DIVINE WATERS

as Aspirational Heights

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

AS THE WONDERS OF THE Solar Year begin to slowly unfold, glories and possibilities now possible unto man, come forth for him to capture as he awakens from his earthy dream. Therefore, as the Heroes in the past had raised their eyes aloft, Merope sought of the mighty Hierarchs that they would lead her onwards and upwards to the glories of the heights. For the ascent is steep and the spin slow and spasmodic, man being stunned by the depths of the Waters; for as the unfoldment from the lunar waters begins to take place, the Ultra-Sonic glory comes forth, and opens up the mystical path that now lies ahead. Heights fraught with untold magnitude, which for the time leaves man appalled, for he has only known the depths of TIME, the mechanisation of man's illusive belief, gathered from the lunar waters.

(See plate and caption on this page)

Now he is facing the Path of Reality, where he must climb up by aspirational cogitation, to solve the mysteries lost in the depths of the waters. Raise up the spirit, the alchemicalised Fire, that, as his mind, he can resolve his creation from the earthy depths to the plane of mind belief. For here was man as soul, who by being Fired by the Holy Fire, had spun down into the wrong direction; but by the LAW of Evolution had reached the expansion of Seven, and now in the depths with the wealth of the heavens, had only found chaos and strife. For his vision was blind to the glories in his grasp, as he revolved round and round in his murky depths. Quite content with the pit he was in, increasing its lunar squalor.

It was not until the Hierarchs set the Scapegoat into action, that she by the raising up of her mind, rose the ARC and reset the LAW, causing the plane of the depths to be lifted up from its dark abode. For all being planes of vibrational measure, the change in the Cosmos brought changes to the depths. Polarity being the poles of opposition that must remain within their compass of capacity by the LAW of Gravity. So as she raised up the Arc, she raised up the floor of Creation, bringing man up out of the depths.

THE SEED POTENTIAL

AS the oxen ploughed, the Seed involved and held their mighty potentials in the offing, all ready for man to grasp when he awakens as the ship comes home from its lonely journey at last. The eye ever overshadowing the welfare of his past struggles, yet that which will see him safely through. (See text in col. 1).

Editorial .. .. Configuration Message

LET me start off this month by thanking all our readers who wrote to Mrs. Spearman-Cook, expressing their love and support for her as she drives on to bring all to a glorious culmination. It really is appreciated by us all here at the Temple. As I see more and more advanced teachings being brought forward with unfailing regularity I sometimes wonder that the earth does not explode under its forced expansion! I do feel though that the full depths of the divinity of our Teacher, as the creator of the new-born Solar world, and how privileged we are to be learning under her guiding influence, somehow passes the majority of us by. We cannot see the magnitude of her works, or the extent of her accomplishments, for although all has been established in the Cosmos, it will only gradually manifest itself upon the earthplane, through the inflowing Waters infusing the maelstrom with the new ideas. As this becomes fully established, then will the physical eyes be able to perceive of such changes, but not until.

* * * *

MAN has indeed a long way to go before he will accept the unseen actions within the cosmos, but the elements will not ignore him because of this, but will plague him incessantly and drive him till he is forced into the higher realisation of life, and becomes an active part in the new pattern of being ; a willing helper in the rebirth of the Solar world.

"Seeing is believing" has been his rule of life for countless ages, and from this he just will not budge. Yet if he holds to this belief on the lower, then why does he not apply it on its higher understanding, where what he regards as his 'imagination' can be seen in its true light as REALITY, for it is the mind thought that is the man, it revealing the extent of his growth. Therefore what his thoughts are subconsciously centred around, will he perceive as his imagination and is the world that he has created for himself, which he will enter upon, when he leaves his physical body at so-called death.

If he would only realise that his thoughts are his limitation or his expansion, then he might at last look upwards to the heavens and begin to probe into their mysterious depths and possibilities. Yet as he begins to seek, will he find that there are many knots that he has to unravel as he moves along the Path ; knots that he has created for himself through his distorted vision of life, but if he now seeks into the wisdom given in the Occult Gazette he will find these states automatically straighten themselves out, as the Truth is revealed unto them.

* * * *

AS a result of the many lives a soul has passed through, it is now full of contradictory states which it finds difficult to blend together, and just recently I have come across such a state in connection with our Teachings. A certain reader writes in that "she finds the Gazette extremely interesting, and is ever amazed at the teachings being brought forth, BUT she is sorry that we have descended into politics, and as her political views do not tally with those being expounded in the Gazette, would we kindly cancel her subscription."

I am almost at a loss to answer such a soul, whose confusion of mind has completely blinded her to the Truth, she being unable to let go of the Saturn states that are holding her firmly in the mud of matter. She being unable to expand her mind, and raise it up to a cosmic viewpoint, where the petty states of earth will be forgotten, and all be seen from the standpoint of Spiritual evolution. This certainly cannot be achieved while the soul still insists upon the antiquated idea of class distinction !

Either the soul is going to fully accept that the British Government is now Spirit controlled, as the powers are directed through the Prime Minister, and that the decisions he makes are being directed from Spirit, however unpopular they may be at the present, or he must reject all teachings given over by Mrs. Spearman-Cook as also being untrue. You cannot pick and choose your wisdom, only accepting those parts that fit in with your personal beliefs, it must be all or nothing. I am most surprised that this particular reader continued with the Gazette as long as she did, seeing we have been advocating these truths for some time now, but no doubt it is a case of the higher mind refusing to go any further, as it sees changes ahead in the unfolding wisdom.

All souls reach a stage, sometime or another, where renunciation is demanded, but the majority cannot summon up the will-power for this, they really only seeking into the wisdom in a state of intellectuality and not that of a true heart purpose. All readers should think this over carefully, as they never know when they might find themselves in these very circumstances.

IT IS A TIME TO HOLD ON AND FIGHT, AND WHERE TRUE SPIRITUAL PROGRESSION CAN BE MADE.

* * * *

NO doubt as many of you already know, on the 12th November last there was an important configuration in the heavens, that of the eclipse of the Sun by the Moon, with Venus and Neptune being in conjunction with them. The Lord Maitreya commented briefly upon this before one of the lectures given at the School, and this is an extract from it :—

Now this is the outcome of the configuration, where rigid and strict results are going to be meted out in reply to those who do not put into operation the Solar creation ; for it will mean that all the lower states will abide and bring untold devastation, as it is doing in the World of Rome. That is but the beginning ; I have already warned you, and the devastation is going to be diabolical, but naturally it is going to pull upon the Axis Rod, and you will have to do all you can to help her and support her that the Work can go on."

There is no need for me to comment upon the devastation that has hit Italy, except to say that if ever a country needed cleansing, it was Italy. It is interesting to note that Florence, home of all the intrigue and evil of the Medicis, was so thoroughly battered by the elements, but it seems that this is but the beginning of yet greater things to come. You may have noticed that for the November 5th Development Class, the subject being taken was in fact the Medici.

This was no coincidence, but a well planned action by the Higher Powers, in order to gather the combined power of all those who were concentrating upon the subject, and direct it in one vast sweep towards the offending city. This was planned well in advance, and can be verified by anyone who wishes to refer back to the October issue, which was compiled early in the month of September ! Could anything be more evidential.

To come back to the actual configuration however, this involved the two extremes of the Neptunian plane, that of the Moon and Neptune. This was to enable the Sun and Venus to become established as the raised up royalty of Vega, and was the lunar side of Neptune to be mastered, and is where the sodomitical states are going to be overruled. Neptune and the Moon are the two extremes of the Poles, and it will only be by the soul mastering the lunar states on the Neptunian plane that he will be able to draw in of the Solar Light.

This shows there will be a continual state of opposition between that of Spirit and matter, and the Prime Minister, being Spirit led, will unfortunately find everybody and everything in opposition against him for many months to come. If he can just drive on regardless and overcome these states, then he should accomplish much, but whatever his difficulties, they are minute to the strain that will have to be carried by our Leader, as she struggles to hold the Axis straight, against all the conflicting forces.

* * * *

IT will only be by man raising up his Scorpio desires that he will be able to blend the Solar Ray into the Neptunian waters, which he will achieve by the continuous ploughing between Taurus and Scorpio. If he does not do this, then his Neptunian waters will be cold and non-active, a non-productive state. Yet when infused by the Solar glories, will give him the wealth of the Sothic Cycle, the rebounding glories of Time and experience.

THIS IS THE SOTHIC CYCLE, THE REVOLVING FROM HEIGHTS TO DEPTHS OF THE SOLARISED SEED, WHERE THE WEALTH THAT CAN BE OBTAINED IS DYNAMIC IN ITS MAGNITUDE.

If man goes on taking the contraceptive pill he will kill the Seed wealth of Neptune, and so be unable to receive of the Sothic wealth, until finally he will become merely of a eunuch state, with no fire and only living in his feminine creation. One day he will find that you cannot play fast and loose with the Divine Seed, but by then, for many, it will be too late. We must hope that the inflowing Waters of change will awaken them to the Truth, and as rapidly as they possibly can.

I will end this month upon a lighter note, in wishing all our readers a happy and fruitful Christmastide, and do remind them not to forget the Horae on the 21st December.

Finally she rose up all the planes, bringing them to a status of Androgyneity, closing up the lunar creation. Yet here at the hour of Relativity, she found the means of bringing Unification by uniting the depths with the heights. Raising up the Holy Fire out of the depths of the Waters, setting the Arc radiant with light, causing Antares as the Generative Resource to sperm the depths with new life. As she did so, the Lord of the Flame burst forth from his lunar captivity, for the Lord of the Heavens as the Christos King, was awakened from his earthy Embodiment. (See plate in cols. 4 and 5).

The Cosmic Mind Unfoldment

THE Solar Sun now became the Central Sun embodying the Galactical Field of Cosmic Rebirth, with the Scapegoat bringing all into a Solar Field, a Solar Path of mind unfoldment. Where man now would be fed by the Elements from the heights, and not the maelstrom reflection. Thereby awakening the wealth in his depths, which now was becoming diseased and unbalanced through the captivity in the depths.

As she fed those glorious heights with wealth from her mighty depths, SHE as Woman raised up her Fount, as the Leviathan of past mystical creation. Wealth gathered, that she as EVE in being born from the side of Adam fell to the depths as the Angel of the heights, and became the negative polarity of life.

But after much struggle in the depths, she as Merope rose up, seeking for the answer to life, thereby finding the Spark of Holy Belief, and setting it flaring into light. For as she fathomed more and more into that mystical creation, she awakened to all that had been, and began the change of Rebirth, whereby she raised up the lower El powers and united them with the EL Powers in the heights; bringing her back to unity with her Spouse, Adam, now the Lord of the Flame.

(See diagram in col. 2)

Leaving Martha, the labouring Cinderella, in the depths beneath, for she as Merope was the extended Christos of the depths, she who had taken on the Scapegoat for the releasing of the Holy Embodiment. Thereby her spine became equivalent to the Axis of the Earth, and as she rose in frequency and sensitivity of thought, did she raise up the frequency of the planes.

All this bringing mankind to the Solar Path, although he was not aware of its existence, but found the changes swiftly passing under his feet, as the Hierarchs flooded the unfolding depths. Hence Government rebirth of a drastic nature was set into motion by the Waters of the heights and the Hierarchial instigation.

Therefore Merope as the Channel of induction with the Stream of Electro-magnetic current flowing from the depths to the heights, began feeding the world with life and vigour. The electrical stimulation from the heights coming from the Cosmic changes that the scientist foresaw and feared, not knowing their spiritual capacity. They not accepting the power of Spirit, or the Element possibility.

HERE WAS THE WEALTH THAT MEROPE HAD SET INTO ACTION, NOW RAISING THE FIRES THAT SHE HAD STIRRED INTO FRICTION, BY BREAKING DOWN OF OLD REGIMES AND OPENING UP OF NEW CONSTITUTIONAL THOUGHT, BY THE HIERARCHS OPERATION IN THE DEPTHS.

For man was still seeking through the old way of thought, with the Fiery Elements of the New World now firing him into life. But he still seeking through illusion, of what he believed was the necessary way of life. Animal flesh and clogging vitamins, that he still believed his constitution required to nourish his physical strength and mind capacity. Physical nourishment that would replace his glandular functions, and copulate his bloodstream into healthy action.

All this is what brought the Leukaemia of the soul into the pit of earthy density, a state of Blood into a cancerous standstill. A body infused with Cosmic Rays that required an antidote to bring about what the Higher Powers had intended by the first infusion. This was man's prerogative, what he had to seek into, whereby he could set it into motion.

Mastering The Inner Wealth

MEROPE realised that this was most essential, for she had been the means of stirring the Higher Powers into this active creation. But it was not long, in having moved one Law, another was moved into action, which brought the Ultra-sonic waves seeking to drive the Cosmic Rays into the electrification they could ultimately bring forth. This could only be done by the soul driving through their mind these waves of inaudible sound, bringing into birth their audible wealth. But if not set into motion, would bring about a stoning state of inertia.

Therefore the answer to this dreaded disease, is mind expansion, that which could only be infused into action by the electrical activity of the Uranian Fire. That which would drive the Solar Fire as the Prism of the heights infused with the greater intensity of the Word, which could be the means of opening up the hidden Mystery of the inaudible waves of the Ultra-sonic.

The blood, containing the fiery action of change, being driven by the ultra-active powers of the heights. For here was the homogeneous as the

THE RISING SOLAR GLORY

AS the waters receded, Merope, on the shores of Time awaited the glorifying Flame to bring the fire of her Lord down into the murky depths, that the rising glory would lift up the planes and unfold the depths into light. (See text in col. 1.)

MAN, that which should be rising up as the soul creation, now lost by the intensity of desire, the mastery of the beast. The negative side of the plowing intercalary prevailing as the Venusian seduction of the lower, instead of inducing the male element, as the positive, into a fiery dance of sperming mind activity. What should have been as the infusion of aspiration raising the mind of the soul upwards, only brought the infusion of the negative side of Scorpio as he regenerated the soul in its rebirth.

The fight as depicted between Aries and Scorpio, the negative and positive Mars element in the Swan Lake Ballet as they fight to capture the Neptunian Waters, the divinity of the Holy Fire in the Generative Rebirth.

HENCE MAN LEARNING TO VALUE HIS SEMINAL WATERS, WHICH ARE THE MEANS OF RAISING UP HIS MIND, AND OF WHICH HE WILL NEED AS HE BECOMES FLOODED WITH THE MIGHTY RAYS FROM THE HEIGHTS.

Up to the present they have only become his Venusian playground, the luxury of the sleeping Bull, which is now resulting in disease and disaster. The king's evil now reigning supreme, the dreaded reaction of Lot and his daughters; yet his very wealth if drawn up out of the bones of the legs, as the solidified fire now suppressed in the cancellous tissues of the lamellae of the bones. That which can, if retrieved, and refired by these powers from the heights, bring forth in the uniting of the root with the blossom, a Seed truth of a dynamic reinfusion.

Man transmuting the magnitude of the depths into the glories of the heights. Woman's wealth in the tail of her coccyx, which would become reimbursed through the Fires of the heights bringing out the glories of the depths. The mystery of the raising up of the leviathan, the mysterious glories of her Chinese and Moabite wealth. Yet at the present, only the means of being the impoverished state of the blood. For man and his mind, which are one with the other, reside together in this mysterious stream of sanguineous waters. The playground where Mars and Venus chase young Cupid, and bring into birth reborn illusive ideas.

Yet now by the inpouring of the higher Fires, all this wealth can be brought into life, and Woman as the Queen of Sheba can rise up to the heavenly heights, to lay her wealth at the feet of the SON of the Sun, the Divine Lord of the Flame.

THIS IS WHERE MAN HAS GOT TO LEARN OF HOW HIS INTERNAL WEALTH LIES WITHIN HIS OWN HANDS UPON THE SOLAR PATH. HOW HE HAS GOT TO BECOME MASTER OF HIS CREATIONAL INTENTIONS THROUGH A METAPHYSICAL INVESTIGATED BELIEF. PROBING INTO THE ROOTS, AS OLD CREATIONS THAT AFFORDED HIM THE WEALTH THAT HE HOLDS TODAY AS SICKNESS AND DISEASE.

Glories from the Chinese creation, where man brought down untold Fire by his mystical ceremonies of the Fiery Dragon. Wealth set into operation by the Emperors and Mandarins, that they could be fired into aspirational action by the activity of the people. With the mystical starry wealth brought down by the Arabs in their star gazing as they caravaned their way across the desert. It was this prototypal wisdom that became the foundation of the litany now created by the Catholics; the so-called eucharistical blessing stored and sacredly blessed in their altar vessel of the monstrance.

Therefore it is not only the wealth of the past that these Fires are seeking to recreate, but bring such artificialities, as created by man out of these past wonders, into their rightful balance of truth. That which the Fire is now going to cleanse out of the mind of man, that he can begin to think through the inflowing Solar Waters. He now acting and creating by the Christos Blood, which he is now receiving as the inflowing Solar Glory from the Central Sun.

Not the deceptive knowledge set into action by orthodoxy to hold and captivate the people in a commercial entanglement, but the true Christos inflow as a Solar Blood infusion. That brought into birth through the creative wealth of the ruach received from the upper ethers. Whereby, as man thinks and so accepts, will he receive on different strata of induction, wealth of a mind nature of rebirth. For he will be able by a matter of attunement, to absorb and gather in of its beneficial wealth, that will stir the Fires and wealth in his depths.

MAN REALLY RECEIVING HIS NOURISHMENT OF REBIRTH FROM THE HEIGHTS, THE INFLOWING COSMIC ETHERS AND FIERY PRISM.

The Holy Fires

SO it must be seen of all the wealth in the blood of man, as well as the congested states of the bones, that which is the foundation of his present calamity, and of which the Fires are seeking to bring forth. States that drugs will not subdue, but only elevate out of context, increasing the glandular distortion. Therefore the answer lies in the inflowing Hydrogen Waters set into operation by Merope. Waters that now hold the Ultra-sonic waves, the mystical glories of the heights. Yet the whole Prism of the Solar Divinity, the radiance of the Central Sun; that which can bring into birth within the soul, the glories of the FLAME.

This is where every man is a Christ unto himself, that brought into birth as David danced before the Lord in a linen ephod, that he could raise up his aspirations unto the heights.

LETTING THE WORD IN HEART PURPOSE INSPIRED, DRIVE HIS MIND INTO ASPIRATIONAL BELIEF, DRIVING ALL UP TO THE HEIGHTS THROUGH A MIND GYROSCOPIC SPIN. HIS HEART AND MIND EVER SEEING THE TRUTH, AND HIM MAKING FOR THE WAY OF REBIRTH; THAT WHICH WAS ORDAINED FOR MAN AT THE BEGINNING OF TIME.

Here we see what was intended and portrayed in the mystical Scriptural Legends, a witness that was brought to a living Word through the historical events of the Ages. That placed on the archives of TIME, that man could be guided and led upon the path of Rebirth, as the Solar truth broke upon his Waters. Where man was slowly going to learn to really discard the beast, and dance with the glories of the Spirit, whereby to raise up the Arc within the glories of the mind by the magnitude of wealth now in his blood life.

The whole Galactical Field of Cosmic Waters now his wealth and creative possibility on the Solar Path now lying ahead. But a world far different to what man believes; not a world of zombies, or a creation of financial magnitude, but a mind world that will give to the soul his internal etheric counterpart.

This is the world that Merope set into operation, a world of new LIFE and BELIEF, a world where man must become attuned to the Gods, and receive their inflow through their Divine Waters, that would set man into a possible aspirational uprise. Snows that have gathered up in the heights, through the rebirth of Merope's beliefs in the depths.

For as man creates and sets the revolution of Evolution revolving, heights and depths set the "seasons," and man is born anew. These are the Cosmical Waters, hence it can be seen how Merope set dynamic magnitude when she drove up to the heights such wisdom of rebirth as she did. Thereby setting the LAW as she rose up the Holy Fire, thus causing the whole of the heavens to become reborn.

Expanding the Ursa Major into a mighty family of Baby Bears, for the El fires in the depths and the EL Fires in the heights, were now united in Holy Union, and electrifying the world into new birth and life.

HER had gone back to union with HIM, bringing completion of life through the Cosmic. What it needed now was the aspirational completion by man in the depths, whereby he began to create and bring forth of the Holy City. The city of the soul, the internal etheric creation as his divine homogeneous in his dancing bloodstream; where man, born of the heavenly Waters, would open up his mighty wealth as the glories of the mind.

GENIUS THAT HAD BECOME AS LOST WEALTH OF THE ANCIENT PAST, THAT COULD BY ITS POLARITY FROM ITS INNER SOURCE, DRAW FROM THE HEIGHTS BY THE LAW OF ATTRACTION, AND BRING INTO BIRTH OF THE INAUDIBLE ULTRA-SONIC WAVES OF DIVINE MYSTICAL POSSIBILITY.

The Solar Pneumatikon Radiance

GEMINI the enquiring mind now fired, that it, like David, can dance right up to the heights, making union with the Hierarchs, and be touched with their Sperming Waters. For all now is electrical fusion, where man by the effort that he makes, will find the answer to life. Ever bringing into birth the unfolding possibilities of the Scorpionic Waters.

For as he raises his zeal and desire, does he create by his alchemical contusion, through the ever inflowing Seed becoming the Holy Seed, as his possible rebirth of mind unfoldment. Showing how man is now the guardian of his own creative in-birth, his own hope of freedom from the captivity he now finds himself enmeshed in.

The daughters of Zion no longer sitting by the waters of Babylon, but like the heroines of the past, up and doing, bringing new and active life into birth. Creating and weaving, spinning and sowing, as they form the garment of the soul; struggling in every way to bring forth the golden glory of the Solar Pneumatikon Radiance of the internal bloodstream.

The glorious pearl-like depths of the Cancer Waters, the mysteries of Woman brought back into life, as the mighty Leviathan is caught and hooked in the waters of the magnetic. Wealth gathered from the whole Cosmic infusion, from the TIME of Kingdom-cum. Worlds and universes created by the soul, who as the unfolding thought seed of growth, was slowly coming into birth, to become the Holy Fire of man's mind unfoldment.

HERE WE HAVE BUT MINUTELY LAID OUT BEFORE YOU, THE ROAD OF THE SOLAR REBIRTH; THE WAY THAT ALL MEN WILL HAVE TO TREAD SOMETIME OR ANOTHER TO BRING COMPLETION TO THE SOUL.

Therefore let us now seek to follow Merope as she endeavours to climb these mystical heights by the aspirational ladder she has now set into birth. Thereby set her feminine Cinderella as Martha labouring in the depths, by Martha stoking up the fire, and causing the kettle to boil.

That steam as Spiritus Air can go up through the chimney, stir the Chakras, and cause the lower three to prepare the Apachal rhythm, to set the Le Ros activation into creative motion. This is the broiling of the waters, but now on the Solar Path, where mind and not desire is set into active mind creation.

The glorious dance up to the heights, where Fire and Air will now unite and blend in mind aspiration. Stir the blood, fire the heart, and race up and down in a gyroscopic spin, until the Word is fully fired, and its inner point of TRUTH retrieved.

This the soul does by firing the sensitivity of the Chakras as well as the nervous system, causing the frequency to rise, firing the liquor sanguinis as it goes forth on its spiral up to the heights; then spinning up through the mysterious cervical, changing the organs of mind acceptance as they enter the heavenly palace of Ra. Feeding the two mighty Chakras in the heights, which gives the soul polarity rights with the upper Waters of the heavens. The Chakras all connecting with the planes in unfoldment of possible re-imbursement.

So Merope prepared her spiritual Chariot, the heavenly Chariot of the Sun, the glory of her passional waters, setting them dancing in their black and white union, that unification could result on the immediate belief of those inner blending waters bringing active proof to her mind. For was she not bringing forth that which had never been created before. So as they twisted and twirled and inter-blended, her horses of dapple grey hue rose up from the depths, carrying her up to the planes.

FOR THE DANCE WAS OF THE ETHERIC UNFOLDMENT, NOT THE PHYSICAL GLORY; ALTHOUGH THE PHYSICAL ALWAYS RECEIVED BENEFIT FROM THE INNER SOUL CHANGES OF THE BLOODSTREAM.

As she went round and round that mighty mount, she found as she drove her mind in many new ideas and beliefs,

THE MYSTERY OF THE DEPTHS

LITTLE does woman know what wealth lies in those depths, the mystery of her bones. Yet the fire within the sacred sperm, in the magnitude of her tail, for she is the wealth of all Time, and now the possible glory of divinity. (See text on page 3, col. 5).

that her own appearance was slowly changing, as her horses rose with mighty outspread wings. For while the glories of the way were mysterious, although we talk of dancing up the spine and through every Chakra, we are ever in the creation of the Void, the mind in the internal bloodstream of the soul, as it brings forth the glories of the Arc. The soul perceiving on different phases of sensitivity, as the lower desire rose up in frequency, and freed the nervous system to vibrate and create, through the new functional possibilities.

The soul pulling the sword out of the mighty stone of the mind, the four ventricles of the heart, ever remembering that the scabbard was more valuable than the sword, for it was the ventricles of the mind being reborn, giving rebirth to the heart. The four square as the dancing precision in the dancing ballet.

So as Merope rose higher and higher, she danced the glories of heavenly aspiration into her purified belief. Not just unfolding the Word, but heart and purpose becoming fired with zeal and revelation, as she rose her glandular glorification. Spinning round and round in a gyroscopic spin, not only through her mind in her reborn void, but the Solar light dancing through her reborn bloodstream, as the camel crossing the unborn desert. Rebekah sitting on the furniture, and gods of Saturn pregnant with new belief and ideas. Yet also in her modern belief, the White Bat flying in and out of her radar system, bringing forth the glories of the heavens.

The Divine Spouse

AS she rose, the magnitude became more and more revealed, leaving her amazed as she saw a mighty ocean-going ship unloading its cargo of grain into the port of her soul. Wealth that she had gathered over the Ages, now coming forth as her harvest, set in action by the struggle of her earthy service.

As a Scapegoat it was colossal, wealth that no man would have dreamed of; but here it was in its unloading, raising up her aspirational beliefs, upon the new Road of Creation. A tricky and trying time, for the mind was blank with new life, with the spirit, the glorious fire of the soul, no longer buried under its earthy creation, but rising up as a butterfly out of its chrysalis unfoldment.

It was this she now was seeking to rise up and place as the glories of her Arc, that Aries her warrior could now begin to labour and fight to bring forth the Christos king. Although Merope born as the Master's Spouse by Cosmic inter-marriage, Martha as the Sut labourer in the depths, the lower mind, was bringing up the whole of the soul onto the higher propensity.

For the soul is not just one turn of the mind, but twelve different nations, all with their gods in the heights as the mighty men of the soul. All to become over-shadowed by the Christos light, that by the Le Ros dance of Martha-Merope, it would slowly unfold into the Presence, bringing the soul to its grand finale, as Rebekah alighting from the camel's back.

Whereby in seeing her Lord, she would alight from the alchemicalisation, and become one in the "tent" of His MIND. All gathered in under the canopy of the Arc, the glory of the blended up Fatherhood. Therefore this was what Martha was seeking for as Merope stood on the Mount, and with shaded eyes looked afar to await her sister's coming. For Merope could not

THE STRENGTH OF THE SPIRIT

AS he poised his shaft to strike, the glory of the Holy Presence came forward to strengthen his grasp, for he was struggling with the biggest curse of all time, the ignorance sprung up from the matriarchate depths. That which now is the root to be beaten out, and involved into the light of day. (See text on page 4, col. 2).

enter into the gates, until Martha had brought up the whole of the retinue, who as the lower mind had struggled hard, but had found the way difficult and confusing.

For she was the labourer in the depths, the stoker of the fire and the cleaner up of all the vessels, which as the soul in its multiple creation, was ever in a state of diversity. While here she had to learn a greater lesson, the true lesson of Androgyneity, not just bring all to a state of oneness, but electrified by being cleansed of all old ideas, and fully born of Solar divinity.

That now polarised with the heavenly creation, for where it was polarised with the depths from Cancer to Ursa Minor, it now was polarised from the soul's pole star to that of the Ursa Major. The soul having the range of the heavens, with Martha-Merope flying around the depths of her void as a Bat seeking through the radar depths of the perceptory principle. This being the practical conception of Martha, while Merope the higher mind as the perception of REALITY, sailed forth in the Chariot of the Sun, now drawn by six flying swans, the glories of the Spirit.

Merope was going forth into the heights, while Martha her sister was peering into the practical facts, that she could Depths where no sound comes forth, yet alive with fulness and rhythm; glories that hold the mystery of Being, as all becomes reborn from the internal depths, and issues forth to give the world new life. Wealth of the Hyperboreans, that born from the extreme North, the royal glory of Neptune.

The extremity of inaudible magnitude, ecstasy completely unexplained in the Swans and Uranus now blended into perfect oneness, as the Spirit and the Fire electrified into glorious radiance. The Bull now fully tethered to the heights, sperming the soul in every Chakra, for Merope was now exploring mysterious creations, that she could by the rights of Martha's struggle, bring expansion to the Solar path.

For really by the mode of understanding, they now had become as one, but ever separative as further heights and depths were pursued. Martha still the practical creator, to help man in his sheep-like comprehension to find the unfoldment of his mind.

He refusing to change, and often having to be urged by the gentle reminder of the fiery piercing waters. Therefore Merope in sailing forth, was bringing untold expansion to the now created Solar path, whereby the Holy City was beginning to unfold and blossom in the depths. She by her Gemini unfolding Solar mind, using her Mercurial rights to spiral right up into the Hierarchial territory.

THEREBY PIERCING THE URSA MAJOR, DRAWING FORTH THE ATOMIC WEALTH OUT OF THE DARKNESS OF THE MYSTERIOUS OUTER SPACE. THE DIVINE ATOMIC COSMIC BREATH, THE ATOMIC SOVEREIGNTY OF GLORIFIED LIFE, BREATHING ITS DIVINITY INTO ALL MEN.

That which is the Atomic Dust of the heights, which in reaching earth can either become, in the soul receiving, the earthing of the Black Swan, or the crowned Swan of the glorified heights. In the negative the calcification of the bones, or in the positive, the etherealisation of the mind. Therefore, as she made her sweeping flight, would she bring forth the Brahmic Thread, the higher counterpart to the thread of Ariadne. That which would lead her back to the Central Sun, to find complete union with her Divine Spouse, the Lord of the Holy Flame.

For now she was being born of the fired perceptory principle, whereby she could inspire all men to seek of the divine way of bringing their minds into birth. They who had failed her from the beginning of TIME, causing her to be bound to the World's cross until she could lift up her Lord to his rightful place as the Holy Fire of Divine Rebirth.

This she did, and opened up the glory of the heavens, for the Ursa Major being the sacred EL Power of the mysterious heights, is the Divine vessel of the virgins. Who, when they pierce it, find that of the steel whereby to master the fiery passions. They then being the means to be able to revolve the Word, ever sending up yet greater light to the starry heights.

Therefore the glory now is the drawing forth of the Divine Waters, where every soul who sups from their wealth, can be born of the mysterious magnitude of the unified heights and depths. Glories never known before, but now brought forth by the investigating aspirational mind of Merope, as she sought to bring the Holy Fires to complete Magnification.

EYES OF EYES

An Interpretation of Each Eye State

by Douglas Chesterman

EYES of the blind, the disbelieved.

Not relating to the actual blind, physically speaking, but to that as a result of religion, where the mind sees only that of form. Yet among the religious men we find the educated and those in responsible material positions, who with all their education can see no further than the form of earth. They being blind to the reality of life, which even when shown to them they refuse to accept, saying "It's the work of the Devil" or some other excuse. So they disbelieve of truth through fear brought about by ignorance, a state of blindness.

EYES of illusion, the Luna.

This follows upon the previous eye state. It being that because they are blind to truth, the ignorant state begins to breed further blind states within the soul, bringing no positive outlook at all, but merely a state of the negative. The soul with the idea of going to the Moon, thinking that he is going ahead in progress, whereas unbeknown to himself he is going back. Eyes of illusion give him false ideas of what really is, and answers why so many people need spectacles, it being due to their loss of inner sight.

EYES of the Solar, the awakened.

Now here is where the soul begins to look UP, up inside of himself, not up in the sky, and in looking up he will begin to see into his own heavens of his own heights. Here the matter of the changing states of frequency begin to take shape, as the frequency of light begins to quicken in vibration, and the mind as the eye sees light upon a higher state of vibration. This takes place by that which was previously unseeable becoming seeable, since all is of light, even that which is in the blackness of outer space.

EYES of the Blackness of Space, the reality.

This is going on from the previous eye state. Because the eyes are now looking upwards into his own microcosm, the soul is beginning to create an insight of reality. He sees himself as he really is, and through the Word of Universal Philosophy, he begins to penetrate the blackness of space as a timeless state, where the 'gods' in the meninges begin to take charge of the depths and are able to speak to the depths via the submarinal telephone of frequency adjustment. He could also see the sights of the very macrocosm itself, as seen by the eyes of the gods, not the physical eyes. For man sees the heavens with the eyes that are tuned to the earth frequency, whereas the soul will see through the eyes of the gods frequency.

EYES of the cosmic clock, the timeless.

So now, being one that can look up into timelessness he begins to look into the FACE, the face of the IT, and the fullness of truth is revealed unto him.

EYES of the auric gods, the meninges.

This has some linking with the Eyes of the blackness of space, but now he sees into the nuclei of creation and is able to see behind the eye of the Central Sun, the sperming womb of the Seed. The Sight of sight, the frequency now being out of reach of earthy blindness.

EYES of Alpha and Omega, the immortality.

Now the eyes begin to look into each other as man faces God. Here he reaches the passage of no-return and becomes immortal in himself.

I of EYE.

Thus the EYE becomes the IT, and the I as the Great Unknown becomes known.

THE SEEDING OF THE EMBODIMENT PT. 2

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

This lecture was delivered at the S.U.P.H. on Sunday 31st July, 1966, through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Flame of the Central Sun, the unified Spiritual Wealth of the Cosmic Hierarchies.

HAVING perceived the first Seeding of the Embodiment, we can see the falsity established by religion, and the enormous task Merope had, to 'undermine' before she was able to raise up the Embodiment waiting to burst forth. For then, as now, all the signs as the hosts were fighting against the changes now interpenetrating. Then finally Merlin at Candlemas brought the establishment of what was given birth at Christmas, and a sperming took place with the Powers. This resulted in Leodegrance as the Yod of Leo beginning to move, and started the transubstantiation of real inner rebirth, which brought changes in the fourth as Guenever, the daughter of the king of Cancer, rose up and married King Arthur. With the result, May-day in bringing down the Fires, brought out the incestuous states. Hence the trio had to ride to Capricorn to try and break up the sodomitical states that seemed to be killing off the horses.

The True Embodiment

THE May Fires that came down laying them bare, bringing out the beast, for they could not capture the hart, the spirit as lower or higher Neptune. Wherewith Pellinore or Penious followed the questing beast, and after its death followed Palamides, the spear frequency or spinal sensitivity, in seeking to capture and master, and bring to heel.

The two sides of Virgo were vying with each other, with the harlot winning through, and the dirt going up to the heights. But now in the chase the penious state had taken over of the spirit fire : "Thou may take my powers by force," said Arthur, "but you have got to prove whether you can handle them or not." Hence by this he takes away the fires as desire, and gains mastery over Draco, whereby the Christos power in the soul wins through and sets up fresh action, and there came forth ideas of a more expansive state.

All this being born into the Cosmos as the new LAW to enter down into the depths*; all brought into birth by the Embodiment; new Life out of the Heights, which Merope had to complete as the Electrification. Immediately all was established, what was born started talking expansive wisdom, and the King could not believe it. This unfortunately resulted in the magicianal states also breaking through into expansion; consequently an incestuous state became added unto the clarity of knowing.

Hence the soul could not define the truth, for it went and destroyed the sensitivity, which is a very finely poised matter. It was then that the King, through the dual state of the Virgo, knew he had created a karmic debt under the Taurus misdeed. So he seeks of the Mary growth that the higher side of the Virgo could become with child, and bring forth the promised creation of the Fatherhood.

Through this, Ulfus declares that Queen Igraine, the mother of Arthur, in not declaring that she was with child, had enforced a state of pollution by not earthing the truth. So whatever the soul talketh in the name of wisdom, it is his cross until he can bury it in, and give birth to the eighth. For the birth of Arthur was no more than her declaration; so finally Igraine as the personality accepts the Solar change which was the foundation of the Fire in the fireplace of conception.

Here we see Merope's struggle of earthing the REAL Christos, against the 'pseudo' which the Catholics were raising up, in avidya. But then as now, the soul had so sodomised the glory of the Seed, that it could not bear any seeking the real truth. But even under the circumstances a feast was arranged where all the seven elements were opened up to the eighth conception.

THE IMPORTANCE OF PLOUGHING

HERE is the conscience, the Martha/Mary or feminine state in its independent creation, waiting for Boaz, the Taurus part of the soul, to come along and get driving and ploughing : unless he does this, so that there is a driving action in the soul, the feminine principle is left starving. The Bull is the one that draws down the Holy Fire, and as he does this, he can, by his Love, sperm the whole stud. This story is flooded with mystery, but it had to be 'kept under cover' so that it was not destroyed by religion.

Yet it was no more than Arthur being recognised; then the states would have been buried-in, and the knight who was the means of exposing the error, seeking knighthood, a true bull state.

But it is seen that Gliflet as the sensitivity, good as it was, when put to expansion, would still touch others with his negative state. But for all that, he was given the expansion, with Arthur as the Solar light, demanding the full spiral of extent in the ever-replenishing of the Seed in its unfolding degree.

Therefore, as the soul goes further into the depths of investigation, he perceives his basic wealth, whereby his pseudo-shield of divers colours falls away, leaving him bare to his acquired wisdom. That which has not expanded into a multiplicity of egoism. Thus light as he expected, but now as he jousted with the opposing knight, he fell backwards as a fallen Phaeton, acquiring a 12th house state in that it only left the soul with the Fu.

But it did set the winds and alchemicalisation moving, with healing being applied to rid him of his incestuous ideas, with the whole twelve knights being touched, seeking that Arthur, the Solar Fire, should now prove himself. This would convince all within the soul of the greater Reality now being stirred, but in being challenged, Arthur will die if they take it not. But Arthur replies, 'Although you challenge me, I owe the emperor no truage and am prepared to prove my truth,' for my father is the interpenetrating Fire through the Word.

But unfortunately these knights came at a time when his mind was being healed from the action of Mercury's fallen ego. So Arthur had to get prepared that he became more and more fired with the idea he was advocating, otherwise the Merlin state within him would have died. The divine sensory principle as the glorified atom that was seeking to be born as the radiant magnification of the MIND.

But Merlin replied, "No ! it is only lost for the time being"; therefore acting on the moment prevents the loss through the Mercurial weakness that has now arisen. For it must be remembered that Arthur was the risen state of the Embodiment, as belief and definition by the mind of Malory, or that of papalism.

So it is declared by the soul, that there is only one way, the going down South to clear away the falsity that has arisen. This is the point to take fully into account; the spirit having to go down and down into the depths of experience until it reaches base, then rising up as a created light of mind-unfoldment. This is what the majority refuse to accept, yet it has to come, otherwise there is no soul growth.

Stimulating the Fires

SO Arthur as the Solar Fire is warned of further changes about to take place, and on entering the depths sees the wealth which he now has to fight for. That which took place in the activity of the bulrushes, the battle of the roses; for Arthur was fighting the Black Scorpion, Draco as the doubts of the twelve knights from Rome. Thus Arthur wrestled with the evil of Pellinore, and raced off his helm to complete it; but Pellinore was strong, and overcame Arthur. Therefore the two Bulls or Rams that fight for supremacy with Pellinore, for the time taking the lead in their own ideas.

The negative side had prevailed for the time, but Merlin as that mysterious state of ever-becoming, puts the negative side to sleep and raises Arthur the positive side up into action. Thus the WILL wanted reviving for Arthur had flagged as the negative prevailed, with Arthur being concerned when he thought that Pellinore was lost through what was thought enchantment. For Arthur knew that Pellinore was his source of becoming, but was advised by the greater wisdom, that although his purpose of re-creation was that mysterious state of inner intent, many things often have to take place to save the day, that the real heart purpose can be fully established.

So Arthur was not to worry about Pellinore, as his survival from the negative intent would improve and bring forth two sons from Venus. These being Aries and Taurus, yet would unfortunately be the means of destruction of this realm in its greater intent of growth as time went on, for man will not knoweth the purpose, owing to his ever negative acceptance, thus ever wearing female shoes and never finding the real purpose of life.

Taurus continually falling backwards, while Arthur's intent was to go forward. So Arthur as the Solar regenerative rebirth went forward on the knight's horse, the soul's own passions, with Merlin as his state of will and the Fu to drive him, but the desires ever falling backwards through the force of power being received.

After all that had ensued, Arthur is now cleansed of what Pellinore had inflicted upon him over TIME, but only to find that he had no sword, no super-will of striking. He had lost the Uranian fire; the power of parrying to cut away of old states. No sense of force to struggle and fight for truth, for the outer-world powers had been suspended for the time.

So there appeared out of all the past negative states the sword or super-will as a new risen Uranus; hence Arthur was able to go forth to set this gigantic task into operation once again. But the preparation for what Merope was to complete, for all was the outcome from the experiences created by the feminine principle, as black as she may be. For there was a rock of that which had been, from which such could be produced, and still more to be extracted out of those Waters if the soul would only awaken to the truth.

Thus when Arthur sought of the Damosel for this sword which she had charge of, she was willing to give it if he would give her a gift when required. That is, if he would sperm her with mind infusion, which Arthur consented to do. Here was the masculine growth coming forth out of the feminine, with the wealth gathered by Woman being handed to Arthur, The Christos rebirth. Hence we come to the mystery of the sword and scabbard, which entailed the soul going forth on the Waters of life once again, to take of the will they had a right to.

THEREFORE, AS ARTHUR GOES FORTH INTO THE DEPTHS OF EXPERIENCE, HE COMES TO THE VERY SOURCE OF HIS STIMULATING FIRE, BUT THE KNIGHT WHO IS OUT SEEKING FOR THE GREATER PURPOSE—WHICH IS EXPANSION—DRIVES ON.

For Arthur now knew that he had the sword that would help him find the inner motive of his crusade Thus we come to the moment when Arthur is questioned as unto his real true motive of unfoldment, and was questioned as to his preference of sword or scabbard. Whereby Arthur replies, "The sword of course". Here he was advised that that was unwise, for the sword as the Fire destroys, while the scabbard as the Seed sheaths and produces; the lesser and the greater will, while Arthur in his new-born state had chosen the lesser, not seeing the possibility, the true Reality.

This had yet to be revealed, which was the work of Merope later on, for the Sword in its greater production was the Fire, and the scabbard the electrified mind from the electrified Fire from Antares. That which could be a perpetual source of new life.

Hence under the changes now taking place, they rode on and met Pellinore on the way; but he knew not Arthur for he was now independent fair, having passed through such mighty experiences, and now heightened to the greater intent and purpose of creation. Therefore the depth of esoteric growth from the Element Embodiment was well known to man even at that time, which was no more than that handed down from the wisdom established in Egypt from the stores of Atlantis.

Man was ever renewing the law, which was set at the beginning of TIME, hence the reason why Egyptian wealth was referred to as the Dawn of Civilisation. Others created, but not with the LAW and ORDER that Egypt put into operation. Hence the endurance of their mighty Temples, which at the present moment is being recognised to some degree. For such creations brought mighty Streams of wealth to the earth, which if not continued, leaves the earth mightily bereaved.

The Le Ros Awakening

AFTER all this manoeuvring by the soul and the alchemical changes, Arthur finds that egoism now starts to take over in a big way, and even seeking to master Arthur, but he accepts the challenge. Therefore another way had to be devised to deal with this problem, whereby all the fiery particles are gathered together on the May-day festival where they could be struck off by Uranus to see which could catch alight, or be struck out.

A day of judgement whereby the soul would prove itself. This included Mordred, Lot's son, who was the only creation that was saved, he being the passional drive of the fiery element. But after the striking, only Mordred and Arthur survived, and then only as a magicianal state, because, for the time, the beast state of the soul had taken over, with all as raw fire.

The black and white states unblended, for this was the end of the preparation, and the way now ready for the greater issue, but the 'mardi gras' was fierce. For Arthur was the creation of the Solar light as the higher mind, that in becoming the inborn light of the soul creation, would feed the lower. Now the feminine principle as the lower mind had to awaken so that she could be the weaver in the depths, and set all received from the higher into active re-creation.

Hence the feminine principle now girt with a sword, is seeking for the positive way to set the Uranus action sparking, but has yet to learn of what lay in the depths of the Waters. Therefore by her move, Pendragon as Saturn is buried in, and Arthur takes over as the first glimmer of light on the mount.

For egoism is still reigning high, which Arthur seeks to challenge by greater and greater jousts, or struggle through dire opposition. Then the soul wins its rightful armour and places the CHILD upon the throne of LIFE. The glorious creation brought forth from the depths, and given FACE in the light of truth and wisdom.

Then up rose the damosel or feminine principle richly dressed and girt with the sword, but also ready to fight. Thereby bringing Arthur to a positive creation of light; hence the knights of the round table must now be prepared to draw forth the Fire of the sword. So Balin the Aries knight, poorly clad and only in a savage state. sought to draw out the sword, and did so quite easily, although he at the present only being of the untutored raw fires. Therefore must now warrant his action by his acts of prowess that will bring truth and belief as a part of his growth. Hence he made ready to depart by horse and armoury to go onto the waters, although not aware of his future.

Now we find the Lady of the Lake arises as the virgin of Virgo, and demands the mind purpose of the knight who drew out of the sword, the Aries pioneer that will now go forth and replenish the father with the golden mind. So which side will she now be prepared to take over as the dance of Mars and Venus in Le Ros.

But unfortunately we find that the soul cuts off the head of the virgin, leaving the harlot in charge, which leaves the savage dancing as Aries. Thus he holding the sword as a responsibility, which results in Balin now having to seek out Rience, that of the egoism that was the cause of him pulling out the sword. For he is now banned from the court of King Arthur, and even says, NO contest with any of his heights. But Aries in the negative state held the harlot, which Merlin as the Fu had warned the soul would happen in the becoming sensitivity of the mind unless it raised its ideas.

Then we find that Balin is pursued by Lanceor, the haughty side of the soul, and therefore turns and jousts with him, and destroys him. This actually brought about the changing of the harlot, which caused Balin to meet his brother Balan, which is Aries meeting the better side of himself, causing him to weep with remorse.

At last seeing the necessity of construction as well as destruction, whereby he opens up his heart and declares how foolish he has been, although out of such ego, the better side has awakened; and together mind and ego go off to fight the egoism so firmly established in Castle Terrabil, the stronghold of the lower mind in the depths.

Although this appears a rambling on of the soul, it really is the alchemicalisation as the Solar Light to bring all to a positive rendering. Then the soul would be lifted up out of the dregs it has been forced into to try and find light. Yet when seen in all its magnitude, the glory of the Fatherhood manifesting through the struggle to create and bring forth.

To those who look on it means nothing, but to the soul in its anguish of bringing forth the Holy Fire as the Christos rebirth, it means everything. But in any case no soul cries out for help until it finds the screws of rebirth beginning to pinch and tighten.

COMPLETE RENUNCIATION

THE young girl is being called upon by religion to renounce everything, and here you see her cutting off her tresses. So religion, in the beginning, did incorporate all these mysteries, but now of course they have died a natural death: they never reached the fulness of what they were being called upon to do. Renouncing under mysticism is far different to renouncing in the way this young woman is being called upon to do; for she now is going to be beaten by the nun with the knotted girdle. This is her last call, before she renounces everything of the outside world. She is going to learn to become the 'bride to the Christ,' and to feed all the monks of the monastery.

Alchemicalisation of Powers

ALTHOUGH this appears as a live story of the soul, it really is of a soul-nation, where in the general trend the Solar Fire is coming into birth as the Christos radiance, through the daily breathing of man. How the Embodiment earthed as Element rebirth in the beginning of Pisces, and only embedded into the earth itself, was now in 1400 coming forth in the soul as the birth of Arthur.

This could only take place through the old states being buried-in and new ideas coming into birth. Yet it would be all this that was preparing the way for the terrors and evils that were to begin to come into birth in the 20th century. That which would find its full seeding in 1966, and demand immediate attention.

From the time of the Embodiment until the sprouting brought forth by religion, all was utterly medieval, and man was living in the dregs of creation. So the awakenment was a gigantic task, for everything was so complicated and incestuous; therefore to try and bring forth the Solar light as the heavenly Flame, was almost beyond hope. Therefore in 1962 when the Second Advent took place, man was firmly established in the evils of papalism.

Thus the unfoldment so far had only been the re-establishment of the twelve celestial hosts, that Arthur the Coming Glory as the Kingly Divinity could be born into the World as the LIGHT and Truth of the MIND. The Divine unfoldment of the Holy Fire, the SEED and Breath of the Great Brahma. The FACE that was ever coming into birth as the Divine Macroprosopus, becoming as the pinnacle point of the Solar Arc as the Divine Fatherhood, or positive creation of the world, as the World of Immortality.

But all Arthur was able to do, was meet the negative side of the soul and not bring into birth the greater understanding. Therefore the wealth of the Excalibur was missing in their eyes, and the wealth that should have risen was merely rolling around in the mud, and the glory that should have manifested was now missing.

Hence out of all that had been created, they only meet on the way a dwarf as stunted wisdom who wants to know why they slew Lanceor the haughty side of the harlot, and brought about such changes. For having killed off the impediment, instead of transmuting it,—which greatly displeased King Arthur,—it had not helped the rebirth, for now the Solar Fire seeking to bring light to the soul, could not get any movement, and for the moment only a stoned state had resulted.

Thus Merlin the intuitive mind warns the soul, that through its impulsive acts continually warring, discord will continue until the royal states are born from those entombed. The positive state must find survival, but until, poverty and misery for "twelve years", the whole round of the chart. Yet all this was to be the unfoldment of the wealth that lay within the depths of the soul, and had to be uncovered before the Solar light could make any impression in the world of life.

Then the sensitivity awakened and began talking to Balin the savage, whereby he met the knight with two swords; the power of Capricorn and Ursa Major the Bear, that of the Pole Star. Thereby Mark the triune Fire went unto Arthur, and Balin into Rience that of ego that changes could begin.

Hence through the changes now put into operation, they met Merlin on their way home, and followed his counsel, whereby Balin the savage in his positive fulness, through the counsel of Merlin, brought Rience as the egoism in all humility to Arthur. Then in all meeting, the Fire penetrates into the depths and transmutes, thus the EL Powers find expansion.

Thereby Arthur as the Solar alchemicalisation caused many to "die" in, and Arthur himself became reborn. Even unto twelve kings being given complete rebirth, with a new birth even taking place with Lot's wife. Yet all brought into birth by the action of the driving Fires. The continual flight of the Word driving the camel train, although much went into the rock as raw fire. This is the confusion man brings about, when if he had followed the direction of the Spirit, he would have risen up as an arielised immortal creation, a son of the Father.

Instead of things going straight-forward after the internment, confusion sets in and Balin the Savage takes over as the raw fire running amok in the rock. For Morgan le fay, the sister of Arthur, who has been in a convent, and only a righteous side to the virgin, now adds her love to the Excalibur, which turns out to be a suppressed state of passion. This is what Merlin prophesied, thus a greater battle will have to take place, and was really the outcome of what was not turned-in at the Pentecost. Showing once again, how foolish it is to let things slide, feeling that all will be alright. Once lost, it is most difficult to try and recapture, and the soul goes lame.

This caused Arthur as the promised Christhood to go sick through not obtaining the dancing mind, but only being left with the righteous state of his sister, and finds that the alchemicalisation is being forced into action, but under the wrong motive, yet holds all the wealth. Thus Arthur begs of Balin, the negative side as the beast, to try and find the mysterious knight that passed that way with the Damosel, that he could extract the wealth he had confiscated. Little did he know that that knight was the inner depth of the spirit, which by being interned now caused the feminine principle to take over the wealth. For it was she who found the mysterious knight by her weaving, but also she who bled in the struggle according to the custom of that castle.

That is, a dish of silver, full of the blood of a clean maid shall be shed, that the royal king shall live. So Balin the savage made her bleed by her good will of suffering, although her blood did not help the Lady, the Virgo mind. She shed her blood in her struggle and suffering that her Master could live.

Therefore it can be seen of the prototype that was laid down for the Second Advent, which Merope had to put into operation to the very full. It also shows how Malory awakened to the truth of trying to bring Arthur as the Solar FACE into birth. Yet ever being repeated on plane after plane, with the King becoming more and more visible, as the Damosel and Lady became as Guenever.

The Atomic Fire

STILL, with knight after knight going forth to fight for the truth, and maid after maid coming forth to plait and braid her hair, would the truth awaken in the inner depths, and one day the glory of the mystic would become the Religion of the day. But more and more complications were coming into birth, with Arthur and the round table being slowly forgotten. Thus the whole picture becomes full of knights, armour, horses and jousting, with paramour after paramour seeking of Morgan le fay as the lady with the sensitivity ever coming into birth that can be used for material ends. The Virgin as the inner unfolding mind, being divided between the wisdom of the spirit, and the nunnery.

Taking The Veil

by A. E. Waite

Folds of flesh henceforth enwind thee,
Earthly veils thy form conceal,
Five restricted senses bind thee—
Dimly wails our vain appeal.

Wings of those that loved and knew thee
Round about thy house may throng,
But the charm of life which drew thee
Holds thee by a spell too strong.

Soul of sweetness, thus forsaking
True life's light and love divine,
When the witch-spell fails, awaking—
Light and life and love be thine.

So the walls of earth entomb thee,
So we leave thee—born of men;
May thy sisters' hands assume thee
Born in death to life again.

Reminiscences

MAN'S LOST GLORIES

IN THE NOVEMBER ISSUE OF THE OCCULT Gazette, I made very forthright statements regarding Aberfan, and promised to continue my comments in the month to come. But now have something more solid and conclusive whereby to verify my findings. Although I may not be very popular with the sentimental, I am not pandering to sentiment, but trying always to find the point of truth, and hand it to you whether we like it or not.

The Hidden Powers

ON the 21st October 1966, after my Reminiscences had gone to press, this picture appeared in the Evening News. Could there have been anything more evidential of my statement, that the Druids once occupied this valley and brought down untold Fire by their ritual. Thus impregnating the earth with raw fire. (See the "face" near top left hand corner of plate on this page).

This became rich seams of coal, which man has wrested from out of the earth, and never replaced by either mind or labour. The older generation who played some part in this are still fixed in old ideas, so would not be so much as the magnet, although of the magnetic.

But the children, full of fire, especially those around puberty, would be as a magnet, and the elements forced into the earth and being held captive, would be fed by those young fires, ever seeking their way to them to get free. This usually takes place in Chaos, when rebirth is taking place, and understood by all Mystics, and is quite a natural happening of Nature.

It is not a matter of wrath, but the Laws of life fulfilling their natural rights of law. Man and the Laws of the Cosmos are inter-blended, for man is the means of those Laws being created. The trouble lies in man's avidya, of which the Occult Gazette is trying to explain and show man where he is going astray in materialism.

The whole of that valley was a Lodestone mountain, and would have been heavy with iron and Saturn states. Depressing and ugly, dead and dismal, with no life at all in the radiating atmosphere. I have come through such valleys as these, having well toured Wales in the past, and these slag heaps are a disgrace to the community.

Thus my previous comments are minute to what could be said; how a city of people could have lived day in and day out under the heavy depressing atmosphere of these heaps, is beyond my understanding. I presume that these dwellings were built at the time that these pits were in workable order. If not, to build a residential quarter here, right under these ugly defacements, seems ludicrous.

Now is a time to look into the Real CAUSE of the disaster, not send thousands of toys or even money, but learn the lesson that man has had to learn from the mistakes. But I am afraid this is rather a severe one, for man does not like the truth, especially when it entails changes which man refuses to accept.

The Welsh are a very fixed Race, and very set in their religious ideas, yet considering they have been bred and nurtured in the arms of mysticism, it is amazing they are not more aware of these truths, there being certain parts of Wales where all names and instructions are in Welsh, and the atmosphere is quite foreign.

It is completely impregnated with the mystical vibrations of their old Druidic past. But it is very evidential of how the Fire Element is lacking in this part of the world, especially around these Lodestone mountains.

The power that was here could have been equal to that of Rhydr Valley, only there was not a River roaring through. Although, water was trying to make its way up, and will do at some time or another. This is what man should be looking into.

The photograph in question is without any doubt more than genuine, and certainly very evidential. For if taken by a 33 millimetre camera, would be impossible to fake, though it would have to be raised up a little to rephotograph. I personally having a very similar picture taken by an outside photographer. Of course the cameraman himself would have been psychic and capable of rising up to that sensitive vibration by his own fires, to capture what was only a "bow shot away".

These heaps would be heavily magnetic, and would supply ample earthy psychic power for any who had the Neptunian powers of suppressed fire. Then the world of spirit, which walks side by side with the earth world, would manifest. For everything of earth is HERE and NOW, all it needs is the added element to bring it to life, yet they be more of life than the form.

Nothing dies, all lives on, but here in this earth, the lecithin agent that holds altogether, and is in all things, has been extracted, leaving the heaps dangerous to all and sundry, besides emanating dead states that are non health giving to those living near them. The people themselves are like the rest of the world, lacking in wisdom, hence are lacking in fire.

Fire is not obtained by food as the medical fraternity advocate, for the fire required is not an element of earth, but the higher quality of life drawn down from the ethers. It is a revivifying agent, and when extracted from the Prism obtained by the breath, brings forth the hormone in the pituitary that supplies the generative faculties with the Seed. When the soul knows how to extract this by spinal activity of the vagrants, they are replenished and refired.

If this was understood, and the powerful magnetic element of those heaps had been used, phenomena of enormous immensity could have been produced. In fact, if the souls had transmuted those powers into Solar powers, the healing qualities of the people in this valley would have been amazing. As it is, brought forth some of its inner mystery.

These powers are not human and not evil, but POWERS that have not been shaped or worked. The Druids, like many others Races, called down the powers to fortify themselves, but were not ready to extract their secret wealth.

TIME IS AT ITS FULL NOW, AND BEING THAT OF RELATIVITY, I WAS ABLE TO UNIFY AND PERFORM THE TASK OF CHANGE. IN SO DOING I BOUND UP THE LAWS THAT WERE RUNNING WILD AND BROUGHT THEM TO PEACE, BRINGING DOWN AT THE SAME TIME GREATER POWERS TO FEED THE RACE.

It is man who is still at variance with the Laws, and will not accept change, let alone the deeper understanding of the mysteries, which are a part of his inner being.

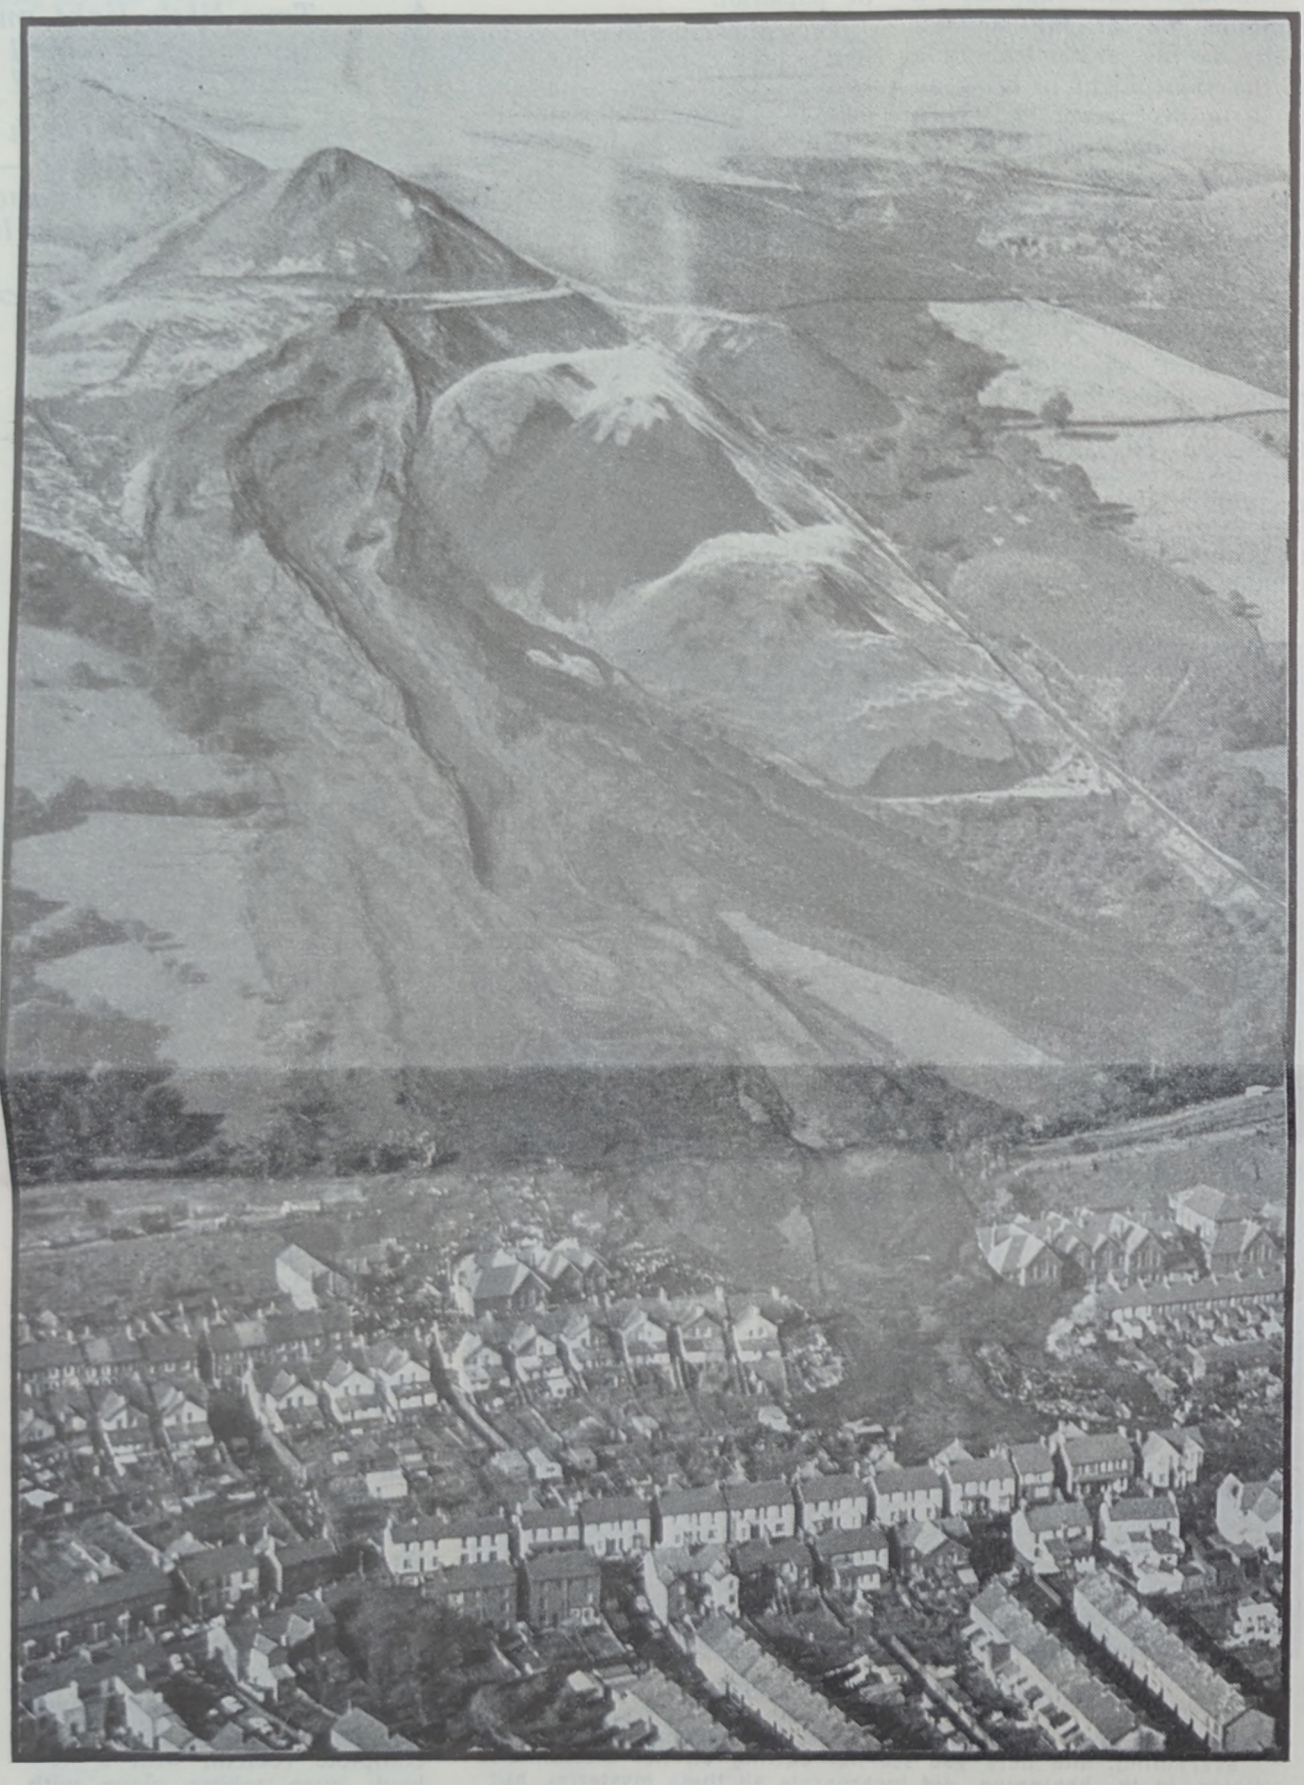

Cosmic Retribution

WE have only to look to the news of November 5th, when we see Italy being flooded once again. This I saw and warned of days before it happened, but this is not the end as it is proving, and never will be while the pope goes on discussing contraceptive pills and union before marriage.

Apart from it being a disgrace that one, set as the so-called spiritual leader to bring down the Eucharist of life, should discuss nothing else but sex after my previous explanation of the Fire of LIFE being in the Seed. It certainly is a tragedy that such a man has no better wisdom to offer the people.

He being as a Laocoon, automatically is bringing disaster down upon the country, by his actions as a very inferior priest. (Laocoon caused Troy to be destroyed by Fire). But this can also apply to England if she allows the Sodomy Bill to ever besmirch her hopeful possibilities that now seem to be upon the horizon with a strong Labour Government in power.

I notice in the Italian disaster, it was not the people that were receiving the first consideration, although there are hundreds dead and quite possibly many derelict, but emergency plans being put into operation, with boats being confiscated, to move out the art treasures, but not the people. These treasures being lost by the score, are in any case antiquated, most of them stolen under blood and war, and the majority of them are fakes. Perhaps this is why they are not bringing the protection that may be attributed to them.

AMIDST horror, disaster, magnitude and mystery, rears the ancient past as the ghost of those Powers all rolled into the unity of Relativity. What had been, now returning as the unfolding cycle of divinity. (See text in col. 1).

To verify this statement, let us look to the Daily Telegraph supplement no. 110 Nov. 4. Robert Hughes, a 28 year old Roman Catholic, is writing upon the many fakes that are utilised in this religion to bring in finance, and of which they call art treasures and sacred relics. Such things as these being cared for before human life.

His most scathing remark being, "enough pieces of the true cross to build the Italian Navy." While another had a "feather from a wing of the holy Ghost", and "the ribs of a female saint that turned out to be the ribs of a large dog." But furthermore, "at a certain church they had the foreskin of the Christ, which unfortunately was broken in two by a dominican inquisitor trying to test its elasticity". Since there has never yet been a Christ, these seem to be doing very well with their money-making racket.

But no wonder the Powers are getting wroth with such duplicity, for this article by Hughes, and a Roman Catholic at that, needs reading, for one to be shocked at such evil in the name of Divinity. When spoken to upon this matter, merely reply that it helps uplift the people. Italy seems to be going the long way of learning her lesson, while the ritual that she has been practicing for hundreds of years, is not bringing her the eucharistical strength that she requires to keep her safe from disaster.

I predicted that in five years religion would be obsolete, this will be noticable long before that.

FOR WHERE THE MYSTICS IN THE PAST HAVE PROPHESIED THAT IN A.D. 2000 VEGA WOULD BE THE POLE STAR AND CHANGE THE FACE OF CIRCUMSTANCES, THE POLE STAR IS ALREADY CHANGED, AND VEGA NOW HOLDS MAN WITH THE VENUSIAN BEAUTY OF HER STEELY BLUE GLORY.

So religion is ended, hence Italy and her disasters. But it will not be until she really meets the worst, that she will collapse and come to her senses.

To practice such duplicity on the world which she and others have been doing under the name of religion, is appalling. So-called saints' teeth, bones, skulls, earth soaked in blood from the Hill of Golgotha, and many more disgusting creations, which in any case are not at all good to look at.

If I had spent any time gazing at these things, I would have been down on my uppers, and well cut off from my heights. Yet all the news is only about the art treasures that are lost under water.

IT IS THE RACE THAT HAS TO BE CONSIDERED, THE SEED OF THE YOUNG CHILDREN THAT ARE BEING LED WRONGLY, NOT THE ART TREASURES OR THE POPE OR THE VATICAN.

There are plenty more old men waiting for that job, for he like the rest of us, is a soul learning the lesson of life. Although there are many wonders to be seen in Italy, the background and history is appalling, and can well do with being wiped out.

I AM AFRAID THE WORK OF THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE IS HEAVY, BUT NO MORE THAN WE HAVE BEEN WARNED. WE WERE TOLD TO BREAK UP THE INERTIA OF THE WORLD, OTHERWISE DISEASE WOULD DO IT FOR US.

Well! I have done it, but do not blame me, but man; he was well on the way to losing the Seed, and will find when he has swallowed enough pills, that he has done considerable damage to his most precious possession, his Fire action.

THE SOONER MAN TURNS TO THE WISDOM OF THE SOUL AND ITS GROWTH THE BETTER. ONCE UPON A TIME THIS WAS THE SOLE UNDERSTANDING, AND MAN LIVED FOR THE WISDOM HE COULD GAIN BY SUCH INTERPENETRATION. SO IT IS A BASIC OF THE SOUL, WHETHER THAT BASIC BE CHINESE, EGYPTIAN OR HINDU, AND IT WOULD ONLY NEED A LITTLE STUDY TO BRING THIS TO LIFE.

Then man could understand his inner idiosyncrasies that need blending up and dissolving in. For no longer is man being guided by the moon, but URANUS, and any who can see into this wisdom, should give this a thought, and see how URANUS has influence with them in the coming years. How it makes aspect to all passing planetary forces. For this is the revolving wheel that keeps the fires alight, and the sparking going up to the heights, the keystone of the Arc.

I am afraid a lot of past themes and theories have passed and no longer exist, especially around the sciences. What man has considered important and sacred, will be no longer of any value in the eyes of the Hosts, and man will have to turn to the greater Powers for the guidance he has been refusing.

MANY MAY THINK I AM VERY COLD-BLOODED IN MY CRITICISM. I AM A CONSTANT COMPANION OF THOSE POWERS, I RECEIVE WISDOM FROM THEM THAT I CAN PLACE IT INTO THE GAZETTE, SO AM NURTURED UNDER THE KIRTLE OF THE YOD. UNFORTUNATELY TRUTH IS EXACTING AND ONLY HAS COMPANY WITH JUSTICE, NOT MERCY.

Man lives very much under illusion at the present moment, and it is amazing how he swallows such erroneous wisdom. One hospital declares that if you do not eat and be fortified by vitamins, the soul will die. Then another has announced that you can go for 8 months without food, providing you have water and vitamin pills, then you can lose your excessive weight.

I have proved that a lot of these things vary according to what the doctor himself desires. If he likes big steaks, then steaks are more than necessary for your well-being. Just recently I have evidence of a hospital trying to break in a person who was striving to hold to their diet, and finally agreeing that they were right in what they had been advocating.

As one who is sensitive, and capable of seeing through most things quickly, I am amazed at the stupidity of people occupying certain important positions that give them so much authority. Powers that open the door to rights they have no status to claim.

THE BEAST CONQUERED

THE mystery of mastery has yet to be understood, for as one captures the armour and the sword it becomes the shield as promised unto Abraham. Good obtaining mastery over evil and transmuting that dynamic solidified wealth into the basic of one's strength and manifestation. (See text in col. 5).

wish to leave the matter, for I had a project to accomplish by December 21st and my instruction of service to my Master was far more important to me than bringing an ignoramus to the cells. For I knew that the Law of the higher Powers would be far more effective than the lower.

(See plate below)

This closes the door before Christmas, so I would like to remind every soul who is earnestly seeking, to remember the 21st of December between the hours of 12 and 6 in the morning, when the Horae would descend and bless all who had the right to the glory of the heavenly Host. Although on November 1st it was All-Hallow-een, when what man had gathered would be fired.

An Irish myth gives of how a man was coming home late from a feast on the night of Samain, when he met a little red haired old lady who asked him to carry her basket. After a while he put it down and said it was too heavy for him to carry. Give it to me declared the woman, and she opened the lid as she placed it on the ground, and out came the most mis-shapened imp you ever saw.

IN NOT HAVING THE PATIENCE TO ENDURE, HE ONLY RECEIVED ALL IN ITS UNDEVELOPED STATE.

The polarity to this is the 21st of April, when the Passover brings the feast of Beltane, that on the 1st of November all can be fired into light. Man may ridicule this, but my work has been to prove that these are LAWS and not farces as man would declare. When these are observed, the soul receives a further inflow of the Fire from the gods in charge of these Streams of life.

But as I close this Reminiscences, the horrors of life have increased, for not only are the storms increasing, but the waters still rising. But to add unto, the dregs of nearby houses have emptied out into the canals in Venice, bringing out hundreds of rats.

WHEN WILL MAN LEARN, WHEN WILL HE REALLY LOOK UP TO THE HEAVENS, AND SEEK OF THOSE POWERS THAT WILL GUIDE HIM AND LEAD HIM TO THE RIGHT POINT OF PURPOSE?

LET US HOPE THAT NEXT YEAR WILL BRING SOME GREAT ANSWER FROM THE WATERS AS THEY PERCOLATE INTO THE SOUL OF MAN.

Activity of the Higher Law

I want to thank the many friends that have written to me regarding the Reminiscences of last month. Yes! it was a bit thick, but then that is the price of publicity. The man was not responsible for his actions and was hard up for money, for he demanded money or else, so I would say unbalanced.

Some have said, why was he not summonsed; it was my

Egyptian Mysteries

In the blood species there would be this creation fully fledged, with Hierarchial forces still attached by soul growth, and working in the soul's etheric creation. But owing to circumstances, other weaknesses within their structure, rebirth conditions of National life and general disease of the Race, the soul has never returned to its normal state.

Therefore is in a state of retention, so what use is it for the psychologist, who has no power of mind extraction, to question such a soul, who if it could answer the problem regarding its difficulties, would be able to open up and become normal. There is only one answer, astro-diagnosis, and neither soul nor animal creation within the soul structure could deny the wisdom of an Astrological Seer and Sage.

The serpent and the power appertaining to the Scorpionic heights belonged very much to those past days of ancient wisdom, for they understood the ways of this beautiful but deadly creature who could rear up apparently on no support at all, and could mesmerise all who peered into its face. This was as the inner powers of the soul, but the serpent as a reptile was aware of his powers, while the soul was dead to their own inner secret because they had become mummified; embalmed in grave clothes by the illusive states of matter. But the primitive studied these creatures and knew much regarding the qualities of this creature's "tooth dew."

For it is by mysterious action that the snake is able to send forth auric conditions that hold the victim entranced. This is a part of the hidden qualities lying dormant in the man of the present day; dormant because he has lulled his inner powers into a state of "inertic death." They were aware that the snake was allergic to certain colours and by that they turned the tide of defence to the snake himself, thus he would fall limp to the ground.

They realised of certain qualities, and the faculty of sloughing the skin became the tribal song and ritual dance, as well as referring to the maiden, the feminine principle, changing her skin and becoming as the serpent. Since fetishism was the means of drawing higher powers down into the tribe and the soul, the mastering of the serpent and raising such powers within themselves would give them the powers of the Witchetty Grub tribe, the powers of the Hierarchial Force of Scorpio.

This brought the witch doctor, healer and magician into birth, and would remain as a lasting ancestral creation in the blood; but if not activated into a fulness, would lay and coagulate into a Lot's wife that could, at anytime, resurrect a Sodom and Gomorrah. But when brought to fertility would be as a lizard darting in and out of the rock to bring fertility, sacrificing all that stood in the way of unity with the heights that it could produce the same in the depths.

The Mother Blood

THEREFORE is the secret to be extracted out of the old mother, whereby the sons who come forth in the heights are able to eat up of every bit of the blood species of the old mother's inner secrets. Then the daughter, the irrational mind, can become as that dame and be fertilized by all the lords of the heights and bring forth of their wealth. Such secrets as these are but few of the great wealth to be extracted from the soul as the man accepts of the secret codes, and is ready to be disciplined into blending with that required to enter into the fourth dimension and Solar world of light.

All this started with the pubescent virgin, or irrational mind as it accepted those things it had spurned and refuted. As it shed conventional ways and old religious beliefs and embraced the mystic depths that man calls evil, maddening, superstitious and pagan, he could bring them to a practical issue of realistic wonder.

Man is so lost and stultified by the starched collar and black cloth of modernism and religion, that the wonders of his ancient heritage, which is his own rich foundation, have become as the dead cold rock and not the radiant shining path to the heights. (See plate page 12, cols. 4 & 5) For man came from that past which are his heights, and will return unto that end, but with all the wealth that he has collected in that circumscribed circumference.

It is the "Woman" in the depths who gives birth to the totemic animals until the Son takes the lead; which means man remains in his feminine state of negativeness until he finds his manhood, and then he and his queen become as One on the homogeneous path. This is the great mystery of the Mother blood and the son absorbing all the species. Thus by the "eating" up of the mother, the daughter becomes established in the fourth house of Cancer from the dew of the father's activity; also it raises the daughter in the sixth house, and both Martha and Mary are reborn.

THIS IS THE UNFOLDMENT OF THE SOUL ON THE PATH OF EVOLUTION.

In the later primitive tribes the true wisdom of this became lost and literally took place whereby the mother willingly submitted herself to be eaten alive; because the great secret lay in eating her up while "alive." We may shudder and say how dreadful, but is it as bad or dreadful as the present evil war devices, of which man is a complete victim. Has any seen the horrors of the raid upon Hiroshima? At least that mother was willing and believed in her sacrifice, and the sons believed in their fetish however crude and primitive it may have been.

The supreme and primary object of Totemism was the preservation of the Mother blood which gave rise to the wealth of the soul, apart from the fact that it raised up the Great Mother who was only a light once a year when the Star of Virgo rose at the same time as the Sun at the dawn of the day on the 21st of Dec. Thus in view of the previous explanation of the eating of the mother myth, surely we cannot fail to see this as an individual act of eating up the old states of self after passing through the experience of knowing, whereby the irrational and rational minds combine as one and become the Buddhic light of awareness, enlightment.

As we become aware of what is more important to us than the illusive states of self, we shall shed and discard, and this is what was meant in the Hebrew Scriptures by the burnt sacrifice of the animals. What was built up in totemic belief and took on of animal creations, instead of holding them as cherished desires, we partook of their wealth and shed them.

MAN, THE FIRING AGENT

THE world of fire that now has become the heritage of all men, but until he learns the secret of him being the firing agent, the destruction of its greater possibilities is ever in action, lessening the glories that are his. Therefore it is up to man to seek and behold. (See text on the Back Page, col. 1).

Primitive Beliefs

EVERY time a soul sheds by sacrifice, he is released from self and bounds up, therefore the beast changes his garment. The difficult moment is the shedding and bounding up from one plane to another; then there is the need to find courage and test out the purpose. The ancient races who acclaimed this wisdom, made Tabu-laws. But this was further carried out in the mystery funeral rites of the ancients, particularly the Egyptians whom modern man so erroneously interprets. To understand this fully it would be as well to quote an example from the Egyptian Mysteries.

Their religion was founded on the rising again of the Spirit from the corpse as it was imaged in the resurrection of Amsu-Horus transforming from the mummy-Osiris, and by the human soul emerging alive from the body of dead matter. They were ever seeking to appease the dead ghosts of the past; not as literal ghosts but their own Ghosts of personality or ancestor creation. The old states of yesterday that ever haunted them into old ways and errors; for men change by every action and deed, and the soul growth is to the extent of what it can resist or sacrifice, for the dead limits your extension.

In many primitive tribes the funeral custom was almost universal for a mortuary meal to be made to feed the spirits of the departed, and the communion with the ancestral spirits was an object of the totemic eucharist. But this was not literally to the dead but to the dead states within, that must be incorporated in the rational mind as light of reality and not just figments of imagination to incite the sensuous.

Their sacrifices offered to the dead were highly intellectual, for by making a sacrifice within self, the dead were appeased and would return on the improved plane of thought, for they had been paid off as it were, turned in by the mortuary meal.

The ghosts or shades of the past are drawn in, time after time, and become eventually the stones of the Godhead temple. This is where the black Sut raises the final issue and arrives in heaven first. Therefore it must be remembered without fail, that unless the whole consciousness of blood is offered as belief and purpose, the dead are not fed; it is not a substantial weight of evidence, and they are apt to return and worry. Personality states must be mastered by solid fixed will, otherwise they are a ghost to continually haunt and harass, for they possess superhuman powers.

All this has linking with the fasting of the Iesus for 40 days and 40 nights, and was around the period of Egyptian Lent. It was their Vernal Equinox when man received the inflow of the Holy Wine and must labour on its strength, and what is further revealed. For the blood the liquid was drink, while Spirit the breath of life was food, and represented the consciousness in the blood giving succour to the soul, while the Spirit the breath was feeding

The SEEDING of the EMBODIMENT

Yet through the whole of the trend, although religion played a deep part, mysticism was there as the sacred wealth that kept the magnitude of the heavens blazing in its unseen glory. Thus this was the foundation that was laid for Merope to continue with in later years, with all the depths of TIME incorporated in its intricate weaving. Judah, Medo-Persia and Rome, all states of intricacy that were striving to raise up the glory of the "hidden Fire."

Each one, and one and all, knowing that the wealth of life, the life-giving succulence of mind, as wind and limb, lies in that depth. But no mind awakened to the fact that only by Will and Purpose could a soul bring forth the activated Solar mind that all were inwardly screaming for. That which caused souls to gorge, gamble, steal, murder and lie, to find an outlet from its inward fiery activation.

Yet the very wealth, the atomic fire, that if turned into an active mind dance, would bring the glorious radiance of Auric manifestation. The dancing wealth of the mind that could span the whole seven Spheres in one shooting of the bow. The mighty wealth of the heavens which man has not yet been able to fathom, now brought to the Solar Unification, and electrified into the birth of the New City. This was what Merope knew she had to bring into birth, for she brought down that Fire in the beginning, and now had to set it into activation.

This FIRE was the Great Master, the Great Christos manifestation; the mighty Flame that would give life to the whole Universe. Life that would fire all into rebirth. Therefore she had worked through the whole of the Ages, and perceived the wealth growing. But the minds of man thickening and solidifying under the depths of materialism, while the holy Seed was slowly dying under the pressure of the salted water that was rising higher and higher over the task now set for the Waterman. For that would once again have to be her task; drying up those waters, and then electrifying the remaining context, that a blossoming auric divinity could blazon forth.

Here was the earth replica of the Divine Heavens, the Auric glory of the Central Sun, that which had been raised up by her setting the divine LAWS, now to become the auric manifestation of every soul. But here was the difficulty; man believed that mind and mind elevation merely came from a text book gluttony, that they could obtain signs and symbols added to their cartouche. This is where he had to learn that mind was an acquired prize; that which could only be gained after the dregs and dross were removed. For truth is a rare thing, and for a mind to ever speak Words of wisdom, they must be overshadowed by the glorious Divinity they seek to emulate.

So Merope set herself the task of trying to teach man, through her writings, of the glorious wonders that every man could achieve through his mind unfoldment. A mind that could dance from earth to heaven, and speak with Words of truth that touched and spermed every living thing. Of how every soul could live under the shadow of HIS Wing, the Holy Fire of the Heavenly vaults; for was it not she, Merope, who raised up that Glory from its previous stance, to yet a greater.

That which gave HIM the greater magnitude of manifestation, that which brought that Divinity to its true unification, that the glories and the wonders of the inner Nucleus of LIFE could be made known. Arthur now raised up to the Great Flame, the Mighty LORD of the Central Sun; for as the Holy Fire sent forth from the wealth of Antares, He becomes the Great Generator of ALL-LIFE and LIGHT.

THE SOLAR LIGHT, THE GLORY OF THE WHOLE UNIVERSE, BUT THE ULTRA-SONIC GLORY OF THE GALACTIC FIELD OF WEALTH GAINED AND GATHERED OVER THE WHOLE OF TIME.

You are now on the Solar path, not on the lunar path. But remember this: every one now has to raise up the Christ-light within them. "Every man is a Christ unto himself." You have all got to raise up that Christos Fire within you. Don't let the lower states claim you and bind you to the earth. Cut the bonds from off your feet, so that you can 'dance with your mind'; then you will see the inner glories of the mind and its purpose.

Where the soul has courage and faith, holding on to the Spirit, and even when they have made a slip and fallen backwards, or they have taken 'that which was set for them' in an abundance of wrong direction, they can be helped by continually clinging to the Spirit, and the Spirit being able to master and drive them by the Solar Fire in the right direction.

It is up to the soul entirely; but if the soul gives-way and forgets of the Spirit,— failing to remember that they must cling and fight, and drive-on to the Purpose they understand in their inner being,— then all is lost, and all becomes an 'impediment in their mind'.

All depends upon the soul itself. Mind is the soul, and the soul is mind. The soul-creation of man is mind, and that mind is in the 'void'; the circling creation of the blood-stream that pours its continual changes into the brain of Ra. The soul has to bring all its parts to a state of one-ness and try to climb up on a single thread, the Brahmic Thread, in a spinning-up of ascension.

The soul's motive must be a pure one; the soul must have will and determination, otherwise they will never make the journey, but will ever remain in the pit, in the lunar waters, only to find that which can be of a destructive end. The soul is either going to come out of those creations, or become lost in the 'state of the beast'.

All now is of the mind, driving everything by the understanding of the Christos light, the Royal Divinity of the Holy Fire coming forth as the Divine Son of the Fatherhood, the true Divine Effulgence.

THIS IS WHAT MAN MUST SEEK FOR, AND MAKE EVERY EFFORT TO FIND.

THE TWO STATES OF THE VIRGO MIND

HERE you see the two sides of the Virgo mind, each vying with the other as to who is going to claim the 'pot of blood': the two states of Virgo, the higher and the lower. So here you see the dark-haired woman, and the fair one with the appearance of the 'virgin.' In the background is the horse, the generative state, which the soul either brings into darkness or into light. This is the dance of the duality of the maidens, as to who is going to 'produce.'

The BLESSING of the COMMON COLD

by Dr. Jesse Mercer Gehman

IT is said the common cold is responsible for more lost time at work than any other two maladies combined. Whether the cold derives its prefix "common" from the fact that it is common to almost everyone or because it is considered in the light of a slight or common ailment we do not profess to know. From the standpoint of the number of people who are ill with it, and the economic loss it entails each year it could scarcely be looked upon as a slight condition. That the cold is common to almost everyone is obvious to all though there are two classes of people the common cold is not common to. However we will discuss these groups later.

Since the common cold could be fittingly termed the great economic waster, how then can it be looked upon as a blessing? Anything tending to decrease man's efficiency and increase his susceptibility to illness could not correctly be called a blessing.

IN order to determine if a cold does this we shall have to analyse the condition itself. According to the best treatise of orthodox therapy, science does not yet know what a cold is or how it originates. Perhaps the reason for this lack of knowledge is found in the fact that investigation and research has been limited not in money and time spent but in methods used. Orthodox research has attempted and continues to attempt to define the nature of a cold, and determines its cause within the narrow confines of the germ or virus theory of disease.

Since the cold has not yet been found to conform to the limitations of this theory of disease which constitutes the basic theory of disease as recognised by medicine to-day it has been designated as one of nature's great mysteries, as has cancer and rheumatism, two other maladies not accepting the germ or virus theory.

THE frequency with which the common cold appears in the human family would seem to indicate that there is a very common cause of the condition. The nature of the common cold, the periods of incubation, aggravation, destruction, abatement and reconstruction in those who do nothing for the ailment except obey their more natural impulses excludes the idea of mystery.

Of course when the abracadabra of so-called science is invoked in the administration of alternatives, which is more common than keeping hands off, there is no chance of observing the simplicity of the condition of the common cold, nor of determining what it accomplishes for the human body if left to run its course.

NATURE IS PROFOUNDLY PROLIFIC BUT NO WASTREL. SHE CREATES AND USES, BUT NEVER WASTES.

We see the profusion of the seeding season. Many acorns drop from towering oaks: some reach into the earth for sustenance; few become seedlings; fewer become towering oaks; but not one is wasted, ever, each becoming a contributor in sustaining the growth of others, each contributing to the soil to nourish and sustain life, perhaps more oak trees to produce more acorns to produce more sprouts, seedlings, trees, thus completing the utilitarian cycle of natural economy.

Even so it is with the human body. Nature here too does not waste. She allows nothing except what is needed. No energy is spent without a reward for the spending. Though we may not realise it no pain is felt without its compensation in one way or another.

The common cold is a provision of nature devised to conserve our energy and our vitality. Contrary to popular notion, supported or rather led by unsound theory, the common cold is not the terrible thing we have long thought it to be. Strangely enough, it is the precise opposite. In reality the common cold is one of nature's most widely bestowed blessings, and if we accept it as such we stand to benefit greatly.

To comprehend the nature of this blessing we must perforce know the character of the common cold and how it operates for good in the human body. We reiterate that nature though prolific is no wastrel. This is as true in the functional activities of the human body and in the ebb and flow of energies therein as in the case cited further back.

Nature brooks no condition to develop in the human body unless it is a demand to preserve the vital economy: nature develops no condition in the human body except it is needed, no condition is sustained unless it is needed; and no condition is continued unless it serves a constructive purpose.

DOES the common cold fit into this category? We believe it does. We shall see. The common cold comes it would at times, seem, like a bolt of lightning from a clear blue sky. It leaves less abruptly, when unhampered it is allowed to accomplish its purpose. Only seemingly does the common cold come quickly.

Actually it is progressing from within unfelt, unseen, to meet the demands of the system that is groaning under the injustices of the accepted, regular way of living; the injustices of wrong and overeating, of under exercising, of shallow breathing, of insulating the body against the elements, of indulging the appetite rather than allowing recourse to hunger.

No, a cold does not, in fact it cannot be caused by being exposed to the elements, wet feet, damp clothing, a restricted current of air commonly referred to as a draft nor does anyone catch a cold.

all the tissues as it travelled with the consciousness.

And when it is seen how such wisdom was derived from the Egyptians, that modern man refers to as pagan, it leaves one over-awed at the primitive state of the present race. Their legend of Law Unas fed on the Spirit of gods explained the above idiom, for it was the breath of the Gods as Breath that gave the soul the power to feed upon the spirit derived from his own gods as the exalted of change. This they followed by stating of how Horus-Sahu, the wild hunter, ate the great gods for his breakfast, the lesser for his dinner and the smaller for his supper.

Then the prayers for the dead continue when the food ceases, and the fasting survives when the practice has become a meaningless farce. For how many carry out so much for the sake of breaking the monotony of life, merely appeasing boredom, others for a wild flare of exhibitionism, ego; while many carry out such to escape self, escapism. Yet it matters not in which way you begin to embrace, for that is what has taken place; you as Prometheus have stolen the fire and on the rock of Kali you must go until you realise and accept whole-heartedly, then the ghosts of the past can be allayed.

So now let us seek into the wisdom of burying the "dead." This knowledge passed on into the Christian Eucharist; the offering of the blood of life to the dead that they become the wealth of the soul and not the evil genii. But it is unfortunate that such great knowledge as that left by the Egyptians in their records of the Book of the Dead, which is stupendous with wealth and ritual, should have deteriorated into creed and dogma.

The censer burning, that the clouds of illuminated thought should rise upwards, was a rite carried out by the Egyptians long before Atlantis collapsed. But in inner Africa as primitive ritual it was represented as fire offering to the Ancestors, that the Spirits could receive of life and be reborn into the mind away from the animistic states.

This can never be of any value unless it contains the whole seven elements of quality, the entire blood purpose of the contributor. But once this is assumed, the measure is full, and the whole seven natures are served and the seven heights are reached in one eternal becoming. Breath, like blood, is an element of life, for it contains the eternal heights and full measure of the depths, and when united must rise full seven leaps, and God is uplifted on his throne.

Although this appears of dogma, it is not, but the full compass of the ancient wisdom as learnt by all candidates passing through the Halls of Learning in the Egyptian Courts and Pyramids. It was understood that the Creative Cause insufflated on whatever plane man was on and would lay with the feminine principle and generate, that of the irrational mind. The whole seven in that Breath were open to the man and he would extract accordingly; yet much depended upon the ghosts or ancestors.

Were they ready to extract or destroy; therefore it was wise to feed the dead before the soul began its journey into the unknown, so as to allay those who could become drunken with the new knowledge.

The Necessary Changes

THE elements in being breathed would seek of "fat females" as those filled with the loves received from the angels, and would be the expressions received from the heights and depths that must become impregnated to generate and could become caught up with the female centaurs. This would be seen more clearly in the life of Solomon who slowly acquired a thousand wives. Solomon in receiving the wealth of Tyre and Sidon sought for the Shedd, but let go of the key, self-control. Thus the breath that entered fattened his feminine elements and he never produced any more than wealth of a ritualistic depth. He never left with man practical application by infusing them with the Eucharist. He never established a Godhead of change, consequently Ahab and the evil Kings followed when the whole earth rocked and shook.

Wealth brought to the earth MUST bring change, otherwise it becomes a whited sepulchre in matter, to fester and germinate of those things that are evil to all. Even to becoming evil fetishes or commercial rackets. Solomon, as all other recipients of wisdom, must kill off the old mother, the matriarchate state of magnetism by being fired by Solar light—wisdom.

Then it will manifest the Christos and the Lords will speak through that soul who offered sacrificial offerings without "blemish." Here the word will burn itself into bringing death to the self-devoted victim and not leave behind wisdom that can become of a two-way-path. But either to be of wisdom established that will become as Legends and Genesis, or wisdom wrongly construed that breeds evil.

Solomon was handed all the wealth of David, but devoured of his wealth, and through David's lack of true firm government, all turned into a Captivity of Babylon that reigns unto this day. The real depth that grew its roots then, was the disease that was established by Lamech, now becoming solidified and multiplied, for here you find the Hebrew males fraternizing with Phoenician females in evil.

Venereal disease began its second advent and last dreaded course, multiplying into variations of evil. The final evil to become fully re-established was homosexuality; that was the beginning of Babylon which is now in its coming fuller scourge.

To understand the cause of these problems, one must go back to beginning when the human being was establishing its blood content. For blood was an acquired state through the species of the animal nature; these changed and became in the throes of element enforcement whereby involution drove evolution on its course. When the human element began its expression these species came forth in the tree of Totemism sprouting, which was aided and abetted by fetish worship.

Why should man condemn these rituals of the past when all is but the major part of his own bloodstream, his own blood issue. We are those past creations with their photogravure in our monogram as ancestors, and although they are of the "dead," are virile creations seeking new life that they can become mind assimilation. When these were first established from the lower species of the animal and water species into blood molecules, they were called forth through the totemic worship of the soul.

The soul perceiving a state of element and worshipping that he could draw of its wealth into his being. In the same way as man draws in the elements of Solar life according to his capacity, and worships as Sun life and Jesus Christ tabu, so did the primitive according to what his young mind could assimilate. But as everything was under a source of fructification, it was for the time as the Greater Powers wooing all into birth through Mother Nature; and to the young soul it was imaged in his mind as a mythical Cow, but not so mythical to him.

Therefore it is no use man calling him pagan and himself Christian, for he is the same person with a new cut dress. The primitive's God was just as great as the present God; in fact let us say in all fairness, greater, for he believed all the way in that God, man today merely follows convention.

In the minds of the Priest the dual state that is with all mankind became the two nomes obtaining a third, which is symbolised in the present day mitre of the regalia of the orthodox religion. Being of the generating state of the embryonic mind as the irrational and rational producing the child, the Buddhic or coming plane of awareness, they divinized a state of two Women. These were ever in a state of change as the Age rolled by, but always with the superior as Isis as the first Mother on earth, as Apt or Taurt, then later as Seket-Bast the lion-headed Goddess.

She too became unto deterioration with those around her becoming drunken with the power they could not hold. Then Neith followed as well as many others, although there was the tendency for tribes to take the one Goddess and place her in different categories of adoration. Today Roman Catholicism worships the Virgin Mary and states she is the Mother of God. That has only been as carried on from the beginning and now glorified in the present religion.

The primitive knew more than the present day man, for he saw the Powers as Serpent force that could "spit life" into him. As the young mind he enticed it, and worshipped it in the same sense that it gave him life; yet in reality so does man today in running after the Sun in all the possible ways of sun bathing, which is not the answer. For that Force is the Root Source as far as man is concerned, with Planetary Powers added unto.

BUT THOSE WHO ARE SEEKING FOR NEW LIFE AND SEEKING TO BECOME PIONEERS, ARE NOW LOOKING TOWARDS THE OUTER WORLD PLANETS WHERE GENIUSES HAVE RECEIVED LIFE BEFORE. BY THIS THE PRISM, FILLED WITH THE LIFE OF THE SUN IS GIVEN BIRTH.

THE LOST DIVINITY

THE magnitude that could have been, if only raised up to the heavenly glory; thus brought down to its lost depths where God resides in all his glory but only in the density of darkness. "Thus Adonai Elohim that dwells in the thick darkness, is destined to be born as the High Abyss." (See text on page 10, col. 1).

Mastering the Inflowing Powers

A very good example of one having received of such powers and not observing all the rules was Oscar Wilde, he taking Neptune in the negative. But if we look into the lives of many of our musicians we will find that they captured these powers, but never learnt the rules of the Hermit carrying his own miner's lamp well trimmed. Perhaps we shall now be able to appreciate more clearly Holman Hunt's impression of the Christ knocking at the door as the Light of the World waiting to come in. For is not this the Serpent Power, as Hierarchial Force, coursing through the blood to become the light of mind creation, the power of the spirit.

Many tribes in the past accepted this Royal wisdom, and you find the medicine men of the Iroquois Tribes performing four dances under the heading of the Eagle dance; for it was known that the scorpion that stings was the power to the Heights, and either man "dances" and agitates in magnetic frictioning of the alchemicalization, or it kills him. When it rises it becomes the risen Eagle soaring him up to the heights; the solar light of the mind. This is the ascension.

Other Indian Tribes performed the Buffalo dance, the polarity to Scorpio the serpent, and is the base that actually holds the wealth in the form of gifts to be distributed. In

THE REWARD OF IDLE LIVING

A STORY only too well known, with man securely fastened to what is his, while the labouring wife trudges on hour after hour, to meet the hells created by the mis-spent joys of the past. (See text in col. 1).

Egypt he was the Totem who became the Royal Apis. WHY? Because he rules as Constellatory Power the present Era or Manvantara—generation to Re-generation.

But the Snake dance has always been the great mystery of the past, for right from the time of the Goddess Bast or Nebhau-Kau who drew all into creation, has the Serpent Force, then as magnetic Fire, been the life-force of the world. She was the living Goddess from the old Matriarchate state of Atlantis when the Amazon women were abound. Soul state with feminine pubes, and male qualities coming forth as the hidden mind embryo.

Many states accrued point after point in establishment of the Mother blood. Naturally always around the animistic creation, for they imaged of the animal power, as the power they were seeking of to survive. Consequently it became the sign language Totem. But you also get the same thing imaged in the Boy Scout movement where they learn to accomplish feats according to what their troop lays down as rules of valour. This worked great wonders on young minds, and although there have been misfits, on the whole it has proved very successful from a point of training. This is only due to the fact that it is already a part of the prototype put into operation and in the blood of every soul.

Though I do feel that the theme of 'honour God, Queen and country' would be more beneficial if it was placed as "MAN KNOW THYSELF," for everyman's God holds a different place in his mind. The ascetic would give his right hand for God's good favour, and the burglar seeks God's aid to carry off the job successfully; and neither will remember him when the moment is past.

But "MAN KNOW THYSELF" from a true philosophic interpenetration often makes a man revolt at his own state of creation, and certainly buckle up when the truth is laid bare before him.

It is by this we can recognise the earliest formation of human society as distinguished from the gregarious horde, but believe it or not all was forming out of the intercourse between the sexes. The promiscuity of form was reacting in the blood, and the increasing life was raising the state of animation and life. Not because of the actual sex relationship as desire, but the exhilaration caused by the act firing the soul, and as the offspring were born they became further inciters of new life, until much higher entities were able to return and teach the lesser hordes that had not come forward.

This is seen in the Biblical works as the Patriarchate taking over, and the Race rose up onto more spiritual heights. This continued until creed and dogma played their false move, and no longer gave man the prerogative, but a sect of self imposed individuals that dominated the situation for ages, and robbed man of his power to think individually.

This continued with man being subservient and not progressive; but as soon as a War, world wide in its devastation, proved that Religion as it was could not help any man, but only bless guns and be the owners of slum property, it began its decline, with individual man beginning to grow. Now the world is in its birth pangs of Re-birth with primitive Nations revolting and casting out missionaries who, while some have played a part, on the whole have done untold damage.

The primitive in his primeval marriage into life, came forth through a system of Totemism and Fetishism; but worship of animals seeking to take on of their conditions, NO! They saw Mother Earth as the Water-Cow Seb, while the Father was imaged as the Goose that laid the egg. He was the bringer forth of food, with Horus the son who became the bringer forth of food out of the waters of self, the inundation. This was seen as fish caught from the waters or the papyrus shoot; and symbolically is often shown as a fish with all its flesh removed, leaving just the main bone.

The soul having devoured of the wisdom. At the same time it has been portrayed as a woman holding a fish on her head and her feet on the crocodile. The wisdom entered into the mind, and the crocodile devouring up of old states within the feminine creation who does all the labouring.

These were the Totems of the Nature Powers that had not yet risen to the heights and would do so later on through the soul's aspirations, when man would unite Elemental Powers in their direct birth with the soul. This was to be the blending of Sun and Moon as advised by the Egyptians, but for the time being Isis was gathering together of the fourteen parts of her lord who had been torn to pieces by Agapae the Dragon. This of course was picturizing Atlantis and the deluge, that was nearer to their minds than ours today.

Then after a while Tem came forth in their ideal of thought; this signified man or mankind, that of the mortal to become entire or perfect. Tem represented total in totemism, and many tribal customs were created then that have lasted until the present day. In fact it was the time when the village became the Town, City or Dom, whereby the King as heir was established. The sceptre and orb carried today by the reigning sovereign is a replica of what began at this period. Then they carried the flail and crook as well as the orb in the form of the Ursekh collar around their neck as the controller of world life; signifying one who has mastered the worlds.

The New Generation

NOW life was no longer clans or tribes, but nomes as sub-nomes to the two main Nomes, and you find the lion as Temai in Leontopolis as Motherhood and Brotherhood. Thus the Tem state in the growth of the soul became the first seed of Man in the sense of the future Godhead of royal birth. So if we still go on perceiving as the growth of the soul seeking the flowering manhood, we shall not be led unconsciously into exotericism.

WHAT HAD BEEN OF THE EARTH ELEMENT NOW BECAME REBORN ONTO THE WATER ELEMENT, THE FLUIDIC EMOTIONAL STATE OF EXPANSION, AND TOOK PLACE FIRST IN TRIBE AND COUNTRY RE-PLANNING.

So the first move, and one that became most enlightening, was the Government of the Ancient Democracy reforming into even more democratic creation, and then likewise with the soul. All the nomes became an independent unity in the fact that they each supplied a necessary accomplishment or requirement.

Each nome had a minor god or goddess who obeyed the Chief Gods as Osiris and Isis, and sought to supply the wants of the other tribes. Thus the first barter state of self existence began. The Emu tribe performed, propitiated and sought for abundance of Emus, whether as means of food supply or a form of valour and unfoldment. Emus supplied eggs and food.

The Witchetty Grub tribe sought for plenty of beetles, for they as the Fiery Element not only ate up their own Totem and gave rebirth, but the beetle was the means of feeding the Scorpio and bringing it into birth, and was not literal but symbolic. It is now very difficult to understand why such things meant so much to them, for the dealing with climate and agriculture conditions then would be far different to circumstances now.

This tribe became the Stud tribe in the same way as the Levi's produced the priests. It would be in this tribe that the great gift of ancient magic was developed for they would be attached to the King or Pharaoh's household, and the young sons of the Royal House would draw his tutors from here. Young possibilities would be gathered into here and trained.

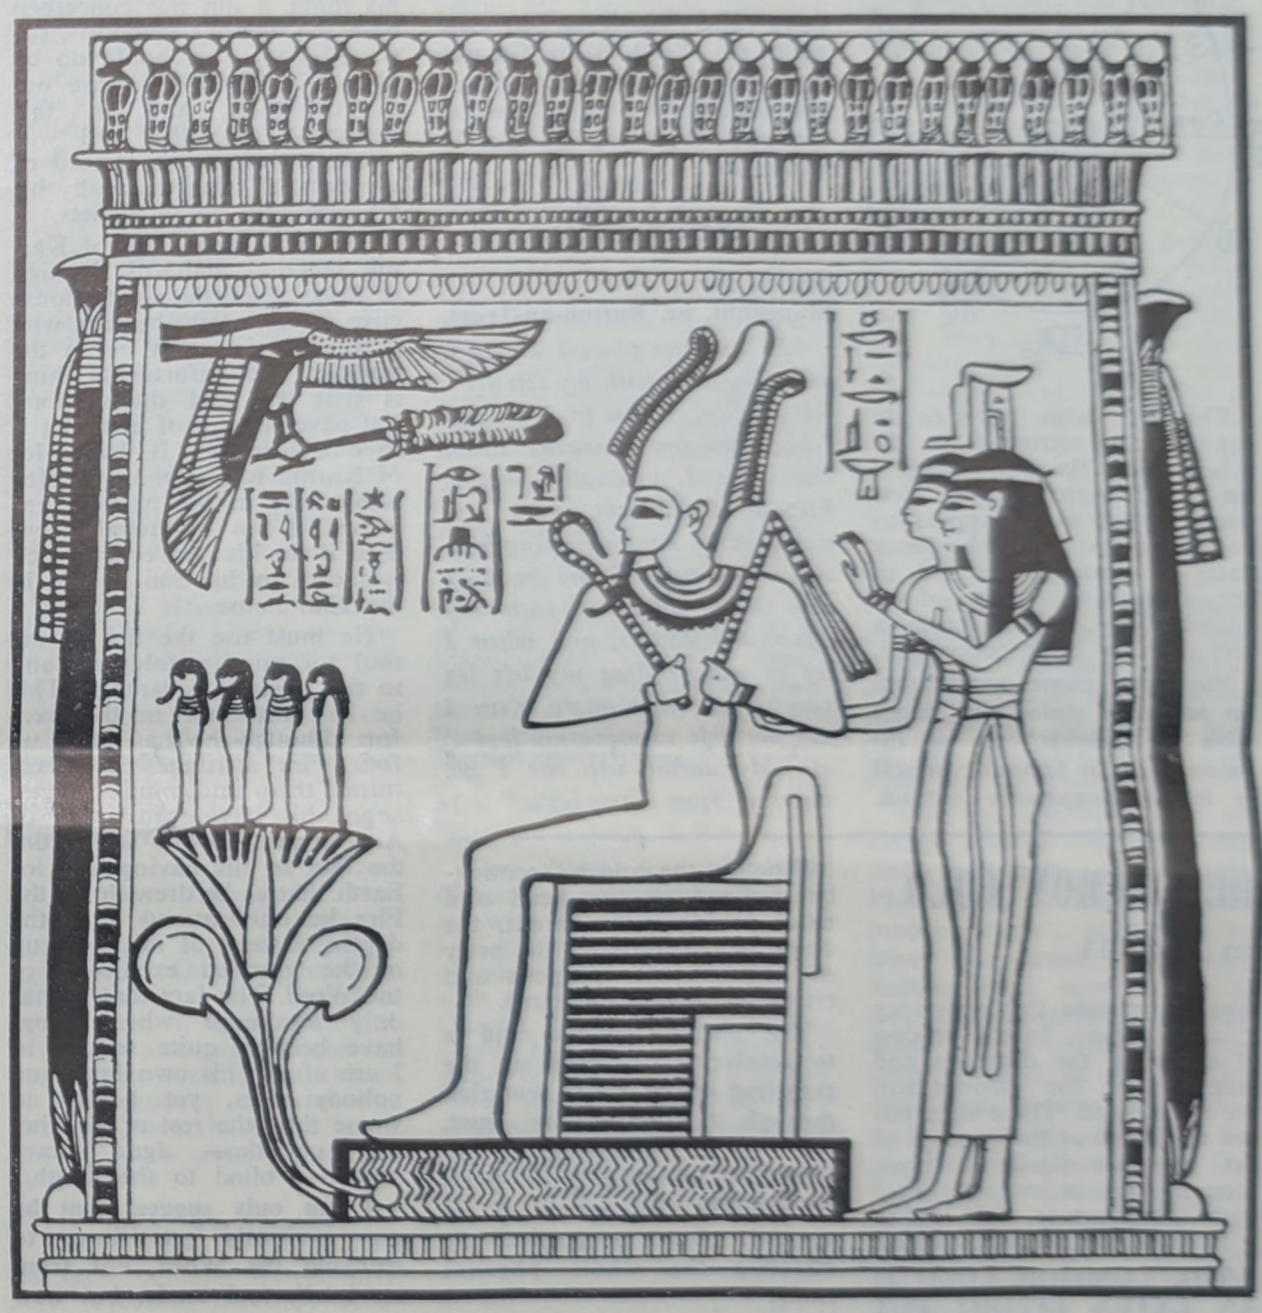

Each nome would perform its own special ceremony and pour out its own oblation, and if the Scriptures are duly investigated, it will be seen how both the Jews and Christians have emulated the past established pattern. For instance, the Emus would cultivate without a doubt of the emu bird as food and everything would be blooded by their blood action.

But also the actions of the Emu qualities and characteristics would be deeply embedded in this young growth, and would firmly establish an ancestor in the blood life of the soul. This could have become the Wise Old Man of the present day generation or just a guide, a hidden fiend, or giant, apart from all the sediment that would be hidden of the Atlantean growth.

This is where the present day degenerates are starting off from; they now return to cultivate this Ancestor into rebirth for fruitful works in this life. But owing to blood species of parents by law of attraction, not suitable for an uplift, the soul returns to its old haunts in a modern life.

Evolving life brings greater realisation even if not purer species, while the conventional states of social economy, although far from intelligent, is law abiding and hygienic to a degree, therefore could bring some form of uplift or expansion. But often this is such a top sham, the soul only comes forth in the true or hidden species.

MANY A RESPECTABLE FAMILY HIDE A CONNUBIAL LIFE THAT ONLY THE OFFSPRING CAN REVEAL, OR ONE PARENT MAY HIDE SPECIES THAT HAVE NEVER COME TO THE SURFACE, BUT HAVE COME FORTH IN THE CHILD.

THE LOST AGE OF HONOUR

WHEN man understood the glories of life and justice, law and truth were his honour, he knew the true meaning of the pastoral crook and the flail or whip of renunciation. (See text above in col. 3).

THE HEALING COLUMN

Scientific Madness

AS the Spirit World continue advocating the benefits and necessity of a refined diet we hear that 'scientists' are now feeding chickens upon DETERGENTS in order to fatten them, (see Current Events, page 15). I feel lost for words over such an action, it leaves me wondering what mad idea they will think of next, maybe they will suggest that detergent pills are just the thing for thin people who want to put on weight. Needless to say, we will not be stocking them! Then again, we hear that doctors are shouting the multiple benefits of the contraceptive pill, even going so far as to claim cures for cancer with it. I can only say that the stupidity of the medical world is beginning to amaze even me, and any woman who deliberately takes these pills has my pity, for she is killing her Seed of Ages, her wealth gathered through her experiences of Time, and will one day find herself devoid of all.

But now let us turn to our first letter, and get back to a little bit of sanity.

Puzzling Problems

Miss R. M.,
New Jersey, U.S.A.

ALTHOUGH giving no specific details of her health problems, Miss M. does ask for healing advice. If she would send us some detailed information upon this, we could then begin to send any particular herbs that we feel are necessary. However, we are giving a general summary of her chart, and we hope it will clarify some of her problems for her.

This is an extraordinary good chart (1165) but like everything else, expansion is required. With three important planets in Scorpio,—Mercury, Sun and Mars—it indicates of the wealth that has been accrued over the ages, but there is always a time when it must be given yet greater expansion still. This is shown by the Path of Destiny in the fifth house but in Sagittarius, which also has Saturn in it in the sixth house, the house of the intuitive mind, showing again the soul's refusal to expand.

This can also be seen in Jupiter being retrograde in the house of the Spirit in Gemini; the soul remains far too practical and would appear to be well caught up in the lunar states of materialism, and in her occupation, that of a microbiologist, would bring a very down to earth conception.

She must come away from the mundane states and 'dance with the heights,' for at the moment she is jamming herself by her non-expansive outlook upon life. However, as she reads the Word in the Gazette and studies the earlier lectures, she should find the expansion required beginning to unfold within her.

Spondilitis

Mr. E. B.,
Stapenhill, nr. Burton-on-Trent.

"In the first place I kicked a step very hard with my left foot, fell heavily, and at night in bed I had some sort of seizure. From this time I gradually became helpless, I cannot work nor walk, and I have no strength in the lower part of my body. I now have difficulty with my water and bowels, and when I try to walk I drag my left leg very much, now more often I am not able to move my legs at all. My doctor tells me I am suffering from Spondilitis."

THIS is a chart (1205) which indicates that the soul has arrived at a point where he must make a definite decision as to his future. Either he is going to go on just as he is, or use his affliction to open up his mind. I am not concerned with the doctor's diagnosis, for we all know, or should do by now, that all things arise out of evolution, and in this particular case the soul was spinning downwards instead of upwards, as can be seen by his 8th and 12th house planets.

This is a clear case of Karmic rebound, and with the sign of Pisces upon the eighth house cusp, it can easily be seen why it was the feet that began the trouble. The unfortunate thing is that we read the wisdom, but never dream of applying it to ourselves. Mr. B. has a lot of Karma to contend with, for somewhere in the past he has gained a lot of royalty but used it for his own ends, which is shown by his Sun in Leo in the 12th house.

He must use the fire of the soul for mind unfoldment and to the greatest advantage. This he has not done in the past, for although he has built up four Fire attributes he never turned them into mind strength, hence his having just one of Air. It can also be seen from the fact of his having four of Earth that as he drew down the Fire he only turned it to the depths, instead of raising it up in the glorified expansion of the Word. The fact that he has only awakened when things have become quite serious is, I am afraid, his own fault and nobody elses, yet he is no worse than the rest of us who, for countless ages, have remained blind to the Truth.

I can only suggest that he now seriously gets down to studying the Word, not from an intellectual angle, but now to really begin to put the Teachings into application within himself, whereby he will start to bring the necessary mind unfoldment that he requires. It is a case of going on in all faith and belief, with a determination to clear up the mess of past mistakes and "put the records straight" that he can drive on in his future growth with all impediments removed and a clear, sunny road ahead.

Stagnancy

Mrs. J. M.,
Arizona, U.S.A.

"Am told I have liver trouble . . . also itchy skin, sore tongue and throat, and tumor in rectum."

TO understand the depths of this chart (1114) is the most important thing of all, and one where the recipient has to be very wise and prepared to face the truths of life. Her Sun in Gemini in the 1st house, Saturn retrograde in the Mid-heavens, and Uranus in the 12th house in Aries, is reason enough for her Path of Destiny being in the 8th house in Sagittarius.

All indicating that the soul refuses to seek of the higher wisdom and make any form of expansion. She is living entirely in the desires of Cancer, which is seen by her Venus and Mercury in the 2nd house in Cancer, which has placed Pluto in the 3rd house, and which is a state of chaos of the mind. Jupiter and Mars in Virgo in the 5th house again indicate a stubborn refusal to expand the fire, so Uranus in the 12th house in Aries brings unusual blood conditions, and Saturn unless turned to its positive state, is only bringing a solidifying state of the mind.

Being of seven Negative and only three Positive, with her Moon in Capricorn in the 9th house, clearly indicates that up to now this is just what Saturn has been doing.

The sole answer to her problems is to get expansion, and come out of the old ideas. Eat the Word and expand the thoughts heavenwards, then she will begin to progress.

A refined diet is essential to help speed up recovery, and if Mrs. M. is not already putting this into operation, I would suggest that she gives it very serious thought.

CLEANSING HERBS ARE ALSO ESSENTIAL HERE, AND THESE HAVE ALREADY BEEN SENT.

HEALING PRAYER

GREAT Divine Spirit, We leave in Thy hands a dynamic Task, of bringing to these children the true meaning of the 'birth of the spirit.' Those that are lost in the materialism of the earth, their minds stoned by earthy beliefs, cannot see the real true meaning of the mind raised up in belief and holy conception. We beg that they will be shown, that unless they see the Christ within themselves, they are just a replica of the beast. So we leave them in Thy care, that the Seed which has been lost in the depths will open up to the Glory of the Fatherhood.

Amen.

It is developed in the organism as carefully and orderly as the hair and the nails grow, as eloquently as the stomach digests food, and the body utilizes it, and as efficiently as the body discharges waste: it is developed not through the phenomena of any germ or virus or air borne organisms, but through the personal habits of living which have changed to meet the changing conditions of life.

THESE changing conditions of life began when man first built himself a place to live, and discovered fire to make his food more palatable, but unfortunately which made it less nourishing, and they are continuing to-day through this age of air reconditioning and the chemical treatment of the food we eat and water we drink. Living has grown more complex through the ages: it continues to grow even more so. To meet these changing conditions nature has never failed in her constructive efforts.

SELF REGULATIVE IN CHARACTER THE HUMAN BODY, SUBJECTED TO NATURAL ENVIRONMENT ONLY, AS WITH RESPECT TO FOOD, PHYSICAL ACTIVITY, AIR, REST, WATER AND SUNSHINE, REQUIRES NO OTHER ASSISTANCE TO CONTINUE TO OPERATE.

Subjected to unnatural environment such as we have referred to, other assistance is required. Nature has not been slow to provide this assistance in acute illness. In the process of evolution the demands and necessity of the environment are not denied. These demands are met, even at the expense of the organism itself at times, though such is not the case with the common cold unless it is neglected, or over treated.

THE COMMON COLD IS AN EXTRA EFFORT PUT FORTH BY THE BODY TO RID ITSELF OF WASTE MATTER ACCUMULATED BEYOND THE MEAN POWERS OF THE USUAL DEPURATIVE CHANNELS OF THE BODY TO THROW OFF OR ELIMINATE.

These disposal powers have been undermined by vitiated habits of living, as too much food, too little exercise, badly ventilated rooms, while also being overburdened by excesses of one kind or another.

Nature in this situation concentrates such reserve as she still has and sets up an acute inflammatory process of some one part or several, or all parts of the respiratory apparatus and hence we have the abrupt outward sign of the birth of a cold that has been developing for weeks or months.

THE cold is a blessed event and must not be construed otherwise. Sensibly handled it will serve the purpose intended, namely thorough cleansing. Mismanaged or mishandled the purpose can be defeated and the body becomes further loaded with the debris of excessive living.

Whether the cold be seemingly confined to the head and nasal passages, the throat, the chest, or encompasses the body as a whole, its purpose and character remain the same.

The purpose of the cold is to accelerate or speed up the throwing off of waste material, through the respiratory tract, and it is inflammatory in character affecting those parts particularly in which it is centred, but proportionately affecting the whole physical body.

We are indebted to the late Henry Lindlahr for formulating the theory:

"EVERY ACUTE DISEASE IS THE RESULT OF A HEALING AND CLEANSING EFFORT OF NATURE."

The common cold is an acute condition, a disease, if you please, and its purpose is the cleansing of an overburdened toxin laden system. It is constructive in character. Therefore it is, and can be construed as a blessing, without which the body would falter and slip back. The common cold aids the body and is as important to its vital economy as is the food we eat, and the air we breathe.

As before stated there are only two types of people who do not develop colds. The first represents those whose vital powers are so low that they cannot set up the inflammatory processes of the cold, and the second represents those who live such healthful lives that the cold is never a requirement. To the first named class it would be a blessing if possible to occur. To the second, it will serve as well, if ever needed.

Readers' Letters

THIS month I would like to say a special "thank you" to Miss Krick, of Altoona, U.S.A., for her generous donation to the School. We know that these are not times when money can be picked off trees, but as such gifts come in, we here at the Temple do realise that the Spirit is blossoming in many of our readers. While upon this subject I feel I must also thank Mr. 'Teddy' Stokes, from Stoke Newington, London, who although a pensioner, somehow manages to send us a regular donation every month! To these, and to all our readers who are actively helping the School in this way, I say "thank you," for it gives us that extra encouragement to drive on, and blast the conventionalism of the earth into a thousand pieces; and not a moment too soon, I think we all agree!

Developing the Soul

Miss A. Krick,
Altoona, U.S.A.

Writing in about the Occult Gazette says :—

"I am finding much that I can understand, much that I am struggling with—very challenging—that is what I like. The articles on healing, herbs, food, and letters from readers, the editorials, all help, especially the last.

Of course the articles are the things that are most difficult, but I shall keep on. Thank you for your prompt attention to my order for back numbers of the Gazette for 1965. I shall send for '63 and '64 as soon as I am able.

The enclosed cheque is a donation for the expansion of your work. I am sure there are many people to whom your teachings will bring great hope and joy and understanding.

Mr. Louis Koestler,
Cudahy, U.S.A.

I have received the two rolls of lectures recently sent me, and am greatly enjoying reading and studying them. At this time I would like to order more lectures. No. 34 The Establishment of the Northern Heights.

I am looking forward to the receipt of these lectures in the very near future, and can only repeat, I have both the highest praise for both the monthly Occult Gazette and the lectures I have already received, and hope to continue to receive for a long, long time.

With best wishes for your continued success.

Mrs. E. Gates, Earlwood,
N.S.W., Australia.

We should like to say how much we enjoy reading the Occult Gazette, and how informative and enlightening we find the articles. We admire the forthright manner in which you present Truth to the world and the strong stand you have taken against the dark forces operating against the freedom and expansion of mankind.

We have pleasure in enclosing a Money Order as the renewal of our subscription to the Magazine.

With best wishes for the continued expansion of the school.

Mrs. Hodder,
Patricroft, Lancs.

I would just like to express my thanks for your kind thought in sending me an early copy of this month's issue of The Gazette (October). The letter was very well presented too, I must admit it felt very awesome indeed to me to see such strong views as mine appear in print but then one must have the courage of one's own convictions mustn't one?

The new article on Egypt has touched hidden depths in my inmost being. Because if ever a single word spelt magic to me that word is "Egypt." I have read every book I could beg or borrow on the subject, and now have the supreme privilege of receiving this knowledge from you in the Occult Gazette, it is indeed a wonderful thing to me.

Thank you dear Lady once again for the many favours you have accorded me in the past through your Gazette. May you continue to guide us. God bless you and your splendid band of Spirit Helpers.

Mrs. C. Probert,
High Wycombe, Bucks.

It is a great responsibility to belong to the School or when we start on the path, I feel sure we do take on a great responsibility not only to ourselves but others here and in Spirit. It makes one think so differently, I am praying that I will with the help of Spirit friends here make it. Reading the Gazette it puts things so plain and blunt in respect of what we should do or not do. Thanking you and all the helpers. Many blessings on you all, it is wonderful to know that through God's Teacher you are all doing such wonderful work for us others here and in Spirit, may it be blessed for all time.

Mrs. Lottie A. Riddel,
Wichita, Kansas, U.S.A.

God Bless you all, your Gazette is so precious helping me with my understanding and soul growth. I feel it a great privelege God has blessed me with to be a subscriber of the Gazette. I am 77 years young, however I feel the need of some advice in regards to my lower limbs, the coldness and stiffness of them. Would you please advise me? God Bless you in the great work.

Action of the Supersonic Rays

Mr. C. A. Adams,
Old Catton, Norwich.

I must write and thank you for the swift and exciting benefit that I have experienced since attending only two of your wonderful healing services. For many years I have suffered from tension, headaches, often continuing for days at a time. Since receiving the great healing power at your disposal and taking the nerve pills and Horsetail herbs the headaches have practically ceased. I trust that God will give you the strength to carry on with this healing and your other great works for many years to come.

Miss W. N. Chitham,
Leicester.

I would like to say how much Mrs. Pritchard and myself enjoyed our visit to S.U.P.H. house last week and what a pleasure it was meeting you and your healers and students. How I wish we lived in London so we could become students. We had a wonderful healing and feel heaps better. I would like to tell you of an experience I had yesterday. I feel it was connected up with our visit last week. The more I think about it, the more I laugh and mean no disrespect. My favourite colour is Electric Blue-Emerald and all my clothes are these colours. Well I have now become Electric Blue-Emerald inside as well as out!

Mrs. Pritchard came unexpectedly to see me yesterday and in all the years I have known her nothing has happened like this. I have often received healing from her. She came and suddenly took hold of my hands and we both called down the Solar Rays as suggested by you. She was suddenly in trance, I have never seen her so before, then an Egyptian Guide came through and gave healing to us both, then a Red Indian guide came through to me and said he had come to give me great Power and would come again and give me greater power than I had ever known.

I did not think all that much about it, but a few hours later when passing urine, it was Electric Blue shot with Emerald, as clear and bright as Reckitts Blue. It is clearing a bit now, sometimes clear, sometimes coloured, but fainter. I wonder if I had an impact of Supersonic Ray as the word I keep getting as I ponder it is chemicalization, I realise a ray such as S.S. would do that to the body. It made me realise the importance of all you say regarding just water and fruit. I know of the rays only what you write in the O.G. In fact I realise I know nothing at all.

The only reason I am writing this letter is for you to see how it has effected me and may affect others in different ways. As you deal with the public and the rays, if we do not tell you, you cannot know. I would like to say what an honour it was for us both to meet you. The memory I came away with in the Healing Temple and the Healers regardless of age was Eternal Springtime, ageless and mature.

Miss Mamie Birkett,
Hudgill, Cumberland.

Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

Thank you for your editorial in September's issue, which I am sure will be a great help to many of us who are trying to understand the more advanced articles in the O.G.

I should like to thank you also for help received with my chest trouble. Since taking the herbs, and incidentally drinking more water than I previously was wont to do, I am much improved. Your discourse on Diet made me realise that I have also been taking too much starchy food, and I will try to remedy that.

Thank you also for the Absent Healing. "All things work together for good."

CURRENT EVENTS

The Risen Mind

FROM the standpoint of the Occult many changes are taking place, especially since the planes have been risen up so that all is now of the Solar. As time goes by so this will become more evident to a far greater number of people, who will realise that they are more than just a human body, that there is more than just a brain governing that body—but what, a mind? From what one reads lately it cannot be elevated to any great degree.

We have been treated to the report of the British Council of Churches with a following debate on sex and morality. There is the pope who said on the 29th October, that, "a Roman Catholic Church pronouncement on birth control would have to be further delayed for some time, pending additional study."

Then we have medical science stating that, "women taking the birth control pill over long periods are probably protected from the development of cancer of the womb—that even patients with far gone cancer, including secondary growth in the lungs showed a heartening change. In some of them the lung tumours disappeared completely."

A Northampton general practitioner states that, "after prescribing the pill for two years he had the impression that the pill takers were healthier and happier. That the beneficial effect spreads to the family, there being less sickness caused by nervous stress. When a doctor issues a prescription for an oral contraceptive he is in effect prescribing peace of mind for his patient."

By changing the diet from the animal to fruitarian and vegetarian, cleansing the blood with the regular use of herbs and studying the Word, lust for sex and the craving for drugs can be eradicated.

The way has now been set for all who turn to the Occult and the study of Universal Philosophy, to treat sex with proper respect, raising it up from the mud of desire. Raising their sexual fires in true purpose, so bringing about mind activity—commencing to build a mind so that as the mind plane becomes established they do not rise up blank, but alive, vibrating with Solar life. Putting into practice the new Occult Laws, spreading the Word, furthering evolution and playing their part in the Cosmic Plan.

Already, here on earth,
Before his departure,
Let man be the master
Of every impulse
Lust-begotten
Or fathered by anger:
Thus he finds Brahman,
Thus he is happy.
(The Bhagavad Gita).

Modern Progress

FROM time to time the effects of modern chemical fertilisers and pesticides have appeared in the press, stressing the toxic effects on wild life, also how plants absorb the chemicals, and then man in eating the plants and their products, takes in of these man made poisons. On top of this, chemicals in one form or another are added to modern foods to colour, preserve or make more palatable.

We are already aware of hormones being fed to animals and poultry to "improve" them. Even so, it was stated in the Sunday papers of 16th October, that detergents are being used to make chickens bigger. In experiments at the Poultry Research Centre of the Agricultural Research Council, comparisons are being made between the uses of detergents and anti-biotics as growth stimulants on chickens. Certain biological substances in detergents are fed to chickens to improve their digestive capabilities and make them thrive and grow fatter.

Dr. W. Bolton, Head of the Centre's nutrition department says he believes there will not be any danger to humans who might eat detergent-fed broiler chickens. How many times have we heard such phrases as this. He says we already consume large quantities of detergents from dishes which have been washed in them.

Surely this points out the need for man to turn to a more natural way of life by means of right diet, herbs, and following the wisdom as given many times before in the Occult Gazette. Or will he carry on with a diet of chemicals and detergents until he foams at the mouth before making the necessary changes?

"Things are Thoughts"

TO many this is nothing new. This truism shows that by right thinking many can help themselves, changing over from the negative to the positive, raising themselves out of their doldrums. By being more cheerful and raising their vibrations, their changed attitude to life will cause their values to change, and so their problems and path in life not so hard or difficult to overcome as appeared at first.

By the practice of positive or right thinking, others may be influenced to the good by your example and radiations. Many a time I have heard someone say, "I always feel happy and contented with old so and so." No doubt you too have come across this type of person which proves how one's attitude affects others. Therefore, shows how everyone should endeavour to always practice positive thinking, so that their radiations and pleasant demeanour have a beneficial effect, especially when directing one's thoughts to others.

To one who has had the privilege of watching Zamiaar carrying out her cosmic task under many difficulties, might I suggest that readers and their friends during the course of the day, by the power of thought, direct to Zamiaar their love and strength, and send out to the Masters that she may receive their blessing and be endowed with strength, support and the means to carry out her task.

I wonder if you can suggest something to help my father, who is 85 years old and has developed an irritating skin trouble on his face.

I shall be asking you to send me some more Buchu herbs shortly, and although I hesitate to trespass further on your valuable time and energy, I do hope you can recommend something helpful for my father.

N.B. We have sent some Marigold petals which are an excellent remedy for all skin troubles as they are a means of getting the Solar Ray into the blood. The infusion can be used both internally and externally.

EGYPTIAN MYSTERIES

Creation Called Life Part 3

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

TO CONTINUE WITH OUR INVESTIGATION OF THE bloodstream and its past consistency, that we can determine the rhyme and reason of present day psychological problems, it is well to consider what may still be persisting in different races at the existing moment. For if they can still be continuing ancient themes and ideas, it proves the theory that the same can still be in the bloodstream of all who were in matter at that time and being infused with Hierarchial Powers that were then "watering" life and soul growth. It is not the theme that was sent down, but the Powers which man at that period expressed in that mode of thought. These Powers are continually watering the Earth, for man could not live without them, and decade after decade are ever bringing forth of new ideas and purposes of evolution. And since man has to abide by law and order, he is automatically moulded and shaped by the few who have determined how the inflow should be expressed. So we do not escape the imprint unless we are an individualist moulded and shaped by individual thinking, and bring our own imprint into being.

The Ancestral States of Becoming

WE know that in India there are those of the Jaitwas of Rajputana who still perceive of Hanuman for they are the descendants of the Monkey God. Hanuman represents the monkey or cunning mind that can dance and spin to create and obtain; while the myth of this God was to the effect that he ran through the city of Lanka with his tail on fire and set the whole city ablaze.

(See plate on page 10, cols. 3 & 4)

The tail covers the orifice of the light creator and is the continuum of the pole that organizes the action. Therefore it being alight was symbolic of a state of being fired into action through Gemini and setting all agog by the new mode of contagion or dorsal region of the spinal column. For if "ONE OF YE LIFT ME UP I DRAW ALL MEN UNTO ME" was the promise of the Great Powers when they manifested through a mastered mind who could be the channel for direct Wisdom.

All states of Animism or Ancestral attachments appertaining to the states of growth made in the past, belong to certain groups and were brought about by tribes by forms of fetishes. Therefore they literally built their sensefield action by this; thus when you hear of such Gods as the Opossum and Kangaroo, they referred to this growth in the individual strength. For instance when it is referred to as the Alcheringa it is pointing out of the mythical past as magnetic or luna fires of the Matriarchate, or Great Old Mother period when all was still in a state of becoming. Then in the next degree of action you find the Opossum Tribe which links with a small creature full of strength, and covered with a mass of hair considered very fine, rare and warm. So he becomes under the category of the Behemoth who determines growth. Then we have the Magpie tribe, who as a bird was a copyist and thief, but was considered to have light coming forth in degrees through mouthing and acting and even stealing. He literally was able to differentiate light from darkness.

The Hakea Flower Tribe began as two female ancestors, one acting as the virgin and the other as gestator for the creation of a young mind-god to be created within by the seven elements. A decided change began to take place, for this brought into birth the Kangaroo God, for it was seen that with an immense tail he could jump and even carry his own young; so could devour and give birth and even protect. To make our list into six we find the Lizard Tribe who represents fertility from the right move; for this small creature darts into every rock incision which links with the rock creation of the soul that needs new life and action. But what it has to learn is the fact that sacrifice will also be demanded if matter and spirit are to blend and bring forth growth.

THE WISDOM OF THE ANCIENTS

WHEN life was young and men were old, wisdom was their unbounding glory, for God was still within their hearts, the radiance of their divinity. (See text on page 10, col. 1).

But although these were tribes at certain periods of unfoldment, they actually represented the six Chakras with the seventh being the mind of creation. This is the human Totem Pole, for by the God creation of light within do these Chakras revolve and cause the whole of the city of Lanka to become alight. The city of the soul, or heptonomis of lord radiance, is circling around the top of the pole in reflection to the Cosmic Pole of the twelve Zodiacal Lords, with the higher reflection of the Twenty Four Elders of the Celestial Signs that will inject into the soul new life when these Chakras are revolving and active.

It is known in Egyptian wisdom that when Sem the priest came back from "sleep" or meditation, he declared upon awakening "I see my Father in his form entire"; that is, Osiris who was cut to pieces, is now intact, having been gathered together by the labourings of Isis. Then in our searching we find that those of the Witchetty Grub tribe were witches and doctors of great primitive power, for they had the power to inject and move others by their inner "fluid." This did not mean watery substance, but fluidic Fire abounding with potential Grace.

Yet further to these mysteries we understand that if these were to eat too much of their Totem, the power of performing would depart. It was not until they passed their honey onto another, that they could seek and gather more. The depth of this is supreme, and one that could quite easily be passed onto the modern world of intellectualism.

UNLESS A MAN GIVETH HE CANNOT RECEIVE, AND BE PREPARED TO SEAL ALL, BY OBSERVING THE PRINCIPLES THAT DEMAND OF SACRIFICE AND ABSTINENCE.

Totemism of the primitive, as reflected in Myth and Fable, have sadly underestimated the true qualities being achieved in the early stages of the human growth. By this man misses a major point in his power to psychoanalyse the pathological difficulties in the present Race; for until he accepts the wisdom of continuum there will be no answer for him but to continue with his drugs. These are more than disastrous to the glandular functions, which are the main fluidic interlinking in soul and mind structure, for they disorganise by nullifying the active qualities that these fluids contain. Whereas the drug subdues the difficulty it also destroys the functions, causing an unbalanced action in the long run, therefore more and more drugs are required until the soul becomes a drug addict, or completely dead to any state of alertness.

Wisdom of the Myths

MANY points can be brought forward on this relativity investigation that can not only solve erroneous beliefs, but also bring forward wisdom that can interpret certain problems in initiation, and since this is a future path, one to be well considered. One very mysterious rite, but one very much misunderstood by later tribes, was the preparing of a female before pubescence; this became eventually as a form of fetish. They received of the wisdom from their forefathers, but like Religion of the present day had lost the real motive of the act, so carried it out without the accompanying purpose.

This like the legends in the old and new Testament, was not meant literally, but like all matters appertaining to the Mysteries, particularly in the early periods, symbolic of their hidden purpose.

This was not referring to sex at all, but to the feminine principle as she became active in her mode of becoming productive of mind growth through experiences conquered, and was ready to bring forth of instruction by ray injection from the heights. This would act as a husband and inject into the mind-womb the wisdom she was seeking, that would keep her well nourished. This applied to both genders for it was nothing to do with sex in the original, and if the whole myth was enquired into, it would be like the wisdom in the Bible, not comprehendable and often a little revolting.

For instance, if this particular fetish was literally taken, as unfortunately it often was by the later ignorant tribes, it brought the disease and disaster of leprosy, so prevalent amongst the native tribes, which is nothing more than venereal disease. It was stated that when prepared she was ready to have intercourse with every male.

This did not apply in the physical sense, but as stated, the feminine principle as the irrational mind, when ready and primed for the powers to inject, could receive wisdom from every one of the twelve lords of the Zodiacal circling and be spermed mentally by the male. I know this to be correct, for it was revealed to me and I accepted; thus can turn my mind to nearly all subjects of wisdom, though I would admit not as fluently as I would so wish.

But can account for this, by Martha the helper of Mary, being kept a little too long at her "scullion" duties. These are two states of one, as activity of lower and higher comprehension; or to make things a little clearer, lower or higher desires which would either keep the activity on the lower plane or bring it to a higher state of vibration.

When a soul has passed through the ordeal of pubescence in one of the lives and returns to be hampered by circumstances prevailing through world economics, it often has an outlet in a very diverse channel. And where they should be skimming the heights and bringing forth of wisdom, they have never opened up, and resort to mundane states. This could, in the later psychological expression, bring into birth states of fabrication, even minor pilfering to gain expansion, as well as nervous tension tending towards males, and even prostitution. This could follow with a state of gross mind exaggeration and schizophrenia at the change of life, because there had been no solving of a suppressed state that had reached a peak.
