More Things in Heaven and Earth.

By ROBERT BLATCHFORD.

This book is a temperate answer to the usual arguments against Spiritualism. The Author, a life-long materialist, explains why, through personal experience and the careful study of the experiences of others, he came to abandon his materialist belief and to accept the theory of human survival of death. He analyses closely the evidence with which he was personally confronted, and leaves his readers to draw their own conclusions

STEAD: THE MAN.

PERSONAL REMINISCENCES BY EDITH K. HARPER.

The scope of the present volume is strictly limited. The Author, whilst she was personally acquainted with Mr. W. T. Stead for upwards of twenty years, was on terms of intimate friendship and association with him during the last few years of his life. It is of these years that the present volume treats in especial, and the records given do not touch on Mr. Stead's public life so much as on his everyday interests and activities. In particular his investigations in the field of Psychical Research are fully and exhaustively dealt with. The portrait presented is that of a man of forceful originality and chivalrous self-devotion, whose two ruling passions were an ardent love for his fellow-men and an intense realisation of the constant presence of a spiritual world as real and as warmly pulsing with life as the world of flesh and blood around us.
