Definitions
of Scientology Terms

Aberration; The manifestation of an engram, and is serious only when it influences the competence of the individual in his environment.

Anchor Points: The points which mark an area of space are called anchor points, and these, with the viewpoint, alone are responsible for space.

Auditing: Spiritual counseling. The application of Scientology processes and procedures to someone by a trained auditor.

Auditor: Minister. A person trained and qualified in applying Scientology spiritual counseling to others for their betterment.

Axiom: Statement of natural laws on the order of those of the physical sciences.

Beingness: The assumption or choosing of a category of identity. Examples of beingness would be one's own name, one's profession, one's physical characteristics, one's role in a game.

Case: The way an individual responds to the world around him by reason of his aberrations.

Case Supervisor: That person in a Scientology Church who gives instructions regarding, and supervises the auditing of, preclears.

Class: Refers to the level of classification of an auditor.

C/S: See Case Supervisor.

Charge: Harmful energy or force accumulated and stored within the reactive mind, resulting from the conflicts and unpleasant experiences that a person has had. Auditing discharges this charge so that it is no longer there to affect the individual.

Clear: A thetan who can be at cause knowingly and at will over mental matter, energy, space and time as regards the First Dynamic (survival for self).

Comm: Abbreviation for Communication.

Communication: The interchange of ideas or objects between two people or terminals.

Dianetics: From the Greek "dia" (through) and "Nous" (soul), thus "through the soul"; a system for the analysis, control and development of human thought which also provides techniques for increased ability, rationality, and freedom from the discovered single source of aberrations and psychosomatic ills.

Dynamics: Any one of eight motivating drives along which each individual operates toward the goal of survival. These are survival through 1) self; 2) sex and family (future generations); 3) group (racial, geographical, national, etc.); 4) mankind as a whole; 5) life forms; 6) MEST (matter, energy, space, and time — the physical universe); 7) spirits (individual thetans), 8) (sometimes written on its side as infinity) the Supreme Being, all theta, the life static itself.

Engram: A mental image picture which is a recording of a time of physical pain and unconsciousness. It must by definition have impact or injury as part of its content.

Ethics: Ethics actually consist of rationality toward the highest level of survival for the individual, the future race, the group and mankind, and the other dynamics taken collectively.

Facsimile: The pictures contained in the reactive mind.

FES: Folder Error Summary

Folder: A compilation of data — the records kept by an auditor.

Grade: A series of processes culminating in an exact ability attained.

Grade Chart: Gradation Chart or Classification, Gradation and Awareness Chart. The route to Clear, the Bridge, a guide for the individual to Clear and above.

L's: Plural; refers to the special Flag rundowns L-10, L-11, L-12; ("L" is an abbreviation for "List" and 10, 11 and 12 are the numerical designations for these rundowns.)

Life Static: A life static has no mass, no motion, no wavelength, no location in space or time. It has the ability to postulate and to perceive.

Mind: A control system between the thetan and the physical universe. It is not the brain. The mind is the accumulated recordings of thoughts, conclusions, decisions, observations and perceptions of a thetan throughout this entire existence. The thetan can and does use the mind in handling life and the physical universe.

NED for OTs: New Era Dianetics for OTs.

OT: Operating Thetan, a thetan exterior who can have but doesn't have to have a body in order to control or operate through life, matter, energy, space and time.

Particle: Energy is subdivisible into a large motion . . . and a small motion which is itself commonly called a particle in nuclear physics.

PC: See Preclear.

Pictures: See Facsimile.

Preclear: A person who, through Scientology auditing, is finding out more about himself and life.

Processing: A series of methods arranged on an increasingly deep scale of bringing the preclear to confront the no-confront sources of his aberrations and leading them to a simple, powerful, effective being.

Pre-OT: A thetan beyond the state of Clear who, through the advanced courses, is advancing to the full state of operating thetan.

Psychosomatic: "Psycho" of course refers to mind and "somatic" refers to body; the term psychosomatic means the mind making the body ill or illnesses which have been created physically with the body by derangement of the mind.

PTS: Means potential trouble source, which itself means a person connected to a suppressive person. All sick persons are PTS.

Reactive Mind: The reactive mind is a stimulus response mechanism, ruggedly built, and operable in trying circumstances. The reactive mind never stops operating. Pictures of the environment, of a very low order, are taken by this mind even in some states of unconciousness. The reactive mind acts below the level of consciousness.

Routine 6 End Words: (R6EW), Grade 6 release.

Rundown: A series of steps which are auditing actions and processes designed to handle a specific aspect of a case and which have a known end phenomena.

Scientology: An applied religious philosophy and technology resolving problems of the spirit, life and thought; discovered, developed and organized by L. Ron Hubbard as a result of his earlier Dianetic discoveries. Coming from the Latin "scio" (knowing) and the Greek "logos" (study), Scientology means "knowing how to know" or "the study of wisdom."

Solo: Solo Auditing, in solo auditing the auditor is also the PC.

Source: Scientologists recognize the Spiritual leadership of L. Ron Hubbard as the Founder, and the Source of the religious philosophy of Scientology.

Space: Space is not nothingness. Space is the viewpoint of dimension . . . It is how far we look and if you didn't look you wouldn't have space.

Technology: The methods of application of an art or science as opposed to the mere knowledge of the science or art itself.

Thetan: The person himself — not his body or his name, the physical universe, his mind, or anything else; that which is aware of being aware, the identity which is the individual. The thetan is most familiar to one and all as you.

TR: Training regimen or routine. Often referred to as a training drill. TRs are a precise training action putting a student through laid out practical steps gradient by gradient, to teach a student to apply with certainty what he has learned.

"... ability is a common denominator just as survival is ..."

Accent on Ability

L. Ron Hubbard

MANY THINGS have been learned in the past several years of Dianetic research and investigation, as brought out in the book Dianetics: 1955!. But chief amongst these items is the fact that we have misplaced, to some degree, our accent mark.

Formerly we were intent upon surveys of many lines of human activity. We have covered such things as psychosomatic illness and aberration, and indeed the stress on these two is paramount as represented in the title itself of Book One, Dianetics: The Modern Science of Mental Health. Today's accent is much more sharply aligned, and arrowed into human activity.

Today we know that man is so hungry for a game that he cannot but cling to, or even invent, psychosomatic ills and aberrations so as to satiate this apparently unappeasable thirst for problems.

All of us have had the experience of processing preclears who did not want to get well. Of course, today, we could give them a sufficient abundance of problems and illnesses in mock-up form, or in some other manner, so as to bring them into a state of realization that they could create more problems than they had and so convince them that it would be possible to release at least some of the ills to which they are dedicated. This does not mean, of course, that we could not bring preclears into a state of being well, or that we cannot bring them into such a desirable condition. All I wish to call to your attention here is that we have misplaced our accent. If man is so thoroughly engrossed in self-inspection so as to generate and multiply barriers such as psychosomatic ills and aberrations, then it must mean that his interest is centered on himself. And if his interest is centered upon himself, and we yet find it undesirable for our fellow men to be so out of communication, then there must be other spheres to which this interest can be directed.

We know that if his interest is so thoroughly involved with the first dynamic, then he must have abandoned many other dynamics. We see in this first dynamic fixation a lessening of force and ability throughout the whole of mankind or any group of men. When interest introverts, the subject which seems most compelling to man is psychosomatic ills and aberration, for he generates these only when his interest is so introverted.

It has been my good fortune to discover in the researches of the past few years that there were many roads out of this puzzle of self. Indeed, the entire span of the dynamics could be considered themselves a roadway. If an individual is to depart from a fixation on the first dynamic, then it is necessary for him to project himself and discover interests upon the remaining dynamics. This is, indeed, a very clear roadway, and one which anyone would take — unless, of course, he were confronted by a barrier sufficiently gigantic to him to debar his interests from forming on these additional dynamics.

Let us examine this situation futher by inspecting the dynamics. According to the fundamental axioms of Dianetics, which have not changed, the dynamic principle of existence is "Survive." Survival considered as the single and sole purpose subdivides into at least four dynamics.* Dynamic One is the urge of the individual toward survival for himself. Dynamic Two is the urge of the individual toward survival through procreation and includes both the sex act and the raising of progeny. Dynamic Three is the urge of the individual toward survival through a group. Dynamic Four is the urge of the individual toward survival as Mankind. These, as stated in the First Book, are the legitimate sphere of interest of Dianetics.

If we are considering these dynamics as a roadway, and if we are seeking to draw man's interest away from the First Dynamic where it can center only upon psychosomatic illness and aberration in order to have problems, then we see at once that the Second Dynamic is barriered. This is highly frowned upon in this society at this time, and yet the Second Dynamic is the only dynamic which will permit future generations to come into the world. Even the Archbishop who frowns and sneers on the subject of sex is, as a body, the product of a sexual act between his father and his mother. No matter how much he might rant and rave to his congregation, actually even for the persistence of the church and the survival of congregations, to say nothing of the revenue provided from baptisms, the church is entirely dependent upon the sexual act. When people interest themselves in juvenile deliquency they should interest themselves in that part of the sexual act which is the raising and caring for children. Unless we release, at least to some degree, the stigma attached to sex we have immediately blocked our road out to just that extent that the sexual act is forbidden or denied.

*In early Dianetics there were four dynamics. In Scientology this was expanded to eight.

But consider that our individual has managed to bridge the sexual act, and has at least thought about adventuring on the road to the Third Dynamic. Here do we find any barriers? Indeed we do. We discover that before an individual can possibly be admitted into any group, whether small or large as that nebulous thing called "society", he must be possessed of many abilities. Otherwise he will be improperly mannered and possessed of too few skills to make his presence in the group desirable, and here we have the foremost bar upon the line: the individual's lack of social, artistic, technical, artisan, or labor ability.

Now, while we can understand ability upon the Third Dynamic, it becomes a little difficult to understand upon the Fourth Dynamic unless one conceives it in terms of absence of ability. Let us inspect this situation today wherein nationalism was launched upon the world to give into our possession at this time, in this atomic age, an anarchy of nations. These nations depend for their further continuance and sustenance upon the production and even worship of their citizens. A few years ago this system was not entirely unworkable. Distances were sufficiently great to permit an isolation to occur, but now we are in possession, according to the officials of at least three major governments, of weapons of such magnitude that these could very well destroy all life extant upon a continent of earth. This doubtlessly laudable ability on the part of our weapon-makers discovers a certain inadequacy in this arrangement of nations, for these nations live in an anarchy, and an attempt to reconcile them one to another has already met with defeat, where the biggest of these nations, in San Francisco*, withheld to themselves the right to veto any action of the General Assembly.

Somewhere (you and I do not know where), some individual (you and I do not know who), has at this moment in his possession weapons of sufficient magnitude to lay flat continents of earth. If one is so naive as to suppose that one can wipe off a continent without endangering or even obliterating life on other continents, then one has not flown recently across an ocean and discovered what near neighbors these continents are, and that they breathe the same air recirculated by the prevailing Westerlies — for atomic fission is noted for nothing if not its ability to remain suspended in the air. We do not properly know who would give this man his orders, providing this man would stay there and wait for orders, nor do we know in what area of the world such a man might be located. Perhaps there are two such men. Perhaps there are two dozen. Perhaps three or four nations have such men standing by with such weapons. In this age of guided missiles it is highly doubtful if the services of a pilot and plane would have to be commandeered in order to accomplish the destruction of a continent. Do not think that I speak idly, for I am merely quoting Secretary of the Air Force, Harold Talbott, to the effect that he is in possession — or somebody is in possession, he does not let us in on what or where — "of weapons that can lay waste an entire continent — men, women, children, even the beasts and the vegetation. They can abolish in a single night not only an army, not only a nation, but a whole civilization." He also states, "Some of them are of such awful power that even the men who build them cannot fully visualize the carnage that would follow their use." He also tells us this is neither the time nor the place to dwell upon these weapons, just as though there were some time and some place where one could consider this problem. For none of us, on this Fourth Dynamic problem, which is what it is, has, evidently, any right whatsoever to think in such terms as the survival of Mankind.

If only by atomic power, and without regard to the anarchistic state of nations one to another, we are definitely barriered from a Fourth Dynamic survival. For instance, what would you do right this moment in order to resolve this problem on the Fourth Dynamic? What ability could you possibly assume to yourself, practice and perfect, which would remove from Mankind this threat of wanton and widespread destruction at the hands of irresponsible politicians and rather seedy nuclear physicists who have never been noted for their sanity — who, indeed, today, by National Proclamation (at least in the United States) are debarred even from a cursory examination of their sanity? For if they are given an examination on the subject of their sanity they have broken their "top secret classification" and thus must never more handle weapons or papers of that nature. They are not only debarred from the casual society of their fellows by these awful secrets which they possess, but they are debarred as well from any resolution of any mental problem which they might have. And, as we look at this situation where one man, with or without orders, can destroy an entire continent, we cannot but be amazed to discover that no-one is ever to be permitted to investigate his sanity or to give him any counsel along human lines. This individual is not being barred merely from the Fourth Dynamic, he is being compressed thoroughly back to the First Dynamic, and the result of this? Well, what would you do tonight if you had to solve this problem? Thus, you see thee and me are lacking to some degree an ability in this, or ability on the Fourth Dynamic.

Now, looking this roadway over again, we see that each of the last two dynamics are rather thoroughly barriered by lack of ability. Let us investigate further. Most often we discover sexual aberration continuing from a complete lack of sexual ability. This was most marked in the very early years of Christianity, wherein we disovered a eunuch, Saint Paul, advising everyone to have nothing to do whatsoever with sex — a course which the church, without further inquisition, has happily helmed itself along. And we discover that if we can sufficiently suppress the ability of an individual sexually, or if we can suppress his ability to have children, we get those various manifestations which we call nymphomania, which we call perversion, and so forth. Anyone who has audited people has discovered that where we had lack of sexual ability we had various disabilities which are classified by law as sexual irregularities. And thus we find this problem of ability is very present on the Second Dynamic. Further, if one cannot have children we discover that one is prone to be rather diffident, to say the least, about raising children no matter whose, and thus any ability as a father or a nurse is suppressed.

On the First Dynamic we are continually struck by the fact that individuals in the society insist upon other individuals negating the First Dynamic. It is not merely common, it is socially polite to pretend to be unable. A man who can do courageous things is expected to discount his ability. A man who can work well in the field of the arts is expected to make nothing of it. This is simple politeness, but it is not good processing. For an individual who has to make a postulate nine times a day that he is incapable is liable, at long last, to become just that.

We long ago discovered in Dianetics that what we validate comes true. Thus, if we continue to process or connect with or continue to harbor entheta, we discover that entheta becomes quite live. But if we decide to process on the theta line, validating such things as affinity, reality and good communication, we make short work out of the case. Here we have the difference between making a preclear well and making him sick. We can actually process a preclear in the direction of difficulty to such an extent that these difficulties, imagined or actual, become real. The validation of difficulty will always result in the accomplishment of difficulty. Similarly, the validation of ability will always accomplish ability.

Thus we see that there were two sides to these dynamics. The lower side in each case, whether we had to do with the First, Second, Third, or Fourth Dynamic was aberration and psychosomatic illness. The individual, self-centered, is liable to dwell sufficiently upon his ills and injuries and negate himself sufficiently to become an "only one" and to suppress any ability which he has. On the Second Dynamic he broods about his inabilities to have or raise children until he has confirmed these inabilties. On the Third Dynamic he is made to feel a stranger to the group by his lack of skill or his lack of social presence, or by the group's own aberration or psychosomatic ill, to a point where he is occasioned to abandon the group. On the Fourth Dynamic this has become so marked that one does not even think of the Fourth Dynamic as having ills, much less how to remedy them. But we discover in this anarchy of nations where any politician of any country can make capital of hatred for any other country, a psychosomatic illness and an aberration.

Confronted with this situation we see that the wrong thing to do would be to validate any dynamic's ills, but rather, we should process along the lines of the wellness in the dynamic.

Now the upper range of all this would be ability. Ability on the First Dynamic would be the ability to handle and train and accomplish goals as one's self. Ability on the Second Dynamic would be to have and raise and train children. Ability on the Third Dynamic would be to have the ability necessary to develop social, industrial or agrarian skills so as to be an asset to the Third Dynamic. And unfortunately, unless we have built up ability across these first three dynamics we will never attain an ability of any kind on the Fourth Dynamic. Man, indeed, today, is so antipathetic toward any ability on the Fourth Dynamic that he, as represented by one group, almost actively murdered an individual who dared to write a book called One World. That the individual, Wendell Wilkie, was murdered by heartbreak does not make it any the less a murder. When we approach a point of no ability, we approach a desperate state of psychosomatic illness and aberration. Abandonment of any dynamic is not an escape from that dynamic, but an enslavement to it. This is how this universe works.

The accomplishment of ability on any of these first four dynamics will be absolutely necessary if man is to survive, and indeed if individuals are to go forward and make any civilization in which it would be fit to live.

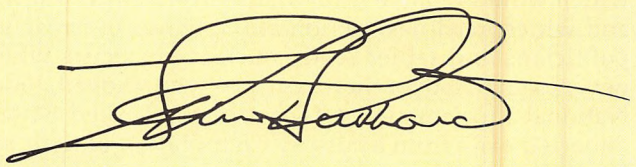

Our accent, from the first, should have been upon ability.

Thus, Dianetics was not really the modern science of mental health, but was (and I think all of us understood this basically) the Modern Science of Ability, for I have never had a preclear who did not hope, through processing, for other than to gain new ability or to regain his old. He was not there to be processed out of his psychosomatic ills and aberration.

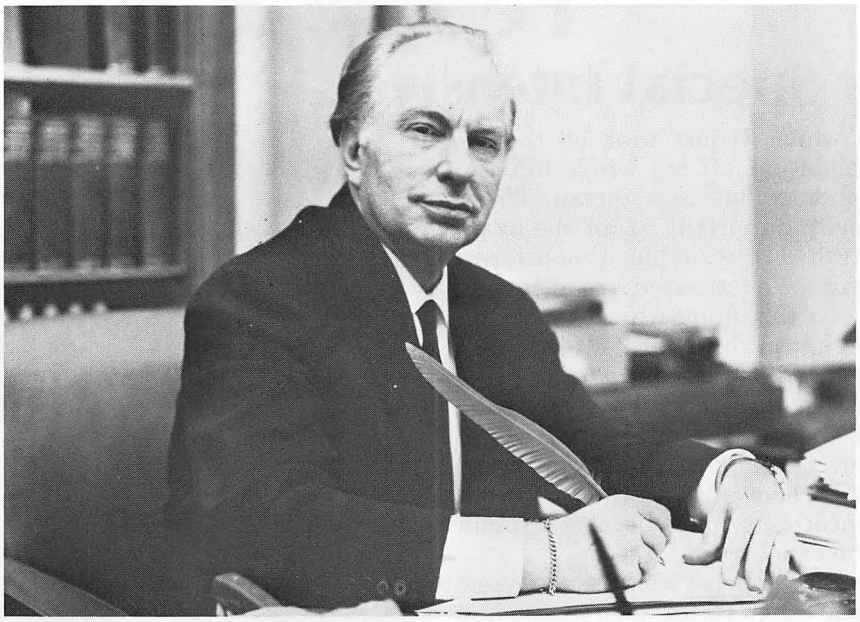

On the definition of "sane" or "ill", if we examine any page of world history we will discover that "sanity" had very little to do with ability. We find some of the men who have given the greatest service to mankind so completely "insane" that they could not have passed the first part of any modern test. "Sanity" is only "agreed upon behavior". When one departs from this "agreed upon behavior" one is of course susceptible to the label "insane". Any behavior which is visionary, compelling, or out of the ordinary is apt to be labelled insane. By "insane" we mean only that the conduct, or the vision, or the goal has not generally been agreed upon. Strangely enough, we also find "sane" men benefiting Mankind. And so we have here no definition at all. Conduct out of the ordinary has numberless times benefited Mankind. Thus we have no grounds on which to work at all if we use "sanity" as a basis. We are, however, on solid ground when we address the subject of ABILITY, and when we say that we are going forward to increase ability on the First, Second, Third and Fourth Dynamics, we would then be on solid processing ground, for ability is a common denominator just as survival is a common measure and urge in all man.

The modern processes of Dianetics increase ability. Each and every one of these processes which is successful in the hands of an auditor does nothing but increase ability. Ability is something which is created. If we are searching forever for the native kernel which is man we will only succeed in depressing him from communication on the Second, Third and Fourth Dynamics, and if we accomplish this then we have accomplished the "only one", the aberrated, the sick individual.

Dianetics today is a Science of Ability. It has no traffic with psychosomatic illness or aberration. It does not care a whit about these two things. Dianetics today can be prepared to expect out of an asylum, or off a Mount, alike some benefit to mankind. It is prepared to discover in the sickest body possible, assets to man, and caring nothing for the sickness of the mind or the sickness of the body, it seeks only to increase the native ability of the individual and to create new abilities in the individual and for the individual so as to resolve the problems of the First, Second, Third and Fourth Dynamics.

People at Flag.

The Dianetic Clear Special Intensive

Susan Todhunter is a frequent visitor to Flag for her processing and training.

As a professional opera singer, she's found all that she's done here has been a huge enhancement to her career.

Currently she's on L-12. In the past she's done L-11 and many other of Flag's "miracles-as-usual" auditing actions.

The topic of this interview was her recent completion of the Dianetic Clear Special Intensive or DCSI.

I attested to Dianetic Clear long before the Dianetic Clear Special Intensive was released. So when I came to Flag it was to do other auditing.

Attesting to Dianetic Clear was a big win and helped to sort out a lot of things for me. I was ready to get on to new things.

I've been to Flag many times. This time I came as a Clear. The first thing I did was my Expanded Grades.

I'd done my Quad* Grades but not the expanded. I also did the Student Hat and Student Booster Rundown. L-11 was another thing I did. It was just great.

But what I wanted to say is that all during this time doing this different auditing, something kept coming up in my D of P† interviews. At last, after I'd completed L-11 I was called in for a D of P interview and told there was a new action for me to do. I did, and wow! I later found out it was the Dianetic Clear Special Intensive.

On it I discovered I was a Natural Clear! It was unbelievable! It totally indicated, I blew so much by passed charge‡ when I cognited on that. My whole lifetime just sorted out.

Now I know that Clear is Clear. But the thing I want to point out about doing the DCSI is that I cognited on the truth for myself. I'd always been Clear. The DCSI put truth on the line and I blew all that charge.

I mean I blew charge for quite a while. It just took all the invalidation off my whole life and validated me as a thetan. That's really important to hit the exact truth. For example, I mentioned after I'd attested to Dianetic Clear this thing which kept coming up in my D of P interviews. I realized it was this factor of being a Natural Clear and not validating it that was coming up. I knew but I didn't know, if you know what I mean. With the DCSI that uncertainty blew because I found the exact truth.

Since then I've attested to several other states such as Cleared Theta Clear*. When you recognize and attest to some state you validate it. It's the truth. If you don't, you invalidate it and it's not there for you. I got this from my experience on the DCSI. My wins have been fantastic. So it's very important to get the exact truth validated.

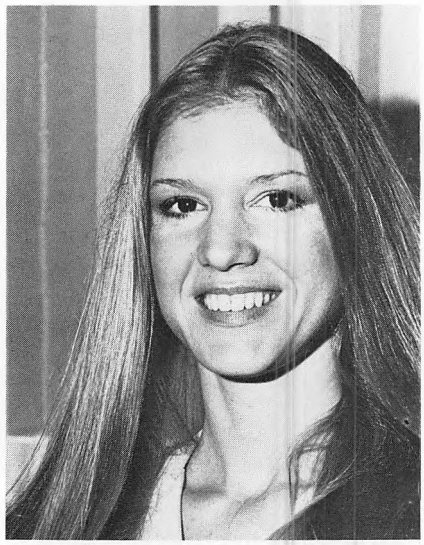

The wins from the DCSI have been immense for me. For one thing, I'd spent the previous seven years trying to go Clear. I'd done hundreds of hours of auditing. I'd got to the point where I didn't think I could get this cleanly handled. I'd seen so many others go Clear while I was still trying to.

But I got help at Flag when I was put on the DCSI. It's clear now why it couldn't get handled. Because it wasn't there. I was already Clear. I got my biggest stop removed with the DCSI, in finding this out.

The changes in my singing ability have been big too. I see day by day changes, but I'll give you an idea of the big changes I've noticed. Before Dianetic Clear there was efforting in my singing. After there was much less. Now, after the DCSI, there is none.

I know I'm senior to the body and the mind. I postulate the sounds I want and the mind and body translate this into the right sounds without any effort.

My intention has gone way high too. I first noticed this when singing to an audience. I became aware of infinite space and these beings and this pure intention to communicate to them. I did, and it got through. Just with pure intention. I realized that I had no MEST† needs to cause the effect. I could reach the audience with pure intention and get my communication across.

That's another thing I've gained. I have certainty about myself. I know and can do. I've real clarity of purpose as a singer. I know what is needed and wanted. Theta and truth. Communication about truth and theta freedom.

I also want to say something about coming to Flag. I've come here for over two years. I'll never forget the first time I came. I had case change before I ever began my auditing. It's so safe here that I suddenly realized, after a day or two, I had this big protective barrier around me. When I saw that, I just blew it away.

That's my point. It's another reason for coming here besides the spot on handling you get. I find because it's so safe it's easy to look at and change considerations. There's nothing pressing in on you. No turmoil to distract so you can look around and see clearly.

I hope this gives you an idea of the wonderful wins I've had since I did the Dianetic Clear Special Intensive.

* Quadruple flow.
† Director of Processing.
‡ Reactive charge that has been by-passed (restimulated but overlooked by both pc and auditor).

* CLEARED THETA CLEAR: one who has full recall of everything and full ability as a thetan.

People who've done...

NED for O.T.s

Helga Wagner is a familiar visitor to Flag. She's done many Flag services. On completion of her NED for OTs she shared the following with the many who gathered to congratulate her.

"Again and again! I say Ron has really found gold with NED for OTs!

"It has cleaned up so much in my life. So many things I understand so much more now.

"I feel truly myself. Before, I'd always thought, "I'm myself". But this is a whole new experience!

"For example, when I look at people, I really perceive things about them. I really know I'm seeing them.

"Another thing is that exteriorization was always a mystery to me. I'd always thought I'd have to be in another room and I'd have to be the painting on the wall and exactly describe what was in the room. Well I finally cognited that it's not MEST I want to be. It's me the being, I want to be and have those perceptions.

"It's not MEST perceptions really, that I'm interested in either. I'm interested in theta perceptions. On NED for OTs I've gained an unbelievable amount of theta perceptions.

"I've also gained the power to get my postulates to succeed! I and my friends — we've had lots of successes lately!

"I've discovered, I also totally understand the ARC[1] and KRC[2] triangles. I know now why LRH puts the double triangles there as a symbol for Scientology.

"Responsibility for the fourth Dynamic has become the most important thing for me now. I and two friends of mine are going to go out now and do 4th Dynamic missions. That is what I really want to do now.

"When you gain a great feeling and love for mankind, all of a sudden you want everyone to achieve the same thing. After all, we're responsible for the rest of the planet because we're the ones that are the pioneers. It all depends on us.

"It has been an old mission of mine to do this. On NED for OTs I discovered this was an old goal, and I'm so happy that I've got it again.

"I'm going to do it! I'm going

1 ARC: affinity, reality, communication.
2 KRC: knowledge, responsibility, control.
3 NINTH DYNAMIC: aesthetics.
4 TENTH DYNAMIC: probably ethics.

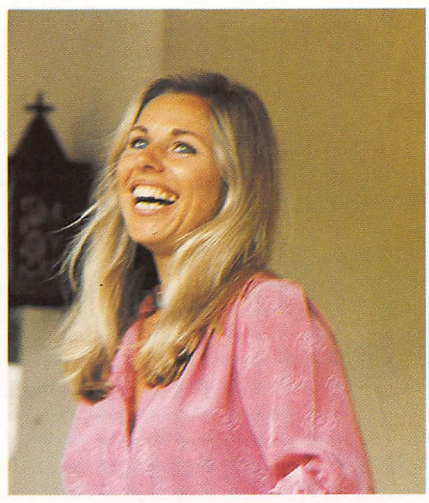

to be a terminal for LRH together with my two friends.

"I've been through a lot of dramatizations on this rundown across all the Dynamics.

"I feel I'm cause over life and I feel cause over all my Dyanmics, including the ninth[3] and tenth[4] as well. I also have certainty and responsibility for them.

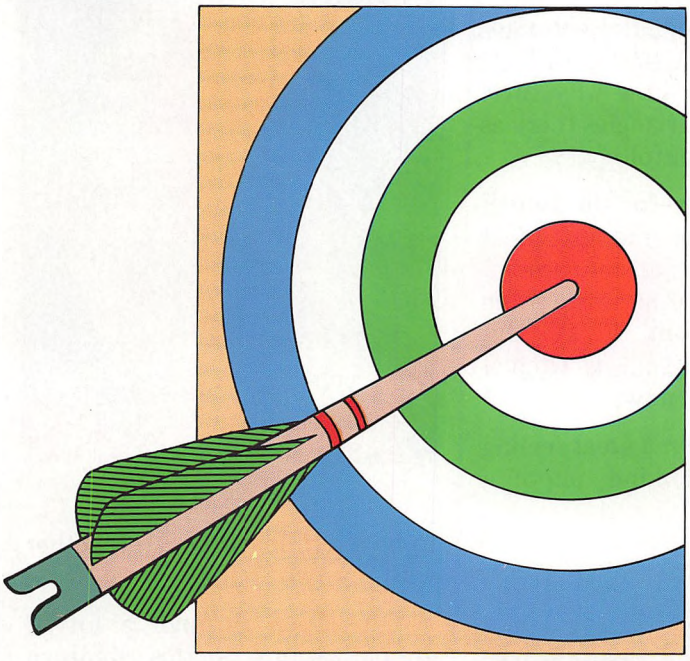

"I want to thank LRH for giving us this unbelievable gift. And I want to thank my auditor and my friends, whom I love dearly. And I absolutely love LRH!"

Flag Tech News

Two New Breakthrough Courses Unveiled at Flag

People around the Flag Land Base have been keyed out more than usual lately. Flag's ability to produce "Miracles-as-usual" has increased.

The release of the New Flag Hard TRs Course and the Product Debug Series Mini Course has brought rave praise and shining indicators out in full force.

They're Flag exclusives, given nowhere else on the planet.

The New Flag Hard TRs Course

Flag standards have always been the highest of all. With the New Hard TRs Course, they're higher than ever.

Several months ago, Ron noticed the quality of TRs training could be considerably upgraded by an even more rigorous insistence on and application of Standard Tech. He did a full evaluation of the situation. From this he arrived at and set in motion the solution.

A select group of auditors and supervisors from across the globe were called to Flag to take part in a special course designed to bring TRs tech application to even more spot on standardness. To pass the course, the student had to receive a pass from Ron on a video tape of his TRs.

The course was a grand success! It delivered the product intended. Now, with its release at Flag, it is for you to experience and achieve that success for yourself.

New course room space has been created on the 10th floor of the Fort Harrison to meet the demand that has already spread for this tougher than ever course.

The new checksheet is a marvel. It is more than double the size of the previous one. Yet, going full time, the course is only increased in length by four days. Added are theory and many demos which ensure full understanding of the TRs data before any practicals are done.

During the practical section, the challenge really comes. You have to sharpen your TRs to 100% standard perfection. Your supervisor, whose TRs have met LRH's standards, will grant a pass on nothing less. They're Flag standards. It's an incredible win when you do!

The purpose of this course: "To train the student to be able to confront and communicate effectively and thus enable him to handle a preclear in session, or to handle a post or the environment with an excellent communication cycle and uniformly spectacular wins."

The product? "Somebody who looks and sounds like an auditor and can sit there and audit."!

The rush to Flag for this great breakthrough is on! Flag is ready for you. Get your TRs in. Get them in so they stay in from here on out! Take this course now. See the Services Insert for the donation.

The Product Debug Series Mini Course

Ron has defined product as "A completed thing that has exchange value within or outside the activity." The product of this course is "A Scientologist who fully understands and can apply the LRH Product debug tech." The fortunate person who takes this powerful and remarkable course has the ability to complete products. You can take any stalled activity and remove the stops expertly through application of this tech! It means you no longer have to be held back from your goals and desires by stalled cycles. Application of this extraordinary tech puts you at cause. Here's first hand success from a few of the people who have experienced the wonders of applying debug tech.

This is the most powerful and fantastic course that I have ever done in Scientology. This is so simple and so fast, it's incredible.

My gains were when I had to debug somebody. I saw the person just in front of my eyes going more up-tone and just "floating" all over the place.

I know that I am going to do miracles with this tech! Thanks to my supervisors and especially to Ron. L.L.

I wanted to write and let you know the fantastic wins I'm having with the debug. I have been working with my boss as I'd planned and it straightened out all the things I had hoped for. All of his immediate juniors have been promoted and now have their own offices to run. My boss is over the whole operation now.

I'm very impressed with the quality of this whole course. S.L.P.

I have been in Scientology for 6 years and during that time I have become full OT VII, had a considerable amount of NED for OTs, and also audited many hours up to Class VI.

During my visit to Flag, I decided to enhance my training by taking the Mini Debug Course, little thinking that the Technology on it would make such vast changes across all my dynamics. But here I am today, after completing the course with an entirely new concept of life, the ability to debug any person in any area, and what is for me the happiest and longest win, a debugged second dynamic.

After many years of heartbreak on not being able to have the kind of second dynamic of which I knew I was capable, I now know with certainty that from this moment success is written in the stars for my fiance and I and we are getting married within the next few days.

I would like to once more thank L. Ron Hubbard for finding and putting out for Scientologists yet another powerful type of Technology which will enable us all to live free and happier lives. S.N.

The technology on the Mini Debug Course is incredibly powerful. As an OT VII I still had a bug on my second dynamic when I came to Flag despite a great amount of effort on trying to handle it earlier. I had been engaged to be married to a really lovely girl for 2 years and somehow or other we could never quite iron out all the bugs to actually completing the cycle. My fiancée did the debug course and then gave me several debug sessions on my 2nd dynamic. She had also had debugging herself and the results we got from this were fantastic! The debugging has moved mountains! Previously we had had great difficulty in really completing cycles of communication on certain subjects, all that blew. We had had difficulty in aligning our Admin Scales* even though we knew basically that they were able to be aligned. All the difficulties on that blew too. My respect and responsibility level for my fiancée rose tremendously and the successful result is that we've aligned our futures and we're going to get married next week. R.E.

Success stories like these continue to flood in as more and more people complete this amazing mini course. It takes only six to seven days part time. It's a perfect complement to the fabulous rundowns you come to take. Get this course. See the services insert for donation and write the Letter Reg today! Or contact your Flag Service Consultant and work out your training or auditing program with him, at your nearest FOLO. The addresses are on page 2.

*ADMIN SCALE: a scale of importances.

People who've done their L's.

What they have to say.

L-10

A great step. I feel like I've been completely cleaned. Everything that could stop me in the future which was coming from my past is gone now.

To a new, clean start. Thanks. S.O.

I have been looking for this feeling ever since being in Scientology and before. I have it now, stably! L-10 is a great action. I feel no bounds to accomplishing what I want to accomplish. It is a quietness in my universe that I have not known for some time. Thank you. J.M.

What can I say!

I've blown ridges, compulsions, aberrated games, bad intentions, fears and more! I'm exterior most of the time and I feel no inclination to stop self from being happy and winning. Areas I'd withdrawn from and was still withdrawing from were handled, so that I now have millions more things I can and want to do.

I am just so good and so me — thanks to Ron and my auditor and the C/S. G.G.

The successes of L-10 are numerous. One is viewing from one's own position, and knowing what that position is!! Another is a wide range of serene space I have created for myself and those around me.

It was the most wins I've had this life and they continue to be. Thank you LRH, Senior C/S, and all who made it possible. I have spaces of ARC for you all. I.F.

L-10 is one of the most fantastic actions I have ever experienced. I feel so free and self-determined — the first time this lifetime! The beautiful thing about L-10 is that it is so complete. I feel so stable. I know I can go and do and experience and learn and be — just me, myself. Thank you Ron for this fantastic tech. Thanks to my auditor for applying it so standardly. Thank you all at Flag for making this possible for me. Sane and safe and sure is what Flag is and what I have gained being here and getting L-10. D.F.

I just have completed L-10. What a rundown! My case has tremendously changed. I am me again. I am a strong, ethical being on all the eight dynamics. I can't wait to get in a full day's life again and do. It won't be the same as before. Thank you Ron for this incredible tech. Thank you my auditor for the wonderful auditing and thank you all who helped me to achieve this win. D.B.

It is with a great measure of appreciation and confidence I write this.

My journey through this process carries benefits beyond imagination, such as tremendous increase in perception, knowingness, memory and ability to handle any problem. No more holding back as I have in the past. I'm now completely free to use knowledge and understanding at my command. Self determinism will handle it now. Thank you Ron. A.B.

There are many, many gains I have experienced and am experiencing. The first one is that I feel better than ever, the second is that I have discovered the state of being me (!). Not that I was anybody else! But that I have eliminated "hidden influences" from being "me"! I now know what being me is. If anything comes in my space, I detect it and remove it. Thirdly, a difficulty I have always had has faded away . . . just faded away! That is amazing!

Thanks to Ron, my auditor, and the whole crew. What a marvelous job! M.F.

This is what I came to Flag to mainly get — a new life. Now I can accept the responsibility of doing my OT levels and utilizing the abilities gained on the levels and on NED for OTs to further my own goals to help Ron clear Earth. What better purpose could one have?

This I owe to Ron's fantastic tech, to the auditing ability of my auditor and to the Flag Service Org staff for keeping this org here. L.O.

I have regained many many many abilities. I've become thoroughly familiar with my past, increased my ability to remember considerably. I know now exactly who I am and best of all I am now completely certain that I do not need a body to exist. My viewpoint on life is completely changed. I could go on and on!

I want to thank my auditor very much, and Ron. I am really a freed being for good! R.G.

I had been off lines with a Potential Trouble Source situation for almost four years. I came to Flag and got the situation handled. Then in about five hours of L set-ups I got repaired lists which had been out for years. At the end of that I thought I had a new life, and to a degree I did. When advised I should get L-11 I was actually a bit disappointed. But then I read where Ron says it gives "a new life in truth," and I didn't need to read any further.

When I got onto L-11 I was amazed at what it contained and I can honestly say that there may not be anything I have ever needed more than L-11. I would never have made it on solo auditing had I not had L-11.

What they say is absolutely true — if you come to Flag you will get handled! That is saying an awful lot.

I have total faith in my C/S, my auditor and in Ron. I am still amazed at how much I needed L-11, and that I got it.

So now I have a new life to play with which will begin with L-10 and L-12. What could be better? M.M.

L-12

I've never been just myself for a long time. My "size" is larger and very stable. I'm no longer concerned about another person creating too large an effect on me and my not easily having the effect. Consequently, I'm a lot nicer person with greater confidence and assurance.

Thanks very much to my auditor, my C/S, my D of P, and all the others — especially Ron — who delivered L-12 to me. E.C.

This fabulous action handled what was truly a major stop on my case, that has been there much longer than I care to remember. It has removed the major source of aberration — at least to me — that has prevented me from being me.

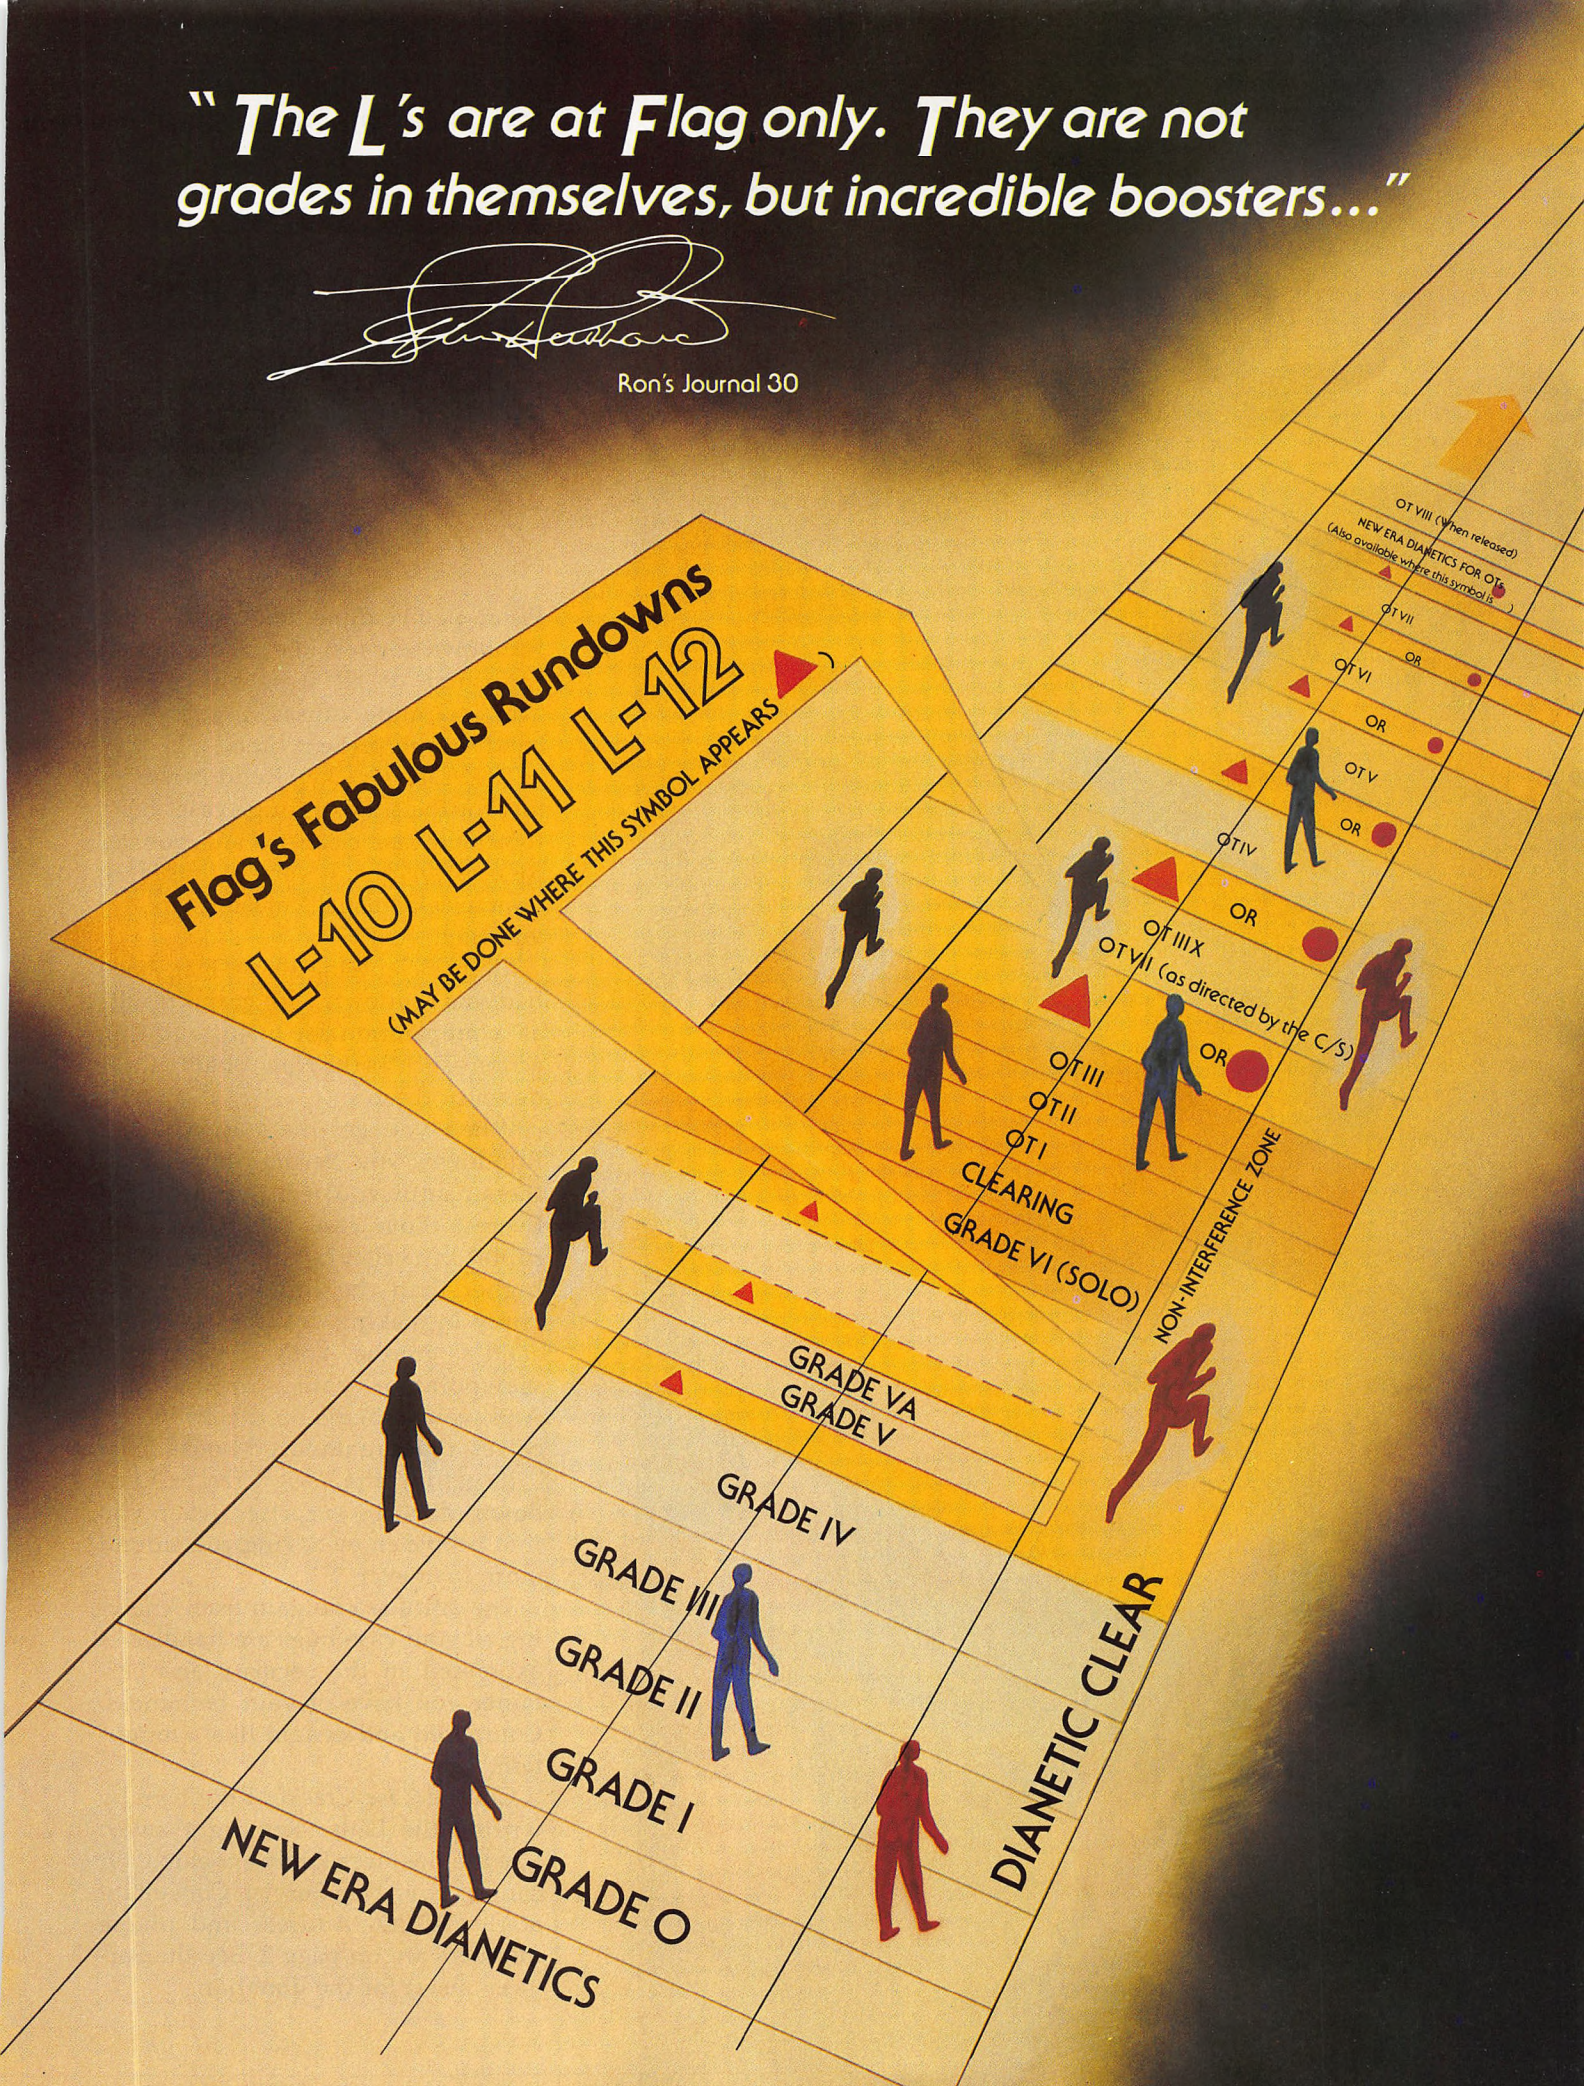

My highest gratitude to Ron, my auditor and the staff for getting me through. L.M.

Prerequisites: Grade IV Expanded, not in the Non-Interference Zone (R6EW to OT III), or incomplete on any major action.

To ensure full gains on the L's, preparatory auditing is usual. This varies in length, but 12½ to 25 hours is average at regular HGC auditing rates. See insert for donation. Use the business reply envelope. NOW is the time to get your L's! Do it!

"The L's are at Flag only. They are not grades in themselves, but incredible boosters..."

As a Flag Interned Auditor You have the ability to produce Miracles-as-Usual.

A Flag Training Tip

Flag auditors produce miracles-as-usual up through the level of their training. It's expected they do. As a Flag auditor interne you attain the "secret" of how to do this.

From the time you start, until you complete your interneship, you operate under the first principle laid down by LRH in his WELCOME TO THE FLAG INTERNE COURSE: ". . . the first principle on which we operate is that Flag auditing must be absolutely flawless, completely flubless and there are no failed sessions and there are no flubs."

To begin your interneship, the course for that level must be completed.

If it's your first interneship, no matter what interneships have been done elsewhere, you do the NED Interneship. It isn't that auditors haven't had good results or done good auditing elsewhere. It's simply that the level of standards at Flag require that Flag quality go in from the very bottom up.

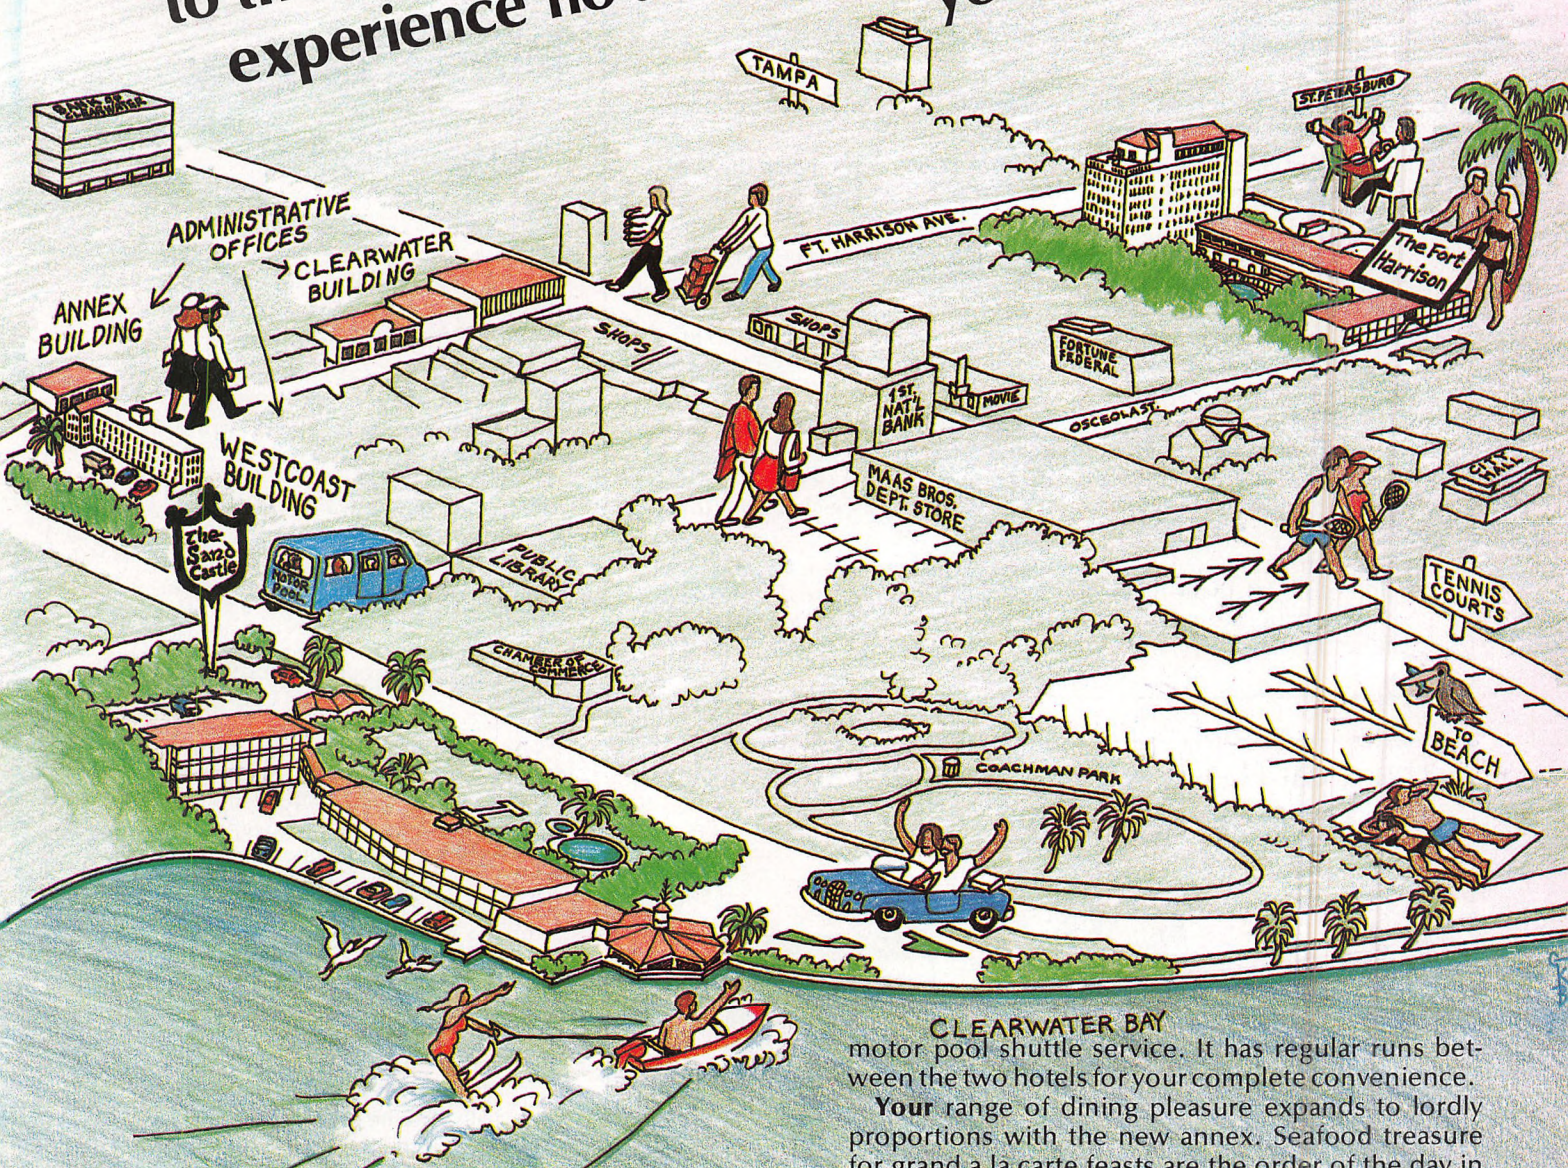

The keynote of everything you do as an interne is standardness. One hundred per cent of the time, you maintain this as you progress through your interneship. Your supervisor sees this is in as you do your daily TRs, meter drills and the practical actions of the level you're interning. The Flag C/Ses ensure one hundred per cent standardness as you audit, audit, and audit some more until you're flubless.

The interneships were streamlined and speeded up in 1977. They take only weeks rather than months to do. They're intense and professional.

And when you're done you possess the "secret" that enables Flag auditors to handle any case — to produce miracles-as-usual. Write to the Flag Letter Registrar and find out what your next exact right training step should be. Use the business reply envelope for fast action.

Have the knowledge about life the Ancient Greeks failed to get.

Long ago, the ancient Greek civilization crumbled: a dusty comment on the knowledge of life they'd hoped to get at the Parthenon, from its presiding Goddess Athena, patron of wisdom.

In THE PHILADELPHIA DOCTORATE COURSE TAPES SET, Ron gives in lecture form the survival knowledge these ancients had hoped to get but didn't. By owning a set of these taped lectures you can.

These lectures are real case handlers, like the fabulous Flag Rundowns. They deliver knowledge that results in more certainty in life and reality on yourself as a thetan. This is data not found in books, but it's easily yours on these tapes.

Ron gave these lectures in a one-time-only course during December 1952 in Philadelphia. He illustrated his points with drawings and illustrations he drew as he spoke. These lecture charts have been reproduced and put into a large spiral bound booklet that accompanies the tapes. As you listen to your lectures these charts bring extra life and understanding to this timeless data.

The scope of the Philadelphia Doctorate Course Lectures on the thetan is vast. Get them. They're companion data for the unique rundowns you get at Flag. Of all they contain, the most important information these tapes have is how to be you — totally you.

Unlike the ancients, you won't have to climb to some doubtful temple. Getting these tapes will turn your quest for knowledge about life into an arrival. See the insert for the donations, and order your set with the lecture charts now! Use the business reply envelope for fast action. You'll never be the same.
