MARK VI

You must experience the incredible Mark VI Meter as an auditor. Ron's intention for an utterly accurate guide for the professional is realized with the Mark VI breakthrough. Surpassing the most elaborate computers, this meter has been built with the perfectionist in mind.  It is THE pro's meter.  The redesigned needle movement makes the Mark VI instantly responsive.  Astonishing but true — the Mark VI gives better reads on all PCs than any other meter. The pro's choice!  It's this immediate readout of thought, this paralleling of intention that you must witness for yourself. No meter anywhere before has read this deeply into the realm of your PC's mind.  The Mark VI even has a brilliant new engineering addition that will ensure you will never have battery charging problems. You can even charge your E-Meter as you audit!  Once again Ron has boosted the meaning of technical perfection. Incalculably as usual. The joys and power of limitless freedom in all your auditing is closer than you think.  Buy your Mark VI from your Flag Land Base Bookstore NOW! ******

September donation, $1,061.47.

The Mark VI is used by all Flag auditors.

The Solution to Inflation Flag Service Org

This goes into effect midnight 31 July 1979.

Due to the current rate of inflation and to enable the FSO (Flag Service Org) to continue to deliver the superlative service they are renowned for, FSO services will increase 6 percent of the requested donation per month.

This does not include Dianetic and Scientology books, course packs and other materials, including meters which, as stated in LRH ED 284-5 will continue to increase at the rate of 10 percent per month.

This means that on midnight on the last day of each month the expected donations for FSO services will increase 6% over the past month.

This will enable the Flag Service Org to expand its facilities so it can meet the growing demand it currently has for its services.

Definitions of Scientology Terms

Anchor Points: The points which mark an area of space are called anchor points, and these, with the viewpoint, alone are responsible for space.

Auditing: Spiritual Counselling. The application of Scientology processes and procedures to someone by a trained auditor.

Auditor: Minister. A person trained and qualified in applying Scientology spiritual counselling to others for their betterment.

Axiom: Statement of natural laws on the order of those of the physical sciences.

Beingness: The assumption or choosing of a category of identity. Examples of beingness would be one's own name, one's profession, one's physical characteristics, one's role in a game.

Blackness: Usually, the protective coating between the preclear and the pictures.

Case: The way an individual responds to the world around him by reason of his aberrations.

Case Supervisor: That person in a Scientology Church who gives instructions regarding, and supervises the auditing of, preclears.

Class: Refers to the level of classification of an auditor.

C/S: See Case Supervisor.

Charge: Harmful energy or force accumulated and stored within the reactive mind, resulting from the conflicts and unpleasant experiences that a person has had. Auditing discharges this charge so that it is no longer there to affect the individual.

Clear: In an absolute sense, would be someone who could confront anything and everything in the past, present and future.

Comm: Abbreviation for Communication.

Communication: The interchange of ideas or objects between two people or terminals.

Dynamics: There could be said to be eight urges (drives, impulses) in life. These we call dynamics. These are motives or motivations. We call them the eight dynamics.

Engram: A mental image picture which is a recording of a time of physical pain and unconsciousness.

Ethics: Ethics actually consist of rationality toward the highest level of survival for the individual, the future race, the group and mankind, and the other dynamics taken collectively.

Facsimile: The pictures contained in the reactive mind.

FEBC: Flag Executive Briefing Course.

FES: Folder Error Summary.

Folder: A compilation of data – the records kept by an auditor.

Grade: A series of processes culminating in an exact ability attained.

Grade Chart: Gradation Chart or Classification, Gradation and Awareness Chart. The route to Clear, the Bridge, a guide for the individual to Clear and above.

L's: Plural; refers to the special Flag rundowns L-10, L-11, L-12; see pp 8-12 of this magazine for full explanation of them; ("L" is an abbreviation for "List" and 10, 11, and 12 are the numerical designations for these rundowns).

Line: The shortest and most direct distance between two points or two terminals.

Logic: Rationalism, for all logic is based upon the somewhat idiotic circumstance that a being that is immortal is trying to survive.

Modus Operandi: The manner in which something operates.

NED for OTs: New Era Dianetics for OTs.

OT: Operating Thetan, a thetan exterior who can have but doesn't have to have a body in order to control or operate through life, matter, energy, space and time.

Particle: Energy is subdivisible into a large motion . . . and a small motion which is itself commonly called a particle in nuclear physics.

PC: See Preclear.

Pictures: See Facsimile.

Preclear: A person who, through Scientology auditing, is finding out more about himself and life.

Processing: A series of methods arranged on an increasingly deep scale of bringing the preclear to confront the no-confront sources of his aberrations and leading them to a simple, powerful, effective being.

Pre-OT: A thetan beyond the state of Clear who, through the advanced courses, is advancing to the full state of operating thetan.

PTS: Means potential trouble source, which itself means a person connected to a suppressive person. All sick persons are PTS.

Reactive Mind: The reactive mind is a stimulus response mechanism, ruggedly built, and operable in trying circumstances. The reactive mind never stops operating. Pictures of the environment, of a very low order, are taken by this mind even in some states of unconsciousness. The reactive mind acts below the level of consciousness.

Routine 6 End Words: (R6EW), Grade 6 release.

Rundown: A series of steps which are auditing actions and processes designed to handle a specific aspect of a case and which have a known end phenomena.

Solo: Solo Auditing; in solo auditing the auditor is also the pc.

Space: Space is not nothingness. Space is the viewpoint of dimension . . . It is how far we look and if you didn't look you wouldn't have any space.

Technique: A technique is a patterned action, invariable and unchanging, composed of certain steps or actions calculated to bring about tone arm action and thus better or free a thetan.

Technology: The methods of application of an art or science as opposed to the mere knowledge of the science or art itself.

Terminal[1]: It would be any fixed mass utilized in a communication system . . . Thus you see a man would be a terminal, but a post could also be a terminal.

Terminal[2]: An item or identity the pc has actually been sometime in the past (or present) is called a terminal.

Thetan: The person himself – not his body or his name, the physical universe, his mind, or anything else; that which is aware of being aware; the identity which is the individual. The thetan is most familiar to one and all as you.

TR: Training regimen or routine. Often referred to as a training drill. TRs are a precise training action putting a student through laid out practical steps gradient by gradient, to teach a student to apply with certainty what he has learned.

Viewpoint: A point of awareness from which one can perceive . . . the place from which the individual is himself looking.

"Were you to have a preclear mock up punching himself in the nose time after time, he would eventually begin to laugh, because the truth of the matter is that's what he has been doing for just ages."

The Thetan and Hidden Influences

by L. Ron Hubbard

What is the modus operandi* of becoming? How do you become something?

Well, you know how you become something. You study it, you apply yourself, you get some influential friends, you inherit some money, and you do other things. If you do all these things well, and if you have a good honest face and your service record is good and your finger prints aren't on file in too many places, you will become something.

It would be very nice if it were true, because you have two billion homo sapiens currently engaged in following that modus operandi. You also have an enormous number of insane asylums and prisons. I wonder if there's any co-ordination between those two facts.

Unfortunately for homo sapiens, his modus operandi of becoming is just about as reverse vector as you could get. He's mired down in the mest universe and he thinks he has to follow the course which led mest into being mest. We know the basic error of the thing. First the thought, then some space*, then some terminals* and lines* and particles*. After which we get counter action between two terminals. They get driven tighter and tighter together, then they know they mustn't be each other, and then the next thing you know they're tighter and tighter, until it goes right on down the line. That's the dwindling spiral. The track of evolution from space, terminals, let there be light and so on, right on down the line to hard matter and great value and everything scarce. Agreeing with this modus operandi will of course take you right straight on down the line on a dwindling spiral until to all intents and purposes you aren't.

Do you see how that would be? If you agree with the mest universe you are agreeing with its modus operandi. If you agree with its modus operandi, then you can become the mest universe under compulsion of agreement. By agreeing with the mest universe continually, you also pick up the compulsion to hold off anchor points*, to protect, to get in there and fight, to keep terminals apart, to criticise, evaluate, and flounder around like mad, and never find any peace of mind. Rather, you find less and less and less peace of mind until you find your entire environment is falling in on you. You can't hold those anchor points out there any more.

* All *s indicate that a definition for the word is given on page 2 of this magazine.

The horrible joke is there were no anchor points to hold out there. In this agreement with the mest universe you had to know what you were agreeing with before you knew whether or not you were agreeing with it. That's why we've got a map. Therefore it really isn't dangerous for you to approximate the mest universe. Not if you know how the mest universe works. Not if you know what human behavior is and what energy behavior is, in relating to it. Then it doesn't become dangerous even vaguely, to play along with any part of this. You can do anything you want with it.

There's an odd technique* of simply letting go of what you're holding onto. You'll find an individual is holding, with great force, onto various things in his body. He knows that there's pressure there. Instead of letting him try to rub out this pressure, let him just let go of what the pressure is pressing against. It's sort of a letting go technique. It just sort of sorts it out. When you stop his guarding and protecting, what do you know, the pains go away, the second he does this. He just lets go of whatever is facing whatever is pressing, because he's creating the pressure both ways. When he discovers this, he thinks that something alien is pressing against him. He doesn't even know that he's holding the thing which is being pressed against, and he doesn't realize that he's also the alien thing doing the pressing. As a net result, he can get into a fine state of divided terminals.

THE COMEDIAN

I ran into a preclear one day who said a thetan* was attacking him. Well that's fine, a thetan was attacking him. It turned out to be that what was attacking him was the facsimile* of his assumption of the body. He didn't want to be that "thetan" any more. That's why he became a body, so he didn't take responsibility for that area any more. He said it must be somebody else. So they were fighting themselves like mad. In other words, it's like a comedy where the lights go out and everybody goes sock, sock, sock and then when the lights go on again all the villains are beating each other up and the comedian has gone up on deck some place. Something like that, you know.

The comedian in this case is the hidden influence. The hidden influence has always gone up on deck somewhere and left you in there fighting you. Actually there isn't a flatter statement that could be made – that's just what has happened. Somebody came along and said, "You better fight you," and gave you a good reason why. But, he didn't tell you he was there telling you, and afterwards he kind of slid away. You've gone on fighting you ever since, and you don't know that it's a comedy. It's a rather tragic grim comedy, when you see how far down the line an individual can go on fighting himself.

Were you to have a preclear mock-up punching himself in the nose time after time, he would eventually begin to laugh, because the truth of the matter is, that's what he has been doing for just ages. He has been punching himself in the nose continually. That's all he has been doing, and that's all the pain and travail he has.

Where we have a preclear who is in a sad state of affairs, we have one who is fighting himself. What does that mean? That means that he has been something which he now does not want to be. He's had to assume the terminal and then abandon the terminal, for something bad to have occurred.

At the first glance he's a man, isn't he, he's alive isn't he? Well, let's follow this through. He has abandoned the terminal which he once assumed, and he is fighting that himself. That applies to a psychosomatic. He's holding onto what is pushing it. By the way, all you have to do is get him into communication with the area so he finds out he's holding onto it, and he'll let go.

Beingness is communication. One can communicate only with those things which he is willing to be. And therefore one will not communicate with those things that he is not willing to be. He will simply fight them. But this collapses his lines on them and he finds himself becoming them. That person becomes those things of which he is most afraid. Isn't that grim?

You go around little boys and you ask them what are they mostly afraid of and they'll tell you a lot of objects, but if you really want to get down there and ask them real quick, they're afraid of being afraid. Now if you're afraid of being afraid of something, then you'll become afraid of something and you'll get into a state of terror about nothing. And what have they gotten into a state of terror about? What was there to be afraid of?

Well, afraid of the idea that one might be afraid. If you're afraid enough of being afraid, then you'll become afraid, and if you become afraid then you can be afraid of becoming more afraid, and then you'll become more afraid, and you'll get yourself up into a full state of terror and pull in the anchor points real tight, and you'll get smaller and smaller and hold onto what mest you've got. You'll organize it and you'll work harder and harder and get more and more logical and more and more logical and more and more logical and then you'll do nothing but work, work, work, work, work, with no admiration whatsoever.

Now that's the cycle. It's not a very difficult thing to understand how this would come to pass.

You get fear of being is fear of communicating. A fellow's perceptions are bad, so therefore his fear of being is bad. Why is his fear of being bad? Let's take it backwards. Because his perception is just terrible. His perception is so bad that he doesn't know what it is he's trying not to be, so we get into this dizzy spin of the fear of the hidden influence.

We all know there are hidden influences. Now here's another one.

You'll find people, and you'll wonder why they're so successful in life and yet why they're so hated. They've always got a hatful of hidden influences to hand out to people. They say, "Well I was talking to the board of directors the other day, and the board – well, that matter of the divorce you have, they wondered whether or not that – of course they didn't say anything personal about this you know, people don't say anything personal about this you know, people don't say anything personal about this really. They don't mention it very loud. They mention it quietly once in a while, and always behind your back. But they decided that they weren't going to renew your loan. However, out of my influence I was able to prevail upon them to give you a 10-day extension, and so forth." Of course, the funny part about this is there's never been a board meeting. It's just complete balderdash. And that is the single worst, most solid, and best method of making people go down to a fly speck in this universe. It's the hidden influence.

What would be the worst hidden influence? If beingness and communications are so important and if they interlock, then the worst hidden influence would be a hidden communication, wouldn't it? If you could convince everybody that there was a hidden communication someplace, they would go mad. And so they do. Try it some time. Tell somebody that is perfectly sane, well balanced and so forth, "Well I got a letter this afternoon mentions your name." Then shut up. Don't say another word. They're sunk.

That's driving in a person's anchor points. One of the best ways that this can be accomplished is to infer hidden influences.

THE VACUUM

The vacuum is always a hidden influence. What is there about this confounded thing called a vacuum? If something has nothing in it then it is more powerful than if it has something in it. You're just talking about a vacuum, that's all you're talking about. You get near that thing and it will pull away from you any mest you've got your hands on.

Nature abhors a vacuum, it has been said. The physical scientist found this out a long time ago but it wasn't applied to anything else. If you were standing in front of a vacuum and it was pulling the packages out of your hands, then why could it pull the packages out of your hands? Because there was pressure behind you where there was something. Get that misdirection. Why is it that a vacuum works at all? You have a vacuum in a thermometer tube and the tube obviously pulls mysteriously all this stuff right up into the tube, and it's a vacuum. Why heck, that's the way all thermometers work. You say, that's terrible. I wonder how on earth this comes to pass. Well it comes to pass not because the vacuum is pulling up anything into the tube, rather because there's no pressure in the tube, but there's pressure outside the tube which pushes. And remember that about the hidden influence. It is not any pull that nothingness has. It is always a push of something.

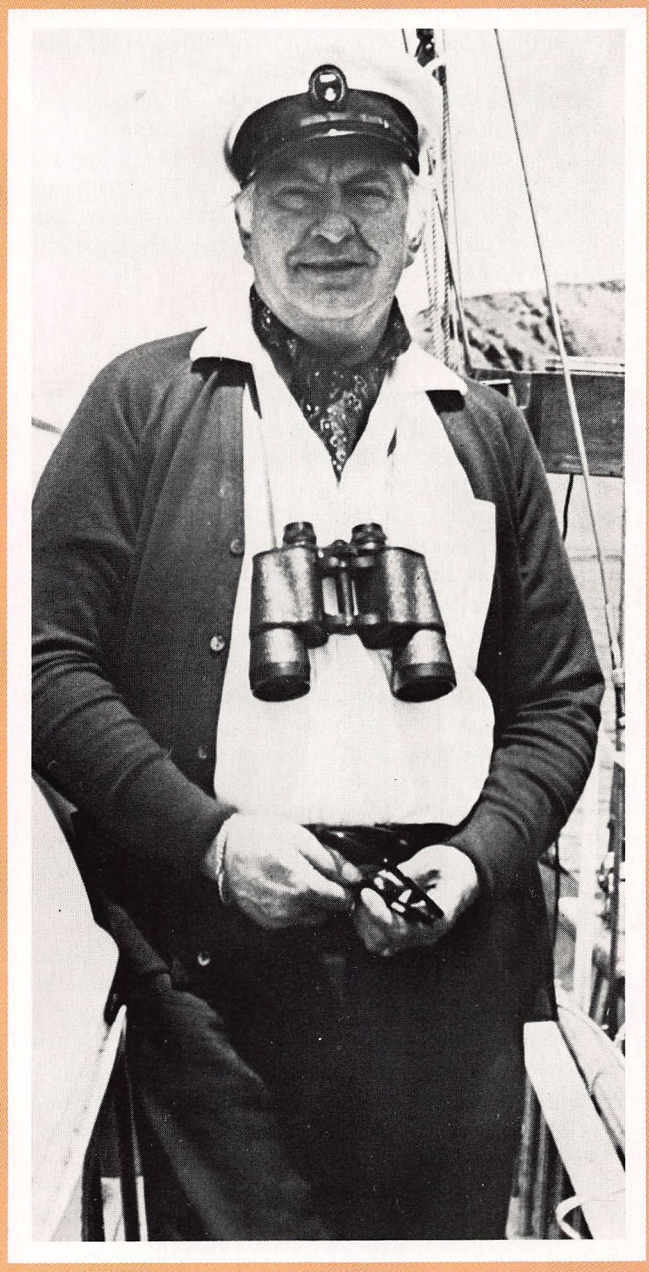

That something is not invisible to the preclear. He's right there with it. He knows all about it. You just say, "So why don't you just let go of the thing?" "Oh, I couldn't do that!" "Why not?" "Well, I'd never get any more." Scarcity. "I'd never get any more." He's in a bad way. But he's afraid of becoming a hidden influence. What's the hidden influence – the hidden influence is nothing. The hidden influence in this universe is nothing.

You'll find out readily enough when you start processing beingness out of a preclear, that he will recognize something. He'll say, "You know there's really not an object which is I." This'll come to him as a little bit of a surprise. He'll tell you this. You don't even have to give him a clue. "There really isn't anything that is I. I don't have a form. I don't exist really, except as I – gee, I'm only trying to be things. I am not anything." And he gets real upset at right about that point.

Oh, I'm sorry, he is something! He is a capacity to create! And if you want to know whether or not a capacity to create is worth being, look at the pure joy there is in the field of creating arts. If you've ever seen anybody absorbed in anything, it's a painter with a brush or a kid in a kindergarten with a crayon. That's not a little thing to be at all. And that's what he is. He is the potentiality of creating something. He is the directive creative urge and instinct. He's nothing in terms of matter, but he can create any quantity of it.

So he all of a sudden tells you with horrible feeling "I can't – I'm not really anything." He's looking for the reason why. When you say reason why, this says logic*. And what's wrong with your preclear is he gets logical. The reason why is based upon the fact that there is prior cause which makes him an effect. The fellow then, is always pushing himself up the time track from cause and is never being cause. The highest thing a thetan can be is cause of creation. Cause of creative instincts. Cause of creative beingness. Cause of motivation.

He is motivation. But when he says, "I am not anything," he's saying, "Nothing existed before I exist which gives me a form I don't have any further responsibility for". In other words he's in the optimum condition. There is no more condition more optimum than I am what I create myself to be at any instant. That is really optimum! That is too juicy – that is too wonderful. Nobody could be that. And yet that's what every thetan is. He says, "There's no reason why." He suddenly realized nobody came along and gave him a top hat and said you are now a top hat and that's what he's complaining about. The fellow is complaining because he's not permitted to be an effect. He's complaining because he's being permitted to be unlimited cause. That's a heck of a thing to complain about, isn't it?

How is a person pushed down scale? By being restrained from being. If he's restrained from being he goes down scale. Then why and how do you possibly convince anything that could create or be anything, that it should be restrained from being? If he's restrained from being he goes down scale. Then why and how do you possibly convince anything that could create or be anything, that it should be restrained from being?

You just tell him anything he's trying to be has something hidden in it that's bad. And he gets convinced of this. He doesn't want to be these things. So he thinks that he'll violate everything if he ever steps out of his own head or steps out of his own nose or steps out of his own right ear or wherever he's saddled onto at the moment you start processing him. And he thinks that he mustn't do this, and the reason he mustn't do this is that if he moved out any further he'd run into a hidden influence.

You can actually measure your preclear's* case* level with his belief in a hidden influence. What do you think there is in this room, that you don't want to walk out into it. He thinks over it for a while, and says, "I don't know. There's something in the corner." He doesn't say right away what's in the corner, he says there's something in the corner. What do you think might be in the corner?

Tell him to mock some things up in the corner, and he suddenly realizes there's nothing in the corner. He's restrained by that shadow. In Self Analysis there's that story about the fish in Lake Tanganyika and the shadows that go down to the bottom of the lake. The shadows are used as the bars that trap the fish, and the shadows could be called hidden influences.

BLACKNESS

Now darkness and nothingness are quite interesting. You can never quite trust something which has nothing in it, same way with blackness*. Blackness may not just be blackness. It may be blackness and something else. That is why blackness closes in on so many preclears. It might be blackness and something else. But remember he's as willing to use blackness as anybody else; he's as willing to use this modus operandi as somebody else. Once in a while some fellow, without very good sense, gets going on the subject of: "—Well, I intend good, and I'm going to use these things for good." He'll run himself downscale at an awful rate of speed if he doesn't watch himself, because he's suddenly abandoned fifty percent of things. Just abandoned them because he says "I want to be the other 50%. He has immediately said, there's 50% good and 50% evil and I'm going to be one of the 50% good." Now he goes down 50% and then he goes on down from there. —See he says, what's good. Then anything that's valuated as good will be done. Horrible state of affairs.

You won't perceive what you won't be. That's obvious isn't it. We've gone over this: being in communication. You won't be what you won't perceive, and you won't perceive what you won't be. So of course if you don't perceive what you won't be you're wide open to believe that there's a hidden influence in it. The way you won't be it is because it has subjected you to that horrible thing known as betrayal. And the track of any thetan is the track of betrayal.

There are two mechanisms you should know. One is the mechanism of betrayal which is the knock in of anchor points. One's anchor points are pulled out and then they're suddenly knocked in. That operation when done exteriorly by somebody else is betrayal, and it gets so bad that the individual won't put out his own anchor points and pull them in himself, because he's been betrayed. And the other is being ridiculed. Ridicule is pushing the anchor points in and then pulling them out and holding them out. You can get out of any preclear the feeling he's ridiculed by just saying, "All right now get the idea, you put your anchor points way out. Now they are being held out." He doesn't like that. He gets the feeling, the sensation of being ridiculed.

So these two things happen with the out and in workout of anchor points. In other words, out and in beingness. See? Ridicule and betrayal. These are the two horrible things that happen, and that is their operation in terms of anchor points. Well if a person's been betrayed then he won't look.

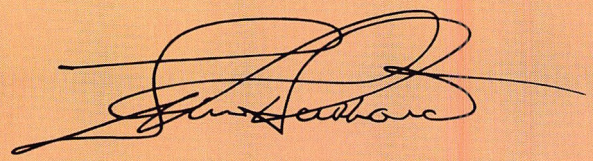

One of the reasons he won't look is he wants somebody else to feel ashamed. He's going to shame somebody else by holding his anchor points in. The fellow says, "Look what they did to me." Well if he's saying "Look what they did to me," he's not going to be something else. He's going to sit there and say, "Look what they did to me." These fellows that go around with these purple flags and little facsimiles* saying "Look what they did to me, look what they did to me." It's better to be something than nothing, and people who have been betrayed are interesting. See everybody gets interested in the occluded case. It's been betrayed.

All right. Let's take a look at it. It's very very amusing. Now ridicule is something he doesn't brag about. He's still holding onto ridicule. He'll generally be holding onto it because he ridiculed somebody else, and he doesn't want to be in that category. In each case he was really ridiculing himself. Do not send to find for whom the bell tolls, it tolls for thee. None of that. The reason why the fellow is saying, "I have been betrayed, look at me", is because he did it to me, you see, and he and me are, in this case, the same thing. So he's saying, "It's better for me to be here as me, as the betrayed party than to be this character over here that everybody despises and who did the overt act." Furthermore this is totally mechanical. There's no admiration really connected with being betrayed or being ridiculed. So nothing came along and admired it out of existence. That which is not admired endures. So betrayal endures. Nobody admires betrayal, much less the person who is betrayed and he's the person who should admire it out of existence.

So if you snap somebody's anchor points out and then shove them in real hard, that's betrayal, and if you pull them out and hold them that's ridicule.

When we look this over then, all control is affected by hidden influences, and the hidden influence is always nothingness. The thetan is under compulsion to be something, and thus is afraid of being nothing because he believes it to be a hidden influence. You keep a thetan from being what he is, by convincing him that what he is, nothingness, is a hidden influence.

What you've got to rehabilitate then is the ability to be, which automatically rehabilitates the ability to perceive.

"The gains I've gotten have opened my perceptions to a completely new area of powerful flows..."

L's Successes!

All my dear people here, doubts and confusions through millions of years made me what I've been before coming in Scientology and even still before this rundown. Now I am what I originally was plus all experiences behind me. My beingness restored, my havingness increased. Words cannot express the gratitude and the amount of ARC I'm outflowing to all of you and to that big, big being in the first place, RON!

Thank you my C/S, and my auditor! Love to you all! I.E.

This auditing was just what I needed. I finally got to really find out who I really was and that I am me, a basically good and very powerful immortal being who will never again "lose myself" in this changing universe, or another for that matter. S.L.

The little bit of auditing I've gotten on L-10 as of this date has already made stable permanent changes. I am free of stops and barriers that I didn't even know I had, plus a few I did know I had. I feel very clean and sparkling. Love to know I've got a lot more to come. My auditor and the HGC staff are terrific. A.F.

Yesterday morning, after finishing L-10 the previous day, I stepped outside of the room and a whole new world of sound was all around me! I could hear everything! Even the faint sound of the slight breeze in the distant trees. I'd never noticed that my hearing wasn't as good over the last few years, now it's a whole expansion of perception for me! N.R.

"I'm free of stops & barriers I didn't even know I had"

This was excellent (L-11) auditing. The gains I've got opened my perceptions to a completely new area of powerful flows and this time I know why and that it will be stable. Thanks to all. B.Z.

WOW – WOW – I just had my first session of L-12. It was really great. I totally recommend it for anyone starting NED for OTs. One of the things that is done on NED for OTs, according to LRH is to boost perception. Well, believe me, after my first session of L-12, I know my perception has been boosted and I'm more ready for NED for OTs. Please listen to your C/S if he recommends it – I promise you, you will be totally happy with L-12. K.D.

L-12 freed me from a multitude of influences that directly affected me as a being. Some were things I knew about and had been struggling with for a long time. On this incredible rundown they vanished in a matter of moments! Other influences were deeply hidden and unknown to me. These, too, were inspected and blown by the power of L-12 tech! I feel free to handle anybody, playing any game, and be at cause. I am more exterior to the Game of Life than I have ever been and more able to use the skills of beingness to advance Scientology than ever before. Thanks to my Class XII auditor, all the good beings of Flag Division 4, and to Ron for giving us all this incredible tech! S.C.

"My future track is mine to create as I want it..."

Fantastic! This action (L-12) was one of the most wonderful! Beingness and freedom sum it up. Thanks. L.P.

Doing the set-ups for L-12 I had quite a few wins. The thoroughness and effortlessness of the auditing, the exactness of the C/Sing and the amazing feeling of having things which were disturbing me and which I thought were monumentally difficult to handle addressed easily and blown – I guess that's what Flag auditing is about. It was so smooth and simple – I feel really clean and ready to go on to my L-12, no sticky little things to bog me down or hold my attention, no sticky BIG ones either! N.J.P.

Through some auditing on L-10 what has for some time been looked on as an out point has been realized as an enormous plus point. My track is free, clean, and shining with a regained ability to be cause over existence, attention off past, the clouds and fog gone and the future shiny bright – a state of serene extroversion. My future track is mine to create as I want it, without having to check behind me for stops or possible stops. Whole new vistas are open – not only for living – but for auditing as well – auditing for negative gain (getting rid of things) – is over – it is now auditing of, for, and with knowingness. My love to Ron – for this powerful tech and to my auditor and the C/S for the spot-on delivery – my thanks – infinitely. N.P.

"Identities that connected me to the past have been blown and I am myself in present time"

This has been a really incredible action for me – really polishing off the L-12 that I got before and enhancing my freedom and self-determinism enormously. It also led me to attest to Clear Theta Clear, which was a wonderful and stabilizing win. Thanks to my auditor, the C/S and all the crew here. D.E.

This rundown was the greatest experience I ever had, it really has blown my mind. I got so much reality on life and Scientology like never before. I know exactly where I am going to and where we are going to. I never had so much certainty of what it's all about. I really would like to recommend this rundown to everybody. It is fantastic. Thanks to my auditor, all staff and Ron, who's so incredible. W.H.

With the completion of my current auditing at Flag I have reached a new stability. All PTSness is completely gone. I feel very powerful and have the feeling that my power will last forever. I have eternal stability as a powerful thetan. Thank you Ron! D.D.

L-10 has, no doubt, given me more gains than any other action. I feel very clean and able and happy to get involved. The auditing has been so safe and faultless that I cannot imagine it bettered. The service I have received from FSO especially HGC has been remarkable (and I have been to Flag 4 times so I judge it by the highest standards). I wish to offer my gratitude, thanks and love to Ron for L-10 and to my auditor, the DTS and the D of P for wearing Ron's hats from the heart. M.C.

Answered!

Questions most asked about the fabulous L's rundowns.

I'm a Dianetic Clear; can I get my L's now?

Yes! As soon as you have completed your Expanded Grades and before you begin OT I (which would put you into the Non-Interference Zone) you can do your L's. See the chart at right.

I'm an Expanded Grade Four with my Drug Rundown completed. Can I do my L's now?

Yes! Look at the chart to your right. You can do them now or after Grade V A, but before you enter the Non-Interference area (R6EW [Grade VI] through OT III). Any major auditing actions begun must be completed first, of course.

I've heard so much about L-10, 11, and 12, but what are they actually?

Each has its own technology and very distinct results and gains. Overall, Ron puts it best: "They are not grades in themselves but incredible boosters . . . ." Just as you can see in the chart.

Why at Flag only?

Again from Ron: "It is so swift the special technique has to be done by the specially trained flubless auditor." The precision and skill of Flag Class X, XI and XII Auditors is known the world over. As the highest trained auditors on the planet, only they can deliver the L Rundowns.

Another requisite to the delivery of the L's is a completely safe and in-ethics environment with smooth, fast administrative and technical lines. Thus they are delivered only at Flag.

With NED for OTs handling "everything", why do an L?

Ron is definite on this one: ". . . does not supplant other processes or the Grade Chart. It will make them more effective like a booster . . . one can get any other grade and should get any Advanced Course Grade." And from a person on NED for OTs: "My estimated hours for NED for OTs were cut back, and I feel it is running faster for me than it would have done if I hadn't had the L-12 first."

Can I do one or two L's or must I do all of them – and in what order?

There is no fixed order in which the L-Rundowns are C/Sed. They may be taken singly, or 2 or 3 consecutively. If you're getting more than one, the highly competent Flag C/S will determine which order to do them in for best results. For maximum gain, get all three L's!

Does L-12 handle PTS-ness terminatedly?

Ron says that a person who has had L-12 is one ". . . whose ability is greatly increased and who is not likely to become PTS to anything."

When is it best for me to do my L's, after Grade IV or after OT III?

Now is the best time, just so long as you're on the Grade Chart in an area where they can be delivered. The chart shows you the areas.

Do the L's take long to do?

The length of time the L's take differs from one L to another, from one case to another. Generally, L-10 takes 25 to 37½ hours, L-11 from 15 to 25 hours and L-12 around 25 hours. Arrangements for a Technical Estimate for the hours you'll need can be done through the terminals listed on page two. The Technical Estimate is done by a Flag L's C/S.

I understand there are prerequisites – what are they?

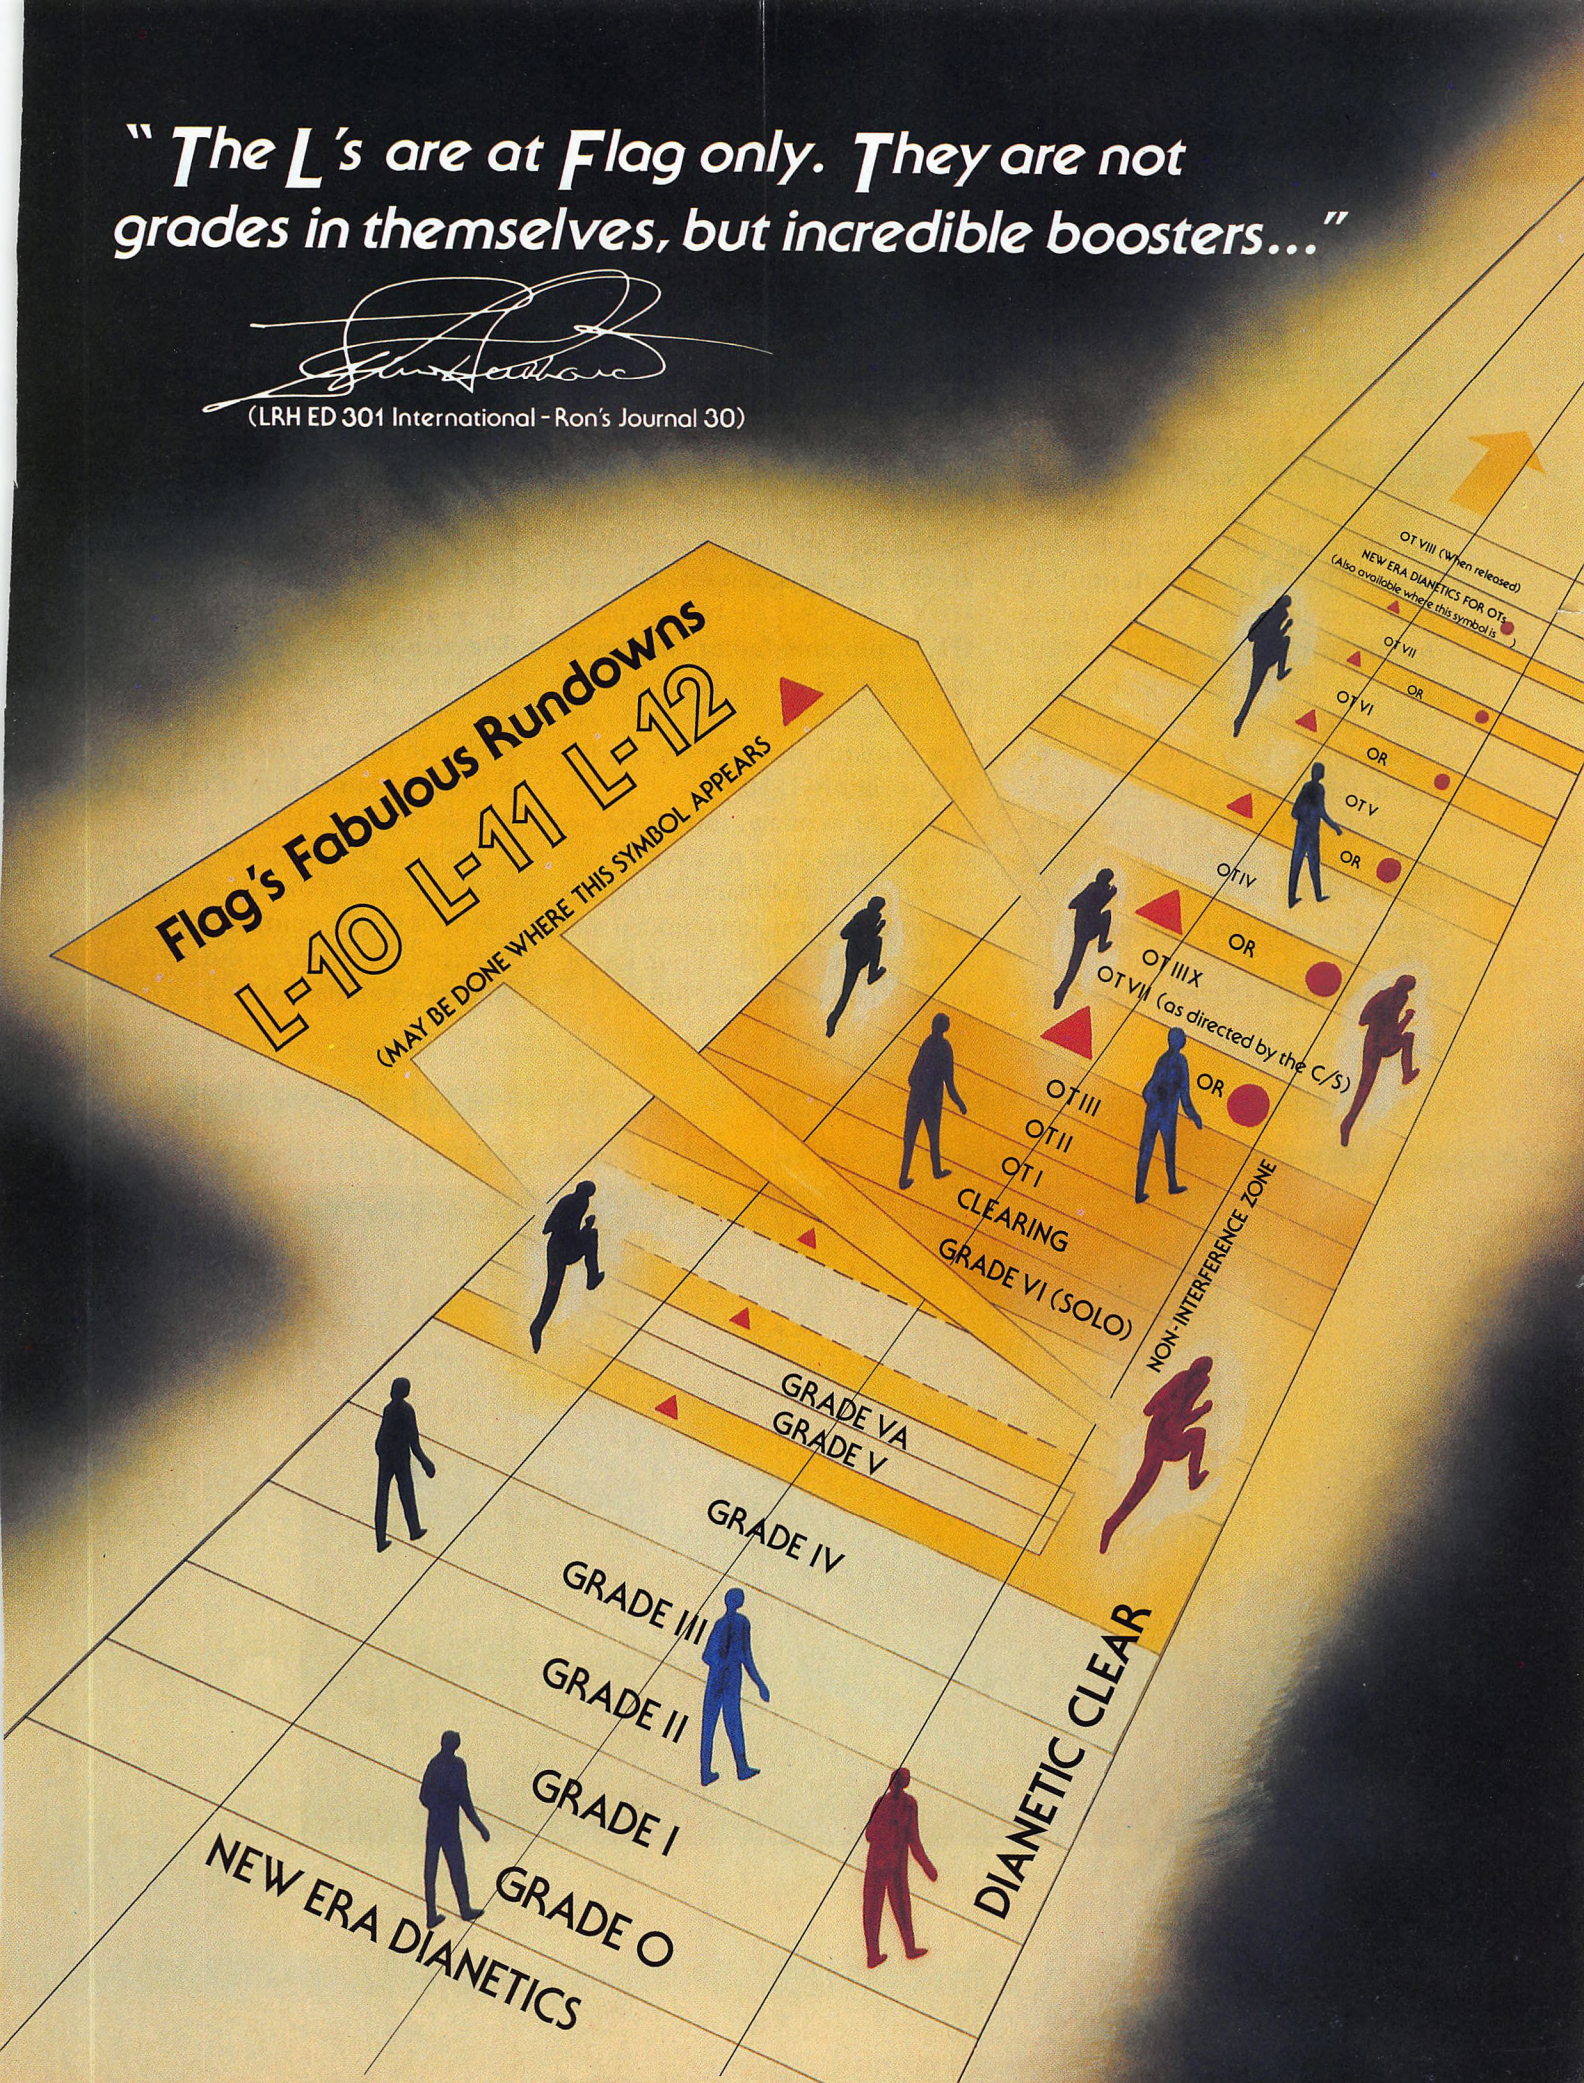

This is clearly explained on page 12 as well as the donations required.

How easy is it to arrange to do my L's?

Very easy! You can write the Flag Land Base Letter Registrar right away. She'll answer any further questions you may have and help you with the arrangements. Also, you can call direct, write, or visit your Flag Service Consultant. They're located at your nearest FOLO. Or, if you can't wait to get your L's, then call the Chief Registrar direct at Flag. You could be here for your L's in a few days, or even hours! Their numbers and addresses are on page 2.

"The L's are at Flag only. They are not grades in themselves, but incredible boosters..."

(LRH ED 301 International - Ron's Journal 30)

L-10

A star unexpectedly shines far brighter than its companions. The nova. A star that's shed the natural restraints on it's power.

A person swiftly becomes more powerful as a being than his fellows. The L-10 completion! A person who's shed the restraints on his own native abilities. Both peak in brilliance rapidly, dazzling all else in their own environments. In a few weeks the nova fades into its starry background. The L-10 completion continues to shine. The state is permanent! All your power is regained to do what you intend to do.

How can L-10 revitalize your radiant power so it'll never fade? A brief look into the recent past.

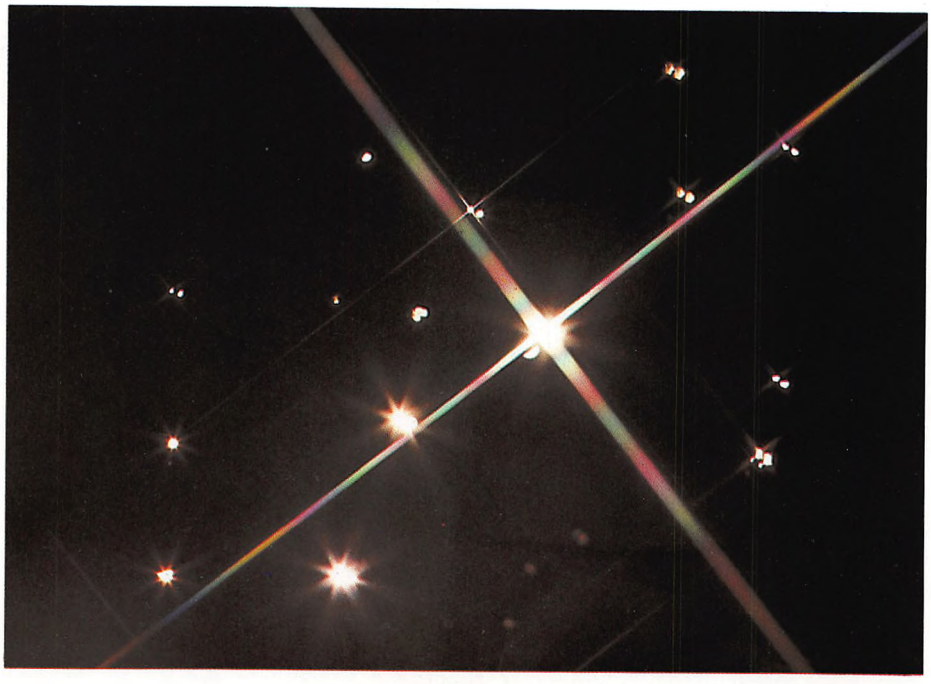

Researching into increasing OT powers and abilities in 1971, Ron made a resounding breakthrough. He singled out the exact reason an OT restrains himself. The real WHY he ceases to behave as an OT. From this factor, he developed the 23 enormously powerful processes of this rundown. The research designation was list 10, or simply L-10.

Simple in name, this stellar action enables you to have sanity restored on all dynamics. It sheds light on barriers long hidden and makes them vanish. Your knowingness comes back in full.

L-10 leaves you a freed being who is in power on all dynamics.

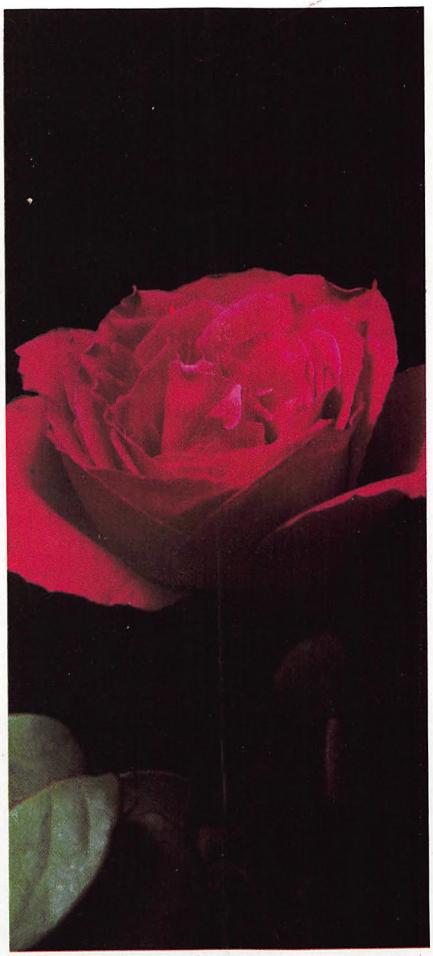

How does L-10 make it possible for you to outshine the brightest of stars? The L's are all highly confidential, but one thing can be told about L-10. It handles the source of personal power loss. The reasons a person withholds or restrains himself from action are exposed. These reasons are senior to the reactive mind. Even the light from nature's brightest wonder can't do that.

Only L-10 can. Make your donation NOW! Contact the registrar today! (Or contact your Flag Service Consultant at the FOLO.) Addresses on page 2.

Buds burst into vital fresh life. What beauty: but how vulnerable. With L-11 a person blossoms anew, and with vigour! No fragility here.

You gain full knowledge of the game of life with this rundown. In any area of life, succumb vanishes like the Spring snows – never to return. L-11 permanently prunes the specific individual barriers which bar you from survival. It boosts your ability to confront anything without effort.

This miracle rundown is also from Ron's early seventies research into increased OT abilities. It's a result of his probes into the unknown area above OT VIII. Without violation of the confidentiality of L-11, here is what Ron says: "We have our hands here on the mechanism that makes this a crazy universe so let's go for broke on it and play it all the way out."

L-11, like the other fabulous rundowns, is so powerful that it requires a special class of auditor to deliver it. This is the Class XI. Like the Class X and XII, they are the most highly trained auditors in the world. With such an auditor, L-11 is an incredibly smooth, standard and effortless action to do.

You gain the awareness to handle the things which block your life. This ability leaves you free to act on any dynamic in a true survival manner. Any tendency towards self destruction, is weeded out. The key area of irrationality on which a being introverts and diminishes his power is completely eliminated. The major source of aberration on which your attention fixes is removed.

In fact Ron states, "Just call this the New Life Rundown. It gives a new life in truth! What's that worth?" GET IT TODAY! CALL THE REGISTRAR NOW! (Or your Flag Service Consultant at the FOLO.) Addresses on page 2.

A mighty tree can weather a driving storm with certainty and unshakability. Yet, an earthquake could send it tumbling in a moment. Unlike the tree, an L-12 completion's unshakability and certainty as a being can never be uprooted.

This rundown makes you invincible against the storms and quakes of life. With it you regain full freedom and power as a being.

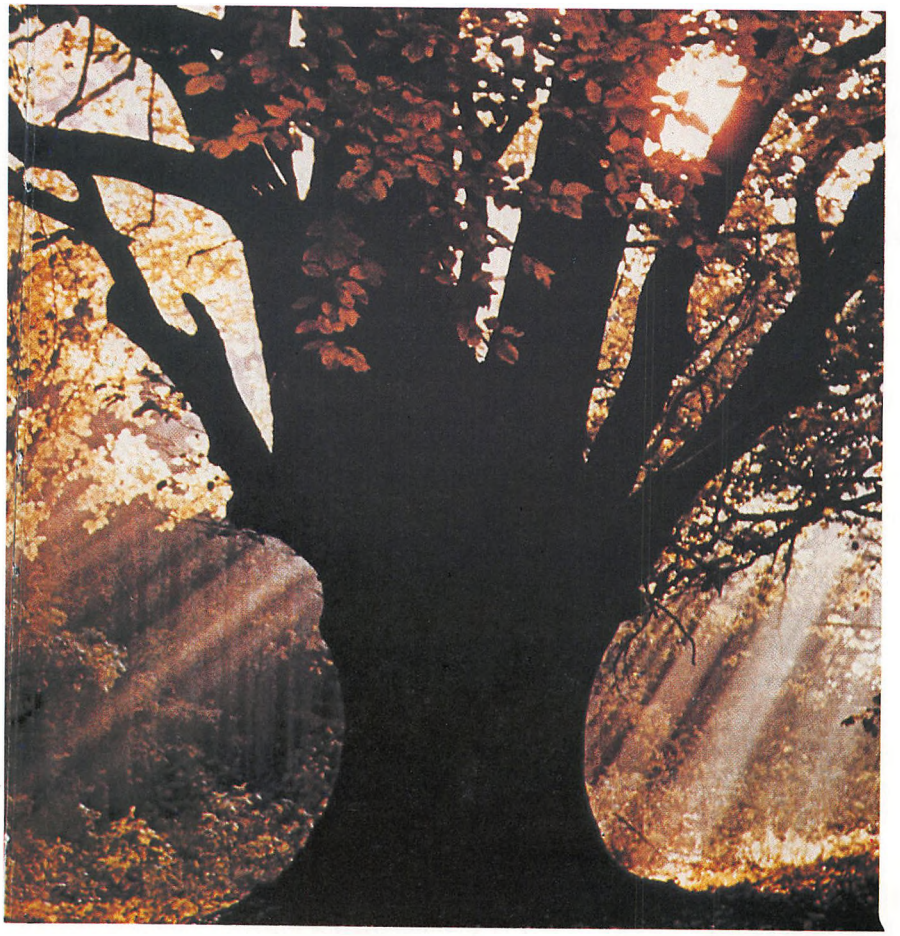

When Ron researched the Ls in 1971, he found L-12 totally exteriorized an OT's attention from himself and his environment. It also produced the greatest amount of case change per unit of time. Without lifting the cover of confidentiality, this is what Ron has to say about L-12: "This will give us SPEED of completions with a guarantee of stable state . . ."

The three formidable actions of this rundown lift out the deepest unwanted personality traits which are not even known to a person. You regain the ability to handle your own universe and know your basic purpose in life.

A great tree takes decades or more to gain its apparent unshakability. You can have it for real TODAY! CONTACT THE REGISTRAR NOW!

Prerequisites: Grade IV Expanded, not in the Non-Interference Zone (R6EW to OT III), or incomplete on any major action. To ensure full gains on Ls, preparatory auditing is usual. This varies in length, but 12½ to 25 hours is average at regular Flag HGC auditing rates. Donations for each L Rundown: the first 25 hours (minimum) is $8,427. Further hours if needed are $3,975 per 12½ hour intensive.

People at Flag

"...I have total certainty that I can cause my environment to go right."

Bob Duggin is Clear, Expanded Grade IV, and L-11 and L-11X Completion. He is currently on L-10 and eagerly looking forward to L-12. He has also done the New Era Dianetics TRs Course.

Bob is married, has two children and is at Flag from the Westwood Mission in Los Angeles.

What was it that made him decide to come to Flag for his L's is a question he answers with relish.

"I had a willingness to take on a new level of responsibility – but I was professionally unprepared to handle it. I felt that the L's would assist me. There is no question that this has been accomplished. The L's have done it!

"I can't think of a better investment I could have made for myself, my groups or for mankind. I have made no better investment! "

This is well put – by a man who is a professional investor. Bob began investing in 1966 with a few thousand dollars. Since then he has continued to expand into this field. He has served on the Board of Directors of three companies and in present time has investments in stocks and several privately held corporations that make from one to twenty-five million dollars in sales annually.

When asked about his goals, Bob said, "My goal in investing is to understand the company I am investing in so as to support the goals and purposes of the company. Basically, this involves the use of the Data Series and the Ethics Conditions."

His wins and successes from the L's have been big and continue to mount up. Here are some of the things which the L's have made possible for him:

"I personally experienced a sense of Spiritual certainty which I had unsuccessfully pursued for a long time before this.

"I handled an unwanted source of confusion which will never bother me again.

"After L-11, I was certain that a new life based on my own determinism was in my hands, I couldn't have asked for anything more!

"I'm on L-10 now and I have total certainty that I can cause my environment to go right. I feel that it is very safe to adopt the appropriate beingness in order to accomplish my goals and purposes.

"I have certainty on what I know. I am clear on what it is I do not know and wish to know. And I am certain that I can learn and apply what is necessary and required so as to accomplish my goals and purposes.

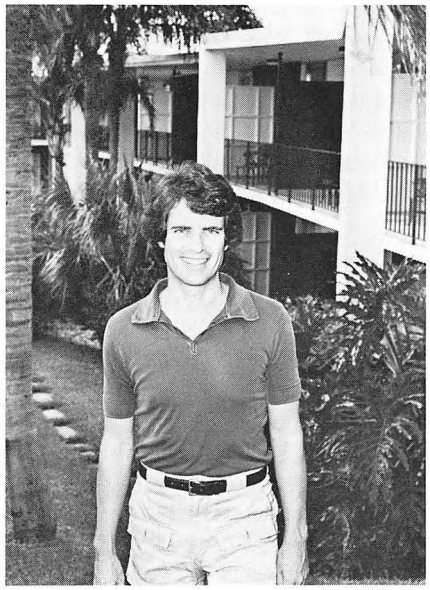

"I'd say that if you can imagine how Sherlock Holmes must have felt when he solved his greatest mystery you would begin to know how one feels after L-11 and L-10. Quite powerful, and quite energetic!"

One of Bob's biggest wins was being able to substantially help out a group of concerned citizens who are working to help restore the fundamentals on which this country was founded. Recently, this group held a fund raising banquet for which he generated considerable support.

He contacted over 50 business people and disseminated to them about the purpose of this citizens group. Through the application of his newly gained abilities from the L's, over 70% of the people he contacted chose to make an immediate contribution to this cause. It was a great win for all.

Bob was asked if there was any data he'd wanted to have about the L's before he came to Flag. He replied, "Ron has said that they are the most powerful rundowns on Flag. I didn't need to know any more than that. I felt the L's could and would be of help."

Bob elaborated on why he felt the L's were so powerful. "The L's not only allow you to know who you are, but what you have done in the past. They enable you to know what your basic purpose is for this lifetime and your purpose as a thetan as well. The L's additionally, clearly and without question, remove the major barriers that can and do make life difficult.

"It's quite a mission, but you're in capable hands throughout the journey at Flag."

Naturally the question came up about what services Bob plans to do in the future at Flag. "L-12!" he exclaimed, "I expect to come back for that. Also the Student Hat, Elementary Evaluator's Course, and several other courses as well as NED for OTs Auditing.

"From my viewpoint, processing has allowed me to experience and know my purpose in being and my goal as a thetan. The tech serves as the vital tools in hand which will allow me to responsibly create a safe environment in which mankind can experience rejuvenation, spiritual growth, and spiritual freedom."

When asked if he had anything further he wanted to share, he answered:

"I'm very thankful to Ron and his crew at Flag. On the L's I truly experienced the breadth and depth of Ron's technological achievements.

"At the same time I gained a tremendous respect for the many thetans at Flag who have successfully duplicated his policy. It's quite a game and I'm proud to be a part of it.

"I'm confident regarding the outcome!"

Flag Training: It's Half of Your Gains

There are no two ways about this topic. Training and processing progress up The Bridge inseparably. The L's give you an incredible boost in ability. They'll speed your progress upwards. But it's training that is the stabilizer to the processing. It IS the other half of the whole — the whole Bridge to Total Freedom. There is no halfway measure.

The Common Denominator

Flag training covers a wealth of areas and is divided into these categories:

Flag Auditor (Minister) Training

Flag Case Supervisor Training

Flag Course Supervisor Training

Flag Administrative Training

Other Flag Courses and Mini Courses

There is one common denominator to all Flag Courses. They give the very best training in Ron's priceless technologies! The world's top auditors, case supervisors, course supervisors and Scientology executives have been trained at Flag!

The Flag Land Base gives you a truly safe, sane environment where the sole objective is that you will on completion of your course be able to competently produce the product or do the action of the course.

Many a student has commented that it is more than worth it to do courses at the Flag Land Base because they are much faster and the student really gets the data.

Those things that Ron has directed for fast, excellent courses are present: study technology fully in use, word clearing available, course materials readily available, you are referred to only source materials, the slightest student indicators are picked up and handled by excellent supervisors.

There is a special Flag service which ensures students who have difficulty, even with standard supervision, are handled. That is the Student Booster Rundown. It boosts a student the way the L's boost a PC or PRE-OT.

It is an interesting note that most of the courses described on page 18 were originally developed, compiled and piloted at Flag!

The Bright Polishing Touch

The most famous of the Flag Interneships are the Flag Auditor Interneships. The Class X, XI and XII Interneships, of course, are Sea Org only, but there are Interneships for Course Supervisor Courses, Case Supervisor Courses and many of the Administrative Courses. Flag excellence is the hallmark of them all.

In all of the Interneships offered at the Flag Land Base you interne under and alongside top Flag auditors, supervisors, C/Ses and executive staff.

You gain the ability to apply what you learned, with complete certainty on what is correct and how to get results every time!

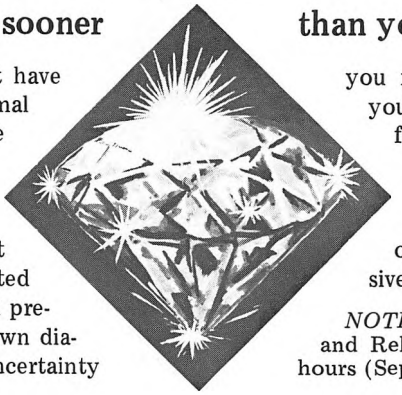

The Difficult Problem Solved

From the same tape Ron indicates: "You're right up in the front seat of the first breakthrough that's ever been made in this universe on the subject of the road out . . . you're fortunate to have moved up into the situation that you're in. The only thing I can ask you and point out to you is that you're in a position where you shouldn't waste any of the potential which you have immediately at your finger-tips. You shouldn't waste any part of that. The only thing I ask you to do is to make the most of what you've got."

How to do this frequently arises when you're getting one of the major Flag Rundowns such as the L's, and a major training cycle can't be done. Flag has solved this difficult problem with Mini Courses, designed so you can take one or more at the same time you're receiving processing. These Mini Courses present a particularly fine opportunity to combine processing and training on a single trip to Flag. They offer you the way to be fully productive in expanding your abilities across the dynamics with no time wasted. A perfect solution to Ron's indication above. On page 18 is a partial listing of the host of the Mini Courses offered. For a full list with brief descriptions write the letter registrar today! Better yet, call the Chief Registrar NOW! Turn to page 2 for phone numbers and address.

L's SUCCESS STORIES

This is a validation of the best and most successful auditing I ever had before I started on NED for OTs. Whoever should have any doubts whether to take the L's, I would always suggest take them. They give a thetan so much power and strength. The certainty gained through the L's – I have done all three of them – is immense. The expertise of the auditor and the precision are beyond words. Whatever you want to tackle after having done the L's is from such a different point of view that it is worth every minute. NED for OTs is quick to do after having done the L's. – E.v.K.

L-12 is a fantastic rundown!

I arrived at the Flag Land Base in very rough shape, having had three years of very heavy responsibilities which were thrust upon me in my business activities and domestic life through the many problems that arise when one's wife is a terminal cancer victim.

Through L-12 plus the magnificent smooth tech of my auditor (the top of the best in my opinion), the spot-on C/Sing and the fast efficient handling of my folders and myself by the HGC staff (bless them), I have pulled out of a disastrous slide.

Today I am in high knowingness, happy beingness, minus terrible somatics and heading on for NED for OTs.

My eternal thanks to Ron for his life-saving tech and all who have helped me win a major battle. – B.A.

Commendations are due for the power terminals who assisted me in the F.S.O.

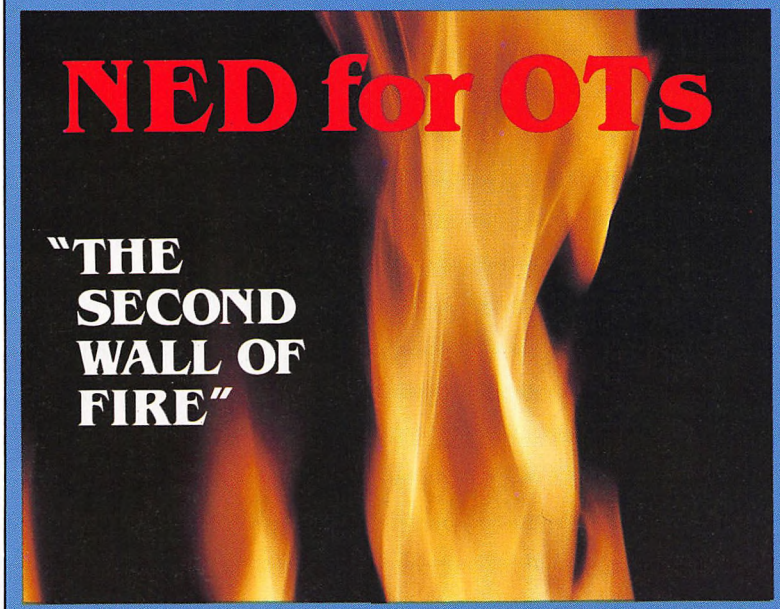

To my fellow field publics of OT III and under, I offer you my advice of Love; that you do L-12 if your C/S suggests this before you do NED for OTs. The set-ups alone revitalized my certainty as a sane being.

Ron Knows, and as always has delivered another incredible gift.

Do it, and you'll Win! – L.J.

Doing L-12 before NED for OTs was a wonderful way to go! In the first two hours of set-ups my whole case got squared around – all my wins validated and attested to. On the rundown I gained certainty of self and regained some OT abilities which later proved to be very helpful on NED for OTs. My estimated hours for NED for OTs cut back, and I feel it is running faster for me than it would have done if I hadn't had the L-12 first. I honestly expect to finish NED for OTs in a comparatively short time. It's wonderful! – S.P.

TRAINING NEWS

Top public relations technology made available to public at Flag!

The incredibly effective Public Relations technology that has been used for years to train top Guardian's Office Public Relations Personnel has now been made available in course form to you. Called the "Flag Effective Public Relations Course," it is a Flag only special. Like the L's, it can be had only at Flag.

In 1970, around the same time he was doing his breakthrough research on the L's, Ron was on the brink of yet another breakthrough.

For years, people in universtiies had been trained in a subject called "Public Relations." Ron pointed out that:

"A casual investigation of the activities and effects of 'PR' as practised in the first 70 years of the 20th century gives one ample data to regard 'PR' with caution.

"The subject is one which can be said to be dangerous in its incomplete stage of development or in the hands of inexpert or unscrupulous people."

Ron went on then to fully evaluate the subject of PR against Scientology technology. Going through one of the standard textbooks of the subject, Effective Public Relations by Cutlip and Center, Ron made extensive notes and evaluations of the book. He also wrote and issued many "Public Relations Series" Policy Letters, based on his researches in this area.

The result is a workable, effective subject that can be used with beneficial results by all who know the technology. Ron says of this technology in HCO Policy Letter of 2 June 1971: "PR is the social technology of handling and changing human emotion and reaction."

Now that this data has been formed into "The Effective Public Relations Course" at Flag, you can know that technology too. All with the certainty of Flag standard course supervision.

The course is supervised by supervisors who were specially trained by the GO at St. Hill in England. A major part of the course materials is a specially printed edition of Cutlip and Center's Effective Public Relations which includes all of Ron's notes and comments as a part of the text.

This course is designed to give you all of Ron's tech on Public Relations.

It's a big booster to one's ability to handle and change human emotion and reaction. It will turn you into a cool, confident professional able to handle any PR situation with unruffled competence. Get it now! Contact the Flag Registrar today!

See addresses on page 2. Sept. 1979 donation is $7,895.20.

The L's Were Researched With The Workhorse Meter

The Mark V

Tireless and enduring like a faithful, reliable workhorse. Auditors have come to trust and demand steady production from this great meter.

The Mark V E-Meter has been plowing into and digging up the bank for over 15 years! The L's, and all the other great breakthroughs of this period were researched with the Mark V.

The American Mark V is now greatly improved, with all of the advancements that only years of development could produce!

The American Mark V is the perfect second meter to the Mark VI. It is even a great first meter, for those who need and demand tireless and trustworthy production.

Mark V. The workhorse that auditors have learned to depend on. The one that made the L's possible.

$475.83 (Sept. 1979 donation. Subject to 10% monthly increase.)

Assure your auditing results! Order yours from the Flag Bookstore TODAY! P.O. Box 23751, Tampa, Florida 33623, U.S.A.

For Those Who Can Have The Best

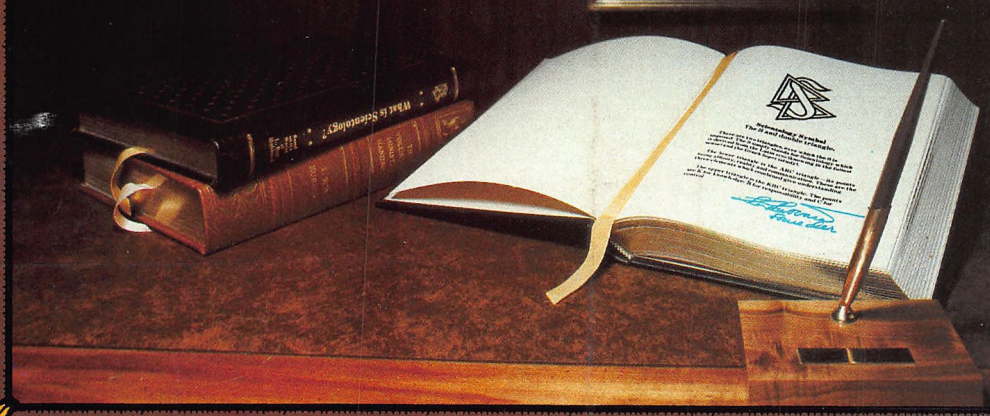

The person who gets the L's is among those who go after the best in life. Naturally, such a person seeks and demands from his environment a higher degree of aesthetics. His surroundings show it.

Luxuriously bound books, just as the classic masterpieces of painting, are part of his world. This a person who can have.

Flag recognizes and validates your clearsighted quest. A selection of Ron's timeless works, autographed by him and classically bound, await you at Flag's bookstore. An exclusive presentation to enhance your environment — a future heirloom.

These exquisitely bound volumes incorporate fine traditional materials and features in differing combinations. Such rich variety reminds one of a fine Rembrandt canvas! Lush paper edged in real gold, opulent moiré fabric end sheets, satin book marks and plush leather or leatherette bindings harmonize to perfection. Ron's signature adds the final brush stroke.

Classic truth classically presented for your ultimate satisfaction at the bookstore now! Order your set today! Details and order form on inside back cover.
