SOLAR INVULNERABILITY

The Heralder of Spring

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook*

AS THE WAY BEGAN TO DAWN, new life began to grow, for all was set for the month of Abib, the time of the green shooting ears. When young shoots would begin to come forth from the labour of yesterday, where man as a much wiser creature begins to look up and think. He now knew that it was he who laboured, not the man twixt others, but he who bent his back to the plow, and rose above the soil. His task was to break the sod and command its inner growth, that he could bring forth the solar life out of its reborn effort. His own sod as earth to water, then air and fire as the risen struggle against Nemesis, bringing himself out of the rut he had dug himself into.

As he did so Mother Earth would begin to churn, dance and rejoice, for as man became so she became, both a replica of one another. No more melancholia, they were days of yesterday, for Father Vulcan had touched each son with the magic light. That which would bring forth the magic carpet, the chariot to carry them through the air and which would portray many oriental wonders that would reveal its wonder in Space.

The Year of the Solar Light

SO as the height of the year broke through, the pinnacle point of Invulnerability, the Solar Sun rose and fell, but only low in the Northern sky. It was the time of Father Christmas when the snows must come, covering the green Earth with possible new life from the world of beyond. Life coming forth from out of the agonies of rebirth, which is the way of life, as though it wanted not to face the struggle of meeting itself once again. Face to face in solemn struggle of what was, and must invariably be. The soul now ready for the first passover from the rebirth of time, where Vulcan had come down from his heights to grace the world of rhyme. Where man stated facts and brought them forth and proved that they could climb. But furthermore, could sprout and grow, giving life and strength to the world of men.

MYSTERY OF THE PASSOVER

AS the way passed over from old into the new, the soul after years of struggle bowed in awe at the glories he had accrued in the intensity of his own internal being. Divinity, divinity, the solar glories of the heavens. (See text on page 5, col. 3).

Editorial .. .. The Age of Freedom

THIS now is a time when man should be systematically cutting away all the earthly states that have been holding him a prisoner in the depths of illusion. He should be seeking the freedom of the heights, through his dancing mind of spiritual vision and intent, whereby he lives only in his mind ; God-born, and ever seeking a greater understanding of that great Divine Consciousness that is manifesting through him. Yet when we look around at the conditions prevailing today, it is quite obvious that the freedom that man has sought for, has only been for the purpose of increasing his delights and inertia. He has sought to free himself from all responsibilities on all levels, whether to man or Spirit, and now finds himself completely lost, diseased and, in a vast majority of cases, drug-ridden as well.

A good example of this is in the turmoil within the roman catholic church at the present moment. Priests of all positions are clamouring for reforms and demanding their right to express themselves freely, whether they are in line with the official policy or not. However, once again they are putting all into operation in the negative, seeking for earthly freedom and not that of the Spirit.

The one obvious case that immediately comes to mind, is that of celibacy, and which Mrs. Spearman-Cook has dealt with in her Reminiscences of this month. Here we see priests seeking wisdom from the severe restrictions of the past, but only from a mundane point of view, never with a greater spiritual purpose in mind.

* * * *

HERE, in England, on March 11th, catholics held a protest gathering in Westminster Cathedral "to remember those who have been silenced in the church." This was a clear reference to the two clerics, Fathers Davis and McCabe, who have recently voiced their disgust at the corruptness of the church. Two days later the same association who had organised the protest meeting, held a four hour "teach-in" at which all points of view would be welcome, or so they said before the meeting started. The topic under discussion was "Freedom of Speech."

As we were not far away from where the meeting was to be held, members of the School decided to join the gathering and distribute the Occult Gazette to those attending. We arrived just before the session reached its half-way stage, in time to hear Father McCabe make a rather ineffective speech against the church, in which he tried to be witty, but only succeeded in looking as ridiculous as the black and white "petticoat" he was wearing. When he had finished, the audience were then given a chance to put forward their own views upon the subject, and which they readily did.

We were then treated to a most unexpected sight of catholics flinging angry taunts at each other, each accusing the other of being a communist, or in league with communist secret societies ! Not forgetting the glorious moment when an irate and frustrated Scotsman, ex-communist of course, denounced all the appointed speakers as a "load of rabble." If any more proof was needed of the catholic schism, it was certainly to be seen that night. However, peace descended once again as a timid little woman mumbled a few incoherent words into the microphone and then departed as quickly as she had come.

* * * *

THE chairman then looked enquiringly around the hall and asked if there was anyone else who would like to speak. Feeling this was too good an opportunity to be missed, I took advantage of his offer and walked up to the microphone. Although, with about six hundred catholics staring straight at me, I might have expected to feel somewhat nervous, I found this was not the case, and felt sure that I was being filled with extra power from some other source.

This was later verified by Mrs. Spearman-Cook, who said she had felt a very heavy pull upon her at about the time in question. I do not know quite what the audience were expecting me to say, but I am sure that they were completely unprepared for what followed.

Looking straight at them I said that, "If the roman catholic church were to concentrate more upon the Godhead and less upon contraceptive pills and the supporting of the Sodomy Bill, then they might be of more use to the community, and that if the pope was receiving divine guidance upon such matters, then surely it was taking a hell of a long time for the message to come down and reach him."

The reaction to this from the audience was one of wide-eyed amazement, with some, not seeming to worry about the reference to the pope, even having a laugh at his expense. Finding myself still in front of the microphone, I proceeded further.

" I believe in a LIVING GOD, and not a dead, mythological figure stuck up upon a cross."

This immediately caused a stir amongst the audience, with some irate members crying out "Stop him," and "Put him out."

Ignoring their friendly advice I continued, "It is sheer mythology, there never has been a Jesus Christ, and I defy any of you to produce any evidence to show that such a figure ever existed. It is merely an excuse for catholicism to build up money and power."

By now there were a good many voices raised in protest, the majority crying out "Stop him." Once again, seeing that no one yet was attempting to move me from my position, I looked straight at them and continued. "And also, those of the Vatican might be of more use, if they dug into their own vast coffers to pay for the flood relief in Venice and Florence, instead of waiting for those to pay, who were in a far less fortunate position than they themselves."

This, however, was too much for that happy band gathered around, and the next moment a hand tapped me upon the shoulder, and the chairman, in a most annoyed tone, asked me to leave. Not wishing to hurt the poor man's feelings, I thanked him warmly for allowing me to take advantage of his Freedom of Speech, and then bade him a fond "Goodnight."

* * * *

NOT quite knowing how to take this, the reaction from the audience was varied—some laughed, some scowled, and others merely spluttered angrily over their rosaries. With such a grand response from their midst, I handed out a few Occult Gazettes on the way out, and left them to their frolics.

Amusing though this little episode may have been, it has merely been used as an example of how the inflowing Waters are causing the priests to seek for freedom, but as yet they are only perceiving all in the negative, and not seeking the freedom and expansion of the Spirit.

This is why McCabe's speech was so weak, with him giving the impression of being almost a "milksop." He had not the power of the Spirit behind him, and was only speaking and acting from an intellectual angle. Until he finds a true purpose of spiritual intent, I am afraid he will get nowhere, for he is merely running around on a mundane level, and never bringing anything to a solar point of Oneness and Truth.

This IS the Age of Freedom, but freedom of the mind, with the soul casting Saturn to the winds and becoming born of an elevated frequency. It is NOT the Age of Free Licence, where the soul can wallow in the depths of the lower desires.

HE MUST SEVER THE BONDS THAT HAVE BEEN HIS HERITAGE SINCE THE FALL, AND RISE UP AS AN ETHEREAL SOUL, BORN OF IMMORTALITY, AND CLAIM HIS DIVINE BIRTHRIGHT ; THAT WHICH, THROUGH THE STRUGGLES OF MEROPE, IS AT LONG LAST ONCE MORE WITHIN HIS GRASP IF HE WILL BUT MAKE THE EFFORT TO BECOME.

Now owing to a Scapegoat's labours, much water had passed under the bridge, bringing more activity, change and grace to the YEAR of SOLAR LIGHT. For the passover now lying ahead, would either pass you up or down, e'en though he passed you through. Not as before, falling down the deep gulley where hordes of deformed creatures lived, but over the bridge up the hill, or down into the valley below. One was up on the slopes of light, where the sun warmed the earth, the other in the valley below, where light was low and dim. One was of the heights, the other of the depths, one reborn of Solar life spinning up to the Central Sun, the other labouring in the fields to learn the way of agriculture. How to plow, reap and mow, by serving one with another. Giving and taking, breaking and making in perfection and not careless destructibility.

With the world now united in Solar light, every soul had to pass this gate, where stern measures were laid out for men and maids alike. As both could now receive of the fertility Grace from the world above. By seeking into the way of the Word, it leads you to the heights; the way of unfolding the young mind out of the throes of yesterday, for now there was no other bent but labour hard to find. How to get up onto the hill, where the crops were strong and sturdy, with the harvest full and plenty, the hope of every true husbandman.

No longer was it a matter of craft and guile, where one took all the creme and pulse through the chance potting the red, but where law and law alone judged from a stern disciplinary angle. For now, all was atomicised from Vulcan's pitchblende sparks, where all adhered and blended in to the very full. For all the time the way was up, e'en though you sat below. The world now in its reborn gait, was spinning up to the heavens, polarising as it went; with depths and heights uniting up in the Solar Invulnerability.

The soul ever seeking and struggling to bring forth the Rhythm of the Spheres out of the past and present. For this is the wealth that now is the desire of all, the glory of the reborn mind. Perceptory awareness from the solar crowning, where light dances back and forth, opening up the stem from the roots and all bursting into light.

For what once was the Moabite depths and grew in the Taurean glory, now by the atomicised solar rebirth, can unfold wealth from outer Space, for all is polarity from the depths of what has been, to what can be, but can the soul span the width and bring it into light. The answer lies in the lachrymal apparatus, where the three old Graeae have become one; the one EYE of Polyphemus, the unfolding lord of the day. For around the (See plate page 4, cols. 3 & 4) pituitary, the Uranian striking horse, the whole edifice of life revolves. Turning yesterday into tomorrow, and darkness into light.

The great art lies in solving the root, and bringing to a blossoming tree, thus set the burning bush alight through the dancing serpent. This is where the centripetal and centrifugal dance of le Ros takes the soul up and down, and in and out of the cosmic planes ever remembering that what is of the Abyss, is HERE and NOW to the Cosmos. Form is merely the solidification, the outcome to Saturn and his wife. Therefore when man can capture states of frequency, he polarises by an act of unification, atomicising it into the electro-magnetic. For the electro dynamic force within the soul, spins it up into a radiant force of unfolding light.

The Mind Intercalary

HENCE acts of will and determination, which bring the radiating result. The greatest difficulty is in getting the soul to make the zest and zeal, the firing pin of action.

Therefore as we go down deep into the depths of Merope, a fount far deeper than any other is there to be investigated. That ancient roots deep and mystical, could meet the equal in the heights; and there draw forth by unification, mighty Rhythm from the heights. Wealth that will set the world alight, and bathe it in unfolding waters; for with the Fires inborn into the soul, amazing light could burst forth.

Therefore the Solar invulnerability is the Solar Flame upon the mount, with the perceptory principle alight and active. All lunar states interblended and Uranus sparking with active manifestation of the atomicisation, now pulsating through the radiating soul. This makes the soul intact from a point of impregnability, for every gland and hormone faculty are uniting, making the soul intact. For it is a continual revolution that defies any form of penetration; an ever moving state of activation that revolutionises into a momentum of invulnerability.

By partaking of the Word and believing in such, is enough to set the ball rolling, driving the issue and spinning the coin, as the dynamo races into action. For this is but the single act to the Earth in its spinning motion; it drawing nearer and nearer to her Flaming Spouse. By this timelessness is the issue, and man can race a year in a day, for spinning spans from heights to depths in no mean way. Thereby coming back once again to zeal the firing pin, driving Pi the mystical action deep down into his revolving depths. For this is Archimedes' lever, bringing untold depths into birth, where the heights will shower forth of wonders, as Merope drives the Cosmic issue.

Up and down the planes she dances from depths to heights, weaving in and out of the strands like a flying bat. Knowing not what she can gather, but follows the instinct of her heart, the beating rhythm of holy measure. This is where the intercalary of the mind, through the argumentative twins, drives the action up to the heights, out into the Black night sky. Shooting right up to the Heavenly Spheres, where colour and sound have been superseded, perceiving the realms of longtitudinal heights, where glory is waiting revealment. Only Word is gathered here by the perceptory faculty of the soul.

The glandular system of the lachrymal apparatus the spinning hub of the soul. This is the glory of the "Sky weeping gods," unfolding the wonders of the heavens, for as the soul unearths the depths, they are matched to meet the Titans. This is the mystery of the war between earth and heaven, where the gods cast down of boulders to keep off the intruding depths, as they send their shafts up high.

LOST WONDERS OF THE PAST

WONDERS and mysteries which only belonged to the past, which man today has lost through worldliness and derision, in order that he can build up a bank substantiability, but here we see wonders that bring to man the glories of Samarkand. (See the front page text).

So rock after rock of that formed by man, is sent back for them to encounter; the mystery legend of polarity, where heights and depths meet, but always on a warring basic, until completely balanced. Then in unity they understand of each other, and bring comparisons to a greater point of issue. But this is where man himself becomes a god, in the right of comprehension.

This is how Merope climbed the ladder, after she shot right up the night sky, into Kingdom-cum, climbing step by step in her elongated state, enduring the Fires of Vulcan. For it was by she daring to invade the realms of the Gods, that they called upon the Fiery pitch of the Master Wielder. That as she could rise up into such heights through her voluminous depths, could she bring forth of expanded light that would save the lives of men. A magnitude that would awaken them to truth, and drive the fulcrum into action.

So down she went and up she rose to investigate the span, but found when she came to uniting the depths and heights, the invading obstacles of men prevented the miraculous birth of the Age. Therefore much of her energy was spent in cleansing the world of dross, claiming strength but giving to the Gods untold depths of Power. For work performed in the name of LOVE, is the work of the Almighty Shaddai, the power of the almighty EL, the royal Elephant of the climbing heights. Mary no longer riding into Jerusalem on a lowly donkey, but risen high with her Lord in the royal howdah.

This is what brought the world spinning up out of the clutches of men, they who would have destroyed her work, by befouling the FACE she had raised up. Orthodoxy advocating sodomy, as once portrayed by the Moabites, which clearly shows that Ramsay and Coggan are creatures no higher than the Pterodactyle Age. Creations (See plate page 5, cols. 1, 2 & 3) that have aimed for power and claimed strength through the curse of the Age. Now all is undermined and broken up, ready for the collapse, with them performing the rest of the task, caught up in the swirling vortex of the Fiery Law.

It is by understanding of vibrations, that man becomes a power, not grasping and greed that only over-fills, and drives the victim mad. By walking in harmony with the Gods and fulfilling their commands, will the soul find complete invulnerability. For when the heart is right, the course is set by the consolidated texture of the bloodstream.

FOR WHATEVER THAT SOUL IS CALLED UPON TO DO, WILL HE DO IT WITH THE BEST OF MOTIVES; THUS TURN WATER INTO WINE AND ALOES INTO OLIVES.

This is where the depth of Leo, the manipulator of heights and depths, also rules the heart in the Star of Regulus. The bleeding heart as the dripping Fount feeding the soul with royal life, that new wealth can come into birth through the struggles of the mind.

Activating the Heavenly Wealth

THE investigator of the Fiery depths that raises all men up into life, for the depths of the heart is the royal Fire, gathered in by the soul's subconscious divinity. Like the holy Eucharist in the tabernacle of the Arc, it holds the royal blood. The royal intent of every soul, his highest point of purpose. That which defines the true quality of man, and how far his virtues go.

Merope right from the beginning of TIME drew down of the Holy Fire, to activate the seed of life, that which was the origin of man, that he could live, seed and grow, and bring forth of the Holy City. For that is born within the heart and in no other regime, the crucifixion of the beast and the resurrection of the man.

Thus 666 the mystery of Pi, the delving into the depths, which in its unification, is the man born into light. Now the world in spinning up, brings man and God into one heavenly Kingdom, where with the Cosmic man, must unite and bring forth of their heavenly wealth. This he will do according to his own depths and his heart purpose, all activated by the spinal activity, through his wagging tail.

His mundane mind that deliberates the possibilities that could come into birth. For once he states it he has given it life, and it only needs the zeal. The double action of heights and depths to bring it to its zenith. Then the Gods and all men, are reaping the joys of the Eucharist, the heavenly waters foamed into life, and feeding the world with truth. So let not the past errors deter the soul from using Words raped and scuttled by men of ulterior motive, for it is not man who is the owner of words, but he just the creator of them.

Once created the recorder of the heights, the composition of the TOME, so will ever return with their real nuclei waiting to be brought into life. By this alone, mighty work lies ahead for every earnest soul, taking up the evils of orthodoxy and placing them into right prospective. A soul eagerly seeking for truth through the debris of the dark Black Ages, bringing such into golden light. The ever rebirth by the Solar light that makes that soul of that light, of invulnerability. The heralder of new life every spring, that moves life on into unfolding glory.

Thus as we perceive of those who have followed the trail and have been spun up into golden light, let us also look towards those who have refused to change or accept the wisdom of truth. These will automatically go up on the swift rising world, but find themselves by the Fires, taking on of their unprogressed state. Although it will appear quite natural to them, they will by inference of mind or growth, be no more than a Pterodactyle state.

Therefore creatures of many states and sizes will now be upon the earth, for having gained untold power and responsibility, have never made growth by raised up frequency, consequently can only by their heightened vibration of growth, assume their rightful growth in the Solar unfoldment.

The Fires infused by Vulcan are now flowing through the generative rebirth of every soul, giving them the opportunity to rise, as unto every human being. That they too can rise up with the coming Spring; the passover of 1967 that is going to bring untold chaos to numbers. For as the Solar Grace touches the earth in its equinoctial cross over, the eucharistical kiss will touch one and all. Some will rise and some will fall, but all still going up by the rising planet.

The change will be marked and clearly shown by one and all, as the John's Fires in the month of May bring about the growth of the rising rebirth. The Fires then forcing the soul to appear as they really are, and not being able to assume guises by a text-book state of regularity. Taking on states by the right of diplomatology learnt off by heart by a well regulated mind.

These will have had just as much opportunity as all others, but have lived life their own way. Having been given chance by monied position, or brains heightened by repetition, to be able to take diplomas that gave them categories of right. That which now leaves them as a brontosaurus creature ambling around in their true creative growth. Yet their minds will be no higher in frequency than what they have assumed, and what they can claim right to by their right of belief and active acceptance. Then it will not be a time of ridicule or disbelief, but a time when everyone will come forth as they really are.

So whereas man has crucified the God every Solar rebirth, now it will be by the crucifixion of the human soul, that he can assume his rightful place in the universe. No one can be what they are not, for man is now judged by the Law of the unfolding Cosmos. Then by every soul finding himself, eagerly seeking the way to release themselves from the restriction they now will find with them.

The Fires of Change

MENTAL states will settle down into a state of being blank and blind, but quite harmless by the Fires having burnt away the offending tartars and grimoires that had accumulated in their down below labyrinths. It is by this that the students will have some idea of what "down below" literally means; referring to astral states of purgatory.

These now becoming blended in, leaves no state of astral rebirth. Therefore determines a rapid state of change by the Fires, whereby no drugs or stimulants will aid the soul, while in this state of rebirth. Only enduring and learning of the truth, that the Word can assist the alchemical change to be moved swiftly into place.

THEN THE SOUL BECOMING AS A LITTLE CHILD, AND ACCEPTING THE NEW LAWS OF GRACE.

The more they accept, the quicker it will be, and very marked their changes. This is timelessness, a time warned of by all the Prophets down the Ages. A time well warned by the Prophet of this Age, but man so busy with his desires and logical mind of security, did not listen to her Voice, and now must meet the consequences. Therefore, now is the time when sterility will be marked, and there will be no need for contraceptive pills or fertility tablets.

Man will go dead as a floundering eunuch, if he does not turn his mind to Occult wisdom. For the turn of the planet will force the hanging man to climb up and go the right way; for as the axis of the earth is spinning upwards towards the Central Sun, will the soul's axis also turn towards the Solar light.

THEREFORE THE FIRES OF HIS GENERATIVE REBIRTH WILL SEEK THEIR ORIGINAL SOURCE. THUS AUTOMATICALLY BOIL IN THE DEPTHS AND RISE AS SPIRITUS AIR, EVER RAISING THE SOUL UPWARDS BY THE MEANS OF A RE-GROWING STATUS OF THE MIND.

But the soul now entirely being regimented by the law. How quickly this comes into being, depends upon the action and will of the soul to accept and put into operation. But he will so learn of his position only too well, that he will turn to the Woman who has been crying out for years of the necessity of change. Turning to the wisdom of life, and not the desires of life.

Those who have ascended to the right of Solar invulnerability will be alert, bright and active in thought. Not ready to snap or pick trouble with every state of change, but eager to find yet greater growth, but the activity of the planet spurring them on. Thus will readily perceive the necessity of changing their mode of diet. Feeding the soul on food fitted to a rising solar being; the soul eager to aid themselves in letting go of gravity, that they can become solar born, and rise up as ariel born beings. Their mind dancing in and out of the planes, equalling the frequency of the heights, and drawing unto themselves from outer space, uniting the depths with the heights, and bringing forth of the solar unification.

This now is where genius can come into birth, for many a soul seeking through the greater wisdom, has been hampered by a convention ridden relative, who has caused life to become unbearable. Souls tuned and highly sensitive, but not born of determinate will, therefore crushed and ruled by the religious born associate who is the means of closing down their progress.

This will now blossom forth as never beheld before, and will ever be amazed at themselves, as they also open up with timelessness. It now is the Fire that counts, not atmosphere or density, the Fires surging through the soul. The density will change through the rising planet, where air of a very rarified nature will eventually take over. Air that will be as wine, and just as heady as the air on the top of the mountainside.

THUS THE CHIEF AIM OF EVERY SOUL, WILL NOW BE PERCEPTORY AWARENESS BORN FROM THE LOWER FIVE CITIES OR CHURCHES RAISED UP TO THE SIXTH.

This is where the fire from the marrow of the bones, right back to times unknown, now can be raised up to such a state of perception, as to raise the frequency of the mind up to such heights, the soul could bring down from the fiery nebula of Space, wealth beyond the dreams of avarice. This is where the true comprehension of the churches of Asia come in; the spinal Chakra sensitivity that determines another nature of the soul. The seven states of etheric unfoldment that reside and manifest from the blood and unfolding glandular system.

As the lower five are risen up by the surging fires, and the soul gaining some insight into the new born laws, will they by complete renunciation of the lower, all unite in the sixth. This is where they now come under the direction of the spinning up planet. Partaking and being directed by its steadying influence. For the gods are now fully awakened in their own being, taking full control of their actions through the brain cells up in their meninges.

The pituitary now being the fundamental source from whence everything will be directed, with Mary now risen as Venus-Urania. Yet it must be seen that all this takes place in the two sides of the brain, with equal balance ever seeking to take place through the labouring Martha. But when all goes up to the heights and unifies, there seems to be very little difference between Martha or Mary.

Only in a matter of this side of the picture, and the etherealised creation of the etheric body as Mary. The statement of "up and down" is only a matter of location as to frequency, regarding the balancing minds. Everything being of the mind, nothing else will count.

THE MYSTERY OF POLYPHEMUS

A TRUTH that many would seek not to accept, yet the unfolding lord of the day, for many have only reached this status through their unbelief in divinity. Unless a man seeks for God and light he lives in darkness and hell.

Establishing the Fountain of Light

THEREFORE the most important thing now is the establishment of the perceptory principle in the upper sixth, where as the soul draws forth from the base of its gained wealth, it is able to unite it with its stem in the present life. But it is essential that every soul become solar born; risen up out of the lunar waters that it can be fortified by the prism of the inflowing revolutionary rays of the risen Arc.

Unless the soul is solar born, it is only drinking in of the magnetic waters stagnant with the dregs of mankind.

WHEN THROUGH RISEN FREQUENCY THE SOUL CAN BECOME SOLAR BORN, HIS DIFFICULTIES ARE OVER, FOR HE IS ABLE TO FEND FOR HIMSELF. THEN BY FACTOR OF RECOGNITION FIND EQUAL POLARITY IN THE HEIGHTS AND BRING GENIUS INTO BIRTH.

But it is the soul being only luna born, there is untold sickness in the world. If he could become solar born by a matter of mind frequency, he would rise above all his sickness, even if it be a matter of cancer. For a growth of quartermass could not live in the solar frequency.

MRS. Spearman-Cook is now prepared to give a limited number of delineations of readers horoscopes, based upon the new world teachings. This is a unique opportunity for all to perceive the extent of their growth, where their karmic difficulties lie, and where their opportunities are waiting to blossom forth; apart from giving the understanding of how and where karmic roots, impossible akashic records, rear up out of the darkness of the soul's multiplicity.

The possibilities now by this understanding are enormous, for the soul filled with the wealth of the Moabite depths, can by the uniting factor through the gods, bring the EL Powers into super-action. This being the Arabic Horses of the passions raised up to the equal powers of the inflowing Hydrogen Waters through the Vulcan pitch-blende from the generative fires.

This brings the soul to the status of a god, whereby through being able to harness such frequency, can equal such in the heights. Thereby capture the Rhythm of the Spheres before they lower their frequency to meet the uprising planet. Then they become of the magnetic waters, where it would be difficult to discern their inner glory.

The soul through their Geminian fluidity, darting in and out, up and down through their revolving Circle of Willis. This is the bloodstream working at a quickened rate through the increased sensitivity, and would comply with the wisdom of the horses racing around Merope's arena. Thus circling around the base of the brain, heightening up the twelve nerves of the auditory system, linking the gods with the depths. As the unity becomes more and more complete on this raised up status, faculties of an unusual nature begin to awaken.

The soul finds that he is able to fathom into what has been, and what can become on a highly evolved comprehension. The thing is to be so cleansed from any form of convention or orthodox beliefs, as to be able to discern the real depths being conveyed in the new born awareness.

IT IS NOT JUST A MATTER OF SENSITIVITY, BUT HIGHLY EVOLVED TRUTHS, THAT THE SOUL MUST PERCEIVE AND BRING INTO BIRTH ON THE HIGHEST PLANE POSSIBLE. THEN HE CAN BE THE MEANS OF SETTING FOUNTAINS OF LIGHT AND FRESH WATER SPURTING FORTH ALL OVER THE EARTH.

This is explained to a degree in the Zinnor Gutter of David the king. A pool of Water set into birth long long ago, which never became a stream of light, but fell back into the depths of the earth into a rocky cavern caused by its retention. Yet ever receiving its inflowing contact from the heights, hence David, Hezekiah and others tried to resuscitate it into life, but never knew of its real inner secret.

For it belonged to the Holy Fires brought down by Merope in the beginning, she seeking to raise the Race into life. Then when it was thrown down into the depths by the evils of men, all fell back into a rocky cavern, to issue forth now and then into the pool of Siloam.

Then a shaft was built equal to the spinal column, to draw the water up and down, which is symbolised in Archimedes' lever. The drawing up of the fluidity from the depths, but would account for the many wells of water that issue and ooze forth from many an unseen source, to often be of an efficacious nature. Yet the unknown source of the Zinnor Gutter was under Mount Moriah and speaks for itself.

A soul rose up, created the source, which only turned into a mountain of rock, and never fulfilled its course. Yet the many wells, which are often considered holy, were started long ago and never finished, and only remained a pool of water. They never reached the Solar fundamental and are as roots begun, but ever remaining as roots, and must be continued once again. By that their lost wealth as past genius can be captured and comparisoned by polarity, with the heights then bringing yet greater wealth into birth, to aid mankind find the mortuary meal.

Lourdes comes under this category, but lost to its true qualities through the financial racketeering of papalism killing its greater expansion. Whatever may be sponsored, which is nothing to what could be, is raised up by the pious exhilaration of the crowds, whose minds are held by the priest.

The New Solar Face

ALL these under the Solar unity could now bring into birth untold genius by this Christed Principle. But everything lies in the hands of the soul, as to how far he is prepared to go to discard of his old states, and work hard to gain the new.

For the rebirth of the god is every spring, where once again he re-passes through the crucifixion that discards of the old states through the greater understanding. Starting off on another round that he could bring the lachrymal system into full elevated capacity. Yet only bringing the god back to his rightful status of long ago.

By raising them up to the heights with the experiences trodden deep, what could manifest by the tangent rise into the polarity, lies entirely with the soul as unto the frequency of the risen mind. But greater still the heart beat born out of those experiences of life, where those Fires were only received in a superficial way, now could be perceived in the true light of their possibility, and be risen up to those heights. For his Arabic depths are now risen up to atomic reality as the El Fires, which in contacting their equal in polarity, releases the Neptunian Waters.

THE MIND IN SPIRALLING UP HAD TOUCHED HEIGHTS UNKNOWN, THE POLARITY TO HIS DEPTHS, THAT WHEN UNITED WOULD BRING A BLOSSOMING TO HIS DEPTHS AS A STATE OF GENIUS.

The Arab singing in his depths to the glory of the Stars, would draw their wealth

This is the secret of Boulema, "I am what I am, and can be what I wish to be, a god of my Father's Kingdom." Thus the soul now awakened to his errors in the beginning, but with experience that will help him to expand and find wealth of a greater polarity.

Now by such volume of power, he could by the raised up perception, perceive a possibility of the root, that in the beginning was never believed. For they drew down of the Elements in the Matriarchate period, and now to bring them to their full reality, must manifest them in their Fatherhood ascension. That is, raise them up to mind light, the crowning glory of the Solar rebirth, out of their fall into the luna states.

This is the wealth the soul has learnt through Time, which if he can unite from Alpha to Omega as THE RAISED UP SOLAR FACE, he will find himself manifesting wisdom untold from the polarity frequency from the heights.

The horse now winged and carrying him up to the heights through the dancing mind.

(See the plate in cols. 4 & 5)

Hence wealth and beauty of wonders untold can manifest from those Arabian waters, for although they were of the Arabic depths, their riches were of the starry heights. Not intellectuality or book learning, but wealth gathered straight from those Black Starry heights. That which was eventually promised unto Abraham as the rich glories of his loins.

THE WINGING MIND

SUCH glories are only known to the wise, yet simple in their wisdom, for the winging mind in its gyroscopic spin is secretly the envy of all men, for it carries the soul in and out the void like a white bat on the wing. (See text in col. 3).

THE DEPTHS OF CANCER

CREATURES from which man unfolded when coming from the Cancer marshes, yet states still hidden in the depths of the soul if Word has not been partaken that could, by the inner depths, transmute these creatures into light. This is the true meaning of the mortuary meal. (See text on page 3, col. 4).

into his waters to be hidden by his lower desires. These have become the marrow of the bones, so now by the risen frequency, he could go out to the polarity of those depths and touch glories completely unknown, that in uniting with those depths, would obtain the atomic reality. But also bring back possible glorious Rhythm as the crowning beauty to those singing depths. Thus the perceptory principle being atomic reality, a complete fulness of awareness as Alpha to Omega transformed into Solar light. That born in the depths, now completed by the mortuary meal, to reascend back up to the heights with all the riches of the depths.

The Naga Powers of Perceptibility

THE heart beat increased, never to be lost, for it is the eternal Fire of immortality. The soul by exhilaration sends it back, winging up to the heights; for in its fulness it defies gravity by turning illusion into reality. The soul now knowing the full heights and depths of his Neptunian Waters; for this is the articulatory circle of atomic rebirth. It is by such the soul perceives of heights and depths completely unknown to others, and by his golden harpoon spears the fish in the waters, and brings them back to land.

Word that will have to be defined, for it is not in the vocabulary of the earth; but the glorious truth of the heights that soul must now try to capture. This he will do by the power of his tail, the Naga Powers of Perceptibility that feed the Gods in the heights.

For the coccyx and the lachrymal system have circulatory union with one another, where the depths feed the heights and the heights intercept of the depths. For they direct him to his goal, that now risen up as the wealth of the past, when the soul was free from the cloying depths of matter, and knew the glories of those golden heights.

For all that wealth was brought into birth by the soul's differentiation through those mighty waters via the way of the gods. For these are the atoms of long lost times still waiting their mortuary meal. This the soul must find and give as a status of service that will send him up by the tangent rise to the heights. The soul once again risen up in its own status of frequency intensifying his status quo, his right of world qualification.

Always the gifts must be used in the name of the Gods, then they direct and guide and help the soul find the fulness of the picture. "But not thy way" saith the Lord, "but by mine and mine only." These are the powers of the soul's phenomena qualities that make him a magician of the depths.

Once they are unified, the soul becomes a god once again by his right of rebirth, for he is retracing his steps back home, but with all the qualities of the depths, as the leviathan of those depths becomes the white sperming whale of the heights. Guiding and giving unto the soul the power and quality of a god.

All born from the Solar inbirth as the unification of luna and solar, bringing the super Solar as electro-magnetic waters. That brought into birth every spring by the Solar crucifixion, where the soul willingly renounces those things that prevent the Solar rise. Yet the glory of the Eucharistical Kiss from the inflowing heavenly waters; where the soul aware of his heritage embraces with hands held up aloft, drawing them down into his own inner being. For as he so believes, so he becomes, a god in his own right by his birth heritage.

These are the Neptunian Waters that hold the sacred seed, thus as man values the depths, will the heights bring their gifts. It is the Law of Polarity, the Law of Relativity, where what is gained on one plane, must bring its articulatory circle of atomic rebirth, the round of qualifying unfoldment.

The soul having spoken in the depths what he gained from the heights, ever declaring of what he knew to be true, and proving as justification. But the soul becoming more and more invulnerable by the Solar glories of his invincible frequency. He spinning and operating at such a rate, he is unseen by all around him.

When man understands the light and might of the Occult Laws, he will perceive the truths that verify more clearly of Paul's belief in 2 Cor. 12. "Assailing to heights where he will hear of unspeakable things, by the right of trying to requite them."

WILLINGLY RENOUNCING OF THOSE THINGS THAT HOLD HIM TO THE GRAVITY PULL. THEREBY TAKING HIS FEET OFF THE MAGNETIC ROCKS AND THE SPEAR OUT OF THE ELEPHANT'S KNEE. FULLY BORN OF THE SOLAR REBIRTH, THE HERALDER OF THE SPRING.

DIET—A TREATISE ON TRUE FACTS

This article was delivered through Gladys I. Spearman-Cook under the direct guidance of the Lord Maitreya.

THIS IS A SUBJECT WHICH AT THE MOMENT IS HOLDING MUCH controversy, more from the point of human desire, than a true natural reimbursement of the tissues. For apart from the School of Universal Philosophy, whose claim is of esoteric re-establishment, there are scientific Schools of Thought who are claiming that the world is grossly over-fed, and that diet and cleansing of the bloodstream is what the soul is truly lacking. A matter of physical nourishment and nerve resuscitation by artificial vitamins and earthy chemicals is a completely disproven fact, for it is these that stone the soul to death, the soul and all its sensitivity. For the soul, the complete structure of the man, is not fed from the reimbursement of its bestial body, but from the internal atomicised etheric soul creation.

The Illusion of Form

THE physical is the playground of the medical fraternity, who delight in taking out organs and replacing them by the creation of a pig or a sheep.

It will not be very long before all men will learn, much to their own sorrow, that all comes from within to without, of which, at the present, is the major investigation of Merope, that she can make complete mind arielisation, by the spinning hub of infinity. This is the true god creation of the soul, which the cosmic ethers have now afforded by their descent into matter.

Rays brought into action by the Scapegoat's re-creation of the Law, whereby the human axis and the cosmic Axis synchronise. The sensitivity and natural frequency of the human creation, which controls and directs the cosmic, for all is created and re-formed in the chemical pot of matter, where the atomic forces, cosmical breathings from the upper Ethers, feed and sustain the soul from a natural tendency of the Spirit.

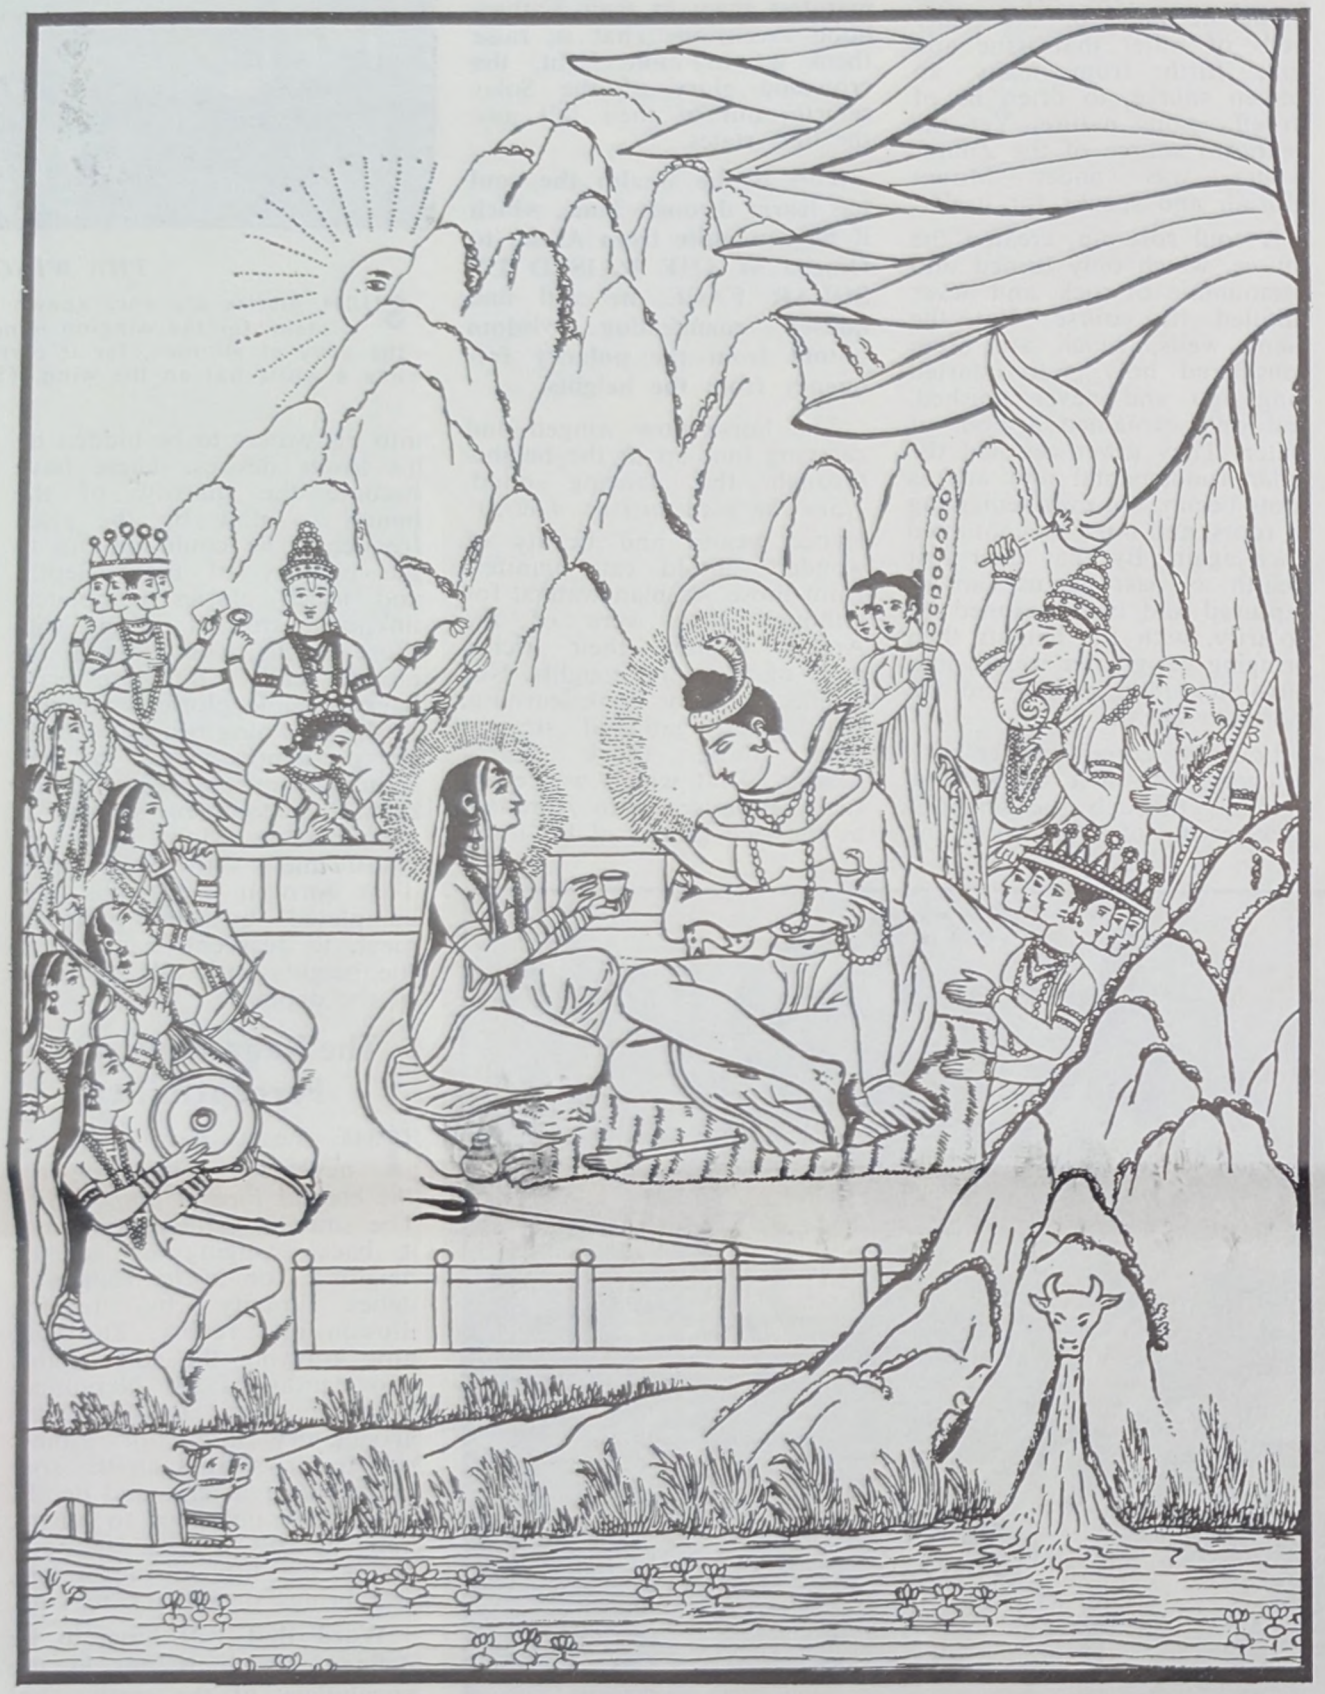

This being the sole substance of the god creation, spirit as Fire and Water, bringing through mind and will, a united major point of expansion. A consciousness of thinking that is ever creating, a continuity from the growth of many Ages, that which now speaks with the tongues of divers men rolled into the OM of one creation.

Declaring of what mighty secrets this soul could deliver, when the spirit is free and not entrapped by the density of matter. For ever since the FALL, man has sustained himself with the gluttony of flesh to appease the fiery gnawing atoms creating and waiting to make expansion.

The major point in this treatise is to realise that the soul is a god in his own rights, now a captive in the flesh, which by its overfed pampered state, is diseased, rotting and disfigured. A calcified solidified growth, that the soul is burdened with, that now by the re-created atomic LAW is being stripped away, and man returning to his old status of god growth, but with an active mind creation, the reimbursement of TIME.

Man coming up out of the pit and labyrinth of density, onto the real plane of Earth; a god captive in the flesh, a status of man creation. This alone is proved by the disordered organisms of the body, which, if the creation of nature, is a disgrace to the organised unity that gave it status.

No ! this is not a creation of organised natural LAW, but the growth of man angled into birth by the bestial desire of an animal nature, which he adopted in his grovelling in the pit. This is what Merope as the Scapegoat Mystic has been re-adjusting, for by lifting up the planes by her vibronic unity with the cosmic Law, the whole of the lower planes are abolished. Now it needs the cleansing of man's thoughts and beliefs, which must automatically follow, as they have no foundation to be fostered in.

MOUNT MERU

AS the sun peeped o'er the mountain top the waters from the sperming bull filled the stream with holy life, with the risen up elephant powers now united and the heavenly wealth of Meru. The Universe Tree, the churning Yod, and the glories of the spirit. (See text in col. 4).

Man as a soul is Spirit, and as such must become, for as the outcome of all laws, is the ultimate creation of the LAW. Therefore will ever apply its demands by and through the Law, so it is wise if man learns to understand himself via the Law of Creation. He is not just a body, an automaton thrown into life, nor under the jurisdiction of the medical world, but a spirit, an atomic creation born from the Adamic Dust. The continual direction to the Earth of the "Waters," the major being the interblending Ethers, the eternal Yod of life ; but collectively all are known as the ruach, the Breath of Life.

Here lies the major clue as to how and wherefore the soul is fed from the mystical heights, the mighty Prism of the Waters, the glory of the atomical Ethers, the Central Sun. This alone makes man into a god, the creator in the crucible pot of life ; a creature that is the whole fundamental of Creation, TIME and LIFE, a being that is the answer to "the Begotten". Hence nothing could be more factual than the Egyptian theory of life, they who brought into being the Dawn of Civilisation.

The churning up of Creation out of the Waters, that brought into being the Adamic Dust, of which the soul came forth as atoms of god creation which rose up and survived. After all, one myth is as good as another, for man is here as soul, and in the dilemma of striving to survive, owing to the dictatorial attitude of ritualised martinets, he lost the road of direction and the true purpose of life.

This cannot be, for all life is independent and self-responsible, so man must ever be in the sole possession of his mind as action of free-thought and creative wisdom. Otherwise the atom never becomes born, and is ever in the process of becoming. Birth being the god with a mind faculty created and active, that which was just an atom, and now as its collective growth, a living propensity of its magnitude.

Therefore, since its creation is from the inflowing Waters, and it still breathes by those Waters, its food is of those ethers, with water to perpetuate the fluidity. This is the "tree growth" that mystically is the answer to all life, the spinal rod that grew up out of these waters, and man now as the god-mind born from that rod, is now existent as that atom, and a creative propensity. This has linking with the Hindu allegory of mount Meru, the pivot of creation as a churning rod, and the Universe Tree that grew from it.

(See the plate above)

For all is but reflection of what is truly coming into birth in the wide glories of Space. Man as that god, is but the creator through his own creation, and whose answer lies in his own creative individual consciousness. Hence this is the creation that all must strive for, master and blossom, as the pre-natal birth of the spirit. Thus it is the Spirit that is the important factor, not the physical life that man ever strives to maintain.

Solar Nourishment of the Soul

HERE we are faced by the desire faculty which has grown as a quartermass, and is as the roots to the Taurean element. That which receives in its plowing, the atomic resuscitation, and in not unifying those waters, the creative faculty is not perpetuated, and it becomes a destructive agent and not a creative. This becomes a mountain of bestial desire, that in itself is a creation of the lower planes and not the spirit.

This is where the Mystic declares of the circus of animals that are ever wheeling up through the lower planes, becoming unified as they go. This is where the soul through wisdom perceives the truth, which is the first inducement to the change that in time comes into being, and is the mastery of self by ever a status of superiority of thought. Thus in time, what was a creative desire as a seductive dancing girl, she as the feminine principle, now takes on a status of weaving and producing.

That which gives rebirth to mind, that takes on form as the chemical action is pursued. Thus we lay a part of the foundation for a different status of thought regarding the biggest problem of the Age, desire.

The feeding and nourishing of the tissues by artificial means, which the soul is subconsciously seeking to discard, for it will be these that will start to suppurate as their cells and glands begin to become over-charged with the bacteria waste shed by the animal creation. For being of the negative creation, they begin negative states of action, which are that of the Cancer Waters.

The complete reverse of the Pole Star that gave it birth, that of the Ursa Major ; while Vega the present Pole Star is of freedom and the creation of the mind. Therefore the theory that the soul requires chemicals, vitamins and even drugs, is a created illusory theory, and not a rationalised proof, and often an improvised action to substantiate and support a new shareholding concern. Again man in his desire, not being conscious of the evil, but the possibility of his requirements being met.

To meet the next part of our theory, we must come to the bloodstream which is a carrier of the homo-geneous creation, the MAN. This is the holy stream, which in the man himself, is equal to the four Streams that issue from the mystical heights. Often referred to as the waters of the Milky Way, but really those that leave the heights and flow into its stream as the bloodstream of man, feeding it with life from the heights.

For it is this Stream with its homogeneous creations of protoplasm and ectoplasm, that holds all states of life, including the "fish" as the Word, that as a Stream is ever blessed by the Solar infiltration. The latter, the most important and the actual life saver, is very rare, owing to man living in the lunar waters.

By Solar, we are referring to a status of vibratory acumen, which is amply proven by those who have been blessed by its rays and then denied them by a fallen state ensuing. A state where the Solar Fire, in gaining place in the soul growth, lives in the bloodstream as a fiery dancing stream, the spirit pervading the whole creation; hence would be as the spirit on the waters, and the soul radiant with life.

Then when the inflowing fire from the plowing intercalary further activated the stream to electrify these atoms of life, would it bring the crowning of the day.

This can only come about by the bloodstream being kept free from fire destroying agents, including false fire and artificial electrical appliances. For the natural fire is mind born, not animal fire, and not fire stolen or assumed, but created within by the raised up frequency of the soul, and that of the spirit, the etheric body.

Then as the soul drives the bloodstream higher and higher, it raises up the Arc of light. It raises up the aura of the house of Ra, the Solar glory of the mind. A frequency of thought that holds the Solar points of truth and of which Saturn has abandoned to a more royal and holy decree.

To the man who has never witnessed this, it means nought, but to he that has gained such and then lost it, it becomes as a Babylon captivity, and hell reigns ever in his dissatisfied state. But when gained and held, becomes the Christ-OS blood risen up from the depths as the lower El power of the soul, that which has been in hell, and now united with the higher EL Power from the heights, as the inflowing Ether Yod from the Solar glory of the heavens. The glorious Solar magnitude of the Solar Arc feeding the world with Solarised ethers, the breath absorbed and not destroyed by the gluttonous desires of the soul.

Wisdom of the Ancient Myths

THIS is where the Egyptians taught of Shu and Tefnut, the alternating breath as in and out, the activation of the spinal Chakra activity, becoming the moist fluidity of fired life by Ra, the Solar creation. That which gave Osiris his life, and mastered the fourteen steps of the lunar creation; the fourteen steps of the cross, crucifixion of becoming. Yet he who was ever being torn into fourteen parts by the evils of Set, that resulted in Seb the goose having ever to lay another egg in his labours to recapitulate, and be born of the Solar glory.

Hence being the story of rejuvenation set by the soul in its FALL, for Heliopolis as a golden glory, was not radiated by the Sun, but Kronos as a radiant god created by Helios. "I am all that has been, that is, and that shall be; and no mortal has ever yet been able to withdraw my veil. The fruit I have brought forth is Helios," a god creation. Yet it became the Sacred Fire quenched by man, whereby the Sun came forth in its stead, with the great Bear as the celestial revolver, now agging the heavens around. Man losing his royal state of a god, by choosing flesh desire to a royal standing as a god, where neither sun, moon nor stars prevailed.

Therefore he ever came into birth by the turning of the wheel, the seven creation of the Ursa Major, the autochthonous of creation. This belongs to the mystery of Crete, the butchers of creation, that set into action by the Telchines of the island of Rhodes. A mystical state of the god-like past, when all was but waters, creation in its state of manifestation. Instead of a real god-like creation coming into birth, it only resulted in the Yellow River, that of expansion.

The Telchines, now as the reborn monopoly creators still seeking to swell their funds and holding the lives of men cheaply, that they can barter and trade for a greater financial gain, and a wider field of experience. Only a lunar rebirth of the blood, and not a Solar god-like creation that could expand and bring forth of light and truth, but mere multiplicity.

This was where the Pans and Satyrs came into birth as half god and half animal creations, which has ever been as the war in heaven in the soul creation. This is where, by the study of the Word and the understanding of the myths, such can be turned in and buried by the mortuary meal of acceptance. Not always activated, but accepted and striven for by the pioneership of belief. This is also where the spirit was stalked and destroyed, resulting in Talos feet; feet fastened by the magnetic states of the earth.

(See plate below)

PANS AND SATYRS

AS she turned, there behind her stood the creatures that were still her companions in the world of growth. Word had not been her favourite pastime, hence the pot in being scoured was turning up the evils of its depths. (See text in col. 2).

Wealth taken and not returned as mind-light, resulting in a brazen heavens, no light of the higher mind. Merely a Crete-born Zeus, a state of expansion as a loadstone mountain to break down. With only Pasiphae as "to-shine", and not Demeter to re-create by agriculture and husbandry, until the soul as Perseus cuts off the head of the Medusa who will not let go. Then he (See plate page 10, cols. 3 & 4) could sail forth in the Argos, with the Canopic organs free to plow the waters in truly freed metabolism. That they can by intensified action, drive up into its polarity and partake of the higher Waters, the magnitude of the reborn glory.

Hence the major intensity in this driving of the wheel, is the freedom of the bloodstream, where the soul can not only drive the mind that is in that bloodstream as the man, the light of the soul, but intensify and expand its wisdom by the fires and the brain feeding it with more activated intensity of thought.

Developing the Super Consciousness

HERE is the homogeneous creation, but if the soul fills this with artificial creations, the brain, the faculty of mind rebirth will not be stimulated by natural causes, to reveal more of its inner intensity. Its tendency would be to solidify and retreat, which is the case in the majority. Hence the repetitioned state of the mind; whereas the ever generating inflow of Scorpio is merely feeding the Bull with the spermed Seed that is making him get more and more degenerate. Hence the inflowing heavens as a fiery wealth is burying in the wealth of the mind, it becoming the loadstone mountain. The goat becoming glutted with raw fire that is not activated into thought, but ravaging the soul with sex and food.

This is where will and superwill is ever kept dancing, driving the Bull into partaking of the seed, and electrifying it into spinning action. Then the organs of the metabolism begin to churn and unify the past with the present, driving it on to active rebirth.

This is where the organs of the metabolism unify the old blood with the spiritualised blood flowing down from the return journey, and via the blood from the portal vein and the hepatic artery being unified by the gall bladder, the onflowing waters are rejuvenated. But not by the rich foodstuff and artificial vitamins that the stoned medical world advocate, but mind activity of new thought and life from the higher realms of outer-Space; the inflowing of the Ethers.

The soul by its raised up intensity was able to draw down of the higher Waters and unify with the old blood life of the soul. The stimulation is the natural inflow of the food that the spirit requires, hence it rises up out of the density of matter, which has been Merope's action and proof through all the years of struggle. This is where the Asiatics in their understanding of fasting when a major crisis had to be handled, were still holding on to their ancient wisdom. For there is no greater activity of unification, or driving the higher wealth of Cosmic life, than a bloodstream freed and dancing, the spirit feeding the soul with glorified light.

This was the action of the nun in the convent, where the priest elevated her to releasing of the hormone seed, then as the higher and lower unified, the priest took of her activated magnetic wealth as mind exhilaration, the glory from the released hormone seed, and polarised her wisdom with his heights. The unification of male and female by mind realisation, whereby she as a raised up Pythia gave forth of polarised wisdom.

This ancient wisdom links with the churning of the waters, where the mighty Yod was churned, with the gods on one side and the Asuras on the other. Then by using the freed (See plate page 11, cols. 2 & 3) fires of the serpent to churn back and forth, the Chakra wheels of the spinal column were activated into intensified frequency. Opposition driving on of the soul to greater mastery as the new birth sits up on top of the Yod, while Parvati, the feminine principle, waits upon the new-born Siva, that the blood now renewed with new life and thought, is further activated into action.

Therefore, it is only by keeping the blood and liver free from agencies that clot and intensify the blood in more and more desire filled urges, that the soul knows the freedom of mind thought. For by filling the glandular sacs with false stimulants the natural stimulation is destroyed. For false fire upsets the rhythm of the Fires and clogs the true unification of metabolism; thus preventing the rise up of the spirit in spinning glory to the heavens as mind light.

The theory advocated by the medical world is eating, with the soul continually unhampered in their desire orgy, for by related knowledge, there are no greater gourmandisers than the medical staff. They by the prolific food supply of the hospital, generated by the benevolent funds of the "blind and self-righteous," become victims to their own misguided and antiquated beliefs. This again is not hearsay, but genuine knowledge passed on by one who had acted as cook in their kitchens.

The real new theory, although still a little behind the full schedule of wisdom, is that advocating fruit juice cleansing, where the blood is reborn and revitalised, but lacking in the unified wisdom that could lift the soul up parasangs in new blood and heart belief. Thus burying in old states that were lurking in the blood, belonging to dharmic states of the past.

The major fears that lurk here, are the fears of opening up states from the past, that which the soul will never be able to handle. Particularly where the males are concerned, for man has a very bad blood history in his struggle for experience. This will never happen while the soul keeps its mind raised up onto higher wisdom, ever reaching out for truth to come forth, that they can be an advocator of new life and belief.

This is why the School receives so many letters from readers of the Gazette, that by just reading its word alone they have received untold benefit. Then when they begin to expand by seeking further into its depths, they are amazed at the results that have come forth from such a simple method of release.

Of course our dear friends would suggest it is auto-suggestion. Well, let them try this with a bloodstream filled with artificial chemical vitamins; they will probably find in time that they will be in the same boat as those who write to us in desperation to be freed from the drugs that the doctors have been purging them with.

Naturally, just swallowing of a pill is easier than the soul trying to move its will, and coming out of the inertia it has been slowly sinking under, in building up amino-acids and urea that are swamping and burying in the dancing glory of the etheric body. Thus only resulting in the astral planes, while many souls are gods waiting to get back to the higher planes where they belong.

But the more the soul sinks lower and lower under this artificial status of illusory belief, will they bring into birth creatures from the lower planes. Which is evident by the creations that are being born as Thalidomide and Spastic creatures from the depths.

Elemental Growth

FOR the School quite recently, under request, was trying to help a mongol, that was none other than the bottom of the "pot" of a woman who held untold depths. But only went as far as Spiritualism, where Aunt Fanny gave some erroneous wisdom that all was well, and no farther. Consequently her depths that were never reached, came forth in the shape of a mongol child; that equal to a pterodactyle state, and only being of the elemental growth, one that should have been disposed of at birth.

They were not soul growth, and by this would have been buried in by the medical authorities prevailing at the time, then mercy of the finest order

Reminiscences

The Secret Mystery of Chastity

THIS MONTH AS PROMISED, I AM GOING TO touch upon two mighty subjects, Chastity and Menopause. First let us take Chastity, and although I touch upon a subject that could be a very sore point with many, let us view it with an unbiased mind, as gods who believe in the glories of their lost past. As souls who have ever been fed upon the downpouring elements in their pure glory, we cannot doubt that we are god-born creatures, and not animals of the depths. We may have fallen into that category, but we are not really of the animal propensity, but the promised sons of the Great Divinity, the Divine Source of LIFE. Therefore, in accepting this royalty, let us go on in our investigation.

The Heavenly Fires Within

IN the beginning of life, all priests and holy men knew the value of their holy Fire, and if the mysteries could be truly interpreted, it will be seen how deep was this instigated principle. How, from this, the priests of papalism took their lead, for their religion was only a reborn creed from the past. Our own Bible, as carefully as it has been disguised by religion, portrays these inner depths.

The mighty struggle of the Hebrews against their animal nature is most obvious. Jacob in bringing down the twelve Hosts, lost the Firing Yod in Joseph being thrown down the pit, the mystery of the eighth house. Hence the Fire going down into the bones of the legs. The mystery of the last verses of Gen. 50, and the results that are now with mankind in ulcerated legs and amputations.

Then Moses's struggle with the cross and the serpent, teaching the Children of Israel, who were the Race Elect for that Age, those breaking away from old ideas, of how to raise up the fire to bring the mind into birth. But the greatest evidence of the struggle against the loss of the Seed, was the period when all came down to Elimelech having to go back to the Moab state, where both he and his two sons died. While Naomi only was left with Ruth to revitalise the Race, they having to take the blood of the Race that they had despised and condemned. All this was due to the Race coming away from the spirit, and turning to self and human desires.

It was not until Hannah called down the heavenly Fire and brought a son, Samuel, into birth, whom she dedicated to the mystery of Priesthood, that the true wealth of rebirth began. All becoming so interwoven, that to bring all back to a straight path of priestal dedication, was nigh on impossible.

FOR THIS WAS THE POINT, THE MALE BEING THE ONE WHO WAS BRINGING THE FIRE DOWN FROM THE HEIGHTS, THAT WOMAN COULD BE RESUSCITATED.

The mind capacity became so negative in the male, that the Fire was only of an earthy degree, and all was in a state of collapse. This has been the struggle all through the Ages, and the cause of the two Fissures now in the brain of man.

Yet it was a well known fact in all denominations of priesthood, that abstinence and chastity were the major principles in their service between man and God. The mysterious instructions given to Moses in the building of the Temple in the last chapters of Exodus, was the preparation of the soul and not a temple of wood and stone. Here were the instructions for the priests to maintain chastity, otherwise they would not be able to bring down the Fires of the higher heavens.

THE SUPREME POWER OF THE HOLY FIRE

AS Abihu called down the Fires, he, by the abundance which was his lot, caused Uranus to strike, killing the attendant priest who was not worthy of the mighty glory that now plunged into the earth, to rejuvenate its darkness into light. (See text in col. 5).

Whether man believes or not, he has so lost the road and come away from the true path, that to be told of the truth now, he cannot perceive its depths. The very fact of the disease, the malformation of children and the many other sorrows attending the road of generation, foretells of something wrong somewhere. The wisdom of chastity is not new, but an understood status all through the Ages, especially in the Egyptian priesthood in the early stages.

Yet all through the Ages, the prophets and priests knew this truth from the wisdom handed down, for they were building up for a Christos glory to be born. Although it was a Cosmic unification, it really was the bringing into birth of the Solar Age, man coming out of the lunar waters. It was essential that the soul rose up the Solar Glory, otherwise health and deterioration of the physical body would take over. This naturally speaks of an unnatural life, for Nature at all times is perfect in her creation, so again something is wrong. Yes! man may be living the way that he likes and what he terms right, but it does not mean to say that it is right.

The fact of the way that the species are made, is no criterion towards physical union, but what man has brought into birth by the task of unfoldment, and what he has ordained as his desires. Man is born and created from the heavenly elements, and at death of the physical goes back to those elements, but as a unified atomic creation. The fact of the death of the physical, again speaks of states that do not belong to the god-like being.

The Soul Creation

MAN is a god-born creature, but in sinking so low in his outlook and desire impetus, has caused many to bring into birth elementals as children. For instead of the true purpose of expansion of oneself, it is sheer lust, and the motive of the soul deems the results. Hence entities from the higher planes are not able to come down and advance the earth in its growth.

For the true way of rebirth was by differentiation and ascension, where the soul put on cloaks of lower entities and entered down into matter that way.

But the plane of Earth was the Plane of Tartaros, until I was shown the way to lift up the plane by mind establishment of the Word, and by this I brought complete unification. Hence the change in atmospherical states.

As a Leader and Teacher, one guiding young and old souls in soul unfoldment, I have had vast experience, and know now that you do not only fight form creation, but states of formless creation. Thus the soul must live above the animal creation, otherwise, these unseen states overwhelm the soul, and account for those conditions that one is often not able to master.

SO THE SOUL MUST TAKE ON OF ITS RIGHTFUL CREATION OF A GOD, OTHERWISE THE LOWER ELEMENTALS CAN TAKE OVER.

This is very noticeable to a sensitive, when passing through an area of very low creations. When the soul has light and fire with them, it acts as a protection against these conditions.

In any case, one cannot investigate the mysteries and touch the Neptunian Plane without celibacy, where the soul builds up Fire and light by will and super-will, and is the protection referred to in the remark above.

If celibacy is not observed in seeking into the wisdom, sodomy would soon result, and the true inner depths of life would never be reached. This now gives us a better definition of Lot and Sodom and Gomorrah when Abraham brought down the Fire for the first time, and the lower side of his nature ran wild. That is the full meaning of him pleading with the greater Powers to save what had been left after the wreckage.

The same applies to Laocoon, the priest of Illium, or Troy. He had been priest to temples worshipping Neptune, but had not respected the divinity of the God he was dragging down into earth creation. Thus the Greeks seeking for masculine strength had been creating War everywhere, and saw how they could rape and plunder the temples of Troy.

They took the altar vessels and set light to the city; this alone gives the answer to the floods of Italy quite recently. But we must also not forget the black Middle Ages when the Jesuits were over-spilling the occult powers in the monastries.

The Barons rich and fat were quite willing to give to papalism any amount of money to be allowed for periods of time in these orgies, which resulted in them going negative. So the pope worked up a sacred onslaught on the infidels, where the Eastern temples and their worship were raped and plundered, and the Barons found new manhood.

All this pointing out, that unless the enquiry into the higher wealth of life is approached the right way, and with the decorum that is the right of the higher Powers, man who is a fallen god, comes to disaster.

(See plate on this page)

The priests at the present moment, in breaking away from their religious training and priesthood vows, are wrong. They knew when they entered it was a life of renunciation, and took those vows; they can never revoke them whatever they do. For they have set into motion certain laws which they have embraced, partaken of and been participant in. By serving the higher worlds and making a bridge between heights and depths, he was also making his own ascension back as a god, beside building his inner eternal garment.

It was because I knew that they were no longer aware of these true inner depths, that they could not be bringing down the Glory of the Heavenly Eucharist. If they had, they could never have broken away from the divinity that they were unified to. If these priests had forgotten this, they either had become stoned through the dead religion they were serving, or seen the red light of a breaking up that was not very far off, and they awakened to a greater truth. Then it was their duty to fight to try and bring new life, or reveal the truth like some of them are trying to do.

To renounce their celibate state was very foolish, for once set into motion, cannot be retracted, for it is a sacred action of embracement. Apart from that, they had made growth through it, and would be falling back, thus like Dan become bitten in the heel, a fact that every soul who is struggling through the mysteries, tries to avoid.

For they have reached a spiritual attunement, far beyond the understanding of the majority, and it will destroy issues gained morally and spiritually, by going back. It would be like cutting down of a fruit tree, but not by the right pruning, hence no fruit will ever come forth again. The whole of their inner garment growth should be etherealised.

The Higher Motive of Life

I have seen souls make this vast mistake, and the results have been most distressing. One immediately after the marriage, being in hospital for 18 months with lung hæmorrhage, another losing their life as they made for such freedom, others going quite "black" in their outlook, and others finding the course chosen, a complete failure. For the difficulty lies in the bloodstream that has become changed in its texture, it has started to go back to its god-like heritage.

Therefore I have never seen a so-called success, for what we have to understand, is the fact, that no soul undertakes a course until he is ready, and then it is the higher mind calling the soul to make changes to save it from annihilation. It is the lower mind, or mind of conscious desire, getting tired of the struggle to make the changes, and maintain a greater level of growth, that causes the soul to pack up the greater purpose of spiritual unfoldment.

IT IS THE LOWER MIND THAT STARTS OFF AS CINDERELLA, AND BY THIS STRUGGLE, BECOMES VENUS-URANIA, THE DIVINE VIRGIN WHO GIVES BIRTH TO THE GODS.

All this should have been deliberated by any entering into the higher calling, for that is what it amounts to. But to fall back, never, that is always disastrous, especially in a priest, or one investigating the mysteries. Any path taken should be mastered at all costs, if not, sometime or another the soul will be called to do so, and does account for much of the kama-rupa which we are having to clear up in this life.

It is because of this knowledge that I have ever left a soul to their own devices once they have been advised, although I have often been accused of otherwise. For I knew they would learn of their error through their own conscience. The unfortunate reaction usually being them blaming the teacher to try and justify themselves, for usually it is the one who has been most ardent in their beliefs that turns first.

WITH THE COSMIC CHANGES THAT ARE NOW IN ACTION, THE WHOLE WORLD IS GOING TO BE BORN ANEW, AND MAN WILL FIND THAT THE LOWER PHYSICAL DESIRES WILL BE TAKEN OVER BY HIGHER AND FINER PRINCIPLES OF PURPOSE.

Yet where the natural mode of generative life is being pursued, it is up to the soul seeking of higher beliefs, to carry out such on the highest motive possible, where LOVE plays the greatest part and not lust. Especially where a child is concerned, and then the possibility of a spirit from the higher planes coming into birth, is not remote.

But I am sorry that I cannot condone pills to prevent childbirth, giving freedom to free licence of animal desires. But it will not be very far off that man will begin to realise the union between his lower passions and his mind growth, and begin to call out for help.

Having touched upon the rudiments, let us seek into a deeper side of this immense subject. For that is the point, far greater issues are set into motion when these greater powers are touched, for they are the very depth and crux of life. No expansion can be made, unless the soul seeks of the greater elements, and polarises them with the same depths.

That is, makes union with the equal course of the past, then by unification the soul finds expansion, and builds up his soul garments. At the present, man is blind to the mighty depths that they are being moved into by the Hosts, thus being moved into greater activity for man to live free from the evils that are now attending his life. Hence the changes and chaos that are ensuing, all states of evil being uprooted.

When man was a god, and he was once, he lived by the inflowing Elements, then became cut off by the Fall, losing the higher propensity of his Abel glory. Thus had to start a new issue by the Seth branch of a lesser growth being built up by Cain wandering over the earth. But ever after that, he still went on losing his spiritual glory, and taking on a more worldly aspect. Until now he is completely lost to the royal and true side of his powers of continuity.

THE CREATIVE ISSUE

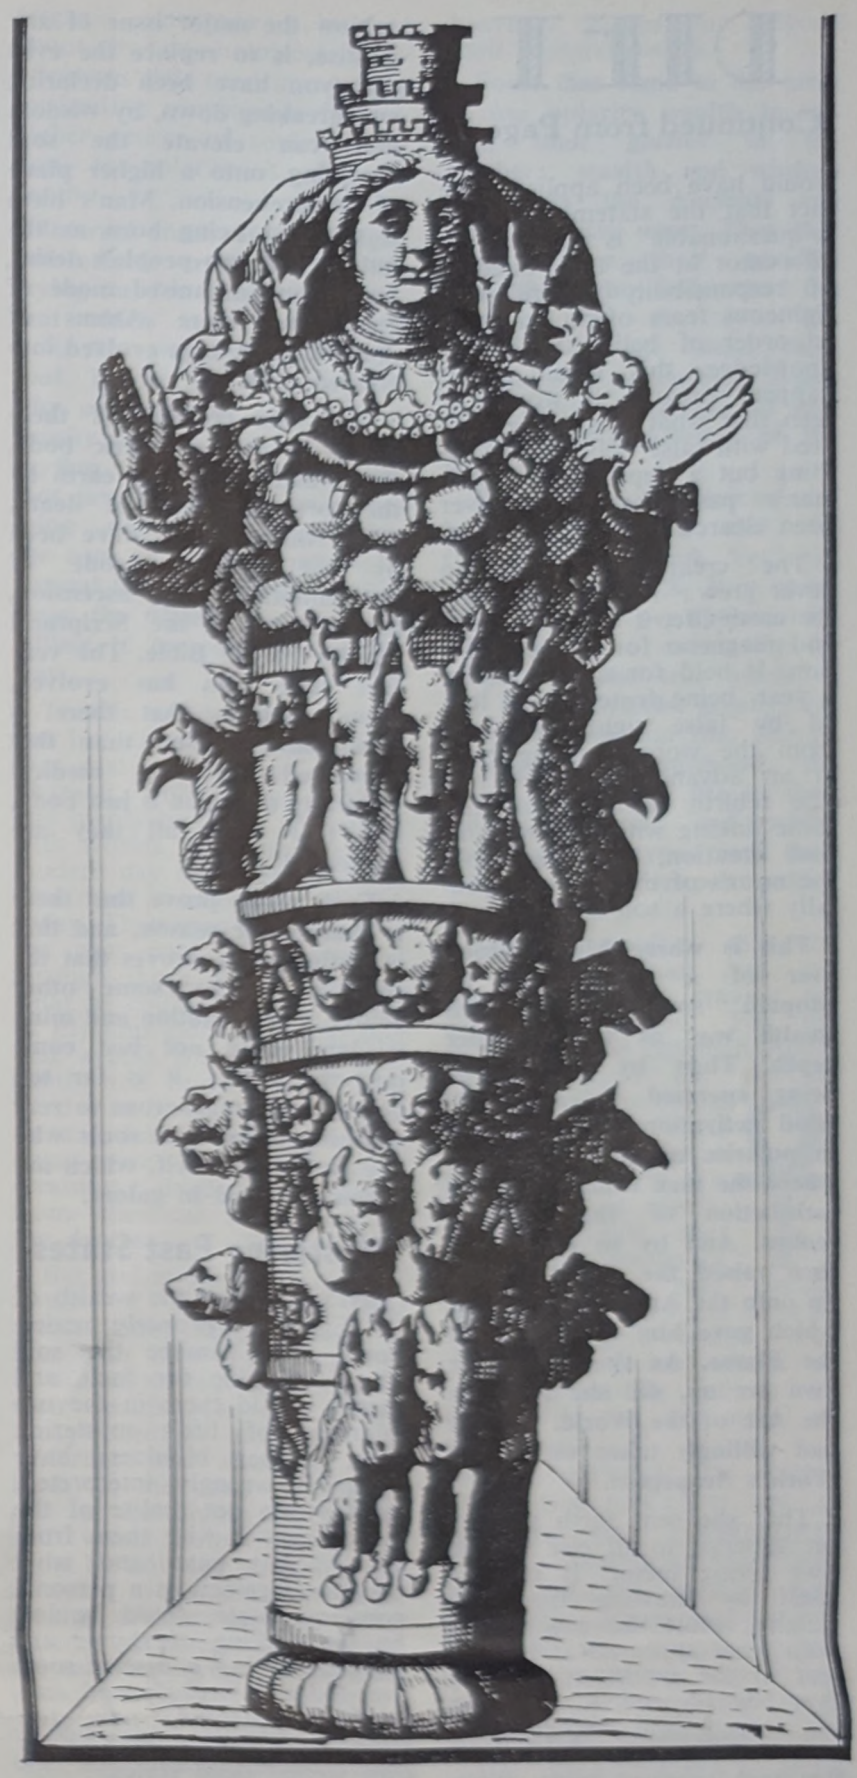

THE wonders of life that become the issue of the hands, the manifestation of the mind intangibility. Wonders and glories only applicable to man, the privileged god-creation in the flesh. (See text in col. 5).

DIANA

DIANA as the raised up goddess of light; she who has brought in the whole creation of time :—the prancing horses, the glorified stag, with the golden kistophori as the tower of divinity. As Venus-Urania she becomes the Virgin of the Holy Fire, the Mother of the reborn gods of the heavens. (See text on page 12, col. 4).

The Law of Evolution

THE idea of bringing down the Fires to man, was to resuscitate him to try and get him active, thus wrestle with life and build up a strength in the depths. By this he could set the infinity revolving in his bloodstream, whereby he becomes a god in the depths.

A SOUL EVER BEING FED BY THE HEIGHTS, AND MAINTAINING HIMSELF BY THE EVER REVOLVING OF FIRE AND LIFE WITHIN HIS OWN BEING.

This is what the priest was aiming for, but got tired of the struggle. This was to have taken place right in the beginning of human existence, but man sought otherwise. Then the next turn in the human galactical growth, was Solomon, but he only turned all the mighty powers left him by David, into the power of Ashmedai, which resulted in time to Freemasonry coming into birth.

Then with Medo-Persia, the glorious Venusian Powers that should have brought the Solar glory into birth, were again only used for learning and growth of an egotistical nature, resulting in much sodomitical heritage passing down the Ages.

The intention then was to bring the uprisen Solar glory into birth to reimburse man with new blood-life, but further kama-rupa was installed into soul growth. Yet the point that man does not see, is the fact, that while he shirked the issue of soul growth, the Cosmic Laws were ever being reborn by Heroes, Priests, Prophets and Scapegoats struggling on, thus the Cosmic Evolution continued, but man never made any expansive changes of soul growth.

Incest and multiplicity yes, but real spiritual expansion, no. This is the way that the world evolves, and the reason for the mysteries and legends that have passed down the Ages.

Through the Ages this has been persistent, until Pisces, then the power of Jupiter ruling the Age was relied upon to bring the Christos Glory or Solar infusion into birth. But again man turned it into creed and dogma, tying man down more than ever with materialism. Then when the Second Advent arrived in 1962, man was well under the rigors of disease, with the heavenly powers well ready to start the upward trend of life. For Relativity had to be met when unification was inevitable, with the higher Planes and the Heavenly Powers all set to drive man into the greater issue. It is all this that man shuts his eyes to, but as a Scapegoat, I fully understand the issue that has taken place.

The Law of Evolution has to be fulfilled, otherwise the Plane would go wild, and everything would be in a worse chaos than man has put it to at the present moment. It only needs one to do the task of change; and once it was set into motion by the pope. He forgot the full motive, so another had to do this most essential and dynamic task.

(See plate in cols. 1 & 2)

The creating of true glory and beauty, with divinity and unity being established between man and God, and being the least of the Laws to be changed. While unfoldment that will bring new life and safe upliftment, is the greater. All this has been set into motion, through and by the generative channel of soul life, where man will be led into a greater way of life, if they will not turn of their own accord.

This is why so much is being uncovered, and man made to see what a foolish creature he is. But all the time he is slowly being lifted up onto higher planes of outlook, would have been applied. The fact that the statement of "It is questionable" is made, is the advocator at the time ditching of responsibility by religious righteous fears of an antiquated order of belief. With true knowledge, this would never happen, because it would be seen that what was being fostered with false beliefs, was nothing but a depth of the Woman's past that had never been cleared through the Ages.

The creature in question never grew; it could not hold the earth life, it was too heavy and magnetic for its heart action. It held for a little under a year, being fostered and loved by false righteous ideas, from the woman giving birth at an advanced time of life. The rebirth of any child has some linking with the woman's past creation, for they hold the means of expansion, especially where a son is concerned.

This is where Merope took over of a "cloak" in an adopted son whose spirit wealth was as high as her depth. Then by her depths being spermed by his fiery mind activation, she was able to polarise up to her heights, where she then came under the jurisdiction of the Master's realms. And by so doing, she then raised the Great Master up onto the Arc by her beliefs, which gave him the FACE of the Flame. As she raised her own arc up, did she raise up the Arc of the World, for she had willingly taken on of the World's Scapegoat.

That she sent forth wisdom far superior to all else was its own living factor. It fortified itself by drawing from the heights, while she was content with what appeared as a backseat in the world of falsities. Ever being feared by those she was forcing into change from their old antiquated beliefs. Her real enemies being those who perceived of this truth, and feared being changed, thus ever tried to attack from their low quarter of intelligence.

Even Merope has marvelled at how these laws, when set into operation, bring the changes that the Hosts declared they would; they being the operators now, as the Laws are set into motion in the depths. This is where they feel the darkness of the false stimulants and drugs, like the gods of the past, who descended into the "hell-fires" of the pit, and got lost in the darkness of its density.

The cloying magnetic factors of the earthplane being as thick syrup, with no breathing capacity until man drops and changes the false ideas and beliefs that they have been holding as a domination over the blind non-thinking hordes of the Race.

Now the major issue of any treatise, is to replace the evils that you have been declaring and breaking down, by wisdom that can elevate the soul accepting, onto a higher plane of comprehension. Man's birth is not just being born as the outcome of two people's desire, but a vast organised mode of evolution, where Atoms of Adamic Dust have evolved into created gods.

The true creation of these beings is in the etheric body, that which leaves the earth by the torturous state of death. That which should have been by the natural mode of differentiation and ascension, as declared in the Scriptural legends of the Bible. The very fact that man has evolved, alone declares that there is some other reason than that advocated by the medical fraternity that man is just body, and that being all they are concerned about.

Facts alone prove that there is some other reason, and that evolution alone proves that the soul is fed by some other source. For evolution and mind wisdom could not just come out of TIME; it is far too bloody and treacherous to rear anything more than souls who live entirely for self, which are running around in galore.

Mastering Past States

THIS is where the wealth of Egypt, if properly understood, could amaze the soul who is seeking for facts and depths to aid them in the unfoldment of life's mysteries. Men, in their blindness, have these all wrongly interpreted, for they do not realise of the wealth that is with them from this ancient past, and what they have gained as a personal conscious state, could be lost by the lacking of rhyme and reason. For it is a case of souls over-fed and wrongly and artificially stimulated, now too blind to polarise with their own stoned dead states.

States that will have to spend many lives trying to adjust by returning back and forth to the earthplane to rebuild the intricate and dynamic organic wonder that they have broken down through disconnected states. By this we are referring to the etheric magnificence that is in the vast magnitude of wealth and glory built up in this mystical body of "Seven". All the wealth gained right from that root depth, under the Pole Star activity of the Ursa Major, besides the mighty glories of the worlds and galaxies before. Wealth that now will come under the New Pole Star of Vega, a mind-world creation now coming into birth from past creations.

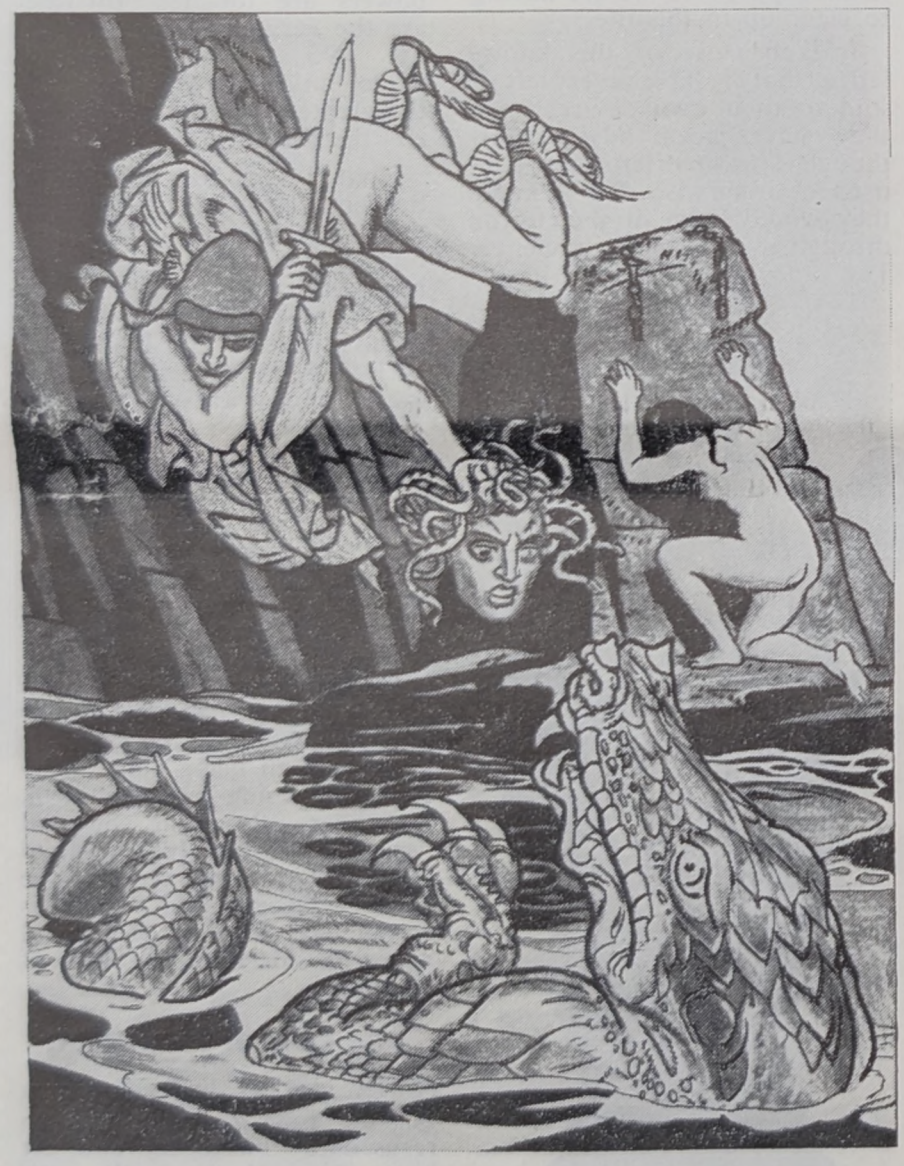

Therefore all the past, which was alive, and the polarity to the present. is as the dynamic roots to that creation brought into birth. For Revelations as declared, is now coming into its own, when the Race awakens from its present state of druggery. Egypt was but the foundation of what the Race knows today, and although they say they have improved of such, that would be alright if their methods were of the spirit union that those mighty teachers taught the soul, and not artificial creations wrought to save time and destroy the soul.

For four dynamic years, Merope has been putting all this wisdom into operation and TREADING it into the earth. That when man awakens to the fact that he is here to master the flesh and bring the soul into birth by that mastery, he will have greater truth still waiting for him in her written wisdom. That which will elevate him up to the glories of Vega, the mystical Pole Star of Love and truth where every man lives by light and wisdom, and not under the darkness of dominating minds. Where men and women will once again live up in their mind heights of the spirit, and not in the pit of their stomach, and live to bring forth the purpose of life.

Hence, not living under the jurisdiction of Saturn, but the glorified Lord of Light, the wisdom of Divinity, realising at last that man is what he wants to be, and becomes as he so ordains. But also, that there is a set purpose that he has come back to further, hence his returning into matter, and these belong to that past, which, when fully understood can be righted by relativity. For the soul was then nearer to its god heritage, a subject never yet fully comprehended. For many a soul is a god descended to aid mankind, and accounts for the statement in Revelations of "HOW LONG HAVE WE TO WAIT UNDER THE ALTAR FOR OUR BLOOD TO BE JUSTIFIED." Heroes who have struggled and fallen by the way of that struggle, and are waiting for their efforts to bear fruit for them to get back home.

Man's task is to raise up the darkness of this plane and unify it with the other six of Creation, that he as man can carry his own raised up five into the heavenly plane of light.

Man born truly as a god once again, then the little Eye of Heaven, the fallen Uranus, will begin to spark light as in those ancient days, and bring up the fallen depths as he manifests the glories of the heavens, from which he was created.

THE STRUGGLE OF THE ARIAN WARRIOR

AS he went down into the depths to uproot the crocodile, he handed to the beast the Medusa's head, which even he shirked to eat up, yet that which released Andromeda from the rock. The work of a mighty Scapegoat. (See text on page 7, col. 2).

The Risen Vibrations

THE soul being born of those mighty heights which he has been "breathing," by discarding of matter as he takes on of his etherealised divinity in the depths. The Uja Eye that the Egyptians raised up as gods, that of their Uraeus wealth of the mind, where initiates under the strict discipline of the Mystic-priests were trained in this mighty wisdom in the interior of the Sphinx and Pyramids.

Wealth as displayed on their temple pillars, which is not war scenes as archeologists believe, but initiatory explanations of their findings as gods, that now are the root basic of man's present beliefs, and the reason why their relics are so reverenced. No man can equal their craftsmanship, especially as all was created by the skill of their hands and mind. Wealth, that if unified with the present day, could bring forth untold wealth of a genius nature, by the Law of Polarity. But only by the soul who is free of biased thoughts and beliefs of a so-called modern creation, yet really only that of sophistication.

Only by the bloodstream dancing with life gained by discarding and stripping of the false beliefs of a world buried under the evil conception of false monetary values, and false dogmatised theories, which at the present are being laid very bare.

When man can perceive Saturn as the golden alligator to eat up of the antiquated stoned ideas and transmuting into the golden light of true belief, will he become freed from his prison of false democratic beliefs. All being transmuted by the inflowing infusion of heavenly Ethers, that can bring forth the supersensitivity of the Vega uprisen light, the raised up glories of the spirit. Which is the true essence of life and glorified mind unfoldment, the Prismic beauty of hidden genius that low animal food and false drugs are destroying, for they are not the food of a fallen god.

By seeking of the heavens and the wealth being offered to the soul to gain its true heritage, it will be an ether to Ether point of extraction, where their bi-focal eyes will become ONE, and the soul see once again by the glorified Eye of Heaven, the elevated Eye of the pituitary, which man is seeking to destroy by drugs and desire.

That which can only become activated in its true unfolding beauty when fed by a clean and elevated bloodstream. Then with the pituitary acting as a swastica of three running legs, will it revolve its own continuity. A glorified spinning hub of dancing Infinity revolving round and round, where the glories of the Vesica Piscis bring forth Horus the son, as the balanced fish, or word of the mind.

The Word brought to a solarised point that brings alacrity dynamic and stupendous. This is where the truths of the ancient symbolisation are revealed to the elevated mind. Those who can polarise its enormous depths of wisdom, and bring forth the hidden mystery of unification. That which can in its heavenly rise, become Solarised, and then united with the magnitude of the Ether-Hydro glories. Where heaven and earth united in truth and volume, would give back to the god his heritage of eternal divinity.

At the present all is divided in the rational mind of light, and the irrational mind of logical creation, the conscious mind, which is so earthy as to dispute all that is really the soul growth. Ever merely stating, "Yes ! we know there is something else, but in not knowing what it is, we ignore it and go on blindly."

This is the plane of the nocturnal sun, where the mechanics of the cosmos are put into operation unseen and unheard, yet to become the Laws of Life, that as Truth, once set can never be altered. It is through these that man is seeking to learn and find the depths of life, bringing as he does, the spirit into birth. That as the soul eternal, he can become reborn as the god-like creature who fell from grace, but now endowed with a created mind, the outcome of his dilemma. Wealth obtained from his struggle with that which was the means of that soul drawing into birth yet greater heavenly Waters.

The Plane of Reality

ONLY he who has sought amongst this depth of mind revealing glory, will realise the truth and wealth of life, regarding the discarding of earthy matter. How it binds and holds the soul to the roots of the earthy depths of the creature he assumed, and now wishes to abandon. The bristling boar that drove him down to the depths, the hunted animal of Diana.

The creature that ate up the god-like divinity, and also stole the royalty of his evolving mind. Therefore, it is only by becoming free of those earthy states, that the soul can rise by mind freedom into the spinning unity of the mind dancing up and down as a free born sprite, a soul born of the heavenly Ethers.

Free in thought, unbiased in its clarity, that as a revolving mind, can conceive and bring into birth divine wonders of the heavens from the unity of unification. For by such purity of blood life their metabolism is sharp and full of spirit cunning, that can detect and perceive the interblended glories and possibilities that could be.

But the man riddled and conceived of animal blood, can perceive no higher than the glories of the stomach, so never rises any higher than the first three Chakras. While the man freed and who has discarded of the shackles that hold the soul to the depths, rises right up to the heavenly seventh. Meaning that he lives and draws off those inner depths, the wealth of the inner glories brought forth by the transmuting of the unified lunar depths, to the unfolded glorified mind. That which every man is seeking, the heavenly wealth woven into a peplos of star-born glory.

Divine perception created through a mind that was free, and had the power to interpenetrate the magnitude and depths of the dynamic creation called MAN. That through that heaven born creature that once was, find the possible glory that can come forth from that polarisation.

Wealth from the depths as blood infusion, free in its metabolised unification to unfold glories in genius perception, that could amaze the text-book born creatures of convention. Those that can diagnose the cause of the ailment, find herb prescription that that soul requires to balance bodies and organs confused in the fight for life. Organic intricacies brought about by psychological complications that need unravelling by healing propensities from a higher source of soul unification, to polarise it with its depths.

Internal states of mind light and etheric creation that are crying out for mind expression, that which must come forth from the congested state of the soul. Truths that are facts of why an organ of needed propensity is not balanced in the rhythm of mind adjustment. Not just knife it out as something unnecessary, expecting the soul to continue minus its natural ballast. It is like taking away the wheels of a car, and telling it to continue on its way.

This is where man can see but little into the mysteries of the past when the elevated Pharaoh, with organs evolved and highly tuned by unification with worlds long forgotten by modern day man, set the Laws that man is having to live by today. Then man knew, that if the past could be perceived through those organs internal, what he could do in the world of Elysium glory, by polarising that wealth with his own past depth, and bring a dominated third into birth . . . But here we are dealing with gods that once were, not earth-ridden creatures dead and stoned from chemical absorption of the depths.

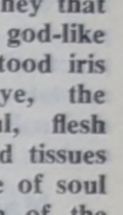

But god minds that were still aware of glories born and created from planes of divinity, that man now builds missiles to ascend to, to seek to find of their wealth. Man only knows today through the man of yesterday, and what one gave birth to, the other is treading out in the depths of matter, and wants help from those roots by unifying with what he is trying to blossom into birth at the present moment. The dharmic states of the soul, that are manifesting as pathological and psychological problems.

This and aeroplane travel, are but mechanicalised creations of what the soul can do by etheric spirit elevation and mind freedom, once the cloying depths of matter are removed. The Sargossa Sea that holds the spirit a prisoner to the rock of magnetic enormity, and blinds his eyes to the hidden depths that can bring forth the major glory, the spirit unfoldment of soul growth. For many a soul are gods lost in the intricacies of matter, and are trying to get free to get back home to the glories of heavenly planes far beyond their comprehension.

Souls that came to the earth to use polarity wealth to unfold their glories in the heights ; wealth and wisdom that only the Ancients can enlighten man upon. They that were nearer their god-like past, they who understood iris diagnosis of the eye, the window of the soul, flesh changes and postualised tissues that explained the state of soul change and disposition of the mind.

The major intricacies of health deterioration, the confusion of the mind. Yet man with developed X Ray mind and depths of perception, with Akhnaton who eventually incorporated the true sense of the spirit, which greatly expounded man and life. For he disposed of priesthood, the major bugbear of life in their vie for power, and which Papalism prototyped until their fall through Merope's unified changes.

This is wisdom that the stoned antiquarian has lost long ago in his craving for earthy recognition. For the symbol of the Egyptian Ankh, alone depicted the wonders they were accruing. Heights and depths unified by the cross of matter, for this is the Arcana of revolving continuity that can be the means of saving man today. That after the cross of struggle brings forth the divine Arcana of revolving infinity of the spirit, the expansion of mind belief.

LIFE DIVINE IN CONSCIOUS UNITY IN A WORLD OF UNFOLDED LIGHT, WHERE MATTER AND DEATH HOLD NO REGIME, AND SPIRIT CONTINUES FROM THE SOUL GROWTH OF THE GOD THAT DESCENDED INTO THE DEPTHS.

HE THAT LOST HIS WAY, FOUND IT AGAIN, BUT WITH WEALTH ADDED UNTO, OF A MAGNITUDE FAR BEYOND HIS HOPES AND BELIEFS, AND CERTAINLY OUTSTANDING THE NARROW-MINDED BIGOTS THAT ARE MERELY MULTIPLIED INTO BELIEF, BY MINDS FAR TOO BIG FOR THEIR POCKETS.

THE INNER STRUGGLE OF THE SOUL

THE Asuras and the Gods in opposition churned, driving the tortoise through the waters, that the heavenly King, the divinity of the heights, could come forth as the crowning glory of the day. As they did so the great EL powers trumpeted, with the seven headed horse neighing loudly as all was risen up to the heights. (See text on page 7, col. 4).

Reminiscences

where very soon he will awaken to a greater belief and truer outlook of life.

The Cosmic Laws are so decreed, that man has no alternative, thus infinity through the greater inflowing Cosmic Elements, will now bring him new life.

So the changes which are inevitable, are to man's good ; but as he sees now, not as he so desires, for he is going to be raised up onto the highest of the Neptunian Planes, with genius right under his finger tips. This accounts for many changes that are now taking place, particularly with the younger generation, only they are in the first throes of the change. Thus the world is going to be reborn as Revelations decreed, a world being fed by the divine Water of Life, a Stream of pure Crystal Glory.

Then when man awakens, he will find that the Earth is now being guided by the Pole Star Vega, a glory that was foretold many Ages ago. For the Pole has been risen up due North and no longer tilting, but all set and ready for the greater gyroscopic rise. So the future, set into operation by the Scapegoat, has made the way safe for man to go forward as his own priest. Where he will be guided by his own inner conscience that will be fed by true Universal Wisdom from the heavenly inflow.

The Infinity of Life

NOW let us take the mystery of the menopause. Of course we really are on the same subject, but a matter of change, which pursues for woman's own good, that is, where she understands.

While woman is virile, that is child bearing, she is really receiving hormone infusion from her pituitary, some more than others. This is her means of mind resuscitation and should be reverenced in this light, not played around with, as man is endeavouring to do today.

As a young woman, and one with a very active mind, my menstruation was very full. But the fact of my mind being active and ever seeking into higher wisdom, when the change took place, my mind was able to go on soaring upwards, and did not drop. This is where woman becomes equal to man, and begins her journey up towards the heavenly fires.

The difficulty is, when the menopause takes place, if the mind has only been of mundane planes of thought, the mind falls, and the soul is left barren. A difficulty too obvious with many, but again, changes which I feel will take place in the Race ere long, especially where a woman reaches upward and the hormone is not redundant, but active live atomic growth and mind reconstruction. For the way is now made for woman to be resuscitated from the heights, that is, if she seeks ever upwards and clings to the robe of the Divine Flame.

Then she will be able to draw down to herself of the highest glories of the heavens, and not be dependent upon anybody else for new life and reimbursement. For by a Scapegoat opening up the planes in the way that they have been, the whole world is being reborn. All it needs is the changing of man's mind onto greater and more noble themes of thought and belief. (See plate page 9, cols. 4 & 5)

IT WILL COME, FOR ALL THE COSMIC LAWS ARE REBORN, AND THAT MEANS, MAN BEING FED ON THE HIGHER PURPOSE OF LIFE.

But we must not forget that man also makes a change of life, and from 35 onwards he begins to become aware of his earlier discrepancies. Either through too much physical licence, or a lack of mind training. So it is not just woman, although she depends upon her revolving action already set into motion, to continue when the virility of life ceases.

Then there should be a unified channel between heights and depths of the soul that becomes her revolving infinity through the frictioning fount as spiritual stimulus. Her raised up spiritual mind which will carry her on and upwards back to the glories she came from. For she as the first descent of the Race, came out of the side of Adam, the heavenly re-issue of Brahmic life. In dropping to the base, they made the Fall into human desires and became dual and incestuous.

Now the Waters as Cosmic Rays are beginning to cleanse the Race and raise them up to their rightful glory of god-born creatures. Unfortunately we are the generation of change, it will be the incoming Race that will be born of greater parentage, whereby entities from higher planes will come into birth when the time is fully set.

Egyptian Mysteries

comes forth and brings rebirth of what was, into a state of now. Thus sensitivity once lost is resurrected with the experience of knowing, while practical application makes it a state of durability in individualization. Then the soul evolves as light.

Mastering of the Personality States

THIS becomes as the aeriform part of the soul creation, the essence that lives in the blood as the gaseous vapour. When it leaves it is defined in its quality by vibration and colour. This selfsame quality, on returning into matter, extracts from the mother's blood the qualities that make it into the soul's individualization. Consequently it is the mother that counts in a soul's life, particularly the son, for he is nearer the bone, being the polarity as the seed cause of the establisher.

It was a very strong belief with many ancient tribes that the Ancestors were the most important part of the soul, because they were the consistency that declared war or peace. The Zulus when asked as to whether they believed in God replied to the effect that they had not seen him, but the dead they had. Their real trouble was in preventing the "departed" from returning; and if this is given due consideration you will realise the sense in their belief.

The "departed" to a soul was the ancestors or personality states of the past that are treading the road of Kali; those states that continually take up renewed residence and over-ride the present creation.

(See the plate below)

As the race became more earthbound and less sensitive, this raised many improvisos that gave them a state of security and now becomes a forged act. So a state of appeasing the dead began, and led the more sophisticated races to the understanding of "feeding" the dead so that all could be raised up from the base and the ancestors enfolded into the vapoury essence. Of course this did not pass without many fetishes being adopted; human nature is like that.

In one particular instance an Australian aborigine cut off his right thumb to prevent his returning ghost from handling a spear or club. Well if this is seen in its actual purpose, the abstract sense can be beheld. The thumb represents the will, the power of gripping, which was not strong enough to prevent the ancestor state from rising up and becoming out of hand in temper, and using his spear or club in detriment; and to his acute sorrow when the storm was over.

This mode of ancestor enfoldment became the fetish of the funeral feast, and a mortuary meal was provided to feed the spirits after they were placed in the tomb. Well, is that not still the custom and the only recollection that the majority have of the funeral.

The primitive provided prayers and a meal so as to appease the dead, and even going to the state of flagellation causing the blood to flow, which of course caused movement in the bloodstream.

We have to realize that many of these myths take on an embellished description to convey their mode of thought around an act not fully understood. Who now would believe that the funeral meal resulted from the aged belief of appeasing the "living" ancestors. Now it has become a matter of conventionality of that which is "done" and expected; and often it is a matter of a good feed, and the deceased never even being mentioned.

The primitive who was very near to nature declared that he saw these ancestral ghosts, and furthermore he could smell them out. You do not have to be an aborigine or native priest, for many today see states with souls who have gone back on themselves; such forms as gorillas, hunchbacks and spiders.

Man when he returns upon himself kaleidoscopes all that has been, and brings about a state of condensed deterioration. This is the rock that will not yield of life and becomes a state of hardened solidity until it begins to crumble away into dust. When the rock is duly crushed so as to make new earth, it becomes fertile from the humus buried therein. Then a new rock commences until a time arrives when a polished rock of finest marble with blood red veins infusing its beauty, becomes the creation of the soul.

THE CURSE OF EVE

WOMAN, the creator of all life, yet she blamed for all and sundry, was the only means of moving man into action out of the darkness of his inertia. But she took upon herself a burden that only now has been redeemed, hence the time has come when she can blossom forth her mind. (See text on page 16, col. 5).

Then "UPON THAT ROCK I BUILD MY CHURCH"; the "I" being the godhead of the soul seeking the three legged stool, that it can reach up to the heights and grasp the "ROBE" of the unseen Presence.

The Holy Spirit

THE appeasing of the ancestors born from the animistic state was a strong point with the native. This was very necessary to those who were seeking to bring forth the Horus as the Child of the Blood-Mother. This matter of a divine soul was seen very clearly by the native, though naturally in many degrees and ideas; for even he knew that the whole "SEVEN SOULS OF RA" had to become One before the soul was a powerful Amsu, or fiery creation.

The human Horus divinized became the medium of the father-god, that higher Powers of Life could vibrate to and radiate their harp renderings to humanity seeking for new life. This would be a soul capable of delivering unction.

By this it can be seen that Ra, the Solar force as Holy Spirit, was now the source of divine descent for human souls who were now of a higher status than earlier gods, and even those higher than the mother-soul. By such interblending, which came by the sacrifice of the lunar that completely ostracized the soul creation, the rock formation grew; for in time Uranus became the impending shaft of "BREAKER-OPEN," and the rock would be split into many formidable pieces that had to finally receive its crushing by the events set into action.

Then Horus when born declares "I AM THE EVERLASTING ONE, WITNESS OF ETERNITY IS MY NAME." The king who never dies is now the divine personage that has taken the place of the Bull of Eternity, and is a state of immortality that now is seeking to demonstrate of life eternal, to be able to finally close the tomb's scrolled gates.

THE SOUL'S POWER OF BODIES AND STATES HAVING NOW COME TO A FINALE AS THE TRANSFIGURATION ON THE MOUNTAIN TOP; AND AS HE COMMUNED WITH GOD, ALL CAME DESCENDING DOWN AS BLOOD CONTENT TO ALL THE ATOMS OF SOUL CREATION, AND THEY BECOMING AS A PERSONAGE OF VEILED FACE.

This reveals the "WISE OLD MAN," or original state of seven in its now fully expressed status of being. What Adam saw from A to Z as Alpha and Omega, now becomes a reality; a being of complete immortality. The soul now the seer, medicine man and the hero of the hour. Now the horses can be taken from the hero's cortège and replaced by human beings in the place of the beast.

This is where the prophet and prophetess is born and the ancient wisdom is revealed; but according to the evolved state of the soul would the rebounding Ancient of Days speak and manifest of its ancient miracles and magic. Thus the Mother Blood from "A" made into the completeness of "Z" producing the oil of Azoth.

The "OTH" describes the journey of the caravan from Ur to Damascus. This is the power of Word gathered that God manifests in the flesh as light and wisdom, and the superhuman power gained as the soul's passage through Amenta. By this the soul can open doors that have been closed against him, and he declares "I BRING MY MAGICAL CHARMS WHICH I HAVE COLLECTED FROM EVERY QUARTER."

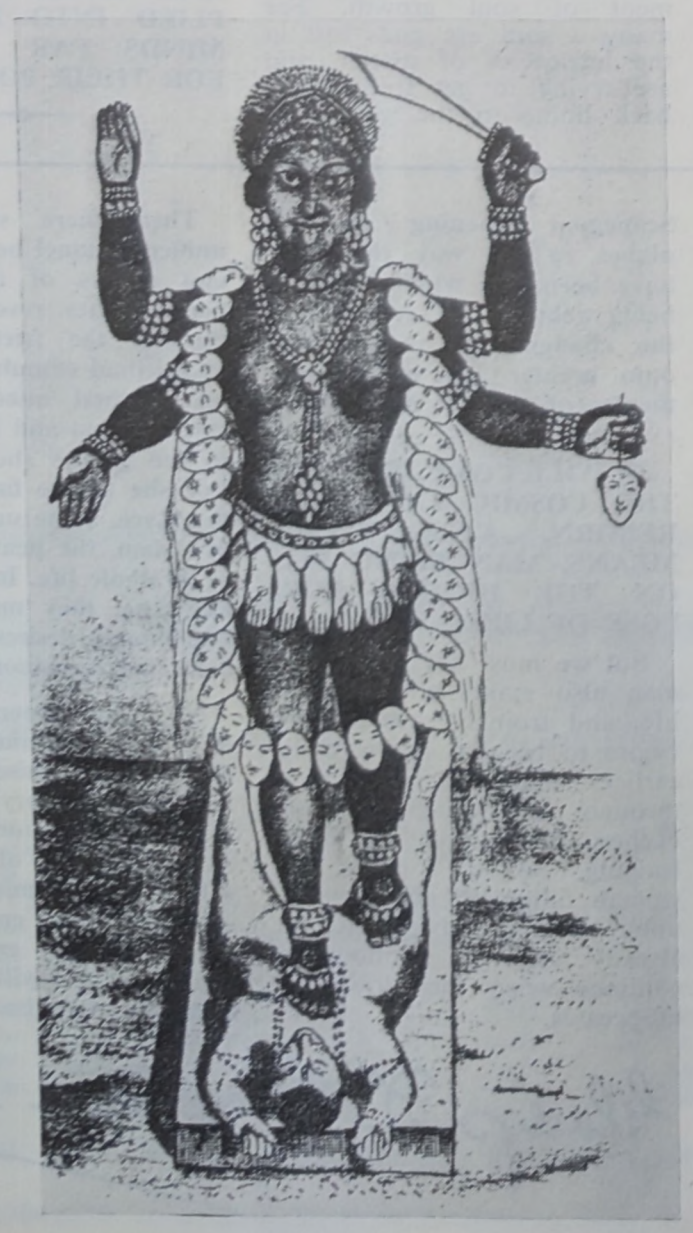

The Living Conscience

THAT which has become the basic foundation for Christian Religion was that of the Egyptian eschatology that was founded and moulded from mythology; but in reality is the basic for Universal Philosophy and that only which warrants a safe return to relativity.

It is the seven ever coming forth from the Seven of Creation, and the basic obtained from the ancestors of Ra. Thus when the personality of the soul is reconstituted in Amenta (Spirit) for the higher permanent establishment, its foundation of these seven external souls is the highest when in its Ka representation. The seventh personified in the human Horus in the Robe, or enduring Personality. When this is achieved in the earth life, the soul has the power of raising the dead.

They become divine kings and spiritual emperors, and when the Sibyl as the unfolding Mary, pointed out to the emperor of the virgin and Child, she was directing the soul to divinity that he could become immortal and complete relativity be achieved.

reveal her hidden lord. He, seeking to unite with her by sending down succour, has grown in wisdom in the approaching unity; while she now directs the fatherhood in the reverence he must assume in her impending duty, that her lord can come forth from the tomb in the united bodies of light.

This masterhood must be obtained that the Karasted (Christed) can become the cartouche of divinity. Thus Sut, the black motherhood, has after aeons of giving birth, been retrieved unto the lord, and as ONE they enter the Garden of Redemption in royal Glory. This is the vision of Omega and Alpha rich with "OTH"; the oil of becoming and travailing Unity of lives on the PLANE of Enlightenment; the Buddhic.

The water turned to rich wine and the wedding completed as the lord of wisdom prepares for his ascension. And the Harlot in purple carries Mystery upon her brow, for she is the conscious mind, all else being stored consciousness that draws from, and now unites with, in the Garden of Allah.

THE ONCE LIVING LINK AS THE CONSCIENCE, NOW THE MISSING LINK IN THE TWO WORLDS UNITED. THE SERPENT NOW FORCED TO GO ON ITS BELLY AS THE MAGICIAN WRESTS THE MAGICAL POWER FROM IT BY TAKING POSSESSION OF ITS SIGHT. THE BLACK MAGIC OF AGES BECOMES THE LAMB AS WHITE AS DRIVEN SNOW.

All performed by the magical fluid called "SA" that circulated the veins as a mortal, the eucharistic fluid of the Gods, now in the veins of the transformed mortal; and the god Taht, the ruling Power of Thought, the transformer in the moon, adorns the Robe of the Solar morning.

Was it not Solomon who sang "WHO IS SHE WHO LOOKETH FORTH AS THE MORNING, FAIR AS THE MOON, CLEAR AS THE SUN, AND TERRIBLE AS AN ARMY WITH BANNERS." (S. of S. 6 v. 10). But Solomon lost the ring and in stepped a 1000 wives.

To obtain this there must be sacrifice on the Altar of existence and the ichor flows into and accumulates as the receiver becomes immortal. This was drawn from the Lake of Sa on mount He-hept in the northern heavens, which is a glacier of frozen water which drips continually into the chalice of the serving one.

But ere all had been brought to Utopia, there had been invocatory prayers by all the "TRIBES" of that creation, and many had run stark naked through the town shrieking and gesticulating as the stream of life was becoming infused by the cold crystal waters from the heights. This led later deteriorated tribes to assume this fetish under the "BONDS OF GESA," where all was bound and united by magical spells. In latin it is revealed as re-ligio, the magical tie.

The Spiritual Man

THE human soul has been derived from the external elements, and furthermore has attained the power of resurrection into an after-life, with the Elder Horus becoming the IMpubescent child. But as he rises from the tomb in ichthyphallic form, Amsu comes forth as Horus who speaks and declares, "I AM THE EVERLASTING ONE AND THE LINK." This is the soul beyond the human and the Kamite is now reborn and united in the Ka, the double of the former self.

All through life it was the image of the higher spiritual self that was worshipped by divine oblations as the divine ideal. As the Ka of the Pharaohs it was worshipped in the image of Ra. So whether you perceive Ka, Kra, Kla or Karen, all refer to the portrait of the spiritual man. Hence the oblations of flesh and blood, bread and beer, ungents and incense to encourage the spirit to survive, for the Ka could escape and leave the body bereft.

Right from the time of the Great Mother, Sekhet-Bast, the supreme being who was uncreated by the gods, was the Only One worshipped. Then they were as one being, not many gods, but in her sinking into the depths as Persephone she lost her Cunning and was rewarded with cunning contrivance. But her future workings were in the hands of Neith, Astarte and Athene who were the Goddesses who followed in her name as Venus rose up out of the waters.

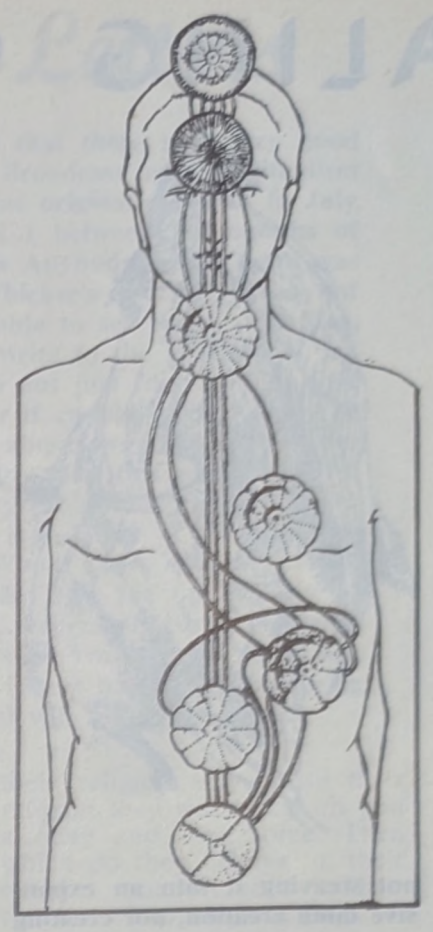

It was from this stream, although aeons of time to follow, that Spiritualism with mediumship came into vogue; although modern mediumship is lacking considerably the supreme oblations that make it a royal art. It was from this theory of life that man in later times believed that the Egyptians had the idea that they came back to earth and lived again in the old bodies; or when they went into the nether world they entered into animal form and many other just as stupid illusions.

They never believed in any such thing, they were a far too intelligent race. In fact so intelligent, as to leave the prototype for the stream of human life that followed, and which is carried out to the letter today in your religion, courts and government.

All Egyptians believed that in death the Spirit rose again and lived on, and for this reason the Ka as a mummy statue was erected in their funerary chamber. This was sealed up with their favourite belongings so that the power they had accumulated, would hold in that spot and they could continue from their spirit abode. With regard to the (See plate in cols. 2, 3 & 4) animal theory; they judged all by the animal grade of strength, for if you were one slovenly in growth you were as an hippopotamus. If sprightly, as an antelope, if an hog, one that grovelled in the dung; therefore when you entered spirit you could not enter onto any other plane but which warranted a hippopotamus or antelope.

In the Ritual, man is advised that there are 144 rubical directions in the doctrine whereby the seven bodies are bound into One, and the Ka is created. This brings the soul to the eighth, or the Horus repetitional creation, where the mummy Horus transforms into a risen Horus; the soul greater for the experience of dying and finding rebirth onto a new plane of life.

Every time a soul goes through an experience it has to die from its old state and become risen into the new, and to rise onto a finer plane of existence by the effort of mastering the experience. This has ever been and ever will be, for what was in the past still holds as the way of the future; for whether man wants to be modern, antichrist or communist, he cannot avoid fate and destiny.

THE CHAKRA UNFOLDMENT

THE Kereb wheels set into motion by Sargon the First Kirubu priest of his time, gave to Ezekiel the understanding of chakras all covered in eyes. Wheel after wheel driving forth, each one revolving faster and faster. (See text in col. 5).

EGYPTIAN BURIAL CHAMBER

THE magnificence of Egypt, the glory of the past, where death was honoured, and life was reverenced in a way that only they knew how. The walls portraying the massive wealth put into action by the soul in his journey through life. Thus here at his parting his widow laments and the heavens open to receive his glories into the Cosmic Egg. (See text in col. 2).

In the directions it was ordered that incense should be burned. This is a practice well in operation in the present day religion, and even in spiritualistic seances. The idea in the Ritual was that there was the need for an offering to the spirit, that a breath of new life would drive the hedgehog into the undergrowth. This was a spiny creature that brought many thorns into the flesh by his innoculation of memory. If he could be driven into dissolution, the soul would be saved much on its new journey.

The Egyptian wisdom informs us that the offering of food and drink to the soul of life in the blood, was from the postulation that the so-called dead were still living in the spirit form. They were still existing in the Spirit-Ka and had to be transmuted.

Egypt was the world of wisdom and ancient and modern theology have followed explicitly in their theme, although altering dates and names completely to substantiate the fact that they were the originators and not the borrowers. Mother Bast was the soul beginning, and from her followed the water-cow as Apt, Hathor the milch-cow and Reit the sow who was the suckler.

Rannut was the serpent of renewal in fruits of the earth; and as Mother of life-vegetation she was Apt in the dom-palm. Then you continue with Uati in the papyrus, Hathor in the sycamore fig, Isis in the persea-tree; and as the Mother of Corn, was called Sekhet or field, as a title of Isis. It can be seen by this that religion began with the Mother or Eve of life, and the Father began his abode when mankind were ready to perceive. Christianity followed on adopting Isis in the form of the virgin Mary, making her the Mother of God.

Understanding The Fires of Life

IN the beginning as stated in the Christian Bible, woman came into being from the side of Adam. Adam was the Great Unknown to be emulated in man as Red Adam, but always through Eve the Great Mother Nature of all Life. It is she who has suckled humanity to draw them back to the Father who gave the original birth. So in the beginning the Word was the Goddess, and not actually established as God.

The Great Mother as Ombos was the Living Word; in her original form she was the lioness-headed Sekhet-Bast who was worshipped in Inner Africa as "THE ONLY ONE." She brought life and light to not only Egypt and Africa but the whole world at the time, though it was not seen for the time being. Nothing could be more crudely and erroneously interpreted than the Bible trio of Man, Woman and the serpent.

We know that by the Fall that began then, and which has corically continued ever since, that the serpent is the activating Fire that drives man into generation and rebirth. Since he chose that road, alright, he learns that way to find out what the Abyss holds and consists of. To gain upward rise out of the density, he must master the matter he has adopted and become enmeshed in. This is his hell. And when he can so master the serpent, that he can cause its fire to rise up the rod of life firing all his Chakras, he then will have found the way to the illuminati of becoming.

(See diagram in col. 3)

Serpent worship is the propitiation of the power symbolised by the Goddess Rannut, whereby "Tree worship" became the mode of veneration, with Hathor or Nut as the giver in the Tree. From then onwards the fruit of the kernel, or the kernel of being, has ever been the mystery saying in life's vocabulary.

Before the human Father could be personalized as the progenitor, causation would have to be made embryo in utero by fecundation of the Mother, and in one of the Solar litanies you find "O THOU BEAUTIFUL BEING WHO RENEWEST WITHIN THYSELF IN SEASON AS THE DISK WITHIN THY MOTHER HATHOR; THE HEIR OF ETERNITY, SELFBEGOTTEN AND SELFBORN." This as the type of self-motion is the eternal ever-coming child. The child that came from the seventh nature soul, the mortal who was incarnated by the Mother's virgin blood. Horus in both sexes represents the continual rebirth of the Spirit. Thus in the unifying of powers in the Mother Goddess, the father god was blended forth as Ptah, the divine being. It is the mother giving birth to Atum and the associate gods.

That is the highest that can be divinized in the Solar mythology, and is Horus as the hawk-headed on the Eastern Mount. The Aries or pioneer creation on the first house of astrological wisdom is the eastern uprising. This was Atum-Horus who had attained the blended power of the Holy Spirit in the Ka image or the son Hu. This was seen as the divinized ghost. It is in this that the hymn to the hidden god Amen-Ra became established, and the limitless God as Fu-Nen-tera as a mode of describing the illimitable.

This became the Father, Son and Holy Ghost of present religion which is as old as Men-Ka-Pa, the Osiris living eternally for nearly eight thousand years, or even more, who knows? With Horus and Sut as the twins of light and darkness, the seven elemental powers in seven souls which bore fruit in the water renewal in Osiris. This is the Bull of Eternity drawing all up out of the water of Life.

Having established of the embryo and ever renewal of Spirit life, we will now seek into the mysteries of Amenta or Spirit, whereby we can see how the dead fare.

THE HEALING COLUMN

THE charts taken this month for healing advice reveal a great deal of confusion with the souls concerned, but I would like to say to all readers in general who might be experiencing this difficulty that the only answer is by genuinely seeking in prayer and by cultivating a straight action of thinking. By this I mean not a lot of mundane confusion that often the newspapers and television can bring to a soul, but ever keeping one's mind upon the higher realms, ever seeking to forge a greater link with those of the Spirit World. Try as hard as you can not to allow yourself to become filled with all the fourth rate atmosphere that is infusing the world at the moment; try to move with the Higher Stream that is now flowing to the Earthplane, which is being directed by the Higher Powers to try and straighten all out in the depths. We must remember that over the Ages man has grown many deep 'roots' which now must all be cleared away. While this is happening there will be many complain of this confusion. The best way to counteract this is to do everything in a balanced and orderly way, and to drive on with a one pointed purpose of spiritual intent, and in this way any difficulties that might have become serious problems, should be vastly diminished.

In Search of Light

Mrs. D. B. M.,
California, U.S.A.

"Am anxious to know how to heal an eye and ear condition of long standing, but am not as anxious about my health as I am in finding the right path to the Divine Light. Since studying the occult, I've had much conflicting literature sent to me from all sources. It is like being adrift on a stormy sea, not knowing which course to follow."

IN looking into this chart (1151) one can see quite easily why the ears and eyes, two important faculties, are being troublesome, for the whole of the chart, I am afraid, displays one mass of confusion. In the 10th house the Moon and Uranus are conjunct in Pisces, indicating that the soul continually swings from the Moon to Uranus and then from Uranus back again; never maintaining a constant drive of struggle to achieve, but ever falling back into the luna waters.

Pluto in the 1st house, especially in Cancer, always indicates confusion, and without a doubt Mrs. M. is only ever looking for knowledge, when her Path of Destiny in the 11th house indicates that she should be looking for the spirit. Then Mars in the 7th house in Sagittarius, again indicates the soul's refusal to change and come away from their normal state of activities.

Consequently Jupiter, the expansion, is retrograde in the 5th house, and practically conjunct to Saturn, which would suggest a complete retention of any expansive states, and a complete Saturn outlook instead of will and determination to find the answer to their problems. Gemini upon the 1st house is at the present only being approached from an angle of the mundane mind, instead of bringing the expansion that it should do.

Mrs. M. writes in her letter that "she has received much conflicting literature."

I would advise her to throw it all away, for it will only lead to a greater state of confusion than before. To follow more than one Teaching will always lead a soul to disaster and is strongly to be avoided by all true seekers. Instinct alone, by genuine searching, should lead the soul on to the right path.

The eye and ear condition of Mrs. M. is due to this confused state being with them for many ages. The only answer to all this, is the soul getting down to some real true enquiry and making up their mind which way they want to go.

If Mrs. M. looks deeply into herself she will probably find that orthodoxy is still strongly with her. She must struggle trebly hard now and have a clear understanding within her mind of just what it is she is really seeking for.

Unfortunately with such a chart there is a strong suggestion that the more Mrs. M. is told, the more confused she gets, but only she can untie the Gordian Knot and unravel its mystery, and this will only be accomplished by genuinely reaching out in prayer for guidance.

Mrs. M's. whole trouble is that her conscious mind is continually feeding the subconscious mind with all the knowledge it can find, and is not weaving it into an expansive mind creation, nor creating any true purpose from it. I am very sorry that I have had to be so blunt and straight to the point but I feel it is the only way to make you see, Mrs. M., that everything lies at your own doorstep.

IT IS NOW UP TO YOU TO GO FORWARD WITH ALL CONFIDENCE AND DETERMINATION, TRULY SEEKING TO BECOME AN AGENT FOR THE HIGHER POWERS TO USE, AND YOU WILL BE AMAZED AT WHAT YOU COULD BRING FORTH.

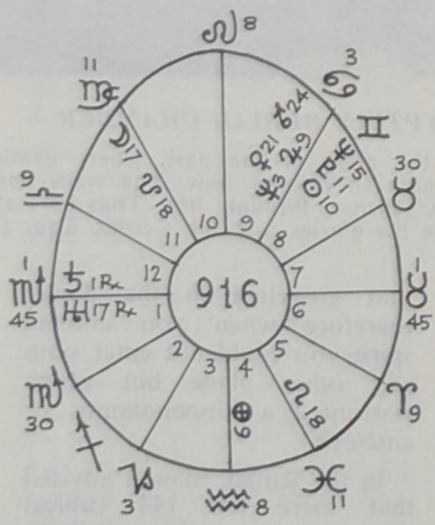

The Initiate's Path

Mrs. M. H. A.,
Jasper, New York, U.S.A.

"Could you please help me with herbs for unfoldment."

THIS is rather a strange request, seeking herbs to gain mind unfoldment, but I will answer it as best I can. EYEBRIGHT and LILY OF THE VALLEY, although they will not exactly give you mind unfoldment, will however clear the intent of the mind. Since your chart (916) is already prepared I will look into it for you to see what it is is causing the difficulty with you.

Straight away we see that you have Saturn in the 12th house and retrograde, and this will always bring a state of severe retention plus a certain amount of mind confusion. But that does not mean to say that you have no wisdom possibilities, for Uranus in the 1st house indicates that somewhere in the past you have gathered extreme sensitivity and unfoldment. Uranus is a very profound planetary influence and could only have come to one who had been reaching up very high.

To me this spells Papalism, where as a nun you were forced up to the very heights, but left without the wisdom. This is shown by four planets in the house of extended wisdom in the sign of Cancer, meaning that you had reached the frequency of wisdom but not the depths of the wisdom itself.

At the same time you have three planets down the eighth house in Gemini, which means you will not rise above the mundane outlook, so consequently you have Scorpio upon your 1st house, that your conscious mind can learn the depths and rudiments of the generative fire.

In other words the necessity for plowing and drawing down the real wealth into your inner being by struggle and a true heart-purpose. This is again indicated by your Path of Destiny being in the 4th house, the house of rebirth.

In answer to your original question, nobody can really be helped to make unfoldment, all depends upon the soul's struggle, or lack of struggle, in seeking into the deeper Truths. Before I finish I see that you have no Fire signs but six of Water. This plainly indicates that you have ever remained down in the luna depths and never built up a fiery body through wisdom.

This again verifies my earlier statement of a roman catholic state, for although you were forced up to a high frequency as a nun, all ever remained in the luna condition, due to your never being given the corresponding wisdom whereby all would have been turned into that of the solar.

THIS THE TEACHINGS IN THE OCCULT GAZETTE WILL NOW GIVE YOU THE OPPORTUNITY TO SO DO.

The Laws of Change

Mrs. T. M., Ohio, U.S.A.

(First letter sent in early 1966).

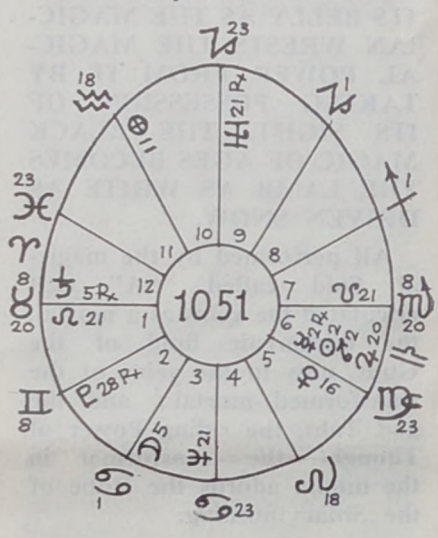

"I have been operated on for goiter but now it has come back again. I have been to a doctor and he recommends to take radio-active iodine internally. Also is there anything you can give to get rid of black spots in the eyes."

IN answer to this letter we recommended MARIGOLD FLOWERS, ST. JOHN'S WORT, HORSETAIL and HOLY THISTLE herbs to help draw in of the solar rays. Recently we received another letter from Mrs. M. in which she said:

"After several weeks I broke out all over with Hives, my skin got so hot and it itched so bad that I thought I would go crazy. It lasted for three hours and then subdued. I decided to stop taking the herbs and now the Hives have disappeared. Could you tell me if this is the way that herbs work or am I allergic to them."

The more I receive letters seeking healing advice and then look into the corresponding charts, the more I am convinced of how genuine and true is astrological wisdom which truly deserves the name of "THE WITNESS."

In looking into this chart (1051) we immediately see that its owner has built no Fire bodies but has five of Air, which shows they have merely built up of knowledge and not wisdom. The fact that the soul has seven planets in Cardinal signs also indicates that they will be very hard to move.

Mrs. M. may say, as do many others, that she is trying, she has changed, when really she has not. Saturn in the 12th house is very difficult to move into new ideas, and the retention it would bring to the soul would not help in the necessity to change and move forward upon the new way of living.

Again in the chart we see that there are four planets in the sixth house of health in Libra, and although it is an ultra-sensitive sign, it is also a very lethargic one, and with Virgo upon the sixth house cusp it again denotes a fixed state of mind. This has resulted in the soul bringing all to a "HARD BOILED EGG" state and not an egg that can be hatched. This may sound a funny way of putting it but it truly describes what the soul has been brought to by the past lives.

I do ask Mrs. M. not to just dismiss what has been given as 'mere opinion,' for it is no good kicking against the information asked for when it is given to us, we must face up to it and start putting things right.

In this life Mrs. M. has awakened and is now earnestly seeking for expansion, and would be her higher mind crying out for help, otherwise there is a tendency for Cain to kill Abel, with the soul left completely derelict. There is only one thing to do, and that is to work as hard as possible ever seeking a clarified thought upon the wisdom and then trying to bring an expansion to it.

Your goiter is a throat condition and is due to the thyroid not drawing in of the solar light. I am in no doubt at all that a goiter is directly due to

Readers' Letters

WE have just been notified that there is a very good chance of the Television Broadcast upon Spiritualism and the Occult which was originally shown in July 1966, being shown again on B.B.C.1 between the months of June/August 1967. It was called "Is Anybody There," and was one of the programmes from "Whicker's World." If any of our readers in England were not able to see this at the time, I most strongly suggest that they write to the B.B.C. and ask to have it shown again. Please do not just forget about this, and leave it to the next reader, for if enough people do write in upon this subject, it should just about sway the issue in our favour, and I am sure you will agree that this is a wonderful chance to spread the Truth to a great number of the population. The address to write to is:—Head of TV Feature Programmes, Television Centre, Wood Lane, London, W.12. If readers in the U.S.A. would also like the opportunity of seeing this programme, would they please write also to the B.B.C. representative in America, at the following address:—Mr. J. Aistrop, 630, Fifth Avenue, New York 20, N.Y., U.S.A. Who knows, if enough letters arrive asking to see it, American viewers might also be seeing the programme in the near future. I leave it in your hands, and will await the results.

Walter A. Kooistra, Indiana, U.S.A.

Dear Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

AFTER reading the February issue of Occult Gazette I felt I should write you a few words because of the great burden you are carrying, yet with great determination you are carrying on regardless of the setbacks you meet with at times; it is not an easy road and few if any would volunteer as you have, regardless of the Great Rewards Spiritually.

At times it becomes most discouraging, I know, as I am experiencing many things, as you are, in trying to help them go forward. In my opinion and experience I believe if we can find one sincere and honest seeker in ten thousand we have gained a large percentage. Ever does it remain in my mind, "If you raise up but one ye too shall be raised up also." So in those words we find great encouragement and strength.

Today I have noticed, the great majority are seeking Mediums and Spiritualists, not Occult; whether they feel this can help them to the Heights, I do not know, it seems they are seeking entertainment rather than TRUTH and Progress; again in seeking Mediums and Spiritualists, they want to know about themselves, the old theme and desire of self-preservation.

For about three years I have been struggling with one Over There, trying to Teach him and help him, but he is no different now than when he was in the physical body over here. The other day he called me and said he had a problem. Mostly when he calls me, he always has the same story, needing help. So, I said to him, "Bill, what is it that keeps you from going ahead, I told you many times if you will but concentrate and meditate the answer will come from within." He said "Yes, I know, Walter, you have told me that many times, but when I am meditating, along comes a beautiful woman and I just cannot concentrate."

He is no different now than before when he was over here, all that was on his mind was women, spending most of his time in taverns (Pubs) with women, and that was all he ever wished to talk about, a Scorpio.

Yet that is only one of the cases I am working on, though I have plenty more, some of those I have helped are now Teachers over there, so you see we do get some happiness and joy as well as reward from our efforts, we cannot expect too much from earthlings, as we are living in the time of the "Fall" as you know, but you cannot make them understand or believe that, that is, the majority as you know. Yes, the majority are so pleasure bent, they laugh and jeer at those who are serious, they are satisfied with conditions as they are, they are leaners not lifters, they want you to do all the work while they sit back and take it easy. They do not think they must help themselves, they feel you can do it all, as you claim to have the Power.

As one over there once said to me, "How is it you know so much of life over here." I said, "When you are over there long enough you will find the answer to your own question."

All through my life Orthodox religionists have been telling me they believe in God, but when you start to talk about God they do not want to hear that, as they tell you they get enough of that on Sunday in their church. They think you are a fanatic when you talk religiously. But do they think their priest, minister or rabbi is a fanatic when he talks to them religiously? Why certainly not. But if you talk about their religion and praise their religion they will talk with you all day and then some. Then which do they believe in, their religion or God? Their religion of course, not God.

I have attended the services in many churches of all denominations and one thing I have found in all of them is that the Pillars of the church (Politicians and bankers, etc.) sit in the front pews and those do the clerics and the masses glorify, the poor are unnoticed as they leave the church. In 1965 the churches took in seven billion dollars here in America (U.S.). Do they pay any tax on that? Not one penny as you know. They invest that in commerce and industry where they do not pay one penny on those profits either. And so they call them Non-profit organisations, whereby the Government contributes heavily to their coffers.

Well, I see that you are also a stamp collector by your little note in the Occult Gazette this month, I am a stamp collector myself, as a hobby. I am sending you some of the stamps from U.S., and I will send more in the future, from time to time.

May His Greatest Blessings and the Greatest Blessings be upon you always, Beloved Friend.

Mrs. M. R., West Kirby.

I am enclosing 30/- to renew my subscription to the O.G. AT LAST I have begun to understand the Teachings. For a very long time I plodded doggedly through them, as through a Russian Grammar, thinking, well some people claim to understand them so it must be possible. It made almost no sense to me, but I did get occasional flashes of insight while reading, though these never seemed to have anything to do with the text. It was a long hard struggle, but it is at last bearing fruit.

Now I think I understand your references to "Mind Expansion" and becoming "Stoned" through my own experiences (meaningless before), but with realisation my heart almost stops at the enormity of the task you have undertaken. I really wanted to understand, but too many don't. My admiration for you has gone up enormously, because the idea of bringing some measure of enlightenment to all would daunt the stoutest heart.

IT IS ABSOLUTELY STAGGERING! I NEVER REALISED BEFORE WHAT YOU WERE TRYING TO DO.

I have been very interested in the recent upheavals in the catholic church, as I spent 3 years at a convent boarding school and was deeply affected by the beautiful music although I could never accept all their details of dogma. I was thoroughly shocked by your first onslaught on this church, especially as I have had a number of catholic friends whom I loved dearly. However after the second reading I recognised the truth of all you said, and thank you for saying it.

As a child I stuck out like a sore thumb in a large devout family, as the only one who questioned what I was taught, and always longed to believe like the others. Perhaps that is the key. My love and prayers go out to you, and I wish you strength and success in your superhuman task. I hope to do my bit when I understand enough to pass something on, but unfortunately so far I have only struck stony ground.

Mrs. Hazel M. G. Pouliot, Montreal, Canada.

How can I thank you for all the treasured literature I've received from the storehouse of Zamiaar and her undying love for humanity. I speak of these Teachings on the slightest chance that comes my way, and whenever someone complains about the worldwide confusion and mounting crime they are told to take these situations in world affairs as growing pains, for soul sickness abounds.

So firstly we must look into ourselves and learn the cause and do our utmost to raise ourselves up out of the mire in which the world is in, as a start and not only will these wretched situations cease but the very earth on which we live will yield its beauty and food supply in abundance; the miserable chemicals put into the ground will not help the earth, but slowly deplete its capacity for proper and essential growth. I read with interest the article in the February issue of the O.G. about the added brilliance of the sun. I will continue to point this out to awaken somehow the truly dead ones.

★ Reader's Appreciation of Chart Delineation ★

Miss D. Davies, West Bromwich, Staffs.

DEAR Mrs. Spearman-Cook,

Thank you for the Tape Delineation which arrived on Friday, also for the charts and photograph of yourself. It is strange that you should have enclosed the photo' because I meant to ask for one to be included, when I last wrote to you.

I managed to borrow a tape recorder (until my own comes back), and it was wonderful listening to you—as if you were in the same room. I shall need to have it on many more times, in order to take it all in, but even listening to it just once makes me realise that I still have quite an upward climb. Thank you so much for your advice and help and I will write to you later on and let you know how much progress I have made.

You mentioned some lectures upon the "Electro-Magnetic" that would be useful to me, and I would like them sent to me and I will send cost of same when I know how much they are. Thank you again for your help and advice, I am so glad to have met you.

the lack of wisdom and the mind body of the internal soul deficient. The black spots before the eyes indicates liver trouble, and since you have Saturn in Taurus in the 12th house, and Taurus is also upon your 1st house, liver and Taurus go very strongly together.

You state, Mrs. M., that you might be allergic to the herbs; this is a rather strange remark, for herbs are so harmless they would not hurt a child. I would like to have a better understanding of your diet first, and then I think we might be able to get a little deeper into your problem.

The Bridal Journey

by A. E. Waite

He called her with a mighty cry :—
"Come forth! I need thee, eye to eye :
Lo, all of mortal life I set
Aside for thee!" She, hearing, came—
A virgin soul of purest flame—
And their eyes met.

From out her house of flesh came she ;
He stood, a spirit grandly free
From mortal veil and bond.
They left their bodies side by side—
The blessed bridegroom and the bride—
And soar'd beyond.

The paths of light their presence own
And zones beyond the starry zone ;
A light outshining suns for them
Was granted as a diadem,
And where no mortal steps have trod
They follow'd the high quest of God.

EGYPTIAN MYSTERIES

Creation Called Life Part 7

by Gladys I. Spearman-Cook

THE CORN-SPIRIT HAD A DEPTH THAT HELD STRENGTH IN EVERY Nation, and after the explanation given in the last issue regarding these primitive states of totemism and fetishism, we can readily understand why they perceived there were animal embodiments of the spirit in the corn; yet we might find it difficult to perceive the Corn-Mother sacrificed for the crops, as later tribes lost the real meaning, or even unto the Pleiades from whence came the God-power. Mother Nature giving of her life that the Powers of life can nourish man, and corn not only resembles seed for re-harvesting, but food when ground down into the workable commodity.

The Corn Spirit

IN Egypt it linked with the death and resurrection of the Gods, for by drawing down of those Powers from the heights it gave the crops power and life. By Persephone being helped, the people of the world were taught agriculture by Demeter, she being Mother Nature. In the statement already made, Hosea declares "You have become the whore of every cornfloor"; you allow every passing desire to capture and prostitute you. So it was commanded of the God of vegetation that he brought life and not captivity; richness of seeds and harvests full of waving corn.

But to have the corn-spirit as a wolf, dog, cock, hare or goat was the spirit of fulness caught by the animal self, and the corn-spirit had to be killed at reaping and threshing for doing damage in the cornfield. In the Eleusinian mysteries this was acted as a rite and kept as a yearly festival, for the myth of Demeter and Persephone displays the depth best of all; and what these ancients were seeking to convey, was of the depth to man in 1962. It was foreseen that this would be a time when an whole army of rats and mice would completely devastate the sowing of tomorrow; for no seed today, no sowing in the spring.

Persephone the Spirit is captured and taken down into Hades, consequently Demeter the Mother sorrows; for Mother Earth, or Mother Cancer in the individual man, would not be able to pass on to her daughter the fruits of her labours. A captive in the underworld there would be no life, no labouring and no embodiment of child. Persephone in gathering flowers that she could obtain of their honey, was carried off to the Abyss by Pluto the lord of the dead.

This is the negative side of the Solar light when in reality she should have been carried off to the heights by the Christos; consequently the land suffered because Demeter her mother was in bereavement. The oxen dragged the plough over the parched and cracked fields and never a wisp of green ever came forth; no gathering of seed, no harvest.

All would have been a tragic catastrophe if Zeus (Jupiter) had not taken compassion on her, and commanded Pluto (Saturn) to disgorge of his prey and restore Persephone to Mother Demeter. But ere she returned he gave her a seed of a pomegranate to eat as mind memory; this would ensure her return every winter in the wheeling of the rounds, for she was now marked that way as the prototype.

ON HER RETURN THE CORN BEGAN TO SPROUT AND ALL THE EARTH BECAME LUSCIOUS WITH FRUIT AND CLOTHED IN LEAF OF GREEN.

The secret was revealed to all the princes even unto the king, and the two goddesses departed in bliss to dwell with the gods in Olympus.

The origin of this myth is very rich and one to be well taken by all, but as the years went by, what was a sacred rite became a festival of mirth and debauchery. For instead of a sacred ceremony to the Gods, you find torchlight processions, the drinking of barley water from the holy chalice, and the breaking of ribald jests with scurrilous language to mythical images.

Many an early Father gives of this wisdom as a truth to be digested by humanity, but mankind today are too deeply steeped in worldliness to accept anything beyond common logic, or the salt of Lot's wife.

Myths are in abundance regarding the wisdom of the corn-spirit, and every Nation and town have their own version which they perceive as a passing belief, while some actually perform as a festival. Easter is similar in action to the ancient festival, but given a more tragic theme of being the God and not a goddess, and one highly coloured by religious beliefs that have completely removed the real knowledge of the idea. Easter could bring to all men a great message of cosmical importance that has great bearing on the life for months to come.

PERSEPHONE AND DEMETER

A mystery that very few have understood, for it is the corn-spirit of the Earth, where wealth only known to the wise has passed down the ages into the present day of life. The mystical wealth that came down from the heavens, that in Persephone, the daughter of Demeter, perceiving of its mystical descent, became the Scapegoat until man was retrieved from his state of mortality. (See text in col. 1).

The Personality States

THE gold of the corn represents the highest attainment that man can obtain and when sown in the spring can bring the richness of the whole spectrum. So as corn-gold (Solar light) can bring of the incision will it reveal in the same way the blue as an attainment of mind, with the red as the fulness of animal creation as energy, and green as luscious wisdom of knowledge awaiting harvest of all in the pure creation of golden light.

This is the eternal source of renewal and was represented in the god Num; it was the goddess Neith who was of gold and represented the power of healing. Yet even in this the god of the blue ray could help man suffering with asthma, and the green god give healing drink to a soul thirsty for knowledge and racked with nervous tension. While if a child was not forthcoming, then they would pray to the red god.

Why is this denied by the man of so-called wisdom, perhaps they have never been privileged to see the long rays of colour that radiate out of the tips of the human fingers of one endowed with physical powers of a psychic nature.

THIS LINKS WITH THE SPECTRUM AND OF WHAT A MAN IS CAPABLE OF EXTRACTING; THE FACT THAT THE AURIC RADIANCE CAN DIVERGE FROM GREEN TO GOLD AND THEN GOLD TO GREEN, IS MUTABILITY FROM POWER TO FULNESS TO FERTILITY OF RENEWAL.

Hence the wisdom of growing the tree and its branches; but if that is so, then the soul had already grown a tree at the beginning of the human creation which brought forth a serpent and not fruit. The serpent proved to be the tempter as the antagonizer and won through, for Eve took the apple and has been in a state of renewal ever since.

The killing of the divine, as imaged in the crucifixion, is a matter of rebirth whereby the old king is prevented from old age and decay, and all is absorbed and born anew into new life. All gone down into the very roots, the bowels of matter, and resurrected through the blood in consciousness. The wet nurse as the giver of water was the mother in the tree who provided the fruit for nourishment and rebirth, the leaf as wisdom and the shade from the blazing sun.

This in the zootype was Osiris the Bull of Eternity, and also Atum as the lion of Eternity. These ever renewed themselves into greater beings until the Lord of Gold manifested as the messu. Thus if you can see the origin of the gods, as powers of the elements as givers of food and drink, that with the ritual of the blood basic becomes a renewed state of being, you have the idea of eternal renewal. It is this that produces in time that of relativity unto eternity.

This is seen very clearly in the Book of the Dead, of one in the nether world upon his resurrection seeking to behold his father and mother. For when he had climbed to the top of mount Hetep he prays that he will be granted this one boon, and that by so doing they will shine on his own Ka-image; his body of light. But most of all that he will not become as a wooden image; that is turned into saturn blindness; a Lot's wife through turning back on himself.

The burial of the mummy was equal to the resurrection, and the coming forth alive was as one conscious of the renewal and rebirth of purpose. Otherwise the soul came forth blind and unaware of the new path of life and went on in its old way of lost purpose.

This is where the clairvoyant faculty awakens and is Sem the priest manifesting and seeing his father entire for the first time. Up till now he has been cut into fourteen pieces by Sut which destroys the initiate's sight. When all has been gathered by Isis through the labourings of Nepthys, or Hathor the wet nurse as the mother of the tree, the father is entire. Then Sem awakens and testifies that Osiris is still living; no member missing to the manes or astral planes.

It surely cannot take very much intuition to realise how much is in the blood, that by a state of renewal new life
