THE SPHINX

The Mystery of the Divine Virgin Fire

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

S THE DAYS OF COSMIC rebirth were slowly penned into action, the Sphinx loomed up and demanded of Merope that his mystery should at last be revealed. For there on his bed on the sandy waste of the Sahara, he had sat for thousands of years. While many had come and gone, but none had truly guessed his message, or probed into his mighty secret.

(See plate on this page)

Vision of the Past

MEROPE being the only one who could write this story accurately, for she was the WOMAN who had been the cause of this mysterious creation being brought into birth. Until such was truly earthed and polarised, the Cosmic rebirth was not completely fulfilled, with the unification being made complete, for the actuality of rebirth to begin.

For the Sphinx and the mighty mystery of the Flying Saucers, held a comparable story to tell, for they were the means of reminding and awakening man from his long and murky sleep. A period when he had completely closed the doors of the past and begun the mechanical world of dancing robots that now, by the reborn Cosmic Laws, was being brought to an end.

Yet the glories of this mighty truth were now going to be the revelation of the future, when life would open up its portals and bring forth the mighty glories of MEN.

THE HOLDER OF THE KEY

SAD and lonely he stands amongst the shambles of Time, with a tale to tell that could amaze all if it could but be found and risen up from the depths. Only by the soul who finds the way to unite it with those heavenly heights can that mystery ever be revealed. So silent and lonely, austere and rigorous, he gazes down upon every passer by. Editorial •• •• •• •• Chaos

SINCE our last edition we certainly have been seeing changes and upheavals taking place in the world at large, with our attention mainly drawn to the chaos going on in China at the present time. To those who are well versed in the Teachings that have been given in the Gazette in the past, it will not be too difficult for them to realise that what I am about to state is truth and common sense.

If man is the microcosm to the macrocosm, then if a soul is able, by their raised up frequency of thought and mind awareness, to change the Cosmic Laws in the heights, automatically the polarity states in man are going to be changed also. These states are known as 'roots' within the soul, and are the old ideas that have been built up through past lives, and which, through man's ignorance of anything greater, have become the Laws in the heights also.

But first of all, to accept this, man must realise that he is the creator of all, that as he is able to perceive a wider and yet greater understanding of the cosmos and its intricate workings, then by his belief in his newly acquired understanding it becomes law in the heights. Then the more he treads it in in the depths, by not only believing it but by putting it into action in his daily life, the quicker will it become established in those depths.

Over the ages man has built up many roots for himself, ideas that have become intensified in his countless incarnations into flesh ; the necessity for sleep, his need of food in order to live, his idea that intercourse is by physical action, and not by mind union. These are very deep roots within the soul makeup, and ones that will take a lot of shifting, but moved they will be, as Mrs. Spearman-Cook continues channelling the Higher Powers down through her, in order that they can interpenetrate man's mind with the higher Truths.

The Chinese period contains the roots within man, for this period was his first growth out of the waters after the fall into Cancer, and was his first experience of a form-like body, although not as densified as it is now. Here, through his Dragon Festivals, he drew down the fire of the heights, and began forming new ideas of life and living, for he had now lost his original status of a spiritual being, and was having to learn to live in a form world, that which he had created through his fall into the animal desires.

These ideas then became the creation of the Ursa Major, with the expansion from it bringing into birth the Ursa Minor. These old ideas have never been discounted, and man has ever been fed by them, through the pole star Polaris.

Now, by her frequency of understanding, Mrs. Spearman-Cook has risen above the old Chinese creations, and set new laws in their place, with the result that China is in absolute turmoil and confusion, as these new unseen laws of the heights begin to interpenetrate their old creations, and give them rebirth. Polaris has now made way for Vega to guide mankind, as the new Pole Star of the heavens, which means that man is not receiving the old luna ideas but unified truths that will awaken him to the Reality of life, and bury in all his old distorted creations.

All this has been made possible by Mrs. Spearman-Cook, who is determined to drive the wisdom out even harder, that the inertia of the world may be broken up as soon as can possibly be achieved, that the activity of the Spirit can be reborn once again within every man.

Although we may consider ourselves as being apart from the chaos of China this is definitely not the case, for all men have the Chinese root creations within them, all souls having evolved along the same path. It is only by the fact of our divine Leader firmly controlling the inflowing powers, the Royal Ethers of the heights, that the whole world is not caught up in the Chinese chaos ; for if the powers were to run wild, every man would become affected by such conditions and which would result in terrible tragedy to the human Race.

This fact was strongly pointed out by the Master, when he stated that, "if these powers were not being driven and given expansion by Merope then every country would be caught up in the ensuing chaos, and with the deadly weapons that each country possesses, and of which the majority are completely ignorant of, a terrible nuclear war would result, with the outcome that the whole of the Race would be destroyed."

When it is realised that such a heavy responsibility rests upon the shoulders of one small soul, it is a most terrible tragedy that so few will come forward to support her in her struggles. Those that could have been of great assistance to her have, in fact, turned out to be her worst enemies, and here is where the 'fringe spiritualists' of Great Britain will have a great deal to answer for concerning this, for not only have they ignored her, but have done their best to impede her work when the opportunity was granted to them.

They are building a heavy Karma for themselves, and if it was not for the way they are endangering the whole Race by their selfishness, they would be souls to be pitied. Their slogan is that "you live after you die," but I feel they will be greatly surprised at what awaits them when they pass over, it will most certainly not be the glories of Spirit !

JUST A BAG OF WIND

THIS is just an additional comment by the editor upon the plate and poem upon page 14.

* * * *

NEVER has a soul more needed encouragement and support in every way, in order to continue her task, but she is deliberately denied this by those who just refuse to change from their old ways of living ; those who will not come away from the animal desires and their religious states of self-righteousness. Life holds a hard lesson for them sometime in the future, but it is a great pity that one who is struggling so hard to raise this Earth back to a state of divinity is being made to suffer so badly because of their actions.

Let us hope that the inflowing Waters will soon penetrate the minds of men and turn their thoughts towards the Truth, and the Reality of life and its purpose, for as more begin to seek into the wisdom in a genuine way, and not merely for knowledge, will the load be gradually lifted from off the Scapegoat's shoulders.

Over the past year Mrs. Spearman-Cook has made many prophecies, not the least being that deceit and intrigue would be brought out into the open in abundance, and that many large financial concerns and monopolies would be broken up. You have only to look at the news at the present moment to know that nothing could be more true ; insurance and large industrial compaines, and even Banks, finding that the age of easy money is fast disappearing.

This is but the start of what is to come, for soon man will receive only that which he has truly laboured for, and not one penny more. This new age now coming into birth is that of GIVING and not taking, an age where man will only be concerned in building a world of spiritual intent, and not merely worry as to the way he can make the biggest profit.

Again we have the scientists coming out with the same old rubbish, producing photographs of the Moon. (See the Reminiscences on page 8). I can only say that the sooner they try to land someone on it, the better for all concerned. You may be able to photograph a reflection but you certainly cannot stand upon it.

I await with keen interest to see how the scientists are going to overcome this slight difficulty ! Maybe then they will be forced to admit that all is vibration, but let us wait for the first astronauts to commit 'hari kari' and then see what excuses they make in an attempt to cling to their ancient theories, although they will finally have to admit to the error of their ways, and the utter stupidity of such previously held beliefs and theories. Then man will really have to sit up and think, and should signal a great awakening within the minds of all, as to the reality of life, and its true purpose.

* * * *

ANOTHER encouraging fact last month, and one that received a great deal of public attention was that of the defection of a leading roman catholic theologian, Father Davis, from their ranks, he stating that religion had no historical basis. This, coupled with the speech of the Rector of Woolwich, the Revd. Nicholas Stacey, who stated that in his opinion the Church and all its trappings must die, has been a very heavy blow against religion, and one that we can only hope will be repeated very often in the future.

It appears that religion did not have to wait very long to receive their Horae gift, though one they most certainly did not expect, and yet no one could doubt that it was a 'gift' that they most thoroughly deserved, and which has made a great many people happy with its arrival ! And so, as religion fades away, and its foundation breaks up more and more, let each one of us personally determine to drive the wisdom of Universal Philosophy out into the world, that it can spread across all the Earth like mighty tongues of fire, and consume all in its golden glory of divinity and Light.

A secret profound, and one essential to the future road ahead, for as all duality was blended up, would the way of the androgynous soul truly begin. Thus as Merope opened the doors to that long and distant past, night descended more deep and heavy than she had ever known it before.

For it was the land of NIGHT, when soul-life lived in a world of darkness; they having descended as atom creations from the Plane of Heavenly Causes, that they could come to the depths of that mighty Abyss to take on of soul growth. That of polarity activation, to begin the World of Revelation, that which would open up as LIGHT, the glory of the Great One's Kingdom.

Thus the soul in its descent as a god, lived for a time in a world of Edenic bliss, elevated and glorified by their own mighty prismic depths, of which they all consisted. The element glory of mighty Neptune, the mystical element of mystery and belief, who through a mind creation, could bring wonders into birth. He who started off their original creative unfoldment and was the basic of the wishful dream of the Mighty One, who longed to see and hear his begotten Son, the prolonged glory of continuity rebirth. Hence their world was of the inner depths, where spirit as the planes consistency, was their form and life.

Soul, but as soul creation, a form unknown to men; globules of light and inter-blended Adamic glories, that had to unfold and create a Plane of Mind to bring forth the Voice of the Unseen Divinity, as his reborn Son. The beginning of that World of Light that extended from HERE to THERE, the whole extent of glorified Creation. That which eventually turned out to be, through the seed creation of Edom, as Alpha to Omega, the unfoldment of TIME and TIDE. The creation of men and the damnation of the gods, the basic of the Planet of Suffering.

But for a time these mystical creatures lived in a world of their own, a world where all was radiant with atomic beauty, that continually sent down from the mighty throes of Neptune. A Creation which immediately opened up the finale to the descent of the Royal belief, which was the means of life and vegetation being rich and luxurious.

That which could by its electrified glory, sustain the god who was now being fructified from the depths of matter, as well as from the glorious heights. Beauty and effulgence being richly abound, applicable to the god and his creation, that which he now must activate and bring forth, to unify the Road he had created. Thereby manifest his Father in the depths, as the Voice of the First and Holy Cause.

Thus the glories of the mind, a plane of active thought, which they had already begun to cultivate as communicative action, one with the other. Where they by thought transference conversed upon their mighty creation, as unto the wonders of such a dynamic feat. For they remembered of their birth, their journey down the planes, their major asset being their internal spark, the mystery and glory of creation.

So as the plane of the gods they lived in divinity, where dreams were spun and cultivation grew from the continuity of the heights ever activating and radiating the atmosphere. Thus beauty and magnificence impossible to be conceived by man today, became the glory of those depths, that which now has become in the depths of matter, as the beast-human in the pit of squalor. For such glories as these creations of the gods were the basic Root of this creature called man, and the wealth he had to retrieve to bring forth and raise up as the glories of tomorrow.

The World of Abysmal Darkness

MEROPE as she gazed at the long-lost vision, felt the inward stirring of spiritual longing to embrace those glories once again. For she as a Goddess of the Virgin Venus, had descended down back and forth to guide and activate this World of newly born soul-life. For she was to be the means of opening up mysterious faculties, that would turn these soul creatures into god-like men.

But the depths soon became deep and sultry, as all was beginning to pall, for through no rebound from the depths to the heights having begun to revolutionise the creation set into motion, stagnancy became the depths of matter. They adored what they had created and lost sight of the Creator; and by the warmth of their somnambulous germination, fostered into life what they had put into operation as evolving states of desire, in their journey down of Creation.

Thereby to begin issuing forth into the negative as the root creation of the Seven Deadly Sins of Life. Those that have now multiplied into woven webs of evil destruction, darkness black and war-like. But as the glories began to pall, and the mystical wonders of Neptune to lose their radiant beauty, their vision started getting darker and darker, as a world of worldly creatures began to loom forth, and the light of the spirit began to fade.

Then it was that the mighty world of Atlantis began, for what was the Matriarchate period of WOMAN, was really the negative of the mighty heights as coagulating Ethers. Adam's consort as the glorious HER to the HIM, had descended as a soul creation to the depths, to help a group of Atoms that had taken on of element life, and became a World of soul-life.

Therefore the god-creation now as WOMAN, was existing as the World of Abysmal darkness, for all had lost its wondrous effulgence, and condensed into a forming world of wild and form-like men. Creatures with growing forms, not beauteous sylph-like creatures that lived in the world of the gods, but mighty Nimrods of war-like propensity, ever seeking for action in dynamic strength and prowess.

So once again Merope as the Goddess of the heights, went back and sought of those mighty Hosts for instruction and guidance, and was sent back once again to those blundering depths, to set their feet aright. A mighty changed world to what she had been used to, for the light and the glory of the spirit had gone out, with man-soul existing by might and strength, with desires moist and humid claiming their unfolding growth of cupidity.

For relations now were not of the virgin spirit, but animal desires creeping on of an hermaphrodite propensity, with the positive state of the pubes changing their status and taking on creations as negative men. It being this world dynamic and great, that really became the basic root of the creatures called men. Although their major FALL was yet to come in their internal status of evolution, where what should have been risen up as the rising glory of spirit, evolved downwards into the ever-growing humid warmth of the depths and mystery of Motherhood, that of the Cancer Waters.

THE DESTRUCTIVE CREATION OF MAN

AS she crouched against the falling debris, man in his fallen state, the outcome of the evil he had set into motion, now glutted with power and his mind Medusa born, towered o'er her, cursing her for the glories she had brought into birth to raise them up out of their degradation of darkness. (See text in col. 5).

Thus the depths that the Goddess was instructed to raise up by the virgin glory of her spirit, entered down into that darkness, living with them as their queen, yet striving all the time to be in their world, but not of their world, ever leading them on to greater ideas and ideals. For as their Goddess, she ever strove to lead them in a simple creation of life, trying to raise up their purpose and belief.

Yet it was a mighty world, the darkness being a part of them, for by now they had begun to create, necessity being the mother of invention. Therefore they found a way to create artificial light, for by now the mind intention that they had set into operation began to grow, but not in the right direction. A mind equal to an animal, that of self-preservation; something to aid and activate the humid desires. Thus the Goddess not being able to move them in the way instructed, called upon the mighty Hosts to send down the elements from the heights, that she could by those inflowing Powers, drive them into greater action, and raise them up from their growing delights.

The Divine Breath of New Activity

THEREFORE the way was prepared and a mighty altar set up, while she, as Merope, arraved in shimmering white with a golden crown creation placed upon her head, which indicated her power of office, began a ritual in their temple, created and built from the mighty trees that once graced the world of the gods. The air was tense, the moment appropriate by the action of the heavenly union.

Therefore as she raised up her arms in supplication to those mighty heavens, a rending flash struck deep into the Plane of Matter, causing the whole of its creation from Plane to soul, to be infused by its dynamic Fiery inflow. Such mighty effulgence had never rolled through the planes before, for Merope by her mighty Powers in a world of glory lost in density, had called down the polarity of her intercalary action, but of a purity and action far beyond their power of reception.

FOR IT WAS THE GLORIOUS HOLY FIRE, THE DIVINE BREATH OF THE UNSEEN DIVINITY AS THE ACTION OF MARS, ON THE PLANE OF NEPTUNE, THE GLORY OF CREATIVE REBIRTH.

Pleroma and Effulgence of such Divine wonder, is now impossible for man to visualise as the basic of his generative fire of active thought and life energy, for as it struck and made union with their plane, a mighty Holy Stream began action, something that these souls had never experienced before. That which activated their dynamic inner born wealth, they now being reborn atoms from that Stupendous Unseen Source of Causes.

That Divine Being who held all the wealth brought forth from Worlds and Universes, Ages and Planes, far beyond man's reckoning, and who, when man was ready, sent down to his aid that which he required to set him on his path of Evolution.

Even though for the time it was not seen what mighty Powers had been drawn down, it was not long before their own past wealth as gods was activated into life. But only to become as giants and suzahims, wild creatures powerful and ferocious in their growth, that of the Cecrops depths. War-like and quarrelsome, for it was Mars in its divine holy creation that Merope had drawn down to that Plane of the Abyss, but only received in the negative, and then driven downwards into the darkness of matter.

(See plate in cols. 3 and 4)

But this did bring about activity and government, but of a curious materialistic turn of creation, for Kronos more and more was ruling their lives, and not the uprisen glory of Ra. For the Ethers had now turned into a magnetic state of density which was hardening and stoning all form of creation.

Although the turn had not been as Merope had hoped for, she still led them in royal divine altar ritual, where they held adoration to a god whom they named Shamash. A mighty god who now had fallen with them to the depths, drawn down by the fallen minds of the animal-soul in the pit of Darkness. For them to think of the Cause they had left behind was now beyond their reasoning, for they were only looking into reflection, ever creating ideas to release themselves from the poverty stricken state that was striking deeply into their lost spiritual inner being.

So something tangible now had to be their creation, for their bodies were hardening as they changed their mind stance, while their one eye which had ever been looking upwards, was changed for two eyes that were now looking straight ahead, and in a forming creation called a face. But also ever looking into the depths, trying to pierce the darkness of perception, for

The Mind Development Class

EACH Week on every Saturday at 6.30 p.m. G.M.T. Mrs. Spearman-Cook holds her Special Mind Development Class at the School's H.Q. A special Subject is concentrated upon for about 40 minutes and then each sitter is individually helped to interpret and understand his or her findings. Any readers can join; those nearby can make application to attend each week, and those too far away can send in their names and link in each week at the time stated, their names being entered in a Special Book for this purpose. The subjects for concentration are:

life was blind now, whereas they had before ever perceived and known what the morrow held for them. By this, their sacred Eye then dropped into the base, becoming the orifice of WOMAN, while the males began to grow an appendage, activated by their desires and sensations.

Then powers beyond the comprehension of the Goddess, soon came into birth, for the males who had taken on the powers of priests, and mighty in their officialdom, perceiving what Merope had put into action, secretly called upon their god to send down more and more of this mighty element. For what Merope had set into action, was at the time open to all, thus mighty lords and kings rose up in their own rights, creating through their basic wealth, while the less powerful were kept as serfs.

Mighty creations were brought into being that were never witnessed before, and never witnessed since, except in the early days of Heliopolis. For size and enormity was their goal, to exude the dynamic powers within their inner being, which by now was a towering strength of magnetic infusion. Even Merope as a Goddess felt changes she had never witnessed before now coming forth in her ritual; mighty powers of a eucharistical nature, that gave her extraordinary powers of healing unction.

THUS SHE BEGAN BUILDING UP THE SECRET MODE OF THE MYSTERIES, WHERE RITUAL AND DANCE BEGAN TO CREATE ACTION AND ELEVATED MOTION.

It was by this that the Hosts of the Elements were able to draw near and close unto her to warn her of the impending danger that was hovering on the brink. For many were getting out of hand, impossible to control and handle; whereas they had been giving birth as gods, they now were giving birth as humans. So to meet what was possibly going to be a disaster, she was advised to bring forth of a mighty creation, that would not only hold them by respect, and give them much to think about, but leave a solid mark on time in the event of catastrophe.

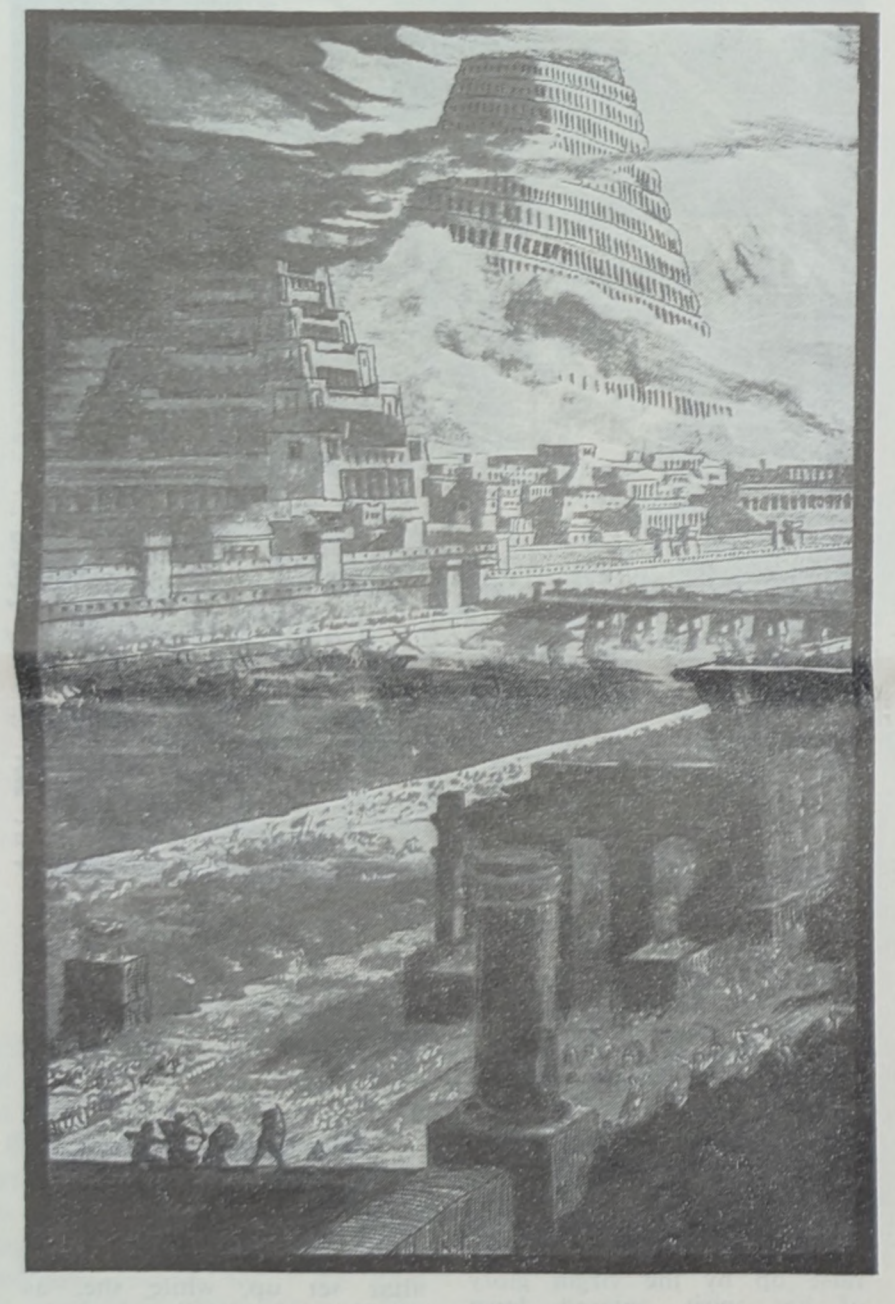

Unfolding Genius of the Soul

FOR only Merope was aware of the impending disaster, as all were in the throes of rich and continuous wealth from the Stream brought down at the time of the Element inbirth, which, as their minds began to come forth, they revealed more and more through their own lost internal glory. That which was now condensed in the carbonic gas of magnetic creation, which had severely closed down of Shamash with ten rings of darkness. Therefore as the creation as advised by the higher Powers was revealed unto her, only she would be enlightened as unto its mighty secret, for it was to be the mighty recipient of the dynamic Powers that were rending the Planes apart.

Thus through her now phenomenal unfoldment, she was given the prototype plans of a stupendous creation and mighty secret, the mystical creation of the Sphinx. Something for the time, which would appear utterly impossible, but mighty craftsmen had now developed, and creations of enormous size and beauty were continually being constructed. Thereby, Merope called upon these unfolding genius's to create and bring forth from the sandstone rock that now sent forth by the higher Powers.

Rock that had now come into being from the glories of the solidified divine plane of the gods. For all was hardening and calcifying, soul being an entirely different creature, for although he was evolving, it was downward and not upward as a spirit of the spiritual planes of ascension.

To the ordinary layman this is ludicrous, to the sensitised soul it is that which they had sought diligently for, and achieved under great struggle and renunciation. The soul now had condensed their mighty powers into flesh, and had become powerful and dynamic of strength, while their craftsmanship had in many cases excelled the beauty of too early a possibility. Thus a mighty creation instructed by the Hosts, was erected in their temple vicinity, with all instructions as to how, why and wherefore only being known to Merope.

THE MIGHTY WEALTH OF ATLANTIS

AMAZING glory, wealth as never known before, graced this world that had not solidified into the true depth of form. Mighty wisdom far beyond the understanding of present day man, causing him to scoff at the wonders that could be his in the unification of Relativity. Yet whether he accepts it or not such is his lot, therefore if he was wise he would extract its mighty glories from the unified mystery of Space. (See text on page 3, col. 3).

With the lords and powers recognising some mighty secret, and for the time bowing to its productive possibility. Thus a mighty creation of a beast-human, with a human face more regal and royal than ever perceived in their midst before, with a body of a bull, and the massive paws of a lion. A creation entirely foreign to their understanding, which held them spellbound by its mystery. Thus they sought and thought, and probed through intuitional interpenetration, to try and capture its secret, but silence was the only mystical wealth that could be offered for the time being.

FOR THE DIFFICULTY LAY IN THE FACT, THAT IN ALL THEIR INTERNAL KNOWLEDGE, THEY COULD NOT CONCEIVE OF A COW, BECAUSE THEY WERE NOT PREPARED TO GIVE, TO KEEP THE WORLD REVOLVING.

The heart had never been given life as the warmth of heavenly unfoldment, hence Shamash reigned as a cold possessive monster, drawing more and more mighty wealth into the depths of his fold. Therefore the next creation had to be of the heart, that warmth and light could be infused into the cold dead atoms.

But what was foreseen by the Hosts, quickly followed in the mighty infusion of the Holy Fire, for all drove on into the lunar waters, from the risen up plane of earth. Instead of being the establishment of fluidity, it became the deluge of desires, where torrent after torrent struck the earth, making it a lake of water. A soddened mass of muddy quagmire that drove everything before it. For the more those Atlanteans strove to probe those depths, the more the waters invaded them.

Thus a mighty Nation, Seed and glory, went down under the Deluge of the heights, for the Water creation that was to have brought into birth the fusing of the Fire, swamped all and put out all the light, driving the soul creation out into the astral planes, the outside creation of matter.

Fiery fusion that could have set the Wheel revolving, and the Bull plowing and snorting with dynamic fiery life, as the fiery inburst drove him on to intermagnetic union. Fusing and firing him with electrified atoms, bringing sensitivity to the cold inert minds. But the waters swept them out of reach, as the Deluge drove higher and higher, covering every mount and peak, with its mighty raging billows.

Thus Atlantis, a dynamic plane of Universal creation, was lost under the watery infusion. The great and mighty Sphinx being the last to be covered, for it was created high up upon the heights. For nothing was spared, all was lost as Deluge drove them into the depths of the Cancer waters.

Yet there were a few, including Merope, who escaped to an adjoining land of simple people, those who had learnt the lesson of seeking, by their intuitive mind perception. Those who had gathered tightly around her built rafts from the last of the trees that the gods had nurtured into growth, and by these they escaped to a world where light was coming into birth, and evil bore no fruit with them. Those who now were seeking of the heavens, and returned adoration and simple love, that light could be made known unto them. Therefore it can be seen, that what man knows today as the world of form and light, was not in existence at so early a stage of the creation.

Heliopolis

IT was still a world of plane and vibration, a plane of coagulating Ethers, thus spirit and soul and not human form, but a soul creation alchemicalising into action as a mind of formed consciousness. Therefore where Merope and the Seed of that Race Elect escaped to, was the land of Ra, the land of Heliopolis, where souls as Gods had found the way to come up out of the density of matter, into a mighty effulgence of light. Then as the waters covering much of the earth receded, there rose up out of the murky disaster the promised mystery of the Age. All else had crumbled, but not the mighty edifice of this secret mystery, ever rising higher and higher, until it stood as a massive mystical creature on the sands of time.

Once again time evolved, and unfoldment true to its coin, with Merope as the mighty She leading on the people, opening up the world of truth and light, as a creation beginning its birth throes out of night. For here in Heliopolis was a world now born of light, that brought fully into birth by Helio, a perceiver of the mighty truth and glory of the mysterious Sphinx. A priest who worked and aided Merope, but never shared the secret, until one day, at the call of the ritual, his prayer and struggle was duly rewarded by his own inward consciousness laying bare of the secret waiting for all.

As he entered into the depths of this mighty edifice, that now was the Temple of Merope, he realised that it was symbolical of the way that man would find unfoldment. Ever looking to the mighty Ra, raised up by his own inward creation, that in time this divine emblem of the manifesting Divinity, would not only become a living propensity in the soul's own creation, but a returner of light to the heavens, whereby the divine Cow would be created. Thus the Sphinx, an edifice that became of solidified unfoldment by the petrifying waters, was now an emblem of symbolic truth, to aid the soul still lost in the Waters of Time.

The Sphinx looking towards the East with its tail to the West, the daily traverse of TIME, until some courageous Scapegoat would bring the final upliftment, the divine unification between man and God, and establish timelessness. From the pit to the pituitary as he rises up out of those waters, where he sets the revolution into action, the sparking of the heights. For all has been a state of continuity, where non-form was finding itself becoming form, by the density of matter.

Then it would be as the mystical edifice declared, that experience was ever from East to West. whereby wisdom came into birth, bringing the intercalary dance from the mystical wonder from North to South. Thereby bringing forth the inner secret of this mysterious beast, the reborn Uranian Fire out of the murky waters. Thus the Deluge that came unto the Nation as the Yod was thrown down the pit, that relinquished for the desires of the outer soul, and not for the true Cosmic creation.

A mighty edifice, so made that at no time could it be violated, for it became a Cosmic Scapegoat in the world of rebirth. The mighty world of Heliopolis, where light began to come forth, and Merope and the officiating Priest buried all the evils of man. Although at the time not transmuted as they should have been, but merely buried, to only repeat the Deluge once again, a rebound of the Cycle. It was too early in the hopes of full contrition, so was only a dynamic power of stored up negative power, brought forth from the unfolding world of Atlantis.

Thus the meaning of this mighty creature that was created by Merope in the period of Atlantis, at the time of unifying Creation, was that she could, sometime or another, unify the Fire that she had brought down in the beginning. It originally only having created a serpent, where she as Eve was struggling to unify the depths of her mighty El powers, with the EL Powers of the heights. For then it was soul reaching the Abyss, to find the basic and polarity from whence they had come, but to only find darkness when they arrived, nothing having been created and set into motion on their way down. For desires had overtaken them, and turned the action of the purpose into the wrong direction.

The Positive Growth

IT was then that the Matriarchate period began as a negative state with Woman having descended from Adam, that she could start off creation by him sperming her with his sperming Yod, that the Creation could bring forth a mighty City of Light. Yet it was by her labouring that man came forth, creatures that rose up out of the creation of WOMAN, but brought into being by the plowing Bull, sperming the soul creating with light, opening a form of expansion. Beings of an extended creation, to become the positive outcome of the growth, and start the way to the Fatherhood.

Thus the mighty waters from Antares, the glories that once were the Holy Fire, now the red fires of creative matter, that man would have to learn by. Yet all was element creation coming into birth, not solidification born and rendered, which is but the fusion of matter, lost in the waters of the deep, but the heights coming down and becoming the blood life of man, that as mind-light they can return back to the heavens, the consciousness of manifested divinity.

So until Merope as Woman would bring this creation to its Divine Cause, she would ever be held as a prisoner in the depths treading the treadmill of life. Thus her task was to ever raise up the Cause to its highest point of accomplishment. This she would do by expounding the Word, the glory of the inner depth of

THE JOURNEY THROUGH TIME INTO TIMELESSNESS

FALLEN gods roaming the desert in a nomad state, forced to gather up of the wealth they had lost and start the journey of bringing it into birth. Yet little did they know that such mighty wealth in its amazing simplicity would be twisted into a religious darkness that closed the door to man ever finding its miraculous wonders. (See text in col. 5).

creation, for the head of the Sphinx indicated the protoplasmic creation of the man, the fiery Uric extraction out of the Prism, which if not broiled and blended up into spiritus air, merely went into the blood as uric acid.

That which sets the solidification in the joints, whereby the soul is stoned, and becomes a lodestone mountain. While the ectoplasm, which is the spirit raised up from the animal fires, is symbolical of the Sphinx's tail, the animal fires raised up to wisdom.

The former represents Vega as light, with the latter as Fomalhaut of the South, that when the two meet and blend, the light becomes glorified. Therefore the message of the Sphinx from that world of darkness, was how to bring forth of the Homogeneous man into a Hermes god, and was the mystical story left with Merope. The mighty El or serpent mystery that she as Eve was trying to deliver.

That the black and white states that impregnated and befouled that royal Stream of Holy Water, when unified and further fired by the red Fire and alchemicalised by the soul, would bring forth of the intelligencia, the continuity of that mighty Atlantean wealth. All the wealth of TIME, Worlds, and Ages, as the dynamic glory of the soul. The depths of wonders of the sanguinus waters, the bloodstream now coming forth in that creature called man.

By this we can see the dynamic mystery of the Sphinx, that which became the first great School in the soul life, that which could bring that human creature to the god-like propensity intended by that Great Divine Cause. A School controlled and directed by the mighty Hosts of the heavenly Dominion, where a vast magnitude of LIGHT, as the Source of true wisdom, is ever waiting for a human Scapegoat, that they can send a LIVING Stream of heavenly Water to the Earth below.

Wealth that feeds and replenishes the Woman who left the side of Adam, that as the Motherhood of life she could nurture those sparks into life. But the earth then was only in its new-born state, thus all that has been and appears so logical and formative to man, was only the earth in its embryonic state in the womb of the Universe.

YET A MIGHTY CREATION IN ITS DETAILED UNFOLDMENT, WHERE PRIEST, INITIATE, HERO AND SCAPEGOAT HAVE LABOURED, LAYING THE FOUNDATION OF CIVILISATION.

The Cosmic Task of Merope

A road that man could tread as a Race Elect, the unfolding few from that self-born stream of souls, creatures that once took the glory unto themselves, and ate up every blade of grass, leaving the world blind and bare in their intensity of personalisation. Thus the purpose of the School of Universal Philosophy that Merope has now created at the time of Unification, is that the dynamic intent of that Cause of Causes should be brought to its major bent.

For the wealth as once established in that mighty Land of Ra, when man awakened out of his suppuration of the Waters, is the root and basic of the intelligence now claimed by the so-called created man. A blind state of ego and personalisation that has never risen any higher than the creation of Gemini, the practical mind of the god.

That which has remained as the basic of the earth, never coming out of that embryonic state to expand up to the glories of the heavens, but merely multiplied in possessions and earthy ideas that have brought him to a mighty "freeze" and struggle, to find the answer to dynamic problems. Not form or missile, but mind fluidity, that interpenetrates by frequency of sensitivity into every plane of creation.

Not just earth propensity of creative possibility, but mind alacrity that can fly and sail up into the heights, and pick the heavenly dewdrops from the mighty Central Sun. Wealth of vibration that can, in its grounded state, bring forth the glories of the Fatherhood. For this colossal truth in its basic creation, was the major intent of those mighty Priests, Adepts and Hierophants in the purest degree.

The Sphinx becoming their major Temple and edifice of light a mystery even to the people, with its inter-communication with the three pyramids and its cleansing house of Preparation. Only initiates tested and tried entered those doors stern and grim, for once they entered they never returned to betray its innermost sacred secrets. This was the work set for Merope, to start that School once again in the Aquarian Age, when the Waterpot would be completely dry.

A time when her major task would be to readjust the Cosmic Laws to set the Waters running from those heights, to clear away the material and orthodox states of the befouled earth. Thus to try and raise the mysteries, that would in their inter-penetration, unite the depths with the heights, and awaken the lost thread in the sub-conscious mind of men.

But the way was hard, for the pitch-blende was solid, and man was deeply enmeshed in the lower depths of the scorpion. Yet even this she mastered through the Cosmic amalgamation, in their unity and their blended issue; for by now there was a dynamic Academy in the heights, as Planes that were but steps to a mighty University.

Although the Great God of Thoth, the Hermetical God of Mercury was the Master of that mighty School on high, in the minds of men this royal intelligence was no more than Bingo and the potted vocabulary of finance. The biggest penny and the strongest palm oil ever opened the doors of every besmirched and besotted influence.

Therefore the Cosmic Task, which was understood by very few, if any at all, was that set and grimly infuted by those lords on high, with poor Merope becoming the Scapegoat on the wheel, to move every root, branch and tree, that was impeding the way of LIGHT. Not to destroy, but bury in through the wisdom set into motion in that great Cosmical School set into action long ago.

For it was after Helio set the wisdom of the solar inbirth, and became lost under the tide of inundation, that this dynamic wealth made its first real unfoldment into the Age of Learning. Yet the mighty truths earthed by those priests in that School of LIGHT, have never yet been fully earthed, and lie in the bosom of many.

The only one who could set that into action was Merope, who having the basic OS, by those ancient priests once again sperming her into life by their mystical Uraeus powers, could she with that mighty hidden EL Power, bring to life the wealth of those ancient mystical days. Wealth that, if unified with the heights, could open doors of intense light by the polarity of their immensity.

But being a Goddess by long lost rights, only the mighty Lord of the heights could claim the right to sperm her with his mighty Intelligencia now brought back into blossoming Wisdom. So with heights and depths so closely blended, there began the solving of the problems of the Age, which at the present were under drug and knife, two evil and formidable weapons that are destroying the Seed of the Race.

The Alchemicalisation of Light

ATLANTEAN tartars and grimoires once again roving the world of possible rebirth, building up in form of financial jugglery and egotistical diabolicism, to live as mighty lords of power, drinking up the life-blood of the people. These being the evil and negative traits of Leo, the mighty power of Heliopolis, yet the very wealth of the Sun, the magnificent glory of the heavens.

So the Great Masters set the first task in building up the Cosmic Waters, they that would cleanse the planes and give new life to the depths. Then with their active organ as the Occult Gazette, the Word was spread far and wide, with the deeper intent ready for those who were prepared to go forth in the boat of Argo, and brave the waters of the Unification.

With the metabolism of the Canopus organ as the major oar to probe and stir the waters, to interpenetrate and extract from the depths of the past. Then unite with the turbulent waters of the present, to drive forth into the future as the ascension up to the heights. Thus the four canopic organs, the mystery of metabolism, which man destroys by highly delectable food, are the key and major attributes, as that which drives the alchemicalisation, and brings into birth the dynamic power of perceptory interpenetration.

(See plate in cols. 2 and 3)

A wealth well known to the Ancients as the mystical wealth of Agging; the Solar boat of Ra, with Afu the serpent, the fiery Fu, driving through the bloodstream. Keeping it free from uric contamination, that the Word, being digested by the soul, could help it drive into those depths, and unite with the mystical heights. Thus the void becoming a source of light, as the pituitary revolving like a fan wheel, was driving the hormones down to the depths to be broiled and make union with the plowing Bull.

Sparking and keeping the soul alive and alight, to raise the Airy wealth up to the heights. Thus the wisdom of the mysteries are the mechanics to prepare, aid and digest, that union can take place between root and branch, whereby blossom and seed can come forth. By this continuity ever goes forth, through the husbandry of the sons of Mother Nature and the mysterious Glories of the heights.

Hence the bright star near the keel of the boat, the dynamic emblem from the past, is the mystery earthed upon the upper Planes, from the mighty wisdom earthed by the great Adepts of Ra, that they in later years in reincarnating, could, when all was lost, decipher the mystery once again.

The Argo being the third Decan of Cancer, with one galley being freighted with the installed Bull and the other with the solstitial Lion, the continuity Seed-depths of the mighty Powers. This has held, and although orthodoxy tried to rob the till, the Arabic wisdom was kept alive by the mystical Stream of the Race Elect.

The definition placed by the former, was the "possession of Him who cometh", and was referring to the mighty EL that had been driven down into the depths of the Waters. The fiery wealth that Merope had brought down as the Holy Waters, driven down into the depths of desire, and lost to the light of its purpose.

That which, when raised up as the wealth of the Neptunian glory, would be the mystical depth of the mighty Unseen Cause, that was waiting to come forth as the Christ-OS light, the Voice and guidance of the heavenly Fatherhood, the Lord speaking through his son. Him that cometh as multitude and abundance, which Merope restored to the heights by declaring of its Divinity as a wholeness of life, thereby tearing down the dead god in the depths that orthodoxy placed up onto the Wheel, which freed them from any responsibility. Hence papalism who would not respond to the call, found her hub and all her art treasures submerged by the waters of the lunar depths.

The rebound of the Cosmic Waters from the heights, that have through their interpenetration of the depths, given rebirth to the lower Law, that every action, deed and thought, is now "salted" by those mighty Waters. By this, and man seeing the depths of the Word as sent forth by Merope onto the maelstrom, the Hosts have interpenetrated the depths as the mystery of the Flying Saucers.

NOT MISSILES, BUT VIBRATORY INTERCOMMUNICATION WITH ALL WHO ARE READY TO OPEN UP AND FRUCTIFY THE GLORY OF THEIR MIND.

So Merope, fully aware of these mystical powers, turned to her Magic Mirror, gazing into its depths, that further could be revealed to her. Thus (See plate in cols. 3 and 4) she found herself peering into the interior of a dark underground passage, that which led from the Great Pyramid to the Sphinx. A mystery that many doubt, for this being a secret never revealed, it being sealed up by the mystery of the the Waters.

But here was it being revealed to Merope, as she watched an initiate enter its depths, to take his first immersion into the precincts of this mighty wealth. On four sides of him were priests robed in crimson officiating garments, walking with awe and dignity befitting the occasion. Soon the initiate was stopped and blindfolded, and told to just keep on walking ahead. First he hesitated, and Merope knew in that split moment his innermost trembling fears.

The memory of fallen phaetons who had warned him of the danger that could beset every soul who probed into the depths of such mysteries. But here was the first test, if he could pass this with faith and belief, he was ready for the greater expansion. But for the moment the soul was still clinging to his personal creation, and not quite ready to create his individual body, as a mind of glowing light. Then as if inspired by the mind of the officiating Priest, he lifted up his head as an aspiring hierophant, and cast aside all those innoculated fears, and stepped boldly forward.

The Initiations

AFTER what seemed an eternity to him, he was told to stop, and his blindfold was quickly removed. Then as he adjusted his eyes to the mystical light of this underground temple, he looked around and saw before him, steps leading down to an underground stream. At this spot it had widened into a large pool, from whence misty gaseous vapour was rising. This being the Pool of Purification, the second initiation on this mysterious journey into the folds of the unknown.

As they reached the steps, the Chief Priest lifted up his arms, and spoke forth with a commanding voice that held the deep awe of priesthood. Thus with his voice ringing through this mystical Chamber, he declared "O' Great Lord AM, receive now this atom of thy Immortal Soul, and cleanse it of all its earthy desires, that it may become fitted for its holy purpose."

As the last of his supplication was given forth, the initiate was divested of his white robe and without any hesitancy, entered down into those waters. Then immersed himself seven times in its mystical depths, for as he did so, he felt an electrical infusion passing through his body. That which seemed to fill him with new life and strength, to fulfill the rest of his purging.

As he stood up to find his way back to the steps, he found that he was completely surrounded by the white mystical vapour, blinding him for the moment from the purpose he was seeking. Panic or courage was the answer now, and since he bore it with fortitude and courage, he knew when he heard the Voice of the Priest declare "Thou hast passed this initiation, but there is yet one more for thee to accomplish", that he had passed their scrutinous investigation.

To pass with courage is one thing, to pass with fear another, and if the soul survived this ordeal with the latter, it would be with a negative basic to start off to meet the next. As he stood still and waited their command, assenting by his silence that he was ready for the next, the mist cleared and he returned up the steps, they replacing his robe around him.

To his amazement it never absorbed any of the water, it being electrified waters coming from a mystical depths, holding the mighty mysteries of the past. Powers impregnating the depths from past Atlantean inculcation, which at that period was still coming forth from the depths of the earth. For such orifices as found at Delphi, were but those mystical infusions which had never yet hardened into scorched rock.

Now the Initiation led them to pass round the pool by a narrow ledge, that finally led them across the stream, which disappeared into the rock on either side. Then he was blindfolded once more and he began to move forward, but only to remember once again of the fallen phaetons' lament, of how the pit that lay across this path was the fatal impossibility of all.

For many an initiate had succumbed to its fears, and become lost to its mighty depths. This being the Pit of Pride, the worship of self and not Divinity; they who longed to take all, but were not prepared to risk anything of their own self importance and status of prestige in declaring their belief and purpose of intent. Thus ever going back upon themselves and holding the candle of righteousness.

As they moved on, the electrical waters began to help him, and he felt strength growing within, then after a short while he was ordered once again to stop. Again the blindfold was removed from his eyes, whereby he saw before him a huge cavern with a large circle of radiating light upon the ground in the centre. Within its depths was a swirling cloud of intense golden light, with no clue being shown as to where it was coming from, again another mystery from the past.

The initiate was once again instructed to enter, and without hesitation slipped his feet out of his sandals, and in entering this mysterious circle of unbelievable wonder, passed into the centre of its midst. Again as he stood resolute and perceptive to his initiatory ordeal, intense clouds of brilliant light circled and swirled around him.

After awhile, again he heard the Priest declare in supplication, "Oh! Great Ra, if it be thy desire, we offer this one to thee that he may become thy priest and thy Voice. We await thy command." As the last of the prayer died away, the initiate trembled from head to foot as the Voice then spoke to him as though in the internal of his brain, "Now is thy soul and thy heart a part of my Heart, and I will guard thee well." It was as though it bound him up to the path he had chosen, and although it appeared that only he had heard it, all including Merope had heard the declaration.

Immediately the priest brought forth a crimson cloak and placed it around his shoulders, while upon his finger they placed a gold ring that had a golden disc intricately fixed upon its rim. Then as he turned from that glorious circle of radiant light, he heard a Voice say, "Life is merely wheels within wheels, keep them spinning, then you will be free unto that of immortality." With this they returned to the Pyramid, whereby the initiate knew he had passed through the Initiation of the Heart. Here heart and mind had become blended into one, and unified with the Solar Lord.

THE MAGIC MIRROR OF TIME

SWIRLING with mystery and glory divine as a vortex of depth that only she understood, there appeared mystery after mystery which belonged to the secrets of Time. Secrets that man has long forgotten and exchanged for a mess of pottage, yet if recalled would give him back his youth and his heritage divine. (See text in col. 1).

Mastering the Waters of Life

IMMEDIATELY the ritual ended the vision blanked out and Merope, although well versed in this Initiatory ritular ceremony, found herself also refreshed by witnessing its deep intensification. So as it cleared, Merope knew the order now for the future, that every initiation, and by initiation it would be, would be the soul bringing their blood through reborn metabolism, to that of the Neptunian Isotope.

One who became the holder of the hermetical mind fire, gained by the risen frequency of sensitivity. That of the god Apollo now risen up to the glory of the perceptory principle, bringing forth of the Hermes god from the whole of the power of the Atlantean wealth buried in the mystery of the Sphinx. The mighty wealth brought forth from the past but blind and blank until Merope unified heights and depths, bringing into birth the Solar point that could ignite into electrical fusion.

The whole of the spinal sensitivity raised up to the heights as the mind glory and heart purpose of risen ascendancy. Then by the Uranian firing action of super-will, bring the wheel revolving in the heights, that heights and depths become a revolving infinity, which she herself had now accomplished.

By this the wealth of outer Space will be drawn to the soul by the dynamic Law of Attraction. The unified Prism their unified prize, gained by the soul who has struggled, but a soul now being fed from those momentous Waters, the Prakriti from the heights. For the soul now immortal, living on its internal body, with a physical casing to convey it through the depths, until the world redeemed its glory and became a reborn plane of light.

This coming into being through its union with Vega, the glorious Pole Star of the heights, the Constellation founded and brought to glory by the earthing of the Holy Waters. Thus drawing its union from the mighty Antares, with the Lord of the Flame, the Dynamic Magnificence of the Central Sun as the mystical Firing Depths of new-born earth life. The peace and harmony that all souls are seeking, but denied by the glorifying of the beast.

Now under the rebound of the heavenly Waters, and the glories now waiting to come forth, man can look forward to the possibility of a Race of heaven-born men. Souls reimbursed with the higher Ethers, unfolding like flowers from the heavenly Dew. For Merope has set everything necessary for that dynamic path to begin, reforming herself by bringing her flesh body to an immortal state, and climbing back up the Brahmic ladder of ascension.

So since every man is now on the plane where the gods were intended to begin their rebound, it only needs one and all to respond to this wisdom and see the depths of its truth, and they too will find their Road opening up, and they returning back via the Road of Acceptance.

Therefore, every soul eager to become, should now prepare for the coming Spring, when the warrior who has donned his helmet of light, and his sandals of dancing belief, will find himself being carried over land and sea, as a waft of WIND driving through the ambrosial Waters.

HIS MIND RESPONDING TO THE INCOMING HEIGHTS, AND HE OPENING LIKE A CRIMSON FLOWER, GLORIOUS AND RADIANT WITH ELECTRIFIED REBIRTH.

The Egyptian Mysteries

Having made some explanation on a very subtle point, let us continue with the unfoldment of the blood life as creation. The wisdom of marriage holds intrinsic depths in the fundamental of the blood growth. The "woman" is the feminine activator of all the tribes and species of the soul, and the ancient legends hold some very deep knowledge regarding the unfoldment of the different tribes who have unity with the Hierarchial heights. But it never alters the fact that the two mothers are the leading ancestresses of the creation.

The Road of Initiation

MANY of these legends became the Totem of different primitive tribes of later times, and being of a very backward state, the actual carrying out of the legends literally became the ultimate destruction, or means of bringing extinction to certain tribes. For instance, in a certain Australian tribe they took a marriageable daughter unto her future husband, who brought all his Totemic brethren to claim the right of marriage with the girl before the affianced husband had the right. This taking of the legend literally soon brought an extinction to that primitive tribe.

The true meaning of the legend, and as applied in the origin of the wisdom, was the spirit as the bride, and the first of the two mothers, being married to all the marriageable males of the soul; she being innoculated by all the attributes of the soul who were capable of giving to her seed life.

The second mother, who acts as the intuitive mind, would do the bringing forth of the sonship of the soul who contributed to the unfolding heights, or mind body.

This would bring to the bloodstream species of life or experience, bringing to Osiris his million eyes, that finally are enfolded into the oneness of a Solar body of light. The work of the Initiate on the Road of Initiation, which is referred to as the road of Steps and Degrees, is to blend these species into a chosen tribe or Race, that finally become the 49 Judge assessors in the Hall of Judgment. These judge Osiris, to prove whether he is fit to become the Son Horus, the risen divinity of the soul, or not.

These came forth from the seven Kamite sons who gathered of their own on each plane of descent, for in the rebirth from the Motherhood to find the Fatherhood, seven planes or seven nature bodies were created, and were created in the image of the Zootype. For the primitive man understood everything according to the Nature Powers of the Elements, and as he acquired power by totemic worship, he divinized in the form of an animal power. First came the Mother and with her the two sisters, then the seven brothers; these were born as the sevenfold of the Great Old Mother with the six prehuman and the last one human.

By this you will be able to visualize how the seven nature bodies of man came into birth. The first was Sut, the male Hippopotamus who is ever being changed as the foundling, to eventually being adopted by the father to become the heir to the throne. Yet he was the beast of the earth, the prince that had been captured by the old witch and bewitched into a bestial state. This then became the work of Isis or Psyche, that by spiritual love she could retrieve and restore back to life.

Then Sebek the Crocodile, the soul of water; Shu the lion, or the soul of breathing life. Then Hapi the Ape or soul of fire; Apuat the Jackal, the soul of vegetation, with Kabhsenuf the Hawk; although many adopted the cenopholaugh the monkey, who as such was the cunning mind, with the hawk that swooped upon his prey. Then finally as the human we have the elder Horus as the son of Isis the blood mother.

These were the anthropomorphic family growth of every soul, for even if they were born later in the issue, they passed through this state of formation to bring into birth the seven Nature bodies of the soul creation. These bodies were the beginning of the Fatherhood, for as one Solar body, the context of the seven lunar, began the Patriarch.

In this day and age this could sound very bewildering, in fact many could find it difficult to follow, because the symbolic theory used by these early primitives to forward the wealth of their growth was unique within itself; yet it is our root basic. The way it has been conveyed down the ages is a marvel within itself, but unfortunately man has forgotten that the "Word in the beginning was God" and came from that unseen source with all its Oil and Essence, which all men can extract once they know how to. But such sentiment as that these days is considered useless and fruitless, and something more violent or bone rattling is considered the mode of successful writing.

Reviving the Soul

THE building up of the soul-life of the human being is now of supreme importance, for it is now that man is beginning his first dilemmas of facing up to bringing of relativity into the life. It is a time that is going to call for much exertion, adjusting, revising and resurrecting, for life now holds of one tragedy after another; yet all the time man is evolving more than any other time recorded in history. Life is exhaustless of fundamental wealth for it holds the key to all the roots of the Tree that is now a mighty Oak, with every life in the acorn ready to drop and be born anew.

Common sense or practical reasoning tells the enquiring layman that there must be some truth in these legends, they cannot be the wild meanderings of a mind, but the remnants of a well ordered and minutely balanced creation. Now with all the sophistication abound, everything is listed and belaboured by text-book theory that merely demands mastered curriculum, and expounded forth later on by examination, which simply behoves of lettered labels that declare that that mind has been well selected and potted. As to whether the soul labelled and drilled into a channelled degree has any mind of spontaneity is another matter, and is something well 'going by the board.' All this is going to be the order of the day until a complete stalemate, then the hue and cry for new life will be a trifle late.

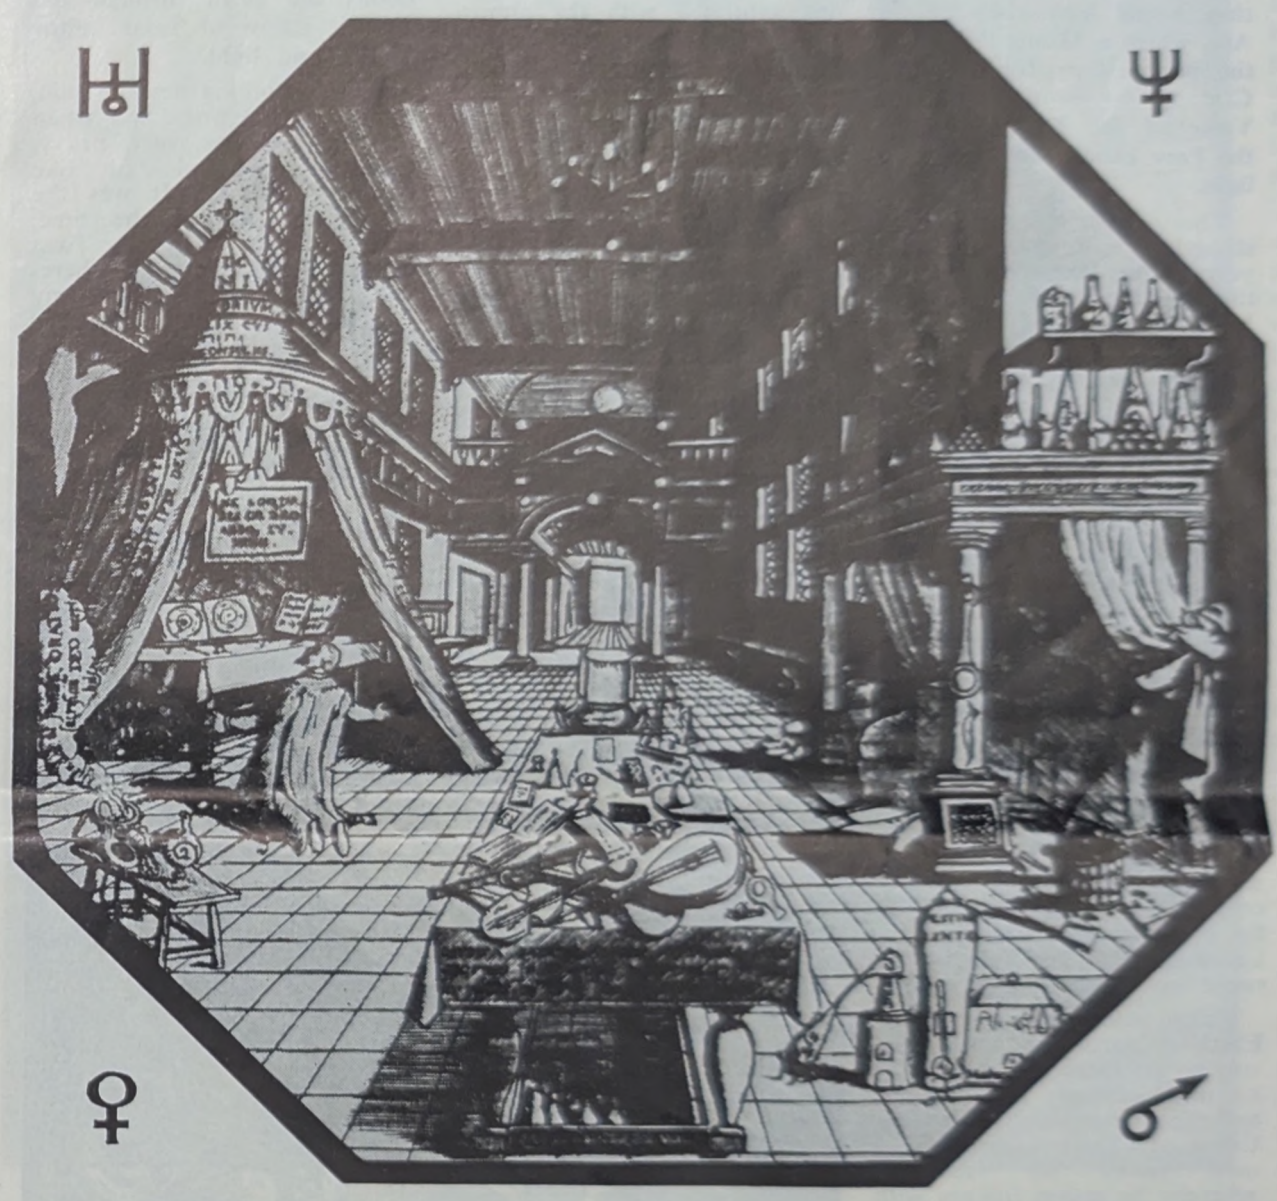

The man who is prepared to exercise his mind at the fount of ancient wisdom, is the man who will retain his inner mind body, and will keep it linked with those upper planes of Hierarchial magnitude. The outcome of the antichrist age does not bear thinking about, for the chaos brought about by the seeking of adjustment will in itself be devastating and destructive.

For evolved souls to get to the earth to help and lead the floundering race, will be nigh on impossible, owing to disease and blood texture being too impure for a body to be built for these mind creations to return and retain their fund of spiritual wealth. To take a whole Race and turn it back to front and set the clock back thousands of years would be utterly impossible; so new laws, and new ways will have to be devised to counteract the evil of that contracted over the aeons of time.

What was ancient wealth stored and treasured in the libraries will only be seen as museum pieces to be gazed upon, and wondered at why man could have been bothered with such sentimentality and religious mush. The knowledge of God will be righteous rubbish, and the order of the day will be what style of space-suit you are going to don to make your false entry into space or perdition.

The age of mind wealth and flights of fancy will be well forgotten, and the idea of abstinence will be completely lost in a world of pill, formula and hypodermic needle. Even now I wonder whether it is wise to go on expounding the theory of past blood and mind growth which holds of the wealth to solve the immediate problems of the unfolding soul. For as the beginning of the Age of Relativity is only just with us, the time of "corn in Egypt" is still here. But when that dwindles the age of robots and automatism will be well drilled in by degree and functional letter theory.

THE WISDOM OF THE ALCHEMIST

THE true mystery of the alchemist has never been solved, for very few knew their project. Confusion and chaos, ever with the war in heaven, was for the moment their prize, but when man perceived that all was within himself and that he could only find what he was truly seeking for, then all became as balanced thought bringing forth the true message of the spirit. FACTS & FALLACIES OF THE MOON

IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT MANY TIMES I HAVE made the statement that there is no moon or earthly substance outside the range of Earth, and the scientists claim photographs of the moon, I thought it would be propitious if a few facts were laid bare. For many times I have heard Spirit Guides, apart from the Teachers that are speaking through the Gazette, make this statement. What I cannot understand is why the scientists cannot comprehend vibration in its right light; of how all states of vibration are in layers of unfoldment, to a culmination resulting into Solar light. Not Earth, Water, Fire and Air scattered loosely all through the planes, but a definite Law of Order and Balance which results in light, wisdom and comprehension; yet as with the Cosmos, so with man. Or, are they making the same statement, "We know there is something, but what it is we are not sure so we brush it onto one side."

Vibrations

ALL round the Earth, which alone declares its plane vibration, are maelstromic Waters as nitrogenic gas, the atmospheric gases of man. It is this that is really known as WOMAN, the negative depths of matter, with the upper Ethers as the Divine Yod that feeds that Womb of matter. The fact we refer to this as Waters is a matter of fluidity; vibrations that can condense all to fluid, as seen in Italy. They not sending back the wealth that they have taken over Ages in mind light, resulted in the atmosphere turning into fluidity of an intense state, thus deluge.

So do not rule out the unseen Law of the "IT" that the scientist and medical fraternities know exists, but not knowing what it is, plus the fact it will upset and rule out their theories, discard it. Consequently they cut off the roots and living source of man, especially the living Source of Fire. For everything is a matter of belief that man creates, and changes its form on every plane of existence, with Earth being the only solid state of matter.

VIBRATORY STATES OF AIR COMING DOWN AS THE PRISMIC RAYS OF INFLOWING WATERS FROM THE HEIGHTS, THE UNSEEN SOURCES OF SPACE. MAN TURNS THEM INTO FORM BY CREATING SUBSTANCE FROM THEIR CREATIVE INSTRUCTIVE SUSTENANCE WORKING UPON HIS ETHERIC FACULTIES OF MIND ACTIVITY.

The physical body only acting as a vase to hold the internal creation in a world of dust and grime. But what man fails to see and understand is these Powers, which are of a Fiery nature, in not being given true creative purpose, merely run wild in their raw state; thus Italy being the result. This is known as the fire of Orcus, and is the cause of Chaos ensuing.

Earth is matter, a substance created in its lowest density, by man taking the vibrations of the heights, and instead of spinning them up into light, created them into solid cement and metal. Everything being gathered around himself in a state of possession, until it became an idiosyncrasy of the deepest measure. The whole of life centred around self and stomach, even to the degree of their churches, that were intended to lift up the minds of man, offering in their morning service, Communion and breakfast.

Man in the first place was a god, and in taking the inflow of Fire, spun downwards instead of upwards. When vibration can be understood, this will be fully appreciated, for everything in life is vibration. Either it is expanded into light and joy, or down into solid density and depression.

Man's task was not to gather untold wealth around himself, but spin the depths up into light, bringing the Holy City of Light into birth, where, through experience, struggle and mastery, man brought all the depths up into MIND creation, through the planes of Water and Fire. The two elements that would create mind and intelligence. By this they would have risen up the Arc, where a Master Mind was the intermediary for man and God to be united, and the Voice of the Divine through the Pure Ether manifested into light.

This is what I have been struggling with over the past years as the Scapegoat. Getting the wisdom out onto the Maelstrom was only the Earth law receiving what I was sending up to the heights, reimbursing the Cosmic Law. Now the Ether Fires have reached the Earth, and accounts for the many changes that are taking place, whereby man is going to be reborn and taught of what he should have brought into birth when a God.

Man by bringing his thoughts down into so low a density, has forgotten those truths, and is merely living under the shadow of his personality and not the god-nature of his sub-conscious mind. Consequently he has brought on sickness of the physical, for he is not breathing through his etheric body, his soul life, which is his god-nature. His only remembrance now is to fly away to the Bahamas or Las Palmas to get fresh air to rouse up his inertia.

This is utterly ludicrous, since Earth is earth, and the only way to get fresh air, is through his mind capacity reaching out to the heights, the Divine Cause of Creation, through his own raised up vibration, whereby he makes linkage with that vibrational inflow, and lives on that plane of thought. As a man thinks, so he is and attunes to what he is.

An earthy mind, then he seeks and draws to all things earthy; a mind who seeks of wisdom, then like those I am writing to, they seek of vibrations of Air. A creation where Water and Fire were unified, and in its fusing, causing spiritus air to rise and give man thinking capacity. But all depending upon man's range of thought does he create and stimulate himself with active belief, and put it into operation as Solar infusion.

No active thinking or higher beliefs, then the Yod of divine creation never reaches him. So it can be seen how the priests in claiming that they draw down the higher Eucharist as the Holy Yod, and go on advocating the homosexual bill, have never really touched those heights, but only lived in those depths. Showing how low religion has sunk to and the confusion and unbalanced mind creation they are infusing the world with.

The only way to raise up the planes of matter is by a Scapegoat lifting them up by belief onto a higher plane of thought. Once upon a time this was the pope's task, now his mind is centred on contraceptive pills and ritual, so the higher Powers placed the task on me. So my mind ever has to be centred on higher beliefs, and the higher I can raise them, the higher the planes can be supported. Of this I am truly confident, thus ever send forth onto the maelstrom of new life by thought and belief.

The answer to all this mystical wisdom regarding vibration, lies in man becoming saturated with the atmosphere that is coming down from the Cosmos installation. Hence the many letters that we receive of how the thoughts and phrases of the Gazette are ever being repeated and "catching on." But naturally true thinkers are few, thus it behoves them to keep their minds centred on greater things and draw in those higher vibrational thoughts. Then they will help me to keep the higher Fire of the Divine magnitude pouring down to the earth.

THE LUNAR INFLUENCE

AS Saul approached the Witch of Endor to raise up the spirit of the future, Samuel, the prophet of the past came forth. Thus here we see the spirit of the Moon being raised up in the den of the witch, with the king laying before him his requests. Even the legends of old held of this truth, while man in his so-called sophistication and educational growth is completely blind to the reality. (See page 9, col. 2).

The lower mind capacity are all turning to pills and drugs, when by seeking through the mind, and raising up their vibrations, the tempo of the etheric inner soul would be fortifying the physical body. Then with the help of herbs they would find themselves embracing the higher vibrations, with wisdom unfolding more clearly to their perception.

At the present moment, all that the medical are offering man, are pills and drugs to remedy their difficulties, when all is through man cutting himself off from the heights. There is no real capacity of diagnosis, so they merely drug with earthy minerals; this is where they are cutting off man's true means and capacity of expanding up to the heights, thus all are held in the grip of Saturn.

The New Manhood

MY task was to think via the Solar belief and capacity, raising my thoughts and beliefs up to the very highest. By this the planes were lifted up, because as man so thinks do the vibrations of the Earth become. It only needs one soul to take on of this burden, and then the avidya is cleared, for all is vibration. Then as the higher planes receive that higher thought, it floods the earth through the Prismic inflow of Solar inflow of life and light.

This is nothing new to man, for in the first world war when the gun-fire was very heavy, we had continual rain like unto a monsoon. It was the general opinion at the time, that the heavy gun-fire was causing the fluidic state. Therefore it can be seen, that in my lifting up the planes, I could just as easily raise up the Cosmic Law as drag it down into an ultra-lunar state. This is what man could be doing if I did not continually strive to bring new thoughts and raised up ideas. Instead I raised up the Solar Arc, as did David in the Books of Samuel, thereby I caused the Central Sun to manifest, hence your glorious Sunlight.

THIS IS WHERE I SET THE PLANES IN THEIR VIBRATIONAL CAPACITY FOR ALL TIME, THEN ALL BECOMES TIMELESSNESS TO THE MAN WHO AWAKENS; BUT WHETHER HE DOES OR NOT, ALL WILL BE VIBRATED ON THOSE LAWS, FOR THEY WERE FIXED BEYOND MAN'S CAPACITY TO CHANGE THEM.

Hence it is only a matter of time for man to think on a higher plane of thinking; but already the Gazette is growing and a greater demand is required, especially out in America where the atmosphere is to the Occult advantage, but England has the wisdom left in her charge, and it is her task to expound it. This she will never do through the present regime of religious rubble that is being put forth at the present moment, for it neither lifts up the soul nor teaches it any wisdom.

This is where the Hosts are ruling the Earth, for they think and write through my mind, and make continual new spiritual entries into matter. Man can deny this as the rantings of fanaticism, but they cannot deny the results that were prophesied would take place. For it has resulted in the Theological investigation via the Dead Sea Scrolls, with it coming to the conclusion there never was an Iesus, and that the Bible was Legendary belief, something I have been advocating for four years. Man now speaks out more boldly, behoves conventionalism no longer, while continual advice goes forth regarding fruit juices and slimming.

All my beliefs and what I have been advocating, while my outspoken beliefs on many points, have been the major work of the Gazette. With many other statements now being enlarged upon, that have already issued forth by the Occult Gazette, but greater still by the Hosts thinking through my mind capacity. That is why I stay in my Hub of the Wheel and drive out to the people as the rim, of the wisdom sent up to the heights, through the twelve spokes as the Celestial Hosts sending it down to the depths.

It may be ancient wisdom, but it is the prototype LAW that was set in the beginning, and the only way that man can be reformed; that is, through the Law they created in putting this wisdom into birth. No one can alter them, only reform them in greater measure, and this can only be by man himself manifesting these laws in perfect rhythm and truth. Thereby bringing all to a point of golden truth, and sending up light to the heights. This indicates in man himself as well as to the heavenly heights in adoration to the Great Cosmic Laws of Life.

Hence the advice in the Bible via a Sage speaking, with the hosts using his capacity, and giving forth of heavenly wisdom. "I come not to destroy the law, but help you to understand it better." Help your consciousness awaken, therefore by this it may have dawned on many of a deeper meaning to the fact that all is within man himself, and as a man thinks does he receive and assume unto and send back up to the heights as light.

THE TWINKLING LIGHTS OF THE HEAVENS WHICH ARE NOT BODIES BUT PLANES OF VIBRATIONAL CONSCIOUSNESS NOW VISIBLE TO ALL, YET THE TEACHERS OF OCCULT WISDOM ALL OVER THE AGES HAVE BEEN AWARE OF THIS TRUTH.

This is why half of the physical ailments of man are due to his way of thinking, he being in the clutches of Saturn, for by thinking despondently, all is grey. If he could see the rhyme and reason of turning to wisdom, it would lift him up, and accounts for why many state that they have been healed by only reading the Gazette and lectures of the Master of the Flame. This was the task of the pope and bishops, now they are so muddled with earthy affairs they have forgotten their heavenly duties.

The pope broke the link with the higher Sources by coming out of the vatican and they lost their power. But as he had never really linked with the greater heights, it did not take long for disaster to overtake them. While Ramsey and others advocate the Sodomy Bill and also have become lost in the dregs of matter; for the very Power they are claiming to draw down as the Holy Fire, is the very fire they are seeking to rape by their evil ideas. This is the "IT" that man discards, owing to his ignorance.

This is what makes the male so important when they are men and bring down true generated life through their generative fires. These then are the Bulls of life, and sperm and feed their immediate surroundings with life and strength.

But this has been the problem sorrow all through the Ages, the male population going dead and diseased in mind desires. Thus wars were perpetuated to raise up the manhood standard, for when it goes too low you get such conditions as Italy, where all turns fluidic to the lowest degree. This is the lunar waters, the states of the moon, and the condition that can come so readily when man turns back upon himself, instead of seeking for the Solar light. But all through the Ages this has been the terror of time, man raping the sex fires, instead of raising them up as mind, and woman starved and dead in fire capacity. As a result the atmosphere becomes too magnetic, and needs firing with energetic Bulls sending forth energy from their raised up mind capacity.

The world then becoming rich with heavenly waters flowing down through the man creation, and Sages sending forth wisdom from the heights. This is shown very clearly in the plate describing Isaiah as a prophet and scapegoat trying to raise up the Bulls through wisdom. Now the Hosts have gone to greater lengths to interpenetrate man's mind, and to perpetuate their purpose, otherwise, they too go dead. All is overflowing at the present moment, causing the clergy who are ruled by Jupiter, to become sex conscious by the fire of Orcus. If they were truly sending the wealth up to the heights as they declared in their vows, they would not be affected in the way they are.

The Glory of Light

THIS now has prepared us for the greater investigation, and one more complicated than the others, yet that which I have put forth paves the way for our next to be comprehended. First let us turn to the understanding of Earth being the Chemical pot of ALL creation; for Earth is earth, and all else vibronic states of finer vibration. The maelstrom or what is referred to as the Stratosphere, is the Hall of Mirrors where all that man thinks becomes mirrored on its gaseous creation, and appears as reality, hence the moon belief and fanaticism.

All men are lunar, and once lived on this earth in a lunar way, that is, when they dropped down into the depths of Cancer. Then as man raised up, they were slowly transmuting the earth into a Solar world, but man still half lives in the lunar and half in the Solar, hence his task to unify the two, and bring forth the world of Vega, the world of glorified light shown to John in Revelations.

All that has ever been, has ever been on the plane of Abyss; all worlds, universes and moon creation have been a changing state of progressive evolutionary life in these depths. Hence what man sees on the maelstrom as the Hall of Mirrors, is the Spirit of the Earth being photographed in its lunar heritage, that must now become Solar born.

(See plate on page 8)

This is the seventh plane that became cut off from the sixth of Creation, after the Fall in the lunar waters; consequently man was cut off from the Divine Cause, and only lived under Jupiter expansion, orthodoxy. This was the work of Pisces, which sadly missed its mark, for no real expansion of divinity was ever made.

The Embodiment merely went into the Desire Body of the Earth, that which had to be alchemicalised into action; but even that came about in an erroneous way.

The real truth lies in the Catacombs, which man has never yet really understood in their true mystical sense. All that the scientist has photographed, is similar to those super-imposed pictures that are produced through the super-sensitivity of the camera, and the photographer. This I know to be a fact, having a spirit extra on a photograph myself, which is unfortunately very difficult to reproduce. So it can be seen how man is still captive in the bowl of the earth, and is held by the magnetic state of gravity, but since I have lifted up the planes and intensified the Solar glory, man will soon come out of that lunar stated and become completely solar born.

The Spaceman NEVER really goes outside this stratosphere whether he declares it or not, but merely captures the mirrored vision on the Waters. These are the waters where man sails forth in his mind, to gain experience, and when he fails to master, like Moby Dick, loses his leg. That which represents his expansion, for man as the god creature in the world of light was a globule, but when he grew legs to walk on solid matter, they were his extension.

THEY IN BEING RULED BY SAGITTARIUS, CAPRICORN, AQUARIUS AND PISCES ARE HIS ARC, THE RAISED UP GLORY OF LIGHT. THIS IS WHAT THE DEPTHS OF THE MYSTERIES REVEAL TO THE MAN THAT IS LOST IN THE DEPTHS OF MATTER.

The scientist in his so-called advanced understanding, would pooh! pooh! this; well, so be it, it only leaves him "stone dead" giving off knowledge that is as erroneous as the ritual and religion of orthodoxy, which is very obvious when you speak to them. Everything is mirrored on the maelstrom, and remains there while man keeps it alive in his mind.

What man sees of what he thinks is the Solar orb, is the Divine Intelligencia of the Heavens, the divine risen up Glory of the Flame; the supreme heights as the Masters on the highest Plane of the heavens. From then onwards are the Planes of the Ethers, a magnitude beyond man's comprehension, where the Great Hosts are gathered around the Throne. the mighty vicinity of the Central Sun where the Pure Waters of life start to flow down to the Abyss.

Through my lifting up the Planes and bringing down of the Holy Fires from Antares once again, the Solar Arc became united with those planes and overshadowed by its Divine magnificence. Hence the radiant prismic glory that the Earth is receiving; wealth from the extended Solar Galaxy. For immediately I started on the journey into these Waters, and I started to give off of my findings, a horseshoe was seen in the Constellation of Scorpio, whereby the scientists declared that the Galaxy had become intensified.

This was magnifying of the Generative inflow to the earth, where mighty Cosmic Rays would descend. It was feared that some great disturbance would come about, how much, they could not tell. To tell these big-heads that these fiery waters are flowing through man himself, would only leave them telling you they know, and don't talk such rubbish.

For just recently we rang up the British Museum pointing out the statement in the Daily Newspapers, where they commented upon the death of the curator of the Cairo Museum, who had a dream advising him, that if he sent those holy Vessels of Tutankhamen out of Egypt, he would die. This was fulfilled, and adds unto the remarkable incidencies that took place when the tomb was opened. When this was repeated to the official of the Museum, he merely stated in his dead way, "we do not give credit to such things as that."

This shows how much man is cut off from true sensitivity and is "stone dead," it also accounts for why the earth-bound soul declares that Occultism is dangerous. Only so from the fact it changes the soul's vibratory frequency quicker than those in stalemate. Once changes begin to set in through the soul seeking into expansion, it never stops, for the "IT" or spirit is given just that little impetus to move and drive onwards, and which is the work of the Gazette. This is where many a sick soul has gained benefit by going on absorbing more and more of the teachings, while others have lost the road by refusing to seek deeper.

Man is only mind, although at the present he has a physical body, the seventh out of the seven inner bodies, which are in the internal faculties of the bloodstream and metabolism organs, with the results in the mind body, the final creation of vibrational ascendancy and the radiance of the soul. For it is earth, water, fire and air, these being the elements taken by man through the Prismic inflow.

Earth being with him as the Abyss, the depths of the Adamic Dust, while water is the lunar state that man adopted instead of making it into a vessel to receive of the Fire, whereby his mind ascension could begin in the cumulus clouds that rose to the heights as mind awareness and belief.

THE MIND BODY IS A CREATION OF VIBRATION IN THE SOUL CAPACITY, THAT OF THE BLOODSTREAM, WHERE HE REGISTERS AND RE-REGISTERS OF GREATER AND GREATER BELIEFS.

When there is no thinking, no rebirth, it causes stagnant blood, hence inertia and disease, which of course breeds all sorts of complaints. The answer is change of thought, which ever moves the blood which holds the homogeneous or man in its intensity. When there is no movement, man ever thinks on old lines and multiplies, hence his bloodstream becomes filled with black and white states, negative and positive and not Solar points of united wisdom.

Thinking positively is Solar thinking, lunar is negative, so that alone points out the negative beliefs of the scientists, and consequently their minds cannot rise any higher than the maelstromic belt. But if they had been allowed to go on they would have brought the earth back to the state of the moon, a dead cold world completely burnt out. For this is the consistency of their minds, dead states in old beliefs.

Man to expand must make unity with the Heavenly Forces, that they can be refuelled with new life from the heights. Ever have there been Prophets and Teachers, Scapegoats and Sages, drawing down higher inflowing forces through their higher vibrational belief. Wisdom they have "fished" out of the Waters, but which brought a certain

DEATH OF THE MANHOOD

HERE is where history and biblical legends frequently bear reference to the dying state of the manhood, and which is clearly brought to the fore in Isaiah 14, where the firing capacity of the heavens has been cut off, through the male nation having gone 'blind.' This was known as the soul being in Babylon, but Isaiah, in solving the problem by determining of new-born wisdom, brought down a Stream of new life and became the Bull of the age. (See text in col. 1).

THE EMBODIED ATOMIC GALAXY

As the Isotope Creation

*by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

This lecture was delivered at the S.U.P.H. on Sunday, 11th December, 1966, through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Flame of the Central Sun, the unified Spiritual Wealth of the Cosmic Hierarchies.*

WE come amongst you, to drive the Word out onto the maelstrom, but also to drive the Word that is already established, that it can go forth and fulfill the Task it has been set to do. I want you to realise that this is not a personal task: this is a COSMIC TASK, and as we send forth the Word onto the maelstrom we are 'driving the Word'; and the more you can understand the Word the more are we 'driving the Wheel.' You are only few in number, but you are the few who have stood by the Truth, and are ready to help and support. This is all we need, so we ask for all your love and attention, that the Instrument can send forth the Word and we can unify it with the Heights.

The Mind Potential

MAN was once a great and mighty creature; now he is merely a puppet to the world of form, the soul led by every bright light, desire of form of physical attraction.

The glory of the mind, which he was destined for, is merely at the moment a text-book creation, suitable only for financial and classification possibilities, which rule and control his life; whereas he should be as a bird, free and on the wing. But man as the embodiment of Elements of Ether creation, is something too remote for him to consider, for it entails the soul making changes of life-purpose, as Saturn still rules in all his dishevelled glory.

This is the renunciation; Saturn transmuted into Solar, where possession is renounced for mind, form for spirit, and evolution as intended by the Gods, continued.

We have for some time been portraying the many wonders of the past, that man could see how his trend of life had fallen completely to the depths of Creation. How once he really was a god, a creature of mighty power and wealth; but now he is merely a human form worshipping the cloying ways of desire. Yet full of the wealth of the mighty heavens, that the Gods are waiting to be returned, as the glory of mind light, both cosmically and terrestrially. That brought into a form of creative endeavour, which will burnish the spheres with life and action, and turn all into the ways of mind consciousness divine.

A sea of rolling mind divinity, the world that Brahma intended to create, the fulfilment of his Kingdom on Earth. That which was, but never manipulated, now expressed, and the glory of mind creation, as the divine beauty of man's creative action of Truth.

Thus having gone deeply into the mysteries and seen the wonders that have lost their savour through man's earthly desire of sloth, it gives the soul the understanding of the power that is hidden in its inner depths, and its possibilities through a mind creation. How the Galaxy, if embodied as an atomic fusion, can as an isotope creation, be the driving wheel of purpose and dynamic will, that could bring forth mystery after mystery. For it is force and driving action that is needed to drive the issue to its intended purpose, the mighty intent of the Unseen Will manifesting as the Voice of the mighty Yod of Creation.

The Ithyphallic mysteries that man has so condemned, are but the human impression of what these mysteries intended. For really they were ritual of the highest order, showing mankind how to raise their Neptunian Waters up to the highest purpose. Bringing forth the glory of life, the ever extended mind perception, for man's belief and intent today is far below the divinity of the mysteries, and their intended purpose. For then it was to raise the exhilarated mind action to a flowering possibility on that creative plane; Le Ros dancing up to a flowering beauteous Rose.

THIS IS WHAT MEROPE DID WHEN SHE BLOSSOMED VEGA INTO LIFE AND SET ITS COURSE AS THE FUTURE POLE STAR OF LIGHT, GENIUS AND PURITY.

These being the vibrations as the dancing Ethers captured by the nervous masculine system, and transmuted into mind strength by the unity with the female. The Ethers etherically embracing the Element Powers, and by the Polarity of a Solar perceptive mind, creating a link with the inaudible Divinity. That of the sensitivity of unborn creation, a vast world of potential positive instillating beliefs and ideals, the one intended God purpose.

A world of decadent beliefs burnt out by the penetrating velocity of the Sothic Fires: a combination of time that was allowed to accumulate by the losing of the Uranian El powers, through the creation of sex. The Uranian El power as endorsed god life trampled into the earth and awaiting its polarity with Vega's fires, that when these two unite in the soul, instantaneous perception will awaken. These being frequencies of atomic powers of precisional grace and mind divinity; for where man was once pinioned to the cross, he will now, with the union, be carrying a fiery cross of mind sensitivity.

THE UNIFIED POWERS WITHIN THE SOUL

THE divinity that man has forgotten and no longer claims as his own. Powers captured and blended into glorified splendour now unified with the heavenly rhythm, sending up their mystical wonders to the glories of the heights. Thus man, nature and divinity blended up into the divine light of the mind. (See text on page 11, col. 1).

The whole of his back a burning bush of glorified atomic light, Vega's glory now his embodied divinity, with Chakra sensitivity and holy frequency. The four-square foundation now raised up by the activity of the swarming Bees. The starry activity set into motion by man's interpenetrating beliefs.

Compensating rhythm that will uplift the soul into realms of Plutonic splendour, the frequency of Generation revolving all of the powers within the soul into glorious mind light. Mankind having become immune to such glories through their contamination of the Adamic dust by the animalising of the Holy Fires, through closing down all states of divinity. The animal power as the unemotional states of Plutonic sensitivity now to be reborn through the ideals of the Cosmic Solar Laws, and man shown how to lift up the lower sex states into gratio creations of mind.

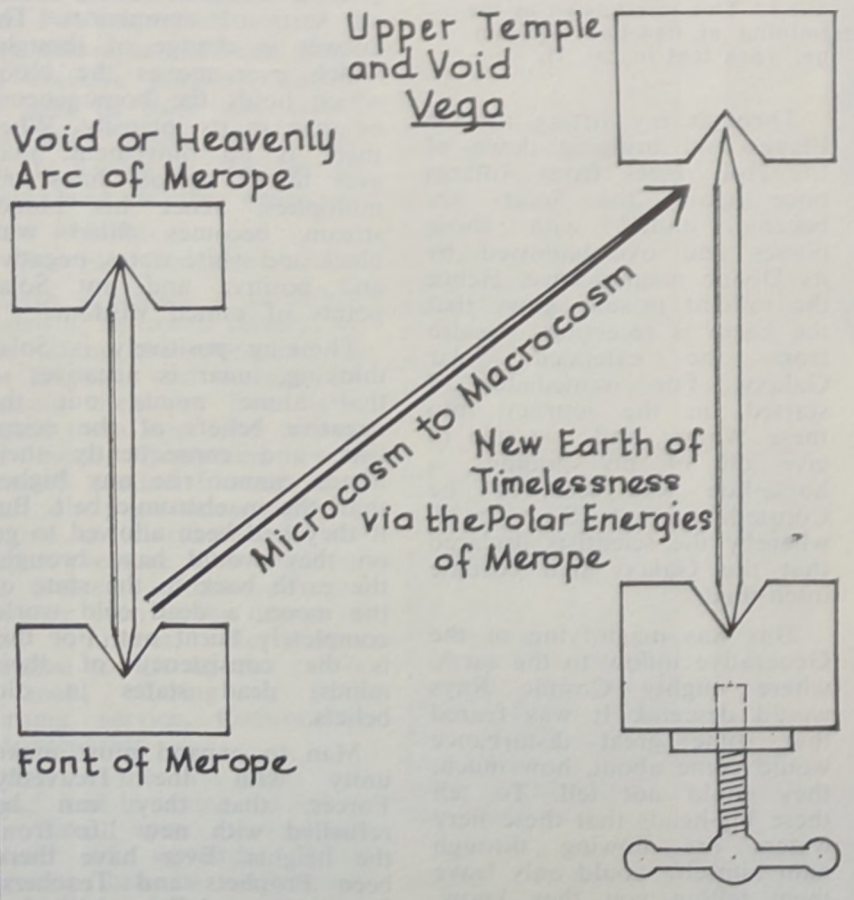

The History of Unification

THE rebirth set into motion by Merope in her interpenetration of the Occult mysteries revealing truths that are factual and necessary. For without them the soul is a slave in captivity, and only residing in the eighth house, the darkness of the pit. Yet that necessary for man to comprehend what it is that is tying the soul up in knots, and causing the complications in the world of form.

This is captivity, that which has followed all the way down the Ages, and can only be cleared by unification, the unifying of the density. Then a viewing can take place, and the soul start off in the direction of mind unfoldment.

That in the future is to be the main definition of life, building up and creating of the mind. But what is the mind, and where does the isotope as element-creation come into the picture? In the past lectures the student has received much wisdom regarding the Isotope Elements being brought to a humanised status through their atoms entering into form, and taking on the genetic faculties created by the soul, whereby they become as a part of the soul organism. States that are absorbed as a human consciousness, building up not just a mind, but a tower of strength through its imbibed status of Air and Fire, the unity of the upper Ethers.

The power of divinity captured in the soul, which gives

THIS was drawn by one of the students who comes into the Temple from outside. On the left you can see what represents the Axis, Void and Font of Merope; so the Axis would naturally turn from her Font right up to the Heavenly Arc. On the right you see exactly the same thing, only larger, belonging to the Upper Temple and Void of VEGA, and the New Earth of Timelessness via the Polar Energies of Merope, and how they now are being screwed-up higher and higher, and being driven up as she goes back to those Heights. Then you can see that of the Microcosm to the Macrocosm, which is Merope's trail-back; for as she works her Font and her Ark and Axis on the left, so she works the one on the right. This is how she ascends, and that is the Bee Trail. Now she has to be able to fly from the earth, up and down that Bee Trail, until finally she is able to fly continuously from depths to Heights.

Now the only way she can do this is to force up the Planes, and force those who will not assist by 'letting-go'; so they either get down to work, or topple over; one or the other. It is a drastic effort to 'weed out the frogs.' This is what happened in the past, which many of you have not been able to understand. As soon as she raised up the Plane, they could not hold on, and out they went. This can still apply to any in here, because the Plane is going to be pushed up more and more. So it is for them to either make an effort to comply with what is being demanded, or I am afraid it is going to take its toll. But the same thing is also going to apply to the World: this has got to be done to 'turn the World over,' because it is now linked with Powers beyond the Solar; it is now blended with the Upper Ethers, so that no longer is it a Solar World but a World of the Upper Ethers.

Many strange things are going to take place, far beyond the understanding of the majority, and for a time odd creations will be put into operation. Very many peculiar things are happening now, because mankind can only put anything into operation in the way their minds respond to it. But this has got to be done, because it should have taken place 13,000 years ago. So it is 13,000 years of clearing and cleansing which Merope is going to be set to do; cleaning up the World and 'eating up the dust.'

Merope will continue her work from VEGA, when she then will be completely united as a 'wholeness with her Spouse in the Heights.' Of course you realise that this will not be physical; it will be just two states of consciousness. She is going to guide the earth in the same way as Polaris has guided the earth, but she must leave as much as she can of her Teachings upon the earth, because they are going to be the Teachings of the future. You can burn every other one upon the earth, old, new and fantastic; for these are the Teachings that every man will find himself searching for, and they will eventually be placed into books when man comes away from using his finance in an abortive way. (See text on page 11, cols. 4 and 5).

it the ultra-creation of the Gods. This being the Isotope unity powers captured in a balanced and orderly way, (See plate page 10, cols. 4 & 5) not as the Kirubu of the past, the priest of Chaldeo-Assyrian chaotic magnitude, but powers taken and brought to a dynamic strength through the wealth perceived by the Kirubu, but not utilised correctly owing to their lack of experience.

This was Chakra power sensitised and unified in risen frequency which, when brought up to unified strength, gave them the power of the double-edged sword. But experience was limited up to date, and human fears were great; therefore it was a time of treading the grapes. The time would come when the Scapegoat would unify and bring the blended-up states into the glory of divine godship, a status of reality of rational understanding. Yet what was with the soul as prototype, still holds but in a more evolved way. For that was the Law of Creation and approved by the Laws, hence the road of fulfilment and the way that the soul as consciousness would become.

Unification, a status of accruing power through interblending the element creations taken, and unified into the uprisen status of mind creation. Air and Fire unified on the upper planes; yet this is not the end, for by this being electrified, it becomes radiating spirit light, glory of fusion only known to the soul who has captured, and brought to the glory of divinity. This being the embodiment of atomic galactical wealth, but wealth embodied as the Royal Sperming of the Yod as the configuration of A.D. 33 that became only of the Desire Body of the world. Yet the wealth, with past wisdom of Law creation, that Merope captured and gave new Life to in the World of Relativity. The difficulty being the dissolving of states accrued in error through its material usage, so ready to hand of a kirubial possibility.

The true mystery lying in the unification of all that has been, becoming polarised with what it could become when unified with powers of Outer space extension, to the unification of its relative possibility.

A hand span with a hand span, and the ultimate result. So if a kirubu possibility sensitised the Chakra revolutions of unfolding frequency by unification and wisdom, it declares for itself what it could bring forth for Cosmic unfoldment.

The inner glow as Divine ecstacy of such royal belief, becoming now as the royal sensitivity of the revolving sperming power for the new Vega Laws. The homogenetic substance that is ever trying to find its real channel as the upper Stream of Cosmic Life that will feed the Vega Fire, instead of the lower fires of desire.

THE CHAKRAS RAISED UP TO THE SENSITIVITY AND FREQUENCY OF THE POWER OF OUTER SPACE, AS POLARITY TO THEMSELVES.

The Spirit Unfoldment

ALL the Cancer wealth elevated into a royal status, a super-frictioning of the Seed by the exhilaration of the blood by the Solar Fires of Divinity. Man can only expand through the aspirational combination of spirit as mind. and service by love, cosmically treading it in and raising it up to its royal status of divine purpose. Thus finding freedom from the gravitational narcotic density of the polluted magnetic depths, but now by the Hermetical divine mind built up by Merope.

The electrification as homo-hermetic blending of God and man will produce genius of amazing spirit unfoldment. The penetrating supersonic will of the gods as a combined stream of infused isotope radiance of Vega. The royal Star circling and ever overshadowing the coming forth in the renewed status as once known in Heliopolis.

It being the soul alight and dancing, for the organic tissues are now being fed with pure radium from the cosmical unified waters of Fire and spirit. That of the atomic Galaxy, the outer unfolding Prism as atomic light, opening the inner Eye as the higher consciousness into a divine belief that a greater and fuller existence can be made manifest upon earth.

Although Merope as the Goddess of Venus came to earth to help the Race by installing a Solar embodiment in the true cosmical sense, she really came to save the hierarchy by bringing a Solar FACE. Thereby Hermes as the Lord of the Flame graced the Arc, and man and Cosmos were saved and brought to light. But let us see a metaphysical approach to the descent and the ascent of the Wheel creation.

(See diagram and the caption on page 10)

This is the pathway of the Queen's return via the ancient route of the Bees' Stellar Dust of Atomic collection, it once being the trailer of the Queen's descent. The Bees being the atomic-electrical trail energies of the trailer dust released from the tail of Merope during her descent into matter. These are her atomic path energies, and her frequency chain of return, because she automatically in her descent, brought with her the Fire of Venus; for as a Goddess she was one of the Hosts, and had the power of the upper planes.

When she reached the Earth she naturally gave to the plane the Fire of her heritage, then began calling down the other Powers. This path is not like the Milky Way, for that is a path created by man of boulder consistency, man's path of experience. Merope's was a path of the hierarchial descent but by the HER of the intent intended by the Gods; everything starting with the negative of its possibility.

Reminiscences

amount of chaos as they wrought changes in making union with higher powers. This ordered the breaking up of the old and the installing of the new, again as seen in Italy.

Then one with wider vision and one touched by the inflowing waters, threw their priest ritual to the winds and declared of papalism as unto what it really was, a worn out useless belief. This is how the Waters work, but it needs a Scapegoat to work the oracle. (See the Current Events on page 15)

Activity of the Scapegoat

THE greater depth, and that which man finds difficult to reconcile, is the fact that what is in the Cosmos is in man himself. But in man it is form; in the Cosmos it is Vibration, Elements, Planes, Ether. These, when incorporated into man, and chemicalised into mind, become his form value, for man judges everything by form, when really it should be mind, the soul's capacity of thought, and his will to create it in matter. So as the personal mind awakens, it unifies with the sub-conscious until a wholeness or ONENESS is obtained in Solar capacity.

But all is born from the heights and through the spinal rod of the soul, which eventually is unified up to mind light, changing every organ to meet the requirements of the inflowing capacity. Thus the Earth changes by the soul's embracement of the heights; but since heights and man are magnitude of Worlds and Universes which existed in the Abyss, it relates but little of the enormous wealth that is contained in both. Yet one is light and the other mind, yet comparable with one another.

The higher a man wants to climb, he does so only by changing his capacity, but he must be prepared to meet those changes by burying in old states, and reforming them. This is what the Scapegoat does, thus making the way for all men to follow, for if they take the change, they will find that the 'gate' has been removed, and it is an open field.

So as the Scapegoat, I have been on the wheel driving it round and round, bringing continual changes. Thus firing the earth and breaking up old states that new can prevail, bringing a new world into birth in the place of the old.

The greatest difficulty was breaking up the old religion and ritual, although once started, they became their own executioner, for many were seeking to air their views, and once schism starts in a regime, it is finished.

I have tried in but a few words to bring home the fact of how all is HERE and NOW, that all that has ever been, has been in the place where Earth still exists. We are all and everything, hence all the wealth of Ages is at our finger-tips. For man to use artificial means of resuscitation, and to deny that anything but a flesh carcase exists, is soul destroying, as well as bringing the wonders and the glories of the mighty Universe down to the dregs. This only intimates the narrowness of their minds and their lack of wisdom.

The wonders that exist in man and the mighty Galaxy is the whole Creation of God himself, the mighty Creator that holds all things together, and is the existing LIFE that gives action, rebirth and dominion to all. Without this inter-blending Glory, man would only be a grovelling animal, and was what he came up out of in the Chinese period when the Fires descended once again, and he built up the fire festivals to activate himself and the "wet" atmosphere. For he had come up out of the Cancer waters where he had sunk into a complete crustean depth, states that take hold of man now when he sinks down to his lowest dregs.

The Chinese period is a complete polarity to the Central Sun, the coming forth of the Great Ether Waters from the Great Divine Unknown, the Great Magnitude of All-Being, with man's Pineal field of active life the intermediary receptacle. Thus this can explain much when it is recognised that China as the Middle Kingdom is the roots of man. For they were existent of wild hordes of Mongols and Tartars, who after clearing away forests and animals, began to build up a civilised life.

No one knows where they came from, which indicates without hesitation, from the North as reborn growth, those come up out of the Cancer waters. Then it can be seen how a woman, who has not turned in her depths by wisdom, can give birth to Mongols, freaks and imbeciles.

THE FIRES OF ORCUS

FIRES drawn down but left in a raw state, consequently the priest who was responsible for this action had now to meet souls becoming 'stoned' and completely 'stripped'; those imbued with enormous wealth who had failed to fulfil the obligations required, or the priest who had been faulty in his task and had not been able to transmute the fires into the glory of light. This being the sad fate of Laocoon who brought about the destruction of Troy. (See text on page 9, col. 1).

As a healer I have witnessed these states and pondered deeply into such mis-created states of nature, for they are usually devoid of all fire. They never having been born of the Spirit, thus elementals of the lowest dregs of nature. To put these to sleep at birth would NOT be wrong; for them to enter into human life is only adding their backward states into the vibrations of progressive life.

It is up to every soul to look upwards and seek of those Unseen Heights to resuscitate and lift him up, for as a man so ordains can he receive if he is positive enough in his demands. If his belief is great enough, then by the Law of Averages, it would balance up, and he would begin to unfold with those greater waters feeding him.

This is where man declares that God answered his prayer, for through his earnest entreaty, he drew down into himself the Fire as the wherewithal to lift him up onto a greater plane of balance and light.

FOR MAN IS THE WHOLE CONSISTENCY OF THE ELEMENTS TURNED INTO MIND; IF HE DOES NOT USE THAT MIND IN THE RIGHT WAY, HE IS LEFT HIGH AND DRY WHEN THE TURN OF LIFE COMES ABOUT. FOR HE HAS NOT FOUND THE WAY TO DRAW FROM THE HEIGHTS IN A SPIRITUAL UNION, THUS BECOMING REBORN FROM THE HEAVENLY WATERS.

Now I would like to make a further request of all my readers abroad. I have started stamp collecting just to make a break at times from my work, also I feel that there are some very interesting creations, especially from those abroad. I much prefer those that have been used, so if there are any of our readers who would like to give me some pleasure I should be very grateful for their help.

All knowledge of the Mother and Father birth producing a Son of mind growth through spontaneous interlinking will be completely tabooed and besotted. Any belief in mind flight will be out of the question, for all you will need will be a text book and if you memorize that to blood-bursting hours and sperm-spilling nights, you will be categorized as being a specialist of wealth and understanding.

The study of these words are only applicable to those now who believe in mind and soul growth sufficiently to brave the elements of ridicule levelled by the frog-headed mites already beginning to don the top-hat of tomorrow. Only those who believe in the wisdom that the soul-life in man has been derived from animal and vegetable and the outcome of embodiment growth, which brings them a clue to mind upliftment and unity retainment, will hold on now in the belief of that which will now benefit them for some future way of soul absorption into the intended Whole of Being.

But whether man depends on text book or mind independence, he can never betray the fact that man was in the beginning, a soul of wind humanized and breathed into being by the embodied Mother Blood wrested from the secret Tablets of Life and of the Nature Force.

The Godhead Creation

MAN was discreted forth from external elements of life, when those termed the Semites and the Admu were the Tum or Tem of mystical identification. Tum was Admu or Atum, the first origin of the soul created by the Solar manifestation; the first of the full drawing down in vase fulfillment, and rising up of solar growth as mind comprehension in unity of the duality within the soul.

The first primal being who could claim the first status as evolved and perfected man from the sovereignty of the Sun-God Ra. The first likeness of man created in the image of God; yet already it is possible to hear the derision that would meet such a statement from the pigeon-holed professors of Social and Psychological Economics who would declare, "who wants to know," and moreso believe, that man was created from the Marchen and from the Lunar and Stellar creations, and that they made of legendary lore.

And furthermore, all was made possible by Mother-earth and her Elemental Powers making the real time-gauge of life in the ancient past when Egypt was in her prime and glory. No! the Legends of Creation will well be tabooed and enlisted as the mind fancies of the pagan and primitive creature of a dark and superstitious world.

The Legends of Creation are the only theme we have to go on at the present moment, until we awaken the innermost individual Book of Life. Then when the soul adheres strictly to the principles and rules of the mystic way of interpenetration, they will find no greater fund of truth than their own inner records, of what man was literally and truly derived from.

AND WHEN UNDERSTOOD, WHAT GREATER RECORDS COULD THERE BE THAN THE STORY OF THE BLOOD DRAWN AGE FROM AGE UNTIL THE AGE OF SYNTHETICS BEGAN TO ANNIHILATE, AND ALL MIND MEMORY BEGAN TO FADE.

Yet we cannot forget that the period of blood-life was the father growth derived from the Solar Deity as distinguishable from the previous of soul created from the external elements. The soul now united with Spirit and upraised from the animal by a mind birth of soul forming consciousness. This is the rib removed, and a new creation begun; man formed out of the Totemic upraising of the Waters into Wind as mind and soul growth.

It was in the beginning a time of deep fog as mind growth when the dual vehicles of soul growth as Spirit and matter were uniting, and mind came forth as matter predominating spirit in the unity as common logical basic of first growth of irrational mind creation. Then out of the density the opposite as spirit polarity appeared, that which now came forth as the polarity of the frictioning plane of future revealment.

By accepting the revealment as the God manifesting in matter, the Sun broke through and Earth and the Human Race became enlightened. Up till then it had been by Totemic creation, man emanating Nature; but while imitating her he was also raising her up in status until she came forth out of the waters. Now he has fulfilled the first creation of the brown clay vase, and is ready to create a more delicate vehicle.

MATTER BECAME REFINED BY SPIRIT INTERMIXING, AND THE DESCENDING HIERARCHIAL ATOMS OF LIGHT BEGAN BUILDING A FINER MIND PERCEPTION OUT OF THE ANIMAL CREATION OF SOUL GROWTH THAT HAD SUNK INTO THE DEPTHS. THEN THAT CREATION PERCEIVED THE GODHEAD AS A FATHERHOOD, AND IT DAWNED IN THE MIND, AS THE FIVE SENSES CREATED A SIXTH, THAT THERE WAS MORE TO LIFE THAN HAD APPEARED UP TO THAT TIME.

Thus with the lower bodies still holding sway they became conscious of sacrifice, and to compromise they circumcised the male to cut away the predominating animal desire. To aid this and avoid the male returning to his bestial ways, the female passed through the rites of the opening of the pubescence by the old mother of the tribe in performing the act of severing the hymen. This was to prevent the now delicate male organ returning to its old desires, but now being directed into the way of regeneration. This slowly brought a refining of the male organ, and if the accompanying plate is studied, it will give some idea of the growth that came about by these rites being performed in the racial growth; what was as animal growth no longer predominated in the human creation.

The New Mind Awareness

WHAT was performed then would be the prototype that would come forth in relativity; but religion that has befogged, and led the evolving human mind in blind belief during that polarization, has much to answer for; thus the time is now ready for greater individualization of mind action in religious beliefs and principles, that some genius can lead the way by independent soul growth as the future Sage or Iesus birth. "As I am ye all can be".

But it will mean a whole sect of commercialised religious bogey collapsing into the dust; and furthermore, man learning to discipline and create himself individually by mind study through relativity formation bringing new mind awareness, with further animal retention as perpetuated sacrifice.

When Atum as Akhnaton fulfilled the Vase, mankind was perfected literally and cosmically, and the Matriarchate was completely superseded by the Patriarchate as Fatherhood, in the Human Race being born anew in every direction, especially physically. Up till quite recently man had consisted of one sex, with the element of mankind slowly building the male constitution. It will be very difficult for man to now conceive of such diverse states in the embryonic turn of growth that generation had taken.

This was the outcome of the original root planted in the Leo Equinox and bearing its seed birth in the Cancer period that was about to emerge into the Geminian, that Taurus, the Bull growth, could begin its royal journey of ascent. Always there are three or four

THE MYSTIC JOURNEY OF THE WIND

FROM North to South the Wind blew high, driving the Seed into the depths, then the child was born and the sun rose up warming it into life. Then down into the West it went with all its mysteries to verify the word installed, that by the hermetics now created man would be born anew. (See text on the back page, col. 1).

Equinoctial influences playing their part in one period, for some are being made of practicality, while others are beginning to make colourization, and is the same through the ages.

In the Totemic states that followed, many apparently queer rites and ritual were the order of the day. These were the origin of the many later diabolical practices that future tribes carried out in their state of degeneracy, and without the slightest idea of what their true motive literally intended. But in their origin had real and potent factors, and it is these that are still lingering in the bloodstream of the human race today; and until they make their complete polar unity in relativity, they will never make wholeness in circumpolar action. Thus these states are loose ends in the continual waxing and waning of the moon.

The finest way to get full import of this is to perceive the depth of the Hierarchial sign of Pisces. This represents the two sides of the mind with its interconnecting link, mind-memory and conscience. There is a continual waxing and waning in an idea until it becomes a practical issue in the heart. And every drop of blood that passes through the heart and over the brain becomes tinged with this established thought and belief.

If this was not the case, every soul would be alike, instead every man is an individual creation, and if persisted on by the Christos Hierarchy, their Avatar would make his descent into matter at a profound period and become the Presence to the soul who was so ready. This is the heritage of mankind, and a very royal path.

If you had been one who tried to accomplish this road and never made it complete, you would have returned to the earth with such deposited in your blood lineage, and as to how it would make manifestation would have to have been witnessed to see what turn such would have taken in your renewal.

Then we must also realise that during the embryonic period of the Human Race, such things as the skins of animals were worn to keep with them the thought of the Hierarchial Power that was descending and surrounding their own particular tribe. Again superhuman forces that were being made flesh, but also in the bloodstream; and if never brought to a fulness or conclusion would ever regurgitate as characteristics that would either need controlling or manifesting as genius.

With the skin of the animal to remind them of their purpose, they would also eat the animal flesh to absorb yet further ideas. At the same time fix the animal's tail round their centre as a girdle for perceptive sense in the solar plexus, and regeneration from the mother source, the Cancer limb; and finally drink the animal's blood to carry out to the very full the primitive rite of transubstantiation. From then, the skin as leather has been held superior in the minds of men, even unto the present day by the tying of the old shoe on the bridal car.

The ancient Britons stained their bodies with the woad in their Totemic Tattoo, which you find has continued down to the present day with the rouging and powdering of feminine faces. Then you get the Bull being worshipped in Ancient Egypt, with the Cow in India in later years; while all through the ages man has adored his good old English beef dinner, again all in the blood species. This is minute to what can be stated, and as we go through our search we hope to find the different traits of proof whereby a psychological investigation will prove profitable to each individual soul.

The Meaning of Venus—Urania

EARTH was the great Mother, also the Wet Nurse, the human Mother who suckled her children; the great superhuman bringer forth in the Kamite Mythology as the layer of the Egg. This great wisdom has been constellated in the heavens in the Seven Stars of the Ursa Major. Here it is beheld as the seven Hathors or seven Feminine influences that have been received and brought forth of light in the Starry heights.

So there is a complete revolving between these and all basic of seven as the feminine fructifier. This is the basic element of seeking for food, the female yearning to be fructified which ends with coquetry. Thus she was imaged as a large uddered cow, and in the Phallic worship became the many breasted Diana. One of the names given to the first great Mother was Khebt.

From this has stemmed untold wealth and depth, and which finally became the tribal custom of eating up the old mother so that not one drop of her blood was lost. She was considered the stone out of which everything came forth and remains the basic as the Hierarchy of Cancer.

In Astrological symbology she is seen as the crab hiding away under a rock in shallow pools so as to prevent the solar light penetrating. She is ruled by the Moon, therefore typical luna, and is the basic of all human beings even if man disputes and ridicules such knowledge; thus is that which has to become impregnated with the Solar light as the first mode of change.

In later years many forms of totemic symbols were continued without the real understanding being accepted. Conical pillars and pillar stones, besides the stone that became anointed with oil at Bethel and other places of renown. If it can be seen that this is the foundation of the soul, and the blood life through the ages that has never been rectified or unfolded into a purpose of truth, but allowed to increase age after age as feminine or negative personal beliefs and desires, it will be seen of what I am striving to reveal.

This is the basic of the personality and brings complicated inverted states of possessiveness, egoism and stubbornness to bolster up the inferiority always with this intense Cancer influence. Yet it being the basic, holds all the wealth of the life growth from the first emotional bringing forth.

It is from here that all psychicism stems, therefore fear and sensitivity are the product of the solar plexus which is ruled by Cancer, the great old mother. And furthermore, from whence all physical phenomena as ectoplasmic discharge is made.

Hathor was the first Venus, and as the Egyptian Venus was the representative of great abundance. Hathor was also Bast or Nebhau Kau the great Goddess of Bubastes, and the worship of this Goddess was the greatest ever known. It was of the time when Egypt was in her prime, and the Asherah tree was the tree of growth and symbolic of the house of God.

Thousands gathered to worship annually and it was declared by ancient reports oracularly descended, that the power so centred, has ever been the sustaining strength of the monuments of that Temple that have remained intact to this very dav. Phallic worship began here in its true belief and many were led into the right direction by the wisdom that was taught to the young minds; then the men of Pibeseth and Aven began of evil corruption out of that established, and all collapsed into debauchery. But the evil did not begin in the Temple worship.

ALL VENUS'S STEM FROM HATHOR AS WELL AS ALL GODDESSES, AND TODAY IS AWAITING VENUS-URANIA IN MARY THE MOTHER OF GOD BECOMING THE LIFE-GIVER TO ALL THE WORLD.

She is the Great Harlot of Revelations that becomes clothed in purple; and incorporating all that has been given, we find that Hosea in 9 v 1 calls the daughters of Israel to account when he declared, "Thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a reward upon every cornfloor".

In the Phallic worship it was the Great Mother as the Pelican whose body and blood was sacredly eaten as the primitive eucharist, and accounts for the degenerated tribal custom in later times. In the beginning it was the power and strength radiated by the Goddess Bast as the Teacher of the Phallic worship, that raised the fallen tribes into activity. This was the Eucharist which she gathered by the ritual performed in the inner Temple precincts. This was alight until a certain part of the tribes began deluge which spread and overwhelmed the Temple of Bubastes, in that what the Goddess drew down from the heights they gobbled up as frogs and sat and spawned in the waters of delight.

She was the Great Mother ever pregnant with plenty, besides the Great Nature Mother who also fed her children with untold wealth. But unlike the Goddess, she did not respond when they failed to invoke her bounty. No sowing, no harvest was her law as Nature; and further to her mystery the drama of reproduction involved the secret of resurrection and rebirth.

This came forth by continually inducing that taken into radiant life, and was what the tribes placed upon their totem poles and upon their own bodies with the skin of animals symbolising the equal in power of what they were inducing into form life. At the same time they performed their ritual under the auspices of that influence to become the ward and warriors of those great Forces.

To understand this fully, it must be realised that the young soul had only just awakened into new life and generation set into action by organ sperming, and had now to be accelerated so as to prevent inertia overriding and the Plane of Destiny becoming abortive.

ONCE THIS BEGAN DELUGE WOULD TAKE PLACE IN A MORE NEGATIVE DEGREE THAN THE ORIGINAL DESTRUCTION, FOR THE INFLOW OF POWER ONCE STARTED WILL ALWAYS CONTINUE; THE POINT WAS TO DIRECT ALL INTO THE RIGHT DIRECTION THAT REBIRTH COULD BE OF HEALTHY MINDS AND ACTIONS.

THE UNFOLDING HUMAN GROWTH

THE mystery of man in his unfolding growth was not from animal to human but the fallen god embracing the animal, to find a way of rebirth. Hence the mystery that has befogged the scientists, for it was the godlike creature losing his way and crying out for mercy and redemption. Whereby nature came to his aid and by husbandry of the elements he climbed the way to finding a mind that would lead him back home to the heights. (See text on page 12, col. 5).

Readers' Letters

FIRST of all this month, let me thank all our readers who sent us Christmas Cards. Due to their abundance it proved impossible to answer them all individually, but I hope everyone will accept our thanks through the medium of the Gazette. Also to those who sent Mrs. Spearman-Cook a Christmas gift, which she much appreciated, whether large or small, again please accept our grateful thanks. It is the thought that counts, the joy of giving without expecting return, and so once again, our thanks to you all.

We received this month a letter from one of our subscribers in Sussex, Mrs. Fairclough-Smith. She is aged 97, and I feel fairly certain can claim to be our oldest reader. She is by no means inactive and still holds classes every week upon the wisdom of colour healing. If any other reader can claim to beat this, I will be most interested to hear.

Mrs. Brailsford, Mansfield, Notts.

I must thank you for the healing both physically and spiritually, I thank God he led me to you. The Occult Gazette is as life giving as an oasis in a desert to me, life would be pretty dull and mundane now without it. Thank you all.

The swelling on my leg (well thigh really) is getting smaller each week—Am I still on your Healing List?—I just wondered, because of late I have seen purple rings as if of smoke. Could this be your Healers? In any case it's a wonderful feeling—just to belong to you—Just in a small way. God Bless!

D.B., Woldingham, Surrey.

I have been regularly attending the Sunday evening lectures for the past two years, and I feel that I must write and say, how very much I have appreciated them.

The wealth of wisdom that they bring is immeasurable by our known standards, and I suppose this is really to be expected, as this wisdom is of such magnitude and depth that there is nothing in the world to compare them with. This is particularly true of the amazing wisdom which has been unfolded during the last six months during the very great series of "Cosmic Unfoldment" and the "Solar Myths" lectures.

It does sadden me a little to feel that so few people seem aware of this Royal Feast, which is offered within their midst, although I know that these lectures are being carefully printed by your loyal staff, so that for a small sum, no one who is seeking for this Word, need go without. When it is remembered what a fine start has also been made on re-printing the earlier lectures, it is most gratifying to feel that this Wisdom is being faithfully recorded for the benefit (whether he realises or not) of mankind.

No comment on the lectures however, would be complete, without reference to the Instrument, Mrs. Spearman-Cook, who is used by the Lord Maitreya in earthing this knowledge, and to the unbelievable, self-sacrifice which she has made (and is still making), pouring out her life's blood to earth the Master's work.

We who are privileged to be present, can see all too clearly, the pain she is suffering, in order that man may be uplifted and healed by the Mighty Word which is being channelled through Her, and what a tremendous effort she makes, in order to preside at these services; and I know that the affection and healing thoughts going out to her from all your readers, are helping Her in Her Mighty Work, of raising up the Planes.

Mrs. Edith Jenkins, Chicago, U.S.A.

Tell Mrs. Spearman-Cook that the Egyptian Mysteries that are now appearing in the Gazette are wonderful. They have given me much enlightenment. I hope she is well, and hope that she stays with us for many many years to come, and can continue with the wonderful truth she is bringing to the earth.

Thank you, and may God bless you all.

Miss A. Krick, Altoona, U.S.A.

The Gazette is so inspiring. To be able to understand the real purpose of life—to be able to look way back and way ahead is so wonderful—it makes so much sense. No emotionalism as one finds in religion. I am so grateful.

How happy I should be to live in London and attend the lectures!

I am taking the recommended herbs regularly and can already see a difference.

Mrs. Fairclough-Smith, Brighton, Sussex.

I think your wonderful lady, Mrs. Spearman-Cook, is doing a grand work in the Occult. How my dear Father would have loved her writings. I was brought up to this Teaching by my Father; he used to walk up and down the room in an elegant way and lecture us upon it.

Inner Schism Revealed

MANY a time in the past few months it has been stated in the Occult Gazette, that the Church will die and cease to exist by the year 2000, vide O.G. November, 1966, article on Vesta and the Editorial. Perhaps there were quite a few people who thought this prediction could not come about—that the Church was too strong; change maybe, but die, No! Now we hear in December, 1966, that Dr. Charles Davis, the Roman Catholic theologian, has left the Church, stating that it is dying. Following this we have the Rev. Nicholas Stacey, writing an article posing the question, "Must the Church Die?" And giving the simple answer, YES!

SO WE HAVE TWO CHURCH DIGNITARIES CONFIRMING THAT THE OFT QUOTED PREDICTIONS IN THE OCCULT GAZETTE ARE NOW PROVEN FACT.

The Church having served its purpose in the past by giving group guidance, has now outlived its purpose. Nothing ever stands still, evolution proceeding whether we like it or not. So, as one thing dies something must take its place. Nature abhors a vacuum. Thus as the Church undergoes the process of dying, its place is being taken over by Universal Philosophy.

The Church is mortal, and as creed and dogma performs its own requiem, so Universal Philosophy rapidly gains in strength, spreading far and wide over the world; a philosophy which is ageless, ever young, yet spanning the ages, bringing to the one point of truth all that has been extracted from previous myths, legends, isms, religions, creeds and philosophies.

The essence of truth from each brought to the ONE SOLAR BORN TRUTH OF UNIVERSAL PHILOSOPHY, THE ONE THAT EMBODIES ALL. The uprisen mind as the eagle flying up into the Central Sun conveying truth and light up to the heights that new life may be brought to the world below; heaven and earth infused with new life.

This is the phoenix, Dr. Davis, that is rising from the ashes of the dying Church. A Church that lost its soul to save its face, putting authority before truth and systems before people; holding on to the material wealth of the world, drawing in more, becoming bogged down in matter, with all that is true and spiritual being completely cut off and lost sight of, all held in thraldom by the Church, therefore, cut off and denied all spiritual sustenance.

We are all of Spirit and to Spirit must return, with all the experiences gained in our lives; for Spirit, in order to evolve, descends into matter to gain of experiences, to bring all to perfection, before returning to the source of All Being ready for the next stage of the Cosmic Plan.

As Dr. Davis believes:

"We have now reached the point where the very society founded to perpetuate the message and hope of Jesus has positively become a barrier to belief and a hindrance to the living of the full life."

While the Rev. Stacey states,

"increasingly, modern man sees in the Church an archaic irrelevant structure which spends most of its energy struggling to exist and to justify itself while the dynamic forces of society sweep by untouched and unheeding."

Further:

"Has, indeed, the Church in its present form got to die before God can raise it up again in a new shape to serve man struggling to make sense of the secular technocratic era? I, a professional priest, have been wrestling with these questions for a number of years, and with reluctance and with sadness I have to say that I believe the answer is Yes."

These two clerics have pointed out the demise of their Churches, just like some of our relations:—

"How nice it is for us to see,
Our dear relations come to tea;

FAIR COMMENT!

by an anonymous reader upon the statement below by the pope, claiming he is the authentic voice of God, which was printed in the SUN on Thursday, the 19th January, 1967.

DO NOT FEAR ME SAYS THE POPE

Pope Paul said yesterday that he knew the Roman Catholic Papacy was a major barrier to the achievement of Christian unity. But he appealed to all non-Catholic Christians not to fear the Pope, whom he described as 'an authentic representative of Christ.' He was speaking at the start of a period of prayers by his church for Christian unity."

The Papal Voice

I am the voice of God, he cries,
A direct link unto the skies,
Yet when I speak of Pay-Pill-Ism
It always seems to end in schism.

Why doubt me when I claim such title,
Is not my word for man so vital.
'Tis peace I want, I mean no ill,
If you want no child, then take the pill.

But remember, papacy is only strong
While pill and abstinence is wrong.
Only this way can we expand
And spread our creed throughout the land.

To lust is wrong if you swallow the pill,
But to lust for our cause, why, that is God's will,
And the voice of God is my claimed position,
And if He's unsure then I'll call a Commission.

I've finance, I've power, on Earth I'm immune,
When I jingle my money, then I call the tune.
But I get so confused, and my prestige is nil,
Oh, thank god for Communion, with a port and a pill!

What's God's view on Sodomy, now why ask me?
Oh yes, I'm His voice, well, it's easy to see,
He doesn't condone it, it's not in His Laws,
But still, we'll allow it, if you keep it indoors.

Now what do you mean, it's twisting His Word,
I'm just changing the phrasing, pray don't be absurd.
I agree it's all wrong, but I cannot do more,
My monks are all for it, though why, I'm not sure.

But they're honest, I'm certain, so support it I do,
And to hell with our morals, God's Laws, and with you!

Yet I really am worried, I just don't seem to be
A dynamic, strong leader, with the heavenly Key.
But my biggest of problems, and not so by choice,
I awake in the mornings and keep losing my voice.

I can see but one reason why this trouble I get,
It's all that expansion from the Occult Gazette!
They've raised up A LIVE GOD, it fills me with dread,
For I'm left without answer, just the voice of the dead!

This does not mean that we agree with the contraceptive pill, we most certainly don't, but this points out the reason why the pope is against it, and which, it is obvious, does not stem from any spiritual motive. (Editor).

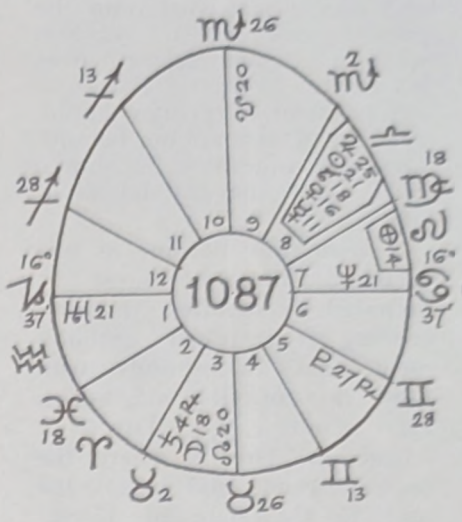

THE HEALING COLUMN

CAN I make a special plea this month to our readers in the U.S.A. When giving details of their birth date could they make every endeavour to state their time as Standard Time, or Daylight Saving Time if in operation. This is most essential and something which we, at times, have great difficulty in ascertaining.

The Strikings of Uranus

Mrs. J. R., Lanark, Scotland.

"Womb was out of place, then had an accident and fell . . . it now seems to be completely out of position. . . I have faith in Spirit Healing, wondered if exercise would do any good."

IN looking at this chart, no. 1087, we see that Uranus is in the 1st house. This always denotes unusual accidents if the possessor is not capable of handling the Uranian power, which by its position will automatically have a very strong influence upon the owner all through their life. At the same time we are drawn to the 8th house, where Mrs. R. has five planets, all in Libra. This indicates that in her previous life she was not able to get these planets into their right balance, and is what she must make her aim in this life.

There is no doubt that she has taken a lot of wisdom in the past, but it does seem to want some balancing up ; this however should be accomplished as she continues to read and put into practice, the teachings advocated in the Gazette.

The reasons Mrs. R.'s womb is affected is because of her Scorpio being on the Mid Heavens, and also we notice that there are no Fire signs in the chart, therefore an accident of some sorts was bound to happen some time or another. We would advise exercise here and feel that the following may be of benefit :- Lay flat on the floor, or on your bed, and reach your hands up at the back of your head as high as you can, pulling the womb back into place. As you reach, do it with the intention firmly in your mind to pull all safely back into place.

This has been known to work many times, but at the same time I do think that the herbs that have been prescribed will also help to put things right, especially the RUE. Do try and persevere with this, otherwise if you went to hospital they would just as likely want to hoist the womb out. This seems to be a natural pastime with them, or the devil up to his tricks behind them, making every effort to leave the female race barren !

One fortunate point about this chart is that there is nothing in the 6th house, the house of health, so this does lessen the problem a little. We will continue with her name upon the Absent Healing List, and with the exercise and herbs, rapid improvement should be made.

Spinal Pains

Miss A. E. K., Pennsylvania, U.S.A.

"What herbs should I take to help a colon inclined to flatulence but not really constipated as I cured that with enemas and change of diet. Also have dull pain to the right of the lower spine."

THE owner of this chart (no. 1219) seems to have been having a game of gains and losses, for she has two planets in the 12th house, plus the Path of Destiny, balanced against three planets in the 1st house, with the latter undoubtably helping the owner to come safely through life. Also Mrs. K. has Taurus upon her Ascendant and this is usually a very hardy sign. But let us come to the real cause of her trouble, which is not at all serious and should be easily cured.

A little less vegetables and slightly more fruit could be recommended but since Mrs. K. has such wonderful energy, although at the age of 71, a good dosing of cleansing herbs would be the best answer.

We do not approve of enemas for you wash away the natural juices, and man does not realise that right down almost to the base of the anus, there is a metabolism taking place which deposits the chyle into the receptaculum chyli, which is entered into the blood and is the fiery wealth from all the foodstuff taken, so if this is taken away, one is losing the real true qualities of the body.

Herbs we would recommend are BUCHU, DANDELION and AGRIMONY, three very good cleansing herbs, which should clear away any waste and do the body a lot of good.

We do thank you for your kindly comments upon the Gazette, we do so like to hear from our friends as to how the teachings are helping them. Perhaps as time goes on you will be able to look into some of the past and present lectures, of which the latter are more profound than those published in the Gazette, they being deeper teachings which are kept for the initiates to study. However, the Elementary and Introductory Series are the basic teachings and can be thoroughly recommended to any who wish to obtain a clear understanding of what is involved in the study of mysticism and occultism.

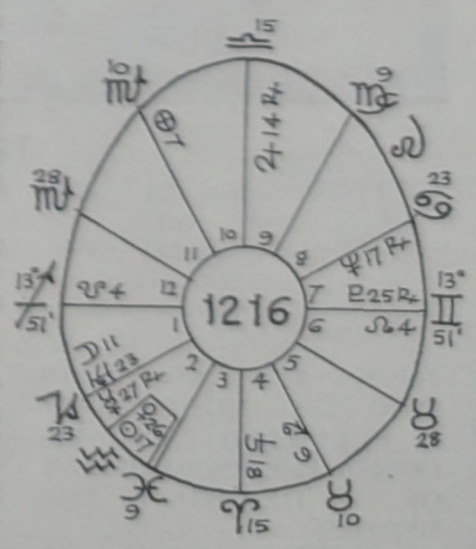

Confession of a Healer

Mr. F. R., Strood, Kent.

"Am privileged to be a healer, but am frustrated that my own physical condition falls short of good tone. I sense a residue of liver weakness, that allows little worries to keep an under-par feeling of tiredness, though I endeavour not to allow it to interfere with that which is mine to do."

THE first thing to be noted in this chart (no. 1216) is the badly squared Saturn, which is in the 4th house in Aries. This could give the owner of the chart a very distorted outlook and one that would cause the health to become deteriorated. Being in the sign of Aries would make the soul very officious, which would prevent a true freedom of spiritual qualities. This is not a good aspect and could take a big toll on the health as the years go on if its true qualities are not brought out.

It can be seen that Saturn squares five planets in the chart, and with the Moon in the 1st house would bring a negative state of health that could bring a state of collapse very quickly. This must be stated in order that the owner can get himself righted, which will of course help in preventing this ever occuring.

The Dragon's Tail in the 12th house with its Head in the 6th house in Gemini, would indicate that unless the mind was taken up onto the highest spiritual qualities, the metabolism of the liver would become very disjointed. Much of this has taken place in previous lives because of the Moon in the 1st house and Jupiter retrograde in Libra, which means that much that the patient receives needs balancing up in unification. This is added unto by Mercury and Venus both being retrograde.

With the Moon waning it indicates that this was the difficulty in the past life and the soul has come back to tread it in in true balance. Aquarius is not a very strong sign as it has never really come into its own, and Mars in Taurus is in detriment and being in the 4th house, the house of Cancer, very close to Saturn, diet should be well regulated and very moderate. However, the soul may find this difficult with the Moon in the 1st, Libra on the Mid Heavens, and Sagittarius on the Ascendant. The latter indicating that the soul has come back to look deeply into wisdom, for with Jupiter retrograde in the house of Sagittarius, and Virgo upon the cusp, the occupant could be very fixed in old ideas. All this would affect the health, which, as has been stated, could need a lot of care towards the end of life if not acted upon and corrected.

Herbs we would recommend are LIVERWORT and BUCHU, plus HORSETAIL, HOLY THISTLE and MARIGOLD FLOWERS. These will be of great assistance in overcoming any health trouble Mr. R. is experiencing at the moment.

I note that Mr. R. is a healer, but it must be remembered that one has to be very fit to apply healing, or else there is the risk of passing the healer's condition on to the patient, and which is obviously not to be desired. Considering that Saturn and Mars are in the house of Cancer, and Saturn represents karmic states to be put right, until Mr. R.'s health problems have cleared, we would advise him to rest.

HEALING PRAYER

WE seek, as New Birth is being brought into creation, that these children who have ever sought for New Life, may once again find their whole being alight with Life, whereby it is for them to bring into birth as they themselves prepare and set all into a 'spinning' action. We leave them in Thy hands.

Amen.

But nicer far it is to know,
That when they've had their tea,
They'll go."

As it is the Churches have lingered too long over their tea, and now the way has been set for the new era, the Arc has been raised up, the Laws set, the birth of the Solar Year has taken place and mankind raised up ready to respond to the new Wisdom.

Only recently The MASTER stated :

"As man aspired unto the old figure of the Christ, now he must aspire unto the LIVING CHRIST. Not the dead one on the cross, but the Living Christ as the Solar Flame. Not to devour Him, but to embrace Him and adore Him ; send up aspiration, and seeing out of all the Wisdom he receives, the Glory that he can send forth which will reburnish the Starry Heights and the Solar Light, the Divine Spark, so that he can be linked with those Powers and can be one-with-them. And the more man sees, the more he sends up, does he embrace those Planes of Ascendance ; hence it becomes his Kundalini-fire, it becomes the fire of his fiery dragon, the leviathan of the depths. And even a soul that is barren, can bring this into birth, in his struggles, by sending out to the Spirit. No man need be barren, if he sends out and draws the Spirit down."

The Rev. Stacey says :

"The perspective of history may show that Professor Davis has struck a blow on the side of the angels. His revolt will hasten the breakout of the old order so that the love and hope of Christ, stripped of ecclesiastical trappings, may once more again speak to the hearts and minds of men in simplicity and with transforming power."

Thus every man now being his own priest, a christ unto himself, following the teachings of Universal Philosophy, and by mind activity and aspiration raising himself up and increasing the intensity of his vibrations to begin a gyroscopic rise ; rising in relativity and unifying all as he goes to perfection, drawing the earth plane with him, spinning faster and faster home to the Central Sun, so that at the end of the Solar Year all is perfected and poised ready for the flight on the next stage of the evolutionary path of the Cosmos.

"All mankind
Is born for perfection
And each shall attain it
Will he but follow
His natures duty."

To comprehend this completely, it must be known that Space is not black ; it is man's inability to see the light, from the fact that he is facing the inflow and not looking with the flow. He is ever being faced with the raw Power creation, and never able to meet the transformation quickly enough, it flowing over land and sea as a breath of wind ; for the Bees have the Fiery Energies as set off by Merope who trailed the path of the "Kick" within the El power creation.

What is coming down is but the outer creation of the inner creation of the Divine Point of Knowing. These gradually appeared as those upon the earth took upon themselves the initiatory action of Heroes, Sages and Scapegoats. Then they created Constellations upon these planes in the same way as Merope built up Vega. Thus the Stellar path is the frequency line of the new Polar Path as a Solar Path, with Vega, Merope's constellatory drive as the new regulator adjuster and Timekeeper. This she will do through the Wheel and the old pole star of Polaris. But before we go any further, let us get an explanation regarding a Bee.

EGYPTIAN MYSTERIES

Creation Called Life Part 5

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

HAVING perceived of the blood life of the creation as being the River of Life, let us now see what comes forth from that creative water. As I type these words, there is being stated publicly, by a doctor of sociology, that criminals are souls to be studied; apart from this he brings proof, by the written statements of the criminal in question, that nothing would have stopped his career of crime; which proves what I have been advocating, all is in the blood and it must come forth some time or another. Thus these souls must not be condemned but helped to release their burden. This does not mean aided and abetted but assisted by discipline and guidance. If we could but see the original duality, as the first root of all growth, we would have a perfect fundamental for our prospective journey. These two eventually became the two mothers, or mother and daughter, or mother and sister ♋ & ♍ as the main issue in the soul; they were the producers, the bringers forth. They would produce offspring and likewise to every tribe, which indicates to every limb of the soul. These being the sons of Dan and their allotted portions. So it was not very long before the bloodstream was thronging with species, and these even intermarrying and reproducing. Perhaps by this, you will understand how many states of disease were produced from the chaotic conditions brought forth in the bloodstream.

Finding the Root Cause

THE vaporized air in travelling through the mystic channels is ever moving states and things around, and could explain clearly the mysterious message in this plate, "The wind carries it in its belly," for the two mothers came from the original of Shu and Tefnut, the brother and sister, who as Gods, had precedence over the dry and moist air that produced the electrified air of mind birth. If this can be visualized in the state of abstract cognizance, then we shall be well on our way with the pursuance of our purpose.

The material or sexual relations between the species at first was promiscuous, then as the soul passed through experiences brought into birth through the Law of Attraction set into operation by the vaporized auric radiance, the soul began to either grow in mind awareness or merely become an egotistical creation of intellectuality. Yet on the other hand, a state of fixity could begin in a form of a self-opinionated state, where the soul merely stagnates in a state of universal acceptance of conventionality. Then the species go on producing until the blood is a chaotic mass and the soul comes to a dead end, not knowing which way to turn.

Doctors, teachers and psychologists work furiously, but with no result. Why? Because they are not looking for the root cause. This is what the wisdom of Aquarius is demanding. Find the root cause: and that lies on the path of relativity. So what man has to seek into is himself; his bloodstream of past life growth is the Mystery, and the answer to all his problems.

What we have to realise, man consists of a personality made up of conscious him, the irrational mind and his rational self that consists of mind memory that is still consistent of many states as personalities. The whole has to be drawn into one nugget of Gold and has been the Alchemists' dream all through the ages.

When all the seven bodies are drawn into one the soul has become an Iesus, a messu or master; he that has mastered matter and transformed all into spirit. Then the Presence as an Avatar is able to manifest the Hierarchial Powers of light. It is quite a natural procedure, though extreme in its manifestation.

IT REQUIRES COMPLETE RENUNCIATION ON THE PART OF THE SOUL, AND THEN ITS ASCENSION INTO ITS HIGHER SELF IS FULFILLED; ALL BECOMES THE EMBODIMENT OF THE HEIGHTS IN THE DEPTHS.

THE MYSTERY OF PISCES

THE mystical depths of the sign of Pisces, where the soul in its struggle to become is seeking that the unification will be made, for the message of truth to pass over to the mind, that the golden haired boy will be able to carry its message once again up to the heights. For here can be perceived the mystical glories of heights and depths unifying the two-faced Janus into the glory of mind perception. (See text on page 13, col. 1).

Moulding the Human Life

ALTHOUGH it is rather an advanced point on this path of emancipation, it would be well to make some comment. By the soul becoming androgynous in its confirmed belief of unfoldment, its state of duality becomes one; and where the blood was of both the father and mother vibration or texture, it now becomes into one personality, but like the multimammalian Osiris. The God of a million eyes, yet one vision. This was imaged on the Ritual as a figure with one female bosom, and in later iconography as the Christ as a woman with a beard.

The Pharaohs accomplished this by wearing a lion's tail, and finally it passed onto the present day priest by him wearing a female garment over his male trousers. Therefore any priest or clergyman should, by right of assumption, be androgynous, otherwise he should NOT wear the priestal petticoat.

A man may become as one prepared, then he must be prepared to manifest the descending Hierarchial embodiment that corresponds with those rays of vibration, which draw unto by Law of Attraction. This is where the Iuuh descends and brings the soul to the state of Iu-em-hetep, he who comes with peace. This is the Elohim as the Presence who delivers the Shaddai or Grace through the hand of the united one.

Atum was the first known Ptah, the moulder of human life; he learned to blend together both heaven and earth. Whereas up to the present, Nu the Mother had divided the Sky from the earth, now the Father had arrived by the Law of Assimilation and was uniting all into one as a forerunner of what the soul must now begin.

Then a further statement was made when the Christos manifested through Pauline, he declaring that all men were Gods, and if they sought to follow him, they too would enter into that higher world by mind ascension, as the Law of Assimilation embraced the Law of Relativity. But that is fully declared in the Book of Revelations, which has been severely left alone by the revisors of the foremost Books; and will be my work of a later date. My object at the present moment is to prove that the first instalment of the Jesus legend came right from early Egypt.

The birth of the virgin's child began in the sign of Leo, and the messu as a messian prince of peace was born into the world at Memphis as the cult of Ptah. Then his mother's name was On and not Mary; the Iusaas with Iusa the evercoming child. All through the Ages this has continued until in A.D.33 the Vase was filled and an Iesus state manifested through the man Pauline.

NOW IT IS TO BECOME A LIVING ISSUE FOR ALL MEN, FOR IT IS THE ORDAINED PROTOTYPE SET FULLY INTO OPERATION BY MEROPE, WHEREBY ALL MEN ARE DESTINED TO MASTER MATTER, FOR THAT WAS THE COMMAND "REPLENISH THE EARTH AND SUBDUE IT."

But in the beginning when all was in its infancy this wisdom was young and brought new life to the land, it being imaged in the Ritual as Ichthus or Horus with the fish of life; the food caught in the waters. Then further to record of the wisdom, a birthplace had to be recorded, so it became the Stellar mythos, as the Pole star, as Sothis opened the year, and under the star of Hathor the Messianic baby was born. And as the Iesus, it came to make war on the dragon of life.

This has continued down the ages, and now as the queen of the heavens, with the Pole star Vega rising therein, Virgo opens the year with the birth of her Solar Sun. This as the Christos inflow is ever raising man up to the heights as he can absorb the rays and transmute into mind light. This was once called the "Sut-Heb", the festival of the tail, but their opening of the year was July 25th not December 25th. This was considered the time of the great Inundation, which did take place eventually and resulted in the rebirth of time from the Cancer Equinox and not Leo. Thus the Cancer house in the chart is the house of rebirth.

The Inundation was the entry of the Water Elements, and emotional states were to become the inbirth of new blood species; an activator of the blood life. This resulted in the Deluge well known to ancient historical records as the results of the Fall when cataclysmic changes began. Thus the rebirth of the world, and Time commenced from the Great Bear or Cancer period, making Aquarius and Capricorn also a period of rebirth, the polarity of Cancer and Leo.
