Light and Life!

BY SANDRA PFORTMILLER, NST

By the time this issue of T.N.S. reaches many of you, you will be involved in preparing to depart for the annual convention, this year to be held in Orlando, Florida. The convention, like the magazine, is a connecting point for the widely scattered Spiritualists. Conventions are also much like reunions and those attending look forward to seeing old friends and making new ones.

Much of the business of the National Spiritualist Association of Churches is conducted during this time. With this in mind I included in the mental healing at church one evening, that the convention, the National Board and all the delegates be surrounded with light and love. After the service a newcomer to our church asked what I meant surrounded by light.

Those in Spiritualism so often talk about the Light and yet what do they mean. Is it actual light such as that which we receive from the sun? The light from the Sun affects the human body in wondrous ways but the Light that we speak of, is beyond the sun, beyond mankind at the highest level. All light in the Universe comes from the Infinite Source of All things. Light is a wonderful concept that means so many things to peoples from all around the world and has been represented in all religions and all times.

"Lead me from the unreal to the real. Lead me from darkness to light." This is a quote from the Hindu sacred writings that shows how light is used to guide us, protect us and reveal about knowledge and revelation.

Sometimes light is used as a symbol of Infinite Intelligence or for the highest level of spiritual understanding. Some groups such as the Native American Indians, African tribes and the Essenes practice a custom of rising at dawn to pray to the Infinite with the first light of the morning. The peoples did not worship the sun but the Great Light of the new beginning of each day.

The Tibetian Yoga Doctrine calls the Clear Light "...the True State of the mind...beyond the domain of phenomena, which experiences the thought-transcending Great Bliss, is the Primal Clear Light."

The Christian Bible writes of the symbol of light in many places, in fact it appears more than two hundred and sixty times. "We praise Thee, O Father; we give thanks to Thee, O Light, wherein dwells no darkness." "Thou art God of God, Light of true Light." "The light of the body is in the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light."

In Genesis, at the beginning are the words, "Let there be light: and there was light." This statement is a spiritual explanation of Creation as being a part of the Divine Mind, within all, the energy and the essence. Creation of all thoughts and manifestations comes from the Light and returns to the Light.

Let us think of the light as spiritual understanding, of growth and beginnings, of creation and culmination, of unity and essence, as the center and circumference. God is Light.

Light is energy or the motivating power behind all things. This energy or light dwells within as the truth that emanates from our consciousness. The light is the higher realization that we all search to blend with and the wonderful expression of the good life when we share it with others. Each time we send out the Light to another we are sharing Infinite good, asking for a loving blessing and the Divine protection.

Awareness of our inner light is as necessary for our spiritual growth and for our well-being as is the suns light to our physical and planets well-being. We may not be able to see the inner light like we can the sun's light, yet there is a definite knowing when it is present. Spiritualism teaches about the inner light, bringing its benefits to mankind. We Spiritualists, give thanks to God for this gift of Light and Life Force and for the ability to be able to share it with others. Let us take time each day to send it around the world to all that are in need and share the blessing of Spiritual Energy. ■

CSSA
California State Spiritualists' Association

Mission Statement, CSSA
founded 1896

We believe our heritage of service to auxiliaries of the NSAC in California since 1896 is to promote excellence among the churches in spiritual and business operations.

The CSSA exists to maintain, in a unified, supportive and harmonious way, a cohesion among member churches by promoting, combining, and stimulating efforts of each church.

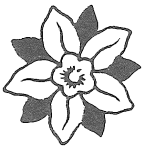

The CSSA provides opportunities for members to participate in educational and service activities at our annual convention, to prepare educational and interpretive materials, to request spiritual assistance from the CSSA and its missionaries, and to promote the cause of Spiritualism in California.

Join us for our 97th Annual Convention!

A Seedling Called Love

by Ann Christine Collins

I planted a seedling so tiny and new
I planted a seedling and it grew and grew
It grew up high
It grew out wide
I planted a seedling and it grew

This seedling is called LOVE
For LOVE is so true
It never leaves or dies
It is always everlasting and true

A seedling called LOVE
How absurd but, so true
For LOVE can only grow when it is planted by you
A kind little word, an action that is true
For LOVE is a seedling that can be planted by you

LOVE will grow and grow and grow
For GOD gave us the means and we need to know

That LOVE comes unconditionally
It comes from our heart
It comes from our knowing how we can play a part
So the next time you're out in the gloom and doom of this world
Plant a little seedling and watch it bloom, bloom, bloom

The Law of Love
God is Love and Love is God

Thoughts On Spiritualism

BY
GLENDA BLACK, L.M.

Our Definition of Spiritualism is "Spiritualism is the Science, Philosophy and Religion of Continuous Life, based upon the demonstrated fact of communication, by means of mediumship, with those who live in the spirit world."

I also believe that Spiritualism in its broadest and truest sense includes the best in Science, Religion, and Philosophy.

Spiritualism is a result of seeking and searching down through the ages for truth, which is universal and never personal. The universe is impersonal. It gives alike to all and is no respector of persons.

Spiritualism teaches that the road to freedom is the intelligent use of Natural Law in the spiritual world. We do not need to ask why this is so. There can be no reason given us to why the truth is true. Spiritualism does not create laws and principles but discovers and makes use of them.

I believe that Spiritualism can make one's life an adventure because it awakens man's curiosity and interest in his spiritual nature. It whets his desire to find out what his true relationship to God is.

Spiritualism is a religion that is free from dogmatism, free from superstition, open at the top for greater illumination, unbound and unlimited. I believe that the teachings of Spiritualism are the most understandable and intelligent approach to religion in the world today. One might describe Spiritualism as a religious philosophy with an "Open End" seeking to find God's truth in all of life, wherever truth may be.

Intellectual freedom and religious liberty are necessary to the unfolding spirit in men. Whatever is true is free to all alike.

Let us remember as we progress to keep our minds open to new ideas and be ready to accept that which is true.

We do live in a spiritual universe, a universe that is intelligent and creative, and it is a universe of law and order. It is God's universe, a divine idea created through the Natural Laws of God.

God, the universal life-force and energy running through everything, is an intelligent presence pervading all space; a self-existent cause; a perfect union, a complete wholeness.

The unthinking would believe that God is a spirit who keeps books and checks up on the wrong doings of each individual member of the human race, and that he sends some to heaven and some to hell. Of course we as Spiritualists know that heaven or hell is a state of mind. Man has believed, according to his own light, in the kind of God who best fitted his personal ideas, or in the idea of God that has been imposed upon him by ignorant or superstitious leaders. But there has always been the voice of those thinkers who come to their own conclusions. These have been the way showers of humanity and millions have lighted candles from their flames. But the world progresses slowly; evolution and the growth of knowledge and wisdom is a process of time and experience. Fortunately, the true Spiritualist knows truth is always available to those who are willing and able to open up their mind, heart and souls to the eternal truth and keep an open mind above all. ■

— Prayer for Spiritual Healing —

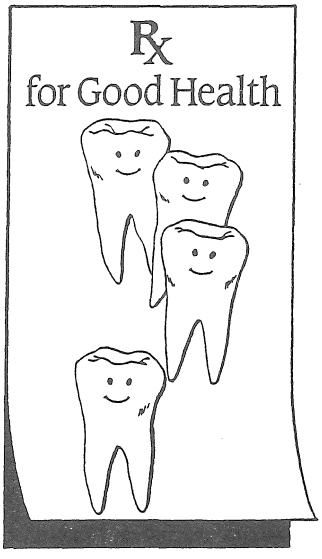

I ask the great unseen healing force to remove all obstructions from my mind and body and to restore me to perfect health.
I ask this in all sincerity and honesty and I will do my part.
I ask this great unseen healing force to help both present and absent ones who are in need of help and to restore them to perfect health.
I put my trust in the love and power of God.

F A I T H is not always E N O U G H !

BY JANET TISDALE
Chapel of the Sunflower, Phoenix, Arizona

It is a wonderful feeling knowing that we have it within ourselves to make a difference in someone else's life through healing. We, as healers, should hold that privilege dearly to our hearts as we accept the responsibility to do all we can for those who either call upon us, or for those who set before us at our healing services.

When I became a conscious spiritualist, one of the things that was drilled into my awareness, by the Rev. Edwin Ford of Phoenix, was that we must have knowledge. That statement was proven to me with such force when I began to work with healing. I need to relate a little story, as to prove a point of mine, or to make it more clear to those who already know and agree with me.

I started working with visualization, and of course prayer. I had a tooth extracted, so I used the method on myself. I have to say that we (Spirit and I) did a pretty good job. I was very excited and proud of our job. What a neat accomplishment. I had started with prayer, asking for the help and guidance of Spirit, and then visualized the opening (where once was a tooth) to close. Well, in a matter of days it was completely closed. The next day or so I began to experience pain in that same area. I thought to myself this just couldn't be. In my mind at that time I knew there wasn't anything there to hurt. I scheduled an emergency visit back to the dentist. The first thing he said to me was, "I don't understand why it had closed so quickly." Of course I never said a word. I just shrugged my shoulders as if I was just as puzzled as he. Then he began to explain to me that he would have to cut the gum open to allow the infection to drain. He then proceeded to pack it with some type of medication. Then he gave me a prescription for pain pills to help me get through the next few days.

I thought that I had done everything right. Well, in actuality we (Spirit and I) did as far as the technique was concerned. Where I went wrong was that I did not know a few little details. The dentist later had explained to me that the healing process should begin from the inside out, opposed to the way that we did it. I had worked to close the opening before the natural healing could take place. What I had done, out of my own ignorance, was to interfere with the natural process of the inner intelligence by visualizing the wrong thing, and consequently causing myself a great deal of pain and discomfort. I had not prepared myself properly. My understanding was very inadequate to have tried such a powerful task without proper knowledge. I had learned a very valuable lesson.

Now as a commissioned healer some years later I found it much to my benefit, as well as those we work with, to take a few minutes and find out about my patient's illness or conditions. This does several things for me as a healer. (1) Since the law of attraction is in effect I know that my spirit doctors and helpers will be of higher understanding in their assistance with me as a healer. (2) More knowledge gives me more confidence and also allows me to get to the proper solution more effectively and in return not as much energy is used. (3) Last, but not least, I feel that I can have a more intelligent pre-conference with my patients. This gives me as well as them, a lot more trust and confidence in the healing process. All of which adds to the success of the healing.

I don't want to project or say that each commissioned healer needs to go out and get themselves qualified as a medical doctor. That of course, will be carrying things a bit too far. But I am suggesting that all students, as well as commissioned healers, refer to a well presented medical book that explains the function of the human anatomy and some treatment for their patients condition. (After all we don't want to be working on the respiratory system when the problem area is in the back.) This I feel should be a part of all healing classes as in furthering our knowledge and education on this wonderful awareness we have worked so hard to acquire.

We and Spirit work together as a team. Each is more effective working with the other. Faith and knowledge are also a team that work well together . . . all holding an equal importance. When I received my commissioned healers certificate I felt very proud of my efforts and remember feeling the sense of responsibility toward my fellow man. I try to fulfill that responsibility through knowledge and of course that Faith in God and Spirit. I realize that all illness and conditions are not in medical books. Some come with the imbalance of the mind and soul. Then of course we must go to other sources of information and help, but making that extra effort will become very beneficial for all concerned.

I feel that our Science, Philosophy and Religion of Spiritualism is working and is becoming the next sought out truth in this world. More and more people are questioning their present beliefs. They are doing some self discovering. They are discovering that they hold a wonderful, natural intelligence within themselves and that they can do marvelous things when used correctly. I am in hopes that when they come knocking on our doors (and they will) looking for the proof for which Spiritualism bases some of its foundation, that we as healers can present ourselves as being dedicated, knowledgeable and capable to perform great demonstrations of the healing manifestation.

I would like to see the day when the medical profession asks us for assistance in working with them. If we take that extra effort and at least become familiar with the human anatomy we will be able to at least discuss with a little more confidence and wisdom. I pray that all who are interested in becoming a commissioned healer of this wonderful organization will understand the importance of what you are doing. In this way you will not create any discomfort (out of ignorance) for those who sit before you. We are trying to build our organization up to its full potential. I am glad that Spirit showed me the way, but not without the effort on my part. Hippocrates wrote, "In order to cure the body, it is necessary to have a knowledge of the whole thing."

Remember, KNOWLEDGE is what you want in your corner. It is the correct way. It is the Spiritualist way, and it is the way of the N.S.A.C.

God bless and Healing to all.

We All Have To Make It On Our Own

Are You Practicing Self Reliance

BY BARBARA LAUGHLIN
LILYDALE, NEW YORK

Self reliance is one of the principles that Spiritualism is founded on, personal responsibility. Self reliance makes us responsible for our actions and their outcome. Because we know that thoughts are things, we know at the same time that we are responsible, singly, for what our lives are and what they become. We understand that we cannot rest on what someone else may have done, and claim it as our own. We all must make our own way in this world. If we are asked how our lives are going, we, as Spiritualists, know that we cannot answer truthfully, that yes, our husbands are doing well at work and our children are doing well in school, so all must be well. We all have to make it on our own. We should be happy that those around us are doing so well, but that is still no reflection on us. We still have that inner voice to answer to, the one that makes us all know that we must, in the end, be self reliant. We cannot rest on the achievements of others. Upon entering the higher side of life, our loved ones are not going to congratulate us for what other members of the family accomplished, but what did we accomplish on the earth plane. We have much to cultivate on the earth plane, both Spiritually and Personally.

While we are here, we have many obligations, to ourselves and to others. We may at times, like to fall into the rut of letting others carry us through life, especially if we live with those who have achieved some success in life. It is so easy to be his wife, or her son, that we sometimes have a tendency to ride on the successes of others.

Self reliance is also reflected in our nine Principles. Creating our own happiness or unhappiness is a way of saying that we had better be self reliant. We, alone, are responsible for this. We also know that we shall have to make the transition into the higher side of life alone. We shall finish this life being totally self reliant, so practicing it throughout life will only make us feel more confident that we will be able to handle the journey that we must all make alone.

Spiritual Colors versus Earthly Colors

BY THE REV. RUTH DYKE

THE COLORS we use on the earth plane to decorate our homes, equipment and clothing are composed of processed minerals which are obtained from earthly sources. Taken together in certain combinations, they compose BLACK — a non-color of the spirit, but one that is used extensively on earth. The strong earth originating influence of Black is not favored by the higher guiding spirits who strive to serve us with elevated thoughts and philosophy from the spirit world.

The colors we see through our spiritual vision are vibrationally very different from the earthly colors, and when joined together become LIGHT, which is of course WHITE. The earthly colors can be made to imitate the spiritual colors but can never match nor surpass them in their clarity of tone.

The spiritual colors issue vibrationally from the minds of intelligent spiritual human beings living on earth and in the spirit realms. They are often seen in combination with one another in spiritual development "circles", as the spirits join together with unfolding mediums on earth, in the course of their work together. These beautiful color vibations are generated by an elevated mental - soul - spirit level of life vibration that is radiated by one or more human beings or spirit entities — or a group of them. They can be seen as a single cloud-like color, a combination of colors, or combined in or mixed in expressive ways with white light, according to the nature of an individual's ingrained pattern of thought and/or temporary condition of attitude and mood. Character traits create the habitually observed colors issuing from a person's auric radiations. Temporary interests and concerns are evidenced in the variations.

Each of the spiritual colors has its own particular meaning. When blended with other colors, so are the meanings blended proportionately. When the light of the spirit also blends in, it influences any evidence of the other colors in a decidedly upward (spiritual) direction. On the other hand, if dark colors streak or tarnish the clear tones, this will indicate an interference by material interests, concerns, or conditions which are affecting the spiritual life of the individual exhibiting them.

Think of rainbows, sunlight striking prisms, crystals, etc., as a guide toward recognizing the colors and lights the spirits help us to see in the course of taking spiritual development. Especially remember that they can always be seen to VIBRATE with the living energy of LIFE. They are not STATIC colors, as are the processed colors of earthly origin.

The example of the prismatic effect witnessed in a rainbow's or crystal's separation of the component colors of light should not by mistake be regarded as a mystical substitute for the intelligence of God — the Creator of the laws which make these natural happenings possible. ■

A synchronicity of events brought joy, healing and proof of Spirituality.

A DIFFERENT KIND OF HEALING

By The Rev. Arlene A. Sikora, NST
Commissioned Healer

We are all familiar with the laying on of hands as a restorative invigorating experience which manifests itself physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. A powerful connection occurs when the individual acting as a healing channel transfers the positive, curative energy to the "Healee" (one who is receiving healing).

As a receptive "Healee", and realizing that each healing is unique, one may begin to feel a warmth or a tingling radiating throughout the body (feeling the flow of life force).

A lightness may fill the inner space and often a sense of peace emanates, tensions release and relaxation occurs. A sense of oneness, a connection with the Infinite Source to all and an electrical influx of energy may be experienced.

On March 21, 1991, I experienced a different kind of healing, a synchronicity of events and a blessing.

When does a script begin? Perhaps it is the recognition of repetitive cycles leading up to an ever increasing spiraling event.

Did it begin with birth? When did we start recognizing our emergence as spiritual beings and to the events that truly make a positive, uplifting, joyous difference?

For this personal event however, did it begin at birth, at six years of age when I had materialization visitations from my grandmother, or through several near death experiences? Did this start falling into a perfect place in the cosmos at the N.S.A.C. Convention in Phoenix or shortly thereafter when Reverend Cosie Allen asked me to present a workshop on the Application of Spiritualism, March 23, 1991, in Grand Rapids, Michigan?

Was it part of the script that I called my friend Cindy Saul, Editor of PhenomeNews wanting to share some quality time and reconnect, since I was landing in Detroit?

And was it part of the script that AT&T brought Shirley MacLaine to the Fox Theatre for her opening show Thursday, March 21, 1991?

In retrospect, the steps of recognizing "a different kind of healing" on a conscious level of awareness, began with a meditation on Wednesday morning, March 20th. During this meditation I saw myself as a child happily and quite skillfully dribbling a red rubber ball which was encircled with a wide white band and white stars which I perceived clairvoyantly while clairaudiently, clearly hearing and responding to the music of Sweet Georgia Brown. I thought for certain, at that moment, I was participating with as much joy as any Harlem Globetrotter. It was a marvelously uplifting meditation.

Approximately 24 hours later I flew from Bangor International Airport, Maine, leaving behind more than a few feet of snow and what seemed to be an exceptionally long winter. I arrived in Detroit with sunny skies and temperatures in the 70's. I felt I was experiencing a different reality. People were mowing lawns, raking leaves and flowers were emerging. To say the least — it felt like Spring.

After enjoying lunch and reuniting with friends, we discussed our options for the day. When they said Shirley MacLaine was performing tonight, it was unanimous — we wanted to see her and went immediately to the Fox to try to acquire the best tickets in the house. We momentarily joined together with our visualization of good seats still available, this being opening night. At 3:30 p.m. we had four seats together, seventh row center. We were thrilled.

Returning outside the theatre with tickets in hand, our awareness was attuned to the fact that some local TV media trucks had parked out front. Sense perception became focused and flowing in the present moment. A woman who worked for the Fox and to whom Cindy had earlier given a letter and information about PhenomeNews to hopefully obtain an interview with Shirley, walked outside. We chatted for a moment and discovered that Shirley was about to be interviewed, but as yet had not arrived. Asked if she would tell us where Shirley was expected to arrive, she said she couldn't say. She didn't want to jeopardize her job. So, I asked her if she would just think of where — she did!! I immediately telepathically received the location. In that same moment she realized our connection with the psychic and spiritual world and the probability that she had indeed divulged the location. My response was, "Thank you very much."

As if being in a space of semi automation, a detached focus, an observer/participant, we quickly, preknowingly hastened our step around the building sensing an increase in energy and tempo.

Within seconds a limosine pulled up to the curb, the chauffer opened the car door and out stepped Shirley MacLaine.

I saw an extensive brilliant radiant white light — an enormous glow filled with rainbow ribbons of light encircling her. This vibration of unconditional love, the emanation of her presence, could be felt within 10 feet. It was a feeling of grace, power, acceptance and kindness. Above all, it was genuine.

We said, "Hi Shirley." She smiled, a picture was taken and we were in awe. I couldn't have been happier.

The four hours to curtain time were filled with the catching up talk and sharing of experiences that occur when friends get together after several years.

We arrived at the theatre with just a few moments to spare. Co-incidentally, we met the same woman who unknowingly transferred the location of Shirley's arrival earlier. She was amazed and told us to hurry in as the house lights were dimming.

As we took our seats, the lights went out and the orchestra began playing "Sweet Georgia Brown". I was ecstatic. This was what had been shown to me so clearly in my meditation the day before.

Her performance was wonderful. In her two full hours of engaging entertainment, she included dance routines and techniques of famous choreographers to the music of "Sweet Georgia Brown."

In her own song, "Out On A Limb," she shared great spiritual insight. I especially loved her words to "Taint Nobody's Business" where she expressed her awareness of communication with the spirit world and talking to her spirit guides. Something very special took place in those few hours.

The next day the film was developed, but the one of Shirley at the stage door wasn't there. We found the negative and saw a streak in it. We took the negative back and said, "Print it."

The printed photo is most amazing. It shows a bright white flash with rainbows throughout. It seems to be in the shape of a cross or a dove. There was no logical explanation for the "streak." What I had felt and seen in her presence was captured on film.

A copy was delivered to her and within days a handwritten response included; "That may be the best and most enlightening picture ever taken of me."

Through this experience, "A Different Kind Of Healing" occured on multitudinal levels and reinforced a spiritual connection with those individuals on earth and entities in spirit which guide, teach and protect us all. When did the script begin????

Where do we go from here? ■

A HEALING EXPERIENCE!

BY THE REV. BERNARD F. BAKER, NST

Recently, I had the great pleasure of serving the California State Spiritualist Association of Churches annual convention as guest worker. The theme of their convention was, "Healing - Self, Others, Our Organization and Our Planet."

When I first heard what the theme was, I was very happy. I thought, what better theme could there be, especially at this time in history.

The delegates were wonderful. Rarely had I experienced such a willingness to work together for the good of a common cause. In this case, our wonderful religion. The convention was one of cooperation and friendship, and all who were involved deserved the highest recognition. They stood by the theme of the convention.

The three day program covered all of the subjects that were necessary... however, we were not late for any meals and all business was addressed as scheduled.

Before I left Phoenix to go to the convention, I had placed a book on healing in my attache case. I clearly remember that I had consciously said to myself that I was not going to find the time to read this book, and that there was no reason for me to take it on the trip. However, for some reason I did.

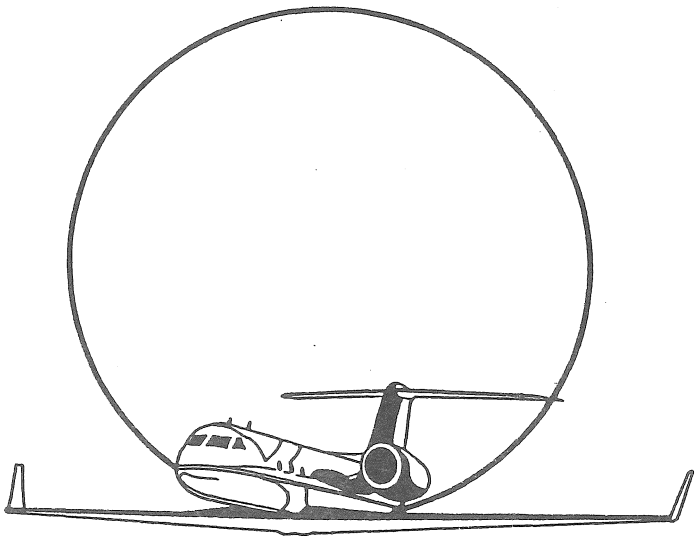

On Sunday evening, after the convention ended, I boarded a plane for my return trip to Phoenix. By now I was a bit tired and ready to relax and enjoy the two hour flight home.

I sat in seat number 7A, a window seat. I had been seated no more than a minute when suddenly a lady appeared and asked if the seat next to me was 7B? I replied yes, and she sat down. I immediately felt a warmness and a rapport with this lady, much like we all do when we meet with a fellow Spiritualist.

We began a conversation and talked about people being nervous when flying. I explained that I did fly quite often and was very much at ease, and besides, I continued, "what could we do about it if the plane did crash?" She laughingly agreed with me.

The plane began its takeoff and all of a sudden the pilot applied the brakes and we came to a sudden stop. Needless to say, all of the passengers became quite alarmed. All, that is to say, except two people. Yes, me and this lady that I had just met.

Instead of being nervous, we quietly began to chuckle. And we made light of the incident, for we had just finished assuring each other that neither one of us was afraid of a disaster, and, WE WERE NOT!

. . . some people have a difficult time in letting go . . .

The reason for applying the brakes, the pilot explained, was that the tower had prematurely told them to take off! Oh well, we were not going to argue about it.

Well, the plane took off and she said, "It would have been easier if we had just projected ourselves to Phoenix, and we would have avoided this experience." I replied, "Yes, an astral trip would have been perfect." And with those few words we both knew that we were of the same mind.

We immediately began discussing healing, as if we had known each other for a long time. I explained where I had just been and the purpose of my being there. Also, that I had conducted a healing seminar and felt that many people had gained and found a different perspective about healing from my talks. I didn't think anything about it when she said, "Yes, that is true."

She mentioned the native Americans and I then noticed that her handsome features were those of an American Indian. It was strange that I had not noticed this before!

Remember the book on healing that I mentioned above? Well, I then realized the reason for my taking the book with me. I said to this lady, "I have something for you." And she did not act at all surprised when I produced the book and gave it to her. She was however, very grateful, and graciously accepted the gift.

She explained to me that she was going to Phoenix to help someone who was in the process of making their transition. She stated that some people have a difficult time in letting go, perhaps because of fear of the unknown, worry about those they are leaving behind, or for other reasons.

She then told me of a close friend who had this difficulty and, after he made his transition, he told her, "Look, everything is fine with me now."

She talked about her experiences with healing and how, in some cases, the medical doctors would again see the patient, after treatment by a healer, and explain the absence of a disease as a probable mis-diagnosis the first time.

She explained to me how the mind can and does control the bodily functions, and the importance of positive thoughts. She spoke about the pleasure it is to share the gift of healing and the self-reward that the healer experiences when they are successful.

She stressed that there must be positive thoughts and expectations from both the healer and the patient, else the healing becomes more difficult. She further explained that in some cases, the illness may have progressed too far and it is too late for physical healing. In these cases she continued, the best thing a healer can do is to help the patient accept what is to be.

She felt that one of the most important things we can do is to study and try to understand the many ways in which healing can and does take place.

Before I realized it we were landing. The two hour flight had seemed like only minutes and, quite truthfully, I was sorry that it was over.

I said to her that I wish she lived in Phoenix so that she could work with our church group. She politely replied, "Well, they need healing up north also."

As she got up from her seat she said to me, "Have a wonderful life." I walked right behind her through the exit tunnel and as we entered the terminal, I glanced to my left, where the luggage would go. As I turned back towards her and looked, just a fraction of a second later, the lady had disappeared!

I looked and looked for her but could not find her. I went to the luggage carousel and waited there, until almost all of the luggage had been picked up and still she never appeared.

I had gone to the California Convention to share my knowledge of healing with others. And I had accomplished this. And now, I had been blessed by being able to share someone else's knowledge of healing, and perhaps, from another and higher dimension!

This, for me, was truly a healing experience.

CALENDAR CORNER

What happened in OCTOBER throughout the years?

OCTOBER 1, 1848 James Johnson Morse's birthdate. James Morse was one of the most eminent trance speakers of the time.

OCTOBER 6, 1843 Elizabeth Lowe Watson was born on this date. She was mediumistic from childhood, she became an inspiration speaker, author, poet and later a minister. A devoted Spiritualist for most of her life she did much to encourage the religious life and loving attitude, while she was demonstrating continuous life before thousands.

OCTOBER, 1851 Dr. George B. Warne was the vice-president for four years and then the second President of the National Spiritualist Association and served for over seventeen years, guiding it wisely. He was a sincere man with a high sense of duty and honor. Under Dr. Warne's administration, T.N.S. was founded and Dr. Warne became the first editor.

OCTOBER, 1852 Maria B. Hayden arrived in England and was the first American medium to introduce Spiritualism to the English by means of raps and psychic lights. Her mediumship interested and converted many notables, such as Professor DeMorgan and Robert Owen. She was a doctor of medicine, a talented psychometrist and an intelligent, educated and refined lady.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

The Holiday Season is not that far away and The National Spiritualist - Summit would like to help you to send Season's Greetings to your fellow Spiritualists around the country, in Canada and England.

T.N.S. plans to have a page (or two if needed) to feature Holiday and New Year's Greetings. This is a wonderful way to send your love and joyous spirit to others by placing your message (20 words or less please) and name on these pages.

If you desire to do this, please write your message and mail it along with your remittance of $10.00, before November 1st, to:

THE NATIONAL SPIRITUALIST
P.O. Box 56039, Phoenix, Az. 85029.

DIRECTORY QUESTIONS

Q: Does it cost $12.00 a year for listings and then an additional $12.00 for any changes?

A: NO. Each August the $12.00 fee for Churches and the $10.00 fee for individuals is due. There is not charge for changes made at the time of the annual renewal. At any other time during the year there will be a $12.00 charge for a listing change, as the typesetter needs to call up the page and then redo the section.

Q: What is the deadline for payment?

A: We will give a grace period to October 31 and if payment is not received we will conclude that a listing is no longer desired. We thank you for your listings.

RING — RING — HELLO!

August 1, 1991

Hi Subscriber,

Many of you have requested a phone number for The National Spiritualist - Summit. The office didn't have a phone so people began calling me at my home. I have received calls from 4:30 a.m. to 11:30 p.m., and weekends and holidays.

In self defense we have installed a phone in the office and invite you to call if you have questions about your subscriptions, order changes, editorial questions or comments, listings, ads or articles . . .

The Number is:
Area Code (602) 274-3161.

TNS Office Hours are:
9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
WEEKDAYS

. . . Please don't forget to calculate the time variation for your part of the country and Arizona. Our time does not switch to Daylight Savings Time and back again like most areas, so we are the same time as California in the summer and one hour earlier in the fall and winter months.

The magazine production necessitates trips to the typesetter, printer, post offices, suppliers, etc., so at these times the office will be monitored with an answering machine. Our mechanical friend will take a nice long message, so state your needs in detail. Sorry that our budget does not allow for long distance calls - so take the time to list your requirements and I will do my best to respond to them. I hope that this will be helpful to all of you.

Blessings,

SANDRA PFORTMILLER, NST

P.S. If you ever miss an issue or receive one that has been damaged in the mail, I will gladly replace it for you. In fact, please let me know immediately if you have any delivery problems.* Thank you.

If

by Mildred Wrightman

If death is the end and there's nothing more,
Then what good's religion, what's it all for?
If there's no tomorrow when we breathe our last.
Then forget today, it's just part of the past.
But if God is eternal, then so are we.
I'm part of Him, He's part of me.
If everyone knows that God can't die
Then neither will you, neither will I.
We just change our forms, quick as a sneeze,
The new for the old, finally free as a breeze.
It's not a long trip, not far to roam.
Just a different dimension called Home Sweet Home.

Recollections of a Medieval Morning

by Lois Wilkens

Chilly mist hangs low on smoky air,
Sounds of barking break a pregnant hush,
Crickets keeping vigil end their watch,
Birds awake and take their vigil up.

Stiffly bundled shapes quickly emerge
From unfamiliar hulks becoming homes,
Shadows passing by my cottage door
Nod and speak to me in muffled tones.

Pinky blush and lavendar of heather
Color dawn beneath a starry sky,
Moments spent in peaceful meditation
Help me to begin the day with joy.

Spirit Guides

by Maura Kirkpatrick
(Spirit inspired 6-16-91)

Today we have a poem for you
Written by your friends true blue
We are your friends from the other side
We are your friends and spirit guides.
Over hill and dale we travel
With you as your day unravels
Close to you as we can be
So close we wish that you could see
Life is sometimes a bumpy road
But we try hard to reduce your load
We tell you things you need to hear
Our way of talking is thru your ear
We whisper soft and quietly too
As we give advice to you.
We serve you your whole life thru
And as you know, we are true blue.
Always call on us with pride
We're your friends from the other side
The veil is thin that separates
But our thoughts still penetrate
All the day and all nite thru
We guard and guide folks like you
So do your best — serve God with pride
Remember — these are words from your
Spirit Guides
Take our advice — never let it part
Keep it and us close to your heart
Till we meet again my friend
All our love to you we send.

ARE YOU A SPIRITUALIST ?

What has it done for you? What have you done for it?

SERMON BY THE REV. BRENDA WITTICH
Given at Spiritualist Harmony Church, Davenport, Iowa

There is much in my mind and much in my heart, and I have chosen to read to you two definitions which you have probably heard many times, and I know you are going to hear again many times: Spiritualism is the Science, Philosophy and Religion of Continuous Life based upon the demonstrated fact of communication by means of mediumship with those who live in the spirit world. A Spiritualist is one who believes, as the basis of his or her religion, in the communication between this and the spirit world by means of mediumship, and who endeavors to mold his or her character and conduct in accordance with the highest teachings derived from such communication.

It saddens me in many ways to say there are people in this religion who call themselves Spiritualists but are not. They will take the definition of a Spiritualist and stop. "I believe in the communication between the spirit world. I believe in mediumship." For some reason they don't go beyond that and endeavor to change their life based upon the communication which they receive. The basis of our religion came to us through mediumship, and is the foundation of Spiritualism, but if that's all any of us absorb by it, then we've lost two legs of a three legged stool, and it will not stand alone. It will not survive unless each of us remember what brought us to Spiritualism, what it's done in our life, and go out and let the world know.

Now when I say this to you, I am not saying, "Go out and try to convert people." We don't believe in doing that. We believe that in living our religion we become an example to everyone whose life we touch, and they look to us and say, "What do you have that I don't have? How can you be so calm when there's so much turmoil? Why don't I see you being fearful?"

You would say, "It's my religion." "Well, what are you?" (O, dear, I don't know if I want to tell anyone what I am or not, because if they know I'm a Spiritualist, immediately they're going to think I'm a kook.) The only way they're going to think you're a kook is if you've misinterpreted your religion and your philosophy, and you're applying it the wrong way in your life. If you're applying it properly, they will see that there is more to it than just talking to dead people.

I can remember the enthusiasm I felt when I found Spiritualism. When I walked into a Spiritualist church, and this blessed minister not only gave a lecture that lifted my heart, but she gave me a message that proved to me there was no death. As I shook her hand, she looked into my eyes and that is the first time I ever saw God looking back at me. I knew there was something I had spent many years looking for, and I wanted to know more about what it was. She said to me, "God loves you just the way you are. There is only one of you; you are a masterpiece, and do you know what the physical world pays for a masterpiece of anything? And yet there is no money that could ever purchase what you are."

The potential of your own divinity is what she sees. And that's what I see when I look at all of you, if you've embraced Spiritualism and become a true Spiritualist. Any "IST" is a follower of something. How marvelous to be a follower of Spirit, the follower of a Spiritual Philosophy. Not one that... "I've gone to church on Sunday afternoon, and now I've done my duty. Now I'm not going to think about church until maybe I go to class, or if we have a midweek service, I won't think about it, but just go about doing whatever I've done before."

Spiritualism is a religion and a way of life. You've got to live it to get to the meat. So if you're not willing to live it, please don't call yourself a Spiritualist. There have been many in this world, and there are many out there today, the New Age Movement, I mean many, who say, "I'm a Spiritualist." Then if you say, "What do you mean you're a Spiritualist?" They reply, "Well, I communicate with the dead and I give messages." I say, "That's a Spiritist; that's not a Spiritualist." Many of them embrace the phenomena and leave the rest of it out. Many aren't willing to put their name on a membership card because if they died tomorrow, heaven forbid, it would say in the paper that... I was a member of a Spiritualist church.

Let me have all that goes with it, the responsibility and pride of standing and looking at the world and saying what I am. I'm a child of God. Spiritualism doesn't tell you how you have to live. It tells you to follow your heart, and as you grow spiritually, you let go of things you no longer need in your life. You can't hold on to Jesus dying for your sins and continue to grow spiritually. It doesn't work that way. It's placing all the responsibilities for your life on someone else, and you're responsible for it.

The man Jesus found his divinity in his communion with God and did he not say to us, what he did, we could do? I'm not just speaking of his mediumship, and his healing and his prophecy and his teaching. I'm speaking to you of the fact that he found total communion with The Creator, and he said we could do it. There are many other great teachers in the world previous to Jesus who found that communion with God (or whatever they chose to call God) and it changed their life, as Spiritualism has changed my life.

What has it done for you? And the next important question is, what have you done for it? Do you realize that (and they are not aware that I'm going to say this) that Anita and Bill and Bucky have completely dedicated their lives to Spiritualism and to this church, but the time is going to come when Anita and Bill and Bucky are going to earn the right to go home. The will have learned the lessons they are supposed to learn, and they will have earned the right to go home to Spirit. Who is going to pick it up from them, or is this going to be another Spiritualist church that dies? Are you willing to learn to work that hard and dedicate yourself to your religion that way? Are you willing to get into your car or crawl onto a bus and travel so many miles to live your religion? To reach out and touch people? If you can't feel comfortable with maybe speaking, or you don't feel you have the ability to be a medium... you have the ability to touch every life you come in contact with, you have the ability to stretch out a hand, and say, "You're not alone, I care for you. I'll help you however I can." You have the ability to help your fellow man find out that he also is a part of God so he can find his self esteem again and his self respect and pick himself up and continue on in his life. Not only do you have the ability, but it is part of your responsibility. We're brothers and sisters, whether we want to acknowledge this or not.

It is true. There is only one God... and we're all a part of that same God. It's our responsibility to grow spiritually; but it's also our responsibility to share what we found with our fellow man. It's up to him whether he accepts it or rejects it. But it's also up to us to go back inside of ourselves and rededicate ourselves, to remember what it was that fired us up about Spiritualism. Then when we communicate with Spirit within ourself or through a medium, it isn't always about what's going to happen tomorrow or next year, because much of that is left up to us by Natural Law. We determine our future; we make our happiness. We've got to remember that when we leave this world what is waiting for us is what we have created. We're going to stand there and we're going to look back upon our life and see what we've done and what we haven't done, to see where we didn't do something we had the opportunity to.

We are living in a world which has become the "ME" generation... mine, mine, mine. We disconnect from each other. Our egos get in the way. We've got to put God and Spirit first. As we move to do what we're guided to do we will be provided for. We won't go hungry, we won't go cold, we won't go without a home. We may not live in a palace, and we may not leave this world and leave a hundred thousand dollars to our children, but we will have touched lives and made a difference.

My life was touched by a minister who is now in Spirit. She gave much to me, and if I, in turn, can reach out and give to one more person a spark which will help to keep them going, then I will have served my God and my religion. I will have used my membership for its true calling: To prove the continuity of life, and to open the doorways so the greater truth can come as man is ready to accept it.

I am proud to call myself a Spiritualist. Are you? Are you willing to dedicate time and energy and effort? Sometimes we have to reach awfully deep into our pocketbooks, too. But there are other ways if we don't have it financially, to be of service.

You choose: Do you want to be a Spiritist or a Spiritualist? Do you want to see your religion grow, or are you happy that the groups are small, because then it can guarantee that you're going to get a message? I've heard people say that! "I don't want the congregation to get too big because that way the mediums aren't going to be able to reach me. And I'm going to go to church every Sunday." I've got one back home who is upset because she didn't get a message last week, and we had about 50 people in church. I say if you need to be reached, Spirit will guarantee that you get your message if it's that important.

Take the food . . . study the philosophy . . . LIVE IT. You don't have to become obsessed with it, but if you truly live it, it will change your life. When you change your life, you change the world. Rededicate yourself, find that enthusiasm again, find that fire, then go out and be the best you can be. God will bless you for it, and Spirit will walk ever close to you. Peace will settle in, and love, then there will be more than the absence of war in this world, there will be true peace and brotherhood, and YOU will be a part of it. I leave you with the question today: Are you willing to do your part, and trust God and Spirit to do the rest? Only you can answer.

GOD BLESS YOU.

STRANGE BUT TRUE

Submitted by Charles D. Jessup, III

Dr. Elizabeth Kubler-Ross set the Medical Profession on its ear when she quit their ranks to pursue the Spiritualist concepts, and the Medical Profession officially denounced her. Many doctors and nurses have since cooperated in a unique nationwide survey which has recorded many deathbed visitations of Spirits of friends and loved ones that went into the Spirit world previous to the passing of the patient. These visitations were called "visions" or "hallucinations," but are now a challenge to modern research. This is but one of the many instances that baffle them!

In his last hours, John Thompson was sitting up in bed, propped up by a pillow. He had a heart condition and knew he was going to die, yet his mind was clear. Suddenly over his face had come a new look, one of peace, a complete and happy acceptance. This was brought about, not so much through resignation, but from the visits from his departed wife and best friends who had preceeded him into the condition called death.

The change had first come about one day while speaking to his daughter Margaret and her close friend who were there holding the "Last Vigil". Quite suddenly his tired eyes lit up with a loving sparkle and he smiled as he turned and said, "It's Katie." This was his deceased wife's name. Then he was quiet for a long time and his daughter thought he might be dying and started to call for the doctor. As if he were reading her mind, he turned back to her again and said, "It's all right, it was Katie," and then he lay back down and slipped off into what appeared a peaceful, relaxed slumber.

The very next day, he was again propped up in his bed talking to the girls, clear of mind and in good humor. He suddenly stopped talking and looked to the foot of the bed. His face lit up with a radiance of happiness and joy. He said, "Why, there's Emmy and Bill!" While keeping his eyes fixed on the end of the bed, with a broad grin . . . he expressed his joy at seeing them, then closed his eyes and slipped off into a peaceful slumber and died with a smile on his face.

Daughter Margaret explained to her friend that Emmy and Bill were close friends who had been the brides maid and best man at her fathers' and mothers' wedding.

This story is true! One of many! But just what do such death bed visions mean? Did that curtain that hides the unknown suddenly become transparent to John Thompson's eyes? Do these death bed visions have a meaning and perhaps a message for all of us? They are really very common with experienced physicians and nurses. They see it so often that they just take it in stride, or prefer to pass it off as mere hallucinations. In this way they won't have to really think about it. But others do often wonder, their memories haunted by the joy and peace brought to a troubled, dying face!

Not the least remarkable thing about such phenomena is that the dying person is, to all appearances, fully rational, in normal possession of their senses, completely aware of their surroundings and cannot be classed as delirious nor in a drug induced hallucination.

To the many who have indeed seen this remarkable happening, the absolute exaltation of mood that comes with that quick glimpse of the "Beyond" has a beauty about it that indeed does verify Newmans lovely lines:

And with the morn
those angel faces smile
which I have loved long since,
and lost awhile.

The Spirit of Infinite Intelligence

The Spirit of Infinite Intelligence operates within and through ME, Permeating my very Being with the Power of Right Action.

Infinite Intelligence recognizes the possibility of applying the awakened
Mind to all our actions.
Teach me from within to realize the unlimited quality of my Soul.

The quickening impulse of this possibility establishes within and without perfect poise and adjusts in perfect harmony my whole Being.
My Intuition and Reason react to poise, therefore I am at Peace.

The application of my Spoken Word creates Life-giving energy.
I cannot separate my Soul from Good.

My Soul is inseparable and eternal — all Love — all Wisdom.
Throughout my acts and actions of daily education I am unchangeably and unalterably complete.

My Consciousness IS God.

I AM part of God and God approves of all I do.

I AM part of God and God approves of all I do.

I AM part of God and God approves of all I do.

AMEN (sing amen three times)

(Think of "I" as the divine spark within, the Soul, not the I of the Ego.)

The Science of Being, Rev. Florence S. Becker

IS EDUCATION NECESSARY?

BY DR. VICTORIA BARNES

Taken from
Advanced Course in the History, Science, Philosophy and Religion of Modern Spiritualism

Ignorance is inexcusable today, it is our greatest deterrent to advancement. Until it is overcome within our ranks we will not be able to proclaim to the fullest the knowledge we have acquired, without suffering grave misunderstanding and derision.

So often ignorance is exemplified in articles appearing in recognized publications, papers and magazines that the general public regard as an authority from which they gain a large portion of their information and give credit to such without questioning the facts or the truthfulness of the statements.

Education is, therefore, the safeguard against false or erroneous presentations of true Spiritualism. A correct understanding of its philosophy provides adequate means of expounding and explaining Spiritualism in a manner that demonstrates how harmful and how necessary it is to introduce all manner of 'isms' from our rostrums, confusing the minds of sincere, earnest truthseekers.

The above statement does not mean Spiritualism fails to recognize or value other sciences, philosophies and religions . . . not at all, for all are part of the stupendous whole, but each has its proper time and place for presentation. The Sunday Service held to advance the interests of Spiritualism is neither that place nor that time. Our workers must educate themselves to present our Truth in a clear, a definite, an understandable and acceptable manner.

It is not something new or unusual we advocate, the wise and the great of every age endorse education. Aristotle said: "Educated men are as much superior to uneducated men as the living are to the dead." Publillius Syrus said: "It is only the ignorant who despise education." Epictetus said: "Education is a treasure and culture never dies." Addison said: "What sculpture is to a block of marble, education is to the soul."

Education not only gives us knowledge but gives us purpose, broadens our vision and at the same time makes us realize the VASTNESS of the unknown. It is preparation for all undertakings here and hereafter.

People holding responsible positions in any field realize this is the day of specialty. Leaderhip does not follow the lines of least resistance - but of qualifications through right preparation. This is true of all undertakings. In business this training makes you better able to approach the public . . . in Spiritualism better able to present our Cause to inquiring minds and better prepared to meet, in debate, the Clergy of other Beliefs.

Letters from the readers . . . thank you all for your input!

 WONDERFUL. Keep up the great work. How about more about M.P.I. and Lily Dale, also from Loll Washburn and Rev. Sharon.

— Cecelia M. Handy

 THE NEW FORMAT you told us about looks very nice and we look forward to receiving the magazine each month.

— C. D. Jessup, III

 MY COMPLIMENTS to you. The Summit Magazine has become a pure delight to read. I take my hat off to you for all the lovely art work throughout the magazine, the bold print . . . Such outstanding work, I'm proud to brag about our publication . . . You have given a lift to our beautiful work of Spiritualism. God Bless you and everyone's endeavors for making this possible.

— Loll Washburn, Certified Medium

 YOU'RE DOING a wonderful job with the magazine, it's so professional!

— Jean I. Lerch

 ENJOY THE publication very, very much.

— Margaret Karis

 I THINK THAT you are doing a wonderful job of producing The National Spiritualist. People at my church and others I have visited have remarked that the publication has improved in numerous ways.

— Stephen A. Hermann

 I AM ENJOYING the magazine and the recent changes. Keep up the good work.

— William H. Hart

 YOUR ARTICLE on Laughter is right on!! Laughter is food for the soul and about the only pleasure that hasn't been taxed. I must also comment on the New Look for the Summit. It is finally a beautiful complement of the Spiritualism Cause. You are making the entire issue a worthwhile learning experience to read and absorb. From where I sit, I believe this new group in charge will open a new era for spiritual truth. You are on the way!

— Mildred E. Wrightman

 IT'S GREAT to have a magazine we can be proud of.

— W. E. Buchholz, Sr.

 I AM A life-long Spiritualist and a member of The Redwood Church of Spiritual Science for 18 years. I like very much what you've done with the magazine.

— Alice C. Miller

 I WANT TO congratulate you on doing an excellent job of editing the Summit. The graphics, the information, the articles and the promptness of its arrival each month all reflect your high level of competence and dedication to National Spiritualism's fine magazine.

— Rev. Stephen C. Robinson, NST

 DEAR REVEREND BAKER:

I do not always pick up the Summit and by some fluke I missed the August 1990 edition. My assistant teacher brought this to me last week and in her words, while reading your article, she felt she was listening to me speak.

Sir, your piece was like a breath of fresh air to me. My thoughts exactly, but I find it so hard to get through to those who wish to call themselves Spiritualists that this is what we are all about. I read your article to my intermediate class, and as it was the last class for the season I thought what better thoughts to leave them with than the ones you so beautifully expressed. I intend to read it to my first class of the season beginning September. I am hoping the words will be remembered, but if not, then I shall remind them time and time again.

I serve many churches in the Toronto area and outlying areas. I always remind myself, while serving these churches, that it is not the building or the trappings that Spirit wishes to reach, it is the people within, and that is what keeps me going. We Spiritualists try to placate those who were of other faiths, to make them feel comfortable in their own churches. I, myself, was as people say a "born Catholic" but I am now a Spiritualist.

May the Infinite Spirit guard and guide you in your work.

— Sincerely, Your Sister in Spirit,
Reverend Doreen Bauld

 I WISH I could tell you of all the continued comments of wonderment and appreciation I hear about the "NEW" Summit. I, among many, am most thankful for all the energies put into this publication!

— Carol A. Rickards

NEWS FROM DAVENPORT, IOWA

May and June were again very busy and rewarding months for Spiritualist Harmony Church of Davenport, Iowa.

Our pastor, Rev. William E. Buchholz, Jr. represented us at the annual Kiwanis Clergy Appreciation Day on May 9.

Our monthly pot luck dinner was held Friday, May 24 and a clairvoyant circle conducted Saturday, May 25 by Rev. Buchholz, Anita Buchholz and student mediums.

June began with a very successful rummage sale on the 5th and 6th. Bonnie Horstman of Charlotte, Iowa, Secretary of the First Spiritualist Church of Clinton, Iowa and the Mississippi Valley Spiritualist Camp in Clinton, was guest speaker at 2:00 p.m. services June 9. Her sermon topic, "Personal Rights," was very well received by all in attendance. Anita Buchholz was Lyceum Conductor for the Horstman children and Rev. Buchholz served as message minister.

Our annual Membership Meeting was held at 1:00 p.m., June 15, at which time our updated Constitution and By-Laws were adopted and the following officers elected: President, William E. Buchholz, Sr.; Vice-President, Rev. William E. Buchholz, Jr.; Secretary, Roma Plagman; Treasurer, Anita J. Buchholz; and Trustees, Mildred Griest, June Davis and Barbra White.

June 22 through 27 found Rev. Buchholz serving as guest medium to open the 85th Annual Season of the Ashley, Ohio Spiritualist Camp, conducting worship services, healing and message services, mini-readings, a seminar on healing, and private consultations during his stay.

Roma Plagman, our Secretary, was guest speaker at 2:00 p.m. worship service, June 23. Her chosen topic was "Be Strong and of Good Courage - We Are Not Alone." Anita Buchholz served as message minister.

Rev. Brenda J. Wittich lectures from newly dedicated pulpit at Spiritualist Harmony Church, 1429 W. 7th Street, Davenport, Iowa 52802, on June 30, 1991.

Rev. Brenda J. Wittich, pastor of Fifth Spiritualist Church of St. Louis, Mo. and Trustee on the N.S.A.C. Board and Superintendent of the Bureau of Public Relations was our guest Friday, June 28 through Sunday, June 30. She provided private consultations each day and conducted a circle Saturday night. A pot luck dinner was held in her honor Friday evening.

A very special service was held at 2:00 p.m., June 30, with Rev. Wittich serving as guest speaker and message minister. It opened with the Hymn "Onward and Upward" with the Rev. Albert W. Potts, Jr. providing organ accompaniment. After the Healing Service, conducted by Rev. Buchholz, Mrs. Sandra Gordon of Muscatine, Iowa, formerly of Grand Ledge, Michigan, presented a beautiful oak pulpit, a gift from First Spiritualist Church of Lansing, Michigan.

Pastor Buchholz gratefully accepted the gift on behalf of the members and friends of the Davenport Church, and it was dedicated in an inspiring service by the Rev. Brenda Wittich.

This was followed by her lecture, "Be A Spiritualist!," and the Hymn, "Higher Ground." After the message service, the ladies of the church served refreshments, and a social hour was held.

This brought to a close the regular season of the Spiritualist Harmony Church of Davenport, which will resume August 23 with our 20th anniversary celebration with Rev. Juanita Lupetti as guest.

MARRIAGE CEREMONY IN DAVENPORT, IOWA

Rev. William E. Buchholz, Jr., Pastor of Spiritualist Harmony Church of Davenport, celebrated Independence Day, July 4, 1991 by performing a beautiful double ring ceremony uniting Gerald Snowden Smithiger and Connie Sue Cheateam in Holy Matrimony.

Rev. William E. Buchholz, Jr., Pastor of Spiritualist Harmony Church, Davenport, Iowa, marries Gerald Snowden Smithiger and Connie Sue Cheateam, July 4, 1991.

A capacity crowd was in attendance at the mid-morning service, held at the home of the parents' of the bride. The bride wore a pink, blue and white flowered blouse and white skirt, and the groom chose western attire.

Thomas J. Dowell served as best man, and Connie chose her daughter, Trenia, as Maid of Honor.

ORDINATION CEREMONY IN PHOENIX, ARIZONA

Congratulations are in order for a new National Spiritualist Minister, Lillian Johanson, of Seattle, Washington. The ordination service was conducted on Sunday, July 28, 1991 at the Chapel of the Sunflower, N.S.A.C. in Phoenix, Arizona. Rev. Bernard F. Baker, NST officiated over the ordination service and then Reverend Lillian Johanson gave a lovely address to the assembled family, friends, congregation and spirit loved ones.

The platform consisted of certified workers including Sandra Pfortmiller, LM, NST, who conducted the Healing Service, Gene Pfortmiller, LM, NST, Frances Lafler, LM, and Janet Tisdale. Each of these workers is a commissioned healer and a certified medium, so the messages and the energies were wonderful. Joyce Freese supplied the music on the organ along with her special smile. Reverend Alma Reeves of Harmony Chapel, N.S.A.C., Phoenix, Arizona closed the Ordination service with an inspired blessing for Rev. Johanson and all of the congregation.

Following the lovely service, a pot luck lunch was served and all commented on the wonderful flavors and variety. The Chapel was filled with flowers, laughter, good fellowship, hugs and much love. The National Spiritualist Association of Churches welcomes you, Reverend Lillian Johanson!

Positive Statements To Help Create A Positive Day

Affirmations . . .

OCTOBER 1991

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
		1 Nature inspires me to create beauty and harmony.	2 My thoughts are filled with joy and laughter.	3 Each individual has their own talents and abilities.	4 I have only to ask and I will receive.	5 Today I will send healing to everyone I meet.
6 I grow more aware each day.	7 I accept myself in all aspects.	8 I am whole, complete and perfect.	9 Each experience is an opportunity for growth.	10 My every relationship is flooded with harmony.	11 I am safe and secure in my life.	12 Each decision I make is guided.
13 I send out joy and joy is returned to me.	14 Life supports me in all ways and I give thanks.	15 I am comfortable expressing my emotions honestly.	16 Life flows through me expressing in loving ways.	17 I am unlimited in my ability to create my happiness.	18 Truth, love and light are my constant companions.	19 I accept and flow with change.
20 I am healthy, happy, and whole.	21 My thoughts are positive and loving.	22 Each day I grow in my awareness and understanding.	23 I draw to me all that I need to fulfill my being in every way.	24 I release old habits and unnecessary thoughts to make room for new positive thoughts.	25 Love and light surround me and protect me, now and always.	26 Life corresponds to my thoughts which are positive.
27 I will greet others with a warm smile today.	28 The power and wisdom of the Infinite expresses through me.	29 I am unlimited to create beauty, good and peace in my life.	30 I breathe deeply, freely and fully, the breath of Gods' perfection.	31 I allow the child within to enjoy this day.

Declaration of Principles

National Spiritualist Association of Churches

1. We believe in Infinite Intelligence.
2. We believe that the phenomena of Nature, both physical and spiritual, are the expression of Infinite Intelligence.
3. We affirm that a correct understanding of such expression and living in accordance therewith, constitute true religion.
4. We affirm that the existence and personal identity of the individual continue after the change called death.
5. We affirm that communication with the so-called dead is a fact, scientifically proven by the phenomena of Spiritualism.
6. We believe that the highest morality is contained in the Golden Rule: "Whatsoever ye would that others should do unto you do ye also unto them."
7. We affirm the moral responsibility of the individual, and that he makes his own happiness or unhappiness as he obeys or disobeys Nature's physical and spiritual laws.
8. We affirm that the doorway to reformation is never closed against any human soul here or hereafter.
9. We affirm that the precepts of Prophecy and Healing contained in the Bible are Divine attributes proven through Mediumship.
