CHAOS TO ETHER as Established Divinity

*by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

This lecture was delivered by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook on the 12th February, 1967, under the direction and control of the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Flame.*

REVIRTH OUT OF CHAOS

BRAHMA IN HIS Divine Egg of created Being is Divinity coming into birth out of the Chaos of Becoming, with the atoms in the world below, the revolving Adamic Dust, giving reborn life to that Mighty Divinity. The glory of the unfolding MIND, the sperming nucleus unfolding from Chaos to Ether. Thus the revolving consciousness that will feed that Dynamic Life Creation, and bring Infinity into birth as the mighty boundless immensity. Man as atoms of revolving light, to become involved into that Divine Boundless Cause as Vega, the Holy City of LIGHT, LIFE and LOVE.

The glorious creation of the divine Rishi, the Master Creation of the Ursa Major, the polarity outcome of the abortion of ritual, the birth created by religion. Yet the true uprisen glory of the Embodiment, now the radiance of the Central Sun, the sperming glory of Brahma's Son, the heavenly Lord of the Arc. For now Brahma has come into Being as the immensity of the Egg, that by the atoms becoming its source of conscious life, will all become as a state of infinity; God born in all creation of being. Then being a determinate without bounds, the creation of possibility is beyond question, the immense Glory of the magnitude of Divinity.

It was by the Egg being brought to active birth as the fulness of immensity, where Brahma, the Divine All-Pervading Life was waiting the glory of Becoming, that the Atoms were sent down to the Abyss, to bring his Kingdom into birth. Where Elements as the life-blood of the Hosts infused the atomic life, waiting for the firing glory to set them into conscious light. Thus it would be the expansive actions born one after another, that would raise those elements up higher and higher into a gyroscopic spin. Until as dancing arielised elixirised foam, they formed the superstructure of that Divine Creation.

For mind growth is comprehension becoming comprehensible in the degree of frequency and sensitivity, to the immensity of the great Ethers; the Breath of the Divine All-Pervading, the glowing divinity of the Central Sun, the glorified radiance of All-Knowing. For the Brahmic Egg is the Life-Blood of the Deity, which becomes the Cosmos when "hatched" by the Serpent Fire as man's mind light. Thereby the Prismic glory becoming the Ether interpenetration as the divine quintessence, the new element of the Age. That of the eighth being born into the Egg, the mystery of element reproduction. This bringing the real world of Vega into birth as the unfolded Brahmic Egg, the four-fold Divinity of Triune creation becoming.

A world made of elements that must now become of Ether, the glowing light of heavenly birth, the glorious City of Golden Light, the royal Kingdom of Vega. For Man is but the atoms of the Adamic Dust sent forth to bring that infinity into action, a revolving interblended consciousness of divine glory and beauty, the magnitude of those heavenly

Editorial .. .. .. .. .. The Way of the Future

This was written from notes taken during the Wednesday evening lecture of 15th February 1967, when the Lord Maitreya spoke upon the coming Passover, and its effects upon man in the year ahead.

AS WE ARE NOW APPROACHING THE TIME OF THE PASSOVER, let us reflect upon what it will entail, for this is the most vital and important Passover of all Time, where all will be raised up onto the frequency of the plane of Vega. If the soul has not prepared for this moment, through the taking of Wisdom, then they will find themselves with a blank mind, lost to the understanding of the new world, until they turn their eyes from the illusion of the Earth, to the reality of the realms of Spirit.

* * * *

THE Master, when speaking upon the coming Passover, said the following ;

"When you can truly understand the depths of what is being brought to you, then indeed you will be finding your way to climbing back home, but while it is blank and blind to you, then you are still in the meshes of darkness. It is most essential that you find a greater understanding of the inflowing Fires, for they are living contingencies of Light, living contingencies of creation, far more alive than you are, and as you can absorb them and become of their glory, will you become reborn, time after time. Now there are big changes going on at the present moment, with souls receiving according to what they have created and are worthy of. This is the moment when every soul stands before their 42 judges, and has the answer to life."

Therefore, it can be seen that the most important thing for us to realise, is that the Fires coming down are not just fire, but a living essence within the soul, and that if we cannot learn to look upwards and see the Divinity, and recognise the Divinity, then we will never draw those Holy Fires in to us and give them life. Yet as we give them life, do they give to us in return ; it is the Fires infusing us that give us life, we cannot get it without them, but we must take them upon a raised up spiritual frequency, for the Fires can only be reborn upon our mind outlook, our acceptance and understanding of them. If we only take them in and do not give them a mind creation, then they just become dead fires, to eventually run wild within the soul as a wild fury.

THE NEW WORLD, THE WORLD OF VEGA, IS A MIND WORLD, AND EVERYTHING NOW MUST COME THROUGH THE MIND ONLY.

The soul must seek earnestly in prayer and aspiration to draw down these Divine Fires, who literally are Heavenly Beings, as atoms from the heights awaiting consciousness within the soul. Surely by now each one of us must realise how important it is to raise our frequency high enough in order to manifest these Heavenly Hosts, that, as they come down, will become as Word within us, and infuse us with the fire we need, to continuously rebuild our minds.

As soon as we can begin to perceive the divinity of the heights, and the royalty of the Fires, then the Word will begin to move within us, for divinity, the Holy Fire, and the Word, are all one when perceived through spiritual eyes. Even the Bible states quite clearly, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was God," yet religion can no more perceive the depths of this, than fly in the moon ! With their only seeing the Holy Fire through a vision equal to that of the lowest of beasts, as they go round hawking the Sodomy Bill to all and sundry.

* * * *

I have personally spoken to church officials from the leading churches in London upon the appalling mind-level of its leaders, and not one of them disagreed with me, one even going so far as to call Ramsay "one of the many false prophets that the church has known over the ages." All I can say is that if they spoke out as honestly and as boldly in public, as they did in private, then a great deal more action and opposition against this Bill by the public, might be set into motivation !

If only man could be made to realise the necessity of turning his eyes upwards to the Living God, the Great Lord of the Flame, and ever keeping his mind upon Him, for if he does not, the year ahead is going to be a very blank one for him. Man is only going to live now by the mind and the Divinity he recognises. If he wishes to rise up he must struggle and look upwards in aspiration, and embrace the glory of divinity. He must know that he is born of it and only from it can he receive further embracement.

The Master stressed the point that "ALL FORM IS A CURSE, ALL POSSESSIONS ARE A CURSE, for they load you with difficulties which you have to account for. They saddle you and they hold you down to the earth, that when you try to raise your feet off the ground you are going to find these possessions anchoring you as by Saturn. You will learn of this as time goes on, and will learn that the wisest thing is to discard all."

* * * *

AS did Moses and the Israelites cross the wilderness in the past, so now will all mankind go over that wilderness in the next year, all walking over barren ground, with some to find it more difficult than others, depending upon how they have built up their minds over the past ages. This barren ground is the planes of the heights, the realms of Spirit, which man had cut himself off from and only lived in the depths.

Now he must turn to those heights, and go to the mountain top to pray desperately for help. It is no longer a case of just taking knowledge but now the word must be captured in its true sense and its true form, and be made a living creation within the soul, and in this way will Vega ever be brought into greater birth.

This, of course, will involve a great deal of renunciation, but if it can only be seen as the losing of the temporary earthly encasement, and the gaining of the permanent spiritual garment, then surely it is worth striving for in every degree. This is the only way that the mind body, now to become the glorious Temple of Light of the Lord of the Flame, can be built up, and the only way that the soul can find true mind balance.

This matter of mind balance is a very important thing ; every move, every action, every purpose, must be timed and put into the right direction in a balanced way, for if the soul sends up unbalanced thoughts to the heights it will only receive back distorted wisdom in return, to the extent of its own conscious mind understanding in the depths. The soul would then feel a twisted and confused state within, until it could gain a full understanding of what it had taken.

We must see how the Powers can only manifest through us to the extent of our mind frequency. If the soul's frequency is high, they will impregnate the soul with wisdom ; if it is low, then they will be as raw fires that will drive the soul mad in the lower desires. The only answer to this is to send up adoration to these Heavenly Beings, each one to build up their own temple in the heights upon the frequency of Vega, whereby the mind will bring forth of divine awareness.

THE IDEA OF THE TEACHINGS BEING BROUGHT IN THE OCCULT GAZETTE IS TO ENABLE THE SOUL TO TREAD ITS FEET INTO THE NEW PATH, THAT WILL CARRY IT UPWARDS AND ONWARDS ONTO THAT HIGHER FREQUENCY.

If the soul does not reach that frequency now, it will stay in the depths, merely as flotsam upon the waters until it can turn its mind from the lower creations to those heavenly heights.

* * * *

THE great Ether Fires now coming to the Earth are mighty powers, electrical powers, that if the soul has not opened up its mind in the right way, will find them having a 'stoning' condition upon the mind. Only when the soul can open up to the heights and dance with a fluidic, expansive freedom, will it find all automatically moving into place, being guided by the atoms within to receive the inflowing powers. It can be seen by this, how essential it is that the atoms within each soul are brought to their divine consciousness as light. If the soul refuses to seek of the greater understanding and only lives in the old states, then the fires will 'stone' them and leave them completely blank.

The inflowing Fires are as the double-edged sword, that has come to strike away the old law, that the new can find growth, whereby they can open up and give the royalty of the mind to all that are willing to embrace it. I know it is a hard struggle to fight off the conditions of the mundane world, but this is where each one must find super-will, and never lose sight of their goal. We must not give in to the density of the Earth, but struggle with all our hearts to change those conditions, for as we so change ourselves and raise ourselves up, do we also, in our own small way, help to change the world.

In the words of the Master, "You may be in a material world, you may be in a modern world, as you call it, but this world is going to go back as Vega, to the royalties of the past. For all those glories are going to come forth once again and blossom and flower from the very stems that gave them birth."

When all the chaos has subsided, and the world begins to grow again, what greater prophecy for the unfolding future can there be than this ?

CHAOS TO ETHER

heights. That as the Egg opened up and Brahma stepped forth, the mystery of infinity would begin. Where all would revolve and ever be as the Voice and the mighty Glory of that internal radiating Effulgence, that now became the eternal Pleroma of All-Being, the radiating glory of intensified light; the immensity of the mighty unfolding Stream of the involving Causes.

The divine Macrocosm born from the microcosms, that the Almighty Hosts could descend, and the world of non-effusive light, become the Holy Divine World of radiant glory. Thus the Royal Sperm of the Almighty Divinity now stirring those atoms into active life, as the inflowing Ether of pure Virgin Fire.

The Divine Prismic glory of rebirth, or the soul turned in as an abortionate state, that of non-fertile creation that failed to fulfill the charge of the heavenly mandate. Man never rising above the personal expansion and acclaiming the glory of his divine heavenly project, for only the Egg, the immensity of Brahma, is of consequence in unfolding Evolution.

THE COSMIC EGG TO BRING FORTH ITS DIVINE CHARGE, THE UNFOLDING GLORY OF THE MIGHTY BRAHMIC INFINITY.

The Higher Realms

FOR man never rose the heavenly glory of the gods any higher than Jupiter, thus never giving them the blended electrified infusion of the mighty EL Powers, with the Ethers as the interpenetrating divine Fiery LIFE giving them the Holy Divinity of the Fatherhood. That as the harvest of the wheat, would the Dragon of life fire it into perfection, with man born as a god from that fiery depth, conquering the polarity or perishing.

The key set for opening up the way of Infinity to be born, as the rocks of the Milky Way are broken up and spread as fine golden sand on the path of the glorified ascension. The Bee trail of the ascending life, as infinity breaking open the egg of illusion, the darkness of captivity; that which has held the soul in bondage, the restriction of the pit.

The atoms of the Adamic Dust now taking on of a creative mind belief, as the expanding glory of Pleromic attunement unfolding into Atomic Life, the radiance of the Central Sun. For the breaking up of the world inertia, was setting the world into revolving electrified LIFE, as the glory of the mystical Womanhood giving birth to the divine magnitude of the Father.

The ordained intention of the heavenly purpose, when Vega the radiating Pole Star of the coming age, was swept from her glory by the illusion of the depths, and Polaris bred the darkness of the Age. Hence the magnitude of Pisces as the great mystery of the depths of the Waters, was never brought into being, but merely became the waxing and waning of a moon, the glorified state of the Fall.

The wicket gate held by Manasseh and Ephraim, that the defiling of Reuben would not go up to the father's couch. Thus the royal Solar glory never prevailed, for priesthood took the divinity unto themselves as a mitred hat and a tall seven-footed crook, the pomp and glory of Ego. Thus the Absolute, the Divine Fiery Light of expansion, was raped and ravaged as a dead god on a cross, and Brahma suspended as a triune expansion of man's personal gain.

Thus as Merope was chained to the double belted wheel, the (See the diagram in cols. 4 & 5) Polar Axis became the nilometer of the unfolding Prism, with consciousness lost to truth, trying to calculate the mystery of its message. Personality and personal desires, set into motion by the priests, prevailed in every human heart, with the glory of God only as religious righteousness, a myth of sophisticated ego.

Where dissolution danced as the divine elixir, the Devil's fork instead of Neptune's holy trident, the divine expansive glory of the holy mysteries. For he was the mystical revelation of animated glory, that would give Brahma the divine holy boost of genius, the manifest radiance as the glorified Flame of unfolding mind magnitude, the eternal Infinity as LIFE.

Hence Merope as she brought forth of the Holy Breath, the divine infiltration of the Ruach, fought the Gryphons and the Arimaspoi, that (See plate in cols. 2, 3 & 4) the Divine Gold, the heavenly radiance, could shed and capture every heart, through the beam of infiltration.

With those who could encompass the depths, treading the measure of potential infinity in their blind conclusion, that they could blaze the trail for greater comprehension, opening the door to perceptory awareness. For very few are born to selflessness, where the true purpose of LIFE and EVOLUTION are conscious to the waking mind as LOVE.

Therefore the lifting of the planes was inevitable, and the only way for the Hosts to start the way of such expansion, that the Great Fiery Sperm, the polarity glory of the dragon of fire-life, once created by man in the deep, could begin its work of unfoldment. Hence element and chaos, ravaging and dissension, became the order of the Divine Chaos to dislodge the intricate cemented foundation, that which now had to be broken up by the divine glory of light breaking forth in the atoms of the illusionary presumption.

(See the Front Plate)

Blind and lost in the overwhelming wealth, that now had become from the handiwork of the divine glory, which in the hand of the soul had merely become personal glorification. For the divine expansion that should have become as super-will, the ever driving force of Uranus, could not grip the still Cancer-logged creations, to raise them up into fired life, until such darkness was dispersed, and the heavenly glory raised up to the heavens as light.

That the glory of the heavenly waters could begin the fiery inburst into the divine intension of the revolving Infinity, for as the way was set and prepared, the mighty Fiery Waters with their dynamic interpenetrating Power, began to burrow deep into the dungeons of the Earth darkness, bringing crime and stealth, cunning and intrigue out into the open. For the Fire in entering into their soul, became only that of the negative creation, the raging fire of Orcus. Raw fire infusing the gods as the inborn established elements, causing them for the time being, to become unbalanced in their reception, until they could find true conscious-awareness, and turn their eyes up to the heavens.

One after another the mighty Fire stripped and brought them out onto the water-swept beach, that they could awaken from their illusory cunning that their mighty wealth had fallen into, and strive to bring it forth in true expansive mind belief. Mind glory as the divine in-born Fire, gathered over time, that struggled for by blood and sweat, their wondrous growth from experiences of life, merely the tool of that which had become as Alberich, in the Rhinegold waters.

Intensive glory drawn down by their searching cry for help and their dynamic drive of self-preservation, polarised their negative cunning of Saturn into the direction of Solar possibility. That which would by the searching Fire, cut away the evils accrued, and reveal the wonders of divinity. That the mighty love-born waters of the heights administrating the true glory of the dynamic two-edged Uranian sword, would bring forth the first true seeds of LOVE.

The wondrous Truth that these souls had to learn, in transmuting the fixed Saturn wealth into the glory of LIGHT. The wealth of Helio now the atomic beauty of the manifesting Solar Divinity. The SON Begotten from the reborn Uranian glory, as the Cosmic establishment made earth light.

THE COSMIC LAWMAKER

THIS reveals the double wheel which holds the Scapegoat bound to the axis of the Earth, where all that they put into operation becomes a reflection onto the Cosmic rebirth. This is the mystery of a superior mind changing the Laws and bringing new life by overruling the avidya, indicating of how the Hosts are working through Merope and bringing renewed life to the depths. (See text in col. 2).

THE KEY TO INFINITY

WHAT was once the mystery of Assyria now becomes the Reality of the modern day, for here we see the winged bull wrestling with the winged gryphon, the powers that now have become as a winged mind, requiring the super-will of the warrior to capture their innermost depths. This is the great mystery of infinity, the great story of the modern age. That which will be the answer to life once man is able to capture its mighty secret. (See text in col. 2).

For these Waters are now the dynamic Power of the uprisen fortified Arc established by Merope, as the gods in every soul's temple of Ra, the heavenly wealth of the meninges. Atoms born through the struggle of soul to master and rise up out of the Waters, those who have ever been waiting to radiate their heavenly wealth, via the spirit waking up in the depths. For was it not Joseph who only became as the coat of many colours in the soul's abode. Yet the fiery Uranian Yod, the vehicle of the mighty Unseen Cause, that would come forth as the soul carried their bones up from hence, (Gen. 50 v 25) the mystery of heaven and earth in their blending.

The union of Divinity as the mighty Law of the heights, becoming the ruling propensity of the depths. For it would be through the fires of Achernar the Waters carrying the fiery life down South via the metabolism of the "crucible pot" in the Abyss, that the soul in its expansive reach, either turned the lever and rose them up, in the intercalary of the fiery mind rebirth of Spiritus Air . . .

or they went down into the depths of the bones, to urge and taunt in their fiery captivity.

Yet here in the mighty wealth of Brahma striving to establish the glories of his Unseen Depths, was the vast wealth gathered by Saturn in all the Ages of Creation, only coming forth as the wasps and not the dancing Bees of the heights, the mysterious trail of ascension. Yet ever as man chose the negative path, were those glories bringing into birth the dynamic wealth of the Fiery reach, as the Mighty Radiant FACE of the ever unfolding Macroprosopus.

REBIRTH OUT OF CHAOS

THE mystery of life now revealing itself through the union of the inflowing Waters with the depths, for unification, the ordained unfoldment of the Aquarian rebirth, is the expansion of life from the lunar to the Solar, bringing into birth the glorious Kingdom of Vega. (See text in col. 3).

CHAOS TO ETHER

The Radiant Beauty of Etheric Light

NOW as polarity, the Waters as pure Spirit, the mighty Effulgence of the royal Divinity, brought down once again by Merope the Goddess of Light, could raise up the spirit lost in the fallen Heliopolean Waters, but now as the revolving Ether Infinity, the dynamic drive of the Mystical Breath. Powers reborn within the soul in the birth of the true Prismic unfoldment as the mighty Solar Glory striking the now established arc. That only as Helio in the soul, now transformed into Solar possibility, by the fiery inburst from the heights.

Divinity of the Central Sun brought into being through the inborn mighty Pleroma of the Heliopolean glory, now the wealth of the Divine and human Yod, the holy Fires of Antaric rebirth. A dynamic polarising of depths to heights, and conceived once again as the Immaculate Conception by the Celestial Virgin Merope and her mighty Lord of the Flame. The Horae embrace bringing the Holy Sun Child into birth, as the mighty magnitude of Infinity.

Wealth that was left as gigantic pillars of glory in the ancient Temples of Egypt, where every up-risen edifice held the dynamic mystery of a Constellatory establishment, the prototype of the mystery of Infinity. With the secret of their Element glory on the ceiling of its mighty up-risen arc, the roof of their own creative Power, their interpenetrating glory of the risen Yod as their winged Uraeus.

For each Pharaoh was an inborn god risen up to the heights, but finally seeking, as was Merope, to burnish their plane ere they go, bringing their Constellation into true unity with the depths, that further light could reach them from those heights. Thereby holding contact with the earth below, as a god born and risen up, through their tomb of earthly treasures on the earth below. Thereby able to continue that heavenly Stream to the earth, the wealth of the unified heights with the depths. While edifices once removed, become the scattered powers of that mighty magnitude, running headlong o'er the earth.

Wisdom unknown to those blind curators, with costs sorrowful to their dharmic laden-born struggle, to try and carry the massive load of that mighty royal treasure. That born by Kings who knew the way to build and establish Powers unknown to men ; that once the mighty wealth of Emperors of the Chinese Dragon Fury. Yet the vast dynamic roots of earth and men, and the mystical magnitude of the heavens.

It is by such that Chaos precedes Ether in unfolding its mighty glory, the wealth that man had thrown down into the turgid waters of the Styx, and now found himself wanting, as at the empty parch-dried well he sits, with his ass wilting in the scorching uplifted noonday sun, the heavens seeking to blend his wealth into wisdom.

For this mighty wealth as a gift from the heavenly Source, has the secret mystical power of recuperation. That which can lift up the wealth of the Spirit gained in the past, cleanse the errors from the depths, and set the mind fastening the Arabic horses into the shaft, to drive the chariot round the arena, up to the heavenly heights. Thereby awaken in the depths the long lost mystery of his past ; for Glory and Divinity are the name of those horses, with will and super-will their harness of hide-born strength.

Thereby as they drive helter skelter, side by side, and draw down the mighty Waters of the heavens, they set the centripetal action of their indrawing functions, racing the centrifugal. Hence, with such will-power driving forth, dynamic powers are set into motion, causing the mighty magnitude to infinity to begin, to unify a celestial glory with the atomic acme in the depths. For reborn life has now to take over and reinstate all from A to Z, where Time is now unified and solarised into a living glorified immensity of truth, with will and purpose the quest of the drive, to bring new life to the depths, and raised up glory to the heavens.

With HERE and NOW manifesting as a justified purpose, the dynamic driving force of the gods, as the Ether glory of pure Virgin Fire is infiltrated into one and all. For they as Infinity are the mighty Ether Fires now generating in the crucible pot in the depths, yet lie in the hands of every soul, awaiting their full co-operation to embrace this glorious Divine Effulgence.

ALCHEMICALISATION

AS the nymphs danced the waters bubbled, and brought Alberich chasing them back and forth as the osmosis blended them in alchemicalisation, for the sprite was seeking to gobble up of the virgin life that was feeding the waters with new birth. (See text on page 3, col. 4).

EUCHARISTICAL WEALTH OF UNTOLD DEPTHS, THAT BEARS THE MIGHTY RESTORING POWER OF THE TRUE BORN MYSTICAL UNCTION.

Then as timelessness evolves the glory, will LOVE in all its true radiant beauty, be born from that mighty magnitude, as that heaven-born wealth of the Egg. It being the fundamental of the Age, the glory that the gods of the Edenic plane could not conquer at the beginning of Time, they being devoid of all passion, no fiery life of expansive creation, no conception of blossoming into rebirth.

They only knew the basic of knowledge, the Creation that gave them fundamental life, the wealth of all past Ages, yet the glory of the soul's Rational mind, now awaiting revolutionary rebirth. Hence it was by the Love brought into birth by Merope shedding of her mighty OS blood, that her beloved Royal Spouse could reign supreme as the Divine Christos of the Age, that Love in all its dynamic glory, the mystery of unification, lifted up the new-born Race to their heavenly abode.

It was such Love born at the Horae embracement, that brought into birth the Divine Ethers, the Holy Sperm of the Royal Yod, the mighty mystery of the Deity bathing mankind below, as the human galaxy, in the divine Holy Pleroma of the heavens. Infusing Woman with the heavenly effulgence, to raise up the Heavenly Embodiment into its true conception, as the dynamic glorification of the Earth.

The true spirit of LIFE and its purpose, the zest and zeal of every heart-searching Adept, that hierophants of truth are born into life, commandants of the golden Word. The mighty expansion of the Cosmic Galaxy, where Plane after Plane is embraced into light, that the mystery of Evolution can continue.

Thus Vega as the royal Holy Star of LOVE, is now guiding and ruling all mankind, leading them on to glory after glory to the world of perfected men, that as gods they can come forth, and grace the mighty Royal Heavenly Kingdom. Souls who had found the REAL purpose of life through the union of the 144,000, their aim being service unto the mighty DIVINITY, where they ever became more and more absorbed into His Mighty BEING. The truth, of which could only be understood more clearly, as God and the Adept becoming ONE.

A union of consciousness, where the soul renounced all states of earth and its mundane attractions, thereby becoming blended into the Holy Cause, a mind cell union with the mighty Deity. The Fiery Cause of unity with light, the Divine assumption into the holy Presence, as the Arc becomes set alight. Ablaze with glory and magnitude that belongs only to that heavenly union, the soul the means of gracing life with the inflow of Pleromic glory.

A CHANNEL OF LIGHT THAT BLAZES A TRAIL OF TRUTH, LOVE AND SINCERITY, AS THE SOUL WALKS STEP BY STEP, THROUGH THE WORLD OF DARKNESS. YET THE NECESSARY EXPERIENCE TO BRING HIS WORLD TO LIGHT, AND OPEN UP THE BLINDNESS OF AVIDYA, THE DARKNESS OF THE NIGHT.

Wrestling with the Elements

SO once again Merope gazed into her golden mirror, seeking of the mighty wisdom of TIME, that she could get a greater understanding of the mystery of Chaos, producing the depths of TIME. Therefore as the waters in its facial depths rocked to and fro, they slowly began swirling, then leaped and danced as they inwardly receded into those depths, drawing all gazing, into their mighty immensity, until we became a part of it. No longer "us", but a being of TIME, a creature once again on those lunar depths, a world of myth and fantasy. For as the waters cleared from their rolling inbirth, they found themselves led by Merope, walking amongst derelict sand-dunes, bare and devoid of all growth.

With mighty lofty mountains ranged on one side, and enormous rocks and sharp jagged boulders on the other. The air was heavy and turgid, for this was the depths of Chaos, where the gods had fallen into the depths, as Merope, in shepherding man to become as gods to give rebirth to those winds of time, had embraced the lunar waters, and not raised them up as mind light. Not established as the means of fluidity coming into birth, but restrictive desires holding the birth, and progression as multiplicity, the growth of those rapacious waters.

As we moved on into those depths, there suddenly rose a mighty whirling wind, that began lashing the sand in all directions, beating into our grim set faces as we trudged along seeking the wealth of time. Then forms began to slowly appear, first rather shadowy, then as the wind subdued they walked with us as though we were once again a part of a world of first-born men. Men as they had become in their fallen state.

Not gods as they were intended to be, linked and bound to the heavenly Deity, but creatures with grotesque faces, bodies of men, and vibrations of the darkest hue. This was Chaos rising up again as a picture from the gory past, when creatures wild and fierce roamed the heavily wooded earth, that risen up from the Cancer marshes. For these were the sands of time of those mighty Ages long past and now forgotten, creatures now buried in the unfolding vibrations and growth of men, as they came forth out of the dim past Ages, spinning down and not up in the immensity of becoming.

Times when they had sunk into an animal propensity and grovelled in the fluidic depths of those murky waters. For as they moved around amongst us, although we were aware of them, they were as phantoms of the past, creatures risen up out of the maelstrom Waters, a visionary conception of those inborn depths.

Being states past and forgotten, they now were just vibronic memories as unfolding states of the past, yet the conditions that went to building up the mighty Cosmic Egg, that became as the phantoms of the opera. These were the Mongols and Tartars of days when men grew the roots of life, that now are the pest of the magnetic waters, the mighty ocean of life, yet the very wealth of their multitude of growth, the expansive fluidity to come forth in those Cosmic Waters. For this was the polarity of the Ethers, when men as they came forth created the mighty dragons of fire, the mystical creations of ritual ceremony.

Performances that represented unto them their own fiery elevation, dimly aware of the necessity of the ariel flight, that which they sent up into the heights as glowing kites, their earthy expansion of mind and light. The arielised soul electrified, wrestling and dancing with the fiery elements of life in their blind avidya. Yet the fires in their negative state as the moon in Scorpio, had been those that had thrown Ouranus down the pit, and glorified Saturn in his fallen state.

As wild as they appeared, these creatures rushed madly to and fro, as wind-blown creations of time, for they were hordes of animal men battling to master life through and by action as the intensity of life. Then suddenly out of the density of the whirling wind, there came forth a mighty monstrous mammoth.

A fierce bull creature covered in hair, fifty times their puny size, with tusks that could gore any human to pieces, the condensed power of the gods' glorious wealth. As it came forth it charged at these beings, striving to pierce them with its fearful tusks, for it was the outcome of those fallen Ages, the very immensity of desire, and was seeking of food to satisfy its pangs of hunger. While equality as competition was fierce amongst these creatures, for all now were mighty and full of fire gathered from those intensified down pouring waters ; thus sought to live upon each other, causing fierce battles to take place, tearing up the trees and growth in their struggle to survive.

Yet these were states risen up from the fall, that brought forth the creatures called men, they still being in a dual state of animal-man, as they sought to merge forth and give life of yet a greater propensity.

All this was the roots of life that lie hidden in the depths of man, as they struggle now to rise up and shine, and make the ariel flight. Many only ever becoming merely a winged baitula, a Saturn state that never made the union that gathered up the black and white states. A multiple of creations awaiting unification, as they draw up that mighty OS power from the depths. Thus gives of some better idea of how these creatures, not much better than their animal opponents, wrestled with these gruesome beasts and laid the foundation for the morrow.

For their eyes flashed with the mighty fire that was in captivity with them, and lost to the purpose of their descent. Creatures with all the glory of the forgotten spirit, buried in the depths of their now animalised creation. Forms that were grotesque and minds at the frequency of zero, merely self-preservation to find a footing in life, and exist and hold all that they could capture. For Saturn now held them by the throat and claimed them as his bona fide victims, as the rights of the strength of the fight that now ensued was between one beast and another, size the mean advantage, with both driven by the Law of Survival to make a possible kill.

Thus we mentally stood back close against the jagged rocks as our own intensity of self-preservation, the measure of mind belief, as one phantom imposed itself upon another. This we mentally did so that we were not embroiled in the swirling waters of time, that was yet a part of our being. Perhaps in some not fully turned in, and still just below the surface, for as we followed the fight to the kill, one or two of the beings were badly mangled, to be pulled away by equally fierce women who sought to save their bulls, the fiery life-blood of the clan.

These being the support of the race, those bringing down the Stream of life from the generating element of the heavens. Showing how self preservation was natural with the soul from all angles of creation, for once of the soul, a natural produce that produced its ever unfolding growth.

This is where "IT" as the descended glory of those mighty heights holds and sustains the soul, ever forcing them into continuity and evolution, the glory of manifesting Divinity. This is the sustenance of the Egg, the Waters that feed the mighty Brahma.

The Inflowing Divine Fires

EVENTUALLY the beast was killed, and the bloody slaughter that followed was an orgy of the bulls as they gorged the creature's rich sanguinis waters, the strength and immensity of the beast. When their insatiable hunger was satisfied, women and children followed on with the remains, with the skin going to the major bull, who by conquest had won the trophy.

The leader who by sustained valour had mastered the situation, therefore carried away the prize. But here was the mastery of life by primitive man, the creature in the offing, babes of life seeking the intensified hard way to tread the grapes of wrath, making the depths an inpenetrable intensity of struggle. All being the polarity to the riches and the density of the blood, that man struggles with in his renunciation.

Then slowly we witnessed the picture unfolding in the way that these visions do, with the Chinese as now the more civilised creatures, dancing in ritual procession, with fiery creations of all sorts and sizes as their effigies of wealth and light. Animal tallowed rushes alight in massive paper or flax creations, manufactured out of materials drawn from nature's mighty resources. Cleverly devised to even move their paws, wings and tails, roll their eyes and make sounds according to their intention. The fire now making some creative progress, thereby making it impossible for it not to try and find some way to get free from its mighty dungeon of captivity.

Here before was a complete relativity of the moon and Sun, that in their present unity gave birth to Vega's Ether denomination. The past as the root of the fiery establishment, with the present as the quintessence, the glory of the Age, the wealth and magnitude of unification.

The mighty glory of the heavens now the wealth of the deep, manifesting as the created glory of the unfolding god in the risen up waters of the deep. For where man drove the mighty fiery life, resulting in him going down into those hoary depths of the South, it was a creature stamped with the fire-brand of life, the die he had acclaimed as his undying belief. For as a soul so declares, will he become, unless he can counter-balance by the heavenly wisdom of its mighty polarity gender.

ALL HAVING TO TAKE ITS FULL UNFOLDMENT, WITH THE SOUL EITHER RISING UP OUT OF ITS DEPTHS BY THE SENSE OF AWARENESS, OR FALLING UNDER ITS SPELL UNTIL THE SPIRIT CAN RISE UP OUT OF ITS DENSITY. THE RISE OF JOSEPH TO BECOME THE OVERSEER OF PHARAOH AND MASTER THE WILES OF POTIPHAR'S WIFE.

vens, as he was in vibratory measure of his own nilometer filling up the base of the Nile. He was performing a task that he did not understand, and drew the devil to accompany his progress. Then as though a shadow passed over the scene, a royal atmosphere overshadowed, and ritual of real and true intensity now began to offer up royal aspirational belief to the mighty heavens, by one now born of Occult divinity.

Then all began to electrify and heighten in its clarity, with smoke as from a pure wood fire that rose up and curled its way through to the heavenly heights. The tone and depth of the priestial ring was rich and full of pathos, for as a Solar-born being he prayed

ROYAL WEALTH FROM THE LONG FORGOTTEN PAST

SUCH magnificence was only known to this great mystical world of Egypt, where civilisation began its seeding, and now offered up to the waters of destruction. Wealth never yet fathomed being lost forever, but only because a material edifice overrode the glory of the mind, but such wealth lies deep in every soul and that which will come forth now through the sailing of the Waters. (See text on page 4, col. 1).

Then the swirling in the mirror took the lead, rising higher and higher in its lofty dancing nymphs, with a mighty Cathedral rising up in the midst of its density. For here at the moment a ritual of an orthodox nature was in the process of action, with incense thick, and black densified air, causing souls, although awed, to fidget and splutter, as souls being led away in a discredited way, are often apt to do.

For the priest with his boring and drumming tone, was drawling out incantations of a religious and righteous nature. Conditions that drew the astral planes around him in abundance, for here and there he rang a bell as though waking up the dead. For he was no nearer reaching up to the heawith a throb that spoke of a heart-felt belief, as he raised his arms up to the heavens.

The awe that settled on the gatherers, permeating out of the past, stirring the spirit in the depths of those now watching from polarity. While as the priest of mighty Occult glory proceeded with his thanksgiving, exultation and exhilaration rose up as birds on the wing. The bountiful aspirations of the seeker flooding the whole place with purple glory, the mystery of unified heights and depths.

Then as though the whole of the roof had been lifted by the sonorous chanting of holy divine wisdom, that rendered up to his heart-created God, a massive flock of birds flooded in through the now open roof, bringing the glory of truth into the depths, as the heavens sending down of its new-born Causes.

Wealth that that Priest would have to measure and tread out into the earth beneath. For this is the Law, that what you avow must be established in the depths, that heights and depths unify and become the glory of the future. Then Brahma's kingdom has been intensified, awaiting the moment when all is electrified, and the radiance of the heaven-born pastures.

The atmosphere by now was intense by the exhilarated rise of vibrational frequency, then all began to clear, with a scene, the mighty depth of our progressive story, now entirely different. The Law in the form of an officer in blue, arresting a compellant against the law; one trying to escape effect, the polarity to the Cause, for it was the Fire as the All-pervading "IT" journeying out to the fulfillment of its creation.

The Law now demanding its toll for the way that life had been spent, with every jot and tittle now a mark by Thoth, on the tablet of life. No argument or pleading could alter the death warrant results, for his sentence was confinement with a fierce mother pig and her seven babes. He had taken the mighty glories of the heavens, and ravaged them for his own earthly needs. Thus blood spilt and blood to repair in the Law taking its toll, in tithes to be paid down in Egypt.

Again the waters swirled, this time to a more modern approach, where a game of skill on a vast sea of ice was in progress between the Tigers and the Penguins. A test of skill as the fiery waters blended up the unified purpose, and started melting of the ice, that the waters could begin to flow.

Both as North and South vying for the supremacy, each seeking to be the worthy victor; with the bullying being fast and furious as the soul fought and clamoured to play a sporting game of exhilarated zest. Thereby winning the rights to raise up the passions to bring the final journey into completion. Yet both being a sturdy match for one another, with a victory resulting in the Penguins mastering the Tigers, and a happy unification bringing forth a risen up sensitivity of belief.

For the Fire in expanding in strength and growth of "IT," the mighty wealth in its negative state, was now ripe and ready for a unified drive forth, the way prepared for a glorified ascent, thereby causing the vision to change once again. This time a mighty loco engine primed and fired, was standing waiting for the regulator to be opened, puffing and snorting in its fretting stand as the fires boiled up its dancing waters. A dynamic run up to the North, whizzing past station after station, for the driver, an astute soul coming up from the depths, had made the way with strength and courage, having dried up all the lunar waters.

So as the regulator was opened, the mighty snorting creature began to churn its wheels, and ere long it raced the track that carried it up to the north, the world of ice and snow. Right up to the heights to deliver the wealth woven in the depths below, and gather the effulgence that would come forth as the result of his mighty effort. For he had driven the wealth of time up the specific track of the mighty bee-line trail. As he took the return pleroma aboard his fiery purveyance, the heavens rose and all danced with joy, for unfoldment had followed the pattern of prototype.

Then the waters in the mirror receded, swirling round and round into the depths, leaving a trail like a massive snake going down deep into the depths of the mirror's face. Yet really it was we who were withdrawing from those depths, and coming back to the polarity heights. For HERE and NOW are but one unified glory, the mystery and wonder of TIME. Here was continuity of divine spirit in matter, swelling the glory that had already gone forth in the created Cosmic rebirth. For until such was fulfilled as the Law of Belief, it could never become a created fact in the world below.

The Voice of Divinity

THE avidya of life, the accentuated theory of form dispersed by the now true-born comprehension of Divinity. The mighty depths of Life continuous in the Divine Fiery "IT," the wealth of man's hope of becoming. The atom as its Seed of glory, the Manna sent down to the life-spent soul to renew its rolling unfolding continuity of being. The God-thought that fell into the raging waters, now as the raised up atom of electrified time, becomes as a unified glory in the unfolding pleroma, in the consciousness of His Divine Speech manifesting through the god-born soul.

As the Isotope Creation Pt. II

*by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

This lecture was delivered at the S.U.P.H. on Sunday, 11th December, 1966, through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook especially directed by the Lord Maitreya, the Lord of the Flame of the Central Sun, the unified Spiritual Wealth of the Cosmic Hierarchies.*

The Cosmic Alchemicalisation

MEROPE was a queen Bee that came to the earth and started a trail of action; she became a Melitta, an offspring of Amaltheia, who on Mount Ida fed Zeus with milk to prevent Cronos from devouring him. Therefore, all these Melittas are expanders of wisdom and the means of driving the earth to expansion through weaving. Hence Merope in her descent was the means of the Seven Rishi being established, with the Seven Pleiades as the reflection on the next descent, and became the fourteen steps to the cross of renunciation for the ascent of any initiate. So as she descended, will every initiate seek to ascend. (See the plate on page 7).

Thus the Bees represent the pathway of activity where the soul can obtain nourishment. But in enquiring into the wisdom of the Starry heights, it means the polarity between the two as heights and depths being unified, bringing expansion to the depths, then ascending as light up to the heights. The way being made for the two to become as one, one vast sea of heavenly light; for the initiate expanding the wisdom of the depths, makes the stars shine all the brighter. Thus accounts for Sindbad being lowered into the Cave of the mountain and having to use his wits to get out. As he does so, he draws on the light of the polarity and applies it in the depths to escape from where he is in prison, which brings light to the starry heights.

This is a part of the mystery of the Bees, where the soul was breaking up the rocks of the Milky Way; for every time a god or goddess came to the earth,—which did take place at the beginning of Time,—they plunged alive into the depths and had to be fed on the honey from the Star they came from. These were referred to as Axis-gods traversing the earth, and usually those with beliefs and wisdom completely remote to the rest of the world. All trying to establish new ideas, whereby they united souls on the earth with their plane or Star. In so doing, their Star became nourished and burnished into light and life.

Once they started there was no letting-up until the bitter end, and like the beaver they had to labour, ever bringing forth the wealth in the depths. For by doing so they were changing the world with new and profound ideas. To go back upon themselves would completely distort the elements, for they were impregnating the earth with new elements and could be seen as Stalagmite and stalactite uniting. A pylon uniting heights and depths as a uniting Stream of Holy Water.

The motive all the time was as Amaltheia to master Kronos and bring expansion to man and Cosmos. The elevated creation through man, being the means of removing the bloodstains of Uranus from the earth, until eventually it is a reborn plane of light. This is why they wore the beehive caps; the magic caps of understanding.

The bees are the means of resurrection, which if not mastered, lowers you down into the cave of the labyrinth, and you never get out until you labour trebly hard.

This is the mystery of Jesus in the Scriptural legends, being buried in the tomb. As Cypselsus struggled, he was fed by the Bees as alchemicalisation, for the Bees are the representation of the Cosmic alchemicalisation.

The Egyptians understood the wisdom of the Bees in no small measure, for they comprehended them as the sovereignty of the North; the dominion over the North and South, which meant not only lordship over this world and the next, but the mastery over the heights and the labyrinth, where the wealth from the heights gave unified creation to those depths, but returned the atoms of light to the heights. Both heights and depths learning to expand by one another finding light.

This accounts for the whip and the flail placed over the glyph of the arcana. The Solar creation mastered by the Bees and brought to light, whereby the fleur-de-lis became their conquest. The North and South and Divinity mastered as the fleur-de-lis of glory by the activity of the Bee. Therefore the Bees and the intercalary action of Taurus and Gemini are interblended. For their action is the means of the Bees flying back and forth, bringing back their honey that the queen requires and solves the mystery problem of the foremost diagram.

THIS IS THE MEANS OF KEEPING "KICK" IN THE EL POWERS ACTIVE, AND URANUS SPARKING.

This is the mystery of Deborah, one of the greatest prophetesses of ancient Israel, who gave her oracles from her beth-el, her sacred rock, the fiery depth of her bones which was anointed with oil, her belief and ideals of the heavenly glory. Having come from the heights, and become lost in the depths, she also drew the wealth from her starry heights as a goddess, and fed the people by their unity with her depths, whereby it became the grave of Rach-EL.

She brought into birth Joseph the Yod of God, the seven-headed-Hydra driving the soul on to victory; which displays not only the Stars, but the heavens god and goddesses, the heavens and their Axis, as well as the great blue Bee of Vishnu, the risen Rishi who is translating the mighty wealth of the North into Light.

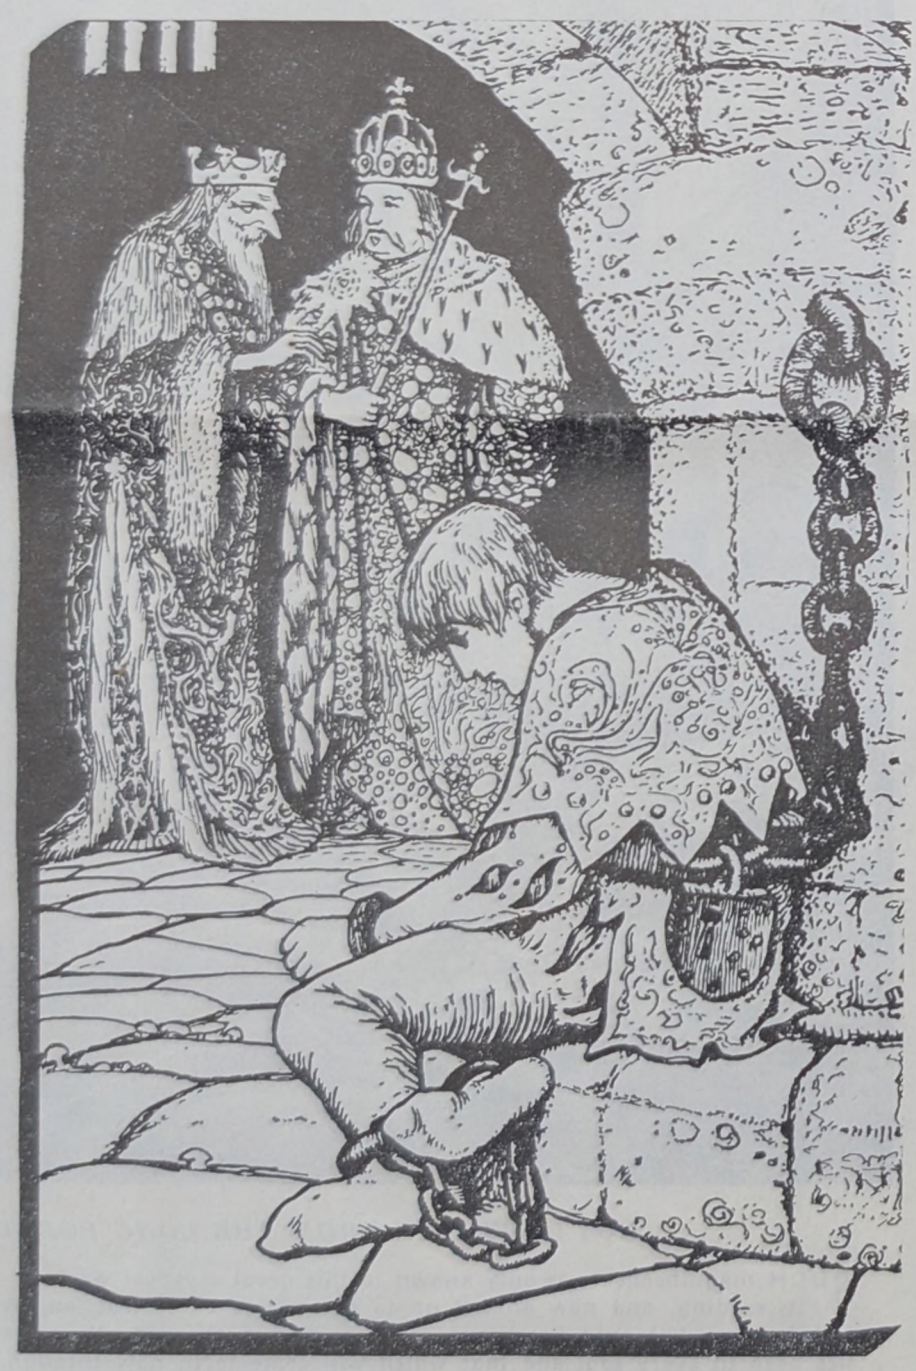

Having dissected the Bee and its mystical depths, let us look into the significance of the Blackness of Space. This is man's inability to see the light or wisdom out of the darkness, as he is ever being faced with the raw Power, and not knowing how to transform it into its form creation before it is transported into light. For only by form will it leave its mark with man.

This must be so, until man rises up onto the Air plane, and then will understand by a matter of vibration. So under the circumstances, he needs the infra-red ray of sensitivity, which the Vega Wheel is now driving as the revolving power of the Axis. The new hermetical revolving mind of light which, when brought to its atomic point of the infra-red ray of Neptunian sensitivity, becomes of the true creative LIFE; that which must now be involved to enlighten the mind out of its magnetic field.

The infra-red rays are the fiery wealth of Scorpio blended with Venus; the heat rays of Le Ros, and have now become the atomical structure of the soul. The electro-magnetic fusion in the depths which man has now to accommodate and bring into birth. The "kick" within the El power set into motion, for the infra-red has the power to interpenetrate the soul life; as the ectoplasm or protoplasm is the fiery substance of the Seed essence now taking on the Solar light. By this, the ectoplasm is now filled with the isotope powers of creation, which is the realisation of the Cosmic quest, the rebuilding and remoulding of the new world creation, it being the atomic structure of the soul struggling to renounce all the density of the lunar vibratory creations.

To do this, the Virgonian mind must be steadfast in its activating endeavours, bringing the ultra-sensitive frequency of Vega, as the now subconscious mind, into an oasis of potential down-pouring mind stimulative ideas. That which will drive the lost mind memory into unfolding the suppressed powers of the soul; that lost since the downfall of the first Solar Galaxy at the beginning of Ra.

For man is a Solar galaxy, which is a prism to Prism oneness, due to the humility and strength of those higher Powers. But man confused the issue, and fell into a revolving lead creation, and could not spin by his weighted-down state of inertia. So as soon as man brings the sensitivity back to his axis and bloodstream by desire control, and Word risen up as mind development, will he be able to master the wealth of Outer Space, the polarity to his own depths. By renunciation he discards of his troubles, for by the possessiveness of Kronos does he retain them. (See the plate above)

IMPRISONED BY THE PAST

SAD and lonely, chained to his pillar of stone, the prince who should have become the pride of the kingdom was lost in the darkness of despair. For Saturn was ruling, having outweighed the gods, thus shutting out the light of direction that would have carried him up to the heights. Hence the old king reigns supreme, closing down all possible hopes of expansion. (See text in col. 4).

The Cardinal Points

NOW we must turn our mind to the Wheel, that which every soul will eventually have to put into operation; for as they draw out the earth-fire from their bones, they will have to turn towards the heavens to be fired with new life. Man fell into the Waters; now he must extricate himself, for he is a god in his own rights, and begin his journey back home.

If you can fully visualise non-form, and hold to vibrations, it will stand you in good stead as we interpenetrate this wisdom. For all now is of reality, the building up of the inner pneumatikon life of light. The revolving of all the Chakra vibrations, until the whole of the lower five are, by sensitivity, raised up to the sixth, that it can spark off the seventh. The sixth, the pituitary, becomes the swastika action. The wheel revolving the universe,—and embracing the four Cardinal points,—which is now being put into operation by Merope as the Scapegoat. This sets the pattern of the Law.

The whole Chakra power brought to a point whereby the hormone deposit goes forth in that velocity. The rolling waters becoming anointed with the power, and infusing the whole of the bloodstream with the growing power. Then when revolved by mind determination, turns the four Cardinal points, and the whole Universe is swayed and determined.

A dynamic factor in Occult facts and truths. For when the strength of the fylfot is brought to a Solar one-ness, this will become the supreme power of the Age. The driving force will be that of the Solar, and the action that of the Hosts. If maintained on the Neptunian plane, a force that is terrific in itself, but needing supreme control to maintain and direct.

In the diagram of the Wheel, the direction as arms are the four Celestial Stars, with Vega and Achernar as the Divine Stream feeding the earth. The North of the Wheel holds Regulus, the strength of divine Agni, the Fire life of the Solar immensity. While this wheel revolves, Vega becomes the strength and glory of the heavens which drives the new issue of life through the Occult wisdom. This now becomes the supreme driving force of the Lord of the Flame, the Solar Glory and Starry Divinity. While such is being directed under their jurisdiction, the rebirth of the heavens brings the rebirth to man. For the unification has been a further unifying of power and supremacy of light.

This bringing all to an atomic strength cannot be denied, for it draws down the upper Ethers that can now enter through the isotope strength of the hub of the Wheel; the mighty power that can drive this wheel with determination and mind belief behind spin; then the Points change their degrees, and the world is forced into change. This would be considered Pagan by orthodoxy, but it does not alter the fact that what has been stated is the basic of all life, and that to be continued up the 'cycling of the gyroscopic spin,' until man brings it to an independent creation, receiving its glory and nourishment from the heights.

When truly investigated, it will be seen how the LAWS themselves are placed into their rightful category, and how the Holy Scriptures direct the way. It has been religion

CHAOS TO ETHER

For the heavenly Waters that left the heights as that reborn continuity, heavenly Purity of Fiery Virgin Life, was the Brahmic glory of the awakened Egg, now in the unified soul atoms of Vega. All gathered in as fiery wealth that had become the Almighty Conscious Mind of the manifesting Deity.

A world of glorious LIGHT, uplifted and held by the inborn atoms of revelation, the unifiers of TIME. That which had been of the depths of Bozrah and purified by those Fiery Waters, blended with heights in perfected androgyneity, as the Divinity of His Kingdom.

A glorious Diamond of blended wonders, the crystal clarity of divine Glory, as the world of born Men. His sons as the workers of Life, who had measured the Kingdom by their awakened drive of the Fiery depths of those Seeds of Brahmic Creation, now the unfolded glory of His MIND, the atomicised wealth gathered in those mighty Seeds of propensity.

Creation that left the heavenly Source and found its way into the depths, now the manifested Voice of His heavenly purpose, the glory of the journey achieved. For world after world are born and reborn in the creation of Terrestrial LIFE. That coming forth, returning back as the fulness is accomplished and completed, the prototype of Infinity. The MIND of Adam, the heavenly MAN, the created Voice of Divinity, now a manifestation of ever-lasting Glory in living Atoms of LIGHT.

The soul life that became the unfolding nucleus of that glorious City of LIGHT, where its moving life was the "cells" of light, as the archives of the deep. What had been the unfolding Fire-Waters from his inaudible Speech, now became the manifested glory of the Ether propensity unfolded into LIGHT.

The fire drawn forth from the Mother as Wife, Sister and Syzygy, now the Divine Son as the glorified Begotten, the Mind Arc as the heaven-born radiance of that going forth of that heavenly Belief. Atoms that rolled on and on as the driving force of becoming, where each Atom is a rolling epitome of that journey into the depths, with its rise and climb, to become the glorified Cell-life born from TIME as the immensity of that unfolded Egg, as the Kingdom of Vega.

The WOMAN as HER born from HIS side, now as Beauty and LOVE, as the magnetic raised up, now bringing Him forth from out of HER WOMB as the elevated waters of glorified LIGHT. Adam now born in all His glory as the Conscious Mind of glorified positive LIFE.

For here had been the journey of Ulysses as the prototypal Atom, he who finally returns to encompass the twelve, the complete journey through Time. Where Penelope as the conscious mind captures first as knowledge, then weaves all into the intricacies of Time. Ever going back and forth polarising heights and depths as the unifying points, until the blending of those mighty Ethers, the manifestation of the glorified Aum. Where Brahma now as their manifesting Deity as the Radiant Golden FLAME, comes forth as the dynamic OM, the glorified Word of the arielised mind.

He who has mastered the mystery of the depths, and revolved the glories of the heavens. Setting the Stream of Infinity in perpetua mobile, to bring forth the mighty radiant Voice of the Holy Effulgence of blended heights and depths. The Adept who had mastered the feat of unification, by taking the whole of Time into their stride as unified belief; blending all into a state of ONENESS.

Where the Brahmic Point, the original point of manifestation, sent forth his Brahmic atoms, now in being unified with Aum, awakens and sends forth through his Sperming Yod the glorified Seeds of newborn life. The plane of the Abyss now risen up to the magnitude of the glorified Seven to the radiant splendour of divinity, where Vega in all her scintillating glory, is manifesting in the heavenly Waters of the deep.

The Solarised Ether

MAN being but the working capacity sent forth by Brahma, that keeps the mighty heavens unfolding and involving, with Brahma the ever awakening Divinity, bringing greater manifestation into the glorified purple Waters of the deep. For the Cosmic Egg is the Life Blood of the Deity, which becomes the Cosmos when "hatched" by the Serpent Fire as man's mind light. The wealth of Eternity brought into HERE and NOW by the unfolding of man's mind, for in the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Thus as this Word created by Merope went up to the Cosmos and out onto the maelstrom, and the Ethers began to "salt" the Earth, man began to awaken. For in the Sun newsprint of Jan. 24th, it was obvious that man was awakening to the truth, when he declared in his illusory way, that night was to be turned into day by an artificial space plan. Large giant orbit mirrors, each measuring 2,000 feet across an highly polished face, would hang 22,300 miles out in that mighty Space.

Here we see the ignorance of man, of how he turns reality into reflection, for Merope had already, like Dhruva, swung the Stars around her head, and declared that she had drawn down the Ether Powers, that would now set Infinity measuring o'er the earth.

For as the Ethers entered the depths, would man begin to change, although for the moment absurd in their mini decadence. The dying off of the animal states, the unravelling of drug and pill, laying low the medical fallibility. With religion now falling under their own schism, through the downpulling of the infamous cross, that which had in its existence been the means of relieving man from his responsibilities.

The Ethers that were now going to turn night into day, would do so by a natural change in the creation of man. He becoming an etherealised creature through the power of Spirit, inborn from the Ether inflow. For after he fell from his god state in the Age of the Deluge, and took on of the crustean depths, was he turned from a hoary savage into an artificial sophisticated man. Thus again would he become, under that LAW of Rebirth, etherealised, as again the Scapegoat had driven the Waters into a higher frequency, set the Cardinal Points revolving, and mastered the raging EL Powers; a soul awakened and ahead of the creature who has never yet awakened from his Fall, setting the world into active rebound, by conquering the frequency of Distant Outer Space, and bringing it manifesting in matter.

This IS Brahma now manifesting through the Prismic glory of His Begotten Son, the Lord of the Flame as the risen Eagle, the Scorpio Generative rebirth. He who now manifests from the Central Sun, bespeaking his Father's Causes. Thus entering into the being of all men, via their generative Waters, turning mundane earthy minds into god-like men. Thereby turning darkness into light by the natural LAW of Rebirth.

With Brahma, the mighty POINT of Becoming, now coming forth out of those Generative Waters that have been risen up to the glories of mind conception. Darkness turning into day, and heaven reigning once again in the world of reborn duality. For with Merope bringing unification into life as the mighty change of LAW, all once again must become as the reborn Garden of Eden, in the New Kingdom of Vega. With the Lord of the Flame as the risen up Son of His Father, becoming the radiant all-enduring LIGHT of all Planes of Creation now blended into ONE.

Not a revolving ball of earth form, but a spinning glory of Divine Infinity. Thus all artificiality dispersed and REALITY the shining Glory of the New-born Kingdom of LIGHT.

With man also being born of the mighty power in eternal life, by becoming of the perpetua mobile. Disintegrating down to Earth, and spinning up by infinity gained, as a living god upon earth. This is the TRUE conception of man flying; not in artificial contraptions but a god-like creature of spirit life, flying like a bird on the wing.

The glorious Sun, now as the Central Sun, will only reflect its uprisen glory where it can bring an all consuming power to the responding Earth. An artificial contraption up in the heights, will not be of the ever changing frequency, as it will upon the earth, through the changing LAW.

For it will be out of the range of evolution, and will be due for destruction along with all the earth man-power attached to any such solar artificiality. For man cannot touch the Powers of the Hosts, they are the consistency of the reigning FACE, for it is up to man to unify with those Laws, and become worthy of their unfolding Effulgence, that he can absorb their glory and learn of their mighty secrets.

For Infinity is the ever changing of earth frequency into Solar-Ether light, the blossoming glory of immortality. Here again we meet another fallacy as the imaginary pictures of the moon's face.

THUS INFINITUM EXCELSIUM AS BOUNDLESS GLORY, THE WAY OF ALL DIVINE REBIRTH.

THE BEE TRAIL

NOW I want you to look deeply into this plate which will give you the understanding that this is not new. Here you see the Bee Goddess who is going back up to the Heights by the Wisdom she is bringing to the earth; ever refreshing the Stream as it comes to the earth, filling it with Light and Purpose so that the Gods on High can get their Wealth returned as soon as the earth awakens.

What the Goddess came down by, she now must go back by, so in the plate it is portrayed how it was foreseen by others of the Bee Trail, whereby as she struggled and brought into birth the Wealth she had advocated,—and which it was her task to do,—she could now make her journey back up to the Heights. This is a very dynamic point and one which many should think deeply into, because she is not the only one who has got to make this journey back up to the Heights; there are others.

You have all come down from the Heights, but some have completely squandered any hopes of ever returning, and will have to stay down in the depths until they can renew their Seed. But if you are one who has struggled and made every effort, you will find that you, too, will want to rise. So the thing is 'to get the mind ascending,' as you see by the birds, thereby bringing the activity up the Bee Trail. (See text on page 6, col. 1).

THE DRUG MENACE

IN VIEW OF THE DRUG MENACE THAT IS NOW sweeping the world, it is a most pert moment to bring my point of view upon this appalling subject; yet greater still a Cosmic action now set into motion by the Hosts.

Firstly it must be recognised that the chaos and disturbance that is over-riding all Nations at the present moment, is due to the Ether Rays flooding the Earth. These are Rays of a Virgin Nature, and are the Hosts in their ethereal manifestation. They are entering every soul whereby to cleanse and purify their bloodstream, and is no myth, but a positive fact. Hence the drug addicts have been first on the list by Law of Circumstances, with others to follow. Then secondly, these Rays intend to open up the soul's inner depths towards the deeper thoughts of life, hence certain religious personages speaking out boldly against the underlying corruption of religion. These being genuine in their beliefs, and could not go on tolerating the evil under cover. Many of these have received the Occult Gazette.

So, in view of the inner mystical action of these Rays and their searching action, that already in motion is to be expected, with more to come. For the world cannot be truly reborn until man is prepared and ready to receive the new wisdom of rebirth. Therefore if it can be remembered, at the time of the Television Broadcast (see June 1966 issue) the Master declared that there would be so many changes, that it could appear frightening, for the Hosts were ruling the world, and intending to cleanse it, that entities from the higher Planes could descend into birth.

So it is a matter of readjustment where evil is being brought to the surface for man to review, that he can get a wider and higher direction of thought and purpose; and nobody can deny that that is not necessary, whatever be their policy of thought.

Therefore, it is up to every one to discard convention and righteousness, and be prepared to stand firmly by right, and not be afraid to state their opinions. For this is the only way that right and truth will prevail. Even this is coming to the fore by the jurywoman seeking that right will prevail over the judging of one whom she considered had been accused wrongly. Whether right or wrong, she stood firmly by her beliefs, and was not persuaded by a Judge who couldn't care less.

The Medical Ignorance

NATURALLY as a healer, and one holding strictly and strongly to diet, drugs will not be approved of by me, but the point to be first taken into account, is the fact of who is to blame for this wide spread drug addiction. I openly state, and most emphatically, the medical fraternity, for every patient, whatever be their difficulty, is handed some sort of drug. Just recently, a patient coming to the School who had had an accident that left him with some difficulty to his legs, foolishly went to a hospital for treatment. It was most fervently requested by his parents, that under no condition was he to receive any drugs or lumbar puncture.

Unbeknown to the patient, he was immediately given drugs and a lumbar puncture. For a time his mentality broke down, and he was completely split. Then next he was purged with a saline, which the patient, in being on a very strict diet, never touched, for salt is one of the earth commodities that are dangerous to spirit unfoldment. It not only hardens the arteries, but remains as an earth mineral in the tissues.

So in being flooded with this foreign substance, it completely undid all that he had accomplished over many years of development. We who knew him well, could see the vast changes that were taking place in the negative direction. As he slowly adjusted himself, he made a stand for his principles, and demanded to remain on his fruit diet, which as a glandular subject, suited him very well.

Here began the first big fight, for the medical authorities definitely made every effort to prevent this one from pursuing the diet he had adjusted himself to. They even going so far as to threaten the patient, that if he did not eat cooked food and take the drugs prescribed, they would force him to leave the hospital.

Fortunately this one was very pugnacious and defiant, and wrote to the Minister of Health, which seemed to bring some form of change in the attitude of the hospital. Even though the person in question proved that he was improving on his pure fruit diet, the doctors were still insistent on drugs being taken. But the patient stood his ground, and eventually left the hospital.

Personally, I feel that here was the need for more faith in spirit, not so much the resistance to the hospital, although the request was made for this one to remain adhered to his principles, which was far more important than the medical could appreciate. So the major point in question is the fact that this one who was striving to avoid drugs, was being forced to either take them or leave. Such a disturbance at a critical moment was disastrous to say the least.

Why didn't the medical look into this point of view, or was it the same old difficulty, an egotistical attitude of superiority. For I have known even doctors themselves complain of this treatment, one in particular who tried to get their belief established, eventually becoming an outstanding fact in the medical world. They being the means of gas and oxygen to help childbirth, I being one of their first patients. When brought before the medical board, an elderly doctor declaring, "women were born to suffer, let them." Just a callous butcher, probably a Scorpio by influence.

So really, when the one standing his grounds on principle, was told most coldbloodedly, that if he did not take the drug prescribed he would be dead in a year, he did choose the hard path to stand to his principles. Without doubt, this was sheer blackmail of the most sadistical nature, but why? Are we to believe that the real trouble lies in monopolies of vast money making drug traffic, where doctors as well as financiers have vast shares in a drug making concern? Until this is gone into, this menace will never abate, either for innocent victims, or just ruthless individuals looking for excitement.

Opening Rays

THE papers are continually bringing the subject to the fore, making more and more known to the weak; yet again, what other way can such be exposed. Quite recently a cutting was sent to me out of the News of the World, Jan., 29th, containing an extensive article on the LSD drug. An account of how those acting as pop singers, lived continually on this drug. But on reading it for facts, I was amazed of how these foolish creatures were opening up their Chakra intensity by drugs.

THIS IS THE MAIN WORK IN THIS SCHOOL, BUT BY STUDY AND DEVELOPMENT.

Naturally our method is the right way, and the safe, if the rules placed by Spirit are strictly adhered to. The way that the Egyptian Pharaohs, Hindus in the Ashram Schools, and Mystics of the secret Race Elect, ever followed. This is where all past roots are involved, and become the wealth and strength of the soul.

The drug addicts would be forcing themselves onto the lower side of Neptune, which cannot help but result in mind derangement of the worst nature. Whereas we coax open the Chakras by sensitivity and frequency, these souls force them open, and the door never closes to protect them from the dark forces. So would eventually be the victim of the lower planes.

This is what I have been following as a Scapegoat, that I could make strait the gate for everyone to go forth without disaster. Once a soul sets the prototype by example, then all is safe for others to follow, and everyone will have to, to get back to their original status of a god-born soul, their original heritage.

Why haven't the medical authorities extended their investigation into the metaphysical, instead of just remaining the filler in of forms and text book boys. I do not have to cut open a person to know what is wrong, but by sensitising myself by raising up my frequency of thought, and renunciating of the animal states, I can get diagnosis from an inner sight prospective. I see their difficulties by my raised up fires that give me perception of a secondary nature. But definitely it needs renunciation of all animal states.

If the medical fraternity had trained their more psychic adherents, they too could have learnt of the inner bodies that are the cause of all the sickness man is enduring today. Years and years of Karma, and roots of the dim and distant past that have not been turned in by expanded knowledge. For they were the originators of the knowledge that never found its completion, hence the soul is full of loose ends.

What seems so dreadful in this drug menace, is the fact that it is centred around youth, the very flower of the Nation. Those who should be sperming the world with pure nature Fire, now literally plugging the maelstrom with evil and filth. But furthermore, I have even had young doctors who are taking drugs, coming to me for healing, hoping that I could help them to discard the habit.

One does not have to look very far for the evidence, for it shows in their eyes, which have a peculiar staring appearance, apart from the pupils being dilated. Of course, competition unfortunately plays a very big part here, where they are forced to struggle to try and maintain their position, or vying for a position out of their range at the present moment.

The Right Development

THE dealing with this problem to the greatest degree, is the next great surge by the world of Spirit, for I have been called to make this announcement, which will start

VISION OF DESPAIR

THE glories of the heavenly fires now dragged down to their lowest degree; the soul engulfed in the meshes of darkness, the polarity to the heights he was carried to by L.S.D., for in only touching the lower depths of Neptune he opened the doors of hell.

an eternal and internal campaign against the culprits who are behind this ghastly evil. Yet much is already taking place, for this is the full depths of Chaos to Ether, where the world is being cleansed of the underlying evils that have resulted in worldliness becoming incestuous.

Thus the Rays of Ether intensity have descended and accounts for the miraculous sunshine, and the scourge of so-called flu, which really only needs a good dose of Buchu herb to cleanse out the waste.

What the world is passing through at the present moment, is what I have been struggling to advise for many months. This has been the intent of my School, to show man how to come out of the "pit" the right way.

THE SOUL CLEANSING HIMSELF BY NATURAL RENUNCIATION, ABSORBING THE WISDOM OF THE MYSTERIES THE RIGHT WAY, THUS RAISING THE FREQUENCY AND SENSITIVITY UP ONTO THE HIGHEST PLANE OF WISDOM.

You cannot obtain this without discarding, for the soul automatically knows what it really requires, and what it is holding to by the lesser desire. His raised up sensitivity ever advises him what to do, and furthermore, he soon begins to learn that you do not raise this Chakra influence for fun, but for service only.

The motive is the Neptunian plane of genius and art, where the highest possibilities of sparking frequency can come forth. This can only be obtained by the raising up of the lower passions to the highest plane of mind unfoldment, where the Solar Ray is absorbed. If this is not obtained, then the soul remains in the clutches of the lunar creation, but with Chakra doors opened wide.

This is what can happen to nuns that are trained for this purpose, more so in the past, and accounts for so many women being in the state they are today. One can quite easily detect them, for their religious attitude is either of complete hatred, or ultra religious. The world at the present moment is on the Neptunian plane, but only in the negative, and again accounts for the sodomitical states, and many churchmen auguring for the Sodomy Bill. So having laid down many facts, let us now turn to the point in question, to get a better insight into the problem.

Drugs of any type whatsoever, disrupt the congestive atoms, bringing division and a lacking of unification, for they bring an unbalanced change to the metabolising action of the Chakras, thereby bringing a state of unbalance to the mind equilibrium. They even disrupt the flowing rhythm in the seed, and that is dangerous where the male element are concerned. For they are the spermers of the Race and the union between the heights and depths, until woman is able to bring herself under the Kirtle of the Divine Master.

SO DRUGS MUST BE SEEN MERELY AS A STIMULUS BUILT UP UPON THE FUNGUS OF DEAD GROWTH, INSTEAD OF SPIRIT COMING FORTH AND BEING BORN FROM THE ANCIENT WEALTH.

THE PATH OF SELF-DESTRUCTION

A fall into desire, drastic and severe, which brings the overshadowing of disaster, to finally result in lives of a lonely road out on the death-born desert. The soul ever striving to bring life to a seedless effort, that lost in one moment of indiscretion.

The medical men, whom I claim are behind the drug menace by just handing out drugs willy nilly, have become grounded in their studies, and only ever working on old ideas, but backed more and more with drugs. Especially where they are Roman Catholics, or a Roman Catholic hospital. The sooner this religion is made obsolete, the better.

The modern doctor is a complete confusion of multiplicity, and instead of seeing the path, they merely apply drugs as the easiest way out of the problem they cannot tackle. Or if they feel expansive, you become the unfortunate guinea pig, and land up with a pigs ear for a kidney. At the present moment, the medical man is only concerned with the physical body, and refuses to accept anything of a spirit nature—"God help us!" His major problem being ignorance and egoism, which quite a number agree is the case.

I was appalled in talking to a doctor, at the ignorance of their conversation, and most of all, their unbalanced state of the Mongol and Tartar states of past growth. Of course these should have been involved by study, knowledge and wisdom, which is the duty of every soul, the bringing forth of a mind. But, by drugs, they bring forth a living organism devoid of spirit essence.

This I have personally experienced in my healing work, it being an Atlantis state of rebirth coming forth through relativity. So it can be seen how much is karmic sickness crying out for unification, in the form of wrong diet, enforced sex and egoism. For all sickness is the unbalanced state of the spirit fire, which drugs cannot possibly cure. Even if they allay for the time being, the drug addiction remains.

I have had many come to me begging of me to help them to discard of the drug desire that they have been left with after hospital treatment. For the medical only attempt to balance on the physical, when by spirit healing, it is a natural balance by greater element inflow. Which at the present is coming down in abundance, and will be the means of bringing about many changes, if man will only leave drugs alone and turn to herbs and natural diet.

Horrors of Addiction

IT is surprising how much the moon plays in this scourge, and what would have happened if America had been allowed to continue her moon lunacy. For the full moon and the new moon, are the extent of man's multiplicity, while the taking of drugs, will only extend that into a greater expansion. This accounts for such souls oddity of clothes, hair styles, and accomplishments of their inner wealth.

The intensity of their actions, raising up their frequency only to a lunar state of Neptunian qualities. One only has to view the pictures in the News of the World of the 29th of Jan., to see two with dilated eyes, a group of four looking completely mental, and a musical director of a very unreliable characteristic. While the front page is appalling, nothing exhilarating or uplifting in the whole set up. If this is what our entertainment would consist of, look at what they are spreading in the maelstrom or magnetic belt around the earth. For the males are the spermers of life, and the hope of the Nation.

Then again, in the People of Feb. 5th, a further terrible revealment of a young man, who is so imbued with drugs, his body is completely rotten with the drug infliction. Another with his arms so scarred, as to be unable to receive any more. Then we get an advocate for drugs declaring, that by taking of LSD, they are able to study spiritual matters. The only spirit they ever view, would be the lowest states of the astral planes.

The only answer to all this, is the working of the Hosts through the Ether inpouring of Fire in a drastic way. This is taking place at the present moment, but will not only be the means of helping these souls in the only way possible, but the giving of life to all that are ready to receive of these health giving Fires.

The trouble with the addict being, that the whole of his inner bodies are drug-ridden and it is his higher mind that is going mad for the drug, not so much his physical. That endures the pain as the personality, and is crying out to stop it.

AS THE SCAPEGOAT WHO IS BEING USED FOR ALL THIS TO BE BROKEN DOWN, I GET THE SWING BACK, AND AT THE PRESENT AM FEELING THE MIGHTY REACTION IN MY SPINE AND LEGS. FOR MY SPINAL COLUMN IS PARALLEL WITH THE AXIS OF THE EARTH.

This wisdom the medical fraternity are ignorant of, yet have full control of the sick. My God, how appalling! For there are many souls who are psychic and mystical, and not aware of the fact. Something brought over from the past.

Now a final statement ere I close; with regard to this ramp of the contraceptive pill. When will woman begin to realise what this pill is doing to her emancipation, which does not just mean that she is able to vote, but free from the original curse.

She now is free to build up her mind, but she will never do this while she kills off her hormone seed that enters into the blood, and after alchemicalisation, goes up as spiritus air of mind creation. This sort of thing is not understood by the medical man, but are facts that are more true than the air we breathe.

WOMAN, WHATEVER YOU DO, BUILD UP YOUR MIND, THE MOST PRECIOUS THING YOU POSSESS, FOR WITHOUT IT, YOU WILL FIND YOURSELF RETURNING INTO THE MOST PRIMITIVE OF THE ABORIGINAL RACES.

The man that created this monstrosity, I would like to make him eat up the lot, and then finally have his hormones turned into a nest of crocodile eggs, that when they hatched, they could eat up all the evil he has created.

EMBODIED ATOMIC GALAXY

that has directed otherwise, and then only to get the power out of the hands of the right source and into their own. So it must be realised by the true mystic, of what wealth is lying dormant in man, and what could be gained, if the Solar God was dominant within the soul as man directed these mighty Powers into the right direction.

For Antares as the divine Generator, and Regulus as the firing capacity, with the Hub as the mind and directing agent, is alone dynamic. But when Aldebaran as the Bull plows, and Fomalhaut as the Word becomes changed and makes the unifying Light between heights and depths, the whole world is within their grasp. Anything that has slipped its intent, flows away at the base, but the true idea is completeness.

A World of Light

THEN the drive is terrific and dynamic, and Dhruva can have full play to swing the Starry glory around his head, the heavenly Waters of change. For the revolving fire of Vega is now charged with the atomical sensitivity of the Sun, but infused with the expansion and drive of Merope. This is mind wisdom of the highest, therefore the power of the Godhead, and when trod into the earth, wealth that can bring light to the depths, as earth and spirit blended.

THIS IS THE MYSTERY OF THE ATOMICAL UNION, WHERE THE ATOMS OF THE ELEMENTS BECOME NURTURED INTO LIGHT, AND THE POWER OF THE SPIRIT IS MANIFEST UPON EARTH. THIS IS WHAT MEROPE HAS ACCOMPLISHED, CAUSING THE SCIENTISTS TO CREATE MANY JOURNEYS OUT INTO SPACE; GOING FORTH IN MECHANICAL MISSILES, PERFORMING ALL THE DEEDS LITERALLY, WHEN THEY SHOULD HAVE BEEN DONE THROUGH THE MIND, THAT THE SOUL COULD MAKE THE JOURNEY OUT INTO SPACE VIA THE AIR PLANE.

As it is, they are trying to accomplish the feat by earthy ways, thereby carrying form and earth up into the heavens, instead of raising the earth up in vibration to the Air-plane, and blending the two. So it is ever a status of raising up matter and unifying it with the spirit planes, changing matter all the time, and unknown to the soul, changing himself; raising all up by the mode of sensitivity.

This therefore is the new world of light, the X-Ray perceptivity of the wisdom drawn out of the very bones of Merope; for as she thinks on a higher plane of wisdom does she draw this fire out of her bones, matching it with the Fire that she has drawn down by her creative thought brought forth by what is called by some, wild imagination. It is this thought, applicable to the plane of Neptune, that starts off these new ideas, which brings new light and formation to matter. Thoughts born out of previous creations, but of a more expansive belief.

Yet Merope being who she is, the fire that she brought into birth from her bones would be the Holy Fire of all creation; for she was, and still is, the Divine Spark of all life. It was she who brought down the Holy Fire in the first place, and the first one to absorb it, which has lain dormant until she was able to match it up by its polarity. For the spark of Divinity cannot glow unless the expansion of the supporting wheel has been added.

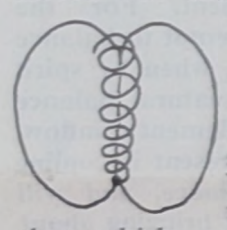

Therefore in the circling of Vega there is going to be a drawing out of the Ursa Major wealth that will leave men in a state of chaos, for it is their basic. So it will be Aldebaran as the flying geese that will give Vega her brightness, for Aldebaran is the anchoring star of the wealth of Medo-Persia; therefore must have an influence upon the pituitary, for it holds all the Persian fire, and the only Star that can fire Vega into life and light.

The power of her wheel is the power of the Greater Wheel, and the moving of the Winds, these being the Cosmic changes that have been brought into action by the Scapegoat, and are now being felt by the opposition. For by her moving the Law, the old states will have to take the throw-back as the counter-balance, a state of automatic readjustment.

This is due to the fact that man must follow the independent path of God or Goddess who is setting the pattern. The revolving wheel is like unto a whirlwind that revolves at the top and brings the bottom up in an uplifted motion, with the bottom brought to the top, and then forced out into the revolving once again. The Wheel is the embracing of the Christos light, the intensity of the Fire, and as the Uraeus, that which pours forth and envelopes all men with its glory of stimulative action.

The Solar Truth

THE supreme sensitivity brought into birth by this human broiling, is the Christos embodiment born out of the revolving Spheres, for as they revolve through the Scapegoat Christos, are they sent forth, and bring changes to the outside world. For it is her will, and her will is the determination of the heights. For the true immaculate conception is conceiving of the Cosmic truths, and adapting them unto oneself, until a purified oneness can sperm the whole of the Cosmos with that Divinity. For in its purity it eats up the darkness and becomes a Christos Makara, the new world crocodile balanced and blended so that none can dislodge them.

A completely hermetical sunship, drawing of the complete unction; the atomical essence of the magnitudinal holy creation. That born from the electrification of the Seed, for Regulus is the opening up of the Sinus that is going to bring the balancing of the sensitivity, which will in turn help Fomalhaut to perceive the blessing of Antares. For Fomalhaut is the etheric creation born from the mighty heights of Uranus, and becoming buried between the mighty driving power of Vega and Achernar.

So it is mind mastery saturating the cosmos with Vega wealth, that will drive Achernar into action; the latter being the coal depths needed to feed the Fire of Vega. All the wealth of the soul being turned-in and created into a Stream of balanced wisdom, which will fire the higher mind of man with a blended flow of Solar truth, once he has mastered his depths. Each formation of power in the Zodiac being a complete unit of atomical wealth, a multi-unicular of wealth born out of the aeons of worlds of ancient wealth.

All these blended, bringing forth dynamic Powers, which had caused suffering in their birth throes, now causing the whole of the Cosmos to come to Chaos in the present rebirth. Yet this must take place or the Stream will be polluted by its old antiquated seed, and would account for the paralysis of all the old creations, where the fire is being cut off; and will remain so, unless it is re-charged by the Solar Word.

Nothing will stop it blending, for the Law is Universal Philosophy, and the healing which comes out of its unification is the mighty Solar strength. A Christos emancipation of all the Zodiac into a spun up realisation that man is divinity born out of the Divinity of the womb of Vega; the sepulchre of the gods now alight and alive with divine Passion. The Antares blood of the Lord (Genesis, chapter 3, verse 12), for the man said, 'The Woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree and I did eat.'

The Solar growth that he now has to find by seeking of the risen up fount of Vega.

In the beginning, the power of Ophir was the Pleiades, and the way made clear for Merope to bring down of the Holy Fire by her comprehension of the mighty wealth of those heights. But when brought down to man, her next task was to help him embody that Fire, for he had absorbed it in the negative. Then it was taught them of the wonders of Le Ros through the phallic worship, for up till then all had been a state of Element worship, the glory of the starry heights.

It then being the plane of Pluto, the perfected plane of Vega alive with the united Prism of the atomic glory of the divine ethers. Thus once again Merope has brought that glory back to the ways of men, but man has yet to learn of how to manipulate a world of spiritual light, the glories and the magnitude of the Neptunian plane, where day after day new thoughts and beliefs will ever be impregnating the unified atmosphere, now radiant with the glories of the Central Sun.

For as Merope ever keeps the Wheel turning, the Stream is being fully embodied with the wealth from that divine plane. She having risen all mind creations up to its positive heights, that Vega can be the radiating glory of the Holy Flame. She ever sending the Wheel round and round upon its highest function, that those four royal holy Gates, make way for greater divinity to follow. As she drives it round and spins up in frequency, will those gates open as "lock gates" and let their water into the Stream. This brings the higher Ethers to the earth, and all who are ready and can assimilate, will be able to extract the great wealth out of the prismic Stream.

For as Merope raised up this vibronic Stream glory, will every man be able to bathe and find the healing quality to turn in and transmute his internal roots. States he has never been able to unify because of the lack of wisdom, yet powers in their own rights. All they needed was being lifted up into their right category of growth.

IN SEARCH OF TRUTH

AS the glories of the mind rose up to the heights the winged Pegasus sprang forth, horse and rider spinning upwards and onwards, through the struggles of Cinderella in the depths. For she, like Joan of Arc, had fought for truth, and now, donning a coat of mail, wielded the mighty sword that cleared the way for ascension of the valiant warrior to mount the heights, to bring back the genius of the mind. (See text in col. 5).

The Wheel of Action

IT is no good manifesting a golden orange as a bitter lemon, because you are only used to lemons, but visualising that lemon as an orange and it will, by your determined change of law, become an orange in its own rights of when you took those powers, particularly when unifying the intercalary drive. By this, the soul will draw upon those Rays that are in the Stream, but not conscious to the majority and too fine to manifest upon a mechanical machine. Yet can manifest upon a human machine, because it can only drive the issue by belief but manifest it within itself since it once reached those vibrations in its past growth.

If the soul had once been a kirubu priest having mighty powers, that soul still holds those powers and can transmute them into a more modern setting of action. Invariably the soul feels those conditions with them, but not as a tangible state, owing to their negative state adopted by sinking into its lower Cancer states. It would be by a Medea manifesting those depths through her depths of wealth that she could raise up the male to his polarity and restore his lost glories. This was how a mighty Medea helped Jason to transmute his Talos god state, and get free from the captivity he fell into. Yet the sperming set into motion by that god, that as a Bull could sperm the whole world with new life.

So as Merope drives this Wheel, and opens the floodgates of those mighty Powers, will Antares give unto the soul wealth of Fire, from just driving action to the mighty glory of a Pharaoh. Then Leo can open up the glory of divinity equal to a Christ, while Aldebaran can give the soul such vision through its perceptory qualities, that only by testing of such and finding its powers, can the soul believe it. For was it not Atlas as Polyphemus who declared, "I am the son of Neptune."

Then we have Fomalhaut the great Fish whose wealth of wisdom is waiting to become, and knows everything. States that manifest in the children of Woman who is the root to come forth in those states, and which she had hoped would become. Though often hampered by a powerful male issue of an inferior creation. This is but a minute example of what this Wheel can do, for Merope is driving it higher and higher, that every quality will be able to sup from those waters. The question being the soul overcoming the negative sides of the great Powers.

Self-pity with Pisces, delights with Taurus, ego with Leo, and sexual ecstacy with Scorpio, these being the most prominent with such unfolding wealth. For once the electromagnetic unity has been made and then electrified, it will be amazing of what can manifest, and often moreso in a negative person, because they have adopted the extreme of their wealth. Yet the most outstanding Gate here is Achernar the end of the Stream; the mighty wealth revealed unto Aeneas by the Sybil. This meant that he too once had those powers, and the whole of his journey to Italy was in him reaching the powers of his goal.

Therefore, Merope having been a Goddess, in itself reveals what she can bring forth in those Waters, as she so drives the vibrations up to their fulness of what they once were. For every soul knows the true value of their own inner creative qualities, because some time or another they find themselves voicing these as beliefs.

So now we must come to the greater issue as Merope reaches the fulness on each inter-span of the locks or Cataracts, where she opens up another unfoldment through the Wheel spinning round, and the Cardinal points become reborn on another plane of greater Neptunian quality. This is the world being forced onto a state of mighty power unfoldment, but wisdom well known to the ancients, yet now in its polarity about to bring forth wealth of a mighty character.

THE WHEEL

I want you to look very carefully and deeply at this. Try and visualise it within your being, VEGA being your head, your pituitary or 'third eye,' and Achernar as the lower states of yourself in the South, according to how you manifest them ; and everything goes down into those depths. The Wheel is within the solar plexus, and as you drive that Wheel you drive the intent of each one of these Celestial creations within your inner being, and as you drive the Word upon the fulness of each one, you are going to bring that Royalty up in your mind. That is quite simple, is it not ? Antares would be the 'fire'; Regulus the heart, Aldebaran the driving of the bull, and Fomalhaut the digestion of the Word. But you can do this in any form and on any degree ; it is entirely up to you.

To be able to get to Vega you have got to drive that Wheel and bring the Powers and the Beauties of Vega upon the Earth, so that the Earth becomes one with Vega. We have got to drive that Wheel amongst mankind, and this is what we are doing ; nobody is going to be spared. Surely you must realise now, that if orthodoxy will not 'give in,' and they will not change,—and they are receiving and having the Truth revealed to them,—then the state of deluge experienced in Rome can also apply in other directions. Aberfan would not change, and they were in a far more fixed and dead state than you realise, there being much going on that had to be changed. So somebody had to be the 'scapegoat,' otherwise the World would have gone on in the same old way, with no changes ever being made.

The point now is the union of the two forcing an extension of outer-world Space embracement of a greater nature. Wealth never embodied before, for the Wheel, in its unfolding revolutions,—if the soul is capable and 'daring' enough, will grip the possibility, and sail to heights, in polarity,. of past assumption.

Past and present unified, awakening possibilities by reflection of the Reality of their own inner depths. Yet this is where the Word, the wealth of Fomalhaut, can assist the soul, for the comprehension of the depths of wisdom through the oil within the depths of the Word, in spreading its rolling glory, can set the soul alight ; help the soul to bring a flaming glory filled up with raw fire. Thereby turn the issues and open doors as never known before.

This is the mighty wealth of the Wheel revealing its ancient glory ; for man has spun down and not up ; he expanded and multiplied, but spun down into depths of multiplication. Expansion is unifying and becoming a ONE state of Reality, whereby a radiance takes place as manifesting on the diagram of The Wheel. But instead of having a Polyphemus as a bestial state manifesting, the polarity would be a god of a one-pointed purpose which could Sperm and Bull all the lesser states into expansion.

It was because the priestial states turned into a ritual of no expansive capacity through self-glory and self-aggrandisement ruling officiators, that the day became a past memory, and soul in all its radiant glory, sank into the depths of calcification as materialism.

Now the Real wealth of the Wheel must manifest, so as to drive the world on to its manifestation, where it can expand into the heights it is due to reach. Thus God and man can unite, and where true divinity IS reached as a priest, wealth unknown to the soul will lead man on into glories and depths yet waiting to come forth. Yet ever by the Wheel driving the points into revealing the greater wealth of the heavenly planes.

Thus the fuller explanation of the Goddess's return to her plane of heavenly Creation, where by her unity in matter, she becomes one with the Spouse she created. For he is the positive side of her own growth ; the timid spirit raised up to bounding Light ; as everything goes from negative to positive, and where the positive is believed and stated, such must manifest and become some time or another.

FOR IT CLEARED AWAY STATES OF LIMITATION, AND OPENED UP NEW STATES OF GROWTH.

THE TRUE WISDOM OF THE HOLY FIRE

by Merope

SOME months ago, the Great Master declared that orthodox religion was finished, the final crash coming in their own internal schism. This is now beginning to come to the fore, in the many priests rebelling against the principles of Celibacy. This alone proves that Roman Catholicism has at no time ever received the Holy Eucharist, or the power of divine Unction.

For the Fires now blessing the Earth are the Ether Fires, the Holy Fire of Generative rebirth. Not only are the priests receiving these in the old degree of sex disturbances, but the church in general not even remembering why true celibacy is required, especially in a priest at the Altar.

If they were responsive, and receiving the Eucharist, they would at this time be flooded with new Divine Thoughts and sperming light for their followers. Whereby their religion could have been reborn into the new light of electrified wisdom, the true conception of immortality.

These Fires are the rebirth of mind creation, the world now changed from Form to Mind, where these Fires as the Ruach, when received, must be re-broiled and alchemicalised as new mind upliftment, otherwise a blank state or scourge of Venereal Disease will follow in the month of Abib, that of the Spring Equinox.

THIS IS A MOST CRITICAL TIME, ESPECIALLY NOW IN THE YEAR OF UNIFICATION, WHERE MAN EITHER FINDS HIS MIND AS INFINITY, OR FALLS BACK ONTO A BARREN PLANE OF THE BLANKEST DEGREE. NO DRUGS WILL STEM THIS TIDE.

Here lie the fears that the scientists were declaring some years back, when they wondered what would be the result of the Cosmic Rays upon the human Race. That has been settled, for Merope as the Scapegoat turned them into Mind Rays, making strait the gate for those who were prepared to renounce of the "beast," and lift up their minds to the heights.

FOR NOW THE VIRGIN WORD IS REFLECTING ON THE CORTI OF THE HUMAN EAR, FOR ALL THAT ARE SENSITIZED TO RECEIVE IT. THAT OF THE HEAVENLY HOSTS MANIFESTING THE DIVINITY OF THE SOUL, ITS INTERNAL SPIRIT RAISED UP TO REBORN GLORY.

So to the scoffers, the answer to this lies in the effects that are now to follow, when truth will have its own way. A greater understanding to the subject will follow in the Reminiscences in the next month's Gazette.

FLYING SAUCERS by Cyril King

IT was announced recently that British scientists have been asked to help in solving the mystery of flying saucers. The invitation coming from the University of Colorado, which is making a scientific investigation of unidentified flying objects on behalf of the American Air Force. Heading a team of scientists is Professor Edward Condon, Professor of Astrophysics at the university. A sum of $300,000 (£107,000) has been allocated by the American Air Force for the investigation.

Prof. Condon states that :

"We are seeking information from every possible source, provided it is reputable. I do not doubt that many people in England, as in the United States, take a popular interest in flying saucers, but a lot of this cannot be taken seriously."

There have been many well documented sightings of unidentified flying objects since 1947 in the U.S., all but 646 of which can be explained in terms of weather balloons, meteorological phenomena, satellites or astronomical appearances. One school believes that unidentified flying objects are messengers from another intelligence. The second, to which many scientists and government officials belong, says they are nothing but hallucinations and therefore not worthy of investigation.

The majority of sightings have been disposed of, leaving a small number as mystery with two main schools of thought as to their origin and reality ; the first being near the mark but not on target ; the second reminds me of the Hindu King :—

"I think till I'm weary of thinking,"
Said the sad-eyed Hindu King,
"And I see but shadows around me,
Illusion in everything."

One can only hope that Prof. Condon and his team do not fall in with the second school of thought. If they do, it will prove that they have not done their homework or thought wisely and well. For a start, Prof. Condon should read, mark, learn and inwardly digest the contents of the Occult Gazettes for June and July 1966, wherein is given the true facts of the descent of the Hierarchial Powers, they being the Higher Planes that cannot get down to man through the embodiment of the physical as there are no souls on the Earth sufficiently evolved to take these Higher Powers through the womb.

"It will be only by these Higher Planes coming to the Earth that mankind is going to be lifted out of the rut they are in. As we leave these Higher Planes and come to the depths, and we enter into the maelstromic belt, we take on the physical condition that you have found, or have seen as FLYING SAUCERS. It is a mechanical construction that we are able to pick up out of the maelstrom, we are drawn by the law of attraction to anyone that can become embodied by THESE GODS."
(See Reminiscences June, 1966)

Take note Prof. Condon and as with all humanity, now is the time to change over from the negative to the positive, and raise up the mind, for man is only MIND. Reaching up to the Heights in aspiration, raising up one's vibrations and drawing down the Solar Fires within oneself.

Preparing in every way possible to become a worthy recipient of the Higher Planes by osmotic entry through the cerebellum, that more leadership may be given to humanity, new thought and a greater understanding brought, and new life established so that all are more fully prepared to undertake the journey now set for the Solar Year, the Solar Road of shining mind light, man burnishing the raised up Arc with increased frequency and activity of mind. Thereby with his activity, man raising up the Earth plane with him, taking further steps forward to perfection, to unification, as destined at the end of the Solar Year.

Many may say, "this is a bit high flown—how is it done? We have to live!" Remember the saying, "In the world, but not of the world." It is a fact that while one attends to the economic needs of life, being of service, doing their job to the best of their ability, striving for perfection in all they do, the mind is yet free to fly up to the Heights seeking for greater truth and understanding. The faster and stronger the wings of the mind vibrate in flight up to the Central Sun guided by Universal Philosophy, will the Spirit, seasoned with experiences of the Earth Plane, attain much that is worthwhile ; development of the Higher Mind and building up of the Spirit Body.

It will be found that the study of Universal Philosophy will greatly aid all-round development towards achieving and bringing into birth the Higher Mind. Only by Universal Philosophy, the bible of the future, will the one pointed Solar Truth be found and the journey undertaken on the Solar Road.

Studies can be undertaken and thought over at odd times of the day ; during a journey, or whilst doing a repetitive job such as the housewife has while at the sink, or making beds and dusting ; many opportunities present themselves for mind activity, not a moment need be lost by anyone. Everyone should now prepare themselves for the future and it is a wonderful opportunity for Prof. Condon and his team to strike the right note and confirm that which has already been put forth on Flying Saucers.

Egyptian Mysteries

creation of awareness and consciousness. And since Egypt began the new phase of life as Humanity, it became as the Bringer forth of Civilization, and the Earth-cup that held the Waters of Heaven. Hence the Nile and the Eridanus became as one long stream of life.

The very inundation was seen in the light of the overflow from the heavens, where all the Elemental Forces gathered and translated superhuman power into human product. The Seven Powers that descended via Hierarchial descent were the Seven Kamite Brothers, the seven born from the Great Mother who came forth from Nnu out of the profound Darkness; the Great Unknown. Nnu is Waters, the Waters of Space which hold all and discerns of nothing, therefore it became the sporting ground of the human element.

It is known in astrological mythology that the seven Elements acquired souls as gods; these we have already established, but to refresh our memory, let us recite them once again. The Great Mother Ta-Urt was seen as the hippopotamus as representing Earth-life, but when transmuted to Water life, that so essential to emotional creation, she was produced as the crocodile.

Then as breathing force she was as a lioness that produced the Air of mind. This was the Mother with pendant breasts and procreant womb who produced virgin sparks as souls and kindled them into life as divinized beings.

So with her four children as Sut, the first born as power of darkness, Sebek-Horus as the crocodile, Shu as the lion-god of breathing, and the child-Horus as the fecundator of his Mother, these as four out of the seven were the fundamentals of the coming forth by day. In the constructional state of Seven in the human element it represents the first four Chakras of man's spinal rod.

These were to be the supporters of the Pole and activate the Solar life into the uraeus-serpent that it would come to life and stir, so as to rise unto the heavens and burst the seeds of the blood-red pomegranate. All was set on the improvised path until Atum could come forth and set all becoming for the path of the perfected man.

Transmuting the Inflowing Elements

MAN in coming forth then equalized the prototype, for as male power he came forth as the bull, till he could become as Atum, a ghost or spirit of One; which in Astrological wisdom is the arc or sine being raised on the 11th house of Aquarius; the house of the Spirit and perfected man. He as a god in the likeness of man; the godhead of the pineal spark or norm, the virgin spark who knows all from A to Z, but had to gain experience on all. Thus in the second advent has been gaining that experience, that in the third, Aquarius to Virgo, the soul returns to its normal status.

During the operation, while the personality laboured, Atum had sent down rays of interlinking, but never became as the man. Thus she, the Eve, had journeyed to Egypt (experience) and even inner Africa (Hell) to gain that wisdom and pay the tithes due. This brought Horus in human shape as mind unfolding as the divine child, while Atum as the godhead was slowly recognizing by awareness the God-Ship. Then on the fulness being reached, Horus rises up and enters into Atum who becomes through the rising up as being the status involved and unfolded; thus both child and man are entirely impersonal, those things begotten.

What must be recognised is that the human being is not being divinized, for it has always been divine as the virgin godhead "underclothed." It is the anthropomorphic that is being divinized and clothing the godhead with robes of light, bringing enlightenment and darkness into light. Thus an epitome in the Egyptian Ritual gives Osiris pleading in the Hall of Righteousness or Hall of Judgement before the 49 Gods, and declaring, "I have propitiated the great God with that which he loveth, for I have given bread to the hungry, water to the thirsty, clothes to the naked, and a boat to the shipwrecked. I have made oblations to the gods and funeral offerings to the departed".

This indicates that he had fed and clothed the tribes of Dan, including the Ancestral spirits. While the Great One God Osiris and the Nature-Powers, or the Hierarchial Gods and the Spirits of the departed, are all glorified. While this was ensuing, development came to the Elemental Forces and ancestral spirits, as well as to the triad of the soul as the great one God; Horus in soul and Ra in Spirit.

The whole universe lifted up. And all this commonalted by Seb the god of Earth causing the mighty ones to bow their head, for the "Spirits of that king" (Atum) are superior in status to the gods. Man greater than the angels which exalts the elemental powers by propitiation.

All the Egyptian Gods were fed on the fields of the same divine harvest, but it led them to become distinct in their own origin and character; thus as the prototype, so all that which has followed down the ages. And the glorified who were known as Spirit and who descended to serve as fiery atoms, have now risen from the dead in the glorified body as the Sahus, or man's body of light. These were the Hierarchial powers that have never been human, but descended as superhuman power to raise up the anthropomorphic, and enlighten "Lazarus" as the one "dead" to his royal status. But the ghost as the soul ever remains human however glorified he may become.

Once man can understand these things he will see the interlinking between all that exists in matter and spirit, though one is form with the other existing but formless. For instance Mother Earth has never been a human Mother, yet she has Mothered of the Race, the gods and the Great One. Then Rannut as the serpent, Nut as the celestial wateress, as well as Anup the god of the Pole. Taht the Moon god and Ra the Sun-god have never been spirits in human guise, but being worshipped by the primitive they drew their powers down into their being which propitiated the anthropomorphic into human life, and the man into a superhuman being.

Thus they acted as keepers of time and season and envisaged by the human mind as living types, but were really powers of life that were drawn down into the bloodstream of that soul spark, making that soul superhuman in its potentiality. You are those beings awakening to consciousness, but not yet superhuman.

The Seed of Life

SO Horus being as a hawk, or Seb as a Goose, does not mean that they were animals, and that man worshipped the anthropomorphic, but were powers presented by being drawn into the tribe under the totemic worship of the animal kingdom within the soul, and who was becoming raised in status by those powers. No longer does he tear lumps of raw meat off the (See plate page 13, cols. 1 & 2) back of animals and drink their blood, unless he goes back upon himself. He now seeks a more refined way of existing, because his mind as king or god has awakened and recognised to a degree its royal heritage.

The native in the beginning believed that by insufflation of air the spirit child as knowledge was received, and was the only way he survived. It is so, and is still so, and why not? The bennu bird seen hovering over the soul as the holy Ghost entering into the virgin Mary, is the descent of the great Powers into the human soul.

The act of the virgin inhaling the fragrance of the lily is the mystical conception of the Holy Child; but in reality are the powers descending by Breath and being absorbed by the soul according to his power to do so; his vibration of reception to receive and extract.

The Breath of life is as one of the six senses; and idea is extracted from Nnu and begins to take form under the care of Neith or Martha, then it enters into the womb of Mary, and even grows up in the night. By continually smelling of the lily it survives, because she further extracts the food required for it to live. The smelling of the lily is equal to going down into Egypt or being as an Elk; the animal searching for food amongst the barren frozen planes of avidya (ignorance).

Insufflation by elemental air brings suppuration if not spun up immediately into moist air; then this returns as dew from the awakened rational mind and becomes further infused by Solar life. Then the soul struck by the Uranian fire that became an idea, dashes wildly about to give it life, but usually more in egoism than conviction. This invariably upsets the whole cartel and all is placed into confusion by self-opinionation taking the lead.

With the smoking candle in one hand and self in the other the soul upsets the emotional waters, and all is poured over the foundation of the soul's creation. This is usually cleaned up by one of wisdom advising the soul the way to proceed when receiving of new life; but if no teacher is available, then it is cleaned up the hard way.

In the growth the first birth usually brings forth of a black Sut who is weak and poorly and ever crying for its mother to give it new life, or relief from the stifling atmosphere of the webbed-foot-goose (self-opinionated). But slowly the child is nurtured into strength and is taught to walk, act and create.

It is when the soul can receive of the white child in perfect balance that it becomes the Sage and Teacher; one where new life as the eucharist is ever poured over the dwindling life of humanity, for as one can bring new life into the world it feeds all, and is a matter of bringing the higher Law down into construction which changes the tenure of the plane. One soul can change a world overnight, although the world knoweth it not, as new thought uttered brings the change of tenure.

If the soul has studied and by mental contemplation infused its beliefs, it would learn to overcome the confusion that arises by the Uranian bolt striking and driving all into a state of rebellion or confusion. The striking by the lightning shaft splits the rock, which brings the lizards darting in and out of the crevices, causing the rains to pour and break up the rock; this begins to form another by the sediment being pounded into new life by the labouring that ensues. But no labouring, the rock remains as shifting sands until there is one who can discipline the lost soul.

THE MYSTICAL BIRTH OUT OF THE WATERS

MYSTERY, mystery, ever mystery, the birth from the Waters into life, for as the fusing of the fire interblends, will the mystical divinity, the glory of the mind, come forth as the fount and the mouth united. (See text in col. 1).

Thus air and water are the elements which give of new life and by these Mother Earth is sustained, bringing forth all living things. Therefore it can be understood why the Egyptians visualized Osiris as the personality of water renewal whereby he is shoreless, his throne in heaven, earth and Amenta, and all are balanced upon water.

This refers to the fourth house of Cancer, the earthing point of the Cancer Hierarchy in the Great Bear, where all is revived by man and sustained into new life by Mother Neith, the wet nurse of life. She who is at the Baptism of all beings and things and brings forth the rebirth of the Spirit; for it is by the power of water that the Child-Horus is given life.

Creating of the Spirit

SA meaning Spirit is a lake of spiritual matter whereby the seed as the Hammemat germ is brought into life; but the soul eagerly seeking must remember that there are always water denizens waiting to become embodied in favourable female elements through the process of desire, and in any shape and form through conversion and transformation.

This is further explained by those who only get dry air through not labouring in the blending of solar and lunar elements, they merely welter in the lunar only, living in old ideas. These will seize up like a pot that has blown, thus it will require another to induce air as respiration into the mouth of the new-born child before it can make movement. Thus this is a symbol of another giving of life by being able to make outpouring of the Holy Ghost or Grace, and is the power of giving Unction by blending solar and lunar and becoming spiritually translated.

All this was first-hand knowledge to the Ancient Egyptians but now lost to those souls in their present incarnation. This knowledge was in their Rituals and in abundance in such fertility as to have lasted all through the ages in continual rebirth, though at the present lost to complete explanation through lack of perfected translation.

(See plate in cols. 4 & 5)

Now all must be seeking complete rebound in relativity that in the unity awareness can burst forth of that which it once knew.

Although germs of souls came forth from Sa as children of Nnu, those that came forth from the Great Lake became the son Horus born from the Solar Fire impregnating the blood of his virgin mother. Thus blood was the latest of seven elements and produced the earliest human beings. Until then, the souls were not human but ethereal and their blood was opaque. Once red the soul becomes of human origin with haemoglobin coursing through the stream of life-producing water.

Then Neith as the vulture began eating up all the old states causing a Totem of personalized ascension beginning; for there was a continual adjustment of conditions for beginning to commence as a red fiery stream. The waters ripe for manhood as a red stream and not menstrual blood, but the pure bloodstream where the returning soul would ever be able to obtain the rudiments of life, and continue with the prototype of his own creation.

All this came forth after air, water, heat and vegetation had established the quantity in the soul, and the blood that came forth came from the female element, the Matriarchate as the virgin mind where no menstrual blood of desire existed. This was the pubescent virgin who became ready for marriage and ready to produce by the Father impregnating her, although he was not yet ready to come forth. Through this change the Mother became ready to be spermed by all her sons on earth. Thus Isis or Mary became the Mother of Gods and men, she also became the Pelican, who like the Phoenix, was continually reborn out of the ashes of life; even down to Cinderella and Martha the scullion.

In the eschatology a red mouse was zootype for the first soul of blood and became the symbolism in the Marchen of all Nations. This represents the diminutised state of all in the new beginning, but it does not alter the fact that the heart of a witch, jinn or giant gathered from a previous state of existence, was in that small creature of promise, but this began the sensitivity as a spirit germ, which in the first place took the form of fear. The former were states of the elements that had never manifested into something more soul-creative, all was wild and seductive in their elemental fury.

It was the soul being forced to enter into a pre-human existence of transmigration through the kingdoms in a soul receptacle that reincarnation came into being. It has been stated that "Every soul was created eternally before the foundation of the world," but really such wisdom was entirely Egyptian, for they came forth from Nnu and were the earliest of human creation, and only state of existence who have ever left tangible monuments for later generations.

Alchemicalisation Within

SOULS were not individualized and possessing of personal identity, but were elemental souls with the basic of the seven natures all ready for productive creation into the Gold intended for Destiny.

Therefore the individualizing by duad alternation with the personal creation was the potential winnowing and threshing floor for David the King to set the road for the Messu. It was on this road that the soul gathered its ancestors and became one with the wise one. "Hail ye chief ancestors of Ra" declares the "Wise old Man" the knower of all, now with the "open mouth".

Yet here we establish and cause another point to come forth. If all are born and produced from the elements so that the elements produce their creation in form, those that have evolved into manhood are related by blood and origin to the animal world; thus are brothers. It is the raising up of the animal creation that individualizes the Norm or virgin creations; and when Sut has swallowed the crocodiles, he arrives at the gate of heaven to open its scrolled doors to its own master soul, and dissolves into the train of entry. Then the soul is in complete unity without fray or feather.

Slowly all have been drawn in time after time, an ever repeating pattern, for unless the whole consciousness of blood is offered as belief and purpose, oneness cannot be accomplished. If not brought to a completeness it is not a substantial weight of evidence and the ghouls are apt to return and worry. Personality states that are mastered by solid will are ghosts and possess superhuman powers; but always on whatever plane you manifest the soul growth is to the extent of what you can resist or sacrifice, as dead states limit the extension of the soul creation.

In the beginning the soul was drawing on Neptune powers, but now its food and strength came forth from the Sun and Moon interblended and bringing forth the Godhead within. But the soul cannot worship God any higher than his own king, and the more he makes oblation to that God does he sacrifice himself and raise up God.

SACRED RITUAL OF THE PAST

AS the priest prepared the altar the goddess came forth, that she could offer up her maiden love to the heavenly gods in the heights. Thereby draw down into the depths the mystical Waters of the Hosts and give new life to the Earth. (See text in col. 2).

This begins a bargaining between Satan and god, black Sut and royal Congo, until the king of Congo gradually becomes Divine Horus with the white radiant light. Yet it must be seen that all this time there have been changes ensuing with species, tribes and mind consciousness. When all becomes conclusive the Christ light radiates forth to go down into Hell once again to save the Beast of Creation.

If you are not conclusive how can you radiate your point. Word is the means of serpent force and becomes the alchemical force within the man after all fears have subsided. The pioneer is driven out through elemental powers being propitiated by mode of abstraction, and the soul's solicitation becomes his advocation, not the mode of the signs. With the triumph of his conquest he becomes the wearer of the Atef crown, receives of blessings and is directed as to how he can "spit" his "venom" into the face of those ready. He is Atum acquiring the perfected man.

In the journey towards this completeness much water has flowed under the bridge, and all remains as the basic current of the bloodstream until the soul can bring the innocents to absorption in assumption. But on that journey there are those on the first plane of abstraction who believed that people came from the sun, others from the rain, or from a tree, but although man only remembers a male progenitor, the Mother was the sole bringer forth on all stages of creation.

Thus it has always been seen that Mary was the Mother of God; and even where we have the knowledge of Cain and Abel the first repellants, the Egyptians had the story of the Two Brothers as the sons Hapi. So there is nothing new in present day creation, or that modern man can bring forth that did not exist in the beginning.

Many may discard this as a state of imagination of things that never existed. How can the origin of his Spirits and gods be imagination when the elemental powers, which were his external creation, are the basic of his own personal gods? Man could not imagine them for they were and still are his own cognition born from seed, his having become taught by consistency of experience. Why not the mantis, hawk, ram and lion being Royal creatures on some other plane of existence, that when they reached the earthplane and sank into Abyss vibration —which was the trend taken by Destiny—they became as creatures of Nature?

Since they seem to be the sole intent in the mode of transmigration, and we understand that Sut the Hippopotamus has to open the Gates for the entire retinue to enter, with his disappearance into immediately it is performed, we cannot but accept the fact that Animal form is something far more intrinsic than it appears on the surface. And why are we told that the Beast comes before the Throne? Have we to thank Churchianity for this?

Even the tree has come under this categeory, for we find that certain tribes made offerings to the ghost or spirit of the Bila-tree. Then again the Egyptians accepted female forms emerging from trees and even dispensing blessings. But then in gnosticism we understand of the soul growth as a tree growing its branches and leaves, and dropping its seeds. While Hathor and Nut, who impersonated the divine Mother in the tree, were the dispensers of food and drink provided by Mother-earth. Rannut was the goddess of Nature-life which became seen as a serpent power sloughing through the under-growth.

Then there was the deep mystery of the corn-spirit, and you find Philae the god of corn represented with stalks of corn springing from his mummy. But this has much to do with the papyrus plant or the branch of endless years, yet there is no reason why we should not seek into its mode of activity and ask of its mystery.

THE GRADUAL AWARENESS OF DIVINITY

SOUL building up the glories of his mind, ever opening up the inner reality of the depths that was eventually to become the glory of the FACE. For God is only known to each soul individually as he himself raises that glory within his own mind. (See text on page 12, col. 4).

THE HEALING COLUMN

THIS month we received a rather desperate letter from a Mr. D. M. of Nottingham, in which he appealed for our help to right the mess that the medical profession had made, after operating on him. Here again we see the 'stoned' minds of the doctors, only seeing man as a piece of flesh to be dissected and experimented on at their pleasure. Truly they are the reborn Butchers of Crete, glorying in all their soul destroying actions, but with the changing of the Laws this terrible state of affairs will be forced into change. Quite how this will happen we are not sure, but HAPPEN IT WILL, so we must just be patient a little longer, until that sure day of reckoning arrives.

A Cist on Foot

Mrs. M. K., Chicago, U.S.A.

"...Had cist on my left foot removed by operation, but ever since have had recurring pains with it.

FROM this chart (1195) it can be seen that Pisces is upon the 6th house, the house of health. This sign rules the feet but there are no planets actually in the 6th, therefore should not be anything too serious. However Jupiter, the ruler of Pisces, is retrograde and in the 8th house, while your Moon is in Libra in the 12th house.

This augurs the fact that you are very down to earth in your outlook, and you must raise your mind up to the highest degree of spiritual expansion. Also your Path of Destiny is in the 11th house, that of the spirit, which indicates that you came back into this life that through this life's personality you could awaken your higher mind. Your Sun in Sagittarius and Jupiter in Gemini both indicate the winging of the mind in the deeper world teachings.

I do not feel that there is anything seriously wrong with your foot, but I do feel that unless you bring expansion to your mind and come out of the lower personality rut, you could find difficulties taking place later on. This would most probably manifest as a befogged state of the mind, when really it is the hope of all of us to have and retain an alert mind in the years ahead. Marigold Flowers have been sent but I would also suggest you took some Lily of the Valley, Eyebright and Buchu herbs, for these will help bring a clarity of mind and will help you to take a greater interest in the deeper thought.

Complications of Sinus Trouble

Mrs. W. J., Norfolk.

"I have had sinus trouble in the right cheekbone for many years, and which affected the eye. Since receiving healing it is noticably improved, and still getting better."

THIS is one of the most common complaints with mankind today, and the whole world would benefit considerably if everyone was to be thoroughly swilled out with cleansing herbs, especially Buchu, for with all the MUCK of concocted foods that are being advertised upon the Television and wayside posters, it is a wonder to me that the whole world is not rotting in its bed.

Looking at this particular chart (796) it can be seen that the 6th house is rather heavily filled. The Sun in this house would normally lower the vitality, but being in Scorpio with Mercury does enhance the position, and again this would be helped by Jupiter in the 5th house, which would give untold energy and expansive fire.

I would suggest, with so many planets in the 6th house, that you make every endeavour to raise your mind up as high as you possibly can by the study of the deeper mysteries, for you are ripe and ready with Uranus in the 9th house to start expansion.

As I write this I am seeing before me a strong linking with Medo-Persia, and looking more closely at the chart I see you have Taurus upon the 1st house, which does of course link with the Medo-Persian period. My advice to you is to make the most of your planets that are just waiting for activity, which, with your Path of Destiny in the house of service, should always be used with the idea of service ever in your mind.

Do watch your nervous system, keep the bloodstream clean, and, with Mars in the 6th house, avoid any sort of operation or hospital treatment, for this is a bad position for Mars to be in, especially with Saturn in the 12th house and retrograde. But all these planets, if used for expansion of the mind, will bring untold benefit to Mrs. J., especially if, as I have just said, they are put to a point of service as indicated by her Path of Destiny.

Blood Poisoning

Mrs. B. B., London.

THE owner of this chart (no. 1164) has been to the School for healing, as a result of having drugs prescribed for a throat condition, and which affected the pituitary gland and caused poisoning of the bloodstream. We cannot stress strongly enough, NEVER under any conditions take drugs, for they are only the concoctions of unbalanced minds and are the quickest way for the soul to bring chaos to their inner bodies, and to kill off any spiritual advancement whatsoever.

Mrs. B. must always be careful where the bloodstream is concerned, for Uranus being in the 6th house would indicate unusual happenings where this is concerned, but this is only the mundane aspect to the chart. From the esoteric point of view Uranus in the 6th in Aries and conjunct to Venus which is retrograde, would indicate that this soul must give some deep thought to the opening up of their mind, especially as the Sun is in the 7th house, which points to the fact that the soul would find it very difficult to make a change of law, they prefering to remain in their old status. This is verified by Saturn in the 3rd house of Capricorn, the soul fixed in a mundane mind outlook.

Jupiter and Mercury both down the 8th house is all a part of this difficulty and from a health standpoint a rigid diet and a continual infusion of herbs is really quite necessary. With the Path of Destiny in the 10th house this soul should have been preparing for service, for Neptune in Leo so high in the chart, although being retrograde, would give them what we call the superluminary bridge, and one that could bring them untold wisdom.

If the obligations of the chart are not carried out, some time or another the health will be affected, for when we come back we only do so on the understanding that we carry out our promises. If not, this would make the soul minus the fire that would come with an active mind project. It is no good us saying when we pass over that we were too busy or we had this to do, or that to do, the spirit world are rigid taskmasters and do not see the illusionary responsibilities of the Earth, but only the true responsibilities of the spirit. It is up to every soul to decide which they are going to hold to.

But to return to this particular chart, Mrs. B. must try not to allow the mind to keep too much upon the mundane plane, but rise up as high as possible onto the highest Neptunian thought. This is most important as her Path of Destiny is conjunct to Neptune in the 10th house, the house of service, indicating that she should be drawing down wisdom from these divine heights and bringing light to the world, and in this way would she be serving mankind and fulfilling the task she came back to do.

I note from her letter that Mrs. B. has purchased our Astrological Dictionary in order to glean some information herself from the chart. This is a good pointer, showing that she is bringing activity to her mind, but while upon this subject, I would thoroughly also recommend the two sets of lectures upon Esoteric Astrology, which can be found in the Elementary Series, and which are invaluable to anyone who is beginning Astrology, being a step by step guidance through all the different aspects of the chart and its influences, with very many practical demonstrations. For practical information upon the basic understanding of astrology I can guarantee that these two sets combined just cannot be beaten!

Medical Madness

Mr. D. M. Worksop, Notts.

"I have been advised to write to you in the hope that you and your Spirit Guides will be able to help me. Since birth, I have never at any time had the full use of my hands, as the fingers contracted; of late I have had operations on the left hand to open the fingers, and it has now become so septic that the doctors are trying to make me have the hand and part of the arm off, as they say that it is the only way to save myself. Every time the hand is dressed, septic simply runs and drips from the hand, so you will realise what a mess I am in. I am refusing to have the hand off, as I still have faith that it can be saved. Can you please do all possible to help me, and I place myself fully in your hands to receive treatment, herbs, or whatever you suggest.

I do hope, Mrs. Spearman-Cook, that you can help me, as I am finding it most difficult to carry on, and also to hold out against the doctors."

IN looking into this chart (1225) it is plainly marked what is your difficulty Mr. M. You have Sun, Saturn and Venus all in the 12th house, two in Pisces and one in Aries, which clearly indicates that for many lives you have been noncreative. Wealth in abundance, oh yes, but you have not moved any of it by returning to the Hosts active, expansive atoms. Consequently you came back with Uranus in the 1st house, and which has taken its toll.

You really have a very profound chart, but all tarnished, for Mars and Jupiter are in

HEALING PRAYER

AGAIN we bring before Thee these children who seek of Life, who ask to be helped, but have yet to learn the Mighty Secret of giving their heart and being to the Spirit that can lift them up out of the depths of captivity. This we seek in Thy Name.

Amen.

Readers' Letters

We were very pleased this month to receive the letter from Mrs. E. Melbourne of Laindon, Essex. This gives an example of how the Word can be spread by our readers. It may seem a slow process but as can be seen by her letter, it can also be a very rewarding one. If all our readers made it their job to spread the Teachings, ignoring the rebuffs that might come their way, then as a unified driving unit of pure heart purpose, a great deal of good could be achieved, and in a very short period. This is where the reader can judge if they are merely taking the Wisdom and storing it as knowledge, or whether it has become a heart-born conviction within them, that they are determined to spread abroad, no matter what others may think of them. We certainly hope Mrs. Melbourne will spread her glad tidings, and so, in her small way, become an active agent for the School and its Teachings.

Rewards of the Teachings

Mrs. A. Smart, Billericay, Essex.

Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

Although I have not been able to get over to the School for a time, I do hope to resume my visits, along with my husband, in the near future, to which we are both looking forward. Meanwhile I feel that I am most certainly deriving benefit through Absent Healing. The time is fast approaching when I know that my back will be strong again and no longer will I have to live with the pain, despite the fact that I have had a weak back now for twentyeight years. I am in fact, improving in every possible way, confidence is once more asserting itself, and I am rejoicing in the fact that I now feel a different person.

I would request that concentration be directed upon my eyes for cataract, although I must say the condition does not worry me, I just consider it a nuisance.

My husband is making good progress in every direction. He now feels his confidence returning, slowly, but very surely. He has found no need to wear the collar again with regard to the slipped disc, and any ache or pain relative to this, he is able to mentally suggest that it goes, and succeeds every time.

We are both finding a new interest in life again and who can ask for more than this? Our sincere regards to you, and all our friends at The School.

Mrs. E. Melbourne, Laindon, Essex.

A S.U.P.H. Miracle

Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

I must write and tell you what has happened to me since Christmas. Although only a matter of a few weeks, I have made a complete recovery from chronic bronchitis, and after eight years duration, that is to me nothing but a miracle —hence the heading to my letter. I do offer my fervent gratitude to you and all concerned.

To begin with, I despaired of ever seeing the winter through. I am 64 years of age and the cough was taking a terrible toll of my strength. Now I am happy to say that I am confident that I shall now see the glorious Spring this year, and many more to come.

Let me tell you how I first heard of your wonderful School of Healing. I was sitting in a 'bus, the first Wednesday after Christmas, and was subject to an all too frequent spasm of coughing, and searching frantically in my bag for my medicine, having to take it more frequently than I was supposed to. This attack, like all the others, left me breathless. Then when I recovered a little, a man who was sitting behind me, offered his sympathy and suggested in such a matter of fact and confident tone, that he could help me if I so wished. I thank Divine Providence that I accepted. He then told me all about your School of Healing, gave me a Healing Prayer, and took my name and address to be put in your Absent Healing book. In a few days, he said, he would obtain the herbs necessary for my complaint. Furthermore, until he could contact you, he suggested that I should believe that I would sleep soundly from that night on. To my amazement and utter relief, I have slept well. My appetite has now returned and I am happy the whole day long.

I know that I have been receiving help from you all, and I am only too thankful that I had the Faith in you to help me. I shall never forget you, and it is my wish that one of these days I could come and see you personally.

P.S. Please continue the Wonderful Healing until I am a little more used to this new and wonderful way of life.

Mrs. Maud Wigle, Mesa, U.S.A.

I am cheating with a personal word to myself, but do think it will be forgiven, for it may well warm your heart. You send me 13 copies per month, some do seem to fall on fallow ground . . . some have written to you and ordered several herbs and lessons and aids. One who has ordered (I believe several lessons), but has had financial trials and can't get all he wishes . . . I loaned him some of mine, and especially "Mythologies." His note to me re these lessons (lectures) is being enclosed in this letter. May it add to your many encouragements.

The note of thanks to Mrs. Wigle.

Dear Friends,

I wish to thank you beyond all gratitude for the loan of Rev. Cook's (Mrs. Spearman-Cook's) lectures. I have finished 5 thus far, they are THE GREATEST WRITINGS I have ever read in their power and understanding. I would say that nothing their equal has ever been written for the souls and minds of man. If you require these lessons (Lectures) before I can finish reading these, I will return them.

Mrs. J. Snelling Watkins, Highcliffe-on-Sea.

I feel I must write and thank you and your wonderful helpers for the treatment at the Sanctuary. It was just like a great "Dynamo" when the treatment was started. The power was so great—the pains in my head were very bad but I asked the whole time for the strength and power to overcome, and saw myself only as a pure spiritual being and that I was not to register any pain, which is just what happened.

Today after a good night's sleep I look and feel much better. Most swellings gone down around eyes. After doing a few simple Yogi breathing exercises a lot of "Ropey" and almost black mucus came away which you seemed to have moved. I did mention that there was a stoppage or congested state at back of nose and throat.

Perhaps I need another treatment to really clear that condition which would be more beneficial than leaving it too long. You know of course unless we are also physically balanced we cannot serve. So therefore it is of great urgency to me to be so.

I wonder if you could get Mrs. Spearman-Cook to say what the herbs were I had yesterday in case I would like to renew them. Thank you. Stamped and addressed envelope to save a little of your valuable time.

Again my most deep and sincere thanks to each and all. Bless you and the Great Work.

Mrs. E. P. Perez, El Paso, U.S.A.

It's a pleasure to write to you again in order to renew my wonderful Gazette and to thank God and our Master The Lord Maitreya for the wonderful work you have done. My family is just fine specially the one for whom I asked healing, he is studying hard and working hard too, but still we all ask of you your healing. God alone knows why my children are believers, and they are doing their best not to fail us.

We love you and may God bless you all.

Mrs. H. M. G. Pouliot, Montreal, Canada.

I'm overjoyed to say that the Occult Gazette has arrived and I'm enjoying some very outstanding and wholesome reading. Each O.G. that comes seems to surpass the other. May the Powers Beyond bless each and everyone associated with these Teachings, who in any way help to send out this dynamic paper to the far corners of the earth, and homage and love to Zamiaar who IS the long awaited Saviour of the world today.

Mrs. Heydenreich, Kansas, U.S.A.

The Marigold infusion certainly helped my feet. I am very grateful. Blessings on all of you for this year of '67. May all of the children born of Light shine brighter, is my prayer. I too, want to thank you for sending back my chart. I can understand why I have had so many difficulties in this present life. Please continue sending out your loving thoughts my way. They have helped so much.

HEALING

the 7th house, that of reborn law, and both are retrograde, so Uranus struck and you never replied, and it could only strike you in the one place that refused to work, your hands, for your Moon, your creative faculty, is in Gemini, which rules the hands and arms. With four Water signs you would be very fond of lunar and negative states, that is, your Sun and Saturn in Pisces would fall to the Pisces weakness, comfort and desire.

I am sorry the delineation has had to be so direct but you obviously want the truth, and this I must give at all costs. Your Neptune in Virgo in the 6th house is also retrograde and that is the house of sickness, but if you had put all of this into creative ability it would have been amazing what could have been brought forth.

However, you are only a young man of 32 years, and something must be done for you. I know it is easy to talk and advise people under these circumstances to do this and to do that, but it is a different matter for the owner of the disability. But anyway, this going into the Gazette might perhaps make a few of our readers think and help some of them to get moving, so in a roundabout way that, at least, is one good point in your favour.

The only real advice I can offer to you is as much activity of your mind as possible, under your handicap, but do not think that I speak without a certain amount of understanding, for at the present moment, owing to the weight of my Scapegoat responsibilities, my legs have become affected, and I have to live entirely by the activity of my mind, and struggle as best I can with my disability of the moment. So I do understand what severe restriction means, but I walked into mine with my eyes open, you came back to Earth with your eyes closed in this life.

The answer to all this lies in your courage to fight and come out by will and determination, and put as much effort as possible into mental creation.

Why not now turn your mind to deep mystical study where you will be able to open up all your past hidden wealth, for the other side to your chart is that mystical wealth that you have hidden in your depths, otherwise you would never have had Uranus in the 1st house. This is a very severe place to have this drastic planet, and unless he is worked to the fullest degree he takes his toll—but you did put him there in your previous life and he could still return you his wealth.

We have sent MARIGOLD FLOWERS to bathe the hand with, and BUCHU and VIOLET to cleanse the bloodstream, but would also suggest that the early lectures, those of the Elementary and Introductory Series, would be invaluable to Mr. M., to help him in his entry into the mystical studies.

EGYPTIAN MYSTERIES

Creation Called Life Part 6

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

TOTEMISM SO VOLUBLY EXPOUNDED IN THE PREVIOUS ARTICLE, GIVES us the opportunity to continue with the knowledge of Fetishism. Many forms of opinion have left much erroneous understanding regarding the primitives' theory of this practice. The young mind ever had to be reminded of that which they were upholding, and an article of form became to them as a divine reminder. In the same way as a cross erected or worn, once gave the wearer a sense of protection from all things evil, an amulet brought power, thus fetishism was a mode of sign-language which supplied a tangible means of gaining hold of power that was superhuman. Yet we must not underestimate what power this had, for the article in its mode of creation would have the influence within its form to obtain the power that was to be passed onto the owner. Thus the cross within itself became a protective amulet and stored up power. These were eventually worn to protect and aid, and hold still a very strong influence on human lives. This is still very strongly in the bloodstream as a psychic influence, for during the latter stages such things as crosses, rosaries and religious monuments were strongly in vogue.

The Transmutation of Powers into Light

AT the time of the primitive unfoldment it drew enormous power into the tribes, which resulted in intense fetishism for warriors and witch doctors to build up power whereby to conquer the neighbouring tribes. Therefore when they went into action they held rituals around their Totem covered with fetishes, and carried them into battle. But apart from this, those of the Astral planes, especially the Manes as discarnate souls, or blood brothers belonging to those of the tribe, receiving growth also.

There is nothing more potent than to fly as swiftly as a swallow, or soar through the air as solar fire of the golden hawk. Thus they became strengthened by all formulæ incantation, for they filled themselves with lunar light as well as morbidism belonging to Saturn. This was so potent and of which they were fully aware, that when a corpse was buried with its amulets, it was known for its grave to be rifled and the amulets stolen. It was not their value they were seeking, but their amulet power.

One very special amulet was the eye; for the solar eye by day represented Horus, but by night Taht the lunar. In more degenerate tribes the eyes of the dead were stolen as a great medicine. But even now the eyes bear great witness as to a soul's growth and unfoldment, for if the right eye is in anyway faulty in its sight, it denotes the lack of growth. If the eyes are crossed it points to the fact that the soul is belated in some way or another by karmic tendency.

Having expounded of the mystical side of form, let us enter onto a deeper side of the subject of human growth. The powers by which man has grown, and have been drawn unto him by the rituals, are the Elemental powers that have become divinized, and are superhuman Powers. Attached to man are his human ancestors which are better known as his personalities, those which he has created life after life. The Gods are those who originated in the primordial powers derived from external Nature, and became the celestial Heptanomis, the Seven Planetary Powers.

The human spirit or personality is the ghost of man, also the many ghosts that become attached as beads on a string. In Egyptian mythology these were known as the Manes, and ever remained attached to man until he could draw them into the life-blood as involved creation, to finally stand as a oneness. It is these that cause man so much trouble through his life, and often manifest during the life, overriding the present personality and causing the soul to become completely changed.

THE SPIRIT AWAITING REBIRTH

SUCH beauties belong to the past, such glories often go unknown, yet the bloodlife of every soul and the wealth waiting to come forth as the Waters purge the thirsty Earth. For here we see spirit awaiting the moment when man will seek to give her the glory that will bring forth the wonders of divinity. (See text in col. 5).

The Egyptian Gods vary from the Greek that are so well known to students of astrology, and whereby the soul of darkness was called Sut in Egyptian, in Greek he was Saturn. Shu was the soul of air of breathing in Mercury, while Seb as the soul of earth was Venus. Nnu as the soul of water is the Moon, with Ra as the Sun and Horus as the soul of light in Jupiter. Then finally Apap was the dragon of Fire in Mars.

What we have to firmly understand is that man did not make his images in his own likeness, but was moulded and formed by the Gods and Nature-powers. And further more neither did he make his Gods in his own image but became imaged unto his Gods to finally emerge forth in the image of the one God, the great Logos. So having ascertained of the Gods, we must not forget Apap the devouring reptile.

Darkness is something only known to man in his present understanding as night, but to the primitive, darkness was something he had emerged out of literally and gained of strength from, hence Mars as will. A fog state that dissolved and became light as the Solar light manifested, and this was as man became more and more much in its early stages. When light did break through, man had fully emerged from the old world into the new where form predominated. Previously it was the Garden of Eden as the world of Atlantis, the demi-god state. Then as they sank into chaos a new world had to be organized, and one on a lesser basic with the final as the Fall. From here soul would become man as Spirit and matter merging, as well as a polarity of light and darkness, good and evil.

God and man becoming united; yet little did man know that his journey to the Abyss was to conquer the monster of Darkness, the swallower of light; the Great Ogre of the North, for he had not of soul in his body, therefore could not become except by man overcoming him and turning him into beauty.

Then there was the spawn of darkness, drought and disease; these too must be mastered and brought to life by love, and the only creature to perform this was man, the hero and conqueror of LIFE; for that was the reward of being created in the image of God—the Divine Logos. The key to all of this was in the twelve feats of Hercules being conquered, and then man was as "one of us".

The Hierarchial Descent

ONCE man could prepare himself by serious thought, and love-giving action tempered with Justice and Truth, then he could be the temple for the Great Ones to descend and survey the circumference mastered and divinely manifesting. It would be these who would bring perfected life into the extreme of being, fresh air in the stagnant stillness, but there had to be prepared vessels to receive them, bodies of Christos life manifestation.

So man in the main has been brought to his present state by religion, that he can be drawn towards the heights, his religion beginning with his Totem belief and gradually opening up to greater depths of consciousness within his own being. Then by the seed of awareness stirring, the entry began of the Avatars blood bringing slow unity with the heights. Thus the seed and mode of becoming in the future is via a School of pointed study and guidance. This is the beginning of fulfilling the annunciation of "on this Rock I build my Church". But in reality only a continuation of what began as a prototype in the beginning when Nebhau Kau began the Temple worship of Phallic love.

THE RAISING OF THE KUNDALINI FIRE UNTO THE HEIGHTS BY DETERMINED WILL AND POINT PURPOSE, TEMPERED AND BOUND WITH PRINCIPLES AS OF BANDS OF STEEL.

Man in reaching his destined path found all as predicted by the differentiation, but on tasting of that life found the honey too alluring and allowed the wicked Sebau to guide him. The chaos really was caused by Seb and Sebau in embryo fighting for supremacy; Sebau won for the time being and emotional desire became the mode of generation. Thus Mother earth devised sex as being the bringer forth to comply with the soul's way of approach to the journey it now must take.

First she began by feeding them on elemental powers and forces such as wind, water, and fire; then when these had served their purpose she called upon the Divine Ones to help her divinize that produced, and she as the Mother of God brought forth the Gods of Elemental being who became the Logos; that Begotten by Immaculate Conception.

These are the powers divinized in the Kamite Pantheon and the beginning of the Solar System of becoming; that which would produce a mind
