, but agreement in writing may be made up to seven per cent. Above seven per cent would be usury, and the penalty for usury is the forfeiture of all interest.

Legal rate is collectible on moneys due on all instruments in writing; on money lent or advanced for use of another; on money due on settlement of account from day of ascertaining balance; on money withheld by unreasonable and vexatious delay, and on judgments.

In computations of time, interest, and discounts upon negotiable instruments, a month is construed to mean a calendar month, and a year to consist of twelve calendar months. For any number of days less than a month, a day is construed a thirtieth part of a month.

MORRISTOWN, NEW JERSEY, October 23.—Ignatz Bella, an old miner, has just lost the savings of a lifetime through depredations of mice. Bella had no faith in savings banks and had nearly $5,000 in bills hidden in his shanty. These the mice used to make nests of. Only a small part of them can be redeemed.—News Item.

A FEW YEARS ago a brother of one of our members put four twenty-dollar bills in a glass jar, and buried the jar in the ground. A short time ago he was advised to look at the money and found it in a badly decomposed state. He brought it to Zion City Bank, and we forwarded it to Washington. Experts there succeeded in identifying $60. Twenty dollars could not be picked out. If this money had been deposited in Zion City Bank, there would have been a nice gain in interest, and no loss of principal.

Another person had about $500 hidden away in his house. The house was destroyed by fire, and the loss in this case was even greater. Some of the money was in silver, which had melted into a common mass and so became bullion, making a loss of more than one-half (they had become Bryan dollars); the bills were a total loss, and about $30 of the gold could not be found.

ONE OF Zion College students was held up a short time ago. But, fortunately for him, the robbers failed to find the money he had upon his person.

These and like experiences are every-day occurrences, and our people must learn wisdom and put all their money in Zion City Bank. There it will be carefully guarded, and grow in interest. You will be benefited and Zion will be helped.

It is not safe to keep money in the house or carry it around with you. Not only is there danger of losing the money, but even life is in danger. Desperate men abound, who would not hesitate to murder any one for a little money.

DAYS OF GRACE are abolished in the State of Illinois by statute in force July 1, 1895.

EVERY ONE who has any property at all should make a will.

You can have your will drawn at Zion City Bank without charge, and it can be deposited in our vault for safekeeping.

A properly drawn will saves trouble, and often prevents expensive litigation and bitter strife after death.

AND ALL THEY that were round about them strengthened their hands with silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, beside all that was willingly offered.—Ezra 1:6.

NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD

Quickly Raised When Ill With Typhoid Fever.

CAMBRIDGE, OHIO, October 22, 1900.

REV. W. H. PIPER.

Dear Overseer Piper:—I thank God today that I am able to add my testimony to the many thousands now on record in Zion.

First of all, I thank God for being instantly raised up.

I thank you for your prayers.

On the afternoon of October 12th I was taken very sick and had to cease work.

I came home and went to bed with symptoms exactly the same as when I had typhoid fever four years ago.

I never once thought of having a doctor, but just trusted in the Lord.

My brother prayed for me and sent request to Headquarters for prayer, and also to Deacon W. B. Kindle, of Kalamazoo, Michigan.

I suffered terrible pain for about twelve hours.

The morning of October 13th found me some better, but still very weak. I could not eat or stand alone.

I tried to get up, but could not, and had to lie in bed until 3:45 P. M., when something said to me, "In the Name of Jesus Christ, rise up."

I got out of bed with a leap, dressed and went downstairs and had supper, praise the Lord.

God killed all symptoms of fever and now I am quite well.

I thank God more and more every day for Zion and for our dear General Overseer, who has brought a Full Gospel to us of Salvation for spirit, soul and body.

I desire, also, to thank Deacon Kindle for his prayers.

It was through Deacon Kindle that we first heard of Zion and Dr. Dowie, and we all have a warm place in our hearts for him.

May God bless Zion in Mansfield and give victory, and may she conquer all her enemies everywhere.

God bless Dr. and Mrs. Dowie and shield them from all harm, and bring them safely back to Chicago.

Faithfully yours in Jesus, HOWARD L. SUITT.

Swollen and Painful Eye Quickly Healed.

2358 INDIANA AVENUE,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, October 2, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER SPEICHER:—I send you herewith my testimony.

Yesterday morning I got up with a cold in my eyes, which later in the day set entirely in my right eye.

The pains were intolerable.

I telephoned to Zion Home, asking for you. You were not there, so Elder Graves took your place.

I received a blessing, but had to leave my work, for my eye was badly swollen and I was exposed to the draft.

Toward evening the pains started again.

A sister, my wife and myself knelt and asked God to give me a complete deliverance.

Our Heavenly Father heard our prayer, and I had a good night's rest.

This morning, thanks be to God, I could resume my work and be a witness for the God of Zion.

Many people had seen me yesterday and are wondering at my quick healing.

Praise be to God.

Yours respectfully in Christ, ROBERT BRAUN.

Wonderfully Healed of Catarrh. Little Boy Healed of Rupture.

251 LINCOLN STREET,
WORCESTER, MASSACHUSETTS, October 19, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER PIPER:—Some five months ago I sent to you a request for prayer.

I was troubled with catarrh in its worst stage and was losing flesh and ambition rapidly.

I praise my Father that He heard your prayers.

For three days after I sent the request, I had a running from my head and throat.

I would cough up large pieces of black phlegm and blood.

I knew then that God had heard your prayers, for I was filled with greater ambition than ever.

I have gained flesh so rapidly that my friends are more than surprised.

I have gained fourteen pounds weight within the last three weeks, and am feeling stronger and happier than ever.

I do thank God that He has done what man could not accomplish.

It is my earnest desire to live more closely to Him, that I may be a living testimony.

About the same time that I asked prayers for myself, I also asked you to pray for little Freddie Hughes, of Fitchburg.

Some four years ago, during a spell of whooping-cough, he ruptured himself very badly, and had been wearing a truss for two or three years.

Since being ruptured, he has constantly been troubled with enuresis, and has often cried out with such pain that it has brought tears to my eyes to see him suffer so much.

Yet throughout it all he knew that Jesus could heal him, and I have often found him praying to God, when those pains have come on him.

When I wrote you for prayers he was healed of enuresis immediately, and has never once complained of pains since.

Sometimes I take him upon my knee, and looking into his eyes, will ask him if he knows who healed him. He answers, "Jesus."

I cannot thank my God and Father sufficiently for what He has done for myself and this little boy whom I love so dearly.

Thanking you for your prayers, and praising God and His blessed Son Jesus Christ, I beg to remain, Faithfully yours in the Master's Service, W. CAMPBELL.

God Heals of Many Diseases.

5429 MARSHFIELD AVENUE,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, October 4, 1900.

DEAR DR. SPEICHER:—In 1893 I was suffering from dyspepsia, heart disease and liver complaint, and several times every year I had a bad throat, so that I could not swallow or talk or hardly breathe. It was cut once.

Also my hips were bad. When I sat, I had great trouble in getting up and could only do so with much pain.

When I went to Zion Tabernacle, I had to stand up in the car a block before I got off, and had to keep shifting something in my hip until it snapped, which pained me very much.

The doctor did not know what it was. He gave me plaster and ointment, which, however, did not reach the bones, as I am very fleshy. I weigh 262 pounds.

It was getting worse all the time, and no doubt I would have had to use crutches if I had not met the man of God, Dr. Dowie, who prayed with me in Zion Tabernacle No. 1.

My heart and liver were healed at once, but with the hip I had to wait a year. Then all at once the pain ceased, for which I thank God with all my heart.

I also thank Dr. Dowie for his love and patience with us poor suffering beings. Also Mrs. Dowie, who always exhorted us not to lose courage and to pray without ceasing.

Since then I caught cold several times; fell out of a car and got my foot out of joint, and fell down into the basement, bruising my arm so that it was quite stiff. But the dear Lord has healed everything through the General Overseer's prayers.

Now I pray every day that God may bless him and his family and give him health and long life and everything that his heart desires.

Through Dr. Dowie's teaching I was brought out of the darkness of the Lutheran Church into the light of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

I also brought in two daughters, a son-in-law and five grandchildren.

MARIE ZITZMAN.

Many Healings in Family.

GERING, NEBRASKA, October 10, 1900.

OVERSEER J. G. SPEICHER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—I will try to tell you of some of the blessings which I and my family have received since we heard of Zion, over two years ago.

I was healed of heart disease, stomach trouble, and inflammation of the bladder of ten years' standing.

I was also healed of a small rupture and of milk leg.

The doctor said that if I did not keep my leg bandaged tight it would break out in a running sore.

I sent a request to Zion to pray for me, and I took the bandages off.

I could hardly stand on my feet at the time, but the day they prayed for me in Zion, my leg began to get better. In a week all the swelling was gone.

I was also healed of inflammation and falling of the womb, gathered breasts and the grip.

Our oldest boy was ruptured until he was past ten years old. He was healed when the General Overseer prayed for him, two years ago.

The same boy was kicked by a colt just below the short rib, on the left side. He was suffering great pain, and passed blood from his kidneys for two nights and one day. The General Overseer prayed for him, and in three days he was up and as well as ever.

My other children have been healed of grip, colds, sore mouth, sore eyes, earache, mashed fingers, and fever and bowel troubles.

Thank God for all His great goodness.

Yours faithfully, (MRS.) SARAH CLOUD.

God Answers Prayers for Several.

ALLANDALE, ONTARIO, CANADA, October 6, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER SPEICHER:—I thank God for what He has done in Allandale while we have been visiting here.

The sister you prayed for is much better. When I sent for prayer the doctors had given her up and some of the newspapers had reported her dead.

Thank God, she is able to walk out on the street. She eats three meals a day and sleeps well.

The little boy is some better of his rupture.

The minister came to visit me yesterday. We had a long talk about Zion. I gave him my testimony and some Zion Literature.

We have visited quite a number and given away the papers, and many have been blessed.

I thank God for what He has done for my sister-in-law, Mrs. George Johnson, of Stratford, Canada.

You prayed for her in Zion early in July. She lay seven weeks in bed at that time.

God answered your prayers.

We called to see her about the 28th of August. She was walking around quite well.

Soon after, God blessed her with a beautiful baby boy, weighing nearly eleven pounds.

May God bless you and Zion everywhere.

Your Brother and Sister in Christ,

GEORGE AND ISABELLA HARKNESS.

Healed of Weak Back and Other Ailments. Brother Healed of Insanity.

CASEY, IOWA, September 14, 1900.

DEAR BROTHER IN CHRIST:—I desire to testify to a perfect healing of a weak back, in answer to the General Overseer's prayer, three years ago.

I thank God, also, that through his prayers God gave back to my brother sound reason, of which the Devil had robbed him.

No other power than God and the prayer of His servant could have brought it back so soon.

This was two years ago, and God has kept him ever since.

I thank Elder S. A. Walton, formerly of Waterloo, Iowa, for his prayers for our little boy, who had bronchitis, last winter.

God heard his prayer, and the child has had no trouble since.

I myself received a spiritual blessing through his prayers.

God has also heard my own prayers at different times for my ailments.

I thank God every day for this Gospel, which is for spirit, soul and body.

It is a blessing to the world that God ever sent our General Overseer to preach the Full Gospel, without fear of what may be the consequence.

May God keep him and his, and bring them back safely.

(MRS.) F. C. DAVIS.

Spiritual Blessing and Healing in Zion.

PERRY CENTER, NEW YORK, September 19, 1900.

REV. J. G. SPEICHER.

Dear Overseer:—I was a guest at Zion Home the fore part of August, 1897, and was baptized by the General Overseer on the 18th of that month.

I thank God for the great spiritual blessing I received then.

I also thank Dr. Dowie and Mrs. Dowie for the glorious teaching I received from them while there.

I have had several healings since and God in His great mercy has kept me in good health most of the time, for which I am truly thankful.

I welcome the Little White Dove as a Heavenly Message directly to me.

May God bless the General Overseer and party and grant them a safe return to Chicago.

I also pray that His blessing may rest upon each member of Zion throughout the world.

Your Sister in Christ, (MRS.) H. A. KELLY.

God Answers Prayer for Very Sick Baby.

65 MAPLE STREET,
HORNELLSVILLE, NEW YORK, October 15, 1900.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I desire to tell of my little grandson's healing for the glory of God.

He, with his mother, came to visit me. He had a cough then, but continued to get worse until he had a very high fever and was a very sick child.

I went and asked our dear Conductor, Mrs. Osborn, to come and pray with him.

It was not very long before he was in a perspiration, the fever all gone.

Now he is running about a well boy.

We thank our leader for her kindness and give God all the glory.

Your Sister in Christ, (MRS.) JAMES TAYLOR.

Healed of Appendicitis When All Drugs Are Destroyed.

PETOSKEY, MICHIGAN, October 18, 1900.

REV. JOHN G. SPEICHER.

Dear Overseer:—I sent you a telegram to pray for my son, who, I was afraid, had appendicitis.

When I sent you the telegram, no help came.

I then gathered all the drugs I could find in my house and burned them.

Still no help came.

A thought came to my mind that there was a box of Cascarets somewhere in the house and a fountain syringe. I destroyed them both, and in fifteen minutes after he received relief.

I feel very grateful to you for your prayers, and give God all the praise.

BENJAMIN BAIN.

Led Out of the Darkness of the Eastern Star Through Zion's Prayers.

682 PARK AVENUE, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, October 14, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER PIPER:—I wish to thank you for your kind prayers; also our beloved General Overseer, Dr. Dowie, whom I have never seen.

God answered his prayer for me and brought me to Zion.

I also thank Him for the prayers of my dear brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Peters, who were instrumental in my coming to Zion.

It was under their influence, your teaching, and that of Elder Stevens, Evangelist Loblaw and Dr. Sayrs, that I was led into the light.

I also wish to thank Conductor Rice, Zion Choir, and Elder Brasefield for their kind prayers in my behalf.

God has brought me out of darkness into light, out of the Eastern Star of the world into the Church of God in Zion.

I give God all the glory and praise.

By God's Grace I shall walk in the light as I receive it.

Your Sister in Christ, ISADORE PETERS.

God Quickly Delivers at the Time of Prayer.

LOGANSPORT, INDIANA, October 15, 1900.

OVERSEER W. HAMNER PIPER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—I cannot find words to express my gratitude to God for His wonderful saving, healing and keeping power.

I received a great blessing in answer to your prayer a week ago last Wednesday night.

I came very near having a very had stroke of paralysis, but Christ is Conqueror.

After we sent the telegram I became very hungry.

I ate a little. Then I went to sleep.

On Friday in the same week I had a very bad weakness come over me.

I could scarcely move or get my breath.

I asked my husband to come and pray that God would give me strength, and the answer came.

I have been growing stronger ever since.

My heart's desire is to do Zion Seventy work.

I thank you for your prayers, and give God all glory and praise.

Your Sister in Christ, (MRS.) IDA PAUL.

Healed of Severe Back and Side Ache at Time of Prayer.

BRATTLEBORO, VERMONT, October 1, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER PIPER:—It is with a grateful heart that I can testify to the power of God to heal.

I thank you for your prayers.

I think I knew each time that you prayed for me. I had the witness of the Holy Spirit.

My dear wife and I pray for you and all of Zion every day.

I was healed of that terrible pain and ache in my side and back speedily.

I soon went to work again.

I was also healed of other troubles.

I praise the dear Lord for it and for the General Overseer and Mrs. Dowie.

Your Brother in Christ, DANIEL A. FAY.

Baby Healed of Chills.

BERRY, OKLAHOMA TERRITORY, October 18, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER SPEICHER:—I write this to thank you for your prayers in our behalf.

Our baby had a very severe chill the day before you prayed.

The day you prayed he missed his chill and has not had a chill since.

Your Sister in Christ, (MRS.) J. B. FERRILL.

CHEERING WORDS FROM ZION'S GUESTS

NOTES FROM ZION HOME

THE regular Praise and Testimony Meeting held in Zion Home, Saturday evening, October 27, 1900, was conducted by Overseer Speicher.

After the usual opening exercises, the States represented were enumerated and found to be fourteen in number, as follows:

Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Wisconsin, Wyoming, and the District of Columbia.

The following foreign countries were represented:

Canada, China and Japan.

The meeting was then thrown open for testimony.

MRS. MARY E. SEYS, 1425 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I am so thankful to testify to the spiritual blessing which God has given me, and for the ability to rest in the Lord more and more. I also thank Him for the physical blessing which I have received. He gave me strength and helped me through my trials last week."

O. M. WILSON, Mt. Forest, Michigan, said: "A week ago last Thursday Elder Graves led the testimony meeting. When he laid hands upon me and prayed for me, I felt the blessing of God go through me. Since then my arm, which has hung for many years without having any feeling in it has feeling in it. Before that time I could pin a cloth around my hand, and if I happened to pin it fast to the flesh I could not feel it.

"I know God is working in Zion, and that He will heal me perfectly. I have been greatly blessed in other ways since I have been here, and I give God all the glory.

"When I first came here they did not ask me what I was worth or whether I had any money, but they took me in. I thank God that I am among people who are so kind and meet me with a smile. They never charged me anything for Baptism, as the papers say, neither have they robbed me in any way. I advise every one who desires to serve God acceptably, to come into Zion."

MRS. MAGGIE PARSONS, Madison, Wisconsin, said: "I wish to thank God for what He has done for me. I thank Him for His saving, healing, cleansing and keeping power.

"Six years ago I first heard of Dr. Dowie. I was then an invalid. I had been confined to my bed for months. I employed some of the best doctors of this city, also a specialist. I then went to the Battle Creek Sanitarium. I spent a thousand dollars, and came home feeling no better than when I went. Through the mercy of God I came to Chicago to Divine Healing Home No. 1. The third day I was there Dr. Dowie laid hands on me and prayed for me and I was healed. I have been well ever since.

"When my children were sick last winter with the scarlet fever, the neighbors tried to make me trouble because I would not have a doctor. When my children got well in answer to prayer, the neighbors said the disease had just run its course. I give God all the glory." (Mrs. Parsons' testimony appears in full in LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume 1, page 65.)

Overseer Speicher—Some people say that healings do not last. Here is one that has lasted for six years.

Elder Graves—"My healing has lasted for six years."

MRS. DORA BAUMGARTNER, 180 East Twenty-third Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I was healed of consumption I had night sweats for two weeks. After I received my healing in answer to prayer, the doctor who had been treating me asked me what I had been doing. I told him I had been out to see Dr. Dowie. He said, 'You are certainly better. I advise you to stick to it.'"

N. A. ROBINSON, Westfield, Illinois, said: "It has been about two years since God healed me of eye trouble. When I went back home and spoke to my minister and told him what God had done for me, he said, 'Well, Brother Robinson, the very fact of your going away from a small town like this into a city like Chicago would naturally work a change in you.'

"I had been to Terre Haute for two weeks, but that did not work such a change.

"I had been under the surgeons for a year and a half, but they did not work such a change.

"I saw that I would have to leave my Church and come into Zion. The minister said I had better wait six months and see if it held out. Of course, he thought I was not healed at all. He said so. He said he thought it would not amount to anything. He asked me then to wait five years and see what would become of me. I thank God that He did heal me, and has kept me from that time until this.

"While God wonderfully blessed me physically, I feel that it is nothing to be compared with my spiritual blessing. God's Word has become a new Book to me since I have been in Zion.

"God has blessed us in our home many times. Our children have been healed, my wife has been healed, and some of the children have been kept without any sickness at all. We ought to thank God more and more for His keeping power. I find that I receive great blessing when I obey God promptly in all things."

N. L. COLSON, Green Bay, Wisconsin, said: "I thank God for Zion and for LEAVES OF HEALING. Three years ago, when we first got LEAVES OF HEALING and my wife read them to me, I was in a dying condition. I had a stroke of paralysis and had my head smashed in such a way as to knock my eye out.

"When I first came to Zion I was given to shouting, but Dr. Speicher said one thing to me that did me good. He told me if I did not stop that sort of thing, I would be in the insane asylum in about two weeks. In answer to prayer, the paralysis began to go out of my body, but I found that I had some things to make straight. I went home and made things straight. I am happy in the Lord tonight. I was just waiting to die, but now I am resting in the promises of God. I know that whatever God has commenced, He is able to finish. I am not going to let the doctors try to finish it."

J. B. WALKER, 6933 Kimbark Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank God for His keeping power. I was converted down at the Little Wooden Hut under Dr. Dowie's teaching. God has kept me from doctors and drugs until now.

"A knife went in the joint of my thumb and cut its way out, recently. It is now all healed up. In eighteen hours it was healed up and had a scab on it. It was not inflamed at all."

Dr. Speicher—Can you use your thumb?

Mr. Walker—"Yes, sir."

Dr. Speicher—What did you put on it?

Mr. Walker—"I was asked that question by a man, and I told him I put the power of Almighty God on it.

"I had no pain. The only trouble I had was that my arm felt heavy. I only lost one week. I have been working all this week. I thank God for what He has done for me and for my little one."

Dr. Speicher—What a foolish thing it is to put all sorts of poisons on a wound.

MRS. NORA BUSH, Laramie, Wyoming, said: "I thank God for the teaching I have received in Zion. My desire was to be baptized, and I thank God that He gave me the privilege. I thank God for the many blessings He has in store for us, and that He has kept my children well since I have been away from home. Pray that God may continue to bless us in our little meetings in Laramie."

MISS NELLIE HANNA, 717 North Street, Logansport, Indiana, said: "Four weeks ago I began to trust the Lord as my Healer. At that time I was taking several kinds of medicine. I gave them all up, and I have been healed of catarrh, stomach trouble and bowel trouble which I had for several years."

MRS. NELLIE MARSHALL, 4652 Indiana Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I praise God for all He has done for me. He has wonderfully blessed me since I have been in Zion. About a year ago my youngest girl had the measles. From that time on she had a rupture. I brought her to Dr. Speicher about four months ago and he prayed for her. The rupture gradually began to disappear, and now there is not a sign of it. I thank God for all His blessings to me.

"God has wonderfully blessed my husband. When I came to Zion he was an infidel and drank and smoked. He does not do so any more."

MR. PALMER, 1635 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "The greatest blessing I have received in twenty-five years of active Christian warfare is that of finding people with whom I am in perfect harmony in regard to the Masonic system. Having been a Mason and come out of that organization, it is now my good fortune to be opposed to Masonry. I have met the foe face to face many times, and do not know how many times I have been arrested, but for crimes of which I was innocent, and have always been acquitted at once.

"For me to find an organization which stands out boldly and fights this system, is very comforting. Masonry is in Church and State today throughout this Union. It seems strange that people cannot open their eyes to the fact that the churches are controlled by this system.

"I praise God for Zion, for the truth she teaches, and for the firm stand she has taken on this subject and all other subjects."

MRS. E. B. WELBORNE, Washington, District of Columbia, said: "I am glad to be with you tonight. I first heard of Zion about a month ago. I have had throat trouble for some time. I have been attended by the physicians and specialists in Washington. My brother, who is a physician, has been treating me for lung trouble. I am a Presbyterian, my husband is a Congregationalist, and my brother a doctor.

"When I heard of the teaching of Zion I was determined to leave all and come to Zion. I feel much benefited and feel much better since I have been here. I am going to be a member of Zion."

L. D. CARROLL, 1343 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I praise God for the many blessings He has bestowed upon me this last summer. I had difficulty with the pig in many cases, and had to go to God for wisdom and ask Him what was best to do. Another brother and I were together, and we made it a rule wherever we went to let the people understand, as far as possible, that we did not want any pork in our victuals. In one case we went to board with a family. We asked God to direct us. We told them that we did not want to eat any pork. They began to take hold of the truth as we gave it to them, and finally the mother and daughter came into Zion. The daughter is is now in Zion College."

MRS. MERCHANT, Greenspring, Ohio, said: "I came to Zion because I love God. I have been wonderfully benefited in many ways.

"I praise God for Zion, and for the teaching I have learned while here."

SUPT. J. H. SAYRS, Zion Home, said: "I praise God for His manifestation in Zion Junior Schools. I have been in the school work for twenty-two years, but have never had the joy in the correction of mistakes and finding of errors in the pupils as I have here in the Junior Schools of Chicago. God has revealed some things to us in the common schools which are simply terrible. The teachers are afraid to take these things up and report them to the parents at home, for fear of losing their positions. I feel these things must be reported to the parents at home and that they must be straightened up. I fear nothing in the report of these things. Zion has a system of schools where we go to God for everything. We are working on the line that God wants us to work.

"I rejoice to say that on last Tuesday we started a school in Cincinnati, and we also have a school in Philadelphia."

The meeting was then closed by the benediction.

TWO MEETINGS HELD IN MANSFIELD.

ON LORD'S DAY, November 4, 1900, Elder and Mrs. W. F. Matthews and Elder J. R. Armstrong eluded the police, entered Mansfield, Ohio, and held two meetings without molestation, celebrating the Lord's Supper in the morning.

In the afternoon the mob followed Elder and Mrs. Matthews, not knowing that another Elder was in the city. Elder Armstrong succeeded in holding another meeting.

The mob did not dare to harm the Elders, although the police did not put in any appearance, but were so angry when they found that Elder Armstrong had held a meeting that they kicked him several times as he boarded the train.

By Overseer Piper's orders the party returned to Zion, Chicago, on Lord's Day evening.

This is a glorious victory in intolerant and mob-cursed Mansfield.

Let all Zion everywhere praise God and pray for complete triumph.

CHICAGO.

Over two thousand people gathered in Central Zion Tabernacle on Tuesday evening, October 30, 1900, to attend the first public recital of the Musical Department of Zion College.

The recital was given by Miss Florence McFarland, instructor in pianoforte.

Miss McFarland has spent years of study in America and Europe, under the very best musicians of the day, one of her teachers in Europe being renowned as the teacher of the famed Paderewski.

Her playing was most remarkable in touch and technique, and above all in the interpretation. She introduced her selections with a few words explaining the circumstances of their composition and the thoughts they were intended to convey.

Throughout the entire recital, the large audience sat with enchained interest and seemed reluctant to believe that the rare musical treat was at an end, when the programme was finished.

This very important department of Zion's educational work is becoming very efficient and will prove a great blessing.

THE work of organizing new cottage meetings in Chicago goes on under the energetic direction of the Overseer for Chicago, Rev. J. G. Speicher.

Many new meetings have been organized since the list was published in LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume VI, Number 25.

As soon as space will permit a revised list of these meetings will be published.

God is greatly blessing them for the Salvation, Healing and Cleansing of many in the City of Chicago.

PREPARATIONS are being made for the reception and entertainment of twenty-six Zion Lace Operatives who are now on their way from Beeston, Notts, England, to Zion City.

Zion Lace Operatives' Home, which is being rapidly pushed to completion at Zion City, will, however, not be ready in time, hence the lacemakers will be entertained in Chicago until their home is ready.

Zion City, Illinois.

The first Baptism and the first Ordinance of the Lord's Supper observed by the Christian Catholic Church in Zion on Zion City Site!

Of what Baptismal scenes, what communion services are these the forerunners!

God will give Zion the days of more than the Pentecostal number of 3000 Baptisms in one day, while over 20,000 Christians will gather about the Lord's Table in the great Zion Temple.

One who was present at these first Ordinances on the Site, thus describes them:

Lord's Day, October 29, 1900, was a joyous day with the members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion who have already begun to inhabit the consecrated ground of Zion City Site. As a few have gathered there from the North and the South, from the East and the West, their chief delight is the "assembling of themselves together" in praise to God for His gracious blessings and praying for His continued guidance.

This day was the occasion of the first Baptismal scene at Zion City, in Lake Michigan.

The morning service was conducted on the shore of the lake by Deacon Charles W. Post, who is connected with North Side Zion Tabernacle.

Evangelist Mark H. Loblaw, of West Side Zion Tabernacle, and Deacon J. W. Crane, of Owatonna, Minnesota, were also present and assisted in the services.

Deacon Post spoke very earnestly and impressively.

About seventy persons were present at the scene, and six believers followed their Lord in Baptism.

The lake was somewhat rough, but, as Deacon Post said, it was not as stormy as the Sea of Galilee when Christ said, "Peace, be still." That same Christ was present by His Holy Spirit, and peace reigned in the hearts of all.

In the afternoon, Zion gathered at the schoolhouse, which was crowded to the door. Evangelist Loblaw spoke upon the teachings of Zion and her Coming King.

The Evangelist had just returned from Mansfield, and the power with which he spoke showed that the fires of persecution through which he had passed had but strengthened him and increased his usefulness.

The day was fittingly closed as the Christians partook of the emblems of the broken body and shed blood of our Lord, for the first time on that consecrated ground.

Pontiac, Illinois.

O. W. Farley, Conductor of the Gathering of the Friends of Zion at Pontiac, Illinois, where Deacon Sloan held one of his interesting and helpful missions, writes to Deacon Sloan as follows concerning it:

I feel it in my heart to thank God that you were here. The words of instruction and personal interviews have been a great uplift to the members of Zion in Pontiac. The Panorama of Zion set many people to thinking of the condition of things.

The members who sell LEAVES OF HEALING find many people who desire to hear about Zion.

We are very much encouraged, as our meeting is only a little over a year old and we have thirty-two members. When we started the meetings we had only six. God has wonderfully blessed us. We are looking forward to the time when we shall have an Elder.

Sturgis, Michigan.

Rev. D. S. Fletcher, Elder-in-Charge. Deacon C. F. Rehm, Assisting.

Deacon Rehm thus writes concerning the great spiritual uplift and increase in interest accomplished through the visit of Deacon Daniel Sloan to the Gathering in Sturgis, and by the conferences he held while there:

With pleasure do I recall your visit with us here in Sturgis, September 24th and 25th.

To say we enjoyed your exhibit and conference is putting it too mildly.

I can notice a marked change in the members and friends. Our gatherings have increased in numbers, and we understand things better now than before

We, in the field, need more of just such teaching and encouragement.

We have begun some Zion Seventy work.

I am more determined to canvass our town than ever.

Your visit has done me more good spiritually than anything I have received for some time.

May God bless the work to many more.

Port Huron, Michigan.

Rev. S. H. Stokes. Elder-in-Charge. Deacon T. G. Howard, Assisting.

A splendid eight-days' mission in Port Huron was brought to a successful close by Overseer Mason, on Lord's Day, October 28th.

Overseer Mason thus writes of these meetings:

We held meetings afternoon and evening for eight days, assisted four evenings by Elder Stokes.

Deacon Howard and the faithful people worked earnestly.

A marked feature was the open-air preaching and singing six evenings, when hundreds heard the Full Gospel and Port Huron Zion people and several from Detroit got great blessing in being willing to sing and testify and sell LEAVES OF HEALING on the street.

On Lord's Day, October 28th, five obeyed in Triune Immersion in the St. Clair River, in the presence of two hundred or more orderly spectators who paid good attention to the Word preached.

Litchfield Michigan.

Rev. Martin Hayden, Elder-in-Charge.

Deacon Daniel Sloan continues to be greatly blessed in his visits to the Branches and Gatherings of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in the Middle Western States.

As a result of his visit to the Branch at Litchfield, Michigan, Elder Hayden writes to Deacon Sloan:

People were wonderfully mum concerning the exhibition. I take it, that it surpassed their expectations.

People begin to realize that Zion is a power.

They hate it and dread it, but are being forced to respect it.

I think your visit has strengthened the faith of Zion people and is and will be a great help in several ways.

We all bid you Godspeed.

Huntington, Indiana.

Deacon S. Howard Creager, in Charge.

The Gathering of the Friends of Zion in Huntington was greatly blessed by the lectures and conferences given there by Deacon Daniel Sloan.

Deacon Creager thus gives his account of the good accomplished:

All with whom I have talked were well pleased with the Panorama of Zion.

At our cottage meeting on last Friday evening we had the largest number present that we have had yet.

The earnestness of the members has been increased. Especially have I felt a new strength and determination to press forward the work.

Lafayette, Indiana.

Rev. S. B. Osborn, Elder-in-Charge. Evangelist Claudia L. Osborn, Assisting.

Elder Osborn thus writes of Deacon Daniel Sloan's visit to Lafayette and Logansport, and the conferences held:

I can scarcely realize that more than a month has passed since your visit to Lafayette and Logansport.

The Zion members and friends at both places will long remember your short stay among us with much pleasure.

We have gratitude to God for the light on the Scriptures, as well as on Zion and her work and destiny, afforded by your lectures.

Our meetings have increased in attendance and in interest since that time.

We have baptized three and received three into the Church since that time.

I can see that there is an increased interest among the hitherto unapproachable.

The work at Logansport, too, is prospering.

I cannot forbear saying to you that your visit was a great blessing to the Elder and his family.

May God abundantly bless you and make you a blessing to all you meet, as you were to us.

I know I shall be better able to do the work of an Elder, and pursue a more systematic course, since your visit to us.

Marinette, Wisconsin.

Rev. Daniel Bryant, Elder-in-Charge.

God is at work by His Spirit in the Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in this beautiful Wisconsin City.

Elder Bryant has sent in the following very cheerful and encouraging report:

We have just closed the most aggressive and successful month's work we have yet had.

Our mission is rejoicing in a substantial and increasing prosperity.

We have the city laid off in districts and have assigned two Seventies to each.

We keep a stock of about 500 copies of LEAVES OF HEALING on hand.

Zion's Seventies go with these to their districts, leave a copy in each home, requesting the people to read the paper and take care of it.

In a week they go back, take up the papers, leave some other literature and move on to repeat the work.

During the past four weeks our Seventies have visited 1571 homes.

We have found this the most substantial, thorough and effective method of getting the real Gospel to the people, of all the plans we have worked.

We have, of course, other plans. We are pushing the Saloon Seventy work, selling of LEAVES, etc., but we are concentrating our efforts on the work as described above.

I find a fruitful field of work in the wake of the Seventies.

A paper found its way into the home of one of the business men of Marinette.

One of his sons, a young man twenty years old, got hold of it, read it from cover to cover, was saved to God, made out his application for membership in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, was baptized by me in the Menominee River on October 25th, and is now in Zion College beginning his education for the ministry.

An old lady who was seventy-seven years old was baptized on the same day. She had been a member of the Methodist Church since 1864. She had been, naturally, deeply attached to her Church.

Upon her last interview with her pastor, who had been very kind to her, she told him what she was going to do, and, bursting into tears, she said: "I hate to leave you, you have been so kind to me, but I must go where I can find Christ."

What a terrible charge these simple words contain for the Methodist Church, which by its own admission is going backward!

What a truth they tell about Zion, in which the "afflicted of His people take refuge"!

This old lady had been with us but a few days when she received a stroke of paralysis, the third one she has had. It came on Friday night at 7 o'clock.

She was speechless and thought to be dying.

God immediately answered prayer, and Sunday morning she marched into Zion Tabernacle, "praising God with a loud voice."

In a few days she was baptized, and now sits on the front seat in the services, her face radiant with the joy of that blessed Saviour who is doing such wonderful work in Zion.

There have been many healings the past month which cannot be related. I enclose you one.

People who are not members send in requests for prayer, and the "Sun of Righteousness with healing in His wings" seems to hover over all.

One mother with cancer of the stomach, after suffering excruciating pain, gave up her medicine and asked for prayer. The pain has left her, and her son informed me Sunday that she is now up, is eating, and much improved.

A lady from Morgan, Wisconsin, stricken with consumption and many other loathsome diseases, has come to our home seeking healing. She has been here but a few days and her improvement is marked and gratifying.

Let all Zion pray that this young mother may be speedily healed and sent back to her home to take care of her little children and to tell what great things the Lord has done for her.

The following is a testimony enclosed by Elder Bryant:

MARINETTE, WISCONSIN, October 24, 1900.

REV. DANIEL BRYANT.

Dear Elder:—I praise God for blessing received in answer to your prayers.

On August 24th I was taken sick with typhoid fever, and received blessing the 25th.

But after that I grew worse until, on the 28th, you came and prayed with me and I was instantly healed.

I was very sick with the fever last year.

May God abundantly bless you.

Your Sister in Christ, JOHANNA HACKEMAN.

By Rev. O. L. TINDALL, M. A., B. D., Principal Ministerial Department.

THERE are two theories among educators in regard to the chief object of school and college training.

One is that it shall be for mental discipline; the other that it shall be for practical results.

In other words, shall a boy study branches, for the discipline of mind, which he never expects to use in his life work, or shall he confine his energies only to those things which he expects to use?

If he is to be a business man, a merchant or a mechanic, is it necessary to study Latin and Greek and many other things which are found in the college curriculum?

If he is to be a lawyer or minister, is it worth while for him to study higher mathematics, etc.?

We do not intend to discuss that question now only in an indirect way. However, we may say, in passing, we believe the two theories should be combined, especially in the earlier part of a pupil's education.

THERE is one thing which we do believe most emphatically should be taught from first to last, and that is obedience. There is nothing more fundamental.

It should be taught for the discipline involved, and nothing can be more practical in life. This is God's first lesson to childhood:

> Children, obey your parents in the Lord.

A parent is a failure if he does not teach his child that lesson. The same thing may be said of a teacher, or of a school, or a college.

Insubordination and riots are a great disgrace to any institution, whether they occur in a medical college or a Chicago University. If we must err on either side, it is better that the discipline be too severe than too lax.

Every one seems to see the truth and reasonableness of this but the Church of God (so-called).

School boards and teachers admit it.

Many a good scholar cannot teach because he has no faculty of compelling obedience.

The railroad superintendent insists on strict obedience to those in authority on the road.

The general in the army does not allow soldiers to "reason why." The ship captain's "ipse dixit" is law.

Everywhere law and order and obedience are taught but in the Church.

Nature herself teaches it most emphatically. Disobedience means death.

The General Overseer impressed us with this truth before we came into Zion as a member or officer.

We had been trained so long in lawlessness in the denominations that we had some conscientious scruples about putting ourselves under any man to govern us.

We had imbibed the spirit so prevalent in the churches, that every man was a law unto himself, that we were ready to say with the Devil and the wicked, lawless servants to any of God's appointed officers, "We will not have this man to rule over us."

In conversation, one day, on that point, the General Overseer quoted Hebrews 13:17:

> Obey them that have the rule over you.

It opened our eyes as if a new revelation had come to us. We saw that God must have some officers in the Church who are to rule the Church.

Nothing is clearer to us now as we study the Word. God never established a popular government, either for the State or for the Church.

The first popular government was under Saul. That came into existence in response to a popular cry, and it fell by the sin of disobedience. The King said he sinned because the people demanded it.

We see the same thing today. The Judge gives an unjust decision to please the rabble, and the Legislator votes on all questions, right or wrong, to please his constituency.

To reform politics is a hopeless case until the Church of God sets the example and falls into line. This will be righted when ministers of Christ begin to obey and preach what Christ commanded.

He bade them to preach the Kingdom of God.

THE MINISTERS today not only disobey the orders of their Lord to heal the sick, but they do not preach the Kingdom.

They all preach republics.

Every denomination is a little republic set up as an independent institution, governed by the people.

God is not in the government of the Church. The people are supreme rulers. They own the houses of worship; they shut and close them to the so-called Messengers of God as they please.

They own the ministers, too. These come and go at their bidding.

God cannot say to a minister today in America, "Go to such a city and preach, for I have much people there." He must first consult the people and ask a Mansfield mob whether the minister can preach or not.

A KINGDOM has not been proclaimed by the so-called heralds of the Cross.

A Kingdom is governed by a king absolutely.

He appoints his officers. They are never elected.

He works through those men. Their authority is absolute. There is no appeal from it. They are ambassadors vested with all the authority that is back of the Kingdom.

That was the authority God gave to the apostles when He said:

> I will give unto thee the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

With that authority in their possession, they commanded men, and did not simply advise. They admitted men into the Church and expelled them from her fellowship, gave them over to Satan, and on one occasion pronounced the sentence of instant death on two hypocrites who were in the Church.

This is one of the hard lessons for the people of God to learn, they have run wild so long.

It may take a generation to establish it, but the Church will never be strong until this is done.

A True Use of Sabbath Day Hours.

They should be improved well by every member and friend of Zion. The Bible Class Lesson outline should, with the Bible in hand, be gone over carefully and prayerfully, and the sermon by the General Overseer should also be attentively read. Assemble, sometime during the day, your own family. Invite in, if possible, those who want to know God in power, or desire from Him some blessing for spirit, soul or body. Where this is not possible, go where the sick and sinful, poor and neglected are, who have tasted only of the bitterness of life, and open up to them the Gospel which Jesus commanded should be preached to the poor. Where there are two or more members of Zion near you, do not fail to regularly come together sometime during the Lord's Day. Pray and speak with one another, and study together the Bible Class Lesson and talk over the marvelous doings of God in Zion. DO NOT OFFEND GOD BY GOING TO SOME CHURCH SERVICE WHERE GOD IS EVER DISHONORED AS THE HEALER, CLEANSER, KEEPER AND PROSPERER OF HIS PEOPLE. Do not go to hear His truth perverted by the cry of Peace, Peace, when sudden destruction is so near because of the prevalent wickedness of the world, which, with a worldly Church, is becoming more and more corrupt. Do not go where scoffing is everywhere heard from so-called Christians at the imminent coming of "the great God and Saviour Jesus Christ." He will receive unto Himself only those who look for Him; even ZION, whom He is now calling into Purity and Holy Living, who daily, in obedience to Her Lord, whatever the cost may be, is thus making herself READY TO SOON BECOME THE BRIDE OF CHRIST AT HIS APPEARING.

Zion's Holy War Against the Hosts of Hell in Chicago.

ON OCTOBER 1, 1899, the General Overseer and Zion entered upon one of the most remarkable religious campaigns in the history of the City of Chicago.

It was very admirably called "Zion's Holy War Against the Hosts of Hell in Chicago."

By that name it has become famous the world over.

No sooner had the "Holy War" been announced than the enemy began to make active preparations for the onslaught, so that when the war began, it was real. The "Hosts of Hell" fought back with an energy and desperation which made the echoes of the fighting reverberate from Ocean to Ocean in this Continent and across the seas.

The lying press, the pulpit, the medical and pharmaceutical professions, the Secret Societies and many others, whose pet sins had been assailed, joined the forces against Zion and her Divinely commissioned leader.

The West Side Zion Tabernacle riot, in which 3000 medical students participated; the Hammond, Indiana, riot, in which the General Overseer and a number of his faithful attendants were bruised and wounded by flying missiles, and the Oak Park, Illinois, riot, when the General Overseer and 300 members of Zion were besieged in Zion Tabernacle, Oak Park, by a howling mob until 3 o'clock in the morning, when they were rescued by a squad of Chicago police, were some of the exciting incidents of Zion's Holy War.

During this War, the General Overseer delivered his now famous series of addresses on the text found in Malachi 3:5:

> And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift Witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers; and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not Me, saith the Lord of hosts.

He also delivered a series of powerful addresses "Against an Unclean, Ungodly and Criminal Press," and a sermon warning the people against Bad Books and Bad Pictures.

These sermons not only aroused the most bitter antagonism of "The Hosts of Hell," but were greatly blessed of God in bringing men and women to Repentance, Faith, Obedience, Salvation, Healing and Holy Living.

Their influence still goes on.

They were first published from week to week in LEAVES OF HEALING, at the time when they were delivered.

They have now been published in book form and are for sale at Zion Publishing House.

The book is a handsome one, of over 300 pages, substantially bound with a neat paper cover.

It contains forty-one preludes, sermons and addresses, a portrait of the General Overseer, and thirteen of Mr. Champe's striking cartoons.

It makes not only a powerful witness against sin, but, in the spicy, graphic preludes by the General Overseer, a most entertaining and valuable history of that remarkable campaign.

Price 50 cents, postpaid to any point in the United States.

LEAVES OF HEALING is Zion on wings, and we keep out everything that would distract the reader's mind from all except the Extension of the Kingdom of God, for which alone it exists. If we cannot send forth our Little White Dove without soiling its wings with the smoke of the factory and the dirt of the wrangling market place, or compelling it to utter the screaming cries of the business vultures in the ears of our readers, then we will keep our Dove at home.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

The innumerable falsehoods of the secular and so-called religious press against Zion have continued without cessation for years.

We have occasionally dealt with some of these falsehoods and taken up much valuable time in our public ministration in answering these attacks.

But the time has come when we have resolved no longer to answer them in detail, unless in extremely exceptional cases.

We shall simply content ourselves with stating them and nailing them down.

Hence we have determined to devote this page to a beginning of this work of publicly branding the most important of the almost innumerable lies of the ungodly, unclean, criminal, and hypocritical press.

We shall also add from time to time a few specimens of the odium theologicum, which we shall cull from the innumerable misrepresentations and fabrications of the apostate churches.

It must not be supposed that we admit the truth of the things which we do not here deny, for it would be simply impossible to enumerate all that ought to be nailed down. We again remind our friends that these are simply the most important of them.

READ THE COMING CITY.

For all matters pertaining to the founding and building of Zion City, there is no source of information, complete and reliable, but THE COMING CITY. The story of Zion City is being and will be told in its pages, both by descriptive articles and by engravings from photographs. The paper also contains much other interesting matter, such as science notes, household suggestions, special articles on matters of interest to Zion people, and the news of the day.

The paper also contains four pages of advertisements, carefully selected, most of the advertisers being Zion people. It is important that every member of Zion should get THE COMING CITY, not only for the valuable information which it will contain, but for these advertisements. By reading them they will learn who are the Zion business men and thus be able to coöperate with each other.

Zion people should be glad to go a little out of their way to trade at a Zion shop. Zion money is thus kept in Zion instead of going to fill the coffers of the world's people, and each feels the influence of the increase in general prosperity.

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

THE COMING CITY will be sent, postpaid, for $1 for the first thirteen numbers. Address subscriptions to

LEAVES OF HEALING

I am the Lord that healeth thee.

And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

EDITED BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

VOLUME VIII. NUMBER 4. CHICAGO, NOVEMBER 17, 1900. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

HEALED OF NERVOUS WEAKNESS, STOMACH, LIVER, KIDNEY AND OTHER DISEASES.

IF YE ABIDE IN ME, AND MY WORDS ABIDE IN YOU, ASK WHATSOEVER YE WILL, AND IT SHALL BE DONE UNTO YOU.

This now happy, healthy young woman was a hopeless invalid. Disease had stricken her down at the very threshhold of a life of joyous usefulness.

With many talents and gifts, she saw before her a life of suffering uselessness.

The only end of her agony, humanly speaking, was death.

Physicians had proved their utter inability to help her.

They had confessed their defeat.

Her great desire was to live and serve God

But she had been taught that God was the author of her sickness.

Her whole being would, at times, revolt against that terrible lie, but error had blinded her until she could not see the truth.

Then Zion's Message reached her

It told her that Satan had made her sick.

It told her that God, her Father, never afflicted His children.

It told her that He had made an Everlasting Covenant to heal them.

It told her that He never changed. The Message showed how He had sent His only begotten Son to bear our sickness as well as our sin.

It pointed to Jesus Christ, that Son, going through Palestine, fulfilling His Divine Mission—teaching, preaching, healing.

It opened to her the truth that He came to destroy the works of the Devil, and that her sickness was his work.

It told her that God's promise to heal was unfailing, if His children would but fulfil His conditions.

But years of false teaching had blinded her spiritual eyes.

She was in the darkness and could not see the wonderful truth presented to her.

For a time prejudice kept her from the truth.

But God's Spirit was pleading with her.

She finally began to seek to know the truth.

She sent for Zion Literature.

She searched the Scripture, with prayer, to know whether the Message were true.

As she sought, God's Spirit led her, step by step, in the darkness, until she was brought into the glorious light.

She believed God's Word.

She believed that His promises could not fail.

She knew that she would be healed if she fulfilled His conditions. She began the search to know the conditions. Many times there seemed to be failure.

But she knew that the failure was with her, not with God.

In spite of all the discouragements which the Devil cast about her, God led her on.

She was obedient to His leading.

Hence, one by one He showed her His conditions.

One by one, although some seemed very hard, she met them.

She learned that obedience was the test of faith.

She learned the lesson Christ taught in His parable of the importunate widow: that men "ought always to pray, and not to faint."

When she was thus fully prepared, the blessing came

It was a glorious victory.

Many of her terrible diseases rolled away from her instantly.

Others gradually slipped away; so quietly that she knew not when she was healed of them.

God gave her of His strength.

Immediately she began service for Him.

God has wonderfully blessed her in that service.

As Conductor of the Gathering of the Friends of Zion in the city where she lives, she has accomplished much, under God, for the extension of His Kingdom.

We send forth her splendid testimony, praying that God will greatly bless it to many.

May many who are stumbling in dark paths find encouragement as they read of the wonderful way in which God led this Witness.

May many who have waited and prayed long, and are almost ready to faint, be given an increase of faith.

God gave this Witness her life and health.

By His Spirit He has enabled her to set forth her testimony so clearly and forcibly.

He will greatly bless it wherever the Little White Dove shall fly with the Message of the Everlasting Gospel.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MISS MARTHA WING.

524 West Thirteenth Street,
Davenport, Iowa, November 6, 1900.

Dear Genral. Overseer:—For some time I have felt that I ought to testify to God's wonderful goodness to me.

I was at Zion Home over a year ago, and again last winter at the All-Night of Prayer, but have never given either verbal or written testimony for Zion. In regard to the latter, I have, perhaps, been a little cowardly. I did not for a time feel that it was an easy thing to send in a testimony for publication. I hope God will forgive any feeling that may have stood in the way of anything that is for the furtherance of His work.

At the time I first heard of God's work through Dr. Dowie, in the fall of 1898, I had been a helpless invalid for two years, and unable to work (my occupation was school-teaching) for four.

Among the wages Satan gave me during my illness were stomach, liver and kidney trouble, palpitation of the heart, continuous and severe headaches, female weakness with a partial paralysis of all lower organs, all resulting in a diseased state of the nerves that kept the entire flesh of my body in constant pain, resembling inflammatory rheumatism, especially at nerve centers, such as wrists and ankles.

I was also subject to severe attacks of pain in the sciatic nerves so that often I could not move for hours at a time, and had similar attacks in the large nerves of the shoulder.

After a time the vitality of my body became so exhausted that any extreme pain or severe nervous strain would cause a sudden anesthesia of the nerves, so that in a few minutes from the beginning of the attack my whole body would become cold and stiff, so that I could not so much as bend a finger.

I always, however, retained perfect consciousness, directing those about me what to do so long as I could speak, the muscles of my lips and face being the last affected.

Through all this worn-out condition of the nerves, I have much reason to be thankful that I was not "nervous" in the usual sense of the word.

My illness all through was manifested by physical pain and exhaustion, and not by any lack of nerve control. I feel that in this way I was spared the extreme of misery and suffering.

During my illness I tried allopathic and homeopathic physicians.

I spent three months in Mercy Hospital of this city, taking massage and electrical treatment under the care of Dr. Middleton, one of the best physicians here.

He was very kind to me, but from the first gave me little promise of help, and stated to my mother a year after I put myself under his care that his attendance on me had never helped me in the least.

I was not, except at intervals, confined to my bed, but the last two years before my healing I was compelled to spend about eighteen hours of the the twenty-four in bed.

If, during any emergency, I "wound up" my nerves to greater exertion, or remained out of bed longer than usual, a severe relapse resulted. In a short time I could so exhaust my powers that weeks would elapse before I regained what I had lost.

As an instance, at one time getting some Christian Science nonsense into my head, I thought to believe myself back into health, and for a few days rallied all the strength I had in the determination to be well.

The first and second days I pulled through, but suffered intensely at night. The third night, after the greatest exertion, I could not sleep, and for weeks the sense of exhaustion never left me for a moment.

It resulted in my consenting to go to the hospital for three months, there remaining in bed for eight weeks, but I failed to get rested.

As soon as I arose from bed I again failed rapidly.

I had several such relapses from foolishly overdoing in the presence of others, rather than yield to my weakness, for I could not learn the lesson of complete inactivity, the only condition in which I could keep comparatively free from the acute pain and nerve exhaustion.

When I first heard of Dr. Dowie, I was staying on a farm with my sister.

My mother, on her way to Chicago from Davenport, came to see me and told me what she had heard of Dr. Dowie and Zion through a Mrs. Penley of this city, who had been taken to Zion Home dying and had come home well.

Although I had heard of Mrs. Penley's prolonged and serious illness, and had expected her to die, when my mother told me that she had been healed at Zion, I said flatly that "If Mrs. Penley had been healed by that means, she was never sick."

Since my own healing, I have known many of my friends to say the same of me, so utterly is God's power and willingness discounted in the mind of the average Christian.

I was a professing Christian and had consecrated myself to God. I had joined the Methodist Church when a child, and had always made what I regarded as a fair profession, observing Church rules, being really sincere in my service.

But from my first entrance upon the Christian life I felt that there was something higher and better than I had ever myself experienced, or seen in the professing Christians about me.

As I grew older I saw the necessity of absolute consecration to God. I had many hard battles over it, and Satan invariably conquered.

These times of spiritual anguish and struggle were always succeeded by long periods of coldness and indifference, when my religion was scarcely more than an outward form.

Each time I drifted farther away, until the winter of 1897-1898 I found myself, under atheistic reading and influence, dangerously close to infidelity.

I hardly know what turned me back, except that God's Spirit must have still been calling me; but I have had deep conviction that if I had not yielded to God then I should have been lost.

Startled at my own spiritual condition, I deliberately faced the circumstances, and recognizing the fact that my drifting and sin were the direct result of my refusal to consecrate myself, and especially all these years to give up one thing which God asked of me, I "sat down and counted the cost," saw the paths were sharply defined, and that either I must be all for God, or Satan would have all.

I had done the same thing many times before, but this time I willed to be God's. I put myself into His hands, and promised to live for Him if I were so permitted, or die if He willed, for I did not then know Him well enough to understand that my death was not His will.

Knowing my tendency to go back, I asked God to give a "seeking spirit" to search until I found Him. I did not feel then that I was answered, for it was weeks before I felt God's presence; yet I know I was answered, and for weeks I spent my time in a deliberate searching for what I had once thrown away.

It was the spring of 1898 that I went to stay with my sister on the farm. I spent most of the time I was not in bed, in a hammock under the trees. I spent the time alone with God.

I had my first personal experience in Divine Healing that summer. One night, lying awake with pain and fatigue, I faced the future and saw possible years of invalidism before me, and the horror of it came over me worse than it ever had before.

I was trying to be resigned to God's will, as I understood it then, but I very often asked God to hasten my death. That night, however, in sudden anger with my sickness, which was shutting me out from service to God, I sat up in bed and prayed earnestly, something like this: "My Father, heal me and let me live for Thy service. I know it cannot be Thy will that I should drag out my life a useless burden to myself and to every one else. It is all nonsense for me to try to make myself believe that I can glorify Thee by my miserable sickness. Give me health, and let me work in Thy vineyard and atone for my years of idleness."

There was no "if" in that prayer, and I was instantly and perfectly healed of a serious organic trouble from which I had been intensely suffering.

This ought to have taught me that God would do all the rest for me. But I was ignorant of His will and full of a false theology and teaching, and instead of seeking further and testifying to His goodness, I kept silence.

I even allowed my sister to wonder at the change in me and attribute it to all kinds of impossible causes. I did not wish to seem "queer" and "fanciful" (by believing that God really answers prayer).

Although I was daily learning more of God, I could not believe the evidences of my own senses, and would persuade myself that this marvelous change could not last.

Of course, the inevitable result was that I lost my healing; but I had had it long enough to have tested its absolute reality.

When, some weeks later, I felt the old symptoms returning, symptoms which I had suffered more or less since childhood, I said in my ignorance, "There, I knew it must surely return. Suppose I had been so foolish as to have told how I happened to be free from the trouble."

I sometimes wonder how God ever thought it worth while to enlighten such stupidity. But He was merciful, and brought my mother with her message about Zion.

I believed myself to be, as I have said, at this time a consecrated Christian. I had yet to learn that consecration does not mean using myself for God, but it means permitting Him to use me; that it does not mean thinking right thoughts for His service, but letting Him think for me. So instead of asking God's opinion of Dr. Dowie, I presumed to have my own opinion and not only refused to investigate, but so opposed the work that my mother went to Chicago and remained three months without going to Zion Tabernacle or Home.

Meanwhile I returned to Davenport, having lost the healing which I had received, and again badly overdid. I was getting discouraged, and especially after a severe relapse at the holiday time, from which I never even slightly recuperated until God healed me.

I suppose because I was really sincere in my desire to serve God, He gave me another chance.

Mrs. Penley visited me with LEAVES OF HEALING, and I read it, partly out of curiosity, and partly in order to tell her I had done so, and because, down in my heart, there was a little hope.

The testimonies were so miraculous I found them incredible. I was fond of saying that the days of miracles were past. I prided myself on sufficient sound, common sense to keep me from believing any exaggerated "wonder tales."

But that winter, for the first time in our lives, my sister and myself had prayer together, and I was learning more and more the necessity of taking everything to God.

As I read the testimonies, and saw that they were said to have been given in the presence of hundreds and even thousands, my common sense told me that such a tremendous fraud could not be long carried on. The people could not all be deliberate liars, I thought, nor could there be gotten together such a large number of marvelously stupid people.

But I was afraid of getting into something absurd and fanatical. My skepticism and slowness to believe all through stood in the way of God's work in me.

After reading the sermon, "Sanctification of Spirit, Soul and Body," I said, "Dr. Dowie is a good man. He may be mistaken, but he is not a deliberate fraud."

It began to dawn on me that I might be mistaken myself; that God was trying to teach me something that I was putting away from me without looking to Him for guidance.

My sister and I took it to God in prayer. We asked that I might do exactly what God willed in the matter. I asked that I might accept all the true and reject all the false (if any).

I then sent for reading matter. I carefully studied and prayed, looking to God for full light. It was my intention to be strictly impartial, but so prejudiced had I been against all so-called "faith cures," that I combated every point not in accord with my own ideas or early teaching.

I would search the Bible through and through, trying to disprove statements Dr. Dowie made in his sermons, and only succeeded in proving them.

When I saw the evidence plainly in the Bible, often not even then being able to fully believe in my own heart, we took it to God and asked for full light to accept any truth He visited me to.

After I had spent a week or two in this deliberate search for knowledge (nearly all the time I was out of bed I was seeking for the truth in God's Word), I had a good deal of conceit taken out of me. I found that instead of knowing the Bible as well as I had supposed I did, I had only a mass of false theology which I called Bible knowledge; for, with many other Bible students, I had made the Bible fit the facts of experience and practice, instead of trusting God to fit the facts to the Bible.

Having awakened to my own ignorance, I was willing to be taught, and under God's direct guidance I began a new and prayerful study of His Word. Those weeks were a revelation to me of how God will open the understanding to the truths of the Bible if we will trust Him instead of ourselves.

I had sent for the fundamental sermons in pamphlet form, and as I studied in the way I have said, I became convinced through and through of the truth of Dr. Dowie's teaching, because I found it stood squarely on God's Word.

My convictions concerning Divine Healing, after this study, were deeply founded.

I feel that it was my firm stand on this matter which enabled me to go the full way through all the discouragement Satan brought to bear upon me, for I still had very much to learn.

Having fully decided to give my body to God, I sent to Dr. Dowie setting a time for prayer. My sister and myself prayed at the same hour.

I was not helped.

I prayed and studied further, and again sent for prayer, and again apparently God did not hear.

Knowing that He would heal me, I claimed the promise, "Seek and ye shall find," and went on seeking, determined not to give up until I found.

I learned very much about prayer during the following period.

I learned that lying all night and clamoring after God in tears and anxiety was not prayer, and the abuse of my physical nature brought on exhaustion and violent headache. Hezekiah's description of his "soul chattering like a crane" always reminds me of that stage of my experience.

When I found my prayers and even Dr. Dowie's unavailing, I realized, although I was truly given to God, that I yet lacked something.

I asked God to show, and then Dr. Dowie's teaching on Repentance began to give me increased light. Repentance, as Zion teaches it, was unknown to me.

I then asked if any sin stood in my way, and promised if there were, I would gladly and instantly confess.

I thought I meant what I said. When God clearly and distinctly chose from my past a seemingly small thing which I had done and said, "Confess this sin," it seemed to me that the one thing which I could not do had been given to me.

Instead of going instantly and gladly with the confession, I struggled over it for nearly three weeks, seemingly losing all the ground I had gained.

I begged that I might keep this thing silent, and I would tell anything else.

I got so I could not pray. It was like the old struggles over consecrating myself to God. It came to where it was a question of giving up all or obeying.

At last I yielded and made the necessary confession, and after I had done so it seemed so easy, and my relief was so great I could not forgive myself for the delay, nor fail to regret the loss of the blessing which instant obedience brings.

I thought that now all was right.

I looked into the past and my own heart under God, and felt that all was clear before Him.

But He was not through with me. When I again set a time for prayer, and apparently God did not answer, I began with greater humility than I had ever yet known to search further for that weakness or sin in me that so delayed the fulfilment of God's will.

I asked God to show me myself as He saw me, and in answer to that prayer He gave me such a glimpse of myself as I shall never forget.

For the first time I felt my need of Christ's atoning blood.

I saw the meaning of His death for our sin.

I saw that all my consecration and obedience—if it were possible to be perfect in this—were not sufficient to cleanse my heart.

I saw that what I had regarded as an upright, and even Christian, life was very dark in God's eyes.

I know now that this revelation was what I needed to bring me into the right attitude toward God.

By this time I knew there was so much to learn that the only thing for me to do was to keep on seeking step by step, as I had been doing, trusting God to take me the full way.

Meanwhile during these two months I had been growing physically worse. Instead of regaining any strength, or recovering from the severe relapse caused by over-exertion at the holiday time, I had been growing steadily weaker, and suffered much.

In addition, my liver trouble, from which, the latter part of my sickness,

Digitized by Google Original from NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

I had been comparatively free, returned in a severe form. My side was swollen so that my clothes would not meet within two inches under my loose-front wrapper.

I was compelled to lie in one position, slightly on my left side, because of the extreme sensitiveness and soreness. Every movement was painful.

It seemed as if Satan had chosen the one thing that might tempt me. It was the only trouble which had at any time been consciously relieved by medicine. Medicine had, in a measure, temporarily relieved me, and it came to me again and again that it would be wiser to take a little of the medicine which had benefited me, than to run the risk of being entirely confined to my bed, and perhaps alarm those who had the care of me, and so lead to a physician being called against my will.

I am glad to say that it was not at any time a real temptation to me, for I recognized from the first that absolute dependence on God was the secret of the prayer of faith.

I determined that death was preferable to disobedience, although I had no fear that God would fail to keep His promise to me.

This condition of my body had lasted for some weeks, and I finally became so ill I saw that I should be confined to my bed.

I knew that in my weak condition I was unable to endure one of the severe attacks of pain to which I was subject.

The probability of a doctor being called grew stronger.

My sense of absolute helplessness brought a fuller surrender than I had yet known. Unconsciously, I think, I had still been clinging to myself, my own faith and prayers.

I threw myself on God and left the responsibility to Him, knowing He would not permit me to be tempted above what I was able to bear.

In this frame of mind I arose one afternoon at 3 o'clock for the purpose of having prayer with my sister. It was with difficulty, because of the pain and soreness, that I knelt.

As we prayed, a singular sensation passed over my side as if something rolled slowly away from it. I rose to my feet with perfect ease and without pain. I did not know what had happened, and put my hand to my side. To my amazement I found there was no soreness. It was not even sensitive to heavy pressure. The swelling and pain had also left instantly, and my clothes fastened loosely about me.

From that moment, in February, 1899, the healing which occurred has been perfect.

Stomach, liver and kidneys are in a healthy condition.

This was very wonderful to me, as I had no recollection of a time when my side was not sore and sensitive to the touch, or was free from pain.

Of course, this wonderfully strengthened me physically and increased my faith, but I was far from being perfectly healed, as these troubles were only a part of my many ailments.

I went on seeking.

All this time I was asking for full healing away from Zion Home.

In the first place, humanly speaking, it was impossible for me to go. I thought if I could not get my healing at home, I could not have it at all.

I knew, of course, if my faith were strong enough, and my life right, I need have no one pray for me.

I had not the means to go to Zion Home, and there were several obstacles which seemed insurmountable. Also, I really wished my healing at home, as I thought that would do away with all theories of hypnotism, etc.

God knew so much better than we did, and a chance remark of Mrs. Penley's, "If God wants you to go to Zion Home, He can take you there, no matter if it is impossible," set us on a new line of thought.

We saw that we were again taking matters into our own hands; that we ought merely to ask God to do it His way, not ours; that if He wished to heal me in my home, He would do it, but if He wished to have me go to Zion Home, His way was surely best.

I saw I ought to have no choice in the matter, provided God's will were done.

We took it to God, asking Him to do His will. Within three days of our first prayer in this way, every one of the "insurmountable obstacles" was removed without the slightest effort on our part.

The way opened distinctly for me to go to Zion Home, and the guiding hand of God was manifest.

A week later I was in Zion Home, arriving the week of Mrs. Ruby's healing, in April, 1899.

I looked for an immediate healing. I was conscious of a clear physical strengthening the first time I was prayed with, so that I was enabled to attend serivces by riding to and from Central Zion Tabernacle.

But because my healing was not perfected at once, I began to worry. I supposed that I could remain at the Home but one week, and it seemed to me the worst thing that could happen would be to go home unhealed.

It seems strange that I should have trusted God so little, after having been led so far.

It seems to me that I could surely have left it all with God. Instead, I lost time and blessing through impatience.

I had to be given the lesson, over and over again, of letting God plan things, before I could learn it.

For more than a week I stumbled along, more and more confused.

Then I realized that I was going back on all my hard-learned lessons.

I saw others about me healed, while I gained nothing. I knew God was no respecter of persons. The healing was for me. Evidently there was something yet lacking in myself.

From the first, the intimacy with God in Zion filled me with wonder and longing.

I had truly given myself to God. I know that, from the moment of acceptance of redemption for the body, my one object was not a selfish wish for healing for my own pleasure, but a desire to be enabled to serve God better.

I intended to use the health He was going to give me for Him, and aside from this I was really not anxious to live. Life in my sickness had become a great burden to me, and I was not afraid to die.

But when I began to love God, I wished to live for Him. Yet I know now that my healing all through had been a sort of primary object, a thing to be sought separately.

Much in the same way, years before, I sought for a "genuine spiritual" experience, as my privilege through the acceptance of the Atonement, forgetting that Jesus Himself was the Atonement, and what I needed was Jesus Himself in my heart.

So I was seeking healing as a separate spiritual experience. Gradually my need dawned upon me. I saw that God was more real to many of those about me than He was to me; that Jesus was more real; that the Holy Spirit was real.

I began to wish for what I saw they had. I found I was too anxious for healing. I came to where I saw I must simply be true and obedient, waiting in faith upon God.

John 14:21 helped me much at this time.

I claimed the promise of the manifestation of Jesus Himself to me, and seeing more and more that Divine Healing was a part of the Redemption, I knew that with the coming of Jesus into my life there would come with Him all the riches of His grace.

I stopped seeking for any especial thing or experience, and prayed that I might know Jesus.

As I prayed, the desire to know Him for Himself grew stronger. I got to where I felt that if I could have Jesus in my life the other things did not matter in the least.

I did not care whether I was healed at Zion Home or not, provided it was according to His will.

And as He led me into that rest in Him which makes anxiety impossible, so that I almost forgot my body in the joy of a closer acquaintance, I awakened to the fact that my health and strength were coming rapidly.

One ailment after another disappeared, one or two instantly, so that I knew of the change at the moment. Others passed away so quietly that I became conscious of my healing by the gradual but complete departure of pain while my body grew stronger.

God is able to do abundantly more than we ask or think. He not only kept me at Zion until I was healed, but enabled me to remain under its teachings several weeks longer, as I remained at the home of Mrs. Congdon as a guest.

Toward the last of my stay I was employed at Zion City Bank for about a fortnight, working very steadily, and thoroughly testing my new strength.

To me one of the most wonderful parts of my experience came directly after my healing. My muscles were, of course, new and undeveloped, yet I felt no fatigue upon exercising. Instead, a singular lightness and strength, of which I have since heard others speak, sustained me until the natural strength, through the development of muscle, had been gained.

Even when the continuous gift of this Divine strength was no longer needed, I have had the same experience in times of much physical exertion, when it seemed as if I were in danger of overdoing, and have gone to God for sustaining strength.

Through the last year I have held a busy and responsible position as General Secretary of the Lend-a-Hand Club of this city, and the work at times has been very heavy, calling for considerable evening work in addition to that of the day's duties.

All winter and spring I have added to my other cares, study and attendance at a short-hand class.

As a member of Zion, and the Conductor of the Zion Gathering here, I have given all the time possible to God's work.

I have kept in excellent health throughout, although I have had hardly a moment's leisure from the time of my healing in May, 1899, to September 1, 1900, when I resigned my position in the Club because of the objections to my active association in the Zion work.

A few of the officers and members began to be anxious lest I should spread Zion truths among the girls who take advantage of the noon-rest attractions furnished by the Club.

A few times during the last year Satan has attempted to bring upon me his old power. I thank God that the healings have been clear and distinct, and usually instantaneous.

I am so thankful to God that He took His way and not mine, and took me to Zion Home.

During the weeks I was there I thoroughly looked into and studied all parts of the work, and I know it is of God.

Now, when in my work here in Zion, as frequently happens, some absurd and malicious story in regard to Dr. Dowie, our God-sent leader, or some part of the work at Zion comes to me, I can answer from personal knowledge.

I have eyes to see, ears to hear and a heart to understand.

I can say "I know," not "I think."

I am glad that my witness can be one of assurance, not only through my personal knowledge of God's work through Zion, but, better still, the facts of the new relation of my own life toward Him.

"I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him," even my whole spirit, soul and body.

Of course, in common with all other members of Zion, my word is often doubted, although upon any other subject my witness would be taken without a question of my sincerity, or intelligent comprehension.

It took some time to understand and properly adjust myself to the fact that a low newspaper fabrication, which I personally knew to be false from beginning to end, should be taken as more reliable authority than my own word in the matter, by those very persons who would not think of questioning my truthfulness on any other subject. Certainly the "preaching of the Cross is foolishness" to those who do not wish to believe.

There is a question frequently asked me, which I feel like taking the opportunity of answering before closing my testimony. It is this: "But why, even granting these facts of your healing to be true, need you have severed your connection with the Methodist Church (which certainly needs consecrated members), and have entered a new," and it is usually implied, "an 'upstart' Church, which is only making divisions among Church members?"

I always believed, even in my old careless Christian life, that it was the duty of a Christian to be affiliated with the Church which stood nearest to God in its teaching and practice, so that he might have full opportunity to live up to his own convictions, and a free field of labor.

Some years before I heard of Zion my own investigation of the Word of God upon Baptism, having once had my attention called to it, convinced me beyond any doubt that I had never been baptized. I said then that if I ever found a Church which taught and practiced true Baptism, and was in other respects equal to the Methodist Church (at the time my eyes were too blinded to see clearly how far away from the early teaching and practice it had fallen), I would not hesitate to enter the truer Church.

When I saw in Zion the fulfilment of God's promises, the preaching of a Full Gospel, the power of His Holy Spirit doing mighty works in the spirits and souls and bodies of those who came into the light in Zion, I did not stumble for a moment.

I was as sure that God wanted me to go into fellowship with this great movement as I would once have been that He would call a converted Roman Catholic out of his Church into the fuller light of the Protestant Church.

I have not, however, looked upon my becoming a member of Zion as the simple fulfilment of a duty.

I have counted it as a privilege and a joy.

God in His mercy has brought me to a knowledge of Zion and has opened my eyes to see that the work is His. I know that there could not be a greater sorrow to me than to have been compelled to stay out of Zion.

It is a strange thing to me that any one who has received the light in Zion can endure to shut himself out from its fellowship, and I thank God that I have been permitted to become a member.

But altbough these were my reasons for entering, I did not see all that God meant by Zion. I did not understand what Zion really was. There has come to me, little by little, a realization of the wonderful work God intends to do through this Church raised up in these last days.

I thank God, as I have a thousand times, that I am a partaker in the great work now going forward which is preparing the world for Christ's coming.

This past year has been the happiest of my life. It has had its mistakes, and I am sorry to say its sins, which, looking back upon, seem inexcusable in one who is under the white light of Zion.

But, thank God, Zion has taught me not to leave unrepented of what I would once have called the little sins, to become a barrier between myself and God.

There are many things to learn all the way.

Needed lessons come daily, but I am no longer unwilling to learn.

Divine Healing has proved such a Beautiful Gate to a fuller knowledge of God and His love.

It is the entrance into heights and depths of His love such as some of us had never dreamed of.

"I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depths, nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." (MISS) MARTHA WING.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6; Exodus 15:26.)

The Lord Jesus Christ is Still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever"; and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing Rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed"; and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17.)

Disease Can Never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been "oppressed of the Devil." (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:38.)

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29; 1 Cor. 12:8-11.)

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13; Matthew 18:19; James 5:14, 15; Mark 16:18.)

Divine Healing is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21; 1 Timothy 4:1, 2; Isaiah 51:22, 23.)

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 1621-1633 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 1207 Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

Zion Babies.

LET ALL Zion mothers send in directly to me photographs of all babies born in Zion during the last five years. Write name, address and age plainly on back of photograph.

JOHN G. SPEICHER,
Overseer of Christian Catholic Church in Chicago.

Six Bound Volumes of Leaves of Healing.

WHAT six books, beside the Bible, could be more precious, more valuable to every member and friend of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, than the first six volumes of LEAVES OF HEALING?

They contain more of the Everlasting Gospel; more testimonies to Salvation, Healing and Cleansing through Faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God; more sound teaching, than any other six books published.

The world may scoff at that, but Zion knows it to be true.

Not only that, but these six Volumes contain, in some measure, the priceless record of God's dealings with Zion in these latter days. In them, as nowhere else, can be found the history of the mighty work which God has established for the extension of His Kingdom and the preparation of the world for the coming of Jesus as King.

In them is contained a large portion of the wonderful Message which God sent to the world by His Messenger.

In fact, when we stop to consider all the glorious things which have gone into the composition of these six Volumes, we find words insufficient and inadequate to express their value.

Those who have been saved, healed, cleansed, made prosperous and happy through the Message brought by one copy of the Little White Dove, perhaps know something of what a mighty storehouse of power these six Volumes are.

These Volumes have been bound, by Zion Publishing House, in strong, handsome black binding, half-morocco, with a graceful design, LEAVES OF HEALING, in gilt upon the front cover.

Each has a carefully prepared index covering all the principal subjects in the book.

They sell at the regular rate of $3.50 per Volume, or the exceedingly low rate of $15 for the six Volumes.

These books should be in every Zion household.

ZION'S CRY IN THE MIDNIGHT HOUR.

"The oil vessel is the body; the Oil the Holy Spirit. That burning torch is the light, the testimony of the Church of God. No man's spirit can be healthy if his body is diseased. . . . Our Lord has told us that if we believe in Him, . . . the Holy Oil, emblem of Divine Healing, will be in these vessels, these mortal bodies. . . . What of the Foolish Virgins? They will come and knock and the answer will be, 'Too late! Ye cannot enter now. Ye must pass through the Great Tribulation.'"—Extract from Sermon by the Rev. John Alex. Dowie, "Parable of the Ten Virgins," LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume V., Number 4, pages 914, 915.

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY MEETING.

Report of Meeting held in Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day Evening, October 28, 1900. Praise and Testimony.

REPORTED BY S. D. W. AND A. W. N.

THE meeting in Central Zion Tabernale, Lord's Day evening, October 28, 1900, was given up to the testimonies of those who had been saved, healed, cleansed and otherwise blessed in Zion. God was present by His Spirit and made effectual for His glory the stories of His wonderful love and power. May He bless to all who read, that they may trust Him wholly for spirit, soul and body.

EVENING TESTIMONY MEETING.

Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day Evening, October 28, 1900.

Deacon W. S. Peckham took charge of the meeting, which was opened by singing Hymn Number 348.

The twenty-third chapter of Jeremiah was then read; also the thirty-fourth chapter of Ezekiel.

Prayer was then offered, after which the tithes and offerings were received, and the meeting thrown open for praise and testimony.

CENTRAL ZION TABERNACLE.

Quickly Healed of Prostration by the Heat.

Miss Jorgine Emilie Hansen, 1619 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank God for Zion, and for the General Overseer and Mrs. Dowie, and also for the officers of the Church. For four years I have not used any medicine. God has kept me very well most of the time, except this summer, in August, when we had very severe hot weather and I was overcome by it.

"On the morning of Friday, August 10th, I felt very badly when I awoke. I went to work, but suffered all the forenoon. I did not ask any of the Deacons at Zion City Bank, where I work, to pray for me. When I went home for lunch, it was very warm.

"I lay down a few minutes and then I got up and went back to work. I ran the typewriter all the afternoon, but toward 6 o'clock I felt very badly. It seemed as if the Devil said, 'I am going to kill you.'

"In a second of time a cold chill came over me. Mr. Wilson, who is working there, came in. I said to him, 'Help me.' He lifted his heart to God in prayer, and went and told Deacon Peckham. He came and laid his hands on me. I got instant relief, and went home and retired. I had a fairly good night's rest. Deacon Barnard had already said that I should not come the next morning if I did not feel well.

"At 9 o'clock I knew they would be holding the prayer meeting at the Bank, and I watched the clock. I knew they would be praying for me. Just at the time I was looking for an answer, such a sweet peace came over me, and I fell asleep and slept until 11 o'clock. When I woke up I felt so well that I got up and went down to work. The Deacon thought that I ought not to work that day. That was Saturday, and on Monday morning I went to work. I have been able to work ever since. I praise God for His wonderful love and His keeping power."

Wonderfully and Permanently Healed.

Mrs. Margaret Queen Jack, Orchard, Ontario, Canada, said: "I was converted to God nine years ago this last April. I had been ailing the four years we lived in Oak Park. I got so I could not work. At last I saw that an operation must be performed, and had my trunk packed to go to the hospital.

"One day a woman came in and told me that she had read in the Inter Ocean that there was a minister down near the World's Fair who prayed with the sick, and that they were healed; that God healed them. She said, 'You are a Christian, and I do not see why God would not heal you.' I thought for a second. I thought, 'God is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever. Why is not God the same today in healing people?'

"She said: 'Will you go and hear this minister?' A friend then went out and got Dr. Dowie's address and we went down to Zion Tabernacle No. 1. While I was on my way there I felt as if every part of me was being pulled to pieces, I was in such agony and pain.

"She left me at the depot, and went over to Divine Healing Home No. 1, on Edgerton Avenue, and told Dr. Dowie my case. He gave her a red ticket to allow me to go into the prayer room.

"After the services were over, he called for those to come in who held the red tickets. I was one of about fourteen.

"When it came my turn to be prayed for, he asked me if I would give up all doctors and medicine and trust Christ as my Healer. I considered it for a minute, because I had not thought of giving up doctors and medicine. Then I told him I would, and trust Christ. He prayed and asked God to bless me. He then asked me where the worst pain was, and I told him. I could only breathe just little tiny breaths, and he laid his hand on me and told me to breathe in Christ's Name. I never felt any more pain from that time.

"I thank God that I still retain my wonderful healing." (This testimony is given in detail in LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume I, Number 36, page 571.)

Converted and Healed in Zion.

E. T. Bergman, Glenburg, Ohio, said: "I came here first in 1896. My general health was bad. I was converted the next day after I got here, and when the General Overseer prayed for me that evening I felt some strength come to me, but no great healing. The next afternoon I prayed in my own room, and told God I would still trust Him. When Dr. Dowie prayed with me again something seemed to start in waves and rolled down and rolled down until it was gone, and I was free. I also received healing of severe pains in my head."

Healed of Yellow Fever.

Miss Eliza J. Robinson, 37 East Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "A year ago the 20th of next month I was healed of yellow fever. I took care of a lady who had yellow fever for about ten weeks with very little rest. I became so weary that I contracted the fever myself.

"I prayed one night that God would help me. The Lord gave me the assurance that if I would be anointed by the Elders of the Church, and would confess my sins, I would be healed. I had been a professor of religion, but had done several things which were not right. But I did not know where to send for an Elder who believed in anointing with oil. I prayed. I said, 'God will answer.' The Lord answered my prayer, by sending me some one who believed in Divine Healing.

"I was then delirious, and they saw it. God instantly healed me after I was anointed, and I was raised up.

"I was then taken to the hospital by the authorities, where I was given three big pills. The nurse would bring me the three pills and then bring me my drink of milk. When she was not looking, I would hide the pills under my pillow. God delivered me."

God Heals of Pneumonia and Stomach Trouble.

J. H. Jackson, 37 East Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I am glad, dear friends, that I am in Zion. The longer I am in Zion, the more delighted I am with this teaching, and with the spirituality which I have gained.

"In 1896 I was sick with pneumonia. The first copy of LEAVES OF HEALING was sent to me by my brother. At that time we were reading the Christian Alliance papers, but this copy of LEAVES OF HEALING seemed far ahead of the Christian Alliance and its teachings.

"After reading LEAVES OF HEALING I began to trust God as my Healer, and He healed me of pneumonia.

"For about eight years I was troubled with stomach trouble more or less. I consulted several physicians, but got no better, but rather grew worse. On the 20th of December last we came to Zion. The next morning we went into the prayer room and hands were laid on us. I was healed of my stomach trouble and have had no symptoms of it since.

"I praise God for leading me and for giving me steady work since coming to Zion."

God's Gracious Answer to Prayer.

N. A. Robinson, Westfield, Illinois, said: "I was healed two years ago the first of next November, in Zion Home. That was about two weeks after I heard of Zion. I was healed of eye trouble, from which I had suffered for two and one-half years. Just as I was preparing to come to Zion College, a bee stung me in the eyelid. It was the most severe bee sting I had ever had. It swelled so quickly that my wife could not pull out the sting without the aid of a pair of tweezers. She took the sting out and we prayed, and God took the inflammation away. Afterward, because I did not keep a vow that I had made to God, He took away His hand in less than one hour. When all things had been made right, God in less than two minutes took away the pain.

"Three days ago a cold started, and I asked the students in Zion to pray. I got immediate relief, but not an entire victory. On Saturday I went to Deacon Lee to see something about Zion's Seventy work. I started out on the Seventy work in the afternoon, and God took away the cold. I thank God for the great things He has done for me."

The meeting was then closed by the following

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

ZION COLLEGE LECTURES ON PRAYER.

A Series Delivered Before the Students of Zion College by the President, Rev. John Alexander Dowie, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

THE world today has learned that there is something far beyond the ordinary in the words and works of God's Messenger to Zion, John Alexander Dowie.

As this realization comes to the public, the first question always is, "How does he do it? What is the secret of his power?"

Those who know the General Overseer and have heard and heeded his teaching know that the power belongs to God. But the General Overseer is wonderfully used by God, as an instrument, on account of his mighty power in Prayer, taught him by the Holy Spirit.

Hence it was with the greatest joy that the students of Zion College received the announcement that the General Overseer would deliver a Series of Lectures on the subject of Prayer. It was an inestimable privilege to learn how to pray from a man whose whole life had become a mighty power for God through Prayer. But joyful as the anticipation was, it was more than justified by the realization.

Many members of the Christian Catholic Church also attended these Lectures and were amazed, from week to week, by the great depth and scope of the subject as it was opened up by the man of God.

Since the delivery of these Lectures there has been a loud appeal, from many sides, to have them published.

The General Overseer was reluctant, as he felt that in the great pressure of his other duties he had not been able to give the Lectures as he might have done with more time at his disposal. He also felt that he should revise them before their publication, and this he could not find time to do.

At length, however, the appeal for them being urged, he consented that they should be sent forth, without his revision, during his absence in Europe and the Holy Land.

Accordingly this wonderful teaching will be printed, almost as it came from his lips, from time to time, in LEAVES OF HEALING. In preparing these Lectures for the press, we have eliminated some allusions to topics of the time and place and have written in some headlines. We have also cut out opening and closing exercises and arranged the matter consecutively without regard to number and date of Lectures.

We pray that God will bless these wonderful truths to all who read in even greater measure than He did to those who heard.

A. W. N.

LESSONS IN THE STORY OF NOAH.

In the last Lecture I dealt with a very important matter. I am very grateful that the Lecture seemed to have been productive of much blessing, because I received quite a number of letters from a number who heard that Lecture, thanking God, and thanking me for it.

I am very glad when something new as well as something old is brought out of the Treasure House of God. We ought to have new light upon old truths. We ought to have, as the dispensation nears its close, the fulness of light. It is coming daily; coming just as rapidly as we are ready for it, as we are prepared to receive it.

Causes Must Be Dealt With, as Well as Effects.

The last Lecture followed along the whole line of the exposition of the reason why we have to pray; the regrettable necessity for intercession, for deliverance from evils which exist in our own natures, and in the world around us. I am calling attention to the way in which these evils originated, because when we are dealing with effects in anything, we can only be wisely guided in so dealing by first of all understanding the causes. It is not enough to deal with effects, we must deal with causes.

Lopping off the branches of the upas tree would not destroy it. The pruning might strengthen it. The putting of the ax to the root of the tree is another thing. We must get the ax to the root of the trees of evil, and understand how to pray for deliverance by understanding how these things arose.

In the course, therefore, of this exposition, we have come to consider God's whole attitude toward evil, and the intense grief of God, and the repentance of God Himself.

We considered how God was grieved at His heart to see that the sons of God and the daughters of men had produced these horrid Nephilim: these giants of antiquity, renowned for their shameful wickedness; and how the whole earth had become filled with sin.

We have the thought, then, of the repentance of God. It repented the Lord that He had made man, and it grieved Him at His heart.

Suddenly, out of all this darkness, there comes just a point of light.

God Never Finds the Earth Wholly Given Up to the Devil.

The repentance of God extended to the brute creation. The animals had been made as dependent creatures, hence they became such as men made them.

There will come a time when, man being good, nature will be again restored, and the antagonism between animals will not exist.

> And the wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall die down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the basilisk's den. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

The future shall be as the past. It shall be better. When God made creation at first, there was no bloodshed.

It would be immensely helpful to us if we could get that book of which I have spoken several times, the Book of Enoch; that book which tells us of a man, the seventh from Adam, who, amidst the growing degeneracy of humanity, had the testimony that he pleased God, that he walked with God, that he was translated, that he left this earth, and that he did not see death as men see it.

That was a wonderful man.

I might tell you something of what the corrupted translation of the Book of Enoch contains, but I think I will simply confine myself to generalities, without entering into the particular portions of the book to which I shall refer.

It is a difficult book to deal with, as it now exists. The copy which is now in the Bodleian Library at Oxford was found by Bruce, the Abyssinian traveler, and has been translated very carefully by an English Bishop. It has been thought well by teachers generally, however, not to make much use of it. I do not know how far they are justified. I am not scholarly enough in Coptic and other languages to discuss the question of its authenticity.

When the Anglo-Saxon race dominates Asia and Africa, the disclosures of these ancient monasteries will yield to us rich treasures of hidden literature, which will enable us to test Bruce's copy of the alleged prophecies of the Book of Enoch.

In this book we have the allegation that Enoch prophesied concerning the flood and concerning Noah as an immediate descendant of the race of Seth.

The Prophecy of Enoch Concerning Noah.

So Enoch, in the degenerate age in which he lived, prophesied the birth of Noah, which means "rest bringer." He foretold that there would come rest to the earth and a time of blessing; that sin should cease, and that the vileness of the Nephilim should pass away. He prophesied that the curse of that pre-Adamite corruption should pass away. What that corruption was, we very faintly know. It is well, perhaps, for us to be ignorant of it.

Enoch knew that God would bring rest.

Beloved, there is always rest for such as love God.

It does not matter how degenerate, dark and wicked, and confused and tempestuous everything is, there is a rest which remaineth for the people of God.

Oh that this rest might now come to you! Oh that you might cease from sin!

When you cease from your own works and let God do His work in you, to will and to do His good pleasure; when you cease your own thoughts and let God think in you; when you cease from your vanities and follies and let God reign in you with a reign of perfect love which casts out fear, He gives you a Divine Wisdom which destroys error, and leads you in a Way of Peace in which folly never walks.

Noah lived on for half a millennium amidst all this wickedness. The Word says, "But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord."

That is the bright light.

Noah found grace. No one ever found a thing unless he sought it. "He that seeketh findeth. He that asketh receiveth. To him that knocketh it shall be opened."

He Who Finds Grace is He Who Seeks It.

"He is a rewarder of them that seek after Him."

The seeker who finds must be diligent. He must not be merely a bookworm. Books are good, very good, but the true seeker must be one who can read a book, and, oftentimes, reject it, and learn the very opposite. He must be one who can weigh a song and detect a false note in it. He must be one who can hear a song and detect the true note underlying it, and let the false and discordant pass away.

He must be one who, in the flower, can find the honey, and let the poison, if there be any, remain.

He must be one who can "discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth Him not."

He must be one who will always be willing to stand with the minority. Wisdom has never been in the majority yet in this world.

Love has never ruled; faith has never conquered; hope has never been triumphant except in the hearts of the minority.

The majority of the world, in all the ages, has been preyed upon by demon forces which have destroyed love; by demon doubts which have filled all their being with uncertainity; by demons of despair which have crushed hope utterly and made them find a refuge in non-existence.

Noah found grace in God's sight because he was a real man of God. It takes a man to be strong in the Grace of God to stand when all around have departed from God.

Do not suppose that this was not a religious age. It was a religious age, just as when Elijah appeared at Mount Carmel. He was not dealing with an irreligious people. They had become more religious than ever. The sacrifice of Baal required more attention and more devotion, more money and more of men and women's very lives than the sacrifice of God.

When men have gone to the Devil most completely, they are most religious.

Secretism is a religion.

Men have stood in the doors of their houses all along this Avenue and told Zion's Seventies: "Go away. I have a religion which suits me. I am a Freemason."

That is a religion. Secretism is a religion.

When you go to China, you do not go to an irreligious country. It is full of religion. There are altars everywhere; gods everywhere; dragons everywhere; spirits everywhere. You cannot move anywhere without coming in contact with religious ideas.

When the Church of Rome degenerated it did not cease to be religious. There is more religion than ever in the Church of Rome. There are more masses, more sacrifices, more services, more saints worshiped. New saints are being canonized all the time. Their prayers increase. Now it is to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Now it is to the Immaculate Mary. Now it is to St. Joseph. Now there is a fresh bursting out because of the sacred water of Lourdes.

They are most religious.

We have seen, in this city, how the News and the Inter Ocean have been helping the Methodist Episcopal Church get up a revival. (Laughter.) They are religious.

The Strength and Grace of Noah.

It requires strength and grace to see the falsehoods and the lies of a corrupt system, and to stand amidst them all as Noah stood. He stood against it 120 years when the ark was being built. How many, many scoffs and sneers were hurled at him! "That old fool Noah," they would say, "actually believes in that older fool Enoch and in his book."

As they scoffed at him, Noah, perhaps, would say to them, "The day will come when you accursed Nephilim, giants as you are, will perish. God will sweep you off this earth. God has told me that I am to build this ark; that I am to take this menagerie with me to sea; that I am to make this vast preparation which I am making for every living creature."

"How are you going to get them, Noah?" they would ask. "How are you going to gather them? How will the beasts be fed? Noah, just have some sense. Here you have been building 100 years and there is no flood."

"No, there is no flood," says Noah, "because my ark is not finished. When my ark is finished, if you fellows do not repent, the flood will come in proper time, and we will go away out on the waters."

"Why, Noah," they would laugh, "nothing on earth can float this ark of yours."

Thus all the hoodlums of the time would come to see this fool. The very carpenters who were building the ark, working for the money which Noah provided for them, would be saying, "Well, of all the fool business we ever knew!"

The very people who contracted to supply the stores, and to fill the Ark with the food necessary, would say, "What a fool he is." They helped in it because there was money in it.

They did just exactly as people do today. They build churches to make money out of it, and mock at Christ, and mock at God. They build churches and design churches, and furnish churches, and supply stores, and all the time they mock.

What a tremendous amount of grace it required for a man to stand like that for 120 years!

That is almost exactly the number of years that the Declaration of Independence has been signed in this country. Imagine one man 480 years of age building on this ark until he was 600 years of age. He would be building from the time when Washington received the surrender of Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown, all through the course of America's history, as you know it to be.

Noah saw the number of people who believed grow smaller and smaller, and not larger and larger, until all there were left at the end of 120 years were his wife and three sons, and their three wives.

The Wonderful Courage of Noah Against Terrible Opposition.

When you and I are exposed to such comparatively trifling opposition, just think of that man who through the 120 years was steadily building his ark and providing, and instead of getting more friends, getting less. Yet he kept on.

I am glad that I am living at this end of the dispensation, and not at that end. I thank God that I am living now, with all that story behind me to learn from.

If you desire to understand how to pray, sit down and think out what it would mean to fight that battle every day and every week for one century and a quarter, and not lose your faith in God.

Friends, I apprehend that, with many, so long-deferred success would mean retirement from the battlefield.

The Years of Zion's Apparent Failure in Chicago.

I do not wish to boast of myself at all, because I am nothing, but when I came to this city, I had been accustomed to speak to very large audiences, both in Australia and in all parts of this land. Whenever I would leave Chicago, I would get large audiences in the East; crowds of people in Canada, crowds of people filling Carnegie Hall in Allegheny City after one week of work there; large audiences in other cities.

I had large audiences in Harmonia Hall in Minneapolis. But when I came back to this city it seemed hell. You could not get a corporal's guard to listen, humanly speaking. The biggest audience I had in this city from 1890 to 1894, was one of about 500 people. I had simply to stand and witness for God; to testify with sometimes a diminishing number, as it seemed to me.

At one time I had a very rapidly diminishing number. I came to a point where I said, "Every last one of you who belongs to the Christian Alliance, go!"

That cleaned them nearly all out. There were only a few left, but I held on. Down at Stony Island Avenue I preached week after week, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and sometimes had less than fifty people in the whole week.

I am not a Noah. I do not know that I ever would have been a Noah. I am glad I never was tested. I think I might have stood the test. I do not know. I only know that I stood that.

I told Mrs. Dowie, and I told my friends, that eventually I would lick the Devil, and that I would have the largest audience in Chicago.

God Can Save a World Through a Man Who Can Stand Alone.

Take from that period the lesson that when God has found a man who can stand alone, through that man He can save a world, as He did through Noah.

If there had not been a man who found grace in the eyes of the Lord, the race of Cain would have perished then, and perished forever. It would have been an end of man.

But for that grace which has raised up man after man to do certain work, there would be an end to the Christianity which has gone to the Devil in the apostate churches today.

You must ask God to make you such men and women. If you cannot get your work out of what seems to be failure, be patient. Then you can grow within, and grow spiritually, at a time when it seems that all is lost; that your sacrifices and toils and attainments have all been misapplied. You can triumph when those who are dearest to you and nearest to you will say, "What a failure he has made." Hold on; because you may be placed in positions where you will find that at first it seems as if it were impossible to succeed.

We receive the reports of our Elders every month. There are men who today are beginning to win glorious victories who for months and months wrote to me of apparent failure.

There are some of you who will never be anything, and you will never know what it is to have real power with God and with man, and to find grace in the eyes of the Lord until you find that grace which enables you to stand in the place where there will not be an admiring multitude, but in the place where you will be scoffed at.

I was in the train at one time when it passed Zion Tabernacle No. 1. A man who sat across the car from me saw the signboard:

ZION TABERNACLE.

He asked some one, "What is that?"

"That is where an old crank preaches who came to this town at the time of the World's Fair," the other replied. "He tried to establish a Church there, and I hear he is about starved out. I think there is nothing there now except just a very few people, but the old crank keeps up preaching." (Laughter.)

I stepped across the aisle and said, "Thank you, I am that old crank. Let me shake hands with you. I invite you to come and hear me preach."

"Oh," he said, "I am sorry that I have hurt you. I did not know who you were."

I said, "That is all right."

He said, "I only spoke from what I have heard."

I said, "Come down," and he did. That man is one of my dear friends today. He comes often to hear me preach. He takes great delight in laughing about the time when I overheard him.

What he said was true. There was nothing there but just the snow banks, perhaps not more than six, eight or ten worshiping there.

But before that snow had cleared away, that year of 1894, they were placing planks upon that snow, and standing upon them and gazing inside. The people were crowding that place.

Most of the nephilim, most of the giants of this day, are saying, "We are the nephilim of the press; the nephilim of politics; the nephilim of science; the nephilim of society."

Zion is Daring the Nephilim to Battle.

I have had many fights with these nephilim. When I cut them with the Sword of the Spirit, the sawdust runs out and they collapse like rag dolls. (Laughter.)

I have a great contempt for the nephilim of these days, and I dare say that Noah had a great contempt for the Nephilim of his time.

He was brave. He knew the God of Abel. He knew the God of Enoch. He knew the God of Methuselah. He knew the God who had put him where he was, and he knew that the day would come when the Nephilim, if they did not repent, would be, like all the rest, overwhelmed by the Flood. Their wretched carcasses would go down into the deep depths of the Ocean which was then land, and be buried in the crevices and deep ravines, miles below the ocean surface. The soft winds of summer would breathe upon the islands with blessing, but beneath the waves would be the graves of the dead.

The day is coming when no man shall say to his brother man upon this earth, "Know the Lord, but all shall know Him from the least to the greatest." The nephilim will be gone, and "the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the seas."

Let us be brave. Let us be among those who find grace in God's sight. Let us find the grace to stand alone.

In Chicago you are standing with a good many where at first I stood with none but Mrs. Dowie and a few cranks like ourselves, despised, scarcely considered, except as a curiosity of ecclesiastical life.

The idea of keeping on and praying and preaching in that place was ridiculous to the world. It was as absurd as Noah's preaching.

Finally the whole ark was finished. Noah was preaching his last sermon. There was the barking of dogs, the crowing of cocks. There were the extraordinary sounds of that menagerie and all its smells.

I cannot understand, unless God Almighty kept it clean, how it was kept clean.

Noah was standing there, preaching on the doorstep, as it were, for the last time. The Nephilim who went home that night could not return next day, because it began to rain heavily. It rained so heavily that they could not get out the next day to see where that old fool was.

The Destruction of the Nephilim by the Flood.

The third day it was unabated, and they could not get out the next day. They heard that there was a flood in the valley, and that the ark was floating, but they could not get out, and they could not see it.

The windows of heaven were opened, and the great fountains of the deep were unloosed, and the awful waters were howling around them.

They were rushing for the mountains.

They did not want to go near that fool. But from the tops of the mountains they saw that ark floating out to the sea. There is no scene which can be imagined more awful than that scene.

The Departure of the Prepared in the Last Days.

It will be repeated, in some respects, in these latter days. But it will not be a Noah going away out with an ark, but the Christians leaving the earth. The wife will miss her husband. "Where is he?" she will say, "He slept in that bed last night."

Husband will rise up and say, "Where is my wife? She was right in this bed last night. Who has seen her this morning?" Nobody has seen her.

They will begin to ask for their brothers, and their sisters, and their friends, and the streets of this city will be filled with people.

"Have you seen my friends?"

"Have you seen our pastor?"

"Have you seen our Elder?"

"Have you seen Deacon So-and-so?"

It will suddenly come, one morning. It will be found that in the silence of the midnight the Voice has come. The trumpet has sounded, and the prepared have gone right up from the earth. The world will awake as the foolish virgins will awake to find that the door is shut, but the Prepared have gone.

That will be a greater surprise than the flood in Noah's time. It may happen in our day. May God give you grace in His sight to be among the wise virgins. (Amen.)

There is no use in merely looking at that old story, unless you can get an application of it to this time.

I believe in the pre-millennial ascension to heaven of all the prepared of God's children on earth.

There are scoffers and mockers, even among those who are virgins. They are foolish. They would not take oil in their vessels. They would not be prepared by the reception of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit in their spirits, souls and bodies. They will go to sleep and will awake some morning to find that the prepared have been taken out of the earth just as Noah's ark floated away out on the water.

They will have to pass through the tribulation.

Find grace in God's sight. Make preparation for the time when your work among men shall be done.

The great tribulation shall come upon all flesh, and in the little while between there will be a preparation in heaven. Then the Christ shall come, and we shall come with Him.

We Shall Return to Reign With Christ.

We shall reign with Him.

I shall be glad to come back. I shall be glad to take my part. I may have my part given me in going out to carry out His orders. They will be resisted, perhaps, in many places. Then what will happen? The wicked shall go to hell.

The powers which will be employed for the subjugation of God's enemies will be irresistible. They shall be swept away. It will not need Gatling guns. There are quicker ways to send out of this world the wicked than that, and they shall go.

The Christ shall reign, and the last cleansing fire shall come on this earth. This earth shall finally be changed into its glorious form.

"New heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness, shall come."

The fire shall not be able to touch the redeemed spirits. The fire cannot touch gold except to purify it. The fire shall burn until the elements melt with a fervent heat. All the earth shall be molten and recast and brought into the zone where there shall be no more night; where there shall be no more sin, and no more sorrow, and no more disease, and no more death; where the earth shall be restored to its primitive purity and beauty.

I am very thankful that this dear old earth, after it passes through its last form, will pass upward into that light where it will dwell forever.

The world which received Adam and Eve into the first habitation, with ransomed from all the ages, shall sing the morning song as the new heavens and the new earth are brought into perfect order "wherein dwelleth righteousness," sin, disease and death and hell, and all the powers of evil forever having passed away.

This is the grace we need; the grace to see beyond the conflicts and the strife, the dawn of victory. That grace will come to the men and the women who know how to pray, and how to live. They shall find grace in God's sight. They shall stand with Him in the dark hours which yet must come before the eternal morn shall shine.

I see it beyond the conflicts. I see the need to be ready to go when He calls. If He should call us before the time of calling of those who shall meet the Lord in the air, let us be ready.

The great danger with all of us is to set our affections on things beneath, and upon the passing things of time, while we are looking for the eternal things. But we should use wisely the passing things of earth and make them the chariots to bear onward the heavenly glories, the Kingdom of God.

Learn to Use Material Things to Advance God's Kingdom.

Use is not abuse. Learn to make use of every power in this wonderful age in which God is unfolding the hidings of His power in things material and things spiritual.

We can harness the lightnings to Zion's chariots. We can harness the lightnings to Zion's words, so that the words may go through all the earth. We are living in the days when we have to confound the nephilim. The nephilim must be subdued, and the will of God brought out.

Mount Zion with its one hundred and forty and four thousand may be nearer than we think. In my judgment, as I look at the unfoldings of prophecy, I do not see the imminent coming of the Lord as some do. Yet it may be at hand within a quarter of a century. I do not think it will be sooner. But I would like to be ready tomorrow night, or now.

Find grace in God's sight. Find that grace, that gift of God. Seek it. Find it.

Let God into everything.

Take God everywhere.

Let your Prayer be not the perfunctory Prayer of the apostate churches, which they can only pray when they have books and candles, and places where they can snivel out their incantations.

Beware!

Let all your life be a Prayer, and everything you do.

May God enable you to find increasing grace.

God is watching.

God is looking upon us.

He sees the few who are faithful.

Zion is called to be faithful, to get up into a high mountain and to let the Voice ring through the earth:

Behold your God.

READ THE COMING CITY.

For all matters pertaining to the founding and building of Zion City, there is no source of information, complete and reliable, but THE COMING CITY. The story of Zion City is being and will be told in its pages, both by descriptive articles and by engravings from photographs. The paper also contains much other interesting matter, such as science notes, household suggestions, special articles on matters of interest to Zion people, and the news of the day.

The paper also contains four pages of advertisements, carefully selected, most of the advertisers being Zion people. It is important that every member of Zion should get THE COMING CITY, not only for the valuable information which it will contain, but for these advertisements. By reading them they will learn who are the Zion business men and thus be able to coöperate with each other.

Zion people should be glad to go a little out of their way to trade at a Zion shop. Zion money is thus kept in Zion instead of going to fill the coffers of the world's people, and each feels the influence of the increase in general prosperity.

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

THE COMING CITY will be sent, postpaid, for $1 for the first thirteen numbers. Address subscriptions to Zion's Holy War Against the Hosts of Hell in Chicago.

ON OCTOBER 1, 1899, the General Overseer and Zion entered upon one of the most remarkable religious campaigns in the history of the City of Chicago.

It was very admirably called "Zion's Holy War Against the Hosts of Hell in Chicago."

By that name it has become famous the world over.

No sooner had the "Holy War" been announced than the enemy began to make active preparations for the onslaught, so that when the war began, it was real. The "Hosts of Hell" fought back with an energy and desperation which made the echoes of the fighting reverberate from Ocean to Ocean in this Continent and across the seas.

The lying press, the pulpit, the medical and pharmaceutical professions, the Secret Societies and many others, whose pet sins had been assailed, joined the forces against Zion and her Divinely commissioned leader.

The West Side Zion Tabernacle riot, in which 3000 medical students participated; the Hammond, Indiana, riot, in which the General Overseer and a number of his faithful attendants were bruised and wounded by flying missiles, and the Oak Park, Illinois, riot, when the General Overseer and 300 members of Zion were besieged in Zion Tabernacle, Oak Park, by a howling mob until 3 o'clock in the morning, when they were rescued by a squad of Chicago police, were some of the exciting incidents of Zion's Holy War.

During this War, the General Overseer delivered his now famous series of addresses on the text found in Malachi 3:5:

And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift Witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers; and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not Me, saith the Lord of hosts.

He also delivered a series of powerful addresses "Against an Unclean, Ungodly and Criminal Press," and a sermon warning the people against Bad Books and Bad Pictures.

These sermons not only aroused the most bitter antagonism of "The Hosts of Hell," but were greatly blessed of God in bringing men and women to Repentance, Faith, Obedience, Salvation, Healing and Holy Living.

Their influence still goes on.

They were first published from week to week in LEAVES OF HEALING, at the time when they were delivered.

They have now been published in book form and are for sale at Zion Publishing House.

The book is a handsome one, of over 300 pages, substantially bound with a neat paper cover.

It contains forty-one preludes, sermons and addresses, a portrait of the General Overseer, and thirteen of Mr. Champe's striking cartoons.

It makes not only a powerful witness against sin, but, in the spicy, graphic preludes by the General Overseer, a most entertaining and valuable history of that remarkable campaign.

CELEBRATION OF THE LORD'S SUPPER IN MANSFIELD.

Elders Matthews and Armstrong Tell of the Meetings Held in Mansfield on Lord's Day, November 4, 1900.

THE victory which God gave His servants and Zion in Mansfield on Lord's Day, November 4, 1900, was briefly alluded to in this department, last week.

As the events of the day were remarkable, in that Elders of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion succeeded in holding Divine services and in administering the Ordinance of the Lord's Supper, we give the detailed accounts of the visit, written by Elders Matthews and Armstrong, who conducted the services.

What a commentary upon Nineteenth Century civilization and the boasted breadth and tolerance of this great Nation, that the holding of two simple cottage meetings by godly Christian ministers should be considered a rare event!

What a flagrant, deliberate and open neglect of duty upon the part of police and civil authorities that a howling, jeering mob should follow and insult a Christian minister and his wife, concerning whom they knew absolutely nothing, save that the minister was an officer in a certain Church!

The following is Elder Matthews' report of his visit, written to Overseer Piper:

First, we thank God that we were able to carry out the plan arranged for us.

We see more and more how God's presence was with us.

Two meetings were held, according to directions given us, without either one being interfered with, although this was not from a willingness on the part of the mob to let us alone.

They simply failed to find out where the meetings were held until they were over.

We entered the city just at dawn, keeping watch lest the police interfere with us.

The providence of God, which permitted us to find friends at the first door where we knocked, still followed us, and before it was fully light we found ourselves in the friendly home of a faithful Zion family, where the morning service was to be held, and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper administered to the faithful people who had for so long a time been deprived of that service.

We were kindly received, and it was a great relief to feel that we were again under a protecting shelter.

Soon the people began to come in one by one, avoiding observation as much as possible.

They came till the room was well filled.

There was a subdued hush over all, and a quiet peace and joy came into each heart and found expression in each face.

There was a consciousness of God's presence and guidance, and we went forward with the various parts of the service in regular order.

The endeavor was to encourage and strengthen this sorely-tried people who had been through so much and were still so bitterly persecuted.

Well did they respond to the effort, as with tearful faces and earnest purpose to suffer whatever was necessary they listened to the promises and the precious truths of Scripture.

The picture came to our minds of the early Christians worshiping underground in the Catacombs of Rome.

The Ordinance was administered "in remembrance" of Him, and the place seemed holy ground with the manifested presence of the Spirit.

All seemed strengthened and encouraged, and at the close of the communion service a little testimony meeting was held, at which nearly every one present bore witness to the power of God in healing or in spiritual blessing.

There was no expression of discouragement or desire to give up the fight. All were willing still to suffer and remain loyal to God and Zion.

So the little gathering dispersed one by one, as it had gathered, quietly and without attracting the attention of the enemy, although men were standing on the street corners and glared at our people as they passed, not imagining, however, that the hated Dowieites had held a meeting right under their eyes.

Now came the critical time.

According to directions, Mrs. Matthews and myself were, if possible, to attend the meeting in the afternoon to be held by Elder Armstrong in a different part of the city.

We were to walk boldly through the streets, under the supposition that we would not be molested, or that if we were discovered we might be marched between policemen to the station and forced upon the train.

But even this kind of an escort was denied us. On our way to this second meeting we were discovered and followed by an ever-increasing mob of boys and men of all ages and appearance.

Knowing the uselessness of trying to reach the house where the meeting was to be held, we turned back toward the center of the city, hardly knowing, however, which way to turn.

Threats were made on every hand, and we were followed the entire distance to the depot by a raging, howling mob, all the time increasing in number and in threats of violence.

But we passed on, and not an arm was raised to touch us. Finally reaching the depot, we entered the waiting room and sat down, as it was some time before the train was due.

The mob remained outside and did not follow us into the room

Some came in, ostensibly to get a drink of water, but really to look at us, while occasionally some one would dart up to the door and open it widely enough to hurl some threat or some vile word at us.

"Come out of there, Dowie!"

"We'll get you when you come out."

"We've got a rope for you."

"The bucket of tar is ready."

Such were the words hurled at us as we sat there quietly resting in the peace of God.

Then they would come up and gaze in through the window as though we were wild animals in a cage.

Finally, just before train time, Elder Armstrong appeared, and then the crowd was furious.

We had thrown them off the track and they had not suspected another Elder to be in town.

We boarded the train, walking untouched through the mob, and from the rear platform of the car I had the privilege of making a little speech to the crowd.

As I closed what I had to say, a small stone struck my coat and glanced off against the rear end of the car.

But not the slightest injury was received by any of our company, for which protection of God we cannot feel too thankful.

Some of the mob were so angry and so much afraid that we would return that they followed us on the train to Galion and Marion.

This is a slight account of God's wonderful dealings with us in this most remarkable experience.

We are thankful to have been permitted to have this experience and to have suffered for Him.

It was something to hold two meetings there unmolested.

May the time soon come when Zion in Mansfield will secure her right to worship without fear of interference.

May God still guide and direct.

While Elder Matthews conducted the morning service, Elder Armstrong was held in reserve to hold the afternoon service.

He writes as follows to Overseer Piper concerning his experience:

God's guidance and protection was clearly marked in every move that was taken to carry out the plans given us before leaving Headquarters.

What an inspiration it was to know that an army of tens of thousands, with its officers of the faithful children of God in Zion, were following us by their united believing prayers.

Truly, God was like a wall of fire about us.

We marched through the city without seeing hardly a living being.

Not knowing our way very well, we prayed quietly as we went that God should direct us to the house of one of the Zion members.

Although we were uncertain about the location of that house, we knocked at one that seemed to answer the description my fellow-worker had succeeded in getting a few hours before, and out through the screen door looked the cheerful face of the brother we hunted for.

An inquiry at the wrong house would in all probability have upset our whole plan for the day.

We went in, thankful to God for His wonderful guidance.

Another mile's walk brought me to my fort, which I held until about 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

At about 12:30 the members of Zion came together and we had a solid bour's meeting without any disturbance or interruption whatever.

None of those present seemed discouraged. Determination marked the countenances of tbem all and a holy fire of love and courage burned in their eyes.

After closing our talk with the words of our Saviour, "Be thou faithful unto death and I will give thee the Crown of Life," we all heartily joined in singing the doxology.

After the benediction, we shook hands heartily, and having bid them farewell, I took my overcoat, intending to find my way all alone to the station.

But as it was about two miles to the depot, a brother offered to drive me down in his rig, which saved me a fast walk and brought me to the train in good time.

I found my fellow-workers in the ladies' waiting room, where they for tbree hours had been subject to the threats and yells of a cowardly and furious mob. I secured my ticket, as we were directed from Headquarters to return to Chicago on the 2:20 train, if possible.

While we and all Zion in Mansfield greatly rejoiced that God had thus helped us to hold our meetings both in the morning and the afternoon, the mob, understanding the situation and their defeat, got furious above measure and the foam of their devilish hatred came forth in a flood of curses and filthy expressions.

This time I was the subject of their shameful language.

There was no attempt whatever to strike any of us until we boarded the train.

Having turned my back to the mob for a minute while stepping on the train, like cowards they rushed up and gave me several kicks. But not the slightest injury was received.

The reports in the Chicago morning papers, Monday, November 5th, were false. In the Record we counted at least a dozen deliberate lies in an article two inches long. One truth they told, that no police officer appeared on the scene, showing the indifference of the city authorities.

God gave us the victory, and we were wonderfully strengthened by this experience.

We are grateful for your prayers and confidence.

CHICAGO.

MEMBERS and friends of Zion in Chicago will long remember with joy the services of Lord's Day, November 4, 1900, in Central Zion Tabernacle.

God's Spirit was present in the songs of thanksgiving and praise; in the reading of His Word; in the reading of that wonderful cablegram from the General Overseer which was published in the last number of LEAVES OF HEALING; in the straightforward, practical address by Overseer Piper; and when, at the close of the day, nearly two thousand Christian brothers and sisters gathered about the Lord's Table and there, in accordance with His command, broke the bread and drank the wine "in remembrance" of Him.

The great audience which gathered was a tribute not only to the power which God is giving His servants left in charge during the General Overseer's absence, but manifested the loyalty and compactness of Zion.

It showed the wicked falsity of the Chicago newspaper prophecy, that Zion in America would disintegrate during the General Overseer's absence in Europe and the Holy Land.

God, through His Messenger, the General Overseer, built up the Christian Catholic Church in Zion too strongly to have it fall to pieces in a few months during the temporary absence of its earthly head.

OVERSEER PIPER has begun a campaign for the purpose of building up the subscription list of LEAVES OF HEALING.

Our hearts overflow with gratitude to God when we see and hear on every side and learn from every land how He is blessing LEAVES OF HEALING.

These very pages contain a large number of testimonies to wonderful blessing in spirit, soul and body through LEAVES OF HEALING.

If every member of the Christian Catholic Church everywhere will heartily join Overseer Piper's crusade and earnestly push forward this great power for good, we have no doubt that, by the Grace of God, Zion Printing Works will soon be running day and night to supply the demand.

The subscription list is constantly and rapidly growing, but more can be done.

We are on the eve of a great Onward Movement in LEAVES OF HEALING.

THE MAH-HAH-BONE MOB IN VANCOUVER.

Zion's Attacks on Secretism Stir Up the Devil in British Columbia.

Vancouver, British Columbia.
Rev. R. M. Simmons, Elder-in-Charge.

A TELEGRAPHIC dispatch published in this department two weeks ago, gave the barest outline of the facts concerning the persecution of Zion in Vancouver, on account of her fearless witnessing against Secretism, one of the organized forces of the Devil in the world today.

Since then the two letters from Elder Simmons, given below, tell the details of that battle and how God gave victory.

The first tells of the trouble reported first in the telegram. It is an account of services held on Lord's Day, October 21st:

A few minutes before time to leave the Tabernacle, last evening, for our street meeting, two police officers called and informed me that they had orders to notify me that I would not be permitted to stand and preach on the street. They said I could preach if I would keep moving.

I asked for the law upon which such orders were based, and was informed it was a city ordinance.

I asked, "Why do you permit the Salvation Army and Socialists and others to speak on the streets?"

They replied, "We are dealing with you now."

Preparations for disturbances, known to the police, had been going on for the two days since the first riot.

Many were the threats.

A special police force was put on to prevent violence.

I told the officers that I was perfectly willing to take my chances in the crowd, but did not wish to violate any law.

A policeman had told one of our members during the day that I was a d—— fool and he would not want to be in my place.

I called our people together in the Tabernacle and instructed them that, no matter what happened, there must be no blows struck by Zion.

Having prayed and committed ourselves to God, we loaded up our Gospel wagon with singers and drove down town, singing as we went.

When we reached the place where we usually speak, there were perhaps a thousand people waiting for us.

We drove on around a block and back through the crowd, which quickly grew into perhaps two or three thousand people.

As we approached the dense crowd, I ordered the singing to stop while I prayed.

I attempted to talk as we drove slowly through the crowd, but the people screamed and jeered so that I could not be heard.

A police officer, who kept close to the wagon, ordered me to stop, which I did.

We then began singing again.

Meantime we had passed through the crowd and turned about, driving through again, and on around two blocks further and back to the Tabernacle, singing "We are Marching to Zion." A guard of police and from one to two thousand people followed. When we reached the Tabernacle, the crowd cried out, "We will let him in, but will not let him out." The Tabernacle was quickly filled, and we held a quiet service for an hour and a half, explaining Zion teaching and proving our position by testimonies.

Through it all Zion behaved grandly, thank God.

Strong Zion men marched close to the wagon while others mingled with the crowd, thus securing valuable information.

A few eggs of the ancient variety were thrown, but not one hit me, who, of course, was the object of their spite.

One brother, not a member, but a friend of Zion, was struck on the chin by a stone, making a small cut.

As I looked into the faces of the would-be mob, I felt somewhat how terrible was the experience of our brethren at Mansfield, Ohio.

There is not a particle of doubt but that I would have been dragged from the wagon and roughly handled had it not been for the presence of the police.

Now, why is all this? Simply because I lifted my voice against the apostate churches and accursed Secretism, and especially the latter.

They have murder in their hearts, and hate me because I expose their sins.

I have announced to tell them plainly on Sunday evening, in the Tabernacle, "Why Zion Opposes Secret Societies."

God will bring good out of all this.

Many people will now investigate that which is causing so much excitement.

There were many strangers in the Tabernacle last night for the first time. While there were some hoodlums, there were others who are business men and good citizens.

I told them last night that Zion was on trial; that we would first produce the witnesses, then submit the case to the jury—the audience, of course, being the jury.

When we were through we asked them, "Is that a bad thing to teach, to believe, and to practice?"

The answer came back in accents strong—NO!

I am informed that the authorities are Freemasons. Here is the secret of the whole matter.

With joyful hearts and strong in faith, and full of love and pity for those who would do us harm, we remain faithfully in the battle for the right.

The second letter, which follows, tells of the victory Zion won on the following Lord's Day evening, October 28, 1900:

Zion Tabernacle was filled to overflowing last Sunday evening by 7:30. Later, the double doors were thrown open and how many stood on the outside I do not know, but there were a great many. They were mostly men whose craft, Secretism, was in danger.

No sooner had I begun speaking than the opposition, which could be plainly felt, broke forth.

As I had expected, an effort was made to take the meeting out of my hands, but we were prepared for that.

An officer was sent for. Two stalwart police officers soon appeared and removed one poor fellow, after which we had good order.

It meant $50 fine for any man who disturbed, if I would appear in court with a charge against him.

For an hour we told them plainly why Zion opposed Secretism.

Many were the threats of violence.

Church members joined the rabble, saying that we ought to be tarred and feathered.

But we have no fear. Thank God, He has given us that love which casteth out fear.

If in the end we receive violence, it will be because of the attitude of a hypocritical and apostate Church which chafes under our plain exposure of its sins.

Elder Simmons has sent us clippings from the local press of Vancouver. They are characterized by the spirit of malicious, wicked lying which has marked Zion's enemies among the modern scribes for years. Even statements of fact are discolored and distorted until there is not a breath of the spirit of truth in them.

But violence, lawlessness, disorder and falsehood can never win the day for the Devil in Vancouver. No weapon formed against Zion can ever prosper.

DO YOU KNOW GOD'S WAY OF HEALING?

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Let it be supposed that the following words are a conversation between the reader [A] and the writer [B].

A. What does this question mean? Do you really suppose that God has some one especial way of healing in these days of which men may know and avail themselves?

B. That is exactly my meaning, and I wish very much that you should know God's Way of Healing, as I have done for many years.

A. What is the way, in your opinion?

B. You should rather ask, WHO is God's Way? for the Way is a Person, not a thing. I will answer your question in His own words, "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life; no one cometh unto the Father, but by Me." These words were spoken by our Lord Jesus Christ, the Eternal Son of God, who is both our Saviour and our Healer. (John 14:6.)

A. But I always thought that these words only referred to Him as the Way of Salvation. How can you be sure that they refer to Him as the Way of Healing also?

B. Because He cannot change. He is "the same yesterday and today, yea and forever." (Hebrews 13:8.) He said that He came to this earth not only to save us but to heal us (Luke 4:18), and He did this when in the flesh on earth. Being unchanged, He must be able and willing and desirous to heal now.

A. But is there not this difference, namely, that He is not with us now?

B. No; for He said, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world"; and so He is with us now, in Spirit, just as much as when He was here in the flesh.

A. But did He not work these miracles of healing when on earth merely to prove that He was the Son of God?

B. No; there was still a greater purpose than that. He healed the sick who trusted in Him in order to show us that He came to die not only for our sins, but for our sicknesses, and to deliver us from both.

A. Then, if that is so, the atonement which He made on the Cross must have been for our sicknesses as well as our sins. Can you prove that is the fact from the Scriptures?

B. Yes, I can, and the passages are very numerous. I need quote two only. In Isaiah 53:4, 5, it is written of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed." Then in the Gospel according to Matthew, this passage is quoted and directly applied to the work of bodily healing, in chapter 8, 17th verse, "That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases."

A. But do you not think that sickness is often God's will, and sent for our good, and therefore God may not wish us to be healed?

B. No, that cannot possibly be; for diseases of every kind are the Devil's work, and his work can never be God's will, since Christ came for the very purpose of destroying "the works of the Devil." (1 John 3:8.)

A. Do you mean to say that all disease is the work of Satan?

B. Yes, for if there had been no sin (which came through Satan) there never would have been any disease, and Jesus never in one single instance told any person that sickness was God's work or will, but the very contrary.

A. Can you prove from Scripture that all forms of sickness and infirmity are the Devil's work?

B. Yes, that can be done very easily. You will see in Matthew 4:23 and 9:35 that when Jesus was here in the flesh, He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people." Then if you will refer to Acts 10:38 you will see that the Apostle Peter declares that He [Jesus] "went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil." Notice that all whom He healed, not some, were suffering from Satan's evil power.

A. But does disease never come from God?

B. No, it cannot come from God, for He is pure, and disease is unclean; and it cannot come out of Heaven, for there is no disease there.

A. That is very different from the teachings which I have received all my life from ministers and in the churches. Do you really think that you are right, and that they are all wrong in this matter?

B. It is not a question as between myself and them. The only question is, What does God's Word say? God has said in all the ages to His Church, "I am the Lord that healeth thee" (Exodus 15:26), and therefore it would be wicked to say that He is the defiler of His people. All true Christians must believe the Bible, and it is impossible to believe that good and evil, sickness and health, sin and holiness could have a common origin in God. If the Bible really taught that, it would be impossible to believe our Lord Jesus Christ when He says, "A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit." (Matthew 7:18.)

A. But even if I agree with all you say, is it not true that the Gifts of Healing were removed from the Church, and are not in it now?

B. No, the "Gifts of Healing" were never withdrawn, and can never be withdrawn, from the true Church of God: for it is written, "The gifts and the calling of God are without repentance." (Romans 11:29.) There are nine gifts of God to the Church (enumerated in 1 Corinthians, 12:8 to 11), and all these are in the Holy Spirit. Therefore, so long as the Holy Spirit is in the Church, all the gifts must be there also. If they are not exercised, that does not prove that they do not exist, but that the faith to exercise them is lacking in God's servants. The gifts are all perfectly preserved; for the Holy Spirit, not the Church, keeps them safely.

A. What should a Christian then do when overtaken with sickness?

B. A Christian should obey God's command, and at once turn to Him for forgiveness of the sin which may have caused the sickness, and for immediate healing. Healing is obtained from God in one of four ways, namely: First, by the direct prayer of faith, without any aid from the officers of the Church, praying as the Centurion did in Matthew 8:5 to 12; second, by two faithful disciples praying in perfect agreement, in accordance with the Lord's promise in Matthew 18:19; third, by the anointing of the elders and the prayer of faith, according to the instructions in James 5:14 and 15; and fourth, by the laying on of the hands of those who believe, and whom God calls to that ministry, as the Lord commands in Mark 16:18, and in other places.

A. But are people healed in this way in these days?

B. Yes, in thousands of cases. I have myself laid hands upon many hundreds of thousands of persons, and I have seen the Lord's Power manifested in the healing of great numbers, many of whom are living witnesses in many countries, who have testified publicly before thousands, and who are prepared to testify at any time. This ministry is being exercised by devoted Christians in many parts of America, Europe, Australasia and elsewhere.

A. Is it not the same as Christian Science, Mind Healing, etc.?

B. No. Divine Healing is diametrically opposed to these diabolical counterfeits, which are utterly anti-Christian. These impostures are only seductive forms of Spiritualism. Trance Evangelism is also a more recent form of this delusion, and it deceives many.

A. But how shall I obtain the necessary faith to receive healing, which faith I am at present conscious I do not possess?

B. It is written, "Belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by the Word of Christ." (Romans 10:17.) Our Missions are held for the express purpose of teaching fully the Word of God on this matter, and I very heartily invite you to attend the meetings which are announced for Zion Tabernacle. All are welcome and there are no charges of any kind made, for all God's gifts are free gifts. Salvation is the first of these, without which you cannot be healed through faith in Jesus. All the costs of this work are covered by the free-will offerings of the people who attend these meetings, and others whom the Lord leads to help; but the poorest who have nothing to give are as heartily welcome as the richest.

A. Do you see the sick and lay hands upon them in this Mission?

B. Yes; after we feel satisfied that they are fully resting in the Lord alone for the healing, we see privately, so far as time permits, those who attend; but under no circumstances do we claim the power to heal any; for "power belongeth unto God."

A. Have you any writings upon this subject which can be purchased?

B. Yes; these can be obtained at the office of Zion Publishing House, 1207 Michigan Avenue, or at Zion Tabernacle, 1621-1633 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill. But the best book on Divine Healing is the Bible itself, studied prayerfully and earnestly.

We extend to you a hearty invitation to attend the meetings, which are free to all. Our prayer is that you may be led to find in Jesus Christ our Lord and God, your present Saviour from sin, your Healer from sickness, your Cleanser from all evil, your Keeper in the way to Heaven, your Friend, and your All for Time and Eternity. We pray that these words may help many who read, and that our little conversation may bear fruit in leading many readers to look to Jesus only.

"The Healing of Christ's seamless dress
Is by all beds of pain;
We touch Him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again."

Eczema and Kidney Disease Healed Through Reading Leaves of Healing.

A gentleman in Ontario, Canada, writes:

I am pleased to tell you that I have been very much interested in Zion teaching since John Sorby, one of your young students, was here visiting his old home and got me to subscribe for LEAVES OF HEALING.

The paper is worth its weight in gold, and more, too.

Since I have been reading it I have been healed of two very bad diseases—eczema and kidney disease.

The former I had suffered from for the most of my life; the latter about twenty years.

I am now fifty-eight years old.

I had suffered many things of many physicians and, like a poor sinner mentioned in the Gospel, "was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse."

Dr. Whitely and Dr. Taylor had both treated me.

One tortured me to an awful degree by applying caustic to the worst eczema sores. The pain produced by this was something fearful.

The other gave me two boxes of liniment to apply, which also caused pain. One was to be put on one side of my body from head to foot; the other was to be applied to the other side of me from head to foot.

Between doctors and patent medicines, I had spent a great deal of money, which, if it had been given to the Lord to spread the truth, the precious Gospel of Jesus Christ, would have done some good.

Since the Little White Dove has been coming to my home I have done with doctors and drugs and pork. I have been blessed in body, soul and spirit, thank God.

I use no tobacco. The Lord delivered me from that dirty weed many years ago. The Lord saved me also from drunkenness at the same time. I have at times taken a little strong drink as medicine.

But no more medicine for me henceforth, thank God.

Whenever there is anything the matter with me now, I pray to God the Father in the Name of the Son, as your paper directs, and He hears and does me all the good I need. Praise His Name.

The Macedonian Cry Comes From India.

From India, a native of that country writes:

I am so glad to receive and read LEAVES OF HEALING.

Its contents appeal most forcibly to my heart, for the Power of Christ runs through all of its pages. This every honest-minded Christian must confess.

I receive its teachings as being the only true teaching. It and the Zion tracts and pamphlets are next to my Bible.

I prefer no other books to them. They help me in my daily duties and in my family life. This I feel every day.

Sometimes its pages detect all of my weaknesses and feebleness in my Christian life.

They help me to grow in grace and strong in faith.

How I thank Dr. Dowie in my heart God only knows.

Zion teaching is quite foreign to the Christians here. Its teachings seem to them so strange that some resent it at once without thinking about it. Some take it in a reasonable way whenever I tell them to go to the Bible, which is the only standard to judge it by.

The name of Dowie is a household word in some quarters here.

Our ministers do not seem to believe this kind of teaching. Many Christian young men are very anxious to know Zion's real teaching and to see Dr. Dowie himself, if possible.

When is Dr. Dowie to come to India? Evangelists, Elders, etc., have gone to China and Japan, why do they not come to India?

India urgently requires the services of a man like Dr. Dowie. There are many hearts in India which long to accept the true teaching which is found in Zion. How greatly such a man's services are needed here God only knows. Let him come quickly.

You are aware of the fact that the plague in India is very severe. There are many so-called physicians here, yet the death-rate is terribly high. They are physicians of no ability. If Dr. Dowie were here, how many would come to worship at the feet of Christ, the Great Physician and Healer!

I hope all of the members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion will remember us in prayer. Will you please ask them to?

I always remember Zion in my prayers.

Will you remember me, my wife and children in your prayers?

I do not know what the future will be. Trusting in God, I will be safe.

From another part of India, a missionary writes:

I am astonished at the change in myself wrought by the Spirit through Zion's blessed literature. It is the most powerful reading that ever I saw.

God has been so sensibly near all day! How blessed to be in His hands, dwelling with the King for His work, ready for whatsoever He shall appoint.

We feel that we must have an Overseer and Zion missionaries and a Zion Home and Zion Cities for India. The friends here are crying mightily to God for this.

Brother —— was not favorably impressed by the LEAVES at first, but is now strong in the faith and has had two answers to prayer for healing the sick.

I read this noon the testimony of Mrs. Myrtle Dawson and Brother Graves' experience in killing hogs in Minnesota. How I did enjoy it; and then I saw more plainly than ever what it will mean to be a Messenger for Zion. But I thank God He gives His Spirit and makes us bold and true.

Goats' Feet and Wasp Waists.

A lady in Australia writes to Overseer Mason regarding his article on "Goats' Feet and Wasp Waists," which appears in LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume VII, Number 10, as follows:

DEAR BROTHER IN CHRIST:—I rejoice to see the above article, and I feel I must write to thank you.

The doctors say that this favorite article of feminine apparel is the cause of the multiplied physical troubles which afflict womankind.

God led me to lay aside the corset, and I have been used to influence other women to leave it off, when marked improvement in health followed in each case.

One case, that of a physician's daughter, was remarkable.

Her testimony was, "I am a new woman."

No woman ever admits that she laces tightly, and yet there is pressure enough to cause disease, more or less.

Indeed, this thing designed by the Devil is a defiler and destroyer of our bodies. God in His mercy is warning the people to repent and forsake it.

Many of us think the cartoons in LEAVES OF HEALING are very good.

By DEACON W. S. PECKHAM.

I LOOK for the Church and I find it in the World;
I look for the World and I find it in the Church.

THESE words were true when first spoken and are even more sadly true today. Members of the Church cannot be distinguished from those outside the Church.

Worldliness reigns supreme in the Church which has lowered the standard to the world, instead of demanding that the world come up to the standard of Christianity.

Popular entertainments have taken the place of the prayer meetings. Popular lectures have replaced the Gospel sermon. Operatic music has driven out the anthem of praise. Choirs are filled with unsaved and wicked persons.

Trustees and other officers are often men of bad reputation. Men of piety are set aside for men of wealth.

Simple faith in God is supplanted by higher criticism. Enthusiasm has been decried and apathy and indifference abound instead.

The revival spirit is dead, and there is no great spiritual power.

Creeds have been brought in and taken the place of the Bible.

Brotherly love has vanished and classes or sets exist. Real worship in the spirit has largely ceased and cold formality prevails.

The ministers are no longer shepherds, but have become hirelings. They feed themselves, and not the sheep.

The sheep rule the shepherd, and there is no power in the ministry to control. The mob spirit is in both Church and State. The "perilous" times have come.

God has "spewed" this apostasy out of His mouth.

The Church which should be the Bride of Christ has become the harlot of the world.

I pray not that Thou shouldest take them from the world, but that Thou shouldst keep them from the evil one.—John 17:15.

Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is tbis, to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.—James 1:27.

I look for the Church and I find it in the Political World;
I look for the Political World and I find it in the Church.

The Church has gone to the world in the matter of government. The Rule of God is set aside and the methods of the political ringster control. Conventions are packed, and the wire-pulling and disorder of ecclesiastical bodies cannot be outdone in the vilest scenes of partisan politics. Selfish ambition for place and power inspires, instead of unselfish humility and desire to serve.

And whosoever would be first among you shall be your servant: even as the Son of Man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister and to give His life a ransom for many.—Matthew 20:27, 28.

In love of the brethren be tenderly affectioned one to another; in honor preferring one another.—Romans 12:10.

I look for the Church and I find it in the Theater;
I look for the Theater and I find it in the Church.

The Church turns to the world for its amusements. Theaters, horse races, card parties, dances, wine suppers, saloons, and countless worldly pleasures are all indulged in, and no voice of protest comes from the Church.

The following clipping (one of many) from a late copy of a Chicago paper, tells part of the terrible depths to which the Church has fallen:

CHURCH WOMEN HEAR RAG-TIME.—A minstrel performance was given in the Masonic Hall, Sixty-third Street and Wentworth Avenue, last night, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid and Earnest Workers' Societies of the Normal Park Presbyterian Church, Sixty-third Street and Yale Avenue. The performance opened up with the regular "first part," in which ballads were sung, jokes were cracked at the expense of members of the Church congregation, and "rag-time" songs were sung. The entertainment concluded with a cakewalk.

Time and space would fail us to tell of the shameful grab-bags, lustful bare feet and kissing acts, lotteries and gambling, progressive euchre parties; also of the suppers where the unclean hog and oyster hold a prominent place on the bill of fare. Invitations are sent out to the public, and young men who spend their nights in dens of vice and infamy come into the presence of pure young women; are admitted into close relations and lead many away to lives of shame.

I look for the Church and I find it in the Lodge;
I look for the Lodge and I find it in the Church.

Jesus answered him, I have spoken openly to the world; I even taught in synagogues, and in the Temple, where all the Jews come together; and in secret spake I nothing.—John 18:20.

Not only has the Lodge taken the place of the Church with many Christians, but the Lodge controls in the Church, and members of lodges get appointments over godly and capable men, who are relegated to the backwoods. Secretism belongs to the Devil and is destroying the true worship of God and bringing in the false worship of Baal.

The oaths of all the thousands of secret lodges have death penalties. Men and women have been bound by these awful pledges, and made familiar with murderous thoughts and feelings until the whole world is reaping the results in mob violence and lawlessness, which threaten the life of all nations. Away with these awful murderous oaths!

Would Jesus Christ take upon Himself a murderous oath? The ministers or the Church members who belong to secret lodges are false to Jesus Christ.

If we say we have fellowship with Him, and walk in the darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: but if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus His Son cleanseth us from all sin.—1 John 1:6, 7.

I look for the Church and I find it in the Medical World;
I look for Doctors, Drugs and Druggists and I find them in the Church.

The Church no longer believes in the prayer of faith which saves the sick. Belief in the supernatural is relegated back to old Bible times, and to the days of Jesus the Christ, the disciples, and the early Church.

The Church has forsaken the way of the Lord, and turned to the arm of flesh. Jesus sent His disciples forth and said, "He that believeth shall be saved," and He that believeth shall lay hands upon the sick and they shall recover.

But the Church no longer believes Jesus. She trains up medical missionaries, and sends them forth with the Bible in one hand and the medicine chest in the other. The "heathen" read, "I am the Lord that healeth thee" (Exodus 15:26), and at once see the falsity of the position of the Church.

The failure of missions and the failure of the Church date largely from the time the Church rejected the Lord as Healer, and turned to doctors, drugs and druggists—the Devil's way of attempted healing.

For many centuries the Church has been apostate, but the darkness deepens, and Jesus may well ask, "When the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?"

The leaders of all the great movements in the Church have believed in Divine Healing.

Nearly all the great reformers held this faith.

Martin Luther's writings abound in facts supporting this truth. Through the prayer of Martin Luther, Melancthon was brought back to health when dying.

George Fox, of the Quaker Church, and John and Charles Wesley, of the Methodist Church, all defended this truth. They each one sought the Lord for healing, and were wonderfully healed. But the churches have departed from the faith of their founders as well as from the Lord Jesus.

The Church or the pastor that fights Divine Healing will die.

Zion will restore the Church to its primitive faith and power. But the faith and power of the primitive Church means the persecution, trials and sufferings of the primitive Church.

This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

The Church has gone to the world in the matter of raising money for its support. All kinds of schemes are concocted to pull money out of the public. The character of the entertainment does not matter so long as it will draw the people and bring in the shekels.

Beggars from Roman Catholic and Protestant churches are constantly appealing to the world for alms.

It is a disgrace to any Church to go around begging for money. A Church whose members cannot support it ought to die—it is not a Church of the Living God.

The world holds the begging Church in contempt. God is not blessing, and the churches are dying. The giving of a tenth to the Lord would provide any Church with all the funds needed to carry on aggressive work.

Zion never has gone to the world for a dollar for her vast work. Our beloved General Overseer has seldom called upon his own people to give, but he demands that all obey God's command and pay their tithes and offerings. And the world-wide work of Zion goes smoothly and rapidly forward with God's own money.

Will a man rob God? yet ye rob Me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed Thee? In tithes and offerings. Ye are cursed with the curse; for ye rob Me, even this whole nation. Bring ye the whole tithe into the Storehouse, that there may be meat in Mine house, and prove Me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. —Malachi 3:8-10.

This promise has been made good to Zion. God is pouring out His blessing, and there is not a day or an hour in which Zion is not going forward in every department.

If we continue faithful, God will continue to bless us in a marvelous way.

As Zion has never appealed to the world for money for her spiritual work, no more must she appeal to the world for any money to build up Zion City and her many great industries.

Let Zion be established with the money God has put into the hands of His own children. We believe that God does not want us to go to the world for money. He will bless Zion and each individual member of Zion just in proportion as we assist in a financial way.

It would be an easy matter for our beloved General Overseer to borrow money from the world, but we believe this would displease God; and if we fail to let our resources be used, God will surely hold us guilty.

Count it not only a duty, but a great privilege to help build up Zion. This is God's Zion, and not only does our General Overseer know who are failing to do their duty, but God also knows.

Some are waiting to see whether this work will succeed. The world says our General Overseer is the best business man in Chicago. He never fails in anything he undertakes, for God is with him.

God says when His people become a willing people that He will manifest His power.

God's cities must be built with clean money, by clean hands, for a clean people.

Many are sending in requests for prayer who ought also to send in application for stock. Those who trust Zion in the time of sickness and trouble, and refuse to help when God calls for means to build up Zion, will not keep their blessing. The time has come when all that we have must be used for God. We must not only come into Zion, spirit, soul and body, but all that we possess must be in Zion, too.

Many are not perfectly healed because they do not fully trust all to Zion. We call to mind a case recently where a woman could not get her healing. She had some property, and just as soon as she invested it in Zion, she was quickly healed. We show our faith and trust in God by our faith and trust in Zion.

Our people must change all their investments in the world to Zion, and do all their business, as far as possible, with Zion's institutions.

Many have responded, but there must not be one buried talent or one unfaithful steward.

Have you committed all to Zion? Hear the call of God, through His Messenger, "Let us build Zion City—a City of God."

Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded a temple unto the Lord, the God of Israel; then they drew near to Zerubbabel, and to the heads of fathers' houses, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do. . . . But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of fathers' houses of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus the King of Persia hath commanded us.—Ezra 4:1-3.

REV. JOHN G. SPEICHER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—It is nearly four years since God saved me. I am a member of Zion.

I was always sickly. I always used medicine before I came to Zion.

I was sick for the last three weeks. I had lung trouble. God healed me. I am saved from many kinds of sickness.

I thank God that I can go to school again.

CHEERING WORDS FROM ZION'S GUESTS

NOTES FROM ZION HOME.

THE regular Praise and Testimony Meeting held in Zion Home, Saturday evening, November 3, 1900, was conducted by Deacon A. F. Lee.

After the usual opening exercises, the States represented were enumerated and found to be seven in number, as follows:

Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Tennessee.

The following foreign countries were represented:

Canada, China and England.

The meeting was then thrown open for testimony.

JOHN SINGLETON, 73 North State Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank God in behalf of my niece. About three months ago she fell, cutting her leg badly. She wrote asking for prayers. I wrote and told her if she would quit doctors and medicines, I would have Zion pray for her. She did so, and in eight days after prayer she was much better, and in a week from that time she was perfectly healed.

"I also thank God for what He has done for me. Six weeks ago I went across Lake Michigan to spend Sunday. I wore my summer clothes and on the way it turned cold. I came back with a very bad cold. It settled in my bronchial tubes. I became quite sick and sent for an Elder. I had a raging fever, but the next morning after Elder Fockler prayed for me I was much better. Afterwards the cold settled in my lung and I had Overseer Mason pray for me. In a few days I was perfectly healed. Before I was in Zion I would suffer for months with such an attack.

"I thank God for the truths which are proclaimed in Zion for Full Salvation for spirit, soul and body."

DEACONESS MARY SPEICHER, Zion Home, said: "Two weeks ago I started for Brooklyn, New York. It was quite an undertaking for me. I thank God for another Zion baby. This was quite a peculiar case, as the lady was paralyzed, and had been for years. There was some opposition in the family because we did not want a physician, but I praise God we got along without a physician and she has a nice healthy baby. The mother said she felt better than she had for five years. Some of her friends and neighbors thought it was wonderful, but it is only a natural result in Zion.

"The Word of God says, 'If ye abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ask whatsoever ye will, and it shall be done unto you.'

"We do ask in Zion and expect to receive. I praise God that He brought me safely home again."

MRS. MARY TANK, Harmon, Illinois said: "I rejoice that I am with you in Zion Home tonight. I had been unable to walk for three months. I could stand, but I could not walk. Last week I could not walk to the street car, but now, praise God, I can walk without any help.

"I am so thankful for what I have received in Zion."

MRS. MAGGIE COSGROVE, Harvey, Illinois, said: "I am thankful for what the Lord has done for me during the past week. I tried to put down carpet, and, of course, that was far beyond my strength. I had quite a battle, but the Lord has delivered me. I came here last Sabbath with a high fever. That was unusual for me, as my temperature is seldom above normal. I knew that God would deliver me, and He did. I desire to live for God's glory."

MRS. ADELINE TURNER, Dekalb, Illinois, said: "I came here last Sunday evening. Before I got on the cars at Dekalb it had been raining, and I slipped and fell, spraining my knee in such a way that I could hardly stand. I got better before I arrived here, but about 11 o'clock at night I was taken with a dreadful pain, so bad I could hardly stand it. I got up, but I could not take a step. I began to think I was very bad. Deaconess Robbins and some others prayed for me, and the Lord has healed me entirely.

"My object in coming here was to get the teaching of Zion and more light on some subjects. I thank God that I have received much blessing and help since I have been here. I take LEAVES OF HEALING, and have distributed a good many copies."

DEACONESS SOPHIA HERTRICH, Zion Home, said: "I feel like praising God more and more for the teaching of Zion, especially as I go out and get acquainted with Zion people, those who have been in Zion for some time. When I hear the testimonies of families who had been Roman Catholics, Lutherans, etc., how thankful they are for Zion, it makes my heart rejoice.

"I love to hear the testimonies of the children. Not long ago in a cottage meeting a little boy testified to his healing of sore eyes. His teacher had sent him home from school and said he could not come any more, and that he ought to be sent to a dispensary. He had Elder Stith pray for him and he received healing. He went back to school and his teacher would not believe that he was healed. She soon found that his eyes were all right.

"The children of Zion always have some little story of blessing and healing to tell. I thank God for the blessings which have been received through the teachings of Zion."

JOHN H. JULIAN, Ellwood, Indiana, said: "I thank God for the privilege of meeting with you. I have been reading LEAVES OF HEALING for some time. About eight months ago I was healed of the tobacco habit, and since that time I have been trusting Jesus as my Healer, and have not taken a drop of medicine. Before that time there was scarcely a day when I did not take medicine.

"Through the prayers of Zion and a brother who was healed in Zion, I was brought nearer to Christ than I had ever been before.. I was one of the worst stinkpots who ever used tobacco. I was never condemned for that habit until I came in contact with the teaching of Zion. I soon found out that I was not what I ought to be.

"There was another thing in the way. I was a Mah-hah-bone, and I gave that up. I have not been in a Masonic Lodge since that time.

"I had a desire to come to Zion after I read LEAVES OF HEALING. I thought if it was as I read in that paper, my wife and I would unite with the Church. I was a member of the Christian Church for a number of years and tried to live a Christian life.

"I have received great blessing through the teaching of Zion. I was healed of stomach trouble and have had good health ever since.

"My wife has also received much blessing. She was healed, after being sick for three years."

T. B. KETTELL, Zion Home, said: "I feel grateful to God that I was ever brought in contact with Zion teaching. I have been reading LEAVES OF HEALING and attending a good many of the meetings, and I notice that, during the last few months, peace and joy have been increasing in my heart, which I knew little of before I came to Zion. I realize that the teaching we receive here takes a deeper hold of a person than the teaching of the old churches.

"I especially enjoy the early morning meetings. I thank God that He has raised up a people in Zion who teach the Full Gospel."

MISS MABEL BURKE, Zion Home, said: "It has been my privilege to be in Zion Home almost a year. I have received many blessings and have been healed of colds without the use of remedies, for which I thank God.

"I count it a great privilege to be in Zion Home. The atmosphere is good here. It is a house of prayer and praise and song. No matter in what part of the house you are, you can hear strains of song and praise, and you are met with a smile and a word of encouragement. It is a great blessing to be here.

"I thank God that the Bible is a new Book to me since I came to Zion. In this I voice the sentiment of many others. God is a new God to me. He is my Father, and I thank Him for the many blessings He has bestowed upon me."

MRS. FLORENCE DAVIS, 2143 West Lake Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I have a great many reasons to thank God which I cannot enumerate. I thank Him first of all for bringing me to Zion, and that I have the privilege of visiting Zion Home, which I have always had the desire to do. I was healed five years ago, and I have never been sick since. I used to be an invalid, was always sick, and was seldom out of bed two weeks at a time. Since God healed me, He has kept me. I praise Him for His keeping power."

D. W. DAVIS, 2143 West Lake Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank God I am here. I thank God that I was forced to come. I was a terrible stinkpot and beerpot, but by the help of God I was brought to Zion. I know my peace is made with God."

E. D. BERGMAN, Glenburg, Ohio, said: "I have been here over three weeks, and have received blessing and healing every time the Elders have prayed for me. In many ways God has shown His love for me. I thank God for the wonderful blessings He has given to me."

JOHN FIDDIS, Zion Home, said: "I thank God for the blessings I have received in the last few days. For some time back the flesh has been rising and fighting for victory. I thank God that the flesh is being conquered and that the spirit is conquering. I had a talk with Overseer Speicher, and when he laid hands upon me and prayed for me I received a great blessing. I never hated sin so much as I do now. I desire to live a pure, godly life the remainder of my days."

MISS TERESA DAY, Zion Home, said: "I thank the Lord tonight for the privilege of being in Zion Home. I feel it a great help to my spiritual life. God has been with me, and I know that He is helping me every day and giving me strength in many ways. I have received blessing and healing, and I thank Him for keeping me so well and strong."

J. C. KRAUS, 1635 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank God for two years of blessed fellowship in Zion. They have been the best years of my life. I had the pleasure of staying two weeks in Zion Home, and I shall never forget those two weeks. I came here from the hospital.

"I thank God for the many things He has done for me. I have been delivered from bad habits, and I also thank Him for the strength which He has given me. I have been able to work for nearly twenty-five months without losing a single day."

MISS EMILY DAUBNEY (formerly of Beeston, Notts, England), Zion Home, said: "I have received great blessing since I came to Zion. I remember before I came to Zion how we would count the days when LEAVES OF HEALING would come. If the boat was late we would be so disappointed, and when it would come we would take it around to the houses where they had not received it. We were always eager to read 'Cheering Words From Zion's Guests.'"

MRS. ELLA B. WELBORNE, Washington, District of Columbia, said: "I thank my Heavenly Father that He led me to Zion a little over a week ago. I have been spiritually and bodily benefited. For the last seven or eight years I had been a victim of drugs. Many nights I could not sleep without morphine. I am thankful to God that he spared my life."

GEORGIA ALAHTE BAUMGARTNER, 180 East Twenty-third Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank God for what He has done for me. Elder Fockler prayed for me when I was very sick with fever, and God healed me. I have been gaining in weight ever since."

The meeting was closed with the

And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you, keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD

Baby Healed When Dying of Cholera-Infantum.

NORTH SPRINGFIELD, VERMONT, October 27, 1900.

OVERSEER J. G. SPEICHER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—It is with gratitude and praise to God that I write you an account of what God in His love and mercy has done for us in healing our baby.

He had always been a very healthy child.

He was one year old the 16th of August, 1900, and about the 1st of September his bowels began to be bad.

On the 7th of September his bowels were very bad, and I wrote to you requesting prayer.

In the night he was very much worse, vomiting.

The discharge from the bowels was very bad and very frequent.

He seemed to be in such distress I had to hold him nearly all the time.

In the morning he could not hold his head up. One would not think he was the same child by his looks, his eyes looked so dull and lifeless.

We went to God as best we knew, asking Him to show us if anything was in the way to prevent His healing the child.

Some few things were shown us which we made right, and on the 9th he was more comfortable.

I wrote you again the 10th. On the 12th there was a change for the better. On the 16th of September his bowels were well.

We did not give him any medicine.

We trusted God and He healed him.

To God be all the glory.

We did not have any physician to name the disease, but I think it was cholera-infantum. Call it what you may, I know my baby was very near death's door, and nothing but the power of God saved him.

I praise God, for I am sure if we had not obeyed God he would not be with us.

I thank you for your prayers, also for your kind, encouraging letters.

Your Sister in Christ, (MRS.) F. A. HALL.

Healed at Time of Prayer.

FULTON, ILLINOIS, October 30, 1900.

OVERSEER W. H. PIPER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—I write a few lines to the glory of God.

I wrote you a request for prayer October 18th.

Your reply showed that you received my letter on the 19th, and that you had prayed for me.

I do not know at what hour you prayed, but I do know that in the afternoon the pain all left my foot, and I have not experienced any pain since.

I had not had my shoe on for nine days. The morning of the 20th I could put my shoe on.

I am happy to say that God has heard and answered my prayer this week.

I took a very severe cold. I prayed and received almost instant relief.

I praise God for His goodness to me, for His great love toward me and for His healing power.

I also thank you for your kind sympathy and for your prayers.

May God richly bless you and Zion everywhere.

Faithfully your Sister in Christ, (MRS.) ANNIE TREACE.

Many Healings and Blessings in Answer to Zion's Prayers.

TUPELO, MISSISSIPPI, November 2, 1900.

REV. WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

Beloved Overseer:—We do "praise God from whom all blessings flow." Forgive us in not communicating the same sooner.

My dear wife for nine days had burning fever, with congestion of the liver and inflammation of the stomach. For three days not a particle of nourishment nor a bit of water could she retain on her stomach.

But now we are praising God our Father and rejoicing in the Holy Spirit, in the Name of Jesus, that all fever, congestion and inflammation are gone, in answer to your prayer and help from Zion.

Our little Hattie, for whom we had you pray, is at school today, delivered from chills and fever.

After becoming overheated in working with hay, about two months ago, I became very bilious. My very system filled with malaria, followed with chills and fever.

When my wife wrote to you and you prayed, the Devil's shackles were stricken off and I was liberated for the glory of God.

Last, but not least, God answered in the case of our dear little daughter Nellie, whom we brought to Zion in Chicago, in July last. We had no hope for her but in the Lord.

When you came into our room and rebuked the spirit of fear in our hearts and laid hands on her and prayed, we believed the head of the serpent was crushed. He writhed a few days after and was no more.

Now our dear Nellie is very well and going to school, walking one mile. She has not missed a day.

For all these blessings we praise and glorify God, thank John Alexander Dowie, our General Overseer, and bless all Zion.

We thank God for the privilege of belonging to the Christian Catholic Church, if we are very feeble members.

Your Brother in Christ, L. G. BOGGAN.

Cleansed From Sins and Healed of Diseases.

251 HASTINGS STREET,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, November 5, 1900.

REV. WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

Dear Overseer:—It is now about two years since God brought me out of the Methodist Church into the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

I feel it to be my duty to testify and tell of the many blessings which God has bestowed upon me in spirit, soul and body during this time.

He has cleansed me from sins and healed me from many sicknesses; among others dyspepsia, catarrh in the head, weak eyes, and lung trouble.

My wages have also been increased six times since I began to pay my tithes, which proves that God's promises in Malachi 3:10-12 are being fulfilled.

I give God all the glory and praise for this, and thanks be to Him for sending us our dear General Overseer to proclaim with power the Full Gospel, teaching us to accept Jesus Christ as Saviour, Healer and Cleanser.

May God guide, protect and bless him, and every true officer and member in Zion.

Pray God to give me grace and power to obey Him, and live a holy life, that I may be a living testimony in my every-day life for our Redeemer.

Your Brother in Christ, ABEL BURMAN.

Healed of Severe Pain.

104 IRVING PARK BOULEVARD,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, October 30, 1900.

OVERSEER PIPER:—I feel it my duty to testify to what God has done for me.

On August 5, 1900, I was taken sick with a pain in my right cheek.

In the evening I went to bed and slept about one hour, when I was awakened with a severe pain in my stomach.

All that night I was very sick.

In the morning we sent for Elder Armstrong, but he did not come until evening.

He laid hands on me and prayed, and I received a great blessing.

I went to sleep and slept soundly all night, and was up and around the next day.

On October 27th I was taken sick with the same pain. We all prayed and I got relieved, and was up before evening.

I praise God for His healing power and for Zion.

Yours in Christ, MABEL LAUNBRANCH.

Little Boy Healed of Tuberculosis of Hip, Knee and Kidneys.

BERLIN, WISCONSIN, October 28, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER SPEICHER:—My little boy is well of that weakness in his kidneys caused by tuberculosis.

He is also entirely healed of the lameness and spinal weakness caused by tuberculosis of hip and knee, which was very bad three months ago.

We thank you for your prayers.

Our prayers are with Dr. Dowie and family and all Zion everywhere.

We thank God for the true teaching of the Everlasting Gospel as we never knew it before.

I enjoy reading LEAVES OF HEALING and THE COMING CITY.

Your Sister in Christ, SUSANAH M. SWADLEY

God's Power Heals Son.

BLUE MOUND, KANSAS, October 28, 1900

REV. WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—Your letter of the 23d at hand. In reply I would say that a little after 1 o'clock by our time, our little son revived and began to improve from that time on.

He was very bad with an epidemic which is in this country.

We are very thankful to God, and to you also for your prayers.

May God bless you and Zion.

Your Brother in Christ, J. R. AYRES.

By REV. W. F. MATTHEWS, M. A., B. D., Principal Preparatory Department.

THE quick passage of time has brought us nearly half through the first term of the present school year, but has not yet stopped the coming of new students.

On this account it might be well to remind those who are thinking of entering Zion College that they are at a great disadvantage if they come in so late in the term.

It is also a detriment to the classes to have new pupils coming in at all times in the term. It is always better to begin at the beginning of a year or a term, or as nearly so as possible.

One who comes in late cannot always take up a subject with a class which has been studying the subject for several weeks. New classes cannot be formed for every new scholar who comes in. So it is better not to enter in the middle of the term, but to wait till one can get a fair start with others and all be able to go on with work together.

An important factor in the success of school work is a proper grading of the pupils. This it is especially difficult to do in such a school as ours, where we have so many different classes of students who have had such different advantages and have been so widely different in the use of the privileges they have had, some using, and some misusing them.

But here as well as in other matters we can see the favor of God in bringing together those whom He has called to Zion, and in guiding their efforts so that results are attained which would be impossible under other circumstances.

We are permitted to see remarkable advancement in short spaces of time in many who have come with an earnest purpose and determination to make up for past deficiencies, or to gain the most possible from the new and ever-enlarging opportunities offered in Zion. The most of our students realize that things are to be gained here as nowhere else, and that the time is short in which to prepare for the great work to be done. Hence they are anxious to improve each day and to make the most of the time. Such consecrated zeal God directs and blesses, and results are seen in the rapid growth of Christian character and spiritual life with intellectual power.

There are those here now who would hardly know themselves as they were when they first came, if they should be brought back to the day when they first set foot in a Zion school. And more clearly still can those who have watched their growth from the beginning see the improvement.

The teaching of Zion College is not that her students are to have everything done for them, but rather that they have something to work out, something to do, each for himself, under God. It is only hard work which gets good results.

Both Students' Homes are full to overflowing and still applications for room come pouring in. It looks as if more accommodations would have to be provided.

Zion has a mission of her own, and a Message to give the world.

It is a special Message, and must be rightly given to men and plainly, so that all may understand.

It is for all men, and all men must have a chance to hear it before the end can come.

So every student who comes to learn about this work and this Message has himself a duty and responsibility to the world.

The world does not understand the Message of Zion.

It cannot know its meaning.

So the Word must be made clear, and it must be proclaimed by specially trained and prepared teachers.

Every Zion student must be prepared to go out as a Zion teacher, well equipped to present the full truth to the world that lieth in wickedness.

The noblest ideal in modern education is that which makes its purpose to be to build up character and does not seek knowledge as an end.

In this aim, it seems to us, Zion can join and work to build up men and women into the noblest Christian character. In this way all intellectual training becomes intensely practical, because always useful and usable.

But nothing can be done without hard work, and every one must work out for himself his own methods of presenting truth, because truth, although a unit, is yet seen from different sides by different individuals.

The best work can be done in Zion College only by raising the standard continually higher and higher, and each helping the other to come up to the higher, advancing day by day. As Zion has set a high standard for the spiritual life, and bids men come and look upon it as exemplified in her followers, so must she set forth the highest intellectual standards; for with the spiritual nature thus enlarged and strengthened, and filled with God and glory, the intellectual nature must be influenced and also brought into fuller strength and power for service.

No one can have his spiritual power strengthened by right relations with God without also having a mind clearer and stronger to grasp and use whatever may be presented to its apprehension.

We believe our students generally understand that to come to Zion College means to come to work and grow, and not to sit and listen and receive merely. There is a willing mind, and hence there must be good results.

Brethren, pray for increasing spiritual life and power and ever-advancing knowledge and wisdom to be given to all connected with Zion College and her work.

REV. F. A. GRAVES, SUPERINTENDENT.

AND THE KING said unto Araunah, Nay; but I will verily buy it of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the Lord my God which cost me nothing.—2 Samuel 24:24.

DAVID wished to offer a sacrifice to God to show his sorrow for his sin of numbering the people. Araunah wished to make him a present of the material for the burnt offering. To this David would not consent. He did not wish to offer for his sin that which cost him nothing.

Today there is too much professed Christianity with little or no sacrifice accompanying it.

It is true that Salvation is a gift. We cannot buy it. We cannot earn it. We can only accept it. "Jesus has died and paid it all; all the debt I owe."

But to those who accept this gift, Jesus said, "Whosoever he be of you that renounceth not all that he hath, he cannot be My disciple."

"God First," is the motto for a Christian.

As a Sunday School missionary in the West, I have spent many years visiting in the homes of the farmers. Many did not have family worship; some had evening worship, and some saved it all until Sunday.

I plead for morning worship.

Give God the best part of the day. The part which is the most valuable to you, give to God.

In the morning you are fresh and rested. After your morning meal, gather in the sitting room, all take your Bibles and spend fifteen minutes with God and His Word. This is your food for the day.

Have little Bibles for little people. If they are just learning to read, let them read a verse even if they have to spell it out slowly. Then sing a familiar hymn and with a few words of prayer commend all to God for the day.

"But," you say, "we hate to spare the time."

Yes, it is going to cost something. Do you hate to spare the time to oil your mowing machine in the morning before mowing? If you do not take the time, but go ahead without oiling, the first thing we hear is "hot box" and your machine is damaged.

So it is in life—too many hot boxes all over the land.

Men are anxious to get rich, anxious to pay off the mortgage, and God is neglected. Failure in health and trouble in many ways follow.

The Psalmist writes, "Thy Word have I laid up in my heart that I might not sin against Thee."

One has said of that verse:

The best thing in,
The best place for,
The best purpose

Here is a parable:

A rich man bought and gave to his son a very nice farm. On it was a beautiful house furnished from all that stores could produce. It was well stocked with horses and cattle and sheep.

Now when this father came to visit this son, instead of giving him a seat at his nice dining table, he sent him to the kitchen to eat by himself; and instead of filling his plate from the nice, juicy roast, he sent him the scraps and bits which were left from the table.

If the father remained over night, he put him in a little back chamber which was unfurnished and had no carpet upon the floor, and no stove to warm it in cold weather.

This is the way he treated that father, who had given him all that he possessed.

This same spirit is in the hearts of many today toward their Heavenly Father—giving God what is left. Our tithes should be paid first, not last, from our income.

Honor the Lord with thy substance,
And with the firstfruits of all thine increase:
So shall thy barns be filled with plenty,
And thy fats shall overflow with new wine.—Proverbs 3:9, 10.

God promises prosperity in this life to those who honor Him with what they receive.

"What costs nothing is worth nothing," is an old adage. Every good thing costs.

The "Beautiful Home" which we sing about has cost Jesus a great deal to get ready for us, and it has also cost Him much to get us ready for it.

He said, "I go to prepare a place for you."

But He came and suffered and died here upon the earth, that every little boy and girl might go to that beautiful home.

You know we sing sometimes:

I gave My life for thee,
My precious blood I shed,
That thou might'st ransomed be,
And quickened from the dead;
I gave, I gave, My life for thee,
What hast thou given for Me?

But seek ye first His Kingdom, and His Righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you.—Matthew 6:33.

FORM OF APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

—IN THE—

CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.

To all who are desirous of entering into Fellowship with the Christian Catholic Church:

MY DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS:—The principles of the Christian Catholic Church have been fully set forth in the Reports of Two Conferences on Organization, held in Zion Tabernacle No. 2, which are fully reported in LEAVES OF HEALING for January 31 and February 7, 1896. The Basis of Fellowship is set forth in the second section of the Resolution passed on February 5th (see LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume II, Number 17, page 267):

FIRST—That we recognize the infallible inspiration and sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures as the rule of faith and practice.

SECOND—That we recognize that no persons can be members of the Church who have not repented of their sins and have not trusted in Christ for Salvation.

THIRD—That such persons must also be able to make a good profession, and declare that they do know, in their own hearts, that they have truly repented, and are truly trusting Christ, and have the witness, in a measure, of the Holy Spirit.

FOURTH—That all other questions of every kind shall be held to be matters of opinion and not matters that are essential to church unity.

All who are conscious of fulfilling these conditions, no matter where they may reside, are invited to fill up the following blank and answer the questions contained therein.

I am, faithfully yours in Jesus,

John Alex. Dowie

ZION'S BIBLE CLASS.

BY DEACON DANIEL SLOAN.

MIDWEEK BIBLE CLASS LESSON, NOVEMBER 28th or 29th.

Zion's God-Given Place.

1. The plan of God as unfolded.—Matthew 20:1-16.
   Why was the eleventh hour call made?
   How long is the eleventh hour before night?
   How many calls have been made before this one?
2. God has repeatedly raised up new churches.—Revelation 1:10-20.
   What Church followed the Apostolic Church?
   Did not the Roman Catholic follow the Greek Church?
   Did not the Protestant Church come out of Romanism?
3. The strength of most people is spent in vain.—Isaiah 55:1-7.
   Are not most people nervous or physically weak?
   Are not the lives of most people soul-saving failures?
   Should the little strength that remains be used for God?
4. The time to labor is short and the reward near.—Revelation 22:6-21.
   What things are shortly to come to pass?
   Who will be able to see these plans of God?
   How soon will Jesus come with rewards?
5. Night will soon be here.—Amos 5:4-20.
   Are the times getting darker and darker.
   What does God call His true people to do?
   Has there ever been trouble like unto that to come?
6. The call to supper will in a little while take place.—Revelation 19:6-16
   Will those who have not pure bodies enter?
   Is Divine Healing making the bride ready?
   Can anything that defileth enter at that feast?
7. Some enter into controversy with God.—Ezekiel 18:24-32.
   Can a Christian defile his body like a sinner and live?
   Who charges God with sending sickness on them?
   Would a man be sick if he had not sinned in some way?
8. Jesus will soon be here.—Revelation 3:7-13.
   How many will be watching for His appearing
   What is it to be watching for His coming?
   To whom will He come quickly?
9. Then a reward will be given true disciples.—Matthew 19:27-30.
   Must one forsake all to be Christ's disciple?
   What will the gain be if one forsake all?
   Who will we rule over in the glory beyond?

The Lord Our God is a Period-Defining God.

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS LESSON, DECEMBER 2d.

Zion's Method of Evangelization.

1. The order of procedure is given.—Luke 14:15-24.
   Whom are we to invite?
   Whom are we to bring in?
   Whom are we to compel to come?
2. Many religious people are shut out of heaven.—Luke 13:24-30.
   Does a Christian live to please self?
   How many who profess Christianity will be shut out?
   Why do they fail to get Christianity in?
3. Pride and selfishness is the cause.—Luke 14:7-14.
   Are not most Church people self-seeking?
   Who are today living humble lives?
   Who are living for the poor, the sick and the maimed?
4. God put final affairs in one man's hand.—Malachi 3:1-6.
   Before Christ comes, will He send a Messenger?
   Does the coming of Christ now draw near?
   What will this Messenger do when he comes?
5. A redeemed body a necessity to enter heaven.—Matthew 22:1-14.
   What kind of a body must the bride have?
   Is not the wedding garment a redeemed body?
   When is Christ the resurrection of the body?
6. Worldly gain, sensuality and compromise the causes of excuses.—Revelation 2:12; 3:6.
   Is not the Greek Church living for political greatness?
   Is not the Roman Catholic Church reeking with sensual sin?
   Is not the Protestant Church married to the world?
7. Excuses stop when judgment begins.—Luke 13:24-30.
   What happens to the self-satisfied?
   Are not the churches getting richer and blinder?
   Does Christ now go farther in them than the door?
8. One must work without getting impatient.—Luke 21:8-19.
   Is a Christian to ever be afraid?
   Does it not take a calm mind to hear God?
   Do men hurt Zion, or really oppose themselves by prejudice?
9. A distinctive message for special classes.—Matthew 24:6-14; 4:23, 24.
   What Gospel is Zion now preaching?
   Is it the same Gospel Christ preached?
   Is it for the poor, sick, maimed and helpless?
10. The last great effort is here made known.—Matthew 10:16-42.
    Who will we yet face in Seventy evangelism?
    Will they fight God's truth and resist reproof?
    What occurs when the cities have been gone over?

God's Holy People are an Especially Sent People.

LEAVES OF HEALING

I am the Lord that healeth thee.

And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

EDITED BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

VOLUME VIII. NUMBER 5. CHICAGO, NOVEMBER 24, 1900. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

HUSBAND SAVED AND HEALED OF QUICK CONSUMPTION; WIFE DELIVERED FROM TERRIBLE SUFFERING.

SURELY HE HATH BORNE OUR SICKNESSES AND CARRIED OUR SORROWS!

This husband and wife have laid their sins, their sicknesses, their sorrows upon Christ.

There is an intense joy in thus accepting the deliverance which He died to purchase.

That joy is written in every line of their faces.

It rings out in every line of their wonderful testimonies.

It is not to be wondered at that they are happy.

The burden which He took from their spirits, souls and bodies was a mountain weight of woe and pain.

Words fail utterly to picture the horror of that burden.

They had been young, healthy, vigorous.

They had been full of hope and bright prospects for the future.

They had been happy in the anticipation of fatherhood and motherhood.

Suddenly they were plunged into deepest darkness and despair.

Their unborn child was cruelly murdered by a demon in the guise of a surgeon.

With brutal, reckless hands, that advocate of the so-called "exact science of surgery" inflicted terrible wounds upon the young wife. Her screams of agony awakened no pity in his stony heart. The sight of his helpless victim, as she says, literally "swimming in her own blood," could not deter him.

MR. AND MRS. F. W. COTTON.

He finished his butchery and left, instead of a proud and happy mother, a hopeless wreck, mourning her murdered child when not crazed by pain and drugs.

Although all her suffering had been brought about through doctors, drugs and a surgeon's knife, the Witness still sought for help from those sources.

Hoping against hope, tortured beyond expression, she went from one physician to another; from one hospital to another.

Each added to her agony and then turned her away with the awful verdict: "No Hope."

A surgical operation, too horrible, almost, for belief, was the climax of two years of worse than vain treatment.

She was left with a pain which no opiate could dull.

Death seemed the only avenue of deliverance.

But, praise God, there was another Way, a more blessed, more glorious Way, a Way which God provided.

Two years before an older woman had lain dying of a tumor.

She had sent to Dr. Dowie, God's Messenger to Zion, asking him to pray God to heal her.

The man of God had instantly lifted his heart to the Father in prayer, although miles away from the dying woman's bedside.

But God is not limited by distance.

His power is co-extensive with infinite space.

At the very moment, He answered His servant's prayer and Mrs. Jennie Paddock stepped from her bed perfectly healed.

She is alive and well today, ten years later.

Her husband, who had witnessed her wonderful healing, met this young couple on the street.

They were returning from a last hopeless visit to a hospital.

He told the wondrous Story of God's Way of Healing.

Instantly that Divinely-sent Message sent a flood of light into the despair-clouded spirit of the suffering woman.

She began at once to trust God.

God began at once to honor her trust.

She received great physical blessing.

She had found the Way.

That Way was Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Three months afterwards, the first time Dr. Dowie prayed with her, the burden of her sicknesses rolled away.

The husband, besides the terrible burden of his wife's illness, was bearing the burden of his own sin.

He was without God and without hope in the world.

The Devil was defiling and destroying him by means of alcoholic poison.

The wonderful Message which had come to him and to his wife was unlike any message which he had ever heard.

It was the Message of the Everlasting Gospel.

It told him that Jesus saved, healed, cleansed and kept those who trusted Him.

It told him that it was not God's will that any one should suffer sickness.

It told him that God was love, and that in His love He had given Jesus His Son to bear in His sinless body the sins and sicknesses of the whole world.

He saw the truth of that Message in God's Word.

He saw it manifested in his wife's healing.

He was convicted, and gave Himself to God.

In answer to Dr. Dowie's prayer, the craving for liquor was taken away with the rest of the burden of sin.

When Zion Tabernacle No. 1 was opened in the early summer of 1893, Mr. and Mrs. Cotton took up their abode there. Mrs. Cotton became a helper in Zion, selling literature, and soon after Mr. Cotton became janitor of Zion Tabernacle No. 1, the Little Wooden Hut.

Since that time both have been faithful, efficient, happy workers in Zion.

Mr. Cotton has risen from the position of janitor, to the responsible position of Steward of Zion Home and Zion Institutions throughout Chicago.

In that position he serves, with untiring zeal, God, his Father, who gave him such wonderful blessings, and the General Overseer, through whom those blessings came.

He and Mrs. Cotton have seen the marvelous growth of Zion, from 1892, when small cottage meetings only were held, up to the present time, when there is no auditorium in the world which would hold a tithe of those who meet in Zion's assemblies throughout the world.

In 1896, Mr. Cotton was seized with hereditary quick consumption.

In an incredibly short time he was apparently in a dying condition.

No human power could have saved him.

He trusted God only and fully.

God needed no poisonous drugs to aid Him in doing His work in His servant's body.

By His Almighty Power, He answered the prayer of faith.

In one week from the time of his healing Mr. Cotton was back at his work.

Now, the very picture of robust, clean, godly manhood and strength, he tells his Story.

Through all these years God has blessed the testimonies of these two, as they have told them to individuals.

May God bless them as they go on the wings of the Little White Dove to tell it beside many a bed of all but hopeless pain.

May His Holy Spirit lead the weary sufferers into the light.

May they, like these Witnesses, lay all their sins and all their sicknesses upon Jesus.

He came to bear them.

He promised to take them.

Why not take Him at His Word?

A. W. N.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF FRANK W. COTTON.

1201 MICHIGAN AVENUE,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, November 12, 1900.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE,
General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

My Dear General Overseer:—It was in November, 1891, nine years ago, that I first heard of Jesus Christ as the Healer of His people.

My wife had been sick for about two years, most of the time in bed, suffering from a complication of diseases, brought on by the physicians

She had nineteen different doctors; had "suffered many things of many physicians, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse."

One day while bringing her home from a hospital, I met a Mr. Paddock, who told me that Jesus Christ was "the same yesterday and today, yea and forever," and that if my wife would trust God for her healing, she would be healed.

He said that his wife had been healed of a large tumor through the prayers of Dr. Dowie, when he was twenty miles from her bedside, and that he knew my wife could get healing in the same way.

At that time I was not a Christian. I did not know anything about God or the Bible, but I was willing to do anything that would lead to the healing of my wife.

Mr. Paddock told me where they were going to have the meetings on Divine Healing. I took my wife to the meeting, and there made up my mind that I would live for God.

After I had taken the stand to do right, I had a hard fight with the Devil.

I tried in my own strength to give up my bad habits, and failed. I drank occasionally, although I never got drunk. While I resolved at this meeting to do right, I never got soundly converted until I heard Dr. Dowie.

He prayed that the appetite for liquor might be taken away, and, thank God, it went, and from that day to this I have been entirely free from it.

When Dr. Dowie came to Chicago (he had been out of the city when we first heard about Christ as the Healer), I took my wife to the first cottage meeting that was held.

I carried her up two flights of stairs, Dr. Dowie prayed for her, and she received immediate blessing, so that she was able to walk downstairs and ten blocks to the street car.

From this time she gradually got better until she was perfectly healed.

From this time on I attended the meetings regularly, until March 24, 1894, when I became janitor of Zion Tabernacle No. 1, the "Little Wooden Hut."

I have carried into that Tabernacle hundreds of sick people, and have seen them walk out well.

I thank God today for the blessed privilege of having been janitor of Zion Tabernacles Nos. 1 and 2.

I exposed myself at Zion Tabernacle No. 2, in carrying in the sick, in the winter of 1896, and caught cold.

I was taken down with quick consumption. Up to the time that I was taken with this disease, I had been perfectly well and strong. I weighed 185 pounds.

It was on a Friday morning that I first began to get sick. I kept getting colder all day, until when night came my body was like ice.

I grew worse, and Saturday I was not able to get out of bed all day.

The General Overseer came and prayed for me, and I received instantaneous healing. Sunday morning I felt perfectly well and went to the morning service.

On Sunday afternoon I went to the Auditorium and sat in a draft. I was taken seriously sick from this time on.

In two weeks' time I lost thirty pounds in weight, lost my voice, could not eat, coughed up thick yellow pus and blood, and was at the point of death.

The odor from my body was like that from a man who had had consumption for about three years.

The people who saw me told my wife that they did not think I would get well.

I believe that I would have died had I not known God's Way of Healing.

My father and my oldest brother died with consumption. It was hereditary.

In this condition, my wife and I went to Springfield, Illinois, for a rest, so that I might get my mind from the work, and get to the place where God wanted me in order to receive healing from His hands.

We stopped over night in Bloomington, Illinois. It was terribly cold, and that night I nearly died from the exposure and the change.

I could scarcely breathe, and my lungs rattled so loudly that they could be heard all over the room—every breath I took, all night long.

My wife saw that if I lost faith for a moment I would die, but I never gave up the fight for life which God had promised me, through His Son.

The next day we went on to Springfield, and that day I received healing. I never doubted for one single minute that God would heal me, and I never took anything as a remedy.

Up to this time I could eat nothing. As soon as the healing took place, my appetite returned at once, and I was able to eat. From this time I commenced to gain.

One week after I was healed my voice was perfectly restored. I had a slight cough for several months, but I did not raise any phlegm from my lungs

Every day I grew better and stronger. I could just feel the life and health coming back to me.

I was at Springfield one week, and went back to work the very day I came back, which was just three weeks from the time I was first taken sick.

I gained in weight from 155 pounds to 205, my present weight.

Previous to this time, every winter I had a cold on my lungs, but from the time I received that healing until this time I have never had a cough. I am healthier and stronger than I have ever been in my life before.

I am better spiritually, physically and financially.

I praise God for what He has done for me and mine.

He has saved us, healed us, cleansed us, and is keeping us.

We thank our dear General Overseer and his dear wife for the teaching of God's Word.

The eight years since I was converted have been the best years of my life.

It has been the greatest joy to work under our General Overseer. I can truthfully say that it would be impossible to have a better earthly master. He has been the kindest and most considerate of men, and looks after the interests of the humblest of his help. I am sure that he thinks as much of the dishwasher in the kitchen, as he does of the highest in office.

My heart is filled with thanksgiving to God for the great joy I have found in His service, and for the blessings I have received through Zion. I am

Your Faithful and Obedient Servant, FRANK W. COTTON.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MRS. F. W. COTTON.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, November, 12, 1900.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE,

General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Dear General Overseer:—It is with a grateful heart and thanksgiving to God that I give my testimony, to be sent to all the world through LEAVES OF HEALING.

It was in the year 1890, the latter part of July, that a shadow first came across my life in the shape of sickness and disease.

Until this time my health had been exceptionally good, but this was the beginning of several years of suffering of misery, and of agony which took me down to the very gates of death.

At this time I was living in Rockford, Illinois.

One evening I was out walking with my husband. I stepped on a loose board on the sidewalk and slipped. I did not exactly fall, but I strained myself in some way.

After I reached home I began to get sick.

I found I was having what seemed to be labor pains. I went to bed and became worse and worse. About 9 o'clock that night we sent for a doctor.

When the doctor came he said an abortion would have to be brought about.

He had an instrument, sharp at both edges, to operate upon me, which was about six inches long.

First he gave me medicine to force a premature birth. This medicine made me so deathly sick I thought I was going to die until I vomited it up.

This doctor worked with me all night until 5 o'clock in the morning. He removed the child by cutting.

I suffered so the people said they heard me scream a block away.

I had lost so much blood I was simply swimming in blood.

After a few days the doctor ordered me to get up. I did so a little at a time.

Finally I was able to walk. I walked around for a little while. Then hard, heavy pains began to come. Inflammation and swelling set in.

We called for Dr. Davis. He treated me, but I grew worse continually.

During the weeks which followed, I was not able to turn myself on my side. I was on my back and had to stay there.

I was not free from pain one minute.

Other doctors have since said that if I had been let alone I would have recovered and the little one would not have been destroyed.

At first when I took morphine it would quiet me for a while, but afterwards I could take a dose every hour and it would not stop the pain.

Then they gave me some other medicine to allay the pain, but after my system grew accustomed to that I could take very large doses and it would not have any effect on me.

One day I helped myself and took an overdose. They thought that I had taken enough to kill me. I felt the effects of it for about a second. All pain passed away, but it very quickly came back again.

Almost day and night I was racked with pain, and was getting worse instead of better.

I was dying by inches.

They had to care for me like a baby; had to lift me in and out of bed. I was not able to help myself in any way except with my hands.

We then got Dr. Helm, Sr. He said that I was in a very critical condition and that it would take a long time, with tender nursing, to cure me. After treating me a few times he said that if my disease was not chronic perhaps I would get well. He treated me three times and then gave me up, saying he had to leave the city.

About a month and a half after that, I was taken to the hospital in Rockford. I was there four weeks.

Then I came to Chicago, and Dr. A. H. Burr attended me.

He said that I would have to undergo an operation in order to get well. He said then the inflammation would stop. We talked it over and decided not to have an operation.

Then we called in Dr. Seely. He treated me for one week and we gave him up for good reasons.

Then we got Dr. Ryan. He made an examination, and said that Dr. Davis ought to have been hanged for leaving me in such a condition. He said he would heal me in three months.

He did not give me medicine. I used hot water all the time. When the three months were up I was no better.

After that I tried Dr. Fitch. He urged me to go to the Cook County Hospital. He had been head physician in the Woman's Department for fourteen years, and said I would get well there.

I went there, and the first night after they took me in, they would not allow Mr. Cotton to come with me.

I did not get any care at all there. They put me upon an operating table and went at me as if they were going to butcher an animal.

All I had to eat was one slice of toast and a little milk from Friday night until Sunday.

They almost killed me there, and it was with great difficulty that Mr. Cotton was able to get me out.

If a well person should go there and undergo all their treatment, he could scarcely survive; it would seem impossible for sick people to get well.

Next I had a lady doctor, Mrs. Mary Landreth. She said she could cure me in eight months.

She treated me fifteen times, then gave me up. She then got me to go to St. Luke's Hospital.

I was there two weeks. I had three doctors there, and the way I was treated is simply unspeakable.

While I was on the operating table, there would be two or three nurses standing by, to hold me down.

They treated me every day and had a pail under the table to catch the blood.

I was so weak from loss of blood that I could scarcely speak.

I asked the doctor one day what he was trying to do, and he told me he was trying to straighten my organs. Then I told Dr. Dudley I would not be taken upon the operating table any more. He said that he would give me a rest for a week.

I had a rest from treatment for a week, except that they painted me with iodine, internally and externally.

Drs. Gavin and Dudley said that my right ovary was entirely rotted away.

They gave me some drug which was horrible to take.

They treated me with hot water, and made me use it at 118 degrees, three times a day, with carbolic acid in it.

My husband came and took me home after I had a week's rest.

They wanted to remove my ovaries, but I refused to allow them to do that.

I had then been sick one and one-half years. I was in such a condition that I did not care whether I lived or died. I had no desire whatever to live. Death would have been preferable to such weeks and months of terrible suffering.

Dr. Burr wanted me to go to a private hospital and have an operation performed, but I told him I would not go to another hospital.

If he could not perform the operation at home, I would not have him do it at all.

Then they made arrangements for an operation at my home.

I lived at 99 West Adams Street at that time. He brought Dr. Hart with him.

When they gave me the ether, they gave me so much that I swallowed my tongue. It took four people to hold me.

The doctor had to put my tongue back in place. I knew about it when it happened. It seemed as if the Devil were right on top of me choking me to death, and it seemed to me that hell was all around me.

After my tongue choked me, I was like one dead.

The doctor then began to operate upon me.

They brought in boiling water, and the doctor was supposed to cool it. But he forgot all about it until the water they had poured into the wound came out and scalded their hands.

I had internal and external blisters for weeks after that.

I never was without pain for one single minute.

They pulled my organs out through the wound and treated me in such a way that I afterwards had terrible suffering.

My uterus had not healed properly from the time the doctor had first cut it.

At this time they cut off the edges on each side and sewed it up, using hot water to stop the blood.

After the operation I had ten times more pain than I had before.

For a long time after this, I lay upon my bed, worse instead of better.

Dr. Burr said he could not do anything more for me, unless he should give me a month's rest and then operate upon the rectum for blind bleeding piles, from which I had suffered from the very first. He said that there were five or six cancerous ulcers in the rectum.

It seemed everything he had done had only tortured me and caused me agony which it was scarcely possible to endure.

For about a year before this one side of my face had been sore. It was black and swollen.

I had three little running sores on my eyelid. My eye was swollen shut. The doctor said it was disease in the blood.

I never had any disease in the blood before. Whatever blood disease I had, the doctors had given me by their poisonous medicines and treatments.

At this time I was not able to use my right limb at all. The pain would go clear down to my knees. The right limb was much affected for a long time. All this time I suffered excruciating pain. Pain, pain all the time.

I told Dr. Burr that I never would go through another operation. I had made up my mind I never would submit to it.

I was so sick and disgusted with life by this time, that I did not care whether I lived or not. I asked God to either let me die or send some medicine to heal me. They all said that there was no help for me.

Then the thought came to me that I had not yet been to the Presbyterian Hospital.

I told my husband and he took me there.

As soon as we got into the hospital, I had enough of it. I did not want to stay a minute.

My husband wanted me to see a doctor before I went out, but I would not allow a doctor to touch me.

It seemed to me that all the horrors I had gone through were right before me.

I felt if I stayed there I would die.

I felt I would never have another doctor.

Through going to this hospital I learned about God as the Healer.

As we went from the hospital, Mr. Paddock, whose wife had been so wonderfully healed, saw us, and told us about God's Way of Healing.

After we reached home, I said that if the Lord healed Mrs. Paddock, He could heal me.

This was in the afternoon. It just seemed then as if a ray of light came to me, and everything was new.

I believed that I was going to get well.

That night I ate a good supper for the first time since I took sick.

The next morning I felt very happy.

I received help immediately after I looked to God, even when I knew so little about trusting Him.

My bowels were perfectly healed.

When I started to trust God, I knew very little about God, but I was willing to obey every command and fulfil every condition, up to my light and knowledge.

I kept gaining strength all the time.

I got Mr. Cotton to burn all the old books we had, and get out the Bible. It seemed that in every chapter I read I found healing.

It was so different, because my heart was changed.

Mr. Cotton never said a word against my trusting God for healing, but did everything I asked him.

After about three days he went to see Mrs. Paddock.

She told him the story of her healing.

Then Mrs. Paddock came to see me, and told how Dr. Dowie had prayed for her and how she got well.

I felt if I could just get to see Dr. Dowie, he could tell me how to get well. I thought he must be an apostle.

She told me about a meeting they were going to have the next Sunday, and I understood Dr. Dowie was going to be there.

I made up my mind that I would go to that meeting.

They tried to dissuade me, but I was determined to go, with the help of the Lord.

In the meantime I asked the Lord to heal my face. I did not want to go out the way it was. The next morning when I awoke it was healed perfectly.

I had not walked but a few steps, and that contrary to the doctors' orders, for nearly two years previous to this time; but Sunday I walked to the street car, which was two blocks.

I still had these terrific pains in the lower part of my body.

We also had to walk two short blocks at the other end of the car line before we reached Mrs. Paddock's house.

I felt better when I had done this than I had before.

Dr. Dowie was not at the meeting and I was greatly disappointed.

At this meeting Mr. Cotton said he would give himself to the Lord and serve Him the best way he knew.

After we left, the thought came to me that Jesus was there just the same, even though Dr. Dowie was not there, and I felt it was more to have my husband saved than to get my healing.

When I first started out I could not walk alone at all. My right limb had been so full of pain that I could not use it.

I grew better right along from that time, and became stronger.

I ate three meals a day.

Three months after that I first saw Dr. Dowie.

It was at a cottage meeting on the North Side.

My husband carried me up two flights of stairs, and Dr. Dowie prayed for me.

After the meeting I walked downstairs and walked about ten blocks before I took a car.

In a short time after that an abscess formed as large as my hand. They said it was the corruption and medicine coming out.

I was stiff for three days and could not move.

Once after that I had some trouble with my eye, but Dr. Dowie prayed for that, and it was healed.

I cannot express my feelings at that time. I felt very happy. I never doubted the Lord in the least.

It was in 1892 that I was healed.

I did not know how to pray for healing, but simply left myself in His hands. As fast as God showed me things in my life which were wrong, I got rid of them.

None of the terrible diseases from which I had suffered so long ever returned.

I have never been sick since to amount to anything until last summer, when I had the grip. God healed me then.

In all I had nineteen doctors treat me, and no two of them treated me alike.

They all said that I could never get well; that I would never walk again.

I cannot express my gratitude to God and to our General Overseer for the teaching of God's Word which brought me deliverance from a worse than living death.

I would rather die tomorrow than to take any medicine. I know that medicine cannot heal.

Our General Overseer has been the means under God of showing me the Way to health.

He has been the means of leading my husband to the Saviour. His first three months of Christian life were months of severest trial, but under the teaching of our General Overseer he became strong, and was able to stand for God.

The General Overseer's coming to this city brought a joy into my life, which, before this, was totally darkened by misery and pain, and a happiness and peace which has never left me.

I also owe sincerest gratitude to Mrs. Dowie for her patient teaching and loving kindness.

I trust that these words, inadequate as they may seem to express the sufferings I endured from the hands of many physicians, and the deliverance I received from God, may be the means of bringing healing to many other sufferers who may be victims of surgeons' knives and poisonous drugs.

Gratefully and faithfully yours, MRS. F. W. COTTON.

ZION VICTORIOUS IN EDINBURGH.

The General Overseer Attacked by Mobs of Demetrian Medical Students. Protected by Police. Much Blessing. Good Beginning in Belfast, Ireland. Many Coming to Zion.

ONE of the joys and the privileges of worship in Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day afternoons, eagerly looked forward to during the General Overseer's absence, is the weekly cablegram to Zion which always arrives and is read at that time.

So greatly blessed has the General Overseer been, during his work in Great Britian, that there has always been cause for rejoicing when the cablegram was read.

On Lord's Day, November 11th, the message given below came with its greeting and cheer:

BELFAST, IRELAND, November 11, 1900.

ZION, Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

Mizpah. DOWIE.

The passage read, referring to the mobs of the medical students in Edinburgh, was as follows:

And about that time there arose no small stir concerning the way. For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines of Diana, brought no little business unto the craftsmen; whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this business we have our wealth. And ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands: and not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana be made of no account, and that she should even be deposed from her magnificence, whom all Asia and the world worshipeth. And when they heard this, they were filled with wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians. And the city was filled with the confusion: and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel. And when Paul was minded to enter in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not. And certain also of the chief officers of Asia, being his friends, sent unto him, and besought him not to adventure himself into the theater. Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was in confusion; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together. And they brought Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made a defense unto the people. But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians. And when the town clerk had quieted the multitude, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there who knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is templekeeper of the great Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter? Seeing then that these things cannot be gainsaid, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our goddess. If therefore Demetrius, and the craftsmen that are with him, have a matter against any man, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls: let them accuse one another. But if ye seek anything about other matters, it shall be settled in the regular assembly. For indeed we are in danger to be accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause for it: and as touching it we shall not be able to give account of this concourse. And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

THIS DO, and thou shalt live.—Luke 10:28.

WHEN the lawyer came to Jesus and asked Him what he should do to inherit Eternal Life, our Lord at once referred him to the law as showing him the way and asked him what he found written there.

The lawyer answered in the words of the First Commandment:

Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself.

Jesus replied:

This do, and thou shalt live.

This seems a high standard of living to man, because he has lived so far below it; yet it is only a return to the state in which God created him and from which he has fallen through sin.

Spiritual life is inseparable from doing; for when man's entire being is filled with love for God and for mankind, it will impel him to work for the salvation of the world.

If man will repent of sin and believe on the Lord Jesus Christ as his Saviour, and let Him rule within him, he will be able not only to keep this commandment, but the Eleventh also.

Jesus said to His followers:

A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; even as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

God pronounces a woe upon those who are at ease in Zion.

He is today calling for a people who shall do all they can do toward bringing the nations into the light of the Full Gospel of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living, and be willing to suffer persecution and die for the truth, if need be.

One of the most effectual ways of preaching the Full Gospel is by distributing Zion Literature.

Many letters are received in Zion telling of those who have been saved and healed through reading it.

We are commanded to work while it is called today, for the night cometh when no man can work. It may be nearer than we think.

Let us then be up and doing what we can to scatter the good seed of Zion teaching.

The letter which follows speaks for itself:

MASON, WISCONSIN, November 13, 1900.

WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

My Dear Overseer in Christ:—I received your letter, also the tract entitled "The Story of a Nickel."

I will not disappoint you, although I am but a poor man in worldly goods. I enclose you an offering for the spread of the LEAVES.

LEAVES OF HEALING found me a physical wreck in body, a sinner away from God, without hope and without God in this world.

Praise be to Him whose mercy is from everlasting to everlasting, through LEAVES OF HEALING I was brought to God.

I recently became a member of Zion Free Literature Mission, but I have a son who is unsaved, so I will have you send him the LEAVES for three months.

I believe in prayer, and I am going to ask you to pray that these papers which may be sent to that boy of mine may be the means of his salvation.

May God's richest blessings go forth on the wings of the Little White Dove, which carries the Gospel of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living to earth's remotest bounds. God bless you and all Zion.

Your Brother in Christ, MATT WHITE.

Healed Through Reading Leaves of Healing.

WESTFIELD, ILLINOIS, September 20, 1900.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—It has been nine months since I was healed.

I had a very bad pain in my right hip for five months.

I knew Brother Robinson had gotten his eye healed, and I went to him and asked how much it cost and what it was that healed it.

He told me it was Divine Healing and did not cost anything.

He gave me LEAVES OF HEALING, and I accepted the teaching.

I read and prayed and was healed through my own prayers.

I have been healed a good many times since.

I am thankful to God that I ever found it out and know God is with me all the time.

May God bless you and keep you. SUSAN PRATT.

Could Not Do Without Leaves of Healing.

BELLAIRE, MICHIGAN, November 12, 1900.

OVERSEER WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—I wrote to you about two weeks ago asking you to pray for me.

I now write to you, thanking you for your prayers.

I also thank God for His blessing.

I am much better and improving all the time.

I am sixty-five years old and can work from 5 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock at night.

I have a good appetite and sleep well.

I have not taken any medicine for a year and a half.

I do not eat swine's flesh.

I can sing God's praises more clearly. I could not sing and would get chills if I read aloud, before you prayed for me.

I can read LEAVES OF HEALING nearly through aloud, now, and have no chills.

I praise God from morning until night.

I love this true Gospel. I am glad I heard it while I yet can live to enjoy it.

I love Zion.

We enjoy reading LEAVES OF HEALING very much. I could not do without it.

I am very thankful that God has not let any harm come to our General Overseer and his party in Europe.

May God bless all officers of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and all Zion people everywhere.

A VOICE TO ZION AND GOD'S PEOPLE IN EVERY LAND.

O thou that tellest Good Tidings to Zion, Get thee up into the High Mountain Lift up thy Voice with strength: Lift it up, be not afraid: Say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God! Isaiah, XL: 9.

FALSE SWEARERS: A REPLY TO THE LIES OF THE "DAILY MAIL."

Report of the Meeting held in St. Martin's Town Hall, Charing Cross, London, England, Wednesday, October 24, 1900. Address: "False Swearers."

REPORTED BY E. W. AND O. L. S.

THE great weapon of the hosts of hell against the servants of God in this, as in every age, has been the hell-born lie. The arch-enemy of God and of His children is the Devil, Diabolos, the false accuser. His insidious lies, through the false leaders of the people, stirred up the rabble to cry, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!" when the sinless Son of God stood before the cowardly Roman Imperator, Pilate, on that awful dawn nearly nineteen centuries ago.

His widespread falsehoods concerning the early Christians caused thousands of them to give up their lives in martyrdom at the hands of a deceived official mob.

Every true man of God who has had the courage to stand for the truth since that day has been maligned without mercy by the so-called religious and political leaders of his day.

No sooner had God raised up John Alexander Dowie as His Messenger to Zion, than the Devil began his vile false accusations.

As the work of God in Zion has grown and increased, the lies have redoubled and multiplied in number, in bitterness and in wickedness.

So furious has this campaign of lying become that, as in former times, the deceived rabble has descended to violence and attempts to murder.

Especially rabid has been the press of London, England, since the General Overseer has been putting to rout and confusion the enemies of God in that great metropolis. The false accusations which have emanated from this brood of vipers have spread, like a noxious miasma, over all the world.

But the lies of the Devil can never prevail against the truth of God.

When the false statements of the London press were climaxed by an especially vile editorial in the Daily Mail, on Wednesday, October 24, 1900, the General Overseer made immediate and vigorous reply.

God was with him and gave him power.

The Reply has already been printed and sold in thousands in London and other parts of the British Isles.

It is being used of God to sweep away the foul "tissue of lies" of the English press; for they are all woven together, and when one is demolished the whole fabric falls to pieces. It now goes forth on the wings of the Little White Dove.

We pray that it may run the lies to earth wherever they have gone. We know that the falsehood has had a long start, but the truth is eternal, and this reply will live when the lie and those who have brought it forth and passed it on are destroyed and forgotten.

A. W. N.

St. Martin's Town Hall, Charing Cross, London, England, Wednesday, October 24, 1900.

The evening services were opened by the congregation singing "Faith is the Victory."

The General Overseer then read from the third chapter of the Book of Malachi; also from the twenty-first chapter of the Book of Revelation. After a few comments on the Scripture lesson, prayer was offered, the announcements made, and the offering received.

The General Overseer then delivered the following address:

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, and profitable unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, and be the means of removing false and wicked impressions that have been created by false and wicked statements, for the sake of Jesus Christ, our Lord, our Strength and our Redeemer.

In the course of this series of lectures I very singularly come tonight to the "False Swearers."

You remember what my text is.

I told you that I would deliver this week a series of discourses such as I had delivered last year in Chicago on this text. It is in two verses, the fifth and sixth of the third chapter of Malachi.

It took me three months to get through these Witnessing Sermons in Chicago, and I am now trying to get through them in a week; so I have to hasten.

I want to illustrate the "False Swearers" tonight by some thing that has occurred today in London. God said, through Malachi the prophet:

And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift Witness against the Sorcerers.

You will remember I told you the Hebrew word was Kashaph, and the Greek word Pharmakoi (φαρμακοί), in Scripture for sorcerers; and that it means in both languages makers of and dealers in deadly poisons. It has the idea not only of enchanting with these drugs, but of being under the dominion, and being made foolish and sick, and even insane, by means of them.

Now, the idea is therefore carried right through into our English tongue by the word "Pharmacist," which you see on every druggist's shop, which means a maker, dealer, or vender of poisonous and deadly drugs.

The word translated "Sorcerers" in the twenty-first chapter of Revelation is pharmakeus (φαρμακεύς), just the English word "pharmacist."

All "Sorcerers" shall "have their part in the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the second death."

I do not hesitate to say to you that the use of nicotine, alcohol, cocaine, and all these drugs, and the selling of them, is a wicked thing. And God said He would be a "swift Witness" in the latter days against them; and so I witness.

I, therefore, witnessed against the "Sorcerers" in this Hall on Monday night. They witnessed against themselves in their riotous assemblages outside.

I will be a swift Witness against the Sorcerers, and against the Adulterers—

I dealt with the Adulterers last night.

—and against False Swearers; and against those that Oppress the Hireling in his Wages, the Widow, and the Fatherless, and that turn aside the Stranger from his right, and fear not Me, saith the Lord of hosts. For I the Lord change not; therefore ye, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.

It is a glorious thing that God does not change.

We change in all sorts of ways, but it is a very blessed thing that God does not change.

Now the third class—those whom God will witness against in the latter days—are those who are False Swearers, who produce things that are not true, who give false witness, who lead people astray by false testimony, not only in law courts, but in the pulpit, and on the platform and in the press, through each of which the people are either enlightened and helped, or deluded by deceitful words.

The Curse of a Lying Press.

One of the worst things that can possibly happen to a nation is that it shall have a venal and corrupt and lying press.

In these days, when the tongue of a single man can reach at the most only a few thousands, it is of tremendous importance that the press, which reaches millions, shall be written by men who feel the responsibility of what they write, and write that which is true. (Applause. Cries of "Hear, hear.")

One of the things that must be done both in America and in England is to curb the power and to superintend the actions of the press; for individuals have but little chance with a malicious and powerful press.

It is only now and then that a man can be found who will in Christ—if I might humbly say it, like myself—stand up and say he does not care what the press say, do, think, or threaten.

I have had that fight in America, and I came out on top; and now I have my own press, and LEAVES OF HEALING every week, and THE COMING CITY every fortnight, and A VOICE FROM ZION and German LEAVES OF HEALING every month, are rising in circulation.

We have several times printed a hundred thousand copies of one issue of the LEAVES, although our average circulation is much smaller. But I want to see a million LEAVES OF HEALING go forth every week; then I want to see ten millions, until Leaves of Healing from the Tree of Life shall reach every land, and go forth in every language of earth.

I have got it now in English; I have got it in Dutch. I have got a little paper published away down yonder—in fact, it has sprung up itself in Arabic, in Alexandria. I have done a little printing in German, French, Danish, Swedish, Japanese, Chinese, and in a number of other languages.

I have more than twenty nationalities represented by students in Zion College in Chicago today, and they are preparing, I trust, to use their pens in the presses of the various nations they represent.

So I am not against the wonderful institution we call the press, but against a corrupt press, whose favors are for sale, like meat in the shambles or like harlots in the streets, to those who will give money for falsehoods and for the hindering of truth.

Now I want to speak calmly tonight regarding the False Witnesses and the False Swearers that have appeared in the London press from day to day and night to night, vilifying myself and Zion.

I think you will feel with me that the time has come, after the leading article today in the Daily Mail, for me to devote a little time to an answer.

A Voice—"Yes!"

General Overseer—I think every honest person will see that I am justified in doing it.

Wicked and Unfair Attitude of the London Press.

Months before I left Chicago—from the time I announced my coming, in fact—there began to appear in the London press premonitory paragraphs indicating that there was going to be an attack upon me, principally in connection with Zion's Industries.

I reached London early in September, having landed first at Cherbourg and attended to my work in Paris.

I was in this city for about four days, and I went to Scotland and Ireland for the only extensive holiday tour that I have had for twelve years and two months.

During these three or four days in London I lived in the Hotel Cecil, where reporters in large numbers waited upon me. I could not see them all, and asked to be excused. I did not want to talk. I said, "I am coming back to London in a month, and that is all I have to say." But reporters are very persistent, if they can get a chance, in their endeavors to get interviews with me.

They do not get a chance in Zion, in Chicago, because they never get near my offices. They are kept downstairs, and we believe that it is a good thing to remember that the Scriptures say of the Holy City, "Without are dogs."

The great majority of newspaper reporters behave worse than dogs. Dogs would not behave as they do. You cannot get a dog to drink liquid fire and distilled damnation, and stink with the fumes of alcohol and nicotine as they often do. I had to air out the room often after they had gone. You could not get a dog to live the life that many of them do.

And yet they presume to "judge all things," and to impose lies upon the people for truth.

It is beyond all question true that the lives that the mass of the press men live are not Christian, but sinful lives; that the mass of them are not living for God or for humanity.

What paper is there in London that writes its leading articles from the standpoint of faith in Jesus Christ?

You tell me that the British Weekly is a Christian paper, perhaps.

I will take that paper's conduct up some night, and consider it, with some other so-called "religious" papers which are really worse in some respects than the secular press.

You will remember that the interruptions in these meetings began with Christian ministers, and people belonging to these so-called Christian papers. You know that was so.

Voices—"Shame!"

General Overseer—It is a shame.

Lack of Honor of London Reporters.

But to return to my few days in London at the beginning of September. I yielded to the pressure of my financial secretary, who is a Scotch-Londoner. He begged me to see some of these young men, who had promised him to write the truth. Well, I gave some of them interviews. They deserve that I should publish their names, and I will if my statements are falsely challenged by them. One of them was ——, and the other one was ——, who represented the Daily Mail, and ——, who represented the Associated Press and, therefore, many American papers.

Not a single one of them did what they said they would. They said they would fairly report my interview, Mr. H—— especially. I have an exact record of these interviews, because my own stenographers took them all down.

Several of these reporters had worked upon American papers.

I said to one of them, "Young man, you are not writing. You have come for an interview, and you are not taking it fully down."

"Well," said he, "I do not write shorthand, but I give a good general idea."

I said, "I do not think you can carry all these facts in your mind."

However, I impressed upon his mind the principal points of the interview.

But the next day villainously false reports appeared, especially in the Daily Mail.

When I saw that report, I saw it was a wilful mass of lies, and the exact opposite of what I said all through that interview.

Well, I asked the Daily Mail to correct it, and they would not do it. They simply continued to abuse me, and to manufacture lies about me daily.

While I was away in Scotland, I began to find from my press clipping bureau that there was a simultaneous attack being made upon myself and God's work in Zion in Glasgow, in Liverpool, in Manchester, and in London and elsewhere. The same paragraphs, identical in words, were appearing in Nottingham, and in Beeston especially, and I began to see what the object was. The London Financial News also stuffed its columns, and its readers, with the same lies concerning Zion's Lace Industries especially.

The Attack of the Press Directed Against Zion Lace Industries.

They were afraid that I was going to succeed in my enterprize as the founder, under God, of Zion City. Of course I am going to succeed. God is giving us, and will give us, success.

They were afraid I was seeking for British capital.

I have not asked for a dollar of British capital, although it will be a "good thing" for capitalists to lend money to Zion should they get the opportunity.

We have more money as a people, however, in the United States than we really know what to do with, and we have been lending you money in England lately. When the last war loan was called for, one-half of it, I am told, was immediately subscribed from New York; and Mr. Lyman Gage, Secretary of the Treasury, says he has several hundred millions of dollars too much gold in the National Treasury.

The fact of the matter is that the United States of America never was in better condition financially than it is today, and there is no difficulty in getting capital for good enterprises.

I have never sought for a dollar of capital in London, and you will have to seek me when you want to invest in Zion.

I call you who have in hundreds attended these meetings daily to witness, have I said one word pleading for money?

Audience—"No."

General Overseer—I have not said one word.

I paid all the expenses of the Mission out of my pockets before I started, and the offerings have not begun to meet the expenses.

But I was very glad today that a Nottingham lace manufacturer came up to me and said: "Doctor, I have only been two days in town, and I want to thank you for the blessing I have received, and when I get back I want to send you a check for ten pounds toward the expenses of this hall." He also said that what I said was quite true as to the Nottingham lacemakers being jealous, but added, "We are not all that way. I am a Nottingham lace seller and merchant, as Mr. Stevenson knows very well, and I have a great admiration for what you are doing, and I believe you are going to be successful."

Zion Lace Industries Will Succeed.

Yes, Zion Lace Industries will be firmly established, and be immensely profitable.

Last Saturday I lunched in Nottingham with eighty-two persons whom we are sending out to America. A large quantity of machinery has gone out already.

Buildings are in course of construction in Zion City, and twenty-six persons are going out immediately, and another party of about sixty in a month.

This is the thing that makes them afraid. Some of the Nottingham lace manufacturers are afraid that if we establish this industry near Chicago, in Zion City, it will seriously affect their American trade, as ninety-eight per cent of the machine-made lace consumed in the United States is made in England or on the Continent.

We have a protective duty of sixty per cent in our favor in the United States to start with; so we are, allowing forty per cent for buyers' and importers' charges, at least a hundred per cent ahead of Nottingham. When I was looking out for industries which would be profitable to my people, I was guided to this beautiful industry, of which the Forty-fifth Psalm speaks: "She shall be brought unto the King in garments of fine needlework."

I looked around and secured a good man in Nottingham who was a Christian and a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and appointed him Managing Director. I bought his factory, and his two skilful brothers have also joined us, with their wives and their families, and many skilled workmen in all departments of these industries, who are competent to instruct others in Zion City, and they are all splendid people.

You can see now why interested parties are troubling about this. Their fears led them to begin a series of attacks. They in some way secured paper after paper in London to help them in deriding us, in saying that we were deceiving every one, and that Zion City itself was only on paper.

Well, you can see the photograph out there in the entrance hall of the scene at the Consecration of Zion Temple Site at Zion City, on July 14th, in the presence of about 10,000 people.

It is one of the largest photographs that has ever been made, by the largest camera in the world, and is eight feet long—less one inch.

It was made by one of our own people.

That immense camera—the property of Mr. George R. Lawrence, of Chicago—and the sun did not lie, although the Daily Mail did.

The fact of the matter is this: Zion City is a very real thing, but it is only in its infancy. We are only laying out the 6500 acres upon which we secured options on the 1st of January of this present year. That is all we said we were doing. We have made a perfect topographical survey of it by our own Engineer and surveyors, and are now platting it out, and getting it ready for selection. We intend to gather tens of thousands of our people there.

We intend to shut out the tobacco (or "stinkpot") manufacturers. We intend to shut out beer and whisky, and all kinds of liquid fire and distilled damnation. (Applause.) We are determined to have a clean and beautiful City, where God's people may find profitable employment, where their children may be thoroughly educated amidst good influences, and where we may train thousands of Zion Messengers for service in all parts of the world.

There shall be no swine there.

We believe that the Word of God is true which said about the pig, "Their carcasses ye shall not touch, and their flesh ye shall not eat. They are unclean unto you."

We take notice of Jesus Christ having sent the devils into the pigs, thus showing his abhorrence of swine's flesh, and we tell our people that if they want scrofula they will eat swine's flesh.

We also teach, and live, the Truth that God's Covenant assures His people of Salvation, Healing and Holiness through Faith in Jesus Christ. Hence Divine Healing takes the place of Doctors and Drugs, and many thousands of our people have been gloriously healed.

The consequence is that tens, and possibly hundreds, of thousands friendly to or actually in Zion abstain from poisons of every kind, and from swine's flesh, and many other bad things which produce disease.

I do not know really how many we have—we have doubtless 50,000 in actual fellowship with the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and there is not one of these who eat or drink these unclean things, nor their families, for the most part. Not a single member of that Church, so far as I know, belongs to a Secret Society. They go home to their wives and children instead. They are members of the Home Lodge.

We remember Christ said, "In secret spake I nothing"; and we hold Secretism to be unchristian and often absolutely Anti-christian: for instance, Freemasonry, which is simply Baal-worship.

Now, all these things, you know, set many people by the ear; because it is contrary to their opinions and practices, they do not like it; and if I were the Devil I would not like it either. (Laughter.) If I were the Devil, I would not howl like a fool against Zion in the streets. I would not let anybody know when I was badly hurt. I would try to conceal it.

But now, all these and other things are at the bottom of the attacks of the medical students' riots, and of the Daily

Mail's lying, and the falsehoods of the other papers which have foolishly followed its lead.

Wickedness of the So-Called Religious Press.

The "religious press" must needs come in to help Zion's enemies.

I ask this question, which Nicodemus asked in the Council of the Sanhedrin in Jerusalem when they were attacking Christ in His absence, unheard and unrepresented: "DOTH OUR LAW JUDGE A MAN EXCEPT IT FIRST HEAR FROM HIMSELF AND KNOW WHAT HE DOETH?"

Audience—"No!"

General Overseer—Then was it right of the "religious press" of London to charge me, and try me, and execute me, and consign me to perdition before I had opened my mouth?

Audience—"No!" (Great and continued applause.)

General Overseer—Ah, you denominational apostates, I have got some of your people now; I am getting more and more daily. They were slow coming, too; but they are coming to see the Truth in London.

I get them because the hearts of people know when a man is speaking the truth.

Voices—"Yes!"

General Overseer—And I am speaking the truth. I have been holding back a little and treating the attacks with contempt. But I will leave the religious press for another time—probably next Wednesday night, October 31st, when I close this series of meetings in St. Martin's Hall.

A Voice—"Give it to them."

General Overseer—Oh, yes, I will give it to them at the right time, in the Name of the Lord, whose Kingdom they hinder, whose minister they shamfully malign.

A Voice—"They are jealous of you."

General Overseer—What I complain about is this: It is not fair to any writer or any speaker to take isolated and detached pieces from his writings, and put them in a wrong setting. You have to take the whole thing fairly. They have not done this, and that is what I disagree with. I have been most unfairly presented as harboring thoughts and intentions which I hate and abhor. Therefore, I have ordered from Chicago a large supply of Zion Literature, and I have got several cases in London tonight, thirteen more are on the water, and I will have fifty cases more sent at once, if necessary. (Loud applause.)

I am filling you up with knowledge! (Laughter and applause.)

Well, now, I have stood these attacks for weeks and weeks in the press, and I have said very little; but this article in the Daily Mail today has made me more angry than ever I have been in my life.

I believe it is a Divine anger and a righteous anger.

I was talking to a man in a bank down town the other day, and I said, "What on earth is this Financial News doing this for?"

He replied, "The Financial News! Nobody takes any notice of it."

Then I said, "But what about this Daily Mail, Express, Leader, Star, etc.?"

He said, "Doctor, you must not be troubled by anything they say."

I said, "What is the opinion about those papers down here in the city?"

"Opinion down in the city?" he said. "I will tell you what we call them. WE CALL THEM THE 'HA'PENNY SHANGHAI LIARS.'"

I said, "Why do you call them that?"

"Why," he said, "don't you know what they did? A number of these papers 'faked' up all kinds of false telegrams in Shanghai about the legations in China being chopped up and burnt in oil at Pekin by the Boxers, and all kinds of things, and fed the British public with that for weeks and weeks. They were never able to prove that the telegrams were received, as alleged, from 'Chinese sources.' It was all a lie to catch the ha'penny."

Well, I believe that; and I can tell you this—that they are not merely Shanghai daily liars, but they are American and London ha'penny liars. (Applause. Cries of "Hear, hear.") Outrageous Effrontery of the Daily Mail Article.

The article in the Daily Mail today is one of the most outrageous pieces of effrontery that I have ever seen.

If this article had appeared in Chicago, I know what would have happened. If this insult to Mr. Fenwick, the Magistrate of Malborough Street, had appeared there, they would have been brought before the Court for contempt.

But when I said that today, a gentleman who knew Mr. Fenwick very well said to me: "If you knew Mr. Fenwick as I know him, you would know that he thinks that paper beneath contempt; but when he does hit, he will hit hard."

It begins by telling Mr. Fenwick that he does not know his business; that he is under a misapprehension. If he had known all about me, he never would have fined these amiable young medical students who smashed the furniture of this hall, broke windows, dragged an Inspector of Police over the tops of a row of chairs, threw him down twelve stone steps, kicked and fought the police like demons, trampled an aged lady who was seated near this platform beneath their feet, covered two aged men with rotten eggs, and, after I had closed the meeting, rushed forward crying, "Kill him! hang him! smash the piano!" etc.; added to all which they rioted daily for hours in the street to the number of nearly 2000, and drew thousands of the rabble into their train.

But the Daily Mail says: "Surely the worthy magistrate was somewhat harsh with these young men, who allowed their natural indignation to get the better of their discretion."

All this riotous disorder is called "natural indignation!"

Then it says: "We presume it was the intention of the hot-headed medical students and others who were so heavily fined for annoying this notorious impostor"—

Now, whom have I imposed upon?

A Voice—"You do not look like an impostor." (Applause.)

General Overseer—And I am not one, either.

How easy it is to use these shameful words, which are utterly false.

So-called Christian ministers in England called John Wesley an "impostor," and you know they have used that word about others.

A Voice—"Spurgeon."

General Overseer—I remember the time when Spurgeon was called an "impostor." I remember the time when William Booth was called an "impostor." I remember the time when many now living and greatly honored were called "impostors."

It seems to me to be inevitable, as things are now, that a true man should pass through that.

Did they not call Jesus Christ an "impostor"?

Voices—"Yes."

Murderous Intent of the Daily Mail Article.

General Overseer—Now, what were they going to do with me?

"To give Dowie a ducking in the ornamental waters of Trafalgar Square."

Friends, if I had gotten into the hands of 1500 or 2000 students, and they had gotten me into the waters of the large fountain in Trafalgar Square, close to this hall, I would never have come out alive.

And tonight there would have been many aching hearts. My wife would be a widow, and my daughter and my son fatherless; and my people, who love me in thousands dearer than they do their own lives, would be heartbroken.

But then my murder would only be the outcome of the "natural indignation" to which the Daily Mail so touchingly refers.

I have lived fifty-three years, forty-six of them consciously God's child, and I am not afraid to leave this earthly body. My mistakes His free grace has covered; my sins He has washed away; and my feet shall pass through the gates of that city above, of which I often think, and for which I long. I am not afraid.

I know whom I have believed. And whatever mistakes I may have made, I know that He has forgiven me, and that God will receive me.

I have been His servant, as truly as I knew how, and I am not afraid. I do not plead my merits or my works—I rest in Christ's work and merits.

Oh, I tell you there have been times these last few days when I have said I just felt like stepping out from my carriage into the midst of the howling mob, and letting them do what they would. It was only the thought that God wanted me a little longer that seemed to keep me back; because I would rather be in heaven. I would rather wake up in heaven than in London.

I think the Lord may have some need for me, and I think the people can get a little benefit; at least I hope they can. (Applause.)

They say, "Public opinion is strong against him."

Well, I went down to Camberwell Saturday night. I thought I would test public opinion. I got amongst the working people, and they crowded the Mansion House Mission Hall. We had a delightful meeting. There was nothing heard but blessings upon my head. I was there among "the people"; and they were with me to a man and woman.

But here I am amongst the educated "Hooligans" of London; colleges and hospitals are all around us, and—newspapers.

I will say it again—educated "Hooligans"! (Loud applause.)

A Voice—"They are not so very well educated either."

General Overseer—No; that's right. (Laughter.)

Now the next thing.

After severely reproving Mr. Fenwick, this paper severely reproves the police.

They tell the police that they do not know their duties; that the duty of the police is to suppress these meetings; that the duty of the police is to come and stop these meetings; that the duty of the police is to let the "natural indignation" of the would-be murderers have full sway.

What for? Who is it that wants these meetings stopped?

A Voice—"The Devil." (Laughter and applause.)

General Overseer—I think our brother is right: I think that man is a Salvationist. (Applause.) Long ago, in Australia, I used to sing a Salvation Army ditty to a tune of my own:

The Devil and I we can't agree;
I hate him and he hates me.
Glory, hallelujah!

I am very glad that the Devil and I cannot agree. I think it is only the Devil who wants me to stop, and I will tell you the doctors want me to stop.

"Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"

What is the trouble?

"Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"

What is the row?

"Come along, silversmiths; we want to kill Paul! If we don't, Christ will conquer Diana, and our silver shrines will no longer be sought for!"

"Great is Diana of the Ephesians!"

What is the trouble? The trouble is this: that Demetrius and his fellow-craftsmen live by making shrines for the heathen goddess, Diana, and Paul is preaching Jesus Christ, and the people are throwing away their idols, and their shrines are being melted into dollars.

The fact is, the silversmith's craft is in danger. It has been set at naught, and we must get rid of Paul and Silas.

And so with these young "sons of Belial" who have disgraced London.

Listen to their cries: "Great is Homœopathy! Come on, Guys!" (Laughter.) "Come on! Great is Allopathy! Down with Dowie!"

What is the trouble? The same thing as in Ephesus nineteen centuries ago: their craft is in danger. (Applause and laughter.)

It is the old story.

Why, you know, in Chicago we have thousands upon thousands of people who do not call for any doctors now, and do not take any drugs; and they do not see as many devils as they used to see. (Laughter.)

Of course, after a little while the people begin to see.

As Abraham Lincoln said: "You can fool all of the people some of the time, and you can fool some of the people all of the time, but you cannot fool all of the people all of the time."

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—And it is coming out. It does not need much reading between the lines to see the animus and bitter wickedness of these attacks. I am coming to the most important part now.

Should Civil and Religious Liberty be Protected?

The Daily Mail says: "Still, at the bottom the question is not the manner in which Dowie has been protected. but whether he deserves protection at all."

Well, friends, surely that question has been settled in England long ago. Surely it was settled by the last martyr fires of Smithfield, the last executions of Christian heroes on Tower Hill.

Surely it was settled when the crown of Great Britain and Ireland was taken from the brow of James II and put upon the brow of William of Orange. (Loud applause.)

Surely it has been settled in Protestant England when the Queen's Coronation Oath is taken with her hand on the Holy Scriptures, and she swears that she will rule in accordance with the Holy Gospels, which declare that Christ is with us always, and that He is still the same Healer as well as Saviour.

Surely Magna Charta is not a dead letter.

Surely the rights of free speech belong to free men in free England. (Applause. Cries of "Yes.")

Surely one poor little man who so many "mighty" papers say is "beneath contempt" may be permitted to go on with his "twaddle and nonsense," inasmuch as there are no less than 75,000 highly dignified, philosophic and scientific gentlemen in the medical profession in Great Britain to counterbalance his teachings—men of calm, philosophical temperament, dignified "men of science."

Surely one man may be allowed to speak when there are so many on the other side.

But let me tell you that the Press and Physicians, with all their attendant Pills and Pigs, see a cloud rising no bigger than this man's hand, and they have a well-founded fear that it is going to spread over all the sky, and that the blessed reign of "the old-time religion" is going to come back again. (Applause.)

That religion tells us that Jesus saves us, that Jesus heals us, that Jesus cleanses us (Amen), that Jesus keeps us, and that He is just the same Saviour and Healer of spirit, soul and body yesterday, today and forever. (Loud applause.)

Dr. Dowie's Career.

Now, I am sorry to ask you to give your attention to the last paragraph, because there is a proverb which says, "He who excuses accuses."

To my mind this attack is utterly beneath contempt. But I yield to the opinion of friends, and I answer this last paragraph with its false allegations.

"What Dr. Dowie's career has been we have already pointed out in the Daily Mail. He is a Scotsman, born at Edinburgh in 1847."

That is the only true thing in the whole article. (Laughter.) I am a Scotchman; I was born in 1847 in Edinburgh; and I am neither ashamed of my city nor my nation. (Applause.) And may Scotland never have cause to be ashamed of me.

"He went to Australia and announced himself as a Divine Healer."

A Voice—"That is a lie."

General Overseer—The gentleman who just spoke was in Australia when I was there, and I did not know it until the other night. He knows that is a lie.

I went to Australia when I was only thirteen years old.

I must have been a most prematurely precocious young gentleman to "announce myself" as anything when I was only a schoolboy.

In December, 1860, I arrived in Australia. I went into business pursuits very early, because there was no school in Adelaide, South Australia, better than the academy which I had just left in Edinburgh. In consequence I went to work for my daily bread, and God blessed me in business.

The Daily Mail says, in a villainous article of October 19th, that I was a "grocer."

That is a very honorable trade, if you do not mix sand with the sugar, etc. (Laughter.)

But I never was a grocer, and never handled groceries in my life, except to eat them. I know almost nothing about the trade, and I never handled any goods in my life.

I will tell you what I was. I was a clerk in the counting house, and financier almost from the beginning.

But I passed through the mill of toil, and had about four months on the humblest steps of the ladder. My uncle thought he would engage me as a boy-of-all-work in his shop. He was, and is, a large importer and maker of boots and shoes. I had to clean stock, sweep floors, currycomb a horse, clean out a stable, and do many things of that kind, and carry around the leather at night. I got eight shillings a week. After I had been there three or four months I said, "I can do better than this. I am going to resign." (Laughter.) And I resigned.

The very next week I obtained a situation, and very soon

I got a pound a week as a clerk in a large wholesale draper's; and I went on and on, and my career is very well known as a young business man.

It is not very difficult to make money, if you know how. (Laughter.) There are many people who never know how. I think that I always knew how to make it honorably. I know how still.

I remember once, in the City of Adelaide, in the sixties, all our gas works blew up one night. It struck me, "This city will have to be lighted." We quietly went around the little city, and bought up all the kerosene, and all the lamps of a certain pattern.

When they wanted to light the city, we had the most of the kerosene, and the lamps, and we gave light to the city for that winter, and made a great deal of money; but we made it honorably, and did not take undue advantage of our prevision. That was all right, was it not?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—I never knew a time when I could not make money. I could make money while the other fellows were smoking and drinking and gossiping around the town. I could make it now. I have made it in Chicago for my people. I recently bought, near Chicago, 6500 acres of land, and although it became evident that a big deal was in progress, no one could find out who was behind the clever and good agent employed.

The Chicago press and real estate men were at their wits' end. They knew nothing, and guessed wrongly. They thought it was Rockefeller. They thought it was Carnegie. And all the time it was this little parson, who was preaching at least ten sermons a week throughout the months it took to buy from many owners. They never found it out until I had finished the entire transaction.

Within a week I was offered half a million dollars for my bargain.

Well, it is all right. I can do business for God; and why should I not? I attended to my own business as General Overseer, Editor, etc., all the time. I simply employed excellent Christian men as agents, lawyers, financiers, etc.

"Oh, but a minister should never touch secular business," cry a certain class of "I-am-holier-than-thou" people, with whom one would think wisdom would die.

"Is God in business?"

If God were not in the coal business, where would your coal be? If God were not in the fish business, where would your fish be? If God were not in the grain business, where would your grain be?

There is nothing "secular."

All things God has made are "sacred," if used aright.

I have seen for a long time that the Kingdom of God covers all the concerns of life, home, business, and everything else in the Church, the Nation and the World.

I never neglect my ministry as a teacher and preacher, and as General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

But I attend to business of all kinds connected therewith.

Now, I never announced myself as a "Divine Healer," as the Daily Mail falsely alleges; because there is only one Divine Healer. Who is that?

Voices—"God."

General Overseer—Did I ever tell you I could heal you?

Audience—"Never."

General Overseer—I never said it, never thought it, and never wrote it. God heals. His is all the glory.

I could not heal you any more than you could heal me. God used apostles and others long ago. He uses others, and myself, today.

A Horrible Fabrication.

The Daily Mail says: "He amassed money, and his dupes consulted the police, with the result that he presently made the acquaintance of an Australian prison."

That is an infernal lie in every word and letter of it; a lie born in hell, and if it was begotten and born in the "Daily Mail" office, then that is Hell. (Loud applause. Cries of "Hear, hear.")

I defy the Daily Mail to produce its proofs for this shameful fabrication.

An American Story.

I will tell you that once the doctors of Chicago got so angry, in 1894, that they got together and induced a low scoundrel, from whom I never received a dollar, to swear to a false declaration that I had taken money from him by false pretenses, and a wicked magistrate issued a warrant for my apprehension.

The intention was to get me arrested late at night; then to get the "Hooligans" to strike me in the darkness and kill me.

I was arrested as they had planned; but my people were on the watch, and went seven miles with me and gave bonds.

I could never get the Attorney for the Doctors to bring up that case.

I would tantalize him in Court openly, just as Elijah did the priests of Baal at Carmel, and I would say: "When are you going to bring it up, you miserable Board of Death Persecutor? Why don't you bring it up? Where is your perjured villain of a tool who made that perjured declaration?"

After two years they sneaked into Court one day when my attorney was not there, and said: "May it please the Court, we want that case stricken off the Calendar."

Voices—"Cowards!"

General Overseer—Yes, they were cowards; and so were the cowardly doctors who employed them.

But this statement of the Daily Mail's is wholly a lie.

No person has ever brought into Court a charge against me at any time that I have "duped" any one.

Never have I seen the inside of an Australian prison on such a charge.

It is a lie "made out of whole cloth," as we say in America, and the man who manufactured that lie ought to have the policeman's grip on his collar, and to be taken to the criminal cells. (Loud applause.)

He is the worst kind of a thief.

I am not well up in Shakespeare, but he very truly makes one of his characters say words like these: "He that steals my purse steals trash; but he who filches from me my good name steals that which not enriches him, but leaves me poor indeed."

I say tonight, and I want the Daily Mail to read it, that the man who wrote this is a cheat, a liar, a thief and a scoundrel.

Now let them begin an action for libel if they know they are right. (Loud applause.)

Now, the next thing:

Another Baseless Fabrication.

The Daily Mail says: "They were not unduly tender to him over the water, and Australia grew so hot that he had at last to leave it."

I say again that that is a lie in every letter and every word of it. I never had to leave.

When I left Melbourne in March, 1888, I had a great open Farewell Meeting in my own Tabernacle.

It had been publicly known for months before that I was going to leave.

A beautiful illuminated address representing many thousands of friends in all parts of Australasia was presented to me, and a large sum of money in gold.

It was difficult to get near the Tabernacle on the night of our farewell; the streets were blocked, just as they were when I left Chicago, and the people gathered around me in thousands, and the day that I sailed from the River Yarra at Melbourne I will never forget. My people thronged the steamer, and the Captain had to ask me to get them away to let the ship sail. Then they went down the river side, and threw themselves upon the banks. They wept, and I wept, too; for I loved my people. I little thought that I should be away so long from them, but God willed it otherwise.

When they asked me when I was coming back, I said, "Perhaps in five years, perhaps in ten, perhaps never. I cannot tell. I will make no promises."

I had announced my leaving Australia for three years, and you will find the announcement in a public document in this city, which many of you perhaps have—the report of the International Conference on Divine Healing in 1885, presided over by Dr. Boardman, in Islington Hall.

My letter was appended, with Dr. Asa Mahan's, to that report, and in it I stated, in 1885, that I would leave Australia in 1888; and I did.

At Sydney, New South Wales, great crowds greeted us, and many hundreds accompanied us in a harbor steamer out to the ocean. A gift and address were also presented there.

I went down to New Zealand on my way to America, and there, in Dunedin, Christchurch, Wellington, and Auckland, I received public addresses, and large gifts in gold, because I had labored with them and helped them, and I had spent money freely upon them.

I expended time and money, and strengthened the work of God there, and I left with less money than I had come with into New Zealand.

The record of all these facts is there, in the first series of my paper, LEAVES OF HEALING, published in Christchurch, New Zealand, in 1888.

This is a lie made out of whole cloth, for I never "had to leave" Australia; and I brand the editor of the Daily Mail again as a liar, a thief and a scoundrel. (Cheers and applause.)

Now, then, let us have their action tomorrow.

Another Falsehood.

"He then set his sails for the United States, where he pursued his healing art with immense profit to himself."

I have no "healing art"—God alone is the Healer.

And as to "profit," the fact of the matter is this—that for many years in the United States I have given again and again my last nickel to promote the work.

I made a statement in Central Zion Tabernacle, Chicago, publicly, a little over a year ago, and I made it with the full knowledge of my financial assistants, that out of a million dollars that I had received in ten years, I had put back into the work of God $975,000; that all I had taken in these ten years for the support of myself and my family was less than two and a half per cent, or about $25,000. (Applause.)

Today my own people know that I am the largest giver to my own work. I thank God that I am, and I desire still to keep at the head of that procession. (Cries of "Hear, hear.")

Gifts have been made to me in thousands and tens of thousands of dollars from those who have been blessed under my instrumentality, and have been raised up from death, and would give their lives for me, and I have given that money for the most part to the general funds.

Today my attorney in Chicago holds the wills of many persons who, when they die, have willed every dollar that they have to me, that I may use it for God in Zion.

I am thankful for the confidence of my people.

They demanded again and again that I should be sole trustee of Zion, and I am sole trustee of Zion by the unanimous approval of my people. You could not find a vote against me among the whole of my people; and whose business is it but my people's business? (Applause.)

A Voice—"Just so."

General Overseer—I do not say I am poor. I do not say I am rich.

Before I left America I turned to my good wife, and I said: "If I had gone into business, if I had devoted my talents to business, you would possibly have millions; but, Jeanie, I want you, in the event of my death, to renounce your dower rights, and to accept certain sums of money as sufficient."

She said, "I will do it gladly."

The consequence is that she has renounced her dower rights which, under the laws of the United States, would give her a third of everything that I control, and she has accepted a comparatively small sum in my will, and all the rest of it would be absolutely and irrevocably the property of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion if I died tonight. (Applause.)

This is my answer to hundreds of false accusations.

I do not like to say these things, but since false statements are persistently circulated in the press, it is just as well to talk plainly.

The "Blackmailing" Lie Revived.

Now, then, I will go on again with further calumnies in this article in the Daily Mail of October 24th:

"In California he 'laid hands' upon two rich and weak-minded women, and incidentally relieved them of their wealth. He was ultimately compelled to disgorge, but not until he had exhausted every quibble and artifice."

This is another outrageous lie.

All the facts are well known to all my people, and the false accusation has been again and again proven to be without foundation.

Briefly, the story is this:

There was an attempt by two women to blackmail me, and I would not submit to the blackmailing. I fought the case, and they won upon a technicality, and stole from me some thousands of dollars by telling a deliberate lie upon oath.

Then they brought another case, and tried to get more money; but this time my lawyer was ready for them, and we won that case, and swept them out of Court by a decision from the Appellate Court.

The whole story is told in a pamphlet entitled, "Fighting Blackmailers," and in later issues of LEAVES OF HEALING.

There is not a man in Chicago or America who knows the facts, and would repeat that story today, but would be branded as a liar.

A Lie About the Melbourne Tabernacle.

However, there is another false charge which the Daily Mail made on October 19th. They did not dare to bring it up in this article of October 24th. Why did they not bring it up this time? They feared my exposure.

They brought up a charge that I had ruined a man named Thompson in the building of a Tabernacle in Melbourne. Why, that is one of the biggest lies that was ever invented.

Mr. Johnson (late of Melbourne)—"That's true."

General Overseer—My friend knows it, for he was in Melbourne during that time.

I will tell you that story.

In the year 1884, the trustees of the Free Christian Church, of which I was pastor, were guilty, in my opinion, of the gravest errors of judgment they could be.

We had a large congregation meeting in the large Fitzroy Town Hall, which was frequently too small. So they said, "Oh, let us build a Tabernacle."

I said, "You have not enough money."

"Oh," said one of them, "there is Mr. Thompson, who wants to buy the land for you and lease it at a moderate rental with right of purchase."

"Well," I said, "where are you going to get the money to build?"

"Well, that is harder."

They leased the land, with rights of purchase, from this man, and when they tried to build they could not get enough money.

Mr. Law Oldfield, of Nicholson Street, Carleton, Melbourne, came to me and said, "Mr. Dowie, I hear your people want to build, but they haven't enough money."

I said, "That is true."

"Well," he said, "if you will personally give me the order, I will find the whole of the material, I will build the Tabernacle to your order, and I will wait a reasonable time for the money."

He was, probably, the largest and richest builder and lumberman of that time in the whole of the Colony of Victoria. He had asked me to abandon my ministry and to join him in his business. I said, "No!" without a moment's hesitation.

The Tabernacle, which was very large, was duly built. Immense congregations filled it to overflowing, and for some time all went well.

Then this man Thompson quarreled with some of the trustees, and when I would not permit him to have his own way in the Church, he seized the Tabernacle one day without an iota of justification.

The trustees were in a tight corner.

"Now," I said, "you have a bad man in hand."

A large payment to Mr. Oldfield was due, and I paid it without hesitation, although for the time being the Tabernacle was not in our possession.

An excellent old lady in my Church came to me—Mrs. Hannah Davies—and said, "Mr. Dowie, you want about so many thousand pounds in order to buy this land outright?"

I said, "Yes."

She said, "If all the other trustees will resign and you become the sole trustee, I will find that money at once, and lend it to you."

I said, "You must go and tell these trustees what you say."

So she went around and told the whole of them, and that night she brought me back their resignations, and I was sole trustee.

What did I do?

I offered Mr. Thompson the money for the purchase of the land under the agreement which he had made with the Church. He refused it, and also refused the rent, which was tendered to him in gold.

He said, "No; I am going to have the Tabernacle and the land, too."

I said, "You shall not."

Digitized by Google
Original from NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

I went into the Equity Court, and got a decree from Judge Molesworth, and I swept him out. (Applause.)

I bought the land and I paid for the Tabernacle; and if you like to write to Oldfield & Lindley, Nicholson Street, Carleton, Melbourne, you will find that both land and Tabernacle were fully paid for. (Applause.)

Thompson was not "hoodwinked," nor "deprived of his legal rights," and I was not under the necessity of "finding it beneficial to travel"; for I continued to preach there until I left Melbourne in 1888.

I want again to say that the man in the Daily Mail office who invented these articles of October 19th and 24th is a liar, a thief and a scoundrel, and ought to be in prison. (Cries of "Hear, hear.")

A Voice—"Tell them that after you left, Mrs. Davies was true to you and continued to be a member of the Church."

General Overseer — Of course she continued to be a member of the Church, and before I left Melbourne I paid her back every dollar that she had loaned the Church. (Applause.) I have the acknowledgment in her own handwriting, and the man who says the opposite is a wicked falsifier.

The Mormon Lie.

Now the next thing in the Daily Mail's article of October 24th is this:

"Finally he established in the Church of Zion a pinchbeck imitation of Mormonism, and obtained from dupes large sums to found this new Utopia."

Now listen! You have heard me, you have seen me, and many have read my writings for years in LEAVES OF HEALING. I now ask you, have I said one word to make you think I believed in Mormonism?

Audience (unanimously)—"No!"

General Overseer—I hate it! I scorn and abhor it as a religious system. I have been in Salt Lake City.

Every man who comes from Australia via San Francisco crosses America by the overland railway, and can easily pass close to it.

With my wife and family, I spent about three days there, and they were with me all the time.

The Daily Mail falsely says that I "made myself thoroughly conversant with all the tricks and wiles by which that prince of swindlers, Brigham Young, had founded his communistic Mormon sect. Zion is a plagiarism of Mormonism."

Every word of that is a lie.

One Mormon lady of good position was very courteous to me and to my family, because once, when her husband, a Mormon Elder, was being persecuted in Australia, I said, "Stop this! Men have no right to be treated with violence. If they break the law, punish them. But do not do them violence."

I pleaded for them publicly, as I would do for any who were ill-treated, and they never forgot it.

But I took no stock in Mormonism. I do not believe that Joseph Smith was a prophet of God. I have not the slightest faith in the Book of Mormon. I have an excellent wife, and my opinion is that one wife is as much as any decent man needs. (Laughter and applause.)

I tell you I have no more affinity with Mormonism than any one in the world who is most violently against it.

And now I must close my witnessing tonight against these False Swearers in the London press.

Will you pardon me for having taken up so much time? But, friends, my reputation is dear to my own people, and I think it is of some value to the Church of God.

An Incitement to Murder.

The entire object of this article in the Daily Mail is what it says here at the end:

"He terrorizes his victims, by means of his trained pugilists; their property has to be made over to himself."

In that sentence are three lies: (1) I have no victims; (2) I have no pugilists; (3) every one's property is absolutely under his own control, and I never asked any one in all my life to make over his property to me.

Then the vile writer says: "It is this man that the police of London are protecting with such assiduity. Yet surely it would be a boon for the body politic if his meetings were rendered impossible or forbidden. He deserves no more consideration than the welsher of the race-course."

These words are an invitation to the mob, an insult to the police, and an incitement to murder.

They know more about the race-course than I do.

I never saw a horse-race run in my life. I never gambled a farthing in my life, and I do not know what a "welsher" is except that in a dim sort of a way I imagine he is a man who has not paid his bets.

A Voice—"You are wrong, Doctor. A 'welsher' is a man who gets all the people's bets and then bolts." (Laughter.)

General Overseer—Now that shows that I cannot follow the Mail in its horsey talk. (Applause.) I really did not know what a "welsher" was until now.

I do not know what they do to a "welsher," but perhaps they kill him, or hurt him.

I tell you this: I am no race-course welsher. I have lived a clean, straightforward life right through.

If I have wronged any man upon God Almighty's earth, and he will show me wherein I have wronged him, I will apologize, and I will restore four-fold, and ask him to forgive me. (Applause.)

If I am a fraud or an impostor, I am an unconscious one. I do not know it.

Last night a reporter of the Daily Mail came to this hall and asked for admission. My secretary said, "The Doctor is tired of you; you have been lying so much. You must stay outside; I will not let you in."

He said, "I will make it hot for the Doctor, then"; and so last night this Daily Wail vilifier was out there in the "outer darkness, weeping and wailing and gnashing his teeth." (Laughter.)

This is the result of it today—an article which proves the Daily Mail to be the vilest kind of "welsher" in the newspaper race-course in London.

And so, in closing, I brand once more the whole thing as a mass of malicious fabrications. I brand the editor as a liar, a thief, an impostor and scoundrel who ought be behind prison bars. (Applause.)

Now let the Daily Wail take its revenge. Let them bring an action against me, and undertake to prove their charges in Court.

I brand its reporter and its editor as everything that is infernal and wicked.

The Daily Mail is not worthy of being in existence as a paper. (Applause.)

If you are wise, you will boycott the Daily Wail; you will never buy another copy of it. That is the place they feel most—in their trousers pocket.

Now may God help us always to witness against the "False Swearers"; and may God sweep every "False Swearer" out of the way, if he will not repent.

All who desire to live a godly life, rise and tell God so. (With but few exceptions the audience arose.)

Say with me:

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am. Make me what I ought to be, for Jesus' sake. Forgive my sin, cleanse my spirit; and wherein I may have erred unconsciously take away that sin, for the sake of Jesus, the Lamb of God who taketh away the sin of the world. Cleanse my body. Give me power to live a holy life, and to fight the good fight against all uncleanness, and to establish the Kingdom of God in my family, in all my circles of influence and to earth's remotest bounds. Oh, Father, break down the "False Swearers," destroy the unclean press, and give us a clean press, for Jesus' sake. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

After the Doxology had been sung, the service was closed by the General Overseer pronouncing the

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

LEAVES OF HEALING.

Two Dollars will bring to you the weekly visits of the "Little White Dove" for a year. 75 cents will send it to a friend for fifteen weeks; $1.25 will send it for six months; $1.50 will send it to your minister, or to a Y. M. C. A., or to a Public Reading Room, for a whole year. We offer no premiums, except the premium of doing good. We receive no advertisements, and print no commercial lies or cheating enticements of unscrupulous thieves. LEAVES OF HEALING is Zion on wings, and we keep out everything that would distract the reader's mind from all except the Extension of the Kingdom of God, for which alone it exists. If we cannot send forth our Little White Dove without soiling its wings with the smoke of the factory and the dirt of the wrangling market place, or compelling it to utter the screaming cries of the business vultures in the ears of our readers, then we will keep our Dove at home.

ZION COLLEGE LECTURES ON PRAYER.

A Series Delivered Before the Students of Zion College by the President, Rev. John Alexander Dowie, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

THE world today has learned that there is something far beyond the ordinary in the words and works of God's Messenger to Zion, John Alexander Dowie.

As this realization comes to the public, the first question always is, "How does he do it? What is the secret of his power?"

Those who know the General Overseer and have heard and heeded his teaching know that the power belongs to God. But the General Overseer is wonderfully used by God, as an instrument, on account of his mighty power in Prayer, taught him by the Holy Spirit.

Hence it was with the greatest joy that the students of Zion College received the announcement that the General Overseer would deliver a Series of Lectures on the subject of Prayer. It was an inestimable privilege to learn how to pray from a man whose whole life had become a mighty power for God through Prayer. But joyful as the anticipation was, it was more than justified by the realization.

Many members of the Christian Catholic Church also attended these Lectures and were amazed, from week to week, by the great depth and scope of the subject as it was opened up by the man of God.

Since the delivery of these Lectures there has been a loud appeal, from many sides, to have them published.

The General Overseer was reluctant, as he felt that in the great pressure of his other duties he had not been able to give the Lectures as he might have done with more time at his disposal. He also felt that he should revise them before their publication, and this he could not find time to do.

At length, however, the appeal for them being urged, he consented that they should be sent forth, without his revision, during his absence in Europe and the Holy Land.

Accordingly this wonderful teaching will be printed, almost as it came from his lips, from time to time, in LEAVES OF HEALING. In preparing these Lectures for the press, we have eliminated some allusions to topics of the time and place and have written in some headlines. We have also cut out opening and closing exercises and arranged the matter consecutively without regard to number and date of Lectures.

We pray that God will bless these wonderful truths to all who read in even greater measure than He did to those who heard.

A. W. N.

THE DESTRUCTION AND REDEMPTION OF THE FLESH.

Earthly desires and sensual lust
Are passions springing from the dust,
But in the life beyond the tomb
They fix the eternal spirit's doom.

Physical and Spiritual Atmosphere.

Part of man's being comes in contact with the antagonistic, climatic and atmospheric conditions which fill the upper air with disease. That same part of man's being comes also in contact with the sweet things of nature: the sunshine, the beautiful air, and the lovely surroundings in the time of nature's fulness. It is influenced by all that makes the world so bright a place in which to live. The atmosphere is delightful to breathe, and all nature is so kind and stimulating and strengthening to man.

These two conditions which we find on the earth in the physical, have their counterpart in the spiritual nature of man.

Man comes into contact with these material influences, which so much affect his spiritual being either for depression or for exaltation; either for strengthening or for weakening.

These two classes of influence which are all around us, and all are found within the same atmospheric sphere, have their counterparts in our spiritual condition. We who permit our spiritual beings to be influenced unduly in the time of darkness and of peril by inward and evil conditions will find that the fight is always there until we conquer.

The war of the flesh against the spirit, and of the spirit against the flesh, is an unending strife, unless we get the victory.

When we have overcome, no matter what the conditions may be around us, no matter what the conditions may be below us, no matter what the conditions may be above us, we shall conquer through that indwelling Power which gives an atmosphere physical, psychical and spiritual in which we can breathe in health and life, no matter how dark the outward conditions may be.

Putting it in shorter form it is this: Satan has so fully possessed himself, by heredity, of the great majority of the world in their bodies, that they are unable to conquer because they yield to the flesh.

Victory of the Flesh Means Defeat to the Spirit.

You notice again and again how God speaks about the corruption of the flesh.

God had given to man a splendid organism. It was so strong and so perfect that he was able to live upon this earth, in the days of Methuselah, as long as 969 years. The very prospect of so long a life in our present physical condition would be agony unspeakable to us, if we had any sense.

When a man gets to be a century old he is a physical and, often, a mental wreck. I once saw a man 108 years old. He was positively ghastly to look upon. He seemed to be a walking skeleton; something which ought to be buried, which had no right to be walking about.

He was a clear-headed old man, and a good Christian.

I asked him, "Is it pleasant to live to be as old as this?"

He answered, "It is always pleasant to obey God, and to be submissive to His good will; but I get so weary, so tired that when the time comes for God to let me pass away, I shall be very glad."

We are reaching a point in the story of the human race, in this Series of Lectures, when the wonderful vitality which made men live in strength and vigor began to be lost. You can see that we are approaching a point which is full of interest. Man has lost much of the naphesh, as the Hebrews would call it, and the psyche (ψυχή), as the Greeks would call it.

We have lost vigor of the soul apart from the spirit. The soul is such a weak thing! The naphesh, the animal life, the animal soul, is such a weak thing compared to what our ancestors had!

Yet the redemption of our Lord Jesus Christ will show us something which is a glorious fact in connection with His Mission as Redeemer of the flesh.

Our Lord Jesus Christ Himself, when He was upon this earth, gave a vigorous rebuke to those who boasted that they were children of Abraham. He concentrated His anger and indignation upon them because they were the professed teachers and leaders, and yet were the bondservants of sin. They refused to acknowledge this. They declared that they were free, and that they were not born of fornication, but had one Father, even God.

Jesus deliberately contradicted them. He said:

If God were your Father, ye would love Me: for I came forth and am come from God; for neither have I come of Myself, but He sent Me. Why do ye not understand My speech? Even because ye cannot hear My Word. Ye are of your father the Devil, and the lusts of your father it is your will to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and stood not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father thereof.

This fact which Christ affirms, is just the same fact affirmed in the sixth chapter of Genesis: that the whole world which was lost in the darkness of sin, had gone to the Devil completely by permitting the lusts of the Devil to be the will of man.

The Absolute Separation of Lust and Love.

When you adopt the world's nomenclature and permit yourself even to think as the writers of fiction think, as the great majority of people think, and as a great many Christians even still are under bondage in thinking, that the passionate desire of a fleshly and sensual lust is love, then, my brothers and sisters, students and teachers alike, you have given the Devil a tremendous advantage.

Lust and love are poles asunder.

The one is of hell, and the other is of heaven.

The one is intensely selfish, seeks for and demands constant gratification, and the other has in its very essence unselfishness.

Love seeketh not her own.

Instead of being passionate, love is not easily provoked.

Love rejoices always in the truth, and never stoops to falsehood.

Love finds its highest expression in absolute self-abnegation, utter destruction and extinction of everything in connection with oneself.

Love makes one willing to be utterly extinguished in every sense.

That Love made Moses stand before God and say:

Yet now, if Thou wilt forgive their sin—; and if not,' blot me, I pray Thee, out of Thy Book which Thou hast written.

That Love made Paul say:

I could wish that I myself were anathema for my brethren's sake.

That Love, above all things, brought Christ to earth to sacrifice Himself. He "pleased not Himself."

He was a Gift forever, for a poor, miserable, broken humanity. It is a wonder that He could love them at all.

The world calls lust love. God calls it hell-born lust which comes from the father of lies.

What a horrid thing it is to hear the papers say that because a man loved a woman he took a revolver and shot her! Nice kind of love, that! Delightful angel!

Because a man loved a woman and could not get her, he went away and murdered the other fellow, murdered the woman and then murdered himself.

Is there any love in that? Not an atom.

Such action is the result of the insanity of damning lust. There is not one atom of Divine Love in it. If a man has a Divine Love which God has given him for a woman, a Divine and absolutely unlustful passion, he is willing that she shall get the greatest happiness possible. If she can get that with another and not with him, he will stand aside and thank God that he has that love of God in his heart to be willing to stand aside, and that the woman whom he loves is finding some one more worthy to love than he.

That is not human. That is Divine Love.

The Love Written of in Literature is Damning Lust.

The nephilim of literature of today have no conception of any other kind of love than damning lust. Hence all the poetry and all the literature of the day leaves out the Divine ideal and the Divine reality.

They who gratify the flesh in its passions and lusts are making their whole being subservient to its constant demands. These have not Divine Love. Their flesh will rot with the damning power of that passion.

That which we see in the world today is simply the continued although perhaps mitigated condition of the world in Noah's time.

I rejoice to know that God could find, if He were to come now, a great many Noahs. I do not believe that we are in anything like so bad a condition as the world was then.

The outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost was the triumph of the Redeemer in providing for the body, which had been lost through all the ages to that time, a redemption.

Notice that the Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus is the liberating power from the Law of Sin and Death.

Between sin and death there lies disease.

The law given by Moses was incompetent to save man because of its weakness over the flesh, and its inability to provide a redemption for the flesh, great as the Mosaic Dispensation was.

The redemption is here, in that God sent His own Son in the likeness of the flesh.

The carnal mind is at enmity with God. The flesh is not subject to the Law of God when the mind is carnal. The soul is not subject to the Law of God when the man is carnally minded. The flesh is subject to the law of sin and death. It is not subject to the Law of God; neither, indeed, can it be.

Herein comes the need for Prayer. We really get to know what that promise of God, that the Holy Spirit should be poured out upon all flesh, means.

The Wonderful Meaning of Jesus' Prayer.

We begin to realize the meaning of that Prayer of Jesus given in that wonderful seventeenth chapter of John.

In that Prayer He declared the same truth, which so many fail to see, when He said:

These things spake Jesus: and lifting up His eyes to heaven, He said, Father, the hour is come; glorify Thy Son, that the Son may glorify Thee: even as Thou gavest Him authority over all flesh, that whatsoever Thou hast given Him, to them He should give eternal life. And this is life eternal, that they should know Thee the only true God, and Him whom Thou didst send, even Jesus Christ.

Following up that argument in the eighth chapter of Romans, you will see the reasoning of the apostle in the eleventh verse:

But if the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, He that raised up Christ Jesus from the dead shall quicken also your mortal bodies through His Spirit that dwelleth in you. So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh: for if ye live after the flesh, ye must die; but if by the Spirit ye mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

We are to be led by the Spirit of God in this matter. Here is the Spirit; not the spirit of bondage, which the Devil gives to his children.

To whomsoever people are servants, they are bondservants; hence those who serve the Devil are bondservants to the Devil.

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God. For ye received not the spirit of bondage again unto fear; but ye received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit Himself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God: and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Christ.

The question about the sufferings of the present time comes in here.

Here is a man in the flesh. He is living in the Spirit. He has a body, and that body is not the same as some other people's bodies, because he says, "The sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed to usward."

For the earnest expectation of the creation waiteth for the revealing of the sons of God. For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but by reason of Him who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself also shall be delivered from bondage of corruption into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. And not only so, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for our adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

That was nineteen centuries ago, and the redemption of the body had not yet come. We are waiting for the fulfilment and the possibilities of that redemption.

The men of the First Century realized the glorious truth that the Spirit of God which raised up Jesus from the dead dwelt in them, quickened their mortal bodies, delivered them from the bondage of corruption and led them into the liberty of the glory of God, and that these bodies would be redeemed.

This made them a tremendous power.

Bondage to the Devil made the antediluvians a horrible and unspeakable curse, so great that God had to sweep them away into hell, and destroy everything about them; and indeed, later, the whole situation of the earth. I imagine that it was at that time that the earth changed its position in the heavens.

Cause of the Earth's Change of Position in the Heavens.

You understand something of the laws of attraction and cohesion, and of centripetal and centrifugal forces, I dare say. Nature makes an equipoise of the forces which keep the earth in its proper orbit around the sun, not letting it get any higher or any lower.

Take a kite, for instance, as an illustration. In order to send it away up into the air you have to attach to it a tail of a certain weight. It ascends until it reaches the position where it can go no higher. No amount of string that you can attach will cause it to go higher. But if you pull in that kite, and cut off some of the weight of its tail, it will go higher.

So it would be with the earth at the time the Flood took place. There were great bodies of water on the earth. There is no evidence of fire.

The fountains of the deep broke up. The water no longer kept to its place in the earth, but overflowed the earth. God opened the windows of heaven, as it were, and filled the earth and skies with moisture.

The whole earth was then floating along inside of an aqueous envelope. Until that subsided the earth could not be seen.

When the Flood was over, the earth was not in the same position. That which had been the North Pole was at the Equator, and that which had been the Equator was the South Pole.

"How do you know that?" you ask.

Because in the frozen regions they have found the bones of the pachydermatous mammalia of the post-pliocene era; the great thick-skinned animals which lived before the Flood.

Longevity Impossible After the Flood.

I hold to that theory. It is my opinion, at least, that the earth's position was entirely lost. The longevity which was possible before the Flood was impossible after the earth came into this zone.

The earth lost its aqueous condition and lost its fire. The fury of these fires none of us know, but I have seen the effects of them in New Zealand in a beautiful lava district.

A painter once said to me before I went to New Zealand, "Doctor, I have to soften the colors in my pictures of this district, because the people will not buy them if I make them as bright as in nature. They simply say that they are too bright; that the blues are too blue, and the greens are too green; that they are altogether too brilliant."

I said to my artist friend, after I returned from New Zealand, that the painters had never painted New Zealand too brightly; in fact, that the colors were infinitely brighter than they had painted them.

It was a wonderful sight to pass through that district. Its beauty was amazing. It was famous because of its white and pink terraces.

As you went up the side of the mountain you would begin to wonder whether you were not entering a furnace of fire. On every side were foaming, bubbling springs, in a volcanic condition all the time.

At the head of a little lake, a great mountain stood. One night it began to smoke. Within a few hours the volcanic fires began to work. Then day after day the lava poured down the mountain side.

The Maori began to get frightened, and to get ready to remove.

Multitudes came into the district to look at it. Suddenly, one night, a terrible explosion took place.

The internal fires had come up. They tore the side out of the mountain. The lake flowed into the interior of the mountain, and then you may imagine what happened. The water was transformed into steam. For sixty and seventy miles around the ground was completely covered with volcanic mud to the depth, in many places, of thirty to forty feet. Whole villages of the Maori perished, as the people perished in Pompeii and Hereculaneum.

Does that not show you what we know is the case, that the interior of this earth is filled with volcanic fire?

The point I wish to make is, that we have affliction upon affliction, and if we cannot get redemption in Christ which will set free our bodies, and make them temples of the Holy Spirit, I do not see but that we are the most miserable wretches who could be put upon God's earth.

I do not see how we would ever be able to do the work of God.

The Indwelling of the Holy Spirit Gives Power for Service.

I have been able to do a little work in my life since my body became consciously indwelt by the Holy Spirit. If it were not for that indwelling Power, I should have worked myself out, I should have been dead long ago, because I have worked against conditions.

We are to pray that we may realize within us the Spirit who raised up Jesus Christ from the dead. We are to ask God that our mortal bodies may be quickened; made to live by the Spirit who dwelt in Christ, and made His body such a tremendous instrument of power.

When we have risen, by the Grace of God, above the lusts and the passions which contaminated the body when it was still unclean, when the blood was still unclean, and when we have let God the Holy Spirit take possession of our spirits, and our souls, and our bodies, then we will be able to pray in such a way that God will use our mortal bodies. God can then use our tongues, our eyes, our fingers. His Holy Spirit will flow through your body, and will be communicated to others.

The word of Jesus will be fulfilled, in which He said:

If any man thirst, let him come unto Me, and drink. He that believeth on Me, as the Scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. But this spake He of the Spirit, which they that believed on Him were to receive: for the Spirit was not yet given; because Jesus was not yet glorified.

The meaning of Christ's words was that the Holy Spirit should flow through the body.

The children of God will have to fight the nephilim again. These giants are saying, "Your teaching is not true." We must demonstrate that it is true. There is no use saying a thing and not demonstrating it.

Men may call one another liars, but that does not settle anything.

If you say that Jesus Christ is the same Healer, and another man says that He is not the same, that does not settle anything. If, however, you begin to produce evidence in yourselves and in others, and pile up the facts as they are being piled up in Zion, that demonstrates it.

That antediluvian race was fallen, because spirit, soul and body were given up to the Devil, and the flesh corrupted.

The generation of God's children who live today, if they yield to the flesh, will go to the Devil.

We Must be Among Either the Wise or the Foolish Virgins.

If we are foolish we will have no Oil; none of the Holy Spirit in our bodies. Our lamps will be going out when the Bridegroom comes. If we are wise, the Holy Spirit's power will be in our bodies, in our vessels. The Oil will be there, and that is the place where the Oil is needed.

You need Oil in your spirit that the great balance wheel may go properly.

In these splendid "liners" which cross the Atlantic, they pour the oil by the gallon and by the hogshead into the machinery.

What we need is Oil. We need it in gallons and in hogsheads. We need a pipe-line from heaven. We need the Oil to be in us all the time.

Some say, "Do not talk to me about the Holy Oil in my body. Let me have some digitalis; some pink pills; some nux vomica.

There is none of the Oil of the Holy Spirit in such poisons. That is practical.

There is another kind of oil. That is serpent oil. Do not have anything to do with snake oil. Do not have anything to do with that, whatever you do. The world has it. It uses it.

You will find it down in New York in the Christian Alliance. They have snake oil by the gallon. You will find it in Christian Science.

These people are very "oily," until you get beneath the smooth surface, then they show the Devil. Talk to them about Zion. Talk to them about Dowie. Then you will find that what they have is not the right kind of oil. I only say that to you in passing. Be sure that you have the right kind. Be sure that the Spirit who is in you is the Holy Oil.

The oil of expediency is another counterfeit.

"Do not be too hard. Do not be like Dr. Dowie. Be expedient. Wash your hands in invisible soap and water.

"God's children of every kind have to be considered," is the talk of those who have the oil of expediency.

It is that oil of hell, which leads you to be at peace with the Devil.

"Do not fight sin," says the "expediency" preacher, "but love it to death."

That is the most unmitigated humbug I ever heard. Is that not all the Devil would ask?

Hate sin. Get the Holy Oil within you which throws out sin and leaves you pure and holy.

Beware of that oily talk with its illustrations. Damnation and hell are in them.

Fight sin, but love the sinner.

I will die for the sinner, if need be, but I will fight sin, disease, death and hell, and will do it with a happy spirit. I will not let conformity to and acquiescence in sin be in me. I will not love sin to death. Let me get it out. Oh God, take it out, every bit of it.

Beware of false doctrine, smooth talk, the philosophies which have wonderful attractions. There are some parts of them which are most attractive.

We Must Have This Holy Oil to Rise Above Physical Conditions.

We must have it to rise above disease and to rise above death. We must have it so that we shall be in the world and not of it; that we shall bless the world, and not belong to it; that we shall be God's children in the world shining as lights, and in no degree deceived by these diabolical counterfeits of the Holy Oil.

Let us have purity, and let us have a good, sound, reasonable religion. Above all things—let me go back to where I started—let us have victory over the flesh, God helping us.

Let the body be made what God wants it to be, pure and holy.

Let the body be the servant of a purified spirit, and of a redeemed soul. Then you will be pure and every power of your body will be used. Then when the scourge shall come, you shall pass through the fires as Noah passed through the Flood.

Zion's Panoramic Tours.

THESE TOURS are conducted by Deacon Daniel Sloan, of Chicago. They present to the unprejudiced, teachable and fairminded the Principles, Purposes and Practices of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Conferences and personal interviews are held with members and friends at places visited. Information is given concerning Zion City and the Truths and Requirements of Zion, as well as counsel and direction pertaining to personal, business and domestic relations which may effect one's spirit, soul and body. These interviews are always spiritually helpful.

Some of the following lectures are given: Panorama of Zion, Exhibit of Zion City, The World as It Is, God's Rescue Call, Spiritual Mastery, The Bible a New Book, Prophetic Sidelights, Zion's Place and Methods, Glimpses of the Christ of God.

Within the past months visits have been made to members and friends of Zion, touching in travel seventeen States, and stopping at points in eleven different States.

The Panorama of Zion and Exhibit of Zion City, a stereopticon exhibition of the greatest work of the age and the Coming City of the age, has been presented to interested audiences of hundreds.

The expense for each place is about $10 or $15, in addition to the hall rent, if any, entertainment always being provided for the Deacon and his operator in some Zion family.

Visitation may possibly yet be made to other points where there is a Zion Gathering or a Branch Church, at such times as five or eight places centrally located can be arranged for in a trip, and when time can be given to this work aside from other duties.

Persons who desire to help build up Zion through such exhibitions, conferences and interviews should immediately write the Deacon for a visit at such date as he may later arrange, even if his coming be delayed for months.

Interest in the meantime may be awakened and the fact of his coming, though the date is unsettled, can be used to stimulate interest in favor of Zion, Zion Literature and the Zion Seventy work which is being done.

Trips cannot extend beyond two weeks, and then only to places where several members and friends and the spirit of interest shown warrant such visits.

DO NOT write letters to the heads of departments for news concerning the progress being made at Zion City, when you can find it all in THE COMING CITY. Send in your subscription to Zion Publishing House, 1207 Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

VICTORY IN MANSFIELD!

Elder J. C. Reiff, of Toledo, Ohio, Holds Two Blessed Meetings in Mansfield, Ohio, Without Molestation. Threatened Legal Proceedings Stop Mayor's Persecution.

Mansfield, Ohio.
Rev. Cyrus B. Fockler, Elder-in-Charge.

ZION'S complete triumph over the Devil in Mansfield is at hand.

God is giving greater and greater Victory.

The outcome is not a matter of conjecture.

It never was a matter of conjecture to Zion.

God has always given the victory to His people, when they were true to Him.

Zion keeps close to God, hence she knows, beyond peradventure, that He will sustain, support, protect and aid her by His Omnipotent strength.

Zion rejoices and sings praises to Him, that He has given and is giving Victory in Mansfield.

Zion prays that God will now give her grace and power, by His Holy Spirit, to win Mansfield for Him.

Zion goes forward, believing that He will answer that prayer.

Mansfield for Christ!

That is Zion's watchword in the matter.

That has been her watchword through all these months of fiery persecution.

That will be her watchword in Mansfield until that glorious end shall be attained.

Rev. J. C. Reiff, Elder-in-Charge of the Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in Toledo, Ohio, was directed to minister to the Branch in Mansfield on Lord's Day, November 11, 1900.

He arrived in that city at 1 o'clock on Lord's Day morning.

He registered at the Vonhof Hotel and retired.

After breakfast in the morning, he went to the home of one of the members of the Church, where he was kindly received.

Soon the other members of the Church began to appear, and Elder Reiff conducted a meeting in which God's Spirit was present with power and blessing.

Another meeting, likewise blessed of God, was held in the afternoon.

Both meetings were well attended and there was much joy and rejoicing.

When the afternoon meeting was over, Elder Reiff was taken to Vernon, Ohio, in a conveyance driven by a Zion man.

There was no mob.

No police or deputy interfered.

The jeers, the yells, the ribald insults, the threats, the outrageous indignities, the illegal arrests and deportations, the murderous violence which have marked all attempts on the part of Zion to meet for worship in Mansfield during the last four months had at last ceased.

What a joy it must have been to hold a quiet meeting!

All Zion everywhere will greatly rejoice with persecuted but victorious Zion in Mansfield.

In a letter written on Monday, November 12, 1900, Elder Reiff states that he believes the presence of Judge Wolff in Mansfield has put a quietus on the mob spirit.

The Elder also thanks God for great peace and calmness of spirit and for freedom from worry on the part of his faithful wife.

The foolish and false Mansfield News stated on Monday that no Zion Elder had visited Mansfield on Sunday. Either they lied or the boasted "nose" of the newspaper reporter had lost its sharpness, for Elder Reiff was in the city nearly eighteen hours, and held two services inside the city limits.

Overseer Piper made a few pertinent remarks concerning the situation in Mansfield, from the platform of Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day afternoon, November 11, 1900. They were received with enthusiasm by the audience of 2000 people. We give a partial report of them:

I should like to tell a bit of news.

Mayor Brown has been converted! (Applause and laughter.)

Two meetings were held last Lord's Day in Mansfield: one in the morning by Elder Matthews and wife, and one in the afternoon by Elder Armstrong.

Last night at midnight Elder J. C. Reiff, of Toledo, Ohio, reached Mansfield and went to the Vonhof Hotel. I have just received a telegram which reads as follows:

"Held two blessed meetings unmolested. Praise God." (Applause.)

Let us be sure that we rejoice in the Lord. (Amen.)

Let us be sure that we do not rejoice in any other way.

Of course it is possible that more violence may in future be done in Mansfield, but I do not believe it.

Rejoice in the Lord this afternoon.

The Mansfield persecution has been the longest and the severest, perhaps, of anything in the history of this country along religious lines.

Certainly there has been nothing like it since the days when the Puritans, after having left old England because of religious intolerance, excommunicated all who did not believe as they did, and drove them out of Massachusetts Bay Colony, threatening, if they returned, to cut out their tongues and to bore their ears with red-hot irons.

Perhaps not from that time until this has this country seen so outrageous and so persistent a religious persecution as the one we have just gone through and are going through in Mansfield.

But all glory belongeth to God.

It has not been easy to sit in my office in Zion Home and say to this man or that man, "Go down to Mansfield."

It has not been easy to send out telegrams like that which got there too late to be carried out, which I sent when Elder Moot and Elder Dinius were there, when I said, "Stay, and, if necessary, seal your testimony with your blood."

I know that I spoke the truth, I know that I lied not, when time and time again I said in my heart and to my wife, "I would rather go myself than to have to send somebody else."

If you imagine that my task has been a bed of roses during the last three months, I will tell you I have found there were more thorns than roses. But the odor of your prayers has been sweeter than the odor of roses.

God has given us victory, too.

A weaker organization would have been whipped long ago. It would have retired from the battlefield after the first skirmish.

I cannot say anything too strong. I cannot say words of sufficient commendation for the men who have been willing to obey my instructions. They have been noble men of God.

I might tell you in just a word why Mayor Brown has ceased his persecutions.

He had a high hand for most of the time, because there was nobody in Mansfield on the bench to stand for law and order.

In the light of the charge which Judge Campbell delivered to the Grand Jury the day after Elders Moot and Basinger were mobbed, he would get his just deserts if he were impeached. He simply told the Grand Jury not to indict the leaders of the mob, almost in so many words.

Digitized by Google
Original from NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

Judge Wolff has been away from the city for a month and a half; nearly two months.

I have said all along that it has been Mayor Brown's sympathy with the mob which has allowed these persecutions to continue.

Mayor Brown knew last Saturday that we had drawn up and had placed in the hands of Judge Wolff papers praying for an injunction against the Mayor and his police. The Mayor knew that which he had known all the way through, that he had no legal authority for sending our men away as he had been doing.

He thought that it was better to back down gracefully, and so he allowed the two Elders to hold their services last Lord's Day rather than have a legal decision rendered against him.

There is no manhood or Christianity about Mayor Brown. A man who does right because he must is a scoundrel just the same.

When Elder Fockler was so horribly outraged and marched through the streets of Mansfield in broad daylight without any clothing on, save his shoes and stockings, Mayor Brown thought that that would be the last of Zion in Mansfield.

He found out his mistake, but the lesson has been a very bitter one for him to learn.

Words of cheer, confidence, commendation and sympathy; expressions of determination to sustain and support, by life and means, the fight in Mansfield, come to Zion from members, friends and strangers all over the land, many of them with substantial enclosures.

The following is one of many:

MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE, November 4, 1900.

REV. W. HAMNER PIPER,
Overseer Zion Church, Chicago.

Dear Sir:—I have read LEAVES OF HEALING, have seen something of the workings of Zion and the good influence of Zion Home, and I have been through it from cellar to garret.

There is no kind of doubt in my mind that much has been accomplished through your Church for God.

My sympathy is with you concerning the conflict at Mansfield, Ohio, and I believe the time will soon come when God will overcome Satan at Mansfield.

I enclose $—— to you and ask that you use it in any way you may think best.

Sincerely yours, A METHODIST.

Vineland, New Jersey.

Rev. Isaac Leonard, Elder-in-Charge.

On October 27th there appeared in one of the daily papers of Vineland notice of a lecture entitled, "Dowieism, Great Deception of the Age," to be held in Temperance Hall, Tuesday afternoon and evening, October 30th, by Stockton Bassett, of Philadelphia, a man who has, in all probability, been hitherto unknown and thought to make himself famous by attacking the strongest power for good in the world today.

The lecture was also advertised by posters scattered over the town.

The little mission in Vineland prayed that this enemy of Zion might be brought to confusion. Overseer Piper also prayed on October 30th that he might be confounded and the lecture come to naught.

At the afternoon appointment only three people were present and the lecture was not delivered. In the evening there were but fifteen, and one of the leading business men of the town, not a member of Zion, became disgusted and left.

Surely it was a case of "confusion worse confounded." May all the enemies of Zion be thus defeated!

Vancouver, British Columbia.

Rev. R. M. Simmons, Elder-in-Charge.

Vancouver, British Columbia, newspapers are preparing for a very anxious time and some very bitter experience for themselves as well as others.

By a flood of lies and misrepresentations they are doing all they can to stir the lawless element of Vancouver into mob violence against Zion's faithful Elder there.

Should they be successful, the civil authorities and citizens of that place may find themselves face to face with a problem such as has made the name of Mansfield, Ohio, so malodorous in all the civilized world.

Then the hypocritical press will begin loudly to accuse Zion, the police, the people, any one, for the trouble, rather than themselves, the real culprits, in a large measure.

In Vancouver, as at the beginning in Mansfield, the press is openly siding with the Masonic mob which is disturbing Zion meetings. Such an attitude on the part of the press only makes the cowardly ruffians less afraid of consequences and bolder in their sin.

May God overrule the folly and sin of these modern scribes; but if He permits them to fill up the measure of their iniquity, may He give Zion grace and courage to fight and win.

He has crowned Zion with victory in many battles, and we have no misgivings about the result in Vancouver, should the Devil be so foolish as to try conclusions with Zion there.

Elder Simmons gives the following spicy account of the occurrences in his field on Lord's Day, November 4th:

This morning finds us happy. We had a good big fight with the Devil last night.

We delivered a discourse yesterday evening on the "Iniquity of Freemasonry and Other Secret Societies."

Our audience was only limited by the size of the building; even standing room was at a premium.

For an hour and more we fired into the ranks.

How the enemy did howl and rage as volley after volley was hurled from the battery of God's eternal truth into their hypocritical and sacrilegious performances!

It took the presence of a police officer to keep them within bounds. At the close of the service all Christians were invited to remain and celebrate with us the Lord's Supper.

We had a blessed time and gave the right hand of fellowship to four new members, while the rowdies stamped and raged without, pounding and rattling the door and doing all they dared to do by way of annoyance.

This city is honeycombed by Secretism.

We have located our worst enemy and will fight him to a finish with the "Sword of the Spirit."

One of the papers makes no effort to report the service, but simply misrepresents us to the public.

It says nothing about our exposure of Freemasonry, although we revealed plainly the worst of the three degrees of the Blue Lodge, together with the Royal Arch and Knight Templar degrees.

It was a great surprise to them.

Six weeks ago our congregations had greatly fallen off in numbers. Now we cannot get the people into the Tabernacle. We will enlarge the room by moving the partition further back as soon as the lease is signed.

Several have been blessedly saved and healed and we will have another baptismal service next Sunday evening.

I notice that the more the Devil fights, the greater is our victory.

Elder Simmons also encloses clippings which show the fierce, intolerant spirit of the press.

Zion in New York State.

Rev. George L. Mason, Overseer for China in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, is being greatly blessed in his tour of visitation of the Gatherings of the Friends of Zion in the great State of New York.

He sends us the following very interesting report of his work, under God, in these places:

In Buffalo and Hamburg the struggling friends of Zion were much encouraged by the meetings.

In Leroy, Brother George W. Sperry and wife have faithfully circulated LEAVES OF HEALING, and our meetings in an old church were fairly well attended, notwithstanding the opposition of apostate preachers.

Leroy is the home of the Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, the high Mason who raged when Brother Sperry left the Methodists.

Parkhurst was advertised to sing in a Roman Catholic fair, and at a frolic in his own church he is said to have danced the cakewalk. No wonder he fights Zion.

In Rochester, at the home of Brother O. A. Chillson, two rooms were filled afternoon and evening with earnest listeners. Several received Triune Immersion in Lake Ontario.

In Wolcott, Brother Joel Bishop and Mrs. Bishop are the capable leaders and much taught of the Lord.

Recently in answer to their prayer of faith a Miss Baker was miraculously raised from a bed, where for more than nine years she had been so helpless with paralysis that she could not even be dressed.

She was one of the happiest and bravest of the ten whom I led into the baptismal waters of the brook. They all came out with radiant faces, shouting the praises of God.

The meetings were held in a hall, and God was with us in power.

In Gloversville the members were taught and confirmed in the faith and the prejudice of others removed.

Five were much blessed in Triune Immersion.

Let all Zion pray for these members in all these places, who, like their Master, are hated without a cause, and need prayers.

Benton Harbor, Michigan.

Rev. Edward Williams, Elder-in-Charge.

Elder Williams sends the following interesting report of the work which God is doing, through Zion, in Benton Harbor and its sister city just across the St. Joseph River, St. Joseph:

God is blessing His work in Benton Harbor.

The Churches are beginning to find it out.

The press is taking the thing up.

The saloonkeepers say that we are ruining their business. One of Zion's Seventies said, "Yes, that is just what we are here for."

Zion people have been very faithful all through the summer.

Many of the large churches have been closed during the summer months, and those which were not closed averaged only twenty-five at their Lord's Day evening congregation.

Zion Tabernacle was full.

The Baptists have just closed what they call a very successful Church "rummage sale." All the old things that they could get from anybody were given to the Ladies' Aid Society and then sold to help the so-called cause of the Lord.

They are now finishing up with a so-called revival.

What a combination!

We have been preaching Repentance to the prisoners at the St. Joseph jail on Lord's Day afternoons.

We also give them LEAVES OF HEALING.

They are very glad to get the papers.

Their faces brighten when we go into the prison.

We were told last week that when prisoners were tried a few weeks ago, people in the court-room not only noticed it, but some remarked how penitent most of the prisoners were and how many of them confessed their guilt and asked the Court for mercy.

God's Word, we believe, had reached their hearts.

We have cottage meetings in different parts of the city.

We are praying for you at Headquarters, and also for our beloved General Overseer in Europe.

We know that you are praying for us.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Rev. Gideon Hammond, Elder-in-Charge.

Mrs. M. A. Putnam, 1241 Somerset Street, Philadelphia, a member of the Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in that city, sends the following testimony to healing in answer to Elder Hammond's prayer:

I have felt it my duty to give my testimony to the wonderful healing I received, in answer to prayer and "the laying on of hands," about six months ago.

I contracted a very severe cold. It settled on my lungs and I coughed night and day. I could neither sleep nor eat. The family began to despair of my life; but I did not realize that I was in so much danger.

I sent for Elder Hammond, and he kindly answered my call at once.

After prayer, my cough left me in about an hour.

The next day Elder Hammond prayed with me again, and from that time I made rapid improvement. My sleep returned, appetite came and I am gaining in flesh.

I have had no return of the disease. I praise God He keeps me.

I have been in Zion for over three years. My heart goes up in prayer for your prosperity.

I would like to visit you in Chicago. I hope it may be my good fortune to do so some time.

Zion Junior School in Zion Tabernacle, Philadelphia, now has twenty-six pupils, and is a great blessing. It is in charge of Miss Mary S. Ortman.

Zion's Holy War Against the Hosts of Hell in Chicago.

ON OCTOBER 1, 1899, the General Overseer and Zion entered upon one of the most remarkable religious campaigns in the history of the City of Chicago.

It was very admirably called "Zion's Holy War Against the Hosts of Hell in Chicago."

By that name it has become famous the world over.

No sooner had the "Holy War" been announced than the enemy began to make active preparations for the onslaught, so that when the war began, it was real. The "Hosts of Hell" fought back with an energy and desperation which made the echoes of the fighting reverberate from Ocean to Ocean in this Continent and across the seas.

The lying press, the pulpit, the medical and pharmaceutical professions, the Secret Societies and many others, whose pet sins had been assailed, joined the forces against Zion and her Divinely commissioned leader.

The West Side Zion Tabernacle riot, in which 3000 medical students participated; the Hammond, Indiana, riot, in which the General Overseer and a number of his faithful attendants were bruised and wounded by flying missiles, and the Oak Park, Illinois, riot, when the General Overseer and 300 members of Zion were besieged in Zion Tabernacle, Oak Park, by a howling mob until 3 o'clock in the morning, when they were rescued by a squad of Chicago police, were some of the exciting incidents of Zion's Holy War.

During this War, the General Overseer delivered his now famous series of addresses on the text found in Malachi 3:5:

And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift Witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers; and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not Me, saith the Lord of hosts.

He also delivered a series of powerful addresses "Against an Unclean, Ungodly and Criminal Press," and a sermon warning the people against Bad Books and Bad Pictures.

These sermons not only aroused the most bitter antagonism of "The Hosts of Hell," but were greatly blessed of God in bringing men and women to Repentance, Faith, Obedience, Salvation, Healing and Holy Living.

Their influence still goes on.

They were first published from week to week in LEAVES OF HEALING, at the time when they were delivered.

They have now been published in book form and are for sale at Zion Publishing House.

The book is a handsome one, of over 300 pages, substantially bound with a neat paper cover.

It contains forty-one preludes, sermons and addresses, a portrait of the General Overseer, and thirteen of Mr. Champe's striking cartoons.

It makes not only a powerful witness against sin, but, in the spicy, graphic preludes by the General Overseer, a most entertaining and valuable history of that remarkable campaign.

Price 50 cents, postpaid to any point in the United States.

Dig Deep Into God's Word. On the surface of the Bible you will find the letter which killeth, and associated with it is the physical strata. This deals with narratives, incidents, records, customs, places and people. One may know all these things and be able to repeat from memory much Scripture, even knowing the Bible by heart, as some say, and yet be ignorant of God in the might of His salvation.

Underneath and associated with this is the intellectual study of the Bible. This leads one into mental pursuits and pleasures, where literary and ethical subjects, together with maxims and examples for this life, may, no doubt, give delight to many. Yet this may prevent one having fellowship with God in spirit.

The Spirit of God guides into all truth, leading one directly to Christ as Lord and Saviour, as well as Teacher and Leader.

This last strata brings one to fine gold and that which is sweeter than honey in the honeycomb. Get this spiritual insight and understanding of Jesus Christ our Lord, who is the Way, the Truth and the Life.

Through your study of God's Word, do not let the physical and psychical so attract and occupy you that you cannot see this under-vein in which God is ever real to you. It makes His will plain concerning every duty and relation in life. Keep on digging deep in study, ever comparing spiritual things with Scriptural. Then you will know the mind of the Lord, and will never walk in darkness, but will have the Light of Life.

CHEERING WORDS FROM ZION'S GUESTS

NOTES FROM ZION HOME

THE regular Praise and Testimony Meeting held in Zion Home, Saturday evening, November 10, 1900, was conducted by Overseer Speicher.

After the usual opening exercises, the States represented were enumerated and found to be thirteen in number, as follows:

Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Nevada, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Tennessee and Wisconsin.

The following foreign countries were represented:

Canada and Japan.

The meeting was then thrown open for testimony.

EVANGELIST SARAH L. KENNEDY, Detroit, Michigan, said: "I praise God tonight, not only that He has wonderfully healed me, but for the strength He has given me during the last two years. I also have a greater hold upon God and I trust Him for everything."

MRS. E. H. SATTERLEE, Kenyon, Minnesota, said: "I am glad that I have this teaching.

"I have been greatly blessed in spirit, soul and body.

"I came here two years ago last spring and was wondrously healed of some troubles from which I had suffered for forty-eight years, and of others which had troubled me for sixteen or seventeen years.

"I have received great spiritual blessing here in Zion Home and in Zion Tabernacle, for which I praise God."

DEACON HOMER KESSLER, Zion Home, said: "I praise the Lord that in connection with my Mansfield experience I found God's Grace sufficient.

"Not only did He deliver me from all fear, but took all pain away when I was struck by the stone which the mob threw. I realized great spiritual blessing. I know that I shall be able to do more for God, to enjoy more, and also to be a better, more faithful and truer servant of His because of this experience and the closer walk with God which it brought."

A. C. JENSEN, Zion Home, said: "I would like to tell a little of what LEAVES OF HEALING is doing. Two days ago my sister received a letter, in which the writer (evidently a young girl living in one of the Eastern States) says: 'I saw your name in LEAVES OF HEALING among those baptized. Will you please tell me something about Zion?

"'My grandma is now an old lady. She has always been a Christian since she was eleven years of age. She has always been a great worker in the Methodist and Baptist churches, but now she believes in Zion, and she is a greater worker than ever. She took the paper to one lady and she was converted. They, with still another lady, are the only three in this whole country who believe in Zion.

"'We have just had a big Quarterly Meeting here, and the Presiding Elder preached a whole sermon against Zion and said that Dowie was a bad man, but he could not shake grandma's faith any.

"'Now, won't you write and tell me something about Zion? It has only been a few months since we got the paper.'

"Some time ago one of my friends and his wife were traveling in Minnesota. One morning while waiting at a small station, they saw a young lady sitting by herself reading the Bible. It being a rather unusual sight to see a young person thus engaged in a public place, my friend's wife approached and spoke to her. She told her how she, when very sick, had received a copy of LEAVES, had turned to her Bible and found the truth in the LEAVES verified; how she then turned to God and received perfect healing. She was now waiting for a train to take her to a sick friend and to tell her of God the Healer, and she had no doubt whatever as to her being healed, too.

"These are only two out of thousands of instances where LEAVES OF HEALING has been the direct means of bringing people the blessing of Salvation, Healing and Cleansing.

"I also wish to thank God for the wonderful blessings received. He has wonderfully kept and strengthened me, and us all. My mother, who has been suffering for over twenty years, has just arrived from Denmark. She has been greatly blessed and strengthened."

MRS. MAGGIE D. COSGROVE, North Harvey, Illinois, said: "I have had too many blessings in Zion not to speak of them. The Lord has wonderfully blessed me in spirit, soul and body. I am so thankful that I am here. I shall go away better in spirit and in body."

MRS. G. W. BROMLEE, Charleston, Illinois, said: "I have been in Zion just two weeks tonight. I have been wonderfully blessed since I came here, both in spirit and in body."

MRS. MARY SEYS, 1425 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I have so often heard people speak about the early days of Zion. I do not envy them, because Zion has now reached far enough to take me in. I did not know anything about Zion then, but thank God that I do now.

"It was through the testimony of one who was healed in Zion that I was brought into Zion, and I am thankful for the wonderful blessing which I have received in spirit, soul and body. When I first accepted God as my Healer, I wore three pair of glasses to read with and one pair constantly, but I put off the glasses and asked God to heal my eyes.

"God has healed my eyes. I am receiving my sight. I am now able to read the fine print of my Bible. I thank God for what He is doing for me in spirit, soul and body. He has healed me of many other diseases."

MRS. W. S. PECKHAM, 2225 Calumet Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I have been waiting to hear those speak who have recently come to Zion. The Lord would, probably, like to have a testimony from one who knew Zion in its infancy. I think a thing which wears and grows better and better is certainly worth telling about.

"I knew Zion seven years ago. When I first came to Zion I was in a helpless condition, having been an invalid for thirteen years. I was given up by one of the best surgeons in the country.

"I came on a Saturday and Dr. Dowie prayed for me on the following Monday. I then and there resolved to give myself wholly to God and promised to do that which Zion always requires for perfect healing.

"I received an immediate healing of innumerable diseases and God wonderfully blessed me. I had a great spiritual blessing. It was so wonderfully, powerfully sweet, that I asked God to take it away for a moment; it seemed impossible for me to stand it.

"I went back home and resolved to do all I could to testify for God. I did it in a quiet way. I saw it was not very popular. God permitted me to be pushed out of our Church, because we were faithful to Him in a great many things, even holding meetings in our home to some extent; and I think on account of this fear got into my heart, and I went back somewhat, spiritually.

"Then my eyes became affected. A year ago I had cataracts in both eyes. I was told that possibly in a few months my right eye would become blind, and in a year would have to be operated upon.

"Elder McClurkin was then in Cincinnati. I went to him and he told me that something must be in the way that I did not receive an answer to prayer. I went back home. I finally saw myself as God saw me and I gave myself, my all, to Him. I reconsecrated myself to God, and in His infinite love He restored my sight.

"Zion is making wonderful progress and God is pouring out His blessing on the work in every way, but the dear old days have never been forgotten."

ELDER S. H. STOKES, Zion Home, said: "I am so glad that I am in Zion, although I did not expect to be here tonight. I thought that I was getting along so nicely at Detroit, and it came quite as a surprise when I was called to Headquarters to take up the work at South Side Zion Tabernacle, but in Zion we are ready for anything. It used to be said that a minister was to be ready to preach, to pray or to die. In Zion it is more than that: we are ready to obey.

"I was just thinking of my work in the M. E. Church and in Zion. For six years I was in the traveling work with the Methodist Church. For eighteen months I have been in separate fields in the work of Zion. I had a little over three months in the work here before I went to Detroit. The results are far greater in the eighteen months in Zion, than in the six years of the Methodist ministry. I do rejoice that God has opened my eyes to see this wonderful Gospel.

"Men have been wonderfully saved and healed. Ties are so different in Zion from what they are in the denominations. When we go to some one's home and we wrestle, together with God, for a companion, or with the parents for a child, and God gives us a glorious victory, those ties can never be broken. It is not surprising then that when we must separate, as some said, it seemed like the losing of a friend out of the home. Some said it seemed almost like a death for the Elder to go."

Elder Stokes then related healings which had taken place in his ministery recently and then continued, saying: "I thank God that our General Overseer has called the people to this wonderful Covenant which God made. It is being realized. I am anxious to preach this Message and to tell others of the wonderful work that God has done for me and what He has been doing for others.

"I thank God for LEAVES OF HEALING. How it has gone into these wilderness places and found young men in sin! I was in Northern Michigan and baptized ten persons there. On the way to the Baptism one young man said to me, 'If it were not for LEAVES OF HEALING I am sure that I should be dead and in hell today. LEAVES OF HEALING found me when I was very near to death. I was very wicked, but the Little White Dove brought this Message of Salvation, Healing and Cleansing to me. I gave my heart to God and He saved me and He healed me.'

"I heard many such testimonies concerning LEAVES OF HEALING. I came back very much encouraged and pushed forward in the work of the ministry in every way, especially in getting the LEAVES into the hands of the people.

"I praise God that He is finding so many people who are willing to accept this blessed Gospel."

The meeting was then closed by Overseer Speicher offering prayer and pronouncing the

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

ZION CITY BANK.

By DEACON W. S. PECKHAM.

AND NOW I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this council or this work be of men, it will be overthrown: but if it is of God, ye will not be able to overthrow them; lest haply ye be found even to be fighting against God.—Acts 5:38, 39.

THAT the work of Zion is the work of God is shown by the fact that while her enemies have raged and plotted and fought, they have never been able to even retard the onward march of Zion. All that fiends incarnate in the world and in an apostate church could do has been done to shake confidence in Zion. But God is "making the wrath of man to praise Him."

The lies of the press, both secular and religious, have become so barefaced that the people no longer believe them. The press of the country has become the tool of the Devil.

But they must soon realize that they are fighting against God.

Ever since our General Overseer left this country the enemies of Zion have done everything within their power to prevent the establishing of Zion City and the great Zion Lace Industries.

They have sought to create distrust in the minds of the people, and cripple the Financial Institutions of Zion. But these Institutions have enjoyed great prosperity all the while, and are now among the best and strongest in the land. They are destined to become the greatest in the world. God has founded them to carry forward the great material interests of the Kingdom of God, soon to be ushered in with great glory.

The success of these splendid Institutions is only equaled by the rapid growth of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Controlled by the greatest financier of this or any other age—John Alexander Dowie; officered by men of ability and highest integrity; founded upon principles of righteousness; and backed by the resources of an infinite God, Zion's Financial Institutions are as solid as the Throne of God: "For the Lord dwelleth in Zion."

THE BUSINESS of the world is largely done upon confidence. When confidence is destroyed, there is general depression and stagnation.

Very little of the business of the world is done with money. Business of every description is carried on by means of paper, in the form of bills of exchange, checks, drafts, etc. These are mere promises to pay and must be taken in confidence.

When the policy of the government is known, firms and individuals can proceed to manufacture and place orders with the confidence that values will not be changed by legislation.

The wonderful activity in the industrial world, consequent upon the election of a Republican President, is caused by business men confidently expecting a continuance of existing tariff laws, and that no great changes would be made in any laws governing trade.

Under the protective policy of the Republican party, this country has taken first place among the nations of the earth.

In the last campaign a victory was won by the business men of this country.

No one could safely forecast the results of the election of Mr. Bryan and a congress which would support his theories on finance and government. The business of the country seemed to be menaced by Bryanism, which opposed sound money, business honesty, a protective tariff and expansion.

But above everything else Mr. Bryan was a destroyer of confidence, both in the business world and in the labor world. He arrayed capital against labor and employer against employee. Their interests are mutual, and one cannot succeed without the other.

The work of a demagogue always destroys confidence and brings disaster. It is impossible to do business without confidence. Without it the wheels of commerce soon cease to turn.

Zion always has the confidence of her members. This is what makes Zion so prosperous. Nothing that the press can say or the world or the flesh or the Devil can do ever disturbs Zion.

The General Overseer has the love and confidence of his people. Not only do we have confidence in our earthly leader, but we have this confidence that God is building up Zion, and that Zion cannot fail unless God fails, which is impossible.

VERY FEW realize how largely the element of confidence enters into every act of life. We are dependent one upon another, and no one can act entirely independent of others.

We are compelled hourly to put faith in our fellowmen, and often to place our very lives in the hands of others.

Every time we ride upon a train we commit ourselves to the care of others. Every time we deposit money in a bank, or buy stocks or bonds, we must place confidence in others.

This being true, it is only a question as to whom we shall trust, or who is most worthy of confidence.

In Zion we believe it is better to trust one man of God than to put confidence in a number of men who are worldly and fear not God. We know that God has sent our beloved General Overseer and endowed him with wisdom, power and resources above any other man of this time.

THE FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS of Zion are only eighteen months old, but already have several thousands of depositors and shareholders.

During the last eight months Zion City Bank has opened more than 1400 new accounts, which is more than an average of five for each working day. This shows loyalty and confidence upon the part of many.

Let the many thousands of Zion members who have confidence in our General Overseer help in this great work of Zion.

Do not hesitate, do not question about anything in Zion, but with hearty confidence follow our leader. He who has led us wisely in spiritual things, and made us victors over sin, disease and all the power of the Devil, will lead us to victory in everything.

AS THERE can be no success in the business world without confidence, so there can be none in Zion without confidence. It is absolutely necessary that every member of Zion shall have perfect faith and confidence in every department of Zion.

There is no joy in a divided heart.

To be happy, we must be in Zion all over. Zion must be in us and we in Zion. We must help in every way possible, and love Zion above our chief joy.

To trust Zion is to trust God.

To withold our resources from Zion is to withold them from God.

Honor Jehovah with thy substance, and with the first fruits of all thine increase.

By Rev. O. L. TINDALL, M. A., B. D., Principal Ministerial Department.

IT IS an interesting study in Zion to note the different classes of people who are being attracted to her fold. We are glad that Zion is not for the rich nor for the poor; for the learned nor for the ignorant; for the Jew nor for the Gentile, but for "whosoever will."

It illustrates the molding power of a true Gospel to make all men and women one in Christ. Zion proposes, under God, to manage all mankind without distinction of race, color or previous condition.

We trust Zion College is and ever will be, by the Grace of God, a hand which will shape the plastic clay into vessels of honor. We are glad to see the young people coming.

We have not flung out our banner, inscribed with art and music, esthetics, science and honor as the chief incentives to learn. In our school room, at the beginning, was written above our heads, "In the Beginning God." Yet we teach art, and none can boast a better leader than Zion has at the head of her Musical Department.

We are glad to announce that we have a very competent teacher in Mrs. J. H. Harnley, who has taken the work in Elocution for all the departments. Mrs. Harnley is the wife of Prof. Harnley, who is teaching in the Business Department and taking the ministerial course. Mrs. Harnley is a graduate of the School of Oratory in Chicago and has had experience in teaching. We are glad to welcome her into our ranks of instructors.

The old saying that it was a teacher's office "to teach young ideas how to shoot," is especially appropriate for the teacher of elocution. The work of other teachers is largely to give the pupils ideas; to fill up their quivers with arrows. The trainer in elocution must teach them how to shoot them to make them do effective work.

It is not only what a man says, but how he says it, that makes it effective. Many a good discourse has been lost by the bungling way in which it has been delivered.

Hamlet's instruction to the players has a great deal of good sense in it and may be applied very appropriately to the ministry and other public speakers:

> Speak the speech, I pray you, as I pronounced it to you, trippingly on the tongue; but if you mouth it, as many of your players do, I had as lief the town-crier spoke my lines. Nor do not saw the air too much with your hand, thus, but use all gently. . . . Suit the action to the word, the word to the action.

Pretty good advice, whether it be applied to speaking or to living. Some would have us discard elocution or the art and science of speaking altogether, saying it makes men only mechanical, unnatural and artificial. One might as well say that training can do nothing for singing. The same principles hold good in training the voice for speaking as for singing.

The Devil and his emissaries have been quick to see this. They have seen the power of good speaking and acting. They have taken hold of it and brought it to a high degree of perfection. By it, largely, they draw and hold large audiences week in and week out the year round, and make their devotees pay even more than their tithes—the great bugbear to many concerning Zion—for the privilege of seeing and hearing them.

Some one has said, when comparing the theater with the pulpit, "The actor plays his farce and speaks his fables with an earnestness which makes one think they are truth, while the minister speaks the tremendous truths of eternal life in such an indifferent way that you would think they were false."

Sam Jones very quaintly said to an old lady, who had remarked to him that she liked what he said well enough, but the way he said it did not please her, "Why, madam, the way I say it is the only thing I have a patent on."

Cannot that be said of Zion largely? Other ministers say they have preached the Gospel of Repentance, Faith, etc., and yet people cry out that we have a new Gospel.

The same principles hold good in all effective speaking, whether it be in the theater, in the drawing room, pulpit, or on the Day of Pentecost when Peter stirred all the multitudes with his burning words and made them cry out, "What must we do?"

The actor forgets his art and himself and enters into the spirit of his character, or else he is a failure.

The minister must enter into the spirit of his words. He must be moved by the inward impulse. That is what Paul meant when he said:

> My speech and my preaching were not with enticing words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the spirit and of power.

He also said:

> If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am become sounding brass.

On Friday evenings we are to have public exercises. From 7 o'clock until 8 will be a social. This will be followed by a literary and musical programme. All Zion College students are expected to take part, and their friends are welcome to come in and enjoy the evening with them. This will be held in Zion Hall of the Seventies.

We were quite interested in the story of a young man who applied for admission into Zion College a few days ago. He had been a student of pharmacy in one of the large universities in Chicago.

Up to about a week previous he had been pursuing the even tenor of his way, deeply interested in his studies and bright prospects of being a druggist in the near future, as he said.

He happened, or better, he was providentially led to get a room in a Zion family, not knowing or caring what the religious views of his landlady might be. But Zion people do not keep their lights under a bushel, and he soon found that she belonged to "Dr. Dowie's Church," as he called it.

Next, Zion Literature went into his hands. Among the tracts was "Doctors, Drugs and Devils." This proved to be an allopathic dose and knocked out all the drugs and a good many other things which he had been imbibing from his youth. It demonstrated fully their favorite maxim, "contraria, contrariis, curantur": the contrary is cured by the contrary.

He was baptized as the Lord directs by Triune Immersion on Sunday, and is now a student in Zion College.

May God bless the φαρμακοὺς, sorcerers, and all those without, and bring them in.

Let every member of the Christian Catholic Church enter into a loving rivalry, striving to make each home the greatest possible blessing to their own communities.

We solicit invitations from those who are not in Zion, that we may enter their homes with weekly Gospel meetings.

Will you not write to the above address if you desire us to come?

We will not be content until we place a meeting in every home in Zion, and in every home where there is a desire to know honestly the Full Gospel.

Below we append a list of Cottage Meetings.

Attend those nearest your own homes.

There are now 200 Zion Cottage Meetings in Chicago, in eight different languages: English, German, Swedish, Danish, Norwegian, Bohemian, Chinese and Italian, besides in the homes of our colored people.

ZION'S CONFLICT WITH METHODIST APOSTASY.

This book of 200 pages, just issued by Zion Publishing House, contains nine powerful discourses delivered in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer last May, during the session of the Methodist General Conference. They are of especial value for full and fearless exposure of Freemasonry.

"The Methodist Church the Property of the Masonic Order," "Freemasonry: A Heathen and Antichristian Abomination," and "Degrees of Masonic Devilry" ought to be read by every lodge man.

The iniquity of the Mystic Shrine is laid bare.

"The Christian's Duty in Breaking a Bad Oath" is the address which preceded the public working of Masonic and Odd Fellow degrees in Central Zion Tabernacle, a full account of which is given.

Buy one of these books and keep lending it. No honest and intelligent man can read the book and still remain a Freemason.

Sent by mail, postpaid, for twenty-five cents.

DO YOU KNOW GOD'S WAY OF HEALING?

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Let it be supposed that the following words are a conversation between the reader [A] and the writer [B].

A. What does this question mean? Do you really suppose that God has some one especial way of healing in these days of which men may know and avail themselves?

B. That is exactly my meaning, and I wish very much that you should know God's Way of Healing, as I have done for many years.

A. What is the way, in your opinion?

B. You should rather ask, WHO is God's Way? for the Way is a Person, not a thing. I will answer your question in His own words, "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life; no one cometh unto the Father, but by Me." These words were spoken by our Lord Jesus Christ, the Eternal Son of God, who is both our Saviour and our Healer. (John 14:6.)

A. But I always thought that these words only referred to Him as the Way of Salvation. How can you be sure that they refer to Him as the Way of Healing also?

B. Because He cannot change. He is "the same yesterday and today, yea and forever." (Hebrews 13:8.) He said that He came to this earth not only to save us but to heal us (Luke 4:18), and He did this when in the flesh on earth. Being unchanged, He must be able and willing and desirous to heal now.

A. But is there not this difference, namely, that He is not with us now?

B. No; for He said, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world"; and so He is with us now, in Spirit, just as much as when He was here in the flesh.

A. But did He not work these miracles of healing when on earth merely to prove that He was the Son of God?

B. No; there was still a greater purpose than that. He healed the sick who trusted in Him in order to show us that He came to die not only for our sins, but for our sicknesses, and to deliver us from both.

A. Then, if that is so, the atonement which He made on the Cross must have been for our sicknesses as well as our sins. Can you prove that is the fact from the Scriptures?

B. Yes, I can, and the passages are very numerous. I need quote two only. In Isaiah 53:4, 5, it is written of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed." Then in the Gospel according to Matthew, this passage is quoted and directly applied to the work of bodily healing, in chapter 8, 17th verse. "That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases."

A. But do you not think that sickness is often God's will, and sent for our good, and therefore God may not wish us to be healed?

B. No, that cannot possibly be; for diseases of every kind are the Devil's work, and his work can never be God's will, since Christ came for the very purpose of destroying "the works of the Devil." (1 John 3:8.)

A. Do you mean to say that all disease is the work of Satan?

B. Yes, for if there had been no sin (which came through Satan) there never would have been any disease, and Jesus never in one single instance told any person that sickness was God's work or will, but the very contrary.

A. Can you prove from Scripture that all forms of sickness and infirmity are the Devil's work?

B. Yes, that can be done very easily. You will see in Matthew 4:23 and 9:35 that when Jesus was here in the flesh, He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people." Then if you will refer to Acts 10:38 you will see that the Apostle Peter declares that He [Jesus] "went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil." Notice that all whom He healed, not some, were suffering from Satan's evil power.

A. But does disease never come from God?

B. No, it cannot come from God, for He is pure, and disease is unclean; and it cannot come out of Heaven, for there is no disease there.

A. That is very different from the teachings which I have received all my life from ministers and in the churches. Do you really think that you are right, and that they are all wrong in this matter?

B. It is not a question as between myself and them. The only question is, What does God's Word say? God has said in all the ages to His Church, "I am the Lord that healeth thee" (Exodus 15:26), and therefore it would be wicked to say that He is the defiler of His people. All true Christians must believe the Bible, and it is impossible to believe that good and evil, sickness and health, sin and holiness could have a common origin in God. If the Bible really taught that, it would be impossible to believe our Lord Jesus Christ when He says, "A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit." (Matthew 7:18.)

A. But even if I agree with all you say, is it not true that the Gifts of Healing were removed from the Church, and are not in it now?

B. No, the "Gifts of Healing" were never withdrawn, and can never be withdrawn, from the true Church of God: for it is written, "The gifts and the calling of God are without repentance." (Romans 11:29.) There are nine gifts of God to the Church (enumerated in 1 Corinthians, 12:8 to 11), and all these are in the Holy Spirit. Therefore, so long as the Holy Spirit is in the Church, all the gifts must be there also. If they are not exercised, that does not prove that they do not exist, but that the faith to exercise them is lacking in God's servants. The gifts are all perfectly preserved; for the Holy Spirit, not the Church, keeps them safely.

A. What should a Christian then do when overtaken with sickness?

B. A Christian should obey God's command, and at once turn to Him for forgiveness of the sin which may have caused the sickness, and for immediate healing. Healing is obtained from God in one of four ways, namely: First, by the direct prayer of faith, without any aid from the officers of the Church, praying as the Centurion did in Matthew 8:5 to 12; second, by two faithful disciples praying in perfect agreement, in accordance with the Lord's promise in Matthew 18:19; third, by the anointing of the elders and the prayer of faith, according to the instructions in James 5:14 and 15; and fourth, by the laying on of the hands of them who believe, and whom God calls to that ministry, as the Lord commands in Mark 16:18, and in other places.

A. But are people healed in this way in these days?

B. Yes, in thousands of cases. I have myself laid hands upon many hundreds of thousands of persons, and I have seen the Lord's Power manifested in the healing of great numbers, many of whom are living witnesses in many countries, who have testified publicly before thousands, and who are prepared to testify at any time. This ministry is being exercised by devoted Christians in many parts of America, Europe, Australasia and elsewhere.

A. Is it not the same as Christian Science, Mind Healing, etc.?

B. No. Divine Healing is diametrically opposed to these diabolical counterfeits, which are utterly anti-Christian. These impostures are only seductive forms of Spiritualism. Trance Evangelism is also a more recent form of this delusion, and it deceives many.

A. But how shall I obtain the necessary faith to receive healing, which faith I am at present conscious I do not possess?

B. It is written, "Belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by the Word of Christ." (Romans 10:17.) Our Missions are held for the express purpose of teaching fully the Word of God on this matter, and I very heartily invite you to attend the meetings which are announced for Zion Tabernacle. All are welcome and there are no charges of any kind made, for all God's gifts are free gifts. Salvation is the first of these, without which you cannot be healed through faith in Jesus. All the costs of this work are covered by the free-will offerings of the people who attend these meetings, and others whom the Lord leads to help; but the poorest who have nothing to give are as heartily welcome as the richest.

A. Do you see the sick and lay hands upon them in this Mission?

B. Yes; after we feel satisfied that they are fully resting in the Lord alone for the healing, we see privately, so far as time permits, those who attend; but under no circumstances do we claim the power to heal any; for "power belongeth unto God."

A. Have you any writings upon this subject which can be purchased?

B. Yes; these can be obtained at the office of Zion Publishing House, 1207 Michigan Avenue, or at Zion Tabernacle, 1621-1633 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill. But the best book on Divine Healing is the Bible itself, studied prayerfully and earnestly.

We extend to you a hearty invitation to attend the meetings, which are free to all. Our prayer is that you may be led to find in Jesus Christ our Lord and God, your present Saviour from sin, your Healer from sickness, your Cleanser from all evil, your Keeper in the way to Heaven, your Friend, and your All for Time and Eternity. We pray that these words may help many who read, and that our little conversation may bear fruit in leading many readers to look to Jesus only.

"The Healing of Christ's seamless dress
Is by all beds of pain;
We touch Him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again."

NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD

Immediate Healing at the Time of Prayer.

MASON, WISCONSIN, November 7, 1900.

REV. WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

My Dear Overseer in Christ:—I was much pleased this evening to receive your letter, stating the time you prayed for me on Monday, November 5th, in accordance with the request in the telegram which I sent you.

On Monday morning at about 8 o'clock I was taken with dizziness.

It grew worse in a short time.

I sought my room and took it to God, but did not get the desired relief. I rather grew worse.

At about 10 o'clock I began to vomit. I was very sick. I could hardly stand on my feet.

I still trusted to God through my own prayers.

I thought about sending a message to you, but Satan was there also and said that it was too trifling a sickness to warrant sending for prayer to Chicago.

But thanks be to God, my Heavenly Father, He overruled. I arose from the bed on which I was lying, picked up a pencil and wrote a short message to you. I handed it to one of the girls who works where I board and asked her to send it.

At about 11:30 o'clock I began to feel better. At about noon I fell asleep. I slept until about a quarter to 2 o'clock.

I then awoke, feeling well as usual, only a little weak.

I thanked God and went about my work.

I thank God for His healing power and I thank you for your prayer.

I praise God that He has a Church whose Elders can pray the prayer of faith.

Your Brother in Christ, MATT WHITE.

God Answers Prayer for Healing of Stomach Trouble.

WINAMAC, INDIANA, November 7, 1900.

REV. WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—I am glad to say that Jesus has made my mother well and happy.

When I first saw my mother sick, she had sinking spells and would not revive for five minutes.

Stomach disorders caused the trouble.

She requested me to send a request for prayer.

When I left her home I felt a blessing and hurried to send the dispatch.

When I returned Sister Stewart was there and was talking with my mother.

All pains were gone. The faintness and sickness left at about the time I sent the telegram.

Mother was well and came out and ate a good dinner the next day. On the following Monday she did a big washing. ERNEST LITTLE.

DEAR OVERSEER:—My son's statement is true. I am well and happy.

I give God all the glory.

Thanks for your faithful prayers. (MRS.) ELIZA LITTLE.

Little Girl Quickly Healed of Injury to Foot.

GALESVILLE, WISCONSIN, November 9, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER SPEICHER:—I received your answer saying you had prayed for us at my request for prayer.

I thank God for answering your and our prayers, and thank you for your prayers for us.

Our little girl was relieved of all pain and in a few days the swelling and inflammation were all gone. She could wear her shoe and stocking.

The nail which she ran into her foot was very rusty and went very nearly through her foot. We could see the nail point on the top of her foot.

We thank God, who hears and answers the prayers of faithful ones. We give Him all the glory.

Faithfully for Christ, (MRS.) CLARA SUTTON.

Blessed Deliverance in Childbirth.

SHANNON, ILLINOIS, October 31, 1900.

REV. J. G. SPEICHER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—I desire to glorify God in sending in my testimony.

We thank and praise Him for His great mercy and love shown to us during my confinement.

God gave us a strong nine-pound girl. We had no doctor. All well.

The promise given me a few months before was,

"Call upon Me in the day of trouble;
I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify Me."

God truly kept His promise.

I thank you and all who prayed for me.

During delivery those who were with me prayed and I could realize the help every moment.

How good God is!

May all His handmaidens be as the Hebrew women of old.

Yours in Christian Love and Fellowship,

(MRS.) DELILA KREIDER.

God Answers Prayer for Sick Animal.

LAPORTE, TEXAS, November 1, 1900.

REV. WILLIAM H. PIPER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—I wrote you on September 14, 1900, to pray for my cow, which was giving bloody milk very badly at that time, and had been for about three months.

You answered me, saying that you had prayed on the 22d of September.

She began to improve at that time, and in a few days was well.

This may seem a small thing to some, but to me it calls forth praise to our God for His loving kindness to us who are His unworthy but trusting children.

O, how I thank Him that He has raised up Zion where the humble and believing ones can find help.

May God Himself abundantly bless you and all Zion everywhere and all the time.

Your Sister in Jesus, (MRS.) MARY E. THOMAS.

God Prospers Those Who Love Him.

HANNAH, NORTH DAKOTA, October 31, 1900.

OVERSEER W. H. PIPER.

Dear Brother:—We enclose you $—— of tithe money for Zion.

This is the first fruits of this year's crop. While many of our neighbors have scarcely any crop, the Lord has blessed us with a splendid one.

They are all wondering why it is.

A number of them were talking about it a few days ago, when one of them spoke up and said, "I know why it is: he is working for the Lord and the rest of us are not."

It is a blessed thing to so live that others can see that it pays to serve God.

Your Loving Brother, D. W. HINES.

God Heals Sore of Three Years' Standing.

LOMAX, ILLINOIS, November 12, 1900.

DEAR BROTHER IN CHRIST:—I praise God for the perfect healing of daughter Tillie's foot.

I wrote you in August or early September. The toe was then a dark purple and very painful. It had been sore for three years.

She can now wear her shoe with perfect comfort.

Thomas Smith, of Lomax, who went to Zion a year ago, is perfectly well of all his stomach trouble.

We hope we may yet have an Elder come out and start a church here.

Sincerely yours in Jesus, (MRS.) L. A. KING.

Chills and Fever Cured in Answer to Prayer.

RURAL DELL, 2 CLAY AVENUE, FRESNO, CALIFORNIA.

DEAR OVERSEER PIPER:—I am healed entirely of my chills and fever, and am going to school.

I give God all the glory.

My cousin sent me a Zion button, which I wear every day.

The boys call me a Dowieite.

Thanking you for your prayers, I am

Your Friend in Christ, HOMER L. NORTON.

God Speedily Heals Little Boy.

CORNING, KANSAS, November 12, 1900.

REV. W. H. PIPER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—Your letter, stating that you prayed for our little boy on Friday, October 12th, is received.

He began to mend that day, and ate a hearty dinner of solid food the next day, which was the first solid food he had taken for six days.

He is well and hearty.

We thank you for praying, and thank God for His goodness to us.

Yours in our Master's Service, H. C. STAHN.

2. Being in Christ is a necessity.—2 Corinthians 5:16-21.

3. Hearing His Voice should be a reality.—Matthew 7:24-29.
   Can one be a Christian and not be in fellowship with Christ?
   What time daily do you seek Him to speak to you?
   Do you spend more time daily on the papers than on the Bible?
4. One should certainly know Him.—Matthew 7:21-23.
   Does Christ know you if you work iniquity?
   Will not Christ know you if you do His Father's will?
   What rewards come from obeying God's will?
5. One can be led by Him unvaryingly.—Psalm 23:1-6.
   Can He lead those who do not willingly follow?
   Does He not lead into peace and contentment?
   Does He lead into sickness and want?
6. Willingness to follow Him must be positive.—John 10:10-18.
   If we seek the abundant life, will we find it?

   Does not Christ lead out of one Church into another?
7. Knowing His Voice should be unquestioned.—1 John 2:12-20.
   Do you know when God speaks to you?
   How can you know it is God speaking?
   What other voices are ready to speak to you?
8. You must forsake fellowship with strange spirits.—1 John 4:1-6.
   Are the spirits of the evil one all about us?
   Do good spirits surround us for our safety?
   Do not good spirits exhalt Christ ever as Saviour, Healer, Cleanser, Keeper and Coming King?

The Lord Our God is a Safe-Keeping God.

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS LESSON, DECEMBER 9th.

Tests of Integrity With God.

   What seed are we to sow?
   Will it all prove alike fruitful?
   Where are we to sow the seed?
2. An understanding heart is a necessity.—James 1:21-27.
   Why is not the Word of God understood?
   Why does the Devil steal it out of the heart?
   Is not such a heart full of something else?
3. Joy is possible amid persecution.—John 15:13-20.
   Do some seem to be happy only at times?
   What is the test, whether one has Christ or not?
   Must not one be willing to die for his convictions?
4. Freedom in growth is imperative.—Luke 21:29-38.
   Do worldly pleasures check growth?
   Does worry over business check growth?
   Will household cares check growth?
5. God demands increased fruitfulness.—John 15:1-11.
   Is God satisfied with the least one can do?
   How fruitful does He want us to become?
   If fruitful in a measure, will He not purge us?

God's Holy People are a Fruitful People.

By REV. W. F. MATTHEWS, M. A., B. D., Principal Preparatory Department.

AN evidence of advancement in the work of Zion College is seen in the increasing ability of her students to endure the strain of solid, steady and protracted work in various lines of effort. In this, as in all other matters, we acknowledge the power of God and thank Him for the privileges He gives and the opportunities we have for growing and watching growth in others.

Some of our pupils on returning to work after the summer vacation felt called upon to acknowledge that they had not fully appreciated the privileges of Zion. After "rustling" in the world a little, and seeing the scrambling to succeed and the difficulties of living a godly life in the midst of an ungodly generation, they felt more than ever how good a thing it was to be surrounded by the best influences and to be permitted to advance in knowledge and power by the unfolding to the mind of the highest and grandest truth in all the various departments of learning as God reveals truth to us.

THERE CAN be no higher gratification or pleasure than in studying truth as it is presented to us in various forms of beauty and use.

TRUTH IS one: it is a unit. But it has many parts, all centering, however, in God as One, and manifested in Jesus Christ, who as God is the Truth as well as the Way and the Life.

BUT THE PARTS of truth have become scattered, and the work of man is to gather and put them together.

AS THE FINE fancy of Milton has it: Truth once came to the earth in the form of a radiant maiden, fair and beautiful to behold. But when men first saw her, they seized her and hacked her beautiful form to pieces and scattered the parts all over the earth. However, seeing what they had done, since then the effort has been to restore these parts to the original unity and bring back the lovely form to delight the eye and satisfy the mind and heart.

SO THE STUDY of truth becomes for us most fascinating and satisfying as we begin at the center, Christ, and study out in an ever-broadening circle, whose circumference is continually growing greater and whose area cannot be limited by any exact computation.

THE IMPORTANCE and value of Zion's work will be seen more and more in the fact that it centers and has its root in Christ as God—Very God of Very God—as the statement of the old council has it.

WE BELIEVE that Jesus Christ is God; that He not only has the truth, but that He is the Truth; and that as the Living Word, and living in the Word, He is the revelation and manifestation of God to the world of all ages.

SO THEN, to know Him is the highest and best of all knowledge; and to be in close relationship with Him is the most desirable of all things to be desired; and to be permitted to come to God through Him in prayer, and obtain answers to our prayers, is the greatest of all privileges.

ONE OF the most admired sayings of the old philosophers is the watchword, it might be called, of Socrates: "Know thyself."

BUT ZION'S MOTTO is higher still: "Know God" as revealed and manifested in Jesus Christ and as the center of all truth, whence comes to us life eternal.

OUR LORD Himself reveals to us the Way of Eternal Life through the truth when He says: "And this is life eternal, that they should know Thee the only true God, and Him whom Thou didst send, even Jesus Christ."

KNOWING GOD as manifested in Jesus Christ, we may then learn to know ourselves and the world of nature which God has made as a special manifestation of Himself though inferior to the manifestation in Christ. What we know of God in Christ pertains to the eternal life, and teaches us the way thereof.

OUR STUDY, then, has to do with subjects which are alive. They are instinct with life and action and power. "Because I live, ye shall live also." As we come to a Living Christ and study a living truth and Gospel, we are made more fully alive and active with power; and the closer we come into touch with this living truth, the more fully do we realize its meaning for all the earth, and the better prepared we are to present it to a needy and sinful world.

NOW, THIS principle may be applied to all subjects for study and is, we believe, in Zion by those who realize most fully the true meaning of the teaching God has given to Zion for the world. It will have its power more and more fully revealed as it is seen to be the teaching of the full truth of God through the Atonement of Jesus Christ.

WE BEGIN our studies thus with Christ as the center, and work out from Him; not separating from Him; but always coming back to Him as the center, just as the radii of a circle all return to the center from whatever circumference they may reach. And we aim always to be in such close relation with Him that we may ask Him for the things we need every day, and be assured that we shall have the things we ask for, because we love Him and keep His commandments.

WITH SUCH a foundation for work, what growth and power may we expect from Zion College. If we can all come into such spirit and continue therein, there will then be no wasted energy.

LET US therefore draw near with boldness unto the Throne of Grace, that we may receive mercy, and find grace to help us in time of need.—Hebrews 4:16.

THE Scriptures abound in God's promises of what He will do for those who come to Him for help. But they must come in faith, nothing doubting, and they must believe, not only that He is, but that He is a Rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

Paul tells us that sinners may even draw near with boldness to obtain mercy for sins.

They may obtain their pardon because it has already been purchased by the Son of God, "who His own self bare our sins in His body upon the tree, that we, having died unto sins, might live unto righteousness; by whose stripes ye were healed."—1 Peter 2:24.

We may also be delivered from evil habits of all kinds—profanity, the tobacco, morphine and liquor habits, etc., and the various vices which sin has fastened upon mankind; for Christ died that we might live unto righteousness.

The Atonement includes man's body also, to deliver it from sickness, for by Christ's stripes we were healed.

Let us then obey the apostles' injunction, and come with boldness unto the Throne of Grace and claim the heritage purchased for us and offered freely through the Son of God on condition that we forsake our sins and let Him reign over us.

Zion Teaching Carries Blessing into Africa.

The following letter is from a native preacher in Africa, who writes as follows:

REV. W. HAMNER PIPER.

Dear Overseer:—It is now about three months since I sent in my testimony and request for prayer, addressed to the General Overseer.

I have since received perfect healing of chronic constipation, and my troublesome chest complaint is not without gratifying signs of complete healing.

Before coming across a copy of LEAVES OF HEALING in September of last year, in what I consider a most peculiar way, I was a constant sufferer from this complaint since 1890, whenever it was cold weather; say four times each year.

But thank God and His Messenger, that since the gates of Zion were opened to me through LEAVES OF HEALING I have not been a constant sufferer.

My chest bone, which was dislocated through coughing, I am glad and thankful to say is going back.

I thank God, Dr. Dowie and all Zion.

I was a sufferer from sick headache from my childhood. Now Christ takes it away as soon as it makes any appearance.

My boy, whom I used to call Zion Junior, has been considerably blessed.

The last time he was made to use any medicine dates with mine, last March

He was healed of dysentery May 23, 1900.

In the early part of June he was attacked by a severe high fever.

He began to sink.

I prayed and prayed again, and the answer did not come.

In the night, about June 5th, the fever was so high that the slightest touch made him shrink with fear.

I then offered a most earnest, importunate petition. I afterward called it impertinent.

In less than five minutes the answer came.

The boy cried out, "Papa, give me something to eat."

I cried out "Halleluiah!" and gave him something. He ate it heartily. He had not been able to eat anything satisfactorily for about two days.

In the morning I praised God in that He had heard and answered my prayers.

My boy is now a stout, joyous little fellow.

Pray for us. Pray for the speedy establishment of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in this part of Africa.

I have determined to give my all, not withholding my life, for God.

We are very thankful for the Zion Literature Free Distribution Mission and for those free givers.

God is With Zion and All Who Fight Her Will Perish or Fail.

A brother in Pietermaritzburg, Natal, South Africa, writes:

With what joy I pen these lines to you to tell you what a blessing LEAVES OF HEALING has been to me. I shall contribute to the Fund for sending out the LEAVES when I get home, D. V., as I expect to leave South Africa soon.

Can you send a few rolls to the address given below? I wish to do all I can to bring a lost world to Christ.

I shall give out any literature that you may send to me, and pray that the people's eyes may be opened to see the farce of doctors, drugs, etc.

I have applied for membership in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and I hope to find a letter awaiting me when I get home, saying that I am accepted.

It rejoices my heart when I read of the perfect peace Zion has in all of the terrible persecutions through which she is going.

God is with Zion, and all who fight her will perish or fall.

I do thank God for His Messenger in these latter days, and for the blessings I receive through his ministry.

Yours till Jesus come, ERNEST COX.

God Answers Prayer for Fine Weather.

CRYSTAL, NORTH DAKOTA, November 15, 1900.

REV. W. H. PIPER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—I wrote to you about the first part of October and asked you to pray for fine weather.

It was raining so much we could not get our grain saved. It was growing in the shock.

I sent asking you to pray for fine weather. It was cloudy for a few days, but it did not rain, except for a fine mist.

Then it cleared up and we have had a beautiful fall. Everybody is through threshing now.

We thank God and all you dear people for your prayers. We know that God has founded Zion. (MRS.) ALEX. ROBINSON.

Quickly Given Victory Over the Devil.

55 SOUTH SEVENTH STREET,
KANSAS CITY, KANSAS, November 16, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER PIPER:—I write you this to inform you that the heavenly blessing came upon me on the next morning after I sent in to you for prayer.

I had quite a fight with the Devil, but I came out victorious.

Now I am happy.

I gratefully thank you for your prayers, giving God all the glory.

I am so thankful that we have such a Healer as Jesus.

I am, your Sister in Christ Jesus, HATTIE L. SPADER.

Death of the Disobedient; Healing of the Faithful.

Elder Silas Moot, writing from Lima, Ohio, November 15, 1900, said:

One of the young men who was at the head of the mob in Ada, nearly a year ago, died at his home in Bluffton, recently, from an ulcerated tooth. Blood-poisoning had set in.

Another Ada student asked me to pray for his ulcerated tooth, and he wrote me last week that it had not bothered him since.

Crowded Meetings and Miracles of Healing at the General Overseer's Meetings in Belfast, Ballymena and Londonderry. Good Beginning in Manchester. The United Kingdom Deeply Stirred.

THE General Overseer's regular weekly cablegram from Europe to Zion in Chicago and America on Lord's Day, November 18, 1900, was full of good things.

The thousands who heard it in Central Zion Tabernacle were rejoiced at Zion's continued victories in Great Britain.

The sentence "Serious conflicts ahead" caused many a heart to raise a fervent prayer to God to preserve and protect His servant and all with him from all harm.

Zion believes, with her General Overseer, that victory awaits Zion everywhere.

Hence Zion rejoices in the conflict that leads to victory.

The following is the cablegram:

THE EVERLASTING GOSPEL PROCLAIMED

Report of Meetings held in Divine Healing Home No. 1, October 2, 1894. Morning Talk: "The Divinity of Christ"; October 3, 1894. Morning Talk: "God's Willingness to Heal."

WE resume, this week, the series of Morning Talks delivered in Divine Healing Home No. 1, more than six years ago. God has greatly blessed the publication of these Talks. They contain, in simple, clear, unmistakable form, the foundation truths upon which the Everlasting Gospel of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living rests.

Especially valuable are they in the setting forth of Divine Healing, that part of the Gospel which was all but lost for so many centuries on account of unbelief.

This wonderful teaching, founded upon the everlasting Covenants of God, was at this time being brought to America for the first time with all its apostolic purity and power. God gave His servant mighty words, which quickly stirred the whole Continent.

These talks are published without the General Overseer's revision, on account of his absence in Europe.

May God continue to bless them as they go forth to the ends of the earth.

THE DIVINITY OF CHRIST.

Divine Healing Home No. 1, October 2, 1894.

After reading the eighth chapter of Matthew, Dr. Dowie said: The fifth, sixth and seventh chapters of Matthew contain that wondrous teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ which is called the Sermon on the Mount.

The fifth chapter speaks of Christ ascending into this Mount, sitting down on the slope of this hill near Capernaum, opening His mouth and speaking to His disciples. It may have been that this went on from day to day, and that the outline of this teaching which we have was really the outline of a continuous teaching of our Lord for perhaps days and weeks together.

Christ did not go about healing people promiscuously, just because they were sick. On the contrary, He went about first teaching, then preaching, then healing.

How a True Faith Comes.

Christ so laid the foundation of a True Faith.

True Faith does not come by praying for it. That is one of the great mistakes which people make. They think that they will get faith if they only pray for it.

There are many things which do not come by praying for them.

If you have Faith, it is the right thing to say as the disciples said, "Lord, increase our faith." That very word "increase" presupposes that they already had faith. It is good that Faith should be enlarged.

If I desire to get more gas from the main, I increase the size of the service from one or one and a half inches to two or three inches.

If I wish more water from the mains, I increase the size of my pipes, because the reservoir is ample, and the supply of water will be in exact proportion to the size of my pipes.

If I wish more Faith, I ask God to increase my faith so that instead of being like a one-sixteenth-inch pipe it may be a sixteen-inch pipe which connects me with God.

But there is no use putting a sixteen-inch pipe where a one sixteenth-inch pipe will do. God will not give large Faith to those who have not the capacity to use it. There must be wisdom, there must be knowledge, for large Faith in unwise, ignorant hands might cause some mischief. Large Faith is not exercised by people without Divine knowledge.

Some may lack human culture; they may lack what men call wisdom in connection with earthly things, but those who receive Divine Faith must have at all times large spiritual wisdom and large spiritual understanding. It is essential to increase Faith to increase wisdom and knowledge.

It would be a great injury for a great Faith to come to an unwise and ignorant person.

Some of the Conditions Upon Which Great Faith is Given.

Some people say they are filled up with faith. Yes, easily. It is easy to fill up a thimble, but not a large tank. Some people are easily filled up, and it is quite true they are full. It is not difficult to fill them, and not difficult to empty them.

The great thing is to get a large capacity.

"Lord, increase our Faith." The Lord will increase the Faith of every man whose heart is increased, who has asked for the first thing, wisdom, who has asked for that which wisdom has inspired, purity.

Wisdom from above is first pure.

Digitized by Google
Original from NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

The man who asks for power is not wise. Do not ask for power. Ask for purity. Ask that your heart may be made clean. That is better than power. Power will come when the heart is clean. God will not pour His richest blessings into an unclean heart.

Faith will not come, and has not come, and never did come, in any other way than in God's Way.

So faith cometh of hearing, and hearing by the Word of Christ.

Many people have prayed for Faith to be healed, and have not gotten it.

It is the entrance of God's Word which gives light. It is the Word of God which imparts Faith. You must hear and receive the Word of God and obey God if you would have Faith.

Faith in Its Very Essence is Obedience.

There are five principles in connection with Faith, one might say five aspects of a Divine Faith, to which I wish to call your attention briefly.

Faith has five aspects, or distinct steps: Perceptive Faith, seeing Jesus; Receptive Faith, receiving Jesus; Retentive Faith, holding fast to Jesus; Active Faith, working for Jesus; Passive Faith, rest in Jesus.

The highest form of Faith is that of perfect passivity, resting in the Lord.

It is only in so far as the multitudes listen to Jesus that they can ever receive light.

Jesus said, "The flesh profiteth nothing." The fleshly preaching which men often indulge in does not profit any. Some men compose a sermon with a little bit of Longfellow and William Cullen Bryant; here and there a quotation from Tennyson; a few extracts from scientific writers such as Huxley and Darwin; a little bit of Scripture, a little bit of the man himself and a great many metaphors and illustrations and allegories. That may be a sermon as men count it, but that is not teaching or preaching.

The Word of the Living God is the only thing which will inspire Faith. You can go on with the kind of preaching I have described, and the world will go on its way. Such preaching creates infidelity.

Ministers of Christ Are Not Sent to Speak Their Thoughts.

Ministers of Christ are ambassadors who are to speak exactly what they are told to speak. They have no right to vary their words. The ambassador at a foreign court representing the United States of America has no right whatever to alter his message by one single dot of an "i."

The President and the Cabinet at Washington give absolute instructions to the Minister to England at the Court of St. James. When that Minister asks for an audience with the Prime Minister, he does so in the name of the Government of the United States. When he gets that audience, he is an Ambassador.

He does not tell the Premier what he thinks.

The Premier does not care one single iota what the minister thinks personally about one single question of State, the Behring Sea Question, for instance. He wishes to know from that minister what the instructions from his government are.

When the minister receives instructions from his government, he keeps to that and that alone. His own private opinion may be something exactly the opposite. His business is to give the message sent from Washington by his government. If he does not keep to the message given by his government, he is recalled and relegated to private life.

Ambassadors of Christ have no right to preach what they think nor what any man on God's earth thinks. The only thing which I, or any other minister of Christ, is sent to preach is what God thinks, what God says; therefore what Jesus says.

Faith will always come by hearing the Word of God.

Faith will never come by listening to the opinions of men, for there are almost as many opinions as there are men.

Human Opinion is Not a Safe Foundation for Divine Faith.

You cannot get a Divine Faith out of human opinion. Human opinion is like the wind. Human opinion is from the North one day and the South another, and boxes the whole compass, perhaps, inside of a month. Opinion is not worth a pin in itself.

The trouble with men is that they are in perpetual bondage because they are listening to this opinion and that opinion, while the mind of God is not studied.

My private opinion is in perfect accord with God's stated Word. I have no private opinion which differs from God's Word. God's Word is absolute. My opinion is of no consequence if other than God's Word.

"Faith cometh by hearing."

These multitudes sat listening to Christ hour after hour and day after day.

He did not seem to say much about Divine Healing in that sermon. He did not say much about Divine Salvation as some men preach it today. He told them of the narrow and broad ways. You will notice that the discourse, from beginning to end, is practically an exposition of the difference between good and evil, and a statement as to what is good and what is evil. The discourse closes with a parable which makes that very clear. It is the parable of the two housebuilders: the man who hears what Christ says and does not do it, and the man who does do it.

The one built on the sand a house quickly put together, but when the tempest came it was quickly and forever swept away.

The other dug deep and laid his foundation on the rock, taking pains with his building, and when the tempest came his house was not shaken. The tempest passed by and the house stood untouched, an emblem of human life.

A man who builds his life upon human opinion and what people think, who hears what Christ says and goes away and does not do it, that man builds his house on the sand and will be swept away.

But the man who builds his house on Christ the Rock will not be shaken.

He stands strong and will abide forever.

The Wonderful Claim of Christ.

Christ, in His teaching, therefore, demanded of these people that they should recognize in Him the absolute embodiment of God Himself. He made the tremendous and awful claim that He, a man, sitting there on that mountain side, dressed in the ordinary apparel of men, born of Mary in Bethlehem, was not man as other men were; that He had no human father; that He was the Son of God; that He was the embodiment in the flesh of God Himself; that He was the Wonderful, the Counsellor, the Everlasting Father, the Mighty God, the Prince of Peace; that He who sat there was the King of Glory, of whose dominion and government there could be no end.

Although He was sitting there talking to them as other men, He talked to them with a power with which no other man could talk.

He spake in words which no other man could utter.

He was a man, speaking in the language of men, and speaking with great simplicity so that the common people could understand what He said; and yet He said that He was not a man, but God Himself manifest in the flesh.

He demanded that they should recognize in Him the Messiah; that He was God; that the Father dwelt in Him; that the Eternal Spirit dwelt in Him, and that He, the Son of Man, was the preëxistent Word which was in the beginning with God.

He demanded that they should believe that He had made all things and all men; that the earth on which He stood, He had created in the beginning to come into being by the Word of His power.

He demanded that they should recognize His absolute Divinity. Unless that is clearly understood, you do not understand anything about Christ.

The Divinity of Christ the Essential Thing in Divine Teaching.

It was this claim to Divinity, and it is the claim to Divinity, which is the essential thing in connection with Divine teaching. If Christ is not God, then our Faith is in vain; then He never rose from the dead by the Holy Spirit's power; then He never could have made atonement for our sins. He would have His own sins to atone for if He were only a man.

If Christ is not God, He is not the Eternal Sun of Righteousness, but only a mere temporary light which appeared and went out nineteen centuries ago.

O dark, dark indeed would the world be to me if I thought that Christ were dead.

I read of a man who had an awful dream of the dead Christ. He was seeking for God and could not find Him. He was seeking for Christ and could not find Him. He was away out there in the starry spaces at the uttermost bounds of all creation. There He saw the dead Christ lift up His hands and cry, "There is no God."

He looked away into the dark spaces, and heard the chaotic rumblings of matter on matter, worlds crashing on worlds. Then he awoke and was glad when he found that it was a dream.

There is nothing more horrible to think of than that Christ is not God.

There is nothing more dreadful to think of than to think that the Gospel is a lie and Christ the prince of liars.

If Christ was inspired by Beelzebub, as the Jews said, O! what a blank would this earth be; for without that life and hope of Christ, there is hope nowhere on earth and nowhere beyond it.

The Awful Condition of the World Unless Christ Is God.

If Christ is not risen, there is no resurrection; if Christ is not gone to heaven to prepare a place for God's children, there is no preparation.

If Christ did not bear my sins, then I cannot bear them.

If Christ did not bring salvation, then I cannot be saved.

If men do not recognize in Christ the Eternal God, they have no God anywhere but their bellies; they have no God anywhere but in continually changing human opinions; they have no god anywhere except the gods of the heathen, who have eyes and do not see, ears and do not hear, and feet which do not walk. Such gods have no heart, and those who make them are like unto them.

O, what a blank, what a horrid night it would be, if Christ were not God!

He is God, and only when men fall at His feet and say, "My Lord and my God," can they be blessed.

Christ lays the foundation of His teaching, therefore, in Himself. He makes Himself the Foundation of all saving and healing and cleansing and quickening and guiding and instructing and providing power.

Everything is in Christ.

All the treasures of wisdom and of knowledge are in Him.

Of Him and to Him and through Him are all things.

Christ is the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end, He that liveth and was dead.

We know He lives. We know He lives with us; for His Name is Immanuel, God with us.

We know He lives; for He said, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

We know He lives; for He is in us by the Spirit, the Hope of Glory.

He cannot die, and because He lives, we live.

These great fundamental truths are the foundation of everything.

Listening to Christ's Sermon, and inspired by some such thoughts as these which I have endeavored to give expression, was a man, hidden, perhaps, from observation. If they had seen him they would have driven him from their presence. He was a leper.

The Blessing of Christ's Untrammeled, Open-Air Ministry.

If Christ had not been an open-air preacher, the leper would never have been healed.

Many of His ministers today confine their ministry to two short sermons on Sunday, strictly limited to thirty minutes. If they run over the time, the dinner will get cold, and the housewife will get into a great trouble.

These ministers open what they call His churches on Sunday morning and talk mostly what they think or what somebody else thinks.

There are some exceptions, for there are many men who are faithful to God and conscientious to Christ today on earth. But the majority have entered into Christ's ministry as a profession. To them it is nothing more than a ministerial or professional office which gives them social position and money and a power of the kind they most care for.

I speak not merely of Rome, whose ministers are hypocrites, for there is not a Priest in existence who believes he can manufacture God with a pair of tongs out of dough.

There is no one in existence, not even the Pope himself, who believes in the infallibility of the Pope. Men cannot make an infallible Pope out of a fallible Bishop. You could just as easily create a man out of a woman by declaring that she was a man.

No declaration of a council of women could make any woman a man, no declaration of a council of men could make a man a woman.

No declaration of any council or election by any conclave can make a fallible man an infallible Pope.

The Church of God today is not merely apostate in the Roman Church, but it is apostate in Protestant churches. Men have created for themselves

A New Infallibility.

The Westminster Confession of Faith is so infallible in the Presbyterian Church, that if a man dares to utter a definition not in accord with that he is thrust out of the Church of God. The Lord have mercy on men who make a God out of their own definitions.

Miss Amanda Hicks, of Clinton College, Kentucky, was healed this year in Divine Healing Home No. 3. She was brought up on a stretcher, dying. She was declared to be beyond human power except by an almost impossible operation. No one knew where to begin with such an operation, inasmuch as the cancerous tumor had spread and was filling all the alimentary region.

She was instantaneously and permanently healed.

She returned and was received with enthusiasm by her students in the place where she had been twenty years principal.

She is a cousin of the late President Lincoln.

She had received no salary for these twenty years.

She had brought many donations to the college and was waiting for the time when the college could afford to give back to her something of what she had brought to it.

It was a Baptist college. That denomination is so careful to declare that it maintains allegiance to the Word of God, that you would have thought every minister there would have stood by her in her testimony.

Cowardly Apostasy of Baptist Ministers.

But when she declared with great joy that she was healed, they gathered together and, after discussing the matter, declared against Divine Healing, of which they knew nothing, and gave Miss Hicks the option of resigning the principalship of Clinton College, Kentucky, or holding her peace about Divine Healing. As she would not promise to be still, they told her to resign her position. They drove her out of the Baptist Church because she had dared to tell them that she had been healed by God, when she was dying. The ministers who joined in that are apostate just as much as the ministers who nineteen centuries ago rejected Christ.

There is more sympathy for Divine Healing among Roman Catholic priests than there is among Protestant ministers.

Frequently I hear from Roman Catholics that they have gone to their Priests and in confession have said to them, "Father, there is a good man down at Woodlawn, near the World's Fair, who is praying with the sick and they are healed. Would you advise me to go?"

Again and again, the Priest in confession has said, "My son, my daughter, he is a good man and you will get healed."

Bitter Opposition of Protestant Ministers to Divine Healing.

There is more hope today for Divine Healing among the apostate Priests of the Church of Rome than there is among many Protestant ministers. I have received less sympathy and less help from Protestant ministers than from any other class in the community.

There has not been one church in this city opened for me to preach in. I have preached in other cities, in other States and other lands, filling all pulpits. In Toronto I preached in every church except the Episcopal and the Roman Catholic.

The Protestants are intensely bitter against Divine Healing, prejudiced and wicked, making statements concerning ourself and this ministry which are entirely at variance with fact; stating that I claim power to heal, which I never did.

The Foundation of all Faith is not in the Church.

The Church of God herself must rest her faith in Christ.

Worship of Christ as Divine, the Key to Healing.

The leper whom we have kept a long time waiting, was a Jew. If Christ had not been an open-air preacher, he never would have gotten this teaching. He heard Christ assert His Divinity and fell at His feet and worshiped Him.

There is the key to all the healing that followed.

Unless he had worshiped Him he would never have been healed..

The moment a man recognizes Christ as God, he has taken that step which brings him at once into fellowship with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ. That is the step of a true conversion.

When the Ethiopian eunuch said, "Behold, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?" Philip said, "If thou believest with all thy heart, thou mayest." And he answered and said, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."

Philip then baptized him on his profession of absolute faith that Christ was the Son of God.

When a man casts his sins, his sorrows and sicknesses and all his needs on Christ, he finds perfect deliverance.

Now this poor leper came out of the crowd to Jesus.

The discourse was over. The crowd was going down the mountain paths back to Capernaum. This poor leper saw his opportunity would soon be gone, as he saw that Christ had closed perhaps His last discourse.

Jesus and the Leper.

That thought made the leper rush forth amidst all these people. With the cry compelled by the law, "Unclean, Unclean," he rushed through the crowd asking, "Where is Jesus?" Then, perhaps, seeing Him, he ran straight to where He was and threw himself on that mountain path, crying, "Unclean." The others left him. Nobody wanted to touch him except One.

There are many today who are so sick and defiled that nobody wants to touch them except the Christ of God, or one who has His Spirit within.

Sometimes I see such defilements and such loathsome diseases that my flesh would shrink. The grace within me speaks and I want to touch and want to help, so I lay my hands upon every kind of sickness and disease, including leprosy

One case only do I know of the healing of leprosy. It was a case of black leprosy.

Jesus longed to help the leper, and the leper knew it. Through that crowd he pressed and fell at His feet and worshiped. Then he began to pray for his healing. But he prayed in a way in which no one ought to pray. Yet it was a very beautiful prayer.

The Word "If" Has No Place in Prayers for Healing.

There was one word in it which Christ had to take away. It is that word in his prayer, which people continue to repeat, which makes a prayer ineffectual.

The leper said, "Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean."

In that prayer everything was right except one word.

It was right to say "Lord." That recognized Christ's supremacy. "Thou canst make me clean," recognized Christ's ability.

"If Thou wilt" indicated doubt, uncertainty. He was not sure, so he said, "If Thou wilt."

The Master, who was then only developing His mission, in His infinite compassion took away that "if" by replying to him, "I will." The moment He said "I will," the "if" went out of the leper's prayer.

The "if" must go out of your prayer and you must say "Thou wilt." Take it out.

The leper never prayed "If Thou wilt" but once. The "if" was taken away by the declaration of Christ's "I will."

He who said "I will" is Jesus Christ, who is the same yesterday, today and forever.

He is just as willing today as He was nineteen centuries ago. If He is not as willing today as nineteen centuries ago, then He is changed.

Jesus the Unchanging Healer.

The Word of God is true. Christ has not changed. He is the same unchangeable and unchanging. "I am the Lord, I change not."

Under the Ancient Dispensation God said: "I am the Lord that healeth thee." "I am the Lord, I change not."

Under the New, the Word says: "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever." That links the Old and New Testaments.

Jesus came to destroy the works of the Devil, and disease is one of them.

There is no other Healer. God has never provided any other healing. You may search the Bible from Genesis to Revelation and nowhere will you find, "Is any among you sick, let him call for a doctor."

In no part of that Word are physicians well spoken of. They were referred to with contempt as "physicians of no value."

Doctors themselves, today, have no confidence in their medicine and no confidence in their conglomeration of absurdities called science.

I declare that there is only one Saviour and Healer. The Church of God has no right to turn aside and seek a system which cannot heal, but fills you with digitalis, nux vomica, arsenicum and strychnia.

Many are forsaking God, the Fountain of living waters.

I am sure that God's Word is true. If He said "I will," nineteen centuries ago, He is willing to heal you if you fulfil the conditions of a true Repentance toward God: the putting away of every sin, making a vow to do right in God's sight and keeping it.

Bring forth fruits meet for Repentance, and exercise simple faith in Christ, and in Christ alone. Then you are God's children and have a right to ask your Father for what you want and to go to Him with an unswerving faith, with absolute confidence that He is willing to heal. Then you can get healing.

Some Recent Healings.

This little girl received healing Monday night. She had not walked for six and a half years. Now she is able to stand and walk.

We were so glad last night to see among the men so many healings. Seven who had been suffering from rheumatism were healed.

They had been suffering from sixteen months to six and seven years. There was a very remarkable case of a man who stood who had been deaf from his childhood. You heard him get his hearing.

He had been able to talk for many years. I shouted into his ear, "God is Love," and he said in such a touching voice, "Did you say 'God is love'?"

We have a little girl here who has not heard for twelve years. She now hears and talks.

This is God's truth. I would believe that Christ is the Healer if there were not one healed in Chicago.

God said it. "I am the Lord that healeth thee." I believed it before I saw anybody healed.

I believed before He healed me, that He would heal me even when I was dying.

The Lord is the same Lord.

Thirty years have passed away, and I have been able to do something for Christ every day since.

The meeting was then closed by prayer and the

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

GOD'S WILLINGNESS TO HEAL.

Divine Healing Home No. 1, October 3, 1894.

Dr. Dowie said: In the course of our exposition of the Gospel according to St. Matthew, we have reached the eighth chapter, which is, as it happens, the very central point of all the teaching in Divine Healing. We use it again and again, hundreds of times in a year. We have found it to be the passage which in exposition has been the most helpful throughout the many years of our mission.

Dr. Dowie then read the first seventeen verses of the eighth chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew.

I will begin today the discussion of the willingness of the Lord to heal, but I will not conclude what I have to say; for upon that question hinges the whole subject of Divine Healing.

To Know God's Will is the Most Important Thing.

The most important of all things is to know absolutely what the will of God is.

There are no more precious words to me in the Holy Word of God than these two words of God, "I will," in whatever connection they come.

It is written of Christ in prophetic Scripture, and He Himself says it:

In the roll of the Book it is written of Me:
I delight to do Thy will, O My God;
Yea, Thy law is within My heart.

To those who are truly Christ's, the first and the most supreme thing is to know what the will of God is. The next thing is, in so far as that will directs us either to do or to abstain, to do that will.

Unless the law of God is absolutely within the heart, the law of God will not be pleasing. But if the law of God is in the heart, the supremest joy is to do the will of God, or to abstain from doing things which are contrary to the will of God.

When the natural man receives God, he gets spiritual discernment. He gets spiritual power to see the glory and the beauty and the power of the blessed will of God and the joy and happiness which must come by conformity to that will. Power not only to discern, but power to do, and delight in doing, God's will, becomes the supreme joy of the life.

I think every one who has made any advance in spiritual life will recognize this as his experience.

Divine Healing is Absolutely the Will of God.

In this matter of Divine Healing we have nothing to teach except the absolute will of God.

Although I might not be able to see why, if God said that it was His will that I should be sick, I should want to be sick, because He would know what was best. But God has uttered no such thing.

Divine Healing is on exactly the same plane as Divine Salvation.

When a sinner comes to God for Salvation, there is no portion of the Christian Church which would say to that sinner, "Go to your Father and say to Him, 'Father, I have sinned against Heaven and in Thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called Thy son. If Thou art willing, please take me back into Thy favor, O God, and if not, then take me and send me back to the swine's trough. Send me to perdition, that Thou mayest be glorified in my damnation just as much as in my salvation. Father, let Thy will be done; and if it is Thy will to send me to hell, send me to hell.'"

You could not imagine that such a prayer as that would be a right prayer.

You could not imagine that any portion of the Church of Christ would teach such a prayer.

Why should not that prayer be offered? The answer would come back, because the will of God is declared plainly in His Word, saying:

The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness; but is longsuffering to youward, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

The will of God is declared plainly that Christ tasted death for every man.

Jesus said, "Him that cometh unto Me, I will in no wise cast out."

The Word of God declares that every sinner can find salvation, and that Christ suffered not only for the sins of His own people, but for the sins of the whole world.

The desire of God is that the whole world shall be blessed.

No man is damned unless he elects to be damned. No man will find his way to hell unless he chooses to find his way there. If any one desires to find God, that man must find his way to heaven by God's Grace. God is intensely willing that he shall.

We therefore say to the man who is affected with sin, "Go to God; do not be afraid; He is your Father; you are His son. If you have spent all in riotous living and come to Him with only the dregs of your existence, if you will only cast yourself on His mercy, He has never sent away a sinner who has truly repented of his sin; therefore come and seek His mercy. He is willing to save you."

It is our duty to speak to sinners in some such way as that.

We Must Prove That Divine Healing is God's Will.

In exactly the same way are we to speak to the sick. We are to say to them, "There is nothing plainer than that it is the absolute will of God to heal you."

"Give us," they cry, "not merely the assertion, but the proof of such an assertion."

That proof it is our duty to give. It is of no use making assertions without advancing proof. There is no use of making assertions unless you prove them to be reasonable and justified. God Himself has declared that He desires to reason with His people. He has said, "Come now, and let us reason together."

We Are to Present Our Bodies to God, Acceptable for His Service.

As declared, in this connection, by the pen of the Apostle Paul, it is His absolute will that we should present these bodies unto Him. Paul says:

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service. And be not fashioned according to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

The declaration is made that it is a reasonable service to present the body to God; that it is an acceptable service unto God.

God desires the body as a living sacrifice. He wishes to make it holy.

We have a right to present our bodies to God that He may sanctify them and cleanse them from every particle of pollution, so that they may be vessels unto honor, sanctified and made meet for the Master's use and prepared to be used in every good work.

These treasures of Divine grace which God has given to us in spirit are contained, like our spirits themselves, within an earthen vessel. If the communication of God's Grace is to be effective to humanity, the earthen vessel by means of which that communication is made must be clean. If the vessel is impure, it is simple common sense that, no matter how clean water you put into that vessel, the impurity of the vessel will taint and pollute the water and make it undrinkable.

So it is with the service of God. The Grace of God flowing into our spirits is impeded when we have an unclean body. There is not the same full, free, large and perfect life that there would be if that body were clean and free. Yet I will say that a Christian may live a Christian life and be sick. We know large numbers of those impure in body, unclean in body, very sick, who are truly God's children. But the Grace of God does not flow through them to others in such purity and power as it would if they were in sound bodies.

A Diseased Body is an Impediment to One's Work for God.

The spirit itself is beclouded and the thoughts are diverted, and the whole of the living stream of God's own life in you is in a manner tainted by disease. You cannot live or think or act as you would wish to.

Therefore it must be, and it is, the will of God that the body should be presented to Him as a reasonable service. There is nothing more reasonable than that if we are to serve God in these bodies, these bodies should be clean.

It makes a great difference to a man when teaching whether he has severe catarrh in the head or not. If a man's head is full of catarrh and his lungs weakened by disease and all the miseries consequent upon a tuberculous condition, that man must be impeded in giving to others the abounding life of God.

There is no use of such a man speaking of life for the spirit, life for the soul and for the body when he is scarcely able to utter the words, and is most manifestly a victim to the violence of disease. His testimony is injured.

I believe that the reason why Christian people are impeded very much in their ministry to others is because they have not presented their bodies to God and their bodies are not cleansed.

Starting with that thought, I desire to prove to you from the Word of God and from sound reasoning—because this is a reasonable service—that it cannot be the will of God that we should be sick.

I will take the negative side today: that it cannot be the will of God that His children should be diseased.

In the first place, consider this: Jesus would never have entered into this world had there been no sin.

Disease and Death the Products of Sin and Satan.

Sin is the work of the Devil. Disease and Death are the results of Sin, therefore Disease and Death are products, so to speak, of Father Satan and Mother Sin.

No one who has any belief in the inspiration of the Scriptures can seriously question that fundamental position.

Disease is simply death in an incipient form. Disease is working death. The declaration was made by God that in the day that man sinned he should die, or "dying thou shalt die."

As a matter of fact, Adam and Eve did not die for many long centuries. They both lived on beyond the Fall after being driven from the Garden of Eden. Sons and daughters were born unto them, yet the Word of God was true that in the day they ate, dying they should die; for in that very day that they ate, sin entered into them. The moment that sin entered, disease came with it. That was the form which death assumed.

Death immediately entered by means of sin, and, therefore, disease is simply death in its initial stage.

You will find that made abundantly clear by the fact that up to the time that Adam and Eve sinned in the Garden of sinless innocence, they were not conscious of any climatic difficulties. But after they hid themselves from the face of God, they realized that they were naked. They were ashamed, and they needed covering because the elements were against them.

Sin had entered and sin had polluted the earth.

Sin had entered, and into the very element of the air Satan and the evil hosts had come.

Satan, the "Prince of the Power of the Air."

When sin entered, the way was opened from hell to earth and vast numbers of evil spirits trooped up from the depths of hell and took possession not merely of the earth, but of the air. In the Scripture, Satan is revealed to us distinctly as the "Prince of the Power of the Air, the spirit that now worketh in the sons of disobedience."

That spirit is not only the god of this world, but he blinds the eyes of those who believe in the light of the Gospel.

Not only has Satan very large powers upon the solid earth, but he has immense power in the very air itself and in the unseen skies above us.

That is not an assertion merely, that is a fact. You will see, for instance, in the Book of Daniel, that the prophet is told by the angel that he was impeded in coming from heaven to earth, although sent forth by God Himself, because of opposition on the way. It is one of the most remarkable passages of this kind in Scripture, and gives a very clear account of this angel having had to fight his way through:

Then said He unto me, Fear not, Daniel; for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to humble thyself before thy God, thy words were heard: and I am come for thy words' sake. But the Prince of the Kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days; but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me: and I remained there with the kings of Persia.

That "Prince of Persia" was not an earthly prince, because he had to get some help of another kind. It was a withstanding in the heavens itself.

There are many indications in the Scripture that Satan has divided his kingdom very cleverly, and has appointed demons to preside over nations to tempt kings and peoples.

There were good angels who watched over Persia, as well as evil angels.

A Twenty-One Days' Battle in the Upper Air.

You see this angel had been sent forth, and it took one and twenty days for him to get there.

If the "Prince of Persia" had been a mere man, he could not have hindered the angel at all.

It would be impossible for any man to keep back an angel of God.

If any angel of God wished to get into this house, there is no doorkeeper who could keep him out. This "Prince" was the Devil, who with his hosts had power to block the way and make it a matter of great difficulty for the angel of God to get to Daniel, no less than twenty-one days of fighting having taken place.

Michael, the archangel, is always represented in Scripture as the great military angel who contended with Satan about the body of Moses. He was the great military angel in charge of the hosts of heaven. He swept the hosts of hell away to let this angel through with God's Message.

You will find quite numerous references in the Scripture to the fact that the air is in possession of the Devil. For instance, the Devil went out and wrought up a great wind out of the wilderness and brought down the house of Job's sons about their ears and killed them all.

The Devil tried to destroy Christ by a wind; for when Christ was lying asleep in the hinder part of the ship, the Devil caused a great storm. The apostles and Christ Himself were in great danger.

The Devil may have said, "I have great power in the elements, and I will drive that ship to the bottom of the Sea of Galilee."

The disciples awoke Christ and said: "Master, carest Thou not that we perish?"

Christ arose and looked around upon the winds and the waves. He did not say, "Oh waves, you are obeying My Father's will; oh wind and waves, pile on; you are doing right." Standing in the ship, He rebuked the winds and the waves and said with a commanding voice, "Peace, be still." Therefore He rebuked the power which lashed them into fury and commanded that power, the Prince of the Power of the Air, who was endeavoring to sink the vessel, to be still. That is the plain English of it.

Destructive Storms Not the Work of God.

It has always been to me an exceedingly pleasant thing to know that I do not have to credit God with these terrible storms. I read the other day of a terrific cyclone, in a certain city, which tore up the buildings and destroyed men and women and children and cattle and created great devastation.

That was not the work of the Almighty God. That was not the work of a Holy, Beneficent Being.

That was the work of demoniac power.

The atmosphere is in a distorted and horrible condition for the most part. It is either too hot or too cold much of the time, and when we have a nice day and begin to feel that the weather is beautiful, up comes the Devil with another storm and some trouble somewhere. Hence it is a joy to me, and has been in my voyages across the great wide sea, to know that in every storm and in every tempest I could hear the voice of demons, high above the storm and tempest, but I could call upon my God and hear His Voice across the waters and above the tempest saying, "Peace, be still."

God Delivers From the Power of the Storm Demon.

I have cried to Him often and often in the midst of the sea, and He has heard.

Our vessel once had been dismasted, through the carelessness of one who had neglected it. The vessel was also on fire, and the fire was nearing the powder magazine.

In one case, on the coast of New Zealand, our screw broke. We were approaching the rocks not far from where a great mountain lifts its head. There, where steamer after steamer and vessel after vessel had been wrecked, we were in danger of being wrecked. The wind was driving us ashore toward the rocks which we could not escape. There was an absolute certainty that many would be lost unless the direction of the wind changed.

I have prayed to God in such seasons as these and He has altered the winds. I give all the glory to God.

When the first fire took possession of the buildings in the World's Fair grounds, only a few hundred yards away from Zion Tabernacle, there was a strong southeast wind blowing. The embers were driven over to this Avenue and were beginning to set fire to the sheds in many places. I took up a piece of burning wood three or four feet long. I saw very clearly that the houses on this Avenue and our Tabernacle would be destroyed by fire unless God intervened.

I called my household together in 6036 Edgerton Avenue. After having gone over to investigate the position, I said that it would be vain for us to take our things out and attempt to escape, because the whole region would be burned down unless God altered the wind.

I did not permit anything to be taken out of the house, but went in to prayer and asked God to alter the wind.

God Changes the Wind in Answer to Prayer, and Saves a City From Destruction.

When we arose from prayer about twenty minutes afterwards, the wind, which had been in the southeast, had changed to the northwest. The flames were driven out into the lake with terrific violence.

If that wind had continued, with the immense mass of inflammable material in these buildings, that conflagration might have gone on until there would not have been any Chicago.

I claim no glory, but I am simply telling what is the truth.

I take that story as an illustration. There are scores of persons who know that is true.

When the next fire took place, which burned down the greater part of the buildings, the wind was in the right quarter and we prayed God to keep it that way. It never wavered from the southwest.

Skeptical persons may say that the wind which had begun with the fire in one quarter was bound to shift around. If so, why did it not shift around the second time when we prayed that it should stay where it was? I give as much glory to God for keeping it in the same direction the second time as I did in the first time for shifting it around.

Once on the New Zealand coast, the wind was blowing strongly from the northeast and driving us toward the rocks. After prayer and a conversation with the Captain, and finding where we were, breakers in sight, we were driven by a strong northwest wind right out to sea. We were enabled to spend two days in repairing our propeller shaft. We got up to Auckland two days late, but all safe.

The question of the atmosphere being in charge of the Devil, very largely, is a very important point.

The Devil Carries Disease in the Wind.

This plague of grip from which many of you are suffering traveled with the wind. I watched it. I was upon the Pacific Coast at the time. I noticed by the telegrams when it had reached Russia.

When it had reached Eastern Europe I began to say, "It is coming to the West; you will find presently Germany, France and all the countries on the west coast of Europe will be included. It will reach England and come over to the United States. It will come by the road of the wind."

I watched it with great care. It came with the rate of the wind. It was not connected with the climatic conditions of any particular country. After it had passed over the United States of America and passed out of the Golden Gate, it went down into the South Seas and struck the inhabitants of islands in the warm latitudes. Then it came to Australia and went back to the home from which it had come, which, in my humble judgment, was hell.

It was filthy and horrid and most deadly in its nature. In this City of Chicago, when I came here later, there was a second attack of it in the winter of 1891. Three years ago there were 1000 persons a week died in Chicago. It was in the very atmosphere.

The atmosphere itself is laden with this disease. A pestilence walking in darkness, it is a destruction wasting at noonday. Smallpox and cholera are nothing to it.

When it came my way, I said, "I will not fight it; because You have given me a promise: 'A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee.'"

One day it seemed to strike me. I just went to God and it went as quick as a flash. I did not have it at all in the midst of all that plague.

I was able to attend to all my duties and do the work devolving upon me. Yet in going in and out from Evanston, I saw men dying. Nearly all were going about sneezing, coughing.

That was in the air. That came either from God or from the Devil.

It Would Be Impossible to Love a God Who Would Send Such a Pestilence.

If it came from God, I do not love God. If that came from God, I cannot love God. It would be impossible for me to love Him. I could not call Him a God of Infinite Love who would torture, fill with disease and make miserable His own creatures. I could not love one who would devastate homes as was done in this city, depriving children of fathers and depriving wives of husbands.

Strong men were laid low in a few hours, and there are weeping widows in all classes of society.

Those who have escaped death are suffering blighting disease as a result of the disease.

Why I have taken so much time this morning is to elaborate the point and make it strong, that the Devil is the Prince of the Power of the Air, and that the many diseases which come in the air have a diabolical origin. Some of them may be traced to the sin of man, but that shows a diabolical origin still.

For instance, suppose you take cholera and trace its origin, as you can, to the filthiness of the pilgrims at Mecca, who actually drink water full of cholera germs and die in thousands beside the sacred well. These people carry on the work of the Devil, for the Mohammedan religion, root and branch, is the work of the Devil.

In one form or another, even where we cannot trace it, we can always be sure of it, the Devil is at the bottom of every disease and every pestilence.

Every storm which devastates and distorts is the Devil's work. There will be no pestilence or devastating storms in heaven.

Meanwhile the Devil has tremendous power in this world. The only ones to escape are the people who can do God's will.

Christ Will Usher in New Heavens and a New Earth.

Now, inasmuch as Christ came to destroy the works of the Devil, He came to destroy every atom of disease in the air. My judgment is that the day will come when the earth will be purified and the air will be purified, and the Devil and his hosts will be sent back to hell, where they belong. On that day there will be "a new heaven and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness." There will be no death, no disease, no political bosses and no Board of Death. Cities will be clean.

The cities are full of disease because of the inability of the poor people to pay for cleaning which contractors are paid to do and neglect. Dirt and muck is left in the poorer part of the city, and then disease extends to the richer part of the city.

The Devil generates disease in the air in a thousand ways. Some ways are inscrutable to us.

I do not know how far volcanic action may be traced to diabolical power, but in my judgment it is traceable to that power.

The destruction, for instance, of thousands of lives in New Zealand by a volcano was a diabolical act. It was not God's act at all.

I do not believe that God creates blind forces and leaves us to be the sport of them. I believe what the Bible says, that this world is a world largely in possession of the Devil.

The Great Fight is for the Spiritual, Psychical and Physical Deliverance of Humanity From the Devil.

The great fight going on is not merely for the spiritual deliverance of the people, but for their psychical and physical deliverance, and the deliverance of the earth itself from the bondage of the Devil. Although the fight seems long, yet one day with the Lord is as a thousand years, and He may fight a thousand years more to drive out the Devil.

I solemnly believe, notwithstanding all the allegations of science, which would give me some materialistic origin of these things, that they have a spiritual origin, an origin in the Devil.

That is the teaching of the Word of God. That is a very important point, and the more you think of it the more you will see it.

Read the Coming City.

For all matters pertaining to the founding and building of Zion City, there is no source of information, complete and reliable, but THE COMING CITY. The story of Zion City is being and will be told in its pages, both by descriptive articles and by engravings from photographs. The paper also contains much other interesting matter, such as science notes, household suggestions, special articles on matters of interest to Zion people, and the news of the day.

The paper also contains four pages of advertisements, carefully selected, most of the advertisers being Zion people. It is important that every member of Zion should get THE COMING CITY, not only for the valuable information which it will contain, but for these advertisements. By reading them they will learn who are the Zion business men and thus be able to coöperate with each other.

Zion people should be glad to go a little out of their way to trade at a Zion shop. Zion money is thus kept in Zion instead of going to fill the coffers of the world's people, and each feels the influence of the increase in general prosperity.

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

THE COMING CITY will be sent, postpaid, for $1 for the first thirteen numbers. Address subscriptions to Zion Publishing House, 1207 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, U. S. A.

ZION COLLEGE LECTURES ON PRAYER.

A Series Delivered Before the Students of Zion College by the President, Rev. John Alexander Dowie, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

THE world today has learned that there is something far beyond the ordinary in the words and works of God's Messenger to Zion, John Alexander Dowie.

As this realization comes to the public, the first question always is, "How does he do it? What is the secret of his power?"

Those who know the General Overseer and have heard and heeded his teaching know that the power belongs to God. But the General Overseer is wonderfully used by God, as an instrument, on account of his mighty power in Prayer, taught him by the Holy Spirit.

Hence it was with the greatest joy that the students of Zion College received the announcement that the General Overseer would deliver a Series of Lectures on the subject of Prayer. It was an inestimable privilege to learn how to pray from a man whose whole life had become a mighty power for God through Prayer. But joyful as the anticipation was, it was more than justified by the realization.

Many members of the Christian Catholic Church also attended these Lectures and were amazed, from week to week, by the great depth and scope of the subject as it was opened up by the man of God.

Since the delivery of these Lectures there has been a loud appeal, from many sides, to have them published.

The General Overseer was reluctant, as he felt that in the great pressure of his other duties he had not been able to give the Lectures as he might have done with more time at his disposal. He also felt that he should revise them before their publication, and this he could not find time to do.

At length, however, the appeal for them being urged, he consented that they should be sent forth, without his revision, during his absence in Europe and the Holy Land.

Accordingly this wonderful teaching will be printed, almost as it came from his lips, from time to time, in LEAVES OF HEALING. In preparing these Lectures for the press, we have eliminated some allusions to topics of the time and place and have written in some headlines. We have also cut out opening and closing exercises and arranged the matter consecutively without regard to number and date of Lectures.

We pray that God will bless these wonderful truths to all who read in even greater measure than He did to those who heard.

THINGS COMMANDED AND THINGS PERMITTED.

I want you to think into the condition of Noah. No human tongue nor any painter's brush could ever picture that scene.

Of course the infidel rejects it as a fairy tale and declares it is not true. He tries to limit the Deluge, and in some way or other get over the fact that every living thing except Noah, his sons and their wives and the creatures that were in the ark were destroyed.

I know nothing about it beyond what is written. I have no doubt in the world that it is true; for the writing is not only upon the pages of the Book of Genesis: the writing is to be seen upon the very face of nature everywhere—the evidences of the Flood.

It is to be found embodied in the traditions of every tribe, well nigh, upon the earth. Traditions of the Flood have been found amongst people who had never seen a white face.

There are a great many things in the Old Testament which I do not understand, which no one understands.

I do not need to understand them. I do not need to understand the laws which govern electricity to believe that the telegram which I read a few minutes ago came from a very distant part of this country.

I do not need to understand how the letter from Japan, which I handled a few minutes ago, came from Japan. I do not need to understand any more than that everything which I do understand about it makes me believe in the genuineness of the letter.

It bears the Japanese postmark. It bears the Japanese stamp which was necessary. All the external evidences prove to me before I open the letter that this letter came from Japan. I open the envelope and find a letter within it. The date of the letter corresponds closely to the date upon which it was alleged to have left that country, by the postmark.

I have every reason to believe, and none to doubt, the truth of the fact that I hold in my hand a letter which left that distant land, and left there on such a date.

The internal evidence bears out the external evidence.

External and internal evidences are the things which prove the Word of God to be true—affirmative evidence continually coming from all sides.

I do not desire to enter into a geological discourse, but I say to you, be careful about geologists, and do not read their writings as if they were inspired. Geologists have made some tremendous blunders.

Geologists have made the most stupid statements. They do not agree between themselves.

A Beautiful Analogy in the Story of Noah.

There is a very beautiful analogy here.

There are times when God shuts us in and launches us away out in the ark amidst the howling of the storm winds, the flashes of the lightnings and the roll of thunders. It seems as if we must perish.

There are long periods, perhaps, in some spiritual lives, when all one's work has to be done amongst beasts. It is very unprofitable, one might think, to be fighting beasts—slimy creatures.

You will have to get to the place, all of you, perhaps, where, spiritually, you will be shut up in your ark and go away out to minister to beasts.

Noah's ministration to men had failed to produce any results worth speaking about, except for those who were in the ark.

But if these eight had not been saved, this great population of fifteen hundred millions in the earth today would not be here.

You must remember that you are not to calculate the importance of your work by what it appears to be.

It did not seem a very pleasant occupation for a great prophet, who had lived these hundreds of years, to be shut up with his wife and three sons and their wives, to feed animals. It must have been a very great toil to feed all these mouths: hyenas, vultures, skunks, rats, mice, and even the unutterable pig. Noah had in the ark not only the clean, but the unclean animals.

I am glad I was not Noah. Some time you will have some work to do which is so distasteful and so unpleasant that it will be nauseating. But when you are about to complain I wish you would just sit down and think how that ark smelled after all these months: even supposing there was some provision for getting rid of the filthy matter, which I suppose there was. It would take quite a good deal of skill to do that.

Just think of the horrible toil of it! Just think what it was to be shut up to this work alone. Yet all the beautiful birds, the flowers, all the useful beasts that live, and, in the economy of nature, the creatures which have their place as scavengers were kept alive in that way.

Sometime, somewhere, you may be shut up for long months together. I am asked even now to send Elders and Evangelists where the filthiness of the people, moral and physical, is so great that only infinitely loving grace can give strength to live.

Some of my brethren who had been in China recently described to me the minute conditions of the Chinese. Instead of the filth in the streets being washed away in sewers, it is all carefully preserved and spread out upon the soil. Such customs make the fertility of the land in China.

The Nature of Real Work for God.

You will find that work, real work, will mean the removal of real dirt. Real work will mean the ministration of real business to men and women who are worse than the Chinese; for they know better and do worse.

I think that often in this city it would not be difficult to find a few places like the Chinese cities.

You will go to distant places, some of you, where you will not be able to escape from these conditions until, by the Grace of God, you reform them.

Think of this man Noah, when you are floating on your ark somewhere, away, far away in distant years. This man, his wife and family were rich, noble and accustomed to all the refinements of that time. Although the earth was wicked, you must remember that a great deal of refinement had come into it.

If God does shut you up, for a while, to conditions which seem to be so hard, remember that these are but a preparation for conditions which are infinitely better. Thank God that you did not perish in the Flood; that He saved you, and that He has been preserving you, and that He is preserving you amidst the delusions and floods of iniquity around you.

Patiently send forth until you have found when the waters have abated.

Noah sent forth a raven first. Then he sent forth a dove She could find no rest, and he took her back into the ark.

But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him to the ark, for the waters were on the face of the whole earth: and he put forth his hand, and took her, and brought her in unto him into the ark.

The Analogy of the Little White Dove.

I wish to make a little analogy here. I sent forth a dove once on the coast of New Zealand. It was the little Dove which we have now bearing the Olive Branch and the beautiful motto, "Patience."

I sent forth LEAVES OF HEALING from Christchurch, New Zealand, in 1888. My dove came back to me.

I sent her forth once again in this country, and this time she came back to me with the conviction that the waters were abated. The waters of prejudice all over the world were abated.

I saw that I must prepare and send forth the Little White Dove in a more permanent form. So I asked God to give me the printing presses, beautiful and new, and the clean type, and He gave it to me. I sent forth the Dove, and it keeps going all the time now, for the waters are abated.

I have come down from my Ararat, and there are thousands and tens of thousands of humble hearts everywhere who welcome the Little White Dove as a Message from God. They take it to their hearts. I hear of little children in hundreds of homes who, when LEAVES OF HEALING comes, say, "Now where is my Dr. Dowie?" They turn to where my picture is and they kiss it. I hear of how they love me. I oftentimes think, when I read this story of the dove, what it means.

I do not know why my ancestry was given that for an emblem; but in the ancient Book of Heraldry in Scotland we found that that motto had been in the Dhui family for centuries, and probably could be traced back to Israelitish sources, away back as far as several centuries before Christ. That is the tradition in the family.

Whether I do or do not belong to that Israelitish line, yet we are in Christ. There is one thing certain: the whole world may truly take the little white dove for its emblem of love; for we all came from Shem, Ham and Japheth and from Noah. It is a lovely emblem.

The Dove in Contrast With the Eagle.

I wish that all the eagles could be taken from their poles, and that the dove could be placed above the flag and supersede the eagle.

The eagle is the emblem of paganism. Where the eagle comes there are carcasses dead and rotten.

The eagle is a thief.

The eagle is a vulture.

The eagle is unclean.

Christ said that the day would come when the eagles would surround Jerusalem, and where the eagles were there were the carcasses.

Wheresoever the carcass is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

That day came.

I think, if you look at the pictures of Vespasian and Titus as they are preserved to us upon coins, you will find that they look more like vultures than human beings.

The "Roman beak" has so much of the vulture in it. All the men who delight in blood have something of the eagle-look about them.

I am so thankful for this beautiful emblem of the Little White Dove.

I am so thankful that our Little White Dove goes out. I am so thankful that we are preserved, and that amidst the storm into which I have sent out my Little White Dove the waters have abated.

There is a great deal of beautiful spiritual analogy in that wonderful story of Noah.

I wish to call your attention to the words spoken by God to Noah:

Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee. Bring forth with thee every living thing that is with thee of all flesh, both fowl, and cattle, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth. And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him: every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, whatsoever moveth upon the earth, after their families, went forth out of the ark. And Noah builded an altar unto the Lord; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. And the Lord smelled the sweet savor; and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake, for that the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living as I have done. While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

The Sin of Eating Blood.

I desire to call your attention to the fourth verse of the ninth chapter:

But flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat.

To eat blood is sin. The Apostolic Church gave also that commandment.

At a council held in Jerusalem, the Apostles and the Elders came together and decided concerning some things which had been in dispute at Antioch. Then they wrote a letter to the Christians in Antioch and sent it by Paul and Barnabas, Judas and Silas. That letter closed with these words:

For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things; that ye abstain from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, it shall be well with you. Fare ye well.

Blood, things sacrificed to idols, things strangled and fornication are all put together.

The eating of blood is a sin. The blood is the life, and you must not eat blood.

I never knew any one who ate raw meat whose piety I had any use for.

Such people are wolfish in their characteristics, unclean, unholy. Christians they may be, but they have the animal nature which keeps them constantly fighting with the uncleanness which has gotten into their blood.

Look at the people who eat blood in this city, or in any city. They are brutal, filthy, unclean.

God said at the beginning:

Flesh, with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat.

We will have to pray hard one of these days because of the violation of this law against blood-eating.

Perhaps it goes further than any of us have seen.

I do not wish to dogmatize about matters which God permitted, but the fact that God permitted a certain thing for a time being, does not make it right for all time; does not make it the best thing.

God permitted polygamy for a great many ages. Polygamy is almost the prevailing thing in this world today. The non-polygamous nations are very small compared to the polygamous nations.

Concerning Polygamy, Second Marriages.

When our Lord Jesus Christ lived, He laid down the glorious principle, the true principle of marriage, when He said, "from the beginning it hath not been so," speaking of divorce.

We might argue against not merely polygamy, but against more than one marriage.

There were Early Fathers, who would expel from the Church a widow or widower who remarried.

I think that is not in accordance with the Word of God. Paul says that they are free when death sets them free. He, also, at the same time, tells them that they will have troubles in the flesh.

Second marriage is not, as a rule, good. But sometimes they seem to be better than the first ones.

Second marriage is unnatural in a sense.

Men and women should live out their lives together in marriage.

There is no doubt at all in my mind that monogamy is right, because it was originally so. We must go back beyond the expressed provisions of the Ten Commandments.

You are to keep the commandments of God. The commandments of God are not contained simply in the Ten Commandments. In the First Commandment, all the commandments of God are contained.

It is absurd to talk about our obeying merely the Ten or Eleven Commandments. Many greater commandments have been given to us.

One is the Commandment of Baptism.

Another is the Commandment of the Lord's Supper.

We are commanded to have fellowship together.

To go out into the streets and lanes of the city is a commandment.

There are a great many commandments outside of the Ten, before and after them, which are just as important as these Ten. I have not the slightest doubt that a great many thousands were converted at the time of our Lord Jesus Christ who were polygamists. It would have been cruel and unkind and wicked for the Jewish Christians who had married, in their ignorance, three or four wives, to throw all but one of these women and their children out into the streets.

Apply the same principle in heathen lands. That question will come up before us in a harsh and rough manner.

I believe that it is right that we should teach the natives, or native Christians, in all the lands where Zion goes that monogamy is right because it rests upon the original command.

But I do not feel that I could expel from membership one who is in the habit of eating blood and raw meat, or meat which is nearly raw. If I know of such a Christian, I will give him a bad time.

I do not think there is such a Christian in Zion. I hope not. If there is, I wish this matter to be understood.

Ignorance of the Law Does Not Excuse, but Those Falsely Taught Must be Kindly Treated.

Ignorance of the law does not excuse a man. We ought to know the law. We ought to have the facilities for knowing the law. There is an excuse for a man from whom the law has been hid, who has been perverted in his conception of it, who has never known any better. In such a case, we must be considerate and kind and gradual in our reforms.

"But," you say, "General Overseer, do you do that?"

Yes, I do. We received into Zion a large number of men, when we began our work here, who smoked.

Some of you drank a little.

I have received some who were in Secret Societies. When I got them in, I set to work to spank them and to scrub them. At last, I believe, I have a Church now, in which, so far as I know, there is not one smoker. If there is one, and I find out who he is, I will send for him, and will deal with him.

I do not know that there is a drinker in Zion, and I do not know that I have a member of a Secret Society in Zion.

It would have been simply impossible, at the beginning of this work, to have brought together a people who are what Zion is now.

I do not say that a man is not a Christian who smokes tobacco or who is a dirty beer-pot, but I cannot understand how he can be a Christian.

I have known some excellent Christians who used tobacco. I have known some excellent Christians who drank whisky, and yet I cannot understand how a Christian man could do it.

I have known men who have lived for God and loved God, served God; been unselfish and poured out their lives for God; yet they drank wine and beer and whisky. I think they were very unclean. I think they did very wrong. It was very wonderful how God bore with them. They did not see the wrong. When they did see it, they got right.

There is a certain degree of permission given by God. The times of ignorance God overlooks, but there comes a time when he overlooks them no more. He says, Repent. I believe that this is the time when He says Repent.

God No Longer Overlooks as in Times of Ignorance. He Says, Repent.

I believe that God has been winking, as it were, at a great many sins, which He now denounces. He now demands that men everywhere shall repent of them and abstain from them.

But you must be careful, while you proclaim a thing to be a Divine Law, and are firm about it, and demand obedience to it. Do not say that a man cannot be accepted by God because he has not attained to what you and I have attained.

If you do you will bring Zion down to be the meanest and narrowest thing in the world. I do not desire that the Christian Catholic Church in Zion shall be a mean, petty little sect. It must be broad. It must recognize the Christianity of a man who still eats swine's flesh.

I do not dare to say that people are not Christians because they enjoy a rasher of bacon in the morning. It is a dirty thing. It is a stinking thing. It is a foul thing, but they have never seen all its filthiness. They have never read "Zion's Protest Against Swine's Flesh."

It is only the Holy Spirit who can make people see these things.

We must be careful, but at the same time not lower the standard.

You must not lower the standard of monogamy. It is right.

You must not lower the standard of abstinence from intoxicating drinks. It is right, because these things defile.

You must not lower the standard of abstinence from all forms of evil. It is right. These things defile and injure.

You must hold up the standard.

My business is to proclaim the law and demand obedience to it.

Alas, there has been a finding of excuses for people and a patting them on the back.

I proclaim:

The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked; but now He commandeth men that they should all everywhere repent.

Many people who try to plow with my heifer or plow with my oxen cannot do it. Sometimes, when I tell a man that he is a stinkpot, I may look at him very severely, but I will defy that man to get angry with me. I am calm and show that man that it is true, and he will know I said that kindly; that I said it in love; that I said it because God gave me that ministry.

I will tell you, if you do not speak with love in your heart, with a love for the people whose wickedness you are fighting, you will do no good. You will only hurt, you will only destroy.

The "Still Small Voice" of God Follows the Thunders.

Therefore, do not lose your temper when you fight for God. Keep in good temper. Let the other fellow lose his temper, if he will. Even when you are most indignant, and have a right to be indignant, let the very heavens fall on the indignation, as it were. Even then stop. There is a place for mercy still; for after all the lightnings and thunders, these people who have sinned will hear; for God will speak.

There must come a time when you will be still and let the "Still Small Voice" of God be heard.

These things may go before, and they are right, but there must come eventually the power of that Still Small Voice.

Let us go back to Noah, and the discussion of polygamy.

We go away back to the primitive law, to the first law. We go back to the fact that monogamy was a Divine institution. God did not give to Adam three wives, but He gave him one. God did not give Noah two wives, but He gave him one.

God did not give Shem two wives, but He gave him one; and He gave Ham only one wife, and Japheth only one wife.

There were four men and four women who came down from the ark, and no more.

While we have a right to say that monogamy practiced in Adam and Noah and in his family is right and is a Divine law, yet you could make yourself a curse in some heathen countries, if you were too harsh and bitter in attacking polygamy.

The great first thing of all, is to witness to the glory and power of God. Then get them to repent of all sin, and to be willing to be taught what sin is. As they are taught as to what sin is, they will come to you. They will ask you how you can help them. You can get them not to commit another sin, but to do that which is right.

You do not need to go to the heathen lands to find that. You will find that in this country. I have had confessions made to me since I began this witnessing against certain sins. Some of them have been confessions of the most extraordinary character.

An Instance of Right Action.

About the last confession I have received is that of a lady who had been living in a state of sin for fifteen years. She had been attending my ministry occasionally for four years. She had been living with a man who was most kind to her, and no one would know but they were very respectable and nice people, but they were sinners. They did not dare to come to Zion and present themselves for Baptism. They did not dare to partake of the Lord's supper.

When they came and sought counsel, as they had seen from my words that they could no longer sear their consciences in the way in which they were, they saw that unless they repented, they would go to hell. They said, "We will not go to hell."

They separated in the nicest and kindliest manner. He made every provision he could for her. He has gone away. She is living here. I received her in her own proper name, and saw scores of people start when they heard her name, which was not the name they knew her by.

If I had not been kind to them, and considerate; if I had not shown them the way out, and dealt mercifully with them; if I had only been strong and courageous and severely maintained the law, they would not have been in Zion.

The other night when I was addressing the audience, my eye happened to fall upon her face. She was listening raptly to what I was saying. I saw her face turn suddenly and her eyes were full of tears. She had a beautiful expression of love and devotion. I could see a spirit of rejoicing.

It is sin to eat swine's flesh.

It is sin to be polygamous.

I do not take any stock in the talk of Mr. Roberts, who is trying to get into Congress. I believe that amongst these Mormons there are thousands and tens of thousands who have been deceived by the Devil in connection with polygamy, but are profoundly desirous of glorifying God, and live infinitely better lives than a number of the hypocrites who are judging them.

I am ashamed to think of it. I do not like to talk about it. But I know that many of his judges are wicked, vile adulterers, whose bastard offspring curse a dozen cities and are growing up, probably, in crime and in immorality.

I consider the Mormon who has taken care of his wives and children a far better man.

At the same time, I join heartily in the exclusion of Mr. Roberts from Congress. I would put it on a different ground altogether from what they do. Why do they not put it on the ground that he has broken God's law?

You will notice that in all the discussions in Washington, they do not put it on the ground that he has broken God's law. They put it on the ground that it is breaking a law of the United States.

They are cowards. They do not recognize God in the United States Constitution.

In Great Britain we say that a thing shall not be because the law of God says it shall not. Our marriage law is the Mosaic law.

The Difference Between a Law of God and a Law of Man.

If it is only a law of man and has no law of God in it, then it is a different matter. There are a great many laws of man which I will not obey. You cannot get me to obey them.

You cannot get me to obey the law in any State which says that my children shall be vaccinated. I will never allow any man living to vaccinate my children. I would take a club to prevent a man from vaccinating my children, if I could not stop him in any other way.

That is why I have had to suffer. They passed a law which made it illegal to pray for the sick. I said, "I do not care for your law." I kicked it over, and jumped on it. I did all I could to smash it, and I did smash it.

Here is a law of God. I desire you to get it deep down into your hearts:

But the flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat.

If any man or woman in Zion is eating blood, tell me about it; and, if I cannot go myself, I will send an Elder. I will counsel him or her to Repentance. If you find anybody in Zion who is smoking or drinking or belonging to Secret Societies, I will send an Elder and counsel him to Repentance.

I do not say that I will expel them from fellowship.

The nearer we get to God, the less carcass we will eat.

I do not desire to dogmatize on a thing too much. I know that Zion has to march along gradually. I am not going to say to Mrs. Matthews, or Mrs. Dowie, or any of the ladies in charge of the various Homes to expel all animal food.

But do you not think that if you could reduce it to the "infinitesimal potentiality," it would be better? (Laughter and applause.)

I think it would be better, if you just asked God to give you grace to live as Daniel lived and would not eat the king's meats.

Some of the days that I have done my best work, I have not eaten any meat at all. Just as the strongest animal which we have in the world today, the elephant, does not eat any flesh, I think it would be very much better for us. Therefore I shall not complain if the orders come to the steward for less meat in Zion Students' Home and in Zion College Home.

At Jerusalem they knew what was the trouble in the world. They knew it was the eating of certain food which was making brutal and unclean conditions in the heathen world. The same is true today to a large extent.

Crime is connected with riotous eaters of flesh.

In Japan and throughout the East, swine's flesh has been forced upon the people. I am very glad that there Zion teaching on that matter will be very acceptable, because pork is one of the detestable things.

May God bless you.

ZION'S CONFLICT WITH METHODIST APOSTASY.

This book of 200 pages, just issued by Zion Publishing House, contains nine powerful discourses delivered in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer last May, during the session of the Methodist General Conference. They are of especial value for the full and fearless exposure of Freemasonry.

"The Methodist Church the Property of the Masonic Order," "Freemasonry: A Heathen and Antichristian Abomination," and "Degrees of Masonic Devilry" ought to be read by every lodge man.

The iniquity of the Mystic Shrine is laid bare.

"The Christian's Duty in Breaking a Bad Oath" is the address which preceded the public working of Masonic and Odd Fellow degrees in Central Zion Tabernacle, a full account of which is given.

Buy one of these books and keep lending it. No honest and intelligent man can read the book and still remain a Freemason.

DO YOU KNOW GOD'S WAY OF HEALING?

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Let it be supposed that the following words are a conversation between the reader [A] and the writer [B].

A. What does this question mean? Do you really suppose that God has some one especial way of healing in these days of which men may know and avail themselves?

B. That is exactly my meaning, and I wish very much that you should know God's Way of Healing, as I have done for many years.

A. What is the way, in your opinion?

B. You should rather ask, WHO is God's Way? for the Way is a Person, not a thing. I will answer your question in His own words, "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life; no one cometh unto the Father, but by Me." These words were spoken by our Lord Jesus Christ, the Eternal Son of God, who is both our Saviour and our Healer. (John 14:6.)

A. But I always thought that these words only referred to Him as the Way of Salvation. How can you be sure that they refer to Him as the Way of Healing also?

B. Because He cannot change. He is "the same yesterday and today, yea and forever." (Hebrews 13:8.) He said that He came to this earth not only to save us but to heal us (Luke 4:18), and He did this when in the flesh on earth. Being unchanged, He must be able and willing and desirous to heal now.

A. But is there not this difference, namely, that He is not with us now?

B. No; for He said, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world"; and so He is with us now, in Spirit, just as much as when He was here in the flesh.

A. But did He not work these miracles of healing when on earth merely to prove that He was the Son of God?

B. No; there was still a greater purpose than that. He healed the sick who trusted in Him in order to show us that He came to die not only for our sins, but for our sicknesses, and to deliver us from both.

A. Then, if that is so, the atonement which He made on the Cross must have been for our sicknesses as well as our sins. Can you prove that is the fact from the Scriptures?

B. Yes, I can, and the passages are very numerous. I need quote two only. In Isaiah 53:4, 5, it is written of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew sicknesses), and carried our sorrows; . . . and with His stripes we are healed." Then in the Gospel according to Matthew, this passage is quoted and directly applied to the work of bodily healing, in chapter 8, 17th verse, "That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases."

A. But do you not think that sickness is often God's will, and sent for our good, and therefore God may not wish us to be healed?

B. No, that cannot possibly be; for diseases of every kind are the Devil's work, and his work can never be God's will, since Christ came for the very purpose of destroying "the works of the Devil." (1 John 3:8.)

A. Do you mean to say that all disease is the work of Satan?

B. Yes, for if there had been no sin (which came through Satan) there never would have been any disease, and Jesus never in one single instance told any person that sickness was God's work or will, but the very contrary.

A. Can you prove from Scripture that all forms of sickness and infirmity are the Devil's work?

B. Yes, that can be done very easily. You will see in Matthew 4:23 and 9:35 that when Jesus was here in the flesh, He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people." Then if you will refer to Acts 10:38 you will see that the Apostle Peter declares that He [Jesus] "went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil." Notice that all whom He healed, not some, were suffering from Satan's evil power.

A. But does disease never come from God?

B. No, it cannot come from God, for He is pure, and disease is unclean; and it cannot come out of Heaven, for there is no disease there.

A. That is very different from the teachings which I have received all my life from ministers and in the churches. Do you really think that you are right, and that they are all wrong in this matter?

B. It is not a question as between myself and them. The only question is, What does God's Word say? God has said in all the ages to His Church, "I am the Lord that healeth thee" (Exodus 15:26), and therefore it would be wicked to say that He is the defiler of His people. All true Christians must believe the Bible, and it is impossible to believe that good and evil, sickness and health, sin and holiness could have a common origin in God. If the Bible really taught that, it would be impossible to believe our Lord Jesus Christ when He says, "A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit." (Matthew 7:18.)

A. But even if I agree with all you say, is it not true that the Gifts of Healing were removed from the Church, and are not in it now?

B. No, the "Gifts of Healing" were never withdrawn, and can never be withdrawn, from the true Church of God; for it is written, "The gifts and the calling of God are without repentance." (Romans 11:29.) There are nine gifts of God to the Church (enumerated in 1 Corinthians, 12:8 to 11), and all these are in the Holy Spirit. Therefore, so long as the Holy Spirit is in the Church, all the gifts must be there also. If they are not exercised, that does not prove that they do not exist, but that the faith to exercise them is lacking in God's servants. The gifts are all perfectly preserved; for the Holy Spirit, not the Church, keeps them safely.

A. What should a Christian then do when overtaken with sickness?

B. A Christian should obey God's command, and at once turn to Him for forgiveness of the sin which may have caused the sickness, and for immediate healing. Healing is obtained from God in one of four ways, namely: First, by the direct prayer of faith, without any aid from the officers of the Church, praying as the Centurion did in Matthew 8:5 to 12; second, by two faithful disciples praying in perfect agreement, in accordance with the Lord's promise in Matthew 18:19; third, by the anointing of the elders and the prayer of faith, according to the instructions in James 5:14 and 15; and fourth, by the laying on of the hands of them who believe, and whom God calls to that ministry, as the Lord commands in Mark 16:18, and in other places.

A. But are people healed in this way in these days?

B. Yes, in thousands of cases. I have myself laid hands upon many hundreds of thousands of persons, and I have seen the Lord's Power manifested in the healing of great numbers, many of whom are living witnesses in many countries, who have testified publicly before thousands, and who are prepared to testify at any time. This ministry is being exercised by devoted Christians in many parts of America, Europe, Australasia and elsewhere.

A. Is it not the same as Christian Science, Mind Healing, etc.?

B. No. Divine Healing is diametrically opposed to these diabolical counterfeits, which are utterly anti-Christian. These impostures are only seductive forms of Spiritualism. Trance Evangelism is also a more recent form of this delusion, and it deceives many.

A. But how shall I obtain the necessary faith to receive healing, which faith I am at present conscious I do not possess?

B. It is written, "Belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by the Word of Christ." (Romans 10:17.) Our Missions are held for the express purpose of teaching fully the Word of God on this matter, and I very heartily invite you to attend the meetings which are announced for Zion Tabernacle. All are welcome and there are no charges of any kind made, for all God's gifts are free gifts. Salvation is the first of these, without which you cannot be healed through faith in Jesus. All the costs of this work are covered by the free-will offerings of the people who attend these meetings, and others whom the Lord leads to help; but the poorest who have nothing to give are as heartily welcome as the richest.

A. Do you see the sick and lay hands upon them in this Mission?

B. Yes; after we feel satisfied that they are fully resting in the Lord alone for the healing, we see privately, so far as time permits, those who attend; but under no circumstances do we claim the power to heal any; for "power belongeth unto God."

A. Have you any writings upon this subject which can be purchased?

B. Yes; these can be obtained at the office of Zion Publishing House, 1207 Michigan Avenue, or at Zion Tabernacle, 1621-1633 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill. But the best book on Divine Healing is the Bible itself, studied prayerfully and earnestly.

We extend to you a hearty invitation to attend the meetings, which are free to all. Our prayer is that you may be led to find in Jesus Christ our Lord and God, your present Saviour from sin, your Healer from sickness, your Cleanser from all evil, your Keeper in the way to Heaven, your Friend, and your All for Time and Eternity. We pray that these words may help many who read, and that our little conversation may bear fruit in leading many readers to look to Jesus only.

"The Healing of Christ's seamless dress
Is by all beds of pain;
We touch Him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again."

ZION IN EDINBURGH.

The Edinburgh Evening News Prints an Account of the General Overseer's Opening Address in His Native City. One of the Fairest Newspaper Accounts of a Zion Meeting Which Has Appeared for Years.

THE Mission of the General Overseer in Edinburgh, Scotland, was one of intense interest.

It was, first of all, the delivery of the Message which God had committed to him, for the first time in that city.

But it was more.

It was the return of the General Overseer to his native city to preach the Everlasting Gospel.

It was in fulfilment of a prophecy made by a holy man of God over thirty years before.

It was in fulfilment of an oft-expressed determination by the General Overseer himself.

It is hence particularly gratifying that the fairest article which has thus far appeared in the British press, and one of the fairest which has appeared in any daily newpaper for years, should have been printed by one of the papers in Edinburgh.

After reading the wholesale malicious lies of the American and British press, especially in their false, distorted and discolored accounts of the General Overseer's addresses, full of mean insinuations and innuendos, it is refreshing to read the calm, fair, straightforward account in the Edinburgh Evening News, for Monday, November 5th, the second day of the General Overseer's Mission in that city.

The following is the News' account, which was published with a portrait of the General Overseer:

ZION IN EDINBURGH.

REV. J. A. DOWIE TALKS AT LARGE.

The Rev. John Alexander Dowie, "General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion," whose headquarters are situated in Chicago, U. S. A., yesterday in the Queen Street Hall conducted the first of a series of meetings in Edinburgh.

In the morning the congregation was very small, and Mr. Dowie, a man of dignified and patriarchal appearance, was alone on the platform, which was flanked by the silken banners of Great Britain and America. Behind the speaker was suspended the banner of the "Christian Catholic Church in Zion." Mr. Dowie was arrayed in a white robe beneath a black gown, his white bishop's sleeves being frilled at the wrists.

Devoid of instrumental music, and innocent even of a choir, the service was of Highland simplicity. The preacher himself "raised the tune," and when it was fully under way he put in an excellent tenor.

After prayer and reading from the Revised Version of the Scriptures, he announced his text chosen from the first chapter of Mark's Gospel, "The Baptism of Repentance for the remission of sins," and proceeded to expound it in the ordinary way.

He said it was thirty years since he had addressed an Edinburgh audience in Carrubber's Close Mission, with which he was associated. He was born here, but had spent his life in other lands, in Australia, in New Zealand, in the South Seas, and in America.

He had no new Gospel to bring to his native town, and taught nothing that was not contained within the boards of the Bible. But while there was no new revelation, there were neglected truths which had long been buried.

Jesus Christ was the same Healer today as of old. That was what they sang in their paraphrase—"As when the Hebrew Prophet raised," and in the Psalm, "All thine iniquities He doth."

If they did not believe that God was the Healer of His people in Christ, they had better not sing those any more.

Christ was still the Healer, Saviour, Cleanser, Keeper.

He was converted when seven years of age at an open-air meeting conducted in the High Street by that good man Henry Wight, who was subsequently minister of Richmond Place Congregational Church.

Thirty-six years ago he was dying in Australia. He went to the Lord and was healed "just in a moment."

He bespoke for himself an attentive, thoughtful hearing.

THE DEVIL-POSSESSED LONDON PRESS.

He did not know how the press was here, but the press in London belonged to the Devil, at least nineteen-twentieths of it.

He did not know whether the Edinburgh press belonged to God; he hoped it would be fair.

In London they had some wonderful healings and great meetings, but the press did not tell that. It kept it back, just like the Devil that owned it.

Many of these papers were born speaking lies, and the ingenuity with which they lied would have been amusing had it not been so serious.

He was not yet an American citizen, but a Britisher—a Scotsman. He had received part of his education at Edinburgh University.

He was supposed to be on holiday—his first rest in twelve years.

He had often wondered how it would have been had Christ come to earth when the newspaper press was in existence—how the scribes would have filled their papers with lies!

In Chicago sometimes as many as 10,000 people tried to get into the building to hear him.

They wanted to get out of ruts, and it was easier in a new land. They did not manage it by uniting with others in the same rut.

AN EARLY PROTEST.

He characterized infant Baptism as a farce—a "screaming" farce. What sensible child would not scream to have water dropped in its eyes and mouth?

He was told he screamed in the Tron Kirk. He was glad he did; it was a protest.

Why should some of them say some things were contrary to nature and law? What did they know about law, and how much about nature? Was not the supernatural real, and what about spiritual law?

A little knowledge made fools. When they were children they never limited God, but having become men they could tell the exact limitations of God, and what He could not do. Zacharias laughed and was dumb; even so the churches fought over their theologies and their chronologies and their genealogies, but as for being eloquent for God they might just as well have learned nothing.

He was shocked, horrified, to find both the wings of Lady Glenorchy's Free Church let out to business people! There was nothing so arrogant as ignorance.

He had overheard a man discussing himself in a railway train and telling how intimately he knew Dr. Dowie, the "old humbug." He disclosed his identity to that man, and was told that he was a "d——d liar." He did not know him at all.

A DIRTY CHRISTIAN.

He was one of those smoking, stinking, drinking fellows! The idea of a man stinking himself with tobacco! That filthy nicotine that gave them all manner of diseases, and made them walking nuisances! It made their throats open sepulchers, and they called themselves Christians—faugh! They stank like devils, and he did not believe they were Christians at all. A Christian should smell sweet and clean. They might be Christians, but they were dirty ones. (Laughter.)

They would not like to see their wives smoke. Let one bring in a box of cigars or some plug and say: "Now look here, Jeannie, I want you to smoke as I do. Let's kneel down and ask God to help you to learn to smoke."

The preaching of faith was damning the people. Say "believe—only believe," and you will send people to hell. What was the use of telling a man to believe who was a thief? There was too little preaching of repentance in Edinburgh.

ZION IN BELFAST, IRELAND.

The Belfast News-Letter Gives a Very Favorable and Fair Account of the General Overseer's Mission.

IN striking contrast with the false and wicked London newspapers, which have reviled, vilified, maligned and libelled the General Overseer, with a deliberate determination not to speak the truth, almost continuously for months, are some of the papers in other cities in Great Britian and Ireland, particularly in Scotland and Ireland.

In Edinburgh, the Evening News, from which we quote elsewhere in this department, gave a truthful and most interesting account of the General Overseer's Mission in that city.

In Belfast, Ireland, the General Overseer conducted meetings in Ulster Hall on Lord's Day, November 11th, and Monday, November 12th. The audiences were so large that the capacious hall was crowded to overflowing.

The large audience on Lord's Day was attentive and respectful, but on Monday the Belfast Evening Telegraph appeared with an article a column and a half in length, full of the most ridiculous and malicious lies concerning the Lord's Day meetings.

This stirred up the medical and Secret Society devils, and on Monday evening they made an attempt to break up the meeting.

God overruled, and they were unsuccessful. The great majority of the large audience was with the General Overseer and there was great blessing.

To the Belfast News-Letter, however, great credit is due for the favorable and truthful report of the General Overseer's Lord's Day afternoon service.

This appeared on Monday, November 12th.

As it contains a very interesting résumé of the address delivered on that occasion, we reprint it entire:

REV. J. A. DOWIE IN BELFAST.

"FAITH HEALING" EXPOUNDED.

The Rev. John Alexander Dowie, the General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church, having its headquarters at Zion, Chicago, made his appearance before a Belfast audience yesterday.

His crusade in London and Edinburgh has given rise to so much excitement and no little rowdyism that his advent in the city was eagerly awaited, and it was no surprise, therefore, to find the Ulster Hall well filled on the three occasions he spoke yesterday.

Dr. Dowie's is an attracting and interesting personality. Attired in a long, black robe, with lawn sleeves and yellow and purple hood, his more than average height and robustness of build gave him a commanding presence. His deep-set eyes, twinkling with humor and kindliness, under a pair of sbaggy gray eyebrows; his broad, fine forehead, indicative of power and brains; his somewhat prominent nose, and a heavy gray moustache and long beard, showing signs of the snows of many winters, are the striking features of a face which is at once attractive and powerful.

His voice is penetrating and high-pitched, but not unpleasing, and it is quite evident that it requires little effort on his part to make himself easily heard when addressing the large crowds. His delivery is impressive and dramatic, and his exposition of any particular passage is marked by clearness of explanation and soundness of reasoning.

Yesterday afternoon he walked on to the large, bare platform with a firm step, and after prayer he announced, with just a touch of the nasal twang, the hymn that was to be sung. He led the singing himself, and meanwhile his right hand played with a pair of eyeglasses, which he occasiionally adjusted.

Afterwards there followed the reading of the thirty-fifth chapter of Isaiah, but the speaker was evidently independent of the Word, for it was only occasionally that his eye fell on the print.

Then followed the reading and exposition of part of St. Matthew's Gospel, and it was here that the reverend gentleman's power of lucid and close reasoning became more apparent.

His exegesis of the Scripture was followed by the fierce declamatory remarks, "The Kingdom of Heaven is not gained by peaceful means. Christ came not to send peace, but a sword." The Gospel was a two-edged sword.

If any imagined that Christianity was a peaceful thing they were mistaken; it was the most aggressive and warlike force in the universe. It must be so; they could not make war upon the Devil with soft soap or soft words.

The Kingdom of Heaven was gotten by force. Christianity that was not agressive was not Christianity; it was a poor, pale, miserable simalcrum.

The worst kind of heathendom was found in that pest of Rome. That horrible power had got to be destroyed in order that men might be saved.

At this stage another hymn was sung, and the Rev. Mr. Dowie then announced that his evening subject would be "The Opening of the Beautiful Gate of Divine Healing."

Prayer followed, and then the speaker, before commencing his address, asked to be permitted to express his great pleasure at being in Ireland. He said he had long looked towards this beautiful island, although he was a Scotchman and his people had been Scotch for many generations, and he supposed Hebrew originally.

In the dim past a great many people in the North of Ireland who came from the West and North of Scotland, originating from the Highland tribes who wore the coats of many colors, he believed with his old friend Professor Blackie were nothing less than Hebraistic in descent. He trusted that his work in Ireland would be blessed.

He had found in Ireland many who belonged to the fold over which he was the shepherd. He had found more than he thought, and he had found a great many more interested in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. That word Catholic was not, he found, very much liked by many Protestants.

He thought that was a mistake. They ought to like it; not Roman Catholic, or Greek Catholic, or English Catholic, but the word Catholic was a glorious word which simply meant universal. He hoped they would all be able to rejoice in the word Catholic, which included all in every place who love our Lord Jesus Christ with sincerity.

The speaker then said that he wished he had more time to spend in Ireland, but he could only stay a few days, as he had to proceed to the North of England, and then to France and Germany and on down to the Mediterranean, and from there back home again.

He hoped that they would accept his thanks for their hearty kindness.

Many had sent him kind messages since he came, and he felt already very much at home. He expected that the people of Belfast would be able to set an excellent example to the people of London and elsewhere

He had always heard good things of them, and if he said some things they did not like, he hoped they would remember that he came there to speak to please God.

In strongly deprecating the use of tobacco, he said that smoking was the cause of many diseases, including paralysis, blindness, diminution of the gastric juice, chronic indigestion and cancer.

Why should men put an enemy into their mouths to steal their lives away?

Then about whisky, that was distilled fire, and he hoped they would quit that. Pork also should be tabooed, as it caused tuberculosis and cancer. Let them not eat the things that defile them; let them eat that which is good.

He would speak briefly in reference to the Message sent by Jesus to John the Baptist, as contained in the eleventh chapter of Matthew: "Jesus answered and said unto them, Go your way and tell John the things which ye do hear and see: the blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good tidings preached to them. And blessed is he whosoever shall find none occasion of stumbling in Me."

John the Baptist was the first preacher of the Gospel; he was the porter opening the gate of the Christian dispensation. He was a great prophet, and even Herod did many things that he told him to, and John the Baptist would never have been put to death had it not been for Herodias.

If ever those present had a wicked woman for their enemy, let them look out. John the Baptist said to Herod, "in the Name of the Most High God thou shalt not have this woman," and accordingly he earned her lasting hatred.

John, when confined in that solitary dungeon, was assailed by perplexities and doubts, and he gave way to them only to this extent, that he sent the messengers to Jesus.

There was a lot of nonsense talked about honest doubt, which was a perfect farce. To cherish doubt was to soon get into despair. Whenever they had doubts, they should bring them to Christ.

He had read to them the answer which was applicable today. It was said that that was nineteen centuries ago, and that things had altered; but was not Jesus the same Saviour, the same Helper and the same Cleanser?

The Covenants of God had not changed. Was not a gift of healing one of the nine Divine gifts? God had not repented of that. That gift was ever there, but it simply was not exercised.

Those gifts were taken away, it was said, by medical science.

Let him be very cautious, but let him say that he would give a very great deal to any professor in Belfast or any where else who would give him a definition of medical science.

Was it like cures like of the homeopath, or was it contrary cures contrary of the allopath? Was it allopathy, homeopathy, hydropathy, or the Lord knew how many more? He was perfectly ignorant of what medical science meant.

He went to Edinburgh University when a young man. He had to fight his way there.

He went out to Australia, and in business earned sufficient money to go back to the university in his native city, where he attacbed himself as a kind of honorary chaplain to the Edinburgh Infirmary.

He had visited the wards, and gone with the professors from bedside to bedside. He had listened to the clinical lectures, and gone into the operating-rooms and seen as many as three operations in one day. He had there found that the doctors were speculating in human life.

The speaker then alluded to the discoveries during the last twenty years with regard to microbes and bacilli, and said in reference to surgical science that in the case of cancer it could be cut away, but not cured.

Dr Dowie here instanced a case which he claimed to have cured.* It was in 1888 that he landed in San Francisco, and shortly afterwards in Oakland an old lady of sixty-nine came to him and showed him a bad cancer at the back of the throat. She said she believed that if he would pray for her she would get well.

He did so and she recovered, and in November of the same year he found that the cancer had entirely disappeared. She was still alive. Of course, it was Divine Healing and not anything that he did personally.

The meeting concluded with the singing of the doxology.

*This is an error. The General Overseer never claimed to have cured any one. This is made clear by the writer in the last sentence but one of the report.—[Asst. Ed.]

MORE UNMOLESTED MEETINGS IN MANSFIELD.

Elder S. B. Osborn Spends a Night in Mansfield and Holds Two Meetings With Members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Zion, Thy God Reigneth!

GOD gave Zion another glorious victory in Mansfield, Ohio, on Lord's Day, November 18, 1900.

Elder Stephen B. Osborn, in charge of the Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Lafayette, Indiana, was instructed to minister to the members of the Church in Mansfield.

He proceeded to that city at midnight of Saturday, November 17th, and registered at the Vonhof Hotel.

Although the police might have been on the lookout for a "Zion Elder" at that time, and might have arrested him as they have many others, he was allowed to go unmolested to bed.

In the morning he went boldly through the streets to the home of one of the Zion members, where a meeting was held.

God was with this persecuted people in the power of His Spirit, and great blessing resulted from the reading of God's Word, the teaching, the prayer and the testimony.

The members present were earnest, full of loyal determination, consecration and confidence that God would give final and complete victory.

Another meeting, similarly blessed of God, was held in the afternoon.

After closing the service, Elder Osborn walked to the Union Depot, whence he sent the following telegram:

Mansfield, Ohio, November 18, 1900.

W. Hamner Piper,
Sixteenth Street and Michigan Avenue, Chicago.
Your instructions carried out
Had two blessed meetings.
All quiet. S. B. Osborn.

When this telegram was read by Overseer Piper in Central Zion Tabernacle, on that Lord's Day afternoon, there was a burst of applause and many hearty and fervent exclamations, "Praise God!"

Overseer Piper, after giving God the glory and praise for the victory, referred to the lie of the Mansfield News, which stated that no Elders had visited Mansfield on the previous Lord's Day.

He pointed out the obvious motive of the News in making such an absurd statement.

The News was the journalistic champion of Mayor Brown; the Mayor had been whipped in a battle which had been fought in the very center of the stage of public notice; hence the News attempted to hide the defeat under a "refuge of lies."

The News had said that no Elder could have been there, because the police were on the lookout and did not see any.

"If that is true," said the Overseer, "how is it that the police were so clever in ferreting out Zion Elders a few weeks ago? If they failed to meet them on the incoming trains, they ransacked the homes of the members in order to hunt them out. The truth is, they did not want to see a Zion Elder."

The Overseer then turned his attention to the very few who had criticised the "policy" which had been carried out in dealing with the Mansfield affair.

To these he administered a scathing but loving rebuke.

"The 'policy' has won," said the Overseer, "and I hope that the few 'growlers' who have been so ready to criticise it are heartily ashamed of themselves. It was the only policy which could have been followed; it was a policy which I inherited from the General Overseer, when he left for Europe."

Overseer Piper then spoke highly of Judge Wolfe, whose attitude throughout has been that of a righteous, just, fearless and manly Judge.

That the Mansfield persecution, with all its horrid outrages and murderous attacks upon unoffending Christian ministers, had its source in the secret temples of Baal, among the oath-bound worshipers of the filthy emblem of "the point within the circle," becomes more and more apparent.

The mob, cruel, bloodthirsty and cowardly, was but a hound to be urged on or called off by its Masonic masters, who sanctimoniously decried "mob violence" from the pulpit, the press and in the forum of public discussion.

But a screen of fine phraseology very quickly wears so thin as to be transparent.

A gentleman in one of the New England States, a friend of Zion, wishing to hear Mansfield's side of the case, addressed a letter of inquiry to a prominent Methodist minister in that city, Rev. F. A. Gould, D. D.

He turned the reply which he received over to Overseer George L. Mason, who was making a tour of New England.

The letter, which Overseer Mason forwarded to Headquarters, is full of the most outrageous lies. No Mansfield newspaper ever falsified more basely and more deliberately.

This so-called minister of Christ is a member of a minor Secret Society, a filthy offspring of Freemasonry. His letter shows that Zion's fearless witnessing against the pagan Secret Orders was the cause of his bitter enemity to the General Overseer and to Zion.

The letter is too long to print entire, and for the most part is but a repetition of oft-exploded lies. In quoting extracts from it, we do so fairly, giving them the meaning which their connection indicates.

Dr. Gould comes out, in his letter, with a barefaced justification of Mayor Brown and the police of Mansfield in permitting the mob to strip and tar Elders Moot and Basinger on Lord's Day, September 23d.

Digitized by Google Original from NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

He condemned the official mob in the ministers' resolutions, but in a secret, private letter justifies it.

He says:

That day (September 23d) the Dowieites got out an injunction to prevent the city authorities from touching the Elders, and so the officers dared not take them, and of course could not protect them, and they were mobbed, stripped and tarred with roofing tar.

That statement contains two falsehoods: No such injunction was gotten out by "the Dowieites" at that time, or at any other time. Such an injunction, even if it had existed, could not in any way have prevented the police from performing their sworn duty of preserving the peace and protecting law-abiding citizens.

Further on in this remarkable epistle, Dr. Gould makes the following admission:

I presume ninety per cent of the people in Mansfield sympathize with the mob.

This charge against Mansfield's citizens was made in a private letter.

But from the pulpit of the First Methodist Church of that city, on the evening of Lord's Day, July 29, 1900, according to the Mansfield Shield of July 30th, Dr. Gould said, in speaking of the mobbing of Elder Fockler:

Who is responsible for the mob of July 21st? Not Mansfield's law-abiding citizens, not Mansfield's Mayor or police, not Mansfield's press or pulpit. There were, perhaps, 3000 people in that crowd—a thousand of them from the country. The men immediately concerned numbered possibly two hundred. The great mass were simply the curious, some of whom, innocent and neutral at first, caught the mob spirit. There was not a Christian man or prominent citizen touched him. Mansfield did not mob Mr. Fockler, though he was mobbed in Mansfield.

Here is a wholesale disavowal of sympathy with the mob for every one, except, perhaps, the unfortunate "thousand from the country."

We wait for Dr. Gould to explain when he told the truth about his fellow-citizens, in his public address or in his private letter.

The most wicked and utterly groundless of all the lies in this letter is the following:

My brother, Mr. Dowie, is the greatest fraud of the age. I have positive proof of his robbery of people of every dollar they had, under the guise of a business transaction.

Is it possible that Dr. Gould, a minister of the Gospel, a friend of humanity, has "positive proof" of a diabolical crime committed by "the greatest fraud of the age," and has not taken steps to bring him to justice?

"Positive proof" could not fail to secure a conviction.

But Dr. Gould deliberately lies.

He has no such proofs.

The General Overseer has time and again, from the platform of Zion Tabernacle, and in LEAVES OF HEALING, defied any man or woman to bring any proof that he had ever gotten one cent from anybody, at any time or in any place, wrongfully.

That challenge still stands.

Let Dr. Gould produce his alleged proofs.

Dr. Gould closes with an avowal of his utter lack of sympathy with the mob, but puts in a nutshell the argument of his entire letter when he says:

The provocation was great and worse than the mob, because it claimed to be done in Christ's Name.

What mob could not find ample excuse for its action in those words?

Washington, Pennsylvania.

God continues to bless the consecrated labors of Deacon W. B. Kindle, of Kalamazoo, Michigan, and his faithful co-laborer, Mr. W. C. Suitt, of Cambridge, Ohio, as they go about on their daily business as traveling salesmen, speaking for God and for Zion and holding meetings wherever they have opportunity.

Mr. Suitt writes as follows concerning a recent visit to the members and friends of Zion at Washington, Pennsylvania:

Zion is now established in Washington, Pennsylvania.

Deacon Kindle and I held our first meeting there Tuesday evening, November 13th, at the home of C. H. Collins, 9 Hays Avenue.

We have some loyal Zion people there and feel sure that the work will grow.

Washington is a city of nearly 25,000 inhabitants, and, as in all Babel cities, the adversary is doing his work. He never stops.

He came to our meeting and thought to put the Deacon to flight, but the Sword of the Spirit is trusty and strong. We used it upon him and he was soon silenced.

Pray for Zion in Washington.

ZION IN VERMONT AND MASSACHUSETTS.

Overseer George L. Mason's Tour.

GOD has been greatly blessing Overseer Mason in his work in New England, where he has visited Gatherings of the Friends of Zion in many places.

He writes the following encouraging account of his visitation in Vermont and Massachusetts:

In Brattleboro, Vermont, much faithful work has been done by Conductor D. L. Brigham and D. A. Fay. Our two cottage meetings were helpful to them and others. Pray for Brattleboro.

In North Springfield rain hindered large attendance. One long meeting was held in the village church. F. A. Hall, the leader, and the Zion band are happy, earnest advocates of the Full Gospel. Five were baptized in a pond. Pray for them.

At Randolph and elsewhere D. M. Preston has been active in spreading tracts, and Mrs. Ira Rice's liberality has made many interested in LEAVES OF HEALING. The meetings on Lord's Day in a hall were well attended. Friends came from neighboring towns. Snow was on the hills, but the six receiving Triune Immersion obeyed joyfully and cared not for the cold.

"Christians, if your hearts are warm,
Ice and snow can do no harm."

The denominational preachers had told their people to avoid our meetings. The Methodist minister said it would be a sin to attend. But many came, especially of the young men.

Prejudice was removed. Zion will grow in Randolph.

But let Zion elsewhere pray for Vermont, whose thrifty people, although having pure water and bracing mountain air, are much cursed with cancer, scrofula and rheumatism, because for generations they have been defiled with pork and tobacco.

In the City of Fitchburg, Massachusetts, and vicinity many have in their hearts the highways to Zion.

The work had a strange beginning. A lady visiting her sister in Worcester saw in a woodbox a torn fragment of LEAVES OF HEALING. She read it, and then carried it to Fitchburg to G. W. Richardson, 28 Lawrence Street, who was deeply impressed and immediately became a subscriber.

Mr. Richardson generously hired a hall and advertised.

Forty came to the first meeting, and nearly sixty to the second. Then an informal parlor meeting was held and applications for membership and subscriptions for LEAVES OF HEALING were received. Earnest inquirers were headed for Zion.

The baptisms were in beautiful Lake Whalom.

In Boston, chiefly through the faithful and tireless labors of Deaconess D. C. Smith, the little Gathering of two, begun by Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Root, has grown to number dozens of members and friends of Zion.

An atmosphere of love and joy pervades the meetings.

The people are wisely taught in the Word and healed in answer to the prayers of the gentle Deaconess.

Friends when in Boston should go to the Zion meeting, Sunday afternoon, at Mr. Root's, corner of Warren and St. James Streets, in "The Warren"; and Wednesday evening at Deaconess Smith's, 1922 Columbus Avenue.

These parlor meetings are crowded.

The recent special meetings, held in halls, were attended by scores of thoughtful Christians.

More than fifty partook of the Lord's Supper.

Ten received Triune Immersion in a church of colored Baptists. A popular white church had promised a baptistry, but withdrew it, owing to prejudice against Zion.

The prospect for growth is very bright in Boston and in some neighboring towns.

Let all pray for Zion in fair New England—controlled, alas, by the allied powers of Rum, Tobacco, Rome and Secretism.

Brookings, South Dakota.

Deaconess Helen A. Druey, in Charge.

God has signally blessed the organization of the Gatherings of the Friends of Zion in many places in all the world.

They are the entering wedges for Branches of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, the depots for the distribution of LEAVES OF HEALING, and offer a religious haven for many whose belief in the Everlasting Gospel of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living makes them unwelcome in the apostate churches.

The Gathering in Brookings, South Dakota, which is attended by Zion people for miles around, is in charge of Deaconess Druey, who gives the following report of God's work in that portion of the field:

I send you a brief report of a grand Zion meeting held at the home of Brother and Sister Samuel Doughty, White, South Dakota, about fourteen miles from Brookings.

On Lord's Day, October 28th, the Zion people from Brookings met with the Argo and White people at the splendid home of Samuel Doughty.

Although it was a threatening-looking day, and our meeting was not so well announced as it should have been, a company of thirty-five persons met to worship God in Spirit and in Truth.

It was indeed a real Zion meeting.

At the close of a three hours' service we sat down to the Lord's Table and God richly blessed all in our first communion service.

Every one was blessed.

The few present who were not in Zion determined to reach out and ask God to show them the full teaching, as it is taught in Zion by our General Overseer.

The testimonies to God's saving and healing power were wonderful.

One brother testified to being lifted out of the very depths of whisky and tobacco habits, the second day he was in Zion Home.

He is now a saved and wonderfully healed man, the wonder of the community.

His sister also was converted and healed in Zion after she was given up to die by specialists.

There were many other testimonies of as much importance.

Some of our dear old people have been members of churches over a score of years, but did not know the service of the Master until they came into Zion teaching.

Pray for Zion in Dakota.

Zion is getting well started in Brookings County. We are praying that we will soon have an Elder sent to us.

In the meantime our people are bravely pressing forward, and are obeying and trusting God through Jesus our Saviour.

We hold meetings in Brookings twice a week.

We are about to start a Junior Bible Class and Zion Seventy work.

Our number is rapidly increasing.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Rev. Gideon Hammond, Elder-in-Charge.

We have received the following testimony to healing in answer to the faithful prayers of Elder Hammond:

FRONT ROYAL, VIRGINIA, November 9, 1900.

ELDER GIDEON HAMMOND,
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Dear Brother:—I wish to inform you that our Lord has wonderfully answered your prayers.

My boy is well, has been in school since Monday morning and has a splendid appetite.

Every vestige of catarrh has disappeared, for which we give God the glory.

My boy had typhoid fever as severely as numbers of persons who have had it and died under the physician's treatment and skilled nurses to watch them night and day.

The tenth day I dressed him and led him downstairs, although the fever was high.

He would come down every day and go to his room at night. For four nights he was delirious, but I knew the Devil was trying to force me to call a physician or use medicine. I determined to do neither.

I gave my boy substantial food all the time, so that he would not become weak. After he made things right with his brothers, with whom he had quarreled, his mind became clear and his strength came fast.

He is now all right.

Dear brother, I thank you for your prayers and encouraging words.

Sincerely your Sister in Christ, (MRS.) FANNIE PERRY.

Auburn and Falls City, Nebraska.

Rev. Charles A. Hoy, Elder-in-Charge. Evangelist Sue R. Hoy, Assisting.

The following letter to Overseer Speicher tells of healing and blessing in answer to the faithful prayers of Elder Hoy:

FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA, November 17, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER SPEICHER:—I write you my testimony as to God's healing power and the blessing I received this last August when I was taken with a severe case of bloody flux.

I was sick for three or four days.

I prayed for myself, fully trusting that God would heal me; but for some unknown cause I received no blessing, and could see I was rapidly growing worse.

I was so weak at times that I could scarcely raise myself from the bed.

So I wrote to Elder Hoy for prayer.

I was very much improved immediately after prayer, which was about 5 P. M., on Wednesday.

The next day I went out in the yard. It was a very hot day.

I was overcome by the heat and nearly fainted before I could reach the house.

I took a relapse and was very soon as sick as ever, with the same trouble.

I asked God to forgive me for my imprudence.

The Elder prayed for me on the following Sabbath; then I received an immediate and perfect healing. Praise His Name forever.

May God's blessing continue, is my daily prayer.

There are a few of us here in Zion who do Seventy work each week.

May God bless all Zion's Elders.

With Christian Love, (MISS) ANNA TAYLOR.

Six Bound Volumes of Leaves of Healing.

WHAT six books, beside the Bible, could be more precious, more valuable to every member and friend of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, than the first six volumes of LEAVES OF HEALING?

They contain more of the Everlasting Gospel; more testimonies to Salvation, Healing and Cleansing through Faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God; more sound teaching, than any other six books published.

The world may scoff at that, but Zion knows it to be true.

Not only that, but these six Volumes contain, in some measure, the priceless record of God's dealings with Zion in these latter days. In them, as nowhere else, can be found the history of the mighty work which God has established for the extension of His Kingdom and the preparation of the world for the coming of Jesus as King.

In them is contained a large portion of the wonderful Message which God sent to the world by His Messenger.

In fact, when we stop to consider all the glorious things which have gone into the composition of these six Volumes, we find words insufficient and inadequate to express their value.

Those who have been saved, healed, cleansed, made prosperous and happy through the Message brought by one copy of the Little White Dove, perhaps know something of what a mighty storehouse of power these six Volumes are.

These Volumes have been bound, by Zion Publishing House, in strong, handsome black binding, half-morocco, with a graceful design, LEAVES OF HEALING, in gilt upon the front cover.

Each has a carefully prepared index covering all the principal subjects in the book.

They sell at the regular rate of $3.50 per Volume, or the exceedingly low rate of $15 for the six Volumes.

These books should be in every Zion household.

NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD

Wonderfully Healed of Typhoid Fever. Other Healings.

CHESLEY, ONTARIO, CANADA, November 14, 1900.

REV. W. HAMNER PIPER.

My Dear Overseer:—We wish to thank you very heartily for your prayers and encouraging letters.

I have just returned from Brantford, a city about 100 miles distant, whence I wired you requesting prayer for my brother's wife.

My brother had been raised from typhoid fever soon after I arrived at their home. After dispensing with medicine and turning to God, he gained in a manner which astonished his doctor and friends.

Their little boy was also wonderfully and instantly delivered of severe bronchial trouble after prayer.

When it became evident that my sister-in-law had the fever, my brother and I took as ours Matthew 18:19, and claimed her healing. For a time she seemed to improve.

Next day we wired you for prayer.

We believed the fever was kept in check, but still she suffered very much.

It was not until Saturday that she received the spiritual discernment that this teaching was of God and for her, and that she would be healed if she followed the light.

Then she received a great spiritual blessing.

On Monday she felt she must have victory.

She laid her all at the foot of the Cross, believing that He took her infirmities and bare her sicknesses.

After we had prayed she arose in Christ's strength and walked.

She had a terrible fight.

She felt as if she would die, but she had stepped out on God's Word and found she was on solid Rock.

She resisted the Devil steadfastly and soon the victory came. She was perfectly delivered from all symptoms of fever.

Her nerves had been overstrained during her husband's sickness, but in answer to your prayers and ours, we give glory to God that He has blessed her and she is rapidly becoming strong.

Yours in grateful praise to God for all His blessings,

(MISS) LYDIA LEGGETT.

Sprained Ankle Speedily Healed. Children Healed.

VIOLA, ILLINOIS, November 17, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER PIPER:—I praise the Lord for what He has done for me.

He very graciously healed me of a bad sprain.

My ankle was also thrown out of joint.

I could not raise myself on my foot at all until I had prayed.

As soon as I asked God's help, I plainly felt and heard my ankle go into place.

I was then able to walk into the house, although in terrible pain.

My mother removed my shoe and we prayed.

Most of the pain ceased.

In the evening, when my husband prayed, all the pain left me.

The next day I could walk, and the next day after that I walked to church twice and back again, which is about five blocks.

I did not lose a moment's sleep with it, for it did not pain me at all after God took the pain away.

It remained swollen and black for several days.

I can also testify to the healing of our seven-year-old son of croup, and our two-year-old daughter of a terrible cold.

For all of these we praise God and give Him all the glory.

Your Sister in Christ, (MRS.) MARY H. NEAVE.

Mother and Babe Healed in Mansfield.

MANSFIELD, OHIO, November 17, 1900.

REV. W. HAMNER PIPER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—I praise God for the spiritual and physical blessings I have received through Zion teaching.

My life was a burden to me for many years. Many doctors treated me, but none of them could cure me.

I praise God for healing my body and keeping me by grace Divine.

I feel thankful to you for your love and kindness, and for your encouraging letter.

I also thank you for praying for my dear little baby.

How wonderfully God heard and answered prayer! My baby's arm is all healed up, and it was so badly burned.

I wept for joy this morning that God is so good to me.

I will send my subscription now, as I cannot get along without LEAVES OF HEALING.

I love to read of what God is doing for the people.

I pray earnestly that Zion will Go Forward in Mansfield, and I know it will if we keep humble and obedient.

God bless Zion in Chicago and all over the world.

Your Sister in Christ, (MRS.) MARY A. MILES.

Immediately Healed of Serious Dog Bite.

137 HOMER STREET, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, November 13, 1900.

REV. W. H. PIPER.

Dear Overseer:—It is with a deep sense of gratitude to God that I write these lines.

On the 5th of November I sent a request asking you to pray for me, as I had been very severely bitten by a dog.

Eleven P. M. was the hour set for prayer. At that time I knelt in our office and prayed.

My leg and hand were very painful and badly swollen.

I went right about my work, and by morning the swelling was nearly all gone.

The wounds have all healed up nicely. There were seven of them, three quite serious, but I have not lost an hour's work nor suffered any inconvenience.

I praise God for Zion and for Zion's God, who is able to deliver us from all the power of the enemy.

Thanking you for your prayers in my behalf, I remain

Your Brother in Christ, JOHN MURDOCH.

Healed of Kidney Trouble. Greatly Blessed Through Leaves of Healing.

MARSEILLES, ILLINOIS, November 14, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER PIPER:—I desire to let you know the blessing I received when I was at Zion Home.

I was healed of kidney trouble which I had had for years.

I am glad I left the M. E. Church and came into a Church which teaches the Bible truth.

I would like very much to be able to attend church at Zion in Chicago.

My daily prayer is for all Zion.

I will tell you what LEAVES OF HEALING did for me.

It gave me more light, and I have been enabled to trust God for all things and to live true to Him.

I am happy every day.

Had it not been for LEAVES OF HEALING, I would still be suffering with that terrible kidney disease.

I thank God for all that He has done for me.

Yours in Christ, (MRS.) SARAH E. INGOLD.

Little Boy Receives Perfect Healing From God.

MASON CITY, IOWA, November 12, 1900.

OVERSEER JOHN G. SPEICHER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—Our little boy got much better when you prayed.

The pain ceased and the swelling went down, but he was still unable to walk.

We held on to God, determined not to give the Devil the victory.

Today he received instant healing.

No doctors or drugs were needed.

He had not walked for six weeks before today.

We give God the glory.

May God speed Zion.

As ever, your Sister in Christ, MINNIE ARRETT.

Delivered From Tobacco Habit After Thirty Years of Slavery.

607 NORTH PERRY STREET,
ATTICA, INDIANA, November 14, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER PIPER:—I have long felt it my duty to send my testimony to Zion.

It is through LEAVES OF HEALING that I have been so wonderfully blessed.

I was a stinkpot for over thirty years and I had heartburn.

That was all gone as soon as I went to the Lord and believed He would answer prayer.

I have no desire for tobacco any more.

I had tried to quit many times and had used many remedies, but all failed.

Through earnest prayer God has healed me. JAMES MILES.

ZION CITY BANK.

By DEACON W. S. PECKHAM.

WITH the settling of the questions at stake during the last political canvass has come a renewed activity in all branches of trade. New enterprise and expansion is manifest in nearly every department of business.

The bank clearings at all the large cities show great increase and indicate many and heavy transactions.

There is an upward tendency in all the good stocks, and many have handsomely advanced. The cloud of uncertainty which has hung over the industrial world for several months has lifted.

Buoyancy and confidence are in the air and have given new life to old enterprises, and caused many contemplated enterprises to be launched.

Every part of the country seems to be sharing in this prosperity.

These conditions are the result of a return of confidence, more than any other cause. For many months the manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers have been quietly waiting for the settlement of the election issues. The policy of the present administration will be continued for at least four years. With confidence at home and entrance into the markets of the world assured for our products, we may look forward to several years of great prosperity.

With the labor of the country employed and well paid, we shall have a large home consumption, and with a large foreign trade added we may confidently expect farmers and manufacturers to rejoice together.

TIMES OF prosperity are always times of danger. The spirit of speculation is liable to creep in and extravagance takes the place of careful expenditure. There is an old saying, "Make hay while the sun shines." So in times of prosperity, prepare for adversity.

MANY PERSONS quote scripture as the Devil quoted it to Jesus.

"Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon the earth, . . . but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven," has nothing whatever to do with making a wise provision for the future. Any man who spends and gives away every dollar he makes is a sinner before God. If he were a bird, he would refuse to migrate, and when cold weather came he would sit on a limb and freeze to death.

If he were a squirrel, he would refuse to make a house or lay up nuts, and would die of cold and starvation.

We have seen religious cranks who would disdain to lay up for themselves, who were perfectly willing to use that which others had laid up. What a wreck and ruin there would be if this accursed sentiment prevailed throughout the land and no one laid up anything.

Many families are suffering today because the father was a spendthrift. It is wrong to make money or anything else our heart's treasure, but that is very different from saving up for the education of our children and against a day of adversity.

The day is coming when we must either depend upon what we have saved or depend upon others.

No man has a right to hoard wealth, neither has he a right to destroy it.

WITHOUT MONEY Zion would have been kept out of Mansfield, and could not have protected her interests in Philadelphia, Washington and throughout the world. Let God's children get all the money they can honestly; give God a tithe and offering, and hold the rest as God's stewards. God says if we use it well and increase it that He will give us more, and even give us that which the unfaithful steward would not use.

THE DEVIL has had control of the silver and gold too long. The money which God has put in the hands of His children has been invested in stocks and securities managed by men who fear not God nor regard man. The people of God can now have their money handled by men who fear God and love their fellowmen.

All money put in Zion City Bank, or invested in Zion's splendid securities, will be used for righteous purposes. There will never be any fear of loss from dishonesty or any other cause. God is greatly blessing those who are supporting Zion's Financial Institutions.

THE WORLD should never get any of Zion's money. Let all members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, who have ungodly relatives who hate Zion, see to it that their money is left in the hands of those who will use it for God. If you have property, make a will and leave at least a part of it to Zion, where it will be used to extend God's Kingdom.

It is a great sin to leave money to those who will serve the Devil. If we leave our property to the enemies of Zion, we are helping the Devil to fight God's work.

CHRISTMAS TIME is drawing near and many are now planning gifts for the loved ones.

One of the nicest gifts for children or adults would be a bank book in our Savings Department, containing a deposit of one or more dollars. There is not a member of Zion who would not appreciate such a gift.

Thanks be to God for His unspeakable Gift.—2 Corinthians 9:15.

CHEERING WORDS FROM ZION'S GUESTS

NOTES FROM ZION HOME

THE regular Praise and Testimony Meeting held in Zion Home, Saturday evening, November 17, 1900, was conducted by Elder Fockler.

After the usual opening exercises, the States represented were enumerated and found to be eleven in number, as follows:

Connecticut, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maine, Michigan, Missouri, New Hampshire, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin.

The following foreign countries were represented:

Canada, China, England and Japan.

The meeting was then thrown open for testimony.

INNES BRENT, 1311 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "God has been very good and kind to me. I have received a wonderful healing.

"From the time I left school until seven or eight months ago I was more or less connected with theatrical troupes as a singer. I had some musical education in the vocal line, and thought it would be nice to travel all over the country and sing, and make lots of money.

"I found this all very true for a while, but I soon fell in with the evil. The Devil came in and got me completely. Among other things I acquired the habit of smoking cigarettes. I started at the age of sixteen or seventeen and probably smoked one or two a week. The habit gradually grew upon me until I smoked fifty, sixty, or seventy cigarettes in one day.

"From a weight of 122 pounds I gradually lost until I only weighed ninety-four pounds last January. I came from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where I was singing, to Mansfield, Ohio, my former home, a total wreck, both physically and mentally. My mother persuaded me to attend Elder Fockler's Mission in Mansfield. I did not like it very well at first, but the next Sunday I went again. There was something there that I could not help but like, although I really hated the place.

"After I heard some of the teaching, I was convinced that God would heal me if I would fully confess and forsake my sins and faithfully do my part. I had tried everything in medical science to take this habit out of my system, but did not receive any benefit.

"I requested the Elder to pray for me at 9 o'clock in the evening. He prayed, and I prayed also at that time, and from that very moment I have not had the least desire for tobacco in any form, nor for drinking nor any of the vices which I had contracted in my former life.

"I gained in weight, and in a little over two months I weighed 116 pounds.

"I thank God that I am in Zion."

MISS BERTHA ZIEHLKE, Zion Home, said: "I thank God for what He has done for me. About eighteen months ago I first heard of Zion. I gave up medicine then, and have never taken any since. God has healed me of constipation and indigestion. I thank Him for His goodness."

IRVING E. HAMMOND, Colebrook, New Hampshire, said: "God has saved me and blessed me in spirit, soul and body. For four years I have seryed Him the best I knew."

E. WARBRITTON, Lafayette, Indiana, said: "I am thankful that I can be with Zion people tonight. I came to Zion about two years ago, with very severe catarrh of the stomach. The first night I went into the prayer room, when they laid hands on me, I was healed of that disease; also of the tobacco habit, to which I had been a slave for twenty-three years. The next thing I gave up was pork.

"I am traveling, and I always make it a point to stop with Zion people whenever I can. They are good people to be with."

W. F. WATERBURY, Stamford, Connecticut, said: "I thank God that He has brought me to Zion. My wife asked me how I liked Zion, and I said it was the nearest I had ever gotten to God in my life.

"I used to like tobacco, and I tried many times to give it up. I also tried many so-called tobacco habit cures, but still I could not give it up.

"A friend of ours sent me some Zion Literature. I thought it was the most horrible stuff I ever got hold of at first. Then I believed, and asked the Lord if He would not take away my appetite for tobacco. He took it away. I think that the term which the General Overseer used—'stinkpot'—had a great deal to do with it. I thank God for Zion and for LEAVES OF HEALING."

CHRISTOPHER MCCORMICK, Zion City, Illinois, said: "I used tobacco for thirty-five years. I both chewed and smoked. I would get up in the middle of the night to smoke, and I would chew plug tobacco and swallow it. I was everything that was bad. I used to say that I was meaner than the Devil wanted me to be.

"Through LEAVES OF HEALING I had received partial healing for blindness and kidney trouble, but I still used tobacco. One day it came to me very forcibly that I was asking the Lord to cleanse my system, and I was defiling my body by using tobacco. I threw it away, and I have never taken it since.

"Last year I had my limb crushed, but the Lord delivered me without the use of doctors or drugs. Today I stand on both feet just as well as I ever did. I can do as much work as I ever did. I give God all the glory." (Mr. McCormick's testimony to healing of compound comminuted fracture of the leg appears in full in LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume 6, Number 21.)

MISS ANNIE DEUTSCHE, Zion Home, said: "About thirteen years ago I started out to be a nurse. I thought I could best serve humanity in that way. I found a great many things which were contrary to God, but I still kept at it in order to make my living.

"I broke down in health and gave up nursing for a year. I went into evangelistic work in the Methodist Church. They put me back at nursing again. I nursed until two years ago, when I came to Zion.

"I have been in Zion Home for some time and have been blessed in spirit, soul and body. I have been healed of chronic constipation and bronchial trouble; also of toothache. I thank God for His goodness to me."

MISS ELLEN BURKLUND, Zion Home, said: "About five years ago I was in a hospital at Shanghai, China. I was then very sick, and was surrounded by four doctors, but they could not give me any help. They did all they could for me, but I grew worse and worse. I was just at death's door. I asked God to either take me home to heaven or heal me at once, as it seemed that I could only live a few minutes.

"The very moment I asked the Lord to heal me, I received healing. I had a very severe cough, and do not know but that it was consumption, although they never told me that it was. I praise God that He spared me, and gave me this wonderful healing. Seven months ago I arrived in Zion Home. I am so glad to have the privilege of being with these people. May God bless Zion."

FRED W. TEBBE, Benton Harbor, Michigan, said: "One year and three months ago God wonderfully saved me. I had been a miserable sinner. When I was seven and a half years old I started smoking cigarettes. I used to smoke on an average about forty in one day. When I woke up through the night I had to smoke them. I started to drink quite young and was fast preparing to fill a drunkard's grave. I was brought up a Roman Catholic, and was not taught that these things were wrong.

"It took a long time for me to get converted. I had been on a sick bed for a long while suffering with different diseases, and it seemed that I could not get well. I praise God that He showed me that there was help for me.

"I began to trust God as my Healer, and He healed me. He made a man out of me. From 139 pounds I have gained in weight to 160 pounds. I praise God that I have never enjoyed a better year in all my life than I have this last year."

R. M. BUTLER, 14 East Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I hear so many testimonies about the tobacco habit that I feel like telling how the Devil had me bound. I was afraid to use tobacco at first because I thought it would make me sick, but when I started to use it the Devil did not let it make me a particle sick. I used the very strongest tobacco that was made. I would pay a high price for it in order to get the strongest.

"Finally, I wanted to quit the use of tobacco. But I was not a Christian and could not do so in my own strength. I was a Methodist, but they did not tell me to go to the Lord. They would advise me to go to the 'Keeley Cure' or some other place. I had a terrible struggle, but by the help of God I succeeded in giving it up. I thank God that He delivered me, and I have never had any desire for it since.

"I thank God for LEAVES OF HEALING and for the many blessings I have received through reading it. I also thank Him for Zion Home. The first trip I made here it seemed like heaven on earth. I have received much spiritual blessing through Zion."

FORM OF APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

—IN THE—

CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.

To all who are desirous of entering into Fellowship with the Christian Catholic Church:

MY DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS:—The principles of the Christian Catholic Church have been fully set forth in the Reports of Two Conferences on Organization, held in Zion Tabernacle No. 2, which are fully reported in LEAVES OF HEALING for January 31 and February 7, 1896. The Basis of Fellowship is set forth in the second section of the Resolution passed on February 5th (see LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume II, Number 17, page 267):

FIRST—That we recognize the infallible inspiration and sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures as the rule of faith and practice.

SECOND—That we recognize that no persons can be members of the Church who have not repented of their sins and have not trusted in Christ for Salvation.

THIRD—That such persons must also be able to make a good profession, and declare that they do know, in their own hearts, that they have truly repented, and are truly trusting Christ, and have the witness, in a measure, of the Holy Spirit.

FOURTH—That all other questions of every kind shall be held to be matters of opinion and not matters that are essential to church unity.

All who are conscious of fulfilling these conditions, no matter where they may reside, are invited to fill up the following blank and answer the questions contained therein.

I am, faithfully yours in Jesus,

ZION'S BIBLE CLASS.

CONDUCTED BY DEACON DANIEL SLOAN.

MIDWEEK BIBLE CLASS LESSON, DECEMBER 12th or 13th.

God's Unalterable Character.

1. God is not man that He should lie.—Hebrews 6:16-30.
   Does God try to establish the fact that He changes not?
   What does He hold before us as evidence?
   What is the anchor that fills us full of hope?
2. God, the Fountain of Living Water, is where He ever has been.—Jeremiah 17:13, 14.
   Of what does God heal His people?
   What do those do who go to doctors?
   Of what is premature death a sign?
3. God is Holy, and can never fellowship with sin.—Habakkuk 1:12, 13.
   What is the reason we are alive?
   What is the cause of people getting sick?
   Can God heal those who repent not of sin?
4. God never varies, although man always has varied.—Malachi 3:5, 6.
   Is God ever an advocate of doctors and drugs?
   Will God ever be a friend of liars and perjurers?
   Can God ever fellowship with robbers and oppressors?
5. God is as free with His gifts as He ever was.—Ecclesiastes 3:11-15.
   Did God ever cause a sad face?
   Did God ever make a deformed body?
   Do flowers ever lose their beauty or perfume?
6. There never was a time God was willing any man should perish.—Ezekiel 18:31, 32.
   Has God ever willed the death of a child?
   How many children die of parental transgression?
   Does God make much of funeral occasions?
7. The eyes of the Lord still run to and fro, to help all who trust Him with a perfect heart.—Psalm 33:8-12.
   Does God give to all occasions to come to Him?
   Will neither grace nor judgment arouse people?
   Will not all who fight God have a hard time?
8. God's mercy cannot fail; it is limitless like Himself.—Romans 11:26-34.
   Where does God's deliverer come from?
   Will the deceived enemies of God be saved?
   What acclaim does the fact that God will save all arouse?

The Lord our God is an Ever-Unchanging God.

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS LESSON, DECEMBER 16th.

The Lord's Supper. That Lasting Memorial.

1. Its institution.—Mathew 26:26-30.
   What is it a memorial of?
   What is the order of it?
   How does it close?
2. Its memorial.—Luke 22:19, 20.
   How are we to ever remember Christ?
   What covenant are we now under?
   What does the blood do?
3. Its spirit.—1 Corinthians 11:18-22.
   Can a Church of strife enter into it?
   Can a Church of heretics be blessed by it?
   Is it to be made a formal occasion?
4. Its administration.—1 Corinthians 11:23-26.
   At what time was it first observed?
   Is Christ for the body as well as the spirit?
   When is Christ coming again?
5. Its abuse.—1 Corinthians 11:27-34.
   Can a person with an unforgiving spirit partake of it?
   Is there a penalty if one is careless and unrepentant?
   What comes to those who do not seek Christ as Lord and Master?
6. Its fellowship.—Acts 2:42-47.
   Does it mean that we are to be friends of all God's people?
   Does it mean that every saint has a right to all we have and are?
   Does it mean that joy comes from God and not from what we have?

God's Holy People are an Ordinance-Observing People.

God Dries Up a Tumor in Answer to Prayer.

SOUTH BEND, November 17, 1900.

OVERSEER J. G. SPEICHER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—On September 3d I wrote you for prayer that I might be healed of a tumor on the hand, caused from a bruise.

I was also suffering from other ailments.

A short time after the request was sent you, the soreness left my hand and the unnatural growth began to dry up.

About two weeks ago the growth all came off my hand and my hand healed up nicely. One could hardly tell where it was now.

My other ailments are about removed; are better than for ten years back.

Your Brother in Christ, JOHN L. CALDWELL.

LEAVES OF HEALING

I am the Lord that healeth thee.

And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

EDITED BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

VOLUME VIII. NUMBER 7. CHICAGO, DECEMBER 8, 1900. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

HEALED IN A MOMENT OF RHEUMATISM, VALVULAR HEART DISEASE, AND GRANULATED LARYNGITIS.

IF I DO BUT TOUCH THE BORDER OF HIS GARMENT, I SHALL BE MADE WHOLE.

With this thought within herself, a suffering woman, wasted by years of disease, pressed through the throngs about Jesus.

With trembling fingers, she touched the "border of His garment."

Instantly sweet, new, powerful life swept through her.

She arose with her heart overflowing with joy to hear the Divine Voice say, "Daughter, be of good cheer; thy Faith hath made thee whole."

With the same thought within herself, this Witness drew near to Him, and in that same Faith put her case in His hands.

She had long been a sufferer.

Rheumatism had tortured her with burning agonies.

Resulting from the rheumatism, disease had laid its foul fingers upon her heart.

Human physicians were of no value.

They acknowledged their helplessness.

Death seemed about to come at any moment.

Then a painful and dangerous disease of the throat attacked her and added greatly to her sufferings. Again medical aid was invoked.

She was told that she could be cured only by submitting to having her throat burned out.

MISS NANCY STARRATT.

She shrank from such a terrible ordeal.

She grew worse.

Life was a burden.

The shadow of death was darkening over her.

She had prayed for healing with a doubting "if it be Thy will."

There was no faith in her prayer, and it was not answered.

She believed it God's will that she should die.

But God sent His Son to give life.

"He that hath the power of death," says God's Word, "is the Devil."

The Devil was killing her, and in the darkness of the false teaching of the apostate Methodist Church she charged God with that diabolical murder.

Then, one day, the Little White Dove alighted upon her bed of pain.

What a wonderful message it brought!

How eagerly she read!

God her Healer?

His will that she should live and not die?

Jesus the same as when He said, "Daughter, be of good cheer; thy Faith hath made thee whole"?

She read of wonderful life-healing for a woman who had passed the gates of death.

Could that healing touch be for her?

Yes, it must all be true, for she could find it all in God's Word.

He said, "I am the Lord that healeth thee."

He said, "I am the Lord, I change not."

Jesus went about "healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people."

Jesus said, "I will," when the leper said, "If Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean."

God said through His apostle that "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever."

It was when the radiant light of this truth entered her being and swept away the chill shadows of doubt that she placed herself in His hands.

By the Word of Christ, Faith had come to her.

She did not hesitate or waver.

She immediately arose from her bed, clothed herself and walked.

At that moment all the diseases which for years had been dragging her down to the grave slipped from her and left her perfectly whole.

It was no delusion.

It was no passing excitement.

It was as permanent as it was perfect.

She remains in abounding health and strength to this day, three years later.

As a member of Zion's Seventies, she goes forth into the streets and lanes of Chicago, carrying that same blessed Message which brought new life to her.

The apostate Church which had taught her to doubt God refused to permit her to tell of what He had done for her.

They could not deny that she was healed, but refused to give God the glory.

Zion gives all glory to God.

Zion sends forth this wonderful Story.

Zion rejoices to give this Witness the opportunity to go forth, through all the earth, to tell suffering ones everywhere how they may throw aside all human means, and, fulfilling God's conditions and trusting Him fully, receive the saving health which He has promised. A. W. N.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MISS NANCY STARRATT.

1635 MICHIGAN AVENUE,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, November 28, 1900.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I wish to add my testimony to the many already given to the goodness and love of God, who forgiveth all our iniquities, and healeth all our diseases.

I was converted to God when quite young, and rejoiced in Jesus as my Saviour.

Knowing nothing of Him as the Healer, I became the victim of diseases which oppressed me many years.

My home was in Ontario, Canada, where I received my training as a teacher.

While teaching in a place near Toronto I was taken with ague, which was very prevalent at that time. The only remedy that seemed to break the fever was quinine, and of that I took a great deal.

After suffering for two summers, I was taken with inflammatory rheumatism and was obliged to resign my position.

I was not able to be out at all that winter. I was treated by two or three physicians, but failing to get any relief, tried different patent medicines.

When warm weather came in the spring I was better and able to resume my work, but I found that in trying to get rid of the rheumatism I had contracted a disease much more serious—valvular heart trouble.

My physician told me that when the rheumatism was gone, all symptoms of the other would disappear, but I found that every attack of rheumatism I afterwards had left my heart in a much worse condition.

After recovering from one of those attacks, I was taken with hemorrhages, and thinking my lungs were diseased, I consulted a throat and lung specialist in Toronto, Dr. McDonagh. He told me that my lungs were sound, but that I had a serious heart trouble, and should consult a specialist at once.

I went from there to Detroit, Michigan, and consulted Dr. Frothingham, an old and eminent physician. He told me medicine would do me no good; that I must avoid all excitement and vigorous exercise.

I spent several months there, and, feeling better in the fall, returned to Ontario and again took up teaching.

I soon found, however, that the old disease was there still, although the rest had done me much good.

After two years' teaching I resigned and went East to Yonkers, New York. While there I was much worse. I had constant pain in the region of the heart, and at times a feeling of numbness would pass over my body.

I became alarmed, and consulted a physician there, but I had no hope of recovery, and knew that at any moment my heart might cease its action.

Added to my heart trouble I had a distressing throat affection—granulated laryngitis. I took many remedies and treatments, but they only gave temporary relief.

At times the least particle of dust taken into my throat would throw me into a spasm, and for a short time there would be a struggle for breath.

I consulted a throat specialist, Dr. Good, of Winnipeg. He told me my throat would never be better without an operation, and that I must have the granulations burned off. I did not submit to an operation, and my throat gradually grew worse.

In December, 1897, my heart became so bad that I was confined to my bed.

Life was a burden to me, and I did not care to live.

I had often prayed for healing, but was always careful to say, "If it be Thy will."

Not getting my healing, I believed it was God's will I should die, and I desired to do His will.

In that condition the Little White Dove found me.

A copy was handed to Evangelist Loblaw, who was then a minister in the Methodist Church. He brought it to me. It was the first I had seen and the first I had heard of Dr. Dowie or Zion in Chicago.

It was a copy containing the testimony of Mrs. S. A. Kelly. I thank God for that paper and for the wonderful teaching which showed me God's Way of Healing

Life and death were very vividly set before me, and I felt that I must choose life, or reject this glorious Gospel and die.

I put my case in God's hands, and in His Name arose from my bed, dressed, and went downstairs to my friends.

I shall never forget the experience of that day.

I was very happy. I had touched the hem of Christ's garment and was made whole.

I soon began to realize that Satan was the defiler, for in a few days I was attacked with severe pains in my head, something I had not had before.

My prayers for that did not seem to be answered, and the Devil tried hard to destroy my faith.

I had only that one copy of LEAVES OF HEALING and my Bible, and with these I tried to fight the adversary.

I sent my subscription for LEAVES OF HEALING and ordered other Zion Literature, feeling my need of more teaching on Divine Healing. I read these with much interest and profit and in a short time I was perfectly healed.

I realized then as never before the meaning of that verse, "He sendeth His Word and healeth them."

I was a member of the Methodist Church, and did not then think of severing my connection with it.

But when I returned to my work in the Sunday School and Epworth League, my testimony to God's power to heal me was not received, and I was looked upon as one who had departed from the faith. I found no food there for spirit, soul or body.

I withdrew from fellowship in that Church, and in February, 1899, came to Zion.

I was baptized and received as a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

I am a member of Zion's Seventies, and rejoice that I have the privilege of carrying the Message of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living to those who are still in darkness.

It is nearly three years since I received my healing, and I praise God for His wonderful keeping power. These years have been the best years of my life in many ways.

Through your teaching I know more of God's will, and have been led to trust Him more fully than ever before.

I thank God for bringing me to Zion, where the afflicted of His people find refuge.

Thanking you for your prayers and teaching, and praying that God will spare your life for many years, I remain

Your Sister in Christ, NANCY STARRATT.

The Origin of Medicine is Found in Heathenism.

The practice of medicine is not authorized by the Word of God. This is why Zion is fighting it.

God calls Himself the Healer of His people. He tells them in His Covenant of Salvation and Healing and Holiness that if they will hearken to His Voice and keep His laws, He will not permit disease to be put upon them.

The practice of medicine originated in heathenism, in the worship of demons. It can be readily traced back through its history to the heathen gods. Apollo was the presiding deity of medicine. Apollo was also called Phœbus, another name for the sun, thus showing that medicine is a part of sun-worship.

Æsculapius, the son of Apollo, was the god of the healing art, and he is represented as grasping the head of the serpent. This was evidently intended by the demons, who inspired this design, as an imitation of Christ, who, God promised, should bruise the head of the serpent. This promise was made to Adam and Eve when they sinned and by breaking God's laws received the seeds of disease and death within themselves.

George F. Fort, in his work called "Medical Economy During the Middle Ages," tells us that the people then traced pestilence, sickness, fractures of the limbs and disease of all kinds to the work of evil spirits. He also said that in the practice of magical arts it was claimed that evil spirits provided cures for diseases.

The prescription of the physician of today contains a prayer to Jupiter. Jupiter was also called Jove, and was considered the supreme ruler of the heathen world. As such he was the opposite of Jehovah.

The ℞ which is found on medical prescriptions, which physicians will tell you stands for the Latin word recipe, or take, is the symbol of Jupiter. It is thus explained under the head of "Medical" in Webster's Dictionary: "℞ (Latin recipe.) Take. This character was originally the same as ♃, the symbol of Jupiter, and was placed at the head of a formula to propitiate the king of the gods that the compound might act favorably."

See, also, "Farquharson's Materia Medica," page 48; "Wayne's Medical Dictionary," etc.

The ancient oath administered to physicians begins thus: "I swear by Apollo the physician, Æsculapius and Health, and all the other gods and goddesses, that according to my ability and judgment I will keep this oath."

St. James says:

Is any among you sick? let him call for the Elders of the Church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the Name of the Lord: and the prayer of faith shall save him that is sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, it shall be forgiven him.—James 5:14, 15.

The forgiveness of his sins has to come before the healing; for God begins at the center of man's being to heal him, and not at the outside.

How the M. E. Church Believes in Divine Healing.

Report on Hospitals of the Northwest Indiana Conference, held at Lafayette, Indiana, September 5-10, 1900:

We emphasize and encourage the work of building hospitals among our people. To this end we commend the work already done toward the founding of the Hospital and Deaconess' Home in Indianapolis. We congratulate the management upon the purchase of the eligible site secured, and that $—— of the $—— purchase price has been paid, and that four deaconesses are already in the field. We rejoice, also, that substantial progress is being made by the trustees of the —— Hospital and Training School at South Bend.

. . . . . .

We recommend the endowment of free beds in the hospitals, for the preachers of this Conference and their families. We cordially invite their agents to our charges.

We are indebted for the above extracts from the Report on Hospitals to a member of Zion, who also sent with it the accompanying letter to Overseer Piper:

DEAR OVERSEER:—I send the above report to you without comment beyond saying that this is the Conference from which I made my escape two years ago. Am I not fortunate?

Rev. ——, Chairman of the Committee which made the above report, was appointed by the Bishop as agent of the above-named hospital. He is the ex-Secretary of the Epworth League of the M. E. Church.

"How are the mighty fallen!"

The Full Gospel goes forth in the teaching of Zion Literature to tell the people to repent of their sins and to go to the Great Physician instead of to the hospitals and doctors for healing.

It tells them that God's Covenant of Salvation and Healing which He made with His people stands today, for it is the eternal, unchangeable truth.

In a letter to Overseer Speicher from South Africa, Mr. Joseph Webb says:

The truth is powerful here, though spoken in weakness.

We have been spreading the Gospel and several persons have received blessing. On the 16th of this month I baptized by Triune Immersion three persons, my father included, and on Sunday last three more. All testify to having received great blessing in Baptism.

One man has not worked for four years and was given up by doctors to die. He has given himself to God, gotten rid of tobacco and medicine, and is trusting God to heal him. His appetite is returning and he is getting stronger.

A Hottentot girl's arm had almost rotted away.

There was only a little itching pimple when she first went to the doctors, and under their treatment and since, the whole forearm had become one mass of sores, quite rotten and smelling horribly.

Since she has been trusting God and we have prayed with her, the arm is better. It has stopped discharging, the pain is gone and she is much better.

When I leave here my father will continue the meetings. He will come into Zion and will, I believe, be a blessing to the flock here. He has been reading LEAVES OF HEALING for about two years and has been a Methodist preacher about thirty years. He is surprised to find how much he has learned during the last two years.

THE GENERAL OVERSEER'S PLANS CHANGED.

He Will Not Go to the Holy Land, but, After Holding Missions on the Continent and Organizing the Work in London, Will Return Home, Arriving in Chicago January 17, 1901.

THREE cablegrams have been received from the General Overseer and read in Central Zion Tabernacle since our last publication.

They announce a very material change in his plans for the remainder of his stay abroad.

On Friday, November 9, 1900, Mrs. Samuel Stevenson, beloved wife of Deacon Stevenson and sister of Mrs. Jeannie Dowie, peacefully departed this life and entered into the presence of Him in whose presence there is joy forever more.

She was on the Atlantic with her husband, on her way to America, and passed away after a very brief illness.

She was very dearly loved by all who had known her during her brief stay in Zion, and all hearts were moved with deepest sympathy with the husband, sister, brother, niece and nephew.

On Lord's Day afternoon, November 25, 1900, the following cablegram was received and read in Central Zion Tabernacle:

PARIS, FRANCE, November 25, 1900.

ZION, Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

Christ conquers everywhere.
Zion victorious.
Manchester and Leeds police afraid.
At Manchester Wednesday they closed the hall and surrendered the situation to Demetrian medical mob.
Left Leeds Friday afternoon because alarming telegrams from my daughter.
Mrs. Dowie dangerously prostrated with grief sister's departure.
Reached Paris yesterday just in time.
Much better now.
Pray for Paris; also Zurich Mission, December 9th to 12th.
Mrs. Dowie goes with me.
Many adversaries.
God for us.
Europe asks, "What of Zion?"
We answer Isaiah fourteen, thirty-two.
Praise God.
Mizpah. DOWIE.

The Scripture cited reads:

What then shall one answer the Messengers of the nation? That the Lord hath founded Zion, and in her shall the afflicted of His people take refuge.

Many were the fervent prayers offered to God to comfort the sorrowing by His Holy Spirit, the Divine Comforter, and to greatly bless the General Overseer and party during the remainder of their stay abroad.

On November 29th, Thanksgiving Day, when many hundreds gathered in Central Zion Tabernacle, the following cablegram was the cause of much happy thanksgiving:

PARIS, November 29, 1900.

ZION, Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

I join with Zion everywhere in thanksgiving to God for Jubilee Year.
Zion in Europe sends one hundred and fifth Psalm, verses thirteen, fourteen, fifteen.
Zion in America and other Continents and Islands rejoices in Isaiah, chapters sixty to sixty-five.
Thanks for many kind cablegrams.
Elder Dowie comforted; improving in health.
Love to all.
Hallelujah!
Mizpah.
"Go Forward, oh Zion." DOWIE, General Overseer.

Psalm 105:13-15 reads:

And they went about from nation to nation,
From one kingdom to another people.
He suffered no man to do them wrong;
Yea, He reproved kings for their sakes;
Saying, Touch not Mine anointed ones,
And do My prophets no harm.

Let all read Isaiah, chapters sixty to sixty-five. They are too long to quote here.

Although many were disappointed that the General Overseer would miss his long-planned tour to the Holy Land, there was great rejoicing in Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day, December 2, 1900, when the following cablegram was read:

PARIS, November 29, 1900.

ZION, Michigan Avenue, Chicago:

Fifty-first Isaiah, seventh to sixteenth.

All resting quietly at St. Cloud.

Changed plans.

After meetings in Switzerland and France we leave for Grimsby, England, nineteenth December.

We then organize Zion in London, closing All-Night with God.

Leave for Boston first January.

Meetings there thirteenth to fifteenth.

Expect, God willing, to arrive at Zion, Chicago, Thursday, January 17th.

Go Forward.

Mizpah. DOWIE.

The following is the Scripture referred to in the cablegram:

Hearken unto Me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is My law; fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye dismayed at their revilings. For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but My righteousness shall be forever, and My salvation unto all generations.

Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the Lord; awake, as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times. Art Thou not it that cut Rahab in pieces, that pierced the dragon? Art Thou not it which dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep; that made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over? And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads: they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

I, even I, am He that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou art afraid of man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass; and hast forgotten the Lord thy Maker, that stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and fearest continually all the day because of the fury of the oppressor, when he maketh ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor? The captive exile shall speedily be loosed; and he shall not die and go down into the pit, neither shall his bread fail. For I am the Lord thy God, which stirreth up the sea, that the waves thereof roar: the Lord of Hosts is His Name. And I have put My words in thy mouth, and have covered thee in the shadow of Mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art My people.

DO YOU KNOW GOD'S WAY OF HEALING?

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Let it be supposed that the following words are a conversation between the reader [A] an the writer [B].

A. What does this question mean? Do you really suppose that God has some one especial way of healing in these days of which men may know and avail themselves?

B. That is exactly my meaning, and I wish very much that you should know God's Way of Healing, as I have done for many years.

A. What is the way, in your opinion?

B. You should rather ask, WHO is God's Way? for the Way is a Person, not a thing. I will answer your question in His own words, "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life; no one cometh unto the Father, but by Me." These words were spoken by our Lord Jesus Christ, the Eternal Son of God, who is both our Saviour and our Healer. (John 14:6.)

A. But I always thought that these words only referred to Him as the Way of Salvation. How can you be sure that they refer to Him as the Way of Healing also?

B. Because He cannot change. He is "the same yesterday and today, yea and forever." (Hebrews 13:8.) He said that He came to this earth not only to save us but to heal us (Luke 4:18), and He did this when in the flesh on earth. Being unchanged, He must be able and willing and desirous to heal now.

A. But is there not this difference, namely, that He is not with us now?

B. No; for He said, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world"; and so He is with us now, in Spirit, just as much as when He was here in the flesh.

A. But did He not work these miracles of healing when on earth merely to prove that He was the Son of God?

B. No; there was still a greater purpose than that. He healed the sick who trusted in Him in order to show us that He came to die not only for our sins, but for our sicknesses, and to deliver us from both.

A. Then, if that is so, the atonement which He made on the Cross must have been for our sicknesses as well as our sins. Can you prove that is the fact from the Scriptures?

B. Yes, I can, and the passages are very numerous. I need quote two only. In Isaiah 53:4, 5, it is written of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed." Then in the Gospel according to Matthew, this passage is quoted and directly applied to the work of bodily healing, in chapter 8, 17th verse, "That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases."

A. But do you not think that sickness is often God's will, and sent for our good, and therefore God may not wish us to be healed?

B. No, that cannot possibly be; for diseases of every kind are the Devil's work, and his work can never be God's will, since Christ came for the very purpose of destroying "the works of the Devil." (1 John 3:8.)

A. Do you mean to say that all disease is the work of Satan?

B. Yes, for if there had been no sin (which came through Satan) there never would have been any disease, and Jesus never in one single instance told any person that sickness was God's work or will, but the very contrary.

A. Can you prove from Scripture that all forms of sickness and infirmity are the Devil's work?

B. Yes, that can be done very easily. You will see in Matthew 4:23 and 9:35 that when Jesus was here in the flesh, He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people." Then if you will refer to Acts 10:38 you will see that the Apostle Peter declares that He [Jesus] "went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil." Notice that all whom He healed, not some, were suffering from Satan's evil power.

A. But does disease never come from God?

B. No, it cannot come from God, for He is pure, and disease is unclean; and it cannot come out of Heaven, for there is no disease there.

A. That is very different from the teachings which I have received all my life from ministers and in the churches. Do you really think that you are right, and that they are all wrong in this matter?

B. It is not a question as between myself and them. The only question is, What does God's Word say? God has said in all the ages to His Church, "I am the Lord that healeth thee" (Exodus 15:26), and therefore it would be wicked to say that He is the defiler of His people. All true Christians must believe the Bible, and it is impossible to believe that good and evil, sickness and health, sin and holiness could have a common origin in God. If the Bible really taught that, it would be impossible to believe our Lord Jesus Christ when He says, "A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit." (Matthew 7:18.)

A. But even if I agree with all you say, is it not true that the Gifts of Healing were removed from the Church, and are not in it now?

B. No, the "Gifts of Healing" were never withdrawn, and can never be withdrawn, from the true Church of God: for it is written, "The gifts and the calling of God are without repentance." (Romans 11:29.) There are nine gifts of God to the Church (enumerated in 1 Corinthians, 12:8 to 11), and all these are in the Holy Spirit. Therefore, so long as the Holy Spirit is in the Church, all the gifts must be there also. If they are not exercised, that does not prove that they do not exist, but that the faith to exercise them is lacking in God's servants. The gifts are all perfectly preserved; for the Holy Spirit, not the Church, keeps them safely.

A. What should a Christian then do when overtaken with sickness?

B. A Christian should obey God's command, and at once turn to Him for forgiveness of the sin which may have caused the sickness, and for immediate healing. Healing is obtained from God in one of four ways, namely: First, by the direct prayer of faith, without any aid from the officers of the Church, praying as the Centurion did in Matthew 8:5 to 12; second, by two faithful disciples praying in perfect agreement, in accordance with the Lord's promise in Matthew 18:19; third, by the anointing of the elders and the prayer of faith, according to the instructions in James 5:14 and 15; and fourth, by the laying on of the hands of them who believe, and whom God calls to that ministry, as the Lord commands in Mark 16:18, and in other places.

A. But are people healed in this way in these days?

B. Yes, in thousands of cases. I have myself laid hands upon many hundreds of thousands of persons, and I have seen the Lord's Power manifested in the healing of great numbers, many of whom are living witnesses in many countries, who have testified publicly before thousands, and who are prepared to testify at any time. This ministry is being exercised by devoted Christians in many parts of America, Europe, Australasia and elsewhere.

A. Is it not the same as Christian Science, Mind Healing, etc.?

B. No. Divine Healing is diametrically opposed to these diabolical counterfeits, which are utterly anti-Christian. These impostures are only seductive forms of Spiritualism. Trance Evangelism is also a more recent form of this delusion, and it deceives many.

A. But how shall I obtain the necessary faith to receive healing, which faith I am at present conscious I do not possess?

B. It is written, "Belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by the Word of Christ." (Romans 10:17.) Our Missions are held for the express purpose of teaching fully the Word of God on this matter, and I very heartily invite you to attend the meetings which are announced for Zion Tabernacle. All are welcome and there are no charges of any kind made, for all God's gifts are free gifts. Salvation is the first of these, without which you cannot be healed through faith in Jesus. All the costs of this work are covered by the free-will offerings of the people who attend these meetings, and others whom the Lord leads to help; but the poorest who have nothing to give are as heartily welcome as the richest.

A. Do you see the sick and lay hands upon them in this Mission?

B. Yes; after we feel satisfied that they are fully resting in the Lord alone for the healing, we see privately, so far as time permits, those who attend; but under no circumstances do we claim the power to heal any; for "power belongeth unto God."

A. Have you any writings upon this subject which can be purchased?

B. Yes; these can be obtained at the office of Zion Publishing House, 1207 Michigan Avenue, or at Zion Tabernacle, 1621-1633 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill. But the best book on Divine Healing is the Bible itself, studied prayerfully and earnestly.

We extend to you a hearty invitation to attend the meetings, which are free to all. Our prayer is that you may be led to find in Jesus Christ our Lord and God, your present Saviour from sin, your Healer from sickness, your Cleanser from all evil, your Keeper in the way to Heaven, your Friend, and your All for Time and Eternity. We pray that these words may help many who read, and that our little conversation may bear fruit in leading many readers to look to Jesus only.

"The Healing of Christ's seamless dress
Is by all beds of pain;
We touch Him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again."

CHEERING WORDS FROM ZION'S GUESTS

NOTES FROM ZION HOME

THE regular Praise and Testimony Meeting held in Zion Home, Saturday, November 24, 1900, was conducted by Overseer Speicher.

After the usual opening exercises, the States represented were enumerated and found to be eleven in number, as follows:

Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, New Hampshire, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Washington and Wisconsin.

The following foreign countries were represented:

Austria, Canada, China, Germany, Ireland and Japan.

The meeting was then thrown open for testimony.

MISS MATILDA ERICKSON, Zion Home, said: "I have many things to thank the Lord for. God has wonderfully healed me. I have been very sick in my life.

"I have had two operations. After my second operation, I gave up all medicines because I felt they could do me no good. I felt quite well for about three years and then took sick again. I worked for a doctor at the time, so I began to take medicine again.

"The doctors never told me what my trouble was, but I think it was cancer. I know I was very sick. I was a member of the Methodist Church and did not have any light on Divine Healing. I received a little through reading the Bible myself, but the Lord helped me to receive the full light in Zion.

"Some friends told me of a man who prayed for people and God healed them. I was so sick I could hardly walk. Through the help of friends I came to Zion Home.

"During the whole summer before I came to Zion, I had lost my appetite, but it returned the very first day I was here. I suffered greatly from constipation and I could get no relief. I had thrown away all my medicines three days before coming to Zion, and I always had to take medicine to get relief. Deaconess Hertrich prayed for me, and when I went to my room I prayed again and I was relieved at once. I received a wonderful blessing."

"I then asked the Lord to give me strength to go to Zion Tabernacle. The Devil tried to stop me from going by making me believe I could not stay throughout the meeting and that I was tired and it would be so late when I came home; but I went, and God gave me a wonderful blessing from Dr. Dowie's sermon.

"After the service, Dr. Dowie prayed for and laid hands on me, and I got my healing then and there. I hurried back to the Home and was able to walk very fast. I have been well ever since.

"I also want to praise God for what He has done for my sister. I had been taking care of her for about eight years, but she got so bad I had to take her to Kankakee. After my healing, I took her out of the asylum and later on took her with me to the old country, and trusted her case to God. She got better and better and now she writes me that she is well. My mother also writes me the same.

"My mother has also been converted, and I have another sister who has accepted Christ as her Healer."

WILLIAM H. SCHMIDT, Shelby, Michigan, said: "I praise God first for bringing me to Zion and for the Full Gospel of Jesus Christ. He has delivered me from sin and taught me His will through His blessed Word. I was healed two years ago in answer to prayer. I praise God for the many blessings I have received since coming into Zion."

DEACON S. HOWARD CREAGER, Huntington, Indiana, said: "I am very glad to be in Zion Home with my family.

"Before our marriage, my wife was a total wreck and so was I.

"We were both healed in Zion.

"We have two healthy children. Six months after we were married, my wife was not able to walk two blocks without stopping to rest. This morning she walked a quarter of a mile and carried two grips.

"We are enjoying this work in Zion and find that the more we trust Zion, the more God trusts us. I am very thankful for the many blessings God has given to us."

MRS. ISABELLA S. CORKEY, Londonderry, Ireland, said: "When I first got LEAVES OF HEALING, I was delighted with it. I never had a thought against it. Some two years ago I became a member of the Christian Catholic Church, and I have been working as missionary quite alone for the last year. Deaconess Hill kindly sent me two boxes of literature and they have been a great blessing. When they get into a house, they not only leaven that family, but they leaven the whole district.

"The people seem very well pleased with the literature."

JOHN CORKEY, Zion Home, said: "I have been here about fifteen months. It was a surprise to me when I learned that my mother was coming, but they say 'It's an ill wind that blows nobody good,' and I am very glad to have her here.

"I feel very thankful for the teaching I have received in Zion and for the faith which God is giving me. I pray that God may prepare me so that I may be able to teach the people the Full Gospel.

"I feel very glad tonight that I am in Zion. The longer I am in Zion, the more I love it."

DEACONESS MARIE BRIEGER, Zion Home, said: "I praise God for the many blessings I have received since coming into Zion a year ago last June. I came intending to make a little visit and then return to my mother in Austria, but the beauty of Zion is so great that I had to stay. I feel that it is the Lord's will for me to be here. I returned to Austria about four months ago, and my dear mother is with me now in Zion. She says she loves Zion and is glad to be here, although it was hard for her to give up her lovely home and come to smoky Chicago.

"I thank God He has kept us during our long voyage. The sea was very rough. But we are under the shadow of the Almighty."

MRS. S. H. CREAGER, Huntington, Indiana, said: "I came here on crutches. I suffered from hip disease and had sciatic rheumatism. My crutches now hang on the walls of Zion Tabernacle. My limb was four and a half inches short and it is only one and a half inches short now, and I am getting stronger. I praise God for His goodness to me."

The meeting was then closed with the

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

ZION CITY BANK.

By DEACON W. S. PECKHAM.

AND THAT all this assembly may know that Jehovah saveth not with sword and spear: for the battle is Jehovah's, and He will give you into our hand.—1 Samuel 17:47.

WHILE David fought for Israel, it was Jehovah's battle. Samuel had anointed David King of Israel at the command of Jehovah. Every Divinely-appointed leader of Israel fights for God. In all ages God's battle has been raging—truth against error—good against evil—righteousness against sin.

NO SERVANT of Jehovah goes forth to battle alone, or in vain—His Kingdom shall come and His will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

There can be no defeat to the armies of the Lord. Victory is sure in the end, for "Christ is Conqueror."

The moonlight night has sometimes rested upon Zion's battlefield, only to give way to a bright day of Victory.

Zion has never surrendered. Zion has never lost a battle. We are God's conquering people. We shall win every fight until Zion's banner is set up in all the earth. No weapon that is formed against Zion shall prosper.

With the authority of the Messenger of the Covenant, our beloved General Overseer leads the hosts of Zion triumphantly forward.

Moses said to the children of Israel, "Go Forward." He led them victoriously over Jordan and their enemies were drowned in the midst of the sea. So our General Overseer leads his people. God has given him a "forehead harder than flint," and his enemies are all overthrown; none of the wicked can stand before him. The wicked shall be as ashes under the feet of Zion's victorious hosts.

There is no power in earth or hell, among men or devils, to hinder the coming of the Kingdom of God. The little power they now have will soon be swept away.

The nations shall come bending to Zion, the Gentiles shall serve Zion, and God shall rule the earth through Zion.

HE SUFFERED no man to do them wrong;
Yea, He reproved kings for their sakes;
Saying, Touch not Mine anointed ones,
And do My prophets no harm.—1 Chronicles 16:21, 22.

God has sent our beloved General Overseer with credentials, and will not suffer any one to wrong him. He is God's prophet, and no one can touch him and not be destroyed. He has won every fight up to the present time. The last victory was gained last week when Zion's Lace Experts were admitted to this country. This means the establishing of a new and very profitable enterprise which will furnish employment for thousands of Zion's members. The Devil tried hard to defeat this great industry, knowing that Zion City would be advanced and millions of trade brought to the City.

THE DEVIL fears the coming of the City of righteousness, purity, wealth and power. He would like to keep God's people poor, and is the same old Devil as when he made Job poor and helpless. It is the Devil who puts it into men's minds to become poor.

"O, but," some one says, "was not Jesus poor, and had not where to lay His head?"

Yes, but you are not Jesus, and you have not His work to do. He was rich, but He became poor that we might be made rich. He made His grave with the rich and He sitteth in great glory at the right hand of God the Father, Maker and Controller of all things, for God has put all things into His hands. He bore our sins that we might be righteous, He bore our sicknesses that we might be healed, and He bore our poverty that we might be rich.

HALLELUJAH! Christ is victorious over all the Devil's work.

The curse of poverty shall be removed. It is no accident that God has sent us such a leader in financial affairs. The daily press has been compelled to acknowledge his wonderful ability and foresight. Zion City will be built, the many great enterprises established, and wealth and prosperity come to Zion, no matter whether you help or not. But it will be done more quickly if all help. God works through men, and if one people fail, He will raise up another who will do the work.

Let all who are able to help, and will not do so, get out of the way. Neither God nor Zion has any use for the fearful, indifferent or unwilling. Our General Overseer cannot lead such a people to victory.

MANY DO not know the greatness of Zion. The denominations were apostate. There was no Church which God could use. He could not put new wine into old bottles.

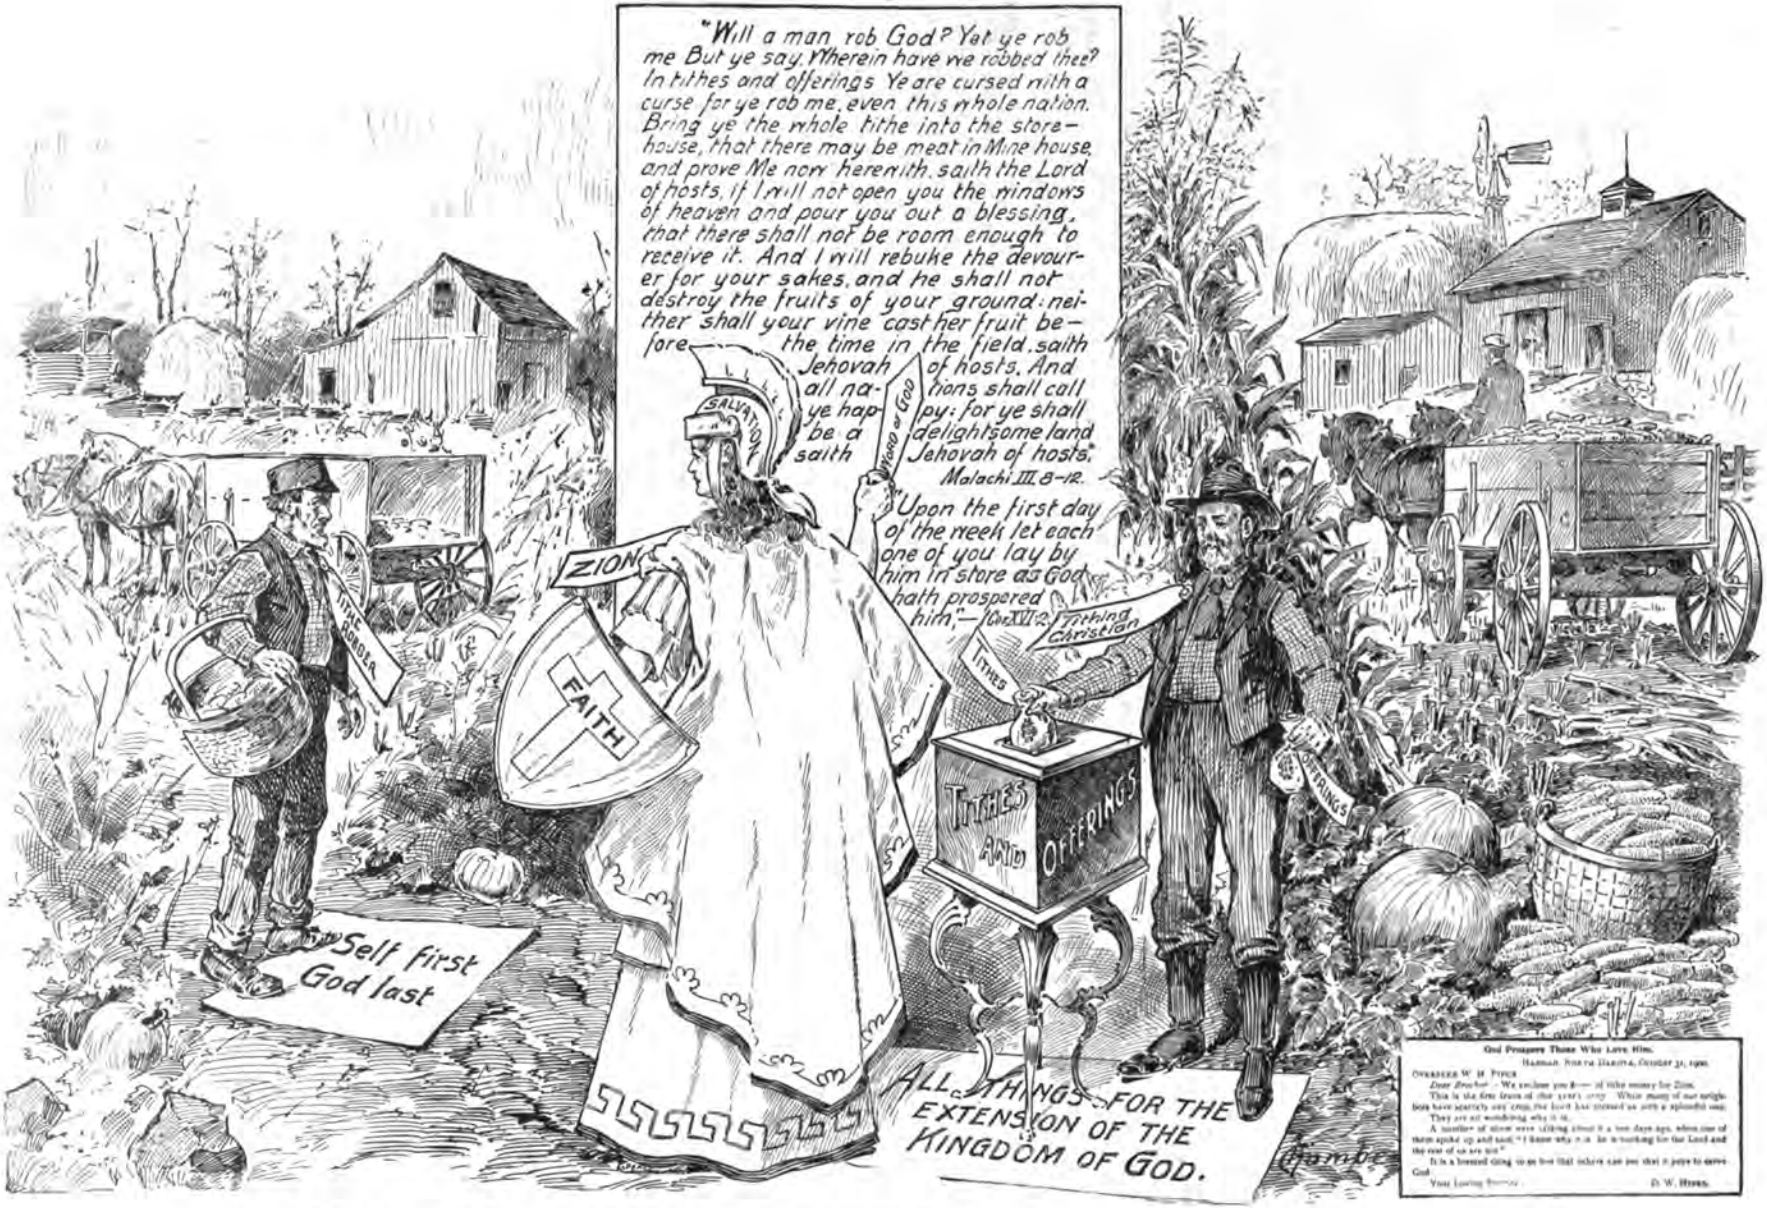
There was no city which God could use, for the cities of the world belong almost entirely to the Devil. There was no nation which God could use, for all the nations had forgotten God. So God called into existence, by His Messenger, the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

GOD WILL build the cities and call forth the nation and set up the glorious Kingdom of God. Let no one hinder. Let all willingly offer themselves and all they have to this mighty work.

Zion does not ask her people to give their possessions, but to let them be used for God and Zion. This is God's battle, and all who furnish means to Zion now are helping in the fight and shall share in the joy of triumphant victory.

If we believe Zion is of God, we will have faith in all the work of Zion.

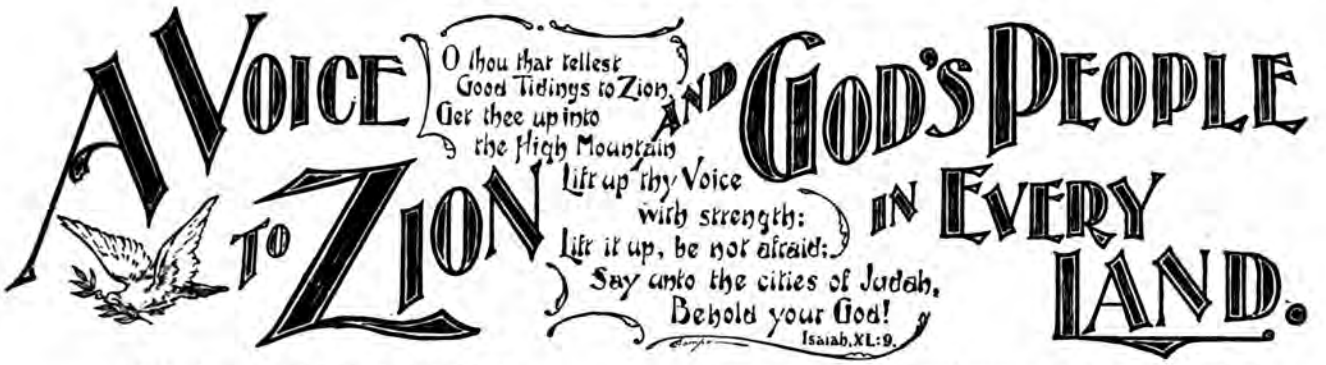
Victory over every foe is assured!
Christ is Victor!
Hallelujah!



HAVE FAITH in God.—Mark 11:22.
And this is the victory that hath overcome the world, even our faith.—1 John 5:4.
Who through faith subdued kingdoms.—Hebrews 11:33.

RECENTLY a dear sister in Iowa sent $100 to start a fund to be used in establishing an Orphans' Home in Zion City. This money is now in Zion City Bank, and will be kept sacredly for the purpose for which it was given. Who will add to this fund? The donor in sending it writes: "This money belonged to a little boy of mine, now in heaven."

With large Orphans' Homes, Zion can rescue and train thousands of boys and girls for God and Zion.



IF YOU are interested in God's work in Zion, help while you are living, and then you will know that the money goes where you want it to go. If your property is tied up in such a way as to prevent your giving now, make a will and leave a gift to this noble work. Every day the denominational, State and other institutions are receiving large bequests by wills. Ought not Zion members to be as loyal to her institutions?

PRAISE AND TESTIMONY.

Report of Meetings held in Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day Morning, Afternoon and Evening, November 25, 1900. Praise and Testimony.

Report of Meeting held in Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day Morning, November 18, 1900. Testimonies on Tithing.

REPORTED BY S. D. W. AND A. W. N.

IN the especial Thanksgiving season of the last Lord's Day of November it was fitting that Zion in Chicago should meet together for the purpose of praising God for the unspeakably great blessings which He has been and is showering upon her.

Salvation from a state of rebellion against God, cleansing from every sin, healing from disease, the foul offspring of Sin and Satan, a glorious entry upon the beautiful Highway of Holy Living, prosperity in material things, happiness in the home, and keeping from all the power of the enemy, were among the wondrous things which were spoken of God and His works.

CENTRAL ZION TABERNACLE.

Zion gave especial thanks to God for the bright, happy testimonies of some who had recently crossed the broad Atlantic Ocean to come to Zion.

We also add the testimonies of Lord's Day morning, November 18, 1900, when a number of God's people in Zion told of the great spiritual, physical and material blessings which God gave in fulfilment of His promise to those who obeyed His command and brought "The Whole Tithe into the Storehouse."

We earnestly pray that these testimonies, as they go forth over the entire world on these beautiful white wings, will carry to weary hearts a Message of the Love, Power, Faith and Hope of God.

MORNING SERVICE.

Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day Morning, November 25, 1900.

The meeting was taken in charge by Overseer Speicher, and opened by singing Hymn Number 192:

I've reached the land of corn and wine,
And all its riches freely mine;
Here shines undimm'd one blissful day,
For all my night has passed away.

The thirty-fifth chapter of Isaiah was then repeated by the audience.

Prayer was offered by Overseer Speicher, after which the announcements were made and the offering received.

The meeting was then thrown open for praise and testimony.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable in Thy sight, and unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, in this and every time, for Jesus' sake.

Raised From a Dying Bed Eleven Years Ago in Answer to Dr. Dowie's Prayers.

Deaconess Jennie Paddock, Matron of Zion Home of Hope, 18 East Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I wish to praise God this morning for what He has done for me. It is almost eleven years now since God so wonderfully raised me up from a dying bed.

"I praise Him for the strength He has given me and the work He has given me to do. I praise Him for all His goodness. I praise Him that He saved me from sin.

"I praise Him for our General Overseer, that he came to bring us these precious truths. I feel that I owe my life to him under God for this teaching.

"The first Zion cottage meeting in Chicago was held at our home when we lived at 1579 Filmore Street, about eight years ago. It was after I was healed. I praise God for the blessing we received there. Mr. Cotton was converted at that meeting."

Healed of Rheumatism, Heart Trouble, Kidney Trouble and Bad Habits.

P. W. Zoller, 617 Thirty-fifth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I praise God for His keeping power. I have been in Zion four years and nine months, and I have not had one day's sickness. Before that I was always ailing more or less. While in Zion I have gotten rid of rheumatism, which always used to afflict me in the shoulder; also of heart trouble and kidney trouble. I was also healed of bad habits. I praise God for Zion."

Healed of Abscesses on Hip. Leg Lengthened Four Inches.

Miss Hattie Cowell, 4817 Champlain Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I praise God for what He has done for me. I was sick most of my life. I never really knew what it was to have good health until after I heard of Zion. LEAVES OF HEALING was sent to me, and I accepted the teaching after a long time. There was so much talk against it that I had no confidence in it, but when I did make up my mind to come to Zion God wonderfully blessed me. I was enabled to earn money to come. My people would not give me the money because they did not believe in Zion.

"I had abscesses on my hip which discharged for eleven years. They are perfectly healed. My limb is now four inches longer than it was when I first came to Zion."

God's Power Heals Abscesses on Eye and Removes Scars.

N. A. Robinson, 1243 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I praise God for blessings which I have received during the last few days. My eye was sore some time ago. I had a number of ulcers on the ball of the eye which impaired the eyesight and left a scar right over the pupil so that it does not focus. I thank God that during the last few days He has been removing that. While sitting here I opened the Bible to the fifth chapter of First Corinthians. I was able to close the well eye and read a portion of that chapter.

"When I first came to Zion I was wearing a cloth over my eyes.

"I was walking along the street and a gentleman told me of Zion. I came, and within three days after I arrived at Zion Home God took all that pain and inflammation right away. I have lost but one day's work from that time to this. God did it, and I praise Him for it."

Saved in Zion. Daughter Healed.

Mrs. Lyda Touers, 18 Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank and praise God for the many blessings I have received since coming into Zion. I thank the Lord for LEAVES OF HEALING. I thank God for the many blessings He has bestowed upon me and upon my little girl. She fell downstairs and hurt herself severely. Her face was all skinned. Mrs. Paddock prayed for her and instantly the pain left her. There is no scar left on her face whatever. I thank God that there is a Zion School for her to go to, where she does not meet with the same contamination that there is in the public school."

Overseer Speicher—Has God saved you in Zion?

Mrs. Touers—"Yes, saved us from sin."

Brought to Zion in Answer to Prayer. Healed of Quinsy.

John Sowrby, 1243 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank God that I am in Zion. I was brought to Zion by LEAVES OF HEALING. It was sent by a brother about three years ago. I was converted in the Salvation Army. As I read the General Overseer's sermons in which he talked against tobacco, pork, liquor and Secret Societies, I saw that it did not altogether agree with the teaching of the Salvation Army. I had been in the Canadian Foresters for about eleven years.

"At last I had the General Overseer pray for me that I might come to Zion. Then the way was opened for me so that I could come, and I thank God for it. I have received wonderful blessing here. I used to be troubled with the quinsy. When I came here Elder Brasefield prayed for me and it all went away in a day or two."

Overseer Speicher—How about the Foresters?

Mr. Sauerby—"I got out of that."

God Greatly Strengthens Weak Eyes.

Miss Leah Smith, 1425 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I am thankful this morning to be able to testify in Zion. From the time that I can first remember, almost, I have been troubled with my eyes. I had ulcers on both my eyes; also granulated eye lids.

"Two years ago last Christmas I was doing a great deal of embroidery work. I worked night and day, so that for five weeks after Christmas I could scarcely bear daylight on my eyes. They were bandaged all the time. When I went out I wore black glasses. We were all having a great deal of trouble at that time, and mamma wrote a family letter and asked the General Overseer to pray for us all. From that time to this my eyes have been growing stronger. Since starting to school in Zion College my eyes have grown stronger."

Partially Deaf Ear Healed When Confession of Faith is Made.

William Tucker, 39 East Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I have been healed a great many times both before and since I came to Zion. Last February I received the right hand of fellowship as a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. Among the questions which the General Overseer asked was this: 'Are you willing to trust Jesus with your spirit, soul and body?' When I said Yes, my ear popped and I could hear as well as ever. For a long time I had been hard of hearing."

Healed of Gathering in Ear, at Time of Prayer.

Mrs. E. E. Ketler, 1517 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "At the time Dr. Speicher was ordained I had a gathering in my ear. I went into the prayer room and the Doctor prayed for me, and it broke and ran out. I praise God for so wonderfully healing me."

Healed of Gatherings in the Ears, at Time of Baptism.

Mrs. George Baumgartner, 180 Twenty-third Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank God for what He has done for me. He has healed me of many things. Ever since I was seven years of age I have had gatherings in my ear. My ear would gather and break about every month. This began after I had the measles. Sometimes my ears would stop up and then when they would break, large scales would drop out from the inside.

"When I went into the baptistry to be baptized by Triune Immersion, I prayed for my ears. They were gathering at the time. All soreness left, and I have never been troubled since. I have been healed ever since I was baptized."

Healed and Wonderfully Kept Well for Five Years.

Mrs. P. M. Pederson, 480 West Superior Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank God for His wonderful keeping power. Next Thursday, Thanksgiving, it will be five years since the Lord wonderfully healed me, for which I praise Him. I was saved and healed in Zion Tabernacle No. 2. God has wonderfully kept me. He has been a great blessing to our home. I thank God for it."

Family Wonderfully Brought Into Zion and Blessed.

Elder Emma K. Mason, Zion Home, said: "I have very great reason to praise God for the wonderful way He has led me and all my family into Zion. We have trusted God as the Healer, and very patiently and gently He has led us on. I wonder that we did not learn the lesson sooner. Just at the time we seemed to need LEAVES OF HEALING, it came to us, and led us out fully into the light, and led us to accept Jesus as our All and in All. I praise God for bringing us all into Zion."

Overseer Speicher—We have with us this morning a young man who has given up pharmacy, or sorcery, rather. He has given up his drugs and is now attending Zion College.

Rescued by Zion Literature From Study of Pharmacy and Brought Into Zion College. Healed of Disease.

Alvin Marshall, 2522 Calumet Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I am indeed thankful to God that He has led me out of the profession of sorcery and into Zion. I came to Chicago the end of last September to study pharmacy. For four years I have been endeavoring to live a Christian life according to my light. When I first came to Chicago the physician told me I would have to leave the city on account of my health. But I have not.

"I waited for some time, and I think providentially, when I was led into a Zion home. Then I read literature containing the General Overseer's writings. The first one I received was the tract on 'Doctors, Drugs and Devils.' That applied to my case, and reading that very carefully, I prayed to God that I might be enlightened. I spent almost a whole week in prayer. I searched the Scriptures with an earnest prayer that I might know if I were wrong. The more I searched and prayed, the more I became convinced that I was wrong. I became so miserable that I could not work. I finally decided to give up pharmacy, regardless of the results. I quit it; threw away my medicines and began to trust God. Since then my health has been improving, and I am today a student in Zion College."

God Gives a Healthy Zion Baby Who is Kept Well.

Evangelist Anna Armstrong, Zion Home, said: "I praise the Lord for what He has done for me since I came to Zion. He has blessed me wonderfully every day, and I have learned to know Him better.

"I praise Him for the nice little Zion boy He has given me since coming to Zion, and for the wondrous way in which He delivered me when he was born. The nurse said that if we had not had faith in God that little boy could never have been born alive.

"I praise God also that He has kept that little baby. He has been sick twice. Dr. Speicher has prayed for him and he has recovered. Once he was very near death, as it seems, but God has blessed him, and now he is well and strong and a great source of happiness and blessing to us. I praise the Lord for it.

"I thank Him that He has healed me from headache. I used to suffer a great deal from that, but now I am well, and never have any headache. I praise God for Zion. I praise God for raising up a man like our General Overseer."

Strength and Blessing From God in Answer to Prayer.

Mrs. Rachel A. Blake, 5539 Jackson Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank and praise the Lord for what He has done for me. I thank Him especially for the blessings of the past three or four weeks. I have been called upon to give up my home, and necessarily there was a great deal of hard work to be done. I prayed to God for strength, which I received. The first thing in the morning and the last thing at night, my heart goes out in prayer and praise to God for His goodness to me. I thank Him for the General Overseer. I thank God for His dear Son."

Brought Out of Presbyterian Ministry. Partially Healed of Catarrh. Blessings in Family.

Rev. E. J. Witte, 1628 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "My heart rejoices this morning in the fact that Zion has the true teaching. I am from the Presbyterian Church. I have been connected with that Church for a great many years. My father was in the Presbyterian ministry for a great many years. He is a dyed-in-the-wool Presbyterian, and of course he cannot appreciate anything but Presbyterianism.

"I followed the footsteps of my father as long as I could. I fought Divine Healing for some time, but when, through the mercy and goodness of God, my eyes were opened to the truth, I accepted it, and I have been telling my friends and writing to them that if they would only compare the teaching of Zion with the teaching of the Bible, they would find a perfect harmony running all the way through. There are no contradictions. I defy any of my old friends to find one single contradiction.

"I have been accused of being very severe in denouncing certain sins in the Church, and in consequence I lost my position several times; but I did not go as far as Zion does. If I had, I suppose I would have been out of the Church long ago.

"I found when I got to Zion that I was not getting any skimmed milk. I have been feeding upon good, solid cream since I have been in Zion, and as a baby I am getting fat on the milk of Zion. I believe that will be true in the case of any one who will sit down and spend a few moments in meditation upon God's Word as Zion teaches it. They cannot help but see the truths.

"I can testify to healing this morning, and I do it joyfully. I was afflicted with catarrh from the time I was seventeen years of age. I tried every medicine under the sun. I had my nostrils cauterized a number of times by experts in catarrh. I received temporary relief, and that was all.

"Since I have been in Zion I have been growing better; I have felt better in every way.

"I have had some experience with my own family. The little baby has been restored from an attack of cholera-infantum.

"My heart is full this morning. I rejoice in being in Zion."

Healed of Paralysis.

Alice Goodenough, 1632 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I praise God for what He as done for me. I was paralyzed on my right side. I came here and was prayed for. Then I could walk. I have been better ever since. I praise God."

Blessed in God's Service in Zion. Eyes Restored to Normal Sight.

Mrs. Letta M. Entwhistle, 5021 Cottage Grove Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "It is now nearly three years since one of the faithful members called at my home on two or three different occasions, leaving me LEAVES OF HEALING and obtaining my promise that I would read them, and that I would come to Zion and get the teaching. From that time on I had great joy and peace in the service in Zion. My motto has been Zion first, last and all the time.

"I had begun to use glasses for my eyes, but when I found out that Jesus was the Healer, I accepted Him for every need that I had, and now I do not use glasses and do not require them. I have been a student all my life, and it is a great and joyful privilege to me to still continue my study of God's Word. I hope to prove faithful until I shall have finished my course."

Miss Alice M. Coulson, 10 Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "Three weeks ago I took a very severe cold. I went to bed feeling quite sick. When I went to bed I prayed very earnestly that I might be healed. I had just gone to sleep when I broke out into a perspiration. In the morning I was perfectly well. A week ago Saturday night I took another severe cold. I had something like the grip, with fever and headache and backache. I felt very sick, but I prayed and gradually the healing came. Monday morning I was feeling better, and by Monday night I felt quite well. I praise God for the blessing He has given me in other ways. I praise God that He has recently opened the way for me to attend college."

Overseer Speicher—All who are willing to serve God with their whole hearts as far as they have light and knowledge, stand and tell Him so.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. I thank Thee for Jesus Christ and for His Salvation; for His Healing; for His Cleansing power. I thank Thee for all He has done for me and the world. Take me as I am, and make me more worthy; make me more faithful; give me more power; give me more strength, and make me more earnest that I may serve Thee better. Give me Thy Holy Spirit, that I may be kept from sin, from sickness, from the power of the evil one, for Jesus' sake. Amen. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after Overseer Speicher.)

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

AFTERNOON SERVICE.

Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day Afternoon, November 25, 1900.

The meeting was taken in charge by Overseer Piper and opened by singing Hymn Number 92.

The Apostles' Creed was then repeated.

The third chapter of the Book of Malachi was then read.

Prayer was offered by Overseer Speicher, after which the tithes and offering were received.

The meeting was then thrown open for praise and testimony.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of our mouths and the meditation of our hearts be acceptable in Thy sight and helpful to each other, oh Lord, our Strength and our Redeemer.

Overseer Piper—First of all, I will ask Deaconess Brieger who has just recently returned, bringing with her her mother from Austria, to speak to us.

Previous to her leaving she was translating LEAVES OF HEALING into the German tongue, and will resume the direction of that work again. I am glad to welcome Deaconess Brieger back to Zion Tabernacle. May God bless you, Deaconess. (Applause.)

Thanksgiving for Return to Zion After Five Months' Absence in Europe.

Deaconess Brieger said: "It is a great privilege for me to be in Zion again, for I have been absent about five months. The blessings of Zion and the prayers of Zion have accompanied me during all this time.

"When I went home I stopped in Zurich, Switzerland, but I did not know why. I think it must have been the Lord who guided me. I knew of a minister who is very much blessed there. I found him sick. He could not receive me, so the Lord directed me to see other children of God, whom I did not know before. Some of them are very much interested in Zion.

"Now there are some people who have formed a company to invite Dr. Dowie to Zurich, Switzerland. They are convinced that Zion is of God. Their hearts are full of joy, and some of them have said they would go into fire with the General Overseer.

"I have to thank the Lord for the many blessings I have received in Zion. When I came into Zion, quite a stranger, last year, I felt the power of the Lord. At first when LEAVES OF HEALING reached me in Austria, I thought it was just what I wanted, and the Lord opened the way for me to come to Chicago and to Zion very wonderfully. When I came, I realized that the half had not been told to me. The Lord blessed me here. I was healed, and then He used me to work for Zion. I thank God for this privilege. I know when He led me back to my dear mother He helped me to fight the fight, because it was very hard for her all alone. She loved Zion very much, and had been alone during the whole winter. She was rejoiced to receive LEAVES OF HEALING and to receive my letters, and rejoiced for the great things which have been done in Zion. She became a member at heart. Now she has come with me. She has left the lovely sweet climate, and I am glad that the Lord has kept her.

"We had some glorious days in London with the General Overseer, and many blessings there. We praise the Lord for it."

"A little report of the days in London appeared in the German LEAVES OF HEALING in Volume 1, Number 12.

"I thank God that he has kept us. The weather was very rough, but His protecting care was over us.

"I am so glad that blessings from America are going out to Europe. LEAVES OF HEALING brings great blessing to the people in Europe. A man has been healed in Zurich through reading LEAVES OF HEALING. The paper made a great impression upon him. He thought that if the Lord could heal all of these diseases of those who testified, He could heal him also. He surrendered fully to God, was healed. and is now working for Zion with all his heart. He has some friends whose hearts are in Zion.

"There are many people who are looking for Zion. I thank God that Zion is a refuge for the afflicted of His people.

"May God bless our dear General Overseer and all Zion everywhere." (Amen.)

Overseer Piper—I remember, and I suppose a number of others present also remember, that about two years ago the General Overseer announced that he had just received an application for fellowship from a lady living in Londonderry, Ireland, whose husband was a Presbyterian minister. I thought, "Poor, unfortunate minister, and still more unfortunate wife!" I thought if that worked well in the home of a parson, it would be one of the greatest miracles that Zion had ever wrought. It has not worked very well, and this afternoon we will have the pleasure of hearing from that sister in Christ, who will tell her own story in her own words: Mrs. Corkey, the mother of one of our students.

We shall now have the pleasure of hearing from Mrs. Corkey, late of Londonderry, Ireland. (Applause.)

Mrs. Isabella S. Corkey, Wife of a Presbyterian Minister in Londonderry, Ireland, Tells of Her Coming to Zion.

Mrs. Corkey said: "My dear friends, I am thankful to the Lord that He has brought me to Zion, which is being founded and to which members are being brought from all parts of the world by the words of God's Messenger.

"I was born in Australia more than sixty years ago. My father was a holy man. He knew Christ as his Saviour and had great anxiety for me that I should be born again. He did not know Jesus as his only Healer. He took some sickness and went to the physician, who gave him laudanum. For three years and a half he had to take laudanum by the physician's orders. I believe now he was poisoned by the laudanum.

"After his death, my mother took me and my two sisters to Edinburgh to be educated. I was converted to the Lord at the age of sixteen through the teaching of Mr. James Gall, who had charge of the meetings every Sabbath evening in Edinburgh in the Free Assembly Hall, and also mission meetings in Clovers Close in the Cannongate. After my conversion, I worked in this mission and distributed literature until I left Edinburgh.

"I was married to a Presbyterian minister thirty-five years ago. We have eight sons and three daughters. My children all know Christ as their Saviour, and my sons are all anxious to be ministers and to work for the Lord. We taught our children to give the tithe.

"Six of my sons are preaching the Gospel, and the Lord blessed us. My oldest daughter has been a missionary in Egypt since last summer. I am sorry to say we do not all know that Jesus is the Healer.

"Before I received LEAVES OF HEALING I was healed in answer to my husband's prayers and mine.

"One of my children, the second youngest son, was very seriously ill. The doctor said he could not do any more for the boy. It would be wrong to give him any more medicine. We must take him to the Great Physician. Of course he meant that the child would die. I did not understand it that way. I took him to the Lord. I prayed earnestly for that boy. He fell asleep and the next morning he appeared to be a great deal better. The doctor came in. I said, 'Look at this child, doctor. I think he is better.'

"He examined him. He said, 'Oh, you are a good nurse. What did you do for him? What did you give him?' I said, 'I did what you told me, doctor. I took him to the Great Physician and He has healed him.' The child was quite well. He is a grown up man now. He drove me to the boat when I was coming away to America this time.

"But I thought all this time that it was some special blessing we had gotten. I did not know that Diving Healing was for everything; that Jesus was the Healer of every disease. After my son John got LEAVES OF HEALING from a student and brought it home, he and I devoured it eagerly. We took in everything we saw in it. We had no objections to anything. They were just what we had been wanting. I was so delighted that I could get my Doctor at any time of day or night. (Applause.)

"I was a very anxious mother, and my family physician was often very impatient with me. On one occasion he said, when I sent the message for him, 'Does Dr. Corkey say it is necessary that I should go, or is it Mrs. Corkey?' So I was so thankful when I got a Doctor who would never tire of me, and would come at all times. (Applause.)

"We subscribed for and received LEAVES OF HEALING regularly. We became members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. My son was in college in Londonderry. Out of seven professors there, four of them went to the theater. His father had always taught him that if any one went to the theater, he was making a bee-line for the pit. So that finished him with Londonderry. He asked his father if he would let him go to America to college. He came to America and chose his own college, and came to Zion. (Applause.)

"We heard of a man in Londonderry before John went away who had cancer in his mouth. John visited him and told him of God's Way of Healing. We gave him Zion Literature to read. He is a smoker. John told him he must ask the Lord to make him hate tobacco, because very likely the tobacco had given him the disease. He did give up the tobacco. He prayed, and he is now quite well. He sits in the gallery just opposite my husband every Sunday, and yet strange the people do not believe in the healing. They say, 'Oh, he just got better.' (Laughter.)

"I visited a number of sick people. Whenever I heard of sick persons I tried to pass them the literature. We have doctors in our congregation, and a sister of one of them comes frequently to call at our house. She tells me of a number of cases; her brother is such a clever doctor, and before she is right away from the house I am getting the names and addresses and visiting these people with Zion Literature. (Laughter and applause.)

"Deaconess Hill very kindly sent us two boxes of literature. They were a great prize to me. I have sent parcels of literature all through the country. Wherever Zion Literature went, the ministers were disgusted. Whenever they went into the houses, the people would bring out the literature, saying, 'Do you see this? We have such lovely tracts from America telling about the Lord as the Healer.'

"The ministers complained to my husband that I was scattering errors through the congregation, and that I was destroying the Presbyterian Church, and it would not do at all. (Applause and laughter.)

"My husband was so interested in his work that he took no interest in Zion at all. He thought it was some little thing which would pass away, or that it was something that the ladies could amuse themselves with, but gentlemen had more sense. (Laughter.) But when he heard that members of his own Church were reading it and believing in it, and getting converted to it, he was not pleased. He said that the doctors should be allowed to attend to their work and I to mine; the doctors were to attend to the bodies and we were to attend to the souls and spirits.

"I tried to get him into Zion, and he tried to get me out of Zion, and for a while we worked that way. (Laughter and applause.)

"At last he said it was not right that any one belonging to Zion should live in the manse and scatter literature which was destroying the Presbyterian Church. He gave me my choice, either not to mention Zion inside of the house, to put the literature away, to attend to the Presbyterian Church work, and to no other church work, or to leave the manse.

"I could not leave Zion. If I lost faith in Christ as my Healer, I would lose faith in Christ as my Saviour. (Amens.)

"It makes my heart rejoice that I am here. I arrived yesterday in Zion, and I am so thankful to be here, because as I look around upon your faces, the words come to my mind: 'These are they which come out of the great tribulation, and they washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the Throne of God; and they serve Him day and night.'

"Why should we not serve Him? He has washed us in His blood. He has taken our sins, our sicknesses, our sorrows away and made us kings and princes unto God. I ask of you, dear Christian friends in Zion, that you will pray that a strong Church may be raised up in Londonderry. (Amen.) There are a number of earnest people there. Pray that my husband and all my family may be brought into Zion." (Applause.)

Overseer Piper—I am sure you have all been glad to hear dear Mrs. Corkey. Now we will be glad to hear from her son, John Corkey, a student in Zion College. (Applause.)

Student From Far-Away Ireland Blessed in Tithing.

Mr. Corkey said: "It has been about fifteen months since I came to Zion from Ireland, and it seems just a few weeks ago. I came to attend college, and my father did not care to give me any money when he heard where I was coming. My mother gave me a sum of money, and when I came I just figured out how long this would do me, and then the question came up, Would I give a tithe of this to God? A tithe of this belonged to God, but I thought, I would reserve this money to go to college. But I did not feel quite happy, and I did not get peace with God and victory from all sin until I gave the tithe of that to God. God has blessed me.

"I feel very thankful today that my mother is here with me on Zion Tabernacle platform. It is one of the happiest days of my life. I think a happier day will be when I shall see my father standing here, too. (Applause.)

"Pray that I may give a right answer to friends who are writing, calling me a destroyer of the peace of a happy family, and saying practically that I ought to have my head broken. I would like you to pray that God may break their hearts. I am very happy to be in Zion." (Applause.)

Overseer Piper—We have something of a remarkable answer to prayer in our family during this past week. Mrs. Piper will tell you about it.

Delivered From Fear and Healed of Very Painful Induration of the Breast.

Mrs. Piper said: "I thank God for a wonderful blessing I received last week.

"Last Tuesday night, just before retiring, I noticed in my right breast a very hard lump about the size of a walnut. I at first did not pay much attention to it, but it began to pain me a great deal. I sent word to my husband, who was down in his office, to pray for me. I did not want him to see me because I was very badly scared, and when I get scared, he scolds. (Laughter.) The only thing I could think of was cancer.

"I went to bed praying that God would take the fear out of my heart. I did not pray for healing. Wednesday morning I found it had grown quite a good deal, and was paining me very much, and before Wednesday night it had become twice its original size. The hardness seemed to be nearly over the entire breast, and it was paining my right arm quite a great deal. I was badly scared, and the only prayer I uttered was, 'God, take the fear out of my heart.'

"On Wednesday night I found I could not sleep very well on account of the pain. On Thursday morning I vowed I would get the fear out of my heart and get an answer. I had my husband pray for me, and from that time on the hardness disappeared and the lump passed away. It did not seem to be a swelling, but seemed to be a hardness of some kind. It passed away quite rapidly, and today it is entirely gone. I thank God with a full heart.

"I do not know what it was, and I do not care. It was quite painful. It came very suddenly, and it is gone now.

"I thank God also for an answer to prayer we received for our little baby when he was seven weeks old. He seemed to get quite sick for some reason. I do not know what the trouble was. We prayed for him, and he is quite well today. He is gaining rapidly. I thank God for all His blessings to us." (Applause.)

Overseer Piper—My wife tells you that I scold when she gets scared. That is right. I own up to that. She did not tell of all the times I scolded. She only told that she was very much scared. The only thing she could think of was cancer, cancer, cancer!

Finally I said, "Suppose you do have cancer; what difference does that make? There is no use in getting afraid, whether it is cancer or whether it is not. God is just as able to heal cancer as He is anything else."

It was quite a remarkable answer to prayer, and I also thank God for it.

Healed of Chronic Sore Throat of Sixteen Years' Standing.

John Murdock, 137 Homer Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank God for Zion. I ought to know Zion. I have seen Zion since it was a baby. I have heard the words, 'fraud, humbug and sham,' from every source, but Zion goes on just the same. (Applause.) I thank God that Zion to me is everything. Without Zion, this world to me would be a blank. Had it not been for Zion and the power of God through faith in Jesus, I would be under the sod.

"I was healed in 1892 of a chronic sore throat. A minister in one of the congregations of which I was a member said I never had any sore throat; that there was nothing the matter with me. I ought to know. When a man has had chronic sore throat for sixteen years, week in and week out, I am inclined to believe he ought to know when God heals it. My wife and I knelt and prayed for God to heal my sore throat, and He healed it in a moment. My throat has never bothered me since, and that is nearly nine years ago. I was healed of other troubles too numerous to mention.

"In January, 1898, I was healed of blood-poisoning. I was working in Zion Home, and got my hand poisoned. At the All-Night Meeting, the General Overseer prayed for me. He prayed for me before that, but there was no answer. I wondered why. I had sinned, and until that sin was confessed and I vowed to put it right with God, there was no answer. God showed me very plainly my sin, and I vowed to Him to put it right. Then the General Overseer prayed and laid hands on me, and from that time I experienced no pain. I took cold in my arm two or three different times, and it became worse, but I was always healed.

"For six long weeks there was no life in that arm. The bone was decayed and spongy and soft. It was completely paralyzed and dead. I am told that, from a surgical point of view, an arm that has been dead for six weeks is never any use any more. A certain doctor in the city told me that. He said it was impossible.

"It was impossible with man, but God healed that arm and it never was stronger than now.

"Recently I was quite severely bitten by a dog on that very arm and on my leg. I did not get afraid. I had been healed before. I knew God had not changed. I sent a request for prayer to Overseer Piper. At 11 o'clock, I just knelt and prayed in our office while I knew that Overseer Piper was praying. I was told that I ought to have the wounds cauterized by a physician, but I knew God's power and willingness to heal. He quickly answered prayer, and I was healed.

"The dog which bit me was a very large one, weighing over 100 pounds."

Overseer Piper—I remember the night very well. I received the request for prayer. I prayed, I think, at about 11 o'clock.

Blessed Through Giving God the First Portion.

Elder A. W. McClurkin, 1320 Wrightwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I will begin my testimony this afternoon by reading First John, first chapter, third verse: 'That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you also, that ye also may have fellowship with us: yea, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ.'

"One reason why I wish to testify this afternoon is this: A little over two years ago I sat back there and heard Dr. Dowie speak. Just a few days before that I had received the greatest hammering I ever got in my life. I felt the sorest I ever felt in my life, but I did have grace enough to keep my mouth shut. I simply listened. I thank God that I did. The General Overseer was enabled by the power and Spirit of God to knock a little of the nonsense out of me.

"I believed through reading LEAVES OF HEALING before ever coming to Zion. I came to investigate Zion, and incidentally to get investigated myself. When I went back home I knew I must get into Zion or camp by myself. God's Word is plain against that, calling it schism in the Church of Christ.

"I thank God for Zion; that it is 'a refuge for the afflicted of His people.'

"I have received great blessing through bringing the whole tithe into the Storehouse. When I first began receiving a little income, I first used a part of it for myself, and would leave the tithe until about the last dollar. Every time I have held back the last dollar for the tithe it has been all the harder to pay. I now give the first dollar. That dollar is the Lord's before I use a single penny for myself, and I have received great blessing."

Blessed in Tithe-Paying for Over Thirty Years.

Elder W. O. Dinius, 432 Calumet Avenue, Harvey, Illinois, said: "I began giving my tithe when I was saved, between thirty and forty years ago.

"I am glad I have been kept out of Secret Societies. I have never spent a dollar in my life in Secret Societies. I am an old soldier, but I never joined the G. A. R. I was a Christian before it started. It has four terrible oaths.

"I now have a nice home in Harvey, and I have been blessed in every way in paying tithes."

Property Doubled in a Few Years When Tithes Were Brought into the Storehouse.

John Johnson, 32 Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "About nine years ago I became convicted that the giving of the tithe was right. I was then living on a rented farm, and I found some difficulty in determining the exact tithe, but I kept on. Finally we quit farming and moved into town. I went to work for wages, then I knew exactly what the tithe was.

"I was a member of the Baptist Church, and my wife was a member of the Methodist Church. I soon found that I had to get out of the Baptist Church, as I was reading LEAVES OF HEALING. I had been in the habit of giving my tithes to various departments of the Church work, but when I came to Zion I saw that was wrong, and I brought it into the Storehouse.

"I have two dollars today where I had one a few years ago."

Made Happier by Paying Tithes.

E. A. Parsons, 128 Seventy-sixth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I have been in Zion over two years. I began to pay tithes as soon as I was informed that I should. I thank God I am square with the Storehouse. There were times, especially in the beginning, when I did not quite understand the method, but I certainly am glad that I am paying it in God's way now.

"I did not always put aside the first dollar, and I have found, like others, that the tithe is the hardest dollar to pay when we do not pay it at first. I had allowed myself to get behind, but I paid it all up the other day, and I have been happier ever since. I have made a new resolve to pay every week."

Steady Increase of Income Through Paying Tithes.

Deacon A. F. Mueller, 1053 West Adams Street, Chicago. Illinois, said: "I praise God today that I am permitted once more, by the Grace of God, to stand on this platform to tell of His blessing to me since I came into Zion. When our General Overseer began speaking of the great necessity of paying our tithes, I began paying. God has blessed me ever since, spiritually, physically and financially. My income has been increased right along steadily, and I praise God for it."

Joseph Siemon, 3078 Lock Street, Chicago, Illinois, said that he had been greatly blessed since he had commenced to pay his tithes.

Overseer Piper—I will ask those of you who are earning more money today than you were when you began tithing, and believe it is because you are conscientiously paying your tithes, to stand. (Between 200 and 300 persons responded to this call.)

Those of you who may not be earning more money, but seem to make the money go further than it did before, stand (In addition to those who stood as mentioned above, at least 200 more persons arose.)

God has promised that if we will pay our tithes, He will do many things for us.

All of those who got sick and could receive no healing until they paid their tithes, stand. (In response to this call eight persons arose.)

I have heard of several cases.

All of you who are now paying your tithes into the Storehouse, stand. (The entire audience now arose, except, perhaps, 150 persons, many of whom were strangers.)

It is all humbug talking about being your own distributers of tithes, as some do. You distribute your tithes as you please, and I distribute mine, and all the rest distribute as they please. I wonder where that would land us?

A lay member cannot see the needs of the work as well as an Elder. An Elder in the Christian Catholic Church cannot see the needs of the cause of Christ throughout the world as well as I can. I cannot see them as well as the General Overseer can. You cannot spend the tithes as wisely for God.

The meeting was then closed with the following

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you, keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen

EVENING SERVICE.

Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day Evening, November 25, 1900.

The meeting was taken in charge by Deacon Kessler, and opened by singing Hymn Number 14.

The Scripture lesson as found in First John, fourth chapter, was then read.

Prayer was offered by Deacon Peckham.

The announcements were then made and the offering received, after which the meeting was thrown open for praise and testimony.

Wonderfully Blessed in Zion After Much Suffering.

Miss Matilda Erickson, Zion Home, said: "I thank God tonight for the wonderful blessing I have received in Zion Home. I was converted when I was nineteen years of age.

"I have been sick a great deal during my life. I had typhus fever, and after that I was taken to the Wesley Hospital. I went through an operation there, and a year from that time I had to go through another operation. I gave up medicine and was well three years, then I began taking medicine again.

"I belonged to the Methodist Church, and I did not have any teaching. I saw a little of Divine Healing in the Bible. Then I came to Zion, where I received a wonderful blessing."

God Heals of Typhoid Fever, Blood-Poisoning and Measles.

Miss Ella Herschberger, Zion Home, said: "I thank God for Zion. I came to Zion six years ago. I believe I was a child of God when I came, and I lived up to the light I had. I was a member of the Methodist Church.

"I have been healed, since I came to Zion, of blood-poisoning and typhoid fever and measles. I was healed of measles when they thought I was passing away. When the General Overseer prayed for me, God heard prayer and I was healed.

"I have also been blessed in giving my tithes to God. It seems I can make my money go many times as far as I used to.

"My two sisters and my mother are in Zion, and they have been greatly blessed since they came. They are members of this Church. My brother is a student in Zion College, for which I thank God. My testimony is in LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume VI, Number 4. I praise God for all He has done for me in Zion."

Instantly Healed of Severe Dropsy and Heart Trouble.

Mrs. Fannie Yeizer, 1536 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank God tonight for His wonderful keeping power. During the winter of 1895 I first heard of Zion through LEAVES OF HEALING, when I read Sunshine Harding's testimony. When I read it I said, 'That is the truth. Where did this man come from?'

"'He is from across the sea,' said those who handed me the paper.

"I said, 'God must have sent him. It certainly is what I need. I believe I can be healed if I go and have him pray for me.'

"At that time I was in a very bad condition physically and our family was financially wrecked because my husband had taken to drink. We were going down in every respect. I knew I could live but a short time, because of the condition I was in. I had dropsy and heart trouble very badly.

"About three weeks after that, the opening of this Tabernacle took place. I came down, and the first words that I heard the General Overseer speak, 'Have faith in God,' convinced me thoroughly that he was a man of God. I could feel that every word he said was true. I went away from Zion Tabernacle very much benefited spiritually. I felt that there was some hope for me in the future.

"A short time after that, some three or four weeks, I made up my mind that I would go and have the General Overseer offer prayer for me. My husband, at that time, was in a very bad condition with consumption. He had been out of work eight months. I requested prayer for him and that he might get work and that the way might be opened for him to come to church. He had never allowed me to go church from the time we were married, although I was quite a churchgoer before I was married,

"I went to the healing room, and received a perfect blessing. The dropsy left me. When I went home that evening my husband told me that about 3 o'clock he was standing on the corner of Madison and State Streets, when a man came up behind him and asked him if he could find somebody to move his books. My husband told him that he would do it. He received $2. I said, 'Praise the Lord for it,' and told him that I had Dr. Dowie pray for him. He said, 'It felt rather funny. I think you had better go and have him pray again.' (Laughter.)

"I thank God for strength. For two years I have been able to support myself and two little girls. We have had what we really needed, and I praise the Lord for it."

Brought Out of Many Lodges. Blessed Spirit, Soul and Body and Prospered in Tithe-Paying.

Silas C. Burnett, 1432 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I am very glad to testify in Zion Tabernacle. I have had the joy of testifying for God and for this work for a number of years in a great many places, but I have not often testified from this platform. I testify tonight that it pays to serve God, and to obey the commands which come from Zion.

"I received LEAVES OF HEALING six years ago. I accepted the teaching and obeyed the Voice as I received it. I have given up my lodges. I was a Master Mason, Royal Arch Mason, Knight Templar, Mystic Shriner, belonged to the Royal Arcanum, carried life insurance, and belonged to the Methodist Church. (Laughter.)

"My Bible is a new Book to me now. I have had blessing, not only for the spirit, but for the body and for the pocketbook. God has blessed me since I have been in Zion. I pay my tithes and offerings with a great deal of pleasure. It is a real joy to bring it into the Storehouse. I praise God for enabling me to have a part in this work."

Perfectly Healed Six Years Ago and Perfectly Kept.

Mrs. Ida M. Burnett, 1432 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I testify this evening to perfect and complete healing, and perfect health for six years. I had been suffering all my life. Since my healing I have not lost a day from work. I praise God for the strength He has given me. I praise God for the blessing we have had through the teaching in LEAVES OF HEALING, and the joy we have had in hearing the General Overseer and knowing the Elders and the Overseers and all the other workers in Zion."

Greatly Strengthened and Quickly Healed.

Miss Mayme C. Fogwill, 36 East Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I have a great deal to thank God for. My experience may not be so wonderful as many others, but I believe that God must be glorified in the small things as well as in the great. About two and one-half years ago I was broken down physically. We were living in Ohio at that time, but shortly afterwards moved to Virginia, where I was in hopes I might be able to rest up and regain my strength, but I grew no better. I would become completely exhausted at the least exertion. I could not walk any distance without being fatigued. I took a position as stenographer where the work was very light, and afterwards took a better position, where the work was also very light. All of this time LEAVES OF HEALING came to our home, but I paid very little attention to it. Once in a while I would glance over the testimonies, and while I believed them, I did not enter into them with any degree of interest.

"About a year ago my father went to Toledo, Ohio, to visit Elder Stith, and very soon became a member of Zion. He kept writing to us about Zion. Still we paid scarcely any attention, but I asked God to show us if it was His will to open the way for us to come to Zion. The way was soon opened.

"I became a member of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and on coming to Chicago I found a position in Zion which I have held ever since. I consider it a great privilege to be here. The Lord has given me strength to do at least five times as much work, and also to attend school at night. I praise Him for it.

"About five or six weeks ago I was taken quite ill on Monday morning early. I do not know what was the matter, but I was very faint. After my father prayed with me I went to work, but afterwards became much worse and had to go to bed. Thursday I was troubled very much with my head, and I also had a high fever, and when noon came I did not feel like eating. Overseer Piper prayed with me, and in a very short time the fever was gone. I went down and ate a hearty meal, and have been well ever since. I am thankful to say that God keeps me."

Healing Follows Perfect Obedience.

Mrs. Mary E. Seys, 1635 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank the Lord for what He has done for me. Last spring unthinkingly and ignorantly I disobeyed God and got outside His keeping power. The first symptoms came on me about 4 or 5 o'clock in the evening. I realized that I was sick. I kept on with my work and gradually it kept getting worse and worse, until long before sundown I went to bed. Soon I was taken with a chill.

"I prayed for God's healing touch, and inside of fifteen minutes I began to perspire very profusely.

"The answer to prayer came without my having found out the cause, but I did not get a perfect healing. The following Tuesday night I was taken sick, and the following Thursday night the climax came. That night it seemed to me that I was literally turned over to the Devil, with the restriction that he should not kill me entirely. I could not form a petition of prayer.

"About 3 o'clock in the morning I said, 'Father, I will obey Thee, regardless of all consequences.' Then I could pray. Then came the command to do a certain thing. I said, 'I will do it.' The command was to leave the place where I was living. It is not necessary to tell the reasons. I did not see it even at that time, but I followed the command. I was able to get up and go downstairs for some water. In the morning I got up completely healed. I continued to grow steadily stronger. I thank God for it."

The meeting was then closed with the following

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. MORNING SERVICE.

Central Zion Tabernacle, Lord's Day Morning, November 18, 1900.

After reading the third chapter of Malachi, Overseer Piper said: I desire to hear from you on the subject of tithing. God has made certain promises on condition that we do tithe. God says tithe, but the tithing command, like every other command that God ever gave, has a blessing attached to the obedience of it.

God never said "Thou shalt" or "thou shalt not" simply because He was God, but every time that God has said "thou shalt" or "thou shalt not," back of obedience to that command God has placed a promise of blessing.

I have read you the promises for those who tithe, and I want to hear if God blesses those who obey this command.

Matron and Girls of Zion Home of Hope Blessed in Tithing.

Deaconess Paddock, Matron of Zion Home of Hope, 16 East Sixteenth Street, Chicago, said: "I praise God that I never received more blessing than I have since I have been paying tithes of all I get. Not only I, but I have taught the girls in the Home that if they only earn fifty cents, they owe a tenth of it to God. There are fifteen or sixteen girls who have been paying tithes, and God wonderfully blesses them. When they get sick, God heals them. I know it has brought blessings in our Home."

Blessed in the Immediate Payment of Tithes.

Deacon W. S. Peckham, Assistant Cashier Zion City Bank, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I feel, perhaps, I ought to make a statement in regard to tithing in order to help some one else. I receive my wages twice a month, on the 15th and 30th of the month, and for several months since coming to Chicago the expenses have been unusually heavy, and I have waited until the last half of the month to pay tithes for the month.

"God demands that we pay our tenth the very moment we receive whatever He puts into our hands. I noticed that those months that I did not tithe during the middle of the month, there was not just the same power in my Christian life, either in the leading of a cottage meeting or other Christian work.

"This week, on the 15th, we have been having some extra expense, and I again said, "I will wait until the last half of the month,' but I had no sooner determined on that than I was taken with a terrible pain in my stomach. The Devil took such a grip on me that I could not pray. I asked God what was the matter. I did not realize there was any sin, but God did not seem to hear me, as He always did before.

"Then the Holy Spirit showed me that I had sinned in that way, and I immediately made that right with God. The pain left me at once, and I never had any return of it.

"God demands that the very moment we receive any money we shall give Him His tenth first. There is great blessing in paying tithes, and no spiritual blessing or healing, if we withold them."

Unexpected Income Received When Tithes Are Paid.

Dr. Robert Aiston, 70 State Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I can say that paying tithes is not a burden to me, but a blessing. I delight to pay my tithes. Sometimes it seems to take all the money I have and I do not see any more coming, but after I have paid my tithes I have been surprised to find that some one would pay an old bill, or I would get some new work to do which was unexpected. I have been blessed and delight to do it."

A Decided Increase in Income and Blessing in Tithing.

Walter G. Sisson, 1425 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I thank God that He has given me a heart willing to pay my tithes. When I first heard of Zion, about five years ago, I did not question it very long. Jesus' words are in approval of tithing in Matthew 23:23.

"Before we came to the city, over three years ago, there was a decided increase in our income, and decided blessing in addition to what we had before we obeyed the teaching of Zion."

Income More Than Doubled Since Back Tithes Were Paid.

Will Tucker, 39 East Sixteenth Street, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I was shown that it was necessary for me to pay tithes, and before I received blessing I had to vow to God I would always return him one-tenth. When I obeyed, I always received a blessing, but, I am sorry to say, many times I was in arrears with God, until I got back and owed God a little sum. About two years ago I promised God I would work until I had paid up. Finally I got square, and since then I have been enabled to pay at least twice as much, if not more."

Overseer Piper—What length of time since you were able to pay twice as much?

Mr. Tucker—"About two years."

Business Depression When God Was Robbed; Income Increased Fifty Per Cent When Tithes Were Paid.

S. H. Depew, 3443 Union Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "Two years ago in October we came into Zion. Prior to that time I was in the Methodist Church. Part of the time I tried to pay tithes; my pastor told me it was proper to pay tithes, so I ran an account with the Lord. I usually was indebted to Him, and in time stopped altogether. My business and myself were going to the Devil, but in October I came into Zion and again began to pay my tithes. In twelve months I received three increases which amounted to fifty per cent more than the original amount I received."

Great Joy and Blessing Supersede Sickness When God Receives His Tithe.

Miss Louise Albaugh, 472 Oakley Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "A little over three and a half years ago the Holy Spirit showed me that tithing was right. I commenced and paid my tithes until a serious financial crash came and I could not make ends meet, and so neglected it for a few months.

"Soon after this my health broke down, and I had plenty of time to reflect over my shortcomings. I again began to pay tithes. About four or five months after that I heard of Zion, and since then I have received great joy and blessing."

Steady Advance in Position and Increase in Income Through Tithing.

Silas C. Burnett, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "When I first heard of tithing, about four or five years ago, through our General Overseer's ministry, I was not employed at that time, and I made the promise that the first money I received I would tithe.

"I applied to the Santa Fe Railroad Company for a position. They replied they were not in need of a man, but if I wanted work for a dollar a day, to report. That seemed to me like a small amount of money, but I said I would accept it, and when I went to work, the man who was to break me in said I had the hardest and dirtiest work in the shop, and that he would not take it. I said, 'Thank God, I have that kind of work. I want to begin right there.'

"When I received my first pay, there was more money than one dollar a day. I said to the timekeeper there was a mistake; I received too much money. He said they had raised it fifty cents and paid me $1.50 per day. I received this the first month, and in four months I was able to make twice as much money as when I began, and had a very nice position, and continued there until I came to Zion. Since I have been in Zion I have received another advance in wages, which has increased my tithes, for which I thank God."

Tithing a Blessing in Family Life.

Mrs. E. J. Witte, 1628 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "Tithing is one of the few lessons I did not have to learn when I came into Zion. When we set up a home of our own, we commenced to tithe. I know it has been a great blessing to every one who has been faithful in it. I know it has been practical. Although there have been times when it seemed as though we could not pay a tenth, yet we have done it, and been blessed."

Income and Tithes Increased Five and One-Half Times.

Miss Jorgine Hansen, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "It has been a great delight to me to pay my tithes. During the two and a half years I have been in Zion, God has increased my income five and a half times, so that I can pay now into the Storehouse five and a half times as much as I did at first."

Salary Almost Doubled in Tithing.

Miss Nancy Starratt, 1635 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "It has been a long time since I began paying my tithes. I read about tithing in a little book in Ontario, Canada. I was teaching school then, and decided I would tithe. I was in the Methodist Church and it did not work very well. I paid a part to the minister, and a part to the poor, and a part to the different funds of the Church. I was then getting $30 a month, and my salary was raised until I received $54. I thank God for that. It is a great pleasure for me to pay my tithes."

Catholic Church in Zion. I had been under the teaching of the General Overseer a few months previous to that.

"The first or second month after I had been tithing, I received an increase in wages, which more than paid my tithes. This increase continued up to the time I came into Zion, when I resigned my position. I have been greatly blessed in giving tithes.

"I feel it is a great privilege, and we lose blessing, spiritually and materially, if we withold from God that which He requires of us."

Healed of Tetter When Tithes Were Paid Into the Storehouse.

Dr. John H. Sayrs, Superintendent Zion Junior Schools, 1201 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "There were just two things which stood in my way and prevented me from getting the healing of my tetter which I had for ten years. I asked God to show me, and He did.

"One was, I had not sent the tithes to the Storehouse which I had deposited for that purpose, and the other was, I was teaching a Sunday School. I resolved to come out of the Presbyterian Sunday School and immediately to send on my tithes, when I got the healing at once."

Enabled to Save and Otherwise Blessed in Tithing.

Anna C. Reiff, Zion Home: "It is with a grateful heart that I add my testimony to those already given, to the blessings which have come to me because of obedience to God in this matter of tithing.

"When I first began to earn my own living, I vowed to God that I would give him one-tenth of all that He gave me, but I regret to say that that vow was not always kept, because there was no special teaching along that line in the Church to which I belonged. I became negligent and did not tithe systematically, and as there was no Storehouse, I divided it up into different funds.

"However, God was very good to me, and during the serious financial condition in 1893–96, while many in the factory in which I held a position were either reduced in wages or forced to be idle entirely, I was receiving a good salary.

"While God blessed me financially, yet not until I brought my tithes into the Storehouse in Zion was I able to save any money. When I became fully obedient to His Word, He greatly blessed me financially.

"The nine-tenths have covered my expenses more than the ten-tenths ever did before, and enabled me to save besides.

"I have also found a great difference in my financial account when I paid my tithes as soon as I received the money, instead of waiting and withholding them for a week or a month. When I have done the latter, I have invariably found myself hard up, and when I gave God the "first fruits," the remainder has abundantly covered my needs.

"I might further add, that during the five years that I have trusted God for an uttermost Salvation from sin and sickness, I have never been away from business but one day, on account of sickness.

"It has been a great joy to me to be used in the extension of God's Kingdon in Zion, in even a little measure. The service which I have been permitted to render has not been laborious, but one of pleasure, and fraught with much happiness.

"The more I have come in contact with our beloved General Overseer and the Overseers in Zion, the more I have learned to love and honor them."

Speedily Freed from Debt and Greatly Prospered in Tithing.

Arthur W. Newcomb, 1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois: "I am grateful to God that he has made it possible for me to testify to the unmistakable way in which He has kept His promise of blessing to those who bring the whole tithe into the Storehouse.

"I am heartily thankful to him that He has provided in Zion a Storehouse, and that He has shown me that Zion's treasury is His Storehouse. I began paying tithes when I first began to earn money, but as there was no Storehouse, soon began to apply God's money where it did not belong and thus became a robber in this matter.

"I never paid my tithes again until I came to Zion, two years ago.

"When I began paying tithes into Zion's Storehouse, I was in debt for my education, and had been able to make only small payments at infrequent intervals. Soon I began to pay off my indebtedness with an alacrity which both amazed and delighted my creditors, and was very quickly square with the world and very happy in my freedom.

"Since then God has graciously increased my income from time to time, until I now receive over three times as much as I did when I was stealing from Him. Best of all, He has given me work which it is my greatest joy to perform, whereas before my work had become so distasteful to me that it was only by lashing myself, mentally, that I could keep at it.

"I thank God for the powerful teaching of our General Overseer on this subject, which led me to see my sin in this matter and to repent."

ZION'S CONFLICT WITH METHODIST APOSTASY.

This book of 200 pages, just issued by Zion Publishing House, contains nine powerful discourses delivered in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer last May, during the session of the Methodist General Conference. They are of especial value for the full and fearless exposure of Freemasonry.

"The Methodist Church the Property of the Masonic Order," "Freemasonry: A Heathen and Antichristian Abomination," and "Degrees of Masonic Devilry" ought to be read by every lodge man.

The iniquity of the Mystic Shrine is laid bare.

Read the Coming City.

For all matters pertaining to the founding and building of Zion City, there is no source of information, complete and reliable, but THE COMING CITY. The story of Zion City is being and will be told in its pages, both by descriptive articles and by engravings from photographs. The paper also contains much other interesting matter, such as science notes, household suggestions, special articles on matters of interest to Zion people, and the news of the day.

The paper also contains four pages of advertisements, carefully selected, most of the advertisers being Zion people. It is important that every member of Zion should get THE COMING CITY, not only for the valuable information which it will contain, but for these advertisements. By reading them they will learn who are the Zion business men and thus be able to coöperate with each other.

Zion people should be glad to go a little out of their way to trade at a Zion shop. Zion money is thus kept in Zion instead of going to fill the coffers of the world's people, and each feels the influence of the increase in general prosperity.

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

THE COMING CITY will be sent, postpaid, for $1 for the first thirteen numbers. Address subscriptions to Zion Publishing House, 1207 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, U. S. A.

LEAVES OF HEALING.

Two Dollars will bring to you the weekly visits of the "Little White Dove" for a year. 75 cents will send it to a friend for fifteen weeks; $1.25 will send it for six months; $1.50 will send it to your minister, or to a Y. M. C. A., or to a Public Reading Room, for a whole year. We offer no premiums, except the premium of doing good. We receive no advertisements, and print no commercial lies or cheating enticements of unscrupulous thieves. LEAVES OF HEALING is Zion on wings, and we keep out everything that would distract the reader's mind from all except the Extension of the Kingdom of God, for which alone it exists. If we cannot send forth our Little White Dove without soiling its wings with the smoke of the factory and the dirt of the wrangling market place, or compelling it to utter the screaming cries of the business vultures in the ears of our readers, then we will keep our Dove at home.

ZION COLLEGE LECTURES ON PRAYER.

A Series Delivered Before the Students of Zion College by the President, Rev. John Alexander Dowie, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

THE world today has learned that there is something far beyond the ordinary in the words and works of God's Messenger to Zion, John Alexander Dowie.

As this realization comes to the public, the first question always is, "How does he do it? What is the secret of his power?"

Those who know the General Overseer and have heard and heeded his teaching know that the power belongs to God. But the General Overseer is wonderfully used by God, as an instrument, on account of his mighty power in Prayer, taught him by the Holy Spirit.

Hence it was with the greatest joy that the students of Zion College received the announcement that the General Overseer would deliver a Series of Lectures on the subject of Prayer. It was an inestimable privilege to learn how to pray from a man whose whole life had become a mighty power for God through Prayer. But joyful as the anticipation was, it was more than justified by the realization.

Many members of the Christian Catholic Church also attended these Lectures and were amazed, from week to week, by the great depth and scope of the subject as it was opened up by the man of God.

Since the delivery of these Lectures there has been a loud appeal, from many sides, to have them published.

The General Overseer was reluctant, as he felt that in the great pressure of his other duties he had not been able to give the Lectures as he might have done with more time at his disposal. He also felt that he should revise them before their publication, and this he could not find time to do.

At length, however, the appeal for them being urged, he consented that they should be sent forth, without his revision, during his absence in Europe and the Holy Land.

Accordingly this wonderful teaching will be printed, almost as it came from his lips, from time to time, in LEAVES OF HEALING. In preparing these Lectures for the press, we have eliminated some allusions to topics of the time and place and have written in some headlines. We have also cut out opening and closing exercises and arranged the matter consecutively without regard to number and date of Lectures.

We pray that God will bless these wonderful truths to all who read in even greater measure than He did to those who heard.

THE SHEDDING OF BLOOD.

And surely your blood, the blood of your lives, will I require; at the hand of every beast will I require it: and at the hand of man, even at the hand of every man's brother, will I require the life of man. Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made He man.

I do not think that the expression "whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed," is a command. It is simply an allegation of a fact that does take place and that will be seen upon the earth, namely, that bloodshed causes bloodshed, even as Christ said: "All they that take the sword shall perish with the sword."

The Command "Thou Shalt Not Kill" Forbids Capital Punishment.

God has most manifestly said in the Ten Commandments which apply in every age, "Thou shalt not kill."

The command, "Thou shalt not kill," is as universal in its application as is the command, "Thou shalt not steal."

If any one says that God can kill and under certain circumstances makes you His executioner of vengeance, he might just as well say that God can make some man His instrument of stealing, or His instrument in lying or in committing adultery. All of these would be absurd nonsense and wickedness.

The command, "Thou shalt not kill," is absolute and does not permit man to take the life of man.

The fact that God requires the blood of life at the hand of every man, is another thing altogether. We may well and gladly recognize that which says: "Vengeance belongeth unto Me; I will recompense, saith the Lord."

We must never under any circumstances endeavor to soothe our consciences by the thought that we can be the Divine instruments in wreaking vengeance.

God permits certain things to happen. There is no doubt whatever that God foresees, and God permits the thing to happen, which, from a certain point of view, is inevitable so long as the nations are without the grace of God.

Appeal to Cæsar, and you must stand by Cæsar's decision.

Appeal to the sword, and you appeal to brute force and superior power, and whoever has the best sword and the best gun will win.

All that is foreign to Christianity.

The Law of Revenge is a Cause of the Necessity for Prayer.

One of the great reasons for the great regrettable necessity for Prayer is that throughout all the ages this particular prophetic word has been fulfilled. The shedding of blood has caused the shedding of blood. Nations have been in one perpetual state of embroilment, one perpetual state of turmoil all down through the ages, because of wars of revenge.

The lex talionis, the law of revenge, is brutal, ungodly and absolutely Antichristian.

No provocation can justify retaliation.

In cases of emergency, the law clothes you with power and gives you the right for the time being to protect your life, the honor of your own being, your character, and even to protect your property. If man is killed under such circumstances, the law says, "justifiable homicide"; that is to say say, "you have slain a man in a way which was justifiable."

That is the law of man.

I do not think the law of God will permit a man to inflict deadly or even severe injury in defense of property.

"Thou shalt not kill."

In vain we call old notions fudge,
And bend our conscience to our dealing;
The Ten Commandments will not budge,
And stealing will continue stealing.

Killing will continue killing, lying will continue lying, and adultery will continue adultery.

The Loss of Life For Christ's Sake and the Gospel's, a Triumph.

If this were not so, then our Lord Jesus Christ's words are entirely without meaning.

He certainly taught by His example and by His precept that losing life for His sake and the Gospel's, therefore for humanity, was a triumphant thing; was a thing of which God approved.

I hope that there is entering into the heart of every one of you an undying hatred for evil; that you will carry the Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, with you everywhere; that you will not be afraid to use that Sword, and plunge it into the heart of your opponent; that you will not be afraid to use that Sword, and march forward bravely and hew your way to victory through hellish hosts.

It is a two-edged Sword, and you may well take both your hands to it.

This glorious Sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God, is stronger than steel.

Greater than anger is love.

There is no power like truth spoken in love.

Truth is great, but it often fails of its most effectual purpose because of the spirit in which it is spoken.

It must be spoken in love. Speaking in love does not consist in constantly reminding humanity how much you love it, and how sweetly disposed you are.

That is the remark of a hypocrite.

The greatest hypocrites I have yet known in this world are the people who go about telling the world and the Christians how they are full of love.

I heard an apostle of the hypocrites when I happened to go into his Tabernacle in New York. He said, "Oh God, I do not want to be like Paul. Make me like John, all love."

He was preaching from the text, "And now abideth Faith, Hope, Love," and he had read the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians, every word of which was written by Paul.

Great as John was, there was never any man who had the Love of God more than Paul. It would be a very good thing if every minister of the Gospel were like Paul.

Life was not dear to him, but Paul did not go about the world making such ridiculous pretensions of love.

The World is Sick of Pretentions of Love.

I will tell you that the people are sick, and sick unto death, of mere pretentions of love, just as women get sick unto death of the fellow who is always hanging around them with his mouth full of metaphorical candy—"Oh Betty, how I love you! I do love you so!" (Laughter.)

A woman likes to see a man manifest his love in a manly way, which appeals to every good woman's heart. She desires not mere talk, but that which is infinitely better than talk.

This foolishness is not all confined to men.

Speak the truth in love, but remember this, that you will never succeed in being a blessing to the world unless you are brave enough to tell the truth.

Just as I left my office, I opened a letter containing $250 from an ex-Mason whom I spanked until he was sore, and my hand was sore, too. That Mason said to me: "I thank you, Dr. Dowie, more than I can tell you, for the elaborate spanking which you gave me some time ago. I never would have sent this $250 but for that spanking."

I never thought of getting $250 from that source; but if you looked at my correspondence, you would often see such words as these.

An Example of the Result of Speaking the Truth in Love.

For instance, there was an expression in last week's issue of LEAVES OF HEALING: "When I first saw Dr. Dowie he called me a thief, and a liar, and a humbug, and I thank him for it. I was all that."

The person who wrote that is one of the dearest and noblest kind of Christians. When I saw him first, and he told me what he thought about things, I said, "Do you want me to tell you the truth as to what I think of you?"

"Yes."

I said, "Look me straight in the eye. You are stealing from God Almighty, you are lying to God Almighty, and you are an unmitigated humbug, because you profess to be an out-and-out Christian when you are stealing from God and lying to God. If you stole from me and lied to me, it would be a great sin; but when you get over your anger and your indignation, I am going to show you that you have stolen from God, from your Father in Heaven, and that you have lied to Him; and if a man claims to be a Christian and steals and lies, is he not a humbug?"

I sat down and showed that man how he was a thief, how he was a liar; and when I had gotten through, he put out his hand to me and said, "Thank you."

I told that man that he had stolen from God Almighty something like $20,000, and that he had lied to God Almighty something like 20,000 times, probably, in professing to be an out-and-out Christian when he was an abominable thief. I showed him that great as his gifts were, they were miserably short of what he had promised God.

He is not a thief now, and not a liar now, and he is not a humbug now. He has gotten straight with God, and he is going as straight as he can in all things. He made the confession and put things right.

Love and Truth Give Power.

I said that thing which, perhaps, very few men could have said and not get a knock on the nose. Why? Because I loved that man and he knew it. I loved him. I wanted to help him. He was deeply impressed that I was God's minister and God's servant, and I could not help him in any other way than by speaking the truth.

Some of our dear people speak the truth, but they speak it in bad temper. They do not speak it in love. They speak it with a consciousness of a superiority.

Although spoken in truth, a word spoken in that spirit never does any good.

A great many persons have said that speaking the truth as I have spoken it would drive people away. But when Zion has attracted to its gates, as I believe, more than 40,000 persons within these four years, an average of 10,000 a year, and when Zion has established itself in hundreds of thousands of hearts, it must be that the spirit of God, which is the Spirit of Wisdom and of Love, has blessed the strong words which I have spoken in Zion.

I therefore say to you, take your Sword, but do not shed blood. Do something which is more effective. You can do fifty times more execution than by shedding blood. The slain of the Lord will be many on every side. They will abhor themselves in tens of thousands, if you know how to use the Sword of the Spirit.

Never let the thought of revenge in any form enter your heart.

I think it is sometimes a right thing to get back at the enemies of God in a spirit of love, showing just how wicked and abominable they are to the whole world when they are manifestly incredibly wicked.

Anger Sometimes the Best Expression of Love.

I do not desire you to suppose that there is not a time for anger, for sometimes the very best expression of love is anger.

I believe that the expression of the apostle's, "Be ye angry and sin not," is a command. I think it is a right thing to be angry, and a man who cannot be angry has no love.

A man does not understand love if he is not angry. The Lord Jesus Christ was angry. It was with indignation and anger against the wicked that He took the whip of small cords to thieves in the Temple and drove them out. Again and again there are manifestations of Divine anger in the holiest and best of the apostles.

In fact, the very last words which we read about the Apostle Paul in the wonderful work of apostolic actions is a word of anger. He was talking to the Jews. He said:

And when they had appointed him a day, they came to him into his lodging in great number; to whom he expounded the matter, testifying the Kingdom of God, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning till evening. And some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Isaiah the prophet unto your fathers, saying,

Go thou unto this people, and say,
By hearing ye shall hear, and shall in no wise understand;
And seeing ye shall see, and shall in no wise perceive:
For this people's heart is waxed gross,
And their ears are dull of hearing,
And their eyes they have closed;
Lest haply they should perceive with their eyes,
And hear with their ears,
And understand with their heart,
And should turn again,
And I should heal them.

Be it known therefore unto you, that this salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles: they will also hear.

And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, having much disputing among themselves.

Paul was angry. That little man Paul could get angry. He would blaze out terrifically.

That was a Divine anger. There was no love greater than that. I will guarantee that when he had said these words, they went deep into the hearts of many of these Jews. They probably said when they got home, "Did he not go at us?" They knelt that night and said, "Oh God, help me." They stopped and asked themselves, "Am I in earnest at all? Am I not rejecting the Messiah, the Son of God? Can I pray at all?"

An Illustration of the Good Result of Divine Anger.

One night a conductor on a railway was passing a rink. He heard a fellow inside shouting out at the top of his voice, words which sounded exceedingly strange to him, although he could not make them out. He wondered what that man was saying.

The man inside was explaining and illustrating a parable.

He went in and found that I was the speaker. He put his hands on his sides and laughed as he saw the comedy go on. After I had gone all through the parable I said, "Now you thieves. Thieves! Do you hear me? Ask for mercy, and be quick about it, and you will receive it." He put his fingers in his ears and ran, because he was a thief.

When he got home he heard the voice ringing in his ears: "Ask for mercy from God. Give back what you have stolen and ye shall receive mercy, but be quick about it."

He sat down to his supper, and all he could hear was, "Be quick about it. Be quick about it. Be quick about it."

He said that the last time before that he had been in that rink was to witness a pugilistic encounter. He said there was a pugilistic encounter there that night, and that I was having all the fun.

He said he could not sleep, but had to get out upon his knees and tell God Almighty that he had stolen from the railway. He had considerable money. He paid up the railway. Then he got out of the railway business, and the last I heard of him was that he was preaching the Gospel in Africa.

It would never have done him any good, unless I had gone at him in that way.

He had been in the habit of going to church on Sunday, hearing all the sermons, and giving money and all that kind of thing, and he was a thief all the time.

I had caught sight of that man by the door, away, far off. I saw that he was mocking, and I just made a shot as I looked at his face. I said to myself, "I believe he is a thief," so I shouted, "You thief!" Nobody else knew that I was stretching my hand over all that congregation and hitting that man in the face as I said, "And be quick about it."

There is nothing so strong as the Sword of the Spirit.

There is no place for the shedding of blood in the Christian life.

Christ shed His blood that no other blood should be shed.

I think God will keep you from being robbed, and from being injured, if you put your trust in Him.

One man I read of talked to a thief who was robbing him, prayed for him, and the thief went out of the house a converted man.

The European powers have shed blood, and their blood is being shed.

The English have shed blood, and their blood is being shed.

Whenever men shed blood, their blood is shed by their fellowmen.

I believe, therefore, that capital punishment is always wrong, and that war is always wrong, except it be a war for protection.

War of Aggression is Always Wrong.

I believe that it is better to leave to God and to time the settling of many wrongs, than to rush forward and attempt to settle them by the sword.

My heart is very sore, as the heart of every true lover of God must be, to see the strife between two nations which profess to love the same God and pray to the same God, on African soil.

I know that I am not unduly prejudiced in favor of the British, but in this present conflict there is no question but that the Boers precipitated the war. The Boers, in fact, proclaimed the war, and were well prepared for the war. They had secretly gotten both men and arms.

The strife of war and bloodshed is hateful. It is ungodly. It is unchristian. It is to me painful to think that instead of missionaries carrying the Gospel from England, England is sending out hundreds of thousands of men to murder.

It is horrible.

Yet I know it must be so. I can see it will be so, because of this principle: "Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed."

Without the Grace of God it is so, and England has not the Grace of God as a nation any more than America has.

America went to the Philippines. There she has been causing blood to flow in rivers.

The Christian Catholic Church in Zion has no affinity with these things.

Our protest is against the shedding of blood, and we must tell mankind everywhere that it takes more courage, and it does, to stand right in Rome and proclaim the Gospel, the everlasting Gospel of Peace, and to be prepared to die for it.

Those Who Have Best Served God Have Been Those Who Have Died.

The sinless Christ who stood spotless, and would not speak, and would say nothing, stands in all ages as the representative of the noblest kind of sacrifice. I was pleased to see that Rabbi Hirsch said on Christmas Day, "Let the Jews of Chicago teach their children that the true spirit of the Jew is giving, not getting; that the true spirit of Judaism is manifested by Jesus Christ, who gave His life for humanity."

The Rabbi struck a true note when he said that. The Rabbi is feeling after God.

I am hopeful, and very hopeful, that Judah will yet know God.

That word is one over which we may ourselves ponder.

If the true principle of the Jew should be giving and not getting, surely a Christian should stand for giving, not getting. Yet, if we give, shall we not get?

Surely Christ gave His Life and His Love, and His Light went out apparently in darkness. But not so. The Light shone out brighter and brighter, for He arose from the dead. The Love went wider and wider, and the Life which never dies is with us still. That Life and Light and Love did not destroy men's lives, but came to save them.

That is our mission.

Along our ranks no sabres shine,
No blood-red pennons wave;
Our banners bear one single line:
"Our mission is to save."

Our mission is not to shed men's blood. I would God, today, that some authoritative Voice could be lifted to say, "Peace! Be still," and come right down to this stormy sea of strife and bid them cease, and bid them to know that the best way to avenge national wrong is to make confession of national sin.

What a blessed day it will be when all "the kingdom of the world is become the Kingdom of our Lord, and of His Christ."

That is what we are looking for. That is what we have to preach. The day is coming when that shall be taught.

Zion therefore stands for peace and not for war.

Unknown Disease Healed in Answer to Prayer.

5214 HARRISON STREET,
PITTSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA, November 20, 1900.

OVERSEER W. H. PIPER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—I feel it a duty as well as a pleasure to write and say that my mother, Mrs. Hawten, when in Zion Home a few weeks ago, requested you to pray for me, and that when you prayed the disease began to leave.

Now I am free from that trouble. I did not consult a doctor, so do not know what the disease was.

I suffered from excessive heat and cold nearly all summer at intervals, day and night. At such times my clothing could almost be wrung out, it was so wet with perspiration.

I was very thin and weak.

After you prayed this unnatural perspiring ceased and the overflow of the pores passed off through the kidneys until the disease was gone.

I thank God for my healing, and give Him all the glory.

I thank you for praying for me.

God bless and keep you ever under the shadow of His wing.

Yours in Jesus' love, (MRS.) C. D. WEIROUSH.

CHICAGO.

ZION receives so many and so great and precious gifts and blessings from God, that every one of the 365 days in her year are Thanksgiving Days.

She "shows forth His lovingkindness" every morning and "His faithfulness" every night.

His "praise is continually in her mouth."

Nevertheless, Zion welcomes a day of special Thanksgiving and rejoices to join with all those who truly give thanks to God on that day.

On Thanksgiving Day, 1900, Zion in Chicago gathered in Central Zion Tabernacle in the afternoon.

An enthusiastic and interesting service was conducted by Overseer-at-Large William Hamner Piper.

Zion's White-robed Choir rendered a most beautiful and appropriate Thanksgiving anthem with spirit and feeling, and with a oneness and harmony which made it one of the most notable of their many splendid triumphs in the service of song.

Many arose and gave thanks to God for special blessings and for the blessings of the year now so near its close.

In the evening many hundreds of the members and friends of Zion were very cordially received at Zion Home by Overseers Piper and Speicher and their wives.

On Lord's Day afternoon, December 1, 1900, Zion in Chicago had a day of blessing which will never be forgotten. It was a bright and beautiful day, the air crisp and sparkling, but not too cold, and 2500 members and friends of Zion gathered in Central Zion Tabernacle for the regular monthly Communion service.

After the opening exercises, Deacon Stevenson introduced the Lace Experts who had recently arrived from Beeston, Notts, England. They came upon the platform and were given a most hearty and enthusiastic greeting by the thousands of Zion.

He delivered to all those present messages of love from the General Overseer and Mrs. Dowie, and told how, often and often, in the midst of all his toils and perils, the General Overseer would stop, and lifting his hand would pray in silence for Zion in Chicago, America and everywhere.

He then told very briefly of the perils through which the General Overseer had passed and how God had led him to stand always at the side of His servant to aid in his protection.

Overseer Speicher then spoke briefly of the wondrous loyalty and courage of Mrs. Stevenson during all these perils; how she ever remained by the side of her husband and the General Overseer, even when the mobs surrounded his carriage in howling, threatening thousands, and how she shamed the murderous hoodlums who sought her brother's life, with her brave words of appeal to what sparks of manhood still slumbered in them.

Then Attorney Samuel W. Packard was introduced, amidst a perfect storm of applause.

With thrilling words he told the story of Zion's great victory in Washington, when, by the Grace of God, she put to flight all the hosts of Zion's Labor Union enemies who were trying to prevent her from bringing the Lace Experts to Zion City to teach Zion workmen and women to make lace.

His address was one of the most interesting delivered in Central Zion Tabernacle since the General Overseer's departure for Europe, and was interrupted continually by the most enthusiastic applause.

It will be published in THE COMING CITY for December 12th, Volume I, Number 10.

At the close of Attorney Packard's speech, nearly one hundred new members, some of them from England and Ireland, were given the right hand of fellowship by Overseer Speicher.

Then Zion in Chicago, with many Christian friends, met around the Lord's Table for the last time in 1900 and the last time in the Nineteenth Century.

The next communion will be held at the All-Night Meeting, during the early morning hours of the first day of the Twentieth Century.

ZION LACE EXPERTS IN CHICAGO.

Detained in Philadelphia Through the Enmity of Labor Unions, They are Finally Admitted by the Treasury Department. Great Victory For Zion.

DEACON SAMUEL STEVENSON, General Manager of Zion Lace Industries, and a party of Lace Experts, with their wives and families, making in all a party of twenty-six, arrived in Chicago from Beeston, Notts, England, on the evening of Wednesday, November 28, 1900, the day before Thanksgiving Day.

It was an occasion of great thanksgiving in Zion, for their coming was the result of a great and notable victory which God had given Zion over determined and powerful enemies.

The following are the names of the Lace Experts and their occupation and families:

Henry Stevenson, Manager; wife and eight children.

Henry Norwebb, Expert Levers Draftsman; wife and two children.

George Middleton, Expert Levers Draftsman; wife and one child.

George Wilkinson, Lace Curtain Expert; wife and four children.

These pioneer members of the little band of Lace Experts who will instruct Zion workers in the making of lace in Zion Lace Industries, Zion City, were the cause of a legal contest which engaged the attention and interest of both England and America.

They arrived in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the steamer Waesland, on November 12, 1900.

The press of both England and America had been boasting for months that these Lace Experts would not be admitted to the United States because their coming would be in violation of the alien contract labor law.

The Amalgamated Association of Laceworkers of America had also boasted that they would not be admitted.

But Zion knew that she was right in bringing them in and that God was with her, so that she could not be defeated.

The Labor Unions won the first battle.

The Board of Inquiry of Immigration at Philadelphia acceeded to the Union's demands and decided that the Zion Lace Experts must return to England on the Waesland. Attorney Samuel W. Packard proceeded to Philadelphia and the Board gave the matter a rehearing to admit additional evidence. The case was again decided against Zion.

The case was immediately appealed to Commissioner of Immigration T. V. Powderly, of the Treasury Department of the United States. In the meantime the Lace Experts were permitted to leave the ship under police surveillance, and were finally released on $8,000 bonds.

When the case was argued before Commissioner Powderly and Secretary of the Treasury Lyman J. Gage, the Labor Unions held that the Zion Lace Experts should not be admitted because of an act of Congress passed in 1885, which forbids the importation of labor from other countries under contract.

The law, however, make the following exception:

Nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prevent any person, etc., from engaging under contract on agreement skilled workmen in foreign countries to perform labor in the United states in or upon any new industry not at present established in the United States; provided, that skilled labor for that purpose cannot be otherwise obtained.

In reference to this exception, the labor unions said that lacemaking was not a new industry and that lacemakers could be found in this country to do the work in Zion Lace Industries.

In his answer, Attorney Samuel W. Packard made the following points:

First. That the law did not apply to skilled labor, but to common labor. He cited a decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in substantiation of this point.

Second. These people were not under contract. They were simply given transportation money and allowed to choose, after arriving in America, whether or not they would enter the employ of Zion Lace Industries.

Third. The industry contemplated had not been established in the United States at the time of the passage of the law, nor indeed, was it established at the present time.

Furthermore, Attorney Packard produced affidavits to prove that lace such as Zion Lace Industries proposed to manufacture was not made in this country, and, hence, those who knew how to make it could not be employed here.

The Treasury Department, after carefully considering the matter, decided that the law did not apply to these experts, hence they were admissible.

Great was the rejoicing in Zion when the decision was made public.

So widely spread was the account of the detention of these Lace Experts that Zion's great victory, through the power of God, was also very widely heralded.

The effect on the world everywhere was immediately manifest. The tone of newspaper utterances betrayed increased respect for Zion and renewed confidence that Zion City and Zion Lace Industries were not only certainties, but certain successes.

Zion has never doubted that for a single second.

Zion believes that God is building Zion City.

God wonderfully helped Attorney Packard in his presentation of Zion's case at Washington, so that his argument was not only widely commented upon as one of remarkable ability, clearness and force, but was acknowledged, by the Union Labor party, to have completely changed the effect of their law.

Mansfield, Ohio.

Rev. Cyrus B. Fockler, Elder-in-Charge.

Zion's onward march to complete victory in Mansfield, Ohio, has had no halting, no backward step.

All Zion everywhere will rejoice to read the glad news that once more has a meeting of the Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion in that city been held without mob violence or lawless official interference; indeed, without even a jeer.

Elder F. A. Graves, who with his wife, Evangelist Vina Peck-Graves, had been spending his vacation at Mrs. Graves' former home in New York State, stopped at Mansfield on his way back to Zion, Chicago, and held a meeting on Lord's Day, November 25th.

He thus describes his experience:

I arrived in Mansfield Saturday afternoon, in a pouring rain.

I took conveyance to the Vonhof Hotel, registered and went to my room.

Soon I went down to the writing table and attended to some correspondence.

I was unmolested, and spent a peaceful night there.

In the morning I hastened to find the Zion Gathering, but because of an oversight in my directions I took a wrong trail, and for two hours I wandered about unable to find those to whom I had come to minister.

Meeting Attorney Douglass in a drug store, where I had gone to consult a directory, I quietly made myself known to him and he gave me the much-needed direction.

I found a little band of twenty-five waiting for me.

We had a good service in the forenoon and also one in the afternoon.

All were plucky and cheerful, and we felt that God was very close to us.

I then walked a mile to the Erie Depot, and did not hear one sneering call at me on the street.

I think I could have been easily recognized, for I thought I looked very much like a "Dowie Elder." I certainly felt like one.

God be praised for the victory for Zion in that place.

After I had sent a telegram to Zion, Chicago, the train soon arrived, and in a few hours I was safe in Zion Home.

I was not called upon to suffer as my brave brethren had before me, but I was willing to, if necessary.

Zion will ere long see the day when great crowds will gather in Zion Tabernacle, Mansfield, to hear the preaching of the Everlasting Gospel from the lips of a minister in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Toledo, Ohio.

Rev. J. C. Reiff, Elder-in-Charge.

Newspaper mud-flinging and official persecution incited by medical enemies came to Zion in Toledo a few months ago.

As usual, the newspapers boasted that Zion would be wiped out and, as usual, the enemy withdrew from the field rather than suffer a defeat in battle; and Zion goes forward with greater unity and strength to more blessed work for God, who gave her the victory.

Elder Reiff sends us the following notes on the blessings which God has given Zion in Toledo:

"O give thanks unto the Lord; for He is good:

. . . . . .

Let the redeemed of the Lord say so,

Whom He hath redeemed from the hands of the adversary."—Psalm 107:1, 2.

There are more and more in Zion and Toledo who do give thanks unto the Lord, because He has redeemed them and theirs from the hand of the adversary, Satan.

The month of November has been one rich in blessings from God.

One brother who had alarming symptons of typhoid fever requested prayer. At the moment hands were laid upon him, he "realized," as he said, "the power of God pass through his whole being, rebuking the fever and destroying the pain in an instant." He has since been well.

Another brother was suffering great agony because of a severe cold and a dangerous form of erysipelas. His face was badly swollen; for two nights he had slept none, and for several days had taken very little nourishment. Through another he requested that we pray for him at our evening meeting recently. We prayed, and at about the same time he felt the abundant life flow through his body.

He called his wife, for they had already retired, saying, "I'm healed, praise God! Get up and fix me something to eat, for I'm hungry." She arose and prepared him a meal, which he ate heartily and enjoyed. In a short time the swelling was all gone, and since then he has been praising God almost continually.

One of our Zion boys recently had an attack of scarlet fever. He would have neither doctor nor medicine. We visited him and prayed for him. In a few days he was well.

God has also lately saved the life of this boy's little sister, who had a severe attack of diphtheria. Thank God, she is now well again. God's power was very graciously felt in a recent case of childbirth, not only by the mother, but also by the attending sister. It was a wonderful deliverance.

The young mother was wondrously healed of spinal curvature a few years ago, in answer to the General Overseer's prayer. To God be all the praise.

The recent appeal of Overseer Piper in behalf of LEAVES OF HEALING is having good effect here.

We have been much refreshed by a visit from Deacon Yerger, of Cincinnati, and by several visits from Deacon Kindle, of Kalamazoo. These brothers are in business for the Lord, and always ready for the Lord's business. God bless them.

Zion's Saloon Seventies in Toledo have done good work, and we are expecting to do even more, for several new workers are about to join the band.

All who do this work confess to spiritual blessing and strength according to their need. Incidents and experiences that serve to encourage and reward those who have love for the fallen and depraved are never wanting in this noble work.

Let all Zion pray for these women.

At our mission at Lacarne, Ohio, there has been no dearth of eggs, good and otherwise, for several months past. Also clods and stones are still the weapons of cowards who have no better arguments. Stones and eggs have come through the windows.

Prominent church members both inspired and were present in the mobs which tried to drive Zion from Lacarne, after the fashion of Mansfield's ignoble example. But, thank God, none of their vile-smelling, cowardly arguments struck us.

God is giving us victory at Lacarne, which was quite manifest at our last meeting there. Nearly all our opponents came inside and gave respectful audience to truths they little enjoyed.

Le Sueur, Minnesota.

Zion's enemies are everywhere meeting with defeat and are covered with confusion.

Whenever they attack Zion, the attack rebounds upon their own heads.

Zion, stronger because of persecution and better known to the people on account of her victories, goes on to still greater triumphs.

God is most plainly with Zion.

There is no other explanation for Zion's uninterrupted series of victories in her hundreds of conflicts.

In Le Sueur, Minnesota, on November 17th, a foolish city magistrate caused the arrest of Deacon J. W. Crane, of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, on the ground of an alleged violation of the law of the State which provides that none but physicians and spiritual advisers shall visit quarantined houses.

Deacon Crane had prayed for a child who was dying of diphtheria.

Deacon Crane being an ordained officer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and hence a qualified spiritual adviser, it was evident to the City Attorney that they had made a mistake in arresting him. He attempted to get the County Attorney to take the case, but that official refused.

When the case came up for trial, the prosecution did not put in an appearance and, on motion of Deacon Crane's attorney, the case was dismissed.

Of course the newspapers throughout that vicinity took up the matter and lied maliciously about Zion and Deacon Crane, but the truth is mighty and will prevail.

DO NOT write letters to the heads of departments for news concerning the progress being made at Zion City, when you can find it all in THE COMING CITY. Send in your subscription to Zion Publishing House, 1207 Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

Zion's Panoramic Tours.

THESE TOURS are conducted by Deacon Daniel Sloan, of Chicago. They present to the unprejudiced, teachable and fairminded the Principles, Purposes and Practices of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Conferences and personal interviews are held with members and friends at places visited. Information is given concerning Zion City and the Truths and Requirements of Zion, as well as counsel and direction pertaining to personal, business and domestic relations which may effect one's spirit, soul and body. These interviews are always spiritually helpful.

Some of the following lectures are given: Panorama of Zion, Exhibit of Zion City, The World as It Is, God's Rescue Call, Spiritual Mastery, The Bible a New Book, Prophetic Sidelights, Zion's Place and Methods, Glimpses of the Christ of God.

Within the past months visits have been made to members and friends of Zion, touching in travel seventeen States, and stopping at points in eleven different States.

The Panorama of Zion and Exhibit of Zion City, a stereopticon exhibition of the greatest work of the age and the Coming City of the age, has been presented to interested audiences of hundreds.

The expense for each place is about $10 or $15, in addition to the hall rent, if any, entertainment always being provided for the Deacon and his operator in some Zion family.

Visitation may possibly yet be made to other points where there is a Zion Gathering or a Branch Church, at such times as five or eight places centrally located can be arranged for in a trip, and when time can be given to this work aside from other duties.

Persons who desire to help build up Zion through such exhibitions, conferences and interviews should immediately write the Deacon for a visit at such date as he may later arrange, even if his coming be delayed for months.

Interest in the meantime may be awakened and the fact of his coming, though the date is unsettled, can be used to stimulate interest in favor of Zion, Zion Literature and the Zion Seventy work which is being done.

Trips cannot extend beyond two weeks, and then only to places where several members and friends and the spirit of interest shown warrant such visits.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

The innumerable falsehoods of the secular and so-called religious press against Zion have continued without cessation for years.

We have occasionally dealt with some of these falsehoods and taken up much valuable time in our public ministration in answering these attacks.

But the time has come when we have resolved no longer to answer them in detail, unless in extremely exceptional cases.

We shall simply content ourselves with stating them and nailing them down.

Hence we have determined to devote this page to a beginning of this work of publicly branding the most important of the almost innumerable lies of the ungodly, unclean, criminal, and hypocritical press.

We shall also add from time to time a few specimens of the odium theologicum, which we shall cull from the innumerable misrepresentations and fabrications of the apostate churches.

It must not be supposed that we admit the truth of the things which we do not here deny, for it would be simply impossible to enumerate all that ought to be nailed down. We again remind our friends that these are simply the most important of them.

Six Bound Volumes of Leaves of Healing.

WHAT six books, beside the Bible, could be more precious, more valuable to every member and friend of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, than the first six volumes of LEAVES OF HEALING?

They contain more of the Everlasting Gospel; more testimonies to Salvation, Healing and Cleansing through Faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God; more sound teaching, than any other six books published.

The world may scoff at that, but Zion knows it to be true.

Not only that, but these six Volumes contain, in some measure, the priceless record of God's dealings with Zion in these latter days. In them, as nowhere else, can be found the history of the mighty work which God has established for the extension of His Kingdom and the preparation of the world for the coming of Jesus as King.

In them is contained a large portion of the wonderful Message which God sent to the world by His Messenger.

In fact, when we stop to consider all the glorious things which have gone into the composition of these six Volumes, we find words insufficient and inadequate to express their value.

Those who have been saved, healed, cleansed, made prosperous and happy through the Message brought by one copy of the Little White Dove, perhaps know something of what a mighty storehouse of power these six Volumes are.

These Volumes have been bound, by Zion Publishing House, in strong, handsome black binding, half-morocco, with a graceful design, LEAVES OF HEALING, in gilt upon the front cover.

Each has a carefully prepared index covering all the principal subjects in the book.

They sell at the regular rate of $3.50 per Volume, or the exceedingly low rate of $15 for the six Volumes.

These books should be in every Zion household.

By Rev. O. L. TINDALL, M. A., B. D., Principal Ministerial Department.

ZION COLLEGE has great reason to rejoice and praise God for the blessings of the past year. Prosperity has come to her borders as well as to the nation's. We believe in expansion—in body, soul and spirit, and in the mind.

We are happy to note the great and rapid growth of young men and maidens who have come into Zion schools. Our numbers have doubled. We have now about 140 in the Preparatory and Ministerial Departments, and 250 in the Junior Schools. And still they are coming. Our numbers should be larger.

One cannot overestimate the advantage to a young man or woman in the religious training found in Zion.

We wish to record our own personal conviction in this matter. Our experience extends over a course of many years. We passed through the old log schoolhouse in the country, the better equipped town schools, the preparatory, and college. We had some experience in two theological seminaries, several years in the pastoral work of the Church, and a number of years in active business life.

We must say that our experience with Zion for the last ten years has been of more real value to us than all of the past years of our life.

We have learned more of the true way of life, and above all the great purpose of the Church: that it is the Household of God the Father, and that in the true Church we find all our needs supplied.

The Church of God manages the affairs of men. We need its fatherly care in directing our lives. What waste of time, energy, health and money we have suffered from the lack of the wise counsel which we have found in Zion's teaching and the helping hand that has been held out to us by Zion's great leader under God!

Thousands will raise the note of praise in these thanksgiving days for blessings which have come to them from God through our General Overseer.

Zion College exercises were suspended for two days for Thanksgiving. Most of the students were thankful for that, we presume. They are glad to get a rest from their labors.

This gave us all an opportunity to participate in the most interesting Thanksgiving Services at Central Zion Tabernacle and the Reception at Zion Home in the evening.

It would take us more than two days to recount all the blessings of the past year. But praise is comely, and what a blessed state for a man to be in to be able, as the apostle said, in everything to give thanks.

God had so transformed His nature that He gloried in tribulations and really enjoyed a good lively tilt with the Devil, as our General Overseer often says he does. The thought of the great Victory which is sure to come, cheers one.

Paul and Silas did not hold a meeting for fasting and mourning in the Philippian jail, although their feet were fast in the stocks and their backs bore the marks of the scourging lash. Instead, they made the prison walls resound with songs of praise. This was the feeling expressed in the testimonies of Zion officers, who had suffered many indignities from the Mansfield Masonic Mayor's Mob. They thanked God and the Overseer for sending them. They found a peculiar joy in suffering for their Lord which they had not experienced before. The Lord healed their wounds and took fear from their hearts.

Zion College has had her trials and victories. At the opening of the year we faced somewhat of a chaotic state of things. We had a heterogeneous mass of unclassified students of all grades to get into order and find a place for. We had more pegs than we had holes to put them in. We had square pins to fit into round holes, etc. But the problem has been solved. We made more holes, got more rooms for recitation, and did some molding.

We had a drove of unmatched colts. Some were large and some small; some fast and some slow. In starting a school, the first work is to match them together that all may work in harmony. We are glad to be able to report progress.

We rejoice in our very excellent Musical Department and to know so many are availing themselves of this superior opportunity.

The work of elocution has been added.

The Friday night social and literary entertainment is proving a very interesting and profitable adjunct to our school life.

We are glad to note the interest taken in these exercises by those outside of the College proper. But Zion is one body with many members. What interests one member interests all. Many thanks are going up to God for this blessing. The young people are appreciating most heartily the privileges of Zion College.

Zion College needs your prayers and coöperation.

We must not forget to thank the friend who heard and answered our request for a piano for Zion College. This was recently received from Mr. Givens, of Steelton, Pennsylvania, and is most sincerely appreciated. We would say to others, Go thou and do likewise, for Zion needs a number of instruments to supply the Musical Department.

Notes of Thanksgiving to Zion's God

Baby Girl Healed When Dying of Diphtheria.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, November, 24, 1900.

REV. JOHN A. DOWIE.

Dear General Overseer:—I wish to tell of the wonderful healing my little girl has received of diphtheria.

On the 21st of September, 1900, I left my home, Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, to come to Zion.

At that time she was in perfect health, but on Sunday, the 22d, she was taken very sick while on the boat. I thought it was seasickness, and did not consider it serious.

I arrived here Monday morning, and she felt some better, but kept growing weaker. On Thursday we had Elder Graves pray with her and she seemed better.

On Sunday she became so bad that we sent for Overseer Speicher. He said that she was very sick with diphtheria.

Elder Fockler prayed for her on Sunday night. Overseer Speicher came again on Monday, and asked me to keep him informed as to her condition.

On Monday she grew much worse. Her throat was so badly swollen that it hung down on her chest, her mouth was badly coated, and there were great white kernels on each side of her throat.

Her stomach was swollen out of shape and was as hard as a stone.

Her bowels were in a bad condition, and she could not eat, nor even drink milk, as nothing remained in her stomach for eight days and nights.

She was dying, for the death-rattle came in her throat; but I did not fear, for I knew that God's power is the same yesterday, today and forever.

On Tuesday morning we saw that she was dying, and Deaconess Paddock and I knelt and prayed and asked God to deliver her from Satan's hand.

Thank God, in fifteen minutes after we had prayed for her we saw the swelling go down. In the afternoon she sat up and wished her shoes on, and asked for her toys.

She has been well ever since then until she was taken with the measles, from which she is now recovering.

I thank God for this blessed teaching and for our dear General Overseer.

I also thank Him for the home I have, and for our dear Deaconess Paddock; also for the way He opened for me to return to the Home.

I trust that these words, inadequate as they may seem, may be the means of bringing some to the light and blessings to many homes.

Gratefully and faithfully yours, EMMA M——.

Baby Healed of Deformity and Sickness.

242 WEST ONE HUNDRED AND TENTH STREET,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, November 24, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER SPEICHER:—I am sending baby's photograph and his testimony.

We thank God for how He has blessed him.

He was tongue-tied.

After he was consecrated he put out his tongue and put it up around his upper lip. That was the first time I ever saw him put out his tongue.

He was nearly four months old.

Several persons wanted me to get his tongue cut, but we trusted God to loosen his tongue, and He did.

He was also very sick for nearly a week.

We were praying for his healing, but he did not get healed until we wrote to the General Overseer for prayer. At about the time he got the letter the baby began to get well. In a few days he was fully well.

We thank God for His many blessings since we came to Zion.

We also thank God for bringing us out of the Bethany Reformed Church and bringing us to Zion, where we were saved, healed and taught how to serve God.

Your Brother and Sister in Christ,

GEORGE AND LIZZIE MCELROY.

God's Way Greatly Superior to Man's Way.

1904 WEST MAIN STREET,
MERRILL, WISCONSIN, November 25, 1900.

REV. WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

Dear Overseer:—I thank you very much for praying for me, and also my dear Heavenly Father for answering your prayers.

I have a nice baby girl who is very good; no trouble at all.

I was not sick at all to speak of.

I had no doctor or medicines, only a midwife with me.

When my other baby was born I had a doctor and was very sick for a long time.

I did not know of Divine Healing at that time.

I am indeed thankful I have learned the right way since. I am well and strong, thank God.

Your Sister in Christ, (MRS.) MYRTLE BOYCE.

Little Daughter Quickly Healed. Mother Greatly Strengthened.

FREMONT, OHIO, November 19, 1900.

REV. WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

Dear Overseer Piper:—We praise God and thank you for your prayer for our little daughter Faith.

You had no sooner prayed for her than we noticed the change in her for the better.

Then we requested you to pray for myself and baby. I seemed to have no strength after the birth of our last babe, but now I am gaining rapidly.

We also praise God for the answer of prayer in behalf of our little daughter Marie. She had taken a very bad cold and had a high fever, but, praise God, she was perfectly healed in twenty-four hours from the time she took sick.

We feel so unworthy that God should be so merciful to us.

We feel so thankful to God and to Zion to know that He is so willing to heal as well as to forgive and keep His people so long as they obey Him.

Pray for us, that we may ever be obedient.

Yours for the Service of Christ. (MRS.) MINA R. LANCE.

Blessed and Healed in Answer to Prayer.

PARROTT, OHIO, November 20, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER PIPER:—On October 16th I sent you a request for prayer, asking you to pray for me on the 18th.

I received a letter from you stating you had prayed for me, and in a few days I was much better. I improved rapidly until I am almost well.

I am satisfied that through your prayers in my behalf God heard and answered.

I thank God for Zion, and that through its teaching I have been brought to see the truth in the Bible. It is a new Book to me

I had no religion before coming into Zion.

I thank God that through obeying God in all things we receive the blessing.

We are praying for all Zion everywhere and that we may soon be permitted to live in Zion City.

May God bless you and all Zion.

I remain your Brother in Christ, B. C. THOMPSON.

Baby Boy Healed of Many Diseases.

1302 WEST TWENTIETH STREET,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, November 29, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER SPEICHER:—My boy has been healed in answer to your and the General Overseer's prayers, of rupture, whooping-cough and measles, and several times of cold and constipation.

He was two years and seven months old November 6, 1900, and is a strong, healthy boy.

We give God all the glory and thank you and the General Overseer for your prayers.

It is my prayer that many more may trust God for their all.

Yours in Christ, EGBERT HOLKZEMO.

Baby Immediately Healed at the Time of Prayer.

HECTOR, MINNESOTA, November 19, 1900.

OVERSEER W. H. PIPER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—I write this to thank you for your prayers in behalf of my dear baby.

I cannot find words to express my gratitude to God for His wonderful saving, healing and keeping power.

Baby was very sick with fever.

I telegraphed you to pray for her the 2d inst. You prayed for her at 11:30 A. M.

She began to get better at that time and in the evening the same day her fever was all gone and she got down on the floor to play.

It left her lungs very sore, so I wrote and asked you to pray again for her, which was on the 7th inst.

God also answered that prayer, and she has been well since.

I have received many blessings in the two years I have been in Zion.

May God bless our General Overseer and Zion's Elders who have suffered persecution. May He give them fearless hearts and strong will to go forward.

I also pray that His blessing may rest upon each member of Zion throughout the world.

Your Sister in Christ, (MRS.) O. F. PETERSON.

The Basis of Fellowship is set forth in the second section of the Resolution passed on February 5th (see LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume II, Number 17, page 267):

FIRST—That we recognize the infallible inspiration and sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures as the rule of faith and practice.

SECOND—That we recognize that no persons can be members of the Church who have not repented of their sins and have not trusted in Christ for Salvation.

THIRD—That such persons must also be able to make a good profession, and declare that they do know, in their own hearts, that they have truly repented, and are truly trusting Christ, and have the witness, in a measure, of the Holy Spirit.

FOURTH—That all other questions of every kind shall be held to be matters of opinion and not matters that are essential to church unity.

All who are conscious of fulfilling these conditions, no matter where they may reside, are invited to fill up the following blank and answer the questions contained therein.

   Will thousands of Christians be yet killed, and for what?
   Who will be the people upon whom judgment will first of all fall?

God's Holy People are a Divinely-Sent People.

Be Alive to Your Opportunities for God. Through a Diligent Study and use of Zion's Bible Class Lessons and the fitness they will give toward a greater familiarity with the Holy Scripures and a clearer insight into God's truth, you will be prepared and furnished into every good work.

They will equip you for teaching those who will know God in power and blessing; for reproving those who trifle with God's mercies and despise His grace; for correcting those who have ignorant and false views of God and His relations to His people; and for instructing in righteousness those who are teachable and who would escape the corruption in the world through lust, who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus, and be blessed with all spiritual blessing in the world that now is as well as that which is to come.

This will include long life, happy heartedness and clearer insight into the purpose of life in all its relations, contributing to prosperity and financial success, as well as soul-saving usefulness.

Elders, Evangelists, Deacons and Deaconesses, as well as Conductors of Zion Gatherings, should, together with every member and friend of Zion, use Zion's Bible Class studies in their personal study of the Holy Scriptures, and also in the family gathering as well as in Seventy work and cottage meetings. The scope of these lessons is covering the teachings of God's Word concerning every relation of life, as well as blessed fellowship in spirit, soul and body with a Triune God. To neglect this is to despise opportunities. To push it aside is to count something else more important. Not to meditate on God's Word day and night, as well as to read it, grasping the sense and cultivating an understanding heart, means you do not wish God's richest blessing upon you and the greatest success to come from your labors.

SUGGESTIVE NOTES FOR THE USE OF ZION'S BIBLE CLASS OUTLINES

The Seed is the Word of God and the Field is the World. Therefore go ye and preach the Gospel to every creature; which means that people must be touched at home centers. Divide your town into two or more divisions, your city into smaller sections by streets, your township into districts by roads, and then begin and systematically follow up a house-to-house visitation with short calls. Give a small Zion tract or a copy of LEAVES OF HEALING or A VOICE FROM ZION.

Do not argue or controvert with people, but in cheerfulness of spirit and glow of countenance extend the literature with supplication in spirit and a "God bless you." Where your peace is returned, note all such places, together with the names of the parties.

Continue then in tbus so doing, and you will not have gone over a very large or compact area by such thorough and systematic work until you have found material enough near at hand for an occasional Cottage Prayer Meeting in some home which may open to you.

Then you will follow this up in due time with a Zion Bible Class Gathering in a home centrally located. This Gathering will be continued regularly each week with great blessing and profit to all who attend. If it is persevered in, it will ultimately grow into a strong Zion Assembly, and eventually become a Branch Church, with an Elder-in-Charge.

Every member, however, must set aside a time for doing this preliminary work. Where there are only a few members in a place, the division of the territory must be planned in conference with the Conductor of the Gathering or the Elder-in-Charge, or whoever else may be appointed by the General Overseer at Headquarters as the representative to thus have charge of Zion's affairs. An understanding will then enable every one to set about this work in an orderly way, reaching every home as speedily as possible, without two or more persons working in conflict or covering the same territory.

This is Christ's method of evangelization as outlined in the Gospels, and will win victory for God every time, in every place and by every person who is deeply consecrated to Him in discipleship.

The day has come when this must be done. Those who refuse to do it are cursed with a curse, for God says: "Woe unto those who are at ease in Zion."

How a Zion Bible Class Lesson is Prepared May Interest You.

Aside from years of close study of the Bible and special capacity and gift from God for teaching, comes first the choosing of subjects within the scope of Scripture truth. Then comes their development and logical arrangement in outline, with the Scripture bearing upon the same which appears in the unfolding of a subject.

All the Scripture thus suggested is arranged in order by clipping and pasting, so that all verses pertaining to a given lesson fall under the eye at once.

It is then carefully weighed and the emphasis given it is considered. Thoughtfully the questions are prepared, bringing out and enforcing the phases or special truth of the subject, which, when done, complete the manuscript.

After this the lesson's outline is dictated and typewritten. The copy is then gone over carefully, modified or strengthened for greater force or clearness. It is then handed to the printer.

After being put in type, it is again considered carefully for final form or correction. All of this for a single week's outlines requires hours of time under prayer, preparation and Divine guidance. It is done that the thousands who each week read, and we believe increasingly study these lessons, may receive the greatest possible blessing from God through the power of His Word and thus extend the Kingdom of God in these days of the Restoration of His Church to its primitive power and usefulness. God is raising up a people and has commanded that the Truth be known, for He says: "Say unto Zion, thou art My people."

A True Use of Sabbath Day Hours.

They should be improved well by every member and friend of Zion. The Bible Class Lesson outline should, with the Bible in hand, be gone over carefully and prayerfully, and the sermon by the General Overseer should also be attentively read. Assemble, sometime during the day, your own family. Invite in, if possible, those who want to know God in power, or desire from Him some blessing for spirit, soul or body. Where this is not possible, go where the sick and sinful, poor and neglected are, who have tasted only of the bitterness of life, and open up to them the Gospel which Jesus commanded should be preached to the poor. Where there are two or more members of Zion near you, do not fail to regularly come together sometime during the Lord's Day. Pray and speak with one another, and study together the Bible Class Lesson and talk over the marvelous doings of God in Zion. DO NOT OFFEND GOD BY GOING TO SOME CHURCH SERVICE WHERE GOD IS EVER DISHONORED AS THE HEALER, CLEANSER, KEEPER AND PROSPERER OF HIS PEOPLE. Do not go to hear His truth perverted by the cry of Peace, Peace, when sudden destruction is so near because of the prevalent wickedness of the world, which, with a worldly Church, is becoming more and more corrupt. Do not go where scoffing is everywhere heard from so-called Christians at the imminent coming of "the great God and Saviour Jesus Christ." He will receive unto Himself only those who look for Him; even ZION, whom He is now calling into Purity and Holy Living, who daily, in obedience to Her Lord, whatever the cost may be, is thus making herself READY TO SOON BECOME THE BRIDE OF CHRIST AT HIS APPEARING.

Dig Deep Into God's Word. On the surface of the Bible you will find the letter which killeth, and associated with it is the physical strata. This deals with narratives, incidents, records, customs, places and people. One may know all these things and be able to repeat from memory much Scripture, even knowing the Bible by heart, as some say, and yet be ignorant of God in the might of His salvation.

Underneath and associated with this is the intellectual study of the Bible. This leads one into mental pursuits and pleasures, where literary and ethical subjects, together with maxims and examples for this life, may, no doubt, give delight to many. Yet this may prevent one having fellowship with God in spirit.

The Spirit of God guides into all truth, leading one directly to Christ as Lord and Saviour, as well as Teacher and Leader.

This last strata brings one to fine gold and that which is sweeter than honey in the honeycomb. Get this spiritual insight and understanding of Jesus Christ our Lord, who is the Way, the Truth and the Life.

Through your study of God's Word, do not let the physical and psychical so attract and occupy you that you cannot see this under-vein in which God is ever real to you. It makes His will plain concerning every duty and relation in life. Keep on digging deep in study, ever comparing spiritual things with Scriptural. Then you will know the mind of the Lord, and will never walk in darkness, but will have the Light of Life.

Reply at once if you are using Zion's Bible Class Studies in a regular Zion Gathering anywhere and are trying through their use to help others to "A HOLIER LIFE FOR GOD." Write Deacon Sloan how long and where you have been doing this work, that he may by prayer, special helps and counsel come closer to you in your own life and comprehension of the Truth, and he, perhaps, of inspiration and assistance, possibly by an occasional personal letter to all who, as Bible Workers in Zion, are striving for the faith once delivered. Add your name to the list.

LEAVES OF HEALING

I am the Lord that healeth thee. And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

EDITED BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

VOLUME VIII NUMBER 8. CHICAGO, DECEMBER 15, 1900. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

HEALED WHEN NEAR TO DEATH WITH CATARRH OF THE STOMACH, NERVOUS PROSTRATION AND HEART TROUBLE.

I AM THE WAY.

These are the words of Jesus.

He proclaimed Himself as God's Way of Salvation, Healing and Cleansing. He is the Way of Salvation because He bore our sins upon the Cross.

He is the Way of Healing because He "Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases."

He is the Way of Cleansing because "the blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanseth us from all sin."

He is the only way of Salvation, Healing and Cleansing.

Men have tried often and long to find other ways, but have failed.

Especially has this been the case with Healing.

In the early ages, men strove by sorcery to heal themselves and others.

The modern systems of medicine are the progeny of ancient sorcery.

Each of them offers a false way of healing as a substitute for Jesus, the only Way.

This Witness tells what a terrible failure the medical way of healing is.

She tells, also, how wonderfully she was healed and blessed through Jesus, God's Way of Healing. Four years ago she lay in a darkened room, dying.

MRS. BLANCHE ANDERSON.

Her stomach was so terribly diseased that she could take almost no nourishment. She was starving.

Her nervous system was so badly shattered that she could not bear the slightest sound.

She lay helpless upon a bed of indescribable suffering.

Her heart, worn out by other diseases, again and again seemed almost to cease beating.

Each time she suffered all the pangs of death and then revived, weaker, and in greater misery than before.

Thus she had lain for five months.

Her diseases had been brought on by a fiery poison given her by a physician, who had attempted to cure her of hemorrhage by man's way of healing.

Following that, "gallons of stimulants" had been poured into her tortured stomach.

Many other vile and poisonous drugs, in large quantities, were given.

Through it all she had steadily grown worse.

At last her physician acknowledged that drugs would do her no good. She had tried man's way of healing to its utmost possibility.

It had proved its utter failure.

Slow, awful death from starvation was at the end of that way unless more speedy death from heart failure ended her agonies.

While thus all but hopeless, she and her husband received, through one of Zion's faithful members, a leaf of Zion Literature.

It told them the glad news of God's Way of Healing.

Eagerly they sought for more light.

God's Spirit opened their hearts to the blessed truth.

They then sought healing in God's Way.

Instantly the glorious work began.

She, who for five months had been helpless, was given strength to walk.

Gradually all the terrible results of medical abuse and folly disappeared, by the Power of God's Holy Spirit.

Today God has taken away all disease, and the slight weakness which remains as their result, He is rapidly replacing by His strength.

Instead of a helpless, hopeless invalid, at the very door of death, she is a happy wife and mother, serving God in her sacred duties to her family.

Her husband is a Deacon in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, and fills with honor the important positions of General Recorder and Financial Secretary of the Church.

That is the story.

Such is the contrast between man's false way of healing, which is the way to death, and God's Way of Healing, which is the Way to Life; nay, which is Life.

It is a clear, unmistakable case.

There is no room for doubt.

The Witness lives in Zion Home and is seen daily in increased flesh and strength by many who saw her enter in a dying condition.

Christ is Conqueror.

To Him be all the glory. A. W. N.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MRS. BLANCHE ANDERSON.

ZION HOME, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, December 1, 1900.

DEAR OVERSEER SPEICHER:—I have felt for some time that I ought to write a testimony for the glory of God.

First of all, I thank my Heavenly Father for leading us to Zion and for the truths so beautifully and wonderfully taught by our beloved General Overseer and his wife.

They have brought me many blessings in spirit, soul and body.

A physical wreck when I came to Zion, I feel I owe my life to the healing power of God.

Because I was not perfectly healed at once, the Devil has tried to close my mouth entirely concerning the great blessing I have received.

I suffered from nervous prostration in its worst form, heart failure and catarrh of the stomach.

Everything possible to human skill had been done for me.

I had taken gallons of stimulants, had been rubbed with salt, and had been bathed with oil every day, for months.

My stomach was washed out every morning for three months and my breakfast given me through a tube.

My vitality was all gone.

Nothing could stimulate my exhausted system.

I could just live, flat on my back.

I had dozens of sinking spells, when those around had to apply stimulants and rub my cold hands and limbs.

I suffered the pangs of death over and over again, and although I was determined to get well, there were a few times when death would have been a welcome rest.

I could write many pages and not tell half my sufferings, but that is not the side I like to look at.

While I was seeking to know Christ as Healer, God in His mercy showed me the errors of Christian Science, which had been brought to my attention, and I turned toward Zion, knowing nothing about it, but believing God would guide me to the right place.

I accepted the truth at once, and in a short time gave up medicine and came to Zion Home.

I began at once to gain, and have grown in strength and health continually.

I have overtaxed myself many times and had little backsets, but I would never give up, and I would soon be going forward again.

My stomach trouble, I believe, is perfectly healed, as I do not realize I have a stomach now, unless I get hungry.

My life was a burden to me from intense nervous suffering and from indigestion. Now I have joy and happiness in doing the duties it was so long impossible for me to do.

I feel especially grateful to God at this time for deliverance in childbirth.

Our baby, now nearly four months old, came into the world with her little body directly opposite the usual position. I should have been very much alarmed had I been trusting in the arm of flesh.

How thankful I was at that moment that my trust was in God, and that I was able to rest in Him for deliverance without fear.

The child was quickly delivered, alive and well, with almost no suffering. For this I do indeed praise God.

Zion seems more wonderful to me all the time as I see the unfolding of God's wonderful plans for her.

I thank our General Overseer and Mrs. Dowie and many others for their prayers and kindness.

Faithfully, (MRS.) BLANCHE ANDERSON.

CONFIRMATION OF HIS WIFE'S TESTIMONY BY DEACON E. S. ANDERSON.

ZION CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, December 7, 1900.

MR. ARTHUR W. NEWCOMB,
Assistant Editor LEAVES OF HEALING,
1300 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

My Dear Brother in Christ:—I joyfully respond to your request to add a few lines of confirmation to the testimony of my dear wife, which I understand is to appear in next week's LEAVES OF HEALING.

I heartily endorse all that she has said, and can truthfully say that the half has not been told, either as to what she suffered before coming to Zion or as to the blessings received since.

My wife and myself had been members of the M. E. Church at Salina, Kansas, our native city; had transferred our membership to Downer's Grove, Illinois, where we resided three years, and upon moving into Chicago had taken our Church letters. But we found no Church in the city which seemed to have any spiritual life, so we remained outside of all churches until we came to Zion.

Although my wife had been somewhat run down before, we trace the real cause of her long sickness to the strong medicines given her by Dr. H. R. Wallace, of 116 East Forty-third Street, Chicago, particularly the aromatic sulphuric acid mentioned in my testimony under "Cheering Words From Zion's Guests," on page 230, this issue of LEAVES OF HEALING.

While she was able to be around and to do considerable work for some months after this, her body was not properly nourished on account of the paralyzed condition of her stomach, and she gradually ran down until January 1, 1897, when she completely collapsed.

She rallied some in June and was able to be about the house some, and even out on the street two or three times; then took a relapse and remained in bed until I brought her to Zion Home.

When taken with this sickness we called in Dr. Bertha Van Hoosen, of 489 East Forty-second Street, Chicago, and she continued to be our physician until we accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as our Great Physician.

Dr. Van Hoosen had, however, called another lady physician into consultation with her at the bedside and had consulted a number of others outside. In the course of her treatment she had given my wife strychnine, aromatic spirits of ammonia, asafetida and creosote (oil of smoke). She was also given whisky, wine, malt extract, clam bouillon, etc., by the gallon, as well as many other drugs and stimulants.

So much for the dark side of the story.

Brother W. H. Handyside, who is an elevator man at the Chamber of Commerce Building, in which I was employed, gave me a Zion tract and asked me to come to hear our General Overseer preach.

I took the tract home. We read it.

I went to hear the preaching, bought more tracts and papers, read them, and continued so doing for two months.

On November 7, 1897, I lifted my wife from the bed from which she had not been able to arise for five months, carried her down to a carriage, drove with her to Zion Home and carried her to her room. She received much blessing during the week and was able to go to the Tabernacle on November 14th, be baptized, and return home with me on the street cars.

Now from probably less than ninety pounds, she has gained to 114 pounds of good, solid flesh.

From a life of seclusion, and many times darkness, she has come into the marvelous light of Zion and into strength which enables her to superintend her house and children and do many other duties, besides attending many lectures and other meetings.

We are truly thankful to God, to our beloved General Overseer and to the many faithful brethren for the many blessings, for the prayers and for the teaching which we have received in Zion.

We are also very thankful for the blessed privilege of being associated with the General Overseer in the Financial and Recording Departments of the Christian Catholic Church.

Faithfully your Friend and Fellow-Servant in Jesus,
E. S. ANDERSON.

Leaves of Healing Blessed in Africa.

A worker in South Africa writes:

We thank Zion Mission very much for continuing to send LEAVES OF HEALING and the tracts. They are continuing to bless.

By this mail I am forwarding to Deacon Anderson another application for membership, the result of the teaching of the blessed Little White Dove.

We also post a number of those sent to us by your Mission to many parts of Africa, and we trust blessing will follow where they go.

The soldiers are rejoicing in persecution since LEAVES OF HEALING came into their hands.

Some strangers have commenced coming to our meetings and they are very glad to receive LEAVES.

Another worker in South Africa writes:

We thank Zion Literature Mission for literature. LEAVES OF HEALING has been a great blessing to us, my wife and self. Through it we have been led nearer to God and have received much instruction.

Our desire is to know God and His Way of Healing better, not only for ourselves and children, but for these poor, dark-minded Zulus.

I have been preaching the Gospel, only in part, for eight years, to these dark people. Divine Healing was unknown to me, or I should say I did not understand it.

I am a Zulu linguist; but not until today have I been bold enough to confess Christ as the Healer of His people. God helping me, I will continue to do so, for I now see plainly that it is not a Full Gospel without it.

We are quite isolated from (white) Christian fellowship.

We pray for Zion and its workers.

Pray for us, that we may be blessed in our labors among these dark and superstitious people.

They all eat swine's flesh, more or less. We gave it up over twelve months ago through reading the Zion tract on swine's flesh. I am telling these people to give it up.

They all drink an intoxicating beverage and use snuff tobacco.

There is no good word in the Scripture for swine.

In the Old Testament God speaks of them and says:

Of their flesh ye shall not eat, and their carcasses ye shall not touch; they are unclean unto you.—Leviticus 11:8.

When Jesus desired to show the depths of degradation to which the prodigal had fallen, He spoke of his feeding swine. He classes swine with dogs as a type of unbelievers (Matthew 7:6). The Apostle Peter classes swine with dogs as a type of apostates (2 Peter 2:22).

Leaves of Healing Blessed in England.

The following letter is from a worker in England, who writes:

I have enclosed you —— for some of the literature which Zion Literature Mission so kindly sent me. Of course, we have given a lot of it away, but I thought the money for what we have sold might as well come back into the fund for distribution.

I am sure you will be pleased to hear that God has blessed LEAVES OF HEALING here.

We sent LEAVES to a young man, a member of the Methodist Church, who has been at home ill for several weeks. When he had read it he sent in a request for prayer and gave up his tobacco and beer and trusted God. He was healed and went straight back to his work. He is working today.

Zion Literature has caused quite a stir in the Methodist Church he is attending.

I find it quite true, as you said, that LEAVES OF HEALING stirs up the Devil wherever it goes.

We also sent some papers to a man in Wales, who was ill. He saw the truth and trusted God, and was able to walk to his own chapel on Sunday, which he had not done for weeks.

I do thank God for these works of His love to His own children who trust Him.

If you can send me some more literature, I should be very glad, as we expect in the coming year to become a recognized Gathering of the Friends of Zion.

Send me as many as you can of "Zion's Protest Against Swine's Flesh." I keep a grocer shop and have kept ham and bacon, but am turning it out of my shop altogether.

Several of us have been to London to hear the General Overseer, and we are strengthened and encouraged to Go Forward since hearing him.

"The Story of a Nickel."

LE SUEUR, MINNESOTA, November 29, 1900.

WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—"The Story of a Nickel" is a mover, for it moved our hearts to Go Forward and help in the good work in Zion.

We thank God for the beautiful old-time teaching. It brings us back to God in spirit, soul and body.

LEAVES OF HEALING is the only paper we care to read. It has been a blessing to us in Saving, Cleansing, Healing, and bringing us out of a dead Church into the Living Church of God.

May God prosper Zion everywhere.

Yours in Christ, J. HABEIN.

Leaves of Healing Blessed in New Brunswick.

A lady in New Brunswick, Canada, writes:

I appreciate the benefit of the Free Literature Fund. Thank God for the givers.

There are so many whom I long to see reading Zion Literature! Many copies I send away into the country, with instructions to return them or keep them going. They must bless.

One of our neighbors has been greatly blessed by LEAVES OF HEALING; also her father and mother, who live some miles distant.

We love Zion and believe in Dr. Dowie as a man inspired of God to forward His purposes.

We have some experience of God's goodness and power in healing our children and ourselves.

We cannot say too much in praise of LEAVES OF HEALING. Had it not been for that, we would have known comparatively little about Divine Healing.

Through Dr. Dowie's teaching we have been enabled to claim healing for our youngest boy, a dear little fellow of two years. When he was three months old he was healed of groinal hernia, and later of offensive discharge from the ears, sprained wrist and earache, swellings under the ear; also a very bad attack of bronchial pneumonia.

Tears of joy have run down my face many times as I have read the testimonies to healing in the Little White Dove, and I have praised God for His wonderful works to the children of men.

We have given a few out of the many letters which come to Zion, telling us of blessings received through LEAVES OF HEALING, and two of these are from persons who are not members of the Christian Catholic Church.

We believe that every one who will read LEAVES OF HEALING with a sincere desire for the truth will be helped to live better lives.

How many, desiring to break bad habits, have found in it the power which enabled them to break their bands asunder!

How many sick ones have through it found the faith which made them whole!

Then keep the Little White Dove flying with its Message of Salvation, Healing and Holy Living.

HAS GOD BLESSED YOU IN TITHING?

HAVE YOU realized a fulfilment of God's promise to those who "bring the Whole Tithe into the Storehouse"? If so, let others know how true the promise is. Write your testimony and send it to Rev. William Hamner Piper, Overseer-at-Large of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, 1201 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. Let your testimonies be brief and straight to the point.

FIFTY THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS FOR LEAVES OF HEALING IN 1901!

WHAT a glorious watchword!

That is the cry in Zion for the remaining weeks of the year, and of the century.

Why should not LEAVES OF HEALING enter upon the Twentieth Century with fifty thousand copies going forth every week to regular subscribers, carrying its wonderful Message?

No agency is more powerful in the extension of the Kingdom of God.

Thousands and tens of thousands of happy children of God are praising Him today for the blessings in Salvation, Healing and Cleansing which have come to them and to their homes through LEAVES OF HEALING.

If we wrote pages we could not begin to tell of the wonderful works of love which God has wrought through the Message which has gone out in these pages. Week after week scores of testimonies to blessing are published, yet but a very small part of them are ever printed.

Eternity alone can tell the story.

In order to secure fifty thousand subscribers, and thus to greatly extend God's Kingdom, Zion Publishing House makes the remarkable offer of ten weeks' subscription for the first ten weeks of the new year for twenty-five cents!

Think of it—three hundred and twenty pages of LEAVES OF HEALING for twenty-five cents!

Think what glorious things these three hundred and twenty pages will contain.

One of the first numbers will contain an account of the All-Night of Prayer in Central Zion Tabernacle.

An early number will contain an account of the homecoming of the General Overseer, God willing, on January 17, 1900.

Reports of the glorious meetings which will then be held will follow, and toward the end of the ten weeks, accounts of the Fifth Anniversary Conferences will appear.

Besides these there will be Editorial Notes from the General Overseer, Testimonies and all the other regular departmental articles, not least among which will be the Cartoons by Mr. Charles Champe, Zion's talented artist.

You can send all these to a friend whom you desire to interest in Zion; to some erring brother whom you desire to see saved; to some sick one who is trying in vain to find healing in man's way; to some poor hungry child of God who has not the means to subscribe, for twenty-five cents.

Two dollars and a half will send ten copies for ten weeks.

Twenty-five dollars will send LEAVES OF HEALING to one hundred people for ten weeks.

You cannot apply the means which God has given you in a better way for the extension of His Kingdom.

Give as God has prospered you, and He will bless you.

This rate is good in the United States, Canada, Alaska and Mexico. In foreign countries the rate is fifty cents.

These subscriptions will be accepted on the following conditions:

By REV. W. F. MATTHEWS, M. A., B. D., Principal Preparatory Department.

THE spirit which is sought to be fostered in Zion College work is, first of all, a spirit of entire dependence upon God alone. No one else knows all about us in all our needs. No one else is able to help us in every circumstance and condition in life. Only He can be depended upon always and in all emergencies. No human power is able always to help or willing always to attend to our needs.

We are to come to God with full persuasion of His ability and willingness to give us all we need.

He that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is the Rewarder of them that seek after Him.

We must come to Him, also, with the full assurance that He will do for us the things we need to have done. We must "assure our hearts before Him" (Greek persuade). We must "persuade" our hearts by living "in deed and in truth," and so come into the assurance that we are of the truth and can ask and receive (1 John 3:18-22).

We must have some witness in our own hearts that God is true and strong and willing to do everything for us. We must know and feel that all our help comes from God.

STRENGTHENED with this assurance of God's power and willingness to help, we must be strong in ourselves and have confidence that we may be able with such strength to resist the attacks of the enemy and come off victorious.

HERE IS where there may be danger of failing to ask enough. If Zion teaching is to mean anything to those who are in Zion, students as well as others, it must mean that there is some personal benefit, some help, to be gained for each individual. We believe that this teaching thus differs from other teaching in that it seeks to make real and practical what to others outside is but vague and theoretical. It is something to be applied in daily life. If it does not fit into the practical life, we may well question its correctness.

BUT DO WE always get all the help we might from this teaching we have so oft repeated: that Christ is always near us to help us in all parts of our lives, the spiritual, the mental and the physical? Are we not sometimes too ready to yield to weaknesses and discouragements which come over us?

The promise of renewal of strength is one of the most frequently repeated promises in the Bible.

When we are wearied and unable to accomplish the tasks set before us, and feel ourselves unfit to cope with the enemies who beset our pathway, what shall we do? Shall we give up the task and ask to be excused from doing it? Shall we lie down before our enemy and let him buffet us, or run away from him and submit to the shame of being pounded in the back all the time as we are running away? We would do better to ask for and expect that we shall receive new and special strength and help for such emergencies, so that we may do the pounding when the enemy turns to flee. And it is great fun to see the Devil run.

WITH THE NECESSITY on the part of so many of having to work to help pay their way, it is more difficult to insist on a high grade of scholarship for all students. But where it seems necessary to have an extra amount of strength, have we not a right to pray for that to be given? Have we not a right to expect that we shall get answers to such prayers and receive in greater measure the increase of power? "I can do all things in Him that strengtheneth me," is a condition of mind into which we ought to seek to come. Then our Lord will teach us what the "all things" are which we ought to undertake.

EXPERIENCES in Zion Students' Home especially have shown us that the more we ask, the more we get. We thank God that with so many together, although somewhat crowded, no serious sickness has come upon any of our number. God has kept the pestilence and the plague from our dwelling. He has heard and answered prayer for the sick, when little ailments have come upon any of our number.

THE SPIRIT of fear must not be allowed to rule in our hearts. If we are threatened with any disease or find that we have been careless or have in any way disregarded the laws of health, let us remember that God is able and willing just at such times to forgive us if we will repent. We cannot forgive ourselves. We must ask God to do that. And if we do not know how to repent, we must ask Him to teach us that, too.

Ofttimes we do not realize the enormity of sin, and so do not thoroughly repent of it so as to be forgiven.

If we allow a spirit of fear to control our minds, then the Devil has an easy chance to get hold of our bodies, and we become a prey to some disease or physical weakness he sends. But if we stand in Christ's strength and say to the powers of evil, "You cannot control me; I am in the care and keeping of a Higher Power and He will protect me," then we may be delivered from such attacks. We are able, because we think we are able. We become weak if we allow ourselves to mourn over our weakness.

WHEN GOD presents any duty to us to be done, He will always present to us some way to do it. If God says, "Thou shalt," we should say, "We can."

IF, THEN, we have come to Zion College to learn the teachings of Zion and to improve our minds by study and discipline, it is our part to make the best possible use of these opportunities and to use them well. The most of our students seem to be acting on this principle and to be using their privileges rightly. Many have already found out that they can do things which they at first thought they never could do.

LET US always pray that still greater power may be developed in all the educational work of Zion, as the field broadens and opportunities multiply, and experience teaches, and the blessing of God attends.

CHEERING WORDS FROM ZION'S GUESTS

NOTES FROM ZION HOME

THE regular Praise and Testimony Meeting held in Zion Home, Saturday, December 1, 1900, was conducted by Overseer Speicher.

After the usual opening exercises, the States represented were enumerated and found to be fifteen in number, as follows:

California, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, New Hampshire, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Dakota, Washington and Wisconsin.

The following foreign countries were represented:

Austria, Canada, China, England, Ireland and Japan.

The meeting was then thrown open for testimony.

T. H. KATTELL, Tipton, Iowa, said: "I thank God for many blessings received and that He has kept me since I have been in Zion. I also thank God for the privilege of being in Zion Seventy work and for the cheering words which we hear from the outside. I received a letter today from Ireland which tells of a young man who was healed of appendicitis, and of a lady who is very much interested in the work."

MRS. MARY KING, 1425 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I praise the Lord for what He has done for me in many ways since I have come into Zion. Just about two weeks ago I had a very severe cold and the Devil tried to take my life. Through the faithful prayers of an Elder and kind friends, I was restored. I have very much to thank God for."

MRS. SPRINKEL, 1425 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, said: "I think this is the nearest place to heaven of any place on earth. I think it is a good work. I think it is of God.

"I feel like saying a few words in regard to the ninety-first Psalm. About ten years ago the scarlet fever was raging all over the town and all sides of our home. I read the ninety-first Psalm as a preventive. My children never got the scarlet fever, and so I praise God."

MRS. ISABELLA S. CORKEY, Zion Home, said: "I praise God for a letter I just received, giving the names of four new members of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, in Ireland."

DEACONESS SARAH E. HILL, Zion Home, said: "I received a letter from a gentleman in Birmingham, England, who is a grocer. He said he intended to put all pork and everything which savored of swine's flesh out of his shop."

T. A. LINDSAY, Zion Home, said: "I am very thankful that I am in Zion. It is three years since LEAVES OF HEALING first came to me. I did not take to it very much at first, but after I got to reading it, I became very much interested in it.

"I have always had very good health; never been sick very much in my life, but have been troubled with constipation. I can say that I have never been so well as during the last few weeks since I have come to Zion. I know that in Zion Home there is a pure atmosphere, and I have been able to live nearer God than I have ever been able to do in my life before."

N. A. ROBINSON, Zion College, said: "About five years ago my little girl, eight years old, took sick. A small lump made its appearance at the side of her neck and it rapidly grew larger and became very painful, until it became the size of a walnut. We had two different experiences with doctors which proved failures, and I was disgusted with doctors and their remedies. So I sat helpless beside the suffering little girl. I did not know what to do. I read the fifth chapter of James. I decided to trust God for her healing, and God healed her at once.

"I thank God that since I have heard the teaching in Zion, I know that God is the Healer. If anything goes wrong, I go directly to God, and He hears and answers. He has kept me."

DEACON E. S. ANDERSON, Zion Home, said: "It is now over three years since I came into Zion and, as many of you know, I brought my wife to Zion more dead than alive.

"God has blessed and strengthened me through the teaching in Zion, and He has kept me."

"As to my wife, I would like to say that before she received her healing she had been confined to her bed for five months. A few months before her sickness, she was given aromatic sulphuric acid, which is one of the strongest acids, to stop a hemorrhage. She took that medicine about four weeks, and it simply paralyzed her stomach, and as a result she had catarrh of the stomach. That soon brought on nervous prostration and heart failure. She was a complete physical wreck, and in that condition I brought her to Zion Home. At the end of the week, she walked out of Zion Home with me. We went to the Tabernacle in a cab and were both baptized. She then walked two blocks and went home in the street car. She has gained gradually ever since. She now weighs fourteen pounds more than she has weighed in eight years, and we thank God for this blessing.

"I am indeed thankful that I am in Zion and that I am permitted to work for His chosen people in Zion."

MRS. FRANK DELL, Mansfield, Ohio, said: "I thank God for Zion. I thank God for the Elder who led me to see what Zion was. I thank God for healing, because I know that I was healed through God's power only."

HENRY ALLEN, Thawville, Illinois, said: "I thank God for Zion and LEAVES OF HEALING, which brought me to Zion. LEAVES OF HEALING was handed to me by a man who had been healed. As soon as I read it I said, 'That is just the way in which Jesus healed when He was here on earth, and it must be true today.' I search the Bible. I came to Zion and was healed of catarrh, rheumatism and other trouble.

"Thank God, He keeps me well. I have never been as well as I am now. I feel ten years younger. I thank God and praise Him every day for what He has done for me."

DEACONESS MARIE BRIEGER, Zion Home, said: "Two days ago I contracted a very severe cold. Whenever I have taken a cold before, it has stayed with me for some time, but this time God healed me immediately prayer was offered. I also injured my shin bone in making a sudden step on board the steamer. Deacon Stevenson prayed with me and immediately the pain left me, and not the slightest bruise could be seen."

GEORGE MARTINEAU, Zion Home, said: "I thank God for the many blessings I have received since I have come to Zion. I thank God for LEAVES OF HEALING. I have been sending it to my brother. Thank God for an answer to my prayer, as I have received a letter from him asking me to pray for him.

"I thank God for being permitted to do Zion Seventy work. I took LEAVES OF HEALING to the jail. The prisoners accepted it and seemed so glad to get it.

"It will be two years next spring since I came to Zion. I was brought up in the Roman Catholic Church, but I got so I did not believe in any Church. I came to Zion through a friend of mine. When I first came I had a plug of tobacco in my pocket, but the moment I entered the Home all desire for tobacco was taken away from me. I have been delivered from tobacco, whisky and gambling. I thank God that I am in Zion."

ELDER EMMA K. MASON, Zion Home, said: "I thank God for what my own eyes have witnessed today. A Mrs. Connor, who has been bed-ridden for several months, arose after being anointed, and walked back and forth from the parlor to the kitchen. We thank God for what He has done for her."

MRS. I. S. CORKEY, Zion Home, said: "I had the joy of witnessing that healing also, just after the Elder prayed."

MRS. J. H. SAYRS, Zion Home, said: "I praise God for many things which He has done for me. I could not tell all that He has healed me of. I was born with spinal disease and heart trouble. I had irregular heart trouble. My father died of the same trouble. I used to have very bad spells, but I have them no more.

"I had a surgical operation which nearly cost me my life. I was an invalid for six years, five years before the operation and one year before I came to Zion.

"I also thank God for a healthy baby girl. I praise Him for His great goodness to me."

The meeting was closed by the

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

The following testimonies given at the Praise and Testimony Meeting at Zion Home, Saturday, December 1, 1900, were omitted from the report of that meeting:

DEACONESS MARY B. SPEICHER, Zion Home, said: "I received great blessing when I was with Mrs. Creager. It gave me strength that I never had before. I felt as though I could go anywhere. I never had any fear after that. We got such a wonderful blessing that I felt I wanted to add my testimony to hers."

ROBERT S. BOADWAY, Zion College, said: "I thank God tonight that I am in Zion. I thank God that I was brought out of the Baptist Church two years ago. The Lord showed me what Zion was through LEAVES OF HEALING. I am now a student at Zion College and enjoy it very much.

"When I saw the Elders willing to die for the cause of Christ, I realized more and more what God was doing in Zion. I am more and more satisfied with it."

URIAH G. REA, Linsville, Pennsylvania, said: "I have received great blessings in Zion. I have been healed of many diseases. I used to belong to the Methodist Church, but I was not really converted until I came into Zion, because I never had the joy and peace which we have here."

Overseer Speicher—Never had the right kind of food?

Mr. Rea—"No, I never had the right teaching. When I was sick the Methodist minister came to see me, but he never asked me if he should pray for me. He never thought of that. I thank God that I was healed in Zion."

ERNEST MUDGETT, Zion College, said: "I feel very thankful that I am in Zion. I feel especially thankful tonight for answer to prayer for healing."

MISS LIZZIE DUNKE, Elmira, Ontario, said: "I cannot tell all that God has done for me since I came to Zion nearly six years ago. He has blessed and helped me most wonderfully and I thank Him for it."

DO YOU KNOW GOD'S WAY OF HEALING?

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Let it be supposed that the following words are a conversation between the reader [A] an the writer [B].

A. What does this question mean? Do you really suppose that God has some one especial way of healing in these days of which men may know and avail themselves?

B. That is exactly my meaning, and I wish very much that you should know God's Way of Healing, as I have done for many years.

A. What is the way, in your opinion?

B. You should rather ask, WHO is God's Way? for the Way is a Person, not a thing. I will answer your question in His own words, "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life: no one cometh unto the Father, but by Me." These words were spoken by our Lord Jesus Christ, the Eternal Son of God, who is both our Saviour and our Healer. (John 14:6.)

A. But I always thought that these words only referred to Him as the Way of Salvation. How can you be sure that they refer to Him as the Way of Healing also?

B. Because He cannot change. He is "the same yesterday and today, yea and forever." (Hebrews 13:8.) He said that He came to this earth not only to save us but to heal us (Luke 4:18), and He did this when in the flesh on earth. Being unchanged, He must be able and willing and desirous to heal now.

A. But is there not this difference, namely, that He is not with us now?

B. No; for He said, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world"; and so He is with us now, in Spirit, just as much as when He was here in the flesh.

A. But did He not work these miracles of healing when on earth merely to prove that He was the Son of God?

B. No; there was still a greater purpose than that. He healed the sick who trusted in Him in order to show us that He came to die not only for our sins, but for our sicknesses, and to deliver us from both.

A. Then, if that is so, the atonement which He made on the Cross must have been for our sicknesses as well as our sins. Can you prove that is the fact from the Scriptures?

B. Yes, I can, and the passages are very numerous. I need quote two only. In Isaiah 53:4, 5, it is written of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed." Then in the Gospel according to Matthew, this passage is quoted and directly applied to the work of bodily healing, in chapter 8, 17th verse, "That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases."

A. But do you not think that sickness is often God's will, and sent for our good, and therefore God may not wish us to be healed?

B. No, that cannot possibly be; for diseases of every kind are the Devil's work, and his work can never be God's will, since Christ came for the very purpose of destroying "the works of the Devil." (1 John 3:8.)

A. Do you mean to say that all disease is the work of Satan?

B. Yes, for if there had been no sin (which came through Satan) there never would have been any disease, and Jesus never in one single instance told any person that sickness was God's work or will, but the very contrary.

A. Can you prove from Scripture that all forms of sickness and infirmity are the Devil's work?

B. Yes, that can be done very easily. You will see in Matthew 4:23 and 9:35 that when Jesus was here in the flesh, He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people." Then if you will refer to Acts 10:38 you will see that the Apostle Peter declares that He [Jesus] "went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil." Notice that all whom He healed, not some, were suffering from Satan's evil power.

A. But does disease never come from God?

B. No, it cannot come from God, for He is pure, and disease is unclean; and it cannot come out of Heaven, for there is no disease there.

A. That is very different from the teachings which I have received all my life from ministers and in the churches. Do you really think that you are right, and that they are all wrong in this matter?

B. It is not a question as between myself and them. The only question is, What does God's Word say? God has said in all the ages to His Church, "I am the Lord that healeth thee" (Exodus 15:26), and therefore it would be wicked to say that He is the defiler of His people. All true Christians must believe the Bible, and it is impossible to believe that good and evil, sickness and health, sin and holiness could have a common origin in God. If the Bible really taught that, it would be impossible to believe our Lord Jesus Christ when He says, "A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit." (Matthew 7:18.)

A. But even if I agree with all you say, is it not true that the Gifts of Healing were removed from the Church, and are not in it now?

B. No, the "Gifts of Healing" were never withdrawn, and can never be withdrawn, from the true Church of God: for it is written, "The gifts and the calling of God are without repentance." (Romans 11:29.) There are nine gifts of God to the Church (enumerated in 1 Corinthians, 12:8 to 11), and all these are in the Holy Spirit. Therefore, so long as the Holy Spirit is in the Church, all the gifts must be there also. If they are not exercised, that does not prove that they do not exist, but that the faith to exercise them is lacking in God's servants. The gifts are all perfectly preserved; for the Holy Spirit, not the Church, keeps them safely.

A. What should a Christian then do when overtaken with sickness?

B. A Christian should obey God's command, and at once turn to Him for forgiveness of the sin which may have caused the sickness, and for immediate healing. Healing is obtained from God in one of four ways, namely: First, by the direct prayer of faith, without any aid from the officers of the Church, praying as the Centurion did in Matthew 8:5 to 12; second, by two faithful disciples praying in perfect agreement, in accordance with the Lord's promise in Matthew 18:19; third, by the anointing of the elders and the prayer of faith, according to the instructions in James 5:14 and 15; and fourth, by the laying on of the hands of them who believe, and whom God calls to that ministry, as the Lord commands in Mark 16:18, and in other places.

A. But are people healed in this way in these days?

B. Yes, in thousands of cases. I have myself laid hands upon many hundreds of thousands of persons, and I have seen the Lord's Power manifested in the healing of great numbers, many of whom are living witnesses in many countries, who have testified publicly before thousands, and who are prepared to testify at any time. This ministry is being exercised by devoted Christians in many parts of America, Europe, Australasia and elsewhere.

A. Is it not the same as Christian Science, Mind Healing, etc.?

B. No. Divine Healing is diametrically opposed to these diabolical counterfeits, which are utterly anti-Christian. These impostures are only seductive forms of Spiritualism. Trance Evangelism is also a more recent form of this delusion, and it deceives many.

A. But how shall I obtain the necessary faith to receive healing, which faith I am at present conscious I do not possess?

B. It is written, "Belief cometh of hearing, and hearing by the Word of Christ." (Romans 10:17.) Our Missions are held for the express purpose of teaching fully the Word of God on this matter, and I very heartily invite you to attend the meetings which are announced for Zion Tabernacle. All are welcome and there are no charges of any kind made, for all God's gifts are free gifts. Salvation is the first of these, without which you cannot be healed through faith in Jesus. All the costs of this work are covered by the free-will offerings of the people who attend these meetings, and others whom the Lord leads to help; but the poorest who have nothing to give are as heartily welcome as the richest.

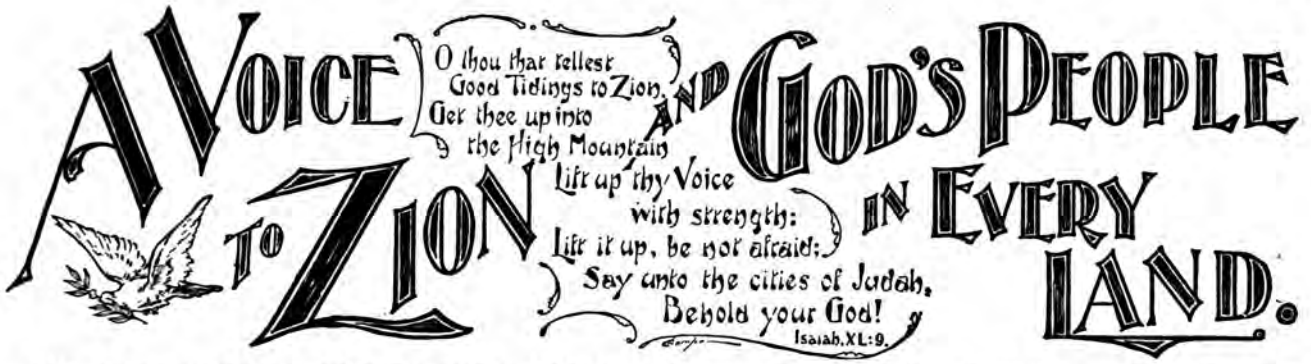
A. Do you see the sick and lay hands upon them in this Mission?

B. Yes; after we feel satisfied that they are fully resting in the Lord alone for the healing, we see privately, so far as time permits, those who attend; but under no circumstances do we claim the power to heal any; for "power belongeth unto God."

A. Have you any writings upon this subject which can be purchased?

B. Yes; these can be obtained at the office of Zion Publishing House, 1207 Michigan Avenue, or at Zion Tabernacle, 1621-1633 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill. But the best book on Divine Healing is the Bible itself, studied prayerfully and earnestly.

We extend to you a hearty invitation to attend the meetings, which are free to all. Our prayer is that you may be led to find in Jesus Christ our Lord and God, your present Saviour from sin, your Healer from sickness, your Cleanser from all evil, your Keeper in the way to Heaven, your Friend, and your All for Time and Eternity. We pray that these words may help many who read, and that our little conversation may bear fruit in leading many readers to look to Jesus only.



"The Healing of Christ's seamless dress
Is by all beds of pain;
We touch Him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again."

THE EVERLASTING GOSPEL DECLARED.

Report of Meeting held in Divine Healing Home No. 1, October 10, 1894. Morning Talk: "God Not the Author of Disease."

Report of Meeting held in Zion Tabernacle No. 1, Friday Afternoon, October 19, 1894. Address: "The Syrophœnician Woman."

THE great mission of the General Overseer is to declare the Covenants of God. His Message is one which God has sent to Zion, bidding her to fulfil her part of the Covenants that God may again fulfil His part.

Many of these Covenants had not been kept by the Church, because of unbelief.

They were almost lost sight of.

But the Covenants of God are everlasting and unchanging.

Whosoever fulfils his part of God's Covenants with His people, will receive all the blessings which they promise.

One of the most important of the Covenants of God, one of greatest blessing, is that which God gives under His Covenant-Name, Jehovah-Rophi, "I am the Lord thy Healer."

In the declaration of this Covenant, God's Messenger to Zion has, by His Spirit, brought to the world untold blessings, not only in Healing, but in the other two portions of an undivided Gospel: Salvation and Holy Living.

During the early years of his ministry, he devoted a great deal of time to teaching the truth of the Word of God concerning this Covenant.

That teaching is most important; for a Gospel which does not include Divine Healing is effete, incomplete and unsatisfying.

Hence Zion may well thank God that His Messenger taught Divine Healing with such great love, such undiscouraged patience, such untiring zeal, such determined persistence, such Divinely-inspired wisdom; that He defended the teaching with such fearless courage, such unyielding firmness; that He was used of God in the ministry of prayer and laying on of hands with such glorious results.

Zion owes all her present greatness and power, under God, to the unflinching faithfulness of her General Overseer during the early days of the fight. Hence it is that the words spoken in teaching at that time are very dear to Zion, and go forth to all the world with a wondrous force.

The two talks which we publish this week have been folded away in manuscript for over six years. But as the "mummy wheat" which was hidden away in mummy casings for thousands of years, when it was planted, sprang up and bore fruit, so, by the Grace of God, these words, sown broadcast into the hearts of men everywhere by the Little White Dove, will spring up and bear a most blessed harvest.

The General Overseer has not revised these reports, but we pray that God, by His Spirit, may rightfully interpret every word to the hearts of the readers.

GOD NOT THE AUTHOR OF DISEASE.

Divine Healing Home No. 1, October 10, 1894.

I have been calling your attention to the story of the healing of the leper as told in the eighth chapter of Matthew. The especial point which we were studying was the "I Will" of Jesus.

I dealt principally, in my first address, upon that point, with the fact that Satan must at all times and under all circumstances bear the responsibility for every vestige of disease and corruption which there is in this world, inasmuch as without sin there would not have been any disease.

God's Everlasting Covenant of Healing Conditioned Upon Obedience.

This fact is recognized always in the Word of God. Under the Ancient Dispensation, God declared to His people that if they sinned and sowed to the flesh they would reap corruption.

He said to them that if they did that which was right and sowed as His Spirit directed, they would reap blessing, wealth; that their cattle would increase, their country would be prosperous spiritually, physically and nationally. He would deliver them from the power of the enemy in spirit, soul and body. They did not rise to this privilege. He knew that if they understood it they would believe it, but they were surrounded by heathen nations whose practices were grossly immoral. They were surrounded by the fascinations of music and voluptuous living, and all kinds of filthy thinking dressed in attractive and seductive form. They fell, and fell constantly But God's revelation was clear: "I am the Lord that heal eth thee"; "I am the Lord, I change not." Whenever they repented of sin and made things right, they were forgiven and healed.

But the Ancient Dispensation was dim in comparison with the New, not only in this, but in all other things.

I do not go back to the Old Testament for my teaching in connection with Divine Healing. I do not care much what anybody said in the Old Testament about it as the first thing. I do not believe that there is any conflict between the Old and New Testaments concerning this or any other matter, rightly understood.

There is a Great Deal of Mistranslation in the Old Testament.

In that conclusion, I am supported by scholars.

For instance, I could not believe for one single moment that the Lord ever said, "I the Lord create evil." It would be manifestly unjust for Him to punish poor, afflicted, weak people who fall into that which He Himself created. "I the Lord permit evil," would be the utmost stretch.

I do not believe that the Lord said, "Shall evil befall a city, and the Lord hath not done it?"

If you make God the author of every evil, then God would be the Devil. If God is the author of every evil done in the city, then God is the author of the liquor traffic and the author of every crime.

Permissive Verbs Translated as Causative in the Old Testament.

That translation is a manifest blunder. There are a great many similar blunders. The Old Testament has been extremely difficult to translate in this matter, because we are dealing with a long-dead language in which there is no other literature of that period. Thus it happens that the translators give a causative form to verbs which are manifestly permissive.

Dr. Young has been studying that matter and comes to the same conclusion.

I took that position fifteen years ago in Australia.

It is quite evident that God simply permitted the people to reap the consequences of what they sowed. He did not create evil. On the contrary, He had created that which was good, and sin corrupted it. The consequences were simply the consequences of transgression from which He was willing to heal His people.

But it is in the New Testament that we get the clearest meaning. Remember we are ministers of the New Testament, and we are bound by everything which God has said there.

I will interpret the Old by the New, but not the New by the Old. The canon of interpretation is that you are to interpret the mind of God in the Old Testament by the clear light which is given in the New; not the New by the dimness of the past.

I do not think that Isaiah knew a tithe about Divine Healing compared to what we know today. I do not think that David knew a tithe about Divine Healing compared to what we know today. I do not believe that any of the prophets knew a tithe about Divine Healing compared to what we do today.

The healings recorded in the Old Testament, directly miraculous in their character, could almost be counted upon the fingers of your hands. Like all other Divine revelations, Divine Healing was given, but not practiced and not lived up to. Neither are Divine revelations lived up to today.

Men and the Church Have Not Always Lived Up to God's Word.

God has given a thousand things in His Word which men do not live up to. They call themselves Christians and do what they please. His Church has always had to be corrected because it did not live up to the Word.

In this matter of Divine Healing, we need to get clear up to the Word. I pointed out, therefore, that the revelation of God was absolute on that point; that all disease was the work of the Devil, and it was in consequence of Satan's appearance on this earth that sin had any existence. From Father Satan and Mother Sin there has come forth a progeny of miseries and abominations and diseases and corruptions whose name is legion, for indeed they are many.

The famine and pestilence which follow war are direct consequences of sin. Every evil, in whatever form, is the work of the Devil, either directly or remotely.

Jesus Himself always affirmed that in destroying disease He was destroying the works of the Devil; that in destroying disease He was destroying sin; that in destroying anything evil He was doing the work of the Father, the Giver of every good and perfect gift.

I desire to bring you close down to the argument as to the fact that God is not and cannot be the author of evil; therefore the author of disease.

Disease is evil. No one ever dares to affirm absolutely that it is good. The very people who say that they do, are people who in part deny their own assertions.

Ignorance and prejudice and the opinions which prevail among ecclesiastical superiors in all the Churches have a great deal more to do with the opinions of men than the Word of God.

The Protestant Infallibility.

While Protestants are ready to declare against the Pope and the claims that he, or the Church of Rome, makes of a personal infallibility, we find that Protestants are making a new infallibility. Their confessions of faith, the opinions and traditions of the elders, are making void the Word of God. Men are afraid to let themselves go absolutely out upon the Word of God, because they know that such a course will bring them in direct collision with ecclesiastical superiors, with the prevailing sentiment in the denomination, and directly affect their positions, their emoluments and their power as ministers of that denomination.

Some things must be kept well in mind in connection with this teaching. You are in conflict and in absolute and irreconcilable conflict with the traditional teaching of the Church of today.

Sickness Not a Means of Drawing God's Children Closer to Him.

On what ground is this alleged statement that disease is God's will maintained? Very largely on the ground that God, in His Infinite Wisdom, sees that the only way to correct His people's transgressions is by laying His hands upon them and chastening them with sickness; that sickness is a remedial and Divinely-imparted power to bring the sinner to God.

That is an abominable lie, root and branch, every stick of it.

"Oh, but it is based on Scripture," says some one.

Where?

"Whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom He receiveth."

What on earth has that to do with sickness? Some say that the chastening there mentioned covers sickness. Such an interpretation is, in the first place, wholly opposed to the meaning of the word chasten. The whole argument rests upon the stupid interpretation of the word chasten, which is translated from a Greek word paideuo (παιδεύω), from the word pais (παῖς), a child. The word means simply instruction, the training of a child, the education of a child, the bringing up of children, the feeding of children, their needful correction. It has in it, also, the thought of nourishment and cleansing.

Children are Not Trained by Making Them Sick.

Does any one train children by putting out their eyes? Is it an essential part of the education of children that you shall instruct the principal of the school to take care that they shall get a regular and proper dose of sickness; that they shall be placed in positions so that they shall have a periodical headache or fever or the grip; that they shall be so situated that they shall get catarrh or a little rheumatism, for "whom the Lord loveth He maketh sick"?

It is a poor assumption, not justified by the Word anywhere, for the word used simply means, "Whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth, He educates, clothes, instructs, deprives of everything wrong, and, if they sin, corrects properly."

What has that to do with sickness unless you can prove that God finds it essential to do that? You know it hurts your health to get sickness. Does it advance your spiritual life? Does is sweeten your nature? Does it make your life happier? Does it impart fresh strength and courage? Does it impart anything essential to proper training? Does it not separate husband from wife? Does it not separate children from home? Does it not becloud the brain? Does it not impede progress? Is there any good thing it does?

The lie which says it is a good thing is an abominable lie.

Some hymns say it is an excellent thing for God to punish people with sickness. Some hymns written by excellent people make God the imparter of filthy diseases.

The Sum of the Whole Matter: "Let It Rather be Healed."

That word chasten has nothing to do with disease. On the contrary, the same passage says further on:

Lift up the hands that hang down, and the palsied knees; and make straight paths for your feet, that that which is lame be not turned out of the way, but rather be healed.

There you have the distinct sum of the whole matter, "Let it rather be healed." Chastisement, of course, will come. If you are a Christian and sin, do you think the Holy Spirit will not protest? If we sin, will not our own hearts be sore? Will God make us sick by His own Divine hand? No. If we are sick, it will be because of our own sin.

If you go away and smoke tobacco, you will get a tobacco heart. You deserve it, too. If you go away and drink whisky, of course you will get all the consequences of whisky, a diseased body. You either turn into blubber or become emaciated into a skeleton. God is in no sense the author of that. We simply reap what we sow. That is the law of sin and death; that is the law of the Devil. The Law of the Spirit of Life sets us free from the law of sin and death.

God's Service is a Reasonable Service.

As a reasonable service, He invites us to present our bodies to Him.

There is nothing more reasonable than that I should take my body when out of order to God. Suppose my watch were out of order. The man to put that watch right is the man who made it, if I can find him. I do not take it to a butcher.

If God made my body, to whom shall I take it? Has God said that I am to take it to a druggist or a chemist or a doctor? If He has, I will do it. But He has not. Right through this Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, there is not a word which says, "If any among you is sick, let him call for a doctor."

I think I know the Bible. If any of you know it a little better than I do, and know where to find that passage, let him tell me and I will find it. I should be very happy to be informed.

The only things I read about doctors are: "Ye are all physicians of no value," "In vain shalt thou use many medicines," "She had suffered many things of many physicians, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse."

There is one exception, where Christ says: "They that are whole have no need of a physician, but they that are sick," and in that passage He is blaming them for turning aside to other physicians and not coming to Him.

There is one Saviour, one Healer, one Keeper.

God has only one Way of Healing, not two ways. The allegation that medicine and doctors are of God is an abominable lie. They are of the Devil. If medical science, so-called, were of God, we should have some certainty about it. Where is the certainty about it?

One man says, "I am an allopath. I drive out one poison by putting in another." Another man says, "I am a homeopath. I drive out a thing by putting in the same thing." These two systems are absolutely and irreconcilably opposed to each other. You cannot harmonize them. They are upon different principles.

There are not only different principles in medicine, of which there are many schools, but every practitioner is a law unto himself. If God had given us to doctors, He would have given us a clear revelation and made it a science.

I was educated in a University where many doctors are trained. I have heard from the lips of professors the lamentation that medicine and surgery were not science, but were purely empirical and experimental; ever in the dark and constantly blundering. God never left us to any such thing as that. That is not God's Way.

The World's Great, Broad Road to Perdition.

God shuts us right up, and I am glad He does, to a straight and narrow path. I do not wander along broad avenues when I desire to go quickly to a place. I like to get on a clear, plain path. I would not wish to wander along an avenue 500 miles wide.

The world's road is about as wide as the world itself. That means simply that the world has no road save a great, broad road to perdition.

I am so glad that God gives us a narrow road. To reach the Red Sea from the Mediterranean, the best way is to go through the Suez Canal. If I am a navigator, I am very glad to go along the narrow way through the Suez Canal. If I do not go through the Suez Canal, I must go away out by the broad way of the Straits of Gibraltar and around the Cape of Good Hope and into the Red Sea by sailing 10,000 miles around.

There is Only One Way to Salvation, Healing, Holiness and Heaven.

Let us be very thankful to God if He gives us a narrow path. In this matter things narrow down. I am glad they do. There is one Healer, and one alone. Physicians are of no value and are opposed to Divine revelation.

I take that ground. I do not take any middle ground. There is one Saviour and no other. Any man who thinks he can get to heaven by means of Methodism or Congregationalism, or any other denomination, will not get there. Any man who thinks he can get to heaven by hanging to the Pope's coat tail, will not get there.

There is only one Way. Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life." Just as there is one Saviour, there is one Healer, and one alone.

God has given us no revelation that we shall employ vegetable or mineral poisons. The assumption that God provided them that we might take them is without foundation. You might just as well say that God provided a skunk that we might eat it.

Everything which can be swallowed was not intended for the human stomach.

I have asked hundreds of congregations how many have taken doctors' medicines. Nearly all persons present have said that they have taken them. Then I have asked how many have been healed by them, and not one hand has gone up.

It is wicked for us to place any one in the place of the Healer but God Himself. We are God's children. Is not God equal to the task of healing us?

What kind of a conception have we of God? He that made this girl's ear in the first place, to hear, cannot He make her hear again after the ear has been damaged by disease?

He that made these lungs, the Lord God Almighty, is He not able to put His hand upon the breast and kill a few miserable little tubercles? He is not very powerful if He cannot.

People talk about the healing of disease as if it were such a prodigiously big thing for God Almighty to do. It seems to me a prodigiously little thing. An Eternal and All-loving Father of Infinite power; a Saviour still with us in Spirit and in Power, who said He came to save and to heal, and we talk about it being a prodigious undertaking for God Almighty to heal us! That simply shows the prodigious smallness of your faith and your conception of God.

Jesus Christ Says "I Will" to the Man Who Fulfils Conditions.

There is nothing more reasonable than that we should trust God for the healing. It is His will. Christ said "I will" nineteen centuries ago, and He says "I will" today. That "I will," however, is said to the man at His feet who has put everything else behind him, who has owned Him as his Lord and as God, and worshiped Him, to whom there is no other Healer on the wide earth.

When that man believes the "I will," he comes closer to the Lord, and one touch cleanses the leper.

Get right with God. You get your conception of God purified. The great trouble with people is that there are some things which they do not like to do because doing them might hurt their business, lose them friends or upset their prejudices.

I am very glad to say that there is a brother in this room who is in business in a certain place who came to me the other morning and said, "I desire to do right with God. I have a stock of tobacco, what am I to do with it? Cannot I sell it?"

"Burn it," I said, "you cannot sell it any more. You cannot sell to the boys of your town that infamous tobacco which is destroying them spirit, soul and body. You cannot sell those dirty cigarettes with their filthy pictures. You cannot sell that tobacco which causes cancer and every kind of misery and be a Christian. You may call yourself a Christian, but you are not a Christian. A Christian does right. A Christian does not love to sell the Devil's muck and dirt."

"I will lose too much money."

"Lose all your money, rather than lose your God. Burn the whole dirt and muck up. Do not sell it to somebody else to sell it. Stand the loss. It has done a great deal of mischief. Destroy it."

Do right. That is the great thing. Are you prepared to do it?

The trouble does not lie in not seeing the truth; the trouble lies in obeying. God speaks. I believe God is speaking in these latter times and this call to Repentance is ringing out over the world. I believe that God cannot restore the former things until there is Repentance.

THE SYROPHŒNICIAN WOMAN.

Zion Tabernacle No. 1, Friday Afternoon, October 19, 1894.

The meeting was opened by singing Hymn Number 141.

Dr. Dowie then read from the inspired Word of God in the fifteenth chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew, from the twenty-first to the thirty-ninth verses.

He then offered the following

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight and be profitable unto this people, and unto all to whom these words shall come, in this and every land, in this and all the coming time, till Jesus come, for His sake. Amen.

TEXT.

O woman, great is thy faith: be it done unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was healed from that hour.

I desire to speak to you a little, this afternoon, concerning that very remarkable story which we read to you, and ask God to make the teaching of His Word very effectual. Jesus came, it is written in the opening of the story, into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon. That was a remarkable thing. Christ never passed beyond the boundaries of a very limited land. He did not minister outside of the Holy Land. We some times marvel that He did this, but there was Divine wisdom in this as in all other things which He did. He did not mean us to confine the Gospel to narrow limits; for He said:

Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you: and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world.

We Must Learn Our Lessons From God in Extremely Narrow Limits.

It is a good thing that you should learn a lesson within comparatively narrow limits. God showed that to me very early in this ministry. It may be a surprise for some of you to know that more than six years passed from the beginning of this ministry until the time when I first preached publicly. I had seen large numbers of people blessed, but I confined my labors strictly to my own home. I received the sick there for several years.

Then, when I extended my work beyond that, I confined it to my own church and would not preach on the subject anywhere else.

Then I extended my work to my own city. It was not until seven years after the Lord first used me in this ministry that I held my first mission in any other place than in my own city.

Then I continued this ministry for five more years, confining myself to Australia, with the exception of six months spent in the lovely islands of New Zealand.

Then, obeying the call of God, I went forth to preach Divine Healing throughout the world. I am on that mission now.

The Wisdom of Making Thorough Preparation for Work.

There is a great deal of wisdom in the Bible. God's Messengers knew how to hold their tongues and to be silent, and to take plenty of time to get the chaff away and to gather the wheat. They waited to learn what they ought to say and ought not to say. They waited until they knew how to answer objections and difficulties and how to establish things in connection with well-nigh lost teaching.

I do not think I have spent a single hour too long in the long years of preparation since 1876 until this moment. I find myself a scholar still, learning still. I sometimes think, like Isaac Newton, that I am only gathering, after all, a few pebbles by the shore, while the great Ocean of Truth lies unexplored before me. But the pebbles I have gathered are very beautiful, and have been very precious to myself and to others.

I always think, with great delight, of how the Lord Himself, in order to train these disciples, upon whom the whole weight of His Church was to come, just ministered within an easy range from their homes in a language which they well understood and amongst people with whom they were comparatively familiar. He established His teaching and His ministry in that language and in that country which God had said would be the center of all blessing to all lands.

God's Blessings Only Through Israel.

God still blesses the world only through Israel. God confines His workings among the nations to His Israel still. You will notice that the nations which are not Israelitish are in darkness.

I believe the Anglo-Saxon race to be as Israelitish as the Jews. You Saxons are Israelites, Isaac's sons. You Danes are Dan's sons, who escaped to sea in ships, as the Book tells us. Your ancestors, no doubt, landed at the Danube and went through Europe, calling every place where they stopped by the name of their father, Dan, until they got to Denmark, Dan's mark. Then they crossed to England and Scotland and Ireland, and made their mark there. We have plenty of Danes in those countries.

You see a remarkable thing. Being Christ's we are Abraham's seed, and that is according to the promise.

We are Israelites. I know it. If I could not prove it any other way, I have the feeling in my very flesh and blood and bones that I belong to the Israelitish race. My own sympathy is with all the Covenants and promises of God which are made in Christ Jesus to the glory of God the Father. If I was not, and if you were not, by inheritance, Israelites, the moment we became Christians we were engrafted into Israel, and we are Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise. That fact will have a great deal of bearing on my talk this afternoon, if you will only think of it. The worst trouble with you people who eat so much pork is that you do not think. Never expect anybody who eats pork to think much.

I always think, when I pass a butcher's shop, "The Lord pity the man who sells pig, and the Lord pity the people who eat it."

When the Lord Jesus Christ thought that the proper place for devils was a pig, I am sure He never meant you to put the pig in your stomach. I hope you will think and get rid of your swine's flesh business.

Do you wish to get tuberculosis? Eat swine's flesh.

Do you wish to get scrofula? Eat swine's flesh.

I do not believe that any man who eats it ever gets much blessing from God.

Great Faith Shown Outside of Israel.

Our Lord comes into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. This story is narrated to show us the great love of Christ and also how, outside of Israel, great faith may be shown by those who for the first time turn to God.

A woman came out of the Canaanitish coast and began crying after Jesus. She had heard of that mighty prophet of Nazareth, but now she saw Him and began to cry after Him, and to make a very eloquent prayer. But the prayer was not worth anything.

She cried out, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, Thou Son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with the Devil."

The Lord looked at her; heard her cry; turned upon His heel and answered her not a single word.

There are Prayers Which God Cannot Answer.

Many of you here prayed with the most intense earnestness, and God did not answer. Earnestness is not enough. It is no test of faithfulness. People can be intensely earnest in praying for healing which they intensely desire and not be faithful at all.

This woman was intensely earnest and, to all appearances, she made a very beautiful prayer. Yet to leave her as He did was the kindest thing which Jesus could have done.

The kindest thing that God can do for you is not to answer some of your prayers. Sometimes you say, "O God, bless my daughter and bless the doctor and bless his medicine to her." God has never promised to bless the doctor and God has never promised to bless the medicine. He does not answer that prayer. You are asking God to do something He never promised to do.

God said, "I am the Lord that healeth thee," and you say, "O Lord, heal me through the doctor." God did not promise to heal you through the doctor. He promised to heal you through His own Spirit's Power.

You ask God to give you the children's bread when you do not belong to God. You belong to the Devil. You have never given God your heart. You ask for some blessing which belongs to His children, and only to His children. What right have you to ask it? If you will give your heart to Him and become His child, then you have a right to ask.

This woman's prayer was not answered.

Attracted by His great kindness and love, she believed Him a great, good man. She was very much interested in all the mighty things she had heard that He had done, and so she prayed most earnestly.

He answered her not a word, but went on.

The disciples got tired of it. The disciples hasten to get tired. What a blessing it is that God is not so weary as the disciples are! The disciples thought the Lord never meant to answer her; never meant to take any notice of her. They said, "Go away. Do you not see that the Lord does not want to answer you? Go away, you vile woman."

That did not stop her. She kept on praying. I admire that woman for that. Even if you pray wrongly,

Keep on Praying.

Keep on until you have learned how to pray rightly. Never stop praying.

That woman said, "He is a mighty Man of God, and I intend to keep on praying." She was a heathen and in the habit of praying often. Roman Catholics and heathen know how to pray often.

That woman was a heathen and expected to be answered for much speaking.

What a good thing it was that she did not take the disciples' advice. The disciples were not always right. God's people can make big mistakes sometimes.

When they could not dissuade her, they turned to the Lord Jesus and said, "Send her away; for she crieth after us." Then the Lord stopped. He looked at her. She stopped, too. She thought, "Now I am going to get an answer."

She looked up into His face and got an answer, but what kind of an answer was it? I suppose most of the disciples thought she was going to be sent away. The Lord gathered His blessed robes about Him and said, "I was not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Then He went right on.

Was that not enough to knock all faith out of her? Was that not enough to take away all hope? How should she get over that? She could not tell. Perhaps she had heard that He said, "I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Myself." Perhaps she had heard Him say, "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

She was very weary and very heavy laden. Her dear daughter was grievously tormented by the Devil. So, although the Lord kept on His way, she kept on after Him. She did not give up. She still continued to cry after Him.

The Importance of Worshiping Jesus.

This time, however, she came and did something which she had not done before. I call your attention to that. "But she came and worshiped Him." That is the point of blessing. Do you worship Christ as God? If you do not, you belong to the Devil.

"O," says some one, "I do not worship Christ as God, but I believe there is one God. I am a Unitarian." Then, you are a Unitarian Devil."

I go by the Bible.

There were people in James the Apostle's day who said they believed in one God and would not recognize Jesus as God. James said, "Thou doest well: the devils also believe, and shudder." The devils believe in one God and the Unitarians agree with them.

You Unitarians who reject the Divinity of Christ are the Devil's most efficient servants. Spiritualism, Theosophy, all kinds of false forms of religion, find their home and their birthplace in your churches.

A Unitarian is no more a Christian than is an unconverted Fijian cannibal.

A Jew who denies the Divinity of Christ is no more a Christian than a Mohammedan who denies Christ's supremacy and puts Mahomet above Jesus. You may call yourself a Unitarian, but do not add the word Christian. There is no such thing as a Unitarian Christian.

That woman had been up to this time a Unitarian or a monotheist. She may have believed in God. But now she comes and worships Christ, bows before Him and recognizes Him as her Lord and her God.

She alters her prayer. The first time she prayed she had a long prayer. Now she worships Him and gets to know Him, and prays about the shortest and most effective prayer on record; a totally different prayer from the first one.

The Folly and Uselessness of Long Prayers.

When she came to worship, she got down to business.

God help you to get to the end of your long prayers. Get to the end of saying prayers and begin to pray. How many prayers you have said which have never gotten any higher than the roof! You desired to pray and you did not know how.

This woman said at Jesus' feet, these words: "Lord, help me." That was all she said. But the Lord answered her. O what an answer! She was at His feet now. She was worshiping Him. He looked at her this time and gathered His sacred robes about Him; again you can see the intensity of His face as He said, "It is not meet to take the children's bread and cast it to the dogs." He walked on again.

How long would you have prayed after that? Supposing the Lord spoke in these words to you nicely-dressed ladies: would not the Devil in you be stirred up? Would not you say, "I thought You were a good man, even that You were my God; I worshiped You, and now I am at Your feet, and You walk away like that and tell me I am a dog. I am not a dog, I am an American lady!"

Thieves, Robbers and Liars to be Found Everywhere.

A brother minister came one day into this Tabernacle and heard me talk. He said to me afterwards, "I have preached a long time, Doctor, but I never saw a minister call his congregation thieves and liars and robbers as you have done, and see them stand up and ask God to forgive them in hundreds."

I said, "They do so because they know it is true. How do you preach?"

"O, when I preach," he replied, "I say that there are such persons as thieves and robbers and liars, but I am careful to say they do not exist in this congregation."

I said, "You are a thorough-paced hypocrite. You know they are there, I am quite sure. If you throw a stone among 300 people you are almost sure to hit a thief or a liar."

Many women have robbed their husband's pocketbooks and said to them, "Why do you not take care of your money?"

Many husbands have said to their wives, "You will excuse me tonight, I have to go down town on an important business engagement," and then have gone down to gamble or perhaps do worse.

You hit thieves and liars in every congregation. I will prove it to you. Let the men or women in this congregation who never told a lie of any kind in their lives, hold up their hands. (No hands were raised.)

You have all been liars.

Every one in this congregation who never stole anything in their lives, not even sugar out of their mother's sugar bowl, who never stole a pin, put up your hands. There is not a hand raised. You are all thieves. That is pretty hard, is it not?

I could prove more serious things than that. O how ready people are to get offended. I must confess that I am thankful to God when people get offended with my ministry. A man went out the other day in a boiling passion. He said to one of the stewards at the door, "I am through with Dr. Dowie. I will never enter this Tabernacle again. Never."

He was here the next Sunday sitting upon the platform. He could not keep away. I noticed him next Sunday when I called for the penitents to rise. The tears were running down his face. He prayed to his God as he had never prayed in his life, and he had been a professed Christian and an officer of his Church. It was because he had been a thief.

The Blessed Reward of Contrite Humility.

The woman in our lesson did not get angry. She did what some of you good women have done when convicted of sin: she went again to Him. She fell at His feet and said, "Yea, Lord: for even the little dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their master's table."

Now what did Jesus say? Jesus had been leading her along to that Faith, and He said, as He looked at her, "O woman, great is thy Faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt."

The woman arose happy, blessed, went home and found her daughter had been healed even that very hour.

Who will bow to Jesus and say, "Yea, Lord, I have been passing for a superfine Christian. I have been standing up and pretending this, that and the other thing. I have been no better than a hypocrite. O Lord, help me."

That prayer will reach Heaven. The Lord will not give you crumbs. He will give you the whole loaf. "No good thing He will withhold from them that walk uprightly." Salvation, Healing, Cleansing and Guiding Power will be given you, only you must get low enough to get it.

An Illustration of the Lesson.

Some years ago at Minneapolis, during my first mission there, I had noticed a German lady who had come into Harmonia Hall. She came up the aisle with rings on her fingers and bells on her toes, almost, a very richly-dressed lady. When the service was over she informed me that she had done me the condescending favor to drive from her magnificent mansion for the purpose of giving me the honor of praying for the healing of her vast carcass, which was enshrined in all these fine laces and silks and satins, and stank of beer or whisky, or something of the kind. I looked at her and said, "Madam, you can go away; you are not able to get healing."

"Why?"

"My impression from smelling you is that you belong to the Devil."

I walked away. I did not see her for several days, but she came back again.

She was more plainly dressed, I noticed, and looked as if she had been crying a great deal. She sat and listened.

That afternoon I preached the sermon I have now delivered, and in much the same way. Perhaps I did not use the same words. I preach the same truths, but, thank God, I leave Him to clothe them with the inspiration of the moment.

After I had finished preaching I said, "You who desire to come to the Lord, very humbly, come now, and I will pray with you."

The first woman to rise was that woman. She came right up and knelt down. Several followed her example rapidly, until quite a number were seeking the Lord.

Touching Prayer of Contrition.

Presently I said, "Perhaps you would like to pray yourselves." This woman burst out into the most impassioned prayer. She said something like this:

"O God, if there was a proud and wicked woman on this earth, it was I. O God, I professed to be a Christian and have been nothing but a hypocrite full of pride and sin. O God, I am not only a dog, but a dirty, mean little dog. I do not know how you can save me. O God, for Jesus' sake, if You can give me a crumb of mercy, give it me now."

She prayed like that, way down, down, in the very depths. As she prayed, wicked and proud people who had never prayed before, prayed.

That woman got Salvation and Healing.

She had been a Lutheran, which means something or nothing, as the case may be. She had no religion. She was sprinkled as a baby, confirmed as a girl, given the Lord's Supper, and yet had no religion.

On my second visit to Minneapolis, I baptized her in Lake Minnetonka, near Minneapolis, with many others.

Her husband had been most indignant at her, but saw her get healing of the sickness underneath all her silks and satins. He was so delighted that he came to the mission, and when I came on my second visit I found that he was prepared to receive blessing.

When she was baptized, he was standing looking on. There were many hundreds at the lake. A gentleman stepped out of his carriage and said with a sneer, "Fools." This man put his hand on him and said, "Do not say that. I would have given you a blow if you had said that a week ago. That is my wife going to be baptized, and God has saved her and God has healed her. She used to be such a hard woman to live with, but now she is a changed woman; the noblest woman in Minneapolis. She's not a fool. Would God I were as good a man."

A Wonderful Transformation.

O, how that woman was transformed. I scarcely knew her when I came up to Minneapolis the second time. She was nicely and becomingly dressed. She had lost a great deal of superfluous fat, and a great deal of vanity, and had taken off her earrings and given them to God's work. She had them turned into bread for the poor.

It was a hard winter in Minneapolis. She used her money for God's cause and for the poor.

If you desire God to do for you and for your children what the Lord Jesus Christ did for that woman and for her sick and diseased daughter; if you wish the Devil out of you, who has been defiling you and enslaving you and binding you in chains harder than iron, stronger than steel, and holding you and dragging you down to hell; if you long to be free, you will bow at Christ's feet and say, "Lord, help me." God will help you.

ZION'S CONFLICT WITH METHODIST APOSTASY.

This book of 200 pages, just issued by Zion Publishing House, contains nine powerful discourses delivered in Central Zion Tabernacle by the General Overseer last May, during the session of the Methodist General Conference. They are of especial value for the full and fearless exposure of Freemasonry.

"The Methodist Church the Property of the Masonic Order," "Freemasonry: A Heathen and Antichristian Abomination," and "Degrees of Masonic Devilry" ought to be read by every lodge man.

The iniquity of the Mystic Shrine is laid bare.

"The Christian's Duty in Breaking a Bad Oath" is the address which preceded the public working of Masonic and Odd Fellow degrees in Central Zion Tabernacle, a full account of which is given.

Buy one of these books and keep lending it. No honest and intelligent man can read the book and still remain a Freemason.

ZION COLLEGE LECTURES ON PRAYER.

A Series Delivered Before the Students of Zion College by the President, Rev. John Alexander Dowie, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

THE world today has learned that there is something far beyond the ordinary in the words and works of God's Messenger to Zion, John Alexander Dowie.

As this realization comes to the public, the first question always is, "How does he do it? What is the secret of his power?"

Those who know the General Overseer and have heard and heeded his teaching know that the power belongs to God. But the General Overseer is wonderfully used by God, as an instrument, on account of his mighty power in Prayer, taught him by the Holy Spirit.

Hence it was with the greatest joy that the students of Zion College received the announcement that the General Overseer would deliver a Series of Lectures on the subject of Prayer. It was an inestimable privilege to learn how to pray from a man whose whole life had become a mighty power for God through Prayer. But joyful as the anticipation was, it was more than justified by the realization.

Many members of the Christian Catholic Church also attended these Lectures and were amazed, from week to week, by the great depth and scope of the subject as it was opened up by the man of God.

Since the delivery of these Lectures there has been a loud appeal, from many sides, to have them published.

The General Overseer was reluctant, as he felt that in the great pressure of his other duties he had not been able to give the Lectures as he might have done with more time at his disposal. He also felt that he should revise them before their publication, and this he could not find time to do.

At length, however, the appeal for them being urged, he consented that they should be sent forth, without his revision, during his absence in Europe and the Holy Land.

Accordingly this wonderful teaching will be printed, almost as it came from his lips, from time to time, in LEAVES OF HEALING. In preparing these Lectures for the press, we have eliminated some allusions to topics of the time and place and have written in some headlines. We have also cut out opening and closing exercises and arranged the matter consecutively without regard to number and date of Lectures.

We pray that God will bless these wonderful truths to all who read in even greater measure than He did to those who heard.

A. W. N.

OUR FATHER.

This afternoon there are two words in my mind which have so deeply impressed me that I feel I would like to make them the subject of my address.

When you pray, say:

"Our Father."

I apprehend that we shall greatly endanger Divine instruction if we begin to define that which is essentially incapable of definition.

When we define a truth, it must be a very small one. It cannot be of much importance. It fact, my judgment is that you cannot define Truth.

To define a thing is to put limits around it.

There are no limits to the Infinite.

There are no limits to the thought which is expressed in the first words of the Disciples' Prayer, as taught by our Lord:

"Our Father."

The word Father is a very different word from the word Maker, Creator.

God made the world. He made all creatures below man. He is the Maker of the birds, of the beasts, and of the fish, but He is not their Father.

God the Father of Our Spirits.

He is our Father; because He is the Father of our Spirits, not the Father of our souls, not the Father of our bodies.

He is the Maker of our bodies, and the Maker of our souls in the same way that He is the Maker of the souls and bodies of the fish, the beasts and every creeping thing, and everything that flies.

They have souls, they have bodies, but they have no spirits.

Do not let us forget that in the creation of man there was that which was not in the creation of these lesser creatures.

There was the breath of God Himself; the inspiration by God Himself. The spirit, ruach, that spirit of life; the breath of life. Breath, of course, is spirit; breath of the Almighty; the spirit of the Almighty; the spirit in man.

That spirit has its paternity in God. It is not communicated by transmission, by physical generation. It is not communicated by our parents, nor can we communicate spiritual being.

Spiritual being is always, everywhere, Divine in parentage.

Get this thought so clearly in your mind that you will never confound soul and spirit.

Let the Word of God, which is quick and powerful, that is, living and active, enable you always to differentiate between spirit and soul.

Never let there be any confusion in your mind, for you will never know God as your Father if you think of Him as the Father of your soul. If He is only the Father of your soul, He is no more your Father than He is the Father of an eagle or a barnyard fowl, or a mackerel, or a whale, or an elephant, or a hog; for every one of these creatures has a soul, animal life.

I wish to take you back to the definition which we make very emphatically in our teaching as to the separation and the absolutely different origin of the soul and the spirit.

For the Word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and quick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart.

Christ the Living and Active Word.

I believe that that passage has reference not merely to the Scripture, but to Jesus Christ, the Logos.

It is He who is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword. It is He who is a Discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

It is His words which are spirit and life.

It is the Spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I have spoken unto you are spirit, and are life.

You must always in this case remember that the thought is to lead you back to the Eternal Logos; the Power by whom everything came into being; the Word who became flesh and dwelt among us.

Christ is the Living Word. He dwells among us. He dwells within us still.

It is only the Word of God which enables us to see the distinction between soul and spirit.

I desire, for a special reason, to call attention to the very beginning of the Word of God in this matter.

Take with me the first chapter of Genesis, and read with me the twentieth verse:

And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and let fowl fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

All the creatures have souls.

Note the expression in the thirtieth verse, "Wherein there is life."

What is your margin?

Voices—"A living soul."

President Dowie—What creatures have living souls?

Voices—"Every creature."

President Dowie—All the fowls of the air have souls, and every beast of the earth has a living soul.

Have they spirits?

Voices—"No."

President Dowie—That is the Word of God which makes this plain.

The Soul Distinguished From the Body.

For the most part, there is no teaching on the subject at all. What do the scholars mean by psychology? They are referring there practically to the intelligent mind.

That is not psychology. Psychie (ψυχή) means—what?

Voices—"Soul."

President Dowie—Young defines it properly as animal life. It is nothing else. The beast has it; the bird has it; the fish has it. It is animal life, not spiritual being.

Get this thing distinct and clear. Look carefully at your Greek Testament and note where the word soul is used, and see that the word means life, and do not confuse animal life with spiritual life.

"The soul that sinneth, it shall die."

Can a spirit die?

Voices—"No."

President Dowie—No man can say from his soul, "My Father." No man can say from his body, "My Father." No beast can stand up on this earth and say, "My Father." No bird can say, "My Father."

They cannot say my Father because they have no revelation of fatherhood within them. There has never been anything begotten in them of a spiritual nature.

It is this principle of a Divine life which completely separates humanity from all else and enables us to so realize the great purpose for which God has put all things under our feet. When we realize this, we rise superior to earth and every material thing, and to every animal with a merely psychical nature. We realize that the pneuma (πνεῦμα), the ruach, the spirit that is in us, is the offspring of God.

That principle lies at the bottom of everything when we pray.

It is also true that the construction of this earthly temple is essentially different in a great many ways from the lower creatures.

Man and the Lower Animals Do Not Differ Essentially as to Brains.

I do not think it is so in the brain, although we are trying to make it so. I think that the thinking machinery of some animals is a great deal more clever than the thinking machinery of some men in some things, and it is very much of the same order.

Those who have experimented (and it is a cruel and useless experiment) on the brains of creatures yet alive, tell us that they have been able to create emotions of fear and love, of pain and delight, or rather to give these emotions expression just by touching certain parts of the brain. Certain powers of men have been awakened, which have been dormant, by the taking pressure from or placing pressure upon that part of the brain. Certain sensibilities which are only infrequent are made continuous by pressure upon the brain.

We have had the case, in Zion Home, of Mr. Seeger, who was yawning every few moments. He at last held his mouth open constantly. God healed him. Thank God for that. We did not need to lift some pressure from the brain, either.

The surgeons said if they could only take off the scalp and search all around underneath, they might find the place where the pressure was, and relieve him of the difficulty.

I think they would, too, by that time. It would be like the cure for the toothache by cutting off the head.

Yet the thinking machinery in man can, by Divine grace, be developed and made a wonderful vehicle of Divine thought. I believe we have never reached, nor can we reach, the possibilities in the development of mind.

The Spirit of Man Greater Than His Mind.

Yet we can value mind too highly and say as Sir William Hamilton said, "On earth there is nothing great but man; in man there is nothing great but mind."

He had that inscribed on the wall above his chair in the class room in my native city, in the School of Logic and Metaphysics in the University of Edinburgh. Afterwards I often used to sit and look at it and say to myself, "That is a lie."

One day we were asked to give a series of extemporaneous addresses upon thoughts connected with logic and metaphysics. I arose and said:

"I desire to criticise the motto above your head, Professor Frasier. It is a lie."

There was a sensation.

I said, "I do not care who it was said it."

"Sir William Hamilton," shouted the students.

"I do not care whether it was Sir William Hamilton or anybody else. It is a lie to say that in man there is nothing great but mind, because there is a spirit in man, and it is far greater than mere mind.

"The mind of a magnificent man might not only suffer a collapse, but be plunged into hopeless darkness, chaos and ruin. A splendid man may become a driveling idiot by a blow, and his mind, his mental powers, not only become empty, but degenerate and thrown into confusion, but the majestic spirit of that man would remain."

It is the development of this thought of spirit which I wish to impress upon you. This spiritual being has not only its presence in the brain, but it has its expression and its presence in all parts of the being. The spiritual being of a man is really coextensive with the man himself, if he is pure and clean. The spiritual being may find experssion through his fingers as well as through his tongue, through his feet as well as through his hands, through his eyes as well as through his lips and tongue, if he really is a being all-pervaded by spirit.

There are some men whose spirits are shut up in prison, and are to be found only in some dark corner. Their spirits have been driven back and driven inward. The spiritual being is put last. All the conception of it the man has is that he has a soul, to which he says, "Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease: eat, drink, be merry."

He does not realize that he has any spirit. The Church is damned because of its ignorance in this matter. I am convinced of it.

They are getting up revivals for the purpose of saving souls, and they cannot save the soul, because they do not get up a revival for the saving of the spirit.

They do not understand the salvation of the spirit.

They do not take any notice of the words of the apostle which I always use in benediction: "The very God of peace Himself sanctify you wholly. And I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved entire, without blame," etc. They say the spirit and the soul are the same thing, which shows their crass ignorance.

The soul can never say Father. If the soul said Father, it would lie, because God is not the Father of souls; He is the Father of spirits.

Spirits are His offspring, but He does not give paternity, His own nature, to beasts, birds and fish. He gives it to man, not in his soul, nor in his bodily nature, but in his spirit.

The Purpose of Redemption to Free Men's Spirits From Forces Hostile to God.

This is the great purpose of redemption, that we should first of all remember that these spirits must be entirely delivered from the thraldom of other spiritual forces and beings which are antagonistic to God.

We cannot claim our paternity and say, "Our Father"; we cannot call Jesus Lord, but by the Spirit of God awakening in our spiritual being the conviction that we are the offspring of God. We must have the knowledge, by the regenerating grace of the Holy Spirit, that we have been quickened, made to live, by being liberated in spirit until that spirit fills the whole being and lifts up the soul and the body, and presents them "a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service."

Then we understand something of what it means to say "My Father."

The development of this knowledge is slow. The majority of people do not pray to the Father. They pray to the Son; they pray to the Holy Spirit. They say, "Lord Jesus, help me." They say, "Holy Spirit, help me."

My declaration that we have no more right to pray to Jesus Christ or to the Holy Spirit than we have to the Virgin Mary or St. Joseph has given great offense, but has been unanswerable. It is a Divine truth, for Jesus bids us, when we pray, to say, "Our Father," and the Holy Spirit comes into our hearts crying, "Abba, Father."

We are never taught, either by Jesus Christ, the Son of God, or by the Holy Spirit who comes from the Father and the Son, to pray to them, or either of them.

Do what Jesus tells you. Do what the Holy Spirit tells you.

If you forget all else I have ever said about Prayer, never forget this: that in praying you must pray to God the Father alone in the Name of God the Son, in the power of God the Holy Spirit, and that you must never direct your supplication to any other than to Him.

But no matter how emphatically my speech expressed it, if you do not take it in and live it and use it, it will not only be of no value, but, not being used, it will become a curse.

An Unused Talent Brings a Curse.

It brings the curse of God Himself. Every bit of cowardice upon our part which makes us bury a talent or conceal a truth, makes that talent or that truth our accusation and our curse. The day will come when the Master will say, "I gave you that talent; I gave you that truth and you never used it, you wicked and slothful servant." Then He will take it away.

How can Jesus be my Advocate with the Father, if I make Him the Father, and talk to Him as if I were talking to my Father?

He is not my Father. He is my Brother. He is not ashamed to call us brethren, and I stand upon His Word in which He said:

> I ascend unto My Father and your Father, and My God and your God.

You must obey what He said. If God is the Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, then my Saviour is my Brother; my great Elder Brother; God's eternal Son.

He is the eternal Logos; incomprehensibly greater than I, but still my Brother who said when He was here on earth, "My Father is greater than all." Our great Elder Brother will one day, when He has finished His work, deliver up the key to God, even the Father.

The Uselessness of Mere Words.

This to me is greater than words, because when a thing is only a word it is not much account unless it gets impressed.

I am tired of words which do not find expression in something more than words.

The whole earth is tired of words.

The Church today is utterly disgusting to men who have an intelligent understanding, because the whole business is a mass of words and talk and discussion about words.

"What does it matter?" they say. "We want something more than words."

While it is a good thing to talk with words when you go to your fellowman, and even in a measure when you go to God, it is infinitely better when you get to the place where you are beyond words.

When love can find expression only in words, it is a poor, pitiful thing.

Did you ever see that light which never shone on sea or land, the love-light in the eye of a little child who suddenly discovered its mother?

The love-light is there when the baby cannot talk at all. A baby needs not to talk to tell that it recognizes mother.

You can get to the place where love has its highest expression, when you desire to say something for which you cannot find words; when you can just take the hand and look straight into the eye and look your thought.

When you get away to the highest point of Divine love, you will not need to talk. Christ Himself will not need to talk to the Father for you. He will tell you what is true, as He said:

> I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you; for the Father Himself loveth you.

Did you ever sit down, and just let that thought take possession of you by the Spirit: "If a man love Me, he will keep My Word: and My Father will love him, and We will come unto him, and make Our abode with him"?

Then the love-light will come, and there will be that about you which will make you to be so much more powerful in your silence than you are in your speech.

There is a Place and a Need for Speech.

I know there is a place for speech, because humanity is so weak it needs expression. Poor humanity is in its boyhood, and it wants taffy. There are some silly men and some silly women who can never believe that they are loved unless the other one says, "I love you." It is a poor business that. If I only got people to see that I loved them because I said it all the time, I would think my love a poor thing.

I do not know that my mother said very often that she loved me, but she kept all the buttons sewed on my shirts, and she saw that I had excellent porridge in the morning. Her love made her rise early in the morning and boil it until it was right for John. She would not trust a maid with it. When we got two servants for her, she worked just as hard looking after these servants.

I do not know that she was given much to saying that she loved me. I cannot remember the time that she said it, but she looked it, and she lived it, and I know that she loved me. I did not need the words, I had something better. I had the actions. I had the light in her eye. When I came in, and she saw me, suddenly her eye would brighten and there would be the love.

Prayer is oftentimes most effectual when it is—

The burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.
Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

But Prayer is most sublime when it says least.

When Christ, one day, contrasted two men's Prayers, they were the Prayer of a hypocritical Pharisee who explained to God what a good man he was, and all the good things he had done, and the Prayer of a publican who would not so much as lift up his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, and spoke in a low and faint voice. But the ear of the Almighty could hear it, and it rang through highest heaven, the broken cry of a broken heart: "God, be merciful to me, a sinner."

"The sacrifices of God are" always "a broken spirit" and a "contrite heart." That publican's Prayer reached God, and he went down to his house a justified man. The Pharisee went down damned. Yet he made a magnificent Prayer, complying with all the ritual.

Students in Zion College, get to a place where you can get to God without words.

Prayer for the Healing of the Sick is Nearly Always Silent.

A friend asked me some time ago: "What do you say to God when you pray for the healing of the sick?"

I said, "I never tell, except in very rare cases, what I pray. My spoken words are simply an invocation in obedience to the command I had, 'in the Name of the Lord Jesus, in the Power of the Holy Spirit, in accordance with the Will of God our Heavenly Father.'

"There is no Prayer in that. That is not a Prayer, but an invocation. The Prayer is silent. If the people always heard the Prayer, it would be very startling."

Some time ago I had a letter from a certain part of this country from a lady who is not in the Home. I will not tell you her name. Perhaps the story will enlighten the desire, and help you to understand the matter.

This lady's pastor was applied to for a letter to Dr. Dowie. She demanded of him that he tell what a kind, good woman she was, and how desirable it was in the interests of Jonesville that its paragon of all perfection in that Church should be handed up and healed.

She was very sick. All the doctors had gotten through with her.

She was one of these women—you can see it in their faces—who make the poor man whom they have condescended to marry feel what a lifelong, supreme favor they have bestowed upon him, and how he ought to be grateful forever that so high and mighty a person ever condescended to take him. The minister was afraid of her, because if he did not suffer the word of exhortation as she gave it to him, he might just as well send in his resignation; for if he did not, he would starve in that place. She would see that he got no money from her husband, and no money from anybody else.

A Severe but Wholesome Lesson to a Self-Important Woman.

Nobody told me that when I read the letter, which was to this effect:

MY DEAR DR. DOWIE:—The lady who brings this letter in person has come to be a guest in Zion Home.

She is a most worthy member of this Church—and so on.

It is highly in the interests of Zion that she should be healed, because she is a woman of vast influence in Jonesville.

I never had seen the lady, but I smiled as I read this letter.

I understood that she had issued a request that I immediately repair to her room and interview her. I did not do any such thing. (Laughter.)

She was most angry that she had not been attended to. Who were the Elders? She did not come down to see the Elders. She came down to see Dr. Dowie. (Laughter.) She brought a letter from her minister. She was very sick.

Somebody said to me, "She is highly offended."

I said, "Tell her she can go home. Tell her that she can go home by the next train. She will see me when I am ready. She will see me when she has had some instruction."

I happened to be in the elevator when somebody came up: "Oh, Dr. Dowie, I have been waiting for you for three days."

I said, "Have you? I guess you will wait three days more."

She had some good, sound sense somewhere. I had that conviction. There is no woman who is ever entirely without it. (Laughter.)

About four days afterwards I was announced to take the meeting in the Prayer Room. There was Mrs. Smith, as I will call her, dressed in her best. Something was beginning to dawn upon her. She suspected that she was not nearly so important with me as she had thought herself in Jonesville.

I sat down, and for twenty minutes, without looking at her, saving now and then to see how she was getting on, I gave it to Mrs. Smith. (Laughter.)

I had learned that her husband was in the house by this time. He was the meekest man I ever saw. (Laughter.) He reminded me of Moses. The tribulations through which he had passed had taught him patience. I had not known of his existence. It was by accident I discovered it, and that was because she, being in the habit of having him do things for her (laughter), made signs to him.

For twenty minutes my subject was really Mrs. Smith, of Jonesville, and you should have seen the various changes of expression which passed over her face. I think if she could have gotten out without too much trouble, she would have gone.

When it was over, indignation took the place of humility, and I saw the impudence in her face. She had made up her mind about Dr. Dowie, and I thought afterwards of inviting her to go out. No one saw this except myself and Mrs. Smith. Nobody knew I had been thinking all the time of her.

When I got through, I uttered the usual invocation. That was all Mrs. Smith heard me say; but if she had heard my Prayer as I paused a minute, she would have heard this: "Oh God Almighty, in Thine Infinite Love and Mercy knock all the devils and all the conceit out of this woman. (Laughter.) Break her heart. Make her to realize what a bad-tempered, filthy, miserable wretch she is. Make her to realize that she is unconverted, and that she knows nothing about Thee, and that she is a curse to her husband, and to the Church, and to Jonesville, and that the greatest blessing that could happen to Jonesville would be her departure from it.

"Make her to see that she is a cumberer of the earth, and, O God Almighty, when Thou hast broken her all up, then if she repents, Thou wilt hear her."

I did not say all that, but just you think what would have happened if I had. But I finished my little Prayer in my heart and passed on.

I prayed that Prayer in faith, and when I had stopped for a few minutes, I said a few words concerning a very touching case of healing of one who was then present who was not there for healing. She told how she had come to me full of pride and self-sufficiency and ignorance, and my words had just knocked it all out of her, and how God had used me to help her. It had seemed to her that everybody must know what she was, and then she told the touching story of how she had been crushed to the very earth, and had come to see that she was nothing at all; that God suddenly took away the veil from her eyes, and made her see how mean she was. Then she got down one day in the Prayer Room, willing to obey, no matter what I said, convinced that I was God's servant, and that I had seen the light in her eyes.

She told how I had said to her, "Are you ready to obey now?" and she said, "Yes." Then I had said, "Arise," and she had risen and walked, and was healed.

The telling of all that had broken Mrs. Smith's pride. I turned to see Mrs. Smith, and she was sobbing as if her heart would break. She had seen her own meanness, had been converted. She received her healing.

The Effectiveness of the Silent Prayer.

You cannot put your Prayers into words; it is not best. The Prayer which God will hear most effectually will be the silent Prayer. Get to the place where you can say "Father."

Mrs. Smith went home. She said to the Masonic minister, "This Church has gone to the Devil. I believe you have gone to the Devil, too."

She stepped upon the platform and made one of the most startling speeches that Church had ever heard.

She told of her healing, and then they said she had gone mad. She is "mad" now, but she is in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Get to know God. That is Prayer.

Get to know your Father.

Read The Coming City.

For all matters pertaining to the founding and building of Zion City, there is no source of information, complete and reliable, but THE COMING CITY. The story of Zion City is being and will be told in its pages, both by descriptive articles and by engravings from photographs. The paper also contains much other interesting matter, such as science notes, household suggestions, special articles on matters of interest to Zion people, and the news of the day.

The paper also contains four pages of advertisements, carefully selected, most of the advertisers being Zion people. It is important that every member of Zion should get THE COMING CITY, not only for the valuable information which it will contain, but for these advertisements. By reading them they will learn who are the Zion business men and thus be able to coöperate with each other.

Zion people should be glad to go a little out of their way to trade at a Zion shop. Zion money is thus kept in Zion instead of going to fill the coffers of the world's people, and each feels the influence of the increase in general prosperity.

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

THE COMING CITY will be sent, postpaid, for $1 for the first thirteen numbers. Address subscriptions to Zion Publishing House, 1207 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, U. S. A.

EXPLANATORY NOTE.

The innumerable falsehoods of the secular and so-called religious press against Zion have continued without cessation for years.

We have occasionally dealt with some of these falsehoods and taken up much valuable time in our public ministration in answering these attacks.

But the time has come when we have resolved no longer to answer them in detail, unless in extremely exceptional cases.

We shall simply content ourselves with stating them and nailing them down.

Hence we have determined to devote this page to a beginning of this work of publicly branding the most important of the almost innumerable lies of the ungodly, unclean, criminal, and hypocritical press.

We shall also add from time to time a few specimens of the odium theologicum, which we shall cull from the innumerable misrepresentations and fabrications of the apostate churches.

It must not be supposed that we admit the truth of the things which we do not here deny, for it would be simply impossible to enumerate all that ought to be nailed down. We again remind our friends that these are simply the most important of them.

Zion's Panoramic Tours.

These tours are conducted by Deacon Daniel Sloan, of Chicago. They present to the unprejudiced, teachable and fairminded the Principles, Purposes and Practices of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Conferences and personal interviews are held with members and friends at places visited. Information is given concerning Zion City and the Truths and Requirements of Zion, as well as counsel and direction pertaining to personal, business and domestic relations which may effect one's spirit, soul and body. These interviews are always spiritually helpful

Some of the following lectures are given: Panorama of Zion, Exhibit of Zion City, The World as It Is, God's Rescue Call, Spiritual Mastery, The Bible a New Book, Prophetic Sidelights, Zion's Place and Methods, Glimpses of the Christ of God.

Within the past months visits have been made to members and friends of Zion, touching in travel seventeen States, and stopping at points in eleven different States.

The Panorama of Zion and Exhibit of Zion City, a stereopticon exhibition of the greatest work of the age and the Coming City of the age, has been presented to interested audiences of hundreds.

The expense for each place is about $10 or $15, in addition to the hall rent, if any, entertainment always being provided for the Deacon and his operator in some Zion family.

Visitation may possibly yet be made to other points where there is a Zion Gathering or a Branch Church, at such times as five or eight places centrally located can be arranged for in a trip, and when time can be given to this work aside from other duties.

Persons who desire to help build up Zion through such exhibitions, conferences and interviews should immediately write the Deacon for a visit at such date as he may later arrange, even if his coming be delayed for months.

Interest in the meantime may be awakened and the fact of his coming, though the date is unsettled, can be used to stimulate interest in favor of Zion, Zion Literature and the Zion Seventy work which is being done.

Trips cannot extend beyond two weeks, and then only to places where several members and friends and the spirit of interest shown warrant such visits.

GOD'S WAY OF HEALING.

BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

God's Way of Healing is a Person, not a Thing.

Jesus said, "I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life," and He has ever been revealed to His people in all the ages by the Covenant Name, Jehovah-rophi, or "I am the Lord that Healeth thee." (John 14:6; Exodus 15:26.)

The Lord Jesus Christ is Still the Healer.

He cannot change, for "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever"; and He is still with us, for He said, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world." (Hebrews 13:8; Matthew 28:20). Because He is Unchangeable, and because He is present, in spirit, just as when in the flesh, He is the Healer of His people.

Divine Healing Rests on Christ's Atonement.

It was prophesied of Him, "Surely He hath borne our griefs (Hebrew sicknesses), and carried our sorrows: . . . and with His stripes we are healed"; and it is expressly declared that this was fulfilled in His ministry of Healing, which still continues. (Isaiah 53:4, 5; Matthew 8:17.)

Disease Can Never be God's Will.

It is the Devil's work, consequent upon Sin, and it is impossible for the work of the Devil ever to be the Will of God. Christ came to "destroy the works of the Devil," and when He was here on earth He healed "all manner of disease and all manner of sickness," and all these diseases are expressly declared to have been "oppressed of the Devil." (1 John 3:8; Matthew 4:23; Acts 10:38.)

The Gifts of Healing are Permanent.

It is expressly declared that the "Gifts and the calling of God are without repentance," and the Gifts of Healing are amongst the Nine Gifts of the Spirit to the Church. (Romans 11:29; 1 Cor. 12:8-11.)

There are Four Modes of Divine Healing.

The first is the direct prayer of faith; the second, intercessory prayer of two or more; the third, the anointing of the elders with the prayer of faith; and the fourth, the laying on of hands of those who believe, and whom God has prepared and called to that ministry. (Matthew 8:5-13; Matthew 18:19; James 5:14, 15; Mark 16:18.)

Divine Healing is Opposed by Diabolical Counterfeits.

Amongst these are Christian Science (falsely so-called), Mind Healing, Spiritualism, Trance Evangelism, etc. (1 Timothy 6:20, 21; 1 Timothy 4:1, 2; Isaiah 51:22, 23.)

Multitudes Have Been Healed Through Faith in Jesus.

The writer knows of thousands of cases and has personally laid hands on scores of thousands of persons. Full information can be obtained at the meetings held in Zion Tabernacle, 1621-1633 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, and in many pamphlets which give the experience, in their own words, of many who have been healed in this and other countries, published at Zion Publishing House, 1207 Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

REV. F. A. GRAVES, SUPERINTENDENT.

THE LORD hath established His Throne in the Heavens;
And His Kingdom ruleth over all.—Psalm 103:19.

AND JESUS went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom, and healing all manner of disease and all manner of sickness among the people.—Matthew 4:23.

THE Kingdom of Heaven and the Kingdom of God, in a general sense, mean one and the same thing.

In our lesson today we will consider the words Kingdom of Heaven and Kingdom of God as meaning the same.

Think of the Kingdom of God with four W's.

What is the Kingdom of God?
Where is the Kingdom of God?
When is the Kingdom of God?
Whose is the Kingdom of God?

First. What is the Kingdom of God?

The Kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Ghost.—Romans 14:17.

Second. Where is the Kingdom of God?

Neither shall they say, Lo, here! or, There! for lo, the Kingdom of God is within you.—Luke 17:21.

Third. When is the Kingdom of God?

The law and the prophets were until John: from that time the Gospel of the Kingdom of God is preached.—Luke 16:16.

For the law was given by Moses; grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.—John 1:17.

We have found What, Where, When it is. Now Whose is it?

Not every one that saith unto Me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but he that doeth the will of My Father which is in heaven.—Matthew 7:21.

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.—Matthew 5:3.

Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.—Matthew 5:10.

Now we come to the Junior verse, found in Matthew 19:13, 14:

Then were there brought unto Him little children, that He should lay His hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer the little children, and forbid them not, to come unto Me: for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven.

Thus we see that the Kingdom of Heaven is composed of the obedient ones, the poor in spirit, those persecuted for righteousness' sake, and the little children.

Next, let us see how important it is and how to enter.

First. How important:

Seek ye first His Kingdom, and His righteousness.—Matthew 6:33.

Second. How to enter:

Except ye turn, and become as little children, ye shall in no wise enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.—Matthew 18:3.

I wish every Zion Junior in the land who reads this page could say, "I have entered into the Kingdom of Heaven, and the Kingdom of Heaven has entered into me." If you have not done so, DO IT TODAY.

Conversion, returning to God, means giving your wills to God. Bow your heads over this page and give your will, your life, into His keeping. Repent of every sin. Make restitution to any whom you may have wronged. May the closing days of this year and this century find you on the Lord's side, ready to begin a new year and a new century for God and His cause.

What, my friend, do you say to the Saviour this day?
Are you ready to meet the Bridegroom in the sky?
For the Kingdom of Heaven is like virgins three and seven,
Going forth to meet the Bridegroom in the sky.

There are sheep gone astray, that have left the narrow way:
They're not ready to meet the Bridegroom in the sky:
For their love growing cold, they are far from the fold,
And not ready to meet the Bridegroom in the sky.

But I fear there will be many living thoughtlessly,
Going forth to meet the Bridegroom in the sky;
And their lamps will not burn, so for oil they return,
And the Bridegroom Jesus cometh in the sky.

Then let all of us learn to fill lamps so they burn,
And be ready to meet the Bridegroom in the sky;
Not be like foolish ones—no oil when He comes:
But be ready to meet the Bridegroom in the sky.

Beautiful Home.

NOTES OF THANKSGIVING TO ZION'S GOD

Freed From Pain and Greatly Blessed After Many Years' Suffering.

How many thousands of the brave men who endured the terrible hardships and battles of the War of the Rebellion, came home hopeless, physical wrecks, doomed to years of suffering and invalidism, and finally death!

How glorious to know that God has promised that at "eventide it shall be light," and is keeping that promise, even to those whose health and vitality were exhausted in the toil and exposure of army life and by the terrible drugs of the army hospitals, when they trust Him!

The following testimony tells of years of suffering as a result of army diseases and blessed relief from God, the Giver of every good gift:

WESTFIELD, ILLINOIS, November 28, 1900.

OVERSEER JOHN G. SPEICHER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—I wish to testify to God's goodness and mercy to me. In the spring of 1863, in Tennessee, I was taken sick and was sick or convalescent all that year.

I was twice offered a discharge from the army on account of my sickness, but refused it because I wanted to stay with the boys.

At last I was mustered out with my command, came home and went to work on the farm.

For a while I felt better at work than when I was doing nothing, as I did not feel my aches and pains so badly.

But in the summer of 1873, however, I became so weak that I had to abandon nearly all kinds of manual labor. I was treated by many doctors and took a great deal of patent medicine, but to little purpose.

I ached day and night from the year 1863 until I began the reading of LEAVES OF HEALING. Since then I have had but little pain.

There were several years during which I suffered with granulated eyelids. My neighbors and friends thought I would go blind, but I thank God that they got well a few years ago, and my sight is as good as that of most of men my age.

After I had read LEAVES OF HEALING for a while, the children took notice that I did not complain while reading it. They would say, while waiting for the paper, that they wished LEAVES OF HEALING would come so that I would feel better.

O what joy and gladness it brought to my poor aching body and heart.

I was suffering with severe heart trouble.

The first I knew about Dr. Dowie I got from several elders and preachers in the U. B. Church. They had a Zion tract, and one of the elders would read a few lines and then comment on them.

It did not please me to see those who claimed to be carrying the glad tidings of Salvation to a lost world, condemn what that tract contained, for the most of it was Bible references.

As soon as possible, I procured some Zion Literature.

I thank God today for the help LEAVES OF HEALING has been to me.

The whole Bible is a new Book to me.

I was very glad to be at Zion Home and Central Zion Tabernacle last New Year's eve.

What a flow of joy did fill my soul that evening and night.

In the year 1877 I came near dying. I had malaria and heart trouble My suffering was very severe.

The doctor told the neighbors that he did not know how it would go with me, as the medicine did not have the desired effect. One day I received the assurance that I would get well.

I thank God for my first healing.

I did not live up to what I had received from Him or I never would have taken any more medicine.

I thank God that He has spared me to visit the site of the Coming City.

We have our Cottage Meetings here every week.

I pray for the Christian Catholic Church the world over, and trust that it will continue to Go Forward and that God will bless every effort that is put forth for its advancement.

Your Brother, D. HARDINGER.

Little Boy Healed of Crushed Fingers and Ague.

ALASKA, INDIANA, November 27, 1900.

REV. JOHN G. SPEICHER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—I arrived here from New Whatcom, Washington, on a Friday. On the following Monday my little boy Frankie ran three fingers through the cogs on a cider-press, crushing two of them.

My father, mother, sisters, brother and cousins all wanted to send for a doctor.

I took him and asked God the loving Father to help me.

I bandaged each finger separately in cotton, and whittled out a little board and tied the hand on it and put him on the bed.

I sang and read, when I could for his screaming, and prayed for help and strength and for my child.

My father told me that my husband had written to him to tell him that he must see that Frankie had a doctor if he got sick.

I faced my parent in a way I could scarcely do, and told him that while Frankie was my husband's child, in a way, he was God's child and I was His child, and would do His blessed will.

I refused to have a doctor.

They begged me to give him sleeping powders to ease the pain, but I would not.

I knew that God would hold to me even if I had not faith to pray for instant healing.

I trusted Him for His care and love. I did the best I could, my weak, ignorant self.

Frankie's fingers are now well.

In three hours after he got them hurt he was out playing.

He never complained with them except a little on the first night. He cried several times, but only for a minute.

The ague was prevalent and Frankie got yellow and had two chills. The rest of the family took medicine every hour or two, and not one grain did Frankie take. He is clear-complexioned and fat. He goes to school and plays more than two common boys at his age.

I thought for a few days I was taking typhoid fever, but God kept me.

I have had several ailings since I came, but only for a day or two.

I am the only one here to witness to the Full Gospel, and I must trust in the Holy Spirit to guide and teach me what to say.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

Praying for Zion to be built up through this country and everywhere, and that our Heavenly Father will bring Dr. Dowie back safe and sound,

I am yours in Christ, MAGGIE B. MCGINNIS.

Perfect Healing of Stomach Trouble and Rheumatism in Answer to Prayer.

DAYTON, OHIO, December 1, 1900.

REV. WILLIAM H. PIPER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—I am trusting God more every day.

When you prayed for me this time I got a perfect healing.

My stomach trouble and rheumatism both left me. My bowels became regular, and I feel so well and happy, praise His Holy Name.

Now I can do my work with joy and gladness.

Faithfully yours in Christ, (MRS.) HENRIETTA V. ORDIN.

God Heals of Fever and Headache.

KEOKUK, IOWA, November 19, 1900.

DEAR BROTHER IN CHRIST:—We return many thanks to you for your prayers.

God answered.

On the 10th, at about 8:30 in the morning, our little daughter was healed.

She got up out of bed and remained up all day and until 10 at night.

The next day being Sunday, I took her to meeting, and she told, in the presence of quite a number, how her dear Heavenly Father had healed her in answer to prayer.

The fever and pains in the head had all been taken away, praise the Lord.

I am faithfully yours in Jesus, (MRS.) ALICE TIPPEN.

Healed of Epileptic Fits. Baby Healed of Eczema.

WINTERS, CALIFORNIA, November 14, 1900.

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

Dear General Overseer:—I have been thinking for some time that I would write you about my healing. I do praise the Lord for what He has done for me.

I wrote to you and requested prayer, and we also had prayer, and the Lord has healed me of that dreadful disease, epileptic fits.

Glory to God, He is such a merciful Saviour!

He has also healed our little babe, now five months old, of a disease something like eczema.

It was on her left cheek when she was born, and it kept spreading until it had gotten nearly over her whole face.

We had special prayer for her and my husband laid hands on her.

I am so glad we have given up the use of doctors and drugs and are trusting Jesus as our Healer.

Since I was healed the Devil has tempted me sorely, but I have complete victory in Jesus.

I thank you for praying for my healing.

May God bless you in praying for others.

God Answers Prayer for Healing of Injury.

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, November 29, 1900.

REV. W. HAMNER PIPER.

Dear Overseer:—I praise the Lord for what He has done for me.

Three weeks ago last Monday night I came home from the South Side, and as I came up the stairs I fell and struck my leg on the step. I was very badly hurt.

It hurt me so I did not know whether I could stand on my leg or not, but before I got up I prayed to the Lord to help me.

I knew, if I could not walk, that the first thing that my husband would want to do, would be to rub it with liniment.

I got up and walked around all right and got supper without very much pain, so my husband did not say anything about bathing my leg.

He did not know how badly it was hurt.

In the night it hurt me so that at times I would feel almost frightened, because I knew that if I could not walk in the morning my husband would be bound to do something for me. He believes in using remedies, and it makes it very hard for me.

I just prayed to the Lord to help me to be able to get up and walk on my leg, and He heard my prayer, so that I went around and did my work as usual with scarcely any hurting

I was not laid up with it for one moment.

I thank our General Overseer for teaching me how to pray, and I thank the Lord for what He has done for me in spirit, soul and body.

I have been healed of several things, for which I thank the Lord.

The Lord be with you all and bless you.

Your Sister in Christ, (MRS.) LORINDA STOKES.

Great Spiritual and Physical Blessing in Zion. Healed of Numerous Ailments.

ROSEDALE, OHIO, December 3, 1900.

REV. W. H. PIPER.

My Dear Overseer:—I have felt it my duty for some time to write a testimony telling of God's goodness to me and the blessings I have received from Him through Zion.

I first learned of Zion and our beloved General Overseer some time during the summer of 1897, when two copies of LEAVES OF HEALING were sent us. But I did not pay much attention to it at the time.

I was in poor health, and had been for some time, being troubled with catarrh, indigestion and other ailments.

About one year after we had received the first copy of LEAVES OF HEALING, I was thinking of going to Columbus, Ohio, to consult some skilled (?) physicians, when my mother said to me one morning, "Why do you not go to Chicago?" meaning, of course, to Zion.

From that moment I began to study. I hunted up the copies of LEAVES OF HEALING which I had heeded so little about a year before, read them, and the result was that I came to Zion Home in August, 1898.

I was in no condition to receive blessing. I had not been taught, had not studied my Bible (although a member of the M. E. Church for nearly eight years) and was doubtful and suspicious.

However, I was blessed spiritually and was much moved when I heard Elder Graves testify in Central Zion Tabernacle, one afternoon, to his healing of epilepsy.

But the Devil was after me and I took sick, catching a severe cold. I am very, very sorry to say I took medicine while there in the Home, contrary to the rules of the house.

I thought that my faith was insufficient for me to be healed, and that rather than to get down sick I had better take some medicine. You can easily see where I stood and how wicked I was.

I went home in poor condition, but the good seed had been sown, and after about thirteen months of "ups and downs," my own weakness and the Devil making life weary for me most of the time, I returned to Zion, Chicago, October 3, 1899. I sent in my application for membership in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion and was baptized on Lord's Day afternoon, October 8, 1899, by the General Overseer.

In September, 1899, after sending a request for prayer to the General Overseer, I was healed of a severe strain in my right side, and my eyes, which were very weak, were strengthened so that I was enabled to attend Zion College last autumn.

The strain in my side had troubled me a great deal, and my eyes were so weak that it was very difficult for me to read as much as one page of a paper.

My digestion is better, the catarrh is disappearing, and indeed my general health is greatly improved. I have gained in flesh. I thank God for it all.

I used to take a great deal of medicine and treated myself for nasal catarrh, using a douche, for over one year. But all to no avail.

I am satisfied that the atoning blood of Jesus Christ is better than all medicine, and I am so glad that we can go to Jesus with all of our ailments and troubles, and He is only too willing and able to help us.

Last winter while in Chicago I had a severe attack of the grip. Zion's faithful Elders prayed with me and in a few days the disease entirely left me.

In July of this year I took very sick with the bloody flux. God healed me. I was also healed of a breaking out on the face shortly before.

Last month I was healed of a severe cold. I praise God, to whom all glory is due.

I used to have some trouble with my heart at times, but I am thankful to say it does not trouble me any more.

It is good to be in Zion, and I have been greatly blessed.

God, through the General Overseer's clear teaching, has shown me that there is something besides simply pretending to be a Christian and being a member of the Church.

I have made a good many confessions and restitutions, and righted a good many wrongs.

I thank God that He sent His Messenger to us in this country.

I pray for the General Overseer and all Zion daily, trusting that God will bring His faithful Messenger safely back again to America.

Yours in Jesus' Name, HAROLD A. BLAND.

REV. JOHN G. SPEICHER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—. . . We had a good sister of the Church with us, and while I was gone for the nurse, which took about an hour and a half, my good wife was delivered.

We are so thankful that our Father did care for her and deliver her. The babe is a nice boy.

We have not had much trouble with him yet, and we know that God will keep him well and strong. We will trust all to Him.

My dear wife is doing finely, for which we praise God and give Him all the glory.

Pray also that we may have wisdom to bring the child up to the honor and glory of God.

Your Brother in Christ, C. R. MASON.

REV. W. H. PIPER.

Dear Overseer:—Your letter of November 20th, stating that you had prayed in behalf of our baby boy Rossy, was gladly received.

We knew that you bad prayed, for there was such a victory over the disease on the evening of the 17th.

He became very playful and has been so ever since.

We give God the praise and thank you for your prayers.

May God bless you and all Zion.

With love to all of Zion, I am

Toledo, Ohio.
Rev. J. C. Reiff, Elder-in-Charge.

Mrs. Charles R. Mason, of 540 Maumee Avenue, Toledo, Ohio, writes the following testimony to healing in answer to Elder Reiff's prayer:

DEAR ELDER REIFF.—I know you will rejoice to know how wonderfully God heard and answered your prayer for the healing of my eye, on November 6th.

As you know, my eye was very much inflamed and had been very painful for about thirty-six hours.

Within ten or fifteen minutes after you offered prayer and laid on hands, in the Name of Jesus, the inflammation began to decrease.

I retired at about 9:30 o'clock and slept well all night.

In the morning my eye was well.

I finished a piece of embroidery that afternoon, working about three hours steadily, and read the evening paper as usual, without any inconvenience whatever.

My eye has been well ever since.

We praise God continually for His goodness and mercy and thank you heartily for your prayers.

Mansfield, Ohio.
Rev. Cyrus B. Fockler, Elder-in-Charge.

God having brought Zion in Mansfield victoriously through the fire of persecution, He is now beginning to pour out upon her the blessings of His Spirit which always follow a great fight for righteousness and a great victory.

Zion in Mansfield has begun to grow.

The buffetings, the jeering, the revilings, the losses of position, business and friends, the desecration of their homes and the indignities heaped upon those who came to minister to them, have served to strengthen and purify the faithful members of Zion; to give them more courage, more love for one another, more loyalty to God and Zion. The inevitable result is, and will be increasingly, a rapid but substantial growth.

Already the regular Lord's Day morning and afternoon cottage meetings are beginning to increase in attendance, and God has very wonderfully blessed them by His Spirit.

Rev. S. H. Stokes, Elder-in-Charge at the South Side Zion Tabernacle, Chicago, was directed to minister to the Branch of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion at Mansfield on Lord's Day, December 2d.

He arrived in the city early in the morning and, instead of a howling mob or angry police officers, as a few weeks ago, found only railway employees at the station.

He inquired of them the way to the Vonhof Hotel, and was informed that a cab would soon arrive, which would convey him.

He accordingly waited a few minutes, then took the cab to the Vonhof, where he was courteously treated and had breakfast.

After breakfast he proceeded to the home of one of the members, where a most delightful Zion meeting was held.

Forty members and friends of Zion were present, an increase of fifteen over the previous Lord's Day s attendance.

It being the first Lord's Day in December, the Christians present gathered about their Lord's Table, for the second time since the persecution began. God was present in this quiet little communion service, and Zion was greatly encouraged.

The afternoon meeting was nearly as large as the morning gathering, and was a season of refreshing for those present.

Just before his return to Chicago, Elder Stokes was accosted by a member of the Mansfield police force, who asked if he were a "Dowie Elder." Elder Stokes replied that he was, and after a brief, friendly conversation with the policeman, went on his way.

From the railway station the Elder sent the following telegram, which was read in Central Zion Tabernacle at the afternoon service:

ERIE DEPOT, MANSFIELD, OHIO, December 2, 1900.

W. HAMNER PIPER,
1621 Michigan Avenue.
Breakfasted at Vonhof.
Two blessed services.
All quiet. S. H. STOKES.

The news was very gladly received, Zion rejoicing in complete victory.

Grand Rapids, Michigan.
Rev. James R. Adams, Elder-in-Charge.

The following are some testimonies given at a Praise and Testimony Meeting, held in Zion Tabernacle, Grand Rapids, on Thursday, November 29, 1900, Thanksgiving Day:

Arie Van Woerkom, 60 Hagadone Avenue, said: "I am grateful that I have been kept in health, as have my wife and children.

"On two occasions my aged mother was very sick. We called on Elder Adams, who came and laid hands upon her, praying God to deliver. She is now as well as though she had never been sick.

"I thank God I entered Zion. I have learned more of the Scriptures, and understand them more clearly. I find, instead of spiritualizing everything, that there is more spiritual power and value in the direct application of Bible truth.

"Six months ago I was working at the well. My wife stood near. Suddenly she began to cough. Then severe pains and hemorrhage followed. We took her into the house.

"I knew God would hear, so we prayed for her to be healed. The hemorrhage stopped, but the pain remained. When the Elder prayed for her she at once felt the power of God thrill through her body and an immediate perfect healing resulted. We give God all glory.

"I bear reproach for God and Zion gladly."

Miss Jennie White, 99 North Union Street, said: "We give thanks every day in Zion, not merely once a year. God has been merciful and kind; I have received many blessings.

"When I went North last summer I was timid, but God gave me courage to witness for Him.

"Ever since I can remember I have had a lump on my body. Recently it grew much larger, turning purple and discharging cancerous matter.

"After talking with my sister about it, I prayed earnestly. God heard and in three days it had completely vanished.

"I had goitre all my life. This year it grew worse rapidly. It interfered seriously with my breathing, and caused a cough.

"On November 4th I came to Elder Adams. He prayed for my healing.

"I grew worse until the next day, when the Elder prayed again. Since then it has improved. The swelling is gradually becoming less. My breathing is almost perfect.

"I have been brought nearer to God, receiving strength and peace."

Mrs. Coryell, 160 Clinton Street, said: "I have no need of poisons. Christ is my Healer.

"For thirteen years God has healed every affliction that has come upon any of my family. I take all to the Lord, and am free from disease, and rugged today.

"I have put away all defilement of the flesh and spirit. In Holy Living we have blessed company all the way.

"When my son-in-law, Mr. McBain, was sick, God delivered him from every attack. He said, 'How many things come upon me and how quickly they go.'"

Mrs. Eliza P. Baxter, 115 Summer Street, said: "I have much to thank God for. Week after Thanksgiving, one year ago, I lay on my bed. My relatives waited to see me die, all knowing how low I was.

"God delivered me.

"I praise His Holy Name, and return thanks to Zion for prayers, and that Dr. Dowie was sent to us with those blessed Words of Life.

"I bless God for LEAVES OF HEALING, which comes to us with the blessed truth that we can have faith in God. But for Him and this blessed faith I would have been under the sod a year ago.

"Last summer, when on the farm, I was attacked with eye trouble. I could hardly see. Then I wrote to Elder Adams for prayer. God showed me my sin. I gladly repented and received healing in half a day."

William Van Zee, 58 Ives Avenue, said: "I am thankful to God that I am in the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. In two instances I have been healed almost instantly this year.

"I have no use for medicine. I thank God I obeyed His servant and was baptized when the General Overseer was here. I am gaining in health this year and do more work than before."

William Linderman, 284 Grand Avenue, said: "This year, whenever we have called upon God, He has heard and healed us. My wife and several of the children have been sick. God quickly healed them in answer to the Elder's prayers.

"I had been healed of heart disease. About three months ago I realized that it was coming back. I asked the Elder to lay hands on me. He did so and prayed. Since that time I have had no trouble.

"When Elder Adams told me to take the Zion banner out on the street, I began to sweat. I asked God for grace to go out. He gave it to me. Some threatened to take the banner away, but God gave victory, and I had an answer for every man who asked questions.

"LEAVES OF HEALING brought this light to me. I came out of the Dutch Reformed Church and have learned to love the Word more and more every day.

"I am grateful for and love God's Messenger, Dr. Dowie."

Marion, Ohio.

Rev. Archibald McFarlane, Elder-in-Charge.

Elder McFarlane sends us the following testimonies given at a recent Praise and Testimony Meeting in Zion Tabernacle, at Marion:

Van B. Shumaker said: "Our daughter Bertha stumbled and fell with both hands on our baby's stomach, sending him into convulsions. We prayed, but did not seem to get an answer. He continued to suffer nearly all day. In the evening we sent a request for prayer to Elder McFarlane. Baby was almost instantly healed when the Elder prayed. We praise God for His mercy to us."

Howard Tonguett said: "God is giving us great blessings. I cut my hand on a paint can and it began festering. I prayed earnestly to God and He took all the pain away and healed me. Our baby was suffering very badly one night last week. We telephoned to Elder McFarlane for prayers and the baby went to sleep in a few minutes and was quite well in the morning."

Mrs. W. Griffiths said: "I had inflammation of the bladder so that I could not get about. I prayed and the Elder prayed and laid hands upon me, and I got well right away."

Mrs. Ella Rowe, of Ashley, Ohio, said: "I had an attack of rheumatism a few days ago. I called for Elder McFarlane, and he laid hands on me and prayed and, thank God, I am quite well again. I also wish to testify to a blessing for both seeing and hearing better than before I was prayed for.

"My mother and sister have also received great blessings in answer to Elder McFarlane's prayers."

George Grace said: "About four years ago I had the grip. I had some wrongs to make right and I did not want to lose the time from my work to go and make them right, but I found out that the Devil was after me. I went and got right with the parties I had wronged. I was free from the grip in a few days and able to work again.

"Our children had blotches all over their hands and faces. The Elder prayed for them and they are all well again. It pays to live pure in the sight of God."

Mrs. George Keifer said: "God has wonderfully blessed and healed our babe. She was very sick a few days ago. My husband had the Elder pray and she got well right away. We thank God for His blessings."

La Junta, Colorado.

The following report from Mrs. Margaret A. Mudgett, Conductor of the Gathering of the Friends of Zion at La Junta, Colorado, gives an interesting insight into the "days of small things" in Zion in this as well as many other places.

There is, in every work, a time of waiting and preparation, when one or two or a very few must stand firm for God, fully trusting Him; doing His work faithfully, knowing that His Word is never lifeless seed, but will in due time yield its abundant harvest.

No one can estimate the value of faithful work in the trying times of beginning. That is the work which the Gatherings of the Friends of Zion are called upon to do.

It is a blessed privilege to have a part in such a work for God, and Gatherings in scores of places are praising Him for the opportunity of thus serving Him.

We began active service here the last of August, with three members.

We have just filled out an application for membership from one other.

My sister-in-law and I sell papers Saturday evening. At first we sold sixteen; last Saturday evening we sold thirty-four.

There are just five saloons here, so we go to all the business houses. We have several regular customers.

Several are interested in Zion.

I am at present teaching two Chinamen how to read and write, and I hope to help them to accept the Saviour and bring them into Zion.

God has wonderfully blessed and healed us. Our little boy was delivered from scarlet fever and our other boy was protected so that he did not get it.

Six Bound Volumes of Leaves of Healing.

What six books, beside the Bible, could be more precious, more valuable to every member and friend of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion, than the first six volumes of LEAVES OF HEALING?

They contain more of the Everlasting Gospel; more testimonies to Salvation, Healing and Cleansing through Faith in Jesus Christ, the Son of God; more sound teaching, than any other six books published.

The world may scoff at that, but Zion knows it to be true.

Not only that, but these six Volumes contain, in some measure, the priceless record of God's dealings with Zion in these latter days. In them, as nowhere else, can be found the history of the mighty work which God has established for the extension of His Kingdom and the preparation of the world for the coming of Jesus as King.

In them is contained a large portion of the wonderful Message which God sent to the world by His Messenger.

In fact, when we stop to consider all the glorious things which have gone into the composition of these six Volumes, we find words insufficient and inadequate to express their value.

Those who have been saved, healed, cleansed, made prosperous and happy through the Message brought by one copy of the Little White Dove, perhaps know something of what a mighty storehouse of power these six Volumes are.

These Volumes have been bound, by Zion Publishing House, in strong, handsome black binding, half-morocco, with a graceful design, LEAVES OF HEALING, in gilt upon the front cover.

Each has a carefully prepared index covering all the principal subjects in the book.

They sell at the regular rate of $3.50 per Volume, or the exceedingly low rate of $15 for the six Volumes.

These books should be in every Zion household.

FORM OF APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

—IN THE—

CHRISTIAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.

To all who are desirous of entering into Fellowship with the Christian Catholic Church:

MY DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS:—The principles of the Christian Catholic Church have been fully set forth in the Reports of Two Conferences on Organization, held in Zion Tabernacle No. 2, which are fully reported in LEAVES OF HEALING for January 31 and February 7, 1896. The Basis of Fellowship is set forth in the second section of the Resolution passed on February 5th (see LEAVES OF HEALING, Volume II, Number 17, page 267):

FIRST—That we recognize the infallible inspiration and sufficiency of the Holy Scriptures as the rule of faith and practice.

SECOND—That we recognize that no persons can be members of the Church who have not repented of their sins and have not trusted in Christ for Salvation.

THIRD—That such persons must also be able to make a good profession, and declare that they do know, in their own hearts, that they have truly repented, and are truly trusting Christ, and have the witness, in a measure, of the Holy Spirit.

FOURTH—That all other questions of every kind shall be held to be matters of opinion and not matters that are essential to church unity.

All who are conscious of fulfilling these conditions, no matter where they may reside, are invited to fill up the following blank and answer the questions contained therein.

I am, faithfully yours in Jesus,

John Alex. Dowie

ZION'S BIBLE CLASS.

BY DEACON DANIEL SLOAN.

MIDWEEK BIBLE CLASS LESSON, DECEMBER 26th or 27th.

False Worship.

1. Ignorant worship.—John 4:20-26.
   Are not most so-called Christians ignorant worshipers?
   What constitutes intelligent worship?
   Do churches teach that man has a spirit?
2. Sensual worship.—Philippians 3:17-21.
   Why does a social bring out more than a prayer meeting?
   Are not the churches full of enemies of the cross?
   Why are they sensual creatures?
3. Vain worship.—Matthew 15:1-9.
   Is not observing holy days, except God's appointed days, a vain thing?
   Is not the veneration of saints a vain thing?
   Is not infant Baptism a vain thing?
4. Will worship.—Colossians 2:18-23.
   Do not some will to give up bad habits?
   Cannot some by will power touch and let things alone?
   How many man-made religions are there?
5. Philosophic worship.—Colossians 2:1-10.
   Are not ethical lectures a snare?
   What does the religion of the world leave out?
   Is not Christian Science a seductive philosophy?
6. Formal worship.—2 Timothy 3:1-7.
   Is most public worship anything more than form?
   Can a man who loves himself love God?
   Can there be worship when pride of form enters in?
7. Idolatrous worship.—Isaiah 44:9-15.
   Is image-worship still common?
   Who teaches people to pray to crucifixes?
   Who leads people to wear badges to remind them of their religion?
8. Devil worship.—Revelation 14:6-11.
   Will not men yet bave to worship the Devil or be threatened with death?
   What is the end of all who bow to the Devil?
   When will Devil-worship be very popular?

The Lord Our God is a Worship-Defining God.

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS LESSON, DECEMBER 30th.

There Are Few Who Are Saved.

1. Only a few seek to find salvation.—Matthew 7:13, 14.
   Where are the majority of people going?
   Why do so few find the narrow Way?
   Will it ever be popular to be a Christian?
2. Few maintain vital relations with God.—Luke 13:22-30.
   Is being a member of a Church being a Christian?
   Must one be near Christ, or be in Christ?
   Does Christ know those who do not fellowship with Him?
3. Few escape the delusions of money.—Matthew 19:16-26.
   Does the possession or the love of money shut out of heaven?
   How many love money who possess but a few cents?
   Can God get the heart that is full of money-getting?
4. Few who do not live for sensual enjoyment.—Matthew 24:36-41.
   What did most people live for in Noah's day?
   Is our day to be like unto his day?
   When will people awaken to this peril?
5. Few have any faith in God.—Luke 18:7-14.
   How do people show such lack of faith?
   Is there much true prayer?
   Is faith getting scarcer all the time?
6. Few only take God for spirit, soul and body.—Luke 12:22-32.
   Does God care for the body?
   What will He do for our body?
   What is the basis of His care for the body?
7. Few out of earth's billions are fully redeemed.—Revelation 14:1-5.
   How many billions are there on the earth?
   How many will go with Jesus when He comes?
   What sin shuts so many out of heaven?
8. Save yourself from the destruction awaiting the many.—Acts 2:37-47.
   Must not a man see to His own salvation?
   From what can a man save himself.
   How much of a margin will a man have in getting into heaven?

God's Holy People are a Minority People.

The First Step to a Zion Gathering, and Afterward a Zion Tabernacle.

In thousands of places throughout this country, as well as the world, this will be where two or three meet together in a given place "in whose hearts are the highways to Zion." They pray for the General Overseer and Leaders in this work, which is unquestionably God's Great Religious Movement for This Century and Until Jesus Comes.

A few who thus fear God above all things else, who will speak often one with another; who will study at some time during the week or Sundays these inspiring Bible themes on God's Relation to His Holy People with Reference to Their Spirits, Bodies and Lives, talking over the great things which God, who dwells in Zion, is now doing before a worldly Apostate Church and a gainsaying world; and who will see that Zion Literature, either LEAVES OF HEALING, A VOICE FROM ZION, or the many small tracts issued from the Publishing House, get into the hands of every professed Christian man or woman, whether they will hear or whether they will forbear, can be sure of results. For Seed Sowing, even in Tears, in Jesus' Name, will later bring a Harvest of Joy.

All-Night Assemblies with God in Zion.

1900-1901.

ZION is looking forward with great joy to the coming All-Night with God in Central Zion Tabernacle, at the end of the Nineteenth Century and the dawn of the Twentieth Century. Her General Overseer will be conducting All-Night Assemblies with God in London on that night, but he will be present in the meeting in Chicago in spirit.

All who love God and Zion are invited to attend.

We quote the following from the General Overseer's call to the All-Night Meeting of 1899-1900:

It gives me joy to say, in His Name:

"Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord;

"And He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His Paths:

"For out of Zion shall go forth Instruction."

Prepare your hearts for a blessing.

Let all evil be repented of and put away.

Purity is the Grace which is waiting to bless thee at the Door of the New Year.

"Bring a blessing, and you will get a still greater blessing."

"The pure in heart shall see God."

. . . . . .

"All things are now ready."

Come: for the feast is spead.

All Heaven attends at God's command to bless you in spirit, soul and body, for time, and for eternity.

ZION'S FIGHT AND VICTORY IN MANSFIELD.

Men Through Whose Courage and Faithfulness Christ Conquered, and Events Leading Up to the Triumph.

ONE of the most beautiful of the Christmas Crowns which Zion lays at the feet of her Lord and Master, Jesus Christ, on this His birthday, is the glorious Crown of Victory which He won, through her, at Mansfield, Ohio.

The singular beauty of that Crown is because of the suffering through which it was purchased.

Its shining gold was refined in fierce fires of persecution.

Its radiant gems are the rare jewels of Christian heroism and unquestioning obedience, cut and polished by the sharpness of conflicts in which mere physical violence was but an incident to the mighty clashing of spiritual forces.

Zion casts that Crown before His throne with songs and hallelujahs of joy.

She praises Him for the blessed privilege of being counted worthy to suffer "for the Word of God and the testimony of Jesus."

She kneels in deepest gratitude before Him who gave the Victory, "through our Lord Jesus Christ."

She remembers the cruel Crown of Thorns which He once wore. Beside the terrible agonies of that Crown and the Cross, the sufferings at Mansfield pale into insignificance.

She remembers that through His wearing of that Crown of Thorns, and suffering the pains of that Cross, she is enabled to win the glorious Crown of Victory.

The story of the persecutions at Mansfield covers a period of a little more than seventeen weeks, from Thursday, July 12th, to Lord's Day, November 4, 1900.

On July 12th a mob was formed, which forced an entrance into the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Leiby, hunting for Elder Cyrus B. Fockler. But the Elder had left Mansfield for Chicago.

On Saturday, July 21st, Elder Fockler and Evangelist Edward P. Fisher returned to Mansfield. Elder Fockler was dragged out of the hotel by a mob of three thousand, hurried through the streets to the gas-house, stripped, beaten, pinched and kicked, and finally rescued by the police, after a fierce fight. He was placed in jail for safekeeping and, at evening, taken out of the city by Mayor Huntington Brown.

On Lord's Day, July 29, 1900, Overseer William Hamner Piper, Evangelist E. P. Fisher, Elders A. W. McClurkin, G. F. Stevens, Archibald McFarlane and E. B. Kennedy, held services in Zion Tabernacle, at Mansfield.

On Monday, July 30th, Overseer Piper returned to Headquarters, Elder Kennedy went to Ada, Ohio, and that evening, while holding a meeting at the home of Mrs. Frederick, a widow, the other four officers were attacked by a mob, which wrecked the house. The police forced an entrance. The mob, following them, dragged out Evangelist Fisher and ElderMcClurkin and, having stripped them, painted them blue and subjected them to other indignities. Elders Stevens and McFarlane were severely bruised by stones which were thrown through the broken windows of the cottage. On the following morning the police forcibly ejected all four from the city.

On Lord's Day, August 5, 1900, Overseer Piper, Evangelist Fisher and Elders McClurkin and McFarlane returned to Mansfield, although threatened with death. Although they twice made the attempt, they were prevented by the Mayor and police from landing from the train. An angry mob of thousands was at the station.

Through all this persecution the General Overseer had been directing the movements of Zion's Elders and sending appeal after appeal to Mayor Brown, Sheriff Pulver, Governor Nash and President McKinley, demanding that the laws of the land be enforced and that civil and religious liberty, as guaranteed by the Constitutions of State and Nation, be vouchsafed to Zion's ministers. Upon him fell the great burden of the responsibility. He felt, in his deep sympathies, all the cruelties which had been inflicted upon his helpers.

On Thursday, August 9th, he left Chicago for his European mission, leaving Overseer-at-Large William Hamner Piper in charge of the work in America. To Overseer Piper, accordingly, fell the difficult task of directing the fight at Mansfield. Following up the policy entered upon by the General Overseer, he continued sending officers of the Church to Mansfield, appealing on several occasions to the city, State and National executives.

On Lord's Day, August 12th, Elders W. O. Dinius and Silas Moot went to Mansfield. They started to hold a meeting in a private house, but were seized by the police and driven out of the city to Crestline. On the following day they returned and were besieged in Attorney Douglass' office. Overseer Piper was warned by the attorney that they might be killed, but he ordered them to stay. They were again forcibly carried out by the police, however.

On Lord's Day, August 19th, Elder S. A. Walton and Evangelist W. E. Moody were met at the train by the police, taken to jail, and afterwards deported.

On Lord's Days, August 26th, September 2d and September 9th, Elder Ephraim Basinger was arrested by the police and sent out of the city.

On Lord's Day, September 16th, Elder Basinger succeeded in holding a meeting in a private house for about an hour. Then he was dragged out by a mob, pelted with various missiles, one of which inflicted a scalp wound, and forced on board an outgoing train. The police did not protect him. Messrs. Calver and Leiby, members of the Church, were also deported.

On Lord's Day, September 23, 1900, Elders Ephraim Basinger and Silas Moot were siezed by the mob, stripped, brutally beaten and painted with smokestack varnish. Other indignities were heaped upon them. The police offered no protection.

On Lord's Day, September 30, 1900, and several times during the week following, Elders Walton, Voliva and Richert, Evangelist Mark H. Loblaw and Deacon Sidney P. Fogwill were arrested and sent out of the city.

On Lord's Day, October 7th, Deacons A. F. Lee and Homer Kessler were arrested, placed in jail, then sent out of the city.

On Lord's Day, October 14th, Deacons Lee and Kessler succeeded in entering the city. Deacon Kessler was arrested by the police while conducting a meeting, and, followed by a jeering crowd, was taken to the train. He was struck by missiles and kicked. During the week which followed, he, Deacon Lee and Elder Edward Williams were repeatedly arrested and taken out of the city by the police, often with mobs at their heels. Elder Williams was stoned by a mob at Lucas, four miles from Mansfield.

Evangelist Mark H. Loblaw spent the week in the city, holding quiet meetings and visiting the members. He was hunted by mob and police, but succeeded in eluding them.

On Tuesday, October 16th, Deacon Kessler was arrested, but was taken from the police on a writ of habeas corpus. He was kept in jail, pending a hearing on the writ, by Judge Campbell, a week and two days, until Wednesday, October 24th. Then he was released, but the habeas corpus was not granted.

On Thursday, October 18th, a mob formed late at night under the eyes of the police and, forcing an entrance into many of the homes of Zion people in Mansfield, searched for Elders.

On Lord's Day, October 21st, Elder Williams and Deacon Lee made fruitless attempts to enter the city and hold services, mobs preventing them.

On Lord's Day, October 28th, Deacon Homer Kessler was arrested as soon as he entered the city and sent out on the train. Elder R. N. Bouck, who had been in the city since October 23d, succeeded in holding a meeting, but was arrested by the police immediately afterwards, dragged to the train, placed on board and held in the seat till the train started.

On Lord's Day, November 5th, the last mob gathered. For the first time, unmolested meetings were held and the Lord's Supper celebrated. Elder and Mrs. W. F. Matthews and Elder J. R. Armstrong conducted the meetings. Elder and Mrs. Matthews were hounded for hours by a mob, in the afternoon, and Elder Armstrong was kicked by cowardly ruffians, just as he was boarding the train. Papers had been made out with Judge Wolfe praying for an injunction to restrain the Mayor from interfering. Since that time, meetings have been quiet and unmolested and attended with much blessing.

Among those who have suffered most severely for Jesus' sake, whose portraits do not appear in the groups, are the faithful members of the Church in Mansfield. They have been reviled, have lost their positions, had their homes broken into and searched, and endured many other hardships. Their Christmas Crowns are diadems of beauty, for they are the Crowns of Life promised to the overcomers. A. W. N.

FIFTY THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS FOR LEAVES OF HEALING IN 1901!

WHAT a glorious watchword!

That is the cry in Zion for the remaining weeks of the year, and of the century.

Why should not LEAVES OF HEALING enter upon the Twentieth Century with fifty thousand copies going forth every week to regular subscribers, carrying its wonderful Message?

No agency is more powerful in the extension of the Kingdom of God.

Thousands and tens of thousands of happy children of God are praising Him today for the blessings in Salvation, Healing and Cleansing which have come to them and to their homes through LEAVES OF HEALING.

If we wrote pages we could not begin to tell of the wonderful works of love which God has wrought through the Message which has gone out in these pages. Week after week scores of testimonies to blessing are published, yet but a very small part of them are ever printed.

Eternity alone can tell the story.

In order to secure fifty thousand subscribers, and thus to greatly extend God's Kingdom, Zion Publishing House makes the remarkable offer of ten weeks' subscription for the first ten weeks of the new year for twenty-five cents!

Think of it—three hundred and twenty pages of LEAVES OF HEALING for twenty-five cents!

Think what glorious things these three hundred and twenty pages will contain.

One of the first numbers will contain an account of the All-Night of Prayer in Central Zion Tabernacle.

An early number will contain an account of the homecoming of the General Overseer, God willing, on January 17, 1900.

Reports of the glorious meetings which will then be held will follow, and toward the end of the ten weeks, accounts of the Fifth Anniversary Conferences will appear.

Besides these there will be Editorial Notes from the General Overseer, Testimonies and all the other regular departmental articles, not least among which will be the Cartoons by Mr. Charles Champe, Zion's talented artist.

You can send all these to a friend whom you desire to interest in Zion; to some erring brother whom you desire to see saved; to some sick one who is trying in vain to find healing in man's way; to some poor hungry child of God who has not the means to subscribe, for twenty-five cents.

Two dollars and a half will send ten copies for ten weeks.

Twenty-five dollars will send LEAVES OF HEALING to one hundred people for ten weeks.

You cannot apply the means which God has given you in a better way for the extension of His Kingdom.

Give as God has prospered you, and He will bless you.

This rate is good in the United States, Canada, Alaska and Mexico. In foreign countries the rate is fifty cents.

These subscriptions will be accepted on the following conditions:

First. All subscriptions must be accompanied by remittance, and all letters conveying these subscriptions must contain no other matter except your order and remittance.

Second. No address will be changed on these subscriptions, hence the necessity of complete and accurate addresses with your order.

Third. All subscriptions will begin with the first issue in January, 1901, which will be mailed January 5, 1901.

Fourth. No subscriptions will be accepted on the above terms after January 10, 1901. All subscriptions received after January 10, 1901, will be charged regular price.

Kindly use the addressed envelope we mailed you, in sending your subscription. If you have not received one, address all communications for these subscriptions to Zion Publishing House, Special Subscription Department, 1207 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

GOD'S MESSAGE FROM ZION AWAKENING EUROPE

Good Beginning in Zurich Mission. Many Attend From Various Lands. Work of Deaconess Brieger and German Leaves Blessed. Many Christians and Pastors Interested.

x Court House.

BIRDS'-EYE VIEW OF ZURICH, SWITZERLAND

ZION in Chicago and in America is now joyously counting the few weeks which must elapse ere the coming of that day of gladness when the General Overseer shall return.

It seems hard to wait, and yet, as the days are spent in happy, busy service for God, in the home, in the office, in the workshop, in the factory, they slip by with startling swiftness.

Meanwhile, thousands and tens of thousands of loving hearts are following the General Overseer and his party from place to place in their prayers and thoughts.

The cablegrams from Europe, which are read on Lord's Day afternoons in Central Zion Tabernacle, continue to be blessed to the thousands who hear and read them.

On Lord's Day, December 9, 1900, the following was read by Overseer Speicher:

ZURICH, December 9, 1900.

ZION, Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

Thanks for loving messages concerning return to Zion.
Hallelujah for Four Months' Holy War today.
Europe awakening to hear God's Message from Zion.
Good beginning Zurich today.
Meetings in Court House.
People attending from Germany, Austria, Hungary, Italy, France Russia, Northern Africa and other countries.
Deaconess Brieger's work and German LEAVES much blessed.
Many Christians and pastors interested.
Pray for mission here; also Paris, Grimsby, London and Boston.
Go Forward.
Mizpah. DOWIE.

This cablegram was sent just four months from the date when the General Overseer departed for his European Mission. Those four months have been four months of Holy War against unnumbered and bitter foes. It seemed at times as if the very hordes of hell were let loose upon the little Zion party.

But the General Overseer has gone on fearlessly, proclaiming the Everlasting Gospel when death was threatened again and again, and God has, in His Infinite Love and Mercy, protected and kept His Messenger and given him wonderful Victory.

Among all the Christmas Crowns which Zion will cast before the Throne of Christ the Conqueror, none will be more precious than this Crown of Victory, won through such unspeakable toil and danger.

Deaconess Brieger, whose work is referred to in the cablegram, is the Assistant Editor of the German LEAVES OF HEALING. Last summer she spent about four months in Zurich, Switzerland; Meran, Austria, and other places in that part of Continental Europe, spreading Zion Literature, and especially German LEAVES OF HEALING and the German tracts.

She has now returned to Zion Headquarters and is again in active editorial charge of the German edition.

It gives us great pleasure to give our readers a reproduction from a photograph of the beautiful City of Zurich, Switzerland, whence the General Overseer sent the cablegram printed on this page. This scene shows the Court House, where the General Overseer addressed people from three continents, very plainly, yet it is wholly inadequate to give any idea of the marvelous beauty of this historic city, with its river of blue, its purple hills and, towering over all, its mountains with their pure white snows glistening in the sunlight.

Zurich is on the Limmat River, and is one of the principal cities of Europe.

CHRISTMAS CROWNS FOR CHRIST FROM ZION.

A LARGE FAMILY SAVED, HEALED AND KEPT.

GEORGE DREYER. THEODORE DREYER, JR. LILLIE DREYER. HENRY DREYER. CARRIE DREYER.
KATHERINE DREYER. THEODORE DREYER, SR. MRS. ELIZABETH DREYER.

THEODORE DREYER, SR., and these members of his family were lead by the plain preaching of Overseer Piper to begin Holy Living. He was healed of the tobacco habit when prayed for. Blood-poisoning was eradicated in answer to Elder Voliva's prayers. He had formerly been healed of what appeared to be consumption.

MRS. ELIZABETH DREYER was healed of what the physicians called dyspepsia, catarrh of the stomach, kidney trouble and other ailments, in answer to the prayer of the Overseer-at-Large.

THEODORE DREYER, JR., testifies to deliverance from the whisky habit when at the point of death. Repentance and restoration and obedience were the terms upon which God gave him great blessing.

GEORGE H. DREYER came into Zion, and his anger at plain preaching was turned into hatred for vice and sin when he repented and turned to God. He gave up tobacco and liquor, and in exchange was filled with righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

MISS CARRIE DREYER thanks God for salvation from a life begun in wickedness, which was breaking the hearts of her mother and friends. While feeding on the husks, kind letters and the thought of home made the prodigal repent and return. Then there was great rejoicing over the lost one who was found.

MISS KATHERINE DREYER followed the example of her brothers and sisters, first in sin, then in righteousness. She is in Zion and receives much blessing in doing Seventy work, scattering the Message of Peace to others.

HENRY F. DREYER, while a Methodist, was living a sinful life, but often longed to know Christ. He heard the Gospel proclaimed by Overseer Piper, but did not like it at first. When he ceased rebelling and gave himself to God, he found that His yoke was easy and His burden was light. He was delivered from tobacco and liquor slavery and worldly pleasures.

LILLIE DREYER experienced the saving, healing and keeping power of God in Zion. He also took vanity from her heart and gave her the privilege of being a Zion's Saloon Seventy.

7. The Covenant now established.—Hebrews 8:7-13.
   Is not God entering into new Covenant relations with His people?
   Does God appeal first to the mind and then to the heart?

SUNDAY BIBLE CLASS LESSON, JANUARY 6th.

The Last Great Church Revival.

1. A prophetic glimpse of it.—Malachi 3:1-18.

   What have people to repent of?
   Is repentance God's message ere Jesus comes?
   What happens to those who will not obey the call?
4. The evils to be denounced. Isaiah 5:20-25.
   Who calls the medical science evil a good thing?
   Who says we have outgrown the healing power of Christ?
   Who will do almost anything wrong for money?
5. Vital ordinances are forsaken. Matthew 15:1-9.
   Do churches scoff at the ordinance of Triune Baptism?
   Do churches practice the unscriptural mode of infant baptism?
   Do churches say tithing is a money-getting scheme?
6. Church relations are meaningless.—Isaiah 65:1-7.
   Why is God now raising up a new Church?
   Is not an oyster supper for Church support an insult to God?
   Is not self-righteousness the cause of spiritual decline?
7. Those approved when Jesus comes.—Matthew 19:27-30.
   If a man forsakes all he has for God, what does he get?
   To what high estate does Jesus call us?
   Who hinders the full consecration of all to God?

All-Night Assemblies With God in Zion.

1900-1901.

ZION is looking forward with great joy to the coming All-Night with God in Central Zion Tabernacle, at the end of the Nineteenth Century and the dawn of the Twentieth Century. Her General Overseer will be conducting All-Night Assemblies with God in London on that night, but he will be present in the meeting in Chicago in spirit.

All who love God and Zion are invited to attend.

We quote the following from the General Overseer's call to the All-Night Meeting of 1899-1900:

It gives me joy to say, in His Name:

"Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord;

"And He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His Paths:

"For out of Zion shall go forth Instruction."

Prepare your hearts for a blessing.

Let all evil be repented of and put away.

Purity is the Grace which is waiting to bless thee at the Door of the New Year.

"Bring a blessing, and you will get a still greater blessing."

"The pure in heart shall see God."

. . . . . .

"All things are now ready."

Come: for the feast is spead.

All Heaven attends at God's command to bless you in spirit, soul and body, for time, and for eternity.

Read The Coming City.

For all matters pertaining to the founding and building of Zion City, there is no source of information, complete and reliable, but THE COMING CITY. The story of Zion City is being and will be told in its pages, both by descriptive articles and by engravings from photographs. The paper also contains much other interesting matter, such as science notes, household suggestions, special articles on matters of interest to Zion people, and the news of the day.

The paper also contains four pages of advertisements, carefully selected, most of the advertisers being Zion people. It is important that every member of Zion should get THE COMING CITY, not only for the valuable information which it will contain, but for these advertisements. By reading them they will learn who are the Zion business men and thus be able to coöperate with each other.

Zion people should be glad to go a little out of their way to trade at a Zion shop. Zion money is thus kept in Zion instead of going to fill the coffers of the world's people, and each feels the influence of the increase in general prosperity.

Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

THE COMING CITY will be sent, postpaid, for $1 for the first thirteen numbers. Address subscriptions to Zion Publishing House, 1207 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, U. S. A.

He sendeth His word PATIENCE and healeth them.

LEAVES OF HEALING

I am the Lord that healeth thee.

And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

A WEEKLY PAPER FOR THE EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD.

EDITED BY THE REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE.

VOLUME VIII. NUMBER 10. CHICAGO, DECEMBER 29, 1900. PRICE FIVE CENTS

GOD'S WITNESSES TO DIVINE HEALING.

INSTANTLY HEALED OF INTERNAL TROUBLE, TUMOR, CATARRH AND DEFECTIVE EYESIGHT.

HE SENDETH HIS WORD, AND HEALETH THEM. Hallelujah, God has sent His Word, the Eternal Logos, Jesus Christ, His Son. Through Him God has healed thousands and millions. He is still healing all who fulfil His conditions, through that Word, that Logos, today.

Clouds of Witnesses throughout all the earth are shouting the glad song of Salvation, Healing and Cleansing, through Him.

The happy woman whose pure face looks out from this page tells a wonderful Story of Healing through Christ.

It came to her when she was suffering intense agony with many terrible diseases.

She had experienced that healing power in her girlhood, through the simple faith of a child.

She had been completely restored to health when dying of consumption.

But the hell-born errors of the Lutheran and Methodist Churches, of which she was a member, obscured the truth as she grew older.

They taught her that God was the defiler; that He made her sick.

They taught her that she could not know His will about her health, hence must pray for healing with the words, "If it be Thy will."

Both are false. God, who is Purity and in whom there is no defilement, could not be the defiler.

MISS ANNA OESTREICH.

God said, on the other hand, "I am the Lord that healeth thee."

God sent His Son, "teaching, preaching and healing."

He sent His Son to "destroy the works of the Devil."

It is written of Him that He "went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the Devil."

It is the Devil who defiles and oppresses.

It is always God's will to heal.

Speaking in the person of His Son, He said to the leper who prayed, "If Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean," "I will."

That "I will" rings down through the ages, true to every man who meets the conditions.

It is absolute.

It cannot fail, because God said it.

Man may fail to trust and obey; but God cannot fail.

Such was the Message which came to this suffering woman from Zion. Eagerly she drank in the truth. By the Holy Spirit's power she began to trust God alone.

She wrote to God's Messenger to Zion, the General Overseer, asking him to pray for her healing.

A time was set for prayer.

As the time approached, she threw aside every human means.

She knelt in prayer in her room in a city in Iowa, while God's servant, in Chicago, besought God, "in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, in the Power of the Holy Spirit, and in accordance" with His own revealed Will, to heal her.

Instantly the prayer was answered.

The Spirit's Power came upon her, as she knelt, and she felt all her sickness leave her.

Diseases peculiar to her sex were gone.

A tumor which had been rapidly growing in her side disappeared.

Her body was cleansed of foul catarrh.

Her eyes, which had been affected for nearly five years, were perfectly restored, so that she laid aside her glasses.

A swelling on her neck was taken away.

She arose from her knees a perfectly well woman for the first time in years.

Now she is stronger, healthier, happier than ever before.

She rejoices in the strength which she uses for God.

She rejoices in Zion, which gives her work to do for God.

She praises God for a Message which brings men to Salvation, Healing and Holy Living through faith in Jesus Christ the Son of God.

We rejoice with her in all these glorious blessings.

We send her forth, our last Witness in the Nineteenth Century.

May God bless her testimony to thousands now suffering in the darkness of error, that they may see the Truth and enter the Twentieth Century, healed through His Word, Jesus Christ.

WRITTEN TESTIMONY OF MISS ANNA OESTREICH.

IOWA FALLS, IOWA, December 13, 1900.

REV. JOHN ALEXANDER DOWIE.

Dear General Overseer:—The Lord has done great things for me. I desire to let others know what God hath wrought.

It has been four years and four months since the Lord instantly healed me of many diseases, in answer to the General Overseer's prayer.

He has wonderfully kept me ever since.

Not one day's work have I lost, on account of ill health, these years.

I have gained forty pounds in flesh, and am at present in perfect health.

When I came home to Hubbard, Iowa, after my healing, people said that it would not last. But, praise the Lord, it has lasted in spite of all their false prophesying.

I have learned to love the Name of Jesus above every name in Zion. And it is because I love Him I write these lines.

I was raised in the Lutheran Church and confirmed at the age of fourteen years.

Never did I see the time when I did not wish to do what was right; but, Oh, it seemed so hard.

I never knew a well day in childhood. I never could play like other children.

When about ten years of age I began to cough.

I heard them say that I had consumption, and they whispered that I would not live long.

To die seemed dreadful, for I hardly knew where I should go, should I die.

I learned in school the story of Jesus, and how He used to heal the sick.

I believed that the Lord was somewhere near and would hear us if we prayed.

I began to pray. Often I went out all by myself and would ask God to heal me.

God heard that simple little prayer, and my cough got better until I was quite well, to the surprise of my parents.

I was well then for a number of years.

At the age of eighteen years I came to America, still not a child of God.

I was told that I was a Christian, being a member of the Lutheran Church.

Although I had been healed, I often questioned, "Why does God not heal as in the time of Christ? Has God really changed?"

I could hardly believe it, and yet the ministers all said so.

After being in America a few years I was again taken very sick. Again the Lord showed me that He was the Healer, and again the Lord instantly healed me after I had asked Him to forgive me and had promised Him that I would live a better life.

That year I united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. I gave myself to God the best I knew how.

Oh! what a joy to know that my sins were forgiven, and to have the assurance that I was a child of God!

The Word of God was food to me.

Life seemed worth living.

When I went to my pastor, he said that I would grow by doing Christian work. He suggested getting up suppers, raising money to help meet expenses, getting up entertainments and visiting the sick.

All these things I did faithfully; but it did not prove the blessing I had hoped to gain.

The burdens were too heavy. I began to have poor health; internal diseases.

My Bible seemed like a closed book.

Church entertainments had not proved to be a means of growth.

I had to stop and do only real light work.

My diseases were becoming worse.

I would not consult a doctor. I knew of no cases of internal diseases which they had healed, and I could not endure to even think of being treated by them.

A tumor on my side was growing rapidly.

I had a swelling on my neck.

I suffered with weak eyes and wore glasses for four or five years.

I had catarrh very severely.

For two years I could not sleep except when I lay on my back.

There was hardly a day when I did not suffer.

I had no ambition.

Life seemed a burden.

I saw nothing before me but the poorhouse.

I longed to live and work for God, and felt called of God to His work, but I was losing strength all the time.

It was about this time that I heard of Dr. Dowie's work in Chicago: how he prayed with the sick, and how they got healed just as in the time of Christ.

I said, "That must be a man of God. If the Lord heals His people in Chicago today, He will heal me, because He is no respecter of persons."

How wonderfully plain the words looked to me, "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, yea and forever."

It was all true, and I would be healed.

I began to pray, but had to learn how.

I had been taught in the Methodist Episcopal Church to always say, "If it be Thy will."

What a joy it was to find He was "the same."

I soon wrote to the General Overseer and received a very kind letter in return. He did not ask a large fee to pray, but told me to let alone medicine and doctors, and put my case in God's hands.

This was just what I needed, for I had plenty of drugs, though I thought not to use them.

I filled out a request for prayer and sent it to Chicago, setting time for Dr. Dowie to pray.

The day and hour named I emptied out all of my medicine, and resolved to trust God or die.

At the time appointed I went to my room. What a time of searching it was!

Would I be willing to tell people what God had done for me? Yes, I would.

Would I suffer for their sake; be willing to be called a fool; willing to lose all my friends; willing to give my whole life unto His work? Yes, I would by His help, and He could give me strength.

Then there was such a sweet calm.

I asked the Lord then to fill me with His Spirit, and heal me for His glory.

A warm thrill went all through my body three times.

I arose from my knees.

I was healed.

The swelling on my body was gone, and so was the pain.

My head seemed so clear.

I could read fine print with ease, and have read without my glasses ever since.

To God be all the glory.

The Lord has kept me.

The Bible seems like a new Book.

Serving God does not seem hard any more, but it is a joy.

I am asked quite often, by those who knew me when I was sick, "What are you doing to make you so healthy?" to which I joyfully answer, "I am trusting the Lord as my Healer and Keeper, and He never overworks me or makes me sick."

I am thankful for the teaching we get through LEAVES OF HEALING, and thank the Lord for our wonderful leader under God.

I have now been two years in Zion, a member of the Christian Catholic Church.

They have been the most blessed years in my life.

I see real fruit in these two years.

I was baptized in Central Zion Tabernacle, Chicago, just a little over a year ago.

I have had the privilege of telling what God has done for me, and have been able to scatter Zion Literature, which the Lord has blessed.

I am often asked why I left the Methodist Church.

I did not wish to leave it. I loved it, and longed to see it receive a Full Gospel; but I could not do it.

The members would question even my healing, of which I am so sure.

My two years in the M. E. Church after my healing were void of any good, and perfectly fruitless.

I am glad to be with a people where I can tell of what God has done for me.

People listen to me, and I have seen a number saved and a great many healed.

May the Lord keep and watch over our leader under God and spare him to us many years.

Yours faithfully in Jesus, (MISS) ANNA OESTREICH.

ZION BABIES

It has been the custom in the medical profession to instruct the people that there is grave and serious danger at the time of childbirth.

That it was absolutely necessary that a physician should be in attendance at that time.

That it might not be absolutely necessary for a physician to be called in to every case of sickness, but that it was a great crime not to have a physician present at this time of woman's great sorrow and travail.

We are thankful to God that this false theory has been exploded in Zion together with many other false theories of the medical profession.

Not only do we have no physician whatever among all our people in Zion in any time of sickness or accident, but neither do we have physicians or midwives at the time of confinement.

The Word of God teaches very plainly that God will be with the woman in child-bearing in a special manner.

See First Timothy second chapter, 13th to 15th verses (Revised Version) especially the 15th. "But she shall be saved through the childbearing if they continue in faith and love and sanctification with sobriety."

By the atoning blood of Jesus Christ the curse has been taken away from child bearing just as the curse of sickness has been taken away, not that we have fully attained to it, but we are attaining, and we do thank God most heartily for the hundreds of testimonies that are coming in telling about how God has wondrously saved through childbearing and kept from all suffering and pain and trouble when there has been perfect dependence upon God and no doctors nor human means.

We take great pleasure in presenting to the readers of Leaves of Healing the pictures of scores of dear Zion babies who are children of promise indeed whose mothers have been faithful to God and who have gladly taken upon themselves the duties of maternity, and who at the time of their need have sent not for the physician, but called upon the name of the Lord Who delivered them.

These pages of pictures are the pictures of babies born in Zion. Are they not a fine lot? They are only a few but they represent hundreds of others whose photographs we have not as yet been able to obtain.

We hope to be able in the future to add many others to these groups that we here present to you.

As you look into the sweet faces of these dear babies, we are sure that your hearts will rejoice that Zion's God has fulfilled His word in every particular to His faithful people. In Zion there is growing up a generation of children who will be strong for the Lord, and who will not know what it means to have trusted in human help in time of need.

May God bless this testimony with the scores of babies whose names are here given and the proof to the world that it is safer to trust in God than to trust in the arm of flesh.

In all the work of Zion there has not been the loss of one mother who has trusted in God alone, and almost without exception the babies are strong, healthy, hearty and happy and a delight to the home and to Zion.

NOTES OF PRAISE FROM ZION MOTHERS.

Speedily and Easily Delivered of Twin Boys.

PORT HURON, MICHIGAN, December 5, 1900.

REV. J. G. SPEICHER.

Dear Overseer Speicher:—I desire to give my testimony to what God has done for me, that His Name may be glorified and others may be strengthened in faith.

We praise Him for the wonderful deliverance He gave me in childbirth and for the gift of twin sons.

Previous to our trusting God, I gave birth to our first child after thirteen hours of severe suffering, and I know that but for God I would have had a similar experience this time.

But He was present with us to deliver, and, claiming the promise in 1 Timothy 2:15, we simply asked for a speedy deliverance, and God graciously answered. Both children were born in just one hour and twenty minutes from the time I was certain labor had commenced, each child weighing six pounds.

He also blessed me by giving a speedy recovery free from any complications.

We cannot praise Him enough for His wonderful goodness to us, and hope this testimony may bring a blessing to others.

Sincerely yours in Christ, (MRS.) T. G. HOWARD.

PORT HURON, MICHIGAN, December 3, 1900.

REV. J. G. SPEICHER.

Dear Overseer:—It is with great joy that I confirm the testimony of my wife. Psalm 107:15.

As an ex-physician, I wish to add a few words, and in so doing must say that if there is any time when the Lord's presence and the doctor's absence is desired and required, it is in this trying hour—a time dreaded instead of longed for by women in general.

But thanks be to our Father for "His Unspeakable Gift," who has destroyed the curse of the law and the fear of doctors and devils at that hour.

On Lord's Day, November 4th, at 9:15 P. M., I got home from service.

My wife's mother was with her, but the signs were so slight we did not know whether it was necessary for her to remain with us over night.

At 10 o'clock we concluded that labor had set in, although pains were not severe; so I left to call one of our Zion sisters to come and remain with us over night.

At 11:10 the first child was born with but one strong "pain."

At 11:20 the other was born.

During all the time we had perfect confidence in God's promises, and looked to Him, and Him only.

After the birth of the second child, and a wait of my old prescribed time for the after-birth, the Devil tempted me to remove it and so get through quickly, but we just asked God for confidence and completion of the work.

However, the Lord let us wait a half hour; then one came, and then about one hour longer for the second. But the time did not drag, as we spent it in praise and prayer.

Nevertheless, it was somewhat trying on my surgical knowledge (?), I must admit.

However, the Lord knew all about these things. 1 Corinthians 1:25.

What I had to do was to wait on the Lord.

The recovery was speedy and free from any annoyances.

The "third day long-to-be-remembered dose" was, of course, omitted, and instead we asked the Lord to look after that and give us the desired action of the body, which prayer was answered without the slightest distress to the mother.

Both children and mother are doing well, for which we thank the Lord.

We also feel very grateful to our General Overseer for his boldness through Christ to preach the Full Gospel which calls men to Repentance and right living and out of the apostate denominations, where the willingness of God to care for the bodies of His people is denied.

Praying that these few words may be a help to some one if you see fit to publish them, I am

Faithfully yours, T. G. HOWARD.

The following is an extract from a report of a Saturday evening Testimony Meeting in Zion Home:

Deacon J. H. Sayrs, Zion Home (formerly of Cedarville, Ohio), said: "I praise God for the birth of a little girl in Zion this week. The Lord blessed my wife wonderfully in this confinement. What the physicians know as labor that is no good came on, and through prayer it immediately changed, and the Lord gave deliverance. There seemed to be no food for the baby. Overseer Speicher prayed, and in thirty minutes there was plenty of food."—Volume VII, Number 10, page 315.

The following testimonies to God's deliverance of mothers in Zion from the curse, in the Name of His Son, who came to remove the curse, and by the power of His Holy Spirit, have recently been published in LEAVES OF HEALING:

REV. JOHN G. SPEICHER.

Dear Brother in Christ:—. . . We had a good sister of the Church with us, and while I was gone for the nurse, which took about an hour and a half, my good wife was delivered.

We are so thankful that our Father did care for her and deliver her. The babe is a nice boy.

We have not had much trouble with him yet, and we know that God will keep him well and strong. We will trust all to Him.

My dear wife is doing finely, for which we praise God and give Him all the glory.

Pray also that we may have wisdom to bring the child up to the honor and glory of God.

REV. WILLIAM HAMNER PIPER.

Dear Overseer:—I thank you very much for praying for me, and also my dear Heavenly Father for answering your prayers.

I have a nice baby girl who is very good; no trouble at all.

I was not sick at all to speak of.

I had no doctor nor medicines, only a midwife with me.

DEAR GENERAL OVERSEER:—I feel it my duty as well as a privilege to testify to being safely delivered in childbirth, without the aid of a physician.

I wrote to you previous to my confinement to pray for me.

In February I received a great spiritual blessing by having Elder Brooks pray with me.

He told me that as long as I kept the devil of fear out, I would be delivered safely.

On March 31st my baby was born. I sat up the third day, and improved very rapidly.

I wrote to you a short time before I was confined to pray for me, and by the time my letter reached you, I began to improve.

I knew you had prayed for me, for I felt so differently, I felt so strong.

On the 10th of May my baby was born. I sat up and combed my hair the third day.

A Voice to Zion and God's People in Every Land.

O thou that tellest Good Tidings to Zion, Get thee up into the High Mountain Lift up thy Voice with strength: Lift it up, be not afraid: Say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God! Isaiah, XL: 9.

THE EVERLASTING GOSPEL DECLARED.

Report of Divine Healing Meeting held in Central Zion Tabernacle, Tuesday Afternoon, July 17, 1900. Discourse: "Knowing and Doing God's Will."

REPORTED BY S. D AND E. W. AND A. W. N.

ABOUT three weeks before his departure for his European mission, the General Overseer conducted a Divine Healing meeting at Central Zion Tabernacle, with great power and blessing. The Saturday previous was the glorious day upon which the Site of Zion Temple at Zion City had been consecrated to God in the presence of 10,000 people.

The wonderful power of that never-to-be-forgotten scene was fresh in the hearts of the people as they heard the teaching of the Messenger of God concerning the great truth of Divine Healing.

The all-important lessons of Repentance, Faith and Obedience were forced home with firmness and fearlessness, and yet with love, so that many were led to cry to God in sorrow for sin and determination to confess, restore and do right.

Although the General Overseer has not revised the report of that discourse, we pray and believe that God will, by His Holy Spirit, carry the truth spoken into many a weary, sin-sick heart, and not only reveal the obstacle which is blocking the way to God, the way to salvation, the way to healing and cleansing, but will lead that heart to turn to God in prayer for strength and grace to remove the obstacle, and receive His full blessing.

Central Zion Tabernacle, Tuesday Afternoon, July 17, 1900.

The General Overseer took charge of the meeting, which was opened by the congregation singing Hymn Number 167:

What a friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear;
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer.
Oh, what peace we often forfeit,
Oh, what needless pain we bear—
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer.

The General Overseer said, in commenting upon the hymn:

Leave Sorrows, Griefs and Sicknesses With the Lord.

Beloved friends, I do not believe that our sorrows, griefs and burdens come "because we do not carry everything to God in prayer." I think my brother down there with that silver trumpet has taken his deafness to the Lord in prayer many times. He has the deafness still. He took it to the Lord in prayer, but the trouble was because he did not leave it. It is just as if I were to represent the sickness by this book. You have a burden and go to God with it in prayer. You lay it down before the Lord, and have a very good time in prayer. When you are through with prayer, you take up the same old burden again, and carry it away.

If I carry a burden to the Lord, I leave it with Him. I do not have that burden any longer. I leave it with the Lord.

I do not care to speak much of myself, but that has just been the secret of power in many departments of my life. I have a trouble. It is a sore trouble. I take it to the Lord in prayer, and I leave it there. I never bother myself any more about it. I will not let it trouble me. I will not take it up again on any account.

I go to the Lord. I tell Him that I am there to cast my burden on Him. Off it goes. I am done with it.

I say, "Father, You told me to cast it upon You, and I have."

When I am weary, I put my weariness on the Lord, and that is why I am here today. My weariness is gone. I had a bad throat last night. I took that to the Lord. It is gone. I can shout now as loud as anybody. I had not been talking enough. That was the only trouble. (Laughter.)

Cast thy burden on the Lord. "Roll it off," literally, in the Hebrew, upon the Lord. He longs to take your burdens. "Cast all your anxiety upon Him, because He careth for you." I believe that if you were to leave it with the Lord in prayer, before the meeting is five minutes older you would have no more sickness. I have known of many, many cases of people leaving the burdens there with the Lord just at this point. Let me read the next verse, then, as I would like you to sing it now:

Have we trials and temptations?

Trials, Temptations and Troubles Must be Expected.

If you have not, I do not take any stock in your Christianity. If you are not tried and tempted, you have not the signs of a Christian; because the Devil does not bother himself about you.

Is there trouble anywhere?

You are sure to have trouble everywhere. I know that I will have trouble everywhere.

The Apostle Paul said that bonds and imprisonment awaited him in every city. He knew that he would get into jail in every place where he went. Nice prospect, that! I do not wonder that he did not carry around a wife.

He knew he was going to prison everywhere, but he left that with the Lord and triumphed.

The next words are:

We should never be discouraged.

Shall we sing: "Take it to the Lord," or shall we sing it, "Leave it with the Lord"?

Which is best?

Voices—"'Leave it with the Lord.'"

General Overseer—Will you do that?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Are you sure about that?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—I will test you very soon. Will you ask God to show you today how to leave it with the Lord?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Do that now. Do not sing "Take it to the Lord in prayer."

I am tired of people taking things to the Lord and then taking them back. I am sure the Lord must be tired of it, too.

The Lord must be tired of a woman who comes saying, "Oh God, I have a great burden of sorrow, and I want to bring it to Thee." And she brings it, and when she is through she rises up and heaves a heavy sigh, and she has the same old heavy burden still.

If she had left that with the Lord, she would have come away with a song, and not with a sigh.

If you will leave it with the Lord, you will come away with a song, and not with a sigh. You are delivered.

Sing it, "Leave it with the Lord in prayer."

Referring to the third verse, the General Overseer again said by way of comment:

Are we weak and heavy laden,
Cumbered with a load of care?

If we are not sinners, we have no right to be cumbered with loads of care. Our cares ought to be cast on the Lord. He undertakes it, and you have no right to carry what the Lord Himself says He will carry.

Precious Saviour, still our refuge,—
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?

Friends Do Not Despise and Forsake You.

"Yes," says somebody, "that is the trouble. I have friends who despise me. I have friends who have forsaken me."

That is not true. You never had a friend who despised you. You never had a friend who forsook you.

"Why do you say that?" some one may ask.

Because the Bible says:

A friend loveth at all times,
And a brother is born for adversity.

If the person who called himself your friend forsook you and despised you, it proved that you had made a great blunder in supposing him a friend.

He never was your friend. He may have been the friend of Old Pocketbook. He may have been the friend of Old Cupboard. He may have been the friend of Old Flesh, but he was not truly your friend.

There is this about friendship, that if a man has Divine friendship for another, he will stand by his friend all the more in the day of trouble. That is the time we need a friend. True friends will never despise you, and never forsake you.

A man is standing in my presence now whose heart was broken by that thing. He had been a true Christian. He had gone astray, and had become a drunkard.

Somebody said to me, "Oh, that fellow is no good; do not bother about him."

I said, "I will never cease to pray for him. I will never cease calling him back."

Every chance I could get I went at him, and at him, and at him. Once when he had gotten down to the lowest, and was about to commit suicide, I sent one who had wronged him to make it right. That one confessed his sins. When he did, this poor man broke down. He said, "If I do not believe in God, I do believe in Dowie. I will promise the Doctor that I will come this afternoon."

He came that afternoon, and then, of course, I spanked him properly. He gave himself up again to God.

No one who has ever been a friend has either forsaken or despised you.

Some of you women are breaking your hearts because of some unworthy man who said he would be your friend, your lover, your husband, who now forsakes and despises you.

Do not trouble about it. He never was your friend. He never was your lover, and he was never a true husband. If he had been, he would have been your friend at all times. He would have stood with you. Do not worry about that. Leave it with the Lord in prayer.

Worry Over False Friends Keeps Back From Blessing.

That keeps a great many people back from healing. They have sorrow because of somebody who has done them a wrong, and that is always in their minds. They do not leave it with the Lord, therefore they cannot pray.

In His arms He'll take and shield thee,
Thou wilt find a solace there.

Just as you sang that last verse I opened a letter and here are the first words of it:

REV. JOHN ALEX. DOWIE,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear General Overseer:—Last February and March my daughter was in great trouble. Her husband was trying to get her to do a thing which was wrong.

I wrote you and you replied, telling her to leave it with God in prayer, and that you had prayed.

I am happy to say that your prayers and ours were answered, and that she is now traveling with her husband, who is a traveling man.

All that is over. She goes on to tell me of having received a great blessing. She says that the man has not really yet surrendered himself to God, but that the wrong thing which he wanted his wife to do, he does not want her now to do. The prayer has been answered, and the trouble is gone.

She now asks me to pray for his conversion. She says:

Will you please pray for my daughter again, and for my baby boy?

I received a great blessing on Saturday, July 14th, when I went to Zion City Site. I came home feeling a hundred per cent better than when I went.

While there I felt I was walking on sacred ground.

My blessing was spiritual as well as physical. I shall be a more earnest Zion Seventy worker for having visited Zion City Site.

I thank God for the blessing received on Sunday afternoon.

She then goes on to ask God to protect and bless myself and my family. She encloses her thankoffering and asks me to pray for her.

Here is another letter with a special contribution for Zion's work:

We humbly enclose a check for $——.

God has been very good to us, and we feel all we have or ever expect to have He has given us through your agency.

May God keep and protect you for many years.

Testimony to Healing When Dying.

I remember this man. He was dying when his wife came and asked us to pray.

Are you here, Marshall Moulton?

Mrs. Moulton—"He is not here, Doctor."

General Overseer—You wrote this letter, did you?

Mrs. Moulton—"Yes, sir."

General Overseer—You remember when you came to me when he was dying?

Mrs. Moulton—"Yes, indeed I do."

General Overseer—Dying. He was a sinner, too?

Mrs. Moulton—"Yes, sir; unsaved."

General Overseer—They were making arrangements to take his body up to Wisconsin, when it suddenly struck him they had better ask God's servant to pray for him. They came to me—at the Auditorium, was it not?

Mrs. Moulton—"Yes."

General Overseer—The man was blessed so that he was able to give himself to God and get salvation and healing. Now that man has been able to give his tithes and this and other offerings to the Lord.

When that good woman came to me, she was in great trouble.

I said, "Leave it with the Lord."

"Oh Doctor," she said, "he was dying when I left."

I said, "He will be all right when you get back there."

And he was all right. She believed what I said.

The trouble with the great majority is that they are not sure of anything.

I will read with you the Word of God. I believe that I will read the eighth chapter of Matthew, that favorite passage which I often read when I have a Divine Healing talk.

The Importance of Following Jesus.

When Jesus was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed—the Apostle Peter.

Voices—"'Followed Him.'"

General Overseer—"Great multitudes followed James."

Voices—"'Followed Him.'"

General Overseer—"Followed John."

Voices—"'Followed Him.'"

General Overseer—"Followed Martin Luther."

Voices—"'Followed Him.'"

General Overseer—"Followed John Wesley? Followed the Masonic Methodist Church; the Baptist Church?"

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—Whom did they follow?

Voices—"Jesus."

General Overseer—I know many people who say they are Methodists first, last and all the time. What are you? Do you follow Jesus first, last and all the time?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Are you willing to follow Jesus if He leads you out of the Methodist Church?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Are you willing to follow Jesus wherever He leads you?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Then He will lead you to the water tomorrow afternoon, all of you who are unbaptized. (Laughter.) You disobedient ones! You will have to be baptized properly. Some of you have only been dipped once and think that is all right. It is not all right at all. You must be baptized into the Name of—?

Voices—"The Father."

General Overseer—And of—?

Voices—"The Son."

General Overseer—And of—?

Voices—"The Holy Spirit."

General Overseer—You must do it because Jesus said it. You must do what He tells you.

Are you willing to follow Him this afternoon?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Whenever you see where Jesus is, will you follow there?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—All right. You remember you promised me that at the start, and I will keep you to it.

And behold, there came to Him a leper and worshiped Him, saying, Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean. And He stretched forth His hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

Jesus Instructed the Leper to Give a Most Convincing Testimony.

Some people think that when that leper was healed, Christ told him not to tell anybody about it.

That is not what the Bible says that Jesus said. He said:

See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest.

The Levitical law said that he was to go and show himself to the priest to see if there were any leprosy there. If, after repeated examinations and periods of quarantine, he found that there was no leprosy on the man's body, he told the man to bring his offering of blood, and his wave offering, and his oil offering. When that was offered and accepted by the priest, the man was declared clean before all the congregation.

If that leper had gone and done that, the priest himself would have had to testify that the leper had been healed by Jesus' power. But the Gospel according to St. Mark says that he did not do it.

I suppose he thought somewhat in this way: "What is the use of going to that old priest with either doves or lambs or oil, or anything? He had nothing to do with my healing. I will not go near him."

Then he went back to his friends. When the priest, who was the sanitary officer, saw him, he probably said, "Go away. You have not offered the gift which Moses commanded. You have not been declared free and clean."

The man would have to go away, back into the tombs. That is what he did, because the first chapter of the Gospel according to St. Mark and the last verse says:

See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to spread abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into a city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

It was not Jesus, because the very next verse says that Jesus entered into Capernaum that very afternoon. That was at the beginning of Christ's ministry, and He went in and out of great cities all the time.

It was the leper who could not enter into any city. It was the leper who had to stay out in desert places.

The Great Necessity for Obedience.

The leper did not do what Christ told him after he was healed. That is the trouble with a great many people who get the healing: they do not do what Christ tells them. They go away out into desert places, and there they stay. They go away back into the desert of Methodism. They go away back into the desert of the Baptist Church. They go away back into the desert of these apostate denominations, where they are not allowed to testify to their healing. They can find no green thing to feed upon there in the deserts, and they are no use at all.

Away out in the desert the Lord healed them. He commanded them to come out from these deserts, but they would not do what He told them. They would not be baptized. They would not yield. They said they were born in the Methodist Church, and that they would die in it.

Yes, and they die there soon.

That man could not go back to his wife and family, because he did not offer the gifts. He had to go out with the lepers, although he was healed.

He was wilful and he would not give what the Lord commanded him to give.

There are some of you who will not give your tithes and your offerings. You are away out in the desert, even after you are healed.

When You are Healed, Offer the Gift Which Christ Commanded.

When you are healed, offer the gift which Moses commanded. Offer the gift which Christ commanded. That is a higher gift. Do what God tells you.

And when He was entered into Capernaum, there came unto Him a centurion, beseeching Him, and saying, Lord, my servant lieth in the house sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

Jesus saith unto him, Let him send for the best doctor in town. Let him take all the medicine he gives, and then let him pray to Me, and I will heal him through the doctor.

Is that what He said?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—That is what the parsons say. But they do not tell which doctor. Just as if there were only one kind of doctor.

"Send for the best doctor," some of them say.

Who is the best doctor?

Voices—"Jesus."

General Overseer—Beloved friends, one of the saddest things in our experience last year was the conflict we had with Dwight L. Moody. In this city he spoke in contemptuous tones, not merely about myself, but about the doctrine of Divine Healing.

One day amid the laughter and applause of the people—unthinking people—he said, "Beware of the cranks who would tell you to go to God for healing when you are sick. If I were to get sick, I would send for the best doctor in Chicago, and I would ask God to use that doctor."

That very next day he took sick.

He sent for the "best" doctor, and he got sicker. One or two days later he went to Chicago University and tried to talk. He could scarcely open his mouth. He went back to bed. He sent for another "best" doctor.

He had to hurry back to Northfield, Massachusetts, amidst the laughter and the scorn of even the world, who said,

"Moody, it did not pan out. It did not turn out right, did it? Dowie has the better of it."

Dwight L. Moody Found, Too Late, That Jesus Was the Best Doctor.

He got a little better. He went down to Kansas City, still mocking at Divine Healing. He began his mockery there, and again his mouth closed right up. He was so sick that he had to be taken away in a few days back to Northfield. There he sent for the "best" doctor. The "best" doctors had him until he was in the throes of death. Then the good man awoke to it and said:

I am not at all sure but that God may perform a miracle and raise me up. I'm going to get up. If God wants to heal me by a miracle that way, all right; and if not, I can meet death in my chair as well as here. . . . Take those away, we do not want them (referring to hot applications), and the first thing I suppose we should do will be to discharge the doctor.

He walked to a chair.

Then, as W. R. Moody himself said, they all persuaded him to go back to bed, and let the doctor have him again. He went back to bed, and the doctor had him again, and he was dead in an hour.

Jesus said, "I will come and heal him."

Did he not say that for Moody?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Did He not say that for me?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Did He not say that for you?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Did not God say, "I am the Lord that healeth thee"?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Did He not say that, by the waters of Marah, 1500 years before Christ came?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Is He "the same yesterday and today, yea and forever"?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Then does He say it still?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—If any man mocks at that truth, will he be blessed?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—He will die, no matter who he is. God will allow none of His people to mock at His Word.

Divine Healing is not a new thing.

It is forever true. God gave it. God entered into that Covenant of Healing with His people, and those who say that it is not true, have sinned. God will not let them sin with impunity.

I said that to Mr. Moody, and I kept saying so. I kept warning Moody all the way along that he would die, if he did not stop, and he died.

I am very sorry, because he was a man of God. He did much good. I would that he were alive now and able to proclaim the Everlasting Gospel in all its fulness. He mocked at Christ as the Healer. He mocked at Divine Healing.

Death Has Been the Fate of All the Mockers at Divine Healing.

Let any man mock at this truth, and he will die. God will just leave that man alone and the Devil will kill him.

I could name many prominent people of this city and land who have mocked at Divine Healing, who do not mock any more, because their mouths are full of dirt. Their eyes are full of dirt. They are six feet below the ground so far as their bodies are concerned. If their spirits ever got into heaven, it was by the mercy of God.

Dr. James Etheridge, professor in the Rush Medical College, lived across Michigan Avenue from this Tabernacle. Two sweet Zion girls, members of Zion's Seventies, called there with their Message. Dr. Etheridge came out and said, "If you bring any more of this trash about Divine Healing to this house, you will do so at your own physical peril."

They came next week, but they found crape upon the door. The hand which had threatened to strike them was cold in death.

In Indiana Avenue another doctor said, "If you come next week, I will strike you."

Next week came, and they called; but that man had committed a murder that week and was in Cook County Jail, waiting to be tried and hanged.

In a saloon not far away from here, a saloonkeeper said, "If you come again I will hurt you."

They came the next week, but he was not there. He was in the cemetery.

This work of Zion's Seventies is full of these stories. You could get them told a hundred times over in this land.

It is a dreadful thing to fight God.

When you fight Divine Healing, you fight God. You are not fighting Dowie, you are fighting God.

When Jesus said to that centurion, "I will come and heal him," the centurion answered the Lord, "I am not worthy that Thou shouldest come under my roof."

But another account says that the Jews had said he was worthy. They said, "He hath built us a synagogue."

If you will only build a Methodist, Baptist or other denominational synagogue, you will cover a multitude of sins. They will say you are worthy.

Does building a synagogue make you worthy?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—The centurion knew better. Christ passed by these men who said he was worthy, and the man himself said he was not worthy.

I am not worthy that Thou shouldst come under my roof: but only say the word, and my servant may be healed.

Voices—"'Shall be healed.'"

General Overseer—"Can be healed?"

Voices—"'Shall.'"

General Overseer—Perhaps he will and perhaps he will not.

Voices—"'Shall.'"

General Overseer—Sometimes it works and sometimes it does not.

Voices—"'Shall.'"

The Futility of a Doubting Prayer.

General Overseer—Some of you pray, "Oh God, do it if You like; and if You do not, leave it alone."

That is not the way to pray.

Did Christ say, "Ask, and ye may receive"?

Voices—"'Shall receive.'"

General Overseer—"Seek, and ye may find"?

Voices—"'Shall find.'"

General Overseer—"Knock, and it may be opened unto you? Every one that asketh may receive"?

Voices—"'Shall.'"

General Overseer—But listen! Many of you have knocked and it has not been opened. Why? Did you expect it to be opened? Did you expect to be set free? No! You had deep down in your heart this thought: "I am knocking, but perhaps it will not be opened." And it was not, because you did not ask in faith.

The Absolute Surety of God's Promise to Heal.

"The prayer of faith"—?

Voices—"'Shall save him that is sick.'"

General Overseer—"And the Lord may raise him up"?

Voices—"'Shall.'"

General Overseer—"And if he have committed sins, it may be forgiven him"?

Voices—"'Shall.'"

General Overseer—"The eyes of the blind may be opened"?

Voices—"'Shall.'"

General Overseer—"The ears of the deaf may be unstopped"?

Voices—"'Shall.'"

General Overseer—"The tongue of the dumb may sing"?

Voices—"'Shall sing.'"

General Overseer—"These signs may follow them that believe"?

Voices—"'Shall.'"

General Overseer—"In My Name they shall lay hands on the sick and they may recover"?

Voices—"'Shall.'"

General Overseer—Do you believe that shall?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—I do not believe you do. Every one who is sick—now honor bright—hold up your hands high enough to be seen.

You do not believe. If you did, you would be healed.

Perhaps there is something else. Your faith is of no use because you have not really fulfilled the Covenants.

If You are Not Healed, the Fault is With You, Not God.

There are a great many of you who ask and receive not, because you ask that you may gratify your own desire. You are not asking for God's glory. You are asking for your own pleasure; for your own satisfaction; for your own deliverance, or else you are not asking in faith.

I believe that God is true every time. Do you?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—I believe that not one word of promise which He has given will ever fail. Do you?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—If the answer is not given, whose fault is it?

Voices—"Ours."

General Overseer—Yours or God's?

Voices—"Ours."

General Overseer—I believe the "shall."

For I also am a man under authority, having under myself soldiers: and I say to this one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. And when Jesus heard it, He marveled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

When Christ was here on earth, He used these words, "Great Faith," but twice. Once it was concerning a Roman centurion, and the second time concerning a woman of Canaan.

Speaking of the high priests and priests of God's Church, He said that they were faithless and unbelieving; that they were a pack of murderers, and thieves, and liars, and a generation of vipers.

The trouble is that in God's Church today, those who should have great faith, have simply no faith. Vast multitudes have no faith. You ask them, "Have you the power to pray the prayer of faith which saves the sick?" and they get angry. They say, "No; that was all done away with long ago. I find the best doctor."

These denominations have no faith. They are angry when they hear of any one else who has it. They do not like to be reminded that John Wesley had it. They do not wish to be reminded that John Wesley prayed for his horse, and it was healed. They do not wish to be reminded that John Wesley practically gave up medicine for about forty years before he died, although he wrote a book about medicine before he was fifty years of age. His Journal for the last thirty years of his life is full of Divine Healing, of people who were healed of cancers, and all kinds of diseases.

Charles Wesley wrote the hymn:

Thou, O Christ! art all I want;
More than all in Thee I find;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.

They do not like to sing that hymn. When they give out the first hymn in their hymnal, they will tell you to sing so many stanzas, but they will not sing that last one:

Hear Him, ye deaf, His praise,
Ye dumb, your loosened tongues employ;
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come,
And leap, ye lame, for joy.

They do not like to give that hymn out, especially when they are going to denounce Dowie that day. (Laughter.)

The Sad Lack of Faith in the Apostate Churches.

The fact of the matter is that they are afraid to test their faith by praying for the healing of the sick.

They know their faith is not worth that.

It is not Divine Faith at all.

Can you wonder that the churches are withering away?

Jesus said:

And I say unto you, that many shall come from the East and the West, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the Kingdom of Heaven; but the sons of the Kingdom shall be cast forth into the outer darkness: there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

There is a part of the old Temple wall where the Jews are allowed to gather. They call it the Wailing Place. There they weep and wail, and even dash their heads against the stone as they cry out, "Oh Messiah, when wilt Thou come? When wilt Thou come, O Messiah, and restore this Temple?" They groan and weep in the outer darkness. They will not recognize Jesus. They have been weeping and wailing in the outer darkness at these walls of weeping for all these centuries. They are weeping and wailing still, and they will weep and wail until they acknowledge Christ.

It is a dreadful thing.

The Church today is pleading and wailing outside the gates. They have gone to the outer darkness.

A Bishop of the Methodist Church cried four years ago, "Let us make the last four years of this century the greatest four years that the Methodist Church has ever seen." Yet I showed them, when they were here in their Ecumenical Conference, that they had lost hundreds of thousands in one year.

They do not like to be told it, but they know it. They try to conceal it as much as they can, but they themselves have to admit the loss of 20,000, and the Call to Humiliation and Prayer which they sent out before that Conference, was a weeping and wailing, and incidently gnashing their teeth at Dowie.

They were gnashing their teeth because, while they were declining, we were growing by thousands. Hundreds of you who were in the Methodist Church have come into the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

Every one of you who used to be a Methodist, put up your hands. See those hands—there are hundreds of them. The good Methodists are coming into Zion, and the bad ones have gone to the Devil long ago.

And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And the servant was healed in that hour.

And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, He saw his wife's mother lying sick of a fever—

"And He said, Send for the doctor; give her some medicine"?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—Did He say anything?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—"He touched her hand, and the fever"—

Voices—"'Left her.'"

General Overseer—And she was very weak, and she said, "I cannot do anything tonight. I am going to bed"?

Voices—"'She arose.'"

General Overseer—"And ministered unto them."

Healing Should be Followed by Strength.

Do you not think it is time some of you arose and ministered unto your Lord? Do you not think it is time you arose and did something for your living instead of having people wait upon you all the time?

I will not say it of those who are here, but I will tell you that there are a very great many people who enjoy poor health. They love it very much. (Laughter.)

I asked a woman how she was one day, and she said, "Doctor, I enjoy very poor health."

I said, "Does your husband enjoy it, too? (Laughter.) Do your daughters enjoy it?"

Such people do not wish to be healed. There are many women, some men, too, who, if they were healed, would scarcely know what to do. They have a good time, while their husbands, or wives, or daughters wait upon them. "Keep everything quiet, mamma is very nervous this morning," the daughters whisper.

Sickness Makes People Selfish.

You hate to be selfish, but when you are sick, you cannot help it. If you have a bad head, a sick stomach, and pains all over, why, the Devil makes you think of these.

He keeps you attending to your head with a cold water cloth, and to your stomach with something else, and to your pains with something else. Everybody has to wait upon you, and after it has gone on for several weeks, you begin to enjoy poor health. (Laughter.)

I have seen women whose daughters have been breaking down their health, lifting them, nursing them, caring for them. No roses in those daughters' cheeks! No smiles in those daughters' eyes! Long nights of weeping and waiting, and the mother "enjoying poor health"!

The mother keeps sending for the doctor to keep her sicker, and refusing to go to God for healing.

The little sickness I had made me very selfish. I wanted to be attended to. I could not help it.

When you are sick you have no time for others, no matter how much your heart desires it. Your body cries out and cries out, Help, help! Some of the most unselfish people in the world have become the most selfish people through sickness.

When you are sick, you hate to think as much of yourself as you are doing. You hate to be a trouble, many of you who are sick, to others, but you cannot help it. You cannot walk. You cannot even feed yourself sometimes, and you are a trouble.

If a man has a very severe disease upon his face, he is thinking of himself as he walks down the street, because the people are all looking at him, and he wants to cover it up.

If a woman has a deformity, she hates to have attention called to herself, but she has attention called to herself all the time. Disease does not make you better, does it?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—Those who tell you that disease drives you closer to God, makes you lose self, and all that kind of thing, say what is not true. It is not true.

I Long to See You Arise and Minister to Jesus.

Many of you Christian people who are sick are not half so amiable as you look. You have lots of Devil in you.

I am right, am I not?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—You were ugly about Dr. Dowie once, were you not?

You said, "I believe in Divine Healing, and I believe in God, but I do not believe in Dr. Dowie." (Laughter.)

Moody said that he believed in God, but he did not believe in Dowie.

If I Am God's Messenger, You Must Believe in Me.

You must do what I tell you.

Some of you have not been baptized by Triune Immersion. You must obey.

I would rather pitch into you than pray with you. You are very anxious for me to pray with you. If I were to pray with some of you now, looking at your faces, I would say, "O God, this woman looks as if she were the most selfish wretch I have ever seen. (Laughter.) This woman is full of self-righteousness. She is such an amiable person. She is quite angry with me for what I have just said. Knock the Devil out of her, Lord."

If you heard some of the prayers, they would not be flattering to you.

I do not care who you are. I say this today before God, that if you are not willing to obey God and the Voice of His servant, so far as he speaks what God says, then you will not get healing today or any other time.

My beloved Brother Leggett, you helped to take your sister, Sara M. Leggett, to the station. Do you believe that Sara would ever have been healed if she had not obeyed?

Mr. Leggett—"No. Never."

General Overseer—I am delivering the last Divine Healing address that I shall deliver, probably, in this country for a long time to come.

No Healing for the Disobedient.

I may be delivering the last Divine Healing sermon in this country, where I have been talking for twelve years to multitudes of people; but I assure you that if you are unwilling to obey God to the very uttermost, to obey the teaching which you shall get today, to the uttermost, you will not get healing.

In all the many years I have been engaged in this work I have seen hundreds and thousands of people healed. I do not know of one being healed who was wilfully disobedient.

And when even was come, they brought unto Him many possessed with devils: and He cast out the spirits with a word.

That word was not Christ's word at all.

I do not believe that Christ ever cast out a Devil. I do not believe that Christ ever healed anybody. I believe what Christ Himself said:

The words that I say unto you I speak not from Myself: but the Father abiding in Me, doeth His works.

Who did the works?

Voices—"The Father."

General Overseer—Did Jesus do them?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—He never said He did. He said:

My Father worketh even until now, and I work.

He gave the glory to the Father.

The word which came from Christ's lips was not the word of Christ at all. It was the Word of the Father. Christ never said to a sufferer, "Brother, be of good cheer."

All Christ's Words and Works Were the Words and Works of the Father.

He always said, "Son, be of good cheer." Was that not the Father's Word. Was it not the Father talking in Him?

He said to that woman, "Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole." Did He say sister?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—Was it our Brother or was it our Father who was talking?

Voices—"Father."

General Overseer—Remember that it is our Father who works; that He sends forth His Son; that He sends forth the Holy Spirit. I do not hesitate to say that the words which Christ spoke were the words of the Father.

If ever the Christian Catholic Church in Zion forgets to place the Father as Supreme in the godhead, then the Christian Catholic Church will lose its power.

Jesus is not doing anything of Himself. The Holy Spirit is not doing anything of Himself.

All power today comes through the Son of God and by the Holy Spirit, but it comes from the Father.

Did not Jesus say, "My Father is greater than all"? "My Father is greater than I"?

The trouble with many of you is that you pray to Jesus, or to the Holy Spirit.

You have no more right to pray to Jesus Christ or the Holy Spirit than you have to pray to the Virgin Mary.

Jesus said, "When ye pray, say, Our Father."

Why do you not pray to the Father, and have done with this praying to Jesus?

When the Holy Spirit comes into your hearts, He teaches you to cry "Abba, Father."

Then why do you not cry Abba, Father? Why should you always be crying to Jesus? Why should you always be crying to the Holy Spirit? Why do you not cry to the Father in the Name of Jesus?

Why do you not ask God the Father for Jesus' sake to let the power of the Holy Spirit come to you?

Why do you not obey Christ?

Multitudes of people are not obeying. They are constantly praying to Jesus Christ, to the Holy Spirit.

The Apostle Paul said:

For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father.

All the apostles prayed to the Father. They prayed in the Name of Jesus, in the power of the Holy Spirit. They never forgot that Jesus Christ was the Son of God; that He had come to redeem them.

They never forgot that the Holy Spirit must give them strength; but they prayed to the Father.

There is One God in Three Persons; But the Father is Greatest.

I cannot tell you exactly, but I think I can say safely, so far as I can remember, that I have never consciously prayed to any one but to the Father in thirty years.

I believe that there is one God in three persons, and I believe that the Father is greater than all, because Christ said it.

Taking up the Scripture again at the sixteenth verse:

And when even was come, they brought unto Him many possessed with devils: and He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all that were sick: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying, Himself took our infirmities, and bare our diseases.

If He took them, why should we keep them?

"But," you say, "I have not been taught so."

It is time you were taught. It is time you learned something. It is time you had humility enough to learn something. That is the trouble with some of you good Christians.

You do not have any humility to learn, and especially do you have no humility to learn from Dr. Dowie. There are some of you here this afternoon, for healing, because you hear God has used me to multitudes of people. When I have prayed with you, and after you have received healing, you intend to go right back to the Methodists or Baptists, or some other dead denomination. You do not intend to stand by God's servant. and God's work.

The People Who Do as They Like are Abominable Nuisances.

You simply say, "Oh, I come for healing, and then I am going to do what I like."

Digitized by Google
Original from NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY

Then I pray that you may be healed, and you will not be. Before I pray at all, I tell you that what I feel like praying: "Oh God Almighty, disappoint every selfish wretch who has entered this building today. Disappoint every person who came here hoping to get healing, just as they come to doctors to whom they pay money, only they think they can get it quite cheap today of God. They think that they can get their healing and go on their way and do just what they like. Lord, disappoint them."

He will do it without my praying that prayer, but I will pray it just to let Him know how I feel about it.

I am through praying for people who are going to do as they like. They are abominable nuisances.

I apprehend the most trouble from those Christians who belong to the Go-as-you-please and Do-as-you-like Society. I wish they were all in heaven now.

I do not desire to detain them on earth. We would be better off without them.

If I am God's minister, am I not the representative of God?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Then I command you to be baptized into the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

As sure as you live and as God lives, obedience will be the test.

"He hath given the Holy Spirit to"—whom?

Voices—"'To them that obey Him.'"

General Overseer—Did God ever give the Holy Spirit to a man who disobeyed Him wilfully?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—Will you get healing by the power of the Holy Spirit if you disobey Him?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—You had better obey Him.

In this matter of Baptism I am more and more convinced that the obedience of faith is essential to the reception of power.

If you will think over that Scripture, you will see that I am right.

When we pray, are you going to pray with me in your hearts for grace to do all God wishes you? You ought to do it.

That is the power both with you and with me.

Until I was willing to obey God out and out, there was no power such as there is now.

Prayer was then offered by Elder Graves.

KNOWING AND DOING GOD'S WILL.

After the announcements had been made and the offering received, the General Overseer delivered the following discourse.

INVOCATION.

Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in Thy sight, profitable unto this people, and profitable to these sick in spirit, soul or body, on whom we shall lay hands tonight, for His sake. Amen.

I desire to call your attention and to concentrate your whole heart and thought upon the few words which I shall read to you. I have read them already. I will read them again. I desire to make what I am now going to say the climax of all that I have said, that it may help you to understand the conditions upon which God will heal you.

TEXT.

And behold, there came to Him a leper and worshiped Him, saying, Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean. And He stretched forth His hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou made clean. And straightway his leprosy was cleansed.

I desire this evening to impress upon your minds and hearts these words, the words of Jesus:

I will.

The most important of all things is first to know, and secondly to do, the will of God.

He that doeth the will of God abideth forever.

If you desire to know the doctrine, do God's will; for Jesus said, "If any man willeth to do His will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it be of God, or whether I speak from Myself."

The great trouble with many people is that they do not do God's will, therefore they do not know God's teaching.

The reason why people are so ignorant of true doctrine is that they do not do what God tells them.

A Doubting Prayer is a Wicked Prayer.

I desire to call your attention today to the prayer of the leper. That is a prayer which neither you nor any Christian should ever offer.

It is a wicked prayer for you to offer. It is a prayer that will be fruitless.

The leper said, "Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean."

That leper was ignorant. In his case there was this excuse for him: that the Lord Jesus Christ was only unfolding His mission, and that He had not fully revealed God's will.

Ignorance of the Lord's will was the one thing which stood in his way of getting the healing. He saw that Christ was able. He said, "Thou canst make me clean." But he was in doubt as to whether Christ was willing. Therefore he said, "Lord, if Thou wilt." The Lord said, "I will," and the moment He said that, there was no more "If Thou wilt" in that man's heart.

A person came to me just now and asked me for a certain favor. I said, "No, I cannot. I will not attempt to do it, for I cannot."

Another person came and asked me for a favor, and I said, "I will, God helping me."

The person to whom I said "I will," will not come and bother me with that same request.

The request was for an interview at a certain time.

I do not expect that person until the hour named. But when that person comes, he has the right-of-way. I will tell my personal attendant that every one else is to stand aside, no matter who he is.

When the Lord Jesus says "I will," you have no more right to put in the words "If Thou wilt" than the man would have who might come to my door tonight and lie down and begin to howl, "Oh General Overseer, it is eight o'clock in the morning and you promised to see me; if thou wilt, see me. You promised to see me at a quarter past eight. If thou wilt. If thou wilt."

I should be disgusted, annoyed, vexed. I should think that that person did not believe what I said.

Christ's I Will is for Every One Who Will Fulfil the Divine Conditions.

I am speaking to Christians now. Did the Lord Jesus Christ ever declare that He was willing to bless some and not to bless others, supposing that both classes fulfilled the Divine conditions?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—That "I will," therefore, is an "I will" to all men who will fulfil the Divine conditions, is it not?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Is it for you?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Then you must not say "If Thou wilt"; for the Lord has said "I will."

Some people say that when you come to God you must always say, "If it be Thy will."

I tell you the opposite. When you come to God, you must always say, "Oh God, my Father, I know it is Thy will to save every penitent sinner and to heal every obedient child of Thine."

Is that true?

You might say to me, "How can you be sure that the Lord is willing to heal me?" I did not say that.

There are quite a number of you whom the Lord is not willing to heal. You are not obedient. You are not willing to do His will.

Some of you have not repented of your sins. Some of you have not made confession to those whom you have wronged. Some of you are not trusting in God at all. The Lord is not willing to heal you, because Divine Healing is the children's bread.

Divine Healing is not for the children of the Devil; it is for the children of God.

There is no Divine Healing promised to any whose sins are not forgiven. There is no promise of Divine Healing to a selfish hypocrite; to a person who says, "I do not care what God says about tithes and offerings; I will do what I like about that."

You can do as you like, but you will go to hell for it before you are through. You are a thief. You are the worst kind of a thief, and there is no use telling me that a thief is a Christian.

I am getting down to very straight business about this.

Those Who Rob God Cannot be Healed.

There are some who are ignorant, but you are not ignorant. I see some sitting here this afternoon who have been sitting under my ministry for years. They are not saved. They are not healed. They never will be if they continue as they are, because they are thieves. They rob God.

They ask, "Wherein have we robbed God?"

I answer, in the words of God, "in tithes and offerings."

You do not give your tithes. You do not give your offerings. You are a perfect sham and a humbug. You are a thief. You are cursed with a curse; for you have helped this whole nation to rob God.

You weigh that in the Word of God, and you will find that it is true. One dollar out of every ten that ever came into your hands belonged to God; and, if you have not paid it to God, you are a thief.

I see some others here who say they are Christians, but they say that they have a right to use the tithes and offerings as they like.

God says, "Bring ye the whole tithe into the Storehouse."

Have you a right to do with it as you please?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—If God has the Storehouse where these tithes are honestly used for God, where ought you to bring these tithes?

Voices—"Into the Storehouse."

General Overseer—If you do not do it, are you obedient?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—Some of you have gotten into darkness because you have distributed your tithes to various poor people. That is not what the Bible says. The Bible says the command is, "Bring ye the whole tithe into the Storehouse."

Satan, the Devourer, Rebuked for the Sake of Tithers.

Who is the devourer?

Voices—"Satan."

General Overseer—Does he not devour your bodies with disease?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Does he not devour the fruits of the field?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Will God rebuke the devourer for your sakes, if you do right?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Will He rebuke the devourer, if you do wrong?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—The devourer will eat you up. I do not wish you to live, if you are not obedient. I am speaking to you who are professing Christians. You are a great curse if you do not obey. You are a far worse curse than if you were bad men and women, because you are professing to be Christians, and you are positively robbing God and lying to Him.

No Healing for Those Wilfully Disobedient in Baptism.

If you do not obey God in that fundamental Ordinance of Baptism, have you any right to expect as a disobedient child that God will heal you?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—Christ said:

Go ye therefore, and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I commanded you.

How many things?

Voices—"'All things.'"

General Overseer—Is not Baptism one of these things?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—I am talking this afternoon to many Christians who have not yet obeyed God in this matter. I will talk very plainly.

There is not a single case of any authorized Baptism ever recorded in the whole of the first seven centuries of the Christian Church—with one solitary exception, which I shall mention presently—except the Baptism by Triune Immersion.

That is not merely my statement, but that is the statement of every scholar, no matter to what denomination he belongs. The man who says the opposite, is either not a scholar or not an honest man.

The greatest Dictionary of Christian Antiquities which has ever been produced is that edited by Sir William Smith, D. C. L., LL. D., of London. In that dictionary the late Rev. Wharton B. Marriott, M. A., of Exeter College, Oxford, writes on Baptism. The Church to which he belongs believes in the sprinkling of babies.

Dr. Marriott, in writing the article upon Baptism in that great and learned work, says:

Triple Immersion, that is thrice dipping the head while standing in the water, was the all but universal rule of the Church in early times. Of this we find proof in Africa, in Palestine, in Egypt, at Antioch and Constantinople, in Cappadocia. For the Roman usage, Tertullian indirectly witnesses in the Second Century; St. Jerome in the Fourth; Leo the Great in the Fifth; and Pope Pelagius and St. Gregory the Great in the Sixth. Theodulf of Orleans witnesses for the general practice of his time, the close of the Eighth Century. Lastly, the Apostolical Canons, so-called, alike in the Greek, the Coptic and the Latin versions, give special injunctions as to this observance, saying that any bishop or presbyter should be deposed who violated this rule. . . . Eunomius (circ. 360) appears to have been the first to introduce simple immersion "unto the death of Christ."

Who was Eunomius?

Eunomius was a man who denied the Divinity of the Lord Jesus Christ, and denied the personality of the Holy Spirit. Eunomius was a bad man and a false shepherd. In order to show his contempt for the Holy Trinity of God, he baptized by one immersion.

There is No Longer Any Excuse on the Grounds of Ignorance.

There are the facts. The times of this ignorance about Baptism God has overlooked, but "now He commandeth men that they should all everywhere repent."

This Baptism by Triune Immersion is one of the great Seals of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion. You must be baptized. If you say you will not, you will not be healed.

You ask me whether only those baptized have been healed.

No. Many who have been healed were not baptized, but they were ignorant.

You are not ignorant. I am telling you now.

We do not punish a child who is ignorant, do we? We rebuke the child, and we instruct the child, but if the child knows, and knows perfectly well what it ought to do, and does not do it, that child has a right to be punished, and ought to be.

So will you be if you disobey. You will be left to the Devil in your body, even if your spirit is saved.

God is willing to heal every one of you who is willing and obedient. He longs to heal you.

I long to see you healed. If I could heal every one of you by a touch of mine, I am afraid I would be willing to do it.

But I am thankful that the healing power is not mine to bestow. I am thankful that the healing power is God's. I am thankful that God will not use me to the healing of any one who is disobedient.

There are some who are willing and obedient and yet they are not healed. I know that there must be something lacking. I know that their consecration cannot be complete. I know that the fault cannot be in God. The fault must be in you or in me, if we do not get the blessing.

I would urge every one of you who are Christians, and are willing and obedient up to your light and knowledge, to say, "O God, show me what I lack yet, and when I see my duty, O God, give me grace to do it at once." (Amen.)

Some of you see your duty, and then you put it off. You do not want to do it because mother will not like it; father will not like it; husband will not like it; brother will not like it; friends will not like it; neighbors will not like it. Because you are afraid of their censure, you get only the condemnation of God.

If you are willing and obedient, and will ask God to show you what you lack, and to give you grace to do it the moment you see it, then do not delay it.

An Example of the Terrible Results of Disobedience.

A woman came to me the other day, broken in spirit and bowed down in body. She said, "Doctor, if I had obeyed you ten years ago when you came to this city, I would not be as I am now.

"I heard you. I believed you, but I was the victim of an unholy man's passion. I, not knowing, became his mistress and not his wife. When you came, you pointed out his sin and mine. We confessed our sin and you commanded us to separate, no matter what the cost. I was a lustful devil.

"He said, 'Maggie, let us live apart; the Doctor is right.'

"I said, 'No, let us live together. I do not care what the Doctor says.'

"Now he is dead, and I think he is in hell, and I ought to be there with him.

"I cannot repent as I want to repent. I cannot say from my heart, 'Oh God, I do repent.' I do not have the power to repent.

"Can you pray for a poor sinner who knows she is a sinner, and has not the grace to repent; who knows she ought to repent, but has not the desire to repent?"

I said, "That is a very hard case; one of the hardest I have ever had. I would like to know how I can pray?"

"I do not know how you can," she said, "but if you do not pray, and if God does not answer in some way, I have not long to live. I do not care much about my healing, but I do not want to go to hell. My mother has gone to heaven. My father has gone to heaven. I have dear little babies who are in heaven."

Then she burst into tears. She cried, "I do not want to go to hell. I do want to be a good woman."

I said, "You have repented," and she said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner."

I said, "You have repented."

She looked at me for a moment, and she said, "I believe I have. Thank God, I believe I have."

With that she went on. It was not very long ago that she died. She died doing two things. She died praising God and praying for the man who had gone to hell.

You may say she did wrong. I will not say that. I will not say that; because she cried to God in these words: "Oh God, will You not take him out of hell some way?"

I could not tell her not to pray that. You can put what theology you like against it, but I will tell you that prayer was a genuine prayer, and I believe that God has heard it.

If ever I should be sent to hell to help clean out hell, I would want to go for that man to get him out. (Amen.)

I believe that hell will be cleaned out one day. I believe that because the Bible says that

Death and Hell Shall be Cast Into the Lake of Fire.

That will be the end of death and hell, when God shall burn up hell.

I long to see an end of hell, because as long as there is a hell there will be legions of devils.

One of two things will have to be done, if order is to be kept in the universe. Either hell must be destroyed, or a lid must be put upon hell and some mighty power must sit on it and keep it down there; for if one of the devils should get out, there would be hell everywhere.

I believe that the time is coming when God's Kingdom shall be All and in All, and there shall be neither death nor hell.

That is a little distance off yet, and I am going to fight on until that time.

I am going to fight better after I am dead. After this body is dead, I am prophetically exulting in the thought that the Lord may permit me to do some fighting even in hell.

A man once said, "I believe the Doctor is such a fighter that if he were to go to hell the Devil would say, 'Let us get rid of him.'"

I said, "I have that kind of a thought, too."

I am glad to know that even my enemies think that the Devil would not want me in hell, but I do not think I would go because the Devil wanted me to go. I feel I would like to have it out with him there. I have a great desire to see hell destroyed.

I would like to see sin and disease and death destroyed.

I believe that I shall see them destroyed. I believe that some of us who fight this battle here, will fight it better when we get to the other side.

Some of you are not much account now. You will be more account by and by.

Are you willing to let God do His will?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Then He is willing to heal you.

Instantaneous Healings the Most Satisfying.

The healings which best satisfy my heart are the healings which come as quickly as that (snapping his fingers). I rejoice in the healing of people like Sara M. Leggett, who got the healing in an instant. She arose at once, healed of a terrible condition of the heart.

Once, before her healing, when they tried to take her out just for a short ride, they lifted her in the bed and laid her on the sleigh, and it nearly killed her; but when she started to Zion it did not kill her. She was healed instantly.

That is the kind of healing I wish to see today.

Let this thing come at once.

If I were in your place, and I wanted a thing from God, I tell you I would just keep at God every minute, every moment, every hour, and before I was through I would have that thing

Jesus told the parable of the man who went to borrow bread from a neighbor to teach importunate prayer. I have told the story, a little more in detail than the Gospels report it, in order to bring out the lesson. I call one man Lazarus and the other Jacob.

Lazarus knocks.

Jacob calls out, "Who is there?"

"It is Lazarus. I have a friend come to stay, and Jesus and His disciples have eaten all the bread. Get up and loan me three loaves."

"Lazarus, go home. It is no time to wake up a fellow in the midnight hour when he is in bed with his children."

Lazarus knocks again.

"Who's there?"

"Lazarus."

"What do you want?"

"I want that bread, Jacob."

"We have no bread except what is going to be used. Lazarus, go home. My children are with me in bed, and I cannot rise and give thee."

Lazarus knocks.

"Who's there?"

"Lazarus!" (Laughter.)

"Lazarus, go home."

"I will not go home until I get the bread."

"I will not get up."

Lazarus knocks again.

"I say, Lazarus, you will break down the door."

"I can't help it; I am going to have that bread.

"I will not get up."

Lazarus knocks.

"Lazarus, stop, and I will get up. Stop!"

So he gets up. He goes to the cupboard, and he gets not only three loaves, but all. When he gets to the door he says, "There it is, Lazarus. I never saw such a fellow as you. Go off with you."

That is the way to pray.

How have you been knocking?

Ugh! Your knocking would not kill a mosquito.

I will tell you how you have prayed: "O God, if it pleases You, will You not heal me?"

He does not do it. Somebody comes in and says, "Did you pray?"

"Yes."

"Did you knock?"

"Yes."

"Did He answer?"

"No."

"Are you knocking still?"

"Oh, no, I gave it up."

Importunity Gets Answers to Prayer.

Did not Christ say that the man who got the answer to prayer was answered because of his importunity.

Do you think I would have been anything in Chicago, if I had not been importunate?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—When I first came to Chicago, I knocked with a very polite knock.

Chicago said, "Go away."

I said, "I will not."

The next day I knocked louder.

Chicago said, "Get away, or we will break your head."

I said, "I will not."

"Then," said Chicago, "we will break your old head."

I have been knocking louder ever since, and I am knocking so loud now that they get no rest day or night.

A man said the other day, "I will be glad when that Dowie goes, because I never hear anything from morning till night but Dowie, Dowie, Dowie. I am tired of it. I will not be good, and I will go where Dowie cannot get me."

One night he went away and he got drunk in the lowest levee district. He was sitting about three-fourths drunk in a dive. He was trying to forget Dowie, when, he said, somebody touched him on the shoulder and said, "Good evening, sir."

He looked up, and, "Bless my life," he said, talking of it afterwards, "if there was not my own sister looking in my face, saying, 'O Bob, what are you doing here?'

"'What are you doing here,' I said?

"'Why,' she said, 'I am doing the Master's work. I am one of Dr. Dowie's Saloon Seventies. I have come down here with LEAVES OF HEALING.'

"'O,' I said, 'it is no use. I cannot get away from Dowie anywhere.'"

He went home with his sister.

Do you think you can get away from God?

Voices—"No."

General Overseer—When I came to Chicago I kept knocking, knocking, knocking. They said they never would hear me, and now they do hear me.

Whether they love me or not, they always want to know what I am saying.

How Leaves of Healing Won a Wicked Man to God.

There was one poor wretched fellow who was a Judge in a certain State, who told his wife that if ever he saw that paper again he would fling it out of the house. She kept on getting the paper, but he never saw it any more. He began to miss it. He used to read it regularly. He would often say to himself, "I wonder what that fellow Dowie is up to now. I would like to see that paper."

Nobody ever spoke about Dowie or LEAVES OF HEALING, but he knew they got it. He felt sure of it. They said nothing because they were put on their guard lest he should destroy the paper. One night the rest of the family went to church, and he said to the youngest child, "Laura, you stay with papa tonight; do not go with mamma to church." She stayed with him.

After a little while he said, "Now, Laura, you tell papa where LEAVES OF HEALING is."

"Oh no, papa," she said, "you will please excuse me. I cannot tell you. Mamma says you will tear it up."

"Do you read it?" he asked.

"Yes," she said.

"Do you know about Dr. Dowie?"

"Yes," she said, "I kiss his picture every time." (Laughter.)

Then they began to talk, and he said, "Laura, if you get me LEAVES OF HEALING, I will not destroy it. I will not tear it up."

She asked, "Sure?"

"Sure," he replied. (Laughter.)

So she took him away to a linen drawer. She was not able to open it because it was full of linen. Away down at the bottom of that drawer, she told him, under all those spare sheets, he would find it.

He went and found it, and then he sat down and began to read. She went to sleep and he put her to bed. He kept on reading. As he read, he began to cry. He began to see what a dirty stinkpot of a sinner he was. He began to pray, and when his wife came home she found him on his knees with his hand upon the Bible. He was praying silently.

She looked at him. She had not seen him praying like that for years; not since he became a politician, and a Judge. She went up to him and said, "What is the matter?"

"Matter enough," he replied; "this sermon"—and he pointed to LEAVES OF HEALING on the Bible. "That sermon was the last knock of God at my heart, and, if I do not answer that sermon, I will go to hell sure."

She said, "You do not want to go to hell?"

"No, I do not want to go to hell. Maggie, I used to know something about God, and, actually, I do not believe I was ever really converted; you get down and pray for me."

She got down and prayed for him. That man is now in the Kingdom of God. If I had not kept knocking, knocking, knocking, that man might have been in hell.

If you will keep knocking, knocking, knocking even at the sinner's heart, you will get an entrance.

If you keep knocking, knocking, knocking at God's door, and God sees that you are in earnest, will you not be answered?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—You will be. Never give up. Ask God why it is you have not been answered, and set to work to do His will.

You can do it.

A Full Blessing Depends Upon a Full Confession.

If you will make a full confession, I believe you will get a full blessing.

I do not wish to limit God. I shall ask God to greatly bless, but if there should not be one of you healed, I should feel that I had done my duty; that the blessing was in my own heart for having done my duty. I cannot doubt that God will bless, if you will do right.

Are you willing to do right?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Do you feel that God is able and willing to heal?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Do you believe that disease is the Devil's work?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—And that healing is God's?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Will you put away all drugs?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—All doctors?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Not once, but forever.

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Will you trust God, no matter what happens?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Will you obey God?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Will you obey Dr. Dowie?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Be sure that you are obeying God.

Every one who desires to do God's will and be where God wants you to be, stand.

PRAYER OF CONSECRATION.

My God and Father, in Jesus' Name I come to Thee. Take me as I am; make me what I ought to be in spirit, in soul, in body. Give me Thy Holy Spirit, that I may do right to any whom I may have wronged; that I may confess the wrong I have done; that I may make restitution to any whom I may have wronged. Give me power to make the confession and the restoration. I vow that I shall. Give me grace to keep that vow.

Forgive me, for the sake of Thy dear Son, and heal me, cleanse my spirit, my soul, my body. Give me power to persevere; to ask until I receive; to seek until I find; to knock until the door is opened. Give me persevering prayer, that I may never give up until I get the blessing which Thou art so willing to give unto me. Help me to teach others; to tell others in all places at all times, for Jesus' sake. (All repeat the prayer, clause by clause, after the General Overseer.)

Now, my brothers and sisters, did you mean that?

Voices—"Yes."

General Overseer—Will you ask God for grace to do it?

Voices—"Yes."

The meeting was then closed with the following

BENEDICTION.

Beloved, abstain from all appearance of evil. And may the very God of Peace Himself sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole Spirit and Soul and Body be preserved entire, without blame unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ; faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it; the grace of our Lord Jesus, the love of God our Father, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Guide; one Eternal God, abide in you, bless you and keep you, and all the Israel of God everywhere, forever. Amen.

ZION COLLEGE LECTURES ON PRAYER.

A Series Delivered Before the Students of Zion College by the President, Rev. John Alexander Dowie, General Overseer of the Christian Catholic Church in Zion.

THE world today has learned that there is something far beyond the ordinary in the words and works of God's Messenger to Zion, John Alexander Dowie.

As this realization comes to the public, the first question always is, "How does he do it? What is the secret of his power?"

Those who know the General Overseer and have heard and heeded his teaching know that the power belongs to God. But the General Overseer is wonderfully used by God, as an instrument, on account of his mighty power in Prayer, taught him by the Holy Spirit.

Hence it was with the greatest joy that the students of Zion College received the announcement that the General Overseer would deliver a Series of Lectures on the subject of Prayer. It was an inestimable privilege to learn how to pray from a man whose whole life had become a mighty power for God through Prayer. But joyful as the anticipation was, it was more than justified by the realization.

Many members of the Christian Catholic Church also attended these Lectures and were amazed, from week to week, by the great depth and scope of the subject as it was opened up by the man of God.

Since the delivery of these Lectures there has been a loud appeal, from many sides, to have them published.

The General Overseer was reluctant, as he felt that in the great pressure of his other duties he had not been able to give the Lectures as he might have done with more time at his disposal. He also felt that he should revise them before their publication, and this he could not find time to do.

At length, however, the appeal for them being urged, he consented that they should be sent forth, without his revision, during his absence in Europe and the Holy Land.

Accordingly this wonderful teaching will be printed, almost as it came from his lips, from time to time, in LEAVES OF HEALING. In preparing these Lectures for the press, we have eliminated some allusions to topics of the time and place and have written in some headlines. We have also cut out opening and closing exercises and arranged the matter consecutively without regard to number and date of Lectures.

We pray that God will bless these wonderful truths to all who read in even greater measure than He did to those who heard.

A. W. N.

WALKING WITH GOD.

I have stated to you that in order to understand fully the great subject of Prayer, you must understand first of all why we must pray; the regrettable necessity which exists for Prayer without ceasing in one form or another.

Why have I prayed so many prayers today? I put a great deal of prayer in my continuous office work, stretching over fifteen hours. Why was it I had to pray?

No Need for Prayer at the Beginning.

At the beginning there is no record of Prayer at all in the sense in which we now understand it: a cry to God for help, a cry for deliverance from ignorance, sin, disease, fears of death and hell; because at the beginning there was innocence, if there was ignorance. In those primitive days there was patience and a beautiful harmony with God. There was a willingness to wait for the development of knowledge, wisdom and love. Our first ancestors did not do what humanity soon became, by nature, so prone to do: anticipate the joys of love by yielding to damning lust; anticipate knowledge by endeavoring to wear a garb of learning: anticipate wisdom by yielding to worldly wisdom, impure and unholy. All this is because of sin. Through these sins, which developed in the evil race of Cain, we have seen that the world became so wicked that "it grieved God at His heart" that He had made man. But "Noah was a righteous man, and perfect in his generations: Noah walked with God." The word "perfect" is better translated in the margin, "blameless in his generations."

There is no possibility of God ever bringing deliverance except in the path of righteousness. "The Kingdom of God is righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Ghost."

There is no possibility of reversing these things. You cannot begin with joy. Divine love is a joyful love, but it does not begin with joy. Divine conception, Divine gestation, Divine birth is accompanied with faith. The joy comes afterward. There is weeping in the night, but joy cometh in the morning.

Think what it meant for Noah to live amidst a whole earth of people who had gone to the Devil, who were transformed, for the time being—thank God only for the time being, though it was for thousands of years—into spiritual demons.

Christ's Preaching to Those Who Had Made Their Beds in Hell.

I always thank God for the words:

He went and preached to the spirits in prison which aforetime were disobedient, when the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah.

There is no generation spoken of in all that Bible more wholly wicked than that generation, the thoughts of whose hearts were only evil, and that continually. As evil as this generation is, I do not think you will find many people in America the thoughts of whose hearts are only evil, and that continually. I think that even amongst the most wicked, although the greater part of their lives is evil, yet when you touch them in the right spot you will find that God has been before you, and that there is a longing for a better state of things; a good thought, a good desire, and an aspiration some day to be free from the evil. That generation was wholly evil, and yet that is the very generation to whom, it is written, Jesus went down into hell and preached.

That is a wonderful thing to me. I know He prayed for them. He would not have gone to them if He had not prayed for them. How little His disciples knew when He said, "I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto Myself," that He meant those who had made their beds in hell; that He meant the very enemies who were thirsting for His blood; that He meant every sinner to the consummation of the age; that He meant every man throughout the Universe.

How narrow those early Christians were!

That was true of Peter even after Christ's resurrection. He was perfectly astounded that God sent Him to preach to the Roman centurion, and even half apologized for it to the Jews. God had to show him that he was not to call any man common or unclean.

Our Great Advantage in Having Zion Teaching.

Just think what it must have been to walk with God in Noah's time. It is hard for us to walk with God sometimes even in our time. It is easier for us than it was for him.

Why?

Because you have Zion now.

I was not born in Zion. I was born in the valley of dry bones. I fed upon theological dust, or they tried to feed me.

You are different. You have the help which has come from five years of teaching in LEAVES OF HEALING and the testimonies.

Zion in the conflicts of the year has not been left prostrate in the dust. Zion is not stripped, or wounded, bleeding or dying by the roadside.

> Fair as the moon,
> Clear as the sun,
> Terrible as an army with banners,

Zion is now going into the front ranks of the Christian fight, and the apostate churches are complaining of the progress of Zion and wishing so much that Dr. Dowie would let them alone.

Freemasons are crying, "Let us alone."

We will smash you, you Mah-hah-bones; smash every bone in your body.

We started out to smash up things, and we have been doing it. What for? To save the people. We must smash the corrupt organizations.

Noah had no help of this kind. You are standing in a generation where an ever-increasing body of bold, consecrated, humble and teachable men and women are seeking to know more of God; men and women in whose hearts were the highways to Zion even before I came upon the earth, in some cases; old men who thought these things, but could not speak them; good men and women in all the churches who thought these things, but could not utter them, and did not know where to find companionship. A Voice has been calling them and they are coming from the East, the West, the North, the South.
