IS EARTH AN INSANE PLANET?

— Marianne Francis

"Those whom the gods would destroy, they first make mad."

Recently it has seemed as if a climax or crescendo is being reached in the deteriorating conditions experienced on this planet. Yet it has been stated that such would be the case in the "last days" of this Age.

Signs of the times are the following: In Vietnam last year, an American captain ordered his men to massacre the inhabitants of three villages: men, women, and babies; an atrocity not perpetrated by the enemy, who is always regarded as capable of barbarities, but an atrocity committed by fresh-faced American "servicemen." * What god did they serve or for what cause did they murder in the name of country and patriotism? One of these young men, Paul Meadlo of Terre Haute, Indiana, recently interviewed on the CBS radio network said: "Why did I do it? Because I felt like I was ordered to do it, and it seemed like that at the time I felt like I was doing the right thing because, like I said, I lost buddies. I lost a damn good buddy, Bobby Wilson, and it was on my conscience. So after I done it, I felt good but later on that day it was gettin' to me." He felt he did the right thing: while women held babies in their arms and pleaded for mercy, he shot them down without a quiver of compassion. No innate sense of wrongness made him cry out in horror, throw down his rifle and risk a courtmartial rather than do this ghastly thing. So completely was he brainwashed by a system which deems it a right to kill for country, if so ordered by a commanding officer, even though the victims be women, children and babies! What is on trial, in reality, is not soldiers but a system.

A civilization which has bred these values is insane, sick at its very roots; for murder of men in war is held honorable, but murder in civilian life a dastardly crime punishable by death. How in God's name can the citizens born into such a set of values not be corrupted and rendered split personalities from their very birth?

Drug-taking increases daily in these United States and, no doubt, elsewhere in Europe also. Moves are afoot to legalize marijuana for, after all, the argument goes, it is no worse — if as bad — as tobacco or alcohol. Yet alcoholics abound, and cirrhosis of the liver is a fact, as is delirium tremens. Also, we now know tobacco causes lung cancer, throat cancer, and complicates heart disease. So, if marijuana is no worse than these, how bad is it? Much is not yet known about this drug and much needs to be known. After all, DDT was considered perfectly safe by the authorities for the last twenty years, but now has been banned at last. Yet it will take twenty more years to eradicate from the soil where it lies and in the tissues of all living species. So, in twenty more years

* From "Potpourri" (Medford Mail-Tribune, 11/26/69): "My son left Medford a good, clean-minded, God-fearing gentle man. When the Marines finished with him, he was hard, cynical and had lost most of his respect for his fellow men and for his church. I can scarcely believe how much he has been changed. I don't know him any more."

what else may have been discovered about marijuana?

To an "up tight" generation and a tense world, marijuana may seem a harmless enough relief. A permissive society certainly is indulging in it as blithely as in the commonplace "drugs" of alcohol and tobacco. Yet, when it loses its kicks, many people "turn on" to harder drugs such as LSD, heroin, and "speed." Coeds jump out of windows or into rivers; male students hang themselves or shoot their brains out; kids hallucinate and go berserk, and "turned on" users deliberately "turn on" or hook younger kids or unsuspecting adults and policemen. It's all a great joke, for anything goes, and who knows any more what is good and what is bad, since Cosmic Law is virtually unknown on this planet.

It is true, a being called Christ set forth certain values, as did Buddha, pertaining to Cosmic Law. But, after all, they lived a long time ago. It is OK to mouth platitudes and speak of being a Christian or a Christian country, but who could be unrealistic enough (or heroic enough) to live by laws such as "Thou shalt not kill," "Love thy neighbour as thyself," "Forgive thine enemy," "Turn the other cheek," and suchlike commands of Love? Why, one might get killed or die for an ideal instead of a country. One might even be a kind of martyr in the eyes of God. And who would be so foolish when modern psychology has persuaded us that most individuals fall within the category of either masochists or sadists, anyway: Kill or be killed; suffer or inflict suffering; live for today, for tomorrow we all might die - die by the bomb or worse.

Sex is another widely-used "drug" today, in this insane culture. It is not "the pill" which has brought about a lowering of moral standards. It was long overdue for something to stop this lemming-like race toward genocide by over-population (though, Lord knows, there has to be a better 100% method than the pill, which does have side effects and interferes with natural glandular functions). The lowering of moral standards, if brought about simply because fear of pregnancy is removed, becomes not a matter of ethics but of safety precautions.

Sex is being used as a drug in all cases where real love and understanding do not exist between the consenting parties. It is no less a drug when used in marriage to relieve boredom or evade real communication, than out of marriage where promiscuity of the most lustful nature flourishes and human beings engage in perversions of a nature no clean animal of the fields would indulge in. No piece of licensed paper makes sex legal nor the absence of it illegal. Cosmic Law of the Creator of all life is concerned not with Man's law but God-law. Love and understanding brings souls together and if they blend at a physical level this is a natural one-ness and flowing together. Yet if they adulterate themselves by engaging in physical unions where no higher one-ness exists (in or out of marriage), they do so at certain risk of becoming trapped in the lower densities. The word "love" has become synonymous with sex today, yet to use another person for instant sense-gratification is not love and produces a greater tension in the soul than it releases from the body. Yet the insanity of loveless sex and perverted sex flourishes. Homosexuality is fast increasing and, despite all modern arguments to the contrary, this is not a sign of mankind's emancipation from religious taboos on sex but a direct indication of confused polarities. An even worse sign of the times is the emergence of sex/Satan cults in many large cities. In these, drugs, sadism and sex are blended with black mass rituals and forces of the most evil nature thereby evoked. It is interesting to remember that these very rites took place prior to the sinking of Atlantis. Let us recall also that cultures, degenerate and steeped in evil practices, tend to vanish in abrupt and painful cataclysms of nature.

Further signs of the insanity of mankind on planet Earth lie in the experiments being conducted in the laboratories of many nations. Cross-breeding of animal and man is being attempted, and successfully, to the point of producing live two-month-old foetuses in a "host" rabbit or sheep "mother." What conceivably could be the purpose behind these experiments? Other printed material received at this Center suggests that attempts are being made to breed a race of sub-humans for purposes of slave labor. This process of creating these creatures has been described as "cloning." * The word has an oddly familiar ring to it. To breed sub-humans, half human, half machine: Androids, or half human, half animal, is to breed a soul-less creature not imbued with a life spark from the Creator. In this lies danger and insanity, for it is opposed to Cosmic Law, which decrees that all forms created contain divine essence. It is part of a vicious plot to lower the dignity of mankind and render all humans as expendable masses controlled by a few key materialists devoted only to a godless kingdom of might as right.

Stockpiling of H- and A-bombs has reached a point-of-no-return, in that sufficient bombs now exist to destroy the entire planet. Highly destructive chemical and bacteriological agents are also stockpiled. A good-sized earthquake, alone, in a strategic area, could release sufficient germs or chemicals to wipe out hundreds of thousands of people. Is this not insanity? Especially when we remember it is all readied "in the defense of peace." Such values, such reasoning, such a system is INSANE!

Is this an insane planet? Viewed from the vantage point of Cosmic Law and eternal values, YES! YES! YES! This IS an insane planet!

Yet, as the Brothers stated, "Beneath the degeneracy and destruction of your planet stir other forces revitalized, reborn, radiant in Light, awaiting the dawn of the new "Age of Reason." Only by recognizing the insanity of this planet may we change it to sanity. Only by knowing the depth of the chasm which yawns may we avoid it. The responsibility for this planet lies down here. Space people will help, but YOURS IS THE CHOICE, PEOPLE OF EARTH; LIGHT OR DARKNESS; LIFE ETERNAL OR DEATH.

* It has been stated many times by the Space Brothers that degenerate Atlantean scientists are once more incarnate at this time on Earth.

THE GOODLY COMPANY

Greetings our brothers, our sisters in Light. We transmit again from the XY-7 craft, located high in the atmosphere above this mountain locality.

Our transmission upon this occasion deals with cyclic patterns of, shall we say, Light descent, and the encompassing and falling of civilizations through the machinations of negatively-oriented individuals within those civilizations. Down through the ages of time in which planet Earth has existed as an entity, and in which civilizations, intelligence, life, have existed upon its surface, there has come into being (as in many other planets, Solar Systems, civilizations) a warfare between the forces of Light and the forces of Darkness.

This warfare has in some of your ancient manuscripts been described as the war between the Children of Light and the Children of the Left-Hand Path, or the Children of Darkness. Through many eons of time, of this planet Earth's history, this war has raged: Civilizations have risen, much grandeur has ensued, great cultures have shown themselves upon the face of the planet; a level of high intelligence has manifested in many of the populace, and it would have appeared that Earthman of that time would have risen to great heights and broken, once more (as he did in very ancient times) the barrier between time, space, and matter. Yet inevitably, at the time of the civilization's greatest height of glory, the seeds of its decadence have existed within it and, insidiously at first and then with ever-growing violence, have shown themselves, and have rotted away the foundations of that culture.

Down through the ages, from pre-Atlantis through the great culture of Atlantis the Golden, down through the many sinkings of that final continent, until not one trace remained above the surface of the waves, came the forces which we may term "evil" in that they were opposed to Cosmic Law and the Creator's design for his Creation. Down through the great civilizations of Egypt, Sumaria, the Chaldean, the Greek, even through the period known in your more recent history as the Renaissance, through each rising and stretching forth to the innate dignity of Man's soul, the other force ever pulled away and gnawed at the very vitals of its creation.

From time immemorial, teachers of Light came to planet Earth, incarnating from other planets, from other systems, even from other galaxies, and from the realms known to you as the non-physical or supernal realms of existence; and great companies of Light came into incarnation, carrying with them the banner of Truth and Love and Light. In all the simplicity of these teachings, and in all dedication to the One Creator and His Laws, these bands of Lighted ones came down into incarnation and to the darkness and degradation which they oftentimes found, and incarcerated themselves in flesh, not for their own experiencing – though much they did experience – but with a basic motive of service to the One Creator and His Creations, a motive of Love and Compassion.

At each time when the Great Ones, whom you speak of as Avatars came, came many lesser teachers, came many lighted souls, great in compassion and service. Often their tasks seemed small, yet they formed a chain, a pattern of strength, and each upheld the other; and as each company who we have termed "the goodly companies" went forth, they went in groups of souls who had worked and known each other from lifetime to lifetime. These souls are incarnate once more upon Planet Earth in many areas. These souls work for the upliftment of the planet and for the dawning of the Age of Reason at the ending of this cycle upon the planet. These souls, who have come into incarnation, have formed what is known as the Light-lines and the Light Centers throughout the planet. Some there are who have gone forth on lonely ways, and have been cut off from their fellows and have worked alone in the materialistic world. They have sought to bring that understanding which is theirs, a glimmer of truth which they have remembered, wherever they have found themselves, and in whatever capacity they have labored. Now, many of these who have worked alone join with the others in order that strength may be given to all, that the pattern or web of Light which is now woven around the planet may be vitalized to its highest capacity with the inflowing Light energies which come from the Central Sun.

So we see a pattern of civilizations and cultures which have risen and have fallen; we see those who went forth, who labored with much diligence and love, and who often returned to other realms and other planets, heavy in heart at the darkness which had overtaken their time; yet, knowing that the seed which they have sown for the future, and that which they held in trust, of the Light and its wisdom, lay in the secret places of the Earth, to be discovered in a time far distant when the ending of the cycle came and Light at last encompassed the planet.

Children of the Earth planet, Children of Light, who come with hearts and minds open to receive, know that the time is fast coming for the ending of the cycle of rise-and-fall of civilization and culture; that the time is now with us, ourselves and yourselves, for the meeting of many minds, both upon your own planet and from our planets. Know that although much evil manifests, and much which is of a degenerate, destructive pattern (particularly in your mis-applied scientific concepts) at this time, only that which is outworn will be destroyed and torn down in order to make way for the new. Even as we have taught, through many years with our contact with this "our own," there will be an outpouring of Light so tremendous that as you wrap yourselves in its radiance and its high-frequency vibration you become invulnerable, impervious to the onslaught of all things of shadowed intent.

It is true that much appears to be of degeneracy and destruction upon your planet, but beneath these things stir other forces, revitalized, reborn, radiant in Light, awaiting the dawn of the New Age of Reason. When the day dawns and the hour is set, then shall tremendous energies be given to those who have withstood the tests of fire; to those who have, through many incarnations, gone forth as the "goodly companies of Light" and have bled and have sorrowed for their beliefs, yet have stood fast through the tumult and turmoil of all things mortal and have held to the things which are immortal. So unto this day, which dawns upon the Earth planet and for the Earth planet and its Children of Light, we bid you lift up your hearts and your consciousness. We bid you await that dawn in dedication of purpose, in realization and knowing that upon this time there will not be a returning of the goodly company, leaving the shell of matter behind them, and the downfall of a civilization which they fought to save; but will be a triumphing of the forces of Light: There will be a triumph of the Children of Light, and there will be a reunion of all those who have known each other in many lifetimes, in many cycles, back unto the ages of antiquity. For that day which dawns is the cycle known upon your planet as a major cycle of change when, once again in our knowing, the Earth planet becomes a lighted star and no longer the hell-world of this System.

We leave you on this note of joy, of triumph, of the nearness, of the realization of all hopes; for civilizations have fallen yet, in the birth of this, a greater culture and more enduring civilization rises, borne on the wings of past suffering and defeat, yet triumphant at last in the Creator's Laws and the harmony of his Creation.

I, Sut-ko, transmit through the XY-7 Craft transmitter to you at this Center and bid you

Adonai vassu,

In the Light of Our Radiant One

(Via Telethought, 25 Oct 69, Solar Light Center; Guest Session; Channel: Marianne Francis)

Greetings our brothers, our sisters in Light. We transmit to you upon this session from the craft known as the XY-7 craft, and our discourse deals with the nature of Man on Planet Earth in these changing times. Your peoples, our brothers, our sisters, walk on a planet of much confusion. Your peoples, in this confusion, are surrounded as by a dense fog through which they neither see the reality of a light which is Eternal nor the reality of their own beings. What, therefore, is the nature of Man and his sojourn on Planet Earth? What is the purpose of change and, indeed, the purpose of existence as viewed through the eyes of Earthman?

We who view your planet from another vantage point, far out from the fog of Man's confusion, do so in a serenity of purpose and understanding of the laws of the Cosmos, and a great desire, our brothers, to be of service to the children of Earth. In the values which Earthman has "set such store upon," to use your phraseology, he has found himself trapped; for these values are those of the material universe bounded by the laws of a science which, itself, has no meaning.

In the ultimate, Man's destiny can only lie with the Creator of all things. Thus, it is for ultimate answers that Mankind on this planet Earth must seek, in the fog of his own confusions, until in consciousness he may pierce that fog and he may reach upward to an area where there is clarity of reason, of purpose, and of being. In the values which Earthman has set for himself, he has found competition between his fellows as the only means by which he marks his progress. Yet we have found that it is by cooperation with our fellows that we progress towards an ultimate destiny knowing, as we walk our pathways, a joy and a One-ness which Earthman does not possess. Our peoples are not as gods to be worshipped by Earthman; our peoples are simply men and women who have observed the laws of the One Creator and found therein a purpose and a challenge and a creativity which is of the god-consciousness. For even as the One who came to your planet and spoke of god-hood said, "Know ye not that ye are Gods?" In that sense our people are gods, but in no other, and in that sense Earthman is as a god, for the confusions of his pathways are only of his own making. As from that confusion he emerges to reason and to spiritual purpose, he will find the truth of that saying, "Know ye not that ye are Gods?"

An integrity of being, the dignity of Man's soul, the truth of his essence, and the love of his heart are things of more enduring value than the commercial products upon which your peoples spend so much of their time and their envying. If, my brothers, my sisters, Earthman (and by "Earthman" we speak of man or woman) finds within his own essence the reality of his infinite being, and of his purpose upon planet Earth, then he walks a pathway which is not that of his fellows, is not that of the masses, is not that which is understood. Yet more and more of your peoples seek such a pathway; and the loneliness felt by those on planet Earth who sought the things of the One Creator will be diminished as time passes now, and that which is real descends and engulfs and encompasses the planet called Earth.

We have said to you many times that the illusions and delusions and the darkness of this planet, which is of much reality and much concern to you and to us will nonetheless vanish as does mist before the light of the Sun. We can only repeat that the greater Light, which spreads now throughout the System from the Central Sun, is bringing about changes tremendous and awe-inspiring, not only affecting our planets but most certainly due to affect planet Earth, the "fallen one" of this System, soon due to be restored to its rightful position.

We, whom you know as Spacemen and Spacewomen, who fly in craft your peoples have called "Flying Saucers," Vimanas, Starcraft, we have observed for much time now the changes taking place on the surface of your planet. We have observed (within the lives of those with whom we have worked) the struggles against the tide of materialism and negativity, which they have sought to combat. Yet we say to you that the changes in which you already find yourselves engulfed in these Western civilizations, these changes accelerate and, viewed from our perspective, bring in a new culture, a new civilization and a New Age of Man. Yet, if it be that the darkness of mass-minded Man and the materialism of his concepts brings about much destruction, in the form of another war, on your surface, then we still will affirm that an Age of Light and Reason must ultimately dawn: That those Earthmen who have chosen the path of Love for their brothers instead of hate, of understanding instead of greed, of peace instead of warfare, shall (as the One who came to your planet said, two thousand years ago) "inherit the Earth."

It is not easy, when caught in the mesh of Earthman's confusion, to view with a clear perspective which lies beyond the centuries of your cultures, and extends itself beyond time and space. This has been required of those of our own who have incarnated on your planet as emissaries and connecting links between yourselves and ourselves. Once there came to your planet, two thousand years ago, an ambassador from the planes of Light. You called him your Christ. Now there comes to your planet, not a Christ, but servers of Light, many, many, who walk the surface of your planet even as did He, in service to their fellow Man. In time, upon your planet, will come about that which has been called the Christ- or Christed-Consciousness, as each man and woman awakens to the knowledge of the innate power of the God-spark within. Until that day dawns, our craft will be seen in your skies, will land and contact certain of your peoples, and will be in readiness for the need of a mass landing and a mass evacuation, if this be so ordained.

Our brothers, our sisters, we who speak with you upon this occasion (and I, Orlon, act as spokesman for my brothers) do so with a feeling of some solemnity, for war clouds gather on your horizons and much turbulence stirs beneath the surface of your planet. Our words reach not only to you who are in this room but beyond, to many others, and our message is clear: It says once more those words which you have heard many many times from my brother, Ha-ton; It says: "Earthman, come home! Come home from the emptiness of your existence to the reality of life in the Universe of One Creator. Come home to those of us who are your brothers and sisters, created by the One God, even as you. Come home to the Peace and the Joy of the Creator's Laws for His Creation."

Our brothers, our sisters, we leave with you the essence of our beings, the love and the understanding from our souls, for we are as One with you, even as you are as One with us, and with the Creator, our All-Knowing One.

Adonai vassu baragus.

THE OPENER OF THE DOOR

I bring you Death.
 Swiftly borne above the chills of night
 fast commences all you knew to come.
 I bring the prophecies
 of fast the unregenerates' wakenings, blessed in the light of none more blessed than thee---
 I bring intrepititude of Light, the thrust of darkened faces rising past the low and easing night
 Guardian of the vast enduring might of songs awakening: Death I bring!
 That thee may rise in power and light,
 That thee may know thy true, whole, and sacred call.
 When visions slumber on through life's inordinate cries--- from thee, from thine---, and none may know Its glance save those whose fearless eyes
 bequeath their own enraptured breakening:

Sun arise:
 Listen in the deepened hum
 of sound soft-awakening, Listen for the gently-swelling rainbow-hewn and richly pouring tides of Spirit risings
 Soul of thee,
 Come to me.
 (I comfort thee) I bring thee
 DEATH.

WORLD GRID SYSTEM

Captain Bruce Cathie of New Zealand has discovered, after many years of UFO research, that a grid system exists on planet Earth for operation of Spacecraft. In his book, "HARMONIC 33," Capt. Cathie explains how he deduced the existence of a world grid system which is a network of power points apparently energized from a Cosmic source.

Grid points occur at many places where stationary UFO have been sighted. Apparently the craft utilize power transmitted from equipment below the surface to travel over any part of our planet.

When Capt. Cathie and five friends, all pilots, sighted a UFO in 1952, this started his investigation of other UFO reports. Upon plotting the locations of his sightings and those of ten others in the New Zealand area, he noticed they formed a straight line from Kaipara Harbor to D'Urville Island. Even more interesting was the fact that in both cases small objects had been seen leaving the parent UFO and no natural phenomena could account for this. It appeared that the objects were controlled in some manner. Later deductions indicated they were probably involved in setting up power generating equipment at grid points.

Capt. Cathie later found that other UFO researchers, notably Aime Michel in France, had observed and written about the "Straight Line Mystery." Michel had studied many reports and observed that UFO often were seen hovering over points which averaged 54.43 Km apart in straight lines. Cathie attempted to correlate this with his data but found a discrepancy: His points were 55.5 Km apart! He finally deduced that this was due to the Earth's being pear-shaped and not a perfect sphere, thus a nautical mile is slightly longer in the southern hemisphere. He now had the key to the grid point system: They occurred at intervals of 30 nautical miles north/south but, instead of miles, the east/west spacing was at 30 minutes of arc (approximately 30 n.m.).

Using spherical geometry and much insight, Cathie made a model of the grid system on a globe and deduced that the grid system was made up of six major grid squares extending 3,600 nautical miles along "great circles" with the intervening spaces divided into segments. With the grid pattern once established, it was possible then to predict the locations of other UFO sightings.

An amazing confirmation of a grid point off the southwest coast of South America is reported in "Harmonic 33." On August 29, 1964, the American survey ship, Eltanin, was sweeping the seabed and taking submarine photographs. An unusual object was photographed at 59°08' S. latitude and 105° W. longitude. This object appeared metallic and was perfectly symmetrical in the shape of an aerial mounted upright on the sea bed. It had six main crossbars with knob-like ends and a smaller crossbar at the top. Each bar seemed to be set at an angle of 15° to each other.

This "aerial" was 13,500 feet below the ocean surface, so it is quite unlikely that any of our scientists placed it there! Upon checking his grid system, Cathie found this location was at a major grid point. Furthermore, the crossbar array tied in with the directions of the great circles forming the major squares in the grid pattern. The top crossbar appeared to cover the areas not covered by the major grid squares. By calculating the lines from this major grid point with its 180° counterpoint in Siberia, Cathie was able to coordinate his original grid plots in the New Zealand area with the world grid system. Further research led Cathie to the conclusion that actually the grid system had been constructed in ancient times but had been destroyed and was now being rebuilt. When his findings on the grid system were fairly complete, Capt. Cathie reported them to Wright Patterson Airfield in Ohio for evaluation. His report was returned marked "insufficient evidence."

Cathie noted that there was a relationship between grid points and magnetic vortexes such as those at Santa Cruz, N. M. and Gold Hill, Oregon (some 20 miles from the Solar Light Center).

Frequently UFO are seen at vortex areas. Also, UFO can maneuver in defiance of gravity and inertia, which implies they control gravity within and outside the craft. Hence, Cathie theorized that gravitational distortion at vortexes could be caused by a tilted antenna far beneath the surface. His calculations indicate they could be at a depth of from 30 to 36 nautical miles. He speculates that the grid system may have been constructed prior to the destruction of Atlantis and possibly tilted during cataclysms.

The grid system is closely aligned with the Earth's magnetic field. Cathie thinks the rebuilding of the system began in 1945 at the north polar region and is progressing southward. By 1965 the grid appeared to have been reconstructed to within 1,800 nautical miles of the South pole. The South Magnetic pole appears to be moving along a grid line and when it reaches a latitude of $75^{\circ} 181'$ south, the work will be complete.

THE CRYSTAL RECORDS

I who come from Space in the light of a thousand suns, burning in the galaxies of God, I, Clytron, speak with you once more. Much time of your reckonings has elapsed since last I spoke with you; many events have taken place on your planet, and in my consciousness also much has passed, is gone, and yet its essence remains with me. I come into your consciousness of this System once more to bring with me the news of an ancient race and of ancient days. This is strange, in that I speak of news, and of things ancient, long-forgotten in the memory of Earthman, yet once more I come for a purpose: to awaken in the minds of those who hear, the spark within, of the ancient, ancient memory of that which was known before. The consciousness of the souls who hear my words reach backward, backward, far back in time, to be aware of the things of which I speak.

I, Clytron, have visited and incarnated upon the Earth planet but a few times; yet there was an occasion, many millions of your years ago, when a race lived upon this planet great in wisdom, great in god-power, great in love - and this race took with them out into another dimension the secrets which they knew. Yet did they leave a record of these things for the coming time far, far distant from when they left, when once again into the consciousness of a few the understanding, the desire to reach forth, and to know the eternal heritage of god-man; the power to move freely in space into and above dimensions of the finite mind.

I, Clytron, recall that time when first was discovered the records of these ancient ones, and it was known that this time upon the Earth planet would dawn; and the few who gather in harmony of purpose, and with the blazing trail of truth foremost in their minds, these few who gather upon various areas of planet Earth will be enabled to discover the secrets of the ancient ones. The crystalline records are those of which I speak, the crystalline record archives in places of protection hidden throughout the planet, soon to be revealed, at the time of the opening of the Earth itself. And this opening of the Earth coincides with the opening of Man's consciousness, for even as the chakras within the body physical spin faster and light the whole being, so the chakras or centers sacred within the Earth spin faster and open the secrets of the past.

Beware lest you venture onto sacred ground until the consciousness is purified and at One with the harmony of the Creator's laws, for he who ventures onto hallowed ground, yet is not prepared in his own being, will be scorched in his etheric vehicle. Yet he who is so prepared and uplifted and purified will find his consciousness at One with such places, and doors will open within his consciousness, and doors will open within the Earth – and I veil the contents of my communication in symbology for those who have ears to understand.

The key, my friends of the Earth planet, lies within the individual. It does not lie with outer searchings upon mountains or valleys, in caves nor in crevasses, but it lies within the individual; for only as the consciousness manifests a certain vibratory rate of energy, or force field within that individual will the lock yield and the door open. The key is the individual and the level of consciousness attained. Your ways may be pursued in truth towards an objective and an ideal, yet ever before you shines the star of the Light within. A day dawns, and a door opens; a day dawns when mountains shake, and valleys become inland seas. A day dawns when mighty thunder echoes from the distant mountain tops, and the skies themselves split as if the very Earth were torn asunder. Such a day shall the Earth see, and the ancient race who left foresaw these things, and the news I bring of that past is your present, for in the cycle of time the two meet, and a circle is completed.

As yet, you have but only a glimmering of perception of what may be achieved, yet it is well that you perceive not the whole, for its radiant splendor could blind the vision of mortal man, until mortal man becomes God-man and there is a balance between arrogance and humility, a balance which must be achieved in the consciousness of mortal man before he can become God-man. There is a balance in all things, and in that balance is found the perfected being who expresses all facets and yet is One: integrated, conscious, aware, inviolate, a being of Light.

I come from Space, from the galaxies of God. I journey in time in a body of Light. I meet with your minds, your souls, your hearts, and I leave with you the essence of the midnight blue of Space. In its peace lies the answer to mortal man's questings. In the radiance of a thousand suns is the splendor of mortal man's future, when he becomes no longer mortal but immortal and sheds from himself the vestiges of corruption and puts on the light-armor which is incorruptible. My salutations, my light, my love, are One with you. I bid you farewell of this time-consciousness and I will visit with you again in the near future, for the time fast approaches when we all meet and know who each one is and where we met before.

REALITY AND ILLUSION

Greetings in Light, our brothers, our sisters at the Earth planet. We attune with you upon this particular occasion to communicate certain of our intent to you at this time. Material is reaching you from many sources and many levels on your planet at this time. Certain of this material is contradictory in nature and content, and is causing confusion in the minds of many who are studying at various levels of that which you have termed metaphysical, and related fields.

We must particularly commend to your minds that you attune consciously with the intuitive level, or soul level of being. As you do this consciously and continually, it will then become possible for you to analyze and, shall we say, sort out the content of material reaching you from many sources. You will be enabled, through the knowing of the soul within, to distinguish that which is true from that which is false, that which is valid, not only on your world scene, but valid in its application to yourselves and your present situations.

In order to clarify the concept of soul or intuitional knowing, for those of you who are not familiar with this concept, we would state that there are various levels of reception: there is that of the emotional-feeling self of reception; there is that, of course, of the physical-etheric self; and there is that most commonly known as the mental processes of logic, reason, and analysis. The soul-knowing, or intuitional level is a higher perception or higher knowing than any of the three mentioned previously. It is that level which knows because it knows: It does not know through processes of logic or reason. In its knowing it is of truth to the soul within; it is of truth to the Cosmic understanding or nature of Man.

We therefore commend to you most highly the exercise of your intuitional self and the attunement and knowledge of its nature. For by this means you may distinguish truth for yourself, irrespective of outer signs or outer "so-called" authorities on your world scene.

The confusion created within the mind of Earthman at this time is manifold for, as we stated in the beginning, many levels of communication are reaching you, not only certain communications coming from ourselves but from beings known as Masters, from discarnate beings, from incarnate authorities, and from those Teachers now incarnate upon the Earth scene. Many of these are also diverse in their opinions, methods, and ideals. The individual at this period of time must - and we repeat MUST, in order to maintain sanity and balance, learn to distinguish truth from falsehood; reality from illusion; and ONLY the individual can so learn and distinguish this for himself.

We have stated to our own channel, through the many years of her attunement with us, that to rely upon authorities outside of self is, in a sense, to use crutches, and only as the Divine At-One-Ment becomes manifest within the individual soul does balance, peace, and harmony manifest and the fulfilling nature of existence become possible, even in the midst of the confusion of your changing Earth scene.

Due to the very nature of the upheavals, both in consciousness and physically upon your Earth planet and plane, the quest for self-knowledge becomes mandatory, the necessity for balance becomes absolute, and the need to preserve a complete and utter sanity of being is one which must be pursued at all costs.

Many on your world scene are caught in the maelstrom of confusion and are tossed hither and thither until completely lost. They become part of the mass of humanity caught in the sea and turbulence of emotional thought-waves, rocked and torn until they lose all mooring and become cast far from the shore of their own Being.

Our brothers, our sisters, we cannot stress to you, here gathered, too strongly at this time, (while our channel is still with you and we can communicate directly) of the necessity for those things of which we have spoken. How you pursue these within your own lives is entirely for your individual free-will to decide.

We have reached you, we have spoken with you, we have made this attempt in order that you may prepare yourselves for the times which lie ahead and are already with you. Even as you attune with the soul-self, with intuitional levels of knowing, so you may know your placement at times of turmoil on the outer scene, you may know your base of operations, and you may attune with the high sources of inspiration for direction and guidance. Need we say more, our brothers, our sisters?

It is in the One Light of the Creator, Our Radiant One, that we come; in His service that we minister unto the Earth's children. I speak at this time from the Communication Craft and I receive directives from the XY-7 Command Craft. Our Light and the Light of Our Radiant One is with you.

Adonai vassu our brothers, our sisters in Light

CENTER NEWS

Thanksgiving is almost upon us as I write this column, and we have much to be thankful for, here on the mountain. The last year has seen many changes, both in my personal life and at the Center. An expansion of the program has begun, with new lecture contracts made this summer. On April 10 next, I lecture in Montreal at the Arena, which holds 6,000 people. A film-maker met in Seattle in October plans a film on "the Brothers," with material and ideas supplied from this Center.

September saw the bedroom at last begun, and foundations laid for a garage. Our construction crew of volunteer workers comprises Ralph, Carl, and Brad, and much appreciation goes to them for their hard work: Laurie has typed all transmissions to date; Holly cared for the pets and answered the phone during my absence in October; and our dedicated bookkeeper, Gene Lupo, came over from CTI on weekends and sent out the orders and kept the records. (Gene is now also assistant Science Director.) Our thanks, also, to Mareda for typing Starcraft and to Zady for the use of her typewriter. Also, many thanks to Clara Bonner for her generous donation and work in providing the beautiful new drapery for the Solar Light Retreat.

October brought the Fall lecture trip to British Columbia, the Art Finlay call-in show, Jack Wasserman, and that delightful interviewer on CBC, Bob Switzer. A lecture for Simon Fraser College was canceled due to a student strike and my own indisposition. A strange 48-hour "thing" laid me low and not 'till later did I discover many people were laid low also. The fact that the Red Chinese exploded an A-bomb a week or so earlier and fallout had drifted over Canada had, I think, a distinct connection. On reaching the microphone for my lecture, "God-Man or Animal Man" two days later, I discovered I sounded a little more ethereal than usual! Due to a shortage of time in setting up this trip and Canadian Thanksgiving, no lectures were arranged for Nanaimo, Chemainus or Victoria. Two lectures were given in Seattle for the Aquarian Foundation on the way up.

It would seem the "in" thing to do now, if you feel like protesting, at least for students, is to strip. One young man who attended my God-Man or Animal Man lecture at the Aquarian Foundation did just that! Since the incident was rather funny, I will give the dialogue and scene here:

SCENE 1: Miss Francis ends lecture and sits down. Male student in congregation rises and proceeds to strip off sweater and then steps calmly out of pants. Miss Francis, wondering what happens next, decides to "play it cool." The congregation just awakening to what has happened in their midst, taking its cue from Miss Francis, also decides to play it cool. Student sits in calm nudity surveying the scene. Miss Francis gazes airily elsewhere. Dick Kiltz arrives with the collection basket, smiling and shaking hands with the congregation. He reaches over and shakes nude one's hand. Miss Francis wonders abstractly if nude one will offer pants for collection plate, but he doesn't. Silence. Every one is playing it cool.

SCENE 11: Question session begins, at which nude one rises and proceeds to don clothing once more. Miss Francis, eyeing him with coy amusement, says sweetly, "We are sorry you were so warm." "Oh, no! Not at all," responds the student, now clothed once more, "you were talking about God-Man or Animal Man and I just felt the need to affirm my total being!" "Well, you did," replies Miss Francis, and hastens to explain to the dissenting one that by God-Man the Space Brothers do not mean a denial of the physical self but an expression of all selves from the highest to the densest (physical) in balance. Student nods agreeably and incident ends quietly. Miss Francis decides there is a lot to be said for "keeping one's cool" and makes a strong mental note to further clarify this concept of God-Man or Animal Man for next group of students in case they all decide on a strip tease!

A pleasant few days with Dorothy and Jack Squance in Victoria. On to Orcas and the Outlook Inn for a brief weekend with Louis and his group, then home via Seattle and Portland; a brief stint on the Clark-on-KING radio show in Seattle; and another meeting with Robert James Brown - film-maker and creator of the startlingly new concept of opera: with computerized light patterns projected on the stage and singers, his production of Turandot raised a storm in the Seattle Opera House.

Back at base, the first three weeks proved exhausting. Still tired and depleted from the odd virus "thing," it seemed as if every time I turned around people were at the front door. Students arrived in droves from Crater High School; two special Guest Sessions arranged to supply information to these questing minds. A beautiful transmission, received on October 25, is published in this issue.

Building proceeded apace. When money was totally gone, a miracle took place: an anonymous cashier's check arrived on a Saturday when I was feeling so depressed and low I was wondering how I would make it through the day. (Yes! I'm very human, too.) The check was the largest single amount received at the Center since its inception. So amazing was this miracle that I burst into tears of relief and thankfulness.

The printer is now paid for the last issue; the current issue out in time for Christmas. Running water, which had been well-nigh unavailable since my return, due to a leaking tank and a malfunctioning pump, has been restored - pump has been mended and I feel civilized and myself once more. The bedroom is nearly finished and the kitchen due for modest re-modeling. The final payment on one adjoining lot was made and some money remains for emergencies, which in itself is a miracle!

Another such donation and the much-needed jeep could be obtained and lumber purchased for the small Lab/office building. $10,000 would buy the entire mountain, incidentally, for the Solar Light Center. A decision has been made to re-name our headquarters the Solar Light Retreat. Basically, we are a "retreat," functioning far from the madd'ing crowd. "Center" suggests we are downtown and open 24 hours a day with a staff so, for the sake of accuracy, we are now a "retreat."

I plan to teach a course this Winter for the inner group now in residence in the houses up here. Later, this course will be taught as a Seminar in various areas. Also, at last, I intend working on my blank verse play while the frost crisps outside and visitors are few and far between. The next few months may bring another miracle of a different kind. For this is the time of Manifestation at last.

In His Light,

Marianne Francis

ANNOUNCEMENTS

EASTERN TOUR: Dr. Marianne Francis is scheduled to lecture next Spring in Montreal, Canada, at the Arena (seats 6,000). The date is tentatively set for April 10, 1970. Other lectures may be arranged in neighboring areas for this trip. Write us if you can help organize meetings.

GUEST SESSIONS: Regular Guest Channelling sessions normally held at the Solar Light Retreat the fourth Saturday of the month are discontinued until March, due to adverse weather and bad roads.

VISITORS: Those interested in visiting the Solar Light Retreat are advised to telephone well ahead (Code 503: 855-1956) to find out about road conditions, etc. Spring is the best time of year, as wild flowers are in bloom and everything is green. Water is still in short supply during Summer and Fall until a deep well is dug.

APPOINTMENTS to see Miss Francis may be made by telephone or in writing. Write well ahead of your proposed visit, as Miss Francis is quite busy and cannot always receive unannounced visitors.

THANKS go to all those who have sent in donations and pledges, as well as to those who have given so generously of their time in working on various projects. (See Center News.)
